The judgment set aside a prior decision and directed a rehearing of Section 9 petitions from DLF Limited and Chinsha Property Private Limited regarding Joyous Housing Ltd. Twenty Five South Realty Ltd. retains its 75% stake in Joyous Housing until the petitions are resolved. DLF and Chinsha Property are allowed to file applications to secure their interests related to Hubtown Ltd., which holds the remaining 25% stake. No views on the merits of the case were expressed, and the matter is remanded for fresh consideration.

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The dismissal of the Union Bank of India's suit for non-prosecution was deemed disproportionate to the default. UNION OF INDIA VS M/S BPT INFRA PROJECTS PVT. LTD [FAO (COMM)-110/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The lower court's dismissal of the Union of India's petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was set aside. Although the petition initially had technical defects, these were ultimately remedied, and the absence of a statement of truth was not a fatal flaw. The need to allow a party to challenge an arbitral award on merits was emphasized, and the Union of India was permitted to proceed with the petition, excluding an additional ground related to arbitrator's fees.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S PNSC INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-63/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Union of India (UOI) was dismissed due to the failure to file a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 within the three-month limitation period. The delay was not condoned as the UOI exhibited lethargy in pursuing the petition even after receiving the certified copy from the district court. The argument to seek an extension from the district court was rejected, as the return of the petition was considered a "fresh filing," which required justification for the delay beyond the 30-day period. The decision to dismiss the UOI's Section 34 petition was upheld.

UOI THROUGH CPWD & ORS. VS M/S RAJ KUMAR TYAGI [FAO(OS) (COMM)-183/2024]

The appellants failed to demonstrate due diligence, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

A prima facie case of patent infringement was established, with the balance of convenience and potential irreparable injury supporting the interim injunction. DEFSYS SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-431/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The suspension of business dealings with Defsys Solutions Private Limited was deemed arbitrary and discriminatory, relying solely on an ongoing investigation without any charges filed against the company. While Agusta Westland had its suspension lifted after being charge-sheeted, Defsys was treated differently despite not being named as an accused. The government's suspension power under the Ministry of Defence guidelines cannot be exercised independently of the specified grounds. The suspension order, show cause notice, and related order against Defsys were set aside, allowing the government to suspend or ban Defsys if credible evidence of involvement in the Agusta Westland case emerges, provided due process is followed.

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant/defendant must return the earnest money of Rs. 30,00,000 to the respondent/plaintiff, as this amount was undisputedly received. The first tranche of Rs. 15,00,000 was incorrectly classified as "earnest money" and should be recognized as part payment towards the sale consideration. The responsibility for the stamp duty and registration charges of Rs. 4,56,248 does not fall on the appellant/defendant, since the respondent/plaintiff can seek a refund from the authorities.

COL. SANDEEP SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7541/2023]

He had already participated in all stages of the 2021 selection process, and since he achieved better merit in that examination, the UPSC's order to cancel his candidature was set aside. The respondents were directed to issue him an offer of appointment based on his 2021 merit.

CROMPTON GREAVES CONSUMER ELECTRICALS LIMITED VS V GUARD INDUSTRIES LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-153/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The plaintiff's registered trademark "PEBBLE" is prima facie similar to the defendant's "CROMPTON PEBBLE," with "PEBBLE" being the dominant part of both marks. The plaintiff demonstrated that its "PEBBLE" trademark has a reputation in India, and the defendant's use of a similar mark takes unfair advantage of this reputation. Although the goods were not found to be similar, an interim injunction was granted in favor of the plaintiff, as the similarity of marks and the plaintiff's mark reputation were prima facie satisfied.

DARSHAN KAUR VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [LPA-689/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The demand for misuse charges by the respondents against the appellant is not barred by limitation, as the central government has 30 years to make such a claim. The property in question is used solely for office purposes by the Embassy of Lebanon, disqualifying the appellant from the exemption under Clause (i) of Office Order No. 29/83. However, Office Order No. 23/1976 applies, allowing for reduced misuse charges and a limitation to 1% if the lessee evicts the defaulting tenant. The respondents must recompute the misuse charges in accordance with Clauses 7 and 8 of Office Order No. 23/1976 and refund any excess amounts paid.

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The mobilization advance provided by NBCC to Nangia was classified as a loan requiring repayment. Nangia's utilization of the mobilization advance for project work was deemed plausible based on earlier findings. The claim for a refund of the recovered mobilization advance was rejected. However, the interest granted to NBCC on the recovered advance for the period before 2001, when the advance was repaid to the Principal Employer, was set aside. The overall decision largely upheld the Arbitral Tribunal's award with the noted modification on interest.

M/S SKYLINE ENGINEERING CONTRACTS (INDIA) PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4023/2020]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The service tax owed by the petitioner was quantified under the Sabka Vishwas (Legacy Dispute Resolution) Scheme, 2019, before the June 30, 2019 deadline. A notice was issued by the department for dues recovery, reflecting this quantification, and the subsequent show cause notice was based on information provided by the petitioner. It was established that quantification under the scheme does not necessitate final determination by the department; an admission of liability in written form suffices. The department must consider the petitioner's declaration under the scheme and allow for a hearing prior to issuing a final order.

M/S. GANESH GOURI INDUSTRIES AND ORS VS R. C. PLASTO TANKS AND PIPES PVT. LTD. [FAO (COMM)-54/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The suit filed by Plasto against Ganesh Gouri for trademark infringement is maintainable, based on a fresh cause of action despite a prior settled suit. The Delhi High Court has territorial jurisdiction as Plasto maintains a virtual presence in the area through e-commerce and local dealers. The label used by Ganesh Gouri is not considered deceptively similar to Plasto's registered trademark when assessed as a whole, leading to the conclusion that the interim injunction against Ganesh Gouri is set aside.

MR BISWAJEET SINGH AND ORS VS MR BIKRAMJIT SINGH (SINCE DECEASED THR LRS) [EFA(OS)-3/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The final decree dated 01.10.2007, mandating the sale of the disputed property through public auction, is binding and cannot be modified or reinterpreted. The executing authority must adhere strictly to the decree's explicit terms. Efforts to partition the property based on metes and bounds or municipal regulation changes would constitute an unauthorized modification. The role of the executing authority is limited to enforcing the decree as written without reevaluating the property's partition capability.

NATCO PHARMA LIMITED VS NOVARTIS AG AND ANR [FAO(OS) (COMM)-178/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Natco raised a credible challenge to the validity of Novartis' patent IN'161 for Eltrombopag bis (monoethanolamine) (ELT-O), arguing that it is not a novel invention under Section 3(d) of the Patents Act since it is merely a new form of the previously patented substance ELT covered in patent IN'176, which expired before Natco's product launch. The claim that enhanced bioavailability or solubility equates to "enhanced therapeutic efficacy" was rejected, as Novartis did not prove that ELT-O displays significantly different therapeutic efficacy compared to ELT. Additionally, a distinction between "broad coverage" and "protected coverage" of a patent claim was negated, indicating no gap should exist between coverage and disclosure in a patent specification. Natco's challenge under Sections 64(1)(a) and 64(1)(e) succeeded since ELT-O was previously patented under IN'176. The interim injunction previously granted was set aside, as the term of IN'161 has expired necessitating no further orders.

NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATION IN MEDICAL SCIENCES VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1298/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The National Board of Examination in Medical Sciences qualifies as an educational institution under the 2017 Notification, exempting its NEET examination services and the granting of DNB and FNB degrees from GST. However, services related to screening tests and accreditation fees are not exempt and are subject to GST. The challenge to the circular was rejected as it aligns with the 2017 Notification, which includes Central and State Boards as educational institutions for examination purposes retroactively. Orders rejecting the refund claims were set aside, and the matter was remanded for reconsideration.

PACE SETTERS BUSINESS SOLUTIONS PVT. LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7742/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The validity of notifications and statutory provisions for levying service tax and GST on a reverse charge basis for services from recovery agents to banking and financial institutions is upheld. The Central Government possesses legislative competence for this scheme. The denial of input tax credit to service providers for reverse charge taxable supplies is not arbitrary or discriminatory, as this right can be limited by statute. The classification between reverse charge and forward charge taxable services is deemed a valid legislative exercise with a rational connection to the law's objective.

PRASAR BHARTI VS DISH TV INDIA LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-267/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The order granting an interim injunction against Prasar Bharti's use of the mark "DD Free Dish" was set aside. The term "Dish" is considered generic and cannot be exclusively claimed by Dish TV India Ltd. The mark "DD Free Dish" includes the well-known trade name "DD," distinguishing it sufficiently and reducing the likelihood of public confusion. Findings made by the Single Judge were deemed inconsistent with the parties' pleadings and violated principles of natural justice. Observations made are preliminary and do not influence the upcoming trial regarding the merits of the case. Therefore, the use of "DD Free Dish" does not prima facie infringe on the trademark "Dish TV."

R. C. PLASTO TANKS AND PIPES PVT. LTD. VS GANESH GOURI INDUSTRIES & ANR. [RFA(OS)(IPD)-1/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by R.C. Plasto Tanks and Pipes Pvt. Ltd. for the removal of the copyright registration of "Gauri Aqua Plast" was dismissed. The respondent's artwork had sufficient differentiating elements despite some similarities with the appellant's work, not constituting colorable imitation or substantial reproduction. The Copyright Act protects expressions of ideas, not the ideas themselves, and the appellant did not prove original creation or ownership of the respondent's copyrighted work. The dismissal of the challenge to the copyright registration was upheld.

RAJ BALA & ORS VS STATE (NCT) OF DELHI & ANR [FAO(OS)-110/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The probate granted to Jai Singh for the Will of Inder Singh has been set aside due to several suspicious circumstances surrounding its execution. Discrepancies in signatures, Jai Singh's significant involvement, exclusion of natural heirs, delays in disclosing the Will, and inconsistencies in Jai Singh's testimony regarding the bequeathed land contributed to the conclusion that the Will was not genuinely executed by the deceased.

SANGEETA JESWANI & ORS VS ORIENTAL BANK OF COMMERCE & ORS [W.P.(C)-910/2016]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The writ petition was dismissed as the petitioners' claim as bona fide purchasers was invalid due to the property being mortgaged to the respondent bank prior to their purchase. The argument regarding forged mortgage documents was rejected based on insufficient evidence. Orders from the Debts Recovery Tribunal and Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal in favor of the bank were upheld, allowing the bank to recover its dues through the sale of the property.

SHAILENDRA PATHAK VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [LPA-501/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The intra-court appeal by Shailendra Pathak was dismissed regarding his non-selection for the Assistant Registrar position under the Orthopedically Handicapped (OH) category. Both Pathak and the selected respondent applied under a separate advertisement for Persons with Disabilities (PwD) vacancies. The appellant's claims were deemed unmerited as vacancies under different categories like OBC and UR could not accommodate him. Principles of horizontal and vertical reservations were referenced, but details on the adjustment mechanism for qualifying PwD candidates were not necessary for this case.

SHRI ANIL KHANDELWAL VS THE REGISTRAR UNIVERSITY OF DELHI [RFA(COMM)-43/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appellant's suit was partly maintainable due to the existence of an arbitration agreement not preventing a civil suit. Claims, except for reimbursement of testing charges, were barred by limitation as they arose before or upon project completion and were not claimed within the contractually specified time. The suit was dismissed as barred by limitation.

SMT. SUDHA DEWAN VS M/S. JMD BUILDCON [RFA(OS)(COMM)-7/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by Smt. Sudha Dewan was dismissed regarding the judgment in favor of M/s. JMD Buildcon. The commercial suit was deemed maintainable as the respondent was a registered partnership firm. Time was not considered essential in the Sale Agreement due to the appellant's acceptance of delayed performance and lack of insistence on timely payments. Additionally, the appellant could not forfeit the earnest money of R.S. 1.93 crore, having failed to prove any loss from the non-conclusion of the Sale Agreement.

ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES VS SANJAY GUPTA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16214/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

A mere approval from the competent authority to extend a suspension without a formal, communicated order is insufficient to legally extend the suspension under the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules. The extension order issued on 1 March 2023 was beyond the 90-day limit from the original suspension order, which expired on 25 February 2023. Thus, the suspension could not be legally extended past that date. The writ petition by the All India Institute of Medical Sciences was dismissed.

AMIT KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1522/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

Amit Kumar's writ petition was accepted, overturning the Central Administrative Tribunal's dismissal of his application. The case centered on an alleged mismatch in the petitioner's handwriting/signature during the selection process. The Tribunal relied on forensic expert opinion but further examination by the Central Forensic Science Laboratory confirmed that the petitioner's thumb impression matched his specimen. Thumb impression comparison was deemed more accurate than handwriting analysis. The Tribunal's order was quashed, and the respondent was instructed to appoint Amit Kumar to the notified post, providing consequential benefits but excluding back wages.

ASSOCIATION OF QUALIFIED AND TRAINED TECHNLOGISTS, AIIMS AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-11527/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

Petitioners appointed as Laboratory Technicians at AIIMS in 1997 on a "purely temporary basis" are entitled to benefits under the Old Pension Scheme (OPS) as per Rule 13 of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules. Their appointments were explicitly stated as temporary, and they continued in this role until regularization in 2004. The interpretation of Rule 13 is to be expansive, allowing the petitioners to claim the benefits despite the temporary nature of their appointments.

AVNIT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4869/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondents were required to operate the waitlist to fill remaining vacancies as per the circular, given that the petitioner approached the Tribunal within the specified one-year period. The respondents were directed to appoint the petitioner, a waitlisted candidate, to the post of Postman/Mail Guard within four weeks, effective from the date other candidates were appointed.

GAYA PRASAD VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9082/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The need to implead those impacted by the petitions was deemed essential, making the application invalid. The writ petition was dismissed without grounds for interference.

GOVT OF NCT DELHI AND ORS VS ARUN SINGH BHATTI [W.P.(C)-1358/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Administrative Tribunal incorrectly deemed the respondent's BSc degree in Information Technology equivalent to the required qualification of graduation in Computer Science for a Trained Graduate Teacher position. Determining equivalence of educational qualifications is a technical matter for authorities like the University Grants Commission and the All India Council of Technical Education. The Tribunal effectively altered the eligibility criteria by including a qualification not specified in the advertisement or Recruitment Rules.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS DHARAMVEER SINGH AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16242/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside and remanded for a fresh decision due to its inadequate treatment of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi's objections regarding the reliance on prior rulings that granted contractual employees the same salary and benefits as regular employees. The Tribunal was instructed to provide a reasoned order addressing the competing arguments and explaining the relevance of the precedents in light of the objections. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the dispute.

NEM SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10927/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, previously promoted to Loco Pilot (Goods) and later medically decategorized, is entitled to a pay scale of Rs. 9300-34800 with grade pay of Rs. 4200, despite being assigned to an alternative post. Rule 1303 of the Indian Railway Establishment Manual supports pay protection for medically decategorized employees without the need for prior duties in the higher pay scale. The employee was recommended for promotion in 2007, but his recommendation was delayed due to pending disciplinary proceedings. The decision mandates his placement in the seniority list based on the 2007 panel, consistent with others from the recruitment process.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS., VS ANIL THOMAS [W.P.(C)-16089/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to set aside the termination of the respondent's services as an MT Driver. The termination was based on allegations of habitual intoxication and unauthorized absenteeism, which required adherence to principles of natural justice and a formal inquiry. The absence of such an inquiry rendered the termination order stigmatic and punitive, leading to a direction for the respondent's reinstatement within 6 weeks. Authorities were permitted to proceed against the respondent for the alleged misconduct following applicable rules and laws.

The appeal by Abdul Wahid Alias Saddam challenging the rejection of his bail application under Section 43-D(5) of the Unlawful Activities Prevention Act (UAPA) was dismissed. Evidence, including witness statements and intercepted communications, indicated reasonable grounds to believe the appellant's involvement in a conspiracy to circulate high-quality counterfeit Indian currency. This activity impacts the country's economic security and qualifies as a "terrorist act" under the UAPA. The application of the "twin-prong test" revealed the appellant did not meet the high threshold for bail, leading to the conclusion that the serious nature of the offenses and the ongoing trial warranted the maintenance of the trial court's decision.

ALOK KALIA VS CHARU AGRAWAL [FAO(OS)-48/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The issue of the maintainability of an appeal against a Single Judge's order in a Chamber Appeal under the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018 has been referred to a larger bench due to conflicting interpretations between two prior Division Bench judgments. The disagreement centers on whether the Single Judge's order is appellate in nature, thus subject to the restrictions of Section 100A of the Code of Civil Procedure, or if it functions as a review or re-examination, which would exempt it from being classified as an 'appeal'.

AMARDEEP SINGH NARANG VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-848/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The appeal by victim Amit Vashisht led to the cancellation of interim bail for accused Bharat Bhushan Kataria in an IED blast case. The trial court's reliance on an outdated medical report for bail extension was deemed unjustified; recent reports from AIIMS and Tihar Jail Hospital indicated that treatment could continue during confinement. A pattern of the accused seeking hospital admission before court dates suggested an attempt to evade custody. The accused must surrender by 5th August 2024 but may be referred to a private hospital for emergencies at his own expense.

The state's failure to regularly update the criminal dossier system violates the fundamental rights of the accused under Articles 21, 19, and 14 of the Constitution. An outdated criminal dossier can lead to defamatory implications for an acquitted individual. Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A batch of seven appeals filed by Jagtar Singh Johal challenging bail rejections in cases by the National Investigation Agency was dismissed. The re-filing of the appeals occurred after the allowed 30-day period, treated as a fresh filing due to delays in curing defects. There is ongoing examination by the Supreme Court regarding the interpretation of the 90-day period under Section 21(5) of the NIA Act. Evidence against Johal indicated reasonable grounds to believe the allegations were prima facie true. He faces charges under Section 120B IPC and Sections 17, 18, 40 of the UAPA, but the evidence presented, mainly an audio recording of a conversation with alleged LeT operative Shaikh Abdul Naeem, was deemed insufficient to deny bail under Section 43D(5) of the UAPA. Several co-accused have been discharged, and the lengthy incarceration of over 4 years, with only 9 out of 221 witnesses examined, contributed to the decision. Bail was granted upon furnishing a personal bond and adherence to specified conditions.

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Prathiba M. Singh

CCI proceedings cannot continue following the settlement of a design infringement dispute between JCB India Limited and Bull Machines Pvt. Ltd. Judges: Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The date of birth on Ms. X's Aadhaar card, indicating she is approximately 20 years old, is prioritized over the conflicting date in school records due to the Aadhaar card being a government-issued document with greater evidentiary value. The school records lacked primary evidence to substantiate their date of birth, and a significant discrepancy of 3.5 years raised doubts about their credibility. The burden of proof regarding the girl's minority rested with her mother, which was not established. Ms. X, recognized as an adult, expressed her desire to remain with Mr. Shivank Mishra, her claimed spouse. Consequently, the habeas corpus petition was disposed of, allowing Ms. X to accompany Mr. Mishra.

The deceased did not identify the appellant to the police despite familiarity, raising doubts about his involvement. Testimonies from prosecution witnesses contained contradictions regarding the appellant's presence and role. The prosecution lacked additional documentary evidence as required by the Juvenile Justice Act. As a result, the benefit of doubt was granted to the accused, and the trial court's conclusion that the relationship was consensual was deemed plausible.

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The High Court Single Judge incorrectly ruled the respondent entitled to promotion as Inspector General while addressing a contempt petition. A contempt court's role is limited to determining whether contempt occurred and imposing punishment, without making substantive decisions on the merits of disputes. The earlier Division Bench noted that the Single Judge could not decide the promotion entitlement as there was no specific directive in the prior court order. However, the Single Judge did issue a positive finding regarding the respondent's entitlement to promotion. The matter involved multiple litigation rounds focusing on the effective date of a minor penalty on the respondent and differing opinions on promotion entitlement.

The order cancelling the petitioner's candidature for the MTS (NT) examination was found flawed due to the reliance on an uncorroborated CFSL handwriting report, which is considered weak evidence for proving impersonation. Additionally, the petitioner was not afforded an opportunity to address the allegations, violating principles of natural justice, particularly since the cancellation affected a select group of candidates. As a result, the cancellation was set aside, and the respondents were instructed to evaluate the petitioner's candidature based on merit, with benefits of seniority and service, excluding back wages.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS VS SANTOSH PAL MEENA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-14471/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Administrative Tribunal should not have entertained the respondent's Original Application challenging the disciplinary proceedings, as the respondent had already appealed the removal order. The direction to keep the removal order in abeyance was contrary to Supreme Court decisions. The Tribunal's order was never implemented due to a prior stay, leading to a directive for the petitioners to decide the respondent's appeal within 4 weeks in accordance with law and natural justice. The portion of the Tribunal's order that suspended the removal order was quashed, making the interim stay order permanent.

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Administrative Tribunal must reconsider its interim order in the case of Vipin Kumar against the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) due to two identified errors: the Tribunal inaccurately claimed that ICMR conceded the availability of other employment projects for the respondent and mistakenly stated that ICMR did not dispute the unavailability of the respondent's position after 14 years of service. The Tribunal is required to address these points after hearing from both parties, and the contempt petition filed by the respondent will be on hold until a new decision is made.

The examination was incorrectly limited to procedural concerns rather than substantive issues. There is a directive for a fresh examination of the matter, considering all submissions related to flaws in the inquiry and lack of evidence. Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan (NYKS) must provide an opportunity for respondents to be heard before cancelling their candidature for the District Youth Coordinator position due to allegations of unfair means in the online examination. The necessity for a hearing is implicit given the serious consequences of such a decision, even without a statutory requirement. The case involving 21 allegedly delinquent candidates does not fall under exceptions for large-scale unfair practices. The appointment of 17 other candidates was not valid since they were not part of the proceedings. NYKS is directed to appoint the respondents within 4 weeks, while the IBPS is allowed to investigate the allegations after hearing the respondents.

RAHUL MAVAI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-17440/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

A writ petition was dismissed due to a six-year delay, deemed unjustifiable. Emphasis was placed on the principle that belated petitioners should not receive extraordinary relief, with the view that delay undermines equity. Shifting blame for the delay to counsel was disapproved, as petitioners retain responsibility for tracking their matters. The dismissal was based solely on unexplained delay and laches, without addressing the merits of the case.

RANANJAY PRATAP SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [LPA-1203/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appellant's appeal was dismissed, affirming the decision to require the appellant to file an application under Section 14(1) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 before the Central Administrative Tribunal. The Tribunal has the authority to address allegations of victimization by a superior officer regarding a junior officer's service conditions and can exercise powers similar to a writ court, including challenging the validity of subordinate legislation. Direct access to the High Court by the appellant would contradict the Supreme Court's judgment in L Chandra Kumar.

SAI's counsel had undertaken to comply with the Central Administrative Tribunal's directions to recognize certain respondents as "Initial Constituents" under the 2022 Recruitment Rules, and the extension granted for compliance aligned with this undertaking. The applications were deemed misconceived, and allowing them would lead to judicial chaos. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the pending contempt proceedings regarding SAI's compliance with the order.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ANR. VS MUKUL CHOUDHARY [W.P.(C)-17331/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal for re-measuring Mukul Choudhary's height by digital method in a government hospital was upheld. This decision was based on a previous case noting discrepancies in physical efficiency test results, justifying a fresh examination.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS VS DARPAN SHARMA [W.P.(C)-3761/2018]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The decision to grant relief to Darpan Sharma, who participated in the CGLE 2015, was upheld based on the precedent set in a similar case. Sharma's only error was not darkening the bubbles for his test form number on the OMR sheet, which was printed. This technical mistake was deemed insufficient to deny consideration for public employment, leading to the dismissal of the SSC's petition.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS RAVI [W.P.(C)-15686/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Administrative Tribunal's judgment was deemed unsatisfactory for not adequately discussing the facts or implications of the Veena v The Secretary Ministry of Home Affairs case. A directive was issued to the Staff Selection Commission to refer the matter to a Review Medical Board to reassess Ravi's medical condition of Dextrocardia regarding its impact on his duties as a Constable (Executive). The Review Medical Board must include at least one specialist in the relevant field. The previous judgment was quashed, and the matter was remanded for a fresh examination without a final decision on Ravi's fitness.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION THROUGH ITS CHAIRMAN & ORS. VS RAVINA MEENA [W.P.(C)-13877/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The impugned order has been quashed and remanded for de novo adjudication due to a lack of reference to the individual facts of the case. The principles from previous judgments in Aman Singh and Amit Goswami will guide the further proceedings. Parties are required to appear before the Tribunal on 9 December 2024.

THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF DELHI AND ORS VS VINAY KUMAR SIDH [LPA-1090/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The benefits of the Payment of Gratuity (Amendment) Act, 2009 were extended to Vinay Kumar Sidh, a part-time vocational teacher, aligning with the precedent set in the Janardan Sharma case. There was no distinction made between the cases, and the appellants, including the Lieutenant Governor of Delhi, must pay the same interest and costs awarded to Sharma.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR VS CENTRAL PWD ENGINEERS ASSOCIATION & ORS [W.P.(C)-2671/2017]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar
The Central Administrative Tribunal's order was invalidated due to the reliance on a non-traceable notification from May 26, 1977. Confirmation from the Directorate of Publications and a prior determination by another High Court questioned the authenticity of the notification. The matter was sent back to the Tribunal for a fresh decision without considering the disputed notification or related judgments, with no opinion expressed on the respondents' entitlement to relief independent of the notification.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS JAI BHAGWAN [W.P.(C)-8541/2020]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar
The decision to recover alleged overpayments from a retiring government employee was set aside, as the individual was set to retire within a month and a half of the recovery order. The recovery was deemed impermissible in law, aligning with previous judgments that prevent such actions against employees due to retire within a year. The aspect of re-fixation of the employee's pay was not addressed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SYED AHMED [W.P.(C)-17442/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar
The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) directing the petitioners to consider counting Syed Ahmed's ad-hoc service from January 1987 towards his pensionable service was upheld. The CAT instructed that the matter be considered without imposing a specific outcome. The decision emphasized that petitioners should make an independent assessment without influence from the CAT's comments. Additionally, a request was made for matters to be decided on merits instead of being remanded to executive authorities, as such remands can unnecessarily prolong litigation.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SHASHANK SHARMA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10691/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar
The interim order from the Tribunal in a contempt petition was set aside due to errors in addressing the merits of the promotion decision, which exceeded the limits of a contempt proceeding. The petitioners properly evaluated the respondents' eligibility for promotion to the Intelligence Officer position according to the Recruitment Rules. The Tribunal incorrectly issued substantive directions and granted relief in the contempt proceedings.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SHRI SUKHVINDER [W.P.(C)-17365/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar
The dismissal of Jagmohan and Sukhvinder from service was quashed due to flawed inquiries, including the failure to provide requested documents that violated principles of natural justice. The reliance on a CFSL handwriting comparison report as the sole evidence was deemed insufficient to prove the charges. Consequently, the petitions by the Union of India were dismissed, reinstating Jagmohan and Sukhvinder with benefits.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. VS CHANDRA PAL SINGH [W.P.(C)-15998/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar
The respondent facing disciplinary proceedings at the time of superannuation is entitled only to provisional pension under relevant rules, not regular pension. Acknowledgment of entitlement to provisional pension renders a show cause notice for discontinuing regular pension as a mere formality. The decision to pay the respondent provisional pension is upheld.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. VS CHANDRA PAL SINGH [W.P.(C)-15998/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

Chandra Pal Singh was entitled only to a provisional pension under Rule 8(3) of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 2021, due to pending disciplinary proceedings at the time of his superannuation. A chargesheet had been issued before his retirement, and although an inquiry report found the charges unproven, the disciplinary authority's disagreement note kept the proceedings ongoing. The argument that a prior Vigilance Clearance Certificate indicated the termination of the proceedings was found to hold no legal basis. As no final order was made by the disciplinary authority before retirement, only a provisional pension was applicable.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE GENERAL MANAGER & ORS. VS RAKESH KUMAR [W.P.(C)-15157/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Tribunal's decision to quash the cancellation of the respondent's candidature for a Group D post was upheld. The cancellation was based on "excessive cutting, erasing or using fluid" on the OMR sheet, but the respondent only erased one answer choice for a single question, which did not violate instructions. The respondent's answer sheet was evaluated as evidenced by his participation in subsequent physical and medical tests. Consequently, the cancellation of the candidature was deemed unjustified, leading to a directive for the respondent's appointment to a suitable Group D position.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE GENERAL MANAGER & ORS. VS SHRI DEEP CHANDRA TIWARI [W.P.(C)-14959/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to refund the amount deducted from the respondent's death-cum-retirement gratuity and to pay arrears for DCRG, leave encashment, and full pension with interest was upheld. The recovery from the respondent was deemed contrary to established principles regarding the prohibition of recovering alleged overpayments from retired employees or when recovery orders are issued beyond five years. However, the petitioners (Railways) were permitted to re-fix the respondent's pay scale prospectively, with no retrospective adjustments allowed.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT & ANR. VS RAM ROOP MEENA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13655/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld, with no valid grounds found for the government to recover LTC amounts from the respondents. The justification that tickets were not purchased from authorized agents was deemed insufficient, especially as there was no allegation that the respondents did not undertake the journeys. New allegations of fraud or forgery made by the government were not accepted to supplement the original recovery orders.

UNION OF INDIA VS VIJAY KUMAR SAINI [W.P.(C)-11044/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to set aside the order for recovery of excess payment of increments from a CPWD junior engineer was upheld. Recovery was deemed impermissible based on the Rafiq Masih case principles, as the engineer was set to retire within five months of the recovery order. The Tribunal's order quashing the recovery decision was upheld, and any amount recovered is to be refunded within eight weeks. The matter of re-fixation of the engineer's pay was not addressed.

UNION OF INDIA VS VIMAL MEHRA [W.P.(C)-8466/2019]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent IPS officer, senior in the empanelment list, is entitled to the apex pay scale of R.S. 80,000 per month, instead of the lower HAG+ scale she received. The government's appointment of a junior officer to the higher pay scale was deemed arbitrary and without justification. Earlier judgments in similar cases, which have been upheld, serve as binding precedents. Linked writ petitions from the Union of India challenging the Tribunal's orders in favor of the senior IPS officers were dismissed.

UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION VS KALPANA VED [W.P.(C)-8896/2020]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent's failure to submit the application online, as required, was deemed fatal to her case. The adherence to the prescribed procedure was emphasized, noting that alternative methods were not permitted. Despite the respondent facing genuine difficulties, sympathy was not a consideration. Consequently, the order allowing her provisional participation in the LDCE was quashed, and her original application was dismissed.

ARUN KUMAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4955/2018]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's order was dismissed. The Tribunal had granted the petitioner the liberty to seek remedies against the UPSC's order dated July 31, 2017, which considered the petitioner's inclusion in the Select List as provisional due to an issued charge sheet prior to the notification. The petitioner was advised to challenge the UPSC's order before the appropriate forum. The writ petition and any pending application were dismissed, allowing the petitioner to pursue available legal remedies against the UPSC's order.

GAJENDER SINGH DRALL AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-320/2018]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The notification under Section 11 of the RFCTLARR Act, 2013, invoking Section 10A(1)(e) of the RFCTLARR (Amendment) Second Ordinance, 2015, was deemed valid and did not lapse upon the expiry of the Ordinance. The acquisition proceedings were confirmed to be in public interest for establishing Waste Water Treatment Plants, as directed by the National Green Tribunal. Objections from petitioners were considered by the competent authority, with no violations of the Act's provisions or malafides in the process. The acquisition adhered to the Master Plan of Delhi and Zonal Plans; claims regarding the DDA's Land Pooling Policy were found to lack merit. Writ petitions were dismissed, and interim stay orders were vacated.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS VS VIRENDER [W.P.(C)-12696/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The termination order against the respondent was deemed stigmatic and punitive, linked to alleged misconduct and an FIR. The requirement of following natural justice principles for the termination was acknowledged. The order was modified to reinstate the respondent within 6 weeks, allowing the petitioners to start disciplinary proceedings. A distinction was made between motive and the foundation for termination, noting that the termination could not be classified as simple due to its basis in alleged misconduct. The ongoing FIR was not seen as a barrier to initiating disciplinary actions, as the standards of proof differ between criminal cases and departmental inquiries.

HARI NARAYAN MEENA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3345/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The main legal issue involved the petitioner, as General Manager of the Government Opium and Alkaloid Works, allegedly claiming travelling allowance (TA) twice for a single journey. An Inquiry Officer partially proved the charge of double claiming TA, indicating the petitioner did not exercise due diligence. However, a separate charge regarding communication with the Chief Controller of Factories was not proved. The competent authority was directed to consider the petitioner's representation regarding the Inquiry Officer's report and issue a final order within 8 weeks. The merits of quashing the charge sheet were not addressed, as the matter had progressed to the stage of the Inquiry Officer's report.

JASBIR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-2823/2016]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Medical reimbursement claims for all three admissions of a petitioner's mother to a non-empanelled private hospital are allowed due to emergency situations. The right to health is deemed integral to the right to life, necessitating full reimbursement, even for treatment at non-empanelled facilities. An earlier decision that limited reimbursement for the first admission and denied claims for the others was set aside. The authorities must reimburse the medical claims, less any amounts already paid, with additional simple interest at 7% per annum.

JITENDRA KUMAR OJHA VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-3409/2019]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The order for the compulsory retirement of Jitendra Kumar Ojha from the Research & Analysis Service was upheld based on his service record, which was thoroughly reviewed by the committee. The grounds for retirement, including doubts about integrity and effectiveness, were found applicable. Arguments regarding the timeline of the review and claims of malafide action or violation of natural justice principles were dismissed. The scope for challenging such decisions was deemed limited, as they could only be overturned if proven arbitrary or influenced by improper motives. The writ petition was ultimately dismissed without costs.

KUMAR RAJEEV VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-3032/2019]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to impose penalties on the petitioner was upheld. The charge of providing false information to obtain a CGHS card for his mother was proven. The modified penalty of withholding future promotion for 5 years was deemed justified. The petitioner had accepted this modified penalty before filing a revision petition, which was subsequently dismissed. A committee's recommendation to reduce the penalty was not supported by the respondents, and the imposed penalty by the Disciplinary Authority could not be substituted. The writ petition was dismissed due to a lack of merit.

LAXMI NARAIN VS GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-2155/2016]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition filed by Laxmi Narain was dismissed, affirming that his appointment as an ECG Technician in 2000 was on a contractual basis and did not constitute regular employment for pensionary benefits. An earlier judgment that set aside the termination of his services did not imply entitlement to such benefits. The petitioner also did not exercise options under the relevant pension rules to count previous military service, disqualifying him from claiming these benefits. Furthermore, reliance on other rules was deemed misplaced and inapplicable. Therefore, the petitioner is not entitled to pensionary benefits upon superannuation from contractual re-employment.

R.S. MISRA VS UOI & ORS THROUGH THE COMMISSIONER KENDRIYA VADYALAYA SANGTHAN [W.P.(C)-7869/2007]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan (KVS) was justified in denying the petitioner's promotion to Vice Principal due to an 'Average' performance rating from 1987-1988, which did not meet the required 'Good' benchmark. The petitioner's ACRs for that period were not communicated, prompting KVS to reconsider the petitioner's representation against adverse remarks and their effect on the review DPC, with the possibility of promotion if found eligible under the 'next below rule.' Claims for Selection Grade and pension/gratuity were dismissed as previously decided against the petitioner by higher authorities. Contempt petitions were closed, confirming KVS's compliance with prior directives regarding the petitioner's promotion and compassionate allowance claims. The overall focus centered on the validity of KVS's actions based on service records.

RAVISH RATHI & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8560/2022]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The review petition against the dismissal of a writ petition was dismissed. The extension of tenure for existing contractual employees until April 2024 was justified due to the increased workload from the G20 summit and additional immigration control points. No new contractual appointments were made, and the actions were deemed to be in the public interest, leading to the dismissal of the review petition.

S.S. DAS VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-8398/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Premature retirement of the petitioner officer under FR 56(j) was deemed valid based on a review of his entire service record, including adverse remarks and a confidential note that raised questions about his integrity and conduct. The Review Committee, led by the Secretary of the concerned Ministry and including the Chief Vigilance Officer, complied with procedural requirements. Approval from the Appointments Committee of the Cabinet was unnecessary for retirement. Claims of bias due to the involvement of the same officers in multiple committees and arguments regarding the dismissal of past adverse records following promotion were rejected. The entire service record, including previous adverse comments, is permissible for consideration in compulsory retirement decisions.

SARITA MISHRA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2939/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The review petition by Sarita Mishra was dismissed regarding her request for compassionate appointment for her son following her husband's death after superannuation. It was noted that a family member's entitlement to such appointment is questionable in this scenario, despite the husband's 100% disability. Additionally, the petitioner had already received Rs. 9 lakhs and was receiving a family pension, suggesting that compassionate appointments should prioritize more deserving cases where families are left without means. The review petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

SH K R MANN RETIRED AS LIBRARIAN & ORS. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10855/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioners' claims for Senior Scale and Selection Grade pay scales were rejected due to their failure to complete the mandatory 8-week Orientation/Induction Training and Refresher Course as required by AICTE regulations. The authorities correctly denied the petitioners' requests because they did not meet the stipulated criteria. The fact that junior employees received benefits without meeting the requirements was not a valid basis for the petitioners to claim similar rights. The decision to reject the claims was upheld.

SHRI SUMIT SAPRA VS SMT AKANSHA AHUJA SAPRA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-358/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The appeal filed by the husband was dismissed based on the determination that the Michigan court is the appropriate jurisdiction for both parties, who have resided there for an extended period and where their child was born. The proceedings initiated by the wife in the USA were not deemed oppressive or vexatious, and the husband would not face grave injustice if an anti-suit injunction was not granted. The ruling was supported by precedents indicating that foreign courts are presumed to exercise their jurisdiction correctly, allowing both parties to present evidence there. The case referenced by the husband was distinguished due to differing facts and the stage of the proceedings.

SUNIL KUMAR AND ORS VS UOI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-99/2016]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Central Administrative Tribunal dismissed the Original Application of former Group-D employees of Delhi Police, who were upgraded to Multi-Tasking Staff (MTS) in Group-C posts. The Tribunal noted that these employees did not receive the same rigorous training as "Followers" in Central Para-Military Forces (CPMFs), who qualified for a higher Grade Pay of Rs. 2,000. Pay scale classification is primarily an executive function, and the reasoning for denying the higher pay to the petitioners was deemed justified due to their non-combatized status. The case did not present any error necessitating interference in the established pay structure. The writ petition was dismissed, affirming the Tribunal's decision.

SURENDER KUMAR AND OTHERS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND OTHERS [REVIEW PET.-46/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The review petition by Vijay Dagar was dismissed, confirming that age relaxation is applicable as a "one-time measure" under government policy memos from June and July 2019 for contractual employees. The argument against the legality of this relaxation was rejected, with the policy memos deemed valid. Previous cases cited by the petitioner were considered inapplicable, as the matter pertains solely to the government's own policy application.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS MITHLESH TYAGI [W.P.(C)-8244/2020]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The respondent's ad-hoc appointment as a Hindi Pradhyapak was over the age limit specified in the Recruitment Rules and cannot be considered qualifying service for retirement and pension benefits. The engagement was not substantive nor a temporary/officiating appointment leading to a substantive posting, as required by the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972. Therefore, the order to treat her ad-hoc service from 1983 to 2008 as qualifying service was deemed legally unsustainable.

AKHIL PAHUJA AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6366/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The Railways were required to maintain a standby/waiting list for the Assistant Station Master (ASM) position, in accordance with the Centralized Employment Notice, except for the Commercial Apprentice and Traffic Apprentice posts. The decision to not maintain a standby list for ASM, justified by an increase in grade pay, lacked a valid rationale. Changing the rules after the selection process began was deemed impermissible, resulting in the directive to maintain a standby list for eligible ASM candidates.

ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES VS PARIYARATH RAMESH MENON [W.P.(C)-16376/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The writ petition filed by the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) was dismissed regarding an interim order from the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) that permitted Pariyarath Ramesh Menon to participate in the selection process for a Professor position. The decision indicated that purely interlocutory orders from the CAT should not be challenged through writ petitions. The CAT's order was deemed discretionary and not prejudicial to the petitioner. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed, allowing all of the petitioner's contentions, including limitation issues, to be addressed in the original application before the CAT.

ASHOK HOTEL VS TRILOKI [LPA-1160/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The appeal by Ashok Hotel was dismissed due to a 626-day delay in filing, with no sustainable arguments presented for condonation. The compensation awarded to workman Triloki was enhanced from R.S. 1 lakh to R.S. 10 lakhs, and Ashok Hotel was directed to pay the amount within one week, or face an additional R.S. 50,000 in costs.

BHIM RAO YADAV AND ANR VS CHAIRMAN-CUM-MANAGING DIRECTOR AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3473/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The orders of the Tribunal were set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh consideration of the petitioners' claim for overtime allowance. The Tribunal had not addressed the merits of the claim, only permitting the petitioners to apply for compensatory rests. A decision on the matter is required within four weeks after hearing both sides, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the claim. This is a single judgment without separate or dissenting opinions.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS HARISH CHHIKARA [W.P.(C)-5846/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The dismissal of a police constable from service was quashed due to the use of the same witnesses in both the departmental proceedings and the criminal case, where the constable was acquitted. There was no additional evidence to justify the dismissal under Rule 12(e) of the Delhi Police (Punishment & Appeal) Rules, 1980, following the acquittal. A related decision in a prior case further supported this conclusion, leading to the dismissal of the challenge by the Commissioner of Police.

DINESH KUMAR GURJAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-5395/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The Central Administrative Tribunal canceled the petitioner's candidature for a Group D post based on a comparison of signatures and handwriting. This analysis was deemed inappropriate without a handwriting expert's input. A Forensic Science Laboratory report confirmed that the petitioner's thumb impressions matched, establishing his identity. Consequently, the Tribunal's order was quashed, and the petitioner was to be appointed to the post based on his performance, with all consequential benefits except back wages.

DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION VS GOPAL KRISHNA GUPTA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2244/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The respondent, a retired government servant, is entitled to regular pension from his superannuation date of 31 December 2015 until the disciplinary charge-sheet issuance on 19 December 2017. Following the start of disciplinary proceedings, only a provisional pension is applicable as per Rule 9(4) of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules. The earlier judgment granting full regular pension to the respondent has been modified accordingly.

RAVI KUMAR VS DEPARTMENT OF SPACE AND ORS. [REVIEW PET.-402/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

The review petition was dismissed due to the absence of any apparent errors in the record. The petitioner misrepresented the judgment by selectively quoting sentences while disregarding the overall analysis. The alleged errors did not affect the outcome, which affirmed that the respondent scored the highest marks and was rightfully selected. The petitioner's attempts to intimidate were noted, resulting in an order to deposit costs of Rs. 10,000 with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee.

SURAJ PRAKASH SHARMA VS DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-513/2017]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

Petitioners employed as drivers at the Delhi Transport Corporation (DTC) but later reassigned due to disabilities are entitled to continue in service until age 60, in line with a previous Supreme Court decision. The requirement for annual medical examinations for drivers does not apply to those not performing driving duties. The prior judgment from the Central Administrative Tribunal was quashed, resulting in the petitioners receiving continued service along with arrears of salary and pension.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS MRS SAROJ DEVI [W.P.(C)-9256/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia

Mrs. Saroj Devi, widow of U.N. Jha, is entitled to Jha's pensionary benefits under the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972. Jha was established as an employee of the Ministry of Defence, making him eligible for these benefits despite exclusions related to diplomatic services. The release of Jha's pensionary benefits along with interest has been mandated.

DELHI POLICE & ORS. VS KRISHAN KUMAR [W.P.(C)-16815/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain

The acquittal of Krishan Kumar was not based on "technical grounds" as defined by Rule 12(a) of the Delhi Police (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1980. Precedents clarified that an acquittal on merits due to the prosecution's failure to prove charges beyond reasonable doubt differs from an acquittal based on technicalities. Consequently, the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to reinstate Krishan Kumar in service with all consequential benefits was upheld, as his acquittal did not fall under the exception in Rule 12(a).

DELHI POLICE AND ANR VS MAHESH SINGH [W.P.(C)-9683/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain

The 2% reservation for ex-Servicemen under the Tripura Recruitment Rules must be calculated on the total number of vacancies (44), not just the unreserved vacancies (23). When the 2% calculation results in a fraction, it should be rounded up to the next whole number. The respondent, the only ex-Serviceman who applied and demonstrated merit, is entitled to appointment against the one vacancy reserved for ex-Servicemen.

DSSSB AND ANR. VS MOHAN LAL CHHEDWAL [W.P.(C)-17117/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain

The DSSSB's rejection of the respondent's candidature for the Trained Graduate Teacher (Natural Science) position due to the late submission of the e-dossier was found to be illegal. The DSSSB did not notify the respondent about his shortlisting via SMS or email as required, leading to his unawareness of the deadline. Consequently, it was determined that he could not be held accountable for the late submission. The decision also directed the DSSSB to accept the e-dossier in hard copy and consider the respondent's eligibility for appointment.

PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ORS. VS S K JAIN [LPA-1198/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain

The judgment of the learned Single Judge was upheld, concluding that while a charge sheet does not require a list of witnesses, oral evidence must support documentary evidence, especially if its reliability is disputed. The Inquiry Officer and Disciplinary Authority erred by relying solely on documentary evidence without witness testimony. Consequently, the punishment of removal from service was deemed unsustainable, leading to the dismissal of the bank's appeal without costs.

RAJ BAHADUR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9724/2017]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal's order for a review DPC was complied with, resulting in the petitioner being promoted to Income Tax Officer (ITO) effective from 1990. The petitioner's entitlement to further promotion as Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax (ACIT) was not examined, adhering to the principle that the High Court should not act as a court of first instance in service matters. The petitioner was allowed to raise this issue in a new application before the Tribunal, without the limitation defense from the respondents.

SUNITA DEVI VS SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12216/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's OA 1270/2019, seeking seniority and notional increments as a Primary Teacher, was not barred by res judicata. Issues of seniority and increments were not previously raised or decided in OA 2691/2012, allowing the petitioner to claim these benefits. The impugned order was set aside and the matter was remanded for fresh consideration without influence from prior adverse observations on the merits of the claim.

DELHI POLICE VS MUKESH CHAND YADAV [W.P.(C)-2811/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondent, dismissed from service, is not entitled to leave encashment under Rule 9(1) of the CCS (Leave) Rules. The petitioner, Delhi Police, demonstrated that the GPF was released to the respondent immediately upon application, negating any interest for delayed payment. The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal awarding leave encashment and interest on GPF to the respondent has been quashed and set aside.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SUNIL KUMAR RATHEE [W.P.(C)-14303/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The issue is addressed by a previous judgment in DSSSB v Dinesh Mahawar, which dismissed a similar petition. The Supreme Court's ruling in Bir Singh v Delhi Jal Board establishes that the pan-India reservation rule applies in the National Capital Territory of Delhi. Previous division bench judgments in Deepak Kumar v District & Sessions Judge and DSSSB v Vishnu Kumar Badetia support this position. As a result, the writ petition by the DSSSB against the Central Administrative Tribunal's order, favoring non-resident Scheduled Caste candidates seeking reservation benefits for Municipal Corporation of Delhi recruitment, is dismissed.

These seniority lists were based on the overruled judgment in N.R. Parmar. Seniority lists between direct recruits and promotees established after the K. The protection granted in Meghachandra is applicable only to seniority lists finalized before its ruling, not to those prepared subsequently.

LOKPAL SINGH NEGI VS GNCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-8914/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner's case warranted different consideration than the case of Mr. R.K. Sabharwal relied upon by the Central Administrative Tribunal. The use of "current duty charge" in the office order did not disqualify the petitioner from receiving the higher pay of Principal. The lack of a Ph.D. qualification cited by the respondents is no longer valid based on a recent Supreme Court judgment. The Tribunal's judgment regarding the petitioner's Original Application was quashed and remanded for fresh consideration according to natural justice principles.

MAHANAGAR TELEPHONE NIGAM LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-1052/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Limited (MTNL) to grant out-of-turn promotion to Pawan Kumar from July 2006 due to his medal-winning performances in wrestling. MTNL's denial of the promotion, despite the tribunal's orders to reconsider, lacked justification and was contrary to recruitment rules acknowledging Kumar's entitlement. The decision to dismiss MTNL's writ petition emphasized that further litigation should not prolong the matter unnecessarily.

MANISH SAINI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11856/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner had been acquitted in a criminal case, with the judgment highlighting the prosecution's lack of credible evidence. This acquittal was classified as a "clean acquittal." The respondent was entitled to the advice of the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) before any penalty was imposed, in line with the precedent established in S.N. Narula v. UOI. Despite differing opinions in prior decisions regarding the necessity of providing UPSC advice to the charged officer, the earlier ruling in S.N. Narula remains binding. The writ petition from the Ministry of Railways was dismissed.

The perks were granted based on MMTC's own decisions and circulars, with no fault attributed to the executives. MMTC's appeal was dismissed.

MS ANJU CHAWLA & ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10847/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to set aside the seniority list dated November 3, 2020, which prioritized direct recruits over promoted employees, was upheld. The seniority list was inconsistent with the law established in K. Meghachandra Singh v Ningam Siro, which mandates that seniority is based on the date of joining the post, regardless of recruitment route. The argument for applying a saving clause was dismissed due to the absence of a prior seniority list. Additionally, the DOPT Office Memorandum allowing seniority based on the overruled Parmar judgment was deemed legally erroneous.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS BIJENDER SINGH [W.P.(C)-7668/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi's writ petition against an order requiring payment of 12% per annum interest on delayed retirement benefits was dismissed. Financial difficulties claimed by the MCD did not justify the delay, emphasizing the necessity for timely disbursement for the well-being of retirees. The lack of supporting evidence for the MCD's financial crisis led to the rejection of their arguments, and the interest rate set by the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld.

PARIKSHIT GREWAL & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-971/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) has exclusive jurisdiction over disputes related to recruitment for civil posts under the Union, as outlined in Section 14 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. The Tribunal's order was quashed, and the matter was remanded for consideration on merits, including the assessment of arrears payable to the petitioner if the claim is deemed meritorious.

SH. R.S. MEENA VS NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5756/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner, assigned to hold the current duty charge of Deputy Commissioner (DC), is not entitled to the DC pay scale as per Fundamental Rule 49(v) because he was not formally appointed to the higher post. The appointment order specified that he would continue to receive the pay of his substantive position as Assistant Deputy Commissioner (ADC) without entitlement to DC pay or benefits. The contention regarding Fundamental Rule 49(i) was rejected, as there was no formal appointment to full duties of the DC. The matter is remanded to the Central Administrative Tribunal to consider the petitioner's claim for DC pay scale from 15 September 2006, which was not addressed previously.

SHIV PRAKASH KATIYAR VS JAWAHAR LAL UNIVERSITY & ORS. [LPA-984/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The order issued by the single judge, which merely provided notice on the appellant's application, does not qualify as a "judgment" under Clause 10 of the Letters Patent and is not appealable via a Letters Patent Appeal (LPA). The examination of legal principles revealed that the order does not resolve any issues or determine the rights of the parties, leading to the conclusion that it is not a "judgment." The LPA was dismissed as not maintainable.

SHRI RAMVIR GIRI AND ORS. VS SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1987/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The remand emphasizes the need for an expedited review of the case, which involves multiple petitioners.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS AMAN SINGH [W.P.(C)-13821/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal's directive for a "re-review medical examination" of candidates deemed unfit for police constable recruitment was deemed unjustified in several instances. Guidelines for judicial review of medical board decisions highlighted the need for deference to expert opinions but allowed for intervention in cases of procedural breaches, significant discrepancies in medical reports, absence of relevant specialists, and neglect of specialist opinions. Following these principles, fresh medical examinations were upheld for some candidates, while the directive was overturned for others, based on the specifics of each case.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION AND ANR VS SHUBHAM PAL ANR ORS [LPA-985/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The experts' suggestion of "OKEY" as the correct answer was deemed incorrect, with "YOKE" identified as the only meaningful word. Although recruitment matters typically fall under the Central Administrative Tribunal's jurisdiction, the case's developments necessitated consideration of the writ petition. A split verdict was issued, but both judges agreed on the outcome and referred the jurisdiction issue to a larger bench.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION AND ORS VS DEEPAK KUMAR [W.P.(C)-14801/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Tribunal required Deepak Kumar to be re-examined by a dermatologist to evaluate his fitness for the Constable position in the Delhi Police, specifically regarding the absence of tattoos on the right forearm as mandated by the recruitment advertisement. The challenge to this order was considered unjustified, as the dermatologist's examination was deemed a reasonable measure to verify compliance with recruitment rules. Previous findings in the Deepak Yadav case, where no visible tattoo was noted, were to be considered during the examination.

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The adverse remark in the appellant's Annual Confidential Report (ACR) for 2018-2019 was deemed arbitrary and unsupported by the rest of the ACR. The appellant met or exceeded all targets for that year, as acknowledged by the Reporting Officer. The prior upholding of a performance rating of "3" was disagreed with, leading to the quashing of the adverse remark and the rating. A direction was issued to re-assess the appellant's performance for 2018-2019 and assign a new rating. The challenge to the "4" rating for 1996-1997 was not disturbed due to being barred by delay.

SUNNY KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14458/2024]

This case involved a joint petition from the respondents.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR VS SHRI RK NIM [W.P.(C)-6000/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Disciplinary proceedings against Shri R.K. Nim were invalidated due to the charge-sheet not being approved by the Minister of Science and Technology, as required by Rule 14(3) of the CCS (CCA) Rules. Although a proposal to initiate proceedings was submitted, the specific charge-sheet lacked necessary approval. Consequently, the entire disciplinary process from the charge-sheet stage was quashed.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS MAHESH KUMAR BHARTI [W.P.(C)-5663/2017]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The writ petition filed by the Union of India and others was dismissed due to a lack of sustainable cause of action. Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

An ST candidate was entitled to receive one additional grace mark in Paper-II of the Limited Departmental Competitive Examination, consistent with an order from the Department of Posts that allowed for grace marks up to one mark less than the marks obtained. The Department's policy of awarding a uniform 10 grace marks in Paper-IV to all candidates, regardless of their actual scores, was deemed inconsistent with its own regulations. The Department was directed to reconsider the ST candidate for the position of Assistant Accounts Officer upon awarding the additional grace mark.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH GENERAL MANAGER & ANR. VS ARUN KUMAR KULDEEP AGED ABOUT 27 YEARS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7941/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Railways' rejection of the respondents' candidature for ASM and Goods Guard positions lacked justification as they were not subjected to a fresh medical examination. The relevant notification mandated a fresh medical check, and relying on prior fitness from previous positions was inappropriate. Additionally, a subsequent "clarificatory" notification issued after the rejection decision was deemed irrelevant.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS UNDER SECRETARY VS SARTHAK SINGH & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14557/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Sarthak Singh is entitled to be treated as an OBC (Non-Creamy Layer) candidate for the Central Civil Services Examination 2022, as his father, a Class III officer, entered Class I service as a Principal at the age of 43. This situation aligns with established precedent, allowing OBC (NCL) benefits under similar circumstances. The argument that Singh's education post his father's promotion disqualifies him from these benefits was rejected.

UNION OF INDIA VS ANAND MOHAN SHARAN & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5271/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The disciplinary authority could remit the matter to the Inquiry Officer for a fresh inquiry after obtaining the Central Vigilance Commission's advice, even after providing the inquiry report to the charged officer. However, the reasons given for remitting the matter were vague and did not comply with Rule 9(1) of the All India Services (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1969, lacking evidence of any inherent lacuna or defect. The sequence of events also raised doubts about the bona fides of the decision. The Union of India's petition challenging the order was dismissed.

VARUN ANEJA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15416/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to deny the petitioner's request for interim relief lacked sufficient reasoning. The assessment focused on the nature of the petitioner's duties instead of evaluating whether he met the essential qualification of "two years' experience in Administration or Accounts" for the Administrative Officer position. The matter is remanded for de novo consideration, with a new hearing scheduled for 7 November 2024. The question of the petitioner's entitlement to interim relief remains for the Tribunal to decide.

Smt. Usha Devi is entitled to compassionate allowance under Rule 41 of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972. Disciplinary proceedings against C.S. Malik, a Senior Deputy Financial Adviser in CSIR, were validly instituted despite the charge sheet being issued on his superannuation date. The argument that he remained a Group C officer for disciplinary matters was rejected, rendering the entire process invalid.

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A batch of petitions challenged the orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding medical examinations for recruitment in disciplined forces. The principles for judicial review were established, emphasizing that review should focus on the medical examination rather than the candidate's overall suitability. Interference is permitted in limited circumstances, such as procedural breaches, discrepancies in findings, lack of specialist opinion, or ignoring specialist advice. The matter was referred for re-examination in cases with discrepancies or lack of specialist input, while upholding rejections where medical board decisions aligned with established principles. The petitioner's late husband was allotted a membership and flat in the respondent society in 1994, but the membership was not finalized. Following his death in 2021, the membership transferred to the petitioner. A complaint from another resident alleged that the late husband owned more properties than permitted, prompting the RCS to seek an explanation from the petitioner. Although the RCS approved the late husband's membership on October 4, 2022, it did not communicate this to the petitioner. The termination clause allowing FCI to end the contract with 30 days' notice for administrative reasons was deemed part of the agreed terms, which the appellant accepted. A contract clause cannot be invalidated simply because it is unfavorable to one party. If the termination is found invalid, the only available relief would be compensation for the notice period, not reinstatement of the contract.

ANJU BALA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. & ORS. [LPA-1051/2024]

Judges: Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the dismissal of an application to vacate an ex parte interim order was deemed misconceived. The National Commission for Scheduled Castes (NCSC) lacks the authority to "investigate" or issue binding directions, with its powers confined to making recommendations. NCSC orders are recommendatory and do not equate to decrees from civil courts. The appeal was dismissed due to delay and on merit, reinforcing that the NCSC is not an adjudicatory body and its reports do not serve as an alternative to the judicial system.

Judges: Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant's arguments regarding the jurisdiction and authority of DIAC and the validity of the dispute reference by MSEFC are linked to case facts and not examinable in a writ petition under Article 226. An adequate remedy exists under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, allowing challenges to the arbitral tribunal's jurisdiction under Section 16 and appeals of the final award under Section 34. The appellant can raise all legal and other objections before the arbitral tribunal without influence from prior observations.

The appeal by the Custodian of Evacuee Property was dismissed, affirming the order for the issuance of a sale certificate to the legal heirs of late Mr. Jaswant Singh, the successful auction purchaser. The Custodian's objections were deemed invalid, given that payments had been accepted over the years without any valid reason to refuse the certificate. The principle of compensation for potential claims was recognized, and the acquisition of the property in 1963 did not prevent the issuance of the certificate. The issuance is subject to the respondents depositing the outstanding auction amount.

Judges: Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellants conceded that they had not inspected the Sub-Registrar's records to verify the existence of the sale deed dated December 18, 2013, and were therefore unable to make any statements about it. The argument regarding an enquiry only pertained to two other sale deeds, not the one in question. A dispute over land ownership exists between the DDA and the Waqf Board, but this does not excuse the illegal construction. The DDA and MCD are instructed to properly demarcate their boundaries and jurisdictions, with a recommendation to extend the survey across all of Delhi. Although the property in question has been demolished, implementation of discussed institutional reforms is required.

Judges: Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Bar Council of India's regulatory powers under the Advocates Act, 1961 encompass not only the regulation of legal practice but also the establishment of standards for legal education and the recognition of universities for advocate enrollment. The argument that a distinction exists between "pursuing law" and "practicing law" was rejected, as it does not apply to the BCI's role in legal education regulation. Accepting this distinction could create confusion with two types of LLB degrees. Additionally, the UGC guidelines concerning supernumerary seats for foreign students refer decisions to the BCI, which is the relevant statutory body. Both appeals in the matter were dismissed as lacking merit.

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

A suit for possession or injunction filed by the in-laws claiming exclusive ownership of property is not exclusively for the Family Court under the Family Courts Act, 1984, and the Civil Court's jurisdiction remains intact. Jurisdiction of the Family Court is based on the cause of action and its direct connection to the marital relationship; incidental connections do not suffice. The involvement of the husband/son does not affect the Civil Court's jurisdiction, as the primary consideration is the nature of the cause of action related to the marital relationship.

JUST CLICK TRAVELS PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8896/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The petitioner, a travel agent, demonstrated a strong prima facie case that incentive and commission payments from airlines and IATA agents are not subject to service tax, in line with the Kafila Hospitality judgment. Although the law mandates a pre-deposit under Section 35F of the Central Excise Act, waiving this requirement is permissible in rare and exceptional cases. The demand for incentive payments qualified for such a waiver, while other demands did not. The petitioner is required to pay service tax on the remaining demands, and the appeal regarding incentive payments can be heard without the full pre-deposit.

KAVITHA KURUGANTI VS PEPSICO INDIA HOLDING PVT LTD [LPA-644/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The revocation of the registration of the FL 2027 potato variety in favor of PepsiCo was deemed invalid due to non-fatal errors related to its description and disclosure of the first sale date. PepsiCo was eligible to seek registration as the assignee of the breeder's right, supported by an authorization letter from FLNA. The mere filing of infringement suits by PepsiCo against farmers did not provide sufficient grounds for revocation based on public interest, as there was no evidence of vexatious or intimidatory actions. The order of revocation was set aside, and the Registrar was directed to consider PepsiCo's renewal application accordingly.

M/S G.S INDUSTRIES VS COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL TAX AND GST , DELHI (WEST) [W.P.(C)-13149/2024]

M/S BPL LTD VS MORGAN SECURITIES & CREDITS PVT LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-46/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

BPL Limited must make payments to Morgan Securities & Credits Pvt. Ltd. under the bill discounting facility agreements, except for one bill of exchange deemed barred by limitation. The transaction is classified as commercial, not a loan, thus the Usurious Loans Act does not apply. The interest rate of 36% per annum, awarded by the arbitrator, aligns with the agreed terms. BPL Limited's claims of limitation are rejected, as a letter dated 02.02.2007 acts as a valid acknowledgment of debt, extending the limitation period.

MADAN PAL GUPTA & ANR. VS MAYA DEVI & ANR. [LPA-896/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The judgment of the Single Judge was set aside due to a misinterpretation of the Supreme Court's decision in Mohinder Singh v. Narain Singh. The timing of the Notification dated 16.05.2017 under Section 507(a) of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957, was found to be crucial for determining the parties' rights concerning the agricultural land. The matter was remanded for further adjudication on the disputes raised in the writ petition. This case involves multiple proceedings related to the same agricultural land.

MAHESH CHANDER KALRA VS BANK OF INDIA & ORS [LPA-901/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The appeal by Mahesh Chander Kalra against the dismissal of his writ petition challenging disciplinary action was dismissed. The writ court cannot re-evaluate evidence or findings from a domestic inquiry. Kalra did not prove any violation of natural justice, including the non-provision of relevant documents or lack of examination by the inquiry officer. He had sufficient opportunity to present his defense, and the inquiry's validity was not affected by the absence of the original credit note, as the inquiry officer assessed all evidence collectively. The findings of the domestic inquiry were deemed logical, with no grounds for interference with the disciplinary and appellate authorities' decisions.

MAHESH GUPTA VS REGISTRAR OF TRADEMARKS & ANR. [LPA-429/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Trade Marks Rules, 2002 established fixed deadlines for filing opposition evidence, with a maximum duration of three months, and the Registrar lacks authority to extend this period. The implications of abandonment under the 2002 Rules remain unaffected by the introduction of the 2017 Rules, which do not restore the discretionary powers present under prior legislation. Additionally, statutory provisions cannot be altered to create exceptions to the mandatory timelines set forth. The principles established in earlier cases continue to apply, affirming that the 2017 Rules cannot retroactively negate the legal consequences established under previous regulations.

MIR SINGH (THROUGH LRS) VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-5864/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

Co-owners of jointly held land must receive equal treatment regarding enhanced compensation, regardless of individual appeals. N.N.KABIRAJ VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [LPA-323/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The three posts of Senior Technical Assistants with special qualifications are part of the overall cadre and should not be excluded from the implementation of the roster system. Additional qualifications do not create a separate cadre. The promotion of the second respondent on a Scheduled Tribe vacancy remains intact, as the appellant does not belong to that category and cannot claim that vacancy. Even if the promotion were to be set aside, it would not provide any relief to the appellant.

NAND KISHORE GUPTA, VS THE ADDITIONAL DIRECTOR GENERAL, DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF GST INTELLIGENCE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16900/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The seizure of Rs. 23,50,000/- in Indian currency from the petitioner's premises under Section 67 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 is unsustainable as the purpose of seizure powers is to address tax evasion, not to confiscate cash. Cash is classified as "money," which is excluded from the definition of "goods" under the Act. The seized cash must be released to the petitioner with applicable interest.

NOVARTIS AG VS NATCO PHARMA LIMITED & ANR. [LPA-50/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The examination process for patent applications operates independently from pre-grant opposition proceedings, which aid the Controller's decision-making without granting opponents a right to participate in the examination. The Controller must evaluate each patent application on its own merits, and rejecting an opposition does not guarantee a patent's grant. Rights to be heard exist for voluntary amendments by the applicant, but not for amendments directed by the Controller. The hearing under Rule 55 applies only to opposition proceedings and not to examination. The examination and opposition are distinct processes that do not infringe upon natural justice principles, while the rights of interested persons to raise objections under Section 25(2) remain intact.

R K BHATIA VS CHAIRMAN-CUM-MANAGING DIRECTOR DELHI POWER COMPANY LTD & ANR [LPA-558/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

The initiation of a second disciplinary inquiry against the appellant on the same allegations as the first charge-sheet, from which he was exonerated, violated the principle of double jeopardy. No new or distinct factual basis was provided for the second inquiry, leading to the quashing of the punishment order related to the second charge-sheet.

The Land Acquisition Collector lacked authority to extend the limitation period, and as a result, the rejection of the petitioners' application was found to be valid and lawful.

SUBHASH CHANDER DABAS VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX [W.P.(C)-12784/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

Reassessment proceedings under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 for the Assessment Year 2012-13 were quashed due to the Assessing Officer's reliance on incorrect reasons. The belief that the taxpayer received Rs. 24.80 crore from the Delhi States Newspaper Employee Cooperative Group Housing Society was found untenable, as it was established that the taxpayer had not directly received any amounts from the society, with funds instead routed through the taxpayer's company. The validity of reassessment was assessed based solely on the original reasons, rendering the proceedings invalid.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS CONSULTANTS INDIA LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3016/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma

Telecommunications Consultants India Ltd. is exempt from service tax for its services to BSNL on the NFS Project, as the ultimate beneficiary is the Government of India (Ministry of Defence). Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's challenge to his dismissal from the Border Security Force was dismissed, with the Commandant found to have the authority to issue the dismissal due to the petitioner obtaining his position based on a forged trade certificate. The argument of discrimination was rejected, as the opportunity given to others to submit fresh certificates did not excuse the petitioner's misconduct. The decision did not affect the petitioner's rights to legally contest the dismissal.

CONSTABLE VIJAY KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-16639/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Navin Chawla

The petition filed by a constable challenging the findings of a Court of Inquiry and a Show Cause Notice regarding retirement due to physical unfitness is deemed premature since no final order has been issued. The relevant authorities are to consider the petitioner's representation and issue a speaking order, allowing the petitioner to challenge any adverse decision. Additionally, the authorities are to evaluate the petitioner's request for referral to a Blind School run by the BSF for further training and support.

CORNMISSTORRER OF INCOME TAX-IV VS MIS INDO RAMA SYNTHETICS LTD. [ITA-398/2014]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The sales tax subsidy received under the "Dispersal of Industries Package of Incentives, 1993" scheme qualifies as a capital receipt rather than a revenue receipt. The scheme's primary aim is to encourage industrial development in underdeveloped areas by supporting the establishment of new and expanded units. The subsidy assists in capital investment needed for industrial units, rather than merely enhancing operational profitability. This conclusion applies to all related appeals.

HARSHDIP SINGH DHILLON VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX TDS [W.P.(C)-10828/2019]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The petitioner, an employee of Tulip Telecom Ltd., is not liable for the outstanding tax liability because the tax was deducted at source from his salary but not deposited with the tax authorities by the employer. Section 205 of the Income Tax Act prevents direct demands for tax from the assessee when tax has been deducted at source. The respondent tax authorities must allow credit for the TDS deducted by the employer for the relevant assessment year.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX- 18 VS M/S WIG INVESTMENT [ITA-169/2020]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Gains from the redemption of mutual funds by the respondent/assessee are classified as capital gains rather than business income, supported by factual findings from lower authorities. Capital contributions from KPFSE and KICIPL are commercial transactions and do not qualify as loans or advances under Section 2(22)(e) of the Income Tax Act. Observations made by the CIT(A) are not valid directions under Section 150(1). No substantial question of law is present, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax against the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's order was dismissed. The Principal Commissioner incorrectly invoked Section 263 of the Income Tax Act to deny M/s BT Global Communications India Pvt. Ltd. a deduction under Section 80IA, despite the deduction being allowed in the previous three assessment years. The decision to take a different view in the fourth year was simply a disagreement with the Assessing Officer's opinion, which did not justify invoking revisional powers. The ITAT's order, which set aside the Principal Commissioner's order under Section 263, was upheld, with no substantial question of law identified for examination.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX 4 VS MS MOHAK REAL ESTATE PVT LTD [ITA-730/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) in favor of M/s Mohak Real Estate Pvt Ltd was upheld, setting aside the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax's (PCIT) action under Section 263 of the Income Tax Act. The PCIT had cancelled the original assessment order by the Assessing Officer under Section 143(3) and mandated a fresh assessment. It was determined that the Assessing Officer conducted a thorough inquiry and examination of the records prior to the original assessment. The PCIT's order did not adequately address the submissions made by the assessee nor provided sufficient reasoning to justify that the original assessment was erroneous or prejudicial to revenue interests. Thus, the ITAT's findings were affirmed.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -6 VS NIRJA PUBLISHERS & PRINTERS PVT. LTD [ITA-1021/2019]

Both appeals from the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax were dismissed as no substantial question of law was presented.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SUNEEL KUMAR [W.P.(C)-9304/2021]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The respondent's candidature for the Khalasi position was wrongfully rejected due to signature style differences, despite high marks in the written examination. A leg fracture suffered by the respondent made it unreasonable to expect him to meet a physical requirement set 10 years after the initial recruitment. The recruitment notice allowed exemptions from the physical efficiency test for individuals with disabilities, including orthopedic conditions. As a result, the respondent was exempted from this requirement for the Khalasi appointment.

ALL INDIA S-30 PENSIONERS ASSOCIATION AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6002/2016]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

The government's challenge to the order was dismissed, while the petition of the pre-2006 pensioners' association was allowed, restricting relief to the date of the original application.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

The order of the single judge was upheld, rejecting the appellant's writ petitions against the Unit Trust of India Asset Management Company Ltd (UTI AMC) and other respondents. The appellant's own statements indicated he was an employee of UTI AMC, not UTI, making the writ petitions unmaintainable against UTI AMC, a limited company without governmental control. The primary issue was his termination from service by UTI AMC, and since he had been employed there since 2003, the petitions were also unmaintainable against the other respondents. The appeals were dismissed, with the appellant allowed to pursue other legal remedies.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ANR VS JAGMAL SINGH [W.P.(C)-4201/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

The appeal by Life Insurance Corporation of India against a single judge's order regarding Ms. Erina Michael was successful. The single judge incorrectly set aside the sealed cover procedure used by the Departmental Promotion Committee in 2010 and directed her promotion to Assistant Administrative Officer, disregarding a penalty of censure imposed on her in 2013. The single judge's approach was flawed, as they could only consider the penalty after reviewing a challenge to the disciplinary proceedings, which Ms. Michael had not pursued. The order was quashed, and the matter was remanded for fresh adjudication, allowing Ms. Michael to amend her writ petition to contest the penalty and disciplinary actions.

According to Clause 15(3) of the NHAI Recruitment, Seniority and Promotion Regulations, 1996, seniority for those initially appointed on deputation is based on the date of initial appointment. NHAI's circular from 22.05.2017, which denied seniority prior to absorption, was deemed contrary to the regulations and disregarded. The applicant's service as a deputationist was recognized for seniority in the Deputy General Manager (Technical) cadre.

PEET VASAN BIHARI VS GOVIND SINGH BISHT & ORS. [LPA-93/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

After the Central Government Industrial Tribunal (CGIT) issued a final award on 03.11.2022, the interim directions from 29.11.2018 merged with the final award and ceased to be binding. The order requiring compliance with the interim directions was set aside due to the impossibility of doing so alongside a stay on the final award. Both parties are to follow the order from 02.03.2023, which stayed the final award while requiring the appellant to maintain status quo on the respondents' services. The appellant must pay the respondents according to the CGIT's order from 29.11.2018 for the period between that date and 02.03.2023, and thereafter as per the appellant's office circular dated 16.08.2021.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR VS D.B. ARORA [W.P.(C)-10292/2015]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

The Union of India's writ petition was dismissed, affirming that the respondent's Annual Performance Assessment Report (APAR) was non-existent due to a lack of remarks from the reviewing officer. The Referral Board's consideration of the respondent's representation could not address this defect, as it lacked personal observation of the respondent's performance. A two-tier system for recording APARs, requiring remarks from both the reporting and reviewing officers, is necessary for objectivity and to protect employees from subjective evaluations.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR VS SHRI B. VENKATESAN & ORS [W.P.(C)-2781/2015]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding an order from the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) that required the petitioners to consider the promotion cases of the respondents and other eligible DPA Grade A officers for DPA Grade B, starting from 1995. The CAT's order specified that promotion was not automatic but contingent on vacancy availability and eligibility. The justification for the direction was based on the accessibility of the Model Recruitment Rules to the petitioners since 1998, despite the official Recruitment Rules being notified in 2010.

The petitioners' vision was classified as poor, which qualified them for the posts identified as suitable for both low vision and blind candidates. Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal's order mandates Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) to reimburse an employee for the total medical expenses incurred, rather than limiting it to CGHS package rates. BSNL's medical reimbursement policy allows actual expense reimbursement at approved rates in recognized hospitals. Since the BLK Hospital treated the employee and BSNL had not notified approved rates, actual expenses are reimbursable. The policy differentiates between recognized and non-recognized hospitals, and this case involves a recognized hospital. Compliance with the order is required within four weeks, with interest at 12% per annum applicable for any delayed payment.

The government was directed to reassess the sustainability of Rule 43.

The orders from the Central Administrative Tribunal, which annulled the dismissals and awarded all related benefits to the respondents, were upheld, allowing for the possibility of initiating new disciplinary proceedings.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to quash the chargesheet issued by the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) against Dr. Rakesh Kumar was upheld. The advice from the Central Vigilance Commission on August 11, 2022, was clarified as a directive to amend the charges rather than a preliminary suggestion. Multiple chargesheets issued by CSIR on similar allegations indicated a mala fide intent to harass Dr. Kumar. Additionally, the tribunal had previously annulled the suspension order against him.

DDA VS VAIBHAV MALIK & ORS [W.P.(C)-6665/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) set January 1, 2022, as the eligibility date for the Limited Departmental Competitive Examination (LDCE) for promotion, despite regulations stating July 1, 2022, as the correct date. The DDA's own Right to Information Act response acknowledged the July 1 date, and no valid justification was provided for changing it. The argument that this change aligned the LDCE with other promotion methods lacked merit, as the LDCE operates under distinct parameters. Overall, the DDA's decision was deemed arbitrary and without a valid legal basis.

DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED AND ANR. VS HARI OM GUPTA [W.P.(C)-12458/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding the withholding of 50% of Hari Om Gupta's leave encashment benefits was upheld. Disciplinary proceedings against him were initiated just before his retirement in 2012, concerning allegations from 2006-07, with no financial loss to the petitioners demonstrated in the Inquiry Report. Under Rule 39(3) of the CCS (Leave) Rules, 1972, leave encashment benefits may only be withheld in cases of embezzlement or loss of public money, which did not apply here. This case involved individual matters rather than a batch case.

DELHI SUBORDINATE SERVICES SELECTION BOARD (DSSSB) AND ANR VS KIMMI [W.P.(C)-15834/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Petitions challenging the selection and appointments by the Delhi Subordinate Services Selection Board (DSSSB) were dismissed, as the issues had already been settled in prior judgments. The respondents were in a similar position to parties in past cases that favored the DSSSB, which had been upheld after a Supreme Court appeal. Despite arguments regarding delay and laches, the absence of distinct grounds led to the dismissal of the petitions.

DELHI SUBORDINATE SERVICES SELECTION BOARD AND ANR VS VISHNU KUMAR BADETIYA [W.P.(C)-12303/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The respondent, belonging to the Scheduled Caste (SC) category and holding a valid SC certificate from another state, is entitled to reservation benefits in civil posts under the Government of NCT of Delhi. The principle established in the Deepak Kumar case allows SC/ST candidates migrating to a union territory like Delhi to claim such benefits and applies retrospectively. The argument against retrospective application was rejected, and the petitioners were directed to appoint the respondent under the SC category. The case resulted in a split judgment, suggesting the issue may be referred to a larger bench.

DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS ASHOK KUMAR [LPA-889/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The inquiry against the respondent-employee was found to be flawed, despite the charges being proved. The DTC had complied with legal requirements for termination under the Industrial Disputes Act. Since the respondent had superannuated and reinstatement was not possible, the DTC was directed to treat the respondent as reinstated from the termination date, pay 50% of due wages, and provide a lump sum compensation of Rs. 2.5 lakhs for litigation expenses.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Service bonds signed by dentists enrolled in the ESIC's dental college do not guarantee employment with the ESIC for the duration specified. The bonds are unilateral, obligating the ESIC to no employment commitment. The ESIC's decision to reduce the service bond tenure from 5/3 years to 1 year is valid, as the ESIC has discretion over the services of bond executors based on its needs. The petitions challenging this decision were dismissed.

DR. D.S. SHANKAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-10695/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The writ petition filed by Dr. D.S. Shankar, a Senior Assistant Professor at NCERT, was dismissed after he challenged the orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding disciplinary proceedings and removal from service. It was noted that Dr. Shankar had concealed the rejection of his revision application by the President of NCERT. The appropriate course of action was identified as challenging the President's order before the Central Administrative Tribunal, rather than directly approaching the High Court. The dismissal allowed Dr. Shankar the opportunity to contest the President's order in the proper forum.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition by DSSSB was dismissed, affirming the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision. The Tribunal indicated that DSSSB's communication with selected candidate Durgesh Kumar for document submission after the waitlist's one-year validity indicated a need to offer the vacancy to Pawan Kumar, the next candidate on the list. The Tribunal's order was upheld as DSSSB extended the waitlist's validity.

EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION VS CHHEL NARAYAN [W.P.(C)-11907/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition by the Employees State Insurance Corporation was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to quash the notice disqualifying Chhel Narayan from the recruitment process for 'Nursing/Paramedical Staff'. The Tribunal found that Narayan had the necessary qualifications at the time of application, and the absence of a specific column in the online form for his Nursing Council registration did not justify the cancellation of his candidature. The petitioner was directed to follow the Tribunal's order, allowing Narayan to undergo document verification and be appointed with a notional appointment date aligned with the last candidate.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to dismiss the petitioner's challenge regarding the shortlisting of candidates for the Director (Finance) position at Steel Authority of India Limited (SAIL) was upheld. The petitioner, holding a lien with SAIL, was considered only as an internal candidate, not external, according to guidelines for board-level appointments in Central Public Sector Enterprises. The respondents properly assessed the petitioner's seniority based on her entry date into the relevant grade. Consequently, the shortlisting of candidates was deemed correct, and the appointment of the third respondent as Director (Finance) of SAIL was affirmed.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. VS DR SOMA ROY [W.P.(C)-10328/2021]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) that set aside the charge memo against Dr. Soma Roy, a Medical Officer under the Central Health Service, was upheld. The charge memo and suspension order were deemed invalid as they were issued by the Delhi Health Services authorities instead of the competent authority for a CHS cadre officer. A significant delay of 7 years in starting the disciplinary proceedings was noted, which hindered the respondent's ability to defend herself. Additionally, members of the inquiry committee had conflicts of interest, as they were involved in the matters being investigated. The petition from government authorities was dismissed.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SECRETARY LABOUR VS GURPREET SINGH [W.P.(C)-11870/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition by the Government of NCT of Delhi challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to allow Bhanupriya Shokeen's application for the Trained Graduate Teacher (TGT) position was dismissed. The rejection of her candidature was based on her not studying English in her 2nd year of graduation, which was not a requirement in the Recruitment Rules. The absence of the Recruitment Rules in the advertisement rendered it unreasonable to expect her to know the specific eligibility criteria. The dismissal noted no issues with the Central Administrative Tribunal's order.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS VS MAHFOOZ ALI [W.P.(C)-575/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision directed government authorities to step up the pay of a senior employee to match the higher pay of junior colleagues. Under Fundamental Rule 22 and relevant government guidelines, a senior employee's pay must be adjusted to eliminate discrepancies with juniors, even if the latter's higher pay results from the Assured Career Progression (ACP) scheme. Previous decisions supported this stance, and the writ petition by government authorities was dismissed.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Flaws in the departmental inquiries included reliance on discarded records, examination of only one witness, and absence of medical or forensic evidence. There was suspicion that the incident either did not occur or that jail authorities attempted to protect the assailants and negligent officials. The decision to quash the punishment orders was upheld based on the absence of evidence.

INDIAN COUNCIL OF MEDICAL RESEARCH & ANR. VS SHRI UDAY KUMAR SINGH & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15541/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition by the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) to quash an order of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding the regularization of Shri Uday Kumar Singh's services was dismissed. Regularization is determined by the employer's discretion and does not constitute a right, allowing for limited judicial intervention. The argument that Singh's application was barred by limitation was rejected, as the issue of regularization is considered a continuous cause of action. With the matter pending before the Tribunal for a merits-based decision, there were no grounds for interference.

JAI KARAN VS DELHI JAL BOARD AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-11159/2019]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The writ petition filed by Jai Karan was dismissed, as the Central Administrative Tribunal's rejection of his claim for full pension and gratuity was upheld. The case was governed by the Office Memorandums from 1968 and 1986, which state that only 50% of service paid from contingencies counts towards pension calculation. The two court decisions cited by the petitioner were deemed factually distinguishable and inapplicable. The Tribunal's reliance on the Office Memorandums was not erroneous.

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The relevant Office Memorandums specify that husbands and wives should be posted together if suitable positions are available and children are below certain age limits. Following an interim order that allowed the petitioner to be attached to the CFSL in Delhi for review after a year, it was mandated that her posting in Delhi be maintained for at least one year, considering her 3-year-old son.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS PRADEEP RANA AND OTHERS [LPA-720/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Industrial Tribunal to regularize the services of respondents, who had served as contractual Assistant Malaria Inspectors for over 13 years, was upheld. The prolonged temporary status of the respondents constituted unfair labor practices, particularly given their qualifications and the ongoing nature of the work. Exceptions to the Umadevi doctrine were applicable due to the long duration of employment without court intervention, justifying the regularization of their positions.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS PRAMOD BHAN AND OTHERS [LPA-802/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The appeal by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi against the regularization of respondents' services as Assistant Public Health Inspectors was dismissed. PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK VS SH NIRAJ GUPTA AND ANR [LPA-907/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The respondent's conduct was deemed sexual harassment by an internal complaint committee; however, it did not meet the definition of "moral turpitude" under the Gratuity Act due to the absence of a criminal conviction. Forfeiture of gratuity requires termination for an offense involving moral turpitude, which was not applicable in this case as no criminal proceedings were initiated against the respondent.

PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ORS. VS SC SAPRA & ORS. [LPA-448/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The respondent bank employee is entitled to full pension, as the disciplinary authority did not reference any deduction in the compulsory retirement order. The report from RR Hospital's medical board will be considered final and binding.

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding the respondent's application about medical unfitness for the Constable (Exe.) position in Delhi Police due to a tattoo was upheld. Tattoos can be undesirable in disciplined forces, but there is no absolute prohibition, and candidates should be allowed a chance to remove them. The respondent had already removed the tattoo. The Staff Selection Commission was directed to permit the respondent to join the training scheduled for November 2024. No errors or issues were identified in the Tribunal's decision.

The petition by the Staff Selection Commission regarding Deepak Yadav's disqualification from the Constable (Exe) Male recruitment process was dismissed. The tattoo on his right forearm was deemed not clearly visible, with only a faint scar remaining. The writ petition by the Staff Selection Commission was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's order in favor of Ajay Khatri. A prior judgment involving a candidate with a faded tattoo was cited, where the tattoo was deemed not clearly visible. The matter of medical fitness standards is typically not subject to judicial review; however, the circumstances differed from a previously referenced case. The petitioners were instructed to permit the respondent to join the next available training batch, with seniority recognized from the currently ongoing training.

SWETA TIWARI VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-519/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Habeas corpus proceedings are not for examining the legality of a child's custody; however, the welfare of the minor is the primary consideration. A 7-month-old child, who needs to be breastfed, should be in the mother's custody. The father is directed to hand over custody to the mother, while the final custody determination remains open for resolution in an appropriate forum under applicable law.

THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE & ORS. VS OM PRAKASH & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11276/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to set aside the dismissal orders against the Head Constable was upheld. It was concluded that the reasons for bypassing a regular departmental inquiry lacked sufficiency. Valid and objective reasons must be recorded by the Disciplinary Authority before invoking Article 311(2)(b) for dismissal without inquiry, with the mere registration of an FIR and ongoing criminal investigations not deemed sufficient. The Commissioner of Police was directed to ensure proper reasoning is provided in future dismissal cases without inquiry, with the potential for heavy costs if not adhered to.

THE STATE COUNCIL OF EDUCATION RESEARCH TRAINING AND ORS VS MS HEMLATA [W.P.(C)-10065/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision granted Ms. Hemlata regular promotion to Senior Stenographer effective from her ad-hoc promotion date of 09.12.2003, rather than the later date of 21.06.2017. Arguments regarding the absence of a vacant post and the revision of recruitment rules were rejected. It was established that Ms. Hemlata was discriminated against compared to similarly situated employees who were regularized from their ad-hoc promotion dates.

THE UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS VITTAL RATHLA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10508/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed the Union of India to consider the promotion of Chemists in the Geological Survey of India to Superintending Chemist for the year 2020, as they became eligible after completing the required residency period. The Tribunal noted the lack of clarity regarding the Cadre Review process that decreased the sanctioned strength for the position from 80 to 50. It instructed the convening of a Departmental Promotion Committee to grant promotions based on eligibility. The subsequent review upheld this decision, noting no errors in the Tribunal's order.

5UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS VIKAS [W.P.(C)-12765/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to quash the rejection of the respondent's candidature for a Group 'D' post was upheld. Although the respondent violated certain examination instructions, the relevant instructions indicated that cancellation of the OMR sheet applied only to specific violations, which did not include the respondent's actions. No other grounds of cheating or malpractice were established against the respondent. The petition was dismissed, and compliance with the Tribunal's order was mandated within four weeks.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS MANOJ JOSHI [W.P.(C)-10424/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal's order to consider Manoj Joshi and Prashant Gupta for promotion to Senior Technical Assistant was upheld, despite their lack of the minimum qualifications. The respondents possessed degrees in Computer Science and Engineering, which were deemed to imply the necessary lower qualifications. The matter involved two writ petitions heard together.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SHRI SUKHVINDER [W.P.(C)-13635/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The writ petition by the Union of India and others was dismissed, affirming the Central Administrative Tribunal's order for the reinstatement of Shri Sukhvinder as a Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant. The case was deemed similar to a prior judgment where termination based solely on an unproven forensic report regarding OMR sheet discrepancies was considered unjustified without a proper departmental inquiry. The petitioners were instructed to reinstate the respondent and provide consequential benefits within four weeks.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SUMIT KUMAR [W.P.(C)-10152/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petitioners were not justified in subjecting the respondent to a second medical examination after he was already deemed medically fit in 2014. No plausible reasons were provided for the two-year delay before the second examination, which led to the respondent being declared unfit. The lapse should not adversely affect the respondent, necessitating a fresh medical examination to confirm his fitness for the Trackman position under the A-2 or below category, with an accompanying offer of appointment.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS PRADEEP KUMAR [W.P.(C)-11335/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, and the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld, which set aside the respondent's dismissal under Rule 14(ii) of the Railway Servants (Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1968. The disciplinary authority failed to provide written reasons for not conducting a regular departmental inquiry before the dismissal, and the necessary conditions for invoking Rule 14(ii) were not met.

UNION OF INDIA SECRETARY & ANR. VS SATISH MANHA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16329/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petitions by the Union of India were dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's order to resolve pay scale anomalies for Program Officers and Staff Artists stemming from a 2015 directive. Arguments for comparing highest and lowest posts in each cadre and justifications for restructuring based on a separate Supreme Court ruling were rejected. The Union of India must address the anomalies and restructure the Program Officers cadre within 6 weeks, with potential contempt of court for non-compliance.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS VED PRAKASH [W.P.(C)-9322/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Ved Prakash is entitled to the same financial upgradation benefits under the Assured Career Progression scheme as his junior Raj Pal. The argument that Raj Pal's case is not a binding precedent was rejected. Earlier orders granting Ved Prakash these benefits were based on consent from the petitioners' counsel. He was found to be unfairly receiving a lower salary than Raj Pal. The petitioners must re-fix and release Ved Prakash's pension and other benefits within four weeks.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SH. PAWAN KUMAR [W.P.(C)-11926/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The High Court of Delhi dismissed a writ petition filed by the Union of India, confirming an order from the Central Administrative Tribunal that partly favored Sh. Pawan Kumar. The petition was identical to issues previously addressed by the CAT, which had reinstated the applicants. The court noted that the petitioners terminated the respondent's services without adhering to principles of natural justice, specifically by not providing the forensic science laboratory report or a show-cause notice prior to termination.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS VISHVAMBHAR SINGH [W.P.(C)-13037/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The respondent, initially appointed as an Extra Departmental Delivery Agent and later selected as a Postman through a competitive examination, is entitled to pensionary benefits and leave encashment. The definition of "consequential benefits" in public law includes not only back wages but also retiral benefits such as pension and leave encashment. When reinstatement occurs, the employee is entitled to continuity of service, notional pay fixation, and pensionary benefits, regardless of terminology used in previous orders.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS YOGESH KUMAR [W.P.(C)-13271/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal in favor of Yogesh Kumar was upheld. The rejection of his candidature for the Assistant Station Master position was deemed unjustified due to insufficient medical examination at the time of initial appointment. The notification for the General Departmental Competitive Examination and the Indian Railway Medical Manual indicated that earlier medical assessments could not disqualify him for promotion, especially since re-examination was permitted before advancement to a higher medical category. The petition by the Union of India was dismissed, with no errors found in the Central Administrative Tribunal's order.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANOTHER VS SATISH KUMAR AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-11793/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to grant temporary status to daily wagers for regularization was upheld. The respondents were denied employment on the date the 1993 DoPT Scheme was issued, but had been continuously working for over 22 years, meeting the requirement of one year of continuous service. Their engagement after the Scheme's issuance and sponsorship by the employment exchange supported their case for regularization. The Umadevi judgment did not apply, as they were not considered back-door entrants. Compliance with the Tribunal's order is required within six weeks.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANR VS ASHOK KUMAR DHIMAN [W.P.(C)-12472/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed the Union of India and Northern Railways to pay interest on the delayed payment of Ashok Kumar Dhiman's leave encashment benefits. This decision was based on the principle that pension and gratuity are valuable employee rights, and delays in their settlement warrant interest penalties. The petition by the Union of India and Northern Railways was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. VS YASHPAL GARG AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4817/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition by the Union of India and the Ministry of Home Affairs challenging orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal was dismissed. The government has a constitutional obligation to ensure timely promotion consideration for eligible employees. The direction to complete the overdue cadre review of the AGMUT Cadre within 6 months and fill the resultant vacancies for the year 2015 was upheld. Arguments against giving retrospective effect to the cadre review were rejected.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS AJAY KUMAR CHAUDHARY [W.P.(C)-10058/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to set aside the punishment imposed on Ajay Kumar Chaudhary was upheld. The Tribunal observed that the Central Vigilance Commission found two senior officers, M. Nautiyal and Ved Prakash, to have more serious roles in the matter but chose to exonerate them while punishing Chaudhary alone. This disparity in treatment was deemed inequitable, leading to a directive for re-examination of Chaudhary's case in light of the exoneration of the other officers.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS SANJEEV KUMAR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15248/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Termination of services for Sanjeev Kumar and Dhirender Singh was deemed stigmatic and could not stand without a proper departmental inquiry. The termination was based on allegations of impersonation and misconduct, necessitating an opportunity for the respondents to defend themselves. Arguments regarding compliance with prior Supreme Court directives were rejected, emphasizing that a departmental inquiry is still required for stigmatic terminations. Forensic reports cited as evidence were not validated by expert testimony, and no criminal complaints were filed, casting doubt on the allegations. The Central Administrative Tribunal's order for reconsideration and adherence to natural justice principles was upheld.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. VS SH. SHISHIR DUTT [W.P.(C)-888/2020]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Review DPC's decision to deem the respondent unfit for promotion, despite an upgraded APAR, violated a previous order from January 2019. The Tribunal's directions in contempt proceedings, which allowed the petitioners another opportunity to hold a Review DPC, were set aside due to a lack of assessment on potential wilful disobedience. The respondent received permission to revive the contempt petition to address the non-compliance issue.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. VS SUBHASH KUMAR GHOSH AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6587/2015]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The writ petitions filed by the Union of India were dismissed regarding the placement of railway accounts employees from Clerk Grade-I to Accounts Assistant in 1987. This placement was categorized as a financial upgradation rather than a promotion, allowing the respondents to receive ACP/MACP benefits without it counting as a promotion. The CAT's orders were upheld, with no identified errors in the decision regarding similar cases.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE GENERAL MANAGER NORTHERN RAILWAYS & ORS. VS RAVI [W.P.(C)-11905/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal mandating a review DPC and consideration of the respondent's upgraded APAR for 2017-2018 regarding promotion to Staff and Welfare Inspector was upheld. Key points included the significance of APARs for employee performance assessment, the necessity of communicating below benchmark gradings to employees with an opportunity for representation, and the requirement to consider revised APARs even post-selection panel formation. The decision emphasized compliance with these directives within four weeks.

UNION OF INDIA VS GURJINDER PAL SINGH & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10703/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The order from the Central Administrative Tribunal, which set aside the compulsory retirement of Gurjinder Pal Singh under Rule 16(3), is valid. The inquiry committee's reconstitution regarding the suicide of Rahul Sharma was deemed improper and harassing. The review of Singh's service record was incomplete, considering only the last five years rather than the entire service. Additionally, multiple FIRs against Singh had stayed proceedings, and the compulsory retirement decision was made hastily, circumventing ongoing departmental proceedings. The petition by the Union of India regarding a related matter involving 33 IPS officers was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA, THROUGH, THE GENERAL MANAGER & ANR. VS NITESH KUMAR [W.P.(C)-11982/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The writ petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, affirming that Nitesh Kumar's use of a marked ball pen did not warrant automatic cancellation of his OMR sheet according to the rules. No other instances of cheating or malpractice were established against him. The judgment was unanimous on the key issues.

UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION VS S.M. KESHKAMAT & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10350/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) considered an incomplete Annual Performance Appraisal Report (APAR) for the year 2018-2019, ignoring the second part from 27.10.2018 to 31.03.2019. According to Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) guidelines, all APARs for a given year must be evaluated together, and an unreviewed APAR is deemed incomplete and excluded from promotion considerations. A review DPC is required to reassess the respondent's case for promotion to Principal Commissioner Income Tax, focusing on the complete APAR/ACR for the year 2014-15.

UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION VS SHRI RAJENDER SINGH & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14573/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The petition by the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's orders for Rajender Singh was dismissed. The Tribunal directed UPSC to forward Singh's case for a post under the Physically Handicapped (PH) category, despite his medical unfitness for the previously allotted IRSSE post. UPSC's role concluded with the referral of Singh's case to the Ministry of Railways, which holds the responsibility for the final decision.

UOI VS DR. CHANDER PRAKASH & ANR [W.P.(C)-8387/2008]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The disciplinary authority's disagreement with the inquiry officer's findings regarding retired IPS officer Dr. Chander Prakash lacked validity due to insufficient reasoning for each charge and reliance on extraneous materials outside the inquiry record, which impaired the respondent's defense. Additionally, the imposition of a 50% pension cut was invalid as rules mandate recording reasons when imposing post-retirement penalties. The petition by the Union of India was dismissed.

UOI VS U.R.KAPOOR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-120/2009]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision to quash the disciplinary proceedings against the Additional Commissioner, Sales Tax-IV, was upheld due to allegations being presumptive and based on conjecture. The government's actions were deemed arbitrary, violating Article 14 of the Constitution. Even if the respondent lacked jurisdiction over the dealer's revision petition, the absence of a challenge from the concerned authority led to the order's finality, negating claims of illegality.

UPSC VS SHUBHAM SHARMA [W.P.(C)-12129/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) to verify the Economically Weaker Section (EWS) certificate submitted by the respondent. The UPSC indicated that 28 candidates were provisionally selected and allowed to rectify minor deficiencies, while the respondent was not afforded the same opportunity. Unclear circumstances regarding the rectification process for 8 EWS candidates were noted. The matter has been remanded back to the Tribunal, which is instructed to include the selected candidates as parties and to hear and decide the case afresh without bias from previous orders.

VALLABHBHAI PATEL CHEST INSTITUTE VS GIRIDHARI PAL AND ANR [LPA-538/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Promotion to Senior Technical Assistant (STA) was granted to Giridhari Pal, effective July 21, 2016. The STA position required direct recruitment, but no candidates were appointed despite an advertisement in 2008. Giridhari Pal had been receiving the STA pay scale since 2012 under the MACP scheme. The promotion was justified based on a circular issued in 2016 regarding the vacant STA post, rejecting the argument that approval of modified Recruitment Rules in 2018 was necessary.

VIJAY KAUSHIK VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE [W.P.(C)-7241/2020]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding the petitioner's non-selection for the Sub-Inspector (Male) position in the 2007 recruitment examination were upheld. The petitioner lacked an indefeasible right to appointment, and the respondent was not required to fill all notified vacancies. Claims about unfilled vacancies and parity with departmental candidates were deemed unjustified. The petitioner's misconduct in misrepresenting facts was noted, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

VINOD KUMAR SHARMA AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-17291/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside, resulting in the quashing of the termination of contractual nursing officers' services at government hospitals. Despite not meeting eligibility criteria due to their long service, these petitioners should receive preference in regular recruitment for vacant posts, based on a government circular for health professionals serving during COVID-19 duty. The respondents are instructed to regularize the services of eligible petitioners and consider the remaining petitioners for appointment in other hospitals against available vacancies.

VISHAV BANDHU GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1522/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Vishav Bandhu Gupta was dismissed from service due to unauthorized absence from duty from November 1998 to June 2000 and making scandalous statements against the government to the media. The examination of proportionality in administrative law indicated that the dismissal was appropriate given the severity of the misconduct. No lesser penalty would have been suitable, and the disciplinary authority's decision was affirmed. The writ petition was dismissed.

YESHPAL SINGH AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10760/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The Ministry of Home Affairs' rejection of the Border Security Force's proposal to amend the 2011 recruitment rules was deemed erroneous. The Ministry was previously instructed to accept the proposal and amend the rules to align with a 2010 office memorandum, enabling petitioners to be considered for promotion under the 1999 rules. Although a Supreme Court appeal was pending, the petitioners were promoted under the 2011 and 2023 rules. The current directive requires the respondents to decide on the petitioners' promotion requests based on the 2015 judgment within six weeks and communicate the decision in writing.

AAFTAB AMIN POONAWALA VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-875/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

Aaftab Amin Poonawala, facing trial under Sections 365/302/201 IPC, is permitted to be unlocked for 8 hours daily with other inmates but will remain in a solitary cell at night for safety. His current confinement, which includes 24-hour security, is based on a previous order, and he has denied any perceived threat during the day. Jail authorities are instructed to adjust his confinement conditions accordingly.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SH NANDAN KUMAR [W.P.(C)-12028/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The writ petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's order that partly allowed Nandan Kumar's challenge against his termination as Postman. The termination was based on an adverse CFSL report regarding signature verification. The petitioners did not contest the finality of previous tribunal orders concerning similar cases. The lack of opportunity for Kumar to respond to the CFSL report before his termination violated principles of service jurisprudence, leading to the dismissal of the petition without identifying any error in the Tribunal's order.

MURARI LAL SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6555/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition by Murari Lal Sharma, challenging the findings of a Summary Court Martial from 1992, was dismissed due to being time-barred under Section 15 of the Armed Forces Tribunal Act, 2007. The cause of action arose in 1992-1993, and prior litigations on the same issue had also been denied, making the current petition subject to res judicata. The petition lacked merit and was dismissed without costs.

NARESH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7359/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner's claim for disability pension was partially allowed, receiving 20% (rounded off to 50%) for a disability of PIVD L4-L5, aggravated by air force service. Claims for primary hypertension and pre-diabetes were denied, as they were not found to be attributable to or aggravated by air force service, with obesity identified as a contributing factor.

UTTAM SAMADDER VS THE UNION OF INDIA THR. SECRETARY HOME AFFAIR, GOVERNMENT OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6404/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner, who resigned from the Border Security Force after 10 years and 7 months of service, is not entitled to pensionary benefits or gratuity. According to the Supreme Court's ruling in Union of India v. Rakesh Kumar, BSF personnel who resign before completing 20 years of service cannot receive pensions under the CCS Pension Rules, 1972. Rule 26 of these rules mandates forfeiture of past service upon resignation, and the BSF Rules, 1969, do not provide additional pension rights. Previous judgments cited by the petitioner were deemed inapplicable, leading to the conclusion that the claimed pensionary benefits are not available.

VIVEK KUMAR SINGH & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5832/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The "clean record" requirement in the recruitment rules for the Limited Departmental Competitive Examination (LDCE) in the Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) was identified as problematic and requires re-examination by the Ministry of Home Affairs. In the disciplinary proceedings against a petitioner, natural justice was violated due to the lack of access to witness statements, leading to the cancellation of a "Censure" penalty. The distinction between promotion methods—seniority quota lacking the "clean record" condition while LDCE does—was deemed illogical. The Ministry of Home Affairs was directed to review the "clean record" stipulation and issue appropriate guidelines within 12 weeks, with provisions for the petitioners to benefit from any new guidelines if applicable to their cases.

ABR EMERALD LLP VS THE OFFICIAL LIQUIDATOR & ANR. [CO.APP.-11/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by ABR Emerald LLP to set aside the e-auction process for the sale of property belonging to Golden Gate Industries Ltd. was dismissed. The auction process was deemed conducted properly, and the price obtained considered adequate. A subsequent higher offer from a non-participant was not a valid reason to refuse confirmation of the sale, as it could discourage bona fide bidders. The appellant's offer was not significantly higher, and the successful bidder met all conditions, including required deposits.

PRABHAT SHARMA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3570/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The seizure of the petitioner's goods by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi was legal. The petitioner engaged in vending activities in a no-vending zone, allowing the MCD to remove him and seize his goods under relevant sections of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957. The provisions of the Street Vendors (Protection of Livelihood and Regulation of Street Vending) Act, 2014, concerning prior notice and site allocation, did not apply because the petitioner had not received a Certificate of Vending. The challenge to the seizure was dismissed, confirming the MCD's authority to act against unlawful vending.

INDUS TOWERS LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14710/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Yashwant Varma

Telecommunication towers are classified as movable property under the CGST Act, invalidating the denial of input tax credit for their purchase. The specific exclusion of "telecommunication towers" from "plant and machinery" definitions does not imply they are immovable. Show cause notices issued under the incorrect assumption that telecom towers are immovable have been quashed. The matter involved three separate writ petitions.

DR GEETANJALI AGGARWAL VS DR MANOJ AGGARWAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-126/2019]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh, Justice Rekha Palli

Orders under Section 12 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, regarding visitation or interim custody of a child are appealable under Section 19(1) of the Family Courts Act, 1984. The appellate provisions of the Family Courts Act operate independently from other statutes, meaning that labeling an order as "interlocutory" does not affect its appealability. Such orders significantly impact the rights of the parties and the welfare of the child, thus cannot be dismissed as mere procedural or interlocutory. The appealability is based on the nature of the order rather than its nomenclature. Previous decisions stating that these orders are not appealable have been overruled.

RAVI MOHAN KAUL VS STATE / GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-12991/2019]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The review petition by Ravi Mohan Kaul was dismissed. His original requests in the writ petition were met with the DDA mutating the property in his name and the issuance of a joint share certificate by the respondent housing society. The demand for an enhanced refundable security deposit of Rs. 24,750 for permanent membership in the Vasant Vihar Club was found valid under the modified rules at the time of his eligibility. Kaul did not present sufficient grounds for review, such as new evidence or errors, and has the option to contest the society's order through appeal or revision, which he is already pursuing.

KARAN S THUKRAL VS THE DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE & ORS [W.P.(C)-6082/2019]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Centralized filing and mandatory e-filing have been implemented in all district courts in Delhi. The grim condition of record rooms prompted a directive for Principal District and Sessions Judges to expedite and monitor the weeding out of records. Quarterly progress reports are required, with a future date set for compliance review.

COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8548/2017]

The Delhi government and the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare must sign a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) by January 5, 2025, to implement the PM-ABHIM Scheme in Delhi, similar to its implementation in 33 other states/UTs. Disagreements between the Delhi Health Department and the Minister's office regarding a Health Management Information System (HMIS) were noted. The National Informatics Centre (NIC) and the Centre for Development of Advanced Computing (C-DAC) are required to submit representations on the HMIS by January 10, 2025. The MoU signing is to proceed regardless of any Model Code of Conduct, benefiting Delhi's citizens.

MAHARANI BAGH CO-OPERATIVE HOUSE BUILDING AND WELFARE SOCIETY LTD., & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA& ORS. [W.P.(C)-13190/2024]

DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION LTD AND ANR. VS MR. RAJENDER SINGH [W.P.(C)-11247/2017]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The review petition filed by Mr. Rajender Singh was dismissed after challenging the earlier order that set aside the Central Administrative Tribunal's decisions in favor of the respondent. Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Navin Chawla

The review petition by Anil Kumar Mokharia was allowed after his writ petition was previously dismissed. The rejection of his employment opportunity in the armed forces was deemed inappropriate based solely on suspicions regarding flap-less refractive eye surgery. The AIIMS medical board found no evidence of flap-based surgery, and the possibility of flap-less surgery alone was insufficient grounds for disqualification. The petitioner must be considered for the next recruitment batch with age relaxation and recognition of his previous merit, but will not receive pay or allowances for the intervening period.

The claim of estoppel by the bank was dismissed, as the respondent's interest could be protected by adjusting provident fund amounts against the pension arrears. The bank was instructed to pay the due pension arrears to the respondent.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANR VS SYED SAJID ALI [W.P.(C)-10592/2017]

The suspension was linked to impending disciplinary proceedings, not the later criminal case that led to the respondent's conviction in 2012. The suspension was voluntarily revoked in 2004, establishing it was not associated with the criminal matter. The outcome of the disciplinary proceedings resulted in a minor penalty, entitling the respondent to full pay and allowances for the suspension period under relevant rules.

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva

A directive was issued to recalculate the NFSG by including these posts in the SDP. Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva

The respondents were not justified in processing the petitioner's previous resignation request, which had been clearly declined when they asked for a fresh application with specific details. The Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972, do not prohibit an employer from allowing withdrawal of resignation, even after acceptance, and under the Sashastra Seema Bal Act, 2007, resignation requires Central Government approval. Since the initial resignation was not processed and no fresh application was submitted, the respondents cannot act on the previous application. The order accepting the petitioner's resignation was set aside, and he is to be deemed in service with all consequential benefits.

The reason given for the denial was the employee's status under probation; however, this was deemed unsustainable since the employee was already confirmed. In POCSO cases, when a victim's age is established through a bone age ossification test, the upper end of the age range should be considered, with an added margin of error of two years. This approach is intended to provide the benefit of doubt to the accused. Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The victim's testimony lacked credibility, and there were significant inconsistencies in the prosecution's case, including a delay in reporting, failure to confirm the victim's minor age, and a DNA report indicating the accused was not the biological father of the child. The acquittal was deemed justified, with no merit found in the state's appeal.

STATE VS JAI SINGH [CRL.L.P.-133/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The trial court acquitted the accused due to the prosecution's failure to prove foundational facts, highlighting major contradictions and improvements in the testimony of key witnesses, including the victims. Property disputes within the family raised the possibility of false implications, further underscoring the lack of corroborating evidence. The analysis and reasoning of the trial court regarding the insufficiency of evidence to support a conviction were upheld.

STATE VS KAPILADDIN MANDAL [CRL.L.P.-386/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The state's petition challenging the acquittal of Kapiladdin Mandal from rape and sexual assault charges was dismissed. The trial court's acquittal was considered reasonable, primarily due to the child victim's questionable credibility, potential influence from her father, inconsistencies in her parents' accounts about the FIR delay, and the victim's failure to identify the accused. The presumption of innocence for the accused and reluctance to overturn reasonable acquittals contributed to the dismissal.

STATE VS KULDEEP [CRL.L.P.-24/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The state's petition for leave to appeal against the trial court's acquittal of a school van driver on charges of sexual offenses was dismissed. Testimonies of the two minor victims weakened the serious allegations they initially made, suggesting possible tutoring. There was an absence of medical or scientific evidence and no additional corroborating witnesses. Although the POCSO Act allows for a statutory presumption, the prosecution did not establish the necessary foundational facts for this presumption to apply. The conclusion was that the evidence presented did not support a compelling case for appeal.

STATE VS MOHD NAZEEM [CRL.A.-617/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The appeal against the acquittal of Mohd Nazeem on charges under Section 6 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act was dismissed. The victim's testimony contained contradictions and inconsistencies, including delays in filing the FIR, claims of threats, and a newly introduced detail about her sister's presence during the incident. The prosecution also failed to clarify the victim's age and the reasons for her refusal to undergo a medical examination. The overall evidence led to the conclusion that the victim's testimony lacked credibility, supporting the trial court's decision to acquit the respondent. Interference with an acquittal is typically avoided if the trial court's reasoning is deemed reasonable and plausible.

STATE VS P.D.D. [CRL.A.-295/2021]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The victim's testimony was deemed credible and sufficient to convict the accused, her father, for aggravated penetrative sexual assault under the POCSO Act, along with criminal intimidation and causing hurt under the IPC. The delay in reporting was explained by the victim's young age and the threat from her father. Minor contradictions in testimonies were considered trivial. The accused did not challenge the presumptions under the POCSO Act, leading to his conviction. The acquittal from the trial court was reversed based on appeals from the state and the victim's family.

STATE VS RAJA RAM [CRL.A.-747/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The acquittal of Raja Ram, charged under various sections of the Indian Penal Code and the POCSO Act, was upheld. The prosecution did not establish the victim's age with certainty and there were significant inconsistencies in witness testimonies, including that of the victim. A key eyewitness became hostile, further undermining the prosecution's case. The victim's testimony lacked the necessary credibility to support a conviction in a sexual assault case involving a child. The order of acquittal was maintained as the appellate review did not find sufficient grounds for interference. The appeal by the State against the acquittal was dismissed.

STATE VS RAJENDER [CRL.L.P.-529/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The case was classified under Exception 4 of Section 300 IPC, indicating the offence occurred in a sudden fight fueled by passion during a quarrel, with no pre-meditation. There was no significant cooling-off period between the altercation and the stabbing. The accused inflicted only one blow, suggesting a lack of intent to kill. Culpable homicide was determined not to amount to murder, resulting in the upholding of the conviction under Section 304 Part II IPC. The application for leave to appeal against this conviction was denied.

STATE VS ROHIT [CRL.A.-542/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The trial court's decision to acquit Rohit of charges under Sections 363/366/376(2)(i) IPC and Section 4 of the POCSO Act was upheld due to significant inconsistencies in the victim's statements during the investigation and trial. The victim's age could not be conclusively established, leading to the application of the benefit of doubt in favor of the accused. Although a DNA report indicated a physical relationship, it was insufficient to compensate for the evidentiary lapses present in the case.

STATE VS ROSHAN [CRL.L.P.-67/2020]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The acquittal of accused Roshan, charged under Sections 363, 376, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 6 of the POCSO Act, was upheld due to the victim's unconvincing testimony and material contradictions in the prosecution's evidence. Confusion regarding the victim's age and unreliable school records weakened the case. The victim's behavior during the incident indicated elopement rather than kidnapping, leading to the conclusion that the trial court's reasoning was logical and plausible.

STATE VS SUNIL KUMAR [CRL.L.P.-83/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The State's petition for leave to appeal against the acquittal of the accused was declined. Key issues included the determination of the prosecutrix's age and the reliability of her testimony. The prosecution failed to provide reliable documentary evidence for the prosecutrix's age, and her testimony contained material inconsistencies that did not inspire confidence. Overall, the trial court's evaluation of the evidence and its conclusions were deemed appropriate, leading to the denial of the appeal.

STATE VS VIKAS KUMAR & ANR. [CRL.L.P.-150/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The state's petition for leave to appeal against the acquittal of Vikas Kumar and Ved Prakash was dismissed due to contradictions and inconsistencies in eyewitness and victim testimonies, as well as significant gaps in the police investigation. These issues created reasonable doubt, supporting the trial court's decision to acquit the accused. The case was deemed unsuitable for the state to pursue an appeal.

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The criminal writ petition filed by Sushil Kumar Rai to set aside a custody order from a U.S. District Court was dismissed. The appropriate appeal should have been made in the U.S., not through a writ petition. The foreign judgment is assumed to be from a competent court, and a writ of habeas corpus cannot serve as a substitute for Family or executing Court jurisdiction. As the petitioner already challenged the order in the U.S. appellate court, the writ petition was deemed unsustainable.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Punjab and Haryana High Court directed the grant of replacement pay scale benefits according to the 5th CPC recommendations to Border Security Force personnel from 01.01.1996. The refusal to extend these benefits to similarly placed individuals in other Central Armed Police Forces lacks justification, especially since the benefits were already given to personnel in another CAPF. Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition by a former BSF personnel for disability and extraordinary pension was dismissed as time-barred after 44 years. The absence of medical records hindered the establishment of a causal link between the disability and service conditions, which is necessary for eligibility under the CCS (EOP) Rules. Consequently, the request for relief could not be granted due to the lack of supporting medical documentation.

The Armed Forces Tribunal had cited a 37-year and 32-year delay and the destruction of service records under Army regulations. It was noted that delay cannot be the sole ground for dismissal in pension-related cases. The previous orders were set aside, restoring the original applications for consideration on their merits, with the requirement that the petitioners establish their entitlement. Claims were not adjudicated on their merits due to the prior dismissal solely based on delay.

The decision to expunge the entire assessment in the third confidential report was deemed inconsistent with relevant guidelines, focusing only on the average variation without considering other factors. Orders regarding the second and third confidential reports were set aside, with a directive to consider consequential reliefs for the petitioner. No issues were found with the first confidential report.

The argument that Khulbe needed a Ph.D. for the Associate Professor position under AICTE Regulations, 2012, was rejected, as those regulations did not apply to her since she joined before 05.03.2010. She was deemed eligible for re-designation after completing 3 years as a Lecturer (Selection Grade).

The petitioners were unable to submit their representation within the stipulated 15-day period due to postings in remote locations and lack of legal knowledge. Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The appeal by IIDL challenging the Arbitral Award and the order of the learned Single Judge was dismissed. The liability for payment of Value Added Tax (VAT) rests with Subir Engineering Works (P) Ltd., not IIDL. The terms of the Letters of Intent (LOIs) from IIDL, which specified rates as exclusive of taxes, override the general contract terms. Interference with the findings of the Sole Arbitrator and the learned Single Judge was not warranted due to the limited scope of appeals under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The termination of the petitioner's service as a Constable (Driver) in the Sashastra Seema Bal was deemed unwarranted, as the alleged suppression of a minor criminal case, which resulted in acquittal, did not justify such a severe penalty. Relevant legal principles emphasize the need to assess the nature of the offense and whether there was deliberate suppression. The respondents did not adequately consider these principles and the specific circumstances of the case, leading to an arbitrary and disproportionate decision. The petitioner is to be reinstated with all consequential benefits, excluding the period of termination.

JAI SINGH SAHARAN AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6714/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

KUMAR SANJAY JHA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2699/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Confirming Authority's order for reconsideration of certain charges and the sentence by the General Security Force Court (GSFC) did not infringe the petitioner's right to submit a 'Pre-Confirmation Petition' under the Border Security Force Act and Rules. Previous judgments established that the Confirming Authority is not obligated to decide the Pre-Confirmation Petition before revising its powers. Rule 167(1) of the BSF Rules restates an existing remedy without establishing a separate right. The petitioner can submit a new Pre-Confirmation Petition after the GSFC issues its revised report. The Impugned Order was found to be without infirmity, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

The decision of the Armed Forces Tribunal to deny the petition for an interim order to continue service was upheld. The petitioner contested the Air Force Instructions allowing his discharge due to failure to clear the MOD-II examination and refusal to accept re-mustering. Rule 15(2)(e) of the Air Force Rules permits discharge of an inefficient airman unwilling to accept reduction or re-mustering, and the applicable 2019 policy was relevant to the case. The Tribunal had thoroughly considered the numerical grading and remarks in the ACR from the Initiating, Reviewing, and Accepting Officers. Although Jha alleged bias from the Initiating Officer, no claims were made against the other two officers. The inability to act as an appellate body for the Tribunal contributed to the dismissal of the petition.

MAJOR KAMLESH KUMAR NTS 17570M VS UNION OF INDIA, AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16260/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
The order of the Armed Forces Tribunal refusing to stay Major Kamlesh Kumar's release from service was upheld. The Tribunal had previously rejected his application for a permanent commission three times after reviewing his service profile and had ended his service extension. Granting relief at this stage would restore the previous status, which was not justified. The petitioner's Original Application is scheduled for final hearing on 12.12.2024, and if successful, he may be reinstated with benefits. It was requested that no adjournment be granted on that date and that the hearing proceed as planned.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Manvir Singh, a former BSF constable, had his disability of "Bipolar Affective Disorder" recognized as attributable to his service. The medical board's conclusion lacked justification, especially since Singh had no pre-existing condition at enrollment and the disability emerged during his service. The burden of proof fell on the employer to demonstrate that the disability was not service-related. As a result, Singh's disability was assessed at 65%, rounded off to 75%, and he was to be granted a disability pension with benefits to be released within two months.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents rejected the petitioner's candidature for the Constable (Crew) position in the BSF due to the incorrect experience certificate uploaded, as required by the advertisement. This rejection was deemed justified at the document verification stage, as allowing a new certificate would be unfair to other candidates rejected for the same reason or who did not apply due to ineligibility. The decision to reject the petitioner's application was based on adherence to the advertisement's requirements.

MR BISHNU PRATAP VS UOI THROUGH MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11083/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The mere suppression of the fact that the petitioner was named as an accused in an FIR, despite subsequent acquittal, does not justify termination from service as a CISF constable. Authorities must evaluate the case's nature, the duties of the position, and the petitioner's overall suitability, avoiding arbitrary decisions. The termination orders were set aside, and reinstatement was ordered without back wages for the period of absence.

MR. JAGJEET SINGH BHALLA VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-16465/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by Nagesh Ratan Daberao challenging his medical disqualification for the Constable (GD) position in the CRPF was dismissed. The 'Pilonidal Sinus' condition was not the disqualifying factor; rather, his overweight status at the time of the medical examination justified the disqualification. Achieving the required weight later does not retroactively qualify him for the appointment.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal granted the petitioner only an invalid pension, excluding the disability element, as the medical board determined that the petitioner's generalized epilepsy was neither attributable to nor aggravated by military service. The medical board's expertise limited the scope for judicial review unless clear illegality, bias, or arbitrariness was evident. A significant delay of approximately 35 years in filing the petition and the destruction of medical records as per policy complicated the assessment. The petition was dismissed without identifying any issues in the Armed Forces Tribunal's order.

The lack of incriminating material against the petitioner invalidated the respondents' argument regarding the acquittal being based on the benefit of doubt. The petitioner had disclosed the pendency of the criminal case in his application, and the respondents issued the appointment letter despite this information. The petitioner's failure to disclose specific sections of the FIR or the status of the chargesheet could not be used as grounds for canceling the appointment, as this was not included in the impugned orders. If the decision is unfavorable, he can challenge it legally. No opinion on the merits of his candidature was expressed.

SACHIN NEGI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15276/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents must arrange for Sachin Negi to undergo a new medical examination at the Army Hospital (R&R), New Delhi, within two weeks due to conflicting opinions between the medical boards and a private hospital's findings on his color vision. If deemed fit, he can participate in the selection process, provided he meets other criteria. If found unfit, he cannot contest the decision.

SAJAL SAHA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-15281/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A further medical examination will be conducted at the Army Research and Referral Hospital, Delhi Cantt, due to inconsistencies between opinions on the petitioner's fitness for the AFCAT-(01/2024) course. The outcome of this examination will be final; if found medically fit, the petitioner's application will proceed, while an unfit declaration will conclude the matter without the possibility of challenge.

SALIM MALIK VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.A.-1184/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The investigation into the alleged forgery of a medical prescription submitted by the appellant in a bail application is to proceed, despite the withdrawal of the application. The presence of a forged document necessitates a proper investigation rather than ignoring it. Applicability of Section 215 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, is clarified, specifying that prosecution for false evidence relates only to documents presented in evidence during proceedings. The appellant's appeal regarding the investigation is dismissed.

SAMESEN PAT AND ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4544/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents must consider the petitioners' representation regarding the difference in weekly offs for CISF personnel at IGI Airport and DMRC compared to those posted elsewhere. A reassessment of the general policy on weekly offs and potential additional benefits for CISF personnel is required. No opinion on the merits of the petitioners' claims has been expressed, leaving the decision to the respondents in accordance with the law.

SANDEEP KUMAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-10619/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents did not select the petitioner for the Soldier (GD) post despite the petitioner meeting the required scores on the written exam and physical fitness test. The petitioner was initially not informed of the reasons for non-selection but ultimately fell into the lowest priority category (Priority V) as the son of an ex-serviceman not part of the EME Corps. Due to the priority-based selection system, no relief was granted to the petitioner, and the petition was dismissed.

SANDEEP KUMAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14045/2021]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order to compulsorily retire the petitioner from the Border Security Force due to unsuitability was set aside. The respondents did not adequately consider the petitioner's schizophrenia diagnosis, acknowledged in his Annual Performance Assessment Report. Misconduct and disciplinary records were improperly relied upon without addressing the mental illness. A directive was issued to review the petitioner's complete medical and service record and reinstate him with all consequential benefits.

SANDEEP KUMAR VS DIRECTOR GENERAL COAST GUARD HEADQUARTERS AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-16785/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by Sandeep Kumar was dismissed. An order advised him to report back to duty before his resignation request could be considered. He is required to report back and then apply for consideration of his period of absence, which should be addressed according to the law.

SANDEEP KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15064/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The main issue is whether the petitioner submitted his nomination for the GTO-283 course claiming to act on behalf of the previous Commanding Officer without approval. This constitutes a disputed question of fact. Interference with ongoing proceedings is not justified at this stage, as the petitioner has received a show cause notice and can present his arguments in response. The determination of the disciplinary authority's concurrence has not yet reached the appropriate stage for consideration.

SANDEEP KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15577/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by Sandeep Kumar, challenging the cancellation of his nomination for the GTO-283 course, was dismissed due to serious doubts about the authenticity of his nomination. Kumar previously filed a similar petition, which was dismissed. He was given an opportunity to confirm consent from the former Commanding Officer for the nomination submission. If the Commanding Officer refutes his claim, no further disciplinary inquiry would take place. The ruling indicated that the Commanding Officer possesses the authority to submit a new nomination without it being a disciplinary action against Kumar. The petition was deemed an abuse of the court's process.

SANDEEP VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL BSF AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10138/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Sandeep's candidature for the Constable (Cook) position could not be rejected based solely on the lack of an NSQF Level I Certificate, as he possessed a higher NSQF Level II Certificate in "Kitchen Helper," which was confirmed to meet the requirement. The BSF must consider his application on merits and, if suitable, provide him with an appointment and retrospective seniority, though without salary for the intervening period.

SANJAY KUMAR VS THE DIRECTOR GENERAL CENTRAL INDUSRIAL SECURITY FORCE AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12863/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Orders imposing a penalty on an Assistant Sub-Inspector in the Central Industrial Security Force for unauthorized absence from duty were set aside. The absence was not willful but due to medical reasons, supported by medical records not properly considered by the inquiry officer. The imposition of penalty was deemed unjustified, and the respondents were directed to pay the petitioner arrears of salary and consequential benefits within 6 weeks.

SANTOSH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16280/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition by Santosh challenging the Medical Reports that declared him unfit for the Physical Standard Test for Constable positions was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The recruitment advertisement specified the courts with jurisdiction based on the location of the Computer Based Examination. Santosh was granted the option to approach the appropriate court.

SATHIYARAJ V & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9086/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by the petitioners was dismissed because they lack the inherent right to seek absorption into the posts of Junior X-Ray Assistant (Head Constable) and Laboratory Assistant/Technician (Head Constable) in the Border Security Force (BSF). The Recruitment Rules 2013 and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) allowed for absorption, but these posts were abolished by the Ministry of Home Affairs in the 1st Cadre Review dated 01.02.2024. As the posts no longer exist, the claim for absorption cannot be granted, and referring the case to a Screening Committee would be futile. The petition was dismissed unanimously.

SATYAVIR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11551/2021]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition by an Assistant Commandant in the Central Reserve Police Force challenging his dismissal was dismissed. The initiation of departmental proceedings for unauthorized absence from duty was justified due to the petitioner's failure to provide adequate evidence of his medical condition. The argument regarding the mandatory acceptance of his resignation was rejected, as the competent authority has discretion in such matters. No procedural lapses were noted in the disciplinary process, and the penalty of dismissal was deemed proportionate.

SATYENDRA SINGH SAHRAWAT VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3332/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) erred by denying promotion to the petitioner based on the Director General's Displeasures, which are not considered penalties under the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965. The petitioner's Annual Performance Assessment Reports (APARs) graded him as "very good," indicating that the Displeasures did not negatively impact his performance. A Review DPC must be convened to evaluate the petitioner's promotion case without considering the Displeasures, and if found suitable, he should be granted promotion with retrospective effect and placed above his immediate junior in seniority.

SH RAGHUVEER SINGH HC GD) VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16806/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's medical condition of hypertension with chronic kidney failure, requiring regular dialysis, necessitates that the petition be treated as a representation for consideration within two weeks. The transfer order is suspended during this period, and if the decision is unfavorable to the petitioner, implementation is delayed for four weeks to allow for legal remedies. The petition and accompanying application are disposed of on these terms.

SH. GOPAL KRISHAN VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETRY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16322/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
The respondents acknowledged the petitioner's promotion to OEM Grade-I and the associated financial benefits, including pension. The petitioner is instructed to file a representation if complete pensionary benefits are still not received. The respondents must address this representation within six weeks and release any accepted arrears. If the representation is denied, the respondents are required to provide a speaking order, allowing the petitioner to challenge it legally.

SH. ROHIT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-17089/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
The respondents, including the Union of India, were directed to consider a representation from petitioner Sh. Rohit regarding a character certificate for his appointment, which was deemed not issued by the appropriate officer. The merits of the claim were not addressed, and the issue of territorial jurisdiction remains open for future determination.

SH.MRINAL KANTI CHATTERJEE VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4106/2023]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
The writ petition was dismissed, and disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner will continue despite an ongoing criminal trial. The disciplinary charges are based on different facts than the criminal case, so a stay is not warranted. No opinion was provided on the merits of either the criminal trial or the disciplinary proceedings.

SHEENA GOEL VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6933/2021]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
Maintenance allowance will be granted to the petitioner from 23.12.2019, in line with Supreme Court precedent. The respondent's claim that maintenance only applies from the date of the order was rejected. The respondent must pay the arrears in equal monthly installments over 12 months. No relief was provided regarding visitation rights over the children, as that was not part of the petition.

SHEMFORD HALDWANI AND ANR VS SHEMFORD SCHOOLS PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO (COMM)-250/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
The appellants, Shemford Haldwani and another, must apply to relevant authorities to change the name of their school to remove the "Shemford" mark. They have agreed to cease using the "Shemford" mark by 01.04.2025 and have been granted until that date to complete the name change process, with the option to seek an extension if necessary. This arrangement does not affect the rights and contentions of the parties in the ongoing suit.

SHRI BIPINCHANDRA JAGLAWALA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13946/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur
The respondents must consider the petitioner's claim for due increments based on a specific Supreme Court decision within eight weeks and provide a reasoned order. The petitioner retains the right to seek legal recourse if dissatisfied with the outcome.

SHRI RAJESHWAR TYAGI VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15008/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

SHRI SHIV KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16722/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents are directed to evaluate the petitioner's claim for an increment based on a specific Supreme Court decision within eight weeks and provide a reasoned order. The respondents expressed no objection to this directive. The petitioner can pursue legal options if unsatisfied with the outcome.

SHRI SUMIT KUMAR VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL BORDER SECURITY FORCE [W.P.(C)-12968/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by Shri Sumit Kumar, challenging his dismissal from service as a Constable/GD with the Border Security Force, was dismissed. The petitioner willfully disobeyed orders to report for duty after a transfer and displayed a lack of seriousness in his duties. The dismissal was deemed justified, as the Commandant of the 39th Battalion, acting as the "Prescribed Officer," had the authority to issue the order, despite the petitioner's claim that it was not valid due to the rank of the officer involved. No merit was found in the petitioner's arguments.

SHRI YOGENDER SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13954/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents are directed to consider the petitioner's claim for increments based on a Supreme Court decision and to issue a reasoned order within eight weeks. The petitioner accepted a review of his claims in a timely manner, and the respondents expressed no objection. The petitioner retains the option to seek legal recourse if dissatisfied with the outcome.

SIRIBARIKI SURESH VS INDIAN COAST GUARD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR GENERAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13973/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The rejection of the petitioner's candidature for the Navik (Domestic Branch) position in the Indian Coast Guard was set aside. The petitioner used a formula to convert his CGPA to marks for the 10th standard, which was not specified in the guidelines. A multiplier of 10 was applied by the petitioner inadvertently, and he should not be penalized for this minor mistake. The case will be reconsidered for appointment, allowing the petitioner to join the induction course with the next batch while maintaining seniority and other benefits, though without salary for the period he was not employed.

SMT. MURTI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13352/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents, including the Union of India, must consider the petitioner's request for a CSD Card and Health Card facilities, issuing a speaking order within eight weeks and informing the petitioner. The Armed Forces Tribunal previously indicated that these requests fell outside its jurisdiction. The petitioner retains the right to challenge the decision if dissatisfied.

SMT. RUPA RANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8407/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition for restoration of family pension after remarriage was dismissed. Under Rule 54(6) of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972, a widow is disqualified from receiving family pension upon remarriage. While a "childless widow" can continue receiving the pension if her income is below a certain threshold, the presence of a daughter from the first marriage disqualifies the petitioner from this status. Consequently, she is not eligible for family pension after remarriage.

SNEH BIOTECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS FLEBO.IN PRIVATE LIMITED [RFA(COMM)-536/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court correctly found it lacked territorial jurisdiction over the suit filed by Sneh Biotech Private Limited against Flebo.In Private Limited. The appropriate action was to return the plaint to Sneh Biotech under Order VII Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, rather than reject it under Order VII Rule 11. The order was modified to instruct the trial court to return the plaint for filing in the appropriate court with competent jurisdiction.

SONAJI SHRIDHAR GAIKWAD VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16148/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner challenged the rejection of his appointment as a Constable (Tailor) in the CRPF. The rejection was considered outside the territorial jurisdiction for the petition, as the advertisement specified jurisdiction based on the location of examination centers. The petitioner may approach the appropriate court with proper territorial jurisdiction.

SONU YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10547/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Sonu Yadav's writ petition led to a directive for the Union of India and SSB to consider his case per a prior judgment regarding the creation of a wait list for Constable positions based on vacancies from July 28, 2020, and November 12-18, 2022. The wait list will operate after selected candidates' joining period expires, allowing eligible petitioners to receive appointments according to their merit without retrospective seniority. This matter is part of a broader context related to the earlier judgment, with no separate decisions indicated.

STAFF SELCTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS RAJESH [W.P.(C)-14080/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Staff Selection Commission and others was dismissed after a Central Administrative Tribunal ordered a fresh medical examination for Rajesh, based on a conflicting report from Safdarjung Hospital that cleared him of a medical disqualification (pectus excavatum) identified by the Review Medical Board. Rajesh was granted an opportunity to prove he does not have the alleged disqualification. If the new medical board confirms the disqualification, his case will not proceed further, and this opinion cannot be contested by him.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS VINEET KUMAR [W.P.(C)-14731/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Central Administrative Tribunal erred by ordering a fresh medical examination of a respondent deemed unfit for appointment as a Constable in the Delhi Police due to hypertension. BP readings over multiple days indicated consistently high blood pressure, not attributable to "white-coat hypertension." In the absence of procedural irregularities or mala fides, the decisions of the medical boards were upheld, leading to the cancellation of the Tribunal's order.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS ARUN [W.P.(C)-14729/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld, requiring the Staff Selection Commission to conduct a fresh medical examination for the respondents. Review medical boards did not allow adequate time for the respondents' conditions, anal fissure and hemorrhoids, to heal and failed to provide a detailed opinion on how these conditions would affect their job performance. Opinions of medical boards are generally respected, but intervention is warranted in cases of procedural breaches, examination discrepancies, lack of specialist input, or ignoring specialist views. The judgment involved two related cases.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS KM. POOJA [W.P.(C)-16417/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed the Staff Selection Commission to re-examine the respondent's medical fitness for the Constable (Executive) position. Initially, the Detailed Medical Examination Board declared the respondent "temporarily unfit" due to low hemoglobin levels, while the Review Medical Board deemed her "permanently unfit" based on conjectural concerns about frequent hospital visits without expert consultation. The Tribunal's order for a fresh medical examination by a board including a specialist was upheld.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS MANJU [W.P.(C)-14167/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Staff Selection Commission (SSC) must have Manju re-examined by a new Medical Board due to discrepancies between her Detailed Medical Examination and Review Medical Examination. The Review Board noted a new disqualification (right adnexal/ovarian complex cystic lesion) not mentioned before. The justification for a fresh medical examination arises from uncertainty about whether this new disqualification affects her ability to serve as a Constable.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS PHOOL SINGH [W.P.(C)-16616/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order directing the Staff Selection Commission to constitute a new Medical Board and re-examine Phool Singh for fitness as a Constable (Executive) Male was set aside. The previous findings of the Detailed Medical Examination and Review Medical Examination Boards, which declared Phool Singh unfit for the position, were not adequately addressed by the Tribunal. Phool Singh's original application was restored, with a directive for all parties to appear before the Tribunal on a specified date.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS PRABHAT PANDEY [W.P.(C)-14537/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Staff Selection Commission was dismissed, and a fresh medical examination of Prabhat Pandey was directed. Initially declared medically unfit for appointment as a Constable due to defective vision and stammering, Pandey presented reports from civilian hospitals indicating he did not have a speech issue, conflicting with the medical board's findings. This inconsistency warranted the direction for a new examination.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS PRINCE [W.P.(C)-14182/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Central Administrative Tribunal incorrectly directed a re-medical examination of the respondent based on a Safdarjung Hospital report, which declared the respondent fit, despite evidence of likely active pulmonary tuberculosis from a review medical board. The review medical board's opinion was based on scientific examination, with no allegations of mala fides or procedural issues. The Tribunal's order for re-examination was deemed unjustified, leading to the petition being allowed and the Tribunal's order set aside.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ORS. VS TEJVEER [W.P.(C)-14224/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order directing a fresh medical re-examination of Tejveer by the Staff Selection Commission was set aside. The Review Medical Examination Board's finding of Tejveer as medically unfit for the Constable (Executive) position in the Delhi Police Examination 2023, based on scientific examination and reports, was upheld. The single report from Safdarjung Hospital indicating fitness was deemed insufficient for a re-examination referral.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION AND ORS VS MUKESH KUMAR BARWAR [W.P.(C)-15802/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A fresh medical re-examination of Mukesh Kumar Barwar is mandated due to conflicting assessments from two medical boards. The respondent was declared 'unfit' by the petitioners' boards, while separate medical opinions indicated he was healthy and had a non-active condition. The establishment of a new Medical Board to conduct this examination was deemed appropriate, with the outcome being binding on all parties involved.

STAFF SELECTION COMMISSIONER & ORS. VS NEELAM RANI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14749/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order directing the petitioners to constitute a fresh medical board for re-examining Neelam Rani for the Constable position was set aside. Fitness standards for recruitment in disciplined forces like the police are stricter than for civilian roles. Interference in medical examination decisions is limited to circumstances such as procedural breaches or significant discrepancies between medical boards. In this case, the medical boards adhered to proper procedures and clinical examinations, and new medical reports from the candidate could not substitute the original findings. Suitability assessments are designated to recruitment authorities, not external entities.

SUBHASH CHAND VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7350/2016]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The removal of a CISF constable from service was upheld due to unauthorized absence and misconduct involving misbehavior towards a superior officer. Although the absence was linked to a personal emergency, the failure to follow leave extension procedures was deemed misconduct. The departmental inquiry had no major procedural irregularities, and unauthorized absence periods were later regularized. However, a charge related to previous punishments was found to be unmaintainable. Considering the constable's history of indiscipline and the seriousness of the proven charges, the punishment was ultimately confirmed.

SUMIT KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10251/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's challenge to his transfer order was rejected due to his non-compliance with a directed medical examination for fitness assessment for posting in Kashmir. The petitioner retains the option to request a new medical examination and reconsideration of his posting. Regarding the suspension period, the respondents were instructed to review the petitioner's representation and provide a decision within four weeks, with the possibility of challenging that decision if the petitioner is dissatisfied.

SUN PHARMACEUTICAL LABORATORIES LTD VS RSPL HELATHCARE P LTD & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-241/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The ex-parte ad-interim injunction against Sun Pharmaceutical for allegedly infringing the 'PRO-EASE' trademark by using 'PRUEASE' was set aside. The application for an injunction by RSPL Healthcare was restored, with directions for expedited hearing and resolution within a month.

SUNDER LAL JANARTHA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16265/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner is to receive due increments based on a referenced Supreme Court decision. The respondents will review the petitioner's claim within 8 weeks and issue a reasoned order. The petitioner retains the option to pursue legal recourse if dissatisfied with the outcome.

SUNDER SINGH RAWAT & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14701/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A writ petition was disposed of, directing the respondents to consider the petitioners' claims for increments within 8 weeks, in accordance with a Supreme Court decision and its clarificatory order. The respondents had no objections, and the petitioners can seek further legal recourse if dissatisfied with the decision.

SURESH SUBRAMANIAM VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16484/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner argued for retaining a government residential quarter for three years after transfer despite changes in area categorization under the Security Related Expenditure Scheme, but this argument lacks prima facie merit. Nonetheless, the respondents were directed to consider the petitioner's representation for further retention, taking into account the recent change in the SRE Scheme's status communicated only in July 2024. A decision on the representation must be made within four weeks, with a two-week stay on any adverse decision to allow the petitioner to seek legal remedies. Observations made are prima facie and non-binding.

T RAGHUPATHI REDDY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15076/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Respondents are directed to treat the petitioner's request for voluntary retirement as a representation and to issue a reasoned order within 12 weeks. The petitioner, T Raghupathi Reddy, had his request rejected due to non-compliance with an investigation related to an FIR. There is no opinion expressed on the merits of the petitioner's claims, with an opportunity for reconsideration provided. The petitioner retains the right to challenge the respondents' decision legally if dissatisfied.

TANAY DAS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13677/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by Tanay Das for benefits under the "Golden Jubilee Seema Prahari Kalyan Kawach" and the Central Armed Police Salary Package was dismissed because he had already sought similar relief in the Calcutta High Court, where it was disposed of with specific directions. Since the cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Calcutta High Court and relevant actions took place in Kolkata, the petition was dismissed, allowing the petitioner to pursue remedies before the appropriate court.

U.O.I & ORS. VS KM ALKA [W.P.(C)-14539/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition filed by the Union of India and others was dismissed, affirming the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal. KM Alka was allowed to undergo a fresh medical examination for the Constable (Executive) position. Although initially declared medically unfit due to low hemoglobin levels, Alka provided medical reports indicating her hemoglobin levels were within the permissible range, leading to the decision to permit re-examination.

UMANG REALTECH PVT LTD VS MRS DAPHNE REITA RAJAN SHARMA & ANR. [RERA APPEAL-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The requirement under Section 43(5) of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 mandates a promoter to deposit at least 30% of the penalty or amount payable to the allottee before filing an appeal. The arguments regarding the moratorium in insolvency proceedings exempting compliance and offering a flat as security were rejected. The insolvency proceedings applied only to a specific project, not the promoter's other projects, and the Interim Resolution Professional, representing the promoter, was subject to the pre-deposit requirement.

UMED SINGH & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11115/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The ITBP rejected the candidature of the petitioners for the Constable (GD) position under the sports quota due to the certificates from the Volleyball Federation of India failing to meet the advertisement's criteria, as the Federation was not recognized by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports at the relevant time. The certificates lacked clarity regarding the petitioners' achievements, leading to a dismissal of the petition with no identified issues in the decision.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS 726674-S EX SGT JAYANTA DAS [W.P.(C)-15232/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India challenging the grant of disability pension to an ex-sergeant was dismissed. The respondent's bronchial asthma disability was recognized as attributable to or aggravated by military service. Principles regarding presumption of sound physical condition upon entry into service and a liberal approach in awarding disability pensions were upheld. The Medical Board did not provide adequate justification to counter the presumption linking the respondent's disability to military service.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX SPR (MACP NK) P ARUN KUMAR [W.P.(C)-15632/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant the respondent the disability element of pension was upheld, despite the Medical Board's findings that the disability was not attributable to or aggravated by military service. Consideration of the respondent's posting profile indicated that the onset of the disability occurred shortly after deployment in a field area. Relevant considerations were taken into account, and no legal infirmity existed in the conclusion reached.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS GP CAPT S MEDIRATTA VSM 18893ADM FC RETD [W.P.(C)-13683/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal's decision to grant disability pension to a retired Air Force officer was upheld. The medical board's initial opinion stated that the officer's primary hypertension was aggravated by high altitude posting, but this opinion was later altered without valid justification. This change by the medical board, influenced by the administrative body, invalidated the denial of the disability pension. Thus, there was no reason to contest the Tribunal's favorable decision for the officer.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS LT COL AA GODBOLE (RETD.) [W.P.(C)-16773/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India challenging the Armed Forces Tribunal's order granting Lt. Col. A.A. Godbole (Retd.) a disability pension at 30% rounded off to 50% from his discharge date was dismissed. The Tribunal's order, although non-speaking, was supported by a finding from the Release Medical Board that noted the respondent's disability was aggravated by military service. The denial of the disability pension despite this finding was questioned.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS MAJ PRASANNA V RETD SL 4628 A [W.P.(C)-14994/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India challenging the grant of a disability pension to a retired Major was dismissed. The Armed Forces Tribunal awarded a 30% disability pension for Schizophrenia, rounded off to 50%, from the date of invalidment. The decision was based on the Major's service in a counter-insurgency operation area under stressful conditions, leading to the conclusion that the mental health issue likely resulted from stress experienced during that posting. The grant of the disability pension was upheld.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS COL BHASKAR DEV BURMAN RETD [W.P.(C)-16189/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant disability pension to Col. Bhaskar Dev Burman (Retd.) was upheld based on the assessment of his service-related disability, Primary Hypertension, at 30%. It was determined that this disability should be broad-banded to 50%. The petition by the Union of India contesting this decision was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS COL KAILASH CHANDRA VERMA (RETD) [W.P.(C)-5075/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal granted disability pension to Col. Kailash Chandra Verma for primary hypertension, supported by consistent opinions from the Categorization Medical Boards stating that his condition was aggravated by military service. The Adjutant General's Branch disagreed without justifiable reasons and sought an unfavourable opinion from a new Medical Board, which was dismissed. The previously provided reasons by authorities were deemed insufficient, affirming the decision to award the disability pension.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS COL SHASHANK SIHORKAR RETD [W.P.(C)-14636/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision granted Col. Shashank Sihorkar (Retd.) a lifelong disability pension at 50% for "Primary Hypertension," assessed at 30% by the Release Medical Board (RMB). The RMB noted that the condition predated his service but was aggravated by military duties, particularly in Counter-Insurgency Operations. Previous authorities rejected the claim, citing the onset during peacetime and a lack of evidence for service-related stress. The assessment indicated that these bodies did not adequately evaluate the merits of the case, leading to the granting of the pension based on the RMB's findings.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS COLONEL BK CHHIMWAL RETIRED IC 390431 [W.P.(C)-15375/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal granted a retired Army officer the disability element of pension for medical conditions, including CAD TVD CABG, Primary Hypertension, and Open Angle Glaucoma. It noted that the initial opinion of the Release Medical Board regarding the aggravation of at least one disability by service should not be altered based solely on the officer's posting in a peace area, as service conditions can still contribute to the disability. The reasoning was supported by relevant Supreme Court precedents.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX HAV HARISH CHANDRA JOSHI [W.P.(C)-14876/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant disability pension to Ex HAV Harish Chandra Joshi for primary hypertension was upheld. The Medical Board's conclusion that the disability was not attributable to or aggravated by military service was found inadequate due to insufficient consideration of the respondent's service conditions. Principles established in a related Supreme Court judgment were applied, supporting the validity of the AFT's decision to award the pension.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX HAV/GD SARWAN SINGH ARMY NO 4000369K [W.P.(C)-15513/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal granted the respondent a disability pension at 20%, rounded to 50%, from his retirement date. Medical Boards stated that the respondent's Diabetes Mellitus Type II was not service-attributable but was aggravated by his service conditions in field/CI operations. The decision was supported by evidence presented. The petitioners' challenge was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX HFL NATHU RAM [W.P.(C)-14878/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant the respondent a disability pension of 75% for life is upheld, rounding off as per the Supreme Court's precedent. A presumption exists that service members are in sound health when entering service, with any health deterioration leading to discharge assumed to be related to military service. The employer bears the burden of proof to demonstrate otherwise, and the claimant benefits from any reasonable doubt. The Medical Board's assessment, which stated that the respondent's disability was not related to military service, failed to adequately account for service conditions, justifying the higher pension awarded by the Armed Forces Tribunal.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX JWO CHANDRA KUMAR DIXIT [W.P.(C)-15762/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India challenging an Armed Forces Tribunal order was dismissed. The tribunal granted Ex JWO Chandra Kumar Dixit a 20% disability pension for life due to his Seizure Disorder, which was considered attributable to military service. Dixit was diagnosed in 2008 and discharged in 2019 in a low medical category. The decision was upheld as there was no basis for interference.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX JWO UDAIVEER GAUTAM(686502-S) [W.P.(C)-15363/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant an ex-Junior Warrant Officer a disability pension for primary hypertension at 30%, rounded to 50%, effective from the date of discharge, was upheld. A presumption of soundness upon entering military service was established, placing the burden of proof on the employer to demonstrate that the condition was not related to or aggravated by military duties. The Medical Board's opinion was deemed insufficient as it did not fully account for the service conditions, validating the grant of the disability pension.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX LEM R JAIDEEP NO 210711 R [W.P.(C)-15709/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The application of Ex LEM (R) Jaideep was approved, granting him a life-long disability pension at 20%, rounded off to 50%, from the date of his discharge. His Seizure Disorder was found to be attributable to and aggravated by his military service, supported by his posting profile and relevant regulations. The challenge to this decision by the Union of India & Ors. was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX NK/DSC SHETYE SITARAM ANANT [W.P.(C)-14649/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India challenging the Armed Forces Tribunal's order for condonation of a 53-day shortfall in qualifying service for a second service pension in the Defence Security Corps (DSC) was dismissed. Pension regulations permit two independent service pensions for the Indian Army and DSC. The regulations allow for the condonation of shortfalls in qualifying service for the second pension, making the contrary administrative instructions from the Ministry of Defence inapplicable. Previous judgments in similar cases supported this conclusion.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS EX SGT KUNDAN KUMAR (SERVICE NO 746913) [W.P.(C)-15708/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision of the Armed Forces Tribunal to grant Ex Sergeant Kundan Kumar a disability pension at 50% for life due to Somatoform Autonomic Dysfunction was upheld. The Tribunal's rejection of the Release Medical Board's conclusion, which stated the disability was not linked to military service, was considered justified. The Board's clinical assessment indicated a causal relationship between the disability and the duties assigned to the respondent, which differed from his regular trade. A petition challenging this order was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS HAV D SRINIVASA RAO, RETD. [W.P.(C)-6815/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal's decision to grant a retired Havildar pension benefits at the last rank held was upheld, despite the Havildar not completing 10 months in that rank. Payment of arrears for the revised pension was restricted to a 3-year period prior to the filing of the original application, rather than from the date of discharge, which exceeded 21 years. The main legal points remained undisputed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS LT COL VS HOSALLI [W.P.(C)-16211/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Armed Forces Tribunal's decision that Lt Col VS Hosalli's disability of IHD Normal Coronaries at 20% was aggravated by military service. The Tribunal's findings were supported by the Release Medical Board, which attributed the disability to the stress and strain of military service. The respondents were instructed to calculate, sanction, and issue the necessary pension order within three months, with interest at 6% per annum applicable for any delays.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS LT COL HARVINDER THAKUR RETD [W.P.(C)-17100/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by the Union of India challenging an order from the Armed Forces Tribunal was dismissed. The Tribunal had directed a Post Medical Discharge Board for Lt Col Harvinder Thakur regarding his Coronary Artery Disease and Unstable angina, and this directive had been complied with. Despite this compliance, the petitioners objected to the Tribunal issuing further directions during execution proceedings. It was noted that this objection could not be addressed in the current petition as it was confined to the original order, which had already been executed. The petition was disposed of, allowing the petitioners to seek remedies for any subsequent orders they may find objectionable.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS LT. COL. VIVEK MATHUR RETD [W.P.(C)-16227/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant a disability pension of 30%, rounded off to 50% for two years from discharge, to Lt. Col. Vivek Mathur Retd, was upheld. The presumption of sound physical and mental condition upon entering service and the assumption that any health deterioration during service is service-related were pivotal in the reasoning. The claimant is not responsible for proving the case and benefits from any reasonable doubt in such matters.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS NK DSC SIMON TOPNO RETD [W.P.(C)-15365/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal can condone a shortfall of 71 days in qualifying service for granting a second service pension to NK DSC Simon Topno Retd. The policy letters from the Ministry of Defence prohibiting such condonation do not override the pension regulations, which allow for two independent service pensions. Simon Topno is entitled to the second service pension despite the qualifying service shortfall.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS NK/DSC SANTOSH KUMAR PRAMANIK (RETD.) [W.P.(C)-2965/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Armed Forces Tribunal's decision to condone a 3-month shortfall in the respondent's qualifying service for a second service pension from the Defence Security Corps. Previous judgments indicated that pension regulations support two independent service pensions, and administrative instructions prohibiting such condonation do not supersede statutory regulations. Consequently, authorities were directed to issue a corrected pension payment order and pay the respondent's arrears.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS NO. 40634Z LT. AK THAPA (RELEASED) [W.P.(C)-17139/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition by the Union of India and others challenging the Armed Forces Tribunal's order to grant invalid pension to Lt. A.K. Thapa was dismissed. The Tribunal found the requirement for Armed Forces personnel to be permanently incapacitated from civil employment for invalid pension unconstitutional. The petitioners were granted leave to appeal the Tribunal's order to the Supreme Court, making the appeal pending. Therefore, the attempt to challenge the same order through alternative remedies was not permitted.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SH. BRIJ BIHARI SINGH (EX. NK (TS)-15370496-H) [W.P.(C)-14498/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal granted Sh. Brij Bihari Singh a disability pension of 30%, rounded to 50%, for "Diabetes Mellitus" Type-II and "Primary Hypertension." It was established that members are presumed to enter service in sound physical and mental condition, with any health deterioration during service attributed to that service. The Medical Board's opinion failed to consider these legal presumptions, justifying the pension grant.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SL-3939F COL MPC RAO (RETD.) [W.P.(C)-1995/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Armed Forces Tribunal's decision to grant a 50% disability pension to SL-3939F COL MPC RAO (RETD.) was upheld. The medical board initially indicated that the respondent's coronary artery disease was aggravated by service-related stress, but this finding was later altered without proper justification due to outside influence from Headquarters. The change in the medical board's opinion was deemed improper, leading to the conclusion that the denial of the disability pension was illegal. The petition by the Union of India and others was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANR VS SQN LDR SM DUBEY (RETD.) [W.P.(C)-14784/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to grant a disability pension to Sqn Ldr SM Dubey (Retd.) was upheld based on the presumption that military service contributes to health deterioration. The medical board's reasoning for denying the connection of the respondent's hypertension to service conditions lacked convincing evidence. The petition by the Union of India was dismissed, affirming the validity of the AFT's decision.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS EX HAV DSC GD GYAN PRAKASH [W.P.(C)-4702/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Armed Forces Tribunal's decision to condone an 11-month and 11-day shortfall in qualifying service for a second service pension from the Defence Security Corps (DSC). The pension regulations allow for two independent service pensions, and the Ministry of Defence's policy letters against condonation of shortfalls contradicted these provisions. The petition was found to lack merit.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS EX NK SHYAM SUNDER CHAUDHARI [W.P.(C)-7576/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by the Union of India and others was dismissed, upholding the Armed Forces Tribunal's decision to condone a shortfall of 8 months and 17 days in the respondent's qualifying service for a second service pension from the Defence Security Corps (DSC). The pension regulations specify two independent service pensions for the Indian Army and DSC, and administrative instructions cannot override these statutory regulations, ensuring the respondent's rights under the Pension Regulations are preserved.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the order of the Armed Forces Tribunal that allowed a 111-day condonation in the qualifying service of a deceased member of the Defence Security Corps for a second service pension. The decision was based on the understanding that pension regulations do not prohibit the condonation of shortfalls in qualifying service, and administrative instructions did not negate the rights accruing under these regulations.

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to condone a shortfall of 7 months and 12 days in the respondent's qualifying service for a second service pension from the Defence Security Corps (DSC) was upheld. UNION OF INDIA VS COL (TS) SHYAMA NAND JHA (RETD.) [W.P.(C)-16127/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Union of India's writ petition was dismissed, affirming that the respondent's disabilities were attributable to or aggravated by military service. The Medical Board's reasoning for denying this was flawed, as it incorrectly assumed the respondent had been posted in a peace area since 1993, while he had actually served at the Siachen Glacier from 1997-1998, which involved severe stress. The application of the Supreme Court's judgment in Dharamvir Singh, advocating for the benefit of the doubt for armed forces personnel, was agreed upon.

M/S JAIPRAKASH HYUNDAI CONSORTIUM VS M/S SATLUJ JAL VIDYUT NIGAM LIMITED & ANR. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-214/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The decision to set aside the arbitral award in favor of the appellant was upheld. The notifications from the Himachal Pradesh government increasing minimum wages were deemed "subsequent legislation," allowing the appellant to claim additional costs. However, the arbitrator's calculations for additional labor costs lacked proper evidence and were seen as an improper alteration of contract terms. The appellant had already received substantial payments for labor escalation under the contract's price adjustment formula, and the arbitrator's disregard of this was considered unreasonable. The arbitral award was found to be unsupported by evidence, constituting a patent illegality that justified judicial interference. The appeal was dismissed, and the setting aside of the arbitral award was upheld.

Due to the child's alienation from the father after 14 years of exclusive custody with the mother, overnight stays with the father are deemed not in the child's best interest. The Family Court did not issue a show-cause notice or confirm conditions for civil imprisonment, violating Sections 51 and 58 of the CPC. Additionally, a judgment debtor cannot face civil imprisonment beyond three months for the same maintenance decree, differing from the provision under the Criminal Procedure Code which permits imprisonment for each month's default. Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait

The allegations of cruelty by the wife lacked supporting evidence, as the son's testimony did not indicate issues with the father, and medical reports did not validate the wife's injury claims. The wife's unsubstantiated accusations of dowry harassment constituted mental cruelty. The wife's departure from the matrimonial home in June 2004 without explanation and her subsequent actions indicated her intention to not resume the marital relationship. The appeal by the wife against the divorce was dismissed.

Payments received by Telstra Singapore Pte Ltd. from Indian customers for bandwidth services outside India do not qualify as "royalty" under Article 12 of the India-Singapore Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement, as there was no transfer of rights related to patents, inventions, or processes, nor was there effective customer control over the technology used. RAJ SHEELA GROWTH FUND (P) LTD. VS INCOME TAX OFFICER, WARD - 21(1), DELHI [ITA-124/2020]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

A valid transfer order under Section 127 of the Income Tax Act is necessary for a non-jurisdictional Assessing Officer (AO) to proceed with an assessment. The absence of such an order prevents a transfer of the assessment responsibility from a centralized AO, leading to the invalidation of the assessment orders issued by the non-jurisdictional AO and the earlier ITAT remand.

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) deleted additions made by the Assessing Officer regarding bogus share application money, unexplained property investments, and undisclosed income from housing societies. The ITAT found no evidence to support the view that the share application money constituted accommodation entries, the seized documents did not corroborate cash payments for land purchases, and there was no link between the housing societies and the assessee company. The findings were deemed reasonable, and no substantial question of law warranted further consideration.

M TECH DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. VS NATIONAL FACELESS ASSESSMENT CENTRE, DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15567/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

Income tax authorities cannot initiate proceedings to reassess or recompute a corporate debtor's income for periods prior to the approval of the Resolution Plan under Section 31 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). The "clean slate" principle prevents successful resolution applicants from facing surprise claims after the plan's approval. Attempts to distinguish between voluntary and involuntary insolvency are rejected, as the IBC does not recognize such differences. Consequently, the notices issued by the income tax authorities have been quashed.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX(CENTRAL)-2 VS PANKAJ BUILDWELL LTD. & GROUP [W.P.(C)-8103/2015]

The Income Tax Settlement Commission (ITSC) erred in approving the application from the respondent-assessee group under Section 245C of the Income Tax Act, 1961, as the group did not provide a full and true disclosure of its income. The Commissioner of Income Tax identified instances of undisclosed income, including bogus share capital, which were not included in the initial application. Despite this, the ITSC added INR 18 crores to the group's income and granted immunity from penalty and prosecution under Section 245H. The approval was invalidated due to the respondent-assessee group's failure to meet the condition of full and true disclosure.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX DELHI 10 VS INDERJIT SINGH SODHI(HUF) [ITA-769/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The legal issue involves the tax treatment of interest received on compensation or enhanced compensation under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894. Specifically, it concerns whether this interest should be classified as taxable income under Section 56(2)(viii) of the Income Tax Act, 1961, or as part of the enhanced compensation exempt from tax under Section 10(37). Additionally, the applicability of a previous Supreme Court decision regarding the categorization of such interest, in light of a 2010 amendment to the Income Tax Act, is a key consideration.

VALLEY IRON & STEEL CO.LTD VS PRINICIPAL COMMISSION OR INCOME TAX (CENTRAL)-1 & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5081/2017]

The petitioner-assessee's claim regarding share capital infusion by M/s Balaji Enterprises, M/s Sai Enterprises, and M/s Molu Ram Pramanand was valid, along with the deduction under Section 80IC of the Income Tax Act. The addition of Rs. 11,26,60,000 made by the Income Tax Settlement Commission concerning M/s Amit Goods and Supplier Private Ltd. was set aside, as the amount had already been assessed as income for that company and could not be additionally assessed for the petitioner-assessee.

SFDC Ireland's products are standardized software applications, and the technical assistance and training provided were intended to facilitate marketing and distribution, lacking the characteristics of specialized or customized services. The order denying SFDC Ireland a Nil withholding tax certificate was quashed, with instructions for the respondent authority to reassess the issue, emphasizing the need to establish a direct link between payments and customized technical services.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (CENTRAL) -I VS M/S FORUM SALES PVT. LTD. [ITA-863/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) was justified in deleting additions made by the Assessing Officer (AO) regarding unaccounted profit, disallowance of expenses, and inflated purchases. The AO did not reject the respondent's books of account before making these additions based on best judgment, which is required by law. The ITAT found that the AO failed to verify the authenticity of claimed bogus or inflated bills despite the respondent providing relevant documentation. It was emphasized that rejecting books of account is essential before proceeding with best judgment assessments under Section 144 of the Income Tax Act. The ITAT also eliminated a protective addition of Rs. 1,00,000 related to cash seized, as a substantive addition was already made against a related party. The appeal by the Revenue was dismissed due to the absence of any substantial question of law from the ITAT's order.

NAGRAVISION INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS SECRETARY DEPARTMENT OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH [W.P.(C)-5666/2020]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

Expenditure incurred by a petitioner-company on its in-house research and development (R&D) facility from April 1, 2018, is eligible for weighted deductions under Section 35(2AB) of the Income Tax Act, 1961, despite the facility receiving approval from the DSIR only on February 27, 2019. The language of Section 35(2AB) and related Rules does not limit eligibility to the post-approval period, supported by DSIR guidelines allowing deductions from the start of the preceding financial year when R&D facilities are later recognized. The DSIR's previous communications restricting the eligible period have been quashed, and it is directed to issue an amended approval effective from April 1, 2018, and to recompute the eligible expenditure for weighted deductions.

READERS DIGEST BOOK AND HOME ENTERTAINMENT (INDIA) PVT. LTD. VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, CIRCLE 19(1), NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4550/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The final assessment order issued by the Income Tax Department on 13 February 2023 for AY 2011-12 was barred by limitation, as it exceeded the permissible time limit that ended on 30 September 2021. The adjustment of refunds from earlier assessment years (AYs 2008-09, 2009-10, and 2010-11) against the demand for AY 2011-12 was deemed invalid due to the lack of a valid demand after the original assessment order was set aside and remanded. The assessment order dated 13 February 2023 was quashed, and the Department was directed to re-compute the refund due to the petitioner with statutory interest, factoring in the annulment of the previous adjustments.

AARTI FABRICOTT PRIVATE LIMITED VS INCOME TAX OFFICER, WARD 1(1), DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16700/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Department's decision to reopen the petitioner's assessment for the 2017-18 assessment year through a corrigendum order is unsustainable and must be quashed. The reasons provided in the corrigendum do not constitute "fresh tangible material" necessary for reassessment under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act. The reopening of the assessment represents a "change of opinion" by the tax authorities, which is not permissible under the law. This case is an individual matter, not part of a larger group.

AGRA PORTFOLIO PVT. LTD. VS PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX - 1, & ANR. [ITA-1385/2018]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
Under Section 56(2)(viib) of the Income Tax Act and Rule 11UA of the Income Tax Rules, the choice of valuation method, whether Discounted Cash Flow or Net Asset Value, is exclusively with the assessee. The Assessing Officer cannot substitute a different method or independently determine the fair market value, even if there are doubts about the valuation report submitted by the assessee.

AKSHITA JINDAL VS INCOME TAX OFFICER WARD 54(1) DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-14354/2022]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
Tax authorities cannot reopen concluded reassessment proceedings under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act based solely on the observations in the Supreme Court's judgment in Union of India v. Ashish Agarwal. The Ashish Agarwal judgment applies only to pending reassessment proceedings and does not require reopening of completed assessments. Consequently, the notices and order to reopen the concluded reassessment for the Assessment Year 2015-16 were quashed.

ANINDITA SENGUPTA VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, CIRCLE 61(1) NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12542/2022]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
The writ petition successfully challenged and led to the quashing of a show cause notice issued under Section 148A(b), an order under Section 148A(d), and a notice under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act. The Supreme Court's judgment in Union of India & Ors. vs. Ashish Agarwal focused on pending reassessment proceedings and did not authorize the reopening of completed assessments. As the reassessment in this case had finality before the Ashish Agarwal judgment, the reopening attempt was invalid. Additionally, powers under Article 142 cannot infringe upon the substantive rights of parties not present.

BDR BUILDERS AND DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, CENTRAL CIRECLE -15, NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-11908/2018]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
The assessment of BDR Builders and Developers Private Limited for the Assessment Year 2011-12 was reopened based on valid reasons that the company failed to disclose material facts during its original assessment. The undisclosed transactions of R.S. 9.50 crore with Mr. Manoj Sethi were a significant factor. The concept of "true and full disclosure" places the burden on the assessee to provide all material facts, regardless of whether they could have been uncovered by the assessing authority. The reopening was justified as it was not simply a change of opinion; the previous assessment order did not address the specific issue that prompted the reopening.

DINESH JINDAL VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, CENTRAL CIRCLE 20, DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12091/2023]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
Initiation of reassessment proceedings under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 for Assessment Year 2013-14 was deemed beyond the legal time limit. The First Proviso to Section 149(1) necessitated the computation of the "relevant assessment year" based on earlier provisions prior to the 2021 amendments. The computation of the six-year and ten-year block periods must be based on the date of handover of seized materials to the jurisdictional Assessing Officer, not the search date. As a result, the reassessment notice for Assessment Year 2013-14 was issued outside the ten-year limit, leading to its quashing and the annulment of all consequential actions. The validity of Explanation 2(iv) to Section 148 remains open for consideration in a separate writ petition.

DOLLAR GULATI VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4054/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The transfer orders under Section 127 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, centralizing cases to the Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax, Central Circle, Karnal, Haryana, were upheld. It was established that the assessees received a reasonable opportunity for hearing, and their objections were considered. The transfer was justified on grounds of coordinated investigation and administrative convenience. The scope for judicial review of such orders is limited, with interference only permissible in cases of arbitrary, irrational actions, lack of jurisdiction, or mala fide intent.

INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT GROUP (UK) LIMITED VS COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-2, INTERNATIONAL TAXATION, NEW DELHI [ITA-218/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The services rendered by IMG UK did not meet the "make available" requirement under Article 13(4) of the India-UK DTAA, resulting in no transfer of technical knowledge, experience, skill, know-how, or processes to BCCI. A portion of IMG's income was attributed to its Service PE in India under Article 7 (Business Profits) of the DTAA, while the remaining income was not taxed as FTS under Article 13. The exception under Section 9(1)(vii)(b) of the Income Tax Act applied, as the services were utilized for income earned from sources outside India during the IPL event held in South Africa and UAE. The case involved a dispute over whether IMG's income should be characterized as Business Profits or Fees for Technical Services, with distinct considerations based on the event's location.

MAHABIR SINGH JOON VS THE INCOME TAX OFFICER & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7808/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The order of the Income Tax Department under Section 148A(d) of the Income Tax Act for the Assessment Year 2016-17 was upheld. The argument regarding the invalid service of the show cause notice under Section 148A(b) was rejected, as the notice was served at the registered address, fulfilling statutory requirements. It was concluded that principles of natural justice were not violated, with the assessment of these principles dependent on specific facts and circumstances.

MS. GIESECKE AND DEVRIENT INDIA PVT. LTD. VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX 2.1 & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5429/2021]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Assessing Officer (AO) cannot make transfer pricing adjustments beyond the Arm's Length Price (ALP) set by the Transfer Pricing Officer (TPO) under Section 92CA of the Income Tax Act. The TPO determined an adjustment of INR 16,84,51,531/- but did not establish the ALP for the demerged business as INR 25,41,84,27,665/-. The AO's decision to add this amount to the total income of the assessee constitutes a breach of legislative mandate under Section 92CA, necessitating a remand to the AO for action in accordance with the law.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOFTWARE AND SERVICES COMPANIES-(NASSCOM) VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (EXEMPTION) CIRCLE 2 (1), DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9310/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Department acted arbitrarily by adjusting the entire disputed tax demand for AY 2018-19 against NASSCOM's refunds, without addressing the petitioner's stay application under Section 220(6) of the Income Tax Act. The CBDT guidelines regarding a 20% deposit as a pre-condition for stay are not absolute, allowing discretion based on case specifics. The matter is remanded for consideration of the stay application in line with the observations made.

NEELKANTH STEEL AND ALLOYS VS ASSTT. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, CIRCLE 49(1), & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1764/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

Initiation of proceedings under Section 153C of the Income Tax Act requires the jurisdictional Assessing Officer to be satisfied that seized books, documents, or assets have relevance to determining the total income of a non-searched person for specific assessment years. Unlike Section 153A, which mandates notice for the six preceding assessment years, Section 153C necessitates a clear nexus between the seized material and the assessment year in question. The Assessing Officer cannot indiscriminately reopen all assessment years merely due to the presence of incriminating material; specific assessment years must be identified for reassessment. This principle is applicable to both abated and completed assessments.

NEW DELHI TELEVISION LIMITED VS DISPUTE RESOLUTION PANEL 2 & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2322/2021]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The reference made by the Assessing Officer to the Transfer Pricing Officer on 27 December 2018 was unwarranted since the Transfer Pricing Officer had already issued an order on 17 October 2017 following the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's directions from 14 July 2017. Once the Tribunal remanded the matter to the Transfer Pricing Officer, no further reference from the Assessing Officer was necessary. The deadline for completing the fresh assessment, nine months from the Tribunal's order, lapsed on 31 December 2018, resulting in the Assessing Officer lacking the authority to issue additional assessment orders after that date. The validity of the Tribunal's order was not challenged by the respondents, and they complied with it. Consequently, the Assessing Officer was barred from making any further final assessment orders for the Assessment Year 2009-10.

ORCHID INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPERS PVT LTD VS PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX , CENTRAL CIRCLE-3, NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-16524/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Settlement Commission's order dated 16.09.2016 is final and conclusive under Section 245-I of the Income Tax Act. The Income Tax Department cannot reopen the assessment for the relevant year under Sections 147/148, as the issues were already addressed by the ITSC. The ITSC has exclusive jurisdiction once an application is accepted, and its orders can only be contested on grounds of fraud or misrepresentation under Section 245D(6). The notice and order for reassessment issued by the Income Tax Department were quashed.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF I TAX (CENTRAL)-II VS M/S TRENT EAST WEST LPG BOTTLING LTD. [W.P.(C)-7444/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Settlement Commission's order validating the respondent-assessee's total liabilities for a block assessment period is valid. The Commission has broad powers to investigate all facets related to a settlement application, extending beyond the applicant's disclosures. A "full and true" disclosure is satisfied if the applicant identifies the transaction in question, regardless of differing interpretations from tax authorities. Judicial review of the Commission's decisions is limited and only applicable if orders contradict the Act, cause prejudice, or involve fraud, bias, or malice. The Commission's decision was consistent with the Act, and its decision-making process was not erroneous.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (CENTRAL)-2 VS SHRI SATYA PRAKASH GUPTA [ITA-40/2023]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
The appeals filed by the Revenue were dismissed, affirming that the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) correctly removed the additions made by the Assessing Officer for the Assessment Years 2012-13 to 2015-16. The absence of incriminating material for those years was highlighted, as the agreement with the non-resident entity CMF was already known to the Revenue. No conclusions were drawn regarding the additions for Assessment Years 2016-17 and 2017-18, the years in which the search occurred.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -2, DELHI VS M/S CLIX FINANCE INDIA PVT. LTD. [ITA-1428/2018]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) quashed the Commissioner of Income Tax's order under Section 263 of the Income Tax Act. The assessment order, while lacking detailed records of the Assessing Officer's inquiry, did not indicate a complete lack of inquiry. Inadequate inquiry alone is insufficient for invoking revisional jurisdiction. The Commissioner did not identify specific errors in the assessment order or demonstrate prejudice to revenue interests. The ITAT's findings confirmed that the Assessing Officer examined relevant issues during the assessment.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -CENTRAL -1 VS MAHARAJI EDUCATION TRUST [ITA-721/2023]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
Reassessment proceedings under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act were deemed valid due to sufficient prima facie reasons indicating income had escaped assessment. A charitable trust, registered under Sections 12A and 10(23C)(iv), is ineligible for exemption under Section 11 because the collection of undisclosed capitation fees contradicts its charitable purpose. The ITAT cannot use the Income Tax Settlement Commission's order from other assessment years to calculate excess income over expenditure for the current assessment year, as that order is conclusive only for the specific assessment year.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX DELHI - 8 VS M/S SAMSUNG INDIA ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD. [ITA-1445/2018]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
Reassessment proceedings against M/s Samsung India Electronics Pvt. Ltd. were invalid due to a lack of fresh tangible material justifying the reopening after four years. The reasons recorded for the reassessment did not present sufficient evidence of income escaping assessment, merely citing a review of records. Additionally, an assertion regarding the non-disclosure of commissioning 75 vehicles to dealers was not referenced in the reopening reasons and could not support the reassessment. The appeal by the Revenue was dismissed, affirming that the reassessment was not valid.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, DELHI-7 VS M/S PARAMOUNT PROPBUILD PVT. LTD. [ITA-247/2023]
Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma
The ITAT's decision to set aside the PCIT's order under Section 263 of the Income Tax Act was found to be incorrect. The AO failed to properly investigate and verify the genuineness and creditworthiness of unsecured loans from M/s Sarvottam Securities Pvt Ltd and M/s Upaj Leasing & Finance Co. Pvt Ltd. The assessment order lacked discussion on these transactions and involved only issuing notices under Section 133(6) without further inquiry, despite evidence suggesting the loan providers were shell companies. This constituted a lack of inquiry, rendering the assessment erroneous and prejudicial to revenue interests, thus justifying the PCIT's use of revisional powers. Explanation 2 to Section 263 applied as the AO did not conduct necessary inquiries for the Assessment Year 2016-17. The ITAT's order was set aside, and the PCIT's order restored, directing the AO to reassess after thoroughly examining the loan transactions.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER IF INCOME TAX-8 VS SAMSUNG INDIA ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD., [ITA-40/2018]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's decision to delete transfer pricing adjustments on royalty payments between Samsung India Electronics Pvt. Ltd. and Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd., Korea was upheld. Samsung India was characterized as a licensed manufacturer rather than a contract manufacturer. The argument that royalty payments were not at arm's length was rejected, as Samsung Korea, possessing the necessary technological know-how, was entitled to a return on its intangibles. The tax authorities misinterpreted the agreement's nature and questioned the transaction's economic substance incorrectly.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (CENTRAL) - 1 VS M/S MOON STAR SECURITIES TRADING & FINANCE CO. PVT. LTD., [ITA-421/2018]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

Disallowance under Section 14A of the Income Tax Act, 1961, in conjunction with Rule 8D, is not to be included in the computation of Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) under Section 115JB. Section 115JB is considered a self-contained code, allowing only specific allowances or deductions outlined in its Explanation. Clause (f) of Explanation 1 to Section 115JB does not mention Section 14A, thus the disallowance under Section 14A cannot be added back to book profits for MAT computation. The appeal filed by the Revenue was dismissed.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (CENTRAL)-3 VS PAVITRA REALCON PVT. LTD. [ITA-579/2018]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The decision of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal to delete additions made by the Assessing Officer under Section 68 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, was upheld. Statements recorded under Section 132(4) cannot solely support additions without corroborating evidence. No incriminating material was found during the search, rendering the assessment invalid as Section 153C requires assessment year-wise incriminating material. Violation of natural justice occurred by not providing the owner's statement to the assessee or allowing cross-examination. The argument that defects in the assessment order could be cured under Section 292B was rejected, as jurisdictional defects are not curable under this provision. The appeals were dismissed, maintaining the ITAT's decision to set aside the assessment orders and delete the additions.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX 1 VS M/S CARE HEALTH INSURANCE LIMITED (EARLIER KNOWN AS M/S RELIGARE HEALTH INSURANCE CO. LTD.) [ITA-290/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's decision to allow deductions for provisions made by an insurance company for unsettled claims and Incurred But Not Reported (IBNR) claims was upheld. These provisions are classified as ascertained liabilities, not contingent liabilities, and are deductible under the Income Tax Act. The unsettled claims provision is based on claims filed by policyholders, while the IBNR provision relies on actuarial methods defined by regulatory authority, reinforcing their status as ascertained liabilities.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-4 VS INS FINANCE & INVESTMENT P LTD. [ITA-1114/2018]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The amount of INR 3,19,07,676/- received due to the cancellation of an auction sale was classified as a capital receipt, not taxable as income. This decision was based on precedents indicating that compensation or interest from the cancellation of a capital transaction is regarded as a capital receipt. The receipt represented a return of the assessee's own deposited funds, and thus the interest accrued was also considered a capital receipt not subject to taxation.

PROGRESS RAIL LOCOMOTIVE INC.(FORMERLY ELECTRO MOTIVE DIESEL INC.), VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME-TAX (INTERNATIONAL TAXATION), CIRCLE - NOIDA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12405/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Indian subsidiary of Progress Rail Locomotive Inc. was determined not to constitute a Fixed Place Permanent Establishment, Service PE, or Dependent Agent PE under Article 5 of the India-USA Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement. The tax authority failed to demonstrate that the subsidiary's premises were at the petitioner's disposal or that its activities extended beyond preparatory or auxiliary functions. The subsidiary was found to engage in independent business activities and was not simply an extension of the petitioner. Reassessment notices issued under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, were quashed due to unsustainable jurisdictional assumptions, although the status of the petitioner's office in the Delhi Circle remains for independent examination by tax authorities.

The writ petition challenging the constitutional validity of Section 31 of the Finance Act, 2017, which amended Section 71 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, was dismissed. The amendment caps the set-off of losses under "Income from house property" to Rs. 2 lakh against other income heads, effective from Assessment Year 2018-19. It is not retrospective and does not infringe upon fundamental rights under Articles 14 and 19(1)(g) of the Constitution. The amendment is considered a valid exercise of legislative power regarding taxation.

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The validity of the re-assessment proceedings initiated by the Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 was upheld. Minor discrepancies in language between the reasons recorded by the Assessing Officer and those provided to the petitioner did not warrant interference, as the foundational material and basis for believing that income had escaped assessment remained consistent. The case was distinguished from precedents where significant differences between the reasons recorded and those provided to the assessee were present.

SUNITA GOEL VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CENTRAL, CIRCLE 1, DELHI [W.P.(C)-5132/2021]

The order under Section 153C of the Income Tax Act, 1961, adding R.S. 1,62,20,000 to the total income of the assessee for AY 2014-15 is upheld. The assessee received adequate opportunities for hearing, and the Assessing Officer considered the replies provided. The delay in initiating Section 153C proceedings is deemed not inordinate. SUSHEN MOHAN GUPTA VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CENTRAL 2, DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4413/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

A 20% deposit of the outstanding demand as a pre-condition for considering a stay application is not an inviolable rule. Authorities must evaluate the prima facie merits, financial hardship, and likelihood of success when determining the deposit amount. The Income Tax authorities did not adequately consider these factors, leading to the quashing of their orders and remittance of the matter for fresh examination of the stay application.

TARUN KUMAR SAHAY HUF VS INCOME TAX OFFICER WARD 43(1), DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1214/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The discharge of the appellants from charges under Sections 420 and 120B IPC was valid due to a lack of evidence for deliberate withholding of information or conspiracy to deceive. The AICTE approved the 'Business School of Delhi' while aware of the bank loan and land mortgage, with no implicated officials. The CBI's petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C was maintainable but not appropriate, as a statutory remedy under Section 397 Cr.P.C was available.

TIGER GLOBAL INTERNATIONAL III HOLDINGS VS THE AUTHORITY FOR ADVANCE RULINGS (INCOME- TAX) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6764/2020]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav, Justice Yashwant Varma

The AAR's conclusion that the transaction aimed at tax avoidance was deemed arbitrary and the transaction qualified as grandfathered under Article 13(3A) of the India-Mauritius DTAA. The assertion that TGM LLC was the parent company of the petitioners contradicted the petitioners' consistent position. The petitioners demonstrated sufficient economic substance, and their establishment in Mauritius was not solely for treaty benefits. Claims that the directors acted as "mere puppets" were incorrect, as board resolutions indicated collective decision-making. The legitimacy of the Tax Residency Certificates (TRCs) from Mauritius was affirmed, and the threshold to pierce the corporate veil was not satisfied in this instance. The case involved petitions by Tiger Global International II, III, and IV Holdings.

UMA DHANUKA VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME-TAX & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10865/2019]

ITSC's authority to examine all aspects of the case, beyond the applicant's disclosures, was affirmed. Evidence from statements corroborated the commission payments, validating the ITSC's exercise of its powers as compliant with the Income Tax Act. The case of Anjum M.H. Ghaswala, concerning interest waiver which is mandatory, was distinguished from this situation. The writ petitions filed by the Dhanuka family against the ITSC's order were dismissed.

Judges: Justice Rajiv Shakdher, Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju
Under the Direct Tax Vivad Se Vishwas (VSV) Act, 2020, the unit of settlement is an "appeal, writ petition or SLP," not the "assessment year." Judges: Justice Rajiv Shakdher, Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appeal by the Union of India (Railways) against an arbitral award in favor of M/s Parishudh Machines Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The arbitral tribunal's decision was considered well-reasoned without patent illegality or perversity. The delay in the contract was attributed mainly to the Railways' actions, and the interpretation of the contract terms by the tribunal was deemed reasonable. Additionally, the Railways' application for condonation of delay in filing the restoration application did not demonstrate sufficient cause. All pending applications were disposed of.

VARUN DAHIYA VS INCOME TAX OFFICER WARD 34(5) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5990/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajiv Shakdher, Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Notices and orders for reassessment of income tax assessments were deemed invalid due to the absence of mandatory approval from the specified authority under Section 151(ii) of the Income Tax Act. The argument that such approval was not required was rejected, emphasizing its contradiction with the Act's provisions. A connection was noted between the time limit for reassessment under Section 149 and the specified authority under Section 151. The matter involved multiple writ petitions related to Assessment Years 2016-17 and 2017-18.

AJAI VATAN VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1379/2022]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to reject the petitioner's application for promotion to Deputy Controller of Accounts, effective from 22.05.2008, was upheld. The petitioner approached the tribunal 10 years after his superannuation on 31.01.2009 without justifying the delay. Claims related to promotions should only be considered if they pertain to a continuing wrong. The promotion issue impacted the settled rights of third parties, rendering the claim stale. The petition was dismissed without grounds for interference with the tribunal's order.

AJOR KUMAR VS M/S FORE SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, NEW DELHI [LPA-130/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The termination of the appellant's employment as an attendant at the Fore School of Management was upheld. The termination occurred during the probation period and was deemed non-stigmatic, meaning an inquiry or show-cause notice was not necessary. Terminations of probationers can occur without adhering to principles of natural justice as long as they do not carry a stigma. The appellant was still on probation at the time of termination, which supports the decision to dismiss his challenge.

AMRIT CHATTHA AND ANOTHER VS SPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-1979/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's order was dismissed. The petitioners, placed on the waitlist for the Assistant Coach (Hockey) position from a 2016 advertisement, had no vested right to appointment. All vacancies from 2016 were filled, and their participation in the 2021 selection process was unsuccessful. The Tribunal's rejection of their appointment claim was upheld.

ANKITA MEENA VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND ANR [LPA-175/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

Ankita Meena's appeal was dismissed after the High Court found that her misrepresentation of qualifications was due to a default dropdown menu rather than intentional deceit. However, it upheld the conclusion that only post-degree experience counts towards the 2-year requirement since the advertisement did not specify otherwise. Other issues raised, such as the equivalence of her Electronics degree to the required diploma and her eligibility to challenge the advertisement after participating in the selection process, were not addressed, as the lack of requisite experience was deemed sufficient for dismissal.

CENTRAL COUNCIL FOR RESEARCH IN HOMOEOPATHY THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR GENERAL & ORS. VS AMIT KUMAR SHARMA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2286/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed the Central Council for Research in Homoeopathy to grant its employees the same pay scale and grade pay as similarly placed central government employees, based on its bylaws that provide for parity in pay. The decision highlights that the organization cannot argue against this provision, as it is mandated by its own regulations. The petition from the CCRH was dismissed, affirming that the respondents deserve the same treatment as other employees.

CHAIRMAN, CENTRAL POLLUTION CONTROL BOARD & ANR VS R.K. RUSTAGI & ANR [W.P.(C)-10236/2016]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The selection process for promotion from Scientist 'B' to Scientist 'C' under the Flexible Complementing Scheme requires an interview, as mandated by Regulation 8. Reliance on Regulation 9, which removed the interview requirement, was incorrect. The petitioner's consideration for promotion in 2013 did not comply with the regulations, leading to a directive for a fresh consideration for promotion as Scientist 'C', effective from the date juniors were promoted in 2013.

CHANDRAKANT TYAGI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10622/2018]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The rejection of the petitioners' candidature for a railway recruitment process lacked prior notice or an opportunity for explanation, violating principles of natural justice. The decision mandates the issuance of show cause notices to the petitioners, provision of supporting materials, and a reasoned order after considering their responses. If the responses are satisfactory, their candidature must be reconsidered without any retrospective benefits. This matter involves the simultaneous consideration of two writ petitions.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE & ORS. VS EX. CONST. JATINKUMAR, EXE. [W.P.(C)-15229/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The dismissal of a police constable was set aside due to the failure to conduct a departmental inquiry despite serious charges. The petitioners did not provide valid reasons to bypass the inquiry, and the belief that witnesses would not testify against the officer was insufficient. Proper procedures must be followed, and a casual approach to dispensing with inquiries is not acceptable.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS KAPIL [W.P.(C)-5485/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The dismissal order against Kapil by the petitioners, including the Commissioner of Police, was set aside due to the absence of a departmental inquiry. The petitioners' justification for bypassing the inquiry, citing potential delays and the complainant's possible non-appearance, was deemed insufficient under Article 311(2)(b) of the Constitution. The petitioners lacked proper reasoning and acted presumptively regarding Kapil's guilt. The decision allows for new disciplinary proceedings to be initiated against Kapil in accordance with the law.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS SATENDER KUMAR SHARMA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-11275/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondents were granted benefits of the 3rd Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) after completing 20 years of service from their first promotion, despite not reaching 30 years of total service. The relevant factor for MACP benefits was determined to be the time spent in a particular grade pay rather than the date of direct entry. Since the respondents received their first promotion within 10 years of joining service, they qualified for the 3rd MACP benefits after 20 years from their first promotion.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE DELHI POLICE & ORS. VS MANJEET [W.P.(C)-1258/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The dismissal of Manjeet from service by the Delhi Police without a departmental inquiry was not justified. The reasons for bypassing the inquiry, including the serious nature of allegations and potential witness intimidation, did not satisfy the requirements of Article 311(2)(b) of the Constitution. The dismissal and appellate orders were set aside, allowing for the initiation of disciplinary proceedings against Manjeet in accordance with the law. Future inquiries must not be dispensed with without valid justification.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE, DELHI VS BRIJESH MOOLVANSHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6293/2022]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition by the Commissioner of Police, Delhi, was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's order to recalculate vacancies for the Sub Inspector (Executive) position based on a vacancy-based roster as per Rule 7 of the Delhi Police (Appointment and Recruitment) Rules, 1980. The direction aligned with a previous judgment in the HC (Ex.) Irshad case, preventing the petitioner from re-arguing for a post-based roster. The petition lacked merit, and six weeks were granted for compliance with the Tribunal's directions.

DELHI DEVELOPEMENT AUTHORITY VS SUSHIL KUMAR TYAGI [W.P.(C)-1676/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to reinstate the penalty imposed on Sushil Kumar Tyagi was upheld. The Revisionary Authority's order was deemed cryptic and lacking reasons, justifying the quashing of that order by the Tribunal. The challenge to the Tribunal's rejection of the review application was dismissed, as no justification was provided for the failure to submit an affidavit from the counsel during the original hearing.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR. VS SURJIT SINGH AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-3767/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondent's past service of 9 years with the Military Engineering Services (MES) from 1972-1981 will be recognized by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) for computing pensionary and ACP benefits. Although the respondent did not formally resign from MES upon joining DDA in 1981, it is assumed he did due to his subsequent 20 years of service at DDA. An earlier undertaking not to claim past service benefits does not bar the respondent from seeking those benefits under DDA's 2008 circular, which permits the counting of past pensionable service. The DDA's writ petition has been dismissed.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS JAI NARAIN GUPTA [W.P.(C)-10704/2018]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The penalty imposed on a Junior Engineer by the Delhi Development Authority was set aside due to a finding that the engineer, as the junior-most officer, was obliged to follow the written instructions of superior officers who approved the enhancement of work. The conclusion of misconduct was deemed perverse as he was not expected to disregard these instructions.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS SURINDER SINGH [W.P.(C)-11691/2022]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petition by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's order was dismissed. The Tribunal had directed the DDA to grant Surinder Singh promotion benefits as if he had qualified the 2005 departmental examination for the post of Assistant Director (Ministerial). Despite DDA's claims of issues with the examination process, promotions were granted to other candidates who passed. Consequently, Singh was entitled to notional promotion benefits from 2016, without arrears of wages, while his pension would be revised to reflect the ante-dated promotion.

DELHI SUBORDINATE SERVICES SELECTION BOARD AND ORS VS MOHD VAQUAR KHAN [W.P.(C)-4021/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal's order for the Delhi Subordinate Services Selection Board to issue an appointment offer to Mohd Vaquar Khan for the post of PGT (URDU) was upheld. The DSSSB's claim that the waitlist panel expired on 07.06.2017 contradicted its actions of continuing to engage with the first candidate until 29.06.2018. The delay in cancelling this candidate's application meant the waitlist panel remained valid until 30.06.2018. Consequently, the DSSSB should have appointed Khan, who was eligible and ranked third on the waitlist.

DELHI SUBORDINATE SERVICES SELECTION BOARD VS SHEEBA [W.P.(C)-3405/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal recognized Sheeba as a member of the Teli community, classified as an OBC community for employment under the Government of NCT of Delhi. Her initial OBC certificate from 12.07.2011 was deemed sufficient to establish her OBC status by the relevant cut-off date. The rejection of her candidature by the DSSSB based on a new OBC certificate issued after the cut-off date was not warranted, as the essential requirement was her OBC status on that date, confirmed by the initial certificate. The DSSSB's petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS SH. VIRENDER SINGH (DECEASED), THROUGH SMT. MUKESH DEVI [LPA-158/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The punishment of dismissal for the deceased employee, Virender Singh, was modified to compulsory retirement due to the nature of his unauthorized absence, which was not considered willful given his prior medical leave. Singh, who had served for 26 years and passed away at 48, left a family behind. The modification of punishment was viewed as a humane decision. However, the award of interest on retiral benefits was overturned as it was deemed inappropriate in this case. The appeal by the Delhi Transport Corporation was dismissed.

DEVENDER MOHAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-8376/2015]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

Devender Mohan's petition was allowed, establishing that the respondents could not treat employees in the EDP cadre differently from those in the non-EDP cadre regarding pay revision benefits. The decision to implement different effective dates for the same pay revisions was deemed discriminatory. As a result, the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside, and the respondents were directed to revise the petitioner's pay scales to Rs.2000-3200 and Rs.2375-3500 effective from 01.01.1986, in line with the EDP cadre employees.

DEVENDER YADAV AND ORS VS THE SECRETARY DELHI SUBORDINATE SERVICES SELECTION BOARD AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10718/2016]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petitioners' applications were rejected due to incorrect filling of column 13 in the OMR application form, which had been previously deemed defectively designed. There is an inclination to appoint the petitioners, who scored above the cut-off marks, with notional seniority from the date of the last appointment linked to the 2013 advertisement, pending availability of vacancies. Final orders are deferred for further instructions on this matter.

DISTRICT & SESSIONS COURT EMPLOYEES WELFARE ASSOCIATION (REGD) AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-614/2017]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The plea of the District & Sessions Court Employees Welfare Association to re-designate their posts from "Senior Assistants/Reader Grade-1" to "Court Master" was dismissed. The enhancement of their pay scale to match that of Court Masters does not justify a change in designation, as post nomenclature is an administrative decision based on job profiles and relevant factors. Re-designation cannot be demanded solely on the basis of pay parity, rendering the petition "wholly misconceived."

DSSSB AND ORS VS PRAVEEN KUMAR [W.P.(C)-332/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The rejection of the respondent's candidature for the Physical Education Teacher position due to an error in uploading a passport-size photograph instead of a postcard-size photograph was deemed unjustified. The respondent rectified the error by submitting the correct photograph before the examination, which was accepted, allowing him to successfully appear in the exam. The error was considered trivial and bona fide, and rejecting the candidature despite the rectification and successful exam performance was seen as unjust and disproportionate. Thus, the decision required the processing of the respondent's candidature.

GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS VS RAJ KUMAR SAINI [W.P.(C)-5083/2018]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The charge memorandum against Raj Kumar Saini was quashed due to an inordinate delay of over 15 years. The government authorities had received necessary documents from the CBI in 2007 but did not issue the charge memorandum until 2014, a delay of over 7 years without satisfactory justification. This prolonged delay was deemed to cause grave prejudice to Saini and was not in the interest of clean administration.

GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. VS SUBHASH CHANDER GARG & ANR. [W.P.(C)-49/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition filed by the Government of NCT of Delhi was dismissed, affirming that Subhash Chander Garg is entitled to benefits under the Old Pension Scheme (CCS Pension Rules 1972). The Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions had issued an order allowing employees appointed to posts before 01.01.2004 to opt for this scheme. Although the petitioners claimed that Garg did not submit the option form in time, it was deemed unfair to deny him benefits based on this. Therefore, the petitioners were directed to provide the Old Pension Scheme benefits to Garg.

GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS VS SUBHAS CHANDRA PANDEY [W.P.(C)-310/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to quash the charge memorandum against the respondent was upheld due to a 12-year delay in its issuance, with no justification provided. The respondent's argument that he was not in the relevant office at the time of the alleged misconduct was not adequately considered, resulting in prejudice against him.

GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH ITS CHIEF SECRETARY & ORS. VS ANIL KUMAR [W.P.(C)-7000/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) erred by approving applications without adequately examining the government's rationale for waiving a departmental inquiry under Article 311(2)(b) of the Constitution. The reliance on previous decisions without consideration of specific case facts was noted, emphasizing that each case must be assessed on its individual merits rather than a standardized approach. The orders from CAT were set aside, and the matters were remanded for fresh adjudication, with an instruction to consider the government's reasons for bypassing the inquiry. Monetary benefits for the respondents were to be paid from the date of the earlier impugned orders until this batch petition.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS VS EX CT NAEEM KHAN [W.P.(C)-10452/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petitioners, Government of NCT of Delhi, were not justified in dismissing Ex CT Naeem Khan under Article 311(2)(b) without a regular departmental inquiry. Reasons for bypassing the inquiry, such as witnesses turning hostile, lacked substantiation. A departmental inquiry was already ongoing against co-accused ASI Intikhab Alam regarding the same incident, indicating no valid ground to exempt the respondent from a similar inquiry. The cases of Khan and Alam were interconnected, involving the same incident and witnesses. Consequently, the dismissal of the writ petition upheld the order for Khan's reinstatement with all consequential benefits.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS VS KULDEEP [W.P.(C)-4007/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal found that the Delhi Police's standing order, which required evaluating candidates' criminal records including juvenile offenses for those over 16, conflicted with the Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, 2015. However, the tribunal did not assess the validity of the standing order itself and the respondents had not challenged it directly. The order was set aside and the matter was remanded back to the Tribunal, instructing the respondents to submit an amended application against the standing order within two weeks, with a decision to be made within six months.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI VS RATAN KUMAR MALHOTRA [W.P.(C)-520/2017]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondent is entitled to terminal benefits upon retirement, as no chargesheet or final report had been filed against him by the CBI at the time of superannuation. The registration of an FIR does not constitute pending judicial proceedings under the CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972. Rule 69, regarding withholding of benefits in cases of pending proceedings, is inapplicable since no proceedings were initiated against the respondent when his right to terminal dues arose. The government's petition was dismissed, and the order to release the respondent's terminal benefits was upheld.

GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS VS JITENDER KAUSHIK [W.P.(C)-10193/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petition by the Government of NCT of Delhi regarding the TGT (Sanskrit) exam was dismissed. The order required re-examination of the answer key for question no. 56 due to prior knowledge of its inaccuracy, identified by an Expert Committee. One extra mark was awarded to the respondent and similarly situated candidates for the correct answer. The petitioners must appoint these candidates to the TGT (Sanskrit) post if their scores exceed that of the last selected candidate, with notional benefits from the date of the last candidate's appointment.

GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. VS SHRI NARESH KUMAR [W.P.(C)-4034/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to grant compassionate allowance to the respondent, who had less than 10 years of service at the time of dismissal, was upheld. Compassionate allowance under Rule 41 of the CCS (Pension) Rules is not contingent on the minimum 10-year qualifying service for pension under Rule 49. It is a discretionary relief based on the financial condition of the dismissed employee rather than the length of service. The government's argument against granting compassionate allowance for service less than 10 years was dismissed as lacking merit.

GURU NANAK PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. VS RUCHI MALHOTRA & ANR. [LPA-222/2020]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

Section 8(4) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973 applies to unaided minority educational institutions. The appellant's claim for exemption from this requirement was rejected.

KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA SANGTHAN VS RAJESH KUMAR [W.P.(C)-1171/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangthan lacked justification for denying CGHS benefits to retired employee Rajesh Kumar based on the March 13, 2019 OM from MHRD. The prior OM from May 29, 2015 by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, which allowed CGHS benefits for retired KVS employees in Delhi/NCR, remained valid and had not been overridden. Rajesh Kumar was entitled to CGHS benefits under the May 29, 2015 OM.

She initially applied under the unreserved category but requested a change to PH shortly after the exam. Medical documents confirming her PH status were submitted and not disputed. MR. NEERAJ KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11536/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision to reject the petitioner's application for the post of Nursing Orderly was upheld, as the experience certificate from Nirmal Hospital was not considered valid due to its omission in the original application form. Eligibility must be based solely on the initial information provided, and allowing additional documentation would be unfair to other applicants. The writ petition was dismissed.

NEETA MAHALA AND ORS. VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5598/2022]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside, establishing that the petitioners served regularly during their probation as Deputy Managers (Technical). The NHAI acknowledged their probation period for the 4-year eligibility criteria under the 2016 Regulations. Consequently, the petitioners are to be promoted to Manager (Technical) effective from 01.01.2019, benefiting from the 1996 Regulations as applicable on the date the 2016 Regulations came into effect.

NIGAR FATIMA VS BHARAT SANCHAR NIGAM LIMITED (BSNL) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12061/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

Qualifications acquired after the application date are not considered. The claim of discrimination was dismissed, and the Tribunal's order was affirmed. The writ petition was dismissed.

SH. KULWANT SINGH VS EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-13282/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petitioner's claim for ante-dating his promotion to Insurance Inspector for the year 2006 was rejected based on his acceptance of a promotion in 2008 without reservations. He served for 8 years before raising the issue. The challenge regarding the delay in promotion, made more than 12 years after the cause of action, was considered barred by delay and laches.

SH. TARUN KATARIA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7560/2018]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petitioner's challenge to the change in selection criteria for the Junior (ECG) Technician post from an interview to a written exam and skill test was rejected. Participation in the written exam and skill test without objection led to a waiver of the right to contest the selection process. The change was deemed justified by a decision from the Department of Personnel and Training, and the petitioner's subsequent participation precluded any challenge to the altered criteria.

SHIBU SOREN VS LOKPAL OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-138/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision upholds the dismissal of Shibu Soren's appeal. The Lokpal has not yet decided if a prima facie case exists for investigation; it has only initiated a preliminary inquiry. The issue of limitations on the complaint will be addressed by the Lokpal after the preliminary inquiry report is received. The complaint includes allegations of misuse of public funds and the creation of shell companies by the appellant and his family, justifying further examination rather than dismissal on limitation grounds. The writ petition is deemed premature as a final decision on investigation has not been made by the Lokpal.

SHRI PITAMBER AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-990/2022]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition by ICAR Deputy Secretaries resulted in recognition of their entitlement to the same pay scale as Deputy Secretaries in the Central Secretariat Services, as established by a 2010 government order. ICAR Bye-Laws and a 1995 Cabinet decision support pay parity with CSS employees, previously affirmed for ICAR Section Officers. The pay parity benefit is to be granted from the due date, with arrears payable within 12 weeks.

SPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA THROUGH SH. SANDIP PRADHAN, DIRECTOR GENERAL & ORS. VS DR. HEMA VALECHA [W.P.(C)-2016/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) should not have directed the Sports Authority of India (SAI) to provide information about vacancies in Physiotherapist Grade-II posts, as this interfered with administrative decisions. Employees can still argue that transfer orders responded negatively to a previous CAT directive about their service status. SAI is directed to allow employees to rejoin duty at the NCOE in Delhi, pending further CAT orders. Writ petitions filed by SAI regarding expedited decisions by the CAT have been disposed of, with no opinion on the merits of the claims expressed.

STATE BANK OF INDIA VS HARISH CHANDER [LPA-75/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The appeal by the State Bank of India was dismissed. The workman, whose termination was deemed illegal, is entitled to benefits under Section 17B of the Industrial Disputes Act, despite being eligible for a lump-sum superannuation amount. The argument that Section 17B applies only in cases of grave financial hardship was rejected, and the affidavit asserting the workman's unemployment met the requirements of Section 17B. The provisions of the statute should not be interpreted in a hyper-technical manner.

SUNIL KUMAR RAJWANSHI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3925/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition challenging the transfer of the petitioner, an officer in the Indian Revenue Service, from Gorakhpur to Lucknow was dismissed. The petitioner was irregular in attending office at Gorakhpur, leading to a request for a replacement. The transfer was conducted on administrative grounds and complied with the transfer policy, allowing transfers before the completion of the 3-year posting period. The petitioner did not join the new posting in Lucknow despite the transfer order being in effect, resulting in a cost of Rs. 1,00,000 to be paid by the petitioner.

SURESH KUMAR AND ORS VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-8362/2020]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal's dismissal of the petitioners' claim for the post of Clerical Assistants was upheld. The selection process initiated on 28.01.2013 was cancelled due to identified irregularities, preventing the petitioners from claiming promotion based on the results of that exam. Compliance with Recruitment Rules required a mandatory typing test, and the previous provision for promotion without it had been removed. The cancellation of the selection process was deemed justified to ensure adherence to the Recruitment Rules and maintain transparency.

THE CHAIRMAN, NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL & ORS. VS SHIBANI ROY CHOUDHURY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15703/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondent, who served as Joint Director (Statistics) from 2008 to 2015 without an officially sanctioned post, is not eligible for pension benefits based on that salary. However, no recoveries will be made for the higher salary received during that period, as it was at the petitioner's discretion. The respondent should be considered for benefits under the Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) Scheme, with the stipulation that any additional amount under MACP will not be paid for the duration of the higher salary as Joint Director. The respondent's pension will be enhanced based on the grade pay granted under the MACP Scheme.

THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE VS SUNITA & ANR [W.P.(C)-4473/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision confirms that Sunita is entitled to a family pension as the legally wedded wife of the deceased government employee, Late Head Constable Hawa Singh, despite her name not being on the pension nomination form. This entitlement is supported by a court declaration of her marital status and a letter from the widow of Late Kawal Singh, Hawa Singh's elder brother. Sunita's case for the pension will be considered prospectively, without recoveries from the previous pension recipient.

THE HINDUSTAN TIMES LTD VS DY. LABOUR COMMISSIONER, GOVT OF NCT DELHI AND OTHERS [LPA-835/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The appeal by The Hindustan Times Ltd. against a Recovery Certificate issued by the Deputy Labour Commissioner was dismissed. The Recovery Certificate required the payment of Rs. 27,39,290/- to the legal representatives of late Shri Arun Kumar, along with interest and costs. Arguments regarding inflated calculations and a limitation of Rs. 5 lakhs were rejected, as the appellant did not challenge the calculations submitted by Arun Kumar, and the Rs. 5 lakhs limit applied only to a specific time frame, not encompassing backwages due until superannuation.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS PRIYANKA YADAV [W.P.(C)-1217/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The employment termination of Priyanka Yadav as a Staff Nurse was set aside due to the confirmation of her employment from Medanta Hospital, which clarified that the initial experience certificate, though deemed inappropriate, was not forged. The decision underscored her merit and verified work experience while denying her benefits for the six years between her dismissal and reinstatement. The Union of India's writ petition against the Tribunal's order was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS NAMRATA SEMWAL [W.P.(C)-5238/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision upheld the Central Administrative Tribunal's approval for the respondent's conversion from the Contributory Provident Fund (CPF) scheme to the General Provident Fund (Pension) scheme. The respondent had consistently requested inclusion in the GPF scheme since 1993, with no rejection of her requests by the petitioners. There was no evidence indicating the respondent chose to remain under the CPF scheme post the 1988 government order. The petitioners were directed to extend the benefits to the respondent as previously granted in a similar case.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR VS JAGDISH RAI [W.P.(C)-3769/2017]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondent's entire service period from 23.07.1975 to 18.10.1993 and 13.11.1997 to 31.03.2013 is to be counted for calculating pension and retirement benefits, as there is no evidence of termination from service. The argument regarding limitation was rejected, affirming that the cause of action arose after superannuation on 31.03.2013. The writ petition by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS ANIL SARAN BHATNAGAR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13476/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The two-year training period of Surveyor employees must be included in their qualifying service for the ACP/MACP scheme, as similar relief was previously granted to others in related cases. There is no justification for discriminating against these respondents.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS ANOOP KUMAR UPADHYAY [W.P.(C)-843/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The order to recover Rs. 9,01,173 from the respondent employee was quashed based on the applicability of the Supreme Court's decision in Rafiq Masih. The respondent, a pensioner at the time of the recovery order, had received excess payments for over 7 years without any allegations of misrepresentation or fraud. The recovery was deemed to cause undue hardship, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition filed by the Union of India.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS PAVAN VED [W.P.(C)-5477/2017]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition by the Union of India was dismissed, affirming the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to quash the charge memo issued to a former Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals). The dismissal was based on an unexplained delay of over 10 years in issuing the charge memo, making it unreasonable to expect the respondent to access case records from that long ago. Precedent established that disciplinary actions against quasi-judicial officers require allegations of malafide, which were absent in this case.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS VS ASHOK KUMAR AGGARWAL [W.P.(C)-9184/2017]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition by the Union of India and others was dismissed, affirming the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to grant Ashok Kumar Aggarwal benefits of the 3rd Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) scheme effective from 01.09.2008. The tribunal's finding that Aggarwal had completed 30 years of service by the introduction of the MACP scheme justified the earlier effective date, rather than the later date of 21.09.2010 proposed by the petitioners.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS N.K.MISHRA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15760/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to grant respondents the actual benefits of the higher replacement pay scale of Rs. 4500-7000 from 01.01.1996, rather than notional benefits, was upheld. The government's acceptance of the 5th Central Pay Commission's recommendations necessitated the provision of actual benefits from the effective date of 01.01.1996, rather than limiting it to 19.02.2003. Previous judgments supporting similar claims for other employees in the Accounts Department were cited, and the argument regarding delay and laches was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SATYA PAL SHARMA [W.P.(C)-3630/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition filed by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's orders. The respondent's services were retrospectively terminated from 01.02.2022, but no written termination order was issued until 10.05.2022. The petitioners cannot terminate the respondent's services retrospectively, and he is entitled to receive salary for the period he was not allowed to work.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS VINOD KUMAR [W.P.(C)-673/2014]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondent is recognized as a regular Grinder-II from 14.05.1991 and is entitled to benefits from the 1993 and 2003 cadre restructuring exercises. The petitioners included the respondent in the seniority list and granted him benefits under the MACP scheme, indicating recognition of his status. Consideration for consequential benefits, including promotion, will depend on the respondent meeting established parameters, rather than being automatic.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. VS DEEPAK GOYAL AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9253/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The writ petition was allowed, and the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside. The Tribunal's decision had relied on a previously set aside order from two other cases, leading to the necessity of overturning the impugned order.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. VS J R SAKHARE [W.P.(C)-7525/2018]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The dismissal order against the respondent was set aside due to the absence of the original bill, which prejudiced the respondent's defense and violated natural justice principles. Reinstatement was ordered with 50% back wages, considering the time elapsed since the 2008 dismissal and the 2013 acquittal in the criminal case.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. VS SMT. RENU GUPTA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-9742/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal regarding the restoration of family pension for the respondent was set aside. The tribunal incorrectly relied on an office memorandum applicable only to childless widows, while the respondent had a child. According to relevant rules, widows with children are not entitled to family pension upon remarriage. The respondent was granted permission to amend her application to challenge the legality of the rule, and the matter was sent back for fresh consideration of these additional grounds.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. VS RUPESH KUMAR JHA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12354/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to allow the original applications of the respondents was upheld. The respondents' failure to sign the opening page of their answer sheets was deemed a trivial mistake that did not affect the examination outcome or raise identity concerns, as they had signed the attendance sheet, declaration form, and affixed thumb impressions. The responsibility of invigilators, who signed the answer sheets without noticing the unsigned pages, pointed to a systemic failure. Precedents cited were found distinguishable, affirming that the Tribunal's order did not require interference. The writ petitions from the Union of India were dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY & ANR. VS LATE DR NUSRAT HAMEED KHAN THROUGH LRS MRS ZEENAT HAMEED KHAN & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1691/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The decision allows the legal representatives of Late Dr. Nusrat Hameed Khan to migrate to the old pension scheme under the CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972. The respondents were appointed on an ad-hoc basis in 1996 against advertised regular vacancies and were regularized on 03.02.2004, shortly after the new pension scheme took effect. Their ad-hoc service is considered for eligibility under the old pension scheme, as the posts were identified before 01.01.2004. The petition from the Union of India was dismissed, and an 8-week period was granted for implementation.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY MINISTRY OF DEFENCE & ORS. VS M S HASHMI [W.P.(C)-13859/2021]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petition by the Union of India was dismissed, upholding the Tribunal's decision to quash the charge memo against the respondent and revive departmental proceedings. An 8-year delay in action following the respondent's acquittal in 2009 was deemed unjustified, impacting the validity of the proceedings. The respondent had already retired in November 2021. Reliance on a Supreme Court decision in A. Masilamani was found inapplicable due to the focus on delay rather than case merits.

UNION OF INDIA VS ASH MOHAMMAD AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4292/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision was upheld, directing the Union of India to re-calculate the date for financial upgradation under the ACP/MACP scheme for the respondents, including service prior to age 18. The respondents' roles as Messenger Boys were considered "regular service" for promotions to Orderlies, contradicting the argument that this was merely a re-designation. There was no provision in the DoPT guidelines excluding pre-18 service from being counted as regular service, emphasizing the need for compassion in cases involving minors. The plea regarding delay in filing the original application was dismissed.

UOI VS R.K.MITTAL [W.P.(C)-1609/2004]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The inclusion of the respondent's initial appointment under Rule 25(3) of the DANIPS Rules towards his seniority was upheld. Despite the ad hoc nature of the appointment, the lengthy service of over 6 years at the request of the petitioner department was deemed significant for seniority determination, in line with established precedents. The petitioner's writ petition was dismissed.

VIRENDER VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS [W.P.(C)-13667/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

The petitioner's explanation for being on unauthorized leave for 248 days was deemed unsatisfactory, showcasing a significant lack of discipline. A minor discrepancy in the days cited in the charge sheet and the appellate order did not cause prejudice. The penalty of forfeiting one increment with cumulative effect was considered reasonable, and the delay in proceedings did not warrant an enhancement of punishment. The Tribunal's decision was upheld, and the writ petition was dismissed.

VIRENDRA KUAMR AND ORS. VS THE UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5335/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice Rekha Palli

A writ petition by superannuated Group A officers absorbed into BSNL in 2000 was dismissed. The key issue was the recommendation of the 2nd Pay Revision Committee regarding a separate revised pay scale for the E-9A pay scale. The proposal for a separate scale was previously considered and rejected. The decision on pay scale fixation by the employer cannot be interfered with, and a prior similar case involving the petitioners had also been dismissed.

DEEPAK SANGWAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4817/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition challenging charges, sentence orders, and dismissal from service was dismissed. The CFPB and CFSL reports indicated that the thumb impression and handwriting on the answer sheet did not match the provided specimens, confirming that someone else took the exam. This constituted serious misconduct. Arguments regarding the petitioner's participation in other selection stages and the timing of specimen collection were rejected, affirming the justification for the dismissal.

GULSHAN UPADHYAY VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7540/2022]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition filed by Gulshan Upadhyay challenging the denial of his induction into the Indian Navy as a Sailor (MR) was dismissed. His application showed a domicile in Uttarakhand, which was inconsistent with his domicile certificate from Uttar Pradesh, leading to ineligibility due to differing cut-off percentages. The position of Sailor (MR) has been replaced by the Agnipath Scheme, and his case cannot be considered under this new recruitment process. No grounds for interference with the respondents' decision were identified.

INDER SINGH KUNWAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7885/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Multiple writ petitions sought extension of benefits from a Supreme Court judgment. The respondents were directed to treat these petitions as representations and to resolve them within 8 weeks, assessing the petitioners' entitlement to benefits. If benefits were deemed owed, they were to be released within 6 weeks. If not, written reasons must be provided for the decision, allowing the petitioners to pursue further legal remedies.

MR. NIKHIL TOMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2735/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Mr. Nikhil Tomar was declared medically unfit for the post of Assistant Commandant in ITBP based on the Review Medical Board's assessment of a fibrotic scar on his right index finger, which was deemed to interfere with his duties. The board's conclusion aligned with ITBP's general standards, and there was no evidence of mala fide in their evaluation. Arguments regarding fitness from other hospitals and previous clearances in the Army and Navy were not accepted. The petition challenging the medical board's decision was dismissed for lacking merit.

RAM PRAKASH YADAV AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5844/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioners are entitled to a higher grade pay of R.S. 2800 under the Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) scheme, which ensures financial upgradation to the immediate next grade pay in the pay band hierarchy. The petitioners sought a higher grade pay of R.S. 4200 related to a promotional post, which is not provided by the MACP scheme.

RAVI KUMAR ORS VS UNION OF INDIA ANR [W.P.(C)-10597/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioners, qualified for promotion to Assistant Sub Inspector in the CRPF, were affected by a September 2022 amendment to the CRPF Establishment Manual which specified that the list of qualified candidates would not carry forward to the next vacancy year. Despite applying under earlier rules, the petitioners lacked a vested right to promotion. Their names were excluded from the promotion consideration due to being below the cut-off for available vacancies, which was deemed non-arbitrary.

RENU TUSHIR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6128/2024]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Renu Tushir's petition for the ASI (Pharmacist) position in the Central Reserve Police Force was dismissed due to her failure to contact the helpline as required when she did not receive her admit card for the Stage III examination. The selection process was complete, and her first representation was made nine months after the Stage II examination, suggesting a lack of seriousness as a candidate.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS TAPASH BASAK & ORS [W.P.(C)-716/2015]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Central Administrative Tribunal correctly directed the Union of India to make an informed decision regarding benefits for the civilian ministerial staff in the SSB. The Supreme Court had not addressed the pay parity between SSB employees and their counterparts in ARC and SFF. SSB employees are eligible for consideration of the same grade pay as Section Officers and Private Secretaries in ARC and SFF, as the Assistant position serves as the feeder grade. A decision must be made within three months, with the option for respondents to seek legal remedy if dissatisfied with the outcome.

ANITA RANI SONDHI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1767/2021]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Rekha Palli

The respondents were required to communicate the petitioner's ACRs with below-benchmark "good" ratings to her, as per principles of fairness and transparency. Since the ACRs from 2003-04 to 2005-06 were not communicated and the reporting officers were unavailable, the case for the 3rd MACP benefit from 01.09.2008 should be reconsidered by ignoring those uncommunicated ACRs and instead using her earlier "very good" ACRs from 2000-01 to 2002-03.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. VS JAY PRAKASH SOJA [W.P.(C)-4640/2021]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Rekha Palli

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside regarding the promotion criteria for the applicant, who sought consideration under an earlier notification requiring 6 years of service instead of the amended 9 years. It was established that an employer can change promotion criteria, and the applicant does not have a vested right to the older criteria. The applicant's claim of discrimination, based on batch mates receiving the senior scale under the old criteria, was noted. The matter was remanded to the Tribunal for a fresh decision, allowing the applicant to file an amended application to substantiate the discrimination claim, with a timeline of 6 months for resolution.

KISHORE KUMAR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1715/2021]
Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Rekha Palli
Respondents were required to communicate the petitioner's below benchmark ACRs for the years 2003-04, 2004-05, and 2005-06. The earlier ACRs for 2000-01, 2001-02, and 2002-03 should be considered in the petitioner's case for the grant of the 3rd MACP. If found fit for the 3rd MACP upon reconsideration, the petitioner is entitled to all consequential benefits.

MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS & ANR. VS SHRI JAGMINDER SINGH & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4605/2024]
Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Rekha Palli
The order from the Central Administrative Tribunal, requiring the Ministry of Home Affairs to consider the respondents for Senior Administrative Grade (SAG) in DANIPS on a notional basis from the date they became eligible, was upheld. The intent of the relevant Office Memorandum was to ensure that employees eligible for promotion should not be deprived of consideration due to delays in the Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) process. Superannuation before the DPC did not preclude the respondents from being considered for promotion, as the Office Memorandum allows for the inclusion of superannuated employees who are deemed fit. The argument that it was discretionary for the employer to consider superannuated employees was rejected, as it could lead to arbitrariness.

AAREM TRAD EX PRIVATE LIMITED VS SALES TAX OFFICER & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2767/2024]
Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva
An order dated 22.12.2023 that concluded proceedings under Section 73 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act 2017 against Aarem Trad Ex Private Limited was set aside. The order failed to address the merits of the petitioner's reply, stating it was not comprehensive without adequate reasoning. The proper officer is to reconsider the show-cause notice, allowing the petitioner a personal hearing and the opportunity to submit an additional reply within one week. The challenge to the related notifications remains unresolved.

AASHNA SINGHAL VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF GST AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7464/2024]
Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva
The provisional attachment order on the petitioner's bank account, issued on 27.01.2022 under Section 83 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017, has ceased to have effect after one year, as no fresh attachment order was issued. Cancellation requires an objective assessment by the proper officer rather than being a consequence of unfiled returns. Retrospective cancellation could negatively impact customers by denying them input tax credits, necessitating consideration of such effects. The cancellation order is modified to take effect from October 1, 2019, when the business shut down, while the recovery of any due tax, penalty, or interest remains permissible under the law.

The retrospective cancellation of the GST registration for the petitioner's firm was deemed unwarranted due to a lack of evidence regarding the deceased proprietor's compliance with the Act. The show cause notice failed to indicate that the registration could be cancelled retrospectively, preventing the petitioner from raising objections. Consequently, the registration was cancelled effective from the date of the proprietor's demise (13.04.2021), rather than from 01.07.2017.

The order canceling the petitioner's GST registration retroactively from 01.07.2017 was deemed invalid due to the lack of adequate details and reasoning in the Show Cause Notice and the cancellation order. Under Section 29(2) of the CGST Act, retrospective cancellation requires objective criteria rather than simply the failure to file returns. The consequences of such cancellation, including impacts on customers' input tax credit, were noted. Since the petitioner chose not to continue the business, the registration cancellation was modified to be effective from the Show Cause Notice date (19.11.2020), while allowing for recovery of any outstanding tax, penalty, or interest.

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva

Cancellation of a taxpayer's GST registration with retrospective effect cannot occur solely due to non-filing of returns. An objective assessment is required to justify such cancellation, especially considering the impact on customers' input tax credits. In this case, the registered cancellation date was modified to align with the show cause notice date of 14.08.2019, rather than the earlier date of 01.07.2017, as the notice did not indicate that retrospective cancellation was considered. Both the taxpayer and the department sought cancellation for different reasons.

Since the petitioner is not continuing the business and the proprietor has died, the cancellation is modified to be effective from November 18, 2021, the date of the proprietor's death. Recovery steps for any due tax, penalty, or interest regarding the firm can still be pursued, including the possibility of retrospective cancellation of the registration.

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Shovendra Jha's writ petition challenging the CRPF's order of compulsory retirement was dismissed. The charges against Jha were fully substantiated, and the retirement order was deemed justified. The petition was filed eight years after the original orders without a valid explanation for the delay, precluding extraordinary intervention under Article 226 of the Constitution.

ABHISHEK MANOJ WARTHI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12800/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner, a member of the Indian Coast Guard, lacks an absolute right to resign or seek outside employment, as determined by the Coast Guard Act, 1978 and associated rules, which allow discretion based on service needs. Personal circumstances were acknowledged, prompting a recommendation for a sympathetic reconsideration of the resignation on compassionate grounds. However, the decision to reject the request for a No Objection Certificate (NOC) was upheld as consistent with relevant laws and policies.

SACHIN YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-274/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Competent Authority rejected the petitioner's request for resignation from the Indian Coast Guard Service. The Coast Guard, as an armed force, is governed by specific rules and regulations that do not guarantee resignation as a right but allow it at the discretion of the authority. Precedents established that armed forces personnel cannot leave service at will due to security and operational considerations. The rejection was justified by service exigencies, including a shortage of trained personnel, differentiating this case from others cited by the petitioner. The writ petition was dismissed.

DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD (DTTDC) VS SUNEHARI BAGH CONSTRUCTION PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO (COMM)-199/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The order of the Commercial Court dismissing the appellant's application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act for lack of territorial jurisdiction was set aside. A procedural order from the Arbitral Tribunal, agreed upon by both parties, established Delhi as the place of arbitration. This order was overlooked by the Commercial Court, which should have entertained the appellant's application. The appellant's application was restored for prompt disposal.

M/S AVON INDUSTRIES VS M/S MASARSINSA STEELS PVT LTD [RFA(COMM)-267/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by Avon Industries was dismissed, with Masarsinsa Steels Pvt. Ltd. awarded recovery of Rs. 11,35,731 plus interest. Avon Industries' defenses regarding sub-standard goods and stolen cheques were unsubstantiated. The suit was deemed timely, supported by the appellant's acknowledgment of debt and an unsuccessful attempt to encash the cheques.

M/S GURPRAKASH ENTERPRISE & ORS. VS KAILASH SEWANI & ANR. [RFA(COMM)-12/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Commercial Court's decree in favor of the respondent was upheld based on admissions. The execution of the lease deed was not disputed since a partner of the appellant firm admitted to signing it. The defenses raised by the appellants lacked merit and did not present genuine triable issues. Material facts were acknowledged as true, justifying the decree. A point of contention regarding the third defendant's claimed resignation was irrelevant since the other appellants were confirmed partners and liable for recoverable amounts.

NIKHIL BHALLA VS M/S ORAVEL STAYS PVT. LTD. [FAO (COMM)-243/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

An arbitration agreement exists between the parties as the Marketing and Operational Consulting Agreement (MOCA) incorporates Terms and Conditions from Oravel Stays Pvt. Ltd.'s website, which includes an arbitration clause. Disputes regarding non-compliance with the MOCA's terms fall under this arbitration agreement. There is a dissenting opinion on the agreement's existence, but the majority view supports referral to arbitration, leaving all rights and issues, including arbitrability, to be determined by the arbitral tribunal.

ACME HEERGARH POWERTECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS, ICD CONCOR, JODHPUR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12386/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The instruction from the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs was deemed invalid and outside the scope of Section 151A of the Customs Act, as it interfered with the discretion of licensing authorities. Sections 61 and 65 of the Customs Act were interpreted to include solar power generation, rejecting the argument that imported capital goods must undergo manufacturing to meet the "in relation to such goods" requirement of Section 65. Additionally, contemporaneous materials, such as FAQs and circulars, confirmed that capital goods could be imported and warehoused indefinitely under the MOOWR Scheme. The impugned instruction, show cause notices issued to petitioners, and the cancellation of a license were all quashed.

ACRY MONOMERS INDIA PVT LTD & ORS. VS ADDITIONAL DIRECTOR GENERAL DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13509/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The principal challenge by the writ petitioners was the excessive delay in finalizing adjudication proceedings, with decades of inaction constituting grounds for annulment. It was noted that the respondents did not follow the required procedures under the First Proviso to Section 28(9) of the Customs Act, 1962, and failed to seek necessary extensions. They exhibited a pattern of inaction, repeatedly placing matters in a call book without proper assessment. There was no justification for the delays, as the respondents did not demonstrate any significant obstacles impeding their ability to conclude proceedings. Legislative amendments intended to facilitate the process were not adhered to. Consequently, the show cause notices and any final orders were quashed.

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INIDA VS JAI KUMAR & ORS [LPA-30/2018]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Airports Authority of India successfully appealed against the dismissal of a writ petition by the respondents claiming an alternative plot. The claim was barred by prior judgments regarding land acquisition in Village Nangal Dewat and was also affected by laches due to an inordinate delay in asserting rights. The respondents failed to act during their ancestors' lifetime and approached the matter only in 2012, long after the rehabilitation process concluded, leading to the conclusion that the writ petition could not be entertained at such a belated stage.

AKASH PODDAR VS ACIT CIRCLE 30(1) NEW DELHI [ITA-270/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The entire lump sum consideration of Rs. 3.03 crores received by the assessee as part of a settlement agreement is to be taxed as capital gains rather than "profits in lieu of salary" under Section 17(3)(iii) of the Income Tax Act. The consideration pertains to the relinquishment of the right to 50,000 sweat equity shares, not the termination of employment. The decision to divide the consideration into capital gains and "profits in lieu of salary" is unsustainable, as the entitlement to the shares was undisputed. The previous order has been set aside, with the legal question answered in favor of the assessee.

ARADHYA EXPORT IMPORT CONSULTANTS PVT LTD VS COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS (AIRPORT AND GENERAL), NEW CUSTOMS HOUSE NEW DELHI [CUSAA-81/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The appeal was allowed, and the order of the Customs, Excise And Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT) was set aside. The suspension of the appellant's customs broker license was identified as a regulatory measure, not a penalty. Additionally, the appellant was not found guilty of violating Regulation 10(n) of the Customs Brokers Licensing Regulations, 2018, as they relied on credible documents such as the Importer Exporter Code and Goods and Services Tax Identification Number. The case stands as a standalone matter.

ASHOK LEYLAND LTD VS THE COMMISSIONER VALUE ADDED TAX [W.P.(C)-11708/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The petitioner is entitled to a refund of Rs. 3.5 crore deposited with tax authorities, along with applicable interest under Section 42 of the DVAT Act. The delay in claiming the refund was justified since the cause arose only after the 2018 order from the Special Objection Hearing Authority. The retention of the refund claim by tax authorities cannot be justified on the grounds of it being a voluntary deposit or limitation. The delay in processing the refund was due to the authorities, and the petitioner's delay in seeking the refund was insignificant. Interest is owed on the refund amounts, including those from the quarters of 2012-13, to be paid within four weeks.

ASHOK LEYLAND LTD. VS THE COMMISSIONER, VALUE ADDED TAX [W.P.(C)-11710/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Ashok Leyland Ltd. is entitled to interest on a refund of Rs. 94,71,440 under the Delhi Value Added Tax Act, 2004, due to the failure to process the refund claim within the required two-month statutory time limit. The respondent is ordered to pay simple interest at a rate of 6% per annum on the refund amount within four weeks.

ASIAN COLOUR COATED ISPAT LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3498/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The impugned reassessment notice under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act for Assessment Year 2014-15 cannot be sustained following the approval of the Resolution Plan under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. The approved Resolution Plan is binding on all stakeholders, including tax authorities, and extinguishes any claims from the period prior to the plan's approval, leading to the quashing of the reassessment notice.

ATS INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CIRCLE 1 (1) DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3804/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Reassessment proceedings initiated by the Assessing Officer were invalid due to a discrepancy between the reasons recorded in the initial notice and those relied upon in the final order. The Assessing Officer cannot alter the original basis for reassessment or introduce new reasons. While Explanation 3 to Section 147 allows for the assessment of escaped income, it cannot be used to deviate from the original reasons recorded for reassessment. The impugned reassessment notices and orders were quashed, allowing for other lawful actions by revenue authorities.

AXA FRANCE VIE-INDIA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4136/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The GST demand order against AXA France Vie-India for the period from July 1, 2017, to July 25, 2018, is invalid. Amendments to the GST exemption notification are deemed curative and clarificatory, allowing the exemption on reinsurance services for government-sponsored insurance schemes to apply retroactively from July 1, 2017. The GST Council recommended regularization of GST payments for this period in June 2024, leading to a clarificatory circular from the Department of Revenue in July 2024. The demand order dated December 20, 2023, has been quashed, and the petitioner is granted all consequential reliefs.

BANYAN REAL ESTATE FUND MAURITIUS VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL TAX 1 1 2 & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10485/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Reassessment proceedings for AY 2016-17 against the petitioner were deemed legally unsustainable due to the incorrect assertion that the petitioner had not filed a return of income. Justifications presented after the original notice, including eligibility for DTAA benefits and handling of transactions related to a Scheme of Arrangement, were not mentioned in the original notice. The reassessment order and notice were quashed, allowing for the possibility of initiating fresh proceedings if permissible by law.

CABLE AND WIRELESS GLOBAL INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER, CGST & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14764/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Cable and Wireless Global India Private Limited is entitled to a refund of unutilized Input Tax Credit amounting to INR 47,33,053/-. The denial of the refund claim based on the payment being received in the Bangalore office, rather than the Delhi branch, is not sustainable. The analysis of the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, and the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, clarifies that the supplier's location is determined by the place of business registered, which is the Delhi branch. The argument regarding separate registration under the CGST Act focused on intra-State supply is rejected. The impugned orders are quashed, and the refund claim is to be processed promptly.

CAPITAL BROADWAYS PVT. LTD. VS INCOME TAX OFFICER WARD 5(3) DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4303/2017]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The approval granted by the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax under Section 151 of the Income Tax Act for reopening the petitioner's assessment under Section 148 was deemed invalid. The PCIT's approval, consisting only of the phrase "Yes, I am satisfied" without accompanying reasons or proper consideration, failed to meet the statutory requirement. Previous judgments indicate that approval must include consideration of the reasons provided by the Assessing Officer, and a mere mechanical endorsement is insufficient. Consequently, the notice issued under Section 148 was set aside.

CHANDRA GLOBAL FINANCE LTD VS ITO WARD 6(1) NEW DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-359/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Reassessment proceedings initiated by tax authorities against the petitioner were deemed an impermissible "change of opinion." The issue of the petitioner's investment in shares at a price below fair market value had previously been resolved in the petitioner's favor during original assessment and subsequent Section 263 proceedings where the matter was dropped. Tax authorities cannot reopen assessments based solely on a change of opinion, even with higher authority approval, as this contravenes established principles for initiating reassessment. Consequently, the reassessment notices and proceedings were quashed.

COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL EXCISE VS KUBER TOBACCO PRODUCTS PVT LTD & ANR [CEAC-40/2012]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The majority view of the CESTAT was upheld in favor of Kuber Tobacco Products Pvt. Ltd. and Kuber International (India) Ltd. regarding the central excise duty and penalties for alleged clandestine removal and undervaluation of goods. The evidence provided by the Revenue, including statements and documentation, was deemed unreliable and insufficient to prove the charges. Without tangible evidence of clandestine manufacture and clearance, the allegations could not be supported based solely on assumptions.

COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL TAX, GST DELHI EAST VS A S P METAL INDUSTRIES [CEAC-6/2019]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The appeal by the Commissioner of Central Tax was dismissed after it was found that the case of clandestine manufacture and clearance of goods lacked concrete evidence. The standard of proof for adjudication was established as "preponderance of probability," and mere suspicion was deemed insufficient. Additionally, the documentary evidence and statements from the alleged employees were regarded as unreliable due to the lack of proof of their employment status and later retraction of their statements.

COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (EXEMPTIONS) DELHI VS NIIT FOUNDATION [ITA-141/2021]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's order favored the NIIT Foundation, affirming its activities as falling under "education" per Section 2(15) of the Income Tax Act, 1961. NIIT Foundation provided systematic educational programs, including training and skill development for underprivileged students, operating learning centers, and digital literacy initiatives. The foundation received approvals from regulatory bodies like the National Skill Development Corporation. Affiliation with such authorities is not mandatory for qualifying as educational under the Act; the emphasis is on the systematic impartation of knowledge and skills. The source of funds, whether from tuition fees or donations, does not affect the classification of activities as charitable educational purposes. The assessment confirmed that the foundation's activities were indeed charitable.

COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (TDS)-1 VS M/S ADMA SOLUTIONS PVT. LTD.(FORMERLY KNOWN AS M/S INFOVISION INFORMATION SERVICES PVT.LTD.) [ITA-272/2019]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The change of the assessee company's name from Infovision Information Services Pvt. Ltd. to Adma Solutions Pvt. Ltd. did not invalidate the penalty proceedings under Section 292B of the Income Tax Act. However, the penalty order issued in July 2013 was found to be barred by limitation according to Section 275(1)(c) of the Act, as the penalty proceedings began in January 2008 and the order was issued beyond the six-month period allowed. The appeal by the Revenue was dismissed.

COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (TDS)-2 VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA [ITA-159/2021]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The capital grant subsidy paid by the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) to Concessionaires under a BOOT contract model is not subject to withholding tax under Section 194C of the Income Tax Act. This subsidy is characterized as financial support and equity contribution rather than payment for specific "work." Precedents define "work" in this context as involving physical labor or tangible results, which the subsidy does not represent. The direct deposit of the subsidy into an Escrow Account further indicates it is not payment for "work."

COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX(CENTRAL)-III VS INCOME TAX SETTLEMENT COMMISSION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6560/2016]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Settlement Commission limited the applicability of interest under Section 234B of the Income Tax Act to the date of admission of the settlement application, rather than extending it to the final order. This approach was aligned with the interpretation of Sections 234A, 234B, and 234C in similar proceedings. A writ petition by the revenue authority challenging this decision was dismissed.

COUNCIL OF THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INIDA VS GURVINDER SINGH AND ANR [CHAT.A.REF-4/2012]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Council of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India found the respondent guilty of "other misconduct" under the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949. The explanations for irregularities in share transactions were deemed unconvincing. The recommended punishment of a six-month removal from the Register of Members was accepted.

DESIGNCO VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14477/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The audit objection letter and summons issued by customs authorities against the petitioners were unsustainable under the law. The petitioners consistently classified exported handicraft articles since 1991, a classification accepted by the authorities, and any questioning of this classification requires a determination from the DGFT. Section 28AAA of the Customs Act necessitates a prior finding by the DGFT of wrongdoing for recovery of duty benefits, which was not established. The audit objection letter represented a predetermined conclusion, violating principles of natural justice by not allowing the petitioners to adequately present their case. Customs authorities cannot question the validity of MEIS certificates issued by the DGFT, as only the DGFT has the power to suspend or cancel these instruments. The audit objection letters and summons were quashed, and the amounts collected from the petitioners were to be refunded, while leaving open the possibility for the DGFT to initiate any valid proceedings regarding the MEIS certificates.

DISCOVERY COMMUNICATIONS INDIA VS ADDL. COMMISSIONER OFINCOME TAX,SPECIAL RANGE - 3, NEW DELHI. [W.P.(C)-13225/2018]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The notice issued under Section 148 to reopen the assessment for AY 2011-12 was deemed invalid. The reasons recorded by the Assessing Officer did not indicate any failure by the petitioner to fully disclose necessary material facts, which is required for reopening assessments after four years. The information regarding the disputed expenses had been provided by the petitioner in subsequent assessment years, and deductions were allowed, suggesting no income escapement. The impugned notice under Section 148 and the resulting reassessment proceedings were set aside.

DIVINE INFRACON PRIVATE LIMITED VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CENTRAL CIRCLE -18, NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-2516/2016]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Reassessment proceedings initiated by the Assessing Officer under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act, 1962 are not sustainable. Sole reliance on the District Valuation Officer's report, without further analysis, does not establish the required "reason to believe" for reopening the assessment. The opinion of the DVO is not sufficient information on its own, and the Assessing Officer must demonstrate an application of mind to form a belief that income has escaped assessment. In this case, the reasons recorded do not indicate such analysis, leading to the quashing of the impugned notices under Section 148.

DY.CIT CENTRAL CIRCLE 28 VS M/S ASM TRAXIM PVT. LTD. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5619/2017]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The challenge to the grant of immunity by the Income Tax Settlement Commission (ITSC) under Section 245H was found to be inseparable from the overall settlement order under Section 245D(4). The requirements for "full and true disclosure" and cooperation by the assessee were considered identical for both provisions. The ITSC deemed the applications of the respondents maintainable and their disclosures satisfactory, establishing that once the preconditions for settlement were met, they applied equally to the immunity grant. The finality of ITSC orders under the Income Tax Act was emphasized, with no procedural defects or lack of connection between reasons and decisions found. The writ petition filed by the Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax was dismissed.

ELENA SHVEDOVA VS UNOIN OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10971/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The writ petition was dismissed as the show-cause notice under Section 124 of the Customs Act, 1962 was properly served within the 6-month period mandated by Section 110(2). The notice was sent to the email address provided by the petitioner, and the government's email policy did not contradict the statutory requirements for notice service.

ESS SINGAPORE BRANCH VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6589/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The writ petition by ESS Singapore Branch resulted in the cancellation of the Assessing Officer's order that limited the Tax Deducted at Source (TDS) credit claim. The taxpayer is entitled to the full TDS credit of INR 2,27,83,28,430/- as shown in Form 26AS. The total refund payable to the taxpayer is recalculated at INR 2,03,40,32,090/-, including applicable interest under Section 244A of the Income Tax Act.

GDR FINANCE AND LEASING PRIVATE LIMITED VS INCOME TAX OFFICER, WARD 10(1), NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-4512/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Jurisdictional Assessing Officer (JAO) retains concurrent jurisdiction with the Faceless Assessing Officer (FAO) for issuing notices under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act. The introduction of the Faceless Reassessment Scheme, 2022 does not entirely remove the JAO's authority to initiate reassessment proceedings. Section 144B is deemed procedural and not the exclusive basis for reassessment; the JAO can initiate reassessments using various information sources, including Risk Management Strategy and audit objections. The JAO's powers are essential for thorough investigations and evaluations, reinforcing both centralized and jurisdictional assessments within the regulatory framework. Contrasting views from other High Courts lacked the comprehensive information presented in this case.

GE NUOVO PIGNONE S.P.A (NOW KNOWN AS NUOVO PIGNONE INTERNATIONAL SRL) VS COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (INTERNATIONAL TAXATION), DELHI - I & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6494/2019]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The reassessment of the appellant's income for Assessment Year 2009-10 was upheld due to valid reasons indicating that income had escaped assessment. It was established that the appellant maintained a fixed place permanent establishment (PE) and a dependent agent PE in India, supported by extensive business activities conducted by employees and an Indian associate, GEIIPL. The attribution of 3.5% of total sales in India as taxable income for the appellant was deemed reasonable and justified. The appeal and connected writ petition were dismissed, affirming the lower authorities' decisions.

GENPACT INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, RANGE 10, OSD, NEW DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-17364/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The reassessment action against Genpact India Private Limited for the Assessment Year 2015-16 was deemed time-barred under the First Proviso to Section 149(1) of the Income Tax Act. The notice issued under Section 148A(b) on May 27, 2022, was not considered a continuation of the original Section 148 notice from June 30, 2021, as the original notice had not been challenged. The Supreme Court's judgment in Ashish Agarwal applied only to cases where reassessment notices were challenged and quashed. The reassessment action was initiated beyond the six-year limit prescribed under the pre-amended provisions of Section 149(1)(b), leading to the quashing of the reassessment notices and all related proceedings.

HANUMAN PRASAD AND SONS VS COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS (ICD) PATPARGANJ [CUSAA-108/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The CESTAT's conclusion that importers' concessions to reassess the values of goods barred them from challenging the reassessment was incorrect. The importers' acceptance of increased values occurred under duress to avoid additional charges, and did not represent a waiver of their rights. A statutory obligation exists for proper officers to document reasons for questioning declared values and communicate them to importers. Reliance solely on NIDB data without adequate evidence is inadequate to reject declared values. This decision reinstated the Commissioner (Appeals)' rulings, affirming the importers' right to contest the reassessment and addressing concerns regarding the use of NIDB data for value enhancement.

HARI KISHAN SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-915/2019]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The order rejecting the petitioner's application to file a revised return for the Assessment Year 2010-11 was quashed. The revenue authorities did not adequately consider relevant statutory provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961, related to TDS credit, amendments of assessments, refunds, and restrictions on direct demands. The petitioner is directed to file the revised return within four weeks, with instructions for the revenue authorities to process the refund claim and applicable interest.

JASWANT SINGH JUNEJA VS INCOME TAX OFFICER, WARD-63(1), DELHI [W.P.(C)-2062/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Department's attempt to reopen the assessment for the petitioner's AY 2014-15 through an order under Section 148-A(d) and a notice under Section 148 dated 20.07.2022 is not valid. An assessment order under Section 147 was already issued on 26.03.2022 before the new notice, making the Department's actions contrary to established principles.

JCB INDIA LIMITED VS NATIONAL FACELESS ASSESSMENT CENTRE DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12462/2021]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The failure to issue a draft assessment order as required under Section 144C of the Income Tax Act results in the final assessment order being invalid and without jurisdiction. Non-compliance with this procedure is not considered a mere irregularity, as Section 144C establishes a distinct assessment mechanism with broader powers for the Dispute Resolution Panel compared to the Deputy Commissioner under Section 144B. The time limit for completing the assessment under Section 153 had also expired, making it impossible to remand the matter back to the Assessing Officer. The final assessment orders and consequential notices were quashed.

JYOTIRMAY NANDI VS R.K. ARORA OFFICIAL LIQUIDATOR [CO.APP.-28/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The appellant is entitled to bonus under the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965, despite a salary exceeding the statutory limit, due to a legal fiction for calculating bonus for such employees. The interest rate on the gratuity claim is set at 10% per annum, following the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, rather than the 4% under the Companies (Court) Rules, 1959. The lower court's judgment denying the appellant's claims for bonus and higher interest rate on gratuity has been set aside, with a remand to the Official Liquidator for re-computation of the claims.

KANIKA CHAWLA VS INCOME TAX OFFICER, WARD 45(1), NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11564/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Income Tax Officer's failure to issue a fresh assessment order within the 12-month limit after the earlier assessment was set aside results in the assessment order dated 11.08.2023 being barred by limitation. The Income Tax Department must refund Rs. 36,62,185/- paid by petitioner Kanika Chawla, with applicable interest, within 8 weeks, as her income for AY 2004-05 is to be accepted. This decision also applies to M/s. Ramesh Chawla (HUF) in the same matter.

The petitioner, a foreign national, was not required to declare the gold chain and kara he was wearing as personal effects under the Customs Act and Baggage Rules. M /S GE CAPITAL EUROPEAN TREASURY SERVICES LIMITED VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL TAXATION 1 3 1, NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17537/2022]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The petitioner's claim for interest under Section 244A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 is not sustainable due to the petitioner's decision to settle all disputes, including the Revenue's appeal, under the Direct Tax Vivad Se Vishwas Act, 2020. The VSV allows settlement of both the applicant's and the Revenue's appeals. By choosing to settle all disputes, the petitioner waived the right to claim interest under Section 244A on refundable amounts resulting from the CIT(A) order. However, interest at a rate of 5% per annum is to be paid on the delayed refund determined payable under the VSV, covering the period from February 2021 to February 2023.

M/S JAGDAMBA SALES CORPORATION VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) & ORS [LPA-128/2019]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

M/s Jagdamba Sales Corporation's appeal was dismissed, affirming a 3-year blacklist and forfeiture of a security deposit of Rs. 26,31,250. The company failed to lift the contracted 5000 quintals of mustard de-Oiled cake within the allotted time, despite receiving an extension, leading to losses for the prison department. The actions taken against the company were deemed reasonable and not disproportionate. Arguments citing demonetization and the GST regime as factors for failure were rejected.

M/S EXPERION DEVELOPERS PVT LTD. VS INCOME TAX OFFICER & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10543/2015]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Reassessment proceedings against the Experion group companies for the assessment years 2008-09 and 2011-12 were quashed due to the acceptance of the identity and creditworthiness of Gold Hotels & Resort Pte. Ltd. (Gold Singapore) and the genuineness of the transactions by tax authorities in subsequent assessment years. Additional facts demonstrated that the grounds for reopening were no longer valid, leading to the annulment of the notices issued under Section 148 and related proceedings.

M/S FRESH PET PRIVATE LIMITED VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX, DELHI - 1 [W.P.(C)-12362/2021]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The Designated Authority under the Direct Tax Vivad se Vishwas Act, 2020, erred by refusing to rectify Form 3 for the petitioner. The original assessment order had allowed for the carry forward of unabsorbed depreciation and business losses, which the Designated Authority could not deny when determining the settlement amount. The VSV Act is intended to be remedial and beneficial, ensuring that applicants are not placed in a worse position than under the original assessment. The impugned order was quashed, and the Designated Authority is instructed to issue a revised Form 3.

The revisional authority had the power under Section 108 of the CGST Act to stay the refund order from the petitioner's Electronic Cash Ledger. However, a specific finding regarding the original refund order being erroneous, prejudicial to revenue, illegal, or improper was necessary before invoking revisional powers. The lack of such a finding led to the quashing of the order that placed the refund in abeyance, allowing the respondents to proceed afresh in accordance with the law.

M/S PAWAN HANS LIMITED (FORMERLY KNOWN AS PAWAN HANS HELICOPTERS LIMITED) VS COMMISSIONER OF TRADE AND TAXES [ST.APPL.-1/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The supply of helicopters by Pawan Hans Limited to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Administration did not amount to a "transfer of a right to use" and was not subject to taxation under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 or the Delhi Value Added Tax Act, 2004. Pawan Hans Limited maintained possession and control of the helicopters, providing the crew, maintenance, and operations. Although the helicopters were available exclusively for the lessee's use, effective control remained with Pawan Hans, distinguishing this case from others where a clear transfer of ownership occurred. The earlier decision by the Value Added Tax Appellate Tribunal that supported the tax levy was set aside.

The appeal was allowed, and the prior rulings concerning the contract between the appellant and the contractor were set aside. The Industrial Tribunal exceeded its jurisdiction by questioning the legitimacy of the contract without any allegation from the workmen. Previous legal precedent established that engaging contract labor does not automatically lead to their regular employment. In the absence of a governmental reference on the contract's nature, the Tribunal was restricted to the issues of regularization and wages for the workmen.

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Mitsubishi Corporation successfully challenged final assessment orders issued by the Assessing Officer (AO). The AO was instructed to consider additional grounds raised by the petitioner, despite no revised return being filed, as the Tribunal had remanded the case for merit evaluation. It was clarified that the Tribunal's powers allow for relief irrespective of the return status and that reliance on a CBDT Circular and a Supreme Court judgment regarding declared income was incorrect, following changes to Section 143(3) of the Income Tax Act permitting refunds upon assessment. Final assessment orders and associated demand and penalty notices were quashed, with directions for the AO to reassess the additional grounds.

The view in Sana Herbals Pvt. Ltd. v. Mohsin Dehlvi, stating that a civil suit does not need to be stayed during a pending rectification petition under Section 124 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999, has been deemed incorrect. Section 124 requires the stay of suit proceedings if rectification proceedings are pending at the time the suit is instituted or if a defendant raises a valid issue regarding the plaintiff's trademark. This stay is a mandatory statutory outcome and not subject to discretion. The previous decision did not consider relevant Supreme Court rulings that clarified this legal position.

The Assessing Officer agreed that the income was not taxable in India, leading to the processing of the return without additions. Under Section 155(14) of the Income Tax Act, an amended assessment order for TDS credit is mandatory when updated Form 26AS is submitted, eliminating the need for revising the original return. As the TDS appeared in Form 26AS and the income was not subject to tax, the impugned order was quashed, and a refund of the TDS amount was directed.

The interpretation of the DTVSV Act by the respondents was deemed too narrow, contrary to the legislation's intent to resolve pending income tax litigation and enhance revenue generation. The Taxation and Other Laws (Relaxation and Amendment of Certain Provisions) Act, 2020 only extended timelines for issuing reassessment notices and did not change the approval requirements. Approval was required from the Principal Chief Commissioner, Chief Commissioner, Principal Commissioner, or Commissioner as per the unamended Section 151(1). Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Additions made by the Assessing Officer under Section 153C were deemed invalid due to the lack of seized or incriminating material in the satisfaction note prior to initiating proceedings. For jurisdiction under Section 153C, the seized documents must belong to the assessee, rather than merely relating to them. The additions were based solely on survey proceedings and not on the required seized materials. Consequently, there was no substantial question of law, leading to the dismissal of the Revenue's appeals.

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The appeals by the Revenue were dismissed, upholding the decision to delete the penalty under Section 271(1)(c) of the Income Tax Act. The notice initiating the penalty proceedings was deemed vague, lacking clarity on whether it was based on concealment of income particulars or furnishing inaccurate particulars. Previous judgments emphasized the need for specificity in penalty proceedings. It was noted that findings in assessment proceedings do not automatically lead to penalty imposition, as the focus should be on the conduct of the assessee. Additionally, a distinction was made between "concealment of particulars of income" and "furnishing inaccurate particulars of income."

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Notices for reassessment under the Income Tax Act issued in the names of deceased assessees are invalid as they fail to meet the jurisdictional requirement of Section 148. Issuing a notice to a deceased person is considered a substantive illegality. Although Section 159 allows for continuing proceedings against legal representatives, it does not eliminate the need for proper notification to them. Consequently, the invalid notices and orders were quashed, but revenue authorities may proceed against the legal heirs if permissible under law.

PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-4 VS GOMANTAK EXIMIS LTD., [ITA-1163/2018]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The writ petition resulted in the quashing of the order dated 19.07.2022 under Section 148A(d) and the subsequent notice under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act. The issuance of fresh notices to reopen assessment proceedings for the assessment year 2014-15 was deemed unjustified, as the assessment had concluded on 30.03.2022, and the judgment in Union of India vs. Ashish Agarwal did not require the reopening of completed assessments.

SATYA REALTORS PRIVATE LIMITED THROUGH DIRECTOR SANJAY GUPTA VS INCOME TAX OFFICER WARD 22(3) DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12832/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Observations made by the Supreme Court in the Abhisar Buildwell case do not constitute a "finding or direction" under Section 150 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, allowing the Revenue to bypass the time limit set by Section 149 for reassessment. The Supreme Court's remarks were not intended as binding and do not permit the Revenue to disregard statutory time limits. The time limit for reassessment under Section 149, as amended by the Finance Act 2021, must be strictly followed. As a result, the reassessment notices issued by the Revenue are invalid due to being barred by limitation.

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Notices and orders issued under Sections 148-A and 148 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 against the deceased assessee Sh. Vipin Gupta are void, as they must be issued in the name of a living person. Previous judgments confirm that a notice against a deceased individual is invalid unless legal representatives acquiesce without objection. Legal representatives had notified authorities of the assessee's death, yet proceedings continued improperly. Additionally, the deceased's salary income for the assessment year 2020-21 was already subject to TDS, indicating no unassessed income. The notices and order were set aside.

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Failure to issue a notice under Section 143(2) of the Income Tax Act during reassessment proceedings renders the action invalid. Consequently, the notices under Section 147/148 and the assessment orders were quashed.

SHREE BHAVANI POWER PROJECTS PVT. LTD. VS INCOME TAX OFFICER, WARD 23(3), & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8972/2019]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

Failure to electronically upload Form 10CCB with the Return of Income does not justify reassessment under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act. The requirement to furnish the audit report under Section 80-IA(7) is considered directory, allowing submission before the end of assessment proceedings. The case differs from the Supreme Court's ruling in Wipro Limited concerning Section 10B(8), which is mandatory. Notices issued under Section 148 and the initiation of reassessment for the assessment years 2013-14 and 2014-15 were quashed. The implications of amendments to Section 80-IA(7) by the Finance Act, 2020, regarding the audit report submission date remain open for consideration.

The Joint Secretary's decision to impose a penalty of Rs. 4 lakhs on Shri Veerendra Singh for abetting the smuggling of 9,500 memory cards valued at Rs. 15,01,000 was upheld. Incriminating statements made by the petitioner under Section 108 of the Customs Act, along with supporting recovery panchnamas and witness statements, established his guilt despite later retraction. It was noted that Customs authorities are not required to prove cases with mathematical precision, and statements under Section 108 can serve as substantive evidence.

SPICEJET LIMITED VS KAL AIRWAYS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-180/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The High Court dismissed the appellants' challenge to the Arbitral Award under Section 34 without adequately considering claims of patent illegality regarding the Tribunal's refund directions and the lack of reasoning for pendent lite and post-award interest. These arguments were crucial to the case, necessitating a closer examination rather than a summary affirmation of the Award. The matter was sent back for fresh consideration of the Section 34 petitions in light of these observations.

THE ASSOCIATED CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY OF INDIA VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10520/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The reassessment action against the petitioner for the Assessment Year 2016-17 is deemed unjustified. The petitioner submitted Forms 10 and 10B to the Assessing Officer before the completion of original assessment proceedings, despite submitting after the due date under Section 139(1) of the Income Tax Act. Importance was placed on due disclosure of information over strict procedural compliance. Acknowledgment of functionality issues in digitally submitting Form 10 in AY 2016-17 allowed for delay condonement if reasonable cause was present. The order under Section 148A(d) and the initiation of reassessment proceedings via notice under Section 148 are quashed.

The Fair Market Value (FMV) of shares allotted under the Employees Stock Purchase Scheme (ESPS) is limited to the face value of R.S. 15 per share due to a lock-in restriction. A Valuation Report from the employer company is insufficient for determining FMV, as it serves only to address withholding tax obligations and does not provide a conclusive valuation. Market price or hypothetical valuations are not applicable for shares under lock-in, as they lack realizable value during that period.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -CENTRAL -1 VS KARINA AIRLINES INTERNATIONAL LTD. [ITA-690/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja, Justice Yashwant Varma

The search occurred on 7 April 2016, and amendments from the Finance Act, 2017 extending the reassessment block period from 6 to 10 years do not apply since the search predated 1 April 2017. The second proviso to Section 153A(1) specifies that the extended block period applies only to searches initiated on or after that date. The date of recording the satisfaction note for the non-searched entity is the relevant date for determining the limitation period, regardless of a common Assessing Officer. The appeal by the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax was dismissed, upholding the Tribunal's decision to quash the reassessment as time-barred.

The investment by the petitioner, a foreign portfolio investor, in Indian securities is classified as a "capital account transaction" rather than "income" subject to assessment. The Assessing Officer cannot introduce new reasons for initiating reassessment after the initial notice, as the validity of the proceedings must be based on the original notice's reasons. Additionally, the Assessing Officer cannot replace recorded reasons with new ones in the final order without addressing the change with the petitioner. The notices and order were quashed due to non-compliance with the principles of natural justice and statutory requirements for reassessment.

The reliance on information from the Investigating Wing lacked independent verification or additional material to support the belief that the assessee's income had escaped assessment. The absence of a tangible connection between the material and the belief necessitated the setting aside of the reassessment notice and related proceedings.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS ANIL KUMAR SHARMA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-386/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sachin Datta

The writ petition filed by the Union of India and others was dismissed, upholding the Central Administrative Tribunal's order that referenced a prior decision from the Bangalore Bench. The parties had agreed to be bound by a Supreme Court decision in a pending Special Leave Petition, and the petitioners did not promptly contest the Central Administrative Tribunal's order, indicating their acceptance of the Bangalore Bench decision. Although the Supreme Court dismissed the petitioners' SLP while leaving the question of law open for future cases, the dismissal of the writ petition does not prevent the petitioners from raising objections in similar pending or future cases involving other employees.

ANANT VERINDER SINGH (DECEASED) TH LR VS COL INDERJEET SINGH (DECEASED) THR LR [RFA(OS)-4/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal against the final decree for partition of the property was dismissed. The preliminary decree establishing 50% shares for the plaintiff and two defendants was considered final, necessitating the sale of the property and distribution of proceeds according to those shares. Arguments for re-determination of shares based on a prior family settlement were rejected, as the preliminary decree had already been finalized. An application for condonation of delay in re-filing the appeal was also dismissed.

ANJUM NAYYAR VS YAVAR EHSAN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-37/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Family Court's dismissal of a joint petition for the dissolution of marriage through Mubaraat on 24.01.2020 was addressed, clarifying that Mubaraat is a valid form of extra-judicial divorce under Muslim Personal Law. The marriage between the parties is declared dissolved as of that date, accompanied by guidelines for Family Courts regarding such petitions.

APPELLATE TRIBUNAL FOR FORFEITED PROPERTY VS SHAILENDER KUMAR AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-7402/2015]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The departmental charge memo and inquiry against a government employee were quashed due to a lack of witness examination, which violated principles of natural justice. The employee was reinstated with 50% back wages. The government authority was allowed to conduct a new inquiry, using available documentary evidence and must provide a list of witnesses for the fresh inquiry.

ATUL KUMAR AND ORS VS THE CHIEF SECRETARY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7256/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition seeking provisional permission for the Combined Examination 2023 was dismissed due to the petitioners being over the age limit of 27 years. The examination's six-year delay did not justify age relaxation, as it would unfairly advantage these petitioners over similarly situated candidates. Granting such relaxation could lead to a flood of applications from other over-age individuals. The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to reject the petitioners' interim request was upheld.

BHARAT BROADBAND NETWORK LTD VS PARAMOUNT COMMUNICATIONS LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-241/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The arbitral award in favor of Paramount Communications Ltd was upheld, affirming that the claim for reimbursement of differential excise duty due to a change in classification of goods was covered under the "change in taxes/duties" clause of the contract. The interpretation provided by the arbitrator was considered plausible and justifiable, leading to the dismissal of the appeal by Bharat Broadband Network Ltd.

PRASHANT KUMAR SONA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4339/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The general principles prohibit the grant of retrospective seniority, but specific rules for the Indian Foreign Service (Branch B) allow it for officers promoted through the Limited Departmental Competitive Exam (LDCE) from July 1 of the examination year. This principle cannot be applied absolutely due to the breakdown of quota rules from the LDCE not being held for several years. The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to prepare a fresh seniority list without granting retrospective seniority to LDCE candidates was upheld to ensure justice for promotees who had been working as Section Officers for longer periods.

COMMISIONER OF POLICE DELHI & ORS. VS PRADEEP [W.P.(C)-7826/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition filed by the Commissioner of Police, Delhi, and others against the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to set aside Pradeep's dismissal was dismissed. The Tribunal correctly identified that the petitioners improperly bypassed the departmental inquiry, citing insufficient justification for doing so. The reasons for dismissal, based on a presumption that Pradeep might threaten witnesses due to his police status, did not meet the necessary criteria under Article 311(2)(b) of the Constitution. This decision was consistent with a previous case that similarly rejected the petitioners' challenge regarding the dismissal order.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE & ORS. VS MANISH KUMAR MEENA [W.P.(C)-6320/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The dismissal of a police constable was deemed unjustified due to the absence of a departmental inquiry. The disciplinary authority did not provide sufficient reasons for bypassing the inquiry process, which is necessary even in cases of serious alleged misconduct. The dismissal order and the appellate order were quashed, and the disciplinary authority was granted three months to conduct a new inquiry according to legal standards.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS MANDEEP KUMAR [W.P.(C)-5723/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Central Administrative Tribunal directed the Delhi Police to offer Mandeep Kumar a position as Sub-Inspector (Executive) after determining that the cancellation of his candidature due to his name being in an FIR was arbitrary. The issue of the FIR was previously addressed by the Tribunal, preventing the Delhi Police from re-examining it, and the findings of the Tribunal were accepted.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS RAVINDER SINGH [W.P.(C)-12944/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal, which set aside the dismissal of Ravinder Singh from the Delhi Police, was upheld. The Commissioner of Police and others could not provide sufficient reasons to justify bypassing a regular departmental inquiry, and their dismissal order was deemed casual, violating principles of natural justice. There was emphasis on the need for proper reasoning in future orders. The Tribunal's decision allowed for the possibility of initiating fresh disciplinary proceedings against Singh.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS SANT RAM [W.P.(C)-5562/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The dismissal of Sant Ram from service without a departmental inquiry was deemed invalid. The reasons for bypassing the inquiry, such as the assumption that Sant Ram would threaten witnesses and traumatize the complainant, were not justified. The fact that Sant Ram was a police officer did not warrant skipping the inquiry, particularly since the witnesses and complainant were also police personnel. The ruling upheld the Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to cancel the dismissal and allowed for the initiation of new disciplinary proceedings in accordance with the law.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE AND ORS VS SMT KANTA DEVI [W.P.(C)-982/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld, allowing the widow of a Group C government employee to challenge the recovery of overpayments made to her late husband. The principles from State of Punjab v. Rafiq Masih indicated that such recoveries, especially from lower pay grade employees, could be iniquitous and arbitrary. The recoveries were deemed excessive as they occurred posthumously and without notice, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition regarding the recoveries.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE DELHI AND ORS VS YASH VIR SINGH [W.P.(C)-16009/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The decision to dismiss a constable from the Delhi Police was set aside due to insufficient reasoning and lack of proper inquiry. The dismissal order lacked adequate application of mind, although disciplinary proceedings could still be initiated as permitted by the Central Administrative Tribunal.

D N GANDHI VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1892/2021]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) erred in denying D.N. Gandhi arrears of upgraded pay, mistakenly believing he had already superannuated, while he was still in service when he filed the petition. Gandhi's claim was based on a 2012 circular that granted an additional increment to railway employees, which was extended to his juniors in 2013. After his representation for stepping up of pay was rejected in 2014, he approached CAT in 2015, demonstrating no undue delay. The decision modified the CAT's order, directing the grant of all arrears of the upgraded pay to Gandhi.

DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD. VS AGHUM BAHL & ANR. [LPA-553/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal by the Delhi State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation Ltd. (DSIIDC) was dismissed regarding a judgment that entitled Aghum Bahl to an alternative industrial plot. DSIIDC's request to condone a 166-day delay in filing the appeal lacked sufficient justification, as mere departmental reasons were inadequate under the limitations set by the Supreme Court. Additionally, DSIIDC had issued the allotment letter to Bahl in 2004 and accepted payment, later canceling the allotment after six years without fault on Bahl's part.

DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS PURAN MASI RAM [W.P.(C)-10227/2015]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal granting enhanced gratuity of Rs. 10,00,000/- based on the 6th Central Pay Commission recommendations were set aside. The Delhi Transport Corporation (DTC) is an autonomous organization and is not obligated to adopt Pay Commission recommendations or set implementation dates. DTC decided to implement the gratuity ceiling increase to Rs. 10,00,000/- effective from 24.05.2010, which means that employees who retired before this date are not eligible for the higher amount. This matter involved two connected writ petitions filed by DTC.

DR. NIKHIL KUMAR AND ORS VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7656/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) regarding the selection process for the post of Education Officer has been set aside. The application of an 85% weightage to the written examination and 15% to the interview for only two petitioners was deemed impermissible, as such a formula should apply to all candidates. The matter has been remanded to the CAT for fresh adjudication, while the two appointed petitioners may continue in service until a new decision is made. The appropriateness of the 85:15 weightage formula remains for the CAT to decide.

EMPLOYEE STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION VS NARENDRA KUMAR VERMA [W.P.(C)-2452/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to appoint the respondent to the position of Nursing Orderly was upheld. The respondent's experience in a government-run dispensary was deemed relevant for meeting the eligibility criteria, as staff in government dispensaries and hospitals are often interchangeable. The cancellation of the respondent's appointment offer by the ESIC was deemed arbitrary and unjustified.

EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION VS DR. ASHOK KUMAR GUPTA [W.P.(C)-4785/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) must consider the respondent for the Insurance Medical Officer (IMO), Grade-II position, granting age relaxation benefits. The advertisement included all "Government servants," applying to both central and state employees. The respondent, a Gujarat state government employee, is eligible for the age relaxation, and the decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld. The ESIC's arguments against this were rejected.

GEETAKATYAL VS SUDARSHAN GABA [RFA(OS)-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The dismissal of the appellant's suit (CS (OS) 221/2022) was upheld due to the prior withdrawal of an identical suit (Civil Suit no. 767/2017) without permission to refile. The decree in favor of the respondents in their suit (CS (OS) 344/2019) for declaration, possession, and mesne profits was affirmed, with their title considered prima facie valid based on the registered will and sale deed.

HUGHES COMMUNICATIONS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS IMAGING SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-144/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The decisions rejecting challenges to an Arbitral Award dated 04.10.2018 were deemed unsustainable due to insufficient consideration of the parties' grounds. The appeals were allowed, the previous orders were set aside, and the matters were remanded for fresh adjudication under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. This involved two appeals arising from similar cases.

KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA SANGATHAN & ANR. VS MAHIPAL SINGH [W.P.(C)-6703/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition filed by Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan (KVS) was dismissed, confirming an order that directed KVS to grant notional seniority and pay fixation to the respondent as Principal from October 2012. KVS acknowledged the original select list from 2012 was erroneous, and the respondent was entitled to the same benefits as candidates on the corrected list. The decision referenced an unchallenged previous judgment in a similar case. The order was upheld without finding any errors.

KISHOR KUMAR MAKWANA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-239/2016]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondents justified reverting the petitioner from the position of Research Officer to Economic Officer but could not recover the differential amount paid during the reversion period. The petitioner worked in the higher role for over 14 years without complaints, so terminal benefits should be based on the higher salary received as a Research Officer. The order was set aside, directing the release of the petitioner's terminal benefits, including pension, calculated on the higher scale, while not permitting the continuation of the higher pay post-reversion.

KRISHNA GOPAL AND ORS VS INDIAN BANK AND ORS [W.P.(C)-17914/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition filed by the subsequent purchasers of the mortgaged property was allowed, leading to the order of the Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal being set aside. The appeal was deemed maintainable under Section 18 of the SARFAESI Act, resulting in the matter being remanded to the DRAT for adjudication on the merits. No opinion was expressed regarding the merits of the grounds raised by the petitioners, and it was suggested that the DRAT could require a pre-deposit before proceeding with the appeal.

M/S CHIBBA AGRO PVT LTD VS NARENDER KUMAR GUPTA [RFA(COMM)-489/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The requirement of pre-litigation mediation under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 was complied with, despite no settlement being reached. The plaintiff invoked mediation as required, and the lack of a settlement did not indicate a violation of Section 12A. The argument for rejecting the suit based on non-compliance with Section 12A was dismissed, as the statute mandates only the invocation of mediation rather than a successful settlement.

M/S SATYADHARA COMMUNICATIONS PVT LTD VS M/S INDIASIGN PVT LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-66/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

M/S Satyadhara Communications Pvt Ltd's appeal to set aside an arbitral award was dismissed due to inadequate justification for delays of 670 days in filing and 591 days in re-filing. Exceptional circumstances required to condone delays beyond the statutory period under the Arbitration Act were not demonstrated. The applications for condonation of delay were dismissed, resulting in the dismissal of the appeal.

MOHAMMED ATIQUE VS APARAJITA ATIQUE [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-421/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

A divorce decree was upheld in favor of the wife under Section 27(1)(d) of the Special Marriage Act, 1954, citing cruelty. The husband's argument that the marriage was invalid due to the wife's pre-marital conversion to Islam was dismissed as res judicata. Evidence showed the husband's actions constituted mental, physical, and economic cruelty, which he did not contest, leading to admission of those claims. A separation period exceeding 10 years was also recognized as cruelty. The appeal was dismissed with costs of Rs. 1,00,000.

MR. DHARMENDRA PRASAD SINGH AND ANR. VS STATE BANK OF INDIA THR CHAIRMAN AND ORS [LPA-705/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The decision affirmed the rejection of the writ petition filed by the appellants, who were appointed as Officers-Marketing and Recovery (Rural S-1) on a contractual basis. They were found ineligible for permanent absorption under the bank's policies from 20.07.2010 and 18.08.2010, which mandated prior experience as OMR (Rural) and a minimum 60% performance target. The appellants had never worked as OMR (Rural), making them unable to meet the performance evaluation requirements. The rationale behind the bank's policy limiting absorption to specific employees was not subject to judicial examination. The appeal was dismissed.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS RAKESH GUPTA [W.P.(C)-4396/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision was upheld, directing the Municipal Corporation of Delhi to convene a review DPC and consider the respondent for promotion to Deputy Director (Press & Information), counting his ad hoc service as Assistant Director towards eligibility. Despite general practices of excluding ad hoc service from regular service count, the respondent's circumstances warranted consideration due to having been eligible for regular promotion yet only granted an ad hoc role. A prior judgment that allowed counting ad hoc service in similar cases was deemed applicable. The writ petition by the Municipal Corporation was dismissed.

NATIONAL HEALTH AUTHORITY VS M S INTERMARC [FAO (COMM)-137/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The application by the National Health Authority to set aside an arbitral award in favor of M S Intermarc was rejected due to being filed beyond the 120-day limitation period mandated by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. Despite considering time exclusions under the Limitation Act during an earlier application, the 14-day delay for condonation was deemed without merit, as the statutory limitation period is inflexible.

NAVEEN KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7071/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition challenging orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal was dismissed. The Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti used a uniform marking scheme for the PGT (Computer Science) exam, awarding composite marks for each question instead of separate marks for sub-parts. The marking procedure was applied consistently to all candidates, and the discretion in deciding the marking process lies with the examining body, not within judicial oversight under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution. The petition was deemed meritless.

NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS M/S VEERA BUILDERS THR ITS PARTNER & ORS [RFA(OS)-85/2016]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The suit filed by the North Delhi Municipal Corporation for a declaration of ownership and possession of certain plots of land was dismissed as lacking cause of action. The Corporation had previously sanctioned building plans for the land, acknowledging the respondents' ownership. The claim was also barred by the principle of constructive res judicata, rendering the suit frivolous.

NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS SUDHA SHARMA [W.P.(C)-10565/2017]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Central Administrative Tribunal's decision to allow reimbursement for expenses related to the respondent's husband's bariatric surgery is upheld. Prior approval was not obtained, but the surgery was categorized as an emergency since it was performed at an MCD panel hospital upon doctor's advice. The cost was lower than the approved rate, and the genuineness of the claim was not disputed. The specific circumstances of the case justified the Tribunal's decision.

NTPC LIMITED VS R S TYAGI [LPA-390/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal by NTPC Limited was dismissed, upholding the quashing of the penalty order against R S Tyagi. The initiation of disciplinary proceedings, 17 years after the alleged misconduct, was deemed unreasonable, as the misconduct had been flagged by the CVC in 1987 but no action was taken until 2004. The delay rendered the cause of action stale, making it impermissible for NTPC to pursue the case at this late stage.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS SHARP MINT LTD [RFA(OS)(COMM)-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal by Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. was dismissed due to the appellant's failure to demonstrate "sufficient cause" for a 182-day delay in filing. The reasons provided indicated negligence and a lack of good faith, rather than an inability to meet the statutory deadline. Allowing the delay would undermine the intent of the Limitation Act.

POOJA SHARMA VS ARUN SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-428/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal by the wife against the lower court's rejection of her interim maintenance application was allowed. Despite an earlier settlement not being implemented, the wife retains the right to claim maintenance. The lower court's order was deemed unsustainable and set aside, with the matter remanded for fresh assessment of the maintenance application. No opinion was provided on the merits of the claims, leaving the decision to the lower court.

POOJA SHARMA VS ARUN SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-435/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Family Court closed the appellant's right to examine herself after a lengthy cross-examination. This decision was viewed as arbitrary, as family matters require greater sensitivity. The appeal was partially allowed, reinstating the appellant's right to self-examination, and mandating the completion of her cross-examination before final arguments. Additionally, it was emphasized that Family Courts should expedite cross-examinations to facilitate the swift resolution of disputes as per the Family Courts Act.

PREM SINGH VS STATE BANK OF TRAVANCORE [LPA-248/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal resulted in modification of the lower court's order regarding compensation. The amount paid under Section 17B of the Industrial Disputes Act during proceedings should not be included in the calculation of lump-sum compensation for reinstatement. It was established that Section 17B payments are non-refundable and cannot offset the compensation. An additional sum of Rs. 3,00,000 was awarded as lump-sum compensation, in addition to the Rs. 1,00,000 already granted.

PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK VS D B MADAN [LPA-608/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondent's acquittal in the criminal case was categorized as an "honourable acquittal" under Regulation 15 of the PNB Officer Employee (Discipline & Appeal) Regulations, 1977. The acquittal occurred after thorough consideration of evidence by the CBI Court, not simply on the basis of benefit of doubt or lack of witness examination. The appellant was directed to pay the respondent full salary during the suspension period and to treat that period as duty time for pension calculations.

RAJIV KUMAR VS JAWAHAR LAL VOHRA [RFA(COMM)-447/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal against the trial court's judgment granting possession of the property to the respondent and recovery of arrears was considered meritless. The appellant had been allowed to vacate the property by April 30, 2025, and pay R.S. 25 lakhs in three installments towards arrears, based on an oral undertaking. Failure to comply with the terms of the settlement, including non-filing of the required affidavit and non-payment, led to the revival of the appeal and its subsequent dismissal. Costs of R.S. 50,000 were awarded to the respondent, confirming the absence of any infirmity in the original judgment.

RAKESH CHOPRA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16645/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The rejection of the petitioner's request for deputation to the Executive Director position was deemed unjustified because ongoing departmental inquiries should not have affected the application. However, the specific vacancy for which the petitioner was selected was no longer available. Authorities were directed to consider granting age relaxation for the petitioner’s deputation application until 31.12.2024, given the unique circumstances of the case.

RAVI KUMAR & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7674/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The seniority list of Inspectors dated 15.03.2018 was not final when the Supreme Court's decision in K. Meghachandra Singh v. Ningam Siro was made. The Central Administrative Tribunal's order to redraw the seniority list according to principles from that decision was upheld. The argument for determining seniority based on Union of India v. N.R. Parmar and Office Memorandums from the DoPT was rejected. Multiple connected petitions were part of the case.

RITIKA GULATI VS CHASER FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT. LTD. [RFA(COMM)-463/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The defendant failed to prove that the Rs. 20 lakhs received from the plaintiff was for the sale of gold instead of a loan. Evidence included the defendant's admission of receipt and entries in the plaintiff's books, supporting the loan transaction. The absence of a formal loan agreement or compliance with RBI guidelines did not invalidate the loan. The appeal was dismissed.

SACHIN VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-10076/2016]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

Sachin's writ petition was allowed, and the previous rejection by the Central Administrative Tribunal was set aside. The Tribunal's reliance on an unsubstantiated expert opinion and an inconclusive FSL report was criticized. Sachin was granted the benefit of doubt, ordered to be appointed to the selected post with seniority from the date of appointment of similarly placed individuals, but without back wages. The respondents were given four weeks to implement the decision, after which Sachin would be entitled to receive wages from the date of judgment if not executed.

SANJAY SINGH YADAV VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-391/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The letters patent appeal by Sanjay Singh Yadav was dismissed due to his lack of seriousness in joining the Airport Authority of India. He did not join within a week as required and delayed joining despite a position being kept vacant for him. The findings indicated that he could not benefit from his status as a departmental candidate given his failure to join the service at the appropriate time.

SANJEEV SEHGAL & ANR. VS PURNIMA BHATIA & ORS. [RFA(COMM)-363/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The trial court's dismissal of the appellants' suit for possession of property, rent arrears, and mesne profits was set aside. The matter was remanded to the trial court to adjudicate claims for rent arrears and mesne profits against the respondent tenants. The suit for possession was deemed not maintainable due to ongoing SARFAESI Act proceedings, but the appellants were allowed to pursue their remaining claims following changes in factual circumstances regarding property possession.

SARPAL SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-6366/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondent initiated departmental proceedings against the petitioner in 2008 through a charge memo. However, a delay of 16 years in concluding the inquiry, along with the petitioner's age of 74 years and partial visual impairment, would lead to significant hardship for the petitioner. The Supreme Court's guideline to complete inquiries within a year was taken into account. The charge memo and the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal were set aside, but the suspension order from 2008 was upheld, with the petitioner's suspension period counted towards total service for terminal benefits.

SATYAVEER SINGH VS DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION & ORS [W.P.(C)-1345/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The termination of the petitioner's employment with the Delhi Transport Corporation (DTC) was set aside due to failure to consider relevant circumstances regarding a criminal case, including benefits under the Probation of Offenders Act and principles from previous judgments on employee termination for information concealment. The disciplinary authority must reassess the petitioner's case following established guidelines, with a new decision required within 8 weeks, and the petitioner retains the option to challenge the outcome if not reinstated.

SHUBHAM PAL & ORS. VS STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ANR. [LPA-202/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal challenging the answer key for the Combined Graduate Level Examination 2023 was dismissed. There was no clear error or exceptional circumstance to warrant interference with the evaluation conducted by the Staff Selection Commission. The appellants could not conclusively prove that the answers provided by the SSC were incorrect, leading to the rejection of their request for revaluation.

SUBHASH CHANDER BAJAJ (SINCE DECEASED) THR LRS & ORS VS INDERJIT BAJAJ (SINCE DECEASED) THR LRS & ORS [FAO(OS)-23/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Memorandum of Family Settlement (MFS) dated 30.07.1997 is a valid and enforceable document that does not require compulsory registration under the Registration Act. It serves as a record of prior oral settlements and partitions made among the parties, reflecting their late father's wishes and related legal instruments. The MFS resulted from ongoing discussions after the father's demise and does not create new rights or interests. All parties are bound by its terms, and the appellant cannot challenge its validity after relying on it for property mutation and executing a sale deed.

SURENDER KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12284/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The petitioner, a casual daily wager, is entitled to wages from October 1, 2005, to May 13, 2012, due to unjustified termination orders that prevented him from working during this period.

THE STATESMAN LTD VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-779/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeals by The Statesman Ltd. challenging orders to pay revised wages according to the Majithia Wage Board Award were dismissed. The appellant did not demonstrate suffering "heavy cash losses" that would exempt it from paying the revised wages. The Competent Authority retained the jurisdiction to issue the recovery certificate. The arguments presented lacked merit, leading to the upholding of the orders from the Competent Authority and dismissal of the writ and review petitions.

U.V. UTTAMCHANDANI VS UOI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2792/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondents improperly reduced the petitioner's service duration for calculating retirement benefits from 13 years 8 months to 9 years 7 months and 8 days without clear justification. The accurate calculation, after excluding 175 days of extraordinary leave, is 13 years 2 months and 15 days. The order to reduce the benefits was set aside, and the petitioner is entitled to the higher amount based on the correct service duration, plus 6% interest from July 1998.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SMT REKHA VISHNOI [W.P.(C)-13310/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal to set aside the Departmental Promotion Committee's minutes that downgraded the respondent's Annual Confidential Reports from 'very good' to 'good' for promotion to Chief Commissioner of Income Tax for the 2011-12 vacancy year was upheld. The finding noted that the DPC failed to provide reasons for the downgrade, which is necessary as the DPC cannot arbitrarily change gradings set by the competent authority. A review DPC must be conducted to reconsider the respondent's promotion case for the specified vacancy year.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR VS BALWANT SINGH [W.P.(C)-6113/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondent, a retired employee of the Indian Council of World Affairs, was not entitled to leave encashment benefits under the Council's 2014 service regulations. Regulation 28(2) explicitly barred such benefits for former employees who retired before the regulations were issued. The lower tribunal misinterpreted the Indian Council of World Affairs Act, 2001, and its decision conflicted with prior rulings on similar claims from other retired employees. The lower tribunal's order was set aside, and the respondent's original application was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS CAPT MUNISH CHAUDHARY [LPA-705/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The appeal by the Union of India and others was dismissed due to failure to show "sufficient cause" for a 189-day delay in filing, as required under Section 5 of the Limitation Act. Relevant Supreme Court precedents were cited regarding the interpretation of "sufficient cause" and the necessity of adhering to limitation laws. The decision was unanimous, with no disagreement or referral to a larger bench.

UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. VS GABBAR SINGH MEENA [W.P.(C)-6776/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition by the Union of India challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's order was dismissed. Gabbar Singh Meena was deemed entitled to an offer of appointment despite not filling in the date and place in his application, as the defect was curable. He successfully passed the written exam and psycho aptitude test, and an appointment letter had already been issued, directing him to undergo training. The cases cited by the petitioners were distinguishable, with defects identified earlier in those instances. The CAT's order was upheld, but seniority and consequential benefits were denied to Meena.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING & ANR. VS NINA LATH GUPTA [LPA-642/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The termination order dated 24.04.2018 against the respondent was deemed stigmatic, despite the removal of earlier allegations, due to its reference to a prior writ petition. In cases of tenure appointments, if a termination order is based on allegations, it qualifies as stigmatic, necessitating an opportunity for the employee to defend against the accusations. Since the respondent's tenure had expired when the petition was resolved, the appellants were directed to pay the respondent's salary and allowances for the remaining tenure, rather than reinstating her.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY MINISTRY OF DEFENCE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES & ANR. VS HARI RAJ SANGWAN & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5808/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld, stating that the clarification issued on 14.09.2018 to the 2006 Transfer Policy should apply retrospectively. The revocation of the orders from 03.01.2019 and 17.10.2019, which upgraded the respondents from Semi-Skilled Grade to Skilled Grade, was deemed unjustified as it aligned with the 14.09.2018 clarification.

UNION OF INDIA VS BESCO LIMITED (WAGON DIVISON) [FAO(OS) (COMM)-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The Union of India (UoI) sought to condone a 112-day delay in filing an appeal against an order rejecting its application to challenge an Arbitral Award. The reasons for the delay were considered vague, with a 24-day personal matter mentioned. The UoI was deemed to have acted negligently, resulting in insufficient cause for the delay. Consequently, the application for condonation was dismissed, along with the appeal.

UNION OF INDIA VS RAJ SINGH [W.P.(C)-5898/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondent's actions regarding the shifting of registered offices of the Carnoustie Group companies were characterized as quasi-judicial functions, requiring the application of a detailed procedure and objective criteria. There were no allegations of financial impropriety, extraneous influence, or recklessness against the respondent, making the initiation of disciplinary proceedings for errors in his quasi-judicial orders inappropriate. The respondent's actions assisted in uncovering fraud within the Carnoustie Group, implying that the disciplinary actions stemmed from personal grievances of another official. The charge memorandum against the respondent was quashed, and he was to receive all consequential benefits.

AJAY KISHOR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1799/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Ajay Kishor, acquitted of criminal charges that hindered his promotion, is entitled to notional seniority and pay fixation as Sub-Inspector (CM) effective from January 29, 2016. MUKESH TATERWAY VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3931/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Anil Kumar Yadav and Mukesh Taterway's requests for relaxation in the mandatory 2 years of field service (MFS) requirement for Non-Functional Financial Upgradation (NFFU) were supported on the basis that their postings to the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) were in the public interest. They should not be penalized for not completing the MFS before the cut-off date. The case is to be reconsidered for granting relaxation in the MFS requirement and awarding NFFU benefits from the due date, along with all consequential arrears.

ARUN KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8027/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Director General's displeasure towards the petitioner was deemed valid, as the explanation for lengthy conversations with a female constable was unsatisfactory. A Department of Personnel & Training Memorandum indicated that such displeasure does not constitute a penalty and cannot affect promotion eligibility. With the petitioner's Annual Performance Assessment Report rated 'very good,' the displeasure was considered irrelevant. The petitioner is to have their promotion to Deputy Commandant reconsidered from the date their batchmates were promoted, with notional seniority and pay fixation granted, but without any arrears.

ASST. COMDT. (IRLA NO. 9910) ASHISH KUMAR DUBEY VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11560/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, an Assistant Commandant in the CRPF, is entitled to retrospective seniority and promotion from 13.01.2012, along with consequential benefits. The denial of promotion was based solely on the timing of course completion, despite the petitioner meeting all eligibility criteria, including completion of the mandatory promotional course. The relevant standing order did not link promotion to the batch in which the course was completed. Seniority and promotion will be granted from 13.01.2012, with notional pay fixation and arrears limited to three years prior to the writ petition due to delay.

ASSTT COMDT MRITUNJAY KUMAR AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7113/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners, Assistant Commandants in the CRPF, received notional seniority equivalent to their batchmates who were appointed and promoted earlier. Consequently, their basic pay must be re-fixed to match that of their batchmates, as denying equal pay to petitioners who hold the same seniority would violate Fundamental Rule 22. They are entitled to re-fixed basic pay at the rank of Assistant Commandant(GD) along with all consequential benefits, including arrears from their actual joining date.

CHANDRA BHUSHAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9744/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's Annual Performance Assessment Reports (APARs) for the periods from 31.10.2019 to 31.03.2020 and 01.04.2020 to 10.09.2020 were quashed due to adverse remarks based on an advisory outside the assessment period and inconsistencies in the Reporting Officer's comments. The endorsements by the Reporting Officer, Reviewing Officer, and Accepting Authority were deemed casual and insufficient in considering the purpose of APARs.

COMDT. ANAND SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11336/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The assessment of the Accepting Officer in the petitioner's Annual Performance Assessment Report (APAR) for 2016-17 violated established procedures by endorsing the grading before receiving the Reviewing Officer's remarks. This resulted in prejudice to the petitioner, as the Accepting Officer lacked the Reviewing Officer's 'Very Good' grading at the time of assessment. Additionally, the Reviewing Officer's own assessment was improper, as it should have followed their grading process. Consequently, both assessments were deemed unsustainable, leading to the entire APAR for 2016-17 being set aside and the petitioner being entitled to all consequential benefits, including promotion considerations, while disregarding the impugned APAR.

COMMANDANT JAWAHAR SINGH NEGI VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9329/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Respondents cannot recover amounts from the petitioner's salary based on findings of the SCoI before the conclusion of disciplinary proceedings. The BSF (Deductions from Pay and Allowances) Rules, 1978 do not permit such recoveries until the petitioner's misconduct is conclusively determined. An order directing recovery of Rs. 7,97,804/- from the petitioner's salary was quashed, allowing for a potential fresh recovery order only after the disciplinary proceedings are completed.

DEEPAK CHATURVEDI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1216/2021]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The withdrawal of the Non-Functional Financial Upgradation (NFFU) benefit from the Chief Law Officer (IG) in the Border Security Force was deemed invalid. Despite a delay of over 9 years in notifying the Recruitment Rules for the position, the petitioner met the eligibility criteria outlined in the draft rules, which were later notified unchanged. The petitioner was not penalized for the delay, leading to the reinstatement of the NFFU benefit and the directive to release the arrears owed.

DHANANJAY YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9318/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The penalty of removal from service for two constables was deemed disproportionate and discriminatory compared to lesser punishments given to senior officers present during the incident. The principles of equality and parity in punishment among co-delinquents were acknowledged. The removal orders were set aside, and the matter was remanded to the disciplinary authority for reconsideration of the penalty within 12 weeks, considering the long and unblemished service of the petitioners. Reinstatement will not occur until new orders are issued, but the petitioners may pursue further legal options if dissatisfied with the outcome.

EX CHAA MOHAMMED ZULKARNAIN, 550032-Z VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12837/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision to dismiss the petitioner's application for revocation of his unwillingness to serve on INS Vikramaditya and for re-engagement or service pension was upheld. The rejection was based on the petitioner's prior undertaking acknowledging that refusal of deputation would impact re-engagement eligibility. Additionally, the application was deemed barred by delay, as it was submitted approximately three years after the petitioner's discharge from service.

EX CONS. DAMODAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9233/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The rejection of the petitioner's claim for pensionary benefits was upheld. The petitioner, an ex-constable of the BSF, had voluntarily resigned after 11 years of service, failing to meet the 20-year requirement under the CCS (Pension) Rules. Although the petitioner was initially sanctioned pension in 1997 based on a now-invalid circular allowing pension after 10 years of service, he did not qualify for continued pension as he was not receiving any at the time of his discharge in 1982. The decision to discontinue the pension was deemed valid, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

EX SGT LAXMI NARAYAN PANDEY RETD VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-16684/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The decision of the Armed Forces Tribunal to dismiss the petition for disability pension was upheld. Medical opinions consistently indicated that the petitioner's Schizophrenia was not related to military service and was constitutional in nature. Established principles highlight that medical expert opinions are paramount, and the mere occurrence of a disease during service does not imply service attribution. The petitioner had not previously challenged the Release Medical Board's findings. The Tribunal's order was deemed without infirmity, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

EX-HC D.K.DWIVEDI VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15515/2006]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The proceedings of the SSFC regarding the dismissal of BSF personnel were invalid due to non-compliance with procedural requirements under Rule 142 of the BSF Rules. The plea of guilty was improperly recorded, lacking an explanation of its nature and consequences, and not obtaining the petitioner's signature. The order of dismissal was set aside, and the petitioner is entitled to 50% of the back wages from the dismissal date until superannuation, followed by full pension according to the Rules.

FEDERATION OF TATA COMMUNICATIONS EMPLOYEES UNION VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-11069/2017]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition by the Federation of Tata Communications Employees Union was dismissed, affirming the notification that removed paragraphs 12-A and 13 of the Employees Pension Scheme, 1995. Employees still in service lack a vested right to claim benefits related to commutation of pension or return of capital with reduced pension, as these were policy decisions for managing the pension fund. Deleting these clauses does not affect the rights of employees who already utilized these options.

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Government of NCT of Delhi adopted the Assured Career Progression (ACP) scheme from the Central Government, making it subject to the clarificatory Office Memorandum (OM) dated 01.11.2002. The argument that this OM did not apply to NCT employees was rejected, establishing that once the ACP scheme was fully adopted, the government could not selectively apply clarifications or modifications.

The height relaxation granted when the candidate joined the ITBP was deemed applicable to the selection process for LDCE. The candidate is to be allowed to participate in the selection process with the necessary height relaxation, provided he meets other selection criteria.

INSPR (MIN) VIJAY KUMAR SHARMA AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3722/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners, appointed as Assistant Sub-Inspectors (Clerks) in the Border Security Force (BSF), experienced a delay of 25 years in seeking redress for their pay disparity compared to juniors appointed through the Limited Departmental Competitive Examination (LDCE). Despite this delay, it was determined that this would not prevent the relief sought, as it did not impact third parties. The petitioners were to receive their pay re-fixed to match their juniors' from the date of joining service, with arrears limited to three years prior to filing the writ petition.

ISHA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3732/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Refusal to postpone the Physical Efficiency Test (PET) and Physical Measurement Test (PMT) for a petitioner in advanced pregnancy violated fundamental rights under Articles 14, 15, 16, and 21 of the Constitution. Pregnancy was not treated as a disability or disqualification, and the discriminatory approach breached principles of gender equality. The petitioner, having secured higher marks than the cutoff in the Computer Based Test, is entitled to appear for the PET, PMT, and document verification, with successful candidates receiving appointment as Constables with retrospective seniority and benefits.

JAGMOHAN CHAUDHARY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3952/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The proceedings of the Summary Security Force Court (SSFC) that dismissed the petitioner from the Border Security Force (BSF) were quashed due to improper procedures. The SSFC failed to obtain the petitioner's signature on the plea of guilty and did not explain the consequences of pleading guilty. Despite these findings, the petitioner's long absence from service and alleged mental illness led to a decision to treat him as having been in service until the date of compulsory retirement, with 50% back wages awarded.

JAWAHAR LAL DEKA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8340/2021]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A superannuated Sub-Inspector of the Border Security Force received an order for recovery of Rs. 11,94,860/- due to benefits received under the ACP scheme for 18 years without misrepresentation. The recovery was deemed to cause grave hardship, especially as the petitioner was nearing retirement. It was established that recovery is not permissible when excess payments have been received for more than 5 years. However, the petitioner's pay and pension may be re-fixed according to law.

KALICHARAN VS UNON OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6168/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by Kalicharan, a Sub-Inspector in the CRPF, was dismissed. His claim for a confirmation date as Constable of 01/04/1988 instead of 10/04/1988 was rejected due to delay, impacting settled seniority among his batchmates. The decision to promote him to Assistant Sub-Inspector rather than directly to Sub-Inspector was upheld, as the ASI position was introduced after the SI promotion list was created and only limited SI vacancies existed. Additionally, the claim for a third financial upgradation under the MACP was denied since he had already received promotions within the 30-year eligibility period for this upgrade.

KALYAN SINGH VS CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-473/2021]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) correctly denied the petitioner the benefit of Senior Time Scale from 13.01.2016 due to his low medical category (Shape-III), which disqualified him for the Standing Order's relaxation. The petitioner is entitled to the Senior Time Scale on a notional basis from 13.01.2016, aligning with his batchmates' timeline, but he will not receive arrears for the period between 13.01.2016 and 24.01.2017, when he was granted the benefit after being declared medically fit.

KAMLESH SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8945/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The transfer policy for CISF personnel in the circular dated 25.09.2017 provides non-mandatory guidelines for posting in both home and out-of-home sectors. The CISF administration retains discretion to assign personnel based on operational and administrative needs. The petitioner was ranked lower for a home sector posting after assessing his out-of-home tenure. A request for home sector posting due to the father's medical condition was denied due to lack of supporting medical documentation. The writ petition was dismissed as the challenge to the transfer order lacked merit.

KEWAL KRISHAN VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANOTHER [W.P.(C)-3608/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's challenge to his seniority as a Head Constable (Clerk), made 24 years after its fixation, is barred by delay and laches. Although earlier directives aimed to determine seniority based on merit, allowing this late request would disrupt the established seniority of several other employees. The writ petition was dismissed, maintaining the long-standing seniority position.

KRISHNA KUMAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9080/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The adverse remarks in the petitioner's Annual Performance Assessment Report (APAR) were expunged due to the disagreement from the Reviewing Officer and Accepting Officer, who upgraded the petitioner's grading to 'Very Good'. The assessment by the senior-most officer took precedence, making the Reporting Officer's negative remarks invalid. The petitioner is to be reconsidered for the grant of Non-Functional Selection Grade along with the associated benefits.

KRISHNA PADA BISWAS VS THE UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10677/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition by the former BSF constable for pension or reinstatement in service was dismissed. The petitioner was ineligible for pension due to not completing the required 20 years of service before resignation. The request for reinstatement was denied as the petitioner failed to respond to call-up notices and delayed approaching the court for 27 years, resulting in a loss of entitlement to reinstatement due to his own delay.

LALIT VS CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8133/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, an Assistant Commandant in the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF), is entitled to the notional benefit of Senior Time Scale from 12.01.2016, the date his batchmates received it. Despite being in a low medical category (SHAPE-III) due to injuries sustained in duty, Clause 4.13 of the CRPF's Standing Order allows for retrospective seniority upon regaining medical fitness. The respondents are directed to grant the notional pay scale from the stated date, but no backwages will be provided for the period until actual benefits were granted on 25.03.2017.

LBN VS VJK [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-90/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The appellant/husband's application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure for directions for the respondent/wife to shift to alternate accommodation was deemed maintainable. The previous dismissal of the application by the Family Court was set aside due to the lack of a specific statutory provision for relief and the urgency of the situation, which necessitated action before the wife's pending application under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act. The Family Court was directed to reconsider the appellant's application within 4 weeks, without an opinion on the merits of the claim.

LOKESH RANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-5542/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The review petition by Lokesh Rani for a compassionate appointment following her husband's death was dismissed. The petitioner was appropriately assessed under the MTS cadre, where she scored 88 points, lower than the last selected candidate who scored 100 points. Seeking parity with candidates from other cadres was not justifiable. The decision emphasized that compassionate appointments are intended for immediate financial crises at the time of a breadwinner's death, not as a right to be claimed after a considerable delay.

MAJ GEN VINAYAK SAINI SM VSM VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7181/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A Major General in the Indian Army was wrongfully denied special review consideration for promotion to Lt. General after the central government expunged a downgrade in his confidential report. The refusal to grant review considering the Special Selection Board (SSB) held on 09.02.2023 was deemed arbitrary and illegal. The case will be reconsidered for promotion based on the SSB's criteria, and if recommended, the Major General will be promoted with retrospective seniority and notional pay fixation, excluding any arrears. No directive was issued regarding the promotions of other officers resulting from the SSB.

MANMEET POKHRIYAL VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1559/2021]

The matter was remanded for the issuance of a fresh disagreement note while leaving the merits of the charges unexamined for future proceedings if necessary. The petitioner was directed to be reinstated immediately, with benefits for the intervening period to be determined according to applicable rules.

MANOJ DHYANI VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-13646/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Annual Performance Appraisal Report (APAR) for the petitioner, a Deputy Inspector General in the Central Reserve Police Force, for the period 2020-2021 was found to be biased and motivated by malafide intent from the Reporting Officer. The petitioner maintained a record of "Outstanding"/"Very Good" APARs until being downgraded to "Good" without prior warnings during the impugned period, suggesting bias in performance assessment. Further, the integrity of the petitioner was later certified as "Beyond Doubt," and an adverse note from the Reporting Officer was removed, highlighting potential bias. The impugned APAR was quashed, and the respondents were directed to re-consider the petitioner's promotion case while disregarding the contested APAR.

MRITUNJAY KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8908/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's APAR for the period from 01.04.2018 to 29.10.2018 was quashed due to the Reporting Officer's lack of objectivity and reasonable likelihood of bias. Positive remarks in Part 3 conflicted with negative comments and a downgraded rating in Parts 4 and 5. The petitioner had consistently high performance ratings in previous APARs and had made prior complaints regarding the Reporting Officer's vindictive behavior. The Reviewing Officer and Accepting Authority did not adequately scrutinize the APAR or address bias issues. The quashing of the APAR prohibits reliance on it for future assessments of the petitioner.

MUNIT DINKER @ MUNNA RAM VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-3549/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, an Inspector in the Indo-Tibetan Border Police, received authorization for a pay revision based on the 6th Central Pay Commission, effective from 16.01.2006, when he was promoted to Sub-Inspector. The rejection of his request due to his failure to submit the required option form on time was deemed unjustified, as the respondents failed to inform him of this requirement despite being aware of his pay revision request through multiple representations. The delay in submitting the form was not considered detrimental to his claim for pay revision.

MURTI DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10744/2017]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The death of a CRPF Head Constable due to cerebral malaria and acute viral hepatitis was linked to his service conditions in a malaria-prone area. Findings from a Court of Inquiry and medical evidence established a causal connection between the death and the officer's service. Extraordinary family pension and ex-gratia compensation were directed to be sanctioned to the widow, as the respondents did not prove that the death was not service-related.

NAIMISH KUMAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4306/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, a Deputy Commandant in the CISF, is entitled to notional seniority from 07.10.2016, the date his batch mates were promoted. Delay in his pre-promotional course was attributable to the respondents, so he should not be penalized. He is to receive notional pay fixation and seniority from that date, with promotion to Commandant considered after a review DPC.

NEERAJ KUMAR PANDEY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15719/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) improperly kept the petitioner's name in a sealed cover based solely on an FIR against him, contrary to DoPT guidelines. The applicable clause regarding pending prosecution requires the filing of a chargesheet, which had not occurred prior to the DPC meeting. As a result, the sealed cover must be opened, and the petitioner should be promoted to the post of DIG if found suitable, with all benefits effective from the date his batchmates were promoted.

OM PAL SINGH VS STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION & ANR [W.P.(C)-11679/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents' declaration of the petitioner as medically unfit for appointment in the Central Armed Police Force due to LASIK eye surgery was valid, as medical guidelines from the Ministry of Home Affairs prohibit visual correction procedures. Although LASIK is commonly performed, the established standards for medical fitness in the CAPF are to be respected. It was suggested that the guidelines be reconsidered with input from ophthalmologists, reflecting advancements in LASIK technology.

PALYAM DELHI PRASAD VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2202/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition challenging the dismissal of a Constable/GD in the Border Security Force was dismissed. The dismissal was justified due to the petitioner overstaying leave for over 8 months without valid reasons and indicating a desire to resign from service. The argument that the penalty was disproportionate lacked merit, as the petitioner showed a lack of commitment to employment and failed to maintain discipline expected in an armed force. Sympathy was not warranted based solely on the petitioner's youth and family circumstances.

PARAS ARORA VS M/S AGGARWAL ASSOCIATES [RERA APPEAL-4/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The appellant's complaint under the Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA) was deemed not maintainable as the project in question had been completed and received a Completion Certificate from the DDA prior to the enforcement of RERA. The argument that the appellant had the right to withdraw a prior complaint and initiate a new one under RERA was rejected, as the relevant proviso does not allow for complaints on projects completed before the Act's implementation. The appeal was dismissed with costs imposed on the appellant.

PAVAN SINGH RAWAT VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9955/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's Annual Performance Appraisal Reports (APARs) for 2017-2018, 2018-2019, and 2019-2020 were quashed due to a downgrade from 'Very Good' to 'Good' based on his status as a paraplegic using a wheelchair. This action was deemed contrary to the duty to encourage persons with disabilities as per the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016. The case will be considered for the grant of the Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) scheme based on prior performance, reflecting the petitioner's sincere work despite his 100% disability. The ruling emphasizes the unique facts of this case and does not set a precedent.

PAWAN KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15759/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A Deputy Commandant in the Border Security Force is entitled to Non-Functional Financial Upgradation (NFFU) in the JAG level from April 1, 2017. The denial of NFFU based on the failure to complete the mandatory 2-year field service (MFS) requirement is invalid, as the petitioner was assigned to static positions in the Law Branch for public interest. A relaxation of the MFS requirement was granted by the DG, BSF, but rejected by the Union of India, which is deemed arbitrary. The case for NFFU should be reconsidered with the relaxation in mind, and if eligible, the petitioner is entitled to arrears and interest.

PRADEEP KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6487/2021]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, promoted to Assistant Commandant on 23.10.2009 but unable to join until 13.01.2010 due to delays caused by the respondents, is entitled to the annual increment given to batchmates on 01.07.2010. The respondents are required to re-fix the petitioner's pay to include this increment and all associated benefits. However, no arrears for differential salary will be granted for the period between 23.10.2009 and 13.01.2010, as the petitioner did not fulfill the responsibilities of the promotional role during that time.

PRADUMAN KUMAR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8975/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

CISF transfer policy guidelines are not mandatory, allowing the competent authority to post personnel based on operational and administrative needs, even if it departs from specified tenure requirements. The merit-based formula was applied fairly, with the petitioner ranked lower for a "home sector" posting, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition against the transfer from West Bengal to Chandigarh.

RAJNEESH VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-3294/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Orders of dismissal against a Border Security Force Constable by the Summary Security Force Court were quashed due to procedural irregularities. A de novo trial was permitted within three months, and mandatory training for officers conducting SSFC proceedings was mandated to ensure adherence to proper procedures.

RAJNISH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10749/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The downgrading of the petitioner's performance appraisal report by the Accepting Officer and the rejection of the petitioner's representation were deemed impermissible due to the conflict of interest. The order rejecting the representation was set aside, and the petitioner was directed to file a new representation to be decided by an independent authority, with requirements for a reasoned decision. If the representation is accepted, all consequential benefits must be granted to the petitioner. No opinion was expressed on the allegations of mala fide against the Accepting Officer at this time.

RAKESH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5538/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, granted notional seniority as an Assistant Sub-Inspector from the same date as other candidates, should have been promoted to Sub-Inspector along with junior officers on 11.09.2018. The argument regarding the need for 6 years of actual service for promotion was rejected, as it contradicted the earlier order on notional seniority. The petitioner is entitled to notional promotion as Sub-Inspector (Exe.) effective 11.09.2018, without arrears of pay.

RAM KARAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-598/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A writ petition by a CISF constable challenging punishments for making false complaints against superior officers and contacting the police without following internal channels was dismissed. The actions were deemed detrimental to the discipline and image of the CISF, and the imposed penalties were not considered disproportionate. Bypassing hierarchy to lodge complaints against superior officers was recognized as a cause for gross indiscipline within the force.

RAM NIWAS VS PRINICIPAL CHIEF SECURITY COMMISSIONER AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12649/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The modified penalty of a three-stage reduction in pay scale for three years is effective from the original dismissal order date of 16.06.2008, not from the modified penalty order date of 09.11.2018. The petitioner is entitled to notional pay fixation effective from 16.06.2011, with arrears payable from 18.11.2018 when reinstated.

RAVI BALINA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2317/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The grading of '6' awarded to the petitioner in the APAR for the period 01.04.2010 to 13.11.2010 is classified as 'very good', contrary to the respondents' claim of 'good'. The adverse remarks in the APAR are inconsistent with this grading, raising doubts about its validity. The APAR is set aside, and the respondents are directed to reconsider the petitioner's case for NFFU from 01.04.2015, disregarding the impugned APAR and focusing on prior APARs.

SACHIN KUMAR VS CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE THROUGH UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5806/2012]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, selected under the sports quota for the role of Constable (GD) in the CRPF, was denied appointment due to failure to meet physical eligibility criteria. Selection did not confer an absolute right to appointment as the Ministry of Home Affairs did not grant required relaxations. The decision to deny relaxation was justified and not made in bad faith. The writ petition was dismissed, but the petitioner was allowed to apply for future recruitment and seek age relaxation for the period the petition was pending.

SACHIN MEENA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-6769/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Sachin Meena's writ petition was allowed, enabling him to be examined by a new three-member medical board after being declared medically unfit by two previous boards. The opinion from a specialist at AIIMS stating he is fit was acknowledged, suggesting potential errors in the prior assessments. The argument of delay presented by the respondents was rejected, as it was not the petitioner's fault. If the new board finds Meena medically fit, he will be appointed as Navik(GD) in the Indian Coast Guard in the next available vacancy, without retrospective seniority or benefits.

SARTAJ SINGH CHAHAL VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4476/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A CISF constable's writ petition challenging an APAR grading of 'good' for 2016 and requesting an upgrade to 'very good' was dismissed. The constable's previous grading was 'average', and the upgrade to 'good' was noted. SAT PAL AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5987/2017]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

Senior Railway Protection Force personnel promoted through the Limited Departmental Competitive Examination to Head Constable and Assistant Sub-Inspector ranks were denied financial upgradations under the Assured Career Progression scheme, while their juniors received such benefits. This denial was deemed arbitrary and discriminatory. The respondents were directed to upgrade the pay scale of the petitioners from the date their juniors were granted the higher pay.

SATISH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-4703/2015]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A Sub-Inspector with the CISF, dismissed for allegedly manhandling a superior officer, was reinstated due to a lack of credible evidence supporting the charge. The petitioner was ordered to be reinstated with all consequential benefits and 75% back wages.

SHAKTI SINGH THAKUR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2575/2021]

The assessment was based on an inspection conducted outside the reporting period. The performance appraisal was set aside, and the petitioner's claim for Non-Functional Selection Grade was to be reconsidered, disregarding the impugned appraisal.

SHANKAR LAL JAT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9076/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's seniority in the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) must be fixed with the 44th Batch based on Rule 8(b)(ii), which determines seniority by aggregate marks from the selection process and training. The petitioner was placed in the 45th Batch due to an injury incurred during authorized training, not due to any fault of his own. Orders downgrading his seniority were set aside, and he is to be granted notional pay fixation in line with his original batchmates. It was established that Standing Order No. 01/2009 cannot override the seniority rules in the CRPF Rules.

SHYAMVIR SINGH TYAGI VS U.O.I & ORS [W.P.(C)-555/2008]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The departmental inquiry that led to the removal of the petitioner from service as a Head Constable in the CRPF was deemed invalid due to the denial of a defense assistant, despite requests. This denial violated principles of natural justice. As a result of the lengthy time since the removal, the penalty was modified to compulsory retirement with all pensionary benefits, rather than conducting a new inquiry.

SIKANDAR KUMAR VERMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3577/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The dismissal order against Sikandar Kumar Verma was set aside due to violations of natural justice in the departmental inquiry, specifically the improper service of the charge memorandum, show cause notice, and inquiry report while he was in custody. A fresh departmental inquiry must be conducted following due process. Verma is to be reinstated and receive salary from the date of reinstatement, although he can be suspended during the new inquiry with only suspension allowance provided. No opinion on the merits of the alleged misconduct was expressed.

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's husband, a Head Constable in the Border Security Force, died from a heart attack while on duty, classified as an "accidental death in the course of performance of duties." As a result, the petitioner is entitled to an ex-gratia compensation of R.S. 25 lakhs under the relevant Office Memorandum. The argument that a heart attack cannot be considered an "accident" was rejected, leading to the requirement for the respondents to pay the compensation within 8 weeks, with interest at 9% per annum if not timely paid.

SONU RAJPUT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-10641/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A young mother, declared medically unfit for the Constable (Washer Man) position in the Sashastra Seema Bal due to a BMI over 25, was recognized to need reasonable time to regain fitness after giving birth four months prior. A direction was issued for a fresh medical examination, stipulating that if her BMI is below 25, she would be appointed with retrospective seniority. Additionally, the sufficiency of the six-week fitness recovery guideline post-pregnancy was to be evaluated, as it may be inadequate.

SUDHIR KUMAR AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3376/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents, the Union of India and others, must conduct a periodic cadre review of the paramedical cadre in the Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) every five years as mandated by the DoPT OM dated 23.11.1987. The argument that the CISF is not comparable to other Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs) does not exempt the respondents from this obligation. A holistic cadre review of the CISF's paramedical cadre is to be completed within nine months.

SUSHIL KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-690/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The denial of NFU based on the petitioner receiving the grade pay through the Assured Career Progression (ACP) scheme is not permissible. The respondents must extend the NFU benefit within 8 weeks and release the arrears within 4 weeks thereafter.

TEK CHAND AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9286/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The writ petition filed by Assistant Commandants in the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) for seniority from the date of their local rank was dismissed. Under CRPF Rule 76B, officers with a local rank cannot claim seniority over others. The petitioners were denied retrospective seniority over officers appointed through direct recruitment or Limited Departmental Competitive Examination while holding local rank. Reasons included the delay in raising the issue, acceptance of regular promotion, and the risk of disrupting the seniority of other Assistant Commandants.

TILAK RAJ VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6166/2020]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

A CRPF sub-inspector's writ petition for 2nd upgradation under the Assured Career Progression (ACP) scheme was dismissed. The petitioner was deemed ineligible due to refusal to undergo mandatory pre-promotional training on two occasions. This refusal was not challenged. The case differed from a previous one where the petitioner had not been detailed for training. The decision to deny the 2nd upgradation was upheld despite the petitioner having 24 years of service.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS NK TS GD KRISHNAN PC [W.P.(C)-10861/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Shalinder Kaur

The provisions for condonation of shortfall in qualifying service under the Pension Regulations for the Army (PRA) apply to personnel in the Defence Security Corps (DSC), as the DSC regulations do not explicitly bar such condonation. The argument that individuals who received a service pension from the Indian Army are not entitled to a second pension for their service in the DSC is invalid, as separate pensions for Army and DSC service are provided for in the regulations. The case differs from the pending Balakrishnan Mullikote matter, which involved a shortfall of over 12 months, while the current shortfall is less than 12 months. Previous decisions permitting condonation of shortfall in DSC service support the outcome.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. VS DUSHYANT KUMAR [W.P.(C)-2407/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The order dismissing an Assistant Sub-Inspector in the Delhi Police was set aside due to the lack of a regular departmental inquiry. Authorities did not provide valid reasons to bypass the inquiry process as required by regulations and Supreme Court precedents, establishing that a registered criminal case alone is insufficient to negate the principles of natural justice. Authorities may initiate fresh disciplinary proceedings in accordance with the law.

GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR VS ASHA GUPTA [W.P.(C)-1066/2017]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The order allowing Asha Gupta to withdraw her voluntary retirement application, submitted after the intended retirement date of 31.08.2014, was set aside. Clear rules state that requests for withdrawal of voluntary retirement cannot be accepted post the intended date. The consideration of gender bias and a one-day delay in filing the withdrawal application were deemed insufficient to override established procedures.

GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. VS JAGBIR SINGH [W.P.(C)-10006/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The decision of the Central Administrative Tribunal, which set aside the extension of the respondent's suspension beyond 90 days without a chargesheet, was upheld. The delay in obtaining advice from the Central Vigilance Commission was attributed to the petitioners and did not constitute exceptional circumstances. Suspension should not exceed three months without a chargesheet. The respondent, having already retired, would only be entitled to additional payment as a result of this ruling.

HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT CORPN. LTD. VS VARSHA PUNHANI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11902/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) incorrectly quashed the promotion criteria and promotions based solely on a prior Supreme Court decision. It overlooked subsequent rulings clarifying that there is no fixed rule for the weightage of interviews in promotions, especially for mature candidates. The matter has been remanded to the CAT to consider all grounds presented against the selection process, with six months provided for a decision.

RAJENDER PRASAD AND ORS. VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL [W.P.(C)-4863/2019]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The 5% quota for Enquiry Attendants and Road Inspectors for promotion to Junior Engineer (Civil) was abolished due to the realization that these positions are not part of the technical cadre. The withdrawal was also aligned with the introduction of a time-bound promotion scheme. The writ petition challenging this decision was dismissed.

THE DG, DELHI DOORDARSHAN KENDRA VS MOHD SHAHBAZ KHAN [LPA-242/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Industrial Tribunal determined that the respondents were direct employees of the appellant and that their termination was illegal. Evidence indicated that the appellant had initially engaged the respondents as casual laborers before bringing them on through a contractor, M/s Navnidh Carriers, to disguise their direct employment status. Documents such as gate passes and an experience certificate confirmed the respondents' employment with the appellant prior to the contractor arrangement. The appellant lacked the necessary license under the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, to engage workers through a contractor, reinforcing the finding of direct employment. The factual findings of the Industrial Tribunal were supported by the evidence presented.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS SH KAILASH [W.P.(C)-4753/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The inquiry report and disciplinary authority's order against Sh Kailash were deemed unsustainable due to a lack of reasoning and assessment of evidence by the Inquiry Officer, violating CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965. The disciplinary authority failed to properly consider the respondent's representation and merely sought to confirm an earlier penalty order that had been set aside. The impugned orders were set aside, reinstatement with consequential benefits was ordered, and the petitioners were given the option to continue disciplinary proceedings lawfully. The writ petition by the Union of India and others was dismissed, with costs of Rs. 25,000 imposed on the petitioners.

UNION OF INDIA AND ORS VS VINAY KUMAR [W.P.(C)-1845/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Central Administrative Tribunal's order to re-evaluate Vinay Kumar's Paper II of the MTS recruitment exam was upheld. The absence of the last digit of his roll number on the answer sheet was regarded as a trivial error that did not hinder identification or the selection process. The petitioner's claims were dismissed, maintaining the decision in favor of the respondent.

DELHI CO-COPERATIVE HOUSING FINANCE CORPORATION LTD. VS SUBHASH CHANDER RANA [W.P.(C)-252/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the Central Administrative Tribunal's order was dismissed. The petitioner had approached the tribunal promptly after becoming eligible for in situ promotion. Consequently, the tribunal's decision to grant benefits from the date of eligibility, rather than limiting arrears to three years prior to the case filing, was upheld. This matter pertains to an individual case.

DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION VS SANTOSH KUMAR AND ORS [W.P.(C)-273/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Central Administrative Tribunal ordered the Delhi State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation to grant Santosh Kumar and others the minimum pay scale and temporary status according to DoPT's directives, despite their initial contractor engagement. The Tribunal did not mandate regularization of their services but required consideration for regularization following a Supreme Court decision in a related case. The petitioner's request to contest the Tribunal's order was dismissed.

EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION, THROUGH DIRECTOR GENERAL & ORS. VS MS. SARASWATI RAWAT [W.P.(C)-4665/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The disagreement note dated 23.01.2013 by the Additional Commissioner of the Employees' State Insurance Corporation was found to be unsustainable as it recorded conclusive findings of guilt against the respondent without providing a proper opportunity for her to be heard. Although the Additional Commissioner had the authority to initiate disciplinary proceedings, the note was not a tentative opinion but a final decision, violating principles of natural justice. The Central Administrative Tribunal's order to set aside the disagreement note and the resulting penalty order was upheld.

RAHUL SHARMA VS DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4624/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's application to challenge the seniority list of Assistant Managers was dismissed due to an 8-year delay. Awareness of his seniority position since 2015 and a late approach in 2023 posed a risk to the vested rights and seniority of other employees promoted in the meantime. No sufficient grounds were presented to justify the delay.

RAM PRASAD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-10694/2017]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Ram Prasad is entitled to the old pension scheme under the Pension Act & Rules 1972 instead of the national pension system. The selection process for his appointment as a stone cutter was completed before the NPS took effect on 01/01/2004, and any delay in issuing his appointment letter was due to the respondents. The argument regarding delay in claiming the benefits was rejected, as Prasad acted promptly after learning about the benefits before his retirement.

SHEEKHA AHLUWALIA VS KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA SANGATHAN AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3620/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The challenge to the transfer orders issued by the Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan is considered infructuous due to the Supreme Court's direction to recall all prior transfer orders under the policy dated 12.09.2022 and to create a new transfer policy. The previous policy was quashed by the Jabalpur Bench of the Madhya Pradesh High Court, leading to the acceptance of a proposal for a new policy. Qualified teachers not currently serving are permitted to rejoin their original postings until new transfer orders are issued under the revised policy.

SITA KUMARI VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-446/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Sita Kumari's writ petition was allowed, setting aside the dismissal of her contempt petition by the Central Administrative Tribunal. She is entitled to challenge the Tribunal's earlier order and seek compliance simultaneously. The respondents must declare the result of the Limited Departmental Competitive Exam (LDCE) held in June 2018 within two weeks, but this declaration does not guarantee her promotion unless she meets eligibility criteria. The promotion and declaration are subject to the outcome of the pending writ petition.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS SUSHIL KOHLI [W.P.(C)-514/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondent is entitled to have his pay stepped up to match that of two junior employees due to a pay anomaly. The initial decision to grant the stepping up and the subsequent withdrawal without following due process violated principles of natural justice. The petitioners need to re-examine the respondent's case and consider stepping up his pay notionally from February 1986 and financially from December 1999, along with all consequential benefits.

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. VS AKHILESH KUMAR RASTOGI [W.P.(C)-12653/2023]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order of the Central Administrative Tribunal was upheld, directing the petitioners to rectify the pay scale anomaly for the respondent, Akhilesh Kumar Rastogi, compared to his junior, Mr. Jha. Both individuals passed the Departmental Examination for Income Tax Officers, with Rastogi doing so earlier. The provisions of the OM dated 26.10.2018 cited by the petitioners were deemed inapplicable. As Rastogi is senior to Mr. Jha, he is entitled to have his pay adjusted to match that of his junior. The writ petition was dismissed.

ALOK GUPTA AND ORS VS NIKITA GUPTA [FAO(OS)-150/2022]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The compromise decree between the parties addressed only the issue of possession of the suit property and did not resolve the entire suit. If the appellants failed to pay R.S. 4.40 crores, the respondent would be entitled to a decree for possession. The appellants can still pursue their counterclaims regarding the balance consideration for the sale of the property. The respondent's claim for possession was decreed, allowing her to seek damages or mesne profits due to the delay in transferring possession.

ADARSH VIKLANG VIKASH SAMITI VS NEW-DELHI MUNCIPAL COUNCIL AND ANR [W.P.(C)-12643/2021]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Physically disabled petitioners may continue vending in Rajiv Chowk and Indira Chowk areas of Connaught Place on a temporary basis, following prior arrangements made by the NDMC for around 15 disabled vendors. This continuation depends on the NDMC's discretion and does not grant permanent rights, with the possibility of removal for non-compliance with applicable norms. The request for preference in allocation of vending spaces for persons with disabilities was not addressed, as an existing scheme already provides such preference.

AIMLAY PRIVATE LIMITED (THROUGH THE DIRECTOR SH. RAKESH GUPTA) & ORS. VS COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL TAX (DELHI WEST) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4273/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petitioner's challenge to the provisional attachment of bank accounts by the Commissioner of Central Tax was addressed. The petitioner is permitted to request limited access to the frozen accounts. A key issue involves the petitioner's claim for a refund of Rs. 22,00,000 deposited under compulsion during search operations. A final decision on the refund is pending due to unresolved contentious issues, but the petitioner can apply for the refund as per the law without waiting for show cause notice adjudication. The matter is part of a batch that references decisions from other cited cases.

ALL INDIA MEDICOS THR ITS PROP MONIKA CHAWLA VS ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCE & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-133/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The arbitrator's findings on the lack of proof regarding allegations against the appellant were rational and not subject to re-examination under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The forfeiture of Rs. 50 lakhs performance security was unjustified, as the respondent did not demonstrate actual loss or damage. The prior penalty of Rs. 5,331 did not warrant the forfeiture of the larger amount. The arbitral award was upheld, leading to the direction for the refund of the performance security to the appellant.

ALUFAB ORES PRIVATE LIMITED VS DEPARTMENT OF TRADES AND TAXES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11202/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The order cancelling the GST registration of Alufab Ores Private Limited was set aside. The proper officer is instructed to provide another opportunity for the petitioner to respond to the show cause notice and submit relevant documents. The absence of a personal hearing initially was noted, along with mitigating circumstances such as the death of the director's father. The petitioner's application for revocation of the cancellation order was restored, and a hearing is to be scheduled for an appropriate decision.

ANTEX PHRAMA PVT LTD VS AADVIK PHARMA & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-177/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The application for interim injunction against the defendants was rejected. The plaintiff was unlikely to succeed on the copyright infringement claim, as the term "LIVON" was commonly used by other entities for similar products before the plaintiff's use in 2009. The passing off claim was similarly weak, with the plaintiff's sales turnover and goodwill in "LIVON-DS" not significant, and no clear evidence of the defendants selling products in the claimed markets.

ANUP SHARMA VS AVATO WARD 63 STATE GOODS AND SERVICE TAX & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10984/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The show cause notice issued by the GST authorities proposing to cancel the petitioner's GST registration was declared invalid. The notice only referenced Rule 21(b) of the CGST Rules without specifying any particular invoice or bill allegedly issued in violation of statutory provisions. This lack of specific allegations rendered the notice ineffective. The petitioner's GST registration was ordered to be restored, with the provision that authorities may initiate new proceedings if necessary.

ANWAR ALI VS THE ADDITIONAL COMMISSIONER OF GST DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10265/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The show cause notice issued to the petitioner was deemed unintelligible, failing to specify the nature of the alleged fraud, willful misstatement, or suppression of facts. The cancellation order lacked reasoning and did not outline grounds for the cancellation of the petitioner's GST registration. The cancellation will take effect from the date of the notice, 28.06.2023, rather than retrospectively from 29.12.2022. However, there remains the possibility for statutory violation proceedings and tax recovery, as well as the option for retrospective cancellation according to the law.

ASSOCIATION OF POWER PRODUCERS VS SOLAR ENERGY CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12511/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The writ petition by the Association of Power Producers for clarifications on the applicability of Goods and Services Tax (GST) on Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS) services was dismissed. The Central Board of Indirect Taxes (CBIC) is not obligated to provide such clarifications, as no statutory provision requires it. Additionally, the Solar Energy Corporation of India (SECI) cannot issue binding clarifications on GST liability, which must be determined according to relevant GST statutes. The court noted that concerns regarding the Request for Selection (RfS) terms should have been addressed during the pre-bid meeting on July 12, 2024. The petition was deemed highly delayed.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petition by Bablu Rana (M/s Tara Trading Co.) was allowed, and the order under Section 73 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, was set aside. The show cause notice was improperly uploaded on the portal, placed under "Additional Notices and Orders" instead of "View Notices and Orders," which constituted insufficient service under Section 169. The matter was remanded to the adjudicating authority for reconsideration of the petitioner's response with a proper opportunity for a hearing.

Ltd. for the financial year 2018-19 regarding under-declared output tax and excess input tax credit claims, was set aside. The matter is remanded to the adjudicating authority for a fresh order, ensuring the petitioner has an opportunity for a personal hearing. CONTAINER CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED VS M/S SHIVHARE ROAD LINES [FAO(OS) (COMM)-125/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Concor's initial filing on 08.06.2023 to set aside an arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was deemed non-est due to defects and could not be treated as a valid submission. Key requirements for a valid filing were not met, including the absence of necessary signatures and accompanying documents. Previous judgments established that a filing can be considered non-est if it contains cumulative defects, even if some are curable individually. A party cannot submit an incomplete petition merely to halt the limitation period and later alter it substantially. The conclusion was that Concor's initial filing should be regarded as non-est.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The arbitral award was upheld, with the Appellant's challenge dismissed based on a lack of infringement of the right to a "full opportunity" to present its case under Section 18 of the Arbitration Act. The Appellant had the chance to submit relevant delivery challans earlier but failed to do so, and allowing the late submission would have disrupted the proceedings. The right to a "full opportunity" is not unlimited, and tribunals have the discretion to manage proceedings efficiently. The decision was unanimous.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The arbitral award in favor of SAW Pipes Limited (SPL) was upheld, with the interpretation of the contract deemed reasonable and free from patent illegality. Initial delivery delays were partially caused by SPL, while subsequent delays resulted from the Gas Authority of India Limited's (GAIL) failure to lift pipes on time. GAIL waived the delivery schedule and accepted an extension, making it ineligible to invoke the price reduction formula. The decision favored SPL's claims and rejected GAIL's counterclaims.

GILLANDERS ARBUTHNOT AND CO LIMITED VS STEEL AUTHORITY OF INDIA LIMITED & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-13/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Arbitral Tribunal's decision that SAIL's claims were barred by limitation under the Limitation Act is not subject to interference on the grounds of conflict with public policy. SAIL's time-barred claims were rejected, and costs were awarded to GACL. A challenge under Section 34 on the basis of 'patent illegality' was not maintainable as it involved international commercial arbitration. The interpretation of contractual provisions and the limitation issue by the Arbitral Tribunal were deemed plausible, and mere errors of interpretation do not constitute violations of public policy. The judgment of the learned Single Judge was set aside, restoring the Arbitral Tribunal's award.

The Arbitral Tribunal's award rejecting Fiberfill's claim for ₹22,08,528/- deducted by IOCL as compensation for delay was found to be vitiated by patent illegality. The petition of Sanjay Gupta was allowed, and the order issued under Section 73 of the Delhi Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, was set aside. The petitioner claimed that the show cause notice was not properly accessible, as it was uploaded under the "View Additional Notices & Orders" tab instead of the "View Notices & Orders" tab. It was established that such placement does not meet the service requirements under Section 169 of the CGST Act. The matter was remanded for fresh adjudication, allowing the petitioner two weeks to respond.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petition filed by Satish Chand Mittal challenging an order under the CGST/SGST Act for July 2017 to March 2018 was allowed. The principal issue was the petitioner's lack of access to the show-cause notice and related documents on the GST Portal. Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Cancellation of the petitioner's GST registration is justified due to the failure to file returns for six months. However, the retrospective cancellation from July 1, 2017, lacks supporting reasons in the show cause notice or order. The cancellation is limited to the date of the order, allowing authorities to initiate further proceedings for any violations of the CGST Act or the Delhi Goods & Services Tax Act, 2017 if necessary.

SCOPE PROMOTERS P LTD VS COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL GOODS AND SERVICES TAX DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11151/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Show Cause Notice and cancellation order of the petitioner's Goods and Services Tax registration were set aside due to lack of reasoning. The Show Cause Notice initiated cancellation proceedings without providing reasons, and the cancellation order also lacked explanation. An inspection by the department confirmed the petitioner's existence at the cited address, and the department indicated a willingness to revoke the cancellation order. The cancellation order was revoked, and the petitioner's GST registration was to be restored immediately, with the stipulation that the authorities could still take action against the petitioner as per the law.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Appeals by employees of unaided, unrecognized schools are maintainable before the Delhi School Tribunal under the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. The appellants acknowledged the respondent's right to file an appeal before the Tribunal. Since the main issue in the writ petitions had been addressed, the appeals were dismissed. This involved three linked appeals (LPA 392/2017, LPA 393/2017, and LPA 394/2017) heard together.

SHAKTI METALS THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR PRAHLAD KUMAR SHARMA VS THE COMMISSIONER CENTRAL GOODS AND SERVICES TAX AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5490/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Cancellation of the petitioner's GST registration was deemed a violation of natural justice due to inadequate provision of documents and details necessary for a proper response. The petitioner demonstrated ownership of the business premises, and a temporary suspension of business activities due to ill health was insufficient grounds for cancellation. The show cause notice, cancellation order, and appellate order were set aside, and the GST registration was to be restored, with an option for fresh cancellation proceedings if legally justified and with an opportunity for the petitioner to respond.

SHAMBHU BHARDWAJ AND ORS VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-11748/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) and police actions to demolish the petitioners' vending structures were not illegal or arbitrary, as the petitioners were found to be encroaching on public land with permanent/semi-permanent structures, contrary to vending norms. Interim vending certificates had been issued to the petitioners, with final certificates pending the formation of the second Town Vending Committee. Authorities were directed to consider the petitioners' representations as the survey and identification of fixed vending sites continued.

SHRI ROOP RAM (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LEGAL HEIRS AND ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-11941/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petition by the legal heirs of Sh. Roop Ram for compensation related to land acquisition from 1958 and possession of additional land was dismissed due to being barred by limitation. The acquisition proceedings concluded approximately 66 years prior, and while the Limitation Act does not apply strictly to constitutional proceedings, the delay in seeking remedy was deemed excessive. The petitioners' claim was considered speculative since neither the original landholder nor his sons challenged the acquisition during their lifetimes, distinguishing it from a related Supreme Court case involving original landowners.

SHUBHAM JAIN AND ORS VS MARYAM BEE AND ANR [FAO(OS) (COMM)-167/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The interim order granting relief to the appellants in a suit for specific performance of a sale agreement was upheld, requiring the appellants to deposit R.S. 4 crores with the court registry within 3 months. There was no issue with the discretion exercised, considering the disputes over the total sale consideration, the amounts paid, and the appellants' partial possession and use of the property without full payment. The deposit condition was deemed reasonable given the circumstances.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The show cause notice under Section 74 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, issued to M/s S.K. Gupta & Co., is invalid as it was directed at a non-existent person, the deceased Mr. Surender Kumar Gupta. Liability for tax, interest, or penalty from a deceased individual can be recovered from their legal representative or from someone conducting the deceased's business. The notice was improperly addressed to the deceased rather than to the appropriate parties. The impugned notice is set aside, but this does not prevent subsequent notices to the legal representative or individuals carrying on the deceased's business.

SONIA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-8907/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petitioner's original vending site at Fountain Chowk is classified as a "no vending zone" under the Street Vendors Act, preventing a return to that location. Relocation to a temporary site on Explanade Road is permitted until the Town Vending Committee finalizes vending sites. Directing relocation to a non-vending zone is deemed inappropriate, and the petitioner had previously accepted temporary relocation while awaiting the final vending plan from the authorities.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The use of the "JAVA" trademark in the domain name "www.javatpoint.com" constituted prima facie trademark infringement under Section 29(5) of the Trademarks Act. The domain name functioned as a business identifier and was likely to mislead users into believing there was an association with the respondent's "JAVA" trademark and products/services. The appeal was dismissed, and the order to interdict the use of the "JAVA" trademark in the domain name was upheld.

SUBHANA FASHION VS COMMISSIONER DELHI GOODS AND SERVICE TAX [W.P.(C)-12255/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The order cancelling the petitioner's GST registration was set aside as the cited reason—failure to pay tax, interest, or penalty within three months—does not qualify as grounds for cancellation under the CGST Act. The cancellation order lacked a determination of actual dues owed by the petitioner and failed to provide an opportunity for a personal hearing, breaching principles of natural justice. The authorities are to restore the petitioner's GST registration while retaining the right to pursue other proceedings for recovery of dues or non-compliance.

SURESH CHAND GUPTA PROPRIETOR OF GUPTA AND ASSOCIATES VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-11492/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The show cause notice issued for the cancellation of the petitioner's GST registration was found to be cryptic and lacking adequate details regarding alleged fraud or misstatements. The cancellation order violated principles of natural justice, as the petitioner did not receive a proper opportunity to respond. Consequently, the cancellation order was set aside, and the GST registration was restored. Authorities may initiate new proceedings for cancellation or take other actions as permitted by law.

THE MANAGEMENT OF GURU HARKRISHAN PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS & ANR. VS SUNIL SIKRI AND ANR & ANR. [LPA-915/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The period between the reinstatement order on 18.08.2011 and the actual reinstatement on 04.09.2013 does not qualify for back wages under Rule 121 of the Delhi School Education Rules. The implementation of the reinstatement order was stayed on 15.11.2011 at the school's request, and upon vacation of the stay on 06.08.2013, the employee became eligible for back wages for the intervening period due to the delay caused by the stay.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Relocation of 22 identified hawkers and vendors from Mohan Singh Market/INA, displaced due to infrastructure work by the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation, is valid. The South Delhi Municipal Corporation and New Delhi Municipal Council are to coordinate the relocation to a site adjacent to Kashmir Haat within 4 weeks. This decision does not affect the rights of the remaining 25 members of the petitioner association, and previous orders remain operative.

UJJWAL GARG VS COMMISSIONER, DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND TAXES, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-13239/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petitioner's GST registration should be restored because the only issue, non-compliance with Rule 86B of the CGST/DGST Rules, was resolved by the petitioner depositing ₹80,000. Suspension of GST registration has serious consequences and requires careful consideration. This decision does not prevent tax authorities from taking further actions regarding other statutory violations, including possible cancellation of GST registration or recovery of dues.

UMESH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-831/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The respondents' conclusion that the petitioner's principal place of business was non-existent was incorrect, relying solely on unverified oral statements from unnamed shop owners. The petitioner is to submit a response to the show cause notice with supporting documents proving the existence of the business since registration. The respondents must restore the petitioner's GST registration immediately, and the proper officer is to make a decision on the show cause notice within two weeks.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The retrospective cancellation of GST registration for the petitioner's deceased father from 2018 was unjustified, as the basis for cancellation—failure to file returns for six months—did not support such a measure for the entire registration period. The cancellation was modified to take effect from the date of the father's death in 2020, allowing tax authorities to pursue recovery of any tax dues prior to that date.

VICKY AGGARWAL & ORS. VS A B MAURI INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-127/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The use of the 'TOWER' trademark by the appellants for dry fruits, including pistachios, walnuts, cashews, and almonds, infringes the plaintiff's registered trademark, as dry fruits are considered allied goods to the plaintiff's bakery products, creating a likelihood of confusion. The validity of an undertaking by the appellants, which limited their use of the 'TOWER' mark to specified goods and prohibited its use for dry fruits, is upheld. The argument claimed by the appellants that the undertaking did not cover dry fruits and only bound the first appellant is rejected, confirming that all appellants are bound by the terms of the undertaking.

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The review petitions filed by Ms. Kanchan Saini and Dr. Kuldeep Ahuja have merit. There has been no conclusive determination on whether they qualify as "Teachers" under the Delhi University Act, 1922, which is vital for assessing their eligibility for enhanced superannuation age. Additionally, the applicability of the S. Dildar Haider v. Jamia Milia Islamia & Anr. judgment concerning non-teaching staff being recognized as 'Teachers' for superannuation benefits remains unresolved. The matter has been referred back for limited examination of these issues. Further consideration is scheduled for 5th August, 2024.

HYATT INTERNATIONAL SOUTHWEST ASIA LTD VS ADDITIONAL DIRECTOR OF INCOME TAX [ITA-216/2020]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula, Justice Yashwant Varma

An enterprise with a Permanent Establishment (PE) in India must have its profits attributable to that PE taxed in India, regardless of the global profit or loss of the enterprise. The PE is treated as a separate entity for taxation, with profits assessed based on its specific functions, assets, and risks, following the arm's length principle. The PE's income taxation is independent of the overall profitability of the enterprise.

Following document verification, the respondents agreed to release the goods, noting the import's purpose aligned with an advance license from the Directorate General of Foreign Trade. The decision does not set a precedent, leaving all legal questions open.

M/S PRIME INDUSTRIES VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7922/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Retrospective cancellation of the petitioner's GST registration was improper due to lack of adequate reasoning and opportunity to be heard. Section 29(2) of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 requires objective criteria for such cancellation, which was absent. The registration cancellation was modified to take effect from the date of the petitioner’s cancellation application, as the petitioner no longer wished to continue the business. Recovery of taxes, penalties, or interest remains permissible, including through retrospective cancellation after due process.

The Armed Forces Tribunal's rejection of the petitioner's application for a disability pension based on delay was erroneous, as it had previously condoned the delay. The order was set aside, and the matter was remanded for consideration of the petitioner's claim on its merits, emphasizing that pension claims are a continuous cause of action and relief can be granted despite delays, unless it impacts the rights of third parties.

The petition for disability pension filed by ex-Sepoy Naresh Kumar was dismissed due to his medical condition, Aortic Regurgitation, being congenital and not linked to his short military service. A clear causal connection between the disability and military service is necessary for a pension grant. The trial proceedings of the General Security Force Court were conducted fairly, without violations of procedures or principles of natural justice. There was no ground to re-evaluate the evidence or intervene with the disciplinary authorities' findings, and thus the petition was dismissed.

GANAPA KALYAN KUMAR VS INDIAN COAST GUARD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5155/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Ganapa Kalyan Kumar's writ petition was dismissed after he was disallowed from participating in Stage-II of the recruitment process for the Navik (General Duty) post due to a spelling error in his OBC certificate. Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition filed by Gantavya Gulati to direct the Directorate of Recruitment, Indian Coast Guard, to correct an alleged error in his placement for the Assistant Commandant (General Duty) position was dismissed. Evidence from his application confirmed that he applied for the General Duty post, and once submitted, the post cannot be changed. The petition lacked merit, as accommodating such requests could disrupt the selection process.

GURIQBAL SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-779/2018]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Guriqbal Singh is entitled to consideration for promotion to Commandant with seniority backdated to when his junior officers were promoted, due to the upgradation of his below-benchmark annual confidential reports (ACRs). The Department of Personnel and Training's Office Memorandum from April 13, 2010, which stated that the policy on communicating below-benchmark ACRs applies only to future meetings, is inconsistent with established legal precedent. Additionally, the differing treatment between Singh and a similarly-situated junior officer, who received retrospective seniority, violates the right to equality under Article 14 of the Constitution. The relevant authorities must reconsider Singh's promotion based on the upgraded ACRs and applicable records.

HARISH YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS DTE GENERAL BORDER SECURITY FORCE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1044/2024]

The petition filed by Harish Yadav challenging the final result of the Constable (Barber) recruitment in the Border Security Force was dismissed. The petitioner was denied appointment under the OBC category despite scoring 48 marks, which exceeded the cut-off of 45 marks. The denial was based on the fact that the OBC certificate issued by Delhi relied on a certificate from Uttar Pradesh, which did not comply with the requirement for the certificate to be issued by the competent authority in the candidate's domicile state/UT. The petitioner's arguments were deemed to lack merit.

HC DVR MAHESH YADAV & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3654/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition seeking the grant of 2nd MACP in the Grade Pay of R.S. 4,200/- after 20 years of service was dismissed. The issue of promotion under the MACP Scheme, effective from 1.9.2008, was previously settled, establishing that financial upgradation is equivalent to the immediate next grade pay, not the next promotional post. The relevant authorities had already addressed anomalies in the MACP implementation and consulted the Department of Expenditure regarding the petitioners' requests, which were not accepted. Consequently, the writ petition was dismissed as without merit.

HEMANT MORYA VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-314/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition challenging the disqualification from appointment as a Constable/Driver due to a medical condition of pre-sternal keloid on the chest was dismissed. Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Saini did not contest the Medical Board's findings, preventing any relief. A cited judgment from a similar case was deemed applicable only to its specific facts and did not address broader legal questions.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Director General ITBP is to decide the petitioner's statutory pre-confirmation petition, submitted on January 6, 2023, regarding the final order from the General Force Court dated December 23, 2022, within three months.

INSP/GD JITENDER SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4579/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner, an Inspector in the Central Reserve Police Force, is not entitled to a refund of Rs. 3,34,541/- that was recovered following a Court of Inquiry regarding losses at the Central Police Canteens due to irregularities. Although the petitioner was exonerated in a subsequent Departmental Enquiry concerning illegal supply orders, the Court of Inquiry and the Departmental Enquiry serve different purposes. The petitioner was liable for the losses as he was the Manager of the Canteens during that time, and the exoneration in the Departmental Enquiry does not warrant a refund of the amount. The petition was dismissed without grounds for challenging the denial of the refund request.

JAGDISH SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6381/2019]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

JAI RAM VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14212/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The dismissal of a CISF constable for submitting a forged caste certificate was upheld. The enquiry followed prescribed procedures, and there were no arbitrary elements justifying interference. The constable's repeated misconduct, lack of explanation for his actions, and the need for a stringent approach regarding armed forces personnel supported the decision.

K J S BAINS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4627/2021]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The review petition filed by K.J.S. Bains was dismissed. The post of Inspector General (IG) was not abolished but upgraded, with recruitment remaining unfilled due to missing Recruitment Rules. The claim regarding inter-se seniority with V.S. Yadav was validated, as evidenced by Yadav's writ petition for consideration ahead of Bains. Bains' request for promotion to Chief Law Officer/IG was deemed belated, as he only raised the issue post-retirement in 2020, when he should have approached the matter while still in service. Even if the IG post was not abolished, Bains was not entitled to the relief sought due to the absence of Recruitment Rules and the challenge to his seniority.

K J S BAINS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4627/2021]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner's claim for notional promotion to the Chief Law Officer/Inspector General post from the vacancy year 2013-14 is not sustainable. The position was upgraded in 2013, but the Recruitment Rules were finalized only in 2023, after the petitioner's retirement in 2020. Appointments to the upgraded post must follow the Recruitment Rules, and the petitioner's delay in seeking legal remedy does not warrant the notional promotion. The petition was dismissed.

KAILASH SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1115/2021]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition by the ex-CRPF personnel was dismissed as he was not entitled to post-retirement benefits. He voluntarily applied for Voluntary Retirement Scheme (VRS) and had less than the required 20 years of service under the CRPF Pension Rules, 1972. The petitioner had previously requested not to include his Army service with his CRPF service, which he could not retract. A distinction between 'resignation' and 'retirement' was upheld, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

KHALID AKHTAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4961/2018]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The APAR grading for the period September 9, 2015, to March 31, 2016, is invalid because it was decided solely by the Initiating Officer without input from the Reviewing Officer or Accepting Officer. The requirement for a valid APAR involves consideration by at least two of the three authorities, making the decision by the Initiating Officer alone insufficient.

KRISHNA DIXIT (NVK WTR) VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1113/2019]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition filed by a Navik in the Indian Coast Guard challenging the Summary Trial and imposed punishments was dismissed. The petitioner left the ship without authorization while it was under operational orders. Claims of being on leave were unsupported by adequate proof. The petitioner argued against theft of the Imprest Accounts Register, but the loss of the register negated this defense. The respondents acted without malice or bias, with imposed punishments being the least severe available under the ICG Act. The petitioner faced further punishment for not following proper procedures, demonstrating a lack of discipline. No merit was found in the petition.

KRISHNA KUMAR BHARTI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1713/2019]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition challenging the dismissal of an ex-CISF constable was dismissed. Evidence, including witness testimonies, indicated the petitioner engaged in misconduct by molesting the wife of a CISF officer and threatening both the officer and his wife. The Revisional Authority appropriately enhanced the penalty, finding insufficient justification for the Appellate Authority's modifications. The petitioner's arguments had been adequately considered and rejected in previous proceedings, showing no merit in revisiting the issues.

KULDEEP SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2078/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The order upholding the adverse remarks in the petitioner's Annual Performance Appraisal Report (APAR) for 2011-2012 was quashed. The petitioner, an Assistant Sub-Inspector in the Border Security Force, did not receive notice regarding the adverse remarks, violating natural justice principles. The APAR lacked specific details and was deemed arbitrary. Adverse remarks were to be expunged, and the petitioner granted a revised benchmark grading of 'Very Good' in the APAR.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The imposition of penal rent on a CISF Head Constable for retaining unauthorized government accommodation after being transferred from IPGCL was upheld. Recovery of Rs. 15,000 per month from her salary for the full amount of penal rent was mandated.

MAJ GENERAL S S KHARA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9203/2021]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The promotion policy excluding the Intelligence Corps from consideration for promotion to Lieutenant General can be addressed by the Armed Forces Tribunal (AFT). However, the request for the Director General of Military Intelligence (DGMI) to be appointed as a Lieutenant General is not permissible, as it would require directing the government to create a policy, which exceeds the AFT's and High Court's authority. The petition can be pursued through the AFT for the relevant matters.

MAJOR EM REDDY (RETD) VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-13404/2018]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

A retired commissioned officer's writ petition challenging a government order that granted up to 12 months of qualifying service concession for pension to personnel below officer rank, but not to commissioned officers, was dismissed. The terms of service, rank, duties, salary, and benefits are different for commissioned officers and personnel below officer rank, categorizing them into separate classes. No discrimination exists in the decision not to extend the concession to commissioned officers. The government order was recognized as a policy decision with limited scope for judicial review, and no faults were found in the policy.

MALWATI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2755/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Malwati's writ petition for the release of her late husband Jaipal Singh's service benefits and pension was dismissed. Her claims were based on the same cause of action as earlier petitions filed by Jaipal Singh, which had already been dismissed. Jaipal Singh's dismissal from the Border Security Force was final due to the withdrawal of his previous writ petition, so Malwati's requests could not be granted.

MAN SINGH & ORS. VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10871/2009]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Petitioners holding the post of Joint Assistant Commandant (Accounts Officer) in the ITBP are entitled to a higher pay scale than the lower feeder cadre post of Inspector (Accountant) due to significantly higher duties and responsibilities. Placing both posts in the same pay scale violates constitutional rights under Article 14, resulting in an order to provide the petitioners the next higher pay scale within 6 weeks.

MANISH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-686/2018]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner received treatment at the non-empanelled Sir Ganga Ram Hospital despite being informed of its status under CSMAR. Consequently, the claim was dismissed due to lack of merit. The medical advance provided was treated as a loan, recoverable from the petitioner's salary for willful default in repayment. The respondents acted appropriately, showing no negligence in delivering medical care and financial support.

MANMOHAN SINGH MATHUR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15400/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition by a Head Constable in the Border Security Force, challenging the cancellation of his transfer order from the 183rd Battalion to the 36th Battalion on compassionate medical grounds, was dismissed. Transfer is considered an exigency of service and falls under the discretion of the employer, with limited employee input. Interference with a transfer order requires evidence of mala fide, bias, arbitrariness, or non-compliance with statutes, which were absent in this case. The petitioner's conduct as a member of the disciplined force was a relevant consideration. Previous judgments in similar cases supported the decision not to interfere with the transfer.

MANOJ KUMAR AND OTHERS VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-5615/2021]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Ministry of Home Affairs denied relaxation of the mandatory 18-year service requirement for Constables in the Sashtra Seema Bal seeking permanent absorption in the Central Civil Accounts Service. The policy guidelines issued on November 24, 2016 specified this requirement, and the MHA exercised its discretion appropriately. The petitioners did not meet the eligibility criteria for permanent absorption, which requires consent from both the parent and borrowing departments.

MANOJ SINGH BHANDARI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2959/2024]

MR ASHWIN NAREDNRA LODHA VS THE STATE TRADING CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD THROUGH MANAGER & ANR. [CONT.APP.(C)-11/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The appeals filed under Section 19 of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 are not maintainable because the order in question did not impose any punishment but merely requested the appellant to show cause for potential contempt. An appeal under Section 19 is only valid against an order imposing punishment for contempt, not against an order initiating or declining to initiate proceedings. The judgments cited by the appellant are not applicable to this situation. The appellant may seek other available legal remedies regarding the order.

The petitioners' marks remained below the minimum qualifying marks for selected candidates, even after being credited for an incorrect question. The petitioners were found to lack a vested right or legitimate expectation of appointment.

MUSKAAN SINGH THROUGH PAROKAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15861/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Muskaan Singh was terminated from the Military BSc (Nursing) Course-2019 due to medical grounds, specifically a mild malrotated right kidney that increased the risk of recurrent urinary tract infections. She was deemed unfit for commissioning into the Military Nursing Service according to established medical standards. The decision to terminate her training was justified, with principles of natural justice observed. The scope of judicial review in matters involving expert medical opinions is limited, and the correctness of decisions made by medical authorities is not subject to reassessment.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Although a previous judgment invalidated the requirement of having a Skill 'A' Grade, the petitioner did not comply with other procedural requirements under Clauses 9, 11, and 12 of AFO 33/2017. The necessary procedures were not followed, resulting in the dismissal of the petition.

NAVEEN NIRWAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3997/2024]
Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao
The respondents declared the petitioner 'Unfit' for the post of Head Constable Junior X-ray Assistant due to the medical condition of 'Hypospadias', in accordance with recruitment guidelines for Central Armed Police Forces. The opinion of an external doctor did not equate to that of the specialized medical board. Interference in recruitment processes is cautioned against unless clear illegality or arbitrariness is present, which was not demonstrated in this case.

NISHANT VS INDIAN COAST GUARD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR GENERAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2422/2024]
Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao
The petition by Nishant challenging the cancellation of his candidature for the Assistant Commandant Technical post in the Indian Coast Guard was dismissed. The respondents had the discretion to establish procedures and deadlines. The petitioner's failure to upload required documents on time was not due to a "technical glitch." He was the only candidate not in compliance with the prerequisites. Allowing him to take the SSB test would have created an anomaly and undermined the integrity of the advertisement. There were no grounds to challenge the respondents' decision.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Conflicting medical reports from various hospitals indicated that the petitioner does not have this condition. As a result, the petitioner was directed to undergo a fresh examination by a medical board, including a specialist, at the Army Hospital, R&R within 4 weeks, with the final opinion of this board being conclusive. The petition was disposed of accordingly.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner had already contested the reversion order before the Armed Forces Tribunal (AFT), which had not issued a stay. Therefore, the petition regarding the movement order was deemed not maintainable. The appropriate remedy for the reversion order lies with the AFT. PAWAN KUMAR MATHURI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4793/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition by CISF personnel Pawan Kumar Mathuri challenging his transfer from New Delhi to Sivaganga, Tamil Nadu was dismissed. Transfer is considered an exigency of service for CISF personnel, with limited grounds for interference, such as arbitrariness or bias. Mathuri's medical category (SHAPE II) made his continuation at the hypersensitive Indira Gandhi International Airport unlikely, as only SHAPE I personnel are suitable. The CISF transfer policy guidelines are directory and do not create enforceable rights for Mathuri. Considering other personnel were also awaiting postings and had higher merit, granting his request would disrupt the existing posting list.

PAWAN KUMAR VS SASHASTRA SEEMA BAL [W.P.(C)-14821/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The respondent, Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB), unjustifiably rejected the petitioner's candidature for the Assistant Commandant (GD) position based on a pending disciplinary/vigilance case. A service certificate from June 14, 2022, confirmed no such cases against the petitioner. There was no evidence indicating that disciplinary/vigilance proceedings were initiated before the issuance of the service certificate. The matter is remanded to SSB to verify whether any disciplinary/vigilance case was pending or contemplated as of June 14, 2022, and to decide accordingly within three weeks.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition by a Deputy Commandant in the Border Security Force challenging the rejection of his sentence suspension was dismissed. The decision emphasized that the review process is limited to the legality of decision-making, not the conclusions reached. The pending post-confirmation petition and conflicting witness testimonies, along with the petitioner's military status, contributed to the decision not to interfere with the conviction.

PRASHANT KUMAR VERMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-903/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petition by Prashant Kumar Verma challenging the answer key for the Constable-Driver/Pump Operator exam was dismissed. Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition by Radha Krishan challenging his seniority as Head Constable (GD) was dismissed. The decision to grant seniority effective from December 1, 2017, instead of June 15, 2015, was justified because Krishan opted to remain on deputation rather than accept the promotion when offered. The respondents' decision was supported by guidelines regarding departmental promotion, specifically concerning the refusal of promotion.

RAHUL KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2882/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner's challenge to the Review Medical Board's decision rejecting him for the Constable (Cobbler) position in the Indo Tibetan Border Police was deemed valid. Guidelines for recruitment medical examinations permit tattoos on the back of the hands and allow scars or deformities that do not affect hand or finger functionality. A fresh Review Medical Board is to be constituted to re-examine the petitioner's hand within 2 weeks. If found fit, the petitioner will be appointed, given the availability of vacancies.

RAJ KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2346/2020]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

A Railway Protection Special Force constable's writ petition for arrears of pay from 2005 to 2007, following his 2001 promotion to Assistant Sub-Inspector, was dismissed. The promotion was granted in 2007 without arrears, based on provisions in the Indian Railway Establishment Manual and the constable's exemption from pre-promotional training. The validity of the reasons provided for not paying the arrears was acknowledged, and the petition, filed 11 years later, was deemed affected by delay and laches.

RAJENDRA SINGH SHEKHAWAT & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-317/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition was dismissed on the grounds that under the MACP Scheme, financial upgradation is to the next immediate higher grade pay, not the grade pay of the next promotional post. The legal position was established in a prior Supreme Court judgment. The petitioners' arguments were rejected.

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Indian Army's decision to declare the petitioner 'Unfit' for recruitment was upheld, despite a previous 'Fit' declaration. The army's medical standards are higher than civilian standards, and the opinions of medical personnel regarding the petitioner's fitness, based on a surgical scar and ear drum repair, were deemed valid. The petitioner was found unfit on two occasions by army medical authorities, leading to the dismissal of the petition without grounds for a review medical examination, and each party was to bear its own costs.

Additionally, the petitioners have rejoined ITBP, and four years have elapsed since then.

RAKESH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14987/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner's request to retain government accommodation in Delhi was denied as it was determined to be a privilege, not a right. The petitioner was transferred from SHQ Jalpaiguri to SHQ Bezpara, not from FHQ Delhi, which excluded him from retaining accommodation in Delhi. His appeal, based on his children's competitive exams, did not align with the Standard Operating Procedure for transfers on compassionate grounds. The petition was dismissed for lack of merit.

RAM UGRAH SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-9691/2019]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The petitioner, suspended from duty but required to report daily to the Deputy Commandant's office, is entitled to receive transport allowance (TA) during the suspension period. The applicable policy denying TA to suspended officers does not apply, as the petitioner was mandated to physically attend the office each day. Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The medical boards, consisting of specialized experts, adhered to the guidelines in the Manual on Medical Examination and Medical Standards, and their decisions were free from bias or mala fide actions. It was noted that interference in recruitment decisions should be limited due to the expertise of medical boards, and that a Review Medical Board reference is not an entitlement for the candidate. The writ petition was dismissed.

ROHIT SINGH RATHORE & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7476/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The amendment changing the selection criteria from seniority to length of stay in Extremely Hard Areas (EHA) and Hard Areas (HA) is constitutional and valid under the ITBP Act and Rules. This modification aims to enhance the morale of those with longer service in EHA/HA postings, aligning with the nature of duties in Afghanistan. Petitioners lack the right to seek deputation, which is at the discretion of ITBP authorities. Consequently, the writ petition is dismissed.

Granting such relaxation is at the discretion of the competent authority, not a matter of right.

S. S. VERMA VS CENTRAL INDUSTRIAL SECURITY FORCE (THROUGH DIRECTOR GENERAL) [W.P.(C)-1979/2020]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The writ petition challenging a penalty imposed in 2005 and upheld in 2006 was dismissed due to a 14-15 year delay. The delay lacked a convincing explanation, and the argument of frequent transfers was insufficient, as the petitioner could have approached a local court. The absence of a satisfactory explanation for the delay led to the dismissal of the petition.

SACHIN KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1762/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

Review petitions by the Union of India and others were dismissed, affirming an earlier order regarding Sachin Kumar and Dnyaneshwar Devarshe. The direction to re-examine the petitioners' right forearms after tattoo removal was deemed appropriate and consistent with recruitment guidelines for Central Armed Police Forces. Despite arguments about the limitation of one Review Medical Examination following the Detailed Medical Examination, the unique circumstances surrounding tattoo removal justified the order.

SAGAR KUMAR KHOKHAR VS CENTRAL INDUSTRIAL SECURITY FORCE [W.P.(C)-2933/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice V. Kameswar Rao

The Medical Board and Review Medical Board's conclusions regarding the petitioner's defective distance vision were inconsistent due to the lack of a physical examination by the Review Medical Board. The determinations of the Special Medical Board and Appeal Medical Board, made up of medical experts, remain valid unless proven to involve bias, arbitrariness, or mala fide intent. The authority to refer a candidate to a Review Medical Board is discretionary, based on provisions in the "Manual on Medical Examination and Medical Standards," and not a guaranteed right for the petitioner.

The employee has the right to withdraw until the scheme's closing date, which was December 3, 2019. The petitioner's request to withdraw, made on December 17, 2019, occurred after the scheme's closure and is therefore invalid. Acropolis Realty Pvt. Ltd. successfully challenged a notice from the Income Tax Officer to reopen the assessment for AY 2019-20. The notice was deemed invalid as it was issued beyond the 3-year limit stipulated in Section 149(1)(a) of the Income Tax Act, given that the income in question was under R.S. 50 lakh. Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Income Tax Officer (ITO) lacked valid reasons to believe that the assessee's income for the assessment year 2012-13 had escaped assessment, making the reopening of the assessment under Section 147 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 unjustified. The presence of an unsecured loan of ₹5,00,000 in the balance sheet did not provide sufficient grounds for such belief, and there was no evidence indicating the loan was taxable income. The assessee's explanation for the loan was documented in the accounts. Both the notice for reopening the assessment under Section 148 and the subsequent reassessment order were set aside.

ALCATEL LUCENT INDIA LIMITED VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX & ANR. [ITA-220/2022]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal erred in including Avani Cincom Technologies Ltd. and Ishir Infotech Ltd. as comparable entities while excluding Tata Elxsi Ltd., Sasken Communication Technologies Ltd., and Akshay Software Technologies Ltd. for arm's length price adjustment in international transactions. The Tribunal overlooked the appellant's claims that Avani Cincom's business involved software product sales, making it functionally non-comparable, and did not assess Ishir Infotech's significant outsourcing model. The Tribunal also failed to address the appellant's reasons for excluding Tata Elxsi and Sasken. Additionally, the exclusion of Akshay Software Technologies limited was not adequately considered. The Tribunal's order regarding these companies was set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh consideration.

The notice under Section 143(2) was deemed valid, allowing the Assessing Officer to issue subsequent notices under Section 142(1) within the limitation period.

ANUJ SOOD VS PCIT (CENTRAL-1), NEW DELHI & ANR. [ITA-798/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, which added ₹37,20,100 as unexplained income under Section 69A and Section 115BBE of the Income Tax Act, is upheld. The assessee's claims regarding the source of seized cash, including assertions that some belonged to his mother and wife, lacked credible evidence. The contents of the order clearly indicated its true nature, and the challenge based on the incorrect assumption was rejected. The petition was dismissed with costs, as the Assessing Officer clarified the order's classification.

CIT VS BIRLASOFT LTD [ITA-1242/2011]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The new NOIDA-II unit established by the assessee is recognized as a separate undertaking eligible for a deduction under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act, with the deduction calculated at the entity level. The arm's length price (ALP) for international transactions is determined using the transactional net margin method (TNMM) at the entity level. Prior period expenses of Rs. 19,26,120 were allowed as a deduction for the assessment year 2004-05 since the liability accrued and crystallized in that year. The revenue's appeal was dismissed, favoring the assessee on all key issues.

COMMISSIONER CGST DELHI SOUTH VS AIR INDIA LTD [SERTA-18/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision of the CESTAT was upheld, stating that the Revenue incorrectly invoked the extended period of limitation to recover CENVAT credit. Mere failure to provide documents during the audit does not constitute "suppression of facts" as per precedents, which require a deliberate intent to evade tax. The absence of claims of fraud or collusion led to the conclusion that the extended period of limitation was improperly applied.

The penalty proceedings must conclude within six months from the end of the month of initiation or by the end of the financial year when the proceedings were completed, whichever is later. Since the show cause notice was issued almost a year after the initial reference, the penalty order was deemed invalid due to surpassing the prescribed time limit under Section 275(1)(c) of the Act.

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's decision to set aside the reopening of assessments was upheld, as the issue had been previously decided in favor of the taxpayer. The necessary condition for initiating proceedings under Section 153C was not met, as the relevant materials from Gupta were not provided to the Assessing Officer of the petitioner. The petitioner's response to the notice was deemed unsatisfactory as it failed to accurately state the quantum of cash deposits in the bank account or provide a proper explanation. It was noted that, at the notice stage under Section 148, there is no requirement for a final conclusion on whether income has escaped assessment, preserving the petitioner's rights to contest the quantum and taxability later.

FAB INDIA OVERSEAS PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CIRCLE 7(1) NEW DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3965/2021]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The acquisition of the trademark 'FABINDIA' during the financial year 2006-07 is not classified as an international transaction for the assessment year 2011-12, as it was a singular transaction to be analyzed in its relevant financial year. The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal remanded the matter for examining the admissibility and quantum of depreciation on the trademark and not for determining arm's length price. The referral to the Transfer Pricing Officer regarding this was deemed fundamentally flawed, leading to the setting aside of the TPO's order. The Assessing Officer is directed to reassess the claim for depreciation based on prior instructions from the Tribunal and the current order.

The Assessing Officer lacked sufficient material to reopen the assessment for the 2013-14 year. Although there was information on a sale of shares from Gemstone Investment Ltd. amounting to R.S. 29,75,000, there was no evidence indicating that profits from the sale of shares in Cubical Financial Services Ltd. were bogus or undisclosed. The income amounting to R.S. 29,75,000 did not meet the R.S. 50,00,000 threshold necessary for reopening assessments that are over three years old. The term "a residential house" under Section 54F of the Income Tax Act refers to a single residential unit and does not encompass multiple units, even if located within the same building. The purchase of two separate, non-adjacent flats in the same tower by the assessee did not qualify for the exemption under Section 54F, as these flats could not be viewed as a single residential unit. This interpretation is based on the statutory language, legislative intent, and judicial precedents.

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru
The provisions of Section 153C of the Income Tax Act do not override Section 147. The non-obstante clause in Section 153C removes procedural impediments but does not prevent the Assessing Officer (AO) from initiating reassessment under Section 147 if the conditions for Section 153C are not met. Section 153C allows the AO to assess or reassess the income of a person other than the person whose records were searched, based on seized assets or documents related to that person. If jurisdictional conditions are not satisfied, the AO may proceed under Section 147 instead. Precedents indicated that the AO may only apply Rule 8D if the Assessee's computation is deemed inadequate or defective. The case did not appear to involve "under-reporting of income in consequence of mis-reporting," which would affect eligibility for immunity. The matter was remanded for reconsideration of the petitioner's request with an opportunity to be heard.

SEQUENTIAL TECHNOLOGY INTERNATIONAL INDIA PVT. LTD.(FORMERLY KNOWN AS OMNIGLOB INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES(INDIA)PVT.LTD) VS ADDL. CIT, SPCL.RANGE-7, [ITA-34/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal incorrectly rejected the assessee's argument to exclude E4e Healthcare as a comparable entity for benchmarking IT-enabled services. The rejection was based on a misunderstanding regarding the reason for the objection, which was related to the unavailability of E4e Healthcare's annual report in the public domain, not employee cost concerns. Additionally, the functional dissimilarity of E4e Healthcare was not considered. The matter was sent back to the TPO for re-evaluation of E4e Healthcare's inclusion, with all parties' rights and contentions reserved.

The Assessing Officer's obligation to adhere to the one-month time limit under Section 144C(4) for passing the final assessment order was emphasized, despite the assessee's late objections within the 30-day period under Section 144C(2).

THE COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX - INTERNATIONAL TAXATION -3 VS ZEBRA TECHNBOLOGIES ASIA PACIFIC PET. LTD. [ITA-792/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) was upheld regarding the assessment of Zebra Technologies Asia Pacific Pte. Ltd. under Section 263 of the Income Tax Act. The key issue was whether the company engaged in tax avoidance through treaty shopping, affecting its eligibility for benefits under the India-Singapore Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement (DTAA). The Commissioner of Income Tax (CIT) deemed the company a conduit with no commercial substance in Singapore, aimed at avoiding taxes in India. The ITAT pointed out that the company was not given a chance to counter the conduit allegations, a point that was supported in proceeding discussions.

THE PR COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-4 NEW DELHI VS M/S HESPERA REALTY PVT. LTD. [ITA-468/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Assessee is entitled to the exemption under Section 10(38) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 for Long Term Capital Gains (LTCG) of R.S. 2,47,52,73,951/-, despite these gains not being included in the calculation of book profits under Section 115JB. The decisions of the CIT(A) and ITAT in favor of the Assessee remain unchallenged. The legislative intent of the proviso to Section 10(38) supports the view that while LTCG exempt under this section must be included in book profits, the absence of such inclusion does not disqualify the Assessee from the exemption. This case involves a scheme of arrangement where five companies merged into the Assessee, generating LTCG from the sale of shares of India Bulls Housing Finance Limited by the merged companies.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -3 VS DHARAM RAJ CONSTRUCTION & INFRASTRUCTURE PRIVATE LIMITED [ITA-798/2019]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) improperly relied on a previous restrictive interpretation of "belongs to" in Section 153C of the Income Tax Act. The Supreme Court clarified that the 2015 amendment replacing "belongs to" with "pertains to" is applicable retrospectively for searches conducted prior to the amendment. Consequently, the common order issued by the ITAT has been set aside, and the appeals are remanded for further consideration of the remaining grounds raised by the assessee in light of the Supreme Court's judgment.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -3 VS FLUOR DANIEL INDIA PVT. LTD. [ITA-665/2019]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Transfer Pricing Officer wrongly included Kitco Ltd., TCE Consulting Engineers Ltd., Project and Development India Ltd., and Mahindra Consulting Engineers Ltd. as comparables for benchmarking Fluor Daniel India Pvt. Ltd.'s international transactions. These companies were not functionally comparable to Fluor Daniel, which operates as a captive service provider in engineering and design services. Despite the broad tolerance of the Transactional Net Margin Method for functional dissimilarity, a similar broad functional profile among comparables is necessary. Consequently, these four companies were excluded from the comparables list.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -4 NEW DELHI VS M/S G-TEKT INDIA PVT. LTD [ITA-463/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The loss of Rs. 22.99 crores incurred by M/s G-Tekt India Pvt. Ltd. from transactions involving the purchase and sale of tools and dies for Honda Car India Ltd. was recognized as a genuine business loss. The disallowance of the loss by the Assessing Officer and Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) was based on suspicion rather than concrete evidence. The business decision to procure dies at its own cost to secure orders and to sell at a lower price due to negotiations with other vendors was deemed legitimate. The eventual profitability from HCIL in subsequent years further supported the assessee's position. The revenue's appeal lacked substantial questions of law.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -7 VS SABIC INDIA PVT LTD [ITA-514/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal considered the Transactional Net Margin Method (TNMM) appropriate for determining the arm's length price of the assessee's international transactions, given that the Transfer Pricing Officer (TPO) did not provide reasons for rejecting it, despite its prior consistent use. The TPO failed to justify the selection of the "other method" under Rule 10B(1)(f) and did not adequately explain the rejection of other specified methods. Issues were identified with some comparable transactions used by the TPO, as they were dissimilar to the international transactions being benchmarked.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -CENTRAL -1 VS ANIL BHALLA [ITA-525/2024]

The AO's ability to make additions beyond the grounds for re-assessment was addressed in prior decisions that supported the assessee. No substantial questions of law emerged from this appeal.

The explanatory amendment to Section 14A introduced by the Finance Act, 2022 does not apply retrospectively to the 2016-17 assessment year. No substantial question of law was identified.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-3 VS ESYS INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES LTD [ITA-898/2018]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax-3 was dismissed. The first issue regarding the treatment of the Foreign Associate Enterprise (Foreign AE) as a tested party for Arm's Length Price (ALP) determination did not arise, as the Foreign AE was not included as a tested party. On the second issue, the decision upholding the claim for depreciation on R.S. 34,63,450 paid over the value of assets acquired from Nebula Technologies Pvt. Ltd. was agreed upon, as this amount represented an intangible asset (goodwill) eligible for depreciation, supported by precedent affirming goodwill as an intangible asset.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-3 VS ESYS INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES LTD [ITA-877/2018]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) to reject the Revenue's appeal for the assessment year 2005-06 was upheld. The ITAT aligned its decision with a previous ruling for the assessment year 2004-05, noting that the Revenue's arguments for 2005-06 mirrored those from the earlier year. No significant factual differences justified a different conclusion, leading to the dismissal of the appeal and the absence of a substantial question of law.

THE PRO COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-6 VS NUCLEUS STEEL PVT. LTD. [ITA-978/2018]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal confirmed the deletion of an addition under Section 68 of the Income Tax Act for R.S. 67.50 crores credited to Nucleus Steel Pvt. Ltd. The assessee satisfactorily explained the credit as an advance from Unitech Ltd. for land sale, with Unitech demonstrating creditworthiness. Despite irregular documentation regarding the agreement's stamp paper date, this flaw did not invalidate the explanation. Lower appellate authorities found the explanation satisfactory, leading to the dismissal of the Revenue's appeal.

VIVO MOBILE INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS CUSTOMS AUTHORITY FOR ADVANCE RULINGS & ANR. [CUSAA-24/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The "Integrated Circuit Micro Electro Mechanical System Microphones" imported by the appellant are classified under Customs Tariff Heading (CTH) 8518 as "Microphones and stands therefor," rather than CTH 8542 as an "Electronic Integrated Circuit." The product, which converts sound signals into electrical signals, retains its primary identity and function as a microphone despite containing MEMS sensor and ASIC components. The argument for classification as an "Electronic Integrated Circuit" was rejected based on Explanatory Notes to the Harmonized System of Nomenclature, which exclude standalone integrated circuits from the definition of "Multi-component Integrated Circuits." The product qualifies as a complete and tradable microphone unit, warranting classification under the specific heading CTH 8518.

MAJESTIC HANDICRAFT PRIVATE LIMITED VS DY. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CIRCLE -16(1) NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-15876/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Assessing Officer's decision to reopen the petitioner's assessment for the 2018-19 tax year under Section 148 of the Income Tax Act was upheld. Valid reasons were found for believing the petitioner's income had escaped assessment, based on information indicating that the petitioner's suppliers, Balaji Enterprises and Dev Sales Corporation, were potentially non-genuine and that their bank accounts showed signs of accommodation entries. At the notice issuance stage under Section 148A, a reasonable opinion regarding escaped assessment was sufficient, supported by the material at hand. The petitioner's claims will be addressed in later reassessment proceedings.

The project commencement date was established as 26.03.2016 when the site was handed over to MKEL, rather than 04.10.2015 as AAI claimed. AAI's argument that MKEL could not claim escalation under certain contract clauses was rejected, as the clauses in question were deemed distinct. Additionally, MKEL's claims were found to be timely, having been raised prior to the final bill submission. The Arbitral Tribunal's decision was upheld, with no evidence of patent illegality found in the award.

The argument that additional issues were decided beyond the contempt context was rejected. The Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 is a self-contained code, and the statutory remedy of appeal under Section 19 cannot be extended through Letters Patent Appeal. The appeal was dismissed as not maintainable.

DHARAMVIR & COMPANY VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-115/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The order from 07.04.2019 by the first arbitrator was deemed a procedural order, not establishing binding findings that prevented the substituted arbitral tribunal from rejecting the appellant's claim for Rs. 20,22,082/-. Although the delay in work completion was attributed to the respondent, the appellant's claim was dismissed due to failure to plead and prove actual losses resulting from the delay. The decision by the arbitral tribunal complied with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

FLOVEL HYDRO TECHNOLOGIES PVT LTD & ANR VS MECAMIDI S A [FAO(OS) (COMM)-202/2019]

FREEBIT AS VS EXOTIC MILE PRIVATE LIMTED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-15/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Freebit AS's application for interim relief against Exotic Mile Pvt Ltd for patent infringement was dismissed. Evidence showed Freebit misrepresented the status of its patent applications in other jurisdictions, which precluded equitable relief. Moreover, Exotic Mile raised a credible challenge to the validity of Freebit's patent, supported by international court decisions invalidating similar patents. Consequently, the appeal by Freebit was dismissed.

GAIL GAS LIMITED VS M/S OKAY GLASS INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-84/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision upheld the Arbitral Tribunal's rejection of GAIL Gas Limited's counterclaim for tampering charges against M/s OKAY Glass Industries Private Ltd. GAIL Gas Limited did not prove that the respondent tampered with the turbine flow meter used for measuring natural gas supply. The assessment of evidence by the Arbitral Tribunal was deemed reasonable, making it impermissible to re-evaluate the findings. The case was comparable to a prior decision involving GAIL Gas Limited, where a challenge to an arbitral award was also rejected.

GLOBAL VECTRA HELICORP LIMITED VS ASSESSMENT UNIT, NATIONAL FACELESS ASSESSMENT CENTRE, DELHI [W.P.(C)-5912/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

GTZ INDIA PVT. LTD. VS ARTEK SURFINS CHEMICALS LTD. & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-60/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Respondents established their rights over the alpha numerals as part of their registered trademarks. Arguments by GTZ regarding the commonality of the alpha numerals and the "proposed to use" status of trademark applications were rejected. Respondents were identified as prior users of the alpha numerals, which have acquired secondary meaning as source identifiers. GTZ's use of the same alpha numerals lacked reasonable explanation and constituted infringement and passing off. The decision to grant interim relief to the respondents was upheld without grounds for interference.

GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP. LTD. & ORS. VS INTERDIGITAL TECHNOLGY CORP. & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-47/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Defendants are not liable for the non-compliance of HSBC India and HSBC Paris with court directions, as these entities operate independently. The Global Bank Guarantees provided by defendants adequately secured plaintiffs' interests as per their counter offers. An offer for an unconditional bank guarantee from an Indian bank should have been accepted rather than a court deposit. Directions for HSBC India to appear were incorrect, as it was not involved in the Global Bank Guarantees. Pro tem orders should protect rather than penalize, maintaining defendants' position according to consent terms. Defendants are required to present an unconditional bank guarantee from an Indian public bank, covering 18.7% of the last counter offer plus 6% for interest, within 8 weeks; failure to do so will necessitate a deposit with the court registry.

GULJIT SINGH CHOPRA VS M/S FRENCH LEATHER FACTORY [RFA(COMM)-36/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Commercial Court decreed the suit against Guljit Singh Chopra, finding no merit in his defense regarding alleged defects in goods supplied by French Leather Factory, as there was no supporting documentary evidence and no effort to return the goods. Chopra's claim that the purchase order was made by another firm was dismissed, as he had admitted to placing the order in his written statement. The appeal and all pending applications were dismissed.

HERO FINCORP LTD VS M/S VIGYAN CHEMICALS PVT LTD & ORS [FAO(OS) (COMM)-287/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by Hero Fincorp Ltd was dismissed, upholding the Arbitral Tribunal's decision that Mr. Ayush Jain was not liable as a guarantor for the loan. The Tribunal concluded that Hero Fincorp Ltd failed to prove Mr. Jain executed the Deed of Guarantee, as his signature was disputed and he was not confronted with it during cross-examination. Additionally, it was noted that Hero Fincorp Ltd did not evaluate the financial capacity of the guarantors before accepting their guarantees, which is considered prudent practice for lenders. The findings on factual issues, including evidence assessment, are not subject to merits review under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

HOTEL CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD. VS INDUS TOWERS LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-77/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

ITL is entitled to remove its mobile towers and equipment from HCIL's premises, as the license agreements do not grant HCIL the right to expropriate ITL's assets or prevent their removal. The appointment of an arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties is upheld, and ITL is directed to begin dismantling and removing the equipment within 10 days, with HCIL ordered not to impede the process. The appointment of the arbitrator does not prevent the parties from seeking an amicable resolution.

IFFCO-TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS MR. SARDUL SINGH [RFA(COMM)-23/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Commercial Court's decision in favor of Mr. Sardul Singh for his insurance claim against IFFCO-Tokio General Insurance Co. Ltd. was upheld. The driver's temporary absence to seek water for an overheating truck was not deemed a "fundamental breach" of the insurance policy conditions. The insurer could not demonstrate negligence on the part of the respondent. The award included the insured value of the truck along with pre-suit and future interest, leading to the dismissal of IFFCO-Tokio's appeal.

INDIA INTERNATIONAL CENTRE VS MS. HEMA GUSAIN & ORS. & ORS. [FAO(OS)-104/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by the India International Centre (IIC) against the rejection of its application to dismiss Hema Gusain's plaint was dismissed. A prima facie reading of the plaint shows a valid cause of action for damages due to wrongful termination of employment. The argument that the plaint was barred by res judicata or Order XXIII was rejected, as the causes of action in HEMA's prior suits were distinct. It was not found that the plaint lacked a cause of action or was barred by law. The dismissal does not address the merits of the ongoing dispute.

INTERNATIONAL BREWERIES PVT LTD VS KALPANA INTERNATIONAL BREWERIES LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-15/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Arbitral Award directed the Appellant to refund a portion of the franchise fee and pay the admitted amount owed to the Respondent. The Arbitrator's interpretation of the contractual terms was deemed plausible, and the Respondent's claims were found to be within limitation due to the Appellant's acknowledgments. The Appellant's counter-claim was rejected based on the Arbitrator's factual findings supported by the evidence. Interference with the Arbitral Award was declined on grounds of not re-appreciating evidence.

JABIR HUSSAIN TRADING AS M/S HAKEEM HOTEL VS ALI ASGAR TRADING AS M/S. HAKEEM RESTAURANT [RFA(COMM)-88/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal was allowed, and the order returning the appellant's plaint was set aside. Territorial jurisdiction of the Commercial Court was established based on the appellant's apprehension regarding the respondent potentially opening a restaurant franchise within the jurisdiction. For determining jurisdiction under Order VII Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, only the averments in the plaint were considered without examining the respondent's defenses. The suit was restored for further proceedings in the Commercial Court.

JAI SINGH VS LT.GOVR. & ORS [W.P.(C)-2758/1987]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The discharge orders from 1988 and 2001 were deemed valid due to the petitioner's failure to disclose all relevant facts regarding the subject land. The petitioner did not file objections under Section 5A of the Land Acquisition Act and thus could not invoke benefits from the Balak Ram Gupta judgments that quashed acquisition proceedings for certain villages. Reliance was placed on a Supreme Court judgment stating that those who do not file Section 5A objections cannot claim benefits from quashing judgments. The petitioner's application was deemed misconceived, and costs of Rs. 25,000 were ordered to be paid to the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee.

JAIBHAGWAN VS SRIRAM FERTILILZERS AND CHEMICALS & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-86/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The disputes between the appellant and respondent no. 1 are covered by the arbitration agreement. The presence of respondent no. 2 does not obstruct referral to arbitration as the claims against the two respondents are distinct. The appellant can pursue a separate action against respondent no. 2 if it is otherwise valid.

JOGINDER PAL KAUR AND ANR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-687/2016]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petition challenging land acquisition under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 was dismissed on the grounds that the acquisition did not lapse under Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act. The respondent confirmed that possession of the land had been taken, countering the petitioners' claims of non-payment of compensation as a basis for lapse. Both conditions of possession not taken and compensation not paid must be met for an acquisition to lapse. Possession was confirmed, leading to dismissal of the petition, while allowing petitioners to pursue enhanced compensation through other legal remedies.

KAILASH CHAND GIAN CHAND JAIN VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (NORTHERN) [FAO(OS) (COMM)-300/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The application to set aside the arbitral award filed on June 1, 2022, is not considered non-existent due to the absence of a statement of truth. The application is deemed comprehensive and capable of adjudication, with the non-filing regarded as a curable defect. The prior dismissal of the application as barred by limitation has been overturned, allowing the case to be reviewed based on the merits of the delay in re-filing.

KAMDHENU DREAMZ & ANR. VS M/S DINA IRON AND STEEL LIMITED [FAO (COMM)-250/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal against the order returning the plaint for lack of territorial jurisdiction was allowed. The Commercial Court erred by considering the respondent's pleadings instead of focusing solely on the appellants' plaint. The evaluation for determining jurisdiction under Order VII Rule 10 differs from the considerations under Order XXXIX for interim relief. The prior order was set aside, and the respondent's application under Order XXXIX Rule 4 was reinstated for further proceedings in the Commercial Court.

KARAM CHAND THAPAR & BROS CS LTD VS NATIONAL HYDROELECTRIC POWER CORPORATION LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-340/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appellant's claims were not barred by limitation, as the cause of action arose on 04.09.1995 when the appellant quantified its claims and NHPC failed to respond. NHPC's argument that the claims were barred from the date of floods on 10.09.1992 was rejected since the final bill had not been prepared and the contract was ongoing. NHPC's challenge to the interim award on the limitation issue was considered time-barred due to not being raised within the prescribed period. The impugned judgment was set aside, and the appeal was allowed.

KASHMIR HARVARD EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE VS PRESIDENT AND FELLOWS OF HARVARD COLLEGE [FAO(OS) (COMM)-75/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by the Kashmir Harvard Educational Institute against an arbitral award in favor of the President and Fellows of Harvard College was dismissed. The complainant established rights in the 'HARVARD' trademark, and the appellant's use of the domain name <www.kashmirharvard.edu.in> was deemed likely to cause confusion and demonstrated bad faith. Arguments regarding violations of natural justice, the maintainability of the complaint under the INDRP, and conflicts with Indian public policy were rejected.

KULBHUSHAN SACHDEV VS ICICI BANK LIMITED & ANR. [RFA(COMM)-288/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

ICICI Bank's judgment and decree in a suit against Kulbhushan Sachdev was upheld. The suit was not barred by limitation, with the cause of action arising from a Loan Recall Notice issued on 20.02.2021. The application to implead Sachdev was timely, as the relevant limitation period was adjusted according to the Supreme Court's order. The claim of an excess amount by the bank was unsupported by the appellant's assertions, with the bank's statement of account validating its claims. Kulbhushan Sachdev was identified as a co-borrower, not a guarantor, thus establishing his liability for the loan amount.

LIBRA ASSOCIATES VS DABUR INDIA LIMITED [FAO (COMM)-255/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by Libra Associates was allowed, reversing the Commercial Court's rejection of the application for condonation of delay in filing a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The delay was deemed reasonable due to the time taken to obtain a second legal opinion and heavy rainfall in Delhi. It was clarified that the limitation period under Section 34(3) is three calendar months, not ninety days. The order of the Commercial Court was set aside, and the petition was restored for consideration on its merits.

LOREAL INDIA PVT LTD VS RAJESH KUMAR TANEJA TRADING AS INNOVATIVE DERMA CARE AND ANR [RFA(OS)(IPD)-2/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal to cancel the trademark "CLARIWASH" was rejected due to insufficient evidence that it was identical or deceptively similar to the appellant's trademarks, such as CLARI-FI and CLARIMOIST. The trademarks were deemed not deceptively similar based on the whole mark, not individual components. At the time of the application, the appellant did not establish a family of CLARI formative trademarks, and the respondent's use of CLARIWASH seemed to predate the appellant's adoption of its marks.

M/S ALMASS INDIA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [RFA(OS)(COMM)-7/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by M/s Almass India, an unregistered partnership firm, against the order rejecting its suit for recovery was dismissed. The suit was deemed not maintainable under Section 69(2) of the Indian Partnership Act because it was based on a contract entered into by the firm. The argument that the suit was based on common law rather than the contract was found to have no merit.

M/S DEWAN CHAND VS KRISHAK BHARATI COOPERATIVE LIMITED (KRIBHCO) [FAO(OS) (COMM)-312/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by M/S Dewan Chand against the arbitral award was dismissed. The claim for interest on retention money was rejected, as the retention was to be released only upon completion of delayed works. The decision of the Arbitral Tribunal was based on sound reasoning and did not exhibit any patent illegality.

M/S EARTHCON CONSTRUCTIONS PVT. LTD. VS M/S MAHAMAYA INFRABUILD PVT. LTD. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-98/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

ECPL's application to set aside the consent award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was not maintainable. The time spent on previous petitions under Sections 11, 14, and 15 could not be excluded as they did not seek the same relief. ECPL's pursuit of these petitions lacked bona fides and due diligence, especially after entering into a settlement agreement. Even when excluding the 141 days, the Section 34 application remained barred by limitation. The appeal and application were dismissed, with costs of R.S. 1,00,000 awarded to MIPL.

M/S EXOTIC BUILDCON PVT LTD VS M/S MEDORS BIOTECH PVT LTD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR SH. R. C. SHARMA [FAO (COMM)-40/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal against the arbitral award was dismissed, as the respondent company's name being struck off from the Register of Companies did not invalidate the award, given that proceedings started prior to the strike-off and the company could seek restoration. However, a calculation error in the awarded amount was acknowledged, resulting in a reduction of that amount.

M/S FINE GREEN CONSTRUCTIONS PVT. LTD VS RAIL LAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-112/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by M/s Fine Green Constructions Pvt. Ltd. against the rejection of its application under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The termination of the lease agreement with the Rail Land Development Authority and non-payment of lease rentals limited the appellant to a monetary claim only. There were no grounds to prevent the respondents from taking over possession of the site, as the appellant's actions effectively terminated its rights under the lease agreement.

M/S INTER DECOR INCORPORATION VS M/S BRAJ BHOOMI TIMBERS [RFA(COMM)-36/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The respondent is entitled to recover R.S. 18,71,839/- from the appellant, along with interest at 8% per annum. The appellant could not prove that the payments were made in cash, and the signatures on the submitted documents were deemed not genuine. The Commercial Court had territorial jurisdiction because the invoices were issued from the respondent's office in Delhi and payments were to be received there.

M/S JAIPRAKASH ASSOCIATES LIMITED VS M/S IRCON INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-348/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

Expenditure incurred by the contractor on maintenance of bank guarantees, insurance policies, and interest on advances is considered part of the "mobilization etc." costs and is reimbursable under the contract. The exclusion of these financial costs from the award was rejected. The deletion of pendente lite interest and reduction of post-award interest rate by the lower court was deemed erroneous. The original arbitral award has been restored.

M/S MACNEILL ENGINEERING LTD VS SMT. SHARMILA GOEL, [RFA(COMM)-246/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by M/s Macneill Engineering Ltd against the judgment for recovery of rent arrears filed by Smt. Sharmila Goel was dismissed. The delay in filing the appeal was not satisfactorily explained, exceeding the prescribed period without exceptional circumstances. The appellant had multiple opportunities to defend the suit but failed to do so adequately, missing several chances to present a defense witness. The last-minute request to defer proceedings for additional evidence was rejected, as ample opportunity had been given. The appeal was dismissed on both delay and merit grounds.

M/S OTTIMO VISUALS VS M/S ESSEL HOUSING PVT LTD [FAO (COMM)-19/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by M/S Ottimo Visuals against an arbitral award favoring M/S Essel Housing Pvt Ltd was dismissed. The grounds for challenging the award were found to be insubstantial. M/S Ottimo Visuals was required to pay rent and surrender possession of the leased premises after termination of the lease, which it failed to do. The existence of a pending suit and an application under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act did not prevent the arbitral proceedings. Additionally, any dispute involving the Essel Tower Resident Welfare Association did not relieve M/S Ottimo Visuals of its lease obligations. The appeal was dismissed with costs.

M/S PAISALO DIGITAL LIMITED VS M/S SUN CORP AND ORS [FAO (COMM)-33/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The unilateral appointment of a sole arbitrator by the appellant, without the respondents' agreement, was deemed invalid. The respondents' counterclaim of Rs. 2 crores, rejected by the arbitral tribunal, influenced the assessment of pecuniary jurisdiction. The commercial court lacked jurisdiction under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as the total value of the claim and counterclaim surpassed its limits. The judges agreed on the key legal issues, with no referral to a larger bench, indicating the case was individual rather than a batch matter.

M/S PCC INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [FAO (COMM)-11/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Arbitral Tribunal's interpretation of Clause 10CA of the General Conditions of Contract regarding price variation for cement was deemed plausible. The Tribunal rejected PCC Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd.'s claim to use the base price and index from the Zonal Chief Engineer, CPWD for the South Zone, ruling that the price indices from the Director General, CPWD were applicable per the contract terms. This decision was upheld by the Commercial Court, with no grounds for interference identified.

M/S PLUS91 SECURITY SOLUTIONS VS NEC CORPORATION INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED ERSTWHILE NEC TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-36/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The arbitral award in favor of Plus91 was set aside due to patent illegality. The interpretation of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) was incorrect, as it did not require NEC to issue purchase orders for the AAI project. Additionally, the award of damages for loss of profits was contrary to the MOU's terms, which explicitly prohibited liability for loss of revenue or profit. A contractual clause limiting liability is a fundamental part of the agreement and cannot be overlooked.

M/S SENVISAGE VS M/S SAK BUILDTECH PVT LTD AND ORS [FAO (COMM)-129/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision to set aside the arbitral award was upheld because the sole arbitrator was appointed unilaterally by the appellant without the respondent's consent, violating the arbitration agreement. The agreement did not allow for unilateral appointment, and the appellant was required to apply under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of an arbitrator.

M/S SUPER SMELTERS LIMITED VS RAMESH JINDAL [FAO (COMM)-114/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by M/S Super Smelters Limited against the dismissal of its application to recall an ex-parte decree was allowed. The Commercial Court had erred by not considering Supreme Court orders that extended the limitation period due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The ex-parte decree and the impugned order were set aside, requiring the appellant to file its written statement within 30 days, and restoring the suit for further proceedings.

M/S TRINITY CONSULTANTS VS M/S REDEFINE ONLINE EXPRESS (OPC) PRIVATE LIMITED [RFA(COMM)-291/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The termination of the Leave and License Agreement by Redefine Online Express was deemed invalid as the force majeure clause was not properly invoked and the COVID-19 pandemic did not make performance impossible. Trinity Consultants was entitled to the license fee for the remaining three-month lock-in period. As Trinity was a registered partnership firm, their claim was upheld. Redefine was ordered to pay R.S. 18,00,000/- for the remaining three months, R.S. 1,47,300/- for undeposited TDS, and R.S. 8,53,482/- for the period before termination, subtracting the security deposit of R.S. 24,00,000/-. Redefine was to pay an additional amount of R.S. 4,00,782/- with 12% interest per annum.

M/S. BERKELEY LIFESTYLE BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. VS M/S. RAJ BUILDERS PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-16/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Arbitral Tribunal's interpretation of the force majeure clause in the lease deeds was deemed reasonable, concluding that the COVID-19 outbreak did not render the premises unfit for use and that possession was not properly handed over by the appellants. The Tribunal's acceptance of Raj Builders Pvt. Ltd.'s argument regarding the inability to lease the floors separately due to access issues was supported by evidence. Additionally, the assessment of damages for the lock-in period, limited to 6 months' rent, was consistent with established principles and not considered illegal. The appeal by the appellants was dismissed, along with costs.

M/S. SAMRAT CONSTRUCTIONS COMPANY VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO (COMM)-149/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appellant's appeal was successful, leading to the reversal of the Commercial Court's judgment that rejected the petition to set aside an arbitral award. The petition was deemed timely as it was filed within the extended 90-day period. The arbitral award was identified as lacking proper reasoning, particularly regarding the respondent's counter-claim, resulting in its annulment and the case being sent back for fresh consideration by the arbitral tribunal.

M/SMALT AND LEAF HOSPITALITY PVT. LTD. VS M/S AGGARWAL HOTELS PVT. LTD. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-90/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The majority decision of the Arbitral Tribunal was upheld regarding Malt and Leaf Hospitality Pvt. Ltd.'s rent obligations. The Tribunal clarified that the lease pertained only to the built-up structure on 1000 square meters of land, which remained intact despite the demolition of an adjacent structure. Consequently, the appellant is required to pay the full lease rent as outlined in the Lease Agreement. The interpretation of the Lease Agreement by the Tribunal was deemed plausible, with no grounds for interference.

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision of the learned Single Judge was upheld, allowing the respondent's appeal against the Examiner's rejection of the device mark registration. The device mark was not lacking distinctive character under Sections 9(1)(a) and 9(1)(b) of the Trade Marks Act. An initial objection under Section 11(1), mentioned by the Examiner but not addressed, necessitated remittance to the Examiner for consideration. The objections under Sections 9(1)(a) and 9(1)(b) were declared non-existent, and the Examiner was instructed to expedite the application processing.

MEIDEN T AND D INDIA LIMITED (FORMELY PRIME MEIDEN LIMITED) VS PCI LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-78/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The impugned arbitral award was upheld, rejecting Meiden's challenges. The Arbitral Tribunal concluded that Meiden's set-off claims were not linked to the Service Facility Agreement and were non-arbitrable. PCI was awarded unpaid service and utility charges, adjusted for a period of denied access to the premises. PCI's claim for higher interest under the MSMED Act was also dismissed, as arbitration was not referenced under that Act.

METENUO KECHU ALSO KNOWN AS PREETI VS DIVISHT KAUSHIK & ANR [RFA(COMM)-53/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The decision granted a decree of possession of the property to the landlords against the tenant. The tenant admitted to the landlord-tenant relationship and acknowledged the termination of tenancy through a legal notice, failing to present a credible defense for retaining possession. Arguments regarding the maintainability of the suit due to non-compliance with pre-litigation mediation were rejected since the tenant did not raise this objection earlier. Additionally, the claim that a prior order allowing reduced rent precluded judgment on admissions was dismissed due to lack of evidence of compliance. The tenant had also undertaken to vacate the property by a specific date, which cannot be rescinded now.

MOHD AMIN DECEASED THROUGH LRS VS MOHD IQBAL DECEASED THROUGH LRS [FAO(OS) (COMM)-81/2024]

MR. RAKESH KALIA VS MR. SANJAY KUMAR VYAS [FAO (COMM)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The majority arbitral award was upheld despite the recusal of one arbitrator a day before its pronouncement. Under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, a valid arbitral award can be made by a majority, even if one member dissents or recuses. The majority complied with the Act in issuing the award, and the absence of the third arbitrator's signature did not invalidate it. A dissenting opinion is not considered an arbitral award, making the majority's decision binding on the parties.

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Arbitral Tribunal's partial award concluded that the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) lacked the contractual authority to grant "provisional" extensions of time to the contractor for a construction project. The agreement stipulated that MCD could either provide a fair and reasonable extension of time or declare the contractor ineligible. The interpretation of the contract by the Arbitral Tribunal was deemed plausible. Regarding the issue of liquidated damages, it was clarified that this would be examined independently by the Arbitral Tribunal, unaffected by prior observations. The ground of "patent illegality" was not applicable due to the nature of international commercial arbitration.

The interpretation relied on a contextual reading of the clause rather than a literal reading that could conflict with public policy. The Arbitral Tribunal's interpretation was deemed plausible and unchallengeable. Additionally, the modifications to the award of damages and interest were invalidated as they did not conflict with Indian public policy.

The DDA's counter-claim for unpaid fees and service tax was considered, with the Tribunal noting that the DDA could not charge for the entire site given partial encroachment, although Kumar did not demonstrate the exact extent of encroachment. The DDA acknowledged that 25% of the site was encroached. S.P. MEDIRATTA & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [LPA-904/2013]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The Central Government's decision to exclude retired employees of the Central Silk Board from the Central Government Health Scheme is a reasonable policy choice that does not infringe upon their rights under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution. Employees of autonomous bodies like the CSB cannot expect equal treatment with government employees, and resource constraints and the need to manage the CGHS are valid considerations for this decision. Interference in such financial policy decisions is unwarranted unless demonstrated to be arbitrary.

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal was partially allowed regarding a permanent injunction. The flying eagle device in the appellants' trademark was deemed similar to the respondents' registered trademark, but the prominent "Raiko" mark made it distinct. The "anti-dissection" rule was applied, considering the trademark as a whole. There was no clear finding that the appellants' trademark would lead to confusion or passing off, as only a possibility was noted with the eagle device alone. Consequently, the award of costs to the respondents was set aside, while the injunction against the appellants remained in place since they had abandoned the trademark and withdrawn their registration application.

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The defendant bank cannot recover a prepayment penalty of R.S. 1,51,38,600 or processing fees of R.S. 17,25,000 from the plaintiff. There was no consensus on renewing the credit facilities, and the plaintiff withdrew the renewal request before finalizing any contract. As a result, the repayment of the facilities is not considered premature, and the processing fees were improperly recovered. The plaintiff is awarded interest on the amounts wrongfully obtained.

TARUN BABBAR VS ASHA RAM SONS PVT LTD [RFA(COMM)-269/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The claim of Asha Ram & Sons Pvt. Ltd. for recovery of R.S. 7,10,320/- from Tarun Babbar was upheld. The defendant admitted to owing this amount and failed to prove the goods supplied were defective. TELECOMMUNICATION CONSULTANTS INDIA LTD (TCIL) VS NGBPS LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-171/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by Telecommunication Consultants India Ltd (TCIL) against an arbitral award in favor of NGBPS Ltd was dismissed due to its filing 118 days after the deadline. TCIL failed to provide a credible explanation for the delay, offering only vague references to internal discussions and administrative processes. The significant delay, nearly double the permitted period for filing, was not justifiable under the law, leading to the dismissal of both the application for condonation of delay and the appeal itself.

THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF POLICE VS SCORE INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-357/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The arbitral award required the Deputy Commissioner of Police to pay 40% of the costs for CCTV equipment supplied by Score Information Technologies Ltd. The equipment was supplied, but installation was halted due to the illegal termination of the contract by the Deputy Commissioner. Damages were awarded under Section 21 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963, despite the absence of a specific prayer for this relief from the Respondent. The interpretation of the contract terms and the decision to award the payment were deemed not patently illegal or against public policy, thus not subject to interference.

THE NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS M/S DS TOLL ROAD PVT LTD THROUGH DIRECTOR/MANAGING DIRECTOR [FAO(OS) (COMM)-3/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) against an arbitral award favoring D.S. Toll Road Pvt. Ltd. (DTRL) was dismissed. The issue centered on the interpretation of specific sub-clauses in the Concession Agreement. The arbitral tribunal awarded DTRL compensation for delays in land handover that exceeded the specified amounts in the agreement. NHAI contended that compensation should be confined to those amounts, but the tribunal's interpretation allowing for additional compensation was considered plausible. Additional challenges by NHAI regarding the compensation quantum were also rejected. The arbitral award favoring DTRL was upheld.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS K.C. (KAILASH CHAND) BELWAL & ORS. [LPA-226/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The respondents, similarly situated to the petitioners in W.P.(C) No.1915/2000, are entitled to the same pay revision benefits. Arguments regarding the error of the previous order and claims of delay were rejected, and there was no justification to deny the respondents the benefit. The appeal by the Union of India and another was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH GENERAL MANAGER NORTHERN RAILWAY AND ORS VS SANOJ KUMAR MODI [FAO (COMM)-56/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by the Union of India to set aside an arbitral award was dismissed due to being filed beyond the 3-month limitation period under Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The delay exceeded the 30-day extension allowed by the proviso to Section 34(3). The argument that the limitation period should start from the date of receiving a legal opinion rather than the award date was rejected, emphasizing that internal approval processes cannot extend the limitation period.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S DISTRIBUTION LOGISTICS INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-28/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal by the Union of India was dismissed due to a delay of 755 days in refiling an application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The delay was not supported by credible reasons, and past judgments indicated that such delays cannot be condoned liberally. The requirement for a refiled petition to be treated as a new institution beyond the permitted time was emphasized, along with the lack of proper affidavit support for the condonation of delay.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S MAHESH EDIBLE OIL INDUSTRIES LTD [FAO (COMM)-82/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The appeal filed by the Union of India against the rejection of its application to set aside an arbitral award was dismissed. The application was deemed beyond the 3-month limitation period set by Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, and the delay exceeded the 30-day period allowed for condonation. The argument regarding the exclusion of time spent on a prior petition was not sufficient to establish that the application was timely, leading to the conclusion that it was barred by limitation.

UNION OF INDIA VS RCCIVL-LITL (JOINT VENTURE) [FAO(OS) (COMM)-197/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The arbitral award was upheld, indicating that DGMAP had sufficient opportunity to present its case and that the denial of a request for additional oral submissions was within procedural discretion. The rejection of DGMAP's belated final bill was deemed reasonable due to insufficient evidence, while the acceptance of the respondent's final bill was also upheld. No material inconsistencies regarding escalation amounts were found, and the award was deemed free from patent illegality, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

V.R. INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LTD. VS RAJESH KEJRIWAL [FAO (COMM)-20/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The interim injunction restraining V.R. Industries from using the trademark "GOLDEN GATE" was upheld, confirming that Chemical Centre (India) was the prior user of the trademark since 2007. V.R. Industries' use starting in 2009 constituted trademark infringement. Arguments about non-use by Chemical Centre, delays in action, and suppression of facts were rejected. Protection of registered trademark rights and public interest in preventing consumer confusion were highlighted. The appeal against the interim injunction order was dismissed.

VANDANA YADAV & ANR. VS DEEPA [FAO (COMM)-241/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The dispute between the parties qualifies as a commercial dispute under the Commercial Courts Act 2015, as the appellants operated a gym and fitness center on the property. The claim that no commercial dispute existed and that there was a lack of jurisdiction was rejected. The appellants' assertion of having paid R.S. 20,00,000 as a security deposit, intended for adjustment against rent, lacked documentary evidence. Consequently, the appellants were instructed to deposit monthly rent of R.S. 25,000, including arrears, within one week. Additionally, a cost of R.S. 50,000 was imposed due to the weak argument regarding the nature of the dispute and the unsupported claim about the payment.

VED PRAKSH VS LAND ACQUISITION COLLECTOR [W.P.(C)-13872/2021]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The petitioners' land was acquired, but they did not receive notice under Section 12(2) of the Land Acquisition Act. After learning of the award, they filed a reference under Section 18, which the Land Acquisition Collector (LAC) rejected as time-barred. The issue centered on whether the LAC could decide on the limitation question. It was concluded that the Reference Court should determine the limitation based on when the petitioners became aware of their entitlement to compensation. The rejection by the LAC was set aside, and the reference was directed to be forwarded to the relevant court for a decision on limitation.

WIPRO ENTERPRISES PRIVATE LIMITED VS HIMALAYA WELLNESS COMPANY & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-145/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

An interim injunction was granted in favor of the respondents due to a prima facie case of passing off against the appellant for using the identical "EVECARE" mark, despite the appellant's trademark being registered in a different class. The classification under the Trade Marks Act was deemed insufficient, with emphasis placed on the nature, end users, and method of use of the goods. The appellant, as the junior user of the identical mark, did not satisfactorily explain its adoption of the same mark.

YASHODA SUPER SPECIALTY HOSPITALS & ANR. VS YASHODA HOSPITAL AND RESEARCH CENTER LIMITED & ANR. [LPA-837/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The order of the Intellectual Property Appellate Board (IPAB) allowing the appellants' rectification petition for the removal of the respondent's registered trademark was set aside due to a violation of principles of natural justice. The IPAB did not comply with its own directive to issue a fresh notice to the respondent, who was not given a chance to contest the rectification petition. The rectification petition is to be heard afresh by the IPAB.

YASHPAL SINH JADEJA VS ALL INDIA COUNCIL FOR TECHNICAL EDUCATION (AICTE) & ANR. [LPA-535/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju, Justice Vibhu Bakhru

The writ petition challenging the AICTE's public notice on recognition of equivalence for technical courses was dismissed. The issues raised were already addressed in a prior Supreme Court decision, which clarified that the power to declare qualifications as equivalent rests solely with AICTE. The argument for extending the equivalence recognition deadline beyond 31.05.2013 based on a stay order was rejected, as the Supreme Court had limited relief to students enrolled before that date. The claim of discrimination for students enrolled after 31.05.2013 was also dismissed, given that the MHRD lacked authority to grant equivalence. Further directions sought by the appellant were not granted, affirming the finality of the previous judgment.
