DELHI HIGH COURT

Annual Digest

2024 www.askjunior.ai

ABOUT US

ASK JUNIOR is a technology-driven solution designed to help court-going lawyers manage their demanding workloads. Our mission is to reduce the burden of repetitive tasks, allowing legal professionals to focus on strategic casework and courtroom preparation. We offer AI-powered tools that automate and streamline routine legal processes, such as reviewing judgments, organizing timelines, and ensuring confidentiality through secure redactions.

Data Privacy and Security

At ASK JUNIOR, your data is secure, private, and exclusively yours. We prioritize privacy and implement robust measures to ensure your information is protected:

- Privacy First: You have full control over your data, with no sharing, selling, or use for AI training.
- Top-Notch Security: We employ end-to-end encryption, certified secure servers, and conduct regular audits to maintain the highest security standards.
- Built for Confidentiality: Features like automated redaction and case-specific access ensure sensitive information remains protected.
- Transparency: Our clear policies outline how your data is handled, so you always know where your information stands.

Quick Reference Table

Judges	Single Bench Judgments Authored	Page No. (Single Judge Bench)	Judgments Authored in a Division Bench	Page No. (Division Bench)
Justice Amit Bansal	64	1 - 12	41	1150 - 1191
Justice Amit Mahajan	244	12 - 58	08	1191 - 1195
Justice Amit Sharma	32	58 - 64	17	1195 - 1220
Justice Anish Dayal	85	64 - 80	**-	-
Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta	507	80 - 164	5	1220 - 1232
Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani	43	164 - 172	**-	-
Justice C. Hari Shankar	372	173 - 241	136	1232 - 1248
Justice Chandra Dhari Singh	72	241 - 254	**-	-
Justice Dharmesh Sharma	364	255 - 320	12	1262 - 1268
Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma	60	320 - 331	**-	-
Justice Girish Kathpalia	61	331 - 342	18	1269 - 1292
Justice Jasmeet Singh	77	342 - 357	**-	-
Justice Jyoti Singh	171	357 -389	**-	-
Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora	116	389 - 410	21	1293 - 1294
Justice Manmohan	-	-	389	1075 - 1149
Justice Manoj Jain	510	411 - 495	27	1294 - 1322
Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri	134	495 - 518	**-	-
Justice Mini Pushkarna	196	518 - 552	13	1323
Justice Navin Chawla	242	553 - 595	262	1323 - 1369
Justice Neena Bansal Krishna	610	595 - 705	25	1370 - 1378
Justice Prateek Jalan	66	705 -717	**-	-
Justice Prathiba M. Singh	191	718 - 754	110	1379
Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav	62	754 - 765	30	1379 - 1391
Justice Rajiv Shakdher	2	765	201	1392 - 1393
Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar	23	766 - 769	**-	-
Justice Ravinder Dudeja	24	769 - 774	45	1407 - 1493
Justice Rekha Palli	2	774	202	1493 - 1520
Justice Sachin Datta	327	774 - 834	3	1520 - 1546
Justice Sanjeev Narula	131	834 - 860	1	1546

Quick Reference Table

Judges	Single Bench Judgments Authored	Page No. (Single Judge Bench)	Division Bench Judgments Authored	Page No. (Division Bench)
Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva	1	860	350	1547
Justice Saurabh Banerjee	18	860 - 864	62	1547 - 1575
Justice Shalinder Kaur	104	864 - 881	44	1575 - 1577
Justice Subramonium Prasad	285	881 - 932	**-	-
Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain	57	933 - 943	**-	-
Justice Suresh Kumar Kait	-	-	41	1278 - 1290
Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma	288	943 - 994	4	1578 - 1593
Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju	143	994 - 1019	23	1593 - 1620
Justice Tushar Rao Gedela	170	1020 - 1051	18	1247 - 1262
Justice Vibhu Bakhru	-	-	370	1191 - 1194
Justice Vikas Mahajan	119	1051 - 1072	**-	-
Justice V. Kameswar Rao	-	-	153	1406 - 1575
Justice Yashwant Varma	2	1073	95	1380 - 1493
Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora	-	-	22	1082-1128
Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela	-	-	3	1136 - 1149
Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher	-	-	3	1189
Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Neena Bansal Krishna	-	-	1	1197
Justice Amit Sharma, Justice Prathiba M. Singh	-	-	1	1209
Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta, Justice C. Hari Shankar	-	-	2	1223 - 1224
Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Girish Kathpalia	-	-	1	1233
Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Manoj Jain	-	-	1	1234

Quick Reference Table

Judges	Single Bench Judgments Authored	Page No. (Single Judge Bench)	Division Bench Judgments Authored	Page No. (Division Bench)
Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Shalinder Kaur	-	-	1	1235
Justice C. Hari Shankar, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain	-	-	3	1238 -1245
Justice Dharmesh Sharma, Justice Yashwant Varma	-	-	1	1267
Justice Girish Kathpalia, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait	-	-	87	1272 - 1291
Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain	-	-	2	1297 - 1322
Justice Manoj Jain, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait	-	-	132	1297
Justice Neena Bansal Krishna, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait	-	-	5	1374 - 1378
Justice Saurabh Banerjee, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait	-	-	1	1547
Justice Shalinder Kaur, Justice Suresh Kumar Kait	-	-	1	1575
Total Judgments	5975		2993
	8968

AKSHAY TANNA VS JOHN DOE & ORS. [CS(COMM)-92/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

A permanent injunction was granted in favor of the plaintiff, a prominent figure in the investment and private equity sector, against defendants who impersonated him and misused his name, photograph, and reputation on social media and messaging platforms. The defendants' actions violated the plaintiff's personality rights and goodwill, aimed to defraud and mislead the public. Social media platforms Telegram and Meta were directed to remove or block the impersonating accounts. The second defendant's failure to respond resulted in the closure of his right to contest the suit.

AKTIEBOLAGET VOLVO & ORS. VS LAMINA SUSPENSION PRODUCTS LIMITED [CS(COMM)-152/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

A summary judgment favored the plaintiffs (Volvo companies) in a trademark infringement case against Lamina Suspension Products Limited. The defendant is prohibited from using the 'VOLVO' or 'FMX' trademarks on its leaf spring products and must instead use alternative descriptive terms. For promotional materials, the defendant is required to include the phrases "adapted to be used in VOLVO FMX 400" and "We have no trade connection with Volvo." Additionally, the defendant must pay INR 500,000 for damages and costs.

ALKEM LABORATORIES LTD VS SCOTT EDIL PHARMACIA LTD & ANR. [CS(COMM)-345/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Alkem Laboratories Ltd. established a case of trademark and copyright infringement, and passing off against Scott Edil Pharmacia Ltd. and another due to their use of the nearly identical trademark "ZUMO" and similar trade dress. A permanent injunction was issued to restrain the defendants from using the impugned mark or any similar mark. Damages and costs of INR 5,00,000 were awarded to the plaintiff, as the defendants did not file a written statement or appear in response to the summons. Their failure to engage in the proceedings led to the imposition of costs and aggravated damages.

BOEHRINGER INGELHEIM VETMEDICA GMBH VS THE CONTROLLER OF PATENTS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-225/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The Controller's order rejecting the patent application for "Containers for Compositions Comprising Meloxicam" due to lack of novelty and inventive step was set aside. The Controller did not sufficiently address the appellant's submissions that distinguished the prior art from the claimed invention. It was emphasized that there needs to be an analysis of existing knowledge and the perspective of a skilled person regarding the inventiveness of the claimed invention over prior art. The matter requires fresh consideration by the Patent Office, incorporating the appellant's submissions.

BOSTON IVY HEALTHCARE SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S ACCORD MEDICAL PRODUCTS PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-24/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendant's use of the 'MEDICALBAZZAR' mark infringed the plaintiff's registered 'MEDIKABAZAAR' trademarks due to phonetic, visual, and conceptual similarities. The defendant also copied the plaintiff's website design and color scheme, demonstrating malafide intent to mislead consumers and exploit the plaintiff's goodwill. A permanent injunction was granted in favor of the plaintiff.

CANDICO (I) LIMITED VS T.R. KOHLI, TRADING AS T.R. KOHLI AND SONS AND ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-107/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The order of the Deputy Registrar of Trade Marks refusing registration of the trademark "JUMBO GUMBO" for confectionery products was set aside. The pending trademark application for "JUMBO" by the respondent was deemed abandoned, indicating a lack of interest. The appellant had used the "JUMBO GUMBO" mark extensively since 1996 with substantial sales, establishing rights over the mark. The Trade Marks Registry is directed to proceed with the registration of the "JUMBO GUMBO" trademark for the appellant.

CASTROL LIMITED VS VIVEK SEN, TRADING AS TRIDEV AUTO PARTS & ANR. [CS(COMM)-32/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

UP Oil Traders infringed the plaintiff's registered trademarks 'CASTROL' and similar marks, as well as the plaintiff's copyrights over product packaging. The use of the marks 'CRISTOL' and 'CRISTOL ACTIV', along with a similar color scheme and layout, led to trademark and copyright infringement. A permanent injunction was granted in favor of the plaintiff, with damages and costs awarded totaling Rs. 7,00,000 against UP Oil Traders.

CITY GLASS AND GLAZING PVT LTD VS OZONE OVERSEAS PVT LTD [CS(COMM)-247/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The plaintiff's application to file additional documents, including original invoices and bank statements, was granted to address the defendant's objections regarding discrepancies in previously submitted invoices. These documents are relevant for the case and do not prejudice the defendant. The acceptance of the documents does not confirm their genuineness, allowing the defendant to object to their validity. Additionally, the delay in filing the replication was condoned, and the matter is scheduled for further hearing on the additional documents.

COMVIVA TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS & DESIGN [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-492/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The order of the Assistant Controller of Patents and Designs was set aside, establishing that Comviva Technologies Limited's patent application is not classified as a 'business method' or 'computer programme per se' under Section 3(k) of the Patents Act, 1970. The invention pertains to a secure, token-based authentication system for electronic payment transactions that solves a technical problem, emphasizing a multi-component design that enhances security. The terms 'payment', 'transactions', and 'financial transaction' in the application do not qualify the invention as a 'business method'. The Patent Office is directed to proceed with the patent grant, subject to any other objections per the Patents Act.

CROSSFIT, LLC VS MOHAN LAL SIRVI [CS(COMM)-835/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendant had no real prospect of successfully defending the plaintiff's claims for damages and costs. The defendant applied for registration of the infringing mark "CROSS FIT" on a "proposed to be used" basis but had already started using it, indicating mala fide intention to capitalize on the plaintiff's well-known "CrossFit" trademark. Given the defendant's contradictory and infringing conduct, a cumulative sum of Rs. 5,00,000/- was awarded towards damages and costs.

DABUR INDIA LIMITED VS MS USHA PROPRIETOR OF RS INDUSTRIES & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-85/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The trademark 'GABUR' is confusingly similar to the well-known trademark 'DABUR,' which has been in use since 1884. The similarity is likely to cause market confusion and exploits the goodwill and reputation of the petitioner. The registration of the 'GABUR' trademark is ordered to be removed.

DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF GST INTELLIGENCE VS CHIRAG GOEL [CRL.M.C.-2792/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The provisions of Section 438 CrPC (anticipatory bail) are applicable due to the arrest of a co-accused, creating a genuine apprehension of arrest. Evidence indicated that Chirag Goel and Chaman Goel were involved in a serious economic offense concerning GST evasion of approximately Rs. 200 crores, with both being beneficiaries of fraudulent Input Tax Credit. Chaman Goel also violated bail conditions by attempting to flee the country. The nature and gravity of the offenses led to the conclusion that granting anticipatory bail was unjustified, resulting in the cancellation of the previously granted bail.

DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF GST INTELLIGENCE VS JITENDER KUMAR [CRL.M.C.-4528/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The anticipatory bail granted to Jitender Kumar was upheld, as the judgment in the Choodamani Parmeshwaran Iyer case does not apply retrospectively. Jitender Kumar was not the main accused and had cooperated in the investigation by reversing Input Tax Credit of over ₹18 crores. The conditions of the bail require strict compliance, with the possibility of cancellation if he fails to respond to summons.

DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF GST INTELLIGENCE VS MANISH GOYAL [CRL.M.C.-881/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Regular bail was granted to Manish Goyal, with recognition that he acted under the direction of a co-accused and was not directly responsible for the firm's daily operations. The order cancelling his bail was set aside, but he was warned that failure to comply with DGGI's summons in the future could result in bail cancellation. No comments were made regarding the case's merits, focusing solely on the bail issue.

DRAKA COMTEQ B.V VS THE CONTROLLER OF PATENTS ,DESIGNS AND TRADEMARKS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-108/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The patent application for a "Multimode Fiber" invention was wrongly rejected by the patent office due to a lack of novelty and inventive step. The prior art document D3 did not disclose all features of the application, specifically the "depressed cladding" and the continuous variation in dopant concentration. The rejection order was set aside, and the matter was sent back for fresh consideration, as a more comprehensive analysis of the inventive step was needed.

DSC LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-414/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

A final three-month extension was granted to the sole arbitrator for rendering the arbitral award in the case between DSC Limited and the Union of India. The arbitration proceedings had been ongoing since 2018, with multiple extensions previously. The arbitrator sought an additional five-month extension due to health issues, but only a three-month extension was permitted, with a deadline set for July 22, 2024, after which no further extensions would be granted.

EVERGREEN SWEET HOUSE VS JV EVERGREEN SWEETS AND TREATS & ORS. [CS(COMM)-430/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
The plaintiff established a prima facie case of passing off against the defendant regarding the "Evergreen" trademark, which the plaintiff has used since 1963. The defendant's similar mark, "JV Evergreen Sweets & Treats," is likely to confuse customers. The claim that "Evergreen" is a generic term was rejected, as the defendant had registered the same mark. An interim injunction was granted, preventing the defendant from using the "Evergreen" mark and requiring the removal of such listings from online food delivery platforms.

FEDERATED HERMES LTD VS JOHN DOE & ORS. [CS(COMM)-454/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
Federated Hermes Ltd. established rights over the trademark "FEDERATED HERMES" and its logo through extensive use and reputation. Defendant John Doe misappropriated these trademarks by creating fraudulent WhatsApp groups, a website, and a mobile app that misled users. A permanent injunction was issued against John Doe, preventing unauthorized use of the plaintiff's name and marks. Decrees were also made against the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology and the Department of Telecommunications as per the plaintiff's requests, while the case against other defendants was not pursued since they complied with prior directions. John Doe did not contest the case.

FENA PRIVATE LTD VS BALWINDER KUMAR & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-300/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
Fena Private Ltd. successfully petitioned for the removal of the trademark 'NIPPU' (registration no. 3728776) from the Register of Trade Marks. The petitioner is the prior registered proprietor and user of the trademark 'NIP' since 1976. The similar use of 'NIPPU' is likely to cause confusion in the market, violating Section 11 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. The respondent did not contest the petition, leading to the cancellation of the impugned registration under Section 57 of the Act.

G4S LIMITED & ANR. VS GRACE SECURITY AND SERVICES & ORS. [CS(COMM)-845/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
G4S Limited and its Indian subsidiary experienced trademark infringement and passing off by the defendants, who used the 'GSS/జిజి' mark, which imitated the registered 'G4S' marks. This created confusion among consumers. The defendants did not contest the case and lacked a viable defense. A permanent injunction was issued against the use of the infringing marks, and the defendants were ordered to pay INR 500,000 in damages and costs.

GANESH GRAINS LTD. VS DHARMENDRA KUMAR GUPTA [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-591/2022]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
Ganesh Grains Ltd. is recognized as the prior adopter and first user of the "GANESH" trademark since 1936 for various food products. The registration of the similar trademark "GANESH HARA MATAR" by Dharmendra Kumar Gupta is likely to cause market confusion and violates Section 11(1)(b) of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. The lack of evidence for the use of the impugned mark resulted in the order for its removal from the register based on non-use under Section 47(1)(b) of the Act.

GAUTAM BHATIA VS VINAYAK ENTERPRISES [CS(COMM)-255/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The plaintiff's application to amend the claims of its patent was allowed under Section 58 of the Patents Act, 1970. The proposed amendments narrowed the scope of both the process and product claims and aligned with the original specification, without introducing new material. A counterclaim from the defendant sought the revocation of the patent under Section 64. The amendments were deemed permissible under Sections 58 and 59 of the Patents Act. The case involves a patent infringement suit alongside the counterclaim for revocation, with no indication of disagreement among judges.

GEMINI EDIBLES AND FATS INDIA LIMITED VS DREAM FREEDOM HERBAL PVT. LTD. & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-47/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The registration of the 'DREAM FREEDOM' trademark (no. 3213226) in Class 29 was ordered to be removed from the Trade Marks Register. The 'DREAM FREEDOM' mark was found to be deceptively similar to the well-known 'FREEDOM' trademark, likely causing consumer confusion. It was established that the 'DREAM FREEDOM' mark was adopted dishonestly to exploit the goodwill of the 'FREEDOM' brand, violating Section 11 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. The respondent company did not respond to the notice served.

GLAXO GROUP LIMITED VS GURMUKH KAPOOR, TRADING AS LEVOTIC PHARMA [CS(COMM)-783/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendant's use of the marks "BETNOTIC-N" and "BETATIC-N" with packaging similar to the plaintiff's "BETNOVATE" trademark constituted trademark infringement and passing off. The marks and packaging were found to be deceptively similar, likely causing consumer confusion. A permanent injunction was issued to the plaintiff, requiring the defendant to destroy all infringing products and packaging, along with an award of costs to the plaintiff.

GULSHAN VS STATE AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-2574/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The police must register an FIR based on a complaint alleging that Monish and his accomplices murdered the petitioner's son due to a financial dispute, rather than he dying in a road accident. Existing FIRs in Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh do not address the murder allegation, making the precedent regarding multiple FIRs inapplicable. The Delhi Police is to investigate the murder allegation in accordance with the law.

ICONIC IP INTERESTS LLC & ANR. VS SARJU CONFECTIONERY LLP [CS(COMM)-656/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendant infringed the plaintiffs' registered 'JOLLY RANCHER' trademark and copyright regarding the packaging and was liable for passing off. A permanent injunction against the defendant's infringing activities was granted, along with damages and costs. The defendant did not file a written statement or appear in court, leading to a summary decree.

JAY SWITCHES INDIA PVT LTD VS SANDHAR TECHNOLOGIES LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-301/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The "length of the main circular plate (241)" in Claim 1 of the plaintiff's patent refers solely to the thickness of that plate, excluding the "engagement projections (242)." The prosecution history, including the plaintiff's admissions during pre-grant opposition, supports this interpretation. The defendants' product appears not to infringe the plaintiff's patent, leading to the dismissal of the application for an interim injunction. The claims exhibit ambiguity, necessitating further evidence and expert testimony for precise interpretation during the trial.

KHADI & VILLAGE INDUSTRIES COMMISSION VS MS. APARNA MALLICK AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-515/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
Khadi & Village Industries Commission demonstrated trademark infringement and passing off against defendant no. 1, who used the unauthorized mark 'KHADISAREE' and related online accounts. The absence of a written statement from the defendant resulted in the acceptance of the plaintiff's claims. A permanent injunction was issued in favor of the plaintiff, the impugned domain was ordered to be transferred, and damages and costs were awarded against the defendant for willful infringement of the well-known 'KHADI' trademark.

KULDEEP VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1981/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
The Punishment Ticket awarded to Kuldeep was quashed due to non-compliance with the proper procedures outlined in the Delhi Prisons Act, 2000 and Delhi Prisons Rules, 2018. The stoppage of 'Mulakat' was deemed a major punishment, and there was no evidence that a prior show-cause notice was issued to the petitioner, which is required by the prescribed procedure.

LARGAN PRECISION CO LTD VS MOTOROLA MOBILITY INDIA PVT LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-795/2022]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
The plaintiff's application for interrogatories was deemed justified due to the relevance and necessity of the requested information for the patent infringement suit. The Commercial Courts Act, 2015, and the Patent Rules support the disclosure and discovery of documents to clarify and narrow down disputes. The defendants were directed to respond to the interrogatories in a sealed cover, and a confidentiality club was established to manage access to confidential information, following the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018.

LAVA INTERNATIONAL LIMITED VS TELEFONKTIEBOLAGET LM ERICSSON [CS(COMM)-65/2016]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
The Plaintiff, a telecommunications equipment provider, was awarded damages for patent infringement by the Defendant, a mobile phone company, due to the incorporation of technology essential to GSM, GPRS, and EDGE standards in the Defendant's mobile phones. The Defendant's challenges regarding the validity of the patents and the sufficiency of disclosures were rejected. The Plaintiff's offer of a global portfolio license on FRAND terms was deemed reasonable and non-discriminatory. The Defendant's actions, which included delaying negotiations and not engaging in good faith, resulted in their classification as an "unwilling licensee." Damages were calculated based on a royalty rate from the Plaintiff's portfolio of SEPs, applying the upper end of the range presented to the Defendant in November 2015. The Defendant was also ordered to pay the Plaintiff's taxed costs of litigation.

LOUIS VUITTON MALLETIER VS ABDULKHALIQ ABDULKADER CHAMADIA, & ORS. [CS(COMM)-700/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal
Louis Vuitton Malletier established a case of trademark infringement and passing off against Abdulkhaliq Abdulkader Chamadia, Abdurrub Abdulkader Chamadia, and Selloship Services LLP for selling counterfeit products bearing its registered 'LV' trademarks. A permanent injunction, decree of delivery up, and mandatory injunction were granted against the defendants, who are also required to pay the plaintiff's litigation costs.

M/S ABBOTT GMBH VS REGISTRAR OF TRADEMARKS & ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-9/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The appeal by M/s Abbott GmbH against the registration of the trademark "MEBUFEN" by M/s Meridian Medicare Limited was dismissed. The marks "BRUFEN" and "MEBUFEN" were determined not to be structurally or phonetically similar, and no likelihood of confusion in the market was found. The assessment of deceptive similarity focused on the overall appearance of the marks, leading to the conclusion that there were no grounds for interference with the Registrar's order.

M/S AXALTA COATING SYSTEMS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS M/S RAJALAKSHMI CARS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-894/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Axalta Coating Systems India Pvt. Ltd. filed a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator. The notice period of 30 days in the supply agreement for resolving disputes amicably was not acted upon by Rajalakshmi Cars Pvt. Ltd. Mr. Gaurav Goyal, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes between the parties at the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S ILU A SOLE PROPRIETORSHIP CONCERN OF MRS VIDUSHI CHAWLA VS ASIAN HOBBY CRAFTS LLP AND ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-699/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The registration of the trademark "DREAMCATCHER" was deemed contrary to Section 9(1) of the Trade Marks Act, 1999, as it is a generic and descriptive term for a decorative product, preventing exclusive rights over such terms. Consequently, the trademark registration was ordered to be removed from the Register of Trade Marks.

M/S KLD CREATION INFRASTRUCTURE PVT.LTD. VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED [ARB.P.-321/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties under the EPC contract, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator for dispute adjudication. The process emphasizes that the verification of the arbitration agreement is the only role in this context, while all other issues are reserved for the arbitral tribunal. The parties agreed to appoint Mr. Amiet Andlay, Advocate, as the sole arbitrator under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

MANISH CHADHA VS STATE GOVT OF NCT AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-1796/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The police investigation was upheld with no grounds for transfer to the CBI. Key issues included gang rape allegations, the mother's death investigation, and theft and trespass claims. The trial court had thoroughly addressed these matters and issued appropriate directives based on detailed evidence review. The petitioner did not challenge the trial court's order. Transferring an investigation to the CBI requires exceptional circumstances, which were not present in this case.

MARRIOTT WORLDWIDE CORPORATION VS HOTEL MARRIOT PRIME & ANR. [CS(COMM)-408/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Marriott Worldwide Corporation established trademark infringement and passing off against Hotel Marriott Prime and Hospitality Minds Private Limited. The defendants lack a viable defense. A permanent injunction was issued against the use of "HOTEL MARRIOT PRIME" or similar marks. The "MARRIOTT" trademark was declared well-known, and damages of INR 5,00,000 along with costs were awarded to the plaintiff. Orders were issued against both the hotel and the marketing agency involved.

MILLENNIUM & COPTHORNE INTERNATIONAL LIMITED VS CS BOUTIQUE HOTEL PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-692/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Millennium & Copthorne International Limited is the registered proprietor of the "MILLENNIUM" trademark in India. Defendants no. 3 and 4 adopted and used the deceptively similar marks "MILENIUM BOUTIQUE HOTEL" and related logo, constituting trademark infringement and passing off. Defendants no. 3 and 4 have a history of infringing and acted against a prior court order. Due to their failure to appear and present a defense, a summary judgment was granted, resulting in a permanent injunction, costs, and aggravated damages against them.

NEPAL SINGH VS INDRAPRASTHA POWER GENERATION CO LTD [ARB.P.-237/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Nepal Singh's petitions under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, led to the appointment of Mr. Mahesh Chander Gupta as the sole arbitrator for disputes with Indraprastha Power Generation Co Ltd. The arbitration clause in the agreements specified that the Managing Director or a representative of the respondent would serve as the arbitrator; however, the respondent did not agree to this. An independent arbitrator was appointed, and both parties were instructed to approach the arbitrator within two weeks.

NEXXBASE MARKETING PVT. LTD. VS PARMINDER SINGH (ALIAS P. SINGH) [CS(COMM)-901/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Nexxbase Marketing Pvt. Ltd. established a clear case of trademark infringement and passing off against Parminder Singh, who used marks identical or similar to Nexxbase's registered "NOISE" trademarks without authorization. Permanent injunctions were granted preventing Singh from infringing on the trademarks, passing off Nexxbase's goods, and filing similar trademark applications. Nexxbase was awarded damages and costs of INR 5,00,000 due to Singh's failure to respond or appear in the proceedings.

PFIZER INC. & ORS. VS EVEREST PHARMACEUTICALS LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-118/2020]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendants, including Everest Pharmaceuticals, infringed the plaintiffs' Indian patents related to the drug Tofacitinib by manufacturing, selling, and exporting a generic version called "Tofaxen" during the patents' term. Their actions disregarded the plaintiffs' exclusive rights and threatened public health, despite prior injunctions. Although the patents have expired, a decree was granted for the plaintiffs to recover litigation costs.

PHILIP MORRIS BRANDS SARL VS M/S RAHUL PAN SHOP & ORS. [CS(COMM)-462/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Philip Morris Brands SARL established a case of trademark and copyright infringement against the defendants, who duplicated the registered 'MARLBORO' trademarks, 'ROOFTOP' device mark, and artistic works on counterfeit cigarette packaging, misleading consumers. The defendants did not contest the suit, leading to a decree of permanent injunction in favor of the plaintiff.

PRADEEP KUMAR VS STATE [CRL.A.-32/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The appellant's conviction under Section 6 of the POCSO Act was upheld based on the reliable testimony of the child victim, despite the absence of external injuries or a hostile eyewitness. The key factor for the offense of rape was identified as penetration rather than injury. The appellant's sentence was reduced from 20 years to 12 years due to good conduct in jail and the potential for reform and reintegration into society.

PRAKASH PIPES LIMITED VS JAI AMBAY INDUSTRIES AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-680/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The registration of the trademark "KIRANPARKASH" by Jai Ambay Industries was obtained fraudulently and is subject to cancellation under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. Claims regarding the use and turnover of the mark were found to be false, and its usage is likely to cause confusion with the petitioner's previously registered "PRAKASH" trademark. Consequently, the "KIRANPARKASH" trademark registration is to be removed from the Register of Trade Marks.

PROMOSHIRT SM. PVT. LTD. VS THE REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS [W.P.(C)-IPD-29/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The Registrar of Trademarks is responsible for the delay in issuing the registration certificate for trademark application no. 1150198, which was granted in 2012 but issued only in 2016 after the validity period expired. The petitioner cannot be penalized for the Registrar's procedural failure. The Registrar is directed to issue the renewal certificate for the trademark from 2012 to 2022, and the petitioner is allowed to file a fresh renewal application for an additional 10-year period from 2022.

PROMOSHIRT SM. S.A. VS THE REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS [W.P.(C)-IPD-28/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The Registrar of Trade Marks did not comply with mandatory procedural requirements under the Trade Marks Act, 1999, resulting in a two-year delay in registering the petitioner's trademark application no. 1355453. This delay included failure to issue an O-3 notice as required under Section 25(3). The respondents are directed to issue the trademark renewal certificate and update their database accordingly.

PROMOSHIRT SM. S.A. VS THE REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS [W.P.(C)-IPD-31/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The Registrar of Trade Marks failed to issue an O-3 notice to Promoshirt SM. S.A. regarding the renewal of trademark application no. 1105799, violating the mandatory requirement under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. The trademark owner was not penalized for this lapse. The Registrar is directed to issue the certificate of renewal for the trademark from 2012 to 2022, allow the petitioner to file a fresh renewal application for an additional 10-year period, and make necessary corrections in the database concerning the renewal status and date of the trademark.

PROMOSHIRT SM. S.A. VS THE REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS [W.P.(C)-IPD-30/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Promoshirt SM. S.A. is entitled to the renewal of trademark application no. 1355451 due to the Trademark Registry's delay in issuing the registration certificate and the omission of the mandatory O-3 notice. Previous judgments indicate that trademark owners should not be penalized for Registry procedural lapses. The Trademark Registry is directed to issue the renewal certificate and correct its database accordingly.

PUMA SE VS SURENDER SINGH AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-55/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

PUMA SE's petition resulted in the cancellation of the trademark "P11MA," registered under Class 25, due to its deceptive similarity to the well-known "PUMA" trademark. PUMA SE, as the prior user and registered proprietor, demonstrated that the respondent's trademark usage could cause public confusion, violating Sections 9 and 11 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. The impugned trademark was ordered to be removed from the Register of Trade Marks.

RADICO KHAITAN LTD VS M/S RAINA BEVERAGES & ORS [CS(COMM)-508/2016]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Radico Khaitan Ltd. established a case of trademark infringement and passing off against the defendants, who copied the trade dress and packaging of the "Magic Moments Remix" trademark. The defendants intentionally imitated distinctive elements such as color schemes, logos, and artistic work to exploit the plaintiff's reputation and mislead consumers. Due to the defendants' history of infringement and non-appearance in the case, a permanent injunction was issued against them, requiring the delivery of infringing products, and awarding damages and costs of R.S. 10,00,000 to the plaintiff.

SAGA MUSIC PRIVATE LIMITED VS KARMA ENTERTAINMENT THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR. UMESH KUMAR YADAV [CS(COMM)-174/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendant, Karma Entertainment, breached the Content Assignment Agreements with the plaintiff, Saga Music, by failing to deliver the content despite receiving significant advance payments. As a result, the plaintiff became the owner of the copyright for the sound recordings "Black Suit" and "Suit Lahore Da," leading to a finding of copyright infringement by the defendant. A permanent injunction was granted in favor of the plaintiff, the defendant was ordered to refund advance payments totaling Rs. 25,76,000 with 12% interest, and the plaintiff was awarded costs amounting to Rs. 3,00,000.

SAPNA PAUL VS ROHIN PAUL [CRL.REV.P.-224/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The revision petition filed by the wife challenging the Appellate Court's order to remand the matter back to the Trial Court is maintainable under the Code of Criminal Procedure. The order of remand is set aside, and the matter is remanded to the Appellate Court to decide the husband's appeal on its merits. The husband is directed to pay interim maintenance of Rs. 50,000 per month to the wife from the date of filing the complaint under the Domestic Violence Act until the date of the impugned Appellate Court order.

SOCIETE DES PRODUITS NESTLE S A VS THE REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-26/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Societe Des Produits Nestle S.A. had its appeal accepted regarding a trademark application for an artistic device mark, clarifying that it is not a word mark incorporating "EGG." Evidence of use since 2019 supported the application, and the mark was deemed non-descriptive of the goods. An amended application is to be submitted without the word "EGG," allowing for a fresh consideration of the trademark.

SPORTA TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD., AND ANR. VS HONG YI \U5F35 AND OTHERS [CS(COMM)-663/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Sporta Technologies Pvt. Ltd. and Dream Sports Inc. established a case of trademark and copyright infringement against Hong Yi F35, who replicated the "DREAM11" website and used the plaintiffs' registered trademarks, logos, and tagline without authorization. A permanent injunction was granted to prevent the defendant from using the plaintiffs' marks and copyrighted content, and the infringing domain name was ordered to be transferred to the plaintiffs. The defendant did not contest the suit, and the plaintiffs were awarded their actual litigation costs.

SPORTA TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD., AND ANR. VS JOHN DOE AND OTHERS [CS(COMM)-852/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Plaintiffs Sporta Technologies Pvt. Ltd. and Dream Sports Inc. established trademark infringement and passing off against the defendants for using marks like 'Dreams11', 'Dreams11exch', and 'Dreams11 Exchange'. A permanent injunction was granted against the defendants' use of these marks, and the plaintiffs were awarded their litigation costs, to be determined by the Joint Registrar. The defendants did not contest the suit, indicating a lack of defense.

SPV LABORATORIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS THE CONTROLLER GENERAL OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-42/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

SPV Laboratories Private Limited successfully appealed the refusal to restore Patent No. 403793 for an "Improved Herbal Anti-Pollution Skin Care composition, and a method of preparation thereof." The delay in renewal fee payment was attributed to a family emergency of the patent attorney, and the appellant had consistently pursued the patent application, including necessary statements on its working. The restoration application was submitted within the required timeframe, demonstrating no intent to abandon the patent. The order was set aside, and the patent was to be restored with acceptance of renewal fees and any applicable penalty.

SPV LABORATORIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS THE CONTROLLER GENERAL OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-41/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The appeal by SPV Laboratories Private Limited regarding the restoration of lapsed Patent No. 404239 was successful. The appellant demonstrated diligence in pursuing the patent and timely filed the required Form 27 statements. The delay in renewal fee payment was attributed to a family issue of the patent attorney, considered a minor procedural lapse. As the restoration application was submitted within the prescribed period, it was decided that the patent should be restored upon payment of the renewal fees and any penalties. The previous refusal to restore the patent was overturned.

STAR INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS JIOLIVE.TV & ORS. [CS(COMM)-688/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Star India Private Limited holds exclusive global media rights, including television and digital rights, for the ICC World Cup 2023. A permanent injunction was issued against several rogue websites to prevent unauthorized dissemination and broadcasting of ICC World Cup 2023 content. Domain name registrars, internet service providers, the Department of Telecommunications, and the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology were directed to block access to these websites. The plaintiff received compensation for actual litigation costs.

SYNGENTA CROP PROTECTION AG VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-63/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The method for controlling rice plant infestation by the microorganism Gibberella fujikuroi does not qualify as a "method of agriculture" exclusion under Section 3(h) of the Patents Act. Previous judgments indicate that methods to treat plants for fungal diseases are not included in this exclusion. Amendments to the patent claims are allowed, and the case is sent back for fresh examination.

TATA SONS PRIVATE LIMITED VS ANILBHAI M AMRUTIYA & ANR. [CS(COMM)-598/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Tata Sons Private Limited established cases of trademark infringement and passing off against Anilbhai M. Amrutiya and Mayur Kapuriya, who used the well-known "TATA" trademark on their products without justification. This usage took unfair advantage of Tata Sons' reputation and goodwill. A permanent injunction was granted against the defendants along with damages of INR 5,00,000 for their intentional infringement.

THE ARYAN EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY VS AARYAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL [CS(COMM)-46/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The defendant Aaryan International School infringed the registered trademarks and copyrights of The Aryan Educational Society. The use of the similar mark "Aaryan International School" likely caused confusion and diluted the plaintiff's brand in the education sector. A permanent injunction was granted against the defendant, along with damages and costs of 500,000 INR in favor of the plaintiff.

THIJS, ROELAND MICHEL MATHIEU VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-70/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

The appeal by Thijs Roeland Michel Mathieu regarding the rejection of the application for restoration of Patent No. 408932 was allowed due to the Assistant Controller sending renewal fee communications to an incorrect email address. The appellant did not receive the communication in time to pay the renewal fee, leading to the patent's cessation. It was established that the appellant had no intention to abandon the patent and should not be held responsible for the lapse. The order was set aside, and restoration of the patent was directed upon the appellant filing the renewal fee within two weeks.

UNILIN BEHEER B.V. VS BALAJI ACTION BUILDWELL [CS(COMM)-1683/2016]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal

Unilin Beheer B.V. demonstrated a reasonable cause for the late submission of confidential third-party license agreements, as these could only be filed after establishing a confidentiality club. A confidentiality club was constituted, allowing restricted access to the confidential documents for a limited number of lawyers and experts from each party. The sealed documents submitted by the plaintiff were recorded.

AAKASH @ SANJU VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3894/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Akash Kumar and Aakash @ Sanju, charged with murder and other serious offenses. Key evidence, including the FSL report and CCTV footage, is pending, and eye-witnesses did not identify the accused. A long custody period and delayed trial contributed to the decision for bail, contingent upon conditions to prevent evidence tampering or absconding.

RISHAB NAYYAR VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3178/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Aarushi Gupta and Rishab Nayyar were granted pre-arrest bail in a case under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code for abetment of suicide. The deceased had named them in a suicide note, but evidence did not indicate that they had actively instigated or abetted the act. The deceased was described as sensitive and had threatened Aarushi with suicide when she refused communication. Custodial interrogation was deemed unnecessary, and bail was granted with conditions, emphasizing that the observations were limited to the bail application and should not impact the trial outcome.

ABHAY @ KAKU VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2350/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Abhay @ Kaku in a case involving serious charges under the Indian Penal Code and POCSO Act. The allegations lacked credibility, as the prosecutrix had previously indicated a relationship with co-accused Aman and had a child with him. The complaint was filed after a delay of 3.5 years, and there was insufficient corroborative evidence. Abhay was not a repeat offender, and conditions for bail were imposed.

ABHISHEK BERI VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-495/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner, previously involved in quashed criminal proceedings, possesses a fundamental right to privacy and the right to be forgotten. Online publication of case details can harm an individual's social and career prospects, even after being cleared of wrongdoing. The court ordered the masking of the petitioner's name and that of the other respondent in all related records and search results. The petitioner was also allowed to approach relevant portals and search engines to request the removal of any remaining materials linked to the case, affirming their rights.

ABHISHEK DEEP VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4691/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The disallowance of certain questions during the cross-examination of the investigating officer was upheld, as the questions were deemed irrelevant or vexatious and did not aid in the accused's defense. The exercise of discretion under the Indian Evidence Act was confirmed as appropriate, with no violation of the accused's right to a fair trial. A transfer petition was dismissed due to a lack of substantive evidence indicating bias or prejudice on the part of the trial judge.

ABUL KALAM @ SULTAN VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1011/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Abul Kalam @ Sultan was granted bail in a narcotics case. The sole basis for his implication was a co-accused's disclosure statement, deemed inadmissible without corroboration. No contraband was found with him, and the evidence linking him to the co-accused was circumstantial. Considering his long period of incarceration and the co-accused's prior bail, the conditions of the NDPS Act allowing for bail applied, leading to his entitlement to bail on parity grounds.

AJAY CHOPRA VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5671/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

No prima facie case existed against Respondent Nos. 2-3 under Sections 420, 468, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code. Evidence suggested they benefited from a forged document, but there was no proof of conspiracy to forge the document or intent to cheat the complainant. Allegations did not raise significant suspicion of conspiracy, as Respondent Nos. 2-3 had no prior knowledge or contact with the complainant.

AKASH JAIN THROUGH PARAKOR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-120/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The petitioner was convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for issuing a dishonored cheque. His admission of signing the cheque raised a presumption against him, which he failed to rebut. Claims of the cheque being stolen and the complainant's lack of financial capacity were unsupported by evidence. Despite receiving ample opportunities to defend himself, the petitioner could not establish a probable defense. The findings of the lower courts were upheld, and the revision petition was dismissed.

AKASH TANWAR VS GNCT OF DELHI THORUGH SHO PS. FATEHPUR BERI & ORS. & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1350/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The applicant received transit bail for two weeks to approach the appropriate court in Nagaland regarding an FIR. The allegations under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 were not seen as prima facie established, as the applicant's social media post did not target individuals based on caste or tribal identity. The petitioner's request to quash the FIR was dismissed, with Nagaland courts identified as the suitable forum for the case.

AMAN VS THE STATE OF DELHI AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-1524/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Bail was granted to Aman based on insufficient confidence in the allegations at this stage. The presence of two children from the relationship and disputes over the conception date were noted. The delayed filing of the FIR and a previous complaint regarding a live-in relationship also factored into the decision. While acknowledging the presumption of guilt under the POCSO Act, a prima facie case for bail was established, with the chargesheet filed and no pending investigations. Observations were made strictly for the bail application, with no implications for the trial.

ANANT RAO VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.REV.P.-541/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The conviction of the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, was upheld based on the presumption in favor of the complainant, as the petitioner admitted his signature on the cheque. The burden was on the petitioner to provide evidence rebutting these presumptions, which he did not do. The concurrent findings of the lower courts were deemed reasonable and legally sound.

ANEES UR RAHMAN VS M/S SMAL FARMERS AGRIBUISNESS CONSORTIUM [CRL.M.C.-5464/2019]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The petitioner, a former director of the company, was not in charge or responsible for the company's business when the offenses under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act occurred, as he had resigned before the issuance and dishonor of the cheque. Consequently, proceedings against him were quashed.

ANITA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-128/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The revision petition was dismissed, affirming the trial and appellate court's convictions under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The petitioner did not rebut the legal presumptions under Sections 118 and 139 and failed to provide evidence of the complainant's inability to extend the loan. There was no manifest illegality in the decisions of the lower courts.

ANKIT SAGAR VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3047/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Bail was granted to the applicant in a case involving the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act despite the recovery of a commercial quantity of drugs. Procedural irregularities, including the absence of independent witnesses and photography during the search, were noted but deemed insufficient to invalidate the recovery. The prolonged trial delay, with the applicant in custody for over two years, warranted bail despite stringent conditions under Section 37 of the Act. The applicant was directed to be released on bail upon furnishing a personal bond and meeting other specified conditions, with the understanding that these observations were solely for the bail decision and not to influence the trial's outcome.

ARMAN ALI VS STATE (NCT) OF DELHI THROUGH SHO WITH P.S. BURARI [BAIL APPLN.-1130/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Arman Ali was granted bail after being charged with murder and firearms offenses. Eye-witnesses did not identify him, and CCTV footage did not show him involved in the shooting. The alleged mastermind of the crime had already received bail, and Ali's extended incarceration was noted, with the trial not expected to conclude soon. The decision was based on the lack of strong evidence against him.

ASANTE PINKET OWUSU VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-1939/2021]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The rigors of Section 37 of the NDPS Act do not apply as Ephedrine Hydrochloride is not classified as a narcotic drug or psychotropic substance. The procedure for collecting the sample was improper due to the combination of samples from different packets, violating standard protocol. The applicant, in custody for over 5 years, was granted bail, subject to conditions, as this duration exceeds half the maximum punishment under Section 25A of the NDPS Act.

ASHISH @ VIJAY @ BHOLA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4133/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Bail was granted to Ashish @ Vijay @ Bhola, charged under Sections 302/34 IPC and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act. The prosecution did not identify him as the principal perpetrator, and his mere presence at the scene failed to establish a common intention to commit murder. Eye-witnesses became hostile, raising doubts about the prosecution's case. The accused had been incarcerated since March 2021, and the investigation was complete. Bail was granted with conditions to prevent tampering with evidence or evasion of trial.

ASHOK KUMAR @ VINEY VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-937/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Ashok Kumar @ Viney was granted regular bail in a murder case under Sections 302/34 IPC and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act. Serious allegations were noted, but the lack of strong evidence, such as failure of eyewitnesses to identify him, combined with over seven years in custody, influenced the decision. Family circumstances, including responsibilities for his ailing parents and minor daughter, were also considered. Bail conditions were set to ensure his trial appearance and to prevent evidence tampering.

ASHOK KUMAR VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2760/2019]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Criminal complaints under the Negotiable Instruments Act were quashed because the parties had settled their disputes through mediation and the complainant accepted the agreed payment. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the judicial process, as the complainant sought to reopen a settled matter. Costs were ordered to be paid by the complainant to the petitioner.

ASHOK SHARMA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2073/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Ashok Sharma, charged under Sections 420, 406, 409, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code for defrauding over 600 members of a cooperative housing society. His advanced age of 73 years, the delay in the trial, and his wife's poor health were considered significant factors. Conditions were imposed to ensure his cooperation in the investigation and trial.

ASHWANI KHATRI VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-191/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Charges were upheld against the petitioner under Sections 120B/147/302/307/323/149 of the Indian Penal Code due to evidence including CCTV footage and witness statements indicating participation in an unlawful assembly that assaulted the complainant and resulted in the death of an inmate. A prima facie case was established, necessitating only a possibility of the offence being committed for charge framing. Arguments that the case fell under Exception 4 to Section 300 IPC or that only Section 323 IPC applied were rejected.

ATUL PUNDHIR VS M/S THE DELHI GROUP & ANR. [CRL.L.P.-648/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The acquittal of respondents in a case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. Respondent No. 2 successfully rebutted presumptions by presenting a credible defense that he did not issue the dishonored cheques. This shifted the burden of proof to the complainant, who failed to demonstrate the existence of a debt. The presumption of innocence was reinforced by the acquittal, and no evidence showed a need to challenge the trial court's evaluation.

AVADH NARAYAN KUSHWAHA VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-1659/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Avadh Narayan Kushwaha received bail in a dowry death case under Sections 498A, 304B, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution did not establish specific allegations of cruelty or harassment related to dowry demands prior to the death of his wife, Chandavati. Given his custody since May 2020, the responsibility of caring for a young child, and the anticipated length of the trial, bail was granted with conditions to ensure cooperation and presence during the trial.

AVNI JAIN VS ABHISHEK GARG [CRL.REV.P.-94/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The interim maintenance amount of ₹75,000 per month awarded to the wife was upheld as reasonable, taking into account the husband's employment in Singapore and the cost of living there. The husband's earnings in a foreign currency do not necessitate conversion to Indian rupees for maintenance calculations. The focus of Section 125 CrPC is to prevent destitution rather than equalizing financial capacities.

BABU LAL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-633/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Babu Lal, charged under Sections 420/34 IPC and Section 6(c) of the PCPNDT Act for involvement in an illegal sex determination racket, was granted bail. Evidence indicated he was an employee at an Ayurvedic store without direct involvement in conducting the sex test, with the primary allegation being the sale of a brown powder to a co-accused. The investigation was complete, he had no prior criminal record, and no further custodial interrogation was deemed necessary.

BABUL HUSSEN VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-303/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Babul Hussen, charged under Sections 363/366/376/506 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 6 of the POCSO Act, received bail based on prima facie evidence and overall circumstances. Contradictions in the victim's statements, the accused's age of 19 at the time of the incident, and delayed reporting by the victim's father were noted. The trial remains early, with only 15 witnesses examined. Given the severity of the allegations, it was determined that prolonged custody of the young accused would be counterproductive. Bail was granted with conditions to prevent contact with the victim and tampering with evidence.

BANTU VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2287/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bantu was granted bail despite charges under Section 20 of the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 for possession of a commercial quantity of contraband. The lack of independent witnesses, absence of videography or photography, and a four-year delay in trial were significant factors in favor of bail. The omission of "nearest" in the notice under Section 50 of the NDPS Act did not invalidate the notice. Bantu was ordered to be released on bail upon furnishing a personal bond and sureties.

BHOODEV SINGH VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-251/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bhoodev Singh was granted bail on allegations of rape under Section 376 of the Indian Penal Code due to doubts regarding the credibility of the accusations, including conflicting narratives and a lack of testimony from a child witness. Consideration was given to the lengthy period of Singh's incarceration and the unlikelihood of a prompt trial. Conditions were imposed to mitigate potential risks while upholding his right to liberty before trial.

BHUPENDER @ ROHIT VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1519/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bhupender @ Rohit was granted bail in a case involving charges under Sections 365/34 and 364/302/201/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution's reliance on contradictory testimonies from the deceased's parents was noted, along with the absence of the applicant's name in the initial FIR and his arrest being based on statements from a co-accused. Considering the prolonged incarceration, lack of independent witnesses, and the contradictions in witness statements, a prima facie case for bail was established, leading to his release on certain conditions.

BHUSHAN @ VEERA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3605/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The applicant is not entitled to default bail under Section 167(2) of the CrPC. The chargesheet filed is considered valid despite the absence of the FSL report. A chargesheet is complete if it includes the details specified in Section 173(2) of the CrPC, and missing documents do not render it incomplete. Non-filing of the FSL report does not affect the completeness of the chargesheet.

BSES RAJDHANI POWER LTD VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-945/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

A batch of criminal revision petitions by BSES Rajdhani Power Ltd. was allowed regarding the dismissal of complaints under Section 135 of the Electricity Act, 2003. The trial court's dismissal was based on discrepancies in address details, non-seizure of illegal wires, and mismatched evidence, which should be evaluated at the trial stage. Amendments to provide better particulars of the premises were deemed acceptable as they were formal and did not alter the original complaints. The impugned orders were set aside, and the matters were remanded to the trial court for further proceedings with the amended complaints.

CHANDER BOSE VS MADHU BANSAL & ANR [CRL.M.C.-678/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Registration of a second FIR (FIR No. 43/2019) by the respondents was deemed valid as it presented a separate cause of action from the first FIR (FIR No. 442/2014). The respondents' complaint indicated an independent issue requiring further investigation into alleged forgery and cheating. The petition against this decision was dismissed.

CHRIS AUSTIN GODIN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3243/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The pre-arrest bail application of Chris Austin Godin, charged under Sections 110 and 3(5) of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 for an alleged assault at a club, was dismissed. The decision emphasized that pre-arrest bail is an extraordinary remedy that should be exercised sparingly. The examination of facts and evidence, including medical reports and CCTV footage, revealed that the complainant's head injuries, requiring 15-20 stitches, indicated significant potential gravity of the offense. While a co-accused had been granted bail, the main allegations were primarily against Godin. The nascent stage of the investigation played a crucial role in the dismissal of the application, with observations made strictly in the context of pre-arrest bail and not affecting the trial's outcome.

DEEPAK & ANR. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-692/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order allowing the complainant to recall and further cross-examine a defense witness, along with the introduction of additional documents, was upheld. It was noted that the prosecutor had not addressed questions concerning the property dispute central to the incident. The additional evidence was deemed directly relevant to the case, and both parties would have the chance to respond. Delayed filing of applications was not considered to invalidate them.

DEEPAK @ TUTAN @ BHARAT SHARMA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2887/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Deepak @ Tutan@ Bharat Sharma was denied bail due to serious allegations against him, which establish a prima facie case of involvement in offenses under Sections 302/307/201/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The lengthy period of incarceration was noted but deemed insufficient for granting bail, especially given the severity of the potential penalties. Provisions of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 regarding maximum detention periods for undertrial prisoners were considered, but exceptions did not apply in this case. Thus, the bail application was dismissed.

DEEPAK GARG @ TANISHQ VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2403/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The applicant's pre-arrest bail application was dismissed due to serious allegations involving a financial entrapment scheme targeting innocent individuals through online platforms. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary for further investigation, as pre-arrest bail could hinder the inquiry and erode public trust in digital financial systems. The difference in effectiveness between questioning in custody versus pre-arrest bail was noted, along with the possibility of multiple victims, leading to the conclusion that the case did not warrant the exercise of extraordinary discretion for anticipatory bail.

DEEPAK KUMAR SONY VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3802/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Deepak Kumar Sony was granted bail after being charged with multiple offenses, including cheating and forgery, related to the use of a forged identity card. The investigation is complete, and the complainants have settled their disputes. At 23 years old, he has spent over 19 months in custody, prompting the decision for his release, which includes conditions to prevent flight or evidence tampering.

DEEPAK MANDAL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1608/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The pre-arrest bail application of Deepak Mandal was dismissed due to serious allegations of cyber fraud involving multiple potential victims. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary for the investigation, and granting pre-arrest bail was considered likely to impede this process. The decision emphasized that pre-arrest bail should be granted sparingly and recognizes different considerations compared to regular bail. No grounds were identified to challenge the lower court's rejection of the bail application.

DEEPAK MANN@ MANN VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3576/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Deepak Mann in a murder case under Sections 302/34 IPC and Section 27 of the Arms Act, despite contradictions in the testimonies of three alleged eyewitnesses. The long period of incarceration since 2017 and the expected lengthy duration of the trial were considered significant factors. The decision included conditions for bail, emphasizing the principles under Article 21 of the Constitution, while clarifying that the observations made would not affect the final outcome of the trial.

DEEPAK TIWARI VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1628/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Deepak Tiwari was granted bail on charges of murder and arms violations after spending over 5 years in custody. Evidence presented included eyewitness testimony and forensic reports. Concerns about a timely trial and prolonged incarceration violating his rights under Article 21 of the Constitution factored into the decision. Several bail conditions were imposed to prevent evidence tampering and ensure his presence at trial. Observations made were strictly related to the bail application, not the case's merits.

DEEPINDER SINGH BEDI & ANR. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5965/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Proceedings against the petitioners under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were deemed not maintainable because the cheque was dishonored due to the drawer company's bank account being frozen by an Income Tax department order, which was outside the petitioners' control. The inability to operate the account as a result of the attachment order led to the quashing of the complaint and subsequent proceedings.

DHARMENDER KUMAR GARG VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2000/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order granting regular bail to the respondent, the mother-in-law of the deceased, was based on her age, health issues, and the trial's stage. The principles from relevant Supreme Court judgments suggest that an appellate body should refrain from interfering with a lower court's bail decision unless it is deemed perverse, illegal, or unjustified. No issues were identified in the trial court's order, leading to the dismissal of the petition to revoke the bail.

DHARMENDER VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS RAJOURI GARDEN [BAIL APPLN.-3086/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Dharmender was granted bail in connection with an FIR for multiple offences under the Indian Penal Code, including kidnap and attempt to murder, related to allegations involving the dismemberment of the victim's genitals by family members of Maneka, whom the victim had married. The victim subsequently turned hostile, raising doubts about the credibility of his statements. The applicant, employed by one of the accused, has no prior criminal record, leading to the decision to grant bail, as the foundation of the allegations appears questionable at this stage.

DHRUV @ LADDU VS STATE (G N C T OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2467/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Dhruv @ Laddu and Shivam @ Jungli, accused of offenses under Sections 307/148/149/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 25 of the Arms Act. The grievous injuries to the victim were caused by a juvenile co-accused, not the applicants, who were approximately 18 years old and had no prior criminal records. Considering their period of incarceration and the anticipated lengthy trial, further custody was not deemed necessary. Bail was granted with conditions to address concerns regarding evidence tampering and trial evasion.

DILIP SONI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1548/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The application for pre-arrest bail filed by Dilip Soni was dismissed due to concerns that such bail would hinder the investigation of alleged offenses under multiple sections of the Indian Penal Code. The considerations for granting pre-arrest bail differ significantly from those for regular bail, and it should be granted sparingly. Evidence indicated that Soni's bank account was implicated in receiving fraudulently obtained funds, necessitating custodial interrogation for further investigation. The prosecution established a prima facie case against Soni, leading to the conclusion that pre-arrest bail would negatively impact the ongoing investigation. The dismissal of the application specifically addressed the bail request and did not imply any judgment on the trial's merits.

DINESH SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3044/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Dinesh Sharma, director of M/s Asian Developers Private Limited, received regular bail over accusations of cheating multiple complainants by promoting flats in "Bawal Residency" without selling authority. Charges have not yet been framed, and a lengthy trial is anticipated. Sharma has settled with most complainants and returned their funds, indicating good faith. Multiple FIRs were filed for the same allegations, potentially complicating bail options. Conditions of bail include depositing his passport, appearing in court as required, participating in the investigation, and not tampering with evidence or contacting witnesses.

DR NEH SRIVASTAVA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3320/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Dr. Neh Srivastava, president of the Central Secretariat Services Officers Society, had his bail application dismissed following his arrest for offenses under Sections 420, 409, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code. The investigation indicated his involvement in a large-scale economic offense, where he allegedly misled over 500 government employees into investing in a fraudulent housing project, misrepresenting its status and misappropriating funds. The severity of the offenses, the significant amounts of money involved, and his influential position raised concerns about potential evidence tampering if released. Economic offenses were highlighted as requiring strict treatment due to their impact on the financial health of the country and public trust in the justice system.

DR. AZEEM VS STATE [W.P.(CRL)-1030/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Dr. Azeem's petition was allowed and proceedings against him under Section 376 IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act were quashed. The ultrasound report suggested a possibility of sexual assault but did not demonstrate the requisite "knowledge" of the offence as defined in Section 19 of the POCSO Act. The existing material did not present sufficient grounds to establish suspicion about Dr. Azeem's awareness of the sexual assault necessary for framing charges.

DR. SANJAY GUPTA VS DR. RICHA CHANDRA [CRL.REV.P.-690/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The issuance of summons to the petitioner under Section 12 of the Domestic Violence Act was upheld based on the respondent's complaint, which included allegations of physical, mental, and economic abuse. The trial and appellate courts properly assessed the complaint and established a prima facie case for summoning. The petitioner's previous unsuccessful attempts to seek relief indicated vexatious litigation, leading to the dismissal of the revision petition.

DURGESH PAUL SACHDEV VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR [CRL.M.C.-4948/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The records from two civil proceedings, relating to State Bank of Patiala and Asiatic Overseas Pvt. Ltd., were deemed relevant for the just decision of a related criminal case. The application under Sections 91/302(2) and 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was approved, allowing the summoning of these documents, despite previous dismissal by the trial court on retrial grounds. The decision emphasized the importance of essential additional evidence for fair case resolution.

GANESH CHANDRA BAMRANA AND ORS VS RUKMANI GUPTA [CRL.M.C.-6170/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

A moratorium under Section 14 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code prohibits proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against a corporate debtor once it is in effect. The cheques in question were dishonored after the appointment of the Interim Resolution Professional and the imposition of the moratorium, thus the suspended director and authorized signatory of the accused company cannot be held vicariously responsible for their dishonor. The summoning order and any subsequent proceedings against these petitioners were quashed.

GARIMA VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3291/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The trial court did not violate the mandatory procedure under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 by granting bail to the accused without directly hearing the complainant, as the complainant was represented by counsel. The presence of counsel satisfied the requirement for a fair hearing. There were no compelling reasons to cancel the bail, as the accused had remained on bail throughout the proceedings. Bail should not be revoked without cogent reasons, and mere allegations of procedural irregularity were insufficient for cancellation.

KABIR SABLOK VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3692/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail was granted to Geetanjali Behl and Kabir Sablok following an assessment of the allegations against them, their cooperation in the investigation, and the risk of humiliation and disgrace from arrest. Conditions for bail include cooperation with the investigation, not leaving the country without permission, and avoiding contact with the complainant or witnesses. Observations made should not influence the trial's outcome or indicate any opinion on the merits of the case.

GILBERT APEH EMEKA VS NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-3269/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Gilbert Apeh Emeka was granted bail after being charged with drug trafficking offenses under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. The main evidence against him, namely the disclosure statements of co-accused, lacked admissibility without corroboration. The requirements under Section 37 of the NDPS Act for denying bail were not satisfied, as there was a prima facie indication of the applicant's innocence. Conditions imposed on the bail included movement restrictions and regular police reporting.

GOPAL DANGI VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3350/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Gopal Dangi and Mohd Munib, charged under Sections 20/25 of the Narcotics Drugs & Psychotropic Substances Act for possessing a commercial quantity of Ganja. Procedural irregularities included a delay in filing an application under Section 52A and a lack of independent witnesses. The long delay in trial proceedings, with only one of 22 witnesses partially examined, and the prolonged incarceration of the accused were significant factors. Consequently, it was decided that the stringent conditions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act could be set aside, allowing for their bail under specified conditions.

GOVIND SINGH VS STATE NCT DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-238/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order framing charges against the accused under Sections 376(2)(n) and 506 of the Indian Penal Code was set aside. A prima facie case for rape was not established, as there was no evidence to suggest that the promise to marry was false from the outset, and the relationship had continued for a considerable time. Additionally, the allegation of criminal intimidation lacked sufficient material for charges to be framed. The accused was discharged from the charges.

GUNJAN@GIRIJA KUMARI & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-114/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order to frame charges against the petitioners for offences under Section 506/34 IPC and Sections 3(1)(r) and 3(1)(s) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 was upheld. The evaluation of evidence at the charge-framing stage does not require extensive detail, and strong suspicion based on presented material can justify the charges. Allegations, including caste-based remarks and criminal intimidation, created a prima facie case against the petitioners.

HDFC BANK LTD VS THE STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-3198/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The allegations in the FIR against HDFC Bank do not constitute an offense under Section 3 of the Delhi Prevention of Defacement of Property Act, 2007. Putting up a sign board without municipal permission does not qualify as "defacement of property." The FIR was quashed to prevent abuse of the judicial process, and the respondents (State and NDMC) were ordered to pay a cost of Rs. 1,00,000 for filing a frivolous complaint that wasted judicial resources.

HEMANT JAIN VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-286/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Hemant Jain was granted bail despite facing murder charges under Section 302 IPC. While circumstantial evidence exists, it is not sufficient to eliminate reasonable doubt regarding his guilt. With nearly 3 years in custody and the case still in the prosecution evidence stage, continued detention risks violating his right to life and liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution. Given the delays in trial and significant pre-trial incarceration, bail was deemed necessary, with conditions imposed to prevent potential evidence tampering or evasion.

HIMANSHU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-92/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Charges were upheld against the petitioner under Sections 302/149 of the Indian Penal Code for involvement in an unlawful assembly that beat the deceased, leading to his death. Arguments regarding exceptions to Section 300 IPC were rejected, as the requirements of Section 149 IPC were considered satisfied. The scope of revisional jurisdiction was noted, and no mini-trial was conducted at this stage.

HIMMAT SINGH VS THE STATE (N.C.T OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2955/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Himmat Singh was granted bail on charges of dowry death under Sections 498A, 304B, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. There was no evidence of cruelty or dowry demands prior to his wife's death, and the post-mortem report showed no external injuries. Having spent over 700 days in custody, and with the investigation complete and trial expected to be lengthy, bail was granted subject to conditions for presence and cooperation.

ILIYAS KHAN VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-840/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Iliyas Khan was granted bail in a case under the NDPS Act after it was established that the evidence against him relied solely on disclosure statements from co-accused, which lack corroboration and cannot be considered substantive evidence. No recovery was made from him, and the case was based mainly on circumstantial evidence, leading to reasonable grounds to believe he was not guilty. Given the length of his incarceration and the anticipated duration of the trial, bail was granted with specific conditions.

ISLAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3605/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition for pre-arrest bail in an FIR under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act was dismissed. Considerations for pre-arrest bail differ from those for regular bail, with an emphasis on granting it sparingly in cases involving commercial quantities of narcotics. The need to balance individual liberty with societal interests was highlighted, as granting pre-arrest bail could impede investigations and affect justice. Denial of bail at this stage was deemed necessary to prevent hindrance to the investigation.

JASBIR SINGH VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-117/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Jasbir Singh was granted bail in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The disclosure statements of the accused and co-accused were deemed inadmissible without corroboration. No contraband was recovered directly from the applicant, making Section 37 of the NDPS Act inapplicable. Although there was a delay in trial proceedings and the applicant's antecedents were considered, these factors alone did not justify denial of bail. Conditions were imposed to mitigate concerns about potential reoffending while on bail.

KANCHAMAN YONJAN VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2845/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Kanchaman Yonjan received bail after being charged under the NDPS Act for possessing 15 kg 155 grams of 'charas.' The prolonged trial delay of nearly two years and the absence of independent witnesses or proper documentation during the raid were considered sufficient grounds for bail, despite the strict conditions imposed by Section 37 of the NDPS Act. While procedural compliance concerning the search notice was not strictly followed, no prejudice to the applicant was established. Bail conditions included a personal bond, sureties, restrictions on leaving Delhi without permission, and cooperation with the investigation.

KESHAV DEV VS KAMLESH & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1310/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The maintenance order in favor of Kamlesh and their child was upheld despite Keshav Dev's claim of never being married to Kamlesh. For maintenance under Section 125 CrPC, a prima facie domestic relationship suffices; stringent proof for marital status is not required. The Family Court relied on documentary evidence and witness testimony, establishing a presumption of a valid marriage that Keshav failed to counter. There was no substitution of findings regarding marital status unless proved grossly illegal or improper. The revision petition was dismissed as lacking merit.

KOMAL KUMARI VS THE STATE(NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2405/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Sufficient grounds exist to proceed against the petitioner for defamation based on allegations and evidence from the complainant. The petitioner's tweets and those of a co-accused included defamatory statements about the complainant and his wife, a judicial officer. Defenses presented by the petitioner, including claims of truthfulness and good faith, did not hold up under review. A petition to quash the summoning orders issued by the trial court was dismissed.

KRISHAN YAD GAUR VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3084/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was denied to Krishan Yad Gaur, charged with murder (Sections 302, 506 IPC) and firearm offenses (Sections 25(1B), 27 Arms Act). Compelling prima facie evidence, including CCTV footage, forensic evidence, and eyewitness accounts, indicated the serious nature of the crime, making bail inappropriate at this stage. Observations made were only relevant to the bail application and should not be interpreted as opinions on the case's merits.

KUNAL ALIAS HARSH VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.REV.P.-582/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order framing charges against Kunal under Sections 307/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act was upheld. Evidence, including witness statements, CCTV footage, and medical reports, indicated a grave suspicion of Kunal's involvement in the alleged offences. The argument that the offence under Section 307 IPC was not applicable due to the absence of injury was rejected, emphasizing that the accused's intention is the key consideration. It was concluded that it is premature to assess guilt or innocence, validating the trial court's decision to frame the charges.

MANSHER VS THE STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI THROUGH ITS STATION HOUSE OFFICER POLICE STATION CRIME BRANCH DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3953/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Anticipatory bail applications of Mansher and Lokesh Dhingra were dismissed, as custodial interrogation was deemed necessary for the ongoing investigation. Specific allegations against the accused made by co-accused Mukul were noted, with some corroboration from the investigation. The alleged criminal operation involved importing a commercial quantity of drugs from the US via the dark web, necessitating further investigation. Proceedings under Section 82 of the CrPC have been initiated against the accused, influencing the decision against granting anticipatory bail. Observations made are strictly for the bail application and do not affect the final trial.

M VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1032/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The trial court discharged the accused of charges under Sections 376, 328, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code due to significant deficiencies in the prosecution's case. The victim's statement lacked credibility, and there was no medical evidence or identification of the incident's location. Additionally, there was no record of prior communication between the parties involved. The conclusion was made that a long-ago unfulfilled promise to marry does not imply deceit, particularly when the victim was aware of the accused's marital status.

M/S KASAN VARNISHA AND PAINT INDUSTRIES VS SUJAY THAPA [CRL.REV.P.-116/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The concurrent findings of the lower courts were upheld in the case involving M/s Kasan Varnisha and Paint Industries and its proprietor, Jeevan Kumar, who was convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. The execution and signature on the cheque were undisputed, raising presumptions against the petitioner. The petitioner failed to rebut these presumptions or provide a valid defense regarding the alleged loss of the cheques and a police complaint. The discrepancy between the dishonor reason in the complaint and the deposit slip was not deemed fatal, as dishonor due to "stop payment" instructions is covered under Section 138. Although there was a noted procedural error regarding summoning bank witnesses, it did not invalidate the trial without evidence of prejudice from the petitioner.

M/S S.A. YADAV ESTATE & CONSTRUCTION PVT. LTD. THROUGH ITS A/R VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4299/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition under Section 482 CrPC was dismissed, affirming the rejection of the petitioner's request for police investigation under Section 156(3) CrPC. The case was assessed as a civil dispute, with the petitioner having adequate evidence to support the claims independently of police involvement. No miscarriage of justice or legal irregularity was identified in the lower courts' proceedings.

MADAN LAL SURYAWANSHI VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND OTHERS [CRL.REV.P.-810/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The orders dismissing the petitioner's applications for FIR registration were upheld, as the complaints did not disclose any cognizable offence or allegations under the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act. The existence of a cognizable offence and relevant allegations were necessary for jurisdiction under Section 156(3) CrPC, which were absent in this case. It was emphasized that a Magistrate must apply judicial reasoning to the complaints and cannot merely facilitate FIR registration. Complaints lacking incriminating material against the accused should not prompt FIR orders to avoid abuse of the criminal legal process.

MADHURI CHAUHAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2848/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Prolonged delay in the trial not attributable to the accused can justify bail even in cases involving commercial quantities of contraband under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. The absence of independent witnesses and lack of documentation during the search and seizure raise doubts about the credibility of the evidence, but irregularities in the sampling procedure do not invalidate it. Bail was granted to the accused with certain conditions.

MAHBOOB KHAN VS STATE THROUGH SHO CHHAWLA [BAIL APPLN.-318/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Mahboob Khan, charged under various sections of the Indian Penal Code and the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act. The co-accused had previously received bail, and the allegations against Khan were deemed not more serious than those of the co-accused. The victim and her father had been examined, eliminating concerns of witness tampering. Conditions for bail included maintaining distance from the victim's locality, providing his mobile number to the investigating officer, and attending trial proceedings regularly.

MAMTA SAPRA VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-294/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order framing charges against Mamta Sapra under the NDPS Act was set aside due to insufficient evidence. The evidence, comprising mainly disclosure statements from co-accused and call detail records, did not establish the grave suspicion necessary for charges at the prima facie stage. Allegations raised suspicion but lacked the additional material needed to connect Sapra to the recovery of contraband. Consequently, she was discharged from the case.

MANISH MAHTO VS SUMAN & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-792/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The maintenance awarded to the petitioner's wife and minor son was upheld. The wife justified her separation due to the petitioner's cruelty and harassment. The petitioner's income was reasonably assessed based on the minimum wage for unskilled workers. As an able-bodied man, he has a duty to financially support his wife and child. The maintenance amount of R.S. 5,000 for the wife and R.S. 2,000 for the child, with a 10% enhancement every two years, was determined to be appropriate.

MANISH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-498/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition by the husband was dismissed, upholding the maintenance order for the wife. The wife's testimony regarding harassment, dowry demands, and the husband's failure to provide support was considered credible despite minor inconsistencies. She had justifiable reasons to refuse living with the husband and was entitled to maintenance under Section 125 of the Criminal Procedure Code. The husband's income was assessed at ₹16,000 per month based on Delhi's minimum wage, and arguments regarding parental dependency and the wife's employability were rejected. The obligation of a husband to financially support his wife was emphasized, with exceptions only on legally admissible grounds.

MANOJ PRASAD VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-331/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The concurrent findings of the lower courts were upheld, dismissing the revision petition of the petitioner convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. Presumptions under Sections 118(a) and 139 were invoked due to the petitioner's admission of executing the dishonored cheque. The petitioner failed to provide evidence to support the claim that the cheque was a mere security cheque rather than a means to discharge a legally enforceable debt. It was concluded that the petitioner had a liability to pay ₹1,43,000 as per the car rental agreement, and the cheque for ₹1,40,000 was intended to fulfill this obligation.

MANORANJAN SINGH VS VED PRAKASH KAUSHIK & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1363/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The criminal revision petition filed by Manoranjan Singh against his conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The petitioner failed to rebut the statutory presumptions of Sections 118 and 139, lacking documentary evidence to support his claim that the cheque was given as a security rather than to discharge a liability. The complainant proved the loan transaction with a signed cash receipt, and arguments regarding the complainant's financial capacity were not raised during the trial. Concurrent findings of the lower courts were upheld, and no manifest illegality was identified.

MANU WADHWA @ MOHIT VS THE STATE, GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2831/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Manu Wadhwa received pre-arrest bail in an FIR for offenses under IPC Sections 420 and 406, filed by Dinesh Verma. The transactions between the parties were deemed commercial in nature, and questions of cheating would be addressed at trial. Wadhwa cooperated with the investigation, with no risk of fleeing or tampering with evidence, which could be mitigated by specific conditions. Bail was granted upon furnishing a bond and complying with certain conditions.

MANUJA SHARMA THRU SPA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2362/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition challenging the pre-arrest bail granted to the accused in a forgery case was dismissed. Considerations for bail and cancellation differ, and no compelling circumstances justified the cancellation. The Additional Sessions Judge reviewed statements from the Sub-Registrar, indicating the relinquishment deed was executed after the petitioner visited the Registrar's office. Additionally, the petitioner had filed a pending civil suit regarding the deed. At the pre-conviction stage, a presumption of innocence applies, and detention should not be punitive or preventive. There was no reason to interfere with the bail order.

MARIO ANTHONY NAZARETH VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6436/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

FIR No. 176/2019 and all related proceedings against Mario Anthony Nazareth and Arun Nanda were quashed. The main allegations involved the petitioners inducing the complainant to settle a loan related to a trust. This matter was resolved through a civil suit settlement. Submitted documents were genuine, and the complainant was not pursuing the case actively. Continuing criminal proceedings would serve no purpose and constituted an abuse of the process of law.

MAYANK BANSAL VS THE STATE(NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.REV.P.-574/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The revision petition was allowed, and the trial court's order to frame charges against Mayank Bansal under Sections 307/34 of the Indian Penal Code was set aside. The mere presence of Bansal at the incident scene, without any evidence of overt acts or common intention, was deemed insufficient to warrant charges under Section 34. Consequently, the absence of sufficient grounds led to his discharge from the alleged offences.

MD ADIL VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3659/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to MD. Adil in a case under Section 326A of the Indian Penal Code related to an acid attack. The prosecution relied primarily on the victim's testimony, which had inconsistencies. Factors considered included the nature of the accusation, punishment severity, evidence quality, risk of witness tampering, public interest, and the duration of the accused's incarceration since January 2021. The victim had already been examined and cross-examined, leading to the decision to grant bail with conditions to ensure cooperation and protect the victim.

MD. ADIL VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT FO DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3616/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

MD. Adil was granted bail on charges under Sections 328/376/506 of the Indian Penal Code due to the improbability of the prosecutrix's allegations and a delay of over 21 months in filing the FIR, raising doubts about the claims. Frequent communication between the prosecutrix and the applicant, including her admitting to initiating contact, further influenced this decision. Bail was granted with specific conditions, without addressing the case merits.

MOHD ALTAF VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4104/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Mohd Altaf was granted bail in a case under Sections 302/324/325 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution's claims of Altaf fatally stabbing a victim and injuring others during a tazia procession were not conclusively supported by evidence. Key eyewitnesses turned hostile and did not identify him, while injured witnesses' statements did not directly implicate him in the murder. Given his extended custody and the slow trial progress, bail was granted, subject to conditions, as his non-involvement in the murder charge remained a possibility.

MOHD AYUB VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2639/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Mohd Ayub was granted bail in a murder case involving Sections 302/201/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution's case relied mainly on two witness statements, which did not definitively implicate him in the murder. Allegations suggested a greater likelihood of an offense under Section 201 (disappearance of evidence) rather than Section 302 (murder). Ayub's clean background and the fact that a co-accused received bail on similar grounds contributed to the decision, with bail granted under certain conditions.

MOHD RAFI VS STATE AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-3419/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to the accused in a case involving Sections 376 IPC and 4/6 POCSO Act due to the absence of corroborating evidence, such as CCTV footage, call records, or witness statements, relying solely on the prosecutrix's testimony. The circumstances surrounding the accused's arrest raised suspicions, as it was based on a statement suggesting the accused was avoiding confrontation. The presumption under Section 29 of the POCSO Act was not met at this point, and factors such as the victim's age, the nature of the relationship between the victim and accused, and considerations regarding threats to the victim supported the decision to grant bail, subject to conditions.

MOHD. MINTOO @ MINTOO VS THE STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1161/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Mohd. Mintoo was granted bail despite the recovery of 26 kg of Ganja from his vehicle. Compliance with Section 50 of the NDPS Act regarding personal searches was deemed unnecessary since the recovery was from a vehicle. The absence of independent witnesses raised doubts, but this issue remains for the trial court to assess. A significant delay in the trial, with only 1 out of 14 witnesses examined since 2019, contributed to the bail decision, emphasizing that prolonged detention affects the right to life and liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution, warranting conditional liberty over statutory restrictions.

MOHD. RAFI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3017/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Mohd. Rafi in FIR No. 565/2021 for charges under IPC and the Arms Act. His role was identified as that of a conspirator without a proven money trail linking him to the weapons used. Co-accused Ajay had previously been granted bail. Rafi's lack of criminal history and the filing of the chargesheet contributed to the decision, with specific conditions imposed to address prosecution concerns.

MOHIT@PADDU VS THE STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1114/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Mohit @ Paddu in a murder and arms act case. Evidence regarding his presence at the crime scene was disputed due to CCTV footage. The victim's statement implicating him was recorded by police instead of a magistrate or doctor, raising admissibility concerns. Considering the trial stage and the lengthy duration expected, detention during the trial was deemed unnecessary. Bail was granted with specific conditions to address prosecution concerns.

MOIN KHAN VS THE STATE OF NCT O F DELHI THROUGH ANTF CRIME BRANCH [CRL.REV.P.-1241/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Charges against Moin Khan under Section 29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 lack sufficient basis. Allegations relying solely on co-accused's disclosure statements and CDR connectivity do not establish grave suspicion required for charge framing. The principles indicate that merely grave suspicion is necessary at this stage, without conducting a mini-trial. Consequently, Moin Khan is discharged from the case.

MONU @ VINESH VS 1.THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1893/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Monu @ Vinesh was granted bail despite charges under Sections 302/34 IPC and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act. Doubts about his presence at the crime scene arose from cell tower data indicating he was in Uttar Pradesh during the incident. His lengthy incarceration of over 3 years and the unlikely prompt conclusion of the trial supported the decision to grant bail, highlighting the importance of his fundamental rights under Article 21 of the Constitution. The bail was subject to certain conditions, with clarifications that the observations were specific to the bail application and not an assessment of the case merits.

MR. ANIL KULSHRESTHA VS M/ S FIITJEE LTD. [CRL.M.C.-4294/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition to quash criminal proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The petitioner raised mixed questions of fact and law that are not suitable for examination at the pre-trial stage. Legal presumption under Section 139 establishes that the cheque was issued for a debt or liability. Issues regarding the validity of contract terms and the enforceability of the cheques were factual and required trial evidence for resolution.

MR. SANDIP VINODKUMAR PATEL & ORS. VS STCI FINANCE LTD., & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3362/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The complaint cases filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the independent, non-executive directors of the accused company were quashed. The complaints lacked necessary averments to establish the petitioners' active role and responsibility for the company's offence, rendering them not vicariously liable under Section 141 of the Act. Continuing proceedings against the petitioners would constitute an abuse of process.

MR. SUMIT VERMA @ SUMIT SONI VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3247/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail was granted to Mr. Sumit Verma in a case involving rape and criminal intimidation. The prosecutrix's statement showed inconsistencies and delays in filing the complaint, raising concerns about its reliability. Mr. Verma cooperated with the investigation, poses no flight risk, and is unlikely to tamper with evidence. Bail was granted with certain conditions, with no further commentary on the case's merits, recognizing that the trial may take significant time.

MS. X VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3383/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail and interim bail granted to Respondent No. 2 remain in effect. Allegations under the SC/ST Act were not substantiated, and the statutory bar under Section 18 of the Act does not apply. Initial complaints lacked evidence of caste-based discrimination, with relevant allegations introduced later, raising credibility issues. Claims of bail misuse by the respondent lacked credible evidence. The petition was dismissed, with a directive for the respondent to follow bail conditions, allowing the petitioner to seek redress for any violations.

MS. XXXX VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-790/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order discharging Dharambir Singh from offences under the Scheduled Castes and Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act was upheld due to insufficient evidence. Significant inconsistencies in the complainant's statements and witness testimonies undermined the credibility of the allegations. Additional factors included a delay in filing the complaint and FIR, along with a lack of independent public witnesses to the alleged casteist remarks. The material on record did not raise grave suspicion against the accused, justifying the discharge order.

MURLI MANOHAR SAHAY VS MEGHNA SAHAY [CRL.REV.P.-239/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

An interim maintenance of ₹10,000 per month was granted to the wife based on the husband's obligation to support her, as he is an able-bodied individual. Allegations of economic and physical abuse against the husband were sufficiently established to demonstrate a prima facie case of domestic violence. The wife's non-residence with the husband, despite a decree for restitution of conjugal rights, does not invalidate the claim for interim maintenance. The husband's revision petition was dismissed.

NARENDRA SURANA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7381/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order granting pre-arrest bail to the respondent under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) was set aside. The imposition of conditions by the Additional Sessions Judge, such as directing the investigating officer to verify the respondent's handwriting and providing a 3-day notice before any arrest, was deemed contrary to the provisions of Section 482. These directions were found to restrict the statutory powers of the investigating agency. The respondent may file a fresh pre-arrest bail application before the trial court without any comments on the merits of the case.

NARESH KUMAR VS BABITA & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-702/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The Family Court's order for the petitioner husband to pay R.S. 24,000 monthly for the maintenance of his wife and two minor children was upheld. The petitioner's monthly income was assessed at approximately R.S. 48,000 based on his tax returns and his auto business, despite his claim of closure. The assessment considered the tendency of individuals in matrimonial disputes to underestimate their income. The wife's qualifications or earning potential do not negate the husband's absolute maintenance obligation unless specific disqualifying grounds exist, which were not present in this case. The petitioner's revision was dismissed but he may seek a modification under Section 127 of the CrPC if his financial situation changes.

NARESH VS SEEMA [CRL.REV.P.-195/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

A monthly maintenance of R.S. 6,000 was granted to the wife under Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The wife had valid reasons to live separately due to unchallenged cruelty from the husband. The husband, being able-bodied, has an obligation to support his wife financially, and his inability to pay was not considered a valid excuse. Irregularities in the husband's income affidavit did not negate the wife's entitlement to maintenance.

NASIR VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-562/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Nasir's criminal revision petition was dismissed, challenging the order granting interim maintenance to his wife and child. His claim of earning Rs. 10,000 per month was deemed unreliable, as it was below the minimum wage for unskilled labor. The interim maintenance of Rs. 9,000 per month (Rs. 4,500 each to the wife and child) was considered reasonable. Defenses and allegations raised by Nasir will be addressed during the trial, where a final maintenance order will be issued.

NEETU SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2385/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Neetu Singh, a director of M/s Value Infracon India Private Limited, received bail in a case involving criminal breach of trust, cheating, and conspiracy. There were no specific allegations linking her to financial management or administration of the company. Directorship alone does not incur criminal liability without a defined role. Factors such as her status as a woman and a mother of two, alongside the absence of direct allegations, influenced the decision to grant bail, subject to a bond and conditions. This does not impact any other FIRs that may be filed against her, allowing her to pursue her rights in those matters.

NIKHIL RAI HANDA VS STATE OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2499/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Nikhil Rai Handa was granted bail in a murder case involving Ms. Shailja Dwivedi. The allegations against him were deemed serious, but the evidence was primarily circumstantial and lacked eyewitness accounts. With no conclusive chain of evidence to prove his guilt beyond reasonable doubt, and considering he had spent over four years in custody with a lengthy trial expected, it was decided that further detention was unnecessary. Conditions were imposed to address concerns about potential evidence tampering or witness influence.

NITIN JAISWAL & ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1960/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Petitions challenging the grant of pre-arrest bail to Ravi Talwar and Ajay Gupta in a cheating case were dismissed. The transaction occurred in 2014, but the FIR was registered in 2018, and the complainants had also pursued a civil suit for recovery. The principle that a criminal court does not function as a recovery agent was emphasized. The lower court's order granting bail was deemed valid, as the accused cooperated with the investigation and posed no flight risk. A condition was imposed requiring the accused to file an affidavit with their travel plans outside the country.

NITIN RATHORE VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-163/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Nitin Rathore was granted bail after being arrested under the Narcotics Drugs & Psychotropic Substances Act. The substance recovered from him did not test positive for amphetamine according to an FSL report received over a year later. With the negative test results, continued detention was considered unlawful. Bail was granted with certain conditions, while clarifications noted that these observations should not affect the trial's outcome.

NITYA SHARMA VS THE STATE(NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2837/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Nitya Sharma was granted bail in an economic offenses case involving the alleged duping of over 600 members of the Skylark Multistate Co-operative Group Housing Society Ltd. The seriousness of the charges under Sections 420/406/409/120B of the Indian Penal Code was acknowledged, along with the delay in the trial and Sharma's clean antecedents. Bail was conditioned on the deposit of property documents and cooperation with the investigation and liquidation process, with a note that the observations made were specific to the bail application and would not affect the trial's outcome.

NUTAN GAUR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-597/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Criminal proceedings against Nutan Gaur were quashed due to insufficient evidence of cheating or criminal breach of trust. The allegations suggested negligence rather than fraudulent intent. The summoning order by the Magistrate was annulled for failing to adequately assess the evidence related to the alleged offences.

PANKAJ RAI VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-324/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pankaj Rai was granted bail in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. The prosecution relied primarily on disclosure statements from co-accused, which lacked admissibility without corroboration. There was no direct evidence linking Rai to the contraband recovery from others. His status as a proclaimed offender was considered questionable due to notice delivery at an old address. The absence of direct evidence, Rai's clean antecedents, and his time in custody contributed to the decision to grant bail under certain conditions.

PARAS@KARAN VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2443/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Offenses under Sections 376, 376(2)(n) IPC and Section 6 POCSO Act can be quashed due to the parties having married and leading a happy life together. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process of law, warranting the exercise of discretionary jurisdiction to dismiss the FIR and all related proceedings.

PAWAN GUPTA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-4175/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pawan Gupta was granted bail on charges of forgery related to acquiring his brother's property under various IPC sections. The evidence against him was mainly documentary and already with the investigation agency, minimizing tampering risks. His family circumstances and potential trial delays were also considered, leading to bail being granted with conditions to ensure his appearance and prevent evidence interference.

POOJA RATHORE VS STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2423/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The allegations in the FIR do not prima facie constitute an offence under Section 8 of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 against the petitioner, as the incident occurred in private premises, which are not considered a "public place" under the Act. The investigation was not conducted by the required Special Police Officer, and proceeding against the petitioner would constitute an abuse of the legal process. The FIR and all related proceedings against her have been quashed.

POONAM BATRA VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2871/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail was granted to Poonam Batra and Pranjil Batra regarding an FIR for trespassing and illegally dispossessing the complainant from a rented property. The dispute is deemed civil, with the applicants claiming the complainant defaulted on rent and surrendered the lease, while the complainant accused the applicants of forceful possession. A previous court order had released the complainant's gym equipment, and the applicants had cooperated with the investigation under an interim protection order. Bail is conditional on cooperating with the investigation, not tampering with evidence, and avoiding contact with the complainant or witnesses.

PRASHANT LUTHRA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-539/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The FIR against the petitioner was quashed, and all charges under Sections 328/376/323/377/493/509/506(Part I) of the Indian Penal Code were dismissed due to significant inconsistencies and lack of evidence supporting the complainant's allegations. The complainant's ongoing relationship with the petitioner after learning of his marital status weakened her credibility. Additionally, the vagueness in the charge framing violated procedural requirements and affected the petitioner's right to a fair trial.

PREETI SINGH AND ANR VS GOPAL SINGH [CRL.REV.P.-522/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The revision jurisdiction under Sections 397 and 482 of the CrPC is limited to assessing the correctness, legality, or propriety of an order, without detailed consideration of facts and evidence. The Family Court's assessment that the wife, earning over R.S. 25,000 per month, could maintain herself and was thus not entitled to interim maintenance was deemed reasonable. A monthly quantum of R.S. 10,000 for the minor child and R.S. 10,000 for a PPF account was also considered appropriate. The trial court was instructed to issue a final maintenance order independent of previous findings. The revision petition was dismissed.

PRINCE @ DAULAT VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-6/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Prince @ Daulat in a case involving murder and the Arms Act. The only eyewitness, the deceased's father, turned hostile and denied implicating the applicant. The long duration of the applicant's incarceration was noted, and it was deemed unnecessary to continue custody as the trial would take time. Conditions were set to address concerns about evidence tampering and trial evasion. The observations made were intended solely for the bail decision and should not influence the trial's outcome.

PRITPAL SINGH VS STATE [CRL.M.C.-5732/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner was deemed not to have 'conscious possession' of live cartridges found in his baggage, as evidence indicated he was unaware of their presence. The petitioner's explanation was considered plausible, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings, contingent upon the payment of R.S. 50,000.

PUNEET AGARAWAL VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-904/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Puneet Agarawal and Vinit Agarawal in a 2000 case under Sections 365A/341/324/323/506 of the Indian Penal Code. The victim had expired, and no statement was recorded under Section 299 of the CrPC. The sole public witness was untraceable. Given the significant delay since the FIR and low chances of conviction, the applicants were permitted to be released on bail after providing a personal bond of R.S. 50,000/- with one surety of the same amount, subject to specific conditions.

PUNIT KUMAR VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3332/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Punit Kumar received bail after almost 3 years in custody without a completed trial in a robbery case. The case relied mainly on disclosure statements with limited corroborating evidence. His young age, lack of criminal history, and prolonged incarceration indicated that continued custody would serve as unjust punishment. Bail was granted with conditions to mitigate concerns about witness tampering and potential flight risk.

PUSHPENDER @ PUSHI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2474/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Pushpender @ Pushi, charged with the murder of his wife and mother-in-law under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code. The case relied on circumstantial evidence, with discrepancies noted in the testimony of a key witness and another witness becoming hostile. Pushpender had spent over 4 years in custody, and a timely trial seemed unlikely. Conditions for bail were imposed to prevent evidence tampering or evasion of trial. Emphasis was placed on the principles of a speedy trial and the presumption of innocence, highlighting that deprivation of liberty should not serve as punishment in the absence of a timely judicial process.

PYARE LAL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2617/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Pyare Lal in a case involving the alleged kidnapping and sexual assault of a minor. Conflicting evidence regarding the victim's age was noted, with her Aadhaar card indicating adulthood while school records suggested she was a minor. The serious nature of the offense was acknowledged, but Pyare Lal had already spent over two years in incarceration, and the trial was unlikely to conclude soon. Bail was granted under strict conditions to protect his fundamental right to liberty, with the court's observations intended only for the bail decision and not influencing the trial's outcome.

RAFIQUE KHAN VS NCB [BAIL APPLN.-3603/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Rafique Khan was granted bail in a case involving 661 kg of Ganja under the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The delay in trial and absence of independent witnesses influenced the decision. Prolonged incarceration raised concerns over his fundamental right to life and liberty, which took precedence over statutory restrictions. Procedural issues regarding compliance with the NDPS Act and sampling were deemed appropriate for trial rather than a barrier to bail. Bail was granted on conditions including cooperation with the investigation and avoiding interference with evidence or witnesses.

RAHUL KESARWANI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3341/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The application to initiate perjury proceedings against the respondent was dismissed based on findings that alleged inconsistencies and contradictions in her trial submissions did not demonstrate intentional and material falsehoods necessary for prosecution. The discrepancies regarding forged jewelry bills, misrepresented financial information, and false statements about electricity bills were deemed insufficient to establish willful perjury. The power to invoke Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is discretionary and was not considered appropriate in this case.

RAHUL RAI VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-805/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The case involving the juvenile petitioner was transferred to the Children's Court based on assessments of his mental and physical capacity, understanding of the alleged offence, and the circumstances of the crime. It was concluded that he possessed the required understanding and capacity, and the brutal nature of the alleged offence justified not treating him as a child. The challenge to the lower court orders was dismissed.

RAHUL VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-720/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Rahul, charged under Sections 302/147/149/307/323/120B IPC and the Arms Act for an assault in Tihar Jail, was granted bail. Although he was present in an unlawful assembly and was seen with a stick, CCTV footage did not show his active participation in the assault. Conviction under Section 149 IPC requires evidence that the act was done to achieve a common objective and that it was known to all members; mere presence is insufficient for liability under Section 302 IPC. Considering his lack of direct involvement and prior bail orders in other FIRs, bail was granted with specific conditions.

RAHUL VS THE STATE AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-120/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail was granted in a rape case under Section 376 IPC due to a lack of corroborative evidence and inconsistencies in the allegations. There was a delay in filing the FIR, a prior statement from the victim indicated a consensual relationship, and details about the incident were vague. Although the offense is serious, concerns regarding evidence tampering or victim threats could be managed through specific bail conditions. The bail application was approved with conditions for the applicant.

RAJ KUMAR VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted as Section 37 of the NDPS Act does not apply due to lack of evidence linking the applicant to the contraband recovered from co-accused. The disclosure statements of co-accused lack admissibility without corroboration. Additionally, the lengthy trial delay and the applicant's extended incarceration warranted the granting of bail.

RAJA KHAN VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Raja Khan was granted bail despite serious charges under the IPC and POCSO Act due to significant contradictions regarding the victim's age and her hostile testimony, in which she claimed to have willingly accompanied the accused in a romantic relationship. Having been in custody since October 2019, the lengthy incarceration and the likelihood of a prolonged trial contributed to the decision to grant bail with specific conditions.

RAJNI BATRA & ORS. VS NAVEEN BATRA ALIAS YASHPAL BATRA [CRL.REV.P.-184/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The husband must financially support his wife and children, with interim maintenance set at ₹22,000 per month, factoring in his medical expenses and potential earnings from the family business. The wife's request for increased maintenance was deemed unreasonable given the husband's financial needs, and the argument regarding the wife's earning capacity did not absolve the husband of his obligations. The husband carries the burden of proving the wife's financial independence. This ruling is for interim maintenance, with further issues to be addressed at trial.

RAJU GARG @ NAVEEN VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5381/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Raju Garg @ Naveen was discharged from charges under Sections 420/467/468/471 read with Section 120B of the Indian Penal Code. No prima facie case was established, as evidence did not indicate his involvement in a conspiracy to cheat the bank. The co-accused linking him to the main accused had already been discharged, making it inappropriate to frame charges against Garg.

RAJU SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-611/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The conviction of the appellants under Sections 323/304(II)/308/34 of the Indian Penal Code was set aside due to the trial court's failure to re-examine the appellants under Section 313 of the Code of Criminal Procedure after key prosecution witnesses were re-examined years later. This oversight denied the appellants a fair opportunity to address new evidence, compromising their defense rights. The case was remanded for a fresh trial and expedited retrial within six months.

RAJU VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2791/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The bail application of Raju was dismissed due to charges under Sections 365/364A/323/34 of the Indian Penal Code for the abduction of a victim and a ransom demand of R.S. 50,000. Evidence, including the victim's statement and recorded phone calls, suggested the applicant's involvement. The serious nature of the offenses, alongside concerns about the applicant possibly influencing the trial or threatening the victim, contributed to the decision. The victim has not yet been examined. Observations made in this context are intended only for the bail decision and do not impact the trial's outcome.

RAKESH KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH THE SHO CRIME BRANCH, PUSHP VIHAR, DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3278/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to the applicant charged under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act, despite the serious nature of the offenses. The decision highlighted issues in the prosecution's case, including the absence of independent witnesses and lack of photographic evidence from the raid. The applicant had been in custody for over three years with only three of eighteen witnesses examined, raising concerns about trial delays. The prolonged incarceration was deemed a violation of the applicant's right to life and liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution, outweighing the restrictions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Bail was granted under specific conditions, with the assurance that the observations would not affect the ongoing trial.

RAKESH SAINI VS SANGEETA SAINI & ANR. & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-1126/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Rakesh Saini was ordered to pay ₹4,800 per month as interim maintenance to his wife Sangeeta Saini and their minor child. The petitioner's income was assessed as adequate for his obligation to support his family, despite his claims of low income. His argument against the maintenance amount was rejected, and the petition was dismissed.

RAM SINGH VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-545/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Ram Singh, a director of Alpine Realtech Private Limited, was granted bail despite serious allegations of criminal conspiracy and misappropriation of funds from home buyers. The chargesheet had been filed, and the company entered insolvency proceedings with an approved resolution plan. Multiple FIRs were registered on similar allegations, raising concerns about appropriateness. Singh had already spent over 300 days in custody, and consideration was given to his age and health. Bail was granted upon furnishing a personal bond and compliance with conditions to ensure cooperation in the trial.

RAMESH YADAV VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT, DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3226/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail was granted to Ramesh Yadav in an FIR under Sections 420/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Custodial interrogation was deemed unnecessary as the applicant cooperated with the investigation. Bail was conditioned to ensure continued cooperation and prevent evidence tampering, with observations made solely for the bail decision, not reflecting on the case's merits.

RAVEESH VATS VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3641/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Raveesh Vats was granted regular bail under Section 439 CrPC in FIR No. 99/2017 for offenses involving fraud and conspiracy. Vats, an authorized signatory for Alpine Realtech Pvt Ltd, faced allegations of misappropriating funds from home buyers. Multiple FIRs existed against him, but he had previously obtained bail in those cases. The developer company entered insolvency proceedings, and a resolution plan was approved, addressing the home buyers' claims, with the project now managed by a new entity. The evidence was largely documentary, the investigation complete, and a chargesheet filed. Factors considered included the presumption of bail as the norm, the likelihood of a prolonged trial, and Vats' conduct while on interim bail. Regular bail was granted with specific conditions, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

RAVI SHUKLA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3496/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The application for pre-arrest bail filed by Ravi Shukla in an NDPS case was dismissed. Considerations for granting pre-arrest bail differ from those for regular bail and should be applied sparingly in cases involving serious offenses under the NDPS Act. The accused's involvement in a larger drug syndicate, the recovery of a commercial quantity of contraband, and the necessity for custodial interrogation to reveal the extent of the criminal conspiracy outweighed the right to liberty. Granting pre-arrest bail could obstruct the investigation and compromise the interests of justice.

RAVI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1731/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Ravi was granted bail in a case involving serious charges under multiple sections of the Indian Penal Code. The lack of direct evidence linking him to the crime, alongside reliance on statements from a co-accused, led to the conclusion that his involvement could not be presumed. Consideration of his prolonged incarceration and delays in the trial indicated that further custody was unwarranted. Bail was granted with conditions, including cooperation with the investigation and adherence to directives regarding evidence and witness interaction.

RITAH KYOLABA VS CUSTOMS [BAIL APPLN.-786/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Ritah Kyolaba's bail application was dismissed following her arrest for carrying a commercial quantity of heroin under the NDPS Act. The accused did not establish a prima facie case for bail, failing to meet the requirements of Section 37 of the Act. Arguments regarding improper sampling procedures and trial delays were acknowledged but deemed insufficient for granting bail at this time, as these matters will be addressed during the trial.

RIZWAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2800/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to the applicant in an NDPS case despite the recovery of a commercial quantity of drugs due to prolonged trial delays. The lack of independent witnesses and failure to document the raid were factors undermining the prosecution's case. The bail restrictions associated with the NDPS Act were relaxed based on the trial delay, which impacted the right to life and liberty. Bail was granted with specific conditions, with the observations aimed only at the bail application and not influencing the forthcoming trial.

ROSHAN VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2478/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Roshan in the murder case of her 3-year-old niece. The case relies primarily on circumstantial evidence and an alleged extra-judicial confession, considered weak without corroboration. There is a lack of direct evidence and limited progress in the trial, with only 18 out of 30 witnesses examined. The significant delay in trial and Roshan's status as a woman entitled to special consideration contributed to the decision. Conditions were attached to the bail, which does not reflect any opinion on the case merits.

S.G. WINES A PARTNERSHIP FIRM THROUGH ITS PARTNER R. SELVAM & ANR. VS SAB MILLER INDIA LTD. [CRL.M.C.-3396/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Petitions by the accused firm and its partner to quash criminal complaints under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were dismissed. The change of the complainant's name from Sab Miller India Ltd. to Anheuser Busch Inbev India Ltd. was considered a formal issue, with no evidence of prejudice to the petitioners. The inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 CrPC should be exercised sparingly at the pre-trial stage, and the petitioners' arguments did not justify quashing the proceedings. The trial court was directed to expedite the pending complaints from 2018.

SAHNE ALAM @ SAHIL CAUDHARY VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2791/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner challenged the determination of not being a juvenile during the alleged incident. School records suggested the petitioner was a minor based on the reported date of birth, but an ossification test indicated an age between 21-22 years during examination. Discrepancies in identity documents were noted, and the ossification test was deemed a more reliable method for age assessment. The conclusion established that the petitioner was approximately 19 years old at the time of the alleged offense and could not be classified as a juvenile.

SAIFUL KHAN VS STATE & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-4440/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The pre-arrest bail application of Saiful Khan was dismissed due to allegations of sexual exploitation and abuse of a 15-year-old girl, comprising charges under Sections 354(D), 506 of the IPC, and Section 12 of the POCSO Act. The examination of the case materials indicated prima facie involvement, with concerns that granting bail could hinder the investigation and negatively impact efforts to protect children from such offenses.

SANDHYA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2725/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Sandhya was granted bail in a case involving charges of kidnapping, assault, and attempted murder. The victim's hostile and contradictory statements raised doubts about the allegations. Sandhya's status as a woman and uncertainty regarding her awareness of the victim's potential injuries were considered. Bail was granted upon furnishing a personal bond and adhering to specific conditions, with a clarification that the observations were not indicative of the trial's outcome.

SANJAY ADHANA VS THE STATE OF GOVT. NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3540/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Sanjay Adhana was granted bail in connection with an FIR under Sections 420/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code for alleged cheating. The incriminating evidence against him is primarily documentary and in possession of the investigating agency, eliminating concerns of evidence tampering or witness influence. Co-accused Nand Kishore, with a more substantial role, has already received bail, which the state did not contest. Principles emphasizing bail as the norm and the need to avoid pre-conviction punishment also supported the decision to grant bail to Adhana under specified conditions.

SANJAY KHATRI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1281/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail was granted to Sanjay Khatri, charged with attempting to commit rape on his minor daughter under IPC Sections 354/354B/506(II) and Section 10 of the POCSO Act. Factors influencing the decision included a history of marital discord, initial statements from the victim denying wrongdoing, and a delayed complaint. The victim's current statement did not inspire confidence. Bail was granted with conditions, as Khatri cooperated with the investigation and was not considered a flight risk or likely to tamper with evidence.

SANJAY KUMAR TIWARI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2056/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The judgment of conviction against the petitioner was set aside due to the absence of the actual judgment purportedly pronounced on September 24, 2019. The copy provided was later prepared and not properly pronounced in open court as required. Omissions in the procedure could not be justified under Section 353(7) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The case will be remanded to the trial court for fresh final arguments and judgment in accordance with the law.

SANJAY MALIK ALIAS SANT SEVAK DAS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DEHI AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-1775/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The bail application of the accused in a sexual assault case involving a foreign national was dismissed due to serious allegations and the pending testimony of a crucial foreign witness. Despite recognizing trial delays, measures were directed for the foreign witness to be examined via video conferencing. Bail was denied based on the severity of the alleged offence and the necessity of completing witness examinations before making a bail decision.

SANJEEV GUPTA VS RITU GUPTA [CRL.M.C.-2505/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The decisions of the lower courts not to initiate proceedings under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure against the respondent for filing a false affidavit of income and assets were upheld. False statements in the affidavit were acknowledged, but it was not considered expedient to order an inquiry in this case. The impact of the falsehoods was deemed minimal, with no significant hindrance to the administration of justice, and no adverse consequences for the petitioner. Initiating prosecution for personal vendetta between the parties was discouraged.

SARABJEET SINGH VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3509/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitions by Karnail Singh Cheema and Sarabjeet Singh were allowed, and the order summoning them as accused under Section 319 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was set aside. The previous discharge of the petitioners in 2013, based on evidence, had become final as it was not challenged. The civil suit between the parties was compromised. There was no new material presented to justify the summoning, and reliance solely on the complainant's statement did not meet the necessary requirements under Sections 300(5) and 398 of the CrPC, rendering the summoning order invalid.

SWATI MALIWAL VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-236/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Charges were framed against members of the Delhi Commission for Women under Section 120B of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 13(1)(d)/13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act. Sufficient prima facie material indicated that the accused abused their positions to appoint individuals linked to the Aam Aadmi Party without following due process, violating rules and regulations. Claims of the DCW being an autonomous body and that violations of General Financial Rules were non-criminal were rejected, as the allegations of nepotism and lack of transparency in appointments warranted the charges.

SATBIR VS STATE GNCTD [CRL.REV.P.-197/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner was not entitled to a 2-year margin of error for age determined by an ossification test. Examination of multiple joints allowed for a reduced margin of 6 months. Even with this adjustment, the petitioner remained above 18 years of age at the time of the alleged incident. No reasons were found to grant a 1-year benefit under the Juvenile Justice Rules, leading to the dismissal of the petitioner's challenge to the trial court's refusal to declare him a juvenile.

SATISH KUMAR JAIN VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-682/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The concurrent findings of the lower courts regarding the petitioner's conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were upheld. The petitioner admitted his signatures on the cheques, raising evidentiary presumptions against him. He did not provide a sufficient defense to rebut these presumptions, and his claims of giving the cheques as security without owing a debt to the respondent lacked supporting evidence. The presumptions against him remained unchallenged.

SATISH SHARMA VS STATE(GNCTD) AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-8012/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition by Satish Sharma challenging the dismissal of his criminal complaint against police officials was dismissed. Allegations of illegal detention, extortion, and obtaining signatures on blank papers lacked independent corroboration, including from CCTV footage. Additionally, an FIR had been registered against Sharma, and his anticipatory bail application had been denied. The dismissal of the complaint was upheld due to well-reasoned findings in lower courts and the absence of a gross miscarriage of justice.

SATPAL @ KAKE VS THE STATE THROUGH SHO WITH P.S PRASHANT VIHAR [BAIL APPLN.-493/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Satpal @ Kake was granted bail after being charged under Sections 394/34, 120B of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act. The case primarily relied on the hearsay evidence from a co-accused, with no direct evidence linking the recovered motorcycle to the alleged crime. Being in custody since July 2022 and with a chargesheet filed, continued detention was deemed unnecessary. Conditions were imposed to prevent potential threats to the victim or evasion of trial.

SATTAR VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1006/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

In assessing a bail application for offenses under the POCSO Act, it is necessary to evaluate the prima facie evidence regarding the accused's guilt, considering factors such as the age of the victim, the accused, and the nature of their relationship. In this case, the victim's testimony showed contradictions and lacked corroborative evidence. The accused was a young man with no prior offenses, and the trial would likely be lengthy, with only three out of fourteen witnesses examined. Given these circumstances, bail was granted with specific conditions to prevent evidence tampering or threats to the victim.

SATYAVOL VENKAT RAMA KRISHNA RAO VS KAVITA RAO [CRL.M.C.-1222/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The husband's appeal was dismissed while the wife's appeal was allowed in a domestic violence case. Enhanced maintenance for the child was granted until graduation, compensation for the wife for household expenses was awarded, and her right to reside in the shared premises was secured. The ASJ's decisions were upheld as well-reasoned and compliant with the Domestic Violence Act. The matter involved the husband filing two separate criminal miscellaneous petitions.

SH RAJAN GUPTA VS SMT VIMAL KIRTI [CRL.REV.P.-476/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Interim maintenance of ₹53,000 per month was granted to the wife due to prima facie evidence of domestic violence. The husband's claim of earning ₹20,000-₹25,000 was deemed unsubstantiated, with an assessment of his income at least ₹1 lakh per month based on his lifestyle and expenditures. The husband is expected to support his wife and children, as her right to maintenance is absolute unless disqualified. The awarded amount was considered reasonable given the wife's obligation to care for three children.

SH. JAI BHAGWAN VS STATE [CRL.M.C.-298/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Jai Bhagwan, a Motor Vehicle Inspector, was discharged for lack of evidence to frame charges under Sections 468, 471, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code. His role was limited to providing administrative approval for driving license applications, without primary responsibility for document verification. The prosecution did not establish any dishonest intention or knowledge regarding the forged documents used by co-accused individuals. Consequently, the order to frame charges against him was set aside.

SH. MOHIT SHARMA VS SMT. POOJA SHARMA [CRL.REV.P.-24/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner's challenge to the enhanced interim maintenance of Rs. 20,000 per month for his wife and minor child was dismissed. The assessment of the petitioner's income and assets revealed undisclosed earnings and concealed information about agricultural land and a pharmacy business. As an able-bodied man, he was expected to support his family, making the increased maintenance amount reasonable under the circumstances.

SH. S.P. DUA VS SH. O.P. DEWAN [CRL.L.P.-530/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The acquittal of the respondent in a case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld due to sufficient evidence that rebutted the presumptions of Sections 118 and 139. The respondent established that no loan was borrowed from the petitioner and that the cheque was not for any legally enforceable debt. Evidence, including a settlement agreement and witness testimony, indicated that the petitioner paid ₹4.25 lakhs to the respondent as part of a settlement, with an additional ₹3.75 lakhs paid later, after the respondent vacated the tenanted premises. The petitioner's case contained contradictions and inconsistencies, supporting the acquittal.

SHWETA DOGRA VS SHOBHIT SHARMA [CRL.REV.P.-914/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The Family Court's assessment of the husband's monthly income at R.S. 50,000 was considered low. Taking into account his involvement in the family business, ownership of an expensive car, and the common tendency to understate income in matrimonial disputes, the husband's monthly income was reasonably assessed at R.S. 75,000. The wife was deemed entitled to lead a lifestyle similar to that in her matrimonial home, leading to an increase of her interim maintenance from R.S. 16,000 to R.S. 25,000 per month. The husband's review petition was dismissed while the wife's review petition was allowed, requiring the husband to pay the enhanced maintenance from the date of her application under Section 125 CrPC.

SH. SUDHANSHU JAGGI & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1083/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The interim maintenance order under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act was upheld due to prima facie evidence of domestic violence against the wife. Interim maintenance and rent were granted based on a reasonable estimate of the husband's income, despite his claims of lower earnings. The husband's appeal was dismissed after he did not take the opportunities provided to present his arguments.

SH. VARUN JAIN, ADVOCATE VS AJAY KALSI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5183/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition challenging the dismissal of an application under Section 156(3) of the CrPC was dismissed. It was established that the complainant had sufficient evidence available without needing police assistance for investigation. The petitioner could present this evidence in an inquiry under Section 200 CrPC. No miscarriage of justice or legal irregularity occurred in the lower court proceedings.

SH. VIJAY DEV DABAS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4459/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

FIR No. 605/2021 and the associated proceedings were quashed due to violations of Sections 195 and 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The alleged offences under Sections 193 and 199 of the Indian Penal Code, related to a false affidavit filed before the Revenue Court, required a written complaint from that court for cognizance. The absence of such a complaint rendered the entire legal process flawed, necessitating its quashing to uphold the integrity of the criminal justice system.

SHAKUNTALA DEVI VS STATE & ANR [CRL.L.P.-22/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner's appeal against the respondents' acquittal was dismissed. The trial court's decision was justified, lacking substantial reasons for interference. Allegations made by the petitioner lacked independent witness corroboration, and doubts arose due to an unexplained delay in reaching the hospital and potential false implications stemming from previous enmity. No grounds existed to overturn the trial court's acquittal.

SHASHI AGGARWAL VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELH) & ANR [CRL.M.C.-3908/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail granted to Kashish Jai remains intact as conditions for cancellation are unmet. The Magistrate's order considered the prima facie case, offense gravity, and personal circumstances of the accused. The co-accused, identified as the main mastermind, had also received bail earlier. A presumption of innocence exists at the pre-conviction stage, and detention should not serve punitive or preventive purposes. The application for cancellation of bail is dismissed.

SHIVAM VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3312/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Shivam received bail after being charged under Sections 21 and 25 of the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act for allegedly possessing a commercial quantity of heroin. Despite strict requirements under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, the long duration of his incarceration, exceeding two years, and trial delays were significant factors. The prosecution's case lacked independent witnesses and photographic/video evidence, raising doubts about its credibility. Shivam demonstrated a prima facie case for bail and was deemed unlikely to reoffend, given his clean record. Bail was granted with conditions including a personal bond.

SHRADHA SURANA & ANR. VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2393/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Shradha Surana was granted bail in an NDPS case due to the absence of direct evidence and her prolonged incarceration. The disclosure statements of both the applicant and a co-accused were deemed inadmissible. No incriminating recovery was made from Surana, and the delay in trial was considered a relevant factor. Bail was granted under specific conditions.

SHRADHA SURANA VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-2397/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Shradha Surana was granted bail despite being accused under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The disclosure statements of co-accused cannot be used as evidence against her without corroboration, leading to a lack of material linking her to the recovery of drugs. The conditions under the Act did not apply in her case, and factors such as trial delays and co-accused being granted bail influenced the decision.

SHUKLA CHAKRABORTY VS SNEHANSHU DAS PANDIT [CRL.REV.P.-1015/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The maintenance amount of R.S. 12,000 per month granted to Shukla Chakraborty is upheld as just and reasonable based on the financial circumstances of both parties. The show-cause notice against her under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is set aside, with an emphasis on discouraging the routine abuse of this provision in matrimonial disputes, allowing prosecution only in cases of evident deliberate falsehood.

SMT. KAMLESH VS SHRI TEJPAL [CRL.L.P.-598/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The lower court's judgment acquitting the respondent of the offense under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was set aside. Presumptions under Sections 118 and 139 applied against the respondent due to a lack of dispute regarding the execution and issuance of the cheque. The respondent failed to provide a plausible defense to counter these presumptions. His claim of advancing a loan with a condition for a guarantor was deemed implausible.

SMT. MEENA GILL VS SH. PRADEEP GUPTA AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3754/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The allegations by Sh. Pradeep Kumar Gupta against Smt. Meena Gill established a prima facie case of criminal intimidation under Section 506 of the Indian Penal Code. Gupta's claim of being threatened with false implication in a sexual harassment case, supported by witness testimonies, met the requirements for issuing summons. At the summons stage, only a prima facie assessment of sufficient grounds is necessary, without determining the final conviction. The challenge to the summoning order was dismissed, emphasizing cautious use of section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, particularly after a Sessions Judge's revisional decision.

SMT. RITU AGGARWAL @ ADITI & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3857/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The plea of limitation by the petitioners was deemed meritless, as the FIR was filed within the appropriate period and the delay in the chargesheet was not attributable to the complainant. However, the allegations and evidence did not establish a strong prima facie case, leading to the discharge of the petitioners from charges under Sections 451, 341, 323, and 506(II) of the IPC.

SOVRAJ VS STATE GOVT.OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2537/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The applicant established a prima facie case for bail due to the absence of independent witnesses, lack of photographic or video evidence of recovery, and significant trial delay. While Section 37 of the NDPS Act imposes restrictions, the trial delay infringes on the right to life and liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution, necessitating conditional liberty. Investigation procedural lapses, such as delays in filing and improper sampling, raise doubts about the prosecution's case but do not justify bail at this stage. Bail was granted with conditions, including a personal bond, restrictions on travel outside Delhi, and cooperation with the investigation.

STATE (NCT OF DELHI) THROUGH DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF POLICE VS SACHIN JAIN [CRL.REV.P.-119/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Sachin Jain was discharged from charges under Section 285 of the Indian Penal Code due to insufficient evidence of negligence in storing acid at his factory, which was later used in an attack. The material provided did not raise "grave suspicion" against Jain, and the evidence was adequately assessed by the trial court. The discussion included the limited scope of revisional jurisdiction under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the principles for framing charges under Sections 227 and 228.

STATE (NCT OF DELHI) VS RAJINDER SINGH @ RAJINDER SINGH MADAN [CRL.L.P.-551/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petition for leave to appeal against the acquittal of the respondent accused under the Prevention of Corruption Act was dismissed. The prosecution failed to establish a prima facie case due to the inadmissibility of key audio-video evidence and contradictory, unreliable evidence regarding the demand and acceptance of a bribe. There were no substantial reasons to grant the appeal.

STATE NCT OF DELHI VS RAKESH DUA [CRL.REV.P.-68/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Rakesh Dua was discharged from charges under the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, Minimum Wages Act, and Indian Penal Code. The evidence did not establish a prima facie case of forced labor or unlawful compulsory labor, as the victims voluntarily took loans and received minimum wages, with no claims of physical or sexual exploitation. The discharge order was upheld.

STATE NCT OF DELHI VS SANTOSH KUMAR [CRL.REV.P.-397/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The accused was discharged from charges under Section 376 IPC (rape) due to lack of credible and consistent evidence. The prosecutrix made contradictory statements regarding the relationship, and there was a significant delay in filing the FIR. It was determined that initial consent in a relationship does not become invalid due to a failure to fulfill a promise of marriage. The absence of grave suspicion against the accused justified the discharge order.

STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI VS LAXMI & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-444/2008]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The State's petition challenging the order framing charges under Sections 323/324/325/304/34 IPC, but not under Sections 302/307 IPC, was dismissed. The trial court's decision not to frame charges under 302 and 307 IPC was based on a plausible assessment of the evidence and consideration of the totality of the acts. The trial court applied proper judicial reasoning, and no grounds for interference with the order were found.

STATE OF NCT OF DELHI VS AJAY KUMAR JATAV [CRL.L.P.-101/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The state's petition for leave to appeal against the respondent's acquittal under Sections 392/397 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The lack of a prima facie case and credible grounds for interference with the trial court's judgment were noted. The complainant's testimony contained significant contradictions, and the absence of independent witnesses raised doubts about the evidence. It was concluded that the trial court's acquittal was not unreasonable, leading to the denial of the state's request.

STATE VS ASHISH KUMAR [CRL.REV.P.-444/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The state's petition to set aside the order discharging the accused was dismissed due to insufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case for offences under Sections 363, 366, or 376 of the IPC or Section 4 of the POCSO Act. The prosecutrix voluntarily left home and met the accused, with no allegations of sexual assault or forced marriage. The appeal was also rejected due to a 170-day delay in filing, with no sufficient explanation provided.

STATE VS BASANT MISHRA @ SURAJ [CRL.L.P.-339/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The State's petition challenging the acquittal of Basant Mishra in a rape case involving a minor was dismissed due to insufficient reasons for a delay of over 700 days in filing the appeal. The testimony of the minor victim was found inconsistent and not credible, raising the possibility of false implication of the respondent. The State failed to establish a prima facie case, leading to the dismissal of both the leave petition and the applications for condonation of delay.

STATE VS DURGESH NANDINI & ANR [CRL.REV.P.-80/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The Additional Sessions Judge discharged Respondent No. 1 from charges under Sections 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code, as the allegations did not constitute criminal intimidation. A police cancellation report indicated no offense was made out, yet the magistrate took cognizance, deemed irregular. There was insufficient material to frame charges against Respondent No. 1.

STATE VS MANPAL & ORS [CRL.L.P.-519/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The trial court's acquittal of the respondents was upheld due to the victim's statements being materially contradictory and lacking corroboration. The victim's account was deemed unreliable and inconsistent, failing to meet the standard required for testimony to be accepted without additional support.

STATE VS PRINCE & ANR [CRL.REV.P.-574/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order discharging the respondents from charges under Sections 302/34/120B of the Indian Penal Code was upheld. The circumstantial evidence did not create grave suspicion regarding the respondents' involvement in the alleged murder beyond reasonable doubt. The material on record did not directly incriminate them.

STATE VS RAJ KUMAR MISHRA & ORS [CRL.REV.P.-369/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Charges were framed against respondents under Sections 347/304(I)/34 of the Indian Penal Code, but not under Section 302 for murder. The prosecution's case indicated a lack of mens rea for murder, as the deceased was caught attempting robbery and beaten in the heat of the moment, without premeditation. At the charge-framing stage, the evaluation of the material must establish if a prima facie case exists, considering the broad probabilities rather than acting solely on prosecution evidence.

STATE VS SHARAD INDU GOEL [CRL.M.C.-3854/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitions by the State challenging the bail order for Rakesh Goel and Sharad Indu Goel, related to a fire incident at the Arpit hotel in Karol Bagh that resulted in 17 fatalities, were dismissed. The trial court's decision was deemed well-reasoned, with the allegations not sufficiently indicating culpable homicide not amounting to murder. The respondents had already spent around 90 days in custody, and the investigation was complete, making further detention unnecessary. No issues were identified in the trial court's bail grant.

STATE VS RAVI KUMAR @ TONI [CRL.L.P.-340/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The State's leave petition challenging the acquittal of the respondent under the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 was dismissed due to procedural lapses in the prosecution's case. The mandatory requirement to inform the accused of their rights regarding search presence was not met, and there was a lack of independent public witnesses during the search. Additionally, the search conduct between sunset and sunrise lacked proper authorization, and significant contradictions in witness testimonies further undermined the prosecution's position. The acquittal order was found to be well-reasoned and legally sound.

STATE VS SANTOSH & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-888/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The order discharging Santosh, Kavita, Suman, and Seema from charges under Sections 308/323/34 IPC was upheld. The evidence against them was deemed lacking in specificity and influenced by ongoing disputes. No grave suspicion was found, and the decision showed no perversity or patent illegality warranting interference.

STATE VS SARJEET [CRL.L.P.-547/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The State's petition to appeal the acquittal of the respondent charged under the POCSO Act was dismissed. The trial court's findings regarded the victim's testimony as unreliable due to contradictions, and the prosecution did not prove beyond reasonable doubt that the victim was a minor at the time of the incident. Additionally, even if the victim were a minor, evidence was lacking to show that the respondent had kidnapped her, as she had voluntarily accompanied him. The State failed to establish a prima facie case.

STATE VS SHATRUGHAN [CRL.REV.P.-76/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

No prima facie case was established against the accused under Sections 363/376 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 6 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act. The prosecutrix stated she left home voluntarily and had a consensual relationship with the accused, with no allegations of sexual assault. The evidence presented did not meet the necessary elements of the alleged offenses, indicating that broader probabilities of the case must be considered.

SUBHASH NAGAR VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3629/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Subhash Nagar, a director of M/s Swag Production Private Limited, received bail despite accusations of cheating investors by making false promises of high returns and misappropriating their funds. The allegations against Nagar were not deemed more severe than those of co-accused individuals who had already been granted bail. With the investigation nearly complete and a chargesheet filed, the decision emphasized the principle that bail is the norm and that the right to a speedy trial is essential. Bail was granted under specific conditions.

SUDARSHAN VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7409/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner's application to recall the child victim for further cross-examination was dismissed due to inadequate justification for the 15-month delay and the potential violation of fair trial principles and the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act. The need to prevent further trauma to child victims in court was emphasized, highlighting the balance between the rights of the accused and the protection of vulnerable witnesses. The application did not fulfill the requirements for invoking Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

SUDHANSHU KUMAR ALIAS SUDHANSHU MISHRA VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1989/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Sudhanshu Kumar alias Sudhanshu Mishra was granted bail in a case involving allegations of rape and criminal intimidation. The prosecutrix's credibility was questioned due to a significant delay in filing the FIR, and evidence indicated a consensual relationship. Keeping the 20-year-old applicant in custody was deemed unnecessary, and conditions were imposed for bail. These included prohibitions on contacting the prosecutrix or her family, weekly reporting to the local police station, and restrictions on leaving the country without permission.

SUKHVINDER SINGH VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2774/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Sukhvinder Singh in an FIR under Section 20 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. Despite the recovery of a commercial quantity of contraband (Ganja), the applicant demonstrated a prima facie case for bail due to the lack of independent witnesses, significant trial delays with only 2 of 13 witnesses examined, and a clean record. Procedural irregularities regarding the filing of the application and sample testing may be addressed during trial, but the applicant's right to liberty under Article 21 was prioritized over statutory restrictions.

SULIAMAN AGHA SAIHOON VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-320/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Suliaman Agha Saihoon, charged under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, as the recovery of small and intermediate quantities of contraband did not invoke the strict provisions of the Act. Considering his clean record and the potential for a lengthy trial, bail was granted with conditions including restrictions on travel outside the National Capital Region, passport surrender, and assurance from the Afghan embassy regarding his appearance in court.

SUMAN KUMAR VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE, DELHI POLICE AND ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-1098/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The decision to dismiss the petitioner's application under Section 156(3) of the CrPC and to take cognizance of the complaint under Section 200 was upheld. The allegations made by the petitioner were deemed to represent a breach of contract dispute, not appropriate for criminal jurisdiction. The evidence needed to support the claims was primarily documentary and accessible to the petitioner, negating the necessity for police involvement in the investigation. No exceptional circumstances were established to justify the use of extraordinary jurisdiction under Section 482 of the CrPC, and the Magistrate's order was deemed legally sound.

SUMAN MALHOTRA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3782/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
The dismissal of the petitioner's application for further investigation in the FIR under Section 306 IPC was upheld. Evidence at this stage does not meet the requirements for Section 302 IPC. The FSL report for the seized mobile phones is pending, and future evidence related to Section 302 IPC may allow for appropriate orders from the trial court. The maintainability of the petitioner's application under Section 173(8) CrPC was not addressed, and the trial court was instructed to hear arguments on charge without influence from previous observations.

SUMIT FAGNA VS THE STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-4193/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Bail was granted to Sumit Fagna in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. The primary evidence against him, a co-accused's disclosure statement, lacked sufficient corroboration. Other evidence, including call detail records and financial transactions, did not adequately establish his involvement. The material on record was insufficient to link him to the alleged offence, and the conditions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act did not obstruct the grant of bail. Considering Fagna's clean antecedents and the completion of the investigation, a prima facie case for bail was established.

SUMIT KUMAR VS STATE & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1142/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Bail was granted to Sumit Kumar in a case involving allegations of rape and criminal intimidation. The situation was viewed as stemming from a consensual relationship that deteriorated. The delay in filing the FIR and the ongoing relationship between the parties raised doubts about the prosecution's case. It was noted that the allegations could not be conclusively established at this stage, with the matter to be resolved at trial. Bail was granted with specific conditions, emphasizing that the observations were solely for the purpose of the bail application and should not affect the trial.

SUMIT VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2212/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Bail was granted to Sumit, accused under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code for alleged murder, based on circumstantial evidence and a single allegation of evidence destruction. The co-accused, Hemant, has been granted bail. Lack of direct evidence, prolonged incarceration, and the anticipated delay in trial contributed to the decision. Conditions for bail were set, with a note that the observations should not influence the trial's outcome.

SUNIL KUMAR VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE [BAIL APPLN.-3031/2022]
Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan
Sunil Kumar received bail after being charged under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act for involvement in the import of commercial quantities of contraband drugs. The decision considered his prolonged incarceration of over 3 years while the trial remained at an initial stage, impacting his right to life and liberty. There were reasonable grounds suggesting he may not have known about the contraband in the imported consignments. Bail was granted with specific conditions, emphasizing that the observations made should not affect the trial's outcome.

SUNIL KUMAR VS STATE AND OTHERS [CRL.REV.P.-92/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Respondent Nos. 2-4 were discharged from charges under Sections 120-B, 468, and 471 of the Indian Penal Code due to the lack of direct evidence linking them to the alleged forgery and use of a forged compromise deed. At the charge framing stage, only a prima facie case is considered, without in-depth evidence appreciation. The lower court's order was deemed free from inherent perversity, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

SUNIL SHARMA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.A.-427/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The conviction and sentence of the appellant for offenses under the POCSO Act and IPC were upheld. The child victim's consistent testimony and corroboration from her brother supported the case. The appellant did not succeed in rebutting the presumption under the POCSO Act or in proving a credible defense of false implication. The appeal was dismissed.

SUNNY ALIAS RAVI KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3580/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Sunny alias Ravi Kumar, charged under Sections 376, 354D, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code for alleged rape and sexual assault. Discrepancies existed between the FIR and the victim's statement, with a delay of over 1.5 years in filing the FIR. The relationship between the accused and the complainant appeared consensual, and her continued involvement despite knowing the accused's marital status raised doubts about the nature of the sexual acts. The validity of the accused's promise of marriage could not be conclusively assessed at the bail stage, as it required a comprehensive evaluation of evidence. Given the accused's clean record, family responsibilities, and the need to ensure his presence during trial, bail was granted with conditions to not contact the complainant or her family and not travel abroad without permission.

SURAJ KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1782/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The application for pre-arrest bail filed by Suraj Kumar was dismissed due to prima facie evidence, including CCTV footage, indicating his involvement in offenses related to abduction, assault, and common intention. Granting bail at this stage was deemed to potentially impede the investigation, and custodial interrogation was considered necessary. The nature of pre-arrest bail is extraordinary and should be granted sparingly, with this assessment limited to the bail application and not reflective of any views on the trial's merits.

SURYA PRAKASH VS STATE NCT OF DELHIL [BAIL APPLN.-756/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Surya Prakash was granted bail in connection with an FIR under Section 20(b)(ii)(B) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The evidence against him primarily involved monetary transactions through his bank accounts and a co-accused's disclosure statement, deemed inadmissible without corroboration. No direct recovery was made from Surya, and circumstantial evidence of contact with the co-accused was insufficient to establish guilt. Bail was granted considering the facts and his period of incarceration, subject to certain conditions.

SUSHILA BADOLA VS TUSHAR PATNI [CRL.M.C.-4453/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The power of attorney holder can file a complaint and present pre-summoning evidence if they have personal knowledge of the transaction, regardless of the depth of that knowledge. The validity of the compromise deed can be contested at the trial level, and there are no grounds for quashing the complaint at this stage. The issues raised involve questions of fact and law meant for adjudication at trial, not for dismissal through inherent powers.

SUSHMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3068/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The pre-arrest bail application of the applicant, the mother-in-law of the deceased, was dismissed in connection with an FIR under Sections 498A/304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Specific allegations of dowry demands and harassment linked to the victim's unnatural death within 7 years of marriage invoked a statutory presumption under Section 113B of the Indian Evidence Act. The seriousness of the offences in dowry death cases warranted caution against granting pre-arrest bail. The applicant's claim of being an elderly, sick woman did not provide sufficient grounds for bail, and a prima facie case was not established.

TANAY KHATRI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1397/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The bail application under Section 167(2) CrPC was dismissed on the grounds that the absence of the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) report does not make the chargesheet "incomplete" for default bail purposes, based on established precedent. The decision is strictly about default bail and does not address the case's merits.

TEEKA RAM VS STATE THROUGH PS SPECIAL CELL [CRL.REV.P.-739/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The non-filing of the FSL report with the chargesheet does not render the chargesheet incomplete for granting default bail under Section 167(2) of the CrPC. Legal requirements for a valid chargesheet under Section 173(2) are considered met even without the FSL report. Further investigation can proceed under Section 173(8), allowing the FSL report to be submitted later as a supplementary chargesheet. The petitions for default bail by Satish Kumar and Teeka Ram were dismissed, with clarification that the judgment addresses only the issue of default bail and does not comment on the case's merits.

THE COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL TAX, GST, DELHI(WEST) VS ADESH JAIN [CRL.M.C.-2824/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Adesh Jain was granted statutory bail under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure despite prior bail cancellation. The prosecution's delay of over five years in filing the complaint and completing the investigation was deemed an abuse of the legal process, emphasizing a focus on custody rather than timely case resolution. The prosecution's petition challenging the grant of statutory bail was dismissed.

THE STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) VS ROHIT SHARMA & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-147/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The trial court discharged the accused persons from charges under Section 308 of the Indian Penal Code, finding no prima facie evidence of attempted culpable homicide. The assault was deemed non-premeditated, and there was no indication of intention or knowledge to cause such harm. The trial court adequately considered the totality of the circumstances before reaching this decision.

THE STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) VS SAHIL @ CHIKNA [CRL.REV.P.-996/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The respondent was confirmed to be a juvenile at the time of the alleged offense based on a birth certificate indicating a date of birth of 04.11.2001, deemed more reliable than school records. The state's argument regarding the need to follow Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice Act was rejected, affirming the correctness of the trial court's findings.

TIMMI @ ABBAS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1074/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Pre-arrest bail applications filed by Soukin, Talim, and Timmi @ Abbas were dismissed, with investigations revealing a prima facie case against them for involvement in an organized crime syndicate related to sextortion. Their mobile numbers were linked to bank accounts containing the cheated money, and a pattern of similar past offenses was noted. Due to the seriousness of the crimes and the necessity for custodial interrogation, anticipatory bail was not granted.

TKREEB VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application to recall the prosecutrix (PW1) for cross-examination was unjustified. The testimony of PW1 was deemed crucial for a fair trial. The right to cross-examine PW1 was closed after only one opportunity, and caution was emphasized to ensure fairness. The impugned order was set aside, granting the petitioner one final opportunity to cross-examine PW1 without further adjournments.

TOBIAS CHRISTIAN VS NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-1301/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Tobias Christian received bail after being arrested for possessing 150 grams of heroin, classified as an intermediate quantity under the NDPS Act. Arguments regarding issues with the search, seizure, and chargesheet were considered alongside the prosecution's emphasis on the seriousness of the offense. The lengthy period of custody and absence of public witnesses were factors in granting bail, despite the imposition of strict conditions due to the applicant's foreign status. Observations made were for bail purposes only and not indicative of the trial's outcome.

TUSHAR CHAUDHARY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2132/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The applicant is not entitled to default bail under Section 167(2) of the CrPC because the chargesheet was deemed complete, despite the absence of the FSL report. The chargesheet met the requirements of Section 173(2), and the lack of corroborative evidence does not render it incomplete. The argument regarding the chargesheet's completeness without the FSL report does not override existing precedent.

TUSHAR TAMANG VS STATE N.C.T. OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4174/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner's claim of innocence based on CCTV footage did not meet the threshold for quashing the FIR at this stage. However, the omission of the footage, which could potentially exonerate the petitioner, from the chargesheet prejudiced the petitioner. A directive was issued for the police to investigate the CCTV footage and file a supplementary chargesheet to ensure a fair and complete investigation and trial. The assistance provided by the Amicus Curiae was acknowledged.

UMAR SEBANDEKE VS CUSTOMS [BAIL APPLN.-3460/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The bail application of Umar Sebandeke was dismissed due to charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act for possessing a commercial quantity of heroin. The accused did not prove a prima facie case for innocence or that they would not re-offend if released on bail, as required by the NDPS Act. Alleged irregularities in sampling and seizure procedures are to be examined during the trial and do not warrant bail at this stage. Additionally, the accused had not served the minimum 5 years of incarceration required for bail consideration based on trial delay.

UMESH SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [CRL.M.C.-3038/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The lower court erred by taking cognizance of offenses under Sections 193 and 209 of the Indian Penal Code based on a private complaint, which are barred. The procedure under Section 195 CrPC requires that the court where the offense was committed must initiate prosecution. There was no infirmity in the order that set aside the lower court's decision to summon the respondent.

VAIBHAV JAIN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-7747/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner's application to recall certain prosecution witnesses was dismissed. The grounds presented, including the previous counsel's failure to ask specific questions, were deemed insufficient. Emphasis was placed on the need for judicious exercise of power under Section 311 and the importance of expeditious trial completion per the POCSO Act. No infirmity was found in the trial court's order, and the petition was dismissed with costs.

VEER SINGH VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-599/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Veer Singh was granted bail in an NDPS case due to a lack of independent witnesses and discrepancies in the weight of the recovered contraband. He has been in custody since December 2022, and significant time is anticipated for the trial. The deprivation of liberty cannot be punitive without proven guilt. Bail was granted with conditions, emphasizing that the observations made are solely for the purpose of the bail application and do not influence the trial's outcome or express any opinion on the case's merits.

VICKY ANAND VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3217/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to Vicky Anand, accused in a case related to the dismemberment of the victim's genitals by the victim's in-laws. The victim has turned hostile, raising doubts about the allegations against Anand, who was not named in the original FIR or chargesheet but was later included in a supplementary chargesheet. Anand worked as a domestic help for the co-accused, and no specific motive was attributed to him. The lack of criminal history and the time spent in custody since April 2022 were also considered in the decision to grant bail under certain conditions.

VIJAY KUMAR KHURANA VS SHUBHAM JAIN [CRL.M.C.-700/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The criminal proceedings against Vijay Kumar Khurana were quashed due to the lack of specific allegations of criminal intent or role in the complaint. Advising on a payment plan, without misleading or inducing the respondent, does not amount to offences under Sections 420 or 409 of the Indian Penal Code. Khurana, a salaried employee and not a director or shareholder of the accused company, should not have been summoned as an accused.

VIJAY KUMAR SHARMA & ANR. VS STATE OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-626/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The criminal revision petition by the accused persons led to the quashing of the FIR against them. The complainant stated that the sexual relations were consensual and that she was aware of the accused's marital status during the relationship. The remaining offences under Sections 506 and 509 IPC were considered compoundable, and the complainant expressed a desire not to pursue the proceedings. Continuing the prosecution was viewed as an abuse of the process, resulting in the decision to quash the FIR and the order framing charges.

VIKAS MITTAL VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-306/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The interim maintenance order of R.S. 65,000 per month for the wife was upheld. The husband's monthly income was assessed at R.S. 2,50,000 based on past tax returns, with recognition of a tendency to understate income in matrimonial disputes. The husband's claim of financial hardship was rejected, emphasizing the obligation of financial support to the wife. Final determination of maintenance was left to the trial court, which must consider evidence independently of previous findings.

VIKASH @ VICKY VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1668/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Vikash @ Vicky received bail on charges under the NDPS Act for possession of a commercial quantity of drugs after being incarcerated for over two years without trial, violating his fundamental right under Article 21. Delays in the investigation, including the late filing of the sample drawing application and the absence of independent witnesses or evidence documentation during the raid, raised doubts about the prosecution's credibility. Bail was granted with conditions to prevent evidence tampering or absconding.

VIKRANT GUPTA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5977/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 67 of the Information and Technology Act, 2000 for sending obscene and defamatory messages was quashed. The petitioner admitted to maligning the respondent's reputation, issued an unconditional apology, and agreed to refrain from sending such messages in the future. Continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process due to the parties' settlement.

VINEET VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2882/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to the applicant based on the completion of the investigation, examination of material witnesses, and the applicant's custody since December 2017. Medical evidence did not definitively prove that the applicant caused the fatal injuries, with the post-mortem report and witness testimonies not indicating head injuries. The lack of certainty regarding the cause of the victim's death and the prolonged incarceration justified the decision for bail, while the determination of guilt or innocence is reserved for trial.

VINOD NAGAR VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-3149/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The prosecution's case against the applicant relies on the disclosure statement of a co-accused and circumstantial evidence. There are reasonable grounds to believe the applicant is not guilty of offences under the NDPS Act, as there was no direct recovery from the applicant and the sample collection application was filed late, breaching statutory procedures. The applicant has a clean record, leading to the decision to grant bail under certain conditions.

VINOD YADAV VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3124/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Contraband recovered from the applicant and a co-accused cannot be combined to apply Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, due to the lack of allegations of abetment or conspiracy. The quantity of Opium recovered from the applicant was classified as an intermediate quantity, negating the applicability of Section 37. Given the applicant's clean record, his role as the family's sole provider, and the potential for a delayed trial, bail was granted under certain conditions. Observations made were only for the bail decision and do not influence the trial's outcome.

VIPHIL JAIN & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3056/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The offence of money laundering under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 is independent from the predicate offence investigated by the police. The 15-day limitation of police custody under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure applies only to specific cases or investigations and does not prevent the Enforcement Directorate from seeking custody for money laundering, which is a separate investigation. The petition of the accused was dismissed, as the argument regarding the bar on ED's custody after the 15-day limit lacked merit.

VISHAL @ GOLU VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-1176/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

The petitioner was not entitled to default bail under Section 167(2) CrPC and Section 36A(4) of the NDPS Act, as the chargesheet was filed on the 181st day of custody, before the default bail application was made. The right to default bail ceased upon the filing of the chargesheet, even if the application occurred on the same day. The petition was dismissed due to a lack of merit in the claim for default bail.

VIVEK GOSWAMI VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3148/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Bail was granted to a 21-year-old accused in a case involving Sections 376 and 506 of the IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act due to inconsistencies in the prosecution's case, particularly changes in the victim's statements. The presumption of guilt under the POCSO Act was acknowledged, but the inconsistencies benefited the accused at the bail stage. Factors considered included the accused's young age and clean criminal record, with specific conditions attached to the bail. Observations made regarding the case were strictly for the bail application and were not intended to influence the trial's outcome.

VIVEK JATIN CHAUDHARY VS DEEPTI TURE [CRL.REV.P.-443/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Interim maintenance of R.S. 30,000 per month for the wife and child is deemed reasonable. The Family Court did not consider the husband's fluctuating income over previous years when assessing arrears of maintenance. The matter is remanded for reassessment of the arrears, factoring in the husband's lower income, with the final maintenance amount to be decided based on evidence from both parties. Observations made do not influence the ongoing application for modification of the interim order.

VIVEK KASHYAP VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1067/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Vivek Kashyap was granted bail on charges under Sections 363, 376(3), 366, and 471 of the IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act. The victim, initially claimed to be 14 years old, stated her birth date as 09.11.2003, indicating she was a major at the time of the incident. She also expressed that she willingly accompanied Kashyap and that they are now married with a child. The circumstances surrounding the victim's age and her statements led to the conclusion that further incarceration would serve no purpose. Bail was granted under certain conditions, with a clarification regarding the observations made in the order.

ZAHID HASSAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2910/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Mahajan

Zahid Hassan's bail application was dismissed due to prima facie evidence against him in the murder of Zakir Hussain and the related robbery, including CCTV footage, call detail records, and the recovery of stolen items. The trial is at an early stage, and there is a potential risk of witness interference, leading to the decision not to grant bail.

A.V. PREM NATH VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-4385/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The petition by A.V. Prem Nath to quash the FIR against him under various sections of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The ongoing investigation prevents a conclusion that no offence is made out. There are conflicting accounts regarding the creation of an email ID, with the petitioner claiming consent from the complainant, while the complainant asserts it was created without his knowledge. The resolution of these allegations is reserved for trial, with no grounds found to quash the FIR.

ARUN SHARMA VS C B I [CRL.A.-423/2013]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Ajay Bali and Arun Sharma were acquitted of charges related to conspiracy and corruption. The prosecution did not prove the demand and acceptance of a bribe, as key witnesses, including the complainant, became hostile and contradicted their earlier statements. Discrepancies in the evidence and the unreliability of audio recordings and call detail records contributed to the decision, leading to the overturning of the previous conviction.

AJAY SONDHI @ DIMPY VS STATE OF DELHI [CRL.A.-556/2003]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The appeal resulted in the setting aside of the trial court's judgment convicting the appellant under Sections 308 and 324 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution failed to prove the appellant's guilt beyond reasonable doubt, citing contradictions and gaps in the investigation, including the non-examination of key eyewitnesses, the absence of the alleged weapon, and inconsistencies in witness testimonies. The appellant's defense was considered plausible, leading to the conclusion that the prosecution case did not meet the standard of preponderance of probabilities. Consequently, the conviction and sentence were annulled, and the appellant was acquitted.

BLUE BIRD LIESURE AND HOLIDAYS LTD. & ORS. VS SPRING HOLIDAY LTD. &ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4587/2013]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The dispute between Blue Bird Leisure and Holidays Ltd. and Spring Holiday Ltd. is not purely civil, as the petitioners lacked authority to book tickets after being notified of a cancellation by their supplier, Ezeego. They dishonestly received payments from Spring Holiday Ltd. and canceled the tickets without issuing refunds, indicating potential offenses under Sections 406 and 120B of the IPC. The petitioners' plea to quash the FIR and chargesheet was dismissed, and the requirement for a supporting affidavit for Section 156(3) complaints was deemed inapplicable to this case. The opinion of the Prosecution Branch that the matter is civil does not bind the Magistrate. The facts do not justify quashing the criminal proceedings, and the trial court is to expedite the case.

COLGATE PALMOLIVE COMPANY & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1991/2012]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The summoning order against Colgate-Palmolive Company and others in a complaint by Anchor Health and Beauty Care Pvt. Ltd. was set aside. The complaint was deemed not maintainable as the alleged forgery was related to documents from an ongoing civil suit, warranting adherence to specific procedural requirements under the Code of Criminal Procedure. The Trade Marks Registry did not dispute the issuance of certified registrations, and the identified discrepancies appeared to be inadvertent errors rather than intentional forgery. Consequently, the summoning order and the complaint were quashed.

RAVINDER SINGH VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR [CRL.M.C.-5817/2014]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The summoning order against the college principal and senior assistant for abetment of suicide under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code was found unsustainable due to a lack of evidence showing a connection between their actions and the deceased's suicide attempt. The legal requirements for proving abetment, including the necessity of incitement and intent, were not met. Investigations into complaints by the deceased against the petitioners were closed without findings of wrongdoing, and there was no contact between the deceased and the petitioners after her dismissal. Consequently, the summoning order was set aside.

P K SHARMA VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVSTIGATION [CRL.A.-658/2012]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The conviction and sentence of MCD officials and private contractors were set aside because the sanction orders for prosecution lacked valid authorization due to insufficient consideration by the sanctioning authority. The prosecution did not prove beyond reasonable doubt that inferior quality materials were used, and there were inconsistencies in the expert evidence and witness testimonies. The appellants were acquitted.

JAI BHAGWAN VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-3307/2011]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The summoning order and lower court's judgment were quashed due to inadequate consideration of investigation reports and witness testimonies. The presence of key witness Dayanand Sharma at the alleged incident was deemed questionable, and the necessary elements of the offense under Section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act, particularly the public nature of the insult, were not clearly established. It was emphasized that a proper evaluation of all material, including defense pleas, is essential before issuing summons to the accused.

JASVINDER KAUR & ANR. VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-401/2020]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The petition regarding the father's potential impleading as an accused under Section 319 Cr.P.C. was dismissed. The father cannot be penalized under the POCSO Act for failure to report, as he eventually did report the incident. The principle of strict construction of penal statutes applied, and the protection under Section 132 of the Evidence Act is relevant to his statements.

KRISHNA VS DELHI POLICE & ORS [W.P.(CRL)-769/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The petition for re-investigation of a murder case by the CBI was dismissed, stating that the Delhi Police conducted a fair and credible investigation, including sufficient scientific DNA evidence against the accused. It emphasized that re-investigation is appropriate only in rare cases lacking credibility, which was not applicable here. No bias or lacunae were identified in the investigation.

MOHIT VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-47/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The appeal was allowed, and the conviction under Section 411 of the Indian Penal Code was set aside. The trial court's conviction lacked validity as the essential elements of the offense were not established. There was no determination that the recovered property was "stolen property" as defined under Section 410 IPC, and in the absence of evidence showing the property was obtained through theft, extortion, or robbery, the conviction could not be sustained.

RAJAN KUMAR @ ASHU CHAUHAN VS STATE OF N.C.T OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2112/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Rajan Kumar @ Ashu Chauhan's application for anticipatory bail was dismissed based on his conduct and evidence against him, including CCTV footage and connections to history-sheeters. Initially granted bail on conditions, he violated these by visiting the restricted area without prior notice. Following a state application, his bail was canceled due to this violation. Although he challenged the cancellation, he later withdrew the petition and submitted new applications, which were also denied. The assessment of his conduct and the existing evidence led to the conclusion that he did not merit anticipatory bail.

RAJJAN @ ASHU CHAUHAN VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-955/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The order of externment for one year against the petitioner under Section 47 of the Delhi Police Act, 1978, was upheld based on a thorough consideration of the petitioner's criminal history, which indicated a threat to public safety. Sufficient material supported the decision, confirming adherence to required procedures.

RAVI KUMAR VS STATE [CRL.A.-505/2003]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Ravi Kumar's conviction under Section 498A IPC was set aside. Allegations of an extra-marital affair were insufficient to constitute cruelty. Evidence, including the deceased's dying declaration, suggested an accidental fire, and the prosecution failed to prove that Kumar's actions could have driven the deceased to suicide. He was acquitted.

RENU BALA & ANR VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ORS [W.P.(CRL)-236/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The petition to quash FIR no. 338/2016 is not permitted at this stage due to ongoing trial proceedings, including a filed chargesheet and framed charges. The truth of the allegations in the FIR will be assessed during the trial. No grounds exist to quash the FIR or transfer the investigation. The petitioners may initiate proceedings to have their related complaint case heard alongside the FIR case.

S.K.AGGARWAL VS STATE NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-700/2014]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Proceedings against S.K. Aggarwal, a practicing advocate, were quashed due to lack of evidence linking him to criminal conspiracy or abetment in a cheating case. Although his verification reports contained inaccuracies about mortgaged properties, these actions were deemed as professional negligence without establishing criminal intent. A lawyer cannot be held criminally liable simply for providing an unacceptable opinion without tangible evidence of conspiracy involvement.

SAI RAMAKRISHNA KARUTURI VS STATE OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-533/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Sai Ramakrishna Karuturi, Director of M/s Karuturi Global Limited, received bail after being charged with cheating and criminal breach of trust under Sections 420 and 409 of the Indian Penal Code. The allegations were serious, but the truth of the prosecution's case and Karuturi's defense would be assessed during the trial. The investigation was complete, and he posed no flight risk. Bail was granted under stringent conditions, including a personal bond of ₹5,00,000, two sureties of equal amount, restrictions on leaving India, and prohibitions on tampering with evidence or influencing witnesses.

SAMSUNG GULF ELECTRONICS, FZE VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SETCARREY MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-867/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Delhi Police must seek the appointment of an advocate to pursue extradition proceedings against Sukhmeet Singh Anand, following a prior denial due to inadequate representation. The petitioner has the right to assist the prosecution under Section 301(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Delhi Police will take steps to appoint an advocate at the petitioner's expense. The Ministry of External Affairs will communicate this decision to the relevant authorities in Spain.

SANJAY KANSAL VS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, ED [BAIL APPLN.-1268/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Sanjay Kansal was granted regular bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. Although accused of facilitating the opening of paper firms to launder approximately Rs. 50 crore, evidence did not conclusively demonstrate his knowledge of the transactions being linked to proceeds of crime. The absence of arrests for similarly situated co-accused and Kansal's status as an approver in the related offenses supported the decision. Bail was granted with conditions, including the requirement to furnish a personal bond and sureties.

SATPAL KALRA & ANR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1169/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The registration of the FIR against the petitioners under Sections 420/406/506/120B of the Indian Penal Code is valid, and the FIR will continue. The earlier withdrawal of a complaint by the complainant does not prevent the registration of the FIR, as per the Cr.P.C. A prima facie case of cheating under Section 415 IPC exists against petitioner Varun Kalra. Disputed questions of fact regarding the transactions and signatures on documents must be addressed during the trial. The writ petition is dismissed, and the FIR remains unquashed.

SATPAL SINGH PALLI & ANR VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-557/2011]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The criminal complaint filed by SEBI against the directors of Soubhagya India Vegetation and Plantation Limited (SIVPL) was quashed. The directors had resigned on 23.02.1998, prior to the alleged SEBI Act and CIS Regulations violations. Since they were not directors at the time the offences occurred, proceedings against them could not continue. The resignation was established through Form-32 submitted by the directors, which SEBI had included in the trial court records.

SH. ASHOK KUMAR SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-745/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The order on charge and framing of charge against Ashok Kumar Singh under Sections 307 and 471 read with Section 120-B of the Indian Penal Code was set aside. The prosecution's main evidence, including the disclosure statements of co-accused Sunil Kumar Balhera and call detail records between the petitioner and co-accused, was deemed insufficient. The disclosure statement could not be used as evidence against the petitioner since it did not lead to the discovery of any physical fact. Additionally, the call detail records and a dispute regarding the petitioner's son's coal supply agreement with SAIL were inadequate to establish a prima facie case. Consequently, there was insufficient material to frame charges against the petitioner, resulting in his discharge.

SHIV RAJ SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [CRL.REV.P.-1227/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The trial court's order discharging the respondents was set aside due to inadequate consideration of the investigating officer's material in the chargesheet. The key issue was whether allegations of forgery and misuse of a digital signature to remove the petitioner from directorship and transfer shares were substantiated. The matter was remanded for fresh consideration on the point of charge, with no opinion expressed on the case's merits.

SMT. SANTOSH DEVI @SANTOSHI DEVI VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1414/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The summoning order against an elderly partner of an accused partnership firm in a Section 138 case of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed. Although the complaint mentioned the petitioner's responsibility for the firm's affairs, the absence of the petitioner in a prior complaint and the overall circumstances suggested that prosecuting the petitioner would constitute an abuse of process.

SONU SURENDER VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-359/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Sonu Surender was convicted of aggravated penetrative sexual assault, supported by the consistent and reliable testimony of a 10-year-old victim, corroborated by her mother, brother, and medical evidence. The defense claim of false implication due to a loan issue was rejected. Sonu Surender received a sentence of 10 years' rigorous imprisonment, the minimum under the law.

STATE (GNCT 0F DELHI) VS NETRAPAL SINGH & ORS [CRL.A.-217/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The acquittal of the respondents was upheld due to the prosecution's failure to establish essential legal requirements for offences under the Prevention of Corruption Act. The trial court's assessment that the prosecution did not prove the demand and acceptance of a bribe by the public servants was deemed reasonable. Additionally, video evidence presented by the prosecution was ruled inadmissible due to recording device issues, discontinuity, and non-compliance with Section 65B of the Evidence Act. The lack of demonstrated error or illegality in the trial court's judgment led to the dismissal of the appeal.

STATE VS BHARAT SINGH [CRL.A.-537/2003]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The acquittal of Bharat Singh on charges of abetment of suicide and cruelty was upheld. Evidence did not demonstrate that his actions constituted instigation or abetment leading to the suicide. Incidents of beating and threats were insufficient to qualify as cruelty under Section 498A IPC. The trial court's judgment was regarded as well-reasoned, with no illegality or misappreciation of facts identified.

SUNIL KUMAR VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-4252/2014]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Directions for the registration of an FIR against a police officer were invalid as the allegations did not indicate any cognizable offences. The complaint was deemed malicious and an abuse of process. Inherent powers under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. were applied to prevent this abuse. The police officer, as a public servant, received protection under Sections 197 of the Cr.P.C. and 140 of the Delhi Police Act, with continuation of proceedings considered a travesty of justice.

SUNIL KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1130/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Sunil Kumar was granted bail while facing charges under the Maharashtra Control of Organised Crimes Act and the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution did not establish any financial gain or active involvement in the organized crime syndicate led by co-accused Sukash Chander Shekhar. Allegations of facilitating Shekhar's activities were insufficient to demonstrate intent. Kumar had been in custody for over 2 years with the trial still at an early stage. Bail was granted considering the lack of conclusive evidence and the lengthy period of custody, with conditions set to ensure a balance between the prosecution's case and the applicant's right to liberty.

SUSHIL YADAV VS STATE [CRL.A.-830/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

Sushil Yadav was convicted of offenses under Section 366 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 6 read with Section 5(m) of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012. The conviction was upheld based on medical and scientific evidence, including DNA evidence, which proved his involvement in the crime beyond reasonable doubt. Despite contradictions in the testimony of the victim's mother, the strength of the medical evidence supported the conviction.

THOMAS VARGHESE VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-2632/2012]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The complaint filed by the Assistant Environment Engineer of the Delhi Pollution Control Committee was deemed non-compliant with Section 19 of the Environment Act, 1986, as the Engineer lacked authorization from the Central Government to file such a complaint. Under Section 19, only the Central Government, authorized authorities, or individuals with prior notice can file complaints for offenses Consequently, both the summoning order and dismissal of the petition by lower courts were set aside.

X VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-882/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Sharma

The petitioner's revision petition to add charges under Sections 370 and 16 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The material on record did not provide evidence of a purpose of exploitation required for Section 370 or establish the creditor-debtor relationship necessary for Section 16. Section 216 CrPC requires strict interpretation, disallowing the framing of charges based on assumptions. The trial court's order was affirmed without any legal infirmity.

TINKU VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-422/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Bail was granted to Tinku, who had been in custody for over two and a half years under an FIR related to the NDPS Act. Issues identified in the prosecution's case included an improbable sequence of events, lack of independent witnesses, and absence of corroborating evidence such as call records or financial links to the alleged offense. Despite the recovery involving a commercial quantity, prolonged incarceration without trial progression was deemed a violation of fundamental rights under Article 21. Tinku was required to furnish a personal bond and comply with specified conditions.

PRINCE DIXIT @ VIKRAM VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-922/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Bail was granted to Prince Dixit and Davinder Kaur, charged with the murder of Jagir Kaur and Gurmeet Singh, based on circumstantial evidence and issues with the prosecution's case, including contradictions in witness testimonies and inconsistencies in identifying the deceased. The applicants had been incarcerated for over 5 years, and the trial faced delays with 70 witnesses still to be examined. Conditions for bail included not leaving the country without permission, participating in investigations as required, and refraining from tampering with evidence or contacting witnesses.

ANSARUL HASAN VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-308/2003]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The criminal appeal was allowed, and the appellant's conviction under the Prevention of Corruption Act was set aside due to the prosecution's failure to prove guilt beyond reasonable doubt. Key issues included the absence of a bribe demand from the appellant, concerns over the integrity of evidence records, doubts surrounding the complaint's authenticity, and the non-examination of crucial witnesses. Material contradictions in the testimonies of prosecution witnesses undermined the prosecution's case significantly.

OKECHUKWU OKEY@ PAULINUS UCHENNA VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-864/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Bail was granted to Okechukwu Okey @ Paulinus Uchenna in a case related to the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The omission of the 'nearest' Gazetted Officer or Magistrate in the notice under Section 50 was not deemed to cause prejudice. A three-month delay in submitting samples for testing under Section 52A raised concerns about the process. Considering the applicant's over three years in custody with only one witness partially examined, bail was granted despite the involvement of a commercial quantity, with conditions requiring travel restrictions and regular reporting to the investigating officer.

SHRIMATHI S. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2672/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Shrimathi S. was dismissed after her arrest for possession of 10.5 kg of methamphetamine, classified as a commercial quantity under the NDPS Act. Objections regarding the sampling procedure and delays in compliance with legal provisions were noted but deemed appropriate for consideration during the trial. Despite acknowledging Shrimathi's extended incarceration of around 4 years and trial delays, the seriousness of the offense and the legal prohibitions against bail under the NDPS Act were decisive factors in the refusal.

SEKELETI DORIS VS CUSTOMS [BAIL APPLN.-3206/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The applicant's bail application was denied due to non-compliance with Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, following the seizure of a commercial quantity of Methaqualone at the airport. Allegations regarding procedural issues in the investigation, including delayed filing and defective notices, were deemed insufficient to warrant bail at this stage and could be addressed during the trial. The applicant did not meet the required threshold under Section 37, resulting in the dismissal of the bail application.

PAULINE NALWOGA VS CUSTOMS [BAIL APPLN.-1112/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Pauline Nalwoga's bail application was dismissed following her arrest for possessing a commercial quantity of heroin. Although there were procedural lapses by customs authorities, these did not undermine the validity of the recovery. She did not meet the threshold for bail under Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, which imposes stricter conditions for such cases. Concerns regarding trial delays and prolonged incarceration were noted but will be addressed during the trial.

PREM SINGH SEHRAWAT VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1028/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Prem Singh Sehrawat in FIR No. 706/2022 related to the Arms Act and the Motor Vehicles Act was dismissed. The accused was in conscious possession of a significant amount of illegal arms and ammunition. Although specific charges under the Arms Act have not yet been framed, the evidence indicates potential application of serious offenses carrying minimum sentences of 7 years to life imprisonment. The gravity of the offenses, potential societal threat, and the accused's previous evasion of investigation contributed to the decision against bail. Observations made are solely for assessing the bail plea and will be revisited during trial proceedings.

RAHUL @ SUMIT VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-293/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Bail was granted to Rahul @ Sumit and Omprakash @ Omi, charged with kidnapping and extortion under Sections 364A and 120B of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution presented circumstantial evidence, including a handwritten note and a voice sample match, but there was no direct identification of the accused by the victim or his father. The lengthy custody of 4 and 6.5 years for the accused, along with the right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution, led to the decision to grant bail, subject to certain conditions.

AMANDEEP GILL & ANR VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-5219/2017]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Cognizance of an offence under Section 174-A IPC requires a written complaint from the concerned public servant, as per Section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C., rather than relying on a chargesheet. This interpretation aligns with the views of multiple High Courts and contrasts with an earlier Single Bench decision.

SANDEEP SHARMA VS VIKRAM KUMAR PANDEY [CRL.M.C.-1524/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was deemed valid despite the initial power of attorney lacking explicit authorization for this specific action. A subsequent power of attorney retroactively validated the earlier complaint. Technical defects in the initial power of attorney were cured through ratification, confirming the complainant's authority. The challenge to the complaint was dismissed, and the trial court was directed to expedite proceedings due to the case's prolonged duration since 2019.

ARUN KUMAR GUPTA (D) THR LRS VS TAMA JAWAHAR [CRL.L.P.-56/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The lower court's acquittal of the respondent in offenses under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was set aside due to the unconvincing denial of the Memorandum of Understanding executed between the parties. The respondent issued 10 cheques totaling Rs. 2.6 crores and failed to provide a credible explanation to rebut the statutory presumption under Section 139 of the NI Act. The assertion that the cheques were issued as security was deemed insufficient, placing the burden of proof on the respondent.

AVIRAL SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2220/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

FIR No. 491/2021 was quashed due to findings of vexatious and mala fide criminal proceedings. Allegations lacked specificity, there were no prior complaints from the complainant, and the timing of the FIR's registration suggested personal motives linked to an earlier FIR filed by the petitioner's mother against the complainant's family. The investigation did not reveal corroborating evidence, and independent witness statements contradicted the complainant's account, indicating a classic case of mala fide and vexatious prosecution.

RANJEET SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2960/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The petition to quash the FIR under Sections 376 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code was allowed due to vague allegations and the prosecutrix's subsequent statements indicating a consensual relationship and her wish not to pursue the case. Precedents indicate that FIRs under Section 376 IPC can be quashed in exceptional circumstances, even for serious offenses, when consent is established and the prosecutrix does not wish to proceed.

RAJEEV KUMAR VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.L.P.-212/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The lower court's order acquitting the accused in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was set aside due to inherently contradictory testimony that lacked credibility. The issuance of the cheque by the accused revived a time-barred debt, thus rendering it legally enforceable under Section 25(3) of the Indian Contract Act. Further directions were to be issued in the case.

BADAKULU LADU @ SUSHANT VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-4019/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Bail was granted to Badakulu Ladu @ Sushant, who faced charges under Sections 20/25/29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. The decision was based on the observation that the arrest relied primarily on a co-accused's disclosure statement and circumstantial evidence, such as call detail records and financial transactions, which were deemed insufficient at this stage. The consideration of the presumption of innocence and the fact that the petitioner had been in custody for over a year and a half were significant factors. Proceedings under Sections 82 and 83 of the Cr.P.C. did not impede the possibility of bail. Specific conditions were set for his release.

DAYANAND VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2386/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Dayanand, charged with sexually assaulting a 5-year-old girl under relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code and the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, was dismissed. The decision considered prima facie evidence, including forensic reports and testimonies, which indicated a strong case against the accused. His relationship to the victim through familial connections raised concerns about the potential to influence witnesses or flee if granted bail.

INDER BHADUR SINGH @ INDRA BAHADUR SINGH VS STATE AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-637/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Inder Bahadur Singh's petition for anticipatory bail was dismissed due to accusations of running an unauthorized investment scheme that defrauded over 200 low-income investors of crores of rupees. He absconded without repaying the invested amounts and failed to provide satisfactory explanations or documentation for the scheme. The severity of the alleged offenses and Singh's conduct led to the rejection of the bail application.

ITW GSE APS & ANR. VS DABICO AIRPORT SOLUTIONS PVT LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-628/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The plaintiff established a prima facie case for interim injunction against the defendants' infringement of patent IN '145, which pertains to a "Preconditioned Air Unit with Variable Frequency Driving." The patent claims focus on the use of variable frequency drivers (VFDs) in refrigeration systems, controlled by a central controller, and are not restricted to modularity. The defendants' challenge to the patent's validity based on a lack of inventive step was insufficient, as their prior art references did not adequately demonstrate obviousness. The defendants' product specifications were found to prima facie align with the patent claims. An interim injunction was granted to prevent the defendants from manufacturing, selling, or dealing with the infringing PCA units, while allowing continued supply of existing deployed units.

MOUNTAIN VALLEY SPRINGS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS BABY FOREST AYURVEDA PRIVATE LIMITED (FORMERLY KNOWN AS M/S LANDSMILL HEALTHCARE PRIVATE LIMITED) & ORS. [CS(COMM)-523/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The plaintiff is not entitled to an interim injunction against the use of the trademarks "BABY FOREST" and "BABY FOREST–SOHAM OF AYURVEDA" as they lack separate trademark registrations for "FOREST ESSENTIALS BABY" or "FOREST ESSENTIALS-BABY ESSENTIALS" and used "Baby" descriptively. The plaintiff cannot claim exclusivity over the generic term "FOREST," and trade dress factors did not show deceptive similarity between the marks. The defendants committed to refrain from using the marks "SAUNDARYA" and "BABY ESSENTIALS." Multiple rectification petitions were filed by the plaintiff against the defendants' trademarks.

M/S VANS INC. USA VS FCB GARMENT TEX INDIA (P) LTD. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-161/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

M/S VANS INC. USA's petitions for cancellation of the trademarks 'IVANS' and 'IV ANS NXT', registered to FCB GARMENT TEX INDIA (P) LTD. and FATEH CHAND BHANSALI, were dismissed. The respondents demonstrated prior use of the marks since 1999, while the petitioner started its operations in India in 2011. The marks were found not to be deceptively similar, as they differ visually, phonetically, and conceptually, and serve different consumer markets (footwear vs. apparel). The petitioner's 16-year delay in filing for cancellation was deemed as acquiescence, and the respondents qualified for honest concurrent use since the petitioner's marks were not cited during registration. Consequently, the respondents' trademarks remained on the Trade Marks Register.

MOHD SHAKIR VS GOPAL TRADERS AND ANR [C.O.(COMM.IPD-CR)-699/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The petitioner was considered an "aggrieved person" under Section 50 of the Copyright Act, 1957 due to a criminal complaint filed against him. However, the petitioner did not prove that the copyright registration was "wrongly made." The Registrar of Copyrights followed the appropriate process, including searches for identical or deceptively similar marks. Additionally, the petitioner made contradictory claims about being the original author of the work, which hindered his ability to challenge the respondent's copyright registration. The petitioner's rectification petition was dismissed.

PREMIER SPG AND WVG MILLS PVT. LTD. VS FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION PREMIER LEAGUE LTD. & ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-15/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

No deceptive similarity exists between the appellant's 'PREMIER' marks and the respondent's 'PREMIER LEAGUE' mark. The analysis applied principles of "anti-dissection" and "identification of dominant mark." The term 'PREMIER' is deemed generic, so exclusivity cannot be claimed by the appellant. The 'PREMIER LEAGUE' mark features distinctive elements, such as the lion device and the word 'LEAGUE,' differentiating it from the appellant's marks. The appellant's failure to challenge the earlier registration of 'BARCLAYS PREMIER LEAGUE' further undermines their current claim. The appeal was dismissed without finding deceptive similarity.

THE INDIAN EXPRESS P LTD VS THE INDIAN EXPRESS NEWSPAPERS WORKERS UNION REGD AND ANR [W.P.(C)-11128/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The Industrial Tribunal has the jurisdiction to adjudicate on workers' demands to increase the retirement age from 58 to 60 years under the Industrial Disputes Act. However, the Tribunal did not properly exercise its jurisdiction by failing to consider relevant factors and evidence regarding the financial and operational impact on the employer. Consequently, the Tribunal's award was set aside and the matter was remanded for fresh adjudication, with instructions to consider all relevant materials and apply established principles for revising service conditions. The Standing Orders Act is not the sole mechanism for addressing retirement age issues, which can also be raised as industrial disputes.

A.K. AL MUHAIDIB AND SONS VS CHAMAN LAL SACHDEVA AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-90/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

A.K. AL MUHAIDIB AND SONS' petition led to the removal of Chaman Lal Sachdeva's trademark "AL-WALIMAH" from the Register of Trade Marks. It was established that the petitioner was a "person aggrieved" and that the trademark had not been used by the respondent for over 5 years, violating the requirements of the Trade Marks Act. An unrebutted investigation report supported the conclusion that the trademark had never been used, warranting its removal due to non-use.

A.O. SMITH CORPORATION AND ANR. VS STAR SMITH EXPORT PVT. LTD. AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-532/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The plaintiffs, A.O. Smith Corporation and A.O. Smith India Water Products Pvt. Ltd., established a prima facie case for trademark infringement regarding their registered marks "A.O. SMITH" and "BLUE DIAMOND" by the defendants, Star Smith Export Pvt. Ltd. The word "SMITH" is considered the dominant part of the plaintiffs' mark, and the defendants' use of "STAR SMITH" / "STARSMITH" for identical products is likely to cause consumer confusion. The defendants' application to vacate the interim injunction was dismissed, making the injunction absolute and restraining the use of the infringing marks.

AB INITIO TECHNOLOGY LLC VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-26/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The rejection of patent applications Nos. 6500/DELNP/2011 and 6501/DELNP/2011 based on non-patentability under Section 3(k) of the Patents Act, 1970 was found to be untenable due to the claimed invention demonstrating "technical effect" and "technical advancement" beyond a mere computer program, including benefits like increased speed of functional dependency analysis and efficient data profiling. The objection regarding the validity of the divisional application under Section 16(1) was deemed unsustainable. However, the matter was remanded to the Patent Office for re-examination of the lack of inventive step under Section 2(1)(ja), which had not been adequately addressed.

ABROS SPORTS INTERNATIONAL PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASHISH BANSAL AND ORS [CS(COMM)-702/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The plaintiff is not entitled to an injunction against the defendants for using the trademark 'NEBROS' due to a lack of distinct phonetic or visual similarity with the 'ABROS' mark. The defendants established prior use of 'NEBROS' since September 2020, while the plaintiff's use of 'ABROS' began in 2021. A global appreciation approach favored the defendants, leading to the decision that the balance of convenience does not support the plaintiff. The application for interim injunction was dismissed.

AKZO NOBEL COATINGS INTERNATIONAL B V VS JK CEMENT LTD [CS(COMM)-212/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Akzo Nobel Coatings International B.V. received interim relief in a trademark infringement case against JK Cement Ltd. The 'WEATHERSHIELD' mark was recognized as having acquired distinctiveness since the 1970s, and JK Cement's use of the similar 'WEATHER SHIELD' mark on cement products was likely to cause consumer confusion. The paints and cement were identified as allied goods. JK Cement was restricted from using the 'WEATHER SHIELD' mark but permitted to sell existing stock for the next 8 weeks.

AMIT JAIN VS SANJEEV KUMAR SINGH & ANR. [CRL.A.-1248/2019]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The appeal was allowed, and the acquittal of the respondents was set aside. The admission of the signature on the cheque triggered the presumption under Sections 118(a) and 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, placing the burden on the accused to rebut this presumption. The Trial Court's analysis was flawed, as it improperly focused on the complainant's lack of evidence instead of the presumption's implications. A fundamental error in the Trial Court's approach was identified, resulting in the appeal's favor.

AMRITPAL SINGH VS NATIONAL INVESTIGATION AGENCY [BAIL APPLN.-3303/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Amritpal Singh was dismissed due to his alleged role in a drug trafficking syndicate that smuggled 102.784 kg of heroin from Afghanistan to India. Evidence indicated his involvement in facilitating hawala transactions and meetings with the syndicate's mastermind in Dubai. The conditions for bail under the NDPS Act were not met, considering the sophisticated nature of the operations and the negative impact of drug trafficking on society.

ARVIND DHAM VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2516/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The legality of the petitioner's arrest under Section 19 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) was upheld. The grounds for the arrest were based on the investigating agency's material and were not considered unreasonable. Arguments regarding exculpatory material were acknowledged, but the investigating agency's consideration of inculpatory evidence was deemed non-arbitrary. The issue of "need and necessity to arrest" is pending review by a larger bench in a separate case. The petition challenging the arrest was dismissed.

ASHOK KUMAR @ LALA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1814/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Bail was granted to Ashok Kumar @ Lala, charged under Sections 20 and 29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 for possession and conspiracy involving a commercial quantity of Charas. The prolonged incarceration of over 2 years, his status as a senior citizen, and a delay in trial proceedings, with only 2 out of 22 witnesses examined, were significant factors in favor of bail. The absence of independent witnesses during the search and the non-compliance with certain procedural requirements were noted but deemed matters for trial determination. Other co-accused had been granted bail, further influencing the decision.

CCL MOHIT ALIAS ATANKWADI VS STATE THROUGH SHO PS PRASHANT VIHAR [BAIL APPLN.-2805/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of a child in conflict with law, charged under Sections 302/120B/34 IPC and the Arms Act, was dismissed. The prosecution demonstrated reasonable grounds to believe that his release could result in association with criminals, exposure to various dangers, or jeopardize justice. The applicant had allegedly committed another murder while on interim bail, exhibited a tendency towards crime, and was involved in a serious offense committed in broad daylight in front of police officials. The case highlighted the need to balance the protective framework of the Juvenile Justice Act with justice demands in serious offenses.

CHIMA VITALIS VS STATE THROUGH PS NEW DELHI RAILWAY STATION [BAIL APPLN.-2324/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Chima Vitalis was dismissed due to charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, involving 10.5 kg of methamphetamine. Procedural irregularities in sampling and delays in filing applications were not deemed detrimental at this stage. Despite a lengthy incarceration of 4 years, the conditions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act were not satisfied, preventing the granting of bail. The matter involved considerations related to co-accused Shrimathi as well.

CINNI FOUNDATION THROUGH MANAGING TRUSTEE DIPAK KUMAR SAH VS ANJAN NARAYAN SINGH & ANR. [C.O.(COMM.IPD-CR)-20/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Copyright registration No. A-117189/2017 is in the name of the CINNI Foundation Trust, not individual applicants Ravindra Kumar Sah and Anjan Narayan Singh. The CINNI trademark was registered in 1981 and assigned to the CINNI Foundation in 2000. Although there are ongoing disputes regarding the trusteeship of the Foundation, those issues were not addressed. The Registrar of Copyrights is instructed to update the register to reflect the copyright ownership of the CINNI Foundation Trust, without comment on the merits of the trusteeship disputes.

EMEKA PRINCE LATH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2438/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The petitioner's grounds for bail were found unpersuasive. The police's compliance with Section 50 of the NDPS Act was upheld, as the search of the bag was deemed separate from a personal search, which Section 50 covers. The delay of approximately 4 days in sending the seized contraband to the FSL was considered reasonable. Despite the petitioner being in custody for over 2 years with only 8 out of 23 witnesses examined, prolonged custody alone does not warrant bail in cases involving commercial quantities of narcotics. The absence of independent witnesses or videography was not enough to grant bail at this stage. The petitioner did not meet the threshold under Section 37 of the NDPS Act for bail, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

HARYANA PESTICIDES MANUFACTURES ASSOCIATION VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-IPD-45/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The Haryana Pesticides Manufactures Association's writ petition was dismissed due to improper communication of a new email address to the patent office, resulting in valid notices sent to the old address. The petitioner showed negligence in updating contact information. Although options for pursuing a post-grant opposition remain available, this does not grant the relief sought at the pre-grant opposition stage as no violation of natural justice occurred. The merits of the opposition to the patent were not addressed.

HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC VS THE CONTROLLER OF PATENTS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-396/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Honeywell International Inc. successfully appealed against the rejection of amendments to its patent application. The amendments narrowed the claims from "composition comprising a compound" to just "the compound" without introducing new matter beyond the original specifications. The claims and specifications were considered together as an integrated whole. The previous order was set aside, and the patent application was remanded for fresh consideration of the amended claims, with a directive for completion of examination within three months following a hearing for the appellant.

INFORMA MARKETS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S 4PINFOTECH AND ANR [C.O.(COMM.IPD-CR)-695/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The copyright registration for "Virtual Expo" is invalid and must be removed from the Register of Copyrights. The work contains a generic description of virtual expositions, lacking original expression, creativity, or investment necessary for copyright protection. Copyright only applies to the form, manner, and expression of an idea, not the idea itself. The Registrar of Copyrights should use discretion to filter out non-copyrightable works according to established guidelines. The absence of a rebuttal from the respondent further supports the decision for removal.

INTERDIGITAL TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION & ORS. VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP. LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-692/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The defendants' license agreement with Qualcomm is relevant and must be disclosed as it pertains to their defense of patent exhaustion. The plaintiffs' request for discovery of the defendants' agreements with Ericsson and Orange SA is denied as irrelevant for determining FRAND royalty rates. The plaintiffs are also required to disclose their agreement with Qualcomm due to its relevance to the exhaustion defense and FRAND determination, with an emphasis on maintaining confidentiality. The case involves alleged infringement of standard-essential patents, with the defendants raising patent exhaustion and challenging the validity and essentiality of the plaintiffs' patents.

ITC LIMITED VS THE DEPUTY REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS AND ORS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-81/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The appeal by ITC Limited, challenging the Registrar of Trade Marks' rejection of its request to submit further evidence in opposition to a trademark application, was dismissed. The mandatory timelines set by the Trade Marks Act, 1999, and the Trade Marks Rules are strictly enforced, and Rule 53 allows for additional evidence only in exceptional circumstances, not as a means to extend timelines. The interpretation of Rule 53 was clarified to prevent it from undermining the established deadlines. ITC Limited did not demonstrate diligent pursuit of the opposition proceedings and could not use delays to justify an extension of timelines.

JINDAL INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS JINDAL SANITARYWARE PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-251/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The defendant demonstrated prima facie prior use of the "JINDAL" mark for PVC pipes since 2006, supported by documentary evidence, while the plaintiff's evidence was deemed insufficient. It was noted that the plaintiff cannot claim exclusivity over the common surname "JINDAL" under Section 35 of the Trademarks Act. The ad-interim injunction previously granted to the plaintiff was set aside based on the balance of convenience.

KAIRA DISTRICT COOPERATIVE MILK PRODUCERS UNION LTD & ANR. VS D N BAHRI TRADING AS THE VELDON CHEMICAL AND FOOD PRODUCT & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-165/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Kaira District Cooperative Milk Producers Union Ltd. and Gujarat Cooperative Milk Marketing Federation Limited successfully challenged the registration of the "AMUL" trademark by D N Bahri Trading As The Veldon Chemical And Food Product. The respondent could not provide evidence of using the "AMUL" mark since 1957, establishing grounds for non-use under the Trade Marks Act. The "AMUL" trademark held by the petitioners is recognized as well-known, while the respondent's mark was found to be deceptively similar. The impugned trademark was ordered removed from the Register of Trade Marks.

KOMAL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1471/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Komal, accused of murdering her 4-year-old son, was granted bail due to a lack of substantial evidence directly linking her to the child's death. The post-mortem report was inconclusive because of advanced decomposition, and a confession by a co-accused was deemed inadmissible. After 4 years of incarceration with only 9 out of 31 witnesses examined and no threat of witness tampering, it was deemed unjust to keep her in custody indefinitely. Bail was granted with certain conditions.

KSHITIJ GHILDIYAL VS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF GST INTELLIGENCE DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3770/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The arrest of the petitioner on 30th November 2024 was deemed illegal due to the respondent agency's failure to provide written grounds for the arrest, as required by established legal principles. Discrepancies in the summons indicated potential violations in the detention process prior to formal arrest. The remand order was set aside, and the petitioner was directed to be released from judicial custody, with emphasis on procedural lapses rather than the merits of the case against the petitioner.

KULDEEP KUMAR VS STATE OF DELHI NCT & ANR [CRL.M.C.-5351/2017]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The petition to quash a summoning order for offences under Sections 354/354D/354A/509/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. Findings from the Internal Complaints Committee exonerating the petitioner in departmental proceedings do not affect the criminal charges, as the standard of proof in criminal cases is higher. The complainant consistently alleged sexual harassment and intimidation by the petitioner, a senior trade union leader, with supporting evidence that cannot be overlooked at this stage. Sensitivity to workplace sexual harassment issues was emphasized, allowing the criminal trial to proceed.

MACLEODS PHARMACEUTICALS LTD. VS ALKEM LABORATORIES LTD. & ANR. [CS(COMM)-86/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

An interim injunction was granted to Macleods Pharmaceuticals Ltd., preventing Alkem Laboratories Ltd. from using the mark 'ALSITA' for its pharmaceutical product. The marks 'ALRISTA' and 'ALSITA' are phonetically and structurally similar, creating a strong likelihood of confusion and potential health risks. Prior use of 'ALRISTA' by Macleods, along with its longer market presence and higher sales, supports the injunction.

MAN TRUCK BUS SE VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-16/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The order rejecting the appellant's patent application for lack of inventive step was set aside due to a lack of analysis on the appellant's responses to prior art documents D1-D4 and the introduction of objections regarding prior art document D5 during the hearing. This constituted a violation of natural justice. The matter was remanded for fresh consideration with directions to issue a new notice of hearing addressing all objections and to expedite the decision.

MARC SALON AND BEAUTY EQUIPMENTS PVT LTD VS GM SALES [CS(COMM)-493/2021]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Marc Salon and Beauty Equipments Pvt Ltd has a prima facie case for passing off against GM Sales due to the substantial copying of unique salon furniture designs and the use of a deceptively similar domain name. GM Sales' application to vacate an interim injunction was rejected, recognizing the distinctive designs developed by Marc Salon, their significant investment in promotion, and established market goodwill. The interim injunction remains in effect, preventing GM Sales from manufacturing or selling infringing products.

MUZAZ @ AZAD VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. & ORS. [CRL.M.(BAIL)-549/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The appellant's application for suspension of his 20-year sentence for sexually assaulting a 9-year-old neighbor was dismissed. The victim's testimony, despite minor contradictions, was deemed reliable and sufficient for conviction, supported by her father's consistent statements. The relationship between the appellant and the victim, along with the severity of the offense, was considered. The appellant had served only 2 years of his sentence, leading to the decision against suspension.

NEW BALANCE ATHLETICS INC. VS NINEPLUS SHOES PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-572/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The power to determine a trademark as well-known exists, but in uncontested or ex-parte situations, it is more appropriate for the plaintiff to approach the Registrar of Trade Marks under Rule 124 of the Trade Marks Rules, 2017. This approach acknowledges the need for a detailed assessment of various factors under the Act and avoids making declarations without public opposition or objections. Previous decisions support directing plaintiffs to the Registrar instead of making such determinations in court.

PIDILITE INDUSTRIES LTD. VS SANJAY JAIN & ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-371/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The rectification petition by Pidilite Industries Ltd. against the registration of "POMA-EX KWIKHEAL" was dismissed. The respondent's device mark shows significant differences from Pidilite's "FEVIKWIK" trade dress. The "KWIK" element cannot be deemed dominant or distinctive due to the anti-dissection rule. Pidilite's registrations for "FEVIKWIK" included a disclaimer on exclusive use of "KWIK," preventing a monopoly on the term. An earlier interim injunction from the Bombay High Court was based on a prima facie finding and did not impact the final outcome. The petition's dismissal indicates that the respondent's mark is not deceptively similar to the petitioner's marks.

PRADEEP @GOLU VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2460/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Pradeep @Golu, charged with murder and arms offenses, was dismissed due to the testimonies of four eyewitnesses indicating his involvement. His significant criminal history, including 16 previous cases and a recent conviction, supported this decision. Allegations of threats against witnesses, along with considerations of the offense's gravity and potential for witness tampering, factored into the denial of bail.

PRITAM SINGH VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.(BAIL)-1684/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Pritam Singh's sentence for offences under the Prevention of Corruption Act was suspended. Issues arose regarding his identification as the individual who demanded and accepted a bribe, as witnesses attributed the demand to a different person named Pritam Singh. The timing of the complaint, which followed a stay order on the complainant's property demolition, raised questions about the motivations behind the allegations. Other evidentiary concerns included the absence of CCTV footage, call records, and independent witnesses. The suspension considered the unexpired portion of the sentence and Singh's conduct.

RAJA JASWANT SINGH VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-546/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Raja Jaswant Singh was dismissed due to charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act for possession and supply of Tramadol tablets. Evidence, including statements from co-accused and witnesses, supported his involvement in a conspiracy to illegally procure and distribute the drugs. Previous offenses under the NDPS Act and the nature and quantity of the contraband led to a conclusion that there were no reasonable grounds to believe he was not guilty or that he would not commit further offenses while on bail.

RAM KISHAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2358/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Regular bail was granted to an applicant charged under the NDPS Act for possession of charas due to non-compliance with Section 52A regarding sample drawing in the presence of a Magistrate, rendering the evidence inadmissible. The applicant's incarceration exceeded 8 years amidst ongoing trial proceedings, violating the right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution. Bail was granted with a personal bond and specific conditions.

RAMANDEEP SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-550/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Ramandeep Singh's bail application was dismissed due to his significant role in a drug syndicate trafficking over 358 kg of heroin. He facilitated operations by providing a car and an iPhone to co-accused for communication. Documents and a cheque book belonging to the main accused were recovered from his residence. Arguments regarding the quantity of drugs recovered and investigation procedures were considered insufficient against the complexity of the syndicate and the large drug amount. Concerns about flight risk and the negative societal impact of drug trafficking also influenced the decision.

RAMESH KUMAR VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-313/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Anticipatory bail was granted to Ramesh Kumar in an FIR under Sections 420 and 406 of the Indian Penal Code, concerning a private dispute over property redevelopment. Complainants had paid for the purchase of a second floor, but construction remained incomplete. Factors considered included the nature of accusations, risk of fleeing, and necessity for custodial interrogation. Documentary evidence was secured, and the petitioner cooperated with the investigation. Conditions for bail included joining the investigation and not tampering with evidence, without requiring a monetary deposit.

RAVI KUMAR VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-455/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The prosecution failed to establish the appellant's identity beyond reasonable doubt, and the evidence regarding the recovery of stolen property and the use of a deadly weapon was inconclusive. Witness testimonies, including those of victims and police, contained numerous contradictions, and issues arose regarding the absence of a Test Identification Parade (TIP) and the reliability of dock identification. The overall case was weak, allowing for a conviction only under the basic robbery offense of Section 392 IPC. The appellant, having served significant time and demonstrating satisfactory behavior in jail, was directed to be released.

RELAXO FOOTWEARS LIMITED VS XS BRANDS CONSULTANCY PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-917/2018]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The application for interim injunction by Relaxo Footwears Limited against XS Brands Consultancy Private Limited and others was dismissed. The plaintiff cannot claim exclusive rights to the stylized 'X' device mark, which is commonly used in the market. The plaintiff had previously agreed to coexist with another entity using a similar mark. The 'HRX' brand by the defendants was developed distinctly, and its use of the 'X' device does not create consumer confusion. Prominent features identified were the main brands 'SPARX' and 'HRX', rather than the 'X' device marks alone.

RUPI BABBAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-5329/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The revision petition filed by the mother was allowed, resulting in the charges against her under Section 21 of the POCSO Act being set aside. The delay in reporting the sexual offences against her daughter was attributed to threats and trauma faced by both the mother and daughter, rather than any malice on the mother's part. Judicial precedents were considered, highlighting the psychological complexities in household sexual offences and the victims' reluctance to report due to social stigma and fear. Thus, the charges against the mother were dismissed, and the trial against the husband as the main accused will proceed.

SAANVI MALU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5571/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The petitioner's plea to quash the FIR and criminal proceedings under Section 8 of the POCSO Act and Section 506 of the IPC was dismissed. Delays in filing the complaint were noted, but the sensitive nature of the allegations and the minor's age supported a prima facie case. The petitioner had an alternative remedy available by way of a discharge application, which was already dismissed. Cross-allegations related to marital discord were not sufficient grounds to quash the proceedings, and the case merits were to be evaluated during the trial.

SALIM MALIK @MUNNA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.REV.P.-1155/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

An order on charge was upheld, framing charges against the petitioner under multiple sections of the Indian Penal Code related to rioting, arson, and vandalism. The examination at this stage focused on whether a prima facie case was established, without assessing the merits of the evidence. The prosecution's material indicated strong suspicion of the petitioner's involvement in the alleged offences. The trial remains incomplete, with evidence to be tested in the proceedings. The revision petition was dismissed, with no impropriety found in the charge order.

SANJEEV KUMAR VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2219/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Sanjeev Kumar was granted bail in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. Key factors included uncertainty about the presence of flowering or fruiting tops in the seized contraband, absence of independent witnesses and lack of proper documentation during the seizure, discrepancies in the quantity of seized material, and the applicant's prolonged incarceration of over 3.5 years with minimal trial progress. The applicant's lack of criminal history and good conduct in jail also contributed to the decision. Bail was granted on the condition of furnishing a personal bond and surety.

SAREGAMA INDIA LIMITED VS ZEE ENTERTAINMENT ENTERPRISES LIMITED [CS(COMM)-764/2017]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The plaintiff's suit under Section 60 of the Copyright Act became infructuous following the defendant's subsequent suit for copyright infringement, filed within about six months of the plaintiff's action. An injunction based on the defendant's previous undertaking will remain effective during the ongoing litigation, which has consolidated both suits. The determination of the parties' rights over the copyright will take place post-trial.

SATISH KUMAR DAHIYA VS SMT SHIVANI DAHIYA & ANR [CRL.REV.P.-619/2016]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The interim maintenance order from the Family Court was upheld, with the husband's monthly income estimated at Rs. 60,000. The wife was awarded Rs. 12,000 per month and the son Rs. 8,000 per month. Evidence indicated that the husband suppressed his actual income and failed to support his claim of earning only Rs. 10,000. A broad estimation of earnings was deemed necessary for fair maintenance calculations, reinforcing the husband's obligation to support his family. The husband's petition was dismissed, and the trial court was instructed to expedite proceedings to conclude within three months.

SEAGATE TECHNOLOGY LLC VS DAICHI INTERNATIONAL [CS(COMM)-67/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Refurbishment and resale of end-of-life hard disk drives (HDDs) from Seagate and Western Digital is permissible if defendants meet specific disclosure requirements on packaging and promotional materials. Importation of these HDDs is not prima facie illegal, and selling them to refurbishers is legitimate. Compliance includes clearly indicating that products are "Used and Refurbished," disclosing the original manufacturer, stating the absence of warranty or service from the original manufacturer, and providing details on the extended warranty from the refurbisher.

SHANU KHAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2498/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Shanu Khan was granted bail on charges of rape under Section 376 of the Indian Penal Code. The victim's testimony was deemed unreliable due to a delay in filing the complaint, her admission of alcohol consumption on the day of the incident, and attempts to extort money from the accused's brother. There was also a discrepancy between the victim's reported age in a medical report and her birth certificate. Khan, with no prior criminal record, had spent over a year and four months in custody.

SHUBHAM MANNA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1109/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The bail application of Shubham Manna was dismissed due to charges of manufacturing and selling spurious life-saving medicines for cancer patients. Evidence indicated Manna's role as a key conspirator in a criminal syndicate, including the recovery of a large quantity of spurious medicines, involvement in creating fake barcodes, and suspicious financial transactions. The gravity of the offense and potential threat to public safety justified the denial of bail. Observations made were solely for the assessment of the bail petition and did not constitute a final judgment on the case's merits.

SHUBHANKAR NAGAR VS STATE & ORS [CRL.M.C.-3630/2017]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The dismissal of the petitioner's application for FIR registration under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. was valid, with magistrates providing reasons based on the statements of the petitioner's relatives, the Sub-Registrar's testimony, and the presence of the petitioner's sister during the sale deed execution. The petition was deemed a second revision, which is not allowed under law, and inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. could not be used to bypass the statutory bar on second revisions. The petition was dismissed.

SIDDHARTH TALWAR & ANR VS SARIKA TALWAR [CRL.M.C.-2890/2019]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The petition by the husband challenging the interim maintenance order of Rs. 25,000 per month for the wife and minor daughter was dismissed. The lower courts had thoroughly analyzed the facts and law, arriving at reasonable conclusions without any perverse findings. The interim maintenance was upheld, with the final amount to be determined in trial court proceedings.

STATE (NCT OF DELHI) VS HARPREET SINGH KHALSA & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-1139/2023]
Judges: Justice Anish Dayal
The discharge order in favor of the accused, including respondent no. 4, was under scrutiny, leading to a directive for respondent no. 4, who had been released on bail, to surrender as the stay of the discharge order reinstated his status as an accused. The exercise of powers under Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure aimed to secure custody, noting that the trial court's approach in handling the discharge application deviated from established legal principles.

SUHAIL FAZAL VS THE STATE [CRL.REV.P.-1312/2019]
Judges: Justice Anish Dayal
The addition of a charge under Section 3(2)(v) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 to the existing charge under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code was invalid due to the investigation not being conducted by a police officer of the required rank. The addition of the charge under the SC/ST Act was set aside, while the trial on the IPC offence was allowed to proceed.

SUN PHARMA LABORATORIES LIMITED VS NARENDER KUMAR & ORS. [CS(COMM)-424/2021]
Judges: Justice Anish Dayal
The plaintiff established a prima facie case for passing off against the defendants' use of the mark "CAFTADAY" by demonstrating prior and continuous use of the mark "CAFTA," goodwill and reputation associated with it, and deceptive similarity between the two marks. The defendants' claim that "CAFTA" is derived from the generic INN "ALCAFTADINE" lacked sufficient evidence. The potential for loss and damage was evident due to the defendants' lower-priced product leveraging the plaintiff's goodwill. An interim injunction was granted, prohibiting the defendants from using "CAFTADAY" or any similar mark while the suit is pending. No opinion was expressed regarding the registrability of the plaintiff's "CAFTA" mark under the Trademarks Act.

SWISS BIKE VERTRIEBS GMBH SUBSIDIARY OF ACCELL GROUP VS RELIANCE BRANDS LIMITED (RBL) [CS(COMM)-25/2023]
Judges: Justice Anish Dayal
An interim injunction was granted to Swiss Bike Vertriebs GMBH against Reliance Brands Limited, prohibiting the use of the trademark "RALLEYZ" or any similar mark to "RALEIGH". The marks were found to be phonetically similar, likely causing consumer confusion. Swiss Bike established prior use of the "RALEIGH" mark in India since the 1930s, predating Reliance's claimed use from 2021. Arguments from Reliance regarding delay, non-use, and ability to pay damages were dismissed, as they did not negate the strong prima facie case for trademark infringement.

THE BHAKTIVEDANTA BOOK TRUST INDIA VS WWW.FRIENDWITHBOOKS.CO [CS(COMM)-88/2021]
Judges: Justice Anish Dayal
A sanyasi is entitled to own copyright in their literary works, as there is no legal prohibition against a sanyasi holding intellectual property rights. Renunciation or entering a monastic order does not extinguish property rights, including intellectual property rights. Srila Prabhupada, author of the works in question, assigned the copyright to the plaintiff Trust during his lifetime, in accordance with the Copyright Act. The defendant did not dispute the plaintiff's copyright and complied with an interim injunction, resulting in a judgment in favor of the plaintiff Trust.

THE REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA ADDRESS FOR SERVICE IN INDIA LEXORBIS VS CONTROLLER GENERAL OF PATENTS, DESIGNS &TRADEMARKS & ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-143/2022]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The Regents of the University of California successfully appealed the rejection of amendments to their patent application. The amendments included incorporating technical features from dependent claims into the main claim and were classified as corrections and explanations under Section 59(1) of the Patents Act, 1970. The previous order was set aside, and the patent application was returned to the patent office for fresh consideration of the amended claims within three months, with a hearing provided to the appellant.

UNDER ARMOUR, INC. VS ANISH AGARWAL & ANR. [CS(COMM)-843/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Under Armour, Inc. is not entitled to an injunction against Anish Agarwal & Anr. regarding the "AERO ARMOUR" mark. The defendants adopted the mark to target a unique market segment focused on "military inspired clothing," which differs in theme, design, and pricing from Under Armour's sportswear. Despite some similarity in the use of "ARMOUR," the distinct overall business proposition and target consumers of the defendants negate any deceptive similarity or likelihood of confusion. Limitations on the defendants' use of the mark were imposed to prevent potential point-of-sale confusion.

UPAKARMA AYURVEDA PRIVATE LIMITED VS RASAYANUM ENTERPRISES [CS(COMM)-834/2023]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The defendant's new packaging for the 10gm product is sufficiently different from the plaintiff's, thus not violating the interim injunction order. However, the 20gm product's packaging remains deceptively similar, primarily due to a similar beige background, likely causing consumer confusion. The interim injunction is granted in favor of the plaintiff, remaining in effect until the suit's conclusion, with the defendant given two months to create a new distinctive trade dress for the 20gm product. The plaintiff can seek further action if the new packaging still resembles their product.

USHA DEVI VS THE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1550/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Usha Devi was granted bail in an NDPS case due to her arrest being based solely on a co-accused's disclosure statement and CDR analysis, which are not admissible as evidence. The co-accused were not included in the case, and there was no physical recovery from Usha Devi. The evidence presented was insufficient, and her status as a mother of two and the expected lengthy trial contributed to the decision for bail.

VIJAY KUMAR SHUKLA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1485/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Repeated rejections of the petitioner's plea for premature release by the Sentence Review Board were deemed arbitrary and irrational, disregarding the Delhi Prisons Rules, 2018. The board failed to provide adequate reasoning and overly focused on the original crime's severity, neglecting the petitioner's exemplary conduct, satisfactory jail record, and successful periods in semi-open and open prisons. The petitioner demonstrated reformation and rehabilitation, leading to an order for immediate release and instructions for authorities to comply with DPR rules regarding SRB meetings and decision communications.

VIKAS GAUTAM & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-604/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Charges were framed against the appellants under Sections 354 and 509 of the IPC and Section 3(1)(x) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989. The FIR and witness statements established prima facie evidence of "intentional insult or intimidation" towards a member of the SC/ST community in public view. Using casteist slurs intended to insult or humiliate constitutes an offense under the SC/ST Act. Arguments claiming the allegations were frivolous and evidence insufficient were rejected, and the appeal against the charge framing was dismissed.

WASEEM SEIKH VS STATE OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2372/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

Anticipatory bail applications of Waseem Seikh and Rihana were dismissed in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. No recovery was made from the applicants, but statements from a co-accused and call detail records suggested their involvement in drug supply. Their evasion of investigation and lack of cooperation were also noted. The investigation was deemed to be in its early stages, necessitating potential custodial interrogation.

WIEDEN+KENNEDY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS JINDAL STEEL AND POWER LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-109/2024]

Judges: Justice Anish Dayal

The copyright infringement allegations by the advertising agency against the steel company were found to be prima facie valid, with the steel company's new campaign appearing to substantially replicate the agency's creative work. However, the balance of convenience favored the steel company due to the widespread dissemination of the video campaign. The advertising agency may seek compensation if copyright infringement is established. The steel company was ordered to deposit Rs. 59 lakhs with the court registry within two weeks, or face an interim injunction against the video. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the dispute, with all parties' rights and contentions reserved for consideration.

AABID ALI & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1443/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners' request to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was granted due to an amicable settlement between the parties, with no objections from the complainant. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the process, resulting in the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

AADIL MALIK & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-207/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 323/341/308/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The injuries to the complainants were deemed simple, the likelihood of conviction appeared low, and the petitioners had no prior involvement in similar matters. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of process. Instead of monetary costs, the petitioners were directed to plant 20 Neem trees each.

ABDUL MUQTADIR VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1665/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Abdul Muqtadir for Sections 500/509 IPC and Sections 66E/67 of the IT Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. It was noted that the petitioner's electronic device may have been hacked or misused without his knowledge. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process.

ABHIMANYU KUMAR VS THE STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2966/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIRs against petitioner Abhimanyu Kumar under Sections 324, 315, 509, 498A, 406, and 34 of the IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and a lack of conclusive evidence regarding the allegations of assault and forced abortion. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of the court.

ABHISHEK KUMAR GUPTA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1312/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIRs under Sections 308/34 IPC and 323/341/427/506/34 IPC against Delhi Technological University students were quashed due to an amicable resolution of disputes between the parties. Continuation of the proceedings would serve no useful purpose, as the parties expressed a desire to move forward. Therefore, the FIRs and related proceedings were dismissed.

ADITYA NARAYAN VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3337/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Aditya Narayan's petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure led to the quashing of an FIR against him for Sections 419/420 of the Indian Penal Code. The matter was settled amicably, with Narayan returning R.S. 11.7 lakh to the complainant, who had no objection to the FIR being quashed. The continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, with a low likelihood of conviction given the settlement.

AJAY AND OTHERS VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1148/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioners were quashed due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute, with a low likelihood of conviction. The offenses were deemed to primarily involve a civil matter, and continuing the proceedings was viewed as an abuse of process. The complainant expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR.

AJAY GUPTA AND ORS. VS STATE OF NCT DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-10189/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to the amicable settlement of matrimonial disputes and the dissolution of the marriage. Continuing the proceedings would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

AJAY KUMAR VS UMA [CRL.M.C.-2677/2021]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The Domestic Incident Report (DIR) is not essential for a Magistrate to consider when granting interim orders under the Domestic Violence Act, 2005, if the complaint is filed directly by the aggrieved person. The Magistrate's order for interim maintenance was validated based on the respondent's financial situation and the petitioner's income and assets. The petitioner's challenge to the orders lacked merit.

AJAY SHARMA & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1825/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to amicable resolution of disputes. The parties have been living together for two years, and the respondent submitted an NOC to quash the proceedings. It was noted that keeping the case pending would constitute an abuse of process, given that the matter is settled between the parties.

AJAY SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5467/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Ajay Singh under Section 354 of the IPC for outraging the modesty of a woman was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The proceedings were deemed an abuse of the court's process as the offense had elements of a civil dispute and was considered minor. Additionally, the petitioner had no prior involvement in similar matters, and the likelihood of conviction was low. Instead of costs, the petitioner was directed to plant 30 saplings as a form of restorative justice.

AJAY SINGHANIA VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-2163/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The questionnaire prepared for recording the accused's statement under Section 313 of the Criminal Procedure Code was flawed because it reproduced the entire testimony of witnesses instead of presenting each piece of incriminating evidence separately. This approach created ambiguity and hindered the accused's ability to explain the circumstances against them. The proper application of Section 313 requires each piece of incriminating evidence to be addressed individually, ensuring clarity and fairness in the trial process.

AJAY YADAV VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8091/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioner under Sections 354, 354D, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the petitioner and the complainant reached an amicable settlement. The situation indicated a civil dispute with minor incidents rather than heinous offenses. The complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioner was instructed to plant 50 Neem or Jamun trees in the vicinity of the police station, with maintenance managed by the authorities.

AJIT KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7379/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to the mutual consent dissolution of marriage between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2. The financial settlement was completed, and both parties had amicably resolved the matter without pressure. The respondent No.2 expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

AKASH AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4497/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and related proceedings against Akash and others under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Domestic Violence Act were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the petitioners and the respondent, the first petitioner's wife. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and it was noted that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the court's process. Both parties confirmed the settlement was reached without any threat, pressure, or coercion.

AKEEL KHAN & ORS. VS THE STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7675/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Akeel Khan and others under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between Akeel Khan and his wife, as outlined in a Memorandum of Understanding dated 17.05.2023. The wife expressed no objection to the quashing, rendering the continuation of the case unnecessary and potentially abusive to the judicial process due to low chances of conviction.

AKHILESH KUMAR BHADORIA & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-965/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners' request to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was granted due to an amicable settlement between the parties, with the respondent expressing no further grievances or objections. Retaining the case would be unproductive, and the likelihood of conviction appeared low following the settlement.

AKRAM SAEED KHAN @ AKRAM AND OTHERS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4954/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed by Akram Saeed Khan and others to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was allowed. The parties reached an amicable settlement, with the respondent indicating no objection to quashing the FIR. It was stated that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process of the court.

AKSHAY GOEL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4050/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 354D/354/506/509 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The offense was deemed not serious, stemming from a civil dispute, with low chances of conviction and no prior criminal record for the petitioner. Continuing the proceedings was regarded as an abuse of the court's process.

AKSHAY TOMAR AND ANR. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3744/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioners under Sections 323/325/506/34 IPC can be quashed because the matter has been amicably settled between the parties. Both petitioners and respondents are students, and the likelihood of conviction is low due to this settlement. Continuing the proceedings would amount to an abuse of the court's process.

ALOK JOLLY AND OTHERS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2621/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed based on an amicable settlement between the parties, including the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent and the payment of the remaining settlement amount. The State expressed no objection to the quashing, indicating that continuing the case would be unnecessary and an abuse of process.

ALOK SINGHAL VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2663/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The power to quash a criminal proceeding under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is based on the specific facts and circumstances of each case, including the nature and gravity of the offense and its societal impact. Alok Singhal filed a petition to quash an FIR under Sections 506/509 IPC, relating to allegations of threatening and assaulting a complainant over the return of Rs. 18 lakhs. The parties reached an amicable settlement regarding the monetary dispute, and the complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

AMAN AND OTHERS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6914/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The complainant confirmed the resolution was reached without any coercion. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process, as the likelihood of conviction was deemed low.

AMIT AGRAWAL AND ORS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5163/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable settlement of the parties and their marriage being dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. It was concluded that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR would not constitute an abuse of the legal process.

AMIT KUMAR VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCR 0F DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2407/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 308 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to a settlement between the parties, who are step-brothers. The incident was a minor dispute that occurred in the heat of the moment, and both parties have amicably resolved the matter. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

AMIT KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2106/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and subsequent criminal proceedings against the petitioners under Sections 308/323/341/34 of the Indian Penal Code were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who are neighbors. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of the court. The petitioners have clean antecedents, and the injuries sustained were categorized as simple. It was concluded that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the case pending.

AMIT KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4712/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code is quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the respondent has no objection to the quashing. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would be an abuse of the court's process, given the settlement and low chances of conviction.

AMIT KUMAR SHARMA & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1566/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 756/2021 under Sections 498A/406/506/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, supported by a Settlement Deed and an initial motion for divorce by mutual consent. The wife received Rs. 3,00,000/- as a full and final settlement. The State expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and interactions with the parties confirmed the settlement was reached without coercion. Therefore, continuing the case was deemed unnecessary.

AMRIT SHARMA@AMIT VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-318/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioner's case for premature release must be considered under the remission policy in effect at the time of conviction in 2010, not the Delhi Prisons Rules, 2018. The previous decision by the Sentence Review Board (SRB) rejecting the petitioner's release was set aside, and the SRB is directed to reconsider the case based on the policy from 16.07.2004. Ongoing furlough is not extended, as the rules do not allow this until the SRB completes its review.

ANAND KUMAR & ANR. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT DELHI) REPRESENT THROUGH S.H.O. NIHAL VIHAR, DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2003/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was filed to quash an FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties had amicably resolved their disputes and had been residing together since April 2017. Given this settlement, it was determined that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

ANAND KUMAR AND ORS VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4138/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 1432/2014 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties through a Settlement Deed dated 20.04.2024. It was confirmed that the settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, and keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose.

ANIL KUMAR GOTHWAL VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2903/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Anil Kumar Gothwal under Sections 354/354A/506 IPC can be quashed as the matrimonial disputes between his son and the wife have been settled amicably. The marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the financial settlement is complete. Keeping the case pending serves no useful purpose, and quashing the proceedings may aid the parties in moving on and reducing acrimony.

ANIL KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6932/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 106/2018 under Sections 288/337 IPC related to negligence during construction work has been quashed. The victim suffered only minor injuries, and the matter was amicably settled with compensation provided. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process. The petitioner is required to plant 30 neem tree saplings in the area as an alternative to costs.

ANIL MINOCHA VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7075/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Anil Minocha's petition under Section 482 CrPC resulted in the quashing of an FIR filed against him under Sections 354/354A/354D/506 IPC. An amicable settlement occurred between Minocha and the complainant, who expressed no objection to the FIR being quashed. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the judicial process. Minocha was directed to plant 30 Neem/Jamun saplings in the police station area, with the authorities responsible for their upkeep.

ANKIT ALIAS JUGNU AND ANR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4999/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Two separate FIRs registered at the Nihal Vihar police station were quashed due to the offenses not being serious and the involved parties amicably settling their disputes without coercion. The continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process. The petitioners were directed to plant 50 Neem trees each in the Nihal Vihar area, with the authorities responsible for their upkeep.

ANKIT BANSAL VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7974/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Ankit Bansal under Sections 469, 500, and 509 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The offenses were deemed not serious or heinous and primarily involved civil disputes, indicating that continuing the proceedings would abuse the court's process.

ANKIT TAYAL AND OTHERS VS THE STATE & ORS [W.P.(CRL)-380/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and all financial disputes were resolved. The parties indicated that this settlement was reached without any threat, pressure, or coercion. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process, as no useful purpose would be served.

ANKUR & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7358/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure led to the quashing of an FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties reached an amicable settlement, with the marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 dissolved by mutual consent. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and be an abuse of process, given the bleak chances of conviction due to the settlement. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

ANKUSH GARG AND ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-693/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The matter between Ankush Garg and another petitioner and respondent no. 2 has been amicably settled with the marriage dissolved by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would amount to an abuse of the process. The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and related proceedings have been quashed.

ANSHUL KUMAR PAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2097/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The power under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure allows for the quashing of criminal proceedings or an FIR when the offender and victim have settled their dispute, considering the nature of the offense, societal impact, and the likelihood of conviction. In this case, the parties amicably settled an alleged negligence matter, with the victim receiving compensation. The injuries were deemed potentially accidental, leading to the conclusion that continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process. The FIR and related proceedings were therefore quashed.

ANUJ KARWA & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1042/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent was dissolved by mutual consent, and financial issues were resolved. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would be considered an abuse of the process.

ANUJ MANI YADAV VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1872/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Anuj Mani Yadav under Sections 283/290/506 of the Indian Penal Code is quashed. Yadav expressed remorse and apologized to the complainant, a Metropolitan Magistrate, who does not wish to proceed with the case due to its minor nature. Quashing the FIR serves no useful purpose in light of the circumstances.

ANUPAM SINGH GAUTAM & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-277/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/354/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the settlement amount was paid. It was established that the resolution occurred without threat or coercion, and continuing the case would serve no useful purpose.

ANURAG NANDA AND ANR VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5054/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 354A/504/509 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The situation involved minor incidents with a civil dispute element, warranting the dismissal under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The petitioners compensated the complainant, and the potential for conviction was deemed remote. To avoid further court proceedings, the petitioners were directed to plant and maintain 100 saplings in the area.

ARAFAT AND ANOTHER VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8177/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The first petitioner granted Talaq to the respondent as per Muslim law, and all dues were settled. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and likely to result in an abuse of the judicial process, given the circumstances.

ARCHANA GOSWAMI VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1067/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0172/2020 against Archana Goswami under Section 289 IPC was quashed after an amicable settlement between her and the complainant, Nidhi Aggarwal. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, leading to the decision to quash the FIR and associated proceedings.

ARIHANT JAIN AND ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1660/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the IPC was quashed due to the parties amicably settling their disputes, including a mutual divorce and the payment of the remaining amount by the petitioners to the second respondent. It was concluded that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and constitute an abuse of the legal process.

ARJUN BHANDARI AND ORS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-686/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 377, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and a balance amount was paid to respondent no. 2 for full and final settlement. The amicable resolution indicated that keeping the case pending served no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR did not constitute an abuse of the court's process.

ARVIND KEJRIWAL & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1013/2020]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Imputations by petitioners Arvind Kejriwal, Atishi Marlena, and Sushil Kumar Gupta against the BJP, claiming the party deleted certain community voters from electoral rolls, are considered prima facie defamatory. The BJP is recognized as an identifiable entity capable of being defamed, and Rajiv Babbar, Vice President of BJP Delhi Pradesh, qualifies as an aggrieved person under Section 199 CrPC. The petitioners' defense of good faith and public interest needs to be established during trial. A petition to quash the summoning orders was dismissed due to lack of grounds for interference at this stage.

ASHISH KAPOOR AND ORS VS THE STATE N.C.T. OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-824/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed, as the parties reached an amicable settlement. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 had been dissolved by mutual consent, and continuing the criminal proceedings would be an abuse of process. With no remaining disputes, keeping the case pending served no useful purpose.

ASHISH KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3831/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Sections 3 & 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 was quashed due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the balance amount was paid to the respondent. Both parties confirmed the settlement was reached without any threat, pressure, or coercion, and keeping the case pending would be an abuse of process.

ASHISH KUMAR TRIPATHI AND ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7740/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the respondent received Rs. 10,00,000/-. The respondent had no objection to quashing the FIR, and keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, as the likelihood of conviction was considered bleak.

ASHISH KUMAR VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7113/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Ashish Kumar under Sections 498A/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between him and his wife. It was determined that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose, and the likelihood of conviction was deemed low. Both the State's learned APP and the respondent did not object to the quashing of the FIR.

ASHISH VERMA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7180/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, confirmed by a Settlement Deed dated 29.04.2024. The petitioners and respondent no. 2 have been living together since November 2023. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of court process given the settlement and low likelihood of conviction.

ASHISH VERMA VS PARMOD KUMAR [CRL.M.C.-2332/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed by Ashish Verma to quash the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Since the cheque was issued by Verma as the proprietor of 'Verma Computers', he remains liable despite the firm not being named as an accused. The petitioner's arguments were deemed without merit, resulting in a cost of Rs. 10,000 to be paid to the respondent, Parmod Kumar.

ASHRAF ALI @ BABLU & ORS. VS THE STATE OF GNCT & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3676/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC against Ashraf Ali @ Bablu and others was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of the petitioner and respondent had been dissolved by mutual consent, and a financial settlement was completed. The interactions with the parties revealed that the settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would be an abuse of the process.

ATUL ARORA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4665/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0232/2017 under Sections 406, 498A, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code against Atul Arora has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, supported by a Settlement Deed and a mutual consent divorce petition. Arora paid Rs. 9,00,000 to his wife for full and final settlement, making the continuation of the case unnecessary and an abuse of the process.

ATUL GOYAL & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4508/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners, Atul Goyal and others, successfully quashed an FIR against them under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The dispute between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was settled amicably, and their marriage was dissolved by mutual consent. All remaining financial obligations were fulfilled by the petitioners. The case was considered an abuse of the process due to the resolution of the issues.

ATUL KAKKAR & ORS. VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3355/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed FIR No. 401/2015, which was registered under Sections 365/342/368/386/34 IPC. The disputes originated from chit fund transactions and were instigated by the respondents. The parties reached an amicable settlement regarding monetary disputes. It was recognized that continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of process, with minimal chances of conviction. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed based on these considerations.

AVINASH BIDHURI AND ANR VS STATE AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2665/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 CrPC to quash an FIR for Sections 354/506/34 IPC was allowed. The case involved a landlord-tenant dispute that was amicably settled between the parties, with no serious offenses and low chances of conviction. Continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and subsequent proceedings.

AYAN AHMED & ANR. VS GNCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1346/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and proceedings against the petitioners were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, with no signs of threat or coercion. The incident stemmed from a minor altercation involving college students who expressed remorse. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process, and it was noted that while serious offences cannot be quashed despite settlements, minor incidents can be addressed in the interests of justice and to promote harmony.

BALRAM AND ANR VS STATE THROUGH SHO PS CHHAWALATHROUGH SHO PS CHHAWALA AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5936/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against Balram and another under various IPC sections were quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The case involved primarily civil disputes and minor incidents, with the complainant already compensated. The petitioners had no prior criminal record, and the likelihood of conviction was remote, making the continuation of proceedings an abuse of process. Instead of a financial penalty, the petitioners were instructed to each plant 50 Neem saplings in the vicinity of the Police Station.

BANARSI LAL@ GOBRA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1130/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The power to grant parole is restricted when an appeal is pending, as it undermines the appellate court's authority. The petitioner may seek suspension of sentence and interim bail under Section 389 of the Criminal Procedure Code during the pending appeal. The petition for parole was dismissed, but the petitioner is allowed to file for suspension of sentence and interim bail.

BANK OF INDIA VS ANJU BHATIA & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4920/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The criminal complaint against the Bank of India and its officials under Sections 409/120B/34 IPC lacks concrete evidence. The respondents agreed to quash the proceedings while preserving their rights in related civil/consumer matters. The dispute relates to alleged fraudulent withdrawals, suggesting it is civil in nature. Continuing the criminal proceedings is considered an abuse of process, with a low likelihood of conviction. The complaint case is therefore quashed in the interest of justice.

BENETTON INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-6071/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The insistence for the presence of the MD/CEO of Benetton India Private Limited was deemed unnecessary, as the company's authorized representative was empowered to address traffic challans for a company vehicle. The directions regarding this requirement were regarded as unfounded and irrational. Observations were made on enhancing technology integration in the traffic challan system, with suggestions to be forwarded to the e-Committee of the Supreme Court for consideration.

BHARAT BHUSHAN KAPOOR AND OTHERS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2430/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0134/2022, related to Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, was quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the parties resolved their disputes. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would be considered an abuse of the process, given the low likelihood of conviction due to the settlement.

BHARAT KHATRI & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2540/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed as the parties had settled the matter amicably. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, custody of the child was agreed upon, and the financial settlement was completed. The State had no objection to quashing the FIR. Confirmation that the settlement occurred without threat or coercion led to the conclusion that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

BHARAT RATAN & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8736/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement of matrimonial disputes. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act, and the petitioners paid an agreed amount to respondent no. 2. The situation indicated that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and risk an abuse of court process, given the low likelihood of conviction.

BHASKAR AND ORS. VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3826/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under various sections of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to amicable settlement of disputes and the dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending served no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR was not an abuse of the court's process.

BHAWANA SHARMA & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-7652/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC against Bhawana Sharma and others was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. Both petitioners and respondents, who are neighbors, agreed to the quashing, and the likelihood of a conviction was deemed low. Continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. As a condition for quashing the FIR, the petitioners were required to plant 10 saplings of neem/jamun trees each in the police station area.

BHUPENDER & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3357/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition to quash FIR No. 109/2019, which involved charges under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the IPC, was granted due to the parties' amicable settlement and dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. The state raised no objections to quashing the FIR, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would abuse the legal process. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

BHUPENDER MUDGAL@ BHUPENDER SHARMA VS THE STATE N C T DELHI AND ANR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-24/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Section 308 IPC against the petitioner was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the husband and wife, who are now living together happily. The nature and gravity of the offense, along with the potential retraction of the victim's statement, suggested that continued proceedings would constitute an abuse of process.

BHUSHAN TIWARI & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4783/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition by Bhushan Tiwari and another to quash an FIR under Sections 498A, 406, 506, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was allowed due to an amicable settlement of their matrimonial dispute and a mutual divorce. Interaction with the parties confirmed the absence of threat or coercion in the settlement, which would promote harmony and allow them to move forward. The likelihood of conviction was deemed low, and it was determined that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

BIJENDER SINGH LATHER VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2647/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Proceedings under Section 82 of the Criminal Procedure Code against petitioners Joginder Singh Lather and Ram Niwas Lather, directors of a real estate company accused of cheating homebuyers, are invalid as the offenses do not meet the criteria of Section 82(4) Cr.P.C. In contrast, Bijender Singh Lather remains subject to Section 82 Cr.P.C. proceedings due to his failure to join the investigation after an anticipatory bail application was rejected by the Supreme Court.

BIRENDER @ BEERU@VEERPAL & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2615/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioners and the respondent No. 2 were living together, and the State had no objection to the quashing. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process.

BUNTY @DINESH VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2919/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the husband under Section 324 IPC for assaulting his wife was quashed after the couple amicably settled their matrimonial dispute and have been living together since 2010. The incident stemmed from a minor altercation, and the likelihood of conviction was deemed low. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of process. The settlement between the couple was seen as beneficial for promoting harmony.

BUSHRA & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2391/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The applications under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to quash two FIRs were allowed. The FIRs, arising from matrimonial disputes, were found to be settled amicably between the parties. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process, leading to the quashing of the FIRs and the associated proceedings.

CHANDAN KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) THROUGH S.H.O. & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1575/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was dissolved through mutual consent under Section 13B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act, with no objection from the State. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and constitute an abuse of the process.

CHARANJEET SINGH & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7494/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act, with no objections from the State or respondent No. 2. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

CHITRANSHU AGGARWAL & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2276/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the agreed financial terms were fulfilled. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of the process, leading to its dismissal.

CT. AMIT@ AMIT KUMAR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI THE SHO AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7167/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and related proceedings against the petitioner were quashed after it was established that the accident was unintentional and the parties reached an amicable settlement, with the petitioner compensating the complainant. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process due to the circumstances and low likelihood of conviction.

DALEEP KUMAR ALAIS DILIP BHAGAT VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4610/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent and full payment as per the settlement agreement. The respondent did not object to the quashing, and there was no indication of threat or coercion involved in resolving the matter. Maintaining the case would be an abuse of the court's process.

DANISH & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7698/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included a divorce and a payment of Rs. 1,00,000. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and likely an abuse of process, given the low chances of conviction.

DAVESH KUMAR VS GAURI @ SUPRIYA & ORS. [CRL.A.-963/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The order dismissing the appellant's application under Sections 340 and 195 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was upheld. The complainant's contradictory statements during the trial were insufficient for prosecution for perjury without evidence of intentional falsehood or fabrication. The initiation of proceedings must be based on expediency in the interest of justice, and in this case, it was concluded that such proceedings against the respondents were neither expedient nor in the interest of justice.

DEEP NARAYAN TIWARI @ DEEPAK VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3402/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 591/2023 under Sections 354/506/509 IPC has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, with weak chances of conviction noted. The incident was viewed as a counter to an earlier FIR from the petitioner, which has also been quashed.

DEEPAK & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2157/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Deepak and others under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable settlement of disputes. The marriage between the first petitioner and the second respondent was dissolved by mutual consent, and the balance amount was paid to the second respondent. The State did not object to the quashing of the FIR, indicating that keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the process.

DEEPAK & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT THROUGH SHO & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1109/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2 reconciled and resumed living together, with neither the State nor respondent No.2 opposing the quashing. It was concluded that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

DEEPAK @ SUNNY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3463/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioner's request to quash the FIR against him and his family members under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was granted. The parties had amicably resolved their disputes, with a first motion for divorce by mutual consent allowed under the Hindu Marriage Act. After confirming that the settlement was free of threat or coercion, it was concluded that keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

DEEPAK BHATLA AND ORS VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3274/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Deepak Bhatla and others under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the parties amicably resolved the dispute. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioners paid the remaining balance to respondent No. 2 as a full and final settlement. As the matter was settled, the case was deemed unnecessary to keep pending. The Look Out Circular against petitioner No. 1 was also withdrawn, and his passport was to be released.

DEEPAK KUMAR @ DEEPAK KUMAR BAGRI & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6283/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code is quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included a mutual consent divorce and a payment of Rs. 10,00,000 to the respondent. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

DEEPALI PANWAR & ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-113/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against Deepali Panwar and others under Sections 506, 509, 323, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed. The disputes involved were matrimonial, with both parties filing cross-complaints. The matter has been amicably settled following the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. The continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process.

DEVENDER KUMAR BARAL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS VASANT KUNJ & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4318/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

In Devender Kumar Baral v. The State NCT of Delhi, the FIR against the petitioner under Section 354 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between parties, with the complainant expressing no further grievances. The continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of process as the chances of conviction were low. The petitioner was directed to plant 30 saplings in the local area under supervision of the relevant authorities.

DEVENDRA KHATIK VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7714/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Devendra Khatik, registered under Sections 354/354B/354D/506 IPC, can be quashed as the offenses are not serious and primarily involve a civil dispute. An amicable settlement between the parties and a low likelihood of conviction support the decision to quash the FIR.

DEVESH KUMAR CHANDEL & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6531/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and a mutual consent divorce decree. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process, with the state prosecutor not opposing the quashing.

DEVI SINGH & ANR. VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4688/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR and related criminal proceedings against the petitioners for various IPC offenses were quashed due to the dispute being primarily civil and having been amicably settled through mediation. The likelihood of conviction was deemed low, and continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the legal process. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioners were directed to plant 25 saplings each.

DEVINDER KUMAR AND ORS VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2498/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR filed against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable resolution between the parties. The petitioners and the complainant obtained a mutual consent divorce, and the remaining balance payment was completed. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of the legal process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

DHARAMBIR SINGH & ANR. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-155/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The decision to set aside the order for FIR registration against the respondent was upheld. The GPA and Will executed by the deceased father in favor of the respondent were properly registered, and their execution in Hindi did not indicate forgery. The expiration of the Notary Public's license did not automatically classify the documents as forged, as notaries often continue working under the expectation of renewal. The dispute was primarily civil in nature, making the registration of the FIR unjustified. The petition was dismissed.

DHARAMVIR SINGH VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-216/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Dharamvir Singh's petition to quash an FIR under Sections 354(A)/509/506 of the Indian Penal Code, filed by his daughter-in-law, was granted based on an amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual dissolution of the marriage between Singh's son and the respondent. The continuation of the case was deemed to serve no useful purpose and constituted an abuse of process, leading to the dismissal of the FIR and related proceedings.

DHARMENDER KUMAR @ DHARMENDER SINGH AND ORS VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5890/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0839/2021 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included a Settlement Deed and mutual consent divorce. The case was deemed unlikely to lead to conviction, making its continuation unnecessary.

DHARMVEER ALIAS DHARMBIR AND ORS VS STATE AND ANR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4039/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0240/2018, registered under Sections 323/354D/509/34 IPC, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The offences were assessed as not serious and unlikely to result in conviction. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. The parties were instructed to plant 20 saplings each as an alternative to costs.

DHEERAJ YADAV VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4366/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 498A, 406, 506, and 34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the petitioner and his wife, with their marriage dissolved by mutual consent. Both parties confirmed the settlement was free from pressure or coercion, and the state prosecutor did not object. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

DINESH & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6894/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. A Memorandum of Understanding was signed, and a mutual consent divorce decree was obtained. The State government did not oppose the quashing. The continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process given the circumstances.

DINESH KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-426/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and all financial dues were paid. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR did not constitute an abuse of the legal process.

DINESH KUMAR AND ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4741/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully sought to quash FIR No. 0134/2017, which was registered under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties had amicably settled the matter, with a mutual consent divorce finalized and the remaining balance paid to the second respondent. The prosecution did not object to the quashing of the FIR, and the parties confirmed the settlement was reached without coercion. Given these factors, continuing the case was deemed unnecessary.

DR JAI KISHAN GODARA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6477/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The disputes between the petitioner and respondent No. 2 have been amicably settled, leading to the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. Quashing the FIR against the petitioner under Sections 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code lacks purpose and constitutes an abuse of process, as the likelihood of conviction is minimal due to the settlement. Thus, the FIR and related proceedings are quashed.

DR RENU VS STATE OF KARNATAKA AND ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-493/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The writ petition filed by Dr. Renu to defreeze her bank accounts was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the FIR and cause of action originated in Bengaluru, despite the account freezing occurring in Delhi. The petitioner was advised to approach the appropriate forum in Bengaluru.

DR. SHASHI THAROOR VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1394/2020]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Dr. Shashi Tharoor's statement at the Bangalore Literature Festival was deemed prima facie defamatory towards Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the BJP. The Vice President of BJP Delhi Pradesh had the standing to file the complaint as a member of the affected political party. Arguments regarding the defense of good faith and fair comment could not be considered at this stage and are reserved for trial. The petition under Section 482 of the CrPC was dismissed, allowing trial proceedings to continue.

FAEEM AND ORS VS THE STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2330/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement reflected in a Compromise Deed dated 15.09.2023. The continuation of the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court process, as the likelihood of conviction is low given the settlement.

FAIZAN QURESHI & ORS. VS THE STATE OF GOVT OF NCT DELHI THROUGH SHO DARYA GANJ NEW DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4223/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Faizan Qureshi and others under Sections 354D/506/509/34 IPC for outraging modesty and criminal intimidation has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, supported by a Settlement Deed dated 29.02.2024. One co-accused has passed away, and the likelihood of conviction appears minimal, making further proceedings an abuse of process.

FAWADULLAH KHAN @ FAWABULLAH KHAN AND OTHERS VS STATE (NCT) OF DELHI AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-1202/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The wife received Rs. 10,50,000 as a full and final settlement and expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the court's process.

FAYYAJ SULTAN@FAIYAZ SULTAN & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-91/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 702/2014 under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed. The matter was amicably settled between the parties, with the petitioner providing Talaq to the respondent in accordance with Muslim Shariat Law. Both the state government and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, as further proceedings would not serve a purpose and would constitute an abuse of the judicial process.

FEROZ HASAN AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-993/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR filed against Feroz Hasan under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Feroz Hasan and his wife are now residing together and have no further issues to address, making the continuation of proceedings an abuse of the process of the court. Consequently, the FIR and its related proceedings were quashed.

FIROZ ANSARI & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3567/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and proceedings against Firoz Ansari and others under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, confirmed to be free from any threat or coercion. It was stated that maintaining the case would not serve any useful purpose. As an alternative to costs, petitioner No. 1 was instructed to plant 10 saplings in local parks within the jurisdiction of the police station.

GAGAN GUPTA & ORS. VS THE STATE AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-329/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR registered against the petitioners under Sections 323/354/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The victim expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and continuing proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process.

GAJRAJ & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2959/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and further proceedings were deemed unnecessary and abusive of the court's process, especially considering the low likelihood of conviction.

GAURAV BAKSHI AND OTHERS VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND OTHERS [CRL.M.C.-5998/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR filed under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the respondent received Rs. 10,00,000 as part of the settlement. Given these circumstances, continuing the case serves no useful purpose and the likelihood of conviction is minimal.

GAURAV JAIN & ORS. VS STATE OF (NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6161/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioners paid Rs. 9,00,000 to the respondent. Given the circumstances, continuing the case was deemed unnecessary as the likelihood of conviction was low.

GAURAV KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3978/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against the husband, mother-in-law, father-in-law, and siblings-in-law of the complainant were quashed due to the resolution of matrimonial disputes, including a mutual consent divorce. The matter involved minor personal offences, and the parties reached an amicable agreement. Continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioners were directed to plant 10 saplings each in local parks as a form of restorative justice.

GAURAV KUMAR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-508/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The writ petition filed by Gaurav Kumar was dismissed as premature. The Magistrate possesses the authority to direct FIR registration and oversee investigations under Section 156(3) of the Cr.P.C. Since the Magistrate has already initiated an investigation and a report was submitted, it was advised that the petitioner return to the Magistrate if further grievances exist. The alternate remedy under Section 156(3) has been utilized, making this case unsuitable for intervention under Article 226 of the Constitution.

GAURAV KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5118/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to the amicable settlement of disputes between the parties. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the outstanding amount was paid. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process.

GAURAV MITTAL & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-712/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed by accused directors of M/s CHD Developers, Gaurav Mittal and another, to quash the FIR under Sections 420/120B IPC for cheating and criminal conspiracy was allowed. The matter was amicably settled between the parties, with the complainant expressing no objection to quashing the FIR. The likelihood of conviction was deemed low due to the settlement, and continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the process. The petitioners were directed to plant 50 saplings each in local parks, with maintenance handled by authorities, accompanied by a penalty for non-compliance.

GAURAV VERMA & ANR. VS STATE THROUGH SHO & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-689/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement through a Compromise/Settlement Deed and a mutual consent divorce under the Hindu Marriage Act. The parties confirmed the payment of Rs. 2,00,000 to the wife as a full and final settlement, made without any threat or coercion. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of the court.

GAUTAM ANR ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2439/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Gautam and others under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 had been dissolved, and a payment of Rs. 3,00,000/- was made to respondent No. 2 as a full and final settlement. Both the State and respondent No. 2 did not oppose the quashing of the FIR, and it was deemed that continuing the case would be an abuse of the legal process.

GAUTAM ARYA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6963/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable settlement of matrimonial disputes between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and financial matters were resolved, making it unnecessary to keep the case pending as it would lead to an abuse of process, with minimal chances of conviction.

GAUTAM JINDAL & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1905/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the remaining settlement amount was paid. Both the State and the respondent did not object to the quashing, indicating that continuing with the case would be an abuse of the process.

GLADWIN VINCENT SOLOMON AND ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5232/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The parties confirmed that the settlement was made voluntarily, without coercion, and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings was seen as an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

GOPAL SINGH VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-998/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Gopal Singh under Sections 308/323/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties involved. Gopal Singh and the respondents, Deepak and Jagdish, resolved the matter, compensated for treatment expenses, and demonstrated intentions to end the proceedings. The petitioner's clean past record and the minor nature of the incident contributed to the decision to quash the FIR and the subsequent proceedings, deemed an abuse of process.

GUIZAR ISLAM & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1419/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/506/406/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed after the parties amicably resolved their disputes. The marriage, solemnized in 2015, ended due to temperamental differences. A Settlement Deed was executed on 21.10.2023, followed by a Deed of Dissolution of Marriage on 21.12.2023. The settlement was reached without any coercion, and continuing the case would be an abuse of process.

GULFAM KHAN & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5326/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0411/2020 under Sections 308/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The injuries were classified as simple, there was no prior involvement between the parties, and continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process. The settlement promoted harmony and reflected a predominant civil dispute element, making the possibility of conviction remote.

GULSHAN AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2396/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR under Sections 498A, 406, 354, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The likelihood of conviction is low, and continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. Serious offenses are not subject to quashing despite settlement, but offenses involving civil disputes or minor incidents, where the complainant has been compensated, may be quashed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

GULSHAN VERMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-1718/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIRs against the parties were quashed due to the dispute stemming from a minor issue of playing music, which had been amicably settled. The situation involved predominantly civil elements, and since the complainant was compensated, the continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. The petitioners were directed to plant 30 neem saplings each near the police station to promote harmony between the parties.

GULSHAN VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1074/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to amicable resolution of disputes. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent and the outstanding amount paid, making the continuation of the case an abuse of process. This matter was a single-instance case.

GULZAR AHMED & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-622/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed the FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961. The disputes among the parties have been amicably settled, and they are currently residing together. The State expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, indicating that continuing the case would not serve a useful purpose and would not abuse the legal process.

GURINDER SINGH SURI AND ORS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-922/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable resolution of disputes between the parties, which included obtaining a mutual consent divorce. The settlement was reached without any threat or coercion, and the respondent had no objection to the quashing of the FIR. Maintaining the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

GURMEET SINGH & ORS. VS STATE GOVT.OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1046/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0577/2013 registered under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed along with related proceedings. The parties involved reached an amicable settlement, and the marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved by a divorce decree. The continuation of the case is deemed unnecessary due to the settlement and low likelihood of conviction.

GURMEET SINGH & ORS. VS THE STATE THROUGH SHO PS KIRTI NAGAR DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2579/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0499/2023 under Sections 363/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties regarding the custody of the respondent's minor children. The respondent no longer had grievances against the petitioners, making the continuation of the proceedings an abuse of process, particularly given the low likelihood of conviction and the petitioners' clean antecedents.

GURVNDER SINGH VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-6618/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Gurvinder Singh successfully sought to quash FIR No. 0224/2022, which was filed against him for allegedly colliding with Manish Kumar's motorcycle. The incident arose from a complaint where Kumar and his brother claimed injuries. The matter was amicably settled, with Singh compensating the victims, and the likelihood of conviction was low. The minor nature of the incident and Singh's lack of previous offenses led to the conclusion that continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of process.

HANNY WADHWA AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6847/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. They entered into a Memorandum of Agreement to reside separately, with custody of the child granted to petitioner no. 1. The settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, and the complainant had no objection to quashing the FIR. Keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the process of law.

HANS RAJ VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3804/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Petitions to quash FIRs under IPC Sections 354A/506/509 and 354A/509/34 were allowed due to an amicable settlement between the neighboring parties. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, with a low likelihood of conviction and the petitioners having clean antecedents. As a remedial measure, each petitioner was directed to plant 25 Neem trees in the Farsh Bazar area.

HANSRAJ SURANA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-422/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

In Hansraj Surana v. State of NCT of Delhi, the petitioner was granted one week of parole to attend his mother's funeral. Despite prison rules, constitutional powers allow for such releases when justified. The petitioner had already served 2.5 months of a 3-month sentence and demonstrated satisfactory conduct in prison, warranting the parole under specific conditions for funeral rituals.

HARISH CHAND & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7506/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, along with Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process given the slim chances of conviction.

HARISH CHAND ALIAS HARISH KUMAR MISHRA AND ORS. VS THE STATE(GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2263/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the parties, including the complainant (the wife), confirmed that they had amicably resolved their disputes. The marriage between the petitioner and the complainant was dissolved by mutual consent. It was concluded that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR would not constitute an abuse of process.

HARISH KUMAR GUPTA & ANR. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8335/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR registered under Sections 354/509/34 IPC against Harish Kumar Gupta and another was quashed after the parties amicably settled the dispute. The case involved minor differences, and the victim had no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of the court.

HARISH SINGH BHANDARI AND ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-352/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 was allowed to quash an FIR filed under Sections 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code. The marriage between the first petitioner and the second respondent was dissolved by mutual consent, and both parties had reached an amicable settlement. The second respondent expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR. It was determined that continuing the case would be an abuse of the process of law, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

HARISH YADAV VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-269/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Harish Yadav sought parole despite restrictions under the NDPS Act due to exceptional circumstances. He had nearly completed his sentence with good conduct and needed time to re-establish social ties and arrange payment of a fine to avoid further imprisonment. Given these factors, a three-week parole was granted, contingent upon a personal bond, enabling him to achieve his objectives.

HARJEET SINGH & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2401/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed by Harjeet Singh and Santokh Singh to quash the FIR under Sections 392/394/34 IPC is allowed. The petitioners and the complainant are known to each other, have amicably settled the matter, and the complainant does not object to quashing the FIR. The likelihood of conviction is minimal due to this settlement, and the petitioners lack any previous involvement in similar matters. Continuation of the proceedings is deemed an abuse of the judicial process, resulting in the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

HARJINDER@ BALLU & ANR. VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3795/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and proceedings under Sections 323/341/354/506/509/34 IPC have been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties regarding a minor issue of payment of an electricity bill. The offenses involved predominantly civil disputes or minor incidents, making the continuation of criminal proceedings unnecessary and an abuse of process. The likelihood of conviction was deemed low, and the petitioners had no prior involvement in similar matters.

HARKESH KUMAR VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-676/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 188/2019 against the petitioner under Sections 509, 354, and 506 of the IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Keeping the case pending was viewed as an abuse of the process. Both the state government and the complainant expressed no objection to this action.

HARSHVARDHAN GAUTAM & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2078/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Harshvardhan Gautam and another under Sections 420 and 406 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioners returned the full loan amount, and the respondent confirmed that he had no grievances remaining. The dispute was deemed civil in nature, and continuing criminal proceedings was considered an abuse of the process.

HARVINDER SINGH & ORS. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8243/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to amicable settlement of matrimonial disputes between the parties, who obtained a mutual consent divorce decree. The respondent did not oppose the quashing of the FIR, and continuing the case would lead to an abuse of process given the slim chances of conviction.

HARVINDER SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4196/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs against the petitioner under Sections 307, 324, 195A, and 506 IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The incidents stemmed from minor family disputes, and the injuries did not suggest an intention to cause serious harm. As the petitioner and the complainant/victim are now living together, continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process. The petitioner was directed to plant 50 saplings in place of imposing costs.

HEMANT KUMAR AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4791/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 406, 498A, and 34 of the IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who have executed a Settlement Deed and are now living together without any coercion. The State raised no objections to this outcome, leading to the conclusion that proceeding with the case would not serve any useful purpose.

HEMANTH RAJ P.V. & ORS. VS STATE OF DELHI NCT & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-835/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 48/2017 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed as the parties had amicably settled their differences and were residing together. Continuing the case would be an abuse of the court's process, with no objections from the State or the complainant.

IKRAM HUSAIN@AKRAM HUSSAIN & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1640/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Ikram Husain @ Akram Hussain and others successfully petitioned to quash an FIR filed against them under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act. The parties reached an amicable settlement, evidenced by a settlement deed dated 10.05.2022, and the marriage was dissolved via Khulanama/Talaqnama on 26.05.2022. The circumstances indicated that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose.

INDERJEET VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3491/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against Inderjeet under Sections 352/354A/506/509 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement of the family dispute with his niece. The offenses were determined to have a significant civil dispute aspect, and the likelihood of conviction post-compromise was assessed as low. Continuing the legal proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. Inderjeet was required to plant 30 saplings in local parks as a condition for quashing the FIR.

INTERNATIONAL DIAMOND SERVICES LTD VS DIMEXON DIAMOND LTD [CRL.M.C.-12/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Petitions filed by the accused under Section 482 Cr.P.C. were dismissed, as the proposed additional witness was no longer associated with the complainant company and lacked access to relevant documents. The complaint case was over 15 years old, and the accused had been making repeated delays in the trial. The petitions were deemed meritless, and a directive was issued for the trial court to expedite the case disposal within 6 months.

IRSHAD JALALUDDIN ANSARI & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4530/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 34, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Petitioner No. 1 had divorced respondent No. 2, and both the State prosecutor and respondent No. 2 expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of process with minimal chances of conviction given the settlement.

ISHWAR SINGH VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1059/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 376 IPC was quashed due to the absence of bad faith in the promise of marriage. The parties had subsequently married, and continuing proceedings would result in an abuse of the process and disrupt their harmony. Therefore, keeping the case pending would not serve any useful purpose.

ISHWER SINGH & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3277/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Ishwer Singh and others under Sections 323/354/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The settlement was reached without any threat, pressure, or coercion, and the respondent had no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process of the court.

JABBAR & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5914/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0643/2015 under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, as evidenced by a Memorandum of Understanding dated 03.02.2020. The parties were residing together, and the complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the court's process.

JAGVIR VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1228/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and subsequent proceedings against the petitioner were quashed due to disputes over the victim's age, making it challenging to establish she was below 18 during the incident. The petitioner and the victim have been married for over nine years and have a child together. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of law that would cause unnecessary distress to the parties involved.

JAI SINGH ALIAS RAJ & ANR. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2833/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition filed by Jai Singh and Kamal Kishor to quash the FIR against them was dismissed. The FIR included charges under Sections 307/201/34 IPC and Sections 27/54/59 of the Arms Act, related to an alleged assault on the complainant, during which one co-accused fired two rounds from an illegal weapon, resulting in bullet injuries. Despite a settlement between the parties, the offenses under Section 307 IPC (attempt to murder) and the Arms Act were deemed serious, with significant societal implications. The nature of the injuries and the weapon used necessitated a thorough examination of the evidence, leading to the conclusion that it was not appropriate to quash the proceedings.

JAMAL RANJHA VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-6128/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The final adjudication in a case under the Maharashtra Control of Organised Crime Act (MCOCA) allows the accused to summon judgments from previous cases to demonstrate that the alleged offenses were not part of an organized crime syndicate. This is important for establishing the defense, despite the previous acquittals or discharges being irrelevant to the initial FIR registration. A trial court's order denying the request to summon witnesses was set aside.

JANAKRAJ & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1032/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 354, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and both parties expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR. Continuing the case would amount to an abuse of the court's process.

JASBIR SINGH NAGI & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-1658/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The dispute between the parties was resolved through a settlement deed, and the remaining amount was paid to the complainant. Keeping the case pending would constitute an abuse of the legal process. The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and related proceedings were quashed, as there were no further issues to resolve.

JASKARAN SINGH GAMBHIR VS STATE OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-3504/2021]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition by Jaskaran Singh Gambhir and others to quash an FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was approved due to an amicable settlement of disputes, including mutual consent for marriage dissolution. It was determined that continuing the case would abuse the legal process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

JATIN KUMAR CHAURASIA & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4423/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to quash an FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 354B IPC is maintainable. The marriage between the petitioner and respondent was dissolved by mutual consent, and the parties have amicably settled their disputes, confirming the settlement occurred without pressure. The State's representative and the respondent did not object to quashing the FIR. Based on these facts, continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

JAVED AND OTHERS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2553/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition by Javed and others to quash an FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was granted due to an amicable settlement evidenced by a Settlement Deed dated 25.09.2023. The parties have been living together since 2019, and the State did not object to the quashing. Interaction with the parties confirmed the settlement occurred without threat or coercion, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would be unnecessary and an abuse of the court's process.

JAY NARDEV & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4680/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent divorce. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process.

JAYANT CHAUDHARY VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-8752/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) was allowed, leading to the quashing of the FIR and proceedings against the petitioner. The matter involved a minor parking altercation that was resolved amicably without any threats or coercion. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process, so the FIR under Sections 341/323/354/506/509 IPC was quashed. As a condition for this quashing, the petitioner was instructed to plant 25 saplings of neem or jamun trees in the vicinity of the police station.

JITENDER KUMAR VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4904/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, evidenced by a settlement deed and a mutual consent divorce decree. The settlement occurred without any pressure, and the respondent has no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the case would not serve any purpose and could be seen as an abuse of process, given the low likelihood of conviction following the settlement.

JOGINDER & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5272/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0398/2023, registered under Sections 498A/406/323/354/34 IPC against Joginder and others, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. The low likelihood of conviction and potential abuse of process led to the decision to quash the FIR and related proceedings.

KAMAL GAUR & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6794/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code should be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. The responding party confirmed no further matters required adjudication and expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Keeping the case pending would result in an abuse of the process, as the likelihood of conviction was minimal given the settlement.

KAMAL JEET SUMAN & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8202/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and both parties confirmed the settlement was achieved without coercion. Given the circumstances and low likelihood of a conviction, continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. The FIR and related proceedings were therefore quashed.

KAMAL KISHORE SHARMA & ANR. VS STATE THROUGH SHO PS RAJOURI GARDEN AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-7949/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Two cross FIRs related to a minor altercation over donations for a Ram Mandir were quashed after the parties amicably settled their disputes. The situation involved predominantly civil issues, and the quashing was seen as a way to prevent abuse of the court's process given the low likelihood of conviction. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioners were directed to plant 25 saplings each near the police station to foster harmony, considering their clean past records.

KAMAL SHARMA AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2234/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. Maintaining the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process. The State did not object to the quashing of the FIR.

KAMRAN AND OTHERS VS STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-7462/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Petitioner no. 1 is divorced from respondent no. 2 according to Muslim law, and Rs. 2,50,000/- was paid to the respondent as part of the settlement. It was concluded that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and the likelihood of conviction was minimal.

KANAV GUPTA & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1216/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 had been dissolved by mutual consent divorce. Interaction with the parties confirmed the absence of threats or coercion in their settlement, indicating no further disputes remain. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of process.

KAPIL & ORS. VS STATE OF GNCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1861/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed by Kapil and others to quash an FIR under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was allowed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who are now living together happily. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

KARAN SURI & ANR. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5236/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Section 420 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The issue primarily involved a civil dispute, and the complainant received compensation for the loss. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process, with remote chances of conviction.

KARAN TEJPAUL & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-656/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 354A/506/509/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, rendering the likelihood of conviction unlikely. Continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process as the offences involved a civil dispute and minor incidents. The petitioners were ordered to plant 25 saplings each near the police station, with a failure to comply resulting in a cost of Rs. 25,000 each payable to the Delhi State Legal Services Authority.

KARTIK RASTOGI & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4332/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings arising from FIR No. 604/2020 and FIR No. 605/2020 at the Krishna Nagar Police Station can be quashed due to the amicable settlement of property disputes between the parties. Serious offenses like murder, rape, and dacoity are not subject to quashing, but cases predominantly involving civil disputes can be. The likelihood of conviction is low given the settlement, and continuing the proceedings would abuse the court's process. Both FIRs and the subsequent proceedings are quashed, with petitioners directed to plant 20 Neem saplings each as an alternative to costs.

KENNETH ONYEMA VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2673/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Proceedings against Kenneth Onyema under Sections 354/354D/341/506/509 of the IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Onyema, a foreigner, expressed intention to plead guilty to an offence under the Foreigners Act, 1946, and agreed to deportation. The decision to quash the IPC proceedings considered the unique facts and circumstances of the case while allowing the Foreigners Act proceedings to continue.

KETAN BANSAL AND ORS VS STATE GOVT.OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-7848/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 333/115(2)/351(2)/3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. It was emphasized that criminal proceedings can be quashed when the offender and victim resolve their disputes, provided the court's power is exercised with caution, taking into account the nature of the offense and its societal impact. In this case, the minor incident suggested a low likelihood of conviction, and continuing the proceedings would lead to an abuse of process. The victims did not object to quashing the FIR.

KISHAN KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8258/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code is quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between the first petitioner and the second respondent has been dissolved by mutual consent, and Rs. 4,00,000/- has been paid to the second respondent. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process, given the slim chances of conviction following the settlement.

KRISHANA DHAMA AND ORS VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-789/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 had been dissolved by mutual consent, and any remaining financial disputes were resolved. Both parties confirmed the settlement was reached without any coercion. Continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

KRISHNA KANHAIYA AND ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6710/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included a mutual consent divorce under the Hindu Marriage Act. Keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the court process given the settlement and low likelihood of conviction.

KULDEEP SINGH GUSAIN VS STATE AND OTHERS [W.P.(CRL)-1548/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Kuldeep Singh Gusain under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code was quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties, which included a Settlement Deed. The wife of the petitioner expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR. The settlement was confirmed to have been made without any threat or coercion. Keeping the case pending was deemed unproductive and an abuse of the judicial process.

KULVINDER SINGH AND OTHERS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-469/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioners were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the husband and wife. Both parties confirmed that the settlement was free from any threat or coercion. The case's circumstances indicated that continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process, leading to the decision to quash the FIR and related proceedings.

KUMAR ABHISHEK VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2728/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to quash the FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was allowed because the matrimonial dispute had been amicably settled and the marriage was dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would amount to an abuse of the process of the court, leading to the quashing of the FIR and the associated proceedings.

KUSHAL BHALLA & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6337/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Kushal Bhalla & Ors. successfully quashed an FIR filed against them under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC, as the parties reached an amicable settlement and the marriage was dissolved by mutual consent. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process, given the bleak prospects of conviction.

KUSHGRA TYAGI AND ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-510/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between the first petitioner and the second respondent was mutually divorced, and they entered into a settlement deed. The State did not object to the quashing of the FIR. Both parties confirmed that the settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, and no further issues remained to be resolved.

LAKHAN RAJPUT & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-7255/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 1010/2021 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed following an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the agreed amount was paid by the petitioners to the respondent. Continuing with the case was deemed unnecessary and likely to result in an abuse of process, given the low chances of conviction.

LAKHAN SINGH & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5701/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, supported by a Settlement Deed. The complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, indicating that continuing the case would be an abuse of the process of the court.

LAL BAHADUR PANDEY @ SANTOSH PANDEY VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1339/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Lal Bahadur Pandey's petition to quash the FIR for theft and related offenses was granted. A co-accused was a juvenile, and separate proceedings were in place for him. The matter was amicably settled between Pandey and the complainant, as the items involved were of low value. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of the process due to the remote possibility of conviction. The FIR against Pandey was quashed, as keeping the case pending served no useful purpose.

LAMBODAR PRASAD PADHY VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [W.P.(CRL)-3270/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The registration of the FIR and related proceedings against the petitioner, a public servant, were quashed due to the lack of supporting evidence for the allegations, which were based solely on a computerized entry. The Competent Authority had already denied prior approval under Section 17A of the Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 2018. The allegations pertained to the petitioner's official duties, necessitating sanction under Section 197 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The proceedings were deemed an abuse of the legal process.

LOKESH GARG & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6534/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement of matrimonial disputes. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved by mutual consent, and both parties confirmed that the settlement was reached without threat or coercion. Keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the process, leading to the decision to quash the FIR and related proceedings.

LOKESH KUMAR VS THE STATE [W.P.(CRL)-837/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Lokesh Kumar is entitled to the quashing of FIR No. 388/2021 under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The marriage between Lokesh Kumar and the complainant has been dissolved by mutual consent, and both parties have no further disputes. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would amount to an abuse of the legal process. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings are quashed.

LOKESH MAMTANI & ORS. VS STATE (THE NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1239/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed after the parties amicably settled the matter. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, the balance amount was paid to the respondent wife, and both parties confirmed the resolution occurred without any coercion. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the judicial process.

LOKESH SAPRA & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2119/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners sought to quash an FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/506/354/34 IPC. Both parties reached an amicable settlement, evidenced by a Settlement Deed and financial payments. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent. Given these circumstances, keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the legal process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

LOVELISH @ LUCKY VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3447/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 354C/509 IPC and 12 POCSO Act can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the petitioner and the complainant. The incident, considered minor, showed no further conflict, and the petitioner expressed remorse. The likelihood of conviction was assessed as low, indicating that continuing proceedings would abuse the court's process.

LUCKY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2328/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Lucky for rape was quashed based on consensual sexual relations with the prosecutrix, who is now his wife and pregnant. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process and would cause unnecessary distress to the parties involved. Lucky was directed to plant 30 saplings of neem or jamun trees as an alternative to costs.

M/S BPTP LTD VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2013/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against M/s BPTP Ltd. for cheating under Section 420 IPC have been quashed due to an amicable settlement with the complainant. A breach of contract alone does not constitute cheating without proving fraudulent intent. Although the petitioners had some gaps in fulfilling their promises regarding plot allocation, there was no evidence of dishonest intention from the start. The complainant has received the agreed amount, prompting the decision to quash the FIR and related proceedings.

M/S PREETHI ENGINEERING ENTERPRISES AND ANR. & ANR. VS M/S APPOLO CRANES PVT LTD [CRL.M.C.-8212/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition challenging the summoning order in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 was dismissed. The re-filing of the complaint within 30 days of receiving the order to return the original complaint was deemed valid based on precedent. The initial filing was made within the limitation period, and the complainant was entitled to a trial on the merits. The amended provisions of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 2015 take precedence over prior judgments, leading to no grounds for interference with the lower court orders.

M/S SAMRAT HEAVENS INFRA DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS SATINDER KUMAR GUPTA [CRL.M.C.-654/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Ten criminal petitions filed by M/s Samrat Heavens Infra Developers Pvt. Ltd. and others challenged orders that closed their right to cross-examine in complaint cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. It was established that the right to cross-examination is crucial for defense and should not have been limited, especially with an application for clubbing the cases pending. The petitioners were granted another opportunity to cross-examine witnesses, and a previously imposed cost of Rs. 1,00,000/- was reduced to a composite cost of Rs. 50,000/- plus an earlier cost of Rs. 10,000/-.

M/S UNIVERSAL CYLINDERS LTD. & ANR. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2960/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 279/337/338 IPC can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The case involves offenses with a predominant civil dispute element, where the complainant was compensated and expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. The likelihood of conviction is low, and continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process.

MAHENDER AND ORS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4532/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 444/2011 under Sections 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed against the petitioners due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute and the mutual consent for divorce. It was noted that continuing the case would be an abuse of process, with little chance of conviction given the settlement.

MADAN MOHAN MITTAL & ANR. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2093/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against petitioners Madan Mohan Mittal and Rekha Mittal under Sections 406, 420, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code were quashed due to amicable settlement between the parties. The matter involved a predominant civil dispute element, and the complainant had been compensated, making the likelihood of conviction remote. The petitioners and other accused were required to plant 100 neem tree saplings each as an alternative to costs, promoting environmental protection.

MADHAV GAUR & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8008/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Two FIRs against petitioners under IPC sections 324/341/506/34 and 323/341/506/34 were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who are cousins. The case involved minor incidents characterized by a civil dispute, allowing for quashing under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023. The likelihood of conviction was assessed as low, and continuing proceedings would result in grave oppression to the accused, leading to the decision to quash the FIRs and the associated proceedings.

MAHENDER AND ORS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1483/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 354/323/324/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the neighbors involved. The matter was deemed a minor personal dispute, making it appropriate to quash proceedings to promote harmony and prevent the misuse of legal processes. This decision differentiates minor offenses from serious crimes like murder and rape, which cannot be quashed despite settlements. The amicable resolution was confirmed without coercion.

MAHENDER JI PATWA ALIAS MAHENDER PAL AND ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4760/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was granted, leading to the quashing of an FIR against the petitioners for offenses under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act. The parties had amicably settled the matter, supported by a Settlement Deed from 31.08.2016, and the petitioners had been living together for the past eight years. Both the State Counsel and the respondent had no objections to the quashing of the FIR. Continuing with the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the court's process.

MAHESH KUMAR @ KALLU VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.A.-952/2002]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Mahesh Kumar's conviction under Sections 452/392/34 IPC and 397 IPC was set aside due to insufficient evidence. The prosecution did not establish the appellant's identity beyond reasonable doubt, as the complainant failed to identify him in court. Recovery of cash at the appellant's instance was deemed unreliable because the denomination and serial numbers were not specified in the FIR. The trial court's judgment overlooked these crucial factors, relying solely on the Magistrate's testimony from the identification parade.

MAHINDER SINGH & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) THROUGH SHO PS PALAM VILLAGE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7887/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved through mutual consent divorce, and the petitioners paid Rs. 5,00,000/- to the respondent as part of this settlement. It was noted that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and that the likelihood of conviction was low.

MANISH AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4486/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The matter between the parties has been amicably settled, resulting in the dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed, with the parties confirming the settlement without any threat or coercion, and the balance amount fully paid.

MANISH BAJAJ VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2378/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Two FIRs and related criminal proceedings arising from disputes over a matrimonial alliance were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The presence of a predominant civil dispute element allowed for the quashing, as continuing the proceedings would lead to an abuse of the court's process. Consequently, FIR No. 0288/2018 and FIR No. 0289/2018 and their related proceedings were terminated.

MANISH GULATI & ORS. VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-696/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code can be quashed due to an amicable settlement. The parties have divorced by mutual consent, and the outstanding amount owed has been paid. Both parties confirm complete resolution of the matter without any coercion, and the State has no objection to the quashing of the FIR.

MANISH KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1486/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the parties involved reached an amicable settlement. The marriage, which occurred in 2013, resulted in two children, and the couple was undergoing mutual consent divorce proceedings. Confirmation was obtained that the settlement was free from any threat or coercion, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose.

MANISH KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE (N.C.T. OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3597/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between the first petitioner and the respondent had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the disputed amount was paid to the respondent. Both the State and the respondent expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR, as continuing the case would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

MANISH KUMAR SINGH & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3398/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to the parties amicably settling their matrimonial disputes. The marriage had been dissolved by divorce, and full and final settlement was made. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process, with the State expressing no objection to the quashing.

MANISH SONI AND ORS VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2610/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0212/2022, registered under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, was quashed due to amicable resolution of disputes between the parties and the mutual consent dissolution of marriage. The remaining balance amount was paid to the respondent, indicating that keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the court's process.

MANJEET SINGH & ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1812/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and both parties confirmed that the dispute was resolved without any threat or coercion. Given the amicable resolution and low chances of conviction, continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

MANJEET SINGH & ORS. VS THE STATE, GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2692/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to amicable settlement of disputes. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent. There was no objection from the State or the respondent to quashing the FIR, confirming that nothing remained to be adjudicated. Quashing the FIR served no useful purpose in keeping the case pending and did not constitute an abuse of process.

MANJEET SINGH VS MANOJ KUMAR [CRL.L.P.-389/2022]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The trial court's order dismissing a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was set aside. The appellant alleged that the respondent failed to pay agreed installments from a prior settlement. It was noted that the trial court needed to focus on compliance with the settlement and payment of installments. The complaint proceedings were restored, with instructions to continue from the current stage of the matter.

MANOJ KHERA & ANR. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2250/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who had mutually dissolved their marriage under the Hindu Marriage Act. The State did not object to the quashing, as the dispute was resolved, and continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

MANOJ KUMAR AGARWAL & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1366/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings under Section 420 IPC against Manoj Kumar Agarwal and others were quashed due to the settlement of the dispute as a civil commercial matter in a separate civil suit. Continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of the court given the amicable resolution between the parties.

MANOJ RANA @ TINKU VS THE STATE [CRL.REV.P.-452/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The trial court rejected the petitioner's application to present evidence of messages exchanged with the prosecutrix, which the petitioner argued would support his defense. The petitioner was permitted to lead evidence related to the messages, deemed relevant to the case, without an order for a forensic examination of the mobile phone. The decision allows the petitioner to present defense evidence in accordance with established principles.

MANPREET SINGH AND ORS VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2980/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners, Manpreet Singh and others, sought to quash an FIR filed against them under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the parties reached an amicable settlement, including the payment of remaining amounts to respondent no. 2. Both the State and respondent no. 2 expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Given these circumstances, it was concluded that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

MAYUR RAWAT VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4751/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the parties amicably settling their dispute and obtaining a divorce decree. The State's counsel expressed no objection to this action, and it was noted that continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process. As a result, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

MD KASIB AND ORS VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1738/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/323 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The matter involved primarily civil dispute elements, and with the parties having divorced, the likelihood of conviction was minimal. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process.

MD RUSTAM VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1615/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 408 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The matter was deemed a minor civil dispute with slim chances of conviction, making further proceedings an abuse of process. The petitioner was directed to plant 30 saplings, with the upkeep managed by relevant authorities.

MEERA DEVI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4193/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIR No. 283/2016, registered under Sections 323/452/506 IPC against the petitioner, can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who confirmed that all disputes have been resolved without coercion. The nature of the offence reflects a civil dispute or minor incident, making the continuation of proceedings an abuse of process, especially considering the slim chances of conviction post-settlement and the petitioner's lack of prior involvement.

MINOR N THR MOTHER P VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2728/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Medical termination of pregnancy for a 16-year-old minor victim of sexual assault at 26+5 weeks was permitted due to potential adverse effects on her physical and mental health. The provisions of the Medical Termination of Pregnancy (MTP) Act, 1971, particularly regarding health and reproductive rights, were interpreted to prioritize the victim's consent and choices over her guardian's differing view. The criteria under Section 3(2B) of the Act were deemed insufficient to justify continuing the pregnancy.

MOHAMMAD FAHAD VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6226/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Mohammad Fahad successfully quashed an FIR against him under Sections 135/138 of the Indian Electricity Act, 2003, due to the settlement of civil liability with BSES Yamuna Power Ltd. The matter was regarded as predominantly a civil dispute, and continuing criminal proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. Serious offences involving moral depravity remain unquashable even after settlement, but cases with a significant civil element can be quashed if the complainant has been compensated.

MOHAMMAD SHABAZ & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3050/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, confirmed by the complainant who expressed no objection to this action. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and potentially an abuse of process, with low chances of conviction due to the settlement.

MOHD ARSHAD & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-361/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The remaining payment was made to the wife, who expressed no objection to the FIR being quashed. Continuing the proceedings was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the court process.

MOHD TARIQUE AFAQUE AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DEHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3401/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, with no likelihood of conviction. The petitioners and the respondent confirmed the resolution of the matter without any coercion. Continuing the proceedings was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the court process.

MOHD. FARID @ SONU & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5615/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to quash the FIR against Mohd. Farid @ Sonu and others for offenses under Sections 376, 313, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code is maintainable. In serious offenses like rape, cautious examination of evidence is warranted, but a settlement between the parties can justify quashing proceedings. As the petitioner and the prosecutrix have amicably settled and are now married, continuing the proceedings would only cause distress and disrupt their relationship. The likelihood of conviction appears remote due to the settlement, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

MOHD. MASROOR ALAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5420/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Mohd. Masroor Alam under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner and the respondent agreed to divorce and have since remarried. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the judicial process.

MOHD. YUSUF AND ORS VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6862/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIRs against the petitioners under Sections 308/34 IPC and 323/341/506/34 IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The offences were considered not serious and primarily civil in nature, and continuing the proceedings was viewed as an abuse of the process of the court with minimal chances of conviction. The petitioners were directed to plant 25 saplings each instead of facing costs, and authorities were instructed to maintain the planted trees.

MOHIT DABAS & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-7215/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved through mutual consent, and there are no remaining issues to adjudicate. The settlement was reached voluntarily, without any threat or coercion, and the continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process.

MR RISHI ARORA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-285/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Rishi Arora and others under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties, who obtained a mutual consent divorce and resolved remaining financial disputes. The settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, and both parties agreed to the quashing of the FIR. Keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the process.

MR VIRENDER KUMAR SONI ALIAS PRINCE & ORS. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2213/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the full and final settlement amount has been paid. The State has no objection to the quashing, indicating that continuing the case serves no useful purpose.

MR, JASROOP SINGH SODHI VS STATE GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5086/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioner has fulfilled financial obligations as per the Settlement Agreement. Continuing with the case would serve no useful purpose and constitute an abuse of the legal process.

MR. DEEPAK KUMAR VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-567/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR against Mr. Deepak Kumar for offences under Sections 354, 354D(2), 509, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, with the complainant expressing no objection to the quashing. The nature and gravity of the offences, along with the societal impact, indicated that continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of legal process.

MS GLOBUS INFOCOM LIMITED & ANR. VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2718/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The summons issued against MS Globus Infocom Limited and another were deemed not in accordance with law, as they were issued without the necessary cognizance of the complaint and overlooked a prior order from the Principal Commissioner of Customs (Import) that had dropped the proceedings against them. The petitioners were directed to inform the learned ACMM of this factual situation and allowed to file new proceedings to contest the summoning order. Their presence before the learned ACMM was also exempted for the scheduled date.

MS NIKITA & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2760/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under various sections of the Indian Penal Code can be quashed due to an amicable settlement of matrimonial disputes. The case involved minor incidents stemming from these disputes, and continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

MS. KHUSBHOO GOSWAMI VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-860/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR against the petitioner under Sections 500/509 IPC and Section 67 of the IT Act was quashed, stemming from obscene messages received on the respondent's Instagram account, which were traced back to the petitioner. The parties reached an amicable settlement, with the respondent choosing not to pursue the case. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

MUKESH KUMAR VS STATE (N.C.T. OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6720/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Mukesh Kumar under Sections 354A/354D/506 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between him and his sister-in-law. The matter involved offenses with a civil dispute element, and the petitioner had no prior criminal history. Continuing the proceedings would be deemed an abuse of process. As a condition of the quashing, Mukesh Kumar was required to plant 20 saplings to promote harmony.

MUKESH KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-923/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIR No. 0253/2021 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed, with subsequent proceedings also nullified, as the matter was amicably settled between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the outstanding amount owed was paid. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the legal process.

MUKESH KUMAR AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2830/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 IPC, and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to the amicable settlement between the parties and their cohabitation. The State expressed no objection to the quashing, and maintaining the case was considered an abuse of the process.

MUKESH KUMAR NIMESH & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6428/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute and the mutual consent divorce. Continued proceedings were deemed unnecessary as chances of conviction were low, and the State had no objections to quashing the FIR.

MUNAWWAR AHMED & ANR. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-133/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
A petition to quash an FIR under Sections 323/324/354/354A IPC is maintainable due to an amicable settlement between the closely related parties. The victim confirmed the resolution of the dispute and expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Given the circumstances and weak chances of conviction, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed to prevent an abuse of the legal process.

NAEEM VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-326/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Naeem's petition resulted in the reduction of the surety amount from two sureties of Rs.1 lakh each to one surety of Rs.1 lakh. The decision considered the personal circumstances of Naeem, including the loss of his brother and father. The surety amount was adjusted to avoid being onerous, taking into account the accused's financial resources. Naeem is to be admitted to bail with a personal bond of Rs.1 lakh and one surety of the same amount, while other bail conditions remain unchanged.

NAKUL KUMAR JAIN & ORS. VS THE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3642/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 3 had been dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act, and the parties reached an amicable settlement, with all disputes resolved and the remaining amount paid to the respondent. Keeping the case pending was deemed unnecessary, and quashing the FIR was not considered an abuse of the court's process.

NARENDER KUMAR & ANR. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2096/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and financial issues were resolved. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the legal process.

NARENDER KUMAR @ BITTOO VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-986/2002]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Narender Kumar @ Bittoo was convicted under Section 307 IPC for stabbing Sanjay in the chest, causing a grievous injury. The testimony of Sanjay was found reliable and credible, supported by medical evidence and the recovery of the weapon. Co-accused Devender was acquitted due to initial non-inclusion in the FIR, but this did not benefit Kumar. The sentence of 3 years' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 1,000 was not reduced because of the serious nature of the offense and the significant injury inflicted.

NARENDER VATS & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2556/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was allowed to quash the FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioners due to an amicable settlement of a minor road rage incident involving a car and a scooter. The nature and gravity of the offence suggested bleak chances of conviction, and continuing the proceedings was viewed as an abuse of the court's process. Consequently, the FIR and the criminal proceedings were quashed.

NAUSHAD ALI & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5582/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition filed by Naushad Ali and others to quash an FIR under Sections 498A/323/504/506 IPC and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was deemed maintainable. The matter was amicably settled between the parties, with the complainant expressing no objection to the quashing of the FIR. The likelihood of conviction was assessed as low due to the settlement, leading to the conclusion that continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

NAVEEN KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1106/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 506, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code should be quashed. The parties reached an amicable settlement, including the mutual dissolution of the marriage and a financial agreement. Both the State and respondent No. 2 expressed no objections to the quashing. Keeping the case pending serves no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR does not constitute an abuse of the process of the court.

NAVEEN VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3350/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Naveen under Sections 498A/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between him and the respondent, which included a mutual consent divorce and a payment of Rs. 60,000 as full and final settlement. The settlement was reached without any threat or coercion, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would be an abuse of the process.

NAVNEET SHARMA & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF N.C.T. OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4935/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the financial settlement was completed without threat or coercion. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and represent an abuse of the process.

NAWAL KISHOR SHARMA AND ORS VS THE STATE GNCTD AND ANR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2448/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved, and both the state and the respondent had no objections to quashing the FIR, as continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would abuse the court's process.

NEERAJ @ RAYMOND HENRY & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-842/2021]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code against the petitioners was quashed after the disputes between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 were amicably resolved, and their marriage was dissolved through mutual consent divorce. The balance amount for the settlement was paid, and both the State and respondent no. 2 opposed the continuation of the FIR. The case was deemed an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

NEERAJ EKKA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6595/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Neeraj Ekka under Sections 498A/406 IPC can be quashed due to an amicable settlement with his estranged wife, which includes a mutual consent divorce decree under the Special Marriage Act, 1954. The pending case is considered an abuse of process, and the likelihood of conviction is minimal given the settlement.

NEERU DEVI AND OTHERS VS STATE AND OTHERS [W.P.(CRL)-1179/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIR No. 0178/2018 under Sections 308/324/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Given the minor nature of the incident, the close relation of the parties, and the potential for harmony, it was deemed that pursuing the case would be an abuse of legal process, with remote chances of conviction.

NIGAM PRAKASH & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7694/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. They had entered into a Settlement Deed and obtained a mutual consent decree for divorce. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and potentially abusive of court processes, especially with no objection from the respondent. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed contingent on compliance with the Settlement Deed.

NIKHIL PANDIT & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2582/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner No. 1 and the complainant, Kunjan Khanna, had been dissolved by mutual consent. The parties confirmed the resolution of their dispute without any coercion. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the process.

NITESH KUMAR SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-1778/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Nitesh Kumar Singh filed a petition to quash FIR No. 242/2017 under Sections 506/509 IPC, which was found to be maintainable. The matter was amicably settled between the parties, with the respondents deciding to forgive the petitioner due to his personal circumstances. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed, as keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the court's process.

NITESH SINGH ALIAS NITESH & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3463/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. It was noted that while serious crimes cannot be dismissed due to such settlements, offences with civil dispute characteristics can be, especially when the likelihood of conviction is low. Both parties confirmed the settlement freely. As a restorative justice measure, the petitioners were directed to plant 15 saplings each in the local police station area.

NITIN AND ORS VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR . [CRL.M.C.-6465/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs against the petitioners under IPC Sections 308/323/341/34 were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The nature of the offenses was considered predominantly civil, with bleak chances of conviction. As an alternative to costs, the petitioners were directed to plant a specified number of saplings. This matter involved two separate petitions decided together.

NITIN AND ORS. VS STATE OF GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7410/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute and a mutual consent divorce decree. It was deemed that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, as the likelihood of conviction was minimal given the settlement.

NITIN JAIN & ANR. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4957/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed the FIR registered against them under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC after resolving their disputes through a Settlement Agreement and resuming cohabitation. It was noted that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the court's process.

NITIN KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7334/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners was quashed under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The incident involved a minor altercation, both parties had no prior criminal records, and the victim received compensation for his motorcycle loss. Continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of the legal process. The petitioners were directed to plant a certain number of trees as an alternative measure.

NITIN KUMAR AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5954/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/174A IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioners paid Rs. 4 lakhs to respondent no. 2. The pending case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process.

NIVESH & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8732/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 was allowed to quash the FIR against the petitioners for offenses under Sections 323/354A/34 IPC. The matrimonial dispute had been settled amicably, with low chances of conviction, and continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of the legal process. Offenses with a predominant civil dispute element or minor incidents where the victim is compensated may be quashed to uphold justice and prevent misuse of the legal system. The FIR and subsequent proceedings were quashed.

NOUSHAD @ NAZIM & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-537/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 IPC, and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The marriage was conducted according to Muslim rites, resulting in two children. Due to temperamental differences, the parties had initially separated but reconciled and have been living together since June 2020, following a settlement deed dated May 9, 2023. The settlement was made without any pressure, and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR.

OM KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE (N C T OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1606/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and subsequent proceedings against Om Kumar and others were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the neighboring parties, reducing the likelihood of conviction and preventing further discord. Minor personal disputes can be quashed under Section 482 CrPC when circumstances warrant, and in this case, the settlement promoted harmony. As part of restorative justice, the petitioners are required to plant 50 saplings in local parks.

OM PRAKASH & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-475/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 287/337 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to the incident being deemed likely an accident and the parties having reached an amicable settlement. The complainant received compensation, and continuing the proceedings was viewed as an abuse of process. The nature of the injuries was found to be accidental, with low chances of conviction, leading to the conclusion that continuation would cause undue oppression to the accused. Instead of imposing costs, each petitioner was directed to plant 10 saplings in local parks as an alternative penalty.

OMA RAM VS STATE OF GNCTD [BAIL APPLN.-4210/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The bail application of petitioner Oma Ram was dismissed due to lack of merit. The identification of the petitioner as Rakesh Kumar by the purchasers of the disputed property was deemed valid, despite the absence of formal identification proceedings. The absence of the original allottee's signatures did not question the registered GPA held by the complainant. The filing of the chargesheet within 90 days and the subsequent cognizance satisfied the statutory requirements under Section 173(2) CrPC, even with ongoing investigation under Section 173(8) CrPC. Consequently, the petitioner was not eligible for default bail under Section 167(2) CrPC.

PANKAJ KUMAR AND ANOTHER VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-7491/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and continuing the case was deemed an abuse of the court's process. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were dismissed.

PANKAJ MAKHIJA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DEHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3639/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was filed to quash an FIR against the petitioner for attempted murder and causing hurt. The issue had been amicably settled between the parties, and continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. The alleged weapon was not recovered, injuries to the complainant were deemed simple, and the likelihood of conviction was assessed as low. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed, and instead of costs, the petitioner was directed to plant 50 saplings, with maintenance by the relevant authorities.

PARAS HANS & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2873/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement evidenced by a Settlement Deed dated 03.06.2022 and a divorce decree under Section 13 B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act dated 05.12.2022. It was determined that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR did not constitute an abuse of the court's process.

PARIJAT SARKAR VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2574/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 498A, 406, and 323 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent for the dissolution of their marriage. Continuing with the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process, with no objections raised by the State Government or the respondent.

PARNEET SINGH CHAWLA & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1646/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/354A/34 of the Indian Penal Code was allowed because the marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent and the parties had settled their disputes amicably. Keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

PARTH DUA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6886/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Parth Dua under Sections 279/338 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner compensated the victim, which diminished the likelihood of conviction. Continuing proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, as minor incidents or personal offenses can be quashed when settled amicably.

PARVEEN SINGH & ORS. VS THE STATE, GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3656/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 34, 377, and 494 of the IPC can be quashed due to the dissolution of marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 under the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, and an amicable settlement of disputes. The balance amount has been paid to respondent no. 2, who has consented to the quashing of the FIR, making further proceedings unnecessary.

PARVESH & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2139/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 323/354/354A/506/509/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to the amicable settlement of the dispute between the closely related parties, as confirmed by the complainant. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process, necessitating intervention to secure the ends of justice.

PAWAN & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1925/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable settlement of disputes and the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would be an abuse of the process.

PAWAN KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-298/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The matter between Pawan Kumar and the respondent was amicably settled with mutual consent for the dissolution of marriage under Section 13B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act and agreement on full and final settlement. The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/34 IPC and related proceedings were quashed to prevent abuse of the legal process.

PAWAN KUMAR AND ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8407/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 471/2020 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act is quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Petitioners and respondent No. 2 have been living together happily since January 1, 2021. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the court's process, with slim chances of conviction given the settlement.

PRABHU DAYAL AND OTHERS VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-488/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition by Prabhu Dayal and others to quash an FIR under various IPC sections was granted due to the amicable resolution of matrimonial disputes between Akshay Kumar and Kamlesh. The facts indicated a low likelihood of conviction and no previous involvement of the petitioners. The FIR and related proceedings were quashed, and the petitioners were directed to plant 20 saplings each of Neem/Jamun trees to promote environmental sustainability.

PRADEEP KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4284/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0039/2017 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between Pradeep Kumar and respondent No. 2 was dissolved by an ex-parte decree of divorce, and a total of Rs. 3,00,000/- was paid to the respondent as full and final settlement. Continuing the case would constitute an abuse of the court's process, with both the State's representative and the respondent expressing no objection to the quashing of the FIR.

PRADEEP MITTAL & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7889/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings in FIR No. 311/2011 and FIR No. 173/2012 can be quashed since the parties have amicably settled their dispute, with minimal chances of conviction. The offences involved have a predominant civil dispute element, and the petitioners have no prior criminal record. To promote harmony, the petitioners are required to plant 50 saplings each instead of paying costs.

PRASHANT BATRA VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7970/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Prashant Batra under Sections 354/323 IPC can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the minor nature of the alleged offence. The victim has expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process.

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ PARVEEN KUMAR & ANR. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-513/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs registered under Sections 308/323/427/34 IPC and 341/323/506/34 IPC can be quashed based on an amicable settlement between the parties. The parties, having clean antecedents and residing in the same neighborhood, executed a Settlement Deed on 06.12.2023 and expressed no objection to quashing the FIRs. The continuation of proceedings would constitute an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIRs and subsequent proceedings in both cases.

PRAVEEN KUMAR AND ANR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6723/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 354/354A/354B/506/509/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The matter involved offenses with a civil dispute element, and the lack of potential for conviction indicated that continuing proceedings would be an abuse of the process. Since the complainant expressed no further grievances, the criminal proceedings were terminated.

PRAVEEN KUMAR KASANA & ORS. VS THE STATE OF (GOVT. OF N.C.T. DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5257/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Petitions under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure were allowed to quash two FIRs against the petitioners. The dispute over sharing rent proceeds was amicably settled among close relatives. The offenses primarily involved civil matters and minor incidents, making continued criminal proceedings an abuse of process. The petitioners were directed to plant 20 saplings each, with maintenance to be handled by the authorities. The likelihood of conviction was considered low due to the settlement, and the petitioners had no prior involvement in similar matters.

PREM CHAND & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2856/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners, Prem Chand and others, successfully quashed an FIR against them under various sections of the Indian Penal Code. The disputes over property allocation have been amicably resolved through a settlement deed. The respondent confirmed no further grievances and did not object to the FIR's quashing. The offences involved were not serious, and the proceedings were deemed an abuse of the process due to the settlement.

PREM PAL SINGH VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-368/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioner was convicted for dishonor of a cheque under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The presumption under Section 139 placed the burden on the accused to prove that the cheque was not issued for a debt or liability, which was not sufficiently addressed. Denial alone was deemed inadequate. The complainant's financial capacity to extend the loan was supported by his income tax returns. The criminal revision petition was dismissed due to lack of any significant error.

PREM PAL SINGH VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-374/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The criminal revision petition by Prem Pal Singh against his conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The presumption under Section 139, indicating that the cheque was issued to discharge a debt or liability, was not rebutted by the accused. He failed to provide sufficient evidence for his defense. The concurrent findings of the trial and appellate courts were upheld, and the accused was directed to surrender before the trial court within four weeks.

PREMANSHU KUMAR VERMA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7427/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 308/2022 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent divorce. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and potentially abusive to the judicial process, given the low likelihood of conviction.

PRITHVI RAJ SINGH & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-244/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent dissolution of the marriage. Keeping the case pending was deemed unproductive, and the State did not oppose the quashing of the FIR.

PRIYANKA ARORA VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-132/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Appeals by Priyanka Arora and Kapil Dev Arora challenging the denial of bail in FIR No. 489/2023 under Sections 506/509/34 IPC and the SC/ST Act were allowed. The dispute originated from a civil matter concerning property sale, and CCTV footage did not significantly support the complainant's allegations. Improvements made by the complainant during the investigation were insufficient to justify the denial of bail. The prior bail denial was set aside, and bail was granted to the appellants with specific conditions.

RAHUL @ JITENDER KUMAR VS STATE GOVT NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7194/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Rahul under Sections 354D/506/509 IPC, later amended to include Section 354 IPC, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The circumstances indicated that the dispute was resolved without coercion, and the likelihood of conviction was considered low. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. As an alternative to costs, Rahul was directed to plant 20 Neem or Jamun trees.

RAHUL MATHUR & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7451/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the settlement amount was fully paid. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary given the circumstances and the low likelihood of conviction.

RAJ KUMAR GUPTA @ RAJ GUPTA & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-547/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. sought to quash the FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC. The parties reached an amicable settlement, supported by a divorce decree and a settlement payment to the complainant. The State did not oppose the request to quash the FIR, indicating mutual resolution of the dispute. Quashing the FIR was deemed appropriate as it would serve no useful purpose to keep the case pending.

RAJ KUMAR PANDEY AND ORS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-4235/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was allowed to quash the FIR against the petitioners for Sections 498A, 406, 377, and 34 of the IPC, as well as Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act. The matrimonial dispute had been amicably settled with a mutual consent divorce, leading to the conclusion that quashing the FIR would promote harmony between the parties.

RAJ KUMAR VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5676/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Raj Kumar, filed under Sections 323/341/354/354(B)/506/509 IPC, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which centered around a civil dispute regarding property inheritance. Since the likelihood of conviction was low and continuation of the proceedings would abuse the judicial process, the petitioner was required to plant 30 saplings as a condition for the quashing of the FIR.

RAJAN KASHYAP VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3603/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0239/2017 was quashed regarding Sections 498A/34 IPC against Rajan Kashyap due to an amicable settlement between the parties, following a mutual consent divorce under the Hindu Marriage Act. The state expressed no objection to the quashing, indicating the dispute was resolved and that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose.

RAJAN SINGH TRANSGENDER VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI AND OTHERS [W.P.(CRL)-1307/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity violates the right to equality under Article 14 of the Constitution. Authorities must provide necessary security to a transgender individual for their Lok Sabha election nomination and must communicate the outcome of the petitioner's complaint within two weeks.

RAJEEV DAGAR VS MUKESH DAGAR [CRL.M.C.-140/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The Additional Sessions Judge lost authority to exercise jurisdiction over criminal appeals CA No.188/2023 and CA No.226/2023 after receiving transfer orders on the day of the hearing. The judge could not have concluded the part-heard appeals before the transfer orders were received, making the subsequent judgment invalid. The order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge was set aside, and the successor court is directed to hear the appeals afresh within a specified timeframe.

RAJEEV MATHUR & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3336/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR filed under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code by the wife of petitioner No. 1 was quashed after the parties amicably settled their dispute and began living together. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the process.

RAJEEV SHARMA VS PALLAVI ADVERTISING [CRL.REV.P.-105/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petitioner's revision petitions under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure were allowed, waiving the requirement to deposit 20% of the compensation amount for suspending the sentence during the appeals. The Appellate Court was directed to hear and decide the appeals within four weeks from the next hearing. The petitioner had already paid Rs. 88.50 lakhs to the complainant, which contributed to the decision to waive the deposit condition. This involved a total of seven separate revision petitions by the same petitioner.

RAJESH KUMAR JAIN VS J.C. TRADING [CRL.REV.P.-222/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The criminal revision petition by Rajesh Kumar Jain, convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for dishonor of a cheque, was dismissed. The accused admitted the signature on the cheque, establishing a presumption that it was issued to settle a debt. Claims that the goods supplied were defective and returned lacked credible evidence. The accused failed to stop payment on the cheque despite returning goods and did not respond to the legal notice. The findings of the trial and appellate courts were upheld, resulting in the dismissal of the revision petition.

RAJESH KUMAR SHARAWAT AND OTHER VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1089/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 354/354B/509/506/34 IPC can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioners and the respondent have a prior relationship, and continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process. The nature and gravity of the offenses, societal impact, and low likelihood of conviction support this decision. The matter has been resolved without coercion, justifying the quashing of the FIR and the associated proceedings.

RAJINDER KUMAR VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.A.-199/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The conviction of the appellant for robbery under Sections 394/397 IPC and possession of a weapon under Section 27 of the Arms Act was upheld. The testimony of the victim was deemed reliable and convincing. Arguments regarding irregularities in the investigation, including the absence of a Test Identification Parade and the lack of forensic examination of the seized knife, were rejected as they did not diminish the victim's evidence. The appellant's prior criminal record and threats made to the victim during the trial were noted. The appeal was dismissed, and the original sentence was maintained.

RAJNI KHARE VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2930/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioner under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the amicable settlement of disputes arising from a commercial loan transaction through a Settlement Agreement. A co-accused had previously been granted a petition to quash proceedings, and continuing the case would constitute an abuse of process given the settlement.

RAJU @ RAJU RAJPUT & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-916/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. There was no evidence of threat, pressure, or coercion in the resolution, and both the State and the complainant expressed no objections to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the legal process.

RAJU SINGH AND ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR [CRL.M.C.-5952/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed as the parties reached an amicable settlement. The marriage between the petitioner and respondent was dissolved by mutual consent, and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

RAKESH AND ORS VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8182/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties. Two petitioners had passed away, resulting in the abatement of proceedings against them. The remaining petitioners and the respondent executed settlement deeds addressing financial and custody issues, with no objections from the state prosecutor. The settlement was reached without any threats or coercion, indicating that no beneficial purpose would be served by continuing the case.

RAKESH GUPTA VS THE STATE (NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8161/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Rakesh Gupta under Sections 354A/506/509/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, weak chances of conviction, and Gupta's lack of past criminal involvement. He is required to plant 25 saplings of Neem or Jamun trees near the police station as an alternative to costs.

RAKESH KUMAR VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-60/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Rakesh Kumar's petition for a six-month parole extension was dismissed due to years of avoiding legal sentence execution and failure to follow the proper procedures under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. Automatic parole extensions through writ petitions, which persisted for four years, were not deemed routine and cannot be granted outside specified provisions unless exceptional circumstances exist. The case did not meet the criteria for such exceptional treatment.

RAM CHANDER & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-228/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The wife confirmed her lack of objection to the quashing, and it was established that the settlement occurred without any threat or coercion. Keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the process of the court.

RAM NARAYAN VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4306/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

In Ram Narayan v. The State (NCT of Delhi) and Anr., the FIR under Sections 323/354B/509 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, with no further grievances from the respondent. The nature of the offence, low chances of conviction from the settlement, and the petitioner's lack of past involvement indicated that continuing proceedings would be an abuse of the process.

RAM NIWAS DHURIYA VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-1193/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The examination of witness Shri K.G. Sathyasingan is essential for proving the sanction order for prosecution. However, the right to effective cross-examination must also be safeguarded. The trial court did not obtain consent from all accused for video conferencing, as required by the Video Conferencing Rules. The matter is sent back to the trial court to address these concerns, ensuring all accused consent and the witness has access to relevant documents during cross-examination.

RAM PRASAD YADAV VS STATE NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO SULTANPURI AND OTHERS & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7290/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 354 IPC for allegedly outraging a woman's modesty was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, lack of a prior criminal record for the accused, and low chances of conviction. Instead of costs, the petitioner was directed to plant 50 Neem or Jamun trees to promote environmental protection.

RAMAN BATRA & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1795/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 033/2019 under Sections 498A/406/354A/509/34 IPC was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The marriage between the petitioner and respondent has been dissolved by mutual consent, with Rs. 27,00,000 paid to the respondent as full and final settlement. Both the State and the respondent expressed no objections to the quashing of the FIR.

RAMESH CHANDER MEENA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2622/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 281/125(a)/324(4) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner paid Rs. 1,25,000 in compensation to the complainant. It was noted that minor offenses of a personal nature can be quashed if the dispute is settled and the likelihood of conviction is low. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process.

RAVI KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5765/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement in a matrimonial dispute, with the marriage dissolved by mutual consent and an amount paid to the respondent wife. Both parties confirmed the settlement in court without coercion, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would be an abuse of the process.

RAVI RANJAN KUMAR VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-8294/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 354/506/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties involved. The dispute is identified as a landlord-tenant issue, with minimal chances of conviction and potential abuse of legal process if proceedings continue. Instead of costs, the petitioner is directed to plant 25 saplings of Neem or Jamun trees.

RAVI SHUKLA & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3276/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Ravi Shukla and others under Sections 323/341/509/354/354A/34 IPC can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties involved, which is a neighborly dispute. The settlement was confirmed without coercion, and given the nature of the offenses, this outcome is appropriate. Petitioner no. 1 is required to plant 50 saplings as a condition to promote harmony.

RAVINDER & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-193/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was allowed to quash an FIR against the petitioners for Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties had amicably settled the matter, and the marriage was dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. Both the State and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. The case was deemed to serve no useful purpose and to constitute an abuse of the court's process, leading to the FIR and related proceedings being quashed.

RAVINDER KHATRI AND ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6681/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners, Ravinder Khatri and Anju, successfully sought to quash an FIR filed against them under Sections 323/354/506/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The dispute with the complainant had been amicably settled, with the complainant and her husband expressing no objection to quashing the FIR. The inherent power under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was invoked to prevent the abuse of the court's process in light of the settlement and the unlikely prospect of conviction.

RAVINDER KUMAR & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3627/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 323/324/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties involved. The incident stemmed from a monetary transaction, and the settlement aimed to promote harmony. The likelihood of conviction was deemed low, and continuing the proceedings was viewed as an abuse of the court's process.

RAVINDER KUMAR @ RAVI AND ORS. VS THE STATE, NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-604/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed after the parties amicably settled their disputes and resumed living together. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of the court process, with both the State and the respondent expressing no objection to the quashing.

RISHABH KUMAR GUPTA @RESHU & ORS. VS STATE THROUGH SHO P.S. NEW ASHOK NAGAR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-980/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The dispute between the petitioners and respondent No. 2 has been amicably settled, and the marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent. As a result, the FIR registered under Sections 498A/323/34 of the Indian Penal Code and related proceedings were quashed.

RITESH RAJPAL & ORS. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1780/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The dispute between Ritesh Rajpal and his wife has been amicably settled, leading to the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending is considered an abuse of the process of the court. Consequently, FIR No. 0560/2023 under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and related proceedings were quashed.

ROHAN CHOUDHARY VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1893/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Rohan Choudhary under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, which included the approval of a mutual consent divorce. The settlement occurred without any threats or coercion, and continuing the case would be considered an abuse of the legal process.

ROHAN KHATRI & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2630/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/323/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and abusive to the process, with both the state and complainant expressing no objection to the quashing. The petition and pending applications were disposed of.

ROHIT SONI & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8064/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the respondent received Rs.3.75 lakhs. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would be an abuse of the court's process, given the low chances of conviction.

ROHIT KUMAR & ANR. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1707/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Rohit Kumar and another, filed under Sections 420 and 66D of the IT Act, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The complainant alleged that the petitioners collected Rs. 1,00,000 for air tickets to Canada but did not provide them. The dispute was resolved with the petitioners returning the money to the complainant, who had no further grievances. The continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of process given the settlement and the low likelihood of conviction.

ROHIT KUMAR VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4225/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Procedural lapses in the search and seizure process, such as the sampling of seized contraband, should be addressed during the trial rather than at the bail stage. Delay in filing an application for the disposal of seized contraband does not invalidate the trial, and the prosecution must explain any delays. Bail was granted due to the petitioner's prolonged custody of over 4 years and the slow progress of the trial, with only 3 out of 25 witnesses examined. The significant delay in the trial process was deemed to infringe on the petitioner's right to a speedy trial, which can take precedence over statutory restrictions under the NDPS Act.

ROHIT PAL SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-962/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Two cross-FIRs under Sections 323, 341, 506, and 509 IPC were quashed due to the proceedings being an abuse of process. The incidents were minor and the parties had amicably settled the dispute without serious injuries. Continuing the prosecution was deemed purposeless, with low chances of conviction. The circumstances, including the parties' clean backgrounds and desire to move forward, indicated that quashing the FIRs would foster harmony between them.

ROHITASH MAHUR AND OTHERS VS THE STATE AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-1937/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioners paid the remaining amount to respondent no. 2. Both the State and respondent no. 2 expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, indicating that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose.

ROSHAN @ RAUSHAN KUMAR AND ORS VS STATE THROUGH SHO PS DWARKA NORTH AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6244/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent under Section 13B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act, with the respondent having no objection to the quashing. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and risk abusing the court process, as the likelihood of conviction was deemed low.

SACHIN & ORS. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4346/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed the FIR against them for offenses under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The marriage between the parties had been dissolved by mutual consent, and all remaining financial disputes were amicably settled. After confirming the absence of any coercion in the settlement, it was concluded that the case should not remain pending, and quashing the FIR would not constitute an abuse of process.

SAGAR VERMA & ANR. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1717/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement of disputes and the dissolution of marriage by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. Both the State and the complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and it was determined that continuing the case would be an abuse of the court process.

SAGAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5193/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioner under Sections 354A/354D/506/509 IPC were quashed following an amicable settlement between the petitioner and the complainant. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process due to the unlikely prospect of conviction. The petitioner was instructed to plant 10 saplings in the area as an alternate measure instead of paying costs.

SAGEER AHMAD @ SAGIR AHAMAD & ORS. VS STATE(GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8204/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0349/2014, concerning Sections 195A/341/323/506/34 IPC, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties involved in matrimonial disputes. The resolution involved no threats or coercion, and the victim consented to the quashing of the FIR. The nature of the offenses, having a predominant civil dispute element, justified the decision as continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of the process.

SAHIL GULATI & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2277/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 402/2018 against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 34, and 354A of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. It was concluded that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR would not constitute an abuse of process.

SAHIL OBEROI & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-86/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 420/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The matter involved primarily civil disputes, and the complainant had no objection to the FIR being quashed. It was established that there was no threat or coercion involved in the settlement. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process. The petitioners were directed to plant 50 saplings each of Neem/Jamun trees in the local area, with maintenance supervised by authorities.

SAHIL SAHNI VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1262/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs against the petitioner under Sections 354A, 506, 323, 341, 354, and 509 IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, evidenced by a settlement deed. The complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIRs. The offenses were considered in light of their nature and gravity, leading to the conclusion that continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process.

SALEEM KHAN & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5551/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

In Saleem Khan & Ors. v. The State NCT of Delhi and Anr., a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure resulted in the quashing of an FIR filed against the petitioners for Sections 498A/406/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The matrimonial dispute was resolved amicably through mediation, and continuing the proceedings was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process. The FIR and associated proceedings were quashed due to the settlement and low likelihood of conviction.

SALIM & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6039/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners, Salim and others, successfully quashed FIR No. 135/2017 under Sections 324/341/34 IPC after reaching an amicable settlement with the complainant, a neighbor, who expressed no further grievances. The incident was deemed minor, and continuing proceedings was regarded as an abuse of process. Instead of costs, the petitioners were instructed to plant 15 saplings each on the banks of the Yamuna River.

SALMAN @ SALMAN KHAN AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-4015/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Salman and Shazman successfully quashed the FIR against them under IPC Sections 324, 341, 506, and 34, as the dispute with their neighbors was amicably settled, making a conviction unlikely. The ongoing case was deemed an abuse of process. They were directed to plant 20 saplings each in local parks and maintain them, or face a Rs. 20,000 penalty to the Delhi State Legal Services Authority.

SAMEER ARSHAD KHATLANI VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2892/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 279/337/338 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the petitioner and the complainant, including compensation. The accident was deemed unintentional, with no serious injuries and no prior criminal record of the petitioner. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the judicial process, as the matter involved a minor incident with compensation provided, supporting the quashing under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

SANDEEP AND ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5220/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 and 506 IPC has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioners confirmed they are residing together and that the dispute was resolved without any coercion. It was concluded that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose.

SANDEEP GUPTA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6116/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. The case was deemed unlikely to result in a conviction, making it unnecessary to keep the proceedings pending.

SANDEEP JAIN & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2949/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petitioners' FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties, evidenced by a settlement deed, and their decision to reside together. It was assessed that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the legal process.

SANDEEP JAIN & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-867/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 34, and 354 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 had been dissolved by mutual consent, and a full and final settlement was completed. The resolution of the matter indicated that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose.

SANDEEP KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1327/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A (cruelty) and 406 (criminal breach of trust) of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to the amicable settlement of disputes between the parties. The marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent, and continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and be an abuse of the process.

SANDEEP KUMAR GAUTAM & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8044/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed because the matrimonial dispute was amicably settled. The marriage had been dissolved through a mutual consent divorce decree, and the respondent had no objection to quashing the FIR. Keeping the case pending no longer served any useful purpose.

SANDEEP SINGH & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8132/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent for divorce. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and potentially abusive to the judicial process, given the low likelihood of conviction.

SANDEEP TOMAR & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2354/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC against Sandeep Tomar and others was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the remaining balance amount was paid to the respondent. Keeping the case pending served no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR did not constitute an abuse of process.

SANJAY & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6102/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed FIR No. 0591/2018 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, as the parties had amicably settled their disputes and the marriage was dissolved by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending was deemed to serve no useful purpose and considered an abuse of process due to the low likelihood of conviction following the settlement.

SANJAY GULATI VS HARPREET SINGH [CRL.M.C.-921/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was dismissed, seeking to quash the Revisional Court's order that had rejected a request to enhance or modify the sentence related to an offense under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. It was established that the compensation payment of Rs. 11.9 lakhs, after deducting 15% from the fine of Rs. 14 lakhs, accounted for simple interest at 9% per annum, aligning with a Supreme Court judgment. The offense under Section 138 is primarily viewed as a civil wrong focusing on compensation, leading to the conclusion that the trial court's sentence required no modification. No grounds were presented to challenge the Revisional Court's order.

SANJAY KUMAR VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-8408/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Sanjay Kumar under Sections 279/337 IPC can be quashed as the matter was amicably settled, with the victims being compensated. Continuation of the proceedings would be an abuse of process, and the likelihood of conviction is low due to the settlement. While serious offences cannot be quashed, minor incidents with a civil dispute element may be considered for quashing when compensation has occurred.

SANJAY NAGAR@ SANJAY & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3455/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 308/506/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Serious offenses like murder, rape, and dacoity are not subject to quashing based on settlement, but offenses with a predominant civil dispute element or minor incidents can be. Factors considered included the likelihood of conviction, potential oppression and prejudice to the accused, and societal impact. Instead of costs, the petitioners were instructed to plant 10 saplings each in local parks, with authorities tasked for their maintenance.

SANJEEV BHATI AND ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2283/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 323, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Continued prosecution was deemed an abuse of the judicial process, as the likelihood of conviction was low following the settlement. Serious offenses cannot be quashed despite settlement, but in cases involving civil disputes or minor incidents with compensation, proceedings can be quashed. Satisfaction with the non-coerced settlement indicated that no useful purpose would be served by prolonging the case.

SANJEEV KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [CRL.M.C.-545/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition by Sanjeev Kumar for investigation and FIR registration was dismissed due to lack of credible allegations against his wife's cousin. The petitioner's wife denied the incident to the police, which submitted an Action Taken Report supporting her statement. The petitioner, an advocate, appeared to file the complaint with ulterior motives related to ongoing matrimonial proceedings. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed for filing the petition.

SANJEEV KUMAR PANCHAL & ORS. VS STATE (GNCTD) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1011/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 626/2021 under Sections 498A, 406, 323, 509, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, supported by a Settlement Agreement and partial payment of the settlement amount. The respondent confirmed the resolution occurred without threat or coercion, and it was deemed inappropriate to continue the proceedings given the circumstances.

SANJEEV KUMAR VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1425/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Sanjeev Kumar under Sections 279/337 of the Indian Penal Code can be quashed, as the parties have amicably settled the matter, with Kumar agreeing to pay Rs. 30,000 to Sangam Singh. The case involves a minor accident where the victim has been compensated, and there is no objection from the respondent regarding the quashing of the FIR. The matter was settled without any coercion or threat.

SANTOSH AGGARWAL AND ORS VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-7482/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Santosh Aggarwal and others successfully petitioned to quash an FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961. The matrimonial dispute between the parties had been resolved amicably as per a Memorandum of Understanding dated 18.07.2024, and they had been living together for the past two years. The State prosecutor and the other party did not object to quashing the FIR, indicating no coercion or pressure was involved in the settlement.

SARFARAZ ALAM & ORS. VS STATE GOVT.O FNCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1028/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Sarfaraz Alam and others under Sections 498A/323/354B/341/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable resolution between the parties. The marriage was dissolved through a Divorce Deed/Talaqnama, and the remaining balance was paid to the respondent. Both the state prosecutor and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, as continuing the case would serve no purpose and constitute an abuse of the court process.

SARITA DEVI VS SANJAY KUMAR KESHARI [CRL.REV.P.-971/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The criminal revision petition was dismissed, upholding the conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The petitioner had the burden to rebut the presumption of legal debt, and the signatures on the cheques were acknowledged as hers. The defense evidence was deemed not credible and failed to challenge the presumption under Sections 118 and 139. The findings of the trial and appellate courts were affirmed, with no issues identified in the judgments.

SARWANI DEVI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2222/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The Magistrate cannot summon the petitioner 'SD' under Section 323 IPC based on a supplementary charge-sheet, as this would be an impermissible review of a prior decision not to summon the petitioner. Summons of additional accused under Section 319 CrPC requires fresh or additional evidence arising during the trial, not evidence previously considered. The summoning order and dismissal of the revision petition were deemed an abuse of the court's process.

SATYA PRAKASH SHRIVASTAV & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-585/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the remaining balance amount has been paid to the respondent. Both the State and respondent no. 2 have expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR, leading to the conclusion that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the case pending.

SATYAM BHATI AND ORS VS STATE AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2140/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 377, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 had been dissolved under Section 13B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. Respondent no. 2 confirmed the settlement occurred without any coercion and stated that no further issues required adjudication. The case was deemed an abuse of process if allowed to continue.

SAURABH GUPTA AND ORS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6343/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against Saurabh Gupta and others were quashed due to amicable settlement of disputes. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioners paid the agreed settlement amount. The resolution of the matter indicated that continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process, with low chances of conviction. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were dismissed.

SAURABH SHARMA @ CHOTU VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1559/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioner under various IPC sections and the POCSO Act were quashed due to an amicable settlement, as the petitioner and the respondent are now married with a child. Continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process.

SAWAN KHOKHAR & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3007/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who confirmed the dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. The settlement was reached without any threat or coercion, making further proceedings unnecessary and an abuse of the process.

SAYAM TANEJA & ORS. VS THE STATE (N.C.T. OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7852/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and subsequent proceedings against the petitioners under Sections 324/34 IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Serious offenses typically cannot be quashed even after settlement, but cases involving predominant civil disputes or minor incidents may be eligible if the likelihood of conviction is low and further proceedings would be an abuse of the process. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioners were directed to plant 50 saplings each near the police station, with maintenance responsibilities assigned to the authorities.

SEEMA SHARMA & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3265/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to amicable settlement of disputes arising from chit fund transactions. It was noted that while serious offenses cannot be quashed, minor disputes can be if resolved without coercion. Given the low chances of conviction and potential abuse of process from continued proceedings, the FIR and related actions were quashed.

SH AMAN KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4617/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/354A/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. The low chances of conviction and the nature of the offenses indicated that continuing the proceedings would abuse the legal process.

SH ANMOL MEHTA AND ANR VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-8390/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Petitioners Sh Anmol Mehta and another successfully quashed an FIR under Sections 323/354/509/34 IPC, as the matter was amicably settled with no further grievances from the respondent. The continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

SH DAYA KISHAN & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-226/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between the petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved by mutual consent, and the respondent no. 2 has no objection to the FIR being quashed. The decision emphasizes that continuing the case would be an abuse of the legal process.

SH JATIN CHAUDHARY & ORS. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2179/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition filed by Sh. Jatin Chaudhary and others to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was allowed after it was established that the parties had amicably settled the matter, including the dissolution of marriage and completion of the financial settlement. Both the State Government and the respondent had no objections to quashing the FIR. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process.

SH LUCKY GARG & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2090/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the petitioners paid Rs. 5 lakh to the respondent. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process, as the settlement occurred without any coercion.

SH NAVED KHAN VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5495/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement, with the petitioner paying the full settlement amount. Continuing criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of process. The petitioner was directed to plant 50 Neem/Jamun trees near the police station, with responsible authorities tasked with their upkeep.

SH RAJ KAMAL GUPTA & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6297/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was allowed, leading to the quashing of FIR No. 0118/2021 related to Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties reached an amicable settlement and dissolved their marriage by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and potentially an abuse of process, with low chances of conviction due to the settlement.

SH RAJAN & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-945/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under IPC Sections 498A, 406, and 34, and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the remaining settlement amount was paid. Both the State and respondent No. 2 expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and continuation of the case was deemed an abuse of the court's process.

SH RAVI KANT & ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7624/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code against Sh Ravi Kant & others was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement and dissolved their marriage by mutual consent. The balance of the settlement amount was also paid during proceedings. The continuation of the case was deemed an abuse of process due to the low likelihood of conviction.

SH VIKASH & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1423/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0569/2015, filed under Sections 498A, 406, and 354A of the IPC, was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and the balance amount was paid to the respondent. It was noted that keeping the case pending would abuse the court process, as the matter was resolved voluntarily without any coercion, with no objections from the State and the respondent.

SH. AMANDEEP SINGH ANDORS VS THE STATE [CRL.M.C.-1674/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The dispute between Amandeep Singh and others and the complainant has been amicably settled, with the remaining settlement amount paid. As a result, the FIR under Sections 498A, 406, 34, and 377 of the Indian Penal Code and the related proceedings are quashed.

SH. BALBIR VS THE STATE GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1749/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Balbir under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, evidenced by a Memorandum of Understanding dated 24.05.2024. The petitioner and the complainant are now living together happily, and the state prosecutor did not object to the quashing. Continuing the case was deemed an abuse of court process, given the low likelihood of conviction following the settlement.

SH. CHANDER PRAKASH VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2134/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIR No. 0578/2022, registered under Sections 354/354(A)/506 IPC, can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The dispute mainly stemmed from differences that arose following the suicide of the petitioner's son, and the respondent expressed no further grievances post-settlement. The case lacked elements of heinous offenses, and continuing proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. Therefore, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

SH. IMRAN KHAN AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5039/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Imran Khan and others successfully petitioned to quash an FIR filed against them under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The disputes between the parties were amicably settled, resulting in a divorce decree and full payment of the remaining amount owed to the wife. The continuation of the case was deemed an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

SH. MAGANJEET SINGH KHARA @ SUNDER & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2235/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 323/341/506/509/354/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties over a boundary wall dispute. The respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. The nature of the offenses and the settlement indicated that continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process, with remote chances of conviction. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

SH. MANISH SONI AND ORS VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1062/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR under Sections 506 and 509 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed against the petitioners due to the matter stemming from matrimonial disputes that have been amicably settled. Continuing proceedings in such cases would amount to an abuse of the court's process, and no useful purpose would be served. The nature and gravity of the offense were considered alongside its societal impact.

SH. MEHUL SIROHI & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6605/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under various sections of the IPC and the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner and respondent No. 2 obtained a divorce by mutual consent, and the respondent received Rs. 5,00,000. Both parties confirmed the settlement occurred without threat, pressure, or coercion. The continuation of the case was deemed an abuse of process, with low chances of conviction given the settlement.

SH. MOHD HAMZA SHAGIL VS THE STATE OF N.C.T OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2568/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Mohd Hamza Shagil, registered under Sections 78/79/351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, can be quashed. The petitioner and the respondent, who were in a relationship, faced an FIR after their marriage did not materialize. They have since amicably settled the dispute through a Settlement Deed dated 12.08.2024. Given this settlement, maintaining the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the court's process. The FIR and related proceedings are quashed.

SH. PAWAN GARG & ANR. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5540/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The matrimonial dispute between Sh. Pawan Garg and the complainant has been amicably settled, resulting in the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. Continuing the criminal proceedings under Sections 498A/34 of the Indian Penal Code would serve no useful purpose, as the chances of conviction are minimal. Therefore, the FIR has been quashed due to the settlement between the parties.

SH. RISHABH KHANDELWAL VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-139/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Rishabh Khandelwal for Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed after the parties reached a settlement. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process due to Khandelwal expressing remorse, having a clean past record, and the complainant's lack of further grievance following the settlement.

SH. SONU KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2343/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage dispute was resolved, and the couple has been living together since January 2022. The complainant confirmed that there was no threat or coercion involved in the settlement and expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. It was concluded that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would abuse the court's process.

SH. VIJAY KUMAR JAIN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2313/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against the petitioner under Sections 288 and 338 of the Indian Penal Code were quashed due to an accidental injury to a laborer on the petitioner's premises. The parties amicably settled the dispute, with the petitioner providing compensation to the laborer. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, as the prospects of conviction were low given the settlement.

SH. VIPIN AND ORS VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NET OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS-DWARKA SOUTH AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1839/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The parties amicably settled their disputes, including obtaining a divorce decree by mutual consent and paying the remaining balance amount. Continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR registered under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 IPC.

SHAILENDER SHARMA & ORS. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8772/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioners, previously married, have dissolved their marriage by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act. The parties confirmed that the settlement was reached without any threat or coercion. Continuing the prosecution serves no useful purpose, and thus the FIR and related proceedings have been quashed.

SHANKAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1376/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Bail applications for Shankar, Mohd. Arif Khan @ Kale, and Anwar Hussain @ Kasim @ Raju Bechain were dismissed due to sufficient evidence linking them to a shooting incident, including witness statements, CDR records, and weapon recovery. Concerns were raised about the potential influence on witnesses if bail were granted. Although forensic evidence did not directly connect the recovered weapon to the crime, it was noted that the accused might have concealed or destroyed the actual weapon used. Overall circumstances indicated no grounds for bail.

SHEESHPAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2540/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and proceedings against Sheeshpal under Sections 279 and 337 of the Indian Penal Code were quashed. The case involved a minor incident that was amicably settled, with the petitioner compensating the victim. The absence of prior offenses and the unlikely prospect of conviction contributed to the decision, as continuing the proceedings would cause undue hardship to the accused.

SHIV RAJ DEDHA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH STATION HOUSE OFFICER & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4026/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC against the petitioners can be quashed as the dispute arose from college elections and a festival, with the injuries being simple. The parties have amicably settled the matter without threat or coercion. Continuing the proceedings would serve no useful purpose and would amount to an abuse of the court's process.

SHIVAM DEWAN & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1102/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 428/2022 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed as the parties had amicably settled their disputes. The marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent under the Hindu Marriage Act, and the financial settlement was completed. Continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process.

SHIVAM GUPTA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7820/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition to quash the FIR and criminal proceedings under Sections 279/337/338 IPC was allowed due to an unintentional accident and an amicable settlement between the parties, with the victim compensated. The inherent powers under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, were invoked, emphasizing that continuation of proceedings in minor incidents with settled disputes would lead to abuse of court processes. The FIR and criminal proceedings were quashed.

SHREE KRISHAN & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5503/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/506/34 of the IPC has been quashed due to an amicable settlement evidenced by a Settlement Deed dated 15.03.2023. The petitioners and the respondent are now residing together, and the likelihood of conviction is considered bleak, making further proceedings unnecessary and an abuse of process.

SHREYAS TIWARI & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2020/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
A petition to quash an FIR under Sections 498A/406/354D/34 IPC was allowed based on an amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent dissolution of marriage. Serious offences cannot be quashed despite settlement; however, cases with a predominant civil dispute element can be, especially when the likelihood of conviction is low and the accused have no prior involvement. Continuing proceedings would be an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

SHRI ARUJ SETH & ORS. VS STATE (NCT. OF DELHI) THROUGH SHO PS. TILAK NAGAR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7628/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petitioners' request to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was granted due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute, which included a mutual consent divorce and payment of the remaining settlement amount. The continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process, with minimal chances of conviction given the settlement.

SHRI BHAGWAN AND ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-7769/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition by Shri Bhagwan & Ors. to quash FIR No.0168/2016, registered under Sections 323/354/509 IPC, was accepted due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who had no objection to the quashing. The case was noted to have low chances of conviction, leading to the quashing of the FIR. The petitioners were instructed to plant 10 saplings each of Neem/Jamun trees near the police station and submit a compliance report.

SHRI BHAGWAN ALIAS BHOKAD AND ORS. & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-7761/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR and proceedings against the petitioners under Sections 323/354/506/509/34 IPC were quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties. Serious offences involving mental depravity cannot be quashed despite settlement; however, offences with a predominant civil dispute element can be if the parties have resolved the matter. The petitioners had no prior involvement, and the likelihood of conviction was low. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process. The petitioners were required to plant 10 saplings each as a condition for the quashing of the FIR.

SHRI NAVEEN AND OTHERS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-421/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR registered under Sections 489A/406/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage between the first petitioner and the second respondent was dissolved by mutual consent, with assurance that the resolution was reached without any threat or coercion. Continuing the proceedings was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process.

SHRI RAHUL VERMA & ORS. VS STATE OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3077/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed an FIR under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code after demonstrating that the disputes had been amicably resolved and their marriage had been dissolved by mutual consent. Both the State and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and the parties confirmed the settlement was reached without coercion. The case was deemed an abuse of the court's process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

SHRI RANDIP SINGH VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6206/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 420 and 174A IPC was quashed after the parties amicably settled their dispute over the non-allotment of a flat. The involvement of a predominant civil dispute allowed for quashing, considering the remote chances of conviction and the potential abuse of process. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioner was directed to plant 50 Neem tree saplings near the local police station to promote harmony between the parties.

SHRI SHIV SHANKAR VS STATE THROUGH SHO PS KRISHNA NAGAR & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1571/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 323/354B of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the closely related parties. A settlement deed was entered into, and there was no objection from the state or the respondent regarding the quashing. Interaction with the parties confirmed that the matter was resolved without any threat, pressure, or coercion.

SHRI TUSHAR & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-384/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to the dissolution of the marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 by mutual consent. The parties had reached an amicable settlement, with the petitioners paying the remaining amount to the respondent. The resolution without coercion indicated that continuing the case would abuse the court's process.

SHYAM SINGH AND ANOTHER VS STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI AND OTHERS [CRL.M.C.-2637/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed by Shyam Singh and another to quash the FIR under Sections 307/201/34 IPC for attempt to murder was dismissed. The nature of the victim's injuries and the medical report indicated that the offense was established. Despite a settlement and compensation for the injured party, these factors were insufficient to quash the proceedings, as doing so could encourage further criminal acts and threaten societal welfare.

SIDDARTH GOYAL & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2562/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The writ petition filed by Siddarth Goyal and others resulted in the quashing of the FIR registered against them under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The matrimonial dispute between the parties had been amicably settled, leading to a mutual consent divorce and a settlement amount of Rs. 7,00,000 paid to the respondent. The circumstances indicated that allowing the case to continue would constitute an abuse of the process, with low chances of conviction due to the settlement.

SIDDHARTH KUMAR VS ENFORECEMENT DIRECTORATE [BAIL APPLN.-1839/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The bail application of Siddharth Kumar was dismissed due to insufficient evidence suggesting his innocence regarding offenses under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. The seriousness of the economic offenses, involving the diversion of Rs.3035.52 crores in public funds, and the prior denial of bail for co-accused Tarun Kumar, influenced the decision. The necessary conditions for granting bail under Section 45 of the PMLA were not satisfied.

SILKY SONI VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1707/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/377/34 IPC was quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The marriage between Shaminder Pal Asija and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and continuing the criminal proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process of the court. The FIR and related proceedings were ordered to be quashed due to the settlement.

SMT. NISHA DEVI VS SHRI GUR KIRPAL SINGH @ GUDDU, [CRL.M.C.-792/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The settlement recorded on November 9, 2020, was valid and binding on the parties, established as lawful and voluntarily entered into by the accused without coercion. The dismissal of the complainant's application for issuance of a warrant of attachment and contempt proceedings for breach of the settlement was incorrect. The trial court is directed to reconsider the complainant's application in accordance with the law.

SNEH LATA & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-855/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under various sections of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of marriage between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2. The case was deemed to involve a civil dispute, and the likelihood of conviction was considered remote. Continuing proceedings would cause undue oppression to the accused. As an alternative to costs, the petitioners were directed to plant 50 saplings in local parks.

SOMNATH PAL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6135/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioner's FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who had obtained a mutual consent divorce decree. The State did not object to the quashing, and continuing the case would be an abuse of process with little chance of conviction.

SONU VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2485/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioner's plea to quash the FIR under Sections 354A, 354D, and 509 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 8 of the POCSO Act was accepted, as the matter had been amicably settled between the parties, who are adults. Continuation of the proceedings was viewed as an abuse of the legal process, with minimal chances of conviction noted. Additionally, the petitioner, having no prior criminal record, was directed to plant 10 saplings in Ranjit Nagar instead of paying costs.

SONU VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2752/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR and criminal proceedings under Sections 279/338 IPC were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The offender and victim resolved their dispute, mitigating the likelihood of conviction. Compensation was provided to the victim, and the intention to conclude the matter was established. Instead of imposing costs, the petitioner was directed to plant 25 Jamun tree saplings as a remedial measure.

SONU KUMAR @ SONU MEHTA & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1984/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR No. 0071/2018 under Sections 498A/406/323/34 IPC was quashed due to the dissolution of the marriage between the petitioner and respondent by mutual consent and the amicable settlement of remaining disputes. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process.

SONU KUMAR@ SOHAN@ ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6793/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. It was noted that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process, as the likelihood of conviction was minimal given the settlement.

SONU SHARMA AND OTHERS VS THE STATE AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-1857/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who had been living together for a year. There was no objection from the State, and all parties, including the complainant, confirmed the settlement occurred without any coercion. It was noted that keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the court's process.

SOURABH SHARMA & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7563/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petitioners, Sourabh Sharma and others, successfully quashed an FIR against them for Sections 498A, 406, 506, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The matrimonial dispute had been amicably settled, with a mutual consent divorce. Continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of process due to the low likelihood of conviction, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

STATE VS ANISH [CRL.L.P.-305/2022]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The state's petition challenging the acquittal of the respondent for stalking, criminal intimidation, and common intention was dismissed due to insufficient evidence. The prosecution did not provide specific details or concrete evidence regarding the alleged incidents, including the identity of an involved child and the timing of events. The lack of adequate proof led to upholding the acquittal and granting the benefit of doubt to the respondent.

STATE VS AMIT GAUTAM [CRL.L.P.-282/2022]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Amit Gautam was convicted under Section 304 Part-II of the Indian Penal Code. The incident involved injuries and lacked premeditation or weapon use, indicating he had knowledge that his actions could likely cause death but did not intend to cause death or serious injury. The petition from the State was dismissed, maintaining the conviction under Section 304 Part-II.

SUBHASH KUMAR YADEV VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-735/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Bail was granted to Subhash Kumar Yadav in an FIR under Sections 20/61/85 of the NDPS Act. The evidence against him consisted solely of ticket bookings made through his mobile for other accused, while no evidence linked him to the recovery of Ganja from an unclaimed trolley bag. He had been in custody since October 16, 2023, and the possibility of influencing witnesses was deemed unlikely, as the recovery relied on official testimony. Bail was granted with certain conditions.

SUBHASH SHARMA VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2788/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition by Subhash Sharma to quash the FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was permitted, as the parties reached an amicable settlement, including a mutual consent divorce. The State prosecutor did not object, and it was concluded that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

SUDHIR KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4664/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition to quash the FIR under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was allowed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who also dissolved their marriage by mutual consent. The petitioner paid the balance amount owed to the respondent, who expressed no objection to quashing the FIR. It was concluded that keeping the case pending served no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR would not abuse the court's process.

SUJATAN K. S. VS M/S APPOLO CRANES PVT LTD & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-8292/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition challenging the summoning order in a Section 138 Negotiable Instruments Act case was dismissed. The complaint was re-filed within the 30-day period in accordance with established legal precedent, and the provisions of the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment) Act, 2015, were deemed applicable. The petitioner's arguments based on separate judgments were rejected, as the case was fully covered by the relevant Supreme Court ruling. A connected petition was also dismissed.

SUJIT KUMAR SINGH VS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF PRISONS, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-748/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The delay in releasing the petitioner on interim bail, despite a previous order, was deemed unjustified and contrary to the purpose of bail. Practical challenges in verifying surety bonds were recognized, but the delay should not exceed a reasonable period, ideally one day. The Commissioner of Police and Director General (Prisons) were instructed to expedite the verification of local surety bonds without unnecessary objections to protect the rights of prisoners and sureties, emphasizing the importance of timely release in relation to the fundamental right to liberty.

SUKHVIDNER AND ORS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANRS [CRL.M.C.-2771/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The dispute between the petitioners and respondent no. 2 was amicably settled, with the marriage dissolved by mutual consent and the remaining balance amount paid. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose, leading to the quashing of FIR No. 0083/2021 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code and related proceedings.

SUKHVINDER SINGH AND ORS VS THE STATE (SHO PS BINDAPUR) [CRL.M.C.-6871/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners' request to quash the FIR filed against them under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was accepted due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. It was concluded that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and the likelihood of conviction was minimal, leading to the quashing of the FIR and associated proceedings.

SUMAN KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8149/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed after the involved parties agreed to settle their disputes amicably and were living separately by mutual consent. It was noted that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and that the likelihood of conviction was minimal due to the settlement.

SUMAN VIJAY VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2857/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against a teacher under Sections 323/506 IPC and Section 23 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 were quashed due to an amicable settlement with the complainant, the child's mother. The lack of evidence and delays in recording the child's statement indicated low chances of conviction. The case involved a minor incident not intended to cause harm, and continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of process. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

SUMIT & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1681/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The State did not oppose the quashing, and the respondent confirmed that no further matters were to be adjudicated. The interaction showed the settlement was reached without coercion, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would abuse the court's process.

SUMIT BASOYA & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6802/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Two FIRs (no. 14/2020 and no. 76/2021) filed against the petitioners for assault, cruelty, and criminal breach of trust were quashed due to a mutual settlement between the parties. The offenses were deemed not serious, and the parties resolved their matrimonial issues, including the dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. Continuing the criminal proceedings would be an abuse of process, as the likelihood of conviction was minimal and no useful purpose would be served by keeping the cases pending.

SUMIT BHATIA & ANR. VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1774/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 633/2021 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner and respondent were living together happily, and continuing the case would be an abuse of process. The petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was disposed of.

SUMIT CHHIKARA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3898/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was allowed to quash the FIR registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC. The matrimonial disputes had been settled amicably, and the marriage was dissolved by mutual consent. As a result, keeping the case pending served no useful purpose and was deemed an abuse of the process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and related proceedings.

SUMIT MAGGU VS STATE N C T OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2689/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR and criminal proceedings against the petitioner under Sections 287/337 IPC were quashed due to the accidental nature of the complainant's injuries and an amicable settlement, including compensation. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. The petitioner was instructed to plant 50 saplings in the local area and submit a report.

SUMIT VS THE STATE OF GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-504/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner for theft under Section 380 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The likelihood of conviction was deemed remote, and continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the process. With the respondent's lack of objection to the quashing, it was concluded that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the case pending.

SUNIL ALIAS SONU AND OTHERS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2030/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. Continuing the proceedings was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of process. The petitioners and the respondent confirmed the settlement occurred without any coercion, and the respondent had no objection to quashing the FIR.

SUNIL VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5383/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs registered under Sections 308 and 323 of the Indian Penal Code can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The injuries sustained were deemed simple, making the likelihood of conviction low. Continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the legal process, leading to the quashing of the FIRs and related proceedings.

SUNNY ANAND & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2352/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR filed against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC has been quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved by mutual consent under Section 13B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act, with the remaining settlement amount paid to respondent no. 2. The settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, and keeping the case pending would be an abuse of the court's process.

SUNNY TIWARI AND ANR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-635/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against Sunny Tiwari and Bobby Tiwari under Sections 308/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed following an amicable settlement with the complainant, Rajiv, who received compensation. The incident was deemed minor with no significant societal impact, leading to the conclusion that further proceedings would abuse the judicial process.

SURAJ SHARMA AND ORS VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2671/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 463/2022 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and could be seen as an abuse of process, with low chances of conviction given the settlement.

SURAJ VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-1073/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Suraj was convicted under Section 308 of the Indian Penal Code for culpable homicide not amounting to murder. The testimony of the injured witness was deemed credible, despite partial support for the prosecution's case against co-accused. Evidence indicated that the assault was premeditated, and the injuries reflected Suraj's intention or knowledge to cause culpable homicide. The sentence of three years' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of R.S. 10,000 was considered appropriate given the severity of the offense.

SURESH & ORS. VS THE STATE(GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3706/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0847/2015 was quashed along with the resulting proceedings under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code because the parties amicably settled their disputes, and their marriage was dissolved by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending served no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR did not abuse the process of the court.

SURESH BHATI AND ORS VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3648/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petition by Suresh Bhati and others to quash the FIR under Sections 498A, 406, 34 of the IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was allowed. The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent had been dissolved by mutual consent, and the parties reached an amicable settlement, including payment of the remaining amount to the respondent. Given these circumstances, keeping the case pending was deemed unnecessary.

TARUN SHARMA & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5311/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to the amicable settlement between the parties and the dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. The petitioner paid the remaining balance amount to the respondent, and continuing the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of the court. No useful purpose would be served by keeping the case pending, leading to the quashing of the FIR and the proceedings.

UBESH RAZA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3360/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against Ubesh Raza were quashed due to an amicable settlement with the complainant. The offenses were deemed minor and personal in nature, with low chances of conviction. Continuing the proceedings would result in abuse of process and prejudice to the accused, who has a clean past record and was young at the time of the incident. The FIR and related proceedings were consequently quashed.

UDAY SINGTHA VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-368/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the DP Act was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, and both the State government and respondent No. 2 did not oppose the quashing, indicating that continuing the case would constitute an abuse of process.

UDIT THAPAR & ORS. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2628/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed FIR No. 0287/2020 under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, along with related proceedings, due to an amicable settlement and mutual consent for divorce. It was concluded that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would not abuse the court's process.

UMESH ALIAS SONU & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6220/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners (Umesh alias Sonu and others) successfully quashed an FIR against them under Sections 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties, who had previously lived separately, have since settled amicably and are residing together since 2012. Given the circumstances, the continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary, with low chances of conviction due to the settlement.

USHA KAUSHAL VS STATE OF NCT DELHI THROUGH S.H.O., P.S. TILAK NAGAR, DISTRICT WEST DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7924/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against the petitioner under Section 420 IPC were quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner compensated the complainant, and the case was deemed to involve primarily a civil dispute, making the likelihood of conviction remote. Continuing the proceedings was considered an abuse of the court's process. The petitioner was directed to plant 20 saplings as an alternative measure.

VAIBHAV AGGARWAL & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1869/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The cancellation of the room booking by the co-founders and directors of 'Fab Hotels Anutham' caused harassment to the complainant, a lawyer, but the matter was amicably settled. Cancellation of bookings is typically based on contractual terms, with the defaulting party liable for liquidated damages. However, hotels may cancel bookings due to high demand. The issue of misrepresentation or fraudulent cancellation was not addressed as the complainant accepted a settlement offer of Rs. 1,41,604/-. The FIR under Section 406 of the Indian Penal Code against the petitioners was quashed in light of the settlement.

VARUN NAGPAL & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1454/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitions filed by the husband, father-in-law, and relatives to quash multiple FIRs by the wife were allowed. The parties had amicably resolved their matrimonial dispute, with a mutual consent divorce underway and a settlement deed in place. Partial payment was made to the wife, and proceeding further was deemed an abuse of process. The FIRs, including those under IPC sections 498A, 406, 506, 376, and 377, were quashed, contingent on the payment of the remaining settlement amount to the wife.

VASEEM HUSAIN AND ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-653/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 089/2022, registered under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code against the petitioners, was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The case was deemed unnecessary to keep pending as it would constitute an abuse of the process, with both petitioners and respondent confirming the settlement was reached without any coercion, and the respondent expressed no objection to the quashing of the FIR.

VED PARKASH @ KUKU AND ORS VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4538/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, supported by a settlement agreement from the Family Counselling Centre. Neither the State government nor the respondent objected to the quashing, and it was determined that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of process.

VEERPAL @ TITU VS STATE [CRL.A.-223/2023]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Veerpal @ Titu's conviction for offences under Section 10 of the POCSO Act and Section 506 IPC was set aside due to insufficient proof beyond reasonable doubt. Significant contradictions and gaps in the victim's statements were noted, alongside the potential influence of animosity stemming from matrimonial disputes. The presumption of guilt under the POCSO Act was deemed inapplicable as foundational facts were not established, leading to a successful rebuttal by the defense. The appellant was acquitted and ordered to be released.

VIBHOR SAHAI & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1372/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition was filed to quash an FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code related to a matrimonial dispute. The parties involved amicably settled the matter, dissolved their marriage by mutual consent, and confirmed that the remaining balance was paid. Both parties confirmed the resolution occurred without threats or coercion. Quashing the FIR and proceedings was deemed appropriate as it would not abuse the process of law.

VICKY AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3844/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners, Vicky and others, successfully quashed the FIR filed against them under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code after the parties reached an amicable settlement, as confirmed by a Memorandum of Understanding. Both the State and the complainant did not oppose the request to quash the FIR. It was established that the settlement occurred without any threat or coercion, indicating that further proceedings would not serve any useful purpose. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

VICKY CHADHA AND ANR VS THE STATE AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-420/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
FIRs registered under Sections 394/34 IPC and 323/354/506/509 IPC can be quashed as the parties have amicably settled their dispute. Serious offences cannot be quashed due to settlement, but minor incidents or those with a civil dispute element can be if the parties confirm the settlement without coercion. The chances of conviction were deemed bleak, warranting the quashing of FIRs to prevent abuse of process. Petitioners are required to plant 25 saplings each in local parks as an alternative to costs.

VIJAY BAHADUR SINGH & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2504/2021]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR filed under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code against Vijay Bahadur Singh and others was quashed after the parties confirmed that their disputes were amicably resolved and the marriage between petitioner No. 3 and respondent No. 2 had been dissolved by mutual consent. The matter was settled without any threat or coercion, making further proceedings an abuse of process.

VIJAY GUPTA AND ORS VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1181/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner No. 1 and the complainant have been living together since December 2017, with no objection from either the state prosecutor or the complainant regarding the FIR being quashed. The lack of further purpose in keeping the case pending justified quashing the FIR.

VIJAY KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6836/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was allowed to quash the FIR against the petitioners due to an amicable settlement between the parties, who no longer had grievances. The case involved primarily civil disputes or minor incidents, and the complainant/victim had been compensated. The prospects of a conviction were assessed as bleak, and the continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of the court's process. The FIR and all related proceedings were quashed.

VIJAY KUMAR AND ANR. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5458/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petitioners, Vijay Kumar and another, successfully applied to quash an FIR registered against them under Sections 354/323/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code, based on a complaint that resulted from a monetary dispute. The parties amicably resolved the matter, with the complainant indicating no further grievance or objection to the quashing of the FIR. It was concluded that continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of the process of the court, leading to the FIR and associated proceedings being quashed.

VIJAY NAGAR & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4917/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The marriage of petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and the financial settlement was completed. Keeping the case pending was deemed an abuse of the process.

VIKAS CHAUDHARY & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1733/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC is quashed due to amicable resolution of disputes. The marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 has been dissolved via mutual consent, and the remaining balance amount has been paid in full settlement. Keeping the case pending serves no useful purpose, and quashing the FIR does not constitute an abuse of the legal process.

VIKAS CHHILLAR & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3176/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs and criminal proceedings against the petitioners were quashed under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The offenses were deemed not serious, and the likelihood of conviction was low. Continued proceedings were considered an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of FIR No. 0004/2018 under Sections 308/341/34 IPC and FIR No. 0276/2018 under Sections 324/506/509 IPC. This involved two connected petitions.

VIKAS GUPTA AND OTHERS VS STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-6598/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed after the parties amicably settled their disputes. The marriage between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2 was dissolved by mutual consent, with the petitioners paying Rs.12,70,000/- to respondent No.2. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the court's process, given the settlement and lack of objection from the State's counsel and respondent No.2.

VIKAS KOHLI & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6727/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners' request to quash FIR No. 582/2020 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was granted due to an amicable settlement. The marriage between petitioner No. 1 and respondent No. 2 was dissolved by mutual consent, and a payment of Rs. 22,00,000 was made to the respondent as a full and final settlement. The chances of conviction were considered bleak, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would be an abuse of process.

VIKASH KUMAR JHA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5190/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIRs under Sections 408 and 354/354A of the Indian Penal Code have been quashed due to the amicable settlement of disputes arising from employment. The continuation of proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, with remote chances of conviction. Serious offenses involving mental depravity cannot be quashed despite settlement, but those with dominant civil dispute elements or minor incidents may be considered for quashing when a compromise is reached.

VIKASH MISHRA AND ORS VS THE STATE GNCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-3363/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 0578/2023 under Sections 323/325/341/506/34 IPC was quashed as the parties amicably settled the matter. The incident was regarded as a minor personal dispute, and continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process, particularly with no prior criminal involvement of the petitioners. The legal provisions allowing for quashing of proceedings were deemed applicable due to the settled nature of the dispute and the offense's limited societal impact.

VIKRANT TOMAR AND OTHERS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5426/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was quashed due to amicable settlement of disputes and dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. Both the State and the complainant had no objection to this decision. Continuing the case would constitute an abuse of the process of law.

VINAY KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-66/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to the dissolution of the marriage between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.2 by mutual consent, along with an amicable settlement between the parties. Both the State and respondent No.2 expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, and continuing the case was deemed an abuse of the judicial process.

VINAY NIRWAN & ORS. VS THE STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) THROUGH SHO, P.S. KALKAJI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1323/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

A petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was granted to quash an FIR against the petitioners for Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The parties had amicably settled the matter through a Settlement Agreement and obtained a mutual consent divorce. The State expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, confirming that the settlement occurred without any pressure or coercion. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

VINOD SHARMA & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4827/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

FIR No. 167/2013 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties, evidenced by a Settlement Deed dated 18.03.2024. The respondent No. 2 expressed no objection to the FIR being quashed. Continuing the case was deemed unproductive and an abuse of process, as the likelihood of conviction was low given the resolution reached.

VIPIN AND ANR. & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2137/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 308/365/34 IPC has been quashed, with the observation that both the petitioners and the complainant are students with clean records. The incident was characterized as a minor dispute that has been amicably settled. In cases involving minor incidents and civil disputes where a settlement has been reached and the likelihood of conviction is low, criminal proceedings can be quashed to prevent abuse of the legal process. Previous judgments were referenced to support this conclusion.

VIPIN SAINI & ANR. VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1159/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The petitioners successfully quashed the FIR against them under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code after amicably settling the matter, with the marriage dissolved by divorce. The State expressed no objection to the quashing, and it was deemed that continuing the case would serve no useful purpose and would not constitute an abuse of process.

VIPUL BANSAL & ORS. VS STATE THROUGH SHO VIJAY VIHAR & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3260/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute. A petition for dissolution of marriage by mutual consent was allowed, with confirmation that the settlement occurred without any threat or coercion. Given these circumstances, the continuation of the case was deemed unnecessary, and the likelihood of conviction was considered low.

VIPUL MEHTA AND ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3771/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
Two FIRs against Vipul Mehta and others under IPC Sections 506/509 and 498A/406/34 were quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The disputes were deemed matrimonial in nature, with low chances of conviction and potential abuse of process if proceedings continued. As a measure of amends, the petitioners were directed to plant 50 saplings in local parks.

VISHAL NEHRA & ORS. VS THE STATE, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2845/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The complainant expressed no objection to the quashing, and it was noted that continuing the case would likely constitute an abuse of process, considering the low chances of conviction. Compliance with the Settlement Deed dated 24.01.2024 was mandated for the respective parties.

VISHAL SHARMA AND ANR. VS STATE (GNCTD) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1820/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Vishal Sharma and another under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC was quashed due to amicable resolution of disputes and mutual consent divorce. The State indicated no objection to this action, acknowledging that keeping the case pending would serve no useful purpose and would constitute an abuse of the process.

VISHAL SWARA & ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1555/2021]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The disputes between the parties originated from a Share Purchase Agreement, with most issues settled except for a disagreement over a sum of Rs. 24,01,313/- received by the company after a Settlement Agreement. Given the nature of the offenses, continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the FIR and criminal proceedings, while directing the unresolved dispute over the sum to arbitration.

VISHNU VERMA AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-7681/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
An FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A, 406, 34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 was quashed due to an amicable settlement of the matrimonial dispute. The chances of conviction were deemed bleak given the settlement deed and dissolution of the marriage by mutual consent. Keeping the case pending was viewed as an abuse of the process.

VIVEK NARULA & ANR. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-7542/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Criminal proceedings against the petitioners under Sections 323/354/509/34 IPC can be quashed due to an amicable settlement between the closely related parties, with no objections from the respondents. The likelihood of conviction is minimal, and continuing the proceedings would constitute an abuse of process. The petitioners are directed to plant 50 neem/jamun saplings each in the local area, with the authorities responsible for their upkeep.

VIVEK SHARMA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-86/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Vivek Sharma filed a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to quash an FIR against him for Sections 324 and 341 of the Indian Penal Code. The matter was amicably settled, and his wife had no objection to quashing the FIR. Given the circumstances, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed to prevent an abuse of the legal process.

YASHASWINI MITTAL VS M/S SHRI TAPODHANI ALUMINIUM TRADING CO. THROUGH SH. NARENDER KUMAR JAIN & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1176/2021]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

Yashaswini Mittal's petitions, as accused No. 3 in complaints under Section 138/141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, were dismissed due to maintainability issues, as earlier petitions were withdrawn with permission to raise pleas in the trial court. The analysis included the principles of vicarious liability, noting that the burden lies on the accused to prove lack of involvement in company affairs. Mittal was identified as an "Executive Director" and "Promoter" during the relevant time, with her actual role and responsibility to be assessed during the trial. The petitions could not be quashed at this stage.

YOGENDER AND ORS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2292/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been quashed after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The petitioners paid Rs. 50,000 to the complainant as full and final settlement, and both parties confirmed the absence of threat or coercion. Resolving the dispute negates the need to keep the case pending, which would otherwise abuse the legal process.

YOGESH KUMAR KAAMRA VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2290/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

An FIR against the petitioner under Sections 354/506/509 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The incident involved a minor altercation over a payment or claim, lacking any intention to commit the alleged offenses. It was determined that continuing the proceedings would abuse the court's process, leading to the decision to quash the FIR and associated proceedings.

YOGESH AND ORS VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3827/2024]

Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta

The FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC against the petitioners was quashed after the parties amicably resolved their matrimonial disputes. The settlement indicated a low likelihood of conviction, and continuing the case would be deemed an abuse of process. The petitioners and the second respondent confirmed the resolution occurred without any coercion, and the second respondent expressed no objection to quashing the FIR.

YOGESH GUPTA & ANR. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2118/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The petition by Yogesh Gupta and another to quash an FIR under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act was granted due to an amicable settlement between the parties and the mutual consent dissolution of their marriage. Quashing the FIR was deemed appropriate as it served no useful purpose to keep the case pending and would not constitute an abuse of process.

ZAHIRUDDIN & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3411/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
A criminal complaint against the petitioners under Sections 420/406/382/384/506 IPC was quashed after the parties amicably settled their dispute related to a failed matrimonial alliance. The settlement was confirmed without coercion, and the respondent expressed no objection to quashing the complaint. Given the nature of the offences and the low likelihood of conviction owing to the settlement, the proceedings were concluded, allowing the parties to move forward in life.

ZEESHAN AHMED & ORS. VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5148/2024]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The FIR against Zeeshan Ahmed and others under Sections 308/323/34 IPC was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The matter involved a civil dispute with minor injuries, which had been compensated, leading to the conclusion that continued proceedings would constitute an abuse of process.

ZULFIKAR @ BOBBY VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-424/2023]
Judges: Justice Anoop Kumar Mendiratta
The criminal appeal by Zulfikar @ Bobby resulted in the setting aside of his conviction and sentence. For abetment to suicide under Section 306 IPC, a completed suicide and active involvement through instigation or aid are necessary, requiring proof of criminal intent and a proximate role in the act. Serious deficiencies in the prosecution's evidence, including significant contradictions in witness testimonies, led to the conclusion that the prosecution did not establish the appellant's guilt beyond reasonable doubt, resulting in acquittal.

ABHISHEK @ ABHISHEK NAGAR & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7401/2024]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The FIR against the petitioners under sections 342/307/506/34 of the IPC was not quashed despite a settlement and the complainant's affidavit. Medical evidence and the serious nature of the charges, particularly the attempt to murder, were significant factors. The settlement was not deemed voluntary or in the interests of societal peace, especially considering the alleged severity of the offenses against a minor. Thus, the petition to quash the FIR was dismissed.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LTD. VS ANJALI NAG AND ORS [ARB.P.-771/2023]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
Aditya Birla Finance Ltd. can pursue parallel proceedings under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and the SARFAESI Act, 2002, as it is not classified as a 'financial institution' or 'bank' under the Recovery of Debts and Bankruptcy Act, 1993. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes based on the arbitration agreement in the Deeds of Personal Guarantee executed by the respondents, with the understanding that the claims under the RDB Act are non-arbitrable, which does not apply in this situation.

AMIT KUMAR SINGH VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE (DRI) [BAIL APPLN.-2320/2019]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Amit Kumar Singh was granted regular bail based on several factors: the seizure and testing of contraband were conducted in violation of section 52-A(2) of the NDPS Act, leading to questions about the validity of the forensic testing. There were inconsistencies regarding the recovery of his vehicle, raising doubts about its involvement in the offence. Co-accused individuals had already received bail, supporting the petitioner's claim for bail on parity grounds. Additionally, the petitioner had already spent approximately 3 years and 4 months in custody as an undertrial, with the trial unlikely to conclude soon, countering the statutory restrictions under section 37 of the NDPS Act. Bail was granted with specific conditions, without addressing the merits of the case.

APTEC ADVANCED PROTECTIVE TECHNOLOGIES AG VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [O.M.P. (COMM)-216/2020]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The decision made by the Sole Arbitrator on 18.11.2010 was not classified as an "interim award" subject to challenge under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Arbitrator provided detailed observations regarding document requests but clarified that these were preliminary and that the main disputes would be resolved later. The Arbitrator explicitly stated that no "award" was issued in this decision. Consequently, the petition challenging this decision was dismissed.

B.P. SINGH (THROUGH PAIROKAR) VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.(BAIL)-1519/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

B.P. Singh's sentence for overvaluing property as collateral for a loan has been suspended. The conviction relied on the opinions of other valuers without independent investigation into the property's true value. The sentence of the co-convict, the borrower, had also been suspended. Singh faces four years of rigorous imprisonment under the Indian Penal Code and the Prevention of Corruption Act, pending appeal disposal.

BIBI SABERA VS MAJOR DR. CHANDRA SHEKHAR PANT@ HIMMAT KHAN [CRL.REV.P.-334/2023]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The citizenship status of a petitioner is irrelevant for establishing the right to reside in a "shared household" under the Domestic Violence Act. A foreign national can be considered an "aggrieved person" with a "domestic relationship" and the right to reside in a "shared household," independent of citizenship or visa status. An earlier order directing an inquiry into the petitioner's citizenship has been set aside, and the appeal must be decided on its merits without considering citizenship.

DALJEET SINGH VS M/S JOHAR TOWERS PVT.LTD. [CM APPL.-47591/2022]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

A compromise order dated 24.05.2012 was upheld as a valid agreement. The respondent is required to execute and register a sale deed in favor of the appellant for the entire third floor of the property after regularizing unauthorized construction. The appellant must pay the remaining consideration as per the compromise order. The respondent's application to modify the order for regularization was dismissed.

DR. SHELLY BATRA & ANR. VS M/S OPERATIONASHA, A REGISTERED SOCIETY THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT, MR. ASHUTOSH MISHRA & ORS. [I.A.-5009/2020]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Leave has been granted to the plaintiffs, co-founder and a board member of the defendant society, to file a suit under Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure for alleged mismanagement and misappropriation of funds by the current president and secretary. The defendant society, registered as a public charitable institution, meets the criteria for a "constructive trust" under Section 92 CPC. The plaintiffs have the necessary interest to maintain the suit. Findings from the Interim Forensic Audit Report suggest that the society's affairs require closer scrutiny. The granted leave does not prevent potential dismissal of the suit if the allegations lack substantiation.

GENERAL MOTORS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS GPR POWER SOLUTIONS PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-216/2021]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The petition by General Motors India Pvt. Ltd. challenging an arbitral award favoring GPR Power Solutions Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The arbitrator awarded Rs. 42,10,656/- to GPR Power Solutions based on General Motors' admissions in its defense that a total of Rs. 78,70,408/- was due, contingent on contract compliance. The decision was supported by the evidence on record and did not present an error warranting intervention under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

HBL POWER SYSTEMS LIMITED VS ULTRA MEGA POWER PVT. LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-102/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The arbitral award determined that Ultra Mega Power Pvt. Ltd. is entitled to the cost of replacing 300 out of 900 batteries supplied by HBL Power Systems Limited, as sufficient evidence of manufacturing defects was established. The arguments presented by HBL Power Systems did not undermine the findings. The conclusions drawn by the arbitrator were based on the evidence and did not require further review. The petition challenging the arbitral award was dismissed.

JATIN JAIN & ORS. VS ANUJ JAIN & ORS. [CS(OS)-176/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

A suit filed by family members of a deceased partner against other partners and a bank is classified as a "commercial dispute" under the Commercial Courts Act 2015, as it pertains to the sale proceeds of partnership property. The plaintiffs are required to undergo the mandatory pre-litigation mediation process, with the focus being on recovery of money rather than other relief, and no exemption from this requirement is granted.

JITENDER KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-5264/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The petitioner's request to recall Prosecution Witness 1 for further cross-examination was allowed, as the lower court's dismissal of the application was overturned. The petitioner argued that compliance with procedural requirements under Section 42 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act is essential, noting that the recording of information about the drug recovery was done by a Constable, who does not meet the rank requirement stipulated in the NDPS Act. Previous judgments emphasized that non-compliance with Section 42 can invalidate the entire search and seizure operation.

KISMATUN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH HOME DEPARTMENT & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2195/2020]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The investigation into the death of Faizan will be transferred from the Delhi Police to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) due to shortcomings in the initial investigation. Issues included delayed witness statements, failure to collect material evidence, and questionable claims about non-functional CCTV cameras. The alleged involvement of police personnel in the assault raised concerns about the investigation's fairness. The case also involved accusations of a hate crime committed by police against the victims, necessitating a credible and thorough inquiry by the CBI.

KULDEEP KUMAR & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-26/2022]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The decision to strike off the petitioner's daughter's name from St. Mark's Girls Sr. Sec. School was upheld due to non-payment of the DoE-approved tuition fee of Rs. 7,000 per month. The school followed the appropriate procedure under the Delhi School Education Rules, and the fee charged was in line with the approved structure since the 2015-16 academic session. The petitioner's claim that the fee should be Rs. 5,130 was rejected, as the approved fee for the relevant session was confirmed to be Rs. 7,000, with no supporting material for the petitioner's assertion.

LAKSHMI MURDESHWAR PURI VS SAKET GOKHALE & ANR. [CS(OS)-300/2021]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The defendant's tweets about the plaintiff, a former senior Indian diplomat, contained false and defamatory allegations regarding her apartment purchase in Geneva. The plaintiff provided credible evidence of legitimate funding sources, including a mortgage and financial support from her daughter. The tweets displayed a reckless disregard for the truth and aimed to damage the plaintiff's reputation. The defendant was ordered to publish an unconditional apology on Twitter and in a prominent newspaper, refrain from making further defamatory statements, and pay damages of Rs. 50 lakhs to the plaintiff. No judgment was issued concerning the plaintiff's husband, as he was not a co-plaintiff.

M/S AMBA ENTERPRISES PRIVATE LIMITED VS CENTRAL WAREHOUSING CORPORATION [ARB.P.-631/2023]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The Section 11 petition under the Arbitration & Conciliation Act 1996 was filed within the limitation period, allowing time exclusion under Section 14 of the Limitation Act 1963 due to prior proceedings before the NCLT. The 1-year limitation period in the arbitration clause was deemed void under Section 28 of the Indian Contract Act, making the claims subject to a 3-year limitation period under the Limitation Act. The determination of the petitioner's diligence and good faith in pursuing NCLT proceedings was assigned to the appointed Sole Arbitrator, who will conduct the arbitration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S AXALTA COATING SYSTEMS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS M/S MADHUBAN MOTORS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-980/2023]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The Delhi High Court confirmed its territorial jurisdiction under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996, based on the interpretation of the arbitration agreement. The agreement indicated New Delhi as both the "venue" and the "seat" of arbitration. Prior rulings clarified the distinction between "venue" and "seat," supporting the conclusion that New Delhi was intended as the seat. With the jurisdictional objection upheld, the petition was granted, and a sole arbitrator was appointed.

M/S DIVYAM REAL ESTATE PVT LTD VS M/S M2K ENTERTAINMENT PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-162/2020]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The part of the arbitral award granting Rs. 20 lakhs to the respondent for loss of profit was set aside due to a lack of evidence and contradictory reasoning by the arbitrator. The arbitrator acknowledged that the potential for the respondent to make any profit was speculative, yet awarded loss of profit without clear findings. It was emphasized that proving loss of profit requires evidence, not mere speculation, leading to the conclusion that the award on this matter was perverse and legally untenable.

M/S SWASTIK CONSTRUCTION & BUILDERS PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-12218/2015]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The petitioner company holds valid title and possession of the land based on registered sale deeds from 1987 and a legitimate demarcation report from 1998. The respondents' 2015 demarcation exercise, lacking a proper show-cause notice to the petitioner, is considered illegal. The 2015 demarcation report is quashed, and the 1998 demarcation report is affirmed as correct.

MADHUR COMPUTECH PVT.LTD VS M/S AFFORDABLE EXPORTS PVT LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-1315/2023]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The arbitration clause (clause 32) in the agreement constitutes a valid and concluded arbitration agreement, despite the use of the word "may." This case differs from the interpretation in Jagdish Chander v. Ramesh Chander, where "may" indicated a non-binding clause. The designated territorial jurisdiction for arbitration proceedings is New Delhi, as specified in the arbitration agreement, rather than Gautam Budh Nagar. A sole arbitrator will be appointed under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre to address the disputes, with factual and legal contentions of both parties remaining open.

MANPOWER GROUP SERVICES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS SKILLSTECH SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-138/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The interim award of the sole arbitrator confirmed that all disputes arising from four separate agreements were referred to arbitration, requiring the claimant to file separate statements of claim for each agreement. The arbitrator did not address the merits of the disputes, leaving all rights and contentions, including the arbitrability of the disputes, open for determination in the arbitral proceedings.

MANU PRASHANT WIG VS STATE OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1926/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Manu Prashant Wig was granted regular bail in a case involving Sections 406/420/120-B of the Indian Penal Code after spending over 643 days in judicial custody with no impending trial conclusion due to numerous prosecution witnesses. The chargesheet cites 168 complainants and Rs. 7.37 crores, while allegations of additional complainants and a higher amount were deemed irrelevant at this stage. A significant portion of the alleged amount was classified as "unverifiable" cash payments, and over Rs. 10 crores had been secured by the investigating agency for the complainants. The agreements with investors included a "risk factors" clause, suggesting a lack of initial dishonest intent. Bail was granted based on parity with co-accused who were previously granted bail.

MR. KUNWER FAHMED ALAM ARIYANA VS MS. MAMTESH ALAM @MAMTESH [CRL.REV.P.-1334/2024]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
A wife's apostasy from Islam does not annul a marriage but automatically dissolves it, allowing her to be considered a "divorced wife" for maintenance purposes under Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The husband's argument that the apostasy disqualified the wife from receiving maintenance lacked merit, as the grounds for disentitlement are clearly specified in Section 125. The assessment of the husband's income for maintenance purposes was based on his own admission during cross-examination.

MS UNISSI INDIA PVT LTD VS MS HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION CO & ORS. [I.A.-16022/2022]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The territorial jurisdiction for the suit lies with the courts in Mumbai, Maharashtra, as the contract was made and performed there. The purchase order was issued in Mumbai, and the work was to be executed in Mumbai, establishing that the courts in Mumbai have the authority to handle the suit.

NATIONAL BUILDING CONSTRUCTION CORPORATION VS M/S SHARMA ENTERPRISES [I.A.-6869/2022]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
National Building Construction Corporation Ltd. (NBCC) is entitled to the exclusion of time under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, 1963 for filing a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, to challenge an arbitral award from 28.07.2016. The initial arbitration was governed by the Arbitration Act, 1940, but later proceedings fell under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, leading to a dispute over the applicable Act. NBCC diligently pursued this issue and the period of limitation was extended due to a Supreme Court order related to the pandemic. Consequently, the petition was filed within the allowed time frame.

NATIONAL RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION AND ANOTHER VS M/S MECPRO HEAVY ENGINEERING LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-338/2023]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The petition by the National Research Development Corporation and the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research challenging an arbitral award was dismissed. The sole arbitrator determined the claims were time-barred, as the cause of action arose in August 2012 when Mecpro Heavy Engineering Ltd. failed to assign developed technology, but the claims were not raised until October 2021, exceeding the 3-year limitation period. The exchange of letters and settlement discussions did not extend this period, and the agreement expired in March 2018, making the claims time-barred.

NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL VS N.S. ASSOCIATES PVT.LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-258/2024]
Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani
The petition by the New Delhi Municipal Council challenging an interim arbitral award was dismissed. The claims granted in favor of N.S. Associates Pvt. Ltd., totaling Rs. 67,59,399/-, were based on clear admissions made by the petitioner in its Statement of Defense. The arbitrator's authority to issue an interim award based on these admissions was supported by established principles and previous judgments. The limited scope of review did not warrant interference with the arbitrator's interpretation.

OBI OGOCHUKWA STEPHEN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4056/2023]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Waiving the requirement of a surety bond or substituting it with a cash deposit for bail or sentence suspension is permissible but not automatic. Each case must be evaluated to ensure the defendant's availability for trial and the integrity of proceedings. In this instance, two Nigerian nationals overstayed their visas and allegedly submitted forged documents, which raised concerns about their availability. Their requests to completely waive the surety requirement or replace it with a cash deposit were denied, but the amounts for their personal bond and surety were modified as a measure of accommodation. Observations made are specific to the applications and should not be viewed as commentary on the trials.

PAWANJIT SINGH BAWA VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-8034/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The FIR against the petitioner was quashed due to the investigation being compromised by the complainant and the investigating officer being the same individual. This situation raised concerns about the fairness and impartiality of the investigation, consistent with prior rulings on the necessity of separating these roles.

PRASHANT HINJRAO VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1276/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Prashant Hinjrao's bail application was dismissed due to the serious nature of the charges against him, which included firing at a police team. Forensic evidence linked him to the firearm recovered from him. His criminal history included past involvement in serious offenses, a conviction in a similar case, and poor conduct while in jail. The relevance of his criminal background was acknowledged in the decision to deny regular bail at this stage.

PRAVEEN KUMAR JAIN VS RAJESH SHARMA AND ANR [ARB. A. (COMM.)-32/2023]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The appeal by Praveen Kumar Jain regarding the sole arbitrator's order was allowed, confirming that his counter-claims based on the Construction Agreement dated 18.11.2019 are related to the same project as the claims from the respondents under the Construction Agreement dated 01.10.2019. The arbitrator is to consider the counter-claims in accordance with the law, treating the 18.11.2019 agreement as support for those claims, while acknowledging the reference made under the 01.10.2019 agreement.

RAJENDRA KUMAR TRIPATHI VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1830/2023]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The petitioner's bail application was dismissed due to failure to honor a prior settlement with the complainant, leading to the cancellation of his previous bail. Additionally, the petitioner had not appeared regularly before the Magistrate, resulting in non-bailable warrants and proceedings initiated under Section 82 Cr.P.C. It was noted that Section 436-A Cr.P.C. does not guarantee an absolute right to bail and the petitioner's past conduct justified the denial of bail at this stage.

RESIDENT DOCTORS ASSOCIATION, ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES (AIIMS), RISHIKESH AND ORS. VS RAM KISHAN YADAV ALIAS SWAMI RAMDEV AND ORS. [I.A.-8420/2021]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The contesting defendants made statements claiming that the "Divya Coronil Tablet" is a cure for COVID-19, which conflicted with regulatory licenses that only allowed its use as a "supporting measure." This marketing constituted public nuisance and a wrongful act affecting the public. A strong prima facie case was established by the plaintiffs, with the balance of convenience favoring them. An interim injunction was granted, preventing the defendants from making claims about the product's efficacy.

ROADWAY SOLUTIONS INDIA INFRA LIMITED VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA [ARB. A. (COMM.)-18/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The decision of the 3-member arbitral tribunal was upheld, which dismissed the appellant's application for interim relief against the respondent authority. The tribunal addressed the appellant's requests, granting limited interim relief for participation in future tenders but rejecting the request to prevent the invocation of bank guarantees. The tribunal's ruling on the bank guarantees was deemed not arbitrarily or perverse, and there was no basis for interference under Section 37 of the Arbitration Act. The appeal was dismissed.

SANJEEV AGGARWAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1082/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Orders framing charges under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code (abetment of suicide) have been set aside due to insufficient evidence of instigation. Mere harassment or a history of disputes are inadequate to establish the necessary intent to abet suicide. No proximate actions by the accused directly linked to the deceased's suicide were found, leading to discharge from the offence.

SANTOSH BHASIN VS UMARI MALHOTRA DECD THR LRS [CM APPL.-5722/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

A preliminary decree declared that the appellant and respondents are entitled to equal shares (1/2, 1/6, 1/6, 1/6) in the barsati room and terrace atop the first floor of the property. Due to the impracticality of dividing the property without further inquiry, a local commissioner is to be appointed to divide the property and grant separate possession of the shares to the parties.

SANTOSH BHASIN VS UMARI MALHOTRA DECD THR LRS [RFA-830/2010]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The appellant's suit for partition of the barsati room and terrace was filed within the limitation period. The testator's Will allocated specific properties to the appellant and respondents but did not address the barsati room and terrace. Consequently, these properties were deemed to pass by intestacy, resulting in equal inheritance for the appellant and respondents as the testator's daughters. The argument of estoppel regarding the appellant's claim to the barsati room and terrace was rejected.

SIEMENS GAMESA RENEWABLE POWER PRIVATE LIMITED VS GREEN INFRA WIND ENERGY LTD [ARB. A. (COMM.)-69/2022]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The appeal by Siemens Gamesa Renewable Power Private Limited was dismissed as the arbitral tribunal had not made a final determination on the legality of the encashment of bank guarantees by Green Infra Wind Energy Ltd. The tribunal only provided prima facie observations for an application, with the legality issue set for resolution in the main proceedings. There was no interference with the tribunal's discretion under Section 37 due to a lack of arbitrariness or perversity in its decision.

STATE VS DANISH & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-470/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The trial court discharged Danish and Mohd. Kaif from charges under Sections 376(2)(n) and 323 of the Indian Penal Code. The evaluation of evidence, including the prosecutrix's statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C., indicated that the allegations in the FIR were unsubstantiated. The prosecutrix admitted that she filed the complaint out of anger and frustration, stating that no wrongdoing occurred. The decision to discharge the accused was based on a lack of sufficient material to frame charges.

SUNDARI GAUTAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-852/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The offence of 'penetrative sexual assault' and 'aggravated penetrative sexual assault' under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act can be committed by any gender, including women. Arguments regarding the delay in FIR registration and lack of sexual intent are to be examined during trial, not at the charge framing stage. The gender-neutral language of the POCSO Act reflects legislative intent to hold all perpetrators accountable for sexual offences against children. The framing of charges under Section 6 of the POCSO Act for 'aggravated penetrative sexual assault' against a woman was upheld.

TELECOMMUNICATION CONSULTANTS INDIA LTD VS SHIVAA TRADING [O.M.P. (COMM)-311/2022]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

The arbitral award was set aside due to the sole arbitrator's de jure ineligibility under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as the arbitrator's relationship with the parties fell within specified categories in the Seventh Schedule. The appointment of the arbitrator was void ab-initio, rendering the arbitral proceedings and the award void, as there was no written waiver by the parties of the applicability of Section 12(5).

THOKCHOM SHYAMJAI SINGH & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH HOME SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1929/2024]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

A writ petition challenging the arrest by the National Investigation Agency (NIA) and subsequent remand orders is maintainable. The preliminary objection of being barred by the doctrine of constructive res judicata was rejected since the petitioners had previously withdrawn an earlier writ with permission to raise the same issues in a competent forum. The lack of other statutory remedies for challenging the interlocutory remand orders warranted consideration in matters affecting personal liberty.

VINOD KUMAR AND ORS VS NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF IMMUNOLOGY THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR AND ANR [W.P.(C)-8511/2011]

Judges: Justice Anup Jairam Bhambhani

Employees of the National Institute of Immunology (NII) are entitled to the benefits of the Pension Scheme under the Office Memorandum dated 01.05.1987, unless they opted for the Contributory Provident Fund (CPF) Scheme. Arguments against the equality of benefits for employees of autonomous institutions relative to government servants were rejected. NII must grant all pensionary benefits under the Pension Scheme, with conditions related to recouping provident fund contributions and interest payments. NII is required to offer the option of not availing the benefits to petitioners or their legal representatives who may no longer be interested.

AAKASH EDUCATIONAL SERVICES LIMITED VS PARVESH KUMAR DHIMAN [ARB.P.-728/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Aakash Educational Services Ltd filed a petition under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act for dispute resolution through arbitration. The "Service Rules Manual for Faculty Members" included an arbitration clause allowing unilateral appointment of an arbitrator, which is considered unenforceable based on recent Supreme Court judgments. An existing arbitration agreement was acknowledged, and the dispute was referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) for the appointment of a suitable arbitrator, without addressing the merits of the dispute.

AAKASH EDUCATIONAL SERVICES LIMITED VS VIVEK SRIVASTAVA [ARB.P.-997/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The unilateral appointment of an arbitrator by one party, as per Clause 42 of the Service Rules Manual, is impermissible according to Supreme Court decisions. Disputes between Aakash Educational Services Limited and Vivek Srivastava were referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre for the appointment of a suitable arbitrator, with no views expressed on the merits of the parties' contentions.

AASHISH GUPTA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14724/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Testing Agency (NTA) acted in good faith by re-examining objections to the provisional answer key of the CUET (UG)-2022 examination after the final result was declared, due to the examination's large scale. The NTA explained that this re-examination was a one-time exercise and will upload the final answer key at least a day prior to result declarations in the future, making it accessible to candidates through their login. The petition for fresh consideration of remaining objections to the provisional answer key was not pursued.

AB MAURI INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS VICKY AGGARWAL & ORS. [CS(COMM)-810/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An interim injunction was granted to restrain defendants from using the "TOWER" trademark for dry fruits, including pistachios, walnuts, cashew nuts, and almonds. The defendants were bound by a prior undertaking to limit the use of the "TOWER" mark to specific goods and not expand it. The use of the "TOWER" mark for dry fruits was likely to cause confusion with the plaintiff's registered trademark, indicating prima facie infringement under the Trade Marks Act.

ABDUL BASIT VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5893/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) must ensure that Abdul Basit's appeal against the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) recommendations in a sexual harassment complaint is decided by the competent Appellate Authority within four weeks, adhering to principles of natural justice. No ICC member can be part of the Appellate Authority, and the decision must be reasoned. The ICC recommendations cannot be acted upon until one week after the Appellate Authority's decision if it is adverse to Basit.

ABHASH KUMAR JHA THROUGH HIS FATHER BHASKAR JHA VS KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA SANGATHAN & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6203/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan must decide on the petitioner's request for grace marks in the Class IX Mathematics compartment examination, submitted on April 28, 2024, within two weeks. The petitioner retains the right to pursue further legal remedies if dissatisfied with the outcome.

ADARSH TEOTIA VS NETRA INSTITUTE OF GEOINFORMATICS MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGIES FOUNDATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-14715/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition filed by Adarsh Teotia seeking to re-conduct the GIS-2001 and GIS-2002 examinations was dismissed. Chaudhary Charan Singh University and Netra Institute of Geoinformatics Management and Technologies Foundation confirmed that the examination schedule was available on the university's website, and the petitioner received a login ID and password to access the admit card. The petitioner's failure to download the admit card was deemed his own responsibility, negating any claims of fault against the respondents. No grounds were established to grant the requested relief.

ADAVYA ARYA THROUGH HIS FATHER MANISH VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11845/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A student from the Disadvantaged Group, shortlisted for admission to a KG/Pre-Primary class for the 2023-2024 academic year, was not admitted by the school. The school is required to admit EWS/DG category students once shortlisted by the Directorate of Education unless a timely representation against the seat matrix is made. The student's provisional admission was made permanent, and the school was directed to provide education and facilities for DG category students.

ADITYA LAL VALLATH VS NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATIONS IN MEDICAL SCIENCES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-147/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences (NBEMS) incorrectly calculated the additional training required for a DNB trainee who took 140 days of leave during a 3-year training period, surpassing the 90-day limit. The correct additional training requirement was only 23 days, as the excess leave included off days and holidays that should not have been counted. There was no misstatement or suppression of facts in the Provisional Training Completion Certificate submitted by the trainee. Consequently, the cancellation of the trainee's DNB candidature and examination results was quashed, and the DNB qualification was to be awarded.

ADITYA PTC COLLEGE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-7326/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The directions from the order dated 15 September 2023 in WP (C) 12125/2023 were applied to WP (C) 7326/2024, as the controversy in the latter was covered by the earlier order. The National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) has filed an Intra-Court Appeal (LPA) against that order. While the Division Bench previously allowed NCTE to file a review petition, that permission was later recalled. The current application of the September order is subject to the outcome of the NCTE's LPA.

AFTAB ALAM VS JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11255/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The cancellation of the petitioner's PhD registration by Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) was deemed invalid due to non-compliance with the procedures outlined in Ordinance IX. The cancellation lacked recommendations from the required Departmental Research Committee and Centre's Research Committee. Additionally, the Board of Studies had previously approved the petitioner's conversion to an in-service part-time PhD scholar, conflicting with the later cancellation decision. The decision to cancel the registration was quashed, restoring the petitioner to his prior status with all associated benefits.

AGV FENESTRATION PVT. LTD. VS M/S. DELMEN NETS [RSA-6/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

AGV Fenestration Pvt. Ltd. faced dismissal of its second appeal due to an inadequate explanation for a 500-day delay in filing the first appeal. The company, as a corporate entity, was expected to be vigilant about its rights and judicial matters. Blaming the previous counsel for missing documents was deemed insufficient. The absence of a genuine reason for the delay led to the dismissal, with no substantial question of law identified for consideration.

AJAY KUMAR H (STUDENT) VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9201/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition challenging the cancellation of a Ph.D. admission in Plant Genetic Resources at IARI was dismissed. The petitioner, with a Master's in Genetics and Plant Breeding, did not meet the eligibility criteria, which required a Master's in "Plant Genetic Resources/Botany/Agricultural Botany." Genetics and Plant Breeding and Agricultural Botany are considered distinct disciplines. The eligibility criteria had changed between AICE 2020 and AICE 2022 exams, excluding Genetics and Plant Breeding as acceptable qualifications. The specific wording of the eligibility requirements could not be altered to accommodate the petitioner.

AJAY VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7349/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The cut-off date of 10 April 2024 for determining age eligibility of dependent male "Ward of IP" for ESIC reservation quota is not arbitrary. The decision to set cut-off dates by executive authorities is supported by precedents, and interference is allowed only if shown to be manifestly arbitrary or unreasonable. The petitioner did not demonstrate that the cut-off date was arbitrary, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

ALOK DEVELOPERS PVT LTD VS MISS JASVINDER KAUR @ ALIAS PINKY [OMI-54/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dispute between Alok Developers Pvt. Ltd. and Jasvinder Kaur has been referred to arbitration, with a disagreement on the incorporation of the arbitration clause from an earlier General Agreement into a Supplementary Agreement. The issue of arbitrability will be examined by the arbitral tribunal. A former High Court judge has been appointed as the sole arbitrator, and administration will be through the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. The petitioner's application for interim relief will be treated under Section 17 of the Arbitration Act, with the previous interim order maintained until the arbitral tribunal issues further directions. All arguments regarding the arbitrability of the dispute will be preserved for the arbitral tribunal's consideration.

AMBUJ HOTEL AND REAL ESTATE PVT LTD VS MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS AND ANR. [ARB.P.-1338/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dispute between Ambuj Hotel and Real Estate Pvt Ltd and the Ministry of Railways and IRCTC regarding catering services on the Telangana Express will go to arbitration. The petitioner claims that changes in train timings post-COVID-19 have led to reduced meal service and revenue loss. The respondents assert that the matter falls under the Master License Agreement with an exclusive jurisdiction clause, while the petitioner argues it relates to the Tripartite Agreement without such a clause. The arbitrator will decide the jurisdictional issue, with proceedings to be held under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

AMIT GUPTA VS ANUPAM HOTELIERS LTD [TR.P.(C.)-69/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The case of Amit Gupta v. Anupam Hotilers Ltd has been transferred from the Central District and Sessions Judge to the West District and Sessions Judge in Tis Hazari Courts, New Delhi. The transfer occurred because the Central District Judge chose to recuse himself for personal reasons, and both parties consented to the new assignment.

ANAND GUPTA & ANR. VS M/S. ALMOND INFRABUILD PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-148/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The settlement agreement between the parties is enforceable, and the order disposing of the earlier Section 9 petition is executable like a decree. The respondents' obligations to make payments are independent of the sale of the apartment, as stated in the settlement agreement. Since the respondents did not pay the settled amount and clear the bank loan on time, they are jointly and severally liable for the settled amount and the entire loan amount paid/payable by the petitioners, along with 18% interest per annum from the date of the buyers agreement. The respondents must deposit the total amounts due within two weeks; otherwise, certain properties will be attached to recover the dues. This reasoning applies to all connected petitions with identical settlement agreements.

ANAND KUMAR RAI VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-316/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The University of Delhi has the obligation under Ordinance VI to assign a supervisor for a PhD student and cannot require the student to find their own supervisor for reinstatement. The University must take action within four weeks to locate a suitable supervisor for the petitioner's PhD work, as failure to do so without valid reasons is unjustifiable.

ANGOORI DEVI VS JAGDISH [RSA-227/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The second appeal by Angoori Devi was dismissed due to her failure to prove her title over the suit property based on a will executed by her father-in-law, Karan Singh. She did not present the necessary attesting witnesses to the will as required by the Indian Succession Act and the Evidence Act, and her application to introduce additional evidence was insufficient. No substantial question of law arose, affirming the correctness of the lower courts' decisions to dismiss her suit.

ANJALI PANDEY VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5194/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The principle of carrying forward unfilled EWS/DG category vacancies from one year to the next is legally valid. However, the respondent school admitted EWS/DG students equal to 25% of general category admissions each year, leaving no unfilled vacancies. The school had challenged the DOE's directions regarding filling EWS/DG seats and received a waiver from filling backlog seats. Admission of the petitioner's child could not be granted based on sympathy, as there was no legal obligation on the school. The child was permitted to continue studying at the school for the current academic year and will transfer to a nearby school for the next year, with the DOE covering the fees.

ANJALI PANDEY VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5194/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The interpretation of "strength" under Section 12(1)(c) of the Right to Education (RTE) Act refers to the actual number of general category students admitted, rather than the declared capacity of the class. The argument that this interpretation had not been previously discussed or contradicted by a coordinate bench was rejected. Interpreting "strength" as declared capacity would result in a situation requiring schools to admit more EWS/DG students than general category students, which is inconsistent with the intent of the RTE Act.

ANKIT KUMAR THROUGH HIS FATHER SHYAM SUNDAR KUMAR VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5523/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, shortlisted by the Directorate of Education for admission as an Economically Weaker Section student for the 2023-2024 academic year, was denied admission by the school. As the academic year has concluded, relief cannot be granted. The petitioner falls into a category that requires no interim orders, resulting in the allotted seat being carried forward to Class I for the 2024-2025 academic year, available to all EWS applicants. The petitioner may apply afresh for admission to Class I in the 2024-2025 academic year, which will be considered on its own merits.

ANKIT MISHRA & ANR. VS SANTOSH SHARMA & ORS. [EX.F.A.-42/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appellants were validly discharged from execution proceedings concerning a temple located on private land, which was determined to be a private temple rather than a public one. There was no evidence to support that the temple had gained public status over time, despite occasional public worship. The appellants lacked standing to file objections under Section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure as they were not parties to the original suit. The appeal was dismissed, and compensatory costs were awarded to the decree-holder due to the objections being seen as an obstruction to the decree's execution.

ANURAG VS INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-300/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's complaint about the non-release of his B.Sc. result and mark-sheet was addressed, with IGNOU stating that the result has been declared, and the original mark-sheet and provisional degree were sent to the petitioner. The petitioner's counsel claimed only a copy was received, while IGNOU's counsel suggested that the petitioner could collect the originals from their office or receive certified copies if the originals had already been sent. The matter was concluded with these arrangements.

APEEJAY SCHOOL, SHEIKH SARAI VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-6747/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner school's application for general exemption from admitting EWS/DG/CWSN category students in the same proportion as general category admissions was not consistent with the Rameshwar Jha judgment. Exemption can only be sought on a case-by-case basis within a week of admitting an EWS/DG/CWSN student. The petitioner is permitted to seek individual exemptions and to challenge the Directorate of Education's decision regarding a prior representation.

APEX BUILDSYS LTD. VS SHAKTI PUMP INDIA LTD. [OMMC-260/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The mandate of an arbitrator can be extended even after its expiration, following the ruling in Tata Sons Pvt Ltd v Siva Industries and Holdings Ltd. An arbitrator's mandate is not considered terminated due to implied abandonment in the absence of an express withdrawal, as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. In proceedings under Section 29A(4), the focus is solely on whether the mandate has expired and if there is sufficient cause for extension, without regard to the conduct of the arbitration proceedings.

APOORVA Y K VS SOUTH ASIAN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-3667/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition filed by a student against her expulsion from South Asian University (SAU) is maintainable, as SAU provides education, a fundamental right. The expulsion procedure violated the Proctorial Committee Rules and Regulations and principles of natural justice by denying the student the opportunity to be present and cross-examine witnesses. The argument that SAU is immune from writ jurisdiction under the United Nations (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947 was rejected, as the SAU Act allows the university to be sued. The expulsion orders were quashed.

APPOLO HANDLOOM MANUFACTURING CO-OP. SOCIETY LTD. VS ALL INDIA HANDLOOM FABRICS SOCIETY AND ORS. [ARB.P.-1261/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Under Section 84 of the Multi-State Cooperative Societies Act, 2002, the Central Registrar has the authority to appoint a substitute arbitrator following the rules applicable to the appointment of the original arbitrator. The Central Registrar is required to appoint the substitute arbitrator within two weeks and communicate the details to the involved parties. The newly appointed arbitrator must also engage with the parties regarding the arbitral proceedings.

ARCHANA AGGARWAL & ANR VS D.D.A. [RFA-166/2007]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is required to convert the appellants' leasehold property at AG-32, Shalimar Bagh, New Delhi to freehold within 2 weeks. The conversion process cannot be delayed due to new issues regarding misuser charges. The DDA retains the right to recover any such charges legally, and the appellants can challenge any related decisions. An earlier order dismissing the appellants' suit for conversion has been quashed.

ARYA TRADING LIMITED VS HALA KAMEL ZABAL & ORS [OMC-254/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appointment of the arbitrator by the High Court instead of the Supreme Court, as outlined in Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, does not invalidate the arbitral award. Section 11(6) is considered a derogable provision, and the petitioners' failure to object to the appointment before the arbitral tribunal leads to a deemed waiver of their right to challenge the award on this basis. Furthermore, since the appointment adhered to the arbitration agreement between the parties, the award cannot be contested under Section 34(2)(a)(v) of the Act. Multiple petitions challenged the same arbitral award in this matter.

ASIAN PRIVATE ITI VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING [W.P.(C)-7977/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The email communication dated 22 May 2024, which rejected the petitioner's request for affiliation in the Electrician trade, did not comply with natural justice principles. The rejection was based on a previously unraised ground concerning the lack of an NOC from the State Directorate, and the petitioner was not given a personal hearing despite a prior directive for reconsideration. The Directorate General of Training must treat the email as a show cause notice, allow the petitioner to respond within 2 weeks, and provide a personal hearing within 1 week after receiving the response. A de novo decision is required within 2 weeks following the hearing, with communication of the outcome to the petitioner. The petitioner retains the right to seek further legal remedy if dissatisfied with the final decision.

ASSOCIATION OF MD PHYSICIANS & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9028/2020]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by the Association of MD Physicians against conditions in the 2020 and 2021 Foreign Medical Graduate Exam Screening Test bulletins was dismissed as infructuous due to the passage of time. A request for a writ of mandamus to prevent similar conditions in future bulletins was denied, as the content of future bulletins cannot be presumed. The petitioners may challenge any unsustainable conditions in future bulletins as per the law.

ATHIRA S. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10369/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's B.Sc. in Physics degree qualifies as a "related program" under the admission criteria for the M.Des. course at the Footwear Design & Development Institute (FDDI). The admission criteria were interpreted broadly in favor of the student. An additional requirement for a "Graduation degree related to design," not part of the original criteria, was deemed improper and quashed. The FDDI is to release the petitioner's degree.

AUDERTEC SOLUTIONS LLP VS CONTROLLER GENERAL OF PATENTS, DESIGNS AND TRADE MARKS & ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-3/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The subject patent lacks an inventive step over the prior art D-2 patent, which comprehensively covers the claimed features of the subject patent. A person skilled in the art could arrive at the subject patent using the teachings in D-2 without requiring an inventive step. The rejection of the subject patent application by the Assistant Controller is upheld.

AXIS FINANCE LIMITED VS ABHIJIT DATTATRAYA DHVALE [ARB.P.-1040/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

In a batch of petitions under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, a sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between the parties. Only the existence of an arbitration agreement and the timely filing of the petition were relevant for jurisdiction. Objections regarding the loans being tied to criminal proceedings and alleged fraudulent signatures on loan documents were deemed irrelevant at this stage. Questions of fact and law were left for the arbitrator to decide without any opinion on maintainability or merits.

AYESHA SANKHLA (THROUGH GUARDIAN KAPIL KUMAR SANKHALA) VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5870/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition by a Scheduled Caste student for admission to Class II in the 2024-2025 academic year was dismissed. The Right to Education (RTE) Act granted the student a right to admission only for the specific academic year and entry-level class determined by a computerized draw of lots. The private unaided school was obligated under the RTE Act to admit 25% of its Nursery/Pre-School class from the Economically Weaker Section or Disadvantaged Group, which did not apply to classes beyond the entry level.

B.K. COLLEGE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-11210/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order withdrawing recognition from the petitioner institution was found to be unjustified and contrary to law. The withdrawal was based on deficiencies in new premises that the petitioner had not yet moved to, and the appellate authority's decision was based on an incorrect assumption that the petitioner was operating from those premises. Both the withdrawal and appellate orders were quashed, with a directive for inspection of the new premises and a requirement to follow legal procedures and principles of natural justice.

BABY AFIA NOOR VS MAHARAJA AGARSEN ADARSH VIDYALAYA SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9386/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The school was required to admit the petitioner as an EWS student after her selection in the computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education. The school's argument regarding a lower number of general category admissions was rejected, as it did not seek an exemption or report an error to the DoE. The petitioner's provisional admission was regularized, and she was to receive all entitlements available to EWS students under the law.

BABY ANANYA EKKA VS THE INDIAN SCHOOL SECOND SHIFT & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9431/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Provisional admission of Baby Ananya Ekka to Class Nursery/Pre-School at The Indian School Second Shift for the academic year 2023-2024 is regularized based on a previous interim order.

BABY ANGEL VS SACHDEVA PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2124/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent school must grant admission to the petitioner, a 7-year-old EWS student, as she was allocated a seat through the computerized draw conducted by the Directorate of Education under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. The school did not seek exemption or point out any error in the allocation of EWS seats, providing no justification for denying admission. The petitioner is to be admitted to Class III and receive all facilities available to EWS students.

BABY DEVANSHI JAISAWAR VS AADHARSHILA VIDYAPEETH & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13354/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A student from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS) was shortlisted for admission to a school through a computerized draw of lots. However, the school is not obligated to accommodate the student in Class II for the 2024-2025 academic year, as the benefit from the draw only applies until the end of the 2023-2024 academic year. The petition was dismissed, but the student may apply for admission as an EWS candidate for the next academic year.

BABY GAVYA VS MAXFORT SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2845/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Baby Gavya, from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS), was entitled to admission in Nursery/Pre-school at Respondent 1 school after being shortlisted through a computerized draw by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The school failed to grant her admission. The previous provisional admission order was made final, requiring Respondent 1 school to admit Baby Gavya and provide all amenities as per the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009.

BABY MANNAT VS JAGANNATH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-572/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Baby Mannat is entitled to admission in Class I for the 2023-2024 academic year under the Economically Weaker Section (EWS) quota, based on a computerized draw of lots by the Directorate of Education. Jagannath International School did not oppose the petition. The school is directed to admit Baby Mannat in Class II for the 2024-2025 academic year as an EWS student and provide all facilities available to EWS students.

BABY SAMAYRA & ORS. VS DARBARI LAL DAV MODEL SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14013/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Petitioners 1, 4, and 5, provisionally admitted to the Nursery/Pre-school class, are entitled to permanent admission and continuation of education as EWS students with all associated amenities. Petitioners 2 and 3, who applied for admission to the KG/Pre-primary class but did not receive provisional admission, are not eligible for the 2023-2024 academic year. Their unfilled seats will be included in the common pool for carry forward seats for Class I in the 2024-2025 academic year, allowing them to apply alongside other EWS students.

BABY YADVI VS VISHAL BHARTI PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3022/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent school must admit the petitioner, a child from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS), to the KG/Pre-primary class based on the computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The school failed to contest the seat matrix uploaded by the DoE within the designated timeframe, making the draw of lots result binding. The petitioner's provisional admission is confirmed and made regular, with an obligation for the school to provide all facilities entitled to EWS students.

BALAJEE INFRATECH AND CONSTRUCTIONS PVT LTD VS THE CHIEF ENGINEER NATIONAL HIGHWAY P W PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA [ARB.P.-847/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Balajee Infratech and Constructions Pvt Ltd is entitled to invoke arbitration for disputes with the Chief Engineer of the National Highway Public Works Department, Government of Maharashtra, after following the required contractual dispute resolution protocol without success. The requirement for arbitration under the rules of the Society for Affordable Redressal of Disputes (SAROD) was deemed inapplicable to Balajee, as it is not a member. A retired Supreme Court judge has been appointed as the sole arbitrator for disputes amounting to approximately R.S. 117 crores, with all issues of fact and law remaining open for consideration in the arbitration.

BALBIR CHAND VS JAWAHAR LAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-759/2012]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order expelling Balbir Chand from Jawaharlal Nehru University was quashed due to violations of natural justice and fair play in the proctorial inquiry. JNU failed to follow the correct procedures outlined in its statutes and showed a pre-determined intent to expel Chand. He is to be allowed to complete his MCA course without any prejudice related to the writ petition.

BALWAN SINGH AND ANOTHER VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [RSA-43/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appeal by Balwan Singh and another was dismissed due to a delay of 3121 days in refiling after it was returned with defects. The provided explanation regarding the need for document retyping and translation was deemed unacceptable. No grounds were found to condone the delay, leading to the dismissal of both the application for delay condonation and the appeal.

BASANTI AND ORS VS PRABHU DAYAL [TR.P.(C.)-80/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The transfer petition filed by Basanti and others to move Execution Petition 316/2021 from the Additional District Judge, East District, to the Additional District Judge, South District, was dismissed. There was no justification for clubbing the proceedings or having them heard by one court, as no likelihood of conflicting decisions existed. The petitioner was advised that the remedy lies elsewhere, with no case made for the transfer of the Execution Petition.

BHIM RAJ & ANR. VS SOUTH ASIAN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-1283/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The expulsion orders against the petitioners from South Asian University were quashed due to a violation of natural justice. The university did not provide the petitioners with a proper opportunity to be heard or issue a show cause notice before expulsion. Necessary consequential reliefs were mandated for the petitioners.

BHUVANESHWARI SUBRAMANIAN VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSSION [W.P.(C)-10360/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The University Grants Commission (UGC) disqualified the petitioner from the Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) based on a misunderstanding of her eligibility, erroneously assuming she applied using her master's degree in Economics instead of her M.Phil. in Planning and Development. The provision cited by the UGC to justify the disqualification was determined to be advisory rather than mandatory. The UGC's order was quashed, and they were instructed to release the petitioner's financial entitlement under the JRF within four weeks.

BPT INFRA PROJECT PVT. LTD. VS INDRAPRASTHA ICE AND COLD STORAGE PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (E) (COMM.)-20/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Arbitral Tribunal's order to summon two witnesses under Section 27(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, does not require detailed reasoning, provided it shows a conscious view on the relevance of the witnesses' evidence. The order and the supporting petition fulfilled the requirements of the section. The two witnesses are directed to appear before the Arbitral Tribunal on the scheduled date.

BRINDA NAVET VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5579/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Testing Agency (NTA) agreed to correct the petitioner's final score in the Common University Entrance Test (CUET-PG) by adding 5 marks for Question 47. The grievance was resolved, and NTA was directed to issue a fresh score sheet to the petitioner within three days.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS DEEPAK KUMAR PROPRIETOR OF M/S GOLDEN EAGLE AND ANR. [ARB.P.-936/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Cars 24 Financial Services Private Limited is entitled to have disputes referred to arbitration based on the arbitration clauses in the Credit Facility Agreements. A common arbitrator, Mr. G S Pannu, was appointed to resolve the disputes, which are similar except for the amounts involved. All questions of fact and law remain for the arbitrator to address, who is also directed to file the necessary disclosure under Section 12(2) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS MOHAMMED SUHAID SAIYUF & ANR. [ARB.P.-866/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Three petitions by Cars 24 Financial Services Private Limited under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, address disputes from Credit Facility Agreements with identical arbitration clauses. A common arbitrator, Mr. G S Pannu, was appointed to resolve these disputes, with all questions of fact and law open for consideration in the arbitration, as the respondents did not appear or submit replies.

CELSIUS HEALTHCARE PVT LTD VS DEEPTI GAMBHIR PROPRIETOR OF S P DISTRIBUTORS [ARB.P.-1012/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between the parties are to be referred to arbitration due to the existence of a valid arbitration agreement. The term "dispute" is deemed sufficient, even without a monetary claim. The disputes will be arbitrated under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), which is tasked with appointing a common arbitrator for the two petitions that involve identical facts and arbitration clauses. All issues related to fact and law, including arbitrability, are to be decided by the appointed arbitrator.

CG TOLLWAY LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-601/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A batch of petitions under Section 29A(4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in an extension of the arbitral tribunal's mandate by six months until 23 February 2025. A dispute regarding the expiry of the mandate was noted, but no factual analysis was conducted. The mandate will be treated as continuing, even if it expired prior to this decision, without any opinion on the applications' content.

CHAND RAM PUBLIC SCHOOL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6607/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Withdrawal of a school's affiliation is considered an extreme measure that requires strict adherence to natural justice principles, including the right to be heard. The show cause notice issued by CBSE did not indicate an intention to withdraw affiliation, and the subsequent withdrawal order and dismissal of the appeal occurred without a hearing for the school. Consequently, the withdrawal order and the dismissal of the appeal were quashed, restoring the school's provisional affiliation, while allowing potential action against the school in accordance with legal provisions.

CHHAVI VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-7284/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition challenging the University of Delhi's restriction on attempting a maximum of four papers in the "Second Centenary Chance" was dismissed. The "Centenary Chances" are not guaranteed rights, but rather privileges with terms set by the university. The petitioner failed to fully utilize the opportunities in the "First Centenary Chance." The limit imposed in the "Second Centenary Chance" was deemed a legitimate exercise of the university's discretion and not arbitrary.

CLN ENERGY PVT. LTD. (FORMERLY JLNPHENIX ENERGY PVT. LTD.) VS E ASHWA AUTOMOTIVE PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-508/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitration clause in the Master Sale Purchase Agreement (MSPA) between CLN Energy Pvt. Ltd. and E Ashwa Automotive Private Limited is valid, and the disputes are deemed arbitrable. An arbitrator, Mr. Abhay Sharan Singh, Advocate, has been appointed to resolve the disputes under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

COLLEGE OF ADVANCE STUDIES (D.EL.ED) VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-826/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) decision to return all pending applications for recognition of teacher training institutions, in line with the National Education Policy 2020, is legally valid. This policy promotes the transition from standalone teacher training institutions to multidisciplinary institutions offering integrated teacher education programs. The NCTE acted within its authority under Section 12(c) of the NCTE Act, not required to process applications that do not align with new policy changes. The decision does not violate the petitioners' fundamental rights under Article 19(1)(g) of the Constitution, as reasonable restrictions in public interest are allowed under Article 19(6). The NCTE, a statutory body with broad powers, acted appropriately to uphold standards and quality in teacher education.

DAHUA TECHNOLOGY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED, VS LNM TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1208/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The disputes between the parties, amounting to ₹ 50-60 Lakhs, were referred to arbitration based on the arbitration clause in the Service Agreement. Mr. Tushar Jarwal, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The respondent did not object to the referral, and all questions of fact and law remain open for consideration by the arbitrator.

DALIP SINGH VS JASWANT RAI GARG [ARB.P.-963/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Dalip Singh's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was dismissed as premature. The parties are required to attempt an amicable resolution of the dispute within 21 days, following the pre-arbitration protocol outlined in Clause 22 of the Consultancy and Retainership Agreement, unless emergent circumstances exist, which were not demonstrated in this case. The petitioner is permitted to proceed according to the protocol before filing a new petition.

DASHRATH PRASAD RAMNANDAN PANDEY COLLEGE OF PHARMACY VS PHARMACY COUNCIL OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5180/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's application for the B. Pharm course was recognized as a request for initial approval, despite being mistakenly labeled as an extension request. This error was acknowledged, and the Pharmacy Council of India was directed to process the application for initial approval promptly. The petitioner must pay any differential fees as agreed by their counsel.

DATA TECHNOSYS ENGINEERS PVT LTD VS RAIL VIKAS NIGAM LIMITED [ARB.P.-1020/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Data Technosys Engineers Pvt Ltd complied with the pre-arbitration conciliation clause in the Project Management Consultancy Agreement with Rail Vikas Nigam Limited. The respondent's claims of non-compliance were dismissed as their communications did not represent a genuine effort for resolution. The objection regarding non-arbitrability due to claims exceeding 20% of the contract price was rejected, as the contract price was not definitively fixed, placing the determination with the Arbitral Tribunal. The requirement for the Arbitrator to meet PMCA qualifications was also dismissed due to the absence of an appointed Arbitrator under the contractual procedure. Mr. Ram Chander Singh Bhadoria was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to address the disputes. All questions of fact and law are open for the Arbitrator's determination.

DAVNEET KAUR VS JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2612/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition challenging non-admission to the M.Ed. course at Jamia Millia Islamia University was dismissed. The petitioner's B.Ed. degree in Special Education with a specialization in mental retardation did not meet the eligibility criteria, which required a B.Ed. with specialization in visual impairment or learning disabilities. The argument equating mental retardation with learning disabilities was rejected based on definitions in the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, and the syllabi from the Rehabilitation Council of India. Additionally, the postgraduate diploma cited by the petitioner was from an unrecognized institute, confirming the absence of requisite qualifications for admission.

DEEPA MULWANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-387/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) justified treating "acceleration" as the correct answer to a question in the Central Teacher Eligibility Test (CTET), despite the petitioner selecting "enrichment." The wording of the question specifically referred to an approach that moves gifted children through the curriculum at an unusually rapid pace, aligning with the concept of "acceleration" as confirmed by expert opinion. The writ petition challenging the CBSE's answer key was dismissed.

DEEPAK RANA VS THE PRINCIPAL VSPK INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7875/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioners' grievances were addressed as the respondent school agreed to convert their provisional admissions into regular and permanent ones and to educate them as EWS/DG candidates in accordance with the law. The school's proactive approach in resolving the matter was acknowledged, leading to the conclusion of the writ petitions and related applications.

DELHI COLLEGE OF SPECIAL EDUCATION VS REHABILITATION COUNCIL OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5398/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Rehabilitation Council of India's (RCI) decision to return applications for new diploma and degree-level special education courses for the 2024-25 academic session was determined to be legally unsustainable. The RCI had previously issued circulars inviting proposals for these courses and the petitioners invested resources based on this representation. The return of applications, based solely on a letter from the Minister of Social Justice and Empowerment, lacked independent consideration and violated principles of promissory estoppel. Consequently, the RCI could not revoke its prior representation without a justifiable public interest. The challenge to the RCI's decision on enhancing seats in existing special education institutions was dismissed due to lack of standing by the petitioners.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS SHEELA DEVI AND ORS [RSA-7/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appeal filed by the Delhi Development Authority was dismissed due to a delay of nearly four years in filing. Explanations for the delay, citing the prolonged circulation of the file among departments and lawyers, were deemed unsatisfactory. Allowing such a lengthy delay would undermine the statute of limitations, and the approach of unnecessarily extending the process before filing appeals was criticized. The application to condone the delay was denied, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

DELHI TAMIL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION VS DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15276/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Delhi Tamil Education Association (DTEA), an aided linguistic minority institution, has the right under Article 30(1) of the Constitution to appoint principals and teachers in its schools without needing prior approval from the Directorate of Education (DoE). The rejection of DTEA's request to fill vacant posts due to the absence of managing committees was incorrect, resulting in the nullification of the DoE's order.

DELHIVERY LIMITED VS KARE ENTERPRISE PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-121/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Delhivery Limited attempted to resolve disputes with Kare Enterprise Private Limited before initiating arbitration under the Delivery Services Agreements. The objection regarding the lack of exhaustion of pre-arbitral protocols was rejected, referencing relevant Supreme Court rulings. Additionally, the claim that the Section 21 notice was defective was dismissed, as the review only required verification of the arbitration agreement's existence and the timeliness of the petition. Specific issues raised can be addressed by the appointed arbitrator.

DEVKI NANDAN SRIVASTAVA & ANR. VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU NATIONAL YOUTH CENTRE, THROUGH SH. PRAVEEN SINGH ARON ITS GENERAL DIRECTOR AND NATLONAL GENERAL SECRETARY & ORS. [TR.P.(C.)-66/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The transfer petition filed by Devki Nandan Srivastava and another was granted, moving civil suit CS 164/2021 from Patiala House Courts to Tis Hazari Courts. A related civil suit, CS 57975/2016, involving the same parties and property was already pending at Tis Hazari Courts. The absence of objections from the respondents contributed to the decision to allow the transfer.

DHAN RAJ DHWAN (AS GUARDIAN OF DEVANSH DHAWAN) VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1066/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's request for admission to Class I was denied because the petitioner was shortlisted only for Nursery/Pre-School in the 2022-2023 academic year through a computerized draw of lots. The benefit of being an EWS candidate for admission expires at the end of the academic year of the draw, requiring the petitioner to compete with other EWS candidates for future admissions. The petitioner retains the right to apply for Class I admission in the 2024-2025 academic year under the EWS/freeship category, following the prescribed procedure.

DINESH CAND VS COUNCIL OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9133/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner was granted lectureship based on performance in the Joint CSIR-UGC Test, despite entering incorrect details in the application form. Emphasizing substantial justice over technicalities, it was established that the petitioner met the eligibility criteria by completing his M.Sc. degree within the required two-year period. The CSIR was directed to issue the necessary certificate for the lectureship.

DIRECTOR GENERAL PROJECT VARSHA VS NAVAYUGA VAN OORD JV [ARB. A. (COMM.)-15/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Letters of invocation dated 6 July 2022, issued by the Director General Project Varsha to the banks for invoking the bank guarantees provided by Navayuga-Van OORD JV, complied with the terms of the guarantees. The argument from Navayuga-Van OORD JV regarding non-compliance lacked merit. Additionally, the determination of special equities by the arbitral tribunal to justify an injunction against the invocation was not supported by material evidence and was deemed presumptive. The absence of established irretrievable injustice weakened the claim for special equities, leading to the annulment of the injunction on invoking the bank guarantees.

DIVYAN SINGH THROUGH HIS FATHER AJEET SINGH VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13316/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition for admission to Class III in a respondent school for the 2023-2024 academic year was dismissed. The petitioner's right to admission as a Disadvantaged Group (DG) category candidate was limited to the allotment made by the Directorate of Education (DoE) for the 2022-2023 year, and this right did not extend to the subsequent year. Previous rulings established that EWS or DG category candidates' rights are confined to specific allotments. The petitioner can still apply for admission as an EWS candidate in the freeship category for the upcoming academic year, which will be considered by the DoE.

DNYANESHWAR HIRALAL PHUSE VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14717/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The validity of Clauses 4.2.2, 6.6, and 9.7 of the Information Bulletin for the final DNB (Broad Speciality) theory and final examinations was upheld. The policies regarding the non-provision of grace marks in the practical examination, absence of re-evaluation or re-checking of answer sheets, and confidentiality of the OSCE component were deemed reasonable and within the authorities' discretion. These provisions were found not to violate the Constitution, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

DOBARIYA MOHIT RAMNIKAL VS DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4100/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The rejection of the petitioner's request to recognize the M.Arch degree from the University of Maryland as a valid architectural qualification in India is unsustainable in law. The reasons given, regarding the accreditation by NAAB rather than NCARB and the comparison to the 5-year B.Arch degree in India, lack legal basis. The decision has been quashed, and the Central Government is directed to recognize the M.Arch degree, allowing the petitioner to practice as an architect.

DOON VALLEY INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6277/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) withdrew recognition from Doon Valley Institute of Education for conducting a B.Ed. course, but this decision was unsustainable. The NCTE can only withdraw recognition if there is a violation of the NCTE Act or its regulations. The change of management structure from a registered society to a private limited company was not prohibited by the NCTE regulations. An internal communication used by the NCTE to justify the withdrawal was not an official rule or order. Recognition was granted to the institution itself, not the managing body, and the change in management did not warrant the withdrawal. Consequently, the NCTE's withdrawal order and the appellate order were quashed, and the recognition was to be restored.

DR B R AMBEDKAR INSTITUTE OF DENTAL SCIENCE AND HOSPITAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4058/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The High Court of Delhi dismissed the writ petition from the Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Institute of Dental Science and Hospital, upholding the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare's decision to withdraw the institution's recognition and direct its closure. The process followed was deemed proper, providing the petitioner opportunities to address deficiencies identified by the Dental Council of India during inspections. The assessment from the expert teams was accepted, with no justification for interference unless the decision was completely capricious or legally unsustainable. The importance of maintaining standards in medical education was emphasized, asserting that interventions are rare when expert bodies indicate inadequate facilities.

DR PRASUNA CHILUKA VS NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATIONS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15345/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Board of Examinations (NBE) cancelled a petitioner's candidature for the DrNB program in Gastroenterology based on her exceeding the allowable leave limit of 30 days per year, having taken 486 days. The cancellation was deemed unjust as the NBE did not exercise its discretion appropriately, as the Leave Rules indicated that unauthorized absence over 7 days "may" lead to action, rather than mandate automatic cancellation. The NBE had not addressed the petitioner's leave applications and had treated her candidature as legitimate until the last moment, creating a reasonable belief that her leave had been regularized. Additionally, the petitioner was not given an opportunity to be heard prior to the decision, violating principles of natural justice. Given her medical condition, the near-completion of her training, and the NBE's conduct, the cancellation of her candidature was quashed, allowing her to complete the DrNB program.

DR RAHUL BHAYANA VS DR ROHIT BHAYANA & ANR. [O.M.P.(I)-5/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An arbitrator has been appointed to resolve disputes between Dr. Rahul Bhayana and Dr. Rohit Bhayana regarding the allotment of Apartment No. CGL-034 and Parking Space No. PL 1014 in the "Capital Greens" project. The dispute will be addressed under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, with a maintenance of status quo on the allotment of the disputed apartment and parking space until further orders from the arbitral tribunal.

DR SRI KIRUBA NANDINI M VS NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5633/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Board of Examination in Medical Sciences (NBEMS) cancelled the petitioner's candidature for the DNB program due to a 297-day absence without prior approval. The petitioner was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia and underwent treatment, making it impossible to apply for leave. The cancellation order was quashed, the petitioner's DNB candidature was restored, and she was permitted to sit for the upcoming DNB final theory examinations. NBEMS failed to adhere to principles of natural justice by not issuing a proper show cause notice before the cancellation.

DR. FAHED AHMED KHAN VS NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11143/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Board of Examination (NBE) did not properly consider the petitioner's request to rejoin DNB training after a prolonged absence due to medical issues and the death of his mother. The NBE based its decision solely on the length of the unauthorized absence without properly evaluating the circumstances under its own leave rules, which allow for discretion in such cases. This rejection was deemed inequitable given the petitioner's valid reasons for absence, leading to a directive for the NBE to permit the petitioner to rejoin and complete the DNB training.

DR. OMPAL SHOKEEN VS THE INDIAN LAW INSTITUTE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4533/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by a judicial officer to change the annual PGDCLM examination timings from 2-5 pm to 6-9 pm was dismissed. The officer lacked a legally enforceable right to demand this change for personal convenience, as it would create practical difficulties for conducting the examination. Permission had already been granted for leave on the examination dates, resolving the conflict with his judicial duties. The petition was deemed misconceived.

DR. RAHUL BHAYANA VS DR. ROHIT BHAYANA & ANR. [ARB.P.-809/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An examination under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 focuses solely on the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement. Issues of arbitrability, fraud, or time-barred claims are to be resolved by the arbitral tribunal. An arbitration agreement exists between the petitioner, Respondent 1, and Respondent 2, leading to the appointment of an arbitrator for the dispute.

DR. S.P. GUPTA VS KIRORI MAL COLLEGE & ORS. [O.M.P. (COMM)-143/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The constitution of the Appeal Committee to address the petitioner's appeal against termination violated Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, due to the lack of an express written waiver from the petitioner. The unilaterally constituted committee by the University's Chancellor, without the petitioner's consent, rendered the award a nullity ab initio.

DR. SUNIL GAUTAM AND ORS. VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-11601/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition for admission to the post-graduate (MD/MS) Ayurveda courses at the University of Delhi was dismissed due to the petitioners approaching after the cut-off date for admissions set by AIAPGET-2018. Adherence to prescribed schedules and deadlines for admissions was emphasized, and a direction was given to the respondent college to explain a discrepancy in the attendance sheet submitted, although it was not essential for the outcome of the petition.

DR. VAISHNAVI VERMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-953/2020]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Dr. Vaishnavi Verma must pay the R.S. 10 lakhs surety amount to the University of Delhi as stipulated in the surety bond she executed for admission to the postgraduate course at UCMS. Despite her circumstances, including the postponement of the AIIMS entrance exam due to Cyclone Fani, the obligation to honor the bond stands, emphasizing the importance of upholding such agreements. The writ petition was dismissed.

DYANSH THROUGH HIS MOTHER REENA VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12838/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Directorate of Education's computerized draw of lots for admissions is binding on schools if no discrepancies are raised within the stipulated timeframe. The respondent school must regularize the provisional admissions for children from the Economically Weaker Sections and Disadvantaged Group categories and provide the necessary facilities for these students.

EMCO LIMITED VS DELHI TRANSCO LIMITED [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-179/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

EMCO Limited's petition for an extension of the mandate of a 3-member Arbitral Tribunal was dismissed. The Tribunal had previously stated that its mandate expired on 11 April 2019 due to the lapse of the time limit under Section 29A(1) of the Arbitration Act, and no extension was sought by either party. The Tribunal cannot be compelled to continue arbitration, and parties must re-initiate proceedings according to the applicable rules unless they request the previous Tribunal to continue, which is at the discretion of the Tribunal members.

EMCO LIMITED VS DELHI TRANSCO LIMITED [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-638/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The mandate of the arbitral tribunal was not terminated, as the petitioner was allowed to file a rejoinder, which is considered part of the "pleadings" under Section 29A(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Even if the mandate were deemed terminated, grounds existed to extend it for one year due to the petitioner's diligence and the importance of resolving the dispute on its merits. The extension allows the arbitral tribunal to continue proceedings from the current stage.

EMCO LIMITED VS DELHI TRANSCO LIMITED [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-254/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

EMCO Limited did not abandon its claims before the arbitral tribunal, and its application for an extension of the tribunal's mandate under Section 29A(4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is maintainable. The arbitral tribunal previously granted EMCO the liberty to revive proceedings, and Delhi Transco Limited appointed a substitute arbitrator, showing acceptance of the continuation of proceedings. The mandate of the three-member arbitral tribunal was extended by one year.

ESRI R AND D CENTER INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS AMBIENCE TOWERS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-1268/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The existence and validity of the arbitration agreement were examined under Section 11(6A) of the Arbitration Act, but conclusive determination of the parties involved was not possible due to mixed questions of fact requiring detailed analysis. This analysis is to be undertaken by the arbitral tribunal under the principle of kompetenz-kompetenz. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes.

EVERGREEN LAND MARK PVT. LTD. VS JOHN TINSON AND COMPANY PVT. LTD. & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-110/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dispute between the parties was settled through an agreement dated 9 August 2024, which allows the lessee to occupy the property on a month-to-month basis until lease deeds are executed and registered within 10 days. The agreement establishes revised rent amounts, escalation terms, lease duration, and consequences for rent payment default. The terms of the settlement are lawful and in order.

FAROOQUE ALAM VS THE JAWAHARLAL NEHRU NUIVERSITY (JNU) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15132/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Farooque Alam's main grievance was resolved when Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) agreed to withdraw subsequent orders modifying the original order that had initially withdrawn his rustication. JNU had originally retracted the rustication after Alam apologized and paid a fine, but later modified that decision, prompting Alam to file a writ petition. JNU's counsel confirmed that the subsequent modifications would be treated as withdrawn and the original withdrawal of rustication restored, resulting in the resolution of the petitioner's issue.

FOUR PILLARS ENTERPRISE CO. LTD VS MAHIPAL JAIN & ORS. [CS(COMM)-472/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Four Pillars Enterprises Co. Ltd. has a prima facie case of trademark infringement against Mahipal Jain and others for using the REINDEER marks and trade dress, which are confusingly similar to Four Pillars' registered DEER marks. The use of REINDEER marks for adhesive tapes is likely to cause consumer confusion. The defendants attempted to misrepresent their goods as originating from Four Pillars' Taiwan-based business. An interim injunction was granted to restrain the defendants from using the contested marks or any similar marks, rejecting their arguments about the disuse of the plaintiff's marks and the licensing agreement.

FUJIFILM INDIA PVT. LTD VS MACART EQUIPMENT PVT. LTD. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-714/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A one-year extension was granted to the arbitrator's mandate in the dispute between Fujifilm India Pvt. Ltd. and Macart Equipment Pvt. Ltd., which had expired on September 15, 2024. The respondent had no objections to the extension and was permitted to request the recall of the claimant's witnesses, to be considered by the arbitrator on its own merits.

G D GOENKA PVT LTD VS DINODIA EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-362/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Commercial Court at Siliguri has exclusive jurisdiction over arbitral proceedings and related applications after the respondent sought pre-arbitral interim relief under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The petitioner's Section 9 petition filed in Delhi was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction.

GARG BUILDERS VS HINDUSTAN PREFAB LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-467/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Garg Builders followed the pre-arbitral protocol in the General Conditions of Contract before invoking arbitration, making the disputes arbitrable. Objections from HPL regarding the scope of earlier cases and the appointment of the arbitrator were rejected. A retired High Court judge was appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes, with other objections left for resolution by the arbitral tribunal.

GAURAV KUMAR AS GUARDIAN OF KAVYANSH VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15299/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent school must admit at least 25% of students in the Nursery/Pre-School class from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS) and Disadvantaged Group (DG) category as mandated by Section 12(1)(c) of the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. The school is bound by the outcome of the computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education. The provisional admission of Kavyansh, as an EWS category student, has been regularized, and the school is directed to provide him with all necessary facilities for EWS students.

GENESIS FINANCE SERVICE CO LIMITED VS USHA BANSAL AND ANR [EX.P.-67/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The applications by the purported tenants to obstruct the auction of mortgaged properties were dismissed because they were not maintainable under Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure, as they were not filed by the decree holder or auction purchaser. The tenancy claims were deemed not bona fide due to issues with the lease deeds, including lack of registration, unusually low rent, and insufficient evidence of actual payments. The applications were viewed as an attempt to obstruct execution proceedings and were therefore dismissed.

GOOD HEALTH AGRO TECH PVT LTD VS HALDIRAM SNACKS PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-397/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The initial filing of the Section 34 petition challenging the arbitral award was deemed invalid due to the absence of the impugned arbitral award. This defect rendered the filing non-est, as established in precedent. Furthermore, the petition was submitted past the 120-day period stipulated by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, leading to its dismissal as time-barred.

GOYAL HOUSING DEVELOPRS LLP VS K. L. RATHI STEELS LIMITED [ARB.P.-22/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Allegations of fraud concerning the execution of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with an arbitration clause are to be resolved by the arbitral tribunal, not the court under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. This approach follows precedents that favor referring such issues to arbitration. An arbitrator was appointed to address the dispute, including the fraud allegations, without any opinion on the merits of the case.

GOYAL MG GASES PRIVATE LIMITED VS EDAC ENGINEERING LIMITED [ARB.P.-285/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitration clause in the delivery challans issued by the petitioner is valid, despite the lack of an arbitration clause in the purchase orders, as it meets the prima facie requirement for the existence of an arbitration agreement. An independent arbitrator has been appointed to resolve the dispute regarding an outstanding amount of ₹9,23,028 claimed by the petitioner.

HANDEEP SINGH KHARBANDA AND ORS. VS M/S T.R.E. INSTITUTE OF HOTEL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5514/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) was found to be offering distance learning programs through affiliated institutes outside Karnataka, violating the Supreme Court's judgment in Prof. Yashpal v. State of Chhattisgarh and directives from the University Grants Commission (UGC). The B.Sc. (HCM) course conducted at the T.R.E. Institute of Hotel Management, affiliated with KSOU, was deemed illegal, preventing the awarding of degrees to enrolled petitioners. KSOU and the T.R.E. Institute were directed to refund fees to the petitioners, with 75% to be refunded by the institute and 25% by the university. No orders regarding costs were issued.

HAPPY EXPORTS VS PAYU PAYMENTS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-117/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The conditions under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 are satisfied due to an existing arbitration agreement between the parties and the timely filing of the petition. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve the disputes, with all issues of fact and law remaining open for determination.

HARDEEP VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5796/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition challenging marks awarded to a student in law papers was dismissed. For subjective questions, judicial review is limited, and the examiner's discretion in marking is generally respected unless clear evidence of malpractice or arbitrariness is shown. An inadvertent error in marking one question was corrected, but the overall limited scope of review in examination marking was reaffirmed.

HARINARAYAN RAJESHWAR VIDYA VIHAR VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-9199/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The CBSE's order from 28 December 2022, which upheld the rejection of a petitioner's application for provisional affiliation, was set aside due to its lack of adequate response to the petitioner's arguments. A fresh inspection of the petitioner's premises is required, along with a new decision for the 2025-26 affiliation application. The CBSE must consider the petitioner's submissions and the inspection report, provide an opportunity for personal hearing, and will not allow further chances for the petitioner to address deficiencies.

HARISH BODH & ANR VS KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK & ANR [EX.F.A.-2/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order rejecting the appellants' objections to set aside the auction sale of a property was upheld. The objections were barred by limitation, as Section 5 of the Limitation Act does not apply to proceedings under Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure. The request for exclusion of time spent on a previous appeal was denied, as the issues were different from those in the Order XXI Rule 90 objections.

HARISH CHANDAR T AND OTHERS VS THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5137/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by 27 candidates challenging the dates of the CA Intermediate and Final Examinations in May-June 2024, which overlap with the Lok Sabha elections, was dismissed. It was noted that the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India implemented measures to avoid clashes with election dates. Arguments regarding travel difficulties and examination disturbances did not provide sufficient grounds for rescheduling. Existing rules requiring candidates to retake the entire examination if they miss a paper were not modified, with only extraordinary circumstances, such as a national lockdown, justifying potential changes to the examination schedule.

HEMICA RANI SINGH VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3356/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, an Indian citizen with an MD degree from Davao Medical School Foundation Inc. in the Philippines, is ineligible to appear for the Foreign Medical Graduate Examination (FMGE) and register as a medical practitioner in India. This is due to failure to obtain the required Eligibility Certificate prior to joining the foreign medical course, as mandated by Section 13(4B) of the Indian Medical Council Act and Regulation 4(2) of the Screening Test Regulations. Although the NMC has issued Eligibility Certificates in some cases after course completion, this practice contradicts established statutory provisions. There is a suggestion for legislative amendment to permit post-facto issuance of Eligibility Certificates in deserving cases.

HIMANSHU VS FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16532/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by Himanshu for admission to the MBA full-time program at FMS, Delhi University, under the PwD quota for the academic session 2023-25 was dismissed. Although there was one vacant seat in the PwD category after the 11th admission list, the cut-off date for admissions was 31 August 2023, and the final counselling occurred on 29 August 2023, leaving no opportunity for further admissions. The petitioner did not demonstrate any fault by the university or any breach in the admission process, which precluded the possibility of relaxing the cut-off date.

HITESH CHHABRA & ANR. VS SANDEEP CHHABRA & ORS. [OMI-348/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An arbitrator has been appointed to address disputes between the parties, and issues concerning the countersignature of cheques for vendor payments are to be referred to this arbitrator under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. This case is distinguished from the Jain Motor Car Company case, as it pertains solely to vendor payments rather than a total freeze on the firm's bank account. The appointed arbitrator is requested to resolve the applications within three weeks, following hearings from both sides.

HITESH CHHABRA & ANR. VS SANDEEP CHHABRA [ARB.P.-1107/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between the parties will be referred to arbitration as outlined in the Partnership Deeds. Mr. Romy Chacko, Senior Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator, with arbitration conducted through the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. There is no expressed opinion on the jurisdiction of the arbitrator, and issues regarding jurisdiction can be raised before the arbitral tribunal.

HONASA CONSUMER LIMITED VS RSM GENERAL TRADING LLC [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-214/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner is entitled to an injunction against the respondent's enforcement of a Dubai court decree. The respondent's filing of the suit in Dubai breached an arbitration agreement requiring disputes to be resolved in New Delhi under Indian law. The injunction mandates the respondent to withdraw execution proceedings in Dubai and deposit the damages awarded by the Dubai court with the High Court Registry, with conditions for release or return based on further actions regarding the Dubai decree.

HT MEDIA LIMITED VS BRIGHTSTAR RESTAURANTS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-464/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An extension of the mandate for the Arbitrator was granted to continue and conclude the arbitral proceedings. One respondent was proceeded against ex parte, and the dispute between the petitioner and other respondents was settled. No indication was given for separate judgments or referral to a larger bench, nor does it appear to be a batch matter.

IDEB-SUCG JV, IDEB PROJECTS PVT. LTD. VS DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION LTD [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-246/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An arbitral award granted ₹5,51,95,198 to the decree holder and ₹2,62,93,252 to the judgment debtor, resulting in a net amount of ₹2,89,01,946 payable to the decree holder. The judgment debtor's deduction from the decree holder's amount was upheld as valid. However, the decree holder was found entitled to a refund of ₹14,45,831 TDS deducted by the judgment debtor and directed to apply to the appropriate authorities for the refund.

IL AND FS ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION COMPANY LTD. VS HINDUSTAN THERMAL-EPC COMPANY PVT. LTD. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-491/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The mandate of the Arbitral Tribunal overseeing disputes between IL and FS Engineering and Construction Company Ltd. and Hindustan Thermal-EPC Company Pvt. Ltd. was extended by six months, as there was no objection from the respondent. This case is standalone and not part of a larger batch.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LIMITED VS SARA ESTATES PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-407/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Indiabulls sought interim protection under Section 9 of the Arbitration Act against Ambience, claiming a prima facie case due to substantial payments made for disputed units, which Ambience failed to execute sale deeds for. Ambience's arguments that the Agreements to Sell were merely security instruments and that a Settlement Deed granted them rights to sell the units were rejected. Indiabulls was granted interim protection, with Ambience ordered to deposit R.S. 638.07 crores paid under the Agreements to Sell within four weeks, after which restrictions on dealing with the disputed units would be lifted. The statements made were solely for the Section 9 petition and would not affect future arbitral proceedings.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS VENKATESH SRINIVASA AND ANR [ARB.P.-626/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dispute between Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd. and Venkatesh Srinivasa regarding a Loan Agreement dated 29 August 2015 is referred to arbitration due to a valid arbitration clause in the agreement. The requirements of Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were met, resulting in the appointment of Mr. R. Gowrishankar as the sole arbitrator.

INDIRA GANDHI TEACHERS TRAINING COLLEGE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5415/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Indira Gandhi Teachers Training College's writ petition concerning the recognition of 4 units of the B.Ed course was disposed of after the Appellate Committee of the NCTE rejected its appeal. The decision did not address the merits of the petition for 4 units but directed the NCTE to open its portal from May 24, 2024, to May 31, 2024, allowing the petitioner to submit a fresh application for 3 additional B.Ed units. The final determination regarding the entitlement to the extra units remains for the Eastern Regional Committee to decide based on relevant factors.

INDRAPRASTHA POWER GENERATION COMPANY LTD VS HERO SOLAR ENERGY PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB. A. (COMM.)-46/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The decision to not include the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy (MNRE) as an additional party in arbitration between Indraprastha Power Generation Company Ltd. and Hero Solar Energy Private Limited was upheld. The Arbitral Tribunal found that the MNRE did not actively participate in the contract's execution, allowing the appellant to argue that its payment liability to the respondent depended on receiving a subsidy from the MNRE, without the need for the MNRE's involvement. The criteria for adding non-signatories to an arbitration agreement were not met in this case.

J P COLLEGE OF PHARMACY VS PHARMACY COUNCIL OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-2401/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Pharmacy Council of India (PCI) cannot mandate yearly applications for the continuation of approval from institutions already authorized under Section 12 of the Pharmacy Act, 1948. Approval granted under Section 12 applies for the entire duration of the course, not annually. The introduction of yearly renewal requirements violates the statutory framework, as the Act and Education Regulations do not provide for such a condition. The PCI's need for monitoring through yearly renewal is unfounded; the Act includes mechanisms like inspections under Section 16. Approval withdrawal must follow the procedure in Section 13. Consequently, the clauses requiring annual continuation applications and yearly payment of Pharmacy Education Regulatory Charges (PERC) are invalid.

J P CONSTRUCTIONS VS TAHAL CONSULTING ENGINEERS INDIA PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1192/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputed factual issues existed concerning whether J P Constructions was a partnership or proprietorship and whether Jayaprakash C K had the authority to execute the arbitration agreement. Despite these disputes, the existence of the arbitration agreement was not contested, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve the matter. All questions regarding the identity of the contracting parties and Jayaprakash C K's authority remain for the arbitrator's consideration.

JAIPRAKASH HYUNDAI CONSORTIUM (JHA) VS SJVN LIMITED [EX.P.-319/2015]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's execution petition to implement the 2002 Dispute Review Board's recommendation is not maintainable due to being filed beyond the 12-year limitation period set by the Limitation Act. There is no provision in Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure for condonation of delay, leading to dismissal of the petition as time-barred.

JAQUAR AND COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASHIRVAD PIPES PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-670/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Jaquar & Co Pvt Ltd established a prima facie case of trademark infringement regarding its registered marks ARTIZE and TIAARA against Ashirvad Pipes Pvt Ltd, which used the marks ARTISTRY and TIARA. The marks were found to be deceptively similar both phonetically and visually, intended for similar goods, fulfilling the criteria of Sections 29(1) and 29(2)(b) of the Trade Marks Act. The defendant's defenses were dismissed, including the claim of monopolizing the prefix "ART," as exclusivity was sought over the full marks. The plaintiff's trademark registrations were considered prima facie valid. An interim injunction was granted to prevent the defendant from using the contested marks until the case is resolved.

JINDAL INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SUNCITY SHEETS PRIVATE LIMITED AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-679/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Defendants are entitled to use the name "Jindal" as part of their trademark under Section 35 of the Trade Marks Act, permitting bona fide use of one's own name. Their composite trademark "RNJ" with the sun symbol and "R N JINDAL SS TUBES" is sufficiently distinctive, does not infringe the registered "JINDAL" trademark, and does not amount to passing off. The use of "Jindal" is considered bona fide, with the added elements in their mark distinguishing it from the plaintiff's trademark.

JITENDRA KUMAR PVT. LTD. ITI & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7708/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Directorate General of Training (DGT) and authorities in Bihar must conduct a joint inspection of the petitioner's premises for affiliation of a Multi Skill Training Institute (MSTI) in an unserved block area. Despite a prior communication from DGT on May 8, 2020, the inspection had not occurred before the writ petition was filed. The respondents are required to complete the inspection and make a decision on the application within four weeks, with the petitioner retaining the right to pursue legal remedies if dissatisfied with the outcome.

JIYA THROUGH HER NEXT FRIEND AND NATURAL MOTHER MS. SUSHMA VS MAHARAJA AGRASEN MODEL SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4683/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Jiya did not have an enforceable right to admission in Class II of Maharaja Agrasen Model School for the 2023-24 academic year, as she had not applied to the Directorate of Education (DoE) for that admission. Consequently, the DoE's directive to the school regarding her admission was not legal or enforceable, given that the 2022-23 academic year had concluded when the directive was issued. The DoE was instructed to ensure Jiya is admitted as an EWS student in another school within four weeks.

JOGINDER SINGH NIJJAR AND ANR VS M/S OMAXE LTD. [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-65/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The amount awarded in an arbitral award is classified as a judgment debt and cannot be subjected to tax deduction at source (TDS) by the judgment debtor. There is no provision in the Income Tax Act permitting TDS deduction from a judgment debt. The judgment debtor's request for documents to facilitate TDS deduction was dismissed, and the decree holders' application to revive the enforcement petition was approved, requiring the judgment debtor to make payments without TDS deductions.

KALYAN JAGOTRA VS UNION OF INDIA [TR.P.(C.)-57/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The transfer petition by Kalyan Jagotra resulted in moving the commercial court case (OMP (COMM) 34/2023) from Patiala House Court to the competent Commercial Court in the Saket District Court due to the arbitration venue in Sarita Vihar falling under Saket's jurisdiction. The question of whether Indore or Delhi should hear the challenge to the arbitral award was not addressed.

KANYA GURUKUL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-2589/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Integrated Teacher Education Programme (ITEP) qualifies as a "new course" under Section 15(1) of the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) Act, 1993. The requirement for institutions offering the ITEP to pay a fee of R.S. 1.77 lakhs is valid according to Rule 9 of the NCTE Rules. There is no legal basis to categorize the ITEP as a "transition" from existing integrated programmes.

KAPIL MISHRA VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION & ANR [W.P.(C)-13376/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner is entitled to identical treatment as in the case of Abhisek Panda v. West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences, which mandated that students be allowed to complete their courses and receive degrees. Despite the NUJS website indicating that the online courses were not recognized by the UGC, the petitioner will receive the certificate for the M.A. in Business Law, considering the equities involved. NUJS is directed to release the certificate within four weeks, with the petitioner required to fulfill any necessary formalities.

KARAM BIR VS ALL INDIA COUNCIL FOR TECHNICAL EDUCATION(AICTE) [W.P.(C)-14047/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition was dismissed as the petitioner, who obtained a B.Tech degree through distance learning from 2001 to 2005 during a period suspended by the Supreme Court, failed to appear in the June 2018 remedial examination due to lack of awareness and scored below 40% in the December 2018 exam. Adequate information about the examinations was published, and there was no legal basis for granting a second chance or lowering the pass percentage.

KARTIK KUMAR(MINOR) THROUGH HIS FATHER OM PRAKASH VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14703/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Kulachi Hansraj Model School, an unaided private institution, must admit the petitioner, a child from the economically weaker section (EWS), to its pre-school class for the 2023-2024 academic year. The school indicated it had 116 EWS vacancies and the petitioner's name was selected through a computerized draw. The school's claim of insufficient general category admissions was dismissed, as it had previously requested a reduction of EWS seats to 100. The school is mandated to admit the petitioner in compliance with the Right to Education (RTE) Act.

KENISHA AGRAWAL MINOR REPRESENTED BY FATHER AND NATURAL GUARDIAN MR NITIN AGRAWAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1562/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by an Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) challenging the ineligibility of OCIs to represent India in the International Mathematical Olympiad (IMO), European Girls' Mathematical Olympiad (EGMO), and Asian Pacific Mathematics Olympiad (APMO) was dismissed. The rule was deemed a policy decision justifiable in the context of national representation, emphasizing that representation in international events is linked to citizenship. Previous judgments established that OCIs do not have the right to represent India in such events.

KHUSHI PRATAP SINGH VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2614/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's failure to upload the domicile certificate for the CBSE Class XII examination, despite applying for it beforehand, does not disqualify her from taking the exam. She had taken all necessary steps to comply with the requirement, and her oversight in uploading the certificate was not intentional. The impact on her academic career was considered, and she was permitted to participate in the exam.

KINSHUK GOEL PROP. M/S GANESHA INTERNATIONAL VS MINISTRY OF DEFENCE, GOVERNMENT OF INDIA THROUGH DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF ORDNANCE SERVICES [ARB.P.-705/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An independent arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between Kinshuk Goel Prop. M/s Ganesha International and the Ministry of Defence, Government of India, under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitration clause in the Supply Order, which specified that the arbitrator would be appointed by the Defence Secretary or Additional Secretary, could not be enacted due to Supreme Court rulings. All factual and legal issues, including the respondent's objection regarding the timeliness of the petitioner's claims, are to be argued before the appointed arbitrator.

KIRTI VS UNION OF INDIA ORS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5961/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS) cannot reject a request for correction of date of birth based solely on limitation when supported by public documents like a birth certificate. However, NIOS may impose reasonable conditions such as indemnification. Requests based on school records can be rejected if the limitation period has expired and the records have been discarded. The previous order by NIOS was quashed, and the matter will be reconsidered in line with established precedent.

KONE ELEVATOR INDIA PVT LTD VS MBL INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED [ARB.P.-958/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

In a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, the examination is limited to a prima facie assessment of the existence of the arbitration agreement. The merits of the dispute, arbitrability, or the timeliness of claims are matters for the arbitral tribunal. The parties had an arbitration clause in their work order for a sole arbitrator. Since they could not agree on the arbitrator's appointment, a sole arbitrator was appointed to arbitrate the dispute, and the arbitration will be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

KRISHAN KUMAR & ANR VS SHAKUNTLA AGENCY PVT LTD [O.M.P.-437/2011]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition filed by the appellants under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, challenging an arbitral award was dismissed. The appellants were aware of the arbitral proceedings, initially appeared, but later chose not to participate or file a Statement of Defence. Arguments regarding the execution of the agreement to sell (ATS) due to a non-transfer covenant were rejected as the allotment letter was neither presented nor pleaded before the arbitral tribunal. It was acknowledged that the appellants had received payments according to the ATS, which they admitted, and any discrepancy in the plot number was regarded as a minor typographical error. The objections raised by the appellants were viewed as a request for re-appreciation of facts, not valid under a Section 34 challenge.

KRISHNA & ORS. VS VINOD KUMAR & ORS. [RSA-11/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The second appeal by Krishna & Ors. was dismissed due to a 519-day delay in filing. The delay was considered not bona fide, as the appellants engaged in execution proceedings rather than challenging the original order promptly. The medical condition of one appellant did not justify the excessive delay, given that the other appellants were active in the litigation.

KUDOS PHARMACEUTICALS LIMITED & ORS. VS NATCO PHARMA LIMITED [CS(COMM)-29/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Kudos Pharmaceuticals Limited is the registered proprietor of Indian Patent IN 228720 for an invention titled "Phthalazinone derivative," which includes the compound Olaparib. Natco Pharma Limited has manufactured and sold a generic version of Olaparib under the brand name BRACANAT, constituting infringement of the patent. Natco did not successfully challenge the validity of the patent on grounds such as anticipation by prior claiming, anticipation by prior publication, or lack of inventive step. Kudos established a prima facie case of infringement, leading to the granting of an interlocutory injunction preventing Natco from manufacturing or selling Olaparib, pending further resolution of the matter.

KUMAR SAURABH & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12757/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The cancellation of MBBS admissions for Kumar Saurabh and Subhangi Priya was set aside. The cancellation lacked independent reasoning and relied solely on a later email from the Rajya Sainik Board questioning their eligibility, despite prior certification of eligibility. Admissions cannot be revoked without following principles of natural justice and giving students an opportunity to be heard. The interpretation of "wards" in the relevant category remains undecided. The petitioners were readmitted to their courses and allowed to participate in examinations without attendance issues during the litigation.

KUNWAR DIVYANSH SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-16383/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by Kunwar Divyansh Singh, a PMRBP awardee, challenging the discontinuation of MBBS/BDS seat reservations in the Central Pool quota was dismissed. There is no vested or legally enforceable right for PMRBP awardees to be included in this quota, as the decision is an academic policy matter. The principle of legitimate expectation does not apply, as there was no promise or enforceable right for inclusion in the Central Pool quota.

LATE AKSHEM CHANF THROUGH LR ATLO DEVI VS SURESH BALA & ORS. [RSA-194/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The application under Section 340 CrPC was deemed an abuse of the legal process due to the repeated raising of the issue of allegedly forged documents, which had already been litigated and rejected multiple times. The application was dismissed with costs of R.S. 1 lakh, required to be deposited with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee, and no review application will be entertained until the costs are paid.

LAXMAN VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4522/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Tamanna was shortlisted for admission to a Nursery/Pre-primary class for the 2023-2024 academic year but cannot be admitted as the academic year has ended. She also cannot be admitted to Class I for the 2024-2025 academic year because she did not apply as an EWS student, which would disadvantage other applicants. The petitioner can apply for Tamanna's admission as an EWS student for the 2024-2025 year, and the Directorate of Education will process it according to the law. The writ petition was dismissed.

LOTUS HERBALS PRIVATE LIMITED VS DPKA UNIVERSAL CONSUMER VENTURES PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-454/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The plaintiff's application for an interim injunction against the defendants' use of the "Lotus Splash" mark was dismissed. The plaintiff's registered "Lotus" formative marks were found to be prima facie infringed, but the defendants qualified for the descriptive use exception as "Lotus" indicated the presence of lotus extract in their product. Additionally, no prima facie case for passing off was established.

M S S KUMAR COMPANY VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [ARB.P.-872/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appointment of an arbitrator by the respondents, as per the arbitration clause in the contract, is not legally permissible based on principles established in prior Supreme Court judgments. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Prateek Mohan Sinha, Advocate, was appointed to address the disputes between the parties. No opinion was expressed on the maintainability or merits of the case, allowing all questions of fact and law to be raised in the arbitral proceedings.

M/S ABL BIOTECHNOLOGIES LTD & ORS VS M/S TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT BOARD & ANR [O.M.P.-607/2010]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitral award was vitiated due to the unilateral appointment of the arbitrator by Respondent 1. The unilateral appointment rendered the arbitration null and void. Consequently, the arbitral award was quashed and set aside.

M/S BKSONS INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD VS MANAGING DIRECTOR, NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION [ARB.P.-498/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

M/s Bksons Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. is entitled to invoke arbitration under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 due to the respondent's failure to appoint a conciliator as required by the EPC contract. A Senior Advocate was appointed as arbitrator to resolve disputes valued at approximately ₹18 Crores, with arbitration to be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S FORTUNE GROUP VS CHIEF ENGINEER PWD (NH) & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-264/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The notice of debarment against M/s Fortune Group is invalid due to the lack of a necessary prior determination of corrupt or fraudulent practices. A CBI investigation exonerated the petitioner and its officers of any involvement in the issuance of fraudulent bank guarantees. Given that debarment is a severe penalty and no wrongdoing has been established, the petitioner is entitled to interim relief against the debarment notice while awaiting future arbitral proceedings.

M/S GARG ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-66/2024]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The dispute between M/s Garg Enterprises and the Union of India is subject to arbitration, even though the petitioner did not wait the full 120 days before issuing the arbitration notice. The respondent contested the merits of the claim rather than the arbitration's applicability. In light of the parties indicating a clear dispute, progressing to arbitration is necessary rather than engaging in reconciliation. A retired judge has been appointed as the arbitrator for the claim amount of approximately R.S. 2.16 crores.

M/S HARIDWAR HIGHWAYS PROJECT LIMITED VS M/S NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-741/2024]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
A one-year extension of the arbitral tribunal's mandate was granted in the dispute between M/s Haridwar Highways Project Limited and M/s National Highways Authority of India, extending it from the expiration date of 4 October 2024. The respondent had no objection to this extension.

M/S JAIPRAKASH HYUNDAI CONSORTIUM(JHC) VS M/S SJVN LIMITED [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-201/2021]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The execution petition filed by Jaiprakash Hyundai Consortium (JHC) to enforce the Dispute Review Board (DRB) recommendation was dismissed as time-barred under the Limitation Act. The limitation period commenced from the date of the DRB recommendation in 2006/2007, not from a 2018 judgment that recognized it as an arbitral award. There was no stay on the DRB recommendation, allowing for earlier execution filing, and a separate case's liberty did not affect the statutory limitation period.

M/S JAIPRAKASH HYUNDAI CONSORTIUM(JHC) VS M/S SJVN LIMITED [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-199/2021]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The execution petition filed by the Jaiprakash Hyundai Consortium to enforce a 2006-2007 Dispute Review Board recommendation was found to be time-barred, having been filed more than 12 years after the recommendation. Arguments to start the limitation period from 2018-2019, when the recommendation was clarified as an arbitral award, were rejected. The petition was dismissed due to exceeding the prescribed time limit.

M/S JAKSON ENGINEERS LIMITED VS NORTHERN RAILWAYS [ARB.P.-1291/2024]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The claim by M/s Jakson Engineers Limited against Northern Railways is under R.S. 25 lakhs, triggering the arbitration clause for resolution by a sole arbitrator, a gazetted officer of the Railway not below JA grade. Mr. Lalit Satija, Advocate, was appointed as the arbitrator after the respondent failed to appoint one following the petitioner's invocation of the arbitration clause. The respondent's objection regarding the petitioner's compliance with a different clause was dismissed, as the applicable clause did not necessitate any pre-arbitral protocol.

M/S K. S. K. IMPEX PRIVATE LIMITED VS MR. PANKAJ PAHWAL & ANR. [ARB.P.-939/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Conditions for intervention under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were satisfied due to the existence of a valid arbitration agreement in the Collaboration Agreement. A petition was filed within the three-year period, and since the parties could not agree on an arbitrator, Mr. Ravi Kant Jain, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The arbitration will take place under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with all questions of fact, law, and merits remaining open for the arbitral proceedings.

M/S KAMLADITYYA CONSTRUCTION PVT LTD VS RAIL LAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [ARB.P.-1223/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitration clause in the contract between Kamladityya Construction Pvt Ltd and Rail Land Development Authority is deemed invalid and unenforceable due to its provision allowing the respondent to appoint the arbitrator unilaterally from its own panel. Previous judgments establish that such clauses are invalid, and it is not permissible to amend the clause to conform with legal standards. No prior orders required enforcement of the invalid arbitration clause. A retired High Court judge has been appointed as the arbitrator to resolve the disputes between the parties.

M/S KESPL-ESWAR-ABCPL JV VS M/S KNR-JKM JV [ARB.P.-1193/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A prima facie examination indicates that the first sub-contract agreement was executed between KESPL-ESWAR-ABCPL JV and KNR-JKM JV, which included an arbitration clause specifying Delhi as the seat of arbitration. The argument that the sub-contract was executed only between KESPL-ESWAR-ABCPL JV and JKM can be addressed by the arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator, Justice N.V. Ramana, has been appointed to resolve disputes arising from the first sub-contract agreement, while all other issues remain for the tribunal to decide.

M/S KOTAK MAHINDRA PRIME LTD VS MANAV SETHI & ANR. [ARB.P.-946/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by Kotak Mahindra Prime Ltd. for the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is not maintainable due to the absence of a statutory notice under Section 21. The requirement for a prior Section 21 notice is established in previous case law. Without such notice, the petition is dismissed, allowing the petitioner to proceed in accordance with the law.

M/S MANARAJAN BRAHMA VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-356/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner met the pre-arbitral conciliation requirements as outlined in the contract. The objections raised by the respondent regarding the maintainability of the petition were dismissed. It was clarified that membership in SAROD, the specified arbitral institution, is not necessary for arbitration proceedings. The disputes were referred to arbitration, with the appointment of a retired judge as the sole arbitrator, and the option for the arbitration to be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S N. J. GARMENTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S CAPITALGRAM MARKETING AND TECHNOLOGY PVT LTD [ARB.P.-642/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's invocation of the arbitration clause was not premature, despite the respondent's argument regarding the lack of "friendly consultations" as specified in the lease deed. Given that the parties engaged on the merits of the claims and the respondent contested them, the pre-arbitration negotiation requirement was considered satisfied. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the dispute, valued at approximately R.S. 1.6 crore, under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with all legal and factual questions open for the arbitrator's decision.

M/S NARENDER KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH CENTRAL PUBLIC WORK DEPARTMENT [ARB.P.-209/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

M/S Narender Kumar has the right to have their dispute with the Union of India referred to arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The petitioner properly invoked the arbitration clause in their contract, while the respondent failed to refer the matter to the Dispute Redressal Committee as required. The respondent's claim of non-receipt of communication was dismissed due to the petitioner providing a stamped copy of the notice. The dispute has been referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre for the appointment of an arbitrator.

M/S PRIME INTERGLOBE PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S SUPER MILK PRODUCTS PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-368/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The filing of a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 to challenge an arbitral award was deemed valid despite certain curable defects. The limitation period for this petition can be calculated from the disposition date of the respondent's Section 33(4) application. The entitlement of the petitioner to separately challenge the initial and additional awards does not impact the limitation computation under Section 34(3). A delay of 28 days in filing the petition was condoned, falling within the additional 30-day timeframe allowed.

M/S RAM GOPAL AGRAWAL VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH NORTHERN RAILWAY MORADABAD [ARB.P.-1154/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between M/s Ram Gopal Agrawal and the Union of India through Northern Railway Moradabad will be referred to sole arbitrator Mr. J Sai Deepak, appointed by the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). The parties' contracts, governed by the General Conditions of Contract (GCC) of 2014 and 2018, allowed for arbitration to resolve disputes. Though the GCC required a three-member tribunal for claims over R.S. 10 lakhs, the agreement between the parties led to the appointment of a sole arbitrator for efficiency and cost reduction. Parties can raise all relevant factual and legal contentions, including issues of maintainability, before the arbitrator.

M/S RAVINDER KUMAR YADAV VS TELE COMMUNICATIONS CONSULTANTS INDIA LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-94/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition filed by M/s Ravinder Kumar Yadav under Section 34(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, challenging an arbitral award from 26 January 2020, was dismissed as time-barred. The petition was submitted beyond the 120-day limitation period outlined in Section 34(3) of the Act, and the petitioner did not demonstrate that the delay was justified even after excluding the time the matter was pending before the Saket Court.

M/S S. K. BUILDERS VS M/S CLS CONSTRUCTION PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-297/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The arbitral award is a nullity due to the unilateral appointment of the sole arbitrator without the consent of one party, violating the arbitration agreement and established legal principles. Consent of both parties is essential in arbitration, and the objection to the arbitrator's jurisdiction was improperly rejected. The award is set aside because the appointment lacked mutual consent.

M/S SARDA SOLVENT EXTRACTION PVT. LTD. VS M/S NEXUS CLOTHING CO. & ORS. [EX.F.A.-41/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The dismissal of the appellant's execution petitions was upheld due to their submission beyond the 12-year limitation period specified in the Limitation Act. The Limitation Act is viewed as a statute of repose, and delays cannot be condoned beyond the allowed time. The appellant's reliance on Sections 15(2) and 15(3) of the Limitation Act was rejected, as those provisions were not applicable. Additionally, no exceptions could be created to exclude the period during which the appellant's company was struck off from the Registrar of Companies, as the law does not allow for such exclusions. This involved two appeals addressing identical issues.

M/S SMC INTEGRATED FACILITY MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS LTD. (PREVIOUSLY KNOWN AS SERVICE MASTER CLEAN LTD.) VS QUANTUM NATURALS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1296/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The dispute between the parties is to be referred to arbitration, as all requirements under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were satisfied. A valid arbitration agreement exists, and the petition was filed within the three-year timeline from the Section 21 notice. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) will appoint a suitable arbitrator for the matter.

M/S SRIRAM CABLES PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1036/2024]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The petitioner's application for the appointment of a fresh arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is maintainable without a new notice under Section 21. The application was deemed valid after the earlier arbitral award was set aside due to the unilateral appointment of the arbitrator. Mr. Ravi Kant Jain, Advocate, was appointed as the new arbitrator to resolve the dispute.

M/S TATA MOTORS LIMITED VS DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-137/2018]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
Post-award interest of 18% per annum must be applied to the entire amounts covered in the arbitral award, including interest components. The argument that interest components should be excluded from the 18% interest was rejected, as the execution must adhere to the award as it stands.

M/S YASH FANS AND APPLIANCES LTD VS M/S OTTOMATE INTERNATIONAL PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-663/2024]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
An arbitration agreement exists between the parties under Clause 22 of the Master Purchase Agreement, requiring the dispute to be referred to arbitration according to Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The discharge of debt by the settlement agreement cannot be examined at this stage. Mr. Rajiv Mishra was appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the dispute, with all questions of fact and law left for his determination.

M/S. CWHEC-HCIL (JV) VS M/S. CALCUTTA HALDIA PORT ROAD COMPANY LIMITED [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-30/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

M/S. CWHEC-HCIL (JV) was permitted to withdraw petitions OMP (ENF.) (COMM.) 14/2019, OMP (ENF.) (COMM.) 30/2019, and OMP (ENF.) (COMM.) 203/2021 against M/S. CALCUTTA HALDIA PORT ROAD COMPANY LIMITED due to ongoing settlement discussions. The decree holder may approach the court again if any disputes remain. Property documents held by the court were ordered to be released, and the next scheduled date for the matters was cancelled.

MAA SANTOSHI PVT ITI & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3260/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Directorate of Employment and Training, Bihar, must respond within two weeks regarding its stance on granting affiliation to the petitioners for four units each in the Electrician and Fitter trades. The Directorate General of Training will process the petitioners' application and make a decision within two weeks after receiving the response from Bihar's Directorate.

MAA SARASWATI PVT ITI ANR & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING MINISTRY OF SKILL DEVELOPMENT AND ENTERPRENEURSHIP KAUSHAL BHAWAN & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5689/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Directorate of Employment and Training, Bihar, must respond within 2 weeks regarding any objections to the affiliation request from Maa Saraswati Pvt ITI to establish a Multi Skill Training Institute in an unserved block. Following this response, the Directorate General of Training will process the application and make a decision within 2 weeks. The petitioners may seek further remedies if any grievances persist.

MADHAV CHAUDHARY VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3903/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's handwriting in the Competition Law paper was found to be poor but not completely illegible, allowing for evaluation. The petitioner must provide a typed transcript of the answer sheet for the examiner to evaluate against the original handwritten answers, with a timeline established for completion and communication of the final result. This order is based on the specific facts and circumstances of the case.

MAHADEV RAMSOCH PVT ITI & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3384/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioners' application for affiliation of several trade units must be processed by the State Directorate and Directorate General of Training (DGT) within six weeks, following the applicable procedure. A previous judgment with a shorter processing time was referenced, emphasizing the need for expedited handling. No opinion on the merits of the petitioners' claim was expressed, which will be addressed according to the law.

MAHARAJA AGARSAIN PUBLIC SCHOO VS M/S ENTAB INFOTECH PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1131/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between Maharaja Agarsain Public School and M/s Entab Infotech Pvt Ltd will be referred to arbitration under the Campuscare Software Service Level Agreement dated 11 May 2023, which includes an arbitration clause. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre will appoint an arbitrator, preferably with expertise in software development. The arbitration will follow DIAC's rules, with the arbitrator's fees based on DIAC's schedule, while all factual and legal contentions remain for the arbitrator to adjudicate.

MARUTI TRADERS VS ITRON INDIA PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-89/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitral tribunal's decision to reject all claims was upheld. No valid contract existed between the petitioner and respondent before the Reseller Agreement dated February 1, 2017, as authorization letters lacked terms and conditions. The petitioner could not claim compensation under Section 70 of the Contract Act due to insufficient evidence of beneficial efforts to the respondent. The tribunal lacked jurisdiction over disputes before the Reseller Agreement due to the absence of an arbitration agreement. During the post-Reseller Agreement period, the respondent's direct sales to customers did not constitute a breach, as the agreement designated the petitioner as a non-exclusive reseller.

MASTER ARPIT VS ADRIEL HIGH SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2848/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A child applying for admission under the economically weaker section (EWS) category must be admitted if shortlisted in a computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The school's refusal to grant provisional admission after December 31 is inconsistent with prior rulings allowing such admissions post-cutoff date. Provisional admission for the child as an EWS candidate is affirmed.

MASTER CHHAYANK THROUGH HIS FATHER SUDHIR VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4538/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, a student from the Disadvantaged Group, qualified for admission to a school for the 2023-2024 academic session through a computerized draw but could not be granted relief as the session had ended. Efforts to ensure the petitioner's admission for the next academic session (2024-2025) were not made to avoid prejudice to other aspirants. The petitioner will have the right to be considered for admission in the upcoming session alongside other candidates, with the Directorate of Education expected to follow the prescribed procedure for this process.

MASTER HITESH VERMA VS DA V PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2129/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, a student from the OBC category, is not entitled to admission in Class II at Respondent 1 school due to discrepancies in the application and the fact that he was only shortlisted for Class I through the Department of Education's computerized draw of lots. Admission rights depend on the allotment provided by the DoE, and since the petitioner was not eligible for Class II according to this process, the writ petition was dismissed.

MASTER JAGRIT VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13318/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, an Economically Weaker Section (EWS) candidate, is entitled to admission to the respondent school's Nursery/Pre-school under Section 12(1)(c) of the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. The respondent school is directed to continue providing education and all entitled facilities to the petitioner as an EWS student, making the provisional admission permanent.

MASTER KAVISH VS MODERN PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13353/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Department of Education (DoE) must include information on class levels for each school in the list provided to parents of EWS students for admission. This information is essential for parents who may struggle to access details from the DoE website. The DoE has 10 days to file a counter-affidavit in response to the writ petition, with a hearing scheduled for 5 March 2024.

MASTER KAVISH VS MODERN PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13353/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, a child from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS), was entitled to admission under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. Initially granted provisional admission, the petitioner was later allotted to a different school based on the neighborhood criterion. The petitioner subsequently enrolled at Jyoti Model Senior Secondary School, negating the need for further consideration of the writ petition.

MASTER LAKSHAY VS ADRIEL PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5978/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, shortlisted by the Directorate of Education for admission to a school in the 2022-2023 academic year, cannot claim a right to admission in Class II for the 2024-2025 academic year after not securing a place that year. The right to admission is specific to the academic year of shortlisting and expires if not exercised. The Directorate of Education is to investigate if the school requested a reduction in EWS/DG seats for 2022-2023 and take appropriate action if the school failed to admit the petitioner without valid reasons.

MASTER LUV RATHORE VS MAXFORT SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9401/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition seeking admission to the KG/Pre-Primary class was dismissed. The order reserving a seat for the petitioner was specifically for the Nursery/Pre-School class, not for KG/Pre-Primary. As there was neither an order for provisional admission in any class nor a reservation for KG/Pre-Primary, no relief could be granted.

MASTER MOHAN KUMAR VS RICHMOND GLOBAL SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7463/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, a child from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS), is entitled to admission in Class I under Section 12(1)(c) of the Right to Education (RTE) Act, which mandates that schools admit 25% of children from EWS or Disadvantaged Group categories. A prior direction mistakenly reserved a seat in Nursery instead of Class I, resulting in an alternate seat being allotted later. No seat was reserved for Class I for the 2023-24 academic session, but the petitioner may apply as an EWS student for admission in Class II for the 2024-25 academic session.

MASTER SHAURYA PRATAP SINGH & ANR. VS THE SOVEREIGN SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2760/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioners had 43.6% attendance in Class IX and 36.7% in Class XI, which did not meet the minimum 50% attendance requirement set by the Directorate of Education's policy. The policy allows limited exceptions for serious medical conditions or natural calamities. Due to the significant shortage in attendance, the petitioners were deemed ineligible to appear in their final examinations, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

MASTER VANSH RATHOR VS MAHARAJA AGRASEN MODEL SCHOOL AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2135/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A student from the economically weaker sections (EWS) is entitled to admission in Class II at the Respondent School. The school's objections regarding the seat matrix were deemed unfounded, as there was no challenge to the 19 EWS seats in Class I. The Respondent School is required to admit the student, with fees to be reimbursed by the Directorate of Education, which must ensure compliance.

MASTER VIHAN VATS VS ADRIEL HIGH SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16683/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A 5-year-old boy is entitled to admission in a respondent school under the RTE Act after being allotted a Nursery/Pre-School seat through a computerized draw of lots. The respondent school failed to timely challenge the allocation of general and EWS seats, making it obligated to admit the boy as an EWS student. An earlier interim order for provisional admission is upheld despite the absence of a specific request for interim relief in the petition.

MAXXCAB WIRES AND CABLES PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-394/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The contempt petition by Maxxcab Wires and Cables Private Limited against the Union of India was dismissed. Previous orders from December 6 and December 12, 2023, only prevented recovery proceedings against the petitioner and did not prohibit other actions like temporary de-listing. Even if the de-listing was deemed illegal or improper, it was not considered contempt of the orders.

MAYTAS SUBHASH VS IRCON INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-37/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

SPML Infra Ltd., as the lead partner of the Maytas-Subhash JV, has the authority to represent the JV and enforce an arbitral award of R.S. 9,44,09,629/- against IRCON International Ltd. The argument that the JV has ceased to exist was rejected, as the Joint Venture Agreement grants SPML Infra Ltd. this representation. Challenges to the award's validity should proceed in ongoing Section 34 proceedings, not in execution proceedings. The deposited award amount will be released to the petitioner upon furnishing an unconditional bank guarantee, with release contingent on the outcome of the Section 34 proceedings.

MD DILWAR HUSSAIN VS JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA [W.P.(C)-16575/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The decision of Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) to reject the petitioner's application for the B.Ed (Urdu) course was quashed. The petitioner met the eligibility requirement of studying Urdu as the main teaching subject for the required duration in graduation. JMI's claim that the petitioner should have chosen History as the main subject was dismissed, as no such restriction existed. JMI must admit the petitioner to the B.Ed (Urdu) course for the 2023-24 academic year.

MD HAROON PRIVATE ITI VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5128/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The State Directorate must verify the data of students admitted by the petitioner institutes for the academic session 2023-2025, upload the eligible students' data to the NIMI portal, and transmit it to the NCVT-MIS portal of the Directorate General of Training (DGT). The DGT will provide user IDs and passwords to the petitioner institutes for data upload on their individual NCVT-MIS portals. The State Directorate has the authority to inspect the premises of the petitioner institutes after the data has been uploaded and transmitted.

MEDIA INTERNATIONAL THROUGH SOLE PROP. MRS. ACHLA SABHARWAL VS YOUNGERS DREAM WORLD PRODUCTION THROUGH SOLE PROPRIETOR NARESH SINGLA [CS(COMM)-487/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The review petition was dismissed due to a lack of apparent errors or new material that could not have been accessed earlier. The evidence presented by the plaintiff did not conclusively show that the film "Majajan Orchestra" was released after the July 12, 2022 order. The requirements for a review under Order XLVII of the Code of Civil Procedure were not met, as the plaintiff could have discovered the additional evidence (a YouTube link) with due diligence.

MICROMAX INFORMATICS LIMITED VS SHREE VINAYAK ENTERPRISES [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-407/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A six-month extension was granted to the mandate of the Arbitral Tribunal, which had expired on 30 April 2024, in a petition by Micromax Informatics Limited. The respondent, Shree Vinayak Enterprises, did not appear or submit a reply. The extension is effective from the date of expiry to allow the Tribunal to continue proceedings in the disputes between the parties.

MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS (MORTH) THROUGH ITS CHIEF ENGINEER (NH RANDB) VS M/S DILIP BUILDCON LIMITED AND MOSTOBUDIVELNYI ZAHIN NO 112 (JOINT VENTURE) (MS DBL MBZ JV) [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-86/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways regarding the mandatory nature of the conciliation provision in Clause 26.2 of the contract was dismissed. The previous judgment was upheld, indicating that conciliation is not a mandatory requirement. The Supreme Court decision cited does not specifically state that the conciliation provision is obligatory. The argument that the Supreme Court could have deemed it mandatory was rejected. The Ministry's statement regarding the arbitrator's impartiality is noted as being without prejudice and limited to the current stage.

MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS (MORTH)THROUGH ITS CHIEF ENGINEER (NH RANDB) VS M/S DILIP BUILDCON LIMITED AND MOSTOBUDIVELNYI ZAHIN NO 112 (JOINT VENTURE) (M/S DBL MBZ JV) [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-84/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Petitions by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways challenging the arbitrators' appointments by M/s Dilip Buildcon Limited and Mostobudivelnyi Zahin No 112 (Joint Venture) were dismissed. The conciliation process under the contract was deemed more directory than mandatory, allowing the respondent to invoke arbitration without attempting conciliation. No illegality or irregularity was found in the arbitrators' appointments by the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution, including the appointment of its Governing Council member as the petitioner's arbitrator. A similar judgment was issued in two related petitions.

MISS ISHIKA YADAV VS MOUNT OLIVET SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-4750/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The private unaided respondent school cannot be directed to allow the petitioner to continue studying without paying required fees, as it would be unjust to the school. The petitioner's father had previously indicated an intention to seek admission in a government school if unable to afford private school fees. The father may request a relaxation in fee payment from the school, which has discretion to grant such requests. The school must not deny the student's continuation based on fee payment demands that contravene applicable laws and regulations.

MOHD AHTESHAM VS SHAKEEL PRACHA [EX.F.A.-19/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Memorandum of Settlement (MoS) established that the total debt owed by the appellant to the respondent was R.S. 26 lakhs, allowing for installment payments or punishment under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for default. The appellant was convicted and served one year in prison for a R.S. 30 lakh debt in one case but was acquitted in another. Since the appellant had already faced punishment under the MoS for the larger debt, no remaining debt was available for execution, resulting in the dismissal of the respondent's execution application.

MOHIT DABAS & ANR. VS THE PRINCIPAL INDRAPRASTHA WORLD SCHOOL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17672/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition filed by Mohit Dabas and his daughter Kavya for admission to a school was dismissed. The respondent school had reported to the Directorate of Education that the petitioners did not report by the required deadline, leading to the cancellation of their candidature. The petitioners did not make any representations regarding the denial of admission, which weakened their case. It was noted that if an EWS/DG seat remains unfilled, the candidate retains a lien on it for the following year. However, relief could not be granted as the candidature was canceled due to the petitioners' failure to meet the reporting deadline.

MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT LTD VS KK ENTERPRISES THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SH VIRAL KIRIT KUMAR DOSHI AND ANR. [ARB.P.-528/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Roshan Lal Goel, Advocate, will arbitrate a dispute between Moneywise Financial Services Pvt Ltd and KK Enterprises, along with its proprietor Viral Kirit Kumar Doshi, stemming from a Master Loan Agreement dated October 1, 2020, which includes an arbitration clause. Moneywise claims an outstanding amount of approximately R.S. 32 lakhs from the respondents, who did not respond to the petition after being served notice. The dispute is considered arbitrable due to the valid arbitration agreement, with proceedings to take place under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre's auspices.

MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT LTD VS UNITED TRADING COMPANY THROUGH ITS PROP CHANDRA MOHAN KATHURIA AND ORS. [ARB.P.-529/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dispute between Moneywise Financial Services Pvt Ltd and United Trading Company involves an arbitration agreement. Mr. Roshan Lal Goel is appointed as the sole arbitrator to oversee the matter under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. A prima facie case for arbitration exists as the respondents declined to refer the dispute despite a notice invoking the arbitration clause.

MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT. LTD. VS TIRUPATI TRADING COMPANY THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR AND ANR. [ARB.P.-69/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by Moneywise Financial Services Pvt. Ltd. under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was allowed, and the dispute with Tirupati Trading Company was referred to arbitration. The arbitration clause in the loan agreement, allowing the Chairman of the lender to unilaterally appoint the arbitrator, was deemed unenforceable. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre was directed to appoint a suitable arbitrator to handle the disputes according to its rules and regulations.

MOTHER BOON FOODS PVT. LTD. VS READY ROTI INDIA PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-750/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The mandate of the earlier arbitrator terminated upon withdrawal from the proceedings under Section 15(1)(a) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The petitioner must first communicate with the respondent to propose a new arbitrator as per the arbitration agreement. An arbitrator cannot be appointed under Section 11(6) unless the parties fail to agree, which has not occurred in this case. The petitioner retains the right to suggest the appointment of an alternate arbitrator.

MOUNT COLUMBUS SCHOOL & ORS VS CENTRAL BORAD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-2956/2020]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order of the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) withdrawing the provisional affiliation granted to Mount Columbus School was set aside. CBSE did not provide the required one-year cure period for the school to address deficiencies noted in the show cause notice. Additionally, CBSE failed to properly consider the school's response and did not give a prior opportunity for hearing, violating principles of natural justice. The disaffiliation order was deemed non-speaking and unjustified based on the facts presented. The disaffiliation order was quashed and an interim stay order was confirmed.

MR SATYA PAL GUPTA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [ARB.P.-1068/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An arbitrator, Mr. Sudarshan Singh Rawat, has been appointed to resolve disputes between Mr. Satya Pal Gupta and the Delhi Development Authority. The parties have completed the pre-arbitral protocol outlined in the General Conditions of Contract, and the petitioner issued a notice under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, which was contested by the respondent. The arbitration will take place under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

MR. HARJEET SINGH SENIOR CITIZEN VS M/S OMAXE LIMITED THROUGH ITS DIRECTORS SH. ROHTASH GOEL , SH MOHIT GOEL SH. MANOJ KUMAR DUA AND SH. VINIT GOYAL [ARB.P.-252/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A three-member arbitral tribunal was appointed to resolve the dispute between the parties. The argument regarding the maintainability of the petition due to a 3-year limitation period was rejected, as mediation efforts were made after the initial notice and a new notice was issued under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Arbitrators were appointed according to the arbitration clause, with a directive to file necessary disclosures before entering the reference.

MR. RAKESH SAWHNEY & ANR. VS M/S SKYLINE CONSTRUCTIONS AND ANR . [ARB.P.-1055/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes arising from a Collaboration Agreement must be referred to arbitration under the agreement's arbitration clause. A retired judicial member from the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal is appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate claims and counter-claims of approximately R.S. 2.5 Crores each. No opinion is expressed on the maintainability or merits of the claims, leaving all issues of fact and law for the arbitrator to resolve.

MR. SUSHANT & ORS. VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1261/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Amendments to Clause 9(b) of Jawaharlal Nehru University's PhD Ordinances, which introduced a 10-year time limit for re-enrollment after de-registration, do not apply to petitioners de-registered prior to the amendments. The pre-amendment Clause 9(b), which had no such time limit, governs their re-enrollment eligibility. The JNU's resolutions requiring petitioners to re-register by a specific deadline exceed the provisions of Clause 9(b) and were quashed. Consequently, the petitioners are entitled to seek re-enrollment to submit their PhD theses under the pre-amendment rules.

MR. YASHPAL CHAUDHARY VS TELECOMMUNICATION CONSULTANTS INDIA LTD [ARB.P.-1217/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 led to the referral of disputes between Mr. Yashpal Chaudhary and Telecommunication Consultants India Ltd. to arbitration. The existence of a valid arbitration clause in their tender agreement was established, and the petitioner had invoked this clause by serving a notice under Section 21 of the Act. The scope of examination was limited to verifying the existence of the arbitration agreement and the timely filing of the petition. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with all issues of fact and law remaining open for determination by the arbitral tribunal.

MS PRIYA DHAWAN & ANR. VS DELHI UNIVERSITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3610/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Priya Dhawan and Pranjay Dhawan are entitled to have their names and their biological father's name, Rajesh Dhawan, corrected in the degrees and marksheets issued by the University of Delhi. The University's requirement for a decree of separation between the parents for changing the father's name was deemed unreasonable, as the change is supported by the petitioners' birth certificates and other public documents. The University is instructed to issue fresh degrees and marksheets with the corrected names within three weeks.

MS SIERRA APPLIANCES PVT. LTD. VS MS STELLAR CONSTELLATION PROJECTS PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-65/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Mr. Abhishek Jaju was appointed as the new arbitrator for the ongoing arbitration between MS Sierra Appliances Pvt. Ltd. and MS Stellar Constellation Projects Pvt. Ltd. following the death of the previous arbitrator, Mr. G.P. Thareja. The proceedings will continue from where they left off, with the new arbitrator entitled to fees according to the Fourth Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. A disclosure under Section 12(2) of the Act is required from the new arbitrator, and the mandate of the Arbitral Tribunal has been extended by 6 months from the new arbitrator's entry into the case.

MS. MOMISHA VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION (UDC) AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-4631/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by Ms. Momisha challenging her awarded CGPA of 5.88 in the M.Sc. (Geoinformatics) program was dismissed. She failed to follow the formal procedure for grade re-evaluation as outlined in the Student Handbook. The university's Grievance Redressal Committee reviewed the evaluation process and found no errors. Although a directive to re-evaluate grades was not possible, a request for Ms. Momisha to re-do her fourth semester was allowed for consideration by the university.

MST. LAKSHYA THROUGH NATURAL GUARDIAN SH. MAHENDRA KUMAR VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5752/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Ryan International School must admit the petitioner, who secured a seat under the Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) quota through a computerized draw conducted by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The school had previously informed the DoE of vacant EWS seats and cannot refuse admission. The school is directed to provide education to the petitioner as an EWS candidate, with the option to separately address fee reimbursement with the DoE.

MUKTESHWER MARBLE AND ORS. VS COMMISSIONER (LD) AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1396/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by marble traders regarding the Delhi Development Authority's refusal to allow trades beyond marble was viewed as unjustified. The lease deeds permitted change of land use with DDA approval, and the DDA's position was seen as a violation of the petitioners' fundamental right under Article 19(1)(g) of the Constitution. The petitioners were permitted to engage in any trades allowed under the Master Plan for Delhi 2001 for service centres, without increasing the floor area ratio or ground area.

MUSARRAT VS ASIF KHAN [TR.P.(C.)-31/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The transfer petition filed by Musarrat for moving a guardianship case from the Family Court was dismissed. Mere apprehensions of bias were deemed insufficient for transfer without concrete evidence. Allegations of prejudicial remarks from the presiding judge were not seen as indicative of bias, and it was noted that judges can adjust their views based on new information. The case did not meet the high standard required for considering such a transfer, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

N C JINDAL PUBLIC SCHOOL VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-8061/2017]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The school was justified in increasing its development fee from 10% to 15% of the tuition fee starting April 1, 2009, in accordance with the Directorate of Education's order. The school had charged only 10% until that date, meaning no excess fee was charged that warranted a refund. The previous directive to refund the excess development fee was set aside.

NARESH GHAI VS CHAROO TALWAR [ARB.P.-105/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 has been accepted, referring disputes from a Lease Deed dated October 1, 2019 to arbitration. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) will nominate an arbitrator to handle a claim of approximately R.S. 50 Lakhs. The proceedings will adhere to DIAC's rules, with the arbitrator receiving fees according to DIAC's schedule. The respondent may file a counter-claim during the arbitration.

NASHETA ZAIDI THROUGH GUARDIAN GROUP CAPTAIN IMRAN H ZAIDI VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11518/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner is entitled to full marks for her answer to Question 27 in the Geography paper, as the examiner indicated correctness by placing a tick mark. The failure to award marks was deemed a lapse by the examiner, and since the answer is correct, the maximum marks must be granted. A corrected mark sheet is to be issued to the petitioner, adding 5 marks for the answer.

NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE MARKETING FEDERATION OF INDIA LIMITED VS V.D. AGRO TECH LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-448/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner was not allowed to introduce additional documents at the Section 34 stage regarding an arbitral award made before the 2019 amendment to the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The challenge focused on the tribunal's observations about the petitioner's inaction, which did not constitute a public policy challenge under Section 34(2)(b). The existing criteria for introducing additional evidence at this stage were not met, leading to the dismissal of the petitioner's application.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR PARENTS AND STUDENTS RIGHTS (NAPSR) AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7362/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) decided to discontinue financial aid to four DRDO-aided schools, characterizing this as a policy shift to focus on defense research due to increased local schooling options. The rationale behind this decision was deemed reasonable based on changed circumstances. Petitions challenging this decision were dismissed as premature, while staff were allowed to seek legal remedies for any future adverse consequences.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS M S IRB AHMEDABAD VADODARA SUPER EXPRESS TOLLWAYS PVT. LTD [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-172/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) is not entitled to direct IRB Ahmedabad Vadodara Super Express Tollways Pvt Ltd (IRB) to deposit ₹1586.26 crores as per an arbitral award. The existence of the award does not automatically warrant such a deposit without a prior enforcement. The award allows IRB to pay the revised premium later, with interest, rather than upfront. Moreover, the waterfall mechanism in the concession agreement does not authorize NHAI to demand the revised premium immediately, and the award does not change this contractual arrangement. Consequently, the request for interim protection under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was dismissed.

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY DELHI VS LAKHMI CHAND & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3535/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Labour Court's finding that National Law University (NLU) illegally terminated Lakhmi Chand's services was contradictory to its earlier determination that no employer-employee relationship existed between them, leading to the overturning of the finding against NLU. However, the finding against White Fox Support Services Pvt. Ltd. (WFSSPL) regarding Lakhmi Chand's illegal termination was upheld, as WFSSPL's challenge was not maintainable. WFSSPL retains the right to raise issues concerning the settlement agreement in other appropriate proceedings.

NAZAR MOHAMED MOHAIDEEN.S VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-14933/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) acted against its own ordinances by canceling a Ph.D. candidate's status and requiring him to find a supervisor. The ordinances specify that JNU is responsible for assigning a supervisor. The Faculty Committee's claim that no SCMM faculty could supervise the candidate lacked supporting reasons, which are necessary for valid administrative decisions. The order was quashed, and JNU must reinstate the candidate and assign him a supervisor within two weeks, with the condition that he has agreed to be supervised by Prof. Shailja Singh. The reinstatement is conditional on the candidate's good conduct, with potential consequences for any misconduct.

NEERAJ KHULLAR VS VIRENDER KUMAR KHULLAR [O.M.P.(T)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 15(2) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was allowed for the appointment of a substitute Arbitrator following the death of Mr. G.P. Thareja. The matter was at the final argument stage, and the Delhi International Arbitration Centre was tasked with appointing a suitable Arbitrator, who may continue from the current stage. The new Arbitrator is to charge fees equivalent to those of Mr. G.P. Thareja, and the arbitration records will be transmitted to the newly appointed Arbitrator.

NEETU RANI & ORS VS KISHAN DEVI @ KISHORI DEVI [RFA-470/2015]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appeal filed by Neetu Rani and others against Kishan Devi @ Kishori Devi was dismissed because the respondent had passed away and the appellants did not substitute her with legal representatives despite being given multiple opportunities to do so. The appeal was deemed to have abated due to their non-compliance with court orders.

NEMA AS GUARDIAN OF RAJ VS JAWAHAR NAVODAYA VIDYALAYA [W.P.(C)-15328/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Raj sought admission to Class XI in Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya under the OBC category but could not claim a grievance since no unreserved/OBC category student with lower marks than him was admitted. The school provided an affidavit showing all admitted OBC students had higher scores. Consequently, there was no basis for Raj's claim, and the writ petition was disposed of.

NIHARIKA (MINOR) THROUGH HER MOTHER POONAM KUMARI VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11579/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A student from the Disadvantaged Group (DG) category, shortlisted for Nursery/Pre-school admission for the 2023-2024 academic year by the Directorate of Education, is entitled to admission at the respondent school. Provisional admission granted earlier is confirmed as absolute, allowing the student to continue education under the DG category and benefit from all available advantages.

NIKUNJ KAPADIYA & ORS. VS INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12345/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The maximum duration for Bachelor's degree programs at IGNOU is 8 years, affirming the students' right to 2 years' re-admission as per Clause 6.7 of the Prospectus. The challenge to the withdrawal of the re-admission facility by an October 2020 Notification was dismissed due to delay, as petitioners did not act promptly after the Notification or after the initial 6-year period. The decision to disallow the transfer of credits from Foundation Courses in the previous BDP to the new CBCS program was upheld, as there are no parallel courses. This ruling involves three connected writ petitions.

NILABH RANJAN & ANR. VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12367/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by two LL.B. students was dismissed as the university was not obligated to grant a fourth attempt at exams already failed multiple times. The maximum number of permissible attempts had been exhausted according to the university prospectus. The students can clear the pending papers in the next regular second semester exams within the six-year period allowed for completing the LL.B. degree, and there were no grounds for a special examination.

NILKANTH DAS AND ORS. VS CBSE AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10063/2020]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's request to correct the internal assessment marks of their daughter, Miloni, from 18 to 20 in Social Studies was denied. The CBSE's decision to not allow changes was consistent with its circulars, which prohibit alterations to internal assessment marks once uploaded. The validity of the CBSE circulars was not challenged, leading to the upholding of the CBSE's decision. The writ petition was dismissed, and relief could not be granted.

NIRMALA TRAINING COLLEGE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-9467/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The withdrawal of recognition for the petitioner's B.Ed course was deemed flawed on two grounds. Firstly, the Appellate Authority based its decision on the petitioner having only 7 faculty members, excluding the Principal, which was not considered. The petitioner had an approved faculty list that included the Principal. Secondly, concerns regarding the qualifications of two faculty members were raised, but the petitioner had since recruited two qualified replacements, addressing this issue as a curable defect. Consequently, the Appellate Authority's order was quashed, and a fresh decision on the petitioner's appeal is required, taking into account the updated faculty list and allowing the petitioner an opportunity for a hearing. The petitioner's rights to challenge the new decision remain intact.

NITIN KUMAR VS M/S HOUSING DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION LTD [RSA-91/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Nitin Kumar is not entitled to gratuity from Housing Development Finance Corporation Limited (HDFC) due to serving less than 5 years, which is the minimum required under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. No contract existed to override this statutory requirement. Additionally, the suit was filed more than 3 years after the cause of action arose, barring the claim. The concurrent findings of the lower courts were upheld, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

NITIN THOMAS VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11649/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner was not entitled to the Eligibility Certificate issued by the Medical Council of India in 2014 due to failure in the Physics theory paper in Class 12 and misrepresentation of marks in the application. The withdrawal of the Eligibility Certificate by the National Medical Commission was justified, and the cancellation of the FMGE pass certificate by the National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences was appropriate, as the petitioner lacked eligibility to appear for the exam without a valid Eligibility Certificate. The writ petition had no merit and was dismissed.

NORTH DEIHI MUNICIPAL COEPORATION VS R&T ENTERPRISES [O.M.P. (COMM)-256/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitrator's decisions regarding the unpaid final bill and interest were upheld based on justified reasoning and evidence. The award for the return of the EMD/security deposit was set aside due to a flawed interpretation of the contractual clause, and the idling charges were annulled because the calculation methodology was not disclosed. Objections concerning the claims' maintainability and the limitation plea were rejected. The matter involved two arbitration applications that were combined for a joint decision.

NOVARTIS AG & ANR. VS NATCO PHARMA LIMITED [CS(COMM)-229/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The claims in the patent for the compound Ceritinib (Indian Patent IN 276026) are considered novel, inventive, and not obvious based on the prior art cited by the defendant. The defendant's argument regarding the plaintiff's failure to disclose a divisional patent application and its subsequent refusal does not affect the validity of the suit patent or the interim injunction. The defendant's application to vacate the interim injunction was dismissed.

NUCON INDIA PVT LTD VS ARPITAM BUILDERS LLP [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-254/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Prem Lata Bansal, Senior Advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes between Nucon India Pvt Ltd and Arpitam Builders LLP regarding a construction contract. The petitioner raised debatable issues requiring a comparative analysis of the evidence. The scope of examination under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is restricted following a recent Supreme Court judgment. The matter was referred to arbitration without any opinion on the merits, leaving all questions of fact and law for the arbitrator to decide.

OCEAN SEVEN BUILDTECH PVT LTD VS SH. SRI BHAGWAN [ARB. A. (COMM.)-51/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appeal filed by Ocean Seven Buildtech Pvt Ltd against the arbitrators' order was disposed of, allowing parties to present arguments on all aspects, including contract clause interpretation, without influence from prior arbitrator findings. The arbitral tribunal's mandate was extended by 6 months from the original expiry date.

OJAS SATYAWALI THROUGH HIS MOTHER BHAWNA PATHAK VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12124/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Dwarka International School was required to grant admission to 7-year-old Ojas Satyawali, an Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) candidate, as recommended by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The DoE is responsible for verifying EWS applicants' credentials, and since the school did not contest the petitioner's eligibility, it must continue his education in the EWS category as mandated by law.

OM PRAKASH VERMA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11380/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The answer key for Question 20087 in the UGC-NET June 2023 examination was identified as incorrect, as both statements in the question were verifiably incorrect, contrary to the answer key's indication that one was correct. The presence of two identical answer options was noted as a significant flaw. As a result, all candidates who attempted the question were to be awarded 2 marks, and the final results of the petitioner were to be revised and communicated within 4 weeks.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS DEVANSH REAL ESTATE PVT. LTD. & ANR. [RSA-60/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Additional District Judge erred by dismissing the appellant's appeal due to delay without allowing an opportunity to file a condonation application. An overly technical approach was noted, warranting a chance for the appellant to submit the application. The previous order was set aside, the matter was remanded, and the appellant was directed to file the application within one week, with a decision required within three weeks. The substantial question of law was answered in favor of the appellant.

P. NIHAL SRIVATSAV THROUGH HIS NATURAL GUARDIAN P HARISH BABU VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4850/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A writ petition by a person with a disability challenging the JEE (Mains) 2024 examination process was dismissed. The petitioner faced issues with claiming PwD status due to a delay in obtaining a disability certificate. Despite being given a chance to correct application details, allowing a change in status from non-PwD to PwD between sessions was deemed to create operational issues and confusion. The NTA's policy, while unfortunate for the petitioner, was not considered discriminatory, and academic policies were not interfered with without clear unconstitutionality.

PANDYA KHUSHALBHAI GHANSHYAMBHAI AND ORS. VS INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPERN UNIVERSITY MAIDAN (IGNOU) AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1743/2020]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Petitioners admitted to B. Tech degree programs under the IGNOU-VIEP are entitled to a 2-year extended registration period (ERP) for completing backlog papers, similar to what diploma students received. Denying ERP to degree students while granting it to diploma students constitutes discrimination under Article 14 of the Constitution. Arguments regarding the unauthorized status of courses and UGC guidelines limiting duration were rejected, as the AICTE had retrospectively validated the B. Tech programs up to 2009-10. A prior decision by the SOET denying ERP was overruled by a later decision from the IGNOU Academic Council granting the 2-year ERP for bachelor's degree programs.

PARENTS ASSOCIATION AHLCON PUBLIC SCHOOL VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7768/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by the Parents Association of Ahlcon Public School sought approval of the school's fee structure for 2023-2024 under Section 17(3) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. Due to ongoing general elections, a decision could not be made within the previously set timeframe. A new deadline of 15 June 2024 was established for the Directorate of Education to decide after a personal hearing with both parties. The option to challenge the Directorate's decision remains available to the involved parties.

PARIDHI KUMARI THROUGH HER FATHER MOHAN KUMAR VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8254/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Paridhi Kumari cannot claim a right to admission in the Respondent 2-School for the academic year 2023-2024 based on the allotment by the Directorate of Education (DoE) from the academic year 2021-2022. Allotments made through a computerized draw of lots are limited to the specific year and do not carry over to subsequent years. The provisional admission order for 2023-2024 does not establish a permanent right for her. The DoE is directed to provide education to her as an EWS student in another appropriate school.

PARUL SINGH THROUGH HER MOTHER BABITA KUMARI VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13227/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The grievance of Parul Singh is no longer relevant as the Indian School (Morning Shift) granted her admission in the EWS category, complying with her request. The school will treat her as a regular student and provide education according to the RTE Act. The petition has been disposed of.

PAWAN GUPTA AND ANR VS KAMAL GUPTA AND ORS [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-198/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The previous order referring disputes to arbitration cannot be recalled, but the properties to be excluded from arbitration must be identified. Rahul Gupta holds a 23% share in the family property corpus, which is not subject to arbitration due to his absence from the family settlement deeds and arbitration petition. This 23% share, along with properties owned by intervenor companies, is excluded from the arbitration proceedings. Attempts by Pawan Gupta and Kamal Gupta to limit the exclusion to only the intervenor companies' properties were rejected as unconscionable. Rahul Gupta should have been included in the family settlement process, but the present arbitration mandates protections for his interests. Accordingly, his share in the family properties and the intervenor companies' properties remain outside the scope of arbitration.

PAWAN KUMAR THROUGH HIS FATHER SANAM GAUTAM VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11869/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent school must admit the petitioner children allocated seats in the KG/Pre-primary class for the 2023-2024 academic session as determined by the computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education. The school did not challenge the DoE's data indicating 24 available EWS/DG/CWSN seats, thus accepting it. Unfilled vacancies in the EWS/DG category can be carried over to the next academic year. The Directorate of Education has the authority to issue circulars and orders under the RTE Act concerning the allocation of entry-level seats for EWS/DG/CWSN children.

PAYU PAYMENTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD [ARB.P.-1209/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes regarding the respondent's liability to cover the petitioner's losses under insurance policies must be referred to arbitration. The broad wording of the arbitration clauses encompasses all disputes between the parties. The respondent's claim that these clauses only pertain to quantum was rejected, as it would require an evaluation of arbitrability. A three-member arbitral tribunal is to be constituted to resolve the disputes, with all related factual and legal questions left for the tribunal's determination.

POONAM MITTAL VS M/S CREAT ED PVT. LTD. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-80/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's request to substitute the sole arbitrator was found unjustified. Under Section 29A(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, substitution is permissible only if the arbitrator fails to proceed expeditiously. The existing arbitrator was conducting the proceedings diligently, and delays in witness cross-examination did not constitute undue protraction. The prayer for substitution was rejected, and the mandate of the arbitral tribunal was extended for six months.

POONAM SAREEN VS MS UNLIMITED RESOURCES AND ORS [EX.F.A.-2/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dismissal of the appellant's execution petition was upheld, as the Limitation Act does not allow for condonation of delay in such filings. Allegations against the appellant's counsel regarding lack of communication about the ex parte decree for over 10 years lacked evidential support. The lower court's order was deemed free of infirmity, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

POWER GRID CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED VS RANJIT SINGH AND COMPANY LLP [O.M.P. (COMM)-134/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitral tribunal's award on Claim 1, which partially allowed the respondent's claim for R.S. 2,42,17,988/-, was set aside due to the absence of supporting evidence for the claim. The tribunal's reliance on "justice, equity and good conscience" for the award was deemed impermissible under Section 28(2) of the Arbitration Act, 1996, as such decisions must be based on evidence rather than subjective notions of fairness. Consequently, the award was found to be patently illegal and perverse.

PRABHAKAR YADAV & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2998/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The requirement under Section 15(1) of the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine Act, 2020 for the National Exit Test (NExT) applies to students enrolled in BAMS and BUMS courses after the Act came into force on 11 June 2021, regardless of their earlier admission dates. Petitioners do not have a vested right under the previous IMCC Act to be licensed without passing the NExT, as the right to a license arises only after obtaining their degrees. The introduction of the NExT requirement is deemed a valid policy decision made in public interest, and claims of legitimate expectation from the petitioners were rejected.

PRADEEP SAHU VS JAWAHAR LAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13035/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) rejected the petitioner's application for the Ph.D. program in 2022-23, citing the invalidity of the Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) as of the admission deadline. However, the JRF was valid until 25 September 2023 according to UGC guidelines. The rejection was deemed unjustified, leading to the petitioner's admission to the Ph.D. program in International Legal Studies.

PRAGATI PATH EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATIONS MILLENNIUM NATIONAL SCHOOL VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5872/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner-school's grievance regarding its debarment from affiliation by CBSE is no longer relevant, as CBSE clarified that the school is not dis-affiliated, and the debarment on the SARAS portal was incorrect. A show cause notice issued to the school remains pending, and no opinion on it was expressed. The writ petition was disposed of.

PRAGATI SHRIVASTAVA VS THE SECRETARY, CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY OF SECONDARY EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-11250/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's request to change her father's name in her CBSE certificates from "D.N. Srivastav" to "Surendra Prasad Shrivastav" was granted based on public documents like her birth certificate, Aadhaar card, and family documents that confirmed her father's correct name. A pragmatic approach was taken, emphasizing the importance of a person's name as a part of their identity and dismissing minor transliteration discrepancies. The CBSE was instructed to issue new certificates with the corrected name, contingent upon the petitioner providing an affidavit and indemnifying the CBSE.

PREETI SINGH VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3259/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner was deemed ineligible for an Eligibility Certificate from the Medical Council of India for pursuing an MBBS degree abroad due to failing the Biology subject in Class 12. Compliance with CBSE guidelines and Graduate Medical Education Regulations 1997 mandates passing Physics, Chemistry, Biology, and English individually. The petitioner did not disclose the failure in the application for the Eligibility Certificate, which constituted concealment of information. The decision to cancel the Eligibility Certificate was upheld, with no equities claimed in favor of the petitioner.

PRITI GOEL VS DR ASRA HUSSAIN KHUMUSHI [ARB.P.-1106/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Mr. Setu Niket, Advocate, is appointed as the arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties, who failed to agree on an arbitrator despite Section 21 notices. Both parties acknowledge that the disputes are subject to arbitration under the Partnership Deed. The delay in refiling the petition is condoned.

PRIYA ALIAS POOJA VS HARI CHAND AND ORS [RSA-127/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The impugned order passed by the Additional District Judge was set aside due to the misclassification of the appeal as a second appeal under Section 100 of the CPC instead of a first appeal under Section 96. The Additional District Judge did not comply with Order XLI Rule 31 of the CPC, failing to independently re-appreciate the evidence and instead agreeing with the trial court's findings. The matter was remitted to the Additional District Judge for fresh consideration in accordance with the law.

PRIYANSHI PATHAK VS MAHARAJA AGRASEN MODEL SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13830/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's request to correct her date of birth in school records from March 26, 2008, to May 26, 2008, was dismissed. The change was sought 12 years after an affidavit by her father was submitted at the time of admission. If born on May 26, 2008, the petitioner would have been underage during admission, raising doubts about the validity of the birth certificate. The petition was characterized as an inappropriate use of legal processes.

PUBLIC WORK DEPARTMENT VS MUKESH SHARMA [O.M.P. (COMM)-242/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's application challenging an arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed as it was filed beyond the 120-day limitation period. Even after accounting for the time spent in earlier proceedings, the petition was submitted well past the deadline from when the petitioner received the award. The petition is barred by limitation.

PULKIT GOGNA (MINOR) VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3241/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition for admission to Class IV in the respondent school for the academic year 2024-25 was dismissed due to the petitioner's failure to be shortlisted or allocated admission by the Directorate of Education through the computerized draw of lots. The petitioner also did not apply for admission to that school. It was noted that prompt action should be taken against schools that unjustifiably refuse admission to shortlisted EWS/DG category students to alleviate court burdens.

PUMA SE VS INDIAMART INTERMESH LTD [CS(COMM)-607/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Indiamart IndiaMESH Ltd (IIL) is allegedly infringing Puma SE's registered trademarks by listing "Puma" in a drop-down menu for prospective sellers, enabling counterfeiters to falsely represent their products as genuine Puma items and harming Puma's trademark reputation. IIL's argument of being a mere intermediary for safe harbour under the Information Technology Act, 2000, was dismissed, as its active role in providing the trademark and lack of due diligence negate any protection.

PVR INOX LTD. VS SHEETAL ANSAL & ANR. [ARB.P.-517/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A valid arbitration clause exists in the Sub-Sub-Lease Deed between PVR INOX Ltd. and Sheetal Ansal. Mr. Sumeet Pushkarna is appointed as the arbitrator to address the disputes. Sheetal Ansal is permitted to raise legal objections and counter-claims in the arbitration. The inclusion of Respondent 2 in the proceedings is left to the arbitrator's discretion based on a separate application by PVR INOX Ltd.

PVR INOX LTD. VS SHEETAL ANSAL & ORS. [ARB.P.-518/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was allowed, leading to the referral of disputes to arbitration based on a Maintenance Agreement dated 11 May 2018, which included an arbitration clause. The same arbitrator from a separate matter involving the petitioner and Respondent 1 was appointed for this case. The inclusion of Respondent 2 in the arbitration proceedings was left for the arbitrator to decide.

QUDSIYA VS CBSE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-221/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner is entitled to have her father's name corrected from "Mohd. Sauleheen" to "Mohd. Sualeheen" on her CBSE certificates. The case involves a simple spelling correction, which should be accommodated liberally. The CBSE is to issue a revised certificate within four weeks.

RADICO KHAITAN LIMITED VS NARGESH KUMAR [ARB.P.-950/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A dispute between Radico Khaitan Limited and Nargesh Kumar has been referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) for the appointment of an arbitrator. The arbitration agreement specifies that disputes will be resolved by arbitration in Delhi, but stipulates the petitioner should appoint the arbitrator, which is not allowed under existing rulings. The DIAC has been directed to appoint the arbitrator, who will charge fees according to its schedule.

RAGHUNATH SINGH (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS VS SATISH CHAND AND ANOTHERS [EX.F.A.-47/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The plaintiff, Satish Chand, is entitled to a decree of possession against the defendant, Raj Kumar, despite the defendant transferring possession to the landlord, Raghunath Singh, during the suit. This transfer violated Section 52 of the Transfer of Property Act as it occurred without court authority and impacted the plaintiff's rights. The objections from Raghunath Singh's legal heirs were rejected because they did not assert any independent rights over the property and merely repeated previously dismissed claims. The plaintiff can execute the decree against the landlord or any other individual in possession of the property.

RAHUL SIKRI VS NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF OPEN SCHOOLING [W.P.(C)-882/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order of the National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS) rejecting a petition for the correction of the father's name in school certificates from 1999 and 2002 was set aside. The NIOS notification permitting corrections beyond 10 years was interpreted as expansive. The matter was remanded to NIOS for a decision on the petitioner's request within 3 months, without addressing the merits of the correction itself. Recommendations were made for the NIOS to consider revising the notification for clarity to reduce the number of applications.

RAJ GANGWANI VS GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1506/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petitions of students Raj Gangwani and Durgesh Mohan Mishra for grace marks or a "mercy chance" in the Communication Sciences paper were dismissed. University regulations state that grace marks can only be given in regular examinations, not in re-appear examinations. Provisions for grace marks apply only at the end of the course for degree eligibility, not during it. The argument for a "mercy chance" beyond the allowed three attempts was rejected, as a special chance granted to another student due to COVID-19 did not apply to the petitioners. Both petitions were dismissed with no orders as to costs.

RAJ KUMARI TANEJA VS RAJINDER KUMAR & ANR. [ARB.P.-862/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was allowed, appointing an arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties. The partnership deed included an arbitration clause, but the parties could not agree on arbitration. The issue of whether the disputes were settled was deemed a question of fact for the appointed arbitrator to decide. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the disputes, and the applicant retained the right to address the arbitrator regarding the representation of one of the respondents.

RAJ KUMARI TANEJA VS RAJINDER KUMAR & ORS. [ARB.P.-863/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The parties have a valid arbitration agreement under the Partnership Deed. The issue of whether the disputes have been settled is a factual question for the arbitrator. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with the right for the respondent to move for representation on behalf of a party suffering from a psychological ailment. No opinion on the merits of the disputes was expressed, and the arbitrator is directed to handle the representation issue according to the law.

RAJAT (MINOR) THROUGH HIS FATHER AND NATURAL GURDIAN SHRI VIKAS VS THE SECRETARY, MINISRTY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE & EMPOWERMENT GOVERNMENT OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-13208/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition filed by Rajat challenging his admission to the D.Ed. Special Education (ASD) course was dismissed. Rajat initially applied for the D.Ed. Special Education (ASD) course, later changed his application to D.Ed. Special Education (Hearing Impairment), and then attempted to revert to the D.Ed. Special Education (ASD) course. Evidence showed he concealed facts and misled the proceedings. He was deemed not entitled to equitable relief due to presenting himself with "unclean hands."

RAJAT JOON VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4026/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
Rajat Joon is entitled to change the names of his parents on his Class X and Class XII certificates to Rajender Singh Joon and Gayatri Devi, based on a previous decree. An existing order from October 21, 2020, supports this claim, which identifies his parents as such. No views were expressed on the challenges to this order.

RAJNI SHARMA VS DES RAJ SETHI [EX.F.A.-50/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The orders directing attachment of the appellant's property were set aside. The appellant is required to pay Rs. 10.04 lakhs to the respondent in 4 equal bi-monthly instalments, with allowances for previously paid amounts and an additional Rs. 50,000. Any amount deposited by a third party with the trial court can be claimed for release by the appellant, contingent on compliance with the payment directions.

RAKESH KUMAR SHARMA VS MOTHER DAIRY FRUIT & VEGETABLES PVT LTD [RSA-94/2019]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The appeal filed by Ms. K. Kiran on behalf of her missing brother, Rakesh Kumar Sharma, was found to be incompetent. Rakesh Kumar Sharma was missing prior to the judgment and did not sign the appeal or provide authorization for Ms. Kiran to represent him. An appeal must be filed by a litigant with their knowledge and permission, and allowing unauthorized third parties to appeal can cause serious prejudice. The appeal was dismissed.

RAKESH VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12937/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The petitioner's daughter, belonging to the Disadvantaged Group in the Scheduled Caste category, is entitled to free, compulsory elementary education under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. Her shortlisting by the Directorate of Education for Nursery/Pre-school admission created an enforceable right to admission. The respondent school could not refuse her admission without seeking modification of the seat matrix within the required period, which it failed to do. Therefore, her provisional admission as a DG category student was regularized.

RASHMI GUPTA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5086/2024]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
The writ petition filed by Rashmi Gupta challenging her son Ivaan Rana's admission to the preschool for the 2024-2025 academic session was dismissed. The school correctly awarded Ivaan 65 points based on evidence showing his residence was 1-2 km from the school, not within 1 km. Additionally, the sister benefit was limited to the second child, disqualifying the petitioner from receiving an extra 20 points for her third child. Submitting two application forms with differing distance claims barred the petitioner from seeking relief under Article 226 of the Constitution.

RBCL PILETECH INFRA VS BHOLASINGH JAIPRAKASH CONSTRUCTION LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-1108/2023]
Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar
A prima facie case exists to include Respondent 2 BHEL in the arbitration initiated by petitioner RBCL Piletech Infra against Respondent 1 Bholasingh Jaiprakash Construction Ltd (BJCL) due to BHEL's role in payment provisions within the Work Order. However, there is no direct contractual relationship between the petitioner and Respondent 3 NTPC, making NTPC's inclusion in the arbitration unjustified at this stage, though the petitioner may seek NTPC's inclusion by demonstrating necessity to the arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator was appointed to address the disputes.

RELIANCE COMMUNICATIONS LIMITED VS UNIQUE IDENTIFICATION AUTHORITY OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-239/2017]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The award of the sole arbitrator was upheld, confirming that payment to the petitioner was to be made on a "per connect minute" basis, consistent with the contract terms. The arbitrator's decision to remand service level agreement deductions for fresh consideration, due to a violation of natural justice, was deemed appropriate and not subject to interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

RELIGARE FINVEST LIMITED VS SKIL INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-224/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between Religare Finvest Limited and respondents 2-5 are considered prima facie arbitrable due to the arbitration clause in the Deeds of Security. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Aniruddh Sharma, is appointed to resolve the disputes related to the joint and several liabilities of respondents 2-5 concerning a loan provided to Skil Infrastructure Limited, which is in Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process. Substituted service on respondents 2-5 was deemed unnecessary as they had been previously served but failed to appear.

REWANT AHLAWAT VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-3578/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition seeking correction of the date of birth in the Secondary School Examination Certificate was dismissed. The application for correction, submitted eight years after issuance, was barred by the one-year time limit set by the CBSE's notification. Additionally, two conflicting birth certificates from different authorities made it impossible to ascertain the correct date of birth.

REYANSH THROUGH HIS FATHER SUBHASH CHAND MEENA VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6590/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by Reyansh for admission to Class II in the Disadvantaged Group category for the academic year 2024-25 was dismissed. The right for admission based on the computerized draw of lots from the previous academic year has expired. Reyansh can apply as an Economically Weaker Section student for the upcoming academic year, with his application to be processed by the Directorate of Education following the standard procedure.

RISHIKA KHARB VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14554/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Rishika Kharb's writ petition resulted in her admission to the 4th semester of the B.Sc. in Physical Science with Chemistry course at Hindu College. The necessary NOC was obtained from Dyal Singh College within the migration deadline, and the arguments from Hindu College and Delhi University to deny her migration were rejected.

RISHITA SHUKLA VS DAULATRAM COLLEGE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12387/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by Rishita Shukla challenging the conversion of a vacant B.A. (Hons.) English seat at Daulat Ram College into a spot counselling seat was dismissed. The vacant seat was filled by a candidate with higher marks in the CUET than Shukla, and the seat available for spot counselling resulted from a different candidate declining admission. Shukla's misconception about the nature of the seats and the university's actions was noted, indicating no illegality in the proceedings.

RITIKA PRASAD VS GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-8841/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Educational certificates must reflect the names of both parents rather than only the father's name, based on gender equality principles and the right to personal identification. The respondent university is directed to issue a fresh B.A. LLB degree that includes both parents' names. Suggestions for naming conventions on certificates have been provided to the University Grants Commission, with the understanding that exceptional cases may be handled individually.

RUKMINIDEVI ARUNDALE COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-12707/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The NCTE Appellate Authority's dismissal of the petitioner's appeal against the withdrawal of recognition for its B.Ed. course was deemed invalid due to reliance on grounds not included in the original show cause notice, denying the petitioner a chance to respond and violating natural justice principles. The withdrawal order and dismissal were quashed, with a directive to restore the college's recognition within two weeks. The NCTE retains the right to act on any deficiencies in the college's functioning, provided the college is given an opportunity to address them.

SABRIN KHATUN VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11534/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's son, belonging to the Economically Weaker Section/Disadvantaged Group, is entitled to free and compulsory education under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. The Directorate of Education's selection for admission as an EWS/DG candidate must be honored by the school unless a modification request was made within the allotted time. The provisional admission of the petitioner's son to the respondent school for Nursery/Pre-school in the 2023-2024 academic year was regularized, and the school was directed to provide all necessary amenities, including uniform and textbooks.

SABU TRADE PVT LTD VS SH RAJ KUMAR SABU AND ORS [C.O.(COMM.IPD-CR)-780/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

RKS/STC, as the registered proprietor of the "SACHAMOTI" trademark and copyright, presented a prima facie case in its favor. The defendants' evidence was inconsistent and insufficient to challenge the validity of RKS/STC's registrations. An interim injunction was granted, prohibiting the defendants from using the "SACHAMOTI" mark and label, while the defendants' application was dismissed. Further analysis of the evidence will occur at trial.

SAKSHI HOODA VS THE DIRECTOR NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3893/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Sakshi Hooda passed Anatomy and Biochemistry but failed Physiology in her MBBS exams, requiring her to retake only the Physiology paper according to the National Medical Commission's passing criteria. The college mandated retaking all subjects as supplementary exams, leading to passing Physiology and Biochemistry but failing Anatomy. The revised results from the University of Delhi showed her passing in all papers, allowing her promotion to the third semester of the MBBS course, contingent upon fulfilling class attendance requirements and potential remedial classes.

SAKSHI SEMWAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15477/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's 4-year undergraduate diploma from the Indian Institute of Crafts & Design (IICD) is considered equivalent to an undergraduate degree for admission to the Master of Fashion Management (MFM) course at the National Institute of Fashion Technology (NIFT). Initially admitted based on an IICD certificate affirming the diploma's equivalence to a B.Des program, the NIFT's request for an equivalence certificate further supported this consideration. An IICD-issued certificate confirmed that its B.Des program is a recognized 4-year undergraduate degree by the University Grants Commission (UGC). As a result, the NIFT's decision to cancel the petitioner's admission was quashed, and her admission to the MFM course was restored.

SAMEER BANSAL & ORS. VS VIPIN GUPTA & ANR. [ARB.P.-539/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A valid arbitration agreement between the parties is debatable, warranting examination on a prima facie basis under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. An arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the dispute, and the legal issues related to the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) remain open for discussion in the arbitral proceedings.

SAMEER SINGH MINOR THROUGH HIS FATHER VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12782/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The University of Delhi's allocation of ward quota seats stream-wise, rather than course-wise, aligns with the Academic Council's resolution from November 27, 2020. The resolution does not require course-wise admissions prior to considering additional admissions in the same course. The stream-wise allocation policy, approved by the Vice Chancellor, is deemed reasonable and compliant with statutory provisions. The cancellation of the petitioner's provisional admission to the B.A. (Hons.) History course was justified due to the petitioner's lower CUET score compared to other candidates admitted under the extern ward quota in the Humanities stream cluster. The petition was dismissed with no identified illegality in the University's actions.

SAMIKSHA CHAUDHARY & ORS. VS MAULANA AZAD MEDICAL COLLEGE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4016/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioners are ineligible to attempt the 3rd Professional Part II MBBS Examination on 11 March 2024 due to insufficient clinical training weeks, with Petitioners 1 and 2 completing only 73 weeks instead of the required 84, and Petitioner 3 failing to complete the full 4.5 years of the MBBS course. Additionally, they did not meet the 12-month duration requirement for both Part I and Part II of the exam. Consequently, the exam has been deferred to April 2025, with instructions for the petitioners to complete the remaining clinical posting weeks within the next year.

SANDEEP KUMAR VS THE PRINCIPAL, APEEJAY SCHOOL ANR. [W.P.(C)-15376/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent school must admit the petitioner's daughter to the Nursery/Pre-school class for the 2023-2024 academic year, as determined by the computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The school's failure to contest the DoE's data within the required timeframe negates its claims regarding a reduction in entry-level seats and ongoing litigation. Admission must be granted immediately according to the draw's outcome.

SANDEEP VS THE PRINCIPAL DAV PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14728/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's child, belonging to the Economically Weaker Section, is entitled to admission in the respondent school's KG/Pre-primary class under the 25% EWS/DG quota as per the RTE Act. Previous decisions confirmed the obligation of schools to admit students shortlisted by the Directorate of Education through a computerized draw of lots. The respondent school's claim of suppression of facts was rejected, as the child's prior allotment to another school did not negate the right to seek admission in the respondent school.

SANGEETA VS NEETU [TR.P.(C.)-152/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The suit filed by Sangeeta against her sister-in-law Neetu for an injunction regarding the suit property falls under the jurisdiction of the Family Court. The injunction request arose from the marital relationship between Neetu and Sangeeta's brother Kamal, leading to the decision to transfer the case from the Civil Court to the Family Court.

SANHINA AGNIHOTRI VS PRAKASH CHANDRA GUWALANI [ARB.P.-422/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes arose between the parties regarding a lease agreement dated January 1, 2019, which included an arbitration clause. The petitioner invoked this clause by notifying the respondent, who did not reply. The petitioner sought to refer the disputes to arbitration, countering the respondent's claim of settlement through a June 9, 2024 agreement, asserting that not all disputes were resolved. Examination confirmed the existence of an arbitration agreement and timely filing under relevant provisions. The issue of arbitrability or liability discharge could not be addressed. As a result, a sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes.

SANJAY GOEL VS BKR CAPITAL PVT. LTD. [TR.P.(C.)-76/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition for transferring a case from Commercial Court-04 was dismissed. Orders from the Commercial Court-04, although arguable, were not considered perverse or absurd, reflecting a valid interpretation of the Commercial Courts Act. Costs imposed on the petitioner for filing delays were upheld to emphasize the need for prompt resolution of commercial matters. The grounds cited for transfer did not substantiate a move away from the currently assigned commercial court.

SANJAY GOEL VS MAJESTIC BUILDCON PVT. LTD. [TR.P.(C.)-75/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner failed to justify the transfer of the commercial suit (CS (Comm) 525/2018) from the District Judge (Commercial Court)-04, which had the necessary jurisdiction. Challenges to prior orders, even if arguable, do not affect the court's competence to hear the case. A high threshold is required to transfer a case under Section 24 of the CPC, and dissatisfaction with a single order is insufficient for transfer. The petition was dismissed with costs of ₹50,000/-.

SARA SHARMA VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3112/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition was dismissed due to the mandatory requirement of submitting a domicile certificate as per the CBSE's notification dated September 5, 2023. An admit card issued erroneously without the domicile certificate does not waive this requirement. Previous judgments established that the domicile certificate cannot be substituted with other documents, and compliance with application conditions is essential, even when seeking substantial justice.

SANJEEV KUMAR MISHRA VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-75/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Jawaharlal Nehru University must provide a 100% visually disabled student with free hostel accommodation on campus until the completion of his M.A. Sociology course. The Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 supersedes the JNU Hostel Manual, requiring the university to offer reasonable accommodation to persons with disabilities. Denying hostel accommodation to the petitioner would violate the principle of equal treatment, as the university failed to demonstrate that such accommodation would be unreasonable.

SAPTRISHI BUILDERS PVT LTD VS VEG SANCHAR VIHAR CGHS LTD [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-9/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The judgment debtor is not liable to pay additional interest on the amount deposited with the court, as this deposit is considered a "payment" under the Code of Civil Procedure. Once the decretal amount is deposited, the decree holder loses the right to interest from the date of deposit and is only entitled to interest earned on the deposit. There is no distinction between deposits made for obtaining a stay and those for satisfying a decree, as both serve to secure the awarded amount. Similar legal issues were addressed in two related matters.

SARABJEET SINGH SETHI VS DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION, NORTH WEST, GOVERNMENT OF NCT DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-420/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Sarabjeet Singh Sethi is recognized as the biological father of Gunneet Singh Sethi and has the right to have his name recorded in the school documents. The Srijan Public School is directed to update its records to reflect Sethi as Gunneet's father, alongside Damanjeet Kaur as the mother. The respondents showed no interest in contesting the matter.

SAROJ KHEMKA VS MUKAT BEHARI KHEMKA & ORS. [ARB.P.-138/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner's right to invoke the arbitration clause in the Partnership Deed was not affected by previous opposition to a Section 8 application for arbitration. The petitioner's ability to seek arbitration is independent of any prior stance on the application. Additionally, claims being time-barred was deemed an issue for the arbitral tribunal to address. An arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes.

SARTHAK JHA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-12027/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner, certified with 50% permanent intellectual disability, is entitled to 3% reservation for persons with disabilities in admission to the five-year integrated BA LLB and BBA LLB courses at Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies. The 2016 Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act provides 5% reservation for PWDs in government and government-aided institutions, while the Delhi Professional Colleges or Institutions Act and Rules grant 3% reservation applicable to unaided institutions like VIPS. The argument that the 2016 RPWD Act does not apply to self-financing institutions was rejected, establishing that the DPCIA and DPCIR provide a complete code for admissions, affirming the petitioner's right to admission and its consequential benefits. The communications cancelling the petitioner's admission have been quashed.

SATWIK RAJ VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1135/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition by an unreserved category student seeking adjustment to unfilled seats for foreign national candidates in the Ph.D. program in Spanish studies at Jawaharlal Nehru University was dismissed. Foreign national seats are classified as supernumerary and cannot be filled by regular category students according to UGC Regulations, which also impose limits on the number of scholars a supervisor can guide. The cases cited by the petitioner were distinguished as not involving supernumerary seats, and reliance on the admission policy clause was rejected. The petition was dismissed, and the prior interim order was vacated.

SAUMYA BINANI & ORS. VS BANWARI LAL SHARMA ALIAS BANWARI LAL [ARB.P.-854/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A valid arbitration clause existed in the Agreement to Sell between the parties, and a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was filed within the prescribed time limit. A sole arbitrator was appointed to arbitrate the disputes, with all questions of fact and law left open for consideration in the arbitral proceedings.

SERVOTECH ELECTRICALS PVT LTD VS BENNETT UNIVERSITY [ARB.P.-31/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by Servotech Electricals Pvt Ltd against Bennett University under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is maintainable. The arbitration clause in the contract allows for a choice between institutional arbitration under the Indian Council of Arbitration rules or arbitration under the 1996 Act. The petitioner chose arbitration under the 1996 Act, making the requirement for proceedings at the ICA office inapplicable. An independent arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the dispute, involving a claim of approximately R.S. 40 Lakhs.

SERVOTECH ELECTRICALS PVT LTD VS PARSVNATH DEVELOPERS LTD [ARB.P.-30/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Conditions for invoking Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were satisfied due to the existence of a valid arbitration agreement and a petition being filed within 3 years of the Section 21 notice. The respondent's counsel did not object to the disputes being referred to arbitration. Mr. Prateek Mohan Sinha, Advocate, was appointed as the arbitrator to adjudicate a dispute involving a claim of around R.S. 30 Lakhs, with a directive to file the requisite disclosure under Section 12(2) of the Act within a week.

SETU VINIT GOENKA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2860/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition challenging the normalization procedure and percentile scoring system for the JEE (Main) examination was dismissed. The normalization procedure, described in the Information Bulletin, is recognized as a widely adopted practice and is constitutionally acceptable. The petitioner was aware of this process before the examination, and the allegations presented were deemed speculative. Additionally, the complexity of the normalization procedure was acknowledged as beyond subjective assessment, and the challenge did not meet the required threshold for intervention.

SPML INFRA LIMITED VS DELHI JAL BOARD [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-558/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The mandate of the Arbitral Tribunal in the dispute between SPML Infra Limited and the Delhi Jal Board was extended from 31 July 2024 to 31 January 2025 under Section 29A(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996, as the Delhi Jal Board did not object to the extension.

SHARAD BHANSALI & ANR. VS MUKESH AGGARWAL & ANR. [ARB.A.-2/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Agreement to Sell (ATS) between the parties was found to be subject to Article 23A of the Stamp Act, which applies to contracts for the transfer of immovable property under Section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act. Arguments that Article 23A does not apply because the ATS did not convey immovable property and that Section 53A requires simultaneous transfer of possession with ATS execution were rejected. Transfer of possession in part performance of the ATS applies Section 53A, thereby attracting Article 23A of the Stamp Act.

SH. DWARIKA PRASAD YADAV SHIKSHA COLLEGE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL OF TEACHER EDUCATION (NCTE) [W.P.(C)-8584/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Shiksha College sought communication regarding the status of its application for recognition of the D.El.Ed course for 2023-2024 from the National Council of Teacher Education (NCTE). The NCTE's counsel committed to providing this status within two weeks, leading to the petitioner's counsel not pressing further. The petition was disposed of while preserving the petitioner's rights to challenge the NCTE's eventual decision.

SH. RAJINDER KUMAR NARULA VS SH. PRINCE TANDON [ARB.P.-1220/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between the parties will be referred to arbitration based on a valid arbitration agreement in the partnership deed. The requirements for examining the existence of this agreement and the timely filing of the petition were met. An arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with all questions of fact and law left for the arbitrator to decide.

SHANA BANO (MINOR) VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3231/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A student from the Economically Weaker Section (EWS) was denied admission to Class IV for the 2024-25 academic year as she was not shortlisted by the Directorate of Education (DoE) after being allocated a place in Class III for the previous year. The student did not pursue legal action at that time when admission was refused. The decision stressed the need for the DoE to take action against schools that unjustifiably deny admission to EWS students.

SHERAWALI DEVELOPERS LLP VS M/S MAJESTY HOMES & ORS. [TR.P.(C.)-19/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure affirmed the power to transfer a non-commercial suit to an appropriate Commercial Court. The analysis of previous judgments established that this power is not limited by prior rulings. The plaintiff was directed to refile the plaint per the Commercial Courts Act, while the transfer was allowed despite the suit's advanced stage. The defendant was permitted to raise issues concerning non-compliance with pre-institution mediation requirements in the transferee Commercial Court.

SHIKHA CHAKRAVARTY & ORS. VS MAJOR SAUMITRA SARKAR (RETD.) [EX.P.-36/2021]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

An execution petition was filed by decree holders to enforce a settlement agreement. The outstanding obligations of the respondent were examined, particularly regarding repairs and lift installation. The liability for repairs was contingent on requests from the petitioners, which were not provided. The respondent was directed to allow access to the lift and to take steps to constitute a society of flat owners as per the settlement. The execution petition was disposed of, with remaining issues addressed satisfactorily.

SHIMLA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-76/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order of the Appellate Committee of the NCTE requires a fresh inspection and consideration of the B.Ed., D.El.Ed., and M.Ed. courses at Shimla College of Education. The withdrawal order regarding the college's recognition is quashed, restoring recognition for all three courses pending the outcome of the inspection. The NCTE must update its website to reflect this restored recognition and issue new restoration orders.

SHIVAM SINGLA VS THE PRINCIPAL DAV PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10504/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondent-school must continue providing education to the petitioner as an Economically Weaker Section (EWS) student under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009. The petitioner was admitted through a computerized draw of lots conducted by the Directorate of Education (DoE). The school applied for a reduction in the number of EWS seats, but the DoE did not respond timely. If a school does not seek exemption or report errors in the DoE's calculations, it must admit students allocated through the computerized draw. The DoE is instructed to address all representations regarding reductions in EWS/DG category seats before future draws to prevent similar issues.

SHRI NIRANKAR VS SHRI PAWANSUT & ANR. [RSA-10/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appellant Nirankar failed to establish any right, title, or interest in the disputed property. Claims based on two receipts were insufficient to prove his contribution toward the purchase price. Challenges to the title documents of the respondent Pawansut on grounds of fraud lacked merit. The appeal was dismissed without raising any substantial question of law.

SHRI SURINDRA KUMAR VS CENTRAL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT [ARB.P.-165/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Shri Surindra Kumar exhausted the pre-arbitral dispute resolution mechanism before seeking the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Dispute Redressal Committee (DRC) of the Central Public Works Department (CPWD) did not render a decision within the 60-day period, nor was there any agreement to extend it. Thus, the petitioner was entitled to invoke arbitration by issuing a notice under Section 21 of the Act. Compliance with the request for appointment of the arbitrator in the prescribed format was deemed a mere formality, and the respondent's acknowledgment of the request confirmed the petitioner's right to arbitration. An arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes between the parties.

SHRISHTI KUMARI THROUGH HER NEXT FRIEND AND NATURAL FATHER MR. SANTOSH KUMAR VS JAWAHAR NAVODAYA VIDYALAYA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6440/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya's denial of admission to the petitioner based on her previous study location in New Delhi instead of Mungeshpur was deemed arbitrary and in violation of Article 14 of the Constitution. Excluding students from Central and New Delhi districts from admission to JNVs was classified as unconstitutional. The decision was quashed, requiring the JNV to grant the petitioner admission in Class VI for the 2024-25 academic year, pending the outcome of a related appeal.

SIMPLEX INFRASTRUCTURES LIMITED VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED [ARB.P.-851/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between the parties are arbitrable, despite objections about the claims not being "notified" by the General Manager, as required by the arbitration clause. Conflicting Supreme Court decisions on the examination scope under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration Act were acknowledged, but the decision on arbitrability was left to the Arbitral Tribunal. A retired judge was appointed as the arbitrator for the dispute, amounting to approximately R.S. 36 crores.

SIMPLEX INFRASTRUCTURES LIMITED VS JAMMU AND KASHMIR ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION AGENCY [ARB.P.-1125/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition by Simplex Infrastructures Limited for the appointment of an arbitrator against the Jammu and Kashmir Economic Reconstruction Agency was dismissed due to the absence of a specified neutral location in the arbitration clause. The lack of defined jurisdiction resulted in the inability to entertain the petition, considering the differing locations of the petitioner in Kolkata and the respondent in Srinagar, where the contract was executed. The petitioner may seek remedies in the appropriate forum.

SIMPLEX INFRASTRUCTURES LTD VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-97/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Simplex Infrastructures Ltd. was permitted to withdraw its petition, retaining the option to seek the same relief from the arbitral tribunal in a separate matter. An arbitral tribunal, headed by Hon'ble Dr. Justice S. Muralidhar, was appointed to arbitrate the dispute between Simplex Infrastructures Ltd. and Indian Oil Corporation Limited.

SMS TEACHERS TRAINING COLLEGE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4950/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The legal issues in the cases filed by Raiganj Educare Teachers Training College and SMS Teachers Training College are addressed by a previous order from 15 September 2023. The directions from that order will apply to the current cases, subject to the outcome of a Letters Patent Appeal initiated by the respondents against the previous decision.

SMT JODHIAN (SINCE DECEASED THROUGH LRS) & ORS. VS METHODIST CHURCH IN INDIA [RSA-15/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The second appeal was dismissed, affirming that the suit property belongs to the Methodist Church in India. The appellants admitted prior ownership by the respondent in an earlier suit and did not establish adverse possession. The argument related to Order II Rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure was rejected as it contradicted the appellants' previous position.

SMT RAJ RANI THROUGH HER AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE SH SANJAY SHARMA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [RSA-128/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The review appeal (RSA 128/2023) filed by Smt Raj Rani was dismissed due to a delay of 1991 days in filing the appeal. The explanation for the delay was deemed unsatisfactory, and the delay was not condoned. Additionally, the appellant was ineligible for the Supreme Court's extension of limitation related to the COVID-19 pandemic, as the time for filing had already elapsed before the established cut-off date. All pending applications were also dismissed.

ST STEPHENS COLLEGE VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-803/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

St. Stephen's College, as a minority institution, can establish its own admission process under Article 30(1) of the Constitution, allowing minority students to be subject to an interview with a 15% weightage. Non-minority students must be admitted based exclusively on CUET scores. The University of Delhi is required to ensure an equitable allocation of postgraduate seats to St. Stephen's College and to consider guidelines for fair seat distribution among colleges to prevent arbitrary decisions.

ST. COLUMBUS SCHOOL & ANR. VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-2965/2020]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Central Board of Secondary Education's order withdrawing the affiliation of the petitioner school was deemed invalid due to a lack of compliance with natural justice principles. The action of withdrawal without allowing the school a proper opportunity to be heard was considered extreme. The order was quashed, and the school's provisional affiliation was restored, with the CBSE permitted to take further action in accordance with the law.

STATE OF HARYANA VS BHAGWAN MAHAVEER COLLEGE OF ENGG. AND MANAGEMENT AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-5452/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition filed by the State of Haryana was dismissed because Bhagwan Mahaveer College of Engineering and Management had merged with Mahaveer Swami Institute of Technology in 2021, resulting in the former no longer existing. The petitioner did not proceed with the writ petition further, leading to the disposal of the matter.

SULPHUR MILLS LIMITED VS DHARMAJ CROP GUARD LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-1225/2018]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The defendants established a credible challenge to the validity of the plaintiff's Indian Patent IN 282429 based on obviousness in relation to prior art, including the plaintiff's own earlier patent application. The claimed composition's features appeared prima facie obvious from the cited prior art. As a result, the plaintiff's applications for interim injunctions against the defendants were dismissed.

SUMIT GARG VS DHIANU DAS [ARB.P.-329/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The requirements under Sections 11(5) and 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 are satisfied due to the existence of a valid arbitration agreement and the timely filing of the petition. As the parties could not agree on an arbitrator, Mr. Avadh Bihari Kaushik, an advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes arising from the Share Transfer Agreement dated 17 May 2022. All questions of fact and law remain open for discussion in the arbitral proceedings.

SURESH DHANUKA VS SHAHNAZ HUSAIN [ARB.P.-1008/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Suresh Dhanuka is entitled to the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for dispute resolution. The parties exhausted the pre-arbitral protocol of amicable negotiations as per their agreement, making the dispute ready for arbitration. As the parties could not agree on an arbitrator, Mr. R V Sinha, an advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator.

SWATI SINGH VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-15907/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) did not follow the procedures outlined in its Statute 32(5) during the Proctorial Enquiry against Swati Singh, a Ph.D. student. Key breaches included failing to provide her with evidence, not allowing cross-examination of witnesses, and lacking a comprehensive report and reasoned orders. Orders of rustication and eviction against Singh were quashed, and she was to be reinstated. JNU is permitted to initiate proceedings against her again if it adheres to the statutory procedure.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED VS JAI CHAMUNDA PETROLEUM & ORS. [ARB.P.-227/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The dispute between Tata Capital Limited and Jai Chamunda Petroleum & Ors. is prima facie referable to arbitration per their arbitration agreement. Mr. Yogesh Kumar Mahur, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes.

TCNS CLOTHING COMPANY LIMITED VS A AND A ENTERPRISES & ORS. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-641/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The mandate of the Arbitral Tribunal was extended by six months due to the absence of reasons from the respondents against the extension. Grievances raised by the respondents about the arbitration proceedings and party impleadment were deemed unrelated to the mandate extension and were set aside for separate consideration. These grievances remain open for the respondents to address in front of the Arbitral Tribunal or through legal means.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER J AND K ERA SRINAGAR KASHMIR THROUGH AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE ABDUL KHALIQ QURESHI PROJECT MANAGER VS ABHIRAM INFRA PROJECTS PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-25/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petition challenging an arbitral award was dismissed as time-barred, having been filed beyond the 120-day limit set by Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The argument that the arbitration should have been conducted under the Jammu & Kashmir Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1997 was not examined due to the dismissal on the grounds of limitation.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER J AND K ERA SRINAGAR KASHMIR THROUGH AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE ABDUL KHALIQ QURESHI PROJECT MANAGER VS ABHIRAM INFRA PROJECTS PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-26/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitrator conducted the proceedings under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, despite the contract specifying Jammu and Kashmir law as the governing law. The distinction between governing law and curial law was clarified, with Delhi as the seat of arbitration. Consequently, the Jammu and Kashmir Arbitration Act, 1997 was deemed inapplicable, affirming the 1996 Act as the governing law for the arbitration.

THE PRINCIPAL, VAISH COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-646/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The decision of the Northern Regional Committee of the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) from its 395th meeting on 2 and 3 March 2023 was quashed due to its reliance on a letter from the Additional Chief Secretary of the Government of Haryana, which had already been quashed by a Division Bench of the High Court of Punjab & Haryana. As the basis for the NCTE's decision was invalidated, the decision was set aside, and writ petitions were allowed with consequential relief to the petitioners. No costs were ordered.

THE SOUTH INDIAN BANK LTD. VS TRANSSTROY TRICHY KARAIKUDI TOLLWAYS PVT. LTD. & ANR. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-492/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The South Indian Bank Ltd. petitioned for an extension of the Arbitral Tribunal's mandate concerning disputes with Transstroy Trichy Karaikudi Tollways Pvt. Ltd. The mandate, originally set to expire on June 30, 2024, was extended to September 30, 2024, as the request was unopposed by the respondent.

UDAY GUPTA VS EMAAR INDIA LIMITED [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-736/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A 6-month extension was granted to the Arbitrator handling the dispute between Uday Gupta and Emaar India Limited, in response to a petition filed under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Arbitrator's mandate, originally set to expire on 11 September 2024, was extended without objection from the respondent.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SR. DIVISIONAL ENGINEER-I NORTHERN RAILWAY, FIROZPUR VS SHRI B.S SANGWAN [O.M.P.-26/2009]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitral award for the principal amount of damages to the contractor was upheld, while the award of interest was set aside. The determination that the contractor's "No Claim Certificate" was signed under economic pressure was considered a plausible view based on the facts. However, the award of interest was found unsustainable due to a specific prohibition in Clause 16(2) of the General Conditions of Contract.

UNION OF INDIA VS RAMBIR SINGH [RSA-305/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The termination order was deemed stigmatic, with the Union of India unable to substantiate allegations of the respondent using unfair means in an exam. Additional evidence was not admitted at the appellate stage due to failure to meet strict requirements. The concurrent findings of the lower courts reinstated the respondent with back wages.

VAIBHAV VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-12771/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The 80-20 quota system for admissions to the B.A. (Hons) course in Foreign Languages at Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) distinguishes between recent Class XII passouts and older candidates. This distinction is considered non-arbitrary and aligns with the objective of favoring recent graduates while still offering opportunities to older applicants. The petitioner, who previously sought admission under the 80% quota, cannot challenge the validity of the provision. The scope for judicial interference in academic policy decisions is limited, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

VANSHIKA VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16398/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The University cannot prevent Vanshika from appearing for her third semester examination or continuing her B.A. (Hons.) English course at Kalindi College. Vanshika was eligible for the first semester examination but missed it due to a failed payment transaction. She attended the second and third semesters. Principles established in previous cases indicate that if a student is allowed to attend a semester, their candidature cannot be later canceled. The NEP-UGCF 2022 Guidelines cited by the university were found to be unenforceable. It is inequitable to require Vanshika to re-attend first semester classes after completing the second and third semesters. The University must declare her second semester result and allow her to take the third semester examination, along with the first semester papers, upon payment of required fees.

VARDHMAN PRECISION PROFILES VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-424/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitrator rejected the petitioner's claims as non-arbitrable due to insufficient evidence supporting their status as "notified claims" under the contract. The interpretation of the contract by the arbitrator was deemed plausible, and interference with this decision was not warranted under the limited review scope provided by Section 34 of the Arbitration Act, even with the possibility of alternative interpretations.

VASU SACHDEVA VS BAR COUNCIL OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7058/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The Bar Council of India (BCI) cannot be directed to treat the petitioner's LL.B. (Hons.) degree from the University of Hertfordshire, UK, as equivalent to an undergraduate course in India, as equivalence is a matter for academic bodies. The BCI is required to make a reasoned decision on the petitioner's request for equivalence and communicate this decision within three weeks. The writ petition was disposed of.

VED PRAKASH LAMBA VS SATYAPAL LAMBA [RSA-9/2017]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The second appeal was dismissed, affirming that the disputed house property is jointly owned by the appellant and respondent, who are brothers. The respondent has equal rights to access and enjoy the terrace room, which the appellant had locked, denying the respondent entry. The findings of joint ownership and possession were deemed valid, with no substantial legal questions present. The appellant was directed to provide the respondent with unrestricted access to the terrace room.

VENKATESHWARA OPEN UNIVERSITY & ANR. VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION [W.P.(C)-10990/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Venkateshwara Open University is classified as a "Dual Mode University" rather than an "Open University" according to UGC regulations. It is permitted to offer courses in both regular and distance modes but must obtain prior approval from UGC for distance/online courses. UGC is tasked with considering the university's application for Open and Distance Learning and Online Programmes based on its merits, recognizing its status as a Dual Mode University.

VIBHUTI NEGI VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5172/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition challenging the second response sheet and score card for the JEE (Mains) examination was dismissed due to insufficient evidence to determine the accuracy of the documents uploaded by the National Testing Agency (NTA). Discrepancies in the petitioner's self-evaluation of the first response sheet indicated that further inquiry would involve disputed questions of fact, which are not suitable for writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution.

VIKRAM BAGHEL AS GUARDIAN OF LAKSHITA BAGHEL VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3669/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The petitioner from the Disadvantaged Group (DG) category lacks an enforceable right to admission in Class I at the respondent school for the 2024-2025 academic year, as the Directorate of Education (DoE) did not allocate placement through its computerized draw. The petitioner previously had an admission opportunity for the 2022-2023 year but did not pursue it legally. Granting admission now would create inequities for other DG students already shortlisted. The DoE is instructed to consider a neighborhood school for the petitioner in an age-appropriate class for the 2024-2025 session.

VIKRAMJEET SINGH MANN VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION & ORS [W.P.(C)-8132/2014]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition was dismissed as it could not compel the University Grants Commission (UGC) to grant ex-post facto approval for the MBA degree obtained by the petitioner from ICFAI University via open distance learning between 2006-2008. The UGC's rejection was based on directives from the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), which prohibited retrospective recognition for ODL programs. The case was distinguished from recent approvals for teacher training courses, which were based on a legislative amendment, as no similar provision existed for the petitioner's situation, making UGC's approval contrary to MHRD's express prohibition.

VINEET DUJODWALA & ORS. VS PHONEIX ARC PVT. LTD. & ANR [O.M.P. (COMM)-24/2016]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The arbitral award was set aside due to three main defects: the arbitrator did not disclose prior involvement in 215 cases with the respondent, did not decide on a jurisdictional challenge under Section 16 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, and the appointment of the arbitrator was unilateral, which is not permissible. These deficiencies warranted the annulment of the award.

VINOD KUMAR YADAV VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5425/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The order of permanent debarment by the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) against the petitioner for the All India Pre-Medical/Pre-Dental Test (AIPMT/PDT-NEET) examination was found unsustainable. The petitioner's name was not included in the chargesheet from the Haryana Police, and there was ambiguity about a "Vinod" mentioned in the investigation report. The debarment order was quashed, and CBSE was directed to reconsider the matter, allowing the petitioner an opportunity for a hearing before making a new decision within a specified timeframe.

VISHAKHA & ORS. VS THE CONTROLLER OF EXAMINATION CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2374/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Female students seeking to appear as private candidates in the Class X and XII CBSE Board examinations were deemed ineligible due to their failure to upload the required domicile certificates with their online applications. The procedural requirement was considered mandatory, and the absence of necessary legal fulfillments prevented any relief, even on sympathetic grounds. Both writ petitions were dismissed.

VISHAL MVR CONSORTIUM VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-225/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The invocation of the Security Deposit Bank Guarantees (SDBGs) by the Airports Authority of India (AAI) is not in accordance with the terms of the guarantees since AAI has not alleged any breach or demonstrated any loss or damage. An interim injunction has been granted to prevent the banks from crediting the amounts into AAI's account, indicating that the invocation does not align with the bank guarantee covenants.

VITERRA B.V. (FORMERLY KNOWN AS GLENCORE AGRICULTURE B.V.) VS SHARP CORP LIMITED [O.M.P.(EFA)(COMM.)-2/2022]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The respondents, Sharp Corp Limited, did not commit contempt of court by selling the Siraspur property as the sale enforced the prior rights of financial institutions, permitted under a previous order. Evidence indicated that the State Bank of India and a consortium of banks had a prior charge over the property. The sale occurred within the context of recovery proceedings before the Debt Recovery Tribunal, with proceeds used to settle outstanding bank dues. The contempt petition by Viterra B.V. was dismissed as the sale did not constitute a wilful breach of the court's order.

WAPCOS LIMITED VS VIRGO AQUA [O.M.P. (COMM)-132/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

WAPCOS Limited's petition was dismissed after its counsel confirmed the petitioner could not deposit 75% of the awarded amount within the required 8-week period. The failure to comply with the deposit order resulted in the dismissal of the petition.

YASH THROUGH HIS FATHER SUSHIL VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12845/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A student from the Scheduled Castes, qualifying as a "child belonging to the disadvantaged group" under the RTE Act, is entitled to admission in a private school's KG/Pre-Primary class. The school must regularize the student's provisional admission and provide education in accordance with the RTE Act for DG category students.

YOGESH KUMAR SHARMA AND ORS. VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION (CBSE) [W.P.(C)-1924/2019]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The writ petition challenging the final answer key for the CTET exam was dismissed. The focus was on Question No. 61 about the builder of Golconda Fort, deemed relevant to the "Travel" section of the environmental studies syllabus. Knowledge expected from candidates extends beyond the specific syllabus. No merit was found in the challenge to Question No. 61.

YOKOHAMA INDIA PVT. LTD VS MR. VARUN AGGARWAL PROPRIETOR OF WHEELS LOVER STOPPAGE [TR.P.(C.)-36/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

CS (Comm) 83/2022 involving Varun Aggarwal and Yokohama India Pvt Ltd was transferred from District North West, Rohini to District South East, Saket to be heard alongside CS (Comm) 384/2021. Both suits involve the same parties and overlapping issues, with invoices from CS (Comm) 83/2022 serving as a defense in CS (Comm) 384/2021. This consolidation aims to prevent multiplicity of proceedings and conflicting decisions.

YUVRAJ SINGH BUNDHEL VS M/S BRILLIANT ETOILE PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-983/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was approved for the appointment of an arbitrator to resolve disputes between the petitioner and the respondent. The examination under Section 11(6) focused on the existence of an arbitration agreement and the timely filing of the petition, with objections related to the merits of the dispute and exhaustion of pre-arbitral protocol deemed irrelevant. A sole arbitrator was appointed to oversee the arbitration proceedings, with all factual and legal questions remaining open for resolution in the arbitration.

YVES SAINT LAURENT VS BROMPTON LIFESTYLE BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-29/2023]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

The appointment of the arbitrator in the dispute between Brompton Lifestyle Brands Private Limited and Beverly Luxury Brands Ltd was upheld, rejecting Yves Saint Laurent's request for termination. Yves Saint Laurent, a non-signatory to the sub-franchise agreement, did not need to consent to the arbitrator's appointment, as the principle of consensus regarding the appointment applies only to parties to the arbitration agreement. Beverly, as a party to the agreement, had consented to the arbitral tribunal's constitution. The arbitrator was not deemed legally incapable of proceeding, resulting in the dismissal of Yves Saint Laurent's petition under Section 14 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996, without addressing their potential removal from the proceedings.

ZIMMER INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS PINNACLE [ARB.P.-900/2024]

Judges: Justice C. Hari Shankar

Disputes between Zimmer India Private Limited and Pinnacle will be referred to arbitration based on valid arbitration clauses in their distributorship agreements. A sole arbitrator will adjudicate the disputes, with no requirement for the respondent's appearance due to the limited scope of examination under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

ABDUL HAMEED (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS VS JAMIA MILIA ISLAMIA & ORS. [RFA-134/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

A batch of appeals challenging a common judgment that dismissed civil suits was dismissed. The appellants' claims are barred by the doctrine of res judicata since issues regarding ownership, land demarcation, and prior eviction proceedings have been litigated extensively and reached finality. Even if the appellants' claims were accepted, they would not be entitled to the requested relief due to the principle of res judicata, as they are attempting to re-agitate settled questions of fact and law.

ACHLA KAPOOR VS THE DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITY ZONAL MANAGER PUNJAB AND SIND BANK AND ANR [W.P.(C)-1394/2012]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner was not charged twice for the same offenses, and the departmental inquiry and appeal process were conducted properly. The punishment of compulsory retirement was justified due to the petitioner's actions of forgery and misrepresentation, which indicated a lack of integrity and disregard for the professional standards expected from a bank employee. The impugned award did not suffer from any illegality.

ADO INDIA PVT. LTD. VS ATS HOUSING PRIVATE LIMITED [I.A.-1612/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

Sections 152 and 153 of the Code of Civil Procedure apply to rectify clerical or arithmetic errors in pleadings and orders, even in arbitration proceedings under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. An incorrect work order number in the pleadings and order was identified as a bona fide clerical error, and its rectification would not affect the substance or intent of the proceedings. The application to replace the work order number was allowed.

ALKA SHRIVASTAVA VS INDIAN COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9434/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner is not entitled to regularization of her services from 13th July 1989; services are correctly regularized from 1st January 1996 based on the Malimath Committee's recommendations. The recovery of financial benefits under ACP/MACP schemes, initially granted from 13th July 1989, is not illegal since the committee conditioned regularization on withholding arrears for the period of absence from 11th March 1996 to 25th September 1997.

APARNA ASHRAM SOCIETY & ANR. VS MR.MOHAN JHA & ORS. [RFA-9/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The impugned judgment and order from December 4, 2021, regarding C.S. No. 7447/16 was set aside. The Trial Court improperly dismissed the suit filed by Aparna Ashram Society based on unclear and ambiguous admissions. Reliance on orders from another case involving different parties was incorrect, as those orders did not apply to the current parties. The validity of the order from December 4, 2020, recognizing members of the Governing Council of the Society was upheld. The matter is to be remanded for fresh adjudication, with an emphasis on expeditious resolution within six months, considering all relevant contentions and disputes.

APARNA CHOUDHRIE KALA VS VAIBHAV KALA [C.R.P.-91/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The trial court granted the respondent unconditional leave to defend a summary suit for recovery of money, based on the respondent raising triable issues and presenting a fair defense, despite some admissions regarding the debt. No irregularities in the trial court's jurisdiction were identified, leading to no interference with the order.

ASIAN HOTELS NORTH LTD VS YES BANK LTD & ORS. [I.A.-8068/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was allowed, as the amendments were necessary to address the real issues between the parties, with objections from the defendant banks rejected. The plaint was determined to disclose a cause of action, and the bar under the SARFAESI Act was not applicable since the suit involved specific performance of agreements, which is outside the Debt Recovery Tribunal's jurisdiction. Applications from defendant nos. 6 and 7 to recall their impleading were dismissed due to lack of suppression of facts by the Plaintiff and failure to challenge the original stay order. Separate judgments were issued, with no referral to a larger bench.

ASIAN HOTELS NORTH LTD VS YES BANK LTD & ORS. [I.A.-3178/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

VSJ Investments Pvt. Ltd. established a valid claim to substitute Exclusive Capital Limited in the ongoing civil suit. The inter-corporate loan agreement between Exclusive Capital and Clover Media Pvt. Ltd., along with the assignment agreement to VSJ Investments, were found to be legally valid. Objections regarding the legality of these agreements were rejected, as Exclusive Capital had acted on the terms of the loan agreement. The application for substitution was permitted, allowing VSJ Investments to take the place of Exclusive Capital in the civil suit.

CEMENT CORPORATION OF INDIA LT VS B.K.SHUKLA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6954/2007]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Central Government Labour Court cum Industrial Tribunal exceeded its jurisdiction by adjudicating the issue of retrenchment compensation, which was not part of its mandate. The Tribunal's focus was limited to the demand for regularization of the workmen, yet it awarded four years' wages as retrenchment compensation, exceeding the statutory limits set by the Industrial Disputes Act. The awards in question were set aside.

CHANDER BHALLA VS RAJEEV BHATNAGAR [I.A.-3969/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The defendant's application for leave to defend a summary suit for recovery of Rs. 10.31 crores was granted due to raised triable issues regarding the validity of a loan agreement dated September 15, 2021. The defendant claimed the agreement was forged and characterized the amounts as investments, presenting plausible defenses that necessitate a full trial. Despite some defenses being deemed improbable, the primary dispute over the transaction's nature justified granting unconditional leave to defend.

CHIEF ENGINEER(ELECTRICAL) CPWD VS RAKESH SINGH [W.P.(C)-6624/2007]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The termination of the respondent workman was set aside due to violations of natural justice during the inquiry. The petitioner department failed to examine relevant witnesses and did not allow the respondent the opportunity to cross-examine them. As the respondent had passed away, an additional compensation of Rs. 5 Lakhs was ordered to be paid to the legal heirs.

DELHI MSW SOLUTIONS LIMITED (DMSWSL) VS THE DEPUTY LABOUR COMMISSIONER (CENTRAL) & ORS [W.P.(C)-2662/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

Delhi MSW Solutions Limited is classified as a contractor under the Contract Labour (Regulation & Abolition) Act, 1970, rather than a principal employer. Workers represented by the respondent union perform the same duties as regular employees of North MCD and are entitled to equal wages and benefits. The writ petition by the petitioner company was dismissed, and it was directed to pay the workers' dues within three months. The petitioner's inconsistent arguments were noted, disallowing the presentation of a new case at this stage.

DINESH SINGH SAINI VS STATE BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-1013/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The writ petition for promotion from Clerical cadre to JMGS-1 (Officer) cadre for the year 2018-2019 was dismissed. The petitioner did not meet the minimum service requirements under the bank's pre-revised promotion policy. Additionally, the petitioner failed to submit the necessary application after the eligibility criteria were amended. The bank's decisions on promotions are within its administrative discretion, and no gross illegality or violation of principles of natural justice was present. As a result, the petition lacked merit.

DR HUMA BAQA & ORS VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-1253/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

A batch of petitions filed by ad-hoc assistant professors challenging the selection process for permanent assistant professor positions was dismissed. The petitioners' previous association with the university did not create a legitimate expectation for regularization, as no assurances were made. Their prior participation in the selection process without objection barred them from challenging it later, based on the principle of estoppel. No material irregularity was found in the selection process, which complied with UGC regulations, leading to the decision not to set aside the selection process.

DR SHEELA KUMARI. S VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13288/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner, initially appointed as a Director of Physical Education and later promoted, cannot be classified as a 'teacher' for the purpose of superannuation age. DPEs are considered a separate cadre, with a superannuation age of 62 years as per UGC guidelines, which does not extend the 65-year age limit granted to teachers. The claim for parity with Associate Professors was rejected, emphasizing that extending a mistake to others is unjustified. The petition was dismissed due to lack of merit.

DR. AMIT KUMAR VS BHARATI COLLEGE [W.P.(C)-3644/2020]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The order for recovery of Rs. 6,42,131 as overpaid salary was invalid due to lack of approval for the petitioner's suspension by the Vice-Chancellor at the time of the recovery. However, the petitioner is not entitled to full salary and increments after the approval of suspension on 18th December 2020. The recovery order was set aside, but the claim for full salary and increments was dismissed.

DR. SNEHASHISH BHATTACHARYA & ORS. VS SOUTH ASIAN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-9083/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The writ petition filed by Associate Professors at South Asian University (SAU) is not maintainable. SAU, established by an agreement among SAARC countries, is not classified as a "state" under Article 12 of the Constitution, making it outside the writ jurisdiction of the High Court. As SAU is protected under the UN (Privileges and Immunities) Act, its employees cannot directly approach the High Court. Additionally, the SAU Act provides for an Arbitral Tribunal to resolve disputes, which the petitioners have not utilized. Therefore, the writ petition was dismissed, with a recommendation to use the Arbitral Tribunal for dispute resolution.

EXECUTIVE ENGINEER VS AAKASH CONSTRUCTION COMPANY & ANR. [RFA-171/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The order of the Empowered Standing Committee (ESC) dated May 9, 2014 cannot be considered an arbitration award that limits civil court jurisdiction. There are conflicting clauses in the agreement regarding the existence of an arbitration clause. The trial court improperly relied on extraneous evidence and hastily decided the preliminary issue in favor of the defendants. The matter has been sent back for a full trial to allow for proper adjudication through evidence and witness examination.

FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA VS REGIONAL PROVIDENT FUND COMMISSIONER [W.P.(C)-1911/2015]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Food Corporation of India (FCI) is liable to pay the Employees' Provident Fund (EPF) dues for workers engaged through contractors. The Provident Fund authorities reasonably summoned the contractors and identified the workers, but the lack of cooperation from the contractors led to an adverse inference against the FCI for not producing required records. The orders regarding the EPF dues are not considered illegal or irregular, and the FCI must fulfill its statutory responsibility for these dues.

FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8788/2014]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Regional Labour Commissioner (RLC) exceeded its jurisdiction under Section 33C(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by passing orders regarding the payment to canteen employees. The CGIT award only mandated equal pay and allowances to these employees without specifying a monetary amount. The proper course for the respondent union was to seek remedy under Section 33C(2), not Section 33C(1). The orders issued by the RLC were set aside due to an evident jurisdictional error. This case involved the implementation of the CGIT award between the Food Corporation of India and its canteen employees union.

GANGAKHED SUGAR AND ENERGY LTD. VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2881/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

M/s Gangakhed Sugar and Energy Ltd. cannot be prosecuted for offences committed by its previous management and directors prior to the approval of its resolution plan by the National Company Law Tribunal under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. The alleged offences occurred between 2008 and 2017, before the corporate insolvency resolution process began. Following the approval of the resolution plan by M/s Six Sigma Investment Fund, which led to a change in management, the corporate debtor is granted immunity from prosecution as per Section 32A of the IBC. The FIR against the corporate debtor is quashed, but the trial court may continue proceedings against other accused individuals. The corporate debtor must assist the investigating agency as required by Section 32A(3) of the IBC.

GL SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-2512/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The order rejecting the petitioner's application for voluntary retirement under the VRS 2004 was consistent with a prior directive to reconsider the matter. The respondent company adequately considered the petitioner's case, provided an opportunity to be heard, and reasonably determined that the petitioner did not meet the eligibility criteria despite an extended service relaxation. Granting voluntary retirement is at the employer's discretion, and multiple judges had previously concluded the petitioner was ineligible. The respondent company's process did not exhibit any significant legal errors, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

GRAND PRIX ENGINEERING PVT. LTD. VS RAJEEV BHATNAGAR [I.A.-3968/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The defendant was granted unconditional leave to defend a summary suit for recovery of Rs.3.43 crore. Substantial defenses were raised, particularly challenging the validity and authenticity of the loan agreement dated April 2, 2018, which underpins the plaintiff's claim. This issue necessitates a full trial to properly adjudicate the matter.

GROUP 4 SECURITIES GUARDING LTD. VS SECY.LABOUR,GOVT.OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-567/2004]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Industrial Tribunal incorrectly used the definition of "wages" from the Minimum Wages Act for computing bonus instead of the definition in the Payment of Bonus Act. It is established that terms defined in the parent legislation should not be interpreted using different Acts. Consequently, the Tribunal's award was set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh adjudication.

HARPAL SINGH VS STATE OF UTTRAKHAND & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5174/2013]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The supplementary chargesheet and summoning order against Harpal Singh were quashed due to a lack of credible evidence linking him to the murder. Allegations stemmed solely from an accused's information, lacking corroboration. Previous investigation reports cleared him, and the reinvestigation occurred without proper Sessions Court permission.

HEMANT KUMAR AND ORS VS GOVT OF INDIA MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT AND ORS [W.P.(C)-239/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The appropriate government overstepped its jurisdiction by refusing to refer an industrial dispute to the Central Government Industrial Tribunal (CGIT) for adjudication. The government improperly examined the merits of the dispute, which is reserved for the CGIT. An order was set aside, and the government was directed to refer the dispute to the proper forum under the Industrial Disputes Act for expeditious handling, as the 52 petitioner-workers had been waiting for resolution since 2018. The merits of the dispute were left for the CGIT to decide.

HIMANSHU KAPOOR VS SHALINI KAPOOR [CRL.REV.P.-685/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The maintenance amount for the petitioner wife was restored to Rs. 50,000 each for the wife and child, as the petitioner is not earning and relies on her parents. The respondent husband's claimed low income was deemed incredible based on his expenses and asset ownership, with findings confirming his monthly income at Rs. 2,00,000. The revision petition by the respondent husband was dismissed due to the absence of illegality in the decision regarding his income.

IFCI VENTURE CAPITAL FUNDS LIMITED VS SRGP CORPORATION LIMITED [C.R.P.-115/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The civil suit challenging the classification of a loan account as a Non-Performing Asset (NPA) is barred by the provisions of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 (SARFAESI Act). Exclusive jurisdiction over disputes regarding actions taken by secured creditors under the SARFAESI Act lies with the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT), and the proper remedy for the respondent is to approach the DRT under Section 17. Therefore, the civil suit is dismissed.

JAWAHAR SINGH VS THE EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, CPWD [W.P.(C)-10421/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner, who worked on a muster roll from 1972-1990 and was later regularized, is entitled to gratuity for the muster roll period under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The non-payment of gratuity constitutes a continuous wrong, and delay in filing the claim does not invalidate the entitlement. The Appellate Authority's denial of the gratuity claim due to delay has been set aside, and the respondent department is instructed to calculate the gratuity amount for the muster roll period expeditiously.

KAMAL BHASIN VS GHANSHYAM KUMAR & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-272/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The respondent authorities provided the petitioner with information regarding actions taken against the former CMD of the Power Finance Corporation multiple times. The petitioner's dissatisfaction with this information did not constitute willful disobedience necessary for contempt proceedings. The contempt petition was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of contempt.

KESHAV DATT VS SOUTH ASIAN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-12084/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The writ petition against the South Asian University (SAU) is not maintainable as the SAU is an international organization established by an intergovernmental agreement among SAARC countries, with no special control from the Government of India. The SAU enjoys privileges and immunities under the UN (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947. Additionally, the SAU Act mandates an Arbitral Tribunal for disputes between the University and its employees, and the petitioner did not exhaust this alternative remedy. The SAU is not subject to the writ jurisdiction of Constitutional Courts in India. The writ petition is dismissed.

KULJIT SINGH & ANR. VS GURU NANAK INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3034/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The batch of writ petitions filed by employees of educational institutes was deemed not maintainable due to the availability of an alternative remedy under the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Act, 1971. The disputes were identified as primarily contractual in nature, lacking significant public law elements, which did not warrant intervention under Article 226 of the Constitution. The petitions were dismissed, but the employees were permitted to seek redressal in the District Court.

M/S DEUTSCHE LUFTHANSA AG VS MR. NAYAN PAHWA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1376/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Tribunal was correct in adjudicating the complaint under Sections 33 and 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, establishing a prima facie industrial dispute based on the government's referral. The termination of workmen with over a year of continuous service violated statutory requirements under Sections 25F and 25G of the Act. The complaint filed by the authorized representatives of the workmen was legally valid.

M/S GREENWAYS THROUGH ITS PARTNER VS Y.N. GUPTA (DECEASED) THROUGH ITS LRS & ORS. [RFA-531/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The trial court's judgment and decree favoring the plaintiff in an ejectment suit were set aside due to misinterpretation of the defendant's written statement. The trial court failed to recognize substantial issues raised by the defendant's denials and objections, which required a full trial. Clear and unequivocal admissions are necessary for a judgment under Order XII Rule 6 CPC, and the trial court's interpretation of admissions was deemed impermissible. The matter was remanded for fresh adjudication, emphasizing a comprehensive consideration of the defendant's defenses.

M/S MOOLCHAND KHAIRATI RAM HOSPITAL AND AYURVEDIC RESEARCH INSTITUTE VS SH BANWARI LAL [W.P.(C)-12618/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Labour Court's award in favor of the workman was upheld, citing the employer's failure to conduct a fair domestic inquiry, which was done ex-parte without allowing the workman to present his case. The findings from earlier Section 33(2)(b) proceedings do not bar the workman from raising the industrial dispute, as those inquiries only pertain to termination approval, not the merits of the case. The workman is entitled to reinstatement with full back wages and other benefits due to the illegal termination.

M/S UPPAL CHADHA HI TECH DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. VS STATE OF N.C.T OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3369/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

FIR no. 13/2024 registered by the EOW was deemed an abuse of process of law and quashed. The ED did not establish a concrete opinion before sharing information, leading to a mechanical registration of the FIR, violating statutory mandates. The allegations mirrored those in previous FIRs that had either been compounded or quashed, thereby infringing on double jeopardy principles. Civil disputes under RERA cannot justify a new FIR, particularly since most RERA complaints were resolved. Previously examined allegations concerning land ceiling laws do not constitute new cognizable offenses. The delayed FIR registration suggested mala fide intent by authorities to prolong the investigation despite prior resolutions. Fresh proceedings may occur only if new incriminating evidence arises from pending RERA matters or other sources.

MANAGEMENT OF M/S COLONEL SECURITY CHAMBERS VS SEEMA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2281/2010]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Labour Court's decision that the workman did not abandon her service was upheld, citing that she had obtained prior permission for a family bereavement. The termination without due process indicated wrongful dismissal rather than voluntary resignation. The workman was awarded a compensation of Rs. 1,20,000/-.

MANISH GUPTA VS UTI INFRASTRUCTURE TECHNOLOGY AND SERVICES LTD. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4142/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner lacks legal entitlement to benefits from a reinforcement mechanism introduced in 2006, as it was never finalized or implemented. Financial benefits are at the employer's discretion rather than an employee's legal right. The writ petition was dismissed due to lack of merit.

MIRA GUPTA VS DINESH CHAND (DECEASED) THR LRS & ORS [RFA-1066/2019]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The alleged revocation deed dated 5th March, 1991 was surrounded by suspicious circumstances and did not invalidate the earlier will dated 16th September, 1988, which bequeathed the entire estate to the deceased's adopted daughter Rashi. Legal principles under the Hindu Succession Act established that the daughter is a coparcener by birth, entitled to an equal share like a son. Shares of various legal heirs in the Dariba Kalan ancestral property and Geetanjali Enclave property were determined, granting Mira Gupta, the deceased's wife, a share in the Dariba Kalan property.

MOHAMMAD HAKIM AND ANR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-1585/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The impugned orders by the Nodal Officer of the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) rejecting claims for alternative allotment of dwelling units were deemed arbitrary and illegal. The petitioners met the eligibility criteria under the DDA's Rehabilitation and Relocation Policy, 2015, and had submitted required documents by the January 1, 2015 cut-off date. The requirement for a separate ration card for first-floor dwellers was termed arbitrary, as it cannot serve as proof of address. Orders were set aside, and the DDA was instructed to allocate alternative dwelling units to the petitioners upon submission of necessary documents and payment of required amounts.

MOHD SABUDDIN VS MOHD ZAKIR [MAC.APP.-763/2016]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The driver was found liable for rash and negligent driving, which caused grievous injuries to the claimant. The registered owner was also deemed jointly and severally liable to pay compensation, in accordance with the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, regardless of actual possession and control of the vehicle during the accident. The order was modified accordingly.

MOHD ZAKIR VS SABUDDIN & ANR [MAC.APP.-425/2016]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The appellant is entitled to an enhancement of compensation from Rs. 2,72,922 to Rs. 18,59,466, with 9% interest per annum. The registered owner of the offending vehicle and the driver are jointly and severally liable to pay this compensation.

MR DEEP PRAKASH AND ORS. VS TECHNOLOGY INFORMATION, FORECASTING AND ASSESSMENT COUNCIL (TIFAC) AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3133/2019]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioners appointed under the closed Umbrella Scheme on Technology Vision 2020 cannot be regularized as their contractual appointments were linked to the scheme's duration. The continuation of service does not grant entitlement to regularization, and the scheme's closure leads to the termination of their services. The petitioners did not challenge the closure of the scheme, and relief not requested in pleadings cannot be granted. Writ petitions seeking regularization were dismissed.

RAJESH DUA VS RAJIV GOYAL & ANR. [C.R.P.-271/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner's defense was struck off due to non-payment of rent arrears under Order XVA of the Code of Civil Procedure. The request to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness was denied since the defense had already been dismissed. After reserving judgment, no further rights or privileges were available to the parties, leading to the dismissal of the petitioner's revision petitions for being non-maintainable and lacking merit.

MRS. ASHA VS MANOHAR PARRIKAR INSTITUTE FOR DEFENCE STUDIES AND ANALYSES (MP-IDSA) [W.P.(C)-7487/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Manohar Parrikar Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses (MP-IDSA) qualifies as an instrumentality of the State under Article 12 of the Constitution, making the writ petitions from its administrative employees maintainable. The Ministry of Defence exercises significant financial, functional, and administrative control over the Institute, including the presence of high-ranking government officials in its governing body, the appointment of the Director General by the Appointments Committee of the Cabinet, and oversight of budgets and operations. The Institute meets the criteria established for "instrumentality of the State," allowing the writ jurisdiction to apply. A counter-affidavit is to be filed, with the matter set for hearing on merits subsequently.

MS SURAKSHA JAGIRDAR VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13089/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner's appointment as principal of the respondent school violated recruitment rules due to insufficient experience, lacking the required 10 years as vice-principal. Irregularities in her service records, including backdated entries and unexplained gaps, were noted. The appointment lacked approval from the managing committee, the designated appointing authority. The termination of the petitioner's appointment was upheld.

MS. REMA GUPTA VS MAHINDER LAL [C.R.P.-8/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The civil revision petition was allowed, and the lower court's order to dismiss the application for rejection of the plaintiff's plaint was set aside. The plaint did not disclose a valid cause of action for partition, as the plaintiff's claim of ownership relied on documents like an agreement to sell, power of attorney, and will, which do not confer legal title. Although the plaintiff claimed possessory rights, this could not be considered separately from the partition claim. Ultimately, the plaint failed to demonstrate a clear right to sue, leading to the dismissal of the plaintiff's suit.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS MANISH KUMAR AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16584/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The award by the Industrial Tribunal is upheld, confirming that the respondent workmen are entitled to regularization of their services as Assistant Malaria Inspectors and Assistant Public Health Inspectors from their initial appointment date, along with wage differentials based on the principle of "equal pay for equal work." The workmen were appointed through a proper procedure, had worked continuously in their positions, and performed similar duties to regularized employees while receiving lower wages. Maintaining them in temporary status is considered an unfair labor practice. Legal principles indicate that prolonged temporary employment should not prevent regularization and that those performing similar roles deserve equal treatment. The findings of the Industrial Tribunal are affirmed as free from legal defects.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS SANDEEP YADAV AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14839/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The award of the Industrial Tribunal directing the South Delhi Municipal Corporation to regularize the services of contractual "Malaria Field Workers" employed from 2010 to 2016 was set aside. The Industrial Tribunal exceeded its jurisdiction by addressing issues of regularization not included in the terms of reference. The matter is remanded to the Industrial Tribunal to re-evaluate whether the employment of the workers as casual/temporary employees was appropriate and to assess the demand for arrears of salary based on "equal pay for equal work." The Industrial Tribunal must resolve these issues within six months.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS M S SSANGYONG ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION CO. LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-340/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The arbitral award in favor of Ssangyong Engineering and Construction Co. Limited was found to be illegal and against public policy in India. The Arbitral Tribunal incorrectly directed payment based on a certificate it acknowledged was not a Final Payment Certificate, which was contradictory. Additionally, it did not properly address the petitioner's concerns regarding discrepancies in the certificate, violating principles of natural justice. The Tribunal's findings conflicted with a previous award regarding the same certificate, causing inconsistencies. Consequently, the award was set aside and remanded for fresh review by the Tribunal.

NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS SH. KHEM CHAND [W.P.(C)-1989/2020]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The respondent workman was not entitled to the position/status of Garden Chaudhary from April 1, 1991 due to a lack of necessary qualifications. However, he was entitled to the pay scale for the period he worked in an officiating/ad hoc capacity as Garden Chaudhary, based on the order of the Deputy Director (Horticulture). The principles of quantum meruit and legitimate expectation were applicable, with relevant precedent considered in the decision. This judgment affected a group of related petitions.

PUJA MANORAMA DILIP KHEDKAR VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2828/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The anticipatory bail application of Puja Manorama Dilip Khedkar was dismissed due to prima facie evidence of fraud and misrepresentation in her Civil Services Examination applications. She was found to be involved in a conspiracy, including altering her name, providing false details on attempts, and fraudulently obtaining disability certificates. Concerns arose that her potential influence within the government could obstruct the investigation. Consequently, the anticipatory bail application was dismissed, and prior interim protection was vacated.

PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK VS MANOJ KUMAR [W.P.(C)-4770/2007]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The termination of the workman was deemed illegal, but the order for reinstatement with full back wages was considered inappropriate. Compensation of Rs. 2.5 lakhs was awarded instead, due to the workman's irregular ad-hoc appointment without proper selection procedures. The finding that the workman was not eligible for regularization was upheld, as his appointment did not follow the correct process. The relief for reinstatement was modified, while the denial of regularization was affirmed.

PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK VS SH NIRAJ GUPTA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7247/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Punjab National Bank's action to forfeit the gratuity of the employee was deemed premature and unlawful, as the necessary conditions under Section 4(6)(b)(ii) of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, were not met. The requirement for forfeiture involves a conviction for an offence involving moral turpitude, which was not applicable since no criminal proceedings existed against the employee. The forfeiture of gratuity was therefore declared illegal.

RAKESH MOHAN AGARWAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11118/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The writ petition by the CMD of Indian Telephone Industries Limited is not maintainable, as challenging the initiation of disciplinary proceedings through a charge-memo does not violate the petitioner's rights, and interference is not warranted at an early stage. The petitioner accepted the terms of appointment, including the applicability of the Conduct, Discipline and Appeal Rules, and is therefore estopped from contesting them due to the doctrine of acquiescence. This matter involves challenges against Office Memorandums concerning disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner and six other officers.

RAMA SHANKAR VS AT HOME INDIA PVT. LTD. AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1585/2019]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

An award by the Labor Court was upheld, dismissing petitions from individual workmen challenging their termination. The respondent management did not terminate the petitioners unlawfully; instead, the petitioners had abandoned their services by being absent without authorization for an extended period. Despite repeated requests from management for the petitioners to return to work, the petitioners did not provide evidence of being prevented from doing so or of any complaints regarding reinstatement. The findings of the Labor Court were deemed valid based on the evidence presented.

ROYAL SUNDARAM GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY VS SHIVANI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-320/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The case involved a determination of accidental murder rather than intentional murder. The insurance company is liable to pay compensation to the claimants based on evidence from an eyewitness, the driver's statement, and the nature of injuries, indicating that the driver's intention was not to kill the deceased but resulted from rash and negligent driving. Arguments from the insurance company regarding maintainability under the Motor Vehicles Act and the deduction of ex-gratia payments from compensation were rejected. The tribunal's award of 8% interest per annum on the compensation amount was upheld.

SATISH CHAND GUPTA & ORS VS MEERA GUPTA & ORS [RFA-108/2020]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The appeal RFA 108/2020 was dismissed, aligning with the order in related case RFA 1066/2019. No detailed reasoning was provided, suggesting reliance on the findings from the other case. The judgment was issued by a single judge without separate opinions or disagreements.

SATISH CHAND GUPTA & ORS VS MIRA GUPTA & ORS [RFA-221/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The appeal (RFA 221/2021) was dismissed based on a previous order in RFA no. 1066/2019, without details on the specific legal issues or reasoning involved.

SATYAPAL SINGH VS THE DELHI STATE COOPERATIVE BANK LIMITED AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5324/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

Writ petitions from employees of the Delhi State Cooperative Bank Ltd. against their termination were deemed not maintainable, as the bank is not classified as an "authority" under Article 12 of the Constitution. The disputes are private in nature, lacking public duty involvement. Writ jurisdiction under Article 226 serves public law remedies, not private contractual rights. Even when a body performs public functions, not all decisions are subject to judicial review, and it must be shown that the action pertains to public law. Employees were also found to have alternative statutory remedies under the bank's service rules, which they failed to exhaust before seeking writ relief. They were granted the option to pursue other legal remedies.

SAWHNEY RUBBER INDUSTRIES VS JAWAHAR PRASAD [W.P.(C)-4773/2019]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

Retrenchment of workmen by the petitioner management was deemed illegal, violating Section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. Compensation awarded to the workmen was justified based on their skilled/semi-skilled designations from an earlier Industrial Tribunal award still in effect at the time of retrenchment. A stay order on the 2009 award had only prospective effect and did not nullify it retrospectively. The awards of the Labour Court in favor of the workmen were upheld.

SAWHNEY RUBBER INDUSTRIES VS WORKMEN [W.P.(C)-3014/2010]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Industrial Tribunal appropriately addressed an industrial dispute involving 378 workers represented by their union. The Tribunal concluded that the workers were entitled to their claimed designations based on a proper evaluation of the evidence. The management's challenge to the Tribunal's award lacked grounds of illegality or flawed reasoning.

SHREEKANT GUPTA VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-208/2023]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The resolution by the Executive Council of the University of Delhi allowing the current Head of Department to continue until the end of his term, despite the petitioner's seniority in the revised list, is valid. The decision aims to maintain smooth functioning and does not breach seniority and rotation criteria under Statute 37 and Ordinance XXIII of the Delhi University Act. There were no clear illegalities, irrationalities, or procedural improprieties in the resolution. The petition challenging the resolution was dismissed.

SHRI RANJEET VS DELHI JAL BOARD [W.P.(C)-7422/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The writ petition challenging the Labour Court's award in favor of the Delhi Jal Board was dismissed. The petitioner contended that his termination was illegal, while the Board maintained it was valid due to the completion of the job for which he was employed. Under Section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, a workman must have completed 240 days of continuous service in the prior 12 months for certain protections to apply. The petitioner could not prove he had worked the requisite 240 days, as demonstrated by muster rolls. The evidence presented was insufficient to establish continuous service, leading to the dismissal of the petition and upholding the Labour Court's award.

SMT. BIMLA VS THE EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, CPWD [W.P.(C)-10426/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner is entitled to gratuity for her husband's service on muster roll from 1980-1991, as the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 mandates this payment. The CPWD's guidelines confirm gratuity is applicable for the muster roll period, and previous cases show that other employees received similar benefits, indicating a discriminatory practice if denied. The appellate authority's decision was set aside, and the CPWD must calculate and expedite the gratuity payment.

SMT. PASHPATI VS THE EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, CPWD [W.P.(C)-10445/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The deceased's muster roll period from 1986 to 2006 qualifies for gratuity under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, making his widow entitled to claim gratuity for this duration. Arguments regarding delay in filing the claim were rejected, with the position that non-payment of gratuity constitutes a continuous wrong. Precedents and circulars from the CPWD support including muster roll service in gratuity calculations.

SMT. SEEMA VS MANAGEMENT OF M/S COLONEL SECURITY CHAMBERS [W.P.(C)-2252/2012]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The petitioner's termination was deemed unjustified, and the Labour Court awarded a lump-sum compensation of Rs. 1,20,000 instead of reinstatement. The High Court evaluated the Labour Court's authority under Section 11-A of the Industrial Disputes Act and deemed the compensation reasonable, subsequently increasing the amount to Rs. 2,15,000 due to delays in the proceedings.

SSANGYONG ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION CO. LTD. VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-256/2021]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The validity of the arbitral award was previously addressed in another case, where the award was set aside and returned to the arbitral tribunal. The current petition was disposed of, allowing the petitioner to raise concerns regarding the rejection of the claim for interest on the due amount before the tribunal. No new findings were made on the merits of the interest claim, as it was sent back for fresh consideration.

SUNCITY HI- TECH INFRASTRUCTURES PRIVATE LIMITED THROUGH ITS AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE RITESH CHAUHAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8489/2024]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

FIR No. 13/2024, registered at the Economic Offences Wing, New Delhi, for offences under Sections 406, 420, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code, was quashed along with all consequential proceedings. This decision followed an earlier judgment in a connected writ petition filed by M/s Uppal Chadha Hi Tech Developers Pvt. Ltd., resulting in no further matters for adjudication.

THE DIRECTOR, CGHS AND ORS. VS SHRI RAM CHANDER AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2133/2020]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The labor tribunal's decision that contract workers were effectively employees of CGHS and others, rather than outsourcing agencies, was upheld. The contract arrangement was deemed a sham designed to deny workers their rights. Long-serving workers performing permanent duties and meeting qualifications were entitled to regularization from their initial engagement in 2006. The challenge to the labor tribunal's decision to regularize the workers was dismissed, with no errors identified in the tribunal's findings.

THE MANAGEMENT OF GURU HARKRISHAN PUBLIC SCHOOL & ORS. VS SUNIL SIKRI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13916/2018]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The Delhi School Tribunal's decision to award full back wages to the respondent teacher from 18th August 2011 to 3rd September 2013 was upheld. This period was not subject to Rule 121 of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules regarding back wages prior to reinstatement. An employee wrongfully terminated is entitled to wages for the period between the order of reinstatement and actual reinstatement, regardless of any temporary stay by an appellate court. The Tribunal's interpretation of its jurisdiction under the Act and Rules to determine the payable wages for this period was deemed appropriate.

VIKASH KUMAR VS NTPC LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3360/2022]

Judges: Justice Chandra Dhari Singh

The writ petition challenging the removal from service by NTPC Limited was dismissed. The disciplinary proceedings adhered to rules and natural justice principles, with findings of misconduct supported by evidence. The petitioner wrote a defamatory letter intending to harm the organization's reputation, which justified the removal. No illegality or perversity was found in the decisions of the disciplinary, appellate, and reviewing authorities.

A.R. CONSTRUCTION VS C.C.C. INFRASYS PRIVATE LIMITED [CO.PET.-548/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The winding-up petition against the respondent company for non-payment of outstanding dues should be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) due to the nascent stage of the proceedings and the enactment of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, along with the Companies Act, 2013.

AAS MOHAMMAD VS SH MANOJ KUMAR AD OTHERS [MAC.APP.-379/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The insurance company cannot revisit the validity of the insurance policy due to issue estoppel, as it failed to raise the defense of forgery in previous motor accident compensation petitions favoring the claimants. An error in the compensation computation by the tribunal was acknowledged, but the overall compensation award to the claimant was upheld. This case involves a vehicular accident affecting three claimants.

ABHISHEK OBEROI VS KARISHMA OBEROI [C.R.P.-165/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The lower court's decision to grant unconditional leave to the defendant to defend a suit for recovery of Rs. 6,05,000 was upheld. The defendant presented plausible defenses, including a transfer from a joint account with her deceased grandmother and a claim that Rs. 15,000 was a marriage gift. Concerns regarding the suit being potentially barred by the Limitation Act were noted. No flaws were identified in the lower court's approach, leading to the dismissal of the civil revision petition.

ABHISHEK SAXENA VS ANUKRITI SRIVASTAVA [CM(M)-151/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's writ petition challenging the Family Court's order was dismissed. The issue of territorial jurisdiction was identified as a mixed question of law and fact, not suitable for piecemeal resolution. The earlier rejection of the petitioner's application regarding jurisdiction was noted, and the current petition was deemed without merit. The petitioner was directed to pay costs of Rs. 10,000 to the New Delhi District Legal Services Authority for misusing judicial time.

ADOR WELDING LTD. & ANR. VS BANSAL WELD PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-218/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The winding up petition by Ador Welding Ltd. against Bansal Weld Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed due to the presence of triable issues of fact. Bansal Weld Pvt. Ltd. presented bona fide disputes regarding the outstanding amount claimed. The appropriate forum for resolving these disputes is a civil court. Ador Welding Ltd. may initiate proceedings in a commercial court and seek condonation of delay for the period during which winding up proceedings were ongoing.

ADVANCE STEEL TUBES LTD. VS SPACK TURNKEY PROJECTS P. LTD. [CO.PET.-36/2003]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

M/s. Spack Turnkey Projects (P) Ltd., in liquidation, was ordered to be dissolved due to the Official Liquidator's inability to proceed with the winding up process, attributed to a lack of funds and assets. It was deemed just and reasonable to dissolve the company, and the Official Liquidator was discharged from his duties.

AFZAL KHAN VS GOLF TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-701/2015]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The winding up petition against Golf Technologies Pvt. Ltd. is at an early stage with no substantive orders issued. The petition will be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) for further proceedings under the relevant legal provisions.

AJAY PURNANAND CHITNIS VS DSC LIMITED [CO.PET.-988/2015]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The company petition seeking winding up of DSC Limited for non-payment of dues should be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) due to the absence of substantive orders and the relevance of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, and the Companies Act, 2013. The petition is considered a "non-starter" as it is at an early stage.

AJMER SINGH VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-487/2023]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The contempt petition was dismissed as the respondents complied with the previous order from 31.07.2018, making the required payments to the petitioner, including refunds for wrongful deductions from salary and gratuity, along with the mandated interest. The petitioner's calculation of the amount due was rejected due to no provision for charging interest on wrongful deductions. A detailed statement from the respondents confirmed the payments made.

ALLEGIS SERVICES (INDIA) PVT. LTD. VS OLIVE TELECOMMUNICATION PRIVATE LTD. [CO.PET.-594/2015]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
A company petition for winding up should be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) because the proceedings are at an early stage. The NCLT has the jurisdiction to handle such matters under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016.

AMIT ARORA VS MMR INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPERS PVT LTD [CO.PET.-920/2015]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The winding up petition against the respondent company was dismissed due to bona fide issues regarding deficiencies in services provided by the petitioner, which required evidence for resolution. The matter was deemed suitable for a competent civil court rather than a company court. The petitioner was granted the option to pursue appropriate proceedings in the Commercial Court and could seek condonation of delay under Section 14 of the Limitation Act for time spent on the winding up proceedings.

AMIT KATYAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT GOVERNMENT OFINDIA [BAIL APPLN.-2024/2024]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
Interim bail for six weeks was granted to Amit Katyal on medical grounds due to his need for specialized dietary care following bariatric surgery and other health issues, which could not be adequately met in jail. The decision considered precedents related to medical bail and established that his condition justified the release. Conditions included a personal bond and a restriction on leaving the country, with no further relief available on similar grounds.

AMIT SAINI VS SANDEEP GAUTAM & ANR. [MAC.APP.-152/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal awarded Rs. 12,10,000/- to the injured respondent due to the rash and negligent driving of the appellant's driver. The appellant, as the registered owner, remained liable despite claiming to have sold the vehicle before the accident. The interest on the compensation was reduced from 9% to 7.5% per annum because the delay in proceedings was not the appellant's fault. The appeal was dismissed except for the adjustment in the interest rate.

ANIKET PRAKASH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11551/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's writ petition was dismissed due to its maintainability, as the petitioner had previously approached the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT), which had dismissed objections and allowed Tata Capital Housing Finance Limited (TCHFL) to take possession of the petitioner's flat under the SARFAESI Act. The petitioner was advised to file an appeal before the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal (DRAT) for further relief, with TCHFL already in possession and preparing to auction the flat.

ANIL MADAN & ANR. VS RBL BANK LIMITED [W.P.(C)-13656/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by Anil Madan and another against RBL Bank Limited focused on whether they could be classified as "non-cooperative borrowers" without following the due process in the RBI Master Circular. The petitioners received a show-cause notice on April 5, 2024, regarding this classification and claimed they had made repayments and requested the realization of existing securities. The bank issued a notice on September 10, 2024, regarding the decision of an identification committee about their categorization, which the petitioners had not received. The bank clarified that this notice was related only to "non-cooperative borrowers" and a separate notice for "willful defaulters" was sent on August 13, 2024. Consequently, the petitioners were permitted to withdraw their writ petition and instructed to respond to the bank in line with the RBI circular within 15 days.

ANITA DEVI & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-169/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The deceased was recognized as a bona fide passenger at the time of the incident, which was classified as an "untoward incident" under the Railways Act due to an accidental fall from the train. The previous dismissal of the claim petition was rejected, and a compensation of Rs. 8,00,000/- with 9% interest per annum was awarded to the deceased's widow, children, and mother, to be distributed among them.

ANKITA SINGH VS ANAND VIKRAM SINGH [CONT.CAS(C)-1322/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by Ankita Singh against Anand Vikram Singh was dismissed as it was barred by limitation. The petition arose from the respondent's failure to comply with a settlement agreement dated 23.10.2017, which included a payment of Rs. 20 lakhs. The petition was filed over 2,054 days after the compliance deadline stipulated in the agreement, resulting in dismissal without prejudice, allowing the petitioner to seek other legal remedies.

ANKUR BERI VS THE INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-955/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The driver's license was based on fake credentials, but the insurance company cannot recover from the registered owner due to the owner's lack of knowledge of the forgery. The insurance company's argument regarding the fake license does not exempt it from compensating the claimants. Compensation was re-assessed, resulting in a total of Rs. 12,32,797/- with interest at 7.5% from the filing date. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, the appeal by the registered owner was allowed, and the appeal by the claimants was partially allowed.

APPLE SPONGE AND POWER LIMITED VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-8996/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by Apple Sponge and Power Limited against Punjab National Bank was dismissed, with observations indicating changes in the company's one-time settlement proposals over time and a lack of payment for the past five years. Ongoing recovery proceedings before the Debt Recovery Tribunal and pending insolvency proceedings before the National Company Law Tribunal contributed to the decision not to interfere.

ARABIAN OILFIELD SUPPLIERS & SERVICES VS GREKA DRILLING (INDIA) LIMITED [CO.PET.-88/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

A winding up petition against Greka Drilling (India) Limited, identified as a "foreign company" and an "unregistered company" under the Companies Act 1956, is maintainable under Section 583 of that Act. However, due to the early stage of the proceedings and the absence of substantive orders, the petition is to be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) per the Companies Act 2013.

ARTI ANR ORS VS NAVEEN AND ORS [CM(M)-1062/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The orders of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal discharging the insurance company and dismissing the claimants' request to implead it were set aside. It was determined that assessing whether the deceased was a "gratuitous passenger" before recording evidence was premature. The insurance company was directed to be added as a necessary party, with the opportunity to file a fresh written statement and cross-examine witnesses. The matter was remanded for further proceedings.

ARTI GHOSH @ AROTI GHOSH VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4194/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) cannot require a Letter of Administration or a court decree for a registered will, as Indian law does not mandate probate for wills made by Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs, or Jains outside the jurisdictions of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay. The DDA must complete the mutation of the property in favor of the petitioner within four weeks and process the application for conversion from leasehold to freehold based on applicable rates at the time the writ petition was filed, to be completed within an additional four weeks.

ARVIND DHAM THROUGH PAIROKAR VS IDBI BANK LIMITED [W.P.(C)-11718/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Interim relief was not granted to petitioner Arvind Dham, who sought to quash an order labeling him as 'fraud' by IDBI Bank's Fraud Examination Committee. The petitioner incorrectly claimed to be a non-executive director during the relevant period, as he was a Promoter-Director. Requests for certain documents were viewed as an attempt to delay proceedings, with relevant documents already provided in other cases. Although interim relief was denied at this time, the raised issues required further examination, and IDBI Bank was instructed to file a reply within four weeks. The matter will be re-notified on 08.01.2025.

ARYAN CONSTRUCTIONS THROUGH MR. AMIT SINGH YADAV (PROPRIETOR) VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK LTD. THROUGH ITS CMD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10768/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by Aryan Constructions against Punjab National Bank and others was dismissed. The claim that JSW Steel was a 'related party' of Bhushan Steel & Power Ltd. was not supported, as JSW Steel disclosed necessary information and was deemed eligible under Section 29A of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. An approved resolution plan is binding on all creditors and stakeholders, irrespective of their consent. The argument that the respondent banks should have sought property attachment by the Enforcement Directorate was rejected, as the approved resolution plan granted immunity to the corporate debtor and its assets under Section 32A of the IBC. No grounds for interference in the actions of the respondent banks were established.

ASHISH KUMAR VS TATA CAPITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11543/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by Ashish Kumar against Tata Capital Financial Services Ltd. is not maintainable, requiring the petitioner to approach the Debt Recovery Tribunal under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act to challenge the SARFAESI proceedings regarding the property. The case involves conflicting sale deeds. The writ petition is dismissed without prejudice, allowing pursuit in the DRT.

ASSOCIATED BROADCASTING COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED VS SREEDEVI DIGITAL SYSTEMS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-999/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Contempt petitions filed by Associated Broadcasting Company Private Limited against various respondents for disrupting the telecast of the TV9 Telugu channel cannot be entertained due to pending petitions before the Telecom Disputes Settlement & Appellate Tribunal (TDSAT) on the same issue. The petitioner is permitted to withdraw the contempt petitions and is allowed to approach TDSAT for redressal, which may inquire into the matters raised and issue orders accordingly.

ATAMJIT SINGH & ORS. VS SPORTS FIT WORLD PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-48/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The company petition for the winding up of Sports Fit World Pvt. Ltd. should be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) due to the enactment of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, and the Companies Act, 2013. Winding up proceedings that have not significantly advanced should be redirected to the NCLT for further proceedings.

ATUL KUMAR JAIN VS IDBI BANK LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9724/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

IDBI Bank's show cause notice to Atul Kumar Jain remains effective, but the bank cannot classify his account as "fraud" at this time. Jain will have the opportunity to inspect relevant records, including forensic audit reports, at his own expense. He has 10 days to reply after the inspection, and IDBI Bank must provide a hearing and make a decision within 21 days of receiving the response.

ATUL PUNJ VS IDBI BANK THROUGH THE DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGER [W.P.(C)-9461/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The order classifying Atul Punj as a "fraud" by IDBI Bank regarding loans associated with Punj Lloyd Limited was quashed due to lack of a hearing, violating natural justice principles. The bank cannot unilaterally declare an account as "fraud" without the consent of at least 60% of the lending banks in the consortium, as stipulated by RBI Master Directions. The operation of the order is kept in abeyance, and the bank is allowed to report the matter to RBI and CBI/Police, with an opportunity to review its decision after hearing the petitioner. Further proceedings are scheduled for 17.09.2024.

AVTAR SINGH MANKOO VS DELHI DEVELOPEMNT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-14097/2009]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

A batch of writ petitions challenged the cancellation of allotments under the DDA's New Pattern Registration Scheme, 1979, leading to a conclusion that the DDA must serve demand-cum-allotment letters to all available addresses of an applicant. Cancellation without a show cause notice or notification at an alternate address was considered arbitrary. Arguments regarding delay and laches were rejected, emphasizing that reasonableness should be assessed on a case-by-case basis. The DDA was directed to either allot flats to the petitioners at prevailing rates or provide compensation if allotment was not feasible due to the scheme's closure.

AYUSH AGARWAL VS M/S DIMENTIONS INNOVATION LABS PVT LTD [CO.PET.-9/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by the official liquidator to dissolve M/s. Dimensions Innovation Labs Pvt. Ltd. was allowed due to the inability to recover any assets or funds. The registered office was occupied by others, bank accounts had no balance, and debtors could not be traced or denied claims. Continuing the winding-up proceedings was deemed unproductive, leading to the company's dissolution and the discharge of the official liquidator.

BABY NIKITA KUMARI VS PARHLAD SINGH & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LTD) [MAC.APP.-17/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal resulted in the total compensation being enhanced to Rs. 30,84,044/- due to incorrect calculation of the minor appellant's loss of future income and earning capacity, influenced by her 87% permanent disability. The notional income was established based on minimum wages for a graduate, with an additional 40% for future prospects and a multiplier of 15. Compensation was also increased for future medical expenses, disfiguration, loss of marital prospects, and pain and suffering. The insurance company must deposit the enhanced amount, with 70% held in a fixed deposit for the appellant until she reaches majority or gets married.

BABY YOGITA ARORA VS NEERAJ KUMAR VISHWAKARMA & ANR [MAC.APP.-311/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal was dismissed as the appellant failed to prove the involvement of the motorcycle in the accident. The investigation was criticized for being inadequate, particularly regarding the identification of the eyewitness. Initially, the registered owner admitted that respondent no. 1 was driving but later contradicted this claim. The appellant did not call her father or the eyewitness to support her case. No significant errors were identified in the previous decision.

BAIDYANATH MAHTO VS ANIL GOSWAMI & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-760/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Petitioners, recognized as freedom fighters during the Quit India Movement, are entitled to pension under the Swatantrata Sainik Samman Pension Scheme. However, the pension is payable from the date of filing the writ petition in 2010, not from their original applications in 1981. The claims lacked sufficient primary evidence and were accepted on the "benefit of doubt," leading to this decision on the payment timeline.

BAJAJ ALLIANZ GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS LEELA DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-790/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The accident was attributed to the rash and negligent driving of the offending vehicle's driver. Claims by the insurance company regarding a planted eyewitness and a fake driving license were rejected. The deceased's monthly income was corrected to Rs. 7,500 based on actual earnings. Compensation was revised, leading to a total amount of Rs. 12,75,000, to be paid by the insurance company with interest.

BAJAJ ALLIANZ GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS SMT. KAVITA AND ORS [MAC.APP.-240/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal found the driver of the Champion vehicle (registration no. DL-1LL-0980) responsible for a fatal accident due to rash and negligent driving, supported by testimony from eyewitness PW-2 Rinku and police investigation. The insurance company did not present evidence to contest these findings. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, and a statutory deposit of Rs. 25,000 was forfeited to the State.

BAJRANG PRASAD (DECEASED) THR LRS & ANR VS RAM NIWAS [C.R.P.-143/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The dismissal of the plaintiff's suit under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act stands due to the plaintiff's failure to prove essential elements of the claim. Discrepancies and inconsistencies were identified in the documentary evidence, including sale deeds and agreements. The plaintiff could not establish the date of dispossession from the property and failed to show prior possession within 6 months of the suit. Additionally, it was not proven that dispossession occurred "otherwise than in due course of law."

BALDEV SINGH & ORS VS NEHA BANSAL & ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-776/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The land acquisition proceedings for the petitioners' land are deemed lapsed, rendering the notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act inapplicable. Necessary corrections must be made in the revenue records to reflect the petitioners as the landowners. Mutation by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi is not applicable to the primary issue of revenue record correction. The Deputy Commissioner is responsible for addressing errors in the revenue records and must complete the correction within 15 days, with potential contempt penalties for non-compliance.

BANK OF INDIA VS M/S SARVODYA PAPER MILLS LTD [CO.PET.-15/1987]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

M/s. Sarvodya Paper Mills Ltd., currently in liquidation, should be dissolved under Section 481 of the Companies Act, 1956, due to the lack of any assets that could yield funds and the absence of a beneficial purpose in continuing the winding up process. The Official Liquidator confirmed that no further proceedings were feasible, leading to the decision for dissolution and the discharge of the Official Liquidator.

BAREILLY HIGHWAYS PROJECT LIMITED VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11150/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's application for an extension of an interim order regarding a One Time Settlement proposal was dismissed. The matter is pending before the National Company Law Tribunal, which is deemed more appropriate for addressing issues such as excessive interest calculations by the respondent banks and fairness in considering the OTS proposal. No opinion on the merits of the case was provided, and the parties were directed to appear on December 3, 2024.

BHAGWATI COOPERATIVE GROUP VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10033/2020]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The cancellation of the lease deed by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was deemed arbitrary and lacking proper consideration. Wrongdoing by former office bearers, convicted by the CBI, was not attributed to the entire society as it is a separate legal entity. Verification of the membership list showed that the majority of members were genuine. The findings of the CBI were not binding in civil matters. The DDA's cancellation order was set aside, directing the society to begin allotment of residential units to verified members under the Registrar of Cooperative Societies' supervision, and permission was granted to complete pending construction work.

BHIMAVARAM COMMUNITY NETWORK BCN VS M/S SUPER CASSETTES INDUSTRIES PVT. LTD. [C.R.P.-130/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition by Bhimavaram Community Network BCN was dismissed. The trial court's order, which rejected the application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, contained a technical flaw regarding the exemption request from mandatory pre-litigation mediation under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. However, this flaw did not impact the case's merits. The petitioner/defendant was found to have engaged in continuous and recurring copyright infringement, with sufficient grounds for urgent relief in favor of the respondent/plaintiff. The petitioner/defendant's failure to respond to legal notices indicated a lack of intent for meaningful negotiation, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

BHURA VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-363/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the father of the deceased was allowed, overturning the dismissal of the compensation claim by the Railway Claims Tribunal. Evidence confirmed that the deceased was a bona fide passenger with a valid ticket and that his death resulted from an "untoward incident" due to an accidental fall from a running train. The tribunal's conclusions were deemed flawed, relying on unreasonable conjectures. A statutory compensation of Rs. 8,00,000/- was awarded to be divided equally between the father and the deceased's mother, along with 9% annual interest from the date of the incident.

BIMLA SACHDEV VS SUBUR & ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-942/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondent DDA and its officials demonstrated willful disobedience of court directions, constituting contempt. Instead of imposing direct punishment, unconditional apologies were accepted. The DDA was instructed to create a mechanism for timely dispute resolution with customers and litigants. Emphasis was placed on a solution-oriented approach and fair negotiations to minimize unnecessary litigation. A Review Committee was to be established to identify cases suitable for resolution through Lok Adalats or mediation, aiming to enhance DDA's credibility and alleviate the burden on the justice system.

CFM ASSET RECONSTRUCTION PRIVATE LIMITED VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1209/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Contempt petitions filed by CFM Asset Reconstruction Private Limited are not maintainable due to lack of locus standi, as there is no privity of contract with NHAI. Any potential breach by NHAI occurred after the specified time limit, and the petitions filed beyond one year are barred. The argument that the breach constitutes a "continuing offence" was rejected based on precedent.

CHANDER BHAN VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-4587/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by Chander Bhan challenging the Delhi Development Authority's (DDA) construction of a boundary wall around approximately 8 bighas and 7 biswas of agricultural land at Khasra No. 16 in Village Chiragah Shumali was dismissed. The petitioner lacked a valid claim to the land, as the original temporary cultivation rights expired in 1964, and there was insufficient documentary evidence of ownership or continuous possession. The land was determined to belong to the DDA as government/public land, and it has the authority to protect it from encroachment. The petitioner concealed relevant facts by not disclosing a previous writ petition related to the same land, indicating a lack of clean hands. Costs of Rs. 25,000 were imposed on the petitioner, payable to the DDA.

CHANDER KANTA VS GYANESH BHARTI COMISSIONER MCD AND OTHERS [CONT.CAS(C)-804/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Smt. Usha Rani is permitted to self-demolish the existing structure on her property and apply for a new building plan, while the rights and claims of the parties in an ongoing civil suit remain unaffected. The contempt petition by Chander Kanta against the Municipal Corporation of Delhi for non-compliance with previous orders was disposed of, as there are other legal remedies available to address the civil dispute regarding the property.

CHOLAMANDALAM MS GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS KRISHAN CHANDER AND OTHERS [MAC.APP.-127/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to the parents of the deceased was dismissed. The deceased's monthly income was assessed at R.S. 25,000 with an additional 40% for future prospects. The assessment was deemed reasonable due to the deceased being a dental student with a promising career. The insurance company is required to deposit a total compensation of R.S. 38,50,000 with accrued interest within two weeks, or face a liability to pay 15% interest per annum.

CIVIL AND SESSIONS COURT STENOGRAPHERS ASSOCIATION (REGD) & ANR VS SHRI VIJAY KUMAR DEV [CONT.CAS(C)-204/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Stenographers in Grade II and Grade I at Delhi District Courts are entitled to the same pay scales as those in the Delhi High Court, effective from 01.01.1996 to 31.07.2018. The argument that this was a new issue was rejected, as it was considered a clarification of an earlier order. The respondent must compute arrears and release payments within specified timelines. This matter involved multiple contempt petitions from various employee categories seeking implementation of the earlier order.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & ANR. VS PROF PANKAJ ARORA CHAIRPERSON & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1382/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by the College of Education against the NCTE Chairperson was dismissed due to a lack of willful disobedience of previous directions. The NCTE denied the College's request for a second unit of the B.Ed. course based on issues with the total built-up area. This decision or any inaction related to it cannot be the basis for contempt proceedings. The College's grievances regarding the NCTE's decision or subsequent representations do not constitute contempt.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS D K JAIN & ORS [MAC.APP.-449/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The cross-appeals from the insurance company and the claimant regarding compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal were partly allowed. The assessment of the claimant's permanent disability was found to be incorrectly set at 83%; instead, it was assessed at 40%. Consequently, compensation for loss of earning capacity was reduced from Rs. 29,81,849 to Rs. 14,37,036. Compensation for other aspects such as pain and suffering, attendant charges, and special diet and conveyance was increased. Interest at 10% per annum on the total compensation from the date of filing the claim petition was upheld. The total revised compensation payable to the claimant is Rs. 36,92,373, along with 10% interest until realization.

DEEPAK AGGARWAL AND ANR VS GYAN CHAND SINCE DECEASED THROUGH LRS [C.R.P.-90/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition filed by the petitioners/plaintiffs is not maintainable because the original order from 11.08.2017, which dismissed their application to bring the legal heirs of the deceased defendant on record, was appealable under Order XLIII of the CPC. The dismissal of their review application did not modify the original order. A review application's dismissal keeps the original order effective for appeal purposes, making a revision petition inappropriate. The petitioners/plaintiffs' request to withdraw the revision petition was denied due to lack of respondent consent and absence of delay in judgment. The civil revision petition was dismissed, allowing the petitioners/plaintiffs the option to file an appeal as permitted by law.

DELHI JAL BOARD & ANR VS CHANDRA KALA & ORS [MAC.APP.-293/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's decision was upheld, concluding that the DJB tanker driver acted rashly and negligently, leading to a fatal accident. Eyewitness testimony confirmed the tanker struck the deceased's motorcycle from behind. Arguments challenging the witness's presence and attributing fault to the deceased were rejected. The compensation amount of Rs. 47,83,000/- awarded to the claimants was deemed appropriate.

DELHI TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY VS CHANDER PRABHA [C.R.P.-153/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The revision petition by Delhi Technological University (DTU) was allowed, resulting in the dismissal of a civil suit filed by Chander Prabha for recovery of Rs. 11,43,280 as it was barred by a three-year limitation period. The cause of action arose in 2013 with the submission of bills, but the suit was filed in 2020. Subsequent reminders and an RTI application did not extend the limitation period due to the absence of an unequivocal acknowledgment of debt by the university. An error was noted regarding the failure to frame an issue on the limitation question in the lower court's proceedings.

DELHI TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY VS MR CHANDER SHEKHAR [C.R.P.-155/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondent's civil suit for recovery of Rs. 11,48,324/- was barred by limitation under Section 3 of the Limitation Act, 1963. The cause of action arose in February 2013, but the suit was filed in October 2020, exceeding the 3-year limitation period. Attempts to seek information through RTI and send demand letters did not extend the limitation period, and the petitioner University did not acknowledge any debt or liability. The suit was rejected as time-barred.

DEMAS DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS INDIAN OVERSEAS BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15264/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The issues raised by Demas Developers, Jiffy Realtors, Alvita Realtors, and Dev Rishab Real Estate regarding the resolution plan approved under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) and proceedings under the SARFAESI Act should be addressed before the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT). The petitioners highlighted objections including alleged non-compliance with the SARFAESI Act and the impact of the resolution plan's approval on guarantors' obligations. The DRT is directed to consider these objections when deciding the securitization application. Findings from the lead case of Demas Developers Private Limited v. Indian Overseas Bank will also apply to the other petitions.

DEVI LAL GARG VS BALDEV SINGH [CONT.CAS(C)-1386/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

A contempt petition for willful disobedience of a civil court's decree is maintainable, but discretion exists to refuse jurisdiction if not warranted. Contempt jurisdiction should be invoked only in exceptional cases with contumacious or unconscionable conduct. The decree was executable, and the petitioner should have pursued the proper execution procedures rather than filing a contempt petition. The petitioner was allowed to withdraw the petition but had to pay costs of Rs. 10,000 to the Delhi High Court Legal Services Authority.

DHEERAJ GUPTA VS AJAY KUMAR & ANR (BHARTI AXA GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD) [MAC.APP.-614/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal incorrectly attributed 50% contributory negligence to the claimant based solely on the police site plan, lacking evidence to show fault. The claimant, a 20-year-old, experienced a permanent 54% disability that affected future earning capacity. Compensation was significantly enhanced, totaling Rs. 37,06,560 for loss of future prospects, pain and suffering, loss of marital prospects, and future medical expenses, with 9% interest from the claim filing date to be paid by the insurance company.

DILIP KUMAR VS DHARMENDRA SINGH AND ORS [MAC.APP.-96/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Dilip Kumar's appeal against the dismissal of his motor accident compensation claim under the Motor Vehicles Act was allowed. Delays in filing the appeal were condoned due to the appellant's hardships and the COVID-19 pandemic. The tribunal's original judgment was set aside, and the matter was remanded, providing the appellant with another chance to present evidence. A six-month timeline for trial completion was established, and fresh notices were to be issued to the respondents. The appellant was also to receive free legal aid services.

DILIP WAGHESHWARI VS AMIT KHARE & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-50/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Withholding of annual increments during the petitioner's suspension period, without proven misconduct, was deemed illegal. The petitioner was previously directed to receive arrears for denied increments, though the exact amount remained disputed. Deprivation of legitimate financial benefits during the suspension was acknowledged. The respondents were instructed to treat the petitioner's reply affidavit as a fresh representation and issue a reasoned order within six weeks, with the option for the petitioner to initiate fresh legal proceedings if dissatisfied.

RAM PRATAP SINCE DECEASED THROUGH HIS LRS & ANR. VS SHAHID AHMED FEROZIE & ANR. [C.R.P.-36/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The case addresses three main legal issues: the applicability of the Slum Areas (Improvement and Clearance) Act, the validity of an oral gift under Muslim law, and the assessment of property valuation and court fees. The Slum Areas Act is not applicable due to the absence of a landlord-tenant relationship, allowing the plaintiff to proceed without permission. The validity of the oral gift requires evidence from both parties and cannot be assessed at this stage. Questions regarding property valuation and court fees may also be resolved later. The decision pertains to two separate but similar suits, resulting in a common judgment for both.

DIOCESE OF DELHI-CNI VS MR. DEEPAK MARTIN CALEB [C.R.P.-46/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The order allowing the respondent, son of the deceased original plaintiff, to be substituted as the plaintiff was set aside. The suit filed by the deceased was personal in nature, and the right to sue did not survive his death. The relief sought was personal to the deceased and did not pass to his legal heir, leading to the conclusion that the suit abated upon the original plaintiff's death.

DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF HEALTH SERVICES VS SOM PAN PRODUCT PVT. LTD. [FAO-84/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil suits filed by the respondent companies against the Directorate General of Health Services regarding show cause notices are considered maintainable, as the actions do not fully align with the Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products (Prohibition of Advertising and Regulation of Trade and Commerce, Production, Supply and Distribution) Act, 2003. Section 5 of COTPA prohibits direct and indirect advertisement of tobacco products, but using brand names registered under the Trade Marks Act, 1999, for non-tobacco products may not constitute indirect advertisement of banned tobacco products. This aspect necessitates evidence during the trial. Furthermore, the state government has not banned the sale or marketing of the respondent companies' pan masala products, which do not contain tobacco, indicating that the balance of convenience and potential for irreparable loss favors the respondent companies, justifying the interim injunction against the appellant.

DISRUPTIVE HEALTH SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. VS KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13082/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition from a registered MSME challenging the assignment agreement between a bank and an asset reconstruction company is not maintainable. The MSME failed to approach the Committee for Stressed Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises in a timely manner as per the RBI framework. The MSME cannot raise issues related to its status at a later stage after actions under the SARFAESI Act. Grievances should be addressed in the appropriate forum under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act upon issuance of a notice under Section 13(4).

DLF HOMES RAJAPURA PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [CM(M)-1333/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's challenge to the rejection of their objection regarding the maintainability of a consumer complaint was addressed. The issues are covered by a previous judgment that is currently under review by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court has instructed the NCDRC to determine whether the complaint can proceed as a class action or a joint complaint. Respondents are allowed to pursue remedies before the NCDRC, with the issues from the petition open for future adjudication.

DLF HOMES RAJAPURA PVT LTD VS AMARDEEP SINGH TIWANA & ORS. [CM(M)-572/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's challenge to the maintainability of a consumer complaint under Section 12(1)(c) of the Consumer Protection Act is covered by the judgment in the Lucina Land Development Ltd. case. Respondents are directed to pursue the appropriate remedy as per the Supreme Court's judgment in Brigade Enterprise v. Anil Kumar Virmani, with all issues left open for adjudication according to the law. This pertains to a single consumer complaint.

DR PRAVEEN SINGH VS DR ASHISH GOYAL & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-77/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition by Dr. Praveen Singh against Dr. Ashish Goyal and the Government of NCT of Delhi was dismissed due to a lack of wilful disobedience of the previous order that set aside the termination of Singh's service. The Governing Council (GC) has the authority to make employment decisions based on conditions such as clearances from the Delhi Police and Delhi Medical Council. The GC's choice not to renew Singh's contract was justified by rational grounds, including reported misconduct and negligence leading to patient deaths. Additionally, Singh did not possess a vested right to the renewal of his expired contract, and the respondents' interpretation of the prior judgment was deemed reasonable.

DR VP MAINRA VS M/S DAWSONS LEASING LTD. & ORS. [CO.PET.-323/1999]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Ex-directors of a company in liquidation engaged in fraudulent concealment and misappropriation of funds by not disclosing the sale details of company property and the sale proceeds. They are required to pay Rs. 3,60,000 along with penal interest to the Official Liquidator within 30 days. Failure to comply may result in prosecution under Section 538 of the Companies Act.

DR. RAKESH KISHORE VS MR. NARESH SAXENA AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-754/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Contempt was not established as the managing committee of the cooperative housing society was previously prohibited from charging entry fees or other payments per directives from the Registrar of Cooperative Societies. The petitioner alleged continued collection of fees in violation of this order. However, the Registrar has issued show-cause notices regarding the illegal charges, and further directives from the Registrar are anticipated. The contempt petition was dismissed, as the petitioner could not use contempt proceedings to advocate for others who opted to pay the fees.

E & M SPECIALTY CO.INC VS MR ANIL WAHAL (DIRECTOR) [CCP(CO.)-24/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Company petitions for winding up Interdril Asia Ltd. should be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) since NCLT has admitted an application for corporate insolvency resolution against the company. Winding up proceedings were in the early stage with no substantive orders, making the transfer appropriate to avoid duplication and ensure consistency. A contempt petition for non-compliance with a previous order was dismissed as the non-compliance was not willful; the company was attempting to revive itself and management had shifted to the Interim Resolution Professional due to ongoing insolvency proceedings.

EKANEK NETWORKS PVT. LTD. VS ADITYA MERTIA [C.R.P.-31/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition filed by the defendant company was dismissed, maintaining that the dispute in question is not classified as a "commercial dispute" under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. A contract of employment, which involves one party providing personal services under the supervision of the employer, does not fall within the definition of a "commercial dispute." The distinction between a "contract of service" and a "contract for service" indicates that service disputes are governed by master-servant laws, where specific performance is not applicable. High value or stakes in a contract of employment do not automatically place the dispute under the Act's jurisdiction, as the legislature did not intend for personal service contracts to be included.

ESTER INDUSTRIES LTD VS INDUS POLYFILMS SPECIALISTS PVT LTD [CO.PET.-320/2008]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The winding up petition filed by Ester Industries Ltd. against Indus Polyfilms Specialists Pvt Ltd is to be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) due to its prolonged pendency without substantial orders for liquidation. The enactment of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, and the Companies Act, 2013 supports this transfer, reflecting a precedent that such proceedings should be redirected to the NCLT at an early stage. The parties are directed to appear before the NCLT on 27.05.2024 for further proceedings.

FAST TRACK EXPRESS LLP VS GAS LOGISTICS LLP [C.R.P.-120/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The dismissal of the defendant's application to set aside an ex parte judgment and decree was upheld due to it being filed after the 30-day limitation period set by Article 123 of the Limitation Act. The defendant did not demonstrate any "special circumstances" justifying the non-appearance, with arguments about being misled by the plaintiff and dealing with a family emergency deemed insufficient.

FORECH INDIA PVT LTD VS SHRI INDER PAL SINGH BINDRA SECRETARY COMPETITION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1371/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by Forech India Pvt Ltd against the Competition Commission of India (CCI) was dismissed. The CCI had provided an undertaking to share investigation documents, allow cross-examination of witnesses, and provide confidentiality orders. It was determined that the CCI attempted to comply with prior directions without deviation. The CCI's independent powers to manage the investigation methodology and timeline were affirmed, and Forech's request for judicial review through the contempt petition was rejected. Forech was ordered to pay Rs. 1,00,000 for delaying tactics and attempting to obstruct the ongoing investigation.

FUTURE GENERALI INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS RAMESHWAR CHOUDHARY & ORS [FAO-545/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Employees' Compensation Commissioner granted ₹8,69,574 in compensation to the parents of a deceased workman, confirming that the deceased was employed by Respondent No. 3 and that the fatal accident occurred during his employment. Arguments from the insurance company asserting the deceased's employment elsewhere and lack of coverage under the Employees' Compensation Act were rejected. The insurance company was required to pay costs of ₹50,000, and the entire compensation amount was directed to be paid to the claimants.

FUTURE GENERALI INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS ISHRAT & ORS [MAC.APP.-1041/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The insurance company cannot challenge the validity of the insurance policy regarding a prior accident claim due to issue estoppel and constructive res judicata. Compensation for claimants Safeeya and Ishrat was increased for loss of income, pain and suffering, loss of amenities, and future medical expenses after evaluating the evidence and injuries. The insurance company is required to deposit the increased compensation amounts with the tribunal within a specified timeframe.

GAIL (INDIA) LIMITED VS JOSE P PHILIP [CONT.CAS(C)-852/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Contempt petitions filed by GAIL (India) Limited against executives of Tecpro Systems Ltd. were dismissed. The respondents were linked to the consortium's actions, but the failure to renew bank guarantees was due to the consortium's insolvency, which was beyond their control. There was no evidence of intentional neglect in complying with a previous order.

GATEWAY INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES LTD VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13278/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by Gateway Investment Management Services Ltd. challenging the rejection of its resolution plan for Helios Photo Voltaic Private Limited was dismissed. An alternative remedy exists for the petitioner to challenge the decision before the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), which has the jurisdiction to regulate the Committee of Creditors (CoC). The CoC is required to operate with objectivity, integrity, independence, and impartiality as per guidelines set by the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (IBBI). Judicial review was not exercised to avoid overstepping the NCLT's authority regarding the CoC's commercial decisions.

GAURAV KUMAR VS NIRMAL SINGH & ORS (NATIONAL INSURNACE CO) [MAC.APP.-512/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant's compensation claim was rejected due to contradictory testimony regarding his location during the incident. Initially, he stated he was on the tractor trolley, but later claimed to be on the divider when the truck struck him. The principle of res ipsa loquitur indicated the tractor trolley was at fault due to a loss of control after a tire burst, leading to the collision. The appellant failed to demonstrate the truck driver's rash and negligent driving.

GAURAV MANGLA & ORS VS ROHIT MANGLA [C.R.P.-72/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The subsequent suit for partition of properties left by H.C. Mangla is not barred by res judicata or Order II Rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The previous suit only addressed disbursement of amounts related to an LIC policy and outstanding dues, and did not encompass all legal heirs or property partition. The cause of action for the current suit is distinct from the previous one. Additionally, the claim is not barred by limitation as it stems from the failure to deliver the agreed 1/5th share under a compromise deed. The civil revision petition was dismissed, affirming the trial court's decision to not reject the plaint under Order VII Rule 11 of the CPC.

GAUTAM MALHOTRA VS IDBI BANK LIMITED [W.P.(C)-11519/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The order declaring the petitioner's account as "fraud" was quashed due to a lack of specific reasons for culpability and the absence of a hearing opportunity. The bank must maintain the status quo and allow the petitioner to inspect relevant records, including forensic audit reports. The petitioner is required to respond to the show cause notice within 10 days, after which the bank must conduct a hearing and make a decision within 21 days.

GE STRATEGIC INVESTMENTS INDIA PVT. CO. WITH ULTD LIABILITY VS .[CO.PET.-1/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Necessary compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 for the voluntary winding up of GE Strategic Investments India (Pvt. Company with Unlimited Liability) was completed. The affairs of the company were found not to have been conducted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of its members or the public. The company is ordered to be wound up and deemed dissolved effective from the date of the petition filing.

GOLDEN ASSETS HOLDINGS PVT LTD & ORS. VS SANJAY GUPTA & ANR. [FAO-300/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondents/plaintiffs established a prima facie case for an interim injunction to prevent the appellants/defendants from interfering with their possession and use of the roof/open terrace of the property. The appellants/defendants' claim of adverse possession was dismissed, as their pleadings indicated that their use of the roof/open terrace was with the consent of the previous owner. The balance of convenience favored the respondents/plaintiffs, who had received approval from authorities for repairs and renovations.

GREENFIELD RESIDENTS WELFARE SOCIETY (GRSW) VS SUNNY KHANDELWAL ADVOCATE & ANR. [CCP(CO.)-2/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Messages posted by the respondents on a WhatsApp group were deemed scandalous and demeaning to the majesty of the court. The respondents expressed remorse for their comments. The matter had been pending for over 40 years, and the residents' frustrations regarding unaddressed basic amenities contributed to their unsavory remarks about the court's functioning. Given the partial allowance of related appeals and the context of the longstanding issues, continuing with the contempt petition served no useful purpose, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

GURBAKHSH SINGH BA, BULIDERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS FORTIS HOSPITAL LIMITED ESCORT HEART INSTITUTE & RESEARCH CENTRE [CO.PET.-299/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Winding up petitions filed by a petitioner company against a respondent company will be transferred from the High Court to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT). Following the Companies Act, 2013 and relevant interpretations, it was noted that no substantive proceedings had occurred towards the winding up, allowing for the transfer. Additionally, the decision to transfer can occur without a party's application, provided no irreversible steps have been taken.

HARE RAM SINGH VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13497/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner became a victim of cyber fraud through a "vishing" attack, and the State Bank of India failed to take prompt action to block unauthorized transactions despite a timely complaint. The bank could not prove the petitioner's negligence as required under the RBI circular on customer liability. The Banking Ombudsman's order was set aside, and the bank was directed to compensate the petitioner for the full amount of unauthorized withdrawals, including interest and legal costs.

HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SEEMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-1107/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The insurance company remains liable to pay compensation to the claimants as the vehicle was returning to Haryana after repairs and not in violation of permit conditions. The argument regarding route permit violation was rejected. Compensation was increased from R.S. 14,48,000 to R.S. 18,47,500 based on a higher notional income of the deceased and the application of the relevant multiplier.

HARENDER SINGH (HAWALDAR) VS KAVIT KUMAR [C.R.P.-118/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The dismissal of the application to set aside a default judgment was upheld, with confirmation that summons were properly served on the defendant's wife in accordance with Order 5 Rule 15 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It was noted that the defendant attempted to improve his case at multiple stages and displayed a lack of bona fides, indicating no illegality or incorrect approach in the dismissal of the application.

MAGMA HDI GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS HARISH KUMAR SUKHIJA & ORS [MAC.APP.-739/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claimant sustained injuries due to the rash and negligent driving of the vehicle's driver. Compensation was increased from Rs. 46,53,086/- to Rs. 67,56,086/-, covering attendant charges, pain and suffering, loss of amenities, and future medical treatment. The insurance company must deposit the enhanced compensation with 7.5% interest from the date of the Detailed Accident Report. Cross-appeals were filed by both the insurance company and the claimant.

HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURACE CO LTD VS PAPMA DAS & ORS [MAC.APP.-931/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The original tribunal judgment in a motor accident compensation case was modified, adjusting the loss of future prospects to 40% and revising non-pecuniary losses to Rs. 1,20,000 for loss of love and affection, Rs. 1,00,000 for loss of consortium, and Rs. 60,000 for loss of estate. The interest rate of 10% on the total compensation amount of Rs. 31,94,622 was upheld from the date of filing the petition until realization. The modification was made without referring the matter to a larger bench, focusing on the appeals case specifically.

HONEY KATYAL VS PUNJAB AND SIND BANK [W.P.(C)-10937/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petition by the guarantor challenging the enforcement of the suretyship obligation as time-barred is not sustainable. An acknowledgment of the debt by the corporate debtor before the three-year limitation period allows for the application under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). The ongoing proceedings before the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) provide an opportunity for the petitioner to present arguments about the guarantee deed's binding nature or any novation of the original contract. The case laws cited by the petitioner are not applicable to the IBC, which is a self-contained statute.

IARI STENOGRAPHERS ASSOCIATION VS SANJAY GARG, THE SECRETARY, ICAR [CONT.CAS(C)-903/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Secretary of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) and the Secretary of the Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, were found in contempt for failing to grant pay parity to Personal Assistants (PAs) and Private Secretaries (PSs) at ICAR institutes with their counterparts at ICAR headquarters. A review highlighted a 1997 Cabinet decision to unify pay scales and previous rulings supporting pay parity, rejecting the argument that unification of cadres was necessary for implementation. The respondents were directed to provide pay parity and financial benefits for the period from January 1, 2006, to December 31, 2022.

ICICI LOMBARD GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS MAYA DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-480/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company resulted in the recognition of shared negligence by the drivers of the Maruti Van and Scorpio, with liability apportioned equally. The calculation of the deceased's loss of dependency based on notional income was sustained, though compensation for non-pecuniary losses was reduced to align with precedent. The cross-objections from the Scorpio car owner were dismissed due to lack of participation and failure to provide evidence of a valid driving license. The total compensation was modified to Rs. 6,79,120/- with an interest rate of 10% per annum. Overall, the liability finding was upheld while changes were made to the compensation amount and distribution.

IFFCO - TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS NUPUR SINGH & ORS [MAC.APP.-344/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

There was composite negligence by the drivers of both the offending bus and car involved in the accident, with the car driver contributing by moving to the right side of the road. The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's assessment of compensation was largely upheld, with minor modifications based on a Supreme Court judgment, resulting in a reassessed total compensation of Rs. 2,55,43,000/- plus interest at 7.5% from the claim petition filing date. The appeal from the insurer of the offending car was dismissed, although there were adjustments to the compensation amount discussed in the judgment.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INS. CO. LTD. VS WASLIA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-357/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's decision to hold the insurance company primarily liable for compensation of Rs. 28,80,816/- with 9% interest is upheld, despite the driver having a fake license. The owner had reasonably checked the driver's credentials and did not fail to exercise due care. The compensation amount was modified, with a directive for the insurance company to deposit the enhanced amount within 4 weeks, or face 12% interest.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS ANJU DEVI@ANJU & ORS. [MAC.APP.-208/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The insurance policy in question is a comprehensive policy that covers liability for death or injury to any person, including occupants of the insured vehicle, rather than being limited to the statutory minimum coverage. This case differs from prior cases involving truly limited policies. The Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal's order awarding compensation for the death of the pillion rider is upheld, and the insurance company is directed to deposit the full compensation amount with accrued interest.

INDERJEET SINGH TOSARIA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-7596/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Delhi Development Authority's refusal to convert the payment method from hire-purchase to cash down and its imposition of additional interest charges of Rs. 3,87,358/- were deemed illegal, arbitrary, and unjust. The delay in payment was attributed to the DDA's failure to promptly accept the cash payment request. The DDA is directed to refund the interest paid by the petitioner with 8% interest from the date of payment, and failing this, must pay the amount with 12% interest.

INDEX HOSPITALITY LIMITED VS CONTITEL HOTELS AND RESORTS PVT LTD & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1218/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner company cannot initiate contempt proceedings against the respondents for willful disobedience of an earlier arbitration order. The appropriate remedy is to seek enforcement of the arbitral award under Section 31 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Contempt jurisdiction should not be used when alternative legal remedies are available. The case involves the enforcement of a final arbitral award, which is addressed under Section 36 of the Arbitration Act. The contempt petition is dismissed, allowing the petitioner to pursue appropriate enforcement proceedings.

IQBAL KHAN VS SURJEE DEVI & ORS [FAO-366/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the employer against the imposition of a penalty under Section 4A(3)(b) of the Employees' Compensation Act, 1923 was dismissed. The Compensation Commissioner correctly initiated independent penalty proceedings, despite the penalty not being explicitly addressed in the earlier compensation award. The approach of the Compensation Commissioner was upheld, with a 40% penalty imposed on the employer based on the compensation amount awarded.

JAGJIT SINGH BHATIA VS ROOP RANI MEHRA [RC.REV.-621/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The landlady demonstrated a bona fide requirement for additional accommodation under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. The tenant's claims of the landlady having alternative suitable accommodation were rejected, as she provided full disclosure of her current accommodation and its use by her family. The need to balance the landlord's right to possession with the tenant's opportunity to defend was emphasized, requiring tenants to show prima facie facts to contest eviction effectively.

JAGJOT SINGH VS OM PRAKASH & ANR [MAC.APP.-277/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant, who suffered 100% permanent locomotor disability due to an accident caused by the respondent's negligent driving, is entitled to enhanced compensation of Rs. 95,28,979. This amount includes increased compensation for future medical expenses, loss of earning capacity, loss of amenities and marriage prospects, pain and suffering, and attendant charges, addressing the lifelong impairment experienced by the appellant.

JAI SHARMA & ANR. VS RAMWATI & ANR. [C.R.P.-148/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The revision petition filed by plaintiffs Jai Sharma and another was allowed, setting aside the trial court's order dismissing their application to include certain documents. It was concluded that the late filing of these documents would not prejudice the defendants, Ramwati and another. The trial court's failure to consider the broader context of the case was noted. The trial court was directed to permit the plaintiffs to submit the relevant documents, contingent upon the payment of costs to the defendants.

JAJATI KESHRI PATTANAYAK & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8965/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by homebuyers against the bank was dismissed. The rights of the petitioners are governed by their contractual terms, and they have alternative statutory remedies available under the SARFAESI Act. Previous judgments indicated that such matters are unsuitable for writ jurisdiction due to the involvement of disputed facts and emphasized the necessity for borrowers to exhaust alternate remedies before approaching higher authorities. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case to avoid affecting the rights of parties in ongoing multiple proceedings.

JAPNEET KAUR GHUMAN & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8994/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by the homebuyers was dismissed on the grounds of non-maintainability in writ jurisdiction, as the rights and obligations were governed by the contract terms. The initiation of SARFAESI proceedings limited the homebuyers to remedies under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act, necessitating adherence to the available statutory remedies without bypassing them. Homebuyers were advised to seek appropriate remedies in accordance with the law.

JASBIR SINGH VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-5420/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition was dismissed, indicating that the petitioner is not entitled to calculate the premium for the allotted plot based on the original 1993 demand-cum-allotment letter. Doubts about the petitioner's bona fides were raised due to his past conduct, and the DDA had reconsidered the allotment as a "special case," which the petitioner accepted without protest. After taking possession of the property and executing the conveyance deed, the petitioner is neither legally nor equitably entitled to reclaim the premium or sale price based on the original letter.

JASVEER SINGH (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS VS DINKAR GUPTA [CONT.CAS(C)-775/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Respondents did not compute the financial benefits due to deceased petitioner Jasveer Singh following his notional promotion to Additional Superintendent of Police in the NIA effective from 01.04.2017, leading to a finding of willful disobedience of a previous order. They must complete the computation of these benefits within four weeks and submit a compliance report. The existence of disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner does not affect his eligibility for promotion or the calculation of financial benefits.

JAYESH KUMAR JAIN VS DUGRA DUTT RAI AND ORS [MAC.APP.-186/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant's appeal against the rejection of his compensation claim was dismissed due to the lack of credible and reliable testimony as the sole eye-witness. Numerous unexplained gaps and contradictions in his account, along with delays in lodging the FIR and in providing details about the offending vehicle and its driver, raised doubts about the respondents' involvement. The findings indicated that the appellant failed to establish the liability of the respondents for the accident and injuries sustained.

KAILASH AGGARWAL VS ASHWANI SHARMA [C.R.P.-183/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The suit filed by the plaintiff is not considered premature despite the conditions in the Agreement to Sell dated 14.10.2009 not being met. The analysis of the Indian Contract Act regarding contingent contracts indicates that if a dispute renders the condition for cheque encashment impossible, the condition becomes void. The question of whether the plaintiff has any remaining steps to obtain the consultancy fee will be addressed during the trial. The previous decision on the preliminary issue is set aside, and evidence will be presented on this along with other issues. No referral to a larger bench is made, and this case is not part of a batch matter.

KAMAL GARG DIRECTOR OF BREEK CONSTRUCTION PVT LTD VS SOUTH INDIAN BANK LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10348/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate (ACMM) lacks jurisdiction to entertain an application under Section 340 of the Criminal Procedure Code while operating under Section 14 of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002. The role of the Magistrate in SARFAESI proceedings is ministerial, not adjudicatory, and does not require notice or a hearing for the borrower. The order by the ACMM that stayed the appointment of the Receiver under Section 14 of the SARFAESI Act was quashed.

KAMAL SINGH ALIAS KAMAL SINGH RAWAT VS JAI KUMAR SHARMA & ANR. [MAC.APP.-197/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant is entitled to claim compensation under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, despite receiving benefits under the Employees' State Insurance (ESI) Act, 1948. The bar under Sections 53 and 61 of the ESI Act applies only if the injuries were "employment injuries" in the context of a claim made as an employee. In this case, the injuries resulted from the negligence of a third party, not the appellant's employer. Therefore, the claim under the Motor Vehicles Act is maintainable, and the matter is remanded to the Tribunal for assessing the quantum of compensation while considering the ESI benefits already received. The analysis was based on a harmonious interpretation of both Acts.

KANHAIYA LAL VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10311/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition seeking to prevent the DDA from constructing a boundary wall on adjacent open space was dismissed. The claim that the petitioner's plot was a "corner plot" with additional rights was not supported by evidence. The petitioner concealed material facts about previous encroachments on the adjoining DDA land. The DDA has the right to construct the boundary wall as per the zonal development plan, and the petitioner has no legal entitlement or easement rights over the land.

KANTA PRASAD GAUTAM VS SHANTI ALIAS SARITA [CONT.CAS(C)-1288/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's contempt petition was dismissed due to a 12-year delay in filing without adequate justification. A Memorandum of Understanding from 2012 indicated the respondent's agreement to cooperate in filing a joint petition to quash a criminal FIR and withdraw a maintenance petition. The petitioner retains the right to approach the Allahabad High Court for redressal of grievances. The contempt petition was dismissed without prejudice.

KANWAL KISHORE MANCHANDA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6222/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The subject property was originally allotted to the sole proprietorship firm of the petitioner's father, Shri Ram Parkash Arora. The DDA's decision to cancel the mutation in favor of the petitioner and his sisters disregarded the final court decree of partition and was deemed arbitrary. The cancellation order has been set aside, and the DDA is directed to restore the mutation in accordance with the decree. The representations made by the respondent, grandson of Shri Ram Parkash Arora, lacked merit, and he was advised to seek an appropriate remedy in court.

KAPIL VS KRISHAN LAL SINCE DECEASE THROUGH HIS LRS AND ANR [C.R.P.-203/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The revision petition by defendant Kapil was dismissed, as he had ceased appearing in the case well before the COVID-19 pandemic and delayed filing his application to set aside the ex parte order after the plaintiffs' evidence was recorded. The decision emphasized the unfavorable nature of the defendant's conduct.

KARAN AHUJA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1411/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by the homebuyer against HDFC is not maintainable, as the petitioner's rights arise from private contracts, specifically the buyer-developer agreement and the loan agreement. Contractual disputes should be addressed through alternative forums such as arbitration, consumer forums, NCLT, or under the SARFAESI Act. The SARFAESI Act offers a specific remedy for aggrieved borrowers, which the petitioner should pursue. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed to avoid prejudice to the parties' rights in the appropriate forums.

KARAN TOMAR VS INSURANCE OMBUDSMAN & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10643/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The award by the Insurance Ombudsman was quashed due to its failure to effectively address the claims and counter-claims of the parties. The award only noted the insurer's intention to provide unspecified "requisite documents," allowing arbitrary denial of the petitioner's claim. The Insurance Ombudsman is instructed to actively seek an amicable settlement and, if unsuccessful, to issue a proper award that includes findings, reasons, and recommendations. Additionally, the Ombudsman must assess the insurer's justification for not renewing the petitioner's medical insurance policy.

KARMYOGI BUILDERS PVT LTD VS REGISTRAR OF COMPANIES [CO.PET.-96/2012]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Karmyogi Builders Pvt Ltd must seek remedy at the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) under Chapter XXVII of the Companies Act, 2013, rather than the High Court. The Registrar of Companies acted in accordance with both the old Companies Act, 1956 (Section 560) and the new Companies Act, 2013 (Section 248) when striking off the company's name from the Register of Companies. The petition was dismissed, allowing the company to approach the NCLT for redress.

KHEM CHAND @ BITTU VS YOGENDRA SINGH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-55/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal made a significant error by prioritizing the motor vehicle inspection report over the unchallenged testimony of the eyewitness claimant. The lack of vehicle damage noted by the Tribunal was deemed illogical, as even minor impacts can affect the maneuverability of a two-wheeler. The evidence indicated that the driver of the offending vehicle exhibited rash and negligent driving, leading to the claimant's permanent disability. The case was sent back to the Tribunal to evaluate the compensation amount, ensuring a fair hearing for all parties involved.

KIRTI GUPTA VS VINAY KUMAR AGGARWAL & ORS (NATIONAL INSURNACE CO TLD) [MAC.APP.-1127/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by Kirti Gupta regarding the compensation awarded for injuries was dismissed. The findings confirmed that her minor son was driving the vehicle during the accident, and Gupta was responsible for permitting him to do so on a public road. A 35% deduction from the compensation was deemed appropriate due to her contributory negligence. The assessment of her disability at 25% and the calculation of loss of future income using the multiplier method were also upheld as fair and reasonable.

KONINKLIJKE PHILIPS N.V. & OTHERS VS S.K.BHALLA & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-351/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition by Koninklijke Philips N.V. was dismissed due to insufficient foundational facts. The evidence presented, including a disputed invoice, did not establish a clear case of willful violation of the January 30, 2013 undertaking regarding the sale of Philips-branded products without consent. Allegations of a single sale were deemed inadequate, as compelling evidence of willful and dishonest disobedience was not demonstrated.

KOSTUB INVESTMENTS LTD. VS REINZ TALBROS LTD. [CO.PET.-222/2001]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claims of Kostub Investments Ltd., a secured debenture holder, should be adjudicated up to the date of the appointment of the provisional liquidator on 25.02.2002, rather than the date of final winding up on 09.08.2012. The claims of another secured creditor, Bank of Baroda, were also adjudicated up to the same earlier date, indicating that there was no basis for treating Kostub Investments Ltd. differently. The application from Kostub Investments Ltd. was dismissed, affirming the previous order.

KOTAK MAHINDRA GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS AFROJ & ORS. [MAC.APP.-230/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's decision to award compensation to the injured claimant was upheld, with modifications to the compensation amount. The notional monthly income for the claimant was calculated based on minimum wages for a matriculate, set at Rs. 11,622. Compensation for pain and suffering was increased to Rs. 2.5 lakhs, and an additional Rs. 2.5 lakhs was granted for loss of marriage prospects due to the claimant's young age and permanent disability. The award of Rs. 8 lakhs for loss of amenities and enjoyment of life remained unchanged. An interest rate of 9% per annum was maintained from the date of filing the Detailed Accident Report.

LACHHMAN SINGH VS KAVITA DEVI & ORS(THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD [MAC.APP.-921/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The insurance company was deemed liable for compensating claimants because the registered owner lacked a valid permit to operate the goods vehicle in Greater Noida, where the accident occurred. The owner only had a permit for Delhi, and the road tax receipt did not serve as a valid entry permit for Uttar Pradesh. The insurance company was allowed to recover the compensation amount paid to the claimants from the registered owner.

LALIT KUMAR VS KOMAL SINGH AND ANR [C.R.P.-227/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The revision petition filed by the defendant was dismissed, with the issues of property ownership deemed triable matters for the trial stage. The plaintiff seeks a declaration that the sale deed favoring the defendant is null and void and asserts that the property belongs to her deceased uncle. The plaintiff's argument, based on an agreement to sell in favor of her uncle, can be considered to support her possessory rights under Section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act. The determination of whether the documents cited by the parties relate to the disputed property will occur after the trial court's evidence recording. The defendant's petition was found to lack merit.

LAXMAN SINGH PRAJAPATI & ORS. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10414/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by members of the Delhi Peasant Cooperative Multi-Purposes Society Ltd. was dismissed due to their status as unauthorized occupants, previously established by earlier decisions. The lease for the Society expired in 1967, and the petitioners could not demonstrate any independent rights over the land. A token cost of Rs. 5,000 was imposed on each petitioner for filing a misconceived writ petition and withholding material facts.

RAM NIWAS TYAGI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-1817/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Writ petitions filed by the brothers were dismissed as they had no legal right to seek a second chance for alternate plot allotment. Their original 1978 allotment was cancelled due to non-payment of premium, not voluntary surrender. A subsequent application for an alternate plot in 1982 was rejected, and they did not challenge these orders. The petitions, filed after 40 years, were barred by delay and laches, indicating the petitioners had neglected their rights for a prolonged period and were not entitled to relief.

LECHAMPS (SEA) PTE LTD VS ASHISH GUPTA & ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-631/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Ashish Gupta committed willful disobedience of court orders by breaching the terms of a Memorandum of Understanding from April 27, 2017. He acknowledged personal liability regarding debts owed to the petitioner but failed to uphold his commitments. As a director of the contemnor-company, he can be held accountable for the company's actions taken with his knowledge and consent. Gupta was directed to appear for a hearing on the quantum of punishment.

M.B. FINMART PVT. LTD & ORS. VS REGISTRAR OF COMPANIES, NATIONAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12025/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by shareholders challenging the Registrar of Companies' order granting a 3-month extension for the company to hold its 40th Annual General Meeting was dismissed. The order did not explicitly state "special reasons" as required under Section 96(1) of the Companies Act, 2013; however, the Registrar is not mandated to conduct a detailed assessment of the reasons provided. The petitioners have alternative remedies under the Act, such as approaching the Tribunal for issues related to mismanagement or oppression, and a clear infringement of fundamental or legal rights was not established.

M/S A.B. CREATIONS & ANR. VS M/S BHAN TEXTILES PVT. LTD. [C.R.P.-151/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The striking-off of a company's name from the Register of Companies under Section 248(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 does not invalidate its civil suit. Sections 248(6), 248(7), and 250 allow the company to pursue legal remedies for dues, and creditors can seek remedies against the company for liabilities, even after the name is removed from the register. The civil suit can continue despite the company's name being struck off.

M/S ALOK INDUSTRIES VS M/S JAI SHREE POLYPLAST PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-296/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The company petition for winding up M/s Jai Shree Polyplast Pvt. Ltd. filed by M/s Alok Industries should be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) as it was deemed a "complete non-starter" without the appointment of a Provisional Liquidator or Official Liquidator. Winding up proceedings at an early stage and not progressed significantly should be addressed by the NCLT. The petition and any pending applications will be disposed of and sent to the NCLT for further consideration.

M/S BERNINA INTERNATIONAL PVT.LTD VS M/S PICCADILY HOTELS PVT.LTD [CO.PET.-34/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Winding up petitions filed by petitioner companies against Piccadily Hotels Pvt. Ltd. for non-payment of dues amounting to Rs. 22-26 lakhs will be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) due to their early stage, lacking substantive orders. The transfer aligns with the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, and the Companies Act, 2013, for further proceedings.

M/S DIMENSION INVESTMENT & SECURITIES LTD VS M/S KUBERSWAMY ASHUTOSH CONSULTANTS(P) LTD [CO.PET.-488/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by the Official Liquidator for the dissolution of M/s. Kuberswami Ashutosh Consultants Private Limited was allowed due to the company's lack of assets and incurred expenses without available funds, making further liquidation proceedings futile. It was deemed just and reasonable to dissolve the company.

M/S GAYATRI WEBTECH PVT. LTD THROUGH SHRI RAJESH TRIPATHI DIRECTOR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13947/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The debarment of M/s Gayatri Webtech Pvt. Ltd. from participating in tenders by the Delhi Development Authority for three years was deemed unjustified. The contract did not require prior permission for terminating a plumber's services. Additionally, debarment guidelines necessitated a conviction for specific offenses, which did not apply in this situation. The debarment order was quashed.

M/S GROVER LEASING LTD. VS M/S RANK SUSPENSION PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-128/1994]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by Rajinder Pal Marwaha for the release of Rs. 56,50,470.33 and Rs. 3,51,616.08 from the Reserve Bank of India, representing his alleged shareholding in M/s Rank Suspension Pvt. Ltd., was dismissed due to insufficient evidence. Marwaha did not provide original share certificates or relevant documents to support his claim and was aware of the company's winding-up proceedings but failed to appear regularly or satisfy the Official Liquidator's requirements. Consequently, the claim could not be substantiated.

M/S GUJRAL TOURS & TRAVELS PVT LTD VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION [FAO-119/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant company's petition challenging the ESIC's demand for contribution under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 was dismissed. Evidence, including the inspection report and employee list, supported the conclusion that the company fell under the Act's purview. The appellant did not provide essential records like the attendance register and inspection book, while the submitted computer-generated payroll records were deemed inadmissible. Legal provisions regarding applicability based on employee count and salary levels were analyzed, confirming that the lower court's findings were valid.

M/S HINDUSTAN VEGETABLE OIL CORPN. LTD. VS ... [CO.PET.-49/2002]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Hindustan Vegetable Oil Corporation Ltd. (HVOC) has been ordered to dissolve after being declared a sick industrial company and recommended for winding up. The liquidation process is complete, which included selling movable assets and transferring immovable assets to the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs. Government liabilities towards HVOC have been waived, leaving minimal current liabilities.

M/S IMPERIAL PROMOTER PVT LTD VS R M SINGHARE MAGISTRATE SUB DIVISONAL MEHRAULI [CONT.CAS(C)-668/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition was deemed aimless, ill-motivated, and lacking cause of action. The petitioner already approached the competent authority for land demarcation under the Delhi Land Revenue Act, 1954, and had filed an appeal with the Divisional Commissioner. The contempt petition was dismissed, allowing the petitioner to pursue the remedy for land demarcation as per the law.

M/S INTELLI CARE VS M/S ROOTS MULTICLEAN LTD [C.R.P.-137/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's challenge to the territorial jurisdiction of the Delhi courts was dismissed. A substantial part of the cause of action arose in Delhi, where the plaintiff's branch office was located and payments were made, despite the consignment being dispatched from Coimbatore. The reasoning of the trial court showed no patent illegality, and the objection to jurisdiction was invalid even though the invoices cited Coimbatore courts.

M/S KAMDHENU ENTERPRISES VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1043/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

State authorities were found guilty of willful disobedience of a prior order regarding the petitioner's land. An earlier order established that no subsisting land acquisition award existed for the petitioner's land, rendering the petition under Section 24(2) of the 2013 Land Acquisition Act non-maintainable. Despite this, the authorities rejected the petitioner's application for a 'No Objection Certificate' (NOC) under the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954, claiming the land was under acquisition proceedings. This was identified as a deliberate violation of the previous order, as the authorities had not updated their records. The respondents were directed to issue the NOC within three weeks; failure to comply would result in the concerned officials needing to appear for a hearing on punishment.

M/S KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LTD. VS MANISHA PARIVAHAN (P) LTD [CO.PET.-430/2009]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondent company, Manisha Parivahan (P) Ltd., has been completely wound up with no knowledge of recoverable assets by the Official Liquidator. The company is dissolved, the Official Liquidator is discharged, and the publication of the final winding up citation is exempted. The closing of the company's books of accounts is permitted.

M/S MAA TARINI MINERALS VS M/S TECHNICAST ENGINEERS LTD. [CO.PET.-340/2010]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The pending winding up petition filed by Maa Tarini Minerals against Technicast Engineers Pvt. Ltd. will be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT). The merits of the case, including the maintainability of the petition and issues regarding limitation and lack of privity of contract, are reserved for consideration by the NCLT. This decision follows previous considerations about transferring similar pending winding up petitions to the NCLT.

M/S NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS DEEPAK & ORS. [MAC.APP.-41/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed on the basis that the driver of the offending vehicle was authorized to operate the bus under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The vehicle was classified as a light motor vehicle due to its unladen weight, and the driver's license was valid for light motor vehicles, including transport vehicles up to 7,500 kg. Observations aligned with previous judgments, and no referral to a larger bench was made.

M/S MADRAS TRADING CO VS RAMJEET @ RAMAJEET & ANR [FAO-119/2017]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The appeal by Madras Trading Co. was dismissed following the compensation award of Rs. 8,67,640/- plus 12% interest to the parents of a deceased worker. The findings confirmed an employer-employee relationship and that the fatal accident occurred during employment, supported by reliable evidence like the FIR and co-worker testimony. The summary nature of proceedings under the Employees' Compensation Act means strict technicalities of the Evidence Act do not apply. No substantial questions of law were identified, leading to dismissal due to a lack of patent illegality or incorrectness in the Commissioner's order.

M/S MITMILAN ENTERPRISES VS M/S RAVINDRA DYECHEM PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-199/1996]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
M/s. Ravindra Dyechem Pvt. Ltd. has been completely wound up due to a lack of funds and assets. The Official Liquidator is unable to continue with the winding up process. The company has been ordered to be dissolved, and the Official Liquidator has been discharged from his duties.

M/S NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS HEMA DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-753/2018]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
Testimony from the claimant's witness and an eyewitness corroborated that the deceased was killed by a motorcycle driven recklessly. The deceased's monthly income was assessed at R.S. 10,000, leading to a multiplier of 14 based on his age of 41. Additional compensation was awarded for loss of love and affection, loss of consortium, funeral expenses, and loss of estate, resulting in a total compensation of R.S. 18,05,000 for the claimants.

M/S NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS MS. SAVITA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-83/2024]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's judgment-cum-award was upheld, establishing the involvement of vehicle registration no. RJ-02CB-8286 in the accident that resulted in the death of a motorcyclist. Evidence included credible testimonies from an eye-witness and the investigation officer, which were sufficient to reject claims of fabricated evidence. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, as no illegality or infirmity was found in the tribunal's decision.

M/S NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS HARIDWAR ALIAS HARIDWAR SINGH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-34/2024]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The appeals by New India Assurance Co. Ltd. against the compensation awarded to the widow and son of a deceased in a motor accident were dismissed. The driver of the offending light motor vehicle held a valid driving license. The case was distinguished from previous precedents cited by the insurance company. New India Assurance Co. Ltd. must deposit the full compensation amount with the tribunal within one month, or face an interest rate of 15% per annum from the appeal filing date until the amount is paid.

M/S NEWAGE SCAFFOLDINGS PVT. LTD., VS M/S PARAMOUNT INFRAVENTURE PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CO.PET.-303/2014]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The winding-up petition filed by M/s Newage Scaffoldings Pvt. Ltd. against M/s Paramount Infraventure Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed due to the existence of triable issues concerning a payable debt. The matter was deemed suitable for a commercial suit rather than adjudication of disputed facts. The petitioner is allowed to initiate proceedings in the appropriate commercial court and is granted the benefit of Section 14 of the Limitation Act, 1963 to address any filing delays. Observations made do not affect the rights of the parties involved.

M/S NIMBIT BUILDCON PVT LTD VS ANJALI SEHGAL [CONT.CAS(C)-496/2019]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
Contempt petitions filed by the petitioner against the respondents are barred by limitation under Section 20 of the Contempt of Courts Act. The cause of action arose from the respondents' failure to deposit title deeds within the stipulated time in the MOU, with a three-year deadline for payment of the settlement amount expiring on 27.05.2016. Consequently, the one-year limitation period for filing contempt petitions began on that date and ended on 27.05.2017. The assertion that the breach constituted a "continuing wrong" was rejected, as mere continuation of damage does not make a wrong ongoing; a continuing breach of duty was not present. Although the respondents intentionally violated the MOU, the petitions were deemed non-maintainable due to limitation expiration. The petitioner may pursue appropriate civil proceedings to enforce the MOU's terms.

M/S PARAS LUBRICANTS LTD. VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5899/2023]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
Punjab National Bank (PNB) acted arbitrarily by classifying the petitioner company's account as "fraud" without following due process, lacking prior notice or an opportunity to be heard, thus violating natural justice principles. The actions taken against the petitioner company were quashed, requiring PNB to remove the "fraud" classification and inform State Bank of India and the Reserve Bank of India. PNB was ordered to pay Rs. 5,00,000 as token compensation for financial losses, reputational damage, and mental distress caused by its actions.

M/S PP JEWELLERS PVT. LTD. & ANR. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5691/2024]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The petitioners presented contradictory claims regarding the ownership of a property, asserting rightful ownership in some cases while acknowledging the respondent's ownership in others. Evidence suggested an attempt by the petitioners to unlawfully acquire the property through adverse possession. The previous interim order preventing the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) from demolishing unauthorized construction was vacated, allowing the DDA to act as per the law. The DDA's claim that ownership issues should be settled by the National Company Law Tribunal was deemed inappropriate. Petitioners were instructed to respond to the respondent's application, with the matter scheduled for final hearing.

M/S SCINDIA POTTERIES AND SERVICES PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [C.R.P.-212/2022]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The right to sue for possession of property through adverse possession survived for the legal heirs of the deceased plaintiff, as it was not purely personal. The application to substitute the legal heirs and set aside the abatement was considered despite being filed beyond the time limit, taking into account the illiterate and impoverished background of the heirs and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The revision petition was dismissed due to the absence of illegality or perversity in the decision regarding the substitution of legal heirs and abatement.

M/S SHARUN WIRES PVT LTD VS M/S M & A ORIENT ACCESSORIES PVT LTD [CO.PET.-436/2012]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The sale of mortgaged property by the company in liquidation to Ms. Pranjali Khanna for Rs. 7.75 crores was determined to be a bona fide transaction in the company's interest. Andhra Bank had the right to enforce its security interest through a private sale. The application by the Official Liquidator to set aside the sale was dismissed, and Ms. Khanna's application to de-seal the property was approved. Related applications by Ex-Director Mr. Prageet Sharma were declined as they fell outside the jurisdiction in winding up proceedings.

M/S THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS SUKHPAL KAUR & ORS [MAC.APP.-492/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The driver of the Indica car was found negligent in causing an accident that led to a passenger's death. Issues arose with the lower court's calculation of the deceased's income for compensation purposes. After reexamining the evidence, the compensation was recalculated to be ₹49,29,860, significantly lower than the previously awarded ₹2,23,34,350. The insurance company was instructed to deposit the revised compensation amount with interest.

M/S USHA INDIA LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-16187/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Usha India Limited, through its Resolution Professional, is entitled to the release of the Fixed Deposit Receipts (FDRs) held by the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT-1) contingent upon executing a bond to indemnify the respondent bank against future claims. The company challenged the auction of its properties under the SARFAESI Act, which was dismissed, and subsequently underwent Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. There are no legal obstacles to granting the relief requested by Usha India Limited.

M/S VOIR INDIA ELECTRONICS PVT LTD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR VS M/S POLYBLENDS INDIA PVT LTD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR [C.R.P.-69/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The revision petition by M/s Voir India Electronics Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed regarding the rejection of its application under Order VII Rule 10 & 11 of the Civil Procedure Code. The trial court was determined to have jurisdiction over the suit based on the plaint's face value. The last payment from the defendant on 12.03.2015, along with dishonored cheques, constituted an acknowledgment of debt, which extended the limitation period. Thus, the suit filed by M/s Polyblends (India) Pvt. Ltd. was deemed to be within the limitation period.

M/S VR HYDROCHEM PVT. LIMITED VS M/S RUPANA PAPER MILLS LIMITED [CO.PET.-210/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The affairs of M/s. Rupana Paper Mills Limited have been completely wound up, with no funds or assets remaining. The company is ordered to be dissolved, and the Official Liquidator is discharged from duties and exempted from publishing the citation of the final winding up.

MADHU CHAUHAN VS DDA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2527/2011]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The cancellation of the lease deed and allotment of the property to the petitioner was deemed unsustainable. The interpretation of Clause 1(ii) of the Rohini Residential Scheme applies to individuals who purchased property from the open market, not just original allottees. The petitioner, having acquired the property from the open market and not being the original allottee, did not violate the scheme's terms. The order dated 24.03.2011 was set aside.

MAGICON IMPEX PVT LTD VS MEGNOSTAR TELECOMMUNICATIONS PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-359/2009]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Winding up proceedings for Megnostar Telecommunications Pvt. Ltd. were terminated due to an inability to realize funds from the company's assets, with the funds position assessed as NIL after accounting for liquidation expenses. The company was ordered to be dissolved, and the Official Liquidator was discharged.

MAHANT SHRI NAGA BABA BHOLA GIRI THROUGH HIS SUCCESSOR AVINASH GIRI VS DISTRICT MAGISTRATE DISTRICT CENTRAL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2377/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by Mahant Shri Naga Baba Bhola Giri for the demarcation of a property containing his shrine was dismissed. The property is owned by the government and is part of the Yamuna River floodplain, designated for ecological restoration and development according to the Zonal Development Plan. The petitioner has illegally encroached on government land and holds no legal rights or title over it. Allowing private shrines or shelters on public land would threaten larger public interests.

MAHAVIR GUPTA & ANR. VS DARSHAN GUPTA & ANR. [C.R.P.-157/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition filed by the defendants, seeking to transfer their case due to alleged personal bias of the Additional District Judge and concerns over excessive costs for appointing a Local Commissioner, was dismissed. The petition was deemed to lack merit.

MAJOR SHUBHRA VERMA VS LIEUTENANT GENERAL GURBIRPAL SINGH [CONT.CAS(C)-1472/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Director General of the National Cadet Corps (DGNCC) is guilty of contempt for disobeying court directions. The DGNCC lacks the authority to serve as the Disciplinary Authority or Appellate Authority for a Group A employee. The DGNCC must refer the employee's representation to the appropriate Disciplinary Authority and allow her to be heard within three weeks, as per the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act, 2013. The DGNCC's actions raised concerns of bias and violated principles of natural justice. Failure to comply may result in a required appearance for a hearing on potential punishment.

MANAV MANDIR MISSION TRUST VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2256/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The review petition by the Manav Mandir Mission Trust was dismissed due to the land's classification as 'River Bed,' making the trust's claim for regularization under the Zonal Development Plan and DDA's advertisement unsustainable. Arguments regarding exclusion from land acquisition proceedings and the right to continue activities on the land were rejected.

MANAV MANDIR MISSION TRUST VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2256/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Manav Mandir Mission Trust's claim for regularization of the premises is not legally valid, as the area is designated for ecological restoration along the Yamuna riverfront. The trust has not demonstrated legal rights or title to the land with valid documentation. The Zonal Development Plan for Zone "O" excludes religious and charitable institutions in the river bed from the regularization scheme. Previous challenges by the trust regarding land acquisition were dismissed by the Supreme Court, and the current petition is an indirect attempt to regain similar reliefs. The writ petition is dismissed, but the trust must receive 15 days' notice before any demolition action is taken.

MANDHIR KAUR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-14536/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by Mandhir Kaur challenged the cancellation of an MIG plot allocation under the Rohini Residential Scheme 1981. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) failed to prove proper service of the demand-cum-allotment and cancellation letters to the petitioner. The cancellation violated principles of natural justice due to the lack of a show cause notice. The DDA is directed to allot a comparable plot to the petitioner at the current cost and to pay costs to the petitioner.

MANGAL & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7135/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioners have no legal right or title to the agricultural land, which is government land in the Yamuna floodplains. They were permitted to cultivate the land temporarily on humanitarian grounds in 1962 but lack authority for continued occupation. A previous judgment favoring the petitioners was based on summary proceedings and did not establish definitive title or rights. Given directives for the restoration and rejuvenation of the Yamuna river, the writ petition was dismissed with costs imposed on the petitioners.

MANIK AGGARWAL AND ANR. VS CANARA BANK AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10526/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The declaration of the petitioners' account as 'fraud' by the respondent banks was set aside due to the lack of opportunity for the petitioners, suspended directors, to be heard, violating principles of natural justice. The banks were granted the liberty to initiate appropriate proceedings afresh, ensuring the petitioners could make representations. The matter is part of a larger issue, with an existing order restraining the banks from taking any hasty actions against the borrowers.

MANISH GUPTA VS M/S P SINGH CHIT FUND PVT LTD [C.R.P.-128/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The order dismissing the petitioner's application under Order IX Rule 13 of the Code of Civil Procedure was set aside. The summons were received by Mr. Satbir, a regular customer of the petitioner's shop, who was not necessarily an agent or employee. The petitioner claimed inadequate service of summons, and due to the respondent being a chit fund company, it was deemed appropriate to allow the petitioner an opportunity to defend the proceedings. The petitioner was directed to file an appearance within 10 days, with the matter scheduled for further proceedings in the trial court.

MANISH DABAS VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR [W.P.(C)-7203/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petition challenging the cancellation of the bidding on 19.04.2022 and the re-notification of the e-auction on 22.04.2022 was dismissed. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has broad discretionary powers to accept or reject bids and cancel the auction process at any stage without reason. Although multiple bids were received on 19.04.2022, the DDA's decision to conduct a re-auction, resulting in a higher price, was deemed within its powers and not arbitrary. The petitioner lacked a vested right in the property by being the highest bidder on the initial date.

MANVEER & ANR VS ANITA SADH & ORS [MAC.APP.-1121/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant, the driver of the offending vehicle, was found to have driven in a rash and negligent manner, leading to a fatal accident that resulted in injuries to the deceased. Compensation of Rs. 22,70,000 was awarded to the claimants, the deceased's widow and children, with liability primarily on the insurance company. Subsequently, the order was modified to relieve the appellants of any obligation to reimburse the insurance company. The case centered on establishing negligence and determining appropriate compensation.

MARTIN JEBARATHNA DOSS ANTONISAMY VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-12526/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The compounding order passed by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) against a US citizen and Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) cardholder for violating FEMA regulations was upheld. The petitioner purchased agricultural property in India without prior RBI permission and was directed to transfer the property to an eligible Indian citizen. Following compliance, the RBI initiated compounding proceedings and imposed a fine of Rs. 41,04,675/-. The penalty was calculated according to the prescribed Master Directions and Guidance Note, and the challenge to the compounding order was dismissed.

MASTER RUPENDRA SINGH @ RUPENDRA VS AJJAPPA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-227/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The compensation awarded to a 4.5-year-old child with 90% permanent disability was deemed inadequate, leading to an increase from Rs. 6,82,000 to Rs. 34,61,762. The revised total considered loss of future earnings, pain and suffering, loss of amenities, disfigurement, and other expenses.

MD. SHAMIM VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (DDA) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3659/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition was dismissed due to being barred by delay and laches. The petitioner's hutment was demolished in 2006, and the allotment-cum-demand letter from the Delhi Development Authority granted only a limited right for five years, which has since expired. The petitioner failed to act within a reasonable timeframe, leading to a 17-year delay before filing the petition in 2023. Laxity in asserting legal rights precluded any revival of the lapsed cause of action.

MEGHANA T. V. VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6726/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition is not maintainable due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the cause of action related to alleged cheating, misappropriation of funds, and defrauding of investors by M/s. Vikram Structures Pvt. Ltd. and its directors arose in Karnataka. Jurisdiction is conferred only if the cause of action occurs within the court's jurisdiction, and the presence of the respondent's head office in Delhi is insufficient for jurisdiction. The respondent has a regional office in Karnataka, and the petitioner can seek relief from the Karnataka High Court. The writ petition is therefore dismissed.

MGB FINLEASE PVT LTD VS KANWALJEET SINGH [CONT.CAS(C)-1143/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Contempt proceedings are maintainable in this case, but the court will not exercise its contempt jurisdiction. It is emphasized that such proceedings should be invoked sparingly and typically, parties should seek execution of decrees as an alternative remedy. The petitioner is directed to pursue remedies before the Trial Court or Executing Court, which is tasked with ensuring compliance of its orders. The contempt petition has been disposed of with these directions.

MOHINDER SINGH RANDHAWA (GIANI) VS S. PADMANABHAN [CONT.CAS(C)-586/2000]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition against the respondent was dismissed due to a lack of willful disobedience in complying with prior directions. The petitioner had previously stated he would not seek promotion following discharge, and promotions to higher ranks are merit-based rather than based on time served. Outdated Army Instructions cited by the petitioner were surpassed by later amendments. Consequently, the respondent provided the petitioner with the consequential financial benefits, negating grounds for contempt.

MOONMOON DHAR & ORS. VS KARUNA TANDON & ANR. [CM(M)-1648/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioners' challenge to the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's order permitting the recall of witnesses was partially allowed. The discretionary power to recall witnesses cannot be used to fill gaps or introduce new facts. The recall of PW-1, the claimant's wife, was permitted to address new evidence regarding the deceased's salary income presented by PW-4, the deceased's employer. However, the recall of PW-2, an eye witness unrelated to the deceased's income, was not permitted. The order to recall PW-1 for further cross-examination was sustained.

MR. MOHAMAD IMRAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9331/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition was dismissed as the dispute was deemed contractual, with the petitioner having alternative remedies available, such as approaching the Debts Recovery Tribunal under the SARFAESI Act. Previous judgments indicated that such matters are governed by contract terms and are not suitable for writ petitions under Article 226 of the Constitution. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case, and the petitioner was permitted to seek the appropriate legal remedy.

MRS. PRIYANKA ARORA AND ANOTHER VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-12018/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The cancellation of the petitioners' 'authorization slip' for a property in an unauthorized colony in Delhi requires further examination. The failure to disclose the property's sealing for alleged misuse does not constitute fraudulent concealment, as it does not relate to the property's title. The Delhi Development Authority must file a reply, and no coercive action will be taken against the petitioners until the next hearing, provided they submit an affidavit ensuring no unauthorized construction or third-party interests are created in the property.

MS KHUKHRAIN BUILDERS & ORS. VS INDIAN BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13094/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by MSME petitioners against a bank's action under the SARFAESI Act was dismissed. The petitioners did not raise the issue regarding MSMED Act guidelines in a timely manner after their loan account was classified as NPA, nor did they utilize the RBI Framework for Revival and Rehabilitation of MSMEs. Their delay and failure to exhaust available remedies contributed to the dismissal of the petition.

MS METROPOLITAN STOCK EXCHANGE OF INDIA VS MS ABHIPRA CAPITAL LIMITED & ORS. [C.R.P.-102/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The trial court's dismissal of the defendant's application to reject the plaint for lack of territorial jurisdiction was upheld. The cause of action partly arose in Delhi, as the plaintiff applied for membership and made payments at the defendant's regional office there. The defendant also advertised in Delhi for membership applications. These facts are deemed sufficient to establish jurisdiction in Delhi, with the issue of territorial jurisdiction to be decided during the trial based on evidence. The precedents cited by the defendant were found to be inapplicable.

MS. RADHIKA S. ICHHPUNIANI & ANR. VS M/S SUDVIN FINVEST FAIRDEALS (P.) LTD. & ORS. [CO.PET.-662/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Winding-up proceedings against the respondent company are at an early stage with no substantive orders issued. The winding-up petition and related applications will be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) for resolution under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. The parties must appear before the NCLT on the specified date, and electronic records of the case will be sent to the NCLT within one week.

MUKHTYAR SINGH & ORS. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-7685/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The acquisition proceedings by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 have lapsed as per Section 24(2) of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013. The DDA did not take physical possession of the land or pay compensation to the legal owners. A writ of prohibition was issued, directing the DDA not to disturb the petitioners' peaceful and physical possession of the land, except through due process of law.

NANDU RAM (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS & ORS VS SH SOHAN SINGH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-186/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claim for personal injuries does not survive the death of the injured person, but legal representatives can pursue a claim for loss of estate. Compensation of Rs. 3,96,436/- with 9% interest per annum was awarded to the legal heirs, covering medical expenses, loss of income, conveyance, special diet, attendant charges, and loss of earning capacity.

NARINDER PAUL KAUSHIK & ORS. VS CHIEF SECRETARY & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-534/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondents breached previous directives by denying the petitioners' rights to government contributions to their Contributory Provident Fund (CPF). The "last pay drawn" for the petitioners should include all allowances and the government's CPF contributions. The respondents must calculate and pay these contributions within four weeks, with officials required to appear if they fail to comply.

NATASHA GUJRAL VS SIDDHARTH GUJRAL [CONT.CAS(C)-1305/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner-wife's contempt petition against the respondent-husband for failing to pay maintenance of Rs. 2,00,000 per month was dismissed. Contempt powers are applicable in exceptional cases of gross misconduct, and the petitioner should use the available legal remedy of executing the decree instead. The respondent-husband also failed to pay costs from a previous appeal, and the matter will proceed before the Joint Registrar regarding the payment of those costs.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS ASHOK KUMAR KOCHHAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-52/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was deemed unjustified because the claimant-husband was not financially dependent on the deceased wife. The assessment focused on loss to the deceased's estate, calculating compensation based on basic pay, dearness allowance, and future prospects. Two-thirds of the monthly income was considered, applying a multiplier of 9. Additionally, compensation for loss of consortium and funeral expenses was included, totaling Rs. 18,83,916/-, with interest set at 7.5% per annum from the claim filing date. The prior award was set aside, and the insurance company was required to pay the revised amount within four weeks, with a stipulation for 12% penal interest for non-compliance.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS ASIT KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-440/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The lower tribunal's award of compensation for loss of earning capacity was deemed unjustified. However, the specific circumstances of the case warranted an increase in compensation under other categories. The total compensation was enhanced to Rs. 33,12,000, payable by the insurance company with 7.5% interest. The assessment of the claimant's permanent disability must focus on the actual impact on functional abilities and earning capacity, rather than solely on the disability percentage.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SH ANIL KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-660/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Manoj Yadav was found guilty of rash and negligent driving, leading to an accident that caused grievous injuries to the claimant. Compensation was raised to Rs. 13,02,546 with 7.5% interest. Both Yadav and the vehicle owner were deemed joint tortfeasors, with the insurance company liable to indemnify the owner. The insurance company's claim regarding the driver's fake license was rejected, as a genuine license was provided by the owner.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SHEELA DEVI (DECEASED) THR LRS [MAC.APP.-360/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeals by the National Insurance Company against the compensation awarded by the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal were dismissed. The Tribunal was justified in finding the driver negligent based on the evidence from the claimants. The insurance company is liable to pay compensation for the insured number of passengers, even if the vehicle was overloaded, as established in the Supreme Court decision in Anjana Shayam. The calculation of compensation amounts by the Tribunal was deemed correct. The five related appeals were considered together, resulting in a unanimous decision without separate judgments.

NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS NASREEN BEGUM AND OTHERS [MAC.APP.-269/2020]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the National Insurance Company resulted in the correction of the deceased's year of birth from 1983 to 1978, impacting the compensation multiplier. The total modified compensation is set at Rs. 14,10,000 with 9% interest per annum. Of the originally awarded compensation, 90% has been disbursed to the claimants, and any shortfall will be paid to the first claimant, with no recovery of excess amounts from the claimants.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS SALIYA BEGUM @ SARLA & ORS [MAC.APP.-411/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the claimant resulted in increased total compensation from Rs. 7,43,377/- to Rs. 13,02,403/-, with interest at 9% per annum. Compensation was enhanced for loss of future earnings due to permanent disability, attendant charges, conveyance expenses, pain and suffering, and loss of amenities. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, leading to the forfeiture of a statutory deposit of Rs. 25,000/-.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD VS SHWETA NAYYAR SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-630/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The driver of the offending vehicle was found responsible for the accident due to rash and negligent driving, resulting in the death of the deceased. Compensation awarded by the Tribunal was largely affirmed, with minor modifications to the loss of consortium and loss of love and affection. The insurance company must deposit the total compensation of Rs. 1,67,26,340/- with 7.5% interest within 4 weeks, or face a penal interest of 12% per annum.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD. VS MAMTA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-29/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed as the driver of the offending vehicle possessed a valid license for a light motor vehicle, which included the bus involved in the accident according to the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The unladen weight of the bus did not exceed the limit for a light motor vehicle. Consequently, the insurance company is liable to pay the compensation awarded to the claimants by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal and must deposit the amount within one month, with failure to do so resulting in an enhanced interest rate.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD. VS MOHARMAN & ANR. [FAO-17/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Compensation awards made by the Commissioner for Employee's Compensation were upheld for injured workmen assessed at 100% loss of earning capacity, despite lower medical disability percentages. The assessment was based on the impact of the disability on the ability to perform previous occupations, rather than solely on physical disability percentages. The analysis considered the nature of the workmen's jobs as cleaner and driver, confirming the injuries significantly affected their ability to work in those roles. Appeals by the insurance company were dismissed as lacking merit.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS SH. WASEEM & ANR. [FAO-161/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claimant, a driver, suffered permanent disability to his left leg. Despite a medical assessment indicating only 22% physical disability, he was assessed as having a 100% loss of earning capacity. The assessment focused on the impact of the disability on his ability to perform driving duties, which he could no longer fulfill. Consequently, he was entitled to compensation for 100% functional disability.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS SAURABH KHANNA & ORS [MAC.APP.-720/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The award of compensation to the injured claimant was upheld, with enhancements based on reasonable medical evidence regarding future treatment costs and loss of income. Alleged deviations in the permit conditions did not excuse the insurance company from liability, with no evidence of a fundamental breach of the insurance policy by the driver or owner of the vehicle. The insurance company's appeal was dismissed, and it was directed to pay the enhanced compensation within four weeks, with a provision for penal interest if not complied with.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS VINITA GUPTA & ORS [MAC.APP.-573/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, affirming the award of compensation to the deceased's parents. The insurance company did not demonstrate negligence on the part of the deceased or that he was not a third-party concerning the vehicle owner. The insurance policy was classified as not being an "Act Only Policy," granting the deceased, a brother of the owner, the right to compensation as a third-party. The insurance company must deposit the full compensation amount with interest within four weeks, with potential penalties for late payment.

ORIENTAL INSUARCE CO LTD VS RAM DEVI & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSUARANCE COMPANY LTD) [MAC.APP.-1042/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claim petition filed by the respondents after an 18-year delay is maintainable under the benevolent provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act. The interest rate on the compensation amount was reduced from 9% per annum to 7.5% per annum due to the significant delay in filing the claim.

NISHIT BADOLA VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-174/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The High Court of Delhi addressed applications related to the corporate insolvency resolution process (CIRP) of M/s Three C Shelters Pvt. Ltd. The Greenopolis Welfare Confederation's intervention application was accepted, prompting the Ministry of Corporate Affairs to update the company's status to "under CIRP" within two weeks. The Interim Resolution Professional (IRP) received authorization to safeguard the corporate debtor's assets by increasing security, taking possession of identified assets, and initiating action against those involved in asset diversion or sale. Additional applications regarding party impleadment and directions to the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India were also considered, with some issues deferred for future hearings.

NITCO LOGISTIC PVT LTD VS RAJIV KUMAR & ORS (HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-204/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The liability to pay compensation lies with the insurance company, which cannot recover the amount from the registered owner of the offending vehicle. The owner is only required to verify the driver's skills and not the authenticity of the license. A report stating a fake license does not imply the owner was aware of its invalidity. Furthermore, the owner's failure to produce the vehicle's permit and fitness certificate cannot be held against them since the insurance company did not request these documents.

NOVEL TRADE LINKS LLP & ORS. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17694/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

After Bakhtawarpur, Delhi was declared urbanized, the demarcation of the petitioners' 45.55-acre land is to be conducted by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) with assistance from the revenue department. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate must send the land records to the DDA within four weeks, after which the DDA will carry out the demarcation process. Revenue authorities do not have jurisdiction over urbanized villages but must correct land records to reflect true ownership.

OCEAN PLASTICS AND FIBERS (P) LIMITED VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-176/2020]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Ocean Plastics & Fibers (P) Limited lacked a cause of action for the writ petition due to the determination of its perpetual lease by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) in 2005 for property misuse. Eviction proceedings were initiated by DDA, and possession of the property was taken in 2016 following an eviction order. Previous challenges to the lease determination and eviction order by the petitioner were dismissed. The DDA's 2019 restoration scheme did not apply as it was intended for those still possessing the leasehold property, which the petitioner no longer had any legal rights to.

OMKAR & ANR VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-498/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal for compensation by the appellants, following the death of their son in a railway accident, was dismissed due to failure to prove that the deceased was a bona fide passenger and that his death resulted from an "untoward incident" as per Section 124-A of the Railways Act. Evidence, including the post-mortem and DRM reports, did not support their claims, leading to the affirmation of the Tribunal's decision.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS KASTURI LAL GUPTA & ORS [MAC.APP.-446/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the Oriental Insurance Company resulted in a reassessment of compensation following a motor accident. The initial award of Rs. 19,87,500/- was deemed excessive. The revised total compensation awarded to the claimants, consisting of the deceased's parents, son, and daughter, amounted to Rs. 14,50,500/-. This amount was calculated using established legal principles, including the appropriate multiplier and deductions for the deceased's personal expenses. Additional amounts were granted for funeral expenses, loss of estate, and loss of consortium.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS PAWAN KUMAR SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-426/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claimant husband was awarded total compensation of Rs. 14,00,380 for his wife's death in a motor accident. Since he was not financially dependent on her, the compensation was based on the loss to her estate. The calculation involved applying 40% for future prospects to her annual income of Rs. 14,133, deducting 1/3rd for personal expenses, and using a multiplier of 17. Additional amounts were included for loss of consortium and funeral expenses. Half of the compensation had already been released, and the insurance company was instructed to deposit the remaining amount within 4 weeks, with a stipulation for penal interest if delayed.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SARVESH & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LTD) [MAC.APP.-1041/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

An 18-year delay in filing a claim petition under the Motor Vehicles Act was recognized as substantial; however, an earlier order on the petition's maintainability became final due to lack of challenge from the insurance company. The interest rate on the compensation was adjusted from 9% to 7.5% per annum, effective from the date of filing the claim petition.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS TASLIM PARVIN & ORS. [MAC.APP.-951/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The accident was caused by the rash and negligent driving of the truck driver. Compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was revised, with reductions for loss of consortium, funeral expenses, and loss of estate, in accordance with a Supreme Court decision. The total compensation to the claimants is Rs. 5,17,430/- with interest at 7.5% from the claim petition filing date.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS ANIL KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-2/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Anil Kumar suffered grievous injuries in a road accident caused by a negligently driven scooter. The initial compensation awarded to him was deemed insufficient, particularly regarding his permanent disability and loss of future income. An assessment determined his future loss of income at 25% of his average annual earnings, resulting in total compensation of Rs. 8,79,337/- plus 12% interest from the date of filing the petition. The insurance company was held liable for the compensation, with the option to recover costs from the driver and owner of the vehicle.

PACIFIC CONVERGENCE CORPN. LTD. VS DATA ACCESS (INDIA) LTD. [CO.PET.-292/2004]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by SMS Textiles Limited for possession of a property and compensation was dismissed. The company was identified as a shell entity linked to Data Access (India) Ltd., with its main beneficiary, Mr. K.C. Palanisamy, implicated in siphoning off funds from the company in liquidation. The absence of key documentation and information indicated an attempt to wrongfully acquire the property, leading to the conclusion that the applicant had not acted transparently.

PALKA DHINGRA & ORS. VS BANK OF BARODA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5616/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Mrs. Seema Dhingra received permission to travel abroad for two months, specifically to Dubai, under conditions that include disclosing travel details, providing a fixed deposit, and giving an undertaking to return to India. This decision follows an earlier quashing of a clause related to lookout circulars by the Bombay High Court, although the Supreme Court stayed that decision, allowing certain individuals to seek permission to travel.

PANKAJ KATARIA & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-14/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Pankaj Kataria, claiming to be the adopted son of deceased passenger Madhu Kataria, was not entitled to compensation under the Railways Act, 1989. He failed to establish a valid adoption under the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, and was not referred to as an adopted son in the deceased's will. Furthermore, the definition of "dependent" in the Railways Act excludes a nephew, and Kataria did not prove any economic or other forms of dependency on the deceased. The appeal for compensation was dismissed.

PARAS RAM DANGAL SOCIETY VS ESTATE OFFICER -IV DDA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-1980/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by the Paras Ram Dangal Society was dismissed due to over 7 years of delay in filing an appeal against the Estate Officer's order under the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorized Occupants) Act, 1971. The society was aware of the order but did not appeal within the statutory 12 days and failed to provide sufficient cause for the delay. The occupation of the land by the society was deemed unauthorized, based on a court-appointed committee's report. The society was instructed not to claim vested rights over the land and structure, and the merits of its claims were not examined due to the unresolved delay issue.

PARVEEN SINGHAL VS MOTIA RANI GHAI [C.R.P.-43/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The plaintiff's revision petition was dismissed after the trial court rejected an application for judgment based on the defendant's alleged admissions. There were no clear or unequivocal admissions identified, and the issues presented were deemed triable and required evidence from both parties. The application was considered lacking in merit.

PAWAN KUMAR TANEJA VS KARUR VYASA BANK LTD & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13770/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The dispute between the petitioner and the respondent bank was deemed outside the scope of the SARFAESI Act, allowing the writ petition to proceed despite ongoing Debt Recovery Tribunal proceedings. The respondent bank did not disclose property encumbrances to the petitioner prior to auction, leading to the quashing of the sale certificate. The bank must refund the petitioner's payment with interest and close the loan account. An inquiry against the bank for its actions was requested from the Reserve Bank of India, and exemplary costs were awarded to the petitioner.

PUNEET KAPUR VS RAJENDER KAUR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-169/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Compensation of Rs. 2,50,000 with 6% annual interest was awarded to the respondent due to sufficient evidence of an accident caused by a vehicle driven recklessly. The registered owner, despite having sold the vehicle later, remains liable for compensation. The interest rate was reduced from 8% to 6% due to delays in proceedings caused by the claimant.

PHOOL SINGH VS RAJASTHAN STATE ROAD CORPORATION & ANR [MAC.APP.-537/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Phool Singh suffered grievous injuries, including the amputation of his right thumb, in a motor vehicle accident. He received a total compensation of Rs. 4,45,000, which included Rs. 2,52,000 for a 30% loss of earning capacity due to the amputation. The compensation also included interest at 9% per annum from the date of filing the petition. It was acknowledged that the amputation would impede his hand's normal functioning and impact his driving capabilities. Appeals were filed by both Phool Singh and the RSRTC.

PHOOLWATI & ANR VS DEVENDER & ORS. [MAC.APP.-1265/2012]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The review petition filed by the wife and son of the deceased regarding a dismissed motor accident claims case was dismissed due to an unsatisfactory explanation for a 533-day delay in filing. Although there was an initial inclination to allow the review because the previous decision was made without hearing the appellants, any delay could not be condoned. Even if the delay were excused, there was no merit in modifying or enhancing the compensation amount awarded by the Tribunal.

PIVOT MULTIFAR INDUSTRIAL SERVICES LTD. VS DSC LIMITED [CO.PET.-510/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The company petition for winding up of the respondent company is at an early stage with no substantive orders issued. The petition and any pending applications will be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) per Section 434 of the Companies Act, 2013. The parties are to appear before the NCLT on 01.04.2024 for further consideration and appropriate orders.

PRACHEEN SHIV MANDIR AVAM AKHADA SAMITI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12817/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by the Pracheen Shiv Mandir Avam Akhada Samiti was dismissed due to the Delhi Development Authority's legal authority to demolish the temple located on the Yamuna river floodplain. The petitioner failed to prove any legal rights or title over the land, and the temple was not recognized as a public temple. A directive was issued for the petitioner to remove idols and religious objects within 15 days, with the DDA authorized to act if non-compliance occurred. Demolition of the unauthorized structure was permitted.

PRADEEP SHARMA VS RAJIV GARG [FAO-190/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by Pradeep Sharma against the vacated ex-parte injunction was dismissed due to his provision of a false address for respondent Rajiv Garg, constituting suppression of facts. Rajiv Garg previously secured an ex-parte decree in a separate suit, which was upheld by the Supreme Court. Pradeep Sharma also did not comply with the Supreme Court's requirement to deposit monthly charges for the disputed property. The dismissal was based on the lack of illegality or perversity in the trial court's decision to vacate the injunction.

PRAMOD KUMAR JAIN VS THE VICE CHAIRMAN DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12807/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner is recognized as the rightful allottee of Garage No. 257 and has completed all necessary formalities, including payment. The Delhi Development Authority has failed to provide possession of the garage, infringing on the petitioner's legal rights. The respondents are directed to treat the petition as the petitioner's final representation, provide an opportunity to be heard, and issue a reasoned decision promptly.

PRATIBHA MITTAL VS SURAJ PRAKASH & ORS (NATIONAL INSURNCE COMPANY LIMITED) [MAC.APP.-401/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The common judgment-cum-award of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was set aside due to flaws that caused a miscarriage of justice. The Tribunal's dismissal of claims, solely based on the claimants' initial statement of no blame for the accident, was determined to be erroneous. The issue of tortious culpability and negligent driving was to be inferred from established facts. A re-examination of the case was ordered, requiring the Tribunal to summon the driver of the offending vehicle for crucial evidence regarding the highway conditions, vehicle speed, and driver's actions. The applicability of the res ipsa loquitur principle was also to be considered, which presumes negligence when the cause of the accident is unknown and within the knowledge of the defendant.

PRAVIN CHATTERJEE VS LAXMAN DASS BHATIA [C.R.P.-110/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition by Pravin Chatterjee was dismissed, following the trial court's rejection of his application to stay the execution of a decree in favor of Laxman Dass Bhatia. Challenges to the conveyance deed regarding ownership were deemed irrelevant to the original suit and barred by res judicata, as these issues were not raised in prior proceedings. Furthermore, the outcome of any criminal proceedings against the respondent would not affect the civil case. Pravin Chatterjee was found to be abusing the legal process by filing multiple suits to delay litigation, resulting in an imposition of exemplary costs of Rs. 25,000 to be paid to the trial court.

PREMWATI VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-391/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Railway Claims Tribunal's dismissal of the claim for compensation under the Railways Act was upheld. Evidence, including the station master's testimony and the post-mortem report, indicated that the deceased likely died after being hit by another train while attempting to cross the tracks, which does not qualify as an "untoward incident." The claimant did not establish that the death resulted from an untoward incident, and no errors were found in the Tribunal's approach. The appeal was dismissed.

PRIYA BHATIA VS AMIT BHATIA [CONT.CAS(C)-1324/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner/wife cannot invoke contempt jurisdiction at this stage, as the Family Court has sufficient powers to enforce its interim maintenance order and ensure timely collection of arrears. Parties should first utilize the execution procedure as an effective alternative remedy. The Family Court is directed to expedite the hearing on the execution application and take necessary measures against the respondent/husband to recover outstanding maintenance dues. The contempt petition is disposed of without affecting the petitioner's rights to seek appropriate directions from the Family Court.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS PROMILA PRABHAKAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-265/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The calculation of compensation was based on the UK minimum wage due to the deceased being a British national, rejecting the insurance company's claims for Indian minimum wages and tax deductions. The registered owner, driver, and insurance company were held jointly and severally liable for the compensation, based on the definition of "owner" under the Motor Vehicles Act. Interest was awarded at 7.5% per annum from the date of the accident until the compensation amount was realized, contrary to the Tribunal's limitation on interest up to an earlier judgment date.

PROMILA RASTOGI & ORS. VS D.D.A. & THR. ITS CHAIRMAN [W.P.(C)-241/2001]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is liable for the collapse of a balcony in the petitioner's flat, which resulted in the death of the petitioner's husband. Latent construction defects were identified as the cause, with negligence presumed under the doctrine of res ipsa loquitur. Compensation of Rs. 11,44,908 was awarded to the petitioners for loss of financial dependency, loss of consortium, loss of estate, funeral expenses, and medical expenses.

PURNIMA SINGH VS DELHI DEVELOPOMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2389/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition challenging the allotment of land for a Gurudwara was dismissed. The land was not designated as a green area or park in the Master Plan or Zonal Development Plan. The Delhi Development Authority's decision to allot part of the land for the Gurudwara and reserve the rest for a playfield was consistent with its powers and did not violate laws or public interest. The layout plan can be modified by the DDA without adhering to the procedure under Section 11A of the Delhi Development Act, provided it aligns with the Master Plan and Zonal Development Plan.

PURVI DELHI VAIDEHI TRUST (PDVT) VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-12585/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by the Purvi Delhi Vaidehi Trust (PDVT) challenging the Delhi Development Authority's (DDA) cancellation of a public park booking for religious functions was dismissed. There is no legal right for individuals to book public parks for such purposes, and usage is contingent upon meeting specific criteria set by the Supreme Court. The petitioner's reasons for the booking were unclear and inconsistent, and the guidelines for booking were not followed. The DDA's decision to cancel the booking was upheld.

RADHA GOYAL VS GAURAV GOYAL & ANR. [C.R.P.-100/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The trial court's dismissal of the plaintiff's third application to amend the plaint was upheld due to the proposed amendments being aimed at undervaluing the reliefs sought to evade proper court fees. The plaintiff's repeated amendment attempts were deemed an abuse of the process of law, making the trial court's decision valid and appropriate.

RADHE SHYAM VS SHRI GOVIND MOHAN & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1406/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's contempt petition for willful disobedience of a prior order was deemed maintainable. The earlier order had allowed the petitioner, an ASI (Pharmacist) in the BSF, to remain in Delhi for the treatment of his daughter suffering from Cerebral Palsy until ATO-2023. The daughter's treatment is at AIIMS, Delhi, and the petitioner can reach her due to air cargo availability. The respondents committed to sympathetically consider the petitioner's case when his current unit moves, leading to the petitioner's decision to withdraw the writ petition.

RAHUL KAUL VS MANOJ KUMAR & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LTD.) [MAC.APP.-296/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by Rahul Kaul resulted in an enhanced compensation of Rs. 23,60,672/- for injuries sustained in an accident, with interest at 7.5% per annum from the petition filing date. The assessment included 78% permanent disability in the right lower limb and considered full salary, including conveyance allowance, for income calculations. Compensation was also increased for pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, disfigurement, future medical treatment, and loss of marriage prospects.

RAHUL NARULA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1338/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition by a practicing lawyer against the respondents, concerning alleged wilful disobedience of directions about animal use in a wedding event, was dismissed. There was no prima facie evidence of inhumane treatment of animals, with reliance solely on a newspaper report deemed insufficient. The petitioner failed to gather independent evidence and was cautioned against making scandalous allegations regarding the High-Powered Committee overseeing the event, leading to the dismissal of the petition as frivolous.

RAJ KUMAR TIWARI VS M/S ICICI LOMBARD GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12749/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's writ petition seeking indemnification for the loss of an insured vehicle and challenging the rejection of an insurance claim by ICICI Lombard General Insurance Co. Ltd. should be treated as a fresh complaint to the Insurance Ombudsman. The Ombudsman is to decide on the complaint within four weeks of receiving the order and a copy of the writ petition.

RAJ RANI VS DDA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11903/2009]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The DDA's cancellation of the conveyance deed in favor of the petitioner was unjustified, as the petitioner was a bona fide purchaser who acted in good faith. The DDA violated principles of natural justice by not allowing the petitioner an opportunity to be heard. A registered conveyance deed cannot be unilaterally cancelled, and the DDA failed to follow its circular from October 1, 2007, regarding the regularization of properties obtained through false affidavits. The cancellation orders were quashed, and the conveyance deed was upheld, with the DDA permitted to take action against the original allottee, Smt. Bimla Jain, as per the law.

RAJENDER PAL & ANR VS ANITA KANTHWAL & ANR [MAC.APP.-401/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal of the registered owner and driver of the offending vehicle was allowed, resulting in the setting aside of the previous judgment. Despite the offending vehicle being driven by a minor without a valid license, deemed a fundamental breach of the insurance policy, the insurance company was initially held liable for compensation. The principles from the Swaran Singh case were applied, stating that the insurer must prove negligence related to the unlicensed driver for seeking to avoid liability. The insurance company was directed to pay the victim compensation initially, with the option to recover the amount from the owner and driver later.

RAJENDRI DEVI & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [FAO-514/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The family of a deceased railway passenger sought Rs. 8,00,000 in compensation after he fell from a train on September 12, 2018. The deceased had a valid Monthly Season Ticket for travel between Khurja junction and Shakurbasti. Key evidence included reports from passengers to a duty porter about the fall, the nature of injuries in the post-mortem aligning with a fall, and the presence of a valid ticket. Despite a lack of direct witnesses and unknown train details, circumstantial evidence indicated an accidental fall. Initially, the claim was rejected, but on appeal, the family received Rs. 8,00,000 plus 9% interest from the date of the accident, demonstrating that circumstantial evidence can be sufficient in railway accident cases.

RAJIV OBEROI VS RAJESH GUPTA [CONT.CAS(C)-488/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Rajesh Gupta committed contempt by making payments to Jatinder Oberoi on 28.06.2018, 03.07.2018, and 11.07.2018, despite being aware of a court order that prohibited such actions. His conduct was deemed deliberate and willful, indicating a disregard for the court's authority.

RAJKUMAR SUKHDEVSINHJI & ANR. VS IDBI BANK [W.P.(C)-9298/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The show-cause notice issued by the respondent bank against the petitioners, former independent directors of a corporate borrower, requires further examination due to potential legal vulnerabilities. The bank failed to provide the petitioners an opportunity to be heard before classifying the account as fraudulent, despite a favorable forensic audit. The initiation of insolvency proceedings against the corporate borrower in April 2018 may also affect the legality of the notice. The bank must file a response and provide the complete forensic audit report, while the operation of the notice is temporarily suspended.

RAJNI ANAND VS COSMIC STRUCTURES LTD [CO.PET.-152/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The transfer of shareholding in the applicant company to the respondent company (in liquidation) prior to winding-up proceedings was found to be a genuine commercial transaction conducted in the ordinary course of business. There was no evidence of collusion or bad faith from the applicant company. The Official Liquidator was directed to de-seal and hand over vacant possession of the property to the applicant company, with the condition that the applicant covers the security charges incurred during the liquidation. No referral to a larger bench or separate judgments were issued.

RAKESH CHANDER CHADDA VS SHRI VINOD KUMAR AGGARWAL [C.R.P.-124/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The trial court granted the defendant conditional leave to defend a suit for the recovery of Rs. 4,57,500, requiring a deposit of Rs. 3 lakhs as an FDR with the court. The trial court considered the defendant's claims, including alleged forgery of the promissory note and cheque, concluding there were sufficient grounds for conditional leave to defend, which would be established in trial. A revision petition by the defendant was dismissed, confirming no jurisdictional error in the trial court's order.

RAKESH CHANDER CHADDA VS SHRI VINOD KUMAR AGGARWAL [C.R.P.-125/2024]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The defendant was granted conditional leave to defend a summary suit for the recovery of a loan of Rs. 13.5 lakhs. Evidence, including a promissory note and a dishonored cheque, supported the plaintiff's case, while the defendant's claims of fabrication lacked convincing merit. Granting leave to defend is typically the norm, and a revision petition was dismissed due to no jurisdictional error in the leave order.

RAKESH KISHORE VS NARESH SAXENA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-814/2022]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The contempt petition was dismissed because the society had complied with the Delhi Cooperative Tribunal's order from 2006, which included cancelling the previous decision on garbage chutes and refunding amounts to members. The dismissal was also based on the petition being barred by limitation under the Contempt of Courts Act.

RAKESH SACHDEVA VS RAJESH SACHDEVA [C.R.P.-217/2023]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The revision petition by Rakesh Sachdeva was dismissed regarding the lower court's order that disallowed his request to cross-examine certain witnesses who were summoned to produce documents. According to Section 139 of the Indian Evidence Act, those producing documents do not qualify as witnesses and cannot be cross-examined unless formally called as such. The witnesses were only presenting documents and not testifying on facts at issue, leading to the conclusion that the petitioner lacked a legal right to cross-examine them. The dismissal of the petition confirmed the lower court's decision.

RAM SINGH DECEASED THROUGH HIS LRS VS PANKAJ ROY GUPTA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1046/2022]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
Contempt petitions were dismissed on the grounds that the respondents' actions in taking possession of agricultural land did not constitute contempt. The petitioners' appeal regarding bhumidari rights was pending, but the land was notified as urbanized under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, rendering previous orders based on the Delhi Land Reforms Act legally irrelevant. Additionally, the later contempt petition was likely barred by limitation since the alleged dispossession occurred over a year prior. Thus, the respondents' actions were not considered contemptuous due to the change in land status.

RAMESH LAKHWANI (DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES VS SHRI MANISH KUMAR GUPTA [CONT.CAS(C)-609/2022]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
Officials of the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) committed wilful disobedience of a previous order to process the petitioner's application for conversion of leasehold property to freehold. The DDA's justifications for inaction were deemed legally untenable. A four-week period was set for the DDA to initiate the conversion process at its own expense, with a compliance report due in six weeks. Failure to comply would result in legal consequences for the officials.

RAMINDER SINGH & ANR. VS SURENDER PAL SINGH & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1439/2024]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The contempt petition filed by the petitioners against the respondents was dismissed. The petitioners had previously agreed to treat the respondents well in exchange for a share of assets. It was noted that longstanding disputes require time for resolution, and contempt jurisdiction cannot be used to assess the petitioners' respectful conduct, as the respondents claimed to still be experiencing distress.

RATUL PURI VS BANK OF BARODA [W.P.(C)-2765/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The classification of Ratul Puri as a "fraud" by Bank of Baroda was invalid due to the failure to follow principles of natural justice. The bank did not provide a show-cause notice, relevant documents, or a hearing prior to the classification. Consequently, the order from June 20, 2019, was quashed, and the bank was instructed to remove his name from the Central Fraud Registry within 15 days.

RAVI GUPTA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1493/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner was not entitled to a permanent license for the kiosk, as the land belongs to the Delhi Development Authority (DDA). Originally allotted for stamp vending, the petitioner used the kiosk for other purposes, violating the allotment terms. The DDA has the authority to revoke the license and cancel the allotment. The situation allows the DDA to auction the site for increased revenue. The writ petition was dismissed due to lack of merit.

RAVINDER KUMAR JAIN VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11037/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner was deemed eligible for allotment of a plot under the Rohini Residential Scheme (RRS) 1981, despite a prior allotment under the New Patterned Registration Scheme (NPRS) 1979. Clause 4 of the RRS does not require eligibility to depend solely on transfer from other schemes. The petitioner had cancelled his NPRS allotment and informed the authority, establishing his eligibility for RRS 1981. The authority's prior confirmation of the petitioner's eligibility in 2014 and participation in the 2016 draw further solidified this position. The authority was directed to issue the allotment letter and provide possession of the plot, or offer an equivalent plot at 2016 rates, along with costs of Rs. 1 lakh to the petitioner, due to significant delays and harassment experienced.

RBG LEASING AND CREDIT LIMITED VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8603/2020]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The orders of the Reserve Bank of India and the Appellate Authority cancelling the Certificate of Registration of a Non-Banking Financial Company for not maintaining the required Net Owned Fund were set aside. The matter must be re-examined afresh by the Reserve Bank within 15 days, considering the material submitted by the petitioner, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open.

RE- ARC CEMENT LTD. VS .... [CO.PET.-134/1995]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by the Official Liquidator for the dissolution of ARC Cement Ltd. was allowed. The company’s affairs were concluded, and the Official Liquidator could not continue due to insufficient funds and assets. The Official Liquidator was discharged from duties with instructions to transfer any available balance to the Common Pool Fund and close the company's accounts.

RE- M/S CATMOSS RETAIL PVT. LTD. VS .... [CO.PET.-36/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

All complaints filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the corporate debtor and its directors after the winding up order dated 28.02.2013 cannot continue and will remain in abeyance. Criminal proceedings under Section 138 NI Act are classified as "suit" or "other legal proceedings" as per Section 446(1) of the Companies Act. The previous view regarding these proceedings is now outdated. Criminal proceedings cannot proceed since the company's records are with the Official Liquidator, preventing the directors from mounting a defense.

RE-IN THE MATTER OF COTINENTAL TEXTILES MILLS LTD. VS ... [CO.PET.-188/1999]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by M/s. Jupiter Laminators Pvt. Ltd. to remove unauthorized occupants from property purchased in an e-auction was dismissed. The auction was conducted on an "as is where is and whatever there is basis," and the applicant had ample opportunity to assess the status of the property prior to bidding. It was noted that the responsibility to address unauthorized occupants does not fall on the Official Liquidator under these circumstances. The applicant may seek other legal remedies.

RE-IN THE MATTER OF M/S MORADABAD SYNTEX LTD VS . [CO.PET.-72/1997]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by the Official Liquidator for the dissolution of M/s Moradabad Syntex Ltd. was granted. The company's affairs were completely wound up, with no remaining assets or funds for further liquidation proceedings. It was deemed just and reasonable to order the dissolution of the company.

RE-IN THE MATTEROF M/S DREAM CITY BUILDERS P.LTD. VS . [CO.PET.-197/1990]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by the Official Liquidator under Section 481 of the Companies Act, 1956 resulted in the dissolution of M/s. Dream City Builders P. Ltd. The Official Liquidator was unable to seize any assets of the company as they were either vacated or not owned by the company, and no claims were received from creditors. With no funds or assets available and the company's affairs completely wound up, the decision was made to dissolve the company and discharge the Official Liquidator.

RE-M/S LUMAX AUTO PVT LTD VS ... [CO.PET.-319/2005]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Winding up proceedings of M/s. Lumax Auto Pvt. Ltd. ended due to the Official Liquidator's report indicating no assets for realization and a negative funds position, making further proceedings unfeasible. The company was dissolved, and the Official Liquidator was discharged.

RE-SARAF PAPER MILLS LTD. VS . [CO.PET.-201/1990]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application filed by the Official Liquidator under Section 481 of the Companies Act, 1956, for the dissolution of M/s. Saraf Paper Mills Ltd. (in liquidation) was allowed. The liquidation process had been completed, with all claims settled, remaining funds distributed to shareholders, and unclaimed amounts transferred. The dissolution was ordered due to the complete winding up of the company's affairs, and the Official Liquidator was discharged.

REKHA GUPTA VS PARAMJIT SINGH & ORS. [C.R.P.-154/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The order of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal dismissing the petitioners' claims for compensation related to a bus accident was set aside due to inadequate opportunity for the petitioners to present relevant documents, including the certified copy of the charge-sheet. The matter was remanded for a fresh hearing with instructions for the petitioners to provide all necessary documents before the next hearing.

REKHA VERMA VS SHRI ATUL KUMAR GOEL AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-1665/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by Rekha Verma against officials of Punjab National Bank and Indian Overseas Bank was dismissed. Although there was a deviation from prior directions regarding detailed information about auctioned properties, no prejudice to the bidders was established as they would have conducted due diligence. The legality of the auction is pending before the Debt Recovery Tribunal, and the petitioner's action was viewed as an attempt to circumvent those proceedings.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS JAGDISH & ORS [MAC.APP.-1016/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The deceased was found guilty of contributory negligence for riding a motorcycle with three passengers on the pillion seat, violating the Motor Vehicles Act. The excess weight and improper seating likely contributed to the accident. Compensation awarded to the deceased's parents was reduced by 50% due to this negligence.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS JAGDISH PRASAD AGGARWAL & ORS [MAC.APP.-826/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was modified to reflect the deceased's aggregate annual income, resulting in a loss of financial dependency calculated at Rs. 23,30,880. An additional token amount of Rs. 40,000 was granted for loss of consortium for a posthumous child. The interest rate was reduced from 9% to 7.5%, and the total compensation was set at Rs. 25,60,880, with distribution to claimants as previously determined by the Tribunal.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SANTOSH DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-775/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The deceased died due to the rash and negligent driving of the offending vehicle, as established by eyewitness testimony and the deceased's wife. The amount of compensation awarded was reduced, with recalculations for loss of financial dependency, funeral expenses, loss of estate, and loss of consortium. The total compensation was set at Rs. 5,60,000/- with interest at 9% per annum from the date of filing the petition.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS VIJAY LAXMI SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-340/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company resulted in the compensation for loss of income and future income/functional disability being set aside, as the claimant was a retired government employee receiving a pension. Compensation for pain and suffering, loss of general amenities, and attendant/nursing charges was enhanced due to the severity of the injuries. The interest rate was reduced from 9% to 7.5% per annum, resulting in a total compensation of Rs. 42,89,628/- with interest at the revised rate.

RESIDENTS DEVELOPMENT AND WELFARE GROUP VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4384/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The main issue in the case involved unauthorized entry gates to a public park, misused by antisocial elements. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) and the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) received a directive to close any entry/access gates that contravene the layout plan within six weeks. It was emphasized that the park serves the general public in the neighboring area, not just the local colony. The petition was disposed of after addressing this matter, as previous concerns regarding encroachments and unauthorized structures had been resolved.

RISHU KANT SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7266/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The area of 4000 square meters in the District Park is designated for "multipurpose ground activities" according to the Master Plan of Delhi (MPD-2021), allowing public and social functions. Permission was granted to hold Dussehra and Ramleela religious functions for 30 days. The DDA is required to ensure the park is used for recreational purposes as intended, with future oversight planned for development measures.

S.B TRIPATHI VS DR PUNIT KUMAR GOEL & ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-677/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's contempt of court applications were dismissed, as the respondents were taking adequate measures to regulate the weekly Sunday market according to previous directives. A review of the case history and status reports indicated compliance with earlier orders. The respondents were instructed to manage the market without obstructing vehicular traffic or pedestrian movement.

SACHHIN SAPRA AND FAMILY HUF VS VISHAL MANOCHA [CONT.CAS(C)-1331/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Not every breach of a court order leads to contempt proceedings; such actions should be used sparingly and in exceptional cases. In this instance, the tenant admitted to being in arrears and committed to paying by July 2024 but failed to do so. The trial court should explore coercive measures to enforce the tenant's commitment and recover the outstanding rent, instead of initiating contempt proceedings.

SAHIL VIKLANG SAHAYTARTHA SAMITI & ANR. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-9537/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) cannot deny the petitioner society's request to hold a religious festival at the District Park in Janakpuri, as the Master Plan Delhi-2021 permits the use of a designated "multipurpose ground" for public functions. Despite earlier directives for park beautification, the DDA failed to establish adequate recreational facilities. The petitioner society is allowed to organize the festival with specific safeguards to protect existing plantations at the site. The decision referenced previous considerations regarding the use of the district park.

SAMAR AMUSEMENT AND EDUCATION VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-12637/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Samar Amusement and Education's writ petition to cancel the booking of a DDA ground for Ram Leela and Dusshera Mahotsav was dismissed. The petitioner lacked the legal standing to seek cancellation, was aware of the DDA's Standard Operating Procedures for online bookings, and failed to apply within the designated timeframe. The respondent, Bal Utsav Ramleela Samiti, a recognized organizer, secured the site on a 'first come first served' basis after the petitioner's missed deadline.

SANDEEP YADAV VS THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD [MAC.APP.-39/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The owner of the offending vehicle is not liable to reimburse the insurance company for compensation paid to claimants, as there is no evidence of awareness regarding the driver's fake license. The owner is not required to verify the genuineness of a license that appears valid on its face. The insurance company did not prove that the owner knew the license was fake while allowing the driver to operate the vehicle. Consequently, the recovery rights of the insurance company against the owner were set aside.

SANJAY MITTAL & ORS (PH) VS URBAN IMPROVEMENT CO PVT LTD & ORS [CO.A(SB)-45/2011]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by Sanjay Mittal & Ors. was dismissed regarding their successful bids in a tender process for residential and cinema complex plots conducted by Urban Improvement Co. Pvt. Ltd. The tender process was characterized as unfair and non-transparent, violating an interim order from the Company Law Board that restrained the sale of the plots. The Board of Directors approved the allotment contrary to these directions. Despite the irregularities, Sanjay Mittal & Ors. were not held accountable and are entitled to a refund of earnest money and any installments paid, along with accrued interest from the respondent company.

SANJEET GAHLOT VS ARUN GOEL [CONT.CAS(C)-895/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is in willful defiance of previous directives to include the petitioner's name in the next draw for an alternative 80 sq. yd. plot in Dwarka within three months. Inconsistencies in DDA's affidavits regarding plot availability and allotments to other petitioners were noted. The Vice Chairman and Director (Land Disposal) of DDA must appear personally or via video conferencing to explain the non-compliance and suggest measures to address the contempt. The matter will be re-notified for the DDA officials' appearance on a specific date.

SAROJ VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10305/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The interim relief sought by petitioner Saroj against the relocation and demolition of the Jhuggi Jhopri cluster near RML Hospital is not granted. In-situ rehabilitation is deemed impossible, and the timeline for the RML Hospital infrastructure project has commenced. The balance of convenience favors the respondents. The application is dismissed based on legislative intent under Sections 20A and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act, 1963, which prohibits injunctions for infrastructure projects.

SEETA SHAH VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11196/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

A writ petition was disposed of involving a corporate guarantor for a loan taken by a corporate debtor from ICICI Bank. The debtor's account was classified as a non-performing asset, leading the bank to invoke the corporate guarantee. The debtor entered corporate insolvency resolution proceedings, and a resolution plan was approved. The bank initiated CIRP against the guarantor for failing to honor the guarantee, claiming Rs. 34.66 crores. A direction was issued for the NCLT to decide on the applicability of clause 33 of the corporate guarantee deed, which limits the guarantor's financial liability, within four weeks of the hearing scheduled for 22.08.2024.

SH DADASO JAGTAP AND ANR VS SMT SATWANT KAUR SARNA AND ORS [C.R.P.-19/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The trial court's order permitting the plaintiff to amend the plaint was set aside due to the proposed amendment introducing a new cause of action against additional parties. The initial suit involved only defendants no. 1 and 2, and the amendment related to a sale document with defendant no. 5 would significantly alter the case's nature. The trial court was instructed to continue with the suit as originally framed, and the plaintiff was allowed to initiate separate actions against the other defendants as allowed by law.

SH. DEEPAK MAURYA VS MAHOTSAV SANCHALAN SAMITI [C.R.P.-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The current suit filed by the plaintiff is not barred by Order 23 Rule 1 of the CPC. The previous suit involved representatives of an unregistered society, and statements made in that suit do not bind the registered plaintiff society. The cause of action regarding hindrances in organizing the annual Shobha Yatra is considered a fresh cause of action for the registered plaintiff. The petitioner's Civil Revision Petition was dismissed.

SH. TILAK RAJ VS HARVINDER SINGH & ORS. [C.R.P.-93/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The revision petition by the defendant was dismissed, affirming the trial court's rejection of the application to dismiss the plaintiff's plaint. The plaint indicated a semblance of a cause of action, with the plaintiff alleging deception in the purchase of a disputed property, including concealment of prior complaints against the property transfer by the defendants' brothers. The defense presented by the defendant could not be considered at this stage, and the determination of whether the plaintiff was deceived will occur at trial.

SHAFEENA BEGUM VS RAJENDER SINGH SISODIA [CONT.CAS(C)-1441/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition by Shafeena Begum against Rajender Singh Sisodia for willful disobedience of a prior judgment was dismissed. The petition was deemed not maintainable, with the appropriate remedy for the petitioner being to file execution proceedings to recover misuse charges or mesne profits. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the contempt petition while retaining the right to seek redress through the Trial Court.

SHAHI IDGAH MANAGING COMMITTEE VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12524/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Shahi Idgah, measuring 31,601 square yards, is owned by the Delhi Waqf Board, while the surrounding parks and open grounds are owned by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA). The Shahi Idgah Managing Committee lacks legal standing to challenge the DDA and Municipal Corporation of Delhi's proposed statue installation on DDA land. The Delhi Minority Commission's order to maintain the status quo was deemed without jurisdiction since the surrounding areas do not belong to the petitioner. The writ petition by the Shahi Idgah Managing Committee was dismissed.

SHAKIR ALI VS RAJ KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-729/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by Shakir Ali, the registered owner of the vehicle involved in an accident, was dismissed regarding compensation awarded to the injured claimant, Raj Kumar. Ali's claim of selling the vehicle before the accident does not relieve him of liability under Section 50 of the Motor Vehicles Act, as he remained the registered owner. The tribunal's decision to hold Ali and the driver jointly and severally liable for compensation of Rs. 2,55,100/- was upheld.

SHAKUNTALA DEVI & ORS. VS SUNIL [MAC.APP.-382/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeals by the vehicle owner and driver against compensation awarded to claimants Sunil and Vijay were partly allowed. The claimants were found to be 50% contributorily negligent for riding three people on a motorcycle, violating traffic laws. While the offending vehicle's driver fled the scene, establishing his culpability, the vehicle owner was deemed vicariously liable. The compensation awarded to Sunil and Vijay was reduced to Rs. 59,000 and Rs. 35,800, respectively, with interest set at 6% per annum.

SHALINI THAKUR VS SHASHANK THAKUR [CONT.CAS(C)-1293/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Not every breach of a judicial order justifies contempt proceedings; such powers are to be used sparingly and in exceptional cases. The petitioner should first approach the Metropolitan Magistrate to enforce the order requiring the respondent to deposit Rs. 1,98,011.80 into the petitioner's bank account. The contempt petition was dismissed, allowing the petitioner to seek appropriate enforcement directions from the Metropolitan Magistrate.

SHARAD KUMAR JHA VS A MANIMEKHALAI AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-491/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's application to restore a contempt petition was dismissed due to the failure to report for duty as per a previous order. As an MTS employee, the petitioner was required to perform duties as directed by the reporting officer and could not dictate employment terms. The bank committed to assigning appropriate duties and treating the petitioner similarly to other staff. The petition was not restored due to the petitioner's non-compliance with reporting for duty.

SHARAD MOHAN KRISHNA VS ANKIT KUMAR [C.R.P.-169/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The application by the Official Liquidator for the dissolution of M/s. Kuberswami Ashutosh Consultants Private Limited was approved due to the company's negative funds and absence of realizable assets. Liquidation proceedings were deemed just and reasonable to conclude. The Official Liquidator was instructed to close the accounts after settling liquidation expenses and to notify the Registrar of Companies.

SHARMA ENTERPRISES VS THE BANKING OMBUDSMAN & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3042/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by Sharma Enterprises against the Banking Ombudsman and the respondent bank was dismissed. The Banking Ombudsman had jurisdiction over the complaint, but the petitioner was not entitled to the requested relief due to a lack of integrity. Evidence showed that sales proceeds were diverted to another bank account, violating the sanction letter terms, which demonstrated misconduct. Consequently, the petition was dismissed, and exemplary costs of Rs. 50,000 were imposed on the petitioner for wasting time.

SHARMILA JAIN VS DELHI DEVLOPMENT AUTHORUTY [W.P.(C)-12744/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner, Sharmila Jain, was not given an opportunity to respond to new grounds cited by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) regarding the cancellation of her sub-lease and conveyance deed. The DDA must substantiate allegations of fabricated documents and misrepresentation from its latest cancellation order, as the petitioner did not have a hearing after an earlier favorable order was recalled. Given her status as a senior citizen and widow, the DDA has been directed to refrain from any coercive actions against her related to the cancellation order until further notice.

SHASHI BALA GUPTA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-15035/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by Shashi Bala Gupta for an alternate flat from the DDA was dismissed due to significant delay and laches. Gupta filed an RTI application in 2015, five years after her husband's death, to inquire about his allotted flat but did not take timely action after receiving a 2016 response indicating the cancellation of the allotment due to non-compliance. The inaction and prolonged delay in seeking legal remedies led to the dismissal of her petition.

SHEOJI KUMAR PATHAK VS AJAY SURI [CONT.CAS(C)-688/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

DAV College & Management Society (DAVCMC) qualifies as a "public authority" under the Right to Information Act and is required to provide requested information. An initial refusal to comply with a prior order resulted in a finding of contempt, but subsequent provision of the requested documents remedied the situation.

SHRI RAJ KUMAR VS SHRI ANISH DAYAL SINGH & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1600/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by Shri Raj Kumar against the CRPF authorities is barred by the limitation period as per Section 20 of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971. The breach regarding the failure to reconsider the petitioner's case within the time stipulated in a 2010 order is not regarded as a continuous breach. The act of omitting to consider the case was complete by the end of 2010, leading to the dismissal of the contempt petition.

SHRI RAM GEN. INS. CO. LTD. VS MUKESH DEVI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-116/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal (MACT) was dismissed. The MACT's findings confirmed that the accident resulted from the negligent driving of the offending vehicle's driver, with the deceased not being contributorily negligent. The compensation amount calculated by the MACT aligned with the parameters established in the Pranay Sethi case.

SHRI RASHTER KUMAR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-10989/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition was dismissed on the grounds that there is no absolute right to the allotment of an alternative plot under the Delhi Development Authority (Disposal of Developed Nazul Land) Rules, 1981. A recommendation from the Delhi Administration for allotment does not constitute a legal obligation for the allotment. The petitioner cannot claim a specific plot in a desired area, even with recommendations from other authorities, as these are contingent on the availability of plots with the DDA.

SHRI SURINDER SINGH YADAV, VS ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED, [CONT.CAS(C)-31/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's contempt petition was dismissed due to the respondent company's lack of deliberate violation of prior directions. The consent order did not guarantee the petitioner's automatic promotion to higher scales, as eligibility and performance must align with the company's promotion policy. The respondent complied with instructions to reconsider the petitioner's candidature for Scale-III promotion for the 2009-10 exercise. It was noted that the petitioner failed to disclose important facts, including not participating in the Fast Track Channel Promotion examination, which affected considerations for higher-scale promotions.

SHRIRAM GENERAL INS CO LTD VS MEENA UPPAL & ORS [CM(M)-1229/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal (MACT) dismissed the insurance company's applications to include the driver and owner of the victim vehicle and to summon witnesses from JP Infratech Limited, citing the applications as belated and lacking merit. The discretion to choose parties to be impleaded rests with the claimants. Even in contributory negligence cases, joint tortfeasors carry joint and several liabilities, and the insurance company remains obligated to indemnify the insured. The sought information from JP Infratech Limited was deemed immaterial. The insurance company's writ petition was dismissed, showing no errors in the MACT's order.

SHRIRAM GENERAL INSURACE CO LTD VS DEEPAK KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-992/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The driver of the offending vehicle was found primarily at fault for the accident that resulted in the death of a 15-year-old. The deceased was deemed contributorily negligent for driving without a valid license and helmet. Compensation awarded to the deceased's parents was reduced by 50%, assessed at Rs. 8,55,001 with interest at 7.5% from the date of filing the claim petition.

SHRIRAM GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS NISHA DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-631/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The decision of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was upheld, confirming that the deceased was not a gratuitous passenger and was covered under the insurance policy, which exceeded statutory requirements. Eyewitness testimony established the cause of death as the result of negligent driving by the truck driver. The compensation awarded by the Tribunal was deemed fair, leading to the dismissal of the insurance company's appeal.

SHYAM SUNDAR SETHI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10299/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's claim for a plot under the Rohini Residential Scheme was rejected due to his voluntary cancellation of registration in 1991, which was accepted by authorities. The attempt to revive the claim after over 13 years was barred by delay, laches, and promissory estoppel. Erroneous inclusion in the 2012 draw of lots did not confer any legal right. Authorities were directed to refund the petitioner's initial deposit with interest.

SHYAM SUNDER KAUSHIK VS DDA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-11653/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition filed by Shyam Sunder Kaushik for a No Objection Certificate and building plan regularization from the DDA was dismissed as non-maintainable. The issues raised could be addressed before the Appellate Tribunal, Municipal Corporation of Delhi, which will decide the matter according to the law. There was no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

SMT. BIMLA DEVI & ANR. VS SHRI SUNIL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-119/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's finding of rash and negligent driving by the offending vehicle's driver was upheld, attributing sole responsibility for the fatal accident. In two appeals concerning the deaths of Sonu Singh and Neelam, the approach to calculating compensation was deemed broadly correct, resulting in awards of Rs. 57,88,000/- with 9% interest for Sonu Singh's dependents and Rs. 44,00,205/- with 9% interest for Neelam's minor child, effective from the date of filing the petitions. This case involved two appeals stemming from the same motor accident incident.

SMT. GAURI BHALLA VS SH. ASHISH BHALLA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1385/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Ashish Bhalla did not intentionally violate the Settlement Agreement or court order. He moved out of the matrimonial home due to a complaint of sexual assault by Gauri Bhalla and continues to provide financial support, including paying house installments, utilities, and a monthly allowance of 1000 Australian Dollars. Divorce proceedings are underway in Australia, and he pledged to pay Gauri Bhalla Rs. 7,75,000/- when the matter is addressed in the Australian court. The application for restoration of the Contempt Petition and modification of the previous order was dismissed.

SMT. KAMLESH VS SMT. SUNITA SHARMA, [C.R.P.-202/2022]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition filed by the defendant was dismissed, affirming the trial court's judgment in favor of the plaintiff under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act. The plaintiff demonstrated rightful ownership and possession of the ground, second, and third floors of the property through valid sale documents. The defendant's claim of exclusive rights based on an oral family settlement was unsubstantiated. The plaintiff was recognized as having a superior title and entitlement to possession of the disputed portions.

SMT. USHA JAIN & ANR. VS M/S VIGNESHWARA DEVELOPWELL P. LTD. [CO.PET.-145/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioners' right to refund from the "Buy Back Plan" existed prior to the winding up order. The application for release of the deposited amount was dismissed because the petitioners did not provide the necessary FEMA certificate and acknowledged their intention to file claims with the Official Liquidator. The Official Liquidator was instructed to reclaim the deposited amount with interest for the benefit of secured stakeholders, while the petitioners were permitted to submit their claims within 30 days.

SONY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS IRIS WORLDWIDE INTEGRATED PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO-91/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The arbitral award in favor of Iris Worldwide Integrated Private Limited was upheld, with the analysis of evidence and correspondence supporting the decision that Sony India Private Limited was liable for an agency fee of ₹51,11,479 under invoice no. 165. The interpretation of contract terms was deemed reasonable, and there was no basis for re-assessment of evidence. Additionally, Sony India Private Limited was held accountable for prolonged litigation, leading to an order to pay exemplary costs of ₹5,00,000 to Iris Worldwide Integrated Private Limited within one month. No grounds existed to challenge the arbitral award.

SOUMI CHAKRABORTY VS REKHA & ORS (M/S BHARTI AXA GENERAL INSUARNCE CO) [MAC.APP.-720/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appellant, the driver and registered owner of the offending vehicle, was responsible for causing an accident that resulted in the death of the deceased. Testimony from an eyewitness confirmed that the appellant jumped a red light and collided with the deceased's scooter. The appellant could not prove the validity of her driving license at the time of the accident, with evidence from the insurance company indicating that the license was forged. The appellant did not present any witness from the Licensing Authority to counter this evidence, thus failing to demonstrate the authenticity of her license.

SPARSH DHIR VS ESHA DHIR [CONT.CAS(C)-1461/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by the father against the mother was disposed of without substantive orders. Previous modifications by the Family Court allowed the father to physically meet the child every Saturday. Although the issues raised were serious, further proceedings were deemed unnecessary. Both parties were urged to act responsibly and ensure that meeting rights were exercised in a suitable environment for the child's well-being. The Family Court was directed to interact with the child and counsel the parties for compliance with existing orders.

SRIDEV SHARMA VS ANUPAM MATHUR [C.R.P.-378/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The plaintiff's suit presents a valid cause of action despite some gaps in the pleadings. The issue of privity of contract requires examination at trial rather than at the threshold stage. The application to dismiss the suit under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure was rejected, as no illegality or infirmity was identified in the lower court's decision.

ST. STEPHEN COLLEGE VS VIKASH GUPTA AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-1145/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

University of Delhi officials were found guilty of willful disobedience for delaying the admission of students selected by St. Stephen College for PG courses, despite the acceptance of the University's position on the absence of a separate quota for Christian minority students. The delay was deemed unacceptable, leading to a directive for the Registrar and Dean of Admissions to appear and explain potential legal consequences.

SUBHASH GARG VS S K SRIVASTAVA [CONT.CAS(C)-561/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition against the Rehabilitation Council of India (RCI) was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of willful non-compliance with a previous order. The RCI took steps to address complaints about individuals practicing without qualifications and was found to have acted in good faith despite jurisdictional overlaps with local authorities. Consequently, the RCI was advised to reach out again to state authorities for appropriate action against the individuals involved.

SUDERSHAN PATHAK VS KRISHAN KUMAR (DEAD) THR LRS [C.R.P.-209/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition by Sudershan Pathak was dismissed. The trial court's dismissal of his application to set aside the abatement of the suit was upheld, as it was filed more than a year after the respondent's death without sufficient cause for the delay. Multiple appeals by the petitioner had also been dismissed. Additionally, the petitioner rejected a settlement offer from the respondent's legal representatives, leading to the dismissal of the revision petition.

SUDERSHAN VS KIRAN BAKHLA & ORS [MAC.APP.-14/2011]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The deceased's death resulted from the composite negligence of the RTV bus driver and the DTC bus driver. Evidence, including eyewitness testimony and a medical report, indicated that the deceased was hit and crushed by the RTV bus. The appellant's accountability for the accident alongside the DTC bus driver was established.

SUDHIR KUMAR DHINGRA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-3001/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The cancellation of the petitioner's flat allotment by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was invalid due to failure to serve the show-cause notice at the petitioner's recorded occupational address and lack of satisfactory evidence for serving it at the residential address. The DDA's claim regarding the delay in filing the writ petition was dismissed as unreasonable given the lengthy processing time of the allotment application. The cancellation order was quashed, and the DDA was instructed to allot a similar flat to the petitioner at the current market rate without interest, as the original flat had been allocated to another party.

SUDHIR RAO VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY MINISTRY OF HOUSING AND AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11552/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition by Sudhir Rao against Tata Capital Housing Finance Limited for loan recovery under the SARFAESI Act was dismissed due to lack of maintainability, as the petitioner had already approached the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT), which dismissed his objections. The petitioner was advised to seek relief from the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal (DRAT), with the option to pursue statutory remedies upheld. The Supreme Court had granted interim relief to homebuyers in similar cases involving "subvention plans".

SUJATA KULSHRESHTRA VS TRIVENI MEDIA LTD [CO.PET.-16/2012]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The winding up petition against Triveni Media Ltd. was determined to be transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) since the proceedings were in the early stages without substantive orders issued. The parties were instructed to appear before the NCLT, which will consider the matter on its merits and make appropriate decisions.

SUMAN GUPTA (PROPRIETOR BAKSON GAS SERVICE) VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-209/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Indian Oil Corporation Limited could not suspend Suman Gupta's LPG distributorship without adhering to proper procedures outlined in the Marketing Discipline Guidelines 2022. The inquiry into a fire incident lacked shared documentation and did not provide Gupta an opportunity to be heard. Recognizing Gupta's long-standing status as a distributor since 1974, it was emphasized that fair treatment was necessary. As an interim measure, Indian Oil was directed to continue supplying gas cylinders to Gupta until the end of July 2024, while retaining the right to conduct further inquiry and reach a decision in accordance with the law. The matter is set for another hearing on July 31, 2024.

SUNITA DEVI & ORS VS SATISH KUMAR CHAUDHARY & ANR (NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-249/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal dismissed the claim petition due to the testimony of the sole eyewitness, PW-4/Mukesh Rawat, being unreliable and inconsistent with the case's facts. The respondent, identified as the driver-cum-owner, denied involvement of his vehicle, which was not considered an admission of the accident. The lack of credible evidence regarding the offending vehicle led to the dismissal of the claim petition.

SURENDER SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-704/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondents did not willfully disobey prior orders, as their resumption of the second stage of inquiry proceedings was an attempt to comply with laws and guidelines. The petitioner was aware of the allegations and the evidence against him. The inquiry is to proceed in accordance with the law, with no implications on the merits of the case.

SURESH CHANDER CHADHA & ORS. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-4746/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Delhi Development Authority (DDA) must process the petitioners' request to convert their leasehold property to freehold due to the absence of legal impediments. The property had been mutated in the petitioners' favor, and the interim order in a related civil suit was vacated. The DDA is required to consider the conversion application within 6 weeks, contingent upon the petitioners executing an indemnity bond. Additionally, a token cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the DDA for its legally misconceived cautious approach, which could have been resolved amicably.

SURESH CHANDRA GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA [CONT.CAS(C)-209/2019]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition filed by Suresh Chandra Gupta was dismissed. Although a substantial quantity of goods was seized from Gupta, the respondents did not account for their whereabouts. The contempt proceedings were considered an inappropriate forum to address this issue, and Gupta was allowed to initiate separate legal proceedings against the respondents for damages or other relief.

SURESH KUMAR SHARMA & ANR VS UNION OF INDIA THR GM [FAO-77/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claim for compensation was not maintainable because evidence did not establish that the deceased was a bonafide passenger on the train during the incident. No journey ticket was found, and the eyewitness testimony was deemed unreliable. The death was not classified as an "untoward incident" under the Railway Claims Tribunal Act, as it occurred while the deceased was walking along the railway tracks rather than falling from the train. The appeal was dismissed.

SURESH KUMARI VS REGISTRAR OF COMPANIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1567/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Evidence suggests manipulation of records and siphoning of funds by promoters and ex-directors of 'Three C Shelters Private Limited' to shell companies. The Registrar of Companies and the Ministry of Corporate Affairs have not acted despite being informed. Inquiries and investigations under the Companies Act, 2013, are to be initiated. Appropriate legal action is to be taken to trace diverted funds and preserve the assets of the company and related entities, aiming to protect the interests of home buyers and creditors. Separate civil appeals regarding the legality of the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process against the company are pending.

T N CHOPRA & ANR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2479/2014]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

In a writ petition by T N Chopra & Anr against the Delhi Development Authority, it was established that the area in the 'Bank Enclave' colony is designated as a public park according to the layout plan of the PNB Staff Cooperative Housing Building Society. Respondents No. 3 and 4, a married couple, were instructed to submit complete and legible copies of their title deeds or sale documents within 15 days; failure to do so may result in adverse inference.

T.R. SAWHNEY SHOPPING PVT. LTD. VS NAGENDER SINGH & ANR. [C.R.P.-26/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondents/plaintiffs were not entitled to exclude time under Section 14 of the Limitation Act for the period spent in the wrong forum, as they did not exercise due diligence or act in good faith. Their commercial purchase excluded them from the definition of "consumer" under the Consumer Protection Act. The order allowing the exclusion of time was set aside, and the plaint was rejected as time-barred.

TATA AIG GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD. VS SMT. PREETI WIFE OF DECEASED & ORS. [MAC.APP.-117/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed due to sufficient testimony from eyewitness PW-1 Shishpal and the investigating officer, which confirmed the Bolero Jeep's involvement in the accident leading to the deceased's death. The insurance company's claims of contradictions in witness testimony and cell phone records were ineffective, as it did not properly address the witness's prior statements. The insurance company was ordered to deposit the full compensation amount with the Tribunal within two weeks.

TEENA RANA VS SH. NARESH KUMAR & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-255/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The action initiated by the Tehsildar against the petitioner's OBC-NCL certificate was deemed illegal, leading to the quashing of reports and notices. Any disputes regarding the certificate must be presented to the competent District Level Caste Scrutiny Committee as mandated by the Supreme Court. The Deputy Secretary (Services) was found in contempt for not complying with a previous order and was directed to appear in person to explain why he should not be sentenced under the Contempt of Courts Act.

THE NATIONAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SANJAY KUMAR DASS @ SANJAY KUMAR SINGH & ANR. [FAO-172/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Commissioner assessed the loss of earning capacity for the claimant at 100%, despite a medical disability assessment of 40%. The claimant, who suffered an amputation of his left foot and was a driver, was deemed unable to continue his previous employment. The appeal of the insurance company was dismissed, deemed to lack merit.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURACE CO LTD VS SUJATHA AND ORS [MAC.APP.-27/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company led to a recalculation of compensation awarded for loss of financial dependency. The assessment adjusted the deceased's monthly income by deducting transport allowance and ration money, applied a 50% increase for future prospects, and deducted one-third for personal expenses. Consequently, total compensation was reduced from Rs. 61,38,568/- to Rs. 52,79,792/-, with a revised interest rate of 7.5% per annum.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS DHARAM PAL & ORS [MAC.APP.-156/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The offending vehicle lacked a valid fitness certificate at the time of the accident, breaching insurance policy terms. Despite this, the insurance company remains liable to compensate the claimants under Section 149 of the Motor Vehicles Act. The registered owner, having sold the vehicle without notifying authorities, is still accountable for compensation. The insurance company may seek reimbursement from the registered owner and the driver after paying the claimants.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS NEELAM & ORS [MAC.APP.-884/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by New India Assurance Co. Ltd. against the MACT's compensation award to claimants was dismissed. The insurance company did not prove that the registered owner was aware of the driver's forged license, which is required to avoid liability. Legal precedents indicate that owners are not obligated to independently verify driver's licenses, and insurers remain liable unless it is demonstrated that the owner knowingly permitted an unlicensed driver. Since the full compensation amount had already been paid to the claimants, the appeal was dismissed.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS VINOD KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-410/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company resulted in a revised compensation amount of Rs. 16,34,713/- for the claimants, with a 40% increase for future prospects and a 1/3rd deduction for the deceased's personal expenses. The interest rate was set at 7.5% per annum from the date of filing until realization. The argument regarding liability due to the driver's fake license was rejected due to lack of evidence of the driver's knowledge about the forgery. The remaining compensation was directed to be released to the claimants, while the statutory deposit was to be released to the insurance company.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SHUBHANK SINGH BHADAURIA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-209/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company resulted in the recalculation of compensation initially awarded for a motor accident. The assessment of the deceased's monthly income was corrected from minimum wages to R.S. 9,825 based on testimony. Adjustments were made to the compensation for loss of financial dependency and conventional heads such as 'loss of estate', 'funeral expenses', and 'loss of consortium' to align with established legal precedents. An interest rate of 8% per annum was maintained due to delays attributed to the COVID-19 pandemic. The final compensation awarded to the claimant-parents was R.S. 16,09,540.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS SUNITA NAGPAL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-114/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The decision of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal is upheld, attributing responsibility for the death to the driver of the offending truck due to rash and negligent driving. Testimony from the car driver indicated that the distance of 10-12 feet between the car and truck was not insufficient, considering the car's speed and the truck's sudden braking. The insurance company did not include the driver-cum-owner of the car, despite possible composite negligence. The appeal by the insurance company is dismissed, with no identified illegality or perversity in the Tribunal's ruling.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS KHUSHANUMA AND ORS [MAC.APP.-954/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The accident was attributed to the rash and negligent driving of the truck driver. A total compensation of Rs. 9,62,631/- was awarded to the claimants, covering loss of financial dependency, loss of consortium, funeral expenses, and loss of estate. The insurance company was deemed liable for the compensation, with the right to recover the amount from the truck's driver and owner. Compensation amounts were adjusted in accordance with established legal precedents.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS MS. SEEMA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-132/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to the injured-claimant was deemed without merit. The injured-claimant sustained 85% permanent disability due to the amputation of her right arm above the elbow from an accident involving a Haryana Roadways bus. A total compensation of ₹67,65,238 was awarded, covering pain and suffering, loss of marriage prospects, and the cost of a prosthetic limb and its maintenance. The insurance company must deposit the compensation within four weeks or incur a penal interest of 12% per annum.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS HEMLATA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-73/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appropriate rate of interest on the compensation amount is set at 7.5% per annum from the date of filing the claim petition until realization. This decision considers previous rulings indicating no fixed interest rate under the Motor Vehicles Act, allowing for case-by-case determination. A two-year delay due to the COVID-19 pandemic contributed to the reduction from an initially awarded 9% per annum, aligning the rate with prevailing nationalized bank fixed deposit interest rates.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS SMT YOGITA DEVI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-268/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The insurance company's appeal against a compensation award of Rs. 43,15,340 to the wife, children, and parents of the deceased was dismissed. The deceased's monthly income was correctly assessed at Rs. 17,800 based on evidence, including testimony from a company director. The calculation of the compensation amount was deemed fair and just, with appropriate legal principles applied.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SH. SHIV PRASAD INDRAMANI@ SHIV PRASAD SHARMA@SHIV PRASAD BHATT & ORS. [MAC.APP.-194/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal was justified in converting the claim petition from Section 166 to Section 163-A of the Motor Vehicles Act. The tribunal correctly concluded that the bus driver was not negligent, as the deceased alighted from the moving bus at his own risk. Under Section 164 of the Motor Vehicles Act, the insurer is liable to pay a statutory compensation of Rs. 5 lakhs for death without proving negligence. The total compensation was modified to Rs. 5 lakhs, plus interest.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SOHAN LAL (FATHER) & ORS. [MAC.APP.-70/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

There is no fixed rate of interest under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 for compensation in motor accident cases. The appropriate interest rate should be determined on a case-by-case basis, taking into account factors such as inflation, prevailing bank rates, the duration of the case, and the nature of injuries and losses. In this instance, a 9% interest rate awarded by the Tribunal was deemed too high given the 5-year duration of the case, leading to a reduction to 7.5% per annum as a more reasonable rate aligned with prevailing bank deposit rates. The discretion to award interest remains with the Tribunal based on case-specific circumstances.

THREAD AND NEEDLES AND ANR VS CANARA BANK AND ANR [W.P.(C)-86/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The respondent bank cannot retain title deeds provided as collateral for one loan to recover dues from another loan. Section 171 of the Indian Contract Act and Section 60 of the Transfer of Property Act support the right of the mortgagor against the bank's general lien in this instance. A writ of mandamus requires the bank to release the title deeds to the petitioners within one month.

TIMES INNOVATIVE MEDIA LTD. VS SPACE TURTLE PVT. LTD. [CO.PET.-761/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The winding-up petition filed by the petitioner company against the respondent for non-payment of dues was at an early stage, with no Provisional/Official Liquidator appointed. Due to the enactment of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, and Section 434 of the Companies Act, 2013, the petition was transferred to the National Company Law Tribunal for further proceedings.

TRENCHLESS ENGINEERING SERVICE PRIVATE LIMITED VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ORS [W.P.(C)-12438/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The forfeiture of the earnest money deposit (EMD) of Rs. 24.80 lakh by Punjab National Bank was deemed unjustifiable due to failure to inform the petitioner about the change in property possession status. The bank violated the Security Interest (Enforcement) Rules, 2002 by forfeiting the EMD within 5 days instead of the required 15 days post-sale confirmation. A refund of the EMD along with 12% interest from the date of the first refusal, plus costs of Rs. 1 lakh, was ordered to be awarded to the petitioner.

UDAY KAUSHISH VS DELHI DEVELOPEMNT AUTHORITY AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-1602/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is bound by the terms of the original lease deed from 17.09.1931, which allows for a 90-year lease with options for three renewals. The property is not classified as "nazul land" under the DDA Act and Nazul Rules, as the lease predated these regulations. The lease deed is interpreted in favor of the lessee, with DDA prevented from treating the lease as expired due to prior delays in processing a conversion application. The DDA must renew the lease for an additional 20 years and convert the leasehold to freehold, applying the original conversion rates from the time uncertainty was first raised. Additionally, the DDA is ordered to pay costs to the petitioner, emphasizing the contract's primacy over statutory arguments based on public interest.

UMA SINGHANIA AND ANR VS MANOJ CHHIBBER AND ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-1086/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioners have a prima facie case for reclaiming possession and recovering rent arrears. The appropriate remedy is to execute the consent decree from the lower court under Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure. The use of contempt power should be limited, and parties should typically pursue execution of the decree as an effective alternative. The contempt petition is disposed of with permission for the petitioners to approach the trial court for the decree's execution.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS BHAWNA & ORS [MAC.APP.-573/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company resulted in a revision of the compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal. The deduction for personal use and expenses was changed from 1/3rd to 1/2, as the deceased's daughter was the only financially dependent child. The interest rate was reduced from 9% to 7.5% per annum, bringing the total compensation to Rs. 36,59,000, with distribution among the claimants as previously ordered.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS JAGAT & ORS [MAC.APP.-55/2012]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The crane involved in the accident qualifies as a "motor vehicle" under the Motor Vehicles Act, making the insurance company's third-party liability statutory according to Section 147. Arguments regarding limited coverage under a Contractor's Plant and Machinery policy were rejected. Recovery rights for the insurance company from the vehicle's registered owner were affirmed due to the driver's fake license. Compensation for the claimant was increased from Rs. 7,24,200 to Rs. 38,02,000, deemed insufficient.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS VEERBAL & ANR [FAO-599/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The accident involving the claimant, Veerbal, occurred during his employment as a driver for Ravi Katyal. The insurance company, United India Insurance, could not establish a fundamental breach of policy terms. The compensation awarded by the Employees' Compensation Commissioner and the 12% per annum interest rate were deemed reasonable. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO.LTD VS SMT SOMTI DEVI AND OTHERS [MAC.APP.-305/2021]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, confirming that the claimants, including the deceased's wife, children, and mother, were entitled to compensation under Section 163A of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The accident involved the deceased in an uninsured three-seater auto rickshaw colliding with a parked bus, which was deemed to be in "use" under the Act. Claimants were not required to prove negligence or fault by the bus driver or owner. Compensation of Rs. 7,70,000 was upheld.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS SARLA & ORS [MAC.APP.-712/2018]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, confirming that the registered owner, DTC, took reasonable care in verifying the driver's license. The absence or invalidity of the license does not serve as a complete defense, and the insurance company must demonstrate the owner's negligence in license verification. DTC fulfilled its duty, and the insurance company remains liable to pay compensation to the claimant.

UPSRTC & ANR VS SANJAY KUMAR [MAC.APP.-615/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The accident resulted from the appellant/driver's sole negligence while operating the vehicle recklessly. Evidence, including witness testimony and medical reports, supported this conclusion. Compensation was reassessed and increased from the original amount granted by the Tribunal to Rs. 18,24,238, covering loss of earning capacity, medical expenses, and pain and suffering. The appellant/UPSRTC was instructed to deposit the enhanced amount with the Tribunal within 4 weeks.

USHA DEVI & ORS VS PRADEEP KUMAR & ORS (FUTURE GENERALI INDIA INS CO LTD) [FAO-233/2016]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal filed by the claimants against the Labour Commissioner's rejection of their compensation claim under the Employees' Compensation Act, 1923, was dismissed. The claimants did not provide sufficient evidence to establish an employer-employee relationship between the deceased and the respondents. Additionally, there was no proof that the deceased held a valid driving license for the three-wheeled vehicle involved in the fatal accident. Consequently, the matter was deemed outside the scope of the Employees' Compensation Act and potentially subject to the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The appeal had no merit and was dismissed.

USHA RANI VS CHANDER MOHAN GAUTAM & ORS. [C.R.P.-311/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition was allowed, and the plaint filed by the respondents was rejected. The cause of action alleged by the respondents was deemed illusory, and the suit was barred by limitation based on the plaint's averments. Additionally, the respondents appeared to have concealed material facts through drafting, with the continuation of the suit likely to burden the justice delivery system.

USHA VS KANTA [C.R.P.-11/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The suit filed for recovery of a loan of Rs. 3.12 lakhs, advanced in August 2015, was barred by limitation. The plaintiff's request for repayment in May 2020 indicated that the three-year limitation period under Article 21 had expired by the time the suit was filed in 2021. As a result, the application to reject the plaint was granted.

UTTAR PRADESH STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION UPSRTC) VS PUNIT KUMAR @ ASHISH AND ANR [CM(M)-2178/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal (MACT) allowed an amendment to a claim petition to correct the registration number of the offending bus from UP-16P-0659 to UP-32CN-0659 based on findings from a criminal investigation. Despite the amendment being sought later than ideal, the approach of the MACT was deemed appropriate. A petition by the Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation (UPSRTC) contesting this decision was dismissed.

VANTAGE CONSTRUCTION PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS NPS CHAWLA & ORS. [CO.A(SB)-59/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The shares held by the late Smt. Ram Piari Chawla were classified as part of her "movable properties" in her will, granting her children a 1/3 share each. Additional shares allotted to the late HPSC were deemed invalid due to improper meeting procedures under the Companies Act. Appeals from the appellants were dismissed, and the appellant companies were instructed to transmit shares to the respondents and cancel the additional shares allotted to the late HPSC.

VEENA KHURANA & ORS VS AMAN VERMA & ANR [MAC.APP.-240/2015]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

Respondent No. 1 drove the vehicle in a rash and negligent manner, causing a fatal accident that injured the deceased. A compensation of Rs. 9,24,104 was initially awarded, but an additional Rs. 4,00,692 was granted to cover medical expenses, bringing the total compensation to Rs. 13,24,796, along with 9% interest.

VINEET GOEL VS RUSHMI GOEL [C.R.P.-347/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's application to submit certified copies of documents was reinstated, allowing the submission of these relevant documents at a later stage as permitted under Order VII Rule 14 of the Civil Procedure Code. The documents, being public records, would not alter the core cause of action, and the technical delay in filing was not considered significant. The petitioner must file the certified copies within 15 days and pay costs to the respondent, without any implications on the case's merits.

VINOD YADAV & ORS. VS MAMTA YADAV [C.R.P.-357/2023]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The civil revision petition by the petitioners/defendants was dismissed regarding their application to set aside a judgment and decree in favor of the respondent/plaintiff. The petitioners/defendants did not demonstrate "special circumstances" required for setting aside the decree, as they were served with summons but failed to appear on time. No valid grounds were provided to contest the merits of the plaintiff's claim. The question of the petitioners/defendants' liability as legal representatives may only be addressed in execution proceedings.

VIPIN KUMAR TYAGI VS NIDHI PANDEY [CONT.CAS(C)-1301/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The contempt petition was dismissed, with no evidence of wilful disobedience to prior directions. The petitioner's representation was already considered and rejected, and non-selection for an award does not warrant judicial intervention without proof of mala fide or procedural anomalies. A related judgment made similar observations.

VISHNU DUTT MITTAL VS MAHESH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-414/2013]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The appeal resulted in the modification of compensation awarded for a motor accident. The initial calculation of notional income and loss of earning capacity was correct, but the loss of future prospects was not considered. Compensation for pain and suffering, future medical expenses, loss of amenities, and disfigurement was increased. Total compensation rose from Rs. 6,25,776/- to Rs. 9,19,276/-, with 7.5% interest from the claim petition's filing date.

VISHNU GOPAL VASHISHT VS DDA [W.P.(C)-1643/2011]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition challenging the DDA's rejection of the petitioner's request for an alternative site after the demolition of property at Kudsiya Ghat was dismissed. The petitioner could not provide evidence of ancestral rights or continuous possession before the cut-off date of 31.12.1998, as required by the relocation policy. The property was used for commercial purposes by the Paras Ram Dangal Society, disqualifying it as a residential jhuggi cluster eligible for alternative allotment. Consequently, the petitioner had no legal right or interest in the property, resulting in a dismissal of the petition with costs of Rs. 50,000.

VISHWANATH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11549/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The writ petition was dismissed as not maintainable. The petitioner sought a prohibition on Tata Capital Housing Finance Limited from taking adverse action for non-payment of EMIs and aimed to challenge proceedings under the SARFAESI Act due to a RERA order. Since the Debt Recovery Tribunal had dismissed the petitioner's objections and allowed possession of the flat, the appropriate recourse was to approach the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal for relief.

VISHWANATHA ESWARAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11544/2024]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The petitioner's request to prevent Tata Capital Housing Finance Limited from taking adverse actions due to non-payment of EMIs was dismissed. The prior decision of the Debt Recovery Tribunal, which rejected the petitioner's objections and allowed possession of the flat, rendered the writ petition not maintainable. The petitioner was advised to seek relief from the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal.

YASHPAL VS RAKESH KUMAR & ANR [MAC.APP.-368/2017]

Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma

The claimant's appeal was allowed in part, with the quantum of compensation modified. The tribunal's use of a lower multiplier and failure to consider future prospects were identified as errors, while the assessment of permanent disability at 17% was upheld. A total compensation of Rs. 8,34,185/- was awarded, including 10% interest from the date of filing the claim petition.

YASIN MALIK VS LOK PAL SINGH & ORS (M/S SBI GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-403/2018]
Judges: Justice Dharmesh Sharma
The appeal resulted in an increased compensation for the appellant to Rs. 21,17,574 with interest at 7.5% per annum from the date of filing. Permanent disability was assessed at 22%, and enhancements were made for future earnings, pain and suffering, and loss of enjoyment of life.

AAKASH EDUCATION SERVICES LTD VS M/S LOTUS EDUCATION & ORS. [ARB.P.-1114/2023]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
The arbitration clause between the parties remains valid despite previous awards being set aside. A new sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with all issues, including arbitrability, preliminary objections, and merits, open for consideration. The arbitral tribunal is responsible for deciding the issue of limitation, unless a claim is obviously time-barred, and will also determine the service of notice under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 based on evidence. This involved four petitions filed under Section 11 of the Act.

ASHISH KAUSHAL RANJAN VS PARMESH CONSTRUCTION CO. LTD [ARB.P.-358/2024]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
The disagreement concerning the appointment of an arbitrator was not subject to the jurisdiction of the High Court of Delhi because the builder-buyer agreements stipulated that disputes would be exclusively addressed in Noida. Given that the agreements were executed and the cause of action arose in Noida, the petitions were dismissed.

AMAN KATHPAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [CRL.M.A.-2007/2024]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
Welfare of the child is the paramount consideration in custody matters, even amidst conflicting orders from different jurisdictions. An application to vacate an interim stay on a US Superior Court's order granting sole custody to the father was dismissed. The child has resided in India for over 29 months and is well-settled. Allegations of abuse by the father were not adequately addressed by the US court. Discretion is exercised based on the child's welfare, leading to the continuation of the stay pending further deliberation on the writ petition.

NARENDRA MEHTA @ NAREN MEHTA VS STATE & ORS [CRL.REV.P.-157/2018]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
Criminal proceedings against Anil Rastogi and Jugal Kishore Gupta, accused of being attesting witnesses to a forged will dated 18.01.2011, were not allowed to continue due to a pending civil suit regarding the will's validity. It was determined that a criminal prosecution for forgery would not be appropriate while the civil matter is unresolved. The charges under Sections 467, 471, and 120B of the IPC were set aside, and the accused were discharged. The revision petition from the complainant Naruto Mehta was dismissed.

ANTRIKSH BHAWAN FLAT OWNERS AND OCCUPANTS WELFARE SOCIETY REGD. VS GOPAL ANSAL HUF & ORS. [CS(COMM)-157/2023]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
The suit against Defendant No. 4 is not maintainable due to the plaintiff's failure to serve the mandatory notice under Section 140 of the Delhi Police Act. The argument that the notice was not required because the suit was filed within three months of the alleged act was rejected. For Defendant Nos. 2 and 3, the failure to file written statements within the prescribed time limit under the Commercial Courts Act resulted in their right to file being closed and their defense being struck off.

ARUNIMA AUTOMOBILES THROUGH ITS PARTNERS SUDHAKAR SINHA AND PRAVEER SINHA VS MARUTI UDYOG LIMITED NOW MARUTI SUZUKI INDIAN LIMITED [ARB.P.-1166/2022]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Arunima Automobiles Pvt. Ltd. had claims against Maruti Udyog Ltd. regarding a non-assignable MASS agreement from April 1, 2004. The partnership firm converted to a private limited company, violating the agreement. Arunima Automobiles Pvt. Ltd. lacked standing to make claims, as it was not a party to the original agreement. The petition for appointment of an arbitrator was dismissed.

ASEEM KHANNA VS AKANKSHA DUA [TR.P.(CRL.)-23/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Proceedings under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, filed by the respondent against the petitioner cannot be transferred from the Magistrate's Court to the Family Court, despite a pending divorce petition in the Family Court. The DV Act and the Family Courts Act operate in different spheres, with the Magistrate's Court having exclusive jurisdiction over applications under Section 12 of the DV Act. The Family Court lacks the authority to handle such applications, though it can provide relief under Sections 18-22 of the DV Act in matrimonial disputes. The conflicting interpretations from the Bombay and Kerala High Courts were noted, favoring the Kerala High Court's view that transferring DV Act proceedings to the Family Court contradicts the legislative intent of the DV Act. The transfer petition was dismissed.

AXIS BANK LTD VS UV ASSETS RECONSTRUCTION CO [O.M.P. (COMM)-89/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The arbitral award was upheld based on the arbitrator's thorough consideration of the issues and compliance with the law. No patent illegality was present to justify interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The arbitrator's interpretation of the assignment agreement and findings on the maintainability of the arbitration and the issue of limitation aligned with established legal principles.

BALAJI STEEL TRADE VS FLUDOR BENIN S.A. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-544/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The arbitration agreement in Article 11 of the Buyer Seller Agreement and Article 5 of the Addendum between the plaintiff and defendant no. 1 is valid. The Buyer Seller Agreement and Addendum are separate from the Sales Contracts and High Sea Sales Agreements involving defendants no. 2 and 3. Disputes under the BSA and Addendum are to be resolved through arbitration in Benin. The plaintiff's suit is dismissed, allowing arbitration proceedings in Benin to continue, with the plaintiff permitted to seek remedies under the BSA and Addendum.

BHARAT PETROLEUM CORPORATION LIMITED VS PUNJ LLOYD LTD. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-12/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The mandate of the sole arbitrator expired under the terms of the arbitration agreement, which required the award to be published within 2 years, with a possible 12-month extension. The arbitrator was deemed unable to perform their functions, leading to the termination of their mandate. A new sole arbitrator, Justice Anil R. Dave, was appointed to conduct the proceedings, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open for future adjudication. Multiple previously appointed arbitrators had resigned at different times.

BITHAI RAI VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-674/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Bithai Rai's bail application was dismissed after being charged under Sections 20 and 29 of the NDPS Act for possessing a commercial quantity of ganja. Evidence linked Rai to the contraband, and procedural irregularities claimed regarding search and seizure did not invalidate the bail decision. The stringent conditions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act were not satisfied, as there were no reasonable grounds to believe Rai was not guilty or unlikely to reoffend if released.

CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION VS A RAJA & ORS [CRL.L.P.-185/2018]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Leave was granted for the CBI to appeal the acquittal order based on arguable points that warranted a deeper examination of the evidence. The trial court primarily disbelieved prosecution witnesses while favoring defense witnesses, raising concerns about whether this assessment aligned with legal standards and factual accuracy. The approach taken by the trial court, which dismissed oral evidence due to a lack of documentary support and accepted defense testimonies uncritically, was deemed perverse. Additionally, the trial court failed to effectively use Section 165 of the Indian Evidence Act, missing opportunities to gather necessary evidence for a fair judgment. Detailed reasons for granting leave are not required to avoid potential prejudice, while reasons must be provided if leave is denied.

DEEPAK CHAUDHARY VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-355/2011]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The FIR against the petitioners under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act was quashed due to allegations not meeting the essential requirements of the Act. The communications from the petitioners were found to be neither false nor frivolous, and there was no evidence of injury or annoyance to the complainant related to caste. Investigations by multiple committees indicated the allegations were unfounded and rooted in professional rivalry rather than caste-based victimization. Continuing the proceedings would result in a miscarriage of justice.

DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT VS RAHIL HITESHBHAI CHOVATIA [CRL.M.C.-5481/2022]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The order granting bail to Rahil Hiteshbhai Chovatia was deemed not illegal or perverse. Although the case involved serious allegations of a large-scale money laundering scam, the trial court properly considered relevant material when granting bail. At the bail stage, only a broad examination of the case is required, not a detailed review of evidence. The Directorate of Enforcement's petition to cancel the bail was rejected due to lack of evidence suggesting that the bail decision was based on irrelevant considerations. Observations made in the bail order were clarified not to affect the final trial.

EIT SERVICES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS INDIA POST PAYMENTS BANK LIMITED [ARB.P.-882/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of an arbitrator is maintainable. Clause 8.3 of the Master Services Agreement regarding an independent expert for technical disputes requires mutual consent, thus it is not mandatory. The absence of the required committees under the Governance Schedule renders Clause 8.1 redundant. The precedent cited by the respondent is distinguished, leading to a decision to refer the disputes to arbitration, with a former Supreme Court judge appointed as the sole arbitrator.

ESSAR EXPLORATION AND PRODUCTION INDIA LIMITED VS NAYARA ENERGY LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-399/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The dispute over the utilization of an advance amount of INR 866.34 crores is to be decided by an arbitrator. The respondent is required to deposit INR 214.72 crores with the court registry as a temporary measure to secure the disputed amount until the arbitrator's final determination. This arrangement does not affect the merits of the case, allowing the arbitrator to assess the issues independently.

FAKHRUDDIN MEMORIAL CGHS LTD VS M/S MAHALAKSHMI INFRAENGINEERS PVT LTD & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-145/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition to set aside an arbitral award favoring the respondent was dismissed. The grounds for challenging the award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act are limited, and the arbitrator's decision did not violate the fundamental policy of Indian law. The arbitral award is well-reasoned, showing no illegality or perversity regarding the respondent's claims for non-payment of the final bill, release of the security deposit, payment for extra work, and awarded interest. The principles of "fundamental policy of Indian law" require adherence to a judicial approach, principles of natural justice, and avoidance of perverse findings.

GEETA GANDHI VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-710/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The High Court of Delhi has jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution to transfer the investigation of FIR No. 01/2024, concerning Sections 279/337 IPC registered at PS Nubra, Leh, to the Delhi Police Crime Branch. The conspiracy is alleged to have originated in Delhi, warranting the involvement of the Delhi Police for a comprehensive investigation. While the option to transfer the case to the CBI exists, it should only be considered in exceptional circumstances. The Delhi Police Crime Branch is instructed to initiate the investigation anew and examine the conspiracy allegations made by the petitioner.

HARMANDER KAUR VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS [TEST.CAS.-64/2021]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Harmander Kaur proved the execution of the wills of her late parents, Shri Ajit Singh Ahuja and Smt. Amrit Kaur Ahuja, in accordance with the Indian Succession Act and the Indian Evidence Act. No suspicious circumstances were found surrounding the wills, confirming their genuineness. Probate of both wills dated 12.10.2011 was granted to her as the sole beneficiary.

HCL INFOSYSTEMS LIMITED VS OIL & NATURAL GAS CORPORATION LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-212/2019]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The Arbitral Award favored Oil & Natural Gas Corporation Limited (ONGC) over HCL Infosystems Limited, rejecting HCL's main claims. Key findings included that end-user monitoring and online data replication were included in the contract, HCL was not entitled to additional payments due to failure in the change order process, ONGC's imposition of liquidated damages for project delays was justified, and HCL had a right to reimbursement of service tax with interest as per the contract terms. The review process did not allow for reinterpretation of contract clauses or reevaluation of evidence, confirming the arbitrator's conclusions regarding the OEC report.

INDIAN STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVES LIMITED ISPRL VS SK ENGINEERING COMPANY KARAM CHAND THAPAR JOINT VENTURE SKEC-KCT JV [OMC-238/2022]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Petitions by Indian Strategic Petroleum Reserves Limited against arbitral awards in the Mangalore and Padur projects were dismissed. The arbitrator's decision to award compensation to the contractor, despite a waiver clause in the contract, was deemed a plausible interpretation and did not breach the fundamental policy of Indian law. The scope of judicial intervention under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, is limited, and mere errors in law application are insufficient to set aside an international commercial arbitration award.

JASPAL SINGH REYATT VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4176/2021]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Anticipatory bail was granted to Jaspal Singh Reyatt in a case under sections 420, 467, 468, and 471 of the Indian Penal Code concerning two disputed wills of Sadhu Singh Reyatt dated 28.10.1988 and 28.08.2002. The dispute is primarily civil, involving property rights and relying on documentary evidence. Reyatt's age of approximately 76 years and absence of criminal history were considered. Bail conditions include cooperation with the investigation, no tampering with evidence, and no travel outside the country without permission. Assumptions about the potential to abscond cannot solely limit the right to freedom under Article 21 of the Constitution. Violation of conditions can lead to prosecution remedies under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

KALYAN TOLL INFRASTRUCTURE LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [ARB.P.-1243/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The panel of arbitrators proposed by the respondent comprised only retired officials from government departments and public sector undertakings, which was deemed restrictive and not aligned with established neutrality and impartiality principles. The proposal to appoint an arbitrator from this panel was considered a violation of these principles. Disputes between the parties were referred to a sole arbitrator, Justice G. S. Sistani, with administration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). All rights and contentions of the parties, including arbitrability and other preliminary objections, were left open for the arbitrator's adjudication.

KHERA BUILDCON PVT. LTD. AND ANR. VS B.K.BANSAL [ARB.A.-1/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The appeal by Khera Buildcon Pvt. Ltd. against the arbitrator's order under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The arbitrator's order was detailed, well-reasoned, and addressed the contentions of both parties. The limited jurisdiction under Section 37 necessitated a circumspect approach, and the arbitrator's decision was deemed sustainable while adequately protecting the appellant's interests. Thus, there was no basis for intervention.

LANDMARK PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT AND COMPANY LTD. & ORS. VS ANSAL PROPERTIES & INFRASTRUCTURE LTD. & ORS. [EX.APPL.(OS)-942/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The applications by the Judgment Debtors to record the adjustment, discharge, and satisfaction of the Arbitral Award dated September 7, 2018 were dismissed. The submitted documents did not relate to the Arbitral Award and pertained to earlier agreements. The applications were deemed time-barred, as they exceeded the 30-day limitation period under Article 125 of the Limitation Act, 1963, with the general limitation period under Section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure not applicable in this case.

M/S APEX BUILDSYS LIMITED VS IRCON INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [ARB.P.-373/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The procedure for appointing the arbitral tribunal in the arbitration clause was deemed invalid due to its restrictive nature, violating principles of neutrality, counter-balancing, and broad-based selection. The issue of limitation was recognized as a mixed question of law and fact, appropriate for the arbitral tribunal to decide. A notice invoking arbitration was considered sufficient despite technical objections, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes between the parties.

M/S B.L. MEHTA CONSTRUCTIONS PVT. LTD VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY & ORS. [ARB.P.-1075/2022]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petitions filed by M/s B.L. Mehta Constructions Pvt. Ltd. under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The cause of action arose in Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh, and the respondents' principal office is also located outside Delhi. Without an agreed seat of arbitration in the agreements, the appropriate forum is determined to be the High Court of Madhya Pradesh, allowing the petitioner to seek recourse there.

M/S DHAWAN BOX SHEET CONTAINERS PVT. LTD. VS M/S SHREYANSH HEALTHCARE PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1196/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The invoices issued by the petitioner included a valid arbitration clause that remained effective despite the parties entering into a settlement agreement on 12.06.2023. The argument that the settlement agreement novated the original contract, thereby extinguishing the arbitration clause, was rejected. The settlement agreement did not indicate an intention to replace the original contract, so the arbitration clause continued to apply. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the dispute between the parties.

M/S TECHNO COMPACT BUILDERS THROUGH MR. ZULFIQUAR ALI, SOLE PROPRIETOR VS RAILTEL CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED [ARB.P.-1230/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The proposed panel of arbitrators by RailTel Corporation of India Limited is not sufficiently diverse, comprising mainly retired government officials and lacking professionals like lawyers and accountants. The appointment process does not fulfill the requirement for counter-balancing. Justice Kurian Joseph has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes, with all rights and contentions, including arbitrability and preliminary objections, left open for his decision.

MANIPAL HOSPITALS (DWARKA) PRIVATE LIMITED VS DR SANJEEV BAGAI [O.M.P. (COMM)-418/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The arbitral award established that the respondent/claimant was entitled to Rs. 16.02 crores for the remaining lock-in period due to the illegal termination of employment, which breached the agreement. However, the award of Rs. 15 crores for terminal benefits was set aside because the contract did not authorize this payment when the agreement was terminated before the 7-year term. The principle of minimal judicial interference in arbitral awards was applied, allowing the setting aside of severable and independent parts of the award without altering the overall award.

MATRIX CELLULAR INTERNATIONAL SERVICES LIMITED AND ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2073/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The FIR and proceedings against Matrix Cellular International Services Limited and others will not be quashed at this stage due to a pending investigation. Serious allegations involve the sale of defective oxygen concentrators at inflated prices during the COVID-19 pandemic, potentially harming patients. Issues regarding non-compliance with regulatory standards and the petitioners' knowledge of such non-compliance require further investigation. Petitioners may approach the appropriate forum after the investigation is complete, with their contentions remaining open for later consideration.

MOHD. DANISH VS STATE (GOVT. OFNCT DELHI) [CRL.A.-312/2022]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The appeal from the accused regarding his conviction under multiple sections of the IPC and the Arms Act resulted in a modification. While the evidence supported conviction for robbery under Section 394/34 IPC, significant contradictions surrounding the recovery of the country-made pistol raised reasonable doubts. Consequently, the conviction was adjusted to only include Section 394/34 IPC, leading to a reduced sentence. The review highlights the importance of thorough evaluation and rationale in appellate judgments as essential to the appeal process.

MRVS VALUE STRAIGHT PRIVATE LIMITED AND ANR. VS BRIGHTSTAR RESTAURANTS PRIVATE LIMITED (CARLS JR.) AND ORS. [ARB.P.-128/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition by MRVS Value Straight Private Limited and another for the appointment of an arbitrator was dismissed because they were not parties to the original Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) executed on 14.08.2018 between Mr. Vaibhav Gupta, Shalini Tyagi, and Cybiz Brightstar Restaurants Pvt. Ltd. As non-signatories, they could not invoke the arbitration clause in the MoU. Additionally, the existence of a subsequent business partnership agreement that could have superseded the MoU was disputed. Without a valid arbitration agreement, the petition was dismissed.

MR. VIKAS VIJ & ANR. VS MR. VIKRAM VIJ & ORS. [CS(OS)-185/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The suit filed by the plaintiffs is maintainable despite objections from the defendants. The withdrawal of the previous suit is interpreted as implicitly allowing the filing of a new suit. Provisions of Order XXIII Rule 1(3) and Rule 4(b) of the CPC were examined, supporting this interpretation. The objection regarding the pecuniary jurisdiction will be addressed during the trial. The case is scheduled for further proceedings before the appropriate bench.

PNB HOUSING FINANCE LIMITED VS JAYESH PRAVIN CHOUDHARY & ORS. [OMI-360/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Disputes between the parties will be referred to a sole arbitrator, Mr. Justice G.S. Sistani. The petitioner's application under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was converted to a petition under Section 17, with instructions for the arbitrator to expedite the matter. The respondents must maintain the status quo regarding the mortgaged property or any property related to the loan transaction until the arbitrator decides the Section 17 application, preserving the rights and contentions of both parties for the arbitrator's future adjudication.

MUMBAI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT LIMITED VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-268/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The arbitral award was upheld, confirming that the tribunal's interpretation of the OMDA and lease deed was reasonable and aligned with public policy. The OMDA and lease deed excluded "existing leases" from the "demised premises" to be transferred to the petitioner, with this specific provision taking precedence over any general clauses regarding existing contracts and agreements. There was no re-appreciation of evidence or interference with the tribunal's decision-making.

NTPC LIMITED VS LARSEN AND TOUBRO LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-9/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The 2017 notification by the Ministry of Labour and Employment, which increased daily minimum wages, constitutes a "change in law" under Clause 10.4.3 of the General Conditions of Contract (GCC). The price adjustment clause in the contract does not adequately compensate the contractor for the rise in labor costs. The challenge to the arbitral award was rejected, as the Arbitral Tribunal's interpretation of the contract terms was plausible and met the limits defined under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. No applicable grounds for interference were identified, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

NTPC LTD VS K N INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-6/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition by NTPC Ltd. to set aside the arbitral award dated 30.08.2023 was dismissed. NTPC Ltd. failed to establish any grounds under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act to interfere with the award. The merits of the case were not reviewed, and there was no indication of perversity or procedural irregularity in the arbitral tribunal's decision.

PANKAJ SINGH VS BASHIR AHMED HAROON & ORS. [ARB.P.-1010/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition filed under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of an arbitral tribunal was dismissed. The petitioner's intention to resolve the dispute through arbitration was deemed doubtful due to a prior civil suit on the same matter that did not invoke arbitration. Subsequent partnership deeds lacked arbitration clauses, and there was no evidence of a clear intent by the parties to continue resolving disputes through arbitration. Consequently, no valid arbitration agreement existed for this case.

PURVANCHAL HATHKARGHA SAHAKARI SANGH LTD VS ALL INDIA HANDLOOM FABRICS SOCIETY AND ANR [ARB.P.-75/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Section 84 of the Multi-State Cooperative Societies Act, 2002 enables the Central Registrar to appoint an arbitrator for disputes concerning the constitution, management, or business of a multi-state cooperative society. A notice to the Central Registrar requesting an arbitrator under Section 84 satisfies the notice requirement under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Central Registrar is to appoint an arbitrator within three weeks, with all other issues to be resolved by the arbitrator.

QUADRANT TELEVENTURES LIMITED VS ATC TELECOM INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD. & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-396/2019]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The arbitral award in favor of ATC Telecom Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. remains intact, as the challenge by Quadrant Televentures Limited under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was rejected. The interpretation of contract terms and evidence assessment by the arbitrator was deemed reasonable, with no evidence of patent illegality or public policy violation. The limited review scope under Section 34 prohibits re-appreciation of evidence or alternative contract interpretations. Corporate insolvency proceedings against Videocon Telecommunications Limited led to the adjournment of arbitration proceedings involving it.

R.S.KHANNA AND SONS VS RITES LTD. THROUGH ITS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR & ANR. [ARB.P.-255/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator is considered premature and not maintainable. Preliminary objections indicated that the petitioner did not exhaust the mandatory dispute resolution procedure in Clause 25 of the agreement. The procedure outlined in Clause 25 is mandatory, requiring compliance before invoking the arbitration clause. The petitioner failed to meet the prerequisites specified in Clause 25(1) and both RITES Ltd. and Ramjas College are necessary parties to the arbitration proceedings. The petition is dismissed, with a directive for the petitioner to follow the remedies under Clause 25 before seeking court intervention.

RACHIT KAPOOR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH PRIME MINISTERS OFFICE MR PK MISHRA [W.P.(CRL)-2377/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The writ petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution was dismissed due to the availability of alternative remedies under the criminal procedure code, such as filing a complaint under Sections 156(3) or 200 Cr.P.C. or a revision petition to the Sessions Court. The petition was deemed not maintainable because it involved disputed questions of fact, and investigation could not be directed without fact examination. The petitioner was permitted to pursue other available remedies.

RAFFLES EDUCATION CORPORATION LTD VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5108/2022]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Allegations in the private complaint do not disclose the essential ingredients of cheating under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code. The dispute is civil in nature, stemming from non-fulfillment of contractual obligations, and a mere breach of contract cannot constitute a criminal offence. Dishonest or fraudulent intent from inception must be shown to sustain a charge of cheating, and the allegations fail to demonstrate such intent. The order to set aside the summoning order is upheld.

RAIL LAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS PARSVNATH DEVELOPERS LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-519/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition by Rail Land Development Authority (RLDA) challenging the arbitral award favoring Parsvnath Developers Limited was dismissed. The tribunal identified that RLDA's development agreement was affected by fraud and misrepresentation, specifically regarding undisclosed information about land demarcation and sub-division, which rendered the contract void due to failure of consideration. RLDA's claims of res judicata, constructive res judicata, Order 2 Rule 2 of CPC, and limitation were rejected. The tribunal's thorough decision was upheld, emphasizing the limited scope for judicial intervention under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

RAILTECH INFRAVENTURE PVT. LTD. VS RAIL LAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [ARB.P.-546/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

There is a valid and enforceable agreement between the parties that includes an arbitration clause. The Letter of Acceptance (LOA) dated 29.07.2022 serves as a binding contract for executing the Lease Agreement, with bid documents such as the General Conditions of Lease Agreement (GCLA) and Special Conditions of Lease Agreement (SCLA) being read in conjunction with the LOA. A dispute exists regarding encroachments on the site and compliance with Clause 17 of the SCLA, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to adjudicate the matter.

RAJA HALDER VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-288/2021]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The conviction of the appellant for sexual assault under Section 18 of the POCSO Act was upheld, with the sentence modified from 20 years to 10 years of rigorous imprisonment. The victim's testimony, while not of "sterling quality," was deemed sufficient to establish the incident, and the prosecution effectively demonstrated the victim's minor status at the time of the offense. An investigation officer's failure to protect the victim's identity violated POCSO and IPC provisions, necessitating the implementation of appropriate measures.

RAJESH NARULA AND ORS VS DANESH MEHTA [CS(OS)-476/2021]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The will dated 12.07.1992 executed by Som Nath Narula is valid and binding. The plaintiffs and defendant are declared owners of their respective portions of the properties as per the will, which mandates partition by metes and bounds. A permanent injunction is in place to prevent interference with each other's shares. The principle of "law of election" applies, as the parties are bound by the accepted will, and probate is not required for Hindus in Delhi.

RELIANCE COMMERCIAL FINANCE LIMITED VS TARAASHNA FINANCIAL SERVICES LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-276/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition filed by Reliance Commercial Finance Limited under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was dismissed due to being barred by limitation. The petitioner initially stated the arbitral award was received on 05.02.2023 but later changed the date to 06.02.2023. The argument regarding improper service was rejected, as the award was sent to the petitioner's last known address. The petition, filed beyond the three-month statutory period under Section 34(3), was dismissed.

SAHAMAL SINGH VS CONTAINER CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED [ARB.P.-512/2023]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The issue of limitation is a mixed question of fact and law, reserved for the arbitrator unless a claim is clearly time-barred. The dispute over the petitioner's claims related to VMT equipment costs, trailer reductions, and idle driver salaries was referred to a sole arbitrator. Claims concerning deductions made in 2016 were deemed time-barred and not referred.

STATE (NCT OF DELHI) VS NARESH KUMAR [CRL.L.P.-38/2020]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Leave was granted to the State (NCT of Delhi) to appeal an acquittal in a case involving Sections 279 and 304A of the Indian Penal Code. The acquittal was based on the sole eyewitness's lack of support for the prosecution during cross-examination, despite earlier testimony. The existence of facts requiring further consideration prompted the allowance for a fresh appeal.

SANJAY BHANDARI VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.C.-1002/2020]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition filed by Sanjay Bhandari challenging proceedings under the Fugitive Economic Offenders Act, 2018 is dismissed. Requirements under Sections 2(1)(f) and 2(1)(m) of the Act are met, as the Enforcement Directorate provided sufficient grounds to believe Bhandari is a fugitive economic offender with proceeds of crime exceeding Rs. 100 crores. Proper procedure was followed in filing the application, and the issuance of a notice to Bhandari under Section 10 is affirmed. Bhandari's lack of disclosure of his current address in the UK was noted, emphasizing that he approached the matter without clean hands. The Fugitive Economic Offenders Act is deemed a special statute, and the petition is dismissed, allowing Bhandari the option to appear before the Special Court as per Section 11 of the Act.

SANJAY BHANDARI VS INCOME TAX OFFICE [CRL.M.C.-805/2020]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petition by Sanjay Bhandari to quash a criminal complaint under Section 51(1) of the Black Money Act was dismissed. The assessment and prosecution proceedings under the Act are independent, and completion of the assessment is not required before initiating prosecution for willful tax evasion. There is prima facie evidence of Bhandari's involvement in fabricating documents to conceal undisclosed foreign assets. At the summons stage, only a preliminary opinion on sufficient grounds is necessary, not a determination of guilt. The contention that the complaint should be under Section 50 instead of Section 51 was rejected, as the offenses are distinct. Bhandari's failure to disclose his UK address demonstrated unclean hands in his approach to the court.

SAURABH NIGAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [TEST.CAS.-86/2021]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The petitioner proved the execution of the will dated January 1, 2016, meeting the requirements of the Indian Succession Act and the Indian Evidence Act. The testatrix was of sound mind during execution, and no suspicious circumstances were present. Probate of the will was granted to the petitioner, the sole beneficiary.

SHIVAM VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-930/2024]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The appeal by Shivam resulted in the conviction and sentence under the POCSO Act and IPC being set aside due to material inconsistencies in the victim's statements. The prosecution's case was weakened by the failure to cross-examine critical witnesses and the improper recording of the accused's statement. These procedural lapses and the absence of reliable evidence led to the acquittal of the accused and his release from jail.

SHRI HARDEEP SINGH SAFRI VS SARDAR GURDYAL SINGH [I.A.-15840/2021]

Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

The status of the defendant as a tenant or unauthorized occupant is unresolved pending appeal RFA 409/2010. Any order on use and occupational charges could unfairly affect either party. The parties must await the appeal's decision, while the plaintiff may pursue appropriate legal actions. Evidence in the suits has not been recorded, and tenancy documents are still under review by the appellate court. Consequently, the applications are disposed of without ruling on use and occupational charges.

SPLENDOR BUILDWELL PVT LTD & ANR. VS RAJESH KUMAR PASRICHA [O.M.P. (COMM)-157/2024]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
A petition challenging an arbitral award was dismissed based on the conclusion that the arbitrator's decision complied with legal standards. The scope for contesting an arbitral award under Section 34 is limited. The arbitrator provided detailed reasoning regarding the agreement's interpretation, issues of delay, and the granting of interest. There were no grounds to interfere with the decision, which was not seen as perverse or contrary to the fundamental policy of Indian law.

SPML INFRA LIMITED VS POWER GRID CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-79/2023]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
Unilateral enhancement of arbitrator fees by the arbitral tribunal, without party consent, is not permissible. The petitioner's request for substitution of the tribunal due to perceived bias was denied because the issue was not raised before the tribunal. The mandate of the tribunal had expired but was extended until 30.03.2025, with instructions for the parties to continue proceedings based on the originally agreed fees. Two petitions from the same petitioner were disposed of in a common judgment.

VINGRO DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. VS NITYA SHREE DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. THROUGH ITS PRINCIPAL OFFICER & ORS. [ARB.P.-667/2023]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
The dispute between Vingro Developers Pvt. Ltd. and Nitya Shree Developers Pvt. Ltd. regarding builder-buyer agreements can proceed to arbitration due to the existence of a prima facie arbitration agreement. Directors of Nitya Shree Developers Pvt. Ltd. are excluded from arbitration, as they are agents and not bound by the agreement without specific intent. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve the disputes, with jurisdiction and arbitrability issues to be addressed by the arbitrator.

WASIM KHAN VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-703/2022]
Judges: Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma
The writ petition seeking police investigation and FIR registration against accused police officials was dismissed. Two inquiries had been conducted: a preliminary vigilance inquiry established allegations of custodial torture and illegal detention, while a detailed departmental inquiry exonerated the accused. The writ jurisdiction under Article 226 was not deemed appropriate to override findings from these inquiries. The petitioner has a statutory remedy under Section 200 CrPC to file a private complaint before a magistrate, leaving the petitioner's claims available for consideration in that venue.

ACHLA MALHOTRA VS DELHI STATE NPEF CGHS LTD. AND ORS. [RFA-452/2022]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The suit for recovery of Rs. 1,12,50,000 was dismissed as barred by limitation. The cause of action arose on April 23, 2014, when Rs. 50,00,000 was paid, with the remaining amount promised. The appellant filed the suit on July 12, 2019, exceeding the 3-year limitation period. There was no written acknowledgment of liability to extend this period, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

AJAY AGGARWAL (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS VS M/S BRITANNIA INDUSTRIES LTD [RFA-873/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The appeal filed by the legal representatives of the original plaintiff was dismissed as time-barred due to insufficient justification for the delay. Explanations for the delay were considered vague and unsatisfactory, with issues like the delay in obtaining certified copies and counsel's illness arising after the limitation period had expired. The law of limitation is substantive, granting a definite right to the respondent after the limitation period, which cannot be routinely disregarded without proper justification. Consequently, the applications for condonation of delay and the appeal were dismissed.

ANEY PAL SINGH VS ASHOK KUMAR KHOLI [RC.REV.-174/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The petitions filed by landlords challenging the dismissal of their eviction petitions under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act were allowed. The expiry of the lease does not prevent landlords from filing eviction petitions. The impugned orders of the Additional Rent Controller were set aside, and the matters were remanded for fresh adjudication, allowing both parties to present their arguments.

ASHOK RANI VS KEWAL ARORA [RC.REV.-205/2019]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The landlord is entitled to recover possession of the premises from the tenant, as the tenant failed to raise any triable issues regarding the eviction application under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. The tenant admitted the landlord-tenant relationship and the landlord's ownership of the premises, and claims about alternative accommodation and business plans lacked evidential support. The order allowing the tenant to contest has been set aside, and an eviction order is in favor of the landlord with a six-month execution stay.

CHARANJEET SINGH VS VIVEK JAIN [RC.REV.-128/2020]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Additional Rent Controller dismissing the tenant's application for leave to contest the landlord's eviction petition was upheld. The landlord established a bona fide requirement for the premises to expand his business and accommodate his sons, with no reasonably suitable alternate accommodation available. The tenant's claims regarding the employment status of the landlord's sons and the existence of vacant space were rejected, as no triable issue was present. The definition of dependence was interpreted broadly, validating the landlord's desire to involve his sons in the business as a legitimate ground for eviction.

DR ARUN PURI & ANR VS RAJINDER KUMAR AGGARWAL [RC.REV.-560/2019]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Additional Rent Controller, which dismissed the tenants' application to contest eviction proceedings under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, was upheld. The landlord's claim for the premises for his company, JCBL Limited, and his daughter's business was considered bona fide, encompassing emotional and accommodation-based dependence. It was demonstrated that the landlord lacked suitable alternate accommodation, as the tenants' claimed properties were either not owned by the landlord or were under renovation for residential use. A technical argument by the tenants regarding the specifics of alternate accommodation was rejected. The order remained intact, and the tenants' petition was dismissed.

GURU DARSHAN MAHENDRU VS VIJAY KUMAR AGGARWAL & ANR [RC.REV.-571/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

Subsequent events proposed by tenants during revision petitions challenging eviction orders cannot be considered under the Delhi Rent Control Act, as it contradicts the Act's scheme. The Act's summary procedure prevents appellate scrutiny of eviction orders, and revisional powers are limited to determining if an order was made according to the law, without re-evaluating facts. Applications from tenants to introduce new events were dismissed, as accepting them would undermine the legislative intent of the summary procedure and prolong proceedings.

GULSHAN KUMAR VS INDU SONI [RFA-828/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The partial decree granted in favor of the landlord for possession of the tenanted property was upheld. The tenant admitted to the tenancy relationship and the applicable rent exceeded statutory protection. The tenancy was properly terminated through a quit notice. The unresolved security deposit did not invalidate the tenant's admissions regarding these legal points, leading to the dismissal of the tenant's appeal.

HARDIAL SINGH VS VIVEK GUPTA [RC.REV.-339/2016]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Rent Controller dismissing the tenant's application for leave to contest the landlord's eviction petition was upheld. The landlord's requirement for the tenanted premises to establish an IT consultancy business was deemed bona fide, with plans to use the front for the office and the rear for a back office. Arguments from the tenant regarding alternative spaces already available to the landlord were rejected. No errors or issues within the Rent Controller's order warranted further review.

HARJEET SINGH KALRA VS N RAJESH & ORS. [RFA-896/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The appeal was dismissed, upholding the trial court's rejection of the appellant's claim for recovery of money transferred from his bank account to the respondents. The appellant did not challenge the Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's orders, which justified the transfer, nor did he contest the freezing of his bank accounts during the investigation. The decision indicated an attempt to circumvent judicial orders, showing no errors in the trial court's decision.

HIMANSHU DAWER VS HEMCHAND & ORS. [RC.REV.-18/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The eviction order was set aside due to invalid service of summons, which required simultaneous delivery through both ordinary process and registered post. The argument regarding the tenant's awareness of the proceedings did not negate the necessity for proper service. The matter was remanded for further proceedings in accordance with the law.

HOTEL CORPORATION OF INDIA VS SUDESH KUMAR JULKA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-20000/2004]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The domestic inquiry against the respondent workman was flawed and violated principles of natural justice due to the lack of access to key documents and the failure to examine the audit team members involved in the raid. A late request from the petitioner management to present fresh evidence on misconduct charges was rejected, as it was submitted over a decade after the initial application. The writ petition challenging the Industrial Tribunal's orders was dismissed.

JITENDER KUMAR TOMAR VS JITENDER SINGH [RFA-790/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The trial court's order in a money recovery suit under Order XXXVII of the Code of Civil Procedure was upheld. The appellant's claim that the summons for judgment were not personally served was rejected since he had provided his counsel's address for service. The suit was deemed maintainable as it was based on a cheque mentioned in the plaint.

KAMAL KUMAR BAHARI VS MOTI LAL JAIN SINCE DECEASED THROUGH LRS [RC.REV.-290/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Additional Rent Controller was upheld, dismissing the tenant's application for leave to contest an eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. The landlord demonstrated a superior title to the premises, while the tenant provided no documentary evidence to support ownership claims. Vague assertions about the landlord having suitable alternate accommodation were deemed insufficient for contesting the eviction. The importance of balancing the rights of both parties in summary eviction proceedings was emphasized, indicating that allowing leave to contest would undermine the principles of the summary procedure established by the Act.

KANTA GUPTA VS GOVERDHAN DASS DAGA (DECEASED) THR LRS [RC.REV.-131/2020]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The dismissal of the landlord's eviction petitions under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld due to the landlord's concealment of material facts regarding available accommodation and her son's business. This concealment affected the claimed bona fide requirement for eviction, making the findings of the Additional Rent Controller reasonable and lawful. The landlord's revision petitions were dismissed, with the impugned orders deemed free from any infirmity.

KHADI GRAMODYOG BHAWAN VS SATVINDER KAUR AND ANR [RC.REV.-223/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The eviction order favoring the landlords under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. The tenant did not provide reliable evidence to support claims of property partition, failing to establish a challenge to the landlord-tenant relationship. The need of the landlords for the premises and lack of alternative accommodation were also confirmed. The eviction order was found to be lawful, leading to the dismissal of the revision petition.

KULWANT SINGH VS VIKAS AHUJA [RC.REV.-248/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The eviction order against the petitioner-tenant was upheld due to the tenant's failure to file a leave application despite proper service of summons. Summons were received by the tenant's brother at the rented premises, contradicting the tenant's claim of non-service. The tenant's inaction led to the pleadings in the eviction petition being deemed admitted, validating the eviction order.

M/S GYAN SALES CORPORATION VS RAJENDRA PRASAD [W.P.(C)-17174/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order under the Delhi Shops and Establishment Act 1954 required the petitioner management to pay Rs. 29,400 in due wages and Rs. 5,000 as compensation to the respondent workman. The order was made after the petitioner failed to appear or file a written statement despite being served summons. The petitioner's argument of being under a bonafide impression regarding the case was dismissed, as evidence showed prior engagement with the proceedings and receipt of the claim application.

M/S JAINSONS LIGHTS (PVT) LTD VS ASHRAF [RFA-150/2020]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The dismissal of the appellant's suit for recovery of Rs. 3,08,343/- was upheld due to the appellant's failure to provide reliable evidence of business transactions with the respondent. The appellant did not prove that goods were supplied from Delhi to Ernakulam, Kerala, or that any outstanding amount was owed. The burden of proof rested with the appellant, and without establishing the case, no requirement existed for the respondent to disprove it. The trial court's judgment was free of errors.

M/S NUTRI SHINE MANAGEMENT PVT. LTD. VS SHRI SHIV RAM AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-15806/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Competent Authority under the Delhi Shops and Establishments Act, 1954, required the management to pay unpaid wages and compensation to the workmen. The management's claim of the workmen voluntarily abandoning their jobs lacked evidence, as it did not cross-examine the workmen or present counter-evidence. The decision was based on unchallenged evidence from the workmen, warranting no interference.

M/S PROGRESSIVE CONSTRUCTION LTD VS HIMADRI SHANKAR ROY & ANR. [RFA-797/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The application for condonation of a delay exceeding 12 years in filing an appeal against a money recovery decree was dismissed. The appellant, a corporate entity, could not attribute the delay solely to the misconduct of its previous counsel without taking action against them. The proceedings under Order IX Rule 13 CPC were not pursued in good faith. The case was not deemed suitable for condoning such a significant delay, leading to the dismissal of the appeal as barred by limitation.

MADHULIKA GUPTA VS M/S SAFEWAY ENTERPRISES PRIVATE LIMITED [RC.REV.-99/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The Additional Rent Controller's order dismissing the tenant's application for leave to contest the landlord's eviction proceedings under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. The tenant admitted to the landlord's ownership and the tenancy agreement, which supported the landlord's case. Documents submitted by the tenant were deemed inadmissible due to improper certification and late filing. It was noted that the tenant could not expect to live separately from the landlord's family, and the absence of specific claims about the landlord's alternate accommodation did not undermine the eviction petition. The order was deemed legally sound.

MAYA DEVI & ORS VS SUSHILA DEVI [RC.REV.-404/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The decision of the Rent Controller to dismiss the tenants' application for leave to contest the landlord's eviction petition was upheld. The landlord sufficiently explained her bona fide need for the premises for herself and her family. The tenants' claims that the eviction petition was barred under Section 14(6) of the Delhi Rent Control Act and that the site plan was incorrect were rejected since these issues were not raised before the Rent Controller. This matter involved a single judge and was not part of a batch decision.

MITHAN LAL SINGHAL VS PANCHAYATI DHARAMSHALA TRUST [RC.REV.-233/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Additional Rent Controller dismissing the tenant's application for leave to contest eviction proceedings under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. At this stage, the tenant must show prima facie facts that could prevent eviction, rather than establish a strong case. The assessment of the landlord's bona fide requirement for the premises cannot be substituted. The Rent Controller's finding that the alternate accommodation proposed by the tenant was unsuitable for the landlord was upheld.

MOHD IRFAN VS SHAINA AFTAB & ORS. [RC.REV.-293/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The eviction order issued by the Rent Controller was upheld, confirming the landlord's bona fide necessity for operating a boutique in the tenanted premises, which remained intact despite the landlord's daughter's marriage to a Pakistani national. The tenant is estopped from challenging the landlord's title, given the absence of disputes over the authenticity of the rent receipts. Additionally, the absence of reasonably suitable alternative accommodation for the landlord to run the boutique was affirmed. The tenant's revision petition was dismissed.

MOHD. IRFAN VS HASAN MIAN SINC DECEASED THROUGH HIS LEGAL HEIRS & ANR [RFA-785/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The landlord's suit for recovery of possession of the tenanted property was upheld due to the tenant's clear admission of the tenancy relationship and agreed monthly rent above the statutory ceiling. The tenancy expired over time, and any oral extension resulted in a month-to-month tenancy that was effectively terminated by the quit notice and the filing of the suit. Service of the suit summons was deemed sufficient to end the month-to-month tenancy without needing a separate quit notice.

MS GODAMBARI RATURI VS EMPLOYEE STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION LTD. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16407/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The deceased workman, who died from Covid-19, qualified as an "employee" under Section 2(9) of the Employees' State Insurance Act, with monthly wages of Rs. 19,585/-, which is below the Rs. 21,000/- limit. The argument to include a special incentive of Rs. 2,674/- in his wages was rejected, favoring a benevolent interpretation in line with social welfare legislation. The decision to deny benefits under the ESIC Covid-19 Relief Scheme to the workman's widow was quashed, and the respondents were directed to provide all benefits to her within 4 weeks.

NAVEEN VS AKSHMA DEVI [RC.REV.-527/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The application for leave to contest the eviction proceedings filed by tenant Naveen was dismissed due to late filing, as it was submitted on 03.05.2013, after the required deadline following the service of summons on 06.03.2013. Naveen did not provide sufficient reasons for the delay, and the grounds raised in his application had already been rejected in a prior case involving the same landlord. The revision petition was dismissed.

NEM CHAND JAIN VS SANJAY KUMAR JAIN & ANR [RC.REV.-405/2014]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The eviction order against the tenant was upheld, with the landlords found to have properly disclosed their available properties. The classification of some areas as "godowns" did not constitute concealment. The landlords' intention for their children to operate a business from the disputed premises, located in a prime commercial area, was deemed bona fide. There was no obligation for the landlords to use less suitable upper-floor premises instead of the ground-floor shop. The eviction order was in accordance with the law and did not require any interference.

PANCHSHILA COOPERATIVE HOUSE BUILDING SOCIETY VS ASSISTANT PROVIDENT FUND COMMISSIONERS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3033/2019]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The dismissal of the petitioner's Review Application under Section 7B of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 without a hearing was deemed invalid. The lack of a hearing prejudiced the petitioner, who could have presented arguments regarding mistakes in the original order. The principles of natural justice necessitate a hearing before rejecting a Review Application. The impugned order has been set aside, and the matter is remanded for a fresh order after hearing both parties.

PANCHSHILA COOPERATIVE HOUSE VS ASSISTANT PROVIDENT FUND COMMISSIONER, DELHI (SOUTH) AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1443/2019]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The dismissal of a petitioner's review application under Section 7B of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, without a hearing, was invalid due to resulting prejudice. The principles of natural justice require that the applicant be given a reasonable opportunity to present their case. The impugned order was set aside, and the matter was remanded for a fresh order with both sides being heard.

RAJESH KUMAR VS GAURAV ANAND [RFA-670/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The trial court's decision to grant specific performance of agreements to sell three properties to Gaurav Anand was upheld. The appellants, Paryag Raj and Rajesh Kumar, failed to file written statements on time after receiving summons, lacking valid reasons for the delay. The trial court properly exercised its discretion to decree the suits in favor of the respondent.

PRAVEEN KUMAR MALHOTRA (THROUGH SPA) VS ARUN KUMAR [RC.REV.-331/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The delay in a tenant's application for leave to contest an eviction petition can be condoned when the tenant was unable to file on time due to not receiving a legible copy of the documents. A substantial case was made for the application to be considered on merits. The eviction order was set aside, and the matter was remanded to the Rent Controller for fresh consideration of the tenant's application.

RAJ KUMA VERMA & ORS VS LATE NANAK CHAND THR LRS [RC.REV.-570/2015]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The eviction order for the tenants was based on the landlord's bona fide requirement for the premises. Evidence showed that the landlord and his elderly, paralytic wife could not use the first-floor rooms occupied by other tenants, and the landlord's sons needed space due to the loss of their business premises. The need for separate residential and commercial spaces was deemed justified, affirming the legality of the decision-making process and dismissing the tenant's petition.

RAJAN VARMANI VS KAMAL CHAND JAIN [RC.REV.-63/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Additional Rent Controller to dismiss the tenant's application for leave to contest eviction proceedings was upheld. The landlord's claim of a bona fide requirement for the premises for his wife and daughter's business was justified, supported by the larger shop generating substantial rental income while the smaller premises provided minimal rent. Landlords have discretion in choosing which premises to vacate to meet their requirements. The tenant's arguments regarding information concealment and alternate premises were not valid, and challenges to the landlord's medical condition were irrelevant to the need for the premises.

RAJIV KUMAR & ANR VS CHAMAN LAL & ORS [RC.REV.-358/2016]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The Rent Controller's order dismissing the tenants' application for leave to contest the landlords' eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. The tenants failed to establish a prima facie case to prevent the eviction, lacking documentary evidence to substantiate claims of landlords owning other properties, with mere affidavits deemed insufficient. The landlords' prior filing under Section 14(1)(a) did not cast doubt on the legitimacy of their current need under Section 14(1)(e). Arguments presented by the tenants were found unpersuasive, and no infirmity was identified in the decision-making process.

RAKESH KUMAR VS KAMLESH & ORS [RC.REV.-5/2016]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Rent Controller dismissing the tenant's application for leave to contest eviction proceedings was upheld. The landlord's eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) was deemed maintainable, allowing for demolition and reconstruction after eviction. The tenant's argument for an eviction petition under Section 14(1)(g) was rejected, as the landlord's need was for personal residential use and not solely for reconstruction. The landlord's bona fide requirement for more space, based on family size, was considered valid.

RAVINDER MANDAL VS M/S D.L.F. UNIVERSAL LTD. [W.P.(C)-15094/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The Labour Court's award against the petitioner worker was upheld, affirming that the transfer from Delhi to Chennai was a valid exercise of the company's discretion and not punitive. The worker's failure to comply with the transfer order constituted serious misconduct. Allegations linking the transfer to a refusal to assist in currency conversion post-demonetization were deemed unconvincing. The petition was dismissed with no errors identified in the Labour Court's decision favoring the company.

SANJAY AGGARWAL VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7298/2018]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The Authority under the Delhi Shops and Establishments Act ordered Sanjay Aggarwal to pay wages and compensation to former employees, respondents 3 and 4. Aggarwal did not adequately participate in the proceedings, failing to appear or submit necessary documentation, and the cross-examination did not invalidate the claims of the respondents. The impugned order was deemed valid, and the petition was dismissed.

SANTOSH KUMARI VS ROHIT GULATI [RFA-320/2022]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The plaintiff is entitled to recover Rs. 15,00,000 from the defendant, along with pendente lite and future interest at 8% per annum, based on the defendant's handwritten admissions and videographed confession of stealing the plaintiff's jewelry. The case was established on the preponderance of probabilities, despite the trial court's dismissal of the suit.

SAPNA & ANR. VS SHIVESH GARG [RFA-861/2024]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The trial court's dismissal of the appellants' application for leave to defend a summary suit was upheld. The appellants admitted to receiving a loan of Rs. 5,00,000 and executing a loan agreement, but their assertion of having repaid the entire amount was deemed unconvincing and frivolous. The lack of a substantial defense or genuine triable issues led to the refusal of leave to defend, allowing the plaintiff to obtain judgment immediately.

SAROJ RANI VS LALIT KUMAR & BROTHERS [RC.REV.-393/2019]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The dismissal of the landlord's eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. The landlord's claim of a bona fide requirement for her son to start a business was negated by evidence showing he was already engaged in the family's existing cattle feed and food grains business. The landlord did not demonstrate a truthful need for expansion and had failed to utilize a vacant shop that was previously occupied. Overall, the requirement for the tenanted premises was not considered genuine, and it was established that the landlord had suitable alternate accommodation available but chose not to use it.

SATISH KUMAR VS HOLISTIC CHILD DEVELOPMENT INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-5664/2010]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The petitioner failed to prove that the respondent organization qualifies as an "industry" under the Industrial Disputes Act or that an employer-employee relationship existed. Evidence, including witness testimony, indicated the respondent is a charitable institution. No reliable documentary evidence supported the existence of an employer-employee relationship. The petition was dismissed.

SATPAL SHARMA & ANR. VS SADHNA ARORA [RC.REV.-203/2023]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The eviction order against the petitioners/tenants was upheld based on the landlord's proof of ownership through a registered sale deed and a family settlement document. The requirement for eviction was met by establishing a better title than the tenant. Arguments regarding the landlord's other properties and the validity of the family settlement document were rejected due to the petitioners' failure to challenge the landlord's evidence adequately.

SATPAL SINGH SARNA & ORS VS SATYA PRAKASH BANSAL [RC.REV.-626/2019]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The order of the Rent Controller was set aside, allowing the landlords' eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. The landlords' intention to return to India and settle in their own premises during old age was deemed a genuine requirement, with the tenant failing to provide evidence to counter this claim. It was noted that landlords should not be required to conclude their affairs abroad before eviction proceedings are completed. The execution of the possession order was stayed for six months.

SAUJANYA PRINTING PRESS VS DYPUTY LABOUR COMMISSIONER & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4299/2024]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The order under the Minimum Wages Act requiring the petitioner management to pay the respondent workman the difference in minimum wages and a one-time penalty was upheld. The petitioner management failed to contest the workman's testimony or provide evidence disputing his denial of resignation and full and final settlement, leading to the dismissal of their petition.

SCON FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT LTD VS S C KAURA [RC.REV.-358/2023]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The dismissal of the tenant's application for leave to contest the landlord's eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. The tenant was required to provide reliable evidence to support claims regarding the landlord's possession of suitable alternate accommodation, instead of mere allegations. The tenant did not successfully rebut specific denials from the landlord regarding ownership and suitability of the properties cited. It was emphasized that granting leave to contest necessitates supporting evidence beyond the tenant's affidavit to maintain the integrity of the summary procedure outlined in the Act.

SH RAMNIK SINGH VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11462/2022]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
Orders for eviction of the petitioners from the disputed premises under the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorized Occupants) Act were upheld. The petitioners did not establish eligibility under any regularization scheme despite multiple opportunities over several years. Payments made by the petitioners to the DDA were deemed as damages for unauthorized occupation rather than license fees, confirming their status as unauthorized occupants subject to eviction. All writ petitions filed by the petitioners were dismissed.

SHEHNAZ BEGUM & ORS VS KARAMVIR SAINI & ANR [RC.REV.-564/2015]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The eviction order against the tenants was upheld, confirming the landlord's ownership of the premises and the genuine need for the property to support the landlord and his brother's business activities. The landlord's assessment of his requirements was deemed valid, and the tenants' challenge to the eviction order was dismissed.

SHRAWAN SULTANIA VS AVNEET GOYAL [RC.REV.-454/2016]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The eviction order against the petitioner/tenant under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. Summons were properly served through multiple methods, including registered post, affixation, and publication, as the petitioner/tenant was avoiding service. The argument for service through concurrent civil court proceedings was rejected, as the specific procedure of the Rent Control Act was followed. There was no infirmity found in the eviction order, and the petition was dismissed.

SMT NIRMAL VS SMT GUNWANT KAUR SETHI [RC.REV.-91/2022]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The order of the Rent Controller for the eviction of the tenant under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was upheld. The tenant failed to file an application for leave to contest the eviction petition within the designated time, despite receiving proper summons. The scope of revisional jurisdiction was examined, confirming that substitution of views was not justified unless findings were unreasonable. No infirmity was found in the Rent Controller's order, and the revision petition was dismissed.

SMT. GEETA & ORS. VS RAJKIYA SARVODAYA KANYA VIDYALAYA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-5204/2022]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The Industrial Tribunal's award was set aside due to the petitioners, a group of workmen, not being given a fair opportunity to present their case and evidence regarding their demand for regularization of employment as Ayas/House Keeping staff with appropriate pay and benefits. The matter was remanded for a fresh opportunity to record evidence and resolve the dispute within 6 months.

SMT. SATYAWATI VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-9339/2024]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The workman's claim for reinstatement with back wages and benefits was dismissed due to failure to complete his chief examination or provide supporting evidence, despite multiple opportunities. He chose to close his evidence, likely acknowledging the forgery of his appointment documents. The decision of the Labor Court was upheld, and the workman's petition was dismissed.

SUKHVINDER KUMAR BHARDWAJ VS SMT VINITA [RFA-798/2024]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The trial court's order granting a preliminary decree for restoration of possession of property to the landlord was upheld. The tenant's arguments regarding jurisdiction and lack of a formal application were rejected. It was affirmed that the tenancy was for residential purposes, confirming the civil court's jurisdiction. The principle established was that a party cannot contradict or modify a document's terms through oral evidence.

SUMIT KHURANA & ANR VS MOHD IBRAHIM [RC.REV.-138/2019]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The landlord's requirement for the tenanted premises under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was deemed bona fide. The sale of other shops in the building prior to the eviction petition did not imply that the landlord's need for the premises was self-created. The date for assessing bona fide requirement is the date of filing the petition. The lower court's dismissal of the tenants' application to contest the eviction proceedings and the subsequent eviction order were upheld.

SURESH CHAND VS VIJAY SHANKAR [RC.REV.-210/2018]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The orders of the Additional Rent Controller were upheld, dismissing the tenant's applications for leave to contest eviction petitions filed by the landlord. The landlord's requirement for the premises for his son's handicraft export business was deemed bona fide. The tenant failed to present sufficient evidence of reasonably suitable alternate accommodation and merely asserted that the landlord owned other properties without demonstrating their suitability for the stated purpose. Legal principles highlighted the need to balance the landlord's right to expeditious eviction against the tenant's right to defend against eviction proceedings.

SURINDER KUMAR PAWAN KUMAR THR SHRI SURINDER KUMAR VS LAXMAN DAS DHANWARIA [RC.REV.-90/2015]
Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia
The eviction order issued by the Additional Rent Controller against the petitioner/tenant was upheld. The decision to consider it a case of deemed service of summons was supported due to the petitioner's deliberate avoidance of the process server, and the explanation provided by the petitioner regarding late awareness of the proceedings was deemed not credible.

TIGER 4 INDIA LTD VS ASHOK KUMAR RAJAK [W.P.(C)-12670/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Competent Authority under the Delhi Shops and Establishments Act, 1954, required Tiger 4 India Ltd to pay worker Ashok Kumar Rajak Rs. 40,752 in earned wages for February, April, and June 2018. The petitioner company did not contest the proceedings after being served summons. The petition from the company was dismissed, and it was instructed to comply with the payment order within one week.

VANDANA GUPTA VS SURENDER KUMAR SINCE DECEASED THR LRS [RC.REV.-274/2023]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The landlord is deemed the best judge of the suitability of her premises for bona fide requirements. The direction to use a garage as a shop instead of for parking was deemed perverse. The order granting the tenant leave to contest the eviction proceedings was set aside, and the eviction petition was allowed, although the tenant has six months before needing to vacate under the Delhi Rent Control Act.

YAMA MERAJUDDIN VS USHA RATHI & ANR. [RFA-891/2024]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The compromise decree based on a mediation settlement was upheld, and the appeal was deemed not maintainable under Section 96(3) of the Civil Procedure Code. The argument regarding the suit being barred by Section 50 of the Delhi Rent Control Act was rejected, as the rent amount was specified in a registered rent deed. The appeal was dismissed as frivolous, with costs imposed on the appellant.

YATTI DAWAR AND ORS. VS ASHOK KR. GUPTA [RC.REV.-120/2022]

Judges: Justice Girish Kathpalia

The order of the Additional Rent Controller, which dismissed the tenants' applications for leave to contest eviction proceedings and granted eviction under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, was upheld. The tenants did not provide grounds or affidavits to support their contest. There was no reason to doubt the landlord's claim for the premises for his son's garment business, despite the son being involved in the steel business. The eviction order was upheld, and the petition was dismissed.

M/S INNOVATIVE FACILITY SOLUTIONS PVT LTD VS M/S AFFORDABLE INFRASTRUCTURE AND HOUSING PROJECTS PVT LTD & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-369/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The negative covenant in the Service Agreement, which required maintaining status quo during arbitration, is enforceable. Enforcement of this negative covenant does not imply enforcement of a positive covenant, as the parties agreed on this dispute resolution mechanism. The amended Specific Relief Act, 2018 does not apply retrospectively to the 2016 agreement. Parties must maintain status quo regarding the Service Agreement until arbitration is completed or the agreement term expires.

M/S PRADEEP VINOD CONSTRUCTION CO. VS UNION OF INDIA [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-36/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The executing court has the power under Section 47 of the Civil Procedure Code to resolve execution-related questions, even when an award has become final post-statutory challenge period under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. A typographical error in referencing the decree holder as a registered company instead of a partnership firm does not impact the award's merits. The claim that only the arbitrator could correct this error was rejected due to the expiry of the 30-day correction period under Section 33 of the Arbitration Act. Additionally, the objection that the decree holder, being an unregistered partnership firm, cannot enforce the award under Section 69 of the Partnership Act was dismissed, as it had not been raised previously before the arbitrator or in a Section 34 petition.

VANDNA RANI VS INDIAMART INTERMESH LTD [O.M.P.-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition challenging the arbitral award affirming the termination of the petitioner's employment was dismissed. The petitioner did not raise the violation of Section 30 of the Delhi Shops and Establishment Act, 1954 in the statement of claim, leading to its exclusion from consideration. The issue of violation was determined to be non-arbitrable, with jurisdiction resting with the Magistrate of the First Class as per Section 45 of the Act. Additionally, interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act is restricted, supporting the validity of the arbitrator's findings.

M/S CHETANYA BUILDCON PVT. LTD. VS SHRI LALIT MOHAN TEWARI & ORS. [CS(OS)-2103/2007]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The plaintiff's suit for specific performance was dismissed because time was essential to the contract, and the plaintiff did not make payments on time despite several opportunities. The plaintiff was not prepared to fulfill its obligations, failing to demonstrate available funds or communicate about prepared pay orders. Additionally, the consent of certain defendants was obtained through fraud and misrepresentation regarding the consideration paid to other parties. The agreements were validly rescinded, leading to the dismissal of the suit and an award of exemplary costs of Rs. 2 lakhs to each defendant.

IRCON INTERNATIONAL LTD VS AFCONS INFRASTRUCTURE LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-315/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition by IRCON International Ltd. under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was dismissed, affirming the interim award of the Arbitral Tribunal. The Tribunal directed IRCON to return performance bank guarantees totaling Rs. 22,41,17,116/- to AFCONS Infrastructure Ltd. IRCON acknowledged that work was completed on 12.12.2019, with no defects identified since then, which precluded the withholding of the guarantees.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S VISHVA SHANTI BUILDERS(INDIA) PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-179/2016]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Discharge of the appellants from charges under Sections 420 and 120B IPC was valid due to lack of evidence for deliberate withholding of information or conspiracy to deceive. The AICTE approved the 'Business School of Delhi' with knowledge of the bank loan and land mortgage, with no officials implicated in misconduct. The CBI's petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C was maintainable but unsuitable, as a statutory remedy under Section 397 Cr.P.C was available. This case involved multiple appeals addressed in a single judgment.

AZURE HOSPITALITY PVT. LTD. VS M/S. PURUSHA HOSPITALITY & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-176/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition by Azure Hospitality Pvt. Ltd. for an interim injunction against M/s. Purusha Hospitality to continue operations of the "Mamagoto" restaurant was dismissed. The franchise agreement lacked an explicit negative covenant suitable for enforcement through an injunction. A notice terminating the agreement had been issued by the respondent, allowing the petitioner to claim only damages for inadequate notice, not for operations. This case was distinguished from a previous case due to the absence of clear negative covenants in the agreement. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes, including claims for outstanding dues and access to accounts.

ANAND KUMAR SALUJA VS GIRISH KAKAR & ANR [RC.REV.-179/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The eviction decree was upheld in favor of the landlords against the tenant under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. A valid landlord-tenant relationship exists, with the landlords as successors-in-interest and the tenant estopped from challenging their title. The landlords demonstrated a bona fide requirement for the premises for their business. Claims of alternate accommodation made by the tenant were examined and found to be either not owned by the landlords or already sold, indicating a lack of suitable alternate accommodation for the landlords.

SHYAM SUNDER BATRA & ANR VS GIRISH KAKAR & ANR [RC.REV.-178/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The eviction order in favor of the landlords and against the tenants was upheld. A valid landlord-tenant relationship was established, and the landlords demonstrated a bona fide need for the premises for their residence and growing family. The tenants did not present any triable issues to challenge the eviction.

NIRMALA KUMARI & ORS VS GIRISH KAKKAR & ANR [RC.REV.-156/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The eviction order favoring the landlords was upheld based on the established landlord-tenant relationship, with tenants unable to dispute the landlords' title. The landlords' need for the premises for their own residential use was deemed bona fide, and the tenants did not provide evidence of suitable alternate accommodation. The determination of how landlords manage their family was not subject to scrutiny. The original order was maintained without any identified illegality or infirmity.

TARUN KUMAR VS AJAY KUMAR [CS(OS)-186/1980]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The application by Defendant Nos. 3 and 4 for the rejection of the plaintiff's plaint was dismissed. The suit is not barred by Order XXIII Rule 3A of the CPC, as the earlier 1973 partition suit was withdrawn without a decree. The plaintiffs, minor children of Defendant No. 1, have established a prima facie case to challenge prior partitions and alienations of joint family properties, claiming they are unfair and detrimental to their interests as coparceners. The plaintiffs possess the right to seek partition and declaration regarding joint family properties, including those sold by Defendant Nos. 1-4 without legal necessity. Territorial jurisdiction is confirmed as part of the cause of action occurred in Delhi, including property purchases and loans taken by Defendant No. 1.

UNION OF INDIA, THROUGH DEPARTMENT OF POSTS VS M/S. TECH MAHINDRA LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-135/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The Arbitral Award in favor of M/S. Tech Mahindra Ltd. was upheld, with no evidence of patent illegality. The issues surrounding the provision of Service Level Agreements, payment for Milestone 7, and component costs for Milestone 8 were appropriately addressed. The scope of interference with an Arbitral Award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was noted, leading to the dismissal of the petition by the Union of India.

AKSH OPTIFIBRE LIMITED VS NANTONG SIBER COMMUNICATION CO LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-68/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The arbitral award was upheld, establishing a live dispute between the parties despite the petitioner's admission of liability, as the respondent rejected the reasons for delayed payment. The decision to award interest at 8% per annum on the amount of $194,336.91 was deemed appropriate, with no jurisdiction to modify the interest rate under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

KELAWATI VS DDA [W.P.(C)-15808/2006]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The respondent authority (DDA) canceled the allotment made in favor of the petitioner because she did not exercise her vested right for the allotment within the required time frame specified in a previous order. The earlier proceedings focused on the rate for allotment, not the allotment itself. There was no violation of the petitioner's rights or arbitrary action by the DDA in this cancellation, which complied with legal and procedural requirements. The petitioner's writ was dismissed.

MR. SUNIL SETHI VS M/S HERO FINCORP LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-398/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The ex parte arbitral award issued by a sole arbitrator appointed unilaterally by the respondent was set aside due to violations of principles established in prior cases, specifically regarding the restriction on unilateral appointments under Section 12(5) and the Seventh Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Precedent established in "Geeta Poddar vs. Satya Developers Private Limited" supported this conclusion.

M/S UPPER INDIA TRADING CO. PVT. LTD VS M/S HERO FINCORP LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-399/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

An ex parte arbitral award against M/s Upper India Trading Co. Pvt. Ltd. was set aside due to the invalid unilateral appointment of the Sole Arbitrator by M/s Hero Fincorp Ltd. This appointment contradicts the principle that a party with an interest in the dispute cannot unilaterally appoint an arbitrator. Consequently, the arbitration proceedings were deemed legally invalid under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

EKTA ABBOT VS ANKUR ABBOT [CONT.CAS(C)-467/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The respondent cannot invoke the Mental Healthcare Act, 2017 to avoid compliance with an interim maintenance order, lacking a necessary declaration of mental illness from a competent authority. The argument that a pending execution petition bars contempt proceedings is rejected, as contempt is a separate issue. The respondent is guilty of willfully disobeying the maintenance order due to partial payments and unconvincing claims of inability to pay. A show-cause notice is issued regarding potential punishment for contempt.

VIJAY KUMAR AGARWAL VS MS KADAMBARI AWASTHI [CONT.CAS(C)-1580/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The issuance of non-bailable warrants against the petitioner was found to be contrary to established principles, as the petitioner had previously appeared in court and requested an adjournment. The decision to issue the warrants was deemed unwarranted, but no contempt proceedings were initiated due to the lack of allegations of misconduct. Non-bailable warrants and the notice to the surety were stayed for 8 weeks, allowing the petitioner to challenge or seek their recall.

ABB INDIA LTD VS POWER FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-648/2021]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The plaint filed by ABB India Ltd. against Power Finance Corporation Limited and another discloses a cause of action and is not subject to rejection under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The June 2017 Minutes of Meeting impose binding obligations on the defendants to make monthly payments to the plaintiff from the Trust and Retention Account. Arguments that the June 2017 MoM is unstamped and inadmissible, as well as claims of limitation, are rejected. The suit is classified under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, pertaining to a construction and infrastructure contract.

ADAVYA PROJECTS PVT. LTD. VS M/S VISHAL STRUCTURALS PVT. LTD & ORS. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-24/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Arbitration proceedings against respondents 2 and 3 are not maintainable due to the petitioner's failure to serve a notice under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 before initiating arbitration. A Section 21 notice is mandatory, and the arbitral tribunal can address issues regarding non-signatory parties. The petitioner only included respondent 1 in the Section 11 petition for appointing an arbitrator and cannot later seek to include respondents 2 and 3 when filing the statement of claim. This matter stands independently and is not part of a batch of cases.

ADEPT POWER PVT LTD VS BEAUX ARTS CONSTRUCTION SERIVCES COMPANY [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-112/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition by Adept Power Pvt Ltd for termination of the arbitral tribunal's mandate was dismissed. The existence of an arbitration agreement could not be re-agitated, as it had been previously established. Regarding Section 29A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, since arbitration proceedings were initiated before the 2015 amendment, the earlier provisions applied, making Section 29A inapplicable. The arbitral tribunal's decision to continue the proceedings was upheld.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LIMITED VS M/S ANOOP OSWAL HOSIERY AND ORS [ARB.P.-203/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition by Aditya Birla Finance Limited under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of an arbitrator is maintainable, even with ongoing SARFAESI proceedings, as both can coexist. The petition was properly signed and verified, supported by the authorized representative's ratified letter of authority and board resolution. A common arbitration proceeding is valid since all loan facility agreements and the Deed of Guarantee relate to the same loan document dated 29.10.2019. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between the petitioner and respondent Nos. 1 to 5, with all parties' rights and contentions left open for future determination.

AHLUWALIA CONTRACTS INDIA LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH EXECUTIVE ENGINEER CPWD & ANR. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-477/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The fees of the sole arbitrator must be calculated separately for the claimant's claims and the respondent's counterclaims, following the Supreme Court's judgment in ONGC Ltd. v. Afcons Gunanusa JV. The previous determination of fees by the arbitrator, based on a now-overturned High Court judgment, is overruled. The parties are instructed to pay the correct amounts to the arbitrator, who will then publish the award.

ANJANA KUMAR VS VIVEK GOEL & ANR. [CS(OS)-290/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The plaintiff is entitled to a preliminary decree of partition, granting her a 1/3rd undivided share in the property. The defendants' claim of an oral partition in 2002 was rejected due to the lack of strong documentary evidence. The decision emphasized the high burden of proof required to establish an oral partition and was based on admissions on record, negating the need for a full trial.

ASHOK JAIN AND ORS. VS RAJESHWAR NATH GUPTA AND ORS. [CS(OS)-2069/1998]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Property No. 4, Cavalry Lines, measuring 3504.57 sq. metres, was deemed capable of partition. It was established that the property was divided between the Gupta family and the Jain family at the time of the Agreements to Sell executed in 1983. The Perpetual Lease Deed did not prohibit such division, and documents from 1983, including site plans, supported this division. Factors such as separate construction, mutations, and lease rent payments affirmed the partition. The purdah wall built by the Jain family was found to be a partitioning measure. Subsequent sale deeds from 2000 further confirmed the division. The suit filed by the Gupta family was dismissed, while the Jain family was granted a declaration of ownership and possession over the North-Eastern half of the property, along with an injunction against the Gupta family.

ASSETS CARE AND RECONSTRUCTION ENTERPRISE LIMITED VS DOMUS GREENS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-78/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Assets Care and Reconstruction Enterprise Limited has registered charges over the projects "ATS Picturesque Reprieves" and "ATS Dolce" under the Companies Act, 2013, which take precedence over any unregistered charge claimed by Dalmia Group. The appeal filed by Assets Care under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, challenging orders of the Sole Arbitrator, is maintainable, consistent with a prior judgment in Asset Reconstruction Co. India Ltd. v. ATS Infrastructure Ltd.

BAL KISHAN GUPTA VS D.D.A. [W.P.(C)-10285/2005]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petitioner demonstrated settled possession of the property, having purchased it from the legal heirs of the previous occupant, Mr. Jiwan Mal. The respondent DDA conducted a demolition without providing a show cause notice or the opportunity for the petitioner to present his case, violating principles of natural justice. While the title of the property remained undetermined, the petitioner's settled possession prevented the DDA from proceeding with demolition without due process. A writ of prohibition was issued to restrain the DDA from demolishing the petitioner's house or dispossessing him without following lawful procedures.

BHAGWAN DASS VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS [W.P.(C)-6883/2016]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petitioner was entitled to an LIG Flat No. 93 at the old allotment rate of 1994 due to the Delhi Development Authority's failure to send allotment letters to the correct address. The DDA cannot benefit from its mistake by charging the petitioner the prevailing rate from 2016.

BHAYANA BUILDERS PVT. LTD. VS HINDUSTAN INFRASTRUCTURE CONSTRUCTION & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-23/2019]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition by Bhayana Builders Pvt. Ltd. to set aside the arbitral award dated 29.09.2018 was dismissed. The arbitrator did not address the personal dealings between the petitioner and Mr. Kamal Kumar, which was the key issue raised. The scope for interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act is limited and does not allow for re-appreciation of evidence. No grounds for interference with the arbitral award were established.

BIJENDER SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-292/2020]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The lower court's order to register an FIR against the investigating officer violated procedural safeguards under the SC/ST Act by not obtaining the required administrative inquiry report. The allegations against the investigating officer were examined and found to be unmeritorious, as the investigation was deemed fair. The lower court was unable to interfere with the discretion of the investigating officer. The lower court's order was set aside.

CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGTATION VS MAHESH AGARWALLA & ANR. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1331/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition filed by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) was allowed, and the orders passed by the Special Judge were set aside. Applications from the accused under Section 91 of the Criminal Procedure Code for copies of request letters from the CBI to the Ministry of Home Affairs were deemed non-maintainable at the pre-charge stage. It was established that the accused does not have the right to seek document production during charge framing, as their defense is not pertinent at that time. The trial court is limited to examining documents included in the chargesheet for charge framing. The CBI claimed privilege over the requested documents under Sections 123 and 124 of the Indian Evidence Act, but this claim was not addressed due to the non-maintainability of the applications.

DEEPA CHAWLA VS RAHEJA DEVELOPERS LTD [CS(OS)-416/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The dispute is not subject to the arbitration clause in the Flat Buyer's Agreement because the claims are based on a separate Second Agreement, which takes precedence and lacks an arbitration clause. The Second Agreement stipulates the defendant's obligation to refund the sale consideration if the flat is not handed over, making it outside the scope of the arbitration clause. The application to refer the dispute to arbitration is dismissed.

DELHI JAL BOARD VS M/S ENVIROTECH OVERSEAS INDIA LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-513/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition filed by the Delhi Jal Board to set aside the arbitral award dated 31.12.2017 was dismissed. The arbitrator's decision to allow the respondent's claims for the release of the security deposit and payment of outstanding bills was upheld, supported by the issuance of a completion certificate by the petitioner and continued use of the respondent's maintenance services. The petitioner's counter-claims were rejected due to lack of supporting documentation. The challenge to the arbitral award was dismissed, and the enforcement of the award was ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF LAND RESOURCES VS MUKESH AND ASSOCIATES [O.M.P. (COMM)-591/2020]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition filed by the Department of Land Resources to set aside the arbitral award in favor of Mukesh and Associates was dismissed. The arbitrator's findings on factual irregularities and lack of competent approval were deemed reasonable, and internal irregularities within the government department were not grounds for invalidating the contract. The interpretation that benefits under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, 2006, including interest, are independent of Section 18 was accepted. No merit was found in the reasons for setting aside the award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

GANNON DUNKERLEY AND COMPANY LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS [ARB.P.-1073/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petitioner's prior writ petitions filed before the Gauhati High Court do not constitute a waiver of the arbitration clause, especially since the petitions have been withdrawn in favor of pursuing arbitration. Under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, only the existence of the arbitration agreement is examined, while issues of arbitrability will be addressed by the arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to handle the disputes, with all contentions regarding arbitrability remaining to be resolved by the tribunal.

GARG BUILDERS VS HINDUSTAN PREFAB LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-699/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Garg Builders is entitled to appoint a Sole Arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, due to Hindustan Prefab Limited and the National Disaster Response Force's failure to appoint an arbitrator after the arbitration clause was invoked. This case differs from others involving conditional arbitration clauses, allowing for an arbitrator's appointment despite inaction. A retired judge, Justice G.S. Sistani, was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes.

GARG TRADING CO VS VIJAY MEHRA & ORS [RC.REV.-45/2015]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The eviction petition filed by the landlords under the Delhi Rent Control Act was maintainable against the tenants/sub-tenants. A valid landlord-tenant relationship was established, along with a genuine and bonafide need for the premises for residential and commercial purposes, and a lack of suitable alternate accommodation. Arguments from the tenants/sub-tenants against the eviction petition were rejected, leading to the upholding of the eviction order.

GROWTH TECHNO PROJECTS LIMITED VS ISHWAR INDUSTRIES LIMITED [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-224/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The enforcement petition for the arbitral award dated July 17, 2007 was deemed to be within the limitation period, calculated from October 23, 2015, following the amendment to Section 36 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The pre-amendment version imposed an automatic stay on enforcement upon filing a Section 34 challenge, which was lifted by the 2015 amendment. Consequently, the limitation period resumed on October 23, 2015, with the period from October 30, 2007, to October 23, 2015, excluded for limitation calculation under Section 15(1) of the Limitation Act.

IIDL(IFCI INFRASTUCTURE DEVELOPMENT LTD) VS SUBIR ENGINEERING WORKS (P) LTD & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-227/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The Arbitral Award regarding the reimbursement of VAT bills claimed by the contractor was upheld. The Sole Arbitrator thoroughly examined the evidence and arguments presented. The earlier Letters of Intent indicated that the contractor's rates were exclusive of taxes, entitling the contractor to VAT reimbursement until the LOI dated 17.09.2012, which stated rates as inclusive of taxes. The contractual terms bind the parties, including the earlier LOIs. The petitioner's argument about non-payment of VAT was not presented to the Arbitrator, which limited the ability to address it. No issues of perversity or illegality were identified in the decision on Claim No. 3.

INDIAN RAILWAYS CATERING AND TOURISM CORP LTD VS BRANDAVAN FOOD PRODUCTS [OMC-411/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The arbitral award was partially set aside, with findings on the claim for reimbursement of the price differential for the second Regular Meal deemed erroneous and an improper rewriting of the contract. The findings regarding the reimbursement of the cost of the Welcome Drink were upheld due to valid reasoning. The issues of limitation, exclusion of time under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, and the maintainability of claims despite the lack of challenge to commercial circulars were also upheld. This matter involved various connected petitions.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRANSPORT ASSOCIATION THROUGH ITS HEAD IATA INDIA BRANCH MR RODNEY AUGUSTINE D CRUZ VS SPRING TRAVELS PVT LTD THROUGH ITS MANAGING DIRECTOR MR MANDEEP SINGH ANAND [O.M.P.(EFA)(COMM.)-1/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The enforcement of a foreign arbitral award against Spring Travels Pvt. Ltd. (STPL) was upheld, requiring STPL to pay the International Air Transport Association (IATA) over R.S. 124 crores, plus interest and costs, for failing to remit ticket sale proceeds. The Arbitral Tribunal properly addressed its jurisdiction, STPL's waiver of pre-conditions, and STPL's ability to present its case. STPL's objections related to limitation, non-joinder of parties, and evidentiary requirements were rejected as well. The Tribunal's findings were considered either correct or plausible, and the merits of the case could not be re-examined.

ISHWAR CHAND JAIN VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR [W.P.(C)-7714/2014]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The DDA failed to send the Demand-cum-Allotment Letter to the petitioner's last known address, violating its duty. The petitioner cannot be penalized for this mistake. Previous arguments about delay and laches were dismissed, with the petitioner acting promptly after learning of the allotment in 2013. The DDA is directed to allot an equivalent flat to the petitioner at 1996 rates within 4 weeks, as the actions of the DDA were deemed arbitrary and malafide, and the petitioner is entitled to the allotment based on the 1979 registration.

JEGER ALI OAGAZ VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2849/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Jeger Ali Oagaz was not guilty under Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959 for possessing a cartridge, as he lacked conscious possession of it. He had borrowed a bag from his brother, a Lieutenant Colonel, in which the cartridge was inadvertently left. Evidence indicated he was unaware of the cartridge's presence and did not possess it intentionally. A cost of Rs. 15,000 was ordered for causing police action, after which the FIR was quashed.

KARMYOGI SHELTERS PVT. LTD. VS BENARSI KRISHNA COMMITTEE & ANR. [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-208/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Judgment-debtor No. 1 tendered a decretal amount of Rs. 41 lakhs with interest to the decree-holder, who refused to accept the payment. Interest ceased to run from the date of the tender despite the refusal. Arguments from the decree-holder regarding the inapplicability of Order XXI CPC and the execution petition being time-barred were rejected. Judgment-debtor Nos. 2A to 2C were not parties to the arbitral proceedings and could not be included in the execution petition.

KINGS FURNISHING AND SAFE COMPANY VS CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF JHARKHAND [OMC-12/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Filing a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 does not require a pre-deposit of 75% of the awarded amount as mandated by Section 19 of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006. However, consideration of the petition is contingent upon the petitioner making the required pre-deposit. The respondent's application for dismissal of the petition was rejected, and the petitioner was granted four weeks to deposit the shortfall and six weeks to deposit 25% of the remaining balance.

KKH FINVEST PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS JONAS HAGGARD & ORS. [ARB.P.-38/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The arbitration clause in the Memorandum of Settlement can bind respondent nos. 2-5, who were non-signatories but significantly involved in its performance. Respondent no. 6 is not bound by this clause due to a severance clause in the Share Purchase Agreement. There is no basis to bind respondent nos. 7-9 to arbitration due to a lack of direct contractual relationship. Justice T.S. Thakur appointed as sole arbitrator for disputes between the petitioners and respondent nos. 2-5, with all legal objections reserved for the arbitral tribunal. No direction regarding the consolidation of proceedings with ongoing arbitration was issued as the issue was considered premature.

KMP EXPRESSWAYS LTD VS IDBI BANK LIMITED [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-553/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

A petition by KMP Expressways Ltd under Section 29A(4) and 29A(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, for an extension of time to make an arbitral award until 25.09.2024 has been accepted. An application for extension can be submitted even after the arbitral tribunal's mandate has expired, based on a purposive interpretation of Section 29A. This interpretation considers the substantial time and resources invested by the parties and aims to prevent further delays and costs associated with starting new proceedings. Previous contrary views in earlier decisions were not followed, relying instead on established precedents.

LAKHAN SINGH & ANR. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6362/2013]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The writ petition by the legal heirs of a deceased minor child is maintainable under Article 226 of the Constitution. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is vicariously and absolutely liable for the child's death due to negligence in maintaining sewer manholes and ensuring public safety. Compensation of Rs. 23,95,760 is to be paid to the petitioners, including standard compensation of Rs. 3,70,760 and pecuniary loss of Rs. 20,25,000, along with 9% interest from the date of filing until payment. The issue of DDA's recovery of the compensation from the private contractor is left for future adjudication.

M/S DEEPAK AND CO. VS INDIAN RAILWAY CATERING AND TOURISM CORPORATION LTD. [OMF-98/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The Final Award by the Sole Arbitrator favoring the respondent-claimant was upheld. The welcome drink, including wet tissues, was deemed part of the contract, entitling the respondent to production charges, service charges, and service tax. The arbitrator's interpretation regarding these charges was deemed reasonable. An implied contract for service charges and service tax on the welcome drink was recognized. The arbitrator's decision on the respondent's entitlement to GST was well-reasoned and based on the evidence. The award of interest and costs fell within the arbitrator's discretion. The challenge to the Arbitral Award was dismissed.

M/S RCC INFRAVENTURES LTD & ORS. VS M/S DMI FINANCE PVT LTD & ORS. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-41/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petitioners demonstrated sufficient cause for the delay in arbitral proceedings, leading to an extension of the sole arbitrator's mandate by one year. The delay was deemed not inordinate, all pleadings were completed, and the petitioners had paid the full fees of the arbitrator, indicating their intent to conclude the proceedings. The regularized period was set from 31.08.2023 until the date of the judgment.

M/S STAR SHARES & STOCK BROKERS LTD VS PRAVEEN GUPTA & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-516/2019]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Star Shares & Stock Brokers Ltd. is liable to pay Praveen Gupta a security deposit of Rs 20 lakhs plus interest at 18% per annum until the date of award. The Arbitral Tribunal based its decision on findings from the High Court of Bombay and awarded future interest at 12% per annum if the amount is not paid within 30 days. Other claims by the respondent were rejected as time-barred. The petition from the petitioner company against the arbitral award was dismissed, with findings supported by evidence and limited jurisdiction under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

M/S SURYA ENGINEERS VS NETAJI SUBHAS UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-8/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The arbitral award in favor of Surya Engineers was upheld, rejecting NSIT's challenge. Delay in the construction project was attributed to NSIT's actions, including late issuance of drawings and brick approvals. The rescission of the contract by NSIT was deemed unjust and illegal. The interpretation of contract terms, especially regarding price escalation, was considered reasonable. The quantification of claims, interest, and litigation costs awarded to Surya Engineers remained unchanged. Surya Engineers' execution petition against NSIT was also allowed.

M/S TODAY REALTY PRIVATE LIMITED AND ANR. VS GUNVEEN SINGH [CS(COMM)-458/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The defendant's application for leave to defend a suit under Order XXXVII of the Code of Civil Procedure was rejected due to the defense being considered frivolous and lacking genuine triable issues. The plaintiffs were granted a decree for amounts paid to the defendant under two agreements, along with 9% per annum interest.

MADHURI KUMAR VS KARAN KAPOOR [CS(OS)-638/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was dismissed due to inconsistencies with the original plaint, as the proposed amendments related to payments of R.S. 60 lakhs and R.S. 1.5 crores would cause injustice to the defendants and alter the cause of action. The defendant's application for rejection of the plaint was rejected, with the plaintiff adequately pleading readiness and willingness to perform the contract, and the enforceability of agreements had not yet been examined. Two suits were consolidated, with an additional issue framed regarding the enforceability of the Agreements to Sell dated 25.05.2017 and 30.12.2017. A local commissioner was appointed to record evidence, and trial completion was directed within five months. The matter is scheduled for final arguments on 09.07.2024.

MOHD. AMIN (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS & ORS. VS MOHD. IQBAL (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS & ORS. [O.M.P. (COMM)-250/2021]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The petition challenging the arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The findings on the applicability of Section 14 of the Limitation Act, the award of compensation for demolished structures, and the rejection of the counter-claim were deemed well-reasoned and justified. No misconduct or excess of jurisdiction by the arbitrator was identified, affirming the validity and reasoning of the award.

MR AMIT AGARWAL VS MR TANUJ AGARWAL [CS(OS)-135/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The plaintiff is declared the owner of half the undivided share of the suit property, supported by the defendant's clear admission of a registered sale deed favoring the plaintiff. The defendant's claim of having paid the entire consideration does not invalidate the sale deed, as there was no counter-claim to cancel it. A Local Commissioner has been appointed to recommend methods for partitioning the property.

MRS. PRABHA MANDAL VS WTC, NOIDA DEVELOPMENT COMPANY PVT. LTD. & ANR. [ARB.P.-76/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The appointment of an arbitrator by a promoter with an interest in the dispute is impermissible under Section 12(5) and Schedule VII of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes between the parties, who were directed to approach the arbitrator within two weeks.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS GURUVAYOOR INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD. [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-97/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The interim order dated 02.05.2024 requires the respondent to maintain a minimum balance of Rs. 100 crores in the escrow account and make monthly payments of Rs. 10 crores towards the negative grant owed to the petitioner. The order aligns with the waterfall mechanism in the Concession and Escrow Agreements. Arguments regarding the respondent's right to collect toll fees and the effect on project O&M expenses lacked merit. The existence of pending contempt proceedings before the arbitral tribunal does not impede enforcement proceedings. This matter involves applications for modification of the aforementioned interim order in connection with an enforcement petition against Guruvayoor Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd.

NHPC LTD VS APAAR INFRATECH PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-219/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The arbitrator's decision on the banning order and the award of damages for loss of profit was upheld, based on the termination of the contract falling under the arbitration clause. The award of damages was deemed justified in light of Supreme Court precedents regarding wrongful termination. However, the award of interest from the date of reference to the date of the award was set aside, as it contradicted the contract's terms stating that no interest shall be payable on disputed amounts.

PARVEZ AHMED VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-1859/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The offence of money laundering under section 3 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) was not applicable to the petitioners. Merely collecting funds to commit a future scheduled offence does not qualify as "proceeds of crime," as the funds must originate from criminal activity related to the scheduled offence. The petitioners' role was limited to collecting and depositing funds without having dominion over alleged "proceeds of crime." Additionally, the petitioners' lengthy incarceration of over 2 years and the potential for a prolonged trial violated their fundamental right to liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution, leading to the granting of bail under specific conditions.

PERNOD RICARD INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS KHAO GALI RESTAURANTS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-281/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Pernod Ricard India Private Limited, as the surety, is entitled to recover Rs. 35,88,59,676.11 debited by HSBC upon invoking the corporate guarantee issued for a loan to Khao Gali Restaurants Private Limited. Arguments from Khao Gali Restaurants for leave to defend were rejected as they did not raise any triable issues.

PULIN COMTRADE LIMITED VS THE HANDICRAFTS AND HANDLOOMS EXPORTS CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-81/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Pulin Comtrade Limited's petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 successfully challenged the sole arbitrator's decision regarding the non-grant of interest for the period from April 1, 2015, to March 31, 2017. The arbitrator did not consider the contractual terms, particularly Clause 8.4, which required the crediting of term deposits and accrued interest to the petitioner. The reasoning for denying interest was found to lack valid grounds and contradicted the agreement's express terms. The petitioner is entitled to pursue further legal actions, and all relevant issues can be addressed in a fresh petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration Act.

RAM NATH VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-2544/2011]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The cancellation of the flat allotment to the petitioner by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was deemed illegal and a violation of natural justice. The DDA later restored the allotment and updated the records in the petitioner's name, nullifying the earlier cancellation. The DDA did not produce evidence of the cancellation letter and failed to issue a show cause notice prior to the cancellation. Consequently, the cancellation order dated 12.07.2010 was quashed, and the DDA was instructed to send a final demand letter and provide possession of the flat. If the original flat was unavailable, the DDA was required to allot a Category-II SFS flat in Jasola to the petitioner.

S C GUPTA & ANR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR [W.P.(C)-143/2012]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The cancellation of the petitioner's lease by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was found to be faulty due to a lack of proper show-cause notice specifying the area of misuse. The DDA's reports on the extent of misuse varied between 12.71 sq. meters and 109.48 sq. meters. It was established that the petitioner misused 19.34 sq. meters for storage and office purposes, violating lease terms. The DDA was instructed to calculate misuser charges for this area from January 15, 1986, until the cancellation date, and the petitioner was permitted to pay these charges to restore the lease and convert the property from leasehold to freehold. Inconsistencies in the DDA's stance on the misuse were highlighted as part of the analysis.

SH. ASHISH JAIN AND ANR. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-10621/2017]
Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh
The rejection of the building plan by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was deemed arbitrary and lacking valid reasons. The conveyance deed specified "two level parking with commercial component as per MPD 2021," and the DDA could not rescind this arrangement due to a typographical error. The Master Plan of Delhi 2021 (MPD 2021) allows a maximum of 25% commercial component in multi-level parking projects, binding the DDA to comply with its provisions. A writ of mandamus was issued for DDA to sanction the building plan according to the conveyance deed terms.

SH. HARI KRISHAN AGGARWAL VS TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT BOARD [O.M.P. (COMM)-301/2022]
Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh
The arbitration award dated 06.10.2021 was set aside due to the unilateral appointment of the sole arbitrator by the Chairperson of the Technology Development Board, which violates the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. An express written agreement is required to waive the applicability of Section 12(5) of the Act regarding arbitrator ineligibility due to interest in the dispute; mere conduct or oral statements are insufficient for a valid waiver.

SH. MOHAN MURTI SHANDILYA VS BANK OF BARODA AND ORS. [CS(OS)-1154/1993]
Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh
The lawsuit by NRI business owners against the defendant bank was maintainable and within the limitation period. The plaintiffs failed to prove allegations of the bank illegally transferring R.S. 2 crores from their NRE account. Inconsistencies in the plaintiffs' pleadings, continued dealings with the bank post-allegation, and admission of signing discrepancies undermined their claims. Reliance on an RTI reply from the RBI lacked proper evidence as per the Evidence Act. Despite concerns about the bank's practices, the plaintiffs did not establish fraud or forgery, resulting in the dismissal of the suit with no recovery awarded.

SHARAD GUPTA & ORS. VS SHRI VINAYAK INFRALAND PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-266/2023]
Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh
The application by defendant No. 1 under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 to refer the dispute to arbitration was dismissed. The suit included claims against defendant No. 5, who is not part of the arbitration agreement, making the referral improper as the Arbitration Act does not permit splitting parties or issues. Additionally, defendant No. 1 had previously invoked the arbitration clause in 2018 but failed to make further progress, leading to potential limitation issues.

SIMMI SETHI VS M/S HERO FINCORP LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-400/2022]
Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh
The ex parte arbitral award dated 17.05.2022 in favor of M/s Hero Fincorp Ltd against Simmi Sethi was set aside. The unilateral appointment of the sole arbitrator by the respondent was invalid under principles established by the Supreme Court and barred under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. As a result, the entire arbitration proceedings were considered non-est in law.

SPRNG ENERGY PRIVATE LIMITED VS FS INDIA SOLAR VENTURES PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-261/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The dispute regarding the interpretation of "Confirmed Volume" and "Purchase Orders" under the MSA requires detailed pleadings and evidence, falling outside the scope of a Section 9 petition. The bank guarantee operates as an independent contract, and its invocation does not depend on the terms of the MSA. Restraint on invoking the bank guarantee is permissible only in cases of egregious fraud or irretrievable harm, which were not established. The contention that an additional Rs. 45 crore held by the respondent affects the invocation of the bank guarantee was also rejected, as the guarantee stands apart from other securities. The petition was dismissed, and the prior stay on the invocation of the bank guarantee was vacated.

SUBIR ENGINEERING WORKS (P)LTD. VS IIDL (IFCL INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT LTD) & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-331/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 has a limited scope, with no power to modify an arbitral award. The sole arbitrator's decisions on the quantum of claims and interest rate were deemed discretionary, not perverse or illegal. A petition seeking partial setting aside of the arbitral award was dismissed.

SUPREME INFRASTRUCTURE INDIA LTD VS CENTRAL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT [O.M.P. (COMM)-442/2018]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The arbitral award dated 05.06.2018 was set aside due to the invalid appointment of the sole arbitrator by the Chief Project Manager of the Central Public Works Department. This appointment was deemed invalid under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as the Chief Project Manager had a controlling influence over the respondent, making them ineligible to appoint the arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL HOUSING FINANCE LIMITED VS BEENA SHARMA & ANR. [ARB.P.-339/2024]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

Tata Capital Housing Finance Limited validly invoked the jurisdiction of Delhi courts to appoint an arbitrator under the arbitration clause in its loan agreement with Beena Sharma and another. The loan agreement allowed the petitioner to select the seat of arbitration from several cities, and the petitioner chose Delhi, leading to the filing in the Delhi High Court. The argument that Jaipur should have jurisdiction due to the execution of the agreement and the residence of the respondents was rejected. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, with the arbitration to take place under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

UNION OF INDIA EXECUTIVE ENGINEER A-DIVN. CPWD. VS M/S ROSHAN REAL ESTATE PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-480/2023]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The Arbitral Tribunal awarded the respondent's claim for extra items executed under a contract, recognizing both parties' failure to comply with Clause 12.2.A of the General Condition of Contract. The Tribunal determined the rates for these items based on submitted evidence and approved rates from the Engineer-in-Charge and Superintending Engineer. The decision was deemed reasonable and justified, leading to the dismissal of the petition with no grounds found for interference with the Arbitral Award.

USHA RANI GUPTA VS D.D.A. & ANR [W.P.(C)-8598/2007]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The writ petition seeking to quash the rejection of a petrol pump site resitement and request for an alternate site was dismissed. The petitioner lacked locus standi due to no privity of contract with the Delhi Development Authority (DDA). Both the petitioner and the second respondent concealed material facts about a site cancellation from 1997, which was confirmed by their own correspondences. The 1997 site cancellation was deemed valid as it remained unchallenged for 10 years and was not modified by the DDA. The DDA rightfully rejected the resitement application since the site had been cancelled and did not qualify as an "existing" petrol pump site under the resitement policy.

VANDANA BATRA VS ANUPAM GUPTA & ANR. [CS(OS)-289/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The amendment application by Defendant No. 1 to add additional properties in the written statement was allowed, as these properties were already part of Defendant No. 2's written statement, and their inclusion would not prejudice the Plaintiff. The decision clarified that the merits of proposed amendments need not be addressed at the amendment stage, emphasizing a liberal approach to amendments, particularly in written statements. The issue of limitation regarding the inclusion of properties can be addressed separately to reduce litigation complexity.

VIMAL KIRTI GUPTA VS RAJAN GUPTA [CONT.CAS(C)-233/2022]

Judges: Justice Jasmeet Singh

The respondent is guilty of willful disobedience of a maintenance order from 19.02.2021, despite having financial means to comply. Ownership of properties and operation of a business indicate financial ability. The respondent received a sentence of 1 month of simple imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 2,000 for contempt of court. The pending appeal against the order does not exempt compliance in the absence of a stay.

A AND A AUTOMOBILES PRIVATE LIMITED VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1978/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The order of the Metropolitan Magistrate dismissing the petitioner's application under Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code was upheld. The reason for the dishonor of the cheques was identified as "payment stopped by the drawer," not insufficient funds or exceeding the arrangement. The petitioner's concerns were deemed misplaced, and no issues were found in the Magistrate's order, leading to the disposal of the petition and pending application.

A.K. MALIK VS STATE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2576/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner is not entitled to pensionary benefits after being compulsorily retired from the State Bank of India without completing 25 years of pensionable service. The penalty of compulsory retirement is valid, and the amended Pension Rules only apply to voluntary retirements. The petitioner did not fulfill the criteria of 20 years of pensionable service with 50 years of age or 25 years of pensionable service. An opportunity is provided for the petitioner to seek condonation of the remaining period of less than 3 months to complete 25 years of pensionable service, which will be considered in accordance with the law.

ADITYA SINGH (MINOR) VS CONSORTIUM OF NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITIES [W.P.(C)-17138/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Petitioner's objections regarding the answer key for questions 14 and 100 in the Common Law Admission Test-2025 were validated due to clear errors. A revision of the Petitioner's result is to be made accordingly. However, challenges to other questions were not addressed as their correctness requires expert examination, highlighting the limited scope of intervention in academic examination matters.

AJAY KUMAR GULATI VS STATE BANK OF BIKANER & JAIPUR [W.P.(C)-7773/2002]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The departmental inquiry proceedings, inquiry report, and penalty order against the petitioner were quashed due to flaws in the inquiry process, including the denial of access to defense documents, which breached natural justice principles. The inquiry report and penalty order improperly relied on findings from a previously set aside inquiry. The bank is directed to reinstate the petitioner notionally from the date of discharge and to release the arrears of pension.

GOPAL SINGH VS INDRAPRASTHA POWER GENERATION COMPANY LIMITED & PRAGATI POWER COROPORATION LIMITED & ANR [W.P.(C)-13277/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Petitioners are entitled to promotions to Deputy Manager (Technical) retroactive to the date their juniors were promoted, due to the upgrading of their Annual Confidential Reports (ACRs) from 'Average' to 'Good'. The respondents failed to initially communicate the 'Average' ACRs and did not conduct a review DPC after the upgrades. The argument that the upgradation should be considered only in future DPCs was rejected. A review DPC must be conducted based on the upgraded ACRs, and if the petitioners qualify, their seniority should be restored along with all consequential benefits.

AJMER SINGH VS DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION & ORS [W.P.(C)-5741/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Ajmer Singh's writ petition was allowed, leading to the quashing of the Delhi School Tribunal's judgment, charge memo, inquiry proceedings, and penalty order. Violations of natural justice and procedure during the departmental inquiry were identified, particularly the deprivation of the right to cross-examine witnesses, which caused prejudice. The inquiry report was criticized for using a "reverse engineering" approach to implicate Singh without proper evidence analysis. The Director of Education incorrectly recommended compulsory retirement, lacking the authority to modify punishment. Singh, having reached the age of superannuation, was granted notional reinstatement with all consequential retiral benefits.

AKIL VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-117/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Akil and Mohd Yasin were convicted under Sections 489B and 489C of the Indian Penal Code for possessing and using counterfeit currency notes. A substantial quantity of counterfeit notes was recovered from them, and their inability to provide a reasonable explanation for this possession indicated their knowledge and intention to use the notes as genuine. Testimonies from police witnesses and an FSL report confirmed the notes were counterfeit, supporting the conviction. The appeals against their conviction and sentence lacked merit.

AMARJIT SINGH CHHABRA (A.S.CHHBRA) VS FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-629/2010]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The petitioner, a retired Executive Director of the Food Corporation of India (FCI), could not claim ignorance of FCI circulars regarding guest house stays and House Rent Allowance (HRA). Evidence showed the petitioner overstayed in guest houses beyond the allowed two months on two occasions, justifying the deduction of amounts from his salary and retirement benefits. Allegations of discrimination were dismissed, as similar recoveries were made from other officers for similar discrepancies. The writ petition was dismissed.

AMARJIT SINGH VS PUNJAB & SIND BANK [W.P.(C)-1289/2015]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The charge sheet issued to the retired petitioner by the General Manager (P) was illegal as this authority did not qualify as the Competent Authority under the Pension Regulations. Disciplinary proceedings after retirement must be initiated only by the CMD for officers in Scale-IV and above. The charge sheet, inquiry proceedings, and penalty order were quashed because the initial charge sheet was void due to lack of jurisdiction and could not be ratified by subsequent actions.

AMIT KUMAR SHARMA VS NTPC AND ANR [W.P.(C)-8331/2010]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The writ petition challenging the selection process for the Law Officer-E1 position at NTPC was dismissed. The selection process adhered to NTPC's Recruitment Policy, allowing the Selection Board to assess candidates based on qualifications, experience, test performance, professional competence, and overall personality. The Board deemed the petitioner unsuitable for the position, and this decision could not be challenged without allegations of bias or arbitrariness. Furthermore, when the petition was filed in 2010, the vacancies had been filled, and the petitioner could not claim the remaining vacancy as it was reserved for the OBC category, which did not include the petitioner.

APOORVI SOOD VS NETAJI SUBHAS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10664/2018]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The appointments of the petitioners as Assistant Professors are to be considered regular and permanent, despite being initially offered on a contractual basis. A Supreme Court judgment established that appointments following a regular selection process should be treated as substantive, regardless of initial contract language. The Selection Committee's decision to categorize selected candidates into regular and contractual groups was deemed arbitrary, as the job advertisement did not indicate any contractual appointments. The petitioners' appointments will be treated as regular and permanent along with all corresponding benefits.

RANJANA TREHAN VS RAMJAS SCHOOL ANAND PARVAT SENIOR WING THROUGH ITS V CHAIRMAN MR VINOD GUPTA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12603/2023]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The suspension orders against the petitioner teachers from Ramjas School were deemed invalid due to non-compliance with Section 8(4) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules, 1973, as prior approval from the Director of Education was not obtained. The claim that the school, being an unaided private institution, was exempt from this requirement was rejected. The suspension orders were quashed, and the school was instructed to pay the petitioners their full salaries and benefits for the suspension period.

ARUN G S VS DR RAM MANOHAR LOHIA HOSPITAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12470/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition by Arun G S for a relieving order from Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital to pursue an M.Sc. Nursing Psychiatric course was dismissed. The hospital's denial of study leave was justified under the guidelines set forth in a circular dated 05.03.2024, which governed such requests. Arun's notification regarding his exam rank was deemed insufficient as an application for study leave. Additionally, the hospital had already approved study leaves for 15 other applicants prior to Arun's request, and granting his application at that point would disrupt the hospital's operations due to nursing staff shortages.

ASHOK KUMAR SHRIMALI VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10451/2006]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner is entitled to consideration for promotion to the posts of Advisor and Senior Advisor, despite the winding up of the Indian Investment Centre. A Departmental Promotion Committee must be convened to evaluate the petitioner's case for promotion according to the draft Recruitment Rules, with all consequential benefits. The argument that the petitioner was estopped from claiming promotion after voluntarily retiring was rejected, as the petitioner sought the implementation of a prior favorable judgment.

ASHOK KUMAR YADAV AND ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9067/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioners, contractual staff nurses at the Maulana Azad Institute of Dental Sciences, are entitled to the benefits of the 19.11.2012 pay fixation order from the date of its issuance in November 2012. The implementation date of 01.02.2014 set by MAIDS lacks justification, and no formal resolution was provided for the delay. The 19.11.2012 order was based on a prior judgment addressing equal pay for equal work for contractual employees. MAIDS is directed to extend the benefits from November 2012 and pay arrears accordingly.

BALA RANI BHATIA VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13207/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, a retired employee of Guru Harkrishan Public School, is entitled to benefits from the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commissions and revised retiral benefits under Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules. The school must re-fix the petitioner's salary according to the 6th and 7th CPCs and pay arrears, pending a decision on the modalities for disbursing the 7th CPC benefits. The school is also required to pay the remaining 40% of the petitioner's salaries and revised retiral benefits within 12 weeks, along with 6% interest per annum.

BALBIR SINGH INSPECTOR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1896/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Directions to suspend a police inspector and initiate disciplinary action were found to exceed jurisdiction and violate the separation of powers principle. It is recognized that while defects in an investigation or misconduct can be pointed out, the authority to take disciplinary action rests solely with the executive. Furthermore, prior to making remarks affecting a public servant's reputation, an opportunity for explanation must be provided. Consequently, the disparaging remarks against the inspector were expunged, and the directive to initiate disciplinary action was set aside.

BALJEET SINGH @ AMAN VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-312/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The accused is not entitled to default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. because the charge sheet was filed within the 180-day statutory limit, despite the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) report not being included. The non-filing of the FSL report does not render the charge sheet incomplete, as it serves only as corroborative evidence. The application for default bail was dismissed.

BALVINDER KAUR & ORS. VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI THROUGH VICE CHANCELLOR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9467/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by the legal heirs of Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Verma was dismissed due to delay and laches. Dr. Verma did not pursue legal action regarding his promotion to Reader from 2010 and the petitioners delayed their approach after his death in 2018. The doctrine of delay and laches prevents the consideration of stale claims, particularly in promotion matters that affect other employees' seniority. Furthermore, Dr. Verma was ineligible for promotion, having not completed the required Refresher Course.

BERWAL TAKDIR SINGH VS INDIAN BANK [W.P.(C)-459/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition challenging the transfer orders from Indian Bank was dismissed. Transfer is considered an incident of service, and the bank can transfer employees based on administrative needs unless proven to be mala fide or against statutory rules. The petitioner's frequent transfers were not found to be due to mala fides, and the bank confirmed a suitable position would be provided for the petitioner's scale-IV officer status. The limited scope of judicial review in transfer matters did not warrant interference with the transfer orders.

BHIMA ALIAS MANOJ VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-643/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The sentences of Bhima alias Manoj, Ravi @ Anil, and Munesh have been suspended while they appeal their convictions under Sections 307/34 IPC. Material contradictions in the prosecution's evidence were noted, alongside the significant duration of their trial and their clean backgrounds. Their release on bail is conditioned and does not imply any judgment on the case's merits.

BIJENDER & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-1268/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Sentence Review Board's decision to reject the Petitioners' pleas for premature release under the 2018 Delhi Prison Rules was set aside. The applicable remission policy was determined to be the 2004 Policy, based on a previous Supreme Court judgment. Petitioner No. 4's case will be considered under either the 2000 Government Orders or the 2004 Policy. The Respondent is instructed to reassess the Petitioners' cases using the relevant factors from the 2004 Policy that the SRB overlooked. No opinion on the merits of the cases was expressed, and the Petitioners retain the option to seek further remedies.

BIMLA VIRMANI VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-6517/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Bimla Virmani is entitled to Second Time Upward Movement (STUM) from 02.01.1998 instead of 09.08.1999, as per the Executive Council Resolution dated 23.08.2001. She qualified for STUM after completing 12 years from her initial upward movement, having received One Time Upward Movement (OTUM) before the cut-off date of 08.04.1998. The Respondents are required to implement the EC Resolution and grant STUM from 02.01.1998, along with all associated benefits.

C.J. ARORA VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6696/2003]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The order of the Disciplinary Authority for a de novo inquiry was deemed arbitrary and in violation of regulations, as it relied on unsubstantiated apprehensions regarding the original inquiry report. The authority's power to remit cases for further inquiry must be exercised based on justifiable reasons related to the charges. The illegal nature of the re-inquiry order compromised subsequent inquiry proceedings, including the dismissal punishment. Consequently, the charge sheet, inquiry report, punishment order, and all appellate orders were quashed, and the petitioner was to be reinstated notionally from the date of the punishment order until superannuation.

PUNEET MEHTA VS UOI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-958/2005]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Writ petitions against Air India Limited are not maintainable under Article 226 of the Constitution, as the company has ceased to be a public authority following privatization. After nearly 19 years of pending petitions, the privatization ended the government's control, disqualifying AIL from being considered a "state" or "authority." Delays in the proceedings do not justify continuing them against a private entity. Petitioners may seek remedies in the appropriate forum, with the pending period excluded from the limitation period.

CHANDAN SAWHNEY AND OTHERS VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-8846/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The registration of a sale deed cannot be denied due to the absence of a land status report, as this is not a statutory requirement. Objections by third parties were dismissed since the vendors were confirmed as the undisputed owners of the 16 bighas 16 biswas of land sold, and these objections did not challenge their ownership. The Sub-Registrar was directed to register the sale deed, with the petitioners required to file a rectification deed to correct a discrepancy regarding the total land area.

CHANDER KANT JHA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2272/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The punishment ticket and judicial appraisal order against the petitioner were set aside due to non-compliance with the mandatory procedures outlined in the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. The prison authorities did not issue a written show-cause notice as required by Rule 1272, and the confessional statement lacked the necessary witnesses per Rule 1273. The matter was remanded to the authorities for procedural compliance if a new inquiry is initiated.

CHANDI PRASAD AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3481/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Petitioners appointed on a daily wages or temporary basis before January 1, 2004, and later regularized after that date are entitled to coverage under the Old Pension Scheme (OPS). Their entire past service from the initial appointment date counts towards qualifying service for pension, as previous judgments support the inclusion of continuous service, regardless of the initial temporary status. Despite an appeal pending on one cited judgment, its operation remains unaffected, allowing implementation for the petitioners. The respondent university is directed to issue necessary orders for their inclusion in the OPS.

CITIZEN WATCH CO. LTD. VS DINESH KUMAR LAXMAN BHAI VIRDA [CS(COMM)-56/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The plaintiff is the registered owner of the trademark CITIZEN in Class 07 for machines and machine tools since 1961. The defendant's use of the trademarks CITIZEN and C-TIZEN for lathe machines constitutes infringement due to the deceptive similarity of the marks and identical nature of the goods. The plaintiff demonstrated prior adoption, extensive use, and a strong reputation for the CITIZEN trademark, which supports a claim of passing off against the defendant for dishonest adoption of the marks. Arguments from the defendant regarding delay, laches, and acquiescence were dismissed, and issues of territorial jurisdiction and suppression of facts were not pursued. A permanent injunction was issued against the defendant for using CITIZEN or C-TIZEN or any similar marks, alongside an award of nominal damages of Rs. 10 lakhs and an order for the defendant to cover the plaintiff's legal costs.

COMMUNICATION COMPONENTS ANTENNA INC. VS MOBI ANTENNA TECHNOLOGIES(SHENZHEN) CO LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-977/2016]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The plaintiff's patent IN'893 is valid, with the defendant unable to establish grounds for revocation. The defendant's products infringe claims 1 and 10 of the patent, as their beam patterns match the asymmetrical designs disclosed in the patent and can replace the sector antennas described. Compensatory damages of USD 260,45,250 (approximately Rs. 217,47,78,375) are awarded for the period from 2011 to 2014, with a 5% annual interest rate, after reducing the claimed amount due to uncertainty in market share. A permanent injunction prohibits the defendant from any activities related to products infringing the patent. The defendant's counter-claim for patent revocation is dismissed.

D.P. KALYAN VS NATIONAL TEXTILE CORPORATION LIMITED [W.P.(C)-5081/2013]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The charges against D.P. Kalyan were established based on evidence. The payment of incentive to Divisional Office employees was unauthorized, as the order from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi was procured by the Corporate Office, with no involvement from DDO employees. The testimony of the Director (Finance) indicated that incentives are only payable to those involved in procuring orders. Kalyan, as the Deputy General Manager (Commercial) of the DDO, lacked the authority to order a payment of Rs. 8.55 lakhs in incentives without the approval of the Competent Authority. The dishonor of a cheque for Rs. 7.27 lakhs to Finlay Mills was primarily due to the unauthorized incentive payment, for which Kalyan was responsible. The inquiry was conducted properly, and findings were supported by evidence, with no grounds to interfere with the decisions of the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority.

DAIHRII DAVID HRAILU VS JOINT RECRUITMENT CELL LOK SABHA SECRITARIAT PARLIAMENT OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-2992/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition by Daihrii David Hrailu challenging his non-selection for the Executive/Legislative/Committee/Protocol Officer position in the Lok Sabha Secretariat was dismissed. The 16th vacancy was reserved for the Persons with Disabilities (PwD) category, and as no qualified PwD candidates emerged, this vacancy was carried forward to the next recruitment year. Two ST candidates, including Hrailu, were interviewed, with the selected candidate scoring higher marks. There was no identified issue with the selection process.

RAGHUVIR SINGH VS GURU HARKRISHAN PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioners, retired employees of Guru Harkrishan Public School, are entitled to benefits under the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commission according to Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. The school must re-fix the salaries and emoluments as per these pay commissions, with arrears to be paid within 12 weeks, including simple interest at 6% per annum.

DEEPAK VS GENERAL MANAGER DELHI CO-OPERATIVE BANK AND ANR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16741/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition for compassionate appointment was dismissed due to a delay of nearly 18 years. The petitioner's claim was deemed barred as the financial condition of the family at the time of the employee's death was no longer relevant after such a long lapse. The significant delay undermined the purpose of compassionate appointment, which is to provide immediate relief to families in distress following the loss of a breadwinner.

DELHI ADMINISTRATION VS BALAK RAM [CRL.L.P.-399/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The trial court acquitted Balak Ram of charges under the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act due to non-compliance with the mandatory provision of providing a copy of the Public Analyst's report, affecting the accused's right to defend himself. A marginal difference of 0.2% in Milk Solids Not Fat content could be attributed to technical errors or natural causes, warranting the benefit of doubt for the accused. The decision to uphold the acquittal was based on these factors, leading to the dismissal of the State's petition to appeal.

DELHI ADMINISTRATION VS RAJ KUMAR GUPTA [CRL.L.P.-328/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The trial court acquitted Raj Kumar Gupta due to non-compliance with Section 10(7) of the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, which mandates the presence of independent witnesses during food sample collection. The prosecution failed to demonstrate that genuine efforts were made to secure witnesses. The trial court's finding was deemed plausible, leading to the dismissal of the appeal and the quashing of the FIR against Gupta.

DINESH CHAND SHARMA VS RUKMANI DEVI JAIPURIA PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-682/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Rukmani Devi Jaipuria Public School, an unaided private school recognized by the Directorate of Education, must adhere to Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. This section applies to all recognized private schools, including unaided and minority institutions. A former employee of the school is entitled to leave encashment and the remaining gratuity amount. The school is required to address the employee's pending dues and make the payments within established timelines.

DR ANJALI VINOCHA THROUGH HER AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE DR ARUN WADHAWAN VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15417/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition by the Assistant Professor for rejoining the Delhi State Cancer Institute was dismissed. The petitioner's contract was subject to availability of a vacancy, a condition she accepted when taking sabbatical leave. As a contractual employee, she had no automatic right to renewal and was only entitled to consideration in the selection process for the vacancy. Her absence from the interview conducted for the position precluded any claim to the post.

DR MONIKA BANSAL VS LT GOVERNOR OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13626/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner is entitled to receive arrears of pay for promotions from Assistant Professor (AGP Rs.7000) to Assistant Professor (AGP Rs.8000), Associate Professor, and Professor, due to unreasonable delays by the respondents. A meeting must be convened within 3 weeks to establish the process for releasing the outstanding arrears within 3 months. The petitioner can also request interest on the delayed payment of arrears.

DR VIJAY KUMAR SHARMA VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD. [W.P.(C)-13096/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The respondent authority improperly rejected the petitioner's claim for compassionate allowance based solely on disciplinary allegations, neglecting the special circumstances of the case. The petitioner's long service, medical condition, and prior court observations must be considered. The authority is instructed to reconsider the claim and release any outstanding dues owed to the petitioner.

DR. ANITA AGARWAL VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3806/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, appointed as a lecturer on a temporary basis in 1995 and later confirmed and promoted, is entitled to benefits under the Old Pension Scheme (OPS). Previous interpretations of "new entrants" under the New Pension Scheme (NPS) exclude those who joined before January 1, 2004, regardless of temporary status. The respondents acknowledged the petitioner's service from 1995 for promotion purposes, indicating she is not considered a "new entrant." According to the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972, the petitioner's qualifying service for pension begins from her initial appointment, allowing her entire service from 1995 to count towards her OPS benefits.

DR. ARCHANA VERMA VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12597/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, initially appointed temporarily before January 1, 2004, and later regularized, is entitled to the Old Pension Scheme (OPS) rather than the New Pension Scheme (NPS). It is established that employees who served prior to January 1, 2004, even in temporary roles, have their entire service considered for qualifying service in pension calculations. The relevant statutes support this decision by including temporary service as qualifying for pension benefits. Thus, the petitioner will be governed by the OPS, excluding her from the NPS.

DR. ASHOUTOSH DEV KAUSHIK VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9548/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM) must evaluate the petitioner's eligibility to count past service from January 1, 1999, for regularization, promotions, pension, and other benefits. The petitioner was appointed at the National Centre for Disaster Management (NCDM) before it became NIDM. NIDM must also determine if the petitioner can be required to join the New Pension Scheme instead of the Old Pension Scheme. Immediate retiral benefits due to the petitioner should be released regardless of pending issues.

DR. CHAYAN JAIN VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12452/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by Dr. Chayan Jain was dismissed due to a lack of merit. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi rejected his request for study leave and permission to join the PG course at Army Hospital (R&R), citing Dr. Jain's history of dropping out of various PG courses, which led to seat wastage. Granting his request would further waste a DNB seat at Hindu Rao Hospital, where he was already enrolled in a sponsored course. Dr. Jain had also utilized 10 months of study leave, and the Central Civil Services (Leave) Rules limit study leave to 36 months.

DR. PHANI KUMAR P VS FOOD SAFETY AND STANDARDS AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10890/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Dr. Phani Kumar P was deemed eligible for the position of Deputy Director (Technical) with the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) as he met the specified experience criteria. The experience requirements were interpreted as alternative rather than cumulative. Dr. Kumar provided the necessary experience certificate with his application, and FSSAI's late request for additional documents did not disqualify him. FSSAI was directed to invite him for an interview and issue an appointment letter with benefits if successful.

DR. RAISA PARVEEN VS THE PRINCIPAL, SATYAWATI COLLEGE MORNING (DELHI UNIVERSITY) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1262/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Dr. Raisa Parveen is entitled to retirement gratuity for her service from 22.07.2008 to 31.10.2021 under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Pension and gratuity are regarded as valuable rights of employees. The respondent college must pay her 8% simple interest on the gratuity amount from the date it became due until actual payment, as the delay was not her fault.

DR. YOGIETA S MEHRA VS LT. GOVERNOR OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13630/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Dr. Yogieta S Mehra is entitled to arrears of pay following her promotions to Associate Professor in 2014 and to Professor in 2017 and 2021. The College, University of Delhi, and Directorate of Higher Education failed to release these arrears due to budgetary constraints, which were deemed unacceptable. A meeting is to be convened within 3 weeks to establish how to release the arrears within 3 months, and the petitioner may request interest on the delayed payment.

G.P. SOTI VS THE PRINCIPAL DEEN DAYAL UPADHYAY COLLEGE AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10133/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by G.P. Soti was dismissed. The University of Delhi's decision to grant him the second financial upgradation under the Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) Scheme in PB-3 with a Grade Pay of Rs. 5400/- was found to align with the MACP Scheme guidelines. The MACP Scheme states that the Grade Pay of Rs. 5400/- in PB-2 and PB-3 is treated as separate for financial upgradation. The petitioner was initially granted the first financial upgradation in the scale of Rs. 8000-13500/- and subsequently placed in PB-2 with GP of Rs. 5400/-. This placement justified the decision to grant him the second upgradation in PB-3 with GP of Rs. 5400/-.

GEETA MONGA VS GNG STOCK HOLDING PVT. LTD THROUGHT ITS MANAGING DIRECTOR SH. SUMIT GUPTA [CRL.M.C.-356/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The trial court properly awarded 20% interim compensation to the complainant under Section 143A of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The petitioner engaged in dilatory tactics by seeking repeated adjournments, which delayed the trial. The petitioner admitted her signatures on the dishonored cheque, and the presumption under Section 139 favored the complainant, supporting the interim compensation. The petition challenging these findings was dismissed.

GURUPADA MAJI VS ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE [BAIL APPLN.-3595/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Gurupada Maji received regular bail under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act despite the usual twin conditions. He had been in custody for over 27 months, with the trial unlikely to start soon, impacting his right to a speedy trial. Although evidence from the Enforcement Directorate was acknowledged, there was no detailed examination of its merits. Bail was granted with strict conditions to mitigate concerns about flight risk and evidence tampering.

H K SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8895/2020]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner is entitled to interest on the delayed payment of gratuity, as pension and gratuity are recognized as valuable employee rights, not merely state benefits. There was a delay in the payment of gratuity, with the respondents aware of the FIR's quashing since 09.10.2018, yet the gratuity was not released until 23.10.2019. Therefore, simple interest at 8% per annum on the gratuity amount of Rs. 10 lacs is payable from 03.01.2019 until the payment date of 23.10.2019.

HARJEET SINGH KOHLI VS M/S GOOD MARKETING & SALES PVT LTD [CRL.M.C.-599/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The summoning order and complaint against the petitioner directors under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were quashed. The complaint did not include specific averments necessary to establish vicarious liability under Section 141(1), particularly regarding the directors' involvement in the company's day-to-day affairs at the time of the offense. General allegations of responsibility were deemed insufficient, leading to the dismissal of the summoning order.

HARKRISHAN KUMAR NARULA VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-5405/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Harkrishan Kumar Narula is eligible for consideration for promotion to General Manager (Cartography) as his prior service as Additional General Manager (Cartography) counts towards the eligibility criteria. His appointment as Joint General Manager was deemed a placement in the same pay scale and not a promotion. The argument regarding delay in filing the petition was rejected, and the Airports Authority of India is required to form a Departmental Promotion Committee to evaluate Narula's promotion case within eight weeks.

HARSPAL SINGH NEGI VS ST MARY SCHOOL SARDARJUNG ENCLAVE AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16578/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner must challenge the termination order before the Delhi School Tribunal under Section 8(3) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. The challenge to the minority certificate issued to the school should be directed to the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions under Section 12C of the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions Act, 2004. The writ petition was dismissed without any opinion on the merits of the case.

INDERJEET SINGH VS KAMALA NEHRU COLLEGE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10829/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The dissent of the subject expert member in the Selection Committee was found to be illegal and contrary to the eligibility criteria outlined in the UGC Regulations 2018 and the advertisement, which permitted candidates with either a Master's degree (55% marks) or a Ph.D. degree. The direction to re-advertise the post in the OBC category due to this dissent was deemed flawed, as the University's Ordinances did not require re-advertisement in such cases. The College's Governing Body is to consider the selection panel recommended by the Selection Committee, disregarding the subject expert's dissent.

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1144/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The order directing the registration of an FIR against the Indian Institute of Planning and Management (IIPM) and others was set aside. The disputes were identified as civil in nature, stemming from commercial contracts and transactions, without any indication of a cognizable criminal offense. The decision concluded that the lower court acted mechanically, neglecting detailed police investigation reports that found no cognizable offense. The FIR against IIPM was quashed.

JITENDER YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-12014/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The final result dated November 6, 2013, confirmed Tej Pal's selection as Staff Car Driver under the OBC category. Tej Pal's age relaxation as an OBC candidate was correctly applied, necessitating his appointment to be counted against the OBC vacancy according to established principles. The review dismissed the petitioner's claims, affirming the correctness of the prior Division Bench judgment.

JUVENILE SH VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-359/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

An appeal by a juvenile for bail under Section 12 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 was allowed after the lower court's denial was deemed insufficient. The main adult co-accused had been acquitted due to lack of evidence, and the established criteria for denying bail, such as association with criminals or risk of danger, were not met. Bail was granted with conditions for a personal bond and oversight by a probationary officer.

K.A.GUPTA VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14063/2006]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The disciplinary inquiry against the petitioner was invalidated because three prosecution witnesses also served on the board that imposed the dismissal penalty. This situation breached the principle that a witness cannot also act as the decision-maker, introducing bias that compromised the inquiry. The orders and revised penalty were quashed, and the respondents were instructed to make a new decision regarding the petitioner's suspension and emoluments within three months.

K.K. SONI & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-7524/2013]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The seniority list of Managers (ATC) in the Airports Authority of India, dated 11.01.2011, complies with the AAI (Recruitment and Promotion) Regulations, 2005. Promotees who were promoted from 2005 to 2009 were placed above direct recruits, including those who joined in 2010, in accordance with established principles. Petitioners who joined in 2010 cannot claim seniority from 2007, as they were not part of the cadre at that time. The seniority list is deemed legally valid.

NABA KUMAR MANDAL VS IRCON INTERNATIONAL LTD. [W.P.(C)-7404/2008]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioners were employed on a casual/ad-hoc basis for specific projects with IRCON, not as regular employees. Previous judicial scrutiny upheld the termination orders of the petitioners. The writ petitions were dismissed due to a lack of merit in the claims of regular employment.

KANHIYA LAL VS THE LD DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE (HQ) TIS HAZARI [W.P.(C)-473/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The penalty of withholding one increment with cumulative effect imposed on the petitioner is classified as a major penalty. This penalty is considered a reduction in the time scale of pay under applicable rules. Consequently, the petitioner is not entitled to full pay and allowances for the suspension period, as the competent authority has discretion over such determinations.

KAVINDER SINGH VOHRA VS LOK SABHA SECRETRIAT AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-8177/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Kavinder Singh Vohra's writ petition challenging the cancellation of his candidature for the Security Assistant (Technical) Grade-II position in the Lok Sabha Secretariat was dismissed. The applicable DoPT Office Memorandums clarified that the recruiter follows the Lok Sabha Secretariat (Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 1955. Vohra's previous regular appointment with the Cabinet Secretariat negated his claim of temporary status. As he had already utilized his ex-serviceman status, he was ineligible to claim it again for this recruitment. The cancellation of his candidature was upheld.

KAWALJEET KAUR VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10600/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Retired employees of Guru Harkrishan Public School are entitled to arrears of salaries, allowances, and retiral benefits due to pay revisions under the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commissions, including the release of 40% of their pending salaries. The petitioners' claims align with a prior judgment that mandated implementation of the CPC recommendations for employee benefits. Ongoing separate proceedings are addressing the implementation of the 7th CPC benefits, with the school's current stance accepted. This decision addresses two writ petitions simultaneously.

KHAZAN CHAND VS NATIONAL BAL BHAWAN & ORS [W.P.(C)-8711/2007]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The inquiry proceedings and penalty order against the petitioner were invalid due to bias of the disciplinary authority, who had a personal interest in the matter and should have recused herself. The mandatory procedure of issuing a disagreement note and providing an opportunity for a hearing was not followed when the inquiry officer partially upheld a charge. As a result, the charge memorandum, inquiry report, dismissal order, and appellate authority order were quashed, with an instruction to release all consequential benefits to the petitioner within three months. Respondents were also ordered to pay costs of Rs. 50,000 to the petitioner.

KRISHAN BIDHURI VS KALYAN SINGH [CRL.L.P.-221/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The trial court acquitted the accused under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, establishing a probable defense that countered the presumption in favor of the holder of the dishonored cheques. The accused presented evidence, including documents related to property transfer as loan security and photocopies of those documents, which challenged the complainant's claims. With the presumption under Section 139 rebutted, the burden of proof returned to the complainant, who did not sufficiently demonstrate the existence of a legally enforceable debt or liability. The trial court's decision was deemed plausible based on the evidence provided.

KUNAL KASHYAP, THROUGH PAIROKAR/ GUARDIAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-375/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Sessions Court must decide the Petitioner's application under Section 105 of the Mental Healthcare Act, 2017 before issuing a sentence, as this provision requires referral to the Mental Health Review Board if evidence of mental illness is presented. Additionally, the Sessions Court should address the Petitioner's application under Section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, as these matters may influence sentencing. The previously issued order on sentencing has been set aside due to the pendency of these applications.

KUNAL ROY VS BUREAU OF INDIAN STANDARDS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-327/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) cannot enforce service bonds against petitioners resigning to join the Power System Operation Corporation Limited (POSOCO), as per the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) Handbook. This handbook states that service bonds are not applicable when transferring to another government organization, requiring only a fresh bond. BIS's demand for bond amounts as a condition for resignation acceptance is quashed, and BIS is instructed to release the bond money and withheld salaries to the petitioners.

KUSUM SHARMA VS FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-11095/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Kusum Sharma's writ petition challenging the rejection of her candidature for the AG-III (Hindi) post at the Food Corporation of India was dismissed. The essential qualification required was a degree with Hindi as the main subject for all three years, which Sharma did not possess; she held a B.Sc. with Hindi as an additional subject. The qualifications were not equated with the advertised requirements, emphasizing that academic standards set by experts should not be interfered with. The rejection of her candidature by FCI was deemed valid.

LAKSHMI SETHI AND ORS VS DARBARI LAL DAV MODEL SCHOOL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12419/2021]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Darbari Lal DAV Model School must pay its employees scales of pay, allowances, and benefits equivalent to those of government school employees as mandated by Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. The school's arguments regarding delay, insufficient funds, and lack of fee hikes were rejected. The school is required to implement pay revisions according to the 7th Central Pay Commission effective January 1, 2016, and to pay the corresponding arrears with interest. The matter of Dearness Allowance is to be addressed through a representation to the school, which must also provide regular salary slips to employees.

LT. COL. SHAILESH CHANDRA CHATURVEDI VS CENTRAL WAREHOUSING CORPORATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2116/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The premature retirement orders against the two petitioners were invalidated. The petitioners had excellent service records with no negative feedback and were recommended for retention by a review committee. The Competent Authority's decision lacked sufficient justification and displayed bias due to failure to recuse after union allegations. The orders were quashed, and the Competent Authority was instructed to reconsider the cases following proper procedures and considering the petitioners' complete service records.

M.C. AGGARWAL VS UNION BANK OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-10867/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The penalty of dismissal from service imposed on the petitioner was deemed disproportionate and inconsistent with punishments given to co-delinquents. The application of the doctrine of equality under Article 14 of the Constitution was affirmed, emphasizing that the principle of parity in punishment must be considered. The appellate authority is directed to reassess the dismissal, accounting for mitigating factors and the need for consistency with co-delinquents' penalties.

M.G. HUSAIN VS JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-1943/2016]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Inquiry Officer committed two legal errors: dismissing defense witnesses' testimonies as irrelevant without proper consideration, violating natural justice principles, and accepting documents from the Presenting Officer as evidence without oral testimony, contrary to legal standards. The inquiry proceedings and the penalty of compulsory retirement were quashed, leading to the petitioner's notional reinstatement until the date of superannuation with all consequential benefits.

M.P. KANTH VS INDIAN COUNCIL OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11044/2009]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, appointed temporarily by the Indian Council of Historical Research, is not entitled to financial upgradation under the Assured Career Progression (ACP) Scheme or benefits from the GPF-cum-pension Scheme. The ACP Scheme requires "regular service" for eligibility, which excludes temporary and ad-hoc employees. Despite periods of quasi-permanent status, the petitioner's appointments were co-terminus with specific projects and did not qualify as "regular service." Arguments for treating the service as regular were rejected since no request for regularization was made. Previous judgments affirm that ad-hoc or temporary service does not count towards the ACP residency requirements, even after regularization.

MAHESH SHARMA @ CHINTU VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-230/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, convicted under Sections 302/34 IPC and sentenced to life imprisonment, must have their case considered for premature release under the 2004 Policy applicable at the time of conviction, rather than the 2018 Rules used by the Sentence Review Board. The Respondent is directed to reevaluate the petitioner's case under the 2004 Policy, taking into account specified factors. The plea for extension of interim furlough is denied, stating that furlough must comply with statutory rules.

MAHIPAL SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3504/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition challenging the DFCCIL recruitment exam was dismissed based on the expert opinion that Question No. 74 was clear and had a single correct answer. Restraint is necessary in academic matters, especially regarding exam assessments, and intervention is only warranted for glaring errors. The expert opinion aligned with textbook references, and due process was followed by DFCCIL in finalizing answer keys after reviewing candidate objections. The petition lacked merit.

MALVINDER KUAR VS DIRECTOR OF DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION & ORS [W.P.(C)-487/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner's appointment as a PRT and promotion to TGT were declared illegal and void due to lack of necessary educational qualifications. Consequently, she is not entitled to salary, terminal benefits, gratuity, or arrears under the 6th Central Pay Commission. The acceptance of the termination order without legal challenge further invalidated her claims, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

MANDEEP KAUR VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13208/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

A retired employee of Guru Harkrishan Public School is entitled to benefits from the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commissions, along with revised retiral benefits, as mandated by Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules, 1973. Private recognized schools, including unaided minority schools, must provide pay and benefits equivalent to those of government school employees. The school is required to re-fix the petitioner's salaries under the 6th and 7th CPCs and pay the resulting arrears with interest. A separate bench is reviewing the modalities for disbursement of 7th CPC benefits, which the petitioner will receive according to that decision. Additionally, the school must decide on the petitioner's claims for transport and dearness allowances within the specified timeframe.

MEIDEN T AND D INDIA LIMITED. VS PCI LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-513/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The arbitral award was upheld, confirming the arbitrator's jurisdiction over the dispute regarding non-payment of service and utility charges under the Service Facility Agreement (SFA), which fell within the arbitration clause's scope. The claim for set-off against the service charges was rejected, as the debit notes cited pertained to a separate commercial contract unrelated to the SFA. The arbitrator's award of costs in favor of the respondent was also not contested.

MOHD ENAMUL HAQUE THROUGH HIS PAIROKAR ABDUL HANNAN VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT THROUGH ASSISTANT DIRECTOR [BAIL APPLN.-1869/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Bail was denied to Mohd Enamul Haque in a PMLA case due to sufficient prima facie evidence of his involvement in money laundering connected to cattle smuggling. The applicant did not meet the mandatory conditions under Section 45 of PMLA, failing to demonstrate innocence and the unlikelihood of committing further offenses while on bail. Evidence included statements under Section 50 of PMLA, diary entries, cash deposit slips, and the statutory presumption under Section 24 of PMLA. The seriousness of economic offenses was emphasized, highlighting that releasing the applicant could interfere with the ongoing investigation.

MOHD SHAKIR & ORS. VS DELHI PUBLIC LIBRARY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14116/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The advertisement by the Delhi Public Library inviting applications for 13 Library Clerk posts solely on deputation was contrary to the Recruitment Rules, which require promotion as the first option. Petitioners, appointed as Multi-Tasking Staff in 2018 with three years of regular service, were eligible for promotion, but the advertisement did not include this option. The advertisement was quashed, allowing for a re-advertisement that aligns with the applicable Recruitment Rules.

MR. J. CHAKRABORTY VS M/S GAIL (INDIA) LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9356/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition was dismissed after the downgrading of the petitioner's performance appraisal reports (PARs) for 2018-19 and 2020-21 from 'Outstanding' to 'Very Good' was deemed justified. The downgrading resulted from the company's policy to limit 'Outstanding' ratings to a maximum of 15% as per Department of Public Enterprises guidelines, not from non-performance. The company's Performance Management System did not mandate mid-year reviews if performance remained satisfactory. No challenge to the company's moderation policy was presented, leading to a refusal to interfere with the PARs.

MR. LALIT BHASIN VS PAWAN TRADE CONNECT PVT LTD. [CRL.M.C.-503/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Summoning orders and complaints under Sections 138 and 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the petitioner, an independent non-executive director, were not sustained due to the absence of specific averments demonstrating the petitioner's responsibility for the company's business at the relevant time. Compliance with statutory requirements under Section 141 is necessary to establish vicarious liability, and general allegations are insufficient. As the complaints lacked the required specificities, the summoning orders and complaints were quashed, without commenting on the merits concerning other accused individuals.

MR. RAKESH KUMAR BHAGAT & ORS. VS GURU HARKISHAN PUBLIC SCHOOL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16437/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Employees of Guru Harkishan Public School are entitled to the benefits of the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commissions, similar to government school employees, based on Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules. Previous judgments and directives from the Directorate of Education support this entitlement. The school is required to re-fix salaries and pay arrears within specified timelines, while modalities for disbursing the 7th CPC benefits are under review.

MS. BABITA VS NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-13438/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Recruitment Notice from Janakpuri Super Speciality Hospital aimed at replacing existing contractual staff nurses is contrary to the Supreme Court's judgment in Piara Singh v. State of Haryana. The current nurses were appointed through a proper selection process and had no complaints regarding their performance. The Hospital lacks provisions for regular appointments, and the nursing staff's work is of a perennial nature. The plan to replace them was deemed arbitrary and a violation of their right to livelihood under Article 21 of the Constitution. The Recruitment Notice was quashed, and the Hospital was directed to continue the existing nurses' employment on an annual renewal basis.

MUKESH SAIN VS PRAGATI POWER CORPORATION LIMITED [W.P.(C)-16470/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The challenge to the combined seniority lists and posts of PPCL and IPGCL employees was previously dismissed due to delay, laches, and acquiescence. The Petitioners withdrew their appeal with the option to contest the 2012 Policy responsible for the combined seniority lists. However, challenging the 2012 Policy was effectively a challenge to the previously dismissed combined seniority lists. The issue had attained finality and could not be re-opened. The writ petition was dismissed based on the preliminary objection raised by the Respondents.

MUNENDRA KUMAR VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7266/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The suspension order against Munendra Kumar was valid and did not lapse automatically due to a delay in issuing the chargesheet. The argument based on the Supreme Court's judgment in Ajay Kumar Choudhary was rejected, as that judgment did not establish an absolute rule for automatic lapse after three months. Reasons for delay and the seriousness of allegations can be examined to decide on suspension continuation. The suspension was reviewed and extended by the competent authority within the initial 90 days, adhering to CCS (CCA) Rules. The writ petition was dismissed, but outstanding subsistence allowance owed to the petitioner was to be released.

NARENDRA PRASAD RAI VS VICE-CHAIRMAN, DELHI AGRICULTURAL MARKETING BOARD AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12998/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner is entitled to the same relief as Rajender Singh, as both faced identical conspiracy allegations and penalties. Since the co-conspirators were acquitted, the charge of conspiracy against the petitioner is unsustainable. The penalty imposed on the petitioner is set aside, and all consequential reliefs are to be granted.

NAVEEN YADAV VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-4258/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The anticipatory bail application of Naveen Yadav was dismissed due to his status as a proclaimed offender. He failed to demonstrate exceptional circumstances that would justify granting bail. The serious nature of the allegations against him and his declaration as an absconder were key factors in this decision.

NAVNEET VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-11849/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The National Education Society for Tribal Students (NESTS) canceled the petitioner's candidature for the Trained Graduate Teacher (Mathematics) position due to the lack of a Bachelor's degree in Physics, which was a mandatory qualification alongside a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics. The qualifications were clearly stated in the advertisement, and the eligibility criteria were not ambiguous. The decision to cancel the candidature was therefore upheld.

NEETU YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-15474/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Neetu Yadav's writ petition challenging the cancellation of her candidature for the TGT (Maths) position was dismissed. The essential qualification required was a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics, which Yadav did not possess, as she has a B.Tech. and M.Tech. degree. The decision to cancel her candidature was deemed valid, as the qualifications set by the employer were clear and aligned with recruitment rules.

NILESH KUMAR CHAUDHARY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANOTHER [W.P.(C)-8888/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner correctly answered a specific question in the Computer Based Test conducted by the Airports Authority of India for the Junior Executive (Air Traffic Control) position. An expert committee confirmed this assessment, leading to an order for the AAI to grant the petitioner an additional raw score for the question. The AAI was instructed to allow the petitioner to participate in subsequent tests, and upon successful completion, to offer an appointment with associated benefits. AAI's counsel received commendation for their fair approach to the case.

NISHANT ARORA @ NONI VS LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF DELHI, GNCTD & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1432/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The externment order against Nishant Arora by the Lieutenant Governor of Delhi and the Additional Deputy Commissioner of Police was upheld. Sufficient material supported the order, and the decision-making process was appropriate under the provisions of the Delhi Police Act. The argument that externment can only apply to "habitual offenders" with more than three recent criminal cases was rejected, as the criteria are not universally applicable. The externment orders were reasoned and based on the evidence, necessitating no interference.

OM PRAKASH CHAUHAN (THR. LRS) VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-17449/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by the legal heirs of late Shri Om Prakash Chauhan was allowed, leading to the rejection of a prior order denying his claim for an alternative plot. The land of petitioner's grandfather was fully acquired between 1964-66, and Shri Om Prakash Chauhan applied for an alternative plot in 1987 after receiving compensation. Earlier claims had been rejected based on delay and lack of documentation, which higher authorities had set aside. A new argument regarding the ownership of a residential property was deemed invalid as the policy disqualifies only those with houses or plots outside the village abadi. This case involved complete land acquisition, unlike the referenced cases with partial acquisitions. The petitioners could not be expected to remain homeless during their 34-year pursuit of this claim. The authorities are directed to process the petitioners' application for an alternative plot within 4 months, in line with the relevant rehabilitation policy.

P. K. DAS AND ANR VS MMTC LTD. AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12237/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The recovery of electricity charges and reimbursed wages from senior executives at MMTC is invalid. The reimbursements were approved by the MMTC Board of Directors without any fraud or misrepresentation. Recovery of payments made more than five years ago is considered harsh and arbitrary. Show-cause notices and recovery letters issued to the executives are quashed, and MMTC is directed to refund the amounts with interest.

PANKAJ KUMAR PRASAD VS NATIONAL SEEDS CORPORATION LTD. [W.P.(C)-5724/2020]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The upgradation of the petitioner's pay scale from E-6 to E-7 level was valid, as it received approval from the Board of Directors and the Ministry of Agriculture. The recovery of excess payments made to the petitioner over the past 9 years was deemed iniquitous and arbitrary. Orders directing the petitioner to deposit the recovery amount were quashed, and the release of the petitioner's terminal benefits without any deduction was mandated.

PARVEZ AHMED VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-17090/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Department of Education (DoE) must hold Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) meetings regularly to fill vacant positions, following the guidelines from the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT). Vacancies, such as the Vice Principal post that has remained unfilled for five years, necessitate timely promotions and career progression for eligible employees. The DoE is required to convene a DPC for the Vice Principal position within three months.

PRADOSH PANDA VS LOK SABHA SECRETARIAT & ANR [W.P.(C)-13102/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition was dismissed due to delay and laches, emphasizing that established seniority should not be disturbed after a significant time, as it affects the vested rights of others. Mere representations do not extend the limitation period or justify the delay. The seniority rules in the Lok Sabha Secretariat, which assign seniority based on the date of joining, were correctly applied following the merger of different streams. There is no indication of disagreement among judges or referral to a larger bench, indicating this is an individual matter.

PRAGATI KESHARWANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-13068/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Limited (ONGC) rejected the petitioner's application for the Assistant Executive Engineer (Electronics) position due to failure to meet the required medical standards, including normal binocular vision and the capability to handle high voltages and hazardous equipment. The position was designated for individuals with disabilities specifically in the OH-OL and HH categories. The petitioner's reduced vision and lack of binocular vision rendered her unfit according to ONGC's rules. The argument for accommodation in a computer-based role was dismissed, as the job requirements could not be altered. Additionally, the recommendation from the Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities did not bind ONGC, which had informed the Commissioner of its decision. This case was treated as an individual matter.

PREMODYA KHAKHA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-1482/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The charge sheet filed by the investigation agency was complete according to Section 173(2) of the Criminal Procedure Code, despite the pending semen analysis report. The filing of the charge sheet within the statutory period extinguished the accused's right to default bail under Section 167(2). The absence of the semen analysis report does not render the charge sheet incomplete, as it serves as corroborative evidence. Additionally, procedures like vasectomy are not foolproof, and the issue of the accused's reproductive capacity will be addressed at trial.

PRINCE BEN NNAKA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-21/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The continued detention of a Nigerian national in a deportation center was deemed illegal, violating his fundamental right under Article 21 of the Constitution. Detention cannot be mandated for foreign nationals as part of bail or other judicial orders. The petitioner was directed to be released immediately, contingent upon providing his permanent address and mobile number to the FRRO, and he must report to the local police station weekly. The FRRO was instructed to consider the petitioner's new visa application per legal guidelines.

PRIYADARSHANI VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-14953/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The inquiry against the petitioner was invalid due to the bank's failure to examine witnesses to support the relied-upon documents, contrary to regulatory requirements. Without oral evidence, the charges were not proven. The orders for removal from service were quashed, allowing the bank to conduct a new inquiry with the presentation of oral evidence. If the bank cannot produce witnesses, the petitioner will be reinstated with full benefits.

PROF SACHIDANAND SINHA VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-16488/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, a retired professor from Jawaharlal Nehru University, is entitled to receive leave encashment benefits with 9% interest per annum due to the university's failure to issue a specific order to withhold these benefits. Interest on delayed payment of retiral benefits is permissible even in the absence of a specific rule. The petitioner can claim gratuity in a separate writ petition.

PROF. MADAN MOHAN VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1387/2020]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The University of Delhi must pay interest at a statutory rate of 10% per annum on the petitioner's retirement gratuity, which was delayed by over five years following the petitioner's superannuation on 31.03.2018. Pension and gratuity are recognized as valuable rights of employees, warranting compensation for delayed payments. The University's argument regarding the petitioner's entitlement under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 was rejected, as this issue had been previously settled.

PURAN SINGH@ VIPIN VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-377/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The requirement of a 1-month gap between the date of surrender after the previous furlough and the application for subsequent furlough, as outlined in paragraph 13 of Standing Order No. 1/2019, is valid and enforceable. This provision does not conflict with Rule 1212 of the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, which specifies a 1-month gap between parole and the last furlough. The competent authority must decide the petitioner's pending furlough application within 2 weeks, and the petitioner may submit a fresh application after the cooling period specified in the standing order. No opinion on the merits of the petitioner's case for furlough has been expressed.

RADHE SHIAM SHARMA VS RAJYA SABHA SECRETARIAT [W.P.(C)-10532/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petitions filed by retired government employees engaged as consultants by the Rajya Sabha Secretariat and Lok Sabha Secretariat were dismissed. Consultancy fees were fixed as per the contract terms, with no provision for revision based on increases in pensions from the 7th Central Pay Commission and 5th Parliamentary Pay Committee recommendations. The fee-setting formula, based on the last drawn pay minus basic pension, adhered to guidelines from the Department of Expenditure. Consultancy agreements established fixed fees that were non-revisable during the contract period. Claims for parity with other consultants were rejected due to differences in last pay drawn at retirement.

RAJ KUMAR SAINI & ORS VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-8902/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by contractual employees of various societies working under the Directorate of Health Services, Government of NCT of Delhi was allowed. The petitioners are entitled to the minimum pay scale extended to regular employees in similar positions, based on their rigorous selection process, long tenure of 10-15 years, and performance of identical duties. The previous judgment in Stuti Ranjan & Ors. was distinguished due to the binding precedent set in a Supreme Court case. The respondents are directed to re-fix the petitioners' salaries at the minimum pay scale for regular employees and provide arrears resulting from this re-fixation.

RAJ KUMAR WADHERA VS CANARA BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12359/2021]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner's medical condition of AVSD with severe pulmonary hypertension does not qualify as a "disability" under the 1995 or 2016 Acts, leading to the rejection of the claim for disability status. However, the bank's deduction of Rs. 9,01,327/- from the petitioner's salary without allowing an opportunity to explain unauthorized leave taken during the COVID-19 pandemic violated principles of natural justice. The bank is ordered to return the deducted amount to the petitioner's account, while retaining the option to pursue legal action regarding the unauthorized leave.

RAJESH KUMAR BHALLA VS THE NEW INDIA ASURANCE CO. LTD. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8629/2015]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The Petitioner's claim for three stagnation increments is not maintainable due to his voluntary retirement under the Voluntary Retirement Scheme (VRS). The VRS is a contractual arrangement, and by opting for it and accepting the associated benefits, including an ex-gratia payment, the Petitioner forfeits any claims to past dues or rights, such as stagnation increments. The distinction between this case and previous judgments regarding statutory claims is noted, emphasizing that stagnation increments were part of the VRS package accepted by the Petitioner. Consequently, the claim for stagnation increments is dismissed following the acceptance of the VRS benefits.

RAJESH KUMAR JHA VS CENTRAL RAILSIDE WAREHOUSE COMPANY LIMITED [W.P.(C)-11859/2018]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The petitioner did not meet the eligibility criteria for the Manager (General) position, which required a minimum of 10 years of work experience in the government/public sector. The petitioner's work experience was exclusively in the private sector, failing to satisfy this requirement. Although the petitioner may have misinterpreted the criteria, there was no intent to conceal facts. Disciplinary action for removal from service was upheld due to the lack of requisite work experience, while the findings related to allegations of misconduct were not upheld.

RAJIV JAISWAL VS THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD. [W.P.(C)-9656/2018]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The petitioner is not entitled to an additional 4 years of qualifying service for pension calculation under Clause 26 of the General Insurance (Employees') Pension Scheme, 1995. The conditions under Clauses 26(a), 26(b), and 26(c) must be read conjunctively, and the petitioner failed to meet Clause 26(c) as he was within the maximum age limit at recruitment without age relaxation. The petitioner's case was differentiated from cited Supreme Court judgments due to distinct regulations and facts. The writ petition was dismissed.

RAKESH KUMAR TIWARI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3912/2024]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The petitioner's application to introduce documents proving his travel outside Delhi on the date of a declaration-cum-receipt-cum-agreement was dismissed. The petitioner did not assert at trial that he was absent from Delhi on the execution date and had admitted to signing the receipt. The trial court found the receipt to be genuine. The petitioner was not allowed to present a contradictory defense at this stage.

RAM BABU MAHTO VS BANK OF INDIA THROUGH ITS MANAGING DIRECTOR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1599/2021]
Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh
The petitioners transferred to the Delhi zone of the Bank of India on their own request are not entitled to subsidized accommodation, in line with the Bank's policy outlined in the Internal Office Memorandum dated October 7, 2017. This policy specifies that officers transferred at their request are ineligible for certain allowances, including subsidized accommodation. The petitioners were informed of this policy and cannot claim ignorance. Additionally, their argument of discrimination based on 2020 transfer orders granting subsidized accommodation to some officers is dismissed, as those measures were exceptional due to the COVID-19 pandemic and do not apply to their situation.

RAM BABU VS NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14246/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition was dismissed due to delay and laches, with claims for seniority dating back to 1992 and promotion from 1999 made after 32 and 25 years, respectively, without valid explanation. Disturbing settled seniority and promotion matters after such long delays adversely affects the vested rights of other employees. Therefore, reconsideration of the claims at this late stage is not feasible and would unsettle established rights.

RAMA KRISHNA PUBLIC SCHOOL VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15485/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Rama Krishna Public School filed a writ petition challenging a 2015 order from the Directorate of Education (DoE) that required the school to pay salary and allowances to a teacher based on the 5th and 6th Central Pay Commissions' recommendations, noting that the teacher's services were not terminated. The school, aware of the order since 2015, waited over 9 years to challenge it without providing any explanation for the delay. The challenge was dismissed due to the absence of timely action.

RAMBIR VS MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT, DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9521/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The University's Recruitment Rules allowing for 50% promotion from the feeder cadre of Professional Assistant to Assistant Librarian remain valid despite the 2018 UGC Regulations, which only set minimum qualifications for direct recruitment and do not prohibit promotions. The University must convene a Departmental Promotion Committee to consider the petitioner's eligibility for promotion, acknowledging that the petitioner has a vested right to that opportunity, even though the vacancy was filled through direct recruitment during the proceedings.

RITU SINGHAL VS LIONS PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1852/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The suspension order and its extension issued by Lions Public School against the Petitioner were invalid due to non-compliance with Section 8(4) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules (DSEAR), which requires prior approval from the Directorate of Education (DoE). The School failed to obtain this necessary approval before suspending the Petitioner. Additionally, the Minutes of the Meeting that led to the suspension lacked signatures from the DoE's nominees, further invalidating the order. Concerns regarding the DoE's delays in responding to approval requests were noted, with a directive for timely actions on such requests in the future. The requirement of prior DoE approval for suspensions in recognized private schools, as stipulated by DSEAR, was strongly reaffirmed.

RK MITTAL VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6244/2020]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Disciplinary proceedings against a Judicial Member in the Railway Claims Tribunal were vitiated due to the non-supply of the inquiry report prior to the penalty of removal from service. The petitioner demonstrated that this non-supply prejudiced his case, as he could not address defects in the report. The penalty order lacked reasoning for the extreme punishment and was considered a non-speaking order. Consequently, the penalty order was set aside, and the matter was remanded for reconsideration, requiring an opportunity for the petitioner to respond to the inquiry report. No opinion on the merits of the case was provided, leaving the decision to the Disciplinary Authority to address in accordance with law.

ROHIT VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3753/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The charge sheet filed within the 180-day period under the NDPS Act is considered complete for default bail purposes, even without the FSL report. Previous judgments confirm that the absence of the FSL report does not render the charge sheet incomplete, thus the accused is not entitled to default bail. The Supreme Court has granted interim bails in related cases but has not established a general rule for release on default bail under these circumstances. The bail application was dismissed as lacking merit.

SH. AKHTAR ALI VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6399/2013]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioners were not entitled to the 3rd Time Bound Promotion (TBP) scale because their promotion to Head Clerk was on an ad-hoc basis, which did not meet the eligibility criteria outlined in the DVB order dated 21.12.1999. Arguments based on the DESU (DMC) Employees Higher Scale of Pay Regulations, 1995, and the Delhi Electricity Reforms Act, 2000, were rejected as they did not address the specific provisions of the TBP scheme. The writ petitions lacked merit.

S.K.JAIN VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4011/2012]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The departmental inquiry against the petitioner was flawed due to the absence of witness testimony to support the documentary evidence, violating applicable regulations. Without oral evidence, the inquiry officer could not rely solely on documents to establish guilt. The penalty of removal from service was quashed, allowing for a de-novo inquiry if it includes the necessary oral evidence.

S.K.TYAGI & ORS. VS DELHI TRANSCO LTD. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8951/2006]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Petitioners are eligible for promotion to Assistant Manager (Tech) due to three years of continuous service as Junior Engineers and possessing the necessary engineering degrees, even if the service was not completed post-degree. Delhi Transco Ltd. must convene a Review DPC to consider the Petitioners for promotion with seniority and revise the Office Order dated 12.05.2006 that promoted junior officers over them.

SADHNA PAYAL VS RUKMANI DEVI JAIPURIA PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14814/2021]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The private recognized school, Rukmani Devi Jaipuria Public School, is required to adhere to Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules, 1973, ensuring employee benefits are equivalent to those of government school employees. This provision applies to all private recognized schools, including unaided ones. The petitioner is entitled to leave encashment as a retiral benefit under Section 10(1), with the school's rules not superseding this requirement. The petitioner must make a detailed representation for leave encashment and gratuity balance, which the school must address within six weeks, allowing the petitioner further legal options if not satisfied with the response.

SANJAY KAUSHIK VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-829/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The direction to the DCP to register an FIR against the investigating officer was deemed unwarranted and unsustainable. Emphasis was placed on the need for judicial restraint regarding observations against investigating officers. While the direction to register an FIR was set aside, concerns about the investigation's nature and alleged connivance were noted. The DCP was instructed to examine the issue and make a decision after hearing the investigating officer, following legal procedures.

SARITA BAKSHI VS DELHI UNIVERSITY & ANR [W.P.(C)-5508/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by Sarita Bakshi was allowed, quashing letters from Delhi University and Sri Aurobindo College that sought to refix her pay and recover an alleged overpayment of Rs. 4.28 lakhs made over 20 years. The case was deemed to fall within legal categories prohibiting recovery from retired employees and payments made more than five years prior. The excess payment was attributed to the employer's mistake, and the petitioner had no knowledge of the overpayment. Recovery was deemed iniquitous, leading to an order for the refund of the Rs. 4.28 lakhs, along with 8% annual interest.

SASPAL SINGH VS PUNJAB AND SIND BANK AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-2687/2021]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner's resignation is treated as voluntary retirement due to over 20 years of qualifying service with the bank. The rejection of the petitioner's pension claim by the bank was quashed, and the bank was directed to grant pensionary benefits on the condition that the petitioner refunds the bank's provident fund contributions.

SATYA NARAIN AGRAWAL VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3764/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition seeking pro rata pension for service in the Indian Air Force from June 2, 1960, to November 14, 1969, was dismissed. The petitioner lacks the minimum 10 years of qualifying service required under the Pension Rules. References to Rule 49(3) of the 1972 Pension Rules and Rule 44(8) of the 2021 Pension Rules were rejected as not providing exceptions to the qualifying service requirement. The claim was deemed meritless.

SATYENDRA KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-6253/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition was dismissed as the advertisement by ONGC for Graduate Trainee recruitment adhered to the 1% reservation requirement for persons with disabilities under Section 33 of the Persons with Disabilities Act, 1995. Issues were noted regarding the disability certificate submitted by the petitioner, but it was not deemed inauthentic. ONGC's provision of 1% reservation for Visually Handicapped, Hearing Handicapped, and Orthopedically Handicapped categories complied with DoPT guidelines. The assessment of specific sub-category reservations falls within the employer's purview based on job requirements.

SAURAV ANAND VS UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION [W.P.(C)-243/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The challenge to the debarment order issued by the UPSC pertains to recruitment and falls under the jurisdiction of the Administrative Tribunal as outlined in Section 14 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. The Administrative Tribunal serves as the first point of contact for such matters, preventing the High Court from entertaining the writ petition directly. The writ petition was dismissed, allowing the petitioner the opportunity to approach the Administrative Tribunal, with no opinion expressed on the case's merits.

SEEMA MEHTA VS GNCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10708/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Seema Mehta cannot be denied medical reimbursement for treatment received at a non-empanelled hospital under the CGHS scheme in an emergency situation. The focus is on treatment provided rather than the hospital's empanelment. Respondents must disburse the claimed amount of Rs. 5,85,523/- to the petitioner within six weeks, along with interest at 6% per annum from the date of rejection.

SH RAM KRISHNA DATTA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8413/2020]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Charges of fraudulent LTC claims against the petitioners were not proven. The Inquiry Officer found no role of the petitioners in generating allegedly forged air tickets and established no intent to defraud. Previous rulings indicated that bona fide actions in purchasing tickets from genuine travel agents do not constitute misconduct in the absence of fraud or ill-intent, particularly when the employee traveled. Disciplinary proceedings and the penalty of debarment from availing LTC for two block years were quashed due to the acceptance of the Inquiry Officer's findings that the charges were unproven.

SH G L GUPTA VS DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD [W.P.(C)-7917/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition challenging the suspension order and seeking terminal benefits was dismissed. The suspension order had attained finality, and the petitioner received the difference between salary and subsistence allowance during the suspension period. A 30% cut in pension as a disciplinary penalty was upheld since the petitioner did not contest the disciplinary proceedings. The respondent was directed to issue a speaking order regarding leave encashment, as no such order had been provided.

SH HARI KUMAR S VS LT. GOVERNOR OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14616/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, a retired government employee, is entitled to retirement benefits, which are recognized as a legal right rather than a discretionary government offering. Pension and retirement benefits are acknowledged as essential for financial security in old age. Excuses of budgetary constraints from the respondents are deemed unacceptable. The respondents are directed to release all retirement benefits to the petitioner within two weeks.

SH. MOHAN SINGH VS LOK SABHA SECRETARIAT AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6961/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Lok Sabha Secretariat canceled the petitioner's candidature for the Security Assistant Grade-II (Technical) position due to his medical condition of Coronary Artery Disease (CAD). The position required a high level of physical and medical fitness for demanding tasks, which the petitioner could not fulfill. Consultation with the Joint Secretary (Security), responsible for Parliament's security, indicated that the petitioner would be unable to perform the required duties. The decision was upheld as non-arbitrary and consistent with applicable rules and policies.

SHALIMAR PAINTS VS NATIONAL MARBLE & SANITARY STORE [CRL.A.-289/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The acquittal of the accused under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld due to the appellant's failure to name the correct entity that issued the dishonored cheques. The cheques were issued by National Marble & Sanitary Store VV, but the appellant had incorrectly named National Marble & Sanitary Store as the accused. For prosecution under Section 141, the entity committing the offense must be named as the accused. The absence of evidence against the wrong firm and the failure to include the correct drawer of the cheques led to the dismissal of the appeal.

SHRI JAI BHAGWAN & ANR. VS LAND AND BUILDING DEPARTMENT THROUGH ITS SECRETARY LAND AND BUILDING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15740/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by Shri Jai Bhagwan and another was allowed, challenging the rejection of their claim for an alternate plot. The rejection was based solely on a Tehsildar's report not provided to the petitioners, preventing them from contesting its findings. Owning a house or plot within the village abadi area does not impede eligibility for an alternate plot. The respondent authority must reconsider the claim after sharing the Tehsildar's report and conducting a personal hearing, following relevant policy and case law, without an expression of opinion on the case's merits.

SHRI RAKESH GARG VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-11631/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The suspension and termination orders against the Petitioner were quashed due to the termination being issued by a subordinate authority, which is not legally permissible. The allegations against the Petitioner were not substantiated, and the termination occurred without a proper inquiry, violating principles of natural justice. The Petitioner is to be reinstated with all consequential benefits.

SHRI RANBIR SINGH TOMAR VS LAND AND BUILDING DEPARTMENT, THROUGH ITS SECRETARY LAND AND BUILDING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13311/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, whose land was acquired by the government and received compensation, is eligible for an alternative plot under the rehabilitation policy. The policy restricts allotment only if the applicant or dependents own a house or plot in urban Delhi, not outside it. The purpose of the policy is to provide shelter to those deprived of their land. The petitioner does not own property in urban Delhi, prompting a directive for his application for an alternative plot to be considered.

SHYAM SUNDAR VS STATE (NCT) OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.REV.P.-221/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The conviction of the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was set aside due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The decision acknowledged the ability to compound the offense and acquit the accused even after appellate proceedings, recognizing the petitioner's financial circumstances and the payment of the settlement amount to the complainant. No costs were imposed on the petitioner.

SI MAYA DEVI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-522/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The direction to the Police Commissioner to initiate disciplinary action against the investigating officer was deemed unwarranted and legally impermissible, constituting judicial overreach. Judicial precedents underscored the necessity of judicial restraint and the principle of separation of powers, which bars the judiciary from interfering in the executive's disciplinary processes. The orders directing the initiation of disciplinary proceedings against the officer were set aside.

SIDHARATH @ SOMBIR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-402/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner cannot compel the disclosure of mobile location details of the police team involved in his arrest, as such disclosure could jeopardize the safety and privacy of the officers and the identity of informers. The orders of the trial court were consistent with established views on this matter, showing no errors.

SK JAIN AND ORS VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8941/2011]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition by retired bank employees was dismissed on the basis that they are bound by the 2010 settlement terms, including the November 27, 2009 cut-off date for pension payments and the requirement to refund the bank's contribution to the Contributory Provident Fund with an additional 56% towards the pension fund's funding gap. There was no evidence of discrimination regarding the cut-off date, as it applied equally to other employees who chose pension under the 1995 regulations. Furthermore, the bank has significantly contributed to the pension fund's funding gap as shown in its audited financial statements. The petition was deemed without merit.

SMT. DIVYA BHASKAR AND ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-9552/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The appointments of the petitioners as Assistant Teachers were upheld based on compliance with Recruitment Rules (RRs). B.Ed. was deemed not essential for the position, allowing the school to issue a corrigendum removing the B.Ed. requirement. The Selection Committee, which included a DoE nominee and a subject expert, ratified both the corrigendum and the appointments. No prior approval from DoE was necessary before publishing the corrigendum. The DoE's order declaring the appointments null and void was quashed, leading to the release of the petitioners' salaries and associated benefits.

SMT. DRAUPATI DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8675/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Recovery of Rs. 9 lakhs from the leave encashment dues of the petitioner's deceased husband was deemed impermissible, as it occurred more than 5 years after the alleged excess payment. The recovery was considered iniquitous and harsh due to the petitioner's circumstances of losing both her husband and son. The college must release the leave encashment dues to the petitioner within 6 weeks, along with interest.

SMT. SATYA CHHIKARA VS THE MANAGING COMMITTEE, ARMI PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-11563/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner's termination was deemed malafide and illegal, leading to the quashing of the termination order. The petitioner was recognized as a regular employee, appointed through proper procedures, contrary to the school's claim of her being temporary or contractual. The school must consider back wages, pay revision, and other statutory benefits from the appointment date of April 2, 2007, and confirmation date of April 1, 2008. The matter involved similar cases regarding the school's treatment of other employees, with previous observations highlighting issues with the school's conduct.

SRINIVASA VS THE CHAIRMAN CUM MANAGING DIRECTOR, AGRICULTURE INSURANCE COMPANY OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4545/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner's challenge to the selection process for the Management Trainee (Rural Management) position at the Agriculture Insurance Company of India was dismissed. The recruitment notice indicated that the company reserved the right to set minimum qualifying marks for the interview, and this requirement did not constitute a change in the rules. The petitioner participated in the selection process with awareness of the interview criteria and was therefore barred from contesting the process after not being selected.

ST. GEORGE SCHOOL VS DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION & ORS [W.P.(C)-9670/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The applicability of Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules, 1973 to unaided minority schools was upheld, requiring them to implement the pay recommendations of the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commissions for their employees. The argument for autonomy in determining staff salaries was rejected, affirming that this mandate applies to all recognized private schools. The school was directed to pay teachers their due bonus and transport allowance and to re-fix salaries per the 2008 Central Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules and the 2012 Office Memorandum.

STATE (NCT OF DELHI) VS SHIV PRASAD [CRL.L.P.-526/2015]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The trial court's acquittal of the accused was upheld due to material contradictions in the prosecution's case regarding the positioning of the raiding party, the characteristics of the recovered contraband, adherence to procedural requirements under the NDPS Act, and discrepancies in documentary evidence. The prosecution failed to prove the case beyond reasonable doubt, leading to the dismissal of the state's petition for leave to appeal against the acquittal.

STEEL AUTHORITY OF INDIA LTD VS JSC CRYOGENMASH [O.M.P. (COMM)-509/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The courtesy copy of the arbitral award sent via email on 27.07.2018 did not initiate the 3-month limitation period under Section 34(3) of the Arbitration Act, 1996; the period commenced upon receipt of the original signed award on 06.08.2018. The initial petition filed on 12.11.2018 was considered invalid due to the absence of the arbitral award, a fundamental defect. However, the complete petition submitted with the award on 06.12.2018 was valid, and the delay in re-filing was accepted. On the merits, the arbitral tribunal's findings indicated that the respondent's modifications to the technical specifications adhered to the contract, while the petitioner's rejection was unjustified. Additionally, the tribunal's conclusion regarding the petitioner's wrongful termination of the contract was upheld, affirming the respondent's entitlement to damages for lost profits, incurred expenses, and work completed on engineering drawings.

SUDHIR BUDAKOTI VS VICE CHANCELLOR I/C IGNOU AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4231/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition challenging repatriation from the position of Registrar (Administration) at IGNOU was dismissed. The petitioner was deemed ineligible as he lacked the required 15 years of administrative experience, including 8 years as a Deputy Registrar or equivalent. Concealment of material facts regarding his pay grade during the deputation application was noted as a serious issue. There was also prima facie evidence of malfeasance. The argument regarding the competence of the repatriating authority was rejected, confirming that the Board of Management was the appointing authority as per IGNOU Ordinances.

SUDHIR KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2152/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Discharge of the appellants from charges under Sections 409 and 120B IPC was upheld, as Bank officials acted within their official capacity and lawfully exercised the Bank's right of lien over the mortgaged property. The disputes were determined to be civil in nature, relating to a corporate guarantee and release of title deeds, pending before Debts Recovery Tribunals. The criminal proceedings were viewed as an abuse of process since a civil remedy was available. Essential elements of criminal breach of trust under Section 405 IPC were not established, as the Bank officials did not misappropriate property but retained title deeds under their legal right. The FIR was quashed to prevent abuse of the legal process and ensure justice.

SUNIL DUTT VS SENIOR MANAGER HR, ASHOK HOTEL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4195/2008]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by Sunil Dutt seeking appointment as Assistant Manager (E&M) was dismissed due to confusion in his application regarding the position he sought. His application was submitted after the deadline, leading to non-consideration by the selection committee. The selected candidate, Naveen Rohilla, possessed a B.Tech degree in Mechanical Engineering, making him more qualified. No merit was found in the petitioner's case.

SUNIL KUKERJA VS NATIONAL RURAL ROADS DEVELOPMENT AGENCY AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2308/2016]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The National Rural Roads Development Agency was not justified in refusing to contribute to the pension of a petitioner who was on deputation from PEC Limited. The refusal was based on a misconception without legal support. The agency must remit its share of the pension contribution to the LIC within 8 weeks, along with 8% interest from the date of the petitioner's superannuation. Pension is recognized as a right, not a bounty, and delayed retirement benefit payments incur interest.

SUNIL KUMAR GARG VS M.M.T.C. LTD. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3998/2004]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The petitioner, having voluntarily retired from MMTC under the VRS scheme, cannot challenge the disciplinary proceedings and penalty order against him. VRS schemes are contractual and terminate the employment relationship completely. Accepting VRS benefits prevents the employee from raising claims or grievances related to past service matters, except for unwaived statutory rights. As the petitioner retired without protest, he is estopped from contesting the previous disciplinary actions.

SURAJ PRAKASH VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3988/2023]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Suraj Prakash is ineligible for anticipatory bail under Section 438 CrPC due to his status as a Proclaimed Offender, with exceptions only applicable in rare situations. His lack of cooperation during the investigation, evidenced by providing false information regarding his address, contributed to the dismissal of the bail application. The observations are specific to the bail matter and do not address the case's merits.

SURENDER KUMAR SHARMA VS DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(C)-10782/2017]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition filed by Surender Kumar Sharma for a Grade Pay of Rs. 7,600/- for the position of Budget and Finance Officer was dismissed. He was ineligible for the higher Grade Pay as he had not completed the required 5 years of continuous service in the post of Deputy Controller of Accounts, a prerequisite according to the Recruitment Rules. His claim of discrimination due to a junior officer receiving higher Grade Pay was rejected, as that decision was made by the Finance Department of the Government of NCT of Delhi during the officer's deputation, unrelated to DUSIB. No recoveries will be made from him for the benefits received while holding the current duty charge of the B&FO post at retirement.

T C VERMA & ANR. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-1794/2014]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Appellate Authority erred in condoning a delay of over 2.5 years in filing an appeal under Section 17 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927. The term 'may' in this section only allows the Forest Officer discretion to file an appeal within 3 months and does not give authority to condone delays beyond this timeframe. The Appellate Authority is not classified as a 'court', making the provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963 inapplicable for condoning such delays. The Respondent's actions in taking possession of the Petitioners' land without providing alternative land, as directed by the Forest Settlement Officer, were criticized. The impugned order was quashed, and the Respondent was directed to implement the Forest Settlement Officer's order within 3 months.

T.K.ROY VS V.C.,DELHI UNIVERSITY, DELHI [W.P.(C)-5434/2004]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The writ petition by T.K. Roy for promotion to Technical Officer from 14.01.1993 was dismissed due to his ineligibility based on the University's Executive Council criteria of requiring 20 years of service as of 01.01.1993. The petitioner's previous challenge regarding seniority with two other officers had been resolved and was final. The petition was deemed meritless.

UMESH GAUBA VS MODERN CHILD PUBLIC SR. SEC. SCHOOL (RECOGNIZED) & ANR [W.P.(C)-4637/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The suspension order against the petitioner was invalid due to lack of prior approval from the Director of Education as required by Section 8(4) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules. The absence of approval within the mandated 15 days caused the suspension to lapse, resulting in the petitioner's entitlement to reinstatement with full salary and benefits from the suspension date.

UPPAL HOTELS PVT. LTD. (NOW KNOWN AS DTU HOTELS PRIVATE LIMITED) VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11394/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954 no longer applies to the petitioner's land in Village Samalkha, which was urbanized as of November 20, 2019. The petitioner received permission to construct a motel, signifying that the land is no longer considered agricultural. Consequently, proceedings pending before the Deputy Commissioner, initiated by the Gaon Sabha Samalkha, were quashed.

V. P. KOTHIYAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1852/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The FIR against the petitioner under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act was quashed due to insufficient allegations, lacking specifics such as time and place, and failing to show that the purported insulting words were made in public view. The complaint was deemed motivated by personal rivalry and malice, justifying the quashing to prevent abuse of legal processes.

V.P.KATHURIA AND ORS VS CEMENT CORPORATION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-3651/2012]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Petitioners eligible for promotion but retired or resigned before the Departmental Promotion Committees (DPCs) are entitled to be considered for promotion to the next higher grades. Previous judgments indicate the right to be considered for promotion is fundamental, and employees cannot be excluded from consideration due to their retirement or resignation before the DPC. The company must consider the petitioners for promotion on a notional basis with all consequential benefits. The company's claim of constraints due to being a sick corporation is rejected, as it had convened DPCs and granted retrospective promotions to other employees.

VARRE SAI PRANAV SUDHANSHU VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9744/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The dispute over the evaluation of the petitioner's OMR answer sheet in the Civil Services (Preliminary) Examination 2024 falls under the jurisdiction of the Administrative Tribunal, as it pertains to recruitment under the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. The relevant legal precedent indicates that only the Administrative Tribunals are authorized as the initial forum for such matters. The writ petition was dismissed, with the petitioner permitted to approach the Administrative Tribunal.

VEDA VYASA DAV PUBLIC SCHOOL VS SH. DEVENDER KUMAR ARYA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-5551/2018]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The school's acceptance of the teacher's resignation without the necessary approval from the Directorate of Education violated Rule 114(A) of the Delhi School Education Act and Rules, 1973. The school failed to seek approval within the required 30-day period, and the provision for deemed approval did not apply. The principles established in Raj Kumar v. Directorate of Education regarding protections against illegal termination were deemed relevant to this case involving resignation. The Delhi School Tribunal's decision, which set aside the relieving order and mandated reinstatement with back wages, was upheld.

VEERPAL KAUR VS STATE BANK OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-11132/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The termination of the petitioner's services by the State Bank of India (SBI) was upheld due to her failure to qualify in a mandatory confirmation test, as specified in her appointment documents. The petitioner had previously accepted the terms of service under SBI after its merger with the State Bank of Hyderabad, making the SBI Officers' Service Rules applicable. Despite the petitioner's claims of physical and mental trauma from pregnancy-related complications, sufficient accommodations had been provided, including an extended probation period and multiple opportunities to pass the test. The writ petition was dismissed.

VIKSHIT TOMAR VS DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE & ANR [W.P.(C)-5806/2019]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The cancellation of the petitioner's candidature for the Junior Judicial Assistant position was upheld despite his acquittal in a criminal case. Acquittal does not automatically qualify a candidate for appointment, particularly in disciplined roles like the judiciary. The petitioner's acquittal was deemed not "honourable" due to hostile witnesses and the serious nature of the alleged offenses under Section 302/506/34 IPC. The Screening Committee's assessment of the petitioner as unsuitable for the role was justified, with no identified issues in their recommendation or the final decision to cancel his candidature.

VINAY KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14638/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The answer key for Question No. 57 in the TGT (Maths) examination was deemed incorrect, with both Option 1 and Option 3 identified as valid answers by independent subject experts. As a result, the petitioner was awarded an additional 1.25 marks for selecting the correct Option 1, which was incorrectly marked as wrong. The petitioner is to be offered the position of TGT (Maths), pending the clearance of a medical examination and other selection requirements, along with seniority and salary benefits from the actual appointment date. The revised answer key benefits only the petitioner, with no impact on the appointments of other selected candidates.

VINAY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-10134/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

Under Section 14(1) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, the Administrative Tribunal serves as the primary venue for disputes relating to recruitment and challenges to the examination process conducted by the National Testing Agency (NTA). The argument that writ petitions should be entertained by the High Court, despite the remedy available before the Administrative Tribunal, was rejected, emphasizing that litigants must first approach the Administrative Tribunal for service-related matters.

VIVEK KUMAR SINGH VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6276/2024]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The cancellation of Vivek Kumar Singh's candidature for the Junior Executive (Air Traffic Control) position due to color blindness was unjustified. Medical examination confirmed his normal color vision. An order was issued for the Airports Authority of India to provide an offer of appointment in the OBC category within four weeks, subject to verification of his antecedents. He will receive pay and allowances from his joining date, and seniority will be fixed alongside his batch-mates based on merit.

VIVEK KUMAR VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1978/2022]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The notice issued under Sections 107/111 Cr.P.C. was quashed due to the Special Executive Magistrate's failure to follow mandatory procedures and guidelines. The Magistrate did not independently evaluate the situation before issuing the notice, which appeared to be a mechanical exercise based on a pre-printed format. In landlord-tenant disputes, issuing a Section 107 notice solely based on a police report is inappropriate without an independent opinion. The process requires the Magistrate to exercise caution and provide reasons for their actions. With the notice outstanding for over a year, it was quashed and the Kalandra was directed to be closed.

Y.P.SETHI VS UNION BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2167/2002]

Judges: Justice Jyoti Singh

The Disciplinary Authority complied with the procedural requirements under Rule 7(2) of the Union Bank of India Officer Employees' Regulations, finding the charges against the petitioner were proved. However, the penalty of dismissal was deemed disproportionate due to the petitioner's long unblemished service record, lack of loss to the bank, and absence of mala fide intent. Reconsideration of the punishment, taking these factors into account, was directed.

M/S. MGM PAPERS LLP VS M S SAMMAN LAL SHER SINGH PAPER PVT LTD AND ORS [CS(COMM)-626/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The defendants' application under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for reference of disputes to arbitration is maintainable. Claims of limitation, a restricted time frame for the arbitration clause, and the invalidity of the clause with two named arbitrators were rejected. Non-signatory plaintiffs ratified the Settlement Agreement by relying on it in their pleadings, and the arbitration clause is valid with provisions for appointing a presiding arbitrator. The parties are directed to proceed with arbitration according to the Settlement Agreement, and the delay in the defendants filing the written statement is condoned as it falls within the grace period.

M/S HCL INFOSYSTEMS LIMITED VS M/S PRESTO INFOSOLUTIONS PVT. LTD. [CS(COMM)-733/2022]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to include claims for additional costs incurred from third-party vendors for Annual Maintenance Contract (AMC) services was accepted, citing the defendant's failure to provide these services as per the Master Purchase Agreement (MPA). The additional claims were considered related to the original claims, allowing for the avoidance of multiple proceedings. The plaintiff is required to submit the additional court fee and supporting documents, while the defendant may file an amended written statement regarding the allowed amendments.

ADM CORPORATION VS REDINGTON INDIA LTD & ANR. [CS(COMM)-386/2022]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
Defendant No. 2, HP Sales India Ltd, is categorized as a necessary and proper party to the suit involving ADM Corporation, despite the absence of a direct contractual relationship. The approval of Defendant No. 2 is essential for the overriding commission (ORC) that Defendant No. 1 must pay to the plaintiff, as Defendant No. 2 bears the cost of this ORC. The plaintiff seeks both permanent and mandatory injunctions against both defendants, reinforcing the necessity of including Defendant No. 2 in the proceedings. There are no comments on the merits of the claims and defenses presented.

AMARPAL SINGH VS MAHENDER SINGH & ORS. [CS(OS)-274/2023]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The plaintiff's application for interim relief was dismissed due to an unpersuasive challenge to the relinquishment deed in favor of the defendant, which is barred by limitation. A presumption of validity exists for registered documents, and the principle of possession follows title, indicating the plaintiff is not in actual possession of the property, which has been sold to the defendant. The plaintiff failed to disclose relevant deeds, suggesting a lack of bona fides in the challenge. The claim is limited to the plaintiff's share in the sale consideration received by the defendants.

ANCHIT SACHDEVA & ANR. VS SMT SUDESH SACHDEVA & ORS. [CS(OS)-335/2022]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The properties in question were identified as individual properties of the late Sh. Kewal Kishan Sachdeva and the plaintiffs' uncle, rather than coparcenary properties. The plaintiffs lacked a valid cause of action for claiming partition under Section 6 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, as they could not demonstrate the existence of a Hindu Undivided Family or the properties as coparcenary. The suit was rejected based on these findings.

BALASARASWATHY VS KVSN RAJU [CM(M)-1480/2022]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The tenant's petition against the Rent Controller and Appellate Tribunal was dismissed. It was confirmed that a statutory demand notice was properly served and the tenant had been in arrears since August 2009. The tenant was ordered to vacate the premises, and failure to do so would result in liability for use and occupation charges.

CEPCO INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS TEWARI RESTAURANT PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-17/2023]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The directors of the defendant company, Mr. Vikram Handa, Mr. Dev Kumar Arora, and Mr. Noorul Arfeen, misused the corporate veil to defraud the plaintiff. They were held personally liable for over Rs. 2.47 crores in rent arrears owed by the company. Various orders were issued to restrain the directors from disposing of their assets and operating their bank accounts to facilitate recovery of the arrears.

HARISH KUMAR VS VINOD KUMAR AND ORS [CS(OS)-142/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The registered relinquishment deed dated 03.03.2010 for Shop No. 1/12 executed by the plaintiffs in favor of the defendant cannot be canceled unilaterally by an unregistered deed. Claims regarding Shop No. 1/13 and the Sikandarabad property were dismissed due to insufficient evidence of benami transactions. A preliminary decree for partition was granted for the Mangolpuri property, allowing for equal shares among the plaintiffs and the defendant. The plaintiffs are directed to vacate and hand over possession of Shop No. 1/12 to the defendant.

HINDUSTAN SCOUTS AND GUIDES ASSOCIATION VS SHRINIWAS SHARMA & ANR. [CM(M)-746/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellate court's order to set aside the trial court's interim injunction against the Hindustan Scouts and Guides Association's elections on 05.05.2019 was upheld. The civil suit initiated by Vinod Kumar Bidhuri, on behalf of the Association, was deemed not maintainable since Bidhuri had been removed as National Secretary on 21.02.2019 and did not challenge his removal. Although the Association's elections were conducted in violation of the trial court's order, no error was identified in the appellate court's decision.

JAIN IRRIGATION SYSTEMS LIMITED VS M/S. PRAGYAWAN TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-759/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The case lacks territorial jurisdiction as the cause of action arose in Noida, Uttar Pradesh, where the defendant has a subordinate office. The plaintiff's arguments regarding the defendant's registered office in Delhi and the exclusive jurisdiction clause in the purchase orders were rejected. Pre-contract negotiations were not deemed part of the cause of action, and attempts to establish jurisdiction in Delhi based on these negotiations were dismissed. Additionally, the plaintiff suppressed material facts about a previous suit filed by the defendant in Noida and the order rejecting the plaintiff's application related to that suit. Consequently, the plaint was directed to be returned to the appropriate court in Noida.

KANWAL NAIN JOHAR VS ASHOK KUMAR JOHAR & ORS [RSA-192/2019]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Will dated 28.05.2003 was proven valid through the testimony of attesting witnesses. The challenge to its genuineness by defendant no. 1 lacked merit. It was established that defendant no. 1 is not the rightful owner of the suit property under the earlier Will dated 20.09.1982. The appeal by defendant no. 1 was dismissed, and the decrees of possession and award of damages/mesne profits in favor of the plaintiffs were upheld.

KELA DEVI VS ANIL KUMAR JAIN & ORS. [CS(OS)-74/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's suit lacked a cause of action due to non-compliance with procedural requirements, specifically not providing the municipal number and proper identification of the property. The property was owned by the defendant's predecessor, as recorded in revenue records, and the plaintiff concealed the predecessor's sale of parts of the land between 1961-1968. The plaintiff and her grandson faced prosecution for perjury, and an inquiry was ordered into lapses regarding the registration of the relied-upon relinquishment deed.

M/S OCKLEAF DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD VS RAM AVTAR AGGARWAL (THROUGH LEGAL HEIRS) & ORS. [CS(OS)-229/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The suit filed by M/s Ockleaf Developers Pvt. Ltd. against the Defendants for possession and permanent injunction over a property was dismissed. The Plaintiff's claim of ownership, based on sale deeds from 1987 and 2011, was invalidated by a prior judgment that declared those deeds null and void. A permanent injunction previously issued barred the Plaintiff from relying on the deeds or interfering with the Defendants' possession. The present suit was deemed an abuse of the process of the court, resulting in a dismissal with costs awarded to the Defendants.

M/S SK ASSOCIATES THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SANJEEV KUMAR VS MUNCIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-3161/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Petitioner had a valid 3-year contract to operate certain parking sites, with the Respondent obligated to allow operation for the full period. The original tender and agreement specified a 3-year duration, and attempts by the Respondent to limit it to 2 years violated these terms. A new tender from the Respondent concerning the parking sites operated by the Petitioner was quashed. The Petitioner is to continue operations for the third year, contingent on implementing the new parking policy and paying the increased monthly license fees.

MANOHAR LAL VERMA VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-92/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Letters of administration were granted to Manohar Lal Verma for the immovable property of his deceased wife, Bimla Verma, without requiring an administration bond. The absence of objections from Bimla Verma's legal heirs, including her husband and two daughters, supported this decision. Manohar Lal Verma committed to managing the property for the benefit of all Class I legal heirs.

MR. PARAMJIT SINGH VS MS GAGAN SINGH @ MANNU & ANR. [CS(OS)-77/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff did not establish a fiduciary relationship between his father and the property owner, nor prove his father's contribution to the purchase. As a result, the claim of joint ownership under the Benami Act was rejected. The plaintiff's possession was deemed that of a licensee, lacking legal rights to remain in possession. A mandatory injunction was granted for the plaintiff to surrender the property, along with an award for mesne profits for his unauthorized occupation.

MRS VINTI MEHROTRA & ORS. VS MR KUMAR VAIBHAV & ORS. [CS(OS)-96/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The application to amend the plaint and challenge a will executed on 26.12.2000 was dismissed due to being barred by limitation, as the plaintiffs had knowledge of the will since 2014 but did not initially contest it. The challenge to the will was deemed a distinct issue from the plaintiffs' claims as co-parceners in the HUF property, and allowing the amendment would alter the nature of the suit.

MRS. ANUPAMA MALHOTRA & ORS. VS DR. (MRS.) KAMLESH MALHOTRA & ORS. [CS(OS)-827/2024]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
An Oral Family Settlement and a Memorandum of Family Settlement were approved regarding the partition of the estate of late Mr. Vineet Malhotra. Defendant No. 1, the mother, relinquished her 1/4th share of the estate, which was then allotted equally to Plaintiffs No. 1 to 3, the wife and minor sons of Mr. Malhotra. Plaintiff No. 1 was appointed as the legal guardian of the minor sons and permitted to act on their behalf in the settlement. The suit was decreed in accordance with the Memorandum of Family Settlement, directing banks and financial institutions to transfer the accounts and investments of late Mr. Malhotra to Plaintiff No. 1.

MRS. VEENA JAIN & ORS. VS MR. PRAVEEN JAIN [CS(OS)-199/2022]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The application under Order XXIII Rule 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure was allowed, resulting in the withdrawal of the suit to implement a memorandum of oral family settlement dated 28.06.2024. The settlement terms were deemed lawful, and the parties had voluntarily agreed without undue influence. The plaintiffs were directed to assist the defendant in implementing the settlement, and a refund of court fees was ordered as the suit was at an initial stage and had been settled.

MS PREETI VS MS MAMTA & ANR. [CM(M)-1180/2023]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The petitioner, MS PREETI, and respondent no. 2 agreed to vacate the tenanted premises and settle electricity dues, with a directive to hand over possession to respondent no. 1, MS MAMTA, by a specified date. In case of non-compliance, full occupation charges will be due, allowing respondent no. 1 to pursue recovery through execution.

NAMRITA MALIK VS KULWANT KAUR AND ORS [CS(OS)-699/2024]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The registered will dated 12.10.1995 made by Smt. Joginder Kaur is valid, transferring property to the legal heirs of Sh. Kanwarjeet Singh Kakkar. The relinquishment deed executed on 28.02.2012 by the plaintiff and two other legal heirs in favor of defendant no. 1 is also valid. The mutation and conveyance deed by the DDA affirm defendant no. 1 as the absolute owner of the property. The plaintiff's suit was dismissed due to an abuse of process, as the plaintiff did not seek cancellation of the relinquishment deed or pay the required court fees.

NARENDRA PANDEY VS JAGTAR SINGH & ORS [CM(M)-1737/2019]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The trial court's dismissal of the plaintiff's request to amend the plaint to include a prayer for specific performance of an unregistered Agreement to Sell dated 16.11.2011 was upheld. The proposed amendment would alter the nature of the suit and introduce a time-barred claim. The plaintiff did not demonstrate due diligence in seeking the amendment after the trial commenced. No errors were identified in the trial court's decision.

NITIN SAXENA VS AMIT SAXENA [CS(OS)-649/2023]
Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The plaintiff's suit to cancel registered release deeds from 2014 is barred by limitation. Arguments regarding the deeds being sham documents and the plaintiff's claim of receiving rental income were deemed unmeritorious. The reasons for executing the release deeds were found unreasonable, and the plaintiff provided insufficient evidence for allegations. The defendant's application under Order VII Rule 11(d) CPC was granted, resulting in the rejection of the plaintiff's suit.

NARESH KUMAR VS SHRI TADBIR SINGH AND ORS [CS(OS)-580/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's suit for partition, rendition of accounts, and mandatory injunction regarding agricultural land was dismissed. The agricultural land did not become coparcenary property upon the death of the recorded Bhumidar, Sh. Jug Lal, in 1986. Devolution of interest in the land is governed by Section 50 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954, rather than the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, as the provisions of the latter do not apply to agricultural land in Delhi where the Bhumidar died before 2005. The plaintiff's claims were deemed without cause of action.

NEERAJ KAINTH VS M/S CAMPUSEAI INDIA PVT LTD & ORS. [CS(OS)-645/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Defendant nos. 5 and 6 are not necessary or proper parties to the suit, as the plaintiff has not established personal liability for the company's actions against them. Legal principles indicate that directors or officials are not personally accountable for a company's contractual obligations unless there are claims of fraud or misrepresentation. Consequently, the allegations against defendant nos. 5 and 6 do not warrant their inclusion as parties. However, they are directed to appear as witnesses during the trial and must ensure that defendant nos. 3 and 4 do not hinder the reliefs sought by the plaintiff. The application to remove defendant nos. 5 and 6 from the list of parties is granted, subject to these conditions.

PAWAN VERMA VS SARDAR MANMOHAN SINGH [CM(M)-2010/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The trial court's order granting the defendant conditional leave to defend a recovery suit of Rs. 10,00,000/- was upheld. The defendant's delay in proceedings and his claim of having signed blank documents in good faith, which were allegedly misused, were deemed improbable. The condition of depositing Rs. 10,00,000/- as a fixed deposit receipt was considered a just and reasonable exercise of discretion.

POLOTRIPS INDIA PVT. LTD. & ANR. VS KARNATAKA BANK LIMTED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-31/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The High Court of Delhi lacks territorial jurisdiction to hear a suit for specific performance of an agreement involving immovable property in Rewari, Haryana. Suits for specific performance must be filed where the property is located, and the applicable legal provisions do not permit jurisdictional exceptions in this instance. The inherent relief of possession within the prayer for specific performance cannot be disregarded to sidestep the requirement of filing in the appropriate jurisdiction. The plaint will be returned to the plaintiff for submission to the correct court in Rewari, Haryana.

PRADEEP KUMAR MALIK VS CHANDER DHINGRA [CM(M)-1914/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The eviction order against the petitioner/tenant was upheld due to the rejection of the petitioner's claim of ownership based on unregistered documents. The issues regarding ownership had already been resolved against the petitioner, leading to the dismissal of objections to the eviction decree by the Executing Court and the Rent Control Tribunal.

PRAMOD BHUSHAN VS CHAMAN SINGH [RC.REV.-390/2015]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The eviction petition filed by NRI landlord Chaman Singh against tenant Pramod Bhushan was upheld, citing a genuine need for the premises for Singh's youngest son and three grandsons. Compliance with safeguards in the Delhi Rent Control Act was confirmed. The tenant's revision petition was dismissed, with limitations on the scope of evidence re-appreciation noted. The legal heirs of the landlord pursued the eviction after his death.

RAILTEL CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED VS PRIMATEL FIBCOM LIMITED [ARB. A. (COMM.)-63/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

An appeal under Section 37(2)(a) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 against the dismissal of an application for condonation of delay in filing a counter-claim is not maintainable. The impugned order is characterized as a procedural decision within the arbitrator's discretion and does not raise a jurisdictional question. The appropriate remedy is to wait for the final award before challenging the decision, if necessary, under Section 34 of the Act. This case is treated as individual and not part of a larger batch.

RAJENDER SINGH SISODIA VS SHAFEENA BEGUM & ORS [CM(M)-176/2015]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition by Rajender Singh Sisodia was dismissed, affirming the trial court's judgment in favor of Shafeena Begum. Shafeena Begum was found to have continuous possession of the disputed property until December 19, 2004, while the petitioner's claim of purchasing household articles that day was deemed false. The findings indicated that the petitioner forcibly dispossessed Shafeena Begum without due process. The petitioner must transfer possession of the property to Shafeena Begum within 30 days and pay mesne profits from the date of the trial court's decree if he fails to comply. The trial court's detailed examination of evidence was upheld without any identified errors.

RISHA NAIK AND ANR VS ALLADI YASIN SHAIKH AND ORS [CS(OS)-384/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The application by the plaintiffs and defendants 1 to 4 for the Settlement Agreement dated 19.03.2024 was accepted, leading to the disposal of the suit according to the agreement. Defendant 1 was appointed as the legal guardian of minor defendants 3 and 4 to implement the settlement. Additionally, the entire court fees were refunded to the plaintiffs due to the settlement.

SANJAY KUMAR KAMRA VS STATE AND ORS [TEST.CAS.-27/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Probate of a last will and testament was granted to the petitioner, the deceased testator's brother-in-law, as the will was duly executed and registered. The legal heirs, including the testator's wife and two children, submitted "no objection" affidavits in support of the probate. There were no impediments to granting probate under the Indian Succession Act, 1925, and the petitioner was exempted from providing an administration or surety bond, being the sole beneficiary named in the will.

SH. SUBHASH CHANDRA JARODIA VS SH. VIJAYINDER KUMAR & ORS. [CS(OS)-441/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The registered Gift Deed dated 03.09.2021 and Will dated 24.07.2017 transferring the suit property to defendant no. 1 are prima facie valid. The claims of undue influence and coercion by the plaintiff are unconvincing due to lack of timely communication with siblings. Additionally, the plaintiff's assertion of co-ownership based on contributions to the property lacks supporting documentation. Defendant no. 1 is permitted to use, occupy, or let out the property but cannot sell or mortgage it without prior permission.

SHIV PRAKASH VS MOOL CHAND & ORS [RSA-173/2017]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's suit was deemed not maintainable due to failure to prove that the defendant was appointed as a 'pairokar' by the plaintiff's mother. The land in question had been acquired by the government, with compensation withdrawn by the plaintiff's legal heirs. As a result, the plaintiff lacked any subsisting title or interest in the land, making the sought reliefs unattainable. Concurrent findings from the lower courts on these matters were upheld.

SHRI HARISH BAJAJ VS SHRI YOGI BAJAJ & ORS. [CS(OS)-329/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A joint application under Order XXIII Rule 3 was submitted to record a compromise between the plaintiff and defendants. The parties agreed to partition the suit property, designating specific portions for each. They will construct a foundational wall with an iron grill for demarcation, with expenses shared equally. The partition binds the parties, their legal heirs, representatives, and assigns, but not any land-owning agency or statutory authority. A refund of the court fees paid was granted to the plaintiff due to early settlement through mediation.

SHRI SUNIL KUMAR GUPTA VS SMT. PUSHPA JAIN AND ORS [CS(OS)-126/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The suit filed by the plaintiffs is barred under Order 23 Rule 1(4) of the Code of Civil Procedure due to the unconditional withdrawal of a previous partition suit by their mother in 2017, which relinquished her claim in favor of the defendant. The validity of a registered will executed by the plaintiffs' grandfather, devising the suit property to the defendant, was upheld, and the plaintiffs failed to rebut the presumption of validity attached to the registered document. The suit was dismissed.

SHUCHI SHARMA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH THE COLLECTOR DELHI & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-83/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Shuchi Sharma, as the wife and natural guardian of her minor daughter, is entitled to letters of administration for the entire estate of deceased Sh. Ruchin Khanduja. Evidence regarding immovable properties and bank accounts was reviewed, directing the bank to process foreclosure of outstanding loans within two weeks of repayment, after which property titles will be released to Sharma. No objections were raised against the grant of letters of administration in her favor.

SMT MANJU GARG VS SH SANJAY GUPTA & ANR. [CS(OS)-852/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The civil suit (CS(OS) 852/2023) was decreed based on a Settlement Agreement reached between the parties through court-annexed mediation. The settlement terms were deemed lawful and equitable, binding the parties to the agreement. A 100% refund of the court fees was granted to the plaintiff.

SMT PRIYANKA ALIAS ANURADHA SHARMA VS AMANDEEP BHARDWAJ & ORS. [CS(OS)-645/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The present suit is not maintainable as it involves the same subject matter and relief as a previously instituted suit (CS(OS) 643/2022). Section 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 bars the trial of a subsequent suit when the cause of action is the same. In a partition suit, each party acts as a plaintiff, and the plaintiff in the current suit is already a defendant in the prior suit. Therefore, a separate partition suit for the same properties cannot be maintained. The suit was dismissed as not maintainable under Order VII Rule 11(d) CPC.

SMT SATULA DEVI VS MR RAJEEV SHARMA & ORS. [CS(OS)-203/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

An application under Section 152 of the Code of Civil Procedure was allowed to amend paragraph 116 of a previous judgment from 10.04.2023, correcting a statement made by the counsel for the defendant no. 2A and 2B. The plaintiff's counsel raised no objections to the proposed correction, leading to the amendment being incorporated into the original judgment.

SMT. SAMTA VS SH. SUDEEPAK KUMAR RAJAN AND ORS [CS(OS)-806/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's claim that the suit property is joint Hindu family property purchased with joint family funds was not substantiated. After the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, no presumption exists that property is joint merely due to a joint family. The plaintiff did not present evidence of a joint Hindu family or that the property was acquired from joint family funds. The property is deemed personal property of the late Sh. Daulat Ram, and its inheritance is governed by Section 8 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956. The plaint lacked a cause of action.

SOMNATH BHARTI VS BANSURI SWARAJ AND OTHERS [EL.PET.-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioner's request to retrieve the burnt memory of 1490 EVMs from the New Delhi Parliamentary Constituency election is not maintainable, as it contravenes the Supreme Court's judgment in the Association for Democratic Reforms case. The petitioner did not allege any tampering or modification of the EVMs, which is necessary for verification. The 1490 EVMs will be released to the Election Commission of India for use in future elections, with no disputes regarding vote counting or recounting. However, VVPAT paper slips from the drop boxes must be preserved until the next hearing.

SS RAIL WORKS PVT. LTD. VS IRCON INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [W.P.(C)-16752/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The disqualification of SS Rail Works Pvt. Ltd. by IRCON International Ltd. due to delayed credit of the Earnest Money Deposit and Tender Cost was deemed illegal. SS Rail Works complied with tender conditions by providing proof of payment before the deadline. IRCON is directed to provisionally qualify SS Rail Works and M/s Shivakriti International Ltd., and to open their financial bids within three days.

SUNITA RANGA VS VIJAYINDER KUMAR & ORS. [CS(OS)-148/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's suit for partition of a property was rejected because the property had been validly gifted to the defendant by Chander Bhan before his death. The plaintiff's suit lacked a cause of action as Chander Bhan did not own the property at the time of his death. Additionally, the plaintiff was not in actual or constructive possession of the property and failed to pay the appropriate court fee. The interim order granting status quo was vacated.

YASHPAL ANAND VS RAJENDRA PRATAP SINGH [CS(OS)-670/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's suit for partition of the 2nd floor flat is barred under Section 34 of the SARFAESI Act due to ongoing proceedings regarding property ownership rights and sale details before the Debt Recovery Tribunal. Prima facie findings indicate the entire flat was sold to the defendant according to the sale deed, leading to the suit's rejection as legally barred under Order VII Rule 11(d) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

AMENA BAL VS AMINDER SINGH BAL [CS(OS)-488/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's challenge to the registered relinquishment deed dated 10.08.2018 is unsupported by a prima facie case. As an accomplished individual, she is bound by the terms of the document she voluntarily executed. The application for interim injunction is dismissed, and the request to construct a temporary structure on the terrace is rejected. The plaintiff is required to deposit the ad-valorem court fee within the specified time to address arguments regarding the suit's maintainability. The plaintiff cannot simultaneously accept the relinquishment deed in her favor while challenging the one executed in favor of the defendant.

ABHINAV SINGH RAVISH & ANR. VS SHRI RAMANAND & ORS. [CS(OS)-223/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Plaintiffs' claims of ownership over the land based on unregistered sale documents are invalid. They lack right, title, or interest in the property and are not in actual physical possession, according to the Sub-Divisional Magistrate's order. Other claims for recovery of possession, permanent injunction, and cancellation of sale deeds were rejected due to lack of a valid cause of action.

KAILASH DEVI SAINI VS VED KAUR AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-10/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Kailash Devi Saini lacks a cause of action for partitioning agricultural land previously owned by her father, Balbir Singh, who died intestate in 1980. The devolution of interest in the land, governed by the Delhi Land Reforms (DLR) Act at the time of his death, mandates that it passed exclusively to Balbir Singh's male lineal descendants, excluding daughters. The land remained Balbir Singh's exclusive property and did not become coparcenary property after his death, preventing the plaintiff from claiming a share as a coparcener under the amended Section 6 of the Hindu Succession Act. The application from defendants 1 to 13 was granted, and the plaintiff's plaint was rejected.

SHARAD GUPTA VS SUDERSHAN GUPTA AND ANR. [CS(OS)-885/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The registered will dated 15.11.2011 granted absolute interest in the property to defendant no. 1, the widow of the testator, contradicting the plaintiff's claim of a mere life interest. Precedents indicate that an absolute bequest invalidates any subsequent bequests for the same property. The clear and unambiguous language of the will confirmed defendant no. 1's ownership, leading to the dismissal of the plaintiff's claim as remainderman.

DUSHYANT CHIKARA VS ZEESHAN ALI AND ANR [CS(OS)-608/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff's suit for ownership and permanent injunction over a property was rejected due to false and inconsistent claims supported by documentary evidence. The plaintiff was identified as a trespasser and ordered to vacate the property, returning possession to the legal heirs of the late owner within 4 weeks, or face liability for mesne profits. The claims were deemed to lack merit and considered an abuse of the process of law.

JANKI DEVI SHARMA VS STATE & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-68/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Janki Devi Sharma's petition for probate of the last registered will of Om Prakash Sharma, dated 02.11.2007, was granted. The existence of the will was proven, and Janki Devi Sharma, along with her son and grandson, were identified as the only Class-I legal heirs. The will favored Janki Devi Sharma, and since the petition was uncontested, filing an administration and surety bond was waived.

TV TODAY NETWORK LIMITED AND OTHERS VS SANATAN SANSTHA & OTHERS [CS(OS)-543/2018]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A permanent and mandatory injunction was granted against defendant no. 1, who undertook not to upload or repost the disputed posts. A permanent injunction was also issued against defendant no. 2 due to non-participation in the proceedings and an existing interim order. Plaintiffs were allowed to withdraw their claim for damages against defendant no. 1, but reserves the right to seek damages against defendant no. 2 for any future violations of the injunction order.

AJAY BALUJA VS ABHISHEK DUTT [CS(OS)-254/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The settlement agreement between the parties is lawful, and the suit is decreed in accordance with the settlement terms. The plaintiff is entitled to recover damages at Rs. 2 lakhs per month from July 2022 in case of delays by the defendant, along with interest on outstanding payments. The plaintiff's application for a refund of 90% of the court fees is granted, with the condition that full court fees must be paid if an execution application is needed due to the defendant's default.

AM ASSOCIATES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS JSC OGCC KAZSTROYSERVICE [CS(COMM)-541/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff is entitled to recover INR 568,54,15,389 along with interest at 12% per annum from the defendant under the Corporate Guarantee. Territorial jurisdiction applies, the suit is within the limitation period, and the plaintiff, as the assignee of the Corporate Guarantee, can recover dues from the defendant. Ongoing proceedings in Kazakhstan regarding the guarantee do not impede recovery, as the defendant has not acted to enforce any order from that court.

SHRI. SRINIVASAN GANESH VS BARODA CRICKET ASSOCIATION [CM(M)-658/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

K.C. Mehta and Co. had the ostensible authority to engage the Plaintiff as senior counsel for the Defendant before the Supreme Court. Invoices from the Plaintiff, approved by K.C. Mehta and Co., constituted a written contract, making the suit maintainable under Order XXXVII of the Code of Civil Procedure. The Defendant's defense was deemed frivolous and vexatious, resulting in the denial of leave to defend. The Plaintiff's petition was allowed, and the Summary Suit was decreed in his favor.

TEAM FRANCE 01 S A S VS SPICEJET LIMITED [CS(COMM)-908/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff, Team France 01 SAS and Sunbird France 02 SAS, established a prima facie case for restraining SpiceJet Limited from operating three leased aircraft engines. SpiceJet must ground the engines by 16.08.2024 and return them within 15 days due to repeated defaults on agreed lease payments. Objections regarding territorial jurisdiction were dismissed, as SpiceJet had previously submitted to this jurisdiction. The plaintiff faces irreparable loss from the continued use of depreciating assets without payment, with the balance of convenience favoring them. SpiceJet remains liable for payments as per an earlier order dated 29.05.2024.

MRS SUMAN AGGARWAL & ORS. VS MR RAJENDER PRASHAD AGGARWAL [CS(OS)-607/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The defendant's application to add his wife and two sons as parties to the suit was granted. The suit was decreed based on a settlement agreement, with instructions to prepare a decree accordingly. The court fee paid by the plaintiffs was ordered to be refunded since the suit was resolved through mediation at an early stage, prior to the filing of the written statement.

DHARAMPAL SATYAPAL LIMITED AND ANR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY [W.P.(C)-4470/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The enhancement of the statutory warning on Pan Masala packages to cover 50% of the front label is valid. This decision is based on scientific opinions from the Food Authority's committees and expert studies regarding the health hazards of Areca nut and Pan Masala. The Food Authority followed the necessary statutory process, including public consultation, before implementing the Second Amendment Regulations. The public interest in health protection is prioritized over the private interests of manufacturers, and no claim for parity with the smaller 3mm warning size for other products like alcohol is supported.

MR BHARAT BHARARA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-476/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order disposing of the appellant's writ petition was upheld, with no identified errors. The appellant challenged the partial demolition of illegal construction and sought restoration of a public lane. A demolition order was issued by the MCD, but the matter is pending before the Appellate Tribunal regarding both the demolition and encroachment on public land. The issues are considered sub-judice in the Tribunal, which is the appropriate body to address them. The appeal was also dismissed due to delay, as the reasons for condonation were insufficient.

COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9617/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Government of NCT of Delhi (GNCTD) is addressing environmental issues related to the Yamuna river and Delhi's water bodies. Progress has been satisfactory on 7 out of 12 action points, including management of open drains and installation of biogas plants. However, 5 action points, such as silt assessment in drains and geo-tagging of water bodies, remain unsatisfactory. The Chief Secretary of GNCTD has been instructed to file updated action taken reports before the next hearing. Additionally, steps are to be taken to protect and rejuvenate Lake Bhalaswa, which is drying up.

URMILA VOHRA (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH LR. SHRI RAJESH VOHRA AND ANR. VS JANAK PROPERTIES PVT LTD & ANR. [FAO(OS)-77/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by the legal representative of Urmila Vohra against the judgment in favor of the respondents was dismissed. The decree, based on a mediation settlement between Respondent Nos. 1 and 2, was deemed valid as no restraint order existed against Respondent No. 1 in a related specific performance suit. Respondent No. 2 was recognized as having taken over the rights of Respondent No. 1 as a subsequent purchaser, allowing the appellants to enforce the agreement to sell against Respondent No. 2. Applications by the appellants for impleadment and recall of the decree lacked merit.

BALVINDER KAUR BRAR VS BALDEV SINGH GILL AND OTHERS [FAO(OS)-59/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Balvinder Kaur Brar was dismissed, maintaining the decision to withhold the 50% balance amount deposited with the court. The dispute concerns the partition of properties left by Harpal Singh Gill, with respondent No. 1 claiming an absolute title based on a Will dated 20th May 2009, while the appellant contends the Will is forged. Preservation of the balance amount was deemed necessary for justice, allowing the trial to proceed. Respondent No. 1 was instructed to present the original Will for inspection. The arguments from the appellant lacked merit.

AMAN SEWAK VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9133/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The 7-storey structure built by Respondent No. 7 was illegal and unauthorized, constructed without a sanctioned plan and in violation of official notices. Construction continued despite the property being sealed, with tampering of seals observed. The civil suit filed by Respondent No. 7 for an injunction against demolition was deemed an abuse of legal process, leading to the dismissal of the suit. The MCD was directed to demolish the illegal structure promptly, with assistance from various authorities. Allegations of extortion made by Respondent No. 7 against the petitioner NGO were referred to the Crime Branch for investigation.

O.P.SHARMA VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ANR [W.P.(C)-6508/2014]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioner could not claim ownership of a flat based on unregistered documents such as an agreement to sell or power of attorney, as these do not establish valid rights in immovable property without a registered conveyance deed. The arguments presented were rejected, affirming the validity of the mortgage created by the guarantor in favor of the bank.

JAGRITI JAIN VS PRINCIPAL DISTRICT AND SESSION JUDGE - NORTH & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5368/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The High Court of Delhi addressed a public interest litigation filed by Jagriti Jain, noting that the North District had over 8000 pending matters due to the designation of only one Digital NI Act Court and connectivity issues faced by the Judicial Officer. In response, another Digital Court was established in the North District, and the Judicial Officer was provided a chamber in the Court complex to resolve connectivity problems. The petitioner's counsel indicated that the concerns raised in the petition had been satisfied, leading to the disposal of the PIL.

ZAHID HUSSAIN VS KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LTD. [W.P.(C)-6899/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition was dismissed due to the availability of an adequate alternate remedy through an appeal to the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal (DRAT). The findings regarding the validity of the mortgage documents and service of notice under the SARFAESI Act cannot be re-examined in writ proceedings and should be challenged in the appellate forum. There is a need for restraint in interfering with commercial matters related to recovery proceedings under the SARFAESI Act, which has a specific mechanism for redressal. Costs were imposed on the Petitioner, payable to the Respondent bank.

SCS ENTERPRISE VS THE FISHERY ANIMAL HUSBANDARY AND DAIRYING DEPARTMENT [W.P.(C)-15766/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The respondent acted unreasonably by insisting that the petitioner employ 17 existing multi-tasking staff, leading to the unjustified termination of the petitioner's contract. The respondent must refund the petitioner Rs. 40,003 for GeM portal fees, while the claim for compensation for wrongful termination is to be pursued in the appropriate forum. Findings are stated as prima facie observations, leaving the rights and contentions of the parties open for further adjudication.

MEDIFIRM PHARMACY LLP VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6733/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition by Medifirm Pharmacy LLP challenging the tender notice for establishing a 'Janaushadhi Shop' at Safdarjung Hospital was dismissed. The eligibility criteria set by the tendering authority, including a minimum of one year's experience in operating a PMBJK and preference for bidders with a turnover exceeding Rs. 20 crores, were deemed reasonable to ensure service quality. It was noted that the authority has the discretion to establish requirements, and challenges to non-favorable bid conditions were not supported. No merit was found in contesting the tender conditions.

MAHIPAL SINGH & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-4601/2013]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Elections for the Amateur Kabaddi Federation of India (AKFI) held on December 10, 2023, were deemed fraudulent and invalid due to lack of authority from the court-appointed Administrator. The Administrator had not recognized the applicant associations claiming to be affiliated state units, and their previous claims had been rejected. Criminal complaints against the individuals involved in the elections were directed, and the Administrator was permitted to file complaints against a lawyer with the Bar Council. Applications from the unaffiliated associations were dismissed, with costs imposed. The pending application for permission to transfer control of AKFI to the elected body was requested for expedited decision.

JAGRITI NAGAR COOPERATIVE HOUSE BUILDING SOCIETY LTD VS REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6377/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by the Jagriti Nagar Cooperative House Building Society was dismissed, affirming that Ratna Mohla was not disqualified from membership under Rule 25 of the Delhi Cooperative Societies Rules, 1973. Mohla, a teacher for 31 years, financed her flat allotment with her own funds, and the society failed to provide evidence challenging her membership status. The findings of the Registrar Cooperative Societies and the Finance Commissioner were upheld after 40 years without interference.

CNB LOGITECH PVT LTD VS CENTRE FOR RAILWAY INFORMATION SYSTEMS [W.P.(C)-6089/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

CNB Logitech Pvt Ltd's writ petition to participate in the CRIS tender for GPS sets on freight wagons was dismissed. The petitioner had sufficient time to submit the bid by the deadline, and 14 bids were received before it, undermining claims of system errors. The petitioner's complaint about a system error was sent after the bid's closing. No valid grounds were presented for late participation. However, CRIS was directed to refund the petitioner’s earnest money deposit of Rs. 50 lacs and allowed to encash a corresponding fixed deposit receipt.

DELHI GOVT. OFFICERS CGHS LTD. VS COURT OF FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6145/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The demand of Rs. 1 lakh by Delhi Government Officers CGHS Ltd. from the purchaser of a flat, as a condition for transferring membership, is illegal based on previous judgments and amendments to the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003. The purchaser is eligible for membership and has been unjustly denied her rights for five years. The society must transfer the membership within 10 days, or the Managing Committee members will be personally liable to pay Rs. 50,000.

ASSOCIATION OF NCTE APPROVED COLLEGES TRUST VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION THROUGH ITS REGISTRAR CUM MEMBER SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3354/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Integrated Teacher Education Programme (ITEP) introduced by the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) is classified as a new course, necessitating that existing institutions offering the previous 4-year integrated B.Sc.B.Ed./B.A.B.Ed. programme apply afresh for permission to offer the ITEP course. The ITEP has distinct norms, including its availability only at multidisciplinary institutions, aligning with the National Education Policy, 2020, which aims for all teacher education to be conducted by such institutions by 2030. The NCTE's directive for fresh applications is consistent with the NCTE Act and does not contravene the Constitution.

YASHPAL ANAND VS TATA CAPITAL HOUSING FINANCE LTD. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5900/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition by Yashpal Anand was dismissed, affirming the actions taken by Tata Capital Housing Finance Ltd. under the SARFAESI Act. The claim that part of the property belonged to Anand lacked merit, as the sale deed indicated he had sold the constructed second floor to the respondent borrower. The actions of the respondent bank aligned with the sale deed, and the scheduled auction sale was not interfered with. The Debt Recovery Tribunal was advised to decide the matter without regard to any preliminary observations.

ELIAMMA SEBASTIAN VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3813/2014]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Eliamma Sebastian was dismissed due to disputed questions of fact regarding allegations of defective construction and damages in the Sangha Mitra Society building. An effective alternate remedy is available, making the petition not maintainable. A request for a CBI investigation was also denied, as such orders are reserved for exceptional situations.

NEW RASHTRIYA COOPERATIVE GROUP HOUSING SOCIETY LTD VS SUMAN SHARMA [W.P.(C)-10482/2021]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The arbitral award and orders of the Delhi Co-operative Tribunal were set aside due to the arbitrator's failure to properly consider the evidence regarding the respondent's resignation and refund of the membership deposit, along with acting beyond jurisdiction after his term expired. The society had sufficient cause for the delay in filing its appeal, as the arbitral award was not properly served at its registered address.

RAKESH YADAV VS REGISTRAR CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS [W.P.(C)-5594/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by Rakesh Yadav was dismissed, affirming that Respondent No. 3's membership in the cooperative society is valid and not a benami transaction. The claim that the petitioner made payments for the membership and flat was rejected as a benami transaction under the Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, 1988. The petitioner cannot claim ownership of the flat and must pursue recovery of any amounts advanced through appropriate legal proceedings.

SH. NITIN SABHARWAL PROPRIETOR OF M/S JK DENTAVISION VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-11118/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The interpretation by the Director General of Armed Forces Medical Services (DGAFMS) regarding past performance criteria for a tender for 22 Cone Beam Computer Tomography (CBCT) units was upheld. DGAFMS required bidders to demonstrate the supply of at least 3 units in a single financial year, aligning with their standard practice of rounding up decimal figures. The argument to round down to 2 units was rejected as the tender conditions did not specify whole numbers and only mentioned a 10% requirement. The past performance criteria were deemed reasonable to ensure bidders could deliver the full quantity within 120 days. The petition was dismissed.

MS PERFECT INFRAENGINEERS LIMITED THROUGH ITS PROMOTER AND GUARANTOR & ANR. VS TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT BOARD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3271/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the constitutional validity of certain provisions in the SARFAESI Act, RDB Act, and IBC was dismissed. The provisions were deemed valid based on existing judgments. The petitioner has appropriate remedies available under the statutes, including the option to challenge bank actions before the Debts Recovery Tribunal. Additionally, ongoing proceedings related to the petitioner in the High Court of Bombay influenced the decision to dismiss the writ petition and pending applications.

JOGINDER SINGH GILL VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-1745/2018]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appointment of retired CPWD and railway employees as arbitrators is permitted under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, provided the opposite party gives written consent. The existing panel of retired employees as arbitrators complies with the necessary provisions of the Act.

SH. RAJEEV GUPTA VS SMT. SARITA GARG & ORS. [FAO(OS)-46/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal filed by Sh. Rajeev Gupta challenging the dismissal of his application to reject the plaint of Smt. Sarita Garg was dismissed. Smt. Sarita Garg, as a Class I legal heir of the deceased, has a valid cause of action for partition under the Hindu Succession Act, despite the appellant's reliance on a registered will from 2010, the validity of which has not yet been established. If the will is proven invalid, the estate will devolve by intestate succession. The dismissal of the appeal found no infirmity in the previous order.

DHEERAJ RASTOGI VS DNATA INTERNATIONAL PVT LTD. [FAO(OS)-42/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The decision upheld the Sole Arbitrator's dismissal of the appellant's challenge regarding his termination by the respondent company. The appellant, serving as Chief Financial Officer and Director, failed to report financial fraud and embezzlement by employees, breaching his fiduciary duties. This justified his termination under the employment contract. The appellant did not raise claims concerning the alleged misuse of his digital signature post-termination, which the Arbitrator did not address. The appeal against the Arbitral Award and supporting order was dismissed.

SMT. LATA CHHIBER VS REGISTRAR , CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12780/2019]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition by Smt. Lata Chhiber to set aside an arbitral award was dismissed. The issue centered on her entitlement to a 'Type A' four-bedroom flat versus a 'Type B' three-bedroom flat. Both the arbitrator and tribunal found that she did not prove an application for a 'Type A' flat, despite receiving initial demand letters. Reliance on Section 92(5) of the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act, 2003 was dismissed due to this lack of proof. Additionally, she had paid for and was in possession of a 'Type B' flat, which was approved by the authorities. The petition was deemed to have no merit.

REFOP INDIA LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-251/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Refop India Limited's appeal against the Registrar of Companies' decision to reject its application for conversion from an unlimited liability company to a limited liability company was dismissed. The application filed on 21st October 2014 did not confer any vested right for conversion. The applicable law at the time of decision governs the process, not the filing date. The newly inserted Rule 37, which includes additional criteria for conversions, was deemed a clarificatory amendment rather than retrospective. The rejection was based on Rule 37's requirements, including NOCs from creditors and the company's financial status, with the ROC's reasoning aligning with the statutory framework.

OKHLA INDUSTRIAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4269/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by the Okhla Industrial Estate Development Society to quash the tender notices from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi for parking sites was dismissed. The petitioner lacked grounds for relief since the MCD included additional parking sites in Karol Bagh and Lajpat Nagar in the tender process. A clause was added to the tender allowing relaxation for trader associations, which the petitioner did not utilize. The petitioner does not have a legal or constitutional right to preferential allotment of the parking site.

KIRTI VS RENU ANAND & ORS [LPA-358/2019]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Letters Patent Appeal filed by the Appellant is maintainable, as the learned Single Judge exercised original writ jurisdiction under Article 226, not supervisory jurisdiction under Article 227, while setting aside the Maintenance Tribunal's order. Orders from tribunals performing quasi-judicial functions can be challenged under Article 226. The Respondent invoked both Articles in the writ petition, granting the Appellant the right to file an intra-court appeal.

GANGA SARAN VS THE COMISSIONER OF POLICE [W.P.(C)-4196/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation filed by Ganga Saran seeking the removal of the Interactive Voice Response (IVR) system from Emergency Helpline No. 112 was dismissed. The IVR system is deemed necessary to filter out approximately 97.5% of unintentional or prank calls, allowing operators to focus on genuine emergencies. The current IVR system is considered reasonable and necessary given the circumstances.

PERUMAL RAMASAMY VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-4076/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation (PIL) petition was deemed not maintainable due to the petitioner's failure to disclose a previously filed PIL (W.P.(C) 14795/2022) by the same advocate, which sought similar reliefs. The prayers in both petitions were substantially alike, and the petitioner's claim of no material fact being concealed contradicted the non-disclosure of the earlier petition. The non-disclosure constituted material concealment, leading to the dismissal of the present PIL and accompanying application based on non-maintainability, without consideration of the merits of the earlier petition.

SH ANIL KAPOOR & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH CHIEF SECRETARY & ORS. [LPA-217/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellants, landlords of premises used as liquor vends, are considered similarly situated to landlords in a previous case. The government must remove stock from sealed premises within two weeks and dispose of it according to the Excise Rules, as no valid grounds were presented to deny similar directions. The question of law remains open.

M/S. HINDUSTAN CONSTRUCTION COMPANY LTD VS MR. NAVIN KUMAR PROP. M/S JAI DURGE CONSTRUCTION & ANR. [LPA-224/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the order of the sole arbitrator was deemed not maintainable, as the appellant must await the final arbitral award to challenge it under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The appellant acted upon the impugned order, further rendering the appeal not maintainable. Additionally, the reasons for the delay in filing the appeal were found insufficient.

MASTER SHAURYA PRATAP SINGH AND ANR. (THROUGH THEIR FATHER) VS THE SOVEREIGN SCHOOL THROUGH ITS PRINCIPA AND ORS. [LPA-179/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by two brothers, students in classes 9 and 11, challenging their exclusion from upcoming examinations due to insufficient attendance was dismissed. The attendance policy requires a minimum of 50% attendance to be eligible for final examinations, with limited exceptions. The brothers had 43.6% and 36.7% attendance, and their claim regarding the absence of a specified minimum attendance requirement was rejected, as it would undermine the policy's purpose. Allegations of bullying by other students were not addressed due to the nature of the facts involved.

AJAY CHAWLA VS CHANDER BHAN MAKKER & ANR [RSA-196/2018]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The landlord-tenant relationship was acknowledged, and the rent agreement dated 01.08.2007 was deemed genuine and admissible. The monthly rent was established at ₹4,000, which did not provide protection under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The tenant must pay enhanced mesne profits of ₹17,000 per month from March 2022, as the previous amount of ₹4,000 was considered inadequate due to inflation and changing rental rates in the locality.

SIBA INTERNATIONAL VS UNION BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12406/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Siba International's writ petition to prevent a bank from taking possession of two properties under the SARFAESI Act was dismissed. The petitioner violated prior agreements to make payments to the bank and did not utilize multiple opportunities given for compliance. The request for an extension of time for payments was rendered moot by earlier orders that the petitioner failed to act upon.

SHAILENDRA KUMAR SHARMA ANR . VS RESERVE BANK OF.INDIA ORS [W.P.(C)-2572/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The moratorium under Section 14 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 applies only to the corporate debtor and does not prevent banks from pursuing actions against the borrowers. The writ petition seeking a stay on proceedings before the Debts Recovery Tribunals was dismissed, allowing the borrowers to present their arguments in those proceedings.

UNION BANK OF INDIA VS HULAS RAHUL GUPTA [LPA-117/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Union Bank of India to challenge the quashing of a Look Out Circular (LOC) against Hulas Rahul Gupta was dismissed. The LOC's issuance did not adhere to the guidelines issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs, as the proforma lacked necessary details about the signing officer and reasons for the LOC. There were no pending criminal proceedings or FIR against Gupta, and concluded civil proceedings meant he could not be restricted from traveling. The issuance of the LOC was deemed unjustified, violating Gupta's fundamental right to travel under Article 21 of the Constitution.

JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA VS MD DILWAR HUSSAIN [LPA-137/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The eligibility criteria for the B.Ed. program at Jamia Millia Islamia University state that a bachelor's (Hons.) degree in a school teaching subject does not require the applicant to choose the same subject as their main teaching subject. As long as the applicant meets the requirement of having studied the main teaching subject for 2 years/4 semesters during their graduation, they can select any subject. An individual with a B.A. (Hons.) degree in History, who studied Urdu for the requisite time, was deemed eligible for admission to the B.Ed. (Urdu) program.

M/S HARCHARAN DASS GUPTA VS AZAD HIND COOP GROUP HOUSING SOCIETY LTD [FAO(OS)-114/2017]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

M/s Harcharan Dass Gupta's appeal against the lower court's judgment was dismissed. The arbitrator's award of Rs. 32,33,593 was set aside due to a lack of reasons or evidence, constituting a patent illegality under the Arbitration Act. The appellant did not prove completion of the remaining work under the MoU, and the arbitrator's adjustment of the counter-claim amount was insufficient as evidence. The lower court's decision to invalidate the award and related interest was upheld.

BAHADUR SINGH VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [LPA-99/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal was dismissed on grounds that the judgments cited by the Financial Commissioner were admissible as the appellant acknowledged them in his pleadings. The challenge to the Bhumidhari Certificate issued in 1958 was subject to res judicata due to a prior unsuccessful challenge by the appellant's father. The application filed in 2008 was considered excessively delayed, as the cause of action originated in 1958, making the 50-year delay inexcusable. Additionally, the appellant lacked standing to file the Section 11 application since he was not in cultivatory possession of the land as required under the Delhi Land Reforms Act.

STATE TRADING CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD VS MICRO AND SMALL ENTERPRISES FACILITATION COUNCIL DELHI AND ANR. [LPA-91/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Letters Patent Appeal filed by the State Trading Corporation of India Ltd. was dismissed, as the writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution was deemed not maintainable. Precedent indicates that interference with arbitral proceedings under these provisions should be approached with caution. Furthermore, the issue of an arbitrator's lack of inherent jurisdiction falls under the purview of the arbitral tribunal, with the aggrieved party able to challenge jurisdiction under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act.

JHILMIL AND FRIENDS COLONY INDUSTRIAL AREA CETP SOCIETY AND ANR. VS THE GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1754/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The notification transferring the operation and management of the petitioner's common effluent treatment plant (CETP) to the Delhi Jal Board was quashed due to failure to follow statutory procedures outlined in the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Act, 2000. The order of the Appropriate Authority was not communicated to the petitioner, thus infringing their right of appeal. A directive was issued for a fresh and comprehensive show cause notice to be given to the petitioner in accordance with the law.

HEMLATA GUPTA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-160/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The decision of DSIIDC to reject the Petitioner's bid and cancel the e-auction for the plot was justified. DSIIDC required a minimum of two bidders for the auction, and the Petitioner's bid was significantly lower than the average for similar plots. DSIIDC followed the terms of the NIT in canceling the auction. The Petitioner's request for the allotment of the plot and to quash the re-auction notice was dismissed.

URMIL WADHAWAN & ANR. VS SONNY SARNA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-17/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The direction for the defendants to lead evidence first was upheld, as their defense of part performance under Section 53-A of the Transfer of Property Act is key to determining the plaintiffs' entitlement to possession. The plaintiffs' ownership of the property is acknowledged, while the defendants challenge the relief sought based on part performance. Requiring the defendants to present their evidence first aligns with the discretion under Order XVIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as it helps narrow the scope of evidence if the defense is unproven. The defendants' appeal was dismissed, with no indication of injustice or violation of rights.

MS. BIMLA RANI AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1511/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order of the Registrar Cooperative Societies directing the petitioners to vacate their flats was upheld, as the petitioners were not eligible members of the housing society and lacked valid allotment letters. The determination clarified that the direction encompassed not only 27 flats but also an additional 31 flats that were illegally allotted by the managing committee. The petitioners had occupied flats originally allotted to other members by the DDA through unauthorized actions by the managing committee.

MRS RAGINI UDHRAIN VS USHA KAPILA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-3/2022]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant was directed to pay mesne profits of ₹2 lacs per month for the share of the plaintiffs and another defendant in the suit property. The amount was deemed reasonable due to the appellant's admission of exclusive possession of the property. Claims that the mesne profits lacked evidentiary support were rejected, as judicial notice of prevalent rent can be taken. The subsequent occupation of the property's first floor by others did not affect the legality of the order. The appeal was dismissed due to delay and on its merits.

D S KUNDU VS CHIEF SECRETARY DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6245/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by D.S. Kundu challenging the withdrawal of essential services to his flat in a cooperative housing society was dismissed. An inspection report confirmed that essential services were available. Similar issues had been raised in a previous petition by Kundu, which had been dismissed, leading to the conclusion that he was estopped from bringing forth the current petition. Kundu was directed to pursue his statutory remedy under the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003 for any remaining grievances regarding essential services.

INDRAPRASTHA POWER GENERATION COMPANY LIMITED (IPGCL) VS SHRI RAGHUBIR SINGH [RSA-127/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The plaintiff was found to be senior to Shri V.K. Chaudhary and was wrongly superseded by the defendant in the seniority list. The arguments regarding limitation and res judicata were rejected, as the plaintiff's claim constituted a continuing wrong affecting his pensionary benefits, and the issue of supersession had not been adjudicated in a prior suit. The defendant must comply with the trial court's directions promptly.

NEETU GROVER VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-910/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the constitutionality of Section 5(v) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, was dismissed. This provision prohibits marriage between sapindas unless permitted by custom or usage. The petitioner's marriage with a distant cousin was previously declared null and void due to lack of evidence for such custom or usage. The petition did not present specific grounds for challenging the provision, leading to its dismissal.

SARLA SHARMA VS DELHI NIWAS CGHS LTD. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-688/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by Sarla Sharma was dismissed, confirming that her membership in the Delhi Niwas CGHS Ltd. society was obtained illegally while a court case regarding the original allottee's membership was pending. The ownership claim of the flat was deemed a sham transaction aimed at undermining the orders against the original allottee.

MANOJ KUMAR DWIVEDI AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-687/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition to change the election venue for the Board of Directors of the Supreme Court Bar Association Multi-State Cooperative Group Housing Society Ltd. from the Disaster Management Centre to Library-I in the Supreme Court premises was dismissed. The Returning Officer's decision for the current venue was based on previous threats and lack of cooperation encountered during an earlier election schedule. The petition was deemed belated, and concerns were acknowledged about the ability to conduct free and fair elections at the proposed location.

ARUN KUMAR MISHRA & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-747/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order disqualifying 15 elected members of the outgoing Board of the Supreme Court Bar Association Multi-State Cooperative Group-Housing Society Ltd. does not impact the rights of candidates on the final list published by the Returning Officer. Elections will proceed based on this final candidate list published on 11.01.2024, allowing petitioners to contest. Rights to pursue statutory remedies regarding the disqualification order are reserved for both petitioners and respondents.

M/S STEAMGEN AND CONTROL SYSTEM & ANR. VS CANARA BANK THROUGH ITS BRANCH MANAGER [RFA(COMM)-9/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal to set aside an ex-parte judgment was dismissed as the appellants did not provide adequate evidence supporting their claim of mental depression affecting their ability to participate in the proceedings. The assertion of mental depression lacked documentary support and was deemed insufficient. The appellants had previously appeared through a lawyer, and their later absence did not justify overturning the judgment.

M/S AEZ INFRATECH PVT LTD VS M/S SOMANI WORSTED LTD & ORS [EFA(OS) (COMM)-3/2020]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by M/s AEZ Infratech Pvt Ltd against the Executing Court's order is not maintainable under Section 13 of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, based on a prior judgment. The judgment debtor may seek modification of the impugned order in light of a subsequent judgment. The merits of the case are not addressed, and the rights and contentions of all parties remain open.

RAJEEV KUAMR & ANR. VS SANJEEV KUMAR & ORS. [FAO(OS)-50/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The case centers on the interpretation of a registered Will dated 24.09.2015 left by Sh. Shadi Lal Kumar, to ascertain whether defendant no. 3 is the sole owner of the suit property or holds only a lifetime interest. The existence of the valid Will and the ownership of the property by Sh. Shadi Lal Kumar are undisputed. The implications of the plaintiffs' claims regarding movable property distribution are to be considered separately, excluding allegations of coercion from the respondents. The preliminary issue framing was deemed appropriate, allowing for the clauses of the Will to be interpreted without additional evidence.

SANJEEV LAKRA VS BHIM SINGH [CM(M)-803/2023]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The defendant's petition to amend their written statement was dismissed due to the proposed changes altering the original defense and introducing a contradictory case. The amendments were deemed inappropriate as they would lead to mutually destructive pleas and harm the rights of the opposing party. The attempt to acknowledge the execution of the Agreement to Sell and partial receipt of consideration while introducing a new defense for non-performance was found to be legally impermissible.

MAHENDER SINGH VS THE DELHI STATE CO OPERATIVE BANK LTD [W.P.(C)-44/2024]

Judges: Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Mahender Singh's writ petition challenging the Delhi Co-operative Tribunal's upholding of an arbitral award in favor of the Delhi State Co-operative Bank Ltd. was dismissed. The Tribunal's examination of the defenses on merit was deemed appropriate, with the petitioner unable to demonstrate any substantial error in the Tribunal's decision. Issues regarding payment accounting and the hypothecated vehicle can be addressed in execution proceedings.

AAMIR NASEER VS MOHAMMAD ZULFIQUAR [CM(M)-3483/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff's petition was granted, allowing the examination of an official from the Sales Tax Department to prove a Form-H document, despite the trial court's earlier dismissal of the application to submit the document. The application to submit a document and the application to examine a witness are considered different. The trial court must now permit the plaintiff to examine the Sales Tax Department official, while the plaintiff incurs a cost of Rs. 10,000 for delaying the process.

AASTHA MISHRA @ MUSKAAN VS MR. PRADEEP TIWARI [CM(M)-2916/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

All photographs submitted by the petitioner's husband in a divorce case are to be kept in a sealed cover after being marked or exhibited, accessible only with permission. Some photographs were allegedly taken without the petitioner's knowledge, raising concerns of harassment. The trial court is instructed to ensure the photographs remain sealed for future hearings, with decisions on their relevance or obscenity to be made during the trial.

ABHAY RAJ VERMA VS SHRI PAW AN SINGH & ORS. & ORS. [CM(M)-3349/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A defendant who has not filed a written statement has limited rights in proceedings and cannot present evidence in their substantive capacity. However, they may be called as a witness by a co-defendant, provided the purpose is clearly disclosed. The testimony of the ex parte defendant is relevant only to support the co-defendant's case. Guidelines for the trial court have been provided regarding this participation.

ABHISHEK GUPTA VS PRIYANKA LUTHRA [CM(M)-3665/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to expedite the divorce case on the grounds of cruelty was dismissed due to a lack of special reasons for intervention. The petitioner may still submit an application to the Family Court for an expedited hearing, which will be considered according to the law.

ABHISHEK MONGA VS DELHI DEVELOMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-2398/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Abhishek Monga's writ petition was dismissed, affirming the Delhi Development Authority's cancellation of his bid for an industrial plot due to his failure to pay 75% of the bid amount within the required timeframe. The tender terms specified no extensions beyond 270 days from the demand-cum-allotment letter. Despite the personal circumstances following his father-in-law's death, Monga did not make the necessary payment, and his justifications were not accepted. He remained obligated to adhere to the contractual terms outlined in the tender document.

ADITY A BIRLA FASHION AND RETAIL LIMITED VS MRS SAROJ TANDON [CM(M)-459/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The requirement for pre-institution mediation under Section 12-A of the Commercial Courts Act is mandatory for both claims and counter-claims in commercial disputes, regardless of the urgency of the relief sought. Previous unsuccessful mediation attempts do not exempt a counter-claim from this requirement. This provision applies uniformly to all commercial disputes. The effective date for this ruling is set as 20 August 2022.

ADITYA GOEL VS JOGINDER SINGH & ORS. [CM(M)-45/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The first appellate court erred in allowing the defendants' appeal against the trial court's interim injunction order without notifying the plaintiff, Aditya Goel, or providing him an opportunity to be heard. The appellate court's order was set aside, restoring the appeal to its original position, and requiring that all parties be given an opportunity to present their cases. Additionally, the previous injunction restraining the defendants from further construction on the disputed property was continued until the appeal is reconsidered.

ADITYA MADAN VS THE STATE & ORS. [CM(M)-2807/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The allowance of an amendment to a guardianship petition does not guarantee the automatic approval of the additional prayer by the trial court. The trial court must evaluate all pleadings and conduct summary proceedings before making a decision, ensuring it arrives at its own conclusion after thorough consideration.

ADITYA SAURABH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17215/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's e-wallet was compromised, leading to a fraudulent transaction of Rs. 59,917. The Reserve Bank of India is to address the petitioner's pending appeal under the Reserve Bank-Integrated Ombudsman Scheme 2021 within 10 weeks. The petitioner is advised to submit a fresh application to CIBIL regarding the impact on his score as a victim of fraud. All rights and contentions are reserved, allowing for further action if the petitioner is dissatisfied with the outcomes.

AHMAD ALI VS MANOHAR SINGH PANNU (M.S. PANNU) AND ANR [CM(M)-3325/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner has been permitted to deposit Rs. 1 lac as a fixed deposit receipt (FDR) to stay execution proceedings until the appeal is resolved. The dispute centers on the identity of the judgment debtor, with the petitioner asserting that he is not the actual debtor named in the decree. A lower appellate court previously required a deposit of Rs. 2 lacs to stay execution, but the petitioner's claims and circumstances led to the reduced amount. The lower appellate court can proceed with the appeal as per the law.

AJAY KUMAR RASTOGI AND ANR VS SMT SONAM JAIN [CM(M)-2914/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the defendants to challenge the trial court's dismissal of their application to set aside an ex parte decree was dismissed. The defendants had full knowledge of the civil suit, as their counsel had previously appeared in court. Their later assertion of representing them only in a criminal case indicated a deliberate avoidance of the civil proceedings. No valid grounds were established to set aside the ex parte order under Order IX Rule 7 of the Civil Procedure Code.

AJAY SHARMA AND ORS VS MD. FARMAN [CM(M)-1887/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the legal representatives of Sh. Om Prakash for the inclusion of a Local Commissioner's report from another case was dismissed. The previous dismissal of this application by the trial court was upheld, as Sh. Om Prakash had acknowledged the relevance of the other case in his written statement. The legal representatives were not entitled to reinstate claims after Sh. Om Prakash's passing.

AJIT DHANDA PROPRIETOR VS M/S CL EDUCATE LTD [CM(M)-261/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

An arbitral award that was previously dismissed for being unstamped can now be executed following the petitioner obtaining the original award duly stamped. The earlier order dismissing the execution petition has been set aside, and the executing court is to proceed with the execution after the petitioner files the original stamped award.

AKHTARI BEGUM & ANR VS VIKRAM SHARMA & ORS [CM(M)-1173/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners challenged the dismissal of their objections in execution proceedings following an eviction order under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. They claimed tenancy under the custodian of enemy property and disputed the decree holder's ownership. The parties reached an amicable resolution, with the petitioners agreeing to vacate by 31.12.2025 and settle outstanding dues. The settlement is solely between the landlord and the petitioners and does not affect any interests of the Union of India in the property.

ALOK KUMAR VS RAM KUMAR AGGARWAL & ANR. [CM(M)-1532/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The application to be added as a party in a partition suit for Flat No. 10-A, Supriya Apartments, was dismissed due to a prior civil suit that decided ownership against the petitioner. The petitioner's claims of ownership and of partition were inconsistent. The plaintiff remains able to prove the partition of the property in the trial court.

AMARDEEP SINGH BHATIA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-15667/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Two writ petitions were disposed of, challenging the Delhi Development Authority's (DDA) decision to demolish constructions on the petitioners' plots. The petitioners were directed to appear before the DDA's Deputy Director (Land Disposal) to present their documents. The planned demolition was put on hold, and the DDA was instructed to communicate its decision after hearing the petitioners, allowing them to pursue further legal remedies if necessary. No observations were made on the case's merits, and the DDA retained the authority to make decisions according to the law.

AMARJEET SINGH @ PUMMY VS M/S JAINA PROPERTIES PVT. LTD. AND ORS [CM(M)-3663/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The decree holder is prohibited from taking coercive action in the Execution Petition for one week, allowing the petitioner time to file an appeal. Warrants of possession were improperly issued without waiting for the appeal filing period to expire.

AMARNATH GHOSH DASTIDAR VS STATE AND ORS [CM(M)-3088/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The respondents were allowed to submit a handwriting expert's report concerning the will dated 10.05.1996. The respondents' counsel acknowledged that their concerns had been sufficiently addressed by the trial court and did not request further examination of the will. The petitioner's counsel chose not to pursue the petition but reserved the right to cross-examine the handwriting expert. The petition was disposed of accordingly.

AMATERASU FOODS PVT LTD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR VS BRAJESH KUMAR PROP OF M/S KUMAR INTERIORS [CM(M)-2910/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Amaterasu Foods Pvt Ltd challenging the striking off of its defense in a commercial suit was allowed. The defendant initially filed a written statement but failed to submit an amended version after the plaintiff amended the suit. Considering the case's circumstances and plaintiff's concession, Amaterasu Foods was directed to file the amended written statement within a specified timeframe and to pay costs to the plaintiff. The defendant's defense was restored, and the trial court was instructed to proceed with the case in accordance with the law.

AMITA CHANANA VS SIDDHARTH SOOD [CM(M)-2255/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order of the Family Court striking off Amita Chanana's defense in her husband's divorce petition was set aside. The Family Court should have required Siddharth Sood to provide a legible set of the plaint and documents instead of taking such a drastic action. Siddharth Sood must now provide a complete legible set of documents to Amita Chanana before the next hearing, and she has 30 days to file her written statement after receiving them. No costs were imposed due to the circumstances of the case.

AMR-BBB CONSORTIUM THROUGH LEAD PARTNER, AMR INDIA LIMITED VS BHARAT COKING COAL LTD [CM(M)-3552/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The orders allowing the respondent to amend its statement of defense and frame additional issues were upheld. Judicial interference in arbitral tribunal orders is limited to cases of perverse orders or lack of jurisdiction, with no exceptional circumstances present in this case. The petition under Article 227 of the Constitution was dismissed, maintaining the tribunal's decision to permit the amendments.

AMRIT LAL AGNIHOTRI VS SUSHIL KUMAR VERMA [CM(M)-1176/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition was filed by the defendant challenging the dismissal of an application to reject the plaint based on the Right to Information Act. At the stage of the plaintiff's evidence, the amount involved was relatively small. The plaintiff's counsel expressed no objection to the trial court re-evaluating the suit's maintainability. The decision instructed the trial court to consider the maintainability issue during final arguments and decide accordingly, with no observations made on the merits.

ANAMIKA SARKAR VS SURENDER KUMAR [CM(M)-1096/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's physical visitation rights with her child were increased from once a week to twice a week, now scheduled for Wednesdays and Saturdays from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at the Rohini Court Complex children's room. The existing video call visitation schedule of three times a week remains unchanged. This new arrangement will commence on October 1, 2024, to accommodate the petitioner's travel plans. The decision aims to ensure reasonable visitation rights in line with both parties' consent.

ANAMIKA VS SUDHANSHU KAUSHIK [CM(M)-3454/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to close the respondent's right to cross-examine PW2 and PW3 due to irrelevant questions asked during the cross-examination of PW1 was incorrect. The petitioner is allowed to cross-examine PW2 and PW3, and the cost of Rs. 20,000 imposed on the respondent is waived. The petitioner cannot seek a recall of PW1 for further cross-examination.

ANANTHA BIOTECHNOLOGIES, REP. BY ITS PROPRIETOR VS B. VENKATA RAMANAMMA, DIED BY LRS. W/O LATE JANAKI RAMUDU & ORS. [CM(M)-1990/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission is not maintainable in the Delhi High Court due to lack of jurisdiction, as the cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Andhra Pradesh High Court. The petitioner is directed to approach the Andhra Pradesh High Court for appropriate remedy and may file an appropriate petition there.

ANIL DUTT SHARMA VS RAHUL MEHRA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1756/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition filed by Anil Dutt Sharma was dismissed because the previous writ petition had become infructuous and its requests did not require further adjudication. There was no basis in the contempt petition to initiate proceedings.

ANIL GUPTA SINCE DECEASED THROUGH HIS LRS VS MRS.SAROJ AND OTHERS [CM(M)-445/2021]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Documents sought by the legal representatives of defendant No. 3 are considered accepted under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The execution of these documents is undisputed, and no objections were raised by the respondent, allowing the suit to proceed regardless of their inclusion. There is no comment on the contents or implications of the documents, as only their acceptance for record is acknowledged.

ANIL KALRA & ANR VS SHEIKH MOHD IQBAL [CM(M)-1376/2017]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Eviction of tenants Anil Kalra and Kiran Bala was upheld due to subletting the premises to DTTDC without landlord consent. The argument that the arrangement was a mere license was rejected, as the terms of the license agreement and previous findings indicated a "month-to-month tenancy" relationship. The petition challenging the lower courts' findings had no merit.

ANIL KUMAR JAIN & ANR. VS NARESH JAIN [CM(M)-17/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff in a partition suit is permitted to begin presenting evidence as per Order XVIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The trial court's decision requiring the defendant to start was contrary to established procedure. The plaintiff will present evidence first, followed by the defendant, highlighting the importance of cooperation from both parties for the swift resolution of the case.

ANIL MITTAL VS VVN TRADING PVT LTD [CM(M)-3087/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to summon Mr. L.D. Mittal, chairman of the defendant company, as a court witness was dismissed. The defendant company had already presented its authorized representative, Mr. G.V. Sharma, who was well-informed about the relevant facts. It was concluded that the company was not deliberately avoiding the examination of a material witness and that Mr. Sharma's testimony was sufficient. Additionally, Mr. Mittal's age of 94 years was considered in the decision not to summon him.

ANIL SHAH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [FAO-5/2015]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appellant's claim for compensation under the Railway Claims Tribunal Act, 1987 for injuries from an alleged fall from the Farakka Express train was dismissed due to insufficient evidence. The appellant did not prove he was a bona fide passenger, and there was no supporting documentation from railway or police officials regarding the incident. Issues included the questionable authenticity of a certificate from the Buxar station master, the absence of co-passenger statements or hospital records, and delayed police contact with the appellant. The lack of corroborating evidence aside from the appellant's own statement led to the conclusion that the tribunal's dismissal of the claim was justified.

ANIL WILLIAM THOMAS PROPRIETOR OF M/S 3354 / ANIL WILLIAM THOMAS SECURITY AGENCY VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION [CM(M)-2998/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's plea regarding the waiver of the amount claimed by the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) due to a "Fake ESI Code" ending in 999 was accepted. The petitioner was registered under a legitimate code ending in 018, with allegations that a third party fraudulently obtained the Fake ESI Code. Hardship was not deemed the sole criterion for waiving the pre-deposit, and the entire amount was waived based on the petitioner's specific claims. The validity of the Fake ESI Code's acquisition requires establishment during trial proceedings.

ANJALI CHAUDHARY VS BRAHAMJEET SINGH [CM(M)-1439/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the trial court's order denying interim custody of the child will be addressed in the MAT Appeal against the final order in the Guardianship Petition. The petitioner's counsel chose not to pursue the current petition and will raise the interim issue during the MAT Appeal. The current petition was disposed of, allowing the petitioner to contest the interim order in the upcoming appeal.

ANJU BALA ARORA VS TAPAN MUDGAL & ORS. [CM(M)-2436/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff was granted one final opportunity to examine remaining witnesses in a civil suit, with considerations for financial constraints and a concession from the defendant. An earlier cost of Rs. 15,000 on the plaintiff was modified to be paid to the defendant. The plaintiff must provide advance copies of witness affidavits to the defendant's counsel within two weeks. The possibility for the plaintiff to apply for a recall of the order closing her right to cross-examine the defendant's witnesses remains open.

ANJU VS MCD AND ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1241/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's contempt petition against the MCD and others was not pressed. There was an agreement that the Deputy Director (Education) would address the petitioner's representation within two weeks, which did not occur. The Deputy Director (Education) is now directed to resolve the representation within four weeks, allowing the petitioner a personal hearing. The petitioner may revive the contempt petition if dissatisfied with the outcome.

ANKUR GHILDIYAL VS SANJEEV PURI [CM(M)-2881/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by defendant Ankur Ghildiyal challenging the cross-examination by a Local Commissioner was dismissed. Although the Local Commissioner improperly altered the official record to exclude the defendant's counsel, the defendant could not claim any unfair advantage from this change. As an experienced officer, he was deemed aware of the deposition contents he signed. The request to expunge or re-record the cross-examination was rejected due to lack of merit, and the matter was considered individual rather than part of a batch case.

ANOOP KUMAR GUPTA VS RAJA JAIN [CM(M)-2887/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition was dismissed due to lack of merit. The landlord acknowledged the authenticity of the sale deeds provided by the petitioner, addressing concerns over their proof. The relevance of examining the petitioner's wife as a witness was deemed unnecessary, given that the case is set for final arguments. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

ANU SINGH VS ANKIT KUMAR AGGARWAL [CONT.CAS(C)-348/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Land Acquisition Collector has complied with the previous order regarding the petitioner's representation and acknowledged the petitioner's entitlement to enhanced compensation. Although the compensation remains unpaid, the petitioner may file an appropriate petition or execution for it instead of pursuing a contempt petition. The main issue has been resolved as a standalone matter.

ANUPAM SINGH VS M/S MAHINDRA AND MAHINDRA FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD. [CM(M)-2758/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The entire cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of Uttar Pradesh, necessitating the petitioner to approach the High Court of Uttar Pradesh instead of the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the petition with the option to file in the appropriate High Court, without any opinion on the case's merits.

APEX INTERNATIONAL VS SMT CHANCHAL YADAV & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1869/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition by Apex International against Smt. Chanchal Yadav and others was dismissed. The petitioner's refund claim was rejected by the Competent Authority on September 12, 2024, following notices for a hearing that the petitioner claims were not received. The respondents are required to provide a copy of the order rejecting the refund claim, and the petitioner is permitted to explore other legal options to contest this decision.

ASHA RANI SUKHIJA VS PANKAJ SIKRI [CM(M)-3208/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court is competent to consider the petitioner's application for the appointment of a local commissioner to inspect the suit property, even though the property is sealed by a receiver. The suit was initially filed in the High Court and later transferred to the district courts due to a change in pecuniary jurisdiction. The trial court must review the application afresh and according to the law, without any considerations on its merits.

ASHISH DHIR VS NISHI DHIR [CM(M)-3378/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The divorce petition filed by Ashish Dhir against Nishi Dhir on grounds of cruelty and desertion noted an 11-year delay since its filing in 2013, with the respondent's right to file a written statement closing in August 2024. The expectation was set for the trial court to expedite the case resolution without a fixed deadline. Additionally, the respondent-wife's petitions under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act and for maintenance were dismissed multiple times and later restored, reflecting her conduct during the proceedings.

ASHISH VS AJAY KUMAR BHALLA AND ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-1771/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition by Ashish against Ajay Kumar Bhalla and another was dismissed. The Review Medical Board examined Ashish on 03.09.2024 and found him unfit for appointment as a Head Constable (Communication) in the Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB) due to hypertension. Ashish was granted the option to pursue further legal steps if he disagreed with the Medical Board's report.

ASHOK CHATURBHUJ BHATIA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4585/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to halt the asset-sale process and prevent any third-party claims on a specific property is granted for the interim period until the NCLT reopens on 01.04.2024, while an e-auction is set for 29.03.2024. The respondents will pause the auction for one week to allow the petitioner to approach the NCLT. The petition and all pending applications are disposed of accordingly.

ASHU SHARMA & ANR VS FRAMEWORK INTERIORS [CM(M)-731/2017]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The show cause notice against the directors of the judgment debtor company is set aside. The executing court must hear the matter on a fixed date, allowing the authorized representative and managing director to participate. The decree holder can apply to advance the hearing date. The judgment debtor company is required to submit a new affidavit disclosing its assets and may apply to waive the cost of Rs. 45,000 imposed by the executing court. Detailed directions aim for effective resolution of the execution proceedings.

ASHUTOSH SHARMA VS INCOME TAX OFFICE [CM(M)-2984/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The FDR of Rs. 25 lacs deposited by Ashutosh Sharma for travel permission should be released, as the prior Look Out Circular against him has been rescinded and there are no current restrictions. The FDR was only a condition for travel, not a permanent requirement.

ATAM PRAKASH KAUSHIK THR LRS VS AMIT KUMAR KHATTAR [CM(M)-97/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the legal representatives of deceased defendant Atam Prakash Kaushik was dismissed, affirming the trial court's decision against amending the written statement or introducing additional evidence. In a suit under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act, the determination focused solely on whether the plaintiff was in possession of the disputed property and was illegally dispossessed, independent of title issues. The plaintiff's claim of unlawful dispossession was clear, making the proposed amendments and additional evidence unnecessary for resolution.

AUTONIX LOGISTICS AND AGRO SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED VS VIVEK CONTRACTS PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-3001/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the trial court's rejection of the defendant's application to introduce a late lab test report was dismissed. The defendant failed to demonstrate reasonable cause for not submitting the report sooner, despite being aware of the case's nature and having the opportunity to obtain it. Thus, the trial court's decision to disallow the introduction of the additional document was upheld.

AZIMUDDIN VS GAGAN CHANDELA & ANR. [CM(M)-1937/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appointment of a local commissioner to record evidence in two cross-suits is unnecessary, as the plaintiff in one suit does not wish to delay proceedings and consents to evidence being recorded by the trial court. The parties are to appear before the trial court, which will schedule dates for recording evidence. Priority is to be given to these suits, pending since 2016.

BABITA DEVI VS RAM KRIPAL MALL [CM(M)-3431/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must prioritize the petitioner's application for interim injunction and provide both parties an opportunity to be heard before making a decision. The petitioner is required to appear before the trial court on 23.09.2024, with the possibility of arguments being heard on that day or a later date.

BABITA VS MANISH GUPTA [CONT.CAS(C)-1422/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application for allotment of an alternate plot due to land acquisition will be processed by the respondent without regard to the delay in filing. The petitioner can contact the Deputy Secretary of the Land & Building Department within two weeks, with a decision on the representation due by March 31, 2025. The petitioner may file a new petition if dissatisfied with the outcome or seek to revive the current petition if the timeline is not met.

BABLI PANDEY VS MUKUT LAL SHARMA & ORS. [CM(M)-1852/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff was granted one opportunity to summon an MCD official to prove specific communications, despite prior refusal by the trial court. This decision acknowledged the case's status as one of the oldest pending matters, now at the final arguments stage. Parties were directed to appear before the trial court on a set date for the witness examination, with the defendant allowed to present rebuttal evidence afterward if necessary.

BAL KISHAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16912/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The writ petition regarding the mutation of suit property and conversion from leasehold to freehold was treated as a representation to the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), which must issue a reasoned order within 12 weeks after allowing the petitioners a personal hearing.

BALAJI UNIQUE BUILDERS PVT LTD VS MUKESH MEENA & ORS. [CM(M)-3736/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

In the case of Balaji Unique Builders Pvt Ltd v. Mukesh Meena & Ors., the petitioner sought interim relief through an application for ex-parte ad-interim injunction. The trial court adjourned proceedings, requiring the petitioner to serve all defendants before considering the application. The High Court requested the trial court to address the application in accordance with the law, noting that if ex-parte relief is not granted, the court should provide observations on the matter. No merits of the case were discussed, leaving the final decision to the trial court.

BANK OF BARODA VS SH LAKSHMAN SHETTY [CM(M)-2506/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner Bank can withdraw the current petition and approach the Karnataka High Court, as the entire cause of action arose within Karnataka's jurisdiction. Jurisdiction lies with the High Court where the cause of action occurs, not where NCDRC proceedings were held. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed.

BDR BUILDERS AND DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS SH SHRICHAND BIJLANI [CM(M)-590/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must consider the existing report from the local commissioner, objections from the parties, and a new sealed report. Parties are permitted to file fresh objections before the trial court reaches a final decision as per a prior order. This pertains to a single case (CM(M) 590/2023).

BGSE FINANCE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-13504/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

BGSE Finance Limited challenged the rejection of its application for a Certificate of Registration under the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934. The petitioner plans to submit a new application to rectify earlier deficiencies. The respondents agreed to process this new application within 8 weeks, without considering prior observations. The petitioner can seek further jurisdiction if unsatisfied with the new application outcome.

BHIM SINGH VS RAM KUMAR [CM(M)-2076/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The lower court's order granting the defendant conditional leave to defend a suit under Order XXXVII of the Civil Procedure Code, which required a deposit of 30% of the suit amount as security, was set aside due to a lack of substantive reasoning. A fresh hearing for the application for leave to defend is mandated, with directions to provide a reasoned order on whether leave should be granted, declined, or if any conditions should be imposed. No opinions on the merits of the case were provided, leaving the decision to the lower court.

BHOOMA DEVI VS JANKI DEVI [CM(M)-3372/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Bhooma Devi's request for an adjournment in civil suit proceedings was deemed unjustified due to prior opportunities granted by the trial court. However, a final opportunity for her to appear for cross-examination was allowed, contingent upon the payment of costs of Rs. 10,000 within one week.

BRAHM SINGH VS OM PRAKASH [CM(M)-3226/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff, Brahm Singh, was granted one final opportunity to summon and examine remaining witnesses in a suit for permanent and mandatory injunction, after having failed to do so previously. The opportunity was provided due to overall circumstances and a concession from the defendant's counsel, with a cost of Rs. 10,000/- imposed for the delay. The trial court was instructed to refrain from recording the defendant's evidence and to schedule dates for the plaintiff to present his witnesses.

CAMEO OVERSEAS VS THE GLOBAL - V IMMIGRATION & ORS. [CM(M)-3228/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's arguments regarding the validity of the defendants' written statement were valid due to non-compliance with commercial suit requirements. The petitioner did not file an application to remove the written statement from the record. The petitioner was allowed to withdraw the petition with permission to file an appropriate application before the trial court for removal of the written statement.

CENTRAL BANK OF INDIA VS ANURADHA MANCHANDA AND ORS [CM(M)-3233/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the Central Bank of India was dismissed, affirming the trial court's rejection of its application to set aside an ex parte order. The trial court's reasoning was consistent with the records, and no grounds for interference were identified. The bank had been represented by proxy counsel but did not take action to challenge the ex parte order for nearly 5 years, and its explanations were unconvincing.

CENTRE FOR DEVELOPMENT OF TELEMATICS VS M/S AMRITA TRAVELS [CM(M)-3318/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Compliance with Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, requiring pre-institution mediation for suits not seeking urgent interim relief, is mandatory. The Supreme Court's judgment in Patil Automation Private Limited v. Rakheja Engineers Private Limited made this requirement prospective from 20th August 2022. Since the suit in question was filed in 2019, before this cut-off date, the petition was dismissed due to lack of merit, aligning with previous judgments emphasizing the mandatory nature of Section 12A.

CHANDAN YADAV VS BSES RAJDHANI POWER LIMITED & ANR. [CM(M)-2878/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's observation regarding the plaintiff's suit being dismissed for non-deposit of Rs. 39,96,258.43 was deemed unwarranted and set aside, allowing the plaintiff to continue the suit without the deposit. It was noted that the electricity supply to the premises had not been restored by BSES Rajdhani Power Limited, and the plaintiff was not seeking such restoration. There was no obligation for BSES to provide electricity, and any necessary directions would be determined at final disposal based on evidence and issues involved.

CHARANPREET SINGH VS NEHA BAJAJ & ORS. [CM(M)-3288/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to strike off the petitioner's defense in a commercial suit was upheld. The 120-day period for filing a written statement under the Commercial Courts Act is mandatory and cannot be extended. The petitioner failed to file the written statement within this timeframe, despite initially being permitted to do so. The trial court's action to remove the written statement from the record was deemed proper.

CHOWGULE AND COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4621/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Chowgule and Company Private Limited has a remedy under Section 27 of the Coal Mines (Special Provisions) Act, 2015 to approach the Tribunal established under the Coal Bearing Areas (Acquisition and Development) Act, 1957. The petitioner has 10 days to file an application with the Tribunal, and the Union of India is directed not to enforce the impugned order dated 27.03.2024 for that period.

CITY CLINIC PVT LTD VS MAKINO INTERNATIONAL HEALTHCARE PVT LTD [CM(M)-3277/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant was not properly served with the plaint and documents, although the defendant's counsel appeared and filed a memo of appearance. The plaintiff failed to provide the plaint and documents electronically as directed. The defendant delayed in informing about the non-supply, prompting the decision to grant an additional 30 days to file the written statement, while imposing a cost of Rs.10,000 for the delay in communication.

DBS BANK INDIA LTD AND ORS. VS D. SARGURUNATHAN AND ORS. [CM(M)-3406/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

DBS Bank India Ltd. and others must withdraw their petition under Article 227 challenging an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission and approach the Madras High Court, as the entire cause of action is linked to its jurisdiction. A recent Supreme Court judgment indicated that the jurisdictional High Court should be approached regardless of the NCDRC's decision. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed.

DD AUTO PVT LTD VS PIVOTAL INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD [CM(M)-3059/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by DD Auto Pvt. Ltd. challenging an order from the sole arbitrator was dismissed. The arbitrator had allowed the petitioner to file an additional affidavit addressing new details from the respondent's response affidavit. Interference under Article 227 of the Constitution requires exceptional circumstances or cases of perversity, which were not present in this situation.

DEEPA GUPTA VS GURPREET SINGH & ANR. [CM(M)-3079/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The tenant, Deepa Gupta, is entitled to a fresh electricity connection for her tenanted premises despite the landlord's refusal to issue a no-objection certificate. Electricity is considered a fundamental necessity, and the landlord's refusal to provide this basic amenity necessitates intervention. Tata Power Delhi Distribution Limited (TPDDL) is directed to provide the connection pending the tenant's payment of arrears and an additional security deposit. The order does not grant any special equity to the tenant.

DEEPAK CHHAUDHA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16412/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) must treat the writ petition as a representation and issue a speaking and reasoned order within 12 weeks, allowing for a personal hearing with the petitioners. If the petitioners are dissatisfied with the outcome, they may pursue further legal action.

DEEPAK NIJHAWAN VS SHIVANI ARORA [FAO-336/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The ex-parte order regarding a petition under Section 9 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 was set aside due to its incorrect classification as a petition under Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 CPC. The petition should have been treated as a Section 9 petition and assigned to a Commercial Court, as the original court lacked jurisdiction. The respondent must appear before the Principal District & Sessions Judge, North District, Rohini on 23.10.2024 for allocation to a Commercial Court and may seek appropriate amendments to the petition.

DEEPANSHU SHARMA & ANR. VS VIKRANT TYAGI [CM(M)-3403/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners were required to submit a Fixed Deposit Receipt (FDR) of Rs. 70,000 within four weeks and permitted to file a written statement by 07.10.2024, with an advance copy provided to the opposing side. Compliance with these conditions would allow the petitioners to defend the suit; failure to comply would result in forfeiture of their right to file a written statement and participate in the suit, allowing the trial court to proceed accordingly.

DEEPASRI MULTISPECIALITIES HOSPITAL & ORS. VS MS ANUPAMA NH & ORS. [CM(M)-2749/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' application for condonation of delay in filing the written statement in a consumer complaint should be considered on its merits rather than dismissed summarily. Applications for condonation of delay submitted before March 4, 2020 are required to be evaluated on their merits, despite the 45-day deadline under the Consumer Protection Act. A fresh consideration of the petitioners' application for condonation of delay is necessary, without any comments on the merits of the case.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS BACHHI DEVI THROUGH LRS [CM(M)-3690/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was dismissed due to its responsibility for the delay in filing a revision petition. The reasons for the delay were deemed insufficient, despite a general tendency to adopt a liberal approach in such cases. The decision by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission to reject the revision petition was supported by evidence and did not show any significant errors.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS JAGDEEP BALI [CM(M)-1427/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was dismissed, affirming earlier orders that directed the DDA to allot a flat to complainant Jagdeep Bali and provide compensation. Bali applied for an MIG flat under a DDA scheme in 2001 but was not properly informed about the allotment and later found out it had been canceled. The earlier findings regarding the DDA's obligations were deemed reasonable.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS SWARAN CHADHA [CM(M)-3769/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission dismissed the Delhi Development Authority's appeal due to delay. The Delhi Development Authority had a legal team in place and should have filed the appeal in a timely manner. The refusal to condone the delay was consistent with discretionary power, and no issues of jurisdiction or perversity were identified in the order. Therefore, the dismissal of the petition was upheld.

DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD VS ZILE SINGH THR LRS [CM(M)-3695/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Zile Singh's decree, now in favor of his widow Angoori Devi, mandates the Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB) to deliver possession of the shop within two days. The previous judgment is final, requiring DUSIB to comply. Procedural formalities related to the original decree may be directed by the executing court.

DEVENDER SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-414/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A revision petition challenging a conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was allowed after the petitioner reached a settlement with the complainant, paying Rs. 4,72,000 to resolve six related cases. The offense was compounded under Section 147 of the NI Act, leading to an acquittal under Section 320(8) Cr.P.C., and the petitioner was released from jail. Due to the circumstances of the case, the cost payable was set at 10% of the cheque amount (Rs. 4,500) instead of the usual 15%, with the total cost for five other related cases amounting to Rs. 27,000, to be deposited with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee.

DEVENDER SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-413/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to compound the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was accepted due to an amicable settlement with the complainant. The petitioner paid the full amount owed, and the complainant had no objection to compounding. A cost of 10% of the cheque amount was imposed on the petitioner for the delay in compounding, and he was released from custody. The petitioner is acquitted of the offence. This ruling applies to six similar complaint cases against the petitioner, all compounded simultaneously.

DEVENDER SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-412/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Devender Sharma's revision petition regarding his conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was accepted after a settlement between his son and the complainant resulted in full payment of the owed amount. The offense was compounded under Section 147 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, leading to Sharma's acquittal. He is required to pay 10% of the cheque amount as costs, reduced from the typical 15% due to the long delay and absence of prior criminal records.

DEVENDER SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-418/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Devender Sharma, convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, had his offense compounded after reaching a settlement with the complainant, who received the full amount owed. The absence of any criminal record led to the setting aside of Sharma's conviction, resulting in his immediate release from jail upon payment of 10% of the cheque amount, totaling Rs. 4,500 as costs.

DEVENDER SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-411/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to compound the offense under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was accepted after the parties reached an amicable settlement, with the complainant receiving R.S. 4,72,000. Due to a significant delay in compounding, the cost to be paid by the petitioner was reduced from 15% to 10% of the cheque amount. The petitioner was released from custody, and the offense was compounded, resulting in acquittal under Section 320(8) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

DEVENDER SHARMA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-416/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to compound the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was accepted after he settled with the complainant and paid the full amount owed. This compounding led to the petitioner's acquittal. The cost for compounding was reduced from 15% to 10% of the cheque amount due to the petitioner's lack of prior criminal history and the lengthy proceedings. The petitioner was instructed to be released from custody upon payment of the reduced cost.

DEXTER CAPITAL ADVISORS PVT LTD VS SEROSOFT SOLUTIONS PVT LTD [CM(M)-3711/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Judicial interference in arbitral proceedings is typically limited, but in this exceptional case, the petitioner's right to fully cross-examine the respondent's sole witness was upheld despite time constraints. The petitioner is allowed to complete the cross-examination in a single two-hour session at a date set by the sole arbitrator. This decision is based on the specific facts of the case and is not intended as a precedent.

DHARAM PARTAP KOHLI VS SMT. SAROJ JAIN [CM(M)-3007/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by tenant Dharam Partap Kohli against landlady Smt. Saroj Jain in an eviction case was dismissed. Amending the written statement to include the death of the landlady's husband and the closure of her business was deemed unnecessary, as these developments could be addressed during cross-examination. The landlady's submission of a sale deed for a sold residential property was accepted as a relevant subsequent event. The tenant's petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

DHARAMRAJ CONTRACT INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS ENPEECOM [CM(M)-3617/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order directing the defendant to submit a bank guarantee of Rs. 60 lacs was set aside because the conditions for invoking Order XXXVIII Rule 5 were not met. The defendant's application lacked evidence of absconding, property removal, or any actions to delay enforcement of a potential decree. The provision is to be applied with caution and requires definite material, which was absent in this case, rendering the trial court's order unjustifiable.

DHIRENDER NATH PURI VS DEFENCE COLONY WELFARE ASSOCIATION & ORS. [CM(M)-3246/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner withdrew the challenge to the dismissal of his ex-parte ad-interim injunction application but retains the option to pursue the pending substantive application under Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 CPC before the trial court. The trial court is instructed to consider the application fairly, without influence from previous orders, and no observations were made regarding the merits of the petitioner's claim.

DILEEP SINGH VS GIRIJA DEVI [CM(M)-3336/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the rejection of the application to submit additional documents at the final argument stage was dismissed. The trial court's order was deemed valid due to the lack of plausible justification for the late submission. The case was at the final argument stage, and the defendant's inaction prevented timely documentation. Intervention was not warranted as the findings were not perverse.

DIN DAYAL AGRAWAL VS SIRI IN FIN LEASE PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-3359/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order for the issuance of arrest warrants against Din Dayal Agrawal was recalled due to the non-compliance with mandatory protocols by the executing court. Fresh warrants may be issued in the future if proper procedures are followed. Agrawal faced criticism for engaging a new counsel shortly before proceedings and was required to pay Rs. 10,000 in costs at the next hearing. He retains the option to seek other legal remedies concerning the dismissal of his objection application under Section 47 read with Order XXI Rule 58 of the CPC.

DINESH BHAGAT VS RESIDENTS WELFARE ASSOCIATION CA BLOCK THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT SH. M.K. SINGH [CM(M)-2925/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the dismissal of an application seeking rejection of the suit on the grounds of limitation was dismissed. The matter of limitation was deemed a mixed question of law and fact, unsuitable for resolution at the application stage. The issue remains active for consideration by the trial court during final adjudication regarding the timeliness of the relief sought. No jurisdictional error was identified in the order.

DINESH VS BIRLA SUN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED [CM(M)-1951/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The entire cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Bombay High Court, necessitating that the petitioner approach that court instead of the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the petition with the option to approach the Bombay High Court, with no opinion expressed on the case's merits.

DIRECTOR GENERAL, PROJECT VARSHA MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (NAVY), UNION OF INDIA, NEW DELHI VS M/S NAVAYUGA-VAN OORD JV [CM(M)-3185/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Documents classified as "top secret" under the Official Secrets Act, 1923 cannot be produced during arbitral proceedings due to national security concerns that take precedence over contractual obligations. The narrow scope of judicial interference allows for testing national security claims, and once documents are marked as confidential, their production should not be insisted upon, as evaluating the appropriateness of the classification is beyond the Arbitral Tribunal's purview.

DIVISIONAL RAILWAY MANAGER & ORS. VS SMT PRATIMA RAY [CM(M)-3472/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed on the basis that the matter should have been filed in the Allahabad High Court, where the cause of action arose. It was noted that jurisdiction lies with the High Court corresponding to the location of the cause of action, regardless of any prior approval by the NCDRC. Additionally, prior rulings reinforced this requirement for jurisdictional adherence.

DIWAKAR BATRA VS STATE & ORS [FAO-300/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The dispute among brothers Diwakar Batra, Ratnakar Batra, and Sudhakar Batra regarding their deceased mother's property and assets has been settled through a compromise deed. Ratnakar Batra will care for Sudhakar Batra, covering all his expenses, including medical costs, and ensuring Sudhakar either remains in the current property or is moved to another suitable residence. Ratnakar has been appointed as the guardian ad litem for Sudhakar Batra, as his interests align with those of Sudhakar.

DIWAN SINGH VS DEEPIKA KRISHNA GOPAL MAHESHWARI AND ANR [CM(M)-3311/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner, having suffered an admission decree for possession, has no grievance as the respondent's counsel agreed to refrain from taking coercive steps in execution until the next hearing. The petition is disposed of with the direction for no coercive process to be initiated until that date, allowing parties to make submissions and advance final arguments. The Trial Court's decision to not entertain the petitioner's application for early hearing and stay remains unaffected, as the necessary relief has been provided by the respondent's counsel.

DOLLY VS DUSHYANT KUMAR [CM(M)-214/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The wife's petition to set aside the ex-parte divorce order was allowed. Despite her delay in appearing, the case was directed to be decided on merits, as it involved the Hindu Marriage Act. She was instructed to file her written statement within one week and warned against seeking unnecessary adjournments in the future.

DOZERS AND DOZERS LIMITED THROUGH ITS AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE RAJEEV KAPOOR VS SHREEGEE METRADE PVT LTD THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR GAGAN GUPTA [CM(M)-3136/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The delay in filing the written statement by Dozers and Dozers Limited was condoned, attributed to health issues and family exigencies, with the statement submitted on the 119th day. The respondent agreed to the delay's condonation with the condition of imposing costs, resulting in a payment of Rs. 50,000 by the petitioner to the opposite side.

DR ARCHANA RAI VS RAJASTHAN TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY & ANR. [CM(M)-2449/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Dr. Archana Rai challenging an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed due to jurisdictional issues, requiring the petitioner to approach the Rajasthan High Court instead of the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was given the opportunity to file an appropriate petition in the Rajasthan High Court.

DR MOHD ASHFAQ VS CHETAN SHARMA AND ORS [FAO-266/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The application for interim relief (injunction) in a long-pending suit for specific performance and permanent injunction was dismissed. The plaintiff filed the suit in 2010 but did not seek interim relief for over 10 years, and further delayed pursuing the application for an additional 1 year and 10 months. Granting interim relief at this advanced stage was deemed improper, as the plaintiff did not establish a prima facie case, balance of convenience, or irreparable loss. There was no opinion expressed on the merits of the case, with a direction to expedite the suit's disposal.

DR BRIJ RANI PANDEY VS ELECTROTHERM INDIA LTD AND ANR [CM(M)-2684/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Dr. Brij Rani Pandey was permitted to withdraw the petition challenging orders from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission and is allowed to approach the Allahabad High Court, as the entire cause of action falls within its jurisdiction. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed.

DR OM PRAKASH AGARWAL VS DR H S BEDI & ORS. [CM(M)-1498/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The entire cause of action arose in Uttar Pradesh, necessitating the petitioner to approach the High Court of Uttar Pradesh instead of the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the petitions and may seek relief from the appropriate jurisdictional High Court, with no comment on the merits of the case.

DR. GIRISH SONI VS SEAN WEE LEE AND ORS. [CM(M)-3547/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must dispose of the petitioner's eviction petition under Section 14(1)(b) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958, preferably within four months. The eviction petition should be heard on a day-to-day basis if necessary, with an expectation of cooperation from the counsel for timely resolution.

DR. RAJAN JAISWAL VS M/S SRL LIMITED [CM(M)-3615/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Dr. Rajan Jaiswal challenging an order by the Sole Arbitrator was dismissed. The key issue was the petitioner's failure to show "sufficient cause" for the delayed filing of the Statement of Defense. The scope for intervention in arbitral proceedings is limited to exceptional circumstances, such as a perverse order or one demonstrating bad faith. The Sole Arbitrator's decision to deny the application to submit additional documents was deemed a discretionary power exercise and did not meet the criteria for intervention. The petition was dismissed in limine.

DR. SHEENU GUPTA VS PARSHURAM LANDGE [CM(M)-3520/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action in this matter arose within the jurisdiction of the Bombay High Court, necessitating that the petitioner, Dr. Sheenu Gupta, approach that court instead of the Delhi High Court. Previous cases established that jurisdiction does not automatically move based on the NCDRC's decisions. Consequently, the petition was deemed not maintainable due to a lack of jurisdiction, but the rights and contentions of the parties remain reserved.

EMPLOYEES PROVIDENT FUND ORGANIZATION AND ANOTHER VS MR. M. ARUMUGHAM [CM(M)-3713/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Madras High Court, necessitating that the Employees Provident Fund Organization approach the Madras High Court instead of the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was allowed to withdraw the petition with the option to approach the Madras High Court. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

ETHIOPIAN AIRLINES VS NITIN DEWAN [CM(M)-3649/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Ethiopian Airlines was ordered to pay Rs. 5.5 lakhs to Nitin Dewan for lost baggage. The airline's appeal was dismissed due to limitation, but it had deposited the full amount. Nitin Dewan agreed to accept 50% of the amount, leading to the release of Rs. 2.75 lakhs with accrued interest to him, while the airline could withdraw the remaining amount. Efforts to resolve the matter amicably were acknowledged.

FIITJEE LTD VS HANS RAJ SHARMA [CM(M)-1925/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by FIITJEE Ltd. challenging an order of the NCDRC is not maintainable in the Delhi High Court. The cause of action arose in Cuttack, Odisha, necessitating that the petitioner seek remedy from the Orissa High Court.

FIITJEE LTD VS K K SURESHKUMAR [CM(M)-1943/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by FIITJEE Ltd. under Article 227 of the Constitution was deemed not maintainable due to lack of jurisdiction, as the cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Kerala High Court. The petitioner should proceed by filing an appropriate petition in the Kerala High Court. Rights and contentions of the parties were reserved.

EX CONST ROSHAN LAL VS SH S L THAOSEN IPS & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1797/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition was dismissed as the respondent had fully paid the "Invalidity Pension" amount with interest. The petitioner had previously sought a "Disability Pension," but that request was dismissed. The petitioner can file a representation regarding any grievances about the payment, which the respondent will address promptly.

FATEH CHAND VS SH. ASHWANI KUMAR & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1789/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The unauthorized construction is protected under the "National Capital Territory Of Delhi Laws (Special Provision) Second Act, 2021" as it existed before the cut-off date of 07.02.2007. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi acknowledged this protection in an order dated 10.10.2024, allowing the construction to remain. Compliance with previous directions was noted, and the petitioner may challenge the MCD's order if aggrieved.

FIITJEE LTD VS SNEH LATA [CM(M)-2842/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) dismissing FIITJEE Ltd.'s revision petition was set aside due to lack of merits adjudication, as the respondent failed to appear. The dismissal was attributed to the petitioner's proxy counsel's inability to argue the case. Acknowledging the petitioner's delay, a final opportunity was granted for FIITJEE Ltd. to appear before the NCDRC with due diligence, without any opinion on the merits of the petition.

G. VEERABAHU VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [CM(M)-2937/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure will be considered by the trial court on 28.08.2024. This direction does not require the application to be resolved on the same day, and no observations on its merits have been made. The power under Section 340 is discretionary, and the respondent's counsel indicated a lack of intention to delay the proceedings and will file a reply.

GANESH PRASHAD VS NAWAL KISHORE SONI [CM(M)-3585/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Ganesh Prashad challenging the trial court's orders was dismissed. The plaintiff established the initial burden of proof through the invoice and cheques, shifting the burden to the defendant to substantiate claims of forgery and fabrication. The defendant's request to reframe issues was rejected, with no grounds for interference with the trial court's decisions.

GANGA MEDICAL CENTRE AND HOSPITALS PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS ARPIT TANDON & ORS. [CM(M)-3639/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Ganga Medical Centre and Hospitals Pvt. Ltd. successfully petitioned to not pay a cost of Rs. 25,000 imposed by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) as the order lacked reasoning. The NCDRC retains the option to impose costs later with proper justification. No remarks were made on the merits of the revision petition or the delay in filing the original consumer complaint.

GAURAV MANGLA VS ROHIT MANGLA [FAO-75/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal was dismissed, maintaining the trial court's decision to strike off the appellant's defense due to non-compliance with a previous order that required a deposit of Rs. 1 lakh per month in rent. The appellant's failure to adhere to this order, which was deemed final, resulted in the dismissal, as non-compliance could lead to such consequences.

GAURI SHARMA VS SEEMA SHARMA [CM(M)-75/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Gauri Sharma was granted an opportunity to cross-examine seven witnesses previously examined by Seema Sharma. A date for the cross-examination must be set, either through the court or by appointing a local commissioner. Gauri Sharma must pay Rs. 20,000 to Seema Sharma for causing delays in the proceedings.

GAURI SHARMA VS SEEMA SHARMA [CM(M)-1947/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Gauri Sharma will receive an additional opportunity to present her defense evidence in the trial court. The trial court must set a date for this after reviewing its schedule and may either record the evidence directly or appoint a local commissioner. Sharma is required to pay Rs. 10,000 to the plaintiff for causing delays in the proceedings, with payment due at the next trial court date.

GAUTAM SEHGAL VS WELL TRANS LOGISTICS PRIVATE LIMITED [CM(M)-3720/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court correctly dismissed the petitioner's application challenging territorial jurisdiction under Order VII Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The assessment of whether a meeting occurred within the relevant jurisdiction is a factual question that requires consideration of the plaint's averments. The trial court must address jurisdiction during final arguments, based on the evidence presented by the parties, independent of the previous ruling.

GHAZIABAD DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS DURGA PRASAD [CM(M)-2455/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the Ghaziabad Development Authority was dismissed, affirming the lower consumer fora's decision in favor of the respondent. The respondent was recognized as a "consumer" despite taking possession of the property due to grievances over the lack of essential services. The reasoning of the lower courts was accepted as correct, with no jurisdictional errors identified.

GIRISH KAPOOR & ANR. VS ROOP KISHORE RASTOGI [CM(M)-3584/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' right to present evidence in an eviction petition under the Delhi Rent Control Act was closed due to their failure to ensure the attendance of witnesses despite being given a final opportunity. However, they were granted one additional chance to present two witnesses for cross-examination at the next hearing, conditional upon paying Rs. 30,000 to the respondent. This was specified as the only effective opportunity, with no tolerance for further delays.

GOVIND T SAMANI VS ASHWIN ALOYSRUS DSOUZA & ANR. [CM(M)-3489/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The bond amount set by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) under Section 27 of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 was deemed excessive. The bond was reduced to Rs. 1,00,000 for both the personal and surety bonds, with the aim of ensuring the petitioner's appearance without imposing an exorbitant amount. The petitioner has three weeks to provide the revised bonds.

GOVIND T. SAMANI VS AMARRAJ SINGH SEHMI & ANR. [CM(M)-3580/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The bond amount of Rs. 25 lakhs imposed on Govind T. Samani by the NCDRC in an execution petition was deemed excessive. The bond, intended to ensure compliance and appearance before the NCDRC, should not be exorbitant. The bond amount was reduced to Rs. 1 lakh for both the personal bond and the surety bond.

GOVIND T. SAMANI VS VIDYADAMODAR RAI & ANR. [CM(M)-3766/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The bond amount of Rs. 25 lakhs set by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission for Govind T. Samani's appearance in Consumer Protection Act proceedings was deemed excessive. The purpose of such proceedings is to ensure compliance with orders and impose penalties as needed. The bond was reduced to Rs. 1 lakh for both personal and surety bonds, reflecting the circumstances of the case.

HAPREET SINGH CHADHA ALIAS SHAMPY VS DWARKA NATH CHANDOK AND SONS THROUGH KARTA [CM(M)-3445/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's delayed written statement in a recovery suit was accepted for record despite no justifiable reason for the delay. The plaintiff's counsel agreed that this would not cause undue delay in the suit. The defendant must pay Rs. 30,000 to the plaintiff's counsel before the next hearing and is not allowed to seek unnecessary adjournments.

HARI CHAND & ORS. VS VIJAY RANI [CM(M)-1998/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The delay in filing the written statement by defendants Hari Chand & Ors. is condoned, allowing the statement to be recorded. Defendants are required to pay a cost of Rs. 20,000 for the delay. An ex-parte order against the defendants is set aside. The case involves a prayer for permanent injunction, with no objection from the plaintiff's counsel regarding the defendants' participation.

HARI SINGH VS PREM SINGH [CM(M)-3178/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Hari Singh, the judgment debtor, did not appear for a scheduled hearing despite a prior commitment to pay Rs. 2,00,000. As a result, arrest warrants were issued. During the latest hearing, his counsel indicated readiness to pay the amount on the next date and requested additional time for any remaining balance. Consequently, the arrest warrant is suspended, and Hari Singh must appear in person to make the payment on the next date.

HARI SINGH VS SURESH PAWAR [CM(M)-3177/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition was disposed of regarding an execution proceeding involving the judgment debtor, Hari Singh, who failed to appear as previously promised to pay a balance of Rs. 2,00,000. Consequently, he is required to appear in person before the executing court on 17.08.2024 to make the payment. The issuance of arrest warrants is suspended on the condition that he fulfills his payment obligation.

HARI SINGH YADAV AND ANR VS RAM KUMAR GUPTA DECEASED THROUGH LR. [CM(M)-2946/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners are permitted to examine witness Mr. Subhash on 31.07.2024, with no further opportunities available. If Mr. Subhash cannot be examined due to reasons not attributed to the petitioners, the trial court may allow one additional chance for this purpose. Upon completion of Mr. Subhash's cross-examination, the trial court may proceed with final arguments on the same day if feasible. Both parties are required to prepare for these final arguments, given the case's status as one of the oldest pending in the trial court.

HARPREET SINGH BATRA & ORS. VS TIJU THOMAS & ANR. [CM(M)-3518/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Harpreet Singh Batra & Ors. against Tiju Thomas & Anr. was dismissed due to the existence of a decree and a pending execution petition at the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC). Non-bailable warrants had been issued against the petitioners but were not executed, leading to a police report request from the NCDRC. The judgment debtor's counsel indicated plans to submit a payment schedule to settle the decretal amount in three installments over three months; however, this direction has not been complied with. As a result, there was no basis for intervention regarding the order.

HERO FINCORP LIMITED VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-17767/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Hero Fincorp Limited provided a secured loan to a successful bidder in an e-auction by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), which allowed the bidder to mortgage the property and instructed the direct deposit of the loan amount into its account. The bidder failed to pay the full balance, resulting in the cancellation of the allotment and forfeiture of earnest money. The petition was not pursued as the bidder sought to regularize the allotment rather than request a refund of the premium amount deposited. Hero Fincorp Limited retains the option to seek further recourse if necessary, and the DDA must communicate in advance if it decides to refund the premium amount.

HERO REALTY PRIVATE LIMTED VS UNION OF INDIA MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. [CM(M)-3176/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Hero Realty Private Limited was permitted to withdraw its petition concerning Revision Petition No. RP/1533/2024 due to the origin of the cause of action falling under the jurisdiction of the Punjab and Haryana High Court. The petitioner has the option to approach the relevant High Court. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed.

HINDUSTAN STEEL WORKS CONSTRUCTION LIMITED VS VKS INFRATECH MANAGEMENT PVT LTD [CM(M)-2924/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order dismissing the defendant's written statement was upheld, establishing that the 120-day deadline for filing in a commercial suit is mandatory, starting from the date of initial electronic service, not from the receipt of a hard copy. The defendant's claim regarding the legibility of the earlier provided soft copy was not substantiated. The dismissal of the petition was affirmed, with no irregularity or jurisdictional error identified in the trial court's order.

ICICI BANK LIMITED VS RUMNEEK BAWA & ANR. [CM(M)-2523/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission's order dismissing the petitioner bank's appeal has been set aside. The issue of delay in filing the appeal was not previously raised, and the petitioner should have been given an opportunity to explain this delay. The directive is to reconsider the appeal regarding limitation and, if deemed timely, to examine it on its merits.

INDERJIT SINGH MARWAH VS VIJENDER SINGH [CM(M)-3481/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Inderjit Singh Marwah challenging the decision to grant Vijender Singh time to deposit a pending court fee was dismissed. The District Court's decision to extend the time for deposit under Section 149 of the Civil Procedure Code was deemed justified despite the delay. There was no merit in the argument that the plaintiff should incur costs for the delay, and the matter of costs was left to the trial court's discretion.

INDIA FIRST LIFE INSURANCE CO. LTD VS KORADA KASULAMMA AND ANR [CM(M)-2664/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

India First Life Insurance Co. Ltd. was permitted to withdraw a petition challenging an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission. The cause of action arose in Andhra Pradesh, establishing that jurisdiction lies with the High Court of that state. The petitioner can approach the appropriate High Court without any opinion on the case's merits.

IQBAL SINGH AND ORS VS DR A K GUPTA [CM(M)-1010/2021]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The tenant's voluntary agreement to a 10% annual rent increase in an affidavit was valid and binding, despite exceeding the statutory limit under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The agreement was bilateral, and the tenant's long-term adherence precluded retraction. The order of the Rent Control Tribunal was set aside, and the Rent Controller's directive for the tenant to pay rent according to the undertaking was restored.

IREO GRACE REALTECH PVT LTD VS SAKSHI ABRAHAM & ANR. [CM(M)-3237/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Ireo Grace Realtech Pvt Ltd can invoke the jurisdiction of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission under Sections 51 and 58 of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019, rather than filing a petition under Article 227 of the Constitution to challenge orders from the State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission. The petition has been disposed of, allowing the petitioner to explore this legal option while reserving rights and contentions for both parties.

ISHA TANWAR VS DINESH LOHIA [CM(M)-3542/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's orders imposing costs on the petitioner (wife) for not filing her written statement within the initial 30-day period in the divorce proceedings were upheld. The petitioner received one more opportunity to file her written statement, contingent upon paying an unpaid cost of Rs. 2,500 and an additional cost of Rs. 20,000. After payment, she can cross-examine the respondent (husband) and present her own evidence. The petitioner was deemed responsible for not paying the cost, despite receiving monthly maintenance from her husband.

JAGDEEP SINGH VS KANWALJEET SINGH & ORS. [CM(M)-2853/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Jagdeep Singh to be removed from the list of parties was dismissed. The plaint indicated a joint tenancy between Singh and the defendant company, which Singh disputed and intended to prove during trial. The truth of the claims in the pleadings would be determined at the trial, where Singh was permitted to establish his case.

JAGDISH CHANDER TAKKAR (SENIOR CITIZEN) VS HARGOBIND TAKKAR [CM(M)-233/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to deny Jagdish Chander Takkar's request to present additional evidence in his probate petition was upheld. The court had previously combined the probate petitions of Takkar and his brother Hargobind Takkar regarding their late father Asa Ram Takkar's will, aiming to prevent conflicting judgments. The trial court acted within its authority by rejecting the applications for further evidence, adhering to a directive that only existing evidence could be considered.

JAGDISH KUMAR ARORA VS DINESH MITTAL [CM(M)-3681/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The second suit for recovery of possession of the tenanted premises was not barred under Order II Rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. At the time of the first suit, the tenancy had not been terminated, and there was no cause of action for possession. The lock-in period ended after the first suit was filed, allowing the plaintiff to file for possession. The defendant's petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

JAGDISHWAR KUMAR SETHI (DECEASED) THR LRS VS RAM PRATAP SINGH & ORS [CM(M)-1354/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court erred in dismissing the plaintiff's application to amend the plaint, despite the appellate court's limited remand to consider a fresh site plan and decide the case on merits. It should have adhered to the appellate court's directions without allowing further amendments. The dismissal of the amendment application has been set aside, and the trial court is directed to proceed according to the appellate court's order.

JAI GOPAL GULATI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6323/2016]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Jai Gopal Gulati was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of ownership and significant delay of 43 years in approaching the court regarding a plot of land allegedly encroached upon by the Delhi Development Authority. The petitioner was advised to pursue a civil suit for resolution, as the matter involved disputed questions of fact and boundary demarcation.

JAN MOHAMMAD VS RAMESH CHANDER GUPTA [CM(M)-2427/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner in Jan Mohammad v. Ramesh Chander Gupta was allowed to participate in a suit for recovery of rent, mesne profits, and possession of a shop after not being served with court process and being proceeded against ex parte. Previous applications to set aside the ex parte order were dismissed. The petitioner was permitted to file a written statement within two weeks, with a cost of Rs. 25,000 imposed for causing delays.

JANSEWA GRIHA NIRMAN DEVELOPERS AND BUILDERS THROUGH MR. SHAILENDRA BANODE VS SMT. KALPANA C. CHAFALE [CM(M)-157/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Jansewa Griha Nirman Developers and Builders challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission lacks jurisdiction as the cause of action arose in Maharashtra. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the petition with the option to approach the appropriate High Court in Maharashtra.

JASBIR KAUR & ANR. VS MR RAVINDER SINGH ALIAS RAVINDER MALIK & ORS. [CM(M)-3653/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution was not pressed. The Appellate Tribunal of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi is requested to decide the pending appeal (Appeal No. 598/2024) within six months from 23.12.2024. The demolition of the property is stayed until the appeal is resolved by the ATMCD.

JASBIR SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [CONT.CAS(C)-1901/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The respondents cleared most of the outstanding medical reimbursement amount per the previous order but must reconsider the petitioner's claim of an improper deduction of approximately Rs. 25,000. A decision on this matter is required within four weeks, and the petitioner may file a new contempt petition if dissatisfied with the outcome.

JASPAL SINGH VS RAJENDER PAUL VERMANI [CM(M)-3363/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant was granted a final opportunity to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness, contingent on clearing previous unpaid costs of Rs. 20,000 and an additional Rs. 30,000 by the next hearing. The defendant was instructed to be available for the cross-examination and to bring a witness, with a commitment to conclude the cross-examination on the same day. The total cost of Rs. 50,000 was to be paid to the plaintiff.

JATINDER PAL SINGH LAMBA VS HARVESH KAUR & ORS [FAO-333/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Compensation of Rs. 2,85,185/- was awarded to Jatinder Pal Singh Lamba, including 1/9th share of the sale proceeds of the suit property and an additional Rs. 1 lakh. Rs. 1,80,000/- each was allocated to four other legal heirs who claimed compensation, while the remaining amount was to be refunded to Harvesh Kaur. Legal heirs not participating in the proceedings were denied compensation.

JAWAHAR SINGH VS NARESH KUMAR (DECEASED) THR. LRS. [CM(M)-2922/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by the defendant was dismissed, upholding the trial court's rejection of his application to present a list of witnesses. The defendant's five-year delay in filing the application was deemed unconvincing, as he had been regularly appearing in court. The trial court had already shown considerable patience by keeping the case pending, making its decision to dismiss the application reasonable. The supervisory authority found no grounds for interference, noting that the defendant's issues stemmed from his own inaction.

JEET KUMAR SOHRA VS OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT AND SESSIONS JUDGE HEAD QUARTERS [CONT.CAS(C)-1421/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The denial of promotion to Jeet Kumar Sohra for the upgraded post of Upper Division Clerk (UDC) effective January 2, 2001 is unsustainable. Earlier, the promotion and consequential benefits were to be granted. Sohra's grievance concerns the lack of certain upgradations and benefits following the previous order. The respondents are directed to consider his representation within eight weeks, with the option for Sohra to revive the petition if dissatisfied with the outcome.

JITENDER CHAWLA VS BINOD KUMAR BEGWANI & ANR. [CM(M)-3073/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Jitender Chawla's application to be included as a party in the suit between Binod Kumar Begwani and Gulshan Chawla was dismissed. His claim of co-ownership does not qualify him as a necessary or proper party, as the suit is focused on the alleged ownership and tenancy. He retains the option to assert his claims in a separate proceeding, but his inclusion would alter the litigation's original focus.

JITENDER KAUSHIK VS SH. NARESH KUMAR & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1120/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's contempt petition was dismissed as the respondents had complied with a previous order by filing a special leave petition, which was dismissed by a higher court. The respondents were directed to fully comply with the previous order within 4 weeks, with the petitioner allowed to revive the contempt petition if compliance was not met within the specified timeframe.

JOGINDER KUMAR (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH LRS AND ORS. VS KRISHAN PAL SINGH [CM(M)-632/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendants are permitted to examine their official witnesses and their mother, contingent upon a payment of Rs. 15,000 to the plaintiff. This decision considers the overall facts and circumstances of the case and a concession made by the plaintiff's counsel.

JOGY SCARIA ADVOCATE VS NISSAN MOTORS INDIA PVT LTD AND OTHERS [CM(M)-2906/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Nissan Motors India Pvt Ltd was deleted from the parties in a suit as it was not a necessary or proper party. The main dispute involved the plaintiff and a car dealer concerning the unauthorized sale of the plaintiff's old car. Nissan Motors India Pvt Ltd, being only the manufacturer and distributor of Nissan vehicles, had no role in the registration and transfer of ownership of the car. The petition challenging the trial court's order was dismissed.

JOS CHIRAMEL VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [CM(M)-2846/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order requiring the plaintiff to limit the plaint to 5 pages instead of 45 pages was set aside due to non-compliance with Order VI Rule 16 of the Civil Procedure Code. The trial court did not provide specific reasons for striking out the excess pleadings, and a directive to limit the plaint without valid grounds was deemed inappropriate.

JOS CHIRAMEL VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [CM(M)-2981/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order directing the plaintiff to file a revised plaint limited to 5 pages was set aside due to the lack of specification on which parts were unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous, or vexatious as required by Order VI Rule 16 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It was emphasized that any exercise of powers under this rule must include reasons for striking out portions of the plaint. This decision addressed a set of 3 connected petitions against the National Highways Authority of India.

JUBEDA BEGUM VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [CM(M)-2426/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's plea to condone the delay in filing an appeal against the dismissal of her challenge to a demolition order was allowed. The definition of "sufficient cause" for delay was interpreted liberally to promote substantial justice, emphasizing that the duration of the delay should not solely dictate the outcome. Although the petitioner was slow in seeking legal remedies, there was no indication of deliberate or malicious conduct. The significant nature of the case warranted prioritizing merits over technicalities to ensure substantial justice.

JYOTI CHAUDHARY & ANR. VS RAI VIRENDER NAGPAL [CM(M)-2839/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendants failed to file a written statement within the required 30 days, resulting in ex-parte proceedings against them. The trial court previously set aside the ex-parte order with a cost of Rs. 40,000. The defendants requested a waiver or reduction of this cost, citing lack of income. The cost was modified to Rs. 15,000 payable to the opposite party, with the remaining Rs. 25,000 to the Shahdara Bar Association waived. The petition was disposed of accordingly.

JYOTI SHIVADAS VS DR KRISHNAKUMAR [CM(M)-908/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action arose in the jurisdiction of the Bombay High Court, necessitating the withdrawal of the petition challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission. The petitioner is permitted to approach the Bombay High Court instead, with no opinion provided on the merits of the case.

JYOTI SWAROOP BAWEJA VS DHARM VIR NAGPAL AND ORS [CM(M)-2256/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's plea to revive a civil suit, withdrawn unconditionally based on his mother's last wish, was dismissed. The withdrawal was not due to misrepresentation, and the circumstances did not justify revival under Order XXIII Rule 1 CPC. The petitioner's arguments lacked merit, leading to the rejection of the application for revival of the suit.

JYOTSNA VS BALDEV RAJ MADAN & ORS. [CM(M)-3572/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to close the plaintiff's right to cross-examine DW2 Baldev Raj Madan due to irrelevant questioning was deemed justified. However, given the suit's complexity and a change in the presiding officer, the plaintiff received a final opportunity for cross-examination, to be conducted by her counsel. The plaintiff was required to deposit Rs. 10,000 with the Delhi Legal Services Authority as costs for delays, and the matter was sent back to the trial court to determine if cross-examination could be completed at the next hearing.

KAJOL GUPTA VS SARTHAK JAIN [CM(M)-3497/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to deny further opportunity for Ms. Kajol Gupta to cross-examine her husband, Mr. Sarthak Jain, in divorce proceedings was upheld. However, Ms. Gupta was granted one additional opportunity to complete the cross-examination within 75 minutes on 05.10.2024. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on Ms. Gupta for causing delays in the proceedings.

KAMAL ARORA VS GIRIRAJ GUPTA [CM(M)-3165/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's petition under Article 227 was dismissed, affirming the trial court's decision to strike off the petitioner's defense and reject the application for recall. The petitioner, served and present in the trial court, failed to file a written statement. Claims of financial constraints and lack of legal counsel were disregarded since the petitioner had engaged private counsel in other cases. The findings of the trial court were not considered erroneous, and the petitioner was deemed to have acted with inaction and laches, resulting in a delay of over 477 days.

KAMLAVATI VS INDU AGGARWAL [CM(M)-3409/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Kamlavati, the petitioner in a recovery suit, is permitted to cross-examine the plaintiff, Indu Aggarwal, upon paying a reduced cost of Rs. 5,000, down from Rs. 10,000. The financial situation of Kamlavati, represented by a legal aid counsel, justified this reduction. She must pay the cost by the date set for her cross-examination, with expectations to schedule it within the same month.

KAMLESH KUMAR MISHRA VS GREEN EARTH INFRAVENTURES PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CM(M)-2110/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Kamlesh Kumar Mishra challenging the NCDRC order was deemed not maintainable in the Delhi High Court due to jurisdictional issues. The cause of action was tied to the Chhattisgarh High Court, not merely the NCDRC's involvement. The petition was disposed of, allowing the petitioner to approach the Chhattisgarh High Court.

KAMLESH MEHTA SINCE DECEASED THROUGH LRS VS VINOD GARG [CM(M)-3628/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court granted a decree for possession and awarded Rs. 8,70,000 for rent arrears. However, it incorrectly awarded only Rs. 1,50,000 as damages for the respondent's continued use of the premises, instead of the requested Rs. 1,50,000 per month. The case is to be re-evaluated regarding the petitioner's application under Sections 152 and 151 of the Civil Procedure Code, with the option for the petitioner to file a review application for consideration.

KANCHAN SINGH VS BULA MUKHERJEE & ORS. [CM(M)-1570/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action arose in West Bengal, necessitating that the petitioner approach the High Court of Calcutta rather than the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was permitted to withdraw the petition with the option to file in Calcutta, with no opinions on the merits of the case expressed.

KANCHANA M. SHEKHAR VS AVINASH SHEKHAR [CM(M)-3041/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order for the wife to hand over the child's custody to the husband was set aside because the wife was no longer interested in executing the custody order. The pending application for modification of interim custody is to be addressed promptly, with both parties heard and the matter resolved in accordance with the law.

KANHAIYA LAL VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-17621/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A differently-abled petitioner sought an alternate shop allotment closer to his residence. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was directed to treat the writ petition as a representation and make a decision within 8 weeks, considering the priority for differently-abled individuals. A DDA circular permitting location changes for physically handicapped persons, subject to availability, was cited. No extension of time would be allowed, and the petitioner could revive the petition if dissatisfied with the DDA's decision.

KANHIYA LAL PRAKESH KUMAR VS AJM HOUSING PVT. LTD [CM(M)-3574/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The dispute is classified as a commercial dispute under the Commercial Courts Act, based on the actual use of the property for a commercial cold storage business. Arguments against this classification were dismissed, affirming the decision of the lower court.

KANWAR ENTERPRISES PVT LTD VS JASWINDER SINGH BHATIA [CM(M)-3324/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court should have allowed the petitioner to summon a GST office official to demonstrate that no input tax credit was passed to the respondent, despite the respondent's admission that the petitioner claimed the GST input. An additional opportunity to present this evidence was granted, with instructions for the trial court to hear arguments afresh after recording the official's testimony.

KARTAR KAUR VS SATBIR SINGH DAHIYA [CM(M)-3310/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

An 88-year-old petitioner sought a permanent injunction against her son regarding her possession of the suit property. The petitioner is permitted to reapply for an early hearing, scheduled for 6th September 2024, due to the urgent nature of the case considering her advanced age.

KARTAR SINGH KOCHHAR VS ICICI BANK LTD. [CM(M)-512/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The dispute between Kartar Singh Kochhar and ICICI Bank qualifies as a "commercial dispute" under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, despite the absence of a written agreement. An oral agreement is supported by the parties' actions, such as the bank receiving additional space. The definition of "commercial dispute" does not necessitate a written agreement, and recovery actions involving immovable property remain classified as commercial disputes. Reliance on the Deepak Polymers case was dismissed, as it did not consider the specific wording of the Act's Explanation. The classification of the dispute as commercial was upheld.

KASTURI RAJAN & ORS. VS VATSALA VESCIO & ORS. [CM(M)-1924/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition filed by defendants 1 to 4 for a stay of proceedings was addressed, with both parties agreeing to hear arguments on the main petition. A proposal made during the arguments was accepted, directing the trial court to consider the plaintiff's application under Order I Rule 10 CPC for the deletion of defendants 5 and 6. The trial court is instructed to hear arguments on this application and proceed with the main matter as appropriate. The ability of the plaintiff to withdraw the application remains undetermined for the trial court's consideration. The recording of evidence by a local commissioner may be deferred as directed by the trial court.

KAVITA VS M/S D L NAGPAL FINANCE AND LEASING CO. PVT. LTD & ORS. [CM(M)-3184/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner cannot be removed from the parties as the plaint alleges her role as a guarantor for the loan. Despite the closure of her right to file a written statement, she has the limited right to cross-examine the plaintiff's witnesses to prove she was not a guarantor. The specific claims in the plaint about her involvement establish a cause of action against her.

KELVIN AIR CONDITIONING AND VENTILATION SYSTEM PRIVATE LIMITED VS TRIUMPH REALITY PRIVATE LIMITED [CM(M)-3592/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition challenging an arbitral tribunal's order dismissing an application for condonation of delay in filing the statement of defense and counter-claim was found to lack merit. The remedy under Article 227 is limited to exceptional circumstances involving orders that are perverse or demonstrate bad faith. The question of "sufficient cause" for the delay lies within the tribunal's discretionary jurisdiction, and there was no indication of perversion or bad faith in its order. The petition was dismissed, affirming the tribunal's decision.

KHUSHBOO ALIAS KHUSHBU RANA VS ICICI LOMBARD GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD. [CM(M)-3357/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) did not adequately explain the reduction of the interest rate from 10% to 9% per annum or the change in the interest payment start date when dismissing the petitioner's revision petition. The matter has been remanded to the NCDRC for reconsideration of the review petition, ensuring both parties have the opportunity to be heard.

KIRAN ARORA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-15658/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner, a senior citizen, is entitled to have her request for conversion of leasehold property to freehold property considered by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) within 10 weeks. The DDA is instructed to review the request according to the law. The petitioner has a long-standing grievance and had deposited the necessary conversion charges in 2017.

KOHILIKA @ KUHI VS ANUBHAV SAXENA [CM(M)-3512/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner (wife) was permitted to file her written statement in defense against the husband's divorce petition despite a delay. The focus was on addressing the case on its merits rather than technicalities. The written statement, filed electronically and later submitted, was accepted with an additional cost. The husband was allowed to file a replication, and the petitioner was directed to pay all outstanding costs. The trial court was instructed to proceed with the case, expecting the petitioner's full cooperation for an expeditious resolution.

KORRA WORLDWIDE ADVERTISING PVT LTD VS HT DIGITAL STREAMS LIMITED [CM(M)-3647/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Korra Worldwide Advertising Pvt Ltd's petition was allowed after the trial court dismissed its applications to cure defects in the written statement of a commercial suit. Defects, including missing signatures on each page and a non-compliant statement of truth, were recognized as curable procedural irregularities. The defendant was permitted to submit an amended written statement after paying a cost of Rs. 25,000.

KRIPAL RUHANI SATSANG SOCIETY (RETD.) VS SHRI MANOHAR LAL SHARMA (DECEASED) & ORS. & ORS. [CM(M)-3686/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the dismissal of an application to strike off an additional issue ('1aa') was dismissed. The prior framing of the issue necessitates a decision from the trial court, which can hear all parties involved without bias from the earlier order.

KRISHAN KUMAR GUPTA VS NEHA KHANNA [CM(M)-3610/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application for waiver of costs imposed for delays in his examination as PW-1 was dismissed. The petitioner was directed to pay the costs within one week, and a date for his further examination before the local commissioner was to be set. Expunging the already recorded testimony would prejudice the petitioner, who, as a chartered accountant and resolution professional, had no intention to prolong the proceedings despite his inability to appear earlier.

KULDEEP SINGH & ORS VS ATTAR SINGH & ORS [FAO-157/2017]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by Kuldeep Singh and others in a partition suit was allowed, overturning the dismissal of their applications to include the legal representatives of deceased defendant Attar Singh and to set aside the order of abatement. The delay in filing was attributed to the transfer of the suit due to a change in pecuniary jurisdiction. The appeal was granted based on the nature of the suit and concessions from the respondents' counsel. Costs of Rs. 25,000 were imposed on the appellants for laches and inaction. Additionally, the current suit was directed to be allocated to the same court as a related partition suit to prevent conflicting orders.

KUSUM CHHETRI (DECEASED) THROUGH LR VS RAJ RANI JUNEJA (DECEASED) THROUGH LR & ANR. [CM(M)-3275/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the trial court's order to allow the plaintiff to add the legal representatives of a deceased defendant was dismissed. The delay in filing the application was considered valid due to difficulties in obtaining information and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The suit was at the stage of the defendant's evidence, and the plaintiff retained the option to set aside the abatement if necessary. The decision of the trial court was viewed as reasonable and supported by evidence.

LAKSHMI BANSAL VS SUPRABHAT ELECTRIC CO. PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-3716/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Lakshmi Bansal was dismissed, upholding the lower court's denial of her application to cross-examine the plaintiff and present her own evidence in a commercial suit. Bansal's repeated failures to utilize opportunities provided by the trial court contributed to her situation, and she undermined the established timelines. The emphasis on expeditious resolution of commercial disputes under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, influenced the decision to dismiss her petition.

LALIT KUMAR BASSI VS USHA SARIN [CM(M)-2559/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The issue of the plaintiff's authorization to institute the suit was resolved, as the plaintiff appeared as a witness and addressed the relevant issues. The respondent's counsel confirmed that the Attorney Holder would not be examined due to this resolution. Consequently, the petition filed by the defendant challenging the order allowing the plaintiff to submit a new Special Power of Attorney was disposed of.

LALIT KUMAR VS SHRI VED PAL & ORS. [CM(M)-3243/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court is instructed to quickly decide if the disputed land is agricultural, which will establish whether the partition suit is barred. This preliminary issue must be resolved before any other applications are addressed, with an emphasis on concluding the matter within six months.

LALIT TIWARI VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [CM(M)-3550/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Lalit Tiwari challenging the demolition order for construction over his flat was dismissed. The construction claimed to have been completed in 1999 and 2004 was not protected under the National Capital Territory of Delhi Laws (Special Provisions) Second Act, 2011. Tiwari's own 2003 written statement denied the existence of such construction, and he failed to mention it in a 2013 suit. Thus, the dismissal of his appeal was upheld.

LAXMI EYE CARE LLP & ORS. VS OPTI PLAZA [CM(M)-182/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Laxmi Eye Care LLP & Ors. challenged a trial court order requiring evidence to be recorded by a Local Commissioner. Due to the petitioners' financial constraints and the respondent's lack of objection to recording evidence in the trial court, fresh dates were to be provided for that purpose. The petition was disposed of, and the upcoming date before the High Court was canceled.

LAXMI RAJVANSH AND ANR VS SHAMA [CM(M)-2802/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Laxmi Rajvansh and another to be impleaded in a suit after the death of plaintiff Ms. Sarbati Devi was dismissed. The petitioners had already filed a probate petition for a will, which is contested, and a separate suit against the legal representatives of the plaintiff for ownership and rent recovery. They must establish their right before seeking impleadment in the original suit and can seek urgent relief in the court where their separate suit is pending. No illegality was found in the order regarding the dismissal.

LEELADHAR MISHRA VS VINOD KUMAR SHARMA [FAO-263/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by Leeladhar Mishra to set aside an ex-parte decree in favor of Vinod Kumar Sharma was dismissed. Leeladhar was served summons on 31.08.2019 and acknowledged his signature, contradicting his claim of learning about the case later. He failed to demonstrate that he was not served or prevented from appearing for the hearing, as required by Order IX Rule 13 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

LEKH RAJ VS RAM KISHAN (SINCE DECEASED) THR LRS [CM(M)-3561/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Lekh Raj's petition to transfer and consolidate a civil suit (CJ/1230/2022) and an execution petition (Ex.P. No.1455/2023) was allowed. The cases, though differing in scope and ambit, needed to be considered together to prevent conflicting orders. Both parties consented to the civil suit being transferred to the learned senior civil judge, South-East, Saket, for joint hearings with the execution petition.

LEKHRAJ MUTHREJA VS DR. ARNAB ADHIKARI & ANR. [CM(M)-3138/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner was deemed responsible for the delay in filing the written statement, despite proper service and counsel engagement. A final opportunity to file the written statement by a specified date was granted, contingent upon the payment of exemplary costs to the respondents. It was emphasized that the petitioner should not seek unnecessary adjournments during the trial.

LORDS CREATIVE INFRASOLUTION PVT LTD & ANR. VS DR. ABHISHEK BHATNAGAR [CM(M)-1866/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order proceeding against the petitioner ex parte in a civil suit was set aside due to an amicable settlement between the parties. The petitioner agreed to pay a principal amount of Rs. 10,24,000 with 4% interest per annum in 10 equal monthly installments, which the respondent accepted. The parties were instructed to file the necessary application to record the settlement and resolve the matter accordingly.

LT. SMT. LALITA THR. LRS. & ANR. VS LT. SMT. LAXMI THR LRS [CM(M)-3633/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners, Lt. Smt. Lalita and another, challenged the order for the auction of the suit property but their petition was dismissed because they had not obtained a stay on the execution of the final decree in their pending Regular First Appeal (RFA 248/2024). They were advised to approach the RFA court to seek a stay on the execution proceedings.

M/S AGARWAL ASSOCIATES (PROMOTERS) LIMITED VS M/S SHARDA DEVELOPERS [CM(M)-3266/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Sole Arbitrator did not exceed his jurisdiction by allowing the claimant's applications for interrogatories and document production, as these were relevant and necessary for fair adjudication of the dispute. The seller's argument that these requests exceeded the agreement's scope was rejected. There were no exceptional circumstances or bad faith identified in the Arbitrator's orders. The petitions were dismissed.

M/S AJMER FOODS PRODUCTS PVT LTD VS THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD & ANR. [CM(M)-3230/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action arose within Rajasthan, necessitating the petitioner to approach the High Court there. The petitioner was granted the option to withdraw the current petition and pursue the appropriate legal recourse in Rajasthan. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

M/S AJMER FOODS PRODUCTS PVT. LTD. VS THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD & ANR. [CM(M)-3157/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to an order by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) should be filed in the jurisdictional High Court where the cause of action arose, rather than in the Delhi High Court. The cause of action pertains to the state of Rajasthan, and the petitioner is granted the option to withdraw and approach the appropriate High Court. No opinion is expressed on the merits of the case.

M/S ALPINE FINLEASE LIMITED VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11447/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order of the Reserve Bank of India cancelling the certificate of registration of M/s Alpine Finlease Limited was set aside. The Reserve Bank is required to reconsider the matter, taking into account the material provided by the petitioner, which demonstrated compliance with the required Net Owned Fund of Rs. 200 lakhs before the cancellation. The Reserve Bank must review the petitioner's representation and relevant material without bias from the current proceedings.

M/S ANGLIAN FINVEST PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S ELECTREV MOBILITY PRIVATE LIMITED [CM(M)-3664/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the trial court's dismissal of the request to prove certain documents through an additional witness was allowed. The documents were already on record, and the trial court must reconsider the application with a new hearing for both parties. Additionally, the petitioner is permitted to file a review/recall application of the original order, which will be addressed during the re-evaluation.

M/S CANNES PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SERVICES PVT. LTD. VS VIKRAM BARWAL AND ORS [CM(M)-39/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/S TDI Infrastructure Ltd. and M/S Cannes Property Management Services Pvt. Ltd. were served a consumer complaint on 10.05.2022, and the deadline to file their written statements expired by early July 2022. Claims of some pages being dim or illegible did not extend their response time, and they failed to request legible documents promptly. Their delay was deemed unjustified, leading to the dismissal of their applications and closure of their right to submit written statements.

M/S DAYAL CHAND KISHORI LAL VS MRS SWARAN MAKKAR [CM(M)-1896/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order striking off the defendant's defense in a civil suit for possession, property tax arrears, and mesne profits was set aside. The error occurred due to the lack of a mandatory show-cause notice. Changes in circumstances following a subsequent order to deposit rent arrears rendered the earlier non-compliance application outdated. The plaintiff conceded to allow the defendant to participate and lead their defense, along with their applications. The matter was directed to be expedited for disposal within five months.

M/S DWARKADHIS PROJECTS PVT. LTD VS SHRI PRATAP CHAND NASA & ANR. [CM(M)-2037/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/S Dwarkadhis Projects Pvt. Ltd. withdrew a petition challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, with the understanding that the matter should be addressed in the High Court of Punjab and Haryana due to its jurisdiction. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

M/S G. F. ELECTRONICS VS ASHISH AGGARWAL [CM(M)-1449/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The ex-parte order issued by the trial court against the petitioner has been set aside. The trial court had taken this action when the petitioner failed to appear on 26.05.2022. The petitioner's previous applications to overturn the ex-parte order were dismissed. The plaintiff's counsel agreed not to delay the suit further, leading to the decision to set aside the order. The petitioner is required to pay any outstanding costs within two weeks.

M/S GTL INFRASTRUCTURE LTD. VS BABU LAL YADAV [FAO-317/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by GTL Infrastructure Ltd. against the dismissal of its application to refer a dispute to arbitration was dismissed. The arbitration clause in the agreement allowed for a unilateral appointment of the arbitrator, which is not permissible under the law. As there was no valid arbitration agreement between the parties, the dismissal of the application was justified.

M/S GTL INFRASTRUCTURE LTD. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [CM(M)-2832/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

An order imposing a cost of Rs. 3,000 on M/S GTL Infrastructure Ltd. was set aside. The non-appearance of the petitioner's counsel was due to his mother's hospitalization and subsequent death, which was not intentional. Given the circumstances, the cost was waived.

M/S JES AND BEN GROUPO PVT.L TD. VS M/S SHAKTI TRADING CO [CM(M)-3459/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The closure of the defendant's right to lead evidence due to non-payment of a cost of Rs. 5,000 was deemed inappropriate as it also impacted the plaintiff's right. The defendant was directed to pay the remaining cost by the next hearing, after which both parties would have the opportunity to present their evidence. The petition was disposed of accordingly.

M/S LENSWIRE INNOVATIONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS INDIAN BANK [CM(M)-3529/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The issue of proper service of notice under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 regarding pre-suit mediation is a mixed question of fact and law. The trial court is directed to obtain process reports from the District Legal Services Authority and determine compliance with the mediation requirement. Non-compliance may lead to rejection of the suit under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, rather than outright dismissal.

M/S MAHALAXMI HARDWARE VS NEETU GUPTA [CM(M)-2968/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/s Mahalaxmi Hardware submitted additional documents concerning immovable property transactions that occurred after the eviction petition was filed against Neetu Gupta. The documents were deemed relevant to the eviction proceedings despite objections. Neetu Gupta was permitted to cross-examine regarding these documents and call other relevant witnesses. The admission of the documents is deferred to the trial court for final adjudication of the eviction petition.

M/S MAHATMA GANDHI MISSION HOSPITAL VS MR. PARSHURAM LANGDE [CM(M)-3519/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by M/S Mahatma Gandhi Mission Hospital under Article 227 is not maintainable due to lack of jurisdiction. The cause of action arose within the Bombay High Court's jurisdiction, necessitating the petitioner to approach that court for claims.

M/S METRRO WASTE HANDLING PRIVATE LIMITED VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-17225/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/s Metro Waste Handling Private Limited submitted a representation to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on 20.11.2024, which the RBI is required to decide within six weeks. The RBI has the discretion to grant a personal hearing to the petitioner. No substantive decision on the case merits was made, and all rights and contentions remain open, allowing the petitioner to pursue further legal action if dissatisfied with the RBI's decision.

M/S MORE BITES N FOODS PVT LTD VS ANKIT KOHLI [CM(M)-3209/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/s More Bites N Foods Pvt Ltd's petition challenging the trial court's order that closed its right to lead defense evidence was disposed of. The trial court had already heard final arguments and reserved the matter for order pronouncement. The petitioner was granted the liberty to re-challenge the orders through a new petition if the suit is decreed against them.

M/S NARAIN SERVICE STATION VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR [FAO-405/2016]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/s Narain Service Station's appeal under Section 30 of the Workmen's Compensation Act was allowed after the parties settled out-of-court. The workman received Rs. 80,000/- and confirmed that all disputes were resolved, with no outstanding claims against the management. The appeal was withdrawn, and the deposited amount with interest was to be returned.

M/S NATMA SECURITIES PVT LTD VS M/S VRC CONSTRUCTIONS INDIA PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CM(M)-3006/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/S NATMA SECURITIES PVT LTD was allowed to file a replication before the trial court after paying a cost of Rs. 5,000 to the respondents. The petitioner demonstrated no intention to delay proceedings and was prepared with the document despite not being granted further opportunity by the trial court. The replication is to be submitted by the next day, considering the case's overall context.

M/S OM METALS RATNAKAR PVT LTD VS NBCC (INDIA) LTD [CM(M)-71/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court directed the plaintiff to pay maintenance charges according to an agreement and settle arrears within eight weeks. The plaintiff contended that the maintenance provided did not align with the agreement. The defendants did not file a separate suit or counterclaim but were deemed entitled to the full maintenance charges, effectively dismissing the plaintiff's suit. The plaintiff was permitted to pay 50% of the principal maintenance amount of approximately Rs. 1.30 crores within three months, without affecting further rights; defendants can pursue additional legal remedies to recover the remaining balance.

M/S PARAMOUNT INDENTORS AND SALES VS M/S EMERALD MULTIVENTURE PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CM(M)-3576/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge regarding the trial court's order has been addressed, allowing M/s Paramount Indentors and Sales to apply for the recall of the order for fresh service on M/s Emerald Multiventure Pvt. Ltd. and to request a waiver of the Rs. 5,000 cost. The trial court is instructed to consider this application while hearing both the petitioner and defendant No. 2. No final decision on the case merits has been made.

M/S SAVITA OIL TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED VS M/S NORTH EASTERN CARRYING CORPORATION LIMITED [CM(M)-3602/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by M/s Savita Oil Technologies Limited against M/s North Eastern Carrying Corporation Limited for recovery of Rs. 3,43,245/- with interest was allowed. Objections concerning territorial jurisdiction and the limitation period were raised by the defendant, but these issues were not properly addressed in the trial. The trial court did not give the defendant a chance to prove its claims, which are crucial to the case. It was directed that the trial court should frame issues of jurisdiction and limitation, and an amicable settlement was suggested due to the nature of the dispute and the amount involved.

M/S SPELL ORGANICS LTD VS M/S APSOM TURNER PVT LTD & ANR [CM(M)-860/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order deleting defendant No. 2 from the parties is vacated. The trial court must reconsider the issue of mis-joinder of parties after final arguments, without influence from the previous order. Defendant No. 2 is allowed to enter the witness box and present evidence, subject to certain conditions.

M/S SRI SHYAM INCORPORATION & ANR. VS M/S SHREE BALAJI INDUSTRIES [CM(M)-687/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's defense was not struck off for failing to file a written statement on time due to the COVID-19 pandemic. An additional opportunity was granted to file the written statement, along with a scanned copy of the previous one submitted through the designated Drop-Box. The order striking off the defense was set aside, allowing the parties to appear before the trial court to file the written statement in two petitions.

M/S TDI INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED VS SUPREET KAUR & ORS. [CM(M)-2821/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

M/s TDI Infrastructure Limited withdrew its petition as the cause of action belonged to the jurisdiction of the Punjab and Haryana High Court. The Supreme Court precedent indicated that the matter should be filed where the cause arose, despite initial consideration by the NCDRC. The petitioner received permission to approach the Punjab and Haryana High Court and was granted a four-week period without coercive actions in Execution to facilitate this. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed.

M/S UNITED COLD CHAIN AND FOOD PROCESSING LTD & ORS. VS CANARA BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-484/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The orders by Canara Bank, State Bank of India, and Union Bank of India declaring the petitioner's account as fraudulent were set aside due to non-compliance with due process requirements. The banks did not adhere to the principle of audi alteram partem as outlined in the RBI's Master Directions on Frauds. They were granted the opportunity to initiate action again while following the appropriate procedures and specific directions from the Supreme Court.

M/S. AKN DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S. PREMSONS SOUTHEND [CM(M)-131/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The counter-claim was deemed to fall within the arbitration agreement, closely related to the primary dispute over the lease and an alleged prior agreement to sell the property. Excluding the counter-claim would result in multiple proceedings, making it necessary for the arbitral tribunal to consider it for a fair resolution of the disputes. A petition challenging the acceptance of the counter-claim was dismissed.

M/S. BRAINZTORM TECHNICAL EXCELLENCE VS M/S. V-CONNECT SYSTEMS AND SERVICES PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-3390/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the defendant to reject the suit was dismissed. The plaintiff initiated the mandatory pre-institution mediation process in a different district, but the defendants received notice and chose not to participate. The purpose of pre-institution mediation is to explore settlement possibilities and should not be viewed in a rigid manner, especially given that the cause of action could arise in multiple locations. No error was found in the rejection of the defendant's application.

M/S. SAT PRIYA MEHAMIA MEMORIAL EDUCATIONAL TRUST & ANR. VS SAMRESH AGARWAL & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1793/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners, M/S. Sat Priya Mehamia Memorial Educational Trust & Anr., complied with the previous order by depositing Rs. 21.95 crores and receiving the original Title Deed. The respondents, Samresh Agarwal & Ors., were directed to submit to the concerned court to halt the criminal complaints, as per prior instructions. The contempt petition was disposed of, with the responsibility on the respondents to inform the relevant authorities of the order.

M/S. SATGURU MEDICOS VS SHRI SANDEEP KUMAR GAHLOT & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-64/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition filed by M/s. Satguru Medicos against Shri Sandeep Kumar Gahlot & Anr. was dismissed due to a delay in complying with a previous order. Although there was some delay in issuing a show cause notice and passing a reasoned order, it was not considered a willful breach. A reasoned order was eventually issued on 18.10.2022 after a hearing, and M/s. Satguru Medicos had already challenged this order in a separate writ petition. Consequently, contempt proceedings were deemed unnecessary.

M/S. SHELTER MAKER (I) PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS SHAKUNTALA S. AGARWAL & ORS. [CM(M)-841/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by M/S. Shelter Maker (I) Pvt. Ltd. & Ors. challenging orders of the NCDRC was dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction, as the entire cause of action fell under the Bombay High Court's jurisdiction. The petitioners were advised to approach the Bombay High Court with an appropriate petition while retaining their rights and contentions.

M/S. SONAM FURNITURE VS WOOD TECH CONSULTANTS PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CM(M)-3744/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to deny the petitioner's request to cross-examine the Chartered Engineer for machinery inspection was upheld, with instructions to reconsider the request before deciding the commercial suit by M/s. Sonam Furniture. The refusal to allow the petitioner to recall its own expert witness, who submitted a belated supplementary report without prior court permission, was also affirmed. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed, leaving the final decision regarding the cross-examination request to the trial court.

M/S. TDI INFRASTRUCTURE LTD. VS BABITA CHOPRA [CM(M)-3395/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The decision of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission to reject M/s. TDI Infrastructure Ltd.'s application for condonation of delay in appealing an order was upheld. The petitioner's explanations for a delay of over 600 days were deemed unconvincing, and it was concluded that the petitioner did not demonstrate sufficient cause for the delay, making the NCDRC's discretion.

M/S. TDI INFRASTRUCTURE LTD. VS BIRJENDRA SINGH MALLIK SINCE DECESSEDNTHR LR [CM(M)-2933/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Petitions challenging orders from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) must be filed in the jurisdictional High Court where the original cause of action arose, not in the Delhi High Court. The location of the NCDRC in Delhi does not grant jurisdiction to the Delhi High Court. The decision emphasized access to justice and based its conclusion on constitutional principles regarding the jurisdiction of High Courts and the Supreme Court. Petitioners are directed to seek remedies in their respective jurisdictional High Courts.

M/S. UNISHIRE HOMES LLP VS SRIGANESH CHANDRASEKARAN AND OTHERS [CM(M)-2841/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by M/s Unishire Homes LLP challenging the NCDRC order is not entertainable due to an existing civil appeal on the same matter filed by the respondents in the Supreme Court. While the petitioner can invoke supervisory jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution, it is deemed inappropriate to hear the case when it is already under consideration by the Supreme Court. The petitioner may file an appropriate petition before the Supreme Court to have it linked with the respondents' appeal.

MADAN LAL ARORA VS SH. ASHWANI KUMAR, IAS [CONT.CAS(C)-2018/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition was disposed of regarding the non-compliance of previous directions. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) was directed to make a decision on the petitioner's representation within two weeks while considering the Resident Welfare Association (RWA)'s views. The MCD reported that the decision was delayed due to the RWA awaiting input from the Deputy Commissioner of Police (Traffic). The MCD committed to making a decision within six weeks, with the option for the petitioner to revive the petition if no decision is made within the specified timeframe.

MAHENDER SINGH & ORS. VS HUKAM CHAND [CM(M)-3501/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court failed to provide the defendant with an adequate opportunity to cross-examine witness PW2, Mrs. Rajesh, as her examination-in-chief affidavit was given on the day of her testimony instead of the required 15 days in advance. An effective opportunity for cross-examination must be granted to the defendant.

MANISH GUPTA VS NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED [CM(M)-2098/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action in this matter pertains to the jurisdiction of the Chhattisgarh High Court, allowing the petitioner to withdraw the petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution with the option to approach the Chhattisgarh High Court. The applicable jurisdiction resides where the cause of action arose, not where the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) is located. No opinion was expressed on the case's merits.

MANISH KUMAR VS YUKTI [CM(M)-3189/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The decision to impose a cost of Rs. 7,000 on the petitioner for setting aside the forfeiture of the right to file a written statement in divorce proceedings was upheld. The imposition of costs was not deemed excessive, and no grounds for interference were identified based on the criteria of material evidence, conflicting evidence, or impermissible legal inferences.

MANJEET SINGH VS SANT KAUR [CM(M)-1214/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff was granted implicit liberty to file a fresh suit after withdrawing the earlier suit, as this was sought in her statement to the trial court. The dismissal of the earlier suit indicated such liberty was granted. The argument for adjourning the present suit due to another related pending suit was deemed premature, with the option to raise the issue before the trial court later. The defendant's petition lacked merit concerning the maintainability of the plaintiff's current suit.

MANJU GANGULI & ANR VS SANJAY GUPTA [CM(M)-569/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendants, Manju Ganguli and another, narrowed their request to summon a court official for a summoning order, which the respondent, Sanjay Gupta, agreed could be submitted as a certified copy without the official's presence. The defendants were instructed to obtain and submit the certified copy within two weeks, with the respondent also given the same opportunity. Once submitted, the trial court may consider it for the suit's resolution.

MANJU RANI VS SHIV PROPERTY DEALER [CM(M)-828/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

In a case where a defendant passed away during the suit without information regarding legal representatives, discretion exists to either proceed without a representative or appoint an officer of the court to represent the deceased's estate under Order XXII Rule 4A of the Code of Civil Procedure. The trial court did not exercise this discretion, leading to the appointment of the Reader to represent the estate. Additionally, a petition challenging the trial court's dismissal of an application to strike off the evidence of two witnesses was disposed of, with direction to consider their testimony's relevance during final arguments.

MANMEET SINGH LAMBA AND ANR VS DHRUV KAPOOR AND ORS [CM(M)-3476/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Ongoing execution proceedings at the trial court will not be interfered with, as the petitioner has filed an objection petition against the attachment of the immovable property, with arguments partially heard and scheduled for completion. The petitioner still possesses the property, and no intervention is warranted at this stage to avoid prejudice to the trial court.

MANOJ KUMAR JAIN VS NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD. & ANR. [CM(M)-3515/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The dismissal of the petitioner's revision petition by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) on the basis of limitation was deemed unjustified. The petitioner had legitimately believed a review petition at the State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was maintainable and pursued it diligently. The Consumer Protection Act's beneficial nature necessitates a flexible approach to limitation. Therefore, the delay in filing the revision petition was to be condoned to achieve substantial justice, leading to the NCDRC's order being set aside and the revision petition remanded for a merits-based hearing.

MARY LEELA THUKRAL VS DEEPIKA HINGORANI & ORS [FAO-76/2010]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The grant of probate in favor of Deepika Hingorani was upheld, dismissing objections from Mary Leela Thukral. Following this, an amicable settlement was reached where Deepika agreed to sell the flat and pay 25% of the sale proceeds to Mary. The appeal was disposed of as not pressed.

MAULANA ABDUL SUBHAN VS MOHD. OMAR FARIDI (SINCE DECEASED THROUGH L.R. MOHD. MOHIUDDIN) [CM(M)-2368/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order striking off the petitioner's defense was set aside, allowing the petitioner to defend the suit. The respondent's counsel agreed to this but requested measures against unnecessary adjournments and compensation for the delay in submitting the written statement. The petitioner was directed to pay Rs. 50,000 to the respondent as compensation for the delay.

MCD VS SUNILA [CM(M)-1215/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the MCD was disposed of, directing the Appellate Tribunal to reconsider whether the property should be sealed as part of the 21,960 units or 30,000 units ordered previously. The Tribunal was instructed to decide the issue and expedite the pending appeal. This matter involves a single property rather than a batch case.

MD SADAB & ANR. VS MEHTAB AHMAD SAIFI [CM(M)-3416/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' plea to recall the order closing their right to lead evidence in a partition suit was dismissed. The trial court acted within its discretion as the petitioners had failed to appear and clear previously imposed costs on three occasions, despite multiple opportunities to present evidence. The trial court's decision was not arbitrary or perverse, and the review petition lacked merit.

MEHRAJ HUMAN RESOURCES AND IMMIGRATION CONSULTANT VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1780/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition was deemed not maintainable because the respondent complied with a previous order by deciding the appeal via remand. The policy review process required for the appeal is recognized as time-consuming, involving consultations with various stakeholders. The petitioner is allowed to submit representations and documents to the Ministry of External Affairs for consideration by the Consultative Committee. The decision did not indicate any disagreement or referral to a larger bench, nor was it part of a batch matter.

MGO INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED THROUGH ITS AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE VS ABHINANDAN GUPTA [CM(M)-1466/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's finding of no delay in the defendant's appearance in a summary suit was affirmed. The defendant's appearance on 02.02.2022 was considered timely, despite a prematurely submitted application for leave to defend. The exclusion of the period from 15.03.2020 to 28.02.2022 for limitation purposes due to the COVID-19 pandemic was noted. The plaintiff's petition under Article 227 of the Constitution was dismissed due to a lack of merit.

MOHD ARSHAD AND ORS VS SYED MOHD YAHAYA NIZAMI [CM(M)-661/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The tenants' appeal against the dismissal of their objection petition and the issuance of warrants of possession was deemed not maintainable. The interpretation of Section 25B(8) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958 indicates that the bar on appeals applies to both the original eviction order and subsequent possession recovery proceedings, linking execution to the eviction order. The appropriate course for the tenants is to file a revision petition under the proviso to Section 25B(8).

MOHD HAROON VS NORTH MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [CM(M)-3553/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application for the appointment of a Local Commissioner to inspect the suit property was dismissed. The trial court's refusal to appoint a Local Commissioner was based on its discretionary powers and a previous similar application that had been dismissed in 2016. The ongoing case had shown no progress in over 8 years, with the plaintiff's evidence stage still pending. No grounds for intervention were found in the trial court's order.

MOHD ZAMIR ALIAS JAMIR VS MOHD ISLAM AND ORS [CM(M)-2923/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order permitted the defendants to install a separate electricity meter for their part of the premises, which they occupied without dispute. This arrangement aimed to prevent unnecessary legal proceedings and clarified that the plaintiff would not be liable for any arrears related to the new meter, as its installation followed specific directions.

MOHD. REHAN VS RAJINDER KUMAR SHARMA [CM(M)-1545/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner was granted an opportunity to cross-examine DW-1, contingent on the payment of Rs. 25,000 within one week. Consideration was given to the case's circumstances and prior observations. The trial court was instructed to schedule a convenient date for the cross-examination, factoring in the availability of the elderly witness and the trial court's schedule.

MOHD. RIZBAN VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY THROUGH ITS VICE CHAIRMAN [W.P.(C)-16327/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's writ petition was disposed of, instructing the Appellate Authority to decide the pending appeal regarding the ineligibility claim for a jhuggi within 6 weeks, following the petitioner's appearance within 2 weeks. The petitioner retains the right to pursue further legal remedies if dissatisfied with the appeal outcome.

MOHD. SAMAR VS WASEEM AHMED & ANR. [CM(M)-2777/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to submit the registration certificate of a society and to examine a witness from the Registrar of Societies was allowed, overriding the trial court's prior decision. This decision was based on the overall facts of the case and a concession from the respondent's counsel, providing the petitioner with an effective opportunity to present the evidence.

MOHIT GUPTA VS VED PRAKASH KATHURIA [CM(M)-3005/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to cancel the non-bailable warrants was granted on the condition of appearing before the Executing Court the following day. Consideration was given to the petitioner's video conferencing participation and assurance of compliance with court orders. The petitioner was directed to continue appearing before the Executing Court as instructed.

MR ASHWIN MITTAL VS MS KANIKA GUPTA MITTAL [CM(M)-3065/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition for divorce filed by Mr. Ashwin Mittal against Ms. Kanika Gupta Mittal, based on cruelty under the Hindu Marriage Act, remains pending due to several applications from both parties. The trial court has stated that the recording of the respondent's evidence will occur only after these applications are resolved. Mr. Mittal expressed concern that the trial court could have addressed both matters simultaneously. A request has been made for the trial court to fix a date for recording the respondent's evidence while considering the appointed Local Commissioner. Both parties are to appear before the trial court on the scheduled date for further proceedings.

MR VINEET BHUTANI VS MRS NADIYA MEHRA [CM(M)-2954/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

In a divorce petition based on cruelty, the trial court should avoid granting unnecessary adjournments to the respondent wife. The petitioner sought to record evidence through a Local Commissioner, which the respondent opposed, leading to no appointment. The petitioner later withdrew the petition. The trial court is instructed to reconsider the request for a Local Commissioner if the respondent employs delaying tactics during proceedings.

MR. AJAY JAIN & ANR. VS M/S SOOD RESINS AND POLYMERS [CM(M)-3377/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order directing partners of a limited liability partnership to disclose personal assets and liabilities was set aside. Partners are protected under the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008, and should have been given an opportunity before such an order was made. The authorized representative and one partner are to appear before the trial court to move an appropriate application, which will be decided according to the law.

MR. GHANSHYAM KARSHANBHAI PAGHDAL VS M/S RADHA PALLAVI EXPORTS [CM(M)-2883/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The main issue is whether the trial court should have addressed the petitioner's application under Section 151 CPC to recall the earlier order rejecting the suit for non-compliance with Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. The respondent argued that the suit required urgent interim relief, exempting it from Section 12A. The direction is for the trial court to first consider the petitioner's application and then proceed based on that outcome.

MR. INDERPREET SINGH GULATI VS VIKAS ARORA [CM(M)-1179/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application for the production of documents was dismissed due to insufficient explanation regarding their relevance and necessity. The petitioner, as the plaintiff, must prove his case using his own accounts and cannot investigate the defendant's records. The application was also deemed late, lacking justification for the delay.

MRS HARMANINDER KAUR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10161/2020]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The writ petition seeking the allotment of a flat under the 5th Self Financing Scheme was dismissed due to the petitioner's 24-year delay in filing. The allotment was automatically cancelled because the petitioner did not make full payment within the required 120-day period. A refund of the partial amount of Rs. 50,000 deposited by the petitioner was ordered as per policy.

MRS REKHA GUPTA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-8240/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner is entitled to possession of a plot acquired through e-auction, despite a 27-day delay in full payment. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) must regularize the delayed payment upon the petitioner paying the applicable interest and is instructed to demolish unauthorized construction on the plot, handing over vacant possession within 8 months. If DDA fails to comply, it must offer the petitioner an alternative plot of the same size in the same area.

MRS SAKSHI ARORA & ORS. VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2467/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

FIR No.194/2020 under Sections 354/354(B)/323/506/509/34 IPC has been quashed following an amicable settlement between the parties. Two cross-FIRs were involved, and a Settlement Agreement dated 19.03.2024 has been established to resolve disputes and maintain a harmonious relationship. The complainant expressed no objection to quashing the FIR, indicating that continuing the case would not be beneficial.

MRS SUSHMA NANDA & ORS. VS AXIS BANK LIMITED & ORS. [CM(M)-3545/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition was disposed of concerning interim relief in a suit for damages, declaration, and injunction. The trial court initially ordered the bank to unfreeze an LLP firm's account but later vacated this order due to procedural non-compliance. Discrepancies existed between two July 5 orders regarding the status of the interim relief, with acknowledgment of incorrect information posted online. The trial court is directed to consider the plaintiffs' application for interim relief without bias from previous orders on October 15, 2024.

MRS. NIRMAL PAHWA AND ORS. VS MR. SARDAR GURSHARAN SINGH CHAWLA (DECEASED THROUGH LRS) AND ORS [CM(M)-3194/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to allow the plaintiff to submit copies of lease deeds from neighboring properties was a valid exercise of discretion, deemed necessary for a just adjudication involving claims for damages and mesne profits. The defendants received compensation for the plaintiff's delay, and the trial court's order was not erroneous in law. The petition from the defendants was dismissed, and the trial court's decision remained intact.

MS CHOLAMANDALAM INVESTMENT AND FINANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS JYOTI MAHESHWARI AND ORS [CM(M)-2903/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The unilateral appointment of the arbitrator by the petitioner violated established Supreme Court precedents. The petitioner's request to withdraw the execution petition, made upon realizing the legal position, was deemed reasonable and should have been permitted. Observations regarding potential contempt of court and questioning the petitioner's banking activities were unwarranted. The assurance given by the petitioner not to file further execution petitions with unilaterally appointed arbitrators led to the acceptance of the withdrawal of the execution petition.

MS PREETI SAINI VS MR ANKIT CHOPRA [CM(M)-1156/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by the defendant challenged the trial court's orders closing her right to file a written statement and striking off her defense. The plaintiff had no objection to the defendant's participation, and her written statement was already on record. Considering the nature of the case, which involved the annulment of marriage, the petition was allowed, and the written statement was deemed on record. The defendant was permitted to lead her defense and instructed to avoid unnecessary adjournments while cooperating for a swift resolution of the matter.

MS RATAN CHANDRA SPICES AND FOOD PRODUCTS PVT LTD VS KAMINI BHATIA PROPRIETOR. OF MS MAHIMA HERBS AND ANR & ANR. [CM(M)-2390/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's dismissal of the defendant's application for the production of communications and police phone records was upheld. The application was deemed vague, and the plaintiff confirmed they did not possess the requested communications due to changing mobile phones. Additionally, directions under Order XI of the Code of Civil Procedure can only be issued to parties involved in the suit, not non-parties like the police. The petition was dismissed for lacking merit.

MS RRB ENERGY LIMITED VS MS LAPLIFE ELECTRONICS PVT LTD & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1606/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

MS RRB Energy Limited is the owner of the premises in question and sought recovery of possession and damages. The petitioner requested permission for an inspection of the leased premises for insurance purposes, which was granted. MS LAPLIFE Electronics Pvt Ltd did not allow the inspection despite the court order. A mutual agreement was reached permitting the petitioner to conduct the inspection on a specific date, allowing the insurance agency/valuer to take photographs and videos. The respondent was informed they could raise any objections regarding the inspection process with the Trial Court.

MS SANTOSH SHARMA VS MS ANITA ARORA [CM(M)-3037/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to file a written statement was dismissed due to a delay of over 5 years without justifiable reasons. The provision for filing within 30 days was deemed directory, but this does not allow for filing at the defendant's convenience. Additionally, the defendant had previously indicated they had sold the property in question, leading to ambiguity regarding their current grievance.

MS SUMANA DUTTA (PAUL) VS THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, M/S BHARTI AIRTEL LTD, KOLKATA AND ORS [CM(M)-2827/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Ms. Sumana Dutta (Paul) withdrew her petition challenging an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission and received permission to approach the Calcutta High Court. The jurisdiction rests with the High Court where the cause of action arose, which is Kolkata. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

MS. SUBHASH TRADERS VS UNIVERSAL SOMPO GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD. AND ANR. [CM(M)-2242/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Ms. Subhash Traders challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction, as the cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Patna High Court. The petitioner was advised to approach the Patna High Court for further action.

MUKEEM KHAN VS MIM TRADING AND CONSTRUCTION COMPANY [CM(M)-3692/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to close the defendant's right to lead evidence was upheld due to the defendant's repeated failure to appear and present their case. The suit, being commercial in nature, required prompt resolution. The defendant was deemed responsible for their situation, having not taken advantage of the opportunities provided by the trial court. There was no basis to challenge the trial court's order.

MUKESH KHURANA VS RAHUL CHAUDHARY [FAO-200/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The previous written lease agreement expired on 31.01.2019, after which the plaintiff allowed the defendant to occupy the premises under a new verbal month-to-month tenancy with increased rent. The verbal agreement replaced the previous one, nullifying the arbitration clause. Consequently, there was no valid written arbitration agreement, leading to the dismissal of the defendant's application to refer the matter to arbitration.

MUKESH KUMAR SINGLA & ORS. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16361/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A writ petition was filed by Mukesh Kumar Singla and others against a notification by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) to engage catering agencies for parties and banquets at a sports complex, including one in Pitampura. The petitioners argued that this constituted misuse of land for non-sporting activities due to insufficient infrastructure. The matter was treated as a representation to the DDA, which was instructed to issue a speaking and reasoned order within two weeks. The petitioners retain the option for further legal action if dissatisfied with the decision.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS PREM SINGH [CM(M)-3614/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

An order for the personal appearance of the Commissioner of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi in an Execution Petition filed by Prem Singh was deemed valid. Despite a decree from 1996 and prior warrants of possession, execution remained unfulfilled. The Assistant Commissioner, Executing Engineer, and Standing Counsel of the MCD were directed to appear before the Executing Court to assist in reaching a resolution. If the explanations provided by MCD officials are unsatisfactory, further directions may be issued as necessary.

MUNIJA & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-38/2015]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal was allowed, setting aside the dismissal of the claim for compensation under the Railway Claims Tribunal Act, 1987. The deceased was established as a bonafide passenger with a valid ticket. Evidence from the police investigation and witness statements was favored over the DRM report, which was deemed hearsay. The accidental death of the deceased while deboarding the EMU train at the platform was classified as an "untoward incident" under the Railways Act, warranting compensation for the claimants.

MYFOJO FOOMIL PVT LTD VS PUSHAAN NAYYAR SOLE PROP YSOSOCIAL MEDIA [CM(M)-3636/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The ex-parte order against the petitioner was set aside with consent from both parties. The petitioner did not file an application to challenge the order but was allowed to submit a written statement within one week. The petitioner must pay a cost of Rs. 10,000 to the respondent.

N.S. INTERIORS CONTRACTS PVT. LTD VS KOHINOOR PAINTING WORKS [CM(M)-3608/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order dismissing the petitioner's application for condonation of delay in filing the written statement was set aside. The length of the delay is not the sole factor; the cause for the delay must also be examined. The trial court should have allowed the defendant to provide specific details regarding the delay instead of dismissing the application outright. The trial court is instructed to reconsider the application for condonation of delay and allow the petitioner to file an additional affidavit with relevant details.

NAGMA PARVEEN VS BABU MALIK [CM(M)-2511/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must consider the petitioner's application for interim custody of her two daughters and one son under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, hear both parties, and resolve the matter expeditiously. No conclusive finding on the custody dispute was made.

NAIDER (DECEASED) THR HIS LR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [CM(M)-3224/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Gian Wati's petition to set aside the trial court's order of August 6, 2016, was dismissed. Gian Wati had been represented at the trial court when the issue of impleadment was considered but did not challenge the order at that time. Her delay of eight years in filing the petition, particularly after the Reference Petition was resolved and an award issued, indicated laches. The dismissal does not preclude her from pursuing other legal avenues.

NARAINDAS VS TATA AIG LIFE INSURANCE CO. LTD [CM(M)-3279/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, as the cause of action arose in Uttar Pradesh. The appellant was allowed to withdraw the petition with permission to approach the appropriate High Court in Uttar Pradesh, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

NARENDRA PATIL VS ZUBAIR RIAZ KAMILI & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1641/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Detention of gold chains by customs authorities was found to be unlawful, thus importers are not liable for warehouse or ground rent charges for the release of goods. Respondents were directed to release the gold chains to the petitioners within one week. Customs authorities retain the right to recover warehouse charges from the petitioners as per law.

NATIONAL HEALTH AUTHORITY VS M/S INTERMARC [CM(M)-3379/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The attachment of the National Health Authority's bank account is restricted to the decretal amount, which includes principal and interest, rather than the entire account. Both parties agreed that this limitation is necessary to allow the Authority to fulfill its other obligations. The petition was disposed of with directions to attach only the amount equivalent to the decretal amount.

NAWAL KISHORE KHANDELWAL VS ANURADHA & ORS. [CM(M)-758/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner, a defendant in the underlying suit, withdrew the petition challenging the dismissal of his application under Order VII Rule 11 CPC while reserving the right to raise the same issues during final arguments in the trial court. The trial court was requested to expedite the disposal of the suit. There was no indication of disagreement among judges or a need for referral to a larger bench.

NEERAJ DHAWAN VS THE BRANCH MANAGER, STATE BANK OF INDIA [CM(M)-1796/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to include a photocopy of a pay-in-slip dated 25.07.2014 was permitted, and the trial court was instructed to consider the original pay-in-slip to be provided by the respondent bank. As the case is at the final argument stage and the pay-in-slip is of unquestionable nature, both parties should be heard to ensure the matter is disposed of in accordance with the law. No opinion was expressed on the overall merits of the case.

NEERAJ MITTAL VS SUBHASH SACHDEVA & ORS. [CM(M)-3668/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's complaint, previously dismissed in default by the District Forum, is pending appeal at the State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission for seven years. The delay is attributed to the non-production of records from the District Forum. The Registrar of the State Commission has been instructed to obtain these records for consideration.

NEHA BUS SERVICES PVT. LTD. VS M/S PINTU [CM(M)-1948/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff, M/S Pintu, is required to produce a complete booklet with counterfoils of monthly passes from August 2018 to February 2023 for review during final arguments in a commercial suit against Neha Bus Services Pvt. Ltd. The defendant's application under Order VI Rule 5 of the Code of Civil Procedure was dismissed, but the request to present the booklet was allowed without additional directions for its formal exhibition.

NI-MET METALS INC VS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF FOREIGN TRADE AND ANR & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1905/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition by Ni-Met Metals Inc. against the Director General of Foreign Trade and another was dismissed. The respondents processed the petitioner's application according to a prior order, despite a delay. Since a decision had been made, the contempt petition was no longer relevant, but the petitioner was allowed to challenge the decision through a different petition. The respondents were instructed to return the petitioner's demand drafts within three working days.

NIKHIL KAPUR VS MANAT LAMBA [CONT.CAS(C)-640/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The welfare of the child is the primary concern. The visitation order granting daily rights to the father was deemed excessive for the child's healthy upbringing and was modified to twice a week. Parents were instructed to consult a child counselor monthly to address the child's reluctance to meet with the father. The mother was cautioned against further disobedience of the visitation order, which could lead to reconsideration of custody. Emphasis was placed on the need for parents to prioritize co-parenting despite personal conflicts.

NIRMALA DEVI & ORS. VS ARUN KUMAR SINGLA @ A.K. SINGLA [CM(M)-1969/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order of the trial court that removed the amended written statement was set aside. The petitioners agreed to pay Rs. 50,000 as compensation for the delay, which the respondent's counsel accepted. The trial court is instructed to consider the written statement on record and proceed accordingly.

NISHA SHARMA VS SIDDHARTH SHARMA [CM(M)-2947/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Nisha Sharma received a final opportunity to present her evidence in defense of a divorce petition based on cruelty, with a timeframe set between 08.08.2024 and 13.08.2024. The petitioner must pay a cost of Rs. 20,000 and is only allowed to enter the witness box without examining additional witnesses. Following the completion of her evidence, the trial court will hear final arguments based on its schedule.

NISHANT GULATI VS PARMOD KUMAR YADAV [FAO-576/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by employer Nishant Gulati under the Employee's Compensation Act was allowed, noting an amicable settlement with workman Pramod Kumar Yadav, who received Rs. 9,45,888/- as full compensation. The appeal was disposed of in accordance with the settlement dated 14.05.2024, and the appellant's deposited amount, along with accrued interest, was ordered to be returned since payment had already been made.

NITIN ARORA VS RITU SETH [CM(M)-3599/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court is to consider additional documents submitted by the tenant that show the landlady's ownership of two other properties in Delhi during the tenant's application for leave to defend against the eviction petition. Although the tenant should have submitted these documents earlier, the landlady's counsel conceded to their usage in arguments. No observations were made regarding the relevance or impact of these additional properties, and the trial court will assess them independently per the law.

NITIN TOKAS VS JOGINDER SINGH TOKAS & ORS [CM(M)-1213/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

At the preliminary stage, only basic averments in the plaint are examined, and the plaintiff is not required to reassess the market value of the suit properties. The direction for re-valuation was set aside, as the plaintiff's valuation was stated to be based on market value. The trial court is to proceed with the matter according to the law.

NITISH TANEJA VS AYUSHI ARORA [CM(M)-3420/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The lower court's order denying the husband's request for an early hearing of the maintenance petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. remains. No grounds for interference were identified, and the lower court is directed to refrain from unnecessary adjournments and expedite the recording of evidence in the maintenance case.

NITYA GOPAL MANDAL VS PRAGATI BIO AND RENEWABLE ENERGY & ORS. [CM(M)-3086/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The State Government of Bihar could not be impleaded as a necessary party in the suit for recovery because there was no privity of contract between the petitioner and the State Government. The petitioner could not invoke Section 70 of the Indian Contract Act since the State Government had already made full payment to the main contractor. Consequently, the petition was dismissed, confirming that the petitioner could not claim damages from the State Government.

NORTH EASTERN CARRYING CORPORATION LTD VS DO BEST INFOWAY [CM(M)-2824/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The statutory time period of 120 days for filing a written statement in a commercial suit is mandatory and cannot be extended except in extraordinary circumstances. In this case, a written statement for a counter-claim was filed 121 days after the relevant date, and the delay was not justified. The decision to strike off the written statement from the record was upheld.

NORTH EASTERN CARRYING CORPORATION LTD VS GOYAL IMPEX AND INDUSTRIES LTD [CM(M)-2822/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The requirement to file a written statement in a commercial suit within 120 days of service of summons is mandatory and cannot be extended. The same 120-day timeline applies to written statements for both the main suit and counter-claims. The petitioner did not demonstrate extraordinary circumstances or valid reasons for a one-day delay in filing the written statement. As a result, the written statement was struck off from the record for being filed beyond the mandatory period, with no irregularity or error identified in the decision.

NORTH EASTERN CARRYING CORPORATION LTD VS HLG TRADING [CM(M)-2816/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A written statement in a commercial suit must be filed within 120 days of service of summons, with no discretion to extend this period even for counter-claims. A single-day delay in filing the written statement was not condoned, as the law allows no exceptions. The lower court's order to strike off the late-filed written statement was upheld.

OMWATI VS DAYANAND (DECEASED) THR LRS [CM(M)-1504/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application for issuing a coercive process to summon witness Mr. Kishan Pal was deemed incorrect. Fresh summons to Mr. Pal are to be issued, and if he fails to appear despite proper service, further action may be taken according to law. Given that this case is among the oldest pending in the district courts, a short date for the next hearing is to be provided, considering the case's age and party convenience.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SHAMSA TAUSIF AND ORS [CM(M)-161/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission is not maintainable due to lack of jurisdiction. The relevant jurisdiction lies with the High Court where the cause of action arose, which is the Allahabad High Court. The petitioner is directed to seek appropriate relief from the Allahabad High Court.

PADMA POLYCHEM PVT LTD VS NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED [CM(M)-2893/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Padma Polychem Pvt Ltd to quash the order of the National Consumer Dispute Redressal Commission (NCDRC) was dismissed. The company had a money insurance policy and claimed that cash was stolen from a director's car while attending to a flat tire. The insurance company denied the claim, stating the vehicle was left unattended and unlocked, and raised doubts about the cash balance. The NCDRC reviewed the facts and evidence, finding no basis for the claim. The supervisory jurisdiction under Article 227 was not deemed appropriate for a deeper factual analysis, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

PALLAVI VS GAURAV DABAS [CM(M)-3644/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The visitation date in a guardianship petition was modified from October 19, 2024, to November 8, 2024, due to the child’s illness and with the consent of the parties involved. The terms and conditions of the previous order remained unchanged.

PANKAJ JAIN VS PARUL JAIN [CM(M)-2406/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The father's petitions for the return or rejection of the mother's guardianship petition and objections to party transposition were dismissed. The consideration of the child's welfare outweighs procedural aspects, allowing for an expedited decision on custody by the Family Court without influence from current observations. An interim order previously allowed the father to retain custody of the child during ongoing proceedings.

PANKAJ KUMAR VS RITA BANERJEE [CM(M)-3462/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenges to the trial court's orders were dismissed. He is involved in a recovery suit regarding possession, mesne profits, and damages filed by the respondent. The petitioner sought to produce an original Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), which the respondent disputed in terms of existence and authenticity. The trial court rejected the petitioner's application for the MOU and a subsequent request to introduce additional documents. A copy of the legal notice issued by the petitioner to the respondent was permitted to be filed, while the remaining petitions were disposed of as not pressed.

PARIMA VINOCHA VS SONA SHARMA [CM(M)-3548/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's petition challenging the trial court's order to close her right to file a written statement was accepted. She was granted a final opportunity to submit her written statement, with an exemplary cost of Rs. 10,000 imposed. The plaintiff's counsel agreed to this arrangement without prejudice to his rights and contentions.

PARKWOOD DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS HARDESH MEHTA [CM(M)-3391/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Parkwood Developers Private Limited's petition under Article 227 of the Constitution, challenging orders from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, should be withdrawn because the cause of action pertains to the jurisdiction of the Punjab and Haryana High Court. The petitioner may approach the appropriate high court without any opinion on the case's merits.

PARKWOOD DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. VS SANJEEV KUMAR BANOTRA & ORS. [CM(M)-2057/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Jurisdiction over the matter lies with the Punjab and Haryana High Court, as the entire cause of action is connected to that jurisdiction. The petitioner is granted the option to withdraw the petition and approach the appropriate High Court, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

PARSVNATH DEVELOPERS LIMITED & ORS. VS PARSVNATH EXOTICA GHAZIABAD FLAT BUYERS ASSOCIATION & ANR. [CM(M)-3025/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Parsvnath Developers Limited and others showed no interest in pursuing their petition. They agreed to pay the entire balance decreetal amount, including interest and any disputed component, within 10 months according to a specified schedule. Adherence to this schedule is mandatory, and any default will make the full amount immediately recoverable, allowing the NCDRC to enforce execution and issue coercive process. Non-bailable warrants previously issued by the NCDRC have been recalled temporarily.

PAWAN BAJAJ & ORS. VS GOPAL KRISHAN (DECEASED) THROUGH LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES & ORS. [CM(M)-3346/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Praveen Pal Bajaj was allowed to be impleaded in a pending appeal as a legal heir of the deceased defendant Rajinder Pal Bajaj, despite earlier opposition from the trial court. The appellate court permitted his inclusion based on the case's stage and his assurance of not opposing his father's interests. The other legal heirs' challenge to this decision was dismissed after Praveen Pal Bajaj reaffirmed his position.

PAWAN KUMAR & ANR. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [CM(M)-2013/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant assured that no illegal or unauthorized construction would be raised on the disputed property, addressing the plaintiffs' concerns. The interim injunction from the trial court was restored, and the appellate court's order was set aside, allowing the trial court to proceed with the entire suit based on the defendant's statement.

PAWAN KUMAR RAI VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15066/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Freezing the entire bank account of a small-scale vendor, which contained Rs. 1,22,556, was unjustified when only Rs. 105 was linked to a UPI-related fraud. This action violated the vendor's fundamental right to livelihood. The account was directed to be de-frozen, with a lien placed only on the disputed Rs. 105, allowing the vendor to continue operating the remaining balance. The vendor was not implicated in the fraud and was seen as an unintended beneficiary.

PAYAL JAIN VS MAMTA NAGPAL [CM(M)-3198/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The landlady's counsel, Ms. Payal Jain, is allowed to appear before the trial court on 31.08.2024 for a hearing on an application under Section 151 of the CPC, which seeks an early hearing of contempt proceedings initiated by the tenant. This urgency arises from a Bar Council of Delhi deadline of 30.09.2024 for advocates to submit verification details. The trial court is instructed to make efforts to resolve the application before this deadline.

PINEVIEW CONSTRUCTION AND TILES PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [CM(M)-2806/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Pineview Construction and Tiles Pvt Ltd challenged an order from the NCDRC regarding the status of complainants as "consumers" under the Consumer Protection Act, 1986. The NCDRC has benches with two members, and the complainants agreed to have the complaint's maintainability reconsidered. A request was made for the NCDRC to reassess the complaint's maintainability without influence from prior decisions, with the understanding that this directive was based on party consent and specific case facts, not as a precedent.

PINKY KAUR & ORS. VS MOHIT SHUKLA [CM(M)-2114/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners had not exercised due diligence in seeking to recall an ex-parte order. However, given the overall circumstances, they were granted one opportunity to file a recall application within three days. The trial court is instructed to expedite the disposal of this application while remaining unaffected by any observations made in this order regarding the merits of the case.

POONAM & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-267/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order of the Railway Claims Tribunal that dismissed the appellants' claim petition due to a four-year delay was set aside. The delay was justified because the appellants' prior counsel had passed away, and the appellants faced significant mental trauma, hindering their ability to file promptly. The Railway Claims Tribunal Act being welfare legislation warranted a liberal interpretation of its provisions. The delay was condoned, and the Tribunal was instructed to proceed with the claim petition, although the appellants would not receive interest for the delay period.

PP JEWELLERS (EXPORT) & ORS. VS UNION BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-15671/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Review Committee must reconsider its decision regarding PP Jewellers, as its latest order did not adequately address the petitioners' arguments and resembled a prior order that was remanded. The Committee is instructed to re-examine the matter, taking into account the court's previous directions and any new submissions from the petitioners.

PRAMOD KUMAR GUPTA VS VIJAY KUMAR & ANR. [CM(M)-2957/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the eviction order was dismissed because the tenant failed to file a timely application for leave to defend. The tenant sought to withdraw the petition under Article 227 of the Constitution and was permitted to file a petition under specific provisions of the Delhi Rent Control Act.

PRANAV ANSAL VS KIRAN SHARMA & ANR. [CM(M)-3366/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Bailable warrants issued by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission against Pranav Ansal were invalid, as he was neither a director nor a shareholder of M/s Ansal Hi Tech Township Ltd. Pranav Ansal had no objection to appearing before the NCDRC to clarify factual aspects. An undertaking from his counsel led to his direction to appear before the NCDRC, resulting in the recall of the bailable warrants.

PRANAY JAIN VS SHIV KUMAR GANDHI [CM(M)-3362/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to allow the written statement in a commercial suit was upheld, but the cost imposed on the defendant was reduced from Rs. 49,500 to Rs. 30,000. Of this amount, Rs. 15,000 is to be paid to the plaintiff, and Rs. 15,000 is to be deposited with the Advocates' Welfare Fund, taking into account the overall facts of the case and a concession made by the plaintiff's counsel.

PRANSHUL GARG VS HARISH MITTAL [CM(M)-2879/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition under Article 227 of the Constitution prompted the direction for the trial court to expedite decisions on the petitioner's pending applications under Order XXXIX Rules 1 & 2 and Order XXXIX Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, ensuring opportunities for both parties to be heard. The relief was limited to the specific request made by the petitioner's counsel.

PRAYAG RAJ AND ORS. VS GAURAV ANAND [CM(M)-3255/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the defendants to set aside the trial court's orders closing their right to file a written statement was dismissed. The defendants were served summons on 16.05.2023, with a requirement to file the written statement within 30 days, extendable to 120 days. They failed to comply within both timeframes and did not provide a valid explanation for the delay. The trial court closed their right to file the statement and dismissed their application to recall this order, which was deemed a reasonable exercise of discretion based on legal standards and statutory provisions.

PREETI CHAUHAN VS ICICI LOMBARD GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS. [FAO-315/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The dispute between the appellant and the respondent insurance company qualifies as a commercial dispute, necessitating the appellant to file suit in the appropriate commercial court. An interim injunction order is in place, preventing the respondent from taking coercive actions against the appellant's property for five weeks, allowing time for the suit to be filed. It is clarified that no special equity favors the appellant, leaving the commercial court free to make an appropriate decision on the matter.

PREM AGGARWAL & ANR. VS ASHWANI PARASHAR [CM(M)-2882/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' challenge to the trial court's order permitting the defendant to summon a witness and DDA officials was not pressed by their counsel. The trial court must conclude the defendant's evidence by 15.07.2024, interpreting the opportunity as "effective" without further extensions.

PREM ARORA VS KARTAR CHAND (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH LR RAJIV ARORA & ORS. [CM(M)-2859/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court should have addressed the petitioner's application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC and the consequential application under Order XXXIX Rule 10 CPC instead of postponing them. These applications have the potential to facilitate a quicker resolution of the long-pending suit, and postponement was not justifiable. The trial court is directed to consider the applications and issue appropriate orders before continuing with the trial, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the applications.

PRIYANKA AGGARWAL & ANR. VS SHRI BANKEY BIHARI POLYPLAST [CM(M)-2873/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's ex parte order dismissing the defendants' application for condonation of delay in filing the affidavit of admission/denial of documents was set aside. The belated affidavit will be taken on record, but the defendants must pay a cost of Rs. 20,000 for the delay. The defendants are also required to fully cooperate with the trial court and local commissioner during the plaintiff's evidence recording.

PROF RAM PRAKASH THROUGH LR VS SHEIKH NASIM AHMED [CM(M)-134/2021]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The orders of the Rent Control Tribunal and the Rent Controller were upheld, awarding compensation to the tenant for a 16-month delay in possession restoration after repairs. The argument that the Controller could only order restoration or compensation was rejected, affirming that compensation for unwarranted delay aligns with the objectives of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The decision to increase rent by only 10% of the reconstruction cost, rather than to the current market rate, was also affirmed, with no identified illegality or impropriety in the lower courts' decisions.

PROVAT KUMAR PAL VS DR. NILABHA BHADURI AND ANR [CM(M)-3600/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The entire cause of action related to the case arose within the jurisdiction of the Calcutta High Court, warranting a petition to that court. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed, and the petitioner was permitted to withdraw the petition with the option to approach the Calcutta High Court.

PUNITA BHARDWAJ VS RASHMI JUNEJA [CM(M)-3640/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Punita Bhardwaj challenging the order to impound the arbitral award was dismissed. The stamp duty of Rs. 21,000 paid by Rashmi Juneja prior to the execution petition was confirmed to be sufficient based on the sale consideration and mesne profits stated in the award. The argument regarding the calculation of stamp duty on market value was rejected as unsustainable. Consequently, there were no grounds to impound the award due to insufficient stamp duty.

PUNJAB AND SIND BANK VS MADAN MURARI MISHRA & ANR. [CM(M)-3181/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner bank, Punjab and Sind Bank, was granted an additional four months to formulate a policy following board approval. During this period, no harsh actions will be taken against the bank. The bank is permitted to apply for a waiver of imposed costs, which should be considered sympathetically.

PUSHPA PANDEY VS SHIVAM & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1997/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's contempt petition against the respondents was deemed misplaced, as the Municipal Corporation of Delhi had taken partial demolition action regarding unauthorized construction and communicated with the police for ongoing monitoring. Further action is planned once the restrictions under the Graded Response Action Plan are lifted. The petitioner was advised to approach the Special Task Force for any continuing grievances about unauthorized construction. No grounds for contempt proceedings were found, leading to the disposal of the petition.

R C NANDA (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS VS KARAMJIT SINGH & ORS. [CM(M)-3229/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court is directed to quickly consider the leave to defend applications in an eviction petition filed in 2010 under the Delhi Rent Control Act, based on bonafide requirement. Despite the petition being pending for around 14 years due to various miscellaneous applications, a request has been made for the trial court to dispose of the leave to defend applications and any other pending matters within six months.

R. KAY FABTEX PVT. LTD. THROUGH DIRECTOR ANAND KOTHARI VS VINOD AGENCIES THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR VINOD WALIA [CM(M)-3645/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court is directed to hear arguments on territorial jurisdiction during final arguments, without considering previous observations related to a petitioner's application for return of the suit due to lack of jurisdiction. No conclusive statements about jurisdiction have been made.

R.S. JUNIOR MODERN SCHOOL VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL (NDMC) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17030/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The assessment order issued by the New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) under Section 72 of the NDMC Act, 1994 was deemed unsustainable due to reliance on previously invalidated notices and ultra vires bye-laws. The NDMC failed to consider representations from the petitioner school. The assessment order was quashed, allowing the NDMC to issue a new notice under Section 72, adhering to higher court directives.

RACHNA PROTHI VS RAGHAV GOEL & ANR. [FAO-292/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Rachna Prothi, the plaintiff, owns and occupies a second-floor property in a community center, while the defendant occupies a ground-floor hall. A dispute arose when the defendant allegedly erected a partition wall blocking the plaintiff's access from the front. The appeal focused on a wall shaped like the number "7" adjacent to the defendant's hall. The defendant's counsel acknowledged that if the partition wall is removed as per the plaintiff's suit, they would restore the "7" shaped wall to its original position. The appeal was disposed of with the expectation that both parties would cooperate for the swift resolution of the main suit.

RAHEJA DEVELOPERS LIMITED & ANR. VS BHUWAN CHOPRA & ORS. [CM(M)-2325/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Raheja Developers Limited and its Managing Director challenged the issuance of non-bailable warrants against the Managing Director in connection with an execution petition. The respondent indicated no coercive process was in place against the directors. Both parties agreed on terms where the company would submit a reply to relevant applications and the decree holder would refrain from taking coercive action against the directors if the company cooperated. .

RAHUL MITTAL VS ISRAEL [CM(M)-3367/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court improperly recalled an order that closed the defendant's right to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness without allowing the plaintiff to be heard. This closure granted the plaintiff a valuable right, and the trial court's ex-parte decision on the defendant's application was deemed hasty. The trial court is instructed to consider the defendant's application again, providing the plaintiff an opportunity to respond, and to proceed with the case according to the law.

RAJ BALA GARG VS NAVEEN BHATIA & ORS. [CM(M)-3601/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to accept the plaintiffs' suit under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act for recovery of possession of a property was upheld. The suit was based on specific allegations of the plaintiffs' possession and dispossession, which were deemed sufficient. It was also confirmed that the suit was filed within the prescribed limitation period. The defendant's petition for rejection of the suit on grounds such as res judicata, limitation, and non-payment of court fees was dismissed.

RAJ KUMAR VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15897/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The bank's attachment of the petitioner's savings account without prior notice caused substantial losses and mental anguish due to an ongoing investigation into alleged cybercrime. A sum of Rs. 15,000, credited from the alleged cheated amount, was the basis for the attachment. The bank agreed to mark a lien on the disputed amount instead of attaching the entire account, allowing the petitioner to continue using his account, with the action to be completed within two working days.

RAJ SINGH & ANR. VS OM PRAKASH LAKRA & ANR. [CM(M)-3069/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the trial court's decision to deny the plaintiff's request to add documents during final arguments was dismissed. The plaintiff failed to provide reasons for not submitting the documents earlier, despite the case being in progress since 2016. Allowing the additional documents would prejudice the defendants and unnecessarily extend the trial.

RAJAT CHILLER VS ABHISHEK RANA [CM(M)-3303/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to examine a bank witness to demonstrate sufficient account funds was dismissed. The defendant was aware of his account balance from the outset but failed to address this in his written statement or identify the bank official as a witness earlier. Therefore, it was deemed inappropriate to allow examination of the bank official at this stage, as the matter was set for final arguments.

RAJEEV MITTAL VS THE COMMISSIONER, NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION [CM(M)-1507/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Section 24 of the CPC allows for the direct transfer of a suit to a commercial court instead of returning it to the plaintiff, as established in Namita Gupta v. Suraj Holdings Limited. The defendant did not object to the transfer, and the transferee court can address other objections, including non-compliance with Section 12A of the Act. The suit was transferred from the Additional District Judge to the District Judge (Commercial Court).

RAJESH GARG VS NAPIN IMPEX LTD. [CM(M)-2817/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's petition challenging the dismissal of his application under Order VII Rule 11 CPC was dismissed. The plaintiff had complied with the mandatory pre-institution mediation requirement under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 by approaching the Legal Services Authority. An initial report identified the defendant incorrectly as a partnership firm, which was later corrected to reflect the defendant as a proprietorship firm. This clerical error did not invalidate the plaintiff's compliance with the mediation process. Therefore, the argument regarding non-compliance with Section 12A lacked merit.

RAJESH KUMAR SAINI VS SMT. NEETU SAINI [CM(M)-801/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Mr. Rajesh Kumar Saini's written statement in the suit filed by Ms. Neetu Saini was accepted despite a 110-day delay, attributed to a medical emergency. He was ordered to pay Rs. 10,000 in costs for the delay and to settle any outstanding costs. The next hearing date in the trial court was rescheduled to an earlier time.

RAJESH RAI VS KHAJAN SINGH@ DURVEEN SINGH & ANR. [FAO-279/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Compensation was granted to the claimant under the Employees' Compensation Act, 1923, confirming the claimant as an employee rather than a casual worker or bailee. A 30% penalty was imposed on the employer for unjustified delay in compensation payment. The scope of appeal under Section 30 of the Act was deemed limited to substantial questions of law, which were not present in this case.

RAJIV BANSAL VS NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED [CM(M)-2380/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's right to cross-examine the defendant's witness (DW-1) was mistakenly closed due to the absence of the petitioner's counsel. An opportunity for effective cross-examination of DW-1 will be provided. The defendant-Insurance Company can request the trial court to examine another witness, as the evidence of DW-1 remained unrebutted.

RAJIV SHARMA VS AJAY KUMAR [CM(M)-3040/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The executing court's order to issue a warrant of possession and appoint a bailiff was valid, aligning with directions from the first appellate court that vacated the stay on the judgment. There was no illegality in the executing court's order, and the petitioner should have addressed the court fee deficiency and sought a stay from the first appellate court instead of challenging the order.

RAJNIBHAI H DOSHI SINCE DECEASED THOUGH LRS VS MAHENDRA KUMAR NARROTTAM DAS GANDHI SINCE DECEASED THROUGH LRS [CM(M)-1991/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The matter lacks jurisdiction in Delhi as the cause of action arose within the Bombay High Court's jurisdiction. The petitioner may withdraw the petition and approach the Bombay High Court for proper jurisdiction.

RAKESH AND ANOTHER VS TARANDEEP SINGH [CM(M)-3456/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner may cross-examine PW2 and PW3 in the civil suit after paying a cost of Rs. 25,000 by October 1, 2024. The respondent must summon these witnesses, with the petitioner responsible for their travel expenses. Following the cross-examination, the petitioner can present their own evidence. Given the case was initiated in 2012, the trial court should schedule short dates to expedite the proceedings.

RAKESH CHOPRA VS KRISHAN KUMAR MD NHIDCL [CONT.CAS(C)-1678/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition filed by Rakesh Chopra against Krishan Kumar, MD of NHIDCL, was dismissed. The petitioner claimed that Kumar made an incorrect statement in a prior writ petition, leading to its dismissal. The dispute regarding the factual issue of vacancy availability could not be conclusively resolved in the contempt proceedings. The petitioner's right to pursue other legal actions was acknowledged, and this case stands alone, not part of a larger matter.

RAKESH SACHDEVA VS RAJESH SACHDEVA [CM(M)-3207/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The learned Trial Court was directed to expedite the disposal of the application under Order VII Rule 11 CPC related to civil suit CS SCJ 1278/2022. Arguments from both parties were heard, and the decision was made without separate judgments or disagreements among the judges, indicating a standalone case.

RAM PRABHAKAR VS PHILIPS PAINTS PVT. LTD. AND ORS [CM(M)-1899/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition to transfer Execution Petition No. 169/2022 was dismissed. A transfer requires genuine and compelling reasons beyond the petitioner's request. Concerns about the executing court's pace and alleged erroneous orders can be addressed through legal remedies rather than a transfer. There is an emphasis on the need for the executing court to expedite the resolution of the pending execution petition.

RAM SINGH VS TEJ BAHADUR SINGH [CM(M)-3704/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's application for condonation of delay in filing the written statement was rejected, leading to the striking off of the defendant's defense. The defendant cited hospitalization and financial difficulties for a nine-month delay after being served the summons. The provided reasons were deemed unconvincing, resulting in the dismissal of the application due to a lack of justifiable reasons for the delay.

RAMESHWAR DAYAL THROUGH HIS CONSTITUTED POWER OF ATTORNEY MANAVDEEP SINGH VS HEMANT KUMAR [CM(M)-852/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff's petition to amend the plaint to change the payment method from cheque to cash and to submit additional bank account documents was granted. The suit was at the final argument stage when transferred to the Commercial Court, and the stringent provisions of the Commercial Courts Act were not applicable. The amendment and additional documents were permitted despite the late stage of proceedings, with instructions for the trial court to continue in accordance with the law.

RAMIN KUMAR MITTAL VS BRIJ DWIVEDI [CM(M)-2945/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order condoning a 19-day delay in the defendant's application for leave to defend a summary suit was upheld. The trial court exercised discretion under Order XXXVII Rule 3(7) of the CPC, focusing on merits rather than technicalities. The finding was not deemed perverse or based on a lack of evidence, leading to the dismissal of the plaintiff's challenge to the order.

RAMPHAL VS SH. NARESH KUMAR & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1184/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition against the SDM was dismissed as the SDM complied with the main direction from the previous order, despite a delay. The petitioner was informed they could pursue other actions if the follow-up was inadequate.

RATHOD REALTY PVT. LTD. & ANR. VS GEORGE M. CHERIAN [CM(M)-142/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Rathod Realty Pvt. Ltd. and another were allowed to withdraw their petition challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, with the option to approach the Bombay High Court. Jurisdiction was determined to lie with the Bombay High Court since that is where the cause of action arose. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

RAVINDER KAUR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-3707/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) cannot impose restrictions on the petitioner's right to sell her MIG flat, as five years have elapsed since the restoration of her allotment on 08.09.2015. The DDA is required to execute the conveyance deed without any such restrictions within eight weeks. The legal issue remains open based on specific instructions from DDA's counsel.

RAVINDRA KUMAR HAJELA VS SH SL SHARMA & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1773/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition against the Registrar of Cooperative Societies was deemed not maintainable due to compliance with a prior order. The Registrar had addressed the petitioner's grievances by disposing of the petition under Section 70 of the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act and referring the matter to arbitration. The petitioner was allowed to deposit the arbitration fee within 15 days.

REACH INFOCOM TECHNOLOGY PVT LTD VS SHRI GIRISH KUMAR BHASIN [FAO-67/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order on territorial jurisdiction was set aside due to the failure to consider an agreement that conferred exclusive jurisdiction to the Calcutta courts. A re-hearing of the arguments on territorial jurisdiction was directed, emphasizing the relevance of the parties' agreement, while no opinion on the case's merits was expressed.

REEMA AGGARWAL VS JASMEET SINGH [CM(M)-3124/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner was allowed to examine herself and her official witnesses as her evidence-affidavit was already on record, and the plaintiff did not object. A cost of Rs. 10,000 was imposed on the petitioner due to the delay in the matter since 2016.

REKHA SAWHNEY VS THE STATE, NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CM(M)-3200/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Rekha Sawhney regarding the probate petition from Sunil Kumar Bhatia was dismissed. Sawhney sought to amend her written statement to include events from 2012, but the trial court dismissed this application due to a lack of justifiable reason for the delay. The advanced stage of the case and irrelevance of the subsequent events to the probate petition were noted. Sawhney's counsel claimed the will was forged and not signed by the testator, indicating the amendment was unnecessary.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS BALBIR KAUR [CM(M)-3503/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Reliance General Insurance Co. Ltd. lacks jurisdiction to challenge an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission under Article 227 of the Constitution in the High Court of Delhi. The cause of action arose in Punjab, necessitating that the petitioner approach the Punjab & Haryana High Court for the appropriate petition.

RENU DEVI & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-176/2015]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The deceased was classified as a victim of an "untoward incident" under Section 123(c) of the Railways Act, 1989 after falling from the Mandor Express train while attempting to deboard at Bijwasan Railway Station. Despite the absence of a recovered ticket, the claimants proved, based on a preponderance of probability, that the deceased was a bonafide passenger. The injuries sustained were not self-inflicted, conforming to the principles of strict liability. The matter was remanded to the Railway Claims Tribunal for the computation and award of compensation to the claimants within four weeks.

RHC VENTURES LIMITED & ORS. VS KITCHANNAGARI SARVESHWARSA REDDY & ANR. [CM(M)-2628/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action pertains to the jurisdiction of the State of Telangana, which requires matters to be addressed by the High Court of Telangana. The petitioners were permitted to withdraw their petition and may approach the appropriate jurisdictional High Court within three weeks. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

RITU PAHWA VS PAYAL KASHYAP & ANR. [CM(M)-3634/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Ritu Pahwa was permitted to submit three documents—a structural engineer report, an architect report, and a newspaper advertisement—previously denied under Order VII Rule 14 CPC. The lack of prior explanation for not obtaining the reports was noted, but the nature of the controversy warranted allowing their inclusion. Payal Kashyap, the respondent, consented to this decision to facilitate the timely resolution of the pending injunction application. This matter involved a single judge and is not part of a larger group of cases.

ROHIT MADAN VS ADITYA MADAN [CM(M)-3500/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The executing court's order for the petitioner to pay the entire balance by 28.09.2024 is deemed reasonable, but the petitioner is allowed to submit a payment schedule and make a part-payment by the due date. The executing court will consider this payment schedule and provide appropriate orders after hearing both parties, while reserving the rights and contentions of all involved.

ROOPDEEP SINGH AND ORS VS TAJINDER KAUR [CM(M)-3586/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the appellants for expedited disposal of a partition suit was dismissed. The trial court had already partially heard arguments and scheduled further hearings, indicating that the case was progressing efficiently. There was no reason to intervene at that stage.

RUKMANI DEVI VS SH ABHISHEK KUMAR AND ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1871/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition by Rukmani Devi against the respondents was dismissed. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi had already acted on the unauthorized construction as per a previous order, but the property owner had appealed this action to the MCD Appellate Tribunal, which was still pending. Since the owner had sought regularization and was engaged with the Tribunal, there was no justification for continuing the contempt petition. Rukmani Devi was allowed to participate in the Tribunal proceedings as permitted by law.

RUSTAM BEG(DECEASED) THR LRS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [CM(M)-346/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner is permitted to submit 28 additional documents in a suit for permanent injunction, despite previous denial by the trial court. The decision acknowledges the petitioner's lack of diligence in earlier filings but allows the inclusion based on the document's relevance to the relief sought. A cost of Rs. 25,000 is imposed on the petitioner for the resulting delay.

S.B. ENTERPRISES VS SHREE GANESH STEEL TRADERS [CM(M)-3604/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

S.B. Enterprises received permission to examine an additional witness, Mr. Devender Kumar Jain, in recovery suit proceedings, despite a prior commitment to call only one witness, Mr. Ajay Kumar Bansal. The decision considered that Mr. Jain's name appeared in the written statement and application. The petitioner must submit Mr. Jain's affidavit within two weeks and pay a cost of Rs. 10,000. Only two witnesses may be examined, with no further opportunities allowed.

S.B. ENTERPRISES, DELHI VS SHREE GANESH STEEL TRADERS [CM(M)-2971/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner was granted a final opportunity to examine key witness Ajay Kumar Bansal despite the closure of the right to lead evidence, with the petitioner providing an explanation for the delay and the respondent agreeing to this arrangement. The trial court was instructed to record the witness's evidence at the next hearing or a later date. The petitioner must pay Rs. 10,000 to the respondent's counsel at the next hearing.

SAMAKSHI BHATIA AND ANR VS SANJAY BHATIA [CM(M)-3457/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Petitioner Samakshi Bhatia requested expedited disposal of her application for interim maintenance under the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, aiming for resolution within three months of the next hearing on 21st October 2024. The merits of the main petition remain unaddressed, and simultaneous hearing of the respondent's application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code was directed to prevent prejudice.

SAMARTH TRADING COMPANY & ANR. VS THANDI RAM JAI NARAIN [CM(M)-2556/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court permitted the plaintiff to introduce an additional document, a registration certificate, to demonstrate the firm's registration despite the absence of a justifiable reason for the delay in filing it. The case was at an early stage, and excluding the document could lead to dismissal under the Indian Partnership Act for lack of registration. The validity of the registration certificate will be examined later by the trial court.

SAMRAT SINGH RAWAT VS POONAM RAWAT [CM(M)-2258/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

In the case of Samrat Singh Rawat v. Poonam Rawat, the petitioner received an additional opportunity to present evidence in Guardianship Petition No. 18/20, contingent upon a payment of Rs. 25,000. The petitioner had not previously submitted any evidence, and while the respondent's counsel initially opposed this, they later agreed to the opportunity. The petitioner is required to file an affidavit supporting his evidence within four weeks, and the respondent is also permitted to lead evidence following this development. The petition concluded with these directives.

SAMSUNG INDIA ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD. VS SYNC IN DESIGN PVT LTD [CM(M)-1915/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner was granted another opportunity to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness, PW-1, despite the prior closure of this right by the trial court. The inability to conduct the cross-examination was attributed to a personal difficulty faced by the petitioner's counsel, with no intention to cause delays. The respondent's counsel did not oppose this request. The trial court is to schedule a new date for the cross-examination.

SANDEEP RAINA VS SACHIN SHARMA [CM(M)-3651/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner filed an application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC for a decree based on admissions in the defendant's written statement. The trial court framed issues without addressing this application. The direction was given to first hear arguments on the application before proceeding with the trial.

SANDEEP SINGH HITKARI VS KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LTD [CM(M)-356/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition against the respondent bank was disposed of as the petitioner chose not to pursue it further. The petitioner sought damages and an injunction related to fraudulent credit card transactions. The respondent bank had previously applied for arbitration under the Arbitration & Conciliation Act but admitted to stopping unilateral arbitrator appointments following a Supreme Court ruling. The case's merits were not addressed.

SANJAY MALIK VS NEERU MALIK [CM(M)-3493/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application for a chance to cross-examine witness PW2 Naveen was not deemed illegal, but the significance of the witness's testimony and the potential prejudice to the petitioner were acknowledged. The petitioner was granted one final opportunity to cross-examine PW2, contingent upon the payment of Rs. 15,000 to the respondent, with no further indulgence permitted on this matter.

SANJAY SINGHANIA (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS. VS MADHU VYAS [CM(M)-3657/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application to amend the written statement in a civil suit was upheld. The proposed amendment, which aimed to include that the deceased defendant had sent Rs. 107,250 to the plaintiff, could have been included earlier. It was deemed too late for such an amendment since the case had progressed to the plaintiff's evidence stage. The defendant remains able to present this fact during the plaintiff's cross-examination, and no prejudice to the petitioner resulted from the dismissal.

SANJEEV KUMAR (SINCE DECEASED) THR HIS LR VS ASHOK KUMAR [CM(M)-3114/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request regarding contempt applications against the respondent for willful disobedience of a status quo order has been acknowledged, with instructions for the trial court to provide a fair hearing to both parties and expedite the resolution of the applications. The key issue involves the respondent's alleged non-compliance with the status quo order.

SANJOGTA CHAWLA VS OM PRAKASH CHAWLA [CM(M)-3256/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request for maintenance from her father under the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, is to be expedited by the trial court. The petition, filed in 2022, is currently at the Preliminary Examination stage. The respondent's counsel has committed to cooperating fully with the trial court to ensure a prompt resolution. Both parties are encouraged to collaborate to facilitate an expedited handling of the matter.

SARIKA SHARMA VS ASHOK SHARMA [CM(M)-3684/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Sarika Sharma challenged a trial court's order closing the defendants' right to lead evidence in a partition suit. The court allowed the petitioners to file their evidence affidavits within 10 days, required payment of outstanding costs to the plaintiff, and imposed an additional cost of Rs. 10,000 for causing delays. The petitioners must appear on the next hearing date and avoid unnecessary adjournments.

SAROJ GUPTA VS THE STATE (GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI) [CM(M)-3672/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must consider the inventory forms (Form Nos. 178 and 179) submitted by a petitioner in her 90s and issue further orders promptly, taking the petitioner's age into account. Although probate and letters of administration were previously granted, progress was stalled due to the non-acceptance of the forms. The merits of the forms are not addressed, and it remains at the trial court's discretion to proceed according to the law.

SCINDIA INVESTMENTS PVT LTD VS SCINDIA POTTERIES AND SERVICES PVT LTD [CM(M)-351/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Scindia Investments Pvt Ltd has been granted a final opportunity to conclude its evidence after the trial court closed its right due to the absence of a witness without medical justification. Considering a 7-year delay, it was directed that the plaintiff can examine two specific witnesses, PW-1 Mr. K. Bhaskaran and Ms. Feroza Major. The trial court has discretion to decide on the re-examination of PW-1. The trial court is also urged to expedite the matter's resolution.

SENBO ENGINEERING LIMITED VS NEW ERA PROJECTS & ANR. [CM(M)-3019/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Senbo Engineering Limited challenging the dismissal of its delayed review application was dismissed. The defendant company was served and represented in the original proceedings and did not provide evidence to show the suit was barred by limitation. The petitioner failed to pursue the matter diligently during the trial, justifying the dismissal of the review application.

SH ANKUR DABAS VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHOR AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-17146/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The writ petition challenging the termination of a contract for maintenance of infrastructure and forfeiture of a performance guarantee by the Delhi Development Authority was dismissed. The matter was deemed contractual and not involving fundamental rights or principles of natural justice. A disputed question of fact regarding the completion of work within the stipulated period made the case unsuitable for evaluation in writ jurisdiction. The petitioner may pursue appropriate legal remedies as needed.

SH MADAN MOHAN GUPTA VS SMT SANDHYA GUPTA & ORS. [CM(M)-704/2021]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The tenants were allowed to file additional affidavits related to their amendment applications within one week. The landlord's counsel did not object, supporting a quicker resolution of the landlord's eviction petition under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. Consideration of the tenants' applications for leave to defend was requested to proceed expeditiously, without influence from prior observations.

SH SUMIT KUMAR DANG AND ORS VS JAI DURGA TRADERS PVT LTD [CM(M)-3637/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendants (petitioners) are allowed to submit their written statement and affidavit of admission/denial, despite the delay. The trial court is instructed to consider their application under Section 151 CPC before proceeding with the matter. The defendants had previously filed a written statement and are now seeking to place the affidavit on record, which is permitted. A fresh written statement must also be filed to avoid further complexity in the case.

SH SURENDER SINGH VS SMT SHASHI BALA SHUKLA & ORS. [FAO-325/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appellant's suit for specific performance, previously dismissed in default, was restored due to consideration of the overall facts and circumstances, including the appellant's conduct and the delay in the restoration application. The appellant was required to pay Rs. 10,000 to the respondents, and the case was returned to its original position for further proceedings.

SH. ANIL KUMAR VS RAJ KAMAL (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS. [CM(M)-3613/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The substitution of Mr. Abhishek Gupta, son of deceased landlord Mr. Raj Kamal, as the legal representative in the eviction petition was valid. Mr. Gupta is considered a legal representative under the Civil Procedure Code, as he represents the estate of the deceased landlord and has sufficient interest in the ongoing litigation. The challenge to his substitution based on claims of not being a legal heir was rejected.

SH. ASHOK MITTAL & ANR. VS SH. MANJHI SAHU [CM(M)-1695/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the management regarding the existence of an employer-employee relationship was dismissed. The issue is considered a factual dispute requiring evidence. All related issues, including the legality of the workman's termination, should be adjudicated together rather than in separate proceedings. The request to treat the employer-employee relationship as a preliminary issue was not accepted.

SH. BRIJ MOHAN SINGH VS SMT. INDERJEET KAUR [FAO-324/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal challenging the dismissal of an application under Order XXXIX Rule 10 CPC was dismissed due to a delay of over five and a half years. The appellant failed to present compelling reasons for the delay as required. Although the appellant's counsel did not disclose relevant facts leading to the delay, the appellant did not complain about the counsel. The belated appeal was not entertained, and the application for condonation of delay was dismissed.

SH. DEEPAK KUMAR VS SMT. MANITA RANI [CM(M)-3084/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court was instructed to expedite the divorce petition filed by Sh. Deepak Kumar against Smt. Manita Rani, which has been pending since 2014. Despite the petitioner completing his evidence, there has been unnecessary delay due to the respondent's failure to file an affidavit or submit a list of witnesses. Specific dates for the respondent to record her evidence were to be established to address this delay.

SH. LAGADAPATI MADHUSUDHAN RAO & ORS. VS IDBI BANK LIMITED [W.P.(C)-17125/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The communication dated 15.10.2024 from the petitioner to IDBI Bank is considered a request for a personal hearing. The order from IDBI Bank dated 28.11.2024 is set aside, and IDBI Bank must consider the request for a personal hearing as per prior directives. Other rights and contentions of the parties remain open.

SH. S.C. JAIN VS SH. KRISHNA MOHAN UPPU & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-146/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Mr. S.C. Jain withdrew his contempt petition against the NDMC for alleged willful disobedience of a previous court order, expressing a greater interest in challenging a subsequent NDMC order from 12.03.2024 regarding his pay scale. He was granted the liberty to file an appropriate petition before the Central Administrative Tribunal to address the pay scale issue.

SH. SURINDER SINGH BEDI THR. LRS VS SH. SURJIT SINGH BEDI THR. LRS & ANR. [CM(M)-2243/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application to implead additional defendants in a partition suit was dismissed. The plaintiff had been aware of property transfers to third parties since 2000 but waited nearly two decades to seek this change. No compelling reason justified the belated application, especially as the case had reached the final argument stage, making further modifications unnecessary after 25 years.

SH.JOGINDER SINGH VS SH.KULDEEP SINGH AND OTHERS & ANR. [CM(M)-470/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff's petition challenging the closure of his right to lead further evidence in a partition suit was accepted. The trial court had noted the plaintiff's unfitness to provide testimony, prompting him to request his wife's testimony instead. A final opportunity was granted for the wife to file an affidavit and appear in court, contingent upon the plaintiff paying previously imposed costs and an additional fee of Rs. 10,000. The plaintiff was instructed to ensure the presence of his wife and her counsel at the next hearing.

SHAHENSHA ENTERPRISES & ANR. VS SHREE SAI RAM TRADERS [CM(M)-3730/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to include a claim for recovery of Rs. 27,00,000 was allowed, with the issue of limitation to be addressed by the trial court later. The original paragraph 2 of the plaint regarding the cause of action was to remain unaltered.

SHAILENDRA KUMAR SINGH VS HCL COMNET SYSTEMS SERVICES LTD [CM(M)-3570/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner, an employee of the respondent company, does not qualify as a "consumer" under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019, as the dispute over the ownership transfer of a vehicle provided under a company scheme is an employer-employee matter rather than a consumer-service provider relationship. Consequently, the Consumer Fora lacks jurisdiction to address the complaint regarding deficiency in service. The petition is dismissed, and the petitioner may seek resolution in a Civil Court if desired.

SHAKTI KUMAR PAWAR VS SMT SHASHI GOSAIN [CM(M)-3620/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's amended written statement, addressing the plaintiff's limited amendment regarding valuation and verification, was rejected due to inconsistencies with the original statement and the introduction of a new cause of action, which prejudiced the plaintiff. The defendant has four weeks to submit a revised amended written statement that aligns with the allowed amendment and retains the right to file a separate application for a more substantive amendment later.

SHANKAR KUMAR VS ANCY ALPHONSON & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1192/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Shankar Kumar can file a reply to Ancy Alphonson's maintenance petition under Section 125 of the Criminal Procedure Code within 10 days, provided he pays Rs. 20,000 to Ancy within the same timeframe. The respondent agreed to this additional time despite a prior order that closed the opportunity to file.

SHANTI DEVI VS NET RAM & ORS [CM(M)-267/2015]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Shanti Devi to challenge the trial court's rejection of Prabhati Ram's application to set aside a 1972 decree was dismissed. The trial court's dismissal of the restoration application, submitted after a delay of approximately 40 years without adequate justification, was upheld. No errors in law or findings were identified.

SHANTIVIJAY JEWELLERS & ANR. VS M/S GOYAL MODES & ANR [CM(M)-3423/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court dismissed the defendants' application to examine a new witness in a 26-year-old recovery suit, noting that the defendants had already closed their evidence. The advanced stage of the proceedings and the ongoing efforts for expeditious disposal justified the decision not to allow a new witness. No reason was presented to alter this order.

SHARDA VS RAHUL GUPTA [CM(M)-3400/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant Sharda is permitted to confront plaintiff Rahul Gupta with 22 photographs during cross-examination, contingent on Sharda presenting the necessary certificate under Section 63 of the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam. This decision addresses a prior refusal to allow the confrontation without the certificate.

SHASHANK GUPTA VS DIMPLE GOGNA [CM(M)-1966/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Family Court granted interim custody of a 3-year-old child to the mother, prioritizing the child's welfare and favoring maternal custody for children under 5 years, barring serious issues. The father's concerns regarding the maternal uncle's criminal history and the mother's living conditions were deemed insufficient to deny custody. The father received increased visitation rights, including an additional day per month, and the mother was instructed to adhere strictly to the visitation schedule, with a warning of potential modifications if compliance issues arise.

SHAYAN LAHIRI VS MR PRAMOD KUMAR JAIN PRESIDENT, RAJAT JAIN COOPERATIVE GROUP HOUSING SOCIETY & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1300/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Rajat Jain Cooperative Group Housing Society can proceed with its "Balcony Extension Project" according to DDA guidelines, as the earlier status quo order has been vacated. Concerns raised by petitioner Shayan Lahiri regarding potential damage to his first-floor balcony were addressed by assurances from the respondent's counsel to repair any damage immediately and to share photographs with the petitioner before construction begins. The petitioner subsequently did not pursue the contempt petition further.

SHELTER MAKER (I) PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS SANTOSH V AGARWAL & ORS. [CM(M)-952/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' challenge against an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed due to jurisdictional issues, as the cause of action was tied to the Bombay High Court. The petitioners were advised to approach the Bombay High Court for their claims.

SHELTER MAKER I PVT LTD & ORS. VS AJIT KUMAR & ORS. [CM(M)-951/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition under Article 227 of the Constitution, challenging orders from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC), is deemed not maintainable due to lack of jurisdiction. The petitioner must approach the relevant jurisdictional High Court. The petition is disposed of, granting the petitioner the option to file an appropriate petition in the Bombay High Court.

SHELTER MAKER I PVT LTD & ORS. VS KAMALKUMAR S BHAGHERIA & ORS. [CM(M)-949/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging orders from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission is not maintainable in the Delhi High Court due to lack of jurisdiction. The entire cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Bombay High Court, allowing the petitioner the option to file in the appropriate jurisdiction.

SHELTER MAKER I PVT LTD & ORS. VS RAMESHBHAI R SHAH & ORS. [CM(M)-954/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition was deemed not maintainable due to a lack of jurisdiction, with the cause of action arising within the Bombay High Court's jurisdiction. The petitioner was granted the liberty to approach the Bombay High Court with an appropriate petition.

SHELTER MAKER PVT LTD & ORS. VS BABULAL M PAREKH & ORS. [CM(M)-948/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging orders of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission is not maintainable because the cause of action arose within the jurisdiction of the Bombay High Court. The petitioner should approach the Bombay High Court, and the petition is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction while allowing the petitioner to file an appropriate petition there.

SHELTER MAKER PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS ANAND MUNDRA & ORS. [CM(M)-1454/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition under Article 227 of the Constitution was dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction, as the cause of action arose within the Bombay High Court's territory. The rights and contentions of the parties were reserved, and the petitioner was advised to file an appropriate petition in the Bombay High Court. The operation of the impugned order was stayed for three weeks to prevent interim prejudice to the petitioner.

SHERWOOD OFFICERS SOCIETY (REGD). AND ANR. VS SATINDER KAUR & ANR. [CM(M)-2122/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners should have approached the Punjab and Haryana High Court due to the cause of action arising within its territorial jurisdiction. The allowance of the petition by the NCDRC does not grant jurisdiction to the Delhi High Court. The petitioners were granted the option to withdraw the petition and approach the appropriate High Court, with execution proceedings stayed for two weeks to facilitate this action. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

SHERWOOD OFFICERS SOCIETY (REGD). VS SH. KAMALJIT SINGH & ANR. [CM(M)-2124/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action for Sherwood Officers Society arose within the jurisdiction of the Punjab and Haryana High Court. The petitioner is permitted to withdraw their petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India and approach the appropriate High Court. No opinion on the merits of the case has been expressed, and the petitioner retains the liberty to seek redress in the jurisdictional High Court.

SHILPI SHARMA VS PRAVEEN SHARMA & ANR. [CM(M)-3532/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Shilpi Sharma was granted one final opportunity to submit her written statement in the divorce petition filed by her husband, Praveen Sharma. Although the prior order closing her right to file was not illegal, the respondent's counsel agreed to allow the submission, with a cost of Rs. 10,000 to be paid within one week. The outcome was based on the overall facts and circumstances of the case.

SHIRIN CHOURASIA VS M/S UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO. LTD. [CM(M)-3020/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the NCDRC's dismissal of their revision petition regarding a health insurance policy was dismissed. The renewal clause of the policy required premium payment before the policy's expiration, and the petitioner failed to provide evidence of such payment. The concurrent decisions of the lower forums were upheld as there was no erroneous consideration of material evidence or impermissible inferences. This judgment was delivered by a single judge without any disagreements or referrals to a larger bench.

SHIV ENTERPRISES (PROPRIETOR SANJEEV GOSWAMI) VS AMIT SHARMA (PROPRIETOR ARIA INTERNATIONAL) [CM(M)-3701/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the trial court's order permitting the plaintiff to submit an email was dismissed. The plaintiff explained the late submission by stating the email was stored in a different folder in his Gmail account. The email, sent by the defendant, was deemed relevant, and its admission would not cause serious prejudice to the defendant.

SHIV SAGAR DEVELOPERS AND ORS VS TILAK NAGAR AUDUMBAR COOPERATIVE HOUSING SOCIETY [CM(M)-2529/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners withdrew their challenge to an order from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, with the matter being more appropriately addressed in the High Court of Maharashtra due to the cause of action arising there. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed.

SHOMIT FINANCE LIMITED VS MAHESH KUMAR SHARMA [CM(M)-3174/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Shomit Finance Limited challenging the orders of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed due to the petitioner's failure to pursue its appeal before the State Commission, leading to its dismissal for non-prosecution. Evidence of inaction was apparent from the orders issued by the State Commission, justifying the dismissal of both the revision and review petitions.

SHREE BALAJI LAMINATION VS SR GOYAL POLYMERS [CM(M)-3438/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff, SR Goyal Polymers, was allowed to amend the suit to include Ms. Anjali Aggarwal as the actual proprietor of Shree Balaji Laminations, correcting the initial assumption that Mr. Naresh Aggarwal was the proprietor. This amendment was deemed necessary based on facts revealed in Mr. Naresh Aggarwal's written statement, with no illegalities or errors identified in the trial court's order.

SHRI AMAN GUPTA VS MS. MEETU HANS & ANR. [CM(M)-3252/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court incorrectly refused to hear arguments on previously framed preliminary issues. Its earlier order on those issues was valid and binding, necessitating a proceeding to hear arguments. The trial court was directed to take up the matter for such arguments, and the costs imposed on the petitioner were waived due to the unique circumstances of the case.

SHRI ASHOK KUMAR JAIN VS MR GURPREET SINGH [CM(M)-2921/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

An eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act must be prioritized by the trial court, with a goal to resolve it within 6 months. Consideration was given to the petitioner's age of 79 years and the delays in cross-examination, prompting an order for day-to-day cross-examination to expedite the process.

SHRI GANESH PUJARI VS MR. ARUN KUMAR & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1634/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Shri Ganesh Pujari faced restrictions in running his Multi-Purpose Store stall at Lokmanya Tilak Terminus due to confusion regarding permitted business types. The respondent's counsel acknowledged this confusion and agreed to allow Pujari to operate the stall for four months. Following this, the petition was disposed of, with Pujari required to vacate the stall after the four-month period.

SHRI MANISH SHARMA VS SMT ANITA LUTHRA & ANR. [CM(M)-3415/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application was dismissed, confirming the trial court's decision to remove the defendant's written statement from the record. The timeline of 120 days for filing a written statement in a commercial suit is strict and cannot be extended, regardless of any delays caused by the counsel. The defendant cannot shift the blame to the counsel and forfeited the right to submit the written statement after the 120-day period.

SHRI NANAK CHAND VS JEET SINGH AND ORS. [CM(M)-3384/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's writ petition challenging the trial court's order permitting the delayed filing of a written statement by Defendant No. 6 was dismissed. The decision emphasized that the timeline for filing a written statement is not rigid and that the trial court's liberal approach to allowing the delay did not exhibit any glaring irregularity justifying interference.

SHRI RAM GEN. INSURANCE CO. LTD VS SMT. MUMTAZ BEGUM & ORS. [FAO-201/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by the insurance company against the Employee's Compensation Commissioner's order was dismissed. The prior order had remanded the case to the Commissioner for compensation calculation. The insurance company failed to raise a key issue regarding Section 10 of the Employees' Compensation Act during previous proceedings. The Commissioner is instructed to release the compensation amount to the claimants promptly.

SHRI ROHIT BODHRAJA & ANR. VS AVTAR KUMAR GROVER & ORS. [CM(M)-3090/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The summons issued to the petitioners (tenants) under the summary procedure for eviction under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was found to be erroneous due to the initial inclusion of a non-payment of rent ground under Section 14(1)(a). Petitioners were directed to file an additional affidavit for leave to defend within 15 days, with respondents (landlords) allowed to reply to that affidavit.

SHRI SANATAN DHARAM MANDIR TRUST (REGD.) VS RISHI WALIA [CM(M)-3312/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petitioner trust challenged an order that considered its execution petition settled, alleging that Ravi Bajaj was unauthorized to represent it and had colluded with the judgment debtor. The allegations were deemed serious; however, the trust had not filed an application to recall the order in the executing court. The matter was disposed of as withdrawn, allowing the trust to file an appropriate application for recall and revival of the execution petition for consideration by the executing court.

SHRI SUKHMAL JAIN VS SHRI BRIJ BHUSHAN JAIN & ORS. [CM(M)-3055/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Shri Sukhmal Jain challenging the closure of his opportunity to lead evidence was dismissed. He continued to appear before the trial court and was given a chance to submit written arguments. He did not take immediate action against the order and accepted it. Given the circumstances and the trial court's impending decision, the case was not considered appropriate for further intervention.

SHRI VIRENDER KUMAR GUPTA & ANR. VS PRAMOD KUMAR TANDON [CM(M)-3467/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Shri Virender Kumar Gupta & Anr. are defending an eviction petition filed by Pramod Kumar Tandon on the grounds of subletting. They must summon a Sales Tax Office official as a witness by the next hearing on 07.10.2024 and pay previously unpaid costs of Rs. 10,000. The petitioners are limited to one effective opportunity for this summoning, and the trial court may proceed with final arguments after recording the witness's evidence, depending on its schedule. They can submit a request to the trial court for formal summons to the witness in advance.

SHYAM SUNDER AGGARWAL VS SH P K SRIVASTATVA (CHIEF COMMISSIONER) & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1872/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt petition filed by Shyam Sunder Aggarwal was dismissed. The respondents had complied with the previous direction to address the petitioner's complaint. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi had sealed the unauthorized construction on the property and was taking further action. No additional action was deemed necessary for the contempt petition, and the petitioner could pursue other legal options if dissatisfied with the outcome.

SHYAM SUNDER VS SPECIAL TASK FORCE DDA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-17420/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (East) must take action within 8 weeks to address the complaint regarding illegal and unauthorized construction up to the 6th floor of a property, which violates building bye-laws. This decision considers submissions from the parties involved and does not affect their rights or contentions, particularly those of the owner/builder.

SIMPLEX INFRASTRUCTURES LTD VS VIJAY LIFTERS [CM(M)-2850/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court permitted the defendant to file a written statement after the initial 30-day period, contingent upon a cost. The cost was reduced from Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 25,000 based on the case's overall circumstances, while emphasizing that the defendant was expected to adhere to the original timeframe. The delay justified the cost imposition.

SIR SOBHA SINGH AND SONS PVT. LTD. VS S.KANWALPREET SINGH [CM(M)-3166/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's writ petition was disposed of as not pressed, allowing the petitioner to seek an early hearing in the trial court. The case involved a 10-year-old possession suit where final arguments were scheduled in 2019 but delayed due to pending applications. It was expected that the trial court would make efforts to expedite the matter. This matter was individual and not part of a batch case.

SIS IMPORTS VS CHAITANYA KALBAG & ORS. [CM(M)-3471/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition challenging the orders of the State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission and the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission was dismissed. The petitioner failed to participate in the proceedings before the State Commission, being the sole remaining respondent. The reasons for not defending the complaint were deemed unfounded, and there was no right to seek condonation of delay in filing the appeal. The decisions of the lower forums were upheld, with no evidence of perversity.

SIYA RAM VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-2215/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's issue regarding the 5-year embargo on selling the MIG flat allotted by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has been resolved, as the DDA's counsel indicated that the 5-year period starts from April 2019. With this period having elapsed, the DDA is directed to execute the conveyance deed without stamping. The legal issue remains open, as the outcome is based on specific instructions from the DDA's counsel.

SIYARAM BROS. (RAJASTHAN) PVT LTD VS KIRLOSKAR OIL ENGINES LTD [CM(M)-3511/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Siyaram Bros. (Rajasthan) Pvt Ltd requested a timely hearing for a long-pending suit filed in 2007, which has been at the final arguments stage since 2018. Acknowledging the case's delay, there is an emphasis on expedited proceedings, with an informal suggestion for completion within four months after the next hearing on 04.12.2024, considering the trial court's workload.

SMT BHATERI & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-484/2013]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Rajbir was a bonafide passenger on the train when he died due to an "untoward incident." The lack of a recovered ticket did not negate the claim, as it was possible the ticket was lost during the incident and the claimants could not prove its purchase since Rajbir was traveling alone. The appeal was allowed, the Tribunal's order rejecting the claim was set aside, and the matter was remanded for determining the compensation payable to the claimants.

SMT NIRMAL BINDAL VS SH SANJEEV AGARWAL [CM(M)-2707/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application for an early hearing was disposed of, with a directive for the Appellate Tribunal to decide the main proceedings within three months. The petitioner's counsel contested the Tribunal's observation regarding the respondent's counsel's lack of objection to granting status quo. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed, and the Tribunal was instructed to decide the matter without being influenced by current observations.

SMT RAMA MISHRA VS LIFE INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA [CM(M)-3141/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner was allowed to withdraw the petition challenging the NCDRC order since the cause of action arose in Uttar Pradesh. Jurisdiction lies with the High Court of the state where the cause of action occurred, thus the petitioner was granted the option to approach the appropriate High Court without any opinion on the case's merits.

SMT SAPNA KATAYAN VS J M FINANCIAL ASSET RECONSTRUCTION CO LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15698/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's writ petition was deemed not maintainable due to the availability of an efficacious remedy before the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT) under the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act (SARFAESI). Similarly situated occupants had previously been directed to approach the DRT. The petitioner was allowed to explore a settlement with the respondent and seek redressal through the DRT.

SMT SHARMILA SINGH VS MASTER ABHIMANYU SINGH & ANR. [CM(M)-2376/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order striking off the petitioner's defense in matrimonial proceedings was set aside. Instead of striking off the defense, a reasonable cost for the delay was deemed more appropriate. The petitioner was directed to file the affidavit and documents within one week and was ordered to pay a cost of Rs. 10,000. The trial court was expected to address interim maintenance before issuing any further orders.

SMT VANDANA BAGLA VS M/S. M CARS STUDIO AND ORS. (THROUGH ITS PARTNERS) [CM(M)-3551/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Smt. Vandana Bagla challenging the trial court's order to refer the matter to arbitration was dismissed. The arbitration clause in the lease agreement allowed for resolution either through a mutually agreed sole arbitrator or the court, with the intention favoring referral to a sole arbitrator. The court's role was limited to appointing an arbitrator if the parties could not agree, not to directly adjudicate the dispute. The petitioner's arguments lacked merit.

SMT. ANITA GOYAL & ANR. VS SH. VARUN BATTA [CM(M)-3383/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners received the plaint and documents electronically but did not receive accompanying summons. As a result, the permission to file the written statement should not have been recalled. The written statement previously filed by the petitioners is deemed on record, and their defense is restored, contingent upon a payment of Rs. 20,000 to the respondent within one week.

SMT. ANURADHA KAPOOR & ORS. VS M/S. PRIME TIME INDIA LIMITED & ORS. [CM(M)-3305/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff's request to call an official from the Registrar of Companies to prove certain documents was granted, despite earlier refusal by the trial court. These documents, already on record, will now be considered for relevance during final arguments. Both parties are urged to assist and cooperate for the timely resolution of the lengthy suit.

SMT. PUSHPA DEVI VATS @ BABLI VS SMT RESHAM DEVI & ORS. [FAO-14/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The matter was remanded to the trial court to reconsider the plaintiff's application for an injunction. Key issues regarding whether the properties are ancestral or self-acquired and the maintainability of the plaintiff's suit for partition were not conclusively addressed. The merits of the competing claims remain unexpressed, with the trial court tasked to hear the parties and issue an appropriate order.

SMT. SHANTI DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA [FAO-270/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order of the Railway Claims Tribunal was set aside, granting Smt. Shanti Devi an opportunity to examine key witnesses, including the driver and station master, regarding her claim for compensation under the Railway Claims Tribunal Act, 1987 for her son's death in an untoward incident. The Tribunal had dismissed the claim, stating the passenger was neither bona fide nor a victim of an untoward incident. Emphasis was placed on the Railway Act as a beneficial legislation, allowing the claimant to seek the truth. The parties were instructed to appear before the Tribunal on a specified date, with the expectation of a fair opportunity for witness examination and re-hearing of the arguments before a final decision.

SOMESHWAR DAYAL VS ANUPAMA DAYAL [CM(M)-3430/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The defendant's right to present oral arguments in the civil suit was affirmed, with an allowance of 40 minutes for the defendant to address the court on a specified date. The plaintiff was also granted the opportunity to make brief rebuttal arguments if needed.

SPARSH DHIR VS ESHA DHIR [CM(M)-2176/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Pending applications filed under Section 26 of the Hindu Marriage Act for custody and Section 24 for maintenance should be heard together by the trial court and resolved with a common order. Both applications remain unresolved due to the ongoing petition, necessitating an expedited review while preserving the rights and arguments of the parties without commenting on the merits.

SUBHASH CHAND JAIN VS SATISH KUMAR [CM(M)-2858/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Observations made by the trial and appellate courts on the merits of the case are considered prima facie and tentative, not final. These observations remain subject to the final outcome, pending the parties' introduction of evidence before the trial court. The petition was disposed of without further relief.

SUBHASH CHANDER VS DEEPAK KATHURIA [CM(M)-2967/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958 should have received an earlier hearing date for the tenant's application for leave to defend. The summary procedure under Chapter IIIA aims to expedite eviction petitions, and efforts should have been made to resolve the matter quickly due to low pendency in the Trial Court. The petitioner is instructed to file a fresh application for an early hearing, and the Trial Court is expected to address the leave to defend application promptly.

SUBHASH CHANDRA DAS & ORS. VS AFAQ AHMAD [CM(M)-3567/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' request for a direction to the SHO for the arrest of the judgment debtor has been addressed by the executing court, which issued fresh warrants of arrest and directed the SHO to provide necessary police assistance. No further directions were deemed necessary, leading to the disposal of the petition.

SUCHIT PRASAD JAIN VS NEERAJ PURI [CM(M)-1453/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The relationship of landlord and tenant was established, with the defendant admitting possession of the leased premises. The defendant was directed to deposit unpaid rent but failed to comply despite multiple modifications to the orders, leading to the striking off of the defense. The dispute over possession became moot as the lessor regained possession, leaving only the issues of damages and unpaid rent. A revision petition regarding the order to strike off the defense is pending.

SUDESH CHHIKARA VS BALJEET SINGH [CM(M)-3356/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's application for the production of documents executed by the defendant on 30.03.2004, which supported the defendant's claim of ownership over the disputed property, was dismissed. The defendant stated he misplaced the original documents and lacked possession, making it impossible to compel production. The petitioner may request the trial court to draw an adverse inference for the non-production of documents, and the defendant can apply to provide secondary evidence. No flaws were identified in the trial court's order dismissing the application.

SUNIL KALRA AND ORS VS VIKAS GUPTA AND ORS [CM(M)-284/2021]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Petitioners (tenants) were permitted to file additional affidavits regarding their amendment applications for leave to defend against landlords' eviction under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The Rent Controller is tasked with hearing arguments on these applications and expediting the matter, without considering any comments from the current order, while the merits of the case remain for the Rent Controller to evaluate.

SUNIL KUMAR MEHRA & ANR. VS MS RP AND COMPANY & ORS. [CM(M)-3175/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Petitioners obtained an eviction order against respondents, upheld on revision. During execution proceedings, judgment debtors and third parties filed objections, which remain unresolved. The executing court is instructed to address these objections promptly due to the advanced age of the decree holders. Petitioners are permitted to seek disposal of execution regarding mesne profits/damages.

SUNITA BANSAL VS RAJAN BANSAL [CM(M)-2940/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court was directed to expedite the disposal of four pending execution petitions within six months. These petitions originated from an order for interim maintenance in a HAMA case. The respondent contended that the execution petitions were infructuous due to the dismissal of the main petition, although no opinion was given on their merits.

SUNITA VS LALIT SANSANWAL [FAO-118/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by the defendant against the trial court's order to restore the plaintiff's petition was dismissed. The trial court was found to have provided sufficient reasons for the restoration, despite the plaintiff's lack of specific explanations for non-prosecution. The trial court's liberal approach, emphasizing the right to present one's case, was considered appropriate, and the defendant's objections were deemed unjustified. The appeal lacked merit.

SUNNY SHARMA VS RITIKA SHARMA AND ANR [CM(M)-327/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order for evidence recording through a local commissioner was set aside due to the petitioner's financial constraints. The trial court was instructed to record the evidence directly.

SURENDER SINGH PAUL VS SAVITA PAUL [CM(M)-3032/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court allowed the late filing of the written statement by the respondent, despite a 117-day delay, considering her circumstances as an elderly woman managing household affairs and other litigations. The trial court's discretion in this matter was deemed judicious, leading to the dismissal of the petitioner's challenge. The case involved a dispute between the petitioner and his estranged wife over possession of immovable property.

SURESH SETHI VS RAJ RANI [CM(M)-3267/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's appeal against the decree in favor of his mother was deemed maintainable before the Senior Civil Judge in Rohini, Delhi. The lower appellate court initially stated the appeal was not maintainable but then reviewed the trial court's record, creating confusion. Due to the unique circumstances and the respondent's advanced age, the petitioner was advised to file the appeal afresh. A one-week period was granted for this submission, with the indication that any prior observations should not influence the Senior Civil Judge's consideration of the case.

SUSHEELA RANA & ORS. VS BRIJ BHUSHAN RANA [FAO-320/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal by Susheela Rana and others against Brij Bhushan Rana concerning a partition suit was disposed of. The trial court had restrained the appellants from constructing on the suit property and directed the respondent to fulfill procedural requirements. The appellants indicated that construction activity had ceased and expressed willingness to withdraw the appeal if the trial court expedited the respondent's application under Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 CPC. The appeal was subsequently treated as not pressed, with a request for prompt consideration of the respondent's application by the trial court.

SUSHIL KUMAR SAHDEV VS M/S S.K FINANCE AND LEASING CO. & ANR. [CM(M)-3606/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must consider and dispose of the defendant's application under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, for referral to arbitration, and the plaintiff's application for amendment of the suit within three months. The plaintiff's amendment application contributed to the delay in addressing the defendant's Section 8 application. Both parties are urged to cooperate fully with the trial court and avoid unnecessary adjournments.

SUSHILA JAIN AND ANR VS ANAND PADIA [CM(M)-3433/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The written statement filed by the petitioners (defendant nos. 1 and 2) is accepted on record due to the payment of a Rs. 25,000 cost imposed by the trial court. The trial court is directed to proceed with the matter in accordance with the law, considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case.

SUSHILA SINGH VS DILIP SINGH [CM(M)-3199/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to an order that closed her right to file a reply in a probate petition was disposed of. Respondents 7-10 had already submitted an application to set aside that order, which was pending consideration. The trial court was requested to hear this application and decide it based on the law. If the petitioner remained aggrieved after the trial court's decision, she could file a new petition.

SUSHMA JINDAL VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED [CM(M)-2078/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The case involved a petitioner wishing to withdraw from the Delhi High Court due to the cause of action being within the jurisdiction of the Allahabad High Court. The Supreme Court precedent indicated that jurisdiction does not transfer to the Delhi High Court simply because the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission had previously permitted the petition. The petitioner was granted the option to approach the appropriate jurisdictional High Court.

SWAMI CHAKRAPANI JI MAHARAJ NATIONAL PRESIDENT, AKHIL BHARAT HINDU MAHASABHA VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ORS. [FAO-255/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appellant was permitted to withdraw the appeal challenging the dismissal of their application for interim relief, preserving their rights and contentions. The trial court was instructed to expedite the underlying suit, with an emphasis on cooperation between the parties and avoidance of unnecessary adjournments.

SWATI KHANDELWAL & ANR. VS INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIC AND SPIRITUAL RESEARCH & ORS. [CM(M)-666/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The dismissal of Swati Khandelwal and Rakesh Khandelwal's applications under Order IX Rule 7 CPC was set aside. The plaintiff initially listed their address as the same as the plaintiff's but later amended it to Gurgaon without attempting service at that address before using substituted service through publication. The plaintiffs conceded, allowing the petitioners to participate in the suit and required them to file written statements within 30 days. The trial court was requested to expedite the matter.

SWETA PRADIP POPAT VS LARSEN AND TURBO LTD [CM(M)-3654/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Sweta Pradip Popat was dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction, as the entire cause of action arose in Gujarat. The petitioner should have approached the Gujarat High Court instead of the Delhi High Court. The case was deemed not maintainable, allowing the petitioner to file an appropriate petition before the Gujarat High Court.

TARUN NAYAR VS M/S EMTA COAL LIMITED & ANR. [FAO-25/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The plaintiff's appeal was allowed, restoring the suit previously dismissed for non-appearance. Medical reasons for the plaintiff's counsel's absence and a change of counsel were considered sufficient grounds for the delay. The delay of 35 days in filing the restoration application was deemed condonable. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the plaintiff, with instructions to appear before the trial court on the next date. Previous negligence was not deemed a decisive factor; a liberal approach was advocated unless evidence of malafide or gross negligence was present.

TEJ KISHEN & ORS VS UOI & ORS [W.P.(C)-7977/2007]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A writ petition by six Kashmiri migrants challenging the payment terms of the "Special Housing Registration Scheme for Retired/Retiring J&K Migrants" was dismissed due to lack of merit. The first scheme aimed at general rehabilitation of Kashmiri migrants, while the second specifically addressed housing for retiring/retired Central Government employees. The petitioners had not applied for the second scheme, misrepresenting their status. Payment terms for the second scheme, tailored for government employees, were deemed appropriate and did not need to match the first scheme's terms.

THE MANAGEMENT OF M/S BANWARI LAI CHARITABLE TRUST VS SMT SHOBHA [CM(M)-3250/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by M/s Banwari Lal Charitable Trust regarding a claim from Smt. Shobha under Section 2A(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 was dismissed. The Management sought to recall the respondent for further cross-examination after more than 6 years, but the application was viewed as highly belated and lacking a sufficient explanation for the delay. The decision to dismiss the application was upheld, with no merit found in the petition.

THE VICE CHAIRMAN DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS GAGAN MARWAH & ORS. [CM(M)-987/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition from the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) to condone the delay in filing a written statement was allowed. The delay was attributed to internal procedural formalities. The written statement was accepted, with a cost of Rs. 20,000 imposed on the DDA to be paid to the plaintiff. The DDA was advised to avoid seeking unnecessary adjournments to expedite the trial.

TRIVENI APARTMENTS WELFARE ASSOCIATION VS ASHWANI KUMAR COMMISSIONER SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1969/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The contempt case filed by the Triveni Apartments Welfare Association against the Commissioner of the South Delhi Municipal Corporation and others involved allegations of willful disobedience regarding an earlier order for the Delhi Police to provide mobile numbers of traffic-in-charge officers. The respondents' counsel assured that the new numbers would be shared via email within two days. Following this assurance, the petitioner indicated no further grievance, leading to the disposition of the contempt petition.

TUSHAR KANT GANGULI (DECEASED) THR LRS VS SANJAY GUPTA [CM(M)-1078/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the legal representatives of deceased defendant Tushar Kant Ganguli for the appointment of a handwriting expert to examine disputed signatures on the 'agreement to sell' and 'receipt' documents was dismissed. The request was deemed inappropriate as the defendant should have filed a review petition against an earlier order that denied sending the documents to the Central Forensic Science Laboratory. The action taken was considered an indirect attempt to achieve what could not be achieved directly, and it was viewed that this situation did not warrant interference with the trial court's order.

UDAI BHAN AND ANR VS RAJ KUMAR @ LALA AND ORS [CM(M)-3522/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Udai Bhan and Anr. against the dismissal of their interim injunction application to prevent defendants from constructing on the suit premises was dismissed. The plaintiffs failed to prove ownership or personal interest in the property. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi had issued a "work stop" and demolition notice, offering the plaintiffs more relief than requested. The plaintiffs did not seek an injunction in a prior 2018 possession suit. Given these considerations, there was no basis for intervention in the lower court's decisions.

UDAY MEDICARE P. LTD. & ORS. VS RITA AGARWAL [CM(M)-270/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The ex-parte order against defendant Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 5 was set aside, contingent on the payment of Rs. 1,00,000/- by the next hearing date. The order resulted from the withdrawal of the vakalatnama by the petitioners' counsel due to non-payment of fees. The matter is to proceed according to law, with a request for expedited disposal with both parties' cooperation.

UMA AND ORS VS RENU KUMARI AND ORS [CM(M)-3027/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners' right to file written statements was reinstated after a prior order closed it due to non-payment of costs. They are required to pay Rs. 15,000 by the next hearing and submit their written statements within one week. The matter will proceed according to law.

UMRAO SINGH VS DDA [W.P.(C)-17202/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request for an 'Approach Road' to his property will be treated as a representation and decided by the Competent Authority of the DDA within 12 weeks. The petitioner had previously sought property demarcation, which was completed. The petitioner is expected to provide any necessary documents to the DDA and may be granted a personal hearing due to the matter's complexity.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS STERLITE POWER TRANSMISSION LTD [CM(M)-3603/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by United India Insurance Co Ltd was dismissed because the insurance company's reply to a consumer complaint was filed after the 30-day deadline set by the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. The excuse of counsel's inadvertence was deemed unacceptable, as the company was expected to be more diligent in managing proceedings and ensuring timely compliance.

UPPAL HOUSING PRIVATE LIMITED VS LATE JASWANT SINGH ARORA THROUGH HIS LRS [CM(M)-2866/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The cause of action in this case arose from events in Chandigarh, establishing that jurisdiction lies with the High Court of Punjab and Haryana rather than the Delhi High Court. The petitioner was granted the opportunity to file the appropriate petition in the High Court of Punjab and Haryana.

USHA RANI AND ORS. VS SURESH SINGHAL [CM(M)-3131/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The delay in filing the written statement by the defendant was deemed unjustified. The existing written statement was taken on record to prevent prolonging the suit. A cost of Rs. 15,000 was imposed on the defendant to be paid to the plaintiff for the delay. The trial court is expected to proceed with the matter in accordance with the law.

USHA RANI VS KAVINDRA SINGH & ORS [CM(M)-217/2019]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court must re-consider the maintainability of the civil suit filed by Usha Rani during the final argument stage, disregarding previous orders from the trial and appellate courts. The appellate court's earlier belief that an application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure had been filed was incorrect. The trial court is instructed to expedite the disposal of the suit with cooperation from both parties.

VANITA BATHLA VS SHASHI BAJAJ & ANR. [CM(M)-2551/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to submit previously declined documents was accepted, as the respondents did not object and the documents were deemed necessary for a fair resolution of the case. The trial court was instructed to continue the proceedings in accordance with the law, and the plaintiffs were permitted to apply for an earlier hearing date.

VARUN GUPTA VS SUMAN GROVER & ANR. [CM(M)-2864/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Two petitions were filed challenging trial court orders in a recovery suit. The first petition was withdrawn by the petitioner without prejudice. The second petition permitted the petitioner to cross-examine PW-2, Mr. Praveen Grover, for the purpose of formally presenting a certificate under Section 63 of the Bharitya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023, along with related documents. The parties were directed to set an appropriate date for examination and cross-examination, with an expectation of cooperation to expedite final arguments and the resolution of the matter.

VEENA NARANG VS SAGRIKA D BAJAJ [CM(M)-3629/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

A petition under Article 227 of the Constitution led to a modification of a trial court's order granting conditional leave to a defendant mother in her daughter's suit for Rs. 9,75,000. The mother had already deposited 50% of the principal amount, and considering the case's peculiar facts, the conditional deposit was reduced to Rs. 4,87,500. The matter was remanded for issues to be framed, encouraging both parties to seek an amicable solution and expediting the suit's disposal.

VEER SINGH THROUGH POWER OF ATTORNEY VS KINRI DHIR [CM(M)-3218/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The order to release Rs. 3,43,000 from a deposited amount of Rs. 6,50,000 to the respondent for their minor child's school admission was upheld. This action aligns with a previous Supreme Court directive for the petitioner to cover maintenance and educational expenses, prioritizing the child's best interests. The petitioner's detrimental attitude towards the child's education was noted as a concern. An application for clarification regarding the order has been filed by the respondent, but the decision aims to prevent the child from losing an academic year.

VEER SINGH VS KINRI DHIR [CM(M)-3092/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Veer Singh, the respondent in Guardianship Petition No. 24/2021, expressed a desire not to oppose the petition under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890. Despite his stance, the Family Court chose to proceed based on the respondent Ms. Dhir's concerns. Veer Singh has the option to submit an affidavit or application indicating his non-contestation, which the Family Court will consider for appropriate orders. All rights and contentions of the parties remain reserved.

VIJAY GAUR VS MR. TAAHA FAHIM & ORS. [CM(M)-3361/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by Vijay Gaur was disposed of with a directive for the trial court to hear and decide the application from the contesting defendants under Order VII Rule 11 CPC for rejection of the plaint within six months of the next hearing. Previous arguments on the application were partially heard, and mediation efforts were unsuccessful. All parties, including the Municipal Corporation of Delhi, were asked to cooperate with the trial court.

VIJAY KUMAR VS MOHD. IBRAHIM & ANR. [CM(M)-2985/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the trial court's order allowing the defendant one final opportunity to cross-examine the plaintiff was dismissed. The trial court had previously granted multiple chances for cross-examination, but the decision to allow one last opportunity, subject to a cost of Rs. 10,000, was considered a valid exercise of discretion. The aim was to decide the case on merits rather than technicalities, ensuring fairness for both parties. No illegality was identified in the trial court's order, which was recognized for its focus on adjudicating the case fairly while compensating the plaintiff.

VIJAY LAKSHMI MENON VS BHARAT CHUGH AND ANR [CM(M)-1163/2022]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's decision to convert the plaintiff's summary suit into an ordinary suit was inappropriate. The trial court could have imposed costs or dismissed the suit for non-prosecution but should not have changed its nature. The matter is to proceed as a summary suit, with the defendant's application for leave to defend being considered after both sides present their arguments. The plaintiff is required to pay costs of Rs. 10,000 to the defendant.

VIJAY VARDHAN DAGA VS M/S LORD BUILDERS PVT LTD & ORS. [CM(M)-2493/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's challenge under Article 227 of the Constitution was accepted, and a 5-day delay in filing the appeal before the Additional District Judge in Rohini, Delhi was condoned due to the petitioner's age of 79 and residence in Hyderabad. The emphasis was on deciding the matter on merits rather than technicalities. The appeal was restored, with parties directed to appear before the Additional District Judge on the scheduled date, and no coercive action was permitted in the execution petition until that date.

VIMAL KUMAR PATHAK VS HARPEET SINGH [CM(M)-2975/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to expedite the disposal of an application under Order XII Rule 6 of the Civil Procedure Code was reviewed. Arguments were last heard by the trial court in December 2023, with subsequent dates being set for clarification and orders. The trial court is instructed to seek clarification from both parties on the next hearing date, 14.08.2024, and to dispose of the application within four weeks thereafter.

VIMLA VS SANJAY SINDHANI [CM(M)-3510/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the defendant tenant to include Ms. Pooja Pahuja as a co-defendant in a suit for possession, arrears of rent, damages, and mesne profits was dismissed. The question of property title was deemed not material for the eviction suit, and adding the proposed defendant would complicate the matter, transforming it into a title dispute. The petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

VINESH SHARMA VS M/S VIJAY COTSWIN PVT LTD. [CM(M)-3315/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Petitions by the defendant challenging the allowance of certain documents by the trial court were dismissed. The plaintiff demonstrated reasonable cause for not previously disclosing the documents, having served a notice on the defendant to produce GST forms without a response. The decision to permit the filing of additional documents was not considered erroneous, and supervisory jurisdiction should not interfere with it.

VINOD KUMAR ARORA VS SURENDER KUMAR ARORA (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS. AND ORS. [CM(M)-3682/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court inappropriately required the defendant and plaintiff to submit affidavits on partition methods, despite both parties planning to appeal the preliminary decree. An allowance of two months was granted for the parties to file their appeals, after which the trial court could proceed in accordance with the law, considering any appellate decisions.

VINOD KUMAR MEHTA AND ANR VS ANJANA NARULA [FAO-166/2016]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The appeal filed by Vinod Kumar Mehta and another was disposed of after the parties reached an amicable settlement. The appellants received three drafts of Rs. 13,00,000 each, along with the keys and General Power of Attorney for the property. Both parties agreed to implement the settlement and withdraw the suit.

VINOD KUMAR SHARMA VS GEETA KHURANA [CM(M)-3460/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The trial court's order for the arrest of the judgment debtor was set aside due to a jurisdictional error. Strict adherence to the protocol under Section 51 and Order 21 Rule 37 of the Civil Procedure Code is required before ordering arrest in execution of a money decree. The trial court must follow the relevant provisions for any future coercive actions against the judgment debtor.

VIR PAL VS VIJAY KUMAR FARSHWAL AND ANR [CM(M)-3004/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The tenant's petition challenging the eviction order under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was dismissed. Claims regarding the landlord's ownership and the tenant's adverse possession were found meritless. The tenant had the opportunity to address these objections during earlier proceedings but did not do so. Continued filing of multiple applications instead of complying with the Supreme Court's vacate order was noted.

VIRENDER KUMAR BHARDWAJ VS MUNCIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI THROUGH ITS COMMISSIONER [CM(M)-2834/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) is allowed to file a written statement despite a 166-day delay. The petitioner, a senior citizen, will receive Rs. 20,000 in compensation for the delay. Timelines for filing are not mandatory, but excessive delays without justification warrant costs, particularly in cases involving senior citizens. The MCD must pay the cost to the petitioner at the next hearing before the trial court.

VISHAL KOCHHAR VS PALLAVI KASHYAP KOCHHAR [CM(M)-3535/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner's request to extend the meeting duration for the paternal grandmother from 5 minutes to 15 minutes on the child's birthday was granted, deemed appropriate based on the case's overall circumstances. The remaining directives from the Family Court's previous order remain unchanged, and the guardianship petition is still pending adjudication.

VISHAL RANA & ANR. VS M/S VAISHNO VILLE PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-1965/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioners were allowed to submit a written statement beyond the 120-day limit, contingent upon paying the respondent Rs. 50,000 for the delay. The respondent initially objected to the statement but later conceded without prejudice. The petitioners were directed to file original affidavits and admission/denial of documents. The trial court was instructed to allow the respondent to file a replication and to expedite the suit's disposal.

VIVEK KUMAR SAXENA VS M/S COLLEGE BOOK STORE [CM(M)-3699/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by the defendant was dismissed due to failure to comply with the strict timelines set by the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 for filing written statements in commercial disputes. The defendant received the summons and plaint on June 6, 2023, but did not appear on the first hearing date, September 2, 2023, leading to ex-parte proceedings and closure of the right to file a written statement. The defendant's inaction for 3.5 months before seeking relief was noted, and the expectation for an extension of time was deemed unreasonable, as the law mandates adherence to specific timelines.

WARM FORGING PRIVATE LIMITED VS RECKON INDUSTRIES LIMITED [CM(M)-3407/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition by Warm Forging Private Limited to compel Reckon Industries Limited to produce financial documents and summon its chartered accountant was dismissed. The primary issue in the suit concerned the date for claiming interest, which did not relate to the requested documents and witness. Balance sheets were already publicly available, and the defendant could not demand the summoning of the chartered accountant. There was no basis to interfere with the trial court's decision.

WEST WIND ENGINEERS PVT. LTD. VS RAJESH MEDIRATTA S/O SH. K.C MEDIRATTA PROPRIETOR, M/S SACHIDANAND INSULATIONS [CM(M)-3468/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner faced a cost of Rs. 25,000 for seeking recall of an order that closed its right to cross-examine the plaintiff. This cost was deemed unjustified and reduced to Rs. 11,000, considering the reasons provided and concessions by the plaintiff's counsel. The petitioner was directed to cooperate fully with the trial court and avoid unnecessary adjournments.

WHITEFIELD OVERSEAS LIMITED VS KHUSHI AGRO FOODS PRODUCTS [CM(M)-2855/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petitioner is permitted to deposit Rs. 30 lakhs instead of the previously ordered Rs. 40 lakhs before the trial court. This decision is based on the petitioner's earlier statement indicating readiness to deposit Rs. 30 lakhs without prejudice to its rights. A timeframe of seven weeks is provided for the deposit, while all rights and contentions of the parties remain reserved.

Y K GUPTA AND CO VS CAPRI GLOBAL CAPITAL LTD [W.P.(C)-8055/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Y K Gupta & Co's writ petition challenging the show-cause notice from Capri Global Capital Ltd regarding the declaration of wilful defaulter was rendered infructuous following the withdrawal of the initial notice. A new show-cause notice was issued on 21.11.2024, allowing the petitioner three weeks to respond and the option to challenge the new notice in accordance with law.

YASH PAL SACHDEVA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-15731/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

Yash Pal Sachdeva's writ petition against the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) will be treated as a representation. Sachdeva is to meet the Deputy Director of the Land and Disposal Department to present his case. The DDA must decide on the representation within six weeks after a personal hearing. Sachdeva retains the right to pursue further legal action if dissatisfied with the outcome.

YOGENDER KUMAR VS LIC HOUSING FINANCE LTD [CM(M)-886/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Jain

The petition filed by defendant no. 1 under Article 227 of the Constitution was allowed, leading to the written statement being deemed on record and the defendant being permitted to participate in the proceedings. The trial court had dismissed the application due to the absence of a timely application for condonation of delay. Consideration of the overall circumstances, including the deposit of costs by the defendant, resulted in the petition's approval and the order of the trial court being set aside.

ABDUL KHALID SAIFI @ KHALID SAIFI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-988/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal revision petition filed by Abdul Khalid Saifi was dismissed, challenging the framing of charges under various IPC sections and the Arms Act. Evidence from public witnesses and a police official indicated Saifi's involvement in instigating a crowd to disobey police orders, throw stones, and supply a firearm to a juvenile for use against police during protests against the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019. It was noted that the intent for the charge of attempted murder under Section 307 IPC can be inferred from circumstances without needing proof of serious injury. No grounds were identified to interfere with the charges against Saifi.

ANIL KUMAR JAIN VS SACHIN JAIN [CRL.M.C.-7417/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Petitions were allowed, and a criminal complaint was quashed due to a prior civil court finding that the rent receipts in question were genuine, which was not challenged. The respondent's failure to disclose the criminal complaint in the civil proceedings indicated conflicting positions. The allegations in the criminal complaint did not constitute forgery under Section 464 of the Indian Penal Code, as executing a document claiming property ownership, even if dishonest, does not amount to forgery. The criminal complaint was therefore quashed.

ACCUPAYD TECH PVT LTD VS HOME SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1473/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The writ petition by Accupayd Tech Pvt Ltd, challenging the freezing of its bank accounts by law enforcement agencies, was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The primary issue was that no part of the cause of action arose within the relevant jurisdiction, leading to the dismissal without addressing other contentions.

AJAY KUMAR BANA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3760/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The FIR against the petitioner for possessing live cartridges under Section 25 of the Arms Act was quashed due to insufficient evidence of "conscious possession." The petitioner had a valid arms license for the .32 bore gun, and the cartridges found matched this license. The petitioner demonstrated unintentional possession, leading to the conclusion that criminal proceedings would be an abuse of the process of law.

AMIT PLATHIA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI ORS & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8316/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Serious offenses like rape are generally not quashed based solely on a settlement; however, in specific circumstances, such as consensual relations between parties who later married and restored harmony, it is possible to quash proceedings. In this case, the FIR under Section 376 IPC was quashed due to these factors.

ANIL DUTT VS STATE [CRL.A.-204/2001]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Anil Dutt's conviction under Sections 365/368/506/120B IPC and the Arms Act was set aside due to the unavailability of complete trial records, making case reconstruction impossible. Despite efforts, only partial police records were recovered after 36 years since the offense. Given the lengthy delay since the incident and the lack of judicial records, the decision was made to acquit Dutt.

ANIL KUMAR VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-885/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant was convicted for robbery under Section 392 IPC, but the conviction under Section 397 IPC was deemed invalid as the knife was not visible to the complainant during the theft, failing to meet the requirement of "using" a deadly weapon. The conviction under Section 25 of the Arms Act was upheld. The sentence was modified to the period already served.

ANKUSH ARORA VS M/S PARWATI TEXTILES AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-9177/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The summoning order against petitioner Ankush Arora was quashed. Mere identification as a director is insufficient to establish vicarious liability under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The complainant must demonstrate that the director was responsible for the company's daily operations at the time of the offense, which was not alleged in the complaint.

ANKUSH ARORA VS M/S RACHNA SAREES AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-9176/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition filed by director Ankush Arora resulted in the quashing of the summoning order in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The complaint did not adequately allege that Arora was "in charge of and responsible for the conduct of the business" at the time of the offence, leading to his exoneration from vicarious liability.

VAIBHAV JAIN VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-3301/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The right to bail in cases of trial delays and prolonged incarceration is essential under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). The constitutional mandate under Article 21, which ensures the right to life and personal liberty, takes precedence over statutory bail conditions when trials are unlikely to conclude in a reasonable timeframe. Given that the delay in this case was not caused by the applicants, regular bail was granted, emphasizing that prolonged incarceration without trial is unacceptable.

ASHA RANI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1411/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The orders dismissing the petitioner's protest against the police closure report were upheld. The evidence did not establish a causal link between the acts of the respondents and the deceased's suicide, as required under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code for abetment. Legal principles regarding abetment of suicide were analyzed, confirming the justification of the lower courts' decisions based on the case facts. This was part of a batch matter without referral to a larger bench.

ASHISH ABROL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5419/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

A prima facie case exists against Ashish Abrol for charges under Sections 420 (cheating), 468 (forgery), and 471 (using a forged document) of the Indian Penal Code. The discharge under Section 468 IPC was set aside due to evidence from the RFSL report and a bank official's statement, providing sufficient grounds for the forgery charge. Charges under Sections 420 and 471 IPC were upheld based on established culpability. The trial court was directed to proceed with the trial, with the observations limited to the charge framing stage and not affecting the case's final merits.

ASHOK KUMAR SAXENA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-9442/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. for FIR registration was dismissed, with the finding that the dispute was civil in nature and no cognizable offense was present. The petitioner had sufficient documents and evidence, indicating that police intervention was unnecessary. The decision to treat the matter as a complaint case was upheld, with no grounds for interference identified.

ATIN CHOPRA VS THE STATE, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4708/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959, was quashed due to lack of evidence for "conscious possession." The petitioner presented a plausible explanation that the ammunition belonged to his late father-in-law and he was unaware of it. Without the necessary mental element of intention or knowledge, continuation of proceedings was deemed futile.

AVDHESH MITTAL VS DEEPAK VIG [O.M.P. (COMM)-271/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition challenging the arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was deemed not time-barred. Deemed delivery of the award was not applicable as the premises were sealed at the time. The petitioner was not properly served and proceeded ex-parte, leading to the limitation period starting from the actual receipt of the signed copy of the award on 12.05.2023. The case was not part of a batch matter, and there was consensus between the judges.

AYUB VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-888/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant's conviction under Section 397 IPC for using a deadly weapon during a robbery was invalidated due to evidence indicating the knife was not visible to the victim and did not instill terror. However, the conviction under Section 392/34 read with Section 394 IPC for robbery and voluntarily causing hurt was upheld. Given the appellant's background, the time elapsed, and the substantial portion of the sentence already served, the sentence was modified to the period already undergone. The appeal of the co-accused was abated due to his death.

BARKAT HUSSAIN VS PRABHAS NAIRAIN MISRA (HUF) THRU PRABHAS N. MISRA [CRL.M.C.-919/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Barkat Hussain's petition resulted in the quashing of a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The post-dated cheque in question was issued as security for a second purchase order, which was not fulfilled by the complainant, Prabhas Nairain Misra (HUF). Therefore, the dishonor of the cheque did not constitute an offense as there was no legally enforceable debt or liability at the time the cheque was drawn.

BHAI MANJIT SINGH VS RADHIKA CHOWDHURY (DECEASED) THR. LRS [CRL.M.C.-2006/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Bhai Manjit Singh's criminal petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was dismissed, upholding the summoning order issued in a Section 138 complaint under the Negotiable Instruments Act. The presumption under Sections 118 and 139 of the Act is rebuttable, and the claim that the cheque was stolen requires a trial for evidence presentation, which cannot be addressed at this stage. The petitioner will have the chance to present his defense in the trial court.

BHARAT DHIRAJLAL MEHTA VS OXYZO FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT LTD [CRL.M.C.-6327/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the petitioner was quashed due to a lack of specific allegations. The petitioner, acting as an independent additional director of the accused company, was not the signatory of the dishonored cheque. The complaint included only general allegations with no specific role or responsibility attributed to the petitioner, leading to the dismissal of the complaint and the associated summoning order.

BHUSHAN KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5442/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

A prima facie case exists against Bhushan Kumar under Sections 419 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code for impersonation and cheating. Evidence from a complainant and witness revealed that Kumar posed as a CBI officer, lived in the complainant's home, and took money from the family with the promise of securing school admissions for their children, but left without returning the funds. No challenge was raised regarding his discharge under other sections.

BODA VENKAT RAM VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-734/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Boda Venkat Ram, an independent non-executive director of K.S. Oils Ltd., had the complaint and summoning order against him quashed. The complaint lacked specific allegations regarding his involvement in the day-to-day affairs of the company, which is necessary to establish criminal liability under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The general allegations presented were insufficient for legal proceedings.

MURARI LAL & ORS. VS STATE [CRL.A.-207/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Chanderpal was convicted under Sections 363 and 328 IPC for kidnapping and drugging a 14-15 year old girl. The testimony of the victim was deemed reliable, and the evidence against him was satisfactory. The appeals of co-convicts Murari Lal and Hari Singh were abated due to their deaths. Chanderpal's sentence was modified to the approximately 7 months and 29 days he had already served, taking into account his age and good conduct in prison.

CHET RAM YADAV & ANR. VS STATE OF DELHI [CRL.A.-633/2001]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellants were convicted under Section 308 IPC for culpable homicide not amounting to murder, with sufficient evidence from the injured victim and corroborating sources. Following a settlement and the victim's forgiveness, the sentence was modified to probation under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, contingent on the payment of Rs. 4 lakhs in compensation to the injured party.

DAYA RANI VS RAJEEV GULATI & ANR. [CRL.L.P.-346/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's request for leave to appeal against the trial court's acquittal of the accused under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The accused demonstrated a credible defense through evidence of partial debt payment. The petitioner's failure to acknowledge this part-payment on the dishonored cheque under Section 56 weakened the case. The trial court's findings were deemed plausible, leading to the decision not to grant leave to appeal.

DEEPAK CHAUDHARY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1397/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's request for a joint trial of 8 complaint cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was denied due to the distinct nature of the cheques involved, constituting separate offences. An analysis of Sections 219 and 220 of the Code of Criminal Procedure clarified that while offences from the same transaction could be tried together, Section 219 limits joint trials to no more than 3 offences of the same type. Consequently, there was no basis to combine all 8 complaints, but the trial court was directed to club a maximum of 3 cases of the same kind.

DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS TATA MOTORS LIMITED [ARB. A. (COMM.)-27/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The Arbitral Tribunal's order restraining Delhi Transport Corporation (DTC) from recovering KMPKG penalty from Tata Motors Limited's (TML) Annual Maintenance Charges dues was upheld. DTC's recovery actions violated a previous arbitral award declaring such recovery illegal. Arguments that TML was estopped from challenging the recovery due to the withdrawal of an earlier petition were rejected, as the withdrawal was part of a mutual arrangement. Additionally, the Arbitral Tribunal correctly did not reverse DTC's prior recoveries, since TML did not file a counter-claim for refunds. Both appeals from the parties against the Arbitral Tribunal's order were dismissed.

DHARAMVEER SINGH VS VIDYA SHREE DEVI [CRL.L.P.-31/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's request to appeal his acquittal in a Section 138 case under the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The respondent successfully rebutted the presumption by demonstrating that the cheque was stolen and supported his claim with a favorable expert report. The acquittal was considered a reasonable conclusion, and the findings were based on a proper evaluation of evidence, free from irrationality.

PAWAN VS THE STATE GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-1305/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The convictions of Dolly and Pawan under Section 33 of the Delhi Excise Act were set aside due to insufficient proof of recovery of illicit liquor, highlighted by discrepancies in the seizure memo and evidence regarding labels on the seized bottles. Although the presumption under Section 52 of the Excise Act applies once recovery is established, the prosecution failed to prove the recovery beyond reasonable doubt. The convictions under the Motor Vehicles Act were upheld, with acknowledgment that the sentence had already been served.

FIRST CRUSH CAFE PVT. LTD. VS SH. AMIT KUMAR GOYAL [CRL.M.C.-2702/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was flawed and should be quashed due to discrepancies in the statutory notice, which referenced a different cheque number and was issued by Shubham Jain instead of Amit Kumar Goyal, the complainant. Additionally, there was a failure to conduct an inquiry under Section 202 of the Criminal Procedure Code before the summoning order. These defects indicated a mechanical issuance of the order, leading to its dismissal.

FIRST CRUSH CAFE PVT. LTD. VS SH. SHUBHAM JAIN [CRL.M.C.-1733/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

A criminal complaint under Sections 138/142 of the Negotiable Instruments Act and Section 420 IPC was found to have material defects. The statutory notice attached referred to a different cheque number and was issued by a different individual than the complainant. The summoning order was issued without proper scrutiny of these discrepancies. The complaint did not comply with the procedural requirements of Section 138 of the NI Act, leading to the setting aside of the summoning order.

GARDENIA INDIA LIMITED VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-596/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The FIR against the petitioner company and its directors was quashed due to the nature of the dispute being civil and a settlement reached between the parties. A forensic audit report found no evidence of fraud, and no involvement of bank officials was established. Criminal proceedings stemming from civil disputes can be quashed when compromise diminishes the likelihood of conviction and would cause undue prejudice to the accused. The petitioners were required to make voluntary contributions to welfare funds as a condition for quashing the proceedings.

GEETA OJHA VS STATE (GOVT.) NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1636/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed due to the lack of a statutory notice to the drawer of the dishonored cheque. Liability under Section 138 applies only to the signatory of the cheque and the account holder. The petitioner, not being the signatory and without a joint account, could not be prosecuted under this section, despite any joint liability for the debt.

GITA KUMARI VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-9405/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The order setting aside the summoning of Abhay Singh was upheld, as he was correctly listed in "Column 12" due to a lack of material evidence against him. The mention of his name on the nameplate of the matrimonial house was insufficient to summon him as an accused, and the statements from the complainant and her daughter did not specifically implicate him. Consequently, the justification for dismissing the summoning order was confirmed.

HARI OM RAI VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-3548/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The twin conditions under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) were satisfied. Even if they were not, bail can be granted due to violations of constitutional rights under Article 21, including the right to a speedy trial. The investigation, initiated in 2022, involved 48 accused and 527 witnesses, with the trial at an early stage and unlikely to conclude soon. Given the accused's prolonged incarceration, not attributable to him, indefinite detention under Section 45 PMLA was deemed inappropriate, leading to the decision to grant regular bail with certain conditions.

HAZI MEHRUDDIN & ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-7716/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The Revisional Court erred by hearing the revision petition without issuing notice to the accused, violating their right to be heard. This led to the setting aside of the Revisional Court's order and a remand for fresh consideration, ensuring the accused receive the opportunity to present their case.

IQBAL AHMED VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-914/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Iqbal Ahmed was convicted under Sections 366, 376, and 342 of the Indian Penal Code for kidnapping, rape, and wrongful confinement. The conviction was based on the victim's testimony, the accounts of her parents, and medical evidence. The defense of 'alibi' was rejected, and the absence of physical injuries on the victim did not negate the rape charge due to her unconscious state during confinement. The appeal was dismissed, and the conviction and sentence were upheld.

IQBAL SINGH VS STATE [CRL.A.-290/2011]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant's conviction for possession of forged currency notes under Section 489C IPC was upheld, but his sentence was modified to the time already served. The evidence presented, including credible testimony and the recovery of fake currency, established the appellant's guilt. Initially challenging the conviction, the appellant later sought only a sentence reduction. Considering his personal circumstances, lack of prior criminal record, and good conduct in jail, the sentence was adjusted accordingly.

ISHWAR SINGH VS VIDYA SHRI DEVI [CRL.L.P.-1/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The respondent successfully rebutted the presumption under Section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act by claiming the cheque was stolen by an employee and was never issued by her. The FSL report confirmed that the signature on the cheque did not match the respondent's specimen signature. The petitioner did not challenge the FSL report or cross-examine the bank witness, failing to provide evidence that the cheque was issued by the respondent. As a result, the petitioner's request to appeal the order of acquittal was dismissed.

JAMES VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT DELHI) [CRL.A.-952/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The convictions of Vicky @ Deepak and James for robbery under Sections 392/34 IPC were upheld. Vicky also faced additional convictions for robbery with an attempt to cause death under Section 397 IPC and violations of the Arms Act. Reliable testimonies from the complainant and an eyewitness supported the case, despite minor discrepancies. The recovery of a stolen mobile phone and a knife from Vicky further corroborated the prosecution's claims, distinguishing the case from a referenced Supreme Court decision due to the recoveries made. Both appellants' appeals were addressed in a common judgment.

MOHD. NASIM VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-160/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The conviction of Mohd. Nasim and Jamil under Sections 394/34 (robbery) and 411 (dishonestly receiving stolen property) of the Indian Penal Code was upheld. Despite minor contradictions in the complainant's testimony, the accused were identified as having worked at the complainant's house, and the stolen goods were recovered from them shortly after the incident. No grounds were found to interfere with the convictions and sentences imposed by lower courts, leading to the dismissal of the criminal revision petitions filed by the accused.

JASPREET SINGH VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-7469/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition challenging the order to increase interim maintenance for the estranged wife and minor child was dismissed. The petitioner had been properly served with notices but failed to comply with directions to pay maintenance despite multiple opportunities. Evidence indicated attempts to evade payment. This case stands as a single judgment without additional opinions.

JAWED IMAM SIDDIQUI VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-1864/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Jawed Imam Siddiqui was granted bail in a money laundering case involving alleged administrative irregularities by Amanatullah Khan, the former chairman of the Delhi Waqf Board. The investigation revealed no pecuniary gains for Khan, although the Enforcement Directorate claimed he laundered proceeds through property investments with associates, in which Siddiqui was allegedly involved. Due to the complexity of the case and the unlikely quick resolution, the right to a speedy trial and personal liberty was prioritized over the stringent bail conditions under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. Bail was granted subject to certain conditions.

JITENDRA BHATI VS SANTOSH DEVI [CRL.M.C.-6863/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Criminal complaints against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were quashed due to the issuance of the statutory notice beyond the required 30-day period. The petitioner was not the signatory of the cheques, which were issued by the sole proprietor of the firm, and therefore could not be prosecuted under Section 138. The summoning orders in both complaint cases were set aside.

K. JEGANATHAN VS P. SAMPATH [CRL.M.C.-2713/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Continuation of criminal complaints under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is considered an abuse of process when the parties have settled their disputes through a settlement agreement and consent award. The original complaints are subsumed within the settlement and cannot be maintained. A subsequent settlement agreement gives rise to a fresh cause of action if not complied with. Two complaint cases were quashed, but the respondent retains the right to seek remedies regarding the dishonor of cheques issued under the settlement agreement.

KAMAL KASHYAP VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-58/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Kamal Kashyap's conviction under Section 394/34 IPC for robbery was upheld based on the complainant's statement and medical evidence. The sentence was modified to nine months of rigorous imprisonment, taking into account the petitioner's medical condition and time already served, while maintaining the fine and default sentence.

KAMALJEET SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-5540/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's challenge to the charges under Sections 323/427/34 IPC was deemed invalid. The initial non-cognizable offense does not vitiate the trial once cognizance is taken by the magistrate, unless there is a miscarriage of justice. The FIR was registered under a cognizable offense, allowing the charge-sheet to be treated as a complaint under Section 2(d) Cr.P.C.

KIRAN VERMA AND ORS VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1776/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The FIR and subsequent criminal proceedings against Kiran Verma, Divanshu Verma, Gridhar Lal Nischal, Vinti Diwan, and Amit Diwan were quashed due to general and non-specific allegations lacking details on the nature, date, time, and month of the alleged incidents. Continuation of the proceedings would lead to significant injustice, qualifying the case for quashing under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

KRISHAN GOPAL YADAV & ORS. VS THE STATE GNCT, DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3820/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition filed by the in-laws challenged the framing of charges under Sections 498A/34 IPC and Section 509 IPC. The allegations made by the wife were general and lacked specific details about demands or harassment incidents. The absence of material allegations led to the quashing of the charges against the petitioners.

KUNWARPAL VS STATE THROUGH SHO, P.S. SPECIAL CELL [CRL.M.C.-6586/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The proceedings against Kunwarpal, charged under Sections 21 and 29 of the NDPS Act, have been quashed. The evidence, mainly call detail records showing connectivity with a co-accused, did not establish "grave suspicion" necessary for framing charges. Disclosure statements and secret information did not implicate Kunwarpal, and no recovery was made from him during apprehension. Mere CDR connectivity without incriminating conversations is insufficient for establishing a strong case, leading to the conclusion that continuing the proceedings would be an abuse of legal process.

LAL MOHAMMAD VS STATE [CRL.A.-78/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The conviction of the appellant for attempt to murder under Section 307 IPC and under the Arms Act was upheld based on eye-witness testimonies and medical evidence detailing injuries inflicted on vital parts of the victim's body with a sharp weapon. Evidence was deemed sufficient to demonstrate the accused's intention to kill, with established precedent indicating that intent can be inferred from circumstances regardless of the non-fatal nature of the injuries. Arguments about contradictions in prosecution evidence and claims of assumptions were rejected.

LALLAN PRASAD SONKAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-1088/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant was convicted under Section 308 IPC for causing grievous injuries to the victim, with sufficient evidence including the victim's testimony and medical reports indicating intent or knowledge of culpable homicide. Mitigating factors, such as the appellant's background as a poor rickshaw puller and sole breadwinner, led to a modification of the sentence to the duration already served, totaling approximately 2 years, 3 months, and 27 days.

M/S APEKSHA INTERNATIONAL & ANR. VS EMPLOYEE STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION [CRL.M.C.-314/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Petitions by Apeksha International to quash criminal complaints under the Employees' State Insurance (ESI) Act were dismissed. Employers are required to insure and register employees within 10 days of employment. Disputes regarding the timely registration of deceased employees constitute factual issues to be resolved at trial. The petitioners' reliance on an inapplicable Supreme Court decision was rejected. Criminal complaints under the ESI Act were deemed maintainable and not subject to quashing at this stage.

M/S GLAZEBROOKE TRADING PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S ORBIS TRUSTEESHIP SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6062/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The complaint filed against the company and its directors under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was deemed time-barred. Service of the demand notice on the company was sufficient for the directors, starting the limitation period on 11.03.2022. The one-month limitation for filing the complaint expired on 27.04.2022, but the complaint was filed on 28.04.2022, one day late. The complainant did not submit an application for condonation of the delay as required. Consequently, the criminal complaint was quashed and the order taking cognizance was set aside.

M/S KELTECH INFRASTRUCTRUE LTD VS MS DEEPA CHAWLA [CRL.M.C.-8385/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The concurrent findings of the lower courts resulted in the dismissal of revision petitions filed by M/s Keltech Infrastructure Ltd. and its director, Narinder Kumar, regarding their conviction under Section 138 and Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. Arguments claiming that the power of attorney holder could not substantiate the complaint and that the presumption under Section 139 of the NI Act was successfully rebutted were rejected. The power of attorney holder had knowledge of the transaction and could testify on behalf of the complainant. The petitioners did not present sufficient evidence to counter the presumption, leading to the dismissal of the petitions.

M/S MAGNUM RESOURCES PVT LTD VS M/S INDIA SEWING MACHINE COMPANY & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8172/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The trial court's order allowing the respondents to summon additional witnesses under Section 311 Cr.P.C. in a Section 138 Negotiable Instruments Act case was upheld. The respondents raised a defense regarding the absence of a legally enforceable debt from the case's inception, and the proposed witnesses were expected to support this defense. The decision by the trial court to summon these witnesses aimed to determine the truth and ensure a just outcome. The petition from the complainant was dismissed.

M/S SQUIRREL DESIGN HOUSE AND ORS VS VIVEK KUMAR TRIPATHI [CRL.M.C.-5269/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the partners of a partnership firm was deemed defective because the partnership firm was not included as an accused. The liability of the partners is vicarious, necessitating the firm's involvement in the complaint. Additionally, the demand notice was issued only to the partners, not the firm, constituting a material defect. Consequently, the complaint against the partners was quashed.

M/S T.G. BUILDWELL PVT. LTD.AND ORS. & ORS. VS M/S AGARWAL AGENCIES PVT. LTD [CRL.M.C.-7043/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint filed by M/s Agarwal Agencies Pvt. Ltd. against M/s T.G. Buildwell Pvt. Ltd. was quashed, as the dispute was determined to be civil and not an offence of cheating under Section 420 IPC. The absence of any dishonest intention at the inception of the agreement was noted, along with the fact that the petitioner company refunded over three times the invested amount. Consequently, the complaint and the summoning order were set aside.

MAHAMAYA INFRABUILD PVT. LTD. VS EARTHCON CONSTRUCTIONS PVT. LTD. [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-142/2018]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The consent award between the parties did not impose an automatic liability on the Judgment Debtor (JD) to pay the sums claimed by the Decree Holder (DH), despite the JD's missed payment deadlines. The award specified that non-payment would only lead to the revival of abandoned arbitral proceedings. Consequently, the consent award was not enforced, and the DH's execution petition was dismissed, affirming the JD's interpretation that there was no automatic monetary liability from the consent award.

MAHESH VS THE STATE, NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-920/2001]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant's conviction under Section 363 of the Indian Penal Code for kidnapping was upheld, with the sentence modified to the period already served. The victim's, her parents', and sister's testimonies were deemed credible in proving the kidnapping, despite delays in identifying the appellant. The appellant was acquitted of the rape charge under Section 376 IPC, which was not contested by the state.

MANEESH TRIVEDI VS PALLAVI TRIVEDI [CRL.REV.P.-239/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal revision petition by Maneesh Trivedi challenging the family court's grant of Rs. 40,000 monthly maintenance for his minor son was dismissed. The family court's decision adhered to established legal principles, and Maneesh Trivedi did not cross-examine the respondent or provide evidence, leaving her testimony unchallenged. Maintenance proceedings under Section 125 Cr.P.C. are summary in nature, allowing allegations of cruelty to be assessed without requiring proof beyond doubt. The denial of maintenance to the respondent wife was not contested, leading to the dismissal of the petition and the disposal of pending applications as unnecessary.

MANOJ KUMAR VS STATE [CRL.A.-248/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant's conviction for offenses under Sections 451, 393, and 398 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld. Discrepancies in prosecution witness testimonies were deemed minor and not detrimental to their credibility. The appellant's request for release on probation was granted under the Probation of Offenders Act, allowing for probation despite a minimum sentence requirement, contingent on entering a bond with two sureties to maintain peace and good behavior for the remainder of the sentence. Failure to comply may result in serving the sentence.

MEGHA JAIN VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-7985/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Megha Jain was not liable under Section 25 of the Arms Act for a live cartridge found in her mother-in-law's baggage at the airport. The requirement for an offense under the Arms Act includes intention, consciousness, or knowledge of possession. Previous decisions established that "unconscious possession" does not constitute an offense. Based on the circumstances, Megha Jain's possession did not amount to "conscious possession," leading to the conclusion that continuing criminal proceedings against her would be an abuse of process. The FIR and subsequent proceedings were quashed.

MICROMAX INFORMATICS LIMITED VS M/S WAVE MOBILES [CRL.L.P.-67/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's application for leave to appeal against the respondent's acquittal was dismissed. The respondent successfully rebutted the presumption under Section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act by demonstrating that the cheque was given as security, not to discharge a debt. The trial court's finding of a probable defense raised doubt about a legally enforceable debt, deemed possible and plausible. A decision of acquittal reinforces the presumption of innocence, supporting the trial court's view.

MOHAMMAD HANEEF MOHAMMAD ISHAQUE VS STATE OF NCT DELHI THROUGH ACP SOUTH EAST [BAIL APPLN.-2385/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Mohammad Haneef Mohammad Ishaque was granted regular bail after his name appeared in the case 22 days post-FIR registration, with initial police statements not implicating him. To prove an offence under Section 153-A IPC, intent to promote enmity or hatred must be established based on a reasonable person's standards. Concerns were raised regarding the service of a proclamation declaring him a Proclaimed Offender. Taking into account the circumstances, including the bail status of co-accused, bail was granted subject to conditions.

MOHD NASIR AND ORS. VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-112/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellants were convicted under Sections 308, 326, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code based on the convincing testimonies of injured witnesses, supported by medical evidence and surrounding circumstances indicating deliberation and aggravation. The non-recovery of the weapon used did not undermine the prosecution's case, as such recovery is not essential for conviction. The appeal was dismissed, and the conviction and sentence were upheld.

MR PALLAV SINGHAL VS BANSAL TRADING COMPANY THROUGH PARTNER, MR DK AGGARWAL [CRL.M.C.-576/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The offense under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 is complete when three specified conditions are met. The petitioner paid the full amount of the dishonored cheque (Rs. 25,000) within 15 days of receiving the legal notice, satisfying the third condition. The respondent's claim that the payment was for another liability was not upheld. Payment of the dishonored cheque extinguished the liability, leading to the quashing of the complaint case against the petitioner and the setting aside of the summoning order.

MR PRATHAM AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-7230/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition to quash a criminal complaint and maintenance case was dismissed. The appellants' reliance on a private handwritten "divorce deed" did not provide sufficient grounds for interference. The authenticity and genuineness of the documents can be tested in the concerned court. The material presented did not establish an irrefutable conclusion of innocence.

MR. RAM KISHOR ARORA VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8579/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition for default bail under Section 167(2) of the Cr.P.C. was dismissed because the complaint against the petitioner was filed within the 60-day period. The right to default bail ceases once a complaint is filed, regardless of ongoing investigations. An incomplete investigation or pending FSL report does not grant entitlement to default bail.

MRS SANTOSH RANI DHARIWAL VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6017/2023]
Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri
A petition to set aside a summoning order related to a dishonored cheque under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was examined. The petitioner, a guarantor for her husband's loan, issued a cheque to cover any debt arising from that agreement. "Other liability" in Section 138 includes guarantor liabilities, allowing for a broad interpretation of the cheque's issuance. The presence of a legal notice and the cheque's dishonor met the necessary conditions for proceeding. Arguments regarding the necessity of the husband being a party to the proceedings were unpersuasive. The petition was dismissed, affirming the legality of actions against the petitioner.

MS. MAMTA TUSHAR CHAUDHARY VS STATE OF DELHI (GOVT. OF NCT) [CRL.M.C.-272/2023]
Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri
The petitioner was not held liable under Section 25 of the Arms Act for ammunition found in her baggage, as she plausibly explained that it belonged to her deceased father-in-law and she was unaware of its presence. Possession under the Arms Act requires a mental state of intention, consciousness, or knowledge, meaning mere physical custody without such mental state does not constitute an offense. The FIR and proceedings against the petitioner were quashed.

MURLI MANOHAR VS PRIYANKA PANCHARIYA & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-304/2023]
Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri
The Family Court's order required Murli Manohar to pay Priyanka Panchariya an interim maintenance of Rs. 10,000 per month. The assessment of his monthly income, based on income tax returns indicating a gross income of approximately Rs. 1.95 to 3.07 lakhs, was deemed reasonable. Separate petitions were filed by both parties regarding the interim maintenance, and a common order was issued without dissenting opinions.

NARESH ARYA VS SAVITRI KUKREJA [CRL.M.C.-8435/2023]
Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri
Naresh Arya's petition challenging the order to pay interim compensation of 15% of the cheque amount to Savitri Kukreja under Section 143A of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Arya admitted to issuing the dishonored cheques and executing the sale deed, while Kukreja established a prima facie case in her favor. The decision to direct interim compensation was deemed appropriate.

NEELAM INDIA PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER POLICE STATION LAHORI GATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2853/2013]
Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri
The petitioners' plea to quash the FIR and criminal proceedings has been dismissed. Multiple witness statements indicate a case against the petitioners for allegedly hiding bags of husk behind pledged Guargum seeds to defraud a bank. The analysis of evidence cannot be conducted at this stage, and the credibility of the allegations will be assessed at trial. Grounds raised by the petitioners, such as lack of privity of contract and incomplete investigation, will be considered during the trial. The FIR and criminal proceedings will continue, as they are not deemed frivolous or malicious.

NEETA GUPTA VS SUMAN ANAND [CRL.M.C.-2067/2023]
Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri
The criminal complaint against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed because the cheque was signed only by her late husband, despite the account being jointly held. It was established that a joint account-holder cannot be prosecuted unless all account-holders sign the cheque.

NIKHAT PARVEEN@KHUSBOO KHATUN VS RAFIQUE@SILLU [CRL.M.C.-2987/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition by Nikhat Parveen @ Khusboo Khatun challenging the trial court's decision to allow Rafique @ Sillu to submit previously unexhibited documents was dismissed. The provisions of Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure permit the introduction of additional evidence independently of the finality of judgments under Section 362. The trial court's action did not constitute a review of its earlier decision, as cross-examination had not yet begun. No grounds existed to interfere with the trial court's order or the appellate court's dismissal of the petitioner's appeal.

NIPUN PADHA VS S S TECHNO MARKETING PVT. LTD. [CRL.M.C.-4187/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint against Nipun Padha under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed. The mere mention of Padha as a director did not establish liability, as only directors responsible for daily affairs can be held accountable. The company, M/s Basic Comtech Private Limited, was not included as an accused party, which is mandatory. Additionally, required conditions for a complaint under Section 138, such as timely presentation of the cheque, issuance of a demand notice, and failure to pay within 15 days, were not satisfied. Since Padha was not a director at the time of the cheque issuance and the legal prerequisites for the complaint were unmet, the complaint was dismissed.

NIRMALJEET KAUR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4837/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's plea to quash the FIR under Section 21 of the POCSO Act was dismissed due to her failure to report an incident of sexual harassment immediately. Filing the complaint only after being directed by school authorities was seen as a violation of the mandatory reporting requirement. This delay undermines the POCSO Act's objective of protecting children from sexual offenses. The petitioner's reliance on a previous judgment concerning delayed reporting was rejected as the current situation involved non-compliance.

OMBIR VS AYUSH GOEL [CRL.L.P.-27/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition seeking leave to appeal against the acquittal of the respondent in a cheque dishonor case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Acquittal enhances the presumption of innocence, and reversal is warranted only if the trial court's conclusions are found to be manifestly unjust or unreasonable. The evidence and reasoning presented by the trial court were reviewed, revealing no errors or perversity in its judgment. The petitioner did not establish a case for appeal.

P VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-13/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The trial court acquitted the accused of charges under Sections 354/323 IPC and Sections 8/21 POCSO Act for alleged sexual assault on a minor. The decision was based on discrepancies in the prosecution's case, including delayed reporting of the incident and absence of medical evidence. The appellate review indicated no grounds for interfering with the acquittal.

PANKAJ GOEL VS STATE OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2399/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The continuation of the criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the director is not maintainable because the company, from which the dishonored cheques were issued, was not included as an accused, and no demand notice was sent to the company. The liability of a director is vicarious under Section 141 of the NI Act, necessitating the company's inclusion for liability to apply. Therefore, the criminal complaint and summoning order against the director are quashed.

PANKAJ KUMAR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-3269/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Pankaj Kumar Tiwari and Pankaj Kumar were granted bail in a money laundering case linked to Bhushan Steel Limited. Serious allegations existed, but the lengthy delay in starting the trial and their extended custody warranted their release. The constitutional right to liberty and a speedy trial was deemed more important than statutory restrictions under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act since the trial delay was not their fault. Bail was granted with specific conditions, noting that the main accused and other co-accused had already been released on bail.

PANKAJ RAHEJA VS KIARA (MINOR) THROUGH HER MOTHER NATURAL GUARDIAN SMT NITIKA KATHURIA [CRL.REV.P.-240/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition by Pankaj Raheja to set aside a Family Court order for interim maintenance of Rs. 35,000 per month for his minor child, Kiara, was dismissed. The analysis revealed Raheja's monthly income of approximately Rs. 1.5 lakhs, granting one-third of this amount for Kiara's maintenance needs, including medical treatment for autism.

PAWAN GUPTA VS SANJEEV MAHAJAN AND ANR. [CRL.L.P.-576/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The leave petition challenging the acquittal of Sanjeev Mahajan for offences under Sections 323, 406, and 506 Part II of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The trial court's findings were deemed reasonable, and the petitioner was unable to establish his case beyond reasonable doubt. There were no grounds to grant leave to appeal the trial court's order, reinforcing the presumption of innocence for the respondent.

PAWAN KANT VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE [CRL.M.C.-7919/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint against Pawan Kant Munjal is not tenable as prior adjudication established he was not the 'beneficial owner' of the seized foreign currency. The CESTAT order exonerating him was based on merits, upheld by higher courts. Continuing the criminal complaint, based on the same established facts in Munjal's favor, would constitute an abuse of process, leading to the quashing of the complaint and the summoning order.

PAWAN SINGHAL VS STEEL INDIA CORPORATION & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-738/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint against Pawan Singhal under Section 138 read with Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed. Singhal had resigned as a non-executive additional director seven months before the alleged dishonor of cheques. The complaint lacked specific allegations regarding his responsibility for the company's business at the time of the offense, which would make its continuation an abuse of process.

PRANKUR MISHRA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The order framing charges against the petitioner under Section 308 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld. The petitioner's arguments, including lack of mention in the FIR, the nature of injuries being simple, and non-seizure of weapons, were rejected. The intention and knowledge of the accused were deemed relevant factors. The limited scope for interference at the charge-framing stage was noted, with no grounds found for interference with the trial court's order. The petition was dismissed.

PRIYANKA GUPTA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4408/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition by Priyanka Gupta was dismissed as the Magistrate appropriately exercised discretion in rejecting her application for police investigation under Section 156(3) CrPC, given that she already possessed the necessary documents. The Magistrate opted to proceed under Section 200 CrPC instead of directing an FIR registration. Orders were issued after thorough consideration of the facts, with no evidence of infirmity or material that could only be obtained through a police investigation presented by the petitioner.

RAHUL VIJAYVARGIA VS THE STATE OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2654/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed. The petitioner, an Additional Independent Non-Executive Director of the accused company, could not be held vicariously liable for the dishonor of cheques due to a lack of specific allegations about his involvement in the company's operations at that time. The petitioner had resigned from the board before the cheques were dishonored, making the continuation of the complaint an abuse of the process of law.

RAJ KUMAR VS STATE [CRL.A.-191/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The conviction of the appellant under Sections 304B and 498A IPC was set aside due to insufficient evidence. The prosecution failed to prove the alleged incidents of the appellant hitting the deceased with an iron press and demanding Rs. 10,000. Material contradictions and inconsistencies in the testimonies of the deceased's brothers, along with hearsay knowledge of the first incident, undermined the case. The prosecution did not establish the necessary elements of the charged offences.

RAJA RAM VS SH PAWAN KUMAR VERMA [CRL.M.C.-1189/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's application under Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code was allowed for the admission of documents, including an interrogation report and bank statements. These documents were considered relevant to the case, and their inclusion would not harm the trial. The focus was on uncovering the truth and ensuring a just outcome, allowing the petitioner to present additional evidence.

RAJAN DUTTA VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS HAZRAT NIZAMUDDIN & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4181/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition to quash an FIR under Sections 354, 509, and 506 IPC, later supplemented by Sections 323 and 452 IPC, was dismissed. The initial complaint, the complainant's statement under Section 164 CrPC, and corroborative medical evidence supported the allegations of assault and outraging modesty. A prima facie case was established, and arguments regarding the absurdity of the allegations and claims of malafide intent were rejected. Observations made do not influence the trial.

RAJEEV @ SONU & ANR. VS STATE OF DELHI [CRL.A.-759/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant was convicted under Section 397 IPC for robbery with an attempt to cause grievous hurt and received a 7-year sentence. Arguments regarding the reliability of the complainant's identification and the non-recovery of the weapon were rejected. The complainant's testimony was deemed reliable, supported by the recovery of stolen items. Precedents confirmed that weapon recovery is not essential for proving an offense under Section 397 IPC. The appeal was dismissed, and the appellant's bail bonds were cancelled.

RAJESH JAIN VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-140/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The revision petition filed by Rajesh Jain was dismissed regarding the order that allowed the complainant's application under Section 148 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, requiring the petitioner to pay 20% of the fine/compensation. The amended Section 148 allows for a discretionary deposit condition, which can be waived if deemed unjust. However, Rajesh Jain did not demonstrate an exceptional case for the waiver of the deposit condition.

RAKESH SABHARWAL AND ANR. VS STATE AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2333/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The findings noted prima facie evidence of forgery in a will dated 22.02.2010, as the signatures differed from the deceased's admitted signatures and a witness claimed to be out of the country on the execution date. No grounds were found to challenge the decision allowing an investigation into the alleged forgery.

SUBHASH CHAND VS C.B.I. [CRL.A.-796/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appeals of Ram Dutt Tyagi and Subhash Chand were allowed, and their conviction under Sections 120B IPC and the Prevention of Corruption Act was set aside. The prosecution did not prove the demand for a bribe beyond reasonable doubt, a key fact in the case. The evidence presented included contradictions in the complainant's testimony and the absence of crucial witnesses. As a result, the case against the appellants was not established beyond reasonable doubt, leading to their acquittal.

RAM SINGH VS STATE [CRL.A.-653/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The conviction of the appellant under Sections 120B IPC and the Prevention of Corruption Act was set aside due to a lack of conclusive evidence showing the appellant demanded or accepted illegal gratification. Testimonies did not indicate any specific demands or acceptance of bribes by the appellant, and the act of a co-accused passing bribe money was insufficient to establish an offense. The appeal was allowed, resulting in the discharge of the appellant's bail bonds.

RASHMI GOYAL VS M/S MAHALAXMI FABRICS [CRL.M.C.-2129/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner, appointed as a company secretary in the accused company, cannot be held vicariously liable under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for the company's offenses. The necessary averments for implicating the petitioner under Section 141(1) or 141(2) were absent in the criminal complaints, leading to the quashing of the complaints filed against the petitioner under Section 138 read with Section 141 of the Act.

RINKU SAINI VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-550/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Rinku Saini's conviction under Sections 307/34 of the IPC for attempt to murder was set aside due to lack of evidence for a common intention to cause grievous hurt. The conviction was modified to Section 323 IPC for voluntarily causing hurt, with a sentence of 6 months and 7 days already served. Although Saini was at the scene and held the victim during the assault, there was no evidence of prior knowledge or intention regarding the co-accused's use of a knife, nor any exhortation to the co-accused during the attack.

RUBY GAUTAM & ORS. VS DR SHIV RAM SINGH & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6318/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The interim maintenance of Rs. 30,000 per month for two minor daughters in a domestic violence case was upheld. The combined net income of the respondent and petitioner mother justified this amount. While income figures were disputed, considerations from income tax records and salary slips supported the maintenance decision. Any contrary evidence presented during the trial may lead to adjustments in the maintenance amount.

SADHU CHARAN DATTA VS THE DELHI SAFE DEPOSIT CO LTD [CRL.M.C.-4643/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition filed by Sadhu Charan Datta was allowed, and the criminal complaint against him under Section 138 read with Sections 141 and 142 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed. The complaint lacked sufficient allegations to establish vicarious liability, as mere directorship does not imply responsibility for the daily affairs of the company. Evidence showed that Datta had resigned as a director before the relevant events, and continuing the proceedings against him would constitute an abuse of the process of law.

SAMARTH SHARMA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7536/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition seeking to quash the summoning order in a complaint case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The issue of whether the cheque was issued as security or to discharge a debt is a disputed question of fact that requires evidence during trial. The petitioner failed to present substantial evidence to demonstrate that the offence under Section 138 is not established.

SANJAY BABU RINKU VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7363/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Serious offences like rape cannot be quashed solely based on a settlement between parties, but quashing is possible in appropriate cases. In this matter, the marriage between the parties after the FIR and the complainant's no-objection led to the decision to quash the FIR under Section 376(2)(n)/354/323/506 IPC. The resolution highlights that decisions depend on the specific facts of each case.

SANJAY KUMAR GAUR & ANR. VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2191/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The application under Section 156(3) of the Criminal Procedure Code was dismissed because the dispute was deemed civil in nature, and the petitioners had access to necessary evidence. It was established that the power under Section 156(3) should be used judiciously, particularly when allegations are not serious and evidence is available to the complainant. No issues were identified with the lower court's order.

SATISH KUMAR VS STATE [CRL.A.-290/2009]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Satish Kumar was convicted of house-trespass, rape, and criminal intimidation. The credibility of the prosecutrix's testimony was affirmed despite minor inconsistencies, establishing that corroboration is not always necessary in sexual offence cases. Initially sentenced to rigorous imprisonment, his sentence was modified to the time already served, taking into account the passage of time, his young age during the incident, and satisfactory jail conduct. The sentence was reduced below the minimum prescribed due to "adequate and special reasons" under Section 376 IPC.

SAURABH KASHYAP VS SUNIL GOSWAMI [CRL.M.C.-153/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint under Sections 138 and 142 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed due to its defectiveness, as the company that issued the dishonored cheque was not named as an accused. It was noted that when a cheque is issued by a company, the company must be included in the proceedings, and only the authorized signatory can be held vicariously liable. The failure to include the company rendered the complaint fatally defective, leading to its quashing and the cancellation of the summoning order against the petitioner.

SHAHID VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-336/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Shahid was convicted for theft under Sections 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code for pick-pocketing a mobile phone from the complainant. The conviction was upheld, but the sentence was modified to the time already served, approximately 3 months and 11 days, with a requirement to pay a fine of Rs. 7,000 before the trial court.

SHRI BHAGWAN YADAV VS ADARSH KHANDELWAL [CRL.L.P.-392/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The judgment of acquittal in a case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld due to the complainant's failure to substantiate a loan transaction of R.S. 41 lakhs and to demonstrate financial capacity to provide such a loan. The case was deemed improbable, and the accused successfully rebutted the presumption under Section 139 of the Act. The appellate court's decision presented a plausible view, leading to the refusal to grant leave to appeal.

SHRI CHANDRAJIT SAHA VS SHRI VIJAY KHANNA [CRL.M.C.-3541/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

A complaint case against the petitioner under Sections 138/142 read with Section 117 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is not maintainable. A part-payment of Rs. 7,50,000 made after the cheque was drawn but before its encashment was not endorsed on the cheque for the full amount of Rs. 22,40,000. This lack of endorsement means the cheque did not represent a legally enforceable debt at the time of presentation, preventing the offense under Section 138 from being applicable. The complaint case and summoning order against the petitioner were quashed.

SHYAM SUNDER VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-542/2011]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appellant, initially convicted under Sections 186, 353, and 307 of the Indian Penal Code, lacked the necessary intent for a conviction under Section 307. The actions were more appropriately classified under Section 308 for culpable homicide not amounting to murder. The conviction was modified to Sections 186, 353, and 308 IPC, and the sentence was reduced to the period already served.

SIVANKUTTY & ORS. VS P. K PATRA [CRL.M.C.-1319/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The period of limitation for taking cognizance of an offence is calculated based on the offences alleged in the complaint, not the offences for which the accused are ultimately summoned. A diligent complainant should not be penalized for delays caused by the court. Since the complaint alleged an offence under Section 452 IPC, punishable with up to 7 years' imprisonment and with no limitation period prescribed, the complaint was considered not time-barred.

SMT MAYA TYAGI VS MR. SIMMER SAHNI [CRL.M.C.-169/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The criminal complaint against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed on the grounds that the necessary statutory notice was not issued and the dishonored cheques were signed solely by the co-accused, not the petitioner. Since the petitioner was not a signatory to the cheques, prosecution under Section 138 was not applicable, even with joint liability for the debt.

SMT. SANTOSH DEVI VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-317/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Smt. Santosh Devi's petition to club two complaint cases (Nos. 9213/2019 and 9214/2019) was allowed. The earlier complaints against Jitendra Bhati had been quashed. The analysis of Sections 219 and 220 of the CrPC, along with the "same transaction" concept, indicated that the complaints, concerning three cheques issued within two months for a common liability, warranted consolidation to save judicial time and facilitate effective arguments.

STATE NCT OF DELHI VS PARGUN & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-344/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The revision petition by the State regarding the lower court's refusal to take cognizance of a chargesheet was dismissed. The offense under Section 188 IPC has a maximum punishment of 6 months imprisonment, and the limitation period for taking cognizance is 1 year. The chargesheet was filed approximately 1 year and 6 months after the offense, exceeding the limitation period, which led to the upholding of the lower court's order.

STATE VS RAMESH @ BENGALI [CRL.A.-870/2011]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The acquittal of Ramesh @ Bengali on charges of attempted robbery under Sections 393/398 IPC was upheld due to a weak prosecution case. Key elements, such as the movement of the subject property, were not proven. Witness testimony and lack of material recoveries failed to establish his involvement. The respondent's refusal to participate in the Test Identification Parade was deemed justified since the complainant had previously seen him at the police station. The appeal against the acquittal was dismissed, reinforcing the presumption of innocence.

SUGANDHA SHARMA DIRECTOR OF M S AL SAPPHIRE VS M S SHIV SHAKTI FLOAT GLASSES PVT LTD THROUGH ITS AR SHYAM SAXENA [CRL.M.C.-2169/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The summoning order against Sugandha Sharma, accused in a Section 138 complaint under the Negotiable Instruments Act, was quashed due to the lack of necessary allegations for vicarious liability. The complaint did not establish that she was in charge of the company's day-to-day affairs or responsible for its conduct, as required. Additionally, the cheques were not signed by her, leading to the conclusion that her mere status as a Director did not suffice for liability.

SUMAN ARORA VS B C GUPTA HUF [CRL.M.C.-2034/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition by director Suman Arora to quash a complaint under Section 138 read with Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The complaint adequately alleged that she was in charge of and responsible for the company's business at the relevant time, meeting the criteria for vicarious liability. To succeed in quashing the complaint, she needed to present strong evidence proving her lack of involvement in the cheque's issuance.

SUNDER SINGH BISHT VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-9628/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petitioner's application for re-examination of the child victim after a 5-year delay was dismissed due to the trial nearing completion. The victim had already been examined and cross-examined twice, and the belated application was deemed an abuse of the process of law, undermining the intent of the POCSO Act. Allowing such applications in a mechanical manner, especially in POCSO cases, is discouraged.

SUNIL JOSHI VS MANISH SINGH [CRL.L.P.-207/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition filed by Sunil Joshi challenging the acquittal of Manish Singh under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The trial court's conclusions were deemed reasonable, with the accused successfully rebutting the presumption. Key issues included the repayment of the loan, the agreed time period, and the interest rate, with contradictions noted in the petitioner's case. There was reluctance to interfere with the acquittal order due to the sound reasoning of the trial court's decision.

SUNIL KUMAR GANDHI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3443/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The FIR and subsequent proceedings against Sunil Kumar Gandhi, charged under Sections 109 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code, were quashed. Gandhi, engaged by the bank as a panel lawyer, informed the bank of conditions before granting a loan and relied on records from the Sub-Registrar's office. No evidence indicated intent to mislead or conspire, and the bank withdrew its complaint after recovering dues from the borrower, showing a lack of interest in continuing the case.

SURENDER KUMAR VS URMILA [CRL.L.P.-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The judgment of acquittal in a Section 138 case under the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. The respondent admitted to signing the dishonored cheques but successfully rebutted the presumption by proving the cheques were given to a third party named Ramesh. The complainant could not support his claim of lending Rs. 9 lakh to the respondent, and his financial capacity was also deemed questionable. The trial court's interpretation was considered plausible, with no grounds for appeal.

SUSHILA @ MAYA DEVI & ANR. VS STATE N.C.T. OF DELHI [CRL.A.-627/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Sushila @ Maya Devi and another had their conviction under Sections 304B (dowry death) and 498A (cruelty) of the Indian Penal Code overturned. The evidence regarding demands for a color TV, fridge, and cash payments was not proven beyond reasonable doubt. Witness testimonies showed significant inconsistencies and improvements from earlier statements. Additionally, the deceased's complaint prior to her death contained only general allegations without specific demands. As a result, the convictions were set aside.

TARUN KUMAR PURI VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3035/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Tarun Kumar Puri cannot be summoned as an accused in a complaint under the Negotiable Instruments Act because he resigned as Director of the accused company before the cheques were issued. The allegations do not meet the requirements for vicarious liability, as mere association with the company is insufficient to implicate him. The complaint failed to show that he continued to act with consent and connivance after his resignation. The impugned orders summoning him as an accused are set aside.

TEK CHAND VS STATE N.C.T. OF DELHI [CRL.A.-208/2002]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The appeal of Tek Chand was allowed, and his conviction under Section 398 of the Indian Penal Code was set aside. Evidence did not clearly identify him or establish that he carried a dangerous weapon, which is necessary for the offense. Recovery of stolen goods occurred at the co-accused Prakash's house, not at Tek Chand's. Constructive liability under Section 34 of the IPC was deemed insufficient for this case, leading to the cancellation of Tek Chand's bail bonds.

TUSHAR SHARMA VS GRAPHIC ADVERTISING [CRL.M.C.-1705/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The summoning order and complaint against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were quashed. The petitioner was not a partner or authorized signatory of the accused firm, as indicated by the firm's registration certificate. Without evidence linking the petitioner to the allegations under Sections 138 and 141, requiring the petitioner to stand trial based solely on unsubstantiated claims would constitute an abuse of legal process. The principles established in related case law were applied, supporting the quashing of proceedings when it can be demonstrated that the individual had no involvement with the cheque issuance.

TUSHAR SHARMA VS SHELLZ TECHNO PACK PVT LTD [CRL.M.C.-1716/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition filed under Section 482 CrPC resulted in the quashing of the summoning order and complaint against Tushar Sharma under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The petitioner was not a partner or authorized signatory of the accused company, and the claim of being a "deemed owner" lacked supporting evidence. The absence of credible evidence linking the petitioner to the alleged offense indicated that requiring him to stand trial based on unsupported assertions would constitute an abuse of legal process.

VEENA MALHOTRA VS GURMINDER SINGH [CRL.M.C.-4253/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition by Veena Malhotra to quash the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The fact that another individual filled out the cheque details does not exempt her from liability. The conditions for establishing an offense under Section 138 were satisfied. Arguments that she was merely a guarantor and that the proceedings were an abuse of process were rejected. The complaint case against her will proceed.

VIMAL KUMAR VS THE STATE & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2901/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The externment order against the petitioner under Sections 47/50 of the Delhi Police Act, 1978 was upheld, indicating that the "habituality" requirement does not apply to orders under Section 47(a). Sufficient grounds were established for the externment based on the petitioner's extensive criminal history, including 21 prior cases and recent recoveries of illicit liquor. Despite a prior externment order and warnings, continued criminal involvement demonstrated a risk of causing harm to the community.

VINOD BANSAL VS M/S INTEC CAPITAL LTD. [CRL.M.C.-1013/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition by Vinod Bansal under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure resulted in the quashing of a complaint by M/s Intec Capital Ltd. under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The initial complaint for cheque dishonor was subsumed by a Deed of Settlement between the parties, and a new cause of action would only arise from dishonored cheques issued after the settlement. The respondent cannot pursue the initial complaint alongside the settlement agreement.

VIRENDER GIRI VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-518/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The petition under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. was dismissed, upholding lower court orders rejecting the application for FIR registration. Conflicting allegations arose between the petitioner, who claimed to have been manhandled, and the police officer, who stated the petitioner caused a disturbance for driving without a helmet. The petitioner sustained minor injuries, and all relevant evidence was already in his possession. It was concluded that no further police investigation was necessary, and the situation could be addressed through complaint proceedings before the Magistrate.

VISHAVJEET SINGH SANDHU VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1403/2024]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959 was quashed due to a lack of "conscious possession" of the live cartridges found in his baggage. The petitioner inadvertently included the cartridges, which belonged to his father with a valid arms license, and had no knowledge or intention to possess them. Continuation of the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of law.

X VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-51/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Final compensation of Rs. 10,000 awarded under Section 33(8) of the POCSO Act was deemed inadequate due to the severe mental trauma and aggravated sexual assault suffered by the petitioner. Factors from the POCSO Rules, 2020 and the Delhi Victim Compensation Scheme, 2018 were considered, leading to an enhancement of the compensation to Rs. 10.5 lakhs, with a directive for the DSLSA to disburse Rs. 9.65 lakhs to the petitioner within 4 weeks.

YAJUR COMMODITIES LTD. VS SURESH ASRANI [CS(COMM)-164/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The review petition by the defendant was dismissed. The prior decision to deny the defendant's application to dismiss the suit as time-barred was upheld, citing adherence to established precedent while noting that other High Court judgments do not serve as binding authority. The previous ruling to grant the plaintiff's application under Section 14 of the Limitation Act was confirmed, with clarification that no material was overlooked and the observations were based on the evidence presented. The argument regarding the exclusive jurisdiction clause was acknowledged as debatable, but it was stated that Section 14 does not necessitate determining the correct jurisdiction. The review was affirmed as not being a substitute for appeal.

YUSUF VS STATE GOVT. OF N.C.T. OF DELHI [CRL.A.-982/2001]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

The conviction of the appellant for robbery causing hurt and common intention was set aside due to insufficient evidence. The injured complainant and an independent witness did not identify the appellant, there was a lack of medical evidence to substantiate the claim of injury, and contradictions existed in the testimonies regarding the recovery of the weapon. The appellant was acquitted.

YASHOVARDHAN BIRLA VS KAMDHENU ENTERPRISES LIMITED AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3780/2023]

Judges: Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri

Yashovardhan Birla's petitions were allowed, leading to the quashing of criminal complaints under Section 138 and Sections 141/142 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The designation as a director or chairman does not imply vicarious liability without specific involvement in the company's affairs. The complaints did not provide sufficient details regarding Birla's role, and other co-directors were removed from the accusations. Continuing the proceedings against him was deemed an abuse of the court process. This decision addressed three separate criminal complaints in one judgment.

ABBOTT GMBH & ANR. VS MANKIND PHARMA LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-606/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The pink and white trade dress used by Mankind Pharma for its "THYRONEED" product infringes Abbott GMBH's trademark and trade dress rights over "THYRONORM." Mankind Pharma is prohibited from releasing new stock with the infringing trade dress and must alter the existing stock of 24,777 bottles by changing the cap to blue. The suit resulted in a permanent injunction and delivery up in favor of the plaintiffs.

ABBOTT PRODUCTS OPERATIONS AG & ANR. VS ATLANTIS FORMULATIONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-544/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiff's trademarks "DUPHALAC" and "DUPHASTON" were infringed by the defendants' use of "DUPHATIS" and "DUPHATIC". An ex parte interim injunction was granted to restrain the defendants from using the disputed marks. The parties later settled out of court, with the defendants agreeing to withdraw their trademark applications for "DUPHATIS" and "DUPHATIC". The suit was decreed in favor of the plaintiff based on the settlement, and for the non-appearing defendant, the suit was also decreed in favor of the plaintiff.

ADITYA MALHOTRA & ANR. VS CANARA BANK & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1518/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The declaration by Canara Bank that the accounts of petitioners Aditya Malhotra and another were classified as "fraud" was set aside due to the bank's failure to provide an opportunity for the petitioners to be heard. The principle of natural justice, specifically the right to be heard, was violated in this classification. The declaration was quashed, allowing the bank to initiate new proceedings against the petitioners while ensuring they are given the necessary chance to respond.

AJAY SINGAL VS SMALL INDUSTRIES DEVELOPMENT BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-4122/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Petitioners, as guarantors of a loan from a bank, can submit a comprehensive restructuring plan within one week, in line with RBI guidelines. The bank must consider this plan according to banking norms. The company has requested NOCs from the bank to sell mortgaged units for loan repayment, which the bank has denied. Ongoing insolvency proceedings against the company remain intact.

AJIT PAL SINGH & ORS. VS MS. ANKITA CHAKRABORTY & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-141/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents have substantially complied with the previous order regarding the demarcation of land, leading to the cessation of contempt proceedings against them. The ownership dispute over the land is to be resolved in separate proceedings, where the petitioners can assert their claim. The petitioners are permitted to challenge the demarcation process in appropriate forums.

AKTIEBOLAGET VOLVO & ORS. VS JONAS WOODHEAD AND SONS INDIA LIMITED [CS(COMM)-350/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A permanent injunction was granted to Aktiebolaget Volvo & Ors. against Jonas Woodhead and Sons India Limited. As the prior user and registered owner of the 'VOLVO' trademark, the plaintiffs possess substantial common law and statutory rights over the mark. The defendant's unauthorized use of the 'VOLVO' trademark on inferior products resulted in trademark infringement and dilution of the plaintiffs' well-known trademark. The defendant is required to pay R.S. 10,00,000 to the plaintiffs for costs and damages.

AMBIENCE PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS PUNJAB AND SIND BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13438/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Punjab and Sind Bank's withdrawal of the One Time Settlement (OTS) with Ambience Private Limited was deemed arbitrary and unsustainable. The bank had accepted the OTS proposal, granted an extension, and received the full OTS amount along with interest. The claim of misrepresentation regarding the company's financial status was rejected, as the company had transparently communicated its repayment to the lead bank, PNB. Following acceptance and compliance with OTS terms, a public sector bank cannot unilaterally withdraw the agreement without valid reasons. The bank's withdrawal was set aside, and it was directed to release the company's securities.

ANIL DUTT SHARMA VS SHRI SUBHASISH PANDA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-742/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition filed by Anil Dutt Sharma was dismissed due to evidence showing that the respondents, especially the Special Task Force (STF), actively addressed unauthorized constructions based on the petitioner's complaints. Reports indicated no willful disobedience of prior orders. The petitioner was advised to contact the STF regarding any specific grievances.

ANJU JAI MISRA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANOTHER [W.P.(C)-5107/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Delhi Development Authority rejected Anju Jai Misra's application for membership in the Qutab Golf Course under the government category due to her failure to provide a required certificate confirming her pay and allowances from the Consolidated Fund of India/State. The DDA followed proper procedures and gave multiple opportunities for submission of the document, leading to a justified rejection of the application without any procedural impropriety or legal errors.

ANUPAM TRIVEDI VS RAM SINGH RATHWA AND ANOTHER [CONT.CAS(C)-1852/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition is not maintainable as it cannot extend beyond the original writ petition order. The order did not include specific directions but acknowledged the petitioner's statement regarding a decision made by the TRIFED Chairman. Objections were raised about the Chairman's authority to issue the letter. Additional directions cannot be provided in contempt proceedings, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

APRESH GARG & ANR. VS INDIAN BANK [W.P.(C)-7825/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Show Cause Notice issued by Indian Bank declaring the petitioners as "Willful Defaulters" for the loan account of M/s Agson Global Pvt. Ltd. was deemed premature. Principles of natural justice require the bank to provide all documents supporting the SCN to the petitioners for an effective reply. The bank must supply these documents within two weeks. The petitioners can then file their reply and request a personal hearing. If the outcome is unfavorable, they can appeal to the Review Committee, with the decision being stayed for two weeks to allow for legal remedies.

ARTI SHARMA VS CL BHALLA DAYANAND MODEL SCHOOL, & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-203/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents delayed in deciding the petitioners' representations but have since issued detailed speaking orders, complying with a prior directive. The correctness of their decision cannot be challenged in contempt proceedings due to this compliance. An unconditional apology for the delay was accepted, leading to the disposal of the petitions.

ARUN KHANNA VS VINOD KHANNA [CONT.CAS(C)-916/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition against the respondent was not entertained due to the presence of disputed questions of fact. The respondent had substantially complied with the settlement agreement by completing the construction and handing over the first and second floors. Issues related to the quality of materials and unauthorized constructions are to be addressed by appropriate authorities, not in contempt proceedings. The contempt petition was disposed of.

ARUN MITTAL & ANR. VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6835/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioners' account was declared 'Fraud' by Punjab National Bank without issuing a show cause notice or providing an opportunity for the petitioners to respond. This process violated principles of natural justice. The declaration was set aside, allowing the bank to take necessary actions in accordance with the law.

ASCON DAIRY PVT LTD THROUGH DIRECTOR MR. DINESH TIWARI VS STATE BANK OF INDIA AND ORS & ORS [W.P.(C)-8496/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondent bank did not provide the petitioner with all relevant documents linked to the show cause notice, impacting the petitioner's ability to respond and violating principles of natural justice. The bank must supply the complete Investigation Report dated 18th January 2024 and the full Stock and Receivables Audit Report within one week. The petitioner has four weeks to reply to the show cause notice upon receiving these documents and is permitted to request a personal hearing.

ASHISH GUPTA & ORS. VS STATE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4340/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The decisions of the respondent banks declaring the account of the respondent company as "Fraud" were set aside due to the violation of natural justice principles, specifically the right to be heard. The banks failed to provide the ex-directors of the company an opportunity for a hearing before classifying the account. The banks may take fresh action after following the proper procedure.

ASSOCIATED BROADCASTING COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8702/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The disconnection of the TV9 Telugu channel by the multi-system operator (MSO) without a 21-day notice violated the channel placement agreement and the TRAI Interconnection Regulations. The MSO must continue uninterrupted transmission of the TV9 Telugu channel as it was prior to June 6, 2024. Other grievances from the petitioner can be addressed by the appropriate forum, the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal (TDSAT).

ASTRAZENECA AB & ANR. VS WESTCOAST PHARMACEUTICAL WORKS LIMITED [CS(COMM)-101/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

AstraZeneca received a summary judgment against Westcoast Pharmaceutical Works Limited for infringing patent IN 297581 related to the drug Osimertinib. The defendant failed to file a written statement despite multiple opportunities and had a history of infringing on intellectual property rights. AstraZeneca was awarded costs of ₹7,00,000/-.

ATUL PUNJ VS IDBI BANK & ANR [W.P.(C)-4643/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The show cause notice issued by IDBI Bank to an ex-director/promoter of Punj Lloyd Limited is deemed flawed due to the bank's failure to provide complete audit reports referenced in the notice. IDBI Bank is required to supply the full Transaction Audit Report, Forensic Audit Report from Choksi and Choksi, and Ernst and Young's Forensic Audit Report within two weeks. It is noted that a majority of a 26-bank consortium has classified the account as "No Fraud," with only a minority yet to decide. The lead bank, SBI, must provide the petitioner with the report from Pipara and Co. LLP that analyzes Ernst and Young's forensic audit. IDBI Bank must reconsider its decision after allowing the petitioner a full opportunity to respond, adhering to natural justice principles.

AVADH KAUSHIK VS ANANT KUMAR & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-329/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Judicial interference with the expert traffic management authorities' decision on the necessity of a slip road at Majnu ka Tila Gurudwara is unwarranted. The Delhi Traffic Police conducted a detailed inspection and deemed the construction of the slip road unnecessary. The petition was disposed of without further orders, as there were no grounds to question the expert authorities' decision.

BABU LAL VS VICHITRA VIRYA AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-781/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition was dismissed due to a lack of merit. The trial court had initially ordered the submission of original investigation documents but later modified this order, indicating that pressing for the production of untraceable documents was inappropriate given the DCP's request for further investigation. The complainant acknowledged that charges could be framed based on existing documents, leading the trial court to proceed with consideration for framing charges. These factors resulted in the dismissal of the contempt petition.

BANSRAJ PAL VS SH MANISH KUMAR GUPTA AND ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-1765/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB) granted the petitioner a hearing and issued a speaking order deeming the petitioner an unauthorized occupant and trespasser. In the absence of any legal rights for the petitioner, DUSIB's actions were not considered contemptuous. The petitioner was permitted to challenge the DUSIB's order within six weeks, with no limitation concerns.

BARINDER KAUR VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4863/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Barinder Kaur's petition resulted in the reduction of her security deposit for traveling abroad from R.S. 1 crore to R.S. 5 lakhs in FDR form, deemed excessive and arbitrary compared to the main accused's deposit. She received permission to travel abroad from July 1 to August 12, 2024, with existing conditions, while the Look Out Circular against her was suspended during this period.

BENTLEY SYSTEMS INC & ANR. VS PUSHPARAJ KANDASWAMY & ANR. [CM(M)-IPD-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The order rejecting a settlement agreement between Bentley Systems Inc. and the respondents was set aside, with the settlement terms deemed lawful. The parties, registered companies represented by counsel, entered the settlement voluntarily without coercion, and the respondents required Bentley software for their business activities. The suit was decreed in favor of Bentley Systems Inc. according to the settlement agreement.

BHAN SINGH VS MITALI GOEL ,SDM(MEHRAULI) & ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-331/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents substantially complied with the order to investigate the missing records, submitting two inquiry reports. The latest report indicated that the records could not be traced despite thorough efforts, and an FIR was lodged regarding the missing items. The petitioner requested a new inspection by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate and was granted the option to pursue this request in separate proceedings and seek appropriate legal remedies.

BHARTI SHARMA VS M.P JAIPURIA & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-234/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents have substantially complied with the orders of the Delhi School Tribunal by reinstating the petitioner and paying her monetary benefits from the date of the Tribunal's judgment. The petitioner did not make a comprehensive representation regarding back wages from her termination date until the Tribunal's judgment, as required. The petitioner has the liberty to address the issue of correct pay fixation in separate proceedings.

BP P.L.C. & ANR. VS SUBHASH CHANDRA, TRADING AS SHIVAY ENTERPRISES [CS(COMM)-587/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A permanent injunction was granted in favor of BP P.L.C. and Castrol Ltd. against Subhash Chandra, trading as Shivay Enterprises, for using marks, packaging, and container designs that are nearly identical to the plaintiffs' registered trademarks and copyrighted designs. The defendant admitted to using the infringing materials and had no real prospect of a successful defense. The plaintiffs were awarded costs and damages of R.S. 5,00,000, to be paid by the defendant within six months, and the destruction of seized infringing goods was ordered.

BRAJESH SINGH VS PROFESSOR TARUN KR DAS & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-835/2017]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The University Grants Commission (UGC) has substantially complied with earlier directives by appointing Ombudspersons under the new 2023 Regulations, which supersede the 2012 Regulations. The introduction of new Regulations renders the previous ones ineffective unless specifically retained. Consequently, the appointment of Ombudspersons in accordance with the 2023 Regulations fulfills the requirements of the previous order, negating the need for any contempt proceedings.

BRISTOL-MYERS SQUIBB HOLDINGS IRELAND & ANR VS KM SWARNALATHA & ORS [CS(COMM)-693/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Bristol-Myers Squibb Holdings Ireland is the patentee of Indian Patent No. IN 203937 for dasatinib and its related compounds. Defendant Nos. 1-3, 5, and 6 did not launch infringing products within the patent term, and the patent's validity was acknowledged. Defendant No. 7, a Bangladeshi company, launched the product "DASA SPL" and failed to appear in the proceedings. Consequently, the suit was decreed in favor of Bristol-Myers Squibb against Defendant No. 7, who was ordered to pay R.S. 5,00,000 to the Delhi High Court Bar Association Employee Welfare Fund.

CALVIN KLEIN TRADEMARK TRUST VS MR. SUNNY SACHDEVA TRADING AS M/S HACHE SHIRTS & ORS. [CS(COMM)-914/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Calvin Klein Trademark Trust holds valid trademarks and copyrights for the Calvin Klein brand, including the CK logo. Defendants Sunny Sachdeva, Hunny Sachdeva, and M/s Denim Culture infringed on these rights by selling counterfeit Calvin Klein shirts and jeans. The defendants did not file a written statement, resulting in a closure of their right to do so. A report from the Local Commissioner confirmed the presence of infringing goods at their premises. A permanent injunction was granted, requiring the delivery of the infringing goods and imposing costs of R.S. 35,000 on the defendants. The matter was part of a larger case, with a settlement reached concerning other defendants.

CASTROL LIMITED VS GAUTAM KUMAR, TRADING AS SHRI BALAJI OIL & CHEMICALS AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-886/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Gautam Kumar and Seema Devi were found guilty of trademark and copyright infringement, passing off, and unfair competition against Castrol Limited. They used marks and packaging similar to Castrol's registered trademarks and trade dress. The defendants were characterized as repeat offenders, continuing their infringement despite a prior court order. They did not file a defense, leading to a decree in favor of Castrol. Costs of R.S. 7,00,000 and damages of R.S. 1,00,000 were awarded, and the defendants were directed to destroy all infringing materials.

CASTROL LIMITED VS MOTOGULF INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-900/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A permanent injunction was granted in favor of Castrol Limited, preventing the defendants from using the marks 'CRISTROL', 'CARTOL', 'CARSOL', 'CARTOMAX', and related device marks of 'COASTAL'. The defendants are permitted to use the 'COASTAL' word mark but must withdraw certain trademark applications and oppositions concerning 'COASTAL' device marks. Defendant no. 4 is required to pay R.S. 3,00,000/- in costs to the plaintiff. The plaintiff agreed to assist in quashing the FIR against defendant no. 2 and is to receive a full refund of court fees.

CHAMAN SINGH AND ORS VS DDA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-6737/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petition for a stay on demolition proceedings by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) in Village Chak Chilla was deemed not maintainable. The DDA had already demarcated the land, with 1272 bigha and 3 biswas being developed as a Biodiversity Park and no encroachment present. The DDA was not taking action on the 506 bigha of private land in the same area. The petition was disposed of without the need for further directions.

CHANPREET SINGH BAMMI VS SUKHMANI KAUR OBEROI [CONT.CAS(C)-1277/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition was dismissed due to lack of merit. The order directing the respondent to file a copy of the minor child's passport had been modified, allowing submission in a sealed cover. The issues of the child's custody and maintenance were pending, making further compliance unnecessary and rendering contempt proceedings unmaintainable.

CHARAT SINGH VS RAJIV KUMAR & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-303/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The land in question, originally part of the Gram Sabha, has been urbanized and transferred to the Delhi Development Authority (DDA). As a result, the respondents, including the Municipal Corporation of Delhi and the Government of NCT of Delhi, lack jurisdiction over the area. Previous orders to remove unauthorized construction or encroachments cannot be enforced. The petitioner may approach the DDA directly to specify areas of concern, and the DDA is required to take appropriate action in accordance with the law.

CHARLES AND KEITH INTERNATIONAL PTE LTD VS AMBUD SHARMA & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-322/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark registration for 'C&K' in Class 09 obtained by Ambud Sharma should be cancelled due to prior long-term use of the 'C&K' trademark by Charles and Keith International Pte Ltd, which includes manufacturing face masks. It was noted that Ambud Sharma is not engaged in the actual manufacturing of goods covered by this registration. The Trademark Registry is directed to rectify the register accordingly.

CHETAN RANA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2573/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petition by Chetan Rana was dismissed due to the acquisition of land (Khasra No. 12/24, Village Shahbad Daulatpur, Delhi) by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), with the government having taken possession. Once acquired, any person retaining possession is deemed a trespasser, allowing the government to remove encroachments without notice. Rana's claims of ownership through various sale deeds were invalid, as the land vests with the government free of encumbrances. The DDA's decision to remove unauthorized construction and encroachments was upheld, as Rana holds no legal rights to the property.

CHIRAG SHARMA VS HIGH COURT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15124/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Rule 4, Chapter VII of the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018, which requires a 120-day timeline for filing written statements in non-commercial matters, is valid and does not violate the Constitution. The Original Side Rules, authorized by Section 129 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Section 7 of the Delhi High Court Act, 1966, have precedence over general CPC provisions due to the non-obstante clause. The argument that Rule 4 is unconstitutional and discriminatory was rejected, as the distinction between High Court and Civil Court procedures is acknowledged in the CPC, allowing the High Court to establish such rules.

D.D. MOTORS (A UNIT OF DIVISION OF DD INDUSTRIES LTD.) & ORS. VS HDFC BANK LIMITED [W.P.(C)-7971/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The declaration of the petitioners' bank account as "Fraud" was deemed illegal and invalid due to failure to follow due process and violation of natural justice principles. The principles of natural justice apply to the RBI's Master Directions on Frauds, regardless of when decisions were made. The bank's orders designating the account as "Red Flagged" and "Fraud" were quashed, and the bank was instructed to notify the Central Fraud Registry to remove the petitioners' name.

DARSHAN SINGH POPLI VS MR GYANESH BHARTI [CONT.CAS(C)-801/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The ongoing civil dispute over property ownership and possession prevents adjudication on the matter. A report from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi indicated that the property has old construction protected under the Delhi Laws (Special Provisions) Second Act, 2011, and necessary actions had been taken as per a prior order. The contempt petition was disposed of with no further orders required.

DEEPAK TOMAR VS RAJIV KUMAR & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-801/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

An order for the removal of unauthorized construction on Gram Sabha land cannot be complied with due to the land's urbanization, which places it under the Delhi Development Authority's jurisdiction. The Delhi Development Authority is tasked with demarcating the land and addressing any unauthorized constructions, potentially collaborating with Revenue Authorities. A four-month timeframe is set for this task to be completed.

DHARAM DEV SHARMA VS VIRENDER SINGH [CONT.CAS(C)-576/2017]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondent made efforts to comply with a previous order but struggled to identify and act against trespassers due to the dense urban environment. The petitioner was directed to assist authorities in locating the specific property for addressing encroachment. There was no evidence of willful disobedience by the respondent, leading to the dismissal of the contempt petition with the given directions.

DINESH CHHABRA VS M/S SHOWMAN CONSTRUCTION & IMPEX PVT LTD & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-971/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

No prima facie case was established to show that the respondents violated earlier orders to maintain status quo regarding the suit property. The respondents asserted that no third-party interests were created and that loans were taken prior to the status quo orders. With no third party claiming any interest, the contempt petition lacked merit and was disposed of.

DINESH SHARMA VS SHRI MAHENDER CHAWLA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-729/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents complied with a previous judgment by convening a Review Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) to reassess the petitioner's case for Principal appointment. The contempt proceedings do not allow for adjudication on the merits of the respondents' decision in the Review DPC. The petitioner retains the right to pursue legal remedies regarding the constitution and outcome of the Review DPC.

DUGONG INTERNATIONAL PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-IPD-9/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Union of India must revoke the suspension of the petitioner's accounts on the Government E-Marketplace (GEM) platform and remove any warnings within 2 weeks. A personal hearing regarding the petitioner's concerns from December 29, 2023, is required, with a reasoned decision to be made within 8 weeks. The account suspensions resulted from technical and clerical errors.

EASTMAN AUTO AND POWER LTD VS MR. AMRITPAL SINGH PROPRIETOR OF AKAI BATTERY HOUSE [CS(COMM)-19/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's use of the mark "EASTPOWER" infringed the plaintiff's registered trademark "EASTMAN" due to visual and structural similarity, indicating deliberate copying. The defendant did not file a written statement despite being served. A decree was issued in favor of the plaintiff, granting a permanent injunction, rendition of accounts, damages, delivery up, and costs, as the defendant's actions necessitated legal action.

EICORE TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS EEXPEDISE TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-1146/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiffs did not provide a reasonable cause for the late submission of documents 1-3, which included emails and company-related documents, as required by the Commercial Courts Act. Timelines and rules under the Act were strictly enforced, leading to the refusal of these late filings. However, the submission of a 2019 forensic report, which followed the filing of the plaint, was permitted.

ELANCO TIERGESUNDHEIT AG VS THE ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-479/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Assistant Controller of Patents and Designs rejected a patent application without independent reasoning, resulting in a decision that merely reproduced an earlier hearing notice. This lack of a reasoned order violated principles of natural justice. The impugned order was set aside and the matter remanded for fresh consideration before a different officer, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open.

EMAMI LTD. VS DABUR INDIA LTD. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-604/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Dabur India Ltd. does not use the registered trademark 'CHYAWANPRASAD' and sells its products as 'DABUR CHYAWANPRASH'. Emami Ltd. sells products under the mark 'ZANDU CHYAVANPRASHAD' since 2017. Dabur conceded to initiate the removal process of the 'CHYAWANPRASAD' trademark from the Register of Trade Marks.

ENTERTAINMENT NETWORK (INDIA) LIMITED VS HTTPS//TUNEINCOM/PODCASTS/ARTS--CULTURE-PODCASTS/BANGLA-SUNDAY-SUSPENSE-P2082186/ AND ORS [CS(COMM)-880/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Entertainment Network (India) Limited established its case against defendants 1-25 and 29-63 for copyright infringement regarding audio content and trademarks such as "Sunday Suspense," "Mirchi," and "Radio Mirchi." With the rights of non-contesting defendants to file written statements closed, the judgment was passed based on the facts presented, leading to a decree in favor of the plaintiff against defendants 1-25.

EXXON MOBIL CORPORATION VS MOBILFUELS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-608/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Exxon Mobil Corporation received a permanent injunction against Mobilfuels Private Limited and another defendant, prohibiting the use of the MOBIL trademark in their MOBILFUELS trademark or otherwise. The defendants ignored a cease-and-desist letter and continued using the infringing mark, leading to legal action. Following the seizure of infringing products, the defendants ceased using MOBILFUELS and rebranded as "Mishrafuels." A decree for permanent injunction was issued, and the defendants were ordered to pay R.S. 3,00,000 in costs to the plaintiff within six months.

FMI LIMITED VS FAKHRUDDIN SAIFUDDIN BHARMAL [CS(COMM)-304/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant admitted in a written statement to dealing with products bearing the 'FREEMANS PROFESSIONAL' trademark, which is deceptively similar to the plaintiff's 'FREEMANS' trademark, establishing trademark infringement. A permanent injunction was granted, restraining the defendant from using the plaintiff's trademark or any similar marks, and costs of R.S. 50,000 were awarded to the plaintiff.

G.D. PHARMACEUTICALS PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S CENTO PRODUCTS (INDIA) [CS(COMM)-53/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "BOROLINE" qualifies as a well-known trademark under the Trade Marks Act, 1999 due to its extensive use since 1929, widespread recognition, numerous registrations, and various awards. "BOROLINE" was added to the list of well-known trademarks. A permanent injunction was issued to prevent the use of the infringing mark "BOROBEAUTY" or any similar name or trade dress, with an order for the defendant to change its trademark and trade dress to avoid confusion.

GAURAV GOEL & ORS. VS IDBI BANK LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3733/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

IDBI Bank must provide the suspended Board of Directors with the documents underlying the show cause notice before classifying their account as "Fraud" under RBI Master Directions. Natural justice and transparency require this disclosure to ensure a fair process. The bank is directed to allow inspection of records, provide requested documents, and consider a personal hearing for the petitioners prior to their response to the show cause notice.

GLAXO GROUP LIMITED & ANR VS IVA HEALTHCARE PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-593/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The "ZENTOVATE" trademark is deceptively similar to the registered and well-known "BETNOVATE" trademark in appearance, sound, and structure. The adoption of "ZENTOVATE" was deemed dishonest, intended to confuse consumers and invoke an association with "BETNOVATE." Given the pharmaceutical context, a stricter assessment of confusion was applied. The defendant must destroy all infringing material and pay R.S. 3,00,000 in costs to the plaintiff.

GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI VS MOHINDER SINGH NARULA [CONT.CAS(C)-28/2020]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition filed by the Government of NCT of Delhi against M/s DSC Limited cannot be maintained due to a final arbitral award favoring M/s DSC Limited, which rendered the need to keep bank guarantees alive unnecessary. The explanation for lapses in some bank guarantees indicated no willful disobedience by the respondent. Given the recent developments and the arbitral award, the contempt proceedings lack relevance, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

GRAM SUDHAR SABHA (REGD.) VS NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7384/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The digital shape file of the Wazirpur Extension Village unauthorized colony has been provided to the DDA. The matter is to be referred to the Boundary Committee for consideration of uploading the updated map. The Boundary Committee is to be reconstituted within 8 weeks by the Chief Secretary of the GNCTD, after which it will decide on uploading the corrected map within 10 weeks.

GREY MATTERS EDUCATIONAL TRUST VS EXAMINER OF TRADE MARKS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-121/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The appeal by Grey Matters Educational Trust regarding the trademark "Planet E School" for educational services was allowed. The registered marks citing "Planet" were found not to be similar to the appellant's mark when considered as a whole. The mark was deemed distinctive, despite generic elements. The Trademark Registry was instructed to process the application with the stipulation that the appellant cannot claim exclusive rights to the word "Planet" on its own and its usage will be limited to Punjab. Any opposition to the registration will be evaluated on its merits.

GUJARAT COOPERATIVE MILK MARKETING FEDERATION LIMITED & ANR. VS SMT KRISHNABEN DIPESH GOL & ORS. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-38/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiffs' trademark "AMUL" qualifies as a well-known trademark under the Trademarks Act, 1999, warranting extensive protection across all classes, including dissimilar goods and services. The Trademark Registry is to initiate the process for rectification or cancellation of the defendants' identical "AMUL" trademark registration in Class 6 within four months. The defendants' use of the "AMUL" trademark constitutes infringement and passing off of the plaintiffs' established well-known trademark.

GURNAM SINGH, TRADING AS M/S G.C. LABORATORIES VS DEEPAK ARORA, TRADING AS MS HEENA COSMETICS AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-2/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "MAX HEAVEN," registered by Deepak Arora, is deemed deceptively similar to the prior registered trademark "BLUE HEAVEN," which Gurnam Singh has used since 1972. The similarity likely causes public deception and market confusion due to the dominant word "HEAVEN" present in both marks. The "MAX HEAVEN" trademark is to be cancelled from the register.

HAVELLS INDIA LIMITED VS ELECTROMECH INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-423/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Electromech India Private Limited and another were identified as habitual infringers of Havells India Limited's registered design for a ceiling fan. The defendants displayed the infringing designs at an exhibition, indicating plans for commercial launch. A permanent injunction was granted to prevent further infringement of the registered design. Havells India Limited was awarded Rs. 3,71,370/- in litigation costs due to the defendants' actions.

HAVELLS INDIA LIMITED VS MR. RAJESH KUMAR [CS(COMM)-439/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Havells India Limited succeeded in a trademark infringement case against Mr. Rajesh Kumar, who ceased using the 'RKREO' mark and agreed to withdraw his trademark application for it. A permanent injunction was issued against using 'RKREO' or any similar marks, with instructions to the Trade Marks Registry to reject the pending application. A full refund of court fees was awarded to the plaintiff since the case was resolved at the defendant's first appearance.

HYUNDAI MOTOR INDIA LIMITED VS AAA TELESHOPING PVT LTD [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-319/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Trademark registration no. 1389640 in Class 11 for the mark "ELANTRA" registered in the name of AAA Teleshoping Pvt. Ltd. is liable to be canceled due to likelihood of confusion and deception among consumers, leading to passing off its products as those of Hyundai Motor India Limited. Hyundai, the registered proprietor of the "ELANTRA" trademark since 1990, has established priority and extensive use of the mark. The registration by the respondent contravenes Section 11(1) of the Trade Marks Act, 1999, warranting rectification of the register.

INDIAN ASSOCIATION OF CLINICAL CARDIOLOGISTS VS UNION OF INDIA [CONT.CAS(C)-793/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Central Government substantially complied with an earlier order to reconsider IGNOU's application for recognition of the PGDCC qualification. Expert bodies, including the Medical Council of India and the National Medical Commission, identified deficiencies in the PGDCC course, such as lack of mandatory approvals and inadequate curriculum. Based on these assessments, the application for recognition was rejected. An independent exercise was undertaken, and no further actions were necessary in the contempt proceedings.

INDIRA TELEVISION LTD VS TELECOM REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8735/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The disconnection of the 'Sakshi TV' channel by the Multi System Operators (MSOs) violated the TRAI Interconnection Regulations, 2017, due to the lack of the required 3-week prior written notice. The regulation process was not followed, resulting in an order for the MSOs to resume uninterrupted transmission of 'Sakshi TV' as it was before the disconnection on June 20, 2024. Additionally, the petitioner has filed an appeal with the Telecom Disputes Settlement & Appellate Tribunal (TDSAT) regarding other grievances, and no further orders were issued in the current writ petition.

INDUS SOR URJA PRIVATE LIMITED VS INDIAN BANK [W.P.(C)-6390/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondent-bank cannot withhold the original title deeds of the mortgaged property after the petitioner-company has repaid the entire loan. Section 171 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 and the loan agreement do not give the bank the right to retain the title deeds for the dues of the petitioner's group companies. The bank must release the original title deeds as per the 'No Dues Certificate' issued.

INTERDIGITAL TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION & ORS. VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP. LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-692/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

InterDigital must disclose full patent licensing agreements with third parties to all members of the Confidentiality Club, including in-house representatives of Guangdong Oppo Mobile Telecommunications Corp. Ltd. This is essential for verifying claims of fair, reasonable, and non-discriminatory (FRAND) terms and assessing whether the defendants acted as "unwilling licensees." A two-year restriction is placed on the in-house representatives from engaging in negotiations with counterparties related to these agreements.

INTERDIGITAL TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION & ORS. VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP. LTD. & ORS. [I.A.-41359/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiffs demonstrated reasonable cause for filing additional documents with the evidence affidavits of witnesses under Order XI Rule 1(5) of the CPC, as amended by the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. The additional documents aligned with the pleadings and did not establish a new or contradictory case. Challenges related to technology were acknowledged, explaining the incomplete transfer of log files during the initial filing. The relevance and admissibility of the additional documents will be assessed at the trial stage, with the current focus on reasonable cause for non-disclosure. The plaintiffs were permitted to include the additional documents.

INTERDIGITAL VC HOLDINGS INC & ORS. VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP. LTD & ORS. [I.A.-32107/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiffs must disclose the complete Patent License Agreement (PLA) dated 1st June 2014 between Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. and the plaintiffs to the in-house representatives of the defendants who are part of the confidentiality club. The PLA allows for disclosure under a court order, and the defendants need access to comparable license agreements to address issues related to Standard Essential Patents (SEPs) and Fair, Reasonable, and Non-Discriminatory (FRAND) terms. A restriction is in place preventing the defendants' in-house representatives from engaging in negotiations with Samsung for two years without consent.

IRVINDER KAUR CHADHA SUPREME AGENCIE VS GARNISH ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD. AND ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-197/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark 'GARNISH' registered under Application no. 2342490 in Class 07 for Garnish Electronics Pvt. Ltd. expired on June 4, 2022, with the one-year grace period for renewal having lapsed. The Registrar of Trade Marks had notified the company about the expiration, but no renewal application was submitted. As a result, the expired trademark will be removed from the Register of Trade Marks, while all rights and contentions of the petitioner regarding the merits of the dispute remain open.

IRVINDER KAUR CHADHA SUPREME AGENCIE VS GARNISH ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD. AND ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-210/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "GARNISH GOLD," registered under Application no. 2379727 in Class 11 for Garnish Electronics Pvt. Ltd., expired on August 14, 2022. The one-year grace period for renewal had also lapsed in 2023. The Registrar of Trade Marks must remove the entry of this trademark, as it was not renewed despite prior notice. All rights and contentions of the petitioner regarding the merits of the dispute remain open.

IRVINDER KAUR CHADHA SUPREME AGENCIE VS GARNISH ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-213/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark 'GARNISH GOLD' registered to Garnish Electronics Pvt. Ltd. has expired, and the one-year grace period for renewal has also elapsed. The Registrar of Trade Marks issued a notice regarding the expiry, but the trademark was not renewed. Consequently, the Registrar is directed to remove the trademark from the Register of Trade Marks. Rights and contentions on the merits of the dispute remain open for the petitioner.

IRVINDER KAUR CHADHA SUPREME AGENCIE VS GARNISH ELECTRONICS PVT. LTD. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-123/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner established priority in the "GARNISH" trademark, first used by her father in 1956. Rights to the trademark were confirmed in a 2012 court-approved settlement. The respondent's registration of the same trademark in Class 6 stemmed from a potentially forged assignment deed and lacked actual use. The trademark was recognized as a distinctive coined trademark, and the respondent's identical mark posed a risk of confusion in the market. The respondent's trademark registrations in Class 6 were cancelled and removed from the Register of Trade Marks.

IRVINDER KAUR CHADHA VS GARNISH ELECTRONICS PVT LTD AND ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-122/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "GARNISH," registered under Application no. 2342492 in Class 11 for Garnish Electronics Pvt. Ltd., expired on June 4, 2022, with the one-year grace period for restoration and renewal having lapsed. The Registrar of Trade Marks was directed to remove the entry of the mark from the Register, while rights and contentions regarding the merits of the dispute remain open.

IRVINDER LAUR CHADHA VS GARNISH ELECTRONICS PVT LTD AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-251/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark 'GARNISH' registered under Application no. 2342491 in Class 09 for Garnish Electronics Pvt. Ltd. expired on June 4, 2022. The one-year grace period for restoration and renewal ended in 2023 without any application for renewal from the respondent. Consequently, the Registrar of Trade Marks is to remove the entry of the expired trademark from the Register. All rights and contentions of the petitioner regarding the merits of the dispute remain open.

ITC LIMITED VS ELORA TOBACCO COMPANY LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-201/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

ITC Limited was permitted to amend its plaint to include additional infringing marks "Gold Forever" and "Forever Gold," discovered during an execution of a local commission at the defendants' premises. The amendment aimed to address the real controversy and prevent multiplicity of proceedings since the new marks were closely related to the original trademark infringement claims. The defendants had not appeared or filed a written statement, eliminating any potential prejudice from the amendment at this early stage.

JANKI PRASAD VS SANJEEV KHIRWAR (PRINCIPAL SECRETARY) STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-537/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The decision of the MCD's Vigilance Department in compliance with a previous court order cannot be assessed in contempt proceedings. Any grievances regarding the MCD's inquiry findings should be addressed through appropriate legal remedies, not a contempt petition. The contempt notice was discharged, and the petition was disposed of without addressing the merits of the MCD's decision.

JEEVAN KAMAL SEWA TRUST & ANR. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-9497/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioners must remove building material and goods from 1250 sq. yds. of land in Khasra no. 28/6/2 of Village Palam and Khasra no. 11/13/1 and 11/13/2 of Village Tokanpur within three weeks. A previous demarcation order from 1999 and a Demarcation Report from January 21, 2000, were acknowledged. The petitioners agreed to return possession of the land to the Delhi Development Authority as per the Demarcation Report.

JINDAL FILMS INDIA LTD. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-2052/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The DDA's order forfeiting the petitioner's earnest money deposit was invalid due to a violation of natural justice; the final order was issued by a different officer than the one who granted the hearing. A new hearing must be provided, accompanied by a reasoned order, and the new order cannot take effect for one week after being received by the petitioner.

JINDAL INDIA THERMAL POWER LIMTIED VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15218/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner fulfilled its obligations under the Master Resolution Agreement (MRA) by paying Rs. 2,450 crores. The release of pledged equity shares is contingent upon the valid transfer of 10% equity shares to the respondent-banks, as required by applicable law and necessitating a Shareholder Agreement to protect the banks' interests as minority shareholders. The argument against the need for a Shareholder Agreement was rejected, emphasizing the banks' responsibility to safeguard public funds. A Joint Lenders Meeting is to be convened to facilitate the transfer, after which the pledge on the remaining equity shares will be released, and the petitioner's account will be upgraded from NPA to standard.

JK CEMENT LIMITED VS ANKUR AGARWAL & ORS. [CS(COMM)-666/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendants Ankur Agarwal & Ors. violated the statutory and common law rights of JK Cement Limited by using the identical and deceptively similar trademark "J&K" and trade name "Jay Kay Industries" for their cement and wall putty products. Their actions were deemed malafide and dishonest, likely to deceive the public and exploit the plaintiff's goodwill associated with the "JK" trademark. The defendants did not file a written statement within the required timeframe, leading to an ex-parte decree in favor of the plaintiff.

K.K. ELECTRO APPLIANCES PVT LTD. VS SHREE VARDHMAN ENGG. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-346/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The adoption and use of the trademark 'INDO AIR' by Shree Vardhman Engg. for coolers and fans in Class 11 infringes upon K.K. Electro Appliances Pvt Ltd's prior registered trademarks 'INDO' and its device mark. The trademarks are deemed deceptively similar, creating a likelihood of confusion among average consumers. As a result, the trademark registration no. 3924750 for the respondent is cancelled, and the trademarks register will be rectified accordingly.

KAIRA DISTRICT COOPERATIVE MILK PRODUCERS UNION LTD & ANR. VS BIO LOGIC AND PSYCHOTROPICS INDIA PRIVATE LTD & ANR. [CS(COMM)-858/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendants infringed the plaintiffs' well-known registered trademark "AMUL" and are prohibited from using the mark or any similar mark. A permanent injunction was granted, preventing the defendants from manufacturing, selling, or dealing in products bearing the "AMUL" mark. The defendants are ordered to destroy the infringing goods and pay R.S. 5,00,000 in costs and damages to the plaintiffs. The adoption of the "AMUL" trademark by the defendants was deemed unauthentic, aimed at exploiting the plaintiffs' reputation and goodwill.

KALPANA DUDEJA VS JAIDEEP KUMAR MISHRA & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-303/2020]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition by Kalpana Dudeja was dismissed as the respondent organization, NIELIT, complied with previous directives by reinstating her, releasing her arrears, and granting one promotion. Consideration for further promotions cannot be addressed in a contempt petition since the organization cited that she did not meet the minimum benchmark grading under its Promotion Policy due to adverse remarks in her Annual Performance Appraisal Reports. The petitioner may seek other remedies for her promotion grievances.

KARUNA NIDHAN VS RAJIV GAUBA & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-211/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents complied with the court order from 15th December 2015 by granting Non-Functional Selection Grade (NFSG) and other benefits to the petitioner. An affidavit confirmed this compliance. The petitioner can pursue further remedies for grievances related to NFSG dues but no additional directions beyond the original order will be issued.

KAVITA GROVER VS ANGEL BHATI CHAUHAN, DY. COMMISSIONER(SOUTH ZONE) & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1954/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) has substantially complied with a previous order regarding illegal construction, having demolished unauthorized portions, rendered the properties uninhabitable, and sealed the premises. The MCD is directed to ensure the owner takes further action for complete demolition of the remaining illegal structure. The compliance reported by the MCD has been acknowledged, leading to the petition's disposal.

KAWAKAMI, SHIGEKI & ORS. VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-191/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The order rejecting the appellant's patent application was set aside due to the failure to communicate the ground of lack of novelty in the hearing notice. This omission violated the principles of natural justice, preventing the appellant from addressing the issue. The matter was remanded for fresh consideration, requiring a new hearing notice that includes all objections, with a decision on the application to be made within four months.

KOTESHWAR CHEMFOOD INDUSTRIES PVT. LTD. VS SACHDEVA AND SONS INDUSTRES PVT. LTD. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-375/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark registration for the "PRIME" mark held by Sachdeva and Sons Industries Pvt. Ltd. was ordered to be rectified to remove salt and spices from its scope. Koteshwar Chemfood Industries Pvt. Ltd. has used the "PRIME" trademark for iodized salt since 1995 and possesses various registrations for it. The trademark registration for "PRIME" by the respondent expired on January 1, 2024, without renewal. The "PRIME" trademarks of both parties are deemed deceptively similar, likely causing consumer confusion due to their registration for similar goods in Class 30. The trademark registry is directed to implement the necessary rectification.

KUNAL KUMAR VS GOVT OF NCT DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14877/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The land in question is government/DDA land that was previously acquired. The petitioner is deemed an unauthorized encroacher with no legal right to occupy the land, as any occupation post-acquisition is classified as trespassing. The petitioner's claims of being a lawful tenant lack supporting documents and have been previously rejected by another judgment.

LAVKUSH VS MS. AISHWARYA SINGH AND ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-667/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner, categorized as a vendor under the "others" category in his Certificate of Vending (COV), cannot claim to be a "stationary street vendor" as per the Street Vendors Act, 2014 and Street Vendors Scheme, 2019. The terms of the COV do not grant the right to occupy a vending site continuously. The contempt petition was dismissed as there was no evidence of willful violation of prior orders, which required the petitioner to vend within a specified zone under the COV's terms and conditions.

LOUIS VUITTON MALLETIER VS WWW.HAUTE24.COM & ORS. [CS(COMM)-874/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendants infringed the plaintiff's copyright by using copyrighted photographs and images on their website without authorization. A permanent injunction prevents the defendants from using the plaintiff's material. They may continue selling certified pre-owned Louis Vuitton products but must clearly indicate that the items are pre-owned. Selling new Louis Vuitton products is prohibited without written permission from the plaintiff. The defendants are to pay costs of ₹5,00,000 to the plaintiff in France.

LT CDR SANDEEP BHATNAGAR VS DIRECTOR GENERAL BORDER SECURITY FORCE & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-550/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents substantially complied with the earlier order by communicating the DPC decision and issuing a speaking order on the petitioner's representation. In contempt proceedings, the merits of decisions regarding the petitioner's seniority and promotion cannot be reviewed, as established by precedent. The delay in compliance was not considered sufficient for contempt, as it did not indicate deliberate and willful disobedience. The contempt petition was dismissed, with the petitioner granted the option to pursue other legal remedies regarding the DPC decision or the speaking order.

M VS VIJAYPREET SINGH LAMBA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1441/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner remains in possession of the entire third floor of the matrimonial home under the protection order from the Domestic Violence Act. Disputed claims regarding possession exist, but emphasis is on upholding the dignity of the order rather than addressing factual disputes in contempt proceedings. The respondents are directed to comply with the protection order fully, leading to the disposal of the contempt petition.

M.P.SINGH & ORS. VS AVINASH KAUR MEHTA & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-819/2006]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioners, employees of NGOs in family planning clinics funded by the Delhi government, are entitled to equal pay and allowances as government employees in similar roles. The Delhi government has complied by paying approximately ₹61 lakhs of the ₹74 lakhs owed. The government is directed to pay the outstanding ₹13.48 lakhs within 8 weeks, and the petitioners can raise concerns about any discrepancies or interest. No willful disobedience or non-compliance was identified.

M/S GOEL EXIM INDIA PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7809/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The bank is required to provide the petitioners with all relevant documents, including Forensic Audit Reports related to the show-cause notice, in accordance with principles of natural justice. The bank has not officially designated the account as "Fraud" and is reassessing its previous decision. The bank must supply the documents within 4 weeks, allowing the petitioners 3 weeks to respond.

M/S M.H. ONE TV NETWORK PVT. LTD. VS M/S MH 7 NEWS AND ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-396/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "MH7" was found to be deceptively similar to the registered trademarks "MH ONE" and "MH1," indicating an attempt to exploit the goodwill and reputation of the petitioner. The Triple Identity Test showed that the marks, services, and consumers were similar. The registration of "MH7" was deemed wrong and illegal due to substantial copying, leading to its cancellation and a directive for the rectification of the trademark register.

M/S MARVEL TEA ESTATE INDIA LTD VS M/S NUSUN GENETIC RESERCH LTD [CS(COMM)-279/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A permanent injunction was granted to M/S Marvel Tea Estate India Ltd., prohibiting M/S Nusun Genetic Research Ltd. from using the mark "NUSUN MARVEL" or any similar marks to the registered trademark "MARVEL." The defendant had ceased operations and did not appear at the proceedings. The registered trademarks and copyright of the plaintiff over the "MARVEL" mark were acknowledged, leading to a favorable outcome for the plaintiff.

M/S SAI TRADING COMPANY VS M/S KRBL LIMITED [FAO-IPD-8/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The appeal by M/s Sai Trading Company against M/s KRBL Limited in a trademark dispute over "GOLDEN GATE" was dismissed due to the appellant's failure to provide instructions to counsel and lack of engagement in mediation. The appellant's apathetic conduct and the respondent's incurred costs led to an imposed cost of R.S. 10 lacs on the appellant, payable within 8 weeks.

M/S SUBHASH CHAND KATHURIA VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-1869/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's order allowing the bank to take possession of the property lacked jurisdiction, as the property fell under the North District's jurisdiction. The Debt Recovery Tribunal has the authority to evaluate the enforcement of security under the SARFAESI Act. The impugned order was suspended for one week to enable the petitioner to approach the Debt Recovery Tribunal under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act.

M/S SUICH INDUSTRIES LIMITED & ANR. VS STATE BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-7210/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The unilateral classification of the petitioner company's account and its directors as "Fraud" by the State Bank of India (SBI) was set aside due to a lack of show-cause notice and opportunity for a hearing, violating principles of natural justice. A detailed procedure established by the Supreme Court requires banks to allow borrowers to explain evidence before such classification. SBI failed to adhere to this procedure. The "Fraud" classification was annulled, and SBI was permitted to reevaluate the situation in compliance with the prescribed guidelines, while the ongoing investigation by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) was allowed to continue.

M/S. V-MEGA STORES & ORS. VS V-MART RETAIL LIMITED [CM(M)-IPD-15/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trial court dismissed the petitioners' applications for condonation of delay in filing the written statement based on technicalities, including the timing of affidavit drafting and the dual role of the petitioners' counsel. These findings were deemed speculative, and the fact that affidavits were attested prior to the applications did not invalidate them. Even if there were deficiencies in the affidavits, they were considered curable irregularities. The matter was sent back to the trial court for a fresh consideration of the applications on their merits, leaving the rights and contentions of both parties open.

MAHA RASHTRA APEX CROP & LTD VS PUREARTH INFRASTRUCTURE LTD & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-314/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner deposited outstanding dues of R.S. 21,96,770, leading to the release of this amount to the respondent. Additionally, the petitioner is required to pay R.S. 8,02,060 in statutory charges. Following this payment, the respondent must register the sale deed in favor of the petitioner and issue a no-dues certificate.

MANISH RAWAT VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-283/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition against the Municipal Corporation of Delhi, owner, and builder was dismissed due to substantial compliance with a prior order. The Municipal Corporation inspected the property, issued a completion certificate, and took action against unauthorized construction. The completion certificate was found to be valid, leading to the disposal of the contempt petition.

MANISH TIWARI & ORS. VS AMIT YADAV,CHAIRPERSON,NDMC & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-114/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents (NDMC and NSES) complied with the order from 24th July 2023 by issuing a detailed order on 5th December 2023, approving the compassionate appointment of the petitioners according to government policy. The respondents are to complete the appointment process within four months, with the petitioners allowed to revive the petition if there is non-compliance.

MANJU YADAV @ RICHA YADAV VS RAJESH YADAV & ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-567/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondent cannot be held in contempt for the delayed payment of ₹25,00,000 to the petitioner, as he later presented a demand draft for the remaining amount, indicating intent to comply with the settlement. The absence of willful disobedience, only a delay in payment, led to the dismissal of the contempt petition.

MANKIND PHARMA LIMITED VS MAA AYURVED BHAVAN [CS(COMM)-184/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant, a roadside vendor operating a small Ayurvedic medicine shop, was not connected to "Maa Ayurved Bhavan North 24 Parganas," which allegedly infringed the plaintiff's registered trademark "MANFORCE" and copyright in the product artwork. The defendant provided clear statements and an affidavit. The suit was decreed in favor of the plaintiff, granting the sought injunction relief, while the plaintiff waived claims for damages and costs.

MANKIND PHARMA LTD. 208, OKHLA INDUSTRIAL ESTATE, PHASE-III, NEW DELHI VS MANOJ KUMAR M/S NOVAKIND BIOSCIENCES, S. 15/10, 16/10, IST FLOOR, T.P. NAGAR, KANPUR ROAD, LUCKNOW, UP [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-409/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The registration of the trademark "GYNOKIND" by Manoj Kumar M/S Novakind Biosciences is deemed untenable and subject to cancellation under Section 57 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. Mankind Pharma Ltd. is established as the prior user of the "MANKIND" trademark and the "KIND" family of marks since 1986, having built significant goodwill and market presence. The use of "GYNOKIND" is likely to cause consumer confusion due to its deceptive similarity to Mankind's established marks. Previous judgments affirm Mankind's exclusive rights over the "KIND" component in the pharmaceutical industry.

MAYAPURI BEARING DEALERS ASSOCIATION REGD. THROUGH ITS SECRETARY VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-10207/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The writ petition filed by the Mayapuri Bearing Dealers Association was dismissed because the eviction order against M/s Hindustan Metal Works and unauthorized occupants of the property has become final. The association, representing unauthorized occupants, has no legal rights over the property due to the termination of the original lessee's rights. The petition is not maintainable as the members are unauthorized occupants with no claim to the property.

MCAM SURLON INDIA LTD VS MS METALON MARKETING DELHI PARTNERSHIP FIRM & ANR. [CS(COMM)-846/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

MCAM Surlon India Ltd. is the registered proprietor of the trademark "METALON" since 1994 and has established a prima facie case of trademark infringement against M/s Metalon Marketing Delhi Partnership Firm and another. Any use of the trademark by a licensee after revocation constitutes infringement under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. An interim injunction has been granted to restrain the defendants from using the registered trademark "METALON" for their business activities.

MD DILWAR HUSSAIN VS PROF NAZIM HUSAIN AL-JAFRI REGISTRAR [CONT.CAS(C)-522/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondent university willfully disobeyed previous orders granting the petitioner admission to the B.Ed. (Urdu) course and denied him admission despite favorable judgments. An unsuccessful appeal was made to the Supreme Court. Although the university later offered admission, it was deemed infeasible for the petitioner to join the current session as classes had already started. The university was directed to compensate the petitioner with ₹50,000 for the loss of an academic year, and he was instructed to take admission in the next academic session.

MEENAKSHI SHARMA VS CL BHALLA DAYANAND MODEL SCHOOL & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-166/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The final calculations by the Directorate of Education (DOE) under the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commission faced challenges from both petitioners and the management committee. The DOE is instructed to reconsider the management committee's representation regarding arrears calculations and allow petitioners to raise objections. A fresh assessment must be completed within eight weeks, and the management committee is required to release 20% of the calculated amount within one week of finalization. Petitioners may revive contempt petitions in case of non-compliance.

MEHBOOB AHMAD & ANR. VS MUNEER AHMAD & ORS. [CM(M)-IPD-12/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petition challenging the order allowing the respondents to submit additional documents in trademark infringement suits was dismissed. The Additional District Judge considered the respondents' reasons for the late filing and found reasonable cause. No errors were identified that warranted interference. The petitioners were also estopped from challenging the order since they accepted the costs imposed for allowing the additional documents.

MINISTRY OF WORK ,HOUSING & SUPPLY COOPERATIVE HOUSE BUILDEING SOCIETY LTD VS ASHOKTA TARNACHA (SECRETARY)SSR EDUCATIONAL & WELFARE SOCIETY & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-307/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents did not commit contempt of court by operating a school up to Class 8 instead of just a nursery. The Directorate of Education relaxed land norms, allowing schools on DDA land to operate up to the elementary level, and the respondents secured valid recognition to run the school accordingly. An earlier statement made under different legal norms does not bind the respondents when the law permits their actions. Additionally, the petition was barred by limitation, as the petitioner was aware of the middle school operations since 2015 but filed the contempt petition in 2018.

MINOR P(THR. FATHER N) VS STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1899/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A 16-year-old rape victim sought medical termination of her 26-28 week pregnancy. The Medical Board indicated moderate chances of the baby's survival but high chances of premature complications, which led to the decision against termination. Given the victim's financial situation and status, she will be admitted to AIIMS for delivery, with the State covering all expenses. Preservation of the child's DNA for ongoing prosecution is required, and AIIMS will ensure the petitioner's mental and physical welfare during her stay.

MODERN MOLD PLAST PVT. LTD. & ANR. VS FLIPKART INTERNET PT. LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-803/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiffs established common law rights in the trademark "MAHARAJA" and related marks through prior use since 2009. The defendants engaged in passing off by selling non-genuine products linked to the plaintiffs' listings on the Flipkart e-commerce platform. Flipkart must implement its "brand gating" feature to prevent unauthorized sellers from using the plaintiffs' listings and disable any instances of such behavior upon notification. The plaintiffs expressed satisfaction with these directions and did not seek further relief.

MODI PAINTS AND VARNISH WORKS VS SANJAY GUPTA AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-324/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "MODI CRYL," registered to Sanjay Gupta, was not renewed after its validity expired on May 21, 2018, despite a renewal notice from the Registrar of Trademarks. Consequently, Modi Paints and Varnish Works' request for rectification and removal of the trademark has been satisfied, as it is no longer in effect.

MODI-MUNDIPHARMA PVT. LTD. & ANR. VS WIN HEALTH PHARMA THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR. SANJAY SETH & ANR. [CS(COMM)-197/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiffs presented prima facie merit regarding the invalidity of the defendant's trademark registrations for "WIN HEALTH PHARMA" and another mark. Specific issues were framed to assess the validity of these registrations, noting the plaintiffs as prior adopters and users of similar marks like "WIN-MEDICARE" and "WIN-HEALTHCARE." Proceedings were adjourned for three months for further examination of the trademark validity under the Trademarks Act, 1999.

MOHAMMED MOINUDDIN AHMED VS BHOLA NATH SINGH SECRETARY GENERAL, HOCKEY INDIA [CONT.CAS(C)-353/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Hockey India has developed mechanisms to ensure transparency and fairness in the selection process for state hockey teams. As a one-time measure, an independent observer will attend the senior men's team selection trials for the Andhra Pradesh state hockey team. Hockey India must communicate selection trial guidelines to the Andhra Pradesh hockey association, which is required to publish trial dates on its website at least two weeks in advance.

MOTHER SPARSH BABY CARE PVT LTD VS AAYUSH GUPTA & ORS. [CS(COMM)-129/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's trademark "Plantpowered" is identical and deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered trademark "Plant Powered," likely causing consumer confusion. The plaintiff has been the prior adopter and user of the mark since 2019, having extensively promoted it. Malicious conduct by the defendant included filing a false complaint against the plaintiff with Amazon, resulting in the delisting of the plaintiff's products. The defendant's trademark registration has been canceled, a decree has been granted in favor of the plaintiff along with costs of ₹7 lacs, and the defendant is directed to withdraw its opposition to the plaintiff's trademark application.

MR. RAVINDER KUMAR GARG VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-7369/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner's writ petition under Article 226 is deemed not maintainable due to the availability of an alternate remedy under the SARFAESI Act. The petitioner is directed to approach the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT) to address concerns regarding the auction notice and the bank's conduct. The DRT is instructed to expedite the pending Securitization Application (SA). The auction notice dated 25th April, 2024, is stayed for 10 days to facilitate the petitioner's approach to the DRT.

MR.RAJAN CHADHA & ANR. VS MR.SANJAY ARORA & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-75/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents did not willfully disobey court and arbitral tribunal orders. Non-payment of EMIs by respondent no. 1 was attributed to financial inability, not deliberate violation. The sale of the Flat Bed Printing Machine occurred before the court orders and did not constitute a violation. Respondent no. 2's entry into corporate insolvency resolution process (CIRP) resulted in respondent no. 1 losing control over the company's assets and management. The burden of proof for contempt requires evidence beyond reasonable doubt, and the presence of two interpretations negates willfulness. The notice to show cause was discharged, and the contempt petition was dismissed.

MRS ARTI GUPTA & ANR. VS PURAN RANA & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-89/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner is the prior adopter and registered owner of the trademarks "KONVIO" and "KONVIO NEER" in Class 11. The respondent's use of the identical trademark "KONVIO NEER" in Class 35 was considered dishonest, aimed at benefiting from the petitioner's goodwill. The respondent was subject to a permanent injunction preventing the use of the petitioner's mark and failed to provide justification for its actions, resulting in the cancellation of the respondent's trademark registration.

NARENDRA YADAV VS DILIP RANGWANI [CONT.CAS(C)-970/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Enquiry Officer complied with the previous order from June 1, 2018, allowing the petitioner to cross-examine witnesses regarding additional documents and considering the petitioner's objections in the Enquiry Report. Substantial compliance negated the need to scrutinize the specifics of the measures taken. The petitioner had the opportunity to raise issues related to the additional documents, leading to no grounds for contempt. Additionally, the petitioner had previously withdrawn a similar contempt petition but retained the right to address issues in appropriate proceedings and has already challenged the Enquiry Officer's findings in a separate writ petition.

NAYAN INDIA SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD VS TUSHAR MAURYA & ORS. [CS(COMM)-526/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A mandatory injunction to compel a former employee to visit the plaintiff's office and transfer work product was not granted. Such an order would constitute compelling specific performance of a contract for personal services, which is prohibited under Section 14(c) of the Specific Relief Act, 1963. An employee cannot be forced to fulfill a contract based on personal qualifications, and the plaintiff's claimed loss can be compensated monetarily. The application for interim relief was dismissed.

NEERAJ SHARMA VS VINAY SHEEL SAXENA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-851/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents, including senior officials of the Public Works Department, planted over 2,000 trees as directed and an additional 6,000 trees across Delhi, demonstrating substantial compliance with previous orders. The remedial measures taken were acknowledged, leading to the discharge of contempt proceedings and the setting aside of the conviction of respondent no. 4.

NEW AVANTIKA CGHS SOCIETY VS DDA [W.P.(C)-4986/2020]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner-society does not have a vested right to claim land allotment from the DDA at pre-determined rates, as no formal allotment occurred before the 2021 amendment of the DDA Nazul Land Rules. The DDA had only proposed land allotment, with no specific plot assigned. Following the rule change mandating that land be allotted through auction or tender, the petitioner-society cannot demand allotment at pre-determined rates. Additionally, the petitioner-society's significant delay in legal action after the initial proposal influenced the outcome. The petition was dismissed, but the DDA was instructed to refund the amount deposited by the petitioner-society with interest.

NEW BALANCE ATHLETICS INC. VS ASHOK KUMAR & ORS. [CS(COMM)-104/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

New Balance Athletics Inc. established a clear case of trademark infringement and passing off against Indramani Sahu and Jagabandhu Sahoo, who operated a website selling counterfeit products bearing New Balance's registered trademarks. The defendants admitted on their website to selling "high quality products which look similar to the originals," indicating the sale of counterfeit goods. Their failure to submit a written statement or engage in the proceedings resulted in the plaintiff's claims being uncontested. The seriousness of counterfeiting as an economic offense that undermines brand value and misleads consumers was recognized. The suit was decreed in favor of New Balance, with an award for actual costs of litigation.

NEW BALANCE ATHLETICS, INC. VS PULKIT KHUBCHANDANI [CS(COMM)-452/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant infringed the plaintiff's registered trademarks "N" and "550" by producing and selling footwear with nearly identical marks. The defendant's use of the plaintiff's marks was not legitimate and aimed to exploit the plaintiff's reputation. A permanent injunction against the defendant was issued, the confiscated infringing products were ordered to be destroyed, and the defendant was mandated to pay the plaintiff ₹5,00,000 in costs and ₹2,00,000 in damages.

NEW ERA CAP CO., INC. VS MR. SATISH SHUKLA & ORS. [CS(COMM)-548/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

New Era Cap Co., Inc. is the registered proprietor of the 'NEW ERA' and '59FIFTY' trademarks, along with various device marks in India. The defendants were found to be selling counterfeit goods featuring these trademarks without authorization, constituting trademark infringement and passing off. A permanent injunction was issued against the defendants, prohibiting the use of the trademarks or any similar marks. The defendants were ordered to pay damages of Rs. 10,00,000 and costs of Rs. 6,00,000.

NNOVA AND COMPANY VS CHAND RAHEJA AND ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-417/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The registration of the trademark "NOGA" was cancelled due to its deceptive similarity to the well-known trademark "NOVA". The adoption of "NOGA" was found to be fraudulent, intended to exploit the goodwill associated with "NOVA", leading to public deception and confusion. The removal of the "NOGA" trademark from the register was directed, based on the respondent's commitment not to renew it.

OPELLA HEALTHCARE GROUP VS VAIBHAV VOHRA & ANR. [C.O.(COMM.IPD-CR)-9/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The trademark "PHENSERYL" and the copyrighted artistic work owned by Vaibhav Vohra are deemed deceptively similar to Opella Healthcare Group's well-known trademark "PHENSEDYL" and its registered artistic work. The visual and phonetic similarities likely cause confusion among consumers, particularly in the pharmaceutical sector where such mistakes can have serious consequences. Consequently, the respondent's trademark and copyright registrations are ordered to be canceled, and the respective entries are to be removed from the registers.

PARVIOM TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS KARTHIK DEVRAJ AND OTHERS [CS(COMM)-644/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

No valid service of the lawsuit on Karthik Devraj occurred, as service at his previous address and by inaccessible email were deemed inadequate. The orders closing his right to file a written statement were set aside. The delay in appealing was condoned, and the defendant was directed to file an application concerning the consideration of his later-submitted written statement, as he claimed he was only informed of the lawsuit in September 2023.

PRABHJOT SINGH & ORS. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-4886/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Concerns regarding the clear title to the residential property raised by Prabhjot Singh and others were addressed, as the Delhi Development Authority took steps to remove encroachments and secure the property. The petitioners are required to deposit the remaining 75% of the bid amount, with a provision for a refund and interest if the DDA faces an adverse order in a related writ petition.

PRADEEP GOEL & ANR. VS BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7786/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The bank must provide the suspended directors of a company with all relevant documents, including the Forensic Audit Report, related to the Show Cause Notice for classifying their accounts as 'Fraud'. Natural justice principles require the bank to allow the directors an opportunity to explain the evidence against them. The bank is instructed to supply the documents within four weeks, after which the directors will have three weeks to file their reply.

PRATIK JINDAL VS SHRUTI JINDAL [CONT.CAS(C)-922/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner received permission to travel outside India with his minor daughters during school vacation, contingent upon filing undertakings to return custody to the respondent after 12 days. Details of their passports and property owned by the petitioner's mother were required as security, with a warning of action against the mother's property if custody is not returned as agreed.

PRAVESH NARULA TRADING AS M/S. CAPITAL ENTERPRISES VS RAJ KUMAR JAIN TRADING AS M/S. BHOLARAM PURANMALL AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-379/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to include the registration of its trademark was allowed, as the amendment was necessary to address the real controversy and prevent multiple litigations. The amendment did not alter the case's basic nature since both infringement and passing off claims were based on similar facts. Arguments from the defendants regarding wrongful trademark registration were rejected, as a pending cancellation petition did not justify denying the amendment.

PUMA SE VS JUGAL KISHORE JAIN AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-81/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Puma SE established priority over the trademarks of Sh Jugal Kishore Jain, with its 'PUMA' trademark declared well-known. The respondent's trademarks were found to be deceptively similar to Puma's and covered identical goods and services. One trademark had not been used for over 5 years, making it subject to removal under the Trade Marks Act. The trademarks were cancelled and removed from the Trade Marks Register.

RACHANA TELEVISION PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8754/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The disconnection of the TV channel "NTV Telugu" by the MSO without the required 3-week notice under TRAI Interconnection Regulations, 2017, and the 30-day notice as per the Channel Placement Agreement was illegal. The MSO must resume uninterrupted transmission of the channel in its prior position. The petitioner has filed appeals with the TDSAT regarding this matter.

RAISINA BENGALI SCHOOL VS SHRI BHUPESH CHAUDHARY AND ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-361/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents (Directorate of Education) were not held in contempt for failing to comply with a prior order from December 18, 2023, due to ambiguity in the order's interpretation regarding the requirement for granting clearance approval to the petitioner-school (Raisina Bengali School). The order allowed for multiple interpretations, leading to the conclusion that the benefit of the doubt should favor the respondents. The petitioner was granted the right to challenge the DOE's rejection of their request dated February 1, 2024.

RAJESH MEHTA & ANR VS OAKLEY INC [FAO-IPD-10/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The stay on the trial court's order granting an interim injunction in favor of Oakley Inc. against Rajesh Mehta & Anr. was upheld. The trial is nearing completion, with only one witness from the appellants remaining. The trial court was directed to conclude the trial promptly, unaffected by previous interim orders. The stay allows the appellants to continue using the shape/trade dress of the goggles during the pendency of the suit.

RAJIV KOHLI VS SHRI RADHA KRISHAN DIRECTOR ESTATE 1 DEPARTMENT [CONT.CAS(C)-32/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The license deed for Shop No. 3, Mohan Singh Place, New Delhi, expired on 31st March 2019, and the NDMC chose not to renew it. In contempt proceedings, only explicit previous directions can be enforced, without reopening decided issues. The petitioner may raise concerns regarding the de-sealing of similar shops in separate proceedings. The timeframe to vacate the shop was extended from 7 days to 3 weeks, with a directive to the NDMC not to take coercive actions during this period.

RAJU VS MR AMIT YADAV AND ANR [CONT.CAS(C)-1816/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The NDMC is instructed to include the petitioner's name in the survey for vending licenses and provide a personal hearing for his stationery vending license request, considering his paralytic condition. Previous orders for renewal of his bakery license were not complied with due to the non-constitution of the Town Vending Committee. The competent committee is to address the petitioner's representation for a stationery vending license, recognizing his health condition and inability to engage in mobile vending.

RAMESH KUMAR VS SHRI GYANESH BHARTI & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-501/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents have complied with previous directions to issue a Certificate of Vending (COV) to the petitioner, who had applied for it as per an earlier order. The application is registered with the Municipal Corporation of Delhi, but issuance of the COV is contingent on the completion of an ongoing area survey under the Street Vendors Act. The Town Vending Committee will issue the COV upon survey completion, and the petitioner may revive the contempt petition if grievances persist after the COV is issued.

RANNU DEVI & ANR VS SANDEEP KUMAR & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-91/2020]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Respondents cannot disburse the final reward to the petitioners as informers until all proceedings against M/s J.V. Industries Pvt. Ltd. are concluded. The ongoing proceedings include a writ petition from the assessee challenging a further demand by the department. The notice of contempt against the respondents was discharged due to no willful disobedience, but petitioners may revive the contempt petition after the conclusion of the proceedings. Petitioners are permitted to request the release of the interim reward of R.S. 5 lakhs that has been sanctioned.

RAVINDER KUMAR & ORS. VS SHRI NITIN AGARWAL & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-968/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents complied with the previous order to address the petitioners' request for Assured Career Progression (ACP)/Modified Assured Career Progression (MACP) Scheme benefits from the start of Basic Recruit Training (BRT). The petitioners expressed dissatisfaction with the responses provided, but the merits of those responses cannot be evaluated in contempt proceedings. Since the respondents considered the petitioners' representation as directed, no contempt action will be taken, as issues related to the correctness of the responses fall outside contempt jurisdiction.

SAARTHI AIRWAYS PVT LTD VS DR. B.M MISHRA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-744/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents have substantially complied with the previous order for demarcation of the disputed land. The petitioner can challenge the demarcation process or establish ownership in separate proceedings, as the issue of ownership cannot be resolved in the current contempt context. The petition is disposed of, allowing the petitioner to seek legal remedy for ownership claims.

SANDEEP KUMAR YADAV VS NARESH KUMAR CHIEF SECRETARY GNCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-734/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The contempt petition filed by Sandeep Kumar Yadav against the respondents was dismissed. The original punishment against the petitioner had been deemed disproportionate; however, following a remand, the Disciplinary Authority upheld the punishment in a fresh order. In contempt proceedings, examination is limited to whether the Disciplinary Authority complied with prior directions, which it did by reconsidering the matter. The petitioner has the option to challenge the fresh order in separate proceedings.

SANJAY DHINGRA VS 1. IDBI BANK LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8131/2020]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The interim moratorium under Section 96 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 applies to the security interest of the petitioner created under a personal guarantee, preventing the respondent bank from proceeding with SARFAESI actions against the mortgaged property after the commencement of insolvency proceedings. The bank's argument regarding the personal insolvency of the guarantor was rejected, referencing a precedent. The matter of the bank's jurisdiction to initiate SARFAESI proceedings may be addressed by the petitioner before the Debt Recovery Tribunal, which holds the authority to evaluate the bank's authority. The writ petition lacks maintainability since an effective remedy exists under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act before the Debt Recovery Tribunal.

SANJAY TIKU & ORS. VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2543/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The declaration of the petitioners' account as 'Fraud' by IDBI Bank was set aside due to the lack of an opportunity for the petitioners to be heard, violating principles of natural justice. It was emphasized that the right to be heard should be applied to classifications of fraud as these have significant civil consequences for borrowers. IDBI Bank can initiate new proceedings in accordance with the law and after allowing the petitioners to make representations.

SANJEEV MAHAJAN VS INDIAN BANK (ERSTWHILE ALLAHABAD BANK) & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6866/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The matter is remanded to the NCLT to address the petitioners' objections regarding limitation and the maintainability of the Section 95 IBC application filed by the respondent-bank. The NCLT previously considered similar preliminary objections from personal guarantors, but did not do so in this instance. Rights and contentions of the parties remain open for consideration on the merits, with no observations made on the substantive merits of the submissions.

SANKALP SHARMA VS KRITIKA KAUSHIK [CONT.CAS(C)-1813/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner-father's complaint of international parental child abduction to US authorities prevented the respondent-mother from complying with a prior order to travel to the US with their minor child. There was no willful disobedience by the respondent-mother, as the petitioner's actions created this inability to comply. The contempt petition was dismissed due to the lack of willfulness.

SARABJEET KAUR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT 1 [CONT.CAS(C)-299/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

In a contempt proceeding, it is not possible to adjudicate on the merits of the decision made by the Directorate of Enforcement regarding the petitioner's representations. The respondent complied with the earlier order to address the representations within the given timeframe. Any grievances by the petitioner regarding the decision represent a new cause of action, allowing the petitioner to pursue appropriate legal remedies in separate proceedings.

SARVJEET SINGH VS PRANAY SAHAY AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-130/2013]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents substantially complied with the September 1, 2011 judgment by reinstating the petitioner with 50% back wages and granting various promotions. Disputes regarding the petitioner's further promotion to Second-In-Command and Non-Functional Financial Up-Gradation benefits cannot be adjudicated in the current proceedings as they were not part of the 2011 directions. The petitioner may initiate independent proceedings to raise these claims.

SH DEVKI NANDAN AND ANR VS M/S CAPRI GLOBAL HOUSING FINANCE LIMITED AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2000/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioners approached the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal (DRAT) regarding an order from the Debts Recovery Tribunal (DRT) and a possession notice from the receiver. The DRAT chairman is unavailable until 13.02.2024, while possession is set for 12.02.2024. Therefore, the possession notice dated 05.02.2024 remains in abeyance until 13.02.2024, coinciding with the hearing of the petitioners' application.

SH DIPANKAR DUTTA AND ANR VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-8709/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioners challenged a demolition order from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi for unauthorized construction in their flat. They were directed to rectify discrepancies in their regularization application within 7 days, and no coercive action will be taken during the application's pending status. No further orders were issued.

SH. DHANI RAM MEHTO VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-2561/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The writ petition challenging the withholding of the petitioner's pension and gratuity is not maintainable in the High Court, as jurisdiction over service matters lies with the Central Administrative Tribunal under the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. The petitioner is granted the opportunity to approach the CAT.

SH. LAGADAPATI MADHUSUDHAN RAO VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-928/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The principles of natural justice require banks to provide directors and guarantors of LANCO Infratech Limited with the underlying documents and records related to show cause notices for classifying their accounts as 'fraud' under RBI Master Directions. The banks and the company's liquidator must allow inspection of relevant records and supply specific documents requested by the petitioners to enable them to respond to the notices. Ensuring access to necessary documents is essential to uphold the principles of natural justice.

SH. RAKESH KUMAR SHARMA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-2328/2020]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The allotment of a flat to Smt. Amba Rani by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was cancelled due to her failure to pay the demanded amount by the deadline of June 15, 1993. Payment within the stipulated time is a mandatory term in the allotment letter, and non-payment leads to automatic cancellation. A suit challenging the amount demanded was dismissed, along with an appeal against that dismissal. Consequently, a writ petition filed by Smt. Amba Rani's successor on the same cause of action is not maintainable based on the principle of constructive res judicata.

SHANTANU PRAKASH VS STATE BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1730/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner must be provided with documents that form the basis of show cause notices issued by respondent banks regarding the declaration of the petitioner's company account as 'fraud'. Fair procedure requires disclosure of all investigative materials to enable effective response to allegations. The lead bank and Resolution Professional must allow the petitioner to inspect company records and provide specific requested documents within set timelines. The petitioner can also request a personal hearing, which the banks must consider.

SHARDA YADAV VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1166/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) and the Government of NCT of Delhi are to grant a hearing to the petitioner's authorized representatives regarding encroachment on a Nalla/Rain Water Body in Khasra No. 56/1, Village Samlkha, New Delhi. The land, designated for development by the DDA, requires an investigation to determine the status of the encroachment and necessary action within a 4-month timeframe.

SHREE GHANTAKARAN PIPES PVT LTD AND ANR VS ROHIT GARG [CS(COMM)-403/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's use of the trademark "APPI SMONIKA GOLD" infringed the plaintiffs' registered trademark "MONICA GOLD" due to significant phonetic and structural similarity, likely causing consumer confusion. The defendant did not respond to the allegations or participate in the proceedings, resulting in a decree favoring the plaintiffs, who waived claims for costs and damages.

SHRI RAJESH CHUGH VS MEHRUDDIN ANSARI & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-28/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The registered trademark "ANDAAZ-E-NIZAAM" in Class-43 is considered deceptively similar to the prior registered trademark "NIZAM'S." The respondent admitted to abandoning the use of "ANDAAZ-E-NIZAAM" and intends to use "DAAWAT-E-NIZAMUDDIN" or "ANDAAZ-E-NIZAMUDDIN" for their business. The Registrar of Trademarks is directed to cancel "ANDAAZ-E-NIZAAM," and the respondent must change their trade name to "DAAWAT-E-NIZAMUDDIN" or "ANDAAZ-E-NIZAMUDDIN" within four weeks.

SHRI RISHABH GARG VS THE HDFC BANK LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5965/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner is allowed to create two fixed deposit receipts of ₹50 lakhs each for a duration of 10 years for the benefit of the petitioner's son. After 10 years, the fixed deposits will be set to auto-renew by HDFC Bank. A lien will be marked in favor of the petitioner's son until the maturity of the deposits. The bank's system limitation of a maximum 10-year deposit term was acknowledged and accepted.

SIMBHAOLI SUGARS LIMITED VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3903/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Simbhaoli Sugars Limited's account was declared 'fraud' by Punjab National Bank without providing an opportunity to be heard. The lack of a hearing violated principles of natural justice as established in a precedent involving the right to be heard. Consequently, the declaration of fraud was set aside, allowing the bank to pursue actions in accordance with the applicable legal principles.

SMC NOVA ESTATE PRIVATE LIMITED VS SURYA MARKETING COMPANY [CM(M)-IPD-16/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petition challenging the trial court's orders to close the petitioner's right to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness and present its own evidence was dismissed. The petitioner's repeated requests for adjournments without valid justification to delay proceedings were deemed unacceptable. Previous judgments condemning the routine granting of adjournments were cited, emphasizing the need for expeditious disposal in commercial matters. The petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

SMT MEENU GARG AND ANR VS UNION BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-11958/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The restraint order on the petitioners' bank locker, issued by the Income Tax Department in 2012, was revoked by the Department the same year. The authenticity of the revocation order was confirmed and served to Union Bank of India. The bank was directed to grant the petitioners access to their locker, as there were no legal impediments remaining.

SPORTA TECHNOLOGIES PVT LTD AND ANR VS ADITYA YADAV AND ORS [CS(COMM)-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Defendant no. 1 infringed the plaintiffs' registered trademarks "Dream 11" by using the mark in the sub-domain "dream11.hmriworld.com," constituting passing off. A decree was passed in favor of the plaintiffs due to the defendants' failure to submit a written statement, resulting in an imposed cost of R.S. 1,00,000 on defendant no. 1.

SPORTA TECHNOLOGIES PVT LTD AND ANR. VS JOHN DOE AND ORS [CS(COMM)-21/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Sporta Technologies Pvt Ltd is the registered owner of the "DREAM 11" trademark. The plaintiffs demonstrated trademark infringement and passing off by the defendants, who replicated their website and used confusingly similar marks. The defendants did not file a written statement, leading to an ex-parte decree in favor of the plaintiffs, who were awarded nominal costs. In cases where defendants do not contest, it is noted that the plaintiffs are not required to present further evidence.

STAR SCIENTIFIC LIMITED VS THE CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-20/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Controller of Patents and Designs erred in rejecting the patent application of Star Scientific Limited due to the applicant's absence at a scheduled hearing. The applicant's detailed response to the First Examination Report needed to be considered, requiring a reasoned decision under Section 15 of the Patents Act that addressed the application's merits. The matter was remanded for fresh consideration, with a directive to decide within 4 months and allow the applicant to submit written arguments within 5 days. The decision must systematically address each objection and issue.

SUMAN DAGAR VS MR.VIJAY DEV AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-345/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents, including the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD), complied with a prior order by issuing a show-cause notice to a government official for campaigning for his wife in MCD elections. This included hearing his reply and issuing a warning letter. As the previous order's directions were fulfilled, the petition was disposed of without further action.

SUN PHARMA LABORATORIES LIMITED VS NARENDER KUMAR & ORS. [CS(COMM)-424/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Sun Pharma Laboratories Limited was granted a permanent injunction against the defendants for using the mark "CAFTADAY," which was deemed deceptively similar to "CAFTA." The defendants did not participate in the proceedings despite being served notice, leaving them without a viable defense. Sun Pharma was awarded R.S. 5 Lacs in costs and damages.

SUNIL KUMAR SAXENA VS DR M BALAJI & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1590/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents complied with the directions from LPA No. 406/2019, treating the petitioner as in service until the actual date of superannuation and adjusting his salary notionally to enhance his pension and terminal dues. The petitioner disputed the adjustments to the released pension amount, but the details of compliance measures cannot be assessed in contempt proceedings as long as there is substantial compliance with the original judgment. The petitioner retains the option to separately challenge the respondents' order adjusting the pension amount.

SUNIL KUMAR VS SHALU GUPTA @ SHEELA & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-712/2018]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

No contempt was committed by the respondents because the petitioner recalibrated from the earlier consent order by raising objections about the properties, obstructing the execution of the relinquishment deeds. Parties are free to seek legal remedies as per the law.

SURESH KUMAR RATHEE VS SHRI KRISHAN KUMAR [CONT.CAS(C)-1230/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The Registrar Cooperative Societies (RCS) substantially complied with previous directions and did not commit contempt. In contempt proceedings, examination is limited to specific prior orders. The RCS evaluated documents and payments from 39 members regarding 16 un-allotted flats and issued a reasoned order on the seniority list for flat allotment, without requiring a special audit as requested by the petitioner. This matter involves multiple claimants.

SURJAN SINGH RISAL SINGH MEMORIAL EDUCATION SOCIETY VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16896/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

There is a dispute over land ownership between the Surjan Singh Risal Singh Memorial Education Society and the Delhi Development Authority, concerning the boundaries of Khasra No. 193 Min and Khasra No. 193/2 Min. A demarcation of the land is to be conducted by the Delhi Development Authority, which is the land-owning agency after urbanization. The petitioner must deposit R.S. 1,00,000 for the demarcation process, and if encroachment on public land by the petitioner is discovered, appropriate action may be taken. Both parties are to maintain the status quo until the demarcation is completed.

SWAMI NATH BAITHA & ORS VS GK PILLAI & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-399/2011]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioners were not entitled to monetary benefits for the period from 2008 to 2015, as they were not working as Lower Division Clerks (LDCs) during that time. The respondents considered and rejected the petitioners' regularization claim as per previous directives. Although the petitioners were later promoted to LDC positions, they could not claim benefits for the period prior to their promotion. The merits of the decision regarding their regularization could not be re-examined in the current proceedings.

TATA SIA AIRLINES LIMITED & ANR. VS ASHRAF ALAM [CS(COMM)-40/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

TATA SIA Airlines Limited and Vistara obtained a permanent injunction against a former employee for making defamatory posts about the company and its trademark 'Vistara' on social media. The defendant claimed he did not post any derogatory content and expressed positive sentiments towards the plaintiffs. The objectionable posts have been removed.

TEJO RATNA KONGARA VS NATIONAL HOUSING BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4113/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The writ petition by a minority shareholder in Indiabulls Real Estate Limited (IBREL) was dismissed, seeking investigation into loan irregularities by Indiabulls Housing Finance Limited (IBHFL) related to the Embassy Group. The petitioner, engaged in ongoing litigation against IBREL, attempted to use the writ jurisdiction to collect evidence for his disputes. This approach was viewed as a misuse of the court's process, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

TEXZONE INFORMATION SERVICES PVT LTD VS ANKUR GOEL & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-813/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondents demonstrated substantial compliance with a previous settlement agreement by displaying the required disclaimer at their exhibition's entry and exit points, as evidenced by submitted photographs. Since the petitioner did not conduct any exhibitions in Delhi and the respondents primarily operated in northern India, no contempt was established, emphasizing the importance of caution over minute details in cases of substantial compliance.

THE INDIAN HOTELS COMPANY LIMITED VS MANOJ [CS(COMM)-683/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's unauthorized use of the plaintiff's registered trademarks 'TAJ', associated devices, and copyrighted content constituted infringement and passing off. A permanent injunction was issued to prevent the defendant from using the plaintiff's trademarks and reproducing their content. Damages of Rs. 10 lakhs and costs of Rs. 5 lakhs were awarded due to the defendant's malafide and fraudulent conduct, which included impersonation of the plaintiff and defrauding a jeweler.

THE SUPREME INDUSTRIES LIMITED VS ANKIT GOEL TRADING AS GOEL TRADING COMPANY [RFA-IPD-7/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The dismissal of the appellant's second suit regarding the new infringing mark "SUPREME WATERLINE" was set aside, establishing that this new act of infringement created a fresh cause of action. The second suit included an additional claim for copyright infringement, which was absent in the earlier suit. The case was decreed in favor of the appellant, with costs imposed on the respondent.

TREASURE STUDIO INC & ANR. VS MOHIT KHUNGAR & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-297/2023]
Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna
The registration of the trademark "COCOMELON" in favor of the respondent is liable to be rectified and removed from the Trade Marks Register due to dishonest and unfair adoption, likely causing confusion with the petitioners' well-known trademark. The registration contravenes various provisions of the Trade Marks Act, 1999, leading to a directive for cancellation.

UBE INDUSTRIES LIMITED & ANR VS S. VIJAYA BHASKAR & ORS [CS(COMM)-807/2017]
Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna
UBE Industries Limited and its Indian subsidiary are established prior registered proprietors of the 'UBE' trademark in India since 1972, having built substantial goodwill and reputation in the mark. The defendants' claims of prior use since 1988 were contradicted by evidence, leading to a determination of trademark infringement and passing off. The argument that mere registration of a trade name serves as a defense was rejected, emphasizing that rights are based on prior use and goodwill. The defendants were deemed unlikely to successfully defend against the claims, resulting in a decree in favor of the plaintiffs, granting a permanent injunction and costs.

URMIL MITTAL VS TAJOH TALOH [CONT.CAS(C)-406/2013]
Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna
No contempt was committed regarding the earlier order from February 1, 2013. The Registrar of Cooperative Societies issued a final order on July 29, 2013, disqualifying all petitioners from membership, which the petitioners later appealed but was dismissed by the Financial Commissioner. Substantial compliance with previous directions was observed, and as there were two equally consistent possibilities, no grounds for contempt were established. The contempt petition was dismissed.

VARINDER KAUR VS JASVINDER KAUR BHATIA & ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-797/2019]
Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna
The contempt petition filed by Varinder Kaur was dismissed. Kaur had abandoned her challenge regarding the applicability of the Memorandum dated 01 December 2005, which was central to her claim for higher grade pay and arrears under the 6th Central Pay Commission. The Department of Education determined that the Memorandum did not apply to Kaur, and this decision was not contested by her. As a result, Kaur's claim for arrears based on higher grade pay could not be granted. However, she was permitted to challenge the Department of Education's order separately, as her entire claim relied on the Memorandum.

VERIZON TRADEMARK SERVICES LLC & ORS. VS VERIZON GLOBAL & ORS. [CS(COMM)-105/2023]
Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna
Verizon Trademark Services LLC was granted a summary judgment against Verizon Global due to the infringement of the 'VERIZON' trademark, which is recognized as a well-known mark under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. The defendant's use of a similar mark was classified as trademark infringement, passing off, and unfair competition. The defendant did not respond within the statutory period, indicating no viable defense. The judgment was based on the established well-known status of the trademark and the clear infringement by the defendant.

VIJAY KHODARIA AND ANR VS JAGPAL SINGH AND ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-635/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

A contempt petition addressed allegations of willful disobedience regarding unauthorized construction. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi issued a demolition order for unauthorized construction, exempting the 2nd and 3rd floors under the National Capital Territory of Delhi Laws (Special Provisions) Act, 2011. The ground and 1st floors should have received similar protection, as they likely predated the upper floors. The contempt petition was disposed of, allowing the petitioners to pursue other legal remedies related to their easement rights.

VISHWAJEET SINGH AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14960/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Apartments in Signature View are deemed structurally unsafe and must be demolished and reconstructed by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA). Apartment owners possess proportionate undivided rights in common areas under the Delhi Apartment Ownership Act, which takes precedence over DDA's plans to construct additional flats using enhanced Floor Area Ratio. The DDA is required to pay rent to residents during the reconstruction phase and is prohibited from building extra flats, ensuring the benefits of enhanced FAR accrue to the apartment owners. The Municipal Corporation's order declaring the buildings dangerous is upheld.

VIVO MOBILE COMMUNICATION CO LTD VS MR JITENDRA KUMAR TIWARI TRADING AS MAA VAISHNAVI CHEMICALS [CS(COMM)-510/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's adoption and use of the "VIVO" mark and a similar logo constituted trademark infringement and passing off against the plaintiff's registered trademark rights. A permanent injunction was issued to restrain the defendant from using the "VIVO" mark or any deceptively similar mark. The plaintiff's "VIVO" marks were declared well-known trademarks in India due to their extensive use, promotion, and reputation. Costs of the litigation were awarded to the plaintiff.

WATEROTOR ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES INC VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-IPD-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The deemed abandonment of the petitioner's patent application was set aside due to miscommunication between patent agents in Canada and India, resulting in the petitioner not receiving the First Examination Report (FER). The requirement for detailed discussion about the FER was emphasized, indicating that a phone call alone was insufficient. The unique circumstances involving the location of the petitioner and agents were considered, leading to the revival of the patent application and a directive to update its status as pending. The petitioner was granted four weeks to respond to the FER, which the respondent must review according to the law. No findings were made regarding alleged negligence of the patent agents.

WOW MOMO FOODS PRIVATE LIMITED VS WOW CHINESE [CS(COMM)-203/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's trademark "Wow! Chinese" is identical and deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered trademark "Wow! Chinese". The defendant did not file a written statement or provide justification for using the infringing mark, indicating an intention to unlawfully benefit from the plaintiff's goodwill. The plaintiff was awarded nominal costs of Rs. 2 Lakh.

YAHOO INC VS OMKAR COTTAGE INDUSTRIES [CS(COMM)-909/2022]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Yahoo Inc. has established its rights over the trademark "YAHOO!" The use of the mark "YAAHOO! Mouth Freshner" by the defendant is considered trademark infringement and passing off. The defendant's actions are deemed dishonest, leading to an award of compensatory damages of R.S. 27,00,000 and costs of R.S. 8,92,451. A permanent injunction has been granted, preventing the defendant from further infringing on Yahoo Inc.'s trademark rights.

YAMUNA KHADAR SLUM UNION VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS [W.P.(C)-10900/2019]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

Petitioners residing in alleged Jhuggi Jhopri (JJ) Clusters are not eligible for rehabilitation as these clusters are not part of the 675 identified by the Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB). The land in question belongs to the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), and the clusters are situated on the Yamuna Floodplains, unsuitable for residential use. Only clusters existing before January 1, 2006 qualify for rehabilitation, and the petitioners could not prove their existence before this date. The DUSIB survey, which identified eligible clusters, is final, precluding any new assessments. Petitioners may seek accommodations under other government schemes if eligible. The DDA is permitted to continue demolitions of the encroachments and must provide temporary shelter to affected dwellers while they arrange alternatives.

YUVA SANGHARSH SAMITI (RWA REGD.) VS VIJAY KUMAR DEV - CHIEF SECRETARY OFFICE & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-692/2021]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The respondent authorities substantially complied with the directive regarding alleged encroachment and unauthorized constructions on public land and the Delhi Gate Qabristan. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi removed 49 out of 51 illegal structures, with 2 electricity transformers remaining. The Delhi Waqf Board issued notices to 7 encroachers and is referring the matter to the Waqf Tribunal for eviction. The notice of contempt was discharged, and the contempt petition was disposed of.

ZAHID HUSSAIN VS KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LTD. [W.P.(C)-5452/2024]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner's writ petition challenging the possession notice under the SARFAESI Act is not maintainable due to the availability of an alternative statutory remedy through the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT). The DRT can address legal and factual issues raised by the petitioner, such as the validity of the notice issued against a deceased person and the proper service of notice to legal heirs. The matter is to be considered in appropriate proceedings before the DRT, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open.

ZYDUS HEALTHCARE LIMITED & ORS. VS ALDER BIOCHEM PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-516/2023]

Judges: Justice Mini Pushkarna

The defendant's use of the "ALDER BIOCHEM" mark infringes on the plaintiff's registered "BIOCHEM" trademark and constitutes passing off. The mark is considered deceptively similar, prominently featuring the essential part of the plaintiff's mark. An interim injunction is granted, preventing the defendant from using "ALDER BIOCHEM" or any similar marks. The observations pertain solely to the interim injunction application, with final merits to be assessed at trial.

A VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1142/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's challenge to the anticipatory bail granted to the respondent was dismissed due to the lack of merit. Allegations against the respondent were deemed vague and unsupported by public witnesses or investigations. The petitioner can report any future threats to the police for investigation.

ABC VS STATE GOVT.OF N.C.T.DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2567/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order granting regular bail to the respondents was obtained through fraudulent means, as they misled the Metropolitan Magistrate about having been granted interim bail by the High Court. In reality, the High Court had only provided interim protection against coercive action, contingent upon the respondents joining the investigation. The Metropolitan Magistrate lacked jurisdiction to grant regular bail after the charge sheet was filed for an offense under Section 376D IPC. The protection was extended for 4 weeks to allow the respondents to file a new bail application before the Trial Court, which must consider it without influence from the original order.

ABDUL SALAM VS STATE OF NCT DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-524/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order framing charges against Abdul Salam under Sections 308/323/147/149 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld. At the charge framing stage, a prima facie case is sufficient; the prosecution's case does not need to meet the standard of proof beyond reasonable doubt. The discharge of other accused in a separate case for the same incident did not impact the case against Salam, as it was intended to avoid duplicate trials. The criminal revision petition was dismissed.

ABHISHEK VERMA VS ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE [CRL.M.C.-3732/2011]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Charges against M/s Esam India Ltd. cannot be framed through Abhishek Verma, as he is no longer authorized to represent the company. Only the Provisional Liquidator can represent the company in trial proceedings. Charges against the company must be framed through the Provisional Liquidator, while individual charges against Abhishek Verma under the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act remain unaffected.

ADESH TYAGI VS POOJA KAUR [CRL.M.C.-233/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The requirement for a mandatory pre-deposit of 20% of compensation under Section 148 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is not absolute; attending circumstances must be considered to ensure the appellant's right to appeal is not negated. In this case, the appellant had already recovered more than 20% of the compensation through a civil decree. The previously deposited amount will remain until the appeal is resolved, and the lower appellate court has been asked to expedite the appeal's adjudication within one month.

AJAY GOYAL VS THE STATE AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2005/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Ajay Goyal to quash the FIR in Delhi was dismissed. A key part of the alleged offence, involving the obtaining of original property documents from the complainant in Delhi, validated the jurisdiction for the FIR. Arguments that the offence occurred entirely in Dehradun were rejected. The power to quash an FIR is to be used sparingly, and Goyal did not provide sufficient grounds for such action. The investigation is authorized to continue.

AJEY KUMAR MISHRA VS SANGEETA MISHRA & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-138/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner husband's monthly income was established at Rs. 70,000, supported by evidence of his music academy and performances. It was acknowledged that parties may conceal true income in maintenance disputes, allowing some estimation for a reasonable figure. The respondent wife has begun working, presenting a changed circumstance that may warrant modification of the maintenance amount. The petitioner is required to pay arrears of maintenance but may seek to modify the interim maintenance order based on the wife's new employment.

AJIT SINGH CHAUHAN VS STATE THR. THR. GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-1543/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Charges against Ajit Singh Chauhan under Sections 323/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code were deemed unsustainable due to the complainant's contradictory statements, initially naming only her sister-in-law Anjali as the assailant and later including the petitioner. Allegations of insulting the complainant's modesty were found to be vague, making it impossible to frame charges on such grounds. The petitioner's petition was partially allowed, setting aside the charges under Sections 323/509/34 IPC, while no opinion was expressed regarding a potential charge under Section 506 Part-II IPC. The sister-in-law Anjali had previously been discharged from the offences without challenge to that order.

AJIT SINGH VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3390/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Ajit Singh was granted bail in a case involving murder and conspiracy. The evidence against him, mainly based on the complainant's statement and circumstantial evidence, was deemed weak. His status as a "bad character" was not sufficient grounds for bail denial. Another co-accused had already received bail, and the trial's timeline was uncertain. Conditions for his bail included not leaving the country without permission, providing a permanent address, and avoiding interference with the investigation or contact with the complainant or victim's family.

AKASH MISHRA VS SHIVAM BHAGAT [CRL.M.C.-1067/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitions seeking to quash complaints under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were dismissed due to inordinate delay and failure to pursue an alternative remedy through a revision petition. There was no interference with the maintainability of the complaints, and disputed facts regarding the adequacy of notice, nature of the cheques, and liability of resigned directors were deemed appropriate for resolution by the trial court. The trial court was instructed to expedite the adjudication of the cases, aiming for a resolution within six months.

AKIL AHMED VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-3720/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The cost of Rs. 10,000 imposed on Akil Ahmed for recalling a witness is waived due to his financial constraints, as indicated by representation from a senior counsel pro bono and a reduced surety bail amount from the trial court. Despite claims of delays, Ahmed assured that the cross-examination would be completed in one day without adjournment. As a result, the order to waive the cost is modified, and the dismissal of his application for waiver is set aside.

ALKA VS STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-115/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's challenge to the dismissal of their application for a police investigation was dismissed. The identity of the accused was known, and relevant documents were available to the parties, making police assistance unnecessary. A Second Revision was not maintainable due to a statutory bar, and the case relied on documentary evidence, which justified the lower courts' dismissal of the application. Additionally, the complaint under Section 200 of the Cr.P.C. was dismissed in default, rendering the current petition no longer valid.

AMAN JAIN VS CUSTOMS [CRL.REV.P.-854/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Aman Jain's criminal revision petition regarding the denial of his passport for studying abroad was accepted. The right to travel internationally is part of personal liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution and cannot be restricted without lawful procedure. The lower court's denial was deemed unjustified, as allegations against the petitioner's brother did not warrant limiting his travel rights. Aman Jain was permitted to submit a new application with updated information, which the lower court must address expediently.

AMARENDRA DHARI SINGH VS ADITI SHIVINDER SINGH [CS(OS)-243/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The defendant admitted to borrowing R.S. 66.70 crores from the plaintiff. The claim that repayment was conditional on ability was rejected, rendering the transactions as gifts instead of loans. The defendant's arguments were deemed vague and contradictory. A judgment on admission favored the plaintiff, ordering the defendant to pay R.S. 66.70 crores plus costs. The issue regarding the dated cheques was dismissed, with the finding that dating them did not constitute a material alteration.

AMARENDRA DHARI SINGH VS ARUNDHATI KHANNA [CS(OS)-233/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The defendants admitted to taking loans from the plaintiff but contended that repayment was conditional upon their ability to pay, rather than on demand. Their argument that filling in dates on undated cheques constituted a material alteration was rejected. With no genuine triable defense presented, the applications for leave to defend were dismissed, and the defendants were ordered to repay the loan amounts to the plaintiff.

AMARJEET SINGH DHILLON VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-3814/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

At the stage of considering an application for statutory bail under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the trial court should not assess the merits of the case. The focus should be on whether the investigation was completed within the required timeframe. Statutory bail is a constitutional right and can be challenged in revision, as it is not purely interlocutory. The order granting statutory bail by the trial court was set aside.

AMIT CHOUDHRY VS KAVANDEEP SINGH SAMPURAN [CRL.M.C.-2358/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The trial court erred by allowing the respondent to withdraw consent for the petitioner's cross-examination via video conferencing (VC). Proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act are civil in nature, and established procedures for VC should be adhered to. The order allowing the withdrawal was set aside, and further examination of the petitioner/complainant is to proceed through VC, following specific guidelines. However, the trial court may require the physical presence of the petitioner/complainant if there are valid reasons.

K.K. GUPTA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3031/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order summoning Amit Jain, K.K. Gupta, and Akshay Kumar Jain as accused under Sections 420 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code was deemed unjustified. The complaint against Renu Gupta, Alka Gupta, and Achla Gupta was found unsustainable since they were not involved in the alleged falsification of the arbitration record and were only included as legal representatives of their deceased father. The matter was remanded to the trial court for reconsideration of the summoning of the remaining petitioners, specifically to assess whether the essential elements of the offense under Section 420 IPC were established based on pre-summoning evidence. No opinion was offered on the merits of other contentions raised by the parties.

ANIL KUMAR JAIN VS STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-568/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition to quash the FIR regarding allegations of a forged Will was not allowed. The existence of a civil dispute does not negate the prima facie grounds identified for the FIR's registration. Criminal proceedings cannot be dismissed simply due to the civil aspects of the case. The petition was dismissed, with no prejudice to the investigation or parties involved.

ANIL KUMAR VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1820/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's seized vehicle can be released on superdari upon providing a surety of Rs. 1 lakh. The condition to give an undertaking that the vehicle will not be used for a similar offense was rejected, as it is not required by law. The purpose of the surety is to ensure the vehicle's production before the trial court.

ANIL METRE VS POOJA PRESS AND PRAKASHAN PVT. LTD [CRL.M.C.-1731/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order of the Additional Sessions Judge, which allowed revision petitions from the respondent and set aside a previous Metropolitan Magistrate order, has been set aside. The petitioner was not given an opportunity to respond to the revision petitions. The revision petitions have been restored to their original numbers, with the petitioner required to file a reply within 3 weeks and the respondent given 3 weeks thereafter for a rejoinder. The Additional Sessions Judge is instructed to decide the matters expeditiously after hearing both parties, without considering any prior observations. This involves a batch of 11 criminal miscellaneous petitions from the same petitioner challenging the same order.

ANISA SINGH AND ANR VS SIR SOBHA SINGH PUBLIC CHARITABLE TRUST AND ORS [CM(M)-1109/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The suit filed by the respondent trust, although seeking a mandatory injunction, is essentially a suit for possession against the petitioners as ex-licensees, triggering the application of Order XX Rule 12 CPC and Order XV-A CPC. Issues arose regarding the determination of the amount to be paid by the petitioners and the period for payment, as relevant factors were not adequately considered. The previous order was set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh determination in line with the law and evidence on record.

ANKIT VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3358/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Ankit's application for interim bail on medical grounds was dismissed due to the injury being over 3 years old and the regular hospital visits he received while in custody. The decision emphasized that interim bail is only appropriate if prison treatment is insufficient or specific medical attention is required. Despite the denial of bail, jail authorities were instructed to take Ankit for scheduled surgery and subsequent post-operative care.

ANNIE THOMAS & ANR. VS PAWAN HANS HELICOPTERS LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7455/2014]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioners are entitled to additional insurance coverage of Rs. 30 lakhs each, based on Pawan Hans Helicopters Ltd.'s prior practice of securing and renewing insurance for pilots in Naxal-affected areas. The failure to renew the policy before the accident does not negate this expectation. Pawan Hans Helicopters Ltd. is to pay the additional amount along with interest.

ANURAV JAJU VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2168/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The applicants are not entitled to anticipatory bail due to serious allegations of forgery related to loan acquisition. Evidence, including an FSL report, indicates that two applicants forged the complainant's signatures and siphoned loan funds into personal accounts. The nature of the economic offences necessitates custodial interrogation for proper investigation, balancing individual rights with public interest. The anticipatory bail applications were dismissed, with an emphasis on police discretion regarding arrests.

ARUN KUMAR @ VARUN VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [CRL.REV.P.-495/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Arun Kumar @ Varun challenging the framing of charges under the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act was dismissed. The assessment at the charge-framing stage focuses on the existence of a prima facie case, not the likelihood of conviction. Evidence presented included recovery of contraband from co-accused, financial transactions between them, and incriminating data on the petitioner's mobile phone. A previous bail order does not affect the framing of charges, as standards differ. The observations made should not influence the trial court's proceedings.

ARUN KUMAR GOENKA VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-954/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The CBI must provide the petitioner with certain un-relied documents mentioned in the Compliance Report, as they are relevant for the defense. The petitioner has a right to access these documents to ensure a fair trial. The CBI is directed to supply copies of documents specified in paragraphs 3(1) and 3(7) of the Compliance Report. For documents in paragraph 3(3), which are claimed to be confidential, the CBI must file an affidavit before the trial court to assert their confidentiality, with the trial court to consider the application accordingly.

ARVIND BALI VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-231/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The anticipatory bail application of Arvind Bali, CEO of a company where the complainant was employed, was dismissed. Bali was found to be in a fiduciary relationship with the complainant, having introduced her to the job and serving as her superior. Due to the implications of Section 376(2)(k) of the Indian Penal Code and Section 114A of the Indian Evidence Act, a presumption of lack of consent was established. Bali did not present sufficient grounds for anticipatory bail.

ATUL PRAKASH & ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3340/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The offence charged against the petitioners was deemed predominantly civil, arising from a commercial transaction. The main accused had passed away during the trial, and the petitioners had endured the stigma of being accused for 22 years. Given the nature of the offence and the circumstances, the FIR and the subsequent conviction of the petitioners were quashed, contingent upon the payment of costs. It was noted that punishment is not the only means of achieving justice, and in non-heinous cases, quashing a conviction post-conviction may be justified.

BABITA JAIN VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-4693/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was allowed, resulting in the trial court's order summoning Babita Jain as an accused being set aside. The allegations against her were deemed vague and not supported by corroborative evidence, even after a police investigation. The case was identified as manifestly frivolous or vexatious, with no material present to justify proceedings against her.

BALCORP LIMITED VS M/S GANGA RAM BRIJ MOHAN [CS(COMM)-1318/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The suit against "M/s Ganga Ram Brij Mohan" is maintainable under Order XXX Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, allowing a plaintiff to sue a defendant operating under a different business name. The defendant, Mr. Brij Mohan Goel, may file endorsed copies of the written statement previously submitted by Mr. Ankit Goel, along with an affidavit and Statement of Truth. This approach prevents dismissal on technical grounds and aims for a merits-based resolution. The defendant is also required to pay costs due to delays in the case.

BALMEET SINGH KATHURIA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3097/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Balmeet Singh Kathuria challenging his conviction for an offense under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The notice from the Magistrate was clear, and the plea of guilt was recorded in compliance with legal requirements. The argument that the plea was made due to a mistake or misunderstanding lacked merit, as he was represented by counsel and did not contest the plea until the sentencing.

MOHD DANISH VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-621/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Bail was granted to Banadik and Mohd. Danish, accused under various sections of the IPC and the Arms Act. The case relied on call data records but lacked CCTV evidence linking the applicants to the crime. Both applicants had been in custody for an extended period, and the delay in trial impacted their right to personal liberty. Bail was granted with conditions to prevent misuse of liberty and tampering with evidence or witness intimidation.

BANTY VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.REV.P.-407/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The charge sheet in this case was filed on 11.03.2024, despite the physical copy being submitted on 13.03.2024. Filing within the 90-day period under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure removed the petitioner's right to statutory bail, regardless of whether cognizance was taken. The right to statutory bail ceases to exist once the charge sheet is filed.

BHANWAR SINGH SAINI VS STATE (GNCTD) ORS [CRL.M.C.-1473/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's criminal petition challenging the rejection of his application for a police investigation into a family dispute was dismissed. The matter was determined to be primarily civil, related to a property claim, and the authorities had the discretion to decline the request for police intervention since the evidence was already available to the complainant. The existing orders were deemed without infirmity, and the observations made will not affect ongoing proceedings before the Magistrate.

BHARAT KUMAR CHAUDHARY VS NAVIN MALHOTRA [CS(OS)-28/2015]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The agreement dated 14.06.2014 between the plaintiff and defendant no. 1 is valid, and defendant no. 1 breached it by filing a criminal complaint against the plaintiff after receiving Rs. 3 crores as per the settlement. The stipulated Rs. 3 crores for liquidated damages is considered a genuine pre-estimate of the plaintiff's damages, allowing recovery of this amount. Interest at 4% per annum on the decretal amount is awarded from the date of filing the suit until payment. The claim for an additional Rs. 50 lakhs is rejected as it was not included in the agreement. The judgment does not impact the ongoing police investigation concerning the FIR filed by defendant no. 1.

BISHAMBER DAYAL GUPTA VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1075/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The application for anticipatory bail by Bishamber Dayal Gupta was dismissed due to his involvement in creating false documents to claim title over property belonging to the complainant's late mother. Although Gupta provided a complete chain of documents, discrepancies were highlighted by the prosecution. Other individuals tied to the case were absconding, and proceedings under Section 82 of the Cr.P.C. were ongoing against Gupta. These factors, coupled with the prior rejection of his application on similar grounds, indicated that he did not establish a case for anticipatory bail.

CHANDER SHEKHAR YADAV & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5539/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The FIR and chargesheet against the petitioners were quashed due to allegations made with mala fide intent related to a private dispute over temple management. Evidence, including CCTV footage, contradicted the complainant's oral allegations. Frivolous or vexatious complaints must be quashed to protect the accused from harassment, regardless of the sufficiency of the victim's testimony.

CLARION DEALING PVT. LTD. VS COMPETENT FINLEASE PVT. LTD. & ANR. [CS(COMM)-173/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The defendant's application to amend its written statement and submit additional documents regarding the share transfer to Avtar Instalments Pvt. Ltd. (AIPL) and the loan to the plaintiff was allowed. The amendment was seen as an elaboration on an existing defense, and the timing before the trial warranted a liberal approach. Previous findings regarding the lack of a direct link between agreements did not prevent consideration of the defendant's claims and defenses. The amendment was permitted without the plaintiff's acknowledgment of its contents, and the plaintiff was instructed to file a replication and an affidavit of admission/denial concerning the new documents.

DALJEET SINGH SAINI VS THE STATE AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-2446/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition challenging the dismissal of an application under Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code to recall the complainant for further cross-examination was dismissed. The application lacked specific details and presented vague reasons without demonstrating how the fair trial was compromised. The power under Section 311 is to be used sparingly to prevent abuse of the legal process. The delay in filing the application and absence of valid justifications contributed to the dismissal.

DEEPAK MEHTA & ANR. VS NIRMAL JINDAL [CS(OS)-516/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiffs substantiated their ownership of the disputed property through a series of registered sale deeds. Evidence, including a forensic report, indicated that the defendant's sale deed was based on forged documents. The defendant's sale deed was declared illegal and null and void, confirming the plaintiffs as the absolute owners. A permanent injunction was issued to prevent the defendant from creating any third-party interest in the property. The plaintiffs' claim for damages was rejected due to insufficient evidence, but they were awarded costs for the suit.

DEEPIKA PRASHAR & ANR VS SUMAN SINGH VIRK AND ANR [CS(OS)-71/2015]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The Family Settlement dated 27.11.2012 is valid and binding, requiring the defendants to relinquish possession of the fourth floor of the property to the plaintiffs. Mesne profits/damages are awarded to the plaintiffs at Rs. 48,000 per month from the suit's filing date until possession is handed over, with 6% interest. Initially, the defendants denied the settlement's existence but later admitted their signatures, confirming it as a genuine effort to resolve family disputes and equitably divide property. A previous order was reiterated to file a complaint against the defendants for making false claims regarding the Family Settlement.

DEV KUMAR @ GOLU VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2382/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Bail applications for Vishwajeet Singh and Dev Kumar @ Golu were approved in an NDPS Act case. The prosecution's argument to combine narcotics quantities requires trial consideration. The absence of criminal history and prolonged incarceration were highlighted as violations of their right to life and liberty under Article 21 due to trial delays. Bail was granted with conditions to uphold the right to a speedy trial, despite stringent NDPS requirements.

DEV SINGH & ANR. VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE (DRI) [CRL.REV.P.-328/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order to frame charges against the petitioners under Sections 29/23 read with Section 28 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 was upheld. At the charge-framing stage, the material on record indicated a strong suspicion of the accused's involvement rather than requiring sufficient evidence for conviction. The prosecution's allegations, including the recovery of documents and WhatsApp conversations, established a prima facie case for the petitioners' alleged conspiracy to import heroin disguised as rock salt.

DEV VART VS BANK OF BARODA [CRL.M.C.-2935/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A complaint filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act before the 15-day notice period is invalid and cannot be acknowledged. The complaint from the Bank of Baroda against Dev Vart was dismissed, but the Bank may file a new complaint and request consideration for any delays. Additionally, the trial court is encouraged to expedite the handling of the new complaint within one year.

DHEERPAL ALIAS KANA VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-593/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A prima facie case exists against the applicant under the Maharashtra Control of Organised Crime Act (MCOCA) due to prior criminal involvement and collected evidence. Arguments regarding the applicant's discharge or acquittal in earlier cases do not prevent MCOCA proceedings, as the reasons for those outcomes need examination by the trial court. Bail was denied based on the co-accused's history of jumping bail and the applicant's failure to surrender after being granted interim bail, indicating both are flight risks.

DHRUV VARMA VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2325/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition under Section 482 of the CrPC was dismissed due to a delay of over 15 years. The omission of details regarding a third cheque in the complaint was considered a typographical error, with an acceptable explanation provided. The petitioner had been in trial for the dishonor of all three cheques for more than 15 years, making it inappropriate to quash the proceedings at this late stage. The petition was dismissed with costs.

DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT THR. ASSISTANT DIRECTOR VS AMIT KUMAR RAUT @ AMISH RAVAL [CRL.M.C.-4332/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by the Directorate of Enforcement, challenging the bail granted to Amit Kumar Raut @ Amish Raval in a case under the Prevention of Money-Laundering Act, 2002, was dismissed. The general directions regarding the procedure for producing an accused who was not arrested during investigation apply to PMLA cases. It was established that an accused appearing in court on a summons in a PMLA complaint cannot be taken into custody and must be released upon furnishing a bond under Section 88 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

THE DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE VS DEV SINGH [CRL.M.C.-5591/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Petitions for cancellation of bail for Dev Singh and Abdul Nasir were dismissed. The trial court had granted bail after considering the restrictions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, citing the lack of admissible evidence against the respondents, primarily relying on statements from co-accused. No infirmities were identified in the trial court's reasoning. This case involved two petitions with common issues and facts.

DR KIRAN PAL SINGH VS PURNIMA SINGH [CRL.M.C.-3370/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The dismissal of the defamation complaint was upheld due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the complaint did not specify the place of publication and the parties' addresses were outside the trial court's jurisdiction. The dismissal is not on merits, allowing the petitioner to file the complaint in the appropriate court with jurisdiction.

DR. (MS.) USHA AGGARWAL VS SHRI AVDESH CHAND GUPTA & ORS. [CS(OS)-396/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

In a case involving the substitution of a deceased plaintiff, it is necessary to determine the legal heir(s) in accordance with Section 15(1)(d) of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, despite a registered will favoring the appellant. The requirement for the appellant to provide details of the deceased plaintiff's legal heirs was upheld. The appeal was dismissed, noting that issues related to Order XXII Rule 5 of the Code of Civil Procedure would only arise if the legal heirs object to the substitution, which has not occurred.

DR. ALOK KUMAR TIWARI VS SMT. MAMTA [CRL.REV.P.-1281/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The maintenance order of R.S. 20,000 per month was upheld in a case involving cross-petitions by the husband and wife. The court acknowledged that parties often do not fully disclose their income during maintenance proceedings, allowing some estimation to determine a reasonable figure. The decision balanced the rights and interests of both parties, taking into account the husband's previous income, the wife's employment status, and their living standards. The court indicated that the wife could submit a new application under Section 127 of the Cr.P.C. if her circumstances changed.

DR. KALIND PARASHAR VS DR. KAVERI PARASHAR [CRL.M.C.-3967/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Objections regarding the territorial jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Magistrate's court in a domestic violence complaint cannot be considered at the preliminary stage. The respondent's claim of permanent residence within the jurisdiction must be accepted. Allegations of mala fide intent or issues from previous litigations in the USA should be addressed by the Metropolitan Magistrate at a later stage. The petition challenging the lower court orders was dismissed.

DR. SENTHIL KUMAR DHARMAN VS S. THANGALAKHSMI [CRL.REV.P.-169/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's revision petition was dismissed, and the appellate court's decision to restore the respondent's domestic violence complaint was upheld. The respondent had a statutory right to file the complaint under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, which remained intact despite a previous compromise. The respondent established a fresh cause of action based on the petitioner's alleged violation of a settlement agreement and ongoing acts of domestic violence. There was no identified error in the appellate court's rationale.

DR. TABASSUM SAIFI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2742/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Dr. Tabassum Saifi did not establish a case for anticipatory bail due to allegations of impersonating a qualified MBBS doctor and using a forged stamp to treat a deceased patient. This situation involves charges of impersonation and forgery under Sections 463/464/471/478 of the Indian Penal Code, suggesting the need for custodial interrogation to uncover the truth. No exceptional circumstances for anticipatory bail were demonstrated.

ESVINDER SINGH & ORS. VS CHASVINDER SINGH & ORS. [EX.P.-39/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The application by the Judgment Debtors was allowed, setting aside directions for the payment of government commission and deposit of the remaining sale consideration. The Local Commissioner's fee was fixed at Rs. 2.5 lakhs, and the provisions regarding auctioneer's commission were deemed inapplicable as the Commissioner was assisting in executing a previous order for the sale of jointly owned properties. Parties were instructed to execute the sale deed directly with the successful bidder upon receiving the balance sale consideration.

FAIZAN UMAR & ANR. VS THE STATE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-570/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

In a property dispute involving an FIR, it was noted that an empty cartridge was recovered, but no weapon was found, and the polygraph test was inconclusive. A settlement between the parties and the complainant's reluctance to pursue the complaint indicated that continuing proceedings would lead to unnecessary conflict and burden the legal system. The FIR and all consequential proceedings were quashed, conditional on the petitioners depositing costs with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority for POCSO victims.

FAYAZ ALAM VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-138/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The revision petition by Fayaz Alam against his conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The complainant met the necessary requirements, and the petitioner's defense lacked reliable evidence. The concurrent findings of the trial court and appellate court were upheld, as the petitioner sought re-appreciation of evidence beyond the scope of revisional jurisdiction.

GAGAN DEEP DUGAL & ORS. VS RELIGARE HOUSING DEVELOPMENT FINANCE CORPORATION LTD. [CM(M)-788/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The respondent is entitled to file a reply to the complaint, with the period for filing commencing only after the complaint is admitted. The request for an interim order to prevent the respondent from demanding further EMIs lacked merit, as the petitioners had previously filed multiple petitions and had an alternative remedy of appeal available. The petition was dismissed due to the absence of jurisdictional error or merit in the petitioners' arguments.

GARHWAL JEMS AND JEWELLERY PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS RMI STEELS LTD. THROUGH ITS AUHTORIZED REPRESENTATIVE [CRL.M.C.-2452/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The complaint under Sections 138 and 142 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed due to the absence of necessary averments for the debt/liability. The terms of the Agreement to Sell and Addendum indicated that the liability connected to the Rs. 75 lakhs cheque had not arisen, thus failing to satisfy the ingredients of the offence under Section 138.

GEORGE NINAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4342/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by the Chief Financial Officer of the accused company to quash a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The CFO can be held liable under Section 141 of the NI Act, even without being a signatory to the dishonored cheque, due to his position as Key Managerial Personnel. A person signing a cheque on behalf of a company is presumed to be responsible for the company's business conduct.

GOPAL PRASAD AGARWAL VS BLS POLYMERS LTD [CRL.M.C.-7003/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against Gopal Prasad Agarwal is maintainable, with necessary averments present to establish vicarious liability under Section 141. The petitioner failed to present any evidence demonstrating a lack of involvement in the issuance of the dishonored cheque. Petitions challenging the summoning orders and framing of notice have been dismissed.

GULFAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4324/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Charges against Gulfam are serious; however, the credibility of prosecution witnesses should not be evaluated in detail at the bail stage. Applicability of Section 149 IPC cannot rely on vague evidence and general allegations. The long period of incarceration and Gulfam's familial responsibilities are relevant factors in the bail decision. Bail has been granted subject to conditions to ensure availability for trial and prevent evidence tampering or witness influence. Observations made are solely for the bail application and do not reflect on the final merits of the case.

GURPREET SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-857/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The accused is entitled to bail due to non-compliance with the sampling procedure, which raises reasonable doubts about guilt, and significant trial delays, with only 2 of 22 witnesses examined after over 3.5 years. The delays, not caused by the accused, violate the right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution. Bail is granted subject to specific conditions, taking into account the accused's right to personal liberty and stringent bail conditions in the NDPS Act.

GURVINDER KAUR VS HIMANSHU GUPTA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-423/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The President and General Secretary of the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee (DSGMC) are guilty of willful non-compliance with a previous judgment regarding the payment of arrears related to the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commission, as well as transport allowance, dearness allowance, and retiral benefits for teachers and staff. Show cause notices were issued to DSGMC officials and prior committee members for potential contempt. A Forensic Auditor was appointed to investigate the financial affairs of the Guru Harkrishan Public School (ND) Society and its schools. DSGMC was directed to provide necessary funds for timely salary payments according to the 7th CPC and to clear arrears with interest from the 6th CPC. Any rent received by the GHPS (ND) Society, its schools, and/or DSGMC is attached for the sole purpose of settling these arrears.

HAJI ASHRAF VS STATE GOVT NCT OF DELHI NEW DELHI [CRL.M.C.-3860/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner was discharged from charges of theft under Section 380 and wrongful restraint under Section 341 of the Indian Penal Code due to insufficient evidence regarding the alleged theft of onions. However, the trial will proceed on charges of causing hurt under Section 323 and trespass under Section 448, in conjunction with Section 34, as the allegations were supported by the complainant's and injured person's statements.

HARBHAJAN SINGH VS THE STATE OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-292/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order framing charges against the petitioner under Section 23 of the Juvenile Justice Act was set aside due to a lack of documentary proof of the victim's age, with a medical examination estimating her age as between 16-18 years. The principle of giving the benefit of doubt regarding the victim's age was applied, resulting in the discharge of the petitioner from the charges.

HARPREET SAHNI & ANR. VS VINOD HEMNANI [CRL.M.C.-6097/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The complaint against the petitioners, who are Trustees of the accused trust, is maintainable under Section 138 and Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The notice required by Section 138 was properly served on the trust, implicating the Trustees who are deemed aware of it and can be held responsible under Section 141 without needing separate individual notices. The pleadings in the complaint sufficiently establish liability against the petitioners as Trustees managing the trust's business. While the petitioners' defense can be argued at trial, it is not relevant at the summoning stage. The petitions challenging their summoning as accused were dismissed, and no opinion on the merits of the case was expressed, ensuring no prejudice to the petitioners' defense.

HEMANT KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4974/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The FIR against the petitioner for offenses under Sections 376/313/506/406 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed because the relationship was consensual. The complainant had concealed her existing marriage, which prevented any legal possibility of marriage between the parties. Consent was not obtained through a false promise of marriage, and continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of law.

HIKMATULLAH HIKMATI VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-1130/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Hikmatullah Hikmati was granted bail in a case under the NDPS Act due to non-compliance with mandatory procedures regarding sampling and seizure of drugs. The evidence against him, primarily based on the recovery from a co-accused, disclosure statements, and WhatsApp chats, was deemed inadmissible due to procedural lapses. Additionally, Hikmati had been in custody for over 4 years without direct evidence linking him to the drugs. Bail was granted considering these factors, along with certain conditions.

HIMANSHU CHOPRA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-620/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitions filed by the accused under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code, challenging the trial court's summoning orders in Section 138 cases of the Negotiable Instruments Act, were dismissed. At the summons stage, the trial court only needs to be prima facie satisfied that a case exists against the accused without detailed merits analysis. Specific allegations in the complaint indicated the petitioners were in charge of the company's affairs and made assurances to the complainant, meeting the criteria for vicarious liability under Section 141 of the NI Act. The petitions were dismissed without addressing the merits of the case, which will be determined by the trial court.

ICICI HOME FINANCE COMPANY LTD VS MR RAMESH GUPTA & ANR [CS(COMM)-1117/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The appeal by Neeru Gupta was allowed due to inadequate service of summons prior to using publication. Her absence was characterized as unintentional and bona fide, and she was permitted to submit her written statement within the allowed timeframe. An interim order from a separate suit against the plaintiff bank was maintained, preventing further actions against the suit property under the SARFAESI Act. Ramesh Gupta faced ex-parte proceedings due to his non-appearance.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS KANCHAN & ORS [MAC.APP.-160/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The appeal by IFFCO Tokio General Insurance Co. Ltd. against the compensation award to claimant Kanchan was dismissed. The involvement of the offending vehicle in the accident was established through circumstantial evidence, applying the preponderance of probabilities standard. The argument of contributory negligence by the deceased was rejected, as the driver's negligence was proven. Additionally, the request to deduct the Medi-Claim amount from the compensation was denied, based on prior rulings that such amounts do not affect compensation for accidental death.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO.LTD.& ANOTHER VS INDER TRAVESLS PVT.LTD.& OTHERS [CS(COMM)-166/2017]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiffs' application was partially granted, allowing the submission of additional documents, including powers of attorney and provisions from the Travel Agent's Handbook. The plaintiffs demonstrated "reasonable cause" for not including these documents with the initial plaint. One proposed document was not accepted for filing at this stage, but the plaintiffs were permitted to confront the defendants' witness with it, if legally allowable.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE INSURANCE CO LTD VS SAJJANPATI @ SAJNA & ORS [MAC.APP.-920/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The awards of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal (MACT) were set aside and remanded for a fresh inquiry due to the failure to properly consider the testimony of eye-witness PW-2 Sudhir, who identified Naveen as the driver, not Sumit. The inquiry did not adequately address the use of a fake number plate on the offending vehicle, suggesting it might have been stolen. Adverse inferences against the vehicle's owner were drawn without sufficient justification. A fresh inquiry must be conducted within six months, allowing parties to present additional evidence.

INDER GOEL VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2974/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Inder Goel under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. was dismissed. The dispute was identified as a civil family matter regarding a leasehold shop transfer, with the petitioner attempting to frame it as a criminal issue. The petitioner was also found to be in violation of the statutory bar under Section 397(3) Cr.P.C.

INDER SINGH SOLANKI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6424/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

There is prima facie evidence to frame charges against the petitioner under Sections 336 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code for rash/negligent acts endangering life and criminal intimidation, as well as under Section 30 of the Arms Act for brandishing a licensed firearm in public, violating the Arms Rules. The petitioner's arguments against the framing of charges did not successfully challenge the prima facie case established by video footage and the recovery of the firearm. The lack of challenge to the charges under IPC before the Additional Sessions Judge and the State's challenge of the discharge under the Arms Act justified the decision to allow the framing of charges.

ISH KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2023/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order dismissing the petitioner's application for contempt proceedings against police officials was upheld. The police had made efforts to comply with the court's order regarding CCTV footage and call records, but retrieval was not possible due to the hotel's limited storage capacity. The finding indicated no contempt of court. If the petitioner believes the police were negligent in the investigation, alternative remedies are available outside of contempt proceedings.

JAFFREY EXPORT PVT LTD AND ORS VS ASHISH CHAUDHARY [CRL.M.C.-5433/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition challenging the maintainability of a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The issue of whether the cheque was returned unpaid due to the petitioner's bank account being attached by the Sales Tax Authority or for other reasons is a disputed fact for the trial court to determine. The petition lacked merit due to both delay in filing and the substantive issues, resulting in an order for the petitioners to pay costs of Rs. 10,000 to the respondent.

JAGMEET KAUR BABBAR AND ORS VS EUROCOPTER GROUP & OTHERS [CS(OS)-420/2012]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The earlier order closing the defendant's evidence due to a missing witness from France has been set aside. The defendant is granted a final opportunity to present the witness via video conferencing, with specific instructions involving the Indian Consulate in France. If the video conferencing fails, the witness must appear in person, or the defendant's evidence will be closed.

JAVED VS THE STATE OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3126/2021]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Javed was granted bail in FIR No. 65/2020, which included serious charges under various sections of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution's evidence, including witness statements and call detail records, was insufficient at the bail stage to establish a prima facie case of his common intention to commit murder. While witnesses identified him as part of an unlawful mob involved in rioting, none attributed a specific role in the murder to him. Javed's status as the sole breadwinner for his family and the prolonged trial delay contributed to the decision to grant bail under certain conditions.

JEEVAN LAL SINGHAL VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-429/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's challenge to lower court orders regarding an alleged 'friendly loan' was dismissed, establishing that the dispute is civil in nature. The use of criminal processes for loan recovery was deemed inappropriate, as it burdens the criminal justice system and undermines fairness. Concurrent dismissals by two lower courts precluded a reassessment of the evidence.

JEEVESH SABHARWAL & ANR. VS MAHARAJ KRISHEN PANDITA [CRL.M.C.-112/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by the accused challenging the rejection of their application for the production of documents was dismissed. The requested documents, related to the advice from Karvy Realty India Ltd. and contact with the accused company, were deemed unnecessary for effective cross-examination and the case's resolution. The application lacked specifics regarding the documents, and the approach was considered a "fishing inquiry." No merit was found in the petition, and costs were directed to be deposited with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority.

JITIN MITTAL & ORS. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2438/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Section 202 of the Code of Criminal Procedure does not apply to proceedings under Section 12 of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. Such proceedings are primarily civil in nature, with an 'offence' arising only from a breach of orders under the Act. Disputed factual issues regarding the complaint's probability, vagueness, or potential abuse of process cannot be resolved at this stage and should be addressed by the Metropolitan Magistrate. The petition by the husband and his family to quash the complaint was dismissed.

JYOTI JADAUN @ RENU JADAUN AND ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2140/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The FIR and subsequent trial against the petitioners, who are the sister-in-laws and a mediator, were quashed due to vague and general allegations lacking specific incidents or supporting evidence for charges under Sections 498A, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. Concerns regarding the misuse of Section 498A and the tendency to implicate the entire family in matrimonial disputes were noted. The proceedings were deemed an abuse of the criminal process, causing potential harassment to the accused. The observations made will not affect the trial against other individuals named in the FIR.

KARI YADAV VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4944/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner received substantive sentences of 1 year of simple imprisonment in two cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. These sentences relate to cheques issued for the same underlying transaction and should run concurrently. The petitioner has already served the full sentences and default payments, leading to the direction for concurrent sentencing in both cases.

KASIM VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-1941/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application to be recalled as a witness under Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was upheld. The petitioner claimed he was threatened by the respondent not to identify him, but this claim was made 16 months after completing his evidence without any explanation for the delay. It was emphasized that the discretionary power under Section 311 should be exercised judiciously to prevent abuse of the legal process, and delayed applications without valid reasons are not permissible. The dismissal of the application was deemed justified.

KAVERI PARASHAR VS KALIND PARASHAR & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-933/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order dismissing the complaint for lack of territorial jurisdiction was set aside. The trial court lacked the authority to recall the summons issued against the accused. The only recourse for the accused was to challenge the summoning order through a revision petition or another legal remedy. The complaint was restored to its original status in the trial court, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the trial court's order.

KRIPA SHANKER GIRI VS UNITED BREWERIES LIMITED THROUGH ITS AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE [CRL.M.C.-549/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition filed by Kripa Shanker Giri to quash a criminal complaint by United Breweries Limited under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The disputed relationship among Giri, the respondent, and the appointed commission agent involves factual questions that require examination of evidence, making them unsuitable for summary resolution. Therefore, the petition lacked merit at this stage.

KRISHAN PAL @ BOBBY VS STATE GOVT OF N C T OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1030/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Bail was denied to Krishan Pal, charged with murder under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code. Evidence presented included CCTV footage and witness statements indicating his involvement. One witness became hostile, but the impact of this will be assessed during the trial. The seriousness of the offense and the potential risk of witness tampering were noted. The trial court was instructed to expedite proceedings and aim for case resolution within one year, with any observations made strictly related to the bail decision.

KULDEEP SINGH VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-453/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The criminal revision petition filed by Kuldeep Singh was dismissed, challenging the trial court's rejection of his application under Section 91 of the CrPC for the production of certain documents. At the charge framing stage, the accused cannot invoke Section 91 CrPC to obtain documents for defense purposes, as the necessity of these documents is assessed in relation to their intended use during investigation, inquiry, or trial. The scope of revisional jurisdiction is limited to clear errors or non-compliance with the law, and no such issues were found in the trial court's order.

LALIT MOHAN & ORS. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1368/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

FIRs and all consequential proceedings against the petitioners in two criminal miscellaneous petitions can be quashed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, despite the offenses being non-compoundable. The parties reached an amicable settlement, making the continuation of the criminal proceedings unnecessary. Each petitioner is required to pay a cost of Rs. 25,000 to be deposited with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority for support to POCSO victims.

M A SURESH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4862/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

M.A. Suresh's petition challenging the framing of charges under Sections 408, 409, 477A, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The standard for framing charges is whether a prima facie case exists rather than proof of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Allegations of misappropriation of funds and irregular transactions related to vehicles were deemed sufficient for charge framing. Defense arguments suggesting a mini-trial at this stage were rejected. There was no indication of disagreement or referral to a larger bench.

M/S BOOKS CYBERTECH PVT. LTD & ANR. VS SATYASAI PANIGRAHY [CRL.M.C.-1894/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Service of notice of demand under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was deemed valid when addressed to the director of the accused company, who signed the dishonored cheques. The director's awareness of the liability and the purpose of the notice negated any claim of disadvantage due to the incorrect address. Petitions to quash complaints were dismissed, allowing the complainant to proceed to trial for the defense to be presented.

M/S GANGOTRI QUALITY SEEDS P. LTD. & ORS. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1548/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The orders of the trial court and sessions court were set aside due to an error in not granting the petitioners additional time to file an application under Section 145(2) of the Negotiable Instruments Act. However, the petitioners' conduct of filing multiple applications to delay proceedings was acknowledged. To balance interests, the petitioners were directed to pay costs to the respondents, and the trial court was instructed to expedite the adjudication of the complaint cases. This matter involves four separate complaint cases filed by the respondents against the petitioners.

M/S GATI INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LIMITED VS ASHWANI SAINI & OTHERS [CS(COMM)-19/2017]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
An ex parte judgment and decree in favor of M/s Gati Infrastructure Pvt Limited was set aside due to improper service of summons on defendants Ashwani Saini and others. The process server's report was contradictory, and the plaintiff knew the defendants had moved but still attempted service at the old address. The defendants demonstrated sufficient cause for their non-appearance, leading to the reinstatement of the suit and a directive for the defendants to file their written statement within the prescribed period.

M/S GURU EXIM VS INDIAN OVERSEAS BANK & ANR [CS(COMM)-74/2017]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The interim order did not prevent the defendant bank from pursuing legal action under the SARFAESI Act to recover amounts owed by the plaintiff. However, the bank is not allowed to recover Rs. 1,80,00,000, plus interest, related to goods supplied by the plaintiff, and must reserve this amount until the suit is resolved. The final hearing is scheduled for December 6, 2024.

M/S HOTEL MARINA & ANR VS VIBHA MEHTA [EX.P.-128/2012]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The Decree Holder is entitled to execute the 2006 decree based on a settlement agreement, as the Judgment Debtor unjustifiably refused to sign necessary documents. The Decree Holder was prepared to make the agreed payment of Rs. 2 crores, while the Judgment Debtor failed to comply. Arguments from the Judgment Debtor claiming the settlement only pertained to her 8% share in the partnership firm were rejected, as this matter had been previously resolved.

M/S JAI AGRO ENTERPRISES VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-1444/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
Petitions by M/s Jai Agro Enterprises to quash two criminal complaints for dishonored cheques were dismissed. The issues raised regarding the cheques and discrepancies in the account statements were identified as disputed facts requiring trial. The petitioner did not establish a case for quashing the criminal proceedings, indicating that such power should be exercised sparingly and in rare instances.

M/S JAI DURGA INDUSTRIES VS PHOOL CHAND BHAGAT SINGH [CRL.M.C.-2084/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The petition filed by M/S Jai Durga Industries was dismissed, upholding the order that rejected the revision petition. The Metropolitan Magistrate's decision to close the petitioner's right to cross-examine the respondent was justified, as the petitioner had been provided multiple opportunities to do so but failed to act, indicating a defiant attitude. Granting further opportunity for cross-examination would undermine the summary procedure under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act and unfairly advantage the petitioner at the expense of the respondent.

M/S POOJA BANGLES & ORS. VS M/S SUMAN JEWELLERS [CRL.M.C.-3392/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition challenging the summoning of the petitioners as accused in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. A spelling mistake in the petitioner's firm name did not render the legal notice or complaint defective. Proper service of the notice on the petitioners, including the third petitioner, was confirmed despite the firm being registered in Delhi and the notice served on partners in Saharanpur. The petition was dismissed with an order to deposit costs of Rs. 15,000 with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee.

M/S SACHDEVA ENTERPRISES VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.L.P.-69/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by M/s Sachdeva Enterprises for leave to appeal the Trial Court's dismissal of their complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The Trial Court raised doubts about the respondent's liability for the claimed amount of Rs. 1.5 crores, highlighting a lack of documentary evidence from the petitioner and inconsistencies in the respondent's statements. Consequently, there was no basis to contest the Trial Court's decision.

M/S SUNSHINE INFRAHEIGHTS PVT LTD & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2326/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Petitions by M/S Sunshine Infraheights Pvt Ltd & Ors were dismissed regarding the summoning of the accused under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. At the process issuance stage, only a prima facie satisfaction of sufficient grounds is required, without detailed merit analysis. Complaints remain maintainable despite the cheques being presented before the liability arose under the Buy Back Agreements, as the reasons for the earlier dates on the cheques necessitate evidence examination. This situation is not deemed one suitable for quashing the complaints at this stage.

M/S TABISH AIRWAYS VS PROTECTOR GENERAL OF EMIGRANTS AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5142/2013]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The cancellation of the petitioner's registration certificate as a recruiting agent was upheld due to actions as a representative of non-existent overseas employers, violating the Emigration Act and Rules. A recruiting agent is responsible for verifying the genuineness of the overseas employer represented, and the grounds for cancellation under Section 14 of the Act were established. No infirmity was found in the decision-making process of the appellate authority.

MAHDOOM BAWA BAHRUDEEN NOORUL VS KAVERI PLASTICS [CRL.M.C.-2164/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was not maintainable because the notice of demand incorrectly stated a sum of Rs. 2 crores instead of the actual cheque amount of Rs. 1 crore. The requirement for the notice to demand the precise amount of the dishonored cheque is strictly enforced, making the complaint invalid. As a result, the criminal complaint was quashed.

MAHENDRA GAMBHIR VS SERIOUS FRAUD INVESTIGATION OFFICE [BAIL APPLN.-3741/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Applications for anticipatory bail by Abraham George, Yogesh Sudhanshu Kumar, and Mahendra Gambhir are maintainable despite the filing of a complaint and the issuance of summons. The applicants demonstrated a reasonable apprehension of arrest. Anticipatory bail is granted to the applicants with certain conditions, as they were not arrested during the investigation by the Serious Fraud Investigation Office.

MAHTAB TYAGI VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3030/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner has been in custody for over 3 years, and the recovery of 525 kg of Ganja, classified as a commercial quantity, affects the decision on bail. The trial should be expedited and concluded within 6 months, with an option for the petitioner to renew the bail application if there are further delays.

MANISH JAIN @ MANISH KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-6132/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Manish Jain challenging the trial court's rejection of his application to recall witness PW-4 Mohd. Javed for further cross-examination was dismissed. The application lacked necessary details and did not explain a 6-year delay in filing. A change of counsel was deemed an insufficient reason for recalling the witness, leading to the conclusion that the petition had no merit.

MANOHAR SINGH VS PRADEEP MEHTA & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-47/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's criminal complaint against the respondents was dismissed due to insufficient grounds. The primary issue related to service conditions and benefits, which had already been adjudicated in higher courts. The petitioner was found to be abusing the court process by raising similar grievances in different forums. Additionally, the statutory bar under Section 397(3) of the Cr.P.C. was noted as a reason for the non-maintainability of the second revision petition. The lower courts had previously considered the evidence and found the petitioner's complaint without merit.

MANOJ KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-814/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Evidence against the petitioner, especially the suicide note, is insufficient to support charges under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code. The note does not indicate that the petitioner actively instigated or intended to aid the deceased in committing suicide. A mere refusal to repay a loan does not constitute abetment. There is no prima facie case or grave suspicion against the petitioner, leading to the discharge of the petitioner.

MANOJ RANA VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4829/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

At the charge framing stage, the assumption is that the prosecution's material is true, focusing on whether it discloses necessary ingredients for the alleged offence without assessing its probative value or the accused's defense. For Section 509 IPC, intent to insult a woman's modesty is crucial and evaluated through various factors. Sufficient prima facie evidence warranted framing charges under Sections 506, 509, and 34 IPC, with no identified issues in the previous decision to proceed with the trial.

MATER DEI SCHOOL THROUGH SISTER SHEEBA ANTONY SECRETARY SOCIETY OF THE FRANCISCAN SISTERS OF MARY DELHI VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2321/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order directing the petitioner to produce numerous documents was set aside due to a lack of justification that their production was "necessary or desirable" for the investigation, as required under Section 91 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The decision noted that the order amounted to a fishing expedition and failed to assess the relevance of the requested documents. A fresh application may be submitted for reconsideration.

MOHD AKIL VS MOHD FAREED [CRL.REV.P.-204/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The criminal revision petitions filed by Mohd Akil, challenging his conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, were dismissed. The burden of proof was correctly placed on Akil, and the total sale consideration of Rs. 27 lakhs was deemed applicable to the entire 300 sq. yards plot, despite the sale of 100 sq. yards to a third party. No merit was found in the argument regarding the execution of the power of attorney for Rs. 11 lakhs. The lower courts' decisions were upheld, with no jurisdictional errors identified.

MOHD SHAKEEL @ SHAKEEL AHMED VS SABIA BEGUM AND ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-795/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Mohd Shakeel @ Shakeel Ahmed challenging orders from the Family Court regarding execution petitions filed by Sabia Begum and others was dismissed. The maintenance order from the Family Court was deemed final, and the execution petitions were for its enforcement. The petitioner failed to comply with a prior statement to pay a reduced monthly installment, which nullified his claim for relief. The Family Court was instructed to proceed with the execution petitions and consider the petitioner's request for property sale.

MOHD SHUEB VS FAYZA NISAR & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-656/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Mohd. Shueb's petition challenging a maintenance order was dismissed. He was required to pay Rs. 25,000 per month to respondent no. 1 and Rs. 20,000 per month to respondent no. 2. The notice from the Family Court was properly served, but Shueb did not appear, resulting in an ex-parte order. His explanation for his absence was deemed frivolous, and claims of forgery and misleading the Family Court were not accepted, given his choice not to defend against the complaint.

MOHD. WASEEM & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-7062/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

FIR No. 1357/2015 against the petitioners under various IPC sections and the Arms Act was quashed based on an amicable settlement between the parties. The injured individuals expressed a desire not to pursue the case, and the injuries were deemed 'simple'. Continuing the prosecution was considered unproductive and burdensome. A condition for quashing the FIR included the petitioners depositing Rs. 50,000 each with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority.

MR DIGVIJAY SINGH & ANR. VS M/S VAKA & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3240/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioners' attempt to quash the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The complaint's assertion that M/s Indirashree Sourcing is solely owned by petitioner no. 1 is accepted as true at this stage, despite a GST certificate indicating it is a partnership. The complaint alleges that a notice was served and returned deliberately by the petitioners, which will be evaluated during the trial. Additionally, a Magistrate is permitted to conduct mandatory inquiries under Section 202 of the Cr.P.C. by accepting the complainant's affidavit without requiring sworn witness testimony. The petition lacked merit, with trial proceedings still at an initial stage.

MR MAHENDER KUMAR KHANDELWAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10993/2023]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
Under Section 8(3)(a) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), the retention of seized documents, digital devices, and property is limited to 365 days unless there are specific pending proceedings related to the seizure. Proceedings must be before a Special Court concerning the property or individual from whom it was seized. In this case, no such proceedings were initiated against the petitioner within the 365 days following the Adjudicating Authority's order, necessitating the return of the seized items. Arguments suggesting that other pending writ petitions could extend the 365-day period were dismissed, as extending seizure without PMLA proceedings beyond this timeframe would violate constitutional rights.

MRS MITHLESH GUPTA VS M/S NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CORPORATION LIMITED [CRL.M.C.-2057/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The petitioner, identified as accused no. 3 in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, cannot be held vicariously liable under Section 141. As the complaint indicates that accused no. 1 is a proprietorship concern and the cheque was signed by accused no. 2, who is the proprietor, mere signing of an agreement by the petitioner on behalf of accused no. 1 does not establish vicarious liability. The complaint against the petitioner was quashed, without affecting the proceedings against the other accused.

MRS. KUSUM TANEJA VS SHRI MANIK TANEJA AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-174/2018]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The Will dated 04.02.1970 of Sh. Lakhmi Chand Taneja bequeathed the suit property to late Sh. Avinash Kumar Taneja and late Smt. Parbati, which was acknowledged by defendant no. 1. There was no oral partition of the suit property, leading to the conclusion that the plaintiff, defendant no. 1, and defendant no. 2 each hold a 1/6th share, while defendant no. 3 holds a 1/2 share. A decree for rendition of accounts was granted against defendant no. 1 from the date of the legal notice seeking partition.

MRS. SHUMITA SANDHU VS TANI SANDHU BHARGAVA & ORS. [CS(OS)-585/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The plaintiff's suit for partition of the property was dismissed due to a lack of merit in the claim that it was ancestral Hindu Undivided Family (HUF) property. A prior judgment had already rejected the plaintiff's defense as baseless. The matter was not adjourned indefinitely while the plaintiff sought an appeal against the previous judgment.

MS PRACHI JAIN VS SHRI SUNIL KUMAR JAIN [CRL.M.C.-3475/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The order dismissing the petitioner's appeal regarding the modification of the maintenance order was set aside. The petitioner's status as a complainant and 'Aggrieved person' under the Domestic Violence Act, 2005, was not adequately considered, affecting her entitlement to maintenance despite employment. The appeal was restored for a fresh decision, with instructions to expedite the hearing.

MS. P VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4329/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The bail order granted to the respondent was set aside due to a violation of the prosecutrix's participatory rights, as she was not provided a copy of the bail application or informed about the hearing. The respondent must submit a new bail application to the trial court, which will be considered without influence from the previous order. Interim protection from arrest was granted to the respondent until the trial court reviews the new application.

MUNNA SINGH & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1657/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The trial court's failure to provide the petitioners with a copy of the judgment and to pronounce the judgment in open court constituted a procedural lapse, but this did not invalidate the conviction. The petitioners retain the right to pursue other legal remedies. The Principal District and Sessions Judges are directed to ensure that trial courts announce judgments only when ready and promptly provide copies to convicted individuals.

NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU (DZU) VS AQYAR KHAN SHINWARI [CRL.M.C.-3866/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by the Narcotic Control Bureau was dismissed, affirming the bail granted to Aqyar Khan Shinwari in a case under the NDPS Act. The decision highlighted non-compliance with the mandatory documentation and certification requirements of Section 52A of the NDPS Act, raising doubts about the prosecution's case. Additionally, Shinwari's lengthy incarceration of nearly 4.5 years was considered a factor in granting bail.

NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU VS NIMATULLAH MANGAL & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3924/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by the Narcotic Control Bureau challenging the bail grant to Nimatullah Mangal was dismissed. Non-compliance with Section 52A of the NDPS Act regarding sample procedures raised serious doubts about the prosecution's case and the contraband status of the substance. Previous judgments emphasized the importance of adhering to Section 52A, supporting the decision to uphold the bail order.

NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU VS SUKHWINDER SINGH [CRL.M.C.-4206/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) challenging the bail granted to Sukhwinder Singh was dismissed due to NCB's failure to meet mandatory requirements under Section 52A of the NDPS Act, including the preparation of an inventory of the seized contraband and drawing samples in the presence of a magistrate. This non-compliance raised serious doubts about the prosecution's case, satisfying the conditions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act for the respondent to be granted bail, regardless of the availability of the seized substance.

NARENDER SINGH VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-829/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The criminal revision petition filed by Narender Singh was dismissed, challenging the trial court's rejection of his application to recall the victim and her mother for further cross-examination. The application lacked strong and valid reasons, appearing to be an attempt to harass the witnesses. A previous similar petition had already been dismissed, achieving finality. Costs of Rs. 50,000 are to be deposited by the accused with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority for counselling support for POCSO victims.

NARESH KUMAR AND OTHERS VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-257/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order to frame charges against the petitioners under Sections 307/34 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld. Medical evidence indicated that the victim sustained grievous injuries. The petitioners' argument that the injuries did not meet the severity required for Section 307 was not accepted, as the intention of the accused remains the primary consideration to be assessed during the trial. A detailed evaluation of the evidence was not undertaken due to the limited jurisdiction in a criminal revision petition. Rulings caution against excessive quashing of proceedings were noted.

NAVEEN KUMAR VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-6365/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner, a former director of the accused company, remains liable for the dishonored cheque despite claiming resignation. The cheque bears the petitioner's signature, and the circumstances of its possession require trial evidence. Allegations of cheque misuse necessitate further examination, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

NAVITA ARJUN VOHRA VS NITIN ARJUN & ANR [CS(OS)-787/2015]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff's application to amend her evidence by affidavit was permitted, as she should not be compelled to rely on a false statement. The defendants will have the chance to cross-examine the plaintiff regarding the amended affidavit and address earlier pleadings. The defendants experienced no prejudice since the elderly defendant had already been confronted with the information the plaintiff seeks to add.

NAZIM VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-1587/2021]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The bail application of Nazim, accused of involvement in the murder of Intelligence Bureau officer Ankit Sharma, was dismissed. Witness statements identified Nazim as part of the mob and as the individual wielding the knife that killed Sharma. The nature and gravity of the offense, along with concerns about witness tampering and the risk of absconding, contributed to the decision against bail. A prior bail request for Nazim's brother, Kasim, facing similar allegations, was also rejected.

NEERAJ PIPLANI VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3068/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Neeraj Piplani to quash a complaint by Rajan Syal under the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Contentions regarding overpayment and cheques as security were deemed matters for trial, as they cannot be resolved at the preliminary stage. There is no basis for interference with the trial court's decision to take cognizance and issue summons without evidence of illegality or abuse of process.

NEERU KAPOOR VS BLUE STATE INFOTECH PVT LTD & ORS [CS(OS)-1632/2012]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to include a prayer for possession of the suit property was allowed. Substantive justice should not be hindered by technicalities, and amendments relating to relief predicated on already pleaded facts are typically permissible. The bar under Order II Rule 2 CPC applies only to subsequent suits, not to amendments. The proposed amendment did not alter the nature of the suit or surprise the defendants, and it was deemed necessary for effective adjudication. The amendment was permitted with the condition that the plaintiff pays costs to the defendants.

NICHOLAS NZUBE UKAEGBU VS NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2708/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Failure to comply with mandatory requirements under Section 52A of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, regarding sample drawing in the presence of a Magistrate and inventory certification, raised reasonable doubts about the guilt of the accused. The compromise of the original seized substance also contributed to the uncertainty of the prosecution's case. Bail was granted to the accused due to the negative impact of prolonged incarceration on the right to liberty, with conditions imposed to restrict international travel and contact with witnesses.

NIRUPA BERRY VS M/S GOEL ESTATE & PROMOTERS PVT LTD & ANR [CS(OS)-67/2011]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff's application to submit an additional document, a Power of Attorney executed by defendant no. 1 through defendant no. 2 in favor of Mr. Ramji, was accepted. Although the plaintiff should have disclosed the document earlier, it was considered vital for the case. The plaintiff was allowed to re-summon witness PW-2 for further evidence regarding the document, and the defendants were given the opportunity to present additional evidence. The plaintiff was required to pay costs of Rs. 1 lakh to the defendants within 4 weeks due to the delay in producing the document.

OMIRICO LIMITED & ANR. VS PJSC SBERBANK & ANR. [CS(COMM)-800/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The suit for enforcement of a Mareva Injunction from a Cyprus court against a defendant bank was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the relevant assets and transactions were located in Russia, with existing Russian court orders. The suit was described as misconceived and indicative of mala fide intentions, resulting in an imposition of costs amounting to Rs. 1,00,000 on the plaintiffs.

ONKAR INFOTECH PVT. LTD. VS DELHI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-660/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff established a prima facie case for interim relief based on the lease deed, which affirmed the plaintiff's unrestricted right to access an unleased portion of the suit land, allegedly blocked by the defendants. Concerns about potential third-party rights being created by the defendants prompted the need for an interim injunction. Due to the urgency of the situation, the plaintiff was exempted from the mandatory pre-institution mediation requirement under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015.

P VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6185/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The anticipatory bail granted to the respondent was upheld due to the absence of any issues with the lower court's order. The parties had previously married, divorced, and later entered into a 'live-in relationship agreement'. Allegations from the petitioner were related to events during either the marriage or the 'live-in relationship'. The petitioner had not raised complaints at the time of the divorce, and there were no concerns regarding the respondent's presence during the trial. The petition was dismissed, with clarifications that observations made do not affect either party's case in the trial.

PANKAJ RAI VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-702/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The conviction of the petitioner under Sections 419/420/471 of the Indian Penal Code remains intact despite a settlement with the complainant. The sentence was reduced to the period already served, contingent on the petitioner depositing Rs. 1,00,000 with the Delhi Police Martyrs Fund. Given the petitioner's ongoing trial since 2007, clean criminal record, and current employment as a pilot, the decision reflected a balance between justice and punishment.

PARAM PREET SINGH VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-5999/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's challenge to the order allowing the revision petitions of the respondents was dismissed. The respondents' bank account was attached in a separate FIR, rendering the petitioner's complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act not maintainable, as they could not operate their account when the cheques were returned unpaid. The reasoning of the Additional Sessions Judge was upheld, and the petition was deemed not to serve any useful purpose.

PATIRAM VS STATE OF NCT AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3316/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The bail application of Patiram, charged with sexually assaulting a 6-year-old girl under Sections 366A/376 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 6 of the POCSO Act, was dismissed. The victim's statement, corroborated by CCTV footage and additional evidence, indicated a prima facie case against him. The seriousness of the allegations and the risk of absconding were also considered in the decision.

PAWAN DHANPATRAI MALHOTRA VS MAHENDER KHARI [CRL.M.C.-4074/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A single complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is maintainable for the dishonour of multiple cheques if they were issued for the same transaction and a common notice was served on the accused. The cause of action arises from the service of notice rather than the individual dishonour of cheques, meaning the restrictions under Section 219 of the Code of Criminal Procedure do not apply in such cases. The petition challenging the maintainability of the complaint was dismissed.

PRAKASH VASANT AJGAONKAR & ORS. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-525/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Section 143A of the Negotiable Instruments Act allows for discretionary, not mandatory, direction for interim compensation from the drawer of a dishonored cheque. The trial court mistakenly treated this provision as mandatory, directing individuals who were not the drawers to pay compensation without considering relevant factors such as the merits of the case and the accused's financial status. The ruling clarifies that Section 143A applies only to the drawer of the cheque and not to others potentially implicated under Section 141 of the Act.

PRAVIN JAIN VS ALPS INDUSTRIES LIMITED [CRL.M.C.-3471/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The criminal complaints against Pravin Jain were quashed as the requirements under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were not met. The only allegation against Jain was that he was an agent of the accused firm, with no indication that he was responsible for the company's operations during the alleged offense. Jain may still be summoned as a witness in ongoing proceedings against other accused individuals.

PREETI ANAND VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-4364/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Preeti Anand's anticipatory bail application was dismissed due to severe allegations against her, which include a conspiracy to obtain an overdraft loan of Rs. 1.30 crores from Punjab National Bank using forged documents and the complainant's identity. The complete details of the conspiracy remain under investigation, and there is a history of the applicant attempting to evade the inquiry. Being a woman does not provide additional protection in this context, and this assessment pertains only to the current bail application without affecting future proceedings.

R S INFRAPROJECTS PVT LTD VS ZAMIL INFRA PVT LTD & ORS [CS(OS)-1197/2015]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Defendant No. 2's delay in releasing the mobilization advance and issuing Letters of Credit was deemed a fundamental breach of contract, negating their insistence on the Plaintiff adhering to the delivery schedule. Defendant No. 2 revised the schedule without claiming damages and accepted delayed deliveries without objection. As no actual damages were proven, claims for liquidated damages against the Plaintiff were rejected. Defendant Nos. 1 and 2 were directed to pay Rs. 2,00,00,000 plus 9% interest to the Plaintiff due to wrongful invocation of the Bank Guarantee, along with costs of the suit.

RADHA PHOOL FIN-INVESTMENTS PVT. LTD. VS PARAMSUKH NIRMAN PVT. LTD. [CS(COMM)-1053/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The timelines for filing a written statement and affidavit of admission/denial of documents are strictly enforced, with a non-extendable 120-day period. If a written statement is submitted within this period but lacks the accompanying affidavit, it constitutes a defect that can be remedied within an additional 30 days. If the defect is corrected within this timeframe, the written statement and affidavit must be accepted, even if the affidavit is submitted after the initial 120 days.

RAGHAVENDRA KRISHNAMURTHY YALAKODU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7149/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Petitioner Raghavendra Krishnamurthy's challenge to summons as an accused in complaints under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. As Executive Director and Promoter of Garage Cowork Pvt. Ltd., he is presumed responsible for the company's conduct. The requirement at the summons stage is only a prima facie satisfaction regarding allegations. Arguments regarding lack of involvement in daily affairs, absence of signature on documents, and resignation were deemed matters for trial, not for adjudication at this stage. The petitions were dismissed, allowing all submissions to be considered in trial.

RAHUL DARBARI VS ARUN KUMAR KHOBRAGADE & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1171/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's application under Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to introduce certain documents from earlier proceedings was dismissed as it was considered to be filed without justification for the delay and after a previous similar application had been withdrawn. The discretionary powers under Section 311 should be exercised judiciously, and the nature of proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act requires stricter application against the complainant. The petitions lacked merit and were dismissed.

RAHUL KASHYAP VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3387/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The anticipatory bail granted to the accused was upheld, as the dispute involved family members and centered on a minor issue regarding Diwali lights. Evidence indicated no serious injuries or weapon recovery. The delay in FIR registration was not attributed to the accused, and custodial interrogation was deemed unnecessary. The decision to consider the bail applications of all accused together was deemed acceptable, despite the petitioner not receiving copies for two applications.

RAJAT KUMAR VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-4608/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Continuation of criminal proceedings against the petitioner would be against the interest of justice, as the departmental disciplinary authority concluded there was no dishonest or mala fide intention regarding the loss of a weapon and cartridges, classifying it as mere negligence. Consequently, the FIR and all related proceedings against the petitioner were quashed.

RAJAT RANA RAHUL RANA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-825/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition filed by Rajat Rana challenging the framing of charges under Sections 376, 354C, 384, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. At the charge framing stage, only a prima facie case is required, and the prosecution's case does not need to be proved beyond reasonable doubt. The existing material indicated suspicious circumstances against the accused, supporting the trial court's decision to frame charges. Observations made do not affect the ongoing trial proceedings.

RAJENDER PRASAD SHARMA VS NCB [BAIL APPLN.-2291/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Rajender Prasad Sharma was granted bail in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. The prosecution's evidence included call records and Sharma's presence at a cold storage facility, but the mulethi logs he supplied were not tested for heroin. The only positive test for heroin was from a loose piece not directly linked to Sharma. Voluntary statements made under Section 67 of the NDPS Act were deemed inadmissible. The absence of direct evidence connecting Sharma to the heroin and significant trial delays contributed to the decision to grant bail, with standard conditions imposed to prevent tampering with evidence or absconding.

RAJESH AGGARWAL & ANR. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4616/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The FIR and all related proceedings against the petitioners, the maternal uncle and aunt of the complainant's husband, were quashed due to vague and general allegations, with specific claims dating back 10 years. The petitioners were not summoned during the preliminary inquiry, and the case relied solely on the complainant's statement without additional evidence. Continuation of the proceedings was deemed an abuse of the criminal process, potentially causing undue harassment to the petitioners. Observations made do not affect proceedings against the remaining accused.

RAJESH KUMAR VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2531/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The applicant is entitled to bail due to a prolonged trial delay, having been in custody for over two and a half years without the trial commencing. There is no imminent prospect of trial conclusion. Prolonged incarceration can override the statutory limitations of Section 37 of the NDPS Act, as it infringes on the fundamental right to life and liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution. The applicant will be released on bail, subject to certain conditions.

RAKESH KUMAR & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-481/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioners' request to quash an FIR under Sections 498A and 406 IPC was dismissed. Arguments regarding lack of territorial jurisdiction and prior acquittal were deemed unacceptable at this stage, given that a chargesheet had been filed. Allegations against the petitioners involving the taking of jewelry and demanding dowry were considered prima facie supported. The validity of these allegations cannot be evaluated in a summary manner now, but the petitioners may contest their claims during the trial court's charge framing.

RAKESH ROY AND ANR VS OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS INDIA [CRL.M.C.-349/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order of the trial court was set aside, allowing petitioners Rakesh Roy and another to cross-examine the complainant. The petitioners asserted that the cheques in question were issued as security and provided in blank, contradicting the trial court's dismissal of their request for cross-examination due to lack of specific defense. Conditions for cross-examination include payment of costs and no requests for adjournment, with instructions to expedite the trial.

RAM BHAROSE VS VIKRAM DUTT [CRL.M.C.-6064/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The application for interim compensation under Section 143A of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The presumption under Section 139 alone is insufficient for granting interim compensation; the prima facie merits of the case and the defense must be evaluated. The complainant failed to establish a strong prima facie case to justify interim compensation.

RAM KAWAR HUF VS M/S SMC GLOBAL SECURITIES LIMITED [CRL.M.C.-1794/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Ram Kawar HUF challenging the dismissal of a revision petition was dismissed. The Metropolitan Magistrate had previously rejected the petitioner's application for summoning various documents related to forgery and audit results. The request for these documents was deemed irrelevant and not necessary for the adjudication of the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, as it was considered a fishing inquiry.

RANJEET KUMAR CHOUDHARY VS MAHESH BAGCHANDKA AND ANOTHER [CRL.M.C.-843/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's complaint regarding alleged land encroachment by the respondents was dismissed due to lack of locus standi. The Delhi Development Authority confirmed that no encroachment occurred and that all construction was within the demarcated area. The petitioner had previously filed multiple litigations on the same issue, all of which were withdrawn, leading to the conclusion that the current petition constituted an abuse of court process.

RAVINDER SONI VS URMILA VERMA & ANR [CRL.M.C.-1344/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's challenge to the Revision Court's upholding of the Metropolitan Magistrate's order to pay interim maintenance to his parents was dismissed. The obligation of a child to support aging parents was reiterated, emphasizing that the contributions of the petitioner's siblings and the closure of his factory did not exempt him from liability. The petition lacked merit and was dismissed with costs.

RIGHT CHOICE MARKETING SOLUTIONS JLT & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6853/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act concerning dishonor of a foreign cheque is maintainable in Delhi, where the cheque was presented for payment. The argument that jurisdiction lies solely in Dubai was rejected, as the amendment to Section 142(2) states the offense is considered to have occurred at the presentation location. Additionally, the petition's unexplained delay was not accepted as a valid reason for dismissal.

ROHIT JAIN VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI. & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4334/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition to quash the FIR under Section 406 IPC was dismissed. The petitioner did not establish a case for quashing, as the vehicle remains in his possession and his assertion of purchasing it in the complainant's name conflicts with the Benami Transactions Act. The settlement agreement did not support the petitioner's claims, and any compliance issues are subject to investigation. Criminal proceedings cannot be halted solely based on the settlement at this early stage.

ROHIT VS STATE [CRL.M.C.-371/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The accused is entitled to bail despite stringent Section 37 NDPS Act requirements due to over 2 years of incarceration and delays in trial, which violate the right to a speedy trial under Article 21. The request for default bail was not supported, as the charge-sheet was filed within the statutory period, even without the initial FSL report. Bail is granted subject to conditions.

RUCHIR MODI VS BINA MODI & ORS. [CS(OS)-493/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Bina Modi remains the Managing Trustee of the K.K. Modi Family Trust, allowing her to make certain decisions without unanimous consent from the Board of Trustees, according to the Trust Deed. Her actions, including the removal of the plaintiff and another trustee from GPIL and her reappointment as Managing Director, do not violate the Trust Act or the Trust Deed. The application for interim relief to appoint an administrator for voting at GPIL's annual general meeting was dismissed, but Bina Modi is required to disclose her remuneration as Managing Director. The observations made are prima facie and do not affect the final outcome of pending applications or the main suit.

RUPESH KUMAR PANDEY AND ANR. VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-2806/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition under Section 482 CrPC to quash the FIR for offences under Sections 420, 380, and 120B of the IPC was dismissed. The FIR indicates a cognizable offence, and disputed facts regarding financial transactions and misuse of a cheque require police investigation. Quashing the FIR at this stage is not permissible, and the investigation is to proceed.

RUSLAMN PETROV METODIEV VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4319/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The bail application of Ruslamn Petrov Metodiev, facing charges under Sections 489B, 489C, and 489D of the Indian Penal Code and Section 14 of the Foreigners Act, was dismissed. Default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. was not applicable due to the complete charge-sheet despite a pending FSL report. The prosecution's case included the recovery of fake currency notes and incriminating materials from the applicant. The seriousness of the offenses contributed to the decision, but the merits of the case would be addressed during the trial.

S VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1833/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's application under Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code to be examined as a witness was dismissed due to a lack of merit. The petitioner, as the complainant, caused unreasonable delays in the trial by seeking adjournments on frivolous grounds. The right to an expeditious trial for the accused was emphasized, stating that the complainant could not appear as a witness only at her convenience. Claims of ill health made by the petitioner were deemed false and viewed as a tactic to delay proceedings.

S VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-606/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's revision petition against the trial court's order discharging the respondent from a rape case was dismissed. The trial court's decision was based on the material presented, including the petitioner's own admission of entering into a Memorandum of Understanding and an affidavit to quash the FIR. The findings of the trial court were considered neither perverse nor unreasonable, leading to no grounds for interference.

SACHIN KUMAR PAROLIA VS RAHUL RAJAN & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3828/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Right Choice Builders Private Limited and Right Choice Marketing Solutions JLT are separate legal entities with no evidence indicating they are part of a single group. Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, which addresses vicarious liability, does not apply to group companies. Additionally, the complaint lacks necessary details to establish vicarious liability against the directors of Right Choice Builders, as there is no indication they were in charge of the accused company's business during the relevant time. The lower court's order to set aside the summons against the respondents stands.

SACHIN SINGH VS MASTER AVYAN THROUGH HIS MOTHER NIMISHA KUMAR [CRL.REV.P.-158/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner, Sachin Singh, is ordered to pay an interim maintenance of R.S. 40,000 per month to the respondent, Nimisha Kumar, for their child Avyan. The assessment of the parties' incomes and living standards was deemed appropriate. The maintenance order is justified to ensure the child's welfare remains unaffected by parental property disputes. The petitioner must deposit the arrears within two weeks, or arrest warrants will be enforced.

SAIJEE DEVELOPERS (P) LTD. VS MR. INDERJEET KHANDUJA & ORS. [CS(COMM)-100/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Defendants 1 and 2 were permitted to access the suit property and engage their own expert for valuation, aiming to contest the plaintiff's valuation report. This decision recognized the significance of property valuation in determining the plaintiff's claimed damages and emphasized the defendants' right to present their case. Defendants must notify the plaintiff of their chosen valuer and schedule a mutually agreeable inspection date. After the new valuation report is submitted, the plaintiff will have the chance to further examine the plaintiff's witness. Defendant no. 1 is allowed to accompany the valuer during the inspection, while defendants 3 and 4 are not permitted this access as they opted not to have their own valuer.

SAMEER SINGH VS STATE ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3357/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The complaint against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed due to the demand notice's non-compliance with statutory requirements. The notice claimed an amount of Rs. 1,82,850/- without specifying reasons for the increase from the cheque amount of Rs. 1,10,000/-, making it vague and insufficient. The complaint and the corresponding summons were consequently quashed.

SANDEEP @ CHIKU VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3016/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The sampling procedure followed by the prosecution did not adhere to the mandatory guidelines outlined in the Narcotics Control Bureau's Standing Orders 1/88 and 1/89. The prosecution improperly combined all recovered drug packages into a composite whole instead of taking representative samples from each individual package. This non-compliance with sampling guidelines undermined the prosecution's case and raised reasonable doubts about the accused's guilt. Consequently, the applicants qualified for bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, despite the significant commercial quantity of drugs involved, and bail was granted with specific conditions.

SANJAY BAJAJ VS STATE OF NCT AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1877/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A criminal complaint filed under Sections 418 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code was quashed. The dispute was determined to be civil in nature, involving non-payment for supplied goods, with partial payments made by the petitioner undermining claims of dishonest intent. The criminal proceedings were considered an abuse of process, as a civil remedy was available. It was noted that commercial disputes should not be framed as criminal matters.

SANJAY GOHAIN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2247/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The criminal petition filed by Sanjay Gohain was dismissed, confirming the lower courts' orders to frame charges under Sections 365/380/341/323/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Sufficient evidence, including CCTV footage and the complainant's testimony, was present to establish a prima facie case of assault, robbery, and criminal intimidation against him. At the charge framing stage, only a preliminary assessment of the available evidence is required.

SANJAY KUMAR & ORS. VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4017/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The FIR and subsequent proceedings against the petitioners for offenses under the Indian Penal Code and the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act were quashed due to a settlement between the parties. Despite the seriousness of the offenses, the petitioners' OBC community status and their age were considered, leading to the conclusion that continuing the case would only exacerbate tensions. Costs were imposed on the petitioners to support POCSO victims through the Delhi State Legal Services Authority.

SANJAY MORE VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-856/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The accused is entitled to release on statutory bail under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure due to the charge-sheet not being filed within the 60-day period from his arrest. The FIR, registered under Section 304 of the Indian Penal Code, does not suggest the accused had the intention to cause death, warranting a lesser charge under Section 304-II. The interpretation favors the accused's fundamental right to personal liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution.

SARABJIT SINGH AHLUWALIA VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4778/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The framing of a charge against the petitioner under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld due to evidence indicating a lack of endorsement on the FDR as security and the petitioner's signatures on it, establishing a prima facie case. At the charge framing stage, only the existence of a prima facie case is required, without the need for a detailed review or mini-trial.

SATNAM SINGH SALUJA VS INDERBIR SINGH SALUJA & ORS. [CS(OS)-399/2019]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The plaintiff can amend the plaint to challenge a gift deed executed by the plaintiff's father in favor of the defendant's wife and to claim partition of property in Lucknow. However, the plaintiff cannot seek partition of property in Kanpur as it constitutes a separate cause of action. The request for rendition of accounts for a property in Bombay is permitted. Unauthorized amendments to the amended plaint led to the defendant's application to strike it off, highlighting the plaintiff's laxity in proceeding with the suit. The plaintiff is allowed the originally permitted amendments but must pay exemplary costs to the defendant. The challenge to the gift deed is permissible as previously allowed.

SBI GLOBAL FACTORS LTD VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4562/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The Appellate Court granted the respondent an exemption from depositing 20% of the compensation amount under Section 148 of the Negotiable Instruments Act due to her exceptional circumstances, including a medical condition of multiple sclerosis and lack of income. Additional documents and pleas submitted by the respondent were limited to the exemption application and did not affect the main appeal. The Appellate Court was directed to hear the case promptly.

SENTHILVELKUMAR VS STATE THROUGH SHO & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-141/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The petition challenging the order for FIR registration was dismissed. The complaint was deemed maintainable as it included an affidavit and prior complaints, fulfilling requirements from established legal precedents. The argument of mala fide intent was regarded as premature, with the correctness of allegations to be resolved at trial. The dismissal allows the police to proceed with the investigation.

SH HONEY VERMA VS PIYUSH NAUTIYAL [CRL.M.C.-3002/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The legal notice issued by the respondent prior to filing the complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was non-compliant, as it demanded a different amount than the cheque without explanation. The notice must only demand the cheque amount; any deviation renders the complaint under Section 138 not maintainable. As a result, the complaint filed by the respondent against the petitioner was quashed.

SH. AJIT SINGH VS SMT.ADARSH KAUR GILL [CS(OS)-2167/1993]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The plaintiff's suit for partition of property is permissible as the rule against partial partition does not apply to self-acquired or separate properties held as tenants-in-common. Defendant no.1, having redeemed the mortgage, retains possession until the plaintiff and co-sharers pay their respective shares of the redemption amount. The lease deed in favor of defendant no.1 is genuine. A preliminary decree of partition is granted, allowing the parties to seek final partition or sale later.

SH. GAURAV SARDANA VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2069/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The petition filed by Sh. Gaurav Sardana to recall the prosecutrix (PW1) and the Investigating Officer (PW4) for further cross-examination was granted. The earlier approval for recalling PW1 was acknowledged, despite her non-appearance for almost four years, and the Trial Court was directed to ensure her recall subject to availability. The Trial Court was also instructed to consider the request to recall PW4. A cost of Rs. 15,000 was imposed on the petitioner to be paid to the prosecutrix for the delay caused.

SH. HEMAL MEHTA & ANR. VS STATE GOVT. OF N.C.T. OF DELHI THROUGH S.H.O [CRL.M.C.-1084/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The charges against Hemal Mehta and Mihir B Sanghvi under Sections 120B/420/406/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code were found unsustainable due to insufficient evidence of their involvement in the alleged conspiracy and fraud. The only allegation was that they introduced another accused to the complainant, and there was no corroborating evidence. The impugned order framing charges was quashed, and the petitioners were discharged from the criminal case.

SH. SUMIT GAHLOT & ORS. VS SH. YOGINDER SINGH & ORS. [CS(OS)-170/2019]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The counter-claim by defendant no. 1 regarding adverse possession of a suit property was dismissed due to reliance on sale deeds that had been declared null and void. The plaintiffs challenged these deeds promptly, leading to the conclusion that claims of title and adverse possession are inconsistent; adverse possession cannot be asserted while claiming title based on those deeds. Consequently, the defendant's argument for adverse possession lacked validity.

SHABNAM HASHMI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1741/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The Metropolitan Magistrate could not take cognizance of the chargesheet against the petitioner under Section 188 IPC due to the lack of a written complaint from the concerned public servant as required by Section 195 CrPC. Previous judgments indicated that a written complaint is necessary for cognizance of offenses under Sections 172-188 IPC. The order of the Metropolitan Magistrate was quashed, but the prosecution was permitted to file a fresh complaint if advised.

SHAN MIYAN CHAUDHARY AND ORS VS STATE(NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-969/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The petition to quash the FIR for offenses under Sections 420/467/468/471/120B of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed due to serious allegations of impersonation and fraud involving the Life Insurance Corporation. These offenses were deemed to have a significant societal impact, rendering settlement between parties insufficient to quash the FIR.

SHARAD NAGRE VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-183/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The bail application of Sharad Nagre was dismissed due to charges of fraud involving forged cheques under Sections 420, 468, 471, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code. Evidence indicated that Nagre was the primary beneficiary of the fraud, with significant funds credited to companies associated with his wife, and his phone number linked to those accounts. The money was subsequently funneled to shell companies to obscure its origin. The nature of economic offences necessitates stringent responses, resulting in the denial of bail.

SHARVAN JHA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1707/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The lower court's order did not grant anticipatory bail to the respondent but allowed for a future application if needed. The direction to the investigating officer to provide 7-days notice before arrest was set aside, as the prosecution indicated no need for custodial interrogation. The matter remains open for the parties to pursue legal remedies.

SHIKHA GUPTA VS ANISH GUPTA [CRL.M.C.-2802/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, only the drawer of a cheque can be prosecuted. The petitioners were not the drawers of the dishonored cheques, which were issued from the personal account of petitioner no. 1's husband. Section 141, concerning offenses by companies, does not apply as the petitioners were not directors or partners of the issuer. The complaint against the petitioners was quashed, allowing proceedings only against the actual drawer of the cheques.

SHIKHA SHAH VS RENU PROMOTERS PVT LTD [CRL.M.C.-456/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition challenging the summoning order was dismissed. The complaint included specific assertions that the dishonored cheque was issued with the petitioner's consent, as she is a director of the accused company. This established grounds for her to stand trial under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, which assigns criminal liability to company directors in case of cheque dishonor. The petitioner did not deny her consent in the response to the notice, creating a presumption against her. The limited scope of scrutiny at the summoning stage resulted in the petition's dismissal.

SHIV CHARAN CHAUHAN & ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-361/2011]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The Additional Sessions Judge violated the principles of natural justice by framing additional charges against the petitioners without prior notice and an opportunity to be heard. The order framing the additional charges was set aside, and the matter was remanded for notice and a hearing before deciding on the charges.

SHOAIB ALAM @ BOBBY VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3965/2021]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Shoaib Alam was granted bail on charges related to the murder of Ankit Sharma during the Delhi riots. The evidence presented by the prosecution was not sufficiently strong, as witness statements failed to clearly identify him as part of the mob involved. Additionally, the possibility of being charged for the same acts under multiple FIRs was noted. Considerations included Alam's long incarceration of over four years and his family circumstances. Bail was approved with strict conditions to prevent absconding or evidence tampering, with clarifications that the observations made were solely for the bail application and not a final determination of guilt.

SHRI KARRAR HUSAIN KHAN VS N C T OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2620/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition filed by the accused seeking to quash an FIR for offences under Sections 420, 406, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The power to quash an FIR should be exercised sparingly and only in rare cases, with no inquiry into the reliability of the allegations at this initial stage. Specific allegations against the petitioner regarding involvement in meetings related to the alleged conspiracy warrant thorough investigation, and the petition did not establish grounds for quashing the FIR. The dismissal clarified that the observations made would not influence the ongoing investigation or trial.

SHRI PUNIT CHITKARA VS SHRI GAGAN PREET SINGH & ORS [CS(OS)-398/2017]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was allowed, enabling necessary corrections for proper adjudication of the dispute. This included fixing a typographical error in a receipt date, adding a claim for an additional cash payment of Rs. 10 lakhs, and challenging a sale deed executed by certain defendants. The amendments did not alter the suit's nature or retract any admissions made by the plaintiff.

SHRI RAJAN WALIA & ANR. VS STATE & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-68/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioners proved the due execution of the will of Smt. Kamlesh Kumari, meeting the requirements of the Indian Evidence Act and the Indian Succession Act. There were no suspicious circumstances regarding the will's execution. Letters of Administration were issued in favor of the petitioners, who are the sole beneficiaries, without the need for an administrative bond. Pending interlocutory applications were deemed infructuous.

SHRI RAKESH KUMAR GHEI & ANR. VS STATE & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-77/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The Will dated March 30, 1994, executed by Shri Vas Dev Ghei is valid. The petitioners proved its due execution without any suspicious circumstances. The petition for letters of administration is not barred by limitation. Letters of administration are granted to the petitioners, contingent upon payment of the required Court Fee/Stamp Duty and the provision of necessary Administrative Bonds and surety.

SHRI VIJAY PRAKASH VS M/S ALOK INDUSTRIES LTD [CS(COMM)-272/2016]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff's claim in the pending suit was extinguished upon approval of the Resolution Plan for the defendant company by the National Company Law Tribunal. The plaintiff did not file its claim during the insolvency proceedings, and the approved Resolution Plan specified that claims of operational creditors who failed to file would be extinguished. The inherent powers under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure were exercised to dismiss the pending suit, as the relief sought could no longer be granted.

SHRI VIPIN PRAKASH AGGARWAL VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3165/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The order directing the children to meet their mother in a controlled setting was upheld, despite their reluctance. The recent separation of about six months was noted, along with potential influence from the father. This case differed from the precedent involving a long separation where the children were firmly against the meeting. The approach to re-establish the bond between the children and their mother was deemed to be in the children's best interests.

SMT. SEEMA KOHLI VS SH. SUNIL DUA & ORS. [CS(OS)-617/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A preliminary decree of partition was granted, declaring the plaintiff and defendants 1 to 3 as co-owners of the suit property, each with a 1/4th share. The defenses raised by defendants 1 and 2 were dismissed as lacking merit, and their counter-claim was rejected.

SOMRAJ@DHAMI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2180/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
Anticipatory bail granted to the respondent, the wife of deceased Ashok Maan, was canceled due to her breach of cooperation with the investigation. She failed to disclose the whereabouts of her late husband's licensed pistol, essential for the inquiry into the alleged attack on the petitioner. This lack of cooperation justified the necessity for custodial interrogation to uncover the full conspiracy, leading to the cancellation of her bail.

SONIA MADAN VS SANJEEV BISLA [CRL.M.C.-294/2024]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
Sonia Madan received a final opportunity to cross-examine Sanjeev Bisla in a complaint case under the Negotiable Instruments Act, after her right to file an application was previously closed due to defaults. The opportunity is contingent upon her depositing additional costs of Rs. 25,000. The trial court was instructed to expedite the case and avoid further unnecessary adjournments.

SONU @ SUNIL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4168/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The FIR and subsequent proceedings against Sonu @ Sunil, charged under Sections 363 and 376 of the IPC, Section 6 of the POCSO Act, and Section 3 of the Child Marriage Act, were quashed. The girl, though initially a minor when she eloped with him, is now living happily with Sonu and their two children. Both the girl and her father indicated that the relationship was consensual. Continuing the prosecution would unjustly affect the girl and their children, serving no beneficial purpose.

SPECTRA TELEVENTURES PVT LTD VS ALLIANC TELENET PVT LTD & ORS [CS(COMM)-530/2016]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The plaintiff completed the work as per the contract with the defendant company, which had received full payment from the principal employer NCCL. The defendant company's claims that the work was incomplete lacked support. The defendant company is required to pay the remaining amount of Rs. 79,70,985/- with interest at 9% per annum from the date of the legal notice, along with the costs of the suit.

SPEEDACC LEARNING SYSTEMS PVT LTD & ANR. VS SATYASAI PANIGRAHY [CRL.M.C.-2641/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The petition seeking to quash a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Petitioner no. 2, a director and signatory of the dishonored cheque, can be considered an accused as responsible for the company's business conduct. Authority to sign implies responsibility, as established in prior judgments. The liability of petitioner no. 1 to the respondent presents a disputed question of fact, which cannot be resolved at this stage. The presumption under Section 139 is that the cheque was issued to discharge a debt, and the petitioners may challenge this during the trial. The power to quash complaints should be used cautiously when factual disputes exist, leaving the trial court to evaluate the evidence. The petition was dismissed with costs directed to be paid to the respondent.

STATE VS MUNISH KUMAR GAUR [CRL.M.C.-3371/2022]
Judges: Justice Navin Chawla
The discharge of the respondent was deemed valid as the prosecution's material did not create grave suspicion for framing charges. The findings of the Internal Complaints Committee, which exonerated the respondent after examining multiple witnesses, supported this conclusion. Continuing the criminal prosecution under the same circumstances was viewed as an abuse of the legal process. The petition challenging the discharge was dismissed.

STATE VS ROCKY [CRL.M.C.-219/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The State's petition challenging the trial court's grant of bail to the respondent under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act was dismissed. The peculiar facts, including the trial being at the charge framing stage and no delay caused by the respondent, led to the decision not to cancel the bail. Observations made by the trial court were stated not to affect its future adjudication of the criminal trial.

STATE VS SATISH KUMAR & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-551/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The allegations against Satish Kumar and others were deemed vague and lacking specific details, with evidence insufficient to create a "grave suspicion" for framing charges. The charges appeared retaliatory, especially after the main accused, Mohit, was acquitted. At the charge-framing stage, it is crucial to consider the overall probabilities of the case rather than act solely on the prosecution's claims.

SUBHASH ARORA VS KALVINDER SINGH SANDHU & ORS [EX.P.-54/2017]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

M/s. Wimpy International Limited's application to set aside a decree in favor of Mr. Subhash Arora was dismissed due to the lack of documentary proof of property ownership. The applicant's claim of possession was insufficient, and it was deemed a trespasser. No merit was found in the application, leading to its dismissal.

SUBHASH CHANDER SACHDEVA & ANR VS BOCHU VENKATESHWAR RAO & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-515/2017]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Amounts received as death benefits from Infosys cannot be deducted from compensation under the Motor Vehicles Act. Future prospects to be applied is 50% of the deceased's actual income, with a multiplier of 18 based on the deceased's age. The compensation was modified based on the deceased's actual income of Rs. 35,870 per month at the time of the accident. This matter involves two appeals from claimants and the insurance company.

SUKHRAM BANSAL VS ASHOK KUMAR [CRL.M.C.-2764/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The dismissal of the complaint under Section 204(4) of the Code of Criminal Procedure for non-payment of process fees was valid. Sections 204(4) and 256 Cr.P.C. were distinguished in their applicability. The proper remedy for the complainant against the dismissal was a revision petition under Section 397 Cr.P.C., which was invoked correctly. The challenge to the revisional order was dismissed with no error found in the impugned order.

SULTAN@RAJESH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-312/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The grounds cited by the State for rejecting the petitioner's furlough application were unsupported, as similar grounds had been previously rejected when granting furlough and parole. The petitioner generally surrendered on time after earlier releases, except for one occasion where he lacked information about the surrender date. The petitioner's medical condition and need for aftercare during the post-treatment period were also considered. The order dated 17.05.2023 was set aside, and the petitioner was granted a three-week furlough, subject to certain conditions.

SUMA GEORGE VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-357/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

No fault was found in the order framing charges under Sections 304/34 IPC instead of Section 302 IPC. The incident was characterized as not premeditated, occurring in the heat of the moment due to sudden provocation by the deceased. The accused did not use a deadly weapon and lacked the intent to cause death, despite severe injuries inflicted. A petition challenging the framing of charges was dismissed.

SUMIT KUMAR VS MANOJ KUMAR AND ORS. [CRL.M.C.-6954/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Sumit Kumar challenging the judgment and order from the Metropolitan Magistrate was dismissed. The petitioner initially appealed the conviction and sentencing order in the wrong court and later sought clarification on the appropriate appellate court, which was also dismissed. The proper jurisdiction for the appeal was established as the Sessions Court at Patiala House Courts, indicating that the petitioner's attempt to file elsewhere constituted an abuse of process.

SUNIL KUMAR KHUNTETA VS ASHOK CHAUDHARY & ANR. [CS(OS)-292/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint and add a request for recovery of the balance sale consideration of Rs. 1,04,50,000/- was permitted. The amendment does not alter the nature of the suit, as it is based on the same facts concerning the defendant's failure to pay the full sale price. The claim is not time-barred, as the amendment relates back to the filing of the suit. The amendment is deemed necessary for effective resolution of the dispute.

SUNIL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1688/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Sunil was granted bail on charges under the NDPS Act due to a significant delay in trial, exceeding three years and ten months without commencement, and failure to follow sample collection procedures. These factors raised reasonable doubts about his guilt, meeting the bail conditions under the NDPS Act.

SURAJ KUMAR (IN JC) VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-278/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The revision petition filed by Suraj Kumar challenging the trial court's order to frame charges under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. Sufficient cause to proceed against him was established based on prosecution allegations, including CCTV footage. At the charge-framing stage, the existence of a prima facie case is assessed without detailed analysis of evidence probative value. The circumstances alleged by the prosecution met the requirements for invoking Section 34 regarding common intention. The dismissal clarified that the observations would not prejudice the petitioner during the trial.

SURESH KUMAR SHARMA VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-219/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Suresh Kumar Sharma's revision petition was dismissed, confirming his conviction under Section 630 of the Companies Act for wrongfully withholding possession of a flat belonging to BSES Yamuna Power Ltd. The flat had been transferred to BSES as per the Delhi Electricity Reforms Act and Rules, granting BSES the authority to evict unauthorized occupants. The evidence and findings of the lower courts were not shown to be unreasonable or perverse by Sharma.

TANI SANDHU BHARGAVA VS SHUMITA DIDI SANDHU [CS(OS)-452/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The defendant's claim that the property was a Hindu Undivided Family (HUF) property lacked documentary evidence and was dismissed as implausible. The property was established to belong solely to the plaintiff's mother, who transferred it to the plaintiff through a registered gift deed. The burden of proving the existence of an HUF and its properties rested on the defendant, which was not satisfied. Under the Hindu Succession Act, the plaintiff's mother had the right to gift her absolute property. The plaintiff's application for possession was granted, and the defendant was ordered to relinquish the property.

TATA POWER DELHI DISTRIBUTION LIMITED VS AMIT BANSAL [CRL.L.P.-173/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition by Tata Power Delhi Distribution Limited to appeal the acquittal of Amit Bansal was dismissed. The petitioner failed to prove the charges of electricity theft beyond reasonable doubt. The forensic expert's report was deemed presumptive and lacking in scientific validity. The burden of proof remained on the prosecution and could not be shifted to the accused. The leave petition was dismissed without separate judgments from the judges.

THE FERTILIZER ASSOCIATION OF INDIA & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-1800/2015]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

In the absence of a provision for interest on delayed subsidy payments in the relevant policy, fertilizer companies cannot claim such interest. Previous judgments indicate that interest may only be awarded to petitioners if a reciprocal stipulation exists or compelling reasons are presented. The interest component is already factored into the cost of fertilizer; thus, allowing such claims would result in unjust enrichment for the companies. The petition was dismissed, as framing a policy or providing specific relief was not permissible under Article 226 of the Constitution.

UNION OF INDIA VS CAIRN INDIA LTD & ORS [CS(OS)-2445/2015]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The suit filed by the Union of India lacked territorial jurisdiction because the available remedies are in Kuala Lumpur, where challenges to the Arbitral Tribunal's decisions must be filed. The suit was dismissed, allowing the plaintiff to seek remedies in the competent court in Kuala Lumpur.

VAKAMULLA CHANDRASHEKHAR & ORS. VS REGISTRAR OF COMPANIES -THROGH ITS DEPUTY REGISTRAR NCT OF DELHI AND HARYANA [CRL.M.C.-2372/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The learned Special Judge lacked jurisdiction to restore a complaint dismissed due to the non-appearance of the complainant, as subordinate criminal courts do not possess inherent powers to review or recall their orders. The dismissal of the complaint is considered a final order. The order restoring the complaint and taking cognizance of the case was set aside, but the respondent may pursue appropriate legal remedies for restoration of the complaint.

VANDANA SHARMA VS AMAN MALLICK [CS(OS)-267/2019]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The defendant can use the will dated June 19, 2018 as a defense, despite withdrawing the probate petition for it, as this withdrawal does not constitute a final decision on the merits. The present suit was filed before the withdrawal, and the principle of res judicata does not apply. The plaintiff cannot obtain a decree on admission under Order 12 Rule 6 of the CPC due to contested issues that require both parties to present evidence. The case will proceed to trial to address various issues, including the validity of the wills executed by the parties' mother.

VARUN VS TOOLIKA PANDEY [CRL.M.C.-5187/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The complaint against the petitioner, an Additional/Non-Executive Director appointed after the issuance of dishonored cheques, was quashed. The cheques were presented after corporate insolvency proceedings were initiated, which included an Interim Resolution Professional authorized to operate the bank accounts. Since the petitioner was not in control or management of the company's affairs at the relevant time, prosecution for the dishonor of the cheques was not applicable.

VEERPRABHU PROJECTS PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS JAYANT JAIN & ORS. [CS(COMM)-1118/2018]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The defendants' application to reject the plaintiffs' suit under Order VII Rule 11 was dismissed. The plaintiffs are not bound by the sale consideration in the disputed sale deed due to allegations of forgery. An earlier suit and a pending execution petition do not bar the current suit, as the plaintiffs claim ignorance of the sale deed details at the time of those proceedings. The principle of Order II Rule 2 does not apply, as these issues require evidentiary examination beyond the scope of the current application.

VIJENDRA NATH GUPTA VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5884/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petition under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code was dismissed, affirming that the application regarding the alleged forgery of a document should be considered alongside the final adjudication of the complaint case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The determination of the forged document's impact on justice is to be addressed by the Metropolitan Magistrate with the complaint case's final judgment, following established legal principles.

VIKAS GUPTA VS WILEY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-3686/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Vikas Gupta, as the Director of Miles Education Private Limited, is liable under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 for the offence of dishonor of cheque under Section 138, as the conditions for liability were met during his tenure. The plea to quash the complaint from Wiley India Private Limited was dismissed due to the presence of disputed facts that could not be resolved in the current proceedings.

VIKRAM VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-94/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The bail application of Vikram, the elder brother of the deceased's husband, was dismissed due to serious allegations of dowry harassment, cruelty, and abetment of suicide, supported by corroborative evidence from a prior complaint by the deceased's sister. The existence of specific allegations against Vikram did not support his claim for bail parity with other co-accused family members. No significant change in circumstances was present since the previous dismissal of his bail application, justifying the decision to deny bail.

VIMAL KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2834/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Vimal Kumar's anticipatory bail application was dismissed due to serious offenses undermining public confidence in the police. CCTV and video footage depicted him and his family assaulting police officials during his attempted arrest for violating an externment order. His lack of full cooperation with the investigation, including not providing relevant video footage, contributed to the decision against granting bail.

VIMMI RANDHAWA VS HARMEET SINGH KALKA AND ORS [CONT.CAS(C)-495/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

A judgment was pronounced in a batch of connected matters, specifically in CONT.CAS(C) 131/2022 involving Mrs. Tejinder Pal Gujral and S Manjinder Singh Sirsa & Ors. The judgment for CONT.CAS(C) 495/2023 has been reserved and is scheduled for further hearing on 12th August 2024. The focus is on the decision-making process in the connected matter without specific details on legal reasoning or points addressed.

VIPUL GUPTA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-229/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The orders imposing a condition requiring petitioners to seek prior permission before traveling abroad were set aside. The right to travel abroad is recognized as part of personal liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution. The trial court failed to provide reasons for the restriction. Petitioners had a history of traveling abroad without any issues, and the trial had been pending for a significant time. Arguments regarding delay and acquiescence were dismissed, as the infringement of fundamental rights was the main focus.

VIPUL JAIN VS STATE THROUGH GOVT OF (NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-4304/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner's application for anticipatory bail was dismissed due to the need for a detailed investigation into allegations of producing a forged arbitration order. It was noted that while the complainant had not paid loan instalments, vehicle recovery must adhere to legal procedures. The petitioner's involvement at the scene and potential fabrication of the order requires further investigation, possibly involving confrontation with witnesses. Reliance on previous judgments was rejected as they were factually distinguishable. The dismissal clarified that this does not prejudice the petitioner's rights in future proceedings.

VISHWAS INGALE VS M/S ZENITH RUBBER PRIVATE LIMITED [CRL.M.C.-1870/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The complaint against Vishwas Ingale under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed because the cheque in question was issued by his wife, the proprietor of M/s AakarPackart. Since only the drawer of the cheque can be prosecuted and vicarious liability provisions do not apply to proprietorships, Ingale cannot be considered an accused in the complaint.

VIVEK KESHAVAN VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-6503/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Charges have been framed against Vivek Keshavan under Section 120-B (criminal conspiracy) in conjunction with Sections 419 (impersonation) and 420 (cheating) of the Indian Penal Code. Sufficient circumstantial evidence indicates Keshavan's involvement in a conspiracy with Pramod Kumar Singh to impersonate government officials and obtain benefits from various government departments. Evidence includes call detail records, witness statements, and the use of Keshavan's mobile number and identity by the co-accused to solicit favors. Keshavan also utilized a vehicle from a government office in Pondicherry. The defense's claim of misuse of his name and mobile number will need to be substantiated at trial. The request to quash the charges has been dismissed, allowing the case to proceed to trial.

VLS FINANCE LTD VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-8758/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The victim/complainant has a right to be heard in revision petitions filed by the accused regarding the order framing charges, but this does not include the right to be made a party in such petitions. The importance of the public prosecutor's role in the prosecution process must be balanced with the victim's right to justice. The previous order was partially set aside, allowing the complainant a fair and reasonable opportunity to present their case in the revision petitions.

X VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.A.-526/2023]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The trial court's order granting bail to the accused was set aside due to non-compliance with mandatory notice requirements under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, which failed to notify the victim and provide her an opportunity to be heard. The defect in the process necessitated a restoration of the bail application to the trial court for a hearing involving the victim before deciding on bail.

YOGESH CHANDAR GOYAL & ORS. VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-888/2022]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

Cognizance of the offense under Section 447 of the Companies Act requires a complaint from the Director of the Serious Fraud Investigation Office or a Central Government officer; private complaints are not permissible, leading to the dismissal of the summoning order for this offense. The complaint under Section 185 was barred by the statute of limitations, as it was filed years after the alleged offense. In contrast, the offense under Section 452 is considered a continuing offense, allowing the complaint to proceed without limitation issues, thus the summoning order for this offense was upheld. Dismissal of the Section 185 offense does not prevent the complainant from requesting an extension of the limitation period under Section 473 of the Criminal Procedure Code in the trial court.

ZAHIR ABBAS ANSARI VS VINOD KUMAR JAIN [CRL.REV.P.-457/2024]

Judges: Justice Navin Chawla

The petitioner was convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act based on acknowledgment of a business relationship with the respondent, previous dishonored cheques, and a signed settlement agreement. The petitioner could not rebut the presumption that the cheques were issued to settle a legally enforceable debt. The trial and appellate courts provided clear reasoning for the conviction, which remained unchallenged.

ABBOTT HEALTHCARE PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [CS(COMM)-225/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Abbott Healthcare Private Limited is entitled to recover Rs. 3,25,76,118 deducted by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare as liquidated damages, which were taken unilaterally without following the contract's proper procedures. Interest at 7% per annum on the decretal amount will accrue from the date of suit initiation until realization. Other claims by Abbott, including costs from prior arbitration against RITES Ltd. and reimbursements for capital expenditures and payments to Bharat Parenterals Limited, were rejected due to lack of sufficient evidence and responsibility for the arbitration failure.

ABHIJIT KUMAR RAVIDAS VS THE NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED & ORS. [MAC.APP.-276/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals filed by Abhijit Kumar Ravidas, the registered owner of the offending vehicle, were dismissed regarding his liability for compensation related to an accident. Despite having sold the vehicle to Anju Azad prior to the accident and providing evidence of this sale, Ravidas remained jointly and severally liable to compensate third parties, as his name was still registered with the RTO. Although he did not disclose the sale initially, it was confirmed that he informed the police during the investigation. Consequently, Ravidas cannot avoid liability as the registered owner, though he may seek remedies against the actual owner.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LIMITED VS ADI LAKSHMI TRADERS & ORS [ARB.P.-521/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Aditya Birla Finance Limited's petition under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the appointment of Justice Deepa Sharma as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with Adi Lakshmi Traders & Ors. A valid arbitration agreement between the parties was established, and the parties were instructed to present objections to the appointed arbitrator. The arbitrator is required to make necessary disclosures and must meet eligibility criteria under Section 12 of the Act. The appointment and associated fees will follow the rules set by the DIAC.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LIMITED VS D K INDUSTRIES AND ORS. [ARB.P.-242/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Aditya Birla Finance Limited's petition led to the appointment of Mr. Justice G.P. Mittal as the sole arbitrator for disputes with D K Industries and others. The arbitration clauses in the agreements were validly invoked, and the respondents did not respond to arbitration notices. The parties can raise objections before the arbitrator, whose fees will be determined according to the Fourth Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or as mutually agreed.

AGILUS DIAGNOSTICS LIMITED VS VIKASH KUMAR CHAUDHARY [ARB.P.-509/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Agilus Diagnostics Limited's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the appointment of Ms. Justice Mukta Gupta (Retd.) as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with Vikash Kumar Chaudhary. The agreement between the parties, dated 28.05.2018, included an arbitration clause, and arbitrable disputes were identified. The parties were instructed to contact the appointed arbitrator within one week of the order communication.

AJAY NARAIN VS AARTI SINGH & ORS. [CS(OS)-1336/1998]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Agreements to sell, general powers of attorney, receipts, and associated documents executed by the plaintiff were recognized as genuine sale transactions favoring the defendants, not merely security for a loan. The defendants had paid the full sale consideration for the property's first and second floors. The plaintiff's claim of returning Rs. 45 lakhs was rejected due to proven forgery of the receipts. The valuation of the suit property was amended, allowing the plaintiff to pay enhanced court fees. The defendants were granted specific performance of the agreements to sell, with the plaintiff directed to execute sale deeds within 60 days, while the plaintiff's suit was dismissed.

AJIT KUMAR GOLA VS STATE (GNCTD) AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-1918/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Revisional Court erred in discharging Inspector Khushal Singh, despite allegations of his involvement in a conspiracy to assault the complainant. At the summoning stage, the truth of the allegations does not need to be evaluated, and the complainant's sworn testimony cannot be disregarded. While the decision to remand the case for reconsideration of the summoning order against the other accused (respondents No. 2-7) was upheld, it was noted that the evidence and allegations against them warranted their summoning. Consequently, the petitions were allowed, partially setting aside the Revisional Court's order while affirming the original summoning order.

AKASH S/O SALLI VS STATE [CRL.A.-360/2009]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Akash was convicted for robbery under Section 394 of the Indian Penal Code, but his conviction under Section 397 for robbery with attempt to cause death or grievous hurt was set aside. The testimonies of the injured victim and an eyewitness were deemed credible, establishing the identity of the accused and confirming that robbery occurred with injuries inflicted. However, Akash was not found to have inflicted the stab injuries. His sentence was modified from 7 years to 5 years of rigorous imprisonment under Section 394 IPC.

AKASH VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2741/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of petitioner Akash was denied following accusations of forcibly entering a scrap godown, demanding money from laborers, and assaulting them and local residents, resulting in injuries to five individuals, including a 62-year-old woman. Co-accused Arun disclosed Akash's involvement after surrendering. The investigation is at an early stage, with the recovery of case property still pending, leading to the rejection of the anticipatory bail application due to the seriousness of the offenses under the BNSS Act, 2023.

AKSHAY CHATURVEDI VS AYUSH CHATURVEDI & ANR. [ARB.P.-228/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Valid arbitration agreements existed between the parties through two partnership deeds dated 06.06.2021 and 01.01.2022, despite being labeled "proposed." The death of one original partner did not invalidate these agreements, as the legal heirs are bound by them. The argument regarding the non-registration of the partnership deeds was rejected since the bar under Section 69 of the Partnership Act does not apply to arbitration proceedings. A sole arbitrator, Ms. Ruchi Narula, was appointed to resolve the disputes.

AKSHAY KUMAR VS NATIONAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. & ORS. [MAC.APP.-260/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation award of Rs. 11,17,000 for the appellant with 40% permanent neuropsychological and locomotor disability due to a road accident was upheld. The lack of evidence connecting the disability to the revocation, cancellation, or denial of the driving license, which affected his ability to work as a commercial driver, was noted. The original assessment based on a 25% loss of earning capacity was deemed reasonable.

AMAARA & ORS. VS MRIDULA DALMIA & ORS. [CS(OS)-380/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs' application for amendment of the plaint to include additional details about the shares of S.N. Dalmia & Sons HUF in Durga Enterprises Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The proposed amendments would change the suit's nature from partition and rendition of accounts to declaration of title over the shares, which is not permissible. The plaintiffs can only claim partition of HUF assets as they existed at the time the suit was filed. The application for status quo and disclosure regarding the sale consideration of the HUF's shares was also dismissed. The case is scheduled for issue framing on 08.07.2024.

AMANDEEP SINGH DHALL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-2761/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Amandeep Singh Dhall is entitled to bail in the money laundering case related to the Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22. He meets the conditions for bail under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, as the investigation is complete and further detention violates his right to life and liberty. Bail conditions include furnishing a bond, reporting to the Investigating Officer, and not leaving the country without permission.

AMANDEEP SINGH UBEROI VS TRIPPING MR PINK PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-336/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The notice of invocation of arbitration by Mr. Siddharth Sharma was deemed valid, as Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 does not require the notice to be issued by a party to the arbitration agreement, provided it indicates the intent to refer disputes to arbitration. The earlier termination notice sufficiently defined the scope of disputes, and the subsequent notice was considered a continuation of that. Mr. Anant Vijay Palli was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes between the parties.

AMARJEET MALIK VS DDA & OTHERS [CS(OS)-1170/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to restore a previously dismissed application was granted due to reasonable explanations for non-appearance, such as being delayed at Patiala House Courts and facing heavy traffic. While the CPC does not provide for the restoration of an application, inherent powers were exercised to allow the restoration for adjudication.

AMARJIT SINGH KOHLI VS ASHOK KUMAR SAPRA [C.R.P.-117/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for specific performance of an oral agreement to sell property is maintainable. Oral agreements to sell remain valid and enforceable despite amendments to the Registration Act, Transfer of Property Act, and Stamp Act. The plaintiff's pleadings detail the alleged agreement, including the sale consideration and part-payment made. An alternative request for a refund of the money also discloses a cause of action. The defendant's civil revision petition against the dismissal of his application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure is dismissed.

AMIT ARORA VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-2727/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Amit Arora is entitled to bail in a case under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, based on serious medical conditions, including morbid obesity. The delay in investigation and trial, his strong societal ties, and the absence of flight risk or evidence tampering contributed to the decision. Bail was granted with specific conditions.

AMIT KATHURIA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-333/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Amit Kathuria received anticipatory bail in a case involving allegations of forgery and cheating under the Indian Penal Code. The dispute was assessed as primarily civil, focusing on the sale of shares and loan repayment, rather than criminal activity. The loan application, signed by directors and documented in the company's tax returns, indicated awareness of the transaction by all parties. Insufficient justification for custodial interrogation was noted, with the matters being identified as long-standing civil disputes.

AMIT KATYAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT GOVERNMENT OFINDIA [BAIL APPLN.-2024/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Amit Katyal, a witness in the "Land for Job Scam" case, can be charged as an accused under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) despite not being an accused in the underlying offense. He was found to be involved in acquiring, possessing, and concealing proceeds of crime related to the main accused, specifically concerning one land parcel worth Rs. 10.83 lakhs, which qualifies for an exemption from certain bail conditions under the PMLA. Bail was granted with specific conditions, given the completion of investigations and the potential length of the trial.

AMIT SAINI VS JAI PRAKASH MITTAL [CRL.M.C.-1892/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Amit Saini's petition challenging the summoning order under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The legal notice sent to Saini as the director of Kanak Developers and Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. was deemed sufficient, and the company was also an accused in the case. Saini's argument regarding the maintainability of proceedings against him without prosecution against the company was rejected, indicating that his defense needed a trial for resolution. The petition lacked merit and was dismissed without comment on the case's merits.

AMIT SINGH BAKSHI VS HARVINDER SINGH & ORS. [CS(OS)-214/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff, claiming to be the sole executor of Smt. Mohindar Bakshi's will dated 15.07.2016, is not entitled to a decree on admissions against the defendant Harvinder Singh. Disputed facts and issues raised by both parties require a full trial, as there are no clear admissions from the defendant to justify a decree in favor of the plaintiff. The plaintiff's application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC was dismissed, and the case was referred back for further proceedings.

AMITA GANDOAK VS HARKIRAT SINGH SODHI & ANR [CS(OS)-90/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for partition of ancestral family properties is not maintainable due to a previous consent decree from 10.09.1985 that partitioned certain properties, which the plaintiff acknowledged. The plaintiff cannot challenge this decree with a separate suit and should have approached the original court. For the remaining properties, the plaintiff's lack of detail regarding ownership and the absence of evidence for a Hindu Undivided Family (HUF) preclude any claim for a share during her father's lifetime. Therefore, the plaintiff's suit was rejected.

AMRIT PAL SINGH GAMBHIR VS INDERJEET SINGH GAMBHIR & ANR [CS(OS)-331/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by defendant No. 2 to amend the written statement was allowed. The amendments aimed to include facts about prior litigation related to the suit property, assert that no relief was sought against defendant No. 2, and argue that the current suit is barred by estoppel. As the case was at an initial stage and no prejudice would occur to either party, the amended written statement was permitted. The plaintiff must file a replication within 15 days of receiving the amended document, with no extensions allowed.

ANAND RATHI GLOBAL FINANCE LIMITED VS ACCURATE ENGINEERING WORKS & ORS. [ARB.P.-156/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Abhijat, has been appointed to resolve the dispute between Anand Rathi Global Finance Limited and Accurate Engineering Works & Ors. The dispute involves a secured loan defaulted by the respondent. The parties are to contact the appointed Arbitrator within one week to initiate arbitration under DIAC rules.

ANIL DUTT SHARMA VS THE GOVT. OF GNCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-902/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Anil Dutt Sharma's criminal writ petition challenging the special judge's decision in a bribery case was dismissed. Sharma sought to summon 11 witnesses for his defense, but the judge allowed only 3. The examination of the proposed witnesses showed that the judge had considered the relevance of each and provided detailed reasoning for the decisions. No infirmity or illegality was found in the judge's order.

ANIL JAIN VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3892/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The original complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against Anil Jain, a non-executive director of the accused company, was subsumed in a mediated settlement agreement with another director of the company. Once a complaint is settled through a mediated agreement endorsed by the court, it cannot continue, with remedies limited to contempt proceedings or recovery of the settlement amount under the Criminal Procedure Code. The plea to quash the original proceedings was dismissed, as the matter was restricted to executing the mediated settlement. Anil Jain's grievance regarding not being a party to the settlement can be addressed in contempt proceedings if applicable.

ANIL KUMAR AND ORS VS SURESH AND ORS [MAC.APP.-272/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

In MAC.APP 248/2022, compensation for loss of dependency was denied to Nitu and others because evidence of financial dependence on the deceased Aniket/Anil was lacking. In MAC.APP 272/2022, the decision to deduct 15% from the compensation awarded to the legal heirs of the deceased Usha for contributory negligence was modified. It was established that Usha's status as a pillion rider with two others did not constitute contributory negligence, as there was no proof that it contributed to the accident or its impact. Full compensation was granted without any deduction.

ANIL KUMAR GARG VS THE STATE OF N C T OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2774/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The criminal writ petition was dismissed. The application for a cross-FIR under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. was rejected by lower courts. The petitioner can still prove his case through evidence recording under Section 200 Cr.P.C., with no police assistance needed at this stage due to sufficient corroboration from CCTV and mobile video recordings. The deferment of FIR registration does not indicate a lack of merit in the complaint, and the petitioner may seek police assistance under Section 202 Cr.P.C. during evidence recording if necessary.

ANIL KUMAR SHARMA & ORS VS AWADH KISHORE [C.R.P.-213/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The civil revision petition filed by the defendants resulted in the rejection of the plaintiff's suit for possession and damages. The plaintiff lacked valid title to the property, as the documents he provided did not confer ownership rights. Admission of signing blank papers and stamp papers in favor of the defendants in 1984 indicated those were the actual title documents. The suit also lacked a cause of action, as the plaintiff did not seek a declaration regarding the validity of the documents favoring the defendants. Furthermore, the suit was filed nearly 38 years after the alleged dispossession, exceeding the limitation period under the Limitation Act.

ANIL VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT) DELHI THROUGH SHO, P.S. PASCHIM VIHAR WEST & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2562/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Anil, charged under Sections 376D, 394, 397, 506, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, was granted bail. The prosecutrix's testimony showed contradictions, but detailed analysis was not necessary at this stage. Anil has been in custody since August 18, 2020, with only 7 out of 25 prosecution witnesses examined, indicating trial delays. Due to these delays and the right to liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, bail was granted with conditions including a personal bond, mandatory appearances, providing a mobile number to the investigating officer, and no engagement in criminal activities or witness contact.

ANITA & ORS VS ANSHU LAL SHARMA & ORS (THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-119/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal was allowed, establishing that the accident resulted from the negligence of the bus driver. Testimonies indicated the bus had been parked on the extreme left side of the road for 2-3 days without warning indicators, violating the law. The bus driver failed to take necessary precautions or remove the vehicle, which directly caused the accident. A chargesheet was filed against the bus driver under the Motor Vehicles Act, supporting claims of negligence. The previous conclusion attributing negligence solely to the deceased driver of the car was overturned, and the parties were directed to determine compensation before the Tribunal.

ANJALI AND OTHER VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(CRL)-3344/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A criminal writ petition was dismissed due to lack of merit in claims of police harassment and false implication. Petitioner no. 4 was identified as a notorious bootlegger involved in over 100 cases, with his family operating an illicit liquor syndicate. The police case against the petitioners for assaulting officials during a raid was deemed a legitimate law enforcement action. No evidence of rights violations or threats was found, and the requested directions were not granted.

