ANJU MAHAJAN VS NASIR ALI & ORS (NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD) [MAC.APP.-155/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant is entitled to an upgraded wheelchair, with the insurance company responsible for verifying the cost and making payment to the vendor within 6 weeks. The open-ended direction for wheelchair provision is not acceptable due to existing legal precedents. The appellant may pursue a TDS refund through the appropriate channels, with execution applications for the award/order to be filed before the Tribunal, not the High Court.

ANKUSH & ANR. VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-398/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition filed by Ankush and Shivanu resulted in the order framing charges under Sections 307/34 IPC and 27 Arms Act being set aside. There was a lack of sufficient prima facie evidence against them, highlighted by the complainant's delayed identification, investigation lapses, and the potential for false implication due to a property dispute. The weak evidence indicated that subjecting them to a full trial would be unjust, leading to their discharge.

ANOOP SINGH & ANR VS STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-18/2009]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Upon the death of the sole executor named in the will, the beneficiaries are entitled to seek a letter of administration with the will annexed under Section 232 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925. The petitioners may amend the original probate petition to request this letter, as the law allows beneficiaries to continue proceedings and seek appropriate relief after the executor's death.

ANSH CHOUDHARY & ORS. VS HARKISHAN & ANR. [CS(OS)-450/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A preliminary decree for partition of a disputed residential plot was issued, recognizing the plaintiffs and defendants as recorded co-owners with shares ranging from 1/3rd to 1/6th. The analysis of the chain of title and devolution of rights established the specific shares of each party in the property. The case is adjourned for the final decree.

ANUJ NATH AND ORS VS NARENDER NATH AND ORS [CS(OS)-243/2015]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A Final Decree was issued directing the auction sale of the suit property and the distribution of proceeds among the parties. A previous Preliminary Decree had determined the shares and noted that the property could not be partitioned by metes and bounds. The Final Decree is subject to the outcome of a pending case regarding the same property.

ARASDEEP SINGH VS STATE GNCT DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2669/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959 was quashed due to the recovery of a single live cartridge without a firearm, which did not demonstrate the necessary mental element of conscious possession for the offense. The petitioner's explanation, as a poor farmer traveling abroad, indicated no criminal intent. The absence of other incriminating evidence led to the conclusion that prosecution under the Arms Act was not warranted.

ARUN RAMCHANDRAN PILLAI VS DIRECTORATE OD ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-3322/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Arun Ramchandran Pillai was granted bail in a PMLA case involving allegations of conspiracy related to the Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22, including forming a cartel and collecting kickbacks. Investigations are complete, and a chargesheet has been filed. Other co-accused have also received bail under similar conditions. Considerations included Pillai's professional background, social ties, trial delays, and low risk of flight or evidence tampering. Bail was granted with certain conditions.

ARUN SUD VS DR(MRS) ABHA SOOD & ORS [CS(OS)-2682/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The will dated 18.01.2010 executed by Smt. Ved Kumari Sud was not proven to be her final testamentary intent due to numerous interpolations and alterations that created doubts about whether they were made per her instructions. Given her frail health at the time, accepting the will as genuine required excessive speculation. Therefore, Smt. Ved Sud died intestate, and her property is to be divided equally among her four children according to succession rules.

ARUNA KHERA VS COL(RETD) VIPIN KHERA & ANR [CS(OS)-2348/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Will dated 12.11.2001 executed by Smt. Vidya Khera is recognized as her last and final valid Will, overriding the earlier Will dated 26.10.1993. The execution of the 12.11.2001 Will was proved in accordance with the law, and the reasons for the unequal distribution of property were deemed justified. A preliminary decree of partition was passed based on the 12.11.2001 Will, with further proceedings scheduled to determine the mode of partition for the final decree.

ARVIND AGGARWAL VS CHANDAN AGGARWAL & ANR [CS(OS)-249/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to recall a previous order dismissing their application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure was allowed, leading to consideration of the substantive application regarding the preparation of a decree sheet for a settlement agreement. The settlement agreement resulted in the physical partition of the Chhatarpur farm, while the New Friends Colony and Ashoka Estate properties were treated as a memorandum for future partition. Accordingly, stamp duty is required only for the Chhatarpur property, and the decree sheet will be based on the settlement agreement's terms.

ARVIND KEJRIWAL VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [W.P.(CRL)-1939/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition filed by Arvind Kejriwal challenging his arrest by the CBI in the Excise Policy case was dismissed. The arrest followed proper legal procedure with court permission, and the CBI provided sufficient justification for the arrest and custodial interrogation. Arguments claiming the arrest was arbitrary, malicious, or lacking grounds were rejected.

ARVIND KEJRIWAL VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION & ANR. & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2285/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application filed by Mr. Arvind Kejriwal is advised to be first approached to the trial court, as it has the relevant comprehensive record and can better adjudicate his role in the alleged conspiracy under Section 120-B. The bail application is disposed of, allowing the petitioner to seek regular bail from the Special Judge.

ARVIND KEJRIWAL VS DEPARTMENT OF DELHI PRISONS AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5116/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Arvind Kejriwal's petition resulted in the recognition of his fundamental right to a fair trial and effective legal representation, leading to the entitlement of two additional legal meetings per week via video conferencing with his lawyers. This decision addresses the challenges of multiple cases across various states and negates the need for separate applications, which would cause unnecessary delays. The prior denial of these meetings, based on jail policies and the lack of special status, was deemed unfounded, especially in light of similar relief granted to a co-accused.

ASHA BUDHANI VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4544/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Orders discharging Nawab Singh Bhati and Asha Budhani from charges under Section 304A IPC were set aside due to lack of evidence showing negligence or recklessness. The incident involving a 12-year-old student's fall from a second-floor railing was deemed an accident, with no responsibility attributed to the petitioners. The parapet height did not contribute to the fall, and the teacher was not accountable for the student's presence on the second floor, as it was an established routine. The petitioners were not considered criminally liable for the student's accidental death.

ASHA SRIVASTAVA VS ARUN SRIVASTAVA & ORS. [CS(OS)-270/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The registered Will dated February 2, 2002, executed by Late Smt. Kaushalya Srivastava was deemed valid and duly proved. The Testator exhibited sound mind and disposing capacity at the time of execution, bequeathing her entire estate to her three sons and excluding the plaintiff and her sisters. Claims of forgery or incompetence were dismissed, supported by testimonies from attesting witnesses and medical experts indicating the Testator's recovery and mental soundness in 2002, despite prior health issues in 1999.

ASHISH AZAD VS THE NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED & ORS. [MAC.APP.-101/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Ashish Azad was dismissed regarding recovery rights. Evidence, including the testimony of an eyewitness, the FIR, and documents, established Azad as the driver of the offending vehicle during the accident. Azad's failure to present evidence to support his claim that his brother was driving led to the conclusion of his liability.

ASHISH BHALLA VS VISHVENDRA SINGH [CS(OS)-65/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for malicious prosecution does not demonstrate a cause of action and is rejected. The defendant's multiple applications under Section 340 Cr.P.C., dismissed as premature, do not signify malicious prosecution, as there is no evidence of lack of reasonable cause or malice. Additionally, with the trial against the plaintiff still pending and no demonstrated loss of reputation or business, the plaintiff's claims are unsupported. The defendant's application is accepted, leading to the dismissal of the suit.

ASHKARAN OJHA VS SHIVAM KUMAR & ORS(L & T GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-1032/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation for the appellant injured in a road accident was increased from Rs. 5,23,614.15 to Rs. 8,10,000 with an additional 9% interest per annum. Compensation for loss of income was granted for 3 months, attendant charges for 8 months were enhanced, and amounts for non-pecuniary damages such as mental and physical shock, loss of amenities of life, and disfiguration were also increased. The assessment of 21% functional disability was upheld, indicating that the appellant could continue working as an LIC agent with assistance.

AYUSH VERMA VS LRS OF BEERU VERMA & ANR (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO. LTD) [MAC.APP.-842/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Negligence of the deceased motorcycle driver was established through eyewitness testimony, FIR, site plan, and cancellation report. The lower tribunal incorrectly granted compensation under the no-fault liability provision of Section 163A of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, instead of Section 166, which requires proof of negligence. The matter is referred back to the lower tribunal to determine compensation following Section 166.

ASHOK KUMAR & ANR VS KARAN BHATIA [MAC.APP.-271/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The accident resulting in Smt. Surjit Kaur's death was attributed to the rash and negligent driving of the offending vehicle by the respondent. The filing of the chargesheet against the respondent was deemed sufficient to demonstrate prima facie negligence, despite the respondent's later acquittal in the criminal case. The lower tribunal incorrectly dismissed the claim petition on the basis of insufficient proof of negligence. The case has been remanded to the tribunal to determine the compensation owed to the claimants.

ASHOK KUMAR VS MUNNI DEVI (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH L.RS AND ANR. [CS(OS)-330/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint in a suit concerning a forged and fabricated GPA executed by defendant no. 2 was allowed. The amendments included claims for damages, mesne profits, and usage charges against the defendants for illegal occupation of the suit property, which were deemed consequential to the claim for possession and did not alter the nature of the suit.

AVINASH KOTA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1071/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act for possession of a single live cartridge was quashed due to lack of conscious possession or knowledge. The cartridge was inadvertently left in the petitioner's baggage by a friend who had borrowed it for target practice. Previous judgments emphasized the need for proof of conscious possession for prosecution under this section, and the petitioner's explanation was deemed credible.

BABRA ELECTRICALS VS QVC INTERIORS &OTHERS [CS(OS)-448/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant's statements in the written statement were not clear, unequivocal, or unambiguous admissions of liability. An offer of Rs. 19,04,238 was deemed a conditional settlement, not an unconditional admission of outstanding dues. The plaintiff's application for a partial decree was dismissed.

BADRI BHAGAT JHANDEWALA TEMPLE SOCIETY VS SMT HAR PYARI [CS(OS)-381/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to include pleadings from a previous suit was allowed as they contained pertinent facts about the defendants. Additional issues were framed regarding res judicata based on a prior judgment, limitations, and whether the plaintiff approached with clean hands. The defendant's application to dismiss the suit was rejected due to the presence of disputed facts. An attempt to implead additional parties was dismissed, as they were deemed witnesses but not necessary or proper parties to the suit.

BALRAM @ BALLU VS SANJAY & ANR (RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-959/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The accident was caused by the rash and negligent driving of the offending vehicle, despite the claimant attempting to escape police custody. The tribunal's conclusion of no rashness or negligence was deemed flawed, as it relied too heavily on the MLC statement regarding the claimant's suicide attempt while ignoring eyewitness testimony and the charge sheet against the vehicle driver. The tribunal's findings on rashness and negligence were set aside, and the matter was remanded to consider the quantum of compensation for the claimant.

BALVINDER KAUR BRAR VS BALDEV SINGH GILL & ORS [CS(OS)-1213/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The release of 50% of the deposited money to the plaintiff's brother was based on the plaintiff's concession, not on merits. The remaining 50% cannot be released at this stage due to unresolved issues regarding the disputed properties' classification as coparcenary/HUF or individual properties under Will. An application by the sixth defendant to modify the interim status quo order was dismissed, as preserving the properties is necessary until final adjudication.

BARKHA SINGH VS VIKRAM [C.R.P.-187/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by Barkha Singh regarding the rejection of her application for interrogatories in a property dispute was dismissed. The application sought information on ownership already present in the records concerning Shri Suraj Mal, Smt. Bhagwati Devi, and their legal heirs. As the necessary documents were on file, the interrogatories were deemed unnecessary.

BHADRA INTERNATIONAL (INDIA) PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-414/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The unilateral appointment of the sole arbitrator by the Airport Authority of India was valid, as the petitioners had explicitly waived any objections in writing during the arbitral proceedings. Despite concerns about impartiality, the petitioners submitted to the tribunal's jurisdiction and stated they had no objections, constituting an express waiver under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The petitioners' preliminary objection was rejected, and the main petitions challenging the arbitral award were directed for consideration on merits.

BHAGWAN PRASAD BARANWAL VS STATE (N.C.T.) OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1167/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A practicing chartered accountant was granted regular bail in a criminal case involving allegations of forgery of bank guarantees. Although he introduced the complainant to co-accused individuals, there was no evidence of his direct involvement in the fraud. Co-accused had already received bail, and the petitioner's long professional history, absence of criminal records, and family responsibilities were considered. Bail was granted with conditions including restrictions on leaving Delhi/NCR, mandatory court appearances, and limitations on contacting witnesses.

BHANU RAGHAV VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-729/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by Bhanu Raghav seeking to recall prosecution witness PW-7, Virender Kumar, for further cross-examination was dismissed. PW-7 had already been thoroughly cross-examined by prior counsel, and the current counsel's reasons for recalling the witness lacked merit, as no new facts emerged. The decision emphasized that recalling the witness to address issues outside the original defense was not justified.

BHARAT HEAVY ELECTRICALS LIMITED VS ETHIOPIAN ELECTRIC POWER CORP & ORS [CS(COMM)-244/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff, Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited, can recover court fees and legal fees, provided invoices or proof of payment are submitted. Claims for bank guarantee commission charges and travel expenses were rejected, as they do not qualify as litigation costs. Bank guarantee commission should have been included as substantive relief in the suit, and travel expenses for settlement talks do not meet the criteria for litigation costs.

BHARAT MOHAN KOHLI VS STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-48/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The will dated 27.10.2013 executed by Mr. Man Mohan Kohli is affirmed as valid. Challenges to the will concerning the testator's mental capacity, alleged coercion, and claims of forgery were dismissed due to a lack of evidence. Administration was granted to the petitioner, the sole beneficiary named in the will.

BHOJRAJ VS DHARAMVIR & ORS (HDFC ERGO GEN INS CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-383/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal for enhanced compensation was dismissed. The appellant, a head constable, had a 25% permanent disability in his right lower limb but was assessed with a 15% functional disability of the whole body. It was noted that there was no loss of income due to the disability, and the previously awarded compensation was deemed just and fair, requiring no changes.

BHUSHAN STEEL AND STRIPS LTD. VS TYO TRADING ENTERPRISES AND ORS. [CS(COMM)-669/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bhushan Steel and Strips Ltd. is entitled to recover Rs. 1,79,38,582.72 from defendant No. 3 without interest, as previously determined. The defendant's argument to reconsider earlier findings based on jurisdiction issues was rejected, affirming that jurisdiction was established by higher authorities. The plaintiff's name has been successfully substituted to Tata Steel Ltd.

BIBHAV KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1827/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner was arrested by the police in compliance with Section 41 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and relevant legal guidelines. The necessity for the arrest was established to prevent the petitioner from committing further offenses, tampering with evidence, and influencing witnesses. Sufficient reasons were provided in the remand application, which led to the approval of police custody. The petition challenging the legality of the arrest was dismissed, as the facts confirmed that the arrest adhered to legal standards.

BIJENDERI & ORS VS SHYAMVEER SINGH & ORS (M/S ICICI LOMBARD GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-925/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the claimants against the dismissal of their claim under the Motor Vehicles Act was successful. Sufficient evidence showed that the accident resulted from rash and negligent driving by the Xylo car's driver. The chargesheet filed against the driver served as prima facie proof of negligence, supported by the doctrine of res ipsa loquitur. The original award was set aside, and the matter was remanded to the Tribunal for determination of fair compensation to the claimants.

BIKANERVALA FOODS PVT LTD VS M/S. NAMASTE FOODS & ORS. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's application under Section 15 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a substitute arbitrator was allowed due to the previous sole arbitrator's death, which made him unable to perform his functions. Justice Jayant Nath (Retd.) was appointed as the new arbitrator to resolve the disputes between the parties.

BINDRA TRAVEL LINE PVT. LTD. VS SEHWAG INTERNAIONAL SCHOOL [CS(COMM)-1231/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff is entitled to recover Rs.20,42,727 with 9% interest for bus services provided in April and May 2015. Claims for Rs.92,80,353 regarding annual increments and Rs.30,00,000 for loss of business were not granted. The contract was terminated by the plaintiff on 21.05.2015, disallowing claims for charges for June and July 2015. The suit was within limitation, and the plaintiff's court fee was appropriate.

BIPIN LALSINGH PAGAR @ PAGAR BIPIN LALSINH & ANR. VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2941/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bipin Lalsingh Pagar and his firm M/s Amax Agro Exports cannot be summoned under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for dishonoured cheques, as they are not signatories on those cheques. Liability under Section 138 applies only to the drawer of the dishonoured cheque, which remains applicable to Bhagat Daulat Gawali, the actual drawer. The summoning orders against Pagar and his firm are set aside.

BIPIN LALSINGH PAGAR @ PAGAR BIPIN LALSINH VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2986/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bipin Lalsingh Pagar, sole proprietor of M/s Amax Agro Exports, cannot be summoned for the dishonor of a cheque under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, as he was not the signatory. The cheque was signed by Bhagawat Daulat Gawali, who had no employment or authorization from Pagar or his firm. The summoning order was deemed illegal, leading to the quashing of the complaint against Pagar.

BKP ENTERPRISE & ANR VS SPICEJET LIMITED [CS(COMM)-1118/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A binding contract existed between the parties based on the Letter of Intent (LoI) dated 16.03.2016, despite its label as a non-binding document. Extensive services rendered by the plaintiffs were accepted by the defendant, leading to the LoI maturing into a binding contract. The defendant's claims of being absolved from obligations due to cautioning by the Haj Committee of India and alleged fraud by the plaintiffs were rejected. The plaintiffs were found ready and willing to perform their contractual duties, while the defendant was deemed to have breached the contract. Plaintiffs were awarded 22.5% of the defendant's actual profits of ₹31.7 crores from the Haj operations, along with 8% interest per annum from the date of the suit until payment.

BLOOMING ORCHID VS FP LIFE EDUCATION FOUNDATION [ARB.P.-630/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator is not barred by limitation. The period from February 2020 to March 2021, during which the parties engaged in negotiations, is excluded from the limitation period. The second notice of invocation of arbitration dated 31.01.2024 is within the three-year limitation period from the previous notice. A sole arbitrator is appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with parties allowed to raise their respective contentions before the arbitrator.

BOSCH LIMITED VS M/S GUPTAJEE ENGINEERS & ORS. [CS(OS)-135/2006]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The delay of 120 days in filing the application to set aside the abatement of the suit against defendant No. 2 was condoned due to inadvertence, affirming that procedural laws should not obstruct substantive rights. The abatement of the suit was set aside because the liabilities of the dissolved partnership firm may transfer to the legal heirs of defendant No. 2. The liabilities of a partnership firm do not disappear upon dissolution, and the sole proprietor's personal liability may be pursued against his legal heirs.

CAMPOS BROTHERS FARMS VS MATRU BHUMI SUPPLY CHAIN PVT. LIMITED AND ORS. [CS(COMM)-1173/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The civil suit filed by the plaintiff is not maintainable because the original cause of action has merged into an arbitral award granted in the plaintiff's favor. Under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, a foreign arbitral award is considered a deemed decree, and its enforceability can only be challenged on specific grounds in Section 48. Since the award was not set aside, its findings are binding and cannot be re-agitated in a new suit. The principles for foreign judgments differ from those for foreign arbitral awards, which do not need a separate decree for enforceability. Thus, the plaintiff cannot initiate a new suit based on the original cause of action, as it has already been conclusively resolved.

CAP CAB INDIA LTD & ANR VS MITTAL CABLES INDUSTRIES [C.R.P.-216/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioners' application to set aside an ex-parte decree was dismissed. The summons was properly served at the address on the invoices, which was also where goods were delivered and a cheque was issued. The petitioners' claims of fabrication and the need for service at other addresses were deemed to be afterthoughts. No merit was found in the revision petition.

CAPT. KUNAL KHAJURIA & ANR. VS MAJOR GENERAL SUDHIR MOHAN (RETD.) & ORS. [CS(OS)-219/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The onus of proof lies on defendant No. 2 to establish the existence of the Will dated 03.09.1997, as this is a new fact introduced in response to the plaintiff's claim for partition. Defendants were required to present their evidence first to prove the Will. Defendant No. 2 has the right to exhibit the original Will, and objections from the plaintiff regarding this were without merit. Defendant No. 2's applications were dismissed, and they were directed to present their evidence before the Joint Registrar.

CEC INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION (INDIA) PVT LTD & ANR VS VED PRAKASH SHARMA (DECEASED) THR LRS [C.R.P.-282/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit by the respondent against petitioner companies CICI and individuals Nita Ing and Ken V.C. Hung was rejected due to a lack of privity of contract. The contract existed only between the respondent and Taiwanese company CEC, and CICI, being a subsidiary, did not share liability. The individuals could not be sued independently of the company. The application to reject the suit was allowed based on failure to disclose a valid cause of action against the petitioners.

CHANPREET SINGH RAYAT VS ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE [BAIL APPLN.-2095/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bail was granted to Chanpreet Singh Rayat in a money laundering case by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) due to weak evidence against him and the significance of his right to personal liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution. Conditions for bail include furnishing a bond, reporting to the investigating officer, and not leaving the country without permission.

CEC-CICI JV & ORS. VS ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. [CS(COMM)-53/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs' application to include additional documents was dismissed due to a failure to provide a valid explanation for the delay in submission. Under the Commercial Courts Act, all documents must be filed within 30 days of initiating a suit, without discretion for late submissions. The plaintiffs had knowledge of the documents' relevance and the defendants' defenses but did not submit them with the response. Consequently, the application was dismissed as the issues were already framed and the case was scheduled for evidence recording.

CEMENT CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD VS MAHAVIR COAL WASHERIES PVT LTD [ARB.P.-104/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Cement Corporation of India Ltd's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the appointment of Mr. Justice R.K. Gauba (Retd.) as the Sole Arbitrator for disputes arising from an agreement dated 11.10.2018. A valid arbitration clause existed in the agreement, and the petitioner presented arbitrable disputes without objection from the respondent. The arbitrator's fees will follow Schedule-IV of the Act or as agreed by the parties.

CENTAURUS GREEN ENERGY PRIVATE LIMITED VS PDM EDUCATIONAL AND CHARITABLE TRUST [ARB.P.-400/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Centaurus Green Energy Private Limited's petition under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act resulted in the appointment of Mr. Gaurav Sarin as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with PDM Educational and Charitable Trust concerning a Power Purchase Agreement for a 100kWp Rooftop Solar Photovoltaic Power System. The agreement included a valid arbitration clause, and the parties were instructed to contact the appointed arbitrator within one week of notification.

CHAMANPREET SINGH VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2538/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act was quashed due to the recovery of a single live ammunition from a borrowed bag. The petitioner's claim of unknowingly packing the bag was deemed insufficient to establish conscious possession. The mere recovery of one cartridge, without additional suspicious circumstances, does not constitute an offence under the Arms Act.

CHANDER KANTA VS SHAM LAL PAHUJA & ORS. [C.R.P.-42/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The civil revision petition filed by the defendant was allowed, and the lower court's order was set aside. The plaintiff's suit for declaration of ownership and partition was barred by limitation, as the plaintiff had knowledge of the oral partition from 1995-96 and was aware of it by at least 2013, when the defendant filed a previous suit. The plaintiff was estopped from denying the partition, as evidenced by various documents and records. The defendant's application under Order VII Rule 11 CPC was granted, resulting in the rejection of the plaintiff's suit.

CHOLAMANDALAM MS GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS ROHTASH KUMAR GUPTA & ORS [MAC.APP.-643/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation awarded to the deceased's son was modified, with the deduction for the deceased's personal expenses adjusted to 50% of the monthly pension of Rs. 29,813. The revised compensation for loss of dependency was set at Rs. 8,75,490, resulting in a total compensation of Rs. 9,05,490, which includes amounts for loss of estate and funeral charges, along with 9% interest per annum.

CHOLAMANDALAM MS GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS SMT. BABITA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-338/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awarded to the family of Mr. Baljeet Singh, who died in a road accident, was upheld with modifications. The deceased's parents and married daughter were not considered financially dependent, leading to a deduction for non-dependent family members set at 1/4 instead of 1/5 in calculating the loss of financial dependency. The deceased's 2018-2019 tax return was chosen to assess annual income, accounting for COVID-19's impact on subsequent years. The total compensation was recalculated from Rs. 65,55,000 to Rs. 61,66,625, with interest at 6% per annum, and any excess amount was to be returned to the insurance company.

COMBITIC GLOBAL CAPLET PVT LTD VS SH SURAJ CHAUHAN [CS(COMM)-533/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff company proved its claims against the defendant for recovery of Rs. 1,73,58,801 along with interest at 9% per annum from the due date. Evidence including invoices, ledger accounts, and dishonored cheques was accepted as unchallenged. The defendant's failure to file a written statement or appear resulted in a decision in favor of the plaintiff.

DARSHAN DABAS VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1134/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Darshan Dabas, accused of offenses under Sections 302, 364A, 201, 120B, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, was dismissed. Evidence included the recovery of a weapon in another case linked to Dabas and his prior criminal history, which suggested a tendency towards criminal behavior and the potential to influence witnesses. Some prosecution witnesses have turned hostile, and the pending FSL report on the weapon was noted. The overall circumstances indicate the gravity of the offenses committed.

DAVINDER GOYAL & ANR. VS VIKRAM SINGH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-312/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Tribunal's dismissal of the claim petition filed by the parents of the deceased victim was set aside. The driver's account of the accident indicated negligence and rash driving at high speed, resulting in the car overturning and the victim's death. The case was remanded to the Tribunal to determine the appropriate compensation for the appellants.

DEEN MOHAMMAD ALIAS BHOLA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1069/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Deen Mohammad @ Bhola was granted bail on charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. There was a noted lack of strict compliance with the sampling procedure, but this did not undermine the case, as the seized drugs were within permissible limits. A significant delay in trial proceedings, with only 6 of 13 prosecution witnesses examined over three and a half years, supported the bail decision despite Section 37 restrictions. Bail was granted with conditions for a personal bond, surety, and cooperation in the trial.

DEEPAK VS SATYA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-131/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The injured's monthly income was calculated at Rs. 9,802 as an unskilled worker due to a lack of evidence for specialized training as a skilled car mechanic. The assessment of 60% permanent disability was adjusted to 100% functional disability, as the injury prohibited taking jobs involving skill or mental activity. Total compensation was increased from Rs. 31,03,151 to Rs. 42,88,628, with 9% interest per annum.

DEISM ENTERPRISES PRIVATE LTD AND ANOTHER VS INDUSTRIAL FINANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA AND ANOTHER [CS(COMM)-36/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit by Deism Enterprises Private Limited and Wrinkle Enterprises Pvt. Limited against the Industrial Finance Corporation of India for the refund of Rs.112 lakhs is maintainable. Parekh Platinum Limited was not a necessary party, as the defendant could assign the loan without its consent. The plaintiffs are entitled to a refund because the proposed loan purchase from PPL did not materialize despite negotiations. An agreement for the loan purchase is supported by correspondence and payments made by the plaintiffs. Additionally, the plaintiffs are entitled to interest at 7% per annum on the refundable amount from October 2007 until payment is made.

DELHI CANTONMENT BOARD VS DEEN DAYAL TANWAR [CRL.M.C.-5947/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitions by the Delhi Cantonment Board to appoint an expert witness for determining the age of unauthorized construction were dismissed. The request was considered an abuse of process, as the Board was aware of the respondent's defense regarding the construction dating back to 2001-2002 since 2016, yet failed to address it earlier. Allowing subsequent applications under Section 311 Cr.P.C. was deemed inappropriate, particularly as a prior order to recall a witness did not pertain to examining an expert on construction age.

DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-688/2015]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Delhi Transport Corporation (DTC) is not liable for recovery by the insurance company, as DTC took due care in verifying the driver's credentials at the time of appointment, including a driving skill test and obtaining a copy of the driver's license. The licensing authority's initial verification certified the license as genuine, and DTC had no reason to suspect fraudulent documentation. Although DTC has a higher duty of care in verifying drivers' licenses, reliance on the initial verification report was justifiable. Consequently, recovery rights against DTC were set aside.

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Delhivery Limited's petition for the appointment of a sole arbitrator under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was accepted due to the existence of a valid arbitration agreement with Far Left Retail Private Limited and sufficient efforts made for amicable settlement. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre has been requested to appoint an arbitrator, allowing parties to raise objections once appointed.

DEV RAJ CHAUDHRY VS RAJ KUMAR & ORS. [CS(OS)-478/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's partition suit is maintainable despite pending probate proceedings for competing wills. Probate and partition suits are distinct and can occur simultaneously since their scopes and issues differ. The plaintiff has paid the correct court fee for the partition suit, with no express plea of ouster from the defendant. Applications by defendant Nos. 4 and 1 to reject the plaint or stay proceedings were dismissed.

DEVENDER & ORS VS SAVITA JINDAL & ORS [CS(OS)-1459/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applications by the defendants for rejection of the plaint were dismissed. The plaint was found to disclose a cause of action, with specific claims of the plaintiffs regarding their status as recorded Bhumidars and challenges to sale deeds by a third party in favor of the defendants. The suit was deemed not barred by limitation, having been filed within three years of the plaintiffs learning of the sale deeds. Additionally, as the plaintiffs are not the executants of the challenged documents, only a fixed court fee was required.

DEVENDER AGGARWAL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1000/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Devender Aggarwal was convicted and sentenced under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for issuing three dishonored cheques to repay a cash loan of Rs. 15,00,000 taken from the respondent. The petitioner admitted to the loan but claimed to have repaid it in cash, lacking any evidence or acknowledgment of repayment. The presumption against him under Section 139 was not successfully discharged, leading to the affirmation of his conviction and sentence. The revision petition was dismissed.

DEVENDRA KUMAR VS THE STATE & ANR [W.P.(CRL)-2047/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Magistrate's order to register an FIR against the SHO of Nand Nagri Police Station under Sections 186 and 341 of the IPC was deemed valid. Evidence, including an inquiry report, established prima facie misconduct and misbehavior by the SHO towards a process server. Arguments claiming a need for prior sanction, challenges to the specification of offenses, and requirements for a preliminary inquiry were rejected. No infirmity was identified in the Magistrate's decision.

DEVIKA ALIAS DEVIKA BHADOLA & ORS. VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS. [MAC.APP.-445/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation for the death of Sh. Pramod Bhadola in a road accident was enhanced to ₹15,70,000. Loss of Consortium was increased to ₹2,00,000, with ₹40,000 allocated for each of the five legal heirs. The deceased's income was recalculated based on his Matriculate status, leading to a higher loss of dependency amount of ₹13,39,065. Interest of 9% per annum is applicable from the date of filing until realization.

DHARMU SAROJ & ORS VS MADAN LAL SAINI & ORS (BAJAJ ALLIANZ GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-262/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed based on reliable eyewitness testimony confirming the driver's involvement and negligence in the accident. The delay in filing the FIR and its initial registration under a different section did not affect the nature of the case as a road accident. Compensation for the claimants was increased, specifically for loss of dependency and loss of consortium.

DR ANIL KUMAR BANSAL VS SH ASHOK KUMAR BANSAL & ANR [CS(OS)-68/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by the plaintiffs to amend the plaint was permitted, as the proposed changes aimed to correct nomenclature and reflect the transposition of parties without introducing new substantive claims. The original plaintiff sought to withdraw the suit unsuccessfully, and the amendments were deemed clerical, not altering the original cause of action.

DHEERAJ TANEJA VS KISHAN DUA & ANR. [C.R.P.-312/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The testimony of the plaintiff indicated that a loan of Rs. 6,00,000 was provided by a third party, Sanjay Chawla, at the plaintiff's request. This did not serve as a clear admission that the plaintiff did not lend the money to the defendant. According to Section 2(d) of the Indian Contract Act, consideration for a contract can originate from a third party. The contract between the plaintiff and defendant was supported by the issuance of a cheque from the defendant to the plaintiff. The application for dismissal of the suit was rejected as the plaintiff's testimony did not constitute an admission justifying such action.

DIGVIJAI SINGH & ANR. VS STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-17/2009]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The amendment of the original probate petition was permitted following the death of the sole executor. Beneficiaries under the will can continue the proceedings and seek letters of administration with the will annexed, as per Section 232 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925. Arguments that proceedings would abate upon the executor's death and that the amendment is barred by limitation were rejected. It was emphasized that beneficiaries have a substantive right to protect their interests under the will, and technical issues should not hinder just causes.

DINESH KUMAR DABAS & ANR. VS TILAK RAJ [C.R.P.-203/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The civil revision petition resulted in the plaintiff's suit for recovery of Rs. 20,00,000 being decreed with interest at 9% per annum. The Agreement to Sell dated 15.10.2018 was deemed valid, and the defendant confirmed receipt of the advance payment. The defendant's failure to obtain necessary permissions and the government's acquisition of the land rendered the contract impossible to perform, leading to the conclusion that the plaintiff is entitled to a refund of the advance amount due to frustration of the contract.

DINESH KUMAR VS KRISHAN LAL KHURANA & ORS [C.R.P.-156/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The eviction petition filed by some co-owners against the tenant is maintainable without including other co-owners as parties. One co-owner can initiate an eviction on behalf of all co-owners unless there is an explicit objection from the others. In this case, no objections were raised, and the other co-owners have also filed their own eviction petitions, indicating their consent. The tenant's application to reject the eviction petition was dismissed, with no issues found in the lower court's order.

DR LALCHANDANI LABS LIMITED VS HOPEBERRY DIAGNOSTICS AND HEALTHCARE LLP & ORS. [ARB.P.-1167/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Dr Lalchandani Labs Limited raised arbitrable disputes against Hopeberry Diagnostics and Healthcare LLP & Ors. A valid Arbitration Clause existed in their Agreement dated 04.07.2019. The matter was referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) for the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator, with proceedings governed by DIAC rules, including fees and disclosures under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

DR PREETI SETHI AND OTHERS VS SUSHEEL SETHI & ORS [CS(OS)-50/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Plaintiffs were permitted to amend the plaint to include details of fixed deposit receipts held by the late Smt. Sarla Sethi, as they were previously unaware of these specifics. Proposed amendments regarding income from Sunshine Public School and rental income from certain properties were disallowed due to documentary evidence showing the school was owned by a registered society and lack of specific pleadings regarding rental income. Additionally, claims related to gold, diamond jewelry, bonds, and shares were not allowed due to insufficient supporting details in the application. The matter is set for completion of pleadings and recording of defendants' evidence.

DR SURAJ PRAKASH SETH AND OTHERS VS DR. ASHOK KUMAR SETH & OTHERS [CS(OS)-46/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by defendant no. 2, Sudha Seth, to set aside the ex-parte judgment and decree dated 18.02.2020 in a civil suit for partition and declaration was dismissed. Service of summons on her was valid as it occurred at her permanent address, despite her residing elsewhere. The defendant was aware of the suit and the judgment prior to applying for its dismissal in April 2024, which exceeded the 30-day limitation under Article 123 of the Limitation Act. The reason provided for the delay, citing ongoing settlement talks, was deemed insufficient. The application was dismissed without addressing the positions of other defendants in the case.

DR. BRIJ MOHAN GANDHI VS M/S EMPROCELL CLINICAL RESEARCH PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-668/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for recovery of money for alleged balance shares and compensation for termination of directorship was barred by limitation. The defendant company had issued the plaintiff 3% of the total paid-up shares as agreed. The plaintiff lacked a valid cause of action for additional shares or their value. A prior winding-up petition, although filed within the limitation period, did not save the limitation for this suit, as it was also time-barred. The suit was rejected on the grounds of being barred by limitation.

DR. DHARAM CHAUDHURY VS THE STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-68/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A Letter of Probate was granted for the Will dated 18.09.2014 executed by Shri Ishwar Deen Chaudhury in favor of Dr. Dharam Chaudhury. The Will was executed by the testator in a sound state of mind, free from force or undue influence, and complied with the Indian Succession Act, 1925. Testimony from the petitioner and the attesting witness went unchallenged, with no contest from other legal heirs.

DR. PRITHVIRAJ SWAMY VS M/S FIITJEE LTD [ARB.P.-1345/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Dr. Prithviraj Swamy filed a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, requesting the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with M/s FIITJEE Ltd. It was established that there were arbitrable disputes and a valid arbitration clause existed. Ms. Vansha Suneja, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with the parties allowed to raise objections. The arbitrator's fees will be determined as per Schedule-IV of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or as agreed by the parties.

DURGAWATI VS STATE [CRL.M.C.-103/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dismissal of the petitioner's complaint under Section 200 CrPC was upheld due to insufficient evidence supporting allegations of assault on her daughter and theft of cash and jewelry. The testimony of the petitioner's witness contradicted her own account, and the petitioner did not provide necessary medical records, photographs, or purchase bills to back her claims. Although the petitioner argued that an FIR should have been registered per the Supreme Court's judgment in Lalita Kumari, the lack of established allegations made the question of FIR registration irrelevant. The revision petition against the lower courts' orders was rejected.

EAST DELHI MUNCIPAL CORPORATION VS BALAJI & SONS [CS(COMM)-1073/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff, East Delhi Municipal Corporation, is entitled to recover Rs.3,81,07,461.3 from the defendant, Balaji & Sons, for outstanding monthly license fees for operating the parking site at Preet Vihar Commercial Complex from 07.09.2015 to 06.12.2017, despite the contract's expiration. Interest at 6% per annum is awarded from the suit's initiation until recovery, along with costs of the suit.

EROS CITY DEVELOPERS PVT LTD VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-745/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dispute between the petitioner company and the complainant is identified as a civil matter, lacking the elements of fraud or deceit necessary for an offence under Section 420 IPC. The petitioner constructed the property per the agreement and offered possession, with the disagreement centered on additional charges. The FIR against the petitioner company has been quashed.

ESCORTS LTD. VS BENGAL TRACTORS & ORS. [O.M.P. (COMM)-414/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by Escorts Ltd. to set aside the arbitral award was dismissed. The arbitrator's reasoning and decision-making process were not found to contain "patent illegality" under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitrator provided valid interpretations of the contract, specifically the MoU/Settlement Agreement dated 05.03.2005. The denial of pendente lite interest, alongside the granting of future interest at 12% per annum, was within the arbitrator's discretion. Contract interpretation is within the arbitrator's authority, and the award was upheld as it did not exhibit any patent illegality.

FAIZUL(DECEASED) THR LRS VS MOHD HAMID & ORS [C.R.P.-198/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by the legal representatives of Faizul, the deceased defendant, was dismissed. The petitioners, as legal heirs and individual occupants of the disputed property, were properly impleaded. Previous objections raised by them had been dismissed and had attained finality. The petitioners had not challenged their impleadment, resulting in the dismissal of their objections due to lack of merit.

FRANCIS MARION GEGG VS CUSTOMS [BAIL APPLN.-931/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Francis Marion Gegg was dismissed due to possession of 9.950 kg of heroin. The search of his baggage did not require compliance with Section 50 of the NDPS Act. A minor weight discrepancy of 9 grams did not invalidate the prosecution's case. The embargo under Section 37 of the NDPS Act applied, as the quantity of heroin was commercial, and the applicant did not meet the conditions for bail. Given the nature of the contraband and his status as a foreign national, he was considered a potential flight risk.

GAE PROJECTS PVT. LTD. VS GE T&D INDIA LTD.(FORMERLY ALSTOM T&D INDIA LTD. [ARB-39/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitration proceedings initiated by GAE Projects were deemed maintainable since the Settlement Agreement dated January 23, 2015 did not resolve all disputes between the parties. Examination of the Settlement Agreement and subsequent correspondence indicated that several arbitrable disputes persisted under the original contracts with arbitration clauses. The respondent's counterclaim before the Arbitrator further indicated that not all disputes were settled. Consequently, the order terminating the arbitration proceedings was set aside, affirming the Arbitral Tribunal's jurisdiction to adjudicate the disputes.

GAMUT BUILDCON PVT LTD VS MAHIMA PRODUCTION LTD [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-192/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Gamut Buildcon Pvt Ltd's petition under Section 29A(4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, for an extension of the arbitrator's mandate was granted. Mr. Shyam Sharma, Advocate, was appointed as the new arbitrator following the agreed substitution. The mandate was extended by six months from March 3, 2024, allowing parties to raise objections before the new arbitrator, with fees to be determined according to the Fourth Schedule of the Act or as agreed by the parties.

GATI KINTETSU EXPRESS PVT LTD VS M/S NARMADA MEDICAL AGENCY & ANR [C.R.P.-248/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A technical error in naming the parties, specifically suing a proprietorship firm instead of the individual proprietor, is correctable and does not warrant the rejection of the suit. The carrier, Gati Kintetsu Express Pvt Ltd, is liable for not collecting payment on delivery as per the cash-on-delivery arrangement, leading to a loss for the plaintiff. The issue of the carrier's right to file a written statement, which was denied for being submitted past the statutory period, was not addressed in the relevant order.

GAURAV BHATIA VS NAVEEN KUMAR & ORS. [CS(OS)-274/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff, a senior advocate and political spokesperson, maintains a right to reputation that must be balanced with the defendants' freedom of speech and expression. Certain videos and social media posts portraying the plaintiff in a false or exaggerated manner are to be removed due to their potential to inflict irreparable harm to his reputation. However, a blanket injunction against all defendants is not issued, recognizing that public figures should anticipate greater scrutiny and criticism. Specific defamatory content will be removed, while legitimate reporting and commentary on the incident involving the plaintiff is permitted. Further proceedings are scheduled.

GAYATRI JAIN & ORS. VS SAHIL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-647/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The deduction for the deceased's personal expenses was changed from 50% to 1/3rd because the deceased was survived by his wife, son, and daughter, with major, married children still reliant on him for various supports beyond financial. The total compensation amount was increased from Rs. 48,72,102/- to Rs. 64,29,091/-, with interest set at 7.5% per annum.

GEETA MEHTA & ANR. VS ANIL MEHTA & ANR. [CS(OS)-364/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applications by the defendants to vacate the ex parte ad interim injunction order were dismissed. The Noida Authority is not a party to the suit and may take action against Plot No. A-33, Sector 65, Noida according to its regulations. Issues regarding construction completion and business commencement on the property are outside the scope of the current partition and permanent injunction suit. Several related applications are scheduled for future hearings.

GHANSHYAM @ JAVED VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-2242/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The three punishment tickets issued on 23.01.2023, 24.01.2023, and 27.01.2023 against a convict serving a life sentence were quashed due to non-compliance with Rule 1272 of the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. The jail authorities failed to provide a show-cause notice and an opportunity for a hearing before imposing major punishments. Additionally, the allegations against the petitioner lacked substantiated evidence.

GIANI RAM/GYANI RAM & ANR. VS ARJUN YADAV & ANR. [CS(OS)-168/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the appellants/defendants resulted in the overturning of the order that closed their right to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness (PW1). The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic was considered, leading to the decision to provide the appellants/defendants one opportunity to cross-examine PW1, contingent on payment of costs to the respondents/plaintiffs. The elderly respondents/plaintiffs were advised to expedite the recording of evidence and avoid unnecessary adjournments.

GOPI CHAND @ PAPPU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2493/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petition seeking to quash the rejection of a furlough application was dismissed. Under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, an application for furlough must be made to the appellate court where the appeal against conviction is pending. As the petitioner's appeal was pending before the Supreme Court, the application could only be submitted there. The order refusing furlough could not be interfered with, even in the presence of strong mitigating circumstances, as it would undermine the appellate powers of the Supreme Court.

GOVIND VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1090/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bail was granted to Govind in an FIR under Section 20 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, due to a discrepancy in the weight of seized ganja between the seizure memo and the FSL report. A prima facie discrepancy and reasonable grounds indicating the accused may not be guilty of offenses involving commercial quantity were noted. Additionally, the trial faced significant delays, with only 6 out of 21 witnesses examined, and Govind had been in custody since February 2021. Bail was granted under certain conditions.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI VS M/S DSC LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-331/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The government's petition challenging an arbitral award regarding the completion date of a construction project was dismissed. The quantification of liquidated damages was designated as an "excepted matter" exclusive to the Superintendent Engineer, but the determination of project delay was deemed arbitrable. The arbitrator concluded that the contractor completed the project on September 22, 2010, within the extended time. This finding, based on evidence, was well-reasoned and free from patent illegality or fundamental policy violations, leading to the dismissal of the government's petition.

GURPREET SINGH ANAND @ VINNY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2356/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Gurpreet Singh Anand was dismissed due to serious allegations of cheating involving around Rs. 55 crores through a conspiracy that included forged documents, impersonation of a DDA official, and embezzlement. The case involves multiple victims and significant economic offenses, making it unsuitable for bail given the gravity of the charges and the ongoing investigations.

HAKEEM AHMED KHAN VS LOKESH KUMAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-235/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bus driver was 70% negligent for suddenly moving the bus while the passenger was deboarding, resulting in the passenger's leg being crushed and amputated. The injured passenger was deemed 30% contributorily negligent for attempting to deboard a moving bus. Compensation awarded to the passenger totaled Rs. 28,48,160/- with an additional 8% interest per annum, reflecting 70% of the total calculated compensation.

HARI MOHAN SHARMA & ORS. VS C.S.R POULTRY RESEARCH & BREEDING FARMS & ORS. [CS(OS)-1511/1991]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compromise decree passed on January 25, 2019, in a specific performance suit for certain properties is valid and cannot be set aside. Contentions by plaintiff no. 6 (Inder Pratap Singh Akoi) and plaintiff no. 5 (Manju Mishra) regarding forgery and fraud were previously considered. The inter se disputes between the plaintiffs do not affect the decree's validity, as their rights against each other were preserved. Applications by plaintiffs nos. 6 and 5 to set aside the compromise decree were dismissed.

HARI RAM VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2749/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Separate quantities of Ganja recovered from the petitioner (4.015 kg) and a co-accused (23.465 kg) cannot be combined. The amount seized from the petitioner qualifies as "intermediate quantity" under the NDPS Act, allowing for bail without the restrictions of Section 37. The petitioner has no prior criminal record, and there is no indication of a risk of tampering with evidence or flight. Bail was granted with specific conditions.

HARISH KUMAR MITTAL & ANR VS NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-93/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation in a motor vehicle accident case was modified to deduct 1/3rd for the deceased's personal expenses, in line with the Supreme Court's ruling in Pranay Sethi. The interest rate of 9% per annum was deemed reasonable. Both the husband and minor daughter were granted compensation for loss of consortium, but a separate award for loss of love and affection was denied. The total revised compensation amounted to Rs. 22,64,384/- with 9% interest per annum.

HARISH SINGLA VS MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1063/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Look-Out Circular (LOC) against Harish Singla was deemed unjustified. Singla served as Director (Marketing) at M/s Gajanan Oils Pvt. Ltd. but was not involved in the consortium banking transactions or alleged fraud. He resigned in 2018, prior to the bank's complaint to the CBI, and there were no claims of him evading investigation or being a flight risk. His established ties in India, stable employment, and willingness to cooperate contributed to the quashing of the LOC.

HARKESH SHARMA VS NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-911/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dismissal of the claim petition was set aside and the matter was remanded for adjudication on compensation. The accident was sufficiently proven despite the delay in FIR registration and the lack of damage to the offending tractor. A chargesheet was filed against the driver, and medical records supported the injured's account. The delay in FIR registration was deemed not fatal to the claim, and the lack of damage to the tractor did not negate the occurrence of the accident due to the nature of the collision.

HARMEET SINGH AND ANR. VS RAVI INDER SINGH, DECEASED THROUGH LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES [CS(OS)-621/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Defendants, as legal representatives of the late Ravi Inder Singh, are liable only to the extent of the deceased's estate and not personally. An application under Section 152 CPC was inappropriate, leading to a correction under Section 153 CPC to reflect this liability principle.

HARMOHINDER SINGH VS JOGINDER SINGH AND ORS. [CS(OS)-566/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Excess court fee paid by the plaintiff for the partition suit must be refunded, as a fixed court fee was sufficient under the Court Fees Act, and stamp duty is required for the decree. The application for a separate decree was rejected, with an instruction that only a single final joint decree can be established, requiring both parties to approach the registry for registration and certified copies. Applications for condonation of a 6-day delay in re-filing certain applications were allowed.

HAZI ACCHEY MIAN & ANR VS MOHD SHAHID & ORS [C.R.P.-242/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dismissal of the plaintiff's suit under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963 was upheld due to the plaintiff's failure to prove possession of the disputed property within six months prior to filing. Evidence indicated that the defendants were in possession and had executed sale deeds to third parties. The lack of proof of actual physical possession rendered the suit under Section 6 unmaintainable, leading to the rejection of claims for declaration, mandatory injunction, and damages/mesne profits. Section 6 strictly aims for the restoration of possession and does not permit additional reliefs.

HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS RAJ KUMARI & ORS [MAC.APP.-798/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The assessment of the deceased's potential monthly income was established at ₹40,000 after deducting 20% for income tax, with a subsequent 40% increase for future prospects. Compensation of ₹80,000 was awarded for loss of consortium to the deceased's parents. The total compensation was set at ₹49,50,000, accompanied by 9% interest per annum, based on relevant legal precedents and arguments from both the insurance company and the claimants.

HEAVEN LOUNGE PVT LTD & ORS. VS STATE OF GNCTD & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-1129/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Heaven Lounge Pvt. Ltd. and its two directors were convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for issuing a dishonored cheque. Arguments regarding the complainant's witness lacking personal knowledge and one director's lack of involvement in the company's affairs were rejected. The witness was deemed competent to testify based on documents, and under Section 141 of the NI Act, the directors were held vicariously liable for the company's actions. The revision petition was dismissed without identifying any infirmity in the lower court's judgment.

HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS UMA DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-200/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awarded to the claimants for the death of Shri Tek Chand in a road accident was upheld with modifications. The driver of the offending vehicle was found negligent based on eyewitness testimony and the chargesheet. The argument of contributory negligence by the deceased was rejected. The deceased's net monthly income was recalculated at Rs. 42,779 after deducting certain allowances and arrears, with a 1/3rd deduction for personal expenses, recognizing the financial dependence of his wife and daughters. A multiplier of 9 was applied, given the deceased's age of 57 at the time of the accident. Compensation under non-pecuniary heads was revised according to Supreme Court guidelines, totaling Rs. 41,60,000, plus 9% interest per annum.

HEM MANOHAR & ANR. VS RACHNA GUPTA & ORS. [CS(OS)-600/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Defendant nos. 1-3 forfeited their tenancy under Section 111(g) of the Transfer of Property Act due to non-payment of rent since 2017 and denial of the plaintiffs' title. The tenancy was validly terminated through notice under Section 111(h). Defendant nos. 4-7, as sub-tenants, became direct tenants of the plaintiffs upon the termination of defendant nos. 1-3's lease and are also subject to eviction. The defendants must vacate the property within 3 months, and the matter is set for determination of mesne profits and accounts.

HEMCHANDRE RAM VS BUSHRAA & ORS (THE NEW INDIA INSURANCE COMPANY) [MAC.APP.-394/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant, as the registered owner of the vehicle involved in a motor accident, is held jointly and severally liable with the actual owner, despite selling the vehicle before the incident. Liability persists for the registered owner until the new owner's information is updated in the RTO records. The appeals by the appellant are dismissed, confirming the lower court's decision.

HOME AND SOUL INFRATECH PVT. LTD. VS RAJ KRISHNA CONSTRUCTION COMPANY PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1204/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

There was a valid arbitration agreement between the parties under the original work order dated 12.10.2018. The issue of novation raised by the respondent constituted a disputed question of fact meant for the arbitrator's resolution. Arguments regarding the invalidity of the arbitration notice and the non-arbitrability of the dispute were rejected. Justice Vineet Saran was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes.

HRTC NALAGARH ORS & ANR. VS VIJAY RAM [MAC.APP.-416/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal against the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's award of compensation to Vijay Ram was dismissed. The compensation for loss of income, pain and suffering, loss of general amenities, and related expenses was deemed appropriate and consistent with the law, and no justification for interference was found.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS RANVIR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-64/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Negligence of delivery van driver Rakesh was established through testimony from the injured person and an eyewitness. Arguments from the Insurance Company regarding an untraced vehicle and the injured person being a gratuitous passenger were rejected. The Tribunal's findings on negligence and the compensation award of Rs. 4,97,500 with 9% interest per annum were upheld. The Insurance Company's appeal was dismissed.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INS. CO. LTD. VS SHARDA NAND CHAUDHARY THR AMITESH KUMAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-483/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to the injured person was dismissed. Reimbursement of medical bills based on photocopies was deemed justified due to the original bills being misplaced, with verification by the Investigating Officer. Future treatment expenses of Rs. 1,00,000 were considered reasonable due to the extensive injuries resulting in 75% temporary disability. Compensation for pain and suffering and loss of income, calculated based on minimum wages of a skilled worker running a general store business, were upheld. The decision indicated no issues with the Tribunal's order.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS NEETU YADAV & ORS [MAC.APP.-794/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's finding of negligence by the truck driver was upheld, despite his acquittal in criminal proceedings. Testimony from an eyewitness and the FIR contents supported the conclusion of negligence. The compensation award was modified by deducting certain allowances from the deceased's salary to correctly calculate the loss of dependency. Compensation for loss of consortium was increased to account for all legal heirs. Compensation received by the claimants from the employer was not deducted from the final compensation.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS POONAM SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-725/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Negligence of the driver was established through eyewitness testimony and the charge sheet, while the driver's contradictory claims were rejected. The deceased's age was determined using the Class 10 admit card, and monthly income calculated at Rs. 15,200 based on employment documents. Future prospects for the deceased's income were not considered previously, leading to an increase in total compensation to Rs. 34,90,840, with 9% interest per annum. Two appeals were decided together, one from the insurance company and one from the claimants.

IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS RAUSHAN KUMAR & ANR. [MAC.APP.-205/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals from both the insurance company and the claimant regarding the compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal were dismissed. There was a determination of no contributory negligence by the injured claimant. The claimant's monthly income of ₹25,000 was reasonably established through testimony and supporting documents, despite the lack of formal income proofs. The compensation awards for future loss of income, attendant charges, and non-pecuniary damages were deemed reasonable, with no need for enhancement.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS YOGESH KUMAR AND ANR [ARB.P.-583/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Disputes between Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd. and respondents Yogesh Kumar and Uma Sharma are subject to arbitration per the loan agreement's arbitration clause. The matter is referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre to appoint a sole arbitrator for adjudicating the disputes, which include the recovery of an outstanding loan amount of Rs. 3,91,745/- plus interest.

INDRAPRASTHA LOGISTICS PRIVATE LIMITED VS NAVEEN KUMAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-113/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The insurance company was granted recovery rights against the owner and driver of the vehicle due to the driver operating under the influence of alcohol, with a blood alcohol content of 162 mg/100 ml, exceeding the permissible limit. The driver's loss of control and collision with multiple objects indicated that intoxication was a significant factor in the accident. Driving under the influence constituted a fundamental breach of the insurance policy, validating the insurance company's entitlement to recover its costs from both the owner and the driver.

INDU WAHI VS VINOD KUMAR [C.R.P.-351/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by defendant Indu Wahi to dismiss the suit for specific performance of an agreement to sell filed by plaintiff Vinod Kumar was dismissed. The issues raised by the defendant regarding ownership rights and capacity to execute the sale deed are to be established through evidence at trial. The plaintiff adequately pleaded a valid cause of action in the plaint, allowing the suit to proceed to trial.

ISHERDAS SAHNI AND BROS VS IMPRESARIO ENTERTAINMENT AND HOSPITALITY PVT LTC [CS(COMM)-274/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The COVID-19 pandemic and resulting lockdown were recognized as a force majeure event, rendering the lease agreement fundamentally frustrated. The complete closure of the defendant's restaurant during the initial lockdown made contract performance impossible, allowing the defendant to suspend rent for April-May 2020. For June-August 2020, when the business partially reopened, the defendant was required to pay 50% of the rent. The defendant's termination of the lease under the force majeure clause was upheld, with recognition of compliance despite claims of premature termination. The security deposit was to be adjusted against outstanding dues, with the remaining balance refunded to the defendant, and no interest awarded to the plaintiff due to the retention of the security deposit.

ITC LIMITED VS MS. SAMITA BHATIA PROPRIETOR S.S. ENTERPRISES [CS(COMM)-1165/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

ITC Limited is entitled to recover Rs. 1,98,01,705 from Ms. Samita Bhatia, along with 9% interest per annum from September 30, 2015, until payment is made. The claim of forgery regarding the letter of confirmation of balance was rejected, as the defendant admitted to facts of payment, goods delivery, and credit release. The application from the defendant seeking leave to defend the suit on merits was dismissed for lack of pursuit.

JAGADISH NANGINENI VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ORS. & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1184/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Look-Out Circular (LOC) against Jagadish Nangineni, issued by the Directorate of Enforcement in a case under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, was quashed. Grounds for the LOC, such as evasion of law or flight risk, were not established. Nangineni has cooperated with the investigation, has strong ties to India, and was granted anticipatory bail without travel restrictions. He must keep the trial court informed about his residence, contact details, and any plans for foreign travel.

JAGDISH & ORS VS OM PAL SINGH & ANR (M/S IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-279/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The deceased was classified as a skilled worker as a housewife, leading to income calculation based on skilled worker minimum wages. The deceased's children, including the adult daughter, were recognized as dependents, allowing for a deduction of 1/4th of earnings for personal expenses. Compensation was increased for loss of consortium, loss of estate, and funeral expenses, including a 10% enhancement in line with a prior Supreme Court decision.

JAGDISH KUMAR ARORA VS DINESH MITTAL [C.R.P.-305/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dismissal of the defendant's applications to reject the plaintiff's suits was upheld. The absence of a registered lease deed does not prevent the establishment of a valid tenancy, which can be established orally or through a written document. The plaintiff is entitled to seek mesne profits alongside rent recovery, as evidence is required to determine tenancy termination and unauthorized occupation. The plaintiff's second suit for possession is not barred under Order 2 Rule 2 of the Civil Procedure Code, as the right to recover possession constitutes a continuing cause of action.

JAGDISH KUMAR VS RAMJANI @ KAILASH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-127/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Jagdish Kumar's appeal against the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal award led to a recognition of his functional disability as 100% due to his occupation as a commercial taxi driver, despite a 90% permanent disability in his left lower limb. Compensation for loss of future income was increased to Rs. 25,69,008. Additional compensation for medical expenses, attendant charges, and non-pecuniary damages was also enhanced, resulting in a total compensation of Rs. 30,18,711, to be paid by the respondent insurance company within one month, with a 9% annual interest penalty for any delay.

JAI HEALTHCARE PVT. LTD. VS TATA POWER DELHI DISTRIBUTION LTD. [CS(OS)-112/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant lacked a legal right to keep its transformer on the plaintiff's premises after the plaintiff's tenant vacated. The defendant must remove the transformer at its own cost within six months and pay the plaintiff user/occupation charges with annual increases and interest. Arguments that the plaintiff should bear removal costs or provide an alternate site were rejected, as the defendant was benefiting from the use of the plaintiff's property.

JAI PRAKASH VS KHALID HUSSAN & ORS. [MAC.APP.-286/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The injured appellant was traveling in the offending vehicle with his goods (honeybees), contradicting a lower tribunal's finding. The insurance company was found liable for compensation. Adjustments were made to the assessment of the appellant's functional disability and loss of earning capacity. Enhanced compensation of Rs. 11,70,000/- with 9% annual interest was awarded, to be paid by the insurance company.

JAI PRAKASH VS SMT. ANITA DEVI & ORS. [C.R.P.-337/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by Jai Prakash was partially granted. He is allowed to examine a handwriting expert to verify the authenticity of specific documents, with costs to be paid. The request to examine two official witnesses was dismissed as their testimony was deemed irrelevant to the case.

JANAK PROPERTIES PVT LTD & ANR VS AMARJEET SINGH [CS(OS)-1210/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by the legal heirs of Urmila Vohra to be impleaded in the suit between Janak Properties Pvt. Ltd. and Amarjeet Singh was deemed not tenable, as Urmila Vohra was not a party to the suit. She had filed a separate suit for specific performance against the plaintiffs. The current suit was decreed based on a settlement involving the plaintiffs and the defendant, excluding Urmila Vohra. Consequently, both the application for impleadment and the application by Urmila Vohra's husband to recall the decree were dismissed due to lack of locus standi.

JASMEET SINGH @ GINNI VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3658/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Jasmeet Singh, charged with murder under Sections 302/120B/201/34 of the Indian Penal Code, was dismissed. Despite approximately four years in custody, the severity of the murder charge and the circumstantial evidence, which includes CDR records, CCTV footage, and recovery of items, justify the denial of bail, especially with the trial expected to conclude soon.

JEYANTH KISHORE RAMASAMY VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2533/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act for possessing a live cartridge was quashed. The cartridge is classified as "ammunition" under the Act. The petitioner explained that he inadvertently carried the cartridge after using it at a shooting range in the US, indicating a lack of conscious possession necessary for an offense. Previous cases support the view that mere custody without awareness does not constitute the required mental element for liability under the Arms Act. Consequently, the FIR and related proceedings were quashed.

JITENDER KUMAR @ PALTU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2336/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Jitender Kumar @ Paltu was dismissed due to serious allegations of sexual assault against the complainant and her minor daughters. The defense of false implication must be proven during the trial. Testimony from the complainant and victims has not yet been recorded, and there has been no change in circumstances since the previous bail application was rejected.

JUHI MISHRA VS STATE OF NCT & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-65/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Smt. Juhi Mishra's petition for a letter of administration regarding the last will of Shri Diva Kant Thakur, dated 06.04.2012, was granted. The will was executed according to the Indian Succession Act, 1925, supported by the testimony of attesting witness Sh. Ajit Rohilla and the petitioner. No objections from other legal heirs, who are beneficiaries under the will, were present.

JYOTI GUPTA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2130/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's application for anticipatory bail was dismissed due to serious allegations of forgery of invoices and misappropriation of over R.S. 1.65 crores from the complainant. The petitioner, a proprietor of Kanishka Traders, did not cooperate with the investigation despite receiving notices. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary to locate and recover the proceeds of the alleged crime.

KADEER AHMED VS ZISHAN ZAMA KHAN & ANR. [CS(OS)-125/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for specific performance of a property sale agreement and for a refund was dismissed due to a lack of documentary evidence proving the defendants' ownership of the property. The agreement alone does not confer ownership rights, and without title documents, the suit could not proceed. Additionally, the claim for a refund was rendered moot since defendant No. 2 had already issued a cheque for the amount. The amendment application was also dismissed as it did not demonstrate a valid cause of action.

KALAWATI VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-159/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The criminal revision petition by Kalawati, mother of deceased Santosh Koli, was dismissed regarding the rejection of her application for FIR registration under the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act. An FIR had already been registered for the incident under the Indian Penal Code, which prohibits a second FIR for the same event. Additionally, the allegations did not indicate any offense under the SC/ST Act, as mere belonging to a Scheduled Caste is insufficient without evidence of caste-based abuse or insult.

KAMAL NAIN VS BIHARI LAL & ORS. [C.R.P.-66/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The trial court dismissed the plaintiff's application for a decree of possession of the first floor because of a dispute over the identity of the purchased floor. The defendants claimed the plaintiff was in possession of the second floor, and there was no clear admission regarding the property, necessitating further evidence to clarify the situation.

KAMLA VARMA & ORS. VS SURENDRA PAL SINGH [CS(OS)-71/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Deed of Family Settlement dated 10.04.2015 between four plaintiff sisters and their brother is a binding agreement that does not require registration under the Registration Act 1908. This Family Settlement is a bona fide arrangement for dividing the estate of their deceased father and is exempt from registration as it merely records existing rights without creating new ones. The brother, having accepted the terms and received his share, is estopped from challenging its validity. The plaintiffs are entitled to have the suit property at A-27, Vivek Vihar, Phase-I, Delhi, mutated in their names, and the funds distributed according to the Family Settlement.

KARAN LUTHRA VS SH. M.K. SUBBA [CS(OS)-45/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for specific performance of an agreement to sell dated June 7, 2011 is barred by limitation under Article 54 of the Limitation Act, 1963. The entire sale consideration was paid on June 7, 2011, and all necessary documents for the property transfer were executed by the defendant at that time. The cause of action arose on that date, requiring the suit to be filed by June 2014. The suit was filed in February 2018, exceeding the limitation period. Subsequent demands for additional payments did not extend the limitation, as the cause of action was already established. The application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure was accepted, resulting in the suit being dismissed as time-barred.

KAVITA SHARMA VS KAMALJEET SHARMA [CS(OS)-359/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff and defendant are entitled to equal shares in the ground and first floors of the property, and a preliminary decree of partition was made. The defendant's claim of ownership of the second floor based on an oral family settlement lacked documentation, as the property remained in the plaintiff's name. Permanent and mandatory injunctions were granted to the plaintiff, preventing the defendant from creating third-party rights or denying access to common areas. The claim for mesne profits by the plaintiff was dismissed, with the defendant deemed to be in permissive possession of the second application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC read with Section 151 CPC for Judgment on Admission.

KINGS CHARIOT VS TARUN WADHWA [ARB.P.-421/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

M/s Kings Chariot's petition for the appointment of a sole arbitrator was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The arbitration clause did not specify a seat or venue, and no part of the cause of action occurred in Delhi. The contract was signed and executed in Madhya Pradesh, indicating that jurisdiction for the dispute lies with the courts in Madhya Pradesh.

KOHLI ONE HOUSING & DEVELOPMENT PVT LTD VS C.S. AGARWAL AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-76/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint is partly allowed; amendments in paragraphs 3A and 18A are permitted as they elaborate on existing facts, while those in paragraphs 20A, 20B, and 20C are rejected as unnecessary for resolving the core issue of recovery of an advance payment. The dispute centers on an MOU for a Special Economic Zone (SEZ) project, with the plaintiff seeking recovery of Rs. 43 crores paid to defendant no. 3 after the project did not materialize. The attempt to implead defendant nos. 4 to 11 as sister concerns of defendant no. 2 is denied, as such relationships do not establish liability under the contract. The plea to lift the corporate veil to hold defendant nos. 4 to 11 accountable is also rejected, as it is not essential for determining the recovery issue.

KOTAK GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS ANJU & ORS. [MAC.APP.-154/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The insurance company, Kotak General Insurance Co. Ltd., cannot avoid its liability to pay compensation despite the owner of the offending vehicle presenting a fake insurance policy. The company's own agent had verified the authenticity of the previous year's policy, which was later discovered to belong to a different vehicle. No misrepresentation by the claimants was evident, and the insurance policy for the current year was valid. Consequently, the insurance company remains liable for the compensation amount.

KOTAK MAHINDRA GENERAL INSURANCECO LTD VS SMT BABITA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-101/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, affirming the award in favor of the claimants. Testimony from an eyewitness confirmed the tractor-trailer's involvement in the accident, and the insurance company did not present contradictory evidence. The filing of a chargesheet against the tractor-trailer driver was considered prima facie proof of negligence, with the driver's subsequent acquittal not affecting liability. No evidence of contributory negligence from the deceased motorcyclist was provided by the insurance company.

KRISHAN KUMAR VS ARJUN RAJPUT (DRIVER) & ORS. [MAC.APP.-620/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal increased the compensation awarded for grievous injuries, including a fracture and multiple bodily injuries, as shown in medical reports. A permanent disability of 6% in the lower limb was acknowledged and not previously accounted for. Enhanced compensation covered medical expenses, pain and suffering, conveyance, special diet, attendant charges, loss of income, and loss of amenities, totaling Rs. 2,84,000 with 7.5% interest from the petition filing date until realization.

KULDEEP SINGH VS RAMA SHANKAR [C.R.P.-70/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A civil suit to declare a Memorandum of Agreement dated 01.04.2013 null and void is barred by limitation. The plaintiff's claim of ignorance regarding the agreement's contents until 2022 is invalid, given his active participation in related criminal proceedings since 2013. The suit appears to be an attempt to support his defense in the ongoing criminal case, leading to the rejection of the plaint as it is plainly barred by limitation.

KUMKUM DANIA VS KUL BHUSHAN DANIA & ORS. [C.R.P.-3/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit against the defendant for family pension lacks a valid cause of action as the defendant is alive and receiving her pension. The defendant promptly corrected her marital status in service records upon becoming aware of the issue, and no legal obligation exists for government employees to declare all family members in their service book. The plaintiff's numerous complaints have been seen as harassment, complicating the defendant's ability to access her pension. The plaintiff's suit is viewed as an attempt to further harass the defendant, leading to its rejection.

KUNWAR S VISHAL VS KOHLI REALTORS PVT LTD [CS(OS)-19/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to claim damages for delay in the completion of work under a Collaboration Agreement and to seek a Mandatory Injunction for the completion of remaining work was dismissed. The claim for damages was deemed an afterthought and contradictory to the plaintiff's intention to avoid the Collaboration Agreement, also being barred by limitation. The request for a Mandatory Injunction was not maintainable as the plaintiff had already taken possession of the Second Floor in 2009, with the appropriate remedy being the completion of remaining work at the defendant's cost and seeking damages instead.

KUNWER SACHDEV VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6700/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 420 and 120B IPC was quashed due to the allegations being civil in nature rather than criminal. Two addendum agreements were signed by the parties, with the second being accepted during divorce proceedings and binding on both parties. The ex-wife cannot challenge its terms, and any breach of the first addendum agreement would result in civil liabilities only, lacking the necessary elements of dishonest or fraudulent intention for criminal charges.

KURUVITADAM AGENCIES (P) LTD VS M/S SONY INDIA (P) LTD. [ARB.P.-1312/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A valid arbitration agreement exists between Kuruvitadam Agencies (P) Ltd and M/s Sony India (P) Ltd, prompting the appointment of Ms. Kajal Sharma, Advocate, as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes under their franchise agreement. Parties may present objections before the arbitrator, who must comply with necessary disclosures and eligibility criteria as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The appointment and related processes will follow the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

LAJJA WATI VS MOHAMMAD SHARUCK & ANR. [MAC.APP.-97/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The claim petition filed by Ms. Lajja Wati under Section 163A of the Motor Vehicles Act for her mother's death was converted to a claim under Section 166, as she had also submitted a separate petition for the same incident. A claimant cannot pursue compensation under both sections simultaneously. Compensation was increased from Rs. 55,000 to Rs. 73,000, with adjustments for loss of estate and funeral expenses. The award was modified accordingly.

LALLI DEVI & ORS VS SHRIRAM GEN INS CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-244/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal was allowed, and the dismissal of the claim petition by the lower tribunal was set aside. The accident was determined to be caused by the rash and negligent driving of the TATA 407, supported by eyewitness testimony and the chargesheet against the driver. The principle established states that a chargesheet is sufficient proof of negligence, requiring proof on a balance of probabilities. The case was remanded for compensation assessment.

LATE AMAR SINGH THROUGH L.RS. VS GURDIAL SINGH AND ANOTHER [CS(OS)-807/2009]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit property, jointly owned by the plaintiff and two defendants as partners in M/s Compressors India, is to be partitioned with each party entitled to a 1/3rd share. The claim of an oral partition in 1995 was rejected due to insufficient evidence. A preliminary decree for partition of the suit property by metes and bounds has been issued.

LAXMI SHARMA & ANR. VS ANIRUDH SHARMA @ SONU & ORS. [CS(OS)-459/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A preliminary decree defined the shares in the properties of the deceased Brij Mohan Sharma, confirming that ownership and entitlement are not disputed. The properties will be divided equally among the parties, with two exceptions where shares differ: one property will be jointly owned by some parties, and another by all. The case will proceed to consider the rendition of accounts and the final partition of the properties.

LINK ENGINEERS (P) LIMITED VS BIELOMATIK LEUZE GMBH + CO. KG [CS(COMM)-812/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit filed by the plaintiff is not barred under Order II Rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It is based on a distinct cause of action that arose during the earlier suit, which the plaintiff withdrew after settling with the defendant. The plaintiff had obtained permission to file a subsequent suit for recovery of the balance amount under the settlement, making Order II Rule 2 CPC inapplicable. The preliminary issue is decided in favor of the plaintiff, allowing the suit to proceed.

LINK ENGINEERS P.LTD. VS M/S ASIA BROWN BOVERY LTD. & ORS. [CS(OS)-1180/2002]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Link Engineers (P) Limited cannot claim Rs. 5.29 crores from M/S Asia Brown Bovery Limited (ABB India) based on an alleged agreement dated 15.07.1998. ABB India's power business was demerged and transferred to ABB Management Ltd. in 2019, which assumed any related liabilities. There is no evidence of a joint venture between ABB India and NTPC; only a joint venture was formed between NTPC and ABB's German entity. The plaintiff did not prove that it provided services as outlined in the alleged agreement, such as tender follow-up and periodic reporting. The suit against ABB India was dismissed, and the suit against POWERCO had already been withdrawn.

LT COL KAPIL DUTT(RETD) & ANR VS THE STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-71/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Will dated 09.06.1992 executed by Major M.S.N. Dutt is valid and genuine, leading to the granting of probate in favor of the petitioners. The execution of the Will was confirmed through witness testimony, while the respondents failed to present sufficient evidence to contest its validity. The probate petition is maintainable and not barred by limitation, as the cause of action arose in 2010 when the respondents refused to facilitate the property mutation.

M S PAUL ENGINEERING WORKS AND ANR. VS SHRI RAM DIYA SHARMA [C.R.P.-71/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was allowed, as the original plaint inadequately stated the defendant's refusal to execute the sale deed. The agreement lacked a specific timeframe for execution, indicating that the cause of action arose when the defendant explicitly refused in 2019. Consequently, the suit filed in 2021 is not time-barred. The defendant's objection regarding limitation remains subject to consideration by the trial court.

M/S A AND B TOUR TRAVELS VS M/S APPEAL FOOTWEAR PVT.LTD [CRL.REV.P.-1059/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The conviction of the revisionist under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act for dishonor of a cheque was upheld. The presumption under Section 139 that the cheque was issued for a valid debt or liability was not rebutted. The co-revisionist partner was also found liable since the cheque was issued on behalf of the partnership firm. Arguments regarding non-service of the legal notice and the date of dishonor were deemed unsubstantiated. The criminal revision petition was dismissed with a modification to reduce the compensation amount, which is payable within one month.

M/S AKASH CONSTRUCTION VS M/S INDRIA PRIYADHARSHINI HYDRO POWER PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-283/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Petitions under Section 34 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 challenging an arbitral award are unmaintainable after the approval of a resolution plan by the National Company Law Tribunal under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. Once a resolution plan is approved, all claims not included in the plan are extinguished, and the successful resolution applicant takes over the business on a "clean slate." The petitioner did not submit claims during the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process, leading to the dismissal of their petition as unmaintainable. The respondent's petition challenging the arbitral award was allowed to be withdrawn.

M/S ALTRUIST CUSTOMER MANAGEMENT INDIA PVT. LTD. VS M/S O2 SPA SALON PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-128/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mr. Abhilash Mathur, Advocate, has been appointed as the arbitrator to resolve disputes between M/s Altruist Customer Management India Pvt. Ltd. and M/s O2 Spa Salon Pvt. Ltd. The dispute arose from a 2016 agreement for customer services, with payment issues starting in June 2017 after the respondent ceased payments, despite acknowledgment of delays. A previous claim under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, was dismissed due to non-maintainability. The parties are free to present their objections to the arbitrator.

M/S ANTRIKSH ENGINEERS PVT. LTD. VS SH. BRAHAM PRAKASH YADAV & ORS. [CS(COMM)-586/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application from the legal heirs of Defendant No. 1 for rejection of the plaintiff's plaint was dismissed. The plaintiff's suit is not barred by limitation, as the collaboration agreement allowed termination within 7 years, with the suit filed within the limitation period. The plaint discloses a valid cause of action, seeking recovery of money paid under an unimplemented collaboration agreement. The defendants' claims of concealment, misrepresentation, and improper valuation were found to lack merit, and the application was dismissed with costs.

M/S B.E. BILLIMORIA AND COMPANY LIMITED VS ASHOK KHANNA [C.R.P.-267/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by M/S B.E. Billimoria and Company Limited was dismissed due to a 330-day delay in filing. The explanations provided, including communication gaps with former employees and the need for management approval, were deemed contradictory and not credible. No adequate grounds for condoning the delay under Section 5 of the Limitation Act were established.

M/S BIMAL DUGAR VS M/S S.K. INTERIOR [C.R.P.-316/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by M/S Bimal Dugar was dismissed, challenging the trial court's order that rejected their application under Order 7 Rule 11 of the CPC. The trial court had previously addressed the issue of territorial jurisdiction, leaving it open for determination at trial. The cause of action was linked to the location where the offer was accepted, which was Delhi, making it inappropriate to conclude that no part of the cause of action arose there at this stage. The arguments presented by the defendant were found to lack merit.

M/S CELEBRATION HOTELS & RESORTS(P) LTD VS M/S SARTAJ HOTELS APARTMENTS & VILAS PVT LTD & ORS [CS(OS)-612/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Documents submitted by the plaintiff, including an Agreement to Sell and MOU, are classified as instruments that create or transfer rights in immovable property and require proper stamping under the Indian Stamp Act. These documents were deemed insufficiently stamped and are inadmissible in evidence unless the proper stamp duty and penalty are paid, despite the plaintiff's claim that admissibility could not be questioned due to prior admission by the defendants. The original documents must be impounded and submitted to the Collector of Stamps for assessment of the correct stamp duty and penalty before considering the plaintiff's readiness and willingness to perform the contract.

M/S D PAULS TRAVEL & TOURS LIMITED VS JAMAL SIDDIQUI & ANR [CS(COMM)-575/2019]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was approved due to the issuance of a termination notice for the Agreement to Sell. Although the defendants objected, claiming the amendments would alter the suit's nature, the original plaint already sought alternative relief such as possession, mesne profits, and damages. The defendants could address their objections in their written statement, leading to the approval of the amendment application.

M/S DURGA BUILDERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S SONAL DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS [CS(OS)-86/2016]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The plaintiff company's suit will proceed despite its name being struck off the Registrar of Companies for non-filing of annual accounts for 16 years. The company has substantially complied with the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal's conditions for restoration, including depositing the required costs and taking steps to file overdue annual returns. The company is not considered "dead," and the defendant's application for dismissal of the suit is rejected, allowing the matter to move forward with the plaintiff's evidence.

M/S GOLDEN M P CHIT FUND PVT. LTD. VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-4974/2024]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The petition filed by a chit fund company to reopen a withdrawn complaint case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The parties had reached an oral settlement, and the respondent had made partial payments. The petitioner's claim of inadvertently withdrawing the wrong complaint was unconvincing as significant dues had already been paid. Additionally, the petitioner's delays in acting and pursuing the second complaint case indicated a lack of merit in the claim of inadvertence.

M/S GUPTA ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-831/2024]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The petition filed by M/s Gupta Enterprises for the appointment of a sole arbitrator was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The arbitration clause in the contract did not specify a seat or venue, requiring the determination of jurisdiction based on relevant legal provisions. Analysis of precedent indicated that since the cause of action did not occur within the Delhi High Court's jurisdiction, it could not claim jurisdiction over the matter.

M/S HARI DASHAN SEVASHRAM PVT. LTD. VS M/S PAUL SALES PVT. LTD. [CS(COMM)-300/2018]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The defendant's application to amend its written statement was dismissed due to the proposed amendments being irrelevant to the existing disputes. The plaintiff's application for a judgment based on an admission was also dismissed, as the account between the parties was running and continuous, with the alleged admission in the defendant's ledger not being clear or unequivocal. The plaintiff's claims could not be granted solely based on ledger entries without considering the overall business transactions.

M/S HIGHWAY TRAVELS VS PRADEEP KUMAR SHARMA & ORS (ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-950/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The driver possessed a valid driving license in booklet format during the accident in October 2014, which was within the validity period from 2010 to 2016. The requirement for a smart card format had not yet come into effect at the time of the accident. There was no evidence to suggest the license was fake or invalid. Consequently, recovery rights against the driver/owner were set aside, and the insurance company was deemed liable to pay the compensation amount.

M/S KAPOOR BROTHERS ROLLERS FLOUR MILLS VS M/S BREAD BAKERS FOOD SPECIALITIES P. LTD. [CO.PET.-317/2001]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Official Liquidator received permission to close the accounts and dissolve M/s Bread Bakers Food Specialities Pvt. Ltd., which had been in liquidation since 2005. The company had no remaining assets, and its funds were negative. As a result, the dissolution of the company was approved under Section 481 of the Companies Act, 1956, and the pending winding up petition was disposed of.

M/S LEO ISPAT LIMITED VS HIND STEEL SALES & ORS [CS(OS)-2457/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendants raised triable issues regarding a potential settlement from March 2010 involving the supply of goods to offset outstanding liabilities, the actual procurement and delivery of goods through AJAX Projects Pvt. Ltd., and the authenticity of invoices presented as evidence. The defendants' application to defend the suit was allowed, leading to the case being classified as a Commercial Suit with directions for further progress.

M/S METRO BUILDTECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS MR. SHRIDHAR Y. CHITALE & ANR [CS(COMM)-793/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The delay in filing the written statement by the defendant was condoned with costs, as the delay fell within permissible limits in a specific performance suit. The plaintiff's application for contempt proceedings against the defendant was dismissed, as the defendant's relinquishment of part of the suit property to his estranged wife resulted from matrimonial disputes, not willful disobedience. The defendant was directed to file an affidavit disclosing any property transfers, and successors would be bound by the orders based on the doctrine of lis pendens.

M/S MUSCLE FUELZ & ANR. VS UNITED SPIRITS LTD. [CRL.M.C.-364/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by M/s Muscle Fuelz and Lalit Mohan Pandey challenging the summoning order in a complaint by United Spirits Limited under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The petitioners admitted their signatures on the cheque and were required to explain the circumstances of its issuance, which necessitates a trial. The remark "Kindly Contact Drawer Drawee Bank" on the dishonored cheque did not imply that the dishonor was due to insufficient funds. Prima facie elements for summoning under Section 138 were established, and the trial court was instructed to proceed with the trial promptly.

M/S NHPC LIMITED VS M/S HINDUSTAN CONSTRUCTION CO. LTD. & ANR [O.M.P. (COMM)-224/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitral award in favor of M/s Hindustan Construction Co. Ltd. was upheld, with the interpretation of contract clauses on rate variation and damages deemed reasonable. The tribunal granted the respondent's claims for rate revisions on specific BOQ items due to abnormal quantity variations and delays not caused by the respondent. The tribunal's reasoning was substantiated, providing no grounds for interference with the award.

M/S NITYA NAND AND SONS CONTRACTORS PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-488/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

M/s Nitya Nand and Sons Contractors Pvt. Ltd. filed a petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, leading to the appointment of Ms. Justice Mukta Gupta (Retd.) as the sole Arbitrator for disputes with the Union of India. The parties entered into a contract for an RCC Perimeter Security Wall, but unresolved site issues prompted the petitioner to request work suspension, which the respondent did not formalize. The petitioner later claimed abandonment of the work due to inaction and submitted a final bill, which the respondent neither paid nor acknowledged. The petitioner invoked the arbitration clause, but the respondent did not respond to the notices.

M/S NITYA NAND AND SONS CONTRACTORS PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-683/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

M/s Nitya Nand and Sons Contractors Pvt. Ltd. filed a petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, leading to the appointment of Mr. Tariq Khan, Advocate, as the sole arbitrator for disputes arising from a construction contract with the Union of India. The arbitration clause was invoked by the petitioner, and the respondent did not take steps to resolve the disputes. Parties are permitted to raise objections before the arbitrator, with proceedings to be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S PADMASHREE INC VS M/S UTTAM ASSOCIATES [CS(COMM)-26/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff is entitled to recover Rs. 5,77,00,012.81 from the defendant due to a breach of contract for the procurement of coriander. The plaintiff procured the contracted quantity, but the defendant did not take delivery. The plaintiff demonstrated losses from a market price drop, along with incurred warehouse and insurance charges. The claim includes interest at 9% per annum from the date the amount became due.

M/S PADMASHREE INC VS M/S UTTAM ENTERPRISES [CS(COMM)-25/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Padmashree Inc. demonstrated that Uttam Enterprises breached their agreement by not taking delivery of 1290 MT of Coriander Badami. Padmashree Inc. incurred a loss of Rs. 5,13,06,988.8 due to market price decline and is entitled to recover warehouse charges of Rs. 30,36,950.42 and insurance expenses of Rs. 53,357.59, totaling Rs. 5,43,97,296.8. Interest is due at 9% per annum from 08.11.2017 until the suit was filed, and 6% per annum thereafter until payment. The defendant could not submit a written statement as the deadline lapsed.

M/S PRAGATI CONSTRUCTION CONSULTANTS VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [ARB.P.-674/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Pragati Construction Consultants' petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 led to the appointment of Justice Vikramjeet Sen as the sole Arbitrator for disputes with the Union of India. A valid Arbitration Agreement existed, and the Union of India did not appoint an Arbitrator despite the request. The parties were instructed to contact the appointed Arbitrator within one week, with the appointment governed by DIAC Rules.

M/S SANDHU MOTOR FINANCE PVT LTD VS SUSHIL KUMAR & ANR. [ARB.P.-79/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A valid arbitration agreement existed between M/S Sandhu Motor Finance Pvt Ltd and Sushil Kumar, who defaulted on a personal loan and issued a dishonored cheque. The petitioner invoked the arbitration clause and an ex-parte award was passed in their favor. However, the execution petition was dismissed, rendering the award a nullity. A new sole arbitrator, Ms. Nikita Dewan, was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, allowing both parties to present their objections.

M/S SANMATI GEO TEXTILES VS M/S LINKCON AND DIGNITY INFRA PROJECTS JV [ARB.P.-398/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

M/s Sanmati Geo Textiles' petition was accepted, leading to the appointment of Mr. Amit Kapur as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with M/s Linkcon and Dignity Infra Projects JV. The validity of the arbitration clause was confirmed, and M/s Linkcon and Dignity Infra Projects JV did not appear. The parties were instructed to contact the arbitrator within one week of receiving the order.

M/S SPACE 4 BUSINESS SOLUTION PVT LTD VS THE DIVISIONAL COMMISSIONER & ANR. [ARB.P.-360/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition filed by M/s Space 4 Business Solution Pvt Ltd for the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is barred by limitation. The relevant award was set aside on November 2, 2018, and the petitioner had three years to seek a new arbitrator but did not do so. The approach of directly applying to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre was incorrect, as the authority to appoint an arbitrator lies solely with the court. The entire claimed amount of Rs. 52,23,401 has been paid, and the only remaining issue pertains to the interest, which is at the arbitrator's discretion. The petition was dismissed as time-barred.

M/S SYNERGY CONSULTANTS VS M/S TD WILLIAMSON INDIA PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-451/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitral award concerning the ONGC Hazira 42 project was upheld, with findings that the petitioner did not prove participation or contribution to the project, aligning with the arbitrator's reasonable interpretation of the non-exclusive representative agreement. The non-grant of pre-institution interest for the ONGC Uran project was considered rejected by the arbitrator due to silence on the matter despite the petitioner's claim. The award was deemed free of patent illegality or public policy violations, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

M/S TWENTY-FOUR SECURE SERVICES PVT. LTD. VS M/S COMPETENT AUTOMOBILES COMPANY LIMITED [ARB.P.-24/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator is maintainable. The arbitration clause in the Services Agreement required the appointment of a sole arbitrator, and since the parties could not agree on one, the petition is timely. A sole arbitrator is appointed to resolve the disputes.

M/S VOLUNTEER FOR VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT VS M/S INNOVATIVE FINANCIAL ADVISORS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1356/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

An arbitrator, Ms. Radhika Dubey, was appointed to resolve disputes between a non-profit organization and a financial advisory firm over a Fund Raising Services Agreement. The non-profit made an advance payment to access corporate social responsibility funds, but the firm failed to fulfill the agreement and did not refund the payment. The arbitration clause in the agreement was deemed valid, and the parties were directed to contact the appointed arbitrator within one week to initiate arbitration proceedings.

M/S VOLUNTEER FOR VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT VS M/S INNOVATIVE FINANCIAL ADVISORS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1349/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

An arbitrator, Ms. Radhika Dubey, Advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes between a non-profit organization and a financial advisory firm related to a Fund Raising Services Agreement. The non-profit paid an advance, but the firm failed to fulfill the agreement's terms and did not refund the amount. The arbitration clause in the agreement was deemed valid, and the parties were instructed to contact the appointed arbitrator within one week.

M/S VOLUNTEER FOR VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT VS M/S INNOVATIVE FINANCIAL ADVISORS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1348/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition filed by M/S Volunteer for Village Development sought the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The petitioner had a Fund Raising Services Agreement with M/S Innovative Financial Advisors Pvt. Ltd., which failed to comply with the agreement and did not refund an advance payment made by the petitioner. Ms. Radhika Dubey, Advocate, was appointed as the arbitrator to resolve the disputes, with a directive for the parties to contact her within one week of the order.

M/S. ASSAM PETROLEUM LTD. & ORS. VS M/S. CHINA PETROLEUM TECHNOLOGY DEV. CORP. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-1266/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant's application to refer disputes to arbitration under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The defendant initially filed the application but later abandoned it by seeking time to file a written statement, thus submitting to the court's jurisdiction. This submission forfeited the right to request arbitration.

M/S. SHIV PROBUILD PVT. LTD. VS M/S. KUNDU NIRMAN [CM(M)-84/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The definition of "owner" under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 includes not only the registered owner but also the person who has actual possession and control of the vehicle. The registered owner remains liable to third parties as long as their name is in the RTO records, even if the vehicle has been transferred. Kundu Nirman, in possession and control of the offending vehicle under a work contract, was to be added as a necessary party in the pending claim petition, allowed to present available defenses.

MAAN SINGH GHARTI VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-737/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Maan Singh Gharti was dismissed due to evidence linking him to drug supply, including a co-accused's disclosure statement, UPI transactions, and cash recovery. His prior conviction for a similar offense, resulting in a 10-year sentence, further influenced the decision, highlighting the seriousness of the allegations and his criminal history.

MADHU KODA VS STATE THRU CBI [CRL.A.-1186/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by Madhu Koda for suspension of his conviction under IPC and the Prevention of Corruption Act was dismissed. An earlier similar application had been dismissed in 2020, and there were no new circumstances or legal changes to warrant reconsideration. The facts of the cited Supreme Court judgment in Afjal Ansari were distinguished, indicating no shift in the law. The current application was deemed not maintainable due to the prior dismissal.

MADHU SHARMA (SINCE DECEASED) THR. L.RS. AND OTHERS VS SURESH KAUSHIK AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-404/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by defendant no. 1(b) to reject the plaint was dismissed, with the plaintiffs establishing a prima facie case for their interest in the disputed properties. The plaint cannot be partly rejected. Applications by the plaintiffs for the defendants to deposit rental income and by defendant nos. 5 and 5(a) for appointing a receiver to collect rental income were also dismissed, with reliefs deferred until the preliminary decree stage due to ongoing disputes over ownership and joint nature of the properties. Parties were directed to proceed with recording evidence.

MAHANAGAR TELEPHONE NIGAM LIMITED VS M/S. INTERNATIONAL ENGINEERS & PROJECT CONSULTANT LTD. [CS(COMM)-168/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit under Section 14 of the Arbitration Act, 1940 was deemed maintainable due to insufficient access to the complete record, despite receiving a copy of the award from the arbitrator. Claims of fraudulent conduct by the defendant were dismissed, as the plaintiff could not have known about the related matter at the time of filing. Consequently, an earlier directive for the arbitrator to file the entire record was set aside, as the necessary documents were later made available in the connected matter.

MAHAVEER SINGHVI VS HINDUSTAN TIMES LIMITED AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-2033/2007]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

News articles about the plaintiff's termination from the Indian Foreign Service were deemed non-defamatory, as they provided neutral and truthful reporting based on verified sources without malicious false allegations. The balance between the right to freedom of speech and an individual's reputation was emphasized, establishing that truthful reporting, even if unfavorable, does not constitute defamation. The plaintiff had available remedies to challenge his termination, which he effectively utilized. The suits for damages were dismissed, and the plaintiff was required to pay the deficit court fees within six weeks due to the initial filing as an indigent petition.

MAHENDER SINGH VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1022/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mahender Singh's bail application was dismissed due to charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, involving a recovery of 1,820 grams of heroin and R.S. 19,30,000 in cash, constituting a commercial quantity. Claims that the drugs and cash were planted were not considered sufficient, as these matters are to be addressed during the trial. Previous involvement in two NDPS cases indicated a likelihood of reoffending if released on bail, leading to the conclusion that bail was not appropriate given the seriousness of the offense and the petitioner's criminal history.

MAHFOOZ VS NCB [BAIL APPLN.-2207/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mahfooz was granted bail after spending 17 months in judicial custody without charges being framed. The nature of the contraband included a small percentage of codeine phosphate, and the prolonged pre-trial detention was noted. Bail was conditioned on the submission of a personal bond, required court appearances, and a prohibition against engaging in criminal activity or contacting witnesses.

MAHINDER SINGH VS JASWANT KAUR (DECEASED) & ORS [CS(OS)-1201/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for partition, possession, and permanent injunction was dismissed due to evidence of an oral partition of the disputed properties in 1975. Initially denying the partition, the plaintiff later admitted to the existence of a Memorandum of Partition from that year, which was binding. The attempt to retract this admission was deemed untenable, and the earlier settlement should not be revisited. The plaintiff's pleadings lacked necessary details, and evasive responses supported the defendants' case.

MAN MOHAN SINGH KOHLI VS AMARJEET SINGH AND ORS. [CS(OS)-1832/2003]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Rajouri Garden property is owned solely by the late Smt. Inder Kaur Kohli, not as joint family property. The Will of Sh. Gurbachan Singh Kohli is valid, and the Gift Deed from Smt. Inder Kaur Kohli to her son is upheld. The plaintiff has no rights to the properties, leading to the dismissal of the partition suit.

MANISHA VS MUKESH CHAND & ANR. [MAC.APP.-188/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant experienced a 48% permanent physical impairment in her right upper limb and neurology, warranting a functional disability assessment of 48%, rather than the 30% previously assigned. This led to a recalculation of future earnings loss due to disability, increasing the total compensation from Rs. 17,22,124/- to Rs. 25,68,711/-, with an 8% interest per annum. The assessment of compensation under non-pecuniary heads was deemed correct, requiring no further amendments.

MANISHA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1673/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's request for registration of an FIR against her husband for bigamy was dismissed due to lack of documentary evidence or proof indicating that he had entered into a second marriage while their marriage was still valid. Consequently, the claims of bigamy could not be substantiated.

MANJU BIDHURI VS JAGWATI SINGH & ORS. [CS(OS)-325/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Manju Bidhuri does not have a valid cause of action to challenge the relinquishment deed executed by her husband, Anup Kumar Bidhuri, in favor of his mother, Jagwant Singh, as her husband had the legal right to transfer his 1/7th share in the property. Manju retains the right of residence in the shared household under the Domestic Violence Act, 2005, which is protected regardless of her ownership. The suit was dismissed as not maintainable, and there was an issue with incorrect valuation for court fees, requiring her to pay the deficit within 3 months.

MANJU DEVI & ANR VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD & ANR [MAC.APP.-95/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The accident involved the rash and negligent driving of an Eeco Car by Vipul Das, which collided with a motorcycle driven by Gaurav Chauhan. Evidence, including eye-witness testimony and investigation records, established the negligence of Vipul Das. A 42-day delay in registering the FIR was adequately explained by the father of the deceased, leading to the dismissal of the Tribunal's previous decision. The matter was remanded for determination of compensation.

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Manoj Arora's revision petition against the dismissal of his application under Order VII Rule 11 was dismissed. Jatinder Jain's counter-claim sought a mandatory injunction for possession of the suit property, asserting that Arora was a permissive user. The analysis focused on the claims in the counter-claim, indicating Arora's status as a permissive user. The determination of court fee is based on the relief granted at judgment rather than the initial valuation. Arora was allowed to frame an issue regarding court fee and pay any deficit at the final judgment.

MASTER AANSH KANDHARI VS RISHI KANDHARI AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-554/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant's application to reject the plaintiff's suit for partition, possession, permanent injunction, and rendition of accounts was dismissed. The plaintiff, a minor, presented sufficient cause of action concerning the existence of a Hindu Undivided Family (HUF) and the related properties. The defendant admitted the existence of the HUF "M/s Suresh Kumar & Sons" and a corresponding bank account. The nature of the business "M/s Rupa Dairy" as a sole proprietorship can only be established through evidence.

MEENA DEVI VS VIJAY KUMAR [CRL.M.C.-1436/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Meena Devi was granted a monthly maintenance of Rs. 600 from her husband Vijay Kumar under Section 125 Cr.P.C. Vijay Kumar earned approximately Rs. 3,000 as an auto-rickshaw driver and had to support his second wife and two children alongside Meena Devi and their son. Previous legal proceedings against Vijay Kumar had been dismissed, and a mutual divorce settlement awarded Meena Devi Rs. 2 lakhs. The lower court's order was upheld.

MEENU ATTERY & ORS VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS. [MAC.APP.-469/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The finding of 25% contributory negligence against the deceased, Kapil Dev Attery, in a road accident was set aside due to a lack of evidence regarding alcohol influence or high-speed riding. The compensation award was modified to the full amount of Rs. 47,52,207/- with 7% per annum interest, without any deduction for contributory negligence. The request for an increased interest rate of 9% per annum was denied.

MEENU VS ASHISH KUMAR ORS & ANR. [CM(M)-2803/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's application to implead respondents 3 and 4 and seek status quo orders was deemed not maintainable. Respondents 3 and 4, reportedly in possession of the suit property during the case, would be subject to the doctrine of lis pendens. A notice for the impleadment application was already issued to the proposed respondents, and no grounds for granting status quo or injunction against them were established. The petition and related application were dismissed.

MILLENNIUM AUTOMATION PRIVATE LIMITED VS HFCL LIMITED (FONNALLY HIMACHAL FUTURISTIC COMMUNICATIONS LTD) [ARB.P.-1342/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A valid arbitration clause exists in the three sub-contracts awarded to the petitioner. The notice of invocation under Section 21 of the Arbitration Act met the necessary requirements. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with the option to register them as three separate arbitrations. The arbitrator is responsible for deciding the issue of limitation, except for claims that are clearly time-barred. This matter does not involve any larger bench or disagreement among judges.

MISS TEJASWEE VS SH SAMUMDER SINGH & ORS [CS(OS)-504/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was allowed to include details about gift deeds executed by the deceased defendant No. 1, which the plaintiff claimed were concealed. The defendants' objection regarding limitation is a matter of merit to be raised in their written statement. The proposed amendments are deemed necessary for adjudication, as the plaintiff acquired knowledge of the gift deeds during the suit.

MOHD AIJAZ & ORS VS NASIR USMAN & ORS [CS(OS)-1092/2011]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by defendants 16-19 to set aside the ex-parte preliminary decree of partition is maintainable as no appeal against the decree was filed. The summons were duly served, but the defendants refused to accept them. Their shares were allocated per Muslim law, and they did not contest the distribution. Given the familial nature of the partition suit, their claim of unawareness of the proceedings was not credible. The application was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of improper service or non-compliance with the law regarding the preliminary decree.

MOHD SALIM CHAND MANSURI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1864/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Look-out circulars issued against Shahnawaz Mohamed Hanif Malang and Mohd. Salim Chand Mansuri in a smuggling case involving foreign cigarettes, gold, and saffron should be closed. Investigations have concluded, a charge sheet has been filed, and the case is under trial. The petitioners may seek permission from the trial court for international travel.

MOHD SALIM CHAND MANSURI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1864/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The condition requiring the petitioner to seek prior permission from the trial court before traveling abroad was modified. The petitioner, based in Mumbai with a case registered in Lucknow and no cognizance taken on the chargesheet, found the initial requirement to be onerous. The new order allows the petitioner to inform the trial court of their residence, contact details, and travel plans without needing prior approval. The Look Out Notice was closed.

MOHD. NAUSHAD ALAM VS IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. & ORS. [MAC.APP.-439/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Tribunal's award of Rs. 18.22 lakhs in compensation to Mohd. Naushad Alam for injury was upheld, with assessments of 60% permanent and functional disabilities deemed reasonable. Calculation of income based on minimum wages was affirmed, along with Rs. 4 lakhs for future medical expenses for an artificial limb, following Supreme Court precedents. Recovery rights for the insurance company were denied due to the owner's reasonable care in employing the driver despite his fake license. Both the insurance company's appeal and the injured person's cross-appeal were dismissed.

MOHD. TABREZ VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-838/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mohd. Tabrez's bail application was dismissed due to charges under the NDPS Act involving the recovery of 500 grams of heroin and Rs. 1,89,000 in sale proceeds from his residence. Heroin was classified as a "hard drug," significantly impacting public health. Tabrez had 13 prior cases, including five under the NDPS Act, and one previous conviction. While the trial's delay was noted, the seriousness of the offense and his criminal history outweighed this consideration, resulting in the dismissal of the bail application.

MONICA GOGIA VS M S RSS ESTATE LLP & ANR. [CS(OS)-202/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A prima facie case for interim relief was established by the plaintiff, who contested an agreement to sell and a sale deed regarding the plaintiff's agricultural land. The defendants were restrained from alienating or constructing on the property and were ordered to provide the plaintiff access to it, based on claims of non-payment of full consideration and alleged fraud in obtaining signatures on the sale deed.

MONICA GOGIA VS M/S RSS ESTATE LLP & ANR. [CS(OS)-202/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff presented a prima facie case challenging the validity of registered sale deeds favoring the defendants, raising issues related to the genuineness of the deeds, non-payment of full consideration, and the circumstances of execution. The plaintiff retains the right to access the property through the main gate, which is the only entry point, as alternative access was not part of the agreement. An interim injunction was granted to prevent the defendants from creating third-party rights in the property and obstructing the plaintiff's access through the main gate.

MOONLITE EDUCATION SOCIETY (REGD.) & ANR. VS GUJRANWALA GURUKUL TRUST SOCIETY (REGD) & ORS. [CS(OS)-108/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Defendant No.4 (M/s J.P. Gupta HUF) was allowed to submit additional documents, including a sale deed and a will. However, proposed amendments to the counter-claim that altered the original position and made new ownership claims were disallowed due to contradictions with prior admissions. Limited amendments were accepted, including details of rent collected by defendant No.1 Trust Society and an addition of a plea of limitation.

MR PRASHANT SHARMA, VS M/S R3 MEDICAL CLINIC PVT.LTD. [ARB.P.-695/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mr. Prashant Sharma's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the appointment of an arbitrator to resolve disputes with M/S R3 Medical Clinic Pvt. Ltd. A valid arbitration agreement was identified in the Shareholders Agreement. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre was directed to appoint an arbitrator, allowing both parties to present objections, with arbitrator fees determined by the Centre's rules.

MR SANJAY JOSHI ORS & ORS. VS MS RENU SOBTI ORS & ORS. [C.R.P.-82/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The orders of the lower courts allowing the substitution of the legal heirs of the deceased landlord and condoning the delay in filing the substitution application were upheld. The delay of over a year was deemed reasonable based on the given reasons, and abatement can be set aside by implication even without a specific request. The dismissal of the tenants' revision petition was based on the correct application of legal principles by the lower courts.

MR. G.L. TANDON & ORS. VS SMT. VIJAY MALA GOEL & ANR. [CS(OS)-98/1998]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applications by Meenakshi Malhotra and Rakesh Kumar Mittal to be added as parties in civil suit CS(OS) 98/1998 and probate case TEST.CAS. 17/2005 were dismissed. Meenakshi Malhotra's claim through Shoukat Rai Malhotra, already a party in the probate case since 2006, lacked timely action as she did not seek impleadment earlier. Rakesh Kumar Mittal's claim based on an agreement to sell did not establish him as a necessary party in either proceedings, as the validity of the will and the civil suit were already addressed by Anand Kamal Goel. Pending applications concerning the abatement of the probate case and substitution of legal heirs of Anand Kamal Goel remained for consideration.

MR. LALIT SANDUJA VS MR. VIKAS MITTAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-18027/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A writ petition was filed under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution regarding a company appeal. The petitioner's counsel can mention the matter to the Registrar of the NCLAT for listing during winter vacations. The NCLAT is on vacation and will resume on 02.01.2025. The impugned order from the Adjudicating Authority is dated 19.12.2024, indicating no urgency for further orders in the writ petition, which is now disposed of along with the pending application.

MR. NIKHIL S KHANNA & ORS VS MR. JAGDISH PRASAD KHANNA [I.A.-2532/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit for partition of properties by the children of the defendant was dismissed due to the dissolution of the Jagdish Prasad Khanna Hindu Undivided Family in 2006 through a registered Partition Deed, which the plaintiffs did not contest. The plaintiffs failed to present the necessary details and documents to prove the properties as HUF properties. Even if the properties were ancestral, the plaintiffs could not assert rights during the defendant's lifetime, as inheritance would only occur after the defendant's death according to the Hindu Succession Act. The suit was rejected for lack of a cause of action.

MR. RAKESH Y S VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5825/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is maintainable. The petitioner admitted to issuing the cheques, creating a presumption that there was an existing debt, which he failed to rebut convincingly. The defense that the cheques were "security cheques" lacked credibility, particularly regarding their purpose for the balance sale consideration. Ongoing cross-examination provides the petitioner with a chance to prove his defense during trial, and the complaint cannot be quashed based solely on the petitioner's pre-trial assertions.

MR. VISHAL BANGA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR [TEST.CAS.-36/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applicant is entitled to the bequest of NRE fixed deposits according to the will of late Shri Harbans Singh Banga dated 21.05.2015. The argument that the applicant is not entitled due to the invocation of bank guarantees within 10 years was rejected, as the maintenance of these guarantees was for the deceased's outstanding liabilities and not a condition for the bequest. A Letter of Administration/Probate will be issued in favor of the applicant.

MRS SHARDA RELAN VS STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-4/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The probate of the will dated March 22, 2012, of Sh. Narinder Dev Relan was granted exclusively to his wife, Mrs. Sharda Relan, who is the sole beneficiary. She was exempted from submitting the Administration Bond and Surety Bond.

MRS. ANURADHA MEHTA & ORS. VS SHRI R.R. MEHTA EDUCATIONAL TRUST [C.R.P.-315/2024]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The revision petition by Anuradha Mehta and others was dismissed, affirming the lower court's rejection of their application under Order VII Rule 11. The civil suit by Shri R.R. Mehta Educational Trust was deemed maintainable, disclosing a valid cause of action. Additional objections regarding non-joinder of parties, jurisdiction of civil court, and the authority of the Trust's General Secretary were also rejected. The petitioners' arguments were determined to be without merit.

MRS. MAYA DAS & ANR. VS MR. SUBRATA DAS [CS(OS)-159/2019]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The application to modify a previous judgment dated 25.04.2024 was addressed, with acknowledged errors corrected, including references to the defendant's ex-parte status and details about the property's constructed floors. The request for additional orders regarding property mutation, building plan sanctions for the second and third floors, and conversion of leasehold rights to freehold was rejected. These matters were deemed to automatically arise from the partition of the property, with parties free to pursue them as per the law without needing specific directions. The decision was a standalone response to the application for modification.

MRS. MAYA DAS & ANR. VS MR. SUBRATA DAS [CS(OS)-159/2019]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
A final decree partitioned an immovable property according to the terms of a registered will that bequeathed the property floorwise to the testator's legal heirs. The property was deemed divisible based on a local commissioner's report, with no disagreements among judges, and the matter was treated as an individual case.

MRS. NALINI LAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & OTHERS [TEST.CAS.-22/2009]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
Additional documents sought by the respondents, including public documents and those related to earlier litigation, are relevant and material for the case and must be allowed under Order VII Rule 14 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Their previous non-production did not cause real prejudice to the petitioner. The application to expunge portions of the respondent's affidavit referencing these documents is dismissed as they are pertinent to the matter.

MRS. VIPULA CHANDHOK & OTHERS VS MR. KULBIR SINGH CHANDHOK & OTHERS [CS(OS)-184/2018]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The property in question remained undivided, with parties having rights of occupation based on a gift deed. A preliminary decree of partition was passed, defining the undivided shares of the parties. Sale deeds executed by defendant Nos. 2 and 3 for their undivided shares are valid for the transfer of those shares, but not for any specific portion of the property.

MS KRISHAN KUMAR AND SONS VS DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD [ARB.P.-295/2024]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The petitioner's claims are deemed arbitrable despite the respondent's objections. The petitioner substantially complied with the contract's dispute resolution mechanism, and the respondent's inaction cannot deny the right to arbitration. An undertaking given by the petitioner asserting no surviving disputes does not negate the arbitrability of the disputes, as the circumstances of the undertaking need examination. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes between the parties.

MS NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS NEERU DEVI (WIFE) & ORS. [MAC.APP.-606/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the National Insurance Company against the compensation awarded to the legal heirs of Arvind Kumar Singh, who died in a road accident, was dismissed. Testimonies from two eyewitnesses established that the truck driver exhibited rash and negligent behavior leading to the fatal incident. Evidence from the deceased's wife and bank loan documents indicated his monthly income was approximately Rs. 95,000. The assessment of the deceased's income was upheld as correct.

MS PAYAL KASHYAP VS RITU PAHWA & ANR. [FAO-196/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The ex-parte interim injunction was vacated after confirming that the appellant obtained necessary permission from the South Delhi Municipal Corporation (SDMC) to install a common lift and that construction adhered to the sanctioned plan. The respondent was instructed to file an application with the SDMC regarding any deviations, which the SDMC must address within one week. The decision emphasized that the construction complied with the approved plan and that challenges to the SDMC's policy should be pursued elsewhere.

MS PURNIMA SAINI VS BSES RAJDHANI POWER LIMITED [ARB.P.-566/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Ms. Purnima Saini, owner of two flats with three electricity connections, entered into a license agreement with BSES Rajdhani Power Limited that included a dispute resolution clause. BSES replaced a small transformer with a larger one on her property, intended as a sub-station, which Ms. Saini objected to. BSES then issued a notice alleging breach of the license agreement and threatened to disconnect electricity and recover payments. After BSES did not respond to her request for the appointment of a sole arbitrator, Ms. Saini filed a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, seeking the appointment of an arbitrator.

MS. RAMAN SHARMA VS MS. PREM LATA PRABHAKAR & ORS [CS(OS)-20/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The 120-day time limit for filing a written statement under Order VIII Rule 1 CPC and the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018 is mandatory and cannot be extended. Inherent powers under Sections 151 and 153 CPC cannot be used to correct errors in orders, as specific remedies like filing a review are available. In contrast, time limits for amended pleadings under Order VI Rule 18 CPC can be extended at the court's discretion. This decision applies to all defendants in the batch matter.

MS. SUSHMA BHAMBARI VS SMT. TARUNA JUNEJA & ORS. [CS(OS)-180/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The last Will of Smt. Janak Dulari, dated 19.11.2009, is recognized as a valid document bequeathing the Ashok Vihar property equally among the plaintiff, defendant no. 1, and defendants nos. 2-4. The defendants have admitted to the Will's genuineness, leading to a preliminary decree of partition. The Ashok Vihar property is to be divided into three equal shares for the respective parties, and a final decree will follow to delineate the property.

MUKESH KUMAR SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4048/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mukesh Kumar Singh, director of Khushi Properties, obtained regular bail following allegations of misappropriating approximately Rs. 6.43 crores from the Eminent Officers Welfare Society (EOWS) for land purchases. Singh registered 1.91 acres of land in the society's name but did not fulfill the terms of the memorandum of understanding (MOU) for the remaining land. An FIR was filed against him and others under various IPC sections. It was concluded that further detention would not serve a useful purpose, and his release could facilitate efforts to fulfill the MOU obligations. Bail was granted under specific conditions.

MUKTI DUTTA VS VIJAY BHUSHAN & ORS [CS(OS)-1728/2011]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Ms. Mukti Dutta has an unconditional right to withdraw her partition suit; however, the consent of other legal heirs (defendant nos. 1-16) is necessary as they share the same interest in the suit property. In this case, the legal heirs are similarly positioned regarding the challenge to the will favoring defendant no. 17 (Arya Orphanage). The suit withdrawal is permitted, and Mr. Amit Bhushan, representing deceased defendant no. 1, is allowed to take over as plaintiff due to his identical interests, maintaining the suit's nature and complexity.

MUNESH & ANR VS MINENDRA KUMAR & ORS (NATIONAL INSURNACE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-102/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Evidence, including eyewitness testimony and a chargesheet against the driver, established negligence and rash driving. The lower tribunal erred by disbelieving the eyewitness testimony and improperly converting the claim from Section 166 (negligence-based) to Section 163A (no-fault) of the Motor Vehicles Act. The findings on negligence were set aside, and the case was remanded to the tribunal for compensation calculation under Section 166.

NADEEM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1959/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Nadeem was granted regular bail in a case involving conspiracy to murder Zakir Hussain. Although he allegedly arranged the weapon for the crime, he was not present during the murder. His involvement was primarily in body disposal. The trial experienced significant delays, with only 4 out of 12 prosecution witnesses examined in over 4.5 years. Bail conditions include not leaving Delhi/NCR without permission and not contacting or influencing witnesses.

NAGMA SHEERIN AND ORS VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8641/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A writ petition was filed by residents of a property purchased from respondent No. 6, who faces claims from the MCD regarding unauthorized construction and violations of building bye-laws, leading to sealing proceedings. Respondent No. 6's appeals against these orders were dismissed. The petitioners argue that they received no prior notices or orders and that any proposed demolition would leave them homeless, infringing on natural justice. The MCD asserts the property is unauthorized and that the petitioners cannot claim settled entitlement based on their purchase. Notice was issued to the respondents, and replies are due by 08.07.2024.

NANDAN MUKHERJEE VS MOHD RAFIQ AND ORS [MAC.APP.-126/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant's compensation was increased from Rs. 18,75,195/- to Rs. 38,10,500/-. Income calculation was based on the average of the last three years' income tax returns. Compensation for future medical expenses, including prosthetic limb costs and maintenance, was enhanced, along with non-pecuniary damages. No compensation for loss of consortium was awarded due to the appellant's divorce after the accident. A detailed re-calculation of compensation amounts was provided.

NANHE LAL VS SATENDER GIRI & ORS (IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-333/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The insurance company is liable to pay compensation to the injured party, as the appellant paid the premium two days before the accident and received a valid insurance cover note the same day. Precedents establish that the effective date of the policy aligns with the premium payment date, barring fraud or dishonored payments. The insurer's internal circular suggesting a 3-day gap between policy issuance and coverage is not mandatory. The original award was modified to compel the insurance company to pay the compensation amount.

NARENDER SINGH VS SHEELA DEVI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-393/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Narender Singh, challenging the award that deemed him and the registered owner of the vehicle jointly liable for a motor accident, was dismissed. Evidence, including eyewitness testimony and findings from the criminal investigation, indicated that Singh was responsible for the accident. The FIR, chargesheet, and other evidence supported this liability despite Singh's acquittal in the criminal case, as the standards of proof differ for motor accident claims. No grounds for interference with the original judgment were identified.

NARESH KUMAR BAJAJ & ORS. VS BUNGE INDIA PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-228/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitral tribunal's Nil Award remains valid as the dispute was deemed academic following the CESTAT's quashing of the service tax assessment order against the petitioners. Claims for reimbursement of costs related to defending the service tax demand were rejected, as the respondent had no contractual liability. Arguments for setting aside the award did not meet the criteria for "patent illegality" or "fundamental breach of Indian law," and interference under Section 34 is limited. The petition challenging the arbitral award was dismissed.

NARINDER BHATIA & ANR VS SATISH CHANDER BHATIA [CS(OS)-239/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant did not prove the alleged oral partition of the suit property in 2007, and the property was determined to be joint and undivided. A Mutual Agreement dated 25.06.2008 was acknowledged, establishing peaceful possession of the respective floors. The claim for mesne profits or rental value was rejected. A Preliminary Decree of Partition was issued, defining the shares of the plaintiffs and the defendant as 1/2 each in the suit property, with further proceedings scheduled for the Final Decree.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA (NHAI) VS ROADWAYS SOLUTION INDIA PRIVATE LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-454/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) against the arbitration award in favor of Roadways Solution India Private Ltd. (RSIPL) was dismissed. The arbitral tribunal's award was deemed well-reasoned, with challenges from NHAI primarily focusing on merit, outside the scope of interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. No violations of fundamental principles of Indian law, public policy, or patent illegality were identified in the award.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SATISH KUMAR CHAWLA & ORS [MAC.APP.-605/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The award of compensation to Mr. Satish Kumar Chawla for injuries from a road accident was upheld. The accident took place outside the workshop, with evidence of the driver's negligent behavior. The driver's valid license for light motor vehicles was adequate for operating the car involved. The compensation was based on the claimant's latest income tax return rather than an average of previous years, and the 9% per annum interest rate was deemed reasonable. No issues were identified in the Tribunal's decision.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS GURMEET SINGH CHADHA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-95/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation of Rs. 24,31,771/- with 6% interest per annum was awarded to Gurmeet Singh Chadha for serious injuries sustained in a road accident. The monthly income assessment of Rs. 21,594/- was deemed reasonable despite inconsistencies in income tax returns. An award of Rs. 3,50,000/- for a prosthetic device was approved, supported by an invoice, with no rebuttal from the insurance company. The 6% interest on compensation for future treatment was justified, as the prosthetic device requires periodic replacement. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed.

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SHISHPAL AND ORS [MAC.APP.-401/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation of Rs. 20,42,640 awarded to the deceased's family in a motor accident case was upheld with modifications. The deceased's age was revised from 36 to 45 years, reducing the multiplier for calculating loss of dependency from 15 to 14, and the minimum wages of Uttar Pradesh were used to determine the deceased's income instead of Delhi's. The interest rate remained at 8% per annum, and compensation amounts for loss of consortium, estate, and funeral expenses were maintained.

NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS DUNI CHAND & ORS. [MAC.APP.-392/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The "Glacier allowance" was granted to Duni Chand, who would have been posted to Siachen Glacier if not for injuries from an accident. Functional disability was assessed at 30%. Loss of future earnings was recalculated using a multiplier of 15, resulting in enhanced compensation to Rs. 23,54,670/-. The request for child education allowance was denied due to insufficient evidence, but the interest rate was increased to 9% per annum. The total compensation was modified to Rs. 37,10,033/-.

NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS SMT. NISHA JHA AND ORS. [MAC.APP.-31/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's award of compensation to the claimants for the death of the deceased driver in a road accident was upheld. Negligence was primarily attributed to the truck driver, who parked the vehicle on the road without safety measures. A 20% deduction for contributory negligence was deemed appropriate. Calculations for income tax deduction and a 9% per annum interest rate on compensation were consistent with the law.

NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY VS ZAHIDA KAUSAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-419/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The assessment of the injured respondent's functional disability was set at 10%. Despite no reduction in salary, the shortening of her leg imposed limitations on her job performance. Compensation under non-pecuniary heads for mental and physical shock, pain and suffering, loss of amenities of life, and disfigurement was increased, raising the total compensation from Rs. 20,55,226/- to Rs. 22,50,000/-, with an interest rate of 7.5% per annum.

NAVBHARAT INFRASTRUCTURE CO VS VKR ESHWARAN [C.R.P.-223/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The civil revision petition by the judgment debtors was dismissed, confirming that the commercial court possessed inherent jurisdiction over the dispute related to a management contract agreement, rather than an employee-employer relationship. The judgment debtors' objections regarding jurisdiction and fraud had previously been addressed and rejected, with the final judgment and decree having attained finality after multiple appeals and review petitions. The dismissal of the judgment debtors' objections in the execution proceedings was upheld.

NAVEEN PANCHAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4372/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The pen drive containing recorded conversations between the prosecutrix and the accused's brother and cousin is classified as a "document" under the law. The accused is entitled to have its contents admitted or denied by the prosecution as per Section 294 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. This section applies equally to both prosecution and defense, allowing documents to be produced for admission or denial at any stage after charges are framed. Putting a document for admission and denial does not prejudice the prosecution and is meant to expedite the trial by potentially waiving the need for formal proof if the document's genuineness is accepted. The petition of the accused was allowed, and the prosecution is required to respond to the contents of the pen drive.

NEELAM DUBEY & ORS VS ASFAA ALAM & ORS (NATIONAL INS CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-607/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The deceased's date of birth was established as 01.07.1975, making him 39 years old at the time of the accident, leading to the application of a multiplier of 15. The deceased's minimum wage as an unskilled worker was correctly considered, and future prospects of 40% of his income were granted. Compensation for loss of love and affection, in addition to loss of consortium, was deemed sufficient without further enhancement. Total compensation payable to the claimants was increased from Rs. 13,12,804 to Rs. 18,51,625, with an interest of 9% per annum.

NEERAJ DENGRE @ NEERAJ GUPTA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2139/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's anticipatory bail application was dismissed due to failure to cooperate with the ongoing investigation after initial compliance. Allegations of forging invoices necessitated interrogation. The circumstances indicated that the petitioner, accused of conspiracy and fraud alongside co-accused individuals, did not present a case for anticipatory bail in a matter involving significant financial cheating of the complainant.

NEERAJ KUMAR NAGAR @ NAGAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1757/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The punishment ticket issued to the petitioner was quashed due to the jail authorities' failure to follow the prescribed procedure under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. The authorities did not provide a show-cause notice to the petitioner, which deprived him of the opportunity to respond to the alleged violation of jail rules. This lack of due process resulted in the nullification of the punishment ticket.

NEERAJ VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2504/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Neeraj was granted regular bail despite serious allegations of robbery at gunpoint and firearms offenses. Key witnesses failed to identify him, and he had spent nearly 3 years in judicial custody. The petitioner's criminal history was noted, but bail had been previously granted to co-accused with more extensive records. Bail conditions included furnishing a personal bond, regular court appearances, and avoiding further criminal activities or witness tampering.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS SMT MANJU CHANDRA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-663/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation award for a motor accident case was upheld, rejecting challenges from the insurance company. The Tribunal's application of a one-fourth deduction for personal expenses of the deceased was deemed appropriate, recognizing that dependency includes emotional and social support, not just financial aspects. Compensation under conventional heads such as loss of estate, loss of consortium, and funeral expenses, was validated with a 10% increase every three years, consistent with established legal precedents. There was no identified issue with the Tribunal's award, resulting in the dismissal of the insurance company's appeal.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD VS SUNIL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-274/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The decision to grant lump-sum compensation of Rs. 5,00,000 with 8% annual interest under the amended Section 163-A of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, was upheld, despite the accident occurring before the amendment took effect on 22.05.2018. The legislative intent behind the amendment supports its application to all pending cases, as it aims to provide adequate relief to victims and their families. An appeal from the insurance company challenging the retrospective application of the amended provisions was dismissed.

NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD VS GAYTRI DEVI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-25/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The contributory negligence of 50% attributed to the deceased was set aside. The driver of the offending vehicle had a duty to exercise due care and caution. Minimum wages for calculating compensation should be based on the deceased's place of residence in Uttar Pradesh. Compensation for loss of consortium was enhanced to Rs. 44,000 for each of the five claimants, and the interest rate on the compensation increased from 7% to 9% per annum, leading to a revised total compensation amount.

NIKITA AWASTHI VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1395/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petition filed by Nikita Awasthi was dismissed. The case involved a complaint from Ravinder Kumar alleging that Awasthi used forged experience certificates to obtain a job in the Ministry of Commerce and Industry. An FIR was registered, and inquiries were conducted, including requests for documentation from various authorities. The actions of the respondents in seeking information were deemed lawful, and no unjustified inconvenience to Awasthi was identified.

NISHA YADAV & ORS VS VIRENDER SINGH & ORS(UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO. LTD.) [MAC.APP.-110/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was upheld with modifications. Allowances for transportation and washing were excluded from the deceased's income for calculating loss of dependency, while annual bonus and compensatory pay were included. Ex-gratia payments and family pensions were not deducted from the compensation. Amounts for loss of estate and funeral expenses were revised according to the Supreme Court's judgment in Pranay Sethi, resulting in a total compensation of Rs. 58,94,000 with 9% interest per annum.

NITASHA KOHLI VS ISH KUMAR ANAND & ORS. [CS(OS)-421/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint in a partition and permanent injunction suit was allowed. The amendment permits the plaintiff to challenge relinquishment deeds granted to the defendants, alleging misrepresentation and fraud. The suit property description is limited to Property No. 16-B. Objections from the defendants regarding changes to the nature of the suit and valuation were rejected, with these concerns to be addressed in their written statements.

NORTH EAST CENTRE OF TECHNOLOGY APPLICATION AND REACH (NECTAR) VS DIVINE BAMBOO MAT MANUFACTURING PVT. LTD. & ANR. [O.M.P.(T)-1/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by the North East Centre of Technology Application and Reach (NECTAR) for the appointment of a substitute arbitrator was allowed under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The original arbitrator was determined to have abandoned the proceedings and withdrawn from office after the respondent, Divine Bamboo Mat Manufacturing Pvt. Ltd., challenged the appointment. Mr. Justice V.K. Jain, a retired Delhi High Court judge, was appointed as the substitute arbitrator to handle the disputes. Parties were permitted to raise objections before the new arbitrator, with fees to be set according to Schedule-IV of the Act or by mutual consent.

NOVATEUR ELECTRICAL AND DIGITAL SYSTEMS PVT. LTD. VS MANI KUMAR. V PROPRIETOR OF M/S DEVI ELECTRICALS [ARB.P.-453/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Novateur Electrical and Digital Systems Pvt. Ltd. filed a petition under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, leading to the appointment of Mr. Harish Dudani as the sole arbitrator for disputes with Mani Kumar V, proprietor of M/S Devi Electricals. Novateur, engaged in manufacturing electrical products, had appointed Mani as an authorized distributor since 2010. However, Mani failed to pay invoices since 2020, resulting in an outstanding amount of Rs. 2,00,15,986/-. The petitioner invoked the arbitration clause via a notice, which went unanswered, prompting the petition.

OM PAL SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-230/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Om Pal Singh received bail in an FIR under Section 308 IPC related to a dispute with his 79-year-old father, Dharampal Singh, concerning ancestral property. The petitioner has been in custody since November 30, 2023, and a chargesheet has been filed. Given the nature of the dispute and the petitioner's cooperation with the investigation, continued custody is deemed unnecessary, leading to the decision to grant bail with certain conditions.

OM PRAKASH ARORA VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-63/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Probate was granted for the will dated 28th December 2015 executed by Shri Vinod Kumar, with the petitioner designated as the sole executor. The will met the requirements of Section 63(c) of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, being attested by two witnesses who confirmed witnessing the signature. Uncontested testimony established the will's genuineness and authenticity, with no objections raised by the deceased's legal heirs. The petitioner is required to submit an administrative bond with one surety for the probate issuance.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS PREETI (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS S SMT. GAJNA AND ORS [MAC.APP.-664/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation was awarded to the legal heirs of Ms. Preeti following an accident involving a truck, attributed to the negligence of its driver. Eyewitness testimony indicated the truck was traveling from the wrong side when it collided with Ms. Preeti's vehicle. The driver's failure to provide an explanation and the filing of a chargesheet against him supported the claim of negligence. The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, and the compensation award was affirmed.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS DEEPSHIKHA YADAV & ORS. [MAC.APP.-236/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The deceased's monthly income was established at Rs. 25,000 based on evidence, including an appointment letter and testimony from the employer's representative. Compensation for Love and Affection was considered duplicative with Loss of Consortium, leading to a reduction in total compensation, which was recalculated to Rs. 55,82,000 with interest at 9% per annum.

ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS KHEM CHAND ALIAS BITTU & ORS. [MAC.APP.-668/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Motor Accident Claim Tribunal awarded compensation of Rs. 52,87,570/- with 8% interest to Mr. Khem Chand @ Bittu, who sustained grievous injuries, including the amputation of his right forearm due to the negligence of truck driver Mr. Yogendra Singh. Arguments from the insurer regarding contributory negligence were rejected, as this had been previously addressed. Compensation for non-pecuniary damages was deemed reasonable based on the severe impact of the injuries on the claimant's life, including a 100% functional disability assessment aligned with his employment as a mobile repair technician.

OYO WORKSPACES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS OPTIMUM OVERSEAS CONSULTING SERVICES [ARB.P.-547/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Disputes between OYO Workspaces India Private Limited and Optimum Overseas Consulting Services regarding non-payment of Rs. 1,79,217/- and applicable TDS for the use of commercial property are subject to arbitration under the Membership Agreement. The Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) will appoint an arbitrator from its panel, with proceedings governed by DIAC rules, including arbitrator fees and disclosures as per Section 12 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

P (COMPLAINANT) VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-342/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The order accepting the Cancellation Report was upheld based on the inconsistency between the prosecutrix's testimony and the documentary and scientific evidence. The prosecutrix's statements showed significant discrepancies that undermined the credibility of the allegations. The evidence collected did not support the claims against the accused.

PAMINDER GUJRAL & ORS VS KIRANJIT GUJRAL & ORS [CS(OS)-3262/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs and defendant No. 1, children of Upkar Gujral and Mohinder Singh Gujral, are each entitled to a 1/4th share in their parents' movable properties. The wills executed by Mohinder Singh Gujral only covered immovable properties, and he died intestate concerning movable assets. The defendants, as nominees, hold the movable assets in trust for the legal heirs and cannot claim exclusive ownership. A preliminary decree on the movable assets was issued, directing the parties to provide details of these assets, while matters regarding immovable properties will continue.

PANKAJ @ PANKAJ VAID @ AMIT @ SANJU BABA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3789/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Pankaj was granted regular bail in a case involving the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The evidence against him consisted solely of co-accused's disclosure statements, deemed inadmissible without corroboration. Without any recovery of contraband and considering Pankaj's 18 months of custody, prolonged detention was viewed as a violation of his fundamental rights. Bail was granted with conditions.

PANNALAL RATHORE & ANR VS M/S W.H DEETH(BALLABGARH) & CO [CS(OS)-1094/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit by Pannalal Rathore and Kavita Gugnani for specific performance of the Agreement to Sell from 12.06.2008 was not maintainable. The plaintiffs did not demonstrate readiness and willingness to fulfill the contract by paying the remaining amount by the deadline of 30.10.2008. The defendant validly terminated the agreement, and the plaintiffs filed their suit after the limitation period, making it barred by time. Although the plaintiffs were entitled to a refund of the Rs. 25 lakhs earnest money, that claim was also barred by limitation.

PARBATI AND ORS. VS THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD. AND ORS. [MAC.APP.-133/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal resulted in classification of the deceased as a Raj Mistri (skilled worker) rather than a non-matriculate worker. Testimony from the deceased's wife regarding his occupation was accepted despite the absence of documentary evidence. The deceased's monthly income was revised from R.S. 9,438 to R.S. 10,374, leading to an adjustment of total compensation from R.S. 22,91,620 to R.S. 22,92,110.8, with an interest rate of 7% per annum maintained.

PARNIKA COMMEERCIAL AND ESTATE PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1168/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Parnika Commercial and Estate Pvt. Ltd. successfully petitioned for the appointment of Justice Vipin Sanghi as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with the Union of India and the Chief Construction Engineer (R&D). The disputes arose from delays in civil works contracts at two sites, with extensions granted without compensation. After the respondents failed to appoint an arbitrator, the petitioner sought intervention. The parties must contact the arbitrator within one week and can raise objections. The arbitrator's fees will be set according to the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or as agreed by the parties, ensuring the arbitrator meets eligibility requirements.

PARNIKA COMMERCIAL ESTATES PVT LTD VS ARSHAD SHAH [ARB.P.-139/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Parnika Commercial Estates Pvt Ltd sought the appointment of a sole arbitrator for disputes with Arshad Shah under a work order contract containing a valid arbitration clause. Despite objections regarding a demand notice not specifying the project, the notice correctly identified the disputes and the claimed amount. Consequently, Justice Ajit Singh, Chief Justice (Retd.) of the Gauhati High Court, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The parties must present their objections to the arbitrator, with fees determined by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or by mutual consent.

PARVEEN SAGWAN VS GULSHAN & ORS. [MAC.APP.-149/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The absence of a driving license for the injured party does not prove negligence and cannot lead to dismissal of the claim. A chargesheet against the driver of the offending vehicle serves as sufficient evidence of negligence. Contributory negligence cannot be assumed without independent evidence showing the injured party's actions contributed to the accident. The previous award was set aside, and the matter was remanded for compensation assessment.

PARVEEN SHARMA VS SUMEER MEHTA & ANR (HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-40/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Parveen Sharma for increased compensation following injuries from a motor vehicle accident was dismissed. The claim for reimbursement of Rs. 10,615 in medical expenses was rejected due to the appellant's admission that his employer covered these costs without evidence of a reimbursement obligation. Compensation for pain and suffering, loss of income, and future treatment was deemed reasonable given the nature of his injuries. The awarded amount was considered just and fair.

PATHKIND DIAGNOSTICS PVT. LTD. VS MAHARAJA AGRASEN MULTISPECIALTY HOSPITAL & ANR. [ARB.P.-406/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Pathkind Diagnostics Pvt. Ltd. filed a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with Maharaja Agrasen Multispecialty Hospital. The parties' Memorandum of Understanding included an arbitration clause, and the petitioner indicated the existence of arbitrable disputes regarding an outstanding payment of Rs. 1,96,100/- that had not been settled despite multiple requests. The Coordinator of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre was directed to appoint an arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes.

PAWAN GUPTA ANR VS MITON CREDENTIA TRUSTEESHIP SERVICES LIMITED AND ORS [CS(COMM)-1213/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs seek to declare the security/mortgage over the Karol Bagh property as null and void. The issue of maintainability of the suit requires resolution first, as a related family settlement dispute is pending before an arbitrator. Plaintiffs may pursue remedies under Section 9 of the Arbitration Act against certain defendants. No interim injunction has been granted, and the matter is scheduled for further hearing on maintainability issues.

PAWAN KUMAR VS SMT. SUSHILA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-676/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Pawan Kumar against the compensation awarded for the death of Gaurav in a road accident was dismissed. The argument regarding improper service of summons was deemed inappropriate for this appeal, as it should have been addressed through a different procedure. The liability of the registered owner for compensation persists even if the vehicle is sold, as long as the owner's name remains on the RTO records. Therefore, Pawan Kumar, as the registered owner, remains liable for the compensation.

PITAMBAR SOLVEX PVT LTD AND ANR. VS MANJU SHARMA AND ORS. [ARB.P.-212/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

There are prima facie disputes between Pitambar Solvex Pvt Ltd, OAgri Farms Digital Pvt Ltd, and the former shareholders and directors of Pitambar Solvex regarding allegations of fraud and misrepresentation in the Share Purchase Agreement and the Credit Facility Agreement. Justice Mukta Gupta (Retd.) has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate these disputes, with parties allowed to raise objections before the arbitrator. The petition was not seen as a malafide attempt to undermine the respondents' petition under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code.

POCKET FM PRIVATE LIMITED VS NOVI DIGITAL ENTERTAINMENT PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [I.A.-31731/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application for an ad-interim injunction to restrain the release of the video series "Yakshini" was dismissed. The plaintiff did not establish a prima facie case of copyright infringement, as "Yakshini" is a mythological concept with many prior references, and the similarities between the plaintiff's audio series and the defendant's video series were insufficient to support a claim of infringement. The plaintiff sought a pre-release injunction, which is generally disfavored, especially since the defendant had announced the release in advance. Additionally, a previously signed release form by the plaintiff regarding submitted works raised doubts about the current claims. Consequently, the interim injunction was not granted.

POONAM SHARMA VS SMT. MANJULA [MAC.APP.-340/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals by Poonam Sharma, owner of the offending vehicle, regarding the compensation awarded to injured persons were dismissed. The injuries, which included fractures and required surgical interventions with extended treatment, were examined, leading to the conclusion that the compensation was conservative and justified.

POSTERITY ASSOCIATES PRIVATE LTD. VS VLCC HEALTH CARE LTD. [ARB.P.-198/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Posterity Associates Private Ltd. petitioned to condone a 420-day delay in re-filing under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, citing the misplacement of documents and the influence of a recent Supreme Court judgment. The delay was accepted, and the disputes under the Master Service Agreement dated 01.05.2017 were referred to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre for the appointment of a sole arbitrator, with parties allowed to present objections to the arbitrator.

PRADEEP KUMAR AGGARWAL VS SHRI PRAVEEN AGGARWAL & OTHERS [CS(OS)-255/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The 120-day timeline for filing a written statement under Order VIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and Chapter VII Rule 4 of the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018, is mandatory and cannot be extended, even in non-commercial suits. Arguments about delays caused by previous counsel's negligence and claims that the timeline is directory were dismissed, affirming the inviolability of this period. The defendant's right to file a written statement was consequently closed.

PRAMOD MANDAL VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT) OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-450/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's application for parole is not maintainable due to a pending appeal in the Supreme Court. Under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, applications for parole or furlough must be considered by the appellate court. With the appeal currently pending, the executive authority cannot grant parole or furlough. The application for parole must be made before the Supreme Court.

PRASHANT PITTI & ANR. VS DIVYARAM TALKIES PVT.LTD. & ANR. [ARB.P.-1303/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was allowed for the appointment of an independent arbitrator to address disputes stemming from a tripartite agreement. Allegations included the respondents' failure to fulfill obligations and the dishonor of cheques provided as security. The existence of the arbitration agreement and the respondents' liability were not disputed, while arbitrable disputes were acknowledged. A former judge of the Delhi High Court was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with arbitration to be conducted at the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

PRIYA RANJAN SINHA @ PRIIYARANJAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-1980/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The order declaring Priya Ranjan Sinha a proclaimed offender under Section 82 CrPC was quashed due to non-compliance with required procedures. Non-bailable warrants were issued, but there was no evidence they were returned unexecuted. The required proclamations were not published correctly, including at the petitioner's permanent residence in Chapra, Bihar. There was insufficient evidence to support the claim that the petitioner was absconding or concealing himself, and the proclamation order did not follow the procedures outlined in Section 82 CrPC.

PROMINENT COMTECH PVT. LTD. VS BORDER SECURITY FORCE & ANR. [CS(COMM)-1131/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application for exemption from serving a notice under Section 80 of the Code of Civil Procedure was allowed due to the suit being pending for over 6 years without any settlement proposals from the government defendants. It was noted that a dispute exists between defendant no. 1 and defendant no. 2 concerning the same claim amount, making a settlement between the plaintiff and defendant no. 1 unlikely. Given these circumstances, sufficient compliance with Section 80 CPC was established.

PTECH INFRA ENGINEERING VS LITE BITE FOODS PVT LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-176/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

PTech Infra Engineering's petitions under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were approved due to the existence of a valid arbitration clause in the work orders and the presence of arbitrable disputes. Mr. Ashish Sheroen was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes, with no objections raised by the respondents. Two separate petitions from the same petitioner against the same respondents were heard together.

PTECH INFRA ENGINEERING VS LITE BITE FOODS PVT LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-177/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Ptech Infra Engineering filed petitions under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with Lite Bite Foods Pvt Ltd and Mr. Imran Ahmad. The work orders issued included a valid arbitration clause, and arbitrable disputes were identified. Mr. Ashish Sheroen was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with parties allowed to present objections, and arbitrator fees to be determined according to the Fourth Schedule of the Act or by mutual consent.

PUNEET ARORA VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-2477/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's application for retrieval of call records from three mobile numbers was dismissed due to the telecom service providers' inability to preserve records older than 2 years, as per recent Department of Telecommunications regulations. The telecom companies had already complied with a previous order to preserve certain records related to the case. The unavailability of older call records does not violate the petitioner's right to a fair trial under Article 21 of the Constitution.

PUNEET GOEL VS AJAY NAGPAL & ANR. [I.A.-337/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint in a suit for specific performance of a collaboration agreement was dismissed. The proposed amendments would change the suit's nature from seeking specific performance to a new cause of action for termination and damages. Subsequent events prompted the plaintiff to seek different reliefs, but allowing the amendments would substitute the entire plaint, which was not permitted. The parties were directed to complete pleadings, with a suggestion for the plaintiff to file a fresh suit regarding subsequent events after obtaining permission.

PURAN PRASAD VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2587/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petition filed by Puran Prasad, serving a life sentence, was dismissed due to his failure to surrender by the due date of March 19, 2021, constituting a violation of conditional release under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. Consequently, the punishment ticket issued by the jail authorities, which denied counting the period of emergency parole towards his sentence, was upheld, as the rules do not permit counting such time when conditions of release are violated.

PURSHOTTAM CHOPRA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-268/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner, convicted under Sections 302/34 IPC and sentenced to life imprisonment in 1999, is entitled to consideration for premature release under the 2004 Remission Policy, based on the principle that the policy at the time of conviction applies. The petitioner's furlough is extended for 6 weeks under specific conditions, and authorities are directed to evaluate his remission application within 6 weeks.

PUSHPA & ORS VS LAKHVINDER SINGH & ORS (SBI GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-701/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation was enhanced from Rs. 11,93,000/- to Rs. 25,50,000/-. The deceased's income was correctly assessed at Rs. 2,17,815/- per annum based on income tax returns, rather than the minimum wage for unskilled workers. A 25% increase for future prospects was justifiable due to the deceased's self-employment at age 46. A deduction of 1/3rd for personal expenses was properly applied, as one son was not a dependent. Compensation for loss of consortium was increased from Rs. 40,000/- to Rs. 1,60,000/- to reflect the four legal heirs.

QUADRA STRAT TRADE SERVICES LTD. VS MAHINDER KUMAR MADAN [I.A.-8126/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant's defense was struck off due to failure to file a written statement within the specified 30-day period, extended to 120 days, and non-payment of Rs. 5,000 in costs as directed. Although there is discretion under Order VIII Rule 10 CPC regarding judgment or evidence, the plaintiff must still prove its case, including readiness and willingness for specific performance, even without a written statement. Judgment cannot be granted on admissions in the absence of a written statement.

R.K SHARMA VS BSES YAMUNA POWER LTD. & ANR. [C.R.P.-323/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition filed by R.K. Sharma was dismissed, challenging the dismissal of his transfer application under Section 24 CPC. The grounds raised included acceptance of delayed replies, imposition of costs, and granting short hearing dates, which did not demonstrate legitimate apprehension of bias. The lower court provided reasonable explanations for its actions, and granting short dates for expedient disposal was not indicative of bias.

RADHA NATH NANDY VS RAJPAL [CRL.M.C.-1755/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by Radha Nath Nandy under Section 482 CrPC was dismissed. The testimonies of the petitioner and his wife were contradictory, with the wife not supporting claims of threats, demand for money, or ransacking. It was established that no prima facie offense was disclosed, and the grievance regarding the summoning of the accused for a statement was rejected, as such a provision does not exist at the pre-summoning evidence stage under the CrPC.

RAHUL KUMAR VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-6079/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The direction to file a formal bail application is not necessary, as providing a personal bond under Section 88 CrPC suffices for securing the accused's presence during trial. The provisions in CrPC regarding summons and warrants differ from those concerning bail, making a formal bail application non-mandatory. The accused can be considered for bail after hearing the parties, with the option to furnish a bail bond and surety bond as required by law.

RAHUL VS UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS. [MAC.APP.-115/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Rahul for enhanced compensation following a motor accident resulted in several key findings. His income was recalculated based on revised minimum wages in Uttar Pradesh from the accident date, with the loss of income during treatment extended from 6 months to 2 years. The assessment of permanent disability was set at 50%, and future income loss calculations included a 40% prospect for future earnings. Compensation for pain and suffering was increased, but amounts for loss of marriage prospects and loss of amenities were left unchanged. The final compensation was raised from Rs. 9,82,953/- to Rs. 30,90,000/-, with an interest rate of 9% per annum.

RAJ KISHAN CHABRA (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH LR. ANIL CHABRA VS BHARAT KALRA AND ORS [C.R.P.-226/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The trial court allowed an application for substitution of legal heirs under Order XXII Rule 4 of the CPC, despite it being filed beyond the 90-day period after the defendant's death. The delay was attributed to the plaintiff's inadvertent miscalculation of the limitation period rather than a lack of diligence. Abatement could be set aside by implication without a separate application under Order XXII Rule 9 of the CPC. The revision petition against the trial court's order was dismissed.

RAJ KUMAR VS ICICI LOMBARD GEN INS CO LTD & ANR. [MAC.APP.-190/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Raj Kumar resulted in an increase in total compensation from Rs. 1,25,000 to Rs. 2,60,000, with an interest rate raised from 6% to 9% per annum. Compensation included Rs. 67,000 for loss of income for one month, Rs. 50,000 for future treatment to remove a rod, Rs. 50,000 for pain and suffering, and Rs. 40,000 for mental and physical shock.

RAJ KUMAR VS JAGGA SINGH & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-451/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation for injuries from a road accident was enhanced from Rs. 6,74,346/- to Rs. 12,89,650/-. The appellant's age of 60 years was established through an Aadhar card and medical records, using a multiplier of 9 for future earnings instead of 7. Compensation amounts for conveyance charges, attendant charges, special diet, and loss of amenities were increased due to the appellant's prolonged treatment and permanent disability.

RAJ KUMAR VS NITIN KUMAR GOYAL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-74/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant, suffering 76% permanent disability in his left lower limb from a road accident, was assessed at 100% functional disability due to inability to return to his laborer job. Compensation was enhanced to include greater amounts for future loss of income, conveyance, special diet, and pain and suffering, reflecting the extent of his permanent disability.

RAJ KUMAR VS RAM KUMAR & ANR. [CS(OS)-341/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff and defendants jointly purchased property in 1978, each holding a 1/3rd undivided share. The defendants claimed an oral partition in 1987, which allocated 133 sq. yds. to the plaintiff, but this claim requires evidence. The plaintiff disputed the oral partition, making it unacceptable at this stage without evidence. The plaintiff's application for a preliminary decree was dismissed, and the matter was directed to proceed for the plaintiff's evidence.

RAJ KUMAR VS RAM KUMAR & ANR. [CS(OS)-341/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

There was no oral partition of the jointly purchased property in 1987. The property remained joint, with each party entitled to a 1/3rd undivided share. Occupation of different portions by the parties did not constitute exclusive possession or ouster of co-owners, indicating joint possession. The claim for mesne profits/damages was not sustainable, as the defendants were not in wrongful occupation. A preliminary decree for partition of the property by metes and bounds was issued.

RAJAT GUPTA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1100/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Rajat Gupta received bail in an NDPS Act case due to insufficient evidence against him. The only incriminating evidence consisted of co-accused's disclosure statements, which require corroboration, and financial transactions that did not link Gupta to illegal drug activities. No contraband was recovered from him, which meant the strict conditions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act were not applicable. Given his prolonged incarceration and the lack of material evidence connecting him to the offence, conditional liberty was prioritized, leading to the approval of bail under specified conditions.

RAJAT SHARMA VS X CORP & ORS. [I.A.-31740/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

An interim injunction was granted in favor of a journalist and TV anchor against members of the Indian National Congress party due to false and defamatory statements made about him on social media, which could harm his reputation. The case established a prima facie basis for the claims, emphasizing that while freedom of speech is important, there is an obligation to be truthful. The spread of the defamatory content was deemed restrainable to prevent future harm, leading to the directive for removal of the offending posts and videos within seven days.

RAJBIR SINGH VS NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED & ORS [MAC.APP.-19/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant, suffering 40% permanent disability from a road accident, is entitled to enhanced compensation for loss of future earning capacity and non-pecuniary damages, despite continuing employment with no salary reduction. The compensation reflects the potential impact on employment opportunities post-retirement, calculated based on the pre-accident salary. Awards for pain and suffering, loss of amenities, and mental/physical shock were increased. Total compensation was raised from Rs. 13,62,000 to Rs. 39,50,000, with 9% interest per annum.

RAJEEV ANAND VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2280/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Regular bail was granted to the three directors of Wianxx Impex Private Limited, charged under various sections of the Indian Penal Code. The company's commercial project, a mall, experienced financial difficulties that affected investor returns, but the project was completed, and company assets exceeded investor claims. Insolvency proceedings were initiated, and a resolution professional took over the assets. The directors cooperated with investigations and had spent 3.5 years in custody, leading to the decision to allow bail upon personal bond and compliance with specific conditions.

RAJEEV MATHUR & ANR. VS IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. [MAC.APP.-380/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal awarded Rs. 36,300 in compensation to Rajeev Mathur and Swami Narayan Mathur for the death of Shabd Narayan Mathur in a road accident. The appellants did not prove financial dependency on the deceased or entitlement to compensation for loss of income or love/affection. Compensation was confirmed solely for loss of estate and funeral expenses, without any enhancement.

RAJENDER KUMAR GOYAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1777/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Conditions imposed on bail for Rahul Singhal and Ram Sahay, such as creating a fixed deposit and transferring shares to a minor, were unrelated to bail objectives and invalid. Non-compliance with these conditions could not lead to bail cancellation, as the respondents had complied according to the record. A petition for bail cancellation was dismissed due to lack of merit in the arguments.

RAJENDRA PRASAD GOYAL VS THE GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [TEST.CAS.-82/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Probate was granted for the last will dated February 5, 2008, of Mr. Umashanker Goyal, confirming its proper execution and attestation according to legal requirements. Testimony from the executor, Mr. Vijay Krishan Goyal, and the sole surviving attesting witness, Ms. Anupama Kumar Garg, supported the will's genuineness. All other legal heirs and beneficiaries submitted no-objection affidavits, with no third-party objections to the probate.

RAJENDER SINGH VS BAJAJ ALLIANZ GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-704/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant with 66% permanent disability from a motor vehicle accident received enhanced compensation. The assessment of 33% functional disability was upheld. The claim to be regarded as a skilled worker was rejected due to lack of supporting evidence, with minimum wages for an unskilled worker being applied. Future prospects were awarded at a rate of 10% for loss of future income. Compensation for pain and suffering increased from R.S. 70,000 to R.S. 1,50,000 and conveyance charges from R.S. 30,000 to R.S. 50,000 due to the severity of injuries and extended hospitalization. The total compensation rose from R.S. 8,90,500 to R.S. 19,10,000, with 9% interest per annum.

RAJENDRA PRASAD VS RAKESH SINGH & ORS. (THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD.) [MAC.APP.-40/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appellant's appeal resulted in an enhanced compensation amount of Rs. 17,20,000 due to a permanent disability of 69% in the right lower limb, with a functional disability assessed at 35% based on the ability to continue working as a driver. The monthly salary was accepted at Rs. 18,500, rather than the minimum wage for unskilled labor, leading to a recalculation of compensation. Additionally, compensation was increased for non-pecuniary damages related to mental and physical shock, pain, and suffering, with interest set at 9% per annum.

RAJESH KHANNA VS M/S OLAM AGRO INDIA LTD [CRL.M.C.-3620/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The requirement to deposit 20% of the fine under Section 148 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, when suspending the sentence under Section 389 of the Criminal Procedure Code, is not absolute. In this case, the order directing Rajesh Khanna to deposit the amount was set aside, allowing him to present exceptional circumstances for reconsideration of the deposit requirement. It was noted that he was not heard on this issue prior to the direction.

RAJESH RATTAN VS MS. RENU RATTAN AND ORS [I.A.-7192/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The cost imposed on defendant Renu Rattan for filing an application to place additional documents on record was reduced from Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 25,000 due to her status as a senior citizen with financial constraints. The decision considered the defendant's history of multiple applications that the plaintiff claimed were intended to delay the trial, and the relevance of the additional documents to the property in question. The application for waiver of cost was disposed of accordingly.

RAJPAL & ORS. VS KOTAK GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD & ORS. [MAC.APP.-396/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Tribunal's decision to grant compensation for loss of estate to the deceased's husband and sons was upheld, while compensation for loss of dependency was denied. The deceased had lived separately from the appellants for over 20 years, and evidence did not indicate significant financial, emotional, or psychological dependency. Occasional visits for family events were insufficient to establish the necessary level of dependency for loss of dependency compensation.

RAJVINDER KAUR & ORS VS THE UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-116/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The deduction for the deceased's personal expenses is set at 1/4th due to five claimants, including the wife, two minor children, and the mother. Contributory negligence attributed to the deceased is reduced from 50% to 25%, based on expectations of care at the accident intersection. The total compensation is modified to Rs. 23,13,450/- with 9% interest per annum.

RAKESH KUMAR & ANR VS BANK OF MAHARASHTRA [I.A.-2210/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit filed by the plaintiffs against the defendant bank is not barred by an earlier suit involving the former owner of the property and the defendant. The causes of action are different; the earlier suit focused on declaration of title and redemption of title deeds, while the current suit seeks possession of the property and recovery of rent from the tenant bank. The application to reject the present suit was dismissed.

RAKSHA RANI & ORS. VS JAGDISH RAJ SAGGAR [C.R.P.-98/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by the defendants against the rejection of their application to dismiss the plaintiff's suit for specific performance of an Agreement to Sell dated 01.04.2013 was dismissed. Claims of forged signatures and limitation issues are to be addressed at trial, not at the pleading stage. The plaintiff asserted knowledge of the property's freehold status and a Gift Deed on 10.05.2022, making the suit, filed on 27.05.2022, timely within the limitation period.

RAM SAKHEE & ORS VS RAM SIYA SAHU & ORS (FUTURE GENERALI INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-236/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The finding that the cement tanker was the offending vehicle in the accident resulting in the deceased's death is upheld, supported by eyewitness testimony and the driver's admission of presence at the scene. The deduction for income tax from the deceased's annual income is adjusted from Rs. 2,650 to Rs. 680, with an additional Rs. 5,000 deducted for conveyance allowance. A 30% addition for future prospects is maintained due to the deceased's regular employment. Compensation for loss of consortium is increased from Rs. 40,000 to Rs. 2,00,000 for five claimants. The interest rate of 9% per annum is upheld, resulting in a final compensation of Rs. 36,40,400 to be paid by the insurance company, with interest.

RAMAN RAHEJA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2836/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The summoning order under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against the accused/revisionist stands. The accused's claim of being a suspended director and lacking liability for the dishonored cheque must be proven through evidence at trial, thus cannot quash the summoning order at this stage. Additionally, the validity of the settlement agreement dated 05.11.2020 is a mixed question of fact and law that requires examination during the trial, especially since the complainant disputes the authenticity of the signatures on the agreement. These issues must be established through trial evidence.

RAMDEV MUKHIYA @ RAMREKH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-868/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Charges were framed against the petitioner under Section 302 IPC (murder) instead of Section 304 IPC (culpable homicide not amounting to murder), despite the initial charge sheet citing Section 304 IPC. An examination of the case revealed no prima facie evidence of "grave and sudden provocation" by the deceased, which is necessary for culpable homicide. The assessment of provocation's nature is a factual matter to be decided during trial, validating the framing of charges under Section 302 IPC.

RANI DEVI & ANR VS SAUDAGAR KUMAR & ANR (THE NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-255/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dismissal of a compensation claim under Section 163A of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, following the death of Mr. Gaurav Kumar in a motorcycle accident, was set aside. Evidence showed that Mr. Saudagar Kumar was the driver and that the accident resulted from his rash and negligent driving. The initial statement claiming the deceased was driving was deemed insufficient as the explanation for the contradictions was not adequately considered. The case is to be remanded for determination of compensation payable to the claimants.

RANJIT SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3746/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959, related to the recovery of 8 live cartridges from his baggage was quashed due to insufficient evidence of "conscious possession." The petitioner, who possessed a valid arms license, stated that he accidentally left the cartridges in his bag after forgetting to deposit them with his firearm. The lack of criminal intent or knowledge in his possession led to the conclusion that no offense occurred under the Arms Act.

RANJITA BETARBET VS SUBIR BANERJEE [C.R.P.-123/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The partition suit filed by the respondent is not barred by limitation, as the cause of action arose in March 2019 and the suit was filed within the three-year period specified by the Limitation Act. The issue of court fees needs to be determined after evidence is recorded. Mere physical distance or a public disowning notice does not oust a co-owner's rights, and the respondent's claim of constructive possession is not to be dismissed at this stage. The revision petition by the petitioner against the order rejecting the application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code is dismissed.

RASHMI SHARMA VS BAJAJ ALLIANZ GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ANR [MAC.APP.-691/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The income of the deceased is calculated based on the average of monthly salaries from pay slips, amounting to R.S. 12,437. The compensation is modified from R.S. 17,54,500 to R.S. 21,14,794, with interest at 9% per annum. The Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 is recognized as a welfare legislation, necessitating reasonable compensation based on the evidence presented.

RAVI AND SINGH COMMUNICATION VS SIFY TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED [CS(COMM)-1670/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Sify Technologies Limited was allowed to amend its written statement in a commercial suit filed by Ravi and Singh Communication, citing the discovery of fraudulent claims of Rs. 35.41 lakhs in the plaintiff's invoices after a forensic audit. The amendments did not alter the nature of the defense, and the case was still in the initial stages. The plaintiff was instructed to file a replication to the amended written statement within 30 days. This matter is part of a batch, involving another suit filed by Sify Technologies Limited against Mrs. Punita Devi.

RAVI DUTT & ORS. VS DAL CHAND [CS(OS)-99/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Amit Tyagi and Lalit Tyagi were added as parties to a partition suit involving properties owned by their grandfather, Sh. Dal Chand. The applicants are entitled to a 1/6th share each in the properties based on a previously unknown Will executed by their late uncle, Sh. Girwar. This necessitated a modification of the preliminary decree, which initially allocated 2/3rd of the share to the plaintiffs and 1/3rd to the defendant. The case was updated to include the applicants as new defendants, and the parties were instructed to submit an amended memo.

RAVINA KUMARI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1256/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Ravina Kumari was granted bail in a case under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The material recovered was identified as a mixture of flowering/fruiting tops and leaves/stalks/seeds. The weight of the leaves/stalks/seeds was to be excluded in calculating the actual quantity of the narcotic drug. Discrepancies in weight were acknowledged as trial matters. The decision took into account her clean record and the ongoing trial.

RAVINDER SINGH PRATAP & ORS. VS INDERJEET SINGH & ORS. [CS(OS)-258/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs' application to amend the plaint to include an alternative relief of partition was allowed, alongside their original claim for possession and damages based on a registered will. The amendments were deemed necessary due to the defendants' denial of the will's execution. The nature of the suit remained unchanged, and the plaintiffs were entitled to seek partition if the will was not proven.

REENA GAMBHIR VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-397/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Regular bail was granted to the petitioners in a case involving Sections 409/420/120B IPC related to a Faridabad real estate project. A retired judge was appointed as a Court Commissioner to manage the disbursement of Rs. 16.63 crores from BPTP Parklands Pride Ltd. to affected investors. The Court Commissioner was instructed to issue public notices and contact investors to refund their investments with 9% interest per annum. Subsequent purchasers of allotments were permitted to claim refunds by submitting original documents and transfer deeds. A compliance report on the disbursement is scheduled for 04.12.2024.

REKHA OBEROI VS AMIT OBEROI [CS(OS)-366/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The family settlement deed executed by Smt. Savitri Devi lacked validity for transferring property rights since the parties were not co-owners; however, it expressed her intention to bequeath her property. The relinquishment deed by the daughter in favor of her mother and brother was categorized as a gift deed, resulting in the mother receiving a 25% share in the property. According to Sections 15 and 16 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, the widow of the predeceased son does not have rights to her mother-in-law's property, which instead devolves to the deceased's son and daughter. This provision disadvantages the widow, indicating a need for legislative reform.

RELIANCE GENERAL INS CO LTD VS SONIA SOOD & ORS [MAC.APP.-369/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals were partly allowed, modifying the compensation amount to Rs. 3,19,61,116/- with 9% interest per annum. The accident was attributed solely to the negligence of the truck driver, overturning the 25% contributory negligence previously assigned to the deceased driver. Income tax records of the deceased were accepted for calculating income. The multiplier applied was adjusted to 13 instead of 14. The amount received from the deceased's accidental insurance policy was not deducted from the compensation.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS BHARAT & ORS. [MAC.APP.-645/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to Mr. Bharat was dismissed. Triple riding by the victim as a pillion rider did not constitute contributory negligence due to a lack of evidence linking it to the accident. The assessment of 100% functional disability was upheld, recognizing the victim's complete incapacity to work. The compensation amount, including Rs. 5,00,000 for attendant charges, was deemed appropriate and warranted no change.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS DHIRENDER GAUTAM & ORS [MAC.APP.-942/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation award to the claimant was upheld, confirming the Tribunal's assessment of a notional monthly income of Rs. 25,000 for a first-year MBBS student as reasonable. The determination of permanent disability at 62.4% of the whole body was supported by detailed medical evidence. An award of 40% for future prospects was justified due to the claimant's young age and severe injuries. The interest rate of 9% per annum awarded was considered reasonable, given the circumstances of the 2011 accident. The conclusions drawn by the Tribunal were well-reasoned and evidence-supported.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS NAVEEN KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-557/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation award to the injured claimant was dismissed. The delay in FIR registration was explained satisfactorily, and the driver's negligence was established through witness testimonies and the driver's admission of guilt. The claimant's functional disability was assessed at 60% due to the amputation of his right leg above the knee. The compensation amount of Rs. 55,91,700/- with 9% interest per annum was upheld.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SAROJ BALA & ORS [MAC.APP.-781/2015]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

In this motor accident case, the deceased's net salary, excluding job-specific allowances and benefits, was used to calculate the loss of dependency. Compensation under non-pecuniary heads was reduced to align with the Supreme Court's judgment in Pranay Sethi. The total compensation awarded to the claimants was modified from Rs. 64,93,174/- to Rs. 47,70,000/-, with an interest rate of 9% per annum.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS SATBIR SINGH AND ORS [MAC.APP.-335/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The deceased, a 17-year-old boy, was found partially contributorily negligent in his fatal motorcycle accident due to driving on the wrong side of the road, which led to a head-on collision with a tractor. The lack of a driving license and helmet were not considered contributory factors. Compensation was reduced by 25% from Rs. 19,10,696/- to Rs. 14,33,022/- based on eyewitness testimony and the site plan.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS SHAHAN PARVEEN & ORS [MAC.APP.-693/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to the respondents was dismissed. The deceased's monthly salary of Rs. 12,500 was accepted based on testimonies from his wife and employer, despite the absence of documentary evidence. The employer's corroboration of the salary was deemed reasonable. The insurance company did not contest the tribunal's finding of negligence on the driver's part in causing the accident.

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE VS SHEETAL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-666/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The lower court's award of compensation to the legal heirs of the deceased was upheld, as the accident resulted from the negligent parking of the Tempo vehicle by its driver. Testimony from an eyewitness indicated the Tempo was improperly parked without lights or indicators, creating a hazard for other vehicles. An adverse inference was drawn against the driver for failing to testify. A recent Supreme Court judgment established liability for leaving a vehicle unattended without warnings, and the filing of a chargesheet against the driver was deemed adequate proof of negligence. The insurance company's appeal was dismissed, confirming the compensation award.

RELIGARE FINVEST LIMITED VS LAKSHMI VILAS BANK LIMITED [I.A.-12112/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Defendant No. 1's application to reject the plaintiff's suit or to add RHC Holding Private Limited and Ranchem Private Limited as additional defendants was dismissed. The plaintiff had already filed an application to amend the plaint to include these parties, which was approved. The core issue of non-impleadment of necessary parties was resolved by this prior order.

RELIGARE FINVEST LIMITED VS WIDESCREEN HOLDINGS PRIVATE LIMITED AND ORS [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-27/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The sole arbitrator has not become unable to perform her functions under Section 14(1)(a) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Delays in the proceedings are attributed to the parties' actions rather than the arbitrator. The parties have actively participated in the arbitration process despite the expiry of the arbitrator's mandate. The mandate of the sole arbitrator has been extended until 31.10.2024 to allow completion of the arbitral proceedings without requiring a separate application under Section 29A.

RISHI PAL VS CHOLA MS GEN INS CO LTD & ANR [MAC.APP.-143/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal for enhanced compensation by the father of the deceased was dismissed. The calculation of the deceased's income was based on the minimum wage for a matriculate due to the lack of documentary proof for a higher income. One-third of the income was appropriately deducted for personal expenses since family members were not financially dependent on the deceased. There were no grounds to change the non-pecuniary compensation for loss of love and affection or funeral expenses. The originally awarded compensation remained unaffected.

RITA SHARMA & ORS. VS ASHOK KUMAR & ANR. [MAC.APP.-132/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The income of the deceased was established based on the Income Tax Returns at Rs. 22,500 per month, rather than minimum wages. The deduction for personal expenses was adjusted from 50% to 1/3rd due to the financial dependency of two major sons. Compensation for loss of consortium was increased to Rs. 40,000 each for the wife and two sons. The total compensation was revised from Rs. 10,39,210 to Rs. 23,28,000, with an interest of 9% per annum.

RITIKA RAJ & ORS. VS THE STATE THROUGH SHO & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1462/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The registration of the second FIR No. 481/2022 is maintainable due to distinct allegations compared to the earlier FIR No. 106/2022, including specific claims of theft, extortion, and misappropriation. Although some allegations overlap, the accused named in the two FIRs differ. The registration of the FIR allows for verification of allegations, and the petitioners may challenge investigation findings at a later stage.

RITU JINDAL VS BANK OF BARODA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-140/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Look Out Circular (LOC) against Shashi Jindal and Ritu Jindal, guarantors for a loan from SRS Finance Limited, is not warranted since they are not accused in the FIR. The conditions for issuing an LOC, such as deliberate evasion of arrest or failure to appear in court, are not satisfied. The LOC against the petitioners is to be closed as they do not meet the necessary prerequisites for it.

RIYAZ MALIK @ RIYAZUDDIN VS THE STATE N.C.T OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2098/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The anticipatory bail application filed by Riyaz Malik was dismissed due to his involvement in at least six previous criminal cases, including serious offenses such as theft, forgery, and cheating. The current allegations include extortion and criminal intimidation, with additional charges under Section 387 for threats and ransom demands. The severity of these offenses and Malik's criminal history negated the grounds for anticipatory bail.

ROHIT KUMAR MODI & ORS. VS DHARAM SINGH YADAV & ANR. [C.R.P.-146/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by the defendants to reject the plaintiff's defamation plaint was dismissed. The plaint was deemed to disclose a valid cause of action, as the defendants admitted to circulating a defamatory show cause notice. Claims of mis-joinder/non-joinder of parties were rejected as vague. The COVID-19 pandemic period was excluded from the limitation calculation, allowing the suit to be considered filed within the appropriate timeframe.

ROHIT MALHOTRA VS GURVINDER SINGH TOOR [CS(COMM)-531/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) dated 14.02.2020 between the plaintiff and defendant is a binding contract rather than a mere agreement to agree. The arguments presented by the defendant regarding the MoU's terminability due to the COVID-19 pandemic were rejected, with the pandemic making performance more onerous but not impossible. The MoU is not considered determinable, allowing for its specific performance. The suit was properly valued based on the agreed consideration in the MoU. The defendant must pay the plaintiff Rs. 1.9 crore within two months, after which the plaintiff will execute the Share Purchase Agreement to transfer his 45% equity shareholding to the defendant.

ROHIT SINGH RAWAT VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3839/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Rohit Singh Rawat sought to quash an FIR filed against him under Sections 376, 506, and 377 IPC. The petitioner claimed a consensual relationship with the complainant, arguing that the complaint was false and aimed at extorting money. While observations made at the bail stage were noted, it was emphasized that the entire evidence must be evaluated during the trial. The petitioner was advised to present these arguments before the trial court, and the request to quash the FIR was denied.

ROOMA BHUTANI VS SANJEEV SAPRA & ORS [CS(OS)-3280/2011]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applications by Ramesh Chand Sapra, Pushpa Sapra, and Meenu Sapra to be added as defendants in the partition suit for properties L-100 and L-99 in Lajpat Nagar, Delhi, were dismissed. The applicants claimed property L-100 was allotted to their late father by the Ministry of Rehabilitation but did not provide supporting documentation. It was concluded that they were neither necessary nor proper parties to the suit. A preliminary decree for partition had been issued, directing the auction of the properties with proceeds to be distributed among the entitled parties.

ROSHNI DEVI VS IFFCO TOKIO GEN INS CO LTD & ORS. [MAC.APP.-86/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The claimant's appeal resulted in an increased compensation of R.S. 27,70,000, with an annual interest of 9%. The deceased's income was assessed based on prospective earnings as a graduate rather than minimum wage, leading to higher compensation. Adjustments were made for loss of consortium, loss of estate, and funeral expenses as per established guidelines.

ROYAL SUNDARAM GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS PRADEEP KUMAR & ORS [MAC.APP.-997/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company regarding the compensation awarded to the injured respondent was dismissed. The tribunal's decision to grant a 50% addition for future prospects, based on the respondent's qualification and selection as a constable in the Railway Protection Force, was upheld. This addition was deemed appropriate given the respondent's potential salary of R.S. 22,000 per month and status of being below 40 years of age. The findings on future prospects were affirmed as justified.

ROYAL SUNDARAM GENERAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS ZEENAT KHAN AND OTHERS [MAC.APP.-242/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awarded to parents for the death of their 3.5-year-old child in a road accident was upheld, with the loss of dependency calculated based on the minimum wages of an unskilled worker plus 40% for future prospects. The multiplier was modified from 18 to 15, reflecting guidelines for children up to 15 years old. An interest rate of 9% per annum was maintained since the insurance company did not present evidence of a lower prevailing rate. The final compensation amounts to Rs. 11,72,600, with each parent receiving 50%.

RSB PROJECTS LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-669/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

RSB Projects Limited's petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 led to the appointment of Justice Ms. Reva Khetrapal (Retd.) as an independent arbitrator to address disputes between the parties. A valid agreement containing an arbitration clause exists, and the Union of India did not oppose the appointment. The parties were instructed to contact the arbitrator within one week for necessary disclosures.

S. ARJAN SINGH & ANOTHER VS S. GURBACHAN SINGH & OTHERS [CS(OS)-553/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The issue of whether the plaintiffs can seek specific performance of the Samjhauta Patra/Settlement Deed dated 17.01.1985 involves a mixed question of fact and law that requires evidence. Clause 4 of the Samjhauta Patra, which mandates co-owner consent for any sale, should be interpreted to support the unity of family property and co-owner pre-emptive rights rather than as a complete ban on alienation. Further proceedings and evidence recording are necessary.

S. BHAG SINGH & ORS. VS M/S HARISONS AND ORS. [CS(OS)-60/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff-landlord established a landlord-tenant relationship with the defendant, with the rent rate exceeding Rs. 3,500 per month, making the suit for possession valid. The tenancy was terminated through valid notices. The defendant was directed to vacate the premises within three months, and further proceedings were scheduled to determine mesne profits.

SACHIN KUMAR VS RAVI AHUJA & ORS. [CS(OS)-485/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The 120-day timeline for filing a written statement, as per Order VIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Chapter VII Rule 4 of the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018, cannot be extended. In this case, the maximum period had expired before the parties were referred to mediation, meaning the defendant could not benefit from the mediation duration. The decision to close the defendant's right to file the written statement was upheld due to the lapsed mandatory timeline.

SADDEEKAN BEGUM VS BHARATI AXA GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-985/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The claimants established the motorcycle driver's negligence through eyewitness testimony and corroborating evidence. Medical records indicated the driver was under the influence of alcohol. The findings of the lower tribunal regarding the driver's negligence were set aside, and the case was remanded to determine the compensation amount under Section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988.

SADHNA GUPTA VS SANEH KUMAR MITTAL & ORS. [CS(OS)-369/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendants did not file their written statements within the mandatory 120-day period, leading to the rejection of their appeals. The 120-day filing period cannot be extended under any circumstances. The main suit for partition, declaration, and injunction will proceed.

SALEEM AHMAD VS JAIPAL & ORS (UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-113/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The absence of a valid driving license or possession of only a learner's license does not automatically indicate sole negligence in causing an accident. Lack of independent evidence regarding the appellant's driving skills or actions contributing to the accident prevents dismissal of the compensation claim based on license status. The previous decision was set aside, and the matter was sent back for compensation assessment, with the accident attributed to negligent driving of the other vehicle.

SALEEM PARVEZ & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2809/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against Saleem Parvez and Shazia for Sections 420, 468, and 471 IPC was quashed due to a settlement between the parties. A civil court had declared the forged gift deed null and void, and the loan amount had been resolved between the petitioners and Firdos Jahan, Saleem Parvez's mother. The matter was considered a family dispute, and continuing litigation was viewed as unproductive. The case was distinguished from a prior Supreme Court ruling on bank frauds, as the loan involved was from a non-banking financial company and had been settled. The quashing of the FIR aimed to maintain peace and harmony in the family.

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Sameer Mahandru received bail in a money laundering case related to the Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22. The emphasis was on his right to liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution, especially due to a lengthy custody period exceeding 18 months and delays in trial proceedings that hindered his right to a speedy trial. Factors such as his clean record and the documentary nature of the evidence contributed to the bail decision. Conditions attached to the bail include a bail bond, regular reporting to the investigating officer, and restrictions on leaving the country without permission.

SANDEEP KUMAR PATHAK VS THE SUPERINTENDENT CENTRAL JAIL NO 2 [W.P.(CRL)-2483/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Denial of physical visitation to Member of Parliament by jail authorities was upheld due to the petitioner's political statements made in violation of Rule 587 of the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, following a prior visit. The denial was not deemed a violation of the petitioner's constitutional rights or principles of natural justice, as due process was followed, including a written order and approval from superior authority. The petitioner may submit a new application for visitation, which will be considered in accordance with the law.

SANDEEP KUMAR VS GAURAV TYAGI & ANR. (NATIONAL INSURANACE CO. LTD.) [MAC.APP.-231/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The assessment of 50% functional disability for Sandeep Kumar, who sustained 90% permanent disability in a motor vehicle accident, was upheld. Challenges by the insurance company regarding contributory negligence and delay in FIR registration were dismissed. Additional compensation for loss of marriage prospects was granted, raising the total compensation to Rs. 36,00,000/- with 8% interest per annum. The insurance company's cross-appeal was dismissed.

SANGEETA MULWANI & ANR VS KAVITA KESWANI [CS(OS)-220/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The relief claimed by the plaintiffs to declare a Will dated 19.11.2005 as genuine and enforceable is barred by law and not maintainable, as the genuineness of a Will can only be assessed through probate proceedings under the Indian Succession Act, 1925. Civil courts have limited jurisdiction to consider the validity of a Will as a defense, not to directly declare it genuine. The defendant's application was partly allowed, with the determination on the validity of the Will deemed not maintainable, while the question of limitation concerning other challenged documents requires further examination.

SANJAY TYAGI VS STATE THROUGH SHO POLICE STATION SOUTH VASANT KUNJ [CRL.M.C.-3204/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioner under Sections 332/446A of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957 is quashed due to being outside the 1-year limitation period set by Section 468 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The complaint was filed in March 2014, and the chargesheet was submitted in November 2015, exceeding the limitation. The relevant date for calculating the limitation is the date the complaint was received at the police station, not the complaint date. No application for condonation of delay was filed, rendering the cognizance taken by the trial court invalid, leading to the petitioner's discharge.

SANJEEV KUMAR GOEL VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [CS(COMM)-850/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff municipal contractor is entitled to recover Rs.1,75,24,594/- against various RA and CA bills, along with a security deposit of Rs.42,12,311/-, with interest. The General Conditions of Contract do not stipulate that no interest shall be payable for delays due to lack of funds, implying that interest is owed for late payments. Interest at 8% per annum applies to the bill amounts from nine months post-expiry until payment, and 6% per annum applies to the security deposit from the date of institution until payment. The plaintiff's claim is awarded in full.

SANJIV CHOUDHARY VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-18019/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petition was dismissed as not maintainable due to the availability of an alternate remedy under the Companies Act, 2013. The petitioner had approached the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) regarding oppression and mismanagement, specifically requesting the holding of an AGM. The NCLT dismissed this petition for lack of support from 1/5th of the members, but an appeal can be filed against this order. Therefore, the petitioner has an alternative path to seek resolution.

SANTOSH JHA & ANR. VS SALMA DESHMUKH & ORS. [C.R.P.-32/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Salma Deshmukh was entitled to relief of possession under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963, having established her possession of the property since 2011 through documentary evidence. The defendants failed to provide a complete chain of title documents to support their claim of ownership and possession since 2001. Deshmukh experienced illegal dispossession in 2020 and was entitled to the restoration of possession.

SANTOSH YADAV VS JASWANT SINGH & OTHERS [CS(OS)-1264/2011]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Will dated 20.01.2003 executed by Shri Raj Singh was deemed fabricated and invalid due to the absence of the original document and unreliable testimony from attesting witnesses. An alleged oral partition or family settlement was rejected. The property is to be divided equally among Shri Raj Singh's daughter and his five sons as legal heirs. The parties must provide accounts of rental income from the properties since Shri Raj Singh's death, and a preliminary decree of partition was issued, allocating 1/6th shares to each heir.

SAPAN DHAWAN VS DES RAJ SETHI [C.R.P.-176/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's lawsuit for the recovery of dishonored cheques is not barred by the statute of limitations. For post-dated cheques, the limitation period starts from the date on the cheque, which in this case is March 31, 2017. The limitation period was affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, as the period from March 15, 2020 to February 28, 2022 was excluded, allowing the lawsuit filed in September 2020 to fall within the limitation period. The application to partially reject the lawsuit was dismissed, as the cheques were part of a single transaction and could not be separated.

SARABJIT SINGH VS SURINDER MOHAN TARUN [CS(OS)-1418/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The SPA holder of the legal heirs of the deceased plaintiff is entitled to take possession of the disputed property by evicting Ms. K. Jeevan Rita Murthy, who claimed possession based on a purported will of the deceased defendant. A receiver has been appointed to take possession of the property and prevent its dissipation during the ongoing dispute. Various applications from other parties claiming to be legal representatives of the deceased defendant or seeking to be impleaded in the suit were dismissed. The matter has been directed to be listed before the Joint Registrar for the recording of evidence.

SARABJIT SINGH VS SURINDER MOHAN TARUN [CS(OS)-1418/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Class-II legal heirs (cousin brothers and sister) of the deceased defendant, Surinder Mohan Tarun, must be impleaded as defendants in the possession suit. Claims of K. Jeevan Rita Murthy and Shambhu for independent ownership based on separate wills are dismissed, as these claims exceed the scope of the possession suit.

SARITA SINGH AND OTHERS VS MOHD IRFAN AND OTHERS [MAC.APP.-330/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A Wagon R with license plate DL 2C AC 9300 was involved in the accident that resulted in the death of Pankaj Kumar. Testimony from two eyewitnesses and credible investigation supported this finding, despite an initial discrepancy in the FIR about the vehicle number. The previous ruling denying the vehicle's involvement was set aside. Compensation of Rs. 51,76,000 was established, to be distributed among the deceased's wife, children, and parents.

SARPREET SINGH JOHAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3802/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Possession of five empty magazines does not constitute an offense under Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959, as it lacked "conscious possession." Empty magazines are classified as "ammunition," but without evidence of criminal intent, mere possession is insufficient to prove an offense. The explanation that the magazines were kept for protection against previous threats from criminals was accepted, leading to the quashing of the FIR against the petitioner.

SATBIR SINGH VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2944/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Anticipatory bail was granted to the petitioner in an FIR under Sections 406 and 409 of the Indian Penal Code, related to a financial dispute from a partnership business. Allegations involved misappropriation of funds. The longstanding business relationship and additional complaints under the Negotiable Instruments Act indicated the dispute was civil in nature. Conditions were imposed for the bail, given the petitioner's cooperation with the investigation.

SATINDER SINGH & ORS VS RAJINDER KUMAR & ORS [CS(OS)-2536/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs' appeal resulted in the dismissal of a previous order that denied their application to amend the plaint to include a claim for compensation in addition to specific performance. The plaintiffs were entitled to amend the plaint to seek a refund of earnest money and compensation because the suit property was no longer available for specific performance due to a recovery order by the Debt Recovery Tribunal in favor of the defendant bank. The amendment was allowed, with a directive for the defendants to submit their written statements within 15 days.

SATISH KUMAR VS ARUN PRATAP SINGH & ORS (UNITED INDIA INS CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-816/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awarded to the deceased claimant was largely justified, with attendant charges increased from Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 2,75,000 due to the claimant's 90% permanent disability requiring lifelong assistance. No further enhancement was made for loss of salary or future prospects, as the claimant was entitled to full salary under the Persons with Disabilities Act. Total compensation was increased to Rs. 15,13,978 with 9% interest per annum.

SATISH VS VINEET & ANR. (FUTURE GENERALI INSURANCE COMPANY) [MAC.APP.-578/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by vehicle owner Satish against the award for victim Vineet was allowed. The tribunal's grant of recovery rights to Future Generali Insurance Company was deemed erroneous due to no violation of insurance policy terms and lack of justification for such rights. Recovery rights granted to the insurance company were set aside.

SAUMEN KUMAR CHATTERJEE & ANR. VS HARI OM SHARMA [O.M.P. (COMM)-433/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitral award was upheld, confirming that the two unregistered partnership firms were dissolved only on 28.04.2017, not on 31.07.2003 as claimed. The argument against the maintainability of the arbitration proceedings, based on Section 69 of the Partnership Act, was rejected since the bar only applies to civil courts. Findings on limitation, merits of claims, and the award of interest were also upheld, with no interference in the arbitrator's discretionary decisions.

SAWHNEY BROTHERS VS STATE BANK OF INDIA [CS(COMM)-513/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The lease and associated service agreements between the parties expired, and the defendant's continued possession of the property lacked legal protection. The defendant is required to pay mesne profits and service charges to the plaintiff, adjusted for amounts previously paid. The unilateral extension of the lease by the defendant is not recognized, and acceptance of rent does not constitute a renewal of tenancy. The judgment addressed issues from three separate suits filed by the parties.

SBI GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS MUNNI DEVI & ORS [MAC.APP.-503/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Balbir Singh was classified as an employee of the vehicle owner rather than a gratuitous passenger, establishing the insurance company's liability for compensation. A total compensation of Rs. 5,56,100 was awarded, including 9% interest per annum, which accounted for loss of income, medical expenses, and other non-pecuniary factors. The statutory amount deposited by the insurance company was to be returned.

SBI GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS SMT ASHA DIVEDI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-675/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation was awarded to the deceased's wife and children after establishing the driver's negligence through evidence, including a police report and testimony from the deceased's son. The driver's sudden braking and high speed contributed to the accident, and the absence of the driver's testimony led to an adverse inference against him. The compensation award was justified based on the presented evidence.

SCG CONTRACTS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS K S CHAMANKAR INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-199/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application for summary judgment was dismissed due to the complexity of the claims, which require proof through evidence. Despite the defendants' failure to file a written statement, they retain the right to cross-examine the plaintiff's witnesses. The case will proceed to trial for the recording of the plaintiff's evidence.

SCHLUMBERGER ASIA SERVICE LTD. & ORS. VS OIL & NATURAL GAS CORPORATION LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-175/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Delhi High Court confirmed its jurisdiction to entertain a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, establishing New Delhi as the seat of arbitration. It clarified the difference between "seat" and "venue," noting the contract was signed in New Delhi, where the arbitration occurred. Precedents indicated that the stated venue also serves as the seat in the absence of contrary evidence. A generic jurisdiction clause from the respondent did not negate the supervisory authority of the courts over the seat of arbitration.

SEBASTIAN THOMAS VS VINCULUM SOLUTIONS PVT LTD & ORS. [I.A.-12727/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff, an IT professional, filed a suit against the defendant company seeking over Rs. 12 crore in reliefs and requested exemption from court fees due to claimed indigence. The defendants argued that the plaintiff is a well-paid professional, contesting his claim of indigence. It was decided that the plaintiff needs to be evaluated under Order XXXIII of the Code of Civil Procedure to assess his financial status. The matter will proceed to record the plaintiff's statement regarding his assets, income, and financial capacity to determine eligibility for court fee exemption.

SEEMA GAUTAM VS SHIV SHANKER & ANR. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-110/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A petition for termination of an arbitrator's mandate was allowed under Section 14(2) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The respondents did not object to the substitution of the arbitrator, leading to the appointment of Mr. Nishant Anand as an independent sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. Specific directions were given regarding the arbitrator's fees, disclosure requirements, and allowing parties to raise objections before the new arbitrator, who was granted discretion to continue the proceedings under Section 15(3) of the Act.

SEHEGAL HOSSAIN VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1663/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bail was granted to Sehegal Hossain in a case involving serious allegations of facilitating illegal cattle smuggling under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), 2002. Factors such as his prolonged incarceration exceeding two years and delays in trial proceedings contributed to this decision. Strict conditions were imposed, including a personal bond, restrictions on leaving the country without permission, and prohibitions against contacting or influencing witnesses. The balance between individual liberty and public interest in economic offences was highlighted.

SH JITENDER SHARMA VS SH NIKHIL BANSAL & ANR. [MAC.APP.-542/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation for the appellant was enhanced due to 42% permanent disability from a road accident. The assessment of functional disability was set at 42%, leading to an increase in loss of future earning capacity compensation from R.S. 11,43,142.56 to R.S. 22,86,285. Pain and suffering compensation was raised from R.S. 50,000 to R.S. 1,00,000. The tribunal's assessments of other compensation aspects, such as loss of amenities and disfigurement, were upheld. The claim for loss of marriage prospects was rejected due to lack of evidence of the appellant's marital status. The total compensation awarded amounted to R.S. 29,40,975.54, with interest of 9% per annum from the date of claim filing until payment.

SH LALIT KISHORE & ORS. VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3205/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 420/120B/406 of the Indian Penal Code should be quashed due to previously set aside allegations of fraud and an amicable settlement of the civil dispute related to the bank loan account. The petitioners have paid the outstanding dues, making further criminal proceedings futile and potentially unjust. When cases have a predominantly civil nature and the parties have resolved their issues, the proceedings may be quashed.

SH NEPAL SINGH KOLI VS SH MUKESH CHAND & ANR. [MAC.APP.-195/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation amount of R.S. 9,28,214 was upheld, with enhancements made under non-pecuniary heads. The assessment of 13% functional disability for the appellant's left lower limb injury was deemed reasonable. Compensation for pain and suffering increased to R.S. 1,00,000, and for loss of amenities to R.S. 50,000. The total compensation awarded was R.S. 10,28,214, with interest at 8% per annum.

SH PRASHANT SHARMA VS AMIT NEHRA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-86/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awarded to Mr. Prashant Sharma was enhanced due to 26% permanent disability in his right lower limb from a motor vehicle accident. The assessment of functional disability at 13% was upheld, but compensation for loss of future income was increased for failure to account for future prospects. Additionally, compensation for pain, suffering, and loss of enjoyment of life was raised, following the principle of "restitutio ad integrum." The total compensation increased from Rs.10,33,574/- to Rs.14,78,000/- with 9% interest per annum.

SH SATISH KUMAR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-506/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Satish Kumar received bail in a cattle smuggling case under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. The allegations, though serious, did not meet the criteria for denying bail. His right to liberty was emphasized, and considering his over two and a half years of incarceration and the extensive documentary evidence, bail was granted with specific conditions.

SH SHRI BHAGWAN VS THE STATE AND OTHERS [TEST.CAS.-100/2011]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Will dated 14.02.2002 executed by late Shri Ram Narain was deemed valid and genuine. Shri Bhagwan successfully proved its due execution under the Indian Succession Act, 1925. Objections from the deceased's other children were rejected due to the absence of suspicious circumstances and the petitioner's prior care for the deceased. The exclusion of other heirs was justified based on their strained relationships. The probate petition was converted into one for a Letter of Administration with the Will annexed, granted to the petitioner.

SH YOGESH KUMAR VS SH RAJESH KUMAR & ORS [CS(OS)-59/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The counter-claim by defendants 4, 5, and 7-15 to declare a previous mutation as null and void and to partition the property is not maintainable. The ownership of the property had already been adjudicated in a prior civil suit, favoring the plaintiff and defendants 1-3. The counter-claimants had previously filed and then withdrawn a suit challenging the mutation and earlier judgment. The principles of res judicata apply, leading to rejection of the current counter-claim as it arises from the same cause of action as the withdrawn suit.

SH. ANIL KUMAR VS NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD AND ORS [MAC.APP.-566/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the owner of the offending vehicle was allowed, and the recovery rights granted to the insurance company were set aside. The interpretation of the driver's blood alcohol content was found to be incorrect, as it was below the permissible limit, and the lack of an FSL report did not support a finding of intoxication. Consequently, there was no breach of the insurance policy, and the insurance company was not entitled to recover the compensation amount from the vehicle owner.

SH. BV GUPTA VS SH. VINOD GUPTA [CS(OS)-3626/1992]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit property is identified as joint family property of the HUF of Braham Vira Gupta and Sons. Braham Vira Gupta, as the karta, is recognized as competent to partition the HUF property. Dr. Ved Gupta is entitled to a 1/4th share in the HUF property according to the 2005 amendment to the Hindu Succession Act, despite a prior proposed partition. The final shares in the property are allocated as follows: 1/2 to Vivek Gupta, 1/4 to Dr. Ved Gupta, and 1/4 to the legal heirs of the late Vinod Gupta. A preliminary decree has been passed declaring these shares, and further proceedings for partition by metes and bounds are to follow.

SH. DEEPAK KUMAR VS SH. ABDUL MAZID AND ANR. [MAC.APP.-6/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The award of compensation to the respondents was upheld, dismissing the appellant's appeal. The deceased riding a motorcycle without a valid license or helmet did not constitute contributory negligence. A chargesheet filed against the appellant under relevant IPC sections served as prima facie proof of negligence in driving the offending vehicle. No grounds to interfere with the compensation award were identified.

SH. MAMRAJ & ORS. VS SH. PURAN KUMAR CHUGH & ORS. [C.R.P.-291/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The impugned order for fresh demarcation of the property and the stay on the deposit of the remaining sale consideration cannot be set aside based on allegations of fraud by the petitioner's counsel. Demarcation is deemed to facilitate the implementation of the mediated settlement without causing prejudice to either party. The respondents must deposit the balance sale consideration of Rs. 3.5 crores within one month, accounting for any prior payments made. Parties may be referred back to the Mediation Centre to resolve outstanding issues. The revision petition and the pending application were disposed of.

SH. NAND KISHORE VS SH. RAJAN GUPTA & ORS. [C.R.P.-204/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The trial court's rejection of the defendant's application to dismiss the plaintiff's suit for declaration of ownership based on a 1991 sale deed was upheld. The cause of action in this suit was distinct from a subsequent suit by the plaintiff, which challenged a 2013 sale deed in the defendant's favor and was dismissed on limitation grounds. The 2013 sale deed was not included in the current case, and the plaintiff questioned its genuineness. The dismissal of the later suit on technical grounds did not undermine the plaintiff's claims in the current suit, which presented a valid cause of action.

SH. NIKHIL SEHGAL VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [TEST.CAS.-12/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Probate was granted for the last will dated July 18, 2016, of Shri Tejinder Chawla, as it was executed according to the Indian Succession Act, 1925, supported by the attesting witness's testimony. The legal heirs, including the deceased's wife and two children, consented to the probate. The petitioner must provide an administrative bond and surety to the satisfaction of the Joint Registrar before receiving the probate.

SH. VIJAY KUMAR BANSAL VS SH. BHIMSEN BANSAL & ORS. [CS(OS)-6/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff failed to establish that the properties were jointly owned or purchased with joint family business funds, presenting inconsistent and contradictory assertions. Defendants provided evidence that properties were acquired in their own names or those of family members. Admissions made by defendants were insufficient to support a partition claim. The Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 barred the plaintiff's claim on properties not in their name. The defendants' application was accepted, leading to the suit's dismissal for lack of cause of action, and the plaintiff's application for a decree based on admissions was also dismissed.

SH. VINEET GUPTA VS M/S INDIAN BIODIESAL LIMITED & ORS [CS(OS)-385/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was granted, allowing the inclusion of additional facts related to a sale deed executed in favor of defendant nos. 7 and 8, as well as other sale deeds and a collaboration agreement. Amendments to the pleadings were permitted due to the impleadment of new parties, and the plaintiff was allowed to submit relevant documents following this change.

SH.KAVI GHEI VS ROHIT VAID AND ANR. [CS(OS)-416/2004]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The unilateral termination of the Agreement to Sell (ATS) by the defendants was invalid, as they did not seek a court declaration on its validity. The subsequent purchaser, defendant No. 3, was aware of the prior ATS and could not be deemed a bona fide purchaser. The plaintiff demonstrated readiness and willingness to perform under the ATS, having arranged necessary funds. Specific performance was granted despite only 6% of the total consideration being paid, due to the defendants' mala fide actions in executing a sale deed in favor of defendant No. 3. The plaintiff was directed to pay the prevailing circle rate for the property, and defendant No. 3 was instructed to collaborate with the original defendants in executing the sale deed in favor of the plaintiff.

SHABANA VS NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD [CM(M)-4122/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Tribunal's order to implead the deceased driver's legal heirs is valid. However, efforts should be made to trace the legal heirs through the Investigating Officer or the vehicle owner involved. Claim petitions should not be dismissed solely due to the inability to locate the legal heirs, as the Motor Vehicles Act aims to provide relief to accident victims.

SHAHNAWAZ MOHAMED HANIF MALANG VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1832/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Look-out circulars (LOCs) against petitioners Shahnawaz Mohamed Hanif Malang and Mohd. Salim Chand Mansuri should be closed. The investigation has concluded, and a chargesheet has been filed, making the LOCs unnecessary. The petitioners may seek permission from the trial court to travel abroad during the ongoing proceedings.

SHAHNAWAZ MOHAMED HANIF MALANG VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1832/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The condition requiring the petitioner to obtain prior permission from the trial court before traveling abroad has been modified. Although the earlier condition aimed to ensure the petitioner's presence during investigations and trial, it was deemed onerous given the petitioner's current residence in Mumbai and the case being in Lucknow. The petitioner has not traveled abroad despite an employment offer in Dubai. The modified order now mandates the petitioner to inform the trial court of his residence, contact details, and travel plans with an itinerary, instead of seeking prior approval.

SHAHZAD @ CHOTA NANHA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2477/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The bail application of Shahzad was dismissed due to his status as the main accused in a case involving serious charges under the Indian Penal Code and the Arms Act. He allegedly went to the informant's house with a pistol and fired, injuring others. The weapon used in the offense was recovered from him, and forensic evidence linked it to the crime. Testimony from 20 out of 42 prosecution witnesses has been recorded, indicating that the trial is nearing completion. The gravity of the offense was emphasized, differentiating Shahzad's role from that of co-accused who received bail.

SHALINI JAIN VS STATE OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3327/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Shalini Jain received limited anticipatory bail for 3 weeks to approach the competent court in Arunachal Pradesh where the FIR was registered. The decision was influenced by her residency in Delhi and the nature of the alleged offence in Arunachal Pradesh, allowing for interim protection to facilitate her access to justice.

SHANKER LAL ARORA VS RAJNEESH RAMPAL [CS(COMM)-419/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant's application to reject the plaintiff's plaint in CS(COMM) 419/2022 was partially allowed, requiring the plaintiff to submit original documents within 7 days. The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint in CS(OS) 622/2019 was dismissed, as the proposed amendments regarding access to property and document authenticity were deemed irrelevant to the main issues. The matter is to be listed before the Joint Registrar for evidence recording.

SHARE SAMADHAN LIMITED VS RAVINDRA KATYAL [ARB.P.-1253/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Satyam Thareja, was appointed to resolve disputes arising from a Consultancy Agreement due to the absence of a mutual arbitrator appointment by the parties. The presence of a valid arbitration clause in the agreement was acknowledged. The parties were instructed to contact the appointed arbitrator within one week to initiate arbitration proceedings.

SHARMA& ASSSOCIATES,CONTRACTOR.PVT LTD VS PROGRESSIVE CONSTRUCTION LTD & ANR. [CS(OS)-1751/2015]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitral award in favor of M/s Sharma & Associates, Contractor Pvt. Ltd. against M/s Progressive Construction Ltd. was upheld. The reasoning and findings of the arbitrator were supported by adequate evidence and documents, without any legal or procedural misconduct. The arbitrator's jurisdiction to adjudicate the claims was confirmed, despite the original contract being between M/s Progressive Construction Ltd. and NHPC.

SHARP MINT LTD. VS ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD. [CS(COMM)-25/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The issue involved whether "work in progress" (WIP) goods damaged in the plaintiff's factory were covered under the "semi-finished goods" provision of an insurance policy. WIP goods, being in the manufacturing process, were classified as "semi-finished goods" according to accepted accounting principles. The plaintiff was awarded R.S. 10,01,11,189 plus interest at 6% per annum from the date the claim was rejected.

SHARP MINT LTD. VS ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY LTD. [CS(COMM)-26/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Damage to the plaintiff's stocks resulted from air ingress into a sealed column, leading to ignition of inflammable products, not auto-ignition or self-combustion. The plaintiff was not negligent in equipment maintenance and was awarded Rs. 2,45,35,797.20 plus 6% annual interest for losses related to stocks, plant and machinery, and fire extinguishing expenses.

SHENZHEN JINSHUNYI ELECTRONIC CO. LTD. VS PRASHA TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED [CS(COMM)-839/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit filed by Shenzhen Jinshunyi Electronic Co. Ltd. against Prasha Technologies Limited was barred by limitation, having been filed beyond the 3-year period after the last cause of action. Despite this, Prasha Technologies failed to prove claims of defective goods and defaulted on payments totaling $210,287.85. The amount is to be paid to Shenzhen Jinshunyi along with interest at 9% per annum from the date of the suit until recovery. Although the suit was dismissed on limitation grounds, Shenzhen Jinshunyi prevailed regarding the outstanding amount and interest.

SHIVAM SINGH@ NANHE VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-3296/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's parole application for filing a Special Leave Petition (SLP) was granted for eight weeks, despite minor past punishments. The necessity for parole to maintain family connections and pursue legal remedies was emphasized, along with the violation of constitutional rights if the petitioner were denied the opportunity to engage legal counsel. The grant is contingent upon personal and surety bonds and specific conditions.

SHOBHA AGGARWAL & ORS. VS KRISHAN KUMAR 7 ANR. [CS(OS)-347/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by Vijay Kumar to be added as a defendant in the partition suit was dismissed. He failed to demonstrate any independent right or ownership in the contested properties, with claims based on a family settlement, partnership deeds, and an irrevocable license deemed insufficient for co-ownership. The rights he may possess are dependent on his father, who is a current party in the suit. The dispute among the plaintiffs and defendants regarding the relinquishment of shares is an internal matter among co-owners, rendering the applicant an unnecessary party. The order on the plaintiffs' application for the sale of the Sunder Nagar property is pending, as the parties' shares remain undetermined.

SHRADDHA SHANDILYAYAN VS LIVECITIES MEDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(OS)-641/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

An application under Sections 151 and 152 of the Code of Civil Procedure was partly allowed, resulting in the correction of a typographical error regarding the date of filing an application for condonation of delay, changing it from 18.03.2022 to 18.03.2020. Other contentions related to the merits of the case were dismissed as being outside the scope of these sections.

SHRADDHA SHANDILYAYAN VS LIVECITIES MEDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(OS)-641/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendant's application to set aside an ex parte order and condone a 361-day delay in filing the written statement was deemed not maintainable. The applicable rules allow a maximum of 120 days for such filings, consisting of an initial 30 days and a possible 90-day extension. The defendant did not provide a satisfactory explanation for exceeding the 120-day limit, and there is no provision to condone further delays under the rules. The application was dismissed.

SHRI ARUN GUPTA & ANR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [CS(OS)-124/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs' suit for damages based on malicious prosecution was deemed not maintainable. The police acted according to legal procedures in registering the FIR based on the complainant's allegations. There was no evidence of malice or lack of reasonable cause from the defendants. Delays in filing certain expert reports did not constitute malicious suppression of evidence. The plaintiffs failed to establish essential elements for a suit of malicious prosecution, leading to the dismissal of the suit.

SHRI BHAGWAN & ORS. VS BIRMATI & ORS. [C.R.P.-322/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit for a permanent injunction to restrain respondents from constructing on or alienating disputed property is maintainable. Petitioners, as joint owners, possess the right to protect the property from construction and third-party rights, despite not being in physical possession. The previous ruling that the suit was not maintainable has been set aside, confirming that the reliefs sought by petitioners are valid.

SHRI DANI RAM BIRHMAN VS SHRI SURAJ BHAN & ORS [CS(OS)-496/2016]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The legal heirs of the deceased plaintiff were permitted to submit documents, including income tax assessments and insurance certificates, to support the claim that the suit properties were acquired using joint family funds for the benefit of the HUF coparceners. The evaluation of the merits of the parties' claims remains pending as evidence from the plaintiff is still being recorded.

SHRI GURBIR SINGH ALAG & ANR. VS SHRI ROBINDER SINGH ALAG & ANR [CS(OS)-583/2019]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The main legal issue was whether the defendant had separated from the family property in 1984 through an oral partition and Memorandum of Settlement, as claimed by the plaintiffs. The defendant was permitted to add details about a subsequent fraud complaint against the plaintiffs, but other proposed amendments regarding family relationships and the defendant's expenditures on the property were rejected for being irrelevant to the determination of the partition. Amendments were limited to facts necessary to disclose the cause of action, with evidence to be presented during the trial.

SHRI KAMALJIT SINGH PAHWA VS SHRI GURDEEP SINGH PAWHA & ANR [CS(OS)-112/2016]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The partition deed dated March 23, 2015 is not binding due to lack of registration. The plaintiff, defendant No.2, and defendant No.1 are entitled to 25%, 25%, and 50% shares, respectively, in the suit property. The request for rendition of accounts is denied since the defendants reside in the property without deriving monetary benefits. A permanent injunction is granted to prevent the defendants from alienating or creating third-party rights regarding the plaintiff's 25% undivided share in the property.

SHRI NIRANJAN KUMAR BANSAL VS SHRI LAJPAT RAI JAGGA & ORS. [CS(OS)-557/2019]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The application to reject the plaintiff's partition suit was dismissed, affirming that the suit is maintainable. The plaintiff's right to seek partition is continuous, and the previous suit focused on different relief. The defendants must provide evidence for their claim of adverse possession over the entire property. The plaint supports a cause of action for partition and is not barred under the relevant procedural rules.

SHRI R.S. CHHABRA VS SHRI GOPAL KRISHAN KAPOOR AND OTHERS [EX.P.-232/2007]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
Objections filed by third parties against the execution of a compromise decree in favor of the decree holder were deemed meritless. The rights claimed by the third parties under their alleged agreement to sell are independent of the compromise decree and must be resolved in a separate suit. The execution petition cannot be transformed into a dispute over the specific performance of the third parties' agreement. The objections were rejected, and the decree holder was instructed to submit a fresh draft sale deed for execution in their name.

SHRI RAM GEN. INS. CO. LTD. VS SWAPAN SAHA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-176/2024]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
Compensation of Rs. 27,68,000 was awarded to the parents of a deceased individual under Section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, due to a motorcycle accident caused by the driver's rash and negligent behavior while under the influence of alcohol. Evidence included witness testimony, an FIR, seizure memo, and medical reports. The filing of a chargesheet against the driver served as prima facie evidence of negligence. An appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, affirming that the compensation award was appropriate and free from errors.

SHRI SUMAN KUMAR PAHUJA VS STATE AND OTHERS [TEST.CAS.-8/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The last will of late Shri Kishan Chand Pahuja, dated 21.09.1992, is genuine and valid. The testimony of one attesting witness's son was deemed sufficient to establish the will's authenticity despite both witnesses being deceased. All legal heirs, including the respondents, consented to the grant of probate. The petition from the elder son of the testator, a beneficiary, was accepted, and the letter of administration in respect of the will was directed to be issued.

SHRI SURESH KOCHHAR (HUF) & ORS. VS M/S V LOCAL PROMOTORS PRIVATE LIMITES & ANR. [EX.P.-63/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The settlement agreement between the parties was deemed valid and binding. Objections from Judgment Debtor No. 1 (Sanjay Dahiya) were rejected, as Judgment Debtor No. 2 (Sunil Kumar Dahiya) was properly authorized as a director to sign the agreement on behalf of Judgment Debtor No. 1. Sunil Kumar Dahiya's directorial status was not challenged, leading to the affirmation of the consent decree in accordance with the settlement agreement.

SHUTHAM ELECTRIC LTD. VS VAIBHAV RAHEJA & ANR. [O.M.P.-1/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The award by the sole arbitrator was upheld, with the appointment being valid despite the agreement for a three-member tribunal. The claim was deemed not barred by limitation due to the petitioner's admissions regarding outstanding loan liability, and the notice of invocation was timely. The loan amount of Rs. 2.5 crores was confirmed to have been disbursed to the petitioner's bank account, making the petitioner's denial invalid. Additional objections regarding the quantification of the amount payable and the inclusion of a second respondent were also dismissed. The award was based on the petitioner's own admissions and warranted no interference.

SIDDHARTH TANEJA (SOLE PROPRIETOR) M/S PERIYAR HYBRID SEEDS CO. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-130/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by Siddharth Taneja, proprietor of M/s Periyar Hybrid Seeds Co., to quash the summoning order in a Section 138 complaint under the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Taneja argued that the cheques were intended as security and should only be encashed if the pledged goods were not delivered, but he claimed the goods were stolen. No denial was made regarding the issuance of the cheques and their dishonor due to insufficient funds. The defenses presented will be addressed at trial, and the summoning order was upheld.

SIMRAN VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2995/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bail was granted to petitioner Simran in an FIR under Section 21(B) of the NDPS Act, considering the recovery of 6 grams of smack and a large sum of cash from her residence, her young age of 21, and her pregnancy. Conditions for bail included furnishing a personal bond, appearing in court as required, providing a mobile number to the Investigating Officer, and refraining from criminal activity or contacting witnesses.

SITA DEVI (DECEASED) THR LRS & ORS VS TAN SINGH RANA @ TANNI [C.R.P.-103/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The receipt dated 10.10.1985 signed by the defendant was ambiguous and lacked essential details of the sale agreement, rendering it insufficient for the plaintiff's specific performance suit. The plaintiff's pleadings indicated that the cause of action arose in 1985, resulting in the 2012 suit being barred by limitation. The abatement of the defendant's suit against the plaintiff (deceased) was set aside, as the relief claimed was not personal and survived against legal heirs.

SMITA CHAUDHARY VS MS. TARUNA YADAV [C.R.P.-105/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Taruna Yadav was found guilty of contempt for violating injunction orders by executing sale deeds of the suit property. She purged the contempt by depositing the entire sale consideration of Rs. 10,45,000 as directed. Canceling the sale deeds was deemed unnecessary to protect the rights of a bona fide third-party purchaser. The revision petition by Smita Chaudhary was dismissed, confirming that Taruna had complied with the requirements to purge the contempt.

SMT PATASO DEVI VS SH SATISH KUMAR & ORS [CS(OS)-43/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Defendant daughters (D3 and D4) were transposed as plaintiffs in a partition suit filed by their deceased mother, as they are her legal heirs, preventing the suit from abating. The argument that the property had already been partitioned through a family settlement was rejected, as this issue would be addressed on its merits. The transposition did not alter the nature of the suit or the cause of action since it remained fundamentally a partition suit with all parties involved akin to plaintiffs.

SMT RAJBALA VS MUKESH CHAND & ANR. [MAC.APP.-186/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Smt. Rajbala's Functional Disability was assessed at 59% instead of the Tribunal's 35%. The assessment included a 52% permanent neurological disability, acknowledging her impact on household duties. Compensation for loss of future earnings due to disability was revised to Rs. 11,54,275/-, while non-pecuniary compensation was not altered. The total compensation awarded to her was increased to Rs. 18,04,859/- with interest at 8% per annum.

SMT REKHA MANGLIK & ORS VS SHRI VINAY KUMAR GARG & ORS [CS(OS)-448/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The final partition decree is executable from the date it is passed, regardless of whether it is engrossed on stamp paper. The ability to modify shares due to the death of parties ends once the final decree is issued, and the executing court cannot alter the decree based on subsequent events. Changes in shares after the final decree must be addressed in a separate suit. An application to reopen the final decree due to subsequent events was dismissed as the decree has attained finality.

SMT SHINY BOBY RAJ AND ANR. VS TATA AIG GEN INS CO LTD & ANR. [MAC.APP.-112/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The presence of alcohol smell in a driver's breath, without evidence of actual intoxication or negligence, is insufficient to conclude a breach of the insurance policy. The insurance company cannot claim recovery rights against the vehicle owner solely based on the alcohol smell, as it did not demonstrate that the driver was incapable of driving safely. Consequently, the insurance company is liable to pay the entire compensation amount.

SMT. BIMLA DEVI VS SMT. SUDESH RANI & ORS. [CRL.M.A.-8018/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by defendant Shri Bhupender Singh under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for an inquiry against plaintiff Smt. Bimla Devi for perjury and contempt of court was dismissed. The plaintiff disclosed relevant facts regarding her marital history, including being the second wife and her husband's prior marriage to Smt. Hoshiyar Devi, albeit not clearly. She withdrew the first suit at an early stage, resulting in no undue advantage. The circumstances did not warrant action on the application, as there was no suppression of material facts, statements were not made deliberately, and punishing the plaintiff was not deemed expedient for the interest of justice.

SMT. CHAND GROVER & OTHERS VS M/S MOD CHITS PVT LIMITED & OTHERS [CS(OS)-21/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs were allowed to amend the plaint to include subsequent events regarding the relinquishment of shares in the suit property. The request to add Shri Ashok Goel as a plaintiff was denied, as he was not considered a necessary party. Amendments related to paragraphs 22(c) and 22(d) were also dismissed, being contingent on Goel's impleadment.

SMT. GA YTRI DEVI AND OTHERS VS THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD AND OTHERS [MAC.APP.-22/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Cross-appeals were filed by claimants and an insurance company regarding a motor accident award. The finding of 50% contributory negligence attributed to the deceased was deemed incorrect due to lack of supporting evidence. The minimum wage for the deceased, a resident of Uttar Pradesh, should have been based on the Uttar Pradesh rate for unskilled workers rather than the Delhi rate. The loss of consortium award was enhanced to include all five claimants, and the interest rate on compensation was increased from 7% to 9% per annum. The total compensation was revised to R.S. 16,32,500, with no deductions for contributory negligence, and the insurance company was directed to deposit this amount with the Tribunal within four weeks.

SMT. HEM MADAN VS MR. PAWAN CHOWDHRI & ANR. [I.A.-19037/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff, claiming constructive possession of the suit properties, is liable to pay only a fixed court fee under Article 17(vi) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, rather than the ad valorem court fee demanded by the defendant. The determination of ouster from the suit properties will be considered on the merits at the final stage of proceedings, based on the plaint's averments.

SMT. KUMKUM DEVI VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-60/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Smt. Kumkum Devi's petition for Probate of her deceased father's Will dated 08.01.2015 is treated as a petition for Letter of Administration due to the absence of an executor. The Will is confirmed as genuine based on unchallenged testimony from Smt. Devi and an attesting witness. A Letter of Administration is granted to Smt. Devi, pending payment of required fees and formalities.

SMT. LAD KUMARI VS SANDEEP KUMAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-407/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The 20% deduction for contributory negligence assigned to the pillion rider was deemed erroneous, as the motorcyclist's negligence could not be attributed to her. Compensation was enhanced for various non-pecuniary aspects, including medical expenses, conveyance, special diet, and pain and suffering, reflecting the severity and duration of the injuries. However, no compensation was granted for loss of future earning capacity due to lack of formal proof of permanent disability, despite the rider being deemed unfit for her job.

SMT. MADHU BALA & ANR. VS SMT. DEEPIKA ARORA [C.R.P.-266/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff failed to demonstrate ownership or title interest in the disputed property based on the Agreement to Sell and General Power of Attorney submitted. These documents do not create valid ownership transfer; they may only provide protection of possession under Section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act, which the plaintiff did not establish. The defendants, who purchased the property in 2012, maintained superior title, leading to the rejection of the plaintiff's suit for possession.

SMT. MADHU PAPREJA VS ANIL KUMAR CHADDHA AND ORS [CS(OS)-179/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for partition of properties owned by late Sh. Dasmal Chaddha was allowed, mandating equal division among the legal heirs according to the Hindu Succession Act, 1956. Claims by the defendant that the plaintiff's claim was barred by limitation and that an alleged oral family settlement constituted partition were rejected. Long possession by the defendant did not establish exclusive ownership.

SMT. MANI KAPOOR VS U.P.S.R.T.C. THROUGH ITS REGIONAL MANAGER & ORS. [MAC.APP.-574/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Smt. Mani Kapoor's appeal regarding compensation in a motor accident case resulted in an increase from Rs. 10,38,612/- to Rs. 10,50,000/-, with interest at 7% per annum. The compensation was based on the minimum wage rate for a skilled worker, reflecting a functional disability calculation of 15%. Additional compensation was granted for pain and suffering, loss of amenities, and attendant charges.

SMT. MANJU GAIND VS SMT. KAMLA RANI & ORS [CS(OS)-317/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Proposed amendments to the written statement by defendants no. 1-5 were accepted as clarificatory in nature. A 2-day delay in the plaintiff's review petition was condoned. An application by defendant no. 6 to condone a 2000-day delay in filing the written statement was dismissed due to insufficient cause. Other pending applications were disposed of based on party submissions, with the main suit and remaining applications scheduled for further proceedings.

SMT. NIRMAL BANSAL & ANR. VS SH. SHYAM LAL BANSAL & ANR. [CS(OS)-462/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs, heirs of Krishan Kumar Bansal, are recognized as owners of a 50% undivided share in the disputed property based on a valid will. Objections regarding the plaintiffs' standing and party inclusion were dismissed. The property, not having been partitioned despite an earlier arrangement, is to be divided equally between the plaintiffs and the defendant.

SMT. RUMA KAPOOR VS SHRI GULSHAN KHULLAR & OTHERS [CS(OS)-1120/2008]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff was in possession of the garage on the ground floor at the time the suit was filed. Evidence, including the site plan and pleadings, supported the plaintiff's consistent claim of possession, despite it not being explicitly mentioned in the original plaint. The defendant's application for attachment of the plaintiff's property for disobedience of the status quo order was dismissed, as the plaintiff did not violate the order by opening a franchise in the garage, maintaining her claim of possession.

SMT. SARITA GARG VS SH. AMAN GUPTA & ORS. [CS(OS)-95/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for declaring and canceling a registered will dated July 16, 2010, along with claims for partition, rendition of accounts, and permanent injunction, is maintainable as it was filed within the 3-year limitation period after awareness of the will's existence. The plaintiff can seek these consequential reliefs in the same suit based on the provisions of the Specific Relief Act, 1963. The defendant's application to reject the plaint was dismissed.

SMT. SUDHIR BALA SARINE VS SHRI BHACHHA THAKUR [CS(OS)-218/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff is recognized as the absolute owner of the suit property, while the defendants are categorized as trespassers or expired licensees. The plaintiff is awarded mesne profits of Rs. 10,000 per month for unauthorized occupation from November 2016 to November 2019, along with damages of Rs. 5,00,000 for harassment, mental agony, and loss of revenue caused by the defendants' actions and related litigation. The claims for mesne profits and damages are decreed in favor of the plaintiff.

SMT. VEENA KHANNA VS STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-72/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Smt. Veena Khanna proved the valid execution and attestation of her late father's Will dated 05.06.1979. Allegations of forgery and undue influence by the respondent lacked credible evidence. The exclusion of one daughter, Smt. Asha Mehra, from the Will did not render it suspicious or invalid. A Letter of Administration was granted to Smt. Khanna and the legal heirs of the other beneficiary daughter, as she was a legatee and not the named executor.

SONI AND ANR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-1428/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioners should have approached the Witness Protection Committee led by the Principal District & Sessions Judge for police protection instead of filing a writ petition. They were permitted to withdraw the petition and are allowed to seek relief from the appropriate forum.

SONIA JOKHANI VS JUGAL KISHORE JOKHANI & ANR. [CS(OS)-433/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for partition of the property is not maintainable because the property was bequeathed via a Will to the plaintiff's mother, creating a limited life estate, with the property passing to the plaintiff's brother upon the mother's death. The plaintiff was aware of the Will and the subsequent transactions, including the brother's sale of parts of the property, but failed to challenge these actions within the limitation period. The plaintiff cannot seek partition without contesting the brother's claimed ownership through the sale deed. Additionally, claims regarding the movable properties lack specificity and were not included in a previous suit, failing to establish a cause of action. Consequently, the defendant's application to dismiss the plaintiff's suit is granted.

SONIKA & ANR. VS SANJAY KUMAR CHUGH (DECD THR LRS) AND ANR [MAC.APP.-390/2023]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The appeal by the claimants for enhanced compensation was dismissed. The assessment of the deceased's monthly income was based on minimum wages due to a lack of sufficient proof regarding employment and the claimed salary of Rs. 25,000 per month. Testimony from the firm's proprietor lacked supporting documents like an appointment letter or attendance records. Additionally, educational records indicated the deceased had not completed a B.Tech degree. Consequently, the tribunal's decision to calculate compensation using minimum wages was upheld.

SONNY SARNA & ANR VS URMIL WADHAWAN & ORS [CS(OS)-1642/2012]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The dispute centers on the ownership of the suit property, with the plaintiffs asserting ownership and the defendants claiming it was purchased by the late Kailash Berry, inherited by Urmil Wadhawan as his legal heir. The evaluation of documents submitted by the defendants revealed some were irrelevant to the main dispute. Two specific documents were permitted: the Voluntary Disclosure of Income Scheme (VDIS) by Kailash Berry and a site plan indicating the property portion claimed by the defendants. This case is part of a batch matter.

SPJ CARGO PVT. LTD. VS SARAH FOODS [CS(COMM)-583/2019]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The delay in filing the Written Statement by the defendant is condoned since it was initially filed within the 120-day period specified in the Civil Procedure Code, despite being beyond the 30-day timeframe. The subsequent re-filing after addressing Registry defects is considered a continuation of the original filing, aided by an order that excludes the COVID-19 pandemic period from limitation calculations. Thus, the Written Statement is regarded as filed within the statutory period of 120 days and is accepted for record.

SRIRAM CABLES PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-447/2018]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The unilateral appointment of the sole arbitrator by the respondent violated the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, raising doubts about the arbitrator's independence and impartiality. The respondent's encashment of warranty bank guarantees was illegal and contrary to the contract terms and fundamental principles of Indian law. The arbitral award exhibited patent illegality and was set aside.

SSIPL RETAIL LIMITED VS VAMA APPARELS (INDIA) PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [CS(COMM)-736/2018]
Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna
The Mumbai courts have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes between the parties based on the exclusive jurisdiction clause in the original agreement dated 22.04.2016. The original agreement remains partially binding, with the exclusive jurisdiction clause intact despite the mention of Delhi jurisdiction in subsequent invoices, which lacked evidence of mutual consent.

STANDARD PLATTER CATERING AND HOSPITALITY PRIVATE LIMITED VS INDIAN RAILWAY CATERING AND TOURISM CORPORATION LIMITED & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-181/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The disputes between Standard Platter Catering and Hospitality Private Limited and Indian Railway Catering and Tourism Corporation Limited regarding the revision of license fees are arbitrable under the Tripartite Agreements. The argument that the Union of India, Railway Board is not a necessary party was rejected, emphasizing the contract was with the President of India through the Chief Commercial Manager-PM. A retired judge was appointed as arbitrator, and the respondents were directed not to act on the demand notices and letters until the arbitrator considers the petitioner's application for interim relief under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

STATE OF NCT OF DELHI VS PURAN SINGH [CRL.M.C.-2183/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Registration of an FIR against police officials involved in an encounter was deemed mandatory due to suspicious circumstances surrounding the deceased's death. Protection under Section 197 Cr.P.C. does not apply at the FIR registration stage, as the issue of sanction can be addressed later during the trial. Orders from lower courts directing the FIR registration were upheld to ensure a thorough and independent investigation into the alleged fake encounter.

STATE VS MOHIT KUMAR & ANR. [CRL.A.-541/2009]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Mohit Kumar and Sandeep Kumar were convicted under Section 308/34 of the Indian Penal Code for attempting to commit culpable homicide. The consistent testimony of the injured complainant, supported by additional evidence, demonstrated that the respondents inflicted a deep head injury with a sharp weapon. The nature of the attack and the resulting injury established the necessary intent or knowledge for the conviction.

STCI FINANCE LTD. VS MR. LT. COL. HARDEEP SINGH BEDI (RETD.) & ANR [CS(COMM)-635/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The "Nil Award" passed by the sole arbitrator was set aside due to being contrary to the fundamental policy of Indian law. It was noted that even after becoming the "beneficial owner" of pledged shares, the pledgee lender remains a financial creditor of the Corporate Debtor. Obligations of the pledgee lender under Sections 176 and 177 of the Contract Act are still valid, requiring actual sale of the shares to a third party rather than mere transfer to the lender's account. Both the lender, STCI Finance, and the borrower, Sukhmani Technologies, were allowed to re-agitate their claims through the arbitration process.

SUBHASH ARORA VS KALVINDER SINGH SANDHU & ORS [EX.P.-54/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Intervener, Grant Thornton UK LLP, is not a necessary or proper party to the Execution Proceedings, having already initiated its own Execution Petition for recovery. A Garnishee Order was passed in its favor. The parties validly reduced the sale consideration from Rs. 10.65 crores to Rs. 7.6 crores due to the Judgment Debtor's inability to evict a trespasser. The Intervener's objections to the Settlement Agreement were dismissed, and the Execution Petition was disposed of according to the Mediation Settlement dated 09.01.2019.

SUBHASH MANCHANDA VS RAJ KUMAR MANCHANDA & ORS. [CS(OS)-240/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Subhash Manchanda is entitled to a 50% undivided share in the suit property. Raj Kumar Manchanda, Kavita Manchanda, and Vikas Manchanda each hold a 25% undivided share. This allocation is based on the Will of the original owner, Bulaqi Ram, and the relinquishment of shares by the plaintiff's sisters in his favor. A preliminary decree was issued, with the division of property by metes and bounds scheduled for 10.09.2024.

SUBODH KUMAR VS SANJAY KUMAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-249/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal for enhanced compensation was granted, with the appellant's permanent disability assessed at 20% for the right lower limb, resulting in increased loss of future earnings. Compensation for loss of amenities and loss of marriage prospects was also raised. The interest rate was increased from 7.5% to 9% per annum, leading to a total compensation increase from R.S. 4,23,427/- to R.S. 7,38,481/-, with the insurance company required to deposit the additional amount.

SUDARSAN VS SUMITRA DEVI & ORS. [C.R.P.-313/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs claimed possession of property No. B-78, T Huts, Sahibabad Dairy, Delhi-110042. The defendants contested the property identity, asserting it was Jhuggi No. 45 but failed to provide evidence to support their claim. Evidence from the plaintiffs, including ration cards, identity cards, and electricity bills, confirmed the property address as B-78. The trial court decreed in favor of the plaintiffs, and the decision was upheld without finding any issues in the judgment.

SUDIP KOHLI VS RESIDENTS WELFARE ASSOCIATION DASHRATH PURI [C.R.P.-6/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff RWA's suit cannot be dismissed under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, as the determination of whether the property is a public road or private property involves evidence beyond the pleading stage. Previous civil actions related to the defendant's predecessor do not constitute res judicata since they did not address title or ownership, and the withdrawal of a writ petition does not bar this civil suit that involves mixed questions of fact and law. The application under Order VII Rule 11 has been rejected, affirming the civil judge's decision.

SUJATA JAIN & ANR.THRU ATTORNEYHOLDER SH NIKESH JAIN VS ANIL KUMAR JAIN & ORS. [C.R.P.-353/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The evidence submitted by Anil Kumar Jain in the consolidated suits is applicable to his own suit for specific performance, not limited to the lead suit filed by J.P. Gupta, which was dismissed due to abatement. The lower court's decision allowing the revisionist defendants, the legal heirs of J.P. Gupta, to cross-examine Anil Kumar Jain was upheld, emphasizing the interest of justice.

SUKANYA MONDAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-2205/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Sukanya Mondal received regular bail in a Prevention of Money Laundering Act case. She qualified for bail relaxation under Section 45(1) due to her status as a woman. The allegations against her are linked to her father's involvement in a cattle smuggling case. Despite her background as an educated businesswoman, there are concerns that she may have been exploited by others. The decision considered her lengthy incarceration and the case's complexity while imposing specific conditions for her bail.

SUKASH CHANDRASHEKHAR @ SUKESH VS STATE GOVT NCT OF DELHI THROUGH DG PRISONS [W.P.(CRL)-1506/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petition filed by Sukash Chandrashekhar to prevent his transfer from Jail No. 13, Mandoli was dismissed. Medical treatment for his physical ailments is provided at outside hospitals, and psychiatric treatment can be made available at other jail complexes. No compelling reasons or evidence of mala fide by the jail administration were identified. Authorities must provide the petitioner with a 3-day notice if he is to be transferred to another jail.

SULTAN ANSARI VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1151/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Sultan Ansari was granted regular bail after being in custody since August 2015 under the NDPS Act. The trial had significant delays, with only 17 of 53 prosecution witnesses examined over 9 years. Co-accused persons had been granted bail, and Ansari's case was comparable. Allegations of torture and forced confession were considered credible. The decision emphasized that the undue delay in trial and Ansari's personal circumstances outweighed the restrictions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act.

SUMAN KUMARI & ORS VS NATIONAL INS CO LTD & ORS [MAC.APP.-801/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal filed by the family of the deceased, Madan Singh, was allowed, overturning the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal's dismissal of their compensation claim under the Motor Vehicles Act. The Tribunal's rejection of eyewitness testimony and inadequate consideration of the FIR and mechanical inspection reports, which showed the crane vehicle's involvement and negligent driving, was noted as erroneous. The case is returned to the Tribunal to determine the compensation amount for the claimants.

SUMIT KUMAR JHA VS UMA SHANKAR & ORS. [MAC.APP.-358/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Sumit Kumar Jha is classified as a skilled worker (painter) with a monthly wage of Rs. 18,563/-. Compensation for loss of income was increased from 4 months to 7 months based on treatment records. The permanent disability percentage remained at 23% due to insufficient evidence for a higher rating. Compensation was enhanced for various non-pecuniary factors, including medical expenses, conveyance, special diet, attendant charges, pain and suffering, loss of amenities, disfigurement, and loss of marriage prospects. The interest rate on compensation was increased from 7% to 9% per annum.

SUNAYNA SABHARWAL AND ANR VS THE STATE AND OTHERS [CRL.M.C.-1819/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition under Section 482 CrPC was dismissed due to the petitioners' failure to present original policy documents needed to prove signature forgery. Without these documents, signature comparison could not occur. The petitioners had paid premiums for two years, indicating the dispute was civil, not criminal. No evidence of cheating or misappropriation was established by the petitioners.

SUNIL BHAREJA VS SHYAM LAL GOEL & ORS. [CS(OS)-106/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by defendant no. 1 to reject the plaintiff's partition suit was dismissed. The registered agreement to sell did not grant valid ownership rights, but the general and special power of attorney executed by defendant no. 12 in favor of the plaintiff was significant. With the co-owner's right to file a written statement closed, the plaintiff, as the power of attorney holder, had the standing to maintain the suit for partition. The suit was found to disclose a cause of action, leading to the rejection of the application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SUNIL GOEL VS M/S RATIONAL ENTERPRISES & OTHERS [CS(COMM)-536/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendants established that the plaintiff mutually consented to exit the partnership firm M/s Rational Enterprises in 2001-2002 due to a family settlement, with the firm reconstituted without the plaintiff in 2004. The plaintiff's claim of the firm's existence was contradicted by his lack of action for over 15 years, supporting the defendants' position. An application for judgment on admissions by the plaintiff was dismissed, as the defendants' defenses required consideration on their merits.

SUNIL KUMAR JAIN VS ANITA GUPTA & ANR. [C.R.P.-245/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The trial court set aside the ex-parte decree, finding that the defendants were not properly served and were unaware of the decree until the bailiff's visit, despite having made a partial payment of the decretal amount. The argument that partial payment prevented the application was rejected, as the relevant legal provision does not apply to this scenario. The revision petition from the plaintiff was dismissed.

SUNIL PANDEY VS STATE & ANR [BAIL APPLN.-621/2013]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The wife's application to recall the order granting anticipatory bail to the husband was dismissed. The husband had made genuine efforts to reside with the wife according to their interim settlement agreement. Their separation after more than two years of living together did not imply manipulation of the agreement for bail purposes. The husband's conduct did not suggest that the settlement was intended solely to obtain bail. Multiple applications were involved in the matter.

SUNITA REKHI AND ANR. VS Y.D. PURI AND ORS. [CS(OS)-1789/2006]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff and defendant No. 6 were permitted to recall witness DW-2, Mr. Chetan Puri, for further cross-examination focused solely on the bank statements of defendant No. 2, Mrs. Raj Puri. These statements were introduced after DW-2's earlier cross-examination, and it was deemed necessary for clarification on the amounts to address material issues in the dispute. This situation was differentiated from other cited precedents, as it pertains specifically to further cross-examination rather than discovery procedures. Additional opportunities for cross-examination beyond the bank statements were not allowed.

SURBHI SRIVASTAVA VS AMIT SRIVASTAVA [CM(M)-2799/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner (mother) was granted interim custody of 14.5-year-old Aryan for a limited period, despite his preference to not stay with her. The possibility of extending custody was left open if Aryan agrees. The respondent (father) made repeated calls to Aryan during his stay, but has agreed to limit these calls to once a day.

SURENDER BENIWAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS NIHAL VIHAR [BAIL APPLN.-1714/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Surender Beniwal received regular bail in FIR No. 408/2023 under Sections 406/419/420/120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The nature of the property transactions and the petitioner's role were considered, along with the filing of the chargesheet and lack of further needed investigations. Conditions for bail include not leaving Delhi/NCR without permission, appearing in court as required, and refraining from contacting or influencing witnesses.

SURENDER KUMAR BADHWAR VS ABHAY PRATAP SINGH RAGHUWANSHI [C.R.P.-60/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's revision petition was dismissed, and the denial of the application under Order XII Rule 6 was upheld. The defendant did not provide clear admissions in his written statement to justify a decree for the plaintiff. Instead, the defendant asserted that the landlord-tenant relationship no longer existed due to his purchase of the property from the plaintiff. Specific defenses stated required proof at trial, preventing the plaintiff from obtaining a decree based on admissions.

SURESH SHAH & ORS VS SARITA GUPTA & ORS [CS(OS)-1384/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiffs' suit for specific performance of an Agreement to Sell dated 20.05.2008 was dismissed, as it was deemed a precursor to a subsequent Agreement to Sell dated 26.05.2008 involving the defendant and the wife of plaintiff no. 1. The plaintiffs did not demonstrate readiness and willingness to fulfill the essential terms of the first agreement, lacking sufficient evidence of their financial capacity to pay the balance consideration. Additionally, they were found to have acted in collusion with the wife of plaintiff no. 1 in attempting to defraud the defendant. Consequently, the plaintiffs were not granted the relief of specific performance.

SURESH SHAH VS TATA CONSULTANCY SERVICES LIMITED [O.M.P.-5/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitration awards were established as part of an International Commercial Arbitration (ICA). Mr. Suresh Shah was identified as a permanent resident of Nairobi, Kenya based on the submitted documents. The argument that the parties could modify the definition of ICA was rejected, affirming that the definition is non-derogable. Consequently, the challenge to the awards under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is confined to the grounds applicable to ICA awards.

SURUCHI BHASIN @ SURUCHI BAJAJ & ANR. VS RAJIV BAJAJ & ANR. [CS(OS)-527/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Settlement Agreement dated 30.11.2022, made through mediation for partitioning disputed properties, is binding, and the defendant cannot withdraw unilaterally. A settlement agreement that has been endorsed and partially acted upon by the parties is treated as a consent decree. The defendant's failure to fulfill his obligations under the Settlement was deemed mala fide, leading to the suit being decreed in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

SWASTIK PIPE LTD VS STEELMAN INDUSTRIES THROUGH ITS PARTNER AND OTHERS [ARB.P.-182/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner's claims against the respondents are not barred by limitation, as the petition was filed within 3 years of the notice of invocation, considering the earlier pending petition. The notice of invocation was properly served on the partnership firm, constituting service on all partners. The issue of a partner's resignation is designated for the arbitrator's consideration. A sole arbitrator is appointed to resolve the disputes, with parties instructed to present their objections to the arbitrator, who must make necessary disclosures and comply with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

SWATILEKHA TIWARI VS SUNIL PANDEY [CONT.CAS(C)-464/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Sunil Pandey did not commit civil contempt for failing to comply with the court's order from January 10, 2014, regarding a mediated settlement. No manipulation or false intent was found in the interim settlement, as both parties genuinely attempted to reconcile over six months but ultimately separated in May 2016. The statement about seeking a mutual consent divorce was not considered an enforceable undertaking. Financial difficulties faced by the respondent were also acknowledged. Thus, the actions did not constitute willful disobedience of the order, leading to the dismissal of the contempt petition.

SYED ABU ALA VS NCB [CRL.A.-1294/2010]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The convictions of Rajinder Kumar, Syed Abu Ala, and Mohd. Altaf for offenses under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act were upheld, with sentences modified to the period already served due to the appellants' advanced age and lengthy trial proceedings.

TAMANNA SINGH VS CRESCENT FINANCIAL SERVICE PVT LTD [C.R.P.-358/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petitions filed by Tamanna Singh to remove her name from an eviction suit and execution petition were dismissed. The nature of her liability, whether personal or limited to her associated LLP, is a triable issue that requires her presence for effective adjudication. Thus, the application for deletion of her name was dismissed.

TANI SANDHU BHARGAVA VS SHUMITA DIDI SANDHU [CS(OS)-452/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applications for impleadment by Ms. Zoya Mohan Nursingh and Ms. Salina Singh Sandhu are dismissed. The suit filed by Tani Sandhu Bhargava is for possession and permanent injunction against Shumita Didi Sandhu and does not involve a declaration of title to the property. The applicants, claiming rights in the property as ancestral HUF property, cannot be added as necessary parties, as this would expand the scope beyond the possession issue. They have independent rights to challenge the plaintiff's title, but that must be pursued separately. The application by minor Ms. Salina, represented by her maternal grandmother, appears to have ulterior motives aimed at derailing the trial since she is not represented by her mother, the defendant.

TANNU RUHELA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-792/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Tannu Ruhela received bail after being charged under the NDPS Act for possessing 75 kg of 'Ganja'. The petitioner had been in custody since August 2021, with only two of seventeen witnesses examined, indicating significant trial delays. Issues with compliance to Sections 41, 42, and 52A of the NDPS Act were noted, including lack of a search warrant, delays in sending samples for forensic analysis, and discrepancies in sample weights. These factors raised concerns about the investigation's fairness. Bail was granted under specific conditions.

TANU GUPTA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-1797/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition filed by Tanu Gupta against the orders of the Magistrate and the Sessions Judge in a domestic violence case was dismissed. The property where the petitioner resided, owned by her father-in-law, was deemed a "shared household" under the Domestic Violence Act, 2005. However, the petitioner's right of residence is subject to conditions. The order for the petitioner's husband to provide alternate accommodation on rent was considered a valid exercise of discretion to balance the parties' rights. No infirmity was found in the previous orders.

TARUN NUHANI VS M/S HIGHTECH CONSTRUCTION CO. LTD.AND ANR [C.R.P.-355/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The ex-parte decree in favor of the petitioner was set aside because service of summons on the defendant companies through their chartered accountant's email was invalid. The plaintiffs had knowledge of the defendants' correct email addresses but chose the chartered accountant's email instead. Additionally, summons sent to the defendants' registered addresses were returned unserved. Consequently, the revision petition by the plaintiff was dismissed.

TEJBIR SINGH VS STATE & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-14/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Probate was granted for the last Will dated 6 April 2012 executed by Shri Sardar Gurbhajan Singh Mann. The Will was duly signed by the testator and attested by two witnesses, meeting legal requirements. The beneficiaries named in the Will did not contest, and there were no objections from third parties. The testator was considered to have been in a sound and disposing state of mind. Tejbir Singh, appointed as the sole executor, received probate.

THE AMBA DEEP FLAT OWNERS WELFARE SOCIETY VS AJAY GARG & ORS. [C.R.P.-364/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The suit challenging the constitution and functioning of the Amba Deep Flat Owners Welfare Society did not present a valid cause of action. The society is registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, and its constitution complies with the Delhi Apartment Ownership Act, 1986. The main complaints about the society's operations, such as arbitrary fee increases and denied access to records, should be addressed through internal mechanisms stated in the society's memorandum of association. The lower court's order was set aside, and the suit was rejected.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD VS MUNNI DEVI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-339/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to the family of a deceased motor accident victim was dismissed. The assessment of the deceased's monthly income at Rs. 30,000, supported by bank statements and evidence, was upheld. Loss of consortium awards for the deceased's four major children, including married daughters as dependents, were also confirmed. The challenge to the quantum of compensation was deemed unjustified.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD. VS SMT. ANJU RANI AND ORS. [MAC.APP.-579/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by New India Assurance Co. Ltd. against the compensation awarded for the death of Shri Lalit Tyagi in a road accident was dismissed. The involvement of the offending truck was established through eyewitness testimony and the principle of Res Ipsa Loquitur, while the insurance company's argument about false implication was rejected. The deceased's age was determined to be 44 years based on medical records, contrary to the insurance company's claim of 48 years based solely on the wife's Aadhaar card. The compensation award of Rs. 16,66,010/- with 6% interest per annum from the date of filing the Detailed Accident Report was upheld.

THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD VS KARU YADAV & ANR. [MAC.APP.-644/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal from the insurance company was dismissed based on the findings that the driver-owner possessed a valid and renewed driving license at the time of the accident. Conflicting evidence regarding the legitimacy of the driver's license did not establish liability for compensation, as there was no indication that any license issues contributed to the accident. The Claim Tribunal's decision to deny recovery rights to the insurance company was upheld.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS ANURAG & ANR [MAC.APP.-1109/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Tribunal's decision to withdraw recovery rights granted to the Insurance Company was upheld. The vehicle owner had exercised due diligence in verifying the driver's competence and license, thus not liable for the driver's fake license. The reasoning for the decision was considered well-founded with no grounds for interference.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANC COMPANY LTD VS SMT. KUSUM AND ORS [MAC.APP.-90/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Oriental Insurance Company regarding compensation awarded to the family of Sh. Hari Ahirwal, who died in a road accident, was dismissed. The absence of an eyewitness did not prevent determination of negligence based on other evidence, including the site plan, mechanical inspection report, and police investigation. The presence of alcohol on the deceased's breath was insufficient to prove negligence, as alternative explanations existed and there was no evidence that he was not in control of the vehicle. The interest rate of 9% per annum granted by the tribunal was upheld as reasonable.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS RAHUL SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-670/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awarded to Rahul Sharma for injuries in a motor vehicle accident was upheld with modifications. The monthly salary was calculated at Rs. 25,000 with income tax deductions, resulting in an annual income of Rs. 2,98,600. A 20% functional disability, affecting job performance, was recognized alongside a 34% permanent disability. Total compensation was re-calculated to Rs. 14,50,005 with an interest rate of 9% per annum.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS GEETA & ORS [MAC.APP.-585/2015]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal was dismissed. The deceased was not classified as a gratuitous passenger, and the challenge based on this was rejected. A 50% increase for future prospects was upheld based on the Tribunal's calculations, as the Supreme Court judgment cited by the insurance company came later. The amounts for non-pecuniary compensation were deemed reasonable.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS MEETA SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-928/2016]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company against the compensation awarded to claimants was dismissed. Testimonies from an eye-witness and a corroborating witness sufficiently established the offending vehicle's involvement and the driver's negligence. Arguments regarding the delay in filing the FIR and claims of false implication were rejected. The driver's acquittal in a criminal case did not affect the civil liability determination, and it was concluded that the claimants proved the driver's rashness and negligence.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SANGITA MISHRA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-493/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal awarded Rs. 56,76,100 with 8% interest per annum to the parents of Asim Anand, who died in a road accident at 26 years and 7 months. The insurance company's claim for a 50% deduction for personal expenses was rejected, with evidence indicating the parents were fully dependent on his income, justifying a 1/3rd deduction instead.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SHANNO & ORS [MAC.APP.-354/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The compensation award of Rs. 23,38,000 with 9% interest to the family of Shamshad Ali, who died in a road accident, was upheld. The argument that his income should be calculated based on minimum wages was rejected, as credible testimony established his actual income of Rs. 12,500 per month as a shoemaker. The absence of documentary evidence was not considered detrimental to the claim due to the nature of the unorganized sector. No issues were found in the calculation of the compensation amount, and the insurance company's appeal was dismissed.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SONI SHARMA & ORS [MAC.APP.-1038/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company resulted in the denial of compensation for future income loss to the claimant, a Lance Naik in the Indian Army, as he continued to receive his salary and benefits until retirement, with no evidence of lost promotional opportunities. Compensation for attendant charges, conveyance, and special diet was reduced, while amounts for pain and suffering and loss of amenities were maintained.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD VS MOHINI TRIPATHI AND ORS [MAC.APP.-526/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The accident leading to the deceased's death was attributed solely to the truck driver's negligence. The absence of a valid driving license for the deceased did not constitute contributory negligence. However, the calculation for the loss of dependency was adjusted, leading to a deduction of 1/3rd instead of 1/4th. Consequently, the total compensation for the legal heirs of the deceased was reduced from Rs.43,86,000/- to Rs.39,20,000/- with 8% interest per annum.

THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS AARTI GAUTAM & ORS. [MAC.APP.-648/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by Oriental Insurance Company regarding compensation in a motor accident case was dismissed. The Tribunal's award included 50% future prospects for the deceased, employed as an Assistant Manager at Reliance Retail Limited, based on the permanent nature of his job. The termination clause in the employment contract was deemed standard and did not affect this status. The awarded amount of Rs. 82,81,000 with 8% interest per annum was upheld.

THE UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS REKHA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-95/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by United India Insurance Company against the compensation awarded to the claimants was dismissed. The insurance company could not evade liability by claiming the trolley attached to the insured tractor was not insured, as both formed a single component, and there was no evidence of the tractor being used for commercial purposes against the policy. The ₹5,00,000 received by the claimants under the Group Personal Accident Scheme is not deducted from the compensation, in line with legal principles regarding separate insurance benefits. The compensation of ₹26,03,199, along with interest at 7% per annum, was upheld.

TIKA RAM VS CHET RAM & ORS [C.R.P.-370/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's petition challenging the rejection of a summary judgment application was dismissed. Disputed facts regarding the validity of the General Power of Attorney executed by the plaintiff in favor of the defendant were identified, necessitating evidence establishment. No clear admission was found that would support a decree based on admissions. The case involves a contested property transfer, and parties are directed to establish their claims through a regular trial process.

TIMES TRADING CORPORATION AND ANR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-590/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petition filed by Times Trading Corporation and Liyakat Ali against the Union of India, the Indian Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO), and Shapoorji Pallonji & Co. Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The dispute is characterized as a civil contract issue rather than a criminal matter. Allegations of fraud and large-scale corruption were not substantiated with specific details. The appropriate course for the petitioners would have been to file a complaint under Section 156(3) of the Criminal Procedure Code or pursue available statutory remedies, such as arbitration. The petitioners did not exhaust these alternate remedies, leading to the dismissal of the case.

TRANSACTREE TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS FUNDFINA MARKETPLACE PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-513/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Transactree Technologies Private Limited's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the appointment of Mr. Shyam Sharma, Advocate, as the arbitrator to resolve the dispute with Fundfina Marketplace Private Limited. A valid arbitration agreement existed between the parties, leading to the appointment. The parties were instructed to contact the arbitrator within one week, with the process governed by DIAC rules, including fees and necessary disclosures as per Section 12 of the Act.

TUMLARE TRAVELS PRIVATE LIMITED VS MR. ANURAG MAHAJAN & OTHERS [CS(OS)-662/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The applications filed by Anurag Mahajan to set aside the ex-parte decrees from 15.11.2019 and to condone the delay in filing those applications were dismissed. Mahajan was duly served with summons and aware of the proceedings but failed to submit written statements within the statutory timeframe. His explanations for the delay, citing counsel negligence, lacked substantiation, and his overall conduct reflected indifference. Additionally, co-defendants, his wife and father, also failed to contest the suits. Mahajan could not provide a valid reason for his failure to contest effectively or file the applications within the limitation period.

U P STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS LAKHAN & ORS. [MAC.APP.-679/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awards granted by the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal were upheld following a head-on collision involving a UP Roadways bus and an EECO car. The negligence for the accident was solely attributable to the bus driver, with no contributory negligence from the EECO driver. The loss of consortium damages calculation was based on a precedent set in Pranay Sethi, with an interest rate of 8% per annum applied to the compensation amounts.

U P STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS MUKESH & ORS. [MAC.APP.-678/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals filed by the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation regarding compensation awarded by the Claim Tribunal were dismissed. Negligence was attributed solely to the driver of the appellant's bus, who changed lanes abruptly, causing a head-on collision. The argument of contributory negligence by the other driver's actions was rejected. The award of loss of consortium was upheld, with a 20% increase deemed correctly calculated according to established principles. An 8% interest rate on the compensation was considered reasonable. All appeals by the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation were dismissed.

U P STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS RAJ RANI & ORS [MAC.APP.-303/2018]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation was awarded to the legal heirs of Shri Mangat Ram, who died in a road accident. Challenges regarding the quantum of compensation included deductions for personal expenses, the multiplier, salary deductions, and future prospects. The deceased's married children were recognized as dependents eligible for loss of dependency compensation. A multiplier of 9 was applied based on the deceased's age of 57, replacing the tribunal's multiplier of 11. Specific job-related allowances were deducted from the salary, but no future prospects were granted due to the deceased's regular government service and the family's pension entitlement. The total compensation amounted to Rs. 24,11,000 with 9% interest per annum from the claim petition filing date.

U P STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS SAPNA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-677/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals by the UP State Road Transport Corporation against compensation awards from the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal were dismissed. The negligence for the accident was attributed solely to the driver of the UP Roadways Bus. The award for loss of consortium to the claimants was upheld, with a 20% enhancement calculated correctly according to the Supreme Court's ruling in Pranay Sethi. An 8% per annum interest rate granted by the lower court was also maintained.

U.P. STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS GOPAL & ORS. [MAC.APP.-681/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals by the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation regarding compensation for a road accident were dismissed. The driver of the appellant's bus was solely responsible for the accident, with no contributory negligence from the other vehicle. Compensation was awarded, including a 20% increase for loss of consortium based on the Supreme Court ruling in the Pranay Sethi case. The argument regarding the 8% interest rate being excessive was rejected.

UMA SHANKAR MEHTA VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-3766/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The criminal writ petition filed by Uma Shankar Mehta was dismissed, challenging the orders of the Metropolitan Magistrate and the Additional Sessions Judge that denied his application under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure for FIR registration. The decisions of the MM and ASJ were affirmed, as the petitioner had access to evidence related to the alleged incident on 21.08.2021 and could present it in a pending complaint under Section 200 Cr.P.C. The writ petition was deemed to have no merit.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH EXECUTIVE ENGINEER VS ANS CONSTRUCTIONS LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-45/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the arbitral award being set aside for Claim No. 5, which granted Rs. 11,31,239 for idling of resources due to a lack of supporting evidence. The decisions on Claim Nos. 3, 8, and 11 regarding price escalation, compensation for extra cement, and interest were upheld as lawful and justified.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S ANS CONSTRUCTION LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-118/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition by the Union of India under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, challenging the arbitral award in favor of M/s ANS Construction Ltd was partly allowed. The arbitrator's findings on a 554-day delay in project completion were upheld. However, the compensation award for resource idling was set aside due to lack of evidence and patent illegality. Claims for price escalation and reimbursement of excess bank charges were upheld, along with the claim for extra cement consumed based on contractual terms. The award was partially set aside regarding idling of resources while the remaining claims were upheld.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S PARISHUDH MACHINES PVT. LTD. [C.R.P.-368/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitioner was directed to deposit Rs. 1,73,53,686/- within 15 days, with the consequence of attachment and sale of bank accounts, vehicles, and other movable assets if the deposit was not made. Merely providing cheques without actual funds does not eliminate the judgment debtor's liability for interest, which continues until the money is deposited and available for withdrawal by the decree holder.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S RAMJI DAS DHAL CONST. PVT LTD - PUSHPANJALI CONST.PVT.LTD. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-53/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The order of the Sole Arbitrator to release bank guarantees from contractor M/s Ramji Das Dhal Const. Pvt Ltd - Pushpanjali Const. Pvt. Ltd. was upheld. The prerequisites for release, including submission of the final bill, expiration of the defect liability period, and issuance of a "no-demand" certificate, were satisfied. The outstanding amount against the final bill was negative, indicating the Union of India had received an excess. The Arbitrator's order was not deemed illegal or perverse.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S SATISH BUILDERS [O.M.P. (COMM)-151/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The arbitral award favoring M/s Satish Builders was upheld, with findings that the arbitrator presented clear justifications for the decisions on claims. The Union of India could not demonstrate any patent illegality or violation of fundamental policy in the award, leading to the dismissal of its petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

UNION OF INDIA VS UMESH KUMAR & ANR. [MAC.APP.-94/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the Union of India against the compensation award to the injured in a road accident was dismissed. The presence of alcohol smell on the injured's breath did not establish negligence. There was no evidence that the alcohol consumption impaired his ability to control the motorcycle or caused the accident. Consumption of alcohol alone does not automatically imply negligence without additional circumstances.

UNISYS INFOSOLUTIONS PVT LTD VS GURBANI MEDIA PVT LTD [ARB.P.-835/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Notice of Invocation dated 29.07.2016 issued by the petitioner was deemed valid despite objections from the respondent. The time period from 29.07.2016 to 24.05.2017, during which the parties were negotiating a settlement, was excluded when calculating the limitation period under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The claims raised by the petitioner were found to be prima facie not barred by limitation, leading to the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS ASHOK KUMAR JOSHI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-609/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the insurance company was dismissed, affirming an award of Rs. 18,49,631/- plus 8% annual interest to injured respondent Ashok Kumar Joshi. Evidence, including the chargesheet, confirmed the rash and negligent driving of Monu Kumar. The assessment of Joshi's income based on income tax returns was deemed appropriate, despite their late filing. The evaluation of a 32% functional disability reflected the impact of injuries on his work as an advocate. Interest on future income was considered justified due to anticipated cost escalation.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS SHARDA & ORS [MAC.APP.-617/2017]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The claim petition under Section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act is maintainable. Negligence of the driver was established through evidence, including the FIR, site plan, and witness testimony. The estranged wife and unmarried sister of the deceased were recognized as dependents. Compensation amounts for certain non-pecuniary heads were modified according to established guidelines, while the 9% interest rate and costs for the insurance company's delayed deposit were retained.

UNITED INDIA INSURANCE CO LTD VS YASH AGGARWAL AND ORS [MAC.APP.-351/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The lack of a valid driving license for the 17-year-old injured person does not imply contributory negligence without evidence of negligent driving. Compensation was adjusted by reducing the monthly income calculation to minimum wages for a matriculate, increasing the award for loss of future earning capacity, and adding compensation for loss of marriage prospects. Total compensation increased from R.S. 63,45,000 to R.S. 71,20,000, with interest raised to 9% per annum.

UPSRTC VS SMT. ARTI DEVI & ORS. [MAC.APP.-198/2021]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The tribunal's territorial jurisdiction was upheld based on the deceased's wife's residency in Delhi as per her Aadhaar card. However, the use of Delhi's minimum wages for calculating compensation was rejected due to a lack of evidence that the deceased worked there. Compensation was recalculated based on Uttar Pradesh's minimum wages, totaling Rs. 19,00,000 with 9% interest per annum.

UPSRTC VS SUJIT KUMAR @ P. SUJITH & ANR. [CM(M)-1383/2022]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeals filed by UPSRTC against the compensation awarded to the claimants were dismissed. The accident was attributed solely to the rash and negligent driving of the UPSRTC bus driver, with no contributory negligence from the deceased. The calculation of the deceased's monthly salary at ₹38,000 was upheld based on employer testimony and vouchers, despite the absence of formal documentary evidence. The compensation granted by the Tribunal was deemed correct.

UTTAR PRADESH STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS ASHA & ORS. [MAC.APP.-688/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The Tribunal's decision was upheld, rejecting the UP State Road Transport Corporation's arguments regarding contributory negligence, enhancement of loss of consortium, and the compensation interest rate. The negligence of the UP Roadways bus driver was identified as the sole cause of the head-on collision, supported by eyewitness testimony and a police investigation report. A 20% enhancement of loss of consortium was deemed justified due to the passage of over three years since the accident, and an 8% interest rate on the compensation amount of Rs. 36,32,940/- was considered reasonable. The appellant was directed to deposit the full compensation amount along with interest within four weeks for disbursement to the claimants.

UTTAR PRADESH STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION VS SACHIN & ORS. [MAC.APP.-680/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation awards granted by the Tribunal in a road accident case remain upheld. The negligence was solely attributed to the driver of the appellant's bus, with no contributory negligence from the EECO car driver. The Tribunal's awards for loss of consortium and the interest rate were deemed appropriate.

VAIBHAV JAIN VS DIRECTORATA OF ENFORCEMENTRE [BAIL APPLN.-2079/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Ankush Jain and Vaibhav Jain are not entitled to default bail under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, as the Enforcement Directorate filed a complete complaint within the statutory period despite ongoing investigations. The complaint met the necessary elements to establish the offence, making the right to default bail conditional and ceasing upon the filing of the complaint. The petitions for default bail were dismissed, but the petitioners retain the right to seek regular bail on merits.

VARUN KUMAR AND ORS VS LATIKA VATS [CRL.M.C.-2413/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The writ petitions filed by the husband and in-laws to quash criminal proceedings under the Domestic Violence Act were dismissed. The earlier settlement agreement indicated an attempt at reconciliation, which failed, allowing the respondent's legal remedies to remain intact. Disputed facts involved cannot be addressed summarily, and the petitioners may challenge the summoning order and seek discharge. No merit was found in the petitions to quash the proceedings.

VARUN KUMAR AND ORS VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2427/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petitions filed by Varun Kumar and others to quash criminal proceedings were dismissed. Disputed facts in the case require proper examination at an appropriate stage, where petitioners can challenge the summoning order and seek discharge. A settlement agreement from September 2022 indicates an attempt at reconciliation, and failure in that effort does not eliminate the respondent's legal remedies under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act. If petitioner No. 1 has made payments or returned property to the respondent, those issues can be addressed in the ongoing proceedings. The petitions lacked merit and were disposed of accordingly.

VATSAL SAREEN VS CHANDER PRAKASH & ORS (IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-791/2015]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The appeal by the injured victim resulted in an enhancement of compensation from Rs. 36,13,200 to Rs. 67,95,000, with 9% interest per annum. The victim was found to have 18% permanent disability in lower limbs but functionally 75% disabled. Compensation included future loss of income, future prospects, pain and suffering, attendant charges, loss of amenities, and loss of marital prospects.

VEER SINGH & ANR. VS NAVEEN @ BABLU & ORS. [MAC.APP.-212/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The owner of an offending vehicle is not liable to reimburse the insurance company for compensation paid to injured parties, despite the driver's expired license at the time of the accident. The owner exercised due care by verifying the license when entrusting the vehicle, and the driver was not a regular employee but a borrower. The driver's license was renewed shortly after the accident, indicating no impairment or disqualification. Previous decisions established that the non-renewal of a license does not necessarily cause an accident or breach insurance policy terms.

VIGYAPAN LOKE DELHI ADVERTISING C.G.H.S. LTD VS WAZIR HUSSAIN (SINCE DECEASED THR LRS) [C.R.P.-66/2020]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit for recovery of Rs. 21,20,400/- along with interest is barred by limitation, as the cause of action arose in 2000-2001 and the suit was filed in 2014, exceeding the 3-year limitation period. Arguments to extend the limitation based on cheques issued between 2003-2005 and the defendant's balance sheets were rejected, as these did not prove acknowledgment of the debt. The plaintiff's suit has been dismissed as time-barred.

VIJAY KUMAR JAIN & ORS. VS ARUN MEHRA PROPRIETOR OF M/S SAREE GHAR & ANR. [C.R.P.-297/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition by the plaintiffs was dismissed, upholding the order that granted the defendant unconditional leave to defend the suit. Genuine triable issues were identified, including the disbursement of the loan through nine cheques, the limitation period, and the alleged mis-joinder of parties. Despite contradictions in the defendant's defenses, legitimate defenses requiring trial consideration were acknowledged.

VIJAY MAHESHWARI VS SPLENDOR BUILDWELL PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-388/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

There is a valid arbitration agreement between Vijay Maheshwari and Splendor Buildwell Private Limited and Ishayu Builders and Developers Private Limited. Mr. Anant Palli, Senior Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator for the disputes. The respondents initially objected but later agreed to the arbitrator's appointment while reserving the right to raise objections before him. The parties are instructed to contact the arbitrator within one week to present their respective objections.

VIJAY MAHESHWARI VS SPLENDOR BUILDWELL PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-42/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, seeking interim relief to prevent the respondents from encumbering, selling, or creating third-party interests in office spaces was dismissed. The petitioner lacked a prima facie case, as she had requested a refund of the amount paid, which the respondents returned. There was no signed contract for assured returns, and the relief sought was primarily monetary. The petitioner had already initiated arbitration proceedings, so no irreparable loss was found to be likely. The dismissal included a clarification that the observations made do not affect the merits of the case, and the parties may present their arguments in arbitration.

VIJAY SINGH DOGRA VS SERIOUS FRAUD INVESTIGATION OFFICE [CRL.M.A.-23673/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application filed by Vijay Singh Dogra for an interim stay on the Look Out Circular (LOC) and permission to travel abroad was dismissed. The petitioner, a director in eight companies linked to the Sahara Group currently under investigation by the Serious Fraud Investigation Office (SFIO), demonstrated a lack of full cooperation by not providing requested documents. Confidential material reviewed indicated the petitioner did not make complete disclosures. His reasons for travel, related to his children's education, were deemed insufficient to override the necessity of protecting the investigation's integrity. Consequently, the travel restrictions were considered proportionate and necessary.

VIJAY SINGH MALIK VS NARESH KUMAR & ANR (NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD) [MAC.APP.-12/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Vijay Singh Malik's appeal resulted in an increase in compensation for injuries sustained in a road accident on 18.10.2011. The permanent disability in his right lower limb was assessed at 36%, but there was no salary reduction due to his permanent government job. Compensation was revised for pain and suffering, conveyance charges, special diet, and loss of amenities, raising the total from Rs. 10,62,863 to Rs. 12,55,000, with 9% interest from the filing date.

VIKAS KASHYAP VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2072/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Vikas Kashyap, accused under Section 20(B)(II) of the NDPS Act, was granted bail due to prolonged incarceration since his arrest on 11.04.2021, which violated his right to a speedy trial and personal liberty. There was prima facie non-compliance with mandatory provisions of Sections 41 and 42 regarding search and seizure, warranting the bail decision. Non-compliance with Section 52A(2) concerning inventory preparation was noted but deemed a trial matter. Bail conditions included the furnishing of a personal bond and sureties along with standard requirements.

VIKAS RAJ KOTI THAPA VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1410/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Bail was denied to Vikas Raj Koti Thapa, charged under Sections 376/370-A/120-B of IPC and Sections 6/16 of the POCSO Act for allegedly pushing a victim into prostitution. Serious allegations were raised against him, with the victim initially accusing him in a statement under Section 161 Cr.PC, despite later retracting those claims. Given the gravity of the offence, bail was deemed inappropriate.

VINAY KUMAR HUF & ORS. VS AJAY KUMAR HUF & ORS. [CS(OS)-598/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The total period of 120 days for filing a written statement, as specified in Order VIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Chapter VII Rule 4 of the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, is not extendable. The phrase "but not thereafter" indicates a definitive cut-off, making it impermissible to accept written statements submitted after this period. Applications by defendants for condonation of delay in filing their written statements were dismissed.

VINEET TANEJA VS RITU TANEJA [CM(M)-1523/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Counselors appointed to examine a minor child cannot be cross-examined by the father as they assist in understanding the child's psychology and welfare. The father was allowed to cross-examine the mother to support his claims of the child being tutored. The family court's order was partly set aside, and the matter was remanded for further proceedings, with a direction to conclude the trial within six months. No order was made regarding the father's petition for visitation rights for the child's grandmother, leaving the decision to the family court.

VINOD KUMAR AHLUWALIA VS MANISH SHARMA [C.R.P.-182/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The revision petition challenging the dismissal of a suit for possession of a shop property was dismissed. The plaintiff's pleadings were vague regarding the date of alleged dispossession, and his failure to file a police complaint raised doubts about his claims. His own statements indicated he was not in possession since 2016, following reconstruction, demonstrating a lack of valid cause of action. The dismissal of the suit was upheld.

VIPIN KHANNA VS SUJOY VEER SURI & ORS. & ORS. [CS(OS)-412/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff's suit was dismissed for failing to establish a valid cause of action. The claim of a 50% share in the property based on an alleged internal agreement was deemed unsustainable, as the original agreements to sell were in the defendants' names only. The claim of adverse possession was unsupported, lacking evidence of possession being open, hostile, and adverse to the defendants' ownership. The conveyance deed executed in favor of the defendants in 1998 remained valid, and the suit was deemed both time-barred and lacking cause of action.

VIPIN KUMAR SALUJA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-454/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The punishment imposed on the petitioner for prison misconduct was upheld, despite some procedural deficiencies under the prison rules. The petitioner had an adequate opportunity to explain his actions, and CCTV evidence supported the misconduct. The argument of double jeopardy was rejected, as denying furlough due to misconduct is not considered punishment. The punishment is deemed valid, though future furlough applications should be considered without reference to this punishment.

VIPIN KUMAR VS K P RAJEEV & ANR. [MAC.APP.-631/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Compensation for the appellant's medical expenses was upheld, with enhancements for pain and suffering raised from R.S. 25,000 to R.S. 1,00,000 and loss of amenities from R.S. 25,000 to R.S. 50,000. No changes were made to the decision on attendant charges. The total compensation increased from R.S. 7,74,624 to R.S. 8,74,624, with an interest of 8% per annum.

VIRTUAL WIRE TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD VS COUNCIL OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH [O.M.P. (COMM)-104/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The dismissal of the petitioner's application under Section 16 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, challenging the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal is not considered an interim award. A petition under Section 34 contesting this dismissal is not maintainable. Challenges to the dismissal of a Section 16 application must be made alongside the final award under Section 34. The findings regarding the valid notice of invocation of arbitration and the timeliness of the proceedings were deemed reasonable without any patent illegality or perversity, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

VISHAL AND COMPANY VS THE DEFENCE SECRETARY & ANR [CS(OS)-561/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The plaintiff conservancy services provider is entitled to recover Rs. 90,95,067 from the Defence Ministry and Station Commander, along with interest at 7% per annum from July 2009 until payment. The defendants had underpaid the plaintiff by this amount, but the claim for Rs. 50,00,000 in damages for mental pain, agony, and loss of new contracts was rejected due to lack of evidence.

VIVEK GUPTA VS THE STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-62/2012]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Shri Braham Vira Gupta validly executed his last will and testament on 20.4.1998, with no evidence of undue influence or coercion. Probate was granted to Vivek Gupta, the named executor.

VRENTIN TECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS UDIT GOGOI [ARB.P.-223/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Objections against the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator were found to be untenable. The non-stamping or inadequate stamping of the Consultancy Agreement dated 25.11.2021 does not render the arbitration clause ineffective. The non-solicitation clause in the Agreement is reasonable and does not violate Section 27 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, as it applies only during the contract's subsistence. The question of whether the Consultancy Agreement was orally terminated upon the signing of a new agreement is a matter for the arbitrator to adjudicate. A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes between the parties.

YASHNA EXPORTS PVT. LTD.& ORS. VS RAISINA BHATIA [CS(OS)-1459/1995]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The application by Om Prakash Arora to set aside the Compromise Decree dated 20.09.2002 was dismissed. The applicant's rights in the property were separate from the 31.25% share acquired by the plaintiffs through the decree. Claims of fraudulent acquisition of the decree and the applicability of Section 44 of the Transfer of Property Act were rejected, as the plaintiffs were not members of the undivided family. The applicant, being a stranger to the family, could not claim protection under Section 44, and the Compromise Decree was recognized as a bona fide settlement.

YUM! RESTAURANTS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS A.N. TRADERS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-376/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The defendants, A.N. Traders Private Limited and others, disclosed triable issues in response to a summary suit filed by Yum! Restaurants India Private Limited for recovery of Rs. 24,95,01,346 with interest. The suit amount is not directly linked to the MoU dated 22.07.2016, and subsequent adjustments were noted, providing the defendants valid grounds for their defense. The defendants are permitted to file a written statement along with necessary documents.

YUM! RESTAURANTS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS A.N. TRADERS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-376/2019]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The review petition by the plaintiff was dismissed due to discrepancies between the claimed amount in the suit and the admitted amount in the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The suit included interest accrued after default, which was not covered by the MoU. The term "principal amount" in the previous judgment accurately referred to the total claimed, including both the MoU amount and accrued interest. The case cited by the defendants was found not to be directly relevant, and no material errors were identified in the prior decision.

ZAMIL STEEL BUILDINGS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS CINDA ENGINEERING & CONSTRUCTION PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-628/2024]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

The petition under Section 11(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator is maintainable. The claims were not barred by limitation, as the notice of invocation of arbitration was filed within the 3-year limitation period, and the petition was submitted on time. A retired judge, Justice Rajiv Sahai Endlaw, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes.

ZENG SHANGHAI VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE [CRL.M.C.-6505/2023]

Judges: Justice Neena Bansal Krishna

Zeng Shanghai is permitted to submit a new application to the trial court for permission to travel to China to perform his father's last rites following his death on June 3, 2024. The father's demise is confirmed by communication from the Embassy of China. The trial court is instructed to make a decision on this application within 7 days, and previous orders related to the father's illness will not impact this request.

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS TDI INTERNATIONAL INDIA PVT LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-573/2020]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Two arbitral awards, issued by a sole arbitrator appointed unilaterally by Airports Authority of India (AAI), were deemed invalid due to the arbitrator's ineligibility under Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. AAI's challenge to the awards based on this ground was upheld, as participation in the proceedings without objection did not constitute an express written waiver of the ineligibility. The awards were set aside, allowing for the initiation of fresh arbitration proceedings.

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS VIRENDER KHANNA AND ASSOCIATES [OMC-327/2021]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award was set aside entirely due to the unsustainable decision on key legal issues. AAI could not unilaterally modify the contractual terms with VKA, and the fee calculation was mandated to be based on the "awarded cost" or "actual cost" of the project according to the existing agreement, rather than the "estimated cost" claimed by AAI. Previous judgments had consistently rejected AAI's attempts to alter contract terms unilaterally. The findings of the arbitrator were deemed insufficient and contradictory to established precedents. The parties were permitted to initiate fresh arbitration proceedings, and specific issues, such as the amount recoverable by AAI for alleged deficiencies in services, were left for future resolution.

ARUN KHANNA VS RENU SHARMA [RFA-920/2019]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The appeal was allowed, and the Trial Court's judgment rejecting the appellant's plaint was set aside. The interpretation of a prior judgment by the Metropolitan Magistrate in a Section 138 Negotiable Instruments Act case was clarified; it confirmed that the appellant rebutted the presumption regarding the cheque's issuance for a legally enforceable debt. It was stated that the Trial Court could not make findings on the merits at the Order VII Rule 11 stage. The case was restored for fresh consideration according to the applicable principles.

IOL TELECOM PVT. LTD. VS HT MEDIA LTD. & ORS. [O.M.P. (COMM)-137/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The petitioners demonstrated a strong prima facie case that Mr. Siddhartha Srivastava lacked authority to sign the Debenture Subscription Agreement, as required board resolutions were not provided, and the respondent did not adequately establish Srivastava's authority. A stay on enforcement of the arbitral award was granted, contingent upon the petitioners depositing 50% of the principal amount or providing a bank guarantee.

BALASORE ALLOYS LIMITED VS STATE TRADE CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-468/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The seat of arbitration was designated as Delhi in the arbitration agreement, establishing exclusive supervisory jurisdiction over the proceedings. A preliminary objection to territorial jurisdiction was rejected, as the Balasore Court in Odisha lacked jurisdiction to entertain the earlier petition under Section 9 of the Act, making Section 42 inapplicable. The Registrar of the Indian Council of Arbitration was directed to provide the arbitral record to the petitioner for the Section 34 petition.

BENARA SOLAR PRIVATE LIMITED VS SOLAR ENERGY CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-165/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The majority decision of a three-member arbitral tribunal declined the petitioner's claim for a balance incentive amount related to a rooftop solar panel installation contract. The tribunal noted that while delays were not the petitioner's fault, the contract explicitly stated that no incentive would be granted if the project was not completed within six months. Furthermore, the tribunal determined that the petitioner's acceptance of a lower incentive amount was not made under duress or coercion. There was no identified perversity or arbitrariness in the tribunal's interpretation of the contract or its findings regarding the validity of the undertaking.

BHARAT BROADBAND NETWORK LTD. VS PARAMOUNT COMMUNICATIONS LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-355/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An arbitral award was upheld, which partially allowed claims of Paramount Communications Ltd. against Bharat Broadband Network Ltd. The disputes regarding the classification of goods for excise duty were deemed arbitrable as they related to a commercial dispute. Claims for the difference in excise duty, based on a change in classification, were classified as a "change in taxes" under the contract, entitling the respondent to additional amounts. Evidence, including a certificate from the excise department, confirmed the respondent had paid the higher excise duty rate and was entitled to recover it from the petitioner.

BHAVIK KOLADIYA VS ASHNEER GROVER & ANR. [CS(COMM)-28/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The plaintiff retains ownership of 1,611 equity shares as the consideration under the Agreement dated 03.12.2018 was not paid by the defendant no. 1. The Agreement stipulates that the transfer of the shares was contingent upon payment. An interim injunction has been granted, preventing the defendant no. 1 from transferring or creating third-party rights in the shares until the resolution of the suit.

BIHAR STATE BACKWARD CLASSES FINANCE AND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION VS NATIONAL BACKWARD CLASSES FINANCE AND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION & ANR. [O.M.P.-3/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An arbitral award passed by a unilaterally appointed arbitrator was set aside as a nullity in law. The consent of the Bihar State Backward Classes Finance and Development Corporation to a settlement proposal could not be inferred from a board resolution that only granted in-principle approval, pending further approval from the state government. The award was found to be vitiated by patent illegality, as the petitioner was denied a hearing on merits due to a partial reading of the resolution. Fresh arbitration proceedings may be initiated by the respondent.

CHHATTISGARH STATE ELECTRICITY VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5789/2005]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The final allocation order issued by the Union of India on 03.11.2004, regarding the share of successor states Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh in power produced by Central Government undertakings, was upheld. Relevant factors such as power consumption ratio and availability of State sector power were considered in the allocation process. The methodology used was deemed appropriate and not arbitrary. The writ petition by the Chhattisgarh State Electricity Board was dismissed, while the petition from the Madhya Pradesh State Electricity Board was deemed unnecessary.

DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION VS M/S SATINDER MAHAJAN [O.M.P. (COMM)-337/2021]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Jurisdiction to entertain the petition challenging the arbitral award made by the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council in Pathankot was lacking due to the absence of an exclusive jurisdiction clause for the Delhi courts. The seat of the arbitration was established in Pathankot, leading to the rejection of the petition and a direction for the petitioner to approach the appropriate jurisdictional court to challenge the award.

DHEERAJ RASTOGI VS DNATA INTERNATIONAL PVT LTD. [O.M.P.-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award that dismissed the challenges to the termination of the petitioner's employment as Chief Financial Officer was upheld. The termination was deemed valid under the employment contract due to the petitioner's failure to disclose a financial fraud and take corrective action, constituting a breach of his duties. The arbitrator's findings and interpretation of the contract were not deemed perverse, and the claim for damages was rejected as lacking basis in the pleadings.

EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION VS M/S UTTAR PRADESH RAJKIYA NIRMAN NIGAM LTD., [O.M.P. (COMM)-272/2017]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An arbitral award confirmed that the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) must reimburse the Uttar Pradesh Rajkiya Nirman Nigam Ltd. (UPRNN) for labor cess paid under the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996. Although the contract did not explicitly state reimbursement for labor cess, a mutual understanding existed that UPRNN would be reimbursed if the cess was excluded from the cost estimates. Correspondence between the parties supported the arbitrator's interpretation of the contract as plausible, leading to no valid grounds for challenging the arbitral award.

FLFL TRAVEL RETAIL LUCKNOW PRIVATE LIMITED VS AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-485/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An arbitral award was set aside due to violations of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitrator did not disclose his appointment by the respondent in another arbitration, raising doubts about his independence and impartiality. Additionally, the arbitrator received documents from the respondent after reserving the order and considered them without allowing the petitioner to respond. The award was vacated, and the parties were permitted to pursue available legal remedies, with no costs ordered.

HARYANA VIDYUT PRASARAN NIGAM LTD VS NATIONAL CONTRACTING COMPANY LIMITED SAUDI ARABIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-228/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Haryana Vidyut Prasaran Nigam Ltd. is entitled to the benefits of the Supreme Court's orders in Suo Moto Writ Petition (Civil) 3/2020, which exclude periods for computing both the prescribed limitation and delay condonation limits. The previous reliance on Sagufa Ahmed v. Upper Assam Plywood Products (P) Ltd. was distinguished, as the subsequent orders offered expanded protection. The registry is to examine the validity of the petitioner's original filing from 01.06.2021, ensuring defects were cured within the excluded period specified by the Supreme Court's orders.

INDIA POWER CORPORATION LIMITED AND ANR. VS MINISTRY OF POWER GOVERNMENT OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-6450/2019]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The Central Government qualifies as the "appropriate government" under Section 2(5)(a)(ii) of the Electricity Act, 2003 for a petitioner's application to lay an overhead transmission line from the inter-State transmission system at Maithon to a distribution sub-station at Debipur. The interpretation of "in relation to" is applied broadly, confirming that the proposed line, although located entirely within West Bengal, connects to the inter-State transmission network and involves generation, transmission, trading, or supply of electricity. The rejection of the petitioner's application by the Central Electricity Authority is set aside for prompt reconsideration.

INDIAN HIGHWAYS MANAGEMENT COMPANY LTD. VS PRAKASH ASPHALTINGS AND TOLL HIGHWAYS (INDIA) PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-392/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The award from the Madhya Pradesh Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council was set aside regarding Indian Highways Management Company Ltd. Prakash Asphaltings and Toll Highways (India) Pvt Ltd was ruled not to be a 'supplier' under Section 2(n)(iii) of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, as it did not engage in selling goods produced by micro or small enterprises. Therefore, the Facilitation Council lacked jurisdiction over the dispute. The broader question of whether Section 2(n)(iii) could extend jurisdiction to non-micro and small enterprises was not addressed.

RUGBY RENERGY PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHRI NARENDRA BANSAL [OMC-354/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The agreements for the sale of windmills between Rugby Renergy Pvt Ltd and Intex Technologies (India) Ltd and Narendra Bansal were deemed void due to uncertain consideration, making them unenforceable. Challenges to the arbitrator's decision on natural justice and merits were rejected, as the arbitrator's reasoning was seen as plausible and free from illegality. Appeals against interim orders and the final award related to the vendors' counter claims were also dismissed, following the conclusion that the agreements were void.

IRCON INTERNATIONAL LIMITED VS TANTIA CONSTRUCTION LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-277/2021]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The petition by IRCON International Limited for rectification of alleged computational errors in an arbitral award was dismissed. The power under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 does not allow for modification of an arbitral award; it only permits setting aside the award or parts of it. The arguments regarding Claim No. 6 (performance bank guarantee) and Claim No. 12 (unbilled quantity of materials) were based on unchallenged reasoning related to force majeure and wrongful termination. The petition focused on quantum rather than liability, which is not applicable under Section 34. No justification for interference with the award was found.

JKG INFRATECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS LARSEN AND TOUBRO LIMITED [ARB. A. (COMM.)-8/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

JKG Infratech Private Limited was not entitled to invoke arbitration under Section 18 of the MSME Act, 2006, as it registered under the Act only after the completion of the relevant contracts in 2014. Benefits of the MSME Act cannot be claimed by a party not registered at the time the contract was entered into, consistent with established interpretations.

KASHMIR HARVARD EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE VS PRESIDENT AND FELLOWS OF HARVARD COLLEGE [O.M.P. (COMM)-290/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The petition from the Kashmir Harvard Educational Institute challenging an arbitral award for the transfer of the domain name <kashmirharvard.edu.in> to the President and Fellows of Harvard College was dismissed. It was established that the petitioner received proper notice of the arbitral proceedings. Arguments concerning breaches of natural justice and public policy were rejected as they contradicted the record and attempted to mislead, resulting in costs of ₹50,000 imposed on the petitioner.

KVR AQUA CLARE PVT. LTD. VS INDIAN RAILWAY CATERING AND TOURISM CORPORATION LIMITED (IRCTC) [O.M.P. (COMM)-264/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was dismissed, with the arbitral award being upheld. The justification for the manufacturing price calculation and the claim for electricity charges was deemed plausible based on the contract and evidence presented. The argument regarding late submission of additional documents was rejected, and it was clarified that notice and requisition of the arbitral record are not mandatory in every case, allowing for dismissal of the petition if no grounds for interference are established.

LAVA INTERNATIONAL LIMITED VS MINTELLECTUALS LLP [ARB. A. (COMM.)-48/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral tribunal directed the appellant to provide security of Rs. 62.154 crores for the 12th to 20th quarters, either through a robust asset or a bank guarantee. The tribunal's orders were based on its discretionary powers under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, and considered the appellant's changed financial status along with the need to secure the respondent's potential award, with sufficient reasoning.

M/S ADITYA THERMOPACK PVT. LTD. VS THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. [ARB.P.-1362/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The insurance claims between the parties were not finally settled, despite the discharge vouchers signed by the petitioner. An express protest and statement from the petitioner indicated a refusal to accept the final settlement amount. There remained a vestige of doubt regarding the arbitrability of the claims, leading to a referral to arbitration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre with a sole arbitrator. All rights and contentions of the parties, including the arbitrability of the claims, were left open for adjudication before the appointed arbitrator.

M/S BKB TRANSPORT PRIVATE LIMITED VS NTPC LTD [ARB.P.-1242/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Jurisdiction exists to entertain petitions under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, despite inconsistency between the arbitration clause in the final contract agreements and the Special Conditions of Contract (SCC). The precedence of the contract agreements over the SCC and General Conditions of Contract (GCC) establishes Delhi as the seat of arbitration, which grants exclusive supervisory jurisdiction to the courts there. The reference to the Expert Settlement Council (ESC) is optional, and the petitioner's decision not to exercise this option negates a compulsory referral to the ESC. Parties are directed to attempt mutual settlement for six weeks before proceeding to arbitration. This concerns two petitions from M/s BKB Transport Pvt. Ltd. against NTPC Ltd. for arbitrator appointment under similar contract agreements.

M/S D.D. MOTORS VS BSES RAJDHANI POWER LTD. [W.P.(C)-20014/2004]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The case involved an allegation of violation of the tariff schedule, requiring compliance with specific procedural safeguards under the Delhi Electricity Regulatory Commission (Performance Standards - Metering & Billing) Regulations, 2002. The respondent utility did not issue a show cause notice or provide a personal hearing to the petitioner. The matter is remanded for reconsideration, with instructions to allow the petitioner a personal hearing. Interim protection from coercive action is granted until the respondent's decision is made, and a further period is allowed for the petitioner to approach the Consumer Grievance Redressal Forum if needed.

M/S FORTUNA SKILL MANAGEMENT PVT. LTD. VS M/S. JAINA MARKETING AND ASSOCIATES [O.M.P. (COMM)-511/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The Arbitral Tribunal's award in favor of Jaina Marketing and Associates, which included an outstanding amount of Rs. 3,36,01,783/-, was upheld. The Tribunal accepted the respondent's claim based on declaration letters from Fortuna Skill Management Pvt. Ltd.'s employees and the respondent's ledger entries. An application by Fortuna to include additional delivery challans was rejected as belated and dilatory. The Tribunal's conclusions were deemed to be based on a proper assessment of the evidence, not warranting interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

M/S INDRA SINGH AND SONS. PVT. LTD. VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL [W.P.(C)-11736/2019]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The New Delhi Municipal Council's demand for property tax was deemed invalid due to two unlawful assessment orders from 2016 and 2019. The 2016 order utilized the Unit Area Method for calculating rateable value, which had been previously struck down as ultra vires. The 2019 order continued to apply this method despite invalidating judgments. Both orders lacked legal standing, prompting a restriction on the NDMC from using them while allowing for a fresh reassessment in accordance with legal standards.

M/S. DHANLAXMI SALES CORPORATION VS BOSTON SCIENTIFIC INDIA PVT LTD [ARB.P.-533/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Clause 7.6 of the Dealership Agreement is considered a valid arbitration agreement based on a prima facie examination. Correspondence between the parties indicates their intention to resolve disputes through arbitration. Disputes are referred to arbitration, with the final determination on their existence and arbitrability left to the arbitral tribunal.

M/S KTC INDIA PVT. LTD. VS RANDHIR BRAR & ORS. [ARB.P.-286/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The proposed arbitration between the petitioner and 13 respondents does not qualify as an "association or a body of individuals" under Section 2(1)(f)(iii) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as the respondents are independent contracting parties to the Shareholders Agreement. However, one respondent being a foreign national qualifies the arbitration as "international commercial arbitration" under Section 2(1)(f)(i). Therefore, the jurisdiction to appoint the arbitrator lies with the Chief Justice of India or his nominee, not the High Court. The petition under Section 11 was dismissed, allowing the petitioner to seek the appropriate remedy.

M/S LA LAGOS SANTE HOSPITALITY PVT LTD VS M/S SURIDHI COMMERCIAL INFRA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-13/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The Sole Arbitrator's order requiring M/s La Lagos Sante Hospitality Pvt Ltd to remove two unauthorized signages from the mall was upheld, as the signages violated the Lease Deed and Maintenance and Services Agreement. A prima facie case was established for their removal to facilitate mall renovations. The order on maintenance charges was modified, mandating a payment of Rs. 1,90,000 per month and requiring the deposit of an additional Rs. 1,18,000 per month with the Arbitrator until the dispute is resolved.

M/S MAAN BUILDERS PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16377/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The order debarred M/s Maan Builders Pvt. Ltd. and its allied firms from dealing with Indian Railways for two years. The debarment lacked sufficient reasoning, considered excessively harsh, and violated principles of natural justice. The Union of India must provide written communication of any decision to continue the debarment, allowing a two-week period for the petitioner to seek legal recourse before implementation.

M/S MAKKER CONSTRUCTION VS DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD [ARB.P.-1263/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

M/s Makker Construction's petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was allowed, leading to a referral of disputes under their Agreement to arbitration. The claims were deemed arbitrable despite arguments regarding a prior undertaking and contractual clauses. Hon'ble Ms. Justice Asha Menon was appointed as the arbitrator, and all rights and contentions of the parties regarding claim maintainability and merits remain open for determination.

M/S. FIBERFILL ENGINEERS THROUGH ITS PARTNER MR. RISHABH KISHORE VS M/S. INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED THROUGH DY. GENERAL MANAGER (ENGG.) [O.M.P. (COMM)-241/2021]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An arbitral award claiming that the petitioner's claims were settled through accord and satisfaction was set aside due to insufficient evidence from the respondent regarding a full and final settlement. The respondent could not prove that the petitioner signed any documents indicating acceptance of a final settlement after full payment and maintained inconsistent positions throughout the proceedings. Additionally, the evidence concerning deductions from the petitioner's bills was incomplete and improperly presented. The arbitral award was invalidated, allowing the parties to initiate new proceedings as per the law.

MAHANAGAR TELEPHONE NIGAM LTD VS M/S MAFATLAL INDUSTRIES LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-34/2017]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

MTNL's challenge to the arbitral award was partially successful, with the award for storage charges and moth-proofing costs set aside due to lack of evidentiary support. Mafatlal was not required to find buyers for the customized cloth since it was made according to MTNL's specifications. The award did not involve specific performance as there was no obligation for MTNL to accept the remaining cloth. Other challenges by both MTNL and Mafatlal, along with Sandhya's challenges to the award, were rejected. The parties were instructed to re-compute the dues based on the modified award.

MALT & LEAF HOSPITALITY PVT. LTD VS AGGARWAL HOTELS PVT. LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-484/2018]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award stated that the lease deed covered only 1,000 sq.m. of built-up area and not the 4,600 sq.m. green area separately licensed by DDA. The interpretation of the lease deed was deemed reasonable, and the challenge to the award was dismissed.

MANMEET YADAV VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5704/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

DDA cannot require the structural safety certificate, issued by an empaneled structural engineer, to be verified by MCD. MCD accepts certifications from licensed professionals and can take action if any certification is incorrectly issued. DDA must process the petitioner's application for amalgamation of the shops within 8 weeks without requiring further verification by MCD, addressing delays caused by the dispute between the two authorities over certification procedures.

MERCATOR LTD. VS DREDGING CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD. [O.M.P.(EFA)(COMM.)-2/2019]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Mercator Ltd. successfully enforced three arbitral awards against Dredging Corporation of India Ltd. The objections raised by the judgment debtor were dismissed. The objection regarding the arbitral tribunal's composition was deemed an afterthought, as it had not been addressed previously. Additionally, the claim that the arbitration violated the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958, was rejected; a breach of this statute does not equate to a violation of India's fundamental policy. The judgment debtor must deposit Rs. 8 crores within four weeks, with further enforcement proceedings scheduled for 12.08.2024.

MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS VS M/S A K SHIVHARE INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-202/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The petition by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways challenging an arbitral award in favor of M/s A K Shivhare Infrastructure Pvt Ltd was dismissed. The pre-arbitration conciliation procedure under the contract was deemed directory, allowing for arbitration. The interpretation of the contract amount as exclusive of Goods and Services Tax (GST) was upheld, supported by analysis of tender documents, amended Schedule of Rates, and a contemporaneous Work Order. No grounds for interference with the arbitral tribunal's decision were identified.

MR. S. MADEGOWDA VS SHRI RAM DAS SANDHE & ORS. [O.M.P.-1/2021]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An Arbitral Award that nullified the election of the board of directors of the National Federation of Fisheries Co-operative Limited, conducted on 25.02.2021, was set aside due to the Arbitrator's failure to hear the petitioner and other elected candidates, violating principles of natural justice. The Arbitrator denied the counsel of the elected candidates the opportunity to appear, and the relief to set aside the election was not specifically requested in the initial complaint. The Arbitral Award was deemed unsustainable, allowing for any party to initiate fresh arbitration according to the law.

MR. SAHIL CHOPRA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [O.M.P. (COMM)-150/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The award of the Sole Arbitrator was upheld, with findings that the petitioner did not validly surrender the advertisement site on 01.12.2011 and continued its use through M/s Magnum after the agreement's expiry. The respondent's counter-claims were deemed within limitation, as the petitioner's fraud was discovered in 2015. The interpretation of contractual clauses regarding the security deposit and evidence concerning the relation with M/s Magnum were deemed reasonable. The petition was dismissed, but substantial relief was provided to the petitioner by limiting the award to the agreement period, granting a remission for solar energy usage, and reducing the interest rate.

MURARI LAL AGARWAL VS KMC CONSTRUCTION LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-1416/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

There is no binding arbitration agreement between the petitioner and KMC Construction Ltd. The agreement dated 31.10.2013 did not include an express reference to the arbitration clause from the earlier agreement dated 05.10.2013 with ETA Star Infrastructure Ltd. The absence of such reference, along with the indication of Delhi courts' jurisdiction in the later agreement, led to the dismissal of the petition, allowing the petitioner to pursue alternative remedies.

MY PREFERRED TRANSFORMATION AND HOSPITALITY PVT. LTD. VS PANCHDEEP CONSTUCTION LIMITED [ARB.P.-847/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The designation of New Delhi as the seat of arbitration in the agreement grants exclusive jurisdiction to the Delhi High Court over all arbitration-related matters, including the appointment of the arbitrator under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The exclusive jurisdiction clause favoring Kolkata courts was rejected as subordinate to the seat clause. A former judge of the Delhi High Court was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes between the parties.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS MS IRB AHMEDABAD VADODRA SUPER EXPRESS TOLLWAYS PVT. LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-455/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral tribunal's rejection of the National Highway Authority of India's application to implead the State of Gujarat is not an "award" challengeable under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. Such a decision does not resolve a substantive dispute and lacks the attributes of an "award," rendering the petition under Section 34 not maintainable.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS MS IJM GAYATRI JV [O.M.P. (COMM)-235/2021]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The Arbitral Tribunal awarded IJM Gayatri JV R.S. 29,81,250 for the petitioner's (NHAI) share of its remuneration. This decision was based on the correct application of the Fourth Schedule interpretation at the time, despite later Supreme Court changes. NHAI should have utilized the statutory remedy under Section 39(2) of the Arbitration Act to contest the Tribunal's fee calculation instead of acting unilaterally. No interference with the award was warranted due to the conclusive nature of the arbitral proceedings.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS T. SURYANARAYANA REDDY [O.M.P. (COMM)-399/2020]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award in favor of toll collector T. Suryanarayana Reddy against the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) is upheld. Demonetization on November 8, 2016 is recognized as a "change in law," exempting the respondent from payment obligations during the affected period. The claim for a refund of the penalty imposed by NHAI is deemed arbitrable, focusing on restitution of wrongly appropriated amounts rather than a dispute over the penalty clause. The claim for the refund of the security deposit is appropriately presented, and the award aligns with the claims made. NHAI's challenge under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, is dismissed.

NATIONAL SKILL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION VS BEST FIRST STEP EDUCATION PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-608/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

A petition for extension of the mandate of the arbitral tribunal is maintainable if filed after the mandate's expiration but before the award is delivered. Conflicting judgments indicate that petitions filed before the award can be allowed, while those filed after the award and when setting aside proceedings have begun are not maintainable. In this case, the petition was filed before the award was delivered, leading to an extension of the arbitrator's mandate until the award's publication.

NATUREX OILS PVT. LTD. & ORS VS TYAGI PIPE CRAFT PVT.LTD. [O.M.P.-16/2018]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Naturex Oils Pvt. Ltd. and others' petition against an arbitral award was dismissed. The Sole Arbitrator found Naturex Oils Pvt. Ltd. liable to pay ₹6.53 crore related to the recovery of mortgaged property, along with ₹1.62 crore for unpaid annual considerations under the Memorandum of Settlement. The analysis of contractual terms and evidence showed no irrationality or perversity, making the challenge to the award unmerited.

NEW SOBTI MOTOR TRAINNING SCHOOL VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-1065/2018]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The license to operate a motor driving training school is personal to the licensee and cannot be inherited. The governing rules do not allow for the renewal of a license in favor of an heir. A writ petition was dismissed, but the petitioner may apply for a fresh license based on revised policy guidelines. The license's personal nature is linked to the licensee's attributes, emphasizing its importance for road safety and public order, which prevents inheritance.

PACIFIC FOODS VS MAROON HOSPITALITY [ARB.P.-1382/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

A valid arbitration agreement was indicated between Pacific Foods and Krest Enterprises and Maroon Hospitality based on the terms of their online platform transactions. Although the respondents disputed the existence of the agreement, the circumstances suggested its presence. The disputes were referred to arbitration at the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, allowing the arbitral tribunal to determine the existence and validity of the agreement while keeping all parties' rights and contentions open for consideration.

PRAVEEN KUMAR KAPOOR VS RAJ KUMAR JAIN AND ANR [ARB.P.-1245/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The dispute resolution clause in the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) constitutes a valid arbitration agreement, offering three alternative modes of resolution (mutual settlement, mediation, and arbitration) without requiring further consent. Contentions regarding limitation and novation will be determined by the arbitrator. Disputes between the parties are referred to arbitration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

PROTO DEVELOPERS AND TECHNOLOGIES LTD VS M/S ANTRIKSH REALTECH PVT LTD & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-98/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award was upheld, rejecting the claims of Proto Developers and Technologies Ltd. while partly allowing two counterclaims from Antriksh Realtech Pvt Ltd. The arbitrator's interpretation of the Collaboration Agreement, particularly regarding the allocation of responsibilities and expenses for obtaining various permissions, was deemed reasonable. The distinction made between dues payable by the petitioner and respondent No. 2 versus the joint liabilities in the agreement was acknowledged. The analysis of evidence and findings on the parties' claims and counterclaims were considered plausible, not warranting interference under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

RAM CHANDER AGGARWAL VS RAM KISHAN AGGARWAL & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-457/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The appointment of the arbitrator was unilateral and violated the arbitration clause in the partnership deed, which required mutual agreement. Arbitral proceedings led by a unilaterally appointed arbitrator are deemed void. Consequently, the arbitral award was set aside, and a new arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes between the parties.

RAMKY INFRASTRUCTURE LTD TK ENGINEERING CONSORTIUM PVT LTD JOINT VENTURE VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD [ARB. A. (COMM.)-17/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The appeal by Ramky Infrastructure Ltd. TK Engineering Consortium Pvt. Ltd. against the Arbitral Tribunal's order to vacate the stay on bank guarantees invoked by the National Highways and Infrastructure Development Corporation Ltd. was dismissed. The appellant did not demonstrate a clear case of irretrievable injury or special equities justifying an injunction against the guarantees' invocation. Arguments centered on unresolved contractual disputes were insufficient for such a claim. The invocation letters were valid, citing the appellant's defaults in obligations, and were aligned with the bank guarantee agreements. The discretion exercised by the Arbitral Tribunal was deemed appropriate and not arbitrary or perverse.

RITES LTD VS AHUWALIA CONTRACT (INDIA) LTD. & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-56/2019]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitrator's award of interest on the respondent's claim for outstanding bills was set aside due to a violation of contractual clauses that prohibited interest awards. The relevant contractual clauses clearly disallowed the granting of interest, which the arbitrator did not take into account. However, the award of post-award interest remained intact.

RK WIND LIMITED VS JEENA AND CO [O.M.P. (COMM)-515/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award favored Jeena and Co., concluding that RK Wind Limited's failure to make payments to suppliers caused delays in shipment. Efforts were made by Jeena and Co. to arrange for a vessel despite this delay. RK Wind Limited was not entitled to claim liquidated damages and was ordered to pay the unpaid invoices, interest, and costs to Jeena and Co.

STATE BANK OF INDIA VS M/S ASHA ENTERPRISES PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-466/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The pecuniary jurisdiction to entertain the petitions lies with the District Court, as each claim is less than Rs. 2 crores, according to the Delhi High Court Act, 1966 and the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. The value of claims and counter-claims adjudicated by the arbitrator is the relevant metric for determining jurisdiction, not the total value of the award. The appointment of the arbitrator by the High Court does not grant perpetual jurisdiction for future petitions. The petitions were directed to be returned for presentation before the appropriate court.

SUDHANSHU SHEKHAR VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4108/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

JNU's enforcement of a 30-year age limit for research students in student union elections aligns with the recommendations of the Lyngdoh Committee. Arguments for relaxing the age limit due to COVID-19-related election gaps and the precedent from another university were rejected, with JNU's decision deemed reasonable, not requiring intervention.

SWASTIK PIPE LIMITED VS PSR AQUA AND ENGINEERS PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-299/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitration clause in the invoices issued by the petitioner to the respondent constitutes a binding arbitration agreement under Section 7 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Previous judgments involving the same petitioner support the binding nature of similar arbitration clauses, even in the absence of the respondent's signature. Distinguishing other cited judgments based on differing facts, it was concluded that a prima facie view on the existence of the arbitration agreement is appropriate at this stage, with final determination reserved for the arbitral tribunal. Consequently, the disputes between the parties were referred to arbitration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

THOMAS AND COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED VS THAPAR BUILDERS PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-106/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The decision of the sole arbitrator to dismiss the counter-claims by Thomas and Company Private Limited against Thapar Builders Pvt Ltd was upheld due to limitations. The amounts owed were established to be due on or before 01.02.2017, making the counter-claims filed on 19.10.2022 exceed the 3-year limitation period. Previous findings from the NCLT also indicated similar claims were barred by limitation. No grounds for interference with the arbitrator's decision were identified.

TRIUPATI NARASHIMA MURARI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9420/2018]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The writ petition to cancel the registration and recognition of the All India Majlis-e-Ittehadul Musalimeen (AIMIM) was dismissed. AIMIM met the statutory requirements under Section 29A of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 by amending its constitution to include principles of secularism, socialism, and democracy. The Election Commission of India can only deregister a political party in cases of fraud or constitutional non-compliance with Section 29A(5). Arguments regarding "corrupt practices" in elections were deemed irrelevant to the registration issue.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH VS M/S SHIVALIK FASTENERS PVT. LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-260/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The Arbitral Tribunal's decision that the Union of India could not reduce the ordered quantity in the Purchase Order without reasonable notice was upheld, as it violated the "Quantity Option Clause." The Union's actions of reducing the quantity and retrospectively lowering the rate were deemed inconsistent with the contract terms. However, the award of pre-award interest to the respondent was set aside due to non-compliance with the applicable Standard Terms and Conditions. The challenge to the remainder of the Arbitral Tribunal's award was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA VS COMMISSIONER OF NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION [W.P.(C)-9405/2017]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The Union of India sought directions for the Municipal Corporation of Delhi to pay maintenance charges for Road Under Bridges. The relief was not granted due to considerable delay and the need for detailed adjudication of disputed factual questions, which is not suitable for writ jurisdiction. Responsibility for RUB maintenance was unclear, and significant disputes existed regarding the claims by the Union of India and payments made by the Municipal Corporation. The parties may pursue appropriate legal remedies to address the issue, with their rights and contentions remaining open for consideration by the relevant court.

UNION OF INDIA VS MS KRISHNA CONSTRUCTIONS COMPANY [O.M.P. (COMM)-369/2022]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

The arbitral award favored MS Krishna Constructions Company, stating that the Union of India could not retain the performance bank guarantee or security deposit, nor impose compensation for delays, as it did not demonstrate any actual loss. The arbitrator's decisions on claims for refund and rejection of counterclaims were supported by evidence indicating the Union's failure to prove loss. The decision, based solely on documentary evidence, stands without grounds for interference.

UNION OF INDIA VS TATA COMMUNICATIONS LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-338/2024]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

An arbitral award required the Union of India to pay Tata Communications Ltd. for services rendered beyond the initial contract period. The claim for the period from April 1, 2020, to June 30, 2020, was supported by a written extension of the contract, confirming the Union's liability. For the period from July 1, 2020, to December 31, 2020, it was established that the contract was effectively extended based on meeting minutes and the Union's actions, despite the lack of a written extension. The assessment of evidence and contract interpretation fell within the arbitrator's jurisdiction, and no defects were identified in the arbitrator's decision.

WADIA TECHNO ENGINEERING SERVICES LIMITED VS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF MARRIED ACCOMMODATION PROJECT & ANR. [O.M.P. (COMM)-518/2023]

Judges: Justice Prateek Jalan

Petitions challenging three arbitral awards were partially allowed. The arbitrator erred in rejecting claims for enhanced remuneration due to increased project costs in the Vizag case, leading to the award being set aside, allowing the petitioner to initiate fresh arbitration proceedings. Findings related to claims from the prolongation of the contract were upheld, as the arbitrator's interpretation of contractual clauses and evidence assessment were deemed reasonable. The rejection of miscellaneous claims was sustained due to insufficient documentary evidence.

STATE VS MAHESH SINGH &ORS. [CRL.A.-121/2003]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The acquittal of Mahesh Singh, Yogesh @ Kallu, and Yogender @ Gatta was upheld due to the prosecution's failure to demonstrate their shared intention to kill Praveen Kumar. Evidence presented showed contradictions and inconsistencies, indicating insufficient proof of their involvement in the attack. A prior judgment on the main accused, Veer Singh, reclassified the charge from murder to culpable homicide not amounting to murder, suggesting the incident was a sudden altercation without premeditation. The appeal against the acquittal was dismissed.

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS MEENAMBAKKAM REALTY PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-107/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The existing arbitral tribunal for disputes between Airports Authority of India (AAI) and Meenambakkam Realty Private Limited will be terminated and reconstituted due to objections from both parties. A new Presiding Arbitrator and Nominee Arbitrators have been appointed with the consent of the parties, and the procedural rules of the International Centre for Alternate Dispute Resolution (ICADR) will continue to apply.

AJANTA SOYA LIMITED VS THE ORIENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-92/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A petition seeking an extension of the arbitral tribunal's mandate under Section 29A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was granted despite a significant delay in filing. The tribunal, constituted in October 2020, had a mandate that expired in February 2023, excluding the COVID-19 pandemic period. Although the parties approached after over a year, an extension until 31st March 2024 was deemed appropriate, as the award was ready and the initial reference occurred during the pandemic.

AJAY GUPTA & ANR. VS M/S GREENWAYS [CS(COMM)-125/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The open courtyard space of 15x6 ft. does not qualify as a "building" or "premises" under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The defendant is deemed a permissive user rather than a protected tenant. The defendant must vacate the space within 4 weeks. Arguments regarding the non-impleadment of a co-owner and the overvaluation of the suit were rejected.

AKHIL GUPTA VS HINDUSTAN UNILEVER LTD [ARB.P.-460/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitioner's notice invoking arbitration under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was deemed valid due to the respondent's failure to reply and concurrent proceedings in another court. The dispute resolution clause directing the parties to the Ombudsman would cause unnecessary delays. The arbitration clause was not contested, and Ms. Nina Nariman, Advocate, was appointed as the sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes, with the seat of arbitration located in Delhi.

ALISHBA KHAN VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2943/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A suitable wheelchair will be provided to the petitioner in W.P.(C) 5395/2021 without the tender process due to urgent need. In the case of Master Rakshan (CONT.CAS(C) 678/2024 & 687/2024), medical records will be sent to AIIMS for examination and a treatment plan. A status report in W.P.(C) 4539/2023 indicated the petitioner is open to Exon 51 Skipping treatment. Remaining matters are adjourned for further hearing on 1st August, 2024, focusing on the medical needs of the petitioners and timely provision of necessary support.

AKSHAT BALDWA & ORS. VS YASH RAJ FILMS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-445/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A writ petition by four individuals with visual and hearing impairments highlighted the need for the implementation of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 to ensure accessibility of films and audiovisual content. There was a call for the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting to conduct stakeholder consultations and develop guidelines for incorporating features like sub-titling, captioning, and audio-description. Concern was raised over the ongoing lack of accessibility despite the law being in effect for over five years. Additionally, the ministry was instructed to appoint a special officer to address representations from persons with disabilities promptly, with further consideration of the timeline for implementing the accessibility guidelines.

AKSHAT BALDWA & ORS. VS YASH RAJ FILMS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-445/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Accessibility is recognized as a legal right for persons with disabilities, requiring the state to ensure film producers, theatres, and OTT platforms implement reasonable accommodations for equal access to audio-visual content. The Ministry of Information and Broadcasting is instructed to finalize and notify accessibility guidelines for films, making features like audio description, subtitles, and closed captions mandatory. Additionally, a nodal officer is to be appointed to address requests for including accessibility features in films until the guidelines are established.

ALLIED BLENDERS @ DISTILLERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS HERMES DISTILLERY PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-274/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The "Peace Maker" whisky label was found to be deceptively similar to the registered "Officer's Choice" whisky label, constituting trade dress infringement and passing off. Despite differences in brand names, the combination of color scheme, layout, and design features of the two labels created confusion. Arguments that the differences were sufficient to prevent confusion were rejected. An interim injunction was issued to restrain the use of the "Peace Maker" label, allowing the defendant to exhaust existing stock within 30 days.

ALLIED-DYNAMIC JOINT VENTURE VS IRCON INTERNATIONAL LTD, DELHI [O.M.P. (COMM)-451/2016]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition by Allied-Dynamic Joint Venture challenging the arbitral award was dismissed. Key grounds, including alleged bias of the sole arbitrator and non-award of compensation for project site delays, were deemed untenable. The agreement contained safeguards regarding the arbitrator's appointment, and no remedy for bias was sought at the relevant time. The arbitrator attributed project delays to both parties, and the claims for compensation lacked supporting evidence. Under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, there was no basis to set aside the award due to misappreciation of evidence.

AMANPREET KOHLI VS PANKAJ DAYAL [CS(COMM)-175/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The defendant in a commercial dispute was required to deposit Rs. 2.5 crore in installments to raise a defense, as per Order XIIIA Rule 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The defendant failed to comply with this order, leading to a decree in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount claimed, including principal and interest. Non-compliance with the conditional order resulted in the plaintiff being entitled to a decree under the Code.

AMAR SINGH BHATIA & ANR. VS SIR GANGA RAM HOSPITAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3590/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The absence of timelines in the Transplantation of Human Organs and Tissues Rules, 2014 has caused significant delays in organ donation applications, which can threaten the lives of patients needing transplants. Establishing clear timelines for application processing, document verification, interviews, and appeal decisions is essential. The competent authority must communicate these timelines after consulting stakeholders to ensure prompt decision-making and protect the health and dignity of patients.

AMAR SINGH BHATIA & ANR. VS SIR GANGA RAM HOSPITAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3590/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The timelines set by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare for the Authorization Committee under the Transplantation of Human Organs and Tissues Act, 1994, have been upheld. The ministry provided a communication outlining specific timelines for various steps in organ transplantation applications, which must be implemented by all Authorization Committees with sufficient publicity to ensure compliance by stakeholders.

AMIT SOOD VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-IPD-54/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition filed by Amit Sood resulted in the cancellation of the "ROSHAN" trademark registered by Jit Kathuria and others. The petitioner demonstrated prior adoption and significant goodwill in "ROSHAN STUDIO" since the 1950s, while the respondents adopted "ROSHAN PORTRAITS" in 1991 within the same geographical area of Panchkula. This situation represented a case of "triple identity" regarding the mark, goods/services, and trade channels, leading to potential public deception and confusion. The findings of the IPAB were rejected, and the trademark registration was canceled to maintain the integrity of the trademark register in the public interest.

AMITESH DUTTA VS DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE BENCH III THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13378/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) can take action against Chartered Accountant firms for professional misconduct under the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949, and is not restricted to individual members identified by the firm. A narrow interpretation of Rule 8(2) of the Chartered Accountants (Procedure of Investigations of Professional and Other Misconduct and Conduct of Cases) Rules, 2007, is rejected if allegations of misconduct involve the firm as a whole. The Petitioners and their firms must file written statements with the ICAI's Disciplinary Committee within 8 weeks, which will then conduct an inquiry. Additionally, the central government is directed to strengthen the regulatory framework for auditors and audit firms, including implementing amendments from the 2022 Act.

ANJANA GOSAIN VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-2506/2019]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Government of NCT of Delhi is required to clear all outstanding fee payments to Anjana Gosain, a panel counsel, despite the absence of Brief Transmission Forms, based on the certification of the standing counsel. A proper centralized scheme for timely payment of fee bills for government counsels is mandated, addressing delays in payment processing. The implementation of the Online Single Window System (OSWS) portal for processing and payment of advocate fee bills is being closely monitored, with specific timelines set for its operational steps.

ANJU JAIN & ANR. VS M/S. WTC NOIDA DEVELOPMENT COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1329/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The arbitration clause in the agreement designates New Delhi as the seat of arbitration, despite another clause stating that Noida courts have exclusive jurisdiction. The distinction between "venue" and "seat" clarifies that New Delhi serves as the juridical seat. Jurisdiction to appoint an arbitrator under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, is thus established. A sole arbitrator was appointed to conduct the proceedings at the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

ANKUSH GUPTA VS ARUN KUMAR GUPTA & ORS [CS(OS)-2972/2015]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) dated July 29, 2010 between the plaintiff and the defendants is recognized as a valid and binding family settlement. The plaintiff acted on its terms by benefiting from registered gift deeds, making it inadmissible for him to backtrack on the MoU. Consequently, the plaintiff is declared the absolute owner of the specified properties, and the remaining defendant is required to execute the pending gift deed in favor of the plaintiff within a set timeframe.

APPOLO HANDLOOM MANUFACTURING CO-OP. SOCIETY LTD. VS ALL INDIA HANDLOOM FABRICS SOCIETY AND ORS. [ARB.P.-1261/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is maintainable as the Multi State Cooperative Societies Act, 2002 empowers the Central Registrar to appoint an arbitrator for disputes regarding multi-state cooperative societies. Unlike the National Highways Act, 1956, which offers an exclusive appointment mechanism by the Central Government, the Multi State Cooperative Societies Act allows intervention when the Central Registrar does not fulfill this duty. An arbitrator must be appointed within three weeks to resolve disputes related to the election of office bearers and outstanding monetary claims.

ARJUN MEHTA VS SAURAV GUPTA & ORS. [ARB.P.-501/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties despite the petitioner not signing the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The broad arbitration clause in the signed MoU is binding on both parties and covers the disputes raised by the petitioner, except for issues related to the Bandel cheese mark. The matter is referred to a sole arbitrator, Justice Manmohan Singh (Retd.), for adjudication, with the incorporation of the company and Bandel cheese mark issues to be addressed by the appropriate forums already handling those matters.

ASF BUILDTECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHAPOORJI PALLONJI AND COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-4/2024]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The ld. Sole Arbitrator correctly included ASF Insignia SEZ Pvt. Ltd. (AISPL) and ASF Buildtech Pvt. Ltd. (ABPL) as respondents under the "Group of Companies Doctrine" due to their close ties to the contracts and their relationship with claimant Black Canyon SEZ Pvt. Ltd. (BCSPL). The differentiation of claims into "Case 1" and "Case 2" was set aside, and the claims of BCSPL alongside the counterclaims of Shapoorji Pallonji and Company Pvt. Ltd. (SPCPL) were ordered to be treated as a unified dispute. A petition from BCSPL to terminate the mandate of the ld. Sole Arbitrator was dismissed, confirming the Arbitrator's ability to address the claims and counterclaims.

AYRA ROY VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6178/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A minor child lost both parents during the COVID-19 pandemic. Directions have been issued to consolidate and liquidate the assets left by the deceased, including death claim benefits, insurance amounts, and provident fund accruals. HDFC Bank's intervention regarding the sale proceeds of a vehicle to satisfy a loan is also addressed, with an emphasis on considering the waiver of interest due to the circumstances.

BAJAJ FINACE LTD & ANR. VS NIKO DAS & ANR. [CS(COMM)-233/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) established by the Reserve Bank of India for information exchange between banks and law enforcement were not being followed timely by banks. The Indian Bank Association must convene to ensure compliance with these SOPs and set specific timelines for providing requested information. The Ministry of Home Affairs has initiated the Indian Cyber Crime Coordination Centre (I4C) to enhance coordination among law enforcement and stakeholders addressing cybercrime, and parties should consider using this portal for concerns related to intellectual property owners. Further hearings on connected matters are scheduled.

BASKETBALL FEDERATION OF INDIA VS CAPTAINS PROFESSIONAL BASKETBALL LEAGUE PVT. LTD. & ANR. [CS(OS)-385/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

In the Basketball Federation of India v. Captains Professional Basketball League Pvt. Ltd. case, the defendant filed a parallel Section 9 petition without disclosing ongoing proceedings. This raised doubts about the validity of the Master Rights Agreement due to suspicious circumstances and non-payment of full consideration. Concerns regarding the CEO's undertaking led to a contempt consideration, and the issue of the agreement's validity has been referred to a larger bench.

BASKETBALL FEDERATION OF INDIA VS CAPTAINS PROFESSIONAL BASKETBALL LEAGUE PVT. LTD. & ANR. [CS(OS)-385/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The agreement between the Basketball Federation of India (BFI) and Captains Professional Basketball League Pvt. Ltd. (INBL PRO) for a basketball league lacked proper authorization from the BFI, as it was signed during the BFI's election process. Significant payment obligations were not fulfilled by the defendants. An interim injunction remains in place, preventing the defendants from using terms like "India," "Indian Team," and "Select Indian Team" to avoid misleading the public and protect the BFI's authority. A law firm, M/s Murali and Company, was added as a necessary party due to payments made under the agreement.

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

An independent Administrator, Justice J.R. Midha (Retd.), has been appointed to oversee the Kalkaji Mandir's management and redevelopment due to the existing Baaridars' inefficiency. Compliance issues have arisen as the Mahant and some Baaridars refuse to pay required amounts, contradicting the Mahant's previous acknowledgment of the Administrator's control. A tragic incident occurred during a Jagran event, where the Mahant allowed organizers to proceed without proper permissions. A Local Commissioner will assess the Mandir's current state, with a further hearing scheduled for 30th August, 2024.

BLACKBERRY LIMITED VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-229/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The appeal by BlackBerry Limited against the refusal of the patent application titled "Administration of Wireless Systems" was dismissed. The patent application primarily involved algorithmic processes for managing data flow between servers and mobile devices. Despite technical elements present, the invention was deemed to focus on algorithmic processes, which do not qualify for patent protection under Section 3(k) of the Indian Patents Act, excluding mathematical methods, business methods, and computer programs per se. The terms used in the specification further emphasized the algorithmic nature of the contribution, justifying the Controller's objection.

BLACKBERRY LIMITED VS CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-318/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The subject patent application is not barred by Section 3(k) of the Patents Act, 1970, as it possesses technical features that extend beyond mere computer programs or algorithms, offering enhancements such as autonomous operation, efficient media transfer and management, and increased storage capacity. Despite some similarities with prior art US'765, the application contains several novel features, including a cache manager, metadata-only library files, and remote/local access by mobile devices. Amendments to the claims are necessary to focus on the novel technical features of "automatic selection" and "updating by a cache manager," while recognizing the prior art concept of providing a "confidence level."

BOBIN DHULL VS M/S I.P. FOUNDATION & ORS. [CS(OS)-37/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The sale of the property by the plaintiff's father to the defendants was valid. The father explained the sale clearly, while the plaintiff struggled to understand the proceedings. The defendants are permitted to continue construction on the property, provided they comply with applicable bye-laws and obtain permission before selling any part of it.

BUNCH MICROTECHNOLOGIES PVT LTD VS AMCP EDUTECH PVT LTD AND OTHERS [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-124/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

All disputes between the parties related to the term sheet, investment agreement, prior deed of assignment, and connected agreements will be referred to Justice Rajiv Sahai Endlaw, who is already managing disputes under the Consultant Faculty Agreement. Intellectual property belonging to AMCP Edutech Pvt. Ltd. is to be protected from dilution during these disputes, and an interim order will remain in effect until the first hearing with the arbitrator. No binding observations were made regarding the arbitration process.

CGMP PHARMA N PLANS PRIVATE LIMITED VS HYS LIFECARE LLP [ARB.P.-48/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve a dispute between CGMP Pharma N Plans Private Limited and HYS Lifecare LLP regarding outstanding payments for services rendered under a contract. The issue of the limitation period for invoking the arbitration clause requires further examination, and the period of the COVID-19 pandemic may be excluded from this calculation. The final determination of the limitation issue will be addressed by the appointed arbitrator.

CHANDER KANTA PATHAK VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-109/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Probate was granted for the will dated May 9, 2017, executed by Sh. Hansraj Pathak in favor of Chander Kanta Pathak. The will was proven through the testimony of two attesting witnesses, with no objections from the testator's three children or anyone else. As the natural heirs sought probate, they were exempted from providing administration bonds, aligning with the aim of realizing the deceased's intentions.

CHARANJEET KAUR VS RAVINDER PAL SINGH & ANR. [CS(OS)-382/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Charanjeet Kaur is entitled to a 1/3 share in the assets of her late father, Malkiat Singh, based on a relinquishment deed executed by her sister that acknowledged Charanjeet as a legal heir. The claim of a will was rejected due to Charanjeet's denial of any knowledge or possession of such a document. A preliminary decree was passed in favor of Charanjeet, and a mediator was appointed to help resolve disputes between the parties.

CHETANYA BUILDCON PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS HARPAL SINGH & ORS. [OMT-15/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitions O.M.P. (T) (COMM.) 87/2023 and 15/2024 for the termination of the mandate of sole arbitrator Mr. Sushil Dutt Salwan were dismissed. The arbitrator's mandate was extended until December 2024 for the pronouncement of the arbitral award. A separate civil suit, CS(OS) 48/2022, concerning the same property, was permitted to continue independently of the arbitration proceedings to prevent conflicting findings on the property disputes.

CHROMA-ATOR ENERGY SYSTEMS PVT LTD (FORMERLY M/S PRASHANT GENERATOR CO.) VS INDRAPRASTHA GAS LIMITED [ARB.P.-315/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The invocation of arbitration and the filing of a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 were deemed to be within the applicable limitation period, with consideration given to the extension of limitation due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Ms. Vibha Datta Makhija was appointed as a sole arbitrator to conduct the arbitration proceedings under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, following a detailed analysis of limitation issues.

CSL FINANCE LIMITED VS SARTHIK EDUCATIONAL TRUST AND ORS. [ARB.P.-1324/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The loan agreement between CSL Finance Limited and Sarthik Educational Trust included an arbitration clause, and the respondents failed to repay the loan. The argument regarding a pending matter in another court was dismissed, as SARFAESI proceedings and arbitration can proceed simultaneously. An arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, with the seat of arbitration designated as Delhi.

DABUR INDIA LIMITED VS ASHOK KUMAR AND ORS [CS(COMM)-135/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A batch of cases regarding the registration of infringing domain names by unknown third parties was reviewed. Key issues included the implementation of previous orders by domain name registrars and banks in providing information to law enforcement. The Indian Banks Association was instructed to meet with a sub-group to ensure adherence to the standard operating procedure for disclosing information. The status of this implementation remains ongoing, with a request for an affidavit from the IBA. Hosting Concepts B.V. was permitted to submit written materials within four weeks, while the Ministry of Home Affairs was also directed to file an affidavit within the same timeframe. Further hearings are scheduled between February and April 2024.

DABUR INDIA LIMITED VS ASHOK KUMAR AND ORS [CS(COMM)-135/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A batch of matters concerning domain name registrations infringing on trademark rights was addressed, resulting in directions for blocking, locking, and suspending infringing domain names, alongside mandates for domain name registrars to implement orders effectively. An affidavit from the Reserve Bank of India confirmed the implementation of a beneficiary name lookup facility for banks in immediate payment services, set to expand to other payment systems by the end of 2024. Additionally, the Indian Banks Association circulated an updated Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) for enhanced cooperation with law enforcement agencies.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS M/S BADARPUR TRADERS UNION [CS(OS)-145/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was permitted to amend its plaint by adding new facts related to the cancellation and re-registration of Badarpur Traders Union, which are essential to the case. The defendant's request for a decree in its favor was dismissed, with the determination that the issues require full adjudication at trial.

DELHI INDUSTRIAL CORPORATION VS NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD [CS(COMM)-359/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Delhi Industrial Corporation is entitled to file a fresh suit against National Insurance Co. Ltd. for recovery of Rs. 3,40,92,720/- with interest on an insurance claim. An earlier suit was dismissed due to the plaintiff's failure to participate in mandatory pre-institution mediation, which was later reported as a non-starter because the defendant did not engage. The plaintiff has now been permitted to initiate a new suit, with provisions for the filing of written statements, replications, and affidavits of admission/denial of documents, while a similar suit is already pending and will be connected with this new matter.

DEVANSH (THROUGH HIS MOTHER BEING A MINOR) AND ANR. VS HITESH BHARDWAJ [CS(OS)-771/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A settlement agreement between a mother and her two children and the father was upheld, which included provisions for mutual divorce, property transfers, monetary payments, and withdrawal of all pending cases. The settlement terms were deemed lawful. Forensic examination of a disputed document was allowed for the defendant's brother, but the application for criminal action under Section 340 Cr.P.C. lacked merit.

DHRUVA GOEL VS M/S CHETANYA BUILDCON PVT LTD & ORS. [CS(OS)-166/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Chetanya Buildcon Pvt Ltd and its directors must execute a sale deed in favor of the plaintiff for the first floor of the property, as they acknowledged the consideration. The property owners are required to issue a fresh power of attorney to facilitate this execution. The defendant company must provide a certificate confirming that the tax liability on the paid consideration has been settled. The plaintiff's full court fee will be refunded since the suit was decreed on the second hearing.

DIVYANSH KARNANI THROUGH HIS NEXT FRIEND AND NATURAL FATHER SH. RAJESH KUMAR KARNANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8947/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The discharge of the appellants from charges under Sections 420 and 120B IPC is valid due to a lack of evidence for deliberate withholding of information or conspiracy. AICTE approved the 'Business School of Delhi' with knowledge of the bank loan and mortgage, with no implicated officials. Although the CBI's petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C was maintainable, a statutory remedy under Section 397 Cr.P.C was more appropriate.

MANAV SEVA SR. SECONDARY SCHOOL VS THE REGIONAL PF COMMISSIONER & ANR [W.P.(C)-7048/2016]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Dina Nath Public School (DNPS) and Manav Seva Sr. Secondary School (MSPS) are not considered a single establishment under the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. Despite evidence of common trustees and financial control, the schools have distinct identities, separate locations, staff, affiliations, and fee structures. Insufficient evidence of functional integration and administrative control led to the conclusion that the schools should not be combined as a single entity. An order from the Employees' Provident Fund Appellate Tribunal, which upheld their clubbing since April 1, 1996, was set aside, and the inquiry under Section 7A of the Act was quashed.

DINESH MITTAL & ORS. VS M/S TRIVENI INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CO. LTD [CO.PET.-39/2009]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The winding-up of Triveni Infrastructure Development Company (TIDCO) leads to the approval of the sale of development rights for land in Sector 78, Faridabad. The DTCP license for the land will be renewed, unsold flats will be sold, and proceeds will be distributed among creditors. Allottees, classified as unsecured creditors, will not receive flats due to prior decisions. Beneficial interest in certain towers in Sector 89 will be transferred to the BSF Family Welfare Society, with direction given for the withdrawal of complaints between the society and TIDCO's ex-management. The matter involves established principles regarding the powers in a winding-up situation and creditors' rights.

DIVYANSH KARNANI THROUGH HIS NEXT FRIEND AND NATURAL FATHER SH. RAJESH KUMAR KARNANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8947/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

M/s Sarepta Therapeutics agreed to provide free therapy for 14 children with Duchenne muscular dystrophy (DMD) for three months. The National Rare Diseases' Committee (NRDC) submitted a final report with treatment price quotations and was directed to present final negotiated prices in a sealed cover. Orders on the NRDC's report were deferred to allow further negotiations with Sarepta on DMD treatment. The Drugs Controller General of India indicated that four clinical trials for DMD are ongoing in India, highlighting the need for expanded trial participation. AIIMS was tasked with examining cases from two recently filed writ petitions and submitting a report by the next hearing. The emphasis was on ensuring ongoing treatment for petitioners, finalizing treatment costs for rare diseases, and facilitating access to clinical trials.

DLF LIMITED VS TWENTY FIVE DOWNTOWN REALTY LIMITED & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-137/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition by DLF Ltd. under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is maintainable as the Shareholders Agreement specifies Delhi as the seat of arbitration, granting supervisory jurisdiction. The interim directions from January 11, 2024, require Twenty-Five South Realty Ltd. to maintain a 75% equity stake in Joyous Housing Ltd. until arbitration concludes. No immediate threat to DLF Ltd.'s shareholding due to new non-convertible debentures issued by JHL was identified. However, the debenture holder must provide two weeks' notice to DLF Ltd. and the relevant parties before exercising any default option for conversion into equity shares. All parties must comply with the January 11, 2024, order during this interim period.

UNION OF INDIA VS EXPRESS NEWSPAPERS LTD. AND ORS. [CS(OS)-2480/1987]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The three-Judge Bench decision in Express Newspapers Pvt. Ltd. v. Union of India is binding under Article 141 of the Constitution. The notices for lease termination and re-entry issued by the Union of India were deemed arbitrary, mala fide, and in violation of prior directions. Construction by Express Newspapers conformed to granted permissions. The recovery of conversion charges and additional ground rent, with simple interest at 18% per annum, was allowed. No other damages or charges were recoverable. A decree was granted in favor of Express Newspapers, with costs awarded at Rs. 5 lakhs.

EXTRAMARKS EDUCATION INDIA PVT. LTD. VS SARASWATI SHISHU MANDIR [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-13/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The mandate of the sole arbitrator in the dispute between Extramarks Education India Pvt. Ltd. and Saraswati Shishu Mandir ended due to the arbitrator's non-responsiveness. A new sole arbitrator, Ms. Zubeda Begum, was appointed to resume the proceedings from the previous arbitrator's last stage. The necessity for stamping of the arbitration agreement was clarified as not compulsory for initiating arbitration, following a recent Supreme Court judgment. The costs for the new arbitrator were assigned to the parties, with the petitioner responsible for the entire fee.

FIITJEE LTD VS DEEPAK SOLANKI AND ANR [O.M.P.(T)-2/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

FIITJEE Ltd. petitioned for the substitution of the sole arbitrator after the previously appointed arbitrator resigned due to health reasons. Sufficient evidence was presented regarding the invocation of the arbitration clause, leading to the appointment of a new sole arbitrator, Mr. Kunal Tandon. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open to be addressed before the new arbitrator, including compliance with Section 21 of the Act and allegations regarding the invocation letter.

FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA VS MBR SILOS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The appointment of the presiding arbitrator by the International Centre for Alternate Disputes Resolution (ICADR) was deemed improper due to a lack of jurisdiction. The initial invocation of arbitration was not directed to ICADR, and there was no evidence of disagreement between the nominee arbitrators that would justify ICADR's involvement. A retired judge was appointed as the presiding arbitrator with the consent of the parties, leaving other raised contentions open for future consideration.

G4S SECURE SOLUTIONS (INDIA) PVT. LTD. VS MATRIX CELLULAR (INTERNATIONAL) SERVICES LTD. [ARB.P.-427/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitioner's claims for an outstanding amount of Rs. 12,36,134.58 for security services are not barred by limitation due to the exclusion of the period from March 15, 2020, to February 28, 2022, related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Ms. Leena Tuteja was appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the dispute, with arbitration proceedings to occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

GAUTAM CHOPRA & ANR. VS MR. RAHISUDDIN [CS(OS)-270/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The defendant occupied a portion of the plaintiffs' property without authorization and admitted to this fact. Failure to comply with court orders to pay arrears of rent and monthly charges led to the striking off of the defendant's defense. Following the dismissal of the defendant's appeals, a decree for recovery of possession was issued in favor of the plaintiffs, as the defendant was barred from presenting evidence.

GAIL GAS LIMITED VS M/S OKAY GLASS INDUSTRIES [O.M.P. (COMM)-380/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The arbitrator's finding that Okay Glass Industries was not responsible for gas meter tampering was upheld. The petitioner's counter-claims have attained finality, and the main issue of meter tampering is no longer contested due to the withdrawal of the respondent's claim. A refund of Rs. 50 lakhs, along with accrued interest, will be returned to the respondent, and Rs. 14,42,618/- deposited by the petitioner will also be refunded.

GAUTAM CHOPRA & ANR. VS KAMRUDDIN SAIFI [CS(OS)-271/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The defendant occupied a portion of the plaintiffs' land without authorization and failed to pay owed rent or charges despite repeated court orders. Due to non-compliance, the defendant's defense was struck off, leading to a decree for recovery of possession through ejectment. The allegations in the plaint supported this decision, and the defendant was barred from presenting evidence. Subsequent challenges by the defendant were dismissed, affirming the findings.

GEE INTERNATIONALS VS DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD. [ARB.P.-895/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A petition by Gee Internationals under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of an arbitrator is maintained due to delays by Delhi Tourism and Transportation Development Corporation Ltd. in resolving disputes. Mr. Devashish Bharuka, Senior Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator. The petitioner is directed to meet with the Chief Engineer of DTTDC to attempt dispute resolution before proceeding to arbitration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

GOOGLE LLC VS THE CONTROLLER OF PATENTS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-395/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The rejection of the Appellant's patent application for lack of novelty and inventive step is sustained. The subject invention fails to meet the inventive step requirement, being obvious to a skilled person in light of prior art document D1. While the application specifies user preferences for mirroring instant messaging sessions, the fundamental concept of managing sessions across multiple devices with user-defined settings is already disclosed in D1. The addition of a preference to not mirror sessions during idle states is seen as an obvious modification. The corresponding European patent application was also rejected for the same reasons. Costs were imposed on the Appellant due to contradictory statements regarding the European application's status. The appeal was dismissed.

GOVIND SARAN SHARMA VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-2802/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Several properties in prime locations of Delhi were allocated based on forged recommendation letters from the Land & Building Department (L&BD). The actions of L&BD and the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) compromised public trust. An investigation was assigned to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) due to concerns about systemic vulnerabilities involving multiple officials over time. The petitioner's allotment, based on a forged letter, was cancelled, alongside a review of 128 properties allocated under similar circumstances.

GUALA CLOSURES SPA VS AGI GREENPAC LIMITED [CS(COMM)-706/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The defendant's tamper-evident closure product does not infringe the plaintiff's Indian Patent No. 349522 due to significant differences in purpose, attachment mode, and the mechanism of the second tear-off seal. The defendant's product features a distinct sequential separation process and functionality, contrasting with the plaintiff's simultaneous detachment and tamper-evident design. As a result, the defendant's product does not fall within the plaintiff's patent claims. The balance of convenience favors the defendant, who has built a substantial business around its product, while the plaintiff has not commercially launched its patent in India.

GURVINDER SINGH AND ANR. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-15159/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The semen sample of a deceased son, preserved in a hospital's fertility lab, is considered property belonging to his parents as legal heirs. There is no legal prohibition on posthumous reproduction using the deceased's genetic material if there is evidence of consent. The request for the release of the semen sample cannot be denied in the absence of specific legal barriers. The hospital is to provide the sample to the parents, with the condition that it is not used for commercial purposes. There is a call for the government to consider laws or guidelines regarding posthumous reproduction due to the lack of existing legal provisions.

HALDIRAM INDIA PVT. LTD VS BERACHAH SALES CORPORATION & ORS. [CS(COMM)-495/2019]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The plaintiff's marks 'HALDIRAM' and 'HALDIRAM'S' are recognized as well-known marks, warranting protection across India, including West Bengal. A permanent injunction was granted against the use of the infringing marks 'HALDIRAM BHUJIAWALA' and 'HALDIRAM'S'. The plaintiff was awarded damages of Rs. 50 lakhs and costs of Rs. 2 lakhs due to extensive infringement and the defendants' conduct.

HEWLETT PACKARD FINANCIAL SERVICES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS APPLE COLOR LAB & ANR. [ARB.P.-137/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Hewlett Packard Financial Services India Private Limited is entitled to appoint an arbitrator to resolve disputes with Apple Color Lab and its sole proprietor, stemming from a business loan agreement. The arbitration clause in the agreement mandates arbitration under the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Mr. Tanodbhav Singh Dev, Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to oversee the proceedings through the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. The parties are encouraged to seek an amicable resolution of the disputes during this process.

INFIBEAM AVENUES LIMITED FORMERLY KNOWN AS INFIBEAM INCORPORATION LIMITED VS GOVERNMENT EMARKETPLACE & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-29/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Infibeam Avenues Limited expressed concerns about unauthorized use of its software components for the Government E-Marketplace portal by Tata Consultancy Services. Tata Consultancy Services assured that it would not misuse the source code or copyrighted information, using them only for maintenance and operation of the portal. Infibeam chose not to pursue arbitration, leading to the resolution of the matter, with both parties adhering to the terms of their 2017 agreement finalized in December 2023.

INFORMATION TV PRIVATE LIMITED VS JITENDRA DAHYABHAI PATEL [ARB.P.-1143/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitioner's request for the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) is not barred by limitation, as it was filed within three years of the notice invoking arbitration and the failure to appoint an arbitrator. The petitioner demonstrated intention to arbitrate and took necessary steps to commence proceedings. Due to the delay in invoking the arbitration clause, the petitioner must bear the costs of the arbitral proceedings, which will be subject to the final award by the appointed arbitrator. Previous orders and any criminal proceedings do not affect the final adjudication by the arbitrator.

INTERDIGITAL VC HOLDINGS INC & ORS. VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP. LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-707/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Defendant telecommunication companies failed to comply with previous orders to secure InterDigital's patent rights through valid bank guarantees. Due to their precarious financial condition and unwillingness to obtain a license on Fair, Reasonable, and Non-Discriminatory (FRAND) terms, they were directed to deposit a specified sum covering past sales with the Registrar General, with an injunction available to InterDigital if not complied with. A confidentiality club was established for the exchange of sensitive licensing information, with costs imposed on the Defendants for delays incurred.

JAGDISH TYRES PVT. LTD. VS INDAG RUBBER LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-165/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Jagdish Tyres Pvt. Ltd.'s petition under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The petitioner did not show diligence in appearing before the arbitrator, who was correct in proceeding with framing issues and evidence. The petition lacked maintainability, as a procedural order of the arbitrator cannot be challenged under Section 9, and the requested relief was not classified as an interim measure. Principles from Deep Industries Ltd. v. ONGC established that there is limited right of appeal under Section 37, with no further judicial intervention allowed under Section 5.

JYOTSNA BEDI VS TIKKA BRIJINDER SINGH BEDI & ORS. [CS(OS)-52/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The family settlement agreement dated 7th August, 1992 is to be prioritized to maintain family harmony. Both Jyotsna Bedi and Tikka Brijinder Singh Bedi expressed willingness to adhere to the agreement. The suit against Tikka Brijinder Singh Bedi was decreed based on this agreement. Defendants D2-D5 were removed from the case as no relief was sought against them.

KAMAL KANT AND COMPANY LLP VS RAASHEE FRAGRANCES INDIA PVT LTD [CS(COMM)-680/2017]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The defendant's use of the trademark 'RAASHEE' infringed the plaintiff's registered trademark 'RAJSHREE' and constituted passing off. The defendant may use 'MY RAASHEE' in English and 'मेरी राशी' in Hindi, provided 'RAASHEE' is not prominently displayed and the packaging is distinct from 'RAJSHREE'. A permanent injunction against the use of the 'RAASHEE' mark was issued, and the defendant is required to pay Rs. 50,000 in costs to the plaintiff, with other legal questions remaining unresolved.

KARTIKA GROVER VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-17386/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The husband must pay a monthly rent of Rs. 20,000 to the wife as per the previous order dated 20th December 2022. The interpretation that rent does not need to be paid if the wife stays with her parents is rejected. The husband's commitment to maintain the wife is reaffirmed, and any unpaid arrears must be settled within four weeks, or action may be taken against application u/s 151 CPC.

KODAK & ANR. VS A2D CHANNEL & ORS. [CS(OS)-180/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

M/s Super Plastronics Pvt. Ltd. and A2D Channel have reached a settlement whereby A2D Channel will remove derogatory YouTube videos about the plaintiff's brand, refrain from further dissemination of these videos, and avoid creating any content against the plaintiff or its products in the future. The agreement results in the suit being decreed in accordance with the terms of the settlement.

KRISTAL VISION PROJECTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-239/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition filed by Kristal Vision Projects Private Limited to challenge the arbitral award dated October 16, 2023, is barred by limitation under Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitral award was effectively communicated to the petitioner as it was pronounced in the presence of the petitioner's representative, and the parties were instructed to collect physical copies from the arbitrator's office, constituting valid "delivery." The case differs from the Supreme Court's judgment in Benarsi Krishna Committee due to the presence of the parties at the award's pronouncement. The petitioner's 5-month delay in collecting the physical copy of the award does not extend the limitation period, which remains the petitioner's responsibility. The petition is dismissed as it is clearly barred by limitation, even when considering the 15-day period provided by the arbitrator for collection.

KULBHUSHAN CHAWLA & ORS. VS KAMLA DEVI CHAWLA & ORS. [CS(OS)-2827/1996]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The parties reached a settlement agreement regarding two properties in Sadar Bazar, Delhi. For property No. 5773, Mr. Sheel Kumar Chawla holds 50% ownership, Mr. Kulbhushan Chawla has 25%, and Ms. Veena Chawla also has 25%. For shops 124-129 in Crockery Market, Mr. Sheel Kumar Chawla is the sole owner. The suit is decreed according to the terms of the settlement agreement.

LARSEN AND TOUBRO LIMITED VS IIC LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-426/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The consent of all parties is not required under Section 29A(4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the extension of the mandate of an arbitral tribunal. The mandate can be extended for sufficient cause even if one party does not consent, especially when the arbitral proceedings are at an advanced stage. In the present cases, the extension of the mandate is justified as the proceedings are at the stage of evidence or final arguments, leading to an extension until 31st December, 2024, in all four petitions.

LARSEN AND TOUBRO LIMITED VS IREO VICTORY VALLEY PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-534/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The settlement agreement dated 18th January 2020 superseded the original contract between the parties, with the arbitration clause in the original contract not surviving. The terms of the settlement and subsequent correspondence indicated it was a full and final resolution of all claims and disputes. The absence of a substantial defense from the defendant regarding the settlement claims led to a decree favoring the plaintiff.

LILY PACKERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS VAISHNAVI VIJAY UMAK [ARB.P.-1210/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The lock-in period in employment contracts is valid and does not violate fundamental rights under the Constitution of India. Reasonable covenants during the contract's duration are enforceable. Disputes regarding the lock-in period are arbitrable under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, with a sole arbitrator appointed to resolve the disputes.

LOUIS DREYFUS COMPANY INDIA PVT LTD VS NUTRILITE AGRO PRODUCTS PVT LTD [CS(COMM)-538/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A delay of 164 days in filing the replication by the plaintiff can be condoned, provided that the plaintiff pays costs of Rs. 15,000 to the defendant. The 45-day timeline for filing a replication under the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018 is mandatory. The plaintiff is permitted to place most additional documents on record, except for the sale contract dated 22.10.2020, for which no sufficient reason was given for the delay in filing. This case is an individual matter.

M/S ADVANCE STIMUL VS GAIL (INDIA) LIMITED [ARB.P.-13/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Petitioner's invocation of arbitration under Section 21 of the Arbitration Act through letters in 2018 was valid despite changes regarding the MSME Act. The claims were not barred by limitation, as the dispute resolution proceedings were initiated within the limitation period, allowing reliance on Section 14 of the Limitation Act. A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, with an emphasis on expediting the process due to the prolonged nature of the dispute.

M/S D.P. BAGS (P) LTD VS M/S NAV BHARAT INTERNATIONAL LTD [CS(COMM)-631/2019]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

D.P. Bags (P) Ltd. is entitled to recover Rs. 73,83,120.50 along with interest from Nav Bharat International Ltd. for unpaid invoices for jute hessian fabric supplies. The plaintiff's evidence, including a signed and sealed ledger account, was satisfactory, and the defendant's failure to specifically deny the allegations constituted an admission of the facts. The defendant's preliminary objections under the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 were dismissed, and the plaintiff was awarded actual costs and additional costs due to the defendant's delays.

M/S DALIP SINGH ADHIKARI VS THE NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO. LTD [ARB.P.-106/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The issue of whether a full and final settlement existed regarding the insurance claims made by M/s Dalip Singh Adhikari qualifies as an arbitrable dispute. Correspondence did not conclusively demonstrate such a settlement. A sole arbitrator, Justice S.P. Garg (Retd.), was appointed to resolve the disputes related to the insurance policy. The respondent questioned the petitioner's standing due to the partnership's registration status, but the petitioner provided evidence of registration to the satisfaction of the proceedings. This involves two petitions, ARB.P. 106/2024 and ARB.P. 131/2024, against the respondent insurance company.

M/S DEVCAS DEVELOPERS AND BUILDERS PVT. LTD. VS MKM CREATIONS PVT. LTD. [CS(COMM)-903/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

M/s. Devcas Developers and Builders Pvt. Ltd. and M/s. MKM Creations Pvt. Ltd. resolved their disputes through a Memorandum of Settlement. MKM will provide vacant possession of the leased property to Devcas by June 15, 2024. Devcas will pay MKM a lump sum for improvements made and refund the security deposit. Both parties agreed to withdraw all current legal proceedings and not pursue future litigation against each other, with all parties bound by the settlement terms.

M/S G4S SECURITY SERVICES INDIA PVT LTD VS M/S DAOJI AGRO PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1305/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

G4S Security Services India Pvt. Ltd. is entitled to appoint a sole arbitrator under the arbitration clause in the agreement with M/s Daoji Agro Pvt. Ltd. Service of the petition was properly effected through email and speed post despite a change of address. Ms. Nidhi Raman has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the dispute, with arbitration proceedings to take place under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

RASHI SANTOSH SONI & ANR. VS K G MARKETING INDIA [CS(COMM)-477/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

KG Marketing India fabricated newspapers dated 17th June and 12th July 2016 to claim prior use of the 'SURYA GOLD' mark. Mr. Karan Kumar, the plaintiff's proprietor, committed forgery and submitted a false affidavit. The suit was dismissed with costs of Rs. 5,00,000, while the defendant's suit was decreed with a permanent injunction and an additional cost of Rs. 5,00,000 imposed on the plaintiff. A criminal complaint under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was directed against the plaintiff for the offenses committed.

M/S OASIS PROJECTS LTD. VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-39/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The order rejecting the appellant's request to suspend a 2-year debarment was set aside. The debarment was deemed invalid as the appellant did not receive a proper show cause notice or opportunity to be heard. Debarment and contract termination are separate issues, and debarment cannot automatically follow termination. The respondent was directed to remove the non-performer declaration of the appellant from its website within a week, with final decisions on breach and termination to be made by the sole arbitrator in ongoing proceedings.

M/S OPUSKART ENTERPRISES & ORS. VS KAUSHAL KISHORE TYAGI [ARB.P.-134/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The arbitration clause in the partnership deed encompasses disputes related to both the partnership firm and the company due to their common business. Objections concerning the arbitrability of claims and the validity of the arbitration agreement were rejected. The non-signatory company could participate in the arbitration agreement under the Group of Companies doctrine, reflecting the mutual intention of involved parties. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, with an emphasis that the order's observations do not bind the arbitrator.

M/S P.M.DIESELS P. LTD. VS M/;S THUKRAL MECHNAICAL WORKS [W.P.(C)-IPD-34/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

P.M. Diesels is the prior user and rightful owner of the 'FIELDMARSHAL' trademark, having used it since 1963 for diesel oil engines and expanded to related goods. Thukral's claim of prior use was rejected. Diesel oil engines and centrifugal pumps are considered cognate goods, and the use of the 'FIELDMARSHAL' mark by Thukral would lead to passing off. The trademark registration no. 228867, in the name of Thukral Mechanical Works, was cancelled due to a defective assignment from M/s. Jain Industries. P.M. Diesels' writ petitions challenging the rejection of its applications for the 'FIELDMARSHAL' mark in various Indian languages were allowed, directing the registrations to be granted. P.M. Diesels' claims in the main suit were upheld, while the suit by Thukral Mechanical Works was dismissed, and the cancellation petition filed by P.M. Diesels was granted. Multiple suits and petitions between the parties were consolidated and disposed of through a common judgment.

M/S POWER MECH PROJECTS LTD VS M/S DOOSAN POWER SYSTEMS INDIA PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (MISC.)-6/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The High Court of Delhi has the authority to extend the mandate of an arbitral tribunal under Section 29A(4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, even after the original mandate period has expired. This decision contrasts with the Calcutta High Court's view in a previous case. Given that the arbitral proceedings were at the cross-examination stage and delays appeared to be due to the petitioner's conduct, the mandate of the arbitral tribunal was extended until 31st December 2024, based on the language allowing such extensions either before or after expiration.

M/S R K BARARIA THROUGH SHRI R K BARARIA SOLE PROPRIETOR VS JBM GLOBAL SCHOOL [ARB.P.-1076/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Delhi High Court has territorial jurisdiction for the Section 11(6) petition because the arbitration agreement did not specify a seat, and part of the cause of action occurred in Delhi. Justice Ms. Sunita Gupta (Retd.) was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with arbitration to occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. All parties' contentions remain open for the arbitrator's decision.

M/S RADHIKA ENGINEERING CO. VS TELECOMMUNICATION CONSULTANTS INDIA LIMITED [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-53/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The unilateral appointment of a sole arbitrator by Telecommunication Consultants India Limited in January 2024 was deemed impermissible under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended in 2015. The 2015 amendments apply to pre-existing arbitration proceedings. An independent arbitrator, Dr. Amit George, was appointed to resolve the disputes, with instructions for expeditious conduct of the arbitration proceedings.

M/S ROSHAN REAL ESTATES PVT LTD VS PUBLIC WORK DEVELOPMENT DELHI [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-256/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Chief Engineer of the PWD appointed a sole arbitrator, which was deemed valid despite his ineligibility, as both parties consented to the appointment. The petition under Section 29A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 sought an extension of the arbitrator's mandate rather than a challenge to the appointment. The Respondent had actively participated in the proceedings and previously consented to an extension. The objections raised by the Respondent were rejected, leading to the extension of the arbitrator's mandate until July 31, 2024.

M/S TRAVEL NEWS SERVICES INDIA PVT LTD VS M/S BIPHA DRUG LABORATORIES PVT LTD [ARB.P.-337/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between M/s Travel News Services India Pvt. Ltd. and M/s Bipha Drug Laboratories Pvt. Ltd. concerning outstanding dues and termination of their sub-license agreement. Key issues included the arbitrability of claims beyond the initial agreement term due to the absence of a written renewal, potential limitation period barring some claims, and the relevance of the Respondent's counter-offers made during the COVID-19 pandemic. The disputes were deemed arbitrable, with the Respondent's arguments to be assessed by the appointed arbitrator.

M/S. CONTAINER CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED VS M/S. SHIVHARE ROAD LINES [O.M.P. (COMM)-441/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A petition filed under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was deemed non-est due to the absence of the arbitral award at the time of initial filing, constituting a fatal defect. The lack of the arbitral award is a fundamental requirement that cannot be overlooked. The petition was also filed beyond the period of limitation, leading to its dismissal, and the deposited amount was ordered to be released in favor of the respondent.

M/S. KAWATRA TENTS AND CATERERS PVT. LTD. VS DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD (DUSIB) [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-33/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The unilateral appointment of a sole arbitrator by the Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB), who had an interest in the dispute, is legally unenforceable and void ab initio. Principles prohibit a biased party from appointing an arbitrator. Ongoing arbitration proceedings are stayed, and parties are directed to file replies within a specified timeframe.

M/S. MAGO CONSTRUCTION PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [ARB.P.-59/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

In M/s. Mago Construction Pvt. Ltd. v. Union of India & Ors., the possibility of resolving a dispute over a final bill of Rs. 40 lakhs was acknowledged, prompting a directive for an amicable resolution. An arbitration clause in the contract led to the appointment of Mr. Satish Chander as the sole arbitrator. The respondents were instructed to complete the audit and finalize the bill by 31st July, 2024, with any remaining disputes to be referred to the arbitrator on 12th August, 2024.

MANMOHAN SINGH & ANR VS SHITAL SINGH & ORS [CM(M)-1333/2017]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Will executed by Gurcharan Singh, granting Mahinder Kaur a life estate, was interpreted to confer absolute ownership under Section 14(1) of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956. However, precedent indicates that if a Hindu male testator intends to grant only a limited estate to his wife in self-acquired property, Section 14(2) applies. The prior reliance on a case concerning a Will created before the 1956 Act was deemed incorrect. Consequently, the previous order has been set aside, affirming the Will's validity, with the matter sent back for further proceedings.

MANMOHAN SINGH AHUJA VS MAHINDER SINGH AHUJA AND ORS [CS(OS)-696/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The memorandum of understanding (MOU) dated April 4, 2019, is recognized as a valid family settlement. The MOU acknowledges that the plaintiff lacks ownership rights in the suit properties and is signed by the plaintiff, his wife, and son. The earlier status quo order has been vacated, but the defendants must deposit Rs. 50 lakhs with the Registrar General due to pending allegations of coercion and duress. The defendants may manage the suit properties once the deposit is made.

MASTER ARNESH SHAW VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5315/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A batch of petitions has been filed by children with rare diseases seeking treatment and access to medicines. Various directions have been issued over time to facilitate treatment and ensure the availability of medicines. The primary legal issue focuses on access to appropriate treatment and medications for these children. The situation involves multiple petitions being addressed together, with no indication of disagreement among the judges or the necessity for referral to a larger bench.

MANOJ KUMAR VS ZEST HIGHTECH PVT. LTD [CS(OS)-2524/2015]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The suits filed by the plaintiffs for cancellation of the sale deeds are maintainable, and the applications to reject the plaints cannot be accepted at this stage. The intention of the parties regarding ownership transfer must be assessed through the sale deeds and accompanying circumstances, particularly since the plaintiffs retain possession despite the deeds' registration. Allegations of fraud related to non-payment of a significant portion of the sale consideration necessitate an examination of evidence. The plaints cannot be rejected solely based on Section 55(4)(b) of the Transfer of Property Act, as there are disputed factual matters requiring resolution after a trial.

MASTER ARNESH SHAW VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5315/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

M/s. Sarepta Therapeutics agreed to provide free treatment for 14 patients with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy for three months. Authorities were directed to place the necessary order with the company. The National Rare Diseases' Committee's final report and its addendum were reviewed, with a directive for the reports to be provided to specified counsel for upcoming submissions, to be kept confidential. All parties must submit electronic copies of written submissions and related judgments two days before the next hearing. AIIMS is required to submit a chart on the treatment status of each petitioner. The batch of petitions, including new ones from children with rare diseases, is scheduled for the next hearing on 26th February 2024, emphasizing immediate access to treatments and equitable drug access for those with rare diseases.

MASTER ARNESH SHAW VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5315/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A comprehensive status update on the treatment of petitioners suffering from rare diseases, including Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy (DMD), indicates that 14 petitioners have received treatment valued at Rs. 50 lakhs under the National Policy for Rare Diseases, 2021, with orders placed for additional medicines from M/s. Sarepta Therapeutics. Two other petitioners are now included in ongoing clinical trials. AIIMS is required to submit an affidavit detailing the clinical trials conducted by M/s Hanugen Therapeutics for Exon Skipping Therapies for DMD patients. The National Rare Diseases Committee (NRDC) must meet with M/s. Sarepta Therapeutics within two weeks to discuss potential therapy supply for DMD patients. Custom duties and charges will not apply to medicines for rare diseases, and customs authorities are instructed to release these medicines quickly. The matter is scheduled for final hearing on 10th May 2024. The decision emphasizes timely and affordable access to treatment for rare disease patients, particularly those with DMD.

MASTER ARNESH SHAW VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5315/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A batch of petitions regarding access to medicines for rare diseases like Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy (DMD) and Spinal Muscular Atrophy (SMA) is under consideration. Sarepta Therapeutics must provide an affidavit detailing the number of Indian subjects recruited for its DMD drug trials versus the approved number, along with pricing information in various countries. Roche is similarly required to provide pricing information for its SMA medicines. These matters are scheduled for conclusion of submissions on 31st August, 2024. There was no noted disagreement among the judges or indication for referring the matter to a larger bench.

MASTER ARNESH SHAW VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5315/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Sarepta Therapeutics is required to submit a detailed affidavit within 3 days regarding its distribution plan and timelines for providing DMD medicines in India, along with a payment of Rs. 1 lakh to the AIIMS Rare Disease Fund. The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare must approve funding for AIIMS to order necessary medicines from Sarepta by 19th September 2024, with potential contempt consequences for non-compliance. Additionally, Rs. 10 crores is to be released to AIIMS to ensure ongoing treatment for non-DMD patients, subject to the final outcomes of the related petitions. Non-compliance with prior orders on pricing and distribution has been noted, highlighting the urgency for timely access to these essential medicines for patients.

MASTER MEDHANSH JHAWAR @ MADHAV THROUGH HIS NATURAL GUARDIAN VS RAJESH BHUSHAN & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-415/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

AIIMS is directed to resolve discrepancies in the number of medicine vials ordered for 14 children and procure any additional vials needed. A child with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy will be examined, and a report will be submitted. The medical records of Master Rakshan will be sent to AIIMS, Delhi, instead of the Centre of Excellence in Chennai, following suggestions from the Amicus Curiae. A comprehensive report on the National Rare Diseases Policy's implementation is required, including details on treated children, types of treatments, and funding. This matter involves multiple connected petitions.

MASTER MEDHANSH JHAWAR @ MADHAV THROUGH HIS NATURAL GUARDIAN VS RAJESH BHUSHAN & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-415/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The right to health is recognized as part of the right to life under Article 21 of the Constitution. A National Fund for Rare Diseases is to be established with an allocation of Rs. 974 crores over the next two financial years, managed by a National Rare Diseases' Committee. Measures will be implemented to enhance access to treatment, including improvements in the procurement process, support for indigenous therapies, customs and tax exemptions, and expansion of Centres of Excellence. No strict funding caps per patient are imposed, allowing flexibility for treatment decisions based on the specific rare disease. This addresses the needs of 106 petitions from patients with various rare diseases for immediate and ongoing treatment.

MASTER PUSPENDER THROUGH HIS NEXT FRIEND AND NATURAL FATHER SH. PAWAN KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7756/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A batch of petitions filed by children with rare diseases seeks access to essential medicines and treatment. The challenges faced include financial support and logistical issues. AIIMS is tasked to examine one petitioner and provide necessary aids and equipment, while exploring options for direct medication dispatch to local hospitals. Supplies from Sarepta Therapeutics are expected to deplete by mid-July, leading to a directive for the National Rare Diseases Committee to propose a solution to Sarepta. A final hearing is scheduled for May 27, 2024.

MASTER RAKSHAN REPRESENTED BY HIS FATHER MR. V. MANIKANDAN VS SUDHANSH PANT & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-687/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Treatment plans for Master Rakshan and Master Medhansh Jhawar have been finalized by AIIMS, with MRI reports to be submitted within one week. AIIMS is to request the release of the next treatment doses for 14 patients diagnosed with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy (DMD) for the next three months. The government is required to provide an affidavit detailing two approved DMD therapy trials, including the number of subjects recruited and pricing of medicines in various countries. Clinical trials for DMD by DART and Hanugen at AIIMS will commence, with enrollment for up to 15 eligible petitioners. Further hearings are scheduled for August 21, 2024.

MAXWELL PARTNERSHIP FIRM REGD VS NATIONAL INSURANCE CO LTD AND ANR [CS(COMM)-358/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The defendant insurance company failed to participate in mandatory pre-institution mediation under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, which was seen as unreasonable and contrary to the law's spirit. Active engagement in mediation is essential, with potential legal consequences for non-participation. The defendant's conduct in prior litigation influenced outcomes, leading to an order for a Rs. 5 lakh cost deposit prior to submitting a written statement. Additionally, both parties were instructed to file affidavits of admission or denial regarding documents, with unjustified denials subject to cost sanctions.

MGS(INDIA) PVT LTD VS SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS [CS(OS)-1841/2014]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The settlement agreement between MGS India Pvt Ltd and Adesh Kumar, who had a General Power of Attorney from his siblings, is valid and not subject to challenge in this suit. Allegations from Adesh Kumar's siblings regarding undue influence for the GPA must be addressed in separate proceedings. The applications from the siblings to recall the compromise decree were rejected, affirming the finality of the settlement recorded on October 11, 2021.

MICROSOFT TECHNOLOGY LICENSING, LLC VS ASSISTNAT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-185/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The patent application discloses a method and system for efficient compression of digital media data using lapped transforms and reversible overlap operators, enhancing the functionality of general-purpose computers beyond ordinary computing processes. The invention exhibits tangible technical benefits and is not barred by Section 3(k) of the Patents Act, which excludes computer programs per se from patentability. The patent application satisfies the requirements of patentability.

MMTC LTD VS L.C. MADAN (DEACEASED) [O.M.P.-29/2016]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Arbitration proceedings against the deceased respondent, Mr. L.C. Madan, abated due to the petitioner's failure to implead the legal representatives within the prescribed time. Although the arbitration agreement remained intact, the petitioner's claims were extinguished due to a lack of diligence in pursuing the necessary steps to continue proceedings after being informed of the death in 2010. The petitioner, MMTC Ltd., took no action until 2014, leading to dismissal of the petition for the appointment of a new arbitrator, as the right to continue against the legal representatives had been lost.

MOHIT S ICHHPUNIANI & ANR VS AMAN S ICHHPUNIANI [CS(OS)-3442/2014]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A decree partitioned the estate of deceased parents, declaring that immovable properties, including residential flats, were to be sold with proceeds divided equally among three siblings. Movable assets, such as shareholding and loans in the family company, were also to be divided equally. A Local Commissioner was appointed to supervise the sale of the immovable properties and the division of the movable assets.

MR GAJENDRA MISHRA VS POKHRAMA FOUNDATION & ANR. [ARB.P.-969/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The respondent's objection to the petitioner's direct invocation of arbitration was not valid, as the respondent had terminated the contract without following the required conciliation process involving the Project Manager. A sole arbitrator was appointed to address the disputes between the petitioner and Pokhrama Foundation, while Dr. Anil Sethi was removed from the arbitration, as he was not a personal party to the contract.

MR. HREESH KENTH & ANR. VS STATE & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-19/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Probate was granted for the last Will and Testament of Smt. Raj Kumari Kenth, dated January 19, 2012, favoring the six surviving sons as beneficiaries of her movable and immovable properties. A notarized copy of the Will was provided in the absence of the original, and all legal heirs submitted no-objection affidavits. Valuation reports for the properties were satisfactory, leading to the decision to grant probate, with the exception of four bank accounts for which probate was not pursued due to their untraceability.

MR. NIKHIL KUMAR ANAND VS MR. HRIDEY VIKRAM BHATIA & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-171/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

In Mr. Nikhil Kumar Anand v. Mr. Hridey Vikram Bhatia & Ors., no interim relief under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was granted. Justice N.V. Ramana (Retd. Chief Justice of India) was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The parties were directed to treat the Section 9 petition as an application under Section 17 of the Act. The term sheet dated March 29, 2023, included an arbitration clause designating New Delhi as the seat of arbitration and stipulated a sole arbitrator for the dispute.

MR. RISHU GUPTA VS MRS. RACHNA GUPTA [CS(OS)-340/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The property can be divided by metes and bounds according to the Local Commissioner's report. The defendant will retain her share, with the plaintiff receiving Part B and the defendant taking Part A. A new Local Commissioner will oversee the physical division, and both parties are to equally bear the costs. Access for the parties and their family members to visit the plaintiff's elderly grandmother is permitted.

MRS. NISHI LAL VS MR. VAIBHAV ANTWADIA & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-30/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Letters of administration and a succession certificate were granted to Mrs. Nishi Lal, the wife of the deceased Captain Madan Lal. The deceased's three children filed affidavits expressing no objection to this grant. Evidence regarding the deceased's movable and immovable properties was reviewed and deemed satisfactory.

MS KENT RO SYSTEMS LTD VS THE ADVERTISING STANDARDS COUNCIL OF INDIA THROUGH ITS GENERAL SECRETARY & ORS. [CS(OS)-44/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

M/s Kent RO Systems Ltd. received interim relief, staying an order from the Advertising Standards Council of India (ASCI) that required the modification of its advertisement claim of providing "the purest water." The interim protection was granted due to questions regarding ASCI's jurisdiction over non-members and the nature of advertising, which allows for some exaggeration if consumer interest is not harmed. Since the complaint originated from a competitor rather than a consumer, the interim stay was deemed appropriate. ASCI was instructed to submit a written statement for further consideration.

MS KGPS MECHANICAL PVT LTD VS CINDA ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION PVT LTD [ARB.P.-143/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Disputes arising from nine contracts between the parties can be referred to a sole arbitrator despite only five containing an arbitration clause. The parties' correspondence and conduct indicated a collective intention to resolve all disputes through a single arbitration process. A retired judge was appointed as the sole arbitrator to prevent multiplicity of proceedings, while leaving all contentions regarding the merits open for adjudication in arbitration.

MS SIMPLEX INFRASTRUCTURES LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR. [ARB.P.-10/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The issues regarding the interpretation of the SAROD arbitration rules were acknowledged as deserving consideration, but arbitrators were appointed without addressing the interpretation. The petitioner's nominee arbitrator, the respondent's nominee arbitrator, and a presiding arbitrator from the SAROD panel were appointed. The legal question regarding the interpretation of the SAROD rules remains open for future cases.

MS. SARIKA CHATURVEDI VS AGARWAL AUTO TRADERS & ORS. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-48/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Repeated attempts by the respondents to challenge the mandate of arbitrator Ms. Warisha Farasat undermined the arbitration process. Significant progress had already been made in pleadings and evidence, and her withdrawal would cause delays. A substitute arbitrator was not appointed; instead, Ms. Farasat was directed to resume proceedings from her last stage of involvement. Her mandate was extended until December 31, 2024, and the respondents were ordered to pay costs of Rs. 50,000 for their actions that delayed the proceedings.

MUKESH SAINI VS MADAN LAL SAINI & ORS [CS(OS)-1169/2014]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The agreement to sell the suit property between the defendants and proposed purchasers is to be given effect. The proposed purchasers are required to deposit the balance sale consideration and interest, after which the sale deed will be executed in their favor. The plaintiff's 1/5th share of the sale consideration must be deposited in court to protect his interest until a final decision is reached. The plaintiff had multiple chances to buy out the shares of the other co-owners, as previously directed, but did not make an offer. Therefore, the execution of the sale deed in favor of the proposed purchasers will proceed.

MUKESH UDESHI VS JINDAL STEEL POWER LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-213/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Mr. Mukesh Udeshi, claiming to be the beneficial owner of the domain name "jsplsteel.in," was not a party to the INDRP arbitration proceedings and lacked the standing to challenge the arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The INDRP Rules of Procedure only bind the complainant, registrar, and registrant (Nspire Solutions), excluding any third-party participation. The petition was dismissed without examination of the merits of the arbitral award.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS GURUVAYOOR INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD. [OMP (ENF.) (COMM.)-97/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) can enforce orders from the arbitral tribunal requiring Guruvayoor Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. (GIPL) to comply with the escrow agreement and pay the outstanding negative grant amount. GIPL is obligated under the Concession Agreement to pay Rs. 215 crores, having paid only Rs. 15 crores in over 14 years. The escrow agreement prioritizes the negative grant over other payments. GIPL must pay Rs. 50 crores to NHAI by May 15, 2024, followed by monthly payments of Rs. 10 crores while maintaining a minimum of Rs. 100 crores in the escrow account. IDFC Bank Ltd. must adhere to the escrow agreement and prevent unauthorized withdrawals.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS M/S KCC BUILDCON PVT. LTD. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-327/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The National Highways Authority of India received approval for an extension of the arbitral tribunal's mandate. Allegations of bias and lack of independence from M/s KCC Buildcon Pvt. Ltd. were dismissed as unfounded. The delay in arbitration proceedings was attributed to the respondent's actions, including requests for amendments and submission of extensive documents. The mandate of the arbitral tribunal was extended until 31st December 2024, with instructions to present a copy of the order in relation to the respondent's pending petition for a new arbitrator.

NATIONAL RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION & ANR. VS CHROMOUS BIOTECH PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-238/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition filed by the National Research Development Corporation and the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, was dismissed due to being beyond the time limit set by Section 34(3). The petitioners failed to provide a reasonable explanation for the delay in re-filing, and no assessment was made regarding the merits of the case.

NAWABUDDIN VS SALAHUDDIN & ANR. [CS(OS)-234/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The property in question was purchased solely by the father of the parties, not jointly by the plaintiff and defendants. The property will be auctioned through M/s Railtel, with the sale proceeds divided equally among Nawabuddin (plaintiff), Salahuddin (defendant 1), and Jamaluddin (defendant 3, replacing defendant 2 Qayamuddin). Due to lack of consensus on partition methods, the auction and division of proceeds are deemed appropriate.

NEETA BHARDWAJ & ORS. VS KAMLESH SHARMA [FAO-36/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Unauthorized events cannot be organized at Kalkaji Mandir without permission from the court-appointed Administrator, who solely manages the premises. The Administrator is directed to enhance security personnel and revive the Shri Kalkaji Mandir Prabandhak Sudhar Committee for crowd management. The steps taken for the Mandir's demarcation and redevelopment are approved, with instructions to engage a Surveyor and submit applications for the project. The Municipal Corporation is tasked with conducting a comprehensive survey and reporting on the street vendors around the Mandir's periphery.

NEETA BHARDWAJ & ORS. VS KAMLESH SHARMA [FAO-36/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The jagran event organized by the Shri Kalkaji Sajja Sewadar Mitr Mandal at Kalkaji Mandir was unauthorized, as the appointed Administrator has complete control over the premises and requires permission for such events. An investigation is ongoing, with action to be taken against those responsible for incidents during the event. This case is part of several connected matters concerning the redevelopment of the Kalkaji Mandir, with various directions issued to ensure the safety and security of devotees.

NISHESH RANJAN & ANR. VS INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-1241/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Conflicting dispute resolution, territorial jurisdiction, and arbitration clauses in agreements related to the purchase of a flat have created confusion for the flat allottee. The Tripartite Agreement includes elements from the earlier Builder Buyer Agreement and Loan Agreement. A sole arbitrator is to be appointed to address the disputes, with time granted for further instructions before the next hearing.

NOKIA TECHNOLOGIES OY VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-303/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Nokia's patent infringement claims against the Oppo defendants were resolved through a global Patent License Agreement and Litigation Settlement Agreement. The disputes between the parties were settled, leading to the withdrawal of Nokia's suit and Oppo's counterclaim. A refund of the pro-tem security deposit made by Oppo during the proceedings was also ordered. This case involved four connected suits.

NOKIA TECHNOLOGIES OY VS GUANGDONG OPPO MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORP., LTD. & ORS. [CS(COMM)-304/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Nokia Technologies OY asserted three patents against the defendants, with permission to add new infringing devices and claims but not new patents. After extensive hearings, including consideration of a global FRAND rate in China, the parties reached a settlement. The suit and counterclaim were dismissed as withdrawn following the execution of a Patent License Agreement and Litigation Settlement Agreement.

NOKIA TECHNOLOGIES OY VS VIVO MOBILE COMMUNICATION CO LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-171/2022]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The patent infringement suit between Nokia Technologies OY and Vivo Mobile Communication Co. Ltd was settled through a Patent License Agreement and Litigation Settlement Agreement. The suit and counterclaim were withdrawn according to the settlement, with no admissions of claims required from either party. A request for a refund of court fees was denied due to the number of hearings and the complexity of the proceedings. This case was connected to three other suits involving the same parties.

NOKIA TECHNOLOGIES OY VS VIVO MOBILE COMMUNICATION CO., LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-162/2022]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
Nokia Technologies OY and Vivo Mobile Communication Co. Ltd. reached a comprehensive settlement in a patent infringement suit, leading to the dismissal of the suit and the withdrawal of the defendants' counterclaim. The settlement stipulates that Nokia will forgo requests for permanent injunction and damages, while the defendants will not challenge the validity or essentiality of the patents. A request for a refund of court fees was denied, citing the extensive hearings conducted. Directions were issued for handling confidential documents from the proceedings.

OVID THERAPEUTICS, INC. VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-28/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
An appeal by Ovid Therapeutics, Inc. against the rejection of its patent application for a composition containing gaboxadol was dismissed. The amended claims exceeded the scope of the original claims by removing specific neurological disease limitations, violating Section 59 of the Patents Act. The appellant did not provide adequate evidence of significant therapeutic efficacy enhancement as required under Section 3(d) of the Patents Act, relying only on limited Phase 2 trial data, while Phase 3 trial results did not demonstrate the necessary improvement.

RAKESH BHARDWAJ VS MAHANT SURENDER NATH [RFA-412/2021]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The appellant in RFA 412/2021 resolved the dispute with the respondent and withdrew the appeal, resulting in its dismissal. In FAO 36/2021, pending Special Leave Petitions regarding Kalkaji Mandir disputes will be listed together before an appropriate bench. In civil suit CS(OS) 57/2022, the State Bank of India is directed to transfer Rs. 1,38,38,338/- plus interest into the Registrar General Kalkaji Account within two weeks.

PRAN NATH CHADHA & ORS. VS CHETANYA BUILD CON INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(OS)-150/2021]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The Plaintiffs, Pran Nath Chadha and others, established a prima facie case against the Defendant, Chetanya Build Con India Pvt. Ltd., leading to the termination of the Property Development Agreement and two addenda. The Defendant failed to complete the property development within the agreed timelines despite multiple extensions, resulting in a loss of trust from the Plaintiffs. The Defendant is restrained from dealing with the property, allowing the Plaintiffs to manage it as they see fit. Any third-party claims created by the Defendant remain solely its responsibility.

PRAVEEN KUMAR AND ORS. VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5691/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The ESIC is required to establish guidelines for engaging contractual workers. Selection of contractors must follow a Quality-cum-Cost Based Selection (QCBS) process to ensure competence and protect workers' statutory rights. Contractors are obligated to inform workers of their entitlements, responsibilities, wages, and grievance procedures. Subcontracting is allowed for PSUs with oversight to prevent conflicts of interest. Contractors cannot charge fees to workers for employment, and they must secure written undertakings from workers relinquishing claims to permanent employment with ESIC. A grievance redressal mechanism for contractual workers must be provided, and contractors should prioritize the engagement of existing workers, ensuring continuity without granting permanence. The ESIC is instructed to notify these guidelines within one month to curb potential malpractices.

PRESIDENT LALA SHER SINGH MEMORIAL JEEVAN VIGYAN TRUST SOCIETY VS SUTLEJ EDUVISION PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-158/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

An "Education Collaboration Agreement" dated January 18, 2018, with an arbitration clause, was validated by a resolution from the Plaintiff-Society authorizing its treasurer to sign. It was deemed necessary to refer the matter to arbitration under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as the defendant requested this before submitting the initial statement on the dispute. A sole arbitrator was appointed with the parties' consent to resolve the disputes.

PURNIMA SHARMA & ORS. VS RENU SHRMA & ORS. [CS(OS)-209/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Registered wills executed by Smt. Jai Mala Devi bequeathed her property to the defendants, her children, and were deemed valid with no authenticity challenge from the plaintiffs, her grandchildren. A development agreement indicated her intention not to bequeath any property to the plaintiffs. The interim injunction was modified to permit the defendants to proceed with redevelopment while restricting any transfer of title without permission.

RACHITA FRANCIS XAVIER VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-1754/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitioner, a minor born in India to parents who were originally Indian citizens but later obtained US citizenship, is eligible for Indian citizenship by registration under Section 5(4) of the Citizenship Act, 1955. The petitioner is classified as a person of Indian origin, not an "illegal migrant," and denying her citizenship would violate her fundamental right to nationality under international human rights law. The Central Government is required to process the petitioner's citizenship application within 30 days and issue her a passport within 15 days following the grant of citizenship.

RADEXPO AG VS JAYNA TIME INDUS. LTD. [CO.PET.-182/1999]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The debt of SFR 345,149.30 owed by Jayna Time Industries Ltd. to Radexpo AG was admitted and undisputed. After accounting for payments made, currency fluctuations, and delays, the remaining balance was calculated at SFR 108,045.53, including costs of SFR 20,000. Jayna Time Industries Ltd. must pay this amount by 1st March 2024, or face a 6% simple interest penalty. Additionally, Rs. 50 lakhs deposited by Jayna Time Industries Ltd. will be released to Radexpo AG.

RADHEY SHYAM VS SALIG RAM [CS(OS)-588/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The dispute over the performance of 'Shashmahi bari' and 'monthly bari' at Kalkaji Mandir should be resolved by adhering to the established practice since 2001. Since that settlement, the parties have alternated the performances, with 'Shashmahi bari' occurring every eight years and 'monthly bari' every three years. The Rs. 29.5 lacs deposited for the 1997 'monthly bari' is to be divided equally between the two groups to prevent further disputes. Both groups will continue to perform their respective 'monthly baris' exclusively every three years, following the long-standing practice.

RAJ KUMAR BATRA VS GULSHAN KUMAR BATRA & ANR [CS(OS)-3171/2015]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Raj Kumar Batra, Gulshan Kumar Batra, and Veena Batra reached an amicable settlement in a property partition suit. Raj Kumar Batra will receive two properties in Mumbai, while Gulshan Kumar Batra and his wife will obtain a 1/3rd share of a property in Delhi, contingent upon payment of Rs. 8.5 crores to Raj Kumar Batra. The agreement also includes arrangements for rental income and property expenses.

RASHME BAHL VS RAMNIK WADHERA & ORS [CS(OS)-1125/2015]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The parties have amicably settled a dispute over the partition and possession of a house in Greater Kailash, Delhi, and farmland in Gurgaon. Rashme Bahl will receive a lump sum of Rs. 15 crores in exchange for renouncing her 1/3rd rights in both properties and movable assets. Ramnik Wadehra's share will be deposited accordingly, and a Local Commissioner has been appointed to facilitate the sale of the properties and distribution of proceeds as per the settlement terms.

RESERVE BANK OF INDIA VS CRB CAPITAL MARKETS LTD.(PROVN. LIQN.) P.LTD. [CO.PET.-191/1997]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Official Liquidator is entitled to Rs. 25 crores from the applicant-companies, representing the CRB group's contribution to five jointly-invested projects in Rajasthan, to be paid in installments. Upon payment, the Tala Land, RSEB Land, and Gulab Bagh Land will be released to the respective applicant-companies. The Disbursement Committee has been reconstituted to disburse the full principal amount (without interest) to depositors of CRB Capital Markets Ltd. with claims up to Rs. 50,000, while details of claims exceeding that amount are to be presented for further directions.

ROHIT SHARMA VS S. RULDA SINGH [CS(OS)-120/2019]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The parties reached an amicable settlement regarding a property at B-7/65, Second Floor, Safdarjung Enclave, New Delhi. Rohit Sharma will pay Rs. 43 lakhs to Rulda Singh, who will relinquish all rights and share in the property. Probate of the Will dated 20th December, 2012, executed by late Ms. Nora Cagli in favor of Rohit Sharma, Davide Franchini, and the legal heirs of Vito Cagli was granted.

SAMBITA MEHTA VS SABITA BOSE AND ANR [CS(OS)-389/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

In Sambita Mehta v. Sabita Bose and Anr., the issue of whether the plaintiff's suit is barred by res judicata due to the dismissal of an earlier suit filed by the plaintiff's mother is being evaluated. A third defendant, Mr. Sanjay Sharma, has been impleaded as an alleged beneficiary under a will claimed to have been executed by the late Shri S.K. Bose. The lawyers for the defendants have been directed to appear and provide details regarding the current status of the property and relevant documents. The case is recognized as part of related matters with previous outcomes.

SAMEER PAUL CHAUDHARY & ORS. VS STATE & ORS. [TEST.CAS.-20/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The will of the late Ms. Susheila Chaudhury should be interpreted to reflect the testator's intention, which aimed to divide the sale proceeds of the property into seven shares. Letters of administration were granted to all beneficiaries named in the will, despite minor discrepancies between the names in the will and their Aadhaar cards. The focus was on upholding the testator's clear intention as conveyed in the will, notwithstanding some drafting errors.

SAURAV CHAUDHARY VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-IPD-9/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitioner's patent application was abandoned due to the negligence of the patent agent, who failed to inform the petitioner about the First Examination Report (FER) and the response deadline. This conduct was deemed professional misconduct. An inquiry against the patent agent is to be conducted, and a Code of Conduct for regulating patent and trademark agents is to be established. The abandonment order was set aside, and the patent office is to accept the petitioner's response to the FER and continue processing the patent application.

SBI CARDS AND PAYMENT SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS KONY INC. & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-127/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

An ex-parte ad-interim injunction was granted to SBI Cards and Payment Services Pvt. Ltd. to prevent respondents from disrupting its credit card services via licensed software. The license agreement stipulated a 12-month transition period requiring respondents to maintain operations during arbitration. Disruption to the petitioner's financial services could jeopardize customer data and transaction processing, necessitating interim protection.

SEEMA DAYAL & ORS. VS MALA MATHUR & ANR. [CS(OS)-700/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The four daughters of the late Dr. K.P. Mathur are each entitled to a one-fourth share of their father's assets. A Local Commissioner will assist in partitioning the assets, which include immovable property and various movable items such as bank accounts and fixed deposits. The parties agreed to withdraw their allegations against each other and decided against pursuing damages or rendering accounts. The Local Commissioner is tasked with submitting a report for a final decree.

SH SANJEEV SONI AND ANR VS SMT KAMLA KAPUR AND ORS [CS(OS)-606/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A preliminary decree for partition of property belonging to the late Smt. Phool Wanti Soni was issued, establishing shares for all parties except the heirs of late Smt. Santosh Palta, whose dispute remains unresolved. Parties are directed to mediate for an inter se purchase of the property; if unsuccessful, a Local Commissioner will be appointed. Proceeds from the shares of the heirs of late Smt. Santosh Palta will be deposited with the Registrar General.

SH SUNIL AHUJA & ANR. VS SH.PREM AHUJA & ORS. [CS(OS)-251/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The family settlement dated August 2, 2021, between the siblings is to be recognized and enforced. The settlement acknowledges their prior rights and claims, with no ongoing disputes. The parties are directed to comply fully with the terms of the settlement, including executing relevant documents, and a Local Commissioner is appointed to oversee the process.

SH. KULBHUSHAN CHAWLA AND ORS. VS SMT. VEENA CHAWLA AND ORS. [CS(OS)-2316/1996]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The parties resolved disputes regarding the partition and ownership of family property through a settlement agreement. Shares in the property were allocated as follows: Mr. Kulbhushan Chawla - 25%, Mr. Surinder Kumar - 20%, Mr. Sheel Kumar Chawla - 50%, and Ms. Veena Chawla - 5%. They agreed to sell the property with a base price of Rs. 23 crores, with the settlement terms deemed lawful.

SHAVIYA SHARMA VS SQUINT NEON & ORS. [CS(OS)-134/2024]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
Shaviya Sharma has a valid claim for the removal of objectionable tweets and the disclosure of the identities of the defendants who posted them. The issues of "doxing" and the balance between privacy rights and access to information were considered. Offensive and defamatory comments on social media were causing her professional and personal harm. Five objectionable tweets were ordered for removal along with the disclosure of the basic subscriber information of the defendants. Google was directed to reveal the details of the defendant responsible for the email address used to contact Sharma's employer.

SHEFALI KOHI VS NEENA CHATRATH & ANR. [CS(OS)-307/2022]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The delay in filing the written statement and affidavit of admission/denial was due to a clerical error and not intentional non-compliance. Filing the written statement within the extended 120-day period, even without the affidavit, is not considered a non-est filing. Therefore, the defense should not be struck off on procedural grounds, emphasizing the importance of deciding the dispute on its merits.

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA & ORS VS STATE & ANR [TEST.CAS.-50/2015]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The petition for probate of Ms. Phoolwati's will dated 16th December 2008 was disposed of following a settlement agreement signed on 30th November 2023. The agreement stipulates that the will shall not be acted upon, and the parties will jointly sell a property, sharing the proceeds equally. Additionally, the share of the deceased brother Rajneesh Kaushik will be allocated to his physically challenged brother Rakesh Kaushik, along with the shares of Naresh Kaushik and Vijaya Lakshmi. The terms of the settlement agreement are lawful and binding on all parties involved.

SHRI ANIL SETH & ANR. VS M/S MEGA CONSTRUCTION COMPANY & ORS. [ARB. A. (COMM.)-36/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The agreed terms recorded before the arbitrator on 8th January 2024 are binding on the parties. The Respondents are directed to hand over possession of the basement, second and third floors, and the terrace to the Appellants within one week. A local commissioner will oversee this process. The arbitration proceedings regarding claims and counterclaims will continue, with the potential for an amicable resolution. This matter is a batch case, and there is no referral to a larger bench.

SHRI ARJUN KANSAL VS SHRI AJIT SINGH BAGGA [CS(OS)-421/2020]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The plaintiff is entitled to recover Rs. 2.31 crores from the defendant, along with Rs. 46.5 lakhs for delayed payment, based on previously recorded settlement terms. The defendant admitted to receiving the amounts and the agreement to sell, lacking any valid defense. The total amount awarded includes 6% interest from the date the suit was initiated.

SHRI INDER PRAKASH SINGH VS SHRI RAJ MAHATIM SINGH & ORS [CS(OS)-2613/2015]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The family settlement deed dated 17th December 1999 is valid and binding, despite the Plaintiff's objections. Precedents indicate that oral family settlements do not require compulsory registration. The evidence, including the original deed, shows all three Defendants confirmed its terms, while the Plaintiff could not undermine its authenticity. The property is partitioned as follows: Defendant No. 1 owns the ground floor, Defendant No. 3 owns the basement, and the Plaintiff and Defendant No. 2 share joint ownership of 50% of the first floor and roof rights.

SHRI NEERAJ BHATIA VS SHRI RAVINDRA KUMAR BHATIA & ORS. [CS(OS)-210/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Reconstruction of the property at 'A-125 Defence Colony, New Delhi' is permitted under specific conditions. The plaintiff and defendant no. 5 lack sufficient evidence to prove the property is a joint Hindu family (HUF) asset. The senior citizen parents desire a resolution of the dispute during their lifetime. Issues to be addressed in the trial include the HUF status of the property since 1993, any oral partition in 1994, and the validity of a registered will from 1999 left by Mr. Balwant Lal Bhatia. A local commissioner has been appointed to facilitate evidence collection and expedite trial proceedings.

SHRI RAJINDER SINGH BEDI VS THE STATE & ORS [TEST.CAS.-100/2015]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The respondent (Respondent No. 5(a)) cannot present a forensic expert to compare signatures due to a failure to file a witness list for over 8 years and the completion of the petitioner's evidence. However, the documents attached to the affidavit by Respondent No. 5(a) may be marked as exhibits, and the petitioner can raise objections to these documents for future consideration.

SHWETA KHANDELWAL VS ANUBHA KHANDELWAL & ANR. [CS(OS)-258/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The three daughters of Mrs. Manju Khandelwal, Shweta Khandelwal, Anubha Khandelwal, and Shilpi Sudhir Khandelwal, are each entitled to one-third of their mother's estate, including properties specified in a will dated October 20, 2011 and other properties not mentioned in the will. A Local Commissioner has been appointed to assist in the division of the assets, either through physical distribution or valuation, and is authorized to take necessary steps for the sale of any properties if needed.

SMT HARBANS KAUR, W/O SHRI LIVELEEN SINGH VS M/S GURMARG APPLICANCES PVT LTD [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-346/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Smt. Harbans Kaur is recognized as the rightful proprietor of the "TANASHI" trademark, while Gurmarg Appliances Pvt. Ltd. is identified as merely a distributor of her products without independent rights to the trademark. The registration of the "TANASHI" mark by the defendant is subject to cancellation. An injunction prevents the defendant and its associates from using the "TANASHI" trademark or any similar marks. The defendant's petition to cancel the plaintiff's trademark registration has been dismissed.

SRF LIMITED VS JONSON RUBBER INDUSTRIES LIMITED [ARB.P.-854/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The arbitration clause in the invoices issued by SRF Ltd. is valid because Jonson Rubber Industries Ltd. acknowledged the invoices through part payments. The "Jurisdiction for Arbitration/Dispute" clause in the purchase orders further confirmed the parties' intention to refer disputes to arbitration. Objections to the existence of a valid arbitration agreement were rejected, leading to a referral to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre for the appointment of an arbitrator.

SMT JATINDER KAUR AND ORS VS LATE SH JAGJIT SINGH AND ORS [ARB.P.-1167/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petitioners' application for a new sole arbitrator was timely and within the 3-year limitation period, as established in a relevant Supreme Court decision. The original arbitrator and the respondent had both passed away during the COVID-19 pandemic. Given a valid arbitration clause in the agreement, Justice R.S. Endlaw (Retd.) was appointed as the new sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. Additionally, there was a restriction on creating any third-party interest in the subject property until the petitioners filed an appropriate application under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act with the new arbitrator.

SMT NISHI HANDA VS SMT MANJU KANWAR [CS(OS)-572/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Will dated 21st December, 1978 of Mr. R.P. Barman clearly designates the property at Plot No. N-83, Panchshila Park, New Delhi, with Nishi Handa owning the front portion, including the terrace, and Manju Kanwar owning the back portion, including the terrace. Mutations by the DDA and the South Delhi Municipal Corporation, which incorrectly recorded the Plaintiff's share as 2/3rd, are recalled. Each party is declared an owner of 50% of the property and may apply for conversion of the leasehold to freehold, sharing associated expenses. There is a right of first refusal for either party wishing to sell their 50% share, and they may bid for each other's shares if interested in acquiring the entire property. All disputes between the parties have been settled with this decision.

SMT. AMRIT KAUR VS THE STATE [TEST.CAS.-10/1996]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The Fourth Will dated 7th November 1994 was found to be invalidly executed and forged. The registered Third Will dated 18th October 1993 and the handwritten Codicil dated 21st August 1994 were identified as the Testator's last valid testamentary documents. Evidence showed a positive relationship between the Testator and his son, Mr. Manmohan Singh Vohra, with no credible claims of ill-treatment. The testimony of the Court clerk, Mr. Ram Pershad Rohtagi, was deemed credible, supporting the legitimacy of the earlier Wills and Codicil. The Petitioners' testamentary petition was dismissed, and the interim order preventing Mr. Manmohan Singh Vohra from selling the property was vacated.

SMT. MAHIMA KAUSHIK VS MRS. NEERA KAUSHIK & ANR. [CS(OS)-535/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Mahima Kaushik, Neera Kaushik, and Manu Kaushik are recognized as the sole legal heirs of Narendra Prakash Kaushik, with each owning 1/3rd of his movable and immovable assets. Following the appointment of a local commissioner for property division, the parties reached an amicable resolution, with the defendants agreeing to pay Mahima a settlement of Rs. 6.18 crores within 90 days. In return, Mahima relinquished all claims to the assets, resulting in a full and final settlement of their disputes.

SOMA ENTERPRISE LTD. VS ENVIRO GEOSYNTHETICS PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-14/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition by Soma Enterprise Ltd. challenging an arbitration award dated September 28, 2021, was dismissed as barred by limitation. It was filed beyond the mandatory 30-day deadline under Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, despite the exclusion of the period from March 15, 2020, to February 28, 2022, due to COVID-19. The limitation period under Section 34 is considered strict and non-condonable. The amount deposited by Soma Enterprise Ltd. will be released to Enviro Geosynthetics Pvt. Ltd. after deducting TDS on the interest component.

STARTUPWALA PRIVATE LIMITED VS GOOGLE INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-96/2024]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The arbitration clause in the Google Advertising Program Terms, requiring arbitration in Santa Clara County, California, raises concerns about effective legal remedies in India. Advertisements currently labeled as "Eligible (limited)" must not be blocked or taken down until the next hearing, provided their content remains unchanged. A response from the respondent is awaited with the next hearing scheduled for April 22, 2024.

SUMAN SAPRA VS ROSY DABAS & ORS [EX.P.-121/2015]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
Ms. Suman Sapra and her son, Mr. Gaurav Sapra, do not have any rights or interests in Flat no. C-701, Chitrakoot Dham, CGHS, which belongs to Ms. Rosy Dabas. The ownership declaration will be updated in the records. Ms. Suman Sapra undertook to vacate the property at E-3/3, Vasant Vihar, New Delhi by 26th April, 2024.

SUN PHARMA LABORATORIES LTD. VS DABUR INDIA LTD. & ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-146/2022]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The time limit in the Trade Marks Rules for filing evidence in opposition proceedings is mandatory. The evolution of the Rules from 1959 to 2017 indicates a clear legislative intent to impose strict timelines to prevent delays in trade mark registration. The discretion of the Registrar to extend this time period has diminished, with no further extensions allowed beyond the two-month period. The Registrar must decide the opposition proceedings on merits, with remedies for the parties remaining open.

SWASTIK PIPE LTD VS MR. ROHIT SHARMA SOLE PROPRIETOR, M/S. STAR INDUSTRIES [ARB.P.-1256/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The arbitration clause in the tax invoices exchanged between Swastik Pipe Ltd. and Mr. Rohit Sharma, Sole Proprietor of M/s. Star Industries, is binding. Mr. Karandeep Singh Rekhi has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes related to non-payment for the purchase of Cold Rolled Strips. If disputes remain unresolved through mediation, the parties must appear before the appointed arbitrator on a specified date.

SWASTIK PIPE LTD VS MR. SANJEEV SEHGAL PROPRIETOR OF M/S. RADIANT INDUSTRIES [ARB.P.-1258/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The arbitration clause in the tax invoices issued by Swastik Pipe Ltd is binding on Sanjeev Sehgal. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Karandeep Singh Rekhi, is appointed to adjudicate the disputes. Parties are directed to attempt mediation at the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre before the arbitrator proceeds.

SWASTIK PIPE LTD VS RAHUL SACHDEVA SOLE PROPRIETOR, M/S V.K. PIPE TRADERS [ARB.P.-1257/2023]
Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh
The arbitration clause in the tax invoices exchanged between the parties is binding. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Karandeep Singh Rekhi, has been appointed to adjudicate the dispute regarding non-payment for HRPO Coils. Parties must appear before the arbitrator on July 23, 2024, if mediation fails to resolve the disputes. Related arbitration petitions are also referred to mediation.

SWASTIK PIPE LTD VS SHREE CHAITNYA INDUSTRIES [ARB.P.-1255/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The arbitration clause in the tax invoices exchanged between the parties is binding. Mr. Karandeep Singh Rekhi is appointed as the sole arbitrator, with a fee of Rs. 75,000 to be shared equally by both parties. Mediation will continue at the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, and if unresolved, the appointed arbitrator will proceed with the reference.

SWASTIK PIPE LTD. VS MR. SACHINAV ARORA PROPRIETOR OF ROOHANI ENGG. WORKS [ARB.P.-1254/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The arbitration clause in the tax invoices exchanged between Swastik Pipe Ltd. and Sachinav Arora is binding, as previous judgments validate such clauses without the need for full terms and conditions. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Karandeep Singh Rekhi, has been appointed to resolve disputes over non-payment for Cold Rolled Strips. The parties have been encouraged to seek mediation before the arbitrator acts, and the order will be served to the absent respondent.

TATA SONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS M/S ELECTRO INTERNATIONAL & ORS. [CS(COMM)-293/2021]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The main legal issues involve the implementation of court orders by domain name registrars, adherence by banks to a Standard Operating Procedure for sharing information with law enforcement, and the RBI's activation of a "Beneficiary's Name Lookup Facility" for RTGS and NEFT transactions to combat cyber fraud. The Indian Banks Association must confirm the circulation and compliance of the SOP among banks. The RBI is required to promptly activate the Beneficiary's Name Lookup Facility. GoDaddy needs to report on its services relevant to court order implementation. Further hearings are scheduled for January and February 2025.

TEAM FRANCE 01 S A S VS SPICEJET LIMITED [CS(COMM)-908/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Plaintiffs Team France 01 S.A.S and Sunbird France 02 S.A.S allow defendant SpiceJet Limited to use aircraft engines under an interim arrangement requiring specific payments. The agreement includes a total of $4.8 million payable in four installments and weekly payments of $160,000 for rent and maintenance. Failure to make payments will require SpiceJet to ground and return the engines, unless directed otherwise. Outstanding rent amounts are subject to reconciliation, with the arrangement in effect until September 2024.

TECHNICAL CONSTRUCTION COMPANY VS ENGINEERING PROJECT (INDIA) LIMITED [ARB.P.-510/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition by Technical Construction Company for the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is not barred by limitation. Engineering Project (India) Limited acknowledged liability in writing on February 22, 2023, creating a fresh cause of action under Section 18 of the Limitation Act, 1963. This case differs from earlier Supreme Court decisions cited by the respondent, which lacked an express acknowledgment of liability. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve the dispute.

THE HERSHEY COMPANY VS DILIP KUMAR BACHA, TRADING AS SHREE GANESH NAMKEEN & ANR [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-179/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The issues raised in the current matters require consideration by a larger Bench due to potential inapplicability of the decision in Girdhari Lal Gupta v. K. Gian Chand Jain, regarding the Trade Marks Act, 1999 as amended by the Tribunal Reforms Act, 2021. Key questions include the applicability of the previous decision under the Designs Act for determining the High Court's jurisdiction under the Trade Marks Act, whether such jurisdiction is based on the appropriate office of the Trade Marks Registry that granted the impugned registration, and the interpretation of 'the High Court' in specific sections of the Trade Marks Act. Petitions were directed to the Acting Chief Justice for the formation of a larger Bench to address these questions and any additional related issues.

TWC AVIATION CAPITAL LIMITED VS SPICEJET LIMITED [CS(COMM)-285/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Orders passed by the UK court in favor of TWC Aviation Capital Limited are enforceable in India under Sections 13 and 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure. TWC Aviation's application for interim relief was granted, requiring SpiceJet Limited to maintain the status quo regarding the aircraft frames and engines. TWC Aviation's officials are permitted to inspect the aircraft frames. SpiceJet is to provide a report on the usage of the aircraft and engines since the lease agreement's termination and indicate how it plans to compensate or return the engines to TWC Aviation.

TWC AVIATION CAPITAL LIMITED VS SPICEJET LIMITED [CS(COMM)-285/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Orders passed by the UK Court are enforceable in India under Sections 13 and 44A of the Civil Procedure Code, as the UK Court is considered competent under the agreement between the parties. The defendant failed to make required payments and breached the lease agreement. The balance of convenience favors the plaintiff in securing possession of the aircraft and engines to prevent further damage. The defendant is required to hand over the aircraft, engines, and all relevant records to the plaintiff by a specified date.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS M/S POPULATION SERVICES INTERNATIONAL [O.M.P. (COMM)-19/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition from the Union of India and the National AIDS Control Organization (NACO) challenging an arbitral award in favor of M/s Population Services International (PSI) was dismissed due to a delay exceeding 800 days, far beyond the statutory limit of 3 months plus 30 days. The delay resulted from negligence in handling the matter by government officials. As a result of this delay, the petition was deemed non-maintainable, and the merits of the case were not considered. The Director General of NACO and the Secretary of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare were to be notified of this decision.

VIJAY KUMAR AHIR VS SURINDER AHIR & ORS [CS(OS)-267/2015]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Defendant No. 5's application to withdraw her previous written statement and submit a new one was dismissed. The claim of misrepresentation and undue influence was found unconvincing, as the written statement had been jointly filed with Defendant No. 4, who confirmed Defendant No. 5's awareness of its contents. With the trial already underway, allowing the amendment was deemed likely to prejudice Defendants Nos. 1 and 2. The decision emphasized that the ability to amend written statements is contingent on potential prejudice or injustice present in the case.

VIKAS CHANDER VS STATE AND ORS [TEST.CAS.-16/2022]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Probate of the last will and testament of Mrs. Manorama Dhawal was granted in favor of her son, Mr. Vikas Chander. The jointly filed valuation report of the testatrix's assets was accepted, excluding book debts at the petitioner's request. Exemption from furnishing a surety bond was granted, as beneficiaries are direct descendants of the testatrix. No objections were raised by the respondents, who include the testatrix's daughter and grandchildren, eliminating the need for further evidence.

VIPIN MALIK & ANR. VS PACL INDIA LTD. & ORS. [EX.P.-17/2020]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

Decree holders Vipin Malik and M/s. Vipin Malik HUF are entitled to recover Rs. 2,14,36,537 with 12% interest per annum from judgment debtors PACL India Ltd. and Mr. Gurmeet Singh. The known assets of the judgment debtors are under the control of the Lodha Committee, which is limited to selling PACL's properties for refunding investors and cannot make payments to the decree holders. The execution petition was disposed of, allowing the decree holders to pursue other remedies, including approaching the Supreme Court.

VIVEK AGGARWAL AND ANR. VS MR HEMANT AGGARWAL & ORS. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-29/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

A one-year extension of the sole arbitrator's mandate was granted under Section 29A(4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The respondents contested the petition, alleging violations of previous court orders by the arbitrator. The scope of the Section 29A petition focused solely on whether to grant the extension, while grievances about the arbitrator's conduct were deemed outside its purview. The respondents had also filed a separate application challenging the arbitrator's impartiality, which was not addressed in this proceeding. The arbitrator was directed to minimize unnecessary adjournments.

WAPCOS LIMITED VS VIRGO AQUA [O.M.P. (COMM)-132/2023]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The arbitral award by the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council (MSEFC) against WAPCOS Limited was upheld. The proceedings followed Section 18 of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, allowing a transition from conciliation to arbitration after conciliation failed. The requirement to deposit 75% of the awarded amount as mandated by Section 19 of the MSMED Act is necessary before challenging the MSEFC award under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

WINZO GAMES PRIVATE LIMITED VS HIKE GLOBAL PTE. LTD. AND ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-144/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The dispute between WinZO Games Pvt. Ltd. and Hike Global Pte. Ltd. along with its Indian subsidiary, Hike Private Limited, is referred to arbitration in Delhi under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, with a sole arbitrator appointed. Both parties must submit the source code of their respective apps and the algorithm in a sealed cover for the arbitrator's review. Individual respondents, former WinZO employees, are excluded from the proceedings, while the potential inclusion of Hike Private Limited remains for the arbitrator's consideration under the 'Group of Companies' doctrine.

ZANGAS-KPTL CONSORTIUM VS GAIL INDIA LTD. [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-20/2024]

Judges: Justice Prathiba M. Singh

The petition by the Zangas-KPTL Consortium for the appointment of a substitute arbitrator under Section 15 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, is maintainable. The original arbitrator, Justice R.C. Chopra (Retd.), recused himself due to medical reasons, and no fees had been paid to him. Justice G.P. Mathur (Retd.) has been appointed as the new sole arbitrator to handle the disputes. The parties are required to deposit an additional Rs. 5 lakhs for the final hearing and award pronouncement.

RAGHUBIR SINGH (DECEASED THROUGH LRS) MONTU BATRA & ORS. VS SH. UTTAM SINGH BAL (NOW DECEASED AND REPRESENTED BY) THROUGH SMT SUSHMA BAL & ORS. [RSA-179/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeals filed by the tenants were dismissed, affirming the lower courts' findings that the landlords were the rightful owners of the property in Khasra No. 27, and the appellants were their tenants. The appellants' claim that the shops were in the acquired Khasra No. 26 conflicted with their own admissions regarding their tenancy with the landlords' predecessors. Once the landlord-tenant relationship was established, the tenant could not dispute the landlord's title under Section 116 of the Evidence Act. The concurrent findings of the lower courts did not present a clear error of law, leading to the dismissal of the appeals.

M/S RAHUL ASSOCIATES & ANR VS M/S BMS ENTERPRISES & ANR [RFA-99/2014]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by M/s Rahul Associates and Rahul Mathur against the judgment favoring M/s BMS Enterprises and Balbir Singh was dismissed. The Trial Court correctly identified respondent-plaintiff No. 1 as a proprietorship firm based on bank certification, not an unregistered partnership, as the term "partner" in the agreement lacked conclusive impact. Additionally, the attempt by the appellants to introduce new evidence was rejected due to insufficient exceptional circumstances. Overall, the Trial Court's judgment was upheld as sound and unassailable.

BIRBAL SAINI VS SATYAWATI [RSA-196/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The suit property is classified as the self-acquired property of the plaintiff's father, not ancestral property. The plaintiff has the right to inherit and transfer this property. Inheritance under the Hindu Succession Act does not create coparcenary rights. The appeal by the defendant was dismissed due to the absence of a substantial question of law.

PRINCE VS MOHINDER YADAV [RSA-201/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The judgment and decree of the first Appellate Court were upheld, dismissing the second appeal from the appellant-defendant. The lower courts' decisions were well-reasoned, addressing predominantly factual issues and straightforward applications of established legal principles. No substantial question of law was identified for this appeal.

OM PRAKASH VS JOGINDER SOLANKI AND ORS [RSA-113/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The landlord's increase of rent from Rs. 3,500 to Rs. 3,850 per month was upheld as valid due to proper service of a 30-day notice under the Delhi Rent Control Act. The tenant's claims regarding the suit's maintainability and improper notice service were rejected, as evidence showed the tenant had deliberately evaded notice service. The tenant's appeal was dismissed, supporting the trial court and first appellate court's findings.

DR. DEEPAK SURESH KUMAR & ANR. VS ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8943/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The denial of admission to meritorious petitioner doctors in super speciality courses at AIIMS was found invalid due to unclear eligibility criteria in the information bulletin regarding the completion of the postgraduate course within three calendar years. AIIMS failed to clarify this requirement, creating a legitimate expectation for the petitioners. Poor coordination between AIIMS and PGIMER Chandigarh in handling the case was also noted. The provisional admission granted to the petitioners was confirmed, as denying admission to qualified candidates who were not at fault would be unjust. The decision addressed issues from two writ petitions in a common judgment.

J.K. LAKSHMI CEMENT LTD VS MANISH GUALTI & ORS. [RSA-3/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The batch of second appeals filed by J.K. Lakshmi Cement Ltd. was dismissed. The lease agreement did not include provisions for automatic renewal after the initial 3-year term, requiring the execution of a fresh lease deed for renewal. The concurrent findings of the lower courts regarding termination of tenancy, calculation of mesne profits, and arguments based on Section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act were upheld. The scope of interference in second appeals is limited to substantial questions of law, without reappreciation of factual findings unless they are perverse or misread the evidence.

NETRA PRAKASH SHARMA VS RAKESH DHAWAN [EX.F.A.-15/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The pendency of a civil suit among family members of the decree-holder does not impact eviction proceedings or the execution of the decree against the tenant. The dispute between family members is irrelevant to the landlord-tenant relationship and the previously issued valid eviction order. The appeals by the tenant have been dismissed, as the tenant cannot delay execution based on a civil suit in which they are not a party. Objections to the execution had already been rejected in prior revision petitions.

MOHD SAJID VS SALEEM AHMAD AND ORS [RSA-21/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Delhi Rent Control (DRC) Act does not apply to tenanted property in Ghonda Chauhan Bangar due to the absence of a notification extending its applicability to that area. Evidence, including gazette notifications and witness testimonies, established that Ghonda Chauhan Bangar is a separate revenue estate from the village of Ghonda and has not been notified under the DRC Act. The lower court decisions were supported by the facts and evidence presented, leading to the dismissal of the second appeal by the appellant/defendant.

AMRIT PAL KAUR & ORS VS HARCHARAN SINGH JOSH [RFA-71/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The suit for possession filed by the plaintiff was deemed maintainable despite the absence of a partition prayer, as the property was leasehold and its superstructure already divided into two parts. The plaintiff established title and ownership through documentary evidence, supplemented by sufficient oral evidence indicating an informal partition or family settlement regarding the property's occupation. The evidence favored the plaintiff's case. The appeal was dismissed, and the trial court's decision in favor of the plaintiff was upheld, with litigation costs awarded to the plaintiff.

ARYANS COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14153/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

A part of the cause of action arose within Delhi's jurisdiction due to the location of the appellate authority, but the essential facts of the case originated outside this jurisdiction. The application of the doctrine of 'forum conveniens' led to a decision not to exercise jurisdiction, directing the petitioner college to approach the appropriate high court. There is a caution against parties seeking jurisdiction solely based on the location of some authorities, as this could result in concentrated jurisdiction and judicial inconsistency.

DEVASIA THOMAS & ANR VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR [W.P.(C)-7941/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The writ jurisdiction under Article 226 can address compensation claims for violations of the right to life. In this case, disputed facts regarding the negligence of BYPL and GNCTD in maintaining electrical infrastructure led to the electrocution of the petitioners' son. Evidence does not sufficiently establish sole responsibility of the statutory authorities for the incident, which is necessary for applying res ipsa loquitur. Nonetheless, BYPL was directed to provide an ex-gratia compensation of ₹10,00,000/- to the petitioners, allowing them to pursue further legal remedies in civil court.

NILENDER PRAKASH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [RFA-538/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appellant is not liable to pay 50% of the 'unearned increase' for converting leasehold property to freehold, based on the government's 1992 policy that exempts such payments. Previous interpretations of this policy support this position. The respondents must refund the 'unearned increase' amount paid by the appellant, along with interest.

SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ANR VS DIRECTOR GENERAL INDIAN COUNCIL OF FORESTRY RESEARCH & EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-7438/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The property of the Indian Council of Forestry Research & Education (ICFRE), which offers transit accommodation to officials and scientists at nominal charges between Rs. 75 and Rs. 250 per day, is not classified as a "lodge/guest house" for property tax purposes. The property is subject to the lower "public purpose" tax rate due to its inherently public benefit activities, despite the modest rental charges. The assessment order by the South Delhi Municipal Corporation was set aside.

NITIN KUMAR VS JAGAT SINGH [RFA-22/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The dismissal of the plaintiff's suit for recovery of earnest money was upheld due to the plaintiff's father, acting as the SPA holder, lacking personal knowledge of the transaction and being deemed incompetent to testify on the plaintiff's behalf. The plaintiff's failure to appear as a witness led to an adverse inference, resulting in the inability to prove the case. Consequently, the issues of forfeiture of earnest money and the necessity of a sale deed were not addressed, and the appeal was dismissed.

OM PRAKASH VS SHEESH RAM @ SHEESH PAL (SINCE DECEASED) & ORS [RFA-47/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appellant/plaintiff proved the existence of an agreement to sell, demonstrated readiness to comply with its terms, and established default by the respondents. Respondent/defendant No. 2 was deemed not a bona fide purchaser due to awareness of the prior agreement with respondent/defendant No. 1. The civil suit was decreed in favor of the appellant/plaintiff, leading to a directive for the execution of the sale deed in his favor.

MANAGING COMMITTEE, MASJID SYED FAIZ ELAHI (REGD.) VS DELHI WAQF BOARD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10210/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Delhi Waqf Board's demand of Rs. 55,44,194.40 includes both a 7% waqf contribution and an agreed 13% donation from the petitioner's managing committee. This committee had previously agreed to pay 33% of its monthly income, later modified to 20% (7% and 13%) per annum in a 2014 Board Resolution. The petitioner is required to deposit 50% of the demand within 30 days and continue quarterly deposits of the 13% donation, while the full demand's recovery is stayed until the matter is resolved. Observations made are not comments on the case's merits.

RESIDENT WELFARE ASSOCIATION 12 BLOCK SUBHASH NAGAR VS KISHAN DEVNANI EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10646/2021]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The writ petition filed by the Resident Welfare Association was dismissed due to the presence of disputed questions of fact regarding the construction and ownership of a boundary wall, as well as alleged encroachments. Resolving these issues would require detailed evidence examination, not suitable for writ jurisdiction. Alternative legal remedies are available to the petitioner, including actions under Section 152 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, involvement of the Special Task Force, or filing a civil suit. The petitioner retains the right to pursue appropriate legal remedies.

RAJNEESH KUMAR SHARMA VS JAGANNATH SHARMA (DECEASED) THR LRS & ORS [RFA-747/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The case revolves around a dispute involving contract enforcement and interpretation. The parties presented arguments related to the terms of the contract and the obligations therein. Evidence was presented regarding the actions taken by both sides in relation to the contract, including any breaches and attempts at remediation. The decision emphasized the importance of contract clarity and the consequences of failing to adhere to established terms.

SHUBHA BHATTACHARYA AND ANR VS SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION [W.P.(C)-184/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The writ petition challenging the demand for property tax arrears by the South Delhi Municipal Corporation was dismissed. Current property owners are liable for 17 years of accrued tax arrears, as property tax is a first charge under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act. The liability remains with the current owner regardless of when the property was acquired. This was a single-judge decision with no separate judgments or references to a larger bench.

RATUL PURI VS BANK OF BARODA [W.P.(C)-4128/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The declaration of Ratul Puri as a wilful defaulter by the Bank of Baroda was deemed unsustainable due to the reliance on a forensic audit report without an independent assessment of intentionality as required by the RBI's guidelines. The Bank's later characterization of Puri's investments during corporate debt restructuring as fund diversion was inconsistent, given its prior acknowledgment of those investments. Additionally, the borrower company was classified under a scheme that did not suggest fund diversion, and a forensic audit was not conducted before restructuring approval. The ruling emphasizes the necessity for banks to adhere to the safeguards in the RBI guidelines and undertake thorough assessments when declaring wilful defaults.

RATUL PURI VS BANK OF BARODA [W.P.(C)-4181/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Bank of Baroda incorrectly declared Ratul Puri a wilful defaulter under the RBI's guidelines. Investments made by Moser Baer India Limited (MBIL) in its subsidiaries were financed through internal accruals, not borrowed funds, as acknowledged in the bank's own Final Restructuring Scheme. The bank had full knowledge of these investments from MBIL's audited financial statements and discussions during the Corporate Debt Restructuring process, without raising objections. The bank's committees did not consider the petitioner's explanation regarding the source of funds or the timing of write-offs after his resignation as director. This lack of thorough examination and disregard for pertinent facts rendered the declaration unsustainable, leading to its quashing.

RATUL PURI VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-9491/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Punjab National Bank's declaration of Ratul Puri as a wilful defaulter under the RBI's Master Circular was deemed unsustainable. The bank did not independently establish that the petitioner's actions constituted "wilful default" as required, relying solely on a Forensic Audit Report, which was insufficient as conclusive proof of fund diversion. It was noted that the bank was aware of the transactions during the Corporate Debt Restructuring and did not raise concerns at that time. The order declaring Puri as a wilful defaulter was quashed.

BHOORA MOHAMMAD VS KHAKASHA BANO & ORS [RSA-240/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appellant's suit for declaration and possession of the property was dismissed due to inability to prove essential facts, including the loan transaction and allegations of document fabrication. While the respondents do not have complete ownership rights, they possess certain rights over the property under the Transfer of Property Act and the Indian Contract Act. The dismissal confirmed that no substantial question of law was presented, with the appellant effectively seeking a re-evaluation of factual findings.

CENTRAL WAREHOUSING CORPORATION VS BRIG R P S SHERGIL (RETD) SHAURYA CHAKRA [RFA-482/2015]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by the Central Warehousing Corporation against Brig. R.P.S. Shergil was dismissed. Brig. R.P.S. Shergil's suit for recovery of interest on withheld amounts was not barred by limitation, as the cause of action arose when the principal amount was released without paying the accrued interest. The Central Warehousing Corporation was not justified in withholding amounts from Shergil's bills, as contractual terms did not allow such deductions, and advice from the Directorate General of Resettlement supported releasing the withheld amount. The lower court's decision in favor of Shergil was upheld.

D.V. SINGH VS USHA JAIN [RFA-486/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The dismissal of the plaintiff's defamation suit against the defendant was upheld. The defendant's statements made during proceedings before the Registrar of Cooperative Societies were protected by absolute privilege due to their quasi-judicial nature. The plaintiff failed to provide evidence that the alleged defamatory statements were communicated to a third party, which is necessary for a defamation claim. The arguments presented by the plaintiff lacked merit.

DEVADARSINI UMAPATHY VS MEDICAL COUNSELLING COMMITTEE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12263/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Supreme Court's decision in Anushka v. Union of India does not restrict OCI cardholders who obtained their cards before March 4, 2021, to the Indian National Category; they can also be classified under the Foreign National Category. The notification issued by AIIMS on August 21, 2024, is clarificatory and does not amend the original admission brochure-prospectus. While ambiguity existed between AIIMS and the Medical Counselling Committee, the final clarification aligns with prior Supreme Court judgments. The petitions were dismissed due to no illegality in the admission process or the notification. However, AIIMS was advised to improve diligence and clarity in its admission policies to prevent future disputes.

GEETA DEVI VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-860/2012]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The High Court of Delhi acknowledged the ability to award compensation for violations of fundamental rights but concluded that the state authorities (MCD) were not solely responsible for the incident occurring in the petitioner's private residence, where contradictions in her account were noted. The responsibility for care primarily lay with the petitioner and her family, as the MCD's duty did not extend to private premises. Despite this, an ex-gratia compensation of R.S. 2,50,000 was granted to the petitioner, with the option to seek further remedies in civil court. The need for a balanced and compassionate approach to managing the stray dog issue in Delhi was also emphasized.

GOVIND YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2137/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The functions of the Election Commission of India under Section 29A of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 are quasi-judicial but limited to specific requirements in the Act. The ECI cannot adjudicate the validity of a political party's internal elections or adherence to its constitution. Its authority is confined to disputes where rival factions claim to represent a recognized political party, excluding internal disputes over office bearer selection. The dispute involving the internal elections of the Janata Dal United party falls outside the ECI's jurisdiction under Section 29A, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

GURPREET SINGH & ORS VS SUNIL DUTT & ANR [RFA-220/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by the appellants/defendants challenging the trial court's judgment in favor of the respondents/plaintiffs was dismissed. The appellants/defendants failed to establish ownership of the property through adverse possession, presenting inconsistent claims about the original owner and not proving the precise date their possession became hostile. Changes in ownership of the property were not accounted for in their claim, and the legal requirements for proving adverse possession were not met.

GYAN MANGAT & ORS VS SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION & ANR [W.P.(C)-11338/2015]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The right of way (RoW) for Gurudwara Road is determined to include the carriageway, shoulder, drains, and footpaths, totaling 13 meters, which aligns with the Master Plan of Delhi 2021 for commercial activities. The term "Right of Way" lacks a definition in MPD 2021 and other regulations, necessitating interpretation from existing urban planning statutes. Valid permissions for commercial activities, including a hotel/guest house and a bank, were granted and not challenged, preventing interference with those activities. The writ petition was dismissed, with the option for petitioners to approach the competent authority regarding any rule violations.

HARSH VARDHAN BANSAL VS EAST DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-13465/2021]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The classification of the petitioners' properties as "Super Commercial Properties" by the Municipal Valuation Committee-III under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957, is upheld based on reasonable criteria, including location in integrated commercial complexes and increased commercial activity. The argument against this classification regarding the principle of reasonable classification under Article 14 of the Constitution is rejected. The validity of the Commissioner's power to re-open property tax assessments under Section 123D of the Act remains unaddressed, and petitioners are directed to pursue the statutory appeal against assessment orders. Additionally, the issue of the DMRC's liability to pay property tax is pending in separate proceedings.

INDER PAL BHATIA VS NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL COPORATION [RFA-193/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

Om Prakash Bhatia, as the holder of a General Power of Attorney (GPA) from Inder Pal Bhatia, was authorized to file a civil suit on his behalf. The GPA explicitly allowed the holder to sign and present various legal documents, which included the authority to institute the suit. Previous case law supported the interpretation that the power to sign a plaint encompasses the power to initiate a suit. The trial court's dismissal of the suit was overturned, and the matter was returned for fresh consideration. The requirement of a Special Power of Attorney instead of a GPA was deemed unnecessary, as a GPA can provide broader powers.

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND ANR VS INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-6350/2012]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

IGNOU lacked the legal authority to enter into a Memorandum of Collaboration (MoC) with the petitioners for face-to-face master's degree programs, as these programs fell outside the scope of IGNOU's Act and required AICTE approval. The MoC did not cover the 2009 batch of students, and the Joint Coordination Committee (JCC) had no power to expand its scope. The petitioners' argument based on "negative equality" was dismissed, leading to the dismissal of their writ petition.

JAIN COOPERATIVE BANK LTD VS BSA CITI COURIERS PVT. LTD [RSA-72/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by the defendant bank against the judgments favoring the plaintiff courier company was dismissed. The plaintiff successfully proved its case through invoices and relevant documents, while the defendant provided no evidence of service deficiencies or non-delivery. The findings of the lower courts were supported by the evidence and adhered to legal principles. The defendant bank was directed to pay the plaintiff Rs. 1,76,128/- along with interest.

JAS RAM THROUGH ASSIGNEES VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH LAC [EX.F.A.-9/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The execution petition filed by the assignees under Section 146 and Order 22 Rule 16 of the Code of Civil Procedure is maintainable, despite the decree favoring the assignors. The objections from the Union of India regarding the petition's maintainability are rejected since the assignees possess valid claims through registered Assignment Deeds. Reliance on factual inconsistencies by the Executing Court to dismiss the petition is seen as erroneous, as the registered Assignment Deeds are presumed legal. The Executing Court is directed to proceed with the execution case accordingly.

KUNWER SACHDEV VS 1 IDBI BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10599/2021]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Committee of Creditors (CoC) holds significant importance in the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP), with its "commercial wisdom" prioritized under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). The need for a code of conduct or guidelines to regulate the CoC's operations was recognized, emphasizing fairness and natural justice in decision-making, while maintaining respect for its commercial wisdom. The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (IBBI) has been directed to develop these guidelines promptly.

LALLU RAM VS MANJU DEVI & ANR. [RSA-240/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appellant's arguments regarding discrepancies in the property description did not present a substantial question of law. The plaintiff established ownership through a registered sale deed and a tenancy relationship. Minor inconsistencies in the property description were considered clerical errors and did not affect the plaintiff's case. Objections to the evidentiary value of certain documents lacked merit, as they had been properly exhibited without prior objections. The second appeal was dismissed, affirming the lower courts' findings.

M/S HARDAT RAI PARSHOTAM DASS & ANR VS M/S ROOP LAL & SONS & ORS [RSA-85/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The relationship between the parties was classified as a license rather than a lease, based on the language and intention evident in the license deed. Consequently, the restrictions under Section 19 of the Slums (Improvement and Clearance) Act, 1956 were deemed inapplicable. The findings of the lower courts were upheld, emphasizing the difficulty of overturning such findings in second appeals unless they are perverse or raise a substantial question of law.

M/S KALYANI (INDIA) PRIVATE LIMITED VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK THROUGH ITS CHIEF MANAGER & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2829/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The auction took place on an "as is where is" basis, but the bank had a duty to disclose all encumbrances and pending litigations related to the property. The bank was aware of these issues and did not inform the petitioner, an innocent auction purchaser. Consequently, the bank must refund the stamp duty and property tax paid by the petitioner, along with interest at 8% per annum from the date of deposit until the refund is made. The principle of caveat venditor applies more strongly than caveat emptor in this scenario, highlighting the bank's obligation to maintain fairness and transparency in the transaction. The bank is required to comply within specified timelines.

MEENU NANDA & ANR VS KARTAR SINGH KOCHAR [RFA-835/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal filed by Smt. Meenu Nanda and Sh. Kamaljeet Singh Nanda was allowed, and the trial court's judgment favoring Sh. Kartar Singh Kochar was set aside. The appellants proved the due execution of the Will dated 10.12.2007 by Smt. Satnam Kaur in favor of Smt. Meenu Nanda, satisfying the requirements under the Indian Succession Act and the Indian Evidence Act. Testimonies from the attesting witnesses were found to be consistent and credible, with the respondent failing to present any suspicious circumstances. The severance of legal heirs from the property in the Will was not deemed suspicious, especially considering the care provided by the beneficiary to the testator. The appeal was allowed, and the respondent's suit was dismissed.

MTNL STAFF UNION CLASS III & IV (REGD.) VS MAHANAGAR TELEPHONE NIGAM LIMITED AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3577/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The writ petition filed by the MTNL Staff Union Class III & IV seeking a secret ballot verification of trade union membership is not maintainable. The Code of Discipline (CoD) governing the verification process is a voluntary agreement without statutory backing, and the recognition of trade unions by MTNL does not involve a public function. The petition is dismissed, and the parties are free to seek redressal through the appropriate forum.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI VS GURBACHAN KAUR & ORS [RFA-420/2011]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) was found liable for the death caused by an attack from a stray cow, due to its failure to maintain public streets and control stray cattle. The findings of negligence and causation were supported by sufficient evidence. The MCD's appeal was dismissed, and R.S. 4,80,000 in compensation was awarded to the dependents of the deceased.

MUNNA & ORS. VS M.C.D. [W.P.(C)-4202/2008]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

A writ petition for compensation was accepted regarding the death of a minor son due to negligence by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD). The principle of res ipsa loquitur was applied, indicating presumed negligence in maintaining safety, leading to a slab/lantern falling and causing the death. Compensation of Rs. 10,00,000 and simple interest at 6% per annum from the date of death until realization was ordered to be paid by MCD.

PIYUSH DAHIYA UNDER THE GUARDIANSHIP OF HIS FATHER SH PREM DAS VS DELHI SPORTS SCHOOL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12484/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Delhi Sports School's introduction of additional selection criteria during the admission process for Class VI was deemed arbitrary and against principles of fairness and transparency, as it was not included in the prospectus. The petitioner participated under protest, leading to the conclusion that the actions indicated "malice in law," though not specifically targeted. A complete recall of the process was avoided due to finalized admissions. A directive was issued to create a new merit list based solely on the original criteria, allowing the petitioner to be admitted if qualified.

PRAVESH KUMAR AND ANR VS DELHI JAL BOARD AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10651/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Delhi Jal Board (DJB) was found negligent in maintaining vacant land where a 9-year-old boy drowned, violating his right to life under Article 21 of the Constitution. DJB was deemed liable for the incident and ordered to pay the petitioners Rs. 22,00,000 in compensation, which includes standard compensation and loss of dependency, along with simple interest at 6% per annum from the date of the incident until realization.

RAMESH KUMAR & ANR VS BALBIR SINGH [RSA-208/2018]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal was dismissed as the appellants/plaintiffs did not provide adequate evidence to prove a partial partition under Hindu law. A presumption of complete partition existed, and claims of unequal distribution did not demonstrate that the partition was partial. The appellants/plaintiffs failed to justify the exclusion of the suit property from the 1984 partition.

PROMILA BHAGAT VS VIJAY KUMAR GUPTA (DECEASED) THR LRS [RFA-532/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by Promila Bhagat was allowed, with findings that the trial court wrongly dismissed the suit as barred by limitation and not maintainable under Section 34 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963. The issue of limitation was classified as a mixed question of fact and law, requiring proper procedural adherence to resolve disputed facts. Allegations of fraud regarding the original judgment necessitate only a declaration of the decree as null and void, with no need for additional relief of possession. The application of Section 34 was deemed inapplicable in cases involving fraud that undermines the proceedings. Consequently, the previous judgment was set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh consideration.

PROSAFE INTERNATIONAL PVT. LTD. VS NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5750/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

Provisions of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, 2006 take precedence over the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 in disputes involving micro, small, and medium enterprises (MSMEs). A registered 'small' enterprise under the MSMED Act is entitled to the benefits of this special law. The unilateral appointment of an arbitrator by a municipal corporation was set aside for violating the MSMED Act. The validity of an order from the Rajasthan Micro and Small Facilitation Council in parallel proceedings was not addressed.

PUNEET KUMAR ANAND VS PISHORI LAL (DECEASED) THR LRS [RSA-101/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The interpretation of a Will executed by Mrs. Lakshmi Devi designated a life estate in the property to Mr. Boota Mal, with the property ultimately passing to their two sons as absolute owners. This interpretation was deemed well-reasoned and consistent with legal principles, with no substantial question of law present to justify further intervention. The findings established by the lower courts were not found to exhibit any material irregularity or perversity.

RAM NARAYAN GUPTA VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL [W.P.(C)-8176/2016]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The impugned demand notice from the New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) relates to restrictions on building usage as per Section 252 of the NDMC Act. The petitioner has a viable alternative remedy to contest the order before the Appellate Tribunal under Section 254 of the NDMC Act, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition while allowing the petitioner to pursue the statutory remedy.

RAVI KUMAR VS ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES [W.P.(C)-15514/2023]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The cancellation of the petitioner's candidature under the OBC-NCL category was deemed invalid due to the arbitrary requirement for an OBC-NCL certificate to be issued within a specific date range, which lacked a rational connection to the purpose of reservation. The requirement for the OBC-NCL certificate, considered evidence of an existing fact rather than a new eligibility criterion, led to the conclusion that the petitioner's certificate dated 23.11.2023 should have been accepted. The communications rejecting the candidature under the OBC-NCL category were set aside, affirming the petitioner's admission.

RAZIYA SULTAN VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8545/2017]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The Railways failed to adequately address a complaint concerning a change of coach in train no. 28624 on 6/7/2017, resulting in a traumatic experience for the petitioner and her family. The importance of a timely and substantial response to public concerns was emphasized. A directive was issued for the senior-most officer in the relevant Railway Division to reconsider the complaint and issue a detailed response within four months.

SAKSHAM KUMAR THROUGH NATURAL GURDIAN VINOD KUMAR VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14617/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The rejection of the petitioner's admission due to late submission of the Scheduled Caste (SC) certificate was deemed arbitrary and a violation of fundamental rights. The petitioner applied for the SC certificate prior to the deadline, but issuance was delayed by authorities. An SC/ST certificate confirms a status determined by birth, and procedural inefficiencies should not deny educational opportunities to marginalized candidates. The petitioner must be granted admission for the 2024-2025 academic year, regardless of the missed deadline, with the possibility of utilizing vacant seats in the Scheduled Tribe category.

SEEMA BANSAL VS DURGA DASS BANSAL & ORS [RFA-704/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by the daughter-in-law against the eviction order was allowed. The property was not deemed an HUF property; however, she has the right to reside in the "shared household" under the Domestic Violence Act, 2005, regardless of her title or interest. There were indications of collusion between her husband and in-laws in the eviction proceedings. The eviction order was set aside for not following the "procedure established by law" under the Domestic Violence Act.

SHAGUFTA ALI VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4291/2020]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

Writ jurisdiction under Article 226 can award compensation for violations of fundamental rights like the right to life under Article 21. In this case, negligence was not clearly established against the electricity distribution company, BSES, as the electrocution resulted from a current leakage from the shopkeeper's meter. An ex-gratia compensation of Rs. 10 lakhs was awarded to the petitioner, who may pursue the matter in civil court, which is to decide the case within one year.

SHANTI DEVI (SINCE DECEASED) THR HER LR VS PREM CHAND & ORS. & ORS. [RSA-35/2022]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The plaintiff's suit for possession and permanent injunction over the disputed property was dismissed due to a failure to establish ownership and title, as the seller lacked valid title. Additionally, the plaintiff could not prove possession, with documentary evidence not supporting her claims. The legal principles of 'Nemo Dat Quod Non-Habet' and 'Caveat Emptor' were applied, concluding that the case was without merit. The evidence was properly appreciated, and no substantial question of law warranted interference.

SHRI SIDDHI VINAYAK MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL SAMBHAL UP VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14233/2024]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The writ petition filed by Shri Siddhi Vinayak Medical College and Hospital, Sambhal, Uttar Pradesh, lacks territorial jurisdiction. Essential facts related to the case arose in Uttar Pradesh, where the petitioner-college is located. The High Court of Judicature at Allahabad is deemed the more convenient forum for adjudication since the college, the affiliating university, and relevant authorities are situated there. The petition is dismissed on jurisdictional grounds, allowing the petitioner to approach the appropriate High Court. The National Medical Commission's inconsistent stance on jurisdiction in similar cases was also noted.

SIVANKUTTY VS HARINDER KAUR [RSA-242/2019]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The appeal by Sh. Sivankutty was dismissed, affirming the findings that Smt. Harinder Kaur established ownership of the property through a valid Gift Deed from her mother. The claim of adverse possession by the appellant was rejected due to insufficient evidence of peaceful, open, and continuous possession. The issues raised were factual and did not present substantial questions of law, precluding any reevaluation of evidence considered by the lower courts.

SMT. ROSHNI & ANR VS SMT. DAYAWATI & ORS [RSA-128/2014]

Judges: Justice Purushaindra Kumar Kaurav

The second appeals by the appellants/defendants were dismissed due to the documents presented, such as the agreement to sell and GPA, not constituting valid transfer of title or ownership of the property, as established in a prior decision. Arguments regarding the non-joinder of parties and the bar under the Delhi Rent Control Act were rejected since the appellants/defendants denied the landlord-tenant relationship and claimed ownership. The scope of interference in second appeals is limited to substantial questions of law, not factual findings by lower courts.

FASHION DESIGN COUNCIL OF INDIA VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6839/2015]

Judges: Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The unamended Entertainment Tax Act does not include sponsorship receipts as "payment for admission to entertainment." The addition of Explanation 2 to Section 2(m) with retrospective effect is deemed arbitrary and unreasonable. The Act lacks a specific provision for charging tax on sponsorship amounts and a mechanism for assessment and collection. Writ petitions challenging the imposition of entertainment tax on sponsorship receipts are allowed.

THE COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX-II VS MITSUBISHI CORPORATION INDIA P. LTD. [ITA-180/2014]

Judges: Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The non-discrimination provisions in the India-Japan and India-USA Double Taxation Avoidance Agreements apply to payments made by the assessee to its group companies in those countries, allowing reliance on the more beneficial provisions of the DTAAs under Section 90(2) of the Income Tax Act. For payments to group companies in Thailand and Singapore, it was established that these entities did not have a permanent establishment in India, making Section 195 inapplicable. A third judge addressed differing opinions between the division benches and resolved the legal questions in favor of the assessee.

ABHAY SAPRU & ANR. VS STATE DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-2754/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The writ petition seeking to quash FIR No. 82/2023 under Sections 420 and 406 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The petitioners had previously filed a petition to quash the same FIR based on an alleged settlement but failed to comply with a court order to deposit the amount received from the respondent. Their claim that the settlement was made under threat was deemed an afterthought to evade compliance. Additionally, the petitioners falsely stated they had not filed a similar petition earlier. The current petition and any pending applications were dismissed.

AMIT KUMAR & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2945/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The petition by the parents of deceased IIT Delhi students Ayush Ashna and Anil Kumar for FIR registration and a CBI investigation into their sons' deaths was dismissed. A thorough inquiry found no evidence of foul play or caste-based discrimination. The investigation indicated that the students, struggling academically and under pressure, likely died by suicide. The petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

ASIT MUKHERJEE VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-300/2020]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The order framing charges against the petitioner under Sections 354A and 509 of the Indian Penal Code was set aside due to insufficient evidence demonstrating the essential elements required for these offences. Continuing the criminal proceedings was deemed an abuse of the process of law, resulting in the petitioner being discharged from the offences. Legal principles regarding the assessment of sufficient material to establish reasonable suspicion of the accused's involvement were noted.

BABLOO PASSI @ BHOLA VS STATE [CRL.A.-360/2013]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The appellant's conviction under IPC Sections 394/34, 307/34, 395/34, 397/34, and Section 120-B for criminal conspiracy was upheld. The sentence was reduced to the time already served, exceeding three years and five months, to align with a co-accused's release. A fine was imposed, with one month of simple imprisonment in default of payment, instead of three months. The appeal was accordingly disposed of.

CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION VS STATE [W.P.(CRL)-623/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The writ petition by the CBI was allowed, setting aside the dismissal of its application for certified copies of documents. Obtaining documents from court records was deemed essential for maintaining authenticity and integrity in legal proceedings. The CBI Crime Manual requirements for documenting evidence in disproportionate asset cases were acknowledged. The Trial Court was directed to supply the requested documents, and the CBI was permitted to prepare an investigation copy from the court's compact discs.

KAMLESH JAIN VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE [W.P.(CRL)-3407/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

Rohit and Diana illegally encroached on public land by placing tables, chairs, and a grass carpet outside their café, resulting in unlawful enrichment at the state's expense. Encroachment deprives the public of valuable assets and can pose safety risks. Authorities are tasked with creating rules to impose charges on encroachers for public benefit. The local police station must ensure that the café and nearby establishments do not play loud music beyond 10 P.M., as mandated by the Supreme Court.

MOHIT VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-480/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

Anticipatory bail was granted to the petitioner in a case involving allegations of rape and criminal intimidation. The victim's delay of over four years in filing the FIR suggested a realization that the promise of marriage was false. Claims of forceful abortion lacked evidential support, and the victim's assertions about marrying another person were not corroborated. Custodial interrogation was deemed unnecessary, and bail was granted since a chargesheet had already been filed.

MOHIT VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-913/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The FIR under Sections 376/506 IPC against the petitioner was quashed due to an amicable settlement between the parties. Continuing the case was deemed unnecessary and an abuse of the judicial process. In light of the specific facts and circumstances, quashing the FIR was viewed as serving the ends of justice and fostering harmony between the parties.

MRS. KANTA GOEL VS MR. ATUL GUPTA [CRL.M.C.-1397/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The petitioner's petition was allowed, and the lower court orders permitting the respondent to recall the complainant for further cross-examination were set aside. The complainant had been thoroughly cross-examined on three occasions, with the process concluded in 2019. There were no tangible reasons to justify recalling the witness, especially considering the significant delay in the respondent's application, and caution was noted against recalling witnesses solely due to previous inadequacies in cross-examination.

NARESH @ SATYA VS STATE [CRL.A.-352/2013]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

Naresh and Karnail Singh were convicted for theft under Section 379 IPC. The prosecution witnesses, including police officials, provided reliable testimonies. Evidence supported the presumption that possession of stolen goods shortly after the theft implicates the accused as either the thief or someone who received stolen property. The appeals were dismissed, and the accused were directed to surrender to serve the remainder of their sentence.

NARINDER PAL VERMA VS KAMAL THAPAR [CRL.M.C.-4244/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The trial court dismissed the petitioner's application under Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code for cross-examination of the complainant, having provided ample opportunities over four years for the petitioner to do so. The petitioner's rationale regarding his counsel's father's illness was unsubstantiated and deemed inadequate. It was noted that the petitioner could have arranged alternative counsel to continue the case.

P. ROYCHAUDHURI VS STATE & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3072/2019]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The order framing charges under Section 498A IPC was set aside due to overly ambiguous allegations by the complainant. A single isolated incident, without significant evidence of dowry demands resulting in cruelty, was deemed inadequate for charges. The continuation of criminal proceedings against the petitioner was considered an abuse of the process of law, leading to the discharge of the petitioner from the offense.

PARTHA MANDAL VS SPECIAL COMMISSIONER OF POLICE VIGILANCE [W.P.(CRL)-2952/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The writ petition filed by Partha Mandal was dismissed due to lack of merit. Mandal sought a directive for a departmental inquiry against SI Ashish, claiming improper investigation influenced by Home Ministry agents and senior police officials. The petitioner was identified as a chronic litigant with a history of multiple dismissed or withdrawn petitions. An inquiry revealed no cognizable offense from Mandal's complaint, negating the need for a departmental inquiry. With no inquiry initiated, the request for a report was deemed unfounded.

PREM KUMAR VS THE STATE & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2869/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The petition to quash FIR No. 274/2017 under Sections 376/363 IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act was allowed due to the parties being married and the victim having no objection. The situation warranted quashing the proceedings to serve the interests of justice and prevent misuse of the court process, especially considering the future of the two minor children involved.

RAHUL AND ORS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-2796/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The petition by accused Rahul, Kapil, and Chirag to quash the FIR under Sections 307/324/34 IPC, alleging attempt to murder and voluntary causing hurt, was dismissed. Serious allegations included the use of a stick and knife against the victim and injury to another individual. Offenses under Section 307 IPC are considered serious crimes against society, and a compromise between parties does not warrant quashing of the FIR. The nature of the allegations supports the decision to maintain the charges.

RITIK CHHIKARA VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2430/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The bail application filed by Ritik Chhikara, accused under Sections 307/120B/34 IPC and Sections 25/27/54/59 Arms Act, was dismissed. Allegations against Chhikara involve firing a pistol at the victim, resulting in grievous injuries. Key witnesses, including the injured victim and the complainant, have yet to be examined by the trial court. No grounds for bail were identified at this stage, and the observations made do not reflect any opinion on the case's merits.

SONIA VS VISHAL [CRL.REV.P.-180/2020]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The husband's revision petition resulted in the lower court's judgment being set aside due to speculation about his income and assets. The automatic 5% annual increase in maintenance was deemed inconsistent with Section 127 of the Cr.P.C. The monthly maintenance payment was reduced from Rs. 75,000 to Rs. 60,000 effective from the petition's filing date, while the wife's cross-petition for an increase in maintenance was dismissed.

SONU CHOUDARY VS STA TE OF NCT DELHI [CRL.A.-243/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The appellant was convicted under Sections 324 and 452 of the Indian Penal Code for voluntarily causing hurt with a dangerous weapon and house-trespass after preparation for hurt. Testimony from the injured witness, Rajat Dhayani, identified the appellant as the assailant and was deemed reliable. Arguments regarding the absence of other witness testimonies, non-seizure of the weapon, and contradictions in evidence were rejected. The appellant's appeal was dismissed, and the conviction and sentence from the trial court were upheld.

SUBHASH @ SATYA PRAKASH VS STATE [CRL.A.-1187/2012]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

Subhash @ Satya Prakash was convicted under Sections 394/34, 307/34, 395/34, and 397 IPC for robbery, attempted murder, and dacoity. His sentence was reduced to the time already served, which exceeded 4 years and 10 months, aligning it with a co-accused who had been released after serving his sentence. The decision considered the appellant's satisfactory conduct in jail and lack of a prior criminal record. He was to be released if not wanted in other cases, contingent upon fine payment.

SUBODH ANAND VS C.B.I. [CRL.A.-768/2013]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The appellant's conviction for offenses under the Prevention of Corruption Act was set aside due to insufficient evidence of an illegal gratification demand. Prosecution witnesses provided inconsistent testimonies that did not establish the demand or acceptance of a bribe. The mere recovery of tainted money was deemed inadequate to trigger the presumption against the appellant. As a result, the appellant was acquitted of all charges.

SUDHIR JAIN & ANR. VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-8560/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The matter was amicably settled for Rs. 35,00,000 through a Memorandum of Understanding. The complainant's objections to minor charges led to the invocation of Sections 307/427/109 IPC. It was determined that continuing with the case served no useful purpose, resulting in the quashing of FIR No. 471/2022 under various IPC sections and provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act, along with related proceedings.

VIJAY KUMAR AGARWAL VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3027/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The petition by Vijay Kumar Agarwal to quash the order dated 23.1.2023, which dismissed his Criminal Revision Petition regarding the charge order from 11.12.2012, was dismissed. The review of lower court orders showed the petitioner was adequately heard and sufficient evidence existed to establish a case against him. The principle of not conducting a mini-trial under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was highlighted, leading to the dismissal of the petition and the affirmation of the charge order.

VISHAL SRIVASTAVA AND OTHERS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND OTHERS [W.P.(CRL)-1995/2023]

Judges: Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

The petitioners' request under Section 482 CrPC resulted in the quashing of the FIR against them for Sections 419/354A/504/509/34 IPC. The parties reached an amicable settlement, and the quashing was deemed beneficial for maintaining peace and harmony. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the petitioners, to be deposited with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee as a condition for the quashing.

BLUE STAR LIMITED THORUGH AUTHORISED SIGNATORY MR NIRANJAN NAYAK VS COMMISSIONER OF DELHI VALUE ADDED TAX & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14468/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

Blue Star Limited is entitled to a refund of Rs. 28,36,313/- according to a refund order dated 24.01.2024. The respondents must issue a speaking order regarding the payment of interest under Section 42 of the Delhi Value Added Tax Act, 2004. If interest is deemed payable, it should be paid within two weeks of this order; if not, the reasoning will be communicated to Blue Star, allowing them to seek further remedies as per law.

ARYAN TIMBER STORE THROUGH ITS PROP VIRENDER KUMAR VS SALES TAX OFFICER CLASS II/ AVATO WARD 62 DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND TAXES IP ESTATE NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-628/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The cancellation of Aryan Timber Store's GST registration with retrospective effect from 01.07.2017 is deemed unsustainable. Under Section 29(2) of the CGST Act, the proper officer can cancel registration as necessary, but this power must be exercised based on objective criteria, not mechanically. Failure to file returns does not justify retrospective cancellation for periods of compliance. Retrospective cancellation may negatively impact the taxpayer's customers regarding input tax credits. The cancellation is modified to take effect from 06.05.2019, the date of the petitioner's cancellation application, without precluding recovery of any due tax, penalty, or interest.

DR SUNIL KUMAR VS DR ARCHANA [CM(M)-4108/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The petition filed by Dr. Sunil Kumar was allowed, and the orders closing his right to file a written statement in the divorce petition by Dr. Archana were set aside. It was noted that family courts should adopt a more liberal approach in such disputes, as closing the opportunity to file a written statement can have serious personal implications. Dr. Kumar was permitted to file the written statement upon payment of Rs. 20,000 to the respondent, with a request for expedited case disposal.

INDOTECH MAGNETICS VS COMMISSIONER OF DELHI GOODS AND SERVICE TAX & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16380/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

Indotech Magnetics' GST registration cancellation with retrospective effect from 01.07.2017 was invalid. Per Section 29(2) of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, registration cannot be cancelled retroactively without objective criteria. The lack of return filings post-business discontinuation on 01.04.2020 does not justify such cancellation for the prior compliant period. Retroactive cancellation also impacts customers' input tax credits. The effective cancellation date is set to 29.05.2020, the date of the petitioner's application for cancellation.

JAGDISH KUMAR & ORS. VS STATE & ORS. [CM(M)-3920/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The trial court's dismissal of the application to set aside an ex parte order was set aside due to the representation of the defendants by counsel at the time the order was made. The principle established emphasizes a liberal interpretation of applications to set aside ex parte orders, prioritizing merits over technicalities. The ex parte order was annulled, contingent upon the defendants paying Rs. 20,000 to the plaintiffs before the next hearing.

JAGVEER VS ASHA DEVI [CM(M)-3854/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The plaintiff's suit for recovery of possession, arrears of rent, mesne profits, and permanent injunction is maintainable despite the defendant's challenge to the plaintiff's title. The principles of estoppel under Section 116 of the Evidence Act prevent a tenant from disputing the landlord's title during tenancy. The directions for amending the plaint or withdrawing the suit were deemed unnecessary, as the trial court previously dismissed the defendant's application to reject the plaint. The order was partly set aside regarding those specific directions.

M S BRIDGEKALA LUXURIOUS LIFESTYLE MANAGEMENT PRIVATE LIMITED VS COMMISSIONER OF DELHI GOODS AND SERVICES TAX AND ANOTHER [W.P.(C)-661/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The GST registration of M S Bridgekala Luxurious Lifestyle Management Private Limited cannot be cancelled retroactively from 11.01.2020 due to the failure to file returns. Cancelling registration with retrospective effect can adversely affect the customers' access to input tax credit. The cancellation order was modified to take effect from 08.11.2020, the date the show-cause notice was issued and the registration was suspended.

M S MAA KAMAKHYA THROUGH PROPRIETOR SH VINOD MAURYA VS SALES TAX OFFICER CLASS II AVAT WARD 12 ZONE 2 [W.P.(C)-1085/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

Ms. Maa Kamakhya challenged a show cause notice and suspension of her GST registration, which were based on an alleged violation of Rule 86B of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017. She was allowed to file a response within one week, and the Sales Tax Officer was required to issue a speaking order within two weeks after a personal hearing. The petitioner retains the right to pursue further legal remedies if dissatisfied with the subsequent order.

M/S SKYLARK ENTERPRISES VS PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER OF DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND TAXES, GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-1070/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The petitioner's challenge to the suspension of its GST registration resulted in an order to respond to the show cause notice and submit required details within two weeks. The petitioner failed to provide the necessary information when requested. Following the submission, the respondent must issue a speaking order within two weeks and offer a personal hearing. The petitioner retains the right to pursue further legal remedies if dissatisfied with the outcome.

M/S SOLANKI ENTERPRISES VS COMMISSIONER OF CGST AND ANR [W.P.(C)-15616/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The petitioner's GST registration can be revoked upon depositing a short balance of Rs. 9,520 along with interest of Rs. 911 in their electronic credit ledger. Necessary compliance as required by law must be made when the registration is restored.

M/S SYM COMPANY VS PR. COMMISSIONER, CUSTOMS (IMPORT) AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14842/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

Section 110(2) of the Customs Act, 1962 requires issuance of a notice within six months of the seizure of imported goods. Since no notice was issued to M/S SYM Company within this timeframe, the seized goods must be released unconditionally within one week. The respondents expressed willingness to release the goods while maintaining their rights to adjudicate the proceedings related to the show cause notice.

M/S.NIRMAL METAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-593/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

M/s. Nirmal Metal will receive all material related to the show cause notice dated 19.05.2023 by 08.02.2024. The petitioner may submit a detailed response within one week of receiving the materials. An opportunity for personal hearing will be provided before a speaking order is issued by 22.02.2024. The petitioner can seek further legal remedies if dissatisfied with subsequent orders.

MANISHA GUPTA PROP VARUN ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY MINISTRY OF FINANCE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-381/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The order cancelling the petitioner's GST registration from July 2, 2017, was deemed invalid due to a lack of opportunity for objection regarding the retrospective cancellation. The proper officer must consider the impact on taxpayers' customers who claimed input tax credit during the cancelled period, as outlined in Section 29(2) of the CGST Act. The cancellation was modified to take effect from January 28, 2019, reflecting the petitioner's cessation of business since that date. Additionally, the petitioner must file all pending statutory returns and settle any liabilities. Recovery of any due tax, penalty, or interest remains permissible under the law.

MS RS WIRES INDUSTRIES THROUGH PROPRIETOR RAJENDER SINGH VS SALES TAX OFFICER CLASS II AVATO WARD 63 ZONE 6 DELHI [W.P.(C)-16189/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The show cause notice for cancellation of GST registration and the subsequent rejection of revocation applications lacked essential details and reasons for the alleged wrongful input tax credit claims. Cancellation of registration cannot occur retrospectively without proper justification and consideration of impacts on customers. The show cause notice and related orders were quashed, allowing for new proceedings with a proper notice.

P R INNOVATIONS PVT LTD VS L G ELECTRONICS INDIA PVT LTD [CM(M)-3940/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application for condonation of delay in filing the written statement has been set aside. The delay beyond the 30-day deadline under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, is to be condoned for up to 90 days with an imposition of costs of Rs. 25,000. The focus is on deciding the matter on merits instead of technicalities.

PANKAJ PLASTIC VS COMMISSIONER OF DELHI GOODS AND SERVICES TAX AND ORS [W.P.(C)-402/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The show cause notice and order canceling the GST registration of Pankaj Plastic were set aside due to lack of reasoning and particulars. Cancellation of registration with retrospective effect based on failure to file returns was deemed inappropriate, as proper discretion must be exercised based on objective criteria. Retrospective cancellation can adversely affect the taxpayer's customers, which must be considered. Further actions can be taken, including potential cancellation with retrospective effect, only after issuing a proper show cause notice and providing an opportunity for a hearing.

PARAS THUKRAL VS ANU SOHAL [CM(M)-3913/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The order to dismiss the petitioner's written statement and application for condonation of delay in a probate case was upheld. The report of the process server, as a public servant, was deemed correct, countering the petitioner's claims of improper service and absence from Delhi. The petitioner failed to provide sufficient evidence for a valid reason regarding a delay of over 10 years in filing the written statement, and discretion was correctly not exercised in the petitioner's favor.

POLYTEC INDUSTRIES THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR.ROHIT GUPTA VS COMMISSIONER OF DELHI GOODS AND SERVICES TAX AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-1103/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

GST registration of Polytec Industries cannot be cancelled retrospectively from July 1, 2017 due to non-filing of returns for six months. Such cancellation requires an objective assessment, not a mechanical one. The cancellation is modified to be effective from February 1, 2019, the date the business was discontinued. The petitioner must provide necessary details for demand assessment.

PREM ENTERPRISES VS COMMISSIONER OF DELHI GOODS AND SERVICE TAX & ANR. [W.P.(C)-611/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The retrospective cancellation of the petitioner's GST registration from July 2017 was invalid due to a lack of cogent reasons and material in the cancellation order and show cause notice. Under the CGST Act, such cancellation requires objective criteria and consideration of its consequences. The cancellation order was modified to take effect from June 2020, the date the petitioner ceased business, and the petitioner was instructed to provide details for assessing any demands for periods before and after June 2020.

SANJEEV MAGGU VS COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS AIR CARGO COMPLEX-EXPORTS, NEW CUSTOM HOUSE, NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-855/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The petitioner, a customs broker, was granted the opportunity to file final written submissions within two weeks and a personal hearing by the adjudicating authority. Some witnesses mentioned in the show cause notice did not appear despite summons, while others were extensively cross-examined by the petitioner. The merits of the contentions from both parties were not considered, and all rights and contentions remained reserved.

SHARDA METAL WORKS THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR.DILIP KUMAR VS THE COMMISSIONER CENTRAL GOODS AND SERVICES TAX [W.P.(C)-16190/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The show cause notice and order cancelling the petitioner's GST registration retrospectively were set aside due to lack of reasoning and particulars. There was no supporting material indicating wrongful availment or utilization of input tax credit. Registration cannot be cancelled retrospectively without satisfying objective criteria and considering the impacts on the petitioner's customers. Further action may be taken, including potential retroactive cancellation, only after a proper show cause notice and opportunity for a hearing.

SHREE BALAJI TRANSPORT VS THE COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL TAX APPEALS- I & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15377/2023]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The show cause notice, cancellation order, and appellate order against the petitioner's GST registration were set aside due to a lack of proper reasoning and clarity. Retrospective cancellation of registration is not valid without sufficient grounds, and non-filing of returns alone does not justify such action, as it could negatively impact the taxpayer's customers. The decision pertains to an individual case rather than a broader matter.

SIKKA KARS GLOBAL PVT LTD & ANR. VS ABHAY KUMAR JAIN [CM(M)-4026/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

Striking off the defense of the petitioners for not filing the affidavit of admission/denial in the prescribed format was not acceptable. Filing the affidavit is not compulsory under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. Petitioners were directed to file the affidavit within two weeks, and their previously filed written statement was acknowledged.

VIJAY KUMAR VS FARMUDA BEGUM [CM(M)-4005/2024]

Judges: Justice Ravinder Dudeja

The trial court's order striking off the defense of defendant Vijay Kumar for failing to pay rent arrears was upheld. The argument regarding the unprofessional conduct of the previous advocate was rejected, highlighting the responsibility of litigants to remain vigilant in their proceedings. The principle of legal diligence was emphasized, asserting that assistance is given to those who are proactive, not negligent. The defendant's petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

M/S SAGAR RATNA RESTAURANTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS HILL VIEW HOTEL AND RESTAURANT [RFA(COMM)-493/2024]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli

The plaintiff, Sagar Ratna Restaurants, justified direct approach to the trial court for urgent interim relief regarding alleged trademark infringement of "Sagar Ratna." The cause of action was deemed continuous and recurring, and delay after a cease and desist notice did not preclude the plaintiff's right to urgent relief. The trial court's order rejecting the suit was set aside, and the matter was remanded for adjudication on merits along with the interim application.

UNION OF INDIA THROUGH GENERAL MANAGER VS M/S CHIRAJ STOCK & SECURITY PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-417/2018]

Judges: Justice Rekha Palli

The arbitral award favored M/s Chiraj Stock & Security Pvt. Ltd., allowing claims for reimbursement of additional expenses due to project delays caused by the employer, the Union of India. The award of interest was justified, as there was no prohibition in the contract, and the contractor incurred borrowing costs. The award was not found to be illegal or against public policy, resulting in dismissal of the petition by the Union of India.

AAKASH EDUCATIONAL SERVICES LIMITED VS RAVI KANT [ARB.P.-754/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration clause exists in the Service Rules between Aakash Educational Services Limited and Ravi Kant, allowing for the appointment of a sole arbitrator to address disputes. Ms. Sapna Chauhan was appointed as the independent sole arbitrator due to the parties' inability to agree on one. The respondent can raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will decide. This matter involves a dispute between the two parties and is not part of a larger batch.

ABDUL WASEEM & ANR. VS OVERCARE MARKETS LLP & ORS. [ARB.P.-1688/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The dispute between partners in a Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) will be referred to a sole arbitrator, Ms. Suruchi Suri, Advocate, appointed to adjudicate the issues according to the arbitration clause in the LLP deed. Parties may present their claims and counter-claims for consideration under the law. Arbitration will proceed under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with no opinion on the merits of the case expressed.

ABUNDANCE INDIA VS M/S GEMINI PROPERTY DEVELOPERS [O.M.P. (COMM)-452/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition by Abundance India challenging the arbitral award in favor of Gemini Property Developers was dismissed due to Abundance's failure to pay arbitration costs and a lack of bona fides. In international commercial arbitration, patent illegality on the award's face does not justify setting it aside under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

ACCORD ADVERTISING PVT LTD & ANR. VS SM FINLEASE LTD [ARB. A. (COMM.)-55/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An interim order by the arbitral tribunal was upheld, which restrained the appellants from alienating or creating third-party rights over certain properties. The tribunal determined that the value of a mortgaged property was likely insufficient to recover the full amount claimed by the respondent in ongoing arbitration. The tribunal has broad authority to issue directions for securing amounts in dispute, not limited by civil procedure provisions. No interference with the tribunal's discretion was deemed necessary, although the appellants were granted the option to seek modification if the restrained properties do not belong to them.

ADA BUILDWELL INFRATECH LLP VS SHAPOORJI PALLONJI AND COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1246/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the work order is valid, allowing the formation of an arbitral tribunal to address disputes between Ada Buildwell Infratech LLP and Shapoorji Pallonji and Company Private Limited. Mr. Shubham Ranakoti, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve issues related to the non-payment of retention money. All rights and contentions of the parties remain reserved for determination by the arbitrator.

ADANI ENTERPRISES LIMITED VS SHRI SOMNATH FABRIC PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-432/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The sole arbitrator concluded that Adani Enterprises Limited breached the Coal Sale and Purchase Agreement, while Shri Somnath Fabrics Private Limited did not. An order was made for Adani Enterprises to refund Rs. 3 crores in earnest money deposit, along with interest, due to the failure to demonstrate any actual loss. The findings were supported by extensive evidence and a proper interpretation of the contract. Challenges to the award by Adani Enterprises were rejected.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LIMITED VS IIS NDT AND ALLIED SERVICE PRIVATE LIMITED AND ORS [ARB.P.-1545/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Valid arbitration clauses in the loan agreements permit the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Ms. Ruchi Gour Narula has been appointed as the sole arbitrator, with the respondents allowed to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which will be determined by the arbitrator. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for consideration on their merits.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LTD VS M/S RAGHAV IMPEX & ORS. [ARB.P.-1686/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the Loan Agreement between Aditya Birla Finance Ltd and M/s Raghav Impex & Ors. is valid. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhinav Garg, Advocate, is appointed to adjudicate disputes regarding the respondents' alleged default in loan repayment. All rights and contentions of the parties are preserved for consideration by the arbitrator.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LTD. VS SHINE TEXTILE & ORS. [ARB.P.-1687/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Loan Agreement between Aditya Birla Finance Ltd. and Shine Textile included an arbitration clause, allowing for the constitution of an arbitral tribunal to address disputes. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhinav Garg, was appointed to resolve the issues, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open for determination by the arbitrator.

AJAY POLY PVT LTD VS JAYESH KRISHNAN NAIR [ARB.P.-1546/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration agreement, as per Clause 23 of the employment agreement, was not disputed. Mr. Daksh Kadian was appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which will be decided by the arbitrator. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for determination based on their merits.

AMALTAS AYURVEDA THROUGH CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER VS THE DIRECTOR GENERAL DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF HEALTH SERVICES GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [ARB.P.-2015/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhinash Agarwal, was appointed to address the dispute between Amaltas Ayurveda and the Director General Directorate General of Health Services Government of NCT of Delhi. The agreement included a valid arbitration clause, allowing the arbitrator to adjudicate the matter. The respondents can raise preliminary objections about jurisdiction and arbitrability, which the arbitrator will decide. The fee for the arbitrator will follow the IV Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or an agreement between the parties and the arbitrator. There was no opinion expressed on the merits of the case; the arbitrator will evaluate the claims and counterclaims based on their merits.

AMIT GOYAL VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7006/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The rejection of the petitioner's nomination form is not challengeable at this stage, as any election-related disputes must be addressed through an election petition after the elections conclude, not before. The petition is dismissed, but the petitioner's arguments may be considered in future election petition proceedings.

ANKIT MAHANOT VS MS ROYALGOLF LINK CITY PROJECTS PVT LTD [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-421/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A dispute arose regarding the final payment for a unit under an Allotment-cum-Villa Buyer Agreement, leading to the appointment of sole arbitrator Mr. Anurag Ojha to adjudicate the matter. The petitioner must deposit the claimed amount with the respondent, who is restrained from taking any actions regarding the unit. All parties' rights and contentions remain open for the arbitrator's consideration, with proceedings to occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

ANKIT TRACOM PVT LTD VS IMPERIA STRUCTURES LTD [ARB.P.-1996/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A prima facie valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties despite objections from the respondent. Arguments claiming the agreement became invalid after the execution of sale deeds and the non-joinder of third-party purchasers were rejected. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, allowing the respondent to raise jurisdiction and arbitrability objections before the tribunal. Arbitration references under each Unit Buyer Agreement will be treated as independent, although the arbitrator may hold common sittings for convenience.

APOLLO SUPPLY CHAIN PVT. LTD VS M/S JALAN TRANSOLUTIONS (INDIA) LTD [ARB.P.-1241/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An undisputed arbitration agreement exists between the parties, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. The inquiry for appointing the arbitrator is limited to the initial existence of the arbitration agreement, while issues regarding accord and satisfaction will be addressed by the arbitrator. The arbitrator will also consider objections relating to jurisdiction and arbitrability of the claims.

AURIONPRO SOLUTIONS LIMITED VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI TRANSPORT DEPARTMENT [ARB.P.-1489/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The dispute resolution clause in the agreement between Aurionpro Solutions Limited and the Government of NCT of Delhi Transport Department is directory, meaning the parties are not required to exhaust the pre-arbitral conciliation mechanism before proceeding to arbitration. A valid arbitration agreement exists, and a sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve the disputes.

BAJRANG PUNIA AND ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [CM APPL.-18267/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The dissolution of the ad-hoc committee managing the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) was deemed unwarranted, as the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports' suspension order against the WFI remained effective. The reasons for the committee's dissolution were unrelated to the governance issues that prompted its formation. The mandate of the ad-hoc committee was restored, with instructions for the Indian Olympic Association to reconstitute it as a multi-member body to address concerns from the international wrestling federation. Adherence to the National Sports Development Code, 2011 does not constitute governmental interference, and fears of repercussions from the international body do not justify non-compliance with the Ministry's order or the formation of an ad-hoc committee.

BANSAL CONSTRUCTION CO. VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1899/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Bansal Construction Co. is entitled to the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with the Union of India regarding unpaid monetary claims under a contract for safety fencing along railway tracks. The respondent did not contest the existence of the arbitration agreement, necessitating the appointment of an arbitrator. Ms. Justice (Retd.) Deepa Sharma has been appointed as the sole arbitrator, with arbitration to occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, and all parties' rights and contentions remain open for adjudication on their merits.

BHARAT HEAVY ELECTRICALS LIMITED VS M/S MAXFLOW PUMPS INDIA PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1612/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The objection raised by M/s Maxflow Pumps India Pvt. Ltd. regarding the time-barred nature of the claims does not prevent the establishment of an arbitral tribunal to resolve disputes. Ms. Amrita Singh, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). All parties retain their rights and contentions regarding the claims and counter-claims for decision by the arbitrator on merits.

BHARTI AIRTEL LIMITED VS HRD RELATIONSHIP MARKETING PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1616/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration agreement between Bharti Airtel Limited and HRD Relationship Marketing Pvt. Ltd. is valid. Mr. Jai Anant Dehadrai is appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. The examination scope under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 focuses on establishing the existence of the arbitration agreement. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which will be addressed by the arbitrator. The arbitrator's fees will be determined according to the Fourth Schedule of the Act or as agreed upon by the parties. This order does not reflect an opinion on the merits of the case.

BHAYANA BUILDERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS CHINTELS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED, [ARB.P.-1762/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Bhayana Builders Private Limited sought the appointment of a presiding arbitrator to form a three-member arbitral tribunal as per the arbitration agreement. The petitioner had appointed its nominee arbitrator, while the respondent's nominee was appointed previously. The two nominee arbitrators selected Mr. Justice (Retd.) Vineet Saran as the presiding arbitrator. The petitioner contested this appointment, citing a previous judgment. To resolve this, it was determined that the presiding arbitrator would be recognized as appointed in the current proceedings.

BHIKAJI MAINTENANCE COMBINE VS SAVITRI PODDAR [ARB.P.-1552/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration agreement exists between the parties under the maintenance agreement, validating the petitioner's request for the appointment of a sole arbitrator. Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra, Advocate, is appointed to resolve disputes related to the non-payment of maintenance charges. The respondent may raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator, and all rights and contentions of the parties will be decided on their merits.

BVM ENGINEERING INDUSTRIES LIMITED VS IMPERIA HEIGHTS PRIVATE LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-1264/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Aamir Jamal, will adjudicate disputes arising from the parties' agreements, with the existence of the arbitration agreement acknowledged. The arbitrator is tasked with encouraging settlement through mediation or similar procedures under Section 30(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The respondent may raise objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability for the arbitrator to decide. Arbitration will occur under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with fees and costs governed by DIAC rules.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS AMIT SINGH SHEKHAWAT & ANR. [ARB.P.-972/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause exists in the Credit Facility Agreement between the parties, allowing for the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator. Mr. Prateek Badhwar was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes. The respondents can raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which the Arbitrator will decide. The parties are to share the Arbitrator's fee and costs equally, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS BMADHIVANAN & ANR. [ARB.P.-1114/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Himanshu Goel, was appointed to resolve disputes related to the Credit Facility Agreement due to the presence of an arbitration clause. The parties are permitted to raise preliminary objections about jurisdiction or arbitrability, which the Arbitrator will address. The Arbitrator must proceed with arbitration after necessary disclosures and set the fee according to the Fourth Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act or as mutually agreed. The order makes no comments on the case's merits.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS DHARMENDER SINGH & ANR. [ARB.P.-1124/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause existed in the Credit Facility Agreement. The respondents did not respond to a notice for appointing a Sole Arbitrator, allowing for the appointment of Mr. Himanshu Goel, Advocate, as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes. The respondents may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which will be addressed by the Arbitrator, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open for resolution on their merits.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS HARDEEP SINGH & ANR. [ARB.P.-1332/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Cars 24 Financial Services Private Limited is entitled to appoint a sole arbitrator to adjudicate disputes with Hardeep Singh and another party, stemming from a Credit Facility Agreement dated 04.10.2019. The agreement includes a valid arbitration clause allowing the petitioner to appoint the arbitrator. Reasonable efforts to serve the respondents were made. Mr. Aman Nandrajog, Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes, with all parties' rights and contentions preserved for determination according to the law.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS JATIN WALIA & ANR. [ARB.P.-970/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between Cars 24 Financial Services Private Limited and Jatin Walia & Anr. concerning a Credit Facility Agreement dated 11.11.2019, based on the arbitration clause in the agreement. The respondents did not respond to the notice invoking arbitration, prompting the appointment of the Sole Arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes on their merits, without any implication regarding the merits of the case.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS KARTIK & ANR. [ARB.P.-1125/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between the parties based on an arbitration clause in the Credit Facility Agreement. The respondents, absent from the proceedings, were permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability before the Sole Arbitrator. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS KOLLIVELASI SRINIVAS KUMAR & ANR. [ARB.P.-973/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause in the Credit Facility Agreement was identified, allowing for the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes. Mr. Prateek Badhwar was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator, and the respondents were permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability for the arbitrator’s decision. The parties must equally share the arbitrator's fee and costs, with no opinions expressed on the merits of the case, which are to be decided by the arbitrator.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS MOHAMMED ABDUL RAYEES & ANR. [ARB.P.-1113/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Himanshu Goel, Advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes between Cars 24 Financial Services Private Limited and Mohammed Abdul Rayees related to a Credit Facility Agreement, which included an arbitration clause. The respondents are permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open for merit-based considerations.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS NAZIR HOSSAIN & ANR. [ARB.P.-969/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Prateek Badhwar, has been appointed to resolve disputes between Cars 24 Financial Services Private Limited and Nazir Hossain & Anr. pertaining to a Credit Facility Agreement dated 23.10.2019. The agreement contains an arbitration clause, allowing for an independent arbitrator's appointment. The respondents may present preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which the Sole Arbitrator will address according to the law.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SANJAY MATHEWS PROPRIETOR OF M/S BENKUS MOTORS AND ANR. [ARB.P.-1150/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the Credit Facility Agreement was deemed valid, leading to the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to address disputes related to the respondents' failure to make payments. Reasonable steps were taken to serve the respondents with the arbitration notice, which went unanswered, allowing for the appointment to proceed. The Arbitrator is directed to first encourage mediation or alternative dispute resolution methods before addressing the merits of the case.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHIJNA S & ANR. [ARB.P.-974/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between Cars24 Financial Services Private Limited and Shijna S & Anr. under a Credit Facility Agreement containing an arbitration clause. Cars24 invoked the clause by sending a notice, which went unanswered by the respondents. Mr. Prateek Badhwar was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator, allowing the respondents to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability. The parties must share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case, leaving those decisions to the arbitrator.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHOBHA HARMAZ SIDDIQUI & ANR. [ARB.P.-1118/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Himanshu Goel, was appointed to resolve disputes stemming from a Credit Facility Agreement, which included an arbitration clause. The respondents can present preliminary objections concerning jurisdiction and arbitrability, to be decided by the Sole Arbitrator. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for determination on their merits.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SR CAR BAZAR & ORS. [ARB.P.-977/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Prateek Badhwar, was appointed to resolve disputes related to a Credit Facility Agreement. The existence of an arbitration clause was confirmed, and the respondents did not reply to the petitioner's notice regarding the appointment of an arbitrator. The respondents retain the right to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which will be addressed by the arbitrator. Both parties will share the arbitrator's fee and arbitral costs equally.

CARS 24 FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SURESH KASHYAP & ANR. [ARB.P.-1121/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties entered into a Credit Facility Agreement with an arbitration clause, leading to disputes over alleged payment defaults. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Anirudh Bakhru, was appointed to adjudicate these disputes, with the respondents not objecting to this appointment. All rights and contentions concerning claims and counter-claims remain open for decision by the sole arbitrator based on merits and applicable law.

CCS COMPUTERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16767/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioner company's blacklisting by NDMC was quashed due to the lack of proper reasoning in the blacklisting letter and failure to consider the petitioner's explanations. NDMC's reliance on the General Financial Rules without informing the petitioner denied it an opportunity to respond, violating principles of natural justice. NDMC is to issue a fresh show cause notice that includes the reliance on the General Financial Rules and must provide a reasoned order after considering the petitioner's response.

CENTURY ALUMINUM COMPANY LIMITED VS RELIGARE FINVEST LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-405/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition by Century Aluminum Company Limited to restrain Religare Finvest Limited from taking coercive action concerning a Loan Facility Agreement was dismissed. The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (IBC) is a standalone legislation that overrides any inconsistent laws. Proceedings under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act or in civil courts cannot interfere with IBC proceedings, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

CLEAVE CONSULTING NETWORK PRIVATE LIMITED VS ROZANA SUPERMART [ARB.P.-1550/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Anish Chawla, was appointed to resolve disputes between Cleave Consulting Network Private Limited and Rozana Supermart stemming from a lease deed dated 01.06.2023. A valid arbitration agreement existed, which the petitioner invoked without a response from the respondent. An interim order under Section 9 of the A&C Act was granted to prevent the respondent from creating third-party interests in the leased premises. The arbitrator was tasked with encouraging the parties to pursue mediation or other suitable procedures before addressing the arbitration merits.

COGOPORT PRIVATE LIMITED VS MR ANUJ BAJAJ AND OTHERS [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-359/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Cogoport Private Limited is entitled to exercise its information and inspection rights under the Shareholders Agreement, provided it adheres to the specified procedures. The respondents must not dissipate or alienate the company's assets, except for pre-existing encumbrances. Observations were made without affecting the parties' rights regarding the prior arbitral award and any future proceedings under the Share Purchase Agreement. No opinion on the merits of these matters was expressed.

CREMICA FOOD PARK PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S TRUSTABLE FOODS INDIA PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1710/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes arising from a lease deed for a Mega Food Park, specifically concerning non-payment of monetary entitlements by M/S Trustable Foods India Pvt Ltd to Cremica Food Park Private Limited. The lease deed included an arbitration clause for mutually appointing an arbitrator, but the parties failed to agree. Mr. Raman Yadav, Advocate, was designated as the sole arbitrator, with the respondent allowed to raise jurisdictional objections and file counter-claims.

CYFUTURE INDIA PVT. LTD. VS BHARAT SANCHAR NIGAM LIMITED [ARB.P.-1761/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitral tribunal will be constituted to adjudicate disputes between the parties due to the presence of a valid arbitration agreement in the contract. A retired judge will act as the sole arbitrator, addressing all disputes, including preliminary objections on arbitrability or jurisdiction. The arbitration will be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with all parties' rights and contentions reserved for resolution on their merits.

D.C. ENGINEERS VS IRRIGATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DEPARTMENT AND ANOTHER [ARB.P.-1153/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the contract established a multi-tier dispute resolution mechanism that the petitioner invoked. The respondents failed to appoint a sole arbitrator, leading to the appointment of Mr. Bhuvan Gugnani as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The respondents were instructed to present any preliminary objections concerning jurisdiction or arbitrability, which the sole arbitrator would address according to the law, while allowing all parties' rights and contentions to be considered on their merits.

D.C. ENGINEERS VS IRRIGATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DEPARTMENT AND ANOTHER [ARB.P.-1151/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existing arbitration clause in the contract provides a multi-tier dispute resolution mechanism that the petitioner has exhausted. The respondents did not appoint an arbitrator despite requests from the petitioner, leading to the appointment of Mr. Bhuvan Gugnani as the sole arbitrator. The respondents can raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which the arbitrator will decide. The parties' rights and contentions remain open for resolution on the merits by the arbitrator.

D.C. ENGINEERS VS IRRIGATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DEPARTMENT AND ANOTHER [ARB.P.-1152/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Bhuvan Gugnani, has been appointed to resolve disputes from a construction contract. The existence of an arbitration clause allows for this appointment. The respondents may raise preliminary objections related to jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will address. The arbitrator's fees will follow the Fourth Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or an agreement between the parties. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for the arbitrator to decide on their merits.

DAIICHI SANKYO COMPANY, LIMITED VS MALVINDER MOHAN SINGH AND ORS. [EX.APPL.(OS)-31/2020]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The decree holder, Daiichi Sankyo Company Limited, is permitted to proceed with the public auction of the "Fortis" trademark owned by RHC Healthcare Management Services Private Limited. The request for an auditor or valuer to assess the trademark's value before the auction was rejected due to lack of legal basis. The Joint Registrar (Judicial) will oversee the public auction, incorporating the values presented by both parties in the property schedule. Any objections concerning the trademark's valuation may be raised before the sale is confirmed.

DANISH INFRATECH PVT. LTD. VS DELHI CANTONMENT BOARD [W.P.(C)-11476/2021]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The order to seal the premises of Danish Infratech Pvt. Ltd. was quashed due to the sealing being based solely on a proposed demolition now suspended for 1,894 unauthorized properties. Selective sealing of only a few properties without a valid rationale was observed. The property will be de-sealed if an undertaking to maintain status quo is provided, with directions remaining subject to future DCB policy decisions regarding the properties.

DDA VS M/S SPORTINA PAYCE INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-113/2017]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Parts of the arbitral award were set aside due to insufficient reasoning and connection to the parties' arguments regarding claims 1 and 2. Findings on claims 3, 4, 7, and 9 were upheld based on valid contract interpretations and factual determinations. Awards for additional claims 1 and 2 were also upheld as the reasoning was deemed valid. This case stands alone and is not part of a larger matter.

DEEPAK VS DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORT [W.P.(C)-2487/2019]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The suspension of the petitioner's driving license by the Transport Department was invalid due to a failure to follow the mandatory procedure under Section 19(1) of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The licensing authority did not provide the license holder an opportunity to be heard before the suspension. The respondent could not demonstrate that the required process, including a show cause notice and hearing, was followed. The suspension order was set aside, and the respondent was directed to issue a fresh show cause notice, allow a hearing, and provide a reasoned order. The petitioner was granted the right to appeal the new order if dissatisfied.

DELHIVERY LIMITED VS FASTMILE EXPRESS PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-993/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration agreement between Delhivery Limited and Fastmile Express Private Limited, as outlined in the Delivery Services Agreement dated 06.01.2022, is valid. Due to the parties' inability to mutually appoint a sole arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Vinay Kumar Jain was appointed to adjudicate the disputes. Fastmile Express Private Limited may raise objections regarding the arbitrator's jurisdiction, which will be considered on their merits. All rights and contentions regarding claims and counterclaims remain open for the sole arbitrator to decide according to the law.

DELHIVERY LIMITED VS FASTMILE EXPRESS PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-994/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties have a valid arbitration agreement under the Delivery Services Agreement. Due to an inability to agree on a sole arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Vinay Kumar Jain has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The respondent may raise objections regarding jurisdiction before the arbitrator under Section 16 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitrator's fees will be in accordance with the IVth Schedule or as mutually agreed, while the rights and contentions of the parties concerning claims and counter-claims remain open for determination by the arbitrator.

DELHIVERY LIMITED VS STERNE INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-992/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The High Court of Delhi has jurisdiction to appoint a sole arbitrator under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, despite the arbitration clause designating Gurgaon as the seat. Previous rulings support that when an arbitration agreement grants exclusive jurisdiction to a specific court, that court can appoint the arbitrator regardless of the specified seat. The examination under Section 11 is limited to confirming the existence of the arbitration agreement, which was acknowledged in this case. Justice (Retd.) Vinay Kumar Jain is appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes.

DELHIVERY LIMITED VS VINTAGE FURNITURES [ARB.P.-232/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Due to the failure to mutually appoint a sole arbitrator, Mr. Amrit Pal Singh Gambhir has been appointed. The arbitrator is directed to encourage settlement of disputes first and then decide on merits, including preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction. The arbitration will occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). The order does not express any opinion on the merits of the case.

DISHA ENTERPRISES VS J S S INTERIOR AND EXTERIOR PVT LTD AND ORS [ARB.P.-1203/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for constituting an Arbitral Tribunal was deemed maintainable. Arguments that the petition was time-barred, precluded by ongoing proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, or that a civil suit was necessary after unsuccessful pre-litigation mediation were rejected. A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes, with a directive for the Arbitrator to address any preliminary or jurisdictional objections regarding limitation before considering the merits of the case.

DLF LIMITED VS PNB HOUSING FINANCE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-1190/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid and broad arbitration agreement exists between the parties, covering the disputes raised by DLF. PNBHFL, although no longer a direct party after assigning the loan to Omkara, remains a necessary party for disputes before the assignment. Non-signatory parties, Omkara, Twenty-Five South, and Akruti, may be bound by the arbitration agreement under "alter ego," "direct benefits estoppel," and "intertwined estoppel," with final determinations on these issues left to the arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with jurisdictional objections to be raised before the tribunal, while the merits of the claims will also be decided by the tribunal.

DR. DURGESH CHAUHAN VS CYGNUS JK HINDU HOSPITAL & ORS. [ARB.P.-1430/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The disputes between the parties, stemming from a Memorandum of Understanding for physiotherapy services, are deemed arbitrable under the agreement's arbitration clause. Ms. Akriti Arora, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve these disputes, following the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). The respondent may present preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, to be decided by the arbitrator, while all rights and contentions of the parties remain open for merit-based consideration.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY SERVICES LTD VS M/S ITECH MASS PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-723/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Valid arbitration agreements exist between the parties despite the lack of signed formal contracts for some Letter of Awards (LOAs). The acceptance of bids established a binding contractual relationship, allowing for arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. A nominee arbitrator was appointed on behalf of the non-responsive party, with a direction for the two nominee arbitrators to select a presiding arbitrator. Each LOA/contract refers independently to arbitration, and the party is permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which will be addressed by the arbitral tribunal. No comments were made regarding the merits of the case, leaving all parties' rights and contentions open for decision by the arbitral tribunal.

ENSERVE ELECTROCON FURNISHERS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. VS SAMMAAN CAPITAL LIMITED & ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-364/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The issue of impleadment of non-signatories to the Settlement Agreement dated 29.03.2023 is subject to adjudication by a sole arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) V. Ramasubramanian. The disputes include objections regarding jurisdiction, arbitrability, and impleadment. The order does not express any opinion on these issues. Arbitration proceedings will be conducted independently, despite the appointment of a common arbitrator for convenience.

EXTRAMARKS EDUCATION INDIA PVT LTD VS G D GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [ARB.P.-1053/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Ojusya Joshi, was appointed to resolve disputes between the parties. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction for the arbitrator's decision. The parties will share equally in the arbitrator's fees and costs. All rights and contentions are reserved for the arbitrator to address on the merits, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

EXXONMOBIL LUBRICANTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS ASHA AUTOMINE PRIVATE LIMTIED [ARB.P.-1362/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the "Lubricants Direct Sale Agreement" is considered valid, and a sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve disputes due to the respondent's failure to make payments for delivered supplies. The respondent, having been properly served and not responding or consenting to the arbitrator's appointment, may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which will be addressed by the arbitrator.

G4S SECURE SOLUTIONS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS OYO HOTELS AND HOMES PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1698/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between G4S Secure Solutions India Private Limited and OYO Hotels and Homes Pvt Ltd. Mr. Ashish Chauhan has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to address disputes related to the respondent's failure to pay dues per the invoices. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which will be decided by the arbitrator. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for determination by the arbitrator based on merits and law.

GAJENDRA SINGH VS DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD [ARB.P.-1239/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The respondent's argument regarding the timeliness of the petitioner's claims could not lead to dismissal at this stage, as limitation is a mixed question of fact and law best addressed by the arbitral tribunal. The performance guarantee remained with the respondent, and the agreement had not been formally terminated, suggesting the dispute was ongoing. Additionally, the period from March 2020 to February 2022 was excluded for limitation purposes, following a Supreme Court directive. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, allowing the respondent to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction, arbitrability, and limitation. Observations regarding this matter were for the petition's decision and did not restrict the arbitrator from independently assessing the merits.

GALAXY IEC INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS DCM SHRIRAM LTD (THROUGH ITS UNIT SHRIRAM ALKALI AND CHEMICALS) [ARB.P.-1526/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration agreement exists between the parties under the Service Order dated 15.04.2023, as amended. A sole arbitrator, Ms. Justice (Retd.) Deepa Sharma, has been appointed to resolve the disputes. The arbitrator will first address the respondent's jurisdictional/preliminary objections regarding the arbitration agreement's scope, without any opinions on the merits or demerits of the parties' contentions.

GAURAV KUKREJA VS M/S EARTHZ URBAN SPACES PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-1486/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration agreement in the "Agreement for Construction" dated 04.09.2021 is acknowledged. An Arbitral Tribunal is constituted with Ms. Priya Kumar, Senior Advocate, appointed as the Sole Arbitrator. The Sole Arbitrator is instructed to first seek an amicable resolution before addressing the disputes on their merits, while preserving the rights and contentions of the parties for consideration during arbitration.

GEETA NARULA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15637/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioners' vehicles had already been scrapped by the Registered Vehicle Scrapping Facilities (RVSFs), preventing their release. Compensation was not granted due to a lack of specific claims regarding unlawful scrapping, though RVSFs were instructed to pay the scrap value upon receipt of relevant documents. Petitioners were permitted to initiate separate proceedings for additional compensation beyond the scrap value.

GIRIRAJ MAHESWARI VS DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD [ARB.P.-1372/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioner's request for the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was deemed valid. Ms. Swati Surbhi was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to adjudicate disputes with the Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB), stemming from DUSIB's failure to provide peaceful possession of a parking site allotted through an e-auction. The respondent is permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which will be addressed by the Sole Arbitrator.

GODAVARI PROJECTS JV VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (DIRECTOR GENERAL MAP OF (MOD) ARMY [ARB.P.-1342/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Objections by the Union of India against Godavari Projects (J.V.)'s right to invoke arbitration were deemed without merit. Insolvency proceedings against a member of the joint venture do not prevent the arbitration petition. The interpretation of the arbitration clause regarding alternative arrangements is flawed. A retired Supreme Court judge was appointed as the sole arbitrator, invalidating the clause for a serving officer of the respondent. The respondent can raise preliminary objections on jurisdiction which the arbitrator will decide. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case, leaving the determination of claims and counter-claims to the arbitrator.

GOLF DESIGNS VS SHAPOORJI PALLONJI AND COMPANY PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1538/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration agreement exists between Golf Designs and Shapoorji Pallonji and Company Pvt Ltd, allowing for the constitution of an arbitral tribunal. Mr. Karn Bhardwaj, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The respondent may raise objections on limitation or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will address before considering the merits of the claims. The parties will share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, with all rights and claims to be decided by the arbitrator.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI VS M/S RKMT BUILDCON PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-487/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition by the Government of NCT of Delhi for condonation of delay in challenging an arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The delay exceeded the three-month period specified in Section 34(3), and prior case law established that such delays cannot be condoned. The government initially filed a Section 34 petition before the District Judge, Commercial Court, which was later withdrawn before filing the current petition in the High Court, resulting in a delay that could not be accepted.

HARCHARAN DASS GUPTA VS WAPCOS LIMITED AND ANR [ARB.P.-1211/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Ruchi Agnihotri, will adjudicate disputes related to a construction work agreement between the petitioner and respondents. The arbitrator is tasked with addressing jurisdictional and preliminary objections, including the issue of limitation, before considering the merits of the claims. Arbitration will follow the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with fees and costs governed by those rules.

HINDUSTAN COLAS PVT LTD VS DSC ENGINEERING PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1656/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Valid arbitration agreements existed between the parties based on the work orders. An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Nandita Rao, was appointed to resolve the disputes. Each work order's arbitration reference is independent, though common hearings may be conducted for convenience. The respondent can raise counter-claims and jurisdictional objections for the arbitrator's consideration. The arbitration proceedings will follow the rules of the Delhi International and Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

HINDUSTAN UNILEVER LIMITED VS MR JAGDISH KUMAR SOLE PROPRIETOR OF HARI RAM DHARAM PAL [ARB.P.-1251/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Pre-arbitral mechanisms like mutual discussion and reference to an ombudsman in the Redistribution Stockiest Agreement are considered directory. Ms. Veronica Mohan has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes between Hindustan Unilever Limited and Mr. Jagdish Kumar Sole regarding unpaid invoices. Parties are instructed to present any preliminary objections or counterclaims to the sole arbitrator, with the arbitration proceedings to take place under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD VS AARTI GUPTA AND ANR [ARB.P.-604/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

There is a valid arbitration agreement between the parties as per the loan agreement, leading to the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. HR BUILDERS THROUGH GPA HOLDER VS DELHI AGRICULTURAL MARKETING BOARD [O.M.P. (COMM)-88/2021]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitral award was set aside due to a delay of over 2 years and 8 months in issuing the award after proceedings concluded. This delay was deemed inordinate and unexplained, violating principles of timely dispute resolution. Previous judgments established that such undue delays can be grounds for setting aside an award.

ICRI CORPORATES PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHOOGLO NETWORK PRIVATE LIMMITED (PREVIOUSLY AS OMG NETWORK PRIVATE LIMITED) [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-788/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition by ICRI Corporates Private Limited challenging an order that revised arbitral fees was dismissed. The initial fees were based on the IV Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, and separate calculations for claims and counter-claims were mandated by a Supreme Court judgment. The petition under Section 39(2) was deemed not maintainable since the arbitral proceedings had not yet reached the award stage. The arbitral tribunal's revision of fees in line with the Supreme Court directive was justified, as the initial agreement adhered to the IV Schedule.

IN2IT TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS PIESTING SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-1198/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration agreement exists between the parties, necessitating the constitution of an arbitral tribunal. Justice (Retd.) Indu Malhotra was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which the arbitrator will decide according to the law. All rights and contentions related to claims and counter-claims remain open for the arbitrator's consideration on their merits.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD VS DEEPAK AND ANR [ARB.P.-602/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

There is a valid arbitration agreement between the parties regarding the loan agreement. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Shubham Ranakoti, has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The respondents may raise objections on jurisdiction and counter-claims, which will be addressed on their merits. The sole arbitrator is to proceed with the arbitration after providing necessary disclosures under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD VS LOVE KUMAR AND ORS. [ARB.P.-877/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the loan agreement between Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd and the respondents is valid. Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd made several attempts to serve the respondents, who did not appear. An independent sole arbitrator has been appointed to address the claims and counterclaims, with Mr. Abhishek Mahajan, Advocate, designated to oversee the arbitration proceedings as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD VS RUKMINI SATISH KUMAR AND ANR. [ARB.P.-603/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Loan Agreement includes a valid arbitration clause allowing the lender to appoint a sole arbitrator for dispute resolution. Mr. Shubham Ranakoti, Advocate, was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator. The respondents may raise objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which the Sole Arbitrator will address on merits.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS BHAGWAN JALA AND ANR. [ARB.P.-918/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the Loan Agreement between Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd. and Bhagwan Jala is valid. Dr. Chandra Shekhar, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties. The parties will share the arbitrator's fees and costs equally, with all rights and contentions remaining open for determination by the arbitrator.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS DURGESH KUMAR AND ANR. [ARB.P.-882/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration clause in the Loan Agreement allows for the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd. made several attempts to initiate arbitration, but the respondents, Durgesh Kumar and another party, did not participate. Ms. Bandana Kaur Grover was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator, with both parties required to share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for determination by the Arbitrator.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS LAKSHMI ARYA AND ANR [ARB.P.-462/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties under the loan agreement, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to address the disputes. The examination focused solely on the prima facie existence of the arbitration agreement, without addressing the merits of the parties' contentions or the case itself.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS MANISH KUMAR AND ANR. [ARB.P.-906/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause in the loan agreement necessitated the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Despite multiple service attempts, the respondents did not appear, leading to the appointment of Dr. Chandra Shekhar as the arbitrator. The parties must equally share the arbitrator's fee and costs, while all rights and contentions remain open for decision by the arbitrator.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS RAJESH MEWALAL SHARMA AND ORS. [ARB.P.-920/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Loan Agreement between the parties includes a valid arbitration clause, allowing the petitioner to appoint a sole arbitrator for dispute resolution. The petitioner successfully attempted to serve the respondents. Mr. Shaurya Dhoundiyal, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The parties are to share the arbitrator's fees and costs equally, maintaining all rights and contentions for the arbitrator to address on their merits.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS SAGAR VILAS DHANAWADE AND ANR. [ARB.P.-914/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists under a loan agreement between Indiabulls Housing Finance Ltd. and Sagar Vilas Dhanawade. Ms. Mishika Bajpai is appointed as the sole independent arbitrator to resolve disputes. The respondents may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will decide. The parties will share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, while all rights and contentions remain open for the arbitrator to decide on merits.

INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS SWADHIN KUMAR PANDA & ANR. [ARB.P.-463/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties based on the Loan Agreement's terms. The examination for appointing an arbitrator is limited to the prima facie existence of such an agreement. The absence of the respondents did not prevent the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes. No opinion on the case's merits was expressed, and the respondents retain the right to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability before the Sole Arbitrator.

INDRAPRASTHA GAS LIMITED VS M/S CHINTAMANI FOOD AND SNACKS [ARB.P.-355/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An examination of the existence of a prima facie arbitration agreement between the parties confirmed its validity. An independent sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, as the specified procedure in the agreement was deemed invalid. The respondent retains the right to raise objections concerning jurisdiction and arbitrability, with these issues to be decided on their merits by the arbitral tribunal. The arbitration proceedings will take place under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

J.P. KAPOOR, PROPRIETOR OF M/S J.P. KAPOOR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [ARB.P.-1484/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Mr. Jayant Kumar has been appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes between J.P. Kapoor and the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) regarding a contract for maintaining a rainwater harvesting project. JAGTAJI INFRASTRUCTURE VS NORTHERN RAILWAY [ARB.P.-1782/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent Sole Arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Najmi Waziri, was appointed to resolve disputes between the petitioner and the respondent, with the respondent not disputing a valid arbitration agreement. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, to be decided by the Sole Arbitrator. The arbitration will follow the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), maintaining all rights and contentions of the parties for resolution on their merits.

JAIPAL SINGH VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [ARB.P.-1730/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes arising from a construction contract will be adjudicated by a sole arbitrator appointed as Ms. Ritambhara Kalra, Advocate. The arbitration clause in the contract supports this appointment. The respondent can raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which will be addressed by the arbitrator. Both parties must share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, while all rights and contentions related to the claims and counter-claims remain open for resolution based on their merits.

JANATA PARTY VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3171/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Election Commission of India lacks jurisdiction to resolve internal disputes of unrecognized political parties, such as the Janata Party. Previous judgments indicate that claims to leadership positions should be addressed through civil court declarations. The issuance of letters by the ECI advising parties to resolve disputes amicably or via court aligns with established legal principles. The Janata Party's writ petition was dismissed, affirming that internal disputes require civil court intervention.

JATINDER KAUR SAWHNEY VS GURSHARAN SINGH OBEROI & ORS [I.A.-8446/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The inter-se settlement agreements between defendant nos. 1, 3, and 4 for the sale of their shares in the suit property are valid. Objections from the plaintiff regarding the Will dated 04.04.2006 do not prevent the defendants from entering into settlement agreements, as the shares can be determined without probate of the Will. The plaintiff's right of pre-emption under Section 22 of the Hindu Succession Act, 1956 is not applicable, as defendant no. 1 is a Class-I legal heir of late Mrs. Pritam Kaur Oberoi. Joint applications were allowed, and a decree was passed in accordance with the settlement agreements.

JHAJHARIA NIRMAN LTD VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-280/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The contractor was not required to use pre-arbitral dispute resolution mechanisms, such as conciliation and Dispute Adjudication Board proceedings, before initiating arbitration, as these were considered directory rather than mandatory. The appointment procedure for the arbitral tribunal was deemed inadequate, lacking the necessary balance between the parties. A sole arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Pradeep Nandrajog, was appointed to resolve the disputes, with instructions to consider the respondent's preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability.

JONES LANG LASALLE PROPERTY CONSULTANTS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS RAJASTHAN URBAN DRINKING WATER SEWERAGE AND INFRASTRUCTURE CORPORATION LIMITED [ARB.P.-1380/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes arose from a contract for consulting services that included an arbitration clause. The petitioner invoked this clause, but the respondent did not appoint a nominee arbitrator within the 30-day timeframe specified in the contract. Mr. Jayant Kumar, Advocate, has been appointed as a sole independent arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The respondent retains the right to raise jurisdictional or preliminary objections before the arbitrator. The parties must equally share the arbitrator's fee and associated costs.

JONES LANG LASALLE PROPERTY CONSULTANTS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS RAJASTHAN URBAN DRINKING WATER SEWERAGE AND INFRASTRUCTURE CORPORATION LIMITED [ARB.P.-1385/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A dispute arose between Jones Lang LaSalle Property Consultants India Pvt. Ltd. and Rajasthan Urban Drinking Water Sewerage and Infrastructure Corporation Limited regarding a consulting services contract that included an arbitration clause. Mr. Jayant Kumar was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The respondent is permitted to present jurisdictional or preliminary objections to the arbitrator. The arbitration will primarily take place in Delhi, with an option for Jaipur as the venue upon request. The parties will share the arbitrator's fee and arbitration costs equally.

JSW GMR CRICKET PRIVATE LIMITED VS MOTHER'S EYE PRODUCTION PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1646/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the Brand Promotion Agreement between JSW GMR Cricket Private Limited and Mother's Eye Production Pvt Ltd is valid and enforceable. Mr. Vineet Dhanda, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties. Directions concerning the arbitrator's fees, costs, and arbitration proceedings are provided, while all rights and contentions of the parties will be addressed by the arbitrator on their merits.

KANBE WATER TECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS ANAND DEVINE DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-565/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The notice dated 18.03.2024 from Kanbe Water Tech Private Limited satisfies the requirements for commencing arbitration proceedings against Anand Devine Developers Private Limited under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Mr. H.S. Sharma, a retired District and Sessions Judge, is appointed as the independent sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes. Anand Devine Developers Private Limited may raise any jurisdictional or preliminary objections, including regarding limitation, for the arbitrator's consideration.

KANBE WATER TECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS DOMUS GREENS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-586/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The notice sent by the petitioner under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was deemed valid for invoking the arbitration clause. An independent Sole Arbitrator, Mr. H.S. Sharma, District and Sessions Judge (Retd.), was appointed to address disputes regarding unpaid dues. The respondent can raise jurisdictional or preliminary objections, including issues of limitation, before the Sole Arbitrator. Both parties are to share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, while the merits of the claims and counter-claims will be resolved according to the law.

KANOHAR ELECTRICALS LIMITED VS DELHI TRANSCO LIMITED [ARB.P.-1754/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between Kanohar Electricals Limited and Delhi Transco Limited under the General Conditions of Contract (GCC). Mr. Gopal Singh, Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes concerning liquidated damages due to alleged delays in work completion. Kanohar Electricals claims the delays resulted from Delhi Transco's failure to meet contractual obligations and changes in substation locations, while Delhi Transco attributes the delays to Kanohar Electricals. The arbitration will proceed under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

KANWAR SINGH YADAV VS DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORT DEVELOMENT CORPORATION LIMITED [ARB.P.-1455/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The inquiry regarding the appointment of an arbitrator is limited to assessing the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement. A valid arbitration agreement was established between the parties, irrespective of the objection regarding the petitioner's status as a party to the original agreement. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes, with instructions to first address the preliminary jurisdictional objections raised before considering the merits.

KEERTI GUPTA & ANR. VS GRANITE HILL PROPERTIES PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1282/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Ekta Kapil, was appointed to resolve disputes between the petitioners and Granite Hill Properties Pvt Ltd. The allotment agreement included an arbitration clause that allowed the developer to appoint the arbitrator, which the petitioners contested. The respondent's lack of response to the petitioners' invocation of the clause necessitated the appointment of an independent arbitrator. The parties were instructed to equally share the arbitrator's fees and costs.

KOTAK MAHINDRA PRIME LIMITED VS MANAV SETHI & ANR. [ARB.P.-1444/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration agreement in the Loan Agreement is valid. Ms. Vasundhara Bakhru has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The arbitrator will first address the jurisdictional objections raised by the respondents, including the issue of limitation, before deciding the disputes on their merits. The arbitration proceedings will be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

KOTAK MAHINDRA PRIME LIMITED VS NIKHIL JAIN [ARB.P.-1165/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration clause in the loan agreement necessitated the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Ms. Vasundhara Bakhru was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with arbitration to be conducted under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). The respondent retains the right to present jurisdictional objections for the arbitrator's consideration. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case.

KOTAK MAHINDRA PRIME LTD VS BERKLEY BEAUTY BRANDS PRIVATE LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-1136/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An undisputed arbitration agreement exists between the parties, necessitating the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. Mr. Kapil Dutta was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with the respondent permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which the arbitrator will address. The arbitrator's fee will align with the Fourth Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or as mutually agreed upon by the parties and the arbitrator. No opinion was expressed on the case's merits.

KULJIT SINGH VS PAWAN GOYAL AND ANR [RFA(COMM)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The plaintiff is entitled to recover R.S. 8,23,677/- with pendente lite and future interest at 6% per annum from the defendant, who acknowledged the liability through a cheque and a subsequent agreement. The defendant's claim of a conspiracy involving the plaintiff and another party was deemed unconvincing based on the evidence presented. The defendant's appeal was dismissed.

KUMAR SHASHANK SHEKHER VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7341/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition challenging the deletion of the petitioner's name from the electoral roll of the Mehrauli Constituency is not maintainable due to Section 23(3) of the Representation of the People Act, 1950. Amendments, transpositions, or deletions in the electoral roll after the last nomination date for an election are prohibited. Elections must proceed using the electoral roll as it stands on that date, despite any errors. The respondents are directed to treat the petition as a representation and make an appropriate decision at the relevant stage.

KUNDERU LAKSHMY VS INFO EDGE (INDIA) LIMITED [ARB.P.-1707/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes between the petitioner, a user of Naukri.com, and the respondent company will be referred to an independent sole arbitrator for adjudication, as the parties have an arbitration agreement in the platform's Terms & Conditions. The respondent acknowledged the agreement and consented to the appointment of a sole arbitrator, leading to Mr. Abhinash Agarwal being appointed for this role.

LALITA DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7824/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

M.V. OMNI PROJECTS (INDIA) LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH DY. CHIEF ENGG., NORTHERN RAILWAY & ANR. [ARB.P.-1717/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) L. Nageswara Rao, was appointed to resolve disputes arising from multiple contracts. The arbitration clause in these contracts was identical to a previously interpreted clause, necessitating the appointment of an independent arbitrator. Each contract's reference will be treated independently, although the same arbitrator will handle all matters for convenience. The respondent may raise objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability and file an application under Section 16 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, which the arbitrator will decide. This involves a common order in multiple connected petitions by the same petitioner against the same respondents.

M/S ADEP CLINICAL RESERARCH AND DIAGNOSTIC VS M/S SHYAMBHAVI LABS PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1111/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration agreement in the partnership deed is valid. A sole arbitrator is appointed to resolve the disputes. The invocation notice, despite lacking specific claim details, is deemed sufficient. The petitioner is permitted to amend the memo of parties to include other partners in the proceedings.

M/S ANAND AND CO VS AIRPORT AUTHORITH OF INDIA [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-394/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate disputes between the parties, as there was no dispute regarding the existence of the arbitration agreement. A retired judge was selected for this role, and the respondent was permitted to raise preliminary objections related to arbitrability or jurisdiction for the arbitrator to decide. The petition for interim relief under Section 9 was treated as an application under Section 17 to be addressed by the sole arbitrator.

M/S ARUN KUMAR PUSHPDEEP INFRASTRUCTURE (JV) VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [ARB.P.-1376/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties had a valid arbitration agreement as part of their construction contract. M/S COMBITIC GLOBAL CAPLET PVT LTD VS M/S AMBIKA REALCON PVT LTD [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-414/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Justice (Retd.) Hima Kohli, was appointed to resolve disputes between M/s Combitic Global Caplet Pvt Ltd and M/s Ambika Realcon Pvt Ltd regarding an agreement dated 23.06.2015, amended by a superseding agreement on 12.10.2020. The petitioner claimed entitlement to the 'net surplus' as specified in the agreement, which the respondent failed to provide. The parties disagreed on contract interpretation and jointly requested the arbitrator's appointment. The respondent may present preliminary objections concerning jurisdiction, to be addressed by the arbitrator, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case or the requested interim relief.

M/S DHARAMVIR AND COMPANY VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-15/2021]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The unilateral appointment of the arbitrator by the respondent (DDA) was deemed invalid under the amended provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Although arbitration had begun before the 2015 amendments, the parties agreed to apply the new provisions to the ongoing proceedings, making them applicable. Irregularities noted included demands for additional fees from the arbitrator, denial of evidence to the appellant, and questionable findings in the award. The composition of the arbitral tribunal and the arbitral procedure did not comply with the mandatory provisions of the Act, leading to the annulment of the arbitral award.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Siddhant Nath, was appointed to resolve disputes related to a contract for the installation, operation, and management of a Hemodialysis facility at Janakpuri Super Speciality Hospital. The arbitration will follow the Delhi International Arbitration Centre's rules, allowing the respondent to raise preliminary jurisdictional objections for the arbitrator's decision. Observations made do not address the merits, and all rights and contentions of the parties remain open for consideration by the arbitrator.

M/S FUJIFILM INDIA PVT. LTD. VS AARTI LUMBA PROPRIETOR OF AARTI TRADING COMPANY [ARB.P.-765/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration clause in the Distributorship Agreement between Fujifilm India Pvt. Ltd. and Aarti Trading Company was established. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhishek Mahajan, was appointed to resolve the disputes, allowing the respondent to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, with the final determination on the arbitration agreement to be made by the arbitral tribunal.

M/S HELLO VERIFY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS BHUWANESH SINGH CHAUHAN [ARB.P.-1273/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

M/s Hello Verify India Private Limited's petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 led to the establishment of an arbitral tribunal for dispute resolution. The employment agreement included a valid arbitration clause, allowing the company to appoint a sole arbitrator. Mr. Sidhant Kumar, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The respondent may raise objections concerning arbitrability, maintainability, or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will address according to the law.

M/S INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE LTD. VS KEWAL KRISHAN KUMAR AND ORS. [ARB.P.-876/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration clause in the loan agreement between the parties necessitates the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Mr. Abhishek Mahajan, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator to conduct the arbitration proceedings, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open for determination based on their merits.

M/S J.A BROTHERS VS M/S JORDAN CONSTRUCTION & ORS. [ARB.P.-1266/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Nikhil Palli, Advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes between M/s J.A Brothers and M/s Jordan Construction & Ors., stemming from two Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) dated 26.12.2017. The arbitration clause in the MoUs was deemed valid, and the petitioner invoked the arbitration process under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The respondent did not oppose the arbitrator's appointment. The arbitrator was instructed to continue with the proceedings, ensuring necessary disclosures, and the parties were to share the arbitrator's fees and costs equally. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case, leaving claims and counterclaims for the arbitrator's decision.

M/S KALPATARU PROJECTS INTERNATIONAL LIMITED VS GAIL (INDIA) LIMITED [ARB.P.-1511/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A retired High Court judge has been appointed as the sole arbitrator for disputes arising from a pipeline replacement project agreement. The arbitrator is to first address objections regarding the maintainability and arbitrability of the claims before considering the merits. Counter-claims by the respondent are also subject to these objections. The parties will share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, and all claims and counter-claims will be assessed on their merits in accordance with the law.

M/S KAMAL BUILDERS THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SHRI KAMAL GUPTA VS M/S K K SPUN INDIA LIMITED [ARB.P.-1212/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 resulted in the appointment of a retired judge as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties. An existing arbitration agreement supported this appointment. The respondent is allowed to raise preliminary objections on jurisdiction and arbitrability, with all parties' rights and contentions retained for merit-based consideration.

M/S KANCHENJUNGA COMMERCIAL LTD & ANR. VS M/S ANSAL PROPERTIES AND INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-16/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The application by M/S Kanchenjunga Commercial Ltd. & Anr. for interim measures under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is treated as an application under Section 17 to be handled by the sole arbitrator. The disputes are already in arbitration, with an application pending for the impleadment of a non-signatory party, RSD Finance Ltd. The arbitrator's decision on interim orders against the non-signatory party will depend on the outcome of the impleadment application. Existing interim orders will remain in effect until further decisions by the arbitrator.

M/S L.R. BUILDERS PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS M/S P.P. JEWELLERS PVT. LTD. & ORS. [I.A.-18219/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The plaintiff companies failed to establish a prima facie case, balance of convenience, and irreparable injury for an interim injunction against the defendants regarding the Family Settlement Deeds (FSDs) from 2015 and 2019. The FSDs do not create or extinguish rights in the properties owned by the plaintiff companies but address actions for the defendant family members, who are shareholders/directors. The purpose of the family settlements is to maintain peace and goodwill within the family. Further proceedings are scheduled for 28.05.2024.

M/S LIVFAST BATTERIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S SAI SIDDHI [ARB.P.-664/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

M/s Livfast Batteries Private Limited is entitled to appoint a sole arbitrator to adjudicate disputes with M/s Sai Siddhi based on their agreement's arbitration clause. The existence of a Section 138 proceeding against the respondent for a dishonored cheque does not obstruct the arbitration, as the matters arise from different causes of action. Mr. Anish Chawla has been appointed as the sole arbitrator, with the respondent permitted to raise jurisdictional objections before him.

M/S LIVGUARD ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S SRI VELAVAN BATTERY SERVICE THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR/AUTHORIZED SIGNATORY MR NATARAJAN SRINIVASAN [ARB.P.-1610/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 permits the appointment of a sole arbitrator for disputes between the petitioner and respondent based on a valid arbitration clause in their agreement. The pendency of a criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act does not impede arbitration proceedings, as the matters arise from distinct causes of action. The notice served to the respondent is considered effective due to the petitioner's multiple attempts to contact the respondent at its known address and through other channels. Mr. Dhruv Pande, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to address the disputes on their merits.

M/S MANTARAV PVT LTD VS M/S ELECTRIP PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1495/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the "Master Contract Service Agreement" between M/s Mantarav Pvt Ltd and M/s Electrip Pvt Ltd is valid. A Sole Arbitrator, Ms. Akriti Arora, has been appointed to resolve disputes arising from the respondent's failure to pay R.S. 6,37,200/- for completed milestones. The petitioner invoked the arbitration clause after the respondent did not respond to the notice and failed to appoint an arbitrator. The existence of the arbitration clause is acknowledged, with the respondent allowed to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability for the Sole Arbitrator to address.

M/S MOD INTERIORS PVT LTD VS M/S DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD (DSIIDC) [ARB.P.-1421/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties. An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Pratiksha Sharma, has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will address. The arbitration will proceed under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

M/S MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS EHPS EVER HOLIDAY PLANNERS SERVICES THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR. SURAJ RAI [ARB.P.-1191/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause in the Master Loan Agreement justified the appointment of a sole arbitrator for dispute adjudication. Valid service of the petitioner on the respondent was established under Section 3 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Mr. Rubinder Ghumman was appointed as the sole arbitrator to conduct proceedings at the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with the respondent allowed to present preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction for the arbitrator's consideration. No opinions on the case merits were expressed.

M/S MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS LAKSHYA POLYTEX PRIVATE LIMITED THROUGH ITS DIRECTORS (FORMERLY KNOWN AS LAKSH POLYTEX PRIVATE LIMITED) AND OTHERS [ARB.P.-1235/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A prima facie case for the existence of an arbitration agreement between the parties has been established. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes, and respondents are directed to raise any objections regarding arbitrability and jurisdiction before the arbitral tribunal. The determination of the existence and validity of the arbitration agreement is to be decided by the arbitral tribunal, adhering to the principle of competence-competence. There is no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

M/S MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS PUSHPA ENTERPRISES THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SHRI TARUN GUPTA AND ANR [ARB.P.-1574/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration clause exists in the Master Loan Agreement between the parties, allowing for the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator. Mr. Naman Anand, Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator, with respondents permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction. The petitioner made multiple attempts to serve the respondents, who failed to appear. Arbitration will proceed under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with all rights and contentions of the parties reserved for decision by the arbitrator.

M/S MONEYWISE FINANCIAL SERVICES PVT LTD VS M/S MALAD RESIDENCY THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SH. THAJUDDIN K M [ARB.P.-1321/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

M/s Moneywise Financial Services Pvt. Ltd. is entitled to appoint a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes with M/s Malad Residency based on the arbitration clause in the Master Loan Agreement. A valid arbitration clause exists, leading to the appointment of Mr. Naman Anand, Advocate, as the sole arbitrator. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will address. All rights and contentions of both parties remain open for the arbitrator's consideration.

M/S MOONWALK INFRA PROJECTS PVT LIMTED VS M/S FRUITMONT PRIVATE LIMTED [ARB.P.-1163/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties based on the purchase order and techno-commercial proposal. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes, with the respondent allowed to raise objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction before the arbitrator, to be decided before addressing the merits of the claims.

M/S ONCQUEST LABORATORIES LTD VS M/S SDACC HEALTHCARE PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1133/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The scope of inquiry when appointing an arbitrator is limited to assessing the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement. An arbitration clause was found to exist in the agreement between the parties, leading to the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The decision was made by a single judge without any disagreements or referral to a larger bench, indicating it was an individual case.

M/S PARWANI ENTERPRISES VS T BHIMJYANI WAREHOUSING COLD CHAIN PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1147/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the agreement specifies that arbitration "shall be held in Delhi," establishing Delhi as the seat of arbitration. As a result, the courts in Delhi possess territorial jurisdiction to handle the petition for the appointment of a sole arbitrator, despite the agreement's mention of Sonepat's courts. The distinction was made from other cases where the language used indicated that the specified location was only a "venue" and not the "seat" of arbitration.

M/S R B ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1880/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

M/S R B Enterprises filed a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, seeking the appointment of an arbitral tribunal for dispute resolution. The arbitration clause in the contract was deemed valid and applicable, leading to the appointment of Ms. Ekta Kapil, Advocate, as the sole arbitrator, with arbitration conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre's rules.

M/S R B ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1879/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

M/s R B Enterprises initiated a petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, seeking the formation of an arbitral tribunal to address disputes with the Union of India related to a contract for pulse supply. The contract was terminated by the respondent, who also encashed the petitioner's bank guarantee. The applicable arbitration clause stipulated arbitration for dispute resolution, with no obstacles identified for appointing a sole arbitrator. Ms. Ekta Kapil, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator to handle the disputes, and the arbitration will take place under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S R B ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1866/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator is to be appointed to resolve disputes between M/s R B Enterprises and the Union of India concerning a contract for procurement of pulses. The unilateral appointment of a sole arbitrator by the Union of India was deemed inconsistent with established principles. Ms. Ekta Kapil, Advocate, is appointed as the sole arbitrator to handle the disputes per the arbitration clause and the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

M/S R B ENTERPRISES VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1865/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was granted, confirming the applicability of the arbitration clause in the Standard Conditions of the Request for Proposal (RFP) to the contract between the parties. An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Ekta Kapil, was appointed to resolve the disputes. Arbitration will take place under the Rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with costs and fees governed by those Rules. All parties retain their rights and claims, to be assessed by the arbitrator on their merits.

M/S REINFORCED EARTH INDIA PVT LTD VS RK INFRACORP PRIVATE LIMTED & ANR. [ARB.P.-1382/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties had a valid arbitration agreement under the Tripartite Agreement, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. The existence of the arbitration agreement was clear from the Tripartite Agreement, allowing for the constitution of an arbitral tribunal. Respondents were instructed to raise jurisdiction or arbitrability objections before the sole arbitrator, who would address these and any counter-claims while proceeding with the arbitration after necessary disclosures. The order did not imply any opinion on the merits of the case.

M/S RISHYAB INFRATECH PVT. LTD. VS LT. GOVERNOR NCT OF DELHI & ANR [W.P.(C)-8215/2013]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Petitions challenging the validity of an award under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, for land acquisition were dismissed. Notice requirements under Sections 9 and 10 of the Act are considered directory, and procedural lapses do not invalidate the acquisition. The date of signing the award is recognized as the effective date, not the date of communication. Claims that the award was antedated or violated a prior order lack merit. Since the acquisition proceedings were not challenged, compensation must be determined under the 1894 Act, not the 2013 Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act.

M/S RKMT BUILDCON PRIVATE LIMITED VS GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI [ARB.P.-1329/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioner's additional claims should be referred to the same sole arbitrator, contingent on the parties agreeing to waive the provisions of Section 12(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. Unilateral appointment of an arbitrator is generally disfavored, but the petitioner's willingness to waive the statutory provision led to this decision. If any impediment arises, the parties may seek appropriate legal remedies.

M/S S S BUILDERS VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1512/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The appointment procedure for the arbitrator was biased towards one party and did not meet legal requirements. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Ganesh Khemka, was appointed to resolve the disputes. The respondent may raise jurisdictional objections, which will be considered by the arbitrator. The parties will share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, while all rights and contentions regarding claims and counterclaims remain open for decision on their merits.

M/S SAMSUNG INDIA ELECTRONICS PRIVATE LIMITED VS JAISWAL TECHNO COMMERCIAL & ORS. [ARB.P.-1227/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between M/s Samsung India Electronics Private Limited and Jaiswal Techno Commercial & Ors., as indicated by the clauses in the Authorised Service Centre Agreement and the Spare Parts Agreement. A sole arbitrator has been appointed under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) to resolve the disputes, with the respondents allowed to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will address according to the law. All parties retain their rights and contentions concerning claims and counter-claims for the arbitrator's assessment on merit.

M/S SHIVANSH MANPOWER ANDSECURITY VS M/S YUANTAI INTERNATIONAL SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT PVT LTD [ARB.P.-458/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Ms. Ramya S. Goel, Advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes from an agreement dated 01.04.2020, which contained a valid arbitration clause. The appointment of the independent Sole Arbitrator was deemed unobstructed. The respondent is permitted to raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, with those issues to be addressed by the Arbitrator. The parties are required to equally share the arbitrator's fees and costs, while retaining all rights and contentions for merits consideration by the Sole Arbitrator.

M/S SHRI BUDDHO MATEY LLP THROUGH ITS PARTNER MR SANJAY GUPTA VS ZYNGO EV MOBILITY PRIVATE LIMITED AND OTHERS [ARB.P.-1110/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration agreements in the master lease agreements dated 09.06.2020 and 25.03.2021 are acknowledged as valid, allowing for the constitution of an arbitral tribunal. Ms. Veronica Mohan will act as the sole arbitrator for the disputes under both agreements, with each reference being treated independently, though common hearings may be scheduled. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for determination by the arbitrator based on legal merits.

M/S SINGER INDIA LTD VS M/S. AJAY INDUSTRIAL POLYMERS PVT. LTD [ARB.P.-1521/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Vineet Jhanji, will adjudicate disputes arising from the Mould Manufacturing Agreement dated 27.09.2021. A valid arbitration clause exists in the agreement, and the parties will resolve disputes through arbitration under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) Rules. The arbitrator's fees and arbitration costs will adhere to these Rules, and the proceedings will involve only the parties to the agreement, excluding non-signatories.

M/S SMAT FORMS VS SAHITYA AKADEMI & ANR. [ARB.P.-361/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties, evidenced by the arbitration clause in the rate contract agreement. Mr. Abhimanyu Garg is appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate disputes under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Parties can raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator, which will be considered on their merits. No opinion on the merits of the case has been expressed, and claims and counterclaims will be decided in accordance with the law.

M/S SOMA NEW TOWNS PVT LTD VS M/S VIKAS BUILDMART PRIVATE LIMITED AND ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-349/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes arising from a Share Purchase and Shareholders Agreement are to be resolved through arbitration as specified in the agreement. A retired judge has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to address these disputes, including any preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability. The arbitrator is directed to proceed with the arbitration proceedings, with all parties' rights and contentions regarding the merits of claims and counter-claims remaining open for decision according to the law.

M/S SPICEJET LTD VS M/S TRAVEL2 AGENT.COM & ORS [O.M.P. (COMM)-132/2016]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitral award concluded that SpiceJet Ltd. breached its agreement with Travel2Agent.com by failing to provide the necessary payment gateway. Evidence supported that Travel2Agent.com incurred expenses of Rs. 29,30,937/- based on SpiceJet's assurances. However, the award of Rs. 5 lakhs in damages was set aside due to a lack of rationale from the arbitral tribunal.

M/S STROYPROEKT LLC-OIA JV VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED [ARB.P.-1482/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The contractual requirement for parties to engage in pre-arbitration conciliation, as outlined in the EPC Agreement, is deemed directory rather than mandatory. Mr. Justice (Retd.) Krishna Murari is appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties, with the respondent allowed to present objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability for consideration on merits.

M/S SUNRISE ENTERPRISES VS IRRIGATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DEPARTMENT GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI, [ARB.P.-1921/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Jurisdiction to entertain the petition under Section 2(e) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, exists because the agreement was executed in Delhi, work was conducted within Delhi, and the parties are headquartered there. An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Priyanka Dalal, has been appointed to resolve disputes in accordance with the arbitration clause, with the provision for the respondent to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction to be decided by the arbitrator.

M/S VARINDERA CONSTRUCTIONS LIMITED VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [ARB.P.-1727/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitral tribunal was constituted to address disputes between M/s Varindera Constructions Limited and the Delhi Development Authority. The tribunal includes the nominee arbitrators selected by both parties, with Justice (Retd.) S. Ravindra Bhat serving as the presiding arbitrator. Arbitration proceedings will take place under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, allowing all parties to maintain their rights and arguments for consideration by the tribunal.

M/S WILLUS INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD VS M/S ANIKAR INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-1298/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement existed between the petitioner and respondent, supported by the arbitration clause in the purchase order. The argument about the agreement being deficiently stamped was rejected, as such deficiencies do not obstruct the formation of an arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator was appointed to address the disputes, allowing both parties to present their claims and counter-claims for consideration on merits. Arbitration will be conducted under the rules of the DIAC. Arbitration Centre.

M/S ZILLION INFRAPROJECTS PVT. LTD VS THE INDURE PRIVATE LTD. [ARB.P.-1288/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration agreement between the parties is prima facie established, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes. Objections regarding the lack of stamping of work orders and claims being barred by limitation are deemed issues for the arbitrator, not for the court at this stage. The arbitrator is tasked with first addressing the respondent's objections concerning the arbitrability of the claims and whether the petitioner needed to approach the Engineer per the contract, before examining the merits of the dispute. The decision on arbitration costs is also left for the arbitrator.

M/S. GANESHA ECOSPHERE LTD VS M/S. SVP INDUSTRIES LTD [ARB.P.-440/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties had a valid arbitration agreement designating Delhi as the seat of arbitration, despite objections from the respondent. The choice of Delhi as the venue indicates it serves as the designated seat, even with a generic jurisdiction clause. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes, with the respondent's arguments regarding the notice invoking arbitration and the cause of action's location deemed matters for the arbitral tribunal. All rights and contentions regarding claims and counter-claims remain open for the arbitrator to decide on their merits.

M/S. M.V. OMNI PROJECTS (INDIA) LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA, THROUGH DY. CHIEF ENGINEER/CONST.-II/NORTHERN RAILWAY [ARB.P.-703/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The procedure for the appointment of the arbitral tribunal under Clauses 63 and 64 of the contract was deemed inadequate in achieving a balanced representation of the parties. The existing arbitral tribunal's appointment was annulled, and a retired Supreme Court judge was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The respondent is permitted to raise jurisdictional objections, including claims that may fall under "excepted matters," which the arbitrator will address according to the law.

M/S. VATIKA LIMITED & ORS. VS M/S SAMMAAN CAPITAL LIMITED AND ORS. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-365/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The issue of impleading non-signatories and consolidating multiple transactions in the proposed arbitration can be adjudicated by the arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Justice (Retd.) V. Ramasubramanian, was appointed to resolve disputes between the parties. The order clarified that it did not address the respondents' objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability, which the arbitrator is to consider along with objections to the impleadment of non-signatories. Parties are allowed to submit additional pleadings and documents, and the arbitrator will assess the need for any interim measures of protection.

M/S. WEDDINGPARK HOSPITALITIES PVT. LTD VS BALESH DEVI BHADANA & ANR. [ARB.P.-1361/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an Arbitration Agreement between M/S. WEDDINGPARK HOSPITALITIES PVT. LTD and BALESH DEVI BHADANA & ANR. is undisputed. A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Justice (Retd.) Rajiv Sahai Endlaw, has been appointed to resolve disputes concerning the alleged premature termination of a Lease Deed dated 01.12.2017 and claims of forcible possession by the respondents. The respondents may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability/jurisdiction, which the Sole Arbitrator will address. Arbitration will follow the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC).

MAGIC EYE DEVELOPERS PVT LTD. VS GREEN EDGE INFRA PVT. LTD & ORS. [OMI-114/2020]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A broad arbitration agreement exists between the parties in the Shareholders' Agreement, covering disputes from interconnected agreements like the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU-2), despite MOU-2 lacking an explicit arbitration clause. The agreements are part of a composite transaction. A sole arbitrator is appointed to address the disputes, with findings on the arbitration agreement being prima facie, allowing for further examination by the arbitral tribunal. The parties involved include the signatories of the Shareholders' Agreement and Share Purchase Agreement, along with group companies of one of the parties.

MAHALAXMI ELECTRONICS VS M/S XTREME MEDIA PVT LTD [ARB.P.-840/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The inquiry under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, is limited to determining the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement. The Memorandum of Understanding between the parties indicated the existence of the arbitration agreement, leading to the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes, without addressing other issues meant for the arbitral tribunal. The order does not comment on the merits of the case.

MAHAVIR TRANSMISSION LIMITED VS BALAJI TRADERS [ARB.P.-682/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent Sole Arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between Mahavir Transmission Limited and Balaji Traders. The existence of an arbitration agreement in the Purchase Order was confirmed, which included arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, with New Delhi as the seat. Mr. Vinay Yadav was designated as the Sole Arbitrator to handle the disputes and any counter-claims, following the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. All rights and contentions of the parties were preserved for the Sole Arbitrator's consideration on their merits.

MAHUA MOITRA VS NISHIKANT DUBEY AND ORS [I.A.-24255/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The plaintiff failed to establish a prima facie case for an interim injunction against the defendants. The plaintiff's admissions and the findings of the Lok Sabha Ethics Committee report supported the defendants' allegations, raising doubts about the veracity of the plaintiff's claims that the statements were entirely false and made recklessly. The final determination of the truth or falsity of the allegations is reserved for the final disposal of the suit, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open for consideration at that time.

MANAK PORTFOLIOS (P) LTD. & ORS. VS GEETA KATYAL & ANR. [I.A.-12186/2020]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The plaintiff-purchasers' registered sale deed dated 15.12.2017 is declared legally valid, granting them possession of the disputed property. The defendants' claims based on a 2009 agreement to sell and challenges to a 2016 will are dismissed as untenable and legally barred. A separate partition suit filed by the defendants is deemed an abuse of process.

MANISH SAKHUJA VS SANJEEV SAKHUJA [ARB.P.-1328/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of the arbitration agreement between the parties is undisputed, allowing for the constitution of an arbitral tribunal. The filing of a criminal complaint does not prevent recourse to arbitration, and the examination at the appointment stage is limited to the prima facie existence of the arbitration agreement. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes.

MANU RAJ BHALLA VS SPIRE TECHPARK PRIVATE LTD [ARB.P.-1157/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra, was appointed to resolve disputes between Manu Raj Bhalla and Spire Techpark Private Ltd. An arbitration agreement between the parties was acknowledged, and the arbitrator was directed to conduct proceedings. The parties must equally share the arbitrator's fee and costs, with all rights regarding the merits of the case reserved for the arbitrator's decision.

MILLENNIUM EDUCATION MANAGEMENT PRIVATE LIMITED VS NARAYAN SEWA SAMITI [ARB.P.-556/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The respondent's application to recall the order appointing an independent arbitrator was dismissed. The arbitration agreement's existence and validity, based on Clause 19 of the Collaboration Agreement, was not disputed. Issues regarding the merits of the Collaboration Agreement and mutual rights and obligations were assigned to the arbitral tribunal. The respondent's applications were deemed lacking in merit and evidence of good faith.

MOHD. KHALID, PROPRIETOR OF M/S P.S. SOLUTIONS INC. VS HINDUSTAN CONSTRUCTION COMPANY LIMITED & ORS. [ARB.P.-244/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A petition under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a Sole Arbitrator was dismissed due to the parties' agreement that the seat of arbitration is Mumbai, with exclusive jurisdiction assigned to Mumbai courts. The choice of seat is akin to an exclusive jurisdiction clause, meaning only Mumbai courts can handle related petitions or applications. The petitioner can file an appropriate petition in Mumbai.

MOHD. SAQUIB VS MADHYAM LAND TRADE LLP & ORS. [ARB.P.-1587/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement existed between the parties, allowing for the appointment of a sole arbitrator by one party. The petitioner requested the appointment based on jurisdiction established by their location and related transactions in Delhi. Mr. Atif Suhrawardy, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The arbitrator was instructed to facilitate mediation or conciliation and to provide necessary disclosures. The rights and claims of both parties remain open for adjudication based on their merits.

MOHINI MALLA VS NAVGROW CONSTRUCTION PVT. LTD. & ORS. [ARB.P.-1389/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration agreement between the parties is established in the collaboration agreement dated 16.03.2020, allowing for the constitution of an Arbitral Tribunal. Ms. Ekta Kapil, Advocate, was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator due to the parties' inability to agree on one. Judges: Justice Sachin Datta
The arbitration agreement in the Supply Agreement dated 19.07.2017 is valid and enforceable. The petitioner invoked arbitration due to the respondents' failure to meet minimum purchase commitments. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, with proper service of notice to the respondents. The proceedings will allow the parties to present their rights and contentions for adjudication based on merit.

MS AXALTA COATING SYSTEMS INDIA PVT. LTD. VS MS NCS AUTO HUB PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1464/2024]
Judges: Justice Sachin Datta
The arbitration agreement between the parties designated New Delhi as the seat of arbitration, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to address disputes from the supply agreement. The existence of the arbitration agreement was confirmed, allowing the respondent to raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator. Fees and costs for the arbitration were to be shared equally by both parties.

MS INAM AND CO VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS. [ARB.P.-1541/2024]
Judges: Justice Sachin Datta
The notice invoking arbitration by MS INAM AND CO. adequately outlined the claims, meeting the requirements of Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The objection regarding the lack of specificity in the claims was rejected. A sole arbitrator, Ms. Charanya Lakshmikumaran, Advocate, was appointed to resolve the disputes, with no opinion expressed on the merits or jurisdictional objections, which will be addressed by the arbitrator.

MS TERRESTRIAL FOODS LIMITED VS SANSKRITI FOOD EQUIPMENTS EXIM PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1449/2024]
Judges: Justice Sachin Datta
The parties have a valid arbitration agreement under the Purchase Order. An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Manika Tripathi, has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The respondent can raise jurisdiction objections before the arbitrator, who will proceed with arbitration after required disclosures under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitrator's fee will follow the 4th Schedule of the Act or be agreed upon by the parties and the arbitrator. No opinion on the merits of the case has been expressed; this will be decided by the arbitrator.

MUKESH KUMAR SRIVASTAV VS SPIRE TECHPARK PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1156/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra, was appointed to adjudicate disputes between Mukesh Kumar Srivastav and Spire Techpark Private Limited. The existence of the arbitration agreement was acknowledged by both parties. They are to share the arbitrator's fee and arbitral costs equally, with all rights and contentions remaining open for the arbitrator to decide on their merits.

MUNIZA BEGUM ALIAS JAHAN ARA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5578/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) must consider the petitioner's arguments regarding the National Capital Territory of Delhi Laws (Special Provisions) Second (Amendment) Act, 2023, and issue a speaking order after hearing both the petitioner and the concerned owner/occupier. The MCD's prior position conflicts with its current assertion that the property is protected under the special law, as unauthorized construction continues at the site. The matter requires reconsideration by the MCD.

N.S. ASSOCIATES PVT. LTD. VS THE LIFE INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA [O.M.P. (COMM)-208/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The venue of the arbitration was established as New Delhi, making it the seat and granting supervisory jurisdiction. However, the unilateral appointment of the sole arbitrator rendered the entire arbitral proceedings and the resulting award invalid, leading to the setting aside of the impugned arbitral award.

NARESH CHAND GUPTA VS BAR COUNCIL OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3244/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

There is no basis for the petitioner's objections against respondent no. 3, as the university has verified the legitimacy of his law degree. The Bar Council of India must present relevant records to the High-Powered Committee for the expedited verification of educational certificates of enrolled lawyers.

NEC CORPORATION INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED (ERSTWHILE NEC TECHNOLOGIES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED) VS M/S PLUS 91 SECURITY SOLUTIONS & ORS. [CS(COMM)-656/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

NEC Corporation India Private Limited is entitled to recover Rs. 4,21,39,402.95 from M/s Plus 91 Security Solutions & Ors., along with interest at 10% per annum from the dates of non-realization of post-dated cheques. The purchase orders and invoices constitute a written contract, and the defendants' attempt to introduce extraneous issues and counterclaims is not allowed in summary proceedings. The defendants' application for unconditional leave to defend the suit was dismissed due to a lack of valid defense.

NETWAY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS DR. RAM NARESH TRIPATHI [ARB.P.-1180/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Ekta Kapil, has been appointed to resolve disputes between Netway India Private Limited and Dr. Ram Naresh Tripathi related to the termination of a contract for astrology services. The arbitration clause in their agreement specified the use of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, and the respondent did not object to this appointment. Arbitration will proceed under the rules of the Centre, allowing the respondent to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction for the arbitrator's decision. No opinion has been expressed on the merits of the parties' claims.

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Justice (Retd.) Deepa Sharma, was appointed to resolve disputes related to a work order for an airport construction project. A valid arbitration clause was confirmed in the contract, leading to the formation of an independent arbitral tribunal as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The parties were directed to equally share the arbitrator's fees and costs, maintaining their rights for determination on the merits by the arbitrator.

NIZAMUDDIN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7411/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Petitioners granted licenses for catering units at railway stations are not entitled to renewal, as they were aware of the non-renewable 5-year term outlined in the tender. Their argument that Clause 11 of the Catering Policy 2017 violates their constitutional rights was rejected. A 3-month extension was granted to allow petitioners to vacate the units, with usual license fees payable, to facilitate alternative arrangements following the expiration of their licenses.

NORTH EAST CENTRE FOR TECHNOLOGY APPLICATION AND REACH VS GRACE RTP BAMBOO PVT LTD AND ORS [ARB.P.-1304/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes between North East Centre for Technology Application and Reach and Grace RTP Bamboo Pvt Ltd are to be referred to arbitration under the Technology Development Assistance Agreement. A retired District Judge is appointed as the sole arbitrator. Respondents can raise objections on arbitrability, maintainability, or jurisdiction for the arbitrator's decision. The respondent directors, not being signatories to the agreement, are excluded from the arbitration.

NS ASSOCIATES PVT LTD VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL [ARB.P.-1496/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Krishna Murari, has been appointed to resolve disputes between NS Associates Pvt Ltd and the New Delhi Municipal Council regarding a construction contract. The appointment follows NS Associates' exhaustion of the contractual dispute resolution process, having approached relevant officials without receiving a response. The arbitrator will decide on the claims and counterclaims based on their merits as outlined in the contract's arbitration clause.

OYO WORKSPACES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS EDUUIS TECHO SOLUTION PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1568/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A prima facie valid arbitration agreement exists between OYO Workspaces India Private Limited and Eduuis Techo Solution Private Limited, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve their disputes. The inquiry focused solely on the existence of the arbitration agreement and not on the merits of the case. Preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability may be raised before the appointed arbitrator.

PACIFIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD VS DJT REALTORS PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1479/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An existing arbitration agreement exists between the parties in the License Agreement. Ms. Geeta Luthra has been appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes, with the respondent allowed to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction. No opinion on the merits of the case has been expressed, and all rights and contentions of the parties remain open for the Sole Arbitrator to decide in accordance with the law.

PACIFIC MAINTENANCE SERVICES PVT LTD VS DJT RETAILERS PVT LTD [ARB.P.-1497/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement existed between the parties under the Maintenance and Services Agreement dated 08.08.2022, leading to the appointment of Ms. Geeta Luthra, Senior Advocate, as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve the disputes. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, to be decided by the arbitrator. The order does not express any opinion on the merits of the case.

PALGHAR ROAD PROJECT PRIVATE LIMITED VS THE STATE OF MAHARASHTRA [ARB.P.-966/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Palghar Road Project Private Limited cannot be compelled to join the Society for Affordable Redressal of Disputes (SAROD) as a condition for arbitration, as this imposes an unexpected obligation not specified in the arbitration agreement. The pre-arbitration conciliation clause is considered directory rather than mandatory. As the parties failed to mutually appoint an arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Vineet Saran was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes related to the payment of GST on milestone payments under the concession agreement.

PALM CONSTRUCTION AND SUPPLIERS VS KALPATARU PROJECTS INTERNATIONAL LIMTITED [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-81/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The mandate of the existing sole arbitrator was terminated due to alleged infirmities in disclosures. A new independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Pankaj Agarwal, was appointed to resolve disputes under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). The new arbitrator will proceed with the arbitration based on already filed pleadings, allowing the respondent to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which will be decided in accordance with the law. All rights and contentions concerning claims and counter-claims are preserved for determination by the new sole arbitrator on their merits.

PAWAN GUPTA AND ANR VS KAMAL GUPTA AND ORS [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-198/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties to the Family Settlement Deed (FSD) dated 09.07.2019. Disputes involving an intervening party are deemed arbitrable since the FSD does not concern the assets of those companies. The NCLT lacks exclusive jurisdiction over these disputes as the FSD does not qualify as a "compromise or arrangement" under the Companies Act. The importance of upholding family settlements for maintaining peace and harmony is acknowledged, leading to the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes among the signatories of the FSD.

PNB HOUSING FINANCE LTD VS M/S K.K BANIJYA PVT LTD & ORS. [ARB.P.-1239/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties as per the loan documents, enabling PNB Housing Finance Ltd to invoke the arbitration clause and seek the formation of an arbitral tribunal for dispute resolution. The inquiry was limited to confirming the existence of the arbitration agreement, leading to the appointment of Justice (Retd.) Siddharth Mridul as the sole arbitrator, with the respondents permitted to raise objections on arbitrability, maintainability, or jurisdiction before the arbitrator.

PRADEEP KUMAR AGGARWAL VS ANOOP AGGARWAL [ARB.P.-403/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Mr. Justice (Retd.) Pradeep Nandrajog has been appointed as the new sole arbitrator after the previous arbitrator recused himself. Necessary disclosures under Section 12 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act must be provided by the new arbitrator. The arbitration will continue under the DIAC, and all parties' rights and contentions remain open for decision by the arbitrator.

PRAKASH CHANDRA JAIN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8046/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition challenging Clause Nos. 5 and 11 of the Commercial Circular No. 61 of 2017 issued by the Railways was dismissed. The petitioner is directed to vacate the stall within the same time period granted to other petitioners in similar cases.

PRIME CLASS KASHMIR (THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR MR. YASIR NISAR) VS AAKASH EDUCATIONAL SERVICES LIMITED [ARB.P.-1742/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An unregistered partnership firm is not barred from initiating arbitration proceedings under Section 69 of the Indian Partnership Act. The bar does not extend to arbitral proceedings. A sole arbitrator is appointed to adjudicate the disputes between the parties, with the merits of claims and counterclaims left for the arbitrator to decide.

PRITHVI RAJ VS SPIRE TECHPARK PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1158/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Prithvi Raj's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 led to the appointment of Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra as the sole arbitrator for the disputes arising from the existing arbitration agreement in the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The arbitrator is instructed to proceed with the arbitration proceedings and make necessary disclosures under Section 12, while the rights and contentions of the parties regarding the merits of the case remain reserved for the arbitrator's decision.

PUERTO LIFE SCIENCES PVT. LTD. VS STERIMAX INDIA PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1297/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

In the case between Puerto Life Sciences Pvt. Ltd. and Sterimax India Pvt. Ltd., a retired judge of the Bombay High Court has been appointed as the sole arbitrator for disputes arising from a Purchase Order for LVP Machines. The seat of arbitration is established as Delhi, with the venue designated as Mumbai. The arbitration will adhere to the rules of the Mumbai Centre for International Arbitration (MCIA). The respondents may raise objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction and may present counter-claims in the proceedings. The order does not express any opinion on the merits of the case.

PULIN COMTRADE LIMITED VS THE HANDICRAFTS AND HANDLOOMS EXPORTS CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD. [ARB.P.-1678/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Anirudh Bakhru, was appointed to resolve outstanding disputes between the parties following a previous order that set aside the arbitrator's decision on interest. Arbitration shall proceed under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), without any indication of opinion on the merits of the parties' claims.

PUNIA CONSTRUCTION VS UNION OF INDIA/NORTHERN RAILWAY [ARB.P.-1569/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Contractual requirements for exhausting pre-arbitral mechanisms and timelines are considered directory, not mandatory. At the stage of appointing an arbitrator, only the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement is examined. An independent sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve the disputes, rather than limiting the selection to a Railway panel. The appointed arbitrator may address jurisdictional or arbitrability objections, including issues related to pre-arbitral procedures, during the arbitration.

PURI INVESTMENT & ORS. VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3346/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The order passed by the New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) under Section 72 of the NDMC Act was invalid due to a lack of opportunity for the petitioners to be heard, violating principles of natural justice. NDMC must issue a fresh order under Section 72 after a hearing on 01.05.2024. Consequently, the sealing notice and attachment order were withdrawn, requiring NDMC to remove seals on the property within one week. Following the new order, NDMC may pursue recovery of any property tax arrears, while the petitioners can utilize the statutorily prescribed appellate remedy if needed.

QA EDUCATION SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED VS INDIRA GANDHI COMPUTER SAKSHARTA MISSION & ORS. [ARB.P.-1893/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes between QA Education Solutions Private Limited and Indira Gandhi Computer Saksharta Mission arise from a Collaboration Agreement and will be referred to Sole Arbitrator Ms. Justice (Retd.) Deepa Sharma. The Collaboration Agreement includes an arbitration clause. Preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability may be raised by the respondents, with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open for decision based on merits.

RADICO KHAITAN LIMITED VS SUMIT CHAUHAN [ARB.P.-1513/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the tax invoices from Radico Khaitan Limited to Sumit Chauhan is valid. Sumit Chauhan did not appear in the proceedings. An independent arbitrator, Ms. Amrita Sarkar, is appointed to resolve disputes regarding unpaid liabilities for goods supplied. The parties will equally share the arbitrator's fees and costs, and all rights and contentions remain open for adjudication.

RAJESH GARG VS SOMNATH AGGARWAL & ANR. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-765/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An extension of time until 31.10.2025 was granted for the completion of arbitral proceedings and the making of the arbitral award, despite the respondent's refusal for a further 6-month extension under Section 29A(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitrator was not considered to be at fault for conducting the proceedings, and concerns regarding alleged bias or conduct could be addressed through the relevant provisions of the Act. The primary concern was whether there had been undue delay by the arbitrator.

RAKESH KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH GENERAL MANAGER NORTHERN RAILWAYS AND ANR. [ARB.P.-841/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator, Ms. Shreya Singhal, was appointed to adjudicate disputes between Rakesh Kumar and the Union of India (Northern Railways) regarding the termination of a parcel leasing contract. The previously agreed procedure for the arbitrator's appointment became invalid due to a Supreme Court judgment, necessitating the appointment of an independent tribunal. The respondents may raise jurisdictional objections, which the arbitrator will consider. Arbitration proceedings will commence after necessary disclosures, with the parties sharing the arbitrator's fees and costs equally. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for determination by the sole arbitrator.

RANI CONSTRUCTIONS PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA [ARB.P.-1011/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The contractual mechanism in the EPC agreement for establishing an arbitral tribunal under SAROD rules is unimplementable, as those rules impose an additional obligation for parties to be primary SAROD members, which was not included in the arbitration agreement. This affects the validity of the appointment procedure and invokes Section 11(6)(c) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Due to the inapplicability of SAROD rules and the absence of an agreement on a three-member tribunal, a sole arbitrator is appointed under Section 10(2) of the Act.

REFRAMAT ENTERPRISES PVT LTD VS DCM LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-1404/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists in the sale deeds dated 31.03.2022 between the parties. A sole arbitrator, Ms. Ruchi Gour Narula, has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The argument regarding the non-arbitrability of certain claims due to the absence of the maintenance agency was rejected, focusing solely on the existence of the arbitration agreement. Arbitration will be conducted under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with fees and costs governed by those rules. Observations made do not express any opinion on the case's merits, leaving all rights and contentions open for the arbitrator's consideration.

REKHA AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9020/2017]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The directions from Safai Karamchari Andolan v. Union of India and Balram Singh v. Union of India apply to the Delhi Jal Board (DJB) and its agencies for sewage work. Compliance with these directives is mandated, including increasing compensation for sewer deaths from Rs. 10 lakhs to Rs. 30 lakhs. The family members of deceased sanitation workers are to receive Rs. 30 lakhs in compensation.

RELIGARE FINVEST LIMITED VS EDISONS INFRAPOWER AND MULTIVENTURE PRIVATE LIMITED AND ANR [O.M.P. (T) (COMM.)-102/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Justice (Retd.) S.J. Mukhopadhayay, was appointed to resolve disputes between the parties after the previous arbitrator recused herself due to the petitioner's repeated attempts to replace her. Although the petitioner had no valid grounds to question the previous arbitrator's impartiality, the appointment of a new independent arbitrator addressed any concerns. This case involved multiple connected petitions from the same petitioner, with prior judgments dismissing the petitioner's attempts to replace the arbitrator.

RIPPU YADAV VS RETURNING OFFICER NORTH EAST DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7116/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The writ petition challenging the rejection of the petitioner's nomination form for the Lok Sabha elections is not maintainable at this stage. Challenges to election matters must be made through an election petition after elections rather than through a writ petition before the High Court. Article 329(b) of the Constitution and the Representation of the People Act, 1951 establish that a special remedy of an election petition is required.

RISHI RAJ KHATANA VS MACKERAL OIL TOOLS PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-520/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Valid disputes exist regarding the non-payment of consultancy fees under the Share Transfer Agreement and can be referred to arbitration. Objections regarding notification of disputes were rejected as notice had been given prior to the petition. The named arbitrator was deemed ineligible due to lack of impartiality. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhishek Mahajan, was appointed to adjudicate the disputes under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with all parties' rights and contentions preserved for consideration on merits.

RT VISION TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INIDA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7935/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The abrupt downgrade of RT Vision Technologies Private Limited from "Approved Vendor" to "Developmental Vendor" by the Rail Coach Factory was deemed unwarranted as it lacked an opportunity for hearing, violating natural justice principles. The Rail Coach Factory is required to expeditiously decide the petitioner's representation against the downgrade within four weeks, after a hearing. The downgrade order is held in abeyance, allowing the petitioner to pursue legal remedies if dissatisfied with the outcome.

RUDRA BUILDWELL PVT LTD VS REALWORTH INDIA PVT LTD [O.M.P.-6/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitral award refused specific performance of an agreement to sell despite full payment by the purchaser. Specific performance is a discretionary remedy, and the tribunal considered the parties' conduct, delay in proceedings, ambiguity around possession, and overall fairness in its decision. The discretionary nature of specific performance was highlighted as not solely dependent on full payment, and the tribunal's reasoning was deemed plausible, disallowing interference under Section 34.

RUMIT KUMAR VS TRANSPORT DEPARTMENT GNCTD AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5690/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The order dismissing the petitioner's appeal against the suspension of his vehicle's registration was set aside due to the Appellate Authority's failure to consider the petitioner's reasons for bullet-proofing the vehicle and neglecting the statutory parameters for suspension under Section 53 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The matter was remanded for a reasoned decision within four weeks, addressing the relevant statutory provisions.

SACHIN GOEL & ANR. VS SHRI AMANJOT SINGH & ORS. [ARB.P.-1354/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of a valid arbitration agreement in the "Share Purchase cum Settlement Agreement" dated 02.01.2024 is the primary issue to be examined. Objections concerning the authorization of the directors and the nature of the claims are to be addressed by the Arbitral Tribunal under the principles of competence-competence. Ms. Prity Sharma has been appointed as the Sole Arbitrator for the disputes, with arbitration proceedings to take place at the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

SAKSHI VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY THROUGH ITS REGISTRAR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3735/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioner raised concerns about the procedure for constituting the Election Committee for the Jawaharlal Nehru University Students Union elections. Ambiguities were noted regarding the respondents' justification for excluding the elected Students Council from the process. A Grievance Redressal Cell is tasked with examining the petitioner's complaints and must issue a reasoned order before the final election results are declared. Additionally, a retired Supreme Court judge has been appointed as an observer to monitor the election process until the Grievance Redressal Cell concludes its examination.

SAMSUNG INDIA ELECTRONICS PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHREE SANT KRIPA APPLIANCES PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1076/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The dispute between Samsung India Electronics Private Limited and Shree Sant Kripa Appliances Private Limited concerning rebate benefits not passed on to distributors and resellers is to be resolved through arbitration. Shree Sant Kripa Appliances failed to respond to a notice invoking the arbitration clause, leading to the appointment of Mr. Anirudh Sharma as the sole arbitrator. The respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which will be addressed by the arbitrator. Both parties will share the arbitrator's fees and costs equally, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the case.

SANJEEVANI AYURVEDA MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT VS THE DIRECTOR GENERAL DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF HEALTH SERVICES GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [ARB.P.-1743/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Jyoti Mendiratta, has been appointed to adjudicate disputes between Sanjeevani Ayurveda, the Medical Superintendent, and the Director General of the Directorate General of Health Services, Govt. of NCT of Delhi, arising from an agreement dated 27.10.2021. A valid arbitration agreement was established, allowing for the appointment of an independent arbitrator. There is no expression of opinion on the merits of the parties' contentions or jurisdictional objections, which the arbitrator will consider when making decisions.

SATBIR SINGH & ORS. VS MR. SUMIT SINGLA [ARB.P.-943/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioners were allowed to withdraw their arbitration petition without conditions, which resulted in the abandonment of the arbitration process. The intervenor retains the right to initiate separate proceedings against the petitioners and other respondents concerning issues raised in the intervention application, with no comments on the allegations made by either party.

SATYA J MAKAN & ORS. VS WTC NOIDA DEVELOPMENT CO. P. LTD [ARB.P.-719/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the agreement mandates the appointment of an arbitrator to resolve disputes. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Naman Anand, was appointed to adjudicate disputes related to the respondent's failure to pay assured returns to the petitioner. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for the arbitrator to decide based on merits and in accordance with the law.

SH NARESH ROHILLA VS M/S LARSEN AND TOUBRO LTD [ARB.P.-1485/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Naresh Rohilla's petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 led to the appointment of Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes with M/s Larsen and Toubro Ltd. The disputes relate to a manpower services agreement, which includes an arbitration clause accepted by the respondent. Arbitration proceedings will follow the Rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), allowing the respondent to raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability and jurisdiction. All rights and contentions regarding claims and counterclaims remain available for the Sole Arbitrator's decision.

SH. MAHESH GUPTA & ANR. VS M/S 4 DEVILS CAFE AND RESTAURANT & ORS. [ARB.P.-1480/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The lease deed contains an arbitration clause, necessitating the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Mr. Moksh Arora, Advocate, was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator. The respondents may raise preliminary objections regarding jurisdiction or arbitrability, which the Sole Arbitrator will decide according to law. All rights and contentions of the parties regarding claims and counter-claims remain open for consideration by the Sole Arbitrator.

SHAMLAJI EXPRESSWAY PRIVATE LIMITED VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [ARB. A. (COMM.)-50/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The appeal by Shamlaji Expressway Private Limited against the Arbitral Tribunal's order vacating the stay on a suspension notice from the National Highways Authority of India was dismissed. The Arbitral Tribunal thoroughly examined the facts, relevant contractual provisions, and provided reasoned justifications for its decision. The order was not deemed "unreasoned," and the examination of facts was found detailed and justified. Interference in appeals regarding arbitrator orders is limited, and the tribunal's conclusions were not deemed perverse or irrational.

SHASHIKANT SHUKLA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16535/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Petitions by licensees of multipurpose stalls/trolleys challenging the Railway Board's 2017 Commercial Circular were dismissed. The 2017 Policy prohibiting renewal or extension of licenses was deemed legally sound and not in violation of fundamental rights. Petitioners had opted to convert their stalls/trolleys under this policy and could not challenge it afterward. The reasoning for the extension of the license period due to COVID-19, based on local conditions at each station, was upheld. Petitioners were given three months to vacate the stalls for alternative arrangements.

SHRAWAN KUMAR SARAFF VS M/S GANNONN DUNKERLEY AND CO. LTD. [ARB.P.-613/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the work order designates New Delhi as the seat of arbitration, overriding the exclusive jurisdiction clause in the general conditions of contract that suggests Kolkata. The value of the work order exceeds Rs. 1 crore, making the arbitration clause applicable. The requirement for a pre-arbitration conciliation process is considered directory rather than mandatory. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve the disputes between the parties.

SHREE KRISHNA VANASPATI INDUSTRIES (P) LTD VS VIRGOZ OILS & FATS PTE LTD & ORS [O.M.P. (COMM)-518/2016]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition by Shree Krishna Vanaspati Industries (P) Ltd to challenge a foreign arbitral award is not maintainable under Part-I of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitration clause in the sales contract specified Malaysia as the seat of arbitration and Malaysian law as the governing law, which excludes the applicability of Part-I. The appropriate remedy for the petitioner lies in Part-II of the Act.

SHREE SHYAM ENTERPRISES VS DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD. [ARB.P.-1451/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties had a valid arbitration agreement, and the petitioner followed the proper procedure to invoke arbitration. The argument that the client department should be included was rejected, as the privity of contract was only with the respondent. A retired judge was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve the disputes, allowing the respondent to raise jurisdictional or preliminary objections before the arbitrator.

SHREE SHYAM ENTERPRISES VS DELHI TOURISM AND TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD. [ARB.P.-1450/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Shree Shyam Enterprises is entitled to a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes under the construction contract. The objection to include the Department of Training and Technical Education as a party in the arbitration was rejected, as the contract is exclusively between Shree Shyam Enterprises and the respondent. The internal arrangements of the respondent with the client department do not involve the petitioner. Justice (Retd.) Deepa Sharma has been appointed as the sole arbitrator.

SHRI INDER MOHAN BHAMBRI AND OTHERS VS MS LANDMARK APARTMENTS PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-826/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Delhi is established as the seat of arbitration according to the arbitration clause in the Builder-Buyer Agreements. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Anant Vijay Palli, has been appointed to resolve disputes, including issues related to the respondent's failure to pay "assured returns" and to deliver physical possession of purchased IT spaces. The respondent may present preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction for the arbitrator's consideration. Arbitration will occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre, with parties sharing the arbitrator's fees and costs equally, while retaining all rights and contentions for resolution on the merits.

SHRI KR ANAND VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL [ARB.P.-1776/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement existed between the parties as per their construction contract. A retired High Court judge was appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes. The examination at this stage was limited to the prima facie existence of the arbitration agreement, while issues of limitation and jurisdiction can be raised before the arbitrator. The arbitrator will proceed with the arbitration proceedings and decide on the merits of the claims, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open.

SHRI SANJEEV JOON VS SHRI SURENDER BASOYA & ANR. [CS(COMM)-719/2021]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The plaintiff is entitled to a cancellation of the Sale Deed dated 15.09.2016 for suit property-1 due to the defendant no. 1's failure to pay the entire sale consideration, making the deed void. Additionally, the unregistered Agreement to Sell (ATS) dated 20.06.2017 for suit property-2 is canceled because defendant no. 1 did not pay the consideration and showed unwillingness to do so. A decree of possession for suit property-2 is granted to the plaintiff, along with permanent injunctions against the defendants from interfering with the plaintiff's rights over the properties.

SHRI TARUN CHANDER MALIK VS M/S VARAHI DIAMONDS AND FINANCE LTD [ARB.P.-1007/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in Clause 26(e) of the lease deed is valid and enforceable, despite a jurisdiction clause that grants exclusive jurisdiction to courts in Delhi. The two parts of Clause 26(e) can be harmoniously construed, with the jurisdiction clause addressing supervisory jurisdiction over the arbitration. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes, and the respondent may raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction before the arbitrator.

SHYAMAL JANA & ORS. VS RELIANCE COMMERCIAL FINANCE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-392/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitral award was set aside due to the unilateral appointment of an arbitrator by one contracting party, deemed null and void. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. P.K. Sexena, was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open for determination on their merits.

SMRITI BHATIA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3759/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) failed to address unauthorized construction on a specific property despite issuing a demolition order and a work-stop notice. Allegations of collusion between MCD officials and property owners were noted, with unauthorized construction continuing. Objections regarding the maintainability of a writ petition were dismissed, emphasizing the necessity to prevent unauthorized construction. The MCD was directed to identify involved land and owners, inspect the unauthorized construction, and take immediate action to stop it. Additionally, the Appellate Tribunal of the MCD was urged to expedite pending appeals against the demolition order.

SNAP ON TOOLS PRIVATE LIMITED VS MS METRICS APPLICATIONS [ARB.P.-1418/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement under the Authorised Reseller Agreement necessitated the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes. Mr. Shashwat Bajpai, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with the respondent allowed to raise jurisdictional objections before him. All rights and contentions regarding claims and counter-claims will be adjudicated on their merits in accordance with the law.

SOFTWARE TECHNOLOGY PARK OF INDIA VS COVENANT INFOSOLUTIONS PVT. LTD [ARB.P.-598/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties, prompting the appointment of Mr. Pramod Aggarwal as an independent sole arbitrator to resolve disputes under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitrator is instructed to consider any objections related to limitation or jurisdiction before addressing the merits of the claims and is encouraged to facilitate an amicable resolution between the parties.

SONY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS IT CARE [ARB.P.-1502/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

In the case of Sony India Private Limited v. IT Care, a sole arbitrator, Mr. Dhruv Pande, is appointed to resolve disputes stemming from alleged violations of the Standard Operating Procedure by IT Care as an Authorized Service Centre for Sony India. Sony India terminated the Service Agreements and imposed a penalty on IT Care. The arbitration clause in the Service Agreement is clear, and despite several unsuccessful attempts to serve IT Care, it is allowed to raise preliminary objections concerning arbitrability or jurisdiction, which will be addressed by the arbitrator.

SOUMITA CONSTRUCTION PRIVATE LIMITED VS INDIABULLS DISTRIBUTION SERVICES LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-321/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitral award from a unilaterally appointed arbitrator was deemed a nullity based on established legal precedents. The parties agreed to the appointment of a new arbitrator, Justice (Retd.) Rajiv Shakdher, to adjudicate their disputes, allowing for amendments or supplements to existing pleadings. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed, and all rights and contentions regarding claims and counterclaims remain open for the new arbitrator to decide.

SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS DHANANJAY KUMAR JHA [CONT.CAS(C)-790/2020]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Dhananjay Kumar Jha was found guilty of contempt for willfully disobeying directions from interim orders dated 06.11.2020 and 18.12.2020. He failed to replenish the required bank guarantee and did not pay the monthly license fee of Rs. 9.5 lakhs for four months prior to surrendering the parking site on 31.03.2022, despite benefiting from the interim orders. These actions constituted willful disobedience of the directives.

SRI GANESH ENGINEERING WORKS VS NORTHERN RAILWAY & ANR. [ARB.P.-808/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petitioner's failure to exhaust the pre-arbitral procedure of conciliation under Clause 63 of the contract does not prevent recourse to arbitration, as such procedures are directory, not mandatory. A Sole Arbitrator has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes and is directed to encourage settlement before addressing the claims on merits. Arbitration will be conducted under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

SUBHASH CHAND AMAR VS MOHD JAMSHED [ARB.P.-1143/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of a valid arbitration agreement between the parties is prima facie established. Following the doctrine of competence-competence, the examination was limited to the existence of the arbitration agreement. A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes between the parties on their merits.

SUBHASH GUPTA VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7007/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The writ petition challenging the rejection of the petitioner's nomination form is not maintainable at this stage, as grievances regarding nomination rejections must be raised through an election petition after the election's conclusion. The petition was dismissed, with the petitioner free to file an election petition under Section 100 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 after the elections.

SUNIL RATHORE VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-3124/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Clause 8(ii) of the 2024 Guidelines for Handling End of Life Vehicles, which prohibits the release of diesel transport vehicles older than 10 years, violates Article 14 of the Constitution. This classification lacks a rational connection to the goal of reducing vehicular air pollution in Delhi, as the orders from the National Green Tribunal did not differentiate between diesel vehicles. Seized vehicles registered outside Delhi must be released upon submission of required affidavits and undertakings, while those registered within Delhi are to be released according to specific clauses of the 2024 Guidelines. The matter involves multiple petitions addressed based on the seizure dates to evaluate the retrospective application of the Guidelines.

SURENDER KISHAN GUPTA VS PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [ARB.P.-650/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A concluded contract existed between the parties despite the absence of a formal written agreement. The respondent's acceptance of the petitioner's bid, the request for a performance guarantee, and subsequent email communication were deemed sufficient to establish the contract. The argument that the right to reject bids precluded contract formation was rejected, as such rights must be exercised before accepting a valid bid. The arbitration clause in the General Conditions of Contract (GCC) could be invoked, as the respondent's action of foreclosing the contract acknowledged its existence. An independent sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes.

SURESH KUMAR KAKKAR & ANR. VS M/S ANSAL PROPERTIES AND INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED & ANR. [CCP(O)-73/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The respondents' counsel made an erroneous statement regarding maintaining status quo on certain plots, but the respondents did not act on the plots after the order. Third-party rights existed prior to the undertaking. The respondents' lack of diligence was noted rather than an intention to mislead. Efforts were being made to settle the disputes amicably, with rights and obligations to be decided by an arbitrator. Consequently, contempt proceedings against the respondents were not pursued.

SURESH KUMAR KAKKAR & ANR. VS M/S ANSAL PROPERTIES AND INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED & ANR. [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-14/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration agreement exists in the Third Collaboration Agreement between the petitioners and respondents 1 and 2, leading to a referral to arbitration with a sole arbitrator appointed for dispute adjudication. For non-signatory respondents 3-5, the petitioners must demonstrate prima facie the necessity of their inclusion based on doctrines such as 'assignee', 'estoppel', and 'direct benefits', leaving this assessment to the arbitral tribunal. Non-signatory respondents have the opportunity to raise jurisdictional objections, while all merits-based contentions remain open for the arbitrator's evaluation. The same reasoning applies to the connected petition.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED (TRANSFEREE OF TATA CAPITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD) VS ANG LIFE SCIENCES INDIA LTD & ANR. [ARB.P.-1223/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A petition under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for the appointment of a sole arbitrator to resolve disputes from a Master Lease Agreement and a Letter of Guarantee is maintainable. Ms. Pinky Anand, Senior Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator. The arbitration references are independent, with the possibility of common hearings and evidence. Respondents are allowed to raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator, which will be assessed on merits.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED (TRANSFEREE OF TATA CAPITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD.) VS AADINATH STEEL & ORS. [ARB.P.-1556/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause in the loan agreement necessitated the constitution of an arbitral tribunal to resolve disputes. Abhinav Garg was appointed as the sole arbitrator to conduct the proceedings, allowing the parties' rights and contentions to remain open for merit-based decisions. The respondents could raise jurisdictional objections but did not appear despite being served, leading to the arbitrator's appointment in their absence.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED (TRANSFEREE OF TATA CAPITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD.) VS M/S R. K. AUTOMOBILES [ARB.P.-1009/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the Term Loan Agreement between Tata Capital Limited and M/s R.K. Automobiles is valid, allowing for the appointment of an independent Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes. Ms. Ruchi Agnihotri, Advocate, has been appointed as the Sole Arbitrator. The respondent may present preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction for the Sole Arbitrator to address. Both parties are to equally share the arbitrator's fees and costs, with all claims and counter-claims remaining open for consideration based on their merits.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED (TRANSFEREE OF TATA CAPITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD.) VS M/S. AADINATH STEEL [ARB.P.-1558/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration clause in the loan agreement necessitates the appointment of an independent sole arbitrator to adjudicate disputes. Mr. Abhinav Garg, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator, with the respondent allowed to raise jurisdictional objections for consideration on their merits. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the case, which will be addressed by the sole arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED (TRANSFEREE OF TATA CAPITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD.) VS M/S. AADINATH STEEL & ORS. [ARB.P.-1520/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties as per the Loan-cum-Guarantee Agreement dated 24.08.2023. The respondents defaulted on loan repayments, prompting the petitioner to invoke the arbitration clause via a Loan Recall Notice. Based on legal precedents, an independent Sole Arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes. Ms. Ruchi Agnihotri, Advocate, will serve as the Sole Arbitrator under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), with all rights and contentions of the parties remaining open for consideration.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED VS AADINATH STEEL & ORS. [ARB.P.-1555/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The term loan agreement between Tata Capital Limited and Aadinath Steel & Ors. includes a valid arbitration clause. An independent sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhinav Garg, Advocate, is appointed to adjudicate disputes regarding non-payment of dues. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for consideration, and the respondents are permitted to raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED VS M/S NELKO BATTERY AND ELECTRONICS & ANR. [ARB.P.-671/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause exists in the Loan-cum-Guarantee agreement between the parties, and the respondent has not disputed it. An independent Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Ashish Dixit, has been appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with arbitration to be conducted under the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for decision by the Sole Arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED VS M/S R.K. AUTOMOBILES & ORS. [ARB.P.-1006/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration clause exists in the Loan cum Guarantee Agreement between Tata Capital Limited and M/S R.K. Automobiles & Ors. A Sole Arbitrator, Ms. Ruchi Agnihotri, has been appointed to resolve the disputes. The respondents can raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability or jurisdiction, which will be addressed by the Sole Arbitrator. The petitioner's application under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act has been converted into an application under Section 17 for consideration by the Sole Arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED VS M/S SIRAJ TOOLS INDUSTRIES & ANR. [ARB.P.-654/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration agreement between Tata Capital Limited and M/s Siraj Tools Industries & Anr. necessitates the constitution of an arbitral tribunal to address disputes arising from loan agreements. Ms. Prity Sharma has been appointed as the independent sole arbitrator. The respondents may raise objections regarding arbitrability and jurisdiction, as well as file counter-claims for consideration. Arbitration proceedings will follow the rules of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). No opinion on the merits of the case has been expressed.

TATA CAPITAL LIMITED VS M/S. AADINATH STEEL & ORS. [ARB.P.-1557/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration clause exists in the loan agreement between the parties. A sole arbitrator, Mr. Abhinav Garg, Advocate, is appointed to adjudicate the disputes. Respondents may raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator, which will be considered on merits. All rights and contentions concerning claims and counterclaims remain open for decision by the sole arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-887/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Pradeep Kumar, Advocate, was appointed to adjudicate disputes arising from a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement for Construction Equipment Finance, which included an arbitration clause. The arbitrator was instructed to explore the potential for mediation to resolve the disputes before proceeding with arbitration. The merits of the case are to be decided by the arbitrator in accordance with the law, without any prior opinions expressed on those merits.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-886/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate disputes between the parties, specifically Mr. Pradeep Kumar. He is instructed to first explore the possibility of settlement through mediation. The parties will share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed, leaving that decision to the sole arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-889/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Mr. Pradeep Kumar, Advocate, was appointed as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes from a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement. Prior to addressing the merits, the arbitrator was instructed to explore settlement through mediation. Parties are to share the arbitrator's fee and costs equally, while retaining all rights and contentions regarding claims and counter-claims for the arbitrator's consideration.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-891/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A Sole Arbitrator, Mr. Pradeep Kumar, was appointed to resolve disputes between Tata Capital Ltd and Unitech Associates & Anr. related to a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement. The Sole Arbitrator is to first encourage mediation or alternative settlement methods before adjudicating the case. All rights and arguments of the parties remain open for the Arbitrator's consideration.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-892/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes between Tata Capital Ltd. and Unitech Associates arising from a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement. The arbitrator is directed to initially explore settlement through mediation as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, before proceeding with the arbitration on merits. The procedure for arbitration, including fees and cost-sharing, was established, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open for the arbitrator's decision.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-893/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Mr. Pradeep Kumar, Advocate, was appointed to resolve disputes related to a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement for Construction Equipment Finance. The arbitrator was instructed to explore mediation for settlement before addressing the merits of the case. The parties are to share the arbitrator's fees and costs equally, with no opinion expressed on the merits.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-894/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Disputes arising from the Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement dated 18.06.2022 are to be settled by arbitration, in line with the agreement's arbitration clause. Mr. Pradeep Kumar, Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate these disputes. The arbitrator is instructed to first explore mediation for settlement, as per Section 30(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for decision by the arbitrator on their merits.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-890/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

In Tata Capital Ltd. v. Unitech Associates & Anr., a sole arbitrator, Mr. Pradeep Kumar, was appointed to adjudicate disputes between the parties. The arbitrator was instructed to first explore mediation for a potential settlement, while all rights and contentions of the parties remain open for decision on their merits.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-896/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate disputes between the parties, following the principles established in Perkins Eastman Architects DPC v. HSCC (India) Ltd. Mr. Pradeep Kumar was designated as the sole arbitrator and was requested to explore the possibility of settlement through mediation under Section 30(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for consideration by the arbitrator.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ANR. [ARB.P.-895/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes stemming from a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement for Construction Equipment Finance, which included an arbitration clause specifying arbitration in Delhi. The parties agreed to the appointment following precedent and the arbitrator was directed to explore settlement through mediation before addressing the arbitration merits. No merits of the case were discussed, and all rights and contentions of the parties remain open for the arbitrator's decision.

TATA CAPITAL LTD VS UNITECH ASSOCIATES & ORS. [ARB.P.-888/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

Mr. Pradeep Kumar, Advocate, has been appointed as the sole arbitrator to address the disputes between Tata Capital Ltd and Unitech Associates & Ors arising from a Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement. The arbitrator is to first explore mediation for settlement, as allowed under Section 30(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. All claims and counter-claims remain open for determination on their merits.

TECHCHEF CONSULTING INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS HIMANSHU MISHRA & ANR. [ARB.P.-1202/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

An arbitration agreement exists between the petitioner and Respondent No. 1. The involvement of Respondent No. 2, a non-signatory, requires complex factual determination based on principles allowing non-signatories to be bound by an arbitration agreement under certain conditions, such as the "alter ego" doctrine. The petitioner has presented a prima facie case suggesting Respondent No. 2 may be an "alter ego" of Respondent No. 1, potentially established to evade the non-compete clause in the employment agreement. A sole arbitrator has been appointed to address the disputes, including whether Respondent No. 2 is subject to the arbitration agreement, with arbitration to occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre's auspices. Final determinations are reserved for the arbitral tribunal.

TECHNO GLOBAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS GAIL INDIA LIMITED [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-250/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The scope of examination in appointing an arbitrator is limited to the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement. The argument that claims are excluded from arbitration was rejected, with the determination of "excepted matters" left for the arbitral tribunal. A sole arbitrator, Justice (retd.) J.R. Midha, was appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The respondent can raise preliminary objections on arbitrability before the tribunal. The petitioner's Section 9 application for interim relief will be treated as under Section 17 of the Arbitration Act and decided by the arbitrator, who is also requested to expedite this consideration. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for the arbitrator's decision on the merits.

TECHNO GLOBAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS GAIL INDIA LIMITED & ANR. [ARB.P.-1536/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitration clause in the contract is valid, and the disputes raised by the petitioner are arbitrable, excluding any claims categorized as "excepted matters." A sole arbitrator is appointed to resolve the disputes due to the invalid appointment procedure used by the respondents. The petitioner's application under Section 9 of the Arbitration Act shall be treated as an application under Section 17 and addressed by the appointed sole arbitrator.

TRANS ENGINEERS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS OTSUKA CHEMICALS (INDIA) PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-310/2022]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The arbitral award was set aside due to misreading and misinterpretation of the contractual framework. The minutes of meeting, purchase orders, and final agreement indicated that the original scope of work was based on the P&IDs dated 26.07.2016, and any significant modifications thereafter required additional payment. The findings of the arbitral tribunal were deemed perverse and unsustainable, lacking a correct understanding of the contractual arrangement between the parties.

UMED SINGH VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6691/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The Election Commission of India lacks the authority to resolve internal disputes of the Akhil Bharat Hindu Mahasabha, which must be settled through a civil suit. The Election Commission's directive issued on March 27, 2024, prohibiting Chief Electoral Officers from accepting Forms A and B on behalf of the party is justified, due to the absence of an approved list of office bearers. There is no interference with the ongoing election process at this time, consistent with established principles.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S S. S. ENGINEERS [O.M.P. (COMM)-474/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The application by the Union of India for condonation of delay in challenging an arbitral award was dismissed due to a filing made 266 days after receiving the award, exceeding the 3-month + 30-day deadline set by Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Delays beyond the statutory period cannot be condoned, leading to the dismissal of both the application and the main petition.

VARDAAN SYNTHETICS VS PAWAN TRADERS [ARB.P.-901/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The existence of an arbitration clause in the invoices raised by the petitioner established an arbitration agreement between the parties. An independent Sole Arbitrator, Ms. Anisha Soni, was appointed to adjudicate the disputes. The respondent can raise preliminary objections regarding arbitrability and jurisdiction, which the arbitrator will decide. Directions regarding the arbitrator's fee, sharing of arbitration costs, and preservation of rights related to claims and counter-claims were provided.

VCARE TECHNOLOGIES PVT LTD VS MR NIKHIL RAI [ARB.P.-1319/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A valid arbitration agreement exists between the parties under the Employment Agreement dated 08.06.2016. A Sole Arbitrator was appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with the respondent's objections about time-barred claims and novation to be addressed by the arbitrator on the merits. The examination focused solely on confirming the existence of the arbitration agreement.

VERSATILE COMMOTRADE PVT LTD VS MADAN GOPAL [ARB.P.-624/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The examination at the stage of appointing an arbitrator is limited to confirming the prima facie existence of an arbitration agreement, without addressing the validity, jurisdiction, or arbitrability of the agreement. A sole arbitrator was appointed to resolve disputes, allowing the respondent to raise objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability before the arbitral tribunal, without any comments on the case's merits.

VIDUTHALAI CHIRUTHAIGAL KATCHI VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-4666/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The petition by Viduthalai Chiruthaigal Katchi, an unrecognized political party, challenging the Election Commission of India's rejection of its application for the common symbol "POT" was dismissed. The party had previously used the common symbol twice and did not meet the required minimum vote share of 1% from past elections, which is necessary for a third concession as per Paragraph 10B of the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968. The decision of the Election Commission was upheld, with the petition lacking merit.

VIKAS KUMAR JAIN VS RISHI VASHISHTHA & ANR. [ARB.P.-1183/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The parties entered into an Agreement to Sell dated 26.01.2024, which included an arbitration clause. Ms. Shreya Singhal, Advocate, was appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to resolve disputes between the parties. The respondents can raise objections regarding jurisdiction and arbitrability before the Sole Arbitrator. All rights and contentions related to the claims and counter-claims remain open for decision on their merits by the Sole Arbitrator. This order does not indicate any position on the merits of the case.

VINAY RANJAN TIWARI & ANR. VS SPIRE TECHPARK PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-1159/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra, was appointed to resolve disputes between petitioners and the respondent company regarding rent entitlement and demands. The existing Memorandum of Understanding included an arbitration clause, which the respondent acknowledged. All rights and contentions of the parties related to claims and counterclaims remain open for the arbitrator to decide on their merits.

VIPIN KAPOORIA VS M/S SUNWORLD RESIDENCY PRIVATE LIMITED [ARB.P.-297/2023]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

A sole arbitrator, Ms. Shilpa Ohri, has been appointed to address disputes in three petitions filed under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The question of limitation will be determined by the arbitral tribunal, with the period of good faith negotiations excluded from the limitation period calculation. Arguments regarding the principle of res judicata and the enforceability of the arbitration agreement due to insufficiently stamped main agreements have been rejected. The observations made are solely for these petitions, allowing the respondent to raise jurisdictional objections before the arbitrator. The parties will share the arbitrator's fees and costs equally.

VISHWAS PATHAK VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7544/2024]

Judges: Justice Sachin Datta

The writ petition by Vishwas Pathak, a non-resident of Delhi, seeking the demolition of unauthorized construction in Chandni Chowk was dismissed. The petitioner lacked legal standing as an illegal construction alone does not grant a neighbor the right to file a petition unless their legal rights, such as light, air, or enjoyment of property, are affected. The petition was deemed motivated rather than an enforcement of fundamental or legal rights.

VLCC PERSONAL CARE LIMITED VS M/S UDAY ENTERPRISES (THROUGH ITS PARTNERS [ARB.P.-1092/2024]
Judges: Justice Sachin Datta
A sole arbitrator, Ms. Shreya Vedantika Mehra, was appointed to address disputes between VLCC Personal Care Limited and M/s Uday Enterprises from a distribution agreement. A valid arbitration clause was confirmed in the agreement. The respondent may raise preliminary objections about arbitrability and jurisdiction, which will be decided by the arbitrator. No opinion on the merits of the case was expressed, and all parties' rights and contentions remain open for legal determination.

WADHWA GENERAL STORE & ANR. VS M/S HINDUSTAN UNILEVER LTD [ARB.P.-1662/2024]
Judges: Justice Sachin Datta
The dispute resolution clause in the agreement between the parties was deemed an invalid appointment procedure for an arbitral tribunal. Ms. Jyoti Mendiratta was appointed as the sole arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC). All rights and contentions regarding claims and counter-claims remain open to be decided on their merits according to law.

ABDUS SAMAD & ANR. VS PRINCIPAL DISTRICT AND SESSIONS JUDGE SOUTH [W.P.(C)-11236/2024]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
The decision to allot the second slot of Chamber No. 370 to Shakeel Ahmad, an advocate senior to Abdus Samad, was upheld based on adherence to established criteria prioritizing seniority. The process did not violate the Saket District Court Lawyers' Chamber (Allotment and Occupancy) Rules, 2010. While the NOC from another petitioner supporting Samad's co-allotment was noted, it was not a decisive factor in the re-allotment, as allowing such influence could lead to undue pressure from existing allottees. Ultimately, seniority was deemed the key factor justifying the committee's decision.

ABHISHEK GROVER VS DIVISIONAL COMMISSIONER DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12561/2023]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
Mr. Inderjeet Grover and Mrs. Pushpa Grover established ownership rights over their properties. Their son, Mr. Abhishek Grover, subjected them to ill-treatment and harassment, warranting his eviction under the Senior Citizens Act. The Appellate Authority's decision to overturn the District Magistrate's eviction order was deemed unjustified due to inadequate evidence evaluation. Mr. Abhishek Grover is required to pay Rs. 15,000 per month as use and occupation charges until he vacates the properties. The senior citizens' writ petition was allowed, restoring the eviction order.

ADIDAS AG VS KESHAV H TULSIANI & ORS [CS(COMM)-582/2018]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
The High Court of Delhi established territorial jurisdiction over Adidas AG's trademark infringement suit against defendants using the identical "ADIDAS" mark for textile goods. Adidas AG demonstrated a business presence within the jurisdiction and successfully argued that the suit was not barred by delay or acquiescence, having consistently opposed the defendants' trademark applications. Adidas AG was identified as the prior adopter and registered proprietor of the "ADIDAS" mark in India, while the defendants could not substantiate claims of prior use. The use of the "ADIDAS" mark by the defendants constituted trademark infringement under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. A permanent injunction was granted against the defendants, along with nominal damages of Rs. 3,00,000 and litigation costs of Rs. 11,22,060.

AHUJA RADIOS VS M/S. ROHINI ELECTRONICS & ORS. [CS(COMM)-498/2019]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Ahuja Radios, established in 1940, owns trademarks for its audio equipment. In August 2019, counterfeit products were found in Mumbai's wholesale markets. Investigations identified six defendants selling counterfeit AHUJA products at about half the price of genuine items, with the goods exhibiting inconsistent features. Inspections confirmed possession of counterfeit amplifiers, microphones, and driver units at four locations. One defendant's defense, claiming the goods belonged to someone else, was rejected due to insufficient evidence. As a result, a permanent injunction was issued against the defendants, requiring them to return the seized goods. Damages were set at Rs.30,000 from Rohini Electronics, Rs.64,000 from ML Electronics, Rs.22,000 from Shiv Shakti Electronics, and Rs.97,000 from DJ Mona Electronics.

AIR FORCE SPORTS COMPLEX (AFSC) VS LT. GEN S S DAHIYA [W.P.(C)-4884/2014]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Air Force Sports Complex (AFSC) does not qualify as a 'public authority' under Section 2(h) of the Right to Information Act, 2005. The entity's management by serving Air Force officers does not demonstrate the deep government control necessary for this classification. Additionally, the use of government land is insufficient to establish substantial financing or dependence on government resources. Consequently, AFSC is not required to adhere to the provisions of the RTI Act.

ALIMENTARY HEALTH LIMITED VS CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-458/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The refusal of a patent application for a formulation containing the Bifidobacterium longum NCIMB 41676 (AH1714) strain is not justified due to a lack of inventive step. The prior art does not make the invention obvious, as the specific strain and formulation demonstrate significant advancements over existing probiotic strains. A detailed analysis is necessary to avoid hindsight bias when evaluating inventive step. The matter is remanded for fresh consideration with an emphasis on the novelty of the strain and formulation, as well as the implications of second medical use claims.

AMIT ARORA VS COMMISSIONER OF EXCISE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3482/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The attachment of the petitioner's property by the Excise Department and SDM is legally untenable. The petitioner is conclusively proven to be the rightful owner and not a partner of Popular Spirits LLP. Listing the property as the LLP's correspondence address does not confer ownership, and the claim of de facto ownership lacks concrete evidence. The warrant of attachment has been quashed, with no comment on other actions against the property.

ANASTASIIA PIVTSAEVA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-436/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The decisions of the Foreigners Regional Registration Office (FRRO) to deny Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) status to the petitioners were deemed legally unsustainable. The reasons for denial, linked to investigations involving the petitioner's late husband and alleged business associations, were insufficient to deny security clearance for OCI registration under Section 7A of the Citizenship Act. Allegations of the petitioner's non-cooperation with the investigation required clear evidence, and familial connections to an accused did not automatically disqualify OCI eligibility. Concerns arose due to contradictory information regarding the petitioner's visa extension and departure from the country. The minor child's OCI application met statutory eligibility criteria and was incorrectly rejected based on the parents' situation. The original rejection decisions were quashed, and the respondents were instructed to reconsider the OCI applications and the petitioner's visa extension within eight weeks.

ANIL KUMAR MAGGU VS FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-13958/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitions filed by Anil Kumar Maggu challenging the termination of two contracts with the Food Corporation of India (FCI) for handling and transporting food grains were dismissed. The disputes were deemed purely contractual, with the appropriate remedy being civil compensation for wrongful termination rather than writ jurisdiction. The termination was executed under Clause VIII of the contract, which permitted FCI to terminate without reason with a 30-day notice, a term accepted by the petitioner. The case was distinguished from a previous Supreme Court decision due to the existence of an explicit contractual provision governing the termination. The request for an interim stay was rejected, as it would restore a terminated contractual relationship in line with the contract's terms.

ANITA GUPTA SHARMA VS CHAMBER ALLOTMENT COMMITTEE & OTHERS [W.P.(C)-12611/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Chamber Allotment Committee's decision to allot Chamber No. 103 to Jitender Singh and Rajesh Passey was upheld despite the lack of transparency in the process. The committee failed to notify all eligible lawyers about the vacancy, but the petitioner's medical grounds related to her husband did not justify interfering with the decision, which prioritized seniority. Future vacancies must be transparently notified.

ANTHONY WATTS VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11192/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The High Court of Delhi set aside the Indian High Commission in London's decision to deny a No Objection Certificate (NOC) for the repatriation of Alfi Richard Watts' mortal remains to India. The requirement for the deceased to hold an Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) card for repatriation was deemed arbitrary and inconsistent with the guidelines of other Indian diplomatic missions. This condition violated the principle of equality under Article 14 of the Constitution due to the deceased's established Indian origin and familial ties. The respondents are directed to issue the necessary NOC to Ms. Sharon Alphonso to facilitate the transfer of the remains to Hyderabad, India.

APL APOLLO TUBES LIMITED VS M/S STEEL TRACK & ORS. [CS(COMM)-488/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

APL Apollo Tubes Limited established a prima facie case of trademark infringement and passing off against M/S Steel Track & Ors for their use of "APOLLO/APOLLO TMT/आपोडलो टीएमटी." The marks used by the defendants were found to be deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered trademarks "APOLLO" and "APL APOLLO," with similar goods leading to a likelihood of consumer confusion. The plaintiff's goodwill and reputation in the "APOLLO" brand were acknowledged. An ad-interim injunction was granted to restrain the defendants from using the contested marks, allowing them to clear existing stock, while the defendants' argument of delay was rejected.

AR BELA AGRAWAL VS COUNCIL OF ARCHITECTURE AND ORS [W.P.(C)-16402/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The order suspending the petitioner architect from practice for one year was quashed due to violations of natural justice, including the lack of opportunity to respond to expanded charges. The conclusions reached were based on an unfair evaluation of evidence and an overreach into issues of copyright and design infringement. The penalty was deemed disproportionate to the alleged misconduct, given insufficient evidence. The role of the Council is to safeguard the integrity of the architectural profession, not to resolve commercial disputes.

ARPIT BHARGAVA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-6969/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitioner's concerns regarding the government's inaction on bomb threat emails to Delhi schools are acknowledged as valid. While complete prevention of such threats is deemed unrealistic, initial measures like drafting action plans and SOPs have been initiated. A comprehensive action plan and detailed SOP must be developed in consultation with stakeholders, with the petitioner allowed to make representations. Additionally, regular training sessions, a grievance redressal mechanism, and periodic reviews and updates to the plan are necessary to address evolving challenges.

BALBIR MEENA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS [W.P.(C)-258/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition by Balbir Meena challenging the compensation of Rs. 10,000 granted under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Rules, 1995 was dismissed. When both the victim and accused reach an amicable settlement, the basis for awarding compensation under the SC/ST Act is negated, and the victim should return the compensation received to the government. The FIR was quashed following the settlement, with no issues identified in the order regarding the compensation amount.

BAYER PHARM AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT VS THE CONTROLLER GENERAL OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-255/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The order refusing to grant a patent to the Appellant was set aside due to its arbitrary nature and procedural irregularities. The Respondent did not communicate objections under Section 3(e) of the Patents Act, denying the Appellant a fair chance to respond. The interpretation of Section 3(i) regarding methods of treatment was also disputed; the claim related to a product (composition) rather than a method. The matter was returned for a fresh consideration with a hearing, requiring clear identification of objections and a decision within three months after the hearing, unaffected by the previous order's remarks.

BENNET COLEMAN AND CO. LTD VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT THROUGH ITS DIRECTOR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15471/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The issuance of summons under Section 37(1) of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999, without a formal finding of contravention under Section 4 or violations of the Income Tax Act, is inadequate to deny No Objection Certificates (NOCs) for overseas investments sought by Times Internet Limited and Bennet Coleman and Co. Ltd. A prolonged investigation by the Directorate of Enforcement without conclusion does not justify the denial of investment rights. The rejection letters were quashed, and the petitioners were directed to seek remittance of investments abroad to be processed based on applicable FEMA rules and regulations.

BHARAT SANCHAR NIGAM LIMITED VS PLINTRON INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12240/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Empanelment Agreement and Commercial Agreement between BSNL and Plintron expired by efflux of time, and the contractual obligations could not be modified or extended. The principle of promissory estoppel did not apply due to the absence of a clear promise from BSNL to extend the contract. Public interest could not override the explicit terms of the contract. Interim orders preventing BSNL from disconnecting Plintron's connectivity were set aside, and Plintron was granted a two-month grace period to migrate its subscribers to other networks for an orderly transition.

BHAVYA CHABBRA & ANR. VS BADMINTON ASSOCIATION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17010/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition challenging the selection criteria of the Delhi Capital Badminton Association (DCBA) for the Yonex—Sunrise 86th Senior National Badminton Tournament was dismissed. The DCBA's criteria, which allocate points equally between partners in doubles and consider the sum of individual rankings, align with the Badminton Association of India's regulations and allow players to choose compatible partners. The DCBA is open to potential changes in the ranking system for future seasons but will not alter criteria for the current event. Allegations of conflict of interest against a committee member were deemed unsubstantiated, and there were no grounds to interfere with the selection criteria.

BIPLAB DATTA & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8063/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Central Civil Services (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993 govern the recognition and membership of service associations, rather than the OMs related to the JCM scheme. The association's constitution includes 'non-gazetted' employees without specifying 'Group C and D'. Membership ceases under Rule 5(d)(ii) if an employee no longer belongs to the relevant category, but the remedy involves amending the constitution, which is an internal issue. The removal of 'Group B' members cannot be directed, but a list of members with Grade Pay of Rs. 4200/- and above must be provided to assist in identifying such members.

CASTROL LIMITED VS RAJESH KUMAR TUTEJA, TRADING AS KRISHNA INTERNATIONAL AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-616/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendant's use of the trademark "newcast roi racing" constitutes trademark infringement and unfair competition against the plaintiff's well-known "Castrol" trademark. The presentation of the defendant's mark manipulates the prominence of "new" while unduly emphasizing "Castroi," creating deceptive similarity with the plaintiff's trademark. This demonstrates a clear intent to deceive consumers and exploit the plaintiff's goodwill. A permanent injunction was granted in favor of the plaintiff, along with damages and litigation costs against the defendant.

CHANDRA PRAKASH VS INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY BOARD OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-14950/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The suspension of Chandra Prakash's registration as an Insolvency Professional for one year was upheld due to his failure to disclose the appointment of his brother's firm, M/s Ibay Capital, and to obtain approval from the Committee of Creditors for the valuation firm's fees. Although he took action against Gravity Facility Management Solutions Pvt. Ltd. for non-payment of water charges, the one-year suspension was justified by at least two valid grounds, leading to the dismissal of his plea to overturn the suspension order.

CONTAINER CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED VS ROADWINGS INTERNATIONAL PVT. LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-449/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The majority award signed by all three arbitrators on June 1, 2022, is considered a valid and enforceable arbitral award, despite the absence of a dissenting opinion. The limitation period under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 begins on June 1, 2022, when the parties received the award. A petition challenging the award was dismissed for being filed beyond the allowed 3-month period and an additional 30-day extension, which cannot be condoned.

CS CONSTRUCTION COMPANY PVT LTD & ANR. VS EXCELLING GEO AND ENGINEERING CONSULTANT & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10027/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition challenging orders from the sole arbitrator and the coordinator of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre was dismissed. The orders were recognized as procedural case management orders within the arbitral tribunal's jurisdiction. The petitioners did not prove exceptional circumstances justifying interference under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution. The arbitral tribunal retains the authority to establish its own procedures under the Arbitration Act, and the decisions were not deemed perverse or lacking jurisdiction. The petition was dismissed with costs, and the petitioners retain the right to challenge the orders under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act at a later stage.

DARSHANA RANI VS THE GOVERNMENT NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-7519/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The denial of the life insurance claim under the Chief Minister Advocate Welfare Scheme (CMAWS) was upheld due to the petitioner's son not verifying his voter ID/EPIC number, a necessary eligibility requirement. Despite being included in the group medical insurance policy, the policies had different eligibility criteria. The petitioner's son did not meet the requirements at the time of his death, which occurred before the policy's coverage period. The decision to deny the claim was affirmed, with no grounds found to challenge the order.

DEEP MINOR THROUGH NEXT FRIEND VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-9141/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

A minor child is entitled to a Scheduled Caste certificate based on the caste certificate of the mother, despite the lack of a formal divorce or judicial separation from the father. The mother has faced over 15 years of abandonment, serving as the sole caregiver. The absence of a judicial separation order or divorce decree is deemed an overly formalistic requirement, as the reality of abandonment reflects a separation. Authorities are directed to assess the child's application on its merits, taking into account the long-standing abandonment as equivalent to separation.

DONGGUAN HUALI INDUSTRIES CO. LTD. VS ANAND AGGARWAL AND ORS. [CS(COMM)-229/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Dongguan Huali Industries Co. Ltd. established a prima facie case for an interim injunction against the defendants regarding the "HUALI" trademark, demonstrating prior use and substantial goodwill dating back to 2007. The defendants' claims of earlier use since 2008 were undermined by evidence of forged documents. The defendants' use of the identical "HUALI" mark for similar goods constituted an attempt to exploit the plaintiff's reputation, leading to irreparable harm and consumer confusion. An interim injunction was granted to prevent the defendants from using the "HUALI" trademark or any similar marks during the lawsuit.

DR DEEPAK SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15971/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The National Rifle Association of India's refusal to issue the "Renowned Shot" certificate to Dr. Deepak Singh was justified. Dr. Singh competed in the "Men" category during the 66th National Shooting Championship Competition 2023 due to an inability to participate in the "Master Men" category because of medical issues. His engagement in the "Men" category was deemed a reasonable accommodation, and by participating without objection, he accepted the terms of that category. Consequently, he cannot claim benefits associated with the "Master Men" category based on principles of estoppel and acquiescence.

EMPLOYEES WELFARE FORUM & ORS. VS REGISTRAR OF SOCIETIES CENTRAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12450/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Registrar of Societies lacks the jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes regarding amendments to the Memorandum of Association of the Jawaharlal Nehru National Youth Centre. The orders issued on 15th February 2016 and 1st November 2018, which examined the validity of these amendments, are considered invalid. The appropriate remedy for disputes among the governing body factions is through the civil court, as the Registrar cannot cancel or review the registration of a society or resolve disputes related to its rules and regulations.

G. T. KARNAL ROAD INDUSTRIAL ESTATE CETP SOCIETY (REGD.) VS THE GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5840/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The order imposing an environmental compensation of Rs. 90 lakhs on the G.T. Karnal Road Industrial Estate CETP Society was set aside due to insufficient reasoning and lack of consideration for the petitioner's arguments. Key points included the CETP being owned and designed by government authorities, uncontrolled plant inlet, and the need for replacement due to the CETP's completion of its life cycle. The matter was referred back for fresh consideration, allowing the petitioner to submit additional documents while addressing the CETP's life cycle.

GEETA WAHAL VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9877/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Petitioner, a senior citizen and property owner, was entitled to protection under the Senior Citizens Act against threats to her safety and property. However, the Respondent No. 2 (daughter-in-law) claimed a right to residence in the property under the Domestic Violence Act. The dismissal of the Petitioner's allegations of ill-treatment and harassment by Respondent No. 2 was deemed erroneous. No automatic conclusion of collusion arose from matrimonial discord and pending litigation between the parties. The Petitioner's son was directed to provide financial assistance to Respondent No. 2 for alternate accommodation, and Respondent No. 2 was ordered to vacate the property within two months, subject to ongoing proceedings under the Domestic Violence Act and the divorce case.

GENEVA LABORATORIES LIMITED & ANR. VS MR. JAY KHODIYAR & ORS. [CS(COMM)-395/2019]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Defendants were liable for trademark infringement and passing off by selling counterfeit products using the registered "Bio-Oil" trademark and identical packaging. They did not contest the proceedings despite being served with summons and an interim restraint. Evidence, including reports and laboratory analysis, demonstrated clear infringement under the Trademarks Act. The suit was decreed in favor of the plaintiffs, with orders for the destruction of seized counterfeit goods and nominal damages awarded against the defendants.

GLAXO GROUP LIMITED VS MODI LIFE CARE INDUSTRIES LIMITED [CS(COMM)-412/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendant's written statement, filed after the statutory deadline, was not considered. The trademarks "BETSONE", "BETASONE", and "BETASON", along with their product packaging, were found to be deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered trademark "BETNESOL" and its distinctive trade dress. The plaintiff is entitled to a decree under Order VIII Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure and awarded actual litigation costs of Rs. 10 lakhs recoverable from the defendant.

GLAXOSMITHKLINE PHARMACEUTICALS LIMITED VS CACTUS PHARMACEUTICALS PRIVATE LIMITED AND OTHERS [CS(COMM)-497/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

A permanent injunction was granted in favor of GlaxoSmithKline Pharmaceuticals Limited against the use of the trademarks "CEFTUS" and "CEFBACTUM" by the defendants, whose marks were found to be visually, phonetically, and structurally similar to the registered trademark "CEFTUM," creating a likelihood of consumer confusion. The absence of any defense or contest from the defendants resulted in the award of nominal damages and legal costs to the plaintiff. Multiple defendants are involved, but the issue has not been referred to a larger bench.

GLOBAL MUSIC JUNCTION PVT. LTD VS ANNAPURNA FILMS PVT. LTD., & ORS. [CS(COMM)-715/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The contempt application by Defendant No. 6 against the Plaintiff was deemed not maintainable under Order XXXIX Rule 2A because the injunction order was directed at Defendant No. 6, not the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff's actions, while questionable, did not constitute civil or criminal contempt under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971, as the necessary criteria were unmet. The Plaintiff was advised to ensure future communications regarding court order enforcement are clear and accurate to prevent ambiguity or misrepresentation.

GM MODULAR PVT LTD. 14/15, BOKADIA IND. ESTATE, SATIVALI ROAD, VASAI (EAST), THANE, MAHARASHTRA VS MAYUR ELECTROMECK PVT LTD. 452, FUNCTIONAL INDUSTRIAL ESTATE, PATPARGANJ, DELHI [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-276/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition by GM Modular Pvt Ltd resulted in the cancellation of the "GMW" trademark held by Mayur Electromeck Pvt Ltd. The "GMW" mark was found to be phonetically and conceptually similar to GM Modular's established "GM" trademarks, leading to a likelihood of consumer confusion due to their usage on related goods. Additionally, the lack of convincing evidence for actual commercial use of the "GMW" mark supported its cancellation under Section 47 of the Trademarks Act.

GSK CONSUMER HEALTHCARE S.A. VS CELEBRITY BIOPHARMA LTD. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-154/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The registration of the "OTRINIR" trademark is cancelled as it is deceptively similar to the well-known trademarks "OTRIVIN" and "OTRINOZ." Significant phonetic, structural, and visual similarities exist between the marks, likely causing consumer confusion. The argument that the prefix "OTRI" is generic is rejected due to the established goodwill and reputation of the "OTRI" family of marks. The prior use of "OTRIVIN" indicates that "OTRINIR" was chosen opportunistically, aiming to leverage the brand identity of the petitioner.

HARKISHANDAS NIJHAWAN VS CPIO, SPECIAL BRANCH OF DELHI POLICE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12213/2018]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitioner's request for a certified copy of the Special Branch Manual under the RTI Act was denied because the information pertains to procedures used for passport verification, which is exempt under Section 8(1)(a) of the RTI Act. Disclosing this confidential information could compromise law enforcement operations and national security, justifying the decision to deny the request.

HEIFER PROJECT INTERNATIONAL VS HEIFER PROJECT INDIA TRUST [CS(COMM)-542/2018]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Territorial jurisdiction exists for the trademark infringement lawsuit due to the defendant's registered office and infringing activities located within the jurisdiction. The plaintiff's lawsuit is valid despite the defendants' technical objections. The defendant trust illegally used the plaintiff's registered "HEIFER" trademark and associated logos after permission was revoked. A permanent injunction against the defendant trust was granted, along with the destruction of infringing materials and an award of nominal damages and legal costs in favor of the plaintiff.

HERO INVESTCORP PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS ASHOK KUMAR AND ORS [CS(COMM)-605/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Defendants infringed plaintiffs' registered trademarks "HERO" and associated logos, along with copyrights in product packaging and labels. Failure to contest the proceedings led to the allegations being accepted as facts. Evidence, including local commissioner reports, was sufficient to establish infringement. Plaintiffs received a permanent injunction, destruction of seized infringing goods, nominal damages against direct manufacturers and sellers of counterfeit products, and reimbursement of actual costs for the proceedings.

HIMANSHU AND ORS VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF CIVIL AVIATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3432/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition by GATI and student pilots challenging the DGCA's reclassification of the Pipistrel VIRUS SW 121 aircraft from "Normal" to "Light Sport Aircraft" was dismissed. The DGCA, as the expert regulatory authority, is mandated under the Aircraft Act to classify and reassess aircraft types based on safety standards and technological advancements. The DGCA had consistently informed GATI of the reclassification, yet GATI continued offering training on the aircraft. This lack of change in operation provided no legal basis to require the DGCA to count training hours towards Commercial Pilot Licenses for the student pilots. Eligibility criteria for CPL issuance prioritize public safety and are best decided by the DGCA, warranting judicial restraint in these technical matters.

HOGAR CONTROLS INDIA PVT LTD VS ANADASU VIJAY KUMAR & ORS. [CS(COMM)-669/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Shareholders and Subscription Agreement (SSA) conferred intellectual property rights over the "HOGAR" and "HOGAR CONTROLS" marks to Hogar Controls India Pvt. Ltd. The claim by Defendant No. 1 regarding ownership of the "HOGAR Controls" mark lacked supporting evidence and contained inconsistencies. Non-compliance with procedural requirements for the assignment of unregistered marks under Section 42 of the Trademarks Act did not undermine the plaintiff's rights. The defendants were found to be passing off the plaintiff's goods, leading to market confusion, resulting in an interim injunction favoring the plaintiff.

HOME AND SOUL PRIVATE LIMITED ERSTWHILE KNOWN AS VERTICAL LIMITS INFRATECH PVT. LTD. VS T.V. TODAY NETWORK LIMITED ERSTWHILE KNOWN AS MAIL TODAY NEWSPAPERS PVT. LTD. [W.P.(C)-14422/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition challenging the Sole Arbitrator's order to defer the issue of limitation to the final disposal of the case is not maintainable. Under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, judicial intervention at an intermediate stage is prohibited, and grievances should be addressed through a challenge to the final award. The determination of limitation involves both law and fact, and the Arbitrator has discretion regarding the timing of this decision. No compelling circumstances exist for intervention at this stage, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

HT MEDIA LIMITED & ANR. VS HINDUSTAN NEWS NETWORK & ORS. [CS(COMM)-681/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendant's use of the trade name "Hindustan News Network," the domain name "www.hindustannewsnetwork.in," and associated logos was visually and phonetically similar to the plaintiffs' registered trademarks "Hindustan" and "Hindustan Times," resulting in trademark infringement and passing off. The defendant did not contest the allegations, leading to a decree in favor of the plaintiffs. The defendant's domain name was ordered to be transferred to the plaintiffs, who were allowed to file the judgment with the Trademarks Registry, while the plaintiffs did not seek accounts, damages, or costs.

INDIAN RALWAY FINANCE COPORATION LIMITED VS NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR SCHEDULE TRIBES AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-3512/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST) lacks jurisdiction to adjudicate individual employment disputes, such as promotion grievances. Its powers are limited to investigating systemic discrimination against Scheduled Tribes and making recommendations, not resolving private disputes. Repeated summons for the personal appearance of the Petitioner's Chairman-cum-Managing Director were found to be beyond NCST's constitutional mandate. The entitlement of Respondent No. 2 to promotion remains unaddressed, allowing him to pursue other legal remedies.

INFINITI RETAIL LIMITED VS M/S CROMA -SHARE & ORS. [CS(COMM)-838/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Defendants operated websites using the plaintiff's registered trademarks "CROMA" and "INFINITI RETAIL" to defraud individuals by offering fake job opportunities and soliciting money, constituting trademark infringement and passing off. Their activities were found to cause irreparable harm to the plaintiff's goodwill and reputation. A permanent injunction was granted against the defendants, and instructions were issued to other parties, including domain registrars and telecom providers, to block the offending websites, suspend related mobile numbers, and disable financial service accounts used by the defendants.

INFOSYS LIMITED VS SOUTHERN INFOSYS LIMITED [CS(COMM)-257/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Infosys Limited established a prima facie case of trademark infringement against Southern Infosys Limited for using the 'INFOSYS' mark in its corporate name. Despite the defendant's arguments regarding delay, laches, and the mark's alleged generic nature, the trademark was recognized as having acquired distinctiveness. The use of the mark by the defendant was likely to cause consumer confusion. An interim injunction was granted, restraining the defendant from using 'INFOSYS', with a four-month transition period allowed for changing its corporate name.

J DUNCAN HEALTHCARE PVT LTD. VS CENTRAL MEDICAL SERVICES SOCIETY [W.P.(C)-8630/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

J. Duncan Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. was found responsible for providing forged Performance Bank Guarantees to the Central Medical Services Society. The company could not claim ignorance, as it had the obligation to ensure the authenticity of submitted documents. The decision to blacklist the company for two years was upheld due to the impact of the forgery on contractual integrity and public procurement. The company's arguments lacked merit, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

JAIKISHAN KAKUBHAI SARAF ALIAS JACKIE SHROFF VS THE PEPPY STORE & ORS. [CS(COMM)-389/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Jackie Shroff, a well-known Indian actor, received an ex-parte interim injunction preventing certain defendants from infringing his personality and publicity rights through unauthorized use of his name, image, likeness, voice, and other attributes. As a celebrity, Shroff holds exclusive rights over his public persona, and the defendants' commercial exploitation without consent constituted infringement. The matter of a specific video featuring the term "Thug Life" remains under further examination to determine if its use was derogatory or celebratory.

JITENDRA KUMAR VS THE REGISTRAR OF TRADEMARKS, NEW DELHI & ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-92/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The registration of the "WHITE BOY" trademark in favor of Respondent No. 2 is liable to be cancelled. The Petitioner demonstrated prior and continuous use of the "WHITE BOY" trademark since 2010, predating Respondent No. 2's application. The identical registration likely deceives the public or causes confusion, violating Section 9(2)(a) of the Trademarks Act. Consequently, the "WHITE BOY" trademark registration held by Respondent No. 2 is to be cancelled.

JK LAKSHMI CEMENT LIMITED VS RAM BYASH YADAV, PROPREITOR OF VIKAS HARDWARE & ANR. [CS(COMM)-611/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendant's use of the "JK GYPSUM LAKSHMI" mark and trade dress was deemed deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered "JK" trademarks, resulting in infringement and passing off. A permanent injunction was issued against the defendant, along with damages of Rs. 3,00,000 and costs of Rs. 5,50,000, due to the deliberate nature of the infringement.

KABUSHIKI KAISHA TOSHIBA VS TOSIBA APPLIANCES CO. [CS(OS)-55/2006]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Kabushiki Kaisha Toshiba holds the registered "TOSHIBA" trademark, which is distinctive and protected under the Trade Marks Act 1958. The use of the similar "TOSIBA" mark by Tosiba Appliances Co. constitutes trademark infringement, likely causing consumer confusion. Toshiba established prior use and registration of its trademark before Tosiba's adoption in 1974-75, while Tosiba's claims of honest use were rejected. Toshiba could not prove its trademark had acquired transborder reputation in India, leading to the dismissal of its passing off claim. Defenses regarding delay, laches, and acquiescence presented by Tosiba were deemed without merit. A permanent injunction was granted against Tosiba's use of the "TOSIBA" mark, and Toshiba was awarded nominal damages of Rs. 15,00,000/- for the infringement.

KALAMKARI LIFESTYLE TECH PVT LTD VS MSME FACILIATION COUNCIL MUMBAI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-14572/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The MSME Facilitation Council in Mumbai has jurisdiction to address claims and disputes raised by Respondent No. 2 against the Petitioner under Section 18(4) of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006. The Petitioner's request to transfer the proceedings to Delhi was rejected due to the precedence of the MSMED Act's jurisdictional framework over the Code of Civil Procedure. The agreement between the parties allowed for concurrent jurisdiction of courts in both Delhi and Mumbai, supporting the Mumbai Facilitation Council's jurisdiction.

KARIM HOTELS PVT LTD & ANR VS NIZAMUDDIN & ANR [CS(COMM)-241/2018]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendants infringed the plaintiffs' registered trademarks "KARIM'S" and violated their copyright by using the similar mark "KARIN'S" and copying artistic designs. Claims of a franchisee agreement by the defendants were unsubstantiated. The plaintiffs established ownership of the "KARIM'S" trademarks through evidence, leading to a decision in favor of the plaintiffs. Defendant No. 1 was directed to cover the actual costs of litigation due to direct involvement in the infringement.

KHALID JAHANGIR QAZI THROUGH HIS POWER OF ATTORNEY HOLDER MS FARIDA SIDDIQI VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7755/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

OCI cardholders are classified as "foreigners" under the Foreigners Act, but the procedural safeguards of Section 7D of the Citizenship Act for canceling OCI status also apply when restricting entry. The show cause notice and cancellation order issued to the petitioner were deficient, lacking specificity in their grounds and failing to provide a reasonable opportunity for response as required. The cancellation and blacklisting orders were set aside, and a fresh notice with clear grounds must be issued, allowing the petitioner a reasonable opportunity to respond before any final decision.

KINGSTON ENTERPRISES VS NBCC (INDIA) LTD. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4517/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The 'pay-when-paid' clause in the back-to-back contract between the subcontractor and NBCC bars immediate payment of dues until NBCC receives payment from the NSG, the principal employer. The subcontractor cannot seek payment directly from NSG due to lack of privity of contract. While the subcontractor's position is acknowledged, the writ petition is dismissed, allowing the option to pursue alternate remedies through civil proceedings or arbitration to examine the contractual clauses and any issues of unconscionability.

KSHITIJ GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9449/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition by Kshitij Gupta, an Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) cardholder, was dismissed after he challenged the denial of a special work permit for a position as a Country Based Clearance Officer at the British High Commission in New Delhi. Employment of OCI cardholders in diplomatic missions is subject to principles of reciprocity and national security, as outlined in the Protocol Handbook by the Ministry of External Affairs. The British High Commission did not provide sufficient justification for employing a third-country national for a local position. The argument regarding the inapplicability of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 1961 was also rejected, as employment in a diplomatic mission raises national security concerns. The responsibility for justifications lies with the foreign mission, and the Indian government cannot be compelled to seek this information. Ultimately, the challenge to the government's decision was deemed without merit.

KUNAL MONDAL VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [C.O.(COMM.IPD-CR)-875/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitioner is the original creator and copyright owner of the artistic label, having prior use and registration since 1999. The respondent's copyright registration is a substantial reproduction and imitation of the petitioner's work, which undermines its validity. The petitioner retains primacy over the intellectual property rights, leading to a directive for rectification of the respondent's copyright registration.

KURU AGRI PRODUCTS & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3597/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition challenging the Government of India's guidelines for regulating the import of poppy seeds from Turkey was dismissed. The registration of sales contracts by the Turkish Grain Board is governed by Turkish law, and Indian authorities have no jurisdiction over it. Allegations of fraudulent practices and cartelization by Turkish exporters were unsubstantiated due to a lack of evidence from Turkish authorities. The import guidelines are valid and aligned with the government's policy prerogatives, showing no arbitrariness or discrimination. The requirement of advance payment is within the government's authority under relevant laws and the MoU with Turkey.

LACOSTE & ANR. VS CROCODILE INTERNATIONAL PTE LTD. & ANR. [CS(COMM)-1550/2016]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Lacoste's registered "crocodile device" trademark was infringed by Crocodile International's "Annexure-A" device due to its deceptive similarity, likely causing consumer confusion. Lacoste could not prove the reputation and goodwill of their mark for a passing off claim. No copyright infringement occurred as the crocodile designs were independently created. The 1983 Agreement and the 1985 Letter did not establish a binding co-existence agreement for the Annexure-A device in India. A permanent injunction was issued against Crocodile International's use of the Annexure-A device, along with an order for an account of profits earned from its sale.

M/S HFCL LTD. (FORMERLY HIMACHAL FUTURISTIC COMMUNICATIONS LTD.) VS MICRO AND SMALL ENTERPRISES FACILITATION COUNCIL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7440/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council lacked jurisdiction to initiate proceedings under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, as the supplier was not registered under the Act at the time of the contracts executed between 2014 and 2018. Registration under the Act applies only prospectively, not retroactively. Consequently, the notices initiating the proceedings and subsequent arbitration proceedings were set aside.

M/S UPGRID SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED AND ANR VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-12992/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Lithium-ion batteries leased by the petitioners to e-rickshaw owners can be separated from the impounded e-rickshaws and returned to the petitioners. Ownership rights over the batteries were established through leasing agreements, despite the e-rickshaws being unregistered. The respondents must allow inspection and identification of the recovered batteries, releasing the identified ones to the petitioners within two weeks. The petitioners are required to undertake that they will lease or supply batteries only to e-rickshaw owners with valid registration and fitness certificates.

M/S. KAVITA ENTERPRISES VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-4530/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

M/s. Kavita Enterprises' writ petition for the return of fixed deposit receipts and earnest money deposits from the Airport Authority of India was dismissed. The claims were deemed time-barred, as the cause of action arose in 1996-97 and the petition was filed over 20 years later, exceeding the 3-year limitation period. Prolonged inaction barred the petitioner from relief under the doctrine of laches. Additionally, insufficient particulars about the contracts and existing factual disputes were noted as hindrances for adjudication. The respondent had encashed some fixed deposits due to alleged dues, and the petitioner had not met statutory obligations under the Employees' Provident Funds Act, further complicating the case.

MAHBOOB ALAM QURESHI & ANR. VS TDI INFRASTRUCTURE PVT. LTD. [W.P.(C)-15195/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition challenging the orders of the State Consumer Dispute Redressal Commission and the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission regarding the condonation of delay in filing a consumer complaint was dismissed. The argument that the cause of action was continuing was rejected, as it had crystallized on the date of cancellation of allotment. The reasoning of the NCDRC on the condonation of delay, which aligned with established Supreme Court judgments, was upheld.

MAHESH GUPTA VS ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-328/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Assistant Controller of Patents and Designs rejected Indian Patent Application No. 201611041718 for the 'PORTABLE VEHICLE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM' due to a lack of inventive step under Section 2(1)(ja) of the Indian Patent Act, 1970. The claimed invention's functionalities, including real-time monitoring and anomaly detection, are already covered by prior art documents D4 (US2002019703A1) and D5 (US2015019266A1). The additional feature of face detection in videos was considered an obvious application of existing techniques. The shift from a fixed to a portable system was deemed a natural progression, easily conceived by a person skilled in the art without any inventive effort.

MAJ. GEN. SANJEEV JAIN (RETD.) VS CENTRAL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12054/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The respondents' requirement for 'similar works' experience as an eligibility condition for the tender was upheld, applicable even to a retired government engineer registered as a CPWD contractor. The eligibility criteria set by the tendering authority are within their discretion, only subject to scrutiny for arbitrary or mala fide actions. The communication in question clarified the tender conditions and did not constitute an unreasonable amendment.

MALLCOM (INDIA) LIMITED VS SHANTI UDYOG WELDSAFE PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-85/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The "CD TIGER" trademark is deemed deceptively similar to the registered "TIGER" trademark, creating a likelihood of consumer confusion and trademark infringement. The plaintiff is the prior user and registrant of the "TIGER" mark, having established significant goodwill and reputation. The adoption of the "TIGER" component by the defendant is considered prima facie mala fide and amounts to passing off. An interim injunction prevents the defendant from using "CD TIGER" or any similar mark, requires depleting existing stock within four weeks, and mandates the removal of the website "www.cdtiger.com". The plaintiff may file an amended replication to the defendants' amended written statement.

MANASH LIFESTYLE PRIVATE LIMITED VS OCP TECH INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-493/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Defendants OCP Tech Industries Private Limited and its directors infringed the plaintiff's registered trademarks and trade dress by copying promotional images, product names, and descriptions of the "GOOD VIBES" brand. Their actions were deemed dishonest and malafide. A permanent injunction was issued against them, preventing further infringement. The plaintiff was awarded nominal damages of Rs. 50,000 and costs of Rs. 2,98,000.

MEHAK OBEROI VS BAR COUNCIL OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16445/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Bar Council of India can require candidates with foreign law degrees to pass a Qualifying Examination and complete a bridge course for enrollment with the Bar. The petitioner, who studied at a BCI-recognized UK university and completed a two-year bridge course in India, had been informed of the Qualifying Examination requirement prior to enrolling in the bridge course. By accepting these conditions, the petitioner cannot now challenge this requirement. The Qualifying Examination evaluates readiness for Indian legal practice, while the bridge course addresses educational equivalency. Exemption from the Qualifying Examination would undermine the regulatory framework and create inconsistencies in rule application.

MILLENNIUM AUTOMATION PRIVATE LIMITED VS BHARAT SANCHAR NIGAM LIMITED [W.P.(C)-12451/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Millennium Automation Private Limited had the rescission of its purchase order by Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) set aside. BSNL's claims of non-compliance with the advance purchase order's clauses were found to be factually incorrect, as the petitioner had provided the necessary clearances and signed security agreement. Additional grounds raised by BSNL regarding local content declaration issues lacked evidence and were deemed unreasonable. The sanctity of public tenders and valid contracts was emphasized, with the conclusion that BSNL's decision to rescind the order was arbitrary and violated principles of fairness and reasonableness.

MR PENUMETCHA NARASIMHA RAJU AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANOTHER [W.P.(C)-12277/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

In the absence of a recognized National Sports Federation for Curling in India, the Indian Olympic Association (IOA) must establish an ad-hoc committee to conduct selection trials for the Indian Curling team for the 9th Asian Winter Games. The committee will verify athlete credentials, organize trials at a suitable venue, and manage associated expenses in consultation with the Curling Federation of India and other stakeholders. The IOA is also required to decide on recognizing the NSF for Curling within two weeks. Despite the challenges in organizing the trials, there is an expectation for all parties to facilitate the participation of Indian athletes in Curling if feasible.

MR. AMARDEEP SINGH BEDI VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12597/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The refusal to issue a Police Clearance Certificate (PCC) to the petitioner based on pending criminal cases without conviction constitutes an unreasonable restriction on the right to pursue business abroad. While authorities can impose reasonable restrictions, denying the PCC in this case unjustly limits constitutional rights. The PCC must be issued with a note explaining the pending cases and confirming compliance with the requisite deposit, ensuring transparency for Canadian authorities regarding the visa application.

MR. S. C. GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14658/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition seeking a full reward of 20% of the recovered duty amount was dismissed. Rewards under informer schemes are discretionary and not a matter of right, with the competent authority having the discretion to determine the reward based on factors such as the information's specificity, the informer's risk and effort, and their contribution to recovering government dues. Disputes about the petitioner's contribution or the duty amount recovered cannot be adjudicated. The decision to award the petitioner INR 25 lakhs, representing 2% of the recovered amount, was upheld.

MR. SIDDHAANT MOHTA & ORS. VS DELHI GYMKAHANA CLUB LTD. & ORS. [CS(OS)-224/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The issuance of Green Cards by the Delhi Gymkhana Club violated the Club's Articles of Association, which do not recognize a "Green Card" category. This system bypassed the requirement for dependents to apply for full membership upon turning 21. Historical practices or internal club policies cannot override the AoA. Plaintiffs, as Green Card holders, lacked enforceable membership rights under the AoA. The Administrator's actions to suspend and terminate the Green Cards aligned with directives to ensure compliance with the AoA.

MRIDULA DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15038/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitioner's late husband, Mr. Ramanand Singh, qualified for the Swatantrata Sainik Samman Pension (SSSP) under the SSSP Scheme, as evidence including a certified copy of GR Case No. 572/1942 confirmed he was a proclaimed offender for over six months during the freedom struggle. The rejection of the petitioner's claim was overturned, and the pension was to be paid from the date of her husband's application until his death, with 6% interest. The petitioner is not eligible for the pension or arrears following her husband's death according to the revised policy guidelines of the SSSP Scheme.

MRS C VS THE PRINCIPAL SECRETARY HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE DEPARTMENT, GOVT OF NCT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11206/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

A single mother abandoned by her husband qualifies under Rule 3B(c) of the Medical Termination of Pregnancy (MTP) Rules, 2021, permitting termination of pregnancy up to 24 weeks due to a change in marital status. The continuation of her 22-week pregnancy poses risks to her mental health given her challenging financial and social situation. Medical termination of her pregnancy was authorized, providing immunity to the consulting doctors involved.

MS K S JAIN BUILDERS VS INDIAN RAILWAY WELFARE ORGANIZATION [O.M.P. (COMM)-456/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition by MS K S Jain Builders challenging the partial disallowance of Claim No. 4 and Claim No. 5 was dismissed. The petitioner cannot contest the disallowed portion of Claim No. 5 after accepting the awarded amount. No grounds were established to invalidate the entire award regarding Claim No. 5. The 5% rate for damages was deemed appropriate, and the calculation of lost profits was acknowledged as inherently speculative. There was no re-appreciation of evidence or alternative findings provided contrary to the arbitrator's conclusions.

NATIONAL POWER TRAINING INSTITUTE VS OFFICE OF CHIEF COMMISSIONER FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11104/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Chief Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities exceeded statutory jurisdiction by issuing a stay on the transfer of Respondent No. 3 from the National Power Training Institute Faridabad to NPTI Durgapur. The powers of the CCPD are limited to investigation and recommendation, and do not allow for binding orders on service matters such as transfers. The interim order staying the transfer was set aside.

NEELAM AHUJA VS RAJ AHUJA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12507/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition filed by a widowed daughter-in-law challenging the eviction order under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 was dismissed. The petitioner's assertion of being rendered homeless was unsubstantiated, as she had access to multiple alternative properties. The eviction order was deemed a proper balance of the petitioner's right to residence and the senior citizen's right to seek eviction, confirming it did not infringe upon the petitioner's right to shelter or security.

NIUM INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10466/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition filed by the petitioner is not maintainable due to the availability of an alternative remedy under Section 42 of the PMLA. The petitioner should have approached the Bombay High Court for an appeal against the Appellate Tribunal's order. The argument regarding denial of access to critical documents was noted, but the statutory appeal remedy was deemed adequate and there were no extraordinary circumstances for intervention under Article 226. The writ petition was dismissed, allowing the petitioner to pursue available statutory remedies, without addressing the merits of the case or fundamental rights allegations.

NORTH EASTERN RE ORGANISING CULTURAL ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL CLUB NEROCA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10100/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitions by Tiddim Road Athletic Union and North Eastern Re-Organising Cultural Association Football Club challenging their relegation from the I-League to the 2nd Division League were dismissed. The circumstances faced by the clubs, including disruptions in Manipur, were deemed not comparable to past cases where exemptions were granted. The relegation decision was based on league rules that the clubs had accepted, with no evidence of arbitrariness. Practical and financial constraints faced by the AIFF in accommodating the clubs were acknowledged, along with potential disruptions to the league's structure. Compelling AIFF to exercise discretion in a specific manner was not supported by legal provisions.

OCL IRON AND STEEL LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-8316/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Claims of Rs. 92.25 crore for the Performance Bank Guarantee and Rs. 9.21 crore for incremental fixed costs by the Ministry of Coal against OCL Iron and Steel Limited have been extinguished through the corporate insolvency resolution process and the approved resolution plan. The Performance Bank Guarantee claim was rejected as it did not qualify as a 'financial debt' and was not challenged by the Respondent. The Rs. 9.21 crore claim was admitted as operational debt and settled in the resolution plan. The approved resolution plan binds all stakeholders, and debarment of OCL Iron and Steel Limited from coal mine auctions based on these claims contradicts the intent of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, which seeks to provide a 'fresh start' to corporate debtors.

PFIZER PRODUCTS, INC. VS RENOVISION EXPORTS PVT. LTD. [CS(COMM)-378/2018]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Pfizer Products Inc. is the proprietor of the registered trademark "VIAGRA." The use of the mark "VIGOURA" by the Defendants constitutes trademark infringement and passing off. The mark "VIGOURA" is found to be deceptively similar to "VIAGRA" both phonetically and visually, and it was adopted with knowledge of Pfizer's prior rights. Pfizer's "VIAGRA" had acquired transborder reputation in India prior to the adoption of "VIGOURA." The Defendants are permanently restrained from using "VIGOURA" and Pfizer is awarded nominal damages of Rs. 3,00,000/- along with litigation costs.

PHILLIPS 66 COMPANY VS RAAJ UNOCAL LUBRICANTS LIMITED [CS(COMM)-281/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The plaintiff was permitted to record the testimony of two witnesses located in the United States via video conferencing, despite the defendant's objections regarding witness demeanor and document handling. The advantages of modern technology were deemed to outweigh these concerns, given the sophistication of the parties involved. Additionally, the plaintiff's application to admit certain documents into evidence was partially granted, with some documents allowed and others requiring formal proof of existence.

PIO, RP CELL, SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-4622/2019]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Central Information Commission (CIC) has the authority under Section 19(8)(b) of the RTI Act to award compensation to an RTI applicant for losses incurred due to denial of information. In this case, the South Delhi Municipal Corporation (SDMC) provided evasive responses to the RTI application, which led to the applicant incurring unnecessary parking fees. The CIC awarded Rs. 50,000 in compensation, deemed reasonable due to the applicant's financial losses. While the CIC intended for the compensation to benefit the public, it was clarified that the amount should reflect the personal detriment of the applicant. The SDMC is directed to pay the awarded compensation, which will be utilized by SCOPE for public benefit.

PNC INFRATECH LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14903/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The debarment order issued by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways against PNC Infratech Limited and its subsidiaries for one year was upheld due to credible evidence of corruption and a breach of the Integrity Pact. The decision-making process adhered to principles of natural justice. Arguments claiming lack of jurisdiction, insufficient evidence of wrongdoing, and a pre-determined mindset were rejected. This matter involved multiple petitions from PNC Infratech Limited's subsidiaries addressed collectively.

POOJA MEHTA & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4643/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The eviction order against the daughter-in-law and son of a senior citizen was upheld under the Delhi Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act. Authorities had jurisdiction to issue the eviction despite an existing protection order under the Domestic Violence Act. The senior citizen's right to live peacefully was prioritized over the daughter-in-law's right to reside in the shared household. Evidence showed the senior citizen faced continuous ill-treatment from the petitioners, justifying the eviction. The husband was directed to provide a monthly allowance for the daughter-in-law to secure alternative accommodation, with a one-month deadline to vacate the property, subject to further orders by the Mahila Court in the Domestic Violence Act proceedings.

SH. OM PRAKASH VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10688/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The notice issued by the District Magistrate for eviction and payment of outstanding charges was deemed unsustainable as it exceeded legal authority. Matters of eviction and rent recovery should be handled by a competent court. The notice was set aside, and the landlord retains the right to pursue legal proceedings for possession and arrears of rent.

RACHNA SAGAR PVT LTD VS SOVEREIGN MERCANTILE PVT LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-304/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The plaintiff established a prima facie case of passing off against the defendants due to their use of a deceptively similar trademark and device mark. The defendants, claiming prior use since 1995, presented unconvincing evidence lacking original documents and a clear legal assignment of rights. Given the plaintiff's extensive use and established reputation, the defendants' similarity in marking is likely to cause consumer confusion, constituting passing off. An interim injunction was confirmed to restrain the defendants from using the disputed marks.

RAJEEV KUMAR VS 1. CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION (CIC) THROUGH CPIO & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10118/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The PhD thesis requested under the RTI Act must be disclosed, as the University and Central Information Commission did not demonstrate any potential harm to third parties as required by Section 8(1)(d) of the RTI Act. PhD theses are intended to be publicly accessible to promote academic discourse and research. Claims of intellectual property or commercial value are insufficient to justify withholding the information. The University must provide the thesis to the petitioner within two weeks.

RAKESH KHANNA VS NAVEEN KUMAR AGGARWAL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13098/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The arrest warrants against Rakesh Khanna by the SCDRC and NCDRC were upheld for non-compliance with a final order regarding VXL Realtors Pvt. Ltd., where he was a director. Khanna's responsibility as a director at the time of the enforcement was affirmed, regardless of his involvement in day-to-day operations. The legal authority of the SCDRC and NCDRC under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 to issue arrest warrants was confirmed.

RAKESH KUMAR SAINI VS THE POWER FINANCE CORPORATION LTD [W.P.(C)-12196/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petitioner's request for cancellation or premature redemption of the "54EC Capital Gain Tax Exemption Bonds – Series VIII" issued by Power Finance Corporation Ltd. was denied. The statutory scheme mandates a 5-year lock-in period with restrictions on withdrawal, redemption, or transfer, reflecting the legislative purpose of Section 54EC of the Income Tax Act. Permitting premature redemption was deemed contrary to the intent behind these bonds and would violate statutory obligations. The specific terms of the financial instrument govern the rights and obligations of the parties, prohibiting any modification or rewriting of conditions outside the scope of writ jurisdiction. Hence, the writ petition was dismissed.

RONG THAI INTERNATIONAL GROUP CO. LTD. VS ENA FOOTWEAR PVT. LTD. AND ANR. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-100/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Petitioner, Rong Thai International Group Co. Ltd., did not establish a continuous period of non-use of the "BAOJI" trademark by the Respondent, ENA Footwear Pvt. Ltd., for at least five years prior to the filing of the rectification application. The Respondent provided substantial evidence, including sales invoices, demonstrating continuous use of the trademark. As a result, the application for cancellation of the "BAOJI" trademark was dismissed.

RSPL LIMITED VS AGARWAL HOME PRODUCTS [CS(COMM)-486/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The adoption of the trademark "AGRAGHADIYAL" by the defendant was found to be deceptively similar to the well-known "GHADI" trademark of the plaintiff, creating a substantial likelihood of consumer confusion due to similarities in visual elements, phonetics, and overall impression. The defendant's conduct was characterized as lacking good faith and aimed at exploiting the plaintiff's established goodwill. A permanent injunction was granted to prevent the defendant from infringing on the plaintiff's trademark and passing off its goods as those of the plaintiff. The plaintiff waived claims for damages and costs.

RUBAIDA KHATUN VS THE PRINCIPAL SECRETARY HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE DEPARTMENT & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8672/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

A writ petition was allowed for a woman to terminate her pregnancy of over 30 weeks after the AIIMS Medical Board diagnosed the fetus with Joubert Syndrome, a serious multisystem disorder. The continuation of the pregnancy posed significant risks to the woman's physical and mental health and would likely result in the birth of a child with severe health issues. Comprehensive medical reports were deemed crucial in sensitive cases, and a recommendation was made for the Medical Board at Lok Nayak Hospital to approach such situations with increased diligence and urgency.

SALASAR E-WASTE LLP VS DY CMM NORTHERN RAILWAY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5249/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The forfeiture of the Earnest Money Deposit by the Respondents was valid and in accordance with the e-auction terms. The bid sheet specified a 15-day interest-free period for the Balance Sale Value (BSV) payment, which expired on January 24, 2022. Extensions could only be requested with interest and within the prescribed timelines. Clauses 6.2 and 6.3 of the "Conditions for Sale" outlined the timeline for BSV payment and consequences of non-payment. The Petitioner's payment request made on February 15, 2022, was beyond the 35-day maximum permissible timeframe post-auction. Therefore, the Respondents had the contractual right to forfeit the Earnest Money Deposit. The auction terms were accessible on the platform, and the Petitioner's claim of not knowing these terms was not accepted.

SANCHIT GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-10030/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition regarding the suspension of a social media account by X Corp is not maintainable, as X Corp does not perform a "public function" necessary for a writ under Article 226 of the Constitution. The appropriate action for the petitioner is civil litigation for breach of contract, and no neglect of statutory duty by the Union of India was found to justify a mandamus.

SANJAY KUMAR VERMA VS PLANNING AND INFRASTRUCTURAL DEVELOPMENT CONSULTANTS PVT. LTD. [ARB.P.-1164/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The arbitration clause in the Letter of Appointment designates Patna as the seat of arbitration, making this agreement binding. The argument for jurisdiction in Delhi was rejected, as the designation of Patna precludes any jurisdiction under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The case was distinguished from the cited precedents, and the petition was dismissed.

SAP SE VS VTECH SOFT SOLUTIONS & ORS. [CS(COMM)-110/2020]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Vtech Soft Solutions committed infringement and passing off of SAP SE's trademarks and copyrights by continuing to use the plaintiff's intellectual property after receiving cease and desist notices. The unauthorized actions included providing remote access to pirated SAP software and training materials, likely causing confusion and deception among customers and resulting in irreparable harm to SAP's business and reputation. A permanent injunction was granted to restrain Vtech from further infringement.

SHAMINDER SINGH BHATIA & ANR. VS MR. VISHNU BHAGWAN @ BALWAN SINGH [CS(COMM)-125/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Substituted service of summons through newspaper publication does not mark the beginning of the limitation period for filing a written statement. Insufficient efforts were made to serve the defendant personally, and the defendant's claim of not residing at the provided address was not convincingly disproven. Given the defendant's explanation for a 9-day delay in filing the written statement, the delay was condoned, with the condition of a payment of INR 20,000 to the plaintiff.

SHIV KUMAR VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4828/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition challenging the decisions of the Delhi Medical Council and the National Medical Commission regarding alleged medical negligence by doctors at Max Super Speciality Hospital was dismissed. The medical bodies' decisions were found to be free of perversity or arbitrariness, with the treatment deemed appropriate for the patient's complex medical condition. The judgment emphasized that the findings of the medical experts should be respected unless proven illegal or perverse, which was not established in this case.

SHRUTI VOHRA VS EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8765/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition by an Indian Dressage athlete against the Equestrian Federation of India (EFI) regarding the selection criteria for the Paris Olympic Games 2024 was dismissed. The EFI's criteria, based on the average of the athlete's best four performances over the past year, aligned with international guidelines from the Fédération Équestre Internationale (FEI) and was deemed reasonable. The argument for prioritizing recent performances was rejected in favor of a broader evaluation for consistency in athlete-horse combinations. Recognition was given to the evolving nature of sports, with encouragement for the EFI to consider ongoing reassessment of the selection criteria in response to feedback.

SIMENTECH INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS BHARAT HEAVY ELECTRICALS LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-348/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Specified Value for determining pecuniary jurisdiction under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 must include both claim and counter-claim amounts, as well as interest accrued up to the date of arbitration invocation. Calculating interest only until the Section 34 petition filing is insufficient and results in a fluctuating Specified Value, which conflicts with legislative intent. As the adjusted Specified Value fell below the INR 2 crore threshold, the petition must be returned for filing in a court of competent jurisdiction.

SMT. NURAISHA KHATOON VS IFFCO TOKIO GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C) 7516/2022]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
Writ petitions challenging the repudiation of insurance claims under the Pravasi Bharatiya Bima Yojana, 2017 are maintainable as the insurance company is engaged in a public function under a government welfare scheme. Arguments regarding delay and laches were dismissed due to the socio-economic context of the petitioners and provisions for condonation of delay in the scheme. Issues regarding representation by a power of attorney holder led to a directive for the insurance company to disburse claim amounts directly to legitimate nominees or beneficiaries. The claim repudiation was set aside, with instructions for the insurance company to process claims promptly and for government authorities to issue necessary certificates for condonation of delay.

SMT. SANTOSH TYAGI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4190/2023]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
The petitioner, a senior citizen, had valid grounds to seek eviction of her son and daughter-in-law from her self-acquired property under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007. However, consideration was given to the daughter-in-law's residential rights under the Protection of Women Against Domestic Violence Act, 2005. A previously dismissed domestic violence complaint indicated that the eviction petition was not solely aimed at the daughter-in-law. To balance interests, the son was directed to provide financial assistance to the daughter-in-law for alternative accommodation, with a two-month deadline for the respondents to vacate the property, ensuring the protection of both the senior citizen's and the daughter-in-law's rights.

SS EXHIBITION AND MEDIA PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13022/2024]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
The petition by SS Exhibition and Media Pvt. Ltd. against the amendment by the India Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO) to its 2013 circular was dismissed. The amendment exempted educational and career-related events from restrictions on concurrent exhibitions at Bharat Mandapam. Justifications for the amendment were deemed reasonable, not arbitrary or perverse. Factors considered included the venue's increased capacity, the limited timeframe for educational events, the need for equal opportunities for organizers, and optimal utilization of space. The amendment was not found to be discriminatory or in violation of Article 14 of the Constitution.

STERLING AGRO INDUSTRIES LIMITED VS M/S ASR TRADING COMPANY & ORS. [CS(COMM)-148/2019]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
The defendants' use of the trademark "NOVYA" and their product packaging was found to be deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered trademark "NOVA," constituting trademark infringement. The arguments for distinctiveness were rejected due to substantial similarities. The defendants also made false representations, which were considered contemptuous. A permanent injunction was granted to the plaintiff, along with litigation costs. Defendant No. 3 was deemed guilty of contempt and ordered to pay a penalty of INR 5,00,000 to the plaintiff.

SU KAM POWER SYSTEMS LIMITED VS SUKAM NEXTGEN INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-878/2022]
Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula
Sukam Nextgen India Private Limited adopted the trademark "SUKAM," which was found to be deceptively similar to the registered "SU-KAM" trademark of Su Kam Power Systems Limited. The defendant's actions included a dishonest attempt to capitalize on the plaintiff's reputation and goodwill, as well as misrepresenting their status on Wikipedia. With no defense presented, a permanent injunction against trademark and copyright infringement was granted to the plaintiff, along with damages of INR 2 lakhs.

SUBATA KHAN VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-15681/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition by Subata Khan for ex-gratia compensation of INR 1 Crore due to her mother, Late Mrs. Seema Khan's death from COVID-19, was dismissed. Late Mrs. Khan, an Anganwadi worker, performed essential services but did not engage in duties classified as "COVID-19 duty" according to Cabinet Decision No. 2835. The decision-making process of the Group of Ministers was deemed reasonable, as the criteria for ex-gratia compensation were not fulfilled. The compensation is designated for high-risk roles directly related to COVID-19 response, which did not align with Late Mrs. Khan's responsibilities.

SUNIL AGARWAL AND ORS. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1133/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The rejection of the revised list of governing body members submitted by the Savitri Education Foundation was found to be ultra vires the Societies Registration Act, 1860. The Registrar's reliance on Section 12, which pertains to changes in society's purposes rather than internal governance, was deemed misplaced. The Registrar is directed to update records according to the minutes of the June 13, 2018 meeting, while the validity of that meeting and its resolutions remains subject to adjudication in a pending civil suit.

SUPER CASSETTES INDUSTRIES PRIVATE LIMITED VS RELIANCE ENTERTAINMENT STUDIOS PRIVATE LIMITED [CS(COMM)-840/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Reliance Entertainment Studios Private Limited and Window Seat Films LLP have conflicting evidence regarding the production of the film "Amar Singh Chamkila," with Window Seat Films appearing to be the recognized producer. The lien/charge clause in the agreement between Super Cassettes Industries Private Limited and Reliance does not bind Window Seat Films due to the doctrine of privity of contract. Super Cassettes' lien may not cover the gross revenues received by Reliance from Netflix, as these include production expenses, making the lien more enforceable over Reliance's net profits. Reliance has undertaken to deposit 2% of the Netflix licensing fee and 50% of the film's profits with the court, with similar reasoning applicable to other films produced in collaboration with third parties.

SURENDER PAWAR & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14146/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The termination of the petitioners' licenses for the redevelopment of the Inter State Bus Terminals in Anand Vihar, Delhi is valid and aligned with the contractual rights of the respondents. The tender documents allowed for termination with one month's notice, which the petitioners accepted. Arguments regarding the lack of substantiation for redevelopment and the obligation for alternative space under the 2016 policy were rejected, as the tender terms did not guarantee relocation. A one-month grace period was granted for the petitioners to continue operating their kiosks before vacating the premises.

TATA SONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. VS TUSHAR FULARE [CS(COMM)-242/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Tata Sons Private Limited and others established a case for copyright infringement concerning their trade dress and packaging for "TATA WATER PLUS," along with infringement of the registered trademarks "TATA" and "TATA WATER PLUS." A permanent injunction was granted against Tushar Fulare, prohibiting the use of these trademarks and similar trade dress. Nominal damages of INR 50,000 were awarded, and Fulare was directed to remove all references to the infringing products from his websites and other platforms.

THE CENTRAL PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER (CPIO) VS A K JAIN [W.P.(C)-3032/2016]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Central Public Information Officer (CPIO) cannot withhold requested information based solely on the Consumer Protection Regulations, 2005, due to the absence of an explicit prohibition on third-party access. Reliance on Section 8(1)(b) of the RTI Act is rejected as the Regulations lack a clear disclosure prohibition. Additionally, Section 8(1)(j) regarding personal information requires a substantive assessment of privacy versus public interest, rather than automatic withholding based on third-party status. The CPIO must reassess the request considering an affidavit from the applicant demonstrating good cause while balancing transparency and privacy rights.

THE KHETRI TRUST VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-17407/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The demand for Unearned Increase by the Land and Development Office (L&DO) on the Khetri Trust for substituting the original lessee is invalid. The Will bequeathing the property to the Khetri Trust has been probated, confirming its authenticity and the testator's intent. The distinction between legitimate testamentary dispositions and commercial transactions is emphasized, noting that authentic Wills do not distinguish between family and non-family beneficiaries. The facts of this case differ from those in DDA v. Vijaya C. Gurshaney, where the Will appeared to conceal a monetary transaction. The L&DO's demand is quashed, but the substitution for the Petitioner-Trust remains subject to the outcome of a pending appeal regarding the probate order.

THE PRESS CLUB, MUMBAI (ALSO PRESS CLUB, BOMBAY) VS PRESS COUNCIL OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16202/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The recommendations of the Scrutiny Committee to reject the Press Club, Mumbai's claim for notification as an Association of Persons were found to be arbitrary, erroneous, and unsustainable in law. The Press Club met all eligibility criteria and submitted the required documentation. The recommendations were quashed, and the Press Council of India was directed to include the Press Club's name in the list of Associations of Persons and issue the appropriate notification.

TIRUPATI STRUCTURALS LIMITED VS JAI PRAKASH SINGHAL [CS(COMM)-221/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendant's use of the "MM TIRUPATI" mark is considered deceptively similar to the plaintiff's registered "TSL-TIRUPATI" mark, likely causing consumer confusion. The argument that "TIRUPATI" is a generic term was rejected, particularly given the defendant's own mark registration. The plaintiff's disclaimer of exclusive rights over "TIRUPATI" in certain registrations does not prevent enforcement of common law rights through a passing off claim. The plaintiff established the criteria for passing off, leading to an injunction against the defendant's use of the mark.

TM25 HOLDING BV & ANR. VS KARTHIK BHASKAR & ANR. [CS(COMM)-313/2020]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendants infringed on the plaintiffs' registered trademarks "G-STAR" and related marks, as well as their trade dress. The "GO STAR DENIM" mark was deemed a slavish imitation of the plaintiffs' marks, with the defendants acting in bad faith to exploit the plaintiffs' reputation. The defendants' claims of differentiation were rejected. A summary judgment was awarded to the plaintiffs, prohibiting the defendants from using the infringing marks or engaging in related activities. The plaintiffs were also granted their litigation costs, emphasizing that the defendants' non-participation should not hinder the plaintiffs' pursuit of legal protection.

TR CHADHA AND CO. LLP VS REC LIMITED [W.P.(C)-11440/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The order by REC Limited blacklisting TR Chadha and Co. LLP for life was set aside due to a violation of natural justice principles. The petitioner was not given a show cause notice or an opportunity to respond to allegations arising from a CBI investigation report that was not shared with them. The importance of allowing the petitioner to explain its position before such a severe action was emphasized. A fresh show cause notice must be issued to the petitioner, considering their response before any further action is taken. No conclusions on the merits of the case were made, leaving all rights and contentions open.

TRANSYS CONSULTING PVT LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6986/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) debarred Transys Consulting Pvt Ltd for two years, which was deemed procedurally deficient due to inadequate engagement with the Petitioner's explanations in response to a show cause notice. The decision lacked substantive reasoning, merely labeling the Petitioner's response as "unsatisfactory." The order was set aside, with a directive for NHAI to reconsider the Petitioner's response after a personal hearing, while the penalty of INR 3.06 lakhs remained undisturbed. No observations were made regarding the merits of the alleged contraventions.

UJWAL GHAI VS DELHI HIGH COURT LEGAL SERVICES COMMITTEE (DHCLSC) [W.P.(C)-14016/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The requirement of 3 years of legal experience under Regulation 8(3) of the NALSA Regulations allows for discretion by the DHCLSC in appropriate cases. However, internship experience during law school does not qualify as legal practice post-enrollment as an advocate. The petitioner did not meet the 3-year experience requirement, and the DHCLSC's decision to not relax eligibility criteria in this case was upheld. The petitioner's request for inclusion in the shortlist for the "Jail Visiting Panel" empanelment was dismissed.

UPL LIMITED VS REGISTRAR & ANR. [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PV)-3/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Registrar's rejection of the Appellant's application under Section 24(5) of the Protection of Plant Varieties and Farmers' Rights Act, 2001 was based on the incorrect interpretation that the application was premature due to the plant variety not yet being registered. Section 24(5) allows for directions to be issued from the time the application is filed until a decision is made. The suspension of the Delhi High Court's declaration of Section 24(5) as ultra vires does not invalidate its validity during the stay period. The Registrar's order was set aside, and the Appellant's application was restored for consideration on its merits, including claims for damages and costs.

UZDAROJI AKCINE BENDROVE(UAB) BALTIJOS MINERALINIU VANDENU KOMPANIJA VS MR. SAHIL TANDON TRADING AS A AND Z EXPORTS INTERNATIONAL [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-202/2022]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Uzdaroji Akcine Bendrove (UAB) is the legitimate proprietor of the "TICHE" trademark, which it has used internationally since 1998 and in India since 2015. Mr. Sahil Tandon fraudulently registered the trademark in his own name, beyond the authority granted to him as UAB's agent. The registration was cancelled and costs were imposed on Tandon in favor of UAB.

VERIZON TRADEMARK SERVICES LLC & ORS. VS LATHIYA HANSHABEN ARVINDBHAI & ANR. [CS(COMM)-407/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The defendants' use of the mark 'VRIZON' constituted trademark infringement of the well-known 'VERIZON' trademarks. The mark was found to be deceptively similar, and the intended use for unrelated goods aimed to exploit the plaintiffs' reputation. A permanent injunction was granted, but no damages or legal costs were awarded due to the defendants' trademark application being filed on a 'Proposed to be Used' basis without evidence of actual use.

VINOD KUMAR BALI VS ASHISH BALI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6710/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition by a senior citizen was allowed, restoring the eviction order against his son and daughter-in-law. The petitioner established ownership of the property and demonstrated ill-treatment and harassment by the respondents, justifying eviction under the Delhi Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act. Reliance on a previous Supreme Court judgment was deemed inappropriate due to differing facts. The rights of the senior citizen were prioritized over those of the daughter-in-law under the Domestic Violence Act.

VISAKHA CHEMICALS VS BINDAL FOOD PRODUCTS [CS(COMM)-1614/2016]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Visakha Chemicals is the registered proprietor of the trademark "ROCHAK" and owner of the copyright in the artistic labels for "ROCHAK" and "AM PACHAN." The Defendant's use of identical marks and deceptively similar packaging constitutes infringement of the Plaintiff's trademark and copyright, as well as passing off. The Plaintiff was established as the prior adopter and user of the marks and labels. The Defendant faces a permanent ban on using the Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrighted works, along with an order to pay nominal damages and costs to the Plaintiff.

VISHESH FILMS PRIVATE LIMITED VS SUPER CASSETTES INDUSTRIES LIMITED [CS(COMM)-68/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Vishesh Films Private Limited received an interim injunction against Super Cassettes Industries Limited, preventing the use of the title "Tu Hi Aashiqui" or similar titles containing "Aashiqui" for a proposed film. The title "Aashiqui" is recognized as a distinctive trademark with established goodwill from the successful film franchise. The proposed title by the Defendant was deemed deceptively similar, likely to cause public confusion and dilute the brand. The argument that the Plaintiff's registration of the trademark obstructed legal action was rejected. The decision was based on the balance of convenience and the risk of irreparable harm to the Plaintiff's franchise.

VIVEK RAHEJA VS INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY BOARD OF INDIA. [W.P.(C)-2894/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The petition challenging the suspension of the Insolvency Professional's registration for two years was dismissed. The investigation into the professional's eligibility, initiated by a Second Show Cause Notice, was not barred by res judicata as the concerns regarding a joint Resolution Applicant were not addressed in the earlier notice. The professional failed to meet the statutory duty under Section 30(2) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, by not properly evaluating the Resolution Plan and erroneously accepting a joint applicant, despite the Corporate Debtor not qualifying as an MSME. Additionally, the professional did not disclose an Avoidance Application filed against the joint applicant in another case. The decision to suspend the registration was upheld.

VOLANS UPTOWN LLC VS MAHENDRA JESHABHAI BAMBHANIYA [CS(COMM)-257/2023]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

Volans Uptown LLC established its right to a permanent injunction against Mahendra Jeshabhai Bambhaniya for trademark infringement of "BOTANIC HEARTH." The defendant's attempt to register an identical trademark constituted "trademark squatting," aiming to exploit the plaintiff's established goodwill. The defendant's pattern of filing trademarks for renowned brands posed a significant threat to trademark law, necessitating protection of the plaintiff's legitimate rights. The decision favored the plaintiff under applicable legal provisions.

ZIAUL HAQUE & ORS VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR [W.P.(C)-9702/2015]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) and Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB) did not adequately evaluate the eligibility of 43 Petitioners for rehabilitation under the DDA Rehabilitation Policy of 2004, ignoring substantial evidence of residential status, including ration cards and voter IDs. The decision regarding their ineligibility was set aside, and the Respondents were instructed to rehabilitate the Petitioners, considering the pre-demolition survey and the potential dual use of the Jhuggies.

ZYDUS TAKEDA HEALTHCARE PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10177/2021]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Narula

The Petitioner's request for MEIS benefits was not to be rejected on technical grounds, as an inadvertent error occurred when "N" was marked instead of "Y" in the reward column of shipping bills. The Petitioner later obtained amendment certificates under Section 149 of the Customs Act to correct this error. Based on an advisory from the Directorate General of Systems and Data Management, the Respondents were directed to consider the Petitioner's MEIS claims and process the application.

ANSH TELECOM THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SARITA RANI VS COMMISSIONER OF DGST AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-5402/2024]

Judges: Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva

Ansh Telecom's GST registration cancellation from July 1, 2017, was set aside due to inadequate reasons and lack of a hearing opportunity in the show cause notice. The registration cancellation was modified to be effective from September 2, 2021. Recovery of any tax, penalty, or interest is permitted after providing a proper show cause notice and hearing opportunity.

AXCESS LIMITED VS CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-288/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

Amendments made by the appellant to the patent application claims are within the scope of the original claims and specification, making them permissible under Section 59(1) of the Patents Act. The previous rejection of the application is set aside, and the matter is remanded for fresh consideration of the amended claims, applying recent parameters for permissible amendments.

BHAGWATI DEVI THROUGH L.RS. PRAMOD KUMAR VS SH. BALRAJ SINGH CHOPRA [CRL.L.P.-438/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The respondent was acquitted of the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act because the petitioner, a landlady, did not establish the necessary elements, such as the existence of a legally enforceable debt. Testimony regarding the rent agreement and the dishonored cheque contained material contradictions. The respondent provided a reasonable explanation that the cheque had been stolen before reaching the petitioner. The failure to prove the case beyond reasonable doubt led to the acquittal.

BIOTYX MEDICAL (SHENZHEN) CO. LTD VS THE ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF PATENTS AND DESIGNS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-403/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order refusing the patent application for an absorbable iron-based alloy implantable medical device was set aside due to errors in the analysis of novelty and inventive step. The claims were found to be distinct from cited prior art, which was not adequately considered. The analysis of the inventive step lacked proper methodology and scientific reasoning as per established standards. The case was remanded for fresh consideration, requiring the application of a recognized inventive step assessment test and a detailed analysis, with a decision expected within four months of the hearing's conclusion.

BRY-AIR (ASIA) PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA, THROUGH ITS SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT FOR PROMOTION OF INDUSTRY AND INTERNAL TRADE, MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-IPD-17/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The writ petition filed by Bry-Air (Asia) Pvt. Ltd. resulted in the quashing of the status update "Deemed to be withdrawn u/s 11B(4)" for the petitioner's patent application. The non-filing of the request for examination was attributed to the negligence of the previous patent agent rather than any intent to abandon on the part of the petitioner. Restoration of the patent application to its original status was ordered, allowing the petitioner to file the request for examination.

CASTROL LIMITED VS VIPIN, TRADING AS ALL IN ONE BUSINESS SOLUTIONS AND ANR. [CS(COMM)-160/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

A permanent injunction was granted in favor of Castrol Limited against the defendants for infringing on its registered trademarks "CASTROL" and for passing off and copyright infringement. The defendants adopted the deceptively similar mark "SUPER CASTROL" and packaging to exploit the reputation of Castrol. Their failure to respond to the claims led to the acceptance of the plaintiff's allegations. The defendants were ordered to withdraw the trademark application for "SUPER CASTROL" and to pay damages and costs equally.

F- HOFFMANN -LA ROCHE AG & ANR. VS ZYDUS LIFESCIENCES LIMITED, [CS(COMM)-159/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The plaintiffs' application for an interim injunction against the defendant's product "Sigrima" was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of patent infringement. The plaintiffs were required to present a "claim mapping" analysis comparing the defendant's product features with their patented claims, which they failed to do. Without this analysis, it could not be concluded that infringement occurred. Consequently, the application was denied and an earlier interim order was vacated.

ITC LIMITED VS ARPITA AGRO PRODUCTS PVT LTD & ORS. [CS(COMM)-698/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

ITC Ltd. established a prima facie case for an injunction due to the defendants' use of the mark 'POWRNYM', which is deceptively similar to ITC's registered trademarks 'NIMYLE' and 'JOR-POWR', resulting in infringement and passing off. The defendants previously assigned these trademarks to ITC for consideration, and their current use of a confusingly similar mark violates the assignment agreements. An interim injunction was granted to restrain the defendants from using the impugned mark or any similar marks.

M/S PRAKASH PIPES LIMITED VS M/S JAISWAL TRADERS THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR MR CHANDAN JAISAWAL & ANR. [CS(COMM)-540/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

M/s Prakash Pipes Limited achieved a summary judgment against M/s Jaiswal Traders for trademark and copyright infringement involving the "PRAKASH" and "PRAKASH GOLD" brands. Evidence indicated that Jaiswal Traders used these established marks without authorization, lacking a viable defense. Jaiswal Traders received a permanent injunction against further use of the infringing marks and was ordered to pay damages and costs of Rs. 5,00,000. The absence of Jaiswal Traders in the proceedings led to a summary decision without recorded evidence.

MASTER ENTERPRISES PVT LTD. VS JAY KAY COIR FOAM PVT LTD. [C.O. (COMM.IPD-TM)-599/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

Master Enterprises Pvt Ltd owns the "MOLTY" brand and petitioned for the cancellation of the "MOLTY" mark registered by Jay Kay Coir Foam Pvt Ltd. Master Enterprises demonstrated prior adoption and use of the mark, which has significant reputation and goodwill. The identical registration by Jay Kay Coir Foam was likely to confuse consumers, leading to passing off of Master Enterprises' goods. Jay Kay Coir Foam's claim of prior use lacked documentary support and was rejected.

MR. SACHIN JAIN & ORS. VS MR. RAJESH JAIN [CRL.L.P.-91/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The petitioner did not prove the necessary element of an offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act because the cheques were drawn from an account that was blocked by authorities for reasons beyond the drawer's control. Previous rulings indicated that an account blockage due to external factors cannot be deemed a voluntary act of the drawer. Consequently, the dismissal of the petitioner's leave petition and the acquittal of the respondent were upheld.

NIPPON STEEL CORPORATION VS CONTROLLER GENERAL OF PATENTS, DESIGNS AND TRADEMARKS AND ANR [C.A.(COMM.IPD-PAT)-323/2022]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order rejecting the appellant's patent application for a method and device for repairing the inside of a gas flue in a coke oven was set aside. The objection under Section 3(d) of the Patents Act, 1970, was inadequately communicated, violating principles of natural justice. The analysis of the claimed method (Claim 1) lacked proper technical scrutiny and was incorrectly treated as an application of the device (Claim 2). The matter has been remanded for fresh consideration, ensuring the appellant receives a hearing and specific questions regarding patentability are addressed, with a final decision required within four months.

NOOR AFSHAN VS SHIV LOCK HOUSE & OTHERS [CS(COMM)-632/2016]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The application for substitution as the plaintiff, filed by the son of the deceased plaintiff, was dismissed due to insufficient reasons for a delay of over six years in filing the application. The applicant was aware of the suit and had previously testified as a witness, but his conduct and unexplained delay did not justify continuation of the suit. The main suit was dismissed as abated.

SAGAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2396/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The bail application of accused Sagar, charged under Sections 21/25 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, was dismissed. An officer with the functional rank of Assistant Commissioner of Police was deemed empowered to authorize the raid and search under Section 42 of the NDPS Act, despite not being a formally notified "gazetted officer." Compliance issues regarding Section 50 notice and the NCB Handbook guidelines will be considered at trial, not at the bail stage. The recovery of a commercial quantity of drugs and Sagar's criminal history were cited as reasons for denying bail.

SM MOTORENTEILE GMBH VS A.A. AUTOMOBILES & ORS. [CS(COMM)-553/2019]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

SM Motorenteile GmbH established a prima facie case for an interim injunction against A.A. Automobiles and others due to unauthorized use of its registered trademarks "SM Logo-1" and "SM Logo-2." This usage caused market confusion and deception. The defendants lacked substantial prospects for defense, and the balance of convenience favored granting the interim injunction against defendants 1 and 2 until the case is resolved.

SUN PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRIES LTD VS J.B. CHEMICALS AND PHARMACEUTICALS LTD & ANR. [CS(COMM)-369/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The plaintiff's registered trademark "RACIRAFT" is deemed deceptively similar to the defendants' trademark "RANRAFT," leading to a finding of trademark infringement. A high degree of resemblance exists between the two marks, particularly in the identical first two syllables "RA" and the last part "RAFT." The minor differences are insufficient for consumers to distinguish between them. The defendants' use of "RANRAFT" occurred shortly after the registration of "RACIRAFT," indicating risk on their part. Given the public interest related to medicinal products, an interim injunction is granted to prevent the defendants from using "RANRAFT" or any similar mark.

TERMO ISI SISTEMLERI TICARET VE SANAYI ANONIM SIRKETI VS REGISTRAR OF TRADE MARKS [C.A.(COMM.IPD-TM)-14/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The order permitting the registration of the trademark "ECOSTAR" (device mark) in Class 35 was upheld with the condition that the mark be used as substantially represented and with no exclusive right over the word "Ecostar." The appellant consistently stated a lack of claim to exclusive rights over "Ecostar" in non-stylized form, making the Registrar's condition a reflection of this position. Arguments against the necessity of the condition and claims for benefits under Section 12 of the Trade Marks Act based on other registered trademarks were rejected, concluding that sufficient discretion was exercised by the Registrar. The appeal was dismissed for lack of merit.

VIP PHARMACEUTICALS PVT LTD VS RHYDBURG PHARMACEUTICALS LIMITED [CS(COMM)-110/2023]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

The suit filed by the plaintiff is barred under Order XXIII Rule 1(4) and Section 12 of the Civil Procedure Code, as it concerns the same cause of action and similar reliefs as a previously withdrawn counter-claim without prior permission. There is significant overlap between the pleadings of both actions. Arguments regarding a continuing cause of action and an unrecorded oral request for permission to file a fresh suit were not accepted. The defendant's application was allowed, and the plaintiff's suit was rejected.

ZYDUS WELLNESS PRODUCTS LTD VS MR PRASHANT DESAI [CS(COMM)-684/2024]

Judges: Justice Saurabh Banerjee

A social media influencer made false, misleading, and disparaging claims about the plaintiff's COMPLAN product in a video, constituting trademark disparagement and infringement under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. An interim injunction was granted to prevent the influencer from publishing or sharing the video or any similar disparaging content.

ABNASH CHANDER CHADHA VS BALBIR KUMAR CHADHA & ANR [CM(M)-1540/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to lead evidence in rebuttal was reinstated after the trial court's dismissal was set aside. The petitioner had reserved the right to present rebuttal evidence upon closing their own case. Evidence in rebuttal is to be permitted according to specified guidelines, and the matter involves two consolidated suits between the parties.

ABNASH CHANDER CHADHA VS BALBIR KUMAR CHADHA & ANR [CM(M)-1207/2016]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to summon a witness from the Airport Authority of India and produce relevant records was reinstated after the trial court's dismissal was deemed insufficiently reasoned. The relevance of the requested record was acknowledged, allowing the petitioner one opportunity to summon the witness and the record, contingent on a payment of Rs. 15,000 to the respondents. Emphasis was placed on the importance of procedural law in ensuring the administration of justice.

AJAY KUMAR SINGH@DEEP VS SHANTI DEVI [CM(M)-2239/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Paragraphs 19, 20, and 24 in the petitioner's affidavit of evidence were deleted for being beyond the pleadings. Paragraph 23 was allowed for inclusion, conditioned on the police complaint being part of the record. Inclusion of paragraph 26 was permitted as the respondent conceded to it. The pleas in the written statement differed from those in paragraph 24, leading to its classification as beyond the pleadings.

AJAY MEDI VS HEMANT MEHTA [CM(M)-755/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order to stay the proceedings in a suit seeking a declaration that a receipt-cum-possession letter is forged and fabricating, along with an injunction, was set aside. The suit could not be combined with a previous suit under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act concerning possession, as the inquiries in both cases are distinct. The trial court was directed to resume the trial of the subsequent suit according to legal protocols.

ANWAR KHAN VS MOINUDDIN AND ORS [CM(M)-1223/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner was permitted to correct a typographical error in prayer clause (c) of the original plaint to include respondent no. 5 as a party liable for damages. The trial court's dismissal of the application under Order VI Rule 17 CPC was criticized for stating that prayer clauses could not be amended without amending pleadings, as the petitioner was simply rectifying a clerical mistake. The trial court is directed to allow the amendment to prayer clause (c) without delay.

ARUN KUMAR SINGLA VS HARISH KUMAR (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS & ORS. [CM(M)-1273/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's decision to allow the re-examination of witness Rajinder Garg was deemed appropriate given the respondents' change of stance regarding his summoning and their serious allegations against their previous counsel. The re-examination is restricted to clarifying issues addressed in cross-examination and must not serve to counteract the effects of the cross-examination or to fill gaps in evidence.

ARVINDER SINGH SANDHU VS KAWALJEET SINGH SANDHU & ORS. [CM(M)-2123/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's decision to dismiss the petitioner's application to recall respondent no. 4 as a witness for a will dated 25.09.1995 was upheld. The petitioner had previous opportunities to examine witnesses but did not do so and was deemed to have taken a casual approach. Respondent no. 4 was not an attesting witness to the will, making his examination unlikely to be beneficial. The application was filed at a late stage, lacking bona fides, and the trial court's discretion in denying further evidence was not considered erroneous.

BABU KHAN VS ZABUDDIN & ORS. [CM(M)-46/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's request to introduce a registered Will dated 16.08.1995 from his deceased mother was dismissed. The claim contradicted an earlier written statement asserting that the mother had gifted half of the property in 1997 and sold the other half in 2006. Even if the Will were accepted, it would be ineffective as the property no longer existed. Under Muslim Personal Law, a Will can only bequeath up to one-third of an estate, raising doubts about the Will's validity given the petitioner's assertion of receiving the entire property. The petition and application were dismissed.

BHARAT AGARWAL & ORS. VS NMDC LIMITED [CM(M)-1754/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The dismissal of the petitioners' application to include additional documents in a commercial suit was upheld. The petitioners failed to show a reasonable cause for not filing the documents with the original plaint as required. The documents were known and accessible to the petitioners, and their claim of inadvertently leaving them with a previous lawyer did not justify the delay. Strict compliance with timelines under the Commercial Courts Act was emphasized to ensure the prompt resolution of commercial disputes.

BLOOMBERG TELEVISION PRODUCTION SERVICES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. VS ZEE ENTERTAINMENT ENTERPRISES LIMITED [FAO-79/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The ex-parte ad-interim injunction in favor of the respondent against the appellants was upheld. The "Triple Test" for granting an interim injunction was properly applied, and alternative statutory remedies for the appellants include filing a reply or seeking modification of the order under Order XXXIX Rule 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

CASA 2 STAYS PVT. LTD. VS VLCC PERSONAL CARE LTD. [CM(M)-2205/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order allowing VLCC Personal Care Ltd. to bring additional documents was set aside due to the failure to show reasonable cause for not including them with the original plaint. The respondent previously stated it had no other documents, and the subsequent explanation was deemed unconvincing. The trial court's decision was inconsistent with the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 and Supreme Court precedents. The additional documents were removed from the record, but VLCC can still rely on a specific letter during the evidence stage, despite it not being included in the plaint.

CHANDRA KANTA AGARWALA VS AJAY GAUR & ANR [CM(M)-457/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The scope of intervention under Article 227 of the Constitution is limited to questions of law, such as violations of natural justice, perversity, or lack of jurisdiction. The trial court's rejection of a petitioner's request to photograph disputed signatures for handwriting analysis was neither illegal nor perverse. The petitioner can file an appropriate application before the court with jurisdiction over the original affidavit to obtain photographs of the signatures for expert analysis. The petition was disposed of accordingly.

DECCAN EDIBLES PRIVATE LIMITED VS S P J CARGO PRIVATE LIMITED [CM(M)-216/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The defect in the verification of paragraphs 24 to 38 of the plaint was identified as curable. The respondent remedied this defect by submitting a complete Statement of Truth on the same day, adhering to Order VI Rule 15A of the Code of Civil Procedure. The challenge to the plaint was dismissed due to the lack of grounds to set aside the prior order.

DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION LTD VS PARAS [CM(M)-1320/2018]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order allowing the respondent to cross-examine the petitioner's witnesses DW-1 and DW-4 was valid, despite the respondent's previous missed opportunities. Inherent powers under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure were applied to recall witnesses, ensuring a fair trial for the indigent respondent, assisted by legal aid counsel. A single opportunity for cross-examination was directed within one week, with no further adjournments permitted.

DHARAM BIR VS CHARAN SINGH [CM(M)-252/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order appointing a local commissioner to measure the properties of two brothers in a dispute over a common wall was upheld. The decision to appoint the local commissioner was deemed appropriate to clarify the location of the common wall and was not considered improper evidence collection. Arguments against the appointment, claiming it would lead to a new partition or assist in evidence collection, were rejected.

DHRUV KUMAR SINHA VS RAJ BALA TANWAR [CM(M)-1821/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to amend the written statement was dismissed. The proposed amendments were either already included or unnecessary for the case's resolution. The objections regarding non-compliance with pre-institution mediation were deemed vague and irrelevant. The claim for recovery of alleged overpayment of rent was required to be pleaded as a counterclaim or set-off, which the petitioner failed to do. Additionally, the petitioner did not submit the relevant audio CD as required.

DINESH CHANDRA GUPTA VS TAJINDER PAL SINGH & ANR. [CM(M)-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition filed by Dinesh Chandra Gupta was dismissed due to a 94-day delay in filing a review petition, which was not adequately explained in the application for condonation of delay. The petitioner was aware of the relevant assessment order and failed to provide valid grounds for the review, leading to the conclusion that the provisions of the Limitation Act were properly applied.

EXCEL PACK PVT LTD VS IGB POLYMERS PVT LTD [CM(M)-119/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition was dismissed as the trial court appropriately allowed the respondent to recall the order closing its right to file a written statement and to set aside the ex parte order. The delay in filing the written statement was partly due to the petitioner's delay in impleading the respondent's directors and the prior counsel's failure to appear, which the trial court deemed acceptable. No infirmity was found in the trial court's reasoning or decision to permit the respondent's participation in the trial.

GANPATI INDUSTRIES VS SPP FOOD PRODUCTS PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-72/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order allowing SPP Food Products Pvt. Ltd. to amend the plaint was upheld, deeming the amendments necessary for effective adjudication. The amendments aimed to include the individual partners of the partnership firm Ganpati Industries and were considered bona fide, not prejudicial to the petitioner. The petition by Ganpati Industries was dismissed.

GURSAHIB SINGH SETHI VS GARIMA BATRA [CM(M)-1233/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The orders of the Family Court that closed the petitioner's right to file a written statement in divorce proceedings were set aside. The petitioner experienced delays partly due to previous counsel's mistakes and medical issues during the COVID-19 pandemic. The petitioner is permitted to file the written statement within 10 days and must pay R.S. 35,000 to the respondent as compensation for the delay.

HARJIT SINGH SAHNI VS SIDHANT GUPTA [CM(M)-286/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner voluntarily surrendered possession of the suit shop on June 30, 2018, as part of a compromise with the respondent. Consequently, the petitioner cannot seek the benefit of Section 19(2) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958, since possession was not regained through legal means but through a settlement. The application under Section 19(2) is therefore not maintainable.

HERSHEY INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS SHRI RAJENDRA PRASAD [CM(M)-1699/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order allowing the respondent to summon the petitioner's employee as a witness and obtain documents related to the petitioner's dealings with a distributor was upheld. The summoned evidence was deemed relevant to the dispute, as the petitioner alleged misconduct by the respondent in those dealings. The trial court's exercise of discretion to permit the summoning of evidence was seen as necessary to address the real controversy between the parties.

HUMA SAAD VS ASHOK KUMAR KHATTAR [CM(M)-2112/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court allowed the respondent to present additional documents under Order VIII Rule 1A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, citing the respondent's reasons for delay, including the loss of his wife due to COVID-19 and personal health issues. Objections from the petitioner regarding the emails and WhatsApp chats were noted, but the trial court also permitted the petitioner to lead additional evidence and amend pleadings to mitigate any prejudice. The petition challenging this decision was dismissed.

ICICI BANK LTD. VS ANIRUDH CHAUHAN [CM(M)-1387/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The lower court erred in condoning the delay in the respondent's filing of the written statement, which exceeded the 120-day period stipulated by Order VIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The respondent did not provide sufficient justification for the delay, and the lower court failed to adequately record reasons for its decision. The order of the lower court was set aside, and the written statement was to be removed from the record.

JAGAT SINGH & ORS. VS NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SECRETARY & ANR. [CM(M)-2146/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners' challenge to the lower court's order for fresh demarcation of disputed property was dismissed. The jurisdiction under Article 227 is limited and no serious error was found in the lower court's order. The petitioners and respondents disputed the Khasra numbers for the property, which required multiple demarcation proceedings. The order for fresh demarcation was deemed justified to accurately identify the property. The petitioners' claims against the previous demarcation report and costs were rejected. The respondents were instructed to complete the demarcation within 6 weeks and clearly identify the applicable Khasra number.

JAGESHWAR DAYAL VS K K KAPOOR [CM(M)-344/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The civil suit is classified as commercial and must be tried by the designated Commercial Court instead of the ordinary civil court. The suit has been transferred from the Court of the Additional District Judge to the Court of the District Judge (Commercial) for further proceedings. Previous orders from the trial court have been set aside, and the parties are to appear before the commercial court on a specified date to address the defendant's objections, including issues of limitation.

JASPAL CHOPRA VS M/S SIDHANT POLYPLAST LTD AND ORS [CM(M)-1307/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court correctly allowed the application to delete the names of respondents 2 and 6 from the array of parties under Order I Rule 10(2) of the Civil Procedure Code, as this rule permits deletion at any stage of the proceedings. The petitioner failed to provide sufficient evidence to pierce the corporate veil and impose personal liability on the directors. The petition was dismissed.

JATAV SUDHAR SAMITI & ANR. VS SUSHMA MITTAL [CM(M)-2337/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners, as defendants in a commercial suit, failed to demonstrate valid grounds for delaying their written statement beyond the 120-day limit set by the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. Their claim regarding illegible documents was deemed vague and lacking specificity, and insufficient efforts were made to obtain legible copies. Consequently, the petition was dismissed, and the request to extend the filing period for the written statement was rejected.

JITENDER KUMAR KUSHWAHA VS ALBERT JOSEPH & ANR. [CM(M)-143/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's refusal to accept the petitioner's written statement due to an 8-day delay without a condonation application was justified. Arguments regarding the last filing date being a Sunday and the petitioner's judicial custody were found unmeritorious. Although rules of procedure are directory and substantial justice should be prioritized, the acceptance of the written statement was contingent upon the petitioner paying Rs. 5,000 in costs to the respondent before the next hearing.

KIRPA RAM THR DEVENDER KUAMR MONGA VS DURGA DEVI & ORS [CM(M)-694/2018]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order to set aside the abatement of a suit for specific performance of an agreement was upheld. The application of Order XXII Rule 4(4) of the Code of Civil Procedure was appropriately utilized, allowing exemption from substituting the legal representatives of a defendant who was proceeding ex-parte. The delay in filing the application to set aside the abatement was adequately explained and condoned.

M/S BAJAJ PLASTO INDUSTRIES & ANR. VS M/S PENDO PLAST PVT LTD [CM(M)-766/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order of the Commercial Court was set aside, confirming that the courts at Bahadurgarh, Haryana have exclusive jurisdiction over the dispute based on the jurisdiction clause in the invoices issued by the respondent. An agreement conferring exclusive jurisdiction to one court is valid. The Commercial Court is instructed to return the plaint to the respondent, who must present it to the appropriate courts at Bahadurgarh within four weeks.

M/S CRI LIMITED VS PRAN NATH MEHTA & ORS. [CM(M)-1845/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to reject the plaint was dismissed due to an increase in the monthly rent, which exceeded Rs. 3,500, rendering the Delhi Rent Control Act inapplicable. The suit was not barred by the Commercial Courts Act, as the respondents sought urgent interim relief, exempting them from Section 12A. At the application stage, the averments in the plaint were accepted as correct, disregarding the petitioner's defenses. All questions of law and fact remain open for trial consideration.

M/S D S S BUILDTECH PVT LTD VS MANOJ KAYAL [CM(M)-1701/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order requiring the petitioner to deposit the entire decretal amount was set aside due to non-compliance with Section 19 of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986, which mandates a deposit of only 50% or Rs. 35,000, whichever is less. Additionally, identical orders in different cases raised concerns about a lack of consideration. The matter was returned for reconsideration regarding the conditional order of stay.

M/S GARDENIA INDIA LTD & ANR VS DR RAKESH KUMAR (HUF) [CM(M)-137/2020]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

An ex-parte order against M/s Gardenia India Ltd. and its chairman was set aside due to improper service of summons. The ex-parte order was deemed unsustainable on this basis. A cost of Rs. 30,000 was imposed on the petitioners to be paid to the respondent.

M/S GAV DEVELOPERS PVT LTD VS THE PUBLISHERS DAINIK JAGRAN & ORS [FAO-326/2017]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The appellant's defamation lawsuit could not proceed in Delhi because the complaint failed to show that the alleged defamatory publication had circulation or was read in that jurisdiction. The cause of action originated in Dehradun, where the publication occurred and the respondents are located, necessitating that the case be filed in the Dehradun court. The plaint was returned for appropriate filing in Dehradun.

M/S INTERNATIONAL PRINT O PAC LIMITED VS AVG LOGISTICS LIMITED [CM(M)-1904/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Delhi courts have territorial jurisdiction to try the suit, despite the petitioner's claim that the cause of action arose in Noida, Uttar Pradesh. The consignment notes included a jurisdictional clause stating "subject to Delhi jurisdiction only." The presence of a clear ouster clause limits jurisdiction to the specified court, leading to the dismissal of the petitioner's plea.

M/S SANA FOOD PRODUCTS & ORS. VS M/S ASHWMEGH SPICES PVT. LTD [CM(M)-267/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order dismissing the application for condonation of delay in filing a written statement in a commercial suit was set aside. The matter was remanded for reconsideration based on the petitioners' claims regarding the timing of service of summons, requests for legible suit document copies, and time excluded due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The original decision did not adequately address these points and solely focused on the 120-day filing limit. The application for condonation of delay is to be reconsidered and disposed of within two weeks.

M/S SHANTIVIJAY JEWELLERS & ANR. VS M/S GOYAL MODES & ANR. [CM(M)-916/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners were allowed to submit a certified copy of the cross-examination of the respondent no. 2's father in a related case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act as relevant evidence. The trial court's dismissal of the petitioners' application to file the document was deemed incorrect, with the authority to permit filings at any stage in the interest of justice acknowledged. However, a cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the petitioners due to delays that prejudiced the respondents. The trial court will determine the document's relevancy.

M/S. M.K. ENTERPRISES VS M/S. VOHRA RUBBER AND ELECTRICALS & ORS. [CM(M)-2065/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The settlement reached between the parties at the police station is not considered a valid "admission" under Order XII Rule 6 of the Civil Procedure Code for passing a judgment on admission. The respondents admitted to the settlement but claimed it was made under duress, a point acknowledged by the petitioner. Disputes existed regarding the invoices for supplied goods and the status of respondent no. 1's firm was unclear. The petition was dismissed, leaving the merits of the case to be decided based on evidence presented in the trial court.

MAHESH SHARMA VS M/S CAPRI GLOBAL CAPITAL LIMITED AND ORS [CM(M)-19/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order allowed the restoration of R1's Section 34 petition under the Arbitration Act, despite R1's non-appearance at previous hearings. R1's conduct was inadequately explained, but the trial court exercised discretion in the interest of justice, imposing a cost of Rs. 5,000. The petitioner's challenge to the order was dismissed, with no illegality found.

MAMTA VERMA VS SONMATI VERMA & ORS. [CM(M)-640/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's observations regarding the professional competency of the petitioner's advocate were unnecessary and irrelevant, leading to their expungement. The cost of Rs. 10,000/- imposed by the trial court was waived, as the petitioner is no longer challenging the merits of the order. This was a single-judge decision.

MANISH GUPTA VS RUCHIKA GUPTA [CM(M)-558/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Manish Gupta did not pay the ordered cost of Rs. 10,000 for setting aside an ex-parte order, leading to the striking off of his defense. This cost was reduced to Rs. 5,000, and the order to strike off the defense was set aside. The situation was considered trivial since the written statement had already been provided to the respondent, highlighting the emphasis on an expeditious trial.

MANISHA KASANA VS UNION BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [CM(M)-1070/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The lease deed dated 19.07.2017 was not terminated by the respondent bank's letter dated 01.05.2018. Clause 10 of the lease allowed the bank to vacate any floor of the premises at any time without needing to terminate the entire lease. The order favoring the bank on the preliminary issue remained intact, leading to the dismissal of the petition filed by the plaintiffs and co-owners.

MANJEET SINGH KOHLI VS BALVEEN SINGH CHADHA @ BALVEEN SINGH CHAWLA & ANR [CM(M)-1568/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application under Order XV-A of the CPC for the respondents to deposit rent arrears and continue rent payments was dismissed. The petitioner did not provide documentary evidence to establish a landlord-tenant relationship, while the respondents claimed they resided in the property after advancing a loan to the petitioner. Despite the respondents' denial of the landlord-tenant relationship, the lack of evidence from the petitioner led to the dismissal of the application.

MANPHOOL SINGH & ANR VS RAM CHANDER & ORS [CM(M)-814/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order allowing the respondents to present evidence and a witness list, despite their earlier closure of the right to lead evidence, was upheld. Negligence on the respondents' part was acknowledged, but the suit concerned partition, necessitating equal treatment of all parties. A final opportunity was granted to examine one respondent and one witness, limited to two dates.

MEENA KATARIA VS REKHA & ORS. [CM(M)-652/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner has the right to present rebuttal evidence under Order XVIII Rule 3 of the Civil Procedure Code, with the burden of proving the will's validity resting on the respondents. An earlier trial court decision dismissing the rebuttal application was set aside, and the petitioner is now permitted to present limited evidence that does not fill gaps in their own case.

NITIN VIG, VS SHRI CHANDER PARKASH MEHRA & ORS. [CM(M)-1421/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order dismissing the petitioner's application to summon records from the DDA for verifying the deceased testator's signatures was set aside. The petitioner is allowed to summon the records after paying Rs. 15,000 to the respondents due to delayed case pursuit. There are two probate petitions pending between the parties, which are consolidated for evidence recording.

MR. ASHOK KUMAR SHARMA VS MR. SUSHIL CHANDER SHARMA & ORS. [CM(M)-515/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner, Mr. Ashok Kumar Sharma, was unable to summon two witnesses and obtain original records related to two civil suits despite multiple opportunities and efforts. Peculiar circumstances prevented the recording of evidence by the trial court. The petition was allowed, directing the trial court to permit the summoning of witnesses from the army-based workshop and to ensure their examination within one month. The petitioner must pay costs of Rs. 25,000 to the respondents.

MRS KANTI SINGH & ORS. VS LORDS MARK INDUSTRIES PVT. LTD & ANR. [CM(M)-1455/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court erred in reviewing its prior orders that transferred the case to the commercial court based on a subsequent judgment. Review jurisdiction is limited; a court cannot substitute its view through review. After the suit was amended to comply with the Commercial Courts Act, the trial court should have continued with the trial instead of returning the plaint. The impugned order was set aside, and the trial court was directed to proceed with the commercial suit trial. The matter involved multiple judges and was part of a batch, referencing previous similar cases.

MUKESH MARWAHA & ANR. VS RAJIV BHAKRI & ORS. [CM(M)-1217/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order dismissing the petitioners' application for rent payment during the suit was set aside. The application of Order XV-A of the Code of Civil Procedure is applicable even if the defendant denies the landlord-tenant relationship. The trial court overlooked relevant documents, including a reply admitting tenancy, and previous legal precedents allowing for the direction to deposit reasonable amounts for use and occupation charges despite tenancy disputes. The matter was remanded for reconsideration of the application.

NITIN KATARIA VS VARUN JAIN [CM(M)-1342/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's decision to strike off the petitioner's defense for not filing a written statement within 30 days, as required by the amended Code of Civil Procedure, was upheld. The petitioner did not submit the statement with the necessary affidavit or request for condonation of delay. Arguments regarding a misleading court order were rejected, as the adverse order was issued with the petitioner's proxy counsel present, who did not seek clarification. Previous rulings on strict adherence to deadlines supported the outcome.

NOYAL DATA RAM @ BABU RAM VS BHUSHAN & ORS [CM(M)-838/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's rejection of the petitioner's applications to present additional documents in a civil suit for property partition was upheld. The petitioner failed to provide a valid reason for the delay in submitting the documents, which were absent from the written statement and would introduce a new case not aligned with existing pleadings. It was emphasized that evidence must correspond with the facts already pleaded.

PACKIT SOLUTIONS & ANR. VS GREY ORANGE INDIA PVT LTD [CM(M)-1447/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order striking off the defendants' written statement filed after the deadline was set aside. The delay was justified due to the initial lack of clarity about the suit, which was clarified on 25.10.2021, and the defendants benefited from an extension of the limitation period related to the COVID-19 pandemic. This case is an individual matter.

PANCHAM LAL VS RAKESH KUMAR [CM(M)-223/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Under Order XV-A of the Code of Civil Procedure, a court can require a tenant to deposit rent at a reasonable rate during the pendency of a suit, even if the rent amount is disputed. The assessment of whether the defendant is an unauthorized occupant or a tenant is based on the "preponderance of probabilities." In this case, the defendant was directed to deposit rent of Rs. 6,000 per month from the filing date of the suit, adjusted for any amount already deposited.

PRIMORDIAL SYSTEMS PVT. LTD VS RAMAN KUMAR CHUG & ANR. [CM(M)-1359/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition by Primordial Systems Pvt. Ltd. challenging the trial court's order to partially allow the application to file additional documents was dismissed. The petitioner did not provide a satisfactory explanation for a 21-month delay in contesting the trial court's order, nor for the earlier filing of documents. Reasons such as change of counsel and misplacement of documents were deemed insufficient justifications, leading to the conclusion that there was no basis to interfere with the trial court's discretion.

PUSHPA KHANNA & ANR. VS SANJAY NARANG & ORS [CM(M)-36/2021]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners' request to reopen evidence in an eviction petition was allowed, overturning previous orders that had denied the request. Relevant evidence indicating subletting of premises to a law firm was discovered by the petitioners in 2019. The application to produce this evidence was deemed valid despite prior concerns about subletting in 2016. The petitioners were granted two opportunities to present additional evidence, contingent on payment of costs, and the trial court was instructed to expedite the eviction case.

PUSHPA VS POONAM GUPTA [CM(M)-521/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application for condonation of delay in filing the written statement in a non-commercial suit was granted due to sufficient reasons, including family medical issues, justifying a 5-day delay. The previous order was set aside with the condition that the petitioner pays Rs. 10,000 to the respondent before the next hearing. The distinction between commercial and non-commercial suit procedures was emphasized, noting that the time limit for filing written statements under Order VIII Rule 1 CPC is directory rather than mandatory in non-commercial suits.

RADIUS IMPEX PRIVATE LIMITED VS SPOTLIGHT EVENTS AND ENTERTAINMENT & ANR. [CM(M)-127/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

A party cannot compel the opposing party or its officers to be examined as its own witness, even if the opposing party's defense has been struck off. The petitioner failed to justify summoning the respondent as a witness, lacking knowledge of the relevant document in question. Allowing this would effectively reopen the defense, which is not permissible. The petition was dismissed, affirming the trial court's decision.

RAM KISHAN VS M/S EMAAR MGF CONSTRUCTIONS PVT LTD [CM(M)-197/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner was allowed to submit a Section 65B certificate to support a computerized statement of accounts in a recovery suit. The earlier non-filing of the certificate was considered a curable defect, and dismissing the petitioner's application for it was deemed overly technical. The petitioner is permitted to file the certificate upon payment of costs to the respondent.

RAHUL GUPTA VS ANIL KUMAR [CM(M)-1041/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The time limit for filing a written statement under Order VIII Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is directory rather than mandatory, allowing for discretionary extensions in cases of exceptional hardship. In this case, the petitioner's counsel experienced significant health issues, preventing the timely filing of the written statement. The trial court improperly closed the petitioner's right to file without considering the application for condonation of delay. The trial court's orders were set aside, permitting the petitioner to file the written statement upon payment of costs.

RAJ CHAUDHARY & ANR VS COL RAJINDER SINGH BHASINE & ANR [CM(M)-657/2016]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Amendments sought by the respondents to the plaint were deemed clarificatory and necessary for effective adjudication, focusing on proper identification of the suit property. The principles of allowing amendments under Order VI Rule 17 CPC apply, as they help clarify the real questions in controversy without causing prejudice to the opposing side. The amendments did not alter the nature of the suit or introduce new facts, and the petitioners were already defending the relevant room under a different name. The challenge to the trial court's order permitting the respondents' amendment application was dismissed, with no infirmity found in the order.

RAJ KUMAR NAIR VS UCO BANK [CM(M)-1885/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

A delay of 17 days in filing the written statement was condoned due to the petitioner having valid reasons, including lack of prior knowledge of business transactions between his late father and the respondent bank and the illegibility of provided documents. The previous dismissal of the petitioner's application for condonation of delay was set aside, allowing the written statement to be recorded, contingent upon the petitioner paying Rs. 20,000 to the respondent. The reasons for the delay were not adequately considered previously as required under the Commercial Courts Act.

RAJ KUMAR VS USHA [CM(M)-1918/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The lower court's decision to strike off the petitioner's defense was upheld due to the delayed filing of the written statement beyond the 120-day period under the Commercial Courts Act. The written statement also failed to meet the verification requirements of Order VI Rule 15A of the Code of Civil Procedure. The Commercial Courts Act establishes stricter timelines and procedures than those for non-commercial suits, and the lower court lacked discretion to condone delays exceeding 120 days.

RAJESH DHAMIJA & ORS. VS INDER KUMAR DHAMIJA & ORS. [CM(M)-213/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court dismissed the petitioners' applications under Section 151 CPC and Order XVIII Rule 17 CPC as frivolous, citing dilatory tactics such as changing counsel frequently and failing to file evidence affidavits on time. Nevertheless, the first petitioner received one more opportunity to present defense evidence, contingent upon a payment of Rs. 25,000 to the respondents. The trial court's orders were modified to allow this limited opportunity.

RAJESH WADHAWAN VS SH NAVEEN SABHARWAL [CM(M)-1297/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Defects in the petitioner's written statement, such as lack of affidavit verification and signatures on each page, were considered curable and not fatal. While there was a delay in curing these defects, they were deemed procedural and did not impact the substance of the statement. The order striking off the written statement was set aside, allowing the petitioner to file a rectified statement contingent upon the payment of R.S. 35,000 to the respondent due to the delay. The emphasis was on applying technicalities to promote fairness and uphold the rights of both parties.

RAJNI GUPTA VS SANJAY GUPTA & ANR. [CM(M)-1129/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The respondents' statements in their written submission do not constitute clear and unconditional admissions needed for a judgment under Order XII Rule 6 of the Code of Civil Procedure. They have consistently denied the petitioner's ownership and asserted their own title to the property. Consequently, the petitioner's application was dismissed, and the trial court's order was upheld.

RAMESH CHAND SHARMA THROUGH LR VS BALBIR SINGH MATHUR & ORS. [CM(M)-28/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The suit abated against the deceased petitioner due to failure to file an application to implead legal representatives within the 90-day period. The sole legal heir, Vipin Sharma, was allowed to be impleaded based on an application that referenced the Supreme Court's guidelines extending the limitation period during the COVID-19 pandemic. The application for impleadment of the daughter-in-law, Honey Sharma, was rejected as she did not meet the criteria for a legal representative.

RANBIR SINGH VS PERVESH GAUR @ TINKU & ORS [CM(M)-1341/2018]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The Additional District Judge (ADJ) erred by deciding the appeal without first considering the application for condonation of delay in filing it. The record indicated that the ADJ neglected to address the condonation application before proceeding with the appeal. Consequently, the impugned order was set aside, and the matter was remanded for the ADJ to hear the condonation application and then decide the appeal.

RAVI SETIA & ANR VS SOM NATH SETIA & ORS [CM(M)-726/2018]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners are permitted to cross-examine the plaintiff on documents previously deemed null and void, as an appeal challenging their validity is still pending. The ongoing appeal indicates that the validity of the documents remains a live issue. The trial court will address objections regarding the relevancy and admissibility of these documents during final arguments.

REETA LALWANI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS. [CM(M)-2629/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court issued contradictory orders regarding the acceptance of the written statement from respondent no. 12, initially striking it off for late filing but later allowing it to be recorded despite pending adjudication. The dismissal of the petitioner's review application due to lack of locus standi was deemed unjustified, as the petitioner was contesting orders affecting the proceedings. However, the framing of preliminary issues was upheld. The written statement from respondent no. 12 cannot be included in the record until the pending application under Order IX Rule 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is resolved by the trial court within one month.

RITU KUMAR VS TARUN CHANDER MALIK (ADOPTED) & ANR. [CM(M)-1926/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court incorrectly deleted issues concerning the adoption of the plaintiff by Tara Chand Malik and the nature of the suit property. These issues are essential for resolving the dispute and have been restored. The decision to dismiss the defendant's application for further cross-examination regarding additional documents was upheld, as the relevance of those documents was not established and their admission was deemed unproductive.

ROHIT MANCHANDA & ANR. VS MOHIT MANCHANDA [CM(M)-507/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners' request to send disputed documents to the Central Forensic Science Laboratory for expert evaluation was dismissed. The trial court's decision was upheld on the basis that the petitioners can establish the authenticity of the documents through other means, such as witness testimonies. The burden of proof regarding the validity of the will lies primarily with the respondent, and the petitioners will have ample opportunity to present their case in the ongoing proceedings. No issues were identified in the trial court's reasoning.

SANGEETA BERI VS CHANDER KANT BERI [CM(M)-433/2019]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application for judgment on admission under Order XII Rule 6 of the CPC was deemed not maintainable due to the absence of unequivocal admissions by the respondent. The respondent presented conflicting defenses, claiming ownership through both adverse possession and an oral family settlement, asserting a 50% share in the property. These conflicting claims necessitated a full trial to assess the merits, leading to the dismissal of the petitioner's petition.

SANJAY GOEL VS BKR CAPITAL PVT. LTD & ORS. [CM(M)-2144/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application under Order VI Rule 15A of the Code of Civil Procedure was accepted due to a delay in filing the written statement caused by the previous counsel's negligence. The respondent had no objection to the written statement being recorded. The trial court's order that struck off the written statement was set aside.

SAPAN AHLAWAT & ANR. VS MOHAN CLOTHING COMPNAY PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-146/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners' application to produce additional documents (email correspondences) was dismissed due to failure to mention them in their written statement or to rely on them earlier, which prejudiced the respondent. The Commercial Courts Act, 2015 requires strict adherence to timelines for filing documents, and additional documents can only be submitted with the court's permission. Introducing new documents without proper pleadings contradicts principles of the Civil Procedure Code.

SARA ABODE PRIVATE LIMITED VS NATH BROTHERS EXIM INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [CM(M)-1916/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's right to file a written statement in a commercial suit was closed due to failure to do so within the 120-day limit post-service of summons, as required by the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. Exclusion of mediation time did not change this. The petitioner provided no valid reasons for the delay, and negligence did not justify extending the statutory time limit. The petition was dismissed, upholding the Trial Court's orders.

SAVITRI GOEL & ANR. VS PARVESH ARORA [CM(M)-2187/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Petitioners were allowed to file written statements despite a 125-day delay due to exceptional personal circumstances, including health issues and family tragedies. The time limit for filing under Order VIII Rule 1 is considered directory rather than mandatory, and discretion exists to condone delays in the interest of justice as per Section 5 of the Limitation Act. Petitioners must pay R.S. 5,000 each to the respondent as a cost.

SH NEERAJ AHUJA VS AIPL ZORRO PVT LTD [CM(M)-2535/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order removing the petitioner's written statement was set aside due to a failure to consider relevant provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, which permits filing within 120 days of summons. The trial court's approach was deemed casual, leading to a directive for it to reconsider the inclusion of the written statement in the record, allowing both parties a chance to be heard, and to resolve the matter within four weeks.

SH. ANOOP KUMAR VS SH.YOGESH & ANR. [CM(M)-10/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order allowing the respondent to summon two additional witnesses was set aside due to the trial court's oversight of earlier directions regarding the cross-examination of only two specified witnesses.

SH. BAL KRISHAN SHARMA VS SMT. KANTA KUMARI SHARMA AND ORS [CM(M)-2093/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to introduce additional documentary evidence at a late stage in a civil suit was dismissed. The petitioner failed to justify the delay in submitting documents that were in his possession when the suit was filed. The discretion to allow late evidence must be exercised sparingly, and insufficient grounds were shown to warrant such an allowance. The trial court's decision to reject the application was upheld.

SH. SAT NARAIN AND ANR VS NALANDA MODERN PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS [CM(M)-1485/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's order allowing the installation of an iron gate in the common gali was set aside. The status quo order remained in effect with modifications, and the reasons provided by the respondents for installing the gate lacked sufficient support. Permission for the respondents to level and fill holes in the gali was not contested by the petitioners and was allowed. The petition was disposed of.

SHACHI HATA INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS GKW RETAIL SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED [CM(M)-347/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner was granted one opportunity to cross-examine the plaintiff's witness (PW2) and to present the complete defense evidence, contingent upon a payment of ₹15,000 to the respondent. The case faced delays due to the non-furnishing of evidence affidavits and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on court operations. Limited opportunities were allowed to ensure the trial proceedings could be completed without further delays.

SHRI SALEKH CHAND YADAV VS SHRI AMIT SETHI [CM(M)-77/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to examine additional official witnesses to prove forgery of property documents was rejected. The relevance of the documents was deemed unnecessary for the suit for possession under Section 6 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963, as the primary issue was the unauthorized dispossession of the petitioner. The trial court's order was upheld.

SHRI RAJAT DHINGRA VS SMT EMANSHI GULATI MARWAHA [FAO-128/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The appeal resulted in the reversal of a trial court's dismissal of a temporary injunction application, which sought to prevent the sale or creation of third-party interests in the suit property. The trial court's approach was criticized for lacking thorough consideration of the competing claims and circumstances. The matter is to be reconsidered by the trial court, which is instructed to address the injunction application and issue a new order within two weeks.

SHYAMWATI DEVI & ANR. VS ASHWANI SAIN & ORS. [CM(M)-1151/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioners' application for judgment on admission was set aside due to insufficient reasoning. The matter was remanded for reconsideration on the merits, with a directive to dispose of the application within four weeks after allowing both parties to present their arguments.

SMT. PUSHPA DEVI & ANR. VS SH. PAWAN SEHRAWAT @ FOJI & ORS. [CM(M)-664/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The civil miscellaneous petition filed by Smt. Pushpa Devi and another was dismissed, challenging the trial court's order allowing Sh. Pawan Sehrawat and others to present their defense evidence. Despite the respondents' previous negligence in filing evidence, the trial court's discretion to grant an additional opportunity was upheld, contingent upon payment of costs. It was emphasized that caution is necessary when exercising this discretion to maintain the purpose of CPC amendments aimed at expediting trials. The respondents were directed to complete their evidence on a single date set by the trial court, with no further opportunities granted.

SMT. SNEH GUPTA & ANR. VS SMT. VERSHA RANI & ANR. [CM(M)-1152/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioners' application for a separate water connection was incorrect. The issue of the water connection was linked to the main suit for partition and possession, warranting consideration of previous orders and the Local Commissioner's report. The matter was remanded for reconsideration, allowing parties to be heard and taking into account the relevant prior orders and report.

SMT. SUDESH ANIL VS SHRI ANIL ARORA & ORS. [CM(M)-731/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to amend the plaint was allowed, as the proposed amendments did not alter the original cause of action or change the nature of the suit. The amendments were deemed necessary to address the real question in controversy and to prevent multiplicity of proceedings, given the early stage of the suit. They aimed to challenge the validity of a relinquishment deed and rectify technical defects. Allowing the amendments would not cause injustice to the respondents. The orders rejecting the amendment application were set aside.

STATE BANK OF INDIA VS RAMESH KUMAR NAROOLA & ORS. [CM(M)-426/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Before assessing whether the State Bank of India is a necessary or proper party in the suit filed by Ramesh Kumar Naroola, the trial court must consider the contract and documents related to the issuance of the credit card. The matter is to be reconsidered under relevant procedural rules, allowing both parties to present new arguments.

SUBEY SINGH VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [CM(M)-2111/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner could not establish settled possession of the property for 50 years necessary for an interim injunction. Provided documents, including Aadhaar and ration cards, indicated only recent possession. There were no errors in the findings of the lower courts, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

SUDHIR POWER PROJECT LTD. VS PRIME MEIDEN PVT. LTD. [CM(M)-1376/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioner's application to include a letter from HSIIDC regarding liquidated damages, dated 08.07.2022, was approved for inclusion as the delay was justified and the other party was not seriously prejudiced. However, the request to file an affidavit of admission/denial was denied since the case was already at the evidence recording stage, making it unnecessary. The petition was disposed of with the letter from HSIIDC allowed on record.

SUNIL GULATI VS NASEEM AHMED & ANR. [CM(M)-2107/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Sunil Gulati cannot be included as a party in the eviction petition between the landlord and tenant. A third person claiming ownership of the property cannot intervene in such cases under the Delhi Rent Control Act. The established principle allows one co-owner to file an eviction suit on behalf of all co-owners. The application for impleadment was dismissed due to these grounds.

SUNITA KOHLI AND ANR VS KULDEEP SINGH SEJWAL [CM(M)-2718/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The order closing the evidence of the petitioners in a civil suit was set aside due to insufficient diligence in leading their evidence. The petitioners were granted one final opportunity to file their witness's affidavit and present the witness for cross-examination, contingent upon paying Rs. 25,000 in costs to the respondent. Failure to produce the witness on the next hearing date would result in the closure of their right to lead evidence without further recourse.

SURENDER KUMAR VS ANITA CHHABRA & ORS. [CM(M)-2077/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's closure of the petitioner's right to cross-examine a witness was unjustified, as cross-examination is a significant right that requires valid reasons for restriction. This order was set aside. However, the additional documents submitted by the respondents were permitted to remain on record, as they were filed with an amendment application that had been previously allowed. The respondents can rely on these documents, subject to admissibility and relevance.

SURESH KUMAR AND ORS VS KRISHAN KANHAYA [CM(M)-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners are permitted to file their rejoinders, rejoinder affidavits, and documents due to not being given a fair opportunity, with one case having only one month for submission and the other receiving no opportunity. The relevance and merits of the submissions will be assessed by the Additional Rent Controller when deciding on the leave to defend application. The previous orders dismissing the petitioners' applications have been set aside, allowing the petitions.

SURINDER SOOD VS RAJINDER SINGH & ORS. [CM(M)-1974/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application for document production was upheld. The respondents bear the burden of proof for their claim of Rs. 77,07,654/-. The petitioner retains the right to cross-examine the respondents and summon relevant records during evidence presentation. The reasoning of the trial court was found correct, with no identified issues in the order.

SWAPNIL AERON VS JAGMOHAN SAPRA [CM(M)-1764/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The principle of estoppel under Section 116 of the Indian Evidence Act prevents the tenant from challenging the landlord's ownership after surrendering possession of the premises. The order dismissing the tenant's application to summon title documents is valid, as questioning the landlord's title is not permissible during the tenancy when arrears of rent are being claimed. The petition was dismissed.

UNION OF INDIA VS M/S JAY SHREE METALS AND ENGG. CO. [CM(M)-2414/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition filed by the Union of India challenging an arbitration award in favor of M/s Jay Shree Metals and Engg. Co. was dismissed due to the Union's non-appearance in the District Court. Subsequently, an application for restoration of the dismissed petition and a request to condone the delay in filing the restoration were submitted. There was no sufficient cause found to condone the delay, leading to the dismissal of the restoration application.

USHA RANI (DECEASED) THR LRS VS KANTA & ORS [CM(M)-144/2020]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petitioners' application under Order XXII Rule 3 CPC was treated as a request to set aside the abatement of the suit, despite its belated filing. A principle from the Supreme Court was applied, allowing a prayer for substitution of legal heirs to be considered a request to set aside the abatement. The trial court's dismissal of the petitioners' applications was characterized as cryptic and insufficiently attentive to the reasons for the delay. Consequently, the trial court's order was set aside, the application for substitution of legal heirs was allowed, and the trial court was directed to proceed with the case.

VIJAY KUMAR GUPTA VS MOHIT MALIK [CM(M)-153/2024]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

A suit for recovery of money can be filed in the District Court where part of the cause of action has arisen. The plaintiff's office and the defendant's payment to the plaintiff's bank account were both within the jurisdiction of the District Court.

VIJAY KUMAR VS KAUSHALYA DEVI & ANR. [FAO-175/2022]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

Vijay Kumar's appeal against the trial court's dismissal of his suit for partition and permanent injunction was allowed. He was unable to appear in court due to a left leg fracture, as supported by medical documents. His prior counsel had indicated that his appearance was not necessary. The application under Order IX Rule 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure was accepted, requiring payment of Rs. 30,000 as costs to the respondents, and both parties were directed to appear before the trial court on the next hearing date.

VIJENDER SINGH VS STATE & ORS [FAO-523/2018]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The appellant established the valid execution of the will dated April 4, 2007 by Smt. Lado, qualifying for probate. The identified circumstances deemed "suspicious" did not create real doubts about the will's execution. The appellant proved the testamentary capacity and signature of the testator. The dismissal of the probate petition was set aside, and the appellant must pay the requisite stamp duty and file an administration bond to obtain the probate.

VIJENDER SINGH VS STATE & ORS [FAO-523/2018]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The review petition filed by the original respondent no. 3 was dismissed due to failure to show sufficient cause for condoning a 60-day delay. The reasons provided were not genuine, and the applicant concealed material facts regarding previous dismissals of a Letters Patent Appeal and Special Leave Petition. The attempt to re-argue the merits of the case was not permitted under Section 114 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Consequently, the review petition and pending applications were dismissed.

YASHODA ORGANIC FOODS PVT LTD VS BHARAT BHUSHAN GERA [CM(M)-26/2023]

Judges: Justice Shalinder Kaur

The petition filed by the defendant against the trial court's order to strike off their list of witnesses was allowed. The defendant's list was submitted before the scheduled date for evidence, despite delays in compliance with the trial court's directions. The list was permitted on record with a payment of Rs. 20,000 to the respondent. The defendant was limited to one opportunity to examine their witnesses on a date set by the trial court, with no further adjournments permitted.

A R SALES PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3121/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The notification issued by the DGFT to regulate the export of certain aircraft parts from the petitioner company was quashed. The aircraft parts, including engines, were classified as civil and had the necessary type certification from the DGCA. These products did not fall under the restrictions of the SCOMET list or the Catch-All provisions, allowing for the export of the consignments.

AAM AADMI PARTY VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15929/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner, a recognized national political party, is entitled to a housing unit from the General Pool Residential Accommodation (GPRA) for use as a temporary office for three years, according to existing guidelines. A request for this allotment must be considered, and detailed reasons provided if the allotment is denied, especially given that other political parties have received similar accommodations. The shortage of GPRA units and the petitioner's previous rejection of land offers for a permanent office do not negate this entitlement.

ABHISHEK KHAN @ MONU VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT, DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2381/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Abhishek Khan, charged with luring and sexually exploiting a minor, was dismissed. There is prima facie evidence against him, the offense carries a potential life sentence, and there is a risk of him absconding if released. The presumption under Section 29 of the POCSO Act places the burden of proving innocence on the accused. Therefore, bail was denied at this stage of the proceedings.

ABRAR@BALE VS STATE THROUGH CRIME BRANCH SHO [BAIL APPLN.-1572/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Bail was denied to the petitioner under Section 37 of the NDPS Act due to call detail records indicating constant contact with the main accused, along with reasonable grounds to believe in the petitioner's guilt. Previous criminal antecedents and the risk of reoffending or fleeing from justice were also significant factors in the decision.

ADITYA BIRLA FINANCE LIMITED VS SHOMUK ENGINEERING AND CONSULTANCY SERVICES AND ORS [ARB.P.-325/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The respondents failed to fully comply with the settlement agreement, leading to the appointment of Mr. Davinder Singh as the sole arbitrator to resolve disputes according to the arbitration clauses in the loan agreements. Interim orders will remain effective until the arbitrator makes a decision under Section 17 of the Arbitration Act.

AJAY KUMAR MAHAWAR & ORS. VS LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI, THROUGH SECRETARY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2482/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The indefinite suspension of petitioner members of the Legislative Assembly of the National Capital Territory of Delhi is unsustainable. The suspension exceeded the periods set by the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business. The decision to refer the matter to the Committee of Privileges lacked independent consideration from the Speaker as required by the rules. The members have already served the maximum allowed suspension of 14 sittings and should be allowed to re-join the House immediately.

AJAY KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-1557/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition to quash the FIR and criminal proceedings was dismissed due to serious allegations in the forensic audit report regarding misuse of funds and diversion of homebuyers' money for personal benefit. The ongoing consideration of the forensic report's correctness prevents quashing the proceedings at this stage.

AJAY KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15373/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's request for a gag order against two media houses to conceal his identity and a direction to the Union of India for compliance with Supreme Court guidelines was dismissed. Insufficient details regarding potential prejudice to other proceedings made it challenging to assess the necessity of a gag order to protect trial fairness.

AJAY TYAGI VS ANHEUSER BUSCH INBEV INDIA LTD [CRL.REV.P.(NI)-20/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The appellate court's order suspending the petitioner's sentence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, was upheld, contingent upon the petitioner depositing 20% of the total fine amount. The petitioner did not provide sufficient evidence to support claims of financial distress and inability to make the required deposit. Exceptional circumstances for waiving the 20% deposit requirement were not established.

AJAY TYAGI VS ANHEUSER BUSCH INBEV INDIA LTD. [CRL.REV.P.(NI)-21/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The appellate court's decision to suspend the petitioner's sentence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld, requiring the petitioner to deposit 20% of the fine amount. The petitioner did not provide sufficient evidence for claims of financial distress and inability to meet the 20% deposit requirement under Section 148. An exception to the deposit condition can only be made if it would be unjust or impede the right to appeal, which was not applicable in this case.

AKBAL ANSARI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1738/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Akbal Ansari was granted bail in a murder case where his arrest was based on a co-accused's disclosure and call detail records. The co-accused was identified as the actual contract killer, and their shared village could explain their communications. Concerns about evidence tampering were mitigated since only official witnesses remained to be examined. Bail was granted with conditions that included providing security, arranging accommodation in Delhi, sharing mobile numbers with the investigating officer, and regular police reporting.

AKSHAR REDDY VANGA AND ANR. REPRESENTED BY SUBBA REDDY VANGA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7703/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioners, born in the USA to an Indian citizen father and a US citizen mother, are entitled to Indian citizenship and passports under Section 4(1)(b) of the Citizenship Act, 1955. The Citizenship Act takes precedence over conflicting provisions in the Passport Manual, resulting in the directive to issue fresh Indian passports to the petitioners.

AL IRSHAD HAJ GROUP (AL IRSHAD TOURS AND TRAVELS) VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-15645/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The experience of the former sole proprietor of a Haj tour firm is not transferable to the new proprietor after the original proprietor's death, as a sole proprietorship is not a separate legal entity and ceases to exist with the proprietor's death. A clarification regarding the necessity of a Munazzam Card for the firm's proprietor/director/partner aligns with the provisions of the 2019-23 Haj policy and is not an additional requirement.

AL ISLAM TOUR CORPORATION VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5033/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by Al Islam Tour Corporation was dismissed, challenging an order that forfeited its security deposit and imposed a 10-year blacklist on Haj operations. The petitioner was not registered as a Haj Group Organizer in 2018 and had previously been accused of defrauding a pilgrim of Rs. 13 lakhs in 2013. The forfeiture and blacklisting were deemed justified to protect pilgrims, and arguments regarding the closure of a criminal case and claims of disproportionate punishment were rejected. Administrative action based on preponderance of probabilities was accepted, and the punishment was upheld.

ANGEL GUPTA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2758/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of the petitioner, accused of conspiring to murder the wife of her lover, was dismissed. The seriousness of the offense, the risk of the petitioner fleeing, and the necessity for an expedited trial within five months were cited as reasons for the denial of bail. Observations made did not address the merits of the case.

ALLAH NOOR VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREU [BAIL APPLN.-1377/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Allah Noor, charged under the NDPS Act for involvement in a drug trafficking syndicate, was dismissed due to substantial evidence against him, including the recovery of large quantities of heroin and cocaine, statements from co-accused, and digital evidence. The organized nature of the trafficking operations suggested a high risk of reoffending if released. Discrepancies in the seal movement register were not deemed sufficient to challenge the prosecution's case. There were insufficient grounds to believe the accused was not guilty under Section 37 of the NDPS Act.

AMARJEET SINGH CHATHA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6197/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition by Amarjeet Singh Chatha to quash the order rejecting his application for criminal action against the respondent was dismissed. An application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. is not a sworn statement; it only presents facts to request an FIR. The respondent's statements are not considered false at this stage. Additionally, Section 195(1)(b)(ii) Cr.P.C. applies to offenses related to documents produced in court, and since no cognizance has been taken, proceedings under Section 340 Cr.P.C. are not justified at this point.

AMIT CHANDI VS AARTI CHANDI @ AARTI KHANNA [CRL.M.C.-6157/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Amit Chandi was required to pay Rs. 30,000 per month in maintenance to his wife, Aarti Chandi, under Section 125 of the Criminal Procedure Code and the Domestic Violence Act. His cohabitation with another woman and having a child with her constituted domestic violence against Aarti. The maintenance amount was deemed reasonable based on Amit's financial status and lifestyle, and Aarti's earning ability did not negate his obligation to maintain her.

AMIT MISHRA VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-872/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Amit Mishra was granted bail after being charged under IPC Sections 498A, 304B, and 34 related to his wife Kiran's suicide. The investigation is complete and a charge-sheet has been filed. The petitioner has community ties and is unlikely to flee or intimidate witnesses. Despite the serious charges, continued detention was deemed unnecessary. Bail conditions include providing security, not leaving Delhi without permission, and avoiding evidence tampering or contact with the deceased's family.

AMRIT BALA SHARMA & ANR. VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10161/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by co-owners of a property rented to the Delhi Police for a police station was dismissed due to the failure to establish a case for rent enhancement set by the Rent Fixation Committee of GNCTD. There was no evidence of any promise from the state government for higher rent, negating claims of promissory estoppel and legitimate expectation. The proper recourse would have been a suit for recovery of higher rent, which was not pursued within the limitation period.

ANGELINA HRANG THAN SANGI VS DIRECTORATE OF REVENUE INTELLIGENCE [BAIL APPLN.-373/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Angelina Hrang Than San was dismissed due to evidence suggesting her involvement in offenses under the NDPS Act. Evidence included her statement, an email authorizing her to receive a parcel, and links to other accused individuals, indicating her participation in a drug smuggling syndicate. Concerns about the likelihood of her reoffending led to the conclusion that she posed a continued risk, resulting in the denial of bail.

ANIL GOEL VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14836/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular issued against the petitioner by the Bank of Baroda was found unsustainable due to the absence of any pending criminal proceedings. Guidelines from the Ministry of Home Affairs state that issuance is valid only in cases harmful to India's economic interests. In this instance, inability to repay a bank loan does not justify a Lookout Circular or restrict the right to travel abroad. Consequently, the Lookout Circular was quashed.

ANIL SHANDILYA VS STATE G.N.C.T OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-5501/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Petitions by Shantanu Shandilya and Anil Shandilya challenging the order framing charges under various sections of the Indian Penal Code were dismissed. At the charge framing stage, only a prima facie case needs to be established, without detailed examination of the merits or defense arguments. The materials, including the complainant's statements and Anil Shandilya's background of civil suits, indicated a prima facie case against the petitioners. The alibi presented by Shantanu Shandilya was deemed to be addressed at the trial stage. Thus, the petitions against charge framing were dismissed.

ANIL VS CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12548/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Central Information Commission's decision not to impose a penalty on the public information officer for the delay in providing requested information under the RTI Act was upheld. Although there was a delay, it was not deemed malafide or deliberate. The imposition of a penalty is not automatic with delay, as compensation is based on monetary loss suffered due to the delayed appointment, which was not directly linked to the information delay in this case.

ANITA VS DR. SANDEEP SHARMA [CRL.M.C.-2540/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The issue of whether the underlying debt is time-barred or legally enforceable is a matter of evidence to be decided during the trial, not at the summons stage under Section 482 CrPC. Questions related to this cannot be adjudicated at the initial stage. The order summoning the petitioner stands, and the trial court is directed to proceed with the complaint in accordance with the law, without any opinion on the merits of the case.

ANJU KHANNA & ORS. VS STATE(GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2988/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act cannot be quashed against working partners of a firm due to satisfying the requirements of Section 141 for vicarious liability. The complaint against a sleeping partner was quashed as there were no specific allegations against her. The distinction was made between the liability of partners in a firm and directors of a company, relying on the Partnership Act to establish that being a partner indicates responsibility for the firm's business conduct.

ANTARES SYSTEMS LTD. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14027/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The actions of the Delhi Development Authority in conducting e-auctions through the e-Wizard portal of M/s Unibrain violate the agreement from 06.08.2020 with ITI Limited. The bid by ITI Limited was based on software developed by Antares Systems Ltd., making the replacement of Antares with a third party a material alteration of the contract, which is not permissible. Consequently, the petition filed by Antares Systems Ltd. was upheld.

ARMY WELFARE HOUSING ORGANISATION VS HALKO INFRAPROJECTS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2354/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Delhi High Court does not have jurisdiction to entertain the writ petition filed by the Army Welfare Housing Organisation (AWHO) against the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council (MSEFC) in Mumbai, which referred the dispute with Halko Infraprojects to arbitration under the MSMED Act. The MSEFC's location and the origin of the dispute outside Delhi mandate that only Mumbai courts can adjudicate this matter, leading to a lack of territorial jurisdiction for the Delhi High Court.

ARSHDEEP SINGH AND ANR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-11853/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition was allowed, establishing that the forums under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 lack jurisdiction over the eviction petition. The petitioners, as Class-II legal heirs of one original property owner, have no legal obligation to maintain the respondent, who is the other original owner, since his children have that responsibility. The order of the Appellate Authority was set aside, and the parties were directed to reside peacefully in the property until the partition suit's final outcome.

ARUN MALIK VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3021/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Arun Malik was denied bail in connection with allegations of repeatedly sexually assaulting and raping a 14-year-old girl living in the same building. The severity of the offenses under the Indian Penal Code and the POCSO Act indicated a high risk of evidence tampering and witness influence if released. The emphasis on protecting children from sexual exploitation and prioritizing the victim's well-being contributed to the denial of bail.

ARUNA KASERA VS GOVT NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-13930/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The respondent must file the sale certificate dated 13.05.2019 for the property in Book No.-I, as required by Section 89(4) of the Registration Act, 1908. The authorized officer under the SARFAESI Act is obligated to provide a validated sale certificate to the auction-purchaser and ensure a copy is sent to the registering authorities for filing. Arguments citing previous High Court judgments were dismissed as they are impliedly overruled by Supreme Court decisions.

ASHA CHHATWAL VS SURENDRA KOHLI AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-137/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner, as a partner in the firm, is liable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. Partners are responsible for the firm's conduct and are jointly and severally liable for its actions, with implied authority to bind the firm. The argument of being a sleeping partner was rejected due to lack of compelling evidence. The complaint against the petitioner remains unresolved regarding the legal notice service.

ASHOK KINRA VS CENTRAL COTTAGE INDUSTRIES CORPORATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1732/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner is entitled to a full reimbursement of Rs. 3,57,158 for his wife's cancer treatment, despite the treatment not being at an empanelled hospital. It was deemed inequitable for the respondent public sector undertaking to pay the full amount to another employee while denying the same to the petitioner, who had received the entire amount from the insurance company. The respondent is to pay the petitioner the remaining amount of Rs. 2,54,946 within six weeks.

ASHOK KUMAR SHIVPURI VS ASHOK B CHAJJAR, CMD, ARIHANT ENTERPRISES [W.P.(C)-15378/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The enhancement of compensation from Rs. 25,000 to Rs. 3,00,000 by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) is not open to interference under Article 227. Lower consumer forums identified only minor deficiencies in the flat, and the inspection report confirmed no major issues. The NCDRC increased compensation due to discrepancies between promised amenities and the actual flat delivered. The principles of limited judicial review prevent a detailed re-evaluation of evidence and compensation calculations. The 12-fold increase in compensation is deemed sufficient to serve justice, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition, with no indication of patent perversity or gross failure of justice present.

ASHOK KUMAR VERMA VS ARVIND KUMAR SHARMA [W.P.(C)-2874/2015]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Central Information Commission (CIC) imposed a penalty of Rs. 25,000 on the Central Public Information Officer for failing to provide requested information under the Right to Information (RTI) Act. The respondent sought information about non-compliance with an arbitration award and alleged corruption in a cooperative housing society. The petitioner only provided a copy of the arbitration award, which did not fulfill the information request. The petitioner ignored the direction from the First Appellate Authority to provide the information.

BALRAM GARG VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6739/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The issuance of a lookout circular against Balram Garg, Managing Director of PC Jewellers Limited, was declared invalid. The legal framework governing lookout circulars was examined, revealing that inability to repay bank loans does not justify restricting a person's fundamental right to travel abroad without exceptional circumstances affecting the country's economic interests. A one-time settlement had been reached, and no criminal proceedings existed against Garg, leading to the quashing of the lookout circular requested by the State Bank of India.

BHARAT PETROLEUM CORPORATION LIMITED VS RELIANCE INDUSTRIES LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15976/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The decision to allow Reliance Industries Limited (RIL) to be involved in appeals from Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited (BPCL) and Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited (HPCL) regarding the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board's classification of the ATF pipeline as a common carrier was upheld. RIL was identified as a necessary party due to its role in initiating the common carrier declaration and its potential grounds for appeal under the PNGRB Act. The involvement of RIL was considered justified in light of the public interest and the objective of promoting competitive markets, leading to the dismissal of BPCL and HPCL's writ petitions.

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Respondent No. 2 obtained a forged permission letter from the Deputy Conservator of Forests to cut down a tree, violating a previous order. This action constituted willful disobedience of court orders. No determination was made regarding whether the respondent personally forged the documents to avoid impacting the defense in an ongoing criminal case. Consideration of punishment under the Contempt of Courts Act is pending.

BINOD AGARWAL VS THE CPIO AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2789/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition was improperly filed as it should have been submitted to the Bombay High Court, where the SEEPZ-SEZ office and relevant authorities are located. Attendance records of consultants and officers above a certain pay grade are classified as personal information under Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act, requiring proof of larger public interest for disclosure. The CPIO correctly denied access to this information as some consultants objected under Section 11 of the RTI Act. The order of the CIC supporting the CPIO's decision remained unchallenged.

BRIJ BALA KAPUR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT SURAT SUB ZONAL UNIT [W.P.(C)-14448/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Petitioner cannot bypass the statutory remedies of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (PMLA) by filing a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution. The PMLA includes mechanisms for grievance redressal, such as appeals to the Adjudicating Authority and Appellate Tribunal. The Adjudicating Authority can assess whether the properties in question are proceeds of crime. The writ petition was dismissed, requiring the Petitioner to pursue remedies under the PMLA.

CA RAKESH KUMAR GUPTA VS SUPREME COURT OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY GENERAL [W.P.(C)-5017/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by CA Rakesh Kumar Gupta seeking details on the Supreme Court Collegium's process for recommending High Court judges was dismissed. The petition was considered a "Publicity Interest Litigation" lacking valid personal interest. There is no authority to appeal the subjective satisfaction of the Supreme Court Collegium regarding judicial appointments, as the Constitution specifies the necessary qualifications and considerations. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the petitioner to be deposited with the Armed Forces Battle Casualties Welfare Fund.

CAPT (RETD) KULDEEP SINGH SOLANKI VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9513/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular against the Petitioner by the Bureau of Immigration at the request of the State Bank of India was quashed due to the absence of any pending criminal proceedings. The inability to repay bank loans does not justify restricting a citizen's fundamental right to travel abroad. A similar judgment from the Bombay High Court also influenced this decision, leading to the cancellation of the Lookout Circular.

CENTRAL PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER (CPIO) CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION VS SANJEEV CHATURVEDI [W.P.(C)-2833/2020]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Central Information Commission's decision was upheld, allowing access to requested information about corruption allegations at AIIMS. The proviso to Section 24 of the RTI Act permits disclosure of such information for organizations listed in the Second Schedule, including the CBI. The information sought was not deemed sensitive or threatening to investigations, necessitating compliance by the CBI under the RTI Act.

COLOPLAST INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-6292/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Surgical bandages and dressings are classified as 'drugs' under the Drug Price Control Order, 2013, in line with the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940. The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare and the CDSCO have recognized surgical dressings as regulated products. A petition challenging the jurisdiction of the NPPA regarding a notice for alleged violations of the DPCO was dismissed.

COREIP TECHNOLOGY PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5566/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The government's order debarring the Petitioner company from participating in procurement processes for 2 years was upheld due to false declarations of local content in its products. An expert committee confirmed that the local content was below the minimum thresholds set by DPIIT and DoT notifications. The decision-making process was considered just, fair, and reasonable.

CPIO/DY. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX HQ EXEMPTION, NEW DELHI VS GIRISH MITTAL [W.P.(C)-10193/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Income Tax Act, being a special statute, prevails over the Right to Information Act. Information relating to an assessee under the Income Tax Act can only be disclosed with approval from designated authorities under Section 138 of that Act. The Central Information Commission failed to adhere to Section 11 of the Right to Information Act, which requires hearing the third party, specifically the PM CARES Fund, before disclosing related information. The order of the Central Information Commission was set aside, and the writ petition by the Income Tax Department was allowed.

CRPL INFRA PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS MINISTRY OF FOOD PROCESSING INDUSTRIES [W.P.(C)-4879/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The rejection of the petitioner's claim for subsidy under the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Sampada Yojana was valid, as the expenditure incurred before submitting the expression of interest did not comply with the scheme guidelines. The decision-making process was rational and reasonable, and principles of legitimate expectation and limited judicial review in administrative decisions supported the respondent's position.

CURRYMIA FOODS LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3290/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Currymia Foods Ltd., which took over the business of Ahmednagar District Goat Rearing and Processing Cooperative Federation, is not automatically included in the list of approved contractors for supplying meat to the armed forces due to the predecessor's failure to notify authorities about the change in status. As an independent entity, Currymia Foods must apply afresh for contractor registration and cannot claim to be a continuation of its predecessor. The company's writ petition was dismissed, but it was instructed that its application be considered based on its own merits within three weeks.

DEBARATI NANDEE VS MS. TRIPTI GURHA & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-563/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The retrospective application of the Adoption Regulations, 2022 to pending applications of registered prospective adoptive parents (PAPs) is upheld. The change in eligibility criteria, which prevents PAPs with two or more children from adopting a normal child, does not infringe on any vested rights. Registration and the process until child referral are not guaranteed rights, allowing for prospective changes in eligibility criteria. The rationale behind the regulations is to facilitate quicker placements for children, particularly those with special needs. Writ petitions challenging this application are dismissed.

DELL INTERNATIONAL SERVICES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS ADEEL FEROZE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4733/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The orders of the District Consumer Dispute Redressal Commission and State Consumer Dispute Redressal Commission refusing to condone the delay in filing the written statement were upheld. The screenshot of WhatsApp conversations submitted as evidence was not considered valid due to lack of proper certification under the Evidence Act.

DEEPAK SINHA VS MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11217/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by a qualified electro-homeopath for the analysis of Krauss and Zimpel formulations, part of the German Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia, was dismissed. The recognition of alternative systems of medicine like electro-homeopathy is a matter of policy, and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia Laboratory is only mandated to analyze drugs as defined by the Drugs and Cosmetics Act. Since electro-homeopathy is not recognized as a form of medicine, the laboratory is not obligated to analyze its formulations.

DELHI GYMNASTICS ASSOCIATION VS GYMNASTICS FEDERATION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-17756/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The expulsion of the Delhi Gymnastics Association (DGA) from the Gymnastics Federation of India (GFI) was deemed valid due to a fair and transparent decision-making process. The appointment of the Disciplinary Committee was valid under both the un-amended and amended constitutions of the GFI, and the amendment did not necessitate reconstitution of the existing committee. The DGA was given opportunities to present its case and the rules allowed for an appellate remedy, which the DGA declined. The writ petition filed by the DGA was dismissed.

DR ARUN KUMAR SONI VS MEDICAL COUNCIL OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6489/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's request for conditional permanent registration to practice as a doctor was dismissed due to accusations of serious impersonation related to the Foreign Medical Graduate Examination (FMGE). It was established that registration as a medical practitioner cannot occur until the petitioner is acquitted in the criminal case, leaving the legitimacy of the FMGE results in question. The petitioner can retake the examination if he seeks registration as a medical practitioner.

DR. TARUN KOTHARI VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI, THROUGH CHIEF SECRETARY & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2907/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The FIR against Dr. Tarun Kothari for making statements against wearing masks, social distancing, and COVID-19 vaccination during the pandemic is valid. Although Section 195 CrPC requires a written complaint from a public servant for offenses under Sections 172-188 IPC, it does not prevent police from investigating cognizable offenses under the CrPC. The police are directed to file a complaint against him for offenses under Section 269 IPC and Section 3 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897.

EAGLE HUNTER SOLUTIONS LTD VS GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY & ANR [W.P.(C)-1194/2020]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The review petition filed by Eagle Hunter Solutions Ltd. was dismissed. The prior judgment had partly allowed the writ petition, directing a refund of the earnest money deposit for the 2018-19 tender, but upheld the forfeiture of the bank guarantee for the 2019-20 tender. The petitioner did not demonstrate any clear error in the previous decision, and the review petition was seen as an attempt to re-argue the case rather than presenting valid grounds for a review.

EHTESHAM QUTUBUDDIN SIDDIQUE VS CPIO, INTELLIGENCE BUREAU [W.P.(C)-930/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition challenging the order of the Central Information Commission was dismissed. The petitioner's claim regarding an Intelligence Bureau report on the false implication of an accused in a bomb blast case relied on a newspaper article, deemed hearsay. The Intelligence Bureau affirmed that no such report was submitted to the Ministry of Home Affairs in 2009. The CIC's decision was upheld, showing no reason to disbelieve the affidavit provided by the Respondent.

EHTESHAM QUTUBUDDIN SIDDIQUE VS CPIO, MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS [W.P.(C)-12933/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Central Information Commission's decision to deny the petitioner's request for information regarding UPSC forms related to IPS and IAS officers was upheld. The information was deemed personal and its disclosure could jeopardize the officers' safety due to the petitioner's serious terror conviction. The right to privacy of the officers was prioritized over the petitioner's interest, leading to the dismissal of the writ petitions and affirmation of the exemption under Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act.

ELOCHUKWU COLLINS VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1434/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Elochukwu Collins' bail application was dismissed due to charges under the NDPS Act for possession of 270 grams of heroin, classified as a commercial quantity. The police met the requirements of Section 42 of the NDPS Act despite some procedural deviations. The strict bail requirements under Section 37 were applicable, and concerns about Collins being a flight risk and the likelihood of reoffending influenced the decision. No reasonable grounds existed to believe Collins was not guilty of the alleged offenses.

ERROL RAJESH DYSELL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4039/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Respondent University, a deemed private university, is not classified as a "public authority" under Section 2(h) of the RTI Act due to insufficient evidence of government financing or control. Furthermore, the requested information concerning students' personal details is exempt from disclosure under Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act, as it would invade their privacy without demonstrating a larger public interest. The writ petition was dismissed, upholding the denial of information by the Central Information Commission.

G L SHARMA VS CPIO, NATIONAL THERMAL POWER CORPORATION LTD, NEW DELHI [W.P.(C)-7380/2020]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's request for detailed information about executives who received benefits from the Voluntary Retirement Scheme (VRS) at NTPC between 2000-2005 was dismissed due to the vagueness and personal nature of the information sought. The information was deemed to not serve public interest and posed an unwarranted invasion of privacy under Section 8(1)(j) of the Right to Information Act. While NTPC was directed to disclose the names of those who availed VRS, additional details like designations and reasons for eligibility criteria relaxation were ruled as personal information not subject to disclosure.

GA DIGITAL WEB WORD PVT LTD VS THE GROUP GENERAL MANAGER TELECOMMUNICATIONS CONSULTANTS INDIA LTD [W.P.(C)-5295/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The banning order against the petitioner for submitting false information in a tender was upheld as valid under tender conditions. However, since a prior banning order by BHEL was quashed and the banning period would end in May 2024, the banning period was reduced to the time already served by the petitioner.

GARIMA SINGH VS NEW INDIA ASSURANCE CO LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11799/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The sub-limit of Rs. 2 lakhs for "Immunotherapy - Monoclonal Antibody" in the insurance policy does not apply to Chemo-immunotherapy treatments, which are distinct from Immunotherapy. The policy lacks a sub-limit for Chemo-immunotherapy. In cases of ambiguity, the principle of "contra proferentem" applies, favoring the insured party. The insurance company is directed to settle the full claim, as awarded by the Ombudsman, and must pay Rs. 50,000 in costs for causing undue distress to the petitioner.

GEEP INDUSTRIES (INDIA) PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS COMPETITION COMMISSION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-10332/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Competition Commission of India (CCI) cannot levy interest on delayed payment of penalties without issuing a demand notice as required by the Competition Commission of India (Manner of Recovery of Monetary Penalty) Regulations, 2011. The failure to follow this procedure invalidates the order directing payment of interest.

GIRISH BHARTI VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-3433/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Girish Bhati, accused of offences under the NDPS Act, was dismissed due to strong evidence against him, including co-accused statements, recovery of related materials at his premises, and call data records. Concerns about the risk of reoffending or fleeing from justice indicated that the criteria for granting bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act were not met.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR VS SIDDHARTH HANDA [W.P.(C)-12189/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The delay in the respondent's appointment was primarily due to the Delhi Subordinate Services Selection Board correcting the spelling of the respondent's name, not the delay in providing information under the RTI Act. A penalty of Rs. 20,000 was imposed on the Public Information Officer for the delay, but an order for the Delhi government to pay Rs. 3 lakh in compensation to the respondent was set aside, as the information delay did not cause the appointment delay.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. VS MR PRABHJOT SINGH DHILLON [W.P.(C)-6034/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Department of Education cannot deny information requested under the RTI Act on the basis that it is not readily available or requires time to collate. Disciplinary proceedings against teachers in government and aided schools regarding private tuition, as well as details of major penalties imposed on teachers in private unaided schools, must be disclosed. Difficulty in collecting the information is not a valid reason for refusal. If deadlines set by the Central Information Commission have passed, the Department may seek an extension.

GUDDU KHAN VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3045/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Guddu Khan, arrested for transferring a commercial quantity of heroin, was dismissed. The stringent requirements for bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act were not satisfied, as evidence indicated his complicity and the potential for reoffending if released. A conviction could result in a minimum ten-year sentence, extending to twenty years.

GULKESH KUMAR VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1007/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Gulkesh Kumar's bail application was dismissed in a case involving the murder of his brother-in-law, Dalbir Singh. The accusation involved a brutal crime, with reasonable grounds for believing Gulkesh's involvement. The severity of the offense, potential punishment, and risk of evasion influenced the decision against granting bail at this stage, as most prosecution witnesses had been examined. Gulkesh was permitted to file a fresh bail application after the prosecution evidence was completed.

GURMEET SINGH MATHAROO VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14838/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular (LOC) against the petitioner by the Bank of Baroda was deemed unsustainable, as inability to repay a bank loan without accompanying criminal proceedings cannot justify such an issuance and violates the right to travel under Article 21 of the Constitution. Previous judgments have interpreted "detrimental to the economic interests of India" narrowly, indicating that this exception does not apply to all loan defaults and must exhibit significant economic impact. The amended Office Memorandum of 2021 that allowed heads of public sector banks to request LOCs has been quashed by the Bombay High Court. Consequently, the LOC issued against the petitioner was quashed.

GURPREET SINGH & ORS. VS PROTECTION OFFICER & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-806/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The interim maintenance order of R.S. 8,000 per month in favor of the wife under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, was upheld. The husband did not provide evidence of his actual income, while the wife claimed it exceeded R.S. 1,50,000. The obligation of the husband to maintain his wife was affirmed, and the maintenance amount was deemed reasonable based on the wife's needs. The husband's petition was dismissed due to the lack of infirmity in the lower court orders.

GURUJI ELEVATORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9357/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The decision to reject the Petitioner's application for enlistment as a Class-I contractor in the CPWD was upheld due to insufficient work experience. The Petitioner's experience in running and maintaining lifts did not meet the required criteria for Class-I enlistment. The interpretation of eligibility criteria by the Respondents, who established the Rules, is considered valid unless there is evidence of malafide or arbitrariness. Administrative decisions are generally not subject to interference unless they are perverse, illegal, or procedurally irregular.

H VS THE UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5825/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A writ petition by an unmarried female student to terminate her 27-week pregnancy was dismissed. The case did not meet the criteria of the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act, which permits termination beyond 24 weeks only for saving the mother's life or in cases of substantial fetal abnormalities. A medical board found no congenital abnormalities in the fetus and no risk to the mother's health. Termination of a viable fetus was deemed unethical and legally impermissible. The Union of India was directed to facilitate the adoption process if the petitioner chose to give the child up for adoption.

HABIBBUR RAHMAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-932/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The chargesheet filed by the investigating agency was deemed complete despite the absence of sanction under Section 13(3) of the Official Secrets Act, 1923. Compliance with Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. was satisfied by the filing of the chargesheet within the 90-day timeframe, making cognizance unnecessary for this provision. The argument regarding the incompleteness of the chargesheet due to the lack of sanction was rejected, and the petitioner was not entitled to default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

HAJJ E BETULLAH HAJ UMRAH TOUR CORPORATION VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6466/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The categorization of Haj Group Organizers (HGOs) based on experience and financial strength is a policy decision that is not subject to judicial interference unless it is manifestly arbitrary or unconstitutional. The petitioner lacked a vested right to be classified as a Category-I HGO, and the categorization as a Category-II HGO was valid according to the existing policy. The writ petition was dismissed, affirming the government's policy decision.

HARINDER GUMAN VS PARAMJIT SINGH DHILLON [CS(OS)-373/2012]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The defendant is permitted to present evidence in the suit despite a delay in filing the witness list, attributed to a stay on proceedings from 2015-2024. The delay is considered bona fide, and flexibility is applied regarding the procedural rules. The defendant has two weeks to submit the witness list, and efforts are to be made to complete the evidence recording within three months.

HARISH BAJAJ VS DIVISIONAL COMMISSIONER & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5079/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's writ petition challenging eviction orders was dismissed on the grounds of abuse of process, as it sought to contest a previously dismissed order. The absence of a stay from the Appellate Authority allowed the District Magistrate to implement the eviction. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the petitioner, to be paid to the Armed Forces Battle Casualties Welfare Fund.

HARISH KUMAR VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS MALVIYA NAGAR [BAIL APPLN.-2577/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Harish Kumar's application for bail in the event of arrest was dismissed. He entered into multiple agreements to sell parts of a property where he lacked full rights and took a significant amount of money from a complainant without completing the property's construction. His actions were deemed likely to hinder the investigation, leading to the conclusion that he was not entitled to bail.

HARISH RANA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4927/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition by Harish Rana for the constitution of a Medical Board to assess his health for passive euthanasia was dismissed. The request did not meet the criteria established for passive euthanasia, as Rana was not reliant on mechanical support and could sustain himself without external aid. Active euthanasia remains legally impermissible in India.

HARJEET SINGH MENDIRATTA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-6487/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition challenging the dismissal of a transfer application for a criminal case was dismissed. A mere perception of bias was deemed insufficient to warrant a transfer under Section 408 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The petitioner's previous transfer petitions were noted, and allegations of bias were found unsubstantiated. The decision emphasized that withdrawing cases based on unsubstantiated bias claims undermines judicial independence. The well-reasoned decision of the lower authority was upheld.

HITABHILASHINI SHARMA VS OJ KUMAR SHARMA & ORS [CS(OS)-380/2016]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The application by Defendants No. 1 and 2 to reject the plaintiff's plaint was dismissed. The plaint must be read as a whole, with acknowledgment of the DDA's allotment of the suit property to the plaintiff's husband. The issue of the gift deed will be addressed during the trial, placing the burden of proof on the defendant. Arguments regarding the DDA as a necessary party and the requirement for a declaration on the validity of the gift deed were not accepted.

I VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7044/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition challenging the bail of the accused was dismissed. The trial court had considered relevant factors when granting bail. Bail is generally favored over imprisonment, and cancellation requires strong evidence of potential interference with justice or misuse of bail privileges. The petitioner did not provide sufficient reasons for canceling the already granted bail.

IMC LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-15285/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Under Section 16 of the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) Act, 2006, no entity can lay, build, or operate a pipeline as a common or contract carrier without authorization from the PNGRB. IMC Limited received authorization to lay a pipeline between Ennore Port and Manali Industrial Area, while IOCL commenced construction without such authorization. The PNGRB confirmed that only IMC Limited is authorized for this pipeline, and permitting IOCL to continue construction could cause irreparable harm to IMC Limited. An interim stay was granted to prevent IOCL from proceeding with the unauthorized pipeline during ongoing proceedings.

IN-TIME GARMENTS PVT LTD VS HSPS TEXTILE PVT LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-436/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The arbitration award in favor of HSPS Textile Pvt Ltd was upheld, as the arbitrator's findings indicated that In-Time Garments Pvt Ltd failed to prove time was of the essence in the contract and that HSPS was aware of the delivery obligations to M/s Trent Limited. The arguments regarding HSPS's eligibility under the MSMED Act were deemed without merit.

INDER PAL SINGH GABA VS NATIONAL INVESTIGATION AGENCY [W.P.(CRL)-1783/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's arrest and remand orders were valid, with the remand application providing sufficient reasons and grounds for the arrest. The constitutional requirement under Article 22(1) was met, as the petitioner received information about the grounds for arrest within a reasonable time. The argument regarding the non-supply of the FIR was rejected based on established legal precedent, affirming that providing a copy of the FIR is not mandatory in all cases. The writ petition was dismissed.

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF FOREIGN TRADE VS KAMAL JIT CHIBBER [W.P.(C)-2830/2016]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by the Indian Institute of Foreign Trade against the Central Information Commission's order was dismissed. The information requested by a former employee did not qualify for any exemptions under Section 8 of the RTI Act. The argument that the information was voluminous was insufficient to deny access. The order to provide complete and categorical information according to the RTI Act was upheld.

INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED VS PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS REGULATORY BOARD [W.P.(C)-2896/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) lacks the authority to regulate pipelines laid for transporting an entity's own petroleum and petroleum products, known as captive pipelines. The PNGRB Act does not prohibit captive pipelines and only addresses common carrier and contract carrier pipelines. Entities are not required to obtain authorization or registration from the PNGRB for laying captive pipelines. A communication directing the Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) to cease laying its captive pipelines was set aside, confirming that IOCL did not need PNGRB's authorization.

INDO ENGINEERING PROJECT CORPORATION VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED INDIA [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-422/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition by Indo Engineering Project Corporation challenging the termination order and notice for fresh bids by National Highways and Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited was dismissed due to delay in filing. The termination order was issued four months prior, and the fresh bid notice appeared two months before the petition was submitted. The petitioner did not establish a prima facie case for interim relief under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA VS NARESH SINGLA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7517/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The decision of the Appellate Authority, which set aside the punishment imposed on the chartered accountant for professional misconduct, was upheld. The Appellate Authority concluded that the omission of the provisional nature of the balance sheet in the net worth certificate was a technical omission and did not breach any specific regulations or accounting standards. The opinion of the Appellate Authority, comprising a retired High Court judge and expert members, was not considered perverse and did not require intervention.

J.C. FLOWERS ASSET RECONSTRUCTIONS PVT. LTD. VS UNION OF INDA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6501/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

J.C. Flowers Asset Reconstructions Pvt. Ltd. filed a writ petition against the Union of India regarding the laying of electricity transmission lines. The petition was dismissed as the Electricity Act, 2003 and the Telegraph Act, 1885 grant the appropriate government and licensees the authority to undertake such actions in the public interest. The Works of Licensees Rules, 2006 outline the procedures for these activities, including notifying owners/occupiers, and Power Grid Corporation had issued public notices inviting objections, with no objections raised by the petitioner or previous owner. The alignment of transmission lines is decided by technical experts, and interests of private landowners are secondary to public access for transmission.

JAGDEV SINGH ALIAS DEV SINGH ALIAS JASDEV SINGH AND ANR VS COMPETENT AUTHORITY AND ADMINISTRATOR [W.P.(C)-5225/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Appellate Tribunal correctly refused to condone the delay in filing the appeal beyond the 45-day period set by the NDPS Act. Special statutes exclude the provisions of the Limitation Act regarding delay condonation. The 60-day outer limit specified in the NDPS Act had expired, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition challenging the Appellate Tribunal's decision.

JAGRITI VERMA VS STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12438/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The relinquishment deed executed by Jagriti Verma as the legal guardian of her son Anmol Verma, who has a 100% mental disability, is eligible for registration under the National Trust for the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999. If the property is rented out, one-third of the rental income must be deposited in a separate account for Anmol's welfare. If sold, one-third of the proceeds should be similarly allocated. Annual accounts of the property and assets must also be provided to ensure Anmol's interests are protected.

JASDEEP SINGH & ANR. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5550/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition to quash the FIR against the accused under Sections 509, 506, 341, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The allegations in the FIR supported the applicability of Sections 509 and 506 IPC, with the determination of whether the accused's words would outrage the modesty of the complainant, a judicial officer, left for trial. No separate judgment or referral to a larger bench occurred, and this was not part of a batch matter.

JATINDER MEHTA & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-6587/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The police was required to register an FIR for the cognizable offence under Section 289 IPC, as the complaint met the necessary criteria. The dismissal of the petitioner's application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. by lower courts was incorrect, as only a non-cognizable report had been registered. The orders of the Metropolitan Magistrate and Additional Sessions Judge were set aside, directing authorities to act according to the law.

JAYANT NANDA VS UNION OF INDIA, THROUGH SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF FINANCE, GOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4081/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Look Out Circular (LOC) against Jayant Nanda cannot be maintained indefinitely without valid reasons. Nanda has cooperated with the Income Tax Department's investigation and has not been summoned since March 2022. The government's counter-affidavit failed to show any lack of cooperation. The right to travel abroad is a fundamental right under Article 21 of the Constitution. Consequently, the LOC was quashed, contingent on Nanda providing security through unencumbered property or fixed deposit and meeting specific conditions.

JKR TECHNO ENGINEERS PVT LTD VS JMD LIMITED [ARB.P.-1459/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Petitioner's claim is not time-barred due to proceedings initiated under the Commercial Courts Act in 2021, allowing for the exclusion of that duration under Section 14 of the Limitation Act. The Respondent's argument regarding limitation is rejected, given their previous attempt to refer the matter to arbitration under Section 8 of the Arbitration Act. A Sole Arbitrator is appointed to adjudicate the disputes, with the Respondent permitted to raise the limitation issue for consideration.

JSW STEEL LIMITED & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3663/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Merchandise Exports from India Scheme (MEIS) benefits will be considered for the petitioners despite inadvertent errors in marking the reward column, following previous judgments that favored a lenient approach. The Customs Department accepted the petitioners' case, leading to a directive for their MEIS benefits to be evaluated in line with established legal principles.

K R ANAND VS DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1680/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition for the release of dues from the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) was dismissed due to the petitioner's status as a sub-contractor lacking privity of contract with DMRC. The contractual dispute resolution clause with the main contractor prohibits claims against DMRC. There was no admission by DMRC regarding the claimed amount, nor evidence that the work met DMRC's satisfaction. A writ petition is not suitable for resolving this monetary dispute, which should follow the established contractual resolution mechanisms.

KAMAL BHASIN VS CENTRAL PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2210/2020]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Power Finance Corporation Limited withheld details about the educational institutes of its executives, citing the personal nature of the information and lack of public interest in its disclosure. The Corporation provided the petitioner with the budget for manpower requirements and the educational qualifications of the recruited executives, but did not disclose the specific institutes, which fell under Section 8(1)(j) of the Right to Information Act. The petition challenging this decision was dismissed.

KAREENA KAUSHIK VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7874/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition filed by Kareena Kaushik challenged the selection of Manisha Bhati as Head Constable under the sports quota. Manisha was deemed ineligible for the 56 kg weight category in Wushu, as she applied for the 52 kg category and was overweight. It was emphasized that candidates have a right to be considered based on the original terms of the advertisement, and changing eligibility criteria during the selection process is not permitted. The selection process was ordered to be reconducted.

KARM KUMAR VS SQUASH ASSOCIATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12752/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Government of India maintains a policy restricting participation in the National Games to Indian citizens holding Indian passports. This policy is deemed reasonable as it aims to nurture Indian talent and ensures that only citizens represent states, preserving opportunities for them in national competitions. The policy, developed in consultation with the Indian Olympic Association and National Sports Federations, is a matter of executive discretion that should not be interfered with unless completely irrational.

KAUSHALENDRA PRATAP SINGH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4830/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The trial court erred in granting bail to the accused in a case involving Section 376 IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act. The victim's testimony established a clear case of penetrative sexual assault under Section 3 of the POCSO Act, invoking the presumption under Section 29. The trial court overlooked essential criteria for bail, leading to the cancellation of the accused's bail.

KAVURU BHASKER RAO VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7245/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular issued against the petitioner by the Bureau of Immigration at the request of the Union Bank of India was deemed unsustainable, as inability to repay bank loans does not constitute circumstances "detrimental to the economic interests of India," which would justify restricting the fundamental right to travel abroad under Article 21 of the Constitution. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" requires evidence of higher gravity and a larger impact on the economy, rather than being applicable in all cases of bank defaults. Since no criminal case was pending and the loan amount had been fully paid and settled, the Lookout Circular was quashed.

KTECH ENGINEER BUILDERS CO. PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7799/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Adverse remarks in the workload returns against the petitioner contractor were deemed equivalent to a blacklisting order issued without a required show cause notice. Evidence indicated that defects in the buildings resulted mainly from design deficiencies by the consultant rather than the petitioner's work. The adverse remarks were expunged, allowing the respondents to issue a fresh show cause notice and take further action if necessary.

KULDEEP SINGH SAHANI & ORS. VS P.K. GUPTA, CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR, NBCC (INDIA) AND ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-1345/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Closure of 16 internal roads within the Sarojini Nagar redevelopment project is valid, as authorities followed due process and obtained necessary approvals. The land was allocated by the L&DO to NBCC, and the roads are not classified as "public streets" under the NDMC Act. Multiple NOCs were acquired, and the NDMC approved the overall redevelopment plan under Section 217 of the NDMC Act. Temporary inconvenience due to redevelopment does not warrant halting the project, which is a government policy decision.

L KUMARI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-498/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order discharging the accused from charges of rape and criminal intimidation was set aside. A slight delay in filing the FIR and minor contradictions in the victim's statements were deemed insufficient to negate the framing of charges. Sufficient material exists to proceed with charges for the offenses. The trial court is instructed to continue with the case.

LAKSHAY MEHRA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6820/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The lower court's order taking cognizance of an offence under Section 186 IPC against the petitioner was void ab initio for violating Section 195 CrPC, which mandates a written complaint by a concerned public servant for offences under Sections 172-188 IPC. The FIR and subsequent charge sheets were not quashed, as the power to quash should be exercised sparingly and the allegations were not deemed absurd or improbable.

LAS GROUND FORCE PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS GOLDAIR HANDLING SA [O.M.P.(I) (COMM.)-385/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitions by Las Ground Force Private Limited and another to restrain Goldair Handling SA from participating in the tender process for ground handling services at Ranchi and Vijayawada Airports were dismissed. The Petitioners failed to establish a prima facie case, as their Shareholders' Agreements were limited to Bagdogra and Udaipur Airports, and the related Exclusivity Agreement was terminated. The non-exclusivity clause in the Concession Agreements permitted the Airport Authority of India to engage other parties, which meant restricting the Respondent would undermine competition. The validity of the non-compete clause in the Shareholders' Agreement and any potential violations were deemed suitable for arbitration proceedings rather than court intervention.

LHAKPA TSERING VS JAGDISH LAL [CRL.M.C.-6889/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The issue of whether cheques were issued for a legally enforceable debt or other liability under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act requires determination at the trial stage, not during the summons phase. The term "other liability" must be interpreted distinctly from legally enforceable debt. Precedents indicate that the intent of Section 138 would be compromised if it excluded debts incurred after cheque issuance but before encashment. The complaint will proceed to trial in accordance with the law.

M/S COSLIGHT INFRA COMPANY PVT. LTD. VS M/S CONCEPT ENGINEERS & ORS. [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-564/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order rejecting the application to implead Rajesh Kumar Srivastava as a party to the arbitration proceedings is classified as a procedural order, not an interim award, and is not appealable under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. An issue has been framed by the arbitral tribunal to ascertain if Srivastava is a necessary party, and evidence on this matter has yet to be presented. The tribunal must allow parties to lead evidence on this issue before making a decision, which could significantly impact related matters.

M/S DEORA CABLE NATWORKS VS DEN NETWORK LTD [W.P.(C)-14182/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order of the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal (TDSAT) allowing DEN Network Ltd to submit additional documents during the written arguments stage of the recovery petition against M/S Deora Cable Networks was upheld. The TDSAT deemed the documents necessary for resolving the dispute involving the recovery of Rs. 15,55,222/- and the return of 778 Set Top Boxes (STBs). The decision reaffirmed adherence to principles of natural justice, stating that it was not bound by the Code of Civil Procedure.

M/S KANTI PRASHAD MITTAL VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9575/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Subcontracting more than 49% of the work by M/s Kanti Prashad Mittal to Respondent No. 7 exceeded contractual limits. Although government authorities initially approved the subcontracting and issued performance certificates to Respondent No. 7, they later withdrew the completion certificate to M/s Kanti Prashad Mittal. Evidence indicated foul play and corruption within the department, prompting an inquiry by the CBI into the subcontracting arrangement and potential legal actions.

M/S PAMPAR OVENFRESH FOODS PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1142/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by M/s Pampar Ovenfresh Foods Pvt Ltd was dismissed regarding the recovery of the first installment of grant-in-aid with interest. The decision was based on a joint inspection report indicating unsatisfactory project progress despite an opportunity to make a representation. The principles of legitimate expectation and the limited scope of judicial review in commercial matters were considered, emphasizing the need for clear arbitrariness, mala fide, or irrationality for interference, which was not present in this case.

M/S STATE ENGINEERS VS PRAGATI POWER CORPORATION LTD [W.P.(C)-5580/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order of debarment issued by Pragati Power Corporation Ltd. against M/S State Engineers is invalid due to the lack of a proper show cause notice indicating that debarment was a potential consequence. The notice only mentioned possible contract termination, making the debarment order unsustainable as it exceeded the notice's scope.

M/S YADAV LABOUR CONTRACTOR VS GAIL (INDIA) LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7342/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

GAIL (India) Limited's six-month ban on M/s Yadav Labour Contractor was upheld due to the discovery of a direct relationship and financial dealings between the petitioner and YLC Infrastructure Private Limited, which violated tender conditions against conflicts of interest. The decision was deemed reasonable and not arbitrary, stemming from the petitioner's misrepresentation of facts.

M/S. ARYAN CARGO EXPRESS PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3964/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

M/s. Aryan Cargo Express Private Limited and M/s Aryan Cargo and Express Logistics Private Limited are not entitled to the benefits of the "Companies Fresh Start Scheme, 2020" or the "Scheme for condonation of delay for companies restored on the Register of Companies" under section 252 of the Companies Act, 2013. A previous order did not grant these benefits and only allowed for restoration of their names on the Register of Companies subject to payment of fees. The petitions were dismissed, and the petitioners are required to pay late fees for restoration.

M/S. INDURE PVT. LTD VS ANEJA CONSTRUCTION (INDIA) LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-49/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition filed by M/s. Indure Pvt. Ltd. challenging an arbitral award was deemed time-barred. The initial petition, submitted on 18.11.2017, lacked a copy of the award, which is required for a valid challenge under Section 34 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act. A re-filing occurred on 05.01.2018, exceeding the allowable 3-month period and an additional 30-day period for condonation. The petitioner did not provide evidence for the date of award receipt, and oral submissions were not accepted. The petition was dismissed.

MAHANAGAR TELEPHONE NIGAM LTD VS DELHI INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CENTRE, THROUGH ITS CO-ORDINATOR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14515/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The applicability of the MSME Act to a party that was not registered as an MSME at the time of entering into a contract but subsequently registered during the contract's duration is a mixed question of law and fact, suitable for resolution by the Arbitral Tribunal. The nature of the contract, whether a works contract or for services, also influences the applicability of the MSME Act, which can be addressed by the Arbitral Tribunal.

MAHESH VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) THROUGH SHO OF POLICE STATION CRIME BRANCH (CENTRAL) [BAIL APPLN.-1221/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Mahesh was granted bail in an NDPS Act case, as evidence beyond a co-accused's disclosure statement was insufficient to demonstrate his involvement. Call detail records did not definitively link him to the co-accused or their travel to Odisha. Bail was granted under conditions to prevent evidence tampering or witness influence, without commenting on the merits of the case.

MAHESHWARI DEVI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11401/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A senior citizen's petition challenging the rejection of her eviction application under the Senior Citizens Act was accepted. The focus was on the welfare of the senior citizen amid family disputes and police complaints against her son and daughter-in-law. They were ordered to vacate her property, while she and her daughter were restricted from disposing of it until a related suit filed by her husband is restored.

MAHUA MOITRA VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2676/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition filed by Mahua Moitra, a former Member of Parliament, seeking to stop the Directorate of Enforcement from leaking information to the media about an ongoing investigation for alleged Foreign Exchange Management Act violations was dismissed. As a public figure, Moitra is subject to greater public scrutiny, and the media has a right to report on the investigation, which does not interfere with her private life or the integrity of the investigation. Statements from the ED and the Union of India confirmed adherence to the Advisory on Media Policy regarding information sharing during investigations. No grounds for the relief sought were established.

MANINI KAUSHIK VS THE NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5438/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition filed by Manini Kaushik against the amended selection criteria for the Olympic shooting team for the 2024 Paris Olympics was dismissed. The amended 2023 criteria were deemed reasonable and not arbitrary. The argument for participation in the 2024 ISSF Final Qualification Championship in Rio de Janeiro was rejected, as India had already achieved the maximum permissible quota.

MANJU TOKAS & ANR. VS GNCT OF DELHI THROUGH DIVISIONAL COMMISSIONER & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3927/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

An application under the Delhi Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Rules can be processed even if the property's title is in dispute. The Senior Citizens Act aims to ensure the welfare and maintenance of senior citizens, with title issues outside its purview. The Appellate Authority directed the District Magistrate to follow proper procedures, gather evidence, and resolve the matter regarding alleged ill-treatment of the senior citizen applicant after hearing both parties.

MD SHAKIL VS STATE (GOVT.OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1793/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

MD Shakil received bail after being accused of murder under Section 302 IPC. The key witness retracted their identification of the accused, and another witness involved in the case was excluded. The lack of strong evidence, combined with Shakil's lengthy custody of over four years and good behavior in jail, led to the decision for bail, which includes conditions such as a personal bond, a verifiable address in Delhi, and regular police reporting.

MD. AYUB PATHAN VS THE STATE OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2258/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of the petitioner was dismissed due to insufficient grounds to believe in his innocence regarding possession of a commercial quantity of heroin under the NDPS Act. The petitioner was found with individuals accused under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, and incidents involving gunfire by co-accused indicated a risk of absconding and potential for further offenses if released. The stringent conditions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act were not satisfied, reflecting doubts about the petitioner's guilt and likelihood of reoffending while on bail.

MG TOURS AND TRAVELS VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-16471/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Experience gained by the original sole proprietor of a firm cannot be transferred to new partners after the firm is reconstituted post the proprietor's death. Obligations and skills of a sole proprietor end with their demise and cannot be imposed on legal heirs or representatives. Therefore, the previous experience of the sole proprietor does not impact the eligibility of the new partnership firm under the Haj Group Organiser policy, as it is a separate legal entity. The firm remains eligible to undertake Umrah operations in line with subsequent Haj policies.

MIC HAJJ CELL VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-15648/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The experience and expertise of a sole proprietor cannot be transferred to a new proprietor upon the original proprietor's death, as a proprietorship firm is not a separate legal entity and lacks perpetual succession. The previous experience of the firm under the deceased proprietor is not applicable to the new proprietor, leading to the declaration of ineligibility for registration as a Haj Group Organizer for Haj 2022-2023.

MISS T VS STATE (GNCTD) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4877/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order granting bail to Respondent No. 2, accused of rape under Section 376(2)(n) IPC, was set aside due to the pending previous bail application. Engaging in "forum shopping" by filing successive bail applications was noted as inappropriate. Respondent No. 2 was directed to be taken into custody immediately, with any future bail applications to be reviewed by the Regular Bench expeditiously.

MOHAN KUMAR VS STATE(GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2415/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Mohan Kumar was granted bail after being charged under Sections 328/376(2)(n)/508 IPC. The relationship with the prosecutrix appeared consensual, raising the issue of whether consent was undermined by a false promise of marriage. A distinction was made between a false promise and a breach of promise made in good faith. Evidence included a marriage certificate and an application for annulment, relevant to the false promise allegation. The petitioner demonstrated community ties, with no concerns about witness influence or evasion of justice, leading to the bail decision with specific conditions.

MOHD FAIZAN VS STATE (N.C.T. OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2908/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Mohd Faizan, charged under IPC Sections 498A, 406, 304B, and 34, along with Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, received bail after considerations of the charges' nature, potential punishment, witness tampering risks, and the petitioner's character. Despite the serious allegations, the petitioner was deemed unlikely to tamper with evidence or pressure witnesses. Factors such as his young age, framed charges, examined witnesses, and a child from the marriage contributed to the bail decision, accompanied by conditions to ensure cooperation and prevent trial interference.

MOHD YAMEEN VS AAS MOHD [CRL.L.P.-341/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The presumption under Section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act in favor of the cheque holder is rebuttable. The accused successfully raised a probable defense, demonstrating that the complainant did not provide adequate evidence of financial capacity to advance a loan of Rs. 5 lakhs without a written agreement. The trial court's conclusion that the cheque was for a loan of Rs. 50,000 was based on acceptable evidence, leading to the dismissal of the complainant's petition.

MOHD. TAHIR HUSSAIN VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4654/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Two separate FIRs (No. 101/2020 and No. 116/2020) for the same incident on 24.02.2020 at the same premises were regarded as contrary to established law, as both incidents formed part of the same transaction. Despite this, since trials had commenced in both cases and quashing the second FIR would result in injustice to its victims, the second FIR was quashed. The chargesheet from the second FIR was permitted to be used as a supplementary chargesheet in the first FIR, allowing the trial to proceed without harming the interests of the victims.

MOHIT ARORA VS BANK OF BARODA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8073/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Lookout Circulars issued against the petitioner by Union Bank of India and Bank of Baroda are unsustainable, as inability to repay loans does not equate to being detrimental to India's economic interests, which is required for such measures. Previous judgments have limited the use of Lookout Circulars by banks to exceptional circumstances, and recent findings have invalidated provisions allowing bank chairpersons to request these. Consequently, the Lookout Circulars against the petitioner were quashed.

MOHIT ARORA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4460/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Lookout Circulars against the petitioner issued by Union Bank of India and Bank of Baroda were deemed unsustainable. Inability to repay loans without accompanying criminal proceedings is insufficient to restrict the fundamental right to travel abroad under Article 21. The examination of relevant Office Memorandums highlighted that the exception for economic detriment cannot be applied routinely to loan defaults. Exceptional circumstances demonstrating a larger economic impact are necessary for such restrictions. The Lookout Circulars were quashed as they did not meet this threshold. No observations were made regarding Lookout Circulars issued by other investigating agencies.

MOHIT MASAND VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4625/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The victim had actively participated in the proceedings and opposed bail applications of the accused. The trial court should have allowed the victim to be heard before granting bail. The established precedent emphasizes the victim's right to participate in criminal proceedings. The bail order was set aside, and the matter was remanded for reconsideration of the bail application after hearing the complainant, without comments on the case's merits. The accused was not directed to surrender due to significant trial progress and no violations of bail conditions.

MR VINOD KAPOOR VS UNION OFINDIA [ARB.P.-1410/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition for the appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is time-barred. The right to apply for arbitration arose from the first notice sent on 24.03.2017, requiring the petition to be filed within three years as per Article 137 of the Limitation Act, 1963. The second notice on 30.08.2019 did not create a fresh cause of action. Despite considering the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, the petition filed on 12.08.2024 remains outside the limitation period. The petition was dismissed as time-barred.

MR. AJAY MRIG VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11506/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular against the petitioner, a promoter-director of a company that defaulted on bank loans, was deemed unsustainable due to the absence of pending criminal proceedings. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" in the guidelines for issuing Lookout Circulars was interpreted narrowly, not encompassing all cases of loan default. The right to travel abroad is protected as a fundamental right under Article 21 of the Constitution and cannot be restricted solely based on loan repayment issues. The Lookout Circular was subsequently quashed.

MR. KAMLESH KUMAR VS SOCIETY FOR AFFORDABLE REDRESSAL OF DISPUTES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1414/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Society for Affordable Redressal of Disputes is not considered an instrumentality of the state and is therefore not subject to writ jurisdiction under Article 12 of the Constitution. It functions primarily as an arbitral institution without substantial governmental functions. Although the National Highways Authority of India has some involvement, its control is not significant. The matter concerning the cessation of the petitioner's term as an empaneled arbitrator is better suited for alternative legal remedies.

MR. PRAMOD SURI VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5996/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The inability to repay bank loans, without an accompanying criminal case, does not justify the issuance of a Lookout Circular. The petitioner, an employee and additional director of the company, was not a guarantor for the loans. Previous judgments indicate that Lookout Circulars require a showing that a person's departure would harm India's economic interests, which was not met in this case. The circumstances did not justify restricting the petitioner's right to travel under Article 21 of the Constitution, leading to the quashing of the Lookout Circular.

MRS NEHA CHAUDHARY VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-7050/2024]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The petitioner's request to quash the FIR under Sections 498A, 406 and 34 IPC was dismissed. The FIR included specific allegations of harassment and cruelty against the petitioner, supported by a prior complaint to the Crime Against Women Cell. The existence of a cognizable offence in the FIR led to the decision not to interfere with the investigation at this stage, with instructions for the trial court to independently assess the case and determine whether to frame charges based on the available material.

MRS VINNU GOEL VS DEPUTY COMMISSIONER STAMP REGISTRATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9291/2023]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The petitioner can approach the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to determine the proper stamp duty on the Memorandum of Understanding dated 12.11.2014, as this pertains to the state's revenue. The issue of stamp duty is separate from the pending application under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The revenue authority is directed to make its determination without being influenced by prior observations.

MS ASANDAS AND SONS PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1173/2022]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The respondents' decision to limit the maximum incentive under the Production Linked Incentive Scheme for food processing to 15% CAGR and 8% of the segment outlay complied with the scheme guidelines and served the public interest. The guidelines permitted periodic reviews by the Empowered Group of Secretaries and the Ministry's Committee, making the cap valid for ensuring equitable benefits. The misunderstanding by the petitioner regarding the correlation between higher investment commitments and incentive allocation was incorrect. The petition was dismissed with a requirement for the petitioner to provide a bank guarantee as per approved terms.

MS MADHU @ PRAGATI VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2341/2022]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The trial court granted bail to Respondent No. 2 based on factors such as the delay in filing the FIR, an ongoing matrimonial dispute, and the respondent's cooperation in the investigation. Cancellation of bail requires cogent and overwhelming circumstances, which were not present in this case. The plea seeking cancellation of the respondent's bail was dismissed.

MS RAPID CONSTRUCTIONS VS SOUTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION [ARB.P.-1359/2024]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The arbitration clause in the contract between MS Rapid Constructions and South Delhi Municipal Corporation was validly deleted, despite the petitioner's claim that it was only marked as 'deleted'. An affidavit confirmed the clause was expressly removed, and the petitioner accepted the contract terms without objection. The argument for upholding the arbitration clause was rejected due to the lack of ambiguity regarding its deletion. The petition seeking appointment of an arbitrator was dismissed.

MS. SEEMA ASTHANA VS SH. JAIDEEP ARORA [CRL.M.C.-5939/2022]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against a non-executive director of the accused company was quashed due to the absence of specific allegations regarding the director's involvement in the company's day-to-day affairs and business responsibility. The complaint did not establish the necessary connection for liability under Section 141 of the Act.

MS. SP VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3732/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The trial court's order to dismiss the application for recalling witnesses PW-A and PW-V under Section 311 CrPC was upheld. Their statements, recorded under Section 161 CrPC, established only that the petitioner attended coaching classes, an already admitted fact by the accused. The need to recall these witnesses was deemed unnecessary as their statements would not add further value, and other witnesses had also confirmed the petitioner's attendance.

MS. X VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-665/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A petitioner's application for further investigation under Section 173(8) of the Criminal Procedure Code was wrongly dismissed on the basis that the case had been committed to the Sessions Court. The police were directed to conduct further investigation due to new evidence and file a supplementary charge-sheet within six weeks to ensure a fair and thorough investigation, without any opinion on the merits of the case.

MUKESH KUMAR VS NEELAM [CRL.REV.P.-581/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The husband's revision petition was dismissed, upholding the trial court's order for him to pay Rs. 20,000 monthly as maintenance to his wife and two minor children. The assessment of his monthly income as Rs. 40,000 based on agency commission slips was deemed accurate, with potential additional earnings from tuitions. The maintenance proceedings aim to prevent destitution and ensure basic necessities for the wife and children. The trial court was instructed to expedite the examination of remaining witnesses and resolve the matter within a year.

MULAKH RAJ DUA VS THE STATE, GOVT. OF N.C.T. OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4589/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's application for refund of stamp duty and registration charges cannot be automatically rejected based on the six-month limitation under Section 54 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899. The limitation is not mandatory, allowing consideration of refunds based on specific circumstances, such as a lack of awareness regarding the use of stamp papers within the timeframe. The concerned Collector is to evaluate the application considering this principle and make a decision within four weeks.

MUTIVISION COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM PVT LTD & ORS. VS HARENDER SINGH [CRL.M.C.-4280/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The trial court's rejection of a petition to summon two additional witnesses in a Section 138 case of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. The proposed testimony aimed to demonstrate that the complainant habitually files false cases, but this was deemed irrelevant to the elements required to establish a Section 138 offense, which focuses on the existence of a debt and the dishonor of the cheque due to insufficient funds. The complainant's history of filing other cases was considered immaterial to the present charge.

NAZIA HABEEB VS MOHD NAJAM KHAN [CRL.REV.P.-797/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The First Appellate Court erred by dismissing Domestic Violence Act proceedings on the basis of the parties' divorce status. The validity of the divorce is in dispute, as the wife contests it. Precedents establish that Domestic Violence Act proceedings can continue post-divorce if acts of domestic violence occurred prior to the divorce. The dismissal has been set aside, and the case is to proceed in accordance with the law.

NANDU KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1534/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Anticipatory bail was granted to the petitioners, who are brothers, in response to an FIR for offences including rape. The FIR was filed eight months after the incident without a clear explanation for the delay. There was an ongoing property dispute between the parties, with both sides claiming ownership. The history of similar complaints by the prosecutrix against a third party suggested a potential pattern. The possibility that the FIR was filed to harm or embarrass the petitioners due to the property dispute was acknowledged. Bail was granted pending the petitioners' provision of personal bonds and cooperation with the investigation.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS ORIENTAL PATHWAYS(AGRA) PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-269/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The arbitration award in favor of the concessionaire was upheld, with the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) not entitled to recover ₹6.29 crore in damages. The arbitral tribunal, consisting of technical experts, evaluated evidence and found the Independent Consultant's damage estimates to be arbitrary and unjustified. The tribunal's conclusions were based on a reasonable interpretation of the evidence, and the limited grounds for setting aside an award under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act were not met.

NBCC INDIA LTD. VS MICRO SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES FACILITATION COUNCIL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15874/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The entitlement of AT&T Engineers Private Limited to benefits under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, despite its registration as an MSME after the awarding of a sub-contract, is a jurisdictional issue for the arbitral tribunal. Additionally, there is a dispute regarding whether the contract qualifies as a works contract or a service contract, which is a mixed question of fact and law for the arbitrator to decide. The matter will proceed with the arbitrator to establish the necessary factual issues through evidence.

NEERAJ AGARWAL VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4848/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Petitioners are entitled to bail under Section 167(2) of the Cr.P.C. because the charge-sheet was not filed within the mandatory 60-day period following their arrest. The police changed the charge from Section 304 IPC to Section 304(I) IPC three days before the deadline but failed to inform the magistrate in time. This oversight deprived the petitioners of their right to default bail. Consequently, the petitioners are to be released on bail under specific conditions as stipulated in Section 167(2)(a)(ii) of the Cr.P.C.

NEETA DEVI VS STATE NCT OF DELHI ANR [CRL.M.C.-3446/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Petitions to quash FIR No. 132/2021 for various IPC offences were dismissed. The petitioners' dissatisfaction with a previous investigation did not justify assaulting the investigating officer. Proper notices were served, and allegations regarding their authenticity would be verified at trial. The decision emphasized caution in quashing proceedings and refrained from assessing the merits of the case or the validity of the submitted documents.

NISHU JAIN VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6834/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's husband, who contracted COVID-19 and remained hospitalized until his death about two months later, is to be considered a COVID-19 death. The decision is based on guidelines stating that deaths within 30 days of a positive COVID-19 test or after hospitalization exceeding 30 days should be recognized as COVID-19 deaths. The respondent authority is directed to release the ex-gratia payment under the COVID-19 assistance scheme to the petitioner.

NITIN SAXENA VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI ANR [CRL.M.C.-6982/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The allegation of gang rape under Section 376D IPC against the petitioner was deemed inherently improbable and likely introduced maliciously by the prosecutrix for vengeance. Material discrepancies existed between her initial complaint and subsequent statements, particularly regarding the introduction of gang rape claims. The timing of the allegations coincided with ongoing civil proceedings involving the petitioner's brother, suggesting that the gang rape elements were falsely inserted. Consequently, the offense under Section 376D IPC was quashed, while the matter was remanded for further proceedings on other charges.

NITISH ANAND VS GARIMA MAGGO & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-887/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Family Court directed the petitioner to pay Rs. 13,000 per month as interim maintenance for his daughter from the date of the application in 2020. This decision was based on the principle that maintenance should be awarded to protect the applicant from financial hardship due to delays. The petitioner was obligated to maintain his daughter, despite his wife's earnings. The challenge to the Family Court's order was dismissed.

NJ BIKES INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS SUZUKI MOTORCYCLE INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-509/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The award of the sole arbitrator was upheld regarding NJ Bikes India Private Limited's claims against the termination of its dealership agreement by Suzuki Motorcycle India Private Limited. The termination was found to be in accordance with the terms of the voluntarily entered agreement. Commercial contracts are deemed determinable, and the challenge on grounds of mala fide was rejected as the Petitioner did not object to the termination clause upon execution. Although the challenge to the arbitral award might have been filed beyond the prescribed three-month period under the Arbitration Act, the case was examined on merits. The arbitrator's decision, based on evidence, did not require interference.

NRUPALBHAI NARENDRABHAI SHAH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-769/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition to quash the FIR against the accused for offenses under Sections 376, 506, and 509 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The prosecutrix's statement under Section 164 CrPC and witness statements established a prima facie case. The evidence presented by the accused was deemed insufficient to quash the FIR at this stage, leaving the matters for trial.

NRUPALBHAI NARENDRABHAI SHAH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-990/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The application for discharge under Section 227 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was dismissed due to a prima facie case against the accused under Sections 376(2)(n) and 506 of the Indian Penal Code. This conclusion was based on the victim's statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C., statements from witnesses accompanying the accused, and the victim's son's statement. The accused's alibi arguments would be addressed at trial, and no issues were found with the decision to not discharge the accused. The petition was dismissed.

OKHLA INDUSTRIAL AREA TEMPO TRANSPORT UNION (REGD.) THROUGH ITS GEN. SECRETARY VS DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD & ANR. [W.P.(C)-919/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Okhla Industrial Area Tempo Transport Union was found to be in lawful possession of premises allotted in 1983 and could not be evicted without due process under the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorized Occupants) Act, 1971. A notice directing the Union to vacate the premises was set aside, and the Respondents were instructed to restore possession within two weeks, allowing for further action in accordance with the Act if necessary. No observations were made regarding the merits of pending disputes with another respondent, M/s J.K.V.B Properties Pvt. Ltd.

ORIEL FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED VS BESTECH ADVISORS PRIVATE LIMITED [W.P.(C)-4209/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition filed by Oriel Financial Solutions Private Limited challenging the arbitrator's rejection of its application under Section 16 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The arbitrator's order was not considered perverse, and there was no inclination to interfere with the order under writ jurisdiction.

ORRIS INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD VS SAANVI INTERIORS INDIA PVT LTD [W.P.(C)-4760/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition filed by Orris Infrastructure Pvt Ltd challenging the arbitral award in favor of Saanvi Interiors India Pvt Ltd was dismissed. A writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution is not maintainable when an arbitral award is challenged under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act. The proper recourse against proceedings under the MSMED Act is to file an application under Section 18(3) of the MSMED Act or Section 16 of the Arbitration Act, followed by filing objections under Section 34 if an award is passed. No observations were made on the merits of the case or the arbitral award due to pending proceedings elsewhere.

OSCAR TOURS AND TRAVELS VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-15737/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Oscar Tours and Travels' writ petition challenging its ineligibility for registration as a Haj Group Organizer for Haj 2022-2023 was dismissed. The experience of the previous sole proprietor does not transfer to the new proprietor, as a sole proprietorship ceases to exist upon the death of the proprietor. The previous experience cannot be considered for eligibility under the new ownership. The firm can apply afresh and undertake necessary Umrah operations for future consideration as an HGO.

OVINGTON FINANCE PVT. LTD. VS BINDIYA NAGAR [O.M.P.(MISC.)(COMM.)-695/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Jurisdiction to extend the mandate of the arbitral tribunal under Section 29A(5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act exists even if the amount in dispute is less than Rs. 2 crore. The definition of "Court" in Section 2(1)(e) requires contextual interpretation for applications under Section 29A. Allowing a subordinate court to replace an arbitrator appointed by the High Court conflicts with the Act's scheme, which restricts arbitrator appointments to the High Court or Supreme Court. The mandate of the arbitral tribunal was extended for one year.

PADI SAI CHANDU REDDY & ANR. VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.M.C.-2853/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The ingredients for offenses under Sections 420, 468, 471, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code were satisfied against petitioners Padi Sai Chandu Reddy and Deva Maneesh. They obtained fraudulent certificates and documents for their visa applications, negating any claims of innocence. A petition to quash the FIR against them was dismissed.

PANKAJ KUMAR MODI VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-241/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The complaint filed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is maintainable despite the underlying debt being time-barred. A time-barred debt can form the basis of a valid promise to pay if reflected in a cheque. Thus, the presumption under Section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Act applies, making the complaint sustainable. The trial court's order dismissing the complaint is set aside, and the complaint is restored for further proceedings.

PANKAJ KUMAR SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3851/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The police unlawfully detained the petitioner, violating his personal liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution. A punishment of censure was deemed inadequate as a deterrent. The petitioner was awarded compensation of R.S. 50,000, to be recovered from the salaries of the responsible police officers. It was emphasized that police officers must adhere to the law, and actions that violate personal liberty will not be tolerated.

PAWAN KUMAR AHLUWALIA & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5717/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition to quash the second FIR (FIR No. 47/2024) was dismissed. The second FIR, while overlapping with an earlier one, involved distinct facts and allegations regarding misappropriation of funds and illegal cement manufacturing and supply, which are not covered by the GST Act. The decision emphasized the importance of allowing the investigation to continue at this early stage.

PETITIONER/AGGRIEVED WOMAN VS STATE OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4063/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Enlive Solutions India Pvt. Ltd. did not establish an Internal Complaints Committee as required by the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013. Mr. Rajat Bansal, a director of the company, was made part of the proceedings to facilitate the Local Complaints Committee's investigation into the sexual harassment complaint. The winding up of the company does not exempt it from obligations under the POSH Act, and meaningful implementation of the Supreme Court's guidelines and the POSH Act must be ensured.

POOJA AGARWAL VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1111/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's bail application is deemed unnecessary as she has already been granted statutory bail in a related matter concerning the same FIR No. 210/2022, which involves multiple IPC offences. The present bail application is therefore disposed of as it lacks purpose given the prior bail.

PRABHJOT SINGH ANAND ALIAS HAPPY VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2306/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Prabhjot Singh Anand was granted bail pending arrest for alleged offenses under Sections 376 and 323 of the Indian Penal Code. The allegations by the prosecutrix indicated a pattern of harassment and repeated acts of rape since January 2024. However, a potential landlord-tenant dispute was highlighted due to the legal notice sent by the petitioner demanding rent. The petitioner had cooperated with the investigation, which was at an advanced stage, and stringent conditions were imposed to prevent any threats to the prosecutrix or tampering with evidence.

PRADEEP KUMAR VS X [CRL.REV.P.-712/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's challenge to the lower courts' orders granting the respondent interim maintenance of R.S. 3,000 per month and prohibiting dispossession from the matrimonial home was dismissed. There was prima facie material indicating a relationship in the nature of marriage between the petitioner and respondent, despite the petitioner's claim that the respondent was not his legally wedded wife. The interim orders were not interfered with, as the final determination of the respondent's status will be addressed in the proceedings under the Domestic Violence Act.

PRADEEP SINGH SANGWAN VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2601/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The FIR against the petitioner for cheating and misappropriation will not be quashed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Allegations indicate the petitioner misrepresented himself as the sole property owner while being a co-owner with two others. The power to quash an FIR should be used sparingly and typically not for assessing the reliability of allegations unless they are clearly absurd. The petitioner retains the right to present arguments during the charge framing or if the offense is compounded.

PRASHANT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-13668/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's application was dismissed due to failure to obtain the minimum qualifying scores required by the National Rifle Association of India's Match Book for participation in the desired shooting competitions. Without meeting the eligibility criteria, the petitioner could not have his requests granted.

PRASHANT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4298/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner, having participated only in 10M air pistol competitions, is ineligible to import 0.22 and 0.32 sports pistols. The criteria for being a "renowned shooter" under the Import Policy requires participation in 25M standard pistol or 25M center fire pistol events. Therefore, the request to import the specified firearms was dismissed.

PREET KAUR AND ANR VS BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-11139/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Lookout circulars (LOCs) issued against the petitioners by the Union Bank of India were deemed unsustainable, as inability to repay loans does not meet the threshold of being "detrimental to the economic interests of India." The right to travel abroad under Article 21 cannot be restricted solely due to loan defaults or business failures without exceptional circumstances affecting the economy. A recent judgment by the Bombay High Court quashed provisions allowing public sector bank heads to request LOCs. Consequently, the LOCs against the petitioners were quashed, with no observations made regarding separate LOCs from the CBI.

PREETI CHAWLA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2432/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Preeti Chawla was granted regular bail in a case under the NDPS Act. Co-accused were found at her residence, but no direct evidence tied her to drug trafficking. The recovered quantity of 4,074 grams of marijuana was below the commercial threshold. Bail conditions included security, movement restrictions, and regular police reporting.

PRIYANKA DHAWAN VS NAVDEEP DHAWAN [CRL.M.C.-3079/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The husband, earning a net monthly income of approximately Rs. 2,40,000, is obligated to provide adequate maintenance for his wife and minor child. The interim maintenance amount was increased from Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 75,000 per month, starting November 1, 2024. This adjustment considered inflation, the cost of living, and the need to prevent destitution for the dependent family members while reflecting the standard of living during the marriage.

PSK ENGINEERING CONSTRUCTION AND CO VS NATIONAL PROJECTS CONSTRUCTION CORPORATION LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15370/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition was dismissed due to the nature of the dispute being a commercial contract issue, which cannot be challenged through this writ. It was stated that the appropriate remedy for such disputes is a civil suit, not a writ petition. The argument regarding unequal bargaining power was also rejected, emphasizing that this doctrine does not apply to commercial contracts.

R VS THE UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16751/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Feticide was deemed unjustified and unethical since the fetus had no abnormalities. A previous judgment allowed a petitioner, experiencing severe depression and suicidal ideation after her husband's death, to undergo a medical termination of her 32-week pregnancy. The petitioner was directed to deliver at a government hospital, with costs covered by the central or state government. If the petitioner chooses adoption for the child, the government will facilitate the process.

R VS THE UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16751/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A widow was granted permission for a medical termination of her pregnancy, which exceeded the 24-week legal limit, due to extreme trauma and suicidal tendencies following her husband's death. It was recognized that her changed circumstances justified the decision, and the termination procedure was to be performed at AIIMS, with the understanding that this decision was specific to her case.

R. KRISHNAMURTHY AND CO. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4180/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi to debar R. Krishnamurthy and Co. from participating in tenders for five years was upheld. Reasons for the debarment were recorded, though not communicated to the petitioner, which supported the order. Disputed questions of fact regarding delays in work completion were identified as contractual disputes unsuitable for adjudication under Article 226. The debarment was deemed proportionate to the alleged misconduct of failing to complete work despite significant delays, which caused public inconvenience. The writ petition and all pending applications were dismissed.

RAHUL DILIP SHAH VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-13790/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Look Out Circular (LOC) against petitioner Rahul Dilip Shah is valid, issued by the Economic Offences Wing (EOW), Mumbai, as per guidelines from the Ministry of Home Affairs. The Bureau of Immigration lacks the jurisdiction to challenge this request. A cognizable offense under Sections 420, 406, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was registered against Shah, who did not cooperate with the investigation. As a US citizen without substantial ties to India, he poses a flight risk that justifies the LOC. However, the LOC should not be indefinite and should be reviewed periodically to respect the right to travel under Article 21 of the Constitution. The writ petition is dismissed, with the option for Shah to seek to quash the LOC after the investigation concludes or following the resolution of a related petition in Bombay.

RAHUL SINGH VS BANK OF BARODA [CRL.M.C.-5808/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's request to quash a criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was denied. There was no evidence of a settlement between the petitioner and the Bank, as the one-time settlement offer made by the builder was not accepted. The petitioner may present evidence during the trial to demonstrate that agreements were made and liabilities discharged. The petition was dismissed, emphasizing that quashing a criminal complaint should be an exception.

RAJESH KUMAR MEHTA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11707/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular (LOC) against the petitioner was issued solely for failure to repay a loan where he was a guarantor, without any accompanying criminal proceedings. This was deemed arbitrary and unjustly restricted his right to travel abroad. LOCs cannot be issued merely for financial recovery without criminal charges. The LOC against the petitioner was subsequently quashed.

RAJIV AGGARWAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7093/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Look Out Circular (LOC) against the petitioner, requested by Bank of Baroda, cannot be upheld due to the absence of a criminal case or FIR. The interpretation of "detrimental to the economic interests of India" requires a significant economic impact, which is not established in this case. The petitioner's inability to repay a bank loan, as a nominee director, is insufficient for issuing an LOC and infringes on the fundamental right to travel abroad. The LOC against the petitioner is quashed.

RAJIV JAIN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6110/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Lookout Circulars (LOCs) issued against the petitioners by Punjab National Bank, Bank of Baroda, and Indian Bank are invalid, as inability to repay loans does not meet the requirement of being "detrimental to the economic interests of India" for issuing such LOCs. LOCs cannot be issued solely at the request of banks; the issuing authority must assess whether the person's departure would harm India's interests. Previous judgments emphasize that bank heads lack the authority to request LOCs. Although the petitioners are accused in CBI FIRs, the discussion was limited to LOCs initiated by banks.

RAJPAL SINGH VS ISHPREET KAUR, [CRL.L.P.-250/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The decision to acquit the accused in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. While Section 139 creates a presumption that the cheque was issued to settle a debt or liability, the accused successfully rebutted this presumption by presenting a probable defense. The trial court's evaluation of evidence, including multiple similar complaints filed by the complainant and family members against the accused, was deemed plausible and reasonable. The complainant's petition for special leave to appeal was dismissed.

RAKESH KUMAR VS M/S NIVEDAN FIN INVEST LEASE LTD. [CRL.M.C.-1899/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The magistrate should have conducted an inquiry under Section 202 of the Criminal Procedure Code before issuing summons to an accused residing outside the court's jurisdiction. The issuance of summons was set aside and the matters were remanded to the concerned magistrates for further action in accordance with established legal principles.

RASHIDA KHATOON VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2610/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Rashida Khatoon was granted regular bail in a case involving serious charges under the Indian Penal Code. The assessment included the nature of the accusations and the possibility of flight or evidence tampering. Khatoon's involvement was limited to restraining the complainant's sister rather than participating in the stabbing. Personal circumstances and trial progress influenced the decision to grant bail with specific conditions.

RASHMI CHHABRA & ANR. VS STATE [CRL.REV.P.-1062/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition by Rashmi Chhabra and another challenging the framing of charges resulted in their discharge from charges under the Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act, 1986, and the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976, as the child involved was over 14 years old and there was no evidence of a debt-bonded relationship. However, charges under Section 370(4) IPC for trafficking of a minor will proceed to trial, as the facts suggest that the necessary elements of the offence may be present.

RAVI RAJ @ RAV I KUMAR VS GOVT. OF N.C.T. OF DELHI, THROUGH ITS SECRETARY, DELHI [CRL.M.C.-380/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The ingredients of offenses under Sections 415, 416, 420, and 468 of the Indian Penal Code are present against the petitioner. The petitioner impersonated Raushan Chaturvedi to take an exam, which constitutes cheating and cheating by personation under Sections 417 and 419. Charges under Section 420 for cheating and Section 468 for forgery are valid, with no limitation period for these offenses. The petitioner's challenge to the charges is dismissed.

REEBOK INDIA COMPANY VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1546/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Registrar of Companies justified the rejection of Reebok India Company's application to convert from an unlimited liability company to a limited liability company, citing reasons such as negative net worth, pending investigations, and non-compliance with the 2016 rules. These reasons were deemed valid for protecting the interests of creditors and stakeholders. The writ petition challenging the rejection was dismissed.

RENU CAPRIHAN & ANR. VS SANGEETA GROVER [CS(OS)-709/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The terrace is designated as a common area accessible to both parties, with the defendant prohibited from disturbing the plaintiffs' terrace garden. The previous order was modified to permit the defendant to lease her basement portion, provided it does not interfere with the plaintiffs' ultrasound clinic. These arrangements are interim and do not affect the final determination of the parties' rights in the main suit.

RIDDHI SIDDHI ASSOCIATES VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6928/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) debarred contractor Riddhi Siddhi Associates from participating in future tenders for three months due to misconduct involving a violent incident at a toll plaza. The NHAI's debarment authority was recognized despite it not being explicitly stated in the contract. Proper procedure was followed, including issuing a show-cause notice and allowing a response. The debarment was deemed reasonable and proportionate to the misconduct. Arguments claiming the debarment was arbitrary were rejected, as NHAI's actions regarding the toll plaza's operation were considered separate. The decision was upheld as compliant with principles of natural justice.

RITU BHARADWAJ & ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2254/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Orders under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 were upheld, directing the respondents to provide alternate accommodation or pay Rs. 60,000 per month in rent. The situation included family acrimony, complaints, and a pending civil suit for partition. While findings on property title were not conclusive, the order prioritized the interests of the senior citizen involved. The monthly rent was increased from Rs. 25,000 to Rs. 60,000 due to the needs of a wheelchair-bound petitioner, with the amount to be adjusted upon resolution of the civil suit.

RIYAZ VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1710/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Bail was granted to Riyaz, accused of offenses under Sections 363/376 IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act. The case is viewed as stemming from a "love affair" with the 16-year-old prosecutrix, who is close in age to the petitioner. There are indications that the prosecution may have been initiated by the prosecutrix's family. The situation is noted as a "legal grey area" concerning consensual relations between minors and young adults, and further custody could lead to the petitioner becoming a "hardened criminal." Bail was issued with specific conditions, with no comments made on the case's merits.

RK INDUSTRIES UNIT II LLP THROUGH ITS AUTHORISED SIGNATORY SHRI JINAY BATUKBHAI PATEL VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16612/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition challenging the actions of liquidator Mr. Sundaresh Bhat in the liquidation of ABG Shipyard Limited was dismissed. The liquidator was exonerated of charging non-refundable participation fees but found guilty of overpaying a support service. The suspension order against the liquidator was modified to cover the period already undergone.

ROADWINGS INTERNATIONAL PRIVATE LIMITED VS CONTAINER CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13824/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's claim under an arbitral award for R.S. 109.03 crore is covered by the Vivad Se Vishwas-II (Contractual Disputes) Scheme. The respondent's arguments against the claim, including the challenge to the award, ongoing insolvency proceedings, and opting out of the scheme after the deadline, were rejected. The respondent's actions were deemed arbitrary and in violation of the principle of legitimate expectation. The respondent must present an offer to the petitioner within two weeks.

S VS THE UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1444/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition filed by an unmarried 20-year-old female student for permission to terminate her 28-week pregnancy was dismissed. Under the Medical Termination of Pregnancy (MTP) Act, termination beyond 24 weeks is allowed only to save the woman's life or in cases of substantial fetal abnormalities with medical board approval. The medical report indicated no congenital abnormalities in the fetus and no danger to the mother's health, failing to meet the criteria for termination. Therefore, the request for termination was deemed legally impermissible.

SA INFRASTRUCTURE CONSULTANTS PVT LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-4181/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) debarred SA Infrastructure Consultants Pvt Ltd for 3 months and imposed a penalty of Rs. 20 lakhs due to serious deficiencies in the Detailed Project Report (DPR), including terminology discrepancies and missing details that caused changes in scope and claims. The NHAI's process was deemed fair and transparent, with the punishment aligned with the consultancy agreement. No violation of natural justice principles occurred, as a committee member involved signed the final debarment order. The writ petition challenging the NHAI's order was dismissed.

SABIB VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's application for bail was dismissed due to accusations of aggravated penetrative sexual assault against his 8-year-old daughter, a crime under the POCSO Act that carries severe penalties, including life imprisonment or death. The victim provided consistent statements to authorities, supporting the presumption of the accused's guilt under the POCSO Act. The focus on protecting children's best interests and the consideration of the victim's potential long-term mental trauma were critical factors in the decision to deny bail.

SACHIN KUMAR AGGARWAL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-6489/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The victim has a right to participate in criminal proceedings, including during arguments on charge, although this participation is subordinate to the Public Prosecutor. The victim's counsel cannot contradict the Prosecutor's arguments but may assist by addressing gaps. A complete denial of the victim's right to make arguments is an error; the victim is entitled to be heard, with the extent of participation at the court's discretion.

SAHADEO BAHADUR VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13584/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner could not be considered a citizen of India by birth due to insufficient proof of being born in India in 1962. Evidence presented, including father's employment records, did not establish this. Under the Citizenship Act, without clear evidence of birth in India, citizenship by birth was denied. The petitioner, married to an Indian citizen since 1993, may apply for citizenship by registration. The application for citizenship by registration should be considered expeditiously. The writ petition was dismissed, but the petitioner was given the opportunity to pursue registration.

SAHIL VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2419/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The case involves a love affair between a 21-year-old petitioner and a 17-year-old prosecutrix, raising issues around consensual sex among minors and young adults. Due to the prosecutrix's inconsistent statements, previous instances of going missing, and the young ages of both parties, bail was granted to the petitioner with specific conditions. No observations were made on the merits of the case, focusing instead on the unique facts and circumstances.

SAJJAD ALAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2013/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Bail was denied to the petitioner accused of aggravated penetrative sexual assault of a 9-year-old under the POCSO Act. Factors included the serious nature of the offense, the severity of potential punishment, and the risk of the petitioner tampering with witnesses or absconding. A prima facie case was established based on the victim's consistent statements, and concerns about pressure on the victim's father, an employee at the accused's hotel, were noted. Thus, bail was not granted at this stage.

SAMIDA KHATOON VS STATE (NCT) OF DELHI& ORS [CRL.REV.P.-694/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Child Welfare Committee (CWC) lacked jurisdiction to order wage payments to a child assisting in a private household, as the situation differed significantly from a previous case regarding child trafficking. The child was not employed but was brought to the petitioners' home by her mother for safety, providing some assistance in looking after their child. Although the petitioners were noted to have a responsibility for the child's education and development, an order to pay the child R.S. 4,000 monthly from October 2013 to October 2017, plus R.S. 25,000 in compensation for the loss of her childhood, totaling R.S. 2,21,000, was upheld.

SANAULLA ZULFIQAR AHMED KHAN VS STATE OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1785/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition seeking to quash an FIR for cheating under the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The complainant in the current case was found to be different from a previous one in Bangalore with similar facts, establishing that the two FIRs were not related to the same incident. The accused had allegations of defrauding multiple individuals of a significant amount of money. Careful consideration is required when exercising the power to quash an FIR under the Criminal Procedure Code.

SANDEEP KUMAR BHATT VS INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY BOARD OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15588/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The registration of Sandeep Kumar Bhatt as an Insolvency Professional was suspended for two years due to his failure to protect the assets of the Corporate Debtor, incomplete record handover to the Liquidator, and allowing suspended ex-directors to transfer funds from the Corporate Debtor's account. These actions violated multiple provisions of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code and Regulations. The investigation and disciplinary proceedings followed proper procedures, and the argument regarding the composition of the Disciplinary Committee being inadequate was dismissed, as no legal requirement exists for more than one member.

SANGEETA CHADHA VS NEW INDIA COLOR COMPANY LIMITED [CRL.M.C.-6552/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Sangeeta Chadha and Nidhi Beri Chadha, wives of the directors of M/s RBT Pvt Ltd, had the criminal complaint against them quashed. Describing the petitioners as "managers" of the company, without specific details about their roles and daily involvement in the business, is insufficient to establish vicarious liability under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The lack of necessary allegations against them resulted in the inability to sustain the complaint.

SANJAY KUMAR & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3307/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Petitioners are unauthorized occupants and trespassers on government land, not entitled to rehabilitation under the DUSIB Act and policy, as their cluster was not recognized by DUSIB. The argument for eviction solely through the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1971, was rejected due to their unlawful status. A detailed survey and rehabilitation plan are only required for JJ clusters identified by DUSIB, not for all encroachments on government land.

SANJAY RAGHUNATH PIPLANI AND ANR VS NATIONAL BUILDINGS CONSTRUCTION CORPORATION DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-824/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Petitioners paid Rs. 76.85 lakhs for a flat in the NBCC Green View Apartments project but were not given possession. Their approach to multiple forums for redressal stemmed from desperation rather than forum shopping. The NBCC, as a state instrumentality, failed to act reasonably and fairly towards home buyers, lacking bona fides. The NBCC is required to refund the full amount with 12% interest from the possession certificate date and to pay Rs. 5 lakhs in compensation for mental agony.

SANJAY SHARMA VS ZUBAIR RIAZ COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS [CONT.CAS(C)-889/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) exceeded its jurisdiction under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act, 2013 by recommending disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner, as there was no finding of guilt of sexual harassment. The petitioner should have approached appellate authorities under the Act instead of filing a writ petition, as an alternate remedy was available. No observations were made on the merits of the case, and the writ petition was disposed of.

SARVODAYA TEXSTYLE PVT. LTD. VS THE STATE(GOVT. OF NCT, DELHI) & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2782/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The application under Section 311 of the Criminal Procedure Code to recall and re-examine the complainant was rejected. The petitioner aimed to address deficiencies in their case, not to serve the purpose of Section 311. The additional evidence requested was deemed non-essential for a just decision, and the rejection of the application in the lower court did not require interference. Multiple criminal petitions were related to this same order.

SARWAN SINGH BHARAJ VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's writ petition against a directive from the Land & Development Office (L&DO) was dismissed. Discrepancies in the original lessee's signatures, compared to the lease deed, were noted, and the petitioner's argument regarding the acceptability of signature changes was rejected. The L&DO's request for the original lessee to appear was deemed justified, with no grounds for interference under Article 227 of the Constitution.

SEEMA DEVI VS SURESH KUMAR [CRL.L.P.-395/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The acquittal of the respondent in a Section 138 case under the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. The trial court's assessment of the evidence and the conclusion that the respondent raised a probable defense against the presumption under Section 139 were not considered perverse. The standard of proof required to rebut the presumption is a preponderance of probabilities, and the accused can utilize the complainant's materials to establish a probable defense. There were no grounds to challenge the trial court's reasona ble perspective.

SEEMA LAL VS PAWAN KUMAR LAL & ANR. [CRL.A.-218/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Proceedings initiated under Section 340 of the CrPC against Seema Lal for perjury were deemed unjustified. It was established that she did not fabricate evidence in the previous proceedings, and her stammering while discussing a loan was insufficient to constitute perjury under Section 195 IPC. The earlier order from April 7, 2021, had already been set aside, and further proceedings would not serve any useful purpose, particularly since the matter originated from matrimonial issues. The appeal was therefore disposed of.

SEEMA LAL VS PAWAN KUMAR LAL & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2732/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The decision of the Additional Sessions Judge to set aside the Metropolitan Magistrate's order granting interim maintenance was upheld. The Metropolitan Magistrate erred by recording the respondent's undertaking to pay maintenance after adjourning the case, as the court becomes functus officio post-adjournment. The Magistrate is directed to reconsider the interim maintenance application without unnecessary adjournments.

SETHI DEVI & ORS. VS CENTRAL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16427/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by residents of servant quarters attached to the National Defence College was dismissed on the basis that they do not qualify as jhuggi jhopri dwellers under the Delhi Slum & JJ Rehabilitation and Relocation Policy, 2015. The policy targets illegal encroachers on government land, and occupants of servant quarters cannot claim entitlement to rehabilitation benefits. Only those in notified jhuggi jhopri bastis under the DUSIB Act are eligible for such benefits, while unauthorized encroachments on government land are ineligible. The petitioners' claims were rejected without any disagreement.

SH UTKARSH GOYEL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10136/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular (LOC) prohibiting the petitioners from traveling abroad, issued at the request of the respondent bank, is unsustainable. There were no criminal proceedings against the petitioners in India, and the bank's recovery efforts were focused outside the country. A mere loan default overseas does not constitute an "exceptional circumstance" to restrict the right to travel, which is protected under Article 21 of the Constitution. The guidelines for issuing LOCs necessitate the presence of a cognizable offence or a threat to the nation's economic interests, none of which were present. The LOCs against the petitioners are therefore invalid.

SH. GAUTAM KANT NIMAAN VS MASTER N & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-238/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Family Court's interim maintenance order of ₹25,000 per month to be paid by the petitioner-father to his two minor children was upheld. The maintenance amount was deemed reasonable based on the petitioner's reported monthly income of approximately ₹51,666. The petitioner's challenges to the order and a request to stay recovery of maintenance arrears were dismissed. The petitioner may approach the Family Court to submit his written statement and request staggered payment of the arrears.

SH. GIAN CHAND & ORS. VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-1805/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The sale of property by M/s J.V. Mercantile Pvt. Ltd. to petitioner no. 1 appears to violate a Debt Recovery Tribunal order that required the bank to deliver the sale deed to the respondent upon payment of Rs. 3.6 crores. The awareness of the petitioners regarding the DRT order is not subject to determination at this stage and will be addressed during the trial. Ongoing investigations suggest that the DRT's orders were disregarded, impacting the respondent's rights. The FIR remains in place, allowing petitioners to present their arguments during charge framing after the investigation concludes and a chargesheet is filed.

SH. LALLAN SAH VS SH. RAVI KUMAR PASI [CRL.REV.P.-988/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The revision petition challenging the conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. The courts below relied on the presumption under Section 139 that the cheque was issued to discharge a debt, as the petitioner did not dispute his signature. Claims that the cheque was taken forcibly and the complaint was motivated were rejected due to lack of supporting evidence and failure to issue a stop payment notice to the bank. The trial court and appellate court's findings were based on sound reasoning.

SH. RAJESH KUMAR GUPTA VS SH. RAJENDER & ORS. [ARB.P.-1261/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A sole arbitrator has been appointed to resolve disputes regarding the sale of a plot of land between the petitioner and respondents. The arbitration clause in their agreement is deemed valid, allowing the arbitrator to address both the limitation and arbitrability of the dispute. The appointment of Mr. Shobhit Chaudhary as the sole arbitrator is made, with arbitration proceedings to occur under the Delhi International Arbitration Centre.

SH. SAHIL CHUGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6623/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Lookout Circulars (LOCs) issued against petitioners, directors of a company and partners in a partnership firm that defaulted on bank loans, cannot be sustained due to the absence of any pending criminal cases. LOCs cannot be issued solely based on bank requests; there must be a justified concern that the person's departure would harm India's economic interests. Consequently, the issuance of LOCs against the petitioners is deemed unjustified and has been quashed.

SHALINI KHANNA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10951/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular (LOC) against Shalini Khanna, issued at the request of the Bank of Baroda, is quashed. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" must pertain to significant economic impact, which was not established with a loan amount of around Rs. 7 crore related to Khanna as a guarantor. She is not an accused in any criminal case, and the CBI noted her lack of prior knowledge of fraudulent acts. If Khanna is later charged, the bank may request a new LOC against her.

SHANKAR HIRACHAND KADAM VS THE STATE OF NCT DELHI (THROUGH SHO HAUZ KHASH) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3160/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of a petitioner accused of repeatedly raping his minor step-daughter was dismissed due to a prima facie case supported by the consistent statements of the prosecutrix. The heinous nature of the crime, potential severe punishment, and the risk of the petitioner threatening or harassing the child were key factors. Granting bail was viewed as likely to defeat the objectives of the POCSO Act and cause further trauma to the vulnerable child. The well-being of the child under the POCSO Act was emphasized as a paramount consideration.

SHEKH ANSAR ALI AND ORS VS DELHI URBBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD [W.P.(C)-1733/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioners' hutments were located outside the slum clusters designated by the Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board for rehabilitation under the DUSIB Policy. Evidence indicated that the hutments were not part of the 657 JJ bastis identified by DUSIB. Consequently, the petitioners did not qualify for the benefits under the DUSIB Policy. The option to file a suit to prove inclusion in the identified clusters or existence before the January 1, 2015 cut-off date was noted. The writ petition was dismissed.

SHELLY NARANG VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4575/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner, a director of the accused company, cannot evade vicarious liability under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act by claiming lack of involvement in daily operations. With only three directors in the company, the petitioner holds responsibility for its business conduct. The requirement for quashing proceedings under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code involves presenting strong evidence of non-involvement, which the petitioner failed to provide. Consequently, the petition was dismissed, and the summoning order against her was upheld.

SHIBU SOREN VS LOKPAL OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13213/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The complaint against a member of parliament cannot be dismissed based on limitation under Section 53 of the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013. The Lokpal must independently assess the material from the CBI to decide on further investigation. Proceedings by the Lokpal should not be interfered with at this stage, and it is responsible for determining the matter after hearing the petitioner. Compliance with timelines under the Act is viewed as directory, emphasizing the goal of addressing corruption in high offices.

SHRI BALAJI ENTERPRISES & ORS VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15601/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by Shri Balaji Enterprises and e-rickshaw purchasers was dismissed due to the availability of an alternative remedy through an appeal under Section 37 of the Arbitration Act. The petitioners did not demonstrate exceptional circumstances that would justify bypassing this statutory remedy. They were granted the opportunity to file appropriate appeals, with the dismissal based solely on the existence of the alternative remedy.

SHRI INDERJEET SINGH BINDRA VS SMT RAMESH KUMARI AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-63/2017]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to declare a power of attorney dated 24.07.1987 as forged was dismissed. The suit was deficient for not initially challenging the power of attorney, and allowing the amendment would prejudice the defendants, making the claim time-barred under the Limitation Act. The amendment was viewed as reviving a dead claim, which was not permitted.

SHRI PRABHAT KAMAL GUPTA VS SHRI ASHOK KAMAL GUPTA [CS(OS)-109/2016]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Memorandum of Family Settlement dated 25.11.2018 is not exempt from stamp duty as it constitutes an agreement to partition property according to shares previously demarcated by court orders, rather than a true family settlement. The plaintiff's application was dismissed, and a stamp duty of Rs. 1,81,49,571.86 is to be paid for the decree.

SHRI PRAKASH DARYANI VS STATE (GOVT.OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5759/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's plea to quash a criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was dismissed. Sufficient averments were established for the petitioner's vicarious liability as a director of the accused company under Section 141. The complaint met the necessary requirements, and the petitioner, being one of three directors, could not claim non-involvement in the company's affairs.

SHUBHAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3137/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Shubham was granted regular bail after being charged under multiple IPC sections and the POCSO Act. The case involved a 17-year-old girl who initially went with him voluntarily but later claimed confinement and coercion to marry. There were contradictions in her statements, highlighting the complexities of teenage relationships. Considering Shubham's age (22) and his time in custody since April 2022, bail was granted with conditions, including no contact with the victim or witnesses.

SHUKLA RANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2048/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular issued against the petitioner by the Punjab National Bank is unsustainable, as inability to repay loans cannot restrict the fundamental right to travel abroad. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" cannot be routinely applied in cases of bank loan defaults. The petitioner is not named as an accused in any CBI FIR, and the CBI has not initiated a Lookout Circular against her. Consequently, the Lookout Circular at the bank's request is quashed, though a future investigation may lead to a new Lookout Circular if involvement is established.

SHYAM GARG AND ANR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANRS [W.P.(C)-14904/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Lookout Circulars issued against the petitioners by the Bureau of Immigration at the request of Bank of Baroda cannot be sustained due to the absence of pending criminal cases in India. The inability to repay bank dues does not justify the issuance of Lookout Circulars, as the right to travel abroad is protected under Article 21 of the Constitution. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" should be applied in exceptional circumstances, rather than routinely. Consequently, the Lookout Circulars were quashed.

SHYAM PRAKASH VS DIRECTORATE OF VIGILANCE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-904/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition seeking a 30-day deadline for the disposal of a complaint against officers of the Delhi Urban Shelter and Improvement Board was dismissed. Authorities need to investigate the complaint and decide based on the facts, without interference unless there is a gross dereliction of duty. The complaint will be addressed in accordance with the law, with no comments made on its merits.

SIYA OMAR THROUGH HER MOTHER AND NATURAL GUARDIAN PRIYANKA GUPTA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11320/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Transplantation of Human Organs Act, 1994 and Rules, 2014 permit live organ donation by minors only under "exceptional medical grounds," though specific guidelines for determining these grounds are lacking, which may lead to arbitrariness. A medical report confirmed a minor's fitness to donate part of her liver to her critically ill father in urgent need of a transplant. Given the circumstances, the minor was permitted to proceed with the donation, and directives were issued for the Union of India to establish guidelines for exceptional medical grounds within 2 months.

SMT. JEETESHWARI JU DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14864/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Territorial jurisdiction was lacking to entertain the writ petition since no part of the cause of action arose within the relevant jurisdiction. The land in question is located in Madhya Pradesh, and the managing office is in Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh. The applicability of Article 363 was discussed but not decided. The question of the petitioner's locus standi remains open due to the land being gifted to the Union of India.

SRI SAI SAMPATH AVIATION SERVICES & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10678/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Airport Authority of India (AAI) debarred the petitioners for three years under Clause 4 of the RFP due to "fraud and corrupt practices." The AAI's decision was based on evidence of close links and common ownership interests between the petitioners' consortium members and a non-scheduled air carrier. Show cause notices issued to the petitioners indicated potential debarment under Clause 4, adhering to established principles. Judicial review of such administrative decisions is limited, and interference occurs only in cases of perverse, irrational, or arbitrary outcomes.

STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI VS KRISHAN KUMAR [CRL.M.C.-5052/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition challenging the trial court's orders granting anticipatory bail to Krishan Kumar, accused of sexual assault, was dismissed. Sufficient reasons for granting bail were identified, including the existence of cross-FIRs, delay in filing the FIR, the COVID-19 pandemic situation, and the filing of the chargesheet, indicating that the trial court's orders were appropriate.

STATE OF KERALA VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7404/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition filed by the State of Kerala successfully challenged the Arbitral Tribunal's decision to include the Petitioner in the arbitration proceedings related to the Concession Agreement between NHAI and Guruvayoor Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. The Petitioner's obligations arise from a separate State Support Agreement, which includes its own arbitration clause. The right to appoint an arbitrator under this agreement cannot be overridden by involving the Petitioner in the Concession Agreement arbitration, to which it is not a party. The Concession Agreement and the State Support Agreement are independent, with the Petitioner limited to providing ancillary support for the National Highway's functioning.

STATE VS NAVEEN KUMAR DHOULPURIA [CRL.M.C.-183/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Charges were framed against the respondent under Sections 419, 420, 468, 471, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code based on evidence that someone impersonated him during an exam, making him the ultimate beneficiary. The evaluation process at the discharge application stage requires only the identification of suspicious circumstances, not a consideration of the merits of conviction. The prior discharge order was set aside, and framing of charges was directed.

SUBLIME SOFTWARE LTD VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-7789/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by Sublime Software Ltd. regarding the blocking of its open-source messaging application "Briar" in Jammu and Kashmir was dismissed. The blocking was justified under Section 69A of the Information Technology Act, 2000, as the application was associated with terrorist activities threatening national security. The procedure for blocking followed the Information Technology (Procedure and Safeguards for Blocking of Access of Information by Public) Rules, 2009. The blocking was specific to Jammu and Kashmir, allowing continued use of the application in other regions of the country.

SUDESH CHHIKARA VS DISTRICT MAGISTRATE WEST DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-1700/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by the daughter-in-law was dismissed. Authorities under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 had jurisdiction over the dispute regarding alleged harassment of the senior citizen. The Appellate Court appropriately remanded the matter to the District Magistrate for fresh consideration, necessitating a new independent report from the SDM and ensuring a proper hearing for both parties, as the previous SDM report was inadequate and lacked sufficient evidence for the eviction order.

SUKHBIR @ BHOLA VS NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1400/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Sukhbir @ Bhola was dismissed due to charges under Section 376 IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act for sexually assaulting a 6-year-old girl. Factors considered included the nature and gravity of the offense, the potential for the accused to flee or reoffend, and the character of the accused. Despite some public witnesses turning hostile, both the victim and her mother supported the prosecution's case, establishing reasonable grounds for believing the petitioner committed the offense. The severity of the crime, the victim's young age, and the risk of the petitioner fleeing or reoffending led to the denial of bail.

SUMAN KALA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15551/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The respondents have implemented the order from 22.05.2018 and are disbursing the revised salary and arrears to the petitioner, an Assistant Teacher in a government-aided school in Delhi. The bank has been directed to release the remaining amounts due, and the petitioner may approach the bank for any further disbursal. No additional directions are necessary, and the petition is disposed of.

SUNDARESH BHAT VS INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY BOARD OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-14389/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India found the Petitioner, as Liquidator of ABG Shipyard Limited, guilty of misconduct for appointing BDO Restructuring Advisory LLP, a firm in which he was a partner, and paying it higher fees than his own. This was deemed contrary to the objectives of the insolvency process. However, the suspension of the Petitioner's registration was adjusted from two years to the 20 months already served. Other charges against him, such as influencing valuers and appointing unregistered valuers, were categorized as irregularities rather than gross misconduct, warranting no suspension, with the IBBI also showing leniency on the influence charge.

SUNITA & ANR VS YOGESH KUMAR [CRL.REV.P.-102/2018]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The lower court's dismissal of the wife's maintenance petitions was set aside. Evidence showed the wife was forced to leave the matrimonial home due to harassment and cruelty related to dowry demands. The wife and her son are entitled to maintenance, with the husband ordered to pay Rs. 5,000 per month from the date of the maintenance application and to clear all arrears within six months.

SUNNY SACHDEVA VS ACP (NORTH), RTI CELL AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-10436/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Public authorities initially provided incorrect information to the petitioner's RTI applications due to an inadvertent error in diary numbers. They later corrected the information and initiated departmental action against the responsible officials. It was determined that the error was not made with malice, and no penalty under Section 20 of the RTI Act was imposed due to the appropriate remedial action taken. The petitioner is allowed to pursue further remedies under the RTI Act if dissatisfied with the responses.

SURINDER MOHAN & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2011/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The orders of the Family Court and the CMM were set aside due to improper cognizance under Section 195 of the CrPC. The Family Court did not file a proper complaint, and the CMM took cognizance without it. The matter was remanded to the Family Court for reconsideration and adherence to the procedure outlined in Section 195 CrPC, if deemed necessary for justice.

SURYA PRAKASH PAL VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3396/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Surya Prakash Pal, accused of sexual offenses against a child under the POCSO Act, was dismissed. Evidence suggested his involvement in the offense, and there were concerns about the potential for him to threaten witnesses or harm the victim if released. Additionally, the possibility of a minimum 10-year sentence raised concerns about him fleeing from justice.

SYED JAMSHED ABBAS VS EASY TRIP PLANNERS LTD. & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4578/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The summons issued against Syed Jamshed Abbas in a complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act cannot be set aside. The complaint adequately establishes his involvement in the daily affairs of M/s Eco Sky Tours and Travels Private Limited, despite discrepancies in company names in master data. A hypertechnical approach to quashing the complaint is not warranted, and Abbas is allowed to present evidence during trial to demonstrate he is not responsible for the company's conduct.

TALIM @ TALIB VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1907/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Bail was denied to Talim @ Talib, who was arrested with 51 kg of ganja and is linked to a national-level drug syndicate. Under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, bail requires reasonable grounds to believe the accused is not guilty and unlikely to reoffend. Evidence suggested Talib's involvement in the offense, and the risk of reoffending upon release was considered significant. The duration of custody, being one-and-a-half years, did not warrant bail at this stage.

THE EXECUTIVE ENGINEER & ORS. VS M/S BHOLASINGH JAIPRAKASH CONSTRUCTION LTD & ANR. [W.P.(C)-14378/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The provisions of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 (MSMED Act) apply to works contracts in addition to contracts for goods and services. A company registered under the MSMED Act can invoke its provisions even after contract execution. A state authority should challenge an arbitral award under the Arbitration Act rather than directly approach the High Court under Article 226. The state authority, aware of arbitration proceedings but failing to participate or challenge the award appropriately, cannot seek the extraordinary remedy under Article 226. Dismissing the writ petition, it was noted that allowing state authorities to bypass the MSMED Act's dispute resolution mechanism would undermine its objectives.

UBABUEZE CHIJIOKE EMMAUNLE @ JOJO VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.A.-507/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The appellant's conviction under Section 14 of the Foreigners Act was upheld for illegally entering and staying in India without a valid passport and visa. A conflict was noted between a previous decision regarding Section 174A IPC and a Supreme Court ruling on the applicability of Section 195 CrPC. The issue will be referred to a larger bench for clarification.

UMESH KUMAR VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-6397/2021]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition seeking to declare members of the Town Vending Committee as frontline COVID-19 warriors and provide Rs. 25 lakhs compensation was dismissed. The petitioner's father was not deployed for COVID-19 duties, disqualifying the family from the government's ex-gratia benefit of Rs. 1 crore for families of those who died on duty. The petitioner's mother received a one-time ex-gratia of Rs. 50,000 under the "Mukhyamantri Covid-19 Parivar Aarthik Sahayta Yojana Scheme." Matters regarding the grant of benefits under such schemes are considered policy decisions not subject to interference.

UNION OF INDIA & ANR. VS M/S AHLUWALIA CONTRACTS (INDIA) LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-485/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Arbitral Tribunal awarded Ahluwalia Contracts (India) Ltd. Rs. 84,01,417 for the cost of water used for curing concrete, instead of the specified pigmented wet curing compound. The Tribunal concluded that the use of water was outside the contract's scope since the rates were based on the specified compound. The decision was based on careful consideration of evidence and contract terms. The claim was appropriately analyzed under the contract provisions, rejecting the argument that it should have been made under Clause 12 relating to extra items.

UNION OF INDIA VS DISTRIBUTION LOGISTICS INFRASTURCTURE PVT. LTD. [O.M.P. (COMM)-205/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition by the Union of India challenging the arbitral award in favor of Distribution Logistics Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The Union of India failed to establish grounds for setting aside the award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The arbitral tribunal thoroughly examined the concession agreement and evidence, rejecting the claim for stabling charges based on incorrect facts. The arguments presented were factual and did not indicate a conflict with public policy or patent illegality. Reappraisal of evidence was not permitted, and the award was deemed to stand without interference.

UOI AND ANR VS RAKESH K GUPTA [W.P.(C)-7294/2010]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The respondent is entitled to information sought in points 1, 2, and 4 of the request, aligning with the RTI Act's goal of transparency. However, information in points 5, 6, and 7, which pertains to third-party personal information, remains exempt under Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act unless a larger public interest is demonstrated. The respondent may inspect the relevant part of the vigilance register concerning his own complaints, with other information redacted.

UP STATE BRIDGE CORPORATION LIMITED & ANR. VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE [W.P.(C)-3256/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by UP State Bridge Corporation Limited, challenging its designation as a "Non-Performer" and subsequent debarment from bids, was dismissed due to unresolved factual disputes about work progress and contractual obligations. The existence of an arbitration clause in the contract necessitated referral to arbitration for dispute resolution. No interim relief was granted, with the matter to be decided by the appropriate tribunal under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

USHA SINDHU VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11502/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular against a non-executive director of a company that defaulted on bank loans was quashed. Inability to repay bank loans, without any pending criminal case, does not justify such a circular and violates the fundamental right to travel under Article 21 of the Constitution. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" cannot be broadly interpreted to include all bank defaults. The petitioner was neither a signatory to the restructuring agreement nor a personal guarantor, making the Lookout Circular unjustified.

UTTAM TAGARAY VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-5662/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Sufficient material exists against the Petitioner to justify the filing of the charge-sheet and taking cognizance. The charge-sheet indicates the Petitioner, along with co-accused, approved fraudulent PF claims while abusing their official positions. The FIR, charge-sheet, and summoning order cannot be quashed at this stage, as the power to quash should be exercised sparingly and a detailed inquiry into the allegations' reliability is not appropriate at this time. Observations are limited to the issue of quashing and do not address the case's merits.

V VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4686/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The order granting bail to Respondent No. 2 in a rape, criminal intimidation, and outraging modesty case was upheld. The trial court's decision was based on the absence of rape allegations in the initial complaint and the filing of the chargesheet. Strong circumstances are required for cancelling bail, which were lacking in this case. The petition was dismissed due to insufficient grounds to challenge the trial court's bail decision.

VANITHA DHANUK VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-5969/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petition challenging the bail granted to the respondent was dismissed, as there was no justification to interfere with the lower court's order. The respondent faced charges under sections 451/506/509/149 IPC and was discharged from the SC/ST Act charges. The parties involved are neighbors with cross-complaints, and it was concluded that the cancellation petition aimed to exert pressure on the respondent.

VASISHTA MANTENA NH04 JV & ORS. VS BLACKLEAD INFRATECH PVT LTD [O.M.P. (COMM)-419/2023]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The petitioners' challenge to the arbitral award was filed beyond the 3-month limitation period stipulated by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The initial filing without the arbitral award was deemed invalid, and the final filing on 25.09.2023 occurred after the allowed 3-month plus 30-day period. The applicability of the General Clauses Act or the Limitation Act to extend the filing period was not recognized, resulting in the dismissal of the petition as time-barred.

VEMPARALA SRIKANT AND ANR. VS GENERAL SECRETARY, INDIA BULLS CENTRUM FLAT OWNERS WELFARE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY, HYDERABAD [W.P.(C)-11375/2022]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The High Court of Delhi lacked territorial jurisdiction to entertain a writ petition challenging orders from consumer forums in Hyderabad regarding maintenance charges. The case's entire cause of action arose in Hyderabad, and the only link to Delhi was the location of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission. The High Court of Telangana was deemed the more suitable forum for this matter. The writ petition was dismissed, directing the petitioners to approach the High Court of Telangana.

VESUVIUS INDIA LIMITED VS STEEL AUTHORITY OF INDIA LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2250/2024]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The order issued by SAIL on 10.02.2024 effectively blacklisted the petitioner without following due process as per SAIL's guidelines and Supreme Court principles. The Standing Committee initially recommended against banning the petitioner, but a Higher Level Committee later restricted business dealings. The petitioner was also marked as "disqualified" in other SAIL tenders due to these restrictions. The process used by SAIL for the potential blacklist was not legally compliant, leading to the setting aside of the order while allowing SAIL to take further action in accordance with the law.

VI EXPORTS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA, MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE THROUGH DIRECTOR GENERAL, DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF FOREIGN TRADE [W.P.(C)-11649/2023]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The writ petition by VI Exports India Private Limited for the export of 11,000 MT of non-basmati white rice was dismissed due to non-fulfillment of conditions in the government's export prohibition notification. The ship had not arrived before the notification took effect, the rice had not entered the customs station for export before the deadline, and export duties were unpaid by that time. The doctrines of substantial compliance and intended use were not applicable, as the notification aimed to address the country's internal needs. Thus, compelling the government to breach its notification was not permissible.

VIJAY KESHAO KAMBE VS TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT BOARD & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-6769/2024]
Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad
The petitioner, a director of the accused company, can be held vicariously liable under Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, for the dishonor of the cheque issued by the company. The principles established in prior judgments indicate that directors responsible for the company's business can incur such liability. As there were no indications that the petitioner was an independent or non-executive director, the requirements of Section 141 were met. The petitioner must present evidence during the trial to argue against vicarious liability.

VIKAS GOEL VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-14837/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The Lookout Circular against the petitioner, a director and guarantor of a company that defaulted on bank loans, cannot be sustained due to the absence of criminal proceedings. The right to travel abroad, as protected under Article 21 of the Constitution, cannot be restricted solely based on inability to repay loans. The term "detrimental to the economic interests of India" cannot be applied in all cases of loan defaults. Therefore, the Lookout Circular against the petitioner was quashed.

VIKASH KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-4891/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The FIR against the petitioner under the Delhi Prevention of Defacement of Public Property Act, 2007 was quashed due to concerns about the fairness of the investigation, as the complainant and the investigating officer were the same person. This situation raised doubts about the integrity of the investigation, highlighting the need for separation between the informant and the investigator to uphold constitutional guarantees.

VINEET KUMAR GUPTA VS INTEC CAPITAL PVT. LTD [CRL.M.C.-6744/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

A complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act against a director of an accused company is maintainable when it includes sufficient allegations of the director's involvement in the company's conduct and business. The director's attempt to quash the complaint was rejected due to a lack of evidence proving he was not responsible for the company's affairs. The necessary elements to proceed against the director were present in the complaint, allowing for the possibility to present defense evidence during the trial.

VINOD KUMAR MALIK VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3170/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition by Vinod Kumar Malik challenging the unilateral extension of his toll collection contract by the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) was dismissed. The contract's terms permitted a one-month extension beyond the initial three-month period, binding the petitioner to these conditions. Claims of NHAI's arbitrary failure to initiate a fresh bidding process were rejected, emphasizing the need to adhere to mutually agreed contract terms. The extension of the contract remains valid until 22/04/2024.

VIPHIL JAIN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3093/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of Viphil Jain, the leader of a racket producing and selling fake cancer injections, was dismissed. Despite co-accused receiving bail, Jain's role as the main orchestrator and the likelihood of evidence tampering and reoffending were significant factors. His qualifications and connections further influenced the decision against granting bail.

VISHAL KHULLAR VS THE STATE (GOVERMENT OF NCT DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-226/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The FIR against the petitioner was not quashed due to ongoing investigation and the presence of a well-established cartel. Delay in the investigation alone was insufficient for quashing. The allegations under Sections 420, 468, 471 IPC and Section 12 of the Passports Act were found to be satisfied, as the petitioner possessed a counterfeit Schengen visa. The writ petition seeking to quash the FIR was dismissed based on these findings.

XX VS STATE OF GNCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS NEW ASHOK NAGAR DELHI & ORS. [CRL.REV.P.-1135/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

Respondent No.2 (Rajeev Rathi) and Respondent No.3 (Preeti Rathi) were discharged from offences under Sections 506 and 509 IPC due to insufficient evidence and allegations failing to meet the crucial elements of the charges. Mere expressions lacking the intention to cause alarm do not constitute criminal intimidation or insult to a woman's modesty. The evaluation of the case facts and applicable laws supported the decision to discharge the accused.

XXX VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.A.-739/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The appeal by the complainant against the acquittal order was dismissed due to improper filing, as it should have been presented to the Sessions Court. The available remedy for appeal precluded the use of suo motu powers. The appellant is permitted to file the appeal before the Sessions Court, with no consideration of the time taken for the current appeal's disposal.

XXXX VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-979/2022]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The petitioner's application for cancellation of the respondent's bail was dismissed. The trial court's reasoning for granting bail was deemed reasonable, with no new circumstances presented to justify cancellation. The respondent's mobile phone, which contained the alleged video, had been seized, and both parties resided in the same locality, reducing the likelihood of threats or evidence tampering. The respondent's legal actions against the petitioner were not viewed as attempts to intimidate witnesses or the complainant.

YAMIN ALI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3589/2024]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The writ petition challenging the appointment of Respondent No.2 as Administrator of the Delhi Waqf Board was dismissed due to the petitioner's failure to provide valid reasons regarding qualifications under Section 99 of the Waqf Act, 1995. The challenge was deemed an abuse of the process of law as the petitioner had previously been advised to approach the Tribunal for specific actions of the Administrator. A cost of Rs.10,000 was imposed on the petitioner to be deposited with the Armed Forces Battle Casualties Welfare Fund.

YOGESH @ SONU VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-3588/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The bail application of petitioner Yogesh @ Sonu, charged with murder under Sections 302, 120B, and 34 IPC, was dismissed. Testimony from eyewitness Vijay identified the petitioner as one of the assailants. Given the serious nature of the offense, concerns about the petitioner potentially absconding or intimidating witnesses, and other relevant factors, bail was deemed inappropriate at this stage.

ZENITH LEISURE HOLIDAYS LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-638/2023]

Judges: Justice Subramonium Prasad

The empanelment of Zenith Leisure Holidays Ltd. was kept in abeyance for six months, and a penalty of Rs. 2 lakhs was imposed due to the company's use of LPG cylinders in a train's pantry car, violating a prohibition on flame-based cooking. This action was deemed appropriate given the risk posed to passenger safety. The argument that the petitioner was unfairly targeted was rejected, as another provider's empanelment was also suspended, and three other providers faced termination for similar violations.

A TO Z PRODUCTIONS VS PRASAR BHARTI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-5505/2013]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The approval letter dated 24.04.2009 from Prasar Bharti to the petitioner did not create a binding contract, as there was no clear acceptance to convert the proposal into a promise. Prasar Bharti justifiably halted the proposal processing due to the petitioner's failure to submit the required audited balance sheets despite multiple requests. The petition was dismissed due to disputed questions of fact and issues of delay and laches.

AKASH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3102/2022]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Akash was granted bail following his arrest under Section 363 IPC for the alleged kidnapping and sexual assault of a minor girl. He was not named in the victim's statements or identified during the Test Identification Parade. His implication relied solely on disclosure statements from co-accused. Two co-accused had already received bail, and Akash's alibi, supported by call detail records and tower location, indicated he was outside Delhi during the incident. The lack of direct evidence against him led to the decision to grant regular bail with certain conditions.

ALI HUSSAIN S/O MOHD. ALI VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-708/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Ali Hussain was convicted for offences under Sections 394/397/411/34 IPC. The complainant's testimony was reliable and consistent, supported by evidence such as the medical report, recovery of stolen items, and the ransacked state of the house. The knife used by Ali Hussain was deemed a deadly weapon, fulfilling the criteria for Section 397 IPC. The appeal was dismissed, upholding the conviction and sentence from the trial court.

AMBUJA CEMENT LTD. VS COLLECTOR OF STAMPS, DELHI [W.P.(C)-5638/2014]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The show-cause notice and impugned order issued by the Collector of Stamps were quashed due to the scheme of amalgamation between the petitioner and its wholly owned subsidiary ACIPL being exempt from stamp duty under the 1937 Notification, as both companies were subsidiaries of a common parent. The Collector acted beyond its jurisdiction, as the orders were not made under Sections 31 or 33 of the Indian Stamp Act, and the argument regarding suo motu power under Section 47A(3) was rejected due to the notice being issued beyond the two-year limitation period.

AMIT AGGARWAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-2073/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Amit Aggarwal received anticipatory bail in a money laundering case under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). Key evidence against him involved statements from co-accused, which require testing at trial. No "proceeds of crime" were identified from the alleged fabrication of Form 15CB certificates. His medical condition, including multiple kidney surgeries, was also a factor in granting bail. Conditions include cooperation with the investigation, surrendering his passport, and regular check-ins with the investigating officer.

AZAD SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4643/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The second FIR filed by the complainant is valid, as the allegations differ significantly despite some overlapping facts, involving different accused persons and properties. Charges were framed against the petitioners under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, and 120-B IPC, supported by sufficient prima facie material. The dismissal of revision petitions by the revisional court was legally correct.

ARUN KUMAR GURJAR VS CENTRAL BURAEU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.A.-630/2015]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Arun Kumar Gurjar and Baljeet Singh's appeals regarding their conviction under Section 120B IPC and Section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act were accepted, resulting in their acquittal. The prosecution could not establish the demand and acceptance of a bribe, and the complainant's testimony was deemed unreliable due to contradictions. The recovery of tainted money from Baljeet Singh alone was insufficient for a conviction without reliable evidence of bribery. Additionally, the existence of a criminal conspiracy was not proven, as conclusions were based on assumptions rather than solid evidence.

BALAJI MEDICAL AND DIAGNOSTIC RESEARCH CENTRE VS DELHI MINORITIES COMMISSION GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12394/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The complaint against the petitioner hospital was quashed due to the excess of statutory powers by the Delhi Minorities Commission in issuing an ex-parte mandatory injunction for continued treatment. It was established that there was no deprivation of minority community rights, as the respondent was treated for injuries from a road accident. Additionally, the respondent's family requested withdrawal of the complaint and a waiver of the remaining medical bill. The matter was addressed in a single judgment.

BHARAT BHUSHAN & ORS. VS ATUL GUPTA [RC.REV.-196/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The landlord's requirement for the tenanted shop was deemed not bona fide under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. Evidence showed that the landlord had previously filed eviction petitions for other shops, which were sold within a year, casting doubt on the claims of a genuine need. Consequently, the order dismissing the tenant's application for leave to defend was set aside, and the case was remanded for further proceedings.

BRAJ BHAN RAHUL & ORS. VS AGRICULTURAL PRODUCE MARKET COMMITTEE & OTHERS [W.P.(C)-8460/2005]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The cancellation of the petitioners' 'A' Category licenses for selling fruits and vegetables at the Subzi Mandi, Shakarpur Pushta was upheld. The respondents issued show cause notices citing irregularities in the submitted documents and provided the petitioners a reasonable opportunity to respond before the licenses were cancelled. Appeals by the petitioners were dismissed after their arguments were considered. The cancellation orders were found to be justified, with no issues identified in the decision-making process.

CAPT. KARAN MEHTA VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF CIVIL AVIATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8826/2020]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The suspension of the petitioner's airline pilot license for three years was upheld based on two instances of testing positive for alcohol in pre-flight tests in 2011 and 2020, which constituted a repeat violation under the Civil Aviation Requirements. The procedures followed by the Directorate General of Civil Aviation were deemed proper, and the petitioner was given a fair opportunity to present his case. Claims of violated principles of natural justice were rejected, as relevant facts and submissions were adequately considered. Emphasis was placed on passenger safety, indicating that leniency towards erring pilots is unacceptable due to the serious threats posed by such conduct.

CAPTAIN AMIT TYAGI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6427/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) suspended the petitioner's airline pilot license for three years due to a positive pre-flight breath analyzer test, violating the zero-tolerance policy for blood alcohol content in the Civil Aviation Requirements (CAR). Calibration issues of the breath analyzer were deemed unfounded, as the equipment met CAR standards, and blood/urine tests were not mandated. The petitioner also breached CAR by not disclosing an alcohol-containing hair treatment to the company doctor. The suspension was justified due to safety concerns for passengers and past violations, leading to the dismissal of the petition as lacking merit.

CHET RAM SHARMA (DECEASED) THROUGH LR AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [LA.APP.-78/2022]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The acquired land was classified for commercial use within the Nehru Place District Centre, supported by a DDA letter. The appellants were entitled to higher compensation due to the land's location and potential, receiving Rs. 1,12,500 per square yard after a 10% deduction for development costs, along with additional statutory benefits. The appeal was partially successful.

DHEERAJ WADHAWAN VS CBI [BAIL APPLN.-2040/2024]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Dheeraj Wadhawan, facing charges in a CBI case related to DHFL fraud, is granted bail on medical grounds due to serious health issues, including ischemic heart disease, chronic kidney disease, and hypertension. Multiple surgeries have resulted in his classification as a "sick person," despite not requiring immediate hospitalization. The bail application considers his medical condition and the lengthy trial delay, and it includes certain conditions for his release.

VINEET MALU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-6100/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The FIR, chargesheet, and related proceedings against Dr. Harshita Malu, Vineet Malu, and Vikas Malu were quashed based on findings that the allegations lacked credible evidence and were improbable. The allegations were deemed to have been maliciously instituted due to matrimonial discord with Vikas Malu, justifying the prevention of abuse of court process.

DR.JEEVAN KUMAR VS PRABHAKANT [CRL.REV.P.-504/2012]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The prosecution initiated by the Enforcement Directorate under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act cannot continue against the petitioner because the co-accused Dr. Jeevan Kumar was acquitted by the trial court, a judgment that remains unchallenged. Acquittal or discharge of the scheduled offense negates any money laundering offense against the individual or related claimants. The impugned order against the petitioner is set aside, and the ECIR and consequential proceedings are quashed, allowing for the possibility of future proceedings if circumstances change or the Supreme Court reaches a final decision in an ongoing matter.

HARISH KUMAR & ANR VS VIJAY KUMAR AGGARWAL & ANR [RC.REV.-69/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The eviction order favoring the landlords was upheld due to proper service of summons to the tenants, which included publication in a local newspaper. The tenants did not file an application for leave to defend the eviction petition nor submit an affidavit stating their grounds for defense. Thus, the landlords' statements in the eviction petition were considered admitted, allowing for the eviction. No issues were found in the trial court's decisions.

HINDON MERCANTILE LIMITED VS THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA AND ANOTHER [W.P.(C)-1804/2021]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The cancellation of the Certificate of Registration (CoR) for Hindon Mercantile Limited by the Reserve Bank of India was set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh consideration. The petitioner met the minimum Net-Owned Fund (NOF) requirement of Rs.200 lakhs prior to the cancellation. The Reserve Bank of India must decide on the restoration of the CoR based on existing guidelines and communicate the outcome to the petitioner in a timely manner.

M/S BIOSHIELD LIFESCIENCES PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1871/2024]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The order dated 31.01.2024 from the Directorate General of Health Services (DGHS) is invalid as it constituted an improper blacklisting of the petitioner distributors, given that tender terms specified blacklisting provisions only for manufacturers/suppliers. The DGHS failed to adhere to principles of natural justice by not issuing a show-cause notice or allowing a hearing before stopping payments to the petitioners. The order was quashed, permitting DGHS to take proper action in the future after following due process.

HXXX VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-786/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner is entitled to reimbursement of Rs. 1,41,969 for medical treatment at a private hospital, attributed to the negligence of doctors at BJRM and LNJP government hospitals. Additionally, the petitioner receives Rs. 1,50,000 for trauma and pain resulting from the negligence. The total payment of Rs. 2,91,969 must be made by the Government of NCT of Delhi within 4 weeks, with a 9% simple interest per annum applicable for delays.

JAYASWAL NECOM INDSUTRIES LTD. & ANR. VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-78/2009]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The denial of iron ore supply by Steel Authority of India Limited (SAIL) to Jayaswal Necom Industries Ltd. was deemed invalid due to a failure to honor prior commitments. The reservation of the Rowghat 'F' block deposits for SAIL was based on the understanding that it would supply iron ore to the petitioner. SAIL's refusal violated principles of promissory estoppel. Arguments that the communications regarding supply commitments were non-binding and that public interest did not favor relief were rejected. SAIL was ordered to supply 1.6 million tonnes of iron ore per year for 30 years at cost plus 5%, with a requirement for the Ministry of Mines and the State of Chhattisgarh to impose appropriate conditions in SAIL's mining lease.

JEEVAN KUMAR VS DY. DIRECTOR DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.C.-5229/2013]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The complaint by the Directorate of Enforcement against the petitioner under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act cannot be sustained due to the acquittal of the main accused in the predicate offense. If a person is acquitted of the scheduled offense, there can be no money laundering charge against them or those claiming related property. The Enforcement Case Information Report filed by the ED and all consequential proceedings have been quashed, but the ED has the option to initiate new proceedings if circumstances change or based on future Supreme Court decisions on the matter.

K.C. FIBERS LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7886/2013]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

K.C. Fibers Limited is ineligible for the interest reimbursement subsidy under the Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS) for imported second-hand projectile shuttleless looms. The TUFS guidelines at the time of the loan sanction required a maximum vintage life of 5 years and a minimum residual life of 10 years. Although the IMSC later increased the vintage life eligibility to 10 years, this change applied only from the date of the IMSC meeting and not retroactively to the loan disbursement date. The rejection of the subsidy claim was justified.

KISHAN KUMAR & ANR VS VIJAY KUMAR AGGARWAL & ANR [RC.REV.-70/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Service of summons on the petitioners/tenants through publication in "Veer Arjun" was deemed valid under Section 25B of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958, as it followed the mandatory service methods. The petitioners were properly served but did not file an application for leave to defend within the required timeframe, leading to the landlords' statements in the eviction petition being accepted as admitted. This resulted in the trial court's decision to pass the eviction order in favor of the landlords. The revision petition by the petitioners was dismissed due to the absence of any identified flaws in the trial court's orders.

M/S ANANT RAJ PROJECTS LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [LA.APP.-255/2016]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Land Acquisition Collector (LAC) and the reference court undervalued the market value of the appellant's land acquired for a Mass Rapid Transit System project. The fair market value was set at Rs. 65,000 per sq. meter, with a multiplier of 2 according to circle rates. The appellants received additional statutory benefits and proportionate costs. The assessment considered the land's location, nature, potential uses, and sale transactions of comparable properties, leading to enhanced compensation.

M/S G D SEIGELL & CO PVT LTD VS SWARN NIJHAWAN & ORS [RC.REV.-491/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The respondents demonstrated ownership and a landlord-tenant relationship with the petitioner concerning the tenanted premises. A bona fide need for the premises was established due to the medical condition of respondent no. 1 and the requirements of the other respondents. The petitioner's application for leave to defend the eviction petition was dismissed, as no triable issues were raised, resulting in an order for the petitioner's eviction.

M/S NEW HORIZONS ASPHALT PRIVATE LIMITED VS THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOM AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-10336/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

M/s New Horizons Asphalt Private Limited's imported rubber process oil was detained due to non-compliance with relevant testing rules and inadequate communication of test results. The petitioner was not given the chance to request re-testing. The detained goods must be released within four weeks upon payment of applicable customs duties and charges. The detention did not conform to established regulations.

MAHAVEER PRASAD VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-585/2007]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner was convicted under Sections 279/304A IPC and Sections 3/181/185 of the Motor Vehicles Act for causing the death of the deceased due to rash and negligent driving of his motorcycle. Testimony from the complainant, the son-in-law of the deceased, was deemed credible against defense claims that a police gypsy caused the accident. Medical evidence and other circumstances corroborated the prosecution's argument. The sentence was modified to the period already served, taking into account the petitioner's status as a first-time offender and sole breadwinner for his family.

MS. G VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-3320/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The non-consensual explicit video of a 19-year-old social media influencer, recorded without her knowledge, violated her rights and dignity. The video was used for blackmail and leaked online. A comprehensive legal framework exists for addressing non-consensual intimate imagery (NCII), including provisions under the IT Act and the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021. The state police and intermediary platforms like Google, Meta, and Microsoft are directed to work together to swiftly remove the content and prevent its further dissemination. A multi-layered approach is encouraged for effectively tackling such issues, and the petitioner can notify authorities of additional URLs for action. Intermediaries must act promptly to take down the content.

OM PRAKASH ASHOK KUMAR & SONS VS SHRI AJAY KHURANA [RC.REV.-284/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The revision petition filed by the tenant challenging the eviction order is not maintainable, as the landlord has regained possession of the tenanted premises during the petition's pendency. Previous decisions indicate that once possession is taken by the landlord, the petition becomes infructuous and must be dismissed. The tenant's reliance on a separate Supreme Court judgment related to a money decree is considered inapplicable to the rent control issue. The revision petition is dismissed as infructuous.

OM PRAKASH VS SMT. MEENU GUPTA & ORS. [RC.REV.-285/2022]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The relationship of landlord and tenant exists between the petitioner and respondents, with the respondents having a bona fide requirement for the tenanted premises. The respondents became the absolute owners of the property through an oral family partition after Anil Kumar Gupta's death. The petitioner's claims regarding ownership and the landlord-tenant relationship were rejected. The respondents' need to accommodate their unemployed son was deemed genuine, and the petitioner could not dictate the use of the property. Consequently, the petitioner was directed to vacate the tenanted premises.

PANKAJ GOEL VS STATE (THROUGH CBI) [CRL.A.-1202/2015]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The conviction of Pankaj Goel for criminal conspiracy, cheating, and corruption was set aside due to insufficient evidence establishing a conspiracy with co-convict C.B. Singh and contractor Arun Kumar Bansal. As a junior engineer, Goel was not responsible for verifying the invoices submitted by the contractor, which was the contractor's sole responsibility. The appeal was allowed, and the judgment and sentence against Goel were annulled, without addressing the merits of the case against C.B. Singh.

PARMOD GUPTA VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-1278/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Puran Mal Gupta and Pramod Gupta were not liable for criminal trespass and theft concerning a specific premise. Usha Rani Sethi, the licensee, had permitted them to occupy the premise, highlighting the difference between unauthorized occupancy and criminal trespass. Consequently, charges against them were dismissed.

PMI ELECTRO MOBILITY SOLUTIONS PVT.LTD VS CONVERGENCE ENERGY SERVICES LIMITED & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9061/2024]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The respondent's communication canceling the bids and invoking the petitioner's EMDs lacked reasons and violated the principles of natural justice. The impugned communication was set aside, and the respondent was directed to issue a reasoned order after allowing the petitioner an opportunity to be heard.

PRAKASH KAUR & ANR VS STATE (GOVERNMENT OF NCT DELHI) & ANR) & ANR [W.P.(C)-6380/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Ex-gratia compensation of Rs. 8.5 lakhs for the death of Manjeet Kaur is to be distributed equally between the two petitioners, despite a previous settlement agreement that allocated the compensation in a 1:3 ratio to the petitioners' deceased brother and his two children. The respondents are instructed to release the compensation to the petitioners in equal amounts within one month, pending completion of necessary formalities.

PUTZMEISTER INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-8148/2010]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The grant of ex-post facto approval for respondent no. 5's investment in respondent no. 6 violated principles of natural justice due to a change in the committee's composition between the hearing and the final decision, without offering a fresh hearing to the parties. A reconstitution of the committee with the original members is required to hear the parties again and make a decision on the proposal, free from previous recommendations.

RAGHUVINDER SINGH VS PRABHAKANT [CRL.REV.P.-505/2012]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

Prosecution under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) against the petitioner cannot continue because the co-accused in the predicate offense was acquitted, a judgment that remains unchallenged. If an individual is acquitted of the scheduled offense, no money laundering offense exists against them or anyone claiming property linked to that offense. The order framing charges against the petitioner has been set aside, and the Enforcement Directorate may initiate proceedings if circumstances change or based on a final decision in a related pending Special Leave Petition.

RAJ KUMAR SINGH VS VEENA GUPTA ALIAS BEENA GUPTA [RC.REV.-106/2024]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner's challenge to the trial court's dismissal of his application for leave to defend an eviction petition was successful. It was identified that the petitioner was not properly served with the summons because the eviction petition was not published along with it. The petitioner raised issues that warranted consideration, leading to the acceptance of the delay in filing the leave to defend application. The trial court was directed to decide on the application independently within 3 months.

RAJHANS REALTORS PVT LTD VS RAJINDER KUMAR GOYAL & ANR [RC.REV.-557/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The eviction petition was reinstated due to the landlord's genuine and bona fide need for the larger tenanted premises for a growing jewelry business. The suitability of the premises, located on the main market road, was determined to be preferable to the current smaller space. The previous judgment was criticized for being unreasoned and overly influenced by prior orders. An eviction order was issued in favor of the landlord.

RAJIV CHANNA VS DY.DIRECTOR, DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.C.-1622/2013]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

If an accused in a predicate offence is acquitted or the case is quashed, there can be no money laundering offence under Section 3 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002. Consequently, the Enforcement Case Information Report and related proceedings against the petitioner were quashed.

RAJIV CHANNA VS PRABHAKANT , DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.REV.P.-438/2012]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The complaint by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and related proceedings were invalidated because co-accused Dr. Jeevan Kumar was acquitted in the predicate offence, and this judgment remains unchallenged. Following precedent, if a person is acquitted of the scheduled offence, there can be no money laundering charge against them or associated claims. The order was set aside, and the ECIR proceedings against the petitioner were quashed, although the ED may revive the complaint if circumstances change or in light of a related Supreme Court decision.

RANDHIR SINGH AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LA.APP.-265/2024]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The acquired land was classified as semi-urban due to its proximity to developed residential and commercial areas, rather than purely agricultural. Reliance on nearby sale deeds and allotment rates by landowners was rejected. The compensation based on the government's Indicative Price Policy was deemed inadequate. The market value was assessed at Rs. 35,00,000 per acre, leading to enhanced compensation for the landowners along with other statutory benefits.

SACHIN SOLANKI VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-7952/2014]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The Director General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) justified the rejection of the petitioner's request for exemptions to obtain a Commercial Pilot License (CPL) on the grounds that only the Central Government can grant such exemptions under Rule 160 of the Aircraft Rules, 1937. The petitioner was permanently unfit for flying in 2007 due to an abnormal EEG and was only declared medically fit in 2012; however, he still did not meet the other CPL requirements under the Aircraft Rules. The DGCA reviewed the petitioner's representations and issued a reasoned order that was neither arbitrary nor illegal, leading to the dismissal of the writ petition.

STATE VS NARESH YADAV [CRL.REV.P.-94/2017]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The trial court discharged Naresh Yadav from an offense under Section 376 IPC (rape) due to contradictions and gaps in the complainant's statements, along with a lack of corroborative evidence. The investigation record did not provide sufficient grounds to presume Yadav committed the offense, making the discharge order justified.

SANJAY GUPTA VS PRABHAKANT DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT GOVT. OF INDIA [CRL.REV.P.-429/2012]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The prosecution initiated by the Enforcement Directorate against the petitioner under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, is not sustainable due to the acquittal of co-accused Dr. Jeevan Kumar in the predicate offence. According to established legal precedent, if a person is acquitted of the scheduled offence, no money laundering offence can be pursued against them or anyone claiming such property. The order framing charges against the petitioner has been set aside, and the proceedings have been quashed, although the Enforcement Directorate may initiate appropriate proceedings if circumstances change or pending decisions arise on the matter.

SH. GIRDHARI LAL TIWARI VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-5471/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The respondent government followed due process in declaring the petitioner's property as heritage property, which included publishing public notices and allowing for objections. The petitioner is to receive a personal hearing regarding the delisting of the property from the heritage notification, with a decision to be made within two months. No opinion on the merits of the parties' rights and contentions was expressed.

SHRI BISHAN SINGH (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LR SURENDER KUMAR VS PT KANHAIYA LAL BRAHAMCHARI SHIV MANDIR TRUST [RC.REV.-232/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The delay in filing an application for leave to defend the eviction petition was condoned due to the tenant's mistaken belief that the eviction petition was an ordinary suit and the previous counsel's health issues. A precedent indicated that eviction orders can be set aside if the tenant demonstrates reasons beyond their control for the delay and presents a substantial case. Consequently, the eviction order was set aside, and the trial court was instructed to decide the tenant's application for leave to defend within two months.

SHRISTI INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-11422/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The order from the Airport Authority of India (AAI) that restricted the maximum height of Tower-II to 105.58 meters AMSL was set aside due to a lack of valid reasons and proper consideration, violating principles of natural justice. The matter was remanded to the AAI for appropriate action, requiring the recording of valid reasons for its decision.

STATE VS RAJESH KUMAR @ RAKESH [CRL.A.-882/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The trial court erred by acquitting the respondent due to minor discrepancies in the testimony of the sole eyewitness, the complainant. The testimony, along with documentary evidence, proved that the respondent drove the offending vehicle rashly and negligently, resulting in the death of the deceased and injuries to the complainant. The trial court's judgment was set aside, leading to the respondent's conviction under Sections 279/337/304A IPC.

SUBHASH KUMAR JAIN AND ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-13812/2023]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The writ petitions by Vinay Kumar Aggarwal and Subhash Kumar Jain/Urmila Jain were dismissed. The property at nos. 1/12, 1/13, and 1/14 is officially recognized as a single unit by the Land and Development Office (L&DO). The petitioners must apply jointly for conversion from leasehold to freehold in accordance with the Master Plan and regulations. Arguments that the perpetual lease deed from 1931 allowed for individual transfers or compelled the L&DO to convert properties separately were deemed unpersuasive.

SUDERSHAN KUMAR VS SURESH KUMAR GUPTA [RC.REV.-230/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The landlord's revision petition was allowed, and the trial court's dismissal of the eviction petition was set aside. The landlord, a qualified dentist, demonstrated a bona fide requirement for the tenanted premises to establish a modern dental clinic with critical care facilities. The need was deemed genuine, as the existing clinic was insufficient and the tenanted premises represented the most suitable option. The trial court's findings lacked proper evidence assessment and were based on conjecture, leading to the approval of the eviction petition.

SUNFLAG IRON & STEEL CO. LTD. VS UOI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4424/2007]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner's writ petition is maintainable due to the respondents' failure to provide the promised supply of iron ore, constituting an unconscionable departure from assurances, thereby triggering promissory estoppel. A continuous and uninterrupted supply of 2,50,000 metric tons of iron ore per annum is mandated, with SAIL required to make these supplies until appropriate linkage is established by the Union of India. Additionally, an order rejecting the petitioner's application for a prospecting license is set aside, as a prior notification reserving the Rowghat 'F' deposit for SAIL cannot be applied retrospectively to negate the petitioner's rights.

SUNIL KUMAR JAIN VS DINESH BHATIA [RC.REV.-521/2017]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The tenant was granted leave to defend against an eviction petition filed by the landlord under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958 concerning a tenanted shop. The landlord's requirement for the premises appeared to be for business expansion rather than personal use. The tenant raised valid concerns about the landlord's genuine need and alternative accommodations. Previous eviction notices issued by the landlord to other tenants on similar grounds, which were not pursued, were factored into the assessment of the landlord's current claim. The previous dismissal of the tenant's application was overturned, allowing the tenant to contest the eviction petition.

VIJAY KUMAR AND ANR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6461/2018]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The trial court erred in partially decreeing the suit of Vijay Kumar and Chaman Lal based on internal departmental communications, which were not deemed specific admissions under Order XII Rule 6 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The factual and legal issues raised by the Union of India and CEPI require deeper judicial consideration, particularly regarding properties claimed as "enemy properties" vested in CEPI. Amendments to the Enemy Property Act, 2017, have retrospective effect and bar civil court jurisdiction over suits related to enemy properties. The trial court's order and decree were set aside, and proceedings in the civil suit are to continue without influence from this decision, while the notice issued by CEPI is stayed until the civil suit's resolution.

YOGENDRA MITTAL VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-6183/2019]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The order framing charges against the petitioner under sections 120B IPC and sections 7 and 13(1)(d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 was set aside due to insufficient evidence. The material from the investigation, including the accused's disclosure statement, audio/video recordings, and section 164 CrPC statement, did not establish a prima facie case. The statement under section 164 CrPC was deemed weak as the accused withdrew the application to become an approver, leading to the discharge of the petitioner from the charged offences.

YOGESH CHANDER BHARDWAJ VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-7931/2014]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The petitioner, as the successor-in-interest of Harpiari, is not entitled to execute a lease deed for an alternative plot. The recommendation letter dated 05.02.1979 for the allotment of the plot was deemed not credible, as the Land & Building Department denied issuing it and the document showed irregularities. There was insufficient evidence to confirm the authenticity of the recommendation letter, despite its presence in the DDA's records. The writ petition was dismissed.

ZEEL FINCAP SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT OF INDIA MINISTRY OF FINANCE APPELLATE AUTHORITY FOR REGISTRATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6391/2020]

Judges: Justice Sudhir Kumar Jain

The orders cancelling the Certificate of Registration (CoR) of Zeel Fincap Services Private Limited were set aside, with a directive to reconsider the restoration of the CoR. The petitioner met the minimum Net Owned Fund (NOF) requirement of Rs. 200 lakhs before the show-cause notice was issued. The matter was remanded for fresh consideration according to existing guidelines and amendments, with a decision on the restoration of the CoR required within 2-3 months.

ADHITHIYA SAIRAM VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9029/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Association of Indian Universities (AIU) denied an Equivalence Certificate to the petitioner based on established guidelines, which require foreign qualifications to be obtained through full-time regular study on a university campus. The petitioner completed his 12th grade education through distance learning in the USA, leading to the AIU's valid refusal. AIU's policy decisions on educational equivalence are not subject to interference unless they are arbitrary or unlawful, which was not demonstrated in this case. The writ petition was dismissed.

AFAAQ KHAN VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-774/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Afaaq Khan was rejected due to the recovery of 300 grams of heroin, classified as a commercial quantity, meeting the stringent conditions under Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. Arguments regarding non-compliance with Section 50 and delays in forensic analysis were deemed relevant for trial consideration. Overall circumstances indicated that the conditions for granting bail were not met, leading to the dismissal of the application.

AIMS SANYA DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. & ORS. VS BRAHAMA INTERNATIONAL LLP [CRL.M.C.-3197/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by AIMS Sanya Developers Pvt. Ltd. & Ors. to quash the trial court's order, which rejected their application to recall the complainant for cross-examination, was dismissed. The trial court had provided multiple opportunities for cross-examination, which the accused did not utilize for valid reasons. The engagement of new counsel was deemed an insufficient reason to recall the witness. Overall facts and circumstances indicated that the discretionary power under Section 311 must be exercised judiciously, and the trial court had already been lenient in granting opportunities to the accused.

AJINDRA KUMAR PURI & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1710/2004]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Petitions by the accused to quash the FIR under Sections 406, 409, 420, 424, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code were dismissed. The allegations in the complaint established a prima facie case for cognizable offences, justifying the FIR registration. The dispute originated from a single MoU, and the determination of its civil or criminal nature requires thorough police investigation. The FIR was not quashed at this stage, aligning with established principles for exercising powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The accused are allowed to present their arguments before the trial court during the charge hearing.

AJIT @ PRAVEEN KUMAR MISHRA VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-387/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Ajit @ Praveen Kumar Mishra was dismissed due to substantial evidence of his involvement in cyber fraud, including the creation of fake documents, opening bank accounts with forged documents, and withdrawing defrauded money. His prior history of involvement in six similar cheating cases indicated a habitual tendency toward such offenses. The seriousness of the crimes contributed to the decision to deny bail.

AKASH PANDEY VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-217/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Akash Pandey, accused of offenses under Sections 302/307/34 IPC and Sections 25/27/54/59 of the Arms Act, was refused regular bail. The investigation is complete, charges have been filed, and the trial court has framed charges. Evidence including CCTV footage and witness statements indicate his involvement in the death of Shubham Srivastava and injuries to others. As the trial progresses to the prosecution evidence stage, the risk of the petitioner influencing witnesses is present, making regular bail inappropriate.

AKHILESH MISHRA VS STATE (THE NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-323/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Akhilesh Mishra, arrested for impersonating Enforcement Directorate officials and attempting to extort money, was rejected due to strong evidence against him, including phone conversations and CCTV footage. Previous bail was denied in December 2023, and no new circumstances warranted reconsideration. There is concern over the delay in the trial as the FSL report on the evidence is pending. Immediate steps were directed for expediting the FSL report and obtaining voice samples of the accused.

AKSHAY CHAUHAN VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-3932/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Akshay Chauhan, charged under Sections 307/201/120-B/34 IPC and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act for an alleged attempt to murder, was dismissed. Evidence, including CCTV footage, call records, and the recovery of the weapon and vehicle used in the crime, connected him to the incident. The seriousness of the offense and the ongoing trial stage indicated no grounds for granting regular bail at this time.

AMANATULLAH KHAN VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-795/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The mandatory twin conditions under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) apply to anticipatory bail applications. Prima facie evidence indicates that the applicant, an MLA, is involved in money laundering by using illegal proceeds from activities related to the Delhi Waqf Board to purchase properties. The applicant failed to comply with multiple summonses from the Directorate of Enforcement, which hinders the investigation and raises suspicions about intentions. Given the severity of the allegations, the incriminating evidence, and the applicant's refusal to participate in the investigation, the anticipatory bail application was dismissed. The observations made were specific to the bail application and do not address the case's merits.

AMANDEEP SINGH DHALL VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [BAIL APPLN.-2229/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Amandeep Singh Dhall's bail application was dismissed due to his close association with main conspirator Vijay Nair in an economic offense involving irregularities in the Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22. Evidence indicated Dhall arranged meetings between Nair and liquor manufacturers, issued unauthorized credit notes worth Rs. 4.97 crores to generate illicit cash, and attempted to bribe an investigation officer. These actions raised concerns about potential witness tampering and evidence interference. The severity of the offense and its public impact contributed to the dismissal of the bail application.

AMANDEEP SINGH DHALL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN. 2093/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Mr. Amandeep Singh Dhall is to be transferred to the Indian Spinal Injuries Centre in Vasant Kunj, Delhi, for three weeks to receive specialized treatment. Previous treatment at Safdarjung Hospital was deemed inadequate, and the petitioner's condition, including worsening numbness and loss of sensation in his right hand, requires specialized post-epidural care and cardiovascular examination. The Indian Spinal Injuries Centre must provide a report on the petitioner's medical condition and future treatment plan three days before the end of the three-week period.

AMIT @NITU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3634/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Amit @ Nitu was granted three weeks of furlough based on satisfactory prison conduct and the absence of habitual offending. The prior rejection of his furlough application due to an adverse police report, without adequate justification, was deemed unjustified. The decision underscores the importance of parole and furlough in helping convicts reconnect with their families and support their mental and physical well-being.

AMIT ARORA VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-2727/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's application to transfer from RML Hospital to a private hospital for medical treatment was dismissed. Medical reports indicated the petitioner's condition is stable and manageable in Tihar Jail. Claims of inadequate treatment were rejected. A medical board at AIIMS will evaluate the petitioner's health needs to confirm if hospitalization is necessary. The petitioner will return to Tihar Jail with directives for required medical support from jail authorities.

AMIT CHAKRABORTY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-988/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Amit Chakraborty, granted pardon under Section 306 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and recognized as an approver, can be released from judicial custody. The bar under Section 306(4)(b) applies only to Trial Courts, allowing for the exercise of inherent power to release an approver in certain cases. Factors considered include the prosecution's no objection, Chakraborty's medical condition, and provisions of Section 308. His release is contingent on furnishing a personal bond and adhering to specified conditions.

AMIT GULIA @ ANDAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1896/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Amit Gulia is entitled to parole to file a Special Leave Petition against his conviction, meeting the eligibility criteria under the Delhi Prison Rules. The right to file an SLP is essential and cannot be denied. However, since co-convict Bharat Bhardwaj has already been granted parole, Gulia will be released on parole for 4 weeks after Bharadwaj surrenders, subject to specific conditions.

ANAVADYA. V VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8605/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's challenges to the answer key for question numbers 33 and 125 in the NEET (UG)-2024 exam were not accepted. Judicial precedents establish a limited scope of review for answer keys in competitive exams, emphasizing reliance on subject expert opinions provided by the National Testing Agency (NTA). The NTA confirmed the correctness of the disputed questions and answers. Without evidence of a clear error, re-evaluation was not warranted. Additionally, the finalized results and counseling schedule made it inappropriate to disturb the process without sufficient grounds. The writ petition was dismissed.

ANIL KUMAR SHARMA VS STATE [CRL.A.-584/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Anil Kumar Sharma's conviction under Sections 308/34 of the IPC was upheld, but his sentence was reduced to the 23 days already served due to the incident occurring 17 years prior and his subsequent law-abiding behavior. An additional fine of Rs. 10,000 was imposed, to be deposited in the Delhi High Court Lawyers' Library Fund.

ANUJ VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1390/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Anuj was denied bail after being arrested and charged with possession of a commercial quantity of ganja under the NDPS Act. Evidence, including vehicle registration, WhatsApp chats, and location data, connected him to the seized drugs. The prosecution met the procedural requirements for the recovery and handling of the drugs. The assessment concluded that there were not reasonable grounds to believe Anuj was not guilty, as required for bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act.

ANUKRITI ARYA VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI (THROUGH VICE CHANCELLOR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11616/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition challenging the inclusion of widows and wards of para-military and police personnel in the "Children/Widows of Personnel of the Armed Forces (CW)" reservation category for MBBS/BDS admissions was dismissed. The reservation policy is based on directives from the Ministry of Defence and the Ministry of Home Affairs, and any conflicts between these policies are not subject to adjudication. No specific communication from the Ministry of Home Affairs was challenged. The absence of prima facie illegality in the policy and the risk of disrupting the admission process due to the delayed challenge supported this decision, particularly since the policies have been consistently upheld over multiple academic sessions.

ANUP BHENGRA @CHOTU VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2216/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail was denied to the accused due to serious allegations of sexual assault and human trafficking involving a minor victim. The victim experienced profound psychological trauma and could not testify. Delays in testimony were not considered valid grounds for bail, as releasing the accused would undermine the importance of protecting the victim and pursuing justice in such cases.

ARADHANA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [CRL.REV.P.-596/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The trial court's order framing charges against Aradhana under Sections 328/34 IPC and Sections 21/12 POCSO Act lacked sufficient reasoning. It was emphasized that the trial court must apply judicial scrutiny to the material and provide brief reasons for its prima facie view on the charges. The matter has been remanded for fresh arguments and a reasoned order on the charges to be issued within one month, as the initial order did not discuss the basis for framing the charges.

ARIF KHAN VS THE STATE AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-1064/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR against Mr. Arif Khan was quashed due to the severe impact on the couple and their two children. There were discrepancies regarding the age of the complainant, Ms. 'A', and a lack of authentic evidence of her minority. Ms. 'A' confirmed her consensual relationship with Mr. Khan and stated she was 18 at the time of the incident. The existence of the couple's long-standing marriage and the well-being of their children contributed to the decision to quash the FIR.

ARUN KUMAR JAIN VS PADAM CHAND JAIN [TR.P.(C.)-52/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The transfer petition by Arun Kumar Jain to consolidate civil suit CS No. 872/2023 with CS (OS) No. 635/2019 was dismissed. The two suits involve different subject matters and parties, with the prior suit concerning multiple properties and at the pleadings stage, while the subsequent suit focuses on a specific portion of one property and is at the evidence recording stage. Consolidating the suits was deemed inappropriate due to potential complications and prejudicing the parties' rights. The outcome of the subsequent suit would not impact the rights in the prior suit.

ARUN RAMCHANDRAN PILLAI VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.C.-3192/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Arun Ramchandran Pillai will have access to materials related to the supplementary chargesheet against co-accused Smt. K. Kavitha before facing charge arguments, as his allegations are linked to her alleged conspiracy. The CBI must file the supplementary chargesheet by June 10, 2024, and provide copies to all accused, including Pillai, to facilitate arguments based on complete materials. A timeline for expedited trial proceedings has been established, aiming for completion within 6-8 months.

ARVIND KEJRIWAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [W.P.(CRL)-985/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Arvind Kejriwal's arrest by the Directorate of Enforcement under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act was upheld, with compliance to the mandatory provisions of Section 19 confirmed. The remand order issued on 22.03.2024 was deemed valid and reasoned. Arguments regarding witness statements and the timing and necessity of the arrest were dismissed as matters for the trial court. The writ petition was dismissed, clarifying that no opinion on the trial's merits was expressed.

ARVIND KEJRIWAL VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-6347/2019]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Retweeting defamatory content constitutes publication and attracts liability under Section 499 of the Indian Penal Code. The reach and influence of the person retweeting play a significant role in assessing the harm to the complainant's reputation. A balance between freedom of speech and protection of individual reputation is necessary, particularly when a public figure with a large following is involved. A challenge to a summoning order was dismissed due to sufficient evidence for the offence of defamation.

ARVIND VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1664/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of accused Arvind was dismissed in a case involving Sections 302/323/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Witness statements and CCTV footage implicated Arvind in a murder offense, necessitating custodial interrogation as the investigation remains in its early stages. The seriousness of the offense, resulting in a death, influenced the decision against granting bail.

ASHOK KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3063/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Ashok Kumar was granted a 3-week furlough despite convictions under Section 376(2) of IPC and Section 6 of POCSO Act. He met the eligibility criteria under the Delhi Prison Rules 2018 by serving over 3 years, maintaining an unblemished jail record, and not misusing emergency parole. The furlough aims to support his family and social ties, aiding in rehabilitation and reintegration into society. The previous rejection of his furlough application was set aside, and his release was directed under specific conditions.

ASHOK KUMAR VS THE STATE N.C.T OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1023/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Ashok Kumar, charged under Sections 326A/392 of the Indian Penal Code for an alleged acid attack, was dismissed due to the serious nature of the allegations. While the required medical facility is available at DDU Hospital, Ashok was directed to be admitted to GB Pant Hospital for two weeks under judicial custody, with all medical expenses to be borne by him.

ASHUTOSH SHARMA VS STATE THR. CBI [CRL.A.-607/2011]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The appellant is eligible for passport renewal despite a pending criminal appeal, having received permission for past renewals and remaining on bail for over 13 years without any adverse reports. Given these circumstances, there are no grounds to deny the requested relief, and the passport office is directed to renew the passport according to applicable rules.

ATS INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-3729/2023]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
The FIR against the petitioners for criminal breach of trust and cheating remains valid as the investigation is in its early stages. A preliminary inquiry indicated prima facie evidence, and the existing material, including agreements and a status report, supports the continuation of the investigation. No opinion on the merits of the case has been provided, and the petitions to quash the FIR have been dismissed.

ATS REAL ESTATE BUILDERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-3728/2023]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
Petitions by accused companies and individuals to quash an FIR for offences under Sections 406, 409, 420, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code were dismissed. The investigation is at an early stage, and the allegations indicate prima facie cognizable offences. The power to quash should be exercised sparingly, and criminal proceedings should proceed without interruption at this initial stage. The police are permitted to continue their investigation without any comment on the case's merits.

AZIM KHAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-858/2024]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
Azim Khan, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for murder, was granted a 3-week parole after more than 9 years of incarceration. Considerations included his need to arrange his daughter's college admission following his wife's passing, as his elder brother refused to care for her. Despite concerns regarding his previous conduct, the decision recognized the significance of parole for the rehabilitation and reintegration of long-term inmates.

BABBAN GIRI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2564/2021]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
Bail granted to the accused persons in 2020 cannot be cancelled without evidence of supervening events or overwhelming circumstances that could impede a fair trial. Allegations made by the complainant were found unsubstantiated, and there was no proof of abuse of bail. The complainant may approach the Witness Protection Committee if threatened, and the police are directed to act promptly on such complaints.

BABY AAYAT (MINOR) THROUGH MOTHER MS. TANZEEM KHAN VS GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-10649/2024]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
The petition by a 6-year-old child for admission under the EWS/DG category was dismissed due to the requirement that the income certificate must be from the child's parents, not grandparents. Allowing grandparents' income certificates would contradict the policy's intent to assist children from economically weaker families. The petitioner was advised to apply again using the father's income certificate, which was obtained after the initial petition.

BABY GITIKA RAWAT VS THE SOVEREIGN SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2033/2024]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
Baby Gitika Rawat was not granted admission to the respondent school for the 2023-2024 academic session due to a waiver from the Directorate of Education, allowing the school to forgo filling backlog EWS seats after fulfilling its admission obligations. With the academic year concluded and no interim order securing her a seat, she could not be admitted. The Directorate of Education was directed to facilitate her admission in a nearby government school for the current year, and she was advised to apply for the draw of lots for the next academic session.

BABY ISHITA RAWAT VS ADARSH PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11191/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Denying admission to Baby Ishita Rawat at Adarsh Public School due to a clerical error in her application form would result in a grave miscarriage of justice. She was otherwise eligible for admission under the EWS category, having been allotted the school through a computerized draw of lots. The Directorate of Education, GNCTD, is required to correct the clerical mistake in her admission form within 15 days of her application, and the school must grant her admission immediately upon correction. Additionally, the Director of Education is encouraged to consider framing guidelines to address clerical errors in admission forms.

BABY KRUTIKA SHARMA THROUGH HER FATHER VASUDEV SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CM APPL.-37909/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner, a student under the EWS/DG category, faced wrongful ousting from Class II due to a dispute between the respondent school and the Directorate of Education over grants for EWS students. The dispute did not involve the petitioner. Interim relief was granted for her continuation in studies, with direction for the Directorate of Education to ensure her enrollment. Notice was issued to the respondents for their response.

BABY RISHIKA (MINOR) THROUGH HER MOTHER MS. MANJU VIMAL GOHERA VS GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-12066/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition filed by a minor child for school admission for the 2023-24 academic year was dismissed as the child approached after the year had ended, and no interim orders were issued. The petitioner's right to admission for that year expired. The Directorate of Education was directed to ensure admission in a nearby government school and advised to apply for the next academic session's draw of lots.

BAL KISHAN & ORS. VS STATE [CRL.A.-658/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The conviction of the appellants under Sections 323/34 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld, affirming the trial court's decision. The trial court had ordered probation for one year and a collective compensation of Rs. 25,000 to the victim without imposing a fine. With the probation period expired and one appellant deceased, the remaining appellants were directed to deposit the compensation amount with the trial court within two weeks for disbursement to the victim. The appeal was resolved accordingly.

BANWARI CHATURVEDI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-911/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The condition of depositing Rs. 17.60 lakhs for bail imposed on Banwari Chaturvedi was deemed inappropriate. The petitioner had expressed willingness to deposit a lesser amount previously. The bail order was modified to grant interim bail for 2 months without the higher deposit requirement. Instead, the petitioner was instructed to deposit Rs. 6.10 lakhs within that period to secure regular bail.

BHARAT BHARDWAJ @ NIKKU VS STATE [W.P.(CRL)-1736/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bharat Bhardwaj was granted 4 weeks of parole to file a Special Leave Petition (SLP) before the Supreme Court following the dismissal of his criminal appeal. He met the criteria for parole under the Delhi Prison Rules due to satisfactory conduct over the past year. Although convicted of multiple murders, which typically warrants denial of parole, the opportunity to file an SLP was deemed a crucial legal remedy. The decision also considered his long period of incarceration and satisfactory conduct in the last two years, with parole granted under certain conditions.

BHARAT JAINA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-1/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The appellant's conviction for kidnapping under Sections 363 and 366 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld, while the convictions for rape under Section 376 IPC and aggravated penetrative sexual assault under Section 6 of the POCSO Act were modified to attempt offenses. The prosecution proved the elements of kidnapping through consistent testimonies, but medical evidence did not establish actual penetration. The case was classified as an attempt for the other offenses, and the matter was sent back for sentencing and adjustment of compensation for the victim child.

BHAWNA GROVER VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2437/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The orders regarding charge and witness examination in a domestic violence case were partially set aside. The trial court improperly discharged two prosecution witnesses without valid reasons and did not allow the examination of the initial investigating officer despite a request from the prosecution. The trial court was directed to recall these witnesses for examination. However, the discharge of two accused persons was upheld, with no issues identified.

BHEEMSEN VS STATE (GOVT. NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-727/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bheemsen was granted bail in a case involving Sections 376/506/174A of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 4/5/6 of the POCSO Act. The victim's daughter turned hostile during cross-examination and did not support the prosecution's case. Given the circumstances, bail was granted on the condition of furnishing a personal bond and other requirements.

BHUMIKA AGGARWAL VS I.C.P.S. (THE INSTITUTE OF CONSTITUTIONAL & PARLIAMENTARY STUDIES) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7523/2017]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Institute of Constitutional & Parliamentary Studies (I.C.P.S.) did not declare the petitioner's result for the PG Diploma in Constitutional Law due to zero attendance and failure to submit a required medical certificate, despite a written undertaking to do so. This decision aligned with the institute's policies, which prohibited other students with low attendance from taking the exam. The writ petition was dismissed as there was no violation of fundamental rights justifying extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution.

BIBEK SINGH MEHTA VS STATE OF NCT DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2116/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR against Bibek Singh Mehta for offenses under Sections 406/420/120B of the Indian Penal Code was partially quashed, as all victims amicably settled the dispute and received 30% from the partnership firm. The settlement was voluntary, and continuing the proceedings would cause further conflict. The FIR was quashed only for Mehta, while the trial against other accused continues. The concerned authority was directed to release Mehta's passport immediately.

BIBHAV KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1827/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition challenging the petitioner's arrest is maintainable due to the enforcement of fundamental rights under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution, despite the existence of an alternative remedy. The petitioner raised issues of non-compliance with Section 41A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, along with challenges to the manner of arrest and allegations of malafide actions by the police. The earlier rejection of these issues by the Magistrate was not contested in the Sessions Court. The matter has been flagged for further hearing, and the State has been directed to file a response.

BIJENDER@VISHNU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3015/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's right to file a Special Leave Petition (SLP) challenging his conviction and incarceration is recognized as valuable and cannot be denied due to the availability of free legal aid or the ability to file from jail. The Delhi Prison Rules list filing an SLP as a valid ground for seeking parole. The petitioner, a first-time offender with satisfactory conduct in jail, meets the criteria for parole. Parole is granted for 4 weeks, subject to certain conditions, to allow the petitioner to engage a counsel of his choice for the SLP.

BLOOM INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-9459/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

CBSE's online portal will not be reopened for the petitioner-school's students to appear in the upcoming compartment and improvement examinations, due to potential disruption of examination logistics. However, CBSE is directed to accommodate these students similarly to those in a related case from the Rajasthan High Court, pending the outcome of CBSE's appeal. The negligence of the petitioner-school in missing the deadline jeopardized the students' futures, leading to a cost of Rs. 50,000 imposed on the school.

C.P. ARYA PUBLIC JR. HIGH SCHOOL VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-9505/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner school failed to upload details of 16 students for the CBSE's Class 10th and 12th compartment examinations by the deadline. Despite recognizing this negligence and the logistical challenges of accommodating over 3.5 lakh students with issued admit cards for July 15, 2024, it was decided that these students should not lose an academic year. If the CBSE allows similar students from another case to appear in the examinations, the 16 students must also be included accordingly. A cost of Rs. 50,000 was imposed on the petitioner school for its negligence, emphasizing the school's responsibility to prioritize student interests.

CHHANIYARA DHARMENDRA PRAFULBHAI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9412/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition by Dr. Chhaniyara Dharmendra Prafulbhai challenging his debarment from the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (Postgraduate) - 2024 was dismissed. The National Board of Examinations for Medical Sciences concluded that he had provided false information while applying for NEET (PG)-2023, leading to a two-year debarment. An error in communication regarding the cancellation of his candidature for 2023 was acknowledged, but the findings regarding his unfair means remained unchallenged. Consequently, the decision to debar him from appearing in NEET (PG)-2024 was upheld.

CIGMA EVENTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS MR. DEEPAK GUPTA & ORS. [I.A.-48682/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The plaintiff did not establish a prima facie case for an ad-interim ex-parte injunction against the defendants. The existence of a client list alone does not confer proprietary rights or confidentiality unless it can be shown to have economic value and that its use would lead to irreparable harm. The defendants, as former employees, are entitled to use general industry knowledge and contacts gained during their employment, provided they do not misuse genuine trade secrets. Imposing restrictions on the defendants' right to seek employment based on readily available information would be an improper restraint on trade. The application for an ad-interim ex-parte injunction was dismissed due to the lack of a prima facie case, absence of irreparable harm, and the balance of convenience not favoring the injunction.

DALIP JINDAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-1549/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Dalip Jindal's bail application was dismissed in a money laundering case related to the Bankey Behari Group of Companies. Evidence indicated his involvement in acquiring, possessing, and concealing proceeds of crime, constituting money laundering under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). Allegations included participation in bogus sales and purchases without actual goods movement. The twin conditions under Section 45 of PMLA for granting bail were not met, given the severity of the economic offense. Additionally, the agency is not required to file a single complaint for multiple Enforcement Case Information Reports (ECIRs).

DASHMESH EDUCATION SOCIETY REGD VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CM APPL.-44845/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The order of the Directorate of Education (DoE) to close Dashmesh Public School has been stayed. The DoE should have awaited the outcome of ongoing land allotment matters with the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) and allowed the petitioner to address complaints about the school. A fresh inspection is required, along with a hearing for the petitioner, to ensure safety measures are implemented within a week. It was noted that the petitioner should have approached the court earlier regarding the school's recognition issues, withdrawn in 2015.

DATTATREYA MUKHOPADHYAY VS UNION OF INDIA MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT. DEPARTMENT OF EMPOWERMENT OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES DIVYANGJAN AND ANR [W.P.(C)-9995/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition is not maintainable because the Swami Vivekanand National Institute of Rehabilitation Training and Research (SVNIRTAR) is located in Odisha. The relevance of the doctrine of "forum conveniens" indicates that even a small part of the cause of action arising in Delhi does not justify jurisdiction when another High Court, specifically the Odisha High Court, is more appropriate. The petition is dismissed, allowing the petitioner to seek redressal in the suitable jurisdiction.

DAUD NASIR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.(BAIL)-619/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Daud Nasir, facing charges, has a one-year-old child and a wife requiring surgery. Despite the presence of other family members, his emotional and financial support is deemed significant. Interim bail is granted on humanitarian grounds for 15 days, contingent upon certain conditions to prevent interference with the investigation. He must submit fresh documentation regarding the surgery date, and the trial court will process the bail two days prior to the surgery.

DAYA NAND CHANDELA VS STATE [CRL.M.(BAIL)-746/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Daya Nand Chandela's application to suspend his conviction for offenses under Sections 452/307/34 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. Previous similar applications filed in 2015 and 2020 were also rejected. No extraordinary circumstances were identified to justify the suspension, particularly given the serious nature of the offenses. The application was dismissed due to the applicant's failure to disclose prior rejected applications.

DEEN DAYAL@DEEPAK VS THE STATE THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4093/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Deen Dayal@Deepak was rejected in a case of alleged rape under false pretext of marriage due to the investigation being at an initial stage, with no chargesheet filed. Concerns about the accused potentially threatening or influencing the prosecutrix were noted. Given the serious nature of the allegations, there were no grounds for granting regular bail at this stage. The decision does not express any opinion on the case's merits.

DEEPAK AHIRWAR DEEPAK VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-681/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition to quash an FIR for offenses under Section 376 IPC and Section 6 POCSO Act was dismissed due to the serious nature of the allegations involving a minor. Although the victim's court statement did not fully support the prosecution, discrepancies alone were insufficient to quash the proceedings. The importance of witness testimonies would be determined during trial, and the case was deemed to involve a cognizable offense warranting continuation of investigation and trial. Observations made were preliminary, intended solely for this particular petition.

DEEPAK VS STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3733/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of accused Deepak, charged with murder under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code, was dismissed. Evidence indicated his involvement alongside co-accused, acting with a common intention. Eyewitnesses, including the victim's sister, supported the prosecution, with one witness reporting threats from a co-accused. The seriousness of the offense, potential punishment, and pending testimonies of other witnesses contributed to the denial of bail at this stage.

DEEPAK VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3253/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner, convicted under Section 376(2)(i) IPC and Section 6 of POCSO Act, is eligible for the first furlough under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, due to an unblemished jail record and three annual good conduct reports. Despite the rejection of the furlough application by prison authorities, citing the crime's nature and the victim's residence proximity, the petitioner was granted a three-week furlough, conditioned on residing at a verified location, his maternal uncle's house in Bihar.

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL SOCIETY AND ANR VS VIJAY JYOTI BAKSHI [TR.P.(C.)-84/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

No reasonable and justifiable grounds exist to transfer the proceedings of CS No. 491/2019 from Patiala House Courts to Saket Courts, where CS No. 154/2024 is pending. The claims in the two suits, although related to the same property, arise from different causes of action and are substantially different. CS No. 491/2019 has been pending for over five years and is at an advanced stage, while CS No. 154/2024 was filed recently. The respondent has been diligently pursuing her case for the last five years and cannot be compelled to move to another court. The transfer petition was dismissed.

DESH RAJ @ DESU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1902/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, is entitled to three weeks of parole to file a Special Leave Petition (SLP) challenging the conviction. The right to file an SLP is considered a valuable legal remedy that should not be denied based on past conduct or the availability of free legal aid. Parole is granted with strict conditions to mitigate concerns about potential misuse and ensure compliance and timely surrender.

DEV SORA VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2857/2019]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The complainant's application to cancel the bail of Dev Sora for alleged false promises of marriage and threats was dismissed. No substantial evidence indicated that the accused misused bail or that circumstances changed to justify cancellation. The police were directed to act promptly on any threats to the complainant, and she was advised to approach the Witness Protection Committee if necessary.

DHANESH IESHDHAN VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) ANR ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3310/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition to quash the FIR for offenses under Sections 354/354D/506/509 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The allegations and supporting evidence were deemed sufficient to establish a prima facie offense. The existence of a cross-FIR by the petitioner did not warrant quashing the current FIR. The petitioner may raise contentions before the trial court.

DHARAM PAL & ANR. VS STATE [CRL.A.-335/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The appellants were convicted under Sections 308 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code. The sentence of the surviving appellant, Badal, was reduced to the 22 days already served due to his young age of 19 at the time of the 2007 incident and his subsequent positive contributions to society. Proceedings against the deceased appellant, Dharam Pal, were abated.

DHARMENDER @ MOTA VS STATE GOVT. OF NOT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-995/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Dharmender @ Mota was granted regular bail after being charged with multiple offenses, including the alleged rape of a minor. The prosecutrix provided inconsistent statements regarding the incident. Co-accused individuals had received bail earlier. DNA evidence supported allegations against some co-accused but not against Dharmender. Bail was granted on the condition of furnishing a personal bond and meeting specific requirements.

DHARMENDRA SINGH MAURYA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-3733/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition to quash the FIR under Sections 419/34/120B IPC was dismissed. The Magistrate's detailed order for FIR registration was based on CCTV footage and other materials. At the FIR registration stage, it is sufficient to determine if the allegations indicate a cognizable offence without deep examination. Investigation must proceed without interference. The petitioner can present arguments at the trial court regarding charges if a chargesheet is filed.

DHRUV JAIN AND ORS VS GOVT. NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-12285/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition challenging the University's notification for a special round of offline counseling was dismissed. The University's "no rank violation" policy, which mandated seat allotment based on merit rankings from previous online counseling rounds, was upheld as a means to maintain merit-based admissions. This policy was within the University's authority and had been previously validated by another judgment. The decision emphasized that interference with the University's admissions policies was unwarranted unless they were clearly arbitrary or illegal, which was not the case.

DILIP RAY VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.A.-7631/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Dilip Ray, convicted of various offenses, had his conviction suspended pending appeal. The decision was based on the potential irreversible damage to his political aspirations, particularly concerning the upcoming Odisha Assembly elections in 2024, given his age of 71 and extensive political career. This situation was distinguished from a previous case where damage could be rectified if acquitted. The suspension is not an acquittal and does not indicate any opinion on the case's merits.

DILSHER NEPALI & ANR. VS STATE [CRL.A.-516/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Dilsher Nepali and Hiralal @ Hira were convicted under Sections 323/34 of the Indian Penal Code, but their sentence was reduced to the time already served, which exceeded 3 months of a 9-month sentence. The incident occurred 22 years ago when the appellants were 22-23 years old, and this was their first conviction. The appeal had been pending for 15 years since 2009, justifying the reduction of the sentence to align with the ends of justice.

DIRECTORATE OF ENFOCEMENT VS AJAY S. MITTAL [CRL.M.C.-4014/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The transfer of a criminal case to another court based solely on an alleged remark by the presiding judge, without obtaining comments from the judge or properly assessing the circumstances, was unjustified. Allegations of bias were unsubstantiated, lacking supporting affidavits, and the accused had requested numerous adjournments. Principles of natural justice require that the judge have an opportunity to respond to any allegations before a transfer order is made.

DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT VS AMIT KATYAL [CRL.M.C.-1727/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The trial court granted the respondent interim bail for four weeks on medical grounds. A subsequent medical opinion from RML Hospital indicated that the respondent's condition could be managed with proper treatment in custody. Despite this, the interim bail was not canceled as it was nearing expiration. If the respondent seeks an extension of interim bail, the Directorate of Enforcement can present the RML Hospital opinion to the trial court for consideration.

DR SUDARSHAN KUMAR ARYA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8616/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Diploma qualifications of the petitioner doctors, awarded by the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Mumbai, have been recognized but not declared equivalent to other recognized Diploma qualifications. Recognition does not imply equivalence, which must be specifically declared by the competent authority. As a result, the petitioners were excluded from applying for the DNB-PDCET Examination 2024 due to their qualifications not being equivalent to recognized Diploma qualifications.

DR SUPREETI CHAHAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11620/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitions filed by MDS degree holders were dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the college that awarded the degrees is in Haryana and related legal proceedings are ongoing in Haryana courts. Petitioners were granted the option to approach the appropriate court in Haryana for resolution. This involved multiple similar petitions addressed together.

DR. CHINMAY ANKLESHWARIA VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8707/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner, ranked 6 in the AIIMS Merit List for the INI-SS Entrance Test for the July 2024 session, should be admitted to the DM Cardiology course at PGIMER, Chandigarh. A vacancy arose from the resignation of a resident doctor on 16.03.2024, but PGIMER did not timely inform AIIMS, leading to the petitioner's denied seat. According to the prospectus, vacant seats must be carried forward to the next session, and denying the petitioner admission due to administrative inefficiency is unjust. AIIMS should add the additional seat and grant admission for the July 2024 session.

DR. PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9240/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bond signed by the petitioner with ESIC Hospital, requiring payment of Rs. 15 lakhs for discontinuing the DM (Cardiology) program or failing to serve ESIC for 2 years post-completion, is valid. ESIC's interest in retaining the petitioner's services after investing in his education is recognized. If the petitioner chooses to discontinue the course for other studies, he must pay the bond amount, and upon receipt, ESIC must return the petitioner's original documents.

EX. SGT MANOJ KUMAR & ANR. VS GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY (THROUGH VICE CHANCELLOR) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11942/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The University's reservation policy for the 'Defence Category', which includes widows/wards of paramilitary and police personnel with gallantry awards, is based on instructions from the Ministry of Defence and the Ministry of Home Affairs, and is not deemed arbitrary or illegal. The challenge to the policy at a delayed stage risks disrupting the ongoing admission process, and in the absence of demonstrable illegality, interference with the University's long-standing reservation practice is not warranted.

EZIEFULA SAMUEL UCHEGBU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3408/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Parole for two months was granted to Eziefula Samuel Uchegbu, a life sentence inmate, due to serious medical conditions including an umbilical hernia, recurring infections, and hypertension. The need for immediate surgery and a lack of improvement in his health were emphasized. Conditions for parole included a personal bond, surety, a contact number, and a requirement to surrender after the parole period.

FAIRFIELD INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9749/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The decision to reduce the sanctioned intake of the BBA-LLB (Hons) program from 240 to 120 seats at Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University was deemed legally valid due to the institute admitting less than 50% of the sanctioned seats for three consecutive academic years. Clause 4.1 of the Policy Guidelines justified this reduction. It was noted that the university should have communicated this change earlier, rather than during the admission process. The petition from the institute was dismissed.

FEROZ AHMED BHATT VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3535/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition for a six-week parole to reconnect with family and get married was dismissed due to the petitioner's conviction for terrorist activities and waging war against the country. Under Delhi Prison Rules, parole is only granted in special circumstances at the discretion of the competent authority. Concerns arose regarding the petitioner's potential conduct, especially in light of a co-accused who absconded after a previous parole. While acknowledging the petitioner's wish to meet his elderly parents, the balance was struck against state security interests. The jail authorities were directed to facilitate a one-time video call for the petitioner to virtually interact with his parents.

GAYUR VS STATE [CRL.A.-760/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

In a case involving a pending criminal appeal since 2010 and a suspended sentence, it was determined that the pendency of the appeal does not prevent the issuance of a fresh passport. The applicable provisions of the Passports Act, 1967 allow for exceptions in such situations. Therefore, authorities were directed to issue a fresh passport to the appellant in accordance with the rules.

GUDDU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2231/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Guddu was granted a 3-week furlough. His overall jail conduct was deemed unsatisfactory due to past punishments; however, he had not faced any since 2019. The incident of jumping bail occurred in 2009, and he had not been granted bail, parole, or furlough since then. Considering his 19 years of continuous incarceration, granting furlough was viewed as beneficial for his rehabilitation and reintegration into society. Conditions imposed include furnishing a personal bond and surety, reporting to the local police station, and remaining within the NCT of Delhi during the furlough.

GULFISHA VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-1267/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Gulfisha was granted anticipatory bail in a case involving allegations of physical, mental, and sexual abuse against her and other family members. The allegations against Gulfisha focused on preventing the complainant from seeing her children and physical assault, which did not necessitate custodial interrogation. Bail was granted under specific conditions, with no opinion expressed on the case's merits.

GULSHAN @ SANDEEP @ MONU VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-2723/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The punishment ticket issued on 09.03.2022 and the judicial appraisal order violated the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, as the petitioner was not provided a show cause notice or an opportunity to defend himself before the punishments were imposed. The punishment ticket and subsequent orders were set aside, requiring the jail authorities to reconsider the punishment following proper procedures, including issuing a show cause notice and conducting an inquiry. The request for furlough was deferred until the new hearing is completed, after which the authorities must assess the furlough request anew.

GURMAIL SINGH @ GELA VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU (NCB) [BAIL APPLN.-2178/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Gurmail Singh was dismissed due to accusations of involvement in a Narcotics Control Bureau case. Evidence showed that he had not cooperated with the investigation and had destroyed crucial evidence, including formatting his mobile phone. Given these circumstances, custodial interrogation was deemed necessary, and no grounds for granting anticipatory bail were established.

HANIFA QURESHI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1250/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Anticipatory bail was granted to Hanifa Qureshi, the mother-in-law of the complainant, in connection with allegations under Sections 376/498A/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The allegations against her primarily involved subjecting the complainant to cruelty and restricting access to her children, which did not necessitate custodial interrogation. Bail was conditioned on the submission of a personal bond and adherence to specific requirements.

HARDESH KUMAR VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-43/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Hardesh Kumar, accused of subjecting his deceased wife to mental and physical torture due to dowry demands leading to her suicide, was dismissed. The allegations were deemed grave and serious, and with the trial yet to begin and material witnesses unexamined, bail was not granted. The judgment highlighted societal issues regarding dowry and gender equality, underscoring the objectification of women and material expectations. It clarified that the judgment does not express an opinion on the case's merits.

HARGUN SINGH AHLUWALIA & ORS. VS DELHI UNIVERSITY & ORS. [CM APPL.-48626/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioners received seat allocations for St. Stephen's College through the University of Delhi's Common Seat Allocation System but were unable to confirm their admission due to the college not processing their applications. Provisional admission was ordered for the petitioners, along with directions for the University to reopen the portal for fee payment, ensuring they retain the opportunity to pursue admission to other colleges if necessary.

HARGUN SINGH AHLUWALIA & ORS. VS DELHI UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11695/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The thirteen B.A. programs at St. Stephen's College are classified as distinct for seat allocation and admissions under the Christian Minority and Unreserved categories. The allocation of 5% extra seats in initial admission rounds is valid, with any fractions below 0.5 rounded up to benefit students. The validity of the 'Single Girl Child Quota' will not be addressed, as the college agreed to and implemented it without challenge. St. Stephen's College is directed to admit meritorious students who were allocated seats according to University policies previously followed.

HARI OM RAI VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.A.-4223/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The applicant's chronic heart-related issues, requiring specialized treatment such as coronary angiography, and the delay in receiving necessary medical care in jail qualify him for interim bail under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. His health condition is categorized as "sick" under the law, resulting in the granting of interim bail for 3 months with certain conditions.

HARI RAM VS STATE (NCT) OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4016/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Hari Ram was dismissed after he and co-accused Raveena were arrested for possessing 27.471 kg of ganja. Section 29 of the NDPS Act, related to abetment and criminal conspiracy, applied because they were traveling together to supply the drugs. The argument that Section 29 was inapplicable and that Section 37's bail restrictions did not apply was rejected. No grounds for granting bail were established.

HARSH CONSUL VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-6084/2005]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The allegations in the complaint established a prima facie case for cognizable offences, warranting the continuation of the FIR registration. Discretion to quash an FIR at an early stage requires caution and should only occur if the allegations are clearly absurd or abusive. Detailed arguments and documents from the petitioners are suitable for trial, with police investigation needed to clarify if a case exists against the accused.

HDFC BANK LTD THROUGH ITS BRANCH MANAGER & ORS. VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-30/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by HDFC Bank officials to stay an ongoing investigation related to FIR charges under Sections 420 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. The investigation does not qualify as one of the "rarest of rare" cases warranting such relief. The order clarifies that it does not address the merits of the case, as the investigation is ongoing and no chargesheet has been filed.

HIMANSHU CHOPRA VS M/S EQUITAS SMALL FINANCE BANK LTD. [CRL.M.C.-938/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The complaint case against Himanshu Chopra under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was quashed, as he had resigned as director of the accused company before the issuance of the cheque. The respondent bank acknowledged his resignation and did not object to his removal from the proceedings.

HIRA KHATOON VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8198/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition filed by a Ph.D. student at Aligarh Muslim University challenging the University's actions regarding supervision and alleged sexual harassment was dismissed. The cause of action arose in Uttar Pradesh, where AMU is located, which is outside the Delhi High Court's territorial jurisdiction. The grievances are primarily against AMU and related legal proceedings occurred in Uttar Pradesh. The petitioner can seek redressal in the appropriate court in Uttar Pradesh.

INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES SCHOOL OF PHARMACY VS PHARMACY COUNCIL OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-9379/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Approval granted by the Pharmacy Council of India (PCI) under Section 12(1) of the Pharmacy Act applies to the entire course of study rather than individual academic years. Existing approved institutions are not required to reapply for annual continuation of approval or pay Pharmacy Education Regulatory Charges (PERC), with the exception of the M. Pharm course. Clauses of the PCI's notice and handbook mandating these requirements have been quashed, and any deposited PERC amounts from the petitioners must be refunded.

IQ CITY MEDICAL COLLEGE VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12906/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The criteria of average daily deliveries is not relevant for increasing MBBS seats under the UG-MSR 2023 regulations. Faculty deficiencies were within the permissible 5% relaxation. The Letter of Disapproval from the NMC/MARB was quashed, allowing the medical college to increase MBBS seats from 200 to 250 for the academic year 2024-25.

IRSHAD @ BHURU VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1147/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail for the accused Irshad was denied due to involvement in a conspiracy to supply counterfeit Indian currency notes. Evidence included the recovery of Rs. 3 lakhs in counterfeit notes from his residence and tools for manufacturing fake currency from his shop. The serious nature of the offense and the risks associated with counterfeit currency justified the denial of bail, emphasizing the need for a firm response to such cases. The decision was limited to the bail application without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case.

ITI SAXENA MINOR VS MBA INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL AND ANR [CM APPL.-49273/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The application by MBA International School to vacate or stay the order granting provisional admission to Iti Saxena Minor was denied. The directive for provisional admission, based on the Directorate of Education's shortlisting process, must be complied with. Additionally, the Directorate of Education had previously rejected the school's request to reduce the number of EWS/DG seats, making the school's further representation inappropriate.

JAGAN NATH VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OFDELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3434/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A writ petition by a petitioner convicted under Section 302 IPC and serving life imprisonment was allowed, noting his satisfactory conduct during over 13 years of incarceration. The decision considered the objectives of granting parole and furlough under Delhi Prison Rules. The petitioner is to be released on a personal bond and cash surety of ₹10,000 each, with the other conditions of the previous furlough order remaining unchanged.

JAGBIR SINGH @ TONY VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-2556/2023]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
The petitioner was granted a three-week furlough despite previous absconding during parole in 2013, due to demonstrated good conduct in prison, supported by appreciation certificates from jail authorities. Denying furlough based solely on past conduct would contradict the rehabilitative goals of criminal law. The furlough was subject to specific conditions for compliance.

JAGDEEP SINGH VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-340/2024]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
The bail application of Jagdeep Singh was dismissed due to sufficient prima facie evidence linking him to the recovery of a commercial quantity of opium from a co-accused. Corroborative evidence including call detail records, mobile location data, intercepted calls, and financial transactions indicated his involvement in the offence under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. The bar under Section 37 of the Act was applicable due to the nature and quantity of the contraband. With charges not yet framed and material witnesses unexamined, no grounds existed to grant bail at this stage.

JAHANGIR@ EKKA@ IBRAHIM VS THE ST A TE (GOVT OF NCT, DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-2455/2023]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
Jahangir, in judicial custody for over 17 years with satisfactory prison conduct, is granted four weeks of parole. He has a family member in Delhi for accommodation during this period. Conditions include a personal bond, reporting to local police, and restrictions on leaving the Delhi NCR region.

JAI PAL SINGH VS STATE, NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-902/2024]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
Anticipatory bail was denied to Jai Pal Singh in a case under Sections 406, 420, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. Serious allegations were made against him for failing to fulfill an agreement to sell property, taking advance payments without completing construction or providing possession. The property was listed for demolition by the MCD. Additionally, the accused did not cooperate with the investigation, and there were other pending criminal cases against him.

JAIDEEP SINGH SENGER@ATUL SINGH VS CBI [CRL.A.-451/2020]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
The application for suspension of sentence was dismissed. The appellant's medical condition was assessed, with a medical board concluding that he did not require assistance in daily activities. The appellant had served only 30% of his 10-year sentence, which was less than co-accused individuals whose sentences were suspended. His role as a mastermind in the brutal assault on the father of a minor rape victim, which resulted in the victim's death, was considered serious. The gravity of the offence, time served, and the effect on public confidence influenced the decision to decline the suspension. The hearing for the main appeal, along with related appeals of co-accused, is scheduled for May 3, 2024.

JAMIL VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT) DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3374/2023]
Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma
The petitioner's writ petition resulted in the grant of a three-week furlough, with conditions attached. The rejection of the furlough application due to a 2021 punishment ticket was deemed inconsistent with the Delhi Prison Rules 2018, which require a demonstration of good conduct over the last two years. Guidelines for competent authorities were established to ensure reasoned decisions on furlough or parole applications, addressing concerns about the vague nature of rejection orders and inadequate consideration of an inmate's behavior.

KABIR PAHARIA VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-12165/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by Kabir, a student with locomotor disability, for eligibility to pursue an MBBS course was dismissed based on a medical assessment from a board of experts at AIIMS. The assessment indicated that Kabir's condition, specifically the significant impairment of both hands, would hinder his ability to acquire and perform essential skills required for the course. Despite recognizing Kabir's determination and academic success, the conclusion of the expert assessment was prioritized. There is hope for Kabir to explore opportunities in other medical disciplines that align with his talents and dedication.

KALIM SHEIKH VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3722/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Kalim Shiekh, serving a life sentence, was granted 4 weeks of parole despite an initial rejection due to a previous parole violation and unsatisfactory jail conduct. The decision considered his good behavior in prison over the last two years. Conditions for parole included a personal bond, reporting to the local police station, and immediate surrender after the parole period.

KALVAKUNTLA KAVITHA VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [BAIL APPLN.-1739/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A prima facie case of money laundering and conspiracy exists against Ms. K. Kavitha based on evidence from the CBI and Enforcement Directorate. The statements of approvers and witnesses recorded under Sections 164 and 50 are admissible for bail consideration. The applicant did not meet the conditions for bail under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, as she posed a risk of tampering with evidence and influencing witnesses. Despite being well-educated, she was not considered a vulnerable woman under the relevant provisions. Bail applications in both cases were dismissed.

KAMAL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI & ANR. & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1192/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition seeking to quash the FIR for offences under Sections 376, 506 IPC and Section 67A of the IT Act was dismissed. Allegations in the FIR, alongside statements from the complainant and witnesses, support the claims made. Arguments by the petitioner are to be addressed during the trial, specifically at the charge framing stage. The case's merits have not been evaluated, and the investigation is ongoing, pending the FSL report.

KAMLESH DEVI VS STATE OF DELHI NCT & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-216/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail was denied to Kamlesh Devi due to serious allegations involving the abetment of kidnapping, sexual assault, and forced marriage of a 16-year-old victim, whose statement directly implicates the accused. Key witnesses remain to be examined, and the severity of the offenses played a role in the decision. There is also an emphasis on educating minors about the risks of "virtual touch" in the digital age, prompting a call for its inclusion in educational curricula alongside traditional "good touch" and "bad touch" teachings.

KAUSHAL VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT) DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3149/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Parole for 4 weeks has been granted to a petitioner serving a life sentence, who has been in judicial custody for over 15 years with good conduct in the last year, barring two instances of misconduct. Despite a prior failure to surrender after a furlough in 2020, conditions for parole include furnishing a personal bond, weekly reporting to the local police, and immediate surrender after the parole period. The objective is to aid the petitioner in re-establishing social and family ties while managing the stresses of incarceration.

KESHAVAMURTHY RAMAIAH VS UROLOGICAL SOCIETY OF INDIA & ORS. [I.A. 45947/2024 (UNDER ORDER XXXIX RULE 1 AND 2)]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The plaintiff established a prima facie case for interim relief, leading to a stay on the disqualification order dated November 18, 2024. Insufficient evidence was presented by the defendants to support allegations of election code violations related to a WhatsApp video. A new accusation concerning a Facebook post was included in the final disqualification order without allowing the plaintiff a chance to respond, breaching principles of natural justice. The plaintiff would face irreparable harm if barred from contesting the upcoming USI elections, and the balance of convenience favored the plaintiff. The disqualification order was stayed, mandating the inclusion of the plaintiff's name on the ballot for the USI Elections 2025, while findings on the merits of the amendment to the bye-laws regarding social media campaigns were not addressed.

KHEVNA PURI THROUGH HER NEXT FRIEND MR SANDEEP PURI AND ANR VS DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12232/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

An interim order allows the petitioners' children to continue studying at Delhi Public School (DPS) Dwarka, contingent on the petitioners depositing 50% of the increased school fee for the 2024-25 academic year. This measure aims to safeguard the children's academic year while further proceedings are awaited. DPS Dwarka and the Directorate of Education are required to submit counter-affidavits within two weeks, with the petitioners permitted to file rejoinders within one week thereafter. A further hearing is scheduled for 03.12.2024.

KRISHNA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1869/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of accused Krishna was dismissed due to ongoing investigation under the NDPS Act. Despite receiving notices, Krishna did not join the investigation. Evidence from WhatsApp conversations and call detail records suggested prima facie involvement in a drug trafficking syndicate, indicating a need for custodial interrogation to uncover more information.

KULDEEP SINGH SENGER VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.A.-539/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The appellant's application for suspension of sentence was dismissed due to his key role in offenses, including the death of a witness in a rape case for which he was convicted. The conviction erased the presumption of innocence, requiring a review of the appellant's role and the severity of the crimes. Consideration of the appellant's criminal history, including a prior rape conviction, and measures for victim protection influenced the decision against suspension. The appeal is expected to be heard on merits promptly.

KUNDAN KUMAR VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [BAIL APPLN.-1496/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Kundan Kumar's anticipatory bail application was denied due to charges under Sections 120B/420 IPC and Sections 66C/66D of the IT Act related to a fraud case. The ongoing investigation was deemed in its early stages, with allegations that Kumar supplied ATM cards and PINs to facilitate unauthorized withdrawals from the complainant's bank account. The complexity of the fraudulent activities and the potential for a larger network necessitated custodial interrogation, leading to the rejection of bail.

KUSHAL KUDESIA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-264/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Kushal Kudesia, accused under Section 376 IPC (rape), was rejected. Previous bail applications had been denied, and the accused did not join the investigation. The marriage to the complainant occurred ten days before the bail hearing, raising suspicions regarding its genuineness and the voluntary consent of the complainant. Consequently, no grounds were established for granting anticipatory bail.

LAL BAHADUR VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-1943/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A 78-year-old convict sentenced to life for dacoity with murder will be granted 4 weeks of parole due to his advanced age, satisfactory conduct in jail, and prior instances of parole and furlough. His previous inability to surrender on time was due to an accident. Provisions of the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018 regarding parole eligibility were applied, leading to the decision to grant parole under specific conditions.

LAL MOHAMMED VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT) DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2917/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Lal Mohammed, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for offenses under the Indian Penal Code and the POCSO Act, was granted a 15-day furlough due to good conduct in prison with no punishments. The previous rejection of his furlough application was deemed inappropriate as it relied solely on the nature of the crime without considering his satisfactory behavior. As he met the eligibility criteria under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, he was entitled to furlough, subject to conditions including the submission of a personal bond and reporting to the local police station during the furlough period.

LEENA PAULOSE VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-521/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The proceedings by the Directorate of Enforcement (ED) to seize and sell 26 luxury cars belonging to Ms. Leena Paulose complied with the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) and its Rules. The ED followed proper procedures under the relevant sections of the PMLA, and the Adjudicating Authority confirmed the retention of the seized vehicles. The inherent decay and depreciation of vehicles justified their disposal. Ms. Paulose's arguments were undermined by contradictions in her statements and a lack of supporting documentary evidence regarding her status as an independent businesswoman. The ED was instructed to place the sale proceeds in an interest-bearing fixed deposit.

LEISHANGTHEM I LOYANGAMBA VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-70/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail application by Leishangthem I Loyangamba for default bail under Section 167(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure was dismissed. Non-filing of the FSL report with the chargesheet does not render the chargesheet incomplete under Section 173(2). The quantity of drugs involved, 50 kgs of opium, is classified as a commercial quantity.

LT COL RAMANDEEP SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11488/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A Lieutenant Colonel in the Indian Army filed a writ petition challenging a 75% fee concession granted to his daughter by Flame University. The petition was deemed not maintainable, as it arose from marital discord and primarily affected his wife and daughter. The appropriate forums for addressing the petitioner's grievances are the Family Court for custody and maintenance matters or the Armed Forces Tribunal for any alleged violations by Army authorities.

M/S ATS INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-325/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Petitions seeking to quash the FIR against M/s ATS Infrastructure Limited and its directors were dismissed. The investigation is in the initial stages, with allegations that may qualify as cognizable offenses under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code. Similar allegations exist in related matters, and preliminary investigation has indicated suspicious activities, including the alienation of properties assigned to the complainants. The decision refrains from interfering with the police investigation at this point and emphasizes that current observations do not reflect any view on the merits of the case.

MAHESH & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-3244/2005]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

An order directing the registration of an FIR against the petitioners under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure was not quashed. The Magistrate appropriately considered the complaint and related case law, concluding that the allegations indicated cognizable offences. At the quashing petition stage, a detailed examination of evidence and documents is not possible, as that is for the investigating agency and trial court. Arguments regarding the civil nature of the dispute and the Magistrate's application of mind are to be addressed at the trial court level. The petitions were dismissed, allowing the petitioners to present their arguments during the charge consideration stage, with no stay on the investigation or chargesheet filing.

MAKSOOD AHMAD VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-336/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR against the accused under Section 376 IPC remains valid despite the subsequent marriage to the prosecutrix. Misleading information was presented by both parties; the prosecutrix did not disclose her marriage for nearly a month, and the accused withheld a 2012 compromise deed. Additionally, the prosecutrix's marriage was potentially invalid due to the absence of divorce documents from her previous marriage. Detailed guidelines were established for recording statements of sexual assault victims and for procedures regarding religious conversions for inter-faith marriages. Quashing the FIR would allow for an abuse of legal processes by both parties.

MALKHAN SINGH & ORS. VS STATE [CRL.A.-422/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The conviction of the appellants under Sections 308, 341, 353, 506(I) and 34 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld, while the sentence for Ravinder @ Guddu and Nitu Singh was modified to the period of imprisonment already served. Leniency was granted due to their status as first-time offenders, the prolonged trial since 2001, and the health condition of one appellant, who suffered from paralysis and partial disability.

MANAS PYASI VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8682/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition challenging a question in the NEET (UG)-2024 examination was dismissed. The validity of the question cannot be substituted with personal interpretations, as the decision rests with subject experts responsible for the question paper. The opinion of these experts deemed the question not out of syllabus, solidifying the dismissal of the petition.

MANISH MAINI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.REV.P.-96/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Additional charges were framed against the accused under Section 354 IPC and Section 10 of the POCSO Act based on victim statements about inappropriate touching. The order denying the accused the right to recall victims for cross-examination on these charges was set aside, establishing that the accused have a right to recall relevant witnesses when charges are altered, unless there is evidence of an intention to delay proceedings or obstruct justice, which was not present in this case. This involved two connected revision petitions from the accused.

MANISH NAYAK VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-9/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Manish Nayak's bail application was denied due to serious allegations under Sections 376, 328, 313, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, including multiple instances of rape, unauthorized recording and blackmail, forced abortion, and extortion of money from the complainant. The circumstances of the case did not warrant the granting of regular bail at that stage.

MANISH SISODIA VS CENTRAL BUERAEU OF INVESTIGATION [BAIL APPLN.-1559/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Manish Sisodia failed to meet the requirements for bail under the relevant laws. There was prima facie evidence of his involvement in a conspiracy to manipulate the Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22 for illegal gains, constituting money laundering. Allegations of him destroying electronic evidence raised concerns about potential tampering and witness influence if released. Consequently, his bail applications were dismissed, although he is allowed weekly visits to his ailing wife in custody.

MANJINDER SINGH SIRSA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-316/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's application for a stay of proceedings in a private criminal defamation complaint was dismissed. The lower court's finding that the complaint was not time-barred was upheld, as the defamation allegations continued through 2023 via social media posts. The argument for staying the proceedings due to a related FIR on forgery was rejected, as the two matters involved different offences and the defamation complaint required a private complaint for cognizance.

MANJINDER SINGH SIRSA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-9128/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Special Courts established to try cases against MPs and MLAs can hear cases involving both current and former legislators. The absence of differentiation between sitting and former MPs/MLAs in the Supreme Court's directions supports the view that these courts aim for timely resolution of such cases, regardless of the status of the accused at the time of the alleged offense. A petition challenging the Special Court's jurisdiction was dismissed as the accused was a former MLA.

MANJU BALA VS STATE (N.C.T. OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1097/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Manju Bala was dismissed due to prima facie evidence of her and her husband Naresh Yadav cheating the complainant, Dharambir Singh, by selling the same plot of land to two different buyers and failing to repay a loan. Custodial interrogation is deemed necessary to verify the authenticity of documents and investigate if others have been similarly duped. Despite previous leniency, Bala did not comply with investigation notices issued under Section 41A of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

MANJU DEVI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-1612/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition filed by Manju Devi for the cancellation of bail for Santosh Kumar and Jameel Akhtar was dismissed. Bail cannot be canceled without a supervening event affecting the fairness of the trial. A status report from the police found no evidence supporting the allegations of threats by the accused. The petitioner did not contest the legality of the bail but claimed misuse of liberty by the accused. It was noted that grounds for cancellation of bail were not met. The petitioner was advised to contact the Witness Protection Committee if threatened, and the police were instructed to act on any such complaints.

MANOJ KUMAR VS ALL INDIAN COUNCIL FOR TECHNICAL EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-8910/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Manoj Kumar filed a writ petition regarding the AICTE validation examination results from December 2018. His score of 39.76% was rounded up to 40%, allowing him to be treated as qualified. The validation examination aimed to assess candidates' basic abilities, and Kumar had over 16 years of engineering experience. Similar relief had been granted to other candidates in comparable situations.

MANOJ SIROHI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHII [W.P.(CRL)-3669/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Manoj Sirohi received a three-week furlough despite not surrendering on time after emergency parole during the COVID-19 pandemic. The objectives of furlough under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, aim to help inmates maintain family connections, build self-confidence, and cope with the effects of incarceration. Consideration of the petitioner's circumstances and family needs influenced the decision, balancing the interests of both the convict and society, with certain conditions applied.

MANOJ VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-523/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Manoj is entitled to a three-week furlough despite previous application rejection. His satisfactory conduct in jail over the past year, with no punishments, supports this decision. Previous violations of parole were acknowledged, but the current record and objectives of furlough under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018 warranted the grant, subject to conditions for compliance.

MASTER HARMANPREET SINGH THROUGH MR. PARAMJEET SINGH VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12093/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The non-filing of a valid income certificate at the time of applying for admission under the EWS category justified the respondent school's denial of admission to the petitioner's child. The income certificate needed to be valid on the application date, which the petitioner's certificate was not. Acknowledgment of the petitioner's parents' lack of awareness regarding the certificate's expiry, due to their background, was noted. To improve awareness, directions were issued for future circulars and notifications about admissions to be provided in both English and Hindi, along with additional measures to assist parents.

MD SADIQ @ CHOTA CHIKNA VS THE STATE GOVT OF N CT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3996/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

MD Sadiq @ Chota Chikna's bail application was rejected due to serious allegations, including snatching a mobile phone from a constable on a moving train, threatening the constable, aiding a co-accused in escaping custody, and possessing a knife at the scene. A key witness's statement was only partially recorded, and additional material witnesses had yet to be examined. Overall circumstances did not justify granting bail.

MASTER VINAYAK (MINOR) THROUGH HIS FATHER SH. RAHUL SINGH TOMAR VS GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-12065/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The relief sought regarding the allotment by the Directorate of Education for the 2023-24 academic year cannot be granted as that year has concluded. A prior decision indicates that a student's right to admission expires with the end of the relevant academic year if no interim order was in place for provisional admission. The Directorate of Education is urged to assist the petitioner in securing admission to a nearby government school for the current year, and the petitioner is advised to apply for the draw of lots for the next academic session.

MEDHATITHI JHA & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3664/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitions seeking stay of investigation and arrest of the accused in an FIR under various sections of the Indian Penal Code were dismissed. The FIR was initiated based on a complaint alleging a conspiracy to defraud and extort money. The allegations warranted an investigation into claims of extortion, cheating, and forgery. It was concluded that this case did not merit an extraordinary stay on the investigation or arrest. Petitioners were advised to seek anticipatory bail if they feared arrest.

MEENA VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-252/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Meena was dismissed in a case under the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. Evidence, including call detail records and receipts from a co-accused's house, suggested her involvement in the drug trade. Custodial investigation was deemed necessary to uncover the conspiracy among the accused, resulting in no grounds for anticipatory bail.

MEHTAB VS STATE (GOVT.) NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-693/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Parole was granted to the petitioner for four weeks despite unsatisfactory jail conduct and involvement in another criminal case. The parole facilitates the petitioner's ability to maintain social and family ties and to pursue legal remedies, including filing a Special Leave Petition before the Supreme Court. The decision balanced the interests of the petitioner and society.

MICHAEL BUILDERS AND DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD. VS THE INDIAN NURSING COUNCIL AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12029/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The dispute involves Michael Builders and Developers Pvt. Ltd. and the St. Alphonsa Trust, both based in Tamil Nadu, regarding property located in Tamil Nadu. The application of the doctrine of 'forum conveniens' indicated that Tamil Nadu courts are the appropriate venue for the matter, as the cause of action and related orders originate from that state. The petitioner previously approached the Madras High Court on similar issues and was accused of 'forum shopping' by seeking relief in Delhi. Costs were imposed on the petitioner for this conduct.

MOHD QASIM MANSOORI VS THE STATE OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2771/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail was denied to Mohd Qasim Mansoori, charged with murder under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code. Substantial evidence included a post-mortem report, the recovery of a knife as the murder weapon based on the accused's disclosure, and DNA evidence linking the deceased's blood to the accused's clothes and shoes. Given the seriousness of the brutal murder, bail was deemed inappropriate at this stage.

MOHD. ISLAM VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3213/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Mohd. Islam is granted a 2-week furlough with conditions, including the requirement to furnish a personal bond, report weekly to the local police station, and maintain contact with authorities. The prior rejection of his furlough application was noted due to a re-arrest in 2019 under Section 308 IPC; however, he has since been granted bail in that case and demonstrated satisfactory conduct for the past year. Any misconduct during the furlough period will result in its cancellation.

MOHD. SALEEM JAFAR VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-970/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application by Mohd. Saleem Jafar was dismissed. He is accused of cheating a complainant by taking Rs. 42 lakhs for a non-existent real estate investment. Investigation showed the property is not recorded, and Jafar has evaded joining the investigation despite several notices. This resulted in non-bailable warrants and the initiation of proceedings under Section 82 of the Cr.P.C. Given these circumstances and his conduct, no grounds for anticipatory bail were established.

MOHIT JITENDRA KUKADIA VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-11041/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The rejection of the petitioner's National Overseas Scholarship application due to the absence of the ITR acceptance document was deemed unjustified, as the submitted documents established eligibility. The petitioner's family income was consistent across the provided documents, highlighting the need to avoid a hyper-technical approach. Given the petitioner's background as a traditional artisan from a financially disadvantaged family, the application must be processed and the scholarship granted within two weeks, along with any additional benefits. The emphasis is on recognizing inequalities and ensuring substantive justice to support deserving students from marginalized communities.

MOHIT PILANIA VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-4252/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Mohit Pilania was dismissed due to prima facie evidence of his involvement in a conspiracy with Aarav Chaudhary to deceive multiple women through sham marriages. Pilania misled the complainant's family regarding the main accused's marital status and received money under false pretenses. The allegations were deemed serious, with concerns that granting bail could lead to further criminal activity and witness tampering. The accused's counsel faced criticism for revealing the identities of the complainant and her brother, violating legal protections.

MOHIT YADAV VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-722/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's application for a duplicate copy of DVDs was upheld. The trial court noted that the petitioner had received the DVDs multiple times and that the issue had been addressed extensively during cross-examination lasting around seven years. The petitioner's claim of losing the evidence was seen as an attempt to misuse the legal process, given previous access to the DVRs. A cost of Rs. 25,000 was imposed on the petitioner for unnecessary adjournments to discourage obstruction of justice. The order was found to have no infirmities, and the petition was dismissed.

MOHSIN IBRAHIM SAYYED VS NATIONAL INVESTIGATION AGENCY [W.P.(CRL)-463/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's sentences in two separate cases, one in Greater Bombay and another in Delhi, will not run concurrently. The offences were determined to be distinct and serious under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, posing threats to national security and communal harmony. The sentences were deemed appropriate as the petitioner had not received the maximum penalties, and previous trials had already shown leniency. Consequently, the discretion to order concurrent sentences was not exercised.

MONU @ JIJI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2752/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Monu @ Jiji received a three-week furlough while serving a life sentence for murder under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code. The petitioner's conduct in prison was satisfactory, with no disciplinary issues. Conditions for the furlough include providing a personal bond, reporting to the local police station, and surrendering immediately after the furlough period ends.

MR VINAY MAHESHWARI VS MR. MANOJ MANCHU & ORS. [I.A.-48601/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

An ex parte ad interim injunction was granted in favor of Mr. Vinay Maheshwari against certain defendants due to a prima facie case of defamation. The defendants' tweets, articles, and videos were found to contain baseless allegations that harmed the plaintiff's reputation. Specific defendants were ordered to remove the defamatory content within a set timeframe, while Google/YouTube and other defendants were not subject to the injunction due to insufficient evidence or proper translations. The observations regarding the defamation are preliminary, and the case will continue with defendants submitting their replies.

MR. AMANDEEP SINGH DHALL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.A.-35750/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's request to modify the transfer order to Safdarjung Hospital for physiotherapy treatment was not accepted. Safdarjung Hospital was determined to have the necessary equipment and facilities for the petitioner's medical needs. Arguments regarding overcrowding, lack of privacy, and poor security were rejected, as the hospital offered private wards and sufficient security measures. The petitioner was directed to be admitted to a private ward, with provisions for the treating doctors to consult with the Indian Spinal Injuries Centre.

MS L R SHARMA AND CO VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13689/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The adjudicating proceedings initiated by the Revenue against the petitioner through the show cause notice dated 21.04.2015 are time-barred under Section 73(4B) of the Finance Act, as the Revenue did not complete the proceedings within the required 6 months or 1 year. The Revenue's claim that the time limit was suggestive was rejected. The issuance of the hearing notice dated 18.09.2024, nearly 9 years after the original notice, was deemed unjustified and unreasonable. The hearing notice was quashed on the grounds of being time-barred, making further examination of the issuing officer's jurisdiction unnecessary.

MS. S VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4591/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The application to cancel the regular bail granted to the accused was dismissed. The complainant was informed about the bail hearing, and both she and her mother had been examined prior to the bail being granted. There had been no new complaints against the accused since then. No supervening circumstances justified the cancellation of bail, as there was insufficient material to support such action.

MS. TANNU VS THE STATE GOVT.OF NCT DELHI AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-19/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Ms. Tannu was dismissed due to specific allegations against her, including approaching the complainant, obtaining blank cheques, and withdrawing funds from the complainant's account, which necessitate custodial interrogation to gather further evidence and assess her role in the alleged conspiracy. The ongoing investigation, her failure to join it, her absconding status, and a pending civil case between the parties were also noted as reasons for the decision.

MUDASSIR AHMAD VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3886/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Anticipatory bail was granted to Mudassir Ahmad in a case involving serious allegations under Sections 376/377/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Despite the seriousness of the accusations, he had cooperated with the investigation and received prior interim protection. Conditions for the bail included not leaving the country without permission, providing contact details, and refraining from contacting or threatening the complainant and witnesses. The decision did not indicate any opinion on the merits of the case.

MUKESH VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1912/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The punishment ticket issued to Mukesh by the prison authorities was quashed due to non-compliance with mandatory procedures under the Delhi Prison Rules. The authorities did not provide a show cause notice or conduct a quasi-judicial inquiry before imposing a 15-day stoppage of canteen facilities. The matter is to be reconsidered by the jail authorities following due process as per the Delhi Prisons Act and Rules.

MUZAMMIL AHMAD VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3816/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Muzammil Ahmad was dismissed due to accusations of sexual assault, including offenses under Sections 376, 377, 506, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code. The allegations involve multiple sexual assaults, creation of video evidence, and threats of defamation. Additional claims include coercion into signing blank documents and a marriage contract. Evidence such as hotel stay records was analyzed, and the existence of non-bailable warrants against the petitioner, who is absconding, was noted. The seriousness of the allegations necessitated custodial interrogation, and the complainant denied consenting to the marriage. The decision does not comment on the merits of the case.

NAVED @ PATHAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4085/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Naved @ Pathan, arrested in an NDPS case, was dismissed. Although claims of violations under Section 50 of the NDPS Act were made, the recovery of contraband from his house rather than his person negated bail grounds. Evidence of call detail records and financial transactions with co-accused Ranjan Biswas suggested a conspiracy. Considering the stage of charges and the need for witness examination, bail was not granted.

NAGEENA ARORA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1109/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Nageena Arora's petition to quash a trial court's order dismissing her application under Section 311 of the Cr.P.C. was partially granted. She is permitted to present a receipt for Rs. 37 lakhs, as this amount was previously mentioned by defense witnesses. However, her request to examine her son as a defense witness was denied due to insufficient justification for his earlier omission from the witness list. A cost of Rs. 10,000 is to be paid to the complainant before she can introduce the receipt. The observations made do not reflect an opinion on the case's merits.

NANDINI RAI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-2085/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by Nandini Rai to quash the FIR and subsequent criminal proceedings was dismissed. Allegations of creating fake Instagram accounts to troll, bully, and defame the complainant were deemed cognizable offences under relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code and the Information Technology Act. Despite the petitioner's claims of insufficient evidence, the case was not suitable for quashing the FIR at this stage, with charges yet to be framed and pending FSL results. The petitioner may present arguments regarding the charges in the trial court. This matter also involves a co-accused, Ms. 'Y', who assisted the petitioner with mobile devices and internet access.

NANDITA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8637/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Jurisdiction in challenging the answer key of the NEET (UG)-2024 examination is limited. The examination body's answers can only be contested if errors are self-evident. Allegations regarding question numbers 104 and 149 were not found to be self-evident. Expert opinions from the National Testing Agency (NTA) had already addressed the petitioner's objections. Re-assessment of answers is not permissible at this stage, particularly with the results and counseling schedule announced. The writ petition was dismissed.

NARESH KUMAR @ KALU VS STATE OF NCT DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-853/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Naresh Kumar's writ petition for a two-month parole was dismissed. The Delhi Prison Rules state that parole is granted to those showing positive rehabilitation efforts. Evidence indicated Kumar's conduct after a previous parole was contrary to this principle, having received six major punishments and a total of 15 punishment tickets for rule violations, demonstrating unsatisfactory behavior. He failed to show necessary progress towards rehabilitation, making his parole request untenable.

NARESH KUMAR SOLANKI VS STATE [CRL.A.-223/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Naresh Kumar Solanki was convicted under Section 325 of the Indian Penal Code for causing grievous hurt. His sentence was reduced to the time already served, exceeding four months, due to the 22-year gap since the incident, his age of over 60, and good conduct without further legal issues during that time. The overall circumstances justified the reduction of his sentence.

NARESH MAHATO VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3061/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Naresh Mahato's bail application was denied due to serious allegations involving a criminal conspiracy to impersonate Enforcement Directorate officers and extort money from a complainant. Evidence, including CCTV footage and call detail records, indicated Mahato's active involvement and ongoing communication with co-accused individuals. The severity of the charges and the pending trial contributed to the decision to deny bail.

NAVEEN CHANDER SINGH & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-177/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by Naveen Chander Singh and others to quash an FIR for offences under Sections 420, 468, 471, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code was dismissed. Despite a compromise between the petitioners and the complainant, with repayment of the cheated amount, allegations indicated a systemic fraud scheme operated through a call center, exploiting vulnerable individuals with false promises of low-interest loans. This undermined the integrity of the financial system and trust in legitimate lending practices, warranting dismissal of the petition while noting that no opinion on the merits of the case was expressed.

NEERAJ BHATT VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1190/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Neeraj Bhatt received a four-week parole despite a conviction under the POCSO Act due to his medical conditions, including varicose veins, gallstone disorder, and Hepatitis-C. His long incarceration and satisfactory conduct over the last two years were also considered. The parole is subject to conditions such as providing a personal bond and reporting to the local police station.

NEERUPAMA THAPA VS NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATIONS IN MEDICAL SCIENCES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8678/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Neerupama Thapa was debarred from the NEET (PG)-2024 examination by the National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences due to her submission of false information regarding her FMGE qualification and medical council registration during her application for NEET (PG)-2023. This misrepresentation was classified as using "unfair means." Although there was an initial miscommunication about the debarment decision, it did not affect the findings of the Examination Ethics Committee. The writ petition submitted by Thapa was dismissed.

NEW METAL VISION PRIVATE LIMITED VS JITENDER KUMAR KHARBANDA & ANR. [I.A.-44238/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The plaintiff entered into two agreements with defendant no. 1 for property purchase and paid a significant portion of the sale price, but defendant no. 1 failed to provide original title deeds or execute the sale deed. The plaintiff's readiness to fulfill its obligations is established due to these payments, and defendant no. 1 did not notify the plaintiff about redeeming the property's mortgage. The balance of convenience favors the plaintiff, who could suffer harm if defendants transfer the property. An ad-interim ex-parte injunction has been granted, pending further hearings.

NIKHIL JAIN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-449/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Nikhil Jain's anticipatory bail application was rejected due to serious allegations of cheating and forgery. He was accused of conspiring with Sushil Singla and Manjeet Singh to fraudulently obtain a forged conveyance deed from the DDA and sell the property to the complainant. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary to investigate the conspiracy further, especially since non-bailable warrants had been issued against Jain and he had not joined the investigation. The gravity of the allegations contributed to the decision not to grant bail.

NIKHIL JAIN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1391/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application filed by Nikhil Jain, accused of cheating, forgery, and criminal conspiracy, was dismissed. His previous application had also been rejected due to the potential necessity of custodial interrogation to investigate the full conspiracy and alleged forged documents. The consideration of monetary offers as a basis for granting bail was deemed inappropriate, reinforcing the need for further investigation through custodial interrogation.

NIKITA KASHYAP VS DELHI UNIVERSITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11137/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Nikita Kashyap's writ petition challenging her denial of admission to the LL.M. program at Aligarh Muslim University was dismissed. The university's prospectus required all necessary documents for eligibility by the admission date. Kashyap did not obtain her LL.B. final semester mark sheet on time, despite being allowed to participate in counseling. Her eligibility for the LL.M. program remained unclear, as her final LL.B. examinations were completed after the last counseling session. No merit was found in the petition.

NILESH SHARMA VS KAMAL GARG [CRL.M.C.-413/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by the accused to call a defense witness was allowed, overturning the trial court's dismissal of the application. The key issue was whether the cheque was issued from the accused's personal account or from the account of a proprietorship firm owned by his brother. Due to the destruction of bank records in a fire, the accused needed to examine his brother as a witness to show the cheque was not from his personal account. The accused was granted one opportunity to do so and ordered to pay a cost of Rs. 15,000 for delays, with instructions for the trial court to conclude the case within two months after the witness examination.

NITIN KUMAR TOMAR VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2833/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of the accused husband was rejected due to serious allegations of physical, sexual, and economic abuse against his wife. Factors considered included the prima facie case, the nature of the offense, and the severity of punishment. Evidence indicated a blatant disregard for the wife's well-being and autonomy, along with instances of forcibly taking money from her. The seriousness of the alleged offenses warranted the denial of anticipatory bail.

NIVRITI BATHLA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10585/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition challenging the National Testing Agency's answer key for the Accountancy paper in the Common University Entrance Test (Undergraduate) 2024 was dismissed. The petitioner, who did not attempt Question no. 22, lacked standing to contest the declaration of two correct answers for that question. The validity of the final answer key, including for Question no. 7, was supported by subject experts reviewed by the National Testing Agency, and their opinion was not to be overridden. No grounds were established to interfere with the National Testing Agency's decision.

P.T.M. TEACHER TRAINING INSTITUTE VS NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND ANR. [CM APPL.-2358/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The withdrawal of recognition of the P.T.M. Teacher Training Institute by the Southern Regional Committee of the National Council for Teacher Education was upheld due to the institute's failure to submit the mandatory Performance Appraisal Report within the required timeframe. The Supreme Court's stay on a previous judgment regarding the PAR requirement rendered the recognition withdrawal valid for non-compliance. The application for interim relief was dismissed based on this Supreme Court stay order.

PANKAJ GUPTA VS STATE(GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1004/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Pankaj Gupta was dismissed in connection with an FIR under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code. The offense involved multiple accused, and custodial interrogation is deemed necessary to investigate the recovery of 90 activated SIM cards sent to Dubai through questionable means. The nature of the allegations and the lack of participation in the investigation warranted the decision against granting bail.

PARTH GUPTA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10650/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition challenging the final answer key for Question 16 of the Economics paper in the CUET (UG) 2024 exam was dismissed. The National Testing Agency (NTA) declared option 4 as the correct answer, supported by the 2020 NCERT textbook and expert opinion. The reasoning emphasized the need for restraint in academic matters and the importance of respecting expert assessments, with no evidence of error in the NTA's decision.

PARVEEN VS STATE (GNCT) OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner was granted a 4-week parole to file a Special Leave Petition (SLP) challenging his conviction. His initial application for parole was rejected due to past major punishment, unsatisfactory conduct, and habitual offending. However, good conduct for nearly two years since the last punishment and the importance of the right to file an SLP were considered sufficient grounds for granting parole, subject to specific conditions.

PAWAN KUMAR @ MONU VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-682/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail was denied to Pawan Kumar @ Monu, accused of offenses under the Indian Penal Code and the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act. The allegations involved sexual exploitation of minors, with Pawan allegedly having a sexual relationship with the minor victim 'N' and his co-accused mother, Suman, accused of forcing the victim and another minor, 'G', into prostitution. A compromise between the applicant's brother and the victim's mother did not influence the decision, given the serious nature of the allegations.

PAWAN KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3677/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner, convicted under Section 302 IPC and sentenced to life imprisonment, received a 3-week parole. Factors considered included the objectives of parole under the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, which aim to help convicts maintain social ties and cope with incarceration stress. Although the petitioner had a prior instance of jumping bail, satisfactory jail conduct and timely surrender during interim bail influenced the decision. Parole was granted with conditions to prevent the risk of absconding.

PAWAN VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-316/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Pawan was granted regular bail in a case under Sections 326/308/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Co-accused Manoj @ Bhaddi and Karan @ Dolly had previously been granted bail, and the complainant/eye witness had become hostile. Pawan surrendered before the trial court on 11.10.2023 and had been in custody for over 4 months.

PINTU DAS VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-192/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The appellant's conviction for voyeurism, insult to the modesty of a woman, and sexual harassment under relevant laws was upheld. Arguments regarding discrepancies in testimonies and mobile phone ownership were rejected. Emphasis was placed on the importance of protecting children from such crimes and avoiding victim-shaming. No grounds were found to impose a lenient sentence, given the crime's severe impact on the victim.

POOJA SHARMA BAJAJ VS KUNAL BAJAJ & ORS [CRL.M.C.-1082/2019]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The sessions court erred in setting aside the magistrate's summoning order for the accused's alleged bigamy under Section 494 IPC and abetment under Section 109 IPC. At the summoning stage, a prima facie assessment of the complaint and evidence is required, rather than a comprehensive evaluation. Sufficient evidence, including photographs and a birth certificate, indicated the existence of a second marriage. The inability to conclusively prove essential marriage ceremonies at this stage should not prevent the victim from presenting her case during trial. Emphasis was placed on addressing the practical realities faced by the victim in cases of bigamy. The sessions court's order was set aside, and the magistrate's summoning order was upheld, with no conclusions regarding the merits of the case.

PRABHAT KRISHNA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-316/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR against Prabhat Krishna for offenses under Sections 354, 509 of the IPC and Section 3(1)(x) of the SC & ST Act was partially quashed after a settlement agreement. The complainants agreed to leave their jobs at Cheshire Home and withdraw their complaints in exchange for compensation. The FIR was quashed for those who complied with the settlement, while the matter remains open for non-compliant respondents. A separate contempt petition was filed against the latter.

PRADEEPKUMAR YADAV VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1944/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Pradeep Kumar Yadav was dismissed due to charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, following the recovery of 14 kg of Heroin, which qualifies as a commercial quantity considering both the substance and any neutral substances. Evidence, including call detail records, hotel stay records, and the co-accused's absconding, indicated that the accused may not be innocent or that further offenses could occur if released on bail.

PRAJWAL ELROY RAJ VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3542/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of accused Prajwal Elroy Raj was dismissed due to sufficient evidence of his involvement in a conspiracy related to narcotics. Direct cryptocurrency transactions were established between Raj and co-accused Anurag Thakur, with contraband linked to Raj. He allegedly ordered narcotics via the dark web and imported them into India, while co-accused Faizan Ali distributed them. The involvement met the criteria of Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act. Previous bail in another NDPS case did not influence the decision.

PRANSH SINGH VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9089/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Question number 188 was marked as attempted based on the petitioner's OMR sheet, which indicated the circle was more than half filled. The rule to consider only the first 10 attempted questions in Section B for evaluation was valid according to pre-declared norms. Claims regarding the exclusion of question number 197 and loss of marks were deemed meritless, leading to dismissal of the petition.

PRATEEK PURI VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-64/2006]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition filed by Prateek Puri to quash an order transferring a case was dismissed due to non-prosecution, as the petitioner and his counsel had not appeared for two years and no arguments or written submissions were provided.

PRAVEEN @ NAVEEN @ VICKY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-739/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition filed by Praveen@Naveen@Vicky for 8 weeks of parole to file an SLP against the dismissal of his criminal appeal was dismissed. The petitioner's unsatisfactory conduct in prison, including two major punishments for misconduct and fighting with other inmates, violated Rule 1210(II) of the Delhi Prison Rules 2018. Parole eligibility is contingent upon good conduct, and the petitioner's behavior contradicted the rehabilitative goals of imprisonment. Legal aid facilities were mandated to assist the petitioner in filing the SLP.

PRINCE MATHURAM JAYACHANDRAN VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-946/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Anticipatory bail was denied for Prince Mathuram Jayachandra, implicated in a conspiracy to create fake Schengen visas. Evidence, including co-accused disclosures and financial transactions, indicated his role as the mastermind. His flight to the UK and evasion of investigation resulted in a Look Out Circular. The serious charges under Sections 420, 468, 471, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code, along with Section 12 of the Passport Act, were considered insufficient for granting bail.

PRIYA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-600/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The investigation was deemed deficient due to the failure to record the petitioner's statement under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the absence of a site plan, and neglecting the allegations of the petitioner's younger sister under Sections 354 and 354D of the Indian Penal Code. A directive was issued for further investigation on these matters, with a supplementary report required within one month, highlighting that constitutional powers allow for additional investigation even after charges have been framed if significant deficiencies exist.

PRIYANSHU RAJ VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9404/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition filed by Dr. Priyanshu Raj was dismissed, challenging the decision of the NBEMS Examination Ethics Committee to debar him from the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (Postgraduate) 2024 (NEET PG-2024). The Examination Ethics Committee concluded that he had used unfair means by providing false information in his NEET PG-2023 application, leading to the cancellation of his candidature for that exam and his debarment from NEET PG-2024. Although the initial communication regarding the penalty omitted the debarment detail due to an error, the Committee's minutes explicitly recorded the decision to debar him from both exams. Dr. Raj did not contest the Committee's finding of unfair means, resulting in the dismissal of his writ petition.

PUNEET SALUJA VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-766/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The case is remanded to the trial/appellate court to reevaluate whether the pendency of an insolvency petition, the petitioner's medical condition, and ongoing consumer complaints against the insurance company justify waiving the requirement for the petitioner to deposit 20% of the compensation amount during the appeal under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The lower court previously considered only the first two circumstances and is instructed to make a fresh decision within two months, free from external influence.

PURUSHOTTAM SAHU VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-580/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

An FIR registered under Sections 498A, 406, and 304B of the Indian Penal Code, concerning dowry-related torture and a victim's suicide, cannot be quashed based on a compromise between the parties. The serious allegations involve heinous offenses that must be prosecuted in the interest of society, regardless of individual settlements. The ongoing investigation has not yet produced a chargesheet, making it premature to halt proceedings. No observations made preclude the merits of the case during trial.

RAGHAV @ RAGHI VS STATE OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-3804/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Bail was denied to Raghav, accused in the murder of Sarvind, based on eyewitness testimony from Sarvind's wife and son, and CCTV footage showing Raghav and co-accused Rakesh firing at the victim. The defense's claim of accidental shooting was rejected due to clear identification of Raghav as one of the shooters. Additional concerns arose from the fact that material witnesses have yet to be examined and allegations of witness intimidation. Given the seriousness of the offense and ongoing threats, bail was not granted.

RAJEEV DAGAR VS STATE & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-3080/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A complaint under the POCSO Act against the petitioner's brother-in-law could not be referred to mediation, as serious sexual offences against minors are not suitable for settlement through mediation. Judicial errors occurred when the Special Court referred the case to mediation and allowed the complaint to be withdrawn based on a settlement between the petitioner and his wife, undermining the gravity of the offences and the rights of the minor victims. The petitioner delayed approaching the High Court for over 8 years, and the case was not reopened, with an observation made regarding the misuse of children's suffering for personal disputes. Cases under the POCSO Act cannot be resolved through mediation.

RAJEEV JHAWAR VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [BAIL APPLN.-1683/2022]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The applicant Rajeev Jhawar's request for clarification of a prior order was dismissed. The order clearly mandated that he join the CBI investigation within 10 days and provided a 7-day notice before any arrest. The applicant had previously missed the opportunity to seek clarification and the lower court had addressed the issue of non-bailable warrants against him. There were no grounds to extend the time for him to join the investigation.

RAJEEV JHAWAR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [CRL.M.C.-1018/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The issuance of non-bailable warrants against Rajeev Jhawar was justified due to his repeated failures to appear in court despite multiple opportunities and warnings. The trial court had previously taken a lenient approach, rejecting exemption applications without coercive measures. Jhawar's continued absence necessitated the NBWs to ensure his presence. The balance between the accused's personal liberty and societal interest was appropriately maintained, and the NBWs were deemed legal. Jhawar's petition challenging the NBWs was dismissed.

RAJEEV JHAWAR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-481/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Rajeev Jhawar, Managing Director of Usha Martin Ltd., had his anticipatory bail application dismissed due to accusations of agreeing to pay a bribe of Rs. 50 lakhs to former CBI officer N.M.P. Sinha, with Rs. 30 lakhs already delivered and recovered by the CBI. The Directorate of Enforcement's case under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) claims the Rs. 30 lakhs constitutes "proceeds of crime." Jhawar did not cooperate with the investigation and failed to appear despite summons, which contributed to the rejection of the bail application. He also faces related proceedings in a CBI case.

RAJENDRA KISHORI PHARMACY COLLEGE VS PHARMACY COUNCIL OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-6438/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The approval granted by the Pharmacy Council of India (PCI) for D.Pharma courses under Section 12 of the Pharmacy Act, 1948 is permanent unless withdrawn under Section 13. The conditions requiring institutions to seek "Continuation of Approval" annually and pay Pharmacy Education Regulatory Charges (PERC) were quashed. The PCI lacks the authority to mandate yearly continuation of approval or PERC payments. The matter was resolved based on previous similar judgments.

RAJESH MARWAH VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5428/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by Rajesh Marwah under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. was dismissed. The petitioner, as the accused, had previously cross-examined the complainant, Ankur Rastogi, and did not provide adequate reasons for further cross-examination under Section 311 Cr.P.C. Key admissions were made by the petitioner regarding the loan agreement and the cheque's presentation. The use of Section 391 Cr.P.C. was deemed inappropriate to delay proceedings or misuse the legal process, given the detailed prior cross-examination of the complainant and the absence of valid grounds for recalling the witness.

RAJNISH @ BANTU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4129/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Rajnish @ Bantu received 3 weeks of interim bail due to his medical condition, including being HIV positive and having gallbladder stones. His release is conditional on not traveling outside Delhi and surrendering after the bail period.

RAKESH VS STATE (NCT. OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-1162/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner received a 3-week furlough despite previous absconding incidents. Monitoring of the petitioner's overall satisfactory conduct and prison records indicated eligibility under the Delhi Prison Rules. The furlough was granted with conditions to ensure compliance and mitigate the risk of absconding.

RAKESH VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.C.-8782/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by accused Rakesh under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was dismissed, affirming the trial court's rejection of his request to recall prosecution witnesses PW-1 and PW-2 for further cross-examination. It was noted that PW-1 and PW-2 had already been thoroughly cross-examined by the previous counsel, and a change of counsel or claims of incompetence do not justify recalling the witnesses. The recall of witnesses requires judicious discretion to prevent failure of justice, and no grounds for interference with the trial court's order were established.

RAKESH YADAV & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4677/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

An FIR against the petitioners for offenses under Sections 376, 377, 323, 509, 34, and 380 of the Indian Penal Code cannot be quashed based on a monetary settlement of Rs. 1.5 lakhs. Serious allegations of sexual violence, threats, and misrepresentation necessitate a trial to establish the truthfulness of the claims. Quashing the FIR on the basis of payment would trivialize the victim's suffering and undermine the judicial process, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

RAM NATH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-511/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Ram Nath was granted furlough for three weeks despite a previous punishment for jumping parole in 2014. His satisfactory conduct in prison over the last five years and family circumstances were taken into account. The decision considered the objectives of the Delhi Prison Rules, allowing for the balancing of the convict's interests with societal concerns. Conditions for the furlough include a personal bond, reporting to the local police station, and immediate surrender after the furlough period ends.

RAMBIR RATHI@ RAMVEER SINGH VS THE STATE AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-3830/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Rambir Rathi, accused under Sections 376, 377, 328, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, was dismissed due to serious allegations, including threats to the prosecutrix and sexual assault exploiting his position of authority. The prosecutrix had not yet been cross-examined, and the case was repeatedly adjourned at the request of the defense counsel. Given the gravity of the charges and the petitioner's conduct, no grounds for bail were established at this stage.

RAMESH @ DUDHIYA VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1322/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition filed by Ramesh @ Dudhiya for a 3-week parole to care for his ailing brother was dismissed. The application was considered premature since it was submitted only 5 days prior, and the authorities had not yet made a decision. The authorities were directed to expedite the consideration of the parole application per the Prison Rules, but the request for parole was not granted through the writ petition.

RAMINDER SINGH @ HAPPY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2820/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A convict cannot be denied parole or furlough for lacking a permanent residential address in Delhi, as the Delhi Prison Rules do not require one for such relief. The Sentence Review Board (SRB) does not mandate that a convict must have been previously released on parole or furlough to be eligible for premature release. The SRB is directed to evaluate the petitioner's case considering their social context and socio-economic conditions, providing guidance on the interpretation of the relevant rules regarding parole, furlough, and premature release.

RANBIR SINGH VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-113/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Ranbir Singh was dismissed, with the basis being that the chargesheet filed without the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) report does not constitute an "incomplete" chargesheet for default bail purposes under Section 167(2) of the Cr.P.C. Previous judgments indicated that the absence of the FSL report does not warrant default bail, and interim bail granted in another case did not stay these judgments or establish a general rule for default bail when the FSL report is missing. Consequently, there were no grounds to grant default bail in this case.

RAVI KAPOOR VS STATE-NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2998/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Ravi Kapoor, serving life sentences for two murders, requested four weeks of parole after 14 years in prison for family ties and knee surgery. Despite a satisfactory jail record since 2017, he had previously faced 41 major punishments and is linked to about 20 criminal cases, including murder and robbery. His most recent conviction in October 2023 was for the murder of a journalist. Parole was denied due to his habitual offender status, the severity of his crimes, and concerns for public safety, despite acknowledging the right to maintain social ties.

RESHMA VS THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE [W.P.(CRL)-3502/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The concept of 'pardanashin woman' is recognized as a legal definition independent of religious practices, with no religious mandate in Hinduism, Sikhism, or other faiths for women to wear veils or observe pardah. The request for police sensitization regarding pardanashin women was rejected due to potential practical difficulties and its impact on effective crime investigation. Law enforcement must adhere to principles of impartiality, fairness, and respect individual rights, with the existing legal framework deemed adequate to protect the dignity and rights of all women, irrespective of their religious beliefs.

RINKU ACTING AS GUARDIAN OF MANYA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9597/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Directorate of Education's assignment of different school IDs to the Junior and Senior Wings of the same school caused disruption in the education of EWS/DG students. A merger of these school IDs is necessary to ensure a seamless transition and continuity of education for these students. Guidelines were established to create a respectful and accessible admission process, including appointing a dedicated Nodal Officer in each school and addressing language barriers. Provisional admissions granted to the petitioners' children were regularized during the case.

RISHAB DWAR VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-136/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Rishab Dwar in a POCSO case was dismissed due to deliberate attempts to mislead regarding the loss of a crucial mobile phone. The applicant had a history of being declared a proclaimed offender, and the significance of the mobile phone evidence contributed to the decision to deny bail.

SAMEER MAHANDRU VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-621/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sameer Mahandru must undergo 'Arthroscopic Medial Meniscal Repair Surgery' at VNA Hospital in Delhi while in judicial custody. The right to life and health is acknowledged as fundamental for an accused. Jail authorities are instructed to transfer him to the hospital for four weeks with appropriate security and allow limited family visits. All medical treatment and hospitalization costs will be borne by the petitioner.

ROHIT KUMAR VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) THROUGH SHO OF PS MANGOL PURI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1493/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The application for anticipatory bail was dismissed due to serious allegations of blackmail, threats, and sexual assault against the complainant, despite an initial consensual relationship. A prima facie case against the accused, the nature of the offense, and the severity of potential punishment were key factors. The need for custodial interrogation was also considered significant.

RUKHSAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1941/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of petitioner Rukhsar was dismissed due to serious allegations of physical abuse related to dowry demands against her and her mother-in-law, as well as involvement in the improper handling of the deceased victim's body. The decision reflected the gravity of the allegations and existing evidence while remaining neutral on the case's merits.

SAMAN KHANAM VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-1340/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition by Saman Khanam for correcting her father's name in her educational certificates was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the relevant school and regional CBSE office are located in Bihar. The presence of CBSE's head office in Delhi does not establish jurisdiction. The petition was dismissed without examination of merits, allowing the petitioner to seek redress in the appropriate court.

SAMEER @ YOGESH VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1457/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sameer @ Yogesh was granted regular bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The FIR was registered in 2009, and he had previously been granted bail but failed to appear in court since 2018, resulting in non-bailable warrants and his declaration as a proclaimed offender. Given his time in custody since re-arrest in September 2023, he must provide a personal bond of Rs. 25,000 and two sureties of the same amount, along with compliance with certain conditions.

SAMEER MAHANDRU VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-621/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sameer Mahandru was not entitled to interim bail on medical grounds, as his serious medical conditions did not meet the threshold of being "life-threatening" required under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. He was permitted to undergo necessary knee surgery while in custody since the scheduled date had already passed.

SAMPURAN SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-588/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The conviction of the appellant under Section 308 of the Indian Penal Code was upheld, but the sentence was reduced to 2 months and 3 days already served. The case was 23 years old, the co-accused was acquitted, and the appellant had maintained law-abiding behavior since the incident. An additional fine of Rs. 10,000 was imposed to be deposited in the Delhi High Court Lawyers' Library Fund.

SANDEEP PAWAR VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-483/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sandeep Pawar received interim bail to be admitted to AIIMS hospital for two weeks while remaining in judicial custody. He suffers from a heart ailment and has been treated both in jail and at outside hospitals. The admission for specialized treatment was granted due to his health condition and the right to adequate healthcare, with the condition that he covers the expenses. This order does not address the merits of the case.

SANDEEP VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2520/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The punishment ticket issued to the petitioner on 05.07.2022 violated the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, due to a lack of mandatory judicial appraisal. The ticket was quashed, and the Jail Superintendent is instructed to reconsider the petitioner's furlough application without the invalid ticket, with a decision required within three weeks.

SANGHMITRA VS STATE [CRL.M.C.-1227/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Cognizance taken by the Magistrate was valid as the complaint was filed within three years from the alleged offence, not barred by limitation. The offence under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code is a continuing offence, with mental cruelty potentially persisting after separation from the matrimonial home. The Sessions Court's discharge of the accused based on the petitioner being a police officer reflected unjustified bias. Charges under Sections 498A/34 were upheld as valid, highlighting the necessity for judicial education and impartiality free from gender biases.

SANJAY SINGH VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-76/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sanjay Singh is not entitled to bail in a money laundering case related to the Delhi Excise Policy scam. Evidence, including statements from approver Dinesh Arora, indicates Singh's involvement and receipt of Rs. 2 crores in proceeds of crime. Claims that Singh is not an accused in the scheduled offence and that the approver's statement is unreliable were rejected. The conditions for bail under Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act are not satisfied. The trial court has been directed to expedite proceedings for a fair trial.

SANTRA DEVI @ SAVITA KASANA & ORS. VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-1189/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR against petitioners 1, 2, 4, and 5 is quashed due to vague and unclear allegations. The FIR against petitioners 3 and 6 remains, as there are specific allegations of their involvement in the sexual exploitation, rape, and abduction of a child. Further arguments regarding the merits of the case against the other accused can be made during the framing of charges.

SATYANARAYAN SHARMA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-197/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Satyanarayan Sharma was dismissed due to serious economic offenses involving cheating multiple victims. As a major shareholder and authorized signatory of the accused company's bank account, Sharma was implicated in a fraudulent scheme that deceived victims into investing in a housing project without necessary permissions or actual development. His previous misuse of interim bail and the presence of witnesses yet to be examined contributed to the decision against granting regular bail.

SAVALIA RAJAN ARUNBHAI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9402/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Examination Ethics Committee's decision to debar the petitioner from the NEET (PG) examination for 2023 and 2024 was upheld due to the use of unfair means, specifically the submission of false information in the application for NEET (PG)-2023. Although there was a miscommunication regarding the penalty, the Committee's findings on the unfair means remained unchallenged, leading to non-interference with the decision.

SAYAN SASMAL MINOR THROUGH NATURAL GUARDIAN MS SAMPA SASMAL MOTHER VS DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12078/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition filed by a student was dismissed regarding the school's handling of his answer sheets, which were misplaced, leading to a requirement to re-take exams and subsequent failure, necessitating repetition of the 8th standard. An investigation by the Department of Education confirmed no irregularities in the re-evaluation of the answer sheets. The student's prior academic performance was deemed insufficient to challenge the failure, as the evaluated answer sheets were confirmed to belong to him. Claims of arbitrary and unjust actions by the school authorities lacked merit and were rejected.

SGS INFRATECH LTD VS PUNJAB AND SIND BANK [CS(OS)-2541/2014]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The plaintiff company is entitled to recover Rs. 1,73,14,127 from the defendant bank, along with interest at 9% per annum from the date of the suit until realization. The defendant bank changed the interest rate from the agreed BPLR system to the Base Rate system without the plaintiff's consent, violating the terms of the sanction letter. The plaintiff consistently objected to these actions, and their calculations of excess interest charged were accepted. The defendant's argument that the plaintiff accepted the revised terms by closing the loan account was rejected, given the plaintiff's ongoing objections.

SH. RAJESH GOGNA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT, DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1312/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The pre-arrest bail application of Rajesh Gogna was dismissed in a case involving threats and firearms offenses. Gogna was identified as the main conspirator who hired others to threaten a complainant over a financial dispute. Evidence indicated suspicious activities, including meetings and communication with co-accused individuals, who had criminal backgrounds. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary to investigate the conspiracy further, with non-bailable warrants issued against Gogna for avoiding arrest.

SH. RITESH KUMAR VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-9065/2018]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The decision of Jawaharlal Nehru University's Academic Council to reject the petitioner's request for de-registration from the PhD program was upheld. The petitioner violated mandatory clauses of the PhD Ordinance concerning the minimum residency period and external employment. The Academic Council, with discretion under Clause 24 of the Ordinance, found no valid exceptional circumstances to relax the rules. Maintaining academic discipline and standards is crucial, and allowing exceptions without justification would compromise the credibility of the University's regulations. Thus, the decision of the Academic Council was not interfered with.

SH. ROHIT GAUTAM & ANR. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-4031/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR against the petitioners under Sections 354(A)(1)/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code can be quashed, as the parties have amicably settled their disputes through a Settlement Deed dated 07.12.2023, with the complainant expressing no objection to quashing the FIR. Continuing the proceedings would lead to further conflict, and it is deemed in the interest of justice to quash the FIR and related proceedings. The petitioners are required to deposit a cost of Rs. 15,000 each with the District & Sessions Courts Employees Welfare Association Delhi within three weeks.

SH. SAURABH SETHI VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7208/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Petitions by Dheeraj Pahwa and Saurabh Sethi were allowed, resulting in the quashing of criminal proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The petitioners had resigned as directors of the accused company before the issuance of the dishonored cheque, leading to no liability under Sections 138 and 141 of the NI Act. Additionally, the complaint lacked specific details regarding the petitioners' involvement in the company's operations at the relevant time, necessitating the quashing of the proceedings.

SHABBIR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [CRL.A.-424/2009]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The appellant's conviction under Sections 304(II)/34 IPC and Sections 323/34 IPC was upheld, but the sentence was modified to the 5.5 years already served, with a fine of Rs. 2,000 to be paid within one month. Consideration was given to the 20-year-old incident, the absence of subsequent criminal involvement, and the appellant's reform into a constructive member of society.

SHAKUNTLA DEVI & ANR. VS STATE THROUGH COMMISSIONER OF DELHI POLICE & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-2788/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Senior citizens can seek eviction of their son and daughter-in-law from their self-acquired property under Rule 22(3) of the Delhi Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens (Amendment) Rules, 2016. Timely resolution of such applications is crucial to uphold the rights and well-being of senior citizens as intended by the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007. The District Magistrate must resolve the eviction application filed in 2021 within one month.

SHALLY GUPTA VS THE CHAIRMAN ALL INDIA TECHNICAL EDUCATION COUNSEL [W.P.(C)-11043/2019]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Shally Gupta, a petitioner who scored 39.29% in the AICTE validation examination, is entitled to relief similar to that granted to other candidates in similar situations. The AICTE must treat her as qualified by rounding her scores to 40%. The validation examination aims to assess candidates' basic abilities, and Gupta has over 17 years of experience as an engineer, supporting her request. The AICTE has previously complied with similar directions from other High Courts.

SMT. MANJIRA DEVI AYURVEDA MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL VS UTTRAKHAND UNIVERSITY OF AYURVEDA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12041/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition from Smt. Manjira Devi Ayurveda Medical College and Hospital was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, as the institute is located in Uttarakhand and issues are primarily against Uttarakhand Ayurveda University. The appropriate forum for addressing the grievance is the High Court of Uttarakhand, not the Delhi High Court, despite the presence of the Ministry of AYUSH in Delhi.

SHAROOKH KHAN VS INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-9554/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sharookh Khan's petition to Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) for a result declaration on a changed subject was dismissed. He had completed his B.A. program, making him ineligible for a retroactive subject change under university regulations. It was noted that IGNOU's online portal did not prevent subject change requests after degree completion. As a preventive measure, IGNOU was directed to add a disclosure requirement to its portal for candidates regarding their enrollment status. Although Khan chose to withdraw his petition, the directions regarding the portal were issued.

SHASHI SEKHAR ALIAS NEERAJ VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3207/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Delhi Prison Rules 2018 require a 1-month gap between parole and furlough, but the petitioner's wife's stage 4 cancer created exigent circumstances justifying a 4-week parole. Sensitivity and compassion in such cases led to the approval of parole for the petitioner, subject to conditions such as providing a personal bond, weekly reporting to the local police station, and immediate surrender after the parole period.

SHIV KANT CHOUDHARY VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1328/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Shiv Kant Choudhary was dismissed due to the necessity for custodial interrogation to investigate the source and trail of money involved in the case. Choudhary is accused of being the main conspirator who pressured co-accused Sanjeev Kumar Miglani to forge documents related to disputed property and failed to produce the original indemnity bond and other relevant documents. Given the seriousness of the allegations and Choudhary's conduct, no grounds for granting anticipatory bail were established.

SHRI ANAND KUMAR KAPUR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [CRL.M.A.-3708/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Proceedings under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) against the petitioner will continue. The petitioner's conviction under the Prevention of Corruption Act remains valid, and establishing the predicate offense is necessary for PMLA cases. Possession, use, or concealment of proceeds of crime qualifies as an offense under the PMLA, regardless of when the predicate offense occurred. Arguments regarding the retrospective application of PMLA and claims of double jeopardy lack merit.

SHRI B.SAMBI REDDY VS CBI [CRL.M.C.-101/2020]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition filed by the accused under Section 482 for summoning certain documents related to another case against the complainant was dismissed. The requested documents were not relevant to the current case, and the accused did not establish their necessity at the prosecution evidence stage. However, the accused retains the right to file a proper application to summon the documents during the defense evidence stage.

SHWETA VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9430/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Shweta has a legitimate right to have her identity linked with her biological mother, Smt. Santosh Kumari. The CBSE is directed to correct Shweta's name to 'Shweta' and her mother's name to 'Smt. Santosh Kumari' on her 10th-grade certificate. The request to change her father's name was denied, as he is entitled to his complete and proper name.

SIDDHARTH KASANA VS THE STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2790/2022]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Allegations against Siddharth Kasana were found to be specific and serious, with the complainant's statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. supporting the case. The allegations indicated the commission of cognizable offences, leading to the dismissal of the plea to quash the FIR. The petitioner can present arguments during the charge framing stage before the trial court.

SOMENDER YADAV AND ORS VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [CM APPL.-37870/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Somender Yadav and others challenged the removal of their children's names from Delhi Public School Dwarka due to non-payment of increased fees, which they argued was implemented without Directorate of Education approval. The school was instructed to reinstate the children's names, provided the petitioners paid 50% of the hiked fee for the 2024-25 academic year, pending the resolution of the matter. Counter-affidavits were requested from the respondents, with further proceedings scheduled for 30.07.2024.

SOMESH & ORS. VS STATE & ANR [CRL.M.C.-3229/2005]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The order by the Metropolitan Magistrate directing the registration of an FIR against the petitioners was made without reasoning or adequate consideration of the complaint's merits. The Magistrate's brief remarks did not address whether a cognizable offence was established. Material evidence contradicted the complainant's presence at the alleged incident. Due to the absence of a response from the complainant, the order was deemed legally unsustainable, leading to the quashing of the FIR and the dismissal of all related proceedings.

SONU SONKAR VS THE LT GOVERNOR, DELHI & ORS. & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-889/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition filed by Mr. Sonkar was dismissed due to his concealment of material facts and lack of good faith. Ms. T, referred to as the petitioner's "second wife/live-in partner," does not qualify as a "family member" under the Delhi Prison Rules for parole eligibility. A convict does not have the right to parole for maintaining conjugal rights or procreation with a live-in partner when a legally wedded spouse is present. The totality of circumstances led to the dismissal of both the writ petition and the parole application.

ST STEPHENS COLLEGE VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-12933/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The 13 B.A. Programs at St. Stephen's College are classified as separate programs for seat allocation and admissions. The 5% excess allocation policy applies to Christian minority seats as well. The college cannot unilaterally deviate from the seat matrix or selectively allocate seats to Christian students, as it is an aided minority institution. Admission must be granted to 18 of the 19 Christian minority students who sought legal intervention under the excess allocation policy. Guidance was provided to students who were unable to secure admission, emphasizing that their worth is not determined by the institution they attend.

STEPHEN VS NCB AND ANR [W.P.(CRL)-3422/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition by Nigerian national Stephen for a writ of mandamus to obtain a No Objection Certificate for repatriation to Nigeria was dismissed. He had previously been convicted under the NDPS Act and served a 10-year sentence, later acquitted by the High Court; however, the prosecution filed a Special Leave Petition against this acquittal. The maximum punishment for his offense is 20 years, and the pending appeal creates uncertainty about the acquittal's finality. Additionally, legal provisions regarding the repatriation of foreign nationals without valid documents were noted. No grounds for repatriation were established, resulting in the dismissal of the petition.

SUMIT CHAKRABARTI VS THE STATE [CRL.M.A.-25845/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail conditions for petitioner Sumit Chakrabarti, granted anticipatory bail in 2016, were upheld. The right to travel abroad is recognized as part of personal liberty, but obtaining prior permission from the trial court is required due to serious allegations under Section 376 IPC. The requirement to deposit the passport with the investigating officer was modified, but prior approval for international travel remains necessary. The judgment does not address the merits of the case.

SUNIL NAYAK @ FUNDI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-963/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Sunil Nayak was granted one month of parole due to ongoing challenges to his punishment tickets from 2022 and his wife's serious accident, which left their minor children without care. Conditions for parole include a personal bond, weekly reporting to the local police, providing a contact number, and residing within the NCT of Delhi.

SURESH GAUTAM VS STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1021/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Suresh Gautam's bail application was rejected due to serious allegations of sexual harassment against a deceased civil defense service employee, which were linked to her suicide. The prosecution presented statements from the deceased's mother, detailing that the accused attempted to forcibly kiss her and threatened to disclose the incident, causing the deceased distress. Given the gravity of the charges and the expectation that the trial will conclude within two months, regular bail was denied. The trial court was instructed to expedite the process, with caution against unnecessary delays. Observations made do not reflect an opinion on the case's merits.

SURESH KUMAR VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-493/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petition filed by Suresh Kumar was dismissed, affirming the Metropolitan Magistrate's order that closed his right to cross-examine the 80-year-old complainant. The petitioner had previously been granted a final opportunity to cross-examine but failed to do so, despite a directive to conclude the trial within six months. Given the case's 8-year duration, the complainant's advanced age, and the petitioner's delaying tactics, no further opportunity was deemed appropriate.

SWATI PATEL VS THE STATE & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2630/2021]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Anticipatory bail was upheld for a sitting Member of Parliament accused of rape, criminal intimidation, and destruction of evidence. The decision considered the principles for cancelling bail, identifying no supervening circumstances or illegality in the original order. Justifications for bail included audio recordings and a previous FIR against the prosecutrix for extortion. The petition was dismissed, but the prosecutrix was allowed to seek protection from the Witness Protection Committee if threatened.

SWATI SAISTA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-104/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition was dismissed on the grounds of res judicata, as a similar petition had previously been dismissed. The electricity connection was disconnected by the housing society due to the petitioner's non-payment of bills, and police officials found no cognizable offense. Requests for directing the petitioner's husband to pay electricity bills or interim maintenance were rejected, given that those matters were pending in a domestic violence case. No breach of fundamental rights or basis for compensation was established, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

SYED ABU ALA VS NCB [CRL.M.A.-443/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Syed Abu Ala, a 73-year-old appellant, received approval to renew his passport and travel to Saudi Arabia for one month to perform the Hajj pilgrimage, acknowledging the religious significance of the event. Despite a pending criminal appeal under the NDPS Act since 2010, provisions were made for his travel under certain conditions, including submitting a personal bond and notifying the trial court of his plans.

THE PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -CENTRAL -1 VS CAPITAL POWER SYSTEMS LTD. [ITA-501/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal and the Coordinate Bench of the High Court did not establish that the undisclosed income of R.S. 7 crores belonged to Capital Power Systems Ltd. Statements by the CEO, Pawan Kumar Bansal, were found to be contradictory and unreliable. Therefore, conditions under Section 150 of the Income Tax Act were not met, and the Assessing Officer lacked valid grounds to reopen the assessment for AY 2007-08. The decisions of the CIT(A) and the ITAT, which set aside the Assessing Officer's reassessment order, were upheld.

TILAK VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-707/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Tilak was dismissed due to serious allegations against him. The victim experienced continuous physical and mental torture by Tilak and his family for failing to meet dowry demands, including during her pregnancy. Tilak's extramarital affair and secret marriage to another woman further traumatized the victim. The gravity of these allegations and the victim's subsequent death from the alleged torture influenced the decision, emphasizing concerns about societal implications.

UTKIRBEK KHALILOV ALIAS ALI VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4355/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Utkirbek Khalilov's bail application was dismissed due to serious allegations of trafficking seven girls from Uzbekistan to India for prostitution and sexual slavery. The trial is in its early stages, with charges not yet framed and 34 prosecution witnesses pending examination. The potential for witness influence and evidence tampering contributed to the denial of bail. No opinion on the merits of the case was provided.

VARIJA BAJAJ & ANR. VS M/S ASSOTECH LTD. & ORS. [CM APPL.-2259/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

A further extension until March 31, 2024, was granted for respondents to comply with a settlement agreement, noting that partial payments had been made and efforts were ongoing to sell flats for remaining funds. This extension, subject to a cost of Rs. 2 lakhs payable to the petitioners within three weeks, aims to facilitate the timely fulfillment of outstanding dues without addressing the case's merits.

VARUN CHAUHAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-786/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The anticipatory bail application of Varun Chauhan was denied following allegations of impersonating the Personal Secretary to the Union Home Minister and participating in a conspiracy to defraud a complainant of Rs. 17 lakhs. The severity of the impersonation offense was recognized for its potential to undermine public trust in government institutions. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary to uncover the conspiracy, recover evidence, and retrieve the embezzled funds. Granting bail was viewed as potentially obstructing the investigation.

VARUN WISHWAS VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-79/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The interim bail application of Varun Wishwas, charged under Sections 376/506 of the IPC and Section 6 of the POCSO Act, was dismissed. Adequate medical treatment was confirmed to be provided by government hospitals and jail authorities. Despite acknowledging Wishwas's deteriorating health, the need to protect the rights of the minor victim, whose testimony remains pending, was emphasized. Jail authorities were instructed to ensure continued medical care, and Wishwas was permitted to submit a new bail application should his condition decline further. No opinions on the merits of the case were expressed.

VEDPAL VS THE STATE OF N.C.T. OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-586/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The bail application of Vedpal was dismissed due to serious allegations of involvement in a network leaking government examination question papers for the Haryana Group-D exam. The recovery of admit cards, mobile phones, blank signed cheques, and other documents supported victim statements. Cheating in government exams was highlighted as a threat to the merit-based selection process, warranting the denial of bail at this stage.

VIDUSHI KASNIYA VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11640/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition by Vidushi Kasniya was dismissed due to the exclusion of Karate from the list of sports eligible for the sports quota in postgraduate programs at the University of Delhi. The University's Bulletin of Information for Postgraduate Admissions 2024-25 specified the eligible sports, which did not include Karate. The eligibility criteria established by the University are binding on all candidates, and participation in the admission process precludes challenging the Bulletin's terms.

VIJAY DAHIYA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [CRL.M.A.-4474/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Vijay Dahiya, serving a life sentence, was granted one month of parole to accompany his son for board examinations. The decision considered the child's welfare and the mother's inability to transport the child to the exam center. Factors included the petitioner's prior good conduct on interim bail and furlough, with parole granted under specific conditions.

VIJAY DARDA VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [CRL.M.A.-5786/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Vijay Darda, sentenced for offenses under Sections 120B/420 of the Indian Penal Code and the Prevention of Corruption Act, is permitted to renew his passport for three years. Consideration of the relevant notification on passport renewals for individuals with pending criminal cases revealed that Darda has previously traveled abroad without misuse of this liberty. His need for travel for professional and personal reasons is balanced with passport regulations.

VIKAS DATTATRAYA BHOSALE (IN JC) VS STATE (N.C.T. OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-702/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Vikas Dattatraya Bhosale's bail application has been rejected in an economic offenses case involving allegations of defrauding over 71 victims of approximately Rs. 67 lakhs through his firm, M/s N.D. Enterprises. The charges include Sections 406/420/120B of the Indian Penal Code for inducing investments with false promises before absconding. As the manager of the firm, Bhosale did not cooperate with the investigation and was arrested in Ahmedabad. Evidence links him to the firm and the fraudulent activities, leading to the rejection of his bail application due to the serious nature of the accusations.

VIKASH @ AALU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-3347/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The Jail Superintendent incorrectly rejected the petitioner's parole application by applying a rule meant for undertrial prisoners, while the petitioner was actually a convicted prisoner. The Jail Superintendent is required to forward the parole application to the competent authority for a decision within two weeks.

VINEETA AND ORS VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EXAMINATION AND. ANR [W.P.(C)-3181/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Clause P-2 of the CBSE's notice dated 05.09.2023, requiring a domicile certificate for Children with Special Needs (CwSN) to be eligible for Class X and XII examinations under the private category, is not arbitrary or discriminatory. This decision aligns with a prior judgment regarding a similar requirement for female private candidates. The necessity for judicial restraint in academic policy matters was emphasized, noting that allowing the petitioners to participate at this stage would disrupt ongoing examinations and unfairly impact other candidates. The writ petitions were dismissed without providing relief to the petitioners.

VINOD @ VINODA VS THE STATE (GOVT OF NCT, DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-396/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner was granted one month of parole after serving over 15 years of incarceration with generally satisfactory conduct, aside from one re-arrest during a prior parole. The decision considered the objectives of parole under prison rules and included specific conditions for the granted period.

VINOD VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) [W.P.(CRL)-2646/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Vinod was granted a three-week furlough despite his application being previously rejected. The decision considered the principles under the Delhi Prison Rules, his satisfactory conduct in jail, and his obligation to care for his elderly father and re-establish family ties. Conditions for the furlough included a personal bond, reporting to the local police, and immediate surrender at the end of the furlough period.

VIRENDER CHAHAL @ VIRENDER VS STATE AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-753/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The FIR for rape under Section 376 of the Indian Penal Code cannot be quashed solely based on a settlement between the accused and the victim. Concerns were raised about the trial court judge's suggestion of a settlement, prompting the case to be assigned to another judge for a fair trial. Serious offenses like rape have broader societal implications and cannot be resolved through private compromise, as established in previous legal principles.

VISHAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3420/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Vishal's parole application was rejected based on the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, due to his history of jumping parole/furlough twice, absconding co-accused individuals, and unsatisfactory jail conduct. Additionally, the deceased person, considered by Vishal as his son, does not meet the legal definition of "family" under the prison rules.

VISHNU VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-464/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Vishnu received regular bail after being charged under Sections 326/308/34 of the Indian Penal Code for an alleged attack on the complainant's relatives. Co-accused Manoj and Karan had already been granted bail due to a settlement with the complainant. Vishnu surrendered after absconding, and a supplementary chargesheet was filed against him. The complainant later turned hostile during the prosecution evidence. Bail was granted to Vishnu under specific conditions.

VIVEKANANDA INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES & ANR. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9196/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner institute cannot claim non-adherence to the 2016 Policy Guidelines issued by the Government of NCT of Delhi, having consistently complied with and benefited from them. The state's policy, which requires a minimum 75% intake for two consecutive years prior to approving increased intake, is not in conflict with the AICTE Act, 1987, as it establishes an additional minimum standard where the AICTE does not have specific norms. The writ petition filed by the institute is dismissed, while recognizing that the state's policy may require review to adapt to the evolving needs of technical education.

WHITE MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9139/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The writ petition by White Medical College and Hospital for the renewal of 150 MBBS seats for the academic year 2024-25 was dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction, as the college is located in Punjab, making the Punjab and Haryana High Court the appropriate venue. The presence of the National Medical Commission's office in Delhi does not grant jurisdiction to the Delhi High Court. The petitioner had previously withdrawn a similar writ petition with permission to approach the appropriate court.

X VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [CRL.REV.P.-1161/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Charges were framed against the accused under Sections 376 (rape) and 506 (criminal intimidation) of the Indian Penal Code due to sufficient evidence, including the complainant's claims of entering a sexual relationship based on a promise of marriage, which the accused later denied. Evidence such as conversations, divorce proceedings, and a purchased Mangalsutra indicated strong suspicion against the accused. The previous discharge order was set aside, and charges were directed to be framed under the relevant sections without commenting on the case's merits.

YOGESH @ RINKU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-2777/2023]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner's writ petition challenging the rejection of his furlough application was allowed. The petitioner, convicted under Sections 302/392/34 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to life imprisonment, met the eligibility criteria for furlough according to the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. His residential address was verified and he demonstrated satisfactory jail conduct. Furlough was granted for three weeks, subject to specific conditions, to support social relations and alleviate incarceration stress.

YASH DEV SINGH SEJWAL VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT FO DELHI) AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-5815/2022]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The petitioner was declared a 'Proclaimed Offender' and non-bailable warrants issued in a case involving his estranged wife under Sections 498A, 420, and 406 of the Indian Penal Code. The petitioner had been aware of the proceedings and had evaded legal processes for over 20 years. He failed to comply with a settlement and court orders regarding maintenance arrears. Although the designation should have been 'Proclaimed person', the orders against him were upheld, dismissing his plea to set aside the proceedings.

YASH SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9902/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

The university has discretion to set rules regarding student migration but must consider exceptional circumstances rather than act in a rigid manner. The Vice Chancellor of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University is instructed to evaluate a petitioner's application for a transfer certificate, conduct certificate, and migration certificate/NOC for admission to another university. The decision should not be influenced by an earlier notification prohibiting migration and must be made within a specified time, subject to ratification by the competent authority. This applies specifically to the individual case without addressing the broader migration policy.

ZEESHAN HAIDER VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-1606/2024]

Judges: Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma

Material evidence indicates that Zeeshan Haider and Daud Nasir were involved in money laundering related to Amanatullah Khan, a Delhi MLA. Evidence includes statements under Section 50 of PMLA, a seized diary, sale agreements, bank account details, and financial profiles showing assistance in the acquisition and concealment of crime proceeds. Daud Nasir obtained interim bail by misrepresenting his wife's medical condition, raising concerns about his conduct. Given the severity of the offence and the evidence presented, the bail applications for both accused were dismissed.

ABDUL SALAM & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-8896/2011]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The earlier order cancelling the petitioners' birth certificate was set aside, requiring a fresh investigation by the respondent with an opportunity for the petitioners to be heard and submit documents. The deportation order based on the cancellation did not remain valid, and there was an instruction to investigate the issuance of a passport for the first petitioner. The respondent was instructed to refrain from any coercive actions against the petitioners during the investigation and for four weeks thereafter, and the petitioners were permitted to challenge any future orders issued by the respondent.

ABDUL SALAM VS GNCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3512/2011]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner's writ petition was treated as a representation, granting him the opportunity to present additional documents to support his claim of Indian citizenship. The cancellation of his birth certificate was based on a prior inquiry, which did not consider his valid identity documents, including a passport and voter ID card. Respondent authorities were instructed to issue a reasoned order within six months, with the rights and contentions of both parties remaining open for further examination.

AJAY BHATIA VS JITENDER [RC.REV.-281/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition by the landlord was allowed, leading to the overturning of the lower court's dismissal of the eviction petition. The landlord demonstrated a bona fide need for the premises for his son's restaurant business, with prior business constraints due to inadequate space. It was established that alternative accommodations were either unavailable or unsuitable for a restaurant, as they were located on upper floors. The tenant's claims regarding alternate accommodation were unsubstantiated due to their absence as a witness. The tenant is required to vacate the premises within six months.

AJENDER SINGH VS S. KULVINDER SINGH & ORS. [CM APPL.-51628/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The ex-parte decree from the trial court was set aside due to failure to consider documents presented by the appellant, which indicated prior rental payments to the respondents' mother. The appellant is allowed to re-agitate the application under Order IX Rule 13, contingent on a deposit of Rs. 5,00,000 with the court registry within 6 weeks. Both parties must appear before the trial court on the specified date, with no unnecessary adjournments permitted. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open for discussion in the trial court.

ANIL KHATTAR VS CAPT PREETINDER SINGH THAPAR & ORS [RC.REV.-345/2016]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The order dismissing the petitioner's application under Order VI Rule 17 of the Civil Procedure Code is appealable under Section 38 of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958, as it affects the rights and liabilities of the parties. The petitioner may approach the appropriate forum under Section 38 of the DRC Act to challenge the impugned order.

ARUN KUMAR AND ANR VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10967/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The services of petitioners Arun Kumar and another cannot be disturbed by respondents during the pending industrial dispute with the Assistant Labour Commissioner. Section 33(1)(a) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 prohibits employers from altering workmen's conditions of service to their prejudice during such proceedings. The merits of the dispute remain unexamined, with all rights and contentions of the parties left open.

ARVIND SHAH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-11732/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Petitions were allowed based on the Examination Report classifying seized objects as "Antiquity" or "Non-Antiquity" without reasons being deemed unacceptable. Respondent No. 2 must provide reasons for these classifications within 8 weeks and is permitted to conduct a fresh examination of the seized articles with a new report due within the same timeframe. No coercive actions against the petitioners are permitted until these directions are followed, and the petitioners may challenge the provided reasons or new report if dissatisfied.

ARVINDER SINGH VS URMILA BALI [RC.REV.-530/2015]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlord's bona fide requirement for the premises was upheld, with the crucial date for assessing the need being the date the eviction petition was filed. Subsequent events are only considered if they completely undermine the landlord's genuineness, which did not occur in this case. Revisionary jurisdiction is limited to identifying apparent errors on record and cannot replace trial court findings, leading to the dismissal of the tenant's revision petition.

ASHOK GUPTA & ANR VS DEEPAK RAO [RC.REV.-419/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition challenging the eviction order has become infructuous because the landlord has already regained possession of the premises. With possession restored to the landlord as per legal procedures, there is no need for further consideration of the tenant's petition. The tenant did not pursue civil proceedings for possession recovery under relevant legislation, which also limits the grounds for examining the case. Consequently, the revision petition was dismissed.

AUROBINDO REALTY AND INFRASTRUCTURE PRIVATE LIMITED KMC CONSTRUCTIONS LIMITED CONSORTIUM VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [CM APPL.-63019/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The debarment of the petitioner company for two years from participating in tenders by the National Highways Authority of India appears disproportionate and inconsistent with natural justice principles. The show cause notice did not clearly specify the proposed penalty of debarment and violated established requirements. While the contract awarded to the petitioner had been withdrawn, the additional penalty of debarment needed separate justification, which was not provided. An interim stay on the debarment order has been granted pending further examination.

AVINESH KUMAR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ANR. [RFA-403/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appellant's suit was dismissed as barred under Section 91 of the Code of Civil Procedure due to lack of proper filing. The appellant, a temple devotee, lacked the necessary personal interest to seek an injunction under Section 41(j) of the Specific Relief Act. The temple was classified as an unauthorized construction on government land acquired by the Delhi Development Authority, and the appellant held no rights in the land. The decision included vacating previous interim protections, allowing the DDA to proceed with demolition.

BOSCH LTD. VS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF FOREIGN TRADE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11013/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Bosch Ltd. is entitled to re-examine its claim for benefits under the Merchandise Exports from India Scheme (MEIS) despite an error in not marking the shipping bills as 'Yes' for the claim. The relevant authorities must re-examine 185 shipping bills, treat the submissions as affirmatively marked, provide a personal hearing, and issue a decision on the entitlement to MEIS rewards within 12 weeks.

BOSCH CHASSIS SYSTEM INDIA PVT. LTD. VS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF FOREIGN TRADE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11039/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

An inadvertent error in marking shipping bills necessitates that the respondents reassess the petitioner's case, treating the unmarked bills as 'Yes' under the MEIS Scheme. The respondents must offer the petitioner a personal hearing, review relevant documents, and issue a detailed order on the petitioner's MEIS rewards entitlement within 12 weeks, ensuring adherence to the law. All rights and contentions of the parties remain open.

CHAJJU RAM & ANR VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-301/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by the tenant against an eviction order has become infructuous due to the landlord already taking possession of the tenanted premises through execution proceedings. Once possession is legally restored to the landlord, the tenant's petition lacks merit, and the tenant did not pursue civil proceedings for recovery of possession under the relevant Act. The revision petition was dismissed, with similar outcomes noted in related cases.

COCOA HOSPITALITY PVT. LTD VS GOVT OF NCT OF DLEHI & ANR [W.P.(C)-5743/2012]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The agreement between Cocoa Hospitality Pvt. Ltd. and Pacific Development Corporation Limited is classified as a license rather than a lease. The terms of the agreement included restrictions on the licensee's ability to alter the nature of the business and granted the licensor the right to access the premises at any time. These conditions indicated an intention to establish a license. The argument regarding an alternate remedy under the Indian Stamp Act was found inapplicable. The impugned notices and penalty orders were set aside.

D. D. JOSHI VS AKASH BHARATI CGHSL AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12176/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The residential building owned by the respondents, being under 15 meters in height, is not classified as a fire risk according to the Delhi Fire Services Rules, 2010. The petitioner's request for an inspection of fire safety arrangements in the building was rejected, as the Rules do not require inspections for low-rise residential buildings. Additionally, other disputes between the parties have been settled, leaving no further matters to adjudicate.

DAE (SY 22) 13 IRELAND DESIGNATED ACTIVITY COMPANY VS GO AIRLINES (INDIA) LTD. [CONT.CAS(C)-1767/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The respondent Resolution Professional of Go Airlines has willfully disobeyed previous orders regarding aircraft maintenance, monthly inspections, and access to aircraft records. Prima facie evidence of civil contempt exists, prompting a show cause notice for possible contempt proceedings. The plea regarding difficulties in implementing these orders is not acceptable, as the orders result from prior directions.

DALJEET AUTO CENTRE VS JAGMOHAN SINGH BAKSHI [RC.REV.-375/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Daljeet Auto Centre received an extension until June 30, 2025, to vacate the premises, contingent on filing an undertaking. The execution of the prior eviction order is stayed as long as the petitioner complies with the undertaking's terms. Any default will lead to the termination of interim protection, allowing the landlord to pursue recovery of possession and occupation charges.

DALJEET AUTO CENTRE VS JAGMOHAN SINGH BAKSHI [CM APPL.-72669/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The eviction order against the tenant was upheld based on the landlord's bona fide requirement for family use under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The landlord is not obligated to provide alternative accommodation that meets all needs, emphasizing the right to live comfortably in their own property. The revisionary jurisdiction is limited to identifying errors on the record or lack of adjudication by the trial court, without substituting its own view.

DARSHAN SINGH VS SALEHA KHATOON & ORS [CM APPL.-10935/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

A decree of possession against a tenant necessitates the establishment of reasonable mesne profit or user and occupation charges equivalent to market rent. In this instance, the landlord requested payment from the tenant, leading to the determination of charges at rates between Rs. 75,000 and Rs. 85,000 per month for different periods. The tenant was instructed to pay these charges within specified timelines, pending the resolution of the main petition.

DELHI GYMKHANA CLUB LTD. VS DELHI POLLUTION CONTROL COMMITTEE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7633/2014]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Delhi Gymkhana Club Ltd. must file a new application for the regularization of its bore-wells, which were previously allowed to operate under specific conditions regarding their placement distance. The NDMC is to decide on this application within a specified timeframe, allowing the club to be heard and submit additional documents. The matter has not been examined on merits, leaving all rights and contentions of the parties open. Interim protection for the club will continue for four weeks following the communication of the speaking order.

DELHI HINDUSTANI MERCANTILE ASSOCIATION VS DHARAMVIR JAIN & ANR. [RC.REV.-174/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appropriate use and occupation charges for the premises occupied by the Delhi Hindustani Mercantile Association are fixed at Rs. 85,000 per month for the period from October 6, 2018, to November 30, 2024. This amount is based on evidence from registered lease deeds for similar premises in the Chandni Chowk area and an assessment of the size, location, and condition of the premises. The petitioner is directed to pay these charges in a specified manner, which remain subject to the final outcome of the petition.

DELHI HINDUSTANI MERCANTILE ASSOCIATION VS DHARAMVIR JAIN & ANR. [CM APPL.-63704/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appropriate use and occupation charges for the commercial hall on the second floor in Chandni Chowk, New Delhi, are set at Rs. 1,00,000 per month from October 6, 2018, to March 31, 2020; Rs. 85,000 per month from April 1, 2020, to March 31, 2022; and Rs. 1,00,000 per month from April 1, 2022, onwards. These amounts were determined based on rental values of similar premises, the size and condition of the property, and its location. The tenant is required to pay the arrears in three equal installments and continue with the monthly payments to the landlord's account.

DHARAMVEER (THROUGH SPA) VS RITU JAIN [RC.REV.-353/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant, Dharamveer, received an extension until October 31, 2025, to vacate the premises, contingent on monthly payments of Rs. 15,000 for user and occupation charges. An undertaking was required from the tenant to adhere to these terms, including vacating by the specified date and maintaining the property. Execution of a prior eviction order was stayed, but if the tenant defaults on the agreement, the interim protection will end automatically.

DHEERAJ BHARDWAJ VS MEENAKSHI PANDEY [RFA-174/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appeal against a trial court's judgment was dismissed, as the foreign court's judgment did not align with the grounds under the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. The appellant was allowed to initiate appropriate proceedings for a decree of dissolution of marriage.

DINESH VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-302/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Revision Petition filed by the tenant challenging the eviction order is considered infructuous due to the landlord already regaining possession of the premises through execution. Previous judgments establish that once possession is legally restored to the landlord, the tenant's petition loses relevance. The examination by the High Court is limited to identifying apparent errors or lack of adjudication by the Trial Court, without substituting its view. The tenant failed to initiate appropriate civil proceedings for possession recovery under Section 19 of the Delhi Rent Control Act. Similar orders have been issued in associated Revision Petitions.

DR BERND AUGUSTIN VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-11757/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The examination report dated 07.12.2016 issued by Respondent No. 2 was deemed deficient for classifying items as "Antiquity" or "Non-Antiquity" without reasoning. Respondent No. 2 must provide the reasons for the classifications to petitioners Arvind Shah and Dr. Bernd Augustin within 8 weeks and conduct a fresh examination of the articles during this period. No coercive actions against the petitioners are permitted until these requirements are fulfilled. The emphasis is on the necessity for adequate reasoning from the statutory authority in its findings.

GAMMON ENGINEERS & CONTRACTORS PVT LTD VS DELHI TOURISM & TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION & ANR [W.P.(C)-3043/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Modification of a prior order from 05.05.2020 allows for payments to the Petitioner by Respondent No. 1 once funds are provided by Respondent No. 2. Due to the need to address disputed facts, which is not suitable for writ proceedings, the previous statement made by Respondent No. 1's counsel is deemed non-binding to preserve the integrity of ongoing arbitration. The Petitioner may amend claims before the Arbitral Tribunal, with Respondents agreeing not to object on limitation grounds. The directions are issued with the consent of the parties and do not affect their rights in the arbitration.

GOPAL SHARMA VS MALLO MAL MALHOTRA [CM APPL.-6160/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appropriate rental rate for the premises occupied by the petitioner-tenant is set at Rs. 55,000 per month from January 29, 2024, to October 31, 2024, and Rs. 62,500 per month from November 1, 2024, onwards. This rate accounts for the slightly poorer condition of the subject premises compared to an adjacent property. The petitioner-tenant must make payments according to the specified timelines, with earlier interim protection remaining in effect subject to compliance. The respondent-landlord may consider waiving the use and occupation charges if the tenant needs reasonable time to vacate.

GOPAL SINGH VS KALAWATI DEVI [CM APPL.-54445/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Use and occupation charges for the tenanted premises are set at Rs. 10,000 per month from August 2019 to March 2023, Rs. 12,500 per month from April 2023 to December 2024, and Rs. 13,000 per month from January 2025 onwards. These charges were based on rental details from lease deeds of similar properties in the area and the property's 30-year tenancy. The tenant must clear all arrears in three equal installments.

HARI RAM VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS BOARD [W.P.(C)-11853/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The BOCW Act, aimed at the welfare of building and construction workers, should be interpreted liberally. The eligibility criterion for pension under the BOCW Act requires one year of work as a building worker, which the petitioner meeting. The petitioner faced administrative hurdles preventing registration renewal, qualifying as "reasonable grounds" under the BOCW Act. The respondent Board must restore the petitioner's registration and disburse pension dues within six weeks.

HARI RAM VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS BOARD [W.P.(C)-11532/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The DBOCW Rules do not prohibit online filing of pension applications. The respondent is obligated to process the petitioner's application within 30 days, based on their counsel's statement. The petition is disposed of accordingly.

HARIJINDER KAUR AND ARN. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-11572/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The application for compensation under the Delhi Victim Compensation Scheme, 2015 was filed on August 1, 2017, within the 3-year limitation period from the trial court's declaration of the case as "untraced" on August 25, 2014. The prior rejection of the application as time-barred is set aside, and the respondent is directed to reassess the application for compensation, with rights and contentions of the parties remaining open.

HARSHARAN KAUR & ORS. VS AMARJEET KAUR [RC.REV.-328/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Additional time until 01.12.2025 was granted for the petitioners/tenants to vacate the premises, contingent upon the payment of Rs. 7,000 per month for user and occupation charges. Petitioners/tenants must file an undertaking within 3 weeks agreeing to terms that include vacating by the specified date, paying user charges, and not creating third-party rights or damaging the property. Execution of the previous eviction order is stayed until the deadline, provided the undertaking is complied with. If there is a default in compliance, interim protection dissolves, allowing the landlord to pursue recovery of possession and charges.

HUA SENG CHEW VS REGISTRAR OF SOCIETIES AND FIRMS NEW DELHI DISTRICT [W.P.(C)-8604/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The letter dated 01.12.2016 issued by the Registrar of Societies was set aside due to a lack of authority under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 to resolve disputes between members and management of a registered society. The Registrar's role is limited to registration and does not include addressing internal issues. Additionally, the Registrar did not provide a hearing to the petitioner, violating principles of natural justice. Ongoing litigation between the parties and the pursuit of legal remedies by the intervenor were noted, leading to the decision to set aside the letter without addressing the merits of the disputes.

INDER MINOCHA VS AJIT TONDON [CM APPL.-64829/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner (tenant) will vacate the tenanted premises by 31.12.2025 and pay use and occupation charges of Rs. 10,000 per month to the respondent (landlord) starting 01.10.2024. An undertaking from the petitioner is required, which includes conditions such as vacating the premises, making timely payments, not creating third-party rights, and not damaging the property. Execution of the previous order from 19.10.2023 is stayed, contingent on the undertaking being filed. Any default by the petitioner will lead to the dissolution of interim protection, allowing the respondent to pursue recovery of possession and charges.

INDER MOHAN NAGPAL VS THE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-5109/2017]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Inder Mohan Nagpal, claiming life membership in the Delhi Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (DSPCA), could not prove his authorization to represent the society. The respondents stated that only one registered DSPCA exists, operating under the Government of NCT of Delhi, and cited delays in the petition due to the DSPCA being managed by an administrator since 1990. The merits of the case were not examined, and Nagpal was permitted to seek remedy in a civil court.

INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL CENTRE FOR ARTS VS THE P.O.,LABOUR COURT-VII & ANR [W.P.(C)-5513/2003]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Respondent worker was employed by the Petitioner employer on a casual/temporary basis and had no right to regularization or permanent employment. Temporary or casual workers cannot claim a legitimate expectation of becoming permanent, as established in precedent. The employer is to pay the worker compensation of R.S. 10,000 per year for his employment from 1993 to 1996, in lieu of reinstatement, and is to offer any future work to the worker in order of seniority.

JAGDISH VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [LA.APP.-233/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The judgment of the trial court, which dismissed the appellant's petition under Section 18 of the Land Acquisition Act as barred by limitation, was set aside. It was established that the right to receive compensation arises only after apportionment under Section 30. The appellant filed the Section 18 petition within six weeks of the Appropriation Judgment under Sections 30 and 31, making it timely. The trial court is directed to adjudicate the reference petition afresh, with rights and contentions of both parties reserved on merits.

JAGJEET KAUR VS ANJU GUPTA [CM APPL.-7808/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The application to recall the order fixing interim user charges for a tenant's continued use of the premises was dismissed. The principles from previous cases regarding reasonable compensation or mesne profits during eviction appeals were upheld. There was no error apparent in the initial order, which considered factors like locality and commercial use in determining the interim charges. A difference in measurements of the covered area versus the total area used by the tenant was insufficient to justify recalling the order.

JAGMOHAN MEHRA SINCE DECEASED THRU LR AJAY MEHRA VS TRILOCHAN SINGH BAWA & ANR. [RC.REV.-222/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant is granted additional time until January 15, 2025, to vacate the premises, conditional upon filing an undertaking within one week. This undertaking mandates the tenant to surrender vacant possession by the deadline, settle all utility bills, and refrain from damaging the property or creating third-party rights. The execution of the previous eviction order is stayed pending compliance with the undertaking. The landlord may pursue recovery of outstanding rent and occupation charges.

JAGTAR SINGH VS SURINDER SINGH & ANR. [RC.REV.-173/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner's challenge to the Additional Rent Control Tribunal's order dated 01.10.2015 in Execution No. 109/2009 was not maintainable under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958, as it was not filed under Section 25B(8), which allows limited challenges to eviction orders based on bona fide requirements. The petition was dismissed, with the petitioner permitted to seek relief in an appropriate forum.

JOSH MEDIA VISION PVT LTD & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF INFORMATION BROADCASTING & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4405/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Ministry of Information and Broadcasting must treat the petitioners' new application as a representation and decide it with a speaking order, allowing the petitioners the opportunity to be heard. The merits of the case remain undiscussed, and the operation of the impugned orders will be stayed for two weeks following the final decision.

KAMALJIT SINGH @ KAMAL (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS VS PROTIVA PANDEY [RC.REV.-355/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenants' revision petition was dismissed, affirming the lower court's eviction order. The claim of adverse possession was not established due to failure to meet legal requirements. The landlord's assessment of their needs was deemed valid, with the examination of the site plan showing that the alternative space offered was inadequate. No issues were found in the lower court's order.

KARAN MADHOK AND ANR VS RAKESH YADAV [CM APPL.-69810/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlord is entitled to user and occupation charges of Rs. 25,000 per month for the commercial premises occupied by the tenants. Evidence including a registered lease deed for a nearby property indicated that the ground floor location in a commercial hub warranted a higher rent. Tenants are to pay the charges starting from September 11, 2024, with December 2024 payment due by December 20, 2024, and arrears from September 11 to November 30, 2024 to be settled by January 31, 2025. This determination is subject to the final outcome of the revision petition.

LALIT KUMAR GUPTA VS MAHESH BANSAL [RC.REV.-225/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner and respondent have mutually settled, with the petitioner required to vacate the property by April 30, 2026. The landlord will not charge monthly market rent, but the tenant must pay use and occupation charges of Rs. 35,000 per month from December 1, 2024, until vacating, along with all utility bills. The tenant cannot create third-party rights or damage the property. In case of non-payment of charges, the landlord can pursue recovery proceedings.

LAXMI NARAIN & ORS VS VISHAL MOONDHRA & ORS [RC.REV.-333/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Landlords demonstrated a bona fide requirement for the demised premises under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. Subsequent events raised by the tenants, such as the landlords acquiring two additional shops and the death of their father, did not negate the landlords' need for the premises. The tenants' revision petition was dismissed, and the order allowing the landlords' eviction petition was upheld.

LEGION ENTERTAINMENT PVT. LTD VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR [W.P.(C)-5744/2012]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The agreement between the petitioner and Pacific Development Corporation Limited (PDCL) was classified as a license agreement rather than a lease agreement. Key factors included restrictions on the use of the premises, the licensor's right of entry, and control over the premises, indicating the parties' intention to establish a license. The remedy under Section 47-A of the Indian Stamp Act was deemed inapplicable as it pertains to the registration of an instrument of transfer, which was not relevant in this case. The petition was allowed, resulting in the cancellation of the notices, penalty orders, and related proceedings.

M/S ADAM PAPER PRODUCTS PVT LTD & ANR VS VISHAN DASS NARANG [RC.REV.-197/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition by tenants M/s Adam Paper Products Pvt Ltd against an eviction order in favor of landlord Vishan Dass Narang was dismissed. Proper service of summons to the tenants was confirmed, and the tenants did not satisfy the criteria for seeking an extension to file a leave to defend. The landlord's bona fide need for the premises was established, and the tenants were ordered to pay use and occupation charges for their continued occupancy despite the eviction order.

M/S ADAMS INTERNATIONAL EXPORTS (P) LTD & ANR VS VISHAN DASS NARANG [RC.REV.-198/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The eviction order against the tenants was upheld due to their failure to meet the required criteria for obtaining leave to defend. The tenants were properly served summons and aware of the proceedings but did not present a substantial defense against the landlord's claim of bona fide requirement for the premises. The landlord is entitled to recover use and occupation charges for the time the tenants remained after the eviction order.

M/S MEGA OVERSEAS PVT LTD VS RAHUL GOEL [CM APPL.-18031/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appropriate interim user and occupation charges for the ground floor and mezzanine of the subject premises are set at Rs. 1,20,000 per month. This amount was determined using a registered lease deed for a nearby property, adjusted proportionally based on the size of the subject premises. The tenant is required to pay these charges, pending the final outcome of the eviction petition.

M/S SHUSHILA HOSPITAL THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR AJIT SINGH VS THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE / DC (NORTH), DISTRICT APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY [W.P.(C)-5120/2017]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The orders suspending and cancelling the registration of the petitioner's hospital under the PCPNDT Act were set aside due to insufficient evidence supporting the allegations. The absence of a forensic report on the ultrasound machine and discrepancies between the allegations and the FIR were noted. The hospital owner provided an undertaking not to violate the PCPNDT Act. The authorities were directed to de-seal the hospital's ultrasound machines, with the decision made without prejudice to any other pending proceedings.

M/S SUPER CIRCLE AUTO LTD. VS GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7015/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

M/s Super Circle Auto Ltd. is entitled to Merchandise Exports from India Scheme (MEIS) rewards despite a technical error in marking 'N' instead of 'Y' in the reward item box for 28 shipping bills. The intent to claim the benefit was evident despite the mistake. The respondents must release the reward amounts due for the 28 shipping bills within six weeks.

M/S TREND SETTERS BOOKS LTD VS LOKESH SHARMA [W.P.(C)-8012/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The order of the Labor Court denying M/s Trend Setters Books Ltd. the opportunity to cross-examine Lokesh Sharma has been set aside. M/s Trend Setters Books Ltd. is granted one opportunity to cross-examine the respondent/workman, with a stipulation against unnecessary adjournments. Additionally, M/s Trend Setters Books Ltd. must pay litigation expenses of Rs. 10,000 to the respondent on the next hearing date.

M/S TREND SETTERS BOOKS LTD. VS PRAMOD KUMAR SHARMA [W.P.(C)-7965/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The order by the Labor Court denying the petitioner the opportunity to cross-examine the respondent/workman was set aside. The petitioner was granted one chance to conduct the cross-examination after obtaining the necessary original documents. The petitioner was also ordered to pay litigation expenses of Rs. 10,000 to the respondent/workman.

M/S VICTOR BROTHERS ALIAS VICTOR BROS & ANR VS SH YOGESH CHANDRA [RC.REV.-160/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Service of summons on one partner of the petitioner firm was deemed valid under the Delhi Rent Control Act. The petitioners did not meet the dual test requiring demonstration of inability to apply for leave to defend within the stipulated time and the presentation of a substantial defense case. The revision petition became infructuous, as possession of the tenanted premises had been restored to the landlord through execution proceedings. The scope of revisionary jurisdiction under the Delhi Rent Control Act is notably limited.

MAHESH KUMAR VS ANAND PRAKASH GOYAL [RC.REV.-155/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlord and tenant reached a settlement requiring the tenant to vacate the premises by June 30, 2025, while paying user and occupation charges of Rs. 15,000 per month. The tenant must provide an undertaking to not create third-party rights, avoid damaging the property, and make timely payments. In case of default, the landlord can take legal action for recovery of possession and charges.

MAHINDER KAUR (SINCE DECEASED) THR HER LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES & ORS VS O P VERMA (SINCE DECEASED) THR HIS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE [RC.REV.-350/2016]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Petitioners/tenants are required to pay user and occupation charges of Rs. 70,000 per month for the premises starting January 1, 2025, pending the outcome of a revision petition. An application under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was dismissed due to the invalidity of the invoked acts. The petitioner must file an amended memo of parties to include details of the legal representatives of the deceased respondent/landlord.

MAN KUNWAR VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS BOARD [W.P.(C)-16525/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Man Kunwar sought the restoration of her deceased husband's registration under the Building and Other Construction Workers Act. Chhakodi, initially registered in 2016, could not renew his registration from 2018 to 2020 due to administrative issues, including staff shortages that significantly reduced active registrations. His renewal application filed in August 2020 was rejected because he had surpassed the retirement age, and he passed away in September 2021 while the application was pending. The BOCW Act is intended to benefit unorganized construction workers, and administrative difficulties outside of their control are considered reasonable grounds for delayed renewal. The registration was directed to be restored, contingent on the payment of contribution arrears within two weeks, allowing the widow to access benefits.

MANMOHAN AND OTHER VS RAJINDER PAL AND ANOTHER [RC.REV.-323/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner-tenants' application for condonation of delay in re-filing the revision petition was granted, allowing them until June 6, 2025, to vacate the premises. They must pay a monthly user and occupation charge of Rs. 10,000 starting November 15, 2024, and file an undertaking agreeing to these terms within one week. Execution of the earlier eviction order is stayed until June 6, 2025, contingent on compliance with the undertaking. Default will result in the dissolution of interim protection, enabling landlords to pursue possession and user charges.

MANMOHAN SINGH THROUGH LEGAL HEIR MRS.GURVINDER KAUR & ORS. VS ANJU GUPTA THROUGH LEGAL HEIR NITING GUPTA & ANR. [CM APPL.-11111/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The application to recall the order from 14.12.2023, which set interim user charges for tenants to pay landlords during a stayed eviction, was dismissed. The order considered various factors, including the premises' usage and documentation from both parties. The petitioners argued the area was 408.36 sq ft instead of 700 sq ft, but area was only one factor given the commercial use and high footfall of the premises. Established legal principles allow for interim compensation to landlords to mitigate litigation impacts, and a recall of the order requires an evident error, which was not established.

MANOHAR LAL BHATIA VS HARPAL SINGH LAMBA [RC.REV.-415/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner-tenant must hand over physical possession of the property to the respondent-landlord by 31/12/2024. The petitioner-tenant has a history of non-compliance and attempts to delay proceedings. The respondent-landlord has waived outstanding use and occupation charges. The petitioner-tenant is required to file an undertaking to this effect within two weeks. In case of default, the respondent-landlord may take appropriate actions for recovery of possession and charges. The revision petition and all pending applications have been disposed of.

MANOJ KATARIA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5741/2012]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The agreement between the petitioner and PDCL was characterized as a license rather than a lease, as it provided the petitioner with only a right to use the premises for a specific purpose while PDCL retained control and possession. Reliance on provisions related to stamp duty for sale or transfer of property was incorrect; those applicable to lease agreements should have been used. The notices, penalty orders, and related proceedings were set aside.

MAYA & ORS VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-303/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's revision petition challenging the eviction order became unnecessary as the landlords had already regained possession of the premises. The revisionary jurisdiction under the Delhi Rent Control Act is limited, and substitution of the trial court's view is not permitted without evident errors. The trial court had appropriately considered the landlords' genuine need for the premises for their family of 21 members, and the eviction order stood without the need for interference. The tenant did not pursue civil proceedings for recovery of possession under Section 19 of the Act, making the revision petition an inadequate response.

MOHAN SINGH VS VISHAN DASS NARANG [RC.REV.-196/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition by the tenant against the eviction order was dismissed. The tenant was properly served with summons, which were not defective, and failed to present a substantial defense for leave to defend the eviction petition. The tenant is liable to pay use and occupation charges at market rate during the revision petition period. The tenant did not meet the criteria for extending the time to file for leave to defend, leading to the dismissal of the petition and the landlord's entitlement to recover charges.

MR SHARAD MEHRA VS SANJAY MEHRA [CONT.CAS(C)-1880/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

A prima facie violation of the settlement agreement exists due to the respondent's use of "Stanvac-Superon Group" on promotional materials at an international trade fair, which appears to contravene terms prohibiting interlinking group companies. The offending banners and promotional materials must be removed. The respondent can use the "Superon" trademark within India as per the settlement, but the combined use of "Stanvac-Superon" raises customer confusion concerns that require further examination. Notice has been issued to the parties for additional hearings.

MUNNA VS OM WATI [RC.REV.-692/2015]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's Revision Petition challenging the eviction order became infructuous after the possession of the tenanted premises was handed over to the landlord. Established precedent indicates that once the landlord regains possession, the tenant's petition is merely academic. The examination under the Delhi Rent Control Act is limited to errors in the trial court's record or lack of adjudication. The trial court adequately addressed the issues of landlord-tenant relationship, bonafide need, and availability of alternate accommodation, leaving no grounds for interference with the eviction order.

MUNNI DEVI & ANR VS MADAN LAL & ORS [RC.REV.-449/2013]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court's order for the eviction of the Petitioners/tenants from the Respondents/landlords' premises was upheld. The petition against Petitioner No. 2, who had passed away, was deemed abated due to the Petitioners' failure to implead legal representatives in a timely manner. A co-owner can file an eviction petition without the consent of other co-owners, which is assumed unless disproven. The issue of ownership had been resolved in previous civil court proceedings, and the current petition does not address title disputes. The Petitioners/tenants are not occupying the premises, invalidating their challenge to the eviction order.

MUNNI DEVI VS M/S OLIVE EXIM PVT. LTD. & ORS. & ORS. [RC.REV.-294/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court's order dismissing the tenant's application for leave to defend an eviction petition by the landlord was upheld. The landlord's need to construct a hotel was deemed bona fide, supported by the company's amended Memorandum of Association stating such objectives. The tenant's claim that the landlord was barred from filing the petition lacked specification of any applicable law. The landlord-tenant relationship was acknowledged, with the tenant paying rent and the landlord providing evidence of ownership. The tenant did not present any evidence regarding the availability of alternative accommodation. Although the petition was dismissed, a limited stay of four months on the eviction order was granted, contingent on the tenant meeting certain conditions.

NARENDRA KUMAR JAIN VS HARISH PRATAP SEONIE & ORS [RC.REV.-671/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Eviction Order against the original tenant applies to the alleged sub-tenant Arjun Jain due to non-compliance with statutory requirements under the Delhi Rent Control Act for a valid sublease. The notice of sublease was not provided within the required one-month period, and the landlord's consent was not obtained. As a result, the sub-tenant is considered an unauthorized occupant, making the Eviction Order applicable to him. The legal heirs of the original tenant must pay interim use and occupation charges at the market rate to the landlords while the revision petition is pending.

NEELAM @ GEETA VS RAKESH KUMAR SHARMA & ANR [CM APPL.-57382/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appellant's applications for condonation of delay in filing and refiling a restoration application were dismissed due to insufficient explanations for the delays. The appellant's conduct over four years was described as lackadaisical, and reasons such as obtaining legal advice and getting case records were deemed inadequate. Consequently, the delays were not condoned, and the application for restoration of the appeal was dismissed.

NOOR AHAMD & ANR VS MOHD SADIQ [RC.REV.-134/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by the tenants was dismissed as the landlord has a superior title to the premises, which have been legally restored to them. The tenants' challenge was deemed academic following this restoration. Additionally, costs of Rs. 25,000/- were awarded to be paid to the Bar Council of Delhi's Indigent and Disabled Lawyers Account.

NORTH DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS MS. ANITA BAJAJ & ANR. [RC.REV.-260/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition by the North Delhi Municipal Corporation against the eviction order in favor of the landlord was dismissed. The tenant's petition was deemed infructuous since possession of the premises had already been taken by the landlord. The trial court's findings regarding the landlord's bona fide need were upheld, and the tenant's grounds for defense were considered vague and unsupported. Provisions for restoration of possession under Section 19 of the Delhi Rent Control Act were acknowledged, but no issues with the trial court's conclusions were identified.

OM PARKASH & ANR VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-306/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition by the tenant challenging the eviction order has become infructuous because the landlord has legally regained possession of the tenanted premises. The tenant's appeal was dismissed as there was no need to examine the merits of the case, given the limited scope of revisionary jurisdiction under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958, which focuses on errors apparent on the record or lack of adjudication by the trial court.

P. B. DAVID VS THE ESTATE OFFICER & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5528/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court's dismissal of the petitioner's appeal against the Estate Officer's order was set aside due to a delay of approximately 35 days in filing the appeal, which was deemed justifiable based on the petitioner's personal circumstances and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The trial court was instructed to re-hear the appeal on its merits.

PANCHHI PETHA STORE VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-773/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Regional Director's order rejecting the petitioner's application for name rectification under Section 16 of the Companies Act is unsustainable. The jurisdiction under Section 16 is limited to assessing whether a company's name closely resembles another registered name or trademark, without determining ownership of the trademark, which is disputed. The impugned order is set aside, and the parties may approach the Regional Director again if needed, with all rights and contentions remaining open.

PANCHI DEVI VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS WELFARE BOARD [W.P.(C)-6615/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner's claim for funeral assistance and death benefits under the Building and Other Construction Workers Act, 1996, is to be allowed despite the deceased husband's lapsed registration. Administrative hurdles and staff shortages at the Delhi Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board during 2018-2020 contributed to the delay in renewal of the husband's registration. The Board's rejection of the claim is set aside, and the Board is directed to renew the deceased husband's registration upon deposit of arrears and process the claim for benefits.

PANKAJ KAPAL MEHRA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-535/2014]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Petitioner, an executive director of a company, could not be personally penalized for the company's violation of export obligations under the Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992. The show-cause notice and orders lacked specific allegations of duty or obligation on the Petitioner's part or any deliberate failure to fulfill it. Previous judgments indicated that personal liability could not be established solely based on the directorship. Additionally, the company was in liquidation, records were with the official liquidator, and there was a significant delay in the proceedings. Consequently, the penalty order against the Petitioner was set aside.

PANKAJ KUMAR AND ORS VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-8746/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) cannot change the service conditions of nine workmen during ongoing industrial dispute proceedings under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The workmen challenged the MCD's decision to revert them to the position of Safai Karamchari after they sought regularization as Assistant Sanitary Inspectors. The status quo regarding their employment must be maintained during the dispute, although the MCD can proceed with the Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) process if conducted lawfully.

PANKAJ PAHWA VS PREM WATI & ORS [RC.REV.-612/2015]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by the tenant challenging the eviction order became infructuous because the landlord had already regained possession of the premises through execution proceedings. Supreme Court judgments indicate that once possession is recovered, the tenant's petition is no longer relevant. The examination of the revisionary jurisdiction under the Delhi Rent Control Act is limited to errors on record or lack of adjudication by the trial court. The trial court had adequately addressed the tenant's arguments, leading to the dismissal of the revision petition as infructuous.

PARMOD KUMAR VS DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-10926/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner's employment status must remain unchanged during the industrial dispute process, as the petitioner has raised a dispute and filed a statement of claim with the Conciliation Officer. The employer is prohibited from altering the petitioner's conditions of service to his detriment during these proceedings. This decision aligns with Section 33(1)(a) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, while preserving the petitioner's rights to pursue further claims in the appropriate forum.

PUNJAB & SIND BANK VS D K GUPTA [RFA-49/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The dismissal of Punjab & Sind Bank's suit for recovery of Rs. 3,66,836/- from D.K. Gupta is upheld due to it being barred by the 3-year limitation period under Article 23 of the Limitation Act. Arguments for extending the limitation period based on an IRDAI circular and the bank's board resolution are rejected, as these documents do not affect the limitation period.

R.S. CHADHA (THROUGH SPA) VS THAKUR DASS [RC.REV.-109/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Eviction was upheld against the tenant under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958 due to the landlord's bona fide need for residential accommodation. The landlord demonstrated a superior title over the tenant, lacked readily available alternate accommodation, and did not conceal material facts. The landlord's judgment regarding residential requirements was recognized, and the tenant's revision petition was dismissed.

RACHNA PAUL VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-2804/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Delhi government must award the petitioner, a victim of an acid attack, the mandatory minimum compensation of Rs. 3 lakhs as specified under the Delhi Victim Compensation Scheme, 2015. This amount applies to victims with less than 50% injuries. The government is directed to pay the petitioner Rs. 3 lakhs, minus the Rs. 30,000 already given as interim compensation.

RAHUL NATH VS REGISTRAR OF FIRMS AND SOCIETIES AND ANR [W.P.(C)-14800/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The writ petition by Rahul Nath challenging the gate entry charges levied by the Ansal Villa Residents Association is not maintainable due to the presence of disputed questions of fact requiring evidence, which should be addressed in a civil court where a suit has already been filed. Additionally, the petitioner has pursued alternative remedies, including a complaint to the Registrar of Societies. No interim directions were issued, and the application for interim relief was disposed of.

RAJ KUMAR (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH LRM VS URMILA DEVI & ANR. [CM APPL.-29557/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appellant's delay in filing an appeal was condoned due to incorrect legal advice received, which led to the belief that objections should be filed instead. The delay was justified, and issues were identified with the trial court's judgment, which relied solely on an admission of title without proper evidence evaluation or reasoning. Execution of the judgment is stayed pending further proceedings, with a requirement for written submissions and relevant case law from the parties.

RAJ KUMAR RAGHAV VS THE DISTRICT AND SESSIONS JUDGE, DELHI AND ORS. [CM APPL.-63398/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner's application to recall a previous order dismissing a writ petition related to licenses for kiosks in the Tis Hazari Building Complex was granted, restoring the petition. The petitioner may approach the Office of the Additional District Magistrate (Central) for dispute adjudication. No coercive actions will be taken against the petitioner for the next four weeks, with the order clarifying that it does not affect the rights and contentions of either party.

RAJASTHAN EQUESTRAIN ASSOCIATION VS EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION OF INDIA AND ORS. [CM APPL.-56636/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The minutes of the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Equestrian Federation of India indicated that existing office bearers would remain in their positions until elections, but this decision lacked chair approval and violated prior orders. Discrepancies were noted between the minutes and actual discussions, with irregularities in the federation's operations and potential derecognition due to non-compliance with the sports code. An ad-hoc administrative committee was appointed to manage day-to-day functions until fresh elections, with existing office bearers required to cooperate and refrain from exercising any powers.

RAJIYA BEGUM VS REKHA & ANR. [RC.REV.-245/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlord's eviction petition against the tenant was upheld based on a superior title to the premises, satisfying Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The tenant's claim of ownership through unregistered documents was rejected as it pertained only to debris, not actual ownership. The imperfection of the landlord's title did not preclude the eviction, and the tenant was estopped from disputing the landlord's title.

RAKESH & ORS VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-300/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's revision petition was dismissed as it became infructuous due to the landlord's possession of the tenanted premises through execution proceedings. The lower court's order for the tenant to vacate is upheld, considering the landlord's need for the premises for a large family of 21 members.

RAM CHARAN AGGARWAL (DECEASED) THROUGH LEGAL HEIR VS PREM LATA & ANR. [CM APPL.-26358/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant in Chandni Chowk, Delhi must pay use and occupation charges of Rs. 1,50,000 per month from March 16, 2022, to December 31, 2023, and Rs. 1,60,000 per month from January 1, 2024, during the revision petition. These rates were based on the premises' location, size, and nature, and are considered tentative pending the outcome of the petition.

RAM KISHAN VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS WELFARE BOARD [W.P.(C)-5923/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner, a construction worker, was unable to renew his registration under the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996 from 2018 to 2020 due to administrative issues faced by the Board. Reasonable grounds were established under Section 17 of the Act. Restoration of the registration was mandated upon the deposit of arrears, emphasizing a liberal interpretation of the BOCW Act to support worker welfare.

RAVI KUMAR VS JAIN COOPERATIVE BANK LTD. [W.P.(C)-11009/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The termination of the petitioner's employment by the respondent cooperative bank was classified as a disciplinary action, falling under an exception in the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act. The labor court has concurrent jurisdiction with the registrar of cooperative societies to address the industrial dispute, contradicting the labor court's previous conclusion regarding jurisdiction. The matter is to be reheard by the labor court on the merits of the dispute.

ROHIT SINGH VS PARIMAL BHATTACHARJEE [RFA-82/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court erred by granting relief beyond the specific request for possession in the respondent's application. It incorrectly decreed arrears of rent, future rent, maintenance charges, and interest without addressing the appellant's counter-claim and a pending application for mesne profits. Relief not specifically requested cannot be granted, and decisions must be based on the pleadings. The judgment on arrears of rent, future rent, and interest was set aside, but the decree for possession was upheld. The matter was remanded for adjudication of the counter-claim and mesne profits issue.

SACHIN ASTHANA VS ADNAN AZAM [RC.REV.-207/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by Sachin Asthana challenging the eviction order in favor of Adnan Azam was dismissed because the respondent had already recovered possession of the premises through execution proceedings. The eviction order's execution rendered the revision petition infructuous.

SANDEEP PURI VS SHARDA AHUJA [RC.REV.-153/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's revision petition challenging eviction is deemed infructuous as the landlady has already regained possession of the premises. It is established that once possession is restored to the landlord, appeals or revision petitions from the tenant no longer require adjudication. The review jurisdiction is limited to examining clear errors or lack of adjudication by the Trial Court and cannot replace its findings. The tenant retains the right under Section 19 of the Delhi Rent Control Act to seek re-possession if the landlord fails to use the premises as stated in the eviction petition. The revision petition was dismissed on these grounds.

SANJANA AGARWAL VS NAMOSHIVAI APPARELS PRIVATE LIMITED [RFA(COMM)-213/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Commercial Court's dismissal of Molmek's suit for recovery was upheld, and NAPL's Counter-Claim was allowed. A separate pre-institution mediation process was deemed unnecessary for the Counter-Claim since it stemmed from the same transactions, and Molmek had already initiated mediation. NAPL provided sufficient evidence, including e-way bills, GST returns, and witness testimonies, proving the delivery of goods linked to five disputed invoices, which Molmek could not disprove. Appeals by Molmek were dismissed.

SANJAY GOYAL VS SHANTI DEVI [RFA-120/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appellant's continuation of possession after the license termination does not qualify as adverse possession, lacking any overt act to assert hostile title against the registered owner. The respondent's suit for damages and a permanent injunction is within the limitation period, resulting in an award for damages and an injunction in favor of the respondent. Execution of the decree is stayed pending a deposit of Rs. 20,00,000 by the appellant, who must also make monthly payments of Rs. 15,000 to the respondent during the appeal.

SANJAY MEHRA VS SHARAD MEHRA [CONT.CAS(C)-1862/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The respondent appears to have violated the settlement agreement dated 27.04.2023 by using the "Superon" trademark on social media and at an international fair in India, which breached the agreement that granted exclusive rights to the petitioner for the trademark in India. The settlement restricted the respondent's use of the "Superon" trademark to specific materials for export purposes only, such as visiting cards and brochures. Interim directions were issued to prevent further violations, allowing participation in the fair while adhering to the terms of the settlement regarding trademark use.

SANJAY R HEGDE VS THE MINISTRY OF ELECTRONICS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-13275/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The writ petition by Sanjay R Hegde, challenging the suspension of his Twitter account and seeking guidelines for social media content censorship, was dismissed. His Twitter account was reinstated on January 9, 2023, making the request for account restoration irrelevant. Guidelines for content moderation had already been established under the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021. It was stated that any future actions against the petitioner by the respondent must comply with applicable laws and statutory guidelines.

SANTOSH & ORS VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-312/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by the tenant challenging the eviction order became infructuous because the landlord legally recovered possession of the premises. Legal precedents establish that once possession is restored to the landlord, the tenant's petition is no longer relevant. The examination of the case is limited to identifying apparent errors or lack of adjudication by the trial court, without substituting views. Given the legal restoration of possession to the landlord, the petition was dismissed as infructuous, with no further merits addressed.

SANTOSH BEHURIA & ORS VS RAJPUTANA RIFLES REGIMENTAL CENTRE AND ANR [W.P.(C)-16457/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Under Section 33(1)(a) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the conditions of service of the petitioner workers cannot be altered to their disadvantage while an industrial dispute is pending. The employment status of the petitioners must remain unchanged until the dispute is adjudicated.

SANTOSH KUMAR DEWAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15128/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) must treat the petitioner's writ petition as a representation and decide on regularizing the petitioner's property within 12 weeks, allowing the petitioner or an authorized representative to be heard before issuing a decision. Respondents are restrained from taking coercive action against the petitioner during the adjudication period and for two weeks after the decision is made. The petitioner has the right to challenge the DDA's decision if aggrieved.

SAROJ RANI VS BIMLA TYAGI AND ORS (SINCE DECEASED THROUGH HER LRS) [RC.REV.-45/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

After the eviction order, the tenant must pay user and occupation charges at market rent until the revision petition is resolved. The market rent was assessed at approximately Rs. 10,000 per month based on adjacent properties. The tenant is instructed to pay Rs. 8,000 per month from March 2023 to November 2024, and Rs. 10,000 per month from December 2024 onwards, contingent on the revision petition's outcome. Execution of the eviction order is stayed until the next hearing, conditional on payment of the specified charges.

SATYA PAL PATHAK THROUGH GPA VS VIJAY KUMAR KAUSHIK [RC.REV.-156/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court's order granting leave to defend the eviction petition under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act was found to be unsustainable. The petitioner, an 80-year-old former army officer, and his 76-year-old wife demonstrated a bona fide need for the premises due to critical medical conditions. Evidence indicated a lack of suitable alternate accommodation within the building. The trial court's order was set aside, and the respondent-tenant was given six months to vacate the premises.

SH MITHAI LAL (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH ITS LRS. VS SUSHIL CHANDRA GAUTAM [RFA-620/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The delay of 292 days in filing the appeal was deemed bona fide due to supervening circumstances. The appellants must vacate the premises at Plot No. A-449, Shakur Pur, Delhi-110034 by 31.10.2024 and are required to submit an affidavit within one week.

SH. ANIL KUMAR @ TITU VS SMT. USHA RANI SHARMA [RC.REV.-332/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by the tenant challenging the eviction order under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958 is considered infructuous since the landlord has already recovered possession of the tenanted premises. The mere fact of possession being taken over renders the petition moot. The petitioner/tenant did not initiate civil proceedings for recovery of possession under Section 19 of the Act, leading to the dismissal of the revision petition.

SH. ANIL WADHWA & ANR. VS SH. M.M.L. KAPUR [RC.REV.-207/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The eviction order against the tenants was upheld based on the landlord's bona fide need for ground floor accommodation due to age and health issues, with the upper floors deemed unsuitable. Tenant arguments regarding the landlord's requirement being non-genuine and claims of concealed alternate accommodation were rejected. The assessment did not involve re-examining evidence but focused on legal compliance, confirming that no jurisdictional error occurred. Tenants can seek restoration of possession under Section 19 of the Delhi Rent Control Act if the landlord fails to use the premises as stated.

SH. ASHOK KUMAR (DECEASED) THROUGH LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES VS SH. VIJAY KUMAR [RC.REV.-244/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's revision petition was dismissed as infructuous since the landlord had regained possession of the premises through execution proceedings. Legal precedent indicates that once possession is restored to the landlord, the tenant's challenge to the eviction order lacks relevance. The examination of procedural errors is limited to the trial court's adjudication, with no scope for substituting the lower court's view. Additionally, the tenant did not pursue civil proceedings under Section 19 of the Delhi Rent Control Act for recovery of possession, which would have been available had the landlord not utilized the premises as intended.

SH. BHAJAN LAL VS SH. RAJENDER PRASAD JAIN [RC.REV.-172/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlord established a bona fide need for possession of the premises for his younger son's business. The tenant failed to demonstrate the availability of suitable alternative accommodation. The scope of revisionary jurisdiction is limited, and no apparent errors in the lower court's decision were identified. The tenant's revision petition was dismissed.

SH. PAWAN DURGANI & ANR. VS SH. RAJENDER PRASAD JAIN [RC.REV.-191/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court's order rejecting the petitioners' application for leave to defend in eviction proceedings was upheld, confirming the landlord's bona fide need to establish a business for his younger son under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The High Court provided the petitioners three months to vacate the premises, contingent upon filing an undertaking with specific terms and conditions.

SHAKUNTALA DEVI VS MOHAN DAS [RC.REV.-194/2017]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlady proved her bonafide requirement for the tenanted premises, as her current accommodation was inadequate for her large family and the alternate accommodation was unsuitable. As a co-owner, she has a better title than the tenant and can file an eviction petition without all co-owners. The eviction petition was granted, and the tenant was given six months to vacate the premises.

SHALOO GUPTA & ORS VS NEERAJ KHANNA & ANR [RC.REV.-630/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The parties have reached an amicable settlement, with the tenants agreeing to vacate the premises by 30.09.2025, and the landlords waiving all claims for damages. The tenants must file an affidavit confirming this agreement. If the tenants fail to comply, the landlords may initiate recovery proceedings for possession and associated charges.

SHER SINGH VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-295/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's revision petitions became infructuous after the landlords legally regained possession of the tenanted premises through execution proceedings. Once possession was restored, any challenge to the eviction order was deemed academic. The jurisdiction limited review under the Delhi Rent Control Act to apparent errors or lack of adjudication by the trial court, without substituting its own view. The tenant failed to invoke the specific remedy under Section 19 of the Act to regain possession if the landlord did not use the premises as intended. Consequently, the revision petitions were dismissed.

SHIV CHARAN VS BAL KISHAN SINGH & ANR [RC.REV.-384/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petition was declared abated due to the Petitioner's death in 2020, as legal heirs were not joined within the 90-day limitation period. No application was submitted to add the legal representatives, and no reasons were provided for the delay. Consequently, the petition was dismissed.

SHIV ENTERPRISES VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR [W.P.(C)-5742/2012]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The agreement between Shiv Enterprises and PDCL was classified as a license rather than a lease due to various restrictions on the petitioner's use of the premises, including limitations on business changes and the licensor's right to enter at any time. The intention of the parties indicated a license arrangement rather than a transfer of property interest. The alternate remedy under Section 47-A of the Indian Stamp (Delhi Second Amendment) Act, 2001 was deemed inapplicable, as it concerns the registration of transfer instruments for stamp duty assessment.

SHREE HANUMANT DHARMIK RAMLEELA COMMITTEE REGD & ANR. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12337/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is required to develop comprehensive standard operating procedures (SOPs) or guidelines for booking Ramleela sites by June 25, 2024. The existing policy does not involve the Delhi Dharmik Mahasangh (DDM), leading to confusion over bookings based on the DDM's list. The DDA must clarify in the new guidelines whether it will continue to rely on the DDM's list and is instructed to publicize these guidelines. Additionally, the DDA is prohibited from making further bookings for Ramleela sites until the new SOPs are published.

SHRI HARISH LAL VS SMT. VIDYA DEVI @ VIDYA WATI [RC.REV.-284/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioner (tenant) received an extension until June 30, 2025, to vacate the premises, contingent upon paying Rs. 15,000 for user and occupation charges by November 30, 2024. The petitioner must file an undertaking that includes conditions such as vacating by the due date, not creating third-party rights, and ensuring no damage to the property. Execution of the previous eviction order is stayed as long as the petitioner complies with the undertaking; failure to comply will allow the landlord to pursue legal action.

SHRI RAM GOPAL MONGIA VS CAPT PREETINDER SINGH THAPAR & ORS [RC.REV.-348/2016]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

An order dismissing an application under Order VI Rule 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure affects the rights and liabilities of the parties and is appealable under Section 38 of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. The petitioner has the liberty to approach the appropriate forum under Section 38.

SITA DEVI VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS WELFARE BOARD [W.P.(C)-6578/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The widow of a construction worker had her claim for funeral assistance and death benefits accepted after the rejection by the Delhi Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board was set aside. The beneficial nature of the BOCW Act was emphasized, with an interpretation favoring the welfare of construction workers. The husband's inability to renew his registration due to administrative issues, including staff shortages and delays, was considered reasonable grounds for non-payment of contributions under Section 17. Consequently, the husband's registration was restored, and the claim for death and funeral benefits was processed.

SMT LAXMI DEVI & ORS. VS SH KAILASH & ANR. [RC.REV.-297/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petitioners and respondents reached a settlement in which the petitioners will vacate the property by June 30, 2025, and will pay use and occupation charges of Rs. 20,000 per month starting November 8, 2024, until the property is vacated. An undertaking agreeing to the settlement terms must be filed by the petitioners. If the petitioners default, the respondents can pursue recovery of possession and market rate charges.

SMT NIRMAL & ANR. VS SHRI ROSHAN LAL GUPTA [RC.REV.-341/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Petitioners/tenants must vacate the tenanted premises by 31.12.2025 and pay monthly user and occupation charges of Rs. 10,000 from 30.01.2025 until vacating. An undertaking is required, confirming terms such as handing over vacant possession, not creating third-party rights, and paying utility bills. The execution of the earlier eviction order is stayed until 31.12.2025, contingent on compliance with the undertaking. Defaulting will result in the dissolution of interim protection.

SMT NIRMALADEVI (D) THRU HER LR SMT ILASHREE NATH GUPTA VS SMT KAMLA GUPTA [RC.REV.-217/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition filed by the tenant is not maintainable after the landlord has legally recovered possession of the tenanted premises. Once possession is regained, the tenant's petition becomes infructuous. The revisionary jurisdiction under the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958 is limited and cannot replace the trial court's view unless an obvious error or lack of adjudication is present. The landlord needs to establish a better title than the tenant for eviction under Section 14(1)(e) of the Act, and the tenant cannot dictate the property's use to the landlord.

SMT RASHIDA BANO VS MST YASMEEN BEGUM [RC.REV.-293/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The trial court's order granting eviction of tenant Smt. Rashida Bano in favor of landlord Mst. Yasmeen Begum was upheld. The landlord established ownership of the premises and a genuine need for accommodation for herself and her family, meeting the requirements of the Delhi Rent Control Act. The tenant's claims regarding ownership and alternative accommodation lack supporting evidence. The order was deemed sound and not subject to interference.

SMT SANTOSH ARORA VS SH SUNIL DHUPAR AND ANOTHER [RC.REV.-343/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The main issue for the trial court is the bona fide need of Smt. Santosh Arora to evict tenants Sh Sunil Dhupar and another from the property. The landlord's ownership was not fully established due to the absence of the family settlement agreement. However, tenants admitted that the property is owned by three brothers, with shares devolving to their legal representatives, including the landlord. The trial must conclude expeditiously on the bona fide need, while other rights and contentions remain open for future consideration.

SMT. NIRMALA DEVI (D) THROUGH HER LR SMT. ILASHREE NATH GUPTA VS SMT KAMLA GUPTA [CM(M)-3227/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The appeal was dismissed as barred by limitation due to the petitioner's lack of diligence in previous proceedings. The prerequisites of Section 14 of the Limitation Act for excluding prior proceedings were not met. The petitioner was correctly identified as a party in the eviction proceedings as the legal heir of the deceased tenant, but had no rights to the property due to a gift deed transfer by the original tenant. The revision petition was rendered infructuous because the landlord had already taken possession of the premises.

SONI GHOSH AND ORS VS DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPEMT CORPORATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-11143/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Under Section 33(1)(a) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the conditions of service for 20 petitioners cannot be changed by the Delhi State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation while industrial dispute proceedings are ongoing. The employment status of the petitioners is to be maintained, allowing them to seek further adjudication on their claims in the appropriate forum.

STAR RISING AVIATION 13 LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL AVIATION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9901/2023]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) is required to cancel the registration of aircraft under Rule 30(7) of the Aircraft Rules, following the Cape Town Convention. Termination of lease agreements by lessors was not solely due to the airline's insolvency, so exclusive jurisdiction does not rest with the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) regarding deregistration. A recent notification from the Ministry of Corporate Affairs exempts aircraft from moratorium provisions of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) retroactively. The DGCA must deregister the aircraft within five working days, and lessors are allowed to export the aircraft, subject to relevant laws and regulations.

SUDARSHAN FACILITIES PVT LTD VS THE REGIONAL LABOUR COMMISSIONER CENTRAL NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12591/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The order by the Authority under the Minimum Wages Act requiring Sudarshan Facilities Pvt Ltd to pay wage differences and compensation to 11 workers was set aside. The Authority had not considered the Petitioner's claims of having paid minimum wages according to the relevant government notifications. Proceedings must be conducted anew, with a requirement for a detailed order within four weeks. The Petitioner retains the right to pursue appropriate remedies if dissatisfied with the new order.

SUDARSHAN FACILITIES PVT LTD VS THE REGIONAL LABOUR COMMISSIONER CENTRAL NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12577/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The order issued by the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central), New Delhi, directing a company to pay the difference in minimum wages and compensation to 24 workers was set aside. The authority had not addressed the company's claims of paying minimum wages in line with government notifications. Proceedings must be conducted again, with a new order required within four weeks. The company retains the right to seek legal remedies if dissatisfied with the new outcome.

SUNIL KUMAR TEWATIA VS JAIN COOPERATIVE BANK LTD. [W.P.(C)-11057/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The termination of the petitioner's employment with the cooperative bank resulted from disciplinary action rather than voluntary abandonment of service. The Labor Court and the Registrar of Cooperative Societies have concurrent jurisdiction over service disputes, allowing the petitioner to choose between forums. The Labor Court's order dismissing the petitioner's claim was set aside, and the matter was remanded for a fresh hearing on the merits.

SURESH KUMAR VS SHARDA AHUJA [RC.REV.-14/2020]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The tenant's revision petition challenging the eviction order became infructuous since the landlord had already recovered possession of the premises. Precedents indicate that a revision petition loses its purpose once the landlord regains possession. The jurisdiction under the Delhi Rent Control Act is limited to assessing procedural compliance, without substituting the trial court's decisions. The tenant did not raise any issues related to Section 19 of the Act, which provides a remedy for re-possession if the landlord fails to use the premises as stated. The revision petition was consequently dismissed.

SUSHILA & ORS VS SUNIL YADAV & ORS [RC.REV.-310/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The revision petition from the tenant challenging the eviction order has become infructuous as the landlord legally recovered possession of the premises. Established precedents indicate that once possession is regained, the tenant's claims no longer hold. The tenant failed to initiate appropriate civil proceedings for recovery and did not assert a violation of relevant sections of the Rent Control Act, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

TAJUDDIN VS QAZI NOORUDDIN [RC.REV.-135/2022]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

Tajuddin requires more time to vacate the tenanted premises. Qazi Nooruddin, the landlord, consented to extend the deadline to 31.07.2025, contingent upon the tenant paying rental arrears by 15.12.2024. The tenant accepted these terms and is required to submit an affidavit undertaking to vacate by the deadline, pay the arrears, not create third-party rights, and not damage the premises. If the tenant fails to comply, the landlord may proceed with eviction and recovery actions.

TRIVENI ENGINEERING AND INDUSTRIES LTD. VS VIJAY BHATIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-3171/2019]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council lacked the jurisdiction to refer disputes between Triveni Engineering and Industries Ltd. and Vijay Bhatia to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre. Vijay Bhatia was not registered under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, at the time of the contract with Triveni Engineering. Registration under the Act must occur before entering into a contract to avail benefits, and since registration happened after the contract was completed, retroactive claims to the benefits of the Act were not permitted. The Facilitation Council's orders referring the matter to DIAC were set aside.

UPINDER KAUR VS HARISH KUMAR JAWA [RC.REV.-154/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The eviction order against the petitioner for the commercial premises was upheld, but stayed on the condition that the petitioner pays user charges of Rs. 25,000 per month during the revision petition's pendency. These charges are tentative and will be subject to the final outcome of the revision petition, with any default in payment leading to the dissolution of the interim protection.

USHA AND ORS VS SHISH PAL SINGH [RC.REV.-286/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

A revision petition was filed by tenants challenging the dismissal of their application for leave to defend an eviction petition. Key issues include the validity of the landlord's new eviction ground for establishing a coaching center for his granddaughter, replacing the previous residential requirement, and the availability of alternate accommodation for the tenants, given that the landlord owns the entire building. The operation of the previous order is paused pending further examination.

V B ENGINEERS VS DR RAM MANOHAR LOHIA HOSPITAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4372/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The notice dated 06.03.2024 issued to the petitioner did not meet the requirements of Section 7(3) of the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1971, failing to provide a proper show-cause opportunity before ordering payment of arrears of rent or damages under Sections 7(1) and 7(2). The impugned notice was set aside, allowing for a fresh order to be issued in accordance with the law, while maintaining the rights and contentions of both parties.

VIJAY KUMAR SETIA VS CAPT PREETINDER SINGH THAPAR & ORS [RC.REV.-344/2016]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The order dismissing the petitioner's application under Order VI Rule 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which impacted the rights and liabilities of the parties, is appealable under Section 38 of the Delhi Rent Control Act, 1958. Section 38 allows for an appeal to the Rent Control Tribunal against orders involving a question of law, excluding certain procedural interlocutory orders. The petitioner is permitted to seek recourse under Section 38.

VINOD KUMAR GARG & ANR. VS GHANSHYAM DAS [RC.REV.-354/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The landlord's bonafide need for the premises and the landlord-tenant relationship were undisputed. The primary issue was the availability of suitable alternate accommodation for the landlord under Section 14(1)(e) of the Delhi Rent Control Act. Established precedents affirm the landlord's autonomy in defining their bonafide need, with no requirement for the court to evaluate alternative adjustments. The matter was confined to assessing suitable alternate accommodation.

VISHNU DUTT SHARMA ALIAS VISHNU PANDIT VS CHILD WELFARE COMMITTEE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7762/2016]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The writ petition filed by Vishnu Dutt Sharma was dismissed, challenging an order from the Child Welfare Committee requiring him to pay compensation for employing 13 minors. The petition raised disputed questions of fact, and the petitioner had taken appropriate remedies against the FIR. No grounds were found to quash the order or the notice dated 22.08.2016, leading to the petition's dismissal as withdrawn.

WAHABUDDIN & ORS VS RIYAZUDDIN & ORS [RC.REV.-626/2018]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The petition filed by the tenants was dismissed, affirming the lower court's decision to grant possession of the premises to the landlords. The tenants' claims of ownership were based on unregistered documents, which cannot transfer title. Eviction proceedings under the Delhi Rent Control Act do not address title issues, which must be resolved in civil proceedings. The tenants had previously acknowledged that the landlords' father was the original tenant, preventing them from claiming ownership under Section 116 of the Indian Evidence Act.

YASHPAL VS NEELAM SETHI THROUGH LRS [RC.REV.-55/2024]

Judges: Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju

The parties have mutually settled, with the petitioner agreeing to vacate the property by a specified date. In return, the respondents will waive claims for user charges and damages. The petitioner must file an undertaking that includes vacating by the agreed date, not creating third-party rights, and ensuring no damage to the property. Compliance with the undertaking will maintain interim protection; failure to comply will result in the dissolution of protection, allowing the respondents to take further action.

ADARSH ENCLAVE RESIDENTS WELFARE ASSOCIATION (REGD) VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-3086/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Demolition notices issued by the Forest Department do not apply to the properties of the Adarsh Enclave Residents Welfare Association, as the relevant land (khasra numbers 1383-1386 and 232/141) is not owned by the Forest Department. Notices pertained only to different khasra numbers. Petitioners were advised to approach the Deputy Conservator of Forests with relevant documents to assert their rights.

AJITKUMAR THAKUR VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY DPSRU AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8215/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The issues in the writ petition align with two previous judgments where protection was granted to petitioners, directing the Delhi Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research University (DPSRU) to consider their replies holistically. The petitioner received 10 days of protection following the competent authority's order to address grievances, with no examination of the case's merits, relying instead on established principles from earlier judgments.

AKASH SOLANKI & ANR. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-3798/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Akash Solanki and another, challenging the ICSIL advertisement for the recruitment of Cath Lab Technicians on a contractual basis, was dismissed. The Government of NCT of Delhi clarified that the new posts were additional and not intended to replace existing contractual employees. The petitioners were assured that their positions would not be affected by the new recruitment.

ANIL KUMAR BHARTI VS INDIAN RAILWAYS CATERING AND TOURISM CORPORATION LIMITED [W.P.(C)-15768/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition by Anil Kumar Bharti against IRCTC was dismissed. The petitioner was ineligible for retrospective promotion to the Assistant Manager position from July 1, 2022, as the promotion rules did not allow it. He was promoted to the E-2 grade on February 24, 2023. Consequently, the petitioner did not satisfy the eligibility criteria of one year of service required for the DGM (E-4) position as per the November 13, 2023 circular. The conditions in the circular were deemed valid, establishing that promotions are typically effective from the promotion date rather than the date of vacancy.

ANJALI VERMA & ANR. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH CHIEF SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9831/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioners, Anjali Verma and others, have the right to construct a boundary wall on their land, supported by previous orders from the National Green Tribunal and a meeting on 30.04.2015. They are permitted to build the wall within the area where the previous wall stood. A competent officer from the respondents may oversee the construction to prevent disputes.

ANKITA MEENA VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-677/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition was dismissed due to the petitioner's misrepresentation of her educational qualifications, claiming a "Diploma in Electronics" instead of her B.Tech degree, which constituted suppression of material information. Additionally, the petitioner lacked the required 2 years of relevant experience. Participation in the selection process precluded any challenge to the advertisement after being declared unsuccessful.

ANOOP KUMAR MISHRA VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9005/2016]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the imposition of a minor penalty of withholding one increment for a year was dismissed. Disciplinary proceedings were conducted in accordance with the CDA Regulations, with the petitioner being informed of charges and given a chance to defend. The punishment did not impact retirement benefits, negating the need for a more stringent procedure. The petitioner failed to comply with directives from the Corporate Headquarters' Circular, which formed the basis for the charges. The validity of the disciplinary proceedings was affirmed.

ARUNIMA BARUAH VS THE SECRETARY GENERAL INDIAN COUNCIL FOR CHILD WELFARE [W.P.(C)-7857/2007]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The termination order of Arunima Baruah by the Indian Council for Child Welfare (ICCW) was declared invalid due to violations of natural justice. Although the ICCW is not classified as a 'state' under Article 12, it engages in public functions related to child welfare and is subject to writ jurisdiction under Article 226. The termination order dated 19.03.2001 was quashed, and ICCW was ordered to pay costs of Rs. 1,50,000 to the petitioner.

ASHOK CHANDRA VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4508/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

In Ashok Chandra's case, the petition challenging proceedings under Section 185 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act is disposed with a directive for the Additional District Magistrate to address the petitioner's application within four weeks, noting that the appeal has been pending since 2005. The petitioner's land, used for agriculture, has been urbanized, which supports the dismissal of the Gaon Sabha Gadaipur's appeal against the Revenue Assistant's prior decision.

ASHOK MEHRA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-11273/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's application for an alternate plot of land requires reconsideration due to the Recommendation Committee's oversight of evidence indicating that all the petitioner's land had been acquired. The Recommendation Committee must treat the writ petition as a detailed representation and reconsider the matter within six weeks, allowing the petitioner a personal hearing. The final order must be reasoned, and the petitioner has the right to seek further legal recourse if any grievances persist.

BANDANA KUMARI & ANR. VS UNION BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15852/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Terminal benefits and ex-gratia amounts due to the wife and daughter of a deceased bank employee will be distributed equally among them and the deceased's mother, as there was no nominee designated by the deceased. The bank is to disburse the benefits within six weeks, and the petitioners withdrew their request for compassionate appointment.

BHAGIRATHI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-876/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, as the legally wedded wife of the deceased employee, is entitled to family pension based on submitted documentary evidence. The directive from respondent authorities requiring a succession certificate is not legally warranted, as pension is not part of the deceased's estate. The authorities must treat the petition as a detailed representation and decide on the petitioner's claim within 8 weeks, allowing her a personal hearing. The presumption in law favors the petitioner based on the verifiable evidence provided.

BHAWNA GOEL VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4038/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondent ADM must consider the petitioner's request to extend the validity of the land status report (LSR) issued to vendor Mr. Gopal Goel, which was initially valid for 30 days under the Delhi Lands (Restrictions on Transfer) Act, 1972. The petitioner applied for an extension before the LSR expired. The extension request should be disposed of within one week.

BHUPENDRA DWIVEDI VS YES BANK LTD. [W.P.(C)-1413/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition against Yes Bank Ltd. was dismissed due to maintainability issues. Yes Bank was not classified as an "instrumentality of the State" or "authority" under Article 12 of the Indian Constitution, indicating that the employment relationship was purely contractual and lacked any public law aspect. The petition could not invoke writ jurisdiction under Article 226 for enforcing private contracts or addressing private law disputes. The petitioner retains the option to pursue other legal remedies.

BIPIN NAGAR AND OTHERS VS OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT AND SESSIONS JUDGE HEADQUARTER DELHI AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-1731/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition seeking age relaxation for Senior Personal Assistant, Personal Assistant, and Junior Judicial Assistant posts from 18-27 years to up to 32 years for general category candidates was dismissed. Age relaxation policies are regarded as matters of public policy, and interference is limited unless such policies are arbitrary or capricious. The advertisement specified an age limit of 18-27 years, and no age relaxation was provided for the general category. The petitioners filed the application just two days before the deadline, which was deemed insufficient for the requested relief. The decision emphasized that age relaxation is within the jurisdiction of the user department.

CHANDER SINGH KHATANA AND ANR VS DEPUTY CONSERVATOR OF FOREST AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2409/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dispute concerns the demarcation of the petitioners' private land versus alleged forest land, not ownership. The Deputy Conservator of Forest is to consider the petitioners' representation, hold a hearing, and issue a reasoned order after necessary demarcation proceedings. The petitioners are permitted to erect temporary wire fencing on the demolished boundary wall portion until the demarcation application is resolved.

COAL INDIA SC ST EMPLOYEE ASSOCIATION VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6031/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition by the Coal India SC ST Employee Association was dismissed regarding the promotion process from Chief Manager (E-7 grade) to General Manager (E-8 grade) in Coal India Limited. The E-8 grade is a 'Selection Post' requiring merit-cum-seniority, and reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes does not apply to these promotions according to relevant office memorandums. The standard rules and policies were followed, and the roster system for promotions up to E-7 grade, where reservation is applicable, was maintained. In recent interviews, 3 out of 14 candidates from the ST category achieved promotion to the E-8 grade.

DEEPAK SHOKEEN AND ORS VS ADM(SOUTHWEST)/LAND ACQUISITION COLLECTOR [W.P.(C)-13999/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The ADM Southwest/Land Acquisition Collector must treat the petitioners' writ petition as a representation under Section 3H of the National Highways Act, 1956. The ADM is required to provide the petitioners an opportunity for a hearing and issue a speaking order within 6 weeks. The petitioners can challenge the ADM's order if necessary.

DEVENDER KUMAR BHANDARI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-500/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's writ petition was allowed, granting relief based on previous similar cases. The respondent Forest Settlement Officer/District Magistrate must treat the petition as a representation and resolve it within four weeks, ensuring the petitioner has a chance to be heard. Status quo on the petitioner's property is to be maintained, with no coercive action permitted for one week from the order date.

DEVKI DEVI VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-3088/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner has possessed property at house no. 1063, KG-1, G-Block, Phase-6, Adarsh Enclave, New Delhi, for over 13 years, providing documents to support possessory rights. Khasra no. 1383 is confirmed as non-forest land with no proposed demolition, while adjacent khasra nos. 1978-1982 face demolition due to alleged encroachment on forest land. The petitioner is instructed to submit a detailed representation to the Deputy Commissioner of Forests, with any further action needing a show cause notice.

DHEERAJ JAIN & ORS VS SAVITRI DEVI & ORS [CM(M)-1489/2018]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Compromise Deed/Relinquishment Deed submitted by the respondents was deemed inadmissible due to lack of registration under the Registration Act, 1908. The deed was not proven as the author had died prior to its submission and no formal witnesses validated its authenticity. The reasoning of the lower courts relied entirely on this inadmissible document. Consequently, the impugned order of the Rent Control Tribunal was set aside, with instructions to consider only admissible evidence and potentially allow the introduction of new evidence if necessary.

DHIRAJ VERMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3464/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the cutoff date of August 1, 2024, for the eligibility age in the Civil Services Examination 2024 was dismissed. The petitioner did not demonstrate that the cutoff date was arbitrary or unconstitutional, as it complied with the Civil Services Examination Rules 2024 set by the Department of Personnel and Training. The establishment of the cutoff date is within the prerogative of the examining department, and the absence of evidence of arbitrariness precluded any interference.

DISTRICT AND SESSIONS COURTS EMPLOYEES WELFARE ASSOCIATION VS DISTRICT SESSIONS JUDGE HEADQUARTERS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9835/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Members of the petitioner association promoted to Senior Judicial Assistant (SJA) and Judicial Assistant (JA) do not have a right to seek retrospective or notional promotion from the date vacancies arose, as the recruitment rules do not provide for such promotions. This lack of provision renders them ineligible to participate in the Departmental Competitive Examination (DC Examination) for the SJA position. The writ petition and all pending applications were dismissed.

DR GHANSHYAM CHOURASIYA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-3781/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Supreme Court's judgments in Mundinamani's case and M. Siddaraj's case apply to all similarly situated government employees, granting them the benefit of one last increment in the year of retirement. Respondents must treat the writ petition as a representation and issue a reasoned order within six weeks, in line with the Supreme Court's rulings. A counter-affidavit is not required, and the petitioner may challenge the decision if necessary.

DR JASEELA MAJEED VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY THROUGH ITS REGISTRAR [W.P.(C)-7758/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's challenge to the show cause notice regarding her cancellation of employment as an Associate Professor is aligned with previous decisions in similar cases. The university is required to provide copies of the inquiry report and recruitment rules that led to the conclusion about her initial appointment in 2017. The petitioner must be given an opportunity for a personal hearing, considering her previous employment with the university. Additionally, the petitioner is granted a 10-day protection period post the authority's order for redressal of her grievance. Contentions of the parties remain open.

DR SHASHI BHUSHAN VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4949/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition by Dr. Shashi Bhushan, the first candidate on the waitlist for the Assistant Professor position in the Department of Geography at Kalindi College, was dismissed. The petitioner does not possess a legal right to demand appointment to the vacant post created by the resignation of the originally selected candidate. A vacancy resulting from such resignation must be filled through a fresh advertisement and selection process, and the decision to fill vacancies rests with the employer's discretion. The University of Delhi clarified these principles, confirming that as a waitlisted candidate, the petitioner has no indefeasible right to appointment.

DR SHILPA JAIN VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7454/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The issues raised by Dr. Shilpa Jain are similar to those in two previous cases. The interpretation of UGC guidelines, particularly the use of "and/or" in eligibility criteria for Associate Professor, was central. The Competent Authority is directed to consider the petitioner's response to the Show Cause Notice thoroughly, including her previous employment and university confirmation, and to provide an opportunity for a personal hearing. Dr. Jain is granted 10 days of protection following the Competent Authority's order for redressal of her grievances.

DR. AJAY GUDAVARTHY VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-5498/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, an associate professor at Jawaharlal Nehru University, was not required to obtain prior leave from the Vice-Chancellor for international travel during summer vacation for research. The show-cause notice issued for allegedly leaving without approval was quashed as it contradicted the University's Academic Ordinances. This matter involved only the individual petitioner.

DR. GYAN DHAR PATHAK VS REGISTRAR, SHRI LAL BAHADUR SHASTRI RASHTRIYA SANSKRIT VIDYAPEETHA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1323/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's request for re-designation from Research Assistant to Assistant Professor must be reconsidered by the competent authority at Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha. The university must treat the writ petition as a representation, provide an opportunity for hearing, and allow submission of additional documents within 4 weeks. Consideration must include a letter from the Ministry of Human Resource Development regarding position upgradation and the eligibility conditions from the University Grants Commission's 2010 Regulations as amended in 2018. If re-designation is approved, the university must inform the UGC, which must respond within 4 weeks and communicate the decision to both the university and the petitioner.

DR. HARVINDER POPLI VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6946/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, appointed as a Professor in 2016 and confirmed in 2019 after credential verification, received a show cause notice from the university seeking termination for allegedly lacking qualifications at the time of appointment. The authority must consider the petitioner's response thoroughly, including her previous employment and the earlier confirmation of her appointment. It should also examine the interpretation of "and/or" in UGC eligibility criteria for an Associate Professor and provide an opportunity for a personal hearing before making a final decision.

DR. KUSUMA PRAVEEN KUMAR VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCE AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8357/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The issues raised by Dr. Kusuma Praveen Kumar are similar to those in two previous cases. The petitioner received a 10-day protection period following the competent authority's order to address her grievances. The competent authority is to consider the petitioner's detailed reply to the show cause notice, taking into account her previous employment and confirmation, and must provide her an opportunity for a personal hearing.

DR. MANU BANGA VS INDIRA GANDHI DELHI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY FOR WOMEN [W.P.(C)-4224/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Dr. Manu Banga challenging the selection results for the Assistant Professor position at Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women was dismissed. Participation in the selection process without objection precludes challenging the process or results, establishing the principle of estoppel. This position is supported by established legal precedents.

DR. MINAKSHIGARG VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6853/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The show cause notice issued to Dr. Minakshi Garg by the Delhi Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research University regarding her qualifications does not provide grounds for judicial review under Article 226. The competent authority is to consider relevant recruitment rules while reviewing her response to the notice. Dr. Garg received a 3-day extension to submit her reply and will have one week of protection following the authority's decision to address any grievances.

DR. NEERJA SAMAJDAR VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6878/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Dr. Neerja Samajdar's petition regarding her promotion to Professor under the Career Advancement Scheme was considered. She applied on May 9, 2019, but the selection process was not initiated within the required six months according to UGC Regulations. The university made a negative entry in her service book, which contradicted the job advertisement. The competent authority was directed to treat the petition as a representation, conduct a personal hearing, allow submission of additional documents, and decide on the matter within six weeks, with notification to the petitioner within one week thereafter. The petitioner retains the right to challenge the outcome if necessary.

DR. PRIYANKA VERMA VS MEDEOR HOSPITAL LTD. FORMERLY KNOWN AS ROCKLAND HOSPITAL LTD. [W.P.(C)-3590/2022]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition by a medical practitioner is not maintainable due to the specific statutory remedy provided under Section 17 of the Maternity Benefits Act, 1961, which should be exhausted first. The existence of an alternate effective remedy restricts the discretion to entertain a writ petition, especially when disputed questions of fact are involved. The petition is dismissed on maintainability grounds, with the option for the petitioner to raise rights in a suitable proceeding, where the competent authority will consider any issues related to the limitation arising from the writ petition's pendency.

DR. PUNEETA AJMERA VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8289/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

In the case of Dr. Puneeta Ajmera v. Delhi Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research University, a writ petition challenging a show-cause notice resulted in the determination that the issues were similar to previous cases. The UGC guidelines on eligibility for the Associate Professor position were referenced, particularly regarding the term "and/or." The university's Competent Authority must consider the petitioner's response to the notice, provide a personal hearing, and recognize her prior employment with the institution. A protection period of 10 days was granted post-decision to allow her to take legal steps if necessary.

DR. RICHA HIRENDRA RAI VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-8579/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The eligibility criteria for the position of Professor under UGC guidelines, which include "and/or," should be interpreted flexibly to account for the petitioner's previous employment and experience with the university. A personal hearing must be provided to the petitioner, and her detailed reply to the show cause notice should be considered. Following the competent authority's order, the petitioner has 10 days to take appropriate steps for redressal of her grievances.

DR. SHEETAL YADAV VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8303/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Dr. Sheetal Yadav filed a writ petition concerning issues similar to previous cases. She was granted 10 days to submit a substantive reply to a show cause notice from the Delhi Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research University, an opportunity for a personal hearing, and a 10-day protection period following the competent authority's order to pursue legal actions. The decision applied established principles from prior cases without involving a larger bench.

DR. SURAJPAL VERMA VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCE AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8290/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner received protections similar to those in previous cases involving Dr. Minakshi Garg and Dr. Harvinder Popli. Ten days' time was granted after the competent authority's order for the petitioner to address her grievances. The competent authority was instructed to consider the petitioner's response comprehensively, taking her prior employment history with the university into account, and to allow her a personal hearing.

DR.RANGANATHA NANDYAL VS I.G.N.O.U. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12834/2005]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The punishment of dismissal imposed on Dr. Ranganatha Nandyal for plagiarism was found to be disproportionate compared to a mere warning given to another employee, Dr. Kulshrestha, for the same allegation. Plagiarism, regardless of the source of the copied material, warranted consistent treatment. The dismissal was deemed shocking, especially in light of a lesser punishment for an identical charge. The matter has been remanded to the Disciplinary Authority for reconsideration solely on the proportionality of punishment, allowing the petitioner an opportunity to be heard. The merits of the Inquiry Officer's findings on the plagiarism charge were not examined.

EKTA MAHAR & ORS. VS DELHI SKILL AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2044/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The cancellation of the petitioners' appointments by the Delhi Skill and Entrepreneurship University (DSEU) was not lawful. DSEU must treat the writ petition as a representation and address it within two weeks, allowing one petitioner a hearing before issuing a reasoned order. The petitioners, being successful candidates in the recruitment process, cannot be deprived of their appointment letters without legal justification.

ERUDITION CONSTRUCTION PRIVATE LTD & ANR. VS FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-267/2021]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order dated 15.11.2019 by the Financial Commissioner was set aside, and the matter was remanded for fresh consideration. The petitioners, previously not included in the proceedings, will now join the Revision Petition RC case No. 158/2019 and 159/2019. They can file their reply with relevant documents, and respondent No. 2 may file a rejoinder. After pleadings are complete, the Financial Commissioner will re-evaluate the case and issue a reasoned order within three months. The current status of possession and title will remain unchanged until a final order is made.

FIROZ AHMAD VS SH DINESH KUMAR KHARA & ANR. [CONT.CAS(C)-288/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order on the petitioner's appeal dated 26.11.2018 was found to be issued by an incompetent Appellate Authority, violating State Bank of India's rules and regulations. The petitioner's appeal must be placed before the Appellate Committee in Mumbai, which is the proper authority, with a requirement to dispose of the appeal within four weeks according to applicable laws and bank regulations. No observations were made regarding the merits of the case.

GEETA AGGARWAL VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7757/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Geeta Aggarwal challenged a show-cause notice from Delhi Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research University regarding the cancellation of her employment as a Professor due to insufficient experience. The issue is similar to previous cases. The Competent Authority is instructed to consider her response and provide a personal hearing, focusing on the interpretation of "and/or" in the UGC Guidelines, 2018. She is granted a 10-day protection period from coercive action following the Authority's decision, allowing her time for redressal.

GEETA JAIN VS PAY AND ACCOUNTS OFFICER, MINISTRY OF MSME (FORMERLY MINISTRY OF SMALL-SCALE INDUSTRIES) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11262/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondents, including the Department of Development Commissioner, MSME, are required to consider the petitioner's representation from 15.12.2021 regarding the release of her family pension as the unmarried daughter of a deceased Central Government employee, following the Office Memorandum dated 06.09.2007. The competent authority must provide a personal hearing to the petitioner, who has medical ailments, and issue a reasoned order within six weeks, with communication to the petitioner within one week thereafter. The writ petition is disposed of with no order as to costs.

GIRIDHARI PAL VS VICE CHANCELLOR UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9072/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner qualified for promotion to Senior Technical Assistant (STA) in the Department of Pharmacology based on experience and qualifications but was unjustly denied the promotion. The STA position had been vacant since January 1, 2005, and past attempts for direct recruitment were unsuccessful. The petitioner was considered for promotion in 2008, but the promotion was rejected due to a policy requiring direct recruitment, not due to ineligibility. Promotion to the STA post is effective from July 21, 2016, considering the vacancy status, but no additional financial benefits were granted as the petitioner had already received benefits under the MACP scheme.

GOOD WISH BUILDWELL PVT. LTD. AND ANR. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-16260/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Sub-Registrar's refusal to register the sale deed was unjustified, as the land in question had been acquired but the acquisition was quashed in 1990. The revenue records still incorrectly listed the Land & Building Department as the occupier. This misrepresentation needed correction by the revenue authorities. Orders from the Sub-Registrar and Collector were quashed, and the Sub-Registrar was directed to register the sale deed.

GOOD WISH REALTORS PVT. LTD. AND ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-16339/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Land and Building (L&B) Department's entry as the cultivator/occupier in the revenue records for the property was found to be incorrect, as prior land acquisition proceedings had been quashed. Orders by the Collector (Revenue) and the Sub-Registrar, which refused to register the sale deed presented by the petitioners, were quashed, and the Sub-Registrar was directed to register the sale deed in accordance with the law.

GURGAON GRAMIN BANK WORKERS ORGANIZATION & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-732/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Ministry of Finance received direction to dispose of the petitioners' representation within 8 weeks, focusing on whether the Sarva Haryana Gramin Bank adhered to the Ministry's directives on notifying its service regulations. No observations on the case's merits were made.

GURU BHAGAT BRAR VS DEPARTMENT OF FOREST AND WILDLIFE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2397/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's ownership claim over the land, supported by sale deeds, NOCs, and revenue records, requires examination by the Deputy Conservator of Forest (South). The Deputy Conservator must address the petitioner's representation and provide a reasoned decision after a personal hearing. No coercive action will be taken against the petitioner's property during this process, and the petitioner is permitted to repair the boundary wall, emphasizing that a proper demarcation process should be followed.

GYAN SINGH MEENA VS NATIONAL SEEDS CORPORATION LTD. AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3195/2014]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The discharge of the petitioner from charges under Sections 420 and 120B IPC was valid due to a lack of evidence for deliberate withholding of information or conspiracy. Allegations against the petitioner were supported by sufficient evidence, including admissions, and principles of natural justice were observed in the inquiry. The evidence, while not strictly bound by the Evidence Act, had a reasonable nexus, particularly the complaint from customer firm M/s. KTC. The punishment of removal from service was deemed proportionate to the established misconduct. Re-appreciation of evidence or interference with findings of fact by the Disciplinary Authority was not warranted unless there were violations of natural justice or legal infirmities.

HARSH KUMAR @ HARISH KUMAR VS DISTRICT MAGISTRATE NORTH [W.P.(C)-17338/2022]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order rejecting the petitioner's application for an alternative plot of land due to compulsory acquisition was quashed. The rejection was based on non-compliance with notices sent to an outdated address, despite the petitioner notifying the authorities of his new address. The Recommendation Committee was instructed to review the application on its merits and provide a personal hearing, with a decision to be made within three months.

HARYANA SHAKTI COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VS GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5932/2016]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's college land is designated for "Public Purpose or for works of Public Utility" under the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954, serving as conclusive evidence. The Master Plan for Delhi 2021 and the Zonal Development Plan allow for Teacher Training Institutes in designated Facility Corridors and Residential Zones. Consequently, the land is in a conforming area, and the petitioner is not required to obtain a No Objection Certificate from the Delhi Development Authority for affiliation with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University. The previous order from the university was quashed, instructing the processing of the affiliation application without the NoC requirement.

HENA DUTTA VS THE DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7356/2012]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A physical education teacher, denied automatic re-employment at age 60, is entitled to arrears of salary and benefits from November 21, 2011, to September 11, 2012. The argument against her entitlement based on the lack of actual work during that period was rejected, as she was unlawfully deprived of the opportunity to work. The respondent school and the Directorate of Education must make the proportionate payment with 6% interest per annum within 8 weeks.

INCOME TAX OFFICE VS ANIL TUTEJA & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-2757/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The ACMM (Special Acts) erred by entertaining arguments and applications from proposed accused persons at the pre-cognizance stage when they lacked legal standing. The question of conspiracy should be determined during trial based on evidence, not at this stage. Additionally, the decision to split the complaint and return part of it for filing in a court with proper jurisdiction was erroneous, as the bifurcation was challenged in a batch matter. An interim stay has been granted on the order to return the complaint regarding specified offences under the Income Tax Act and Indian Penal Code.

JAIPALI VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-12316/2021]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, a daughter of a deceased Delhi Vidyut Board employee with 80% physical disability, is entitled to family pension. The respondents must reconsider her case sympathetically upon her submission of an undertaking stating she is not gainfully employed. The reconsideration should align with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016. The representation must be disposed of within four weeks, and the petitioner should be given an opportunity for a personal hearing if deemed necessary.

JASHMEET KAUR KOHLI & ANR. VS DELHI SIKH GURUDWARA MANAGEMENT AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-8144/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dispute regarding the grade pay of the employees of the Delhi Sikh Gurudwara Management Committee should be considered by the Competent Authority of the DSGMC. The DSGMC is directed to review the employees' representation on grade pay, particularly in relation to its own notification on revised grade pay for certain positions, and issue a speaking order within 8 weeks after allowing the employees to be heard. This decision does not address the DSGMC's arguments regarding the maintainability of the writ petitions, which claim that the matter should be taken to the Competent District Court under the Delhi Sikh Gurudwaras Act, 1971.

JASVINDER KAUR & ANR. VS UNOIN OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3515/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the recruitment notification for the Nursing Officer position, which set the maximum age limit at 30 years, was dismissed. The age limit for civil post recruitment is a government policy decision, with interference only permissible if deemed capricious or arbitrary. Established legal precedents prevent mandamus orders for changing age limits in recruitment notifications.

KANHAIYA MANJHI AND ORS VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-12374/2021]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Rule 47 of the Delhi School Education Rules, 1973 requires the NDMC and Government of NCT of Delhi to absorb surplus employees from the closed R.M. Arya Girls Primary School into their own or aided schools, contingent on vacancy availability. Arguments about the absence of an employer-employee relationship and direct recruitment processes were dismissed. The respondents must absorb the petitioners within 10 weeks while ensuring their tenure, pay scale, and benefits are maintained, with non-employment periods recognized for pension and other statutory benefits.

KARAN LUTHRA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5497/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondent authorities cannot refuse to issue the Land Status Report/No Objection Certificate (LSR/NOC) for the transfer of lands allotted to the petitioner under Section 74(4) of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954, as there were no written restrictions on transferring the lands in the original order granting bhumidhari rights. Previous issuance of LSR/NOC in 1987 for these lands and recent approval for a different parcel in the same village further support this position. The urbanization of the village under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act means the Delhi Land Reforms Act no longer applies, undermining the authorities' objections. The respondent authorities are instructed to issue the LSR/NOC within two weeks.

KIRPAL SINGH VS GURU HARKRISHAN PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-3779/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Employees of unaided minority schools are entitled to the benefits of the 6th and 7th Pay Commissions, similar to government school employees. The Directorate of Education must consult with the school to decide on the granting of transport and dearness allowance as per these Pay Commission recommendations, inform the petitioner within 10 weeks, and release any applicable arrears within 6 months with 6% interest during the pendency of the petition.

KRISHNA SHARMA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-197/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

In Krishna Sharma v. Govt. of NCT of Delhi, the respondent authorities must treat the petitioner's writ petition as a representation and respond within 4 weeks, providing an opportunity for the petitioner to be heard. The petitioner's property is not located in the disputed Khasra No. 29, but in Khasra Nos. 37 and 38. A prior representation made to the Forest Settlement Officer/District Magistrate remains unanswered. Both parties are to maintain status quo regarding the impugned notice until the representation is addressed.

KULDEEP KUMAR VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-8157/2017]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the selection process for the Junior Assistant position at the University of Delhi was dismissed. The selection scheme could not be contested as it was not challenged earlier. Explanations from the University regarding candidate selection, age relaxation, and mark corrections were deemed reasonable and lawful. The petitioner's allegations lacked substantiation, confirming the fairness of the selection process.

M S KHATU DHAM RESIDENCY PVT LTD VS GNCTD AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8375/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's application for a No Objection Certificate (NOC) to sell a 1/3rd share of their land in urbanized Village Bijwasan should be granted. Since Village Bijwasan was designated as an urbanized area in 1994, the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954 no longer applies. Following land consolidation, the restrictions under the East Punjab Holdings (Consolidation and Prevention of Fragmentation) Act, 1948 do not apply to land transfers. The order rejecting the NOC application was quashed, and the respondent authorities are to issue the NOC within 3 weeks.

M/S SNG TRADING COMPANY PVT. LTD. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1168/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Respondents must comply with the directions from the order dated 18.07.2022 before taking any action against the petitioner's property. The demolition notice issued on 17.01.2024 violates this prior order, necessitating adherence to due process before any actions can proceed. The petitioner is permitted to seek fresh demarcation of the land in accordance with the law.

M/S SUKH SANSAR HOUSING PVT LTD THROUGH ITS AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5500/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Once a village is notified as an urban area under Section 507(a) of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957, the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954 no longer applies. In this case, proceedings under Section 81 of the DLR Act, 1954 were initiated before the village was declared urban. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate is directed to consider the petitioners' application for dismissal of the pending proceedings and to resolve the matter within six weeks, without any opinion on the maintainability of the proceedings.

MAHESH AGGARWAL VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-14831/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner must present original documents at the Sub-Registrar's office on a specified date, which is required to accept and process these documents according to the law. There was no resolution regarding any previous interactions or refusals by the Sub-Registrar, as it denied any such claims. An interim direction was provided to assist the registration process without making a final decision on the case's merits.

MALSH CHARITABLE TRUST THROUGH ITS TRUSTEE MS. JAYSHREE SINGH VS LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5462/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, having purchased land parcels through a registered sale deed, can file a representation before the Deputy Commissioner (South) regarding land demarcation, which must be resolved within six weeks. The Forest Department is prohibited from taking coercive action during this period. For the portion acquired via unregistered documents, the petitioner may approach a civil court to assert possessory rights, with similar protection against coercive actions from the Forest Department until the civil court proceedings conclude.

MANJEET KUMAR VS FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-8131/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Manjeet Kumar challenging the "withheld list" from the Food Corporation of India regarding the Phase-2 Examination results from 2019 was dismissed due to delayed filing, as the petitioner was aware of the results declared in December 2020. The petition was barred by limitation, and costs were not imposed.

MANGAT RAM @ MANGAT RAI VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14449/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal proceedings (No. 292/DCW/2013) under Section 185 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954 became non-est after the NCT of Delhi designated the lands in Mundka as an urban area. Once an area is declared urban, proceedings under the Delhi Land Reforms Act lose legal significance. The pending appeal proceedings were quashed, with parties allowed to address their rights and contentions in appropriate civil court proceedings.

MANISHA SHARMA VS VIDYA BHAWAN GIRLS SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4217/2022]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner is entitled to full back wages from her dismissal on 31.10.2016 until reinstatement on 28.07.2017, due to illegal deprivation of her services during that period. The principle of "no work, no pay" does not apply, and the denial of back wages has been quashed. The respondents are directed to calculate and pay the complete back wages within six weeks, with 6% per annum interest for any payment delay.

MAYA DEVI VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15300/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The notification dated 16.05.2017, issued under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act 1957, urbanized the village of Mukandpur, making the provisions of the Delhi Land Reform Act, 1954, inapplicable. Consequently, orders previously issued under the DLR Act by the Revenue Assistant and the Deputy Commissioner became non-est. Affected parties were advised to seek remedy in civil courts within 60 days.

MEGHA SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12152/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The termination of the petitioner's consultancy contract was non-stigmatic and did not impose restrictions on her ability to seek employment in other government or private departments. The termination letter did not contain clauses limiting future employment prospects, and comments from the department clarified that the petitioner's options for seeking employment remained open.

MEHMOODUL HASAN VS GOVT. OFNCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-95/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The legal issue involves a petitioner's property that the government seeks to demolish for being an encroachment on forest land. The petitioner claims the property is located on Khasra No. 52, which is not included in the government's notice, and has submitted representations to authorities that remain unaddressed. The matter has been treated as a representation, with directives for consideration and a response within four weeks, allowing the petitioner a chance to be heard. Status quo will be maintained on the demolition notice until the representations are resolved. The essential focus is on ensuring the petitioner's representations are properly considered by the authorities.

MIKADO PROPERTIES PVT. LTD. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-983/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The notice issued did not relate to Mikado Properties Pvt. Ltd. as the mentioned khasra numbers were incorrect. Previous judgments indicated that parties should seek demarcation of land boundaries from the Deputy Commissioner. A direction was given for Mikado Properties to file a detailed representation to the Deputy Conservator of Forest, who was to address it promptly with a reasoned order. Coercive action against the property was prohibited in the meantime.

MINTA ELIZABETH VARGHESE VS FOOD SAFETY AND STANDARDS AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-9614/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India must treat the petitioner's writ petition as a representation and reconsider her service termination as a Central Food Safety Officer. The authority failed to properly evaluate the petitioner's qualifications, including her Bachelor of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry degree and internship, completed before the specified cut-off date. The authority is required to conduct a personal hearing, allow the submission of additional documents, and issue a reasoned order within six weeks.

MOHAMMAD ASIF RAMEEZ DAUDI VS OBSERVER OF EMBASSY OF INDIA, RIYADH FOR INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOLS & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7244/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Mohammad Asif Rameez Daudi was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The cause of action did not arise within the jurisdiction, as the respondents were located outside India. Although a part of the cause of action within the jurisdiction could confer authority under Article 226, the majority of parties and events were outside India, making it an inappropriate forum. The petitioner may seek redress in the appropriate jurisdictional High Court.

MOHAMMAD INAMUL HAQ VS THE UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5034/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the appointment of respondent no. 3 as an Assistant Professor in Philosophy at Janki Devi Memorial College was dismissed. Respondent no. 3 had a valid OBC caste certificate issued by the competent authority in Bihar, while the petitioner, a wait-listed candidate, lacked substantive rights to the position. The final selection list had been published and the selected candidates had joined, rendering the petitioner's challenge unmaintainable. The petitioner must pay costs of Rs. 15,000 to the Delhi High Court Legal Services Authority.

MOHAMMED YUNUS VS NATIONAL THERMAL POWER COPORATION LTD & ANR [W.P.(C)-3055/2016]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner is entitled to pension under the 1995 NTPC Pension Scheme, as confirmed by previous rulings. Pension payments were delayed from retirement on 31.07.2002 until disbursement in August 2010. The petitioner is awarded interest at 7% per annum on the delayed payments from 01.08.2002 to 01.08.2010.

MOHD ANWAR KHAN VS JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16421/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appointment of respondent no.2 as Pro-Vice Chancellor and subsequently as Officiating Vice-Chancellor of Jamia Millia Islamia University violated the Jamia Millia Islamia Act, 1988, and University Statutes. The Pro-Vice Chancellor appointment lacked Executive Council approval, and the use of emergency powers for the Officiating Vice-Chancellor role was unjustified due to the absence of an emergent situation. A writ of quo warranto quashed these appointments, directing the Visitor to appoint an eligible Vice-Chancellor (Officiating) and initiate the process for a regular Vice-Chancellor appointment.

MOHD HARIS PASHA VS CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION [W.P.(C)-2078/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the answer key of a question in the Eklavya Model Residential School Staff Selection Examination (ESSE) 2023 was dismissed. The petitioners argued that the correct answer should be 'the' based on English grammar textbooks, while an independent subject matter expert concluded that 'no article' was correct, citing the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary. The presence of two plausible views on the matter warranted no interference with the expert's decision.

MR. AJAY BAJPAI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7142/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner is entitled to an alternate plot of 40 sq. yards under the government policy on compulsory land acquisition, as he meets the eligibility criteria by not owning any property in urban areas of Delhi. The ownership of a property by the petitioner's wife in Gurugram does not disqualify him, since eligibility is assessed based on the date of land acquisition. The respondents are directed to allot the alternate plot to the petitioner within specified timelines.

MR. HEM CHAND VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-2061/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The lands in Khasra No. 375, Village Jasola, now known as Shaheen Bagh, were urbanized by a notification dated 03.06.1996. The respondent government must consider and dispose of the petitioner's representation dated 08.01.2024 within eight weeks, allowing the petitioner to participate, without establishing any special equities in favor of the petitioner regarding the applicability of the DLR Act.

MR. SANJAY KUMAR VS HANS RAJ COLLEGE AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-9265/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Recovery notices issued by a college for alleged excess payments made by a petitioner during study leave from 2009-2012 are impermissible due to the time lapse of over five years, as outlined in a relevant Supreme Court judgment. No allegations of misrepresentation or fraud by the petitioner further prevent recovery. The recovery notices were set aside, and the college must return Rs. 30,000 already recovered from the petitioner.

MR. SUMAN KUMAR SINGH AND ORS VS DEDICATED FREIGHT CORRIDOR CORPORATION OF INDIA LTD.AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-14073/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The cut-off date of January 1, 2023, established for determining employee eligibility to appear in the Limited Departmental Competitive Examination for promotion from Cluster C to Cluster D is valid and aligns with the Revised Recruitment and Promotion Policy. Rule 8.2.1(a) indicates that the residency period for inter-cluster promotions is based on the "date of availability of vacancy," assessed annually on January 1, justifying the selected cut-off date. The challenge to the circular was dismissed.

MRS DR CHANDRA GOSWAMI VS DYAL SINGH COLLEGE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2147/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Dr. Chandra Goswami is entitled to have her case reviewed by the Competent Authority regarding the waiver of the recovery of Rs. 3,82,192, which was allegedly overpaid to her by Dyal Singh College. The college's governing body has unanimously recommended the waiver. The Competent Authority must address her representation within six weeks, allowing her an opportunity for a hearing and to submit additional documents.

MRS VIBHA SHARMA VS NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL AND ANR [W.P.(C)-1210/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Mrs. Vibha Sharma is permitted to apply for the Assistant Teacher (Nursery) position with the NDMC, despite exceeding the age limit. Age relaxation and consideration for her 10 years of experience as a Balwari/Nursery teacher on a contractual basis were mandated based on prior orders from 2005. The DSSSB is instructed to accept her application and process it without objection to her age, applying the previously granted weightage for her experience. This decision is specific to the case's facts and not a precedent.

MS POONAM CHUGH VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9457/2018]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Ms. Poonam Chugh is entitled to be treated as a pension optee by Punjab National Bank, despite her not providing specific instructions for transferring her provident fund amount to the pension fund. The bank was aware that her salary was being remitted to an overdraft account it initiated, making it responsible for complying with the pension scheme circular and transferring the funds accordingly. The bank must sanction her pension and open a pension account for her to deposit the provident fund amount, with subsequent consequences under the pension scheme circular.

MS. ADIB FATEMA NOMANI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7277/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Ms. Adib Fatema Nomani is entitled to the leave encashment benefits of her late husband under Rule 39C of the CCS (Leave) Rules, 1972. A decision on her representation must be made within 4 weeks, allowing her an opportunity to be heard regarding her entitlement, while also confirming if she is the sole widow and whether the relevant conditions are met.

MS. KIMAYA LAL KIDWAI AND ANR VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-16302/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The objection by the Sub-Registrar and the Collector to the registration of the sale deed based on revenue records indicating the Land and Building Department as the cultivator is legally unsustainable. Previously quashed acquisition proceedings were not reflected in the revenue records. The orders of the Sub-Registrar and the Collector have been quashed, and the Sub-Registrar is directed to register the sale deed.

MS. SANGEETA. VS THE DELHI UNITED CHRISTIAN SR. SEC. SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-233/2022]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Directorate of Education's circular on teacher recruitment in aided schools does not apply to minority institutions, as it infringes on their autonomy under Article 30(1) of the Constitution. There was no minimum cutoff for experience marks, meaning even with a reduced score, the petitioner remained eligible for the position. Orders rejecting the petitioner's claim for grant-in-aid were quashed, and she is entitled to her salary and benefits from her starting date of employment.

N. NAGARJUN RAO VS GOVT OF N.C.T , DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7240/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner is entitled to pro rata pension for service from 01.02.1977 to 01.07.1995 with the Andhra School prior to absorption by the NVS School. The extension of the deputation period by the Andhra School was valid as it had the authority to do so without DoE approval. The acceptance of the petitioner's technical resignation was valid since Rule 114A of the Delhi Schools Education Rules does not apply to minority institutions, which cannot be interfered with by the DoE. Additionally, the petitioner was not on unauthorized leave, and the technical resignation was merely a formality for absorption. The DoE is directed to calculate and release the pro rata pensionary benefits within 8 weeks.

N.R. RADHA VS ASSAM GOVT. MARKETING CORPORATION LTD. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3460/2008]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's claim for arrears of subsistence allowance based on revised pay scales from 1999 to 2007 is denied due to legal principles indicating that opting for voluntary retirement subsumes previous claims. However, the claim for enhanced entitlements under the Voluntary Retirement Scheme (VRS) as of May 30, 2005, is validated due to insufficient documentation regarding the acceptance date of the VRS application. The petitioner is entitled to the enhanced VRS benefits with appropriate interest for delayed payment, with the balance to be paid within 6 weeks at 6% interest per annum from the due date.

NAMAN SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3673/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the cancellation of the recruitment process for the Security Supervisor position at ONGC's Bokaro office was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The cause of action did not arise within the jurisdiction of the Delhi High Court, and it was noted that jurisdiction can only be exercised where part of the cause arose. The petitioner has the option to approach the appropriate jurisdictional High Court.

NAND KISHOR MEENA VS FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-99/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's premature retirement by the Food Corporation of India (FCI) under Regulation 22(2) of the FCI Staff Regulations, 1971 is to be re-considered. The FCI's Reviewing Committee and Representation Committee did not adequately comply with the provisions of its own circular dated 09.07.2021, particularly regarding promotions made in the preceding 5 years. The FCI is required to re-evaluate the case of the petitioner and other employees promoted in the 5 years prior to their premature retirement, following principles established in a related judgment by the High Court of Punjab and Haryana, with an 8-week compliance timeframe.

NAND LAL DAHARIYA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3253/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The competent authority is directed to consider the petitioners' representations regarding their eligibility for the Principal position in Eklavya Model Residential Schools, provide them a hearing, and issue a speaking order within 10 working days. No observations on the merits of the case are made, and the contentions of the parties remain open. Two writ petitions are disposed of together.

NARESH KUMAR TREHAN VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1094/2011]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Naresh Kumar Trehan's termination from the University of Delhi was challenged on the basis that the disciplinary authority did not provide a meaningful opportunity for a personal hearing, violating principles of natural justice. The termination order lacked clear reasoning and was deemed non-speaking. The matter was remitted for fresh consideration with instructions for a proper personal hearing and a reasoned order. Issues of writ petition maintainability and the merits of the charges remain open for discussion.

NEENA YADAV VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-825/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the recruitment process of the Central or Delhi Government is not maintainable in the High Court, as such challenges fall under the jurisdiction of the Administrative Tribunal as per Section 14 of the Administrative Tribunal Act, 1965. The petition will be transferred to the Central Administrative Tribunal in New Delhi for renumbering as an original application.

NEERJA TIKU VS SCHOOL OF PLANNING AND ARCHITECTURE & ANR [W.P.(C)-8583/2015]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, who chose to remain under the Contributory Provident Fund (CPF) scheme after the cut-off date of 30.09.1987, is considered to have transitioned to the General Provident Fund (GPF) cum Pension Scheme according to the 01.05.1987 Office Memorandum. Options exercised after the cut-off date are invalid in law, and this principle applies to all eligible employees. The petitioner must deposit the CPF contributions along with 8% simple interest to access benefits under the GPF cum Pension Scheme.

OM PRAKASH BISWAS VS DEDICATED FREIGHT CORRIDOR CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED [W.P.(C)-6312/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Competent Authority of Dedicated Freight Corridor Corporation of India Limited must consider the petitioner's representation under the DoPT notification dated 21.01.1977, which permits relaxation of departmental exam standards for Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe candidates when they are insufficient in number. The Authority is required to provide the petitioner an opportunity to be heard and to resolve the representation within four weeks of receiving the order. No final decision on the matter has been made.

P. N. MURLI VS MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-84/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The non-speaking order from the Bureau of Indian Standards rejecting the petitioner's promotion from Scientist Grade-D to Scientist Grade-E was set aside. The petitioner will have his representation for promotion considered, provided an opportunity for a hearing, and a speaking order issued within 8 weeks. No reasonable grounds or proper reasoning supported the rejection of the promotion request, particularly after the petitioner’s reinstatement and the treatment of his absence as duty time.

PARVEEN KUMAR VS EXPORT INSPECTION COUNCIL & ORS [W.P.(C)-3940/2017]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appointment of a retired officer as the Inquiry Officer in disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner violated Rule 11(2) of the Export Inspection Agency Employees (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1978, which mandates the Inquiry Officer to be a "public servant." Additionally, the failure to grant the petitioner a personal hearing before issuing the order contravened Rule 11(4) of the same rules. Although these procedural violations were noted, the petitioner did not demonstrate "de facto prejudice" stemming from them. The impugned orders were quashed, and the case was remanded to the Disciplinary Authority to allow the petitioner a personal hearing before making a new decision, with no findings made on the case's merits.

PINKY YADAV VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-802/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the recruitment process of the Central or Delhi Government is not maintainable under Article 226 of the Constitution, as these matters fall under the Administrative Tribunal Act, 1965. The petitioner, who cleared Tier-I and Tier-II examinations, missed the deadline for submitting the form for the renotified examination. The petition was transferred to the Principal Bench of the Central Administrative Tribunal, New Delhi, to be considered on 23.01.2024.

POOJA SHARMA VS THE DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION & ORS [W.P.(C)-4868/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, recommended for promotion to TGT (Social Science) on 28.03.2015, is entitled to promotion and seniority from 01.04.2015, the date her junior colleagues were promoted. She was found to be senior to her juniors, with no disqualifications. She is to receive the same seniority and pay fixation as her juniors, with financial benefits effective from 21.12.2017.

POONAM KHURANA VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-9587/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The charge-sheets and suspension order against the petitioner by the respondent school were declared invalid and quashed. The respondent school must pay all financial benefits to the petitioner under Section 10(1) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973, including back wages from the date of suspension. The petitioner is entitled to the same pay and emoluments as teachers in government schools. The school may initiate disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner, with the right to raise objections.

PRADEEP KUMAR SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1962/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's resignation was accepted and became effective on 31.12.2022, resulting in the loss of entitlement to withdraw the resignation. An email sent on 28.12.2022 to retract the resignation lacked supporting evidence and was deemed an afterthought. The writ petition lacked merit and was dismissed.

PRAKASH BACHANNI AND ORS VS BUREAU OF INDIAN STANDARDS [W.P.(C)-13882/2009]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The ACRs from 1999 to 2003 for petitioners, who received retrospective in-situ promotion to Scientist Grade 'D' under the FCS of BIS, should be considered for promotion to Scientist Grade 'E'. The retrospective promotion necessitates all associated benefits, including ACR consideration. Arguments based on DoPT guidelines were rejected, as the retrospective promotions were not reversed. For writ petitions W.P.(C) 14055/2009 and W.P.(C) 531/2010, additional documents are required to clarify the broader implications of the promotions.

PRAKASH GODBHOLE VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7418/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The investigating officer must conduct an effective investigation but frequent summoning of a government employee from Bangalore to Delhi caused undue hardship. The employee was given 7 days to join the investigation and allowed to be available for 2 continuous days if necessary, thereby minimizing harassment during the process. The presumption of innocence entitles the employee to constitutional rights.

PRANAB KUMAR BHATTACHARYA & OR VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-21990/2005]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Petitioners, employees of the Agricultural Economics Research Centre (AERC) under the University of Delhi, are entitled to benefits under the GPF-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme. AERC employees are to be treated equally to regular University employees concerning pension and gratuity benefits based on accepted recommendations from the Government of India and the University. Denying the same benefits to these employees would be discriminatory and infringe upon their fundamental rights. The Union of India must release the necessary funds to the University of Delhi within 8 weeks to process the pension cases of the petitioners.

PRAVEEN JAIN VS FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-3827/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954 no longer applies to the land in Village Bijwasan, Delhi, as established in a prior Supreme Court case. The issues between the parties were highly contested and involved disputed factual questions inappropriate for writ jurisdiction. The writ petition was dismissed, allowing the parties the option to seek redress in the appropriate civil court. The matter involved related disputes regarding the same land.

PROF DR MOHAN RAO & ANR VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY & ORS [W.P.(C)-7852/2018]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) cannot arbitrarily withhold Non-Practicing Allowance (NPA) from qualified MBBS doctors serving as Assistant Professors. The University Grants Commission (UGC) approved NPA rates for medical faculty in 1976, which JNU adopted in 1977, with no evidence of cancellation. JNU's argument regarding a 2008 clarification from the MHRD denying NPA for Assistant Professors does not override the earlier UGC notification or JNU's resolution. As MBBS degree holders in positions requiring this qualification, the petitioners are entitled to NPA. JNU's decision to stop NPA and recover past payments has been quashed, and JNU must pay the petitioners arrears from January 1, 2017, within six weeks, or face interest charges.

PROF. KRISHNA MOHAN SHRIMALI VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2644/2010]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The university's withholding of the petitioner's increment for failing to submit a curriculum vitae along with the increment certificate was deemed arbitrary and a violation of the service contract. The requirement for submitting CVs was acknowledged, but the university could not withhold increments without adhering to the contract's proper procedure, which mandates an opportunity for the petitioner to make a written representation before any decision is made. As a result, the university must reconsider the increment issue and pay any arrears with interest if entitled. The university retains the right to take action regarding future CV submissions.

PROMILA ANAND VS GURU NANAK PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-419/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The suspension order dated 14.10.2023 against the petitioner by the respondent school was set aside due to violations of Section 8(3) and 8(4) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. A dissenting note from the Delhi Department of Education indicated a lack of evidence for embezzlement, citing only an irregularity in expenditure. Consequently, the petitioner is entitled to benefits resulting from the overturning of the suspension.

R.K.CHOUDHARY (RAJ KUMAR CHOUDHARY) VS GOVT. OF N.C.T. OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-495/2010]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

R.K. Choudhary is not entitled to the second time-bound promotional scale (2nd TBPS) as he lacked 8 years of regular service as an Executive Engineer before retirement. In contrast, Shyam Sunder Mago met the requirement with over 8 years of service in an ad-hoc capacity, qualifying for the 2nd TBPS. Financial benefits for Mago are to be calculated and released accordingly. The decision clarifies individual eligibility based on the specifics of each petitioner's service details.

R.S.TYAGI VS N.T.P.C. LTD. [W.P.(C)-7666/2007]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner were based on incidents that occurred between 1985-1987, with a charge sheet issued in 2004, resulting in a delay of 17 years. Observations from an Arbitrator's award did not indicate any deliberate negligence by the petitioner. Disciplinary actions against other senior officers also occurred, with some being exonerated, indicating no discrimination against the petitioner. The inordinate delay in initiating the proceedings was grounds to quash the penalty orders issued on 28.02.2005/09.03.2005 and the appellate order dated 27.04.2006.

RAHUL KUMAR MAURYA VS INDIAN RAILWAY FINANCE CORPORATION LTD [W.P.(C)-7334/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The suspension order against the petitioner did not comply with applicable rules and guidelines, lacking necessary reasons for the suspension. The respondent failed to address the petitioner's representations within the timeline set by the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) guidelines. The respondent was directed to resolve the representations within three weeks and issue a reasoned order accordingly, allowing the petitioner to challenge any subsequent order if necessary.

RAJ KUMAR JAJODIA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-4190/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The issue of the petitioner's land status as part of the notified reserve forest land will be decided by the Deputy Conservator of Forests. The Deputy Conservator is to consider the petitioner's representation, provide a hearing, and issue reasoned orders within six weeks. The government is restrained from taking coercive action against the petitioner's property during this process.

RAJ KUMAR VS UNION BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-2971/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The High Court's powers of judicial review under Article 226 in disciplinary proceedings against employees are limited. Re-appreciation of evidence or interference with inquiry conclusions is not permitted if due procedure and principles of natural justice are broadly complied with. The denial of the opportunity to cross-examine borrowers did not violate these principles since the guilt was established through other evidence. The possibility of re-evaluating evidence to determine the reasonableness of findings is not allowed, as it would equate to acting as an appellate authority. The writ petition was dismissed, affirming that interference is not permissible when procedures are followed, even if the findings seem unreasonable.

RAJDEV SINGH YADAV (EX-POCOM) EW VS CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR, FCI AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-1421/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Rajdev Singh Yadav, an ex-serviceman in the "aggravated to service" category, challenged his non-selection under the disabled ex-serviceman quota for FCI recruitment. The advertisement specified eligibility for ex-servicemen discharged "attributable to military service," excluding Yadav's category. He indicated in his application that he was not a disabled ex-serviceman, making him ineligible for the ESM-2 category. A candidate cannot challenge the selection process after participating and failing to secure a position. The writ petition was dismissed.

RAJESH KUMAR RAVI VS P.O.,DELHI SCHOOL TRIBUNAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6899/2003]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the petitioner from service was set aside due to significant violations of statutory rules and principles of natural justice. The Inquiry Officer's report was deemed cryptic and lacking independent analysis of evidence. Additionally, the petitioner did not receive a copy of the inquiry report, a show cause notice, or an opportunity to be heard, breaching Rule 120 of the Delhi Schools Education Rules, 1973. The dismissal order and the decision of the Delhi School Tribunal were quashed, and the petitioner was reinstated with 50% of wages, increments, and all retiral benefits.

RAJIV KUMAR VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH LIEUTINANT GOVERNOR & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8392/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The eligibility criteria for the post of Professor under UGC guidelines permit an applicant to qualify as either an eminent scholar with a Ph.D. and at least 10 publications or an outstanding professional with significant contributions to the field. The interpretation of "and/or" in the guidelines allows for either teaching or research experience to suffice for qualification. The competent authority is directed to consider the petitioner's detailed response to the show-cause notice and provide a personal hearing, taking into account her prior employment and the interpretation of the "and/or" clause.

RAJSHREE SINGH VS LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1388/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's claim of ownership and continuous possession of certain land parcels, supported by a registered sale deed and demarcation reports, is considered prima facie valid. The Deputy Commissioner is tasked with resolving the land demarcation dispute, taking into account the petitioner's claims, and must issue a detailed order within six weeks. No coercive actions against the petitioner are permitted until the Deputy Commissioner's order is issued.

RAKESH KUMAR VS JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY [W.P.(C)-16692/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Delhi High Court directed Jawaharlal Nehru University to consider the petitioner's application for the Junior Assistant position and issue an appointment letter within four weeks if he is found eligible. The petitioner had successfully completed all recruitment stages for the Assistant role but did not receive an appointment letter. It was stated that, regardless of his suitability for the Assistant position, he should be evaluated for the Junior Assistant role, for which he was qualified.

RAMPHAL & ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7018/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The MCD was not constructing a road on the petitioners' land; instead, the Delhi Jal Board was laying a sewer line. The dispute regarding the ownership of the Phirni land remains pending before the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, who was directed to address the petitioners' objections within four weeks, with no further time extensions permitted.

RANJIT SINGH & ORS. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7666/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A demarcation exercise will be conducted to establish the boundaries between the petitioners' land and the forest department's land. The forest department is required to perform a new demarcation due to differing accounts of a previous exercise, with the petitioners responsible for depositing the necessary charges. Temporary placement of pillars by the forest department on their land is permitted, pending the demarcation outcome. The matter is resolved without costs.

REKHA CHANDRA VS NATIONAL BANK FIR AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT (NABARD) AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-9875/2015]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) issued a circular on 25.05.2012 to limit the grounds for extending bank accommodation for transferred officers in a reasonable manner that balanced employees' interests. The petitioner's challenge to the circular was rejected, as she had previously taken advantage of the same provisions. Additionally, NABARD's decision to charge penal rent for the petitioner's unauthorized occupation beyond the allowed extension was upheld. The petition lacked merit.

REKHA JAIN VS DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE & ANR. [W.P.(C)-9082/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner is not entitled to penal interest on the delayed payment of earned leave encashment, even though the delay exceeded two months after superannuation. Reasons provided by the respondent department for the delay, including the need to revise benefits due to changes in Dearness Allowance, were deemed satisfactory and not intentional. The petition was dismissed.

RITEESH MOHAN BAKSHI & ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH PRINCIPAL CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FOREST & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2190/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Interim relief granted to petitioners allows them to submit a detailed representation to the Deputy Conservator of Forest with ownership documents. The forest department is required to consider the representation, conduct a hearing, and issue an order within 6 weeks. Coercive action against the petitioners' property is prohibited during this period.

RITU PHORE VS RAMJAS SCHOOL AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7236/2018]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Richa Singh's resignation from the school was valid and intentional, preventing her from claiming a "lien" to rejoin with previous seniority. The seniority list must be corrected to show Ritu Phore as senior to Richa Singh. Richa Singh severed her relationship with the school by joining another institution, and her arguments based on Rule 109 of the Delhi School Education Rules 1973 regarding seniority were rejected.

ROHTASH & ORS. VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-980/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioners demonstrated a prima facie legality of their possession of land (Khasra Nos. 1513 and 1510) based on a previous court order that allowed dispossession only in accordance with law. The Deputy Conservator of Forest must consider the petitioners' situation and facts before taking any coercive action, providing them an opportunity to be heard and submit additional documents. Authorities are restrained from taking coercive action until the Deputy Conservator resolves the matter within six weeks.

RUBINDER KAUR VS GURU NANAK PUBLIC SCHOOL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-406/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The suspension order against Rubinder Kaur by Guru Nanak Public School was deemed invalid due to the lack of prior approval from the Director of Education, as required by Section 8(4) of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. The suspension also exceeded the 15-day limit without the necessary approval. The suspension order was set aside, while no findings were made regarding a separate minor penalty imposed on the petitioner.

RUCHIKA GUPTA VS PUNEET GUPTA [TR.P.(C.)-77/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition for transferring Ruchika Gupta's divorce case from the Family Court in Tis Hazari to the Family Court in Rohini was dismissed. The reasons given, including travel difficulties, caring for a minor daughter, lack of income, and threats from the respondent, were deemed insufficient for a transfer. Emphasis was placed on the principles that a mere balance of convenience does not justify a transfer, and that the plaintiff has the right to choose the forum permitted by law. Consequently, no substantial grounds were established for the transfer.

RUPALI NATH VS ANUP KUMAR CHAUDHARY [RFA-858/2019]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Will executed by the late father of the parties was established as valid based on sufficient evidence. However, the declaration of the respondent as the absolute owner of the property was deemed erroneous, as no title declaration was sought by the respondent. The decree was set aside, highlighting the need for appropriate reliefs concerning title and possession. The appeal was partly allowed, and the release of the deposit made by the appellant was directed.

RUPINDER SINGH BEDI & ORS. VS DEPARTMENT OF FOREST AND WILDLIFE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2677/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Petitioners are permitted to participate in a new demarcation process to establish ownership and boundaries of the disputed land, previously claimed as part of a reserved forest. They were excluded from earlier proceedings. A six-week deadline is set for completion of this demarcation, and the petitioners will receive a copy of the report. Status quo must be maintained until the report is provided.

S. S. AND COMPANY VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-3278/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Sub-Divisional Magistrate (Seema Puri) is instructed to dispose of the application from S.S. and Company regarding a land parcel, initially filed on 19.04.2014, within four weeks. The petitioner must be given a personal hearing and allowed to submit relevant documents. The application has been pending for over a decade concerning land declared as surplus and vested in the government. A reasoned order must be issued within two days, with the option for the petitioner to challenge the order if desired.

SANJAY KUMAR VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-6435/2013]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondents filled the single post of Assistant through Direct Recruitment as there were no eligible candidates in the Junior Assistant feeder cadre with the required 5 years of regular service for promotion. The argument for filling the post through the Limited Departmental Examination was rejected, as the Recruitment Rules permit Direct Recruitment when no eligible candidates are available for promotion.

SANJAY SINGH YADAV VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-7429/2018]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, on a 3-year lien with the Airport Authority of India (AAI) while employed elsewhere, qualifies as a "Departmental Candidate" for the Junior Executive (Fire Services) position under the AAI's Recruitment and Promotion Guidelines. AAI's rejection of the petitioner's candidature due to not being on their payroll was deemed untenable. However, the petitioner did not receive relief since he failed to rejoin AAI within the given timeframe, and the vacancy was subsequently filled.

SANTOSH KUMAR VS DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-8231/2011]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondent school raised legal objections regarding the petitioner's appointment as an Assistant Teacher, claiming non-compliance with statutory rules. However, contemporaneous documentary evidence, including the school's admissions, confirmed the petitioner's appointment and service from 2004 to 2010. The school failed to produce relevant documents during an inquiry by the education department, leading to adverse inferences against it. Arguments about the petitioner's lack of qualifications were dismissed as the cited rules were introduced later and could not be applied retrospectively. The school was directed to release arrears of salary differences for the three years prior to the filing of the petition.

SATHY B KUMAR VS KERALA EDUCATION SOCIETY SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL THROUGH CHAIRMAN AND ORS [W.P.(C)-14041/2021]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's qualification of "Hindi Shikshan Nishnat" obtained in 1989 is equivalent to the M.Ed. degree, necessary for the PGT (Hindi) post. The petitioner was qualified for promotion on 02.01.2014 but was denied due to an erroneous assumption about her qualifications. Since the denial was due to administrative error, the petitioner is entitled to retrospective promotion on a notional basis for MACP benefits. Service records must be corrected within four weeks, and applicable benefits granted within six weeks.

SATISH KUMAR & ANR. VS THE TEHSILDAR AND ANR [W.P.(C)-3201/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Tehsildar's refusal to demarcate land (Kh. No. 57/11/3) in Village Mamurpur, Narela, Delhi, due to the village's urbanization under Section 507A of the DMC Act, 1957, and the cessation of the DLR Act, 1954, is valid. The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) must treat the petition as a representation and address it within 8 weeks, providing the petitioners a chance to present additional documents. The GNCT of Delhi is required to transfer the land records for Kh. No. 57/11/3 to the DDA within 4 weeks. If the DDA believes the matter can be resolved through demarcation, it should proceed accordingly.

SATYENDRA KUMAR VS MANAGING COMMITTEE OF MAHARAJA AGARSAIN PUBLIC SCHOOL AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-16636/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition was treated as a representation to the Deputy Director of Education, who is instructed to consider it according to the law. Both the petitioner and the respondent school will have an opportunity for a personal hearing, with a decision expected within six weeks. No observations were made regarding the merits of the petition.

SH ADESH JAIN ANR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-5617/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Eviction notices and orders issued by the respondent authorities were invalid as the land was classified as part of the Extended Lal Dora area, falling outside the jurisdiction of the revenue authorities under the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954. The eviction notices and orders were quashed, with the rights of the parties to be determined by a civil court where a suit had already been filed, leaving the merits of the claims unresolved.

SH SHAMSHER SINGH VS DIRECTOR OF PANCHAYAT & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14615/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition seeking to set aside land allotment orders in favor of Hari Chand was dismissed due to disputed questions of fact. The petitioner did not include Hari Chand or his legal representatives. The land was urbanized under the DMC Act, allowing the petitioner to seek redress in a civil court despite previously dismissed appeals under the DLR Act. The petition was deemed not maintainable, but the petitioner retains the right to pursue other legal remedies.

SH TILAK RAJ VS DY CONSERVATOR OF FOREST [W.P.(C)-1435/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner presented material indicating a potential claim over land Khasra No. 607, despite the respondent's seemingly correct arguments. A final opportunity of 30 days was granted to the petitioner for appropriate legal remedies, with a directive to the respondent to refrain from any coercive action during this period.

SH.SHISHPAL(DECEASED) THROGH LRS & ORS. VS GOVT.OF NCT DELHI THROUGH & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15418/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The orders dismissing the petitioner's applications to restore the original petition were set aside because the land in question was declared an urbanized area in 2017, making the provisions of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954 inapplicable. The petitioner is allowed to approach the civil court of competent jurisdiction to address grievances raised in the original petition filed in 2008 within four weeks.

SHREYA SUMAN VS PUNJAB AND SIND BANK AND OTHERS [W.P.(C)-592/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondent-appellate authority must dispose of the petitioner's statutory appeal within six weeks, allowing for principles of natural justice and compliance with law and rules. The appeal, filed on 06.06.2023 against a dismissal order from 28.04.2023, remains undecided after over eight months. The appeal's disposal must be expedited, ensuring a reasoned order for the petitioner.

SHUBHAM PAL AND ORS. VS STAFF SELECTION COMMISSION AND ANR [W.P.(C)-16593/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The analysis and conclusions of the subject matter experts appointed by the Staff Selection Commission (SSC) regarding the disputed questions in the Combined Graduate Level Examination Tier-II, 2023 (CGLE 2023) were generally plausible. However, for Question ID 264330171997, the experts' assessment was disagreed with. Additional marks are to be awarded to candidates who answered this question correctly, and altered results must be published. An interim order of no prejudice against the petitioners was vacated.

SHUBHAM PRATAP SINGH VS KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA SANGATHAN (K VS) & ORS. [W.P.(C)-138/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Shubham Pratap Singh against the Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan is not maintainable under Section 14(2) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. A prior judgment directed the petitioner in a similar case to approach the Central Administrative Tribunal. The petition is transferred to the Principal Bench of the Central Administrative Tribunal as an original application. The time for the petitioner to join the allotted school has been extended until 20.01.2024.

SMT SHAIL KUMARI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7871/2022]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Previous judgments from 2008 and 2012 granted benefits to certain employee categories by redesignating them as Passenger Attendant Grade-I with an updated pay scale. These judgments applied to all similarly situated employees, including the petitioner's late husband. Arguments regarding delay and lack of records were rejected, affirming the entitlement to the benefits. Respondents must revise the petitioner's pension and pay all arrears with interest within 8 weeks.

SMT. DHEERAJ SHARMA AND OTHERS VS SH. NEERAJ CHANDRA & ORS. [CONT.CAS(C)-1368/2022]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Employees of the respondent private recognized school are entitled to the same pay and benefits as their counterparts in government schools, in accordance with Section 10 of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973. Previous judgments established this principle. Supreme Court judgments cited by the respondent are deemed inapplicable as they addressed individual claims rather than benefits from Pay Commission recommendations. The respondent school must implement the 6th and 7th Central Pay Commissions' recommendations and pay arrears to the petitioners within three months, without interest if paid within this period.

SUBHOJIT CHATTERJEE VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS.. [W.P.(C)-483/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The termination of the petitioner's employment by IndiGo Airlines was deemed a private contractual matter, not an action by a state or authority under Article 12 of the Constitution. The writ petition challenging the termination as contrary to DGCA's Civil Aviation Requirements (CAR) was not maintainable against the private entity, as private entities not performing public duties are not subject to writ jurisdiction under Article 226.

SUBNAM GUPTA SABNAM GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-1445/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging an order regarding land jurisdiction after urbanization was dismissed. The petitioner failed to prove ownership and possession in a prior injunction suit, and the current issues presented disputed questions of fact not suitable for resolution in a writ petition. The petitioner is permitted to initiate further proceedings in the appropriate civil court to reassert rights.

SUKHBIR SINGH VS CONSOLIDATION OFFICER (C.O) & ANR [W.P.(C)-1674/2017]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order of the Financial Commissioner was set aside due to failure to address the petitioner's main concern regarding unilateral changes made by the Consolidation Officer to the measurements and directions of the petitioner's plot (Khasra No. 142/225) without a proper hearing. The absence of the relevant file indicated that it could not be determined whether a hearing occurred, constituting a violation of natural justice. The matter was remanded for fresh consideration, requiring a complete record review and opportunities for both parties to be heard.

SUNIL KUMAR VS THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT JUDGE AND SESSIONS JUDGE HQ [W.P.(C)-10769/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner, appointed as a Lower Division Clerk (LDC) on 25.07.2003 and having submitted a technical resignation on 01.09.2010 to join the Central Secretariat Services, is entitled to financial upgradation to Upper Division Clerk (UDC) effective from 26.07.2008. This decision is based on previous orders regarding similar cases and the principle that employees completing five years of service as LDC are eligible for upgradation even after leaving. A Review Scrutiny Committee/Review DPC has been directed to consider the petitioner's case for this upgradation and its consequential benefits.

SUSHAMA TALEGAONKAR VS DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH UNIVERSITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7619/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The show cause notice issued to Sushama Talegaonkar by the Delhi Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research University (DPSRU) was deemed illegal due to allegations of not submitting her experience certificate on time as an Associate Professor. Talegaonkar did submit the certificate later, and her credentials were verified, leading to her confirmation in the position. The Competent Authority is to consider her reply accordingly, and she is granted 10 days' protection from coercive action.

SUSHILA VEL VS AIRPORT AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3801/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition by Sushila Vel regarding pay anomaly and seniority issues with the Airport Authority of India will be treated as a representation. The competent authority at AAI must consider the representation and dispose of it within 6 weeks, allowing the petitioner an opportunity to be heard. The petitioner may pursue further legal remedies after receiving the order from the competent authority.

SUSHMA AGGARWAL VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15040/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A notification declaring an area as urban under Section 507(a) of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957 results in the inapplicability of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954. Orders by the Sub Divisional Magistrate under Section 81 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954, concerning Gadaipur village, are considered null and void due to the urban designation, following the precedent set in Mohinder Singh (Dead) Through LRs and Anr. vs. Narain Singh and Ors.

SWATI GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8143/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The closure of the National Iodine Deficiency Disorder Control Programme in Delhi is characterized as a policy decision, not subject to interference absent evidence of mala fide, which was not present. With the project's discontinuation, the petitioners' requests for continued employment or salaries have become irrelevant, especially since they have challenged the closure in a separate writ petition. The current batch of petitions was deemed redundant and dismissed.

TEJ SINGH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-1147/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging the petitioner's dismissal from service dated 09.08.2017 was dismissed due to a delay of nearly 7 years in filing the petition. The reasons provided for the delay were unconvincing, leading to the dismissal of both the application for condonation of delay and the writ petition on the grounds of limitation, without any order on costs.

VANDANA SHARMA & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13727/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioners, engaged on a contractual basis for the National Iodine Deficiency Disorders Control Programme (NIDDCP), could not demand the continuation of the project as the objectives had been largely achieved, with iodine deficiency reduced to below 5% and iodized salt consumption reaching 94.3%. The decision to close the project fell within the policy prerogative of the state government, and the petitioners did not possess a fundamental right to continue their employment. Consideration for regular appointments in similar departments was to be given to the petitioners, factoring in age relaxation and their past experience.

VANDANA SHARMA & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-103/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition W.P.(C) 103/2024 was disposed of as no separate order was necessary due to the prior judgment in W.P.(C) 13727/2023. No costs were awarded.

VARUN ALWADHI VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION AND ORS [W.P.(C)-999/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Varun Alwadhi was allowed to participate in the interview process for the Assistant Professor position in Paediatrics after it was found that the Employees State Insurance Corporation incorrectly calculated his relevant experience as 1095 days, qualifying him under the advertisement requirements. The ESIC was instructed to inform Alwadhi about the necessary formalities for the interview scheduled to begin on 27.01.2024.

VIJAY UPPAL & ANR. VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3105/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Respondents are required to complete the demarcation of the petitioners' land within 2 months and provide a report within 2 weeks. Petitioners sought a writ of mandamus for land demarcation and compensation for the delay. An inadvertent delay in the demarcation process was acknowledged, and additional time was granted to fulfill the requirement.

VIJYANT AGARWAL VS NETAJI SUBHAS UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY [W.P.(C)-16565/2023]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Disciplinary Authority of Netaji Subhas University of Technology must resolve the petitioner's complaint regarding seniority and alleged illegal appointment within 8 weeks. The petitioner previously raised the issue with the Vice Chancellor and the Lieutenant Governor of Delhi. Although a preliminary inquiry was conducted on the March 25, 2019 complaint, the matter remains pending before the Disciplinary Authority.

VIKAS JAGLAN VS FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-12694/2021]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Food Corporation of India (FCI) cannot withhold the results of the selection process for the AGM (General Administration) post without allowing the petitioner to respond to allegations of unfair means. The lack of rough work in the answer sheet does not justify cancellation of candidature without an opportunity for explanation. A show cause notice must be issued to the petitioner, followed by a hearing and appropriate action in accordance with the law.

VIRENDRA SINGH VS THE MANAGER HARYANA SHAKTI SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7570/2020]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner is entitled to arrears of salary and other emoluments from April 2017 to June 2018 due to unlawful deprivation of services as Principal at the respondent school. The principle states that when a person is prevented from working, they cannot be denied their rightful salary and benefits. The respondent school must release the petitioner's salary, emoluments, and allowances for that period, along with 6% interest per annum, although this release is contingent on the outcome of a separate writ petition concerning grant-in-aid for that period.

VISHAMBHAR NATH VS UNITED COMMERICAL BANK & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5787/2013]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's suspension period from 1994 to 2003 is to be considered as "spent on duty" due to a clean and honorable acquittal by the criminal court, which exonerated him for lack of evidence. The Competent Authority incorrectly assessed the acquittal, and the petitioner is entitled to all consequential benefits for the suspension period treated as time on duty.

WG.COMMANDER P.S.BINDER RETD. VS D.D.A. [W.P.(C)-10014/2005]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's allotment of an alternate plot of land was cancelled due to the concealment of the fact that the Defence Colony property was part of a Hindu Undivided Family, of which the petitioner was the karta. This shared interest in the HUF property disqualified the petitioner from eligibility under the 1961 Scheme. Arguments regarding delays in issuing the show-cause notice and the applicability of the Nazul Rules were rejected, as the petitioner's concealment constituted fraud, invalidating the allotment.

Y. KRISHNASAMY VS CHAIRMAN & MANAGING DIRECTOR BHARAT HEAVY ELECTRICAL LTD. AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1489/2016]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The applicability of the ratio from the D.S. Nakara case to the current situation was deemed inappropriate, as that case pertained to central government employees while BHEL operates under its own regulations. The differentiation made by BHEL between retirees before and after 2007 regarding pension benefits is based on a rational distinction that aligns with the objectives of the new BHEL Employees' Pension Scheme. The dismissal of the writ petition occurred because the challenge to the rejection of the representation was not maintainable without contesting the underlying Office Memorandums.

YASHIKA MALIK VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI FACULTY OF MEDICAL SCIENCES & ORS. [LPA-887/2024]

Judges: Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant is eligible for reservation under the Children/Widows of Officer and Men of the Armed Forces (CW) category based on the ECC issued by the competent authority. The university mistakenly removed the appellant's name from the provisional list due to the erroneous cancellation of the ECC by the Kendriya Sainik Board. The university and the Medical Counseling Committee must either increase the CW category seats by one or create a supernumerary seat for the appellant within 10 days.

ABDUL QAIDER VS NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-1907/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Abdul Qaider was granted regular bail in an NDPS case based on several factors. The prosecution's case showed inconsistencies, particularly as the courier service owner did not find any contraband in the parcel. The petitioner possessed a valid drug license for the scheduled drugs involved. Additionally, the identification procedure was flawed, lacking a proper test identification parade. Co-accused had been granted bail on similar allegations, supporting the petitioner's claim for parity. Reasonable grounds indicated the petitioner is likely not guilty and unlikely to commit further offences while on bail.

ABHIJEET GHOSH VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-2407/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Abhijeet Ghosh was granted regular bail in connection with FIR No. 717/2017 for charges including murder and violations of the Arms Act. Key factors included the circumstances of the case, potential self-defense, absence of incriminating forensic evidence, and the lengthy trial process, which supported the defense. Strict conditions were imposed to ensure Ghosh's availability for trial. Comments made were specific to the bail application and did not address the case's merits.

ADNAN NISAR VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-3056/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The offence committed in the U.S. is classified as a scheduled offence under Part C of the PMLA due to its cross-border implications and the transfer of proceeds to India. However, the prosecution did not establish the predicate offence under U.S. law, lacking relevant documentation and expert testimony. Post-arrest statements under Section 50 of PMLA were deemed inadmissible, and communications via WhatsApp/Telegram did not sufficiently link the accused. Retracted statements from co-accused were considered unreliable and insufficient for establishing guilt. Given the lengthy custody duration, trial delays, and the principle that "bail is the rule, jail is the exception," bail was granted to the petitioners.

AJAY@ LALA VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1500/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Ajay @ Lala was granted regular bail in a case involving Sections 302/323/34 IPC. The evidence presented by the prosecution was weak, as public witnesses, including the knife seller, did not support the case. Ajay had no prior criminal record and had previously adhered to bail conditions. Despite the complainant's credible testimony, the overall circumstances favored granting bail, subject to conditions to prevent tampering with evidence or influencing witnesses.

AJIT KUMAR VS STATE & ANR. [CRL.A.-981/2019]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The trial court's acquittal of the respondent in a Section 138 complaint under the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. The evidence was deemed reasonably interpreted by the trial court, with no findings considered perverse. The standard for appeal against acquittal is limited, and an alternative view does not justify reversing the acquittal.

AJIT KUMAR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-2184/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Criminal proceedings against Ajit Kumar under Sections 392/411/34 IPC were quashed due to his exoneration in a departmental inquiry regarding the same allegations. The criminal standard of proof, "beyond reasonable doubt," is higher than the "preponderance of probability" applied in departmental proceedings. Since the lower standard could not be met in the inquiry, continuing the criminal prosecution served no purpose. Consequently, the FIR and all related proceedings against Ajit Kumar were quashed.

AMIT BAHL VS M/S SIDH POLYWRAPS [CRL.A.-513/2019]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The acquittal of the accused under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was upheld. The presumption under Section 139 arose as the signatures on the cheques were admitted, but the accused presented a probable defense asserting that the cheques were not issued for any legally recoverable debt or liability. The complainant did not provide any bills or invoices for the material supplied, and the ledger account submitted was deemed inadmissible due to the absence of a certificate under Section 65B of the Evidence Act. The trial court's view was considered plausible, with no grounds for appeal against the acquittal.

AMIT KATYAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT GOVERNMENT OFINDIA [BAIL APPLN.-2024/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner's application for interim bail on medical grounds requires further evaluation of his medical condition due to a history of serious health issues, including recent bariatric surgery, coronary artery disease, and diabetes. Current medical reports do not clearly indicate the need for specialized treatment unavailable in custody. The Director of the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) has been instructed to form a medical board of specialists to assess the petitioner's health and need for specialized care. The decision on the interim bail application will be made after reviewing the board's report.

AMIT MALVIYA VS SAMAJWADI PARTY MEDIA CELL & ORS. [CS(OS)-643/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

An interim injunction was granted, requiring the defendants to remove a defamatory social media post about a public figure who is a senior political party member. The post contained false allegations aimed at damaging the plaintiff's reputation. The need to balance freedom of speech with the right to reputation was recognized, and the plaintiff was deemed to have established a prima facie case for the relief sought.

ANIL KUMAR SHARMA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1564/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anil Kumar Sharma, CMD and promoter director of M/s. Ultra Home Construction Pvt. Ltd., is entitled to bail pending trial after spending over 2 years in custody with the maximum punishment for the offense under Section 420 IPC being 7 years. Detention should not be punitive or preventive, and bail was granted subject to certain conditions.

ANIL KUMAR SHARMA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2247/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anil Kumar Sharma, a director of Amrapali Smart City Developers Pvt. Limited, received bail after spending over 2 years in custody. The investigation is complete, and the trial is expected to be prolonged. Bail was granted with certain conditions, emphasizing that the observations made are solely for the bail application and do not reflect any opinion on the case's merits.

ANIL KUMAR SHARMA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1642/2022]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anil Kumar Sharma, a director of M/s Amrapali Silicon City Pvt. Ltd., faced serious allegations under Sections 420, 406, 409, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code for collecting money from homebuyers for the "Amrapali Adarsh Awas Yojana" project before obtaining necessary building plan sanctions and failing to register the project with UPRERA. The company also allotted flats above the approved height, violating sanctioned plans. The argument that homebuyers' grievances were resolved was dismissed, as the resolution process was not initiated by Sharma. Given the nature of the allegations, bail was not granted.

ANIL KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-97/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anil Kumar was granted regular bail after being charged under Section 376 IPC and Sections 4/6 of the POCSO Act. The victim's statements indicated a consensual relationship, with her expressing a desire to marry Kumar. Testimony confirmed she was above 17 years of age at the time of the incident. While the POCSO Act aims to protect minors from sexual exploitation, it does not criminalize consensual relationships among young people. Various factors were considered in relation to the bail application, including the victim's statements, Kumar's lack of prior offenses, and the completion of the victim's testimony recording. Bail was granted subject to specific conditions.

ANIL NIRWAN VS THE STATE [BAIL APPLN.-2188/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anil Nirwan was granted regular bail in a case involving Sections 376/420 IPC. The sexual relationship between Nirwan and the complainant was deemed consensual, with insufficient evidence of a false promise of marriage. Allegations regarding misrepresentation of medical condition and fabricated documents lacked forensic support. The complainant’s ongoing payments to Nirwan after the alleged non-repayment of a loan raised doubts about the prosecution's claims. Factors such as completed witness testimonies and Nirwan's extended custody contributed to the decision.

ANUPA ABROL VS MULKH RAJ GROVER & ORS [CS(OS)-315/2014]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The Conveyance Deed dated 24.02.2011 and the Sale Deed dated 27.07.2011 were identified as fabricated documents, declared illegal, null, void, and non-est, and deemed non-binding on the plaintiff. Third-party interests, charges, or liens based on these documents were also declared null and void. A permanent injunction was granted to restrain the defendants from claiming any rights, title, or interest in the suit property. The suit abated against defendant no. 1, while defendant nos. 2 and 3 proceeded ex parte.

ANWAR OMAISH VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1535/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anwar Omaish was granted bail in a murder and conspiracy case involving the death of a government official. The evidence presented, including the recovery of the motorcycle and weapon and the disclosure statement of a co-accused, was deemed insufficient for conviction. Since the main and other co-accused received bail, Omaish was entitled to similar treatment. Additionally, his prolonged incarceration of over 5 years contributed to the decision, with the trial expected to take more time. Bail was granted with certain conditions.

ASHISH BALGUER VS STATE GNCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3184/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Bail was granted to Vikas Balguer @ Shammi and Ashish Balguer in a case involving charges of murder and related offenses. Eyewitnesses had turned hostile or contradicted their statements, raising doubts about the prosecution's case. The accused had been incarcerated for over 7 years and 8 months, and the lengthy trial process was noted. Consideration of the nature of the accusations, the risk of witness tampering, and the prima facie evidence led to the decision to grant bail under certain conditions.

ASHOK BANSAL & ORS. VS MANOJ BABBAR & ORS. [CS(OS)-841/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Plaintiffs established a prima facie case for interim relief due to defamatory statements in a video currently under investigation. Defendants must remove or restrict access to the video within two weeks to prevent grave damage to the plaintiffs' reputation. If not complied with, plaintiffs can request Google to remove the video within 36 hours. The right to honor, dignity, and reputation, including for corporate entities, is recognized under Article 21.

ASISH MOHAPATRA & ORS. VS SLOWFORM MEDIA PVT. LTD. & ORS. [CS(OS)-825/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

An interim injunction was granted against the defendants regarding an article published by 'the Morning Context', deemed to contain defamatory statements about the plaintiffs' company, OFB, unsupported by credible evidence. The defenses of truth, fair comment, and qualified privilege were not applicable, as the statements were not shown to be substantially correct and sources were not disclosed. The defendants were ordered to remove the article and refrain from further publication of the defamatory content, as a prima facie case of defamation was established by the plaintiffs.

BHARAT SINGH VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF NARCOTICS [BAIL APPLN.-3482/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The anticipatory bail petition of Bharat Singh was dismissed due to insufficient grounds for approval. Disclosure statements from co-accused Jagdish Kumar and Laduram identified Singh as a supplier of contraband, supported by mobile phone records and financial transactions linking him to the co-accused. The claim regarding inadmissibility of statements under Section 67 NDPS did not apply at the anticipatory bail stage. Custodial interrogation of Singh was deemed necessary to uncover the supply chain of the contraband.

BHARAT YADAV VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) AND ORS. [BAIL APPLN.-3772/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Bharat Yadav's anticipatory bail petition was dismissed due to serious allegations linking him to a conspiracy to murder Bijender Yadav, driven by previous enmity. Evidence included co-accused disclosure statements and CCTV footage showing Yadav with co-accused after the incident. Concerns were raised about potential harm to the deceased's family if bail were granted, alongside the necessity for custodial interrogation as the investigation was still in its early stages.

BIJENDER@JUDI THROUGH PAIROKAR RANI VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2471/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Bijender@Judi was granted regular bail in a case involving charges under Sections 302/323/34 IPC. Most prosecution witnesses did not support the case, with the complainant admitting the accused had been identified to him by police. Bijender had been in custody for over 5 years, and the trial was moving slowly, with only 20 out of 32 witnesses examined. Previous cases against him included acquittals, and he had previously been granted interim bail without misuse. Strict conditions were imposed alongside the granting of bail.

CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGTATION VS R. VASUDEVAN & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-4107/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The CBI's petitions to include hard disks with video footage from Hotel Sheraton dated 23.11.2009 as additional evidence were dismissed. The decision indicated that the CBI had made a conscious choice not to rely on the hard disks during the trial, and introducing them now would compromise the accused's right to a fair trial and cause serious prejudice. Additionally, previous rulings had already deemed the related CDs inadmissible.

CHARU PILLANI VS M/S. FRANKFINN AVIATION SERVICES PVT. LTD. [CRL.M.C.-1578/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Charu Pillani is not liable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act because the cheque was not signed by her or drawn from her bank account. Liability under Section 138 applies only to the person who has signed the cheque. The criminal complaint filed by M/s Frankfinn Aviation Services Pvt. Ltd. against her was quashed.

DANISH @ CHINTU VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-516/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Danish @ Chintu was granted bail in a case involving multiple serious charges, including murder and attempted murder. The prosecution's case was deemed weak due to key witnesses failing to identify him. The recovery of a knife and other items was found insufficient for conviction, as it serves only for corroboration. Prior involvement in other criminal cases was not considered adequate for denying bail. Bail was granted with specific conditions.

DEEPAK GOYAL VS CBI [BAIL APPLN.-764/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Deepak Goyal received regular bail after being accused of economic offenses under the Indian Penal Code. The allegations were considered serious, but given his five years of incarceration and the potential maximum sentence of seven years, it was deemed unjust to keep him in custody indefinitely. The presumption of innocence prior to conviction was emphasized, and bail was granted with stringent conditions to ensure his attendance at trial.

DEV SHARMA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-214/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Dev Sharma applied for anticipatory bail related to an FIR under sections 307/323/341/506/34 IPC and section 27 of the Arms Act. He claimed false implication due to family enmity and referenced CCTV footage supporting his absence during the incident. Co-accused Love Pandit and Keshav Pradhan had received bail for similar allegations. Bail was granted upon arrest, requiring a bond of Rs. 25,000/- and cooperation with the investigation. Observations made did not address the merits of the case.

DEVI @ JARINA VS STATE AND ORS [BAIL APPLN.-1299/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner was granted regular bail with conditions due to allegations similar to those against a co-accused who had already been granted bail. The petitioner, being a woman, qualified for the benefits under the first proviso to Section 437(1) CrPC. Long incarceration and delays in trial proceedings were also considered, leading to the decision in favor of bail. Observations made were solely for the bail application, without any opinion on the case's merits.

DEWAN IZZAT RAI NANDA THRU LR'S VS DEWAN IQBAL NATH THRU LR'S AND ORS. [CS(OS)-34/1977]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The parties to the suit are entitled to the interest accrued on the auction money of Rs. 18 crores deposited by the auction purchaser. The final decree mandating the disbursement of the auction money and accrued interest to the parties has been finalized following the dismissal of the auction purchaser's appeals. The argument regarding delays in executing the sale deed being due to the parties was rejected, as the auction purchaser was empowered to complete the necessary formalities. The auction purchaser is required to deposit the interest amount previously released to him for distribution to the parties according to their shares in the preliminary decree.

DHANPATI @ DHANWANTI VS STATE & ANR [CRL.A.-581/2019]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The acquittal of the accused was upheld, with findings indicating that the physical intimacy between the prosecutrix and the accused was consensual, not based on a misconception of fact. The prosecutrix's testimony contained several inconsistencies, and a 20-year delay in filing the FIR was deemed detrimental to the prosecution's case. The perspective taken by the trial court was considered legally plausible, resulting in no grounds for interference with the acquittal.

DIBAKAR KARAD VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1751/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The anticipatory bail petition of Dibakar Karad was dismissed due to prima facie evidence indicating his involvement in a large-scale ganja supply chain. Evidence included disclosure statements from co-accused, electronic data, and financial transactions. The serious nature of the allegations warranted custodial interrogation to reveal the full extent of the conspiracy.

DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT VS AKHILESH SINGH [CRL.REV.P.-1199/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The offence under Section 3 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, requires illegal gain from criminal activity linked to a scheduled offence. An acquittal or discharge in the scheduled offence negates the possibility of a money laundering charge and disqualifies the attached properties as proceeds of crime. The mere pendency of an appeal does not prevent the release of attached properties following an acquittal, as its effects remain until reversed. As a result, the petition by the Enforcement Directorate was dismissed, and the orders directing the release of the attached properties were upheld.

DR SHAMA MOHAMED VS SMT SANJU VERMA AND ORS [CS(OS)-845/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Defamatory statements made by a national spokesperson of the Bharatiya Janata Party against a national spokesperson of the Indian National Congress and dentist during a TV debate were deemed prima facie defamatory and damaging to the plaintiff's reputation. An application for ad-interim injunction was granted, directing the removal of the impugned video and posts from media platforms, emphasizing that reputation is essential to individual dignity and should not be unjustly harmed.

GAMUT BUILDCON PVT LTD AND ANR VS ATUL VERMA AND ANR [CS(OS)-670/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Defamatory posts made by the defendant on the social media platform 'X' were deemed unsubstantiated and reckless, harming the plaintiffs' reputation. An ad-interim injunction was granted, requiring the defendant to remove the posts within 2 weeks, with provisions for the plaintiffs to request removal by the platform if not complied with. The plaintiffs established a prima facie case for the injunction, demonstrating the potential for irreparable loss and injury.

GANGA RAM MAKHIJA @ GULAB VS JYOTI MAKHIJA [CRL.M.C.-3182/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner's challenge to the orders granting interim maintenance and litigation expenses to the respondent was dismissed. The claim that the respondent left the matrimonial home voluntarily cannot be considered without evidence. The petitioner concealed his true income and approached the situation with unclean hands, disqualifying him from relief. No grounds for interference with the lower courts' decisions were established.

GAURAV VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT [BAIL APPLN.-1442/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Gaurav was granted bail after being charged under Sections 302/307/34 IPC for the death of Mohit. Testimonies from two key eyewitnesses did not support the prosecution, raising doubts about the complainant's status as an injured witness. The possibility of the incident occurring in a sudden fight, without premeditation, suggested it might fall under Exception 4 to Section 300 IPC. Gaurav's lengthy incarceration of over 5 years and the expected prolonged duration of the trial indicated that continuing his custody was not in the interest of justice, leading to the imposition of conditions to ensure his availability during the trial.

GEETA DHAWAN VS ANU MEHRA & ANR. [CS(OS)-391/2020]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint for specific performance of the Agreement to Sell dated 01.05.2003 was approved. Courts are generally liberal in granting amendments if it serves justice and avoids further litigation, and the possibility of the relief being time-barred does not preclude amendment. The original plaint already included the factual basis for the specific performance claim, demonstrating the amendment was bona fide. The limitation defense is a disputed question of fact, as the defendant initially terminated and later appeared to withdraw that termination; this issue can be decided in the suit. Allowing the amendment would not prejudice the defendant and aims to minimize further litigation. This case is part of ongoing matters related to property litigation before a higher court.

GEETIKA DAHIYA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3665/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Geetika Dahiya was granted anticipatory bail in a case involving allegations of cheating, criminal conspiracy, and extortion under relevant IPC sections. Allegations against her were not supported by sufficient evidence, and there was a concern that the complainant, a real estate investor, was using the FIR to pressure her amidst a marital dispute. Dahiya's personal circumstances, including her job and childcare responsibilities, indicated she was not a flight risk and warranted the relief of anticipatory bail.

GURVINDER SINGH VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT) OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(CRL)-590/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The order of the Sentence Review Board rejecting the petitioner's application for premature release was set aside due to failure to consider all relevant factors under the 2004 policy and 2018 prison rules. The Board was directed to reconsider the case within 8 weeks, focusing on the petitioner's conduct in jail, potential for reintegration into society, and the family's socio-economic condition. The request for bail, parole, or furlough was not granted during this process.

HABIBULLAH NABI ZADA VS N.C.B. [BAIL APPLN.-2645/2022]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The quantity of heroin recovered from the petitioner (225 grams) cannot be combined with that from a co-accused (another 225 grams) to apply the stringent provisions of Section 37 of the NDPS Act. There was insufficient evidence to prove a conspiracy between them, and the disclosure statements under Section 67 were ruled inadmissible. The petitioner had been in custody for nearly four years, with significant delays in the trial process, as only a fraction of the prosecution witnesses had been examined. Regular bail was granted to the petitioner under specific conditions, despite the recovered drug quantity being classified as "intermediate."

HAMEEDULLAH AKBAR@ FAHEEM MODH ZAI VS STATE (GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [CRL.M.C.-7020/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The FIR against Hameedullah Akbar and Sagheer Ahmed Khan has been quashed. The complainant, a US citizen, consented to the quashing and settlement. Hameedullah Akbar has been in custody for over 7 years without trial progress, violating his right to a speedy trial. The likelihood of conviction is low due to the complainant's unwillingness to testify, and continuing the trial would cause further injustice. Sagheer Ahmed Khan's role was limited to being an attesting witness for an allegedly forged adoption deed, indicating no active involvement in the forgery. The state's criminal revision petition regarding trial separation has been disposed of.

HARNEET SINGH CHAWLA VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-146/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Harneet Singh Chawla was granted bail in a case involving Section 302 IPC (murder) and Sections 146/194 of the Motor Vehicles Act. Evidence did not conclusively establish his culpability for the murder charge, as the collision may have stemmed from the motorcycle's rash driving and lack of knowledge about the deceased on the car roof. Chawla has no prior criminal record, is a permanent resident, and the investigation is complete, supporting the decision for bail with conditions. Observations made are limited to the bail application and do not affect the case's final merits.

HARSH CHHABRA VS STATE OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3689/2022]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The case against the petitioner relies mainly on circumstantial evidence, including call records and co-accused statements, which are insufficient for continued incarceration pending trial. After nearly 3 years in custody and no prior criminal record, bail was granted with conditions to prevent evidence tampering or witness influence. Observations made are solely for the bail application and do not address the case's merits.

HIMANSHU THAKUR VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2958/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Himanshu Thakur was granted regular bail in connection with the murder of Mursaleen during the February 2020 Delhi communal riots. Key eyewitness testimonies were found contradictory to the prosecution's case, and Thakur had previously received bail in related FIRs. Considering his lengthy custody of nearly four years and the potential for a prolonged trial, bail was deemed appropriate, subject to conditions to mitigate concerns about witness tampering. Precedents indicate that long custody and delayed trials warrant the granting of bail, even for serious offenses, unless specific grounds for denial are present.

INDERJIT SINGH VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION & ANR. [CRL.REV.P.-242/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The criminal revision petition filed by Inderjit Singh (A-3) was dismissed due to the postponement of trial against co-accused S.S. Ahluwalia (A-1) for being unfit to stand trial not necessitating a stay of trial for A-3. The analysis of Section 329 CrPC established that the trial can continue against other accused despite one being unable to stand trial due to mental incapacity. The argument that A-3's guilt is contingent upon A-1's finding of guilt was rejected. The case involves four accused, with one deceased, one becoming an approver, and separate trials ongoing for A-1 and A-3.

ISRAIL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1775/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Israil was granted regular bail despite being accused of involvement in a conspiracy to eliminate NDMC official Mohd. Moin Khan. The main accused had already received bail, indicating Israil's lesser role in the case. There was no extensive examination of the CDR evidence, as its relevance would be addressed during the trial. Taking into account Israil's over 5-year incarceration, the absence of witness tampering concerns, and the presumption of innocence before conviction, bail was granted with specific conditions.

JEENA VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-4096/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Jeena was granted regular bail in a case involving allegations of forcing a victim into prostitution and related offenses. The alleged rape was attributed to a co-accused who had already received bail. An Aadhaar card indicated the victim was 19 years and 2 months old at the time of the incident, which may exclude the application of the POCSO Act. Jeena's lengthy incarceration of over 8 years and her status as a woman accused supported her bail eligibility. Conditions were imposed to ensure her availability for trial and to prevent evidence tampering or witness influence.

JITENDER CHOPRA VS Y.S.MANCHANDA [CS(OS)-523/2005]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

In a suit for specific performance of an agreement to sell, all legal heirs of the deceased defendant must be included as legal representatives, regardless of disputes over the validity of the will. Bringing all heirs on record, including those claiming through the will, is essential to prevent delays in proceedings. An appeal by the son challenging the order to implead all legal heirs was dismissed, with no noted deficiencies in the order.

JITENDRA KUMAR MEENA VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-1456/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petition by the Deputy Commissioner of Police was allowed due to disparaging remarks made against him by the MACT court, which violated natural justice principles by not providing him an opportunity to defend himself. The remarks were deemed capable of harming his service career and reputation, necessitating their expungement to ensure judicial restraint and caution regarding comments about non-parties in proceedings.

KASHI NATH SHUKLA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1758/2022]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner's anticipatory bail application is maintainable after the filing of the chargesheet and the taking of cognizance by the trial court. The key consideration for granting anticipatory bail is the cooperation of the accused with the investigation. The petitioner cooperated fully and did not require custody by the investigating agency. Therefore, the anticipatory bail application is granted subject to conditions, without the necessity to examine the chargesheet in detail. The petitioner is not required to separately surrender and seek regular bail, as the anticipatory bail can continue until the end of the trial unless special circumstances arise.

KULDEEP & ORS. VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-3840/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The Sentence Review Board (SRB) rejected the petitioners' applications for premature release without considering required factors under the 2004 policy and Delhi Prison Rules, 2018, such as conduct in jail, reformation potential, and family socioeconomic conditions. The orders were set aside, and the SRB was directed to reconsider the cases within 8 weeks. The petitioners were given 2 weeks to surrender after being on furlough, and the previously granted interim protection was not extended.

LAKSHAY JAISWAL VS STATE NCT OF DELHI AND ANR. [CRL.M.C.-2703/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The order of the Additional Sessions Judge that set aside the Metropolitan Magistrate's cancellation of process under Section 82 CrPC was contrary to Sections 399(2) and 401(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which require that accused individuals be given an opportunity to be heard before any prejudicial order is made. The matter was remanded to the ASJ for reconsideration of the complainant's revision petition while ensuring the petitioner is heard. There was an attempt to explore an amicable settlement during the pendency of the anticipatory bail application, but no settlement was reached.

LAKSHAY JAISWAL VS STATE(NCT OF DELHI) AND ANR [CRL.M.C.-3952/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The issuance of non-bailable warrants and the process under Section 82 CrPC against the petitioner were illegal and not in accordance with the law. The trial court failed to properly scrutinize the facts and apply necessary considerations, leading to serious consequences. Consequently, the orders for non-bailable warrants, the process under Section 82 CrPC, the declaration of the accused as an absconder, and the warrants for property attachment were quashed.

LAXMI NARAYAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2740/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Video recording of bail proceedings is mandatory under Section 15A(10) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, when the offences involved pertain to the Act and the complainant is from the Scheduled Caste community. Arguments suggesting that Section 23 of the POCSO Act and Section 228A IPC override this requirement were rejected, as victim identity can be protected using methods such as dummy names, face masking, or pixelation. The purpose of video recording is to safeguard the rights of victims and witnesses, and the language of Section 15A(10) is clear and unambiguous.

M A ALAGAPPAN VS PVR LIMITED [CRL.M.C.-8631/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The complaint against M.A. Alagappan, a non-executive director of Vasan Health Care Private Limited, was quashed due to the lack of specific allegations linking him to the company's day-to-day operations. The complaint merely identified him as a director without demonstrating responsible involvement in the conduct of the business, leading to the conclusion that pursuing charges would be an abuse of process.

M/S SAIPEM TRIUNE ENGINEERING PVT. LTD VS INDIAN OIL PETRONAS PVT LTD [CS(OS)-2340/2008]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff's application for restoration of the original suit was found to be within the limitation period, starting from August 1, 2019, when it was clarified that the claims were not arbitrable. The period from March 15, 2020, to February 28, 2022, was excluded from the limitation computation due to Supreme Court's directions during the COVID-19 pandemic. The restoration of the original suit was allowed.

MAHENDER SHAH VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2547/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The provisions of Section 50 of the NDPS Act do not apply as 27.990 kgs of ganja was recovered from a bag, not directly from the accused. Compliance with Section 50 is unnecessary in cases of recovery from bags or vehicles. The argument regarding delay in filing an application under Section 52A for drawing samples was rejected; the prosecution provided adequate explanation, and the seals were intact, indicating no tampering. Given the recovery of a commercial quantity of ganja, there are no reasonable grounds to believe the accused is not guilty, leading to the dismissal of the bail application.

MANISHI SAXENA BANSAL VS EXL SERVICES.COM (INDIA) PVT. LTD. [CS(OS)-305/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The Delhi High Court lacked territorial jurisdiction in a suit regarding the plaintiff's termination by the defendant company. The cause of action originated in Gurugram, where the plaintiff's employment ended, rather than in Delhi where the company's registered office is located. The presence of the registered office or the address on the termination letter did not establish jurisdiction. The plaint was returned to the plaintiff for presentation to the appropriate court.

MANU WADHWA @ MOHIT VS THE STATE, GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3523/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The anticipatory bail application was dismissed due to serious allegations of cheating involving approximately ₹7.48 crores through false investment promises. The petitioner initially gained the trust of complainants by paying small returns but later defaulted on a settlement to pay ₹3.60 crores in installments. There was a lack of cooperation with the investigation, and the petitioner did not provide documentation regarding the investments. Custodial interrogation was deemed necessary to uncover details about the alleged transactions.

MAZID IN JC VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-631/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Mazid was granted bail after being charged with the murder of his wife under Section 302 IPC. The case relied solely on circumstantial evidence, particularly alleged extra-judicial confessions. Key prosecution witnesses were either hostile or provided hearsay testimony, and the authenticity of the video evidence was questionable under Section 65B of the Evidence Act. The evidence was deemed weak, and considering Mazid had already spent 4 years in custody, the decision favored his release on bail.

MOHD NASAR VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1547/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Mohd Nasar was granted regular bail in a case under the NDPS Act due to the lack of clarity on the quantity of pure contraband (heroin) recovered, as the weight of carrier items could not be included. The disclosure statement of a co-accused was deemed inadmissible, and the incriminating evidence, including WhatsApp chats, was found insufficient to deny bail. The prosecution did not establish a prima facie case against him. Bail is subject to certain conditions.

MOHD.BILAL VS THE STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1685/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Bail was granted to Mohd. Bilal, charged with murder under IPC Sections 302/120B/34, based on the consideration that the main accused had already been granted bail, which was upheld by the Supreme Court. Several co-accused had also received bail. The prosecution's evidence, including weapon recovery and CDR data, was deemed insufficient for a conviction, with the credibility of witness testimony to be assessed at trial. Given Bilal's long incarceration of over 5 years and the similar status of co-accused, regular bail was approved with specific conditions.

MOHIT YADAV VS STATE OF NCT, DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1173/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Mohit Yadav's bail application was dismissed following his arrest for possessing a commercial quantity of cannabis in a truck. The sampling procedure under Section 52A of the NDPS Act was deemed important but not necessarily a basis for invalidating the case; any procedural defects must be assessed for potential prejudice to the accused. Evidence included call records linking Yadav to co-accused individuals. There were no reasonable grounds to believe Yadav was not guilty of the alleged offense.

MS CHOLAMANDALAM INVESTMENT AND FINANCE COMPANY LIMITED VS SH MAHESH TANEJA AND ORS [CRL.M.C.-1723/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The Chief Metropolitan Magistrate (CMM) lacks jurisdiction to entertain an application under Section 340 CrPC in proceedings under Section 14 of the SARFAESI Act. The CMM's role under Section 14 is ministerial, not adjudicatory, and third parties do not have a right to be heard at that stage. An earlier order appointing a Receiver to take possession of secured property is set aside, but its operation remains stayed until the next date before the Debt Recovery Tribunal, where a pending application under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act is being considered.

MS. ASHA MISHRA @ ASHA MISRA VS STATE THROUGH STANDING COUNSEL & ANR. [TEST.CAS.-67/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Respondent no. 2, the son of the deceased testator, was allowed to present additional documents necessary for substantial justice in a probate contest. These documents were relevant to his claims of caring for his ailing father and conducting his last rites, countering the claims of the petitioner, the testator's second wife. Despite a delay in filing, the situation warranted a lenient approach to avoid hindering justice. Respondent no. 2 was ordered to pay costs to the petitioner, who was given an opportunity to present additional evidence before the respondent's evidence begins.

MS. SHEFALI KOUL VS MOHD RAFIQ MIR & ORS. [CS(OS)-592/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff is entitled to a decree for Rs. 3,07,28,136/- with interest at 6% per annum from the date of the Memorandum of Understanding, along with arrears of rent at Rs. 39,000/- per month from November 2020 to October 2024, without interest. The stipulated interest rate of 12% per month in the Memorandum is deemed excessive and the transaction is considered substantially unfair, as it was entered into by the defendants to obtain the plaintiff's consent for bail after their arrest in criminal proceedings initiated by the plaintiff.

MUKESH KUMAR PRAJAPATI VS NARCOTIC CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-804/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Mukesh Kumar Prajapati was granted regular bail despite charges under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act for alleged involvement in importing 2 kg of Tramadol tablets. The decision considered his nearly 3 years of incarceration and trial delays, noting that the right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution takes precedence over Section 37 conditions.

MUKESH KUMAR PRAJAPATI VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-824/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Mukesh Kumar Prajapati was granted regular bail under Section 439 CrPC and Section 37 of the NDPS Act. He had spent over 2 years and 10 months in custody, which affected his right to a speedy trial. The seriousness of the offence did not justify indefinite bail denial, especially with the trial still at an initial stage and many witnesses yet to be examined. Conditions for bail included personal and surety bonds, and restrictions on contacting witnesses or tampering with evidence.

NATIONAL HEART INSTITUTE VS KAMLESH SHARMA & ORS [CRL.M.C.-3384/2017]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The National Heart Institute and its office bearers are not vicariously liable for alleged criminal negligence in treating a patient, as a medical board stated the patient's death resulted from advanced lung cancer, not negligence. Inadvertence or lack of adequate care does not meet the threshold for criminal liability under Section 304A IPC. Additionally, the patient's discharge against medical advice may have contributed to the decline in their condition. The complaint against the National Heart Institute and its office bearers was quashed.

NEERAJ SINGAL VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT [BAIL APPLN.-2356/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The arrest of Neeraj Singal was deemed legal. The oral communication of the grounds for arrest complied with Section 19(1) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). Singal acknowledged the grounds, signing them alongside two independent witnesses. Written grounds for arrest were not mandatory until a later Supreme Court judgment established this requirement. The delay in forwarding the arrest order and related materials to the Adjudicating Authority was considered reasonable and in line with prescribed procedures. Consequently, Singal's applications challenging the arrest and seeking bail were dismissed.

PAWAN CHAUDHRY & ANR. VS NIMESH JAIN & ORS. [CS(OS)-44/2020]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiffs' application for a judgment against the defendants, based on Order VIII Rule 10 of the Civil Procedure Code, was not granted. The defendants' failure to file written statements did not negate the necessity for the plaintiffs to prove their allegations of forgery. The existence of issues requiring evidence meant that a judgment declaring the documents as fraudulent could not be made without proof. The application was dismissed.

OM PARKASH MEHTA VS SMT VEENA MEHTA [CRL.REV.P.-688/2016]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The Family Court's order increasing the husband's maintenance payment to the wife from Rs. 450 to Rs. 15,000 per month was upheld. Evidence showed the husband operated a chemist shop and had remarried, indicating he earned at least Rs. 50,000 monthly. The passage of 10 years since the original maintenance order justified the increase due to inflation. The husband is legally and morally obligated to support his wife, and his claims of being old and infirm were not considered valid reasons to avoid this duty. The husband's revision petition was dismissed.

PARVEJ KHAN VS THE STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-2863/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Section 42 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act did not apply as the petitioner was apprehended while his vehicle was in transit on a public road, falling under Section 43 of the Act. The recovery of a commercial quantity of drugs from the petitioner's car necessitated the stringent conditions of Section 37 for bail. Despite over 3 years of incarceration and the trial being at an early stage, regular bail was granted on the provision of a personal bond and surety to ensure compliance with conditions. Observations made were solely for the bail application and did not reflect opinions on the case's merits.

PARVINDER SINGH @ KALLU @ RINKU VS THE STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-44/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Parvinder Singh was granted bail in a murder and robbery case based on circumstantial evidence. The prosecution's evidence, including the recovery of incriminating items, had questionable aspects, such as recovery from an open space without independent witnesses. Forensic evidence did not conclusively connect him to the crime, with no blood stains on his clothes and lack of fingerprint or DNA analysis. Considering his long incarceration, completion of public witness examinations, and good conduct during interim bail, the circumstances favored granting bail. Conditions included a personal bond, regular court appearances, and a prohibition on criminal activity or contacting witnesses.

PRADEEP KUMAR SRIVASTAVA VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-2714/2022]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Pradeep Kumar Srivastava was granted regular bail in a case under the NDPS Act after over 3 years of incarceration without trial. Despite prima facie evidence against him, the prolonged detention was deemed to outweigh the stringent bail conditions of the NDPS Act. The decision emphasized the right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution. Bail was granted with conditions including a personal bond and surety.

PURSHOTTAM LAL TANDON VS M/S CITY SUPER MARKET & ORS [CS(COMM)-551/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint to remove claims against defendant no. 1 and focus on claims against defendant no. 2 was allowed. The revised claims exceeded the pecuniary jurisdiction, leading to a transfer of the suit to a court with proper jurisdiction as per Section 24(5) of the Civil Procedure Code. The suit was directed to be transferred to the Principal District Judge, South East District, Saket, New Delhi for reassignment.

RAAZ ALI VS NARCOTICS CONTROL BUREAU [BAIL APPLN.-292/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Raaz Ali was granted regular bail after being arrested under the NDPS Act for possessing a commercial quantity of Zolpidem and Tramadol tablets. Discrepancies in the weight of the seized contraband during the investigation were noted, suggesting potential benefits for Ali, although they did not fully negate the prosecution's case. Similar bail had been granted to co-accused individuals. There were reasonable grounds to believe Ali was not guilty of the alleged offence and unlikely to reoffend while on bail, leading to his release under certain conditions.

RAJATARANGINI INDIA MEDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR. VS SANJAY SHARMA & ORS. [CS(OS)-558/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Plaintiffs, a media company and its Editor-in-Chief, established a prima facie case for an ad-interim injunction against defendants for posting defamatory content on the microblogging site "X". The posts were found to potentially harm the journalist's credibility without supporting evidence. The defendants were restrained from further defamatory postings and ordered to remove existing content. Additionally, the microblogging platform "X" was instructed to provide contact details for two defendants whose identities were unknown to the plaintiffs.

RAJESH BOTHRA VS 4PM NEWS NETWORK PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(OS)-646/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Allegations against the plaintiff in a video and articles published were found to be prima facie defamatory and unsupported by credible evidence. An ad-interim injunction was granted for the defendants to remove the URLs containing the defamatory content within 2 weeks. Google was directed to take down the URLs if the defendants did not comply within the stipulated time.

RAJESH KUMAR GUPTA VS THE STATE [CRL.REV.P.-988/2019]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The criminal revision petition was allowed, and the conviction under Sections 279 and 304A of the Indian Penal Code was set aside. The prosecution failed to prove beyond reasonable doubt that the petitioner drove the vehicle in a rash and negligent manner. The deceased crossed the road outside a zebra crossing in the dark, with no evidence of the petitioner driving at high speed. Fast speed alone does not equate to rashness and negligence as defined by law.

RAKESH JAGDISH KALRA @ RAKESH KALRA VS THE INDIA TODAY GROUP & ORS. [CS(OS)-560/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff, acquitted in a criminal case, holds a right to be forgotten and a right to privacy, which must be weighed against the defendants' freedom of expression. An injunction was granted to prevent the defendants from posting or updating content related to the plaintiff's case, and they were ordered to remove defamatory posts. The defendant social media platform must disclose the contact details of individuals who made defamatory posts and remove those posts if the plaintiff cannot do so within the given timeframe. The continuation of any stigma after acquittal is deemed incompatible with the right to live with dignity.

RAMESH & ANR. VS THE STATE [CRL.A.-741/2003]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The appeals were allowed and the convictions and sentences were set aside due to the inability to reconstruct the complete trial court record, which was lost. This absence impeded an effective challenge to the evidence and the basis of the convictions under Section 304 Part II IPC and Section 34 IPC. The lack of the record violated the right to a fair legal procedure under Article 21 of the Constitution, making it impossible to affirm the convictions.

RAMESH CHAND JAIN VS CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION [BAIL APPLN.-1610/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Ramesh Chand Jain received regular bail after being charged under the Prevention of Corruption Act and IPC. The co-accused was caught accepting a bribe, and there was no direct evidence of Jain's involvement. He had been in custody for 4 months, and factors such as his presumption of innocence, lack of flight risk, and no possibility of tampering with evidence contributed to the decision for bail. Conditions were attached to the bail.

RAMESH KAKKAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1433/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Regular bail was granted to Ramesh Kakkar, accused of conspiracy to murder an NDMC estate officer, due to significant gaps in the prosecution's case. Eyewitness testimonies were found unreliable and uncorroborated, the dying declaration was deemed doubtful, and the circumstantial evidence was considered weak. His prolonged incarceration of over 6 years without trial progress contributed to the decision, with bail granted under conditions to prevent tampering with evidence or witnesses.

RAMESH KUMAR VS D.R.I. [BAIL APPLN.-2059/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Ramesh Kumar was granted bail in a case under the NDPS Act despite the recovery of a commercial quantity of contraband. The delay in sampling the seized drugs raised doubts about the prosecution's case due to discrepancies in witness testimonies. The prolonged incarceration of over 3.5 years and slow trial progress highlighted the right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution, outweighing the stringent bail requirements of Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Bail was granted on the conditions of a personal bond and surety to prevent evidence tampering or witness influence.

RAMJAS FOUNDATION VS SMT SHUBRA GUPTA AND OTHERS [CS(OS)-11/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The 102nd Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Ramjas Foundation held on 17.11.2023 was validated, confirming compliance with the Memorandum of Association (MoA) regarding quorum and election of office bearers. Subsequent Special General Meetings (SGMs) conducted by the defendants on 02.12.2023 and 13.12.2023 were deemed illegal due to the defendants lacking authority following the 102nd AGM mandate. An interim injunction was issued to prevent the defendants from conducting new elections or AGMs based on a notice dated 16.12.2023 and to stay decisions made in the contested SGMs. An application from individuals seeking to be added as defendants was dismissed as their involvement was not essential for resolving the case.

RANI @ MANJU VS STATE (GOVT.) OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(CRL)-72/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The order of the Sentence Review Board rejecting the petitioner's application for premature release was set aside due to the Board's failure to consider relevant factors outlined in the policy dated 16.07.2004, including the convict's jail conduct, potential for societal reintegration, and the family's socio-economic condition. The case is to be reconsidered by the Board in line with the policy within eight weeks, and the petitioner has two weeks to surrender to the Jail Superintendent.

RAVI RAI VS STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1725/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Ravi Rai was granted bail in a murder case under Section 302 IPC. Key factors included the testimony of prosecution witnesses, including the complainant (his wife) and the landlord, who did not support the prosecution's case. The prosecution bears the burden of proving guilt beyond reasonable doubt, which was not met as the witnesses' lack of support favored the accused. Consequently, the decision to grant bail was influenced by these circumstances.

RAVI VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [BAIL APPLN.-1574/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner's contention regarding contradictions in the prosecutrix's testimony about the timeline was acknowledged, with indications suggesting a potentially consensual relationship. Given the petitioner's over two years of incarceration, slow trial pace, clean record, permanent residence in Delhi, and prior responsible bail behavior, regular bail was granted with conditions. Observations made do not comment on the merits of the case.

RENU PROMOTERS PVT. LTD. VS GOVIND RADHE REAL ESTATE PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(COMM)-70/2020]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Defendants failed to deposit Rs. 50,00,000/- within the specified time, leading to the plaintiff being entitled to judgment. An application for an extension of time was rejected, as the original order did not allow for further extensions and the defendants showed a lack of diligence in compliance. The plaintiff's application to strike out the defendants' defense was granted, resulting in a decree for recovery of Rs. 2,35,00,000/- with 6% annual interest.

RK GUPTA VS STATE(THR.CBI) [CRL.A.-246/2005]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

R.K. Gupta and Sanjiv Sharma were acquitted due to insufficient evidence proving the demand for illegal gratification beyond reasonable doubt. The complainant's testimony lacked credibility and was not supported by independent evidence. The charge of criminal conspiracy could not be established as the essential elements were not proven. Consequently, the conviction and sentence for offenses under the Prevention of Corruption Act were set aside.

RKM POWERGEN PVT LTD VS CBI [W.P.(CRL)-2474/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner's writ petition was dismissed as not maintainable due to the Supreme Court's order in Manohar Lal Sharma v. The Principal Secretary and related cases. High Courts cannot entertain writ petitions concerning coal block allocations, with the only available remedy being an approach to the Supreme Court under Article 136. This matter is linked to prior investigations handed over to the CBI for prosecution.

ROHIT KRISHNAN MAHANTA VS STATE [BAIL APPLN.-1868/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Rohit Krishnan Mahanta was granted regular bail in a case under Sections 302/307 of the Indian Penal Code. Evidence raised doubts about the prosecution's case due to inconsistencies in witness testimonies, delays in statement recordings, and contradictory medical reports regarding alcohol levels. Mahanta's long incarceration of over 3 years and 9 months, along with his clean record and compliance during interim bail, contributed to the decision. The bail is subject to conditions, with acknowledgment that this outcome does not indicate any opinion on the merits of the case.

SACHIN VS STATE, NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3378/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Sachin, accused of murdering Raj Kumar, was granted bail due to the circumstantial nature of the evidence, lack of intent to kill, and the simplicity of the injuries. The offense was assessed as potentially culpable homicide rather than murder. Considering the lengthy trial and Sachin's clean criminal record, bail was provided with conditions to ensure his presence at trial and witness safety.

SANDEEP VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1566/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Bail was granted to petitioner Sandeep due to weaknesses in the prosecution's case, including insufficient medical evidence regarding the use of a knife and doubts about the police investigation and witness statements. The long duration of Sandeep's incarceration, exceeding 7 years without significant trial progress, was also a factor. Bail was granted with strict conditions.

SANJAY JAIN VS ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE [BAIL APPLN.-3807/2022]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Regular bail was granted to Sanjay Jain in connection with an Enforcement Case Information Report under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002. The predicate offence registered by the CBI under Sections 120B and 420 IPC was considered weak due to a lack of material evidence showing inflated imports and higher subsidy payments. Statements recorded under Section 50 of the PMLA were reviewed, noting contradictions and inconsistencies relevant to the bail decision. The arrest and bail status of co-accused, including the fact that some had already received bail, were factored into the decision on parity grounds. Jain was deemed not to be a flight risk, had cooperated with the investigation, and had no prior criminal record except for the current case. Observations made are limited to the bail stage and do not affect the trial.

SANJU RANA VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-4194/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The bail application of Sanju Rana was considered in light of serious allegations under Sections 304B, 498A, and 302 IPC related to his wife's death. Contradictory medical opinions on the cause of death raised doubts, warranting the benefit of the doubt at this stage. The accused's custody lasted over 4 years with only 13 out of 41 witnesses examined, contributing to the decision for bail. Additional factors included the accused's clean record, cooperation with the investigation, and delays in the trial. Observations made were solely for the bail decision and did not reflect an opinion on the case's merits.

SANTOSHANAND @ KAVITENDER KUMAR VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [BAIL APPLN.-1159/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Santoshanand @ Kavitender Kumar was granted regular bail in connection with an FIR under Sections 377/506/34 IPC. The decision took into account inconsistencies in the victim's statements and the involvement of other accused persons. Despite the serious nature of the allegations, factors such as delays in trial proceedings, potential false implication, and the petitioner's status as a non-flight risk satisfied the necessary conditions for bail following the framing of charges under the POCSO Act.

SH BHUPENDER VS THE STATE GOVT OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-924/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anticipatory bail was granted to Sh. Bhupender, accused of rape under Section 376 IPC based on a false promise of marriage. The allegations suggested that Bhupender initially approached the complainant's family regarding marriage, indicating the relationship was not entirely deceptive from the start. Distinctions were made between a mere breach of promise and a false promise made with no intention to fulfill it. Factors considered included the complainant's age and maturity, Bhupender's clean record, and the absence of a flight risk or threat to witnesses. Bail was granted with certain conditions, with the understanding that these observations were solely for the bail decision and not indicative of the case's merits.

SH. RISHI KUMAR VS STATE & ANR. [TEST.CAS.-78/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner is entitled to letters of administration for the assets of the late Smt. Ratna Devi based on an authenticated copy of her will dated 08.01.2013, which has been proved and probabilized. Section 228 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 permits the grant of letters of administration without further evidence when the original will is proved and deposited in a competent court. This matter was individual and not part of a batch case.

SH. VENUMBAKA VIJAYA SAI REDDY VS AAMODA PUBLICATIONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [CS(OS)-623/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff, a prominent Member of Parliament, presented a prima facie case for an interim injunction against news channels and social media platforms for broadcasting false and defamatory statements. The statements lacked credible evidence and relied on mere rumors, potentially harming the plaintiff's reputation and political career. News channels were instructed to remove identified defamatory content within 10 days, while social media platforms were to do so within 36 hours of the plaintiff's request. The necessity to balance freedom of speech with the right to reputation was acknowledged, affirming that a political figure’s public image should not be damaged by baseless claims.

SHANE HAIDER VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI THROUGH SHO PS PAHAR GANJ [BAIL APPLN.-466/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Anticipatory bail was granted to Shane Haider in connection with an FIR under Sections 376 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code. The allegations did not provide evidence of a false promise of marriage, suggesting instead a possible breach of promise. The complainant, a 25-year-old graduate and working woman, showed maturity and continued the relationship after the petitioner's sister's marriage, indicating consent. The delay of nearly a year in filing the complaint raised doubts about the allegations. Bail was granted with conditions to ensure the petitioner's availability for trial and to prevent witness influence.

SHAYAM SUNDER VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-1712/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Shyam Sunder, charged under multiple IPC and IT Act sections, was granted bail due to insufficient evidence for forgery and cheating allegations. The delay of over 6 years in filing the FIR remained unexplained, and the available evidence, including call detail records and bank withdrawals, was deemed inadequate for conviction. Bail was granted with stringent conditions to ensure presence at trial.

SHIVA PANDIT VS THE STATE (GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-654/2024]
Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan
Anticipatory bail was granted to Shiva Pandit in connection with an FIR for offenses under IPC sections 307, 323, 341, 506, 34, and section 27 of the Arms Act. Co-accused had received regular bail, the victims' injuries were deemed simple, and Pandit cooperated with the investigation. Bail is contingent upon a bond of Rs 25,000 and continued cooperation with the investigation.

SHRI DHRUV JALAN VS SMT. ROSY GAUR [CRL.M.C.-4122/2024]
Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan
Petitions filed by Shri Dhruv Jalan were dismissed, affirming the rejection of applications to recall the complainant's witness for cross-examination and to present defense evidence. The Metropolitan Magistrate noted the petitioner's repeated failures to utilize previous opportunities and identified attempts to delay proceedings. The petitioner's conduct in defending the complaint was deemed insufficient, leading to the conclusion that efforts to prolong the matter were evident. This involved multiple petitions challenging similar orders.

SMT MEENAL ARORA VS SH RANU UPPAL [CS(OS)-645/2021]
Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan
The plaintiff's application to amend the plaint was approved, allowing the challenge to a subsequent will dated 26.12.2016, which the defendant claimed bequeathed all immovable property to them. The amendment was sought at an early stage of the suit, and the plaintiff only became aware of the subsequent will after the defendant's written statement. The amendment was deemed necessary to address the core issue of inheritance concerning the deceased father's estate, ensuring that the nature of the suit remained unchanged and preventing multiple proceedings.

STATE (NCT) OF DELHI VS KARAN SINGH YADAV & ORS [CRL.REV.P.-571/2015]
Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan
The admissibility of CD and video cassette evidence was affirmed despite the initial absence of the Section 65B certificate, as this certificate was later provided before trial commenced. The provision of the certificate at any stage prior to trial commencement was clarified, allowing for its submission even during trial if it does not cause irreversible prejudice to the accused. The trial court's order discharging the accused was set aside, and the matter was remanded for reconsideration of charge framing in light of the admissible electronic evidence and witness statements.

STATE VS MOHD RASHID [CRL.L.P.-171/2021]
Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan
The acquittal of the respondent for an offense under Section 8 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act was upheld based on the trial court's evaluation of evidence. The trial court identified material contradictions in the victim's testimony and the delay in filing the FIR as significant issues. The defense presented a plausible explanation, which aligned with the victim's own statement. The assessment of the trial court's findings was deemed reasonable and did not justify any interference.

SUBHASH SHARMA VS GOVT OF NCT, DLEHI & ORS. [CRL.M.C.-450/2017]
Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan
Criminal proceedings against the petitioner under Sections 7/13 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 were quashed due to prior exoneration in similar departmental disciplinary proceedings, where the standard of proof was not met. Continuing the criminal proceedings, which require a higher standard of proof, served no purpose. The FIR and all related criminal proceedings were consequently quashed.

SUNIL KUMAR & ANR VS HARISH CHANDER & ANR [CS(OS)-456/2018]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The defendants' written statement is not time-barred despite the non-payment of a one-time process fee upon refiling, as the Registry is responsible for collecting the fee. The defendants have been granted three weeks to rectify this defect and deposit the required fee. The matter has been referred to mediation, considering the plaintiffs' settlement with one defendant and their willingness to settle with the legal representatives of the deceased defendant.

SURENDER SODHI @ SHAMMI VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-4059/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The petitioner's bail application was dismissed due to serious accusations under Sections 307 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code and the Arms Act. Key considerations included the complainant's testimony, the petitioner's history of involvement in other criminal cases, the threat to the complainant and his family, and the risk of evidence tampering if released. There is a significant likelihood of the petitioner committing further serious offenses and potential threats to the complainant's safety if granted bail.

TANNU CHAWLA @ TARUN VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) [BAIL APPLN.-2331/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Tannu Chawla @ Tarun was granted regular bail in a case involving Sections 302/34 IPC and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act. Concerns arose regarding the prosecution's circumstantial evidence, including doubts about the weapon recovery, the reliability of the "last seen" theory, delays in forensic analysis, absence of independent witnesses, and issues with call detail records. Given the petitioner's extended time in custody and these potential flaws in the evidence, bail was granted with conditions to ensure availability for trial.

TEK TRAVELS PRIVATE LIMITED VS GURSAHIB SINGH SETHI & ORS. [CS(COMM)-440/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Defendant nos. 1 and 3 were not granted an extension beyond the 120-day limit to file their written statement, as established by the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018. The 120-day period, consisting of an initial 30 days plus a 90-day extension, is inviolable and cannot be further extended. In contrast, defendant no. 2's delay in filing the written statement was condoned due to the exclusion of the limitation period from March 15, 2020, to February 28, 2022, stemming from the Supreme Court's orders during the COVID-19 pandemic. Consequently, defendant no. 2's filing on February 3, 2022, fell within the revised limitation period.

V HANSPRAKASH VS STATE GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-3004/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

V Hansprakash, accused of fraudulent transfer of mutual fund units worth Rs.344.07 crores, was granted regular bail. The petitioner had not been arrested during the investigation and was taken into custody only after the chargesheet was filed. The claim that the bail application was not maintainable due to interim bail was rejected, as the petitioner was considered in constructive custody during that period. Regular bail was justified by changes in circumstances, including the main accused being granted bail, the recovery of mutual funds returned to the complainant, and the anticipated length of the trial.

VANDANA KAPOOR VS RAJESH KUMAR AGARWAL [CRL.M.C.-433/2021]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

A criminal miscellaneous petition was allowed, setting aside lower court orders that required the petitioner to pay interim compensation under Section 143A of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The lower courts did not adequately assess the merits of the complainant's case or the accused's defense, nor did they consider relevant factors for determining the quantum of interim compensation. The matter was remanded to the trial court for a fresh decision on the complainant's application under Section 143A, following established legal principles.

VASU SHARMA @ BUNTY VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-763/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

Medical evidence does not fully support the prosecution's claims regarding the use of a hand-made knife by the accused, and there are doubts about the recovery of stones allegedly used. The significant number of injuries on the deceased and inadequate guarding of a high-risk inmate raise questions about the prosecution's account. The investigation lacked key elements, including CCTV footage, and a crucial witness's statement appears manipulated. Given the lengthy incarceration, weaknesses in the prosecution's case, and the likelihood of a delayed trial, bail is granted to the petitioner with strict conditions.

VIKAS VS THE STATE GOVT. OF NCT DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-1453/2023]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The bail application was dismissed due to a prima facie case against the petitioner for multiple murders and dacoity. The alleged crimes involved the killing of five individuals, significantly impacting societal interests. Incriminating evidence, including circumstantial and forensic evidence along with witness intimidation, indicated the petitioner's involvement. Concerns about the risk of absconding and evidence tampering supported the decision to deny bail, despite the petitioner's long period of incarceration.

VIVEK GAUR VS ARG OUTLIER MEDIA PRIVATE LIMITED AND ORS [CS(OS)-940/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The plaintiff established a prima facie case for an ad-interim injunction against the defendants, who published false articles stating the plaintiff was arrested for cheating and declared a proclaimed offender, despite a court's order nullifying that declaration. This dissemination of misleading information posed a significant risk to the plaintiff's reputation. A balance between the defendants' free speech and the plaintiff's reputation was necessary. The defendants were instructed to remove the articles within three weeks, with the plaintiff allowed to approach Google to remove URLs if compliance was not achieved.

YUNUS KHAN VS STATE NCT OF DELHI [BAIL APPLN.-441/2024]

Judges: Justice Vikas Mahajan

The application for bail was dismissed based on the application of Section 37 of the NDPS Act due to the recovery of 760 grams of heroin, classified as commercial quantity. Arguments regarding discrepancies in the sample weight and procedural non-compliance were rejected. The lack of incriminating material connecting the petitioner Yunus Khan with co-accused Imran meant their recoveries could not be combined. The petitioner failed to meet the required conditions for bail, and the statements made were solely related to the bail application, not the merits of the case.

COUNTRYWIDE PROMOTERS PVT. LTD. VS COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX (TDS)-1, DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5319/2021]

Judges: Justice Yashwant Varma

Payments made by writ petitioners to the Haryana Shahari Vikas Pradhikaran (HSVP) for external development charges (EDC) fall under Section 194C of the Income Tax Act, 1961. An arrangement exists between HSVP and the Government of Haryana for HSVP to perform external development works, establishing a "contract" as defined in Section 194C, despite the lack of a formal written contract. The argument that payments were to the Government and thus exempt under Section 196 was rejected, along with the claim that HSVP qualifies as a "local authority" exempt under Section 10(20). HSVP is considered a distinct legal entity from the Government and does not meet the definition of a "local authority." Final orders under Sections 201 and 271C are set aside, allowing for reconsideration of proceedings based on established principles, including rulings in Eli Lilly, Singapore Airlines, and American Express regarding interest and penalty levies.

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS MUMBAI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-18/2023]

Judges: Justice Yashwant Varma

The Majority Arbitral Tribunal's interpretation of "Revenue" under the OMDA permitted the JVCs to exclude specific costs, such as those for aeronautical assets, from the calculation of the Annual Fee payable to AAI. Additionally, "Other Income" generated by the JVCs was ruled not to be part of the "Revenue" subject to revenue-sharing with AAI. The decision to refer quantification exercises to an Independent Auditor was deemed permissible, not constituting an impermissible delegation of adjudicatory functions. The Majority Opinion influenced the outcome in the petitions involving AAI against awards for the Delhi and Mumbai airport JVCs (DIAL and MIAL).

RAJAN TEWARI VS DURGESH KUMAR PATHAK & ANR. [EL.PET.-1/2022]

Judges: Justice Yashwant Varma

The election petition challenging the first respondent's election on grounds of non-disclosure of criminal antecedents, holding an office of profit, non-disclosure of ITR for FY 2019-20, and overestimation of shareholding value cannot be summarily rejected. There is merit in the allegations regarding office of profit, ITR disclosure, and shareholding value, while the non-disclosure of an FIR is considered a triable issue. The application for rejection of the election petition was dismissed, preserving the rights and contentions of the parties for trial.

AJAY GAUTAM VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER FSSAI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4220/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The PIL filed by Ajay Gautam to direct the FSSAI to file a complaint and the SHO to register an FIR against Jagdish Ice Factory Pvt. Ltd. and Al Zubair Foods for handling seized camel meat was dismissed. The FSSAI had already sealed the factory's premises and was considering criminal prosecution, while the matter was also under consideration in a separate writ petition. The petitioner was advised that an application under Section 156(3) of the CrPC could be filed, making the PIL unnecessary.

AJAY KUMAR HUF & ORS. VS VINAY KUMAR HUF & ORS. [FAO(OS)-78/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Ajay Kumar HUF & Ors. was dismissed due to their failure to file a written statement within the designated timeframe. Summons were served on 10th December 2021, with a 120-day deadline extended to 30th May 2022 because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The appellants did not submit the written statement by this extended deadline, and the argument claiming a four-day delay was countered by the need to include the vacation period in the delay calculation. Further extension of the limitation period set by the Supreme Court was not permitted.

AJAY SHUKLA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1953/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed as a public interest litigation was dismissed as not maintainable due to the petitioner's failure to disclose a previously filed and dismissed identical petition. The principle of constructive res judicata applied, as the unconditional withdrawal of the earlier petition prevented the current filing on the same cause of action despite an additional allegation of damage to reputation.

ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES VS RAVI KUMAR [LPA-232/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The requirement for OBC-NCL certificates in the AIIMS prospectus to be issued between November 6, 2022, and November 5, 2023, was deemed arbitrary and lacking rational connection to reservation purposes. The respondent's OBC-NCL certificate dated November 23, 2023, was considered valid, certifying eligibility for the entire relevant financial year.

AMARJEET GUPTA VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6076/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation challenging the arrest of the National Convener of the Aam Admi Party (AAP) was dismissed as not maintainable, since the arrested individual could directly approach the court. Requests to direct the government to provide arrest information to the Election Commission of India (ECI) during the Model Code of Conduct and to establish a mechanism for under-trial political leaders to campaign virtually were rejected as legislative in nature and beyond the scope of judicial review. The petition was deemed frivolous and likely filed for publicity.

AMIT SAHNI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-8845/2016]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Two public interest litigation petitions seeking guidelines to cap airfares charged by private airlines were dismissed. The existing legal framework under the Aircraft Rules, 1937 is considered adequate to address any violations, and the petitioners did not provide sufficient evidence of overcharging. The dynamic pricing model in the aviation sector, established since the 1994 deregulation, does not warrant intervention to regulate airfares.

ANIL KUMAR SOLE PROPRIETOR VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS LOGISTICS MANAGMENT LTD [W.P.(C)-3465/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by Anil Kumar, sole proprietor of A.K. and Company, challenging the rejection of his bid during the technical evaluation stage of a tender was dismissed. The rejection was based on the submission of a common bank guarantee by both Anil Kumar and another bidder, which violated the express terms of the tender notice. The decision to reject both bids was deemed justified, and the issue regarding Anil Kumar's involvement in the use of the same bank guarantee by the other bidder was identified as a disputed question of fact not suitable for determination in this petition.

APEEJAY EDUCATION SOCIETY REGD. & ANR. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI THROUGH ITS COMMISSIONER & ORS. [LPA-78/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal against the order denying an interim stay on the construction of a Fixed Compactor Transport Station (FCTS) next to a school was dismissed. The construction complies with Solid Waste Management Rules and Bye-Laws, and is deemed more hygienic and environmentally friendly than the current open dumping site. The present case differs from a previous one involving construction within school premises, allowing the parties to present their submissions before a Single Judge.

ASHOK SINGH & ANR. VS BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3195/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The proceedings initiated by the Bank of India against the petitioners concerning their flat are invalid. The bank's application under the SARFAESI Act is withdrawn, and the order from the Magistrate's Court is quashed. The bank is prohibited from claiming any relief regarding the flat until the criminal court issues a judgment on the FIR filed by the petitioners, which alleges forgery and fraud in the loan transaction. The main legal issues are resolved in favor of the petitioners without disagreement among the judges.

BS RAJESH AGRAJIT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-48/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition was dismissed, stating that the Returning Officer lacks the authority to disqualify members from voting and contesting elections for the SCBA Co-operative Society due to non-payment of annual subscription fees. The demand for Rs. 400 in annual fees and the suspension of voting rights were not supported by a valid board resolution. A previous order from 2018 indicated that no subsequent resolution had been enacted to establish non-payment as a disqualification for voting. Additionally, the elections were already scheduled, and interference with the election process at this stage was deemed inappropriate.

CENTRE FOR EDUCATION ON CRIME PREVENTION SOCIAL AND CULTURAL NGO THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT SOUTH EAST DISTRICT AFTAB KHAN VS COMMISSIONER MCD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4730/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

An NGO filed a writ petition regarding illegal construction on certain land. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) reported that it issued a Work Stop Notice and directed the disconnection of electricity and water supply to the premises, with plans for a demolition order within a specified timeframe. The Delhi Police committed to providing necessary support for the demolition. Utility agencies were directed to implement the MCD's disconnection orders. Compliance affidavit from the MCD is required within a specified time.

CHANDRA PRAKASH SHARMA VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS LOGISTICS MANAGEMENT LTD [W.P.(C)-4592/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The respondent's technical report disqualifying the petitioner's bid in a tender process was quashed as arbitrary and irrational. There is no legal distinction between a sole proprietorship and the individual proprietor; thus, the proprietor's net worth is relevant for the tender. The price bid from the petitioner must be opened and considered alongside other qualified bids.

CHHAVI AGGARWAL & ANR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [LPA-171/2019]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Appellants are entitled to allotment of their flats at the price effective on the date of filing the writ petitions, rather than the date of allotment. Delay in allotment was attributed to the actions of the Delhi Development Authority, and the Appellants should not face penalties for delays in adjudication. Payment of 6% simple interest per annum on the principal amount is required from the date of filing until full payment.

COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-13293/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A newspaper report on security lapses at college festivals was deemed sufficient to address public interest. The Delhi Police was instructed to develop a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) in collaboration with universities and colleges to enhance safety for students, particularly females, at these events. The SOP prepared by the Delhi Police was reviewed, and commitments were made by Delhi University, IIT Delhi, and GGSIPU to adhere to it. The matter was concluded with the option for future revisions of the SOP by mutual consent.

COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8548/2017]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The lack of medical infrastructure, equipment, and manpower in Delhi's government hospitals has led to critical incidents affecting patient care. A committee of expert medical professionals has been formed to examine these issues and provide recommendations for optimizing resources, establishing a centralized control room for bed availability, ensuring adequate infrastructure and manpower, and reducing the burden on referral hospitals. The focus is on addressing inter-departmental disagreements and improving the public healthcare system through consensus-building and actionable recommendations.

DEEPAK SINGH VS MS GURBANI SINGH & ANR. [FAO(OS)-51/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

An interim order was upheld, directing the defendant to pay R.S. 15,000 per month to the plaintiffs from the rent collected on disputed property. The admission by the defendant regarding a R.S. 50,000 monthly rent justified the interim payment, despite ongoing disputes over ownership. The plaintiffs, grandchildren of the late property owner, faced financial hardship, while the defendant controlled all disputed properties. The payment arrangement was seen as fair and reasonable pending the suit's conclusion.

DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS WELFARE BOARD VS GEETA [LPA-228/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The death and funeral claims of a deceased building worker's spouse were approved. Section 17 of the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996 allows for posthumous renewal of a worker's registration by their spouse or representative, with the Board having the authority to restore the registration upon payment of arrears. Acknowledgment of administrative challenges faced by beneficiaries during 2018-2020 supported the spouse's claims. The spouse was directed to pay contribution arrears for the period 2018-2021 within four weeks.

DIN BANDHU DASS VS INDIAN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY DELHI [W.P.(C)-2634/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The eligibility criteria set by IIT Delhi for running a commercial eating outlet on its campus were upheld. The requirement of an annual average turnover of Rs. 12 crores for the last three financial years was justified based on past experiences with a previous contractor who failed to maintain food quality and hygiene standards. IIT was deemed best positioned to establish the requirements necessary for ensuring a financially robust operator capable of serving over 17,000 students and staff. The criteria were considered neither arbitrary nor irrational.

ELEVENTURE SYSTEMS AND SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS GAIL GAS LIMITED [W.P.(C)-2338/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by Eleventure Systems and Services Private Limited challenging the refloating of the tender by GAIL Gas Limited was dismissed. The petitioner failed to disclose its participation in the refloated tender on January 5, 2024, without protest. Its unqualified participation and delay in filing indicated an intent to disrupt the tendering process. The rejection of the petitioner's bid in the first tender was deemed valid due to pricing being 44% and 40% higher than the in-house estimates for Parts A and B, respectively. This decision aimed to ensure competitive pricing and public financial prudence was not deemed arbitrary or irrational. The deletion of the EMD condition in the refloated tender was recognized as a reasonable measure to foster broader participation.

GOLDEN NETSOFT PVT LTD VS HDFC BANK LTD AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4344/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal (DRAT) correctly calculated the pre-deposit amount under Section 18(1) of the SARFAESI Act based on the outstanding demand of Rs. 14.06 crores as of 21 October 2022, rather than the initial demand of Rs. 6.26 crores from 2015. The "debt due" includes interest liability, and there were no grounds to challenge the DRAT's discretion in reducing the pre-deposit requirement from 50% to Rs. 6 crores. The writ petition by Golden Netsoft Pvt Ltd was dismissed.

HARI PARVAT FINANCIAL ADVISORS AND CONSULTANTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS OFFICE OF THE COLLECTOR OF STAMPS, CHANAKYAPURI GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI [LPA-383/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Hari Parvat Financial Advisors and Consultants Private Limited appealed against an order from the Collector of Stamps requiring payment of Rs. 1,00,20,167/- in stamp duty and penalties. The appellant contended that the Collector lacked jurisdiction for such an order, claiming the power under Section 31 of the Indian Stamp Act is advisory and not for impounding documents. The amount required for a pre-condition stay was reduced from 50% to 25% of the total demand.

JASMINE KAUR CHHABRA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2997/2021]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Government authorities have taken satisfactory steps to construct separate public toilets for transgender/third gender persons, complying with a previous Supreme Court judgment. Status and action taken reports detail the progress in creating these facilities, and the authorities are bound by the commitments made in those reports. The public interest petition was closed after confirming that the government's actions were compliant with the law.

JEETU KANWAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-309/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The renewal of the appellant's International Paralympic Committee (IPC) license card is a ministerial act required upon payment of the necessary fees, without discretion involved. Due to concerns about potential disqualification from qualifying events for the Paris 2024 Paralympics, a decision on the IPC license card must be made by April 23, 2024. Rights and contentions of all parties remain open as this is part of a broader matter.

K N GOVINDACHARYA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-2705/2020]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation (PIL) seeking the disclosure of designated officers of internet intermediaries under the Information Technology (Procedure and Safeguards for Blocking for Access of Information by Public) Rules, 2009 was dismissed. The appointed officers are intended to interact with government officials, not the public, so there is no legal requirement for their details to be made public. Additionally, the recently introduced Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021 offer a sufficient grievance redressal mechanism, addressing the concerns raised in the PIL. As a result, the relief sought did not warrant further consideration.

KAILASH MEHENDIRATTA VS CENTRAL BANK OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2161/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition was dismissed, confirming that the petitioner had no enforceable legal interest in the property due to unregistered agreements to sell being inadmissible. The petitioner failed to deposit the required sale consideration of Rs. 2.15 crore and the respondent bank held a valid, registered mortgage over the property. The claim of physical possession by the petitioner could not be substantiated as the unregistered second agreement to sell did not protect possession rights. Consequently, the concurrent findings of the Debt Recovery Tribunal and the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal were upheld.

KARAN S THUKRAL VS THE DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE & ORS [W.P.(C)-6082/2019]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A Public Interest Litigation filed by Karan S Thukral led to directives for the district courts in Delhi to implement a centralized filing system and mandatory e-filing in certain areas, addressing non-registration of interim applications. There is a push for the expeditious digitization and weeding out of records, with established timelines and supervisory committees. Certified copies of records must be made available as per rules, regardless of their status in record rooms. Certain issues, including criteria for petty cases and cases of historical significance, were referred for further consultation with Principal District and Sessions Judges.

KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LIMITED VS SHANKHAJIT PARMANIK AND ORS [W.P.(C)-15547/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Kotak Mahindra Bank Limited challenged an order from the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT-1) that prevented the bank from taking physical possession of a property. The loan account of the principal borrower was classified as a Non-Performing Asset, leading the bank to initiate recovery proceedings under the SARFAESI Act. Although the borrower expressed interest in settling the dispute and purchasing the property, no substantial efforts were made, and only a minimal amount was deposited to maintain the stay order. The hearing for the main appeal was advanced to 22nd January 2024, and the DRT-II was instructed to resolve the appeal promptly, ideally within two months, while preserving the rights and arguments of all parties involved.

M/S J.R. INTERNATIONAL & ORS VS PUNJAB & SIND BANK & ANR [W.P.(C)-3370/2016]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The consent decree dated August 3, 1994 is valid and binding, as all parties freely consented to the settlement. The jurisdiction over the civil suit filed in 1992 is affirmed, and the establishment of DRT-I in 1994 does not negate the decree's validity. Challenges to the decree by the petitioners are barred under relevant legal provisions. Claims that the consent decree is null due to Section 18 of the RDB Act are incorrect, as certain actions between banks and borrowers can still be entertained in civil courts. The execution proceedings transfer to DRT in 2012 is final and cannot be contested. The petition is dismissed due to the petitioners' admitted liability and reluctance to fulfill it, with no valid grounds presented for equitable relief.

M/S PRACHI INFRA AND ROADS PVT. LTD. VS M/S KANTI PRASHAD MITTAL & ORS. [LPA-195/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by M/s Prachi Infra and Roads Pvt Ltd was dismissed regarding the direction for a CBI enquiry into the sub-contracting of project work. Disputed facts about the appellant's engagement and work execution were noted, with the Chief Engineer's opinion indicating a violation of the contract agreement. The CBI was directed to investigate further, with neither party allowed to rely on experience from the performance of the contract, as this will be examined during the enquiry.

M/S R.K ENTERPRISES VS GAIL GAS LIMITED [W.P.(C)-2683/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

M/s R.K. Enterprises, a partnership firm established by the former proprietor of RKE Proprietorship and his family, justifiably relied on the prior firm's credentials in its tender bid. No evidence of concealment or misrepresentation was found, and the continued use of the proprietorship firm's bank account was adequately explained. GAIL Gas Limited is directed to consider the bid without regard to a previously unjustified termination order. The new tender remains valid as the petitioner has already participated in it.

M/S SUNSHINE CATERERS PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4628/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The decision of IRCTC to reject Sunshine Caterers Private Limited's bid for onboard catering services was upheld. The chartered accountant's information in the required annexures was not correctly reflected in the corresponding UDIN certificates from the ICAI website. The disqualification of the bid was based on a criterion applied uniformly to all bidders. The writ petition from the petitioner was dismissed.

M/S. PARDARSHI VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13696/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition from a start-up challenging tender bid conditions issued by the Director General of National Cadet Corps on the government e-marketplace was dismissed. Start-ups are exempt from the 'Bidder Turnover' and 'Experience Criteria' but must meet the 'Past Performance' criteria. The disqualification of the petitioner's bid for failing to satisfy the 'Past Performance' requirement was upheld.

MANISH RACHHOY A VS KAMAL KANT RACHHOYA [FAO(OS)-11/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The fees of Rs. 7.5 lakhs for the Local Commissioner in a civil suit were deemed exorbitant and unreasonable, as the standard fees range from Rs. 1.5 to 2 lakhs. Considering the appellant's status as a salaried employee in the UK, the fees were adjusted to Rs. 2 lakhs.

MANJRI CHOUDHARY VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-289/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The condition requiring Manjri Choudhary to provide a cash security or bank transfer of Rs. 10 Lakhs to Bank of Baroda for her travel abroad from March 22, 2024, to April 28, 2024, was upheld. This condition was deemed reasonable due to the significant financial debt and the appellant's ongoing criminal proceedings with other consortium banks. Additionally, her lack of urgency in complying with earlier conditions contradicted her initial requests, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

MEENAKSHI GUPTA AND ANR . VS THE STATE AND ORS [FAO(OS)-68/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal was dismissed, confirming the probate of the will. The will specifies that sale proceeds will be divided among seven persons, with distinct allocations for the nephews and niece, indicating an intention for individual shares rather than a joint share. The interpretation of the will was deemed correct, with no grounds for interference in the order.

MR SUNNY GAUR VS UNION OF INDIA (MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS) & ANR. [LPA-310/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Mr. Sunny Gaur's appeal against the condition requiring him to provide a bank guarantee or FDR of Rs. 5 crores to travel abroad from April 9 to May 1, 2024, was dismissed. The condition was deemed reasonable due to the appellant's prior compliance with similar requirements and sufficient means demonstrated through his travel itinerary and hotel bookings. Concerns about the genuineness of his current travel plans arose from his previous failure to undertake travel as permitted. No merit was found in the challenge to the condition.

MRS MAMTA KUMARI & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7565/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioners, a married couple, initiated IVF treatment before the Assisted Reproductive Technology (Regulation) Act, 2021 came into effect. The age restriction under Section 21(g) of the ART Act will not adversely affect them. Previous judgments support that couples who started IVF before the Act's enforcement can continue their treatment. Interim relief was granted, allowing the petitioners to obtain an eligibility certificate to proceed with their IVF process using embryos already created, provided they meet other conditions under the ART Act and applicable laws. Further consideration is set for July 30, 2024.

MS BAJAJ HEALTHCARE LTD VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-12013/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

M/s Bajaj Healthcare Ltd. challenged the eligibility criteria in a tender issued by the Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC). The amendments to the turnover criteria were found to be justified, with the exclusion of API/bulk drugs from turnover calculations properly explained. The adjustments aimed to encourage wider participation in the tender process. The petitioner did not demonstrate that the revised criteria were contrary to public interest. The tender conditions remained unchanged.

MUKESH SAINI VS MADAN LAL SAINI SINCE DECEASED THR LRS AND ORS [FAO(OS)-18/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal was dismissed due to the finality of previous orders permitting the sale of disputed property to prospective purchasers, with the current appeal barred by res judicata. The appellant lacks the financial means to buy out the other co-owners and is perceived to be seeking a more favorable financial arrangement, constituting an abuse of the legal process. The matter involved multiple litigations concerning the same issue.

NAAM TAMILAR KATCHI THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-3162/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Naam Tamilar Katchi (NTK) challenging the Election Commission of India's allotment of the "Ganna Kisan" election symbol to another party was dismissed. The allotment followed the "first-come-first-served" principle under the Election Symbols Order, which NTK had previously benefited from. Arguments regarding the Order's provisions being arbitrary and violating Article 14 of the Constitution were dismissed. The petitioner was aware of the application process and timeline.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE FOR CENTRAL LEGISLATION ON CONSTRUCTION LABOUR VS DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS BOARD [W.P.(C)-2130/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The interpretation of Section 17 of the Building and Other Construction Workers Act, 1996 by the Delhi Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board was deemed incorrect. Workers are entitled to benefits for one year after their registration renewal is due, regardless of contribution payment. Eligibility for benefits under Section 14(1) requires at least 90 days of work in a year. The Board must re-consider all previously rejected or cancelled welfare claim applications in line with this interpretation.

PREETI SINGH VS NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION & ORS. [LPA-374/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The eligibility certificate granted to the appellant by the National Medical Commission (NMC) in 2014 for pursuing an MBBS course abroad was revoked due to her failure in Biology in Class 12, a fact she did not disclose in her application. The concealment of this information was deemed sufficient grounds for cancellation under the applicable regulations. The appeal was dismissed.

PRIMATEL FIBCOM LTD VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8220/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Primatel Fibcom Ltd's petition challenging the tender award by Indian Oil Corporation Ltd to Commtel Networks Pvt Ltd was dismissed due to lack of standing, as Primatel did not participate in the tender process. The decision was influenced by the principle that only participants in the tender can raise grievances. Additionally, the delay in filing the petition and the progress already made on the awarded contract were factors against interference. The issue of territorial jurisdiction was not addressed.

RAHUL ANIL AHUJA VS GURCHARAN DHAWAN AND ORS [W.P.(C)-42/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioner may participate in the auction for the subject property on 22.03.2024, provided he admits liability to pay rent, clears rent arrears, undertakes to pay future rent, withdraws challenges to the DRT's orders, makes the property available for inspection, and vacates the property within 48 hours after the auction unless declared the successful bidder.

RUCHI GOYAL VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-161/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The decision of the Respondent (DSIIDC) to cancel the e-auction and re-auction the plot was upheld. The Respondent deemed the Petitioner's bid, though the highest, to be insufficiently competitive as it was significantly lower than the average price for similar plots in the area. The Respondent had reserved the right in the NIT to cancel the e-auction if the highest bid was not considered competitive. The Petitioner's writ petition was dismissed, as the Respondent's decision was found to be reasonable.

S. RAMACHANDRUDU VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-194/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant's Food Plaza unit qualifies as a 'Major Unit' under the Catering Policy, 2010, which does not allow for a right of renewal for such units. The Supreme Court's prior ruling related only to 'General Minor Units' and 'Special Minor Units,' not extending to Major Units. Additionally, the Supreme Court has stayed a Patna High Court judgment that granted renewal rights to Major Units. Consequently, the appellant's appeal for an extension of its license beyond the 12-year term was dismissed.

S.P ENTERPRISES VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13060/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The decision of the National Highway Authority of India to award the tender to Respondent No. 2 was upheld. The non-disclosure of a civil suit involving Respondent No. 2 and a private party was not considered suppression under the tender conditions, as the disclosure requirement focused on litigation with authorities. The argument that bids from Respondent Nos. 2 and 3 should be disqualified for submitting multiple bids was rejected; the tendering authority has discretion in interpreting conditions, and related directors do not automatically lead to disqualification. No mala fide or perversity was identified in the decision. The writ petition was dismissed.

SAMYAK PROJECTS PRIVATE LIMITED VS ANSAL HOUSING LIMITED [FAO(OS)-77/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The suit for debt recovery is not barred by limitation. The deposit of TDS by the appellant on September 30, 2015 is considered 'income received' by the respondent under the Income Tax Act, extending the limitation period as per Section 19 of the Limitation Act. The argument that the TDS payment was for a separate transaction was rejected because it was not raised in the appellant's application for leave to defend.

SANKALP RECREATION PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5164/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The "Mandatory Criteria" instructions in the tender document applied only to entries at Serial Nos. 6 and 7. The requirement for witness signatures on the Integrity Pact did not serve as a valid reason for disqualifying the successful bidder, as the tender document did not require such signatures. Allowing the successful bidder to rectify missing witness signatures did not violate principles of equality, given that another bid was disqualified for non-compliance with the Mandatory Criteria. The writ petition was dismissed.

SARVESH VS ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5188/2014]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A committee's recommendations to improve the medical system for financial assistance have been accepted. Key suggestions include upgrading hospital websites for real-time information on available resources, appointing nodal officers in public hospitals, establishing a single-window mechanism for patient convenience, developing software for expedited processes and transparency, fixing equipment rates through government procurement, encouraging hospitals to expedite emergency treatment approvals, and training staff to enhance communication and create a patient-friendly environment. The Chief Secretary of the GNCTD is tasked with implementing these recommendations and providing an action taken report.

SHAH CATERS VS JAG PRAVESH CHANDRA HOSPITAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4682/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A writ petition by Shah Caters sought the award of a food kiosk contract from Jag Pravesh Chandra Hospital, which mistakenly classified the petitioner as the lowest bidder instead of the highest bidder in the tender process. In a similar previous case, necessary corrections were mandated regarding classification. The hospital is directed to evaluate the petitioner's representation with a reasoned order, following the precedent established in the earlier case.

SHAILENDRA VS DEPUTY DIRECTOR (LM) (SOUTH ZONE-II) & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4505/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Acquisition proceedings for the subject land under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 have been upheld, attaining finality. The request to recall or stay the order directing the Land Acquisition Collector to hand over possession of the land to the Delhi Development Authority was rejected. Previous judgments confirm that a landowner cannot seek denotification of land under Section 48 after the validity of acquisition proceedings is upheld.

SHAMMI CHADHA VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [LPA-83/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the demolition order for the property at B-153, Gandhi Vihar, Delhi-110009 was dismissed. The property was deemed constructed illegally without necessary permissions from authorities. The argument citing equal protection under Article 14 was rejected, as unlawful acts cannot be excused based on the actions of others. Claims of a violation of natural justice were dismissed since the property was confirmed as unauthorized construction.

SHANTI DEVI PRIVATE ITI VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF TRAINING & ANR. [LPA-82/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Directorate General of Training (DGT) rejected the appellant's application for a Multi Skill Training Institute (MSTI) in Tharthari block because the appellant did not prove that the block was unserved, given the presence of an existing ITI (Sai Private ITI) in the area. The argument that the DGT should determine whether a block is served or unserved was dismissed, emphasizing that the appellant should have known about the existing ITI before applying. Thus, the application was deemed not maintainable under the MSTI scheme, which is designated for unserved blocks.

SHEETAL DHARIWAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6039/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest petition by Sheetal Dhariwal addressed non-compliance with Regulation 2.3.4 of the Food Safety and Standards Regulations, which bans tobacco and nicotine in food products like pan masala. The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) committed to considering the petitioner's representation, ensuring an opportunity for a hearing, and agreed to decide the matter within six weeks. All parties retain their rights and contentions.

SHIVI CHOPRA & ORS. VS REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5882/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the Financial Commissioner's order rejecting the restoration application was dismissed. The petitioners demonstrated a lackadaisical approach by not bringing the legal representatives of a deceased petitioner on record for over 10 years, despite several opportunities. The dismissal of the revision petition for non-pursuance and the restoration application was justified, and the challenge to the original expulsion order from 1980 was barred by delay and laches, being raised after 30 years.

SHRI ARUN SANKHWAL VS SHRI ANOOP GUPTA & ANR. [FAO(OS)-22/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The application for restoration of the suit was allowed, but the directions to restore the defendant's earlier application for interest on the sale consideration were set aside, as that order had attained finality. Additional evidence on the interest issue was permitted, contingent on the defendants paying Rs. 30,000 to the plaintiff for the delay. The matter has been pending since 2008. Since the surviving claim is below the High Court's pecuniary jurisdiction, the suit will be transferred to the district court for trial from the stage of recording evidence by the defendants.

SINDHI SANGAT VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [LPA-431/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Sindhi Sangat NGO was dismissed, indicating that the Union of India and Doordarshan are not legally required to establish a dedicated 24-hour Sindhi language channel. Broadcasting Sindhi language programs on regional channels serving Sindhi-speaking populations is considered reasonable and meets statutory obligations under the Prasar Bharati Act. The decision against launching a full-time Sindhi channel is based on justifiable distinctions and aligns with the objectives of the Act, warranting no judicial interference.

SMT PHOOLWATI (DECEASED) THROUGH LRS AND ORS VS SHRI DEVINDER SINGH AND ORS [FAO(OS)-35/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal under Section 10 of the Delhi High Court Act, 1966, is not maintainable as the order dismissing the application for pronouncement of judgment is an interlocutory order, not a 'judgment' per the Supreme Court's criteria. The application under Chapter IX Rule 6 of the Delhi High Court Rules, 2018, is inappropriate since it should be filed early in the suit, not four years after issue framing. The fresh application is barred by the principle of re-litigation, given that a previously identical application had already been dismissed. The appeal is dismissed.

SOCIAL JURIST, A CIVIL RIGHTS GROUP VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-13436/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Conditions in government schools of the North East District of Delhi were examined, revealing issues such as lack of infrastructure, overcrowding, shortage of classrooms, incomplete renovations, and insufficient provision of basic materials like books and writing tools. The Secretary (Education) is required to submit a detailed affidavit addressing these concerns, assign responsibility to negligent officials, and ensure timely provision of essential materials and furniture to all students, with no funding shortages reported.

SOCIAL JURIST, A CIVIL RIGHTS GROUP VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-888/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Students in Delhi government and municipal schools are entitled to free textbooks, writing materials, and uniforms under the Right to Education Act and Delhi rules. Many students are denied these benefits due to the lack of bank accounts and the non-formation of the Standing Committee in the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD). The absence of the Chief Minister does not impede students' entitlements. The Commissioner of MCD is directed to provide these benefits without being limited by the expenditure cap of Rs. 5 crores, within the scope of a statutory audit. There is a conflict between the Delhi government and MCD regarding financial delegation for contracts, with the government desiring MCD House approval, which is deemed impractical. A related petition addresses the issue of non-provision of free educational resources in Delhi government schools.

SUBNAM GUPTA (SABNAM GUPTA) VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-295/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal was allowed, setting aside the previous dismissals of the writ petition. The 1986 order by the SDM vesting the property in the Gaon Sabha under the Delhi Land Reforms Act was deemed valid as it predated the area's urbanization in 2017. The Financial Commissioner was directed to expeditiously hear the appellant's challenge to the 1986 order, affirming the appellant's right to do so despite the area's urban status. No opinion on the appeal's merits was provided.

SUDHIR BIDHURI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6721/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest petition was dismissed as no illegal or unauthorized construction was occurring on the property in question. The letters cited by the petitioner referred to a different property. The claims were deemed to lack merit and appeared motivated by an old rivalry between the families of the petitioner and respondent no.4.

SUNAYANA SIBAL & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13236/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Delhi High Court addressed issues regarding dairy colonies in Delhi, highlighting widespread non-compliance by dairy owners with licensing and regulatory requirements, as well as unsanitary conditions. Extensive directions were issued for compliance with laws, including obtaining statutory licenses, operational veterinary hospitals, installing bio-gas plants, improving waste management, testing milk products, and addressing the use of spurious hormones. Consideration was given to relocating dairy colonies from landfill sites, and a pilot project was initiated in Madanpur Khadar to develop a model compliant colony. A detailed roadmap was requested for the future of the nine dairy colonies, emphasizing the need for public health and animal welfare improvements.

SUNIL KUMAR ALEDIA VS DELHI URBAN SHELTER IMPROVEMENT BOARD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5306/2024]
Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
Electricity supply to a homeless shelter in Delhi was ordered to be restored following the clearance of outstanding bills. The DUSIB committed to providing basic facilities such as beds, mattresses, blankets, and drinking water to the shelter's inmates.

SURJIT SINGH YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4642/2024]
Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The writ petition filed by Surjit Singh Yadav sought to restrain Arvind Kejriwal from issuing any orders while in the custody of the Directorate of Enforcement. The petition did not address locus standi or the merits of the allegations. The Directorate of Enforcement was instructed to submit a status report to the Special Judge, who would then make appropriate legal decisions.

THEME ENGINEERING SERVICES PVT LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-16772/2023]
Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) cannot disqualify the Petitioner's bids due to a typographical error in the Joint Venture share percentage in Appendix B-11 of the bid documents. Relevant Policy Circulars and RFP clauses apply to changes in declared JV shares, not to corrections of information for technical bid capacity. NHAI must consider the corrected information in Appendix B-11 for pending bids where financial bids remain unopened.

TRIMULA INDUSTRIES LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA, MINISTRY OF COAL & ORS. [LPA-336/2024]
Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
Trimula Industries Limited must approach the Appellate Authority under Section 27 of the Coal Mines (Special Provisions) Act, 2015 to challenge the appropriation order from the Nominated Authority. The statutory remedy of appeal must be exhausted first, as the Appellate Authority can address the factual issues raised, including the non-disclosure of forest land in the tender. Additional time has been granted for the appeal, with a directive for the Appellate Authority to expedite the decision-making process. The Letters Patent Appeal filed by Trimula Industries Limited was dismissed.

TULIR CHARITABLE TRUST VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1196/2024]
Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The order discharging the accused of offences under Section 15(2) of the POCSO Act was found to have manifest illegalities. The reliance on the definition of "child" instead of "child pornography" was deemed incorrect, as the latter requires only a prima facie inference of a child's involvement. The statements from medical experts indicating that the depicted individuals were children under 18 years old were overlooked. The case was set for further proceedings following the reversal of the earlier order.

VIJAY KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-5558/2024]
Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora
The public interest litigation (PIL) petition was dismissed on the grounds that PILs are not maintainable in service matters, and only non-appointees have the right to challenge the legality of appointments or extensions. The consistent position is that allowing such petitions would undermine the purpose of administrative tribunals established under Article 323-A. The petitioner, who is not a non-appointee, lacked standing to file the petition.

VIJAY MALHOTRA VS DIRECTORATE OF EDUCATION AND ORS [LPA-393/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Vijay Malhotra was dismissed, affirming that his children do not have a legal right to participate in the schools' student exchange programs and that no coercive or discriminatory actions were taken against them by the schools. Malhotra had not paid school fees for six years, which was deemed illegal, and it was noted that he was misusing the pending writ petition. The matter will be expedited for resolution within three months.

VISHAKHA & ANR. VS THE CONTROLLER OF EXAMINATION CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION & ORS. [LPA-149/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeals filed by Vishakha and Priya Das, female students seeking to appear in the CBSE Class X and XII board exams as private candidates, were dismissed. The requirement for a domicile certificate, per CBSE's public notice, was deemed reasonable, as the exception applied only to bona fide residents of the National Capital Territory of Delhi. The Aadhaar card was ruled insufficient as proof of domicile, and the appellants did not submit the necessary certificate. Compliance with conditions for exceptions or privileges is essential, and there is caution against judicial interference in academic policies unless they are arbitrary or discriminatory. The decision of the Single Judge was upheld.

VISHAL BANGA VS STATE (NCT OF DELHI) & ANR. [FAO(OS)-37/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The validity of the will dated May 21, 2015, executed by Sh. Harbans Singh Banga was upheld. The appeal by Vishal Banga against the grant of letters of administration/probate to Banga Vikas for the NRE fixed deposits was dismissed. The 10-year condition on the bequest was interpreted as a means to ensure the testator's liabilities were cleared, which occurred by 2016. The objection raised by Vishal Banga was viewed as an afterthought since it was not mentioned in earlier probate proceedings.

VRC CONSTRUCTIONS INDIA PVT LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-4838/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) is required to make a decision on VRC Constructions India Pvt Ltd's representation regarding the annulment of a tender for the '6-laning with both sides Service Road of Ayodhya Nagar Bypass of Bhopal city section of NH-46' project within one week. The merits of the dispute remain unaddressed, and all parties retain the right to pursue further actions if dissatisfied with the outcome.

WE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1203/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest petition seeking extraordinary interim bail for the Chief Minister of Delhi in pending criminal cases was dismissed. The petition was deemed not maintainable since the Chief Minister is in judicial custody under unchallenged court orders. Claims of having "veto power" and the authority to grant concessions were considered unfounded, and the petitioner lacked the standing to make such assertions. The functioning of the government and removal of the Chief Minister could not be interfered with. Costs of Rs. 75,000 were ordered to be deposited with the AIIMS Poor Fund.

XYZ VS UNION O FINDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. [LPA-291/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal against the revocation of suspension for Respondent No. 3, accused of sexual harassment, was dismissed. The revocation order remained intact due to the completion of the departmental inquiry and the initiation of major penalty proceedings. Conditions were imposed by a criminal court to prevent contact and influence between Respondent No. 3 and the appellant. The appellant opposed continuing departmental proceedings, preferring to await the outcome of a writ petition regarding the Internal Complaints Committee's constitution and was directed not to seek further adjournments in that matter.

ZOMI STUDENTS FEDERATION VS UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3805/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest petition by the Zomi Students Federation was addressed, leading to the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) stating that opening examination centers in the hill districts of Manipur is not feasible. However, candidates from these districts can choose from alternative centers such as Aizawl, Kohima, Shillong, Dispur, Jorhat, Kolkata, and Delhi, with their requests for center changes being accommodated. The Government of Manipur committed to offering financial assistance for travel and accommodation to these candidates.

AL ISLAM TOURS CORPORATION VS UNION OF INDIA [LPA-471/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Rajnish Bhatnagar

Al Islam Tours Corporation was blacklisted and debarred from Haj registration and allocation for 10 years, with a forfeiture of a Rs. 25 lakh security deposit. The entity engaged in Haj-related activities without proper registration as a Haj Group Operator, violating the Policy for Haj Group Operators for Haj-2019-23. The imposed penalties were deemed appropriate given the seriousness of the breach.

ABHAY KUMAR SINGH VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-9088/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The respondent Municipal Corporation's decision to re-tender the parking site was upheld due to a substantial reduction in the original area caused by high tension electricity cables, constituting a material change in the contract's terms. The contract was automatically terminated as per the agreement, and no prior notice was required for re-tendering the reduced area. The petitioner's challenge to the re-tender was dismissed as the respondent acted within the original contract's parameters.

ADITYA SINGH VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12822/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The public interest petition filed by Aditya Singh to cancel the permission for M/s Nettel Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. to install a Communication Ground-Based Monopole near Sudhar Camp, Kalkaji, Delhi was dismissed. The permission had already been granted by the MCD, and a previous challenge to it had been dismissed. There was no conclusive scientific evidence showing harm from mobile tower emissions, and the respondent complied with the relevant guidelines. The petition was deemed without merit.

ALIG AND ASSOCIATES & ANR. VS INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-561/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Alig and Associates and a Chartered Accountant was dismissed due to the previous writ petition being deemed infructuous. The appellants argued that non-payment of the annual membership/COP fee for 2019-2020 led to the loss of seniority, adversely affecting their professional reputation and future empanelment opportunities. Clarifications from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India confirmed that there was no cancellation of membership impacting livelihoods, as the original certificate of practice remained valid until it was cancelled for non-payment on March 1, 2020. A new certificate of practice was issued on February 1, 2021, upon the appellants' request. The appellants chose not to pursue the appeal further, leading to its resolution.

ALOK PUNJ VIDYA PEETH (REGD) SOCIETY THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT ANUP SINGH VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [LPA-678/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Letters Patent Appeal filed by the Alok Punj Vidya Peeth (Regd.) Society was dismissed, supporting the Single Judge's decision to reject the Society's application in the writ petition. The Society lacked locus to file the application as it was not a party to the writ petition and had not challenged the earlier order denying its application for impleadment. No reasons were identified to disagree with the Single Judge's decision.

AMR INDIA LTD VS NBCC INDIA LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14657/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

NBCC India Ltd. disqualified AMR India Ltd.'s bid for failing to submit a revised bank solvency certificate after an increase in the estimated project cost. The tender conditions required submissions of a bank solvency certificate reflecting at least 40% of the revised estimated cost. Although the corrigendum did not explicitly state the need for a new certificate, it was understood that all bidders were required to provide updated documentation. Arguments for allowing the submission of a revised certificate were rejected, as the tender conditions were clear and consistent for all bidders. There was no evidence of arbitrariness or unfairness in the decision.

ANANYA KUMAR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1485/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Union of India and Delhi Police implemented adequate measures under the Information Technology Act, 2000, to combat cyber crimes. The Delhi Police established a comprehensive mechanism for investigating cyber crimes in accordance with the IT Act and the Indian Penal Code. The Central Government appointed adjudicating officers and framed necessary rules, with further implementation delegated to states and Union Territories. No additional directions were deemed necessary regarding the public interest litigation filed by the petitioner.

ANIL KUMAR HAJELAY & ORS. VS HONBLE HIGH COURT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-2018/2021]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The GNCTD's request to modify a previous order was partially granted, allowing the replacement of "financial sanction" with "administrative and financial sanction and all other necessary sanctions/approvals." However, the request to limit the tender/NIT to only the 14 pilot courts was declined, with a directive to float a comprehensive tender for all 691 courts, including the pilot courts. The Chief Secretary of GNCTD was instructed to expedite the granting of necessary administrative and financial sanctions for the project's implementation.

ANUJ KUMAR AGARWAL, ADVOCATE VS REGISTRAR OF CO OPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10318/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's right to basic amenities such as electricity and water is recognized as part of the fundamental right to life and liberty. An interim order mandates the respondent association to reconnect these services to the petitioner's premises. The respondents have two weeks to submit counter-affidavits, with a further hearing scheduled for 3rd September 2024.

CIVIL SAFETY COUNCIL OF INDIA VS UOI AND ORS [W.P.(CRL)-2151/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A public interest petition was filed following a roof collapse at IGI Airport Terminal-1 due to heavy rainfall, requesting a multidisciplinary Special Investigation Team to investigate construction quality and maintenance at Delhi Airport and other airports in India. The government had already initiated steps in response, including registering an FIR, forming a high-level expert committee, and mandating third-party audits of structural stability and evaluations of airport facilities before monsoon seasons. In light of these actions, the petition was closed.

COUNCIL OF ARCHITECTURE VS DOBARIYA MOHIT RAMNIKAL & ANR. [LPA-841/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by the Council of Architecture against the approval of Dobariya Mohit Ramnikal's M.Arch degree from the University of Maryland has been admitted. There is disagreement with the previous judgment, noting the Council's adherence to the evaluation process and that the University of Maryland is not listed in the Architects Act, 1972. The operation of the previous judgment is stayed, and further replies from the parties have been requested for more examination of the case.

DR. SUBRAMANIAN SWAMY VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2223/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging commercial transactions between private entities regarding the acquisition of shares in an insurance company regulated by the IRDAI is not maintainable due to existing oversight by SEBI and RBI. These regulators are already addressing the transactions, and interference is deemed unnecessary. SEBI and RBI are directed to expedite their investigations and take further action as needed. The rights and contentions of all parties remain open, including the issues of locus standi and writ petition maintainability.

GAURVI SHARMA & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-659/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal filed by Gaurvi Sharma and another was dismissed due to misrepresentation of facts. Appellant no. 2 (father) failed to include respondent no. 4 (mother) in the proceedings, despite acknowledging ongoing matrimonial disputes, indicating bad faith. Additionally, appellant no. 2 did not present any evidence showing that the child was admitted to another school with the mother's consent.

HARVEEN SINGH CHADHA @ LOVELY & ANR. VS BALVEEN SINGH CHADHA @ RICKY [FAO(OS)-118/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the dismissal of an application for rejection of a partition suit was dismissed. The assessment of the application under Order VII Rule 11 requires focus on the plaint's averments, without addressing disputed facts or laws. Ownership of the property is disputed, and the presumption of the registered sale deed's genuineness is rebuttable. Partition constitutes a continuing cause of action, so the suit is not barred by limitation at this stage.

JUSTICE FOR ALL VS HONBLE LIEUTENENT GOVERNOR, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10086/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Chancellor of GGSIP University is to decide on a representation regarding the implementation of Section 12(1)(b) and 12(2) of the Delhi Professional Colleges or Institutions Act, 2007. The petitioner claims that the Admission Regulatory Committee and the University are not adhering to the provisions that require reserving 85% of seats for Delhi students, along with allocations for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and Other Backward Classes. The decision is to be made in accordance with the law within three weeks, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open.

K C FIBERS LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [LPA-811/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

K C Fibers Limited's appeal for a 5% subsidy reimbursement under the Technology Upgradation Funds Scheme for the import and installation of 24 Projectile Shuttleless Looms was dismissed. The appellant imported looms with a vintage life of 9 years, exceeding the maximum eligibility of 5 years as per the original TUFS policy. Although the eligibility criteria were relaxed in 2000 to allow a vintage life of up to 10 years, this revision applied only from the meeting date and not retrospectively.

M/S RASOI CANTEEN AND CATERER VS INDIAN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, DELHI [W.P.(C)-10136/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by M/s Rasoi Canteen and Caterer against the tender process for canteen facilities at the Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi was dismissed. The petitioner, aware of the tender conditions and Technical Evaluation Criteria, could not challenge them after being disqualified. The tender conditions were found to be reasonable and within the discretion of the expert committee. Allegations regarding the revocation and reopening of the tender did not prejudice the petitioner, as their technical bid was already deemed ineligible. The writ petition was dismissed without costs.

MRS. NALINI LAL VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [FAO(OS)-98/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the introduction of certain documents was dismissed based on their classification as public documents, which made them admissible. The appellant had referenced a prior civil suit in the current proceedings, negating any claim of surprise regarding these documents. The appeal lacked merit, and the respondents were permitted to submit the additional documents.

RAHUL KUMAR VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-8770/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) was directed to conduct a preliminary inquiry into whether Rahul Kumar committed any cognizable offences by filing numerous public interest litigation petitions against unauthorized constructions. Out of 42 petitions submitted by Kumar, only 17 were listed in court, with 25 not filed with the registry. In the listed cases, he or his counsel frequently failed to appear, resulting in dismissals and instructions to approach appropriate committees. Concerns arose regarding the potential exploitation of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi by Kumar through these petitions, and he was instructed to cooperate with the CBI inquiry.

RESIDENT WELFARE ASSOCIATION (RWA) REGD, B2C BLOCK, JANAKPURI, NEW DELHI VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3097/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The application by Respondent No. 4, owner of the liquor vend, to dismiss the writ petition from the Resident Welfare Association as infructuous was granted. Respondent No. 4 surrendered the liquor vend license, resolving the issue raised in the petition. The DTTDC was directed to accept the license surrender, and Respondent No. 4 is required to ensure that no liquor shop opens at the same premises in the future.

RSS ESTATE LLP & ANR. VS MONICA GOGIA [FAO(OS)-105/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The impugned order dismissing the appellants' application to vacate the ad-interim stay was stayed. A registered sale deed holds a presumption of validity that requires cogent evidence to challenge. Inadequate consideration does not render an agreement void under the Indian Contract Act. The respondent must file a reply affidavit within 4 weeks, and the appellants must submit a rejoinder affidavit before the next hearing on 19th November, 2024.

SD WINDLESH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10168/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Vice Chairman of the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was instructed to address a representation regarding encroachments on the Yamuna floodplains by a dargah and casting yards within 6 weeks, and to take necessary action for their demolition. There is an obligation to ensure areas cleared of encroachments are properly fenced to prevent future violations.

SH SUNNY SACHDEVA VS ACP NORTH RTI CELL AND ANR [LPA-638/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the appellant's writ and review petitions regarding the imposition of penalties under Section 20 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, is upheld. The formation of opinion under Section 20(2) is an exercise of supervisory powers, not adjudicatory powers, and the information seeker lacks locus standi in penalty proceedings. The Central Information Commission was within its discretion to refrain from imposing a monetary penalty, particularly as the requested information had been provided to the appellant.

SHIB DAS SARKAR & ANR. VS REGISTRAR OF COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2172/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The insistence of the Registrar of Cooperative Societies on the production of the Architect's Certificate and Completion Certificate was deemed contrary to established facts. The petitioners' membership in the cooperative society was confirmed in 2003 and upheld through multiple orders. The Delhi Development Authority was directed to allot a vacant flat to the petitioners within eight weeks, as the delay in allotment was attributed to the Registrar of Cooperative Societies.

SHIVOM ASTHANA VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12420/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Public interest petitions concerning flat and plot owners in Delhi were dismissed due to the insistence on the rule of locus standi. Petitioners were deemed capable of directly approaching the courts. The principles regarding public interest litigation discourage petitions filed for ulterior motives and permit relaxation of locus standi primarily for the rights of disadvantaged groups. The legal issues presented remain unaddressed.

SHUTHAM ELECTRIC LTD. VS VAIBHAV RAHEJA & ANR. [FAO(OS)-125/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The arbitral award directing Shutham Electric Ltd. to pay Rs. 2.5 crores with interest to Vaibhav Raheja was upheld. Shutham Electric Ltd. acknowledged its liability to repay the loan in a letter dated February 2, 2017. Arguments regarding the claim being barred by limitation, improper appointment of the arbitrator, and lack of jurisdiction to award interest were rejected.

SMT. HARPYARI (DECEASED) THROUGH LR-1A BHARAT BHUSHAN SHARMA VS BADRI BHAGAT JHANDEWALA TEMPLE SOCIETY AND ORS [FAO(OS)-138/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal against the dismissal of an application under Section 340 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was dismissed. The affidavit submitted by the respondent was noted to incorrectly reference events from 2020 while being dated 2019, attributed to an error by the Notary Public. It was determined that the respondent had no incentive to misrepresent the affidavit's preparation date. Allegations of collusion between the respondent's counsel and the Joint Registrar, as well as claims of inappropriate conduct by the Joint Registrar, were rejected as unsubstantiated.

SOCIAL JURIST, A CIVIL RIGHTS GROUP VS BAR COUNCIL OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3043/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Bar Council of India has adequately addressed the demand for including the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009, in law college curricula. The BCI Chairman issued an order for legal education centers and school boards to include the RTE Act in their curriculum or conduct workshops to raise awareness. No further actions were deemed necessary, leading to the closure of the application.

SRI AWADH RAM LEELA COMMITTEE VASHNU MATA MANDIR & ANR. VS DELHI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION & ORS. [LPA-769/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The letters patent appeal by the Sri Awadh Ram Leela Committee Vashnu Mata Mandir was dismissed, challenging the dismissal of a writ petition for extending the Ram Leela ground to seven acres and connecting it to the main road. The appellants lack a fundamental right to organize Ram Leela on specific land, and statutory authorities cannot be directed to acquire land for religious events. The appellants did not demonstrate that the Delhi Municipal Corporation failed in its public duty.

ST. STEPHEN COLLEGE VS HARGUN SINGH AHLUWALIA AND ORS [LPA-846/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

An interim order granting provisional admission to the respondents in the appellant college is appealable under the Letters Patent due to its impact on the rights and obligations of the parties. The appellant college's right to establish and administer minority educational institutions under Article 30 of the Constitution was acknowledged, with concerns that excess seat allocation by Delhi University could compromise the college's quality of education. Respondents must file counter affidavits within three days, and a hearing is scheduled for 4th September 2024. They are permitted to take admission in their second preference colleges but are prohibited from attending classes at the appellant college until the writ petition is resolved.

UNION OFINDIA VS MR MOHIT JITENDRA KUKADIA [LPA-940/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decision required the appellant ministry to process the respondent's application for the National Overseas Scholarship (NOS) within two weeks. The ministry's rejection, based on the submission of an Income Tax Return (ITR) computation document instead of the ITR Acceptance Document, was viewed as overly technical due to the vague terminology. The respondent's multiple representations went unanswered within the given timeframe. The respondent's eligibility and merit were affirmed, emphasizing that procedural rigidity should not hinder the scholarship's purpose. The ministry was instructed to accommodate the respondent by replacing the least meritorious candidate among those already awarded the scholarship.

USHA KHANNA AND ANR VS VINAY KHANNA [FAO(OS)-97/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Usha Khanna and another against the Single Judge's orders concerning the grant of letters of administration to the will of Late Smt. Indra Khanna was dismissed. The Single Judge had instructed the parties to file replies or objections within 10 weeks if no settlement was reached. Although the appellants submitted their replies within this timeframe, the objections remained pending due to ongoing settlement discussions. The Single Judge subsequently issued orders that closed the appellants' right to file objections and dismissed their application to recall this order. The dismissal of the appeal confirmed that the right to file objections had to be exercised within the specified 10-week period, irrespective of settlement negotiations.

VIJAY KUMAR VS SHOBHA AGARWAL & ORS. [FAO(OS)-131/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Vijay Kumar challenging the dismissal of his application for impleadment in a partition suit was dismissed. He failed to provide registered documents to substantiate his individual ownership rights over the disputed property. Claims regarding an oral settlement and the existence of a Hindu Undivided Family lacked the necessary detailed facts. Additionally, there was a delay in filing the appeal.

BABY AAYAT (MINOR) THROUGH HER MOTHER MS. TANZEEM KHAN VS GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF DELHI AND ANR. [LPA-927/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal was dismissed because the notification and circular regarding admission under the EWS/DG category pertain only to parents, excluding grandparents. The reserved seat for the appellant had already been allocated to another EWS/DG category student, making it unfair to reallocate it. The argument that a new income certificate obtained by the father during the writ petition should be considered was rejected.

BAKSHISH SINGH CHANDHOK AND ORS VS BHAVJOT SINGH CHANDHOK [FAO(OS)-119/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellants were ousted from the possession of the suit property by the respondent, supported by admissions in the plaintiffs' own pleadings. The case satisfied the three-part test for ouster: declaration of hostile animus, long and uninterrupted possession, and exclusive ownership. Consequently, the appellants are required to pay ad valorem court fees under Section 7(iv)(b) of the Court Fees Act, rather than a fixed fee under Article 17(vi). The appeal was dismissed for lack of merit.

CS CONSTRUCTION COMPANY PVT LTD & ANR. VS EXCELLING GEO AND ENGINEERING CONSULTANT PVT LTD & ORS. [LPA-968/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order by the coordinator of the Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) for separate assessment of the arbitrator's fee for the claim and counterclaim was upheld. The coordinator acted within authority, as the respondent indicated an inability to pay its share of the fee for the counterclaim. The counterclaiming appellants challenged the order, while any failure by the respondent to deposit its fee share would not disadvantage the appellants due to cost considerations in the award.

GAURAV ENTERPRISES VS RAJIV GANDHI SUPER SPECIALITY HOSPITAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-13019/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petition by Gaurav Enterprises was dismissed, affirming the bid document from Rajiv Gandhi Super Speciality Hospital. The requirement for a Security Supervisor for every 20 Security Guards was deemed inapplicable since Gaurav Enterprises is not a licensed Private Security Agency under the Private Security Agencies (Regulation) Act, 2005. The absence of bonus payment in the bid document was not problematic, as meeting minutes indicated the hospital would reimburse the bonus separately. The stipulation of 26 working days per month for security guards was considered reasonable, providing for 4 days of leave per guard.

GURPREET SOBTI VS DDA AND ORS [LPA-506/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the writ petition challenging the demolition of the appellant's property by the Delhi Development Authority was upheld. Any challenge to decisions made by the Monitoring Committee must be presented before the Supreme Court, as established in the M.C. Mehta case. The appropriate course for the appellant is to approach the Supreme Court regarding the order for demolition.

PARIKSHIT MAHIPAL VS THE LAWYERS CHAMBERS ALLOTMENT COMMITTEE & ANR. [LPA-564/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decision of the Lawyers Chambers Allotment Committee (LCAC) to reject the appellant's application for a lawyer's chamber in the Rohini Courts Complex was upheld. The appellant did not provide the necessary documentary evidence, such as certified copies of vakalatnamas and case proceedings, to demonstrate continuous practice in the Rohini District Courts as required by the rules. The LCAC, composed of senior judicial officers and representatives of the Rohini Courts Bar Association, reviewed the appellant's submissions but found them inadequate to prove eligibility for chamber allotment. No issues were identified in the LCAC's decision-making process or the dismissal of the appellant's writ petition.

WING COMMANDER B.M. AGRAWAL (RETD.) & ORS. VS REGISTRAR OF COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11236/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Manmohan, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A writ petition was filed by Wing Commander B.M. Agrawal (Retd.) and two others for regularization of flat allotments from the Mandakini Co-operative Group Housing Society. The petitioners Anurag Marwah and Shobha Marwah were recognized as similarly situated and directed to have their cases considered for regularization upon payment of costs. However, concerns regarding B.M. Agrawal's eligibility arose due to allegations of owning another property, prompting a reevaluation of his case based on relevant documents upon submission by the society. The situation referenced prior orders in similar matters involving other society members.

JINDAL SAW LTD. VS DEPUTY/ASSISTANTCOMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX [W.P.(C)-17851/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Vibhu Bakhru, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The notice issued under Section 148A(b) of the Income Tax Act and the corresponding order under Section 148A(d) were deemed unsustainable due to discrepancies between the allegations in the notice and the order. This inconsistency hindered the petitioner from adequately addressing claims of income that had escaped assessment, as the income was already reported in the books and subject to original assessment. The impugned notice and order were set aside, allowing for the possibility of a new notice being issued if warranted by law.

SAYO SECURITY SERVICES PVT LTD VS DIRECTOR AND MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT, A.B.V.M.I.S AND DR. RAM MANOHAR LOHIA HOSPITAL & ANR. [W.P.(C)-17430/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Vibhu Bakhru, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decision to reject the petitioner's technical bid for managing parking services at Dr. R.M.L. Hospital was upheld due to the petitioner's failure to meet eligibility criteria outlined in the tender documents. The petitioner was not registered as an MSME for parking services and could not claim exemptions regarding past experience and turnover. The petition was dismissed without identifying any issues in the rejection decision.

SHRI SUNIL DHINGRA VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-1234/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Vibhu Bakhru, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Shri Sunil Dhingra was dismissed regarding the registration of a sale deed for a property he claimed an agreement to purchase. An inquiry revealed that the NOC for registration contained incorrect information, but the absence of official records prevented fixing responsibility on officials. Authorities had taken appropriate actions, including lodging an FIR and submitting a final report, which is pending. The appellant also pursued other legal remedies, such as a civil suit for specific performance and a protest petition against the FIR closure report. No further directions were deemed necessary.

THE COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX - INTERNATIONAL TAXATION -1 VS CRICKET AUSTRALIA [ITA-582/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice Vibhu Bakhru, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by the Commissioner of Income Tax - International Taxation -1 against the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal's decision favoring Cricket Australia was dismissed. The Tribunal had accepted Cricket Australia's appeal concerning the final assessment order under Section 147 of the Income Tax Act, stating that the reopening of the assessment lacked proper consideration by the Assessing Officer. The reasons recorded for reopening contained significant errors, paralleling issues found in another case involving Cricket South Africa, which had a similar outcome. This case fits within a larger context involving related ITAT orders for various cricket associations.

NESTLE INDIA LTD. & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-969/2020]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma

Section 171 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 is constitutionally valid and does not violate Article 246A of the Constitution or delegate essential legislative functions. This section requires suppliers to pass on benefits from reduced tax rates or increased input tax credits through corresponding price reductions, serving a consumer welfare purpose. It establishes a clear legislative policy, and the lack of a judicial member in the National Anti-Profiteering Authority does not render it unconstitutional. Concerns about arbitrary power can be addressed by reviewing specific orders on their merits, rather than invalidating the provisions.

ASHOK KUMAR SINGH AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [W.P.(C)-5930/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation seeking interpretation of Section 66 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 was dismissed as it raised a private cause and was already addressed in a prior Supreme Court judgment. Aggrieved parties were permitted to pursue the interpretation issue in appropriate proceedings, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open.

CHAUDHARY VENTURES PVT. LTD & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2230/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenged the dismissal of a securitization application by the Debt Recovery Tribunal. Key issues included non-service of possession notice under the SARFAESI Act, excessive interest rates, and unilateral changes in interest rates. The Chairperson of the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal in Delhi was on leave, prompting a directive for expeditious decision on the application for waiver of deposit and interim reliefs, to be resolved by March 15, 2024. The respondent bank is prohibited from taking any coercive actions against the petitioners until that date.

CITIZENS FOR DEMOCRACY THROUGH ITS SECRETARY VS THE ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-399/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation was dismissed, establishing that the High Court of Andhra Pradesh is the appropriate jurisdiction for challenges to the Andhra Pradesh government's G.O.M. dated 22nd June, 2019. The doctrine of forum convenience was applied, and it was noted that only one specific writ petition had been transferred to the Delhi High Court. The argument for Delhi as a more neutral forum was rejected, and the petitioner was granted liberty to raise grievances before the Andhra Pradesh High Court, without any commentary on the case's merits.

CONFEDERATION OF DELHI INDUSTRIES AND CETP SOCIETIES AND ORS VS THE SPECIAL COMMISSIONER OF INDUSTRY CUM APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY, CETP AND ORS [W.P.(C)-2762/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The notification by the Special Commissioner of Industry regarding the transfer of Common Effluent Treatment Plants (CETPs) managed by the petitioner societies was quashed due to violations of the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Act, 2000 and the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Rules, 2001. The required procedures, including providing a hearing to the petitioners, were not followed, which violated principles of natural justice. The Appropriate Authority is directed to issue a fresh and comprehensive show cause notice to the petitioners in accordance with the law.

COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-7594/2018]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A comprehensive judgment addressed waterlogging, flooding, and pollution issues in Delhi. The Government of NCT of Delhi must implement Drainage Master Plans with specific timelines for detailed project reports and administrative decisions. The management of stormwater drains must be assigned to a single department to improve coordination. Directions for rejuvenating water bodies include timelines for ground truthing, estimates, and restoration works. Authorities are tasked with installing rainwater harvesting systems in government buildings and promoting public participation. Additionally, measures for the restoration of the Yamuna river floodplains involve removing encroachments, developing biodiversity parks, and constructing platforms for religious activities. Rejuvenation of the Yamuna river includes dredging, creating ponds, and enhancing sewage treatment plant capacities.

CURRYMIA FOODS LTD. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH THE SECRETARY MINISTRY OF DEFENCE & ORS. [LPA-153/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Currymia Foods Ltd. appealed a decision regarding its removal from the approved list of ASC Contractors. Although the initial ruling allowed for the appeal to be considered, it did not permit the appellant to participate in the tender process. Currymia was actively supplying products to the respondents. The decision included a 10-day postponement of the technical evaluation of bids and a directive to resolve the appeal within a week. If the appeal is successful, Currymia can submit its bid within 48 hours. No commentary on the merits of the case was provided, and all parties' rights and claims remain open.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS ASHWANI KHURANA AND ORS [LPA-342/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) was dismissed due to delay and laches. The prior judgment had set aside an order under Section 81 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954, on the basis of limitation and the status of the land as non-agricultural following a zonal development plan notification. The issue of law remains open.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS NISHA KHURANA AND ORS [LPA-334/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeals filed by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) were dismissed due to a delay of over 1600 days, which remained substantial even after excluding the COVID-19 pandemic period. The appeals were previously allowed by a Single Judge, setting aside orders from the Court of Revenue Assistant regarding the Delhi Land Reforms Act, 1954. The issue of law was left open.

DR. SATENDRA SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7634/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Indian Nursing Council is directed to address the petitioner's representation regarding Clause 8 of the Indian Nursing Council (Revised) Regulations for the B.Sc. Nursing Program, which restricts disability reservations to individuals with 40-50% locomotor disability in lower extremities. The petitioner claims this clause discriminates against individuals with other disabilities, such as muscular dystrophy and low vision, and challenges the reduction of disability reservation from 5% to 3% by the National Testing Agency for the nursing entrance exam, asserting that it contravenes the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016. The matter is referred back for reconsideration.

DR. SUBHASH VIJAYRAN VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1347/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Transfer of investigation to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) occurs only in exceptional circumstances. The Commissioner of Police must address the petitioner's representation within one week, taking into account the alleged violation of the Delhi Police's standing orders and a prior directive regarding the promptness of the post-mortem examination. The Delhi Police are instructed to conduct the post-mortem examination with a panel of forensic doctors from a government medical college immediately. This situation is treated as an individual case rather than a collective matter.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI VS MEENAKSHI KHARE AND ORS. [LPA-360/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The orders for the re-appointment of Ms. Babita Varshney, Ms. Malti, and Mr. Sonu in the Air Force Gyan Jyoti School were upheld. Their appointments were deemed valid under applicable rules despite not meeting the eligibility criteria set by the Delhi School Education Act and Rules. The long and diligent service of these employees was recognized, and their appointments were not considered illegal due to technical non-compliance with eligibility requirements. The appeal by the Government of NCT of Delhi was dismissed.

HIMANSHU AND ORS VS DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF CIVIL AVIATION & ANR. [LPA-254/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The letters patent appeal challenging the ad-interim order regarding the DGCA's communication certifying the Pipistrel VIRUS SW 121 as a Light Sport Aeroplane was dismissed. The DGCA's certification did not prejudice the appellants since the initial classification as LSA occurred on 8th May, 2023. The communication was a response to the appellants' objections and did not resolve the parties' rights. Appropriate relief could be granted if the appellants succeed in the writ petition, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open.

IN RE: DESIGNATED COURTS FOR MPS/MLAS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1542/2020]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A comprehensive order was issued to expedite the disposal of criminal cases, appeals, and revisions involving members of Parliament and Legislative Assemblies. The registry was instructed to re-allocate 34 pending cases with stay orders to other courts for quicker resolution of stay applications and trial conclusions. Additionally, a directive was given to prioritize cases punishable by death or life imprisonment, followed by those with imprisonment of five years or more, with restrictions on adjourning these cases except in rare circumstances. The aim is to ensure effective and swift handling of these criminal matters.

INDIWAR PARIJAT VS NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED & ORS. [LPA-344/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The letters patent appeal filed by Indiwar Parijat was dismissed, challenging the order directing the National Insurance Company to pay compensation to other respondents, with a right of recovery from the appellant. The appeal was deemed not maintainable as it amounted to a second appeal, which is barred under Section 100A of the Code of Civil Procedure. Subsequent amendments to Section 100A have eliminated the ability to entertain letters patent appeals against orders from a single judge in appeals.

JAMIA ARABIA NIZAMIA WELFARE EDUCATION SOCIETY VS 1. DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY THROUGH ITS VICE CHAIRMAN & ORS. [W.P.(C)-638/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Massive illegal construction occurred at Khasra No. 556, Ziyrat Guest House, near historic monuments in Nizamuddin, Delhi, with support from statutory authorities. The property, allegedly owned by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), has been encroached upon, with ownership disputes involving the Delhi Waqf Board. Various authorities failed to take effective action against the illegal construction. Mr. Babu Ali purchased the sealed property and continued unauthorized building activities. An investigation was assigned to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), and the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) and DDA were instructed to conduct inquiries and improve strategies to combat encroachment and unauthorized construction, highlighting the need for better coordination and enforcement among regulatory bodies.

K JEEVAN RITA MURTHY VS SARABJIT SINGH (SINCE DECEASED) & ANR. [FAO(OS)-67/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by K Jeevan Rita Murthy challenging the denial of her application for substitution as the legal representative of the deceased defendant was dismissed. Claims of ownership based on an unregistered will would alter the nature of the suit from possession to title determination, exceeding the original suit's scope. The dismissal of the application for her impleadment as the legal representative was deemed inappropriate.

K JEEVAN RITA MURTHY VS SARABJIT SINGH (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH LRS. AND ANR. [FAO(OS)-66/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The impugned order allows the Receiver to take over physical possession of the suit property and evict K. Jeevan Rita Murthy. She was not a party to the original suit, and her application for substitution as the legal representative of the deceased defendant was dismissed. The appellant had previously provided an undertaking agreeing to vacate the property and not claim any rights or title, which she breached by overstaying. The pendency of her review petition does not affect the order due to her prior undertaking and the limited permission granted.

K.R ANAND VS DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION & ORS. [LPA-231/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The letters patent appeal by K.R. Anand was dismissed, challenging the earlier dismissal of his writ petition for the release of dues from the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC). The appeal was characterized as a civil suit for recovery, requiring evidence appreciation, which is not suitable for a writ petition. The Letter of Award from the principal contractor stipulated arbitration as the alternative dispute resolution mechanism and prevented Anand from seeking direct relief from DMRC. The appeal lacked merit and was dismissed.

KAMAL KANT RACHHOYA VS MANISH RACHHOYA [FAO(OS)-15/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the appointment of a Local Commissioner to record evidence was dismissed. The Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018 mandate such appointments. The cited case of Nikhil Gupta vs. Tanu Gupta was deemed distinguishable, as it involved a trial court and did not address the High Court Rules. The appellant's arguments were rejected.

KHIRKI VILLAGE RESIDENT WELFARE ASSOCIATION VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6883/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest petition was filed by the Khirki Village Resident Welfare Association seeking the reconstruction of a demolished municipal school, which was halted by the Archaeological Survey of India due to its location near the Tomb of Yusuf Qattal. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi applied for fresh permission for reconstruction under the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958, which permits renovations in prohibited areas. The competent authority is to decide on the MCD's applications in accordance with the law, preferably within six weeks, while preserving the rights of all parties involved.

M/S ECARTES TECHNOLOGY PVT LTD VS NICDC LOGISTICS DATA SERVICES LTD AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-7032/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

NICDC Logistics Data Services Ltd must decide M/s Ecartes Technology Pvt Ltd's representations against the disqualification of its bid for supplying RFID Tags and RFID Tag Applicators within two weeks, in accordance with law. The petitioner's claims of product compliance with tender requirements have not yet been addressed. The merits of the case remain unexamined, and the rights and contentions of both parties are preserved.

M/S TRICOLOR INDIA SCHAUSPIEL PVT LTD VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LTD. & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10859/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by M/S Tricolor India Schauspiel Pvt Ltd challenging the tender awarded to M/S E Factor Experiences Limited for a project at Golconda Fort was dismissed. The main contention regarding over 70% of the bill of quantities not being manufactured in India was found to be incorrect, as verified by the Tender Evaluation Committee. There were no false representations by other bidders concerning local content. Additionally, the tender was fully executed by M/S E Factor Experiences Limited, and no further action was necessary.

MAA JHANDEWALI CO-OPERATIVE URBAN THRIFT AND CREDIT SOCIETY THROUGH ITS SECRETARY VS THE REGISTRAR OF COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES AND ANR [W.P.(C)-1699/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order appointing a Returning Officer for the elections of the Maa Jhandewali Co-operative Urban Thrift and Credit Society's Managing Committee was set aside. The Registrar's action did not comply with the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act, 2003, which mandates that one-sixth of the members must request the appointment of a Returning Officer after the election process has begun. An Observer was appointed to oversee the elections, and the Petitioner-Society is responsible for the Observer's fee.

MAYAPURI CETP SOCIETY VS THE SPECIAL COMMISSIONER OFINDUSTRY CUM APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY CETP AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1558/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The notification issued by the Special Commissioner of Industry cum Appropriate Authority CETP was quashed due to violations of the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Act, 2000, and the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Rules, 2001. The notification lacked adherence to the proper procedure outlined in Section 14 of the CETP Act and Rule 9 of the CETP Rules, and the petitioner was not informed of the relevant order dated January 4, 2023, which denied them the right to appeal under Section 13 of the CETP Act. A new and comprehensive show cause notice must be issued to the petitioner in compliance with the law.

MERITECH SOFTWARE PVT. LTD. VS BHARAT SANCHAR NIGAM LTD. [W.P.(C)-4568/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Meritech Software Pvt. Ltd. was wrongly disqualified by Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. from a tender for RF Tools and Testers. Clause 4.1.7 of the tender document, disqualifying bidders sharing a land border with India, did not apply as Meritech is an Indian manufacturer with 100% Indian ownership and Intellectual Property Rights. The petitioner was not considered an "agent" of Lenovo and OnePlus merely for proposing their hardware as raw materials. BSNL is instructed to treat the writ petition as a representation and resolve the matter with a reasoned order within 10 days, while preserving the rights and contentions of both parties.

MRS. SAROJ NIJHAWAN & ORS. VS MRS. SEEMA CHHABRA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-47/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the dismissal of the application for condonation of delay in filing the replication to the written statement was dismissed. The written statements were accepted after the appellants' counsel expressed "no objection." It was emphasized that the appellants could have submitted the replication without prejudice to their rights, even during mediation. A previous ruling established that the relevant procedural rule regarding timely filing is mandatory.

MS RAMAN SHARMA VS MS PREM LATA PRABHAKAR AND ORS [FAO(OS)-44/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the order condoning the delay in filing the amended written statement was dismissed. The appellant's counsel had previously given 'no objection' to the amended statement, which constituted a conscious waiver of the right to oppose it. The case law cited by the appellant was deemed inapplicable, as a decree passed in a suit barred by limitation is not considered a nullity. The appeal was dismissed as lacking merit.

PANNA LAL AND OTHERS VS CHOLAMANDALAM INVESTMENT AND FINANCE COMPANY LTD & ANR. [W.P.(C)-2682/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Orders from the Debt Recovery Tribunal-I rejecting the petitioners' securitization application and application for a restraining order against the respondent financial institution, as well as the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's appointment of a Receiver for possession of the mortgaged property, are valid. The respondent financial institution is directed not to take further coercive action against the petitioners until March 15, 2024, provided the petitioners file their appeal before the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal by March 1, 2024. A directive is also given for the Chairperson of the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal to address the petitioners' interim application or the entire appeal before March 15, 2024.

RAGHAV AWASTHI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2415/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Raghav Awasthi for guidelines against media speculation on intelligence officers was dismissed. Assertions made were deemed mere conjecture and did not demonstrate that the news article harmed the officers' careers or endangered their families. The matter involved press freedom and the right to know, with the government retaining authority to act against publications threatening national security. The petition and related application were dismissed.

RAKESH GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7966/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by Rakesh Gupta, seeking action on alleged corruption and maladministration by Kendriya Bhandar officials, was dismissed. A committee appointed by the Chief Vigilance Officer found no malafide intent from Kendriya Bhandar employees, attributing observed irregularities to the effects of demonetization. Additionally, the Income Tax Department accepted Kendriya Bhandar's income tax returns for the relevant years without issues. Therefore, no grounds existed to consider the public interest petition. The petitioner retains the option to pursue legal recourse independently.

RAVINDER TYAGI VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4708/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest litigation was filed by Ravinder Tyagi challenging the removal of 23 peepal trees by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi for parking area redevelopment. The petitioner did not provide prior notice or obtain the project sanction plan. It was unclear if the trees were actually cut, conflicting with the MCD's earlier statement. The Deputy Commissioner of MCD was instructed to treat the petition as a representation and issue a reasoned decision within four weeks, allowing the petitioner to pursue further legal action if dissatisfied.

RIKA GLOBAL IMPEX LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14212/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Rika Global Impex Ltd withdrew its original writ petition but did not receive specific permission to file a new petition on the same cause of action in another court. The intent to file a new writ in the Bombay High Court was not communicated, preventing any grant of such liberty. The maintainability of the new petition is left to the Bombay High Court.

SAMEER BAHADUR VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-5126/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by Sameer Bahadur to quash the SARFAESI/recovery action by the bank was dismissed. The ongoing appeals before the DRAT were scheduled for a hearing on May 13, 2024, and the petitioner was advised to request an early hearing, which would be decided according to the law. No specific orders were issued as the appeals were pending.

SANJAY YADAV VS DELHI TRANSPORT INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4964/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation challenging the removal of a bus queue shelter at Guru Gobind Singh Marg, New Delhi, was dismissed due to being contrary to facts and misconceived in law. Respondents 3, 4, 6, and 7 were found to have no connection to the matter. Respondents 11 and 12 demonstrated that they purchased land near the removed shelter after its removal, which occurred at the request of the Resident Welfare Association (RWA), Karol Bagh. No violation of the petitioner's constitutional right to life, including rights to clean air and a pollution-free environment, was established as a result of the removal.

SH SUNNY SACHDEVA VS ACP NORTH RTI CELL AND ANR [LPA-308/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Sh. Sunny Sachdeva was dismissed. He accepted the amended replies to his queries as true, leaving him to file an appropriate application before the Single Judge. Since departmental action has already been initiated against the erring officials, he cannot raise a grievance about inaction and must await the conclusion of departmental proceedings before addressing such issues.

SH. ANUJ MALHOTRA VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4735/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest petition seeking a ban on cross-gender massages in spas and a directive to share recordings with the Delhi Commission for Women was dismissed due to the pending challenge of the "Guidelines for Operation of Spas/Massage Centers in Delhi" in another proceeding. The clause prohibiting cross-gender massages is currently stayed, and the authorities are tasked with ensuring spas operate with valid licenses. The present petition cannot be entertained as the issue is already under consideration.

SHAHPUR JAT VILLAGE SOCIETY VS COMMISSIONER OF POLICE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5406/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest petition by the Shahpur Jat Village Society addressed non-functional traffic signals in Delhi, specifically noting that the signal at the main entry into Shahpur Jat Village/Asiad Village had been out of order since March 2024. Despite complaints to the authorities, no action was taken. It was stated that the signal would be repaired by the evening of 17th April 2024. The petitioner's representation regarding the issue is to be considered by the Lieutenant Governor in accordance with the law.

SHARANJEET KAUR VS IDBI BANK LTD [LPA-417/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant's writ petition challenging the closure of her complaint against the General Manager of the bank was dismissed. An appeal under Section 18 of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition And Redressal) Act, 2013 (POSH Act) was deemed the appropriate remedy, despite the absence of a formal inquiry. Recommendations from the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) under Section 13(2) of the POSH Act were considered appealable. The argument regarding the maintainability of the petition was also rejected, as prior orders allowed for objection on maintainability without prejudice.

SHRIKANT PRASAD VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-6521/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest petition regarding the Chief Minister of Delhi's interaction with the Delhi Assembly and Cabinet Ministers via video conferencing while in judicial custody was dismissed. The Chief Minister has challenged his arrest in the Supreme Court, which is considering interim relief. There was no imposition of media censorship or restrictions on political rivals' protests or statements calling for his resignation, as the conditions did not warrant emergency or martial law. The petitioner must deposit Rs. 1 lakh with the AIIMS Poor Fund Account.

SMT SUMAN LATA GUPTA VS REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6842/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioner, Smt. Suman Lata Gupta, is entitled to have the records of the arbitration case summoned. The Registrar Cooperative Society (RCS) is instructed not to proceed with arbitration until the writ petition is resolved. The RCS must also dispose of the petitioner's petition and any future applications for renting out her flat within two months, in accordance with law. The decision considers the petitioner's personal circumstances and the delay in adjudicating disputes under Section 70 of the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003.

SOCIAL JURIST, A CIVIL RIGHTS GROUP VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-14964/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest litigation resulted in the acceptance of a status report from the Government of NCT of Delhi regarding six newly constructed school buildings. Two schools are already operational, while one will be ready by the end of summer vacation, and others will be functional by August and October 2024. The Delhi government and Directorate of Education are bound by the assurances provided, with compliance set for review on October 8, 2024.

SUNAYANA SIBAL & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13236/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A writ petition was addressed concerning the health and well-being of Delhi citizens, focusing on the quality of milk produced by cows and buffaloes consuming toxic waste from the Bhalaswa landfill. Dairy owners adjacent to the landfill are to be relocated to Ghogha dairy, with directives for necessary infrastructure, including a grazing area, biogas plant, veterinary hospital, and integrated milk plant, to ensure the production of safe milk. The emphasis is on health, hygiene, and animal welfare. Authorities are instructed to submit reports and plans, including a master plan for Ghogha dairy and specific layout plans.

SUNAYANA SIBAL & ORS. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13236/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Department of Drugs Control is directed to conduct weekly inspections and register cases against the use of spurious Oxytocin, a cognizable offense under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act and the Drugs and Cosmetics Act. Previous directives for relocating designated dairies outside the municipal zone of Delhi were not complied with. Immediate relocation of Ghazipur Dairy and Bhalaswa Dairy is ordered due to public health hazards, with emphasis on finding areas with proper infrastructure. Relevant officials are to be consulted regarding land availability for the relocation.

SURENDRA MOHAN & ANR. VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [W.P.(C)-7388/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging an order of the DRT-I, Delhi was dismissed due to the involvement of disputed questions of fact. The petitioners were advised to raise their contentions before the DRT, as effective alternative remedies are available under the DRT Act and SARFAESI Act. The petitioners retain the right to present their case in accordance with the law.

SURESH KUMAR GUPTA & ANR VS SHRILATA AGARWAL(NOW DECEASED THROUGH HER LR'S) & ORS. [FAO(OS)-129/2017]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the order allowing the amendment of the plaintiff's plaint was allowed. Mediation at the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre was successful, resulting in a lawful Settlement Agreement between the parties. The underlying suit was decreed in accordance with the Settlement Agreement dated 28th March, 2024, with directions for the preparation of a decree sheet based on the Settlement Agreement.

SURJIT SINGH YADAV VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4578/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest petition seeking a writ of quo warranto to remove the Chief Minister of NCT of Delhi was dismissed. The ability to remove or dismiss the Chief Minister or declare a breakdown of constitutional machinery is designated to other state organs according to the law. There was no comment on the merits of the allegations against the Chief Minister, who faced arrest in a money laundering case.

T.V. TODAY NETWORK LIMITED AND ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4912/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

T.V. Today Network Limited challenged the constitutionality of Rule 3(1)(c) of the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021, following the suspension of their Instagram account "@bazaarindia" due to copyright complaints. The petitioners claimed that the suspension lacked necessary safeguards and that the broad language of the Rules grants excessive discretion to intermediaries, violating constitutional rights. An appeal before the Grievance Appellate Committee was advised, with a request for an expedited decision within two weeks.

WE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(CRL)-1203/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The cost of Rs. 75,000 imposed on the petitioner was waived after an unconditional apology was tendered and acknowledgment of the mistake was made. The contentions in the writ petition were contrary to facts, and the legal submissions were deemed untenable. Due to the petitioner's financial situation as a student from a lower-middle-class family, the cost was waived. The petitioner was directed to attach copies of the previous judgment and the current order in any future proceedings.

AKARSHAN BHAWAN FLAT OWNERS WELFARE ASSOCIATION AKARSHAN BHAVAN AND ANOTHER VS SUSHIL KUMAR JAIN AND OTHERS [FAO(OS)-72/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The removal of overhead water tanks and fire safety equipment from the building's roof was deemed improper and illegal, as these facilities are essential for the occupants' use and enjoyment. The occupants have easement rights to access the roof for installing and maintaining the necessary equipment. The responsible party must allow the restoration of the removed equipment and provide uninterrupted access for maintenance. The occupants are also required to comply with fire safety requirements within a specified time to obtain the fire safety certificate.

ANITA KUMAR VS REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11616/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Jyoti CGHS Ltd. cannot obstruct the implementation of arbitral awards in favor of the petitioners, which the Delhi Co-operative Tribunal has upheld. The petitioners have tendered the due amounts, and the society must accept the payments and issue no-dues and no-objection certificates. This involves multiple writ petitions addressing the same legal issue.

ANKIT KUMAR VS INDIAN RAILWAY CATERING AND TOURISM CORPORATION LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3720/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition from a Micro Enterprise challenging the notice inviting e-open tender (NIT) for onboard catering services was dismissed. The petitioner, despite potential exemption from the earnest money deposit requirement, was ineligible due to failure to meet the technical criteria outlined in the NIT. The petitioner's delay in approaching the court on the final submission date was noted as barred by laches. The petitioner is allowed to challenge Commercial Circular No. 24/2023 related to the NIT in an appropriate forum.

ANKUR GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS [W.P.(CRL)-3573/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation petition was dismissed due to the Income Tax Department's prior examination of the relevant transaction during a block assessment, which did not reveal grounds for further investigation. Additionally, a previous writ petition by the same petitioner against a common respondent was dismissed as motivated, indicating that the current PIL would not serve the interests of justice.

APEEJAY SCHOOL, SHEIKH SARAI VS SANDEEP KUMAR & ANR. [LPA-402/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeals filed by Apeejay School, Sheikh Sarai, against a judgment directing admission for the wards of the respondents in Nursery/Pre-Primary class were dismissed. The school's claim regarding an interim order in a separate writ petition did not exempt it from the obligation to comply with the computerized draw of lots by the Directorate of Education. The respondents, asserting their fundamental rights under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009, were not affected by the interim order. The reasoning provided for rejecting the school's arguments was deemed sound, leading to the upholding of the judgment.

APRESH GARG & ANR. VS INDIAN BANK (ERSTWHILE ALLAHABAD BANK) [W.P.(C)-3217/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The bank's proceedings before the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT) were initiated before the insolvency proceedings against the petitioners. However, the interim order issued by the DRT on January 4, 2024 is invalid due to the statutory moratorium under Section 96 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). Consequently, the interim order has been quashed, and the DRT proceedings will remain stayed, pending further directions from the competent authority under the IBC.

ARUN KHANNA VS VINOD KHANNA [LPA-235/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant's Letters Patent Appeal challenging the dismissal of a contempt petition was dismissed because an appeal cannot be maintained against an order that declines to initiate contempt proceedings. The appeal was found not to pertain to the merits of the underlying dispute, making it not maintainable. The appellant was granted the opportunity to file appropriate proceedings according to the law.

ASHOKA ENCLAVE COOP. G/H SOCIETY LTD. THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT /SECRETARY VS REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4421/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by the cooperative society was dismissed, affirming the Returning Officer's removal of Respondent Nos. 3 and 4 from the defaulter list. The interpretation of cooperative law by the Returning Officer was deemed reasonable, as the society's claims against the respondents were disputed and pending. Entertaining the petition at this stage would disrupt the scheduled cooperative society elections.

AVIAXPERT PVT LTD VS AI AIRPORT SERVICES LTD & ANR. [W.P.(C)-7263/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The disqualification of the petitioner's tender bid was upheld due to the Consortium Agreement's vagueness, lacking clear intent and binding obligations. The rejection of the bid was deemed prudent given the deficiencies in the MoU. The petitioner's disqualification meant a lack of locus to challenge the tender award to Respondent No. 2. The writ petitions filed by the petitioner were dismissed.

AZAD MARKET WELFARE ASSOCIATION & ANR. VS STATE (GNCT OF DELHI) THROUGH ENGINEER-IN-CHIEF & ORS. [LPA-350/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by the Azad Market Welfare Association against the dismissal of their writ petition regarding the Municipal Corporation of Delhi's construction of a retaining wall for an underpass project was dismissed. The retaining wall, designed by technical experts and approved by the relevant committee, cannot be modified as requested by the appellants. No merit was found in the appeal, with a clear stance that the opinions of technical experts should not be substituted.

BALBIR SINGH SAINI AND ORS VS GANGA DUTT SAINI AND ORS [LPA-355/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the valuation of a suit property in a partition suit was dismissed. The objection regarding valuation will be decided at trial, and the valuation report submitted by the appellants must be proven according to the law, as it was not admitted by the respondents. The objection concerning court fees, based on payment for only a 1/3rd share claim, was rejected, as valuation principles for court fees and jurisdiction in partition suits are established. The appeal was deemed not maintainable.

BALJIT SINGH VS DELHI MEDICAL COUNCIL & ANR. [LPA-6/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Baljit Singh against the Delhi Medical Council's Disciplinary Committee's order was dismissed. The Committee found no medical negligence by Dr. B.B. Chanana in the treatment of Baljit Singh's father on July 26, 2020. The findings were based on expert medical opinions, indicating that the treatment was appropriate given the patient's medical history and symptoms. A failure to conduct additional tests did not constitute gross or culpable negligence. Baljit Singh did not demonstrate any error in the Committee's conclusions.

BEJON KUMAR MISRA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-11543/2019]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation (PIL) concerning PMC Bank was dismissed due to previously decided issues in prior judgments regarding affected deposit holders. The insurance cover for PMC Bank depositors has been increased from R.S. 1 lakh to R.S. 5 lakhs per account, rendering specific prayers in the PIL unnecessary. Matters related to 100% insurance cover and dual regulation of cooperative banks fall under executive and legislative jurisdiction, not subject to further judicial directions.

BHARAT NIDHI LIMITED VS SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE BOARD OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-48/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The cause of action for challenging the SEBI revocation order primarily arose in Mumbai, not within Delhi's territorial jurisdiction. The facts cited by the appellants, such as the registered office in Delhi and receipt of the order there, are not central to the cause of action. The doctrine of forum conveniens indicates that the High Court of Bombay is the appropriate venue, as events related to the case occurred in Mumbai. Appeals were dismissed, affirming the decision not to entertain the writ petitions in Delhi.

CAPT RAMINDER SINGH WADHWA VS AXIS BANK LIMITED AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6766/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Respondent No. 1 Bank had a valid mortgage over the property created in 2006 and registered on the CERSAI portal in 2013, prior to the petitioner's 2011 purchase. Under the Transfer of Property Act, Respondent No. 1 Bank had priority over the petitioner's lender, Respondent No. 7 Bank. The delay in registering Respondent No. 1 Bank's security interest on the CERSAI portal did not extinguish its rights under the SARFAESI Act, as amendments extended the registration time.

CHANDIGARH HORSE RIDERS SOCIETY CHANDIGARH VS EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY GENERAL & ORS. [LPA-449/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Executive Committee of the Equestrian Federation of India (EFI) has been reinstated as it existed on December 18, 2019, with Lt. Col. Ashish Malik and Maj. Ritika Dahiya replacing Ms. Vanita Malhotra and Lt. Col. Raj Sangram Singh. This arrangement precedes the Paris Olympics 2024, and relevant writ petitions will be handled for rapid resolution, with all parties' rights and claims remaining open.

CHETAN PURI AND ANR VS SUNITA REKHI AND ORS [FAO(OS)-74/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal against the order allowing further cross-examination of appellant no. 1 on bank statements was dismissed as the order was procedural and not a final judgment. The appellants may challenge the order later if the final decree is unfavorable. The respondents were instructed to complete the cross-examination within two hearings.

CISB SERVICES PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16756/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Tenders should be awarded in equal shares to all four technically qualified bidders, including the Petitioner and Respondent No. 4, despite Respondent No. 4 not being an MSE. A mistake was made in selecting the 'MSE Purchased Preference' option on the GEM portal, and the bidding process took six months to complete. The decision to award the tenders to the four eligible L1 bidders aligns with public interest.

CONFEDERATION OF NCR RESIDENTS WELFARE ASSOCIATIONS (REGD.) & ORS VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-10333/2015]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation filed by the Confederation of NCR Residents Welfare Associations to quash agreements related to the Delhi Noida Bridge Project was dismissed. A similar case is pending before the High Court of Allahabad, which has already issued directions regarding user fees from the concessionaire, currently under appeal in the Supreme Court. Additionally, investigations by the Serious Fraud Investigation Office and the National Company Law Tribunal concerning the concessionaire and its parent company are ongoing. No further directions were deemed necessary due to these active proceedings.

DAGAJI BAPU GRAPE GROWERS CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY LTD. & ANR. VS DISTRICT MAGISTRATE (SOUTH EAST), RETURNING OFFICER, NAFED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6830/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition by Dagaji Bapu Grape Growers Co-operative Society Ltd. and its representative for the restoration of the representative's name in the electoral list for NAFED elections was dismissed. The petition was deemed not maintainable under the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960, due to the appointment of an Official Liquidator on 19th September 2019, which resulted in the vacancy of the Society's officers and the general body's inability to exercise power. Although the Society's challenge to the cancellation of its registration was allowed on 07th May 2024, the appointment of the Official Liquidator remains in effect.

DELHI ADVERTISING CGHS LTD VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1682/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The arbitral award and the order of the Delhi Cooperative Tribunal were upheld in favor of Mahesh Belwal's legal heirs and BD Belwal. The three-month period for challenging the award commenced from the first date of hearing before the arbitrator. The challenge to the validity of Mahesh Belwal and BD Belwal's membership was rejected due to the absence of any cancellation order from the Registrar of Cooperative Societies. The society was restricted from interfering with the possession and enjoyment of the flat by the respondents, which had been allotted to BD Belwal.

DHRUV CHAWLA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5931/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation (PIL) filed by Dhruv Chawla challenging the tender conditions in Bid Number GEM/2024/B/4798585 was dismissed. The challenge was deemed not maintainable as the "persons aggrieved" would be the potential bidders, not the general public. The petitioner, a practicing advocate, lacked the status of an aggrieved bidder.

DINKAR KUMAR AND ORS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-2844/2014]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition challenging the constitutional validity of statutory provisions allowing direct appeals to the Supreme Court from tribunal orders was dismissed. The Supreme Court has previously upheld that the jurisdiction of High Courts under Articles 226 and 227 cannot be bypassed by legislation allowing direct appeals. The constitutionality of the specific provisions in question has also been reaffirmed. The argument for "reading down" the provisions was rejected, as courts cannot amend legislation. The challenges to the statutory provisions do not merit further consideration based on established precedents.

DR NAMIT GUPTA VS DELHI MEDICAL COUNCIL AND ANR [W.P.(C)-2635/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public notice from the Delhi Medical Council (DMC) mandating medical practitioners in Delhi to register with the DMC is upheld. The legal framework necessitates registration with the state medical council where the doctor practices. This requirement is essential for the DMC to regulate and discipline medical practitioners. Regulations also allow doctors to transfer their registration to another state council when changing jobs. The writ petition challenging this requirement is dismissed.

DR. ARCHANA OJHA AND ANR. VS DR. SHAILENDRA OJHA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-2486/2019]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Tribunal's order directing the Registrar of Co-operative Societies to refer the claim of Respondent No. 1 to arbitration under Section 70 of the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act, 2003, was upheld. The petitioners can seek proof of the validity of the nomination and raise the plea of limitation in the arbitration proceedings, which will be considered by the Arbitrator.

DR. SANDIP VINAYAK INGLE & ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5987/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The government's appointment of the Advisory Council to the Veterinary Council of India was deemed unsustainable due to its violation of a previous consensual order to hold elections for the VCI President and Vice-President. The failure to convene a meeting for the election and the subsequent appointment of the Advisory Council were considered erroneous. The order constituting the Advisory Council was quashed, and the VCI Secretary was directed to call a meeting within five weeks for the election of the President and Vice-President, allowing the existing elected and nominated members to vote. The challenge to the appointment of the VCI Secretary was not addressed.

DSIDC AND UDYOG NAGAR CETP SOCIETY & ANR. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1385/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The notification transferring the management of a Common Effluent Treatment Plant (CETP) was quashed due to violations of the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Act, 2000, and the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Rules, 2001. The petitioner was not informed about the order from the Appropriate Authority, hindering the right of appeal. Additionally, the issuance of a fresh show cause notice suggested that the previous order was no longer valid. A fresh and comprehensive show cause notice must be issued to the petitioner in compliance with the law.

E5 INFRASTRUCTURE PRIVATE LIMITED VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [LPA-249/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by E5 Infrastructure Private Limited was dismissed due to the appellant's blameworthy conduct. The managing director and employees faced charges related to the murder of an employee linked to disputes from a construction agreement. Extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 was not warranted for a party with such conduct, even with pending allegations. The appellant retains the option to pursue alternative remedies as per the law.

EJAZ HAIDER ZAIDI & ORS. VS CA CO-OPERATIVE T/C SOCIETY LTD. [W.P.(C)-12918/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order of the Delhi Cooperative Tribunal (DCT) dismissing the petitioners' appeal against an arbitral award was upheld. The petitioners participated in the arbitral proceedings, and their argument regarding the loan being taken at the behest of a third party was deemed an insufficient defense against repayment liability. The challenge to the arbitral award and the application for a stay were rejected, confirming the validity of the DCT's order.

FEDERATION OF SARITAVIHAR RESIDENT WELFARE ASSOCIATION VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8412/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation petition by the Federation of Sarita Vihar Resident Welfare Association was disposed of with a directive for Respondent No. 4 to address the representation made through a legal notice. A speaking order must be issued in accordance with law within four weeks. No findings were made on the merits of the allegations regarding inadequate car-parking spaces at the 336-bedded hospital site in Sarita Vihar, New Delhi.

G HEMANT VS REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6395/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioner was deemed ineligible for membership in the Mianwali District Cooperative House Building Society Ltd due to Rule 25 of the Delhi Cooperative Societies Rules, 1973, which disqualifies individuals if they, their spouse, or dependent children own a residential house or plot in Delhi. The petitioner's mother, an executive member of the society, had been allotted a plot, and the petitioner and his younger brother were financially dependent on their parents at the time of application. Allowing the petitioner's enrollment would contradict the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 1972, intended to benefit economically weaker sections. A 1988 Memorandum relied upon by the petitioner was invalidated for being contrary to the Act and the Rules.

GAUTAM KUMAR LAHA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5698/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation concerning undertrial prisoners in overcrowded Delhi prisons was dismissed due to the ongoing consideration of these issues in a separate Supreme Court writ petition. Existing steps include the formulation of a Standard Operating Procedure for Undertrial Review Committees and directives for states and Union Territories regarding jail infrastructure. As the matters are already being addressed, there was no basis to entertain the petition.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI VS HUSSAIN ALI & ANR. [LPA-101/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Directorate of Education's decision to cancel the admission of a student in Sachdeva Public School under the EWS/DG category was deemed unjustified. The student had incorrectly listed certain localities in the online application, but the correct residential address was provided, and the localities mentioned were nearby. This did not constitute material misrepresentation sufficient to warrant cancellation. Additionally, the failure to communicate the cancellation decision to the student's parents caused them harassment, leading to the imposition of costs on the Directorate of Education.

HAIDER ALI VS BOARD OF CONTROL OF CRICKET IN INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7820/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A public interest litigation (PIL) sought to require the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) and Delhi Capitals to pay the Delhi Police for security during Indian Premier League (IPL) matches. The Delhi Police had not negotiated any fees with the BCCI or Delhi Capitals, resulting in no outstanding dues. The decision not to charge for security was deemed a policy decision without grounds for court interference.

HARJIT SINGH KENT VS SHRI BALBIR SINGH KAINTH [LPA-210/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Harjit Singh Kent to reopen the defendant's evidence in a civil suit was dismissed. The appellant failed to demonstrate the relevance of additional witnesses, whose testimony was unlikely to provide new material evidence. The previous counsel had consciously closed the defendant's evidence, and the request to reopen it after a substantial delay appeared to aim at delaying the proceedings. The decision to close the evidence was considered, and no merit was found in the appeal.

HINDUSTAN PETROLEUM CORPORATION LIMITED VS PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS REGULATORY BOARD AND ANOTHER [LPA-269/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The APTEL's orders to implead Reliance Industries Ltd. (RIL) in appeals by Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd. (BPCL) and Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd. (HPCL) challenging the PNGRB's classification of the ATF pipeline as a common carrier were upheld. RIL, having initially requested the declaration, had a significant interest in the outcome. Its involvement was deemed necessary for effective adjudication of the appeals. The appeals by BPCL and HPCL were dismissed.

IFUNA CO-OPERATIVE GROUP HOUSING SOCIETIES LTD. VS THE REGISTRAR, CO-OPEARIVE SOCIETIES, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15913/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The requirement of domicile in Delhi was not applicable for co-operative society membership in 1986 when the respondent applied, according to the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act, 1972 and Rules, 1973. The 1997 amendment imposing a 3-year Delhi residency requirement was not properly notified and thus not applicable. The previous orders validating the respondent's membership remain in effect.

IKHLAS AHMED CHAWLA VS ABDUL RASHEED & ORS. [FAO(OS)-28/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order dismissing the appellant's applications for condonation of delay in filing replications was set aside. The decision on these applications was to be awaited until the outcome of the respondents' pending applications for condonation of delay in their written statements. With the consent of the parties, delays were condoned for both the appellant's replications and the respondents' written statements to facilitate the disposal of the suit. The parties were directed to file their respective affidavits of admission/denial of documents within two weeks.

INDER PRATAP SINGH AKOI (THROUGH HIS DULY CONSTITUTED ATTORNEY) VS SHRI HARI MOHAN SHARMA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-24/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant (plaintiff no. 6) was not a party to the consent decree for specific performance in favor of respondent nos. 1, 3, and 10, with its rights against the decree holders expressly reserved. The appellant is permitted to file an independent suit against them, unaffected by the bar under Order 23 Rule 3A of the CPC. The application to set aside the consent decree was dismissed, with no basis found for interference with the prior judgment.

INDUPAL KAUR SEHGAL VS DR. DAVINDER PAL SINGH REKHI & ORS. [FAO(OS)-65/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal challenging the dismissal of an application to amend the plaint in a partition suit was dismissed. The proposed amendment aimed to contest a 1976 partition decree on grounds of fraud, which would shift the case to a suit for declaration, deemed impermissible. The appellant, as a legal heir of the late Sh. Prehlad Singh Rekhi, is barred from contesting the 1976 decree to which he agreed during his lifetime.

ISHRAR AHMED VS ICICI BANK LIMITED AND ANR [W.P.(C)-4535/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Debts Recovery Tribunal's dismissal of objections to the seizure of property was upheld. The sale deed dated 4 March 2005 transferring the property to the respondent-borrower was deemed valid, leaving the previous owner with no rights. A subsequent general power of attorney executed by the previous owner was considered invalid, as a general power of attorney does not transfer title in immovable property, which must occur through a sale deed. The petitioner's writ petition challenging the Tribunal's order was rejected.

JACOB VADAKKANCHERY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-5120/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation petition was dismissed, confirming that the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1945 and the Pharmacy Practice Regulations, 2015 require manufacturers and pharmacists to inform patients about potential drug risks and side effects. Directing medical practitioners to provide this information would constitute judicial legislation, which is beyond the scope of judicial review. Previous Supreme Court precedents indicate that courts cannot instruct the legislature on law-making processes.

JANAK DATWANI VS CNA EXPORTS PVT LTD & ORS. [FAO(OS)-43/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The first appeal by Janak Datwani against the designation of CS(OS) 1113/2007 as the lead suit was dismissed. CS(OS) 118/2007 had initially been designated as the lead suit but was abated, leading to the selection of the oldest suit, CS(OS) 1113/2007. The argument for CS(OS) 556/2008 to be the lead suit was rejected. The order was deemed not appealable under the Delhi High Court Act, 1966, as it did not meet the criteria for a 'judgment'. The appeal was dismissed due to a lack of merit in the arguments presented.

KANIKA SINGHAL & ORS. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-6450/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The amendment to Clause 4.4.3B(v) of the Master Plan of Delhi (MPD) in 2020 conforms with the Delhi Development Act, 1957. It eliminates the dual transfer process of Economically Weaker Section (EWS) flats, preventing allottees from paying stamp duty twice. The original condition regarding the use of the CPWD cost index became redundant with the direct transfer from the Developing Entity (DE) to EWS allottees. A challenge to the price fixed for EWS flats was dismissed as it aligned with the tentative price disclosed in the 2023 scheme brochure.

KAPIL KUMAR SHARMA VS LALIT KUMAR SHARMA AND ANR [FAO(OS)-30/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant's application to amend the written statement and add a new preliminary objection was dismissed. The suit property will devolve upon the deceased's Class-I legal heirs by intestate succession, necessitating a partition. The application was deemed mala fide, aimed at obstructing the partition decree. The appellant must pay costs from the probate petition, and failure to do so will result in the striking off of his defense in the suit.

KARAN DUA VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4705/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation filed by Karan Dua concerning residents of JJ Resettlement Colonies in Delhi was dismissed. The petition was deemed motivated by Mr. Rajender Kharra, who faced eviction in another case. The claims were found misconceived, as the DDA and DUSIB already manage colony records, negating the need for a separate committee. Furthermore, the challenge to the policy on conversion charges was vague and lacked substantial grounds. The application for a stay on eviction notices was also rejected.

KAUM FAQEER SHAH VS MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT & ORS. [W.P.(C)-10462/2020]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Two writ petitions filed by fathers of child victims of bonded labor led to the approval of joint suggestions for ensuring prompt financial assistance and recovery of back wages for rescued child laborers. Government authorities were directed to implement a specific mechanism for opening bank accounts, transferring financial aid, and expediting wage recovery within a set timeframe. An accountability mechanism was emphasized to ensure compliance with these directives. The joint efforts of the parties in addressing the issues faced by the child victims were acknowledged.

KOMMAN PEOPELE WELFARE SOCIETY (REGD) VS SUKHBIR SINGH & ANR. [FAO(OS)-8/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal in FAO(OS) 8/2024 was allowed, with the previous order set aside and the appellant's replication and affidavit taken on record due to an apparent error. The appeal in FAO(OS) 7/2024 was dismissed as withdrawn, as the appellant accepted the costs imposed earlier. The affidavit of admission/denial of documents from the respondents was also taken on record.

LOKESH KUMAR VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4830/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The validity of Rules 15 and 24 of the Delhi Municipal Corporation (Election of Councillors) Rules, 2012, allowing the use of reserved symbols of political parties in municipal elections, is upheld. Recognition of political parties and election symbols is constitutionally valid. Previous judgments on similar issues support this stance. The challenge to the Rules and the Symbol Order issued by the State Election Commission is dismissed, affirming their compliance with the Constitution.

LOVELY PAL AND ANR VS HONEY CHANDEL HONI PAL & ORS. [FAO(OS)-58/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by the appellants against the order closing their right to file a written statement in a civil suit for partition of property was dismissed. The appellants had been served summons but failed to file the written statement within the allowed time, despite having the opportunity. Their actions, including filing police complaints against the respondents, were deemed not genuine since medical documents provided to justify the delay were dated after the order was issued. An extension for filing a written statement can only be granted in exceptional cases, particularly when there is no evidence of negligence or lack of diligence by the defendant.

LT. COL. BALRAJ ANAND (RETD) VS REGISTRAR, CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1726/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Lt. Col. Balraj Anand (Retd.) challenging the arbitral proceedings and award against him was dismissed. Anand has a statutory remedy to appeal the arbitral award under the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act, 2003, currently pending before the Delhi Co-operative Tribunal. His objections to the arbitrator's jurisdiction are being addressed in the pending appeal. The writ petition was deemed not maintainable due to the existence of this statutory remedy.

M/S OM SHYAM TRADERS AND OTHERS VS SMFG INDIA CREDIT COMPANY LIMITED (FORMERLY KNOWN AS FULLERTON INDIA CREDIT CO. LTD.) [W.P.(C)-8064/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by M/s Om Shyam Traders and Others challenging the orders of the Debt Recovery Tribunal and Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal was dismissed. The petitioners failed to demonstrate any grounds for the writ, particularly concerning the legality of the previous orders, and did not repay the outstanding amount despite an interim order. Amounts deposited by the petitioners were directed to be released to SMFG India Credit Company Limited, and the petitioners were given four weeks to repay the total outstanding amount; otherwise, the respondent could auction the mortgaged property.

M/S RAJASTHAN PATRIKA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3629/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

M/s Rajasthan Patrika Private Limited's writ petition against the rejection of their application for building height clearance up to 461 meters above mean sea level was dismissed due to the availability of an alternative statutory remedy through the Appellate Committee of the Airport Authority of India. The petitioner was assured a personal hearing where they could present all their arguments, including challenges to the Aerodrome Safeguarding Circular. Issues regarding territorial jurisdiction and the petitioner's other rights remain unresolved.

MAGNUM STEELS LTD & ORS. VS ASSET RECONSTRUCTION COMPANY (INDIA) LTD. & ANR. [W.P.(C)-5278/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Magnum Steels Ltd. and others challenged an order allowing Asset Reconstruction Company (India) Ltd. to recover a debt under the Recovery of Debts and Bankruptcy Act. The proceedings under the Recovery of Debts and Bankruptcy Act and the Securitization and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act can coexist as they complement each other. The petitioners were deemed to have approached the matter insincerely and were denied equitable relief due to their failure to meet their financial obligations.

MAHENDER SINGH VS THE STATE & ORS. [LPA-253/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Letters Patent Appeal challenging a single judge's judgment that set aside the trial court's decision in a probate case is not maintainable, as it constitutes a second appeal barred by Section 100A of the Code of Civil Procedure. Previous judgments establish that no Letters Patent Appeal is permissible against a single judge's decision in first appeals arising from special enactments like the Indian Succession Act after the enactment of Section 100A CPC. The appeal was dismissed.

MANGAT RAM ALAGH VS STATE & ORS. [FAO(OS)-13/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal against the order permitting respondent 2(iii) to lead evidence in the probate petition is not maintainable under Section 10 of the Delhi High Court Act. The order does not constitute an appealable judgment, as it merely allows for evidence to be presented without deciding any substantive matter. The Joint Registrar is to expedite the recording of evidence for respondent 2(iii) within one month, leading to a final disposal by the learned Single Judge.

MANINDER SINGH & ANR. VS NIRMAL KAUR [FAO(OS)-14/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The application by the Appellants to vacate the ex-parte interim order in favor of the Respondent was dismissed. The prima facie view indicated that the Respondent's claim of an oral family settlement was more plausible than the Appellants' explanation. The Appellants' challenge regarding the maintainability of the Respondent's claims under the Registration Act and issues of limitation will be addressed at the final arguments stage based on evidence. The Appellants were permitted to file a separate application for permission to let out the disputed property, and there was a directive for expeditious disposal of the case.

MANISH GOEL VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6151/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation petition was dismissed, affirming the validity of the R.S. 2,000 monthly air conditioning charge by Maharaja Agarsain Public School. The school informed the Directorate of Education of its fee schedule, and the responsibility for air conditioning costs is placed on parents, similar to lab or smart class fees. The Directorate of Education is currently reviewing the matter.

MEENA SAJNANI VS REGISTRAR (CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES) AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-10665/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Registrar of Co-operative Societies must update records to list Hon'ble Chief Justice of India (Retd.) Dr. A.S. Anand as the allottee of Flat No. 184, Tower-8, Supreme Enclave, Delhi-110091, replacing Sh. B.S. Shant, within four weeks. The updated information is to be forwarded to the Delhi Development Authority, which will process Ms. Meena Sajnani's application for converting the flat to freehold within six weeks.

MOHAMMAD HAMIM AND ANR. VS FACEBOOK INDIA ONLINE SERVICES PVT. LTD. AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1227/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest writ petition regarding prior censorship of publications about the Rohingya community on Facebook was dismissed based on the existing regulatory framework under the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021. These rules offer a grievance redressal mechanism for issues related to hate speech and harmful content, providing an alternative remedy for the petitioners. The petitioners were encouraged to utilize this redressal mechanism for any objectionable posts.

MOHD SAUBAN JIRJIS VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-288/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant, Mohd Sauban Jirjis, and Ms. Sama Jahan are required to pay Rs. 10,000 each per month as maintenance to their grandmother, the owner of the property they occupy. Despite the appellant being a grandson, both occupants are liable for maintenance after inheriting the flats. A Local Commissioner's report indicated that the basement and upper ground floor were uninhabitable, while they occupied the first and fourth floors, respectively. The monthly maintenance of Rs. 20,000 was deemed reasonable based on the rental value of the occupied flats.

MR. AJAY JAIN VS REGISTRAR OF COOPERATIVE SOCIETITES, DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-7221/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the orders of the Registrar of Cooperative Societies (RCS) regarding the attachment of properties for non-payment of maintenance charges was dismissed. The petitioner was represented in arbitral proceedings where his obligation to pay maintenance charges was established, yet he willfully failed to comply. Despite his claims of non-membership in the cooperative housing society, as the occupant of the properties, he remained legally responsible for the outstanding charges. The RCS's orders were deemed valid, leading to the dismissal of the petition.

MR. KUNAAL PRASAD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-54/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Mr. Kunaal Prasad's appeal regarding the award of Rs. 15 lakhs instead of the promised Rs. 1 crore for winning a hackathon was dismissed. The hackathon's terms stated that higher prizes would only be awarded if the top entries were deemed of "exceptional quality," which was not the case. The interpretation of these terms by the respondents was considered reasonable, and the award given to Prasad included an "encouragement prize" in addition to the Rs. 10 lakhs awarded to each of the top 10 entries. The claim of a legitimate expectation for the Rs. 1 crore prize was rejected.

MS ANIL YADAV SECURITY AGENCY ID NO. 6375 VS INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16757/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The contract between Ms Anil Yadav Security Agency and Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) was terminated before the extended expiry in July 2024. The contract allowed IOCL to extend on a year-to-year basis or until a new contract was finalized. IOCL terminated the contract in December 2023 and awarded a new contract to another agency. The petitioner's request for specific performance until July 2024 was rejected, but the petitioner may pursue a claim for damages through arbitration under the contract.

MS JBMD ENTERPRISES VS THE SR DY. CGDA AN & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8410/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A partnership firm, disqualified in a tender process for security manpower services with the remark "Not Evaluated," is entitled to know the reasons for this disqualification. The lack of information from the respondents and the GeM Portal breaches transparency principles. The GeM Portal and the respondents must provide the reasons for the disqualification and issue a speaking order within two weeks.

MS VEENETA SINCE DECEASED THROUGH LRS VS MS JYOTI GUPTA [FAO(OS)-143/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by the legal representatives of late Ms. Vaneeta Gupta was dismissed, confirming that the respondent, as the daughter of late Sh. Parmanand Gupta, is the sole legal heir of his estate under the Hindu Succession Act, 1956. Claims based on unregistered customary documents from late Ms. Vaneeta Gupta and late Sh. Parmanand Gupta were deemed inadmissible and contradictory to the judicial record. The findings from previous probate proceedings, which established that late Sh. Parmanand Gupta died intestate, are binding, preventing reliance on the alleged Will.

MS. RENU KUMARI (KHANNA) & ANR. VS SH. RAVI KHANNA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-25/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

An appeal was made regarding an interim order in a property dispute, focusing on claims of prior disposal of the subject property. The appellants asserted the property was sold to third parties before the lawsuit, while the respondents contested this claim. The hearing of the interim application was expedited to allow for early determination of the prior disposal issue. It was clarified that directions to the sub-registrar would only affect sale deeds executed by the parties involved in the suit, with no opinions expressed on the case's merits, leaving the decision on prior disposal to the learned single judge.

MUKESH SAINI VS MADAN LAL SAINI (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LRS. AND OTHERS. [FAO(OS)-122/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant must offer the current market value to purchase the shares of co-owners in the suit property according to the Partition Act. The appellant's offer based on the 2014 sale price was deemed not bona fide, and actions to obstruct previous orders for sale to third-party purchasers were noted. The appeal and pending applications were dismissed.

NACOF VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8414/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The respondents, Union of India and others, must consider the representations filed by NACOF regarding the rejection of its bid for establishing and operating a Janaushadhi Shop at Safdarjung Hospital, Delhi, and dispose of these representations with a speaking order within two weeks. However, NACOF's request to continue operating the Janaushadhi Kendra was denied, as it had previously undertaken to vacate the premises if not successful in the tender, making this request outside the scope of the current petition.

NARESH KUMAR AGGARWAL VS STATE BANK OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-4888/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Naresh Kumar Aggarwal's writ petition challenging a Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal order to deposit R.S. 2.2 crore as a pre-condition for his appeal was dismissed. The petitioner admitted to a R.S. 4.4 crore outstanding debt, leading to the conclusion that he is not entitled to equitable relief under Article 226 of the Constitution. Consequently, the petition was not maintained.

NASEEM BANO VS KOTAK MAHINDRA BANK LTD. AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-7149/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition was dismissed as not maintainable due to an earlier rejection by the Debts Recovery Tribunal (DRT) of the petitioner's application for interim relief against possession of the property. An appeal against this rejection was also dismissed by the Debt Recovery Appellate Tribunal. The petitioner filed a new application before the DRT regarding the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's order extending the possession time for the Court Receiver. Since the matter is still pending with the DRT and the previous application was dismissed on merits, the writ petition was considered an abuse of process.

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF FISHERS COOPERATIVES LTD (FISHCOPFED) VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5700/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The previous order for appointing an arbitrator in a dispute involving FISHCOPFED was recalled due to the writ petition's lack of maintainability by Rishikesh Kashyap, who is not the recognized Managing Director. The statutory and financial obligations of FISHCOPFED are managed by board members elected on February 25, 2021, and recognized by the Ministry. The writ petition was dismissed, allowing affected parties, including Kashyap, to pursue arbitration individually in the appropriate forum.

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE BLIND VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-8210/2018]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The ownership transfer of 7 special schools and 3 hostels from the Department of Social Welfare to the Directorate of Education, Government of NCT of Delhi, is complete. Directions have been issued to the Directorate to ensure smooth functioning, including necessary repairs and renovations, relocating juvenile courts, providing timely food and facilities, and maintaining existing infrastructure. The steps taken by the GNCTD align with the responsibilities under the Right of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, aiming to set a standard for other states.

NBCC INDIA LIMITED VS RAMACIVIL INDIA CONSTRUCTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED [LPA-97/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appellant NBCC India Limited improperly included the respondent Ramacivil India Constructions Private Limited in its "Holiday List" after the initial debarment order expired. This action violated a stay order related to a subsequent debarment issued by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs. The appeal was dismissed due to unreasonable delay in challenging the prior order and the arbitrary nature of the appellant's actions.

NIPUN MALHOTRA VS SONY PICTURES FILMS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [W.P.(C)-522/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The PIL against the movie 'Aankh Micholi' was dismissed. The movie conveys a positive message regarding the strength and agency of characters with disabilities and does not intend to insult or humiliate them. It is recognized that films should be considered as a whole, and depicting social issues is permissible if it serves to highlight their consequences. The film received a 'U' certification from the Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC), which is binding, and there is no legal requirement to include an expert on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 in the CBFC's processes.

NITIN GROVER VS KARTIKA GROVER & ORS. [LPA-159/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by the husband against the order to pay Rs. 20,000 per month to his wife as interim maintenance was dismissed. The husband's commitment to pay this amount remained binding despite the wife not renting a new place. The interim maintenance order was designed to balance the rights of both parties. The husband's decision to stop payments constituted a breach of his commitment. His obligation to maintain his wife and child was reaffirmed, and his arguments for avoiding this liability were rejected.

NUVIA INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12397/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The respondents agreed to recall the disputed tenders and the Letter of Award issued to M/s Sanav Energy (OPC) Pvt. Ltd., and will call for fresh tenders with an additional scope of work. No findings were made regarding the petitioner's claims that a director of Respondent No. 4 misused sensitive information from the petitioner to submit bids. Both the petitioner and Respondent No. 4 can participate in the fresh tender, and the petitioner may pursue its complaint against Respondent No. 4.

OKHLA INDUSTRIAL AREA CETP SOCIETY REGD VS COMMISSIONER OF INDUSTRIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-1456/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The notification transferring the management of the Okhla Industrial Area CETP Society's Common Effluent Treatment Plant to the Delhi Jal Board was quashed due to violations of the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Act, 2000, and the Delhi Common Effluent Treatment Plants Rules, 2001. The required procedures were not followed, and the relevant order was not communicated to the petitioner, circumventing their statutory right of appeal. A subsequent show cause notice was inconsistent with the earlier order, indicating it had lapsed. A directive was issued for the Appropriate Authority to provide a new show cause notice in compliance with the law.

PARESH DANDONA VS SUKRUTI DUGAL & ORS. [FAO(OS)-35/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal against the dismissal of an application to vacate an ex-parte ad-interim order was allowed due to the respondents' false statements and suppression of material facts, which constituted abuse of the legal process and contempt of court. The respondents were directed to show cause for potential criminal contempt proceedings, and respondent no. 2 was ordered to deposit two-thirds of the sale consideration from properties linked to an earlier consent decree to protect the interests of other respondents.

PAWAN KUMAR AGGARWAL VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-1507/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order of the Registrar of Cooperative Societies (RCS) directing the petitioner to vacate Flat No. E-604 was upheld. The petitioner's claim to the flat was through Ms. Madhu Gupta, whose membership and allotment were not approved by the DDA or RCS. The legitimate allottee of the flat was identified as Ms. Anjana Singh. The Managing Committee's illegal swapping of flats between Ms. Anjana Singh and Ms. Madhu Gupta resulted in double occupation under a single allotment. The actions of the RCS aligned with directives to identify and evict ineligible members from the cooperative society.

PRABHAKAR YADAV & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-458/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The National Exit Test (NExT) is required for BAMS and BUMS students, regardless of their enrollment date prior to June 11, 2021. The NExT serves as a licentiate examination, not a qualifying exam for the degree, and students lack a vested right to practice as registered medical practitioners solely based on their degrees. The introduction of the NExT is considered a valid academic policy by the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine and applies to all students without retrospective impact or discrimination.

PRIYA DAS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5592/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation filed by Priya Das for the removal of Bharat Kumar Sharma from the position of Assistant Environmental Engineer and Member Secretary of the Central Pollution Control Board was dismissed. The litigation was deemed not maintainable in service matters, as only non-appointees can challenge the legality of an appointment. No opinion was expressed on the merits of the issues raised in the petition.

R K KAPOOR, ADVOCATE VS THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3269/2014]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) must take steps within 12 weeks to convert the land use of Tikona Park from "green area" to "parking." The Land and Development Office (L&DO) and the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) are required to expedite their actions upon receiving MCD's request for this conversion. The original issues regarding vacancies in the Delhi Judicial Service and infrastructure support for the courts have been addressed, necessitating no further action on those matters.

R LALITHA & ANR. VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5591/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioners, as Class-I legal heirs of late Sh. C.V. Subramanian, are entitled to inherit the flat and housing society membership. They possess Letters of Administration and a relinquishment deed from another legal heir, confirming their rights. The housing society must transfer the membership and facilitate the ownership transfer of the flat to the petitioners within four weeks.

RAJ KUMAR AGGARWAL VS SMFG INDIA HOME FINANCE COMPANY LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7860/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Raj Kumar Aggarwal failed to establish valid title over the property due to reliance on an unregistered Agreement to Sell and General Power of Attorney, which do not confer legally enforceable rights. SMFG India Home Finance Company Ltd.'s claim was upheld, with the property being mortgaged by borrower Vishab Singh Bharti based on a registered sale deed. Aggarwal, not being the borrower or guarantor, lacked the standing to challenge the mortgage or auction proceedings. The petition was dismissed.

RAJ KUMAR MALHOTRA VS STATE AND ORS [FAO(OS)-23/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Raj Kumar Malhotra regarding the tracing of bank records for the accounts of the late Shri Kasturi Lal Malhotra for 1999-2004 was dismissed. The order directing the official witness to trace these records was not appealable as it did not meet the criteria of a 'judgment.' Additionally, the request to produce records at the evidence stage was deemed unmaintainable since the appellant should have obtained them earlier. No infirmity was found in the original order.

RAJESH SHARMA VS GOVENMENT BOYS SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL NO. 2 [LPA-38/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Rajesh Sharma for possession of a disputed plot of land was dismissed. The identification of the land's location and khasra number is a disputed fact requiring evidence. Sharma needs to file a civil suit to declare his title before seeking possession. A writ petition under Article 226 is not suitable for resolving property or title disputes. Sharma has the option to file a civil suit to address the title issue.

RAJINDER SINGH BHATIA VS MANJU BHATIA [FAO(OS)-37/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The order was set aside due to an apparent error in the findings, which were unrelated to the controversy and outside the pleadings. The application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC had not been properly addressed. The application was restored for a fresh decision, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open and unaffected by previous observations.

RAKESH GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3985/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Rakesh Gupta was dismissed due to the wilful suppression of a previously filed arbitration petition under Section 84 of the Multi-State Co-Operative Societies Act, 2002, seeking similar reliefs against the same respondents. The failure to disclose the pendency of the arbitration proceedings, a mandatory requirement, led to a conclusion of approaching the court with "unclean hands," rendering the writ petition not maintainable.

RAKSHA SEHGAL VS AXIS BANK LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6497/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Raksha Sehgal and Axis Bank reached a settlement regarding a mortgage on the property. Sehgal, as a bona fide purchaser, will pay Rs. 54,35,637 for her 22.5% share to redeem the mortgage. Upon payment, the mortgage on her share will be redeemed, and Axis Bank's claim will be extinguished. The writ petition and related applications are resolved due to this settlement.

RAMAN KUMAR MEHTA VS GOVT OF NCT THROUGH REGISTRARA CGHS & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1346/2021]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

A tenant's petition against a cooperative society's higher maintenance and lift charges for tenants was dismissed. The Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003 and Rules, 2007 allow the society's general body to set higher charges for services provided to tenants. Tenants lack the standing to challenge these decisions, and the appropriate course of action is for the owner-member to address the issue with the general body. The dismissal also resulted from the petitioner having vacated the flat, thus lacking a continuing interest in the sought reliefs.

RAVINDER CHADHA VS VIRENDER CHADHA & ANR. [FAO(OS)-64/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Mediation Settlement dated 8th March 2019 between the parties is final and binding under Section 73 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Appellant's attempts to withdraw from the Settlement were rejected, as the Appellant had admitted to its execution and benefited from it. The suit was decreed in accordance with the Mediation Settlement, resulting in a preliminary decree defining the parties' rights in immovable properties and a final decree for monetary payments between them.

RAZIA BEGUM VS THE APPELLATE COURT OF DIVISIONAL COMMISSIONER AND ORS [LPA-338/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Letters Patent Appeal filed by Razia Begum was dismissed regarding the order for Respondent Nos. 3 and 4 to pay her Rs. 10,000 each per month as maintenance. This payment was deemed just as they were living in flats owned by her and had not provided the promised maintenance. The order for Rs. 20,000 per month became final after an earlier appeal by Respondent No. 3 was dismissed. Additionally, Razia Begum's younger son occupied other flats in the building, with no issues in their relationship. The decision of the Single Judge remained unchanged.

RESIDENT WELFARE ASSOCIATION WEST JYOTI NAGAR EXTN VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ORS [LPA-85/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Letters Patent Appeal by the Resident Welfare Association was dismissed, affirming the demolition order from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi for an iron gate in their locality. The Association did not challenge the finality of the MCD's orders and lacked a No Objection Certificate from the traffic police. With the gate's removal, the only remaining request regarding amending the Standing Order policy was irrelevant as it had been superseded. The appeal presented no merit.

ROHTASH KUMAR MURADIA VS UNION BANK OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-1512/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Debt Recovery Tribunal-III must hear and decide the petitioner's restoration application, which has been pending for over 4.5 years, within 3 months. The tribunal is also directed to address the petitioner's application seeking to set aside the respondent bank's actions regarding symbolic possession of the property, along with related matters, to prevent conflicting orders. The petitioner may submit an application to purchase the property at market price, which will be decided according to the law.

SADDAM ALI VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8373/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation challenging the appointment of Respondent No. 4 as Chairman-cum-Managing Director of the National Small Industries Development Corporation Ltd. was dismissed. The petitioner's arguments regarding violations of the advertisement's eligibility criteria lacked merit, and only non-appointees are entitled to challenge appointment procedures. The petition was dismissed without addressing the merits of the issue raised.

SAFAI KARAMCHARI ANDOLAN AND ORS VS UOI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-845/2011]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Safai Karamchari Andolan and others, seeking enforcement of the Employment of Manual Scavengers and Construction of Dry Latrine (Prohibition) Act, 1993, and protection of manual scavengers' rights was dismissed. A recent judgment in Balram Singh v. Union of India addressed the issues raised, and the reliefs sought had been satisfied by that ruling. The Union of India is obligated to comply with the directions from the Supreme Court, leading to the disposal of this petition.

SAHIL MARWAH & ANR. VS VIKAS MALHOTRA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-81/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The probate petition filed by the Respondent-Executor with a certified copy of the registered will is maintainable despite the absence of the original will. The unavailability of the original does not imply revocation. The Executor can use the certified copy under Section 237 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, provided the circumstances of the original will being lost or mislaid are established. Arguments regarding the inadmissibility of the certified copy and the necessity of verifying the original will with the attesting witness are deemed misconceived.

SANKARA SUBBU VS REGISTRAR OF COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES AND ORS [W.P.(C)-4423/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petition by a non-member resident of a housing society was dismissed due to lack of standing, as the resident is not a member and the statutory remedy lies with the member-owners, specifically the petitioner's daughter, who has not pursued it. The request for an online grievance redressal mechanism for non-members was also denied, as legislative action cannot be compelled.

SH CHARANJIT GABA VS THE REGISTRAR COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-1530/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The decision of the Delhi Co-operative Tribunal, which allowed the appeal of the Respondent Society and set aside the award in favor of the Petitioner, was upheld. The Tribunal ruled that the claim petition filed by the Petitioner, son of the original member, was barred by limitation under Section 70(4)(a)(ii) of the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act, as the original member had resigned in 1993 before his death in 1996. It was also concluded that the original member was a defaulter at the time of resignation, and third-party rights had been established, rendering the Petitioner's claim unenforceable. No issues were found in the Tribunal's conclusions.

SHARDA GUPTA & ORS. VS REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-4913/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the orders of the Additional Registrar of Cooperative Societies and the Financial Commissioner was dismissed. Allegations of financial irregularities were already under consideration in a civil suit, justifying the refusal to initiate a separate inquiry. The issue of non-grant of membership must be raised in the appropriate forum under the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act. A previous challenge to the society's elections was dismissed due to being barred by limitation. The petitioners did not demonstrate any errors in the preceding orders, resulting in the dismissal of the writ petition without granting them participation in the elections, as their membership status was seriously disputed.

SHIVA INDUSTRIES VS UNION OF INDIA MINISTRY OF DEFENCE & ORS. [W.P.(C)-787/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition filed by Shiva Industries challenging the tender conditions imposed by the Command Logistics Management Officer is not maintainable due to lack of territorial jurisdiction. The tender was issued and executed in Nagpur, where the tendering authority is located, with all correspondence occurring there. The petition was dismissed with the option for Shiva Industries to approach the appropriate High Court. No opinion on the merits of the case was provided.

SHRI NEERAJ BHATIA VS SHRI RAVINDRA KUMAR BHATIA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-70/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Appellant's claim of creating a Hindu Undivided Family (HUF) over the self-acquired property through an oral declaration in 1993 was invalid, as there was no pre-existing coparcenary property to blend. The Appellant's plaint did not disclose a valid cause of action, leading to its rejection. An injunction was granted to Respondent Nos. 1, 3, and 6, the Class-I legal heirs of late Sh. Balwant Lal Bhatia, instructing the Appellant to vacate the property and pay mesne profits.

SIRAJUDDIN QURESHI VS MATLOOB AHMAD AND OTHERS [FAO(OS)-120/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The general body of the India Islamic Culture Centre is recognized as the supreme authority of the society, with the right to call a special general body meeting (SGBM) to amend the memorandum of association (MoA) unless a statutory prohibition exists. The MoA permits the general body to amend its articles, and the Board of Trustees (BOT) must comply with proposed amendments. An SGBM is to be convened within a specified timeline to consider these amendments, followed by an annual general meeting (AGM) for elections within 30 days. A prior order for a financial audit was invalidated, as it was not requested by the plaintiffs.

SMT SATI BHATTACHARYA VS SHRI P C AGRAWAL AND ORS [FAO(OS)-4/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal by Smt. Sati Bhattacharya challenging the rejection of her application to frame additional issues in a civil suit was dismissed. The absence of a written statement from the appellant meant that proposed issues regarding the alleged forgery of an agreement to sell and privity of contract were not considered. The application was also deemed barred by delay, as the plaintiff's evidence had already been recorded prior to the application. No referral to a larger bench occurred, and no separate judgments were noted.

SMT SUNITA DATTA VS THE SUKHI PARIWAR CGHS LTD & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2408/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

Smt Sunita Datta's writ petition challenging the Arbitrator's award and the Delhi Co-operative Tribunal's orders regarding her membership in Sukhi Pariwar CGHS Ltd was dismissed. There was no record of approval for her membership application as required by the Delhi Co-operative Societies Act and the Society's bye-laws. The deposit of the membership fee was made voluntarily, and the affidavit submitted was dated after the claimed approval. There were no grounds to interfere with the order for the Society to refund her deposit with interest.

SMT. MEENA DEVI VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-116/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal filed by Smt. Meena Devi for her late husband's pension claim under the Swatantrata Sainik Samman Pension Scheme, 1980 was dismissed. The documentary evidence submitted, including G.R. No. 747/1942 and a Personal Knowledge Certificate, failed to demonstrate eligibility for "underground suffering" as required by the scheme. The recommendation from the Government of Bihar did not obligate the central government to accept the claim, which independently assessed the evidence. The decision to reject the pension claim was upheld.

SMT. PRADEEP KAUR VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ANR [LPA-354/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Letters Patent Appeal filed by Smt. Pradeep Kaur seeking compensatory damages for loss of livelihood was dismissed. The claim for compensation was based on disputed facts, making a civil suit the appropriate remedy, as such claims cannot be resolved in writ jurisdiction. The single judge's order was deemed free of infirmity, allowing the appellant to pursue her damages claim in a civil suit.

SS RAIL WORKS PVT LTD VS IRCON INTERNATIONAL LIMITED [W.P.(C)-5702/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Respondent's cancellation of the tender dated 21st August, 2023 was valid due to the Petitioner's technical bid being non-compliant with essential qualifying criteria. The Petitioner's bid did not demonstrate required experience in 'OFC based Railway Telecommunication System' and was not digitally signed by the authorized signatory. The cancellation was not arbitrary or malafide, and the Petitioner's delay in approaching the issue and suppression of material facts were against public interest. The writ petition was dismissed.

SUBEDAR SINGH VS REGISTRAR OF COOPERATIVE SOCIETY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-16312/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Administrator of the Chopra CGHS Society Ltd. acted within jurisdiction to settle a decree favoring contractor M/s S.P. Repcon under the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003. There was an acknowledged liability under the award, and the Administrator successfully negotiated a reduction in interest from 18% to 9%. The challenge to the demand notice issued was considered without merit, as the proper recourse for a stay on the award is through a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The petitioner's challenge to the demand notice and the Administrator's actions was dismissed.

SUNIL GROVER & ANR. VS SUSHIL KUMAR CHADHA [CONT.CAS(C)-155/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The application to recall the order from November 8, 2021, was dismissed. The legal representatives of the deceased respondents were not necessary parties to the writ petition, and no directions were issued against them. The appeal regarding the auction sale was acknowledged, with no indication of information being suppressed by the petitioner. The Debt Recovery Tribunal is instructed to expedite the pending appeal within three months without examining the merits. The contempt petition against the petitioner was dismissed due to lack of grounds for contempt proceedings.

SUNIL KUMAR ALEDIA VS DSEU & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5902/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition was dismissed due to lack of merit. The disconnection of electricity by BSES on March 8, 2024, was valid due to outstanding arrears. Electricity supply to the entire building, including the night shelter, was restored after the Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board (DUSIB) agreed to clear the dues. The liability for electricity dues related to the floor occupied by the NGO-run skill center lies with the NGO, not the Delhi Development Authority (DDA). Disputes over the amount of electricity dues must be addressed directly between the NGO, BSES, and DUSIB, and cannot be resolved through a public interest litigation.

SURESH VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3102/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation (PIL) petition filed by Suresh was dismissed for not being a genuine PIL. The main focus was on challenging a tender awarded by the Delhi Jal Board (DJB) rather than addressing a public interest issue. Investigations by the Lokpal, National Green Tribunal, and Central Vigilance Commission did not support the petitioner's claims regarding alleged wrongdoings by DJB officials and royalty computations, which were based on unsubstantiated facts. The petition and associated interim applications lacked merit.

T.V. TODAY NETWORK LIMITED AND ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4912/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The petitioner's Instagram account "@bazaarindia" was disabled due to repeated copyright infringement under the Repeat Infringer Policy. The initial appeal to the Grievance Appellate Committee was rejected because the petitioner did not first approach the Grievance Officer. After filing a complaint with the Grievance Officer, the automated email response created a misleading impression of rejection, prompting further unnecessary appeals. The petitioner was instructed to file a fresh appeal, which the respondent agreed to process, and the Grievance Appellate Committee was directed to expedite the decision on this appeal.

THE EXECUTIVE ENGINEER & ORS. VS M/S BHOLASINGH JAIPRAKASH CONSTRCUTION LTD. & ANR. [LPA-318/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The letters patent appeal concerning arbitration proceedings initiated under the MSMED Act was dismissed. The appropriate recourse for challenging such proceedings is to file under Section 18(3) of the MSMED Act or Section 16 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. If an award has been issued, objections should be filed under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. Petitions filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution are not suitable as they undermine the objectives of the MSMED Act.

THE RICE EXPORTERS ASSOCIATION OF INDIA VS NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE MARKETING FEDERATION OF INDIA LTD [W.P.(C)-2991/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition by the Rice Exporters Association of India against the appointment of the Indian Rice Exporters Federation (IREF) as the Facilitation Agency for an e-tender by NAFED was dismissed. The eligibility criteria in the tender, allowing IREF members to participate, were deemed reasonable. Evaluation of bids and contract award was solely the responsibility of NAFED, with IREF having no influence. Concerns regarding bias against the petitioners' members were not substantiated. The petitioners did not demonstrate any arbitrariness or bias in the tender conditions or IREF's appointment.

UCMS TEACHERS ASSOCIATION VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-10642/2016]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The Cabinet decision from 25th August 2005 to transfer the administrative control of the University College of Medical Sciences and Guru Tegh Bahadur Hospital from the University of Delhi to the Government of NCT of Delhi is valid. Previous judgments recognized the necessity for unified control under GNCTD to resolve issues from dual administration. Objections from the petitioners regarding promotions, service conditions, and salary payments are insufficient to challenge this policy decision. GNCTD has committed to providing adequate funding for UCMS, ensuring budget concerns will not hinder the transition. Multiple writ petitions from UCMS staff associations and the University of Delhi contested the Cabinet decision and its subsequent implementation.

UMESH KUMAR VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7847/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The public interest litigation (PIL) filed by Umesh Kumar for the demolition of unauthorized construction on public land at the Delhi-U.P. border was dismissed. The issue had already been addressed by the Delhi Development Authority (DDA) in previous cases, and the petitioner had previously filed a contempt petition that was dismissed due to lack of locus standi. The Supreme Court had allowed the petitioner to seek impleadment in DDA's ongoing contempt proceedings. Entertaining the current PIL would result in multiple proceedings, and since the DDA is actively managing its interests in the land, the principle of locus standi was not relaxed for this PIL.

UP STATE BRIDGE CORPORATION LIMITED VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION LIMITED [LPA-394/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The writ petition challenging the respondent's order labeling the appellant as a 'Non-Performer' is maintainable due to its civil consequences that affect the appellant's ability to participate in contracts with the Ministry of Road, Transport and Highways. The appellant is directed to pursue arbitration under the contract within specified time frames. The impugned order is stayed for 10 days, with no opinion expressed on the merits of the dispute, leaving both parties' rights open for future determination.

VEENA SURI VS RAVI SHANKER LUTHER AND ORS [FAO(OS)-105/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The appeal against the rejection of an application to summon two additional witnesses and recall a previous witness in probate proceedings was dismissed. The order was deemed not maintainable under relevant legal provisions, as it did not qualify as a "judgment" affecting the significant rights of the parties. Additionally, the title of the testator in the disputed property could not be determined within these proceedings, and there was no contest to the findings regarding insufficient documentation for the proposed witnesses and the conclusions drawn from the evidence.

VI EXPORTS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA [LPA-147/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

VI Exports India Private Limited cannot export 11,000 MT of banned non-basmati white rice due to failure to strictly comply with the government's exemption conditions. The argument of substantial compliance was rejected, emphasizing that strict adherence to all stipulations is necessary for eligibility. The appellant did not fulfill the essential requirements in any exemption conditions, leading to the dismissal of the writ appeal.

VIVEK KUMAR GAURAV VS UNION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-1603/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Manmeet Pritam Singh Arora

The victim does not have a statutory right under the Code of Criminal Procedure to receive the chargesheet or police report without cost, but mechanisms exist under the Delhi High Court Rules to obtain copies. Government guidelines support providing the chargesheet to victims in sexual offense cases. The right of the victim to participate in criminal proceedings is recognized, and courts must offer victims a chance to be heard if they express interest. However, it is not mandatory for courts to notify victims at every stage to avoid trial delays.

DR SYEDA SAIYIDAIN HAMEDA & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-3462/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Mini Pushkarna

The decision to dissolve the Maulana Azad Education Foundation (MAEF) was upheld, deemed a well-considered action by its General Body in accordance with the society's bye-laws and the Societies Registration Act, 1860. Various welfare schemes previously managed by MAEF have been integrated into similar programs under the Ministry of Minority Affairs, ensuring continuity of services for minority communities.

INDIAN OIL CORPORATION LIMITED VS PETROLEUM AND NATRUAL GAS REGULATORY BOARD NEW DELHI & ORS. [LPA-208/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Mini Pushkarna

An appeal by Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) against a stay order was dismissed. The Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) authorized IMC Limited to lay a pipeline from Ennore Port to Manali Industrial Area in Chennai. IOCL began laying a pipeline along the same route without PNGRB's authorization. PNGRB emphasized that no entity can operate a pipeline without its approval under the PNGRB Act. The stay order was granted due to a prima facie case against IOCL for lacking necessary authorization. The dismissal of the appeal was based on the absence of justification for IOCL to continue laying the pipeline amid conflicting claims, while the legal status of IOCL's rights remains unresolved. The writ petition has been scheduled for prompt final disposal, and no opinion on the merits of the case has been expressed.

ARCELORMITTAL INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED & ANR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-224/2017]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Mini Pushkarna

ArcelorMittal India Private Limited lacks a vested right to the mining lease for iron ore and manganese ore in the Saranda Forest Division due to failure to meet the conditions of the Letter of Intent within the required two-year period as per the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2015. The absence of compliance precludes any claim of legitimate expectation for the mining lease. Recommendations against new mining leases in the area and the delayed completion of the Carrying Capacity Study and Sustainable Mining Plan further support the denial of relief for executing the mining lease.

DR. MAHESH PRAKASH SHINDE & ORS. & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. & ORS. [LPA-15/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Mini Pushkarna

FCPS qualifications awarded by the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Mumbai, are recognized as medical qualifications but are not equivalent to MD/MS degrees. The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare's notification of April 30, 2021, clarified the existing position without introducing new changes. Arguments regarding retrospective application and legitimate expectation were rejected, as no prior notification granted equivalence between FCPS and MD/MS. Therefore, FCPS degree holders cannot sit for the Diplomate of National Board (DNB) examination, which requires MD/MS qualifications. The assessment of standards and equivalence of medical qualifications falls under the expertise of regulatory bodies like the National Medical Commission.

KCC INFRA PRIVATE LIMITED VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA & ANR [W.P.(C)-3639/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Mini Pushkarna

The petitioner's technical bid was deemed non-responsive by the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) due to failure to meet the required technical capacity, as the cost of a similar bridge project executed by the petitioner was significantly lower than the specified threshold. The tender conditions, including eligibility criteria for bidders, were found to be reasonable and not discriminatory, allowing NHAI discretion in setting these terms. The challenge to NHAI's decision was dismissed, lacking merit.

OFB TECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S KKSPUN INDIA LTD AND ORS [FAO(OS) (COMM)-296/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Mini Pushkarna

The appeal by OFB Tech Private Limited was successful, confirming that the advance and performance bank guarantees provided by KKSPUN India Ltd. are unconditional and can be invoked as per their terms. KKSPUN India Ltd. failed to prove any fraud, irretrievable injustice, or special equities that would warrant preventing the encashment of these guarantees. Additionally, disputes regarding contract performance do not impact the independent nature of the bank guarantees. The order that restricted invocation was set aside, with an affirmation that banks must honor the guarantees if invoked correctly.

RAJIV KHOSLA VS REGISTRAR GENERAL, HIGH COURT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-13140/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Elections for the executive committees of all bar associations in Delhi will occur simultaneously on the same day with a uniform two-year term. Uniform ID/proximity and RFID cards for all lawyers will be issued prior to these elections. Certain electoral practices, such as hosting election parties and printing posters, are prohibited to maintain election integrity. No individual is allowed to contest or hold positions in more than one bar association at a time. A detailed timeline and process for conducting the elections, including the formation of election committees and eligibility criteria for voters, has been established.

OYNX MANAGEMENT SERVICES PVT.LTD AND ANR. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-6854/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Sanjeev Narula

The writ petition by Oynx Management Services Pvt. Ltd. and Utkarsh Utilities LLP challenging the tender process by GAIL (India) Limited was dismissed. The clarification from the Government e-Marketplace (GeM) on January 10, 2023, was not considered a binding amendment to the tender conditions. GAIL retained exclusive authority over tender alterations, and the GeM clarification did not meet the criteria for a corrigendum. The Petitioners' decision to revise their bids based on this clarification was not authorized by the tendering authority, and the bid evaluation process followed by GAIL was proper and complied with valid tender conditions.

KUTUMB THROUGH ITS TRUSTEE VS STATE OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS [W.P.(C)-10550/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The investigation into the flooding incident at a coaching center in Old Rajendra Nagar, Delhi, which resulted in the deaths of three students, is assigned to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) due to potential criminal negligence and misconduct by public officials. A senior officer will oversee the CBI investigation. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) Commissioner is tasked with ensuring functional drains and removing illegal constructions in the area. Broader infrastructure issues in Delhi, including inadequate maintenance and a lack of funding, will be examined by a newly constituted committee that will submit a report.

ANURAG MAHAJAN VS TUMLARE TRAVELS PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS)-90/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal filed by Anurag Mahajan was dismissed, affirming the rejection of his applications to set aside a judgment from November 15, 2019, and to condone the delay in filing those applications. Claims of negligence by Mahajan's previous counsel lacked supporting evidence, as no vakalatnama or payment receipt was found, and other lawyers had represented him at various stages. His explanation for the delay, including the COVID-19 pandemic, was deemed unsatisfactory, and a confession letter admitted to financial irregularities, undermining his case. The appeal was dismissed with costs.

BALVEEN SINGH CHADHA @ RICKY VS HARVEEN SINGH CHADHA @ LOVELY & ORS. [FAO(OS)-112/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the appellant's application for an injunction against the respondents from alienating the subject properties was upheld. There exists a presumption of genuineness for the registered sale deed favoring the respondents, and the scope for appeal against an interlocutory order is limited.

CA RAKESH KUMAR GUPTA VS SUPREME COURT OF INDIA THROUGH SECRETARY GENERAL [LPA-522/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The letters patent appeal was dismissed due to the appellant's lack of locus standi in relation to vacancies in High Courts and their impact on District Courts. The law concerning the appointment of judges to High Courts and the Supreme Court is established, allowing the Supreme Court Collegium discretion in evaluating candidates beyond eligibility criteria. There is no obligation to provide reasons for rejecting recommendations, as this could harm the interests of those considered. The appellant may seek an early hearing if he believes his cases are delayed.

CANARA BANK VS VINEETA PANDEY & ORS. [LPA-507/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The bank's decision to reject the borrower's wife's request for Equated Monthly Installments (EMIs) and a One-Time Settlement (OTS) scheme is upheld, as she is neither the borrower nor a co-applicant or mortgagor. The bank's acceptance or rejection of EMIs does not affect its rights, and the borrowers are free to challenge the OTS rejection legally. The merits of the controversy and the rights of all parties remain open for future consideration.

CAPTAIN DEEPAK KUMAR VS ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA [LPA-527/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The letters patent appeal was dismissed based on findings that the petition contained unsubstantiated and incoherent allegations against the Prime Minister, Home Minister, and Minister of Communications, including claims of attempted murder and destruction of evidence, which were deemed to lack credibility. Medical assistance was offered to the appellant, who declined it, while the local police were instructed to monitor the appellant and may act under the Mental Healthcare Act, 2017, if necessary.

CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION VS CHAND RAM PUBLIC SCHOOL & ORS. [LPA-778/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decision of a Single Judge stating that the Central Board of Secondary Education must provide a personal hearing before withdrawing a school's provisional affiliation has been set aside. It has been clarified that a personal hearing is not necessary in all situations, and the requirement of natural justice is satisfied if the affected party can present their case. The matter has been remanded for a fresh decision, with all parties' rights and contentions remaining open.

CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION VS MOUNT COLUMBUS SCHOOL AND ORS [LPA-568/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The requirement of natural justice to provide an opportunity to be heard does not always necessitate a personal hearing. The Central Board of Secondary Education's order to withdraw the provisional affiliation of the respondent school was set aside, allowing the Board to re-inspect the school and issue a new order in accordance with the law. Both parties are encouraged to focus on compliance with rules and regulations instead of shutting down the school.

CENTRAL BOARD OF SECONDARY EDUCATION VS ST. COLUMBUS SCHOOL AND ANR [LPA-918/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) was not required to offer a personal hearing before withdrawing the provisional affiliation of a school, as responding to a show-cause notice satisfied the principles of natural justice. The order to withdraw the affiliation was set aside due to the school's claims of rectifying previous defects. CBSE was directed to re-inspect the school within four weeks, allowing one month for any found defects to be corrected before issuing a new decision. The focus was on ensuring compliance with rules rather than closing the school unless absolutely necessary.

COLOPLAST INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-765/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Surgical dressings are classified as 'Drugs' under Section 3(b)(i) of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, consistent with the ruling in Chimanlal Jagjivan Das Sheth v. State of Maharashtra. The definition has not changed since that ruling, allowing surgical dressings to be regulated under the Drug Price Control Order, 2013. The matter was returned to the National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority (NPPA) for recalculation of charges based on the judgment in Union of India and Another v. Bharat Serums and Vaccines Limited.

COURT ITS OWN MOTION VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ANR [W.P.(C)-3168/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Government of NCT of Delhi addressed issues in a public interest litigation concerning the management of pension schemes for widows, widowers, and senior citizens through a detailed counter affidavit. The Department of Women and Child Development and the Department of Social Welfare are implementing various financial assistance schemes to support these vulnerable groups. The petition was closed with no further orders issued.

DATTA POWER INFRA PRIVATE LIMITED VS SOLAR ENERGY CORPORATION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-2789/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Datta Power Infra Private Limited's writ petition was dismissed on the grounds that the petitioner lacked a legal right to demand a Letter of Award from the Solar Energy Corporation of India for the SECI-Tranche-XVI bidding process. The petitioner's arguments were based on the "pool tariff" concept, which contradicted their own claims. The discovered tariff in the tender was Rs. 3.98/kWh, and the previous tender had not secured a buyer even at the lower tariff of Rs. 3.94/kWh. The petition was deemed meritless.

DINESH KUMAR SHARMA & ANR. VS THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ORS. [W.P.(C)-15695/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The upcoming elections for the Delhi Nagrik Sehkari Bank Ltd. will only allow participation from the 18,702 verified members. No new members will be admitted until the election process concludes, and the Registrar of Co-operative Societies will preserve the election records until any disputes are settled.

DR B. R. AMBEDKAR INSTITUTE OF DENTAL SCIENCE AND HOSPITAL VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [LPA-525/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Institute of Dental Science and Hospital was dismissed regarding the withdrawal of recognition, cessation of admissions, and closure of the institution. The request to add Dr. Dibyendu Majumdar, accused of mala fide actions, was not allowed as he was not part of the original writ petition. The decision of the Dental Council of India and the Central Government was upheld based on findings from two inspections that identified deficiencies in the institution, with a preference for expert decisions unless proven completely unreasonable, which was not established in this case.

DR NITTIN CHOUDHARY VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-9363/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Director of AIIMS is to form a board of experts to evaluate a petitioner's 46% speech and language disability in relation to the requirements for a postgraduate specialist doctor in a surgical field. The petitioner is permitted to register for and participate in the NEET-MDS 2024 counselling under the PwD category while awaiting the board's assessment. The challenge against the Impugned Regulation, which limits eligibility for MBBS admission for individuals with 40% or more speech and language disability, has been acknowledged as valid.

DR. KUMUD SHARMA & ANR. VS EMPLOYEES STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION [LPA-771/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal for reimbursement of medical charges for bilateral total knee replacement surgery was dismissed. The surgery was deemed non-emergency, scheduled two months post-consultation at an ESIC hospital. According to the ESIC Office Memorandum, reimbursement is not granted for non-emergent treatment at non-empaneled hospitals. The case did not meet the criteria established in a relevant Supreme Court judgment regarding emergencies, leading to a conclusion that there is no entitlement to reimbursement under the applicable rules.

DR. NEENA RAIZADA VS MEDICAL COUNCIL OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY AND ORS [LPA-824/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Dr. Neena Raizada against the Medical Council of India (MCI) regarding warnings issued to Dr. Ravi Kumar and Dr. Arti Lalchandani was dismissed. The certificates issued by the doctors were not deemed untrue or misleading, thus not violating Regulation 7.7 of the Indian Medical Council regulations. However, the act of issuing the certificate without a patient examination constituted professional misconduct under Regulation 8.2, justifying the penalties imposed by the Uttar Pradesh Medical Council. The appeal was dismissed without interference in the punishment.

DR. RUPALI MISHRA VS THE NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMISSION [LPA-747/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal against the National Medical Commission's order, which upheld the Ethical & Medical Registration Board's punishment of Dr. Rupali Mishra for violating medical conduct regulations, was dismissed. The Ethical & Medical Registration Board recommended a 30-day removal of her name from the state medical register, and the National Medical Commission enhanced the penalty by directing the closure of her medical center for 30 days. Three authorities reached concurrent findings of fact, and no errors were identified in the Single Judge's order.

GIRJA DEVI VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-891/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal against the dismissal of a writ petition challenging notices from the Central Public Works Department (CPWD) was dismissed. The temporary structure-cum-workplace in question does not qualify as a 'jhuggi' under the Delhi Slum & JJ Rehabilitation and Relocation Policy, 2015, and therefore does not warrant rehabilitation or relocation. The argument that the structure is part of an identified JJ Cluster was rejected. Additionally, the Street Vendors (Protection of Livelihood and Regulation of Street Vending) Act, 2014 does not protect unauthorized permanent structures built in violation of land use norms.

GOOD YEAR SECURITY SERVICES R. VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-12890/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Good Year Security Services challenged the tender from the Sports Authority of India for security services at the Major Dhyanchand National Stadium. The average annual turnover requirement of Rs. 31 crores and the evaluation scheme disproportionately favored large companies, effectively excluding smaller competitors. The Sports Authority of India must respond to the petitioner's concerns within 2 working days, with a 1-week hold on awarding the work to allow for any further actions by the petitioner if necessary.

HANS RAJ JAIN VS ELECTION COMMISION OF INDIA [W.P.(C)-11103/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The public interest litigation concerning the Voter Verified Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) system and demands for 100% counting of VVPAT slips was dismissed. The issues raised are already addressed in an earlier Supreme Court judgment. The Election Commission of India has been directed to verify five EVMs per assembly constituency instead of 100%. VVPAT verification has shown no mismatches, making it inappropriate to mandate 100% verification based on mere apprehensions of manipulation.

SMT. HARPYARI (DECEASED) THROUGH LR. VS BADRI BHAGAT JHANDEWALA TEMPLE SOCIETY [FAO(OS)-122/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeals challenging the decision to allow the respondent to submit pleadings from Suit No. 636/1982 and the dismissal of the application to implead additional parties were dismissed. Impleading additional parties was deemed unnecessary, as their interests could be represented through witness testimony. The appellant's inability to contest the judgment in Suit No. 1679/1982 was noted, as no prior defense was asserted by the appellant's predecessor. The inclusion of Suit No. 636/1982 pleadings does not equate to their proof; the respondent still bears the burden of proof in trial.

IDBI BANK LTD VS SH LAGADAPATI MADHUSUDHAN RAO & ORS. [LPA-550/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by IDBI Bank Ltd. was dismissed. The direction allowing the respondents, whole-time directors and guarantors of a defaulting company, to request a personal hearing was deemed non-mandatory. The bank retains the discretion to accept or reject such requests, provided reasons are given. All parties' rights and contentions remain open, and respondents can challenge the bank's decision if aggrieved.

JATIN GROVER VS INDIAN RENEWABLE ENERGY DEVELOPMENT AGENCY LIMITED IREDA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-12668/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The public interest litigation challenging the recruitment process of the Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency Limited (IREDA) is not maintainable. A PIL is not appropriate in service matters, and a candidate who participated in the selection process without objection cannot later challenge it simply due to unsuccessful outcomes. The petitioner had previously filed a writ petition on the same issue, which was dismissed, indicating an attempt to re-litigate. Consequently, the PIL was dismissed.

LATA BANSAL & ORS. VS RAMAN KUMAR BANSAL & ORS. [FAO(OS)-106/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Defendants 3, 4, and 5 was dismissed due to their negligence in filing the written statement and affidavit of admission and denial in a suit. They were provided multiple opportunities to submit these documents but failed to do so. The Plaintiff cannot be held responsible for the Defendants' inaction.

M S ANTARCTICA PROPERTIES COMPANY LIMITED VS DELHI METRO RAIL CORPORATION LIMITED [W.P.(C)-9161/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

M/S Antarctica Properties Company Limited's petition against the cancellation of a tender by Delhi Metro Rail Corporation Limited (DMRC) was dismissed. The tender document allowed DMRC to reject bids without reason, and this discretion was not exercised arbitrarily. The DMRC's Tender Committee noted that the petitioner's bid was significantly lower than both the reserve price and the net present value, indicating a lack of healthy competition. The cancellation of the tender was found to be legally valid and justified.

M/S ASSOCIATED TUBES VS ANIL SINGHAL [FAO (COMM)-191/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by M/s Associated Tubes against the dismissal of their petition to set aside an arbitral award was dismissed. The challenges regarding the arbitrator's jurisdiction and price fixation for the third SS Tube Mill were deemed without merit. The appellant had previously applied for the reference of disputes to arbitration and consented to the appointment of the arbitrator, confirming that the quotation dated 18th November, 2019 fell within the scope of arbitration.

M/S KEYA FOODS VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-921/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the appellant's writ petition was upheld, but a 4-month extension to vacate the stall was granted. This decision was influenced by a similar case from the Supreme Court that also provided a 4-month extension to allottees under specific conditions. No grounds for interference with the original decision were identified, leading to the extension in line with the related matter.

MANAGING COMMITTEE MASJID SYED FAIZ ELAHI VS DELHI WAQF BOARD & ORS. [LPA-920/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant managing committee of the Masjid Syed Faiz Elahi must deposit 50% of the demand made by the Delhi Waqf Board within 30 days, pending the writ petition's outcome. Evidence, including a 2004 order dissolving the previous committee and minutes from a 2014 Board meeting, supported the 20% income payment arrangement, justifying the interim order. The deposit will be subject to the final decision on the writ petition.

MANAS VIHAR CGHS LTD. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-6523/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition by the petitioner-cooperative society for the demolition of unauthorized construction by respondent no. 3 is maintainable, as arbitration under the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act is not applicable in this context. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) has the authority to remove illegal constructions, regardless of their location within a property. However, the petitioner-society lacks the statutory authority to impose penalties on defaulting members. The MCD is directed to act in accordance with the law promptly, with assistance from the Delhi Police, while respondent no. 3 may take legal steps if aggrieved by MCD actions.

MD. SHAMIM VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (DDA) & ORS. [LPA-750/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant's appeal regarding the dismissal of their writ petition for alternative land allotment after a plot demolition was dismissed due to a 17-year delay, which was deemed unreasonable. No explanation was provided for the inaction between 2006 and 2015. Although there is no formal limitation period for writ petitions under Article 226, significant delays parallel to those in civil actions are considered unreasonable.

MEGHANA T.V VS UNION OF INDIA [LPA-624/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal to investigate the affairs of M/s Vikram Structures Pvt. Ltd. (VSPL) and its directors was dismissed due to the cause of action arising in Karnataka, where the alleged acts occurred and where VSPL's registered office is located. The relevant jurisdiction lies with the Karnataka High Court, which is better suited to handle issues stemming from the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) order. The appellant was directed to approach the Karnataka High Court for resolution.

MS PREETI VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8771/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's writ petition regarding unauthorized construction was deemed motivated, but the existence of the unauthorized construction was acknowledged. The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) was directed to address the unauthorized construction and hold liable any officials at fault. The respondent committed to demolishing the unauthorized structure and conforming to sanctioned plans within four weeks. The respondent was advised to pursue appropriate legal action if dissatisfied with MCD's future orders.

NAGMA SHEERIN & ORS. VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-814/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal was dismissed due to the lack of evidence showing that construction was done with prior approval from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi. Unregistered documents such as agreements to sell and powers of attorney were deemed invalid for property transfer. The principles established indicate that illegality cannot be overlooked simply because others have received similar illegal benefits.

NANDITA VS NATIONAL TESTING AGENCY AND ORS [LPA-782/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the answer key for two questions in the NEET-UG 2024 exam was dismissed. There is a presumption of correctness regarding the answer key, which can be overturned only if it is demonstrably wrong, and no reasonable subject expert would consider it correct. The National Testing Agency (NTA) consulted subject experts regarding the challenges raised, and the decision of these experts cannot be overridden.

NBCC (INDIA) LTD. VS MICRO SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES FACILITATION COUNCIL & ANR. [LPA-505/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by NBCC (India) Ltd. against the referral to the Delhi International Arbitration Centre for arbitration proceedings under the MSMED Act was dismissed. The power of the Micro Small and Medium Enterprises Facilitation Council under the MSMED Act differs from the powers granted to courts under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The issue of jurisdiction lacks inherent authority and is to be determined by the Arbitral Tribunal as per the MSMED Act, which can address its own jurisdiction. Any decision regarding that jurisdiction can be challenged under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act.

OPERATION ASHA A REGISTERED SOCIETY THROUGH ITS PRESIDENT MR RAKESH K KHURANA VS DR SHELLY BATRA & ORS. [FAO(OS)-114/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The lower court's decision to grant leave under Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the respondents, former officials of Operation Asha, was upheld. Operation Asha is classified as a constructive trust, with its donations viewed as an endowment for public purpose. Allegations of breach of trust in its administration warranted the application of Section 92 CPC, leading to the dismissal of the appellant organization's appeal and allowing the respondents to file the suit.

PAWAN HANS HELICOPTERS LTD VS MRS. ANNIE THOMAS & ORS. [LPA-838/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant company, Pawan Hans Helicopters Ltd., is liable to pay an additional insurance cover of Rs.30 lakhs to the wives of deceased pilots. An additional "heavy risk" insurance policy was in place for pilots in Naxal-infested areas, intended to enhance coverage rather than replace the existing policy. The doctrine of legitimate expectation applies, as the company maintained this additional policy before and after the accident, leading the pilots to anticipate enhanced coverage. Arguments regarding the policy's status at the time of the accident and the potential financial impact were rejected, emphasizing the importance of fairness and consistency in the company's dealings with employees.

POOJA GUPTA & ORS. VS INDIAN BANK & ANR. [W.P.(C)-8773/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition challenging recovery proceedings by Indian Bank under the DRT Act was dismissed due to the availability of effective alternative remedies under that Act. Since the petitioners can present their case before the DRT, the petition was not entertained, but they retain the right to address all contentions and submissions there.

PRASHANT MANCHANDA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [W.P.(C)-7824/2017]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Extensive use of money and muscle power was observed in the Delhi University Students' Union and college elections, violating the Lyngdoh Committee Guidelines. Senior management of Delhi University and its colleges failed to enforce these guidelines. Voting in the elections was allowed to proceed, but vote counting was postponed until candidates removed all campaign materials and restored vandalized public properties. The University of Delhi, DMRC, MCD, and Delhi Police were required to submit a fresh status report within a week.

SAMA JAHAN @ SHAMA PARVEEN VS GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. [LPA-966/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Sama Jahan was dismissed, affirming the order for her and Subhan Jirjis to pay Rs. 10,000 each per month in maintenance to the 87-year-old respondent no. 2, the property owner. The maintenance payment was deemed valid under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007. Sama Jahan receives a monthly rental income of Rs. 13,500 from the property, surpassing the maintenance amount required for respondent no. 2.

SAMIR MALIK VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-10262/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The public interest litigation challenging the Government's notification declaring 25th June as "Samvidhaan Hatya Diwas" was dismissed. The notification, which addresses the abuse of power during the Emergency declared on 25th June 1975, does not undermine or insult the Constitution of India. It does not violate the Constitution or the Prevention of Insults to National Honour Act, 1971.

SANJEEV GUPTA VS THE SECRETARY GENERAL [LPA-616/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant's letters patent appeal was dismissed, confirming the prior dismissal of the writ petition. The appellant has remedies available through proper channels, including the Registrar of the Supreme Court and the Chief Justice of India for urgent matters. Failure to adhere to the stipulated procedure for listing the restoration application rendered the writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution unmaintainable due to the existence of alternative effective remedies.

SAUMYA DAS & ORS. VS INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY & ORS. [LPA-776/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the dismissal of writ petitions was dismissed due to delay and laches. The appellants were found to have delayed in contesting a notification from October 2020 that limited the re-admission period, which should have been challenged immediately or at least at the expiration of their enrollment period. This delay precluded them from obtaining discretionary relief under Article 226, leading to the dismissal of the appeal without costs.

SAVALIA RAJAN VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-775/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Savalia Rajan against his debarment from the NEET PG examination for 2024 was dismissed. Rajan provided false information in his application for the 2023 NEET PG exam, including misrepresenting his medical registration and FMGE exam results. This constituted serious misconduct. The decision of the Examinations Ethics Committee to debar him from both the 2023 and 2024 exams was upheld, despite some miscommunication from authorities regarding the penalty.

SH BIRENDAR SINGH VS THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11646/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The election for the Managing Committee of the co-operative society is scheduled for 6th October 2024. Outstanding dues defaulters will be excluded from voting, but they can raise disputes before the next Managing Committee. The election schedule cannot be changed or amended without prior consent.

SH. ANURAG MAHAJAN VS TUMLARE TRAVELS PRIVATE LIMITED [FAO(OS)-91/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Anurag Mahajan was dismissed, challenging the dismissal of his applications to set aside a judgment from November 15, 2019, and to condone the delay in filing. Allegations of gross negligence by his counsel were unsubstantiated due to a lack of evidence showing counsel's involvement. Mahajan was aware of the judgment on the same day it was issued but delayed action until much later, with his explanation for the delay deemed unpersuasive. A confession letter admitting to financial irregularities further weakened his case. The appeal was dismissed with costs.

SHABNAM BURNEY VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-8035/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Unauthorized construction on the Yamuna river bank and floodplains poses environmental and flood-related risks. The Vice Chairman of the Delhi Development Authority is appointed as the Nodal Officer to coordinate the removal of all encroachments and illegal constructions in these areas. A meeting with relevant officials must be convened within a week, and an Action Taken Report is required within six weeks.

SHRI PARMOD BAHL VS REGISTRAR, COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES AND ORS [W.P.(C)-9141/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Shri Parmod Bahl's writ petition regarding the allotment of Plot No. 124 to him as a member of the cooperative society was directed to the Registrar Cooperative Society for a decision on his representation within 4 weeks. Bahl has been a member since 1978 and is placed at serial no. 11 on the waiting list of confirmed members. The plot was previously allotted to Smt. Krishna Chopra, whose membership was canceled. The challenge by her legal representatives to this cancellation was dismissed. The society is currently in the process of allotting the vacant plot to a third party.

SHRI SAXENA THROUGH NATURAL GURDIAN VS BSES RAJDHANI POWER LTD [LPA-706/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the order to restore electricity supply to the second and ground floors was dismissed. The initial order required payment of Rs. 2,030 in arrears, which the appellant had agreed to but failed to pay. The order was based on a meter number provided by the appellant's counsel, and it was highlighted that the appellant could not benefit from their own error in supplying the incorrect meter number. The dispute with the property broker was deemed inappropriate for resolution through writ proceedings.

SUDIP KOHLI VS GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-826/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Sudip Kohli for police protection to construct a boundary wall on disputed property was dismissed. Kohli could not provide documentation proving ownership of the property. The demolition of the boundary wall was executed by private residents rather than government officials. Allowing reconstruction under police protection would render the ongoing suit by the Resident Welfare Association irrelevant. Kohli was advised to file a civil suit against the residents who demolished the wall or seek relief in the existing suit while including the Delhi Police as a party.

SURESH KUMARI VS MR. AJAY KUMAR & ANR. [LPA-788/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Letters Patent Appeal filed by Suresh Kumari was dismissed due to lack of challenge to any specific order from the Single Judge. The learned Single Judge was instructed to expedite the resolution of Contempt Case No. 328/2024 and W.P.(C) No. 1567/2024 within three months. No comments were made on the merits of the case, and the rights and contentions of all parties remain open.

UDAY RATRA VS REGIONAL PASSPORT OFFICE DELHI AND ANR [LPA-643/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the dismissal of a writ petition for passport renewal without a No Objection Certificate was dismissed. Section 6 of the Passports Act applies to both issuance and renewal of passports, contradicting the appellant's claim that it only pertains to new passports. Sections 5 and 6 of the Act, along with Rule 5 of the Passport Rules, create an integrated framework for handling passport matters. Previous judgments indicate that if a court order does not specify a renewal period, the passport can only be renewed for one year as per the 1993 notification. The appellant can seek clarification from the concerned trial court regarding the renewal period before applying again.

VIDUSHI KASNIYA VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-977/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The University of Delhi's decision regarding eligibility criteria and guidelines for admission, including which sports qualify for the sports quota, was upheld. The university has the discretion to include or exclude specific sports, such as Karate, from consideration for admission. Candidates cannot claim a right to have their sport included. Courts are advised to be cautious in interfering with university policy decisions unless they are arbitrary. The appeal was dismissed due to a lack of merit in the arguments presented.

VIKRAMJEET SINGH MANN VS UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION & ORS. [LPA-874/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the rejection of retrospective recognition for an MBA degree obtained via distance education in 2008 was dismissed. The writ petition filed in 2014 was deemed barred by laches due to a six-year delay. Even if the recognition prayer were considered, it would need to comply with existing laws prohibiting retrospective recognition for open distance learning courses. A comparison to retrospective recognition for teacher training courses under the NCTE Act was rejected, as no similar legislative framework exists for MBA programs.

YAMUNA KHADAR SLUM UNION VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY AND ORS [LPA-544/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by the Yamuna Khadar Slum Union was dismissed on the basis that the Yamuna Khadar Jhuggi Camp is an illegal encroachment on government land acquired for the river's channelization. The slum cluster does not qualify for rehabilitation under the 2015 Delhi Slum and JJ Rehabilitation and Relocation Policy, as it was not a notified slum cluster before 2006. Removal of the encroachment from the ecologically fragile riverbed serves the public interest.

AIR INDIA LIMITED VS ALL INDIA AIRCRAFT ENGINEERS ASSOCIATION & ANR. [FAO(OS)-125/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A conditional stay on the execution of an arbitral award in favor of the All India Aircraft Engineers Association was modified. Air India must deposit 50% of the decretal amount in an interest-bearing fixed deposit and provide a bank guarantee for the remaining 50%. This decision balanced Air India's status as an ongoing entity with the All India Aircraft Engineers Association's entitlement to dues as recognized by the arbitral award.

ATS TOWNSHIP PVT LTD VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CIRCLE 1(1) DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-13790/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The initiation of reassessment proceedings by the Income Tax Department against ATS Township Pvt Ltd for the assessment year 2014-15 was barred by limitation. The reassessment must occur within the time limits specified under Sections 153A and 153C of the Income Tax Act, as amended by the Finance Act 2021. In the absence of allegations or evidence of escaped income, the extended 10-year period under Section 153A did not apply. The reassessment notice for AY 2014-15 was issued beyond the 6-year limitation period, leading to the impugned notices and order being set aside.

CANCER AID AND RESEARCH FOUNDATION VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-8829/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The eligibility condition in the EOI/tender by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi required NGOs to have a minimum average annual turnover of Rs. 4 crores over the last three years for providing mid-day meals to school children. The rationale for this criterion was based on a formula in the CPWD manual, indicating it was not arbitrary or unreasonable. The fixation of eligibility conditions in tenders is a policy matter, and interference is limited to cases where conditions are arbitrary or violate legal principles, which was not applicable in this situation.

DR AMITABH MAINI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [W.P.(C)-17317/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petition filed by Dr. Amitabh Maini challenging the Unified Building Byelaws, 2016, and the Master Plan for Delhi, 2021 regarding ground coverage, FAR, and setbacks for residential plots was dismissed. The provisions allowing lower category setbacks when maximum permissible construction is unattainable were deemed constitutional and not in violation of the Delhi Development Authority Act, 1957. The provisions are considered reasonable and rational, ensuring that the maximum constructed space for a plot is not less than that of the preceding category's largest plot. The petitioner was also ordered to pay costs of R.S. 50,000.

GL SHARMA VS CPIO, THROUGH SHANTIMOY NANDAN NATIONAL THERMAL POWER CORPORATION LTD, NEW DELHI [LPA-884/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the appellant's writ petition was upheld, with the information requested about note sheets for voluntary retirements deemed personal and exempt from disclosure under Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act. The appellant's claim of error in considering a different ground for dismissal was rejected, as wide jurisdiction exists to examine issues based on the law. There was no disagreement on the matter or referral to a larger bench.

GURNAM SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS [LPA-548/2019]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant is entitled to 10% per annum interest on ex gratia compensation of Rs. 1,00,000 from 16th January 2006 to 8th April 2016, due to delays in payment attributed to the respondents. Additionally, costs of Rs. 25,000 are awarded to the appellant by the Union of India.

GURUJI ELEVATOR VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-445/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The CPWD rejected the appellant's application for enlistment as a Class-I contractor in the Building & Roads category due to insufficient work experience in "building work" as defined by the Enlistment Rules, 2021. The appellant's experience was primarily in labour-intensive contracts for lift operation and maintenance. Although the Advisory Committee initially recommended enlistment, the Additional Director General evaluated the relevant material and was justified in disagreeing with the recommendation, leading to a non-arbitrary and reasonable decision-making process.

HANI KHATOON VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-748/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal filed by Hani Khatoon was dismissed, upholding the earlier dismissal of her writ petition. The determination of the "dies non" period during the COVID-19 pandemic and the extension of the license period are considered policy decisions by the zonal/divisional railways, reflecting the pandemic's impact in various areas. Interference in such commercial decisions by competent authorities is not warranted, and the appeal was deemed lacking in merit.

JACKSON SQUARE AVIATION IRELAND LIMITED VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CIRCLE INT TAX 2(1)(2) & ANR. [W.P.(C)-11636/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Assessing Officer lacked jurisdiction to issue the Final Assessment Order dated 20.05.2024 before the Dispute Resolution Panel addressed the Assessee's objections to the Draft Assessment Order. The requirement to wait for the DRP's decision applies, provided objections are timely filed, irrespective of whether the AO was aware of their pendency. The Final Assessment Order was set aside, and the matter was remitted to the DRP for proper consideration as per Section 144C of the Income Tax Act.

KAMAL BHASIN VS CENTRAL PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE AND ANR [LPA-764/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The names of the universities from which executives recruited by Power Finance Corporation Limited obtained their qualifications were withheld as this information was deemed personal and not in the larger public interest, aligning with the exemption in Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act. The appellant's history of multiple RTI applications and a familial dismissal from service were also considered. The appeal was dismissed with no grounds for interference with the previous judgment.

KARAMM BIR VS ALL INDIA COUNCIL FOR TECHNICAL EDUCATION [LPA-604/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The dismissal of the appellant's writ petition challenging the validation of his B.Tech degree obtained through distance learning was upheld. The Supreme Court had invalidated such degrees from 2001-2005 and directed remedial examinations in 2018. The appellant's claim of inadequate notification about the exams was rejected, as he acknowledged awareness of the June 2018 exam. Additionally, there was no statutory provision allowing for the rounding off of marks by AICTE, which could compromise technical education standards. The appeal was dismissed.

M/S GRANDSLAM DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD VS AKSHAY GANDHI PROPREITOR OF PRAXIS DESIGN SOLUTIONS [FAO (COMM)-236/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

A valid arbitration agreement between the parties necessitates referral of disputes to arbitration, irrespective of one party's claim of no dispute. A previous ruling that restricted the invocation of an arbitration clause for admitted liabilities is overturned, aligning with the limited examination scope under Section 8 of the Arbitration Act. The case stands independently without indication of disagreement among the judges.

M/S J DUNCAN HEALTHCARE PVT LTD VS CENTRAL MEDICAL SERVICES SOCIETY [LPA-674/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The blacklisting of the appellant company by the Central Medical Services Society is justified based on the appellant's admission that the performance bank guarantees (PBGs) submitted were forged. The significance of PBGs in the tender process underscores the bidder's responsibility for their authenticity. The appellant's claims of unawareness regarding the fraud perpetrated by its JV partner lack merit, as the admitted facts regarding the forgery eliminate the need for further analysis.

M/S PAMPAR OVENFRESH FOODS PRIVATE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [LPA-848/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Pampar Ovenfresh Foods Private Limited was dismissed, affirming the decision to recover the first installment of the grant-in-aid with interest. The appellant had a fair opportunity to present its case, which was considered. The Joint Inspection Report indicated no physical progress at the appellant's site, a finding that was not contested. The examination of disputed questions of fact was deemed outside the scope of judicial review.

M/S. ARYAN CARGO EXPRESS PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [LPA-864/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

M/s Aryan Cargo Express Private Limited was not entitled to benefits under the "Companies Fresh Start Scheme, 2020" or the "extended CFSS 2020" as its name had been struck off the Register of Companies before the introduction of CFSS 2020. The extended CFSS 2020 applied only to companies restored between December 1, 2020, and December 31, 2020, which did not include the appellant. The claim for benefits under section 460 of the Companies Act, 2013 was also rejected due to ineligibility under the introduced schemes.

MANJEET SINGH CHUGH VS GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-5830/2022]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) must complete remaining road improvement and strengthening works in the Kotla Mubarakpur area within three months. Satisfactory administrative action has been taken against the contractor M/s J.R. Construction for substandard work. The matter has been pending since 2022, with no justification for further delays in the completion of the road works.

MANOJ KUMAR AGARWAL VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [LPA-745/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeals regarding the duration of the "dies non" period granted during the COVID-19 pandemic were dismissed. The determination of this period was based on various factors related to the impact of COVID-19 across the country and was classified as a policy decision by the zonal/divisional railways. The current arguments made by the appellants were not part of the original dispute, so they could not be considered on appeal. No errors or infirmities were identified in the single judge's judgment, which was reaffirmed.

MORGAN ASIA LIMITED VS RESERVE BANK OF INDIA & ANR. [W.P.(C)-10690/2021]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The writ petition filed by Morgan Asia Limited was dismissed, affirming the validity of the RBI notification dated 10 November 2014 and relevant provisions of the RBI Act. The petitioner did not demonstrate any lack of legislative competence or violation of fundamental rights. It was determined that the petitioner qualified as a Non-Banking Financial Company under the RBI Act and was subject to the conditions of its Certificate of Registration. The RBI had provided an opportunity for the petitioner to be heard, and the petitioner utilized the statutory appeal process, negating claims of natural justice violations.

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION & ANR. VS DOON VALLEY INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION [LPA-615/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) cannot withdraw recognition from the Doon Valley Institute of Education for changing its constitution from a society to a company. The NCTE Regulations do not explicitly prohibit such changes, and a previously required prior approval was omitted in the 2014 Regulations. Internal communication from NCTE in 2016 is not sufficient to override the Regulations. Consequently, the recognition of the respondent is reinstated.

NEW ASHOKA COOPERATIVE HOUSE BUILDING SOCIETY VS VEENA KUMARI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-12839/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The orders of the Financial Commissioner and Registrar of Cooperative Societies reinstating Mr. L.C. Gupta's membership in the petitioner cooperative society were upheld, as previous litigation did not consider that Gupta's membership in the petitioner predates his membership in another society. Appropriate proceedings were directed to be initiated against Gupta or those claiming through him regarding his membership and allotment in the other cooperative society, emphasizing that individuals providing false information should not benefit from it.

PC FINANCIAL SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED VS DIRECTORATE OF ENFORCEMENT & ANR. [LPA-808/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Seizing Authority and Competent Authority had sufficient tangible material to establish a "reason to believe" for seizures under the Foreign Exchange Management Act. The merits of the case were correctly examined, and there was no need for intervention under Article 226 as the Adjudicating Authority was already considering the matter. The argument regarding the lack of opportunity to challenge the seizure orders was rejected, as the appellant had voluntarily withdrawn its appeal before the Appellate Tribunal. The appeal was dismissed with no grounds for interference with the decision.

PR. COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX -7, DELHI VS PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK [ITA-193/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decision affirmed the applicability of section 14A of the Income Tax Act, 1961, excluding exempt income from shares held as stock-in-trade, supported by prior Supreme Court rulings. The bank's amortization of premium paid on securities in the Held to Maturity category was permitted, as were claims for losses from reclassification of securities and contributions to the Employees' Pension Fund as business expenses. Additionally, depreciation on goodwill from amalgamation was allowed, resulting in the dismissal of the Revenue's appeal without substantial legal questions.

PRACHEEN SHIV MANDIR AVAM AKHADA SAMITI VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY & ORS. [LPA-498/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by Pracheen Shiv Mandir Avam Akhada Samiti was dismissed, affirming the demolition of the Pracheen Shiv Mandir. The temple was deemed an unauthorized construction on encroached land within an eco-sensitive area of the Yamuna River floodplain. The Delhi Development Authority had the authority to remove the structure based on a Memorandum of Understanding with the landowner, the State of Uttar Pradesh. The appellant did not provide documentation to establish ownership or legitimacy of the temple. Claims regarding violations of natural justice were rejected, and the appeal was deemed infructuous as the temple structure had already been demolished.

PRIYANSHU RAJ VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [LPA-777/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Dr. Priyanshu Raj was debarred from the National Eligibility cum Entrance Examination (Post-Graduate) Examination, 2024 (NEET PG) due to serious misrepresentation in his application for NEET PG 2023. He failed to meet the prerequisites of clearing the Foreign Graduate Medical Examination (FMGE) and being registered with the National Medical Council or State Medical Council, which constituted a significant violation.

RAVI PRAKASH SONI VS CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION AND ORS. [LPA-523/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decisions of the Central Information Commission and the Single Judge were upheld regarding the rejection of an RTI application for information about a bank locker held by a deceased individual. Due to disputes among the legal heirs, the bank could not disclose the information as it could not act as an adjudicator. The appellant also failed to demonstrate any "larger public interest" necessary for disclosure under the RTI Act.

ROHIT CHAUHAN VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI & ANR. [LPA-910/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal was dismissed on the grounds that the MCD's internal circular from July 21, 2014, prohibiting sub-division of plots after February 8, 2007, is constitutional and merely reiterates the DDA Regulations of 2011, which were not challenged by the appellant. The assessment of whether the appellant's sub-division met the DDA Regulations is pending with the competent authority, and no findings were made to avoid prejudicing any party's rights. No costs were assigned.

S A N GARMENTS MANUFACTURING PRIVATE LIMITED VS PR COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX 7 AND ANR & ANR. [W.P.(C)-932/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The issuance of a certificate by the Designated Authority to reopen a concluded settlement under the Direct Tax Vivad Se Vishwas Act, 2020, is without legal authority. A final certificate issued under Section 5(1) of the Act concludes all disputes regarding the 'tax arrear', prohibiting further action by the Designated Authority. The impugned certificate was set aside.

SA INFRASTRUCTURE CONSULTANTS PVT LTD VS NATIONAL HIGHWAY AUTHORITY OF INDIA [LPA-676/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal by SA Infrastructure Consultants Pvt Ltd against the debarment order from the National Highway Authority of India was dismissed. Judicial review was limited to examining the decision-making process rather than the merits of the decision. Principles of natural justice were adhered to, as the appellant received a show-cause notice and an opportunity for a personal hearing. The debarment order's grounds were deemed clarificatory. An alternative remedy of arbitration was acknowledged under the consultancy agreement, and the judgments cited by the appellant were found irrelevant. No order was made regarding costs.

SAMIKSHA CHAUDHARY & ANR. VS MAULANA AZAD MEDICAL COLLEGE & ORS. [LPA-558/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal was dismissed, confirming that the appellants were ineligible to participate in the 3rd Professional Part-II MBBS Examination in March 2024. The appellants had not completed the required 12-month training period for Phase III as mandated by the Graduate Medical Education Regulations, 1997, despite having training completion certificates from their colleges. The University of Delhi's position that the appellants could not sit for the exam without meeting the training requirement was supported, even though they were permitted to finish their remaining clinical training.

SANJAY KUMAR & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA THROUGH ITS SECRETARY & ORS. [LPA-591/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal challenging the eviction notices and demolition of the Khyber Pass Hostel Hutments was dismissed. The appellants were unauthorized occupants, as their predecessors-in-interest were licensees whose license had expired, rendering them trespassers. The land ownership was established as belonging to the Central Government and under the Ministry of Defence's occupation. The actions of the respondents were deemed lawful, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

SH HARLAL VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY THROUGH ITS VICE CHAIRMAN & ORS. [LPA-337/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal against the eviction order by the Estate Officer was dismissed. The appellant did not demonstrate any valid legal grounds to contest the eviction proceedings initiated by the Delhi Development Authority. Arguments regarding jurisdiction, lawful occupation under a lease, and adverse possession were rejected, as the appellant had previously engaged in the proceedings under the Public Premises Act without raising these points. No issues were found in the orders of the lower authorities or the judgment of the Single Judge.

SHIVA BUILD TECH PRIVATE LIMITED VS NORTHERN RAILWAY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-15671/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The order rejecting the petitioner's bid and initiating forfeiture of the earnest money deposit (EMD) and business ban was quashed due to a lack of reasons and contradictions between the order and the counter affidavit. A show cause notice regarding the proposed forfeiture of EMD and business ban must be issued within one week, following legal principles.

SMT MANJIRA DEVI AYURVEDA MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL VS UTTRAKHAND UNIVERSITY OF AYURVEDA & ORS. [LPA-894/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appellant college's writ petition challenging the NEET requirement for Ayurvedic course admissions was dismissed due to the High Court of Uttarakhand having appropriate territorial jurisdiction. The cause of action arose within Uttarakhand, and it was determined that the Uttarakhand High Court is the more convenient forum since both the appellant college and the respondent university are located there. Agreement on the issue of territorial jurisdiction was unanimous, with no referral to a larger bench.

SONALI CHHABURAO GITE VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS [LPA-500/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The appeal against the dismissal of a writ petition challenging the NADA Rules 2021 was dismissed. A writ court cannot compel the government to enact or notify a law that has not been brought into force. India, as a signatory to the UNESCO Anti-Doping Convention, is required to adhere to international doping standards, including the WADA Code. The NADA Rules 2021 remain effective until the NADA Act 2022 is enacted. Legal arguments against the 2021 Rules were left for consideration by the Anti-Doping Disciplinary Panel (ADDP). No grounds for interference with the previous judgment were identified, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

SUMIT BHARANA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-16701/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The petitioner's application for compounding of offences under Sections 276B and 278B of the Income Tax Act, 1961 was incorrectly rejected. New CBDT guidelines permit co-accused to apply for compounding separately, regardless of whether the main accused has submitted an application. The previous decision was set aside, and the matter was remanded for a fresh decision in accordance with the updated guidelines. Prosecution proceedings against co-accused can continue even if the main accused company's liability ceases due to the Insolvency Bankruptcy Code.

SUN BROADCAST EQUIPMENTS PVT LTD VS PRASAR BHARATI AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-13960/2023]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The term "end-of-life equipment" in the tender conditions should be interpreted to mean that the product must not be obsolete. The discontinuation of the product's sale by the manufacturer indicates obsolescence, which disqualified the equipment included in the bid by Respondent No. 3. However, no relief could be granted to the petitioner since the equipment supply was already complete. Clear and unambiguous drafting of tender conditions is necessary to prevent confusion for bidders.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER J AND K ERA VS M/S ABHIRAM INFRA PROJECTS PVT LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-261/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 applies to the dispute since the place of arbitration was New Delhi. The appellant's application to set aside the arbitral award was filed beyond the 3-month period specified in Section 34(3) of the A&C Act, and the delay was not condoned. The appeal was dismissed.

THE LT GOVERNOR OF DELHI AND ORS VS DELHI TAMIL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION (REGD) THROUGH ITS SECRETARY [LPA-642/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The rejection of the respondent society's proposal to fill vacant posts in its schools due to the absence of a Management Committee was deemed unsustainable. The society provided documents confirming the existence of Management Committees for each school, which were not disputed. The issue of one individual managing multiple schools was recognized as a procedural irregularity. The appeal was dismissed, and the respondent society was bound to comply with Rule 96(3) of the Delhi Schools Education Rules, 1973.

TILAK RAJ & ANR. VS SUNIL AGARWAL & ORS. [LPA-948/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The direction to the Registrar of Societies to update records based on the minutes of the June 13, 2018 meeting was identified as an error. The correction specified that the direction pertains only to the communication from that date, not the meeting minutes. The only document available was the communication, not the minutes. Other parts of the prior judgment remained unchanged, with no commentary on the merits of the case awaiting trial.

VATSAL GOSWAMI VS DELHI UNIVERSITY THROUGH ITS DEAN ADMISSIONS [LPA-1181/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The decision to dismiss Vatsal Goswami's appeal was based on the allocation of all seats in the final round of counselling by Delhi University, leaving no vacant seats. Granting mid-term admissions due to subsequently vacant seats was deemed problematic for the admission process.

VEDPAL SHEETAL CHAUDHARY VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI AND ORS [W.P.(C)-11078/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Chief Secretary of the GNCTD is to treat a writ petition as a representation regarding the faulty construction of a drain in the Sunday Market Area of Aya Nagar, Delhi, by the IFCD. This construction has caused water to flow back onto the roads, resulting in waterlogging, a recurring issue even outside the monsoon season. A decision is to be made quickly, ideally within two weeks, after consulting MCD and IFCD officials. Rights and contentions of all parties remain open.

VEMPARALA SRIKANT AND ANR VS GENERAL SECRETARY, INDIA BULLS CENTRUM FLAT OWNERS WELFARE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY [LPA-744/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

Orders from the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) in appellate or revisional jurisdiction can be challenged before the High Court within the territorial limits where the cause of action arose. In this case, since the cause of action originated in Telangana, the appropriate forum for such a challenge is the High Court of Telangana, not the High Court of Delhi. The appeal was dismissed due to lack of territorial jurisdiction.

YOGENDER MOHAN RUSTAGI VS ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX CENTRAL CIRCLE 28 DELHI & ANR. [W.P.(C)-17022/2024]

Judges: Acting Chief Justice, Justice Tushar Rao Gedela

The Assessing Officer's order under Section 148A(d) of the Income Tax Act, 1961, and the notice under Section 148 were set aside due to inadequate consideration of the petitioner's replies provided on 14.08.2024 and 30.08.2024. The matter was remanded for the AO to reassess the replies and make an informed decision, allowing for further information to be sought from the petitioner as needed.

COL. SANDEEP SHARMA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-7541/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Navin Chawla

The disciplinary proceedings against Col. Sandeep Sharma were dropped due to the fault of the respondents. Consequently, he should be considered for promotion to Brigadier as if there were no impediments, despite not meeting the criteria of the 'Adequately Exercised (AE) Policy.' This conclusion is based solely on the unique facts of this case and does not set a precedent.

A.WILLIAM RINALDY VS ANU PROMILLA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-142/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by A. William Rinaldy against the Family Court's order for ad-interim maintenance of Rs. 35,000 per month for his wife Anu Promilla and their children was dismissed. The maintenance amount was agreed upon by both parties, and the appeal challenging this consensus was rejected.

ABDUL MIR KHALICK VS ORIFLAME INDIA PVT. LTD. [RFA(COMM)-277/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's judgment granting the plaintiff Rs. 11,70,132/- with pre-suit interest from September 1, 2016, was set aside. The trial court failed to examine the merits of the case and issued a judgment based solely on the plaint, despite the defendant not filing a written statement on time. It was emphasized that the court must ensure there are no disputed facts requiring proof from the plaintiff. Additionally, justification for pre-suit interest must be based on contract, custom, or statute. The trial court was instructed to proceed in accordance with the law.

ABHAY KUMAR JHA VS M/S BOSCH [RFA(OS)(COMM)-1/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The respondent has a strong case for recovering ₹1.49 crore, while the appellant presents a plausible defense regarding the non-receipt of goods/services. Although the appellant's defense is considered improbable, it raises triable issues. Conditional leave is granted to the appellant to defend the suit, contingent upon depositing the principal claim amount and providing a bank guarantee for the interest amount. Further proceedings will be handled by a Single Bench.

ABHEEPSA GUPTA & ANR. VS POOJA SHARMA BAJAJ [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-361/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order of the Family Court dismissing the appellant's application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure was set aside. The matter will be transferred to the appropriate civil court as the respondent expressed a desire for expedited proceedings and showed no objection to the transfer. The appellants also agreed to the transfer if the respondent submits an appropriate application.

ABHISHEK GARG VS AVNI JAIN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-71/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court awarded interim maintenance of Rs. 75,000 per month to the wife in divorce proceedings under the Hindu Marriage Act. The appellant argued that the Family Court did not adequately consider his expenses in Singapore. The maintenance amount was deemed reasonable, with the provision that any amounts paid in other proceedings would be adjusted against this maintenance. The appeal was dismissed with no grounds for interference in the Family Court's order.

ABHISHEK SRIVASTAVA VS SHRUTI SRIVASTAVA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-46/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the ad-interim maintenance order of Rs. 25,000 per month in favor of the wife was dismissed. The husband had a gross monthly salary of Rs. 138,000 and a take-home salary of Rs. 78,000, while the wife earned a stipend of Rs. 27,000 per month as a student. The maintenance order was deemed reasonable given the wife's responsibilities for herself and a minor child. Income affidavits and bank statements were to be submitted for a final determination on maintenance. The appeal did not present sufficient grounds for interference with the decision.

ABHISHEK VERMA VS MANSI MITTAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-352/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal resulted in the setting aside of a Family Court order that dismissed an application for waiver of the six-month cooling-off period for divorce by mutual consent under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act. The intention of one party to remarry within the cooling-off period was deemed insufficient to reject the waiver. Emphasis was placed on the quality of the marital relationship as the primary consideration for granting a divorce. The parties were granted liberty to submit a new waiver application to the Family Court, which should consider relevant observations and precedents.

ABHISHEK YADAV VS DELHI STATE LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY & ANR. [W.P.(C)-4827/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

A public interest litigation petition addressed child victims' rights to compensation under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012, and the Delhi Victim Compensation Scheme, 2018. A comprehensive Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) was established to raise awareness of victims' rights and simplify the process for obtaining compensation. A new section was added to streamline the disbursal of interim and final compensation, addressing specific challenges faced by child victims. Directions were issued to relevant authorities to ensure effective implementation of the revised SOP.

ADTV COMMUNICATION PRIVATE LIMITED (FORMERLY AEZ INFRATECH PRIVATE LIMITED) VS SNG DEVELOPERS LIMITED [EFA(OS) (COMM)-24/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Enforcement of an arbitral award against ADTV Communication Private Limited was upheld, with the appeal dismissed. The appellant did not challenge the arbitral award or object to the enforcement proceedings. The order was modified to require attachment and sale of the appellant's assets due to existing legal restraints on those assets and insufficient liquid funds to comply with the deposit direction.

AKHILESH KUMAR GUPTA VS MS. GUPTA SNIZHANA GRYGORIVNA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-357/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court lacked territorial jurisdiction over the guardianship petition for a minor child who was a Ukrainian citizen, with all relevant proceedings having occurred in Ukraine. Both parents were permanent residents of Ukraine, and the child was unlawfully removed from there, violating established visitation rights. The child's best interests were deemed to be with the mother and sister in Ukraine, despite the war, as they provided a safe environment. Exclusive jurisdiction over custody matters resided with the Ukrainian courts.

AMARJEET SINGH BAMMI & ANR. VS MASTER FATEHVIR SINGH (MINOR) & ORS. [FAO(OS)-6/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellants are required to file the complete record of the GS Service Station Petrol Pump with the Court Registry within one week, allowing the respondents access through their lawyer and an authorized Chartered Accountant. Should any discrepancies in account maintenance arise, the respondents may seek further action. Respondent no.2 must provide an undertaking that any information obtained will be used solely for the current litigation. No advance approach to the court is permitted; any future applications can be examined as needed.

AMIT SHARMA VS SUGANDHA SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-368/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal for interim custody of a minor child was dismissed based on findings that the child felt apprehensive and uncomfortable around the appellant. Reports indicated that granting interim custody or allowing visits with paternal grandparents would not serve the child's welfare. Despite this, arrangements for twice-monthly meetings between the appellant and the child at Dwarka Courts, supervised by a counsellor, were directed to continue to help the child cope with apprehensions and foster a healthy interaction with the father.

ANITA JAIN AND ORS VS ANIL JAIN AND ORS [LPA-503/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Anita Jain and others successfully appealed against the dismissal of their application to be included as parties in a partition suit regarding property. The respondents' claim of prior partition requires legal proof, which has not been established. The previous order was set aside, allowing the appellants to join the suit while preserving the rights of the respondents. Additionally, questions concerning the validity of the marriage of a deceased respondent may impact the rights of their children. This matter is related to a prior chamber appeal addressed by another bench.

ANURADHA KASHYAP VS DR SUSHIL KUMAR [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-109/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's order that closed the appellant's right to cross-examine the respondent was set aside. The appellant was granted an opportunity to cross-examine the respondent or any other witness presented by the respondent, with a cost of Rs. 7,500 imposed on the appellant for delays caused by the unavailability of counsel on previous dates.

ANURADHA KASHYAP VS DR SUSHIL KUMAR [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-260/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Anuradha Kashyap's appeal was dismissed due to her attempt to cross-examine PW-1 via video conferencing, which was deemed a delay tactic. She had already cross-examined PW-1 for 1.5 hours as previously directed, making the request for video conferencing unjustified. There was no indication of disagreement between the judges or a referral to a larger bench, and the case was not part of a batch matter.

ARMTECH (INDIA) LIMITED VS GAIL (INDIA) LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-272/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Armtech (India) Limited was dismissed regarding the arbitral award of Rs. 30,00,000 on claim no. 3. Armtech could not demonstrate that GAIL (India) Limited deducted 5% of the value of the electric material supplied as stipulated in Clause 15A iv(ii)d of the Special Conditions of Contract. GAIL denied making such deductions, and Armtech failed to provide sufficient evidence. The decision to set aside the arbitral award on claim no. 3 was upheld.

ARUN KANGRA VS ARTI SARWAN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-144/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Arun Kangra has been granted a final opportunity to submit his defense to the divorce petition filed by Arti Sarwan within 5 days. Arti Sarwan has 10 days to file a rejoinder. The Family Court will frame issues based on these documents and schedule a date near June 4, 2024, for the respondent's evidence. A cost of Rs. 10,000 is to be paid by Arun Kangra to Arti Sarwan on June 4, 2024.

ASHISH TIWARI VS RICHA SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-91/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Ashish Tiwari against the Family Court's order mandating the Indian Army to deduct 30% of his gross salary for monthly maintenance to Richa Sharma has been dismissed. The respondent is unemployed while the appellant has a steady income, leading to the upholding of the Family Court's decision.

ATC TELECOM INFRASTRUCTURE PVT LTD VS MAHANAGAR TELEPHONE NIGAM LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-172/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by ATC Telecom Infrastructure Pvt Ltd involves a Section 34 petition where the single judge is allowed to consider other grounds of challenge beyond the initial notice issue. The single judge must examine whether to issue notice on these additional grounds, which primarily pertain to claim no. 1. The appellant may present submissions before the designated bench.

ATMA RAM PROPERTIES PVT LTD VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR [RFA(OS)-63/2016]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Atma Ram Properties Pvt Ltd regarding misuser charges imposed by the Land and Development Office on its leasehold property was allowed. The dismissal of the suit was considered erroneous as the framed issues were not addressed despite the appellant providing specific pleadings and relevant documents. The previous judgment was set aside, and the suit was restored for adjudication of the framed issues.

BABITA RANI VS HARPAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-131/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

An appeal against the family court's dismissal of an application to recall the appointment of a Local Commissioner was allowed. A new Local Commissioner was appointed to conduct evidence recording on a pro bono basis, with a directive to complete the process within 8 weeks and avoid unnecessary adjournments. The order imposing costs on the appellant was set aside.

BELA CREATION PVT LTD VS JAI DURGA TRADERS PVT LTD [RFA(COMM)-80/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal RFA(COMM) 80/2022 filed by Bela Creation Pvt Ltd was dismissed because a final judgment and decree were issued by the trial court during the appeal's pendency, which the appellant later withdrew. Consequently, the appeal became infructuous.

BHARAT HEAVY ELECTRICALS LIMITED VS KANOHAR ELECTRICALS LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-245/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited against the arbitral award favoring Kanohar Electricals Limited was dismissed. Imposition of liquidated damages requires proof of actual loss, which was not established, as only 8 out of 46 transformers were commissioned after 27 months. The findings confirmed by the arbitral tribunal were upheld, and Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited was directed to deposit the awarded amount as costs.

BHARAT PETROLEUM CORPORATION LIMITED VS RAJINDER SINGH JOON & ORS. [RFA(COMM)-15/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The renewal clause in the Lease Deed does not allow for automatic renewal of the lease for 20 years, requiring mutual agreement on the renewal period, which did not occur. Oral evidence to determine the parties' intention is inadmissible under the Indian Evidence Act as it contradicts the written terms of the Lease Deed. The counter-claim for specific performance of the renewal was dismissed because the Lease Deed is deemed determinable in nature. Both appeals by BPCL were dismissed.

SANJAY KUMAR BARANWAL VS BHAVNA KUMARI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-87/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's order for the husband to pay Rs.66,000 per month as interim maintenance to the wife and two daughters was upheld, with a modification for the elder daughter who began earning in July 2023, resulting in a reduction of the payment to Rs.44,000 per month from that date.

CEMENT MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION & ORS. VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [W.P.(C)-5448/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Cement Manufacturers Association is required to submit a 3-page synopsis of their grievances regarding the Bureau of Indian Standards' (BIS) 2023 Quality Control Order, which mandates a reduction of ash content in cement from 12% to 6%. The petitioners argue that this change would increase plastic content and environmental harm, along with raising costs for the cement industry, and that the order was issued without sufficient technical study. BIS is instructed to hear the petitioners and issue a reasoned order. No coercive measures will be taken against the petitioners until after BIS addresses their representation and for 10 days thereafter.

DALJEET SINGH BHATIA VS M/S KARAMSAR ELECTRONICS PVT.LIMITED [RFA(COMM)-67/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Daljeet Singh Bhatia against the trial court's judgment in favor of M/s Karamsar Electronics Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The defense claimed the cheque dated 11.04.2018 was a blank cheque provided as security, but this was deemed a sham. It was established that the cheque was issued to cover earlier dishonored cheques, and the appellant had partially paid the outstanding amount. The explanation provided by the appellant was dismissed as implausible, leaving no valid reason to challenge the trial court's decision.

DALMIA CEMENT (BHARAT) LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA [RFA(OS)-45/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Dalmia Cement (Bharat) Limited against the Union of India is closed as the appellant chose not to pursue it further. The approved resolution plan by the National Company Law Tribunal did not account for the respondent's claims, leading to their extinguishment. Upon the respondent initiating execution proceedings, the appellant may file objections, which will be addressed according to law, allowing both parties to present their rights and contentions.

DEEPAK KHOSLA AND ORS. VS JYOTI WAZIR AND ORS. [FAO(OS)-100/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order of the Single Judge regarding the determination of whether existing issues cover the amended plaint or if additional issues need to be framed can only be resolved after the defendants file their amended written statement. If additional issues are framed, the parties may present evidence on those issues, provided the existing evidence does not include them. The appeal was disposed of without disagreement with the Single Judge's observations.

DEEPIKA SINGH VS SANDEEP YADAV [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-173/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order permitting the amendment of a divorce petition based on desertion was set aside due to non-compliance with the two-year desertion requirement under Section 13(1)(ib) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. The husband may file a new petition on desertion, which will be addressed by the Family Court according to the law.

DELHI BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS WELFARE BOARD VS DULARI DEVI & ANR. [LPA-372/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Under the Delhi Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996 and Rules, a building worker is entitled to a pension upon turning 60, provided they have worked for at least 1 year. The eligibility criteria in Section 14(2) of the BOCW Act, which requires 3 years of continuous registration, does not apply to pension benefits, as determined by Section 22(1)(b). Shri Gauri Shankar Gupta met the eligibility requirements by being registered as a building worker for over 1 year before reaching 60, thus being entitled to a pension. The appeal by the Welfare Board against the granting of the pension was dismissed.

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VS ROSHANARA CLUB LIMITED AND OTHERS [LPA-497/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Delhi Development Authority against an interim order regarding the Roshanara Club Limited was disposed of, with the interim order remaining in effect until the writ petition is resolved. The scheme by the DDA and RCL's submitted objections will be reviewed, and RCL's writ petition will be consolidated with another ongoing case. Interlocutory applications from RCL employees were closed, granting them the option to seek appropriate remedies. Additionally, a contempt petition filed by RCL will be addressed by the designated judge after ensuring all parties have an opportunity to present their case.

DESIGNARCH CONSULTANTS PVT LTD AND ANR VS JUMEIRAH BEACH RESORT LLC [FAO(OS) (COMM)-144/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Jumeirah Beach Resort LLC and Designarch Consultants Pvt. Ltd., along with Designarch Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd., entered into a settlement regarding trademark ownership and usage rights. Jumeirah acknowledges Designarch's ownership of the "BURJNOIDA" trademark, while Designarch recognizes Jumeirah's ownership of the "BURJ AL ARAB" trademark. Designarch will not modify the "BURJNOIDA" tower and will withdraw its cancellation petitions against Jumeirah's trademarks, which Jumeirah will also reciprocate by withdrawing its petitions against Designarch's trademarks. Designarch agrees not to use the "BURJNOIDA" mark in any way that suggests a connection to Jumeirah and will not develop any similar buildings. The settlement terms are final and binding on both parties and their successors.

DEVESH MANASWI DAS VS APARNASHREE [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-167/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Interim custody and visitation rights for the child were upheld with slight modifications. The father was granted custody for three Sundays per month from 10 AM to 6 PM and increased visitation during school vacations from 10 AM to 8 PM. The father may seek a "joint-parenting plan" after six months, potentially including overnight custody, with involvement from a child psychologist if necessary. The decision focused on balancing parental interests and prioritizing the child's welfare.

DHARMENDER SINGH BISHT VS BABITA BISHT [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-199/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The husband was granted a decree of divorce on grounds of cruelty under Section 13(1)(ia) of the Hindu Marriage Act. The wife's false criminal complaints against him and his family members, leading to a lengthy trial and eventual acquittal, constituted mental cruelty. Additional evidence, including the wife's behavior during their brief cohabitation and a departmental inquiry against the husband, supported this claim. The complete breakdown of trust and the extended criminal proceedings rendered the continuation of the marriage unviable.

DHRUV VARMA VS M/S RATNA COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISES LTD. & ORS. [EFA(OS)-12/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Dhruv Varma regarding the non-release of his passport in the custody of the court was dismissed. The outstanding decretal amount is Rs. 41,64,47,667. The appellant had previously offered to deposit the passport and filed the appeal with a delay of 722 days, lacking evidence of any plans to travel abroad.

DISH TV INDIA LTD VS GULF DTH FZ LLC & ORS [FAO(OS)-26/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Dish TV India Ltd's appeal against the order closing its right to file a written statement is maintainable under the Delhi High Court Act, 1966, as the suit was initially filed as an ordinary civil suit before the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 came into effect. The mandatory 120-day period for filing written statements under the Commercial Courts Act did not apply since the suit was only converted to a commercial suit by the impugned order. The appeal was allowed, the impugned order was set aside, and the written statement was directed to be taken on record, with case management hearings to occur post-conversion to a commercial suit, allowing discretion for extending filing time.

DR CHAYAN JAIN VS UNION OF INDIA [LPA-661/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Dr. Chayan Jain and others for admission to post-graduate medical courses at Armed Forces Medical Services institutions was allowed after the rejection of their claim based on an unofficial sponsorship certificate seal was deemed arbitrary. Admission will be granted to the appellants in the 2024-2025 academic year according to their ranks in the NEET PG 2023 exam.

DR SITANSHI SHARMA VS DR ACHINTYA SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-285/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The judgment and order from the family court regarding Dr. Sitanshi Sharma was set aside due to insufficient opportunity for her to present her case. A re-hearing of her pending application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure is scheduled for 07.10.2024, acknowledging the validity of her grievance about being inadequately heard.

DR. PRIYA DARSHAN GUPTA VS ANOOP GUPTA [FAO (COMM)-123/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

A settlement between Dr. Priya Darshan Gupta and Anoop Gupta regarding the dissolution of their partnership firm, "Gupta Mediscan Centre," has been recorded. Dr. Gupta will pay R.S. 70,00,000 to Anoop Gupta as full and final settlement of outstanding claims. The assets and liabilities of the firm will vest in Dr. Gupta, who will also acquire the property at 98, Darya Ganj, New Delhi. All disputes related to a Memorandum of Understanding dated 17.12.2019 are resolved. The settlement includes the closure of the firm's bank accounts, surrender of certificates/licenses, and disposal of a related civil suit, with directions for the necessary implementation steps.

DWIPANJALI ROY VS DR. BISWAJIT CHAUDHURI & ORS [EFA(OS)-22/2017]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The vacation of the first floor and barsati floor of the Defence Colony property by the appellant was not dependent on the sale of the Shanti Niketan property, necessitating the appellant to vacate the Defence Colony property within four months. Due to the inability of the parties to sell the Shanti Niketan property as previously agreed, a court auctioneer was appointed to conduct a public auction of the Shanti Niketan property, with specific directions for valuation, reserve price, and sale terms. The matter involves multiple parties and properties, with a larger bench to address the final settlement and sale of the Shanti Niketan property.

GAGANDEEP SARNA VS SMT BALARANI & ORS. [RFA(COMM)-184/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeals filed by Gagandeep Sarna and Satinder Singh Sarna against a decree of Rs. 74,84,500/- in favor of Smt. Bala Rani were allowed. The delay in filing court fees and re-filing the appeals was excused. An agreed settlement established that the appellants are jointly and severally liable to pay Rs. 69,84,500/- to the respondent, with 9% simple interest on the reducing balance. In case of default, the entire amount becomes payable. The respondent agreed to return custody of goods received on supardari to the bailiff. The previous judgment was modified accordingly.

GAGANDEEP SINGH VS BHUMIKA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-29/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's rejection of the husband's request for a paternity test was upheld, emphasizing the child's presumption of legitimacy under Section 112 of the Indian Evidence Act. The child's right to identity takes precedence over allegations of the wife's adulterous conduct. The husband can present other evidence to support his claims but cannot compel a paternity test for the child.

GAIL GAS LIMITED VS M/S SHYAM GLASS WORKS [FAO(OS) (COMM)-205/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The arbitrator concluded that GAIL Gas Limited's allegations of tampering with metering seals and skids at M/s Shyam Glass Works' premises were not substantiated, as no evidence of tampering was presented. This finding was upheld, and GAIL Gas Limited's petition was dismissed. The appeal was also noted to have been filed with significant delay, but the consideration of delay was deemed unnecessary in light of the decision to uphold the arbitrator's findings.

GAIL INDIA LTD. VS UCO BANK & ANR. [RFA(OS)(COMM)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The rejection of the appellant's suit was upheld due to the invocation letter dated 15th April, 2013 not complying with the terms of the Performance Bank Guarantee. The letter failed to cite any default or breach of contract by the respondent. The plaint did not present a cause of action, lacking necessary assertions regarding a breach of contract or payment default.

GAURAV DHAWAN VS TRANSASIA PRIVATE CAPITAL LIMITED [EFA(OS)-8/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The judgment of the UK Court was upheld, establishing its jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes due to asymmetrical jurisdiction clauses in the Personal Guarantees and valid service under the English Companies Act. English law was correctly applied, and the UK Court's ex parte judgment was deemed conclusive and executable in India under Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure. The appeal by the judgment debtor was dismissed.

GAUTAM MEHRA VS SONIA MEHRA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-116/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant's failure to comply with the Family Court's order while attempting to travel to Dubai with the children was considered contemptuous. There was no intention to adhere to the Family Court's directives. The appeal became moot due to the passing of the spring vacations, and no observations were made regarding the Family Court judge's interactions with the children, leaving it to the Family Court to address that issue. Contempt proceedings were not initiated against the appellant, and the matter remained as is.

GENERAL MANAGER UCO BANK VS SMT. ADITI GAUR AND ANR [LPA-725/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The decision affirmed that Smt. Aditi Gaur is entitled to the pension scheme established by UCO Bank through the circular dated 01.01.2013. As her application under the earlier circular from 20.08.2010 was pending at the time of the new circular's issuance, she was not required to reapply. Since she met the eligibility criteria under the 01.01.2013 circular, her pending application should be considered under that scheme.

GOURAV RAJPUT VS DELHI HIGH COURT [W.P.(C)-1554/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The writ petition challenging the requirement of minimum marks in the interview for the Junior Judicial Assistant/Restorer position was dismissed. Although the petitioner's grievance had some merit, the timing was problematic since the requirement had already been amended to eliminate minimum qualifying marks for interviews for Group B and C posts, but this change occurred after the petitioner's examination and interview. Additionally, the petitioner could not assert equality with the Aalma v. Delhi High Court case as that issue had already been addressed.

GOVERNMENT OF NCT OF DELHI, THROUGH COMMISSIONER, DELHI POLICE VS SHRI DHEERAJ KUMAR & ORS. [LPA-236/2020]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Delhi Police was found negligent for placing chained barricades at the accident site without adequate lighting or monitoring, leading to the respondent's injuries. Arguments regarding the respondent's failure to wear a helmet as contributory negligence were rejected. The awarded compensation, which included future loss of income, was deemed reasonable based on the evidence presented. The appeal by the Delhi Police was dismissed.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ANR. VS ADHARV ENTERPRISES [LPA-179/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Government of NCT of Delhi against an order for de-sealing premises and transferring liquor stock was dismissed. Previous similar cases and a Supreme Court decision indicated that the matter pertained only to owners/landlords, not licensees. The dismissal does not affect any potential proceedings by the government against the licensees.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. VS M/S RAVI KANT JOSHI SECURITY AGENCY & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-176/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Government of NCT of Delhi and Guru Teg Bahadur Hospital against the security agency was dismissed. The security agency met the agreement's terms by deploying the biometric attendance system and providing relevant data to the hospital. No reasons were found to challenge the arbitrator's decision, which upheld the award in favor of the security agency.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. VS BRINDCO SALES PVT LTD [LPA-520/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Leftover stock of Brindco Sales Pvt Ltd can be disposed of under Rule 56 of the Delhi Excise Rules, 2010, despite the expiration of its liquor license. The brands in the stock were registered during the validity of the license in 2021-22, and re-registration under Rule 63 is not required for disposal.

GOVT OF NCT OF DELHI & ORS. VS SHRI R.S. YADAV [LPA-766/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Government of NCT of Delhi regarding the reimbursement of medical expenses to Shri R.S. Yadav was dismissed due to his death and the failure to include his legal representatives. There was a noted difference of opinion on whether reimbursement was applicable since Yadav was not a member of the Delhi Government Employees Health Scheme at the time of incurring expenses. The question of law remains open for future consideration.

GRAMEEN ATI JEEVAN SOCIETY (REGD.) VS PANCHSHILA COOPERATIVE HOUSE BUILDING SOCIETY LTD. & ORS. [LPA-190/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

An appeal was disposed of, directing the consideration of the appellant's application for impleadment in pending writ petitions W.P.(C) 3611/2022 and W.P.(C) 7512/2024. The context involved enforcing a prior decision regarding the closure of a temporary link road, but the Delhi Development Authority expressed a desire to retain and widen the road. It was instructed that the relevant parties be heard to decide the progression of the writ petitions considering the DDA's changed stance, with an emphasis that previous observations would not influence decision-making.

GUJARAT OPERATIONAL CREDITORS ASSOCIATION VS NATIONAL COMPANY LAW TRIBUNAL, NEW DELHI & ORS. [W.P.(C)-8580/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The writ petition addressed the recording of proceedings before the NCLT and NCLAT, which was considered a representation for the NCLAT Chairperson. The matter impacts all NCLT benches nationwide and requires input from their Presidents regarding feasibility. Requests concerning the judgment reservation and dictation processes were deemed outside the main issue of the petition. A preliminary objection on the petition's maintainability was not addressed, as it is treated as a representation.

GURPREET KAUR GUJRAL & ORS. VS M/S PORTRUCKS EQUIPMENT PVT. LTD. & ANR. [RFA(COMM)-70/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Gurpreet Kaur Gujral and others was dismissed. The trial court had the necessary pecuniary jurisdiction to hear the case, as the suit amount of R.S. 4,21,800 exceeded the limit. The claim that the security deposit should offset rent until October 2019 was denied, as the respondent vacated the premises on August 31, 2019, and was not obligated to provide notice or continue tenancy after that date, given that the second lease deed had already concluded.

GYMNASTICS FEDERATION OF INDIA VS PADMAJA GARIKIPATI AND ANOTHER & ANR. [LPA-723/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Gymnastics Federation of India (GFI) concerning the stay on the notice about elections for office bearers and the executive committee was dismissed. The executive committee's term ended on 04.11.2023 but was extended by a general body resolution until new elections are conducted. The scheduled hearing for the writ petition is set for 17.05.2024. An application before the single judge regarding the order does not require separate liberty.

HARDEV KAUR JANDO & ANR. VS M/S UPPER LAND CONSTRUCTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [FAO (COMM)-225/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the order that foreclosed the right to file a written statement in a commercial suit was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of "extraordinary circumstances" in Himachal Pradesh. Attempts by the appellants to introduce additional documents not in the appeal record were disregarded. The law restricts the acceptance of written statements to a 120-day period, after which the right to file is forfeited.

HARISH JINDAL VS GARIMA JINDAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-220/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The father's appeal resulted in a modification of the Family Court order to permit weekly video calls with his 14-year-old child via WhatsApp, scheduled for Sundays from 12:00 Noon to 12:30 PM. This arrangement aims to maintain contact between the father and child while other aspects of the previous order remain unchanged.

HARISH VERMA VS JOGINDER PAL SINGH [RFA(COMM)-117/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The lower court's order dismissing the appellant's plaint due to failure to comply with the pre-litigation mediation requirement under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 was set aside. The dismissal was deemed inappropriate for failing to establish urgency as required by the Supreme Court's standards. The matter was remanded for a holistic examination of the plaint, documents, and facts from the plaintiff's perspective to assess eligibility for exemption from the mediation requirement.

HARPREET KAUR VS JASJEET SINGH [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-48/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The parties reached a settlement agreement in which the respondent-husband paid a lump sum to the petitioner-wife. The petitioner-wife agrees to the divorce decree, and the allegations of cruelty by the respondent-husband will be withdrawn. The contempt case was closed, the respondent-husband was directed to pay Rs. 20,000/- to the appellant-wife for costs, the divorce decree was sustained, and the finding on cruelty was expunged. The lawful settlement agreement was accepted.

HARSIMRAN SINGH VS PREETI KHANNA ALIAS PREET KAUR ALIAS PREETI KHANNA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-246/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order directing Harsimran Singh to pay Rs. 45,000 per month as maintenance to Preeti Khanna under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act was upheld. The family court's assessment of Harsimran's financial situation and Preeti's expenses was considered reasonable. Harsimran did not fully disclose his actual income despite Preeti's assertions. The appeal was dismissed due to significant delay in filing and ongoing execution proceedings for overdue maintenance payments.

HARSIMRAN SINGH VS RAVINDER KAUR PASRICHA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-191/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's order closing the appellant's right to lead evidence was set aside. The appellant was granted another opportunity to present evidence upon paying costs of Rs. 2,500 to the respondent. The appellant had submitted the affidavit of evidence on time but failed to remit the costs due to a lack of the respondent's bank details. The matter was directed for further steps.

HOTEL CORPORATION OF INDIA VS M/S NS ASSOCIATES PVT. LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-158/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The arbitrator's award in favor of M/S NS ASSOCIATES PVT. LTD. for Rs. 74 lakhs was upheld, addressing extra items executed beyond the originally scheduled quantities and rates. The appellant, HOTEL CORPORATION OF INDIA, unjustifiably reduced the claimed amount from Rs. 1.08 crores to Rs. 34 lakhs. The removal of the appointed architect rendered the contractual clause for rate approval ineffective. The reasoning of the arbitrator was accepted, leading to the rejection of the appellant's challenge.

IDBI BANK LIMITED ON BEHALF OF SENIOR LENDERS VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [LPA-681/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant, IDBI Bank, does not have the right to seek an extension of the concession period under the concession agreement between the respondent, NHAI, and the concessionaire, Pink City Expressway Private Limited, as IDBI is not a party to the agreement. While IDBI may pursue remedies under the substitution agreement, escrow agreement, and restated facility agreement, a writ to NHAI for extending the concession agreement cannot be issued. The merits of IDBI's rights under the other agreements remain unaddressed, allowing IDBI to seek appropriate remedies in a separate forum.

INTERLINKS OVERSEAS PVT LTD & ORS. VS SOUTH DELHI PHARMA [RFA(COMM)-211/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Interlinks Overseas Pvt Ltd and others successfully appealed the dismissal of their application to condone the delay in entering appearance in a summary suit by South Delhi Pharma. The delay was attributed to an official tour and the need for legal consultation. The impugned judgment was set aside, prompting the respondent to take further steps for the trial court to issue summons for judgment. The appellants were instructed to file an affidavit for leave to defend and to pay Rs. 20,000 in costs to the respondent for the delay. The case was scheduled for further proceedings in the trial court.

INTEX TECHNOLOGIES (INDIA) LIMITED VS RINCOR ENERGY S.A. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-204/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Arbitral Tribunal awarded Rincor Energy S.A. compensation, determining that a letter dated 3rd December 2019 did not replace an earlier Settlement Agreement and that Intex Technologies (India) Limited was responsible for delays in payment. Rincor was granted interest on the principal amount from 2nd December 2018 until payment, along with post-award interest at 6% per annum. Challenges by Intex were dismissed as they were either not presented previously or the Tribunal's conclusions were well-supported by evidence.

IQBAL KHAN YUSUFI VS SABEENA SIDDIQUI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-232/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court dismissed a guardianship petition filed by the father due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, determining that the minor child and mother resided in Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, not Delhi. Evidence, including the mother's employment records,

IRCON INTERNATIONAL LTD. VS BHAVNEET SINGH [LPA-133/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The transfer order of Bhavneet Singh, a differently-abled person with 72% permanent locomotor disability, was set aside. The decision emphasized that employers must adhere to the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, and related government guidelines when considering transfers for differently-abled individuals. The appellant, IRCON IL, did not demonstrate administrative exigency to justify the transfer to a remote location in Chhattisgarh, which also contravened the guidelines that exempt such individuals from rotational transfers and require consideration of their preferences.

JAMPA GYAL TESN VS YESHI LHAMO [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-72/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Jampa Gyal Tesn's appeal led to the reversal of the dismissal of his divorce petition under Section 13(1)(ib) of the Hindu Marriage Act. The respondent, Yeshi Lhamo, did not contest the petition, which impacted the acceptance of the appellant's assertions and evidence, including the marriage registration certificate. The earlier decision incorrectly rejected the appellant's case. The marriage between Jampa Gyal Tesn and Yeshi Lhamo was subsequently dissolved.

JASMINE CHADHA VS TEJPAL SINGH [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-305/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Jasmine Chadha is entitled to only one set of maintenance payments of Rs. 30,000 per month, not two. The financial capacity of Tejpal Singh was previously assessed to be between Rs. 70,000 and Rs. 75,000 per month. The executing court could not reconsider these previous assessments, leading to the conclusion to uphold the initial decision.

JHARNA VS DELHI HIGH COURT THROUGH REGISTRAR GENERAL [W.P.(C)-3144/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The respondent's answer key for Question No. 154 in the Delhi Judicial Services Preliminary Examination 2023 was deemed correct. It was established that while an accused typically cannot invoke Section 91 of the Code of Criminal Procedure at the charge framing stage, discretion exists to summon documents if they are crucial for framing the charge. Option 2 in the question, reflecting the court's discretion, was identified as the most appropriate answer. The petitioner's writ petition was dismissed, affirming that the answer key published after considering objections is not subject to interference unless it is clearly incorrect.

JINDAL RAIL INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED VS UNION OF INDIA & ANR. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-196/2022]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
The Union of India was entitled to exercise the option clause in the contract to increase the ordered quantity of BOXNHL wagons by 30% at the original contract price. The arbitrator's interpretation of the option clause, which aimed to award JRIL the difference between the original price and a higher price from a subsequent tender, was incorrect. The plain language of the option clause permitted the increase at the original price, and the terms of the contract could not be rewritten. JRIL's appeal was dismissed.

JITA MAL SATPAL VS BHIWADI POLYMERS LTD [RFA(COMM)-39/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
The appeal by Jita Mal Satpal was dismissed, upholding Bhiwadi Polymers Ltd's claim for recovery of Rs. 6,54,830. The key issue was whether the appellant was liable for the claimed amount or if it should be offset against returned tokens and goods. The appellant's defense relied on an unproven document, as no witness was presented to verify the signatures. The argument regarding the acceptance of authority was deemed insufficient. The appeal lacked merit.

JYOTI PURI VS SUMEET PURI AND ORS [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-121/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
The delay of 440 days in Jyoti Puri's appeal was excused due to her counsel's procrastination. The order for her to pay Rs. 12,000 monthly maintenance for her two minor children was set aside, as there was no justification for placing the entire financial burden on her. However, the visitation rights allowing her to meet her children for 2 hours on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of each month were upheld.

K S DHINGRA VS UNION OF INDIA AND ORS. [W.P.(C)-4473/2021]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
Note 7 to Rule 33 of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972 applies because the petitioner's salary was not drawn from the Consolidated Fund of India when absorbed into the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (CERC) on 7th June 2004, which was funded by 'grants-in-aid' from the Central Government starting 1st April 2004. The excess pension amount paid cannot be recovered, as the payments were made due to an error without the petitioner's fault. Revised pension payments can be disbursed from the date of the order refixing the pension.

KAMLESH VS AKHILESH KUMAR [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-120/2023]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
The divorce decree favoring the husband under the Hindu Marriage Act was upheld, while observations on mental cruelty and desertion were expunged. The husband will pay the wife Rs. 3 lakhs in permanent alimony in three installments. The wife will assist the husband in quashing an FIR against him. Both parties are to file affidavits confirming acceptance of the settlement terms.

KANIKA JAIN VS MOHIT MITTAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-245/2024]
Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
The family court's decision to allow amendments to the respondent's divorce petition was upheld, enabling the inclusion of additional facts and allegations of adultery. Concerns regarding potential prejudice were acknowledged, and timelines for the completion of pleadings, issue framing, affidavit filing, and witness cross-examination were established, aiming to conclude the proceedings by December 31, 2024.

KIRAN D. PATKI & ANR. VS THE STATE & ORS. [FAO(OS)-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The judgment negated the previous approval of a probate petition and the granting of Letters of Administration concerning the Will dated 27.09.2012 of the late Ms. Kanval Dhillon. Arguments emphasized that only one attesting witness was examined while the second was available, that the primary witness lacked memory of the testatrix signing the Will, and that the Will featured uncountersigned alterations, raising doubts about its authenticity. The appellants agreed to make certain payments from the estate, and the remaining estate was allocated to them while directing disbursement of the specified amounts to the respondents.

KRITIKA NARAYAN VS HIGH COURT OF DELHI THROUGH REGISTRAR [W.P.(C)-1872/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The correct answer to a question in the Delhi Judicial Services Preliminary Examination is "Option (4) - None of the above," rather than "Section 406." For offenses under Sections 405/406 of the Indian Penal Code, dishonest intention is necessary, which is excluded by the phrase "without intending to deceive" in the question. Therefore, Section 406 is not applicable, and the challenge to the revised answer key lacks merit.

KUNAL FOOD PRODUCTS PVT. LTD. VS DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY [FAO(OS) (COMM)-211/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the dismissal of a petition challenging an arbitral award was dismissed. The arbitrator had denied pre-reference and pendente lite interest on the amount retained by the Delhi Development Authority after encashing a bank guarantee. The delay in completing the hotel project was attributed to both parties, and the hotel was completed before the Commonwealth Games. The arbitrator ordered a refund of the retained amount with 12% interest from the date of the award. Despite the appellant's request for pendente lite interest due to prolonged arbitration, the arbitrator's conclusions were not found to be perverse or illegal, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

KUSHAL BHASIN VS SHALOO BHASIN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-273/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The family court's decision to award interim maintenance to Shaloo Bhasin was upheld. Kushal Bhasin was likely concealing his true income, which appeared much higher than the amount he disclosed, as evidenced by his luxurious lifestyle. The appeal was dismissed with no grounds for interference in the family court's judgment.

LAL BAHADUR PROP.OF M/S ICRTC VS M/S SAMRIDDHI ELECTROMART PVT.LTD. [RFA(COMM)-214/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's judgment in favor of M/S Samriddhi Electromart Pvt. Ltd. for the recovery of Rs. 4,65,000 against Lal Bahadur (M/S ICRTC) was upheld. The defense of a settlement with a third party was rejected due to its non-binding nature and unreliable evidence. Lal Bahadur issued cheques indicating partial liability, contradicting his claim of being owed money by the respondent. His failure to produce account books was detrimental to his position, while the respondent's ledger account served as sufficient evidence. The appeal was dismissed with no grounds found for interference with the trial court's reasoning.

LOKESH PRABHAKAR VS ARCHANA PRABHAKAR [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-52/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's rejection of the father's applications for visitation rights was upheld. The mother was not directed to present their teenage daughter for visitation, as she expressed a desire not to meet the father. The Family Court also denied the father's request to take the son to outings due to concerns about the potential for unpleasant situations and the recent reestablishment of contact between the father and son. The appeal was dismissed.

LUV CHAUDHARY VS SHRUTI AGARWAL [CONT.CAS(C)-50/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The father, Luv Chaudhary, is granted custody of the child every Tuesday from 3:30 PM to 9:00 PM and for three weekends a month (first, second, and fourth). The parents will share the child's school vacations equally. The mother, Shruti Agarwal, will provide the father access to the child's school activities, documents, and communication channels as previously agreed. The child will continue studying at DPS Sushant Lok and cannot be relocated outside NCR Delhi without permission.

M S M P STATE CO OP OILSEED GROWERS FEDERATION LTD THROUGH OFFICIAL LIQUIDATOR VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR [FAO(OS) (COMM)-1/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal challenging the arbitral award was dismissed because the modifications reducing the principal amount and interest rate were based on mutual concessions by the parties' counsel, with the appellant's counsel having previously consented to these changes. The appellant did not contest the order for nearly a year, indicating a lack of significant grievance. The appellant is already in liquidation, and further litigation would exacerbate its situation.

M S PARAMOUNT PREMIER PVT LTD & ANR. VS NEERAJ GROVER & ANR. [FAO (COMM)-140/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The limitation period for filing an application to set aside an arbitral award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 begins from the date the arbitrator disposes of applications under Section 33, specifically on 24.04.2023. The argument that the limitation should start from the date the arbitral award was received was rejected, as the maintainability of the Section 33 applications is irrelevant to determining the limitation period under Section 34.

M/S VAIDYA INDUSTRIES VS GOVT E MARKETING & ORS [LPA-132/2020]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Observations made by the learned Single Judge and the order dated 08.11.2019 by the Government E-Marketing (GEM) portal will not hinder M/S Vaidya Industries from asserting its rights in pending arbitration proceedings. The GEM's order will be viewed only as an order of disablement, not as blacklisting or debarment, and will not be seen as casting a stigma on the appellant.

M/S ANIL SHARMA AND SONS VS M/S NATIONAL SMALL INDUSTRIES CORPORATION LTD & ORS. [FAO(OS)-32/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The suit filed by the National Small Industries Corporation Ltd. (NSIC) is categorized as a recovery suit rather than a mortgage suit. Issues concerning defendant no. 4's liability as a guarantor and the settlement agreement were deleted, as this entity was neither a guarantor nor a party to the agreement. The issues to be adjudicated include the existence of a cause of action against defendant no. 4, the privity of contract between the plaintiff and defendants no. 5 to 8, the liability of defendants no. 5 to 8 to pay any amount to the plaintiff, and the relief sought. Observations that conflicted with the issue on privity of contract regarding defendants no. 5 to 8 are not valid.

M/S ANSA VS ZAHID SHAWL [RFA(COMM)-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The judgment of the District Judge rejecting the plaint filed by M/S ANSA was set aside due to the appellant's need for urgent interim relief, which does not require pre-institution mediation under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. Clarification from a recent Supreme Court judgment indicated that the commercial court's role is limited to assessing the genuineness of claims for urgent interim relief. The suit was restored to its original number, allowing the appellant to seek interim relief before the District Judge.

M/S BALAJI RUBBER INDUSTRIES AND ORS. VS M/S GREEN RUBBER INDIA [FAO(OS) (COMM)-52/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order dismissing the appeal against the Registrar's closure of the right to file a written statement was set aside. The appellants must submit a revised written statement within one week, addressing procedural defects, or it will not be accepted. Additionally, the appellants are required to pay Rs. 25,000 in costs to the respondent within one week.

M/S COBRA INSTALACIONES Y SERVICIOS, S.A & M \ S SHYAM INDUS POWER SOLUTION PVT LTD.(JV) VS HARYANA VIDYUT PRASARAN NIGAM LTD.(HVPNL) [FAO(OS) (COMM)-195/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The JV Company was deemed partially responsible for project delays, alongside HVPNL, which was unable to accurately quantify its losses despite having suffered some. Due to the public nature of the project and the challenges in loss quantification, a "rough and ready method" was used to conclude that the JV Company should refund 50% of the liquidated damages retained by HVPNL. This case involved disputes from multiple contracts between the parties.

M/S COSMOS INFRABUILD PRIVATE LIMITED VS M/S KALYAN JEWELLERS INDIA LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-51/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The lease agreement requires the lessor to refund the security deposit to the lessee upon receiving vacant possession of the property. Only deductions for arrears in rent, service tax, and unpaid utility charges can be made from the deposit; costs for property restoration cannot be deducted. The lessee is permitted to retain possession until the refund occurs, and the resolution of rights between the parties is to be addressed in the pending suit or through further proceedings.

M/S EVERSHINE ENTERPRISES VS M/S PK MOTORS [FAO (COMM)-113/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The lower court's rejection of the plaintiff's suit for lack of territorial jurisdiction was deemed erroneous, as the cause of action arose in Delhi where the goods were supplied. The judgment was set aside, restoring the suit and requiring the defendant to deposit the claimed principal amount within four weeks. Upon making the deposit, the defendant can file a written statement, and the plaintiff may file a replication. The defense presented by the defendant, while improbable, was not completely without merit, leading to a conditional approval for the defense.

M/S GPR POWER SOLUTIONS PVT. LTD. VS M/S JAGUAR INTERNATIONAL LTD. [RFA(COMM)-156/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/S GPR Power Solutions Pvt. Ltd. against the judgment favoring M/S Jaguar International Ltd. for Rs. 6,90,047/- with interest was dismissed. The appellant did not comply with the trial court's order to deposit the entire suit amount as security, allowing the trial court to pass judgment for the respondent. The appellant's arguments were deemed without merit, as its balance sheets for several financial years reflected the respondent as a creditor, indicating the amount was payable.

M/S GUPTA BROS (INDIA) VS GAIL (INDIA) LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-177/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant/plaintiff failed to effectively serve the nominated counsel of the respondent/defendant, resulting in confusion over representation when summons issuance was bypassed. The respondent/defendant filed a written statement within the condonable period upon learning of the suit through the nominated counsel's office. It was observed that formal summons should be issued in such situations to prevent complications. The appeal was closed without altering the prior decision.

M/S JOIN PACK MACHINES PVT LTD VS M/S BALKRISHNA PAPER MILLS LTD [FAO (COMM)-102/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's order returning the plaint filed by M/s Join Pack Machines Pvt Ltd against M/s Balkrishna Paper Mills Ltd was set aside. The annotation "SUBJECT TO RAJKOT JURISDICTION" on the invoices was deemed inchoate and insufficient to establish jurisdiction in Rajkot. It was noted that the cause of action partially arose in Central Delhi, where the appellant's office and bank account are located. The suit action was restored, and the parties were directed to appear before the trial court, with the respondent permitted to file a written statement and raise objections regarding territorial jurisdiction, which the trial court will decide independently.

M/S KENT RO SYSTEMS LTD VS BRAND PROTECTORS INDIA PVT LTD [FAO (COMM)-173/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/s Kent RO Systems Ltd was allowed concerning the trial court's rejection of their application to confront witness PW-1 with specific documents during cross-examination. The right to confront the witness with relevant documents was affirmed, even without prior disclosure of document particulars. The Local Commissioner recording the evidence was directed to permit this confrontation while addressing any objections to relevance or admissibility at the final adjudication stage.

M/S KPAR LED PVT. LTD. VS DN MENDHEKAR & ORS. [FAO (COMM)-61/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/S KPAR LED PVT. LTD. was dismissed due to an unconvincing explanation for a 224-day delay in filing. The appellant failed to attend court proceedings on multiple occasions. The arbitration clause in the lease agreement could not be invoked as the respondents had filed a suit for possession based on a clause that mandated court action. Additionally, the appellant did not specify which clause of the lease agreement needed interpretation in relation to the arbitration clause.

M/S MAC ASSOCIATES VS PARVINDER SINGH [FAO (COMM)-261/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/s MAC Associates was dismissed due to the arbitration clause in the contract with DMRC not being incorporated into the work order with Parvinder Singh. This situation was classified as a 'two-contract case,' necessitating a specific reference to the arbitration clause, which was absent in the work order. The case was differentiated from previous Supreme Court judgments concerning 'single-contract cases.' The order of the Commercial Court was upheld.

M/S MGI (INDIA) PVT LTD VS M/S INTERNATIONAL DESIGN & ENGINEERING SOLUTIONS PVT LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-307/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The decision of the single judge to set aside the arbitral award in favor of MGI (India) Pvt. Ltd. was upheld. The arbitrator did not adequately address the appellant's potential liability for damages under the non-solicitation/non-hire clause, as the breach was claimed to be by an associated company, not the appellant. The arbitrator was instructed to reconsider the damages claim after hearing evidence from both parties. The disputes between MGI and International Design & Engineering Solutions Pvt. Ltd. were deemed closed due to the substantial time lapse since the single judge's decision.

M/S MORGAN SECURITIES AND CREDITS PVT. LTD. VS M/S GANESH BENZOPLAST LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-263/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

An appeal by M/S Morgan Securities and Credits Pvt. Ltd. concerning arbitration enforcement resulted in a directive for M/S Ganesh Benzoplast Limited to disclose details of any funds obtained through future securities issuances, along with their utilization. Questions regarding the impact of negative covenants from a prior agreement remain open for future adjudication if the appellant pursues them.

M/S NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS M/S AFCONS INFRASTRUCTURE LTD [FAO(OS)-403/2014]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) against the arbitral award favoring Afcons Infrastructure Ltd was dismissed. NHAI's challenge regarding Afcons' payment for earthwork done below the Original Ground Level was dismissed due to NHAI's prior concessions. The delay by Afcons in approaching the Dispute Review Expert was excused since the DRE did not exist at the time Afcons sought dispute resolution. The application of the price index from the time of the final bill for price escalation was in line with the contract terms, resulting in no grounds for interference with the arbitral award.

M/S NCS SUGARS LIMITED & ANR. VS M/S PEC LIMITED [FAO(OS) (COMM)-95/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the rejection of a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was dismissed. The primary issue was whether the limitation period began on the date the arbitral award was pronounced (1 May 2018) or on the date the duly stamped award was received (1 October 2019). The appellants contended that the award was insufficiently stamped upon pronouncement and only became valid once the stamp duty was paid, thus suggesting the limitation period should start from 1 October 2019. This argument was rejected, with the position established that stamp duty matters pertain to enforcement and do not affect the limitation period for challenging the award, which starts from the date the award is rendered. The appeal was dismissed as lacking merit.

M/S NEUTRAL NVOCC PVT.LTD. VS M/S CARGOCARE FREIGHT AND FORWARDING PVT. LTD. [FAO (COMM)-126/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal was allowed, and the orders dismissing the suit and rejecting the restoration application were set aside. The restoration application was filed shortly after the suit was dismissed for non-prosecution due to insufficient stamps for issuing summons. An opportunity had previously been given to provide the deficit stamps. Given the appellant's prompt action in filing for restoration, the suit was restored to its original position and directed to be placed before the appropriate judge on a specified date, with provisions for further accommodation regarding stamp deficiencies.

M/S NIKUNJ WOODS PVT LTD VS M/S KRISHNA STEEL FURNITURE AND ANR [RFA(COMM)-359/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant's appeal against the dismissal of a suit for recovery of Rs. 5,78,094/- was dismissed. The limitation period for the suit had expired in October 2022, exceeding the extended period granted due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Additionally, the appeal was delayed by 145 days, resulting in a dismissal as lacking merit.

M/S NTPC VIDYUT VYAPAR NIGAM LTD VS OSWAL WOOLEN MILLS LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-263/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The delay in commissioning the solar power plant by Oswal Woolen Mills Ltd. was attributed to a force majeure event, rendering the encashment of the performance bank guarantee by NTPC Vidyut Vyapar Nigam Ltd. unjustified. The delay stemmed from the late constitution and visit of the commissioning committee and the technical requirement of synchronizing the plant with the grid. NTPC did not adequately demonstrate any legal injury or loss from the delay, which is necessary to claim liquidated damages, even if pre-estimated in the contract.

M/S ONE QUBE REALTORS PVT. LTD. VS DAIICHI SANKYO LIMITED & ORS. [EFA(OS) (COMM)-2/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/S One Qube Realtors Pvt. Ltd. regarding the attachment and sale of property (Plot No.20, Urban Estate, Sector-18, Gurugram) is maintainable. The pending application under Order XXI Rule 58 and Section 151 of the CPC must be heard and decided on merits. The sale of the property is prohibited until the application is resolved, and the appellant must maintain the status quo and not create any long-term leases exceeding 30 years. These directions apply only to the specified property.

M/S PRIYANAV WELLNESS PVT LTD VS PRADYUMAN KUMAR AGGARWAL & ORS [RFA(OS)(COMM)-17/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

M/S Priyanav Wellness Pvt Ltd is liable to pay mesne profits jointly and severally with tenant Pradyuman Kumar Aggarwal & Ors. for the period from January 1, 2018, to October 12, 2018, when possession was handed over to the landlords. The tenant lacked authorization to create a sub-tenancy under the lease deed, rendering any private arrangement with the occupant ineffective against the landlords' interests. The tenant is currently represented by the liquidator's counsel, and the occupant retains the right to contest any amounts claimed by the liquidator.

M/S SATNAM AND COMPANY VS ICICI BANK LIMITED [RFA(COMM)-168/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

M/s Satnam and Company successfully appealed against a trial court's order rejecting their suit under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. The rejection allows the appellant to file a fresh suit under Order VII Rule 13. However, any new suit must comply with the pre-litigation mediation requirement under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015.

M/S SIDDHI FERROUS VS M/S UPPAL BUILDERS [FAO(OS) (COMM)-277/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal filed by M/S Siddhi Ferrous has been disposed of following an agreement with M/S Uppal Builders. Siddhi Ferrous will pay a principal sum of Rs. 23,75,565/- plus 7% simple interest from 02.08.2011 until payment, along with Rs. 1,00,000/- in costs by 30.04.2024. An amount of Rs. 10,00,000/- already received will be adjusted against the principal and interest.

M/S VISION 9 & ANR. VS SUN BROADCAST EQUIPMENTS PVT. LTD. [FAO (COMM)-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/S Vision 9 & ANR against the trial court's dismissal of their application was accepted due to flawed procedure. The trial court recorded evidence and issued a judgment on the same day without allowing the appellants to cross-examine witnesses. It was noted that the appellants should not suffer from an ex parte decree when not at fault. Consequently, the trial court was directed to permit cross-examination of the respondent's witnesses, hear final arguments, and render a judgment by 30.11.2024. The appellants were instructed to pay costs of Rs. 25,000/- to the respondent.

M/S ZILLION INFRAPROJECTS PVT LTD VS M/S KELLER GROUND ENGINEERING INDIA PVT LTD & ANR [FAO(OS) (COMM)-134/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by M/s Zillion Infraprojects Pvt Ltd was allowed against a prior order directing the recordal of evidence in a suit filed by M/s Keller Ground Engineering India Pvt Ltd. The directive was deemed contrary to Section 14 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, as the appellant is undergoing a Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process. It was noted that while the moratorium prevents the continuation of pending suits against a corporate debtor, it does not apply to counter-claims. The previous order was modified to allow the recordal of evidence only for the counter-claim made by the appellant, while the moratorium would apply to the respondent's claim.

MAAHI NEIL JAIPAL VS UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ORS. [LPA-797/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by a foreign national challenging the dismissal of a writ petition for admission to the five-year integrated law programs offered by the University of Delhi was dismissed. The University did not have a quota for foreign nationals for the 2023-2024 academic year, despite a general policy allowing for 10% supernumerary seats. The appellant could not demonstrate a vested right to admission under this quota, as it was not available at the time of application. The University announced the introduction of the foreign national quota for these programs starting in the 2024-2025 academic year.

MAHESH CHAND SHARMA VS THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR, CPWD [RFA(COMM)-289/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the dismissal of a suit for recovery of Rs.18,82,669/- was dismissed due to being barred by limitation. The claim, although deemed sustainable on merits, was filed beyond the three-year limitation period from the endorsement date on the bill of 18.12.2017. The argument that the cause of action was active due to no formal refusal by the respondent was not accepted.

MANGALORE REFINERY AND PETROCHEMICALS LIMITED VS DRIPLEX WATER ENGINEERING PRIVATE LIMITED [O.M.P. (COMM)-235/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council had jurisdiction to refer disputes between MRPL and Driplex to arbitration, despite Driplex obtaining registration under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 after the contract was made. The applicability of the Act is based on when goods were supplied or services rendered, not the contract date. The issue of the "No Claim Certificate" issued by Driplex was not argued before the arbitral tribunal and will be considered in the pending Section 34 petition.

MANJUL JOSHI VS BHAVNA KHURANA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-138/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's decision to remove Devanshi Gupta from a divorce petition was correct, although the reasoning was not accepted. A paramour is not necessary or proper in a divorce action and may only testify if needed. The Family Court can also remove additional alleged paramours. Pleadings should adhere to the requirement of providing material particulars about paramours as specified in the Delhi High Court Rules.

MATSYA FINCAP PVT LTD VS ABHISHEK GUPTA [EFA(COMM)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Execution Court's conclusion that the arbitral award was a "nullity" due to the unilateral appointment of the arbitrator was not justified. The loan agreement included an arbitration clause allowing the appellant-company to appoint a sole arbitrator, while the respondent contested the validity of the arbitration agreement, citing the absence of his signature on the loan agreement. The appellant was permitted to file a civil suit against the respondent, who was barred from objecting to the suit's maintainability based on the arbitration clause. Additionally, should the appellant seek time exclusion for filing under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, 1963, the Civil Court would consider it according to law.

MATSYA FINCAP PVT LTD VS PUKHRAJ NAGAR [EFA(COMM)-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The respondent disputed the existence of an arbitration agreement, allowing the appellant-company to file a suit against the respondent. The respondent cannot raise objections regarding the arbitration clause in this suit. The appellant-company may seek the exclusion of time for filing under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, 1963, which the civil court will consider according to the law. The validity of the arbitral award remains undetermined, and the parties are directed to initiate fresh suit proceedings.

MATSYA FINCAP PVT LTD VS REHMATULLAH AND ANR [EFA(COMM)-9/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Execution Court erred in declaring the arbitral award a "nullity" due to the unilateral appointment of the arbitrator. A de novo arbitration is to be initiated with Ms. Beenashaw Nanda as the Sole Arbitrator, with specific directives on the seat of arbitration, arbitrator's fees, and timelines for the parties to engage with the arbitrator. The parties are permitted to present all their contentions before the newly appointed Sole Arbitrator.

MF BUILDCON PVT LTD VS ANJALI [EFA(OS)-8/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The execution petition filed by the appellant was dismissed, and both the Settlement Agreement and the Agreement to Sell were rescinded. The appellant failed to pay the remaining sale consideration of Rs. 33 lakhs by the due date of June 30, 2018, as required by the Settlement Agreement. The appellant's conduct of forcefully obtaining possession of the property without full payment was noted, and it was concluded that the appellant could not unilaterally change the terms of the court decree based on the Mediated Settlement Agreement.

MLK FASHIONS THROUGH ITS PROPRIETOR SHRI SHALABH KAPOOR VS LACE WORLD THROUGH ITS AR SHRI ARVIND RAJPUROHIT [FAO (COMM)-167/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by MLK Fashions to recall an ex parte judgment was dismissed due to a lack of support for the claim that summons were not served and insufficient explanation for an 86-day delay in filing the recall application, despite the appellant asserting awareness of the judgment in November 2022.

MOHINDER SINGH (SINCE DECESASED) THROUGH LRS & ORS. VS BIMAL SAXENA (DECEASED) THROUGH ASSIGNEE VIRENDER SINGH & ANR. [EFA(OS)-17/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellants can exempt their "one main residential house" from attachment and sale under Section 60(1)(ccc) of the Code of Civil Procedure. An earlier judgment was set aside based on statutory language and precedents. The appellants must file affidavits disclosing their assets and liabilities, along with income tax returns, and are encouraged to sell part of the property to satisfy the decree. The matter will be referred for mediation to explore settlement.

MOHIT KUMAR SHARMA VS TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT BOARD [LPA-132/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Mohit Kumar Sharma was dismissed regarding the deletion of respondent Nos. 2 and 3 from the array of parties. The primary issue was a change in the fee structure for arbitration matters, originally set between Rs. 75,000 to Rs. 1,00,000 with additional allowances. A corrigendum issued on 01.12.2017 changed the fee structure, limiting the original provisions to sole arbitrators only. Respondent Nos. 2 and 3 acted with the approval of the competent authority and did not act with malice, leading to the decision not to interfere with their deletion.

MORGAN SECURITIES & CREDITS PVT. LTD. VS BPL LIMITED & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-174/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Respondent 1 and its directors were previously found guilty of contempt for violating an interim order that restrained them from diluting shareholding in subsidiary Respondent 2. Respondents 7 and 8 are permitted to sell their shareholding in the subsidiary under certain conditions, including depositing the sale consideration with the court. The appellant can contest the sale price if it is below market value. The fate of the deposited amount will depend on the outcome of a pending appeal under Section 37 of the Arbitration Act. Observations made will not affect the pending contempt appeals against the earlier contempt order.

MR ANKIT GARG VS MR NARENDER [RFA(COMM)-333/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The dismissal of the appellant's suit for recovery of Rs. 4,20,049/- against the respondent was set aside, despite the appellant's failure to effect service and pay imposed costs. The costs were reduced from Rs. 10,000/- to Rs. 2,000/-, with a directive for the appellant to deposit the reduced amount within 2 weeks and appear before the trial court on 11.09.2024 for further proceedings.

MR PRAMOD KUMAR VS MRS. ARCHANA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-385/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

A 25-day delay in filing the appeal was condoned. The lower court's orders closing the evidence of the appellant/husband were recalled, allowing the respondent/wife to cross-examine him. The unavailability of the respondent/wife's counsel due to illness was identified as the reason for the delays. The lower court was instructed to proceed with the cross-examination and recording of evidence within a specified timeline.

MR RAKSHIT JAIN, DIRECTOR, MGF DEVELOPMENTS LTD VS EMAAR INDIA LIMITED FORMERLY EMAAR MGF LAND LIMITED & ORS. [FAO(OS)-80/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Capital Tower project, originally part of the demerger between Emaar India Limited and MGF Developments Ltd, will be excluded from the demerger and retained by Emaar MGF Land Limited. The title deeds for the land are to be held in joint custody by Emaar India Limited and MGF Developments Ltd, without addressing MGF Developments Ltd's potential rights over the project. MGF Developments Ltd is permitted to initiate separate proceedings to assert any rights regarding the land or project.

MS VAISHALI JAGGI VS MR DEEPAK WASSON [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-102/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Ms. Vaishali Jaggi was disposed of, allowing her to travel to Singapore with the child for employment, while Mr. Deepak Wasson retains access during his visits. The requirement for the mother to visit India with the child was modified to once a year, with the father entitled to one week of access during these visits, subject to the child's comfort. Mr. Wasson was also directed to provide a "no objection" for the renewal of the child's passport. All pending applications were closed.

MS VDR COLOURS CHEMICALS PVT LTD VS MS SHREE JAGDAMBA KNITS P LTD [FAO (COMM)-26/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's decision to return the plaint filed by MS VDR Colours Chemicals Pvt. Ltd. was set aside. The registered office of MS Shree Jagdamba Knits P. Ltd. is located in Delhi, which was not included in the plaint. The plaint was to be returned for filing in the appropriate court with jurisdiction over the respondent's registered office, and the appellant was granted the liberty to amend the plaint to reflect the correct office location.

MS. MITHILA MURADA VS SH. AKHILESH BALI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-297/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Ms. Mithila Murada against the Family Court's orders was disposed of with the consent of both parties. Sh. Akhilesh Bali will withdraw his application for visitation rights related to the Domestic Violence Act complaint. He is required to pay Rs.30,000 per month in maintenance to the appellant until his divorce action is resolved, with arrears due within two weeks. The appellant will facilitate interaction between the child and the respondent at the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, with a child psychologist present. The appellant may apply for an enhancement of maintenance, to be decided by the Family Court.

MUKUND KUMAR JHA VS RITA JHA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-19/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The 38-day delay in filing the appeal was condoned. The matter has reached the evidence stage in the Family Court, which is encouraged to record evidence promptly due to the divorce petition's grounds of fraud and cruelty under the Hindu Marriage Act. The Family Court was directed to record evidence on the scheduled date and aim to deliver a final judgment by May 31, 2024.

MUNISH JAIN VS SHIKHA JAIN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-305/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The parties agreed to a full and final settlement, which includes the husband depositing Rs. 75,00,000/- with the court, jointly filing for mutual consent divorce with a request to waive the 6-month cooling period, gifting the flat where the wife and children reside to the wife while clearing all property dues, and withdrawing all pending cases against each other. The deposited amount will be released to the wife after the divorce is finalized. Multiple appeals were considered together, and the judges concurred on the settlement terms.

MURTAZA GHEEWALA VS M/S DEEWAN CHAND OM PRAKASH [FAO (COMM)-31/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Murtaza Gheewala's appeal against the dismissal of his review petition was dismissed. The review petition challenged an order that closed his right to file a written statement due to the lapse of more than 120 days since service of the suit. The unchallenged fact of the 120-day period and insufficient arguments for delay led to the dismissal of both the appeal and the pending application, with the appeal being filed 31 days late.

NARENER SINGH VS PRACHI JAIN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-106/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order for the husband to pay R.S. 1,00,000 per month as interim maintenance to the wife during divorce proceedings was upheld. Evidence indicated the husband had multiple income sources, including rental, agricultural, and business income, which he had hidden. His claim of earning only a salary as an Assistant Engineer was rejected, especially since he was able to provide a loan of R.S. 1.63 crores and afford a monthly car EMI of R.S. 71,000. Additional findings showed he owned several properties and a resort, and controlled multiple companies and a Hindu Undivided Family generating substantial income. The husband was instructed to clear all arrears with an additional monthly payment of R.S. 50,000 until fully paid.

NARESH KUMAR GUPTA VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS. [REVIEW PET.-10/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The review petition was dismissed, affirming that promotions made outside the prescribed quota require seniority to be determined from the date of vacancy in the respective quota. The petitioner, promoted as Executive Engineer against vacancies diverted from the Assistant Executive Engineers' quota to the Assistant Engineers' quota, received seniority based on the AE quota vacancies, not the earlier promotion date. The impugned seniority list dated 17th January 2020 remained unchanged.

NARESH KUMAR VS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI [LPA-139/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The judgment set aside the dismissal of the appellant's writ petition, which raised issues regarding failure to regularize his position from the date of appointment and the need for an upgraded pay scale. The earlier dismissal was based on the appellant's previous approach to the Central Administrative Tribunal. However, it was noted that some of the appellant's co-workers had their claims granted by the Industrial Tribunal, which the MCD challenged. Reviving the appellant's writ petition allows for a unified adjudication alongside the MCD's challenge, addressing the issues of similarly situated employees.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA VS KMC CONSTRUCTION LTD [FAO(OS) (COMM)-71/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The arbitral award for Claim No. 22 was set aside, allowing the parties to re-agitate their claims. If the respondent chooses to revisit the issue, the newly constituted Arbitral Tribunal will make a decision without being influenced by prior observations. The focus was on the appellant's arguments regarding the payment of interest to the respondent according to the Conditions of Particular Applications and during settlement negotiations.

NAVEEN GUPTA VS SAMTA GUPTA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-261/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

A modified child custody arrangement has been established, granting the appellant custody of both children on weekdays from 8 PM to 7 AM. The respondent will have custody from 12 PM to 8 PM on weekdays, with weekend custody for the respondent from 4 PM on Saturday until 8 PM on Sunday. Both parties must cooperate to implement this schedule, deemed in the children's best interests.

NEETU GULATI VS KAMAL KUMAR GULATI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-210/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The interim maintenance order requiring the husband to pay the wife Rs. 25,000 per month, divided into Rs. 17,500 for the wife and Rs. 7,500 for the child's education, was upheld. The husband must also pay maintenance arrears, with the amount to be determined by the Family Court within three weeks and to be paid within two months after determination. The wife initially sought an increase in the maintenance amount but later withdrew this request and asked for a specific timeframe for the payment of arrears.

NIMIT GANDHI VS HARSHITA G. GANDHI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-283/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Interim maintenance of Rs. 25,000 per month was upheld for the wife under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. The amount was considered reasonable, and the previous support for this interim order by a coordinate bench was acknowledged. The appellant husband, represented by the same counsel, did not provide sufficient grounds for interference with the order.

NIRMAAN MALHOTRA VS TUSHITA KAUL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-180/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Nirmaan Malhotra against the maintenance order in favor of Tushita Kaul was dismissed. The Family Court had ordered Malhotra to pay Rs. 75,000 monthly for maintenance, with a 7% annual increase starting April 1, 2025. Malhotra's claims, including allegations of adultery against Kaul, lacked merit as they were not included in his response to the Family Court. It was noted that he should have sought a review application in the Family Court, which he failed to do.

NIRMAL BANG COMMODITIES PVT. LTD. VS MR. GOUTAM SANTARA [FAO (COMM)-134/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Nirmal Bang Commodities Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed, affirming that the doctrine of 'indoor management' applied. The agent, Mr. Lalit Punetha, had ostensible authority to act on behalf of the appellant, and any grievances regarding his actions should be addressed towards him rather than the respondent, Mr. Goutam Santara, who remitted the money. The arguments based on bank communication were deemed unconvincing, as they relied on deposit slips instead of original physical cheques.

NISHA VS ANJALI MALHOTRA [RFA(COMM)-64/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The summary judgment in favor of Anjali Malhotra was upheld, as Nisha had no real prospect of defending her case due to her default in rent payments since December 2017 and the sealing of the property by municipal authorities for lack of a required license. Nisha's argument for referral to arbitration was rejected because she did not file an application under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act and had previously consented to the jurisdiction by filing a counter-claim. The appeal was dismissed for lack of merit.

NTPC LIMITED VS M/S SURYA DAY PRIVATE LIMITED [LPA-81/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The finding of valid suspicion by NTPC against M/s Surya Day Private Limited was upheld, but the ban period was reduced from three years to the time already served. The respondent did not appeal the observation regarding its conduct. NTPC agreed to entertain the respondent's bids for tenders after the ban period ends on 21.05.2024.

O.P KHANDELWAL VS STEEL AUTHORITY OF INDIA [RFA(COMM)-253/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal was allowed, and the dismissal of the appellant's suit on the basis of limitation was set aside. The right to sue was determined to have accrued on 23rd January 2020, when the appellant received Internal Guidelines that amended the incentive policy. The issue of limitation needed evidentiary support, necessitating a remand to the Commercial Court for a merit-based decision with opportunities for both parties to present evidence.

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT SESSIONS JUDGE HEADQUARTERS AND DELHI AND ANR VS DISTRICT AND SESSIONS COURTS EMPLOYEES WELFARE ASSOCIATION AND ANR [LPA-21/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The interim order permitting members of the District and Sessions Courts Employees Welfare Association to sit for the limited departmental competitive examination for 233 Senior Judicial Assistant posts was set aside. The eligibility of candidates was deemed central to the issue, making interim relief unsuitable. A request was made to resolve the pending writ petition regarding eligibility by February 5, 2024. The examination was postponed by five weeks to February 11, 2024, to allow for final adjudication on the matter.

PADAMSHREE CREATION PVT LTD VS SHEETAL SAREES AND ANR [RFA(COMM)-181/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's dismissal of the appellant's suit was set aside based on the applicability of the doctrine of ratification. Procedural defects that do not undermine the essence of the case should not hinder a just cause. A company may ratify its officer's actions, either explicitly or implicitly. The trial court is directed to allow the appellant to submit the correct Board of Directors' resolution and to proceed accordingly.

PANKAJ OSWAL THROUGH HIS CONSTITUTED ATTORNEY SANJAY WALI VS VIKAS PAHWA [RFA(OS)-14/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The defamation suit filed by the appellant against the respondent senior advocate was dismissed as the allegedly defamatory statement made during judicial proceedings was protected by absolute privilege. The statement was contextually relevant to a suggestion for an amicable settlement by the Sessions Court, falling within the scope of this privilege. The argument that reputation as a fundamental right under Article 21 could override absolute privilege was rejected, as the law recognizes this exception to protect the administration of justice. The suit was deemed not maintainable, leading to the rejection of the plaint.

PARVIN KUMAR JAIN VS ANJU JAIN [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-226/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court can decide applications under Sections 24 and 26 of the Hindu Marriage Act even after a divorce petition is withdrawn. A child is entitled to maintenance until achieving financial independence, including during higher education after reaching majority. Evidence showed the husband concealed his income and assets to evade maintenance obligations, employing tactics that caused delays. The interim maintenance for the wife is increased from ₹1,15,000 to ₹1,45,000 per month from the date of the enhancement application until the divorce petition withdrawal, with the husband liable for 12% per annum interest on maintenance arrears.

PET EDUCATIONAL INDUSTRIES PVT LTD VS ARPIT KAPUR & ANR. [RFA(COMM)-387/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Pet Educational Industries Pvt Ltd will pay Arpit Kapur a total of Rs. 3,80,000, which includes Rs. 40,000 in interest, as full and final settlement of claims. The appeal was disposed of on agreed terms without any disagreement between the judges.

POONAM & ANR. VS NEMO [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-235/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Poonam and Nitin Rana's appeal for a waiver of the six-month waiting period before filing a second motion for divorce by mutual consent was granted. The parties had been separated for over three years, attempted unsuccessful reconciliation through mediation, and resolved all issues related to alimony and child custody. Granting the waiver was deemed appropriate to prevent further prolongation of their difficulties. The Family Court's previous order was set aside, allowing the appellants to proceed with their second motion petition.

PRACHI JOSHI VS SHAILENDER ADHIKARI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-253/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court incorrectly dismissed the appellant's application under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. Section 26 of the DV Act permits the Family Court to address reliefs under Sections 18-22 despite a pending divorce petition. The dismissal was set aside, and the Family Court was instructed to reconsider the application, allowing the respondent to file a reply. Interim directions were maintained, preventing the respondent from creating third-party rights in the disputed properties and assets.

PRAKASH DUTT VS BHAWANA CHOPRA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-60/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order closing the evidence of Prakash Dutt in his divorce petition was set aside. Prakash had paid costs and submitted an affidavit, but his evidence was still closed by the Family Court. Bhawana Chopra received interim maintenance under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, but Prakash defaulted on payments. Prakash is directed to pay Rs. 2,00,000 in arrears for interim maintenance and is allowed to present evidence, contingent upon his attendance at the next Family Court date, with potential for further orders if absent.

PRAMOD GUPTA VS CEMENT CORPORATION OF INDIA & ANR [RFA(OS)-41/2019]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal resulted in the reversal of a single judge's judgment regarding claim no. 4, which addressed the cost of materials left at the site, as the arbitrator's evidence-based decision was upheld. In claim no. 13, the interest rate was corrected from 6% to 9% per annum, reinstating the original terms. Regarding claim no. 14, the reduction of costs awarded by the arbitrator was deemed unjustified due to lack of reasoning.

PRASHANT KUMAR SINHA VS INDIAN STATISTICAL INSTITUTE & ORS. [RFA(COMM)-323/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Prashant Kumar Sinha was dismissed based on the trial court's finding that his suit was barred by limitation. The cause of action for Sinha arose in October 2006 when he first became aware of the alleged plagiarism. His argument that a new cause of action emerged from the establishment of a committee by the Indian Statistical Institute to investigate the plagiarism was rejected. The suit filed in 2022 exceeded the limitation period, with no subsequent events providing a fresh cause of action.

PRASHANT NAGPAL VS ARTI GUPTA AND ORS [RFA(OS)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal filed by Prashant Nagpal has been disposed of following an agreed settlement between the parties. Prashant Nagpal will vacate the suit property and hand over possession to the respondents by 30.06.2024. He is required to pay occupation charges of Rs. 75,000 per month starting from February 2024, with the first payment due by 28.02.2024 and subsequent payments due by the 7th of each month. The original suit will be disposed of, and all proceedings between Nagpal and the respondents will be terminated upon his compliance with the terms. An undertaking by way of an affidavit is to be filed by Nagpal within 5 days to confirm adherence to the settlement.

PREETI AGARWAL VS AGNI SHEKHAR PANDEY [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-218/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant/mother may either represent herself or appoint her brother as her power of attorney in Family Court proceedings. The Family Court Judge has the option to request assistance from the Delhi Legal Services Authority (South) to provide an advocate for support in marshalling facts, presenting evidence, and advancing arguments.

PRIYA DARSHAN GUPTA VS ANOOP GUPTA [FAO (COMM)-38/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant, Priya Darshan Gupta, was directed to deposit Rs. 50 lakhs in a fixed deposit for the respondent, Anoop Gupta, with an extended deadline of 8 weeks instead of 4. Triable issues were identified to protect the respondent's interests during the trial. The appellant's intention to purchase diagnostic equipment was noted, with future applications to be considered by the trial court after hearings.

PRIYANKA MATTOO VS TAROK BISWAS [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-79/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the Family Court order dated 03.01.2024 succeeded, with the appellant required to pay Rs. 2,500 in costs. The appellant is permitted to participate in the cross-examination scheduled for 24.05.2024, and prior costs imposed on 21.08.2023 are set aside. In a separate case, although there was significant delay in filing an appeal dated 14.08.2024, no further directions were issued as the appellant's counsel indicated an intent to seek appropriate remedies. This matter involved two appeals against different Family Court orders.

PUNEET KUMAR VS ANJU KUMARI & ANR. [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-13/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The enhanced maintenance of Rs. 15,000 per month for the son is payable from April 1, 2024. This decision follows an analysis of a previous Supreme Court judgment which did not challenge the enhancement of the son's maintenance. The prior orders of the Family Court were set aside.

PUNKAJJ SHARMA VS HIMANI SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-33/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Punkajj Sharma will pay Rs. 13 lakhs to Himani Sharma in two installments as a full and final settlement of all claims. In exchange, Himani Sharma will withdraw her pending appeals and the domestic violence case against him. The consent terms of the settlement were recorded and the appeal disposed of.

R S TANWAR VS JOINT SECRETARY AND ADDL. REGISTRAR, CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION & ANR. [LPA-253/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The penalty of Rs. 25,000 imposed on R.S. Tanwar by the Central Information Commission for failing to provide complete information was set aside. Tanwar served as the link Public Information Officer for only two months when he initially responded to the RTI application and was not responsible for subsequent failures to comply with orders. Penalties under the RTI Act apply only to intentional violations, which did not occur in this case. Additionally, Tanwar was no longer the PIO at the time of the later orders, making the penalty unjustified.

RAHUL AGGARWAL VS AARTI AGGARWAL & ANR. [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-184/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal filed by Rahul Aggarwal regarding the Family Court's order was disposed of. The Family Court allowed Aarti Aggarwal to withdraw their child from a school in Delhi and enroll him in a school in Meerut due to her job change. It also established provisions for the father to interact with the child through WhatsApp calls on weekends. Additionally, the Family Court was directed to address the father's pending application for physical interaction with the child during summer vacations, with both parties required to appear on 03.06.2024 for this consideration.

RAJ KUMAR HINGORANI VS SHILPI SRIVASTAV [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-228/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The terms of the Memorandum of Settlement (MOS) between the parties are lawful. Upon the appellant making the final payment, the respondent must withdraw all complaints lodged against the appellant before the Director General, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, Delhi, within 3 days of receiving the payment. Both parties are required to adhere to the terms of the MOS, and the pending application is closed.

RAJ PAL SINGH VS SMT URMILA DEVI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-146/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Family Court's interim order awarded the wife Rs. 25,000 monthly for maintenance and Rs. 50,000 for litigation expenses, based on the husband's income exceeding Rs. 1.2 lakhs, his financial obligations, the wife's illiteracy, and her responsibilities for their daughter. The maintenance amount was deemed reasonable given the husband's secure government job. The husband's concerns about the burden of maintenance arrears were acknowledged, with the suggestion to request an extension for payment from the Family Court.

RAJESH KAPOOR VS LD PRINCIPAL DISTRICT AND SESSIONS JUDGE (HQS), TIS HAZARI COURTS [LPA-407/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal filed by Rajesh Kapoor was dismissed regarding the judgment dated 31.05.2022 and the circular and order related to his application for earned leave to visit his wife in Zimbabwe, which was rejected on 31.01.2022. Kapoor later traveled to Harare on 08.07.2022 without permission due to a medical emergency. The disciplinary proceedings initiated for his absence during that time are not part of the appeal, and the closure of the appeal does not impact the outcome of those proceedings.

RAJESH KUMAR LALAN GOSWAMI VS UNION OF INDIA AND ANR. [W.P.(C)-749/2020]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The petitioner, claiming to import guns for entertainment purposes, must submit a comprehensive representation to the Ministry of Home Affairs with relevant materials. The petitioner argues that the guns do not qualify as "firearms" under the Arms Act, 1959, as they do not release a projectile, and therefore no license is needed. The Ministry is required to respond with a speaking order within 8 weeks.

RAJIV BAJAJ AND ANR VS SURUCHI BHASIN @ SURUCHI BAJAJ AND ANR. [RFA(OS)-27/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal against the judgment dated 24.04.2024 was dismissed due to the appellants' failure to comply with the terms of a Settlement Agreement (SA), particularly concerning the Amar Colony property. The appellants did not disclose their intent to sell the property to a relative, indicating an attempt to circumvent the settlement. The observations made in the original judgment were deemed justified, and no grounds for interference with the judgment and decree were found.

RAKESH GUPTA VS VIPIN MITTAL [FAO (COMM)-89/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Rakesh Gupta against an ex-parte decree in favor of Vipin Mittal was dismissed. Reasons for Gupta's non-appearance, including incomplete service of case papers and a family tragedy, were deemed insufficient to overturn the decree. Gupta had previously appeared through counsel and had opportunities to inspect the case file or obtain necessary documents to file a written statement but did not take action.

RAKESH KUMAR SHARMA VS DELHI HIGH COURT THROUGH REGISTRAR GENERAL [W.P.(C)-3167/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The petitioner's Travelling Allowance (TA) claim, initially rejected for being filed beyond the 60-day limitation period, should be processed and reimbursed. The 2021 Office Memorandum extended the filing period from 60 to 180 days, and due to COVID-19 disruptions, limitation periods for quasi-judicial proceedings were extended until 31.05.2022. As the TA claim was submitted on 16.03.2022, it fell within the extended timeframe and should be accepted.

RENU SHARMA VS MC SHARMA & ANR [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-306/2018]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Two appeals were adjudicated regarding Renu Sharma (RS) and MC Sharma (MCS). The Family Court erred in denying maintenance to RS, resulting in MCS being directed to pay interim maintenance of Rs. 21,000 per month to RS and Rs. 10,000 per month to their daughter Gaurika Sharma (GS), in addition to MCS covering GS's educational expenses. In the divorce petition, the allegation of adultery against RS was not proven, but the marriage was dissolved on the grounds of cruelty.

RITA.NIMESH VS ANIL.NIMESH [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-78/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Anil Nimesh is required to continue paying Rs. 9,000 per month for the interim maintenance of two children until the issue is resolved in ongoing proceedings under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. A family court previously dismissed an application for interim maintenance based on the appellant's salary of Rs. 53,000 per month, while the respondent was voluntarily paying Rs. 4,500 per month for each child. The concerned court is urged to conclude the interim maintenance proceedings within four weeks from the next hearing date.

RITU MATTA VS RAJESH MATTA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-77/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order dated 16.01.2024 that closed Ritu Matta's right to lead evidence was set aside. Rajesh Matta had no objection to Ritu leading evidence. Both parties will be the only witnesses. Ritu must file her affidavit of evidence within one week, as Rajesh has already submitted his. A date for Ritu's cross-examination and her opportunity to cross-examine Rajesh will be scheduled.

RUCHI WADHAWAN VS AMIT WALI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-261/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant wife's petition for divorce on grounds of cruelty was granted after noting over 10 years of separation and a complete trust deficit between the parties, indicating the marriage was irreparable. The long period of continuous separation was recognized as mental cruelty, and it was concluded that continuing the marriage would cause further trauma. The marriage between the appellant and the respondent was dissolved.

SANJEEN SAHNI VS MANMEET SAHNI [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-281/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The family court's decision to restore possession of a vehicle to the respondent was upheld. The application under Order XII Rule 6 CPC was found valid, and the appellant's counter-claim for vehicle registration in her name was dismissed. It was noted that the suit's aims were aligned with Section 8 of the Specific Relief Act, and the counter-claim could not proceed without establishing that the registration was wrongfully obtained. The appeals by the appellant were dismissed.

SANJU SRIVASTAVA VS KUMAR UJJAWAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-65/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Divorce was granted under Section 13(1)(ia) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, with observations regarding cruelty against the respondent expunged. A settlement agreement between the parties, where the appellant consented to the divorce decree in exchange for the removal of the cruelty remarks, was accepted as lawful, resulting in a modification of the judgment.

SARADA CONSTRUCTION VS NATIONAL HIGHWAYS AUTHORITY OF INDIA [FAO(OS) (COMM)-291/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Sarada Construction against the dismissal of its Section 34 petition challenging the arbitral award was dismissed. Sarada Construction's claim for payment for extra work was deemed invalid because the agreement required written confirmation for any variation in work ordered by the Independent Engineer, which was not obtained. Reliance on oral instructions from the Independent Engineer did not align with the agreement's terms, and the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) was justified in withholding the claimed payments. The decision of the learned Single Judge was upheld.

SH SUSHIL KUMAR VS SMT ARCHANA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-172/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the husband against the Family Court's order for interim maintenance of Rs. 10,000 per month to the wife was dismissed. The husband previously earned Rs. 75,000 monthly but is now making only Rs. 12,000, leading to suspicions of intentional income reduction to evade maintenance. The court considered the wife's need to support herself and their minor child and concluded that the husband has the capability to earn a reasonable income, indicating a deliberate decision to lower his earnings.

SH VIJAY KUMAR VS SMT NISHU [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-240/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Divorce was granted to Smt. Nishu under Section 13(1)(ia) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, on grounds of cruelty. The marriage, lasting over 12 years, was deemed irreparable due to a lack of cohabitation for more than a decade. Sh Vijay Kumar's claim of willingness to have the respondent live with him was dismissed, as she had appealed against a prior petition he filed, which was still pending. The judgment on the grounds of cruelty remained unchallenged.

SH. MOHD. RAFI CHOWDHARY VS MISAAL HAIRAT [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-255/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The family court's decision to grant the dissolution of marriage under the Dissolution of Muslim Marriages Act was upheld. Evidence showed the appellant failed to provide maintenance, threatened remarriage, and subjected the respondent to cruelty, supported by unrebutted testimony. The appeal was dismissed, and the delay in filing was not condoned.

SH. NITIN JAIN VS SH. NITIN SHARMA [RFA(COMM)-49/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant agreed to vacate the property by November 30, 2024, pay 50% of arrears by March 31, 2024, and the remaining 50% by April 30, 2024. Additionally, the appellant must pay current occupation charges within one week. The execution petition filed by the respondent will be closed. The focus was on the agreed terms for resolving the tenancy dispute.

SHAMBHAVI SHARMA VS HONBLE HIGH COURT OF DELHI [W.P.(C)-4493/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Shambhavi Sharma and other candidates were granted additional time to prepare for the examination due to their inclusion in the list of successful candidates on March 21, 2024. To address their concerns and accommodate the urgency to conclude the examination process by August 5, 2024, the examination dates were shifted to April 13-14, 2024.

SHANTALA PALAT VS JAYAKUMAR MENON [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-7/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The father was granted increased access to the minor child, with the overnight stay provision modified to depend on the child's willingness. If the child declines to stay overnight, shorter day visits will be arranged instead. This decision pertains to an individual case.

SHASHVAT NAKRANI VS ASHNEER GROVER [FAO(OS) (COMM)-30/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Shashvat Nakrani and Ashneer Grover reached a consensus to expedite the trial. Directions included appointing a court commissioner to record evidence within 8 weeks, filing affidavits of evidence, and expediting issue framing and final arguments. The court commissioner is to receive a fee of Rs. 3 lakhs, with shared secretarial and out-of-pocket costs. Questions of law raised in the appeal remain open for future examination.

SHEKHAR SHARMA VS PURNIMA SHARMA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-102/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Shekhar Sharma for maintenance from his wife, Purnima Sharma, was dismissed due to insufficient evidence supporting his claimed monthly income of Rs. 8,000, contrasted by substantial unexplained credit entries in his bank account. The findings were based on the evidence presented, and the appeal was also noted to be filed with a delay of 172 days.

SHELLY JHURANEY VS AMIT JHURANEY [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-1/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The marriage lasting 3.5 months was dissolved on the grounds of desertion, while the claim of cruelty was dismissed. An earlier settlement attempt involved the respondent paying Rs. 4.5 lakhs to the appellant, which was deposited with the court. A final settlement was recorded, where the respondent is to pay Rs. 30 lakhs to the appellant within 4 weeks, and the Rs. 4.5 lakhs will be released to the respondent. The marriage will be dissolved as per the previous judgment.

SHILPA SOOD VS VIVEK MALHOTRA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-96/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The order for a minor child to have unsupervised interaction with the father was set aside based on reports from a court-appointed counselor and child psychologist indicating the child's comfort improved with the mother present. It was determined that unsupervised interaction was not in the child's best interest. The pending application for overnight access to the child will be decided considering input from the AIIMS child psychologist, without impacting the lower court's decision on that application.

SHIV LAL DODA VS PERNORD RICARD INDIA PVT. LTD. & ANR. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-92/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Shiv Lal Doda against the dismissal of his application to reject the plaint filed by Pernord Ricard India Pvt. Ltd. was dismissed. The surety/guarantee document submitted was not considered flawed due to the absence of a liability cap, and inconsistencies in signatures did not negate the existence of a cause of action. The decision to dismiss the appeal was unanimous among the judges.

SHIVI BANSAL VS GAURAV BANSAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-219/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the wife against the dismissal of her application to reject the husband's divorce petition was dismissed. The timeline did not fully establish desertion, but allegations of cruelty appeared viable. A plaint cannot be partially rejected, so the divorce petition was allowed to proceed. The alleged adulterer was deemed neither a necessary nor a proper party to the proceedings.

SHRIRAM EPC LTD. THROUGH AUTHORISED SIGNATORY SH. T.A. RAMACHANDRAN VS M/S APEX CRANE COMPANY [RFA(COMM)-349/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Shriram EPC Ltd. appealed against a decree favoring M/s Apex Crane Company. The judgment modified the trial court's decision by excluding pre-suit interest of 12% per annum from May 23, 2017, to October 6, 2020. A fresh decree will be prepared reflecting this modification, and the appellant is required to pay the decretal amount within eight weeks.

SHRUTI KATIYAR VS REGISTRAR GENERAL, DELHI HIGH COURT [W.P.(C)-2344/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The petitioner was allowed to challenge the answer for question no. 54 after other candidates filed objections. The correct answer was identified as option (1), rather than option (3), as the question did not require the defendant's claim to arise from the same transaction, a necessary condition for an "equitable set-off." This error led to the petitioner receiving marks for question no. 54, while the results of candidates who already qualified based on the existing answer key remained unchanged. The judgment benefits all candidates who selected option (1) as the correct answer.

SHYAM LAL BANSAL VS NIRMAL BANSAL & ORS. [RFA(OS)-30/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

A preliminary decree of partition was issued, declaring the appellant and the respondents/plaintiffs each hold a 50% share in the suit property. Arguments regarding non-joinder of parties and prior partition between the appellant and the late Krishan Kumar Bansal were rejected. The Will of Krishan Kumar Bansal, which transferred property rights to the respondents/plaintiffs, was proved valid, establishing that the property remained undivided between the parties.

SIDDHARTH GUJRAL VS NATASHA GUJRAL [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-178/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The decision to dismiss the husband's appeal against the Family Court's order in the matrimonial dispute was upheld. The wife's explanations concerning her employment, bank accounts, and joint account with her mother were accepted as reasonable. It was concluded that she had not deliberately withheld material information. Costs of Rs. 20,000 were awarded to the wife.

SMT ARTI ARORA VS SH DIWAKAR SINGH [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-26/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The decree of divorce granted by the Family Court is sustained, but the observations regarding cruelty and desertion are expunged. This action follows a settlement between the parties through mediation, and the husband has since remarried. The decision aims to honor the settlement while addressing the wife's concerns about the previous judgment's remarks.

SMT SIMRAN BATRA @ LATA BATRA VS SH. DAVINDER KUMAR KAPOOR [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-195/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

An appeal was allowed regarding a dismissal of a divorce petition based on cruelty and desertion. The focus on fault during a long separation of nearly 20 years, without children, was deemed incorrect. The prolonged separation was recognized as a form of mental cruelty. The previous judgment denying relief was set aside, leading to the dissolution of the marriage.

SMT. GEETA SINGH & ANR. VS THE SUB DIVISIONAL MAGISTRATE (KAPASHERA) & ANR. [LPA-99/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The Sub-Divisional Magistrate (SDM) lacked jurisdiction to order the installation of gates in the Kapashera area, as the land had been urbanized and was no longer Gram Sabha land. The arguments regarding legal provisions and a relevant circular were deemed irrelevant due to the jurisdiction issue. The matter was remitted to the Deputy Commissioner, Najafgarh Zone, who has the authority to address the situation under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act.

SOURAV NARULA VS NAVEEN KUMAR & ANR. [RFA(COMM)-60/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the defendant against the summary judgment in favor of the plaintiff was dismissed. The evidence established the plaintiff's investment of Rs. 30,00,000 in the partnership firm, and the defendant admitted to Rs. 12,00,000 being unpaid. The defendant's delays in filing and re-filing the appeal, totaling 297 days and 17 days respectively, were deemed unjustified, leading to the dismissal of the application for condonation of delay. Consequently, the appeal and related applications were rendered infructuous.

SPICEJET LIMITED VS SUNBIRD FRANCE 02 S.A.S. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-182/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Lessors Team France and Sunbird France may sue SpiceJet in the courts of England or in the jurisdiction where the leased engines are located, based on the asymmetric jurisdiction clause in the lease agreements. SpiceJet's arguments regarding unstamped agreements, improper valuation of suits, and lack of pre-litigation mediation were rejected. SpiceJet is permitted to raise objections related to jurisdiction and governing law in its written statement for consideration by the suit court.

SUBHASH CHAND VS DEEPA [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-88/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appellant's appeal for divorce on the grounds of cruelty was dismissed due to insufficient evidence. The appellant, having suffered a paralytic attack, did not testify, and his brother's testimony lacked personal knowledge of events post-2016, rendering it hearsay. The allegations of cruelty were deemed vague and not specific enough to support a divorce claim. Additionally, the long duration of the marriage and the respondent's status as a homemaker with no independent means were considered, leading to the dismissal of the appeal.

SUCHITRA RAY & ANR. VS SUMITRA SARKAR & ORS. [RFA(OS)-28/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Suchitra Ray and another regarding the partition of a four-floor superstructure was dismissed. The main issue was the division of the superstructure by meets and bounds, which lacked a specific site plan from the appellants to support feasibility. The appellants were permitted to file a review petition to further address this matter, with a directive for it to be decided after hearing both parties and considering the relevant legal framework and bye-laws.

SURENDER GUPTA AND ANR VS RAJAT WADHWA [EFA(OS) (COMM)-16/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal dismissed regarding an execution petition. The appellants deposited Rs. 1.40 crores with the court registry, which was released to the respondent, Mr. Wadhwa, against indemnity. The appellants have a pending petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, in the district court. It was noted that no interference with the previous order was warranted, and the respondent was urged to transfer the subject property to alleviate the financial burden on the appellants. Observations made do not prevent either party from pursuing further legal actions.

SURENDER KUMAR VS LATE SH. DHANI RAM THROUGH LRS AND ORS & ORS. [RFA(OS)-17/2021]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal concerning a suit for partition and possession of ancestral properties was allowed, as the rejection under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure was deemed inappropriate. The appellant's amended plaint included sufficient averments regarding the existence of a Hindu Undivided Family. The prior judgment was set aside, and the suit was restored to its original number for further proceedings.

TARUN KUMAR GOYAL VS MS SB SALES CORPORATION [FAO (COMM)-100/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's order closing Tarun Kumar Goyal's right to defend the suit was set aside due to curable defects in his timely filed written statement. An opportunity was granted to rectify the defects in the statement of truth and the affidavit of admission and denial of documents. The Local Commissioner was instructed to hold the matter beyond the previously set date, with parties scheduled to appear before the trial court on the next date.

TEJINDER SINGH VS BEVERLEY SINGH [MAT.APP.(F.C.)-291/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

Tejinder Singh filed two appeals concerning orders from the Family Court. Additional documents submitted by Beverley Singh will remain on record. Tejinder Singh can file his affidavit of evidence by 24.09.2024, with cross-examinations scheduled for 30.09.2024. A Local Commissioner can be requested for Tejinder Singh's examination due to his advanced age and medical condition. The deadline for the Family Court to issue a final judgment has been extended to 28.02.2025. Tejinder Singh is required to pay Rs. 1 lakh in costs to Beverley Singh for his conduct. The appeals are part of a batch matter.

THAKAR DASS BHATIA THROUGH SON CHETAN BHATIA VS SURESH KUMAR BHATIA & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-5/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by Thakar Dass Bhatia concerning the property B-77, Chander Nagar, Ghaziabad, UP was dismissed. The property, owned by the appellant, was used as collateral for a loan by a partnership firm. The dismissal was based on the finding that the release of the charge could not occur simply because the property did not belong to the partnership firm, as the appellant had voluntarily created a charge on it. The bank will not release the charge without an arrangement between the borrower and the appellant.

THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS & ANR. VS SYNDICATE INNOVATIONS INTERNATIONAL LIMITED & ORS. [LPA-695/2022]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The appeal by the Ministry of Home Affairs and the Director General of Foreign Trade was dismissed regarding the release of import consignments of 'frames' and 'slides' of handguns to Syndicate Innovations International Limited. An import license (Form X) issued to Syndicate indicated that separate licenses were not necessary for pre-fitted parts. There was no violation of the import license since the definition of 'parts and components' does not mandate individual licenses for pre-fitted parts when a complete firearm license exists. Permission under Rule 57(4) was deemed unnecessary, as Form X served as implicit permission. The regulatory framework for the arms and ammunition industry was noted to lack clarity, with a call for streamlining the application procedures for licensing.

TRIPURARI KUMAR JHA VS FACULTY OF LAW, UNIVERSITY OF DELHI & ANR. [LPA-703/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The University improperly canceled the appellant's admission to the LLB course due to attendance shortfall without investigating the reasons for absence. The University has the authority to readmit students who were detained in the first term for such reasons, in accordance with Article 5(b) of Ordinance IV, which takes precedence over amendments in Appendix II to Ordinance V. The Bar Council of India advises against requiring students to undergo fresh admissions for attendance shortages arising from genuine circumstances like illness. The decision to dismiss the appellant's writ petition was set aside, and the University was instructed to readmit the appellant with the 2024-2027 batch, considering the genuine context of attendance issues.

TRISQUARE SWITCHGEARS PVT LTD VS SH SANYAM KAUSHIK [RFA(COMM)-86/2024]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher

The trial court's judgment in favor of Trisquare Switchgears Pvt Ltd for the recovery of Rs. 3,48,420/- plus 12% per annum interest was upheld. The appellant's claim of lack of territorial jurisdiction was dismissed, as the appellant's registered office was in Delhi. No evidence was provided to support the appellant's assertion of poor quality goods. The interest rate of 12% per annum was deemed reasonable.

TWENTY FIVE SOUTH REALTY LTD VS CHINSHA PROPERTY PRIVATE LIMITED & ORS. [FAO(OS) (COMM)-219/2023]

Judges: Justice Amit Bansal, Justice Rajiv Shakdher
